A petition seeking termination of a parent and child relationship may be filed in juvenile court. Such petition shall conform to the requirements of RCW 13.34.040 (as now or hereafter amended) and shall allege:

(1) That the child has been found to be a dependent child under RCW 13.34.030(2); and
(2) That the court has entered a dispositional order pursuant to RCW 13.34.130; and
(3) That the child has been removed or will, at the time of the hearing, have been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency under RCW 13.34.030(2); and
(4) That the services ordered under RCW 13.34.130 have been offered or provided and all necessary services, reasonably available, capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been offered or provided; and

(6) That continuation of the parent and child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for early integration into a stable and permanent home;

(7) In lieu of the allegations in subsections (1) through (6) of this section, the petition may allege that the child was found under such circumstances that the (\textit{whereabouts of the child's parent are unknown and no (parent has claimed) person has acknowledged paternity or maternity and requested custody of the child within two months after the child was found}."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Creswell failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 8; nays, 41.

Voting yea: Senators Benitz, Craswell, Johnson, Metcalf, Owen, Patterson, Rasmussen, Stratton - 8.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Deccio, Owen, Tanner, Craswell, Pullen, Lee, Zimmerman, Hansen and Stratton be adopted:

On page 15, line 4, after "safety" insert "AND PROVIDED FURTHER. That nothing in this section shall be used to prohibit the reasonable use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Rasmussen, I assume when you use the term 'reasonable use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline' that you are thinking in terms of the statutory section that provides the definition of corporal punishment—reasonable corporal punishment that is an exception, or a defense to the crime of assault that was worked on by the Senate last year?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, I don't assume that corporal punishment is beating someone to death—no. But, I do think, Senator Talmadge, and this is not really an answer to your question, that a little corporal punishment early in life would maybe stop some of the murders and mayhem that we are having this day and age by the younger generation. I call it the 'Spock' generation. The thing that bothers me and all the law authorities say that we are getting a very violent juvenile group and the reason they are violent, of course, is because they were not started in life right, in my opinion."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Rasmussen, don't you think that if a child is abused and beaten and spanked that he then, becomes an abusive parent—that person becomes abusive?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't think so, no, Senator Wojahn."

Senator Wojahn: "Do you think it's all right to spank even if you spank in the wrong places and hard? You think it's okay to spank a child?"

Senator Rasmussen: "You have to be reasonable as defined and I think that all children don't need it. Every once in a while a child needs it. I didn't prune my apple tree down to the stub because I was whipping my kids. Once in a while, they needed a little stroke—it impressed on them that some of the things they were doing were wrong. Now, whether you do it with a switch, a ruler, as they do in school, or a swat with the flat of the hand, it improves the disposition."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Rasmussen, Deccio, Owen, Craswell, Pullen, Lee, Zimmerman, Tanner, Stratton and Hansen.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Croswell moved that the following amendment by Senators Croswell and Owen be adopted:

On page 17, beginning on line 25, strike "licensed practitioner of the healing arts" and insert "physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Croswell, I haven't read this whole thing, but what about a teacher?"

Senator Croswell: "Senator Deccio, I think you are referring to the section of the law that says who must report a suspected case of child abuse and that is teachers and all health professionals. This is a different section of the bill that's talking about the one particular incident where child abuse is automatically substantiated. That means CPS doesn't have to check any further to see whether child abuse actually did occur. That's where they can call in a physician and he can check the child and based on his expert medical advice, then the case is automatically substantiated without any further checking, or talking to people, or further investigation. That's where the language is used that we are addressing here."

Senator Deccio: "What about a dentist or a chiropractor?"

Senator Croswell: "The way the bill is drafted now, it would say the expert medical opinion of dentists, chiropractors, optometrists, podiatrists, pharmacists, x-ray technicians—you name it. All of those people could, with their expert medical opinion, automatically substantiate a case. I don't think that's what anybody intended. I think they were talking about doctors, licensed physicians and osteopaths. I believe we want somebody who has studied medicine, so that they can give expert medical opinions."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Craswell and Owen.

The motion by Senator Craswell carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Craswell moved that the following amendments by Senators Craswell and Owen be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 17, line 29, after "unless" strike "oth"
On page 17, line 29, after "practitioner" strike "and" and insert "or"
On page 17, line 30, after "services" strike "agree" and insert "determine"
On page 17, line 31, after "incorrect," strike all material down to and including "department," on line 32

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the question be divided.
Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Rasmussen that the question be divided.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendments on page 17, line 29; page 17, line 29 and page 17, line 30, will be considered simultaneously and the amendment on page 17, line 31, will be considered separately.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Craswell and Owen on page 17, line 29; page 17, line 29 and page 17, line 30.

The motion by Senator Craswell carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On page 24, after line 5, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each local office of the division of children and family services, or its successor, within the department of social and health services shall establish an accountability board to review petitions regarding the decisions, conduct, or performance of the employees of the local office.

(2) Members of each accountability board shall be appointed by a committee consisting of:

(a) A member of the legislative authority of each county in the office's service area; and
(b) A member of the legislative authority of each city within the office's service area.

(3) The committee shall accept applications for membership on the accountability board from any persons who (a) are not employed by the division of children and family services or any other child care agency, and (b) have not had under the care, custody, or control of the division of children and family services within the previous two years any children of their own or other children entrusted to their care. In making appointments to the board, the committee shall consider the criminal history of the applicant, who shall consent to release of such information to the committee.

(4) Members of the board shall not serve in excess of one year unless other applicants are not available. The committee may dismiss a member of the board for good cause, including the improper release of any confidential information obtained in the course of the board's work.

(5) Each accountability board may adopt bylaws or rules governing its procedures consistent with this section and section 19 of this act. The department shall assign an employee to serve as a resource person for each board."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

(1) A board of accountability established under section 18 of this act shall review any petition alleging wrongdoing based on the decisions, performance, or conduct of a local employee of the division of children and family services if:

(a) The petition is brought by a parent whose child has been removed from the home by action of an employee of the division and the child is currently in an out-of-home placement. At the time the child is removed, the department shall directly notify the child's parents, orally or in writing, that a petition may be filed with the accountability board as provided in this section;

(b) The parent has first registered a written complaint with the area manager of the division office involved in the case. The area manager shall respond in writing to the complaint within twenty days. If the response is not satisfactory or timely, the parent may then petition the board.

(c) The parent states in the petition the names and ages of the children involved, the specific wrongdoing by the division employee, the desired action, and what steps the parent has taken to resolve the problem. A copy of the complaint to the area manager and response, if any, shall be attached to the petition.

(2) The board may provide forms for petitions but shall accept a petition in any form that substantially meets the requirements of this section. Following acceptance of the petition, the board may, at its discretion, review any information in the file, and conduct interviews with the parents and division employees. All information reviewed by the board shall be confidential.

(3) The board shall respond in writing to the parent within forty-five days from the date a valid petition is filed. In its response, the board shall state whether or not it believes there was any wrongdoing based on the division employee's decisions, performance, or conduct. The board shall recommend what action, if any, is indicated, which may include returning the child to the parent or recommending a reprimand, suspension, termination, or further training of an employee. A copy of the board's response shall become part of the division's file on the case, one copy shall be sent to the court having jurisdiction on the case, and one copy shall be sent to the director of the division.

(4) The remedies provided by this section are cumulative and are in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

Debate ensued.
Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: “Senator Creswell, in some of hearings we had, the CPS workers found it difficult to respond because they keep the case file confidential. Would it be your intent with this committee, that the committee would review in detail, every part of the record that the CPS case worker has in deciding what was happening in the case?”

Senator Creswell: “I believe the accountability board could review the details of the case so that they could make an adequate decision.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Creswell and Owen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Creswell carried and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 19.

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Wojahn, on page 18, lines 14 and 15 of the bill in subsection 12, it indicates that the Department of Social and Health Services may establish intake and assessment criteria and identify risks in order to deliver appropriate services. Is it your understanding of that particular section that the Department may only establish those standards and not actually implement them?"

Senator Wojahn: "No. I think that they will not implement them if there is a problem out there and given the necessary funding, they should be able to assess and come up with the right assessment on occasion. I don't think they should be allowed to assess and then ignore."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5659.

(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making all or a portion of such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;
(c) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of classification continuance. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.120. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all additional taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the additional tax has been paid. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (3) of this section to the county board of equalization. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals;

(d) Determination by the reviewing official. after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that all or a portion of such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for the purposes under which it was granted classification.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of all or a portion of such land from current use classification, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal, the assessor shall revalue the affected land with reference to full market value on the date of removal from classification. Both the assessed valuation before and after the removal of classification shall be listed and taxes shall be allocated according to that part of the year to which each assessed valuation applies. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, an additional tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the additional tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such an additional tax and the treasurer shall mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such additional tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the property tax paid as property "devoted to low-income housing" and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable for the seven years last past had the land not been so classified; plus

(b) Interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the land had been assessed at a value without regard to this chapter.

(4) Additional tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from current use classification under this chapter and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognition, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation, or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. Any additional tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The additional tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) A taking under exercise of the power of eminent domain or a transfer to a condemning authority under threat of an exercise of the power of eminent domain;

(b) A transfer to a use that is exempt from property taxes;

(c) A change in the law or land use regulations that precludes use of the property for low income housing;

(d) Destruction of the property, or such severe damage as to render the premises untenable, through a natural disaster, such as flood, landslide, or earthquake, or a calamity beyond the owner’s control, such as fire.

Renumber the remaining sections and correct internal references accordingly.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5321 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Fleming, I’m not quite sure what is going on here, but let me ask you this question. If a developer built an apartment house in a low income area--let's say its value is a million dollars, and then he built one in the—I don’t know the wealthy district in Seattle—but let's say in the Lake Washington area, for a million dollars, would there be a difference in the assessed value of those two million dollar apartment houses?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator, there are certain criteria set up in here and you’d have to meet certain kinds of criteria to be able to get into this area and those criteria would say that is okay, once you’ve met those criteria. For instance, much of this would be used in dilapidated areas—run down areas down town. If that property was being used at its current value, it is my understanding, if you’ve met these criteria, then you would apply and the local government entities would review this from those criteria. Once you apply for that, then if you built that apartment, regardless of what the amount you have spent on the cost or value of it. I can't say what the value would be, but once you've built those and as long as you've met the criteria, that a certain percentage of those in that particular area were used for low income housing then you would be assessed at that current use, rather than what it could be used—its highest and its best use.

"If, in fact, once you decided to come out of that, then you would be required to stay in there for ten years. You give notice at the end of eight; you are required to stay there for ten. If you got out of there before, you would be required to pay interest, penalties and back taxes. It is no different than what you do with your farm land at this point in this time. Whether you talk about a million dollar house, or whether you talk about a three million dollar farm, there is no difference as long as you keep it in that use."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Deccio and von Reichbauer were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5321.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5113, by Senators Peterson, Bender, McDermott, Kreidler, Vognild, Fleming, Bauer, DeJamatt, Stratton, Garrett, Rasmussen and Moore

Reducing auto insurance rates based on safety belt and passive restraint usage.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hansen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5113 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5113 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Bender moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 24, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The insurance commissioner shall effect a reduction in motor vehicle insurance premiums that reflects the savings attributable to the mandatory use of seat belts, child restraints, and other lifesaving devices. The reduction shall take effect when the statewide usage of seat belts exceeds fifty-five percent. The reduction shall be not less than fifteen percent of the average motor vehicle premium for the previous year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The motor vehicle insurance rate reductions required by this chapter apply to insurance policies issued or renewed after July 1, 1987.

(2) All policies issued that include a rate reduction pursuant to this chapter shall identify the amount of reduction and the reasons for the reduction.

(3) Any insured who has been cited for violation of the mandatory seat belt or child restraint law shall not qualify for a rate reduction for the next policy period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commissioner, in consultation with the Washington traffic safety commission, shall adopt, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, definitions of "air bags" and "passive restraint devices" and any other terms the commissioner determines to be necessary. The commissioner may adopt other rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW for the implementation of this chapter."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Bender, would you tell us some of the differences between your amendment and the basic bill? I think the words you used in your speech could apply equally well to the bill or your amendment. Perhaps, you could clarify the differences?"

Senator Bender: "The basic difference is that we are mandating that there is a fifteen percent reduction in the premiums and the bill, basically, leaves it up to the Insurance Commissioner's office. He can either give you five percent or there can be no percentage whatsoever. It, basically, is in the hands of the Insurance Commissioner's office."

Further debate ensued.
Senator Bender demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Lee was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Bender.

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8201, by Senators Talmadge, Moore, Gaspard, Bender, Wojahn, Fleming, Kreidler and Garrett

Providing for special one-day sessions of the senate to confirm gubernatorial appointments.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Halsan, Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8201 was substituted for Senate Joint Resolution No. 8201 and the substitute resolution was placed on second reading and read the second time.
On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended. Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8201 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Talmadge, there have been some thoughts that this step would be a step toward a full-time Legislature. Do you see this as that kind of a step?"

Senator Talmadge: "Not at all, Senator. The sense of it is, in fact, the preservation of the citizen Legislature. It would permit us to be more diligent about how we handle the gubernatorial appointments and might be able to clear those from the agenda, so that we can get our business done more expeditiously in our one-hundred five and sixty day regular sessions."

Senator Zimmerman: "You then sincerely are not considering the fact that we would be able to call ourselves back and would, most likely, be calling ourselves back for sessions—real sessions—at least sessions to do this particular activity, that would not tend to be one more reason for all of us to be in Olympia and for having something to do and, therefore, finding ourselves more and more drawn to this great city?"

Senator Talmadge: "Not that I can see, Senator, because we're here for committee weekends and this would be something that would enable us, during a committee weekend, to consider the gubernatorial appointments. I don't see it as anything other than support of the citizen Legislature concept that we have."

Senator Zimmerman: "The committee weekends, of course, are not mandatory in the sense of people being here and there are a certain number of people who probably do not make committee weekends, but would feel rather compelled. Would you not feel compelled to be here for a regular session called, when so stated?"

Senator Talmadge: "Well, Senator, I would certainly hope that members would be here for committee weekends, because the committees are meeting and transacting important business and considering very important policy issues, so if that's some inducement for people to attend the committee meetings during committee weekends, maybe that's a good idea."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Talmadge, the Substitute Constitutional Amendment proposes that 'the President of the Senate may convene' and you're contemplating then that the one man or woman, as the case may be, and that the Senate itself would have no say in whether or not it is convened for this purpose?"

Senator Talmadge: "Not at all, Senator. In fact, the Senate Rules would provide for how the President would be able to call the Senate into session. We grappled with the problem of how we would be able to accomplish the Senate calling itself into session. As you know, in order for the Legislature to call itself into session now, you'd have to have the concurrence of two-thirds of the members of both houses and that might be a bit cumbersome. What this would provide, would be for the President to do the calling, but clearly would be subject to the wishes and dispensation of both of the caucuses."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8201.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 8201 and the resolution failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 20; excused, 1.

SIXTY-FOURTH DAY, MARCH 16, 1987

Excused: Senator von Reichbauer - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8201, having failed to receive the constitutional two-thirds majority was declared lost.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5911, by Senator McDermott Relating to state government.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5911 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator McDermott, I read in here that the legislative appropriation is authorized to purchase and manage certain properties as natural resource conservation areas. Could those properties be used for multiple use?"

Senator McDermott: "My understanding, Senator Anderson, is that those properties are limited use, but they can be used for more than one thing. They're not just closed up and nobody can ever go on them. They are conservation properties. The actual property they are talking about is Mount Si. If you look on page four of the bill, you will find the Mount Si Conservation area, some trust lands on Cypress Island, Woodard Bay in Thurston County and the Dishman Hills area in Spokane, and they will be available for some other public uses."

Senator Anderson: "When I am talking about multiple uses, I am talking about recreational uses as well as sustained timber yield, possibly."

Senator McDermott: "The issue here is that there is not very much limber on Mount Si. It is, basically, a recreational area. The state-owned land on Cypress Island, there will be some limber taken off of it for saving the land, but it is not, basically, a logging thing. It is put in conservation to protect very special areas of natural resources in this state. It is not like the National Forest land."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator McDermott, referring to New Section 19, subsection 2 of that, the percentages laid out as twenty-five percent privately-raised funds. In adopting the amendment in the committee, the idea was that it would be at least one dollar of private money for every three dollars of state money. Is that your understanding as well?"

Senator McDermott: "That's correct."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator von Reichbauer - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5911, having failed to receive the constitutional majority was declared lost.
NOTICE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Bolliger served notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911 failed to pass the Senate.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, Senate Bill No. 5890, which was on the second reading calendar, was referred to the Committee on Rules.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 6001, by Senators Warnke and Bauer

Relating to classified school district employees' benefits.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6001 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 6001 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Lee moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 16, strike all material through "immediately." on page 2, line 22

Debate ensued.

Senator Vognild demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Lee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Lee failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 26; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator von Relchbauer - 1.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6001 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Bolliger, how long would an employee have to work for the school district before he was eligible for this type of retirement and all of these benefits being paid by a previous employer?"

Senator Bolliger: "Senator, I don't know the specifics."

Senator Newhouse: "Might it only be a year or two and then for the rest of his working life, the former employer is supposed to pay those benefits? Is that the way the bill is drafted?"

Senator Bolliger: "He wouldn't be if he might be discharged for inability or incompetency. He will be losing his civil service status."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator Cantu, listening to the arguments that you made, it appears to me that there are some clouds as to the constitutionality of this bill, in that the gift of state funds, the Bakenhus decision and some of the other things that causes us to have increases, if the other state employees have increases even though these people are not now employees of the state. Do you have a comment on that?"

Senator Cantu: "Thank you, Senator McDonald. I was concerned about Section 1, when we first heard the bill in one of our committees. I raised the question at that time and, supposedly, we were going to look into it. We didn't hear. What I have done, Senator McDonald, I have requested an Attorney General's opinion on Section 1. In my opinion, it is not constitutional. I am sorry I do not have it yet, but we won't have time with it—if we were to hold it or if not, I am going to send it on over to the House, because I am confident that's what the answer is going to be.*

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Talmadge, often times we have these colloquies on the floor and it makes for very interesting reading when reading the Senate Journal after we're all through, but correct me if I'm wrong. Is it true that the prevailing side is the one that sets legislative intent?"

Senator Talmadge: "Ordinarily, I think that's right, Senator Halsan. In fact, the Supreme Court ordinarily says that the opinions of one single legislator do not constitute the intent of the Legislature as a whole, although, they do say that in certain circumstances, that they will consider a colloquy involving the chairman of the committee, because the chairman of the committee presumably is the one that assists in formulating the legislative intent and assisting and moving the bill through the committee.*

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6001.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6001 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 22; excused, 1.

Gaspard, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Deciclo, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskadden, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 4, following line 15, insert a new subsection (c) to read as follows:

On page 5, line 1, after "court." insert "If case management services are recommended, would otherwise be impracticable.*

On page 10, line 6, after "commitment." insert "The designated outpatient facility shall be in the home county of the client unless appropriate services are unavailable or treatment in that county would otherwise be impracticable.*

Debate ensued.

amendments by Senator Wojahn.

The motion by Senator Wojahn failed and the amendments were not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5074 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Stratton: "Senator Talmadge, could you tell me please, where the pilot program will be and the fiscal note on this bill?"

Senator Talmadge: "I don't think the particular pilot project has been chosen, Senator Stratton. I don't think there is any particular location that's been chosen and I'm not certain of the exact fiscal note on the pilot project itself. I believe Senator McDermott would have that information. It's been operated—a similar kind of effort has been undertaken at the Highline Mental Health Center with its evaluation and treatment facility and Harborview. Both appeared to indicate that if you do it this way, you can, in fact, save money in dealing with people. I'm not certain what the exact note is on the pilot project."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: “Senator Gaspard, this mentor program, that is at the local level that they make the determination how many teachers they want to use and it’s within the funds that are available, or are there extra funds appropriated with a request from the local school board that they want to expand their program?”

Senator Gaspard: “Yes, Senator Rasmussen. The decisions are made locally about how many teams they would wish to have a mentor teacher, plus a beginning teacher, or mentor teacher, plus existing teacher. The funds that are available to run this program are appropriated by the state of Washington through the Superintendent of Public Instruction’s office. The local board or school district will then request a grant from the SPI’s office to fund their mentor teacher program locally.”

Senator Rasmussen: “The reason I was asking was, there is not the possibility of some school districts syphoning off more than their share of the funds from some other school district? Let’s say for instance a school district in King county, or any place over there, requested a mentor program for fifty teachers, would some other school district be left out if they were granted a program?”

Senator Gaspard: “Senator Rasmussen, this is permissive language. It doesn’t require school districts to establish a program, but tries to set up a mechanism where the funds and assistance would be available on a grant basis. It’s not allocated out on a per pupil basis or a district wide basis.”

Senator Rasmussen: “It’s solely at the direction of the Superintendent of Public Instruction—where the grants go?”

Senator Gaspard: “Again, the Superintendent of Public Instruction will look at the grants that have been requested from the local districts. It will make a determination at that point.”

Are you also outlawing hot shots that we use in the livestock business?"

Senator Williams: "No, Senator Hansen, I think as you have heard, what I might have liked as a piece of legislation might have required some dialogue between us, but I think you heard the bill that is presently before us does not outlaw this kind of weapon or cattle prod or whatever you want to call it. It simply provides now a penalty for the use in an inappropriate situation. Also, it sets up a process for establishing standards, so it would not affect what you are talking about. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.39 RCW to read as follows:

Effective for hospital fiscal years beginning after June 30, 1987, there shall be a two-year moratorium upon rate regulation of rural hospitals by the hospital commission. During this period, each rural hospital may establish and modify its rates at its discretion: PROVIDED, That rural hospitals shall continue to file their budget, patient discharge, and other data as required by the hospital commission of hospitals which continue to be subject to rate approval under this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section limits the ability of the department of social and health services to establish hospital payment rates pursuant to RCW 74.09.120 or in accordance with a federally approvable state plan under Title XIX of the federal social security act.

For the purposes of this section, "rural hospital" means a hospital located anywhere in the state except the following areas:

1. The entire counties of Snohomish (including Camano Island), King, Kitsap, Pierce, Thurston, Clark, and Spokane; and

2. Areas within a twenty mile radius of an urban area with a population exceeding thirty thousand persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Wojahn, for the record, as you know, some of the Senators from smaller counties wanted to eliminate the words, 'and other data' in order to reduce the administrative details. I am just wondering, if the intent of what we are doing here is to try to reduce the work load for those hospitals, to give them some flexibility, to get them out from under these regulations so that they can survive in some way? Would that be your interpretation?"

Senator Wojahn: "Yes, it is, but there are certain items that must be available to the Hospital Commission in order for them to make good judgments and so we can not take out any of the wording in the body of the bill. That's necessary."

Senator Deccio: "I understand that, but what I was trying to establish, the intent of this is to lighten the load and free up rural hospitals, so that they would not be subject to these rigid rules and regulations because they are in a state of trying to survive under today's competitive market."

Senator Warnke: "That is absolutely right. I am going to read a list of the hospitals that would be affected, because I think some of you would like to know--Brewster, Centralia, Chehalis, Chelan, Chewelah, Clarkston, Colfax, Colville, Coupeville, Davenport, Dayton, Ellensburg, Ephrata, Forks, Goldendale, Grand Coulee, Ilwaco, Leavenworth, Mount Vernon, Metaline Falls, Morton, Moses Lake, Newport, Odessa, Omak, Othello, Pomeroy, Port Angeles, Port Townsend, Pullman, Quincy, Republic, Ritzville, Sedro-Woolley, South Bend, Sunnyside, Tonasket, and White Salmon. They are all out from under the Hospital Commission."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Wojahn, would you say they are out from under the Hospital Commission? Would you clarify that as to what extent?"

Senator Wojahn: "They will be if this bill passes; they are out as far as their rate structure is concerned. They do not have to conform to any rate structure. They can charge whatever they feel they must in order to make it practical to stay in business."

Senator Barr: "Is it a true statement then, that they are out from under the rate-setting only?"

Senator Wojahn: "Yes."

Senator Barr: "But, in answering Senator Deccio's question, is it the intent and your intent to make it easier for them to do business?"

Senator Wojahn: "Yes, it is."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Wojahn and Deccio.

The motion by Senator Wojahn carried and the amendment was adopted.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 70.39 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5887 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Wojahn, the question has been asked by one of the members of the Human Services Committee that the changes you made in the striking amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5887, how do they relate to what we did in Senate Bill No. 5886, which is coming up?"

Senator Wojahn: "Well, that is the certificate of need and it doesn't have anything to do with the Hospital Commission. It has nothing to do with hospitals except it will generate the impetus for the certificate of need and the hospitals that will be affected by that. That covers a lot more than just hospitals."

Senator Deccio: "So, the striking amendment does not in anyway affect Senate Bill No. 5886?"

Senator Wojahn: "No, no, no."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5887.

Senator Williams: "Primarily, the state Historic Preservation Office which is now housed in the Department of Community Development. It used to be an independent office under the direct authority of the Governor. However, it is now in Community Development and this is the state's expertise on historic buildings—the Historic Preservation Office in DCD."

Senator Rasmussen: "It does not require the okay of the Office of Financial Management or anything—just these two people on their own can decide that they will purchase a building, or they will sell it for below what they paid for it?"

Senator Williams: "I'm presuming they could if that was the only way they could do it, but their charge is to maximize this revolving fund and keep it going. If they continue to buy and then sell below the price that they either sold it for or bought it for, that will diminish those funds to the point they will no longer be there. In order to keep the program going, they’ve got to manage it efficiently.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5639.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Saling and Gaspard.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Saling, I believe the amendments that we have just passed would take care of the amendment that is before us now—the next Bailey/Saling amendment. Is that not correct?"

Senator Saling: "That is correct, Senator Bailey. The intent of the amendments that we just passed indicates to the SPI and the local school districts that they do not have to do what the bill says unless there is money appropriated to do it."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, with that understanding, the next proposed amendment will be withdrawn."

Senator Saling moved that the following amendment by Senators Saling and Bailey be adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 33, strike all material through "this act." on page 3, line 7.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Gaspard, I've always had a very difficult time with this issue of dealing with daycare in the public sector when you consider that hundreds of thousands of women who are in the area working for low pay that have to pay for their own babysitting which is getting to be rather expensive. How can I justify in my own mind passing legislation to deal with daycare for faculty members' children and students' children, when we've got this other problem out here that we, seemingly, can't do anything about, or I guess maybe it's the philosophy of the state that you don't do anything to help people out in the private sector?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Deccio, I think that's more of a statement than a question, but in the bill that is before us, it also talks about the pay that we require. It's not something that's free and it has come back to us that the program be as self-sustaining as possible, but is to allow the facilities to be used."

Senator Deccio: "If I might continue, you know there is nothing that is free. If it were, we wouldn't be dealing with it on this floor—and I am not making a statement, I am asking a question. What do I do when I go home? You're the chairman of the Education Committee and you're running this legislation. What kind of answer do I give my folks when I go home, especially the working mothers who don't make more than four or five dollars an hour who have this real problem? Shall I say, 'Well, we are working on this problem with students and faculty members, but we haven't gotten around to you yet?'"

"I don't think that's a statement. I am asking you for some advice on what I should tell my people when I get home. Everything costs. You say, 'Well, it doesn't cost anything—we are using government buildings—we are using government sponsorship so there has to be some value in what we are doing which is a cost savings to those people who use the services.' I mean, that's historic and it's true in other cases and I'm sure it's true in this case. I guess I am asking you what do I tell my folks when I go back home?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Deccio, I've never noticed that you've ever taken my advice on anything, so I am not so sure what I can tell you to tell your constituents. Maybe the best thing to do is tell them that you will introduce a bill and you'd probably get cooperative help from this side of the aisle to address that problem for those constituents that you are concerned about."
Senator Deccio: "Well, thank you for ducking another issue."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Saling, I don't understand the bill and I know you are very familiar with it. It says, 'The Washington Institutions of Higher Education Daycare Improvement Program is established to help public institutions improve daycare facilities for children.' The Attorney General has ruled that they can have the daycare and apparently there are a lot of them operating in the common schools and you just indicated there were a lot of daycare programs operating in the community colleges. How did they all arrive at that without this bill and if you can answer that—you indicated that they have in their small—change kitty enough money to handle any of these studies they need—why do we need the bill?"

Senator Saling: "I don't think we do need the bill. Actually, they have the authority to do what it is that the bill asks them to do now—to make a study—and they have the authority to go ahead and start the day school, or a place for the children to go while their parents are working, or their parents are in school and they've done that with their local funds. They do charge. They charge a minimal amount for those people who can pay some money towards the care of those children. I think in almost every instance—I'm not sure—those faculty members pay the full cost for their children and if it's a student in a school, then they pay a reduced cost as they are not fully employed, in most cases.

"Senator, I don't believe that it's necessary to have the bill, although, I would like to see a study made, but they can do that on their own. I don't see why we have to pay every time we ask for a little bit of information from some of our agencies. It seems like every time we ask for something that ought to be done anyway, they say, 'Well, we need another employee, or we need this much money, or whatever.' The original draft of this bill would have given lots of money in a whole bucket, taken out and said, 'Here, do something for daycare,' and we corrected that in committee. We said that maybe they ought to take a look at it. but I still feel that they could take a look at it within their own agencies, within their own institutions without us having to pay for every sheet of paper they might use."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Saling and Bailey.

The motion by Senator Saling failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended. Senate Bill No. 5129 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Lee, I notice here it says, 'matched by Category C funds.' What does that mean and how much, from where and who's money?"

Senator Lee: "If it was to be entirely built with Category C funds from this state, it would cost a hundred million dollars. Now, there's not a hundred million dollars available for any one particular project out of Category C. What this would do, would be that it would be divided as far as its total cost is concerned, between the state and a small amount of Category C funds. The Port of Seattle since it is a bridge that goes over the Duwamish River and the Port has property on both sides of that bridge and then this local toll which is anticipated to be about fifty-two percent. When the Highway Department made the study, they figured that with the time line that is in this bill, it would be several years before it actually got done, that they could afford that amount where they couldn't possibly afford the full cost.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5129.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Bauer, I can appreciate the attention that is given this problem. My question is, what does the SPI have in mind to follow up with a survey or some sort of a test to determine whether this additional appropriation of thirty-one and a half million is going to do some good?"

Senator Bauer: "I am glad you asked that, Senator Deccio. This program, unlike many of the other programs, we have a constant evaluation and monitoring through the fourth, eighth and eleventh grade tests. Each year, each district will get funds based upon the number of students it has in that lower twenty-five percentile. When we have sufficiently addressed the problem, we will sunset this program. This program will not any longer be needed once we have achieved the objective. By fourth grade, eighth grade and eleventh grade testing—another good program that this Legislature passed—we're able to monitor the success of this program like we did in the RAP for the grades two through six, as the chart has indicated in those basic skills. It is one of those few programs that we have—a state-wide, nationally-normed testing program to evaluate achievement in those skills on an on-going basis, so I highly recommend it to you, Senator Deccio."

Senator Gaspard: "Yes, Senator Patterson, this would give another alternative of advancing on the LEAP schedule other than what the college credit would be. As a matter of fact, in the organizations that may be giving in-service training classes to the teaching profession, it is anticipated that the college and universities may be those that would give those classes for the clock hour requirements, but this is in addition to what the colleges and universities will do right now for college credits."

The purpose and intent of this chapter are to provide the maximum practicable opportunity for increased participation by minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in participating in public works and the process by which goods and services are procured by state agencies and educational institutions from the private sector.

Sec. 2. Section 2. chapter 120, Laws of 1983 and RCW 39.19.020 are each amended to read as follows:

5. "Goods and/or services" includes professional services and all other goods and services.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry. I think there is a little confusion. There is a striking amendment by Senators Talmadge and Fleming and then there is an amendment to the striking amendment by Senators Talmadge and Fleming. Perhaps you can clarify whether we are on, or whether we've adopted the amendment to the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Fleming?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That will be proposed, Senator, the Secretary advises."
Senator Pullen: "I believe Senator Talmadge was speaking on the amendment and it would seem to me the proper order we should be on at this point is to discuss the Talmadge, Fleming and Lee amendment to the striking amendment. Is that not correct?"
President Cherberg: "It would be proper at this time to introduce the amendment to the amendment."
Senator Pullen: "The reason I thought it was a little bit confusing was we took the, I believe, the McCaslin amendment to the amendment first and the logical order would have been—"
President Cherberg: "That was a committee amendment."
Senator Pullen: "Oh, that was to the bill? I see. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, to clarify, I misspoke in speaking to the amendment. It is a striking amendment and incorporates Senate Bill No. 5202 and Senator Fleming's original bill, so it is both bills wrapped into one. The original amendment we had out on the desk had been simply the addition of Senate Bill No. 5202 to the bill, so I misspoke. It is a striking amendment incorporating Senate Bill No. 5202 and Senator Fleming's original bill. The amendments by Senator Lee, Senator Fleming and I are to the striking amendment."

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Deccio: "Senator Metcalf, I am trying to understand what some of the new language does. Does this limit the insurance companies' ability to use only in-state experience when establishing their rates?"

Senator Metcalf: "No, that was another bill. That was another bill that there was some opposition to and that bill was not really considered."

Senator Deccio: "Was this an Insurance Commissioner request bill?"
Senator Metcalf: "No, this was not. I talked it over with him and he had no objection to it. In fact, he was favorable to it, but this is not an Insurance Commissioner request bill."

Senator Deccio: "Well, I am just curious as to why as a result of the study, to look at the cyclical ups and downs of the industry are causing, why he didn't request a bill? Do you know the answer to that?"

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 13, after "retail establishment" strike "or other public place"

Senator Rinehart moved that the following amendment by Senators Rinehart and Vognild be adopted:

On page 1, line 13, after "(d)" strike all material down to and including "solicit" on line 18 and insert "Accosts other persons in any public place or in any place open to the public for the purpose of begging or soliciting aims".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Rinehart, I understand your concerns regarding First Amendment protection. My concerns are for First Amendment protection and for the protection of innocent citizens being solicited and harassed. Does your amendment, in your opinion, adequately protect those being solicited and give the police some ability to handle this growing problem?"

Senator Rinehart: "Thank you, Senator Vognild, as a matter of fact, it does. The language is based on a California statute which has been ruled constitutional by the California Court of Appeals. The purpose is to protect members of the public from the annoyance of being approached in a public place by beggars. It is aimed at the conduct of the individual who goes about the streets accosting others for handouts. The language is intended to exclude from the scope of the bill the blind or crippled person, who merely sits or stands by the wayside and the Salvation Army worker who solicits funds for charity on the streets at Christmas. Walking up to and approaching another for the purpose of soliciting, as opposed to merely receiving donations, is prohibited. The manner of approach is pertinent. The language forbids any approach in a public place for the purpose of soliciting or begging for aims."

Further debate ensued.
Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, as chairman of the Judiciary Committee through which this legislation passed, I was hoping you might be able to clarify the meaning of the word, 'accost' perhaps for the purpose of determining legislative intent. We have used in discussion in debate so far today, the fact that this amendment by Senator Rinehart was intended to get at aggressive behavior that could interfere with the rights of passersby and other citizens. Could you, perhaps, clarify the meaning of the word, 'accost'?

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I think you have conveyed my sense of that word. It conveys to me, at least, some sense of active involvement, aggressive behavior, as opposed to passively standing by and not taking any affirmative action with respect to a passerby or another who is in the vicinity."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Rinehart, the only concern I have about passing a Washington State statute predicated on a California law that's been upheld by one division of the California Court of Appeals, which has many divisions, is that somebody might be presently petitioning the California Supreme Court for review of that decision of the California Court of Appeals. To your knowledge, is there a petition for review pending in the California Supreme Court with respect to that decision?"

Senator Rinehart: "I have no knowledge of that, Senator Talmadge. but in my judgment, it doesn't matter what the source of it is, it's certainly our privilege to choose whatever language we wish no matter what's going on in California. I used that as an example simply as an instruction for what one court has done."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Rinehart and Vognild.

The motion by Senator Rinehart carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5596 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended. Senate Bill No. 5783 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Nelson, I followed the bill out of committee. Generally, I think it provides something that is, perhaps, necessary, but does the bill include personal service contracts with members of the Legislature or the executives such as the Governor which are not services for the government, but potentially which are campaign services and would this then prohibit somebody who, in their business, did campaign work, from, in fact, doing any of that for a potential candidate during the period of a legislative session, if he happened to be a lobbyist as well?"

Senator Nelson: "I'll see if I can restate your question and understand specifically what you would like. The question as I understand it is, you are asking whether or not someone can have a personal service contract being paid from some other source other than state funds for carrying out some purpose such as campaigning or some other effort where the effort may come back to help state government, yet is not paid for from state funds? Yes, you could do that. You could collect money from some other sources, private sources, to carry out some effort as a personal service contract for someone, but it is not an official personal services contract that would be filed with the Office of Financial Management which is one of the restrictions today."

Senator Halsan: "So, we are really only dealing with personal services contracts filed with OFM?"

Senator Nelson: "That's correct, every official personal services contract, whether it is out for bid or sole provider, has to go through the Office of Financial Management for the purposes of monitoring the activity of the provider and for the payment for those services."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 5783.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator Zimmerman, if you could explain to me what is meant by the words if you read them this way, 'Provided that members have met requirements established by their employer concerning exposure to hazards through other employment and recreation activities.' Does that mean the employer is going to come up with a list of recreational activities the fireman or police officer may or may not be able to participate in? What are 'other employment hazards—exposure to hazards through other employment.' I mean, what business is that of the employer?"

Senator Zimmerman: "For example, say he was going to be a bouncer at a tavern. Maybe that would be considered hazardous in some respects and could be a problem that he'll be involved in. The installation of asbestos in some hazard use in their house; recreational activities where he is a lifeguard at a camp. These are, obviously, supplemental jobs that he would be holding. I suppose that mountain climbing in some respects in some parts of the world would be considered in that category. You know, you take on a job with certain requirements and this is what I'm saying. They should have some ability to set some requirements."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Zimmerman, Lee and West.

The motion by Senator Zimmerman failed and the amendments were not adopted.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the unavailability of capital to viable firms that do not meet current commercial bank or venture capital criteria for loans or equity investments can have a devastating impact on the state's economic development efforts. Without reasonable access to financing, talented and aggressive entrepreneurs are cut out of the economic system and the overall economy of the state suffers. The process of job creation and economic development requires readily available capital for small and young companies that are the major source of innovations and new jobs. To ensure the availability of capital to entrepreneurs in Washington state, the legislature hereby eliminates unnecessary restrictions which have discouraged the formation of industrial development corporations under current law and adds incentives to encourage the formation of such corporations.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 and RCW 31.24.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(As used in this chapter, the following words and phrases, unless differently defined or described, shall have the meanings and references as follows) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) Corporation means a Washington business and industrial development corporation created under this chapter.

(2) Financial institution means any banking corporation or trust company, national banking association, savings and loan association, insurance company or related corporation, partnership, foundation, or other institution engaged primarily in lending or investing funds.

(3) (Member means any financial institution authorized to do business within this state which shall undertake to lend money to a corporation created under this chapter, upon its call, and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(4)) Board of directors means the board of directors of the corporation created under this chapter.

((5)) (4) Loan limit means for any (member) financial institution, the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding at one time on loans made by such (member) financial institution to the corporation, as determined under the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Business means an individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, cooperative, corporation, or any other organization operating in this state, and paying more than fifty percent of its contributions or payments for the purposes of unemployment insurance to this state.

(6) Associate means, if used with respect to a corporation:

(a) A controlling person, director, officer, agent, or advisor of that corporation.

(b) A director, officer, or partner of a person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(c) A person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a person referred to in (a) of this subsection directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

(d) Any close relative of any person referred to in (a) of this subsection.

(e) A person of whom a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection is a director or officer.

(f) A person in which a person referred to in (a) through (d) of this subsection, or any combination of those persons acting in concert, owns or controls, directly or indirectly, a twenty percent or greater equity interest.

For the purposes of this subsection (6)(f), a person who is in a relationship referred to in this subsection within six months before or after a corporation provides financing assistance shall be considered to be in that relationship as of the date that corporation provides that financing assistance.

If a corporation, in order to protect its interests, designates a person to serve as a director of, officer of, or in any capacity in the management of a business to which that corporation provides financing assistance, that person shall not, on that account, be considered to have a relationship with that business. This exception does not apply if the person has, directly or indirectly, any other financial interest in the business or if the person, at any time before the corporation provides the financing assistance, served as a director of, officer of, or in any other capacity in the management of the business for a period of thirty days or more.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 162, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 16, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 31.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

On page 5, after line 22, strike all language through "Title 43 RCW." on page 12, line 24

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Cantu, I believe you were in the House of Representatives when the Legislature enacted the Higher Education Facilities Authority legislation. I've had an opportunity to review Mr. Pharris' memorandum and also that decision of the Supreme Court. Could you tell me how you see any problem with this particular proposal when, in fact, the Legislature permitted the establish­ment of a bonding agency which gave money directly to private higher educational entities in the state of Washington under the Higher Education Facilities Authority?"

Senator Cantu: "Thank you, Senator Talmadge. As you have indicated, you had the opportunity to review that before you asked the question and I have not. I cannot answer your question."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Smitherman, we've been talking mostly about our friends across the hall here and I'd kind of forgotten when we weigh what we were really taking out of the bill and weigh that against the chances as related to the Attorney General's opinion. What are we taking out of the bill?"

Senator Smitherman: "What we are taking out is the small business loan pro­gram which provides financial institutions and it says, 'it to make loans that they would not otherwise make.' It's a program—it's a loan-loss reserve fund with pre­mium charges from the borrower and the lender and a match from the state. Both premium charges and the state match are registered in the lender's name and may be used to cover future losses from any loans registered in the program by that bank.

"The amount of the reserve fund for any loan may range from six percent to fourteen percent on the loan amount. The state match can range from three per­cent to seven percent and the leverage on the state dollar, which I think is phe­nomenal, is twenty to one. In other words, twenty dollars in new loans will be made to small businesses for each one dollar that is set aside by the state. That is what we are removing from the program."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator Talmadge, do you see a problem in the lending of the state's credit with the small business loan program in this bill?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Warnke, the issue of the lending of the state's credit is often raised in discussions about economic development and it is an issue in the small business loan component of the bill, but the Supreme Court established in 1973 that aid to individuals is only improper where public money is used solely for private purposes. The court said in 1983 that as long as the private benefit is incidental to the public purpose, the legislation is not unconstitutional. In any event, the bill has a severability clause if the small business loan portion of the bill is challenged and if the Supreme Court declares it unconstitutional, that portion could be separated and the other two components of the bill would stand on their own."

Senator Warnke: "But, the Attorney General has issued an informal opinion stating that he thinks it might be unconstitutional. Do you agree?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, first, as you noted, it is a preliminary informal opinion, it is not a formal opinion of the Attorney General. Second, the Washington Supreme Court determines whether it is unconstitutional, not the office of the Attor­ney General. The Attorney General's office was opposed to the establishment of the Housing and Finance Commission, claiming it violated the lending of credit clause, yet the Supreme Court ruled it did not violate lending of credit. You can't entirely rely on an Attorney General's preliminary informal opinion in this kind of situation."

Senator Warnke: "If it is declared unconstitutional, wouldn't we be caught holding the bag?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, we can start a loan program to get an early Supreme Court opinion through the process of a declaratory judgment action before the banks actually make any loans to small businesses under it, Senator Warnke. I would note also, that when we tried to deal with the issue of a bonding bill that had a number of bonds in that very same bill, the Attorney General's office argued initially that, that was unconstitutional. It had more than one subject in it and had an opinion to that effect. Nonetheless, the Supreme Court disagreed and affirmed the Legislature's position on that subject."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Cantu and Anderson.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Kreidler, I notice we are taking the word 'American' out of the name. In the prior name, the Commission was the Mexican-American Commission and now we are changing it to Hispanic, but we are dropping the word 'American.' I also notice that in the second sentence of Section 1, the prior language read, 'The Legislature finds that Mexican-Americans and other Spanish speaking Americans have unique and special problems.' There has been quite a bit of discussion on switching the name from Mexican to Hispanic, but perhaps you can explain why we are dropping the word 'American' out of the name?"

Senator Kreidler: "No particular reason other than the fact that it certainly adds simplicity and is also comparable to what you find in other states. It is also what was from the people who received the services overwhelmingly supporting this particular designation and ceding to their request, that we have a Commission that has a name that represents the title and the responsibility to be carried out. Certainly, no other ulterior reasons for dropping the American aspect of it—no plots or other reasons and so forth."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, does this relate only to new construction?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes, or remodeling."

Senator Rasmussen: "Or remodeling?"

Senator Talmadge: "It stands for remodeling, yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "It states here, 'The council shall publish the provision as proposed rules'—and for the rules to become effective by July 1, 1988. It continues 'All cities, towns, and counties shall enforce the revised plumbing standards by July 1, 1988'—and 'The revisions to the state plumbing code shall supersede all local codes.' Then in Section 3, 'The Department of Social and Health Services shall annually prepare and submit to the Legislature a report summarizing the status of the plans adopted pursuant to this chapter—and the projected water needs of the state to meet residential, commercial, industrial and governmental uses—The requirements of this chapter shall be satisfied by any water conservation plan prepared to meet federal laws or regulations—. We’re going to be smothered with paperwork on that and the consultants are going to have a field day. I am not adverse to saving water, but not to saving it all at once as is proposed in this bill. It would seem to me we are moving too far, too fast and I might want to remodel someday.”

Senator Talmadge: “Senator, in response to your question. If that were the case, then I would find it highly ironic that the people who build houses—the home builders, the local governments who are affected, and all the rest support the bill. In fact, they enthusiastically support the bill. The people who are concerned about gray water systems, that’s purely permissive. There’s no mandate that take place. This bill is supported by all the people who would be affected by it because they believe that it will result in some cost savings to those ever–burdened rate payers that I know Senator Rasmussen, you have expressed so often your concern about. The people who have to pay for water systems, their rates are going up and this is a way of making sure that we try to level out that increase in water rates that people are experiencing across the state. Something that everybody who is affected—the local governments, the utilities, the water districts, the home builders, all of the other people about whom you are referring, support.”

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5314 was deferred.

However, if the department determines according to criteria established by rule that bids received for the purchase of paper products do not reflect adequate competition because a wide variation of recovered material content, economics or environmental constraints discourage any change in the percentage, quality, or availability of recovered material, the department shall consider and award bids without regard to the weighting factor otherwise required under this subsection”

Requiring affirmative action plans for certain state contractors.
On motion of Senator Halsan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5459 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5459 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Fleming moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. By enacting chapter 49.60 RCW, the legislature found that practices of discrimination against any of the state's inhabitants because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status, age, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap are a matter of state concern and that such discrimination threatens not only the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants, but menaces the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state. As a trustee of public funds, the state has a continuing responsibility to expend those funds only on contractors and suppliers of goods and services that do not discriminate and to deposit state funds in financial institutions that do not practice discrimination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Affirmative action" means a procedure by employers by which racial minorities, women, persons in the protected age category, persons with disabilities, Vietnam-era veterans, and disabled veterans are provided with increased employment opportunities. It does not mean any sort of quota system.

(2) "Commission" means the Washington state human rights commission.

(3) "Contract" includes any agreement with a state agency for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public building, public highway, or other public work and any agreement with a state agency for the purchase, lease, or furnishing of goods, real or personal property, or services, including utility services, investment services, transportation (including bills of lading), research, insurance, and consultants. "Contract" does not include agreements creating the relationship of employee with the contracting agency.

(4) "Contractor" or "state contractor" means an employer, as defined in RCW 49.60.040, who (a) has contracts totaling one hundred thousand dollars of state public works contracts in any fiscal year or (b) has state contracts for goods and services totaling more than ten thousand dollars, and who employs fifty or more employees. The term includes financial institutions which invest state moneys or serve as a depository for state funds regardless of amount.

(5) "State agency" means any officer or agency of the state of Washington, including educational institutions governed by boards appointed by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Contractors whether in or out of the state of Washington submitting a bid for a state contract shall submit to the requesting agency for review and approval by the commission an affirmative action plan, consistent with the office of federal contract compliance programs' guidelines, designed to increase opportunities in all aspects of employment for racial minorities, women, persons in the protected age category, persons with disabilities, Vietnam-era veterans, and disabled veterans. All affirmative action plans shall affect opportunities for the categories listed above except as otherwise provided in this section. Any contractor who has an affirmative action plan or conciliation agreement approved by the office of federal contract compliance, or analogous agency, within the preceding thirteen months shall be considered by the commission to have an approved plan for state contract purposes.

Implementation of the review and approval processes shall encompass every contractor bidding as of a specific date, or be based on a random selection method adopted by the commission. No contractor may be placed at a disadvantage on a state contract or have awarding of the contract delayed because of a backlog in processing affirmative action plans or because of a complaint which has not been resolved under section 5, 7, or 8 of this act.

When there is participating state and federal funds on a singular contract, compliance with federal guidelines shall prevail. Contractors bidding for the first time shall submit an affirmative action plan with the bid. When a commission approved affirmative action plan is included within the specifications of a construction contract, contractors shall not be required to submit a separate plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Investigate the employment practices of any state contractor to determine compliance with this chapter.

(2) Review and approve or disapprove affirmative action plans submitted by contractors currently doing business with the state.

(3) Develop, adopt, and implement rules governing the affirmative action plans, including the form and content of the plans, consistent with the guidelines established by the office of federal contract compliance programs, including procedures for developing affirmative action goals, timetables, standard contract clauses, and such other rules as may be necessary to effectuate the purpose of this chapter.
(4) In appropriate cases, notify state agencies, the United States equal employment opportunity commission, office of federal contract compliance programs, or other appropriate federal, state, or local agencies whenever it has reason to believe that any contractor is not in compliance with this chapter.

(5) Develop, adopt, and implement rules governing an optional annual affirmative action employment and supplier plan for goods and services contractors which satisfies both affirmative action and minority and women’s business enterprises compliance goals.

(6) Issue declaratory rulings pursuant to RCW 34.04.080 on the application of this chapter and any implementing rules.

(7) Advise state agencies, contractors, and others on the policy of this chapter and practices under it.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commission may not require a contractor to displace members of the contractor's existing workforce.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Following the procedures in RCW 49.60.230 and 49.60.240 to the extent applicable, the commission shall receive or initiate complaints of discrimination or non-compliance with this chapter, investigate the complaints, make findings as to whether or not there is reasonable cause to believe that a person is not in compliance, and attempt to achieve compliance by conference, conciliation, and persuasion. If an agreement is reached for compliance, it shall be reduced to writing and issued as an order of the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If no agreement can be reached for compliance, then the commission may take one or more of the following actions:

(1) Acceptance of a corrective action plan which shall include a contractor's written and signed commitment outlining actions taken or proposed, with time limits and goals, to correct, compensate for, and remedy each violation of equal opportunity requirements as specified in a list of deficiencies;

(2) Recommend that the contracting state agency enforce sanctions clauses of the contract; or

(3) File an action in superior court and petition the court to enforce the sanctions clauses of the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If a person, firm, corporation, or business does not comply with any provision or provides any fraudulent information concerning compliance with any provision of a contract required under sections 3 through 6 of this act, the state may withhold payment on, debar, suspend, or terminate the contract and subject the contractor to civil penalties of ten percent of the amount of the contract or five thousand dollars, whichever is less. Willful repeated violations, exceeding a single violation, may disqualify the contractor from further participation in state contracts for a period of one year.

After an administrative hearing by the state agency or educational institution pursuant to chapter 34.04 or 28B.16 RCW, as the case may be, and after the exhaustion of administrative remedies, any adverse decision under this section may be appealed to any superior court in any county where the alleged violation occurred. The prevailing party in any hearing or court action is entitled to attorneys' fees and court costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, contracts shall be awarded to other than the lowest bidder if the lowest bidder fails or refuses to adopt or implement an affirmative action plan approved by the commission. Under no circumstances may the contract be awarded to other than the lowest bidder for the sole reason that the lowest bidder has not achieved a specified numerical or percentage goal or timetable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Enforcement of the provisions of this chapter shall rest solely with the state when contracts involve the expenditure of state funds for public works or goods and services. All complaints arising out of a particular contract must be filed with either the commission or the appropriate municipal corporation as defined in RCW 39.50.010. A person may file a complaint with only one enforcement agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. All local governmental entities having affirmative action review or compliance programs shall honor, or treat as effective, commission approval of any affirmative action plan, except in cases where federal law prevails. As otherwise permitted by law, a local entity may continue to investigate and enforce compliance with an approved plan when public expenditures on a contract are limited to local entity funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The commission, in consultation with the office of minority and women's business enterprises, shall examine methods to reduce any duplication of functions between the office of minority and women's business enterprises and the commission and shall make a report of its findings to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The affirmative action related powers and duties of the state human rights commission authorized under sections 1 through 11 of this act shall be terminated on June 30, 1993, as provided in section 13 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1994:

(1) Section 1 of this act and RCW 39.--.--;
(2) Section 2 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(3) Section 3 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(4) Section 4 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(5) Section 5 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(6) Section 6 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(7) Section 7 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(8) Section 8 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(9) Section 9 of this act and RCW 39.---;
(10) Section 10 of this act and RCW 39.---; and
(11) Section 11 of this act and RCW 39.---.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 39 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This act shall take effect December 31, 1987, and shall apply to contracts advertised for bids on or after that date.

Senator Owen moved that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

On page 5, after line 33 of the Fleming striking amendment, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The commission may not require a contractor to displace members of the contractor's existing work force."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Owen to the amendment by Senator Fleming.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

On page 9, line 8 of the amendment by Senator Fleming, strike all of NEW SECTION, Sec. 12, and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 11, line 7 of the amendment by Senator Fleming, after "penalties;" strike "making an appropriation;"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Fleming, as amended.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Salting: "Senator Fleming, I am a little bit confused in regard to your amendment on page 9, line 8. It seems to me that you have taken out New Section 12 and you said you had added Section 12 in your comments just now."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Salting, Section 12 deals with the appropriation. What I was sharing with you, was changes that were made by the Association of General Contractors and AWB that they wanted in there. Those were the things I was explaining to you in Section 12. They added that sunset review."

Senator Salting: "You've taken out Section 12, haven't you?"

Senator Fleming: "No, wait a minute. You've got that right. They did it wrong. We'll have to back that up because that was supposed to be New Section 14."

Senator Salting: "I believe there was a mistake there."

Senator Fleming: "Thank you."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Fleming moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment on page 9, line 8, to the striking amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Fleming to reconsider the vote by which the amendment on page 9, line 8, to the striking amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the Senate commenced reconsideration of the amendment on page 9, line 8, to the amendment.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment, as corrected, to the striking amendment was adopted:

On page 10, line 14 of the amendment by Senator Fleming, strike all of NEW SECTION, Sec. 14, and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Fleming, you've expanded the categories reflecting racial minorities, women, persons in the protective age category, persons with disabilities and Vietnam-era veterans. Why did you just exclude all the other veterans?

Senator Fleming: "Senator Rasmussen, you are looking at Senator Owen's amendment which was not offered."

Senator Rasmussen: "No, no, but it's in the bill. It's your protected group."

Senator Fleming: "But, that is taken from the federal contract compliance."

Senator Rasmussen: "But, it's in the new section."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Rasmussen, I did not make these lists. As you are aware, or you might not be aware, these are protected classes—have been approved in law, both on the federal level and on the state level, as a part of the protected class and because of some of the hardships and other activities surrounding the Vietnam veterans in that era, it was decided, in many instances, that there should be preferences given to that group of veterans, not necessarily excluding anyone, but that was the decision that was made, sir."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order that the amendment expands the scope and objection of the bill. Some of the comments that have been made by Senator Zimmerman and others have indicated the extra subject matter in the bill and I'd also draw the President's attention to several title amendments that are part of the amendment. Some are repealer clauses and some are other title amendments that have to be added which would be prima facia evidence that the title of the bill has been expanded."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5459 was deferred.

SECOND READING

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Smitherman, you made reference to a policy worked out with the University of Washington. Were there any other institutions involved in making the policy?"

Senator Smitherman: "Yes. As a matter of fact, the people from WSU were here as well."
Senator Patterson: "Thank you."
Senator Smitherman: "As a matter of fact, they were one of the universities where they said there was a major problem. In order for them to approve of this, we really did have to do a lot of fancy footwork to come up with a program that would satisfy the needs of business and also not put the universities in a negative role, saying that they were bad guys and coming up with the presumption that they were doing bad things."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Patterson, how does this affect the sale of Cougar Gold?"
Senator Patterson: "It will have to come under the scrutiny of this new group to determine whether or not that is a legitimate enterprise, I presume. I don't have any concern that they will be reducing the opportunities for the sale of Cougar Gold. I think this deals more with, not so much products like Cougar Gold, but with educational equipment, computers, etc, etc. where there are local services that might provide the service rather than the universities providing it themselves. I don't think it will have any effect on Cougar Gold."
Senator Rasmussen: "I hope you're right."
Senator Patterson: "I hope I am too, because after answering your question and then if it does affect it, then I have a problem."

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5772 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Warnke, if in doing the work to install these systems, there was a non-related craft that was called in—let's say a window installer—that in order to put the system in we have to put some windows or doors in, would those types of other crafts be required in order to go down and get this license and pay these fees?"
Senator Warnke: "My answer to that would be, no. If they were electrical of any kind—of one of the electrical crafts, yes. If they are a glazier or a carpenter, no."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5772.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to increase the speed limit to sixty-five miles per hour on those portions of the rural interstate highway system where the increase would be safe and reasonable and is allowed by federal law. It is also the intent of the legislature that the maximum speed limit be strictly enforced.

Sec. 2. Section 27, chapter 21, Laws of 1961 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 74, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.52.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any request for a certified abstract must specify which part is requested, and only the part requested shall be furnished. The employment driving record part shall be furnished only to the individual named in the abstract, an employer, the insurance carrier that has insurance in effect covering the employer, or a prospective employer. The other part shall be furnished only to the individual named in the abstract, the insurance carrier that has insurance in effect covering the named individual, or the insurance carrier to which the named individual has applied. The director, upon proper request, shall furnish a certified abstract covering the period of not more than the last three years, and the abstract, whenever possible, shall include an enumeration of motor vehicle accidents in which the person was driving; the total number of vehicles involved; whether the vehicles were legally parked or moving; whether the vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident; and any reported convictions, forfeitures of bail, or findings that an infraction was committed based upon a violation of any motor vehicle law. The enumeration shall include any reports of failure to appear in response to a traffic citation or failure to respond to a notice of infraction served upon the named individual by an arresting officer.

The abstract provided to an insurance company shall have excluded from it any information pertaining to any occupational driver's license when the license is issued to any person employed by another or self-employed as a motor vehicle driver who during the five years preceding the request has been issued such a license by reason of a conviction or finding of a traffic infraction involving a motor vehicle offense outside the scope of his principal employment, and who has during that period been principally employed as a motor vehicle driver deriving the major portion of his income therefrom. The abstract provided to the insurance company shall also exclude any information pertaining to law enforcement officers or fire fighters as defined in RCW 41.26.030, or any member of the Washington state patrol, while driving official vehicles in the performance of occupational duty during an emergency situation if the chief of the officer's or fire fighter's department certifies on the accident report that the actions of the officer or fire fighter were reasonable under the circumstances as they existed at the time of the accident.

The director shall collect for each abstract the sum of three dollars and fifty cents which shall be deposited in the highway safety fund.

Any insurance company or its agent receiving the certified abstract shall use it exclusively for its own underwriting purposes and shall not divulge any of the information contained in it to a third party. No policy of insurance may be canceled, nonrenewed, (cancellation) denied, or have the rate increased on the basis of such information unless the policyholder was determined to be at fault. No insurance company or its agent for underwriting purposes relating to the operation of commercial motor vehicles may use any information contained in the abstract relative to any person's operation of motor vehicles while not engaged in such employment.

Any employer or prospective employer receiving the certified abstract shall use it exclusively for his own purpose to determine whether the licensee should be permitted to operate a commercial vehicle or school bus upon the public highways of this state and shall not divulge any information contained in it to a third party.

Any violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 34, chapter 151. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.405 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the secretary of transportation shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any maximum speed hereinbefore set forth is greater than is reasonable and safe with respect to a state highway under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or upon any other part of the state highway system or at state ferry terminals, or that a general reduction of any maximum speed (thereinbefore) set forth (would aid in the conservation of energy resources) in RCW 46.61.400 is necessary in order to comply with a national maximum speed limit, the secretary may determine and declare a reasonable and safe lower maximum limit or a lower maximum limit which will (reasonably conserve energy resources) comply with a national maximum speed limit, for any state highway, the entire state highway system, or any portion thereof, which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected. The secretary may also fix and regulate the speed of vehicles on any state highway within the maximum speed limit allowed by this chapter for special occasions including, but not limited to, local parades and other special events. Any such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon the said signs; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective (a) when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs or (b) if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of RCW 46.61.410, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 35, chapter 151. Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Subject to subsection (2) (below) of this section the secretary may increase the maximum speed limit on any highway or portion thereof to not more than seventy miles per hour in accordance with the design speed thereof (taking into account all safety elements included therein), or whenever the secretary determines upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that such greater speed is reasonable and safe under the circumstances existing on such part of the highway.

(b) If the federal government increases the national maximum speed limit to at least sixty-five miles per hour on any part of the highway system, the secretary of transportation shall forthwith increase to the same speed the maximum speed limit on any such highway or portion thereof, and posted at fifty-five miles per hour to a maximum of sixty-five miles per hour, subject to subsection (2) of this section, if such limit had been established for that highway or portion thereof in order to comply with the former national maximum speed limit. However, if an engineering and traffic investigation conducted by the department clearly indicates that a speed limit above fifty-five miles an hour would be unsafe for that highway or a portion thereof, the secretary of transportation shall not increase the speed limit for that highway or portion thereof above the safe speed indicated by the investigation.

(c) The greater maximum limit (so determined) established under (a) or (b) of this subsection shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected, or if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(d) Such maximum speed limit may be declared to be effective at all times or at such times as are indicated upon said signs or in the case of auto stages, as indicated in said written notice; and differing limits may be established for different times of day, different types of vehicles, varying weather conditions, and other factors bearing on safe speeds, which shall be effective when posted upon appropriate fixed or variable signs or if a maximum limit is established for auto stages which is lower than the limit for automobiles, the auto stage speed limit shall become effective thirty days after written notice thereof is mailed in the manner provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) The maximum speed limit for vehicles over ten thousand pounds gross weight and vehicles in combination except auto stages shall not exceed sixty miles per hour and may be established at a lower limit by the secretary as provided in RCW 46.61.405((c) as now or hereafter amended)).

(3) The word "trucks" used by the department on signs giving notice of maximum speed limits ((shall)) means vehicles over ten thousand pounds gross weight and all vehicles in combination except auto stages.

(4) Whenever the secretary ((shall)) establishes maximum speed limits for auto stages lower than the maximum limits for automobiles, the secretary shall cause to be mailed notice thereof to each auto transportation company holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the Washington utilities and transportation commission. The notice shall be mailed to the chief place of business within the state of Washington of each auto transportation company or if none then its chief place of business within the state of Washington.

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 136, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 224, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.63.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who receives a notice of traffic infraction shall respond to such notice as provided in this section within fifteen days of the date of the notice.

(2) If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination the person shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the infraction must be submitted with the response. When a response which does not contest the determination is received, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records, and a record of the response and order shall be furnished to the department in accordance with RCW 46.20.270.

(3) If the person determined to have committed the infraction wishes to contest the determination the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be sooner than seven days from the date of the notice, except by agreement.

(4) If the person determined to have committed the infraction does not contest the determination but wishes to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the infraction the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing for that purpose and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing.

(5) (a) If any person issued a notice of traffic infraction:

(i) Fails to respond to the notice of traffic infraction as provided in subsection (2) of this section;

(ii) Fails to appear at a hearing requested pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section; the court shall enter an appropriate order assessing the monetary penalty prescribed for the traffic infraction and any other penalty authorized by this chapter and shall notify the department in accordance with RCW 46.20.270, of the failure to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

(b) The department may not renew the driver's license, or in the case of a standing, stopping, or parking violation the vehicle license, of any person for whom the court has entered an order pursuant to (a) of this subsection until any penalties imposed pursuant to this chapter have been satisfied. Upon the driver's second outstanding failure to respond to a notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing, the department shall suspend the driver's license until any penalties imposed pursuant to this chapter have been satisfied. For purposes of driver's license suspension or nonrenewal only, the lessee of a vehicle shall be considered to be the person to whom a notice of a standing, stopping, or parking violation has been issued for such violations of the vehicle incurred while the vehicle was leased or rented under a bona fide commercial lease or rental agreement between a lessor engaged in the business of leasing vehicles and a lessee who is not the vehicle's registered owner, if the lease agreement contains a provision prohibiting anyone other than the lessee from operating the vehicle. Such a lessor shall, upon the request of the municipality issuing the notice of infraction, supply the municipality with the name and driver's license number of the person leasing the vehicle at the time of the infraction.

Senator Patterson moved that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Patterson to the amendment by Senators Tanner, Benitz, Hansen, Patterson, Rasmussen, McCaslin, Bottiger, West, Halsan and Bauer.

The motion by Senator Patterson carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Tanner, Benitz, Hansen, Patterson, Rasmussen, McCaslin, Bottiger, West, Halsan and Bauer, as amended.

The amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Tanner, the following title amendment was adopted:

In line 1 of the title, after "Infractions," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.52.130, 46.61.405, 46.61.410, and 46.63.070; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties."

On motion of Senator Tanner, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5850 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Thank you, Mr. President. I am going to ask Senator Tanner to clarify what he said because I heard him say that the DOT or the State Patrol could reduce the speed anyplace that they felt it was needed for safety. Now, that worries me and I believe that those are the exact words you said. That worries me very much. If we are going to authorize it up to sixty-five—they just out of the clear blue sky—they are completely carried away on this safety thing, in my opinion—then run it back down. I thought that's what you said, but it must have been a misstatement or something, hopefully."

Senator Tanner: "Senator Barr, as a matter of fact, the statement made was a restatement of current law and it also included in some new language which I will read. 'The Secretary of Transportation shall not increase the speed limit for that highway or portion thereof above the safe speed indicated by an investigation.' The current law allows the Secretary of Transportation to reduce the speed limit or keep it down when safety dictates and that current law is restated in the way that I read it. We have no indication that the Secretary of Transportation will not raise the speed limit up to sixty-five in those areas where it has been seventy in the past, unless there's some changed circumstance or some engineering or other factor that would dictate that."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Tanner, I can understand the reason for this bill, but I have a question. I think Senator Pullen made the point that if the speed limit actually goes down on I-5 and you are going to strictly enforce it all over the state, does that mean the next budget goes entirely to the State Patrol? How are you going to strictly enforce—just because you have it in the language—what good is that going to do? Are we really kidding ourselves that that language is going to mean anything, that it will be strictly enforced?"

Senator Tanner: "Thank you, Senator Deccio, for raising that point. Actually, I think the language means a lot and I'll tell you how. The current law that we have is an open invitation to break the law. In fact, I think it's teaching a whole generation of people out there that it's okay to break the law. Everybody knows that almost all the cars out there on the road, or certainly the majority of them, are breaking that fifty-five mile an hour speed limit, permissively, so the State Patrol is not handing out tickets routinely below about sixty-two or sixty-three or sixty-five, depending on where you are, in my view, and I am not criticizing the State Patrol. I concur with them in that, because they would be stopping almost every car on the road if they were trying to give tickets at fifty-six.

"What this is meant to say, it's a very strong message to the public, whereas it was okay to go sixty-two or sixty-three with a fifty-five mile an hour speed limit, it is not okay to go seventy-two with a sixty-five mile an hour speed limit. This is meant to be the speed limit in this state and that is sixty-five and it’s meant to be strictly enforced and it’s meant to be adhered to. There is no way that anyone will convince me that the fifty-five mile an hour speed limit was ever meant to be adhered to or strictly enforced."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5850.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5850 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 14; excused, 3.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTON. Sec. 1. As we approach 1989, the one hundredth anniversary of Washington becoming a state in the Union, the legislature reaffirms the commitment of the people of this state to upholding the rights guaranteed to every citizen of this state and nation in both the Constitution of the state of Washington and the Constitution of the United States. Freedom of speech, the right of the people to peaceably assemble for the common good, and absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief, and worship are cornerstones of our democracy and actions by private individuals or governmental entities interfering with these precious liberties cannot be condoned. Terrorist actions by persons such as cross burnings or organized paramilitary activities designed to threaten or intimidate are often directed at citizens of this state who are Jewish, Hispanic, Black, Asian, or belong to other minorities. Such actions desecrate the precious constitutional rights of every citizen of this state and threaten our freedom.

The legislature recognizes the dedication of the citizens of this state in preserving the rights of each and every citizen of this state to peacefully coexist and the responsibility of each citizen to uphold the Constitution of the state of Washington and the Constitution of the United States. The legislature finds that actions violating these rights are repugnant to the people of this state.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 2. (1) A select committee is hereby created to study the activities and influence of groups, such as Nazi and neo-Nazi groups, in this state that advocate and teach methods of violence in furtherance of civil disorder.

(2) The committee shall be composed of ten members as follows: Three members shall be selected from the majority caucus of the senate and two members shall be selected from the minority caucus of the senate by the president. Three members shall be selected from the majority caucus of the house of representatives and two members shall be selected from the minority caucus of the house of representatives by the speaker.

(3) The select committee shall report its findings to the legislature by January 15, 1988, including any recommended legislation to correct the problem while protecting the constitutional rights of every citizen of this state.

NEW SECTON. Sec. 3. This act shall expire January 15, 1988."

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:
On page 2, line 18, of the amendment, after "groups" strike all material through "groups." on line 19

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I would raise the point of order that the amendment by Senator West expands the scope and object of the bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Are you referring to the Senator West's amendment--amendment A?"

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen and there being no objection, the point of order on the amendment was withdrawn.
Further debate ensued on the amendment by Senator West on page 2, line 18, to the amendment.

The motion by Senator West carried and the amendments to the amendment were adopted.

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendments by Senators West, Johnson, Bailey, Anderson, Deccio, Bottiger and Moore to the amendment be adopted:

On page 2 of the amendment, beginning on line 15, strike the remainder of the amendment and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person who teaches, exhibits, or demonstrates to any other person the use, application, or manufacture of any firearm, explosive, or incendiary device, or any technique capable of causing injury or death to persons, knowing that the same is intended to be unlawfully employed for violent use in furtherance of a civil disorder directed against any person, group, institution, or property, shall be guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(2) A person who assembles with one or more persons for training, practicing, or instruction in the use, application, or manufacture of any firearm, explosive, or incendiary device, or any technique capable of causing injury or death to persons intending that the same will be unlawfully employed for violent use in furtherance of a civil disorder directed against any person, group, institution, or property, shall be guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(3) Nothing contained in this section makes unlawful any act of any law enforcement officer which is performed in the lawful performance of the law enforcement officer's official duties. Nothing contained in this section makes unlawful any activity of the game department, or any law enforcement agency, or any hunting club, rifle club, rifle range, pistol range, shooting range, or other program or individual instruction intended to teach the safe handling or use of firearms, archery equipment, crossbows, knives, or other weapons or techniques employed in connection with lawful sports, or any activity intended to teach or practice self-defense or self-defense techniques or other lawful activities.

(4) As used in this section the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Civil disorder" means any public disturbance involving acts of violence by assemblies of three or more persons, which acts cause an immediate danger of or result in damage or injury to the property or person of any other individual;

(b) "Firearm", in addition to the meaning under RCW 9.41.010, means any weapon which is designed to or may readily be converted to expel any projectile by the action of an explosive; or the frame or receiver of any such weapon. "Firearm" does not mean any emergency signaling device such as a flare gun.

(c) "Explosive or incendiary device" means:

(i) Dynamite and all other forms of high explosives;

(ii) Any explosive bomb, grenade, missile, or similar device; and

(iii) Any incendiary bomb or grenade, fire bomb, or similar device, including any device which consists of or includes a breakable container including a flammable liquid or compound, and a wick composed of any material which, when ignited, is capable of igniting such flammable liquid or compound, and can be carried or thrown by one individual acting alone.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A select committee is hereby created to study the activities and influence of groups in this state that advocate and teach methods of violence in furtherance of civil disorder.

(2) The committee shall be composed of eight members as follows: Two members shall be selected from the majority caucus of the senate and two members shall be selected from the minority caucus of the senate by the president, two members shall be selected from the majority caucus of the house of representatives and two members shall be selected from the minority caucus of the house of representatives by the speaker.

(3) The select committee shall report its findings to the legislature by January 15, 1988."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President. I would raise the point of order that the amendment by Senators West and others expands the scope and object of the bill. Essentially, what Senator West and others are doing is trying to reinstate the language of the bill. The right parliamentary procedure, if they want to do that, is to defeat the striking amendment. It's not unlike a situation where two people turn in a striking amendment at the same time. Let's call it striking amendment A and striking amendment B. If the proponents of striking amendment B want their amendment to prevail, then what they must do is vote down striking amendment A. Then they can vote on striking amendment B and, hopefully, prevail there.
"What Senator West has done, in effect, is come up with a striking amendment except he has very cleverly tried to couch it in other terms so it doesn't look like a striking amendment. But that, in effect, is what it does. His particular language simply reinstates the language of the original bill and the proper way of getting that language in would be to vote down my amendment.

I would draw attention to the President that my amendment calls for a study of civil disorder and states certain principles that we believe in. The amendment by Senator West, however, deals with firearms; it deals with assembly, it deals with civil disorder with regard to using that civil disorder directing against property. It provides criminal penalties. There are no criminal penalties in the amendment by Senator Pullen and the other thirty-three co-sponsors of the Senate. His amendment also has extensive definitions concerning what constitutes a civil disorder, what constitutes a firearm, what constitutes an explosive. It's really quite unlike the amendment that I offered as a striking amendment. Therefore, his amendment would be an expansion of the scope and object.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Senator Pullen, that is a very interesting argument. The point of order goes to the bill. Senator West did not strike your striking amendment. He simply started on page 2 of your amendment and took the good ideas of your amendment, the good ideas of the bill and combined them into one measure as an amendment to your amendment. In effect, you're winning. You're getting what you asked for in your amendment, but those of us who support the provisions of the bill are, in a sense, winning that part, so it seems like you are coming out winners on both sides and I can't understand your opposition. It's clearly not beyond the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5744 be deferred.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. A parliamentary inquiry to the President, if I may. Are in you a position where you could rule on the point of order at this time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes."

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, with that answer, I would oppose the motion to postpone action and take the President's Ruling and proceed with the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, and there being no objection, the motion to defer Senate Bill No. 5744 was withdrawn.

At 7:46 p.m., the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 7:48 p.m.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Senate Bill 5744 is a measure prohibiting teaching, exhibiting or demonstrating the use of firearms in civil disorders.

The amendment proposed by Senators West, Johnson, Bailey, Anderson, Deccio, Bottiger and Moore prohibits the same things and provides for a study of the activities and influence of groups advocating this type of violence.

The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators West, Johnson, Bailey, Anderson, Deccio, Bottiger and Moore to the amendment was ruled in order.

Debate on the amendment to the amendment ensued.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators West, Johnson, Bailey, Anderson, Deccio, Bottiger and Moore on page 2 to the amendment by Senator Pullen and others.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 29; nays, 16; absent, 2; excused, 2.

The amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

- On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "disorders:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; and providing an expiration date."

- On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "disorders:" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 9.41 RCW; creating new sections; and prescribing penalties."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5744 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5744.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5744 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 17; absent, 3; excused, 2.

Absent: Senators Benitz, Peterson, von Reichbauer - 3.

Excused: Senators Kiskaddon, Metcalf - 2.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5744, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kreidler: "No, Senator. I have a copy of it here. I'd be glad to supply you with a copy of it."

Senator Bottiger: "Does it expand for two hundred feet from any swamp or bog?"

Senator Kreidler: "Absolutely not, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, I am vastly concerned and terribly depressed. You're telling me that seventy-five percent of the wet lands have been destroyed. Can you identify those wet lands? We get these statements all the time about this has been identified and that has been identified, but you are personally acquainted with it. Could you tell me where that seventy-five percent is?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator, I am pleased to know you are as interested as you are in the wet lands, both fresh and salt, and I would be very glad to supply you with some very comprehensive studies that have been done on this particular issue."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Kreidler, a few years ago, I think a year or so ago, there was quite an issue in the Grays Harbor area on the wet lands versus the industry. Now, that was very controversial and what impact would this sort of thing maybe lead to as a major industry concern versus wet lands?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Barr, this would have absolutely no impact whatsoever in any possible way that you can construe it on wet lands in the state of Washington. It would require action of this legislative body before anything could ever be undertaken, so there is absolutely, categorically, no impact."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5984.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5984 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 28.

SENATE BILL NO. 5882, by Senators Moore and Patterson

Authorizing contractors to deposit cash or securities to meet insurance requirements.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Bolliger moved that the following amendment by Senators Bolliger and Moore be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and RCW 18.27.050 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time of registration and subsequent registration, the applicant shall furnish to the director satisfactory evidence that the applicant has procured and has in effect public liability and property damage insurance covering the applicant's contracting operations in the sum of not less than twenty thousand dollars for injury or damage to property and fifty thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to any one person and one hundred thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to more than one person:

In the event that such insurance shall cease to be effective the registration of the contractor shall be suspended until such insurance shall be reinstated;

1. At the time of registration and subsequent re-registration, the applicant shall furnish insurance or financial responsibility in the form of an assigned account in the amount of twenty thousand dollars for injury or damage to property, and fifty thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to any one person, and one hundred thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to more than one person or financial responsibility to satisfy these amounts.

2. Failure to maintain insurance or financial responsibility relative to the contractor's activities shall be cause to suspend or deny the contractor his or her or their registration.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Moore, on the beginning of line 17, you have the alternatives to insurance; there is no mention of a letter of credit from the bank. Would that be included in your cash and securities meaning?"

Senator Moore: "Where is this?"

Senator Deccio: "Well, I am not looking at the amendment. I guess. I'll ask the same question. Is there any consideration given to a letter of credit from the bank in order to meet the requirements of the Department?"

Senator Moore: "Senator Bottiger, would you care to respond?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, it was our intent in drafting this to allow the full range of assignments of accounts which I think would include a letter of credit. It was my intent that it would include a letter."

Senator Deccio: "Could we move to include that or maybe by colloquy or a floor amendment, because in many cases that is the alternative that they have to accept—is a letter of credit from the bank if they can get it?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I'll send a note over to the House to make sure they have a similar colloquy or if not, an amendment in the bill."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, on this, I quite agree, but I think it also should be spelled out clearly that they could accept property bonds. It kind of indicates cash."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, in the Contractor Registration Act which is similar to this, we looked at other kinds of bonds and concluded that the cost of getting title insurance and all the other things really out-weighed the amount, and did not use that. If you want to set the bill down to offer an amendment to add that—I personally think it is too cumbersome—and if you get a judgment against somebody on a property bond, then you have to go through the foreclosure and execution on the property."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you. I am thinking more of the person who may have property and it's something that he could pledge and doesn't have cash and I think that would be—"

Senator Bottiger: "But, he could then usually get a letter of credit from the bank."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, maybe, maybe not."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Bottiger and Moore.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, alter "insurance;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 18.27.050."

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5882 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5882.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5882 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5882, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5671, on reconsideration, deferred March 19, 1987.

Debate ensued on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5671, on reconsideration.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5671, on reconsideration.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5671, on reconsideration, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 26.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 5848.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5848, by Senators Tanner, Deccio, Moore, Newhouse, McDonald, Smitherman and Warnke

Establishing procedures for administration of real estate transaction trust funds.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5848 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5848 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Tanner moved that the following amendment by Senators Tanner, Lee, Sellar and Smitherman be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

Any real estate broker who receives funds or money from any principal or any party to a real estate transaction shall hold the funds or moneys in trust for the purposes of the transaction or agreement, and shall not utilize such funds or moneys for the benefit of the broker or any person not entitled to such benefit. Funds or moneys received in trust by a broker shall be deposited in an interest-bearing trust account in any bank, credit union, or savings and loan association, selected by a broker in the exercise of ordinary prudence, authorized by federal or state law to do business in Washington and insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, the national credit union share insurance funds, the Washington credit union share guaranty association, or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, or which is a "qualified public depository" as defined in RCW 39.58.010(1). Interest-bearing trust funds shall be placed in accounts in which withdrawals or transfers can be made without delay when such funds are required, subject only to any notice period which the depository institution is required to reserve by law or regulation.

(1) Every broker that receives funds or moneys in trust shall establish and maintain a pooled interest-bearing trust account and shall deposit therein all funds held or received in trust by such broker, except "all funds" for purposes of this section shall not be deemed to include the following funds: (a) Separate property management trust accounts which may be either pooled funds or separate individual owner accounts, and which can include damage and/or security deposits accounts; (b) Individual interest-bearing trust accounts established by the broker for individual transactions pursuant to regulations adopted by the department of licensing; or (c) any other separate trust account established by the broker pursuant to applicable laws and regulations. The interest accruing on this account, less any transaction costs, shall be paid to the real estate foundation of Washington, as established under this chapter.

The broker shall be required to notify the party of the intended use of such funds and of the party's right to have a separate fund opened in the party's name if the amount of funds received from any party for deposit in a real estate transaction is equal to or greater than ten thousand dollars. Otherwise, the broker is not required to notify the party of the intended use of such funds or of the parties' right to have a separate account.

(2) The bank, credit union, or savings and loan association maintaining the pooled-bearing trust account for the broker shall comply with the following:

(a) Notify promptly the director of licensing and the real estate foundation of Washington of the name of each broker that opens such trust account and the number as signed to that account;

(b) Remit quarterly the interest or dividends on such account, less any service charges reasonably related to the maintenance of such account, to the real estate foundation of Washington; and

(c) Transmit with each remittance to the real estate foundation of Washington a statement showing the name and account number of the broker for which the remittance is sent, the rate of interest applied, and the amount of service charges, if any, and the account balance(s) of the period for which remittance is made. A copy of such statement shall be transmitted to the depositing broker.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:
There is created the broker's trust account board to consist of seven members to be selected as follows:

1) The governor shall appoint six members with at least two residing east of the Cascade range of mountains. The governor may review nominations from the Washington association of realtors, private, nonprofit housing assistance programs, and any state-wide association of public housing authorities. Three of these appointments shall be real estate brokers or salespersons licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW.

2) The real estate commission, created under this chapter, shall appoint one member.
Members shall serve for terms of three years expiring on January 15th: PROVIDED HOWEVER,
That of the first members appointed by the governor and the Washington association of realtors, one of each shall be appointed for a term of one year, one of each for a term of two years, and one of each for a term of three years. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the board shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the individual or entity responsible for the original appointment. Members shall serve without compensation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 18.85 RCW to read as follows:

1) The members of the broker's trust account board are empowered to form a nonprofit corporation called the real estate foundation of Washington under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW. The brokers trust account board, through the foundation, shall assist development and financing of low-income housing with at least seventy-five percent of the revenue received pursuant to section 2 of this act. The board, through the foundation, may provide support for real estate-related charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 with no more than twenty-five percent of the revenue received pursuant to section 2 of this act. The directors of the foundation shall be directors as long as they are members of the board or until their successors are appointed and qualified. Directors of the foundation shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as foundation directors.

2) For the purposes of this section “low-income housing” means housing assistance for persons or families with incomes at or below fifty percent of the median income for the county or standard metropolitan statistical area of residence that will enable recipients to obtain decent, safe, and sanitary housing at no more than thirty percent of their median incomes.

3) The real estate foundation of Washington shall have as its sole charitable and educational purpose the financing and development of low-income housing with at least seventy­ five percent of the revenue received pursuant to section 2 of this act. The foundation may provide support for real estate-related charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 with no more than twenty-five percent of the revenue received pursuant to section 2 of this act. The foundation’s funds shall not be deemed public funds, and the foundation shall not be deemed a state agency. The foundation shall file an annual report with the governor.

4) The foundation shall conduct its affairs as if it were a governmental entity subject to the requirements of the open public meetings act, chapter 42.30 RCW, and RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.340: PROVIDED, That financial or other information relating to individual brokers shall not be subject to such requirements.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: “Senator Tanner, in looking at Section 3 of the proposed striking amendment, you have seventy-five percent of the revenue received going to the foundation for assisting in the development and financing of low income housing. I would presume that money would go to the Housing Trust Fund, not to some new entity—it would go through the Housing Trust Fund to be distributed?”

Senator Tanner: “Thank you, Senator Talmadge. As a matter of fact, as this bill is currently drafted, the revenue does not go through the Housing Trust Fund.
Although, the definition of low income housing and the matters on which the money must be spent was taken from the Housing Trust Fund language.”

Senator Talmadge: “So, it does not go to the Housing Trust Fund for distribution, but would be done in a separate process entirely?”

Senator Tanner: “That’s accurate.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: “Senator Tanner, in the case of a dispute or in a case where there is a delay, where is the real estate broker in that case?”
Senator Tanner: "I have to candidly answer your question, Senator McCaslin, that I don’t know the answer to that question. The Board of Realtors and their representatives have worked this bill and, in fact, written most of this bill in cooperation with the Commerce staff. I believe the Board of Realtors, acting in good faith, indicated this year they would come forward with a Housing Trust Fund bill and this is their bill. The level of detail you are asking me, I don’t know the answer to that question."

Motion

At 10:29 a.m., on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 11:02 a.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5955, deferred on third reading and final passage earlier today.

Debate on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5955 ensued.

Point of Inquiry

Senator Deccio: "Senator Bottiger, I could support this bill except I don’t like to see the words, ‘the state’ included in the language."

Senator Bottiger: "If that’s all your question is, I’ll yield to Senator McDermott."

Senator Deccio: "My question is, what you’re saying is that we need to pass enabling legislation for either King or Seattle to do this. I guess I can go for this, but I don’t like the word ‘state’ in here, obviously, because of the convention center. If we need to pass enabling legislation and this is what this is in order to let Seattle make that purchase, then I’d be all for it, but I’d want the word ‘state’ to be pulled out."

Remarks by Senator McDermott

Senator McDermott: "If that was a question, Senator Deccio, I don’t understand if people have read this bill or not. What it is, is enabling legislation for people to decide locally if they want to do it. If the word ‘state’ bothers you, it’s certainly no problem to me. I don’t think the state Legislature is going to buy the Seattle Mariners or set up a public development authority. Seattle has set up public development authorities for the Pike Place Market. It set one up when it received the public health hospital from the United States government. The Pacific Medical Center is essentially a public development authority. There are a number of public development authorities around this state which we’ve set up. It is mechanism by which we can collect private money and work a public project that benefits all the people of the state. If that’s your problem and you would like to vote for the bill, I’d certainly have no problem with moving for a second reading and taking out the word ‘state.’"

Further debate ensued.

Motion

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5955 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Motion

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, lines 18 and 22, after “city” strike “, county, or the state” and insert “or county”

Debate ensued.

Point of Inquiry

Senator Hansen: "Senator McDermott, if you take ‘the state’ out, if Spokane would have tried to hold their triple A club—the Indians in Spokane—the way the bill is now and we get the triple A club back in Spokane, would the people of Spokane still have the opportunity to use this bill to acquire the triple A club stadium to stay there?".
Senator McDermott: "Yes, the language would now read 'any city or county,' individually or collectively, and that would mean any code city or county would have the ability to buy—the Spokane Indians or anybody else."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 5955 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator McDermott, as I understand now with the amendment that was adopted, that this bill would not now involve the state. The only purpose of this legislation is to provide an enabling act for cities and counties around the state to purchase sports franchises?"

Senator McDermott: "That's right."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 5955.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 5955 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas. 30; nays. 19.

REENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5955, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the striking amendment expands the scope and object of the bill. I draw your attention to the intent section of the striking amendment. Even the intent section has redefined the entire intent of the bill. There are four items included in the existing bill. Senator McDermott has expanded that to six items in the intent section and the entire focus of the bill would now change. For example, the funding and the bonding that is discussed in Sections five and six is no longer in the striking amendment and, furthermore, I'd draw the President's attention to the fact that the striking amendment does contain a title amendment which on some occasions is prima facia evidence of expanding the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 5996 and the pending striking amendment by Senator McDermott, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Senate Bill 5996 is a measure establishing the Washington Vocational Technical Center by way of a non-profit corporation, authorizing a bond sale to finance construction of the center and designating the powers of a board appointed by the Governor to operate the center.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McDermott also establishes the Washington Vocational Technical Center, authorizes the Governor to form a non-profit corporation with a board of directors to operate the center and delegates certain powers to that board.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator McDermott was ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:
On page 6, line 13 of the striking amendment, after "purposes," strike everything down to and including "210." on line 17.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott, as amended.

The amendment by Senator McDermott, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "center, strike the remainder of the title and insert adding a new chapter to Title 28C RCW and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5996 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDermott, I see a letter from John Terrey dated yesterday in which he said, 'I wish the board created by the bill would be required to file an annual report on program and fiscal activities with the Legislature and other interested bodies. Is that in the bill at the present time?"
Sen. McDermott: "Senator Rasmussen, it is not."
Sen. Rasmussen: "Will you recommend to the House that they put that provision in?"
Sen. McDermott: "I will go over there and do that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Sen. Patterson: "Senator McDermott, I have been trying to find the funding mechanism, for the support in addition to contribution, etc., and also the powers that are being granted as far as the acquiring of property, who are they responsible to, what state entity would have any kind of jurisdiction? I am concerned from all those standpoints."

Sen. McDermott: "The model that we used, Senator Patterson, was that of the vocational-technical institutes. The money will go through the Seattle public schools as it does in Clover Park and Bates Vocational Technical which goes through the Tacoma schools and the Lake Washington school district.

"The acquisition of property or the decision on whether to lease or to buy, that is not spoken to directly in the bill. It is something that will be decided by the board and they will have to approach us for appropriation. The original bill had bonding authority and a lot of other things in there. We took that all out and it will require them to come back here if they want to build a building or buy a building, they will have to approach the Legislature. They will have their money on the same per-capita basis as any other vocational-technical institute and it would be decided in the budget—we estimate that would be about seven hundred students. It would be done through the budget in the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, directly to the Seattle public schools systems."

Sen. Patterson: "Then they would be subject to the appropriations by the Legislature for all of the monies other than those that might be contributed from other sources?"

Sen. McDermott: "That is correct."

Sen. Patterson: "We will appropriate it to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for allocation to them?"

Sen. McDermott: "As we do in all the voc bills."

Sen. Patterson: "We basically have control over the capital program and the operational dollars?"

Sen. McDermott: "Absolutely."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Sen. Hayner: "Senator McDermott, it's rather unusual for the state to give the power of eminent domain to a non-profit corporation. I understand the first time we did this was for the convention center. Is that your understanding?"

Sen. McDermott: "Where is that?"

Sen. Hayner: "It's in this bill. It's on page 6, line 3."

Sen. McDermott: "Would you repeat your question?"

Sen. Hayner: "I just said it was very unusual for the state to give the right of eminent domain to a non-profit corporation and that, to my knowledge, the first time it was done—and probably the only time—was in the convention center situation. Is that your understanding?"

Sen. McDermott: "Yes, Senator Hayner. You have found the second code revisor error; it looks like to me. We had told them to take that out. We look out all the reference to the enterprise fund and everything else and apparently they did not drop that out. I would be willing to put it back on second reading and drop that out."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5996 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator McDermott moved to reconsider the vote by which the striking amendment by Senator McDermott was adopted.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McDermott to reconsider the vote by which the striking amendment by Senator McDermott was adopted.

amendment, on reconsideration, be adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 4 of the striking amendment, strike all material down to and including "or" on line 7

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator McDermott, we are striking out a lot of language which then leaves the question that there is going to have to be some property acquired in order to start the technology institute. I would like to know what the exact procedure will be. When we strike out the power of eminent domain, what will be the procedure that this board will have to go through in order to acquire property and get underway?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Patterson, it will have to be in the capital budget. If you read the language, it says that, 'the corporation may acquire, transfer real and personal property by lease, purchase or sale.' They can't do it until they have the money. It's got to come to the capital budget, so the process will be like it is for anything else. It goes through the capital budget. They will have no access to doing anything. They won't have any money. You can't do anything without money and this will allow them to lease or make plans to lease, but they will have to get the money through the budget."

Senator Patterson: "How long would you anticipate, Senator, that it will take to really get underway? I mean, it has an emergency clause on it and I am just won­­ dering how soon the Legislature could address the issue of capital expenditures—the extent of it? You say seven hundred and fifty students. I don't know what kind of a facility and the type of equipment and the type of programs that are going to be offered to accommodate that number of students and what the cost might be. You know, we are taking on a substantial project with very little information. I want to express that concern."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott on page 6, line 4, to the striking amendment.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the amendment to the amend­­ ment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

On page 6, line 34 of the striking amendment by Senator McDermott, after "43.03.060." insert and fiscal activities with the legislature and the superintendent of public instruction."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Bender, it's been discussed here on the floor today the unknowns involved in this project which concern me a great deal, particularly when it comes to the number of transportation dollars that may be going in to this project and since we are now setting a precedent that all the transportation needs that are going to be generated by the home port will come out of transportation dollars, I would just like to know whether or not you feel that you are in a position to support, probably, some forty millions of dollars out of transportation to accommodate the home port?"

Senator Bender: "Well, first of all, Senator Patterson. I am not sure that the forty million dollar figure is correct. Until we get that management study, it's difficult to predict what that cost will be, whether it will be twenty million, thirty million, forty million, or whatever. As far as the whole issue of the transportation budget and so forth, as you well know, after the next biennium, we are going to have some real problems with the whole Cat C program. This 3.5 million dollars won't make any impact upon that issue, as you well know, because there are so many needs out there in terms of Category C that we will probably have to look, at some time in the future, some type of revenue increase for the transportation program. As far as a commitment in the future, I think there is no question that we are going to have to provide some more dollars for the transportation needs for the whatever—home port issue."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5456.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Zimmerman, you held up a blue book over there. What did it have to do with this? Is this what they produced?"

Senator Zimmerman: "This is one of the parts that this Commission has produced. This book is a history of Washington local governments that started from territorial days up to the present time dealing with the variety of ways that the state developed in terms of taxes, in terms of the Populist era, the public power—a whole group. It’s a very fascinating history."

Senator Rasmussen: "Did they only produce one book?"

Senator Zimmerman: "No, they have several books."

Senator Rasmussen: "The reason I am asking is the Water Quality Commission, in one year produced seven volumes and numerous other papers and I’m wondering if we are getting our money’s worth?"

Senator Zimmerman: "Yes, in this case they are trying to hold down putting out just a lot of paper. It will be something worth reading. They have also produced most interesting surveys. They did a survey of citizens throughout the state on their attitudes in regard to local government and also a survey of government officials."

Senator Rasmussen: "When are they going to distribute the volume?"

Senator Zimmerman: "I think they are upon request at this point. We are trying to reduce the number of things put out that people just won’t read. At this point, I am sure they are going to be available to members of the Governmental Operations Committee. I assume they will be available to legislators, but rather than just stack up reports that are going to be unread—I know you are a keeper of reports and I am sure we should get you one. I'll let you borrow mine right now.”

Senator Rasmussen: “Thank you. I would appreciate it.”

WHEREAS, The designer's vision can only be realized if existing features which have been added to the Senate Chambers over the years, and which are inconsistent with the original design of the chambers, are modified or removed; and

WHEREAS, The overwhelmingly favorable public response to the work done in the Rotunda demonstrates a popular consensus on the importance and propriety of harmonizing the decor of the entire building with the designer's original vision; and

WHEREAS, The murals added to the walls of the chambers in 1981, while possessed of unique character and recognized artistic value, do not comport with the chamber's original design; and

WHEREAS, Retention of the murals would require changes in the plan for refurbishment of the Senate Chambers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the state of Washington, that the murals currently hanging in the Senate Chambers be removed; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Department of General Administration be requested to find a new home for said murals in an appropriate public building.

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment to Senate Resolution 1987-8633 be adopted:

After the initial "resolved", strike the "and" and insert:
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That prior to any actual removal of such murals, the Attorney General shall thoroughly review the contract entered into September 23, 1980, between the Department of General Administration and the artist who created the murals, ascertain the limits of any possible financial exposure such action might have either to the State or the Senate and render an official opinion to the President of the Senate, the members of the Senate Facilities and Operations Committee and the members of the Ways and Means Committee; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That following receipt of the official opinion of the Attorney General, the President of the Senate shall confer with those members of the Senate so advised and, with concurrence of a majority of said members, may in that event authorize the removal of such murals: and

Senator Stratton: "Senator McDermott, you're the money man around here. What is the anticipated cost for removing these murals?"

Senator McDermott: "To be honest, Senator Stratton, I really don't know the exact cost. No one is quite sure how they're going to take them down, if they do. That's the will of the body and I am not sure. The problem is how to take them down without damaging, which was the reason for my original amendment. I don't know. No one has given an estimate yet of how much it will cost."

Senator Stratton: "Who is going to pay for the removal?"

Senator McDermott: "The people of the state of Washington."

Senator Stratton: "What is the investment in this art at the present time?"

Senator McDermott: "I think the pieces originally were $91,000, but they are like the—you know we had an event before when the state commissioned Mark Tobey, probably our most famous artist, to do a piece for this building. It was taken out of this building and now it sits over in the library. That has appreciated now to be one of the most valuable pieces in the whole collection. I think the value of these is much higher than it was when they were put up, so it's something more than $91,000."

Further debate ensued.

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of Senate Resolution 1987-8633.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds the existing statutes that establish the criteria for determining when a person is guilty of driving a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs are constitutional and do not require any additional criteria to ensure their legality. However, the legislature recognizes that there are circumstances, such as when a suspected drunken driver is unconscious or dead, when a direct determination of the alcoholic content of the person's blood is desirable to determine legal rights and responsibilities. The purpose of this act is to provide an additional method of defining the crime of driving while intoxicated. This act is not an acknowledgement that the existing breath alcohol standard is legally improper or invalid.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.502 are each amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if ((he)) the person drives or moves a vehicle within this state while:

1. The person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, as shown by analysis of ((his)) the person's breath ((blood, or other bodily substance)) made under RCW 46.61.506 ((as now or hereafter amended)); or
2. The person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506.

3. The person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or
4. The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.504 are each amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if ((he)) the person has actual physical control of a vehicle within this state while:

1. The person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, as shown by analysis of ((his)) the person's breath ((blood, or other bodily substance)) made under RCW 46.61.506 ((as now or hereafter amended)); or
2. The person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506.

3. The person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or
4. The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, ((he)) the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 1, Laws of 1969 as last amended by section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.506 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Upon the trial of any civil or criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, if the amount of alcohol in the person's blood or breath at the time alleged as shown by analysis of his blood or breath ((blood, or other bodily substance)) is less than 0.10 percent by weight of alcohol in his blood or 0.10 grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of the person's breath, it is evidence that may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.

2. The person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

3. The person has actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if ((he)) the person drives or moves a vehicle within this state while:

4. The person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath, as shown by analysis of ((his)) the person's breath ((blood, or other bodily substance)) made under RCW 46.61.506 ((as now or hereafter amended)); or
5. The person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506.

7. The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section.
(2) The breath analysis shall be based upon grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath. The foregoing provisions of this section shall not be construed as limiting the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.

(3) Analysis of the person's blood or breath to be considered valid under the provisions of this section or RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall have been performed according to methods approved by the state toxicologist and by an individual possessing a valid permit issued by the state toxicologist for this purpose. The state toxicologist is directed to approve satisfactory techniques or methods, to supervise the examination of individuals to ascertain their qualifications and competence to conduct such analyses, and to issue permits which shall be subject to termination or revocation at the discretion of the state toxicologist.

(4) When a blood test is administered under the provisions of RCW 46.20.308, the withdrawal of blood for the purpose of determining its alcoholic content may be performed only by a physician, a registered nurse, or a qualified technician. This limitation shall not apply to the taking of breath specimens.

(5) The person tested may have a physician, or a qualified technician, chemist, registered nurse, or other qualified person of his own choosing administer one or more tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test by a person shall not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the test or tests taken at the direction of a law enforcement officer.

(6) Upon the request of the person who shall submit to a test or tests at the request of a law enforcement officer, full information concerning the test or tests shall be made available to him or his attorney.

Sec. 5. Section 27, chapter 165, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 2, chapter 64. Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.61.517 are each amended to read as follows:

The refusal of a person to submit to a test of the alcoholic content of his breath under RCW 46.20.308 is admissible into evidence at a subsequent criminal trial.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 6, chapter 153. Laws of 1986 and RCW 88.02.095 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vessel in a negligent manner, except a commercial vessel which has or is required to have a valid marine document as a vessel of the United States and is operating in the navigable waters of the United States. For the purpose of this section, to "operate in a negligent manner" shall be construed to mean the operation of a vessel in such manner as to endanger or be likely to endanger any persons or property.

(2) A person is guilty of operating a vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person operates a vessel within this state while:

(d) The person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. A person cited under this subsection may upon request be given a breath test for (blood) breath alcohol or may request to have a blood sample taken for blood alcohol analysis. An arresting officer shall administer field sobriety tests when circumstances permit.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "vessel" means any watercraft used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water.

(4) For the purpose of this section, "vessel operator" means a person who is in actual physical control of a vessel.

Members of the commission and its staff may contact the legislature, or any of its members, at any time, to advise it of recommendations of the commission.

Sec. 3. Section 75, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 287, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.40.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall, except in the case of a juvenile committed by a court to a term of confinement in a state institution outside the appropriate standard range for the offense(s) for which the juvenile was found to be guilty established pursuant to RCW 13.40.030, as now or hereafter amended, set a release or discharge date for each juvenile committed to its custody which shall be within the prescribed range to which a juvenile has been committed.
dates shall be determined prior to the expiration of sixty percent of a juvenile’s minimum term of confinement included within the prescribed range to which the juvenile has been committed. The secretary shall release any juvenile committed to the custody of the department within four calendar days prior to the juvenile’s release date or on the release date set under this chapter: PROVIDED, That days spent in the custody of the department shall be tolled by any period of time during which a juvenile has absented himself or herself from the department’s supervision without the prior approval of the secretary or the secretary’s designee.

(2) The secretary shall monitor the average daily population of the state’s juvenile residential facilities. When the secretary concludes that in-residence population of residential facilities exceeds one hundred five percent of the rated bed capacity specified in statute, or in absence of such specification, as specified by the department in rule, the secretary may recommend reductions to the governor. On certification by the governor that the recommended reductions are necessary, the secretary has authority to administratively release a sufficient number of offenders to reduce in-residence population to one hundred percent of rated bed capacity. The secretary shall release those offenders who have served the greatest proportion of their sentence. However, the secretary may deny release in a particular case at the request of an offender, or if the secretary finds that there is no responsible custodian, as determined by the department, to whom to release the offender, or if the release of the offender would pose a clear danger to society. The department shall notify the committing court of the release (notifying each member of the legislature) at the end of each calendar year if any such early releases have occurred during that year as a result of excessive in-residence population. In no event shall a serious offender, as defined in RCW 13.40.020(1) be granted release under the provisions of this subsection.

(3) Following the juvenile’s release pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the secretary may require the juvenile to comply with a program of parole to be administered by the department in his or her community which shall last no longer than eighteen months. Such a parole program shall be mandatory for offenders released under subsection (2) of this section. The secretary shall, for the period of parole, facilitate the juvenile’s reintegration into his or her community and to further this goal may require the juvenile to: (a) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment; (b) report as directed to a parole officer; (c) pursue a course of study or vocational training; (d) remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the department of any change in his or her address; and (e) refrain from committing new offenses. After termination of the parole period, the juvenile shall be discharged from the department’s supervision.

(4) The department may also modify parole for violation thereof. If, after confining a juvenile all of the due process rights to which he or she would be entitled if the juvenile were an adult, the secretary finds that a juvenile has violated a condition of his or her parole, the secretary shall order one of the following which is reasonably likely to effectuate the purpose of the parole and to protect the public: (a) Continued supervision under the same conditions previously imposed; (b) intensified supervision with increased reporting requirements; (c) additional conditions of supervision authorized by this chapter; and (d) imposition of a period of confinement not to exceed thirty days in a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state of Washington or any city or county for a portion of each day or for a certain number of days each week with the balance of the days or weeks spent under supervision.

(5) A parole officer of the department of social and health services shall have the power to arrest a juvenile under his or her supervision on the same grounds as a law enforcement officer would be authorized to arrest such person.

(6) If so requested and approved under chapter 13.06 RCW, the secretary shall permit a county or group of counties to perform functions under subsections (3) through (5) of this section.

(3) The supervisor shall submit forecasts prepared under this section, along with any unofficial forecasts provided under RCW 82.01.130(3), to the governor and the (legislature) members of the committees on ways and means and the chairs of the committees on transportation of the senate and house of representatives and the chair of the legislative transportation committee, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, on or before November 20th, February 20th in the even-numbered years, March 20th in the odd-numbered years, June 20th, and September 20th.

Sec. 79. Section 2, chapter 141, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.36.037 are each amended to read as follows:

Real or personal property owned by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation in connection with the operation of a public assembly hall or meeting place is exempt from taxation. The area exempt under this section includes the building or buildings, the land under the buildings, and an additional area necessary for parking, not exceeding a total of one acre: PROVIDED. That for property essentially unimproved except for restroom facilities and structures on such property which has been used primarily for annual community celebration events for at least ten years, such exempt property shall not exceed twenty-nine acres.

To qualify for this exemption the property must be used exclusively for public gatherings and to be available to all organizations or persons desiring to use the property, but the owner may impose conditions and restrictions which are necessary for the safekeeping of the property and promote the purposes of this exemption. Membership shall not be a prerequisite for the use of the property.

The use of the property for pecuniary gain or to promote business activities, except fund raising activities conducted by a nonprofit organization, nullifies the exemption otherwise available for the property for the assessment year. The exemption is nullified by the collection of rent or donations if the amount is reasonable and does not exceed maintenance and operation expenses created by the user.

The department of revenue shall narrowly construe this exemption (and shall annually report to the legislature the names of organizations receiving such property tax exemptions).

Sec. 80. Section 1, chapter 166, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 46, chapter 87, Laws of 1980 and RCW 90.03.247 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever an application for a permit to make beneficial use of public waters is approved relating to a stream or other water body for which minimum flows or levels have been adopted and are in effect at the time of approval, the permit shall be conditioned to protect the levels or flows. No agency may establish minimum flows and levels or similar water flow or level restrictions for any stream or lake of the state other than the department of ecology whose authority to establish is exclusive, as provided in chapter 90.03 RCW and RCW 90.22.010 and 90.54.040. The provisions of other statutes, including but not limited to RCW 75.20.100 and chapter 43.21C RCW, may not be interpreted in a manner that is inconsistent with this section. In establishing such minimum flows, levels, or similar restrictions, the department shall, during all stages of development by the department of ecology of minimum flow proposals, consult with, and carefully consider the recommendations of, the department of fisheries, the state game commission, the state energy office, the department of agriculture, and representatives of the affected Indian tribes. Nothing herein shall preclude the department of fisheries, the game commission, the energy office, or the department of agriculture from presenting its views on minimum flow needs at any public hearing or to any person or agency, and the department of fisheries, the game commission, the energy office, and the department of agriculture are each empowered to participate in proceedings of the federal energy regulatory commission and other agencies to present its views on minimum flow needs. ((The department of ecology shall file with the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate on the first day of each regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year a report as to the implementation of its minimum flow setting program:))

Sec. 81. Section 10, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 95, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 90.54.090 are each amended to read as follows:

All agencies of state and local government, including counties and municipal and public corporations, shall, whenever possible, carry out powers vested in them in manners which are consistent with the provisions of this chapter. (The director of the department of ecology shall submit a report to the legislature at least annually noting any failures by such agencies to comply with the mandate of this section; and the circumstances surrounding such failure;)

Sec. 82. Section 18, chapter 108, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 308, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.21G.040 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The governor may subject to the definitions and limitations provided in this chapter:
   a. Upon finding that an energy supply alert exists within this state or any part thereof, declare a condition of energy supply alert; or
   b. Upon finding that an energy emergency exists within this state or any part thereof, declare a condition of energy emergency. A condition of energy emergency shall terminate thirty consecutive days after the declaration of such condition if the legislature is not in session at the time of such declaration and if the governor fails to convene the legislature pursuant to Article III, section 7 of the Constitution of the state of Washington within thirty consecutive days of such declaration. If the legislature is in session or convened, in accordance with this subsection, the duration of the condition of energy emergency shall be limited in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

   Upon the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency, the governor shall present to the committee any proposed plans for programs, controls, standards, and priorities for the production, allocation, and consumption of energy during any current or anticipated condition of energy emergency, any proposed plans for the suspension or modification of existing rules of the Washington Administrative Code, and any other relevant matters the governor deems desirable. The governor shall review any recommendations of the committee concerning such plans and matters.

   (The governor shall review the status of such plans annually with the house of representatives and senate standing committees on energy and utilities;)

   Upon the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency, the governor shall direct any state or local governmental agency to implement programs relating to the consumption of energy by such agencies and to the production of energy, and to make any local governmental agency to implement programs relating to the consumption of energy by the agency which have been developed by the governor or the agency and reviewed by the committee.

   (The director of the department of ecology shall subject to the definitions and limitations provided in this chapter:
   a. Upon finding that an energy supply alert exists within this state or any part thereof, declare a condition of energy supply alert; or
   b. Upon finding that an energy emergency exists within this state or any part thereof, declare a condition of energy emergency. A condition of energy emergency shall terminate thirty consecutive days after the declaration of such condition if the legislature is not in session at the time of such declaration and if the governor fails to convene the legislature pursuant to Article III, section 7 of the Constitution of the state of Washington within thirty consecutive days of such declaration. If the legislature is in session or convened, in accordance with this subsection, the duration of the condition of energy emergency shall be limited in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

2. A condition of energy supply alert shall terminate ninety consecutive days after the declaration of such condition unless:
   a. Extended by the governor upon issuing a finding that the energy supply alert continues to exist, and with prior approval of such an extension by the committee; or
   b. Extended by the governor based on a declaration by the president of the United States of a national state of emergency in regard to energy supply; or
   c. Upon the request of the governor, extended by declaration of the legislature by concurrent resolution of a continuing energy supply alert.

   In the event any such initial extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate one hundred and fifty consecutive days after the declaration of such condition. One or more subsequent extensions may be implemented through the extension procedures set forth in this subsection. In the event any such subsequent extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate sixty consecutive days after the implementation of such extension.

3. A condition of energy emergency shall terminate forty-five consecutive days after the declaration of such condition unless:
   a. Extended by the governor upon issuing a finding that the energy emergency continues to exist, and with prior approval of such an extension by the committee; or
   b. Extended by the governor based on a declaration by the president of the United States of a national state of emergency in regard to energy supply; or
   c. Upon the request of the governor, extended by declaration of the legislature by concurrent resolution of a continuing energy emergency.

   In the event any such initial extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate ninety consecutive days after the declaration of such condition. One or more subsequent extensions may be implemented through the extension procedures set forth in this subsection. In the event any such subsequent extension is implemented, the condition shall terminate forty-five consecutive days after the implementation of such extension.

4. A condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency shall cease to exist upon a declaration to that effect by either of the following: (a) The governor; or (b) the legislature, by concurrent resolution, if in regular or special session; PROVIDED. That the governor shall terminate a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency when the energy supply situation upon which the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency was based no longer exists.

5. In the condition of energy supply alert, the governor may, as deemed necessary to preserve and protect the public health, safety, and general welfare, and to minimize, to the fullest extent possible, the injurious economic, social, and environmental consequences of such energy supply alert, issue orders to: (a) Suspend or modify existing rules of the Washington Administrative Code of any state agency relating to the consumption of energy by such agency or to the production of energy, and (b) direct any state or local governmental agency to implement programs relating to the consumption of energy by the agency which have been developed by the governor or the agency and reviewed by the committee.
(6) In addition to the powers in subsection (5) of this section, in a condition of energy emergency, the governor may, as deemed necessary to preserve and protect the public health, safety, and general welfare, and to minimize, to the fullest extent possible, the injurious economic, social, and environmental consequences of such an emergency, issue orders to: (a) implement programs, controls, standards, and priorities for the production, allocation, and consumption of energy; (b) suspend and modify existing pollution control standards and requirements or any other standards or requirements affecting or affected by the use of energy, including those relating to air or water quality control; and (c) establish and implement regional programs and agreements for the purposes of coordinating the energy programs and actions of the state with those of the federal government and of other states and localities.

The governor shall immediately transmit the declaration of a condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency and the findings upon which the declaration is based and any orders issued under the powers granted in this chapter to the committee.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any program, control, standard, priority or other policy created under the authority of the emergency powers authorized by this chapter shall have any continuing legal effect after the cessation of the condition of energy supply alert or energy emergency.

If any provision of this chapter is in conflict with any other provision, limitation, or restriction which is now in effect under any other law of this state, including, but not limited to, chapter 34.04 RCW, this chapter shall govern and control, and such other law or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder shall be deemed superseded for the purposes of this chapter.

Because of the emergency nature of this chapter, all actions authorized or required hereunder, or taken pursuant to any order issued by the governor, shall be exempted from any and all requirements and provisions of the state environmental policy act of 1971, chapter 43.21C RCW, including, but not limited to, the requirement for environmental impact statements.

Except as provided in this section nothing in this chapter shall exempt a person from compliance with the provisions of any other law, rule, or directive unless specifically ordered by the governor.

The executive board of any operating agency constructing, operating, terminating, or decommissioning a nuclear power plant under a site certification agreement issued pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW shall appoint an administrative auditor. The administrative auditor shall be deemed an officer under chapter 42.23 RCW. The appointment of the administrative auditor shall be in addition to the appointment of the auditor for the issuance of warrants and other purposes as provided in RCW 43.52.375. The executive board shall retain a qualified firm or firms to conduct performance audits which is in fact independent and does not have any interest, direct or indirect, in any contract with the operating agency other than its employment hereunder. No member or employee of any such firm shall be connected with the operating agency as an officer, employee, or contractor. The administrative auditor and the firm or firms shall be independently and directly responsible to the executive board of the operating agency. The executive board shall require a firm to conduct continuing audits of the methods, procedures and organization used by the operating agency to control costs, schedules, productivity, contract amendments, project design and any other topics deemed desirable by the executive board. The executive board may also require a firm to analyze particular technical aspects of the operating agency's projects and contract amendments. The firm or firms shall provide advice to the executive board in its management and control of the operating agency. At least once each year, the firm or firms shall prepare and furnish a report of its actions and recommendations to the executive board for the purpose of enabling it to attain the highest degree of efficiency in the management and control of any thermal power project under construction or in operation. The administrative auditor shall assist the firm or firms in the performance of its duties. The administrative auditor and the firm or firms shall consult regularly with the executive board and furnish any information or data to the executive board which the administrative auditor, firm, or executive board deems helpful in accomplishing the purpose above stated. The administrative auditor shall perform such other duties as the executive board shall prescribe to accomplish the purposes of this section.

((The operating agency shall file a copy of each firm's reports, prepared in accordance with this section, with the respective chairman of the senate and house of energy and utilities committees in a timely manner;)) Upon the concurrent request of the chairmen of the senate or house energy and utilities committees, the operating agency shall report to the committees on a quarterly basis.

exclusive of sales tax, by contract in accordance with RCW 54.04.070 and 54.04.080, which require sealed bids for contracts.

(2) When a joint operating agency chooses to use one or more of the exceptions to sealed bid contracting specified in this chapter, the agency shall certify to the senate and house committees on energy and utilities in writing ((within thirty days)) semiannually after the contract is signed, that such contract is in the public interest, state the reason or reasons why, and indicate the estimated cost savings or schedule improvement to the project compared to contracting for the same material, supplies, equipment or work through completion of work as contracted, including termination costs, or through sealed bids.

Sec. 85. Section 2, chapter 293, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.200.142 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall monitor and evaluate the research performed by the federal department of energy that is undertaken for the purpose of determining the suitability of the Hanford candidate site for the location of a disposal facility for spent nuclear fuel and high-level radioactive waste. If the board is dissatisfied with the research performed by the federal department of energy, it shall conduct its own independent testing and evaluation activities, for which it shall seek funding from the federal government. (The board shall report semiannually to the governor and the Washington state legislature on the results of research conducted under this section.)

Sec. 86. Section 4, chapter 2, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.200.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of ecology shall be the state agency responsible for implementation of the federal low-level radioactive waste policy amendments act of 1985, including:

(1) Collecting and administering the surcharge assessed by the governor under RCW 43.200.170;

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

On page 80, line 2, after "1990. " insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 91. (1) The legislature finds and declares that the buildings, facilities, equipment, and vehicles owned or leased by state government consume significant amounts of energy and that cost-effective energy conservation actions to provide for efficient energy use in these buildings, facilities, equipment, and vehicles will reduce the costs of state government. In order for the operations of state government to provide the citizens of this state an example of energy use efficiency, the legislature further finds and declares that state government should undertake an aggressive program designed to reduce energy use in state buildings, facilities, equipment, and vehicles within a reasonable period of time.

(2) It is the purpose of sections 92 through 95 of this act to consolidate state functions relating to energy audits, technical assistance studies, reports, and financing arrangements within the state energy office, without removing from any state agency any responsibility for overseeing, contracting for, designing, or installing capital projects, including installation of energy conservation measures.

(3) It is also the purpose of sections 92 through 95 of this act to require energy audits in state-owned buildings, to require energy audits as a lease condition in all new, renewed, and renegotiated leases of buildings by the state, to undertake such modifications and installations as are necessary to maximize the efficient use of energy in these buildings, and to establish a policy for the purchase of state vehicles, equipment, and materials which results in efficient, cost-effective energy use by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 92. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions shall apply throughout sections 92 through 95 of this act.

(1) "Energy audit" means a determination of the energy consumption characteristics of a facility which consists of the following elements:
(a) An energy consumption survey which identifies the type, amount, and rate of energy consumption of the facility and its major energy systems. This survey shall be made by the agency responsible for the facility.

(b) A walk-through survey which determines appropriate energy conservation maintenance and operating procedures and indicates the need, if any, for the acquisition and installation of energy conservation measures. This survey shall be made by the agency responsible for the facility if it has technically qualified personnel available. The director of the state energy office shall provide technically qualified personnel for the responsible agency if necessary.

(c) A technical assistance study, which is an intensive engineering analysis of energy conservation measures for the facility, net energy savings, and a cost-effectiveness determination. This element is required only for those facilities designated in the technical assistance study schedule adopted under section 95(2) of this act.

(2) "Energy conservation measure" means an installation or modification of an installation in a facility which is primarily intended to reduce energy consumption or allow the use of an alternative energy source, including:

(a) Insulation of the facility structure and systems within the facility;

(b) Storm windows and doors, multiglazed windows and doors, heat absorbing or heat reflective glazed and coated windows and door systems, additional glazing, reductions in glass area, and other window and door system modifications;

(c) Automatic energy control systems;

(d) Equipment required to operate variable steam, hydraulic, and ventilating systems adjusted by automatic energy control systems;

(e) Solar space heating or cooling systems, solar electric generating systems, or any combination thereof;

(f) Solar water heating systems;

(g) Furnace or utility plant and distribution system modifications including replacement burners, furnaces, and boilers which substantially increase the energy efficiency of the heating system; devices for modifying flue openings which will increase the energy efficiency of the heating system; electrical or mechanical furnace ignitions systems which replace standing gas pilot lights; and utility plant system conversion measures including conversion of existing oil- and gas-fired boiler installations to alternative energy sources;

(h) Caulking and weatherstripping;

(i) Replacement or modification of lighting fixtures which increase the energy efficiency of the lighting system;

(j) Energy recovery systems; and

(k) Such other measures as the director finds will save a substantial amount of energy.

(3) "Energy conservation maintenance and operating procedure" means modification or modifications in the maintenance and operations of a facility, and any installations within the facility, which are designed to reduce energy consumption in the facility and which require no significant expenditure of funds.

(4) "Facility" means a building, a group of buildings served by a central energy distribution system, or components of a central energy distribution system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 93. (1) The director of the state energy office shall have primary authority for planning, measuring, and reporting on energy conservation in state facilities.

(2) The director shall use state, federal, utility, and other funds, as may be available, to identify potential savings to the state through greater energy efficiency, to facilitate the implementation of energy conservation measures, and to increase otherwise the efficiency of energy use in state facilities.

(3) The director may, to carry out the responsibilities of this section, conduct energy audits and technical assistance studies; collect and analyze data on energy consumption and efficiency; provide training and education to facility managers and operators; develop guidelines for planning and operation of state facilities; arrange for financing of conservation projects; perform necessary engineering and design work; and purchase, hire, contract, or provide otherwise for necessary equipment, materials, other goods, and labor.

(4) The director shall in implementing this section cooperate with the director of each state agency for which potential energy savings are identified.

(5) The director shall develop policy recommendations to increase the energy efficiency of state facilities for consideration by the governor, the legislature, and each agency responsible for state facilities.

(6) The director shall consult with, and make recommendations to, the department of general administration and any other agency responsible for state facilities for: (a) The implementation of energy conservation in facilities leased by the state; (b) the purchase of energy conservation devices and fuels for state facilities; and (c) the oversight, design, purchase, contracting, and implementation of capital projects that involve potential cost-effective energy conservation.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 94. The director of the state energy office may conduct, by contract or other arrangement, an energy audit for each state-owned facility that has not been previously audited and update each energy audit whenever the facility’s operation, costs, technology, or purpose substantially changes. All energy audits shall be coordinated with and complement other governmental energy audit programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 95. (1) Upon completion of each walk-through survey performed pursuant to section 94 of this act, the director of the agency responsible for the facility shall implement energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures that may be identified for any state-owned facility. These procedures shall be implemented as soon as possible but not later than twelve months after the walk-through survey.

(2) Energy conservation measure acquisitions and installations shall be scheduled to be fifty-five percent complete by June 30, 1989, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, eighty-five percent complete by June 30, 1993, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, and fully complete by June 30, 1995, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later. Each state agency shall implement energy conservation measures with a payback period of twenty-four months or fewer that have a positive cash flow in the same biennium.

(3) For each biennium until all measures are installed, the director of the state energy office shall report to the governor and appropriate committees of the legislature installation progress, measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium, and changes, if any, to the technical assistance study schedule. This report shall be submitted at the end of a year that immediately precedes the capital budget adoption, and every two years thereafter until all measures are installed.

(4) The director of the state energy office shall facilitate private investment in energy conservation measures for state-owned buildings consistent with state law.

Sec. 96. Section 6, chapter 172, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 4, chapter 48, Laws of 1982 and RCW 43.19.685 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 96. All powers, duties, and functions of the director of general administration shall be transferred to the director of the state energy office. All funds, credits, or other property received by any state agency pursuant to RCW 43.19.680, all obligations incurred or contracts entered into prior to January 1, 1983, and all leases under which state occupancy is at least half of the facility space and includes an area greater than three thousand square feet:

(1) Obligate the lessor to conduct or have conducted a walk-through survey of the leased premises;

(2) Obligate the lessor to implement identified energy conservation maintenance and operating procedures upon completion of the walk-through survey; and

(3) Obligate the lessor to undertake technical assistance studies and subsequent acquisition and installation of energy conservation measures if the director of general administration, in accordance with rules adopted by the department, determines that these studies and measures will both conserve energy and can be accomplished with a state funding contribution limited to the savings which would result in utility expenses during the term of the lease.

These lease covenants, conditions, and terms shall be incorporated into all specified new, renewed, and renegotiated leases executed on or after January 1, 1983. This section applies to all leases under which state occupancy is at least half of the facility space and includes an area greater than three thousand square feet.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 97. All powers, duties, and functions of the director of general administration pertaining to state energy audits in state-owned buildings and private financing of conservation measures in state facilities are transferred to the state energy office. All references to the director or the director of general administration in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or the state energy office when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 98. Senator West: "It's my understanding, Senator Bender, that without these amendments or without this definition, our apprenticeship program does not comply with federal law and that we are losing federal support, because we do not comply with federal law."

Senator Bender: "Are you talking with regard to the non-union apprenticeship programs or the union apprenticeship programs?"

Senator West: "I am talking about the state of Washington apprenticeship programs. I am not familiar with the difference between union and non-union."

Senator Bender: "I don't think you are correct in your answer there. I think we are talking about less stringent standards in terms of apprenticeship programs. I think the state requirements are higher than those at the federal level, so I don't think it's a very good amendment."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator West on page 1, line 11.

The motion by Senator West carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, further consideration of House Bill No. 173 was deferred.

There being no objection, the President reverted the Senate to the first order of business.

The director shall establish by rule, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, a schedule of fees for retail nursery dealer licenses and a schedule of fees for wholesale nursery dealer licenses which shall be based upon the amount of a person's retail or wholesale sales of horticultural plants and turf. The schedule for retail licenses shall include, but shall not be limited to, separate fees for at least the following two categories: (a) A fee for a person whose gross business sales of such materials do not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars; and (b) a fee for a person whose gross business sales of such materials exceed two thousand five hundred dollars.

(iii) A one hundred dollar license fee if such gross business sales are fifteen thousand dollars or more;

(b) Wholesale licensees:

2) Except as provided in RCW 15.13.270, a person conducting both retail and wholesale sales of horticultural plants at a place of business shall secure for the place of business (a) a retail nursery dealer license if retail sales of the plants and turf exceed such wholesale sales, or (b) a wholesale nursery dealer license if wholesale sales of the plants and turf exceed such retail sales.

(3) The licensing fee that must accompany an application for a new license shall be based upon the estimated gross business sales of horticultural plants and turf for the ensuing licensing year. The fee for renewing a license shall be based upon the licensee's gross sales of such products during the preceding licensing year.

(4) The license shall expire on the master license expiration date unless it has been revoked or suspended prior to the expiration date by the director for cause. Each license shall be posted in a conspicuous place open to the public in the location for which it was issued.

Such wholesale market price may be determined by the wholesale catalogue price of the seller of such fruit trees, fruit tree seedlings, or fruit tree rootstock or of the shipper moving such fruit trees, fruit tree seedlings, or fruit tree rootstock out of the state. If the seller or shipper do not have a catalogue, then such wholesale market price may be based on the actual selling price or an average wholesale market price. The director in determining such average wholesale market price may use catalogues of various businesses licensed under the provisions of this chapter or any other reasonable method.

(3) The gross sale period shall be from July 1 to June 30 of the previous license period.

Any residual balance of funds remaining in the nursery inspection fund on the effective date of this 1987 section shall be transferred to that account within the agricultural local fund: PROVIDED, That all fees collected for fruit tree, fruit tree seedling and fruit tree rootstock assessments as set forth in this chapter shall be deposited in the northwest nursery fund to be used only for the Washington fruit tree certification and nursery improvement programs as set forth in this chapter and chapter 15.14 RCW. For the purpose of testing and improvement of fruit trees, fruit tree seedlings, fruit tree rootstock, or other plant material used for the propagation of fruit trees, the director may, with advice from the advisory committee under RCW 15.13.320, expend up to fifty percent of the money collected from assessments during each fiscal year ending June 30. At no time may such contribution allow the balance of the northwest nursery fund to fall below the combined program cost of the two previous fiscal years. The amount of this minimum balance shall be determined by the director on June 30 of each year."

and the bill and the amendment are herewith transmitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

A person's "right to privacy," "right of privacy," "privacy," or "personal privacy," as these terms are used in this chapter, is invaded or violated only if disclosure of information about the person: (1) Would be highly offensive to a reasonable person, and (2) is not of legitimate concern to the public. The provisions of this chapter dealing with the right to privacy in certain public records do not create any right of privacy beyond those rights that are specified in this chapter as express exemptions from the public's right to inspect, examine, or copy public records.

The legislature intends to restore the law relating to the release of public records largely to that which existed prior to the Washington Supreme Court decision in "In re Rosier," 105 Wn.2d 606 (1986). The intent of this legislation is to make clear that: (1) Absent statutory provisions to the contrary, agencies possessing records should in responding to requests for disclosure not make any distinctions in releasing or not releasing records based upon the identity of the person or agency which requested the records, and (2) agencies having public records should rely only upon statutory exemptions or prohibitions for refusal to provide public records. Further, to avoid unnecessary confusion, "privacy" as used in section 2 of this 1987 act is intended to have the same meaning as the definition given that word by the Supreme Court in "Hearst v. Hoppe," 90 Wn.2d 123, 135 (1978).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 26, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 14, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.260 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each agency, in accordance with published rules, shall make available for public inspection and copying all public records, unless the record falls within the specific exemptions of subsection (5) of this section. RCW 42.17.310, 42.17.315, or other statute which exempts or prohibits disclosure of specific information or records. To the extent required to prevent an unreasonable invasion of personal privacy interests protected by RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315, an agency shall delete identifying details in a manner consistent with RCW 42.17.310 and 42.17.315 when it makes available or publishes any public record; however, in each case, the justification for the deletion shall be explained fully in writing.

(2) Each agency shall maintain and make available for public inspection and copying a current index providing identifying information as to the following records issued, adopted, or promulgated after January 1, 1973:

(a) Final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, as well as orders, made in the adjudication of cases;

(b) Those statements of policy and interpretations of policy, statute, and the Constitution which have been adopted by the agency:

(c) Administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public:

(d) Planning policies and goals, and interim and final planning decisions;

(e) Factual staff reports and studies, factual consultant's reports and studies, scientific reports and studies, and any other factual information derived from tests, studies, reports, or surveys, whether conducted by public employees or others; and

(f) Correspondence, and materials referred to therein, by and with the agency relating to any regulatory, supervisory, or enforcement responsibilities of the agency, whereby the agency determines, or opines upon, or is asked to determine or opine upon, the rights of the state, the public, a subdivision of state government, or of any private party.

(3) An agency need not maintain such an index; if to do so would be unduly burdensome, but it shall in that event:

(a) Issue and publish a formal order specifying the reasons why and the extent to which compliance would unduly burden or interfere with agency operations; and

(b) Make available for public inspection and copying all indexes maintained for agency use.

(4) A public record may be relied on, used, or cited as precedent by an agency against a party other than an agency and it may be invoked by the agency for any other purpose only if—

(a) It has been indexed in an index available to the public; or

(b) Parties affected have timely notice (actual or constructive) of the terms thereof.

This chapter shall not be construed as giving authority to any agency to give, sell or provide access to lists of individuals requested for commercial purposes, and agencies shall not do so unless specifically authorized or directed by law: PROVIDED, HOWEVER. That lists of applicants for professional licenses and of professional licensees shall be made available to those professional associations or educational organizations recognized by their professional licensing or examination board, upon payment of a reasonable charge therefor: PROVIDED FURTHER. That such recognition may be refused only for a good cause pursuant to a hearing under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.
to provide information as to the purpose for the request except to establish whether inspection and copying would violate RCW 42.17.260(5) or other statute which exempts or prohibits disclosure of specific information or records to certain persons. Agency facilities shall be made available to any person for the copying of public records except when and to the extent that this would unreasonably disrupt the operations of the agency. Agencies shall honor requests received by mail for identifiable public records unless exempted by provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 34, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 20, chapter 294, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.340 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the motion of any person having been denied an opportunity to inspect or copy a public record by an agency, the superior court in the county in which a record is maintained may require the responsible agency to show cause why it has refused to allow inspection or copying of a specific public record or class of records. The burden of proof shall be on the agency to establish that refusal to permit public inspection and copying is (required) in accordance with a statute that exempts or prohibits disclosure in whole or in part of specific information or records.

(2) Judicial review of all agency actions taken or challenged under RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.320 shall be de novo. Courts shall take into account the policy of this chapter that free and open examination of public records is in the public interest, even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public officials or others. Courts may examine any record in camera in any proceeding brought under this section.

(3) Any person who prevails against an agency in any action in the courts seeking the right to inspect or copy any public record shall be awarded all costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in connection with such legal action. In addition, it shall be within the discretion of the court to award such person an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars for each day that he was denied the right to inspect or copy said public record.

NEW SECTTON. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

A law enforcement authority may not request inspection or copying of records of any person, which belong to a public utility district or a municipally owned electrical utility, unless the authority provides the public utility district or municipally owned electrical utility with a written statement in which the authority states that it suspects that the particular person to whom the records pertain has committed a crime and the authority has a reasonable belief that the records could determine or help determine whether the suspicion might be true. Information obtained in violation of this rule is inadmissible in any criminal proceeding.

NEW SECTTON. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 2 of the title, after "law," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 42.17.260, 42.17.270, and 42.17.340; adding new sections to chapter 42.17 RCW; and creating a new section."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Williams, the following Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is more difficult for hearing impaired people to have access to the telecommunications system than hearing persons. It is imperative that hearing impaired people be able to reach government offices and health, human, and emergency services with the same ease as other taxpayers. Regulations to provide telecommunications devices for the deaf with a relay system will help ensure that the hearing impaired community has equal access to the public accommodations and telecommunications system in the state of Washington in accordance with chapter 49.60 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

"Hearing impaired" means those persons who are certified to be deaf, deaf-blind, or hard of hearing, and those persons who are certified to have a hearing disability limiting their access to telecommunications.

"Telecommunications device for the deaf (TDD)" means a teletypewriter that has a typewriter keyboard and a readable display that couples with the telephone, allowing messages to be typed rather than spoken. The device allows a person to make a telephone call directly to another person possessing similar equipment. The conversation is typed through one machine to the other machine instead of spoken.

"TDD relay system" is a service for hearing impaired people who have a TDD to call someone who does not have a TDD or vice versa. The service consists of several telephones being utilized by TDD relay service operators who receive either TDD or voice phone calls. If a TDD relay service operator receives a phone call from a hearing impaired person wishing to call a hearing person, the operator will call the hearing person and act as an intermediary by translating what is displayed on the TDD to voice and typing what is voiced into the TDD to be read by the deaf caller. This process can also be reversed with a hearing person calling a deaf person through the TDD relay service.

"Qualified trainer" is a person who is knowledgeable about TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories; familiar with the technical aspects of equipment designed to meet hearing impaired people's needs; and fluent in American sign language.

"Qualified contractor" shall have bilingual staff available for quality language/cultural interpretations; quality training of operators; and policies, training, and operational procedures to be determined by the office.

The department means the department of social and health services of the state of Washington.

"Office" means the office of deaf services within the state department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall design and implement a program whereby TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories capable of serving the needs of the hearing impaired shall be provided at no charge additional to the basic exchange rate, to an individual of school age or older, who is certified as hearing impaired by a licensed physician, audiologist, or a qualified state agency, and to any subscriber that is an organization representing the hearing impaired, as determined and specified by the TDD advisory committee. For the purpose of this section, certification implies that individuals cannot use the telephone for expressive or receptive communications due to hearing impairment.

(2) The office shall award contracts on a competitive basis, to qualified persons for which eligibility to contract is determined by the office, for the distribution and maintenance of such TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories as shall be determined by the office. Such contract shall include a provision for the employment and use of a qualified trainer and the training of recipients in the use of such devices.

(3) TDDs, signal devices, and amplifying accessories shall be made available to qualified recipients by December 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department advisory committee on deafness shall establish a TDD advisory committee to study the feasibility of implementing a state-wide telecommunications relay system. The TDD advisory committee shall consist of individuals from hearing impaired communities, representatives from the department, utilities and transportation commission, agencies and services serving the hearing impaired, and local exchange companies in the state. In order to develop and implement a state-wide relay system providing cost-effective relay centers at a reasonable cost and that will meet the requirements of the hearing impaired, the TDD advisory committee shall investigate options, conduct public hearings to determine the most cost-effective method of creating a state-wide relay system providing relay centers to the hearing impaired, and solicit the advice, counsel, and assistance of interested parties and nonprofit consumer organizations for hearing impaired persons state-wide. Such committee shall begin the study within thirty days of the effective date of this section, to be completed within six months after the study begins. The TDD advisory committee, shall also, in conjunction with the department, monitor the activities and monies that is being spent by the department for the program herein.

(2) Pursuant to the recommendations of the TDD advisory committee, the office shall implement a program whereby relay centers will be provided state-wide using operator intervention to connect hearing impaired persons and offices of organizations representing the hearing impaired, as determined and specified by the TDD advisory committee pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, and connect hearing persons within six months after the office receives the recommendations.

To the extent possible, the office, utilities and transportation commission, the TDD advisory committee, and any other persons or organizations implementing the provisions of sections 3 and 4 of this act will use the telecommunications devices already in place and work with county governments in ensuring that no duplication of services occurs.

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 259, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Wojahn, I am looking at Section 4 which is the new part that the Senate is adding where we are saying to every seller of spas, pools and tubs that they shall furnish to the purchaser a set of operating instructions, which I presume would be no problem to them, because they probably do that anyway, but that those instructions should include the proper treatment of the water to reduce health risks. Now, I know they do the proper treatment of water as far as reducing—as far as keeping it clean, algae, and so on—and specific information on the health effects of hot water and some of those other sorts of things. Did you have any testimony in your committee to show whether or not this is something that is already available in brochures, or whether or not the Department will be issuing rules and regulations for addendums that will have to go along with all of these sales?"

Senator Wojahn: "Well, the Department will not issue any rules and regulations. That will be done by the State Board of Health which will really adhere to the local jurisdictions in which they are working, so that there will be nothing of that type. Also, if you notice it does add an explanation of the health effects of hot water on pregnant woman, because it can be dangerous to go into too hot a tub. This does not affect any home facility. That is the important thing. This is for public use only."

Senator Lee: "I understand that, but this particular section is to every seller, regardless of who they sell to."

Senator Wojahn: "Well, I presume that any instructions that are available should go to every seller with the facility, with the tub or whatever it is, so that they know how to install it—what not to do and what to do—and the rules would come from the State Board of Health and they're probably in place already."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 259, as amended by the Senate.

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 259, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 23.

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1, Section 3, chapter 148, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 3, chapter 302, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.20.342 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who drives a motor vehicle on any public highway of this state while that person is in a suspended or revoked status or when his or her privilege so to do is suspended or revoked in this or any other state or when his or her policy of insurance or bond, when required under this (chapter) title, has been canceled or terminated, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Upon the first conviction for a violation of this section, a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than six months. Upon the second (such) conviction, (the) the person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ninety days nor more than one year. Upon the third or subsequent such conviction, (the) the person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than ninety days nor more than one year. There may also be imposed in connection with each such conviction a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, upon receiving a record of conviction of any person or upon receiving an order by any juvenile court or any duly authorized court officer of the conviction of any juvenile under this section upon a charge of driving a vehicle while the license of (such) the person is under suspension, the department shall extend the period of (such) the suspension for an additional like period and if the conviction was upon a charge of driving while a license of (such) the person has been canceled or terminated, or has been revoked under this (chapter) title, has been canceled or terminated, or has been revoked under this (chapter) title, the department shall not issue a new license for an additional period of one year from and after the date (such) the person would otherwise have been entitled to apply for a new license. The department shall not so extend the period of suspension or revocation if the court recommends against the extension and:

(a) The convicted person has obtained a valid driver’s license; or

(b) The department determines that the convicted person has demonstrated proof of future financial responsibility as provided for in chapter 46.29 RCW, and, if the suspension or revocation was the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, that the person has not been arrested for a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) At the time of arrest for a violation of RCW 46.20.021, 46.20.342(1), 46.20.420, or 46.65.090, the arresting officer shall confiscate the Washington state vehicle registration of the vehicle being driven by the arrested person. The officer shall mark the vehicle's Washington state license plates in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Washington state patrol. Marked license plates shall be clearly distinguishable from any other authorized plates. Upon confiscation of the vehicle registration, the arresting officer shall, on behalf of the department, serve notice in accordance with section 4 of this act of the department’s intention to cancel the vehicle registration in accordance with section 3 of this act. The officer shall immediately replace any confiscated vehicle registration with a temporary registration that expires sixty days after the arrest, or at the time the department's cancellation is sustained at a hearing conducted under section 5 of this act, whichever occurs first. The provisions of this subsection may be used only when the arresting officer has determined that the arrested driver is a registered owner of the vehicle.

(2) After confiscation under subsection (1) of this section, the arresting officer shall promptly transmit to the department, together with the confiscated vehicle registration, a sworn report indicating that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the arrested driver was driving in violation of RCW 46.20.342(1).

(3) Any officer who sees a vehicle being operated with marked license plates may stop the vehicle for the sole purpose of ascertaining whether the driver of the vehicle is operating it in violation of RCW 46.20.021, 46.20.342, 46.20.420, or 46.65.090. Nothing in this section prohibits the arrest of a person for an offense if an officer has probable cause to believe the person has committed the offense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of the sworn report of an arresting officer transmitted pursuant to section 2(2) of this act, the department shall review its records, and if it ascertains that the arrested driver's privilege to drive was suspended or revoked, or in a suspended or revoked status, at the time of his arrest and the arrested driver is the registered owner of the vehicle he was driving at the time of his arrest, or that in violation of RCW 46.12.101 no transfer of title for the vehicle has been made, then the department shall cancel the registration and license plates of the vehicle. The cancellation remains in effect until the arrested driver has been issued a valid driver's license or until another qualified person registers the vehicle. After the cancellation period, upon application and payment of fees and taxes due including fees prescribed in RCW 46.16.270, the department may issue a new vehicle registration and replacement license plates to the arrested driver.

(2) For purposes of this section, cancellation means that the existing registration and license plates shall be canceled and no new registration and license plates may be issued for the vehicle for the prescribed period, if the arrested driver is the owner of the vehicle. Cancellation takes effect beginning sixty days after arrest, or at the time the cancellation is sustained by a hearing held under section 5 of this act, whichever occurs first. If the department does not cancel registration and license plates under subsection (1) of this section, the department shall notify the registered owner that if he is qualified under RCW 46.12.020 he may, upon application and payment of any fees and taxes due other than fees prescribed in RCW 46.16.270, be issued a new vehicle registration and replacement license plates.

The notice shall specify the steps the driver must take to obtain a hearing. If no written request for a hearing is received by the department within fifteen days from the date of notification, the order of the department becomes effective as provided in section 3 of this act. If a request for a hearing is filed in time, the department shall give the driver an opportunity for a hearing as provided in section 5 of this act, and the cancellation will not be effective until a final determination has been made by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Administrative hearings held to determine the propriety of any registration cancellation imposed under section 3 of this act shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the director.

(2) The department shall fix a time, no more than sixty days after arrest, and place for a hearing to be held in the county in which the arrest was made. The hearing may be set for some other county by agreement between the department and the driver.

(3) The department shall give the driver at least twenty days advance notice of the time and place of hearing, but the period of notice may be waived by the driver. Every party has the right of cross-examination of any witness who testifies and has the right to submit rebuttal evidence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

The petition shall be filed within ten days following receipt by the person of the department's final order, or the right to appeal is deemed to have been waived. The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury, and shall be de novo.

(2) The filing of the appeal does not stay the effective date of the cancellation.

(3) The court may affirm the department's decision or reverse the department's order of cancellation.

(4) The actual costs of preparing and transmitting the record to superior court shall be borne by the petitioner and awarded by the court to the department if the department's decision is affirmed. The costs shall be borne by the department if the department's decision is reversed.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, presuming that I got arrested for drunken driving and they would mark my license so that they would know that the car shouldn't be moving around and my wife was driving it, how many times in a day would she get stopped to check to see whether she was drunk?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, first of all, if someone other than the person who was stopped wished to reregister the vehicle, they would be able to do so. They would be able to go down and reregister at a cost of $4.00 for reregistration. If the driver of the vehicle who was stopped for drinking and driving knowingly permits someone else to operate the vehicle, or someone who is aware that someone was stopped for drinking and driving knowingly permits that person who was stopped to operate another vehicle, then they are guilty of a crime under the bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Even though they legally had the right to drive the car if they were part owner of it?"

Senator Talmadge: "That's right. They would be able to reregister the automobile, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "That's not entirely possible. If you are buying a car on time, they don't do that."

Senator Talmadge: "It's possible to reregister the vehicle under this bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "I have reservations."

The President declared the question before the Senate to adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "license;", strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 46.20.342, 46.12.240, 46.12.020, and 46.63.020; adding new sections to chapter 46.16 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 46.20.416; prescribing penalties; providing effective dates; and providing an expiration date."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 196, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 196, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 196, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 3.

Nothing contained in this chapter prohibits any school district or board of directors from purchasing transportation services by contract with individuals or business entities if such services were regularly purchased by valid contract by such districts prior to the effective date of this act: PROVIDED, that no such contract may be executed or renewed if it would have the effect of terminating classified employees or classified employee positions, and associated benefits, existing at the time of the execution or renewal of the contract: PROVIDED FURTHER, that prior to execution or renewal of such contract the school district shall adopt a written plan for (1) either terminating or redirecting administrative staff resources that were previously directed to the service which is the subject of such contract, and (2) selling, leasing, or implementing a specific new utilization of physical plant, equipment, or other nonpersonnel resources that were previously dedicated to the service which is the subject of such contract."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I challenge the scope and object of the amendment. It broadens the title and effect of the bill. If we look carefully at the amendment up to the proviso, it stays within the scope of the original bill. After the proviso, it applies not only to transportation employees, but all classified employees and it says, in effect, that a school district could not terminate any employees. All of them would have to be employed."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of House Bill No. 827 was deferred.

SENATOR SALING: "SENATOR WOJAHN, ALL THE AMENDMENTS THAT WERE ADOPTED WERE COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE LAST ONE THAT PUT ON A SUNSET CLAUSE. COULD YOU EXPLAIN TO ME WHY IT IS THAT YOU WANT A SUNSET CLAUSE ON THIS PARTICULAR BILL NOW?"

SENATOR WOJAHN: "I DIDN'T WANT A SUNSET CLAUSE. A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE OFFERED THE AMENDMENT AND THE COMMITTEE ADOPTED IT."

SENATOR SALING: "I THOUGHT THIS WAS A FLOOR AMENDMENT, RATHER THAN A COMMITTEE AMENDMENT?"

SENATOR WOJAHN: "NO, OH. IT IS A FLOOR AMENDMENT."

SENATOR SALING: "DIDN'T YOU OFFER THIS AMENDMENT. SENATOR?"

SENATOR WOJAHN: "YES. I DID. I CAN'T TELL YOU THE REASON I OFFERED IT. I CAN'T EXPLAIN IT. I'M SORRY. BECAUSE I DON'T THINK THAT THERE NEEDS TO BE A SUNSET SO SOON. I THINK IT COULD BE SUNSETTED IN 1995. I THINK IT WAS DISCUSSED IN COMMITTEE, HOWEVER, AND I THINK ONE OF THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS WANTED IT. I CAN'T TELL YOU. I CAN'T ANSWER IT. I'M SORRY."

SENATOR SALING: "WELL. SENATOR WOJAHN, IF THERE IS NO REASON FOR IT. I WONDER WHY WE SHOULD HAVE IT ON THERE?"

SENATOR WOJAHN: "IF YOU'LL EXCUSE ME. I'LL FIND OUT WHY IT'S ON THERE. I KNOW THE ANSWER NOW. THANK YOU. THIS IS SIMPLY A CLARIFICATION AMENDMENT. THE HOUSE BILL CAME OVER WITH A SUNSET ON IT. THE SUNSET WAS FOULED UP AND WE SIMPLY CLARIFIED IT BY THE FLOOR AMENDMENT. THE STAFF FOUND IT AFTER THE BILL HAD GONE OUT AND THERE'S A TECHNICALITY IN HERE THAT DOESN'T MAKE SENSE. IF YOU READ THE LAST OF THE BILL, YOU'LL FIND OUT THAT THE SUNSET AS WRITTEN. DOESN'T MAKE ANY SENSE AND CONSEQUENTLY. WE ADDED THAT TO CLARIFY."

SENATOR SALING: "WELL. THE PART IN THE BILL ITSELF DID NOT SUNSET THE BILL. THE PART IN THE BILL ONLY SUNSETTED THE COMMITTEE. ISN'T THAT CORRECT?"

SENATOR WOJAHN: "YES."

SENATOR SALING: "AND THE AMENDMENT THAT YOU PUT ON NOW SUNSETS THE ENTIRE BILL. AM I CORRECT?"

SENATOR WOJAHN: "WELL. IT SAY'S. 'THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE AND ITS POWERS AND DUTIES SHALL BE TERMINATED ON JUNE 30, 1990, AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 20 OF THIS ACT.'"

SENATOR SALING: "YES. AND YOU REMOVED THAT LANGUAGE AND PUT IN A SUNSET CLAUSE THAT WOULD SUNSET THE ENTIRE BILL."

SENATOR WOJAHN: "NO. I THINK WE SUNSETTED THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE. WE SHOULD HAVE."
MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 134, as amended by the Senate, was deferred.

On page 3, line 2, after "federal" strike "or state"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Wojahn, as I read the amendment it would put those people who are practicing counseling under this bill. It says, 'presently no regulatory mechanism on the state level exists to provide new kinds of professional counselors with information which will assist them in making informed consumer decisions or protect them from any unethical or deceptive practices which may be harmful to the mental or emotional health of the client.' Now, my question, if we are going to see that the school teachers are competent, shouldn't we see that the counselors are competent too? We have a tremendous amount of them that are counseling and I don't think that there's any regulation to say that these people that are in our state agencies are competent. You might say they can take their case to the Governor, but he's a busy man. If we can be assured that these people who are counseling not only with children but the adults—I would think it's a meritorious amendment. Why not?"

Senator Wojahn: "Well, number one, in the case of Creekmore, most of the people who are working in CPS are not counselors. They do not have the accreditation to be counselors. They have never been trained by the state. That's what some of our bills will address, but as far as anyone working as a counselor for the state, I don't know who they would be except counselors working in prisons and counselors working, perhaps, in developmentally disabled facilities. But, if they are not working for a fee, the general public is not exposed to them. If you're working for a fee outside and advertising yourself to be a counselor, then you should have a degree, probably at least an MA or doctorate to be counseling and if you are charging a fee, then you should be licensed. Under this bill, nobody that does not charge a fee has to be licensed. This would force them in, even though they are not counselors, that they could be adjudged to be so."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Anderson and Deccio.

The motion by Senator Anderson carried and the amendments were adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 3 after line 19, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(7) Counselors whose residency is not Washington State from providing up to ten days per quarter of training or workshops in the state, as long as they don't hold themselves out to be registered or certified in Washington State."
Debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Kiskaddon.
The motion by Senator Kiskaddon carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 6, line 30, after "disclose" insert "the written acknowledgment of the disclosure statement pursuant to section 6 nor"

Debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Kiskaddon.
The motion by Senator Kiskaddon carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 129, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Wojahn, legislators frequently are called upon to do counselling quite informally. I am sure as you know, you get constituents calling up with serious problems. Sometimes they're emotional or other problems for which they need help and support. Would a legislator be able to provide informal counselling under the terms of this particular bill?"

Senator Wojahn: "As long as he or she did not charge."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kiskaddon, did I hear you say that this would guarantee that you could get paid by the insurance companies, if you were a paid counselor? Of course, we free counselors, we never get paid, but you did mention and I was going to ask Senator Wojahn, because that question was asked in Rules, whether this makes it sure that they collect from the insurance companies?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Rasmussen, it says in Section 1, 'This chapter shall not be construed to require or prohibit that individual or group policies or contracts of an insurance carrier, health care services contractor would be required to give benefits.' So, legally there's nothing in here that says we'll get benefits, but there are a few insurance companies around that believe that they can protect people by making sure somehow that they have training. So, there are some companies that if you are certified by the state, they'd be more likely to authorize coverage especially if you had a prescription from a doctor. So, there will be a few people that will get some extra insurance money. There is certainly no mandate and there is nothing in the bill that says you have to. Most of the people are not going to get nearly what they thought they would."

Senator Rasmussen: "There is another section of the law, Senator Kiskaddon, I think, that says if you are receiving counselling for mental health, the insurance companies have to pay for it---yes or no?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "I can not specifically answer that question."

Senator Rasmussen: "It's not your intention that the insurance company should pay?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "Not automatically. It would be their choice."

Further debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 129, as amended by the Senate.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Patterson: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. Members of the Senate, I wanted to bring to your attention that the flag bearers today are two young people who are products of the first cooperative school program that this Legislature authorized a few years ago from Palouse/Garfield. They entered into competition for the opportunity to come here and learn more about what government is all about. They wrote essays, they competed with several other young people in those two communities and if you want testimony to the cooperative program versus the forced consolidation of small rural high schools, they are a good testimony for it. I just wanted to recognize these young people and the opportunities we have given them to have better programming through cooperative programs. Thank you."

MOTION

MOTION

On page 1, after line 8, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 18.29, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 287, Laws of 1986 and RCW 48.18.290 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cancellation by the insurer of any policy which by its terms is cancellable at the option of the insurer, or of any binder based on such policy, may be effected as to any interest only upon compliance with ((either or both of the following)) (a) and (b) or (c) of this subsection:

(a) Unless cancellation is due to reasons set forth in chapter 48.53 RCW, nonpayment of premiums, fraud, misrepresentation, or a material change in the condition or in the law affecting the risk, cancellation of a policy by the insurer shall not be issued more than sixty days after the policy has been in effect;

(b) Written notice of such cancellation, accompanied by the actual reason therefor, must be actually delivered or mailed to the insured and to his or her representative in charge of the subject of the insurance not less than forty-five days prior to the effective date of the cancellation except for cancellation of insurance policies for nonpayment of premiums, which notice shall be not less than ten days prior to such date and except for cancellation of fire insurance policies under chapter 48.53 RCW, which notice shall not be less than five days prior to such date:

(((b))) (c) Like notice of not less than forty-five days must also be so delivered or mailed to each mortgagee, pledgee, or other person shown by the policy to have an interest in any loss which may occur thereunder.

(2) The mailing of any such notice shall be effected by depositing it in a sealed envelope, directed to the addressee at his or her last address as known to the insurer or as shown by the insurer's records, with proper prepaid postage affixed, in a letter depository of the United States post office. The insurer shall retain in its records any such item so mailed, together with its envelope, which was returned by the post office upon failure to find, or deliver the mailing to, the addressee.

(3) The affidavit of the individual making or supervising such a mailing, shall constitute prima facie evidence of such facts of the mailing as are therein affirmed.

(4) The portion of any premium paid to the insurer on account of the policy, unearned because of the cancellation and in amount as computed on the pro rata basis, must be actually paid to the insured or other person entitled thereto as shown by the policy or by any endorsement thereon, or be mailed to the insured or such person as soon as possible, and no later than forty-five days after the date of notice of cancellation to the insured for homeowners', dwelling fire, and private passenger auto. Any such payment may be made by cash, or by check, bank draft, or money order.

(5) This section shall not apply to contracts of life or disability insurance without provision for cancellation prior to the date to which premiums have been paid, or to contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Halsan, I was just looking at the amendment and noticed there were some changes. I don’t know if that’s old language or new, but on page 2, line 1, you changed forty-five to twenty; on page 16, you changed forty-five to twenty and on line 14, page 40, you changed forty-five to twenty. Can you tell me what that means?"

Senator Halsan: "Since we are prohibiting mid-term cancellations, unless they are for the purposes of misrepresentation or a material change in the condition affecting the risk, so after sixty days, if, in fact, they find out you have lied to them, then they can cancel you out. Since we are changing it to, basically, things that you have pulled the wool over the insurance company’s eyes, the notice for cancellation is taken down from forty-five to twenty in that regard, but unless you have misled the insurance company, after that first sixty days, they can’t cancel you under this language—whether it’s forty-five days notice, as in current law, or not. Presently, they can cancel you for any reason, just because they don't like the cut of your clothes with forty-five days notice."

Senator Deccio: "Well, the effect of the forty-five days and the twenty days, doesn't that reduce the amount of time the insurance company would give you or your agent time to replace that business?"

Senator Halsan: "That would be correct. If I might point out on lines 36 and 37, those are the only situations of misrepresentation or material change in conditions affecting the risk."

Senator Deccio: "Well, I guess two years ago I worked like a beaver to get both notices to forty-five days for cancellation. Now I see and I haven't had a chance to study this, but now I see we are going from forty-five days to twenty days and—I guess I need to study this a little bit to find out—but twenty days is not time enough for you to make arrangements to get a new policy replaced. That was the reason for the forty-five days cancellation and non-renewal."

Senator Halsan: "Frankly, Senator Deccio, I would accept that as a friendly oral amendment if you wish to make it."

Senator Deccio: "Well, I'd like to do that."

MOTION

Senator Deccio moved that the following amendments to the amendment be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 2, lines 1 and 16, strike "((forty-five)) twenty" and insert "forty-five"

On page 3, lines 14 and 15, strike "((forty-five)) twenty" and insert "forty-five"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Halsan, the way this amendment is written now, if I take out an insurance policy for my automobile and then I have three or four accidents and I report those to the insurance company and as a result the insurance company notifies me they are going to raise their premium, would they be able to do that?"

Senator Halsan: "Yes, because under line 6, page 2 of the amendment, it says that they can, in fact, cancel the policies for misrepresentation or material change in a condition affecting the risk. The only time they would be barred from doing that is when they are withdrawing from the market or doing it for some other reason that they can't even explain why they are doing it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Hayner, I don't understand what you just said. Would you explain it to me?"

Senator Hayner: "Well, it's my understanding that this was something that was a compromise situation and the insurance companies, up until this time, have had the right to cancel insurance, as I understand it, without reason. Now, it is changing that law to say that they cannot cancel unless, as was stated by Senator Halsan, there is fraud or some other change in the risk in which case, they could then ask them for more premiums, but they still couldn't cancel. It seems to me that this was a trade off for tightening up the law with respect to the insurance policy."

Senator Deccio: "Well, I don't think that is quite correct. There has always been—the insurance companies have had the other reasons why they would cancel a policy. They were restricted to forty-five days. Up until a few years ago, they didn't have to give any notice at all on certain policies and as I've said, I worked very hard and took a lot of heat from the insurance companies to go from zero days to forty-five days for either cancellation notice or non-renewal. Now, surprisingly enough, I see House Bill No. 64 now changes that forty-five days back to twenty days. I wouldn't trade off or compromise anything when you are talking about it in today's market, to reduce you down to twenty days when you can't even get an application—a company will not even look at an application in less than sixty days. Yet, we are saying that you have to give at least forty-five days.

"If I understand this amendment correctly and if I understand what is going on when I see the words forty-five days struck and replaced by twenty days, you just really ruined a lot of hard work that some of us went through a couple of years ago. I think Senator Moore will attest to that—trying to get the companies—we started out at ninety days and we compromised at forty-five days. I think this is a tremendous disservice to the public to now allow them only twenty days in order to replace a policy when that policy is cancelled by the insurance company.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Halsan on page 1, line 8, to House Bill No. 64.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Deccio: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge on scope and object the amendment to House Bill No. 64. House Bill No. 64 is a one page, one paragraph bill and the title reads, 'An act relating to surety bonds.' Surety bonds cannot be cancelled, once written. This rather lengthy amendment deals with cancellations of other insurance policies and effectively changes the date of notice from forty-five days to twenty days. I don't believe this is within the scope of the bill. Mr. President, and I would like to make that challenge."

Further debate ensued.
MOTION

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 827 and the pending amendment by Senator Warnke on page 2, line 30, deferred April 7, 1987.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Newhouse, the President finds that House Bill No. 827 is a measure requiring school districts to solicit competitive bids or proposals when contracting for pupil transportation services.

The amendment proposed by Senator Warnke allows the contracting of transportation services by school districts only if the contracts do not affect existing classified employees or positions and only if the districts have a written plan regarding staff and facilities previously dedicated to the service subject to the contract.

The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Warnke was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 827 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The executive session may be extended to a stated later time by announcement of the presiding officer.

There is hereby created a fund within the state treasury to be known as the "western library network computer system revolving fund" referred to ((in RCW 43.105.120 as "fund")) as the "fund."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "network," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 27.26.020, 42.30.110, 43.105.110, and 43.105.130; recodifying RCW 43.105.110, 43.105.130, 43.105.140, and 43.105.150; repealing RCW 43.105.100, 43.105.120, 43.131.289, and 43.131.290; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

On page 8, line 7 of the committee amendment, after ".020," strike "42.30.110."

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 135, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 135, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 135, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 135, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 359 and the pending Committee on Ways and Means amendments, deferred April 7, 1987.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 359 is a measure relating to judicial retirement, closing the existing retirement system and placing all future judges within the Public Employees Retirement System.

"The amendments proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means also cap the judicial retirement system, placing all future judges in PERS, increase the judges contribution rate and retirement allowance.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The Committee on Ways and Means amendments were ruled in order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 359 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 563, and the pending amendments by Senators Rasmussen, Bender and Kiskaddon, deferred April 7, 1987.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Wojahn, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 563 is a measure adding certain regulated professions to the coverage of the Uniform Disciplinary Act."
"The amendments proposed by Senators Rasmussen, Bender and Kiskaddon regulate the practice of denturily, set up an advisory board for denturists and provide for the administrative procedures for certifying denturists. "The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by Senators Rasmussen, Bender and Kiskaddon were ruled out of order.

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 30, line 5, after "chapter" insert: PROVIDED, That nothing in this act shall prevent an individual from listing academic degrees received by that individual in connection with the advertisement of counseling services.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kiskaddon, I am not familiar with this, not being in the profession, but it seems to me that the Supreme Court ruled on that issue that you could advertise whatever you wanted to, as long as it was true. I know that the lawyers used to prohibit advertising and the dentists used to prohibit it, and I think it was ruled out. Maybe some one of the lawyers here on the floor could tell us about it.

"Phil, is that true? I know that the lawyers now are advertising; the yellow pages are full of them and so are many other professions. Maybe I asked the wrong man. I should have asked Senator Talmadge."

Senator Kiskaddon: "There are advertisements, but the main thing is that the disciplinary board was saying to psychologists that wanted to advertise as a marriage and family counselor or some division, because he couldn't be a licensed psychologist since he didn't have a Ph.D.—that he couldn't use his degree in psychology as part of the ad."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, do you remember the days when the lawyers couldn't advertise and now they fill the yellow pages? How did that come about? Was there a Supreme Court rule on that—that it was a constitutional right to say what you were?"

Senator Talmadge: "The United States Supreme Court decision in the case of Bates against the State Bar Association of Arizona said they could advertise as a matter of First Amendment Rights. There are still limitations on misleading advertisement by any profession, Senator Rasmussen, and I guess the concern with this thing would be that if you list all your degrees, that might include things like the institute of whatever or the La Salle Matchbook University School of Psychology or whatever. That might be the concern."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Talmadge, that's what I thought—that the Supreme Court had ruled—assert your constitutional rights and then let them see if they will put you in jail."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Kiskaddon. The motion by Senator Kiskaddon failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator Owen was excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 563 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced the Sequim Irrigation Festival Royalty who were seated in the gallery. The honored guests of Senator Paul Conner were Queen Gia Snyder and Princesses Michelle Matheng, Lynie Brown and Caryn DeChant.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 773, by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Ethics (originally sponsored by Representatives Holm, Nealey, Haugen, Barnes, Holland, Dellwo, Jesernig, P. King, Winsley and Betrozoff)

Allowing county auditors to investigate and cancel invalid voter registration.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following amendment by Senators Rinehart, Talmadge and Pullen was adopted:

On page 1, line 19, after “within” strike “forty-five” and insert “sixty”

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following amendment by Senators Rinehart, Talmadge and Pullen was adopted:

On page 2, line 7, after “auditor” strike “may” and insert “shall”

Senator Warnke moved that the following amendment by Senators Warnke, Newhouse and Nelson be adopted:

On page 2, following line 21, insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 29.10 RCW to read as follows:

In order to create a common voter registration system and to provide a unique voter ID number for every voter of the state, the Secretary of State shall provide a legislative proposal for adoption by the legislature at its 1988 regular session.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: “Senator Warnke, this was not an amendment that was considered by the Judiciary Committee or the Committee on Constitutions and Elections in the House. Maybe you could amplify a little bit exactly your intention with respect to this so called unique voter registration number. Does this imply we are all going to be carrying I.D. cards issued by the Secretary of State’s office and photographs on that? What exactly are we proposing to do with respect to this system?”

Senator Warnke: “We are trying to come up with a unique I.D. number. I see no reason that it’s going to have a voter number identification card which you will be carrying around. We are asking the Secretary of State to take a look at the procedure to find out if it’s possible. It may not be possible at all to have a unique number that still assures the security of the voter.”

Senator Talmadge: “Could you give me an idea of what the value would be of having a unique number for each and every voter in the state of Washington?”

Senator Warnke: “I think with our computerization of lists, it would be much quicker.”

Further debate ensued.
Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment expands the scope and object of House Bill No. 773. This was a bill that was calculated and recommended by the auditor of the state to deal with the problem of people who had moved or people who are no longer appropriately on the voters' lists of the state of Washington. The amendment by Senator Warnke and others is one that deals with the issue of a common voter I.D. or registration system by number. I certainly believe that that kind of amendment, that kind of study, expands the scope and object of a relatively simple bill calculated to deal with the voters' lists."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 773 was deferred.

SECOND READING

On page 5, line 28, after "board" strike "and a reasonable opportunity to comply"

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the following Committee on Human Services and Corrections amendment was adopted:

On page 8, after line 29, Insert a new section to read as follows:

The committee shall be composed of two members of the majority party and two members of the minority party from each house of the legislature appointed by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house. POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "Senator Tanner, it is my understanding that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 931 is intended solely to regulate the storage, handling and distribution of legend drug samples by manufacturers. Therefore, am I correct that the bill is not intended to and does not regulate the storage in any other settings and handling by other persons of drug samples?"

Senator Tanner: "Senator Sellar, yes, you are correct. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 931 is not intended to and does not regulate the storage and handling of legend drug samples by physicians or other practitioners. The bill is not intended to and does not regulate the storage and handling of drug samples in the offices of physicians and other practitioners. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Warnke, the bill provides that it will not apply to employees covered by RCW 54.04.170 and 54.04.180. What is the purpose of that reference?"

Senator Warnke: "RCW 54.04.170 and 54.04.180 govern the labor relations of public utility districts. PUDs have never been covered by Chapter 41.56 RCW, and so they would not be affected by this bill in any event."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Warnke, under this bill, if the employee bargaining unit and if the employees knew that there was a reduction in salary in the offing, wouldn't it allow the employees the ability to keep on working for an indeterminate amount of time and in effect, not having to go out on strike in that disagreement? This would enable them to keep working with no reduction and could go on for months and months and not have to reach an agreement at the bargaining table. Is that right?"

Senator Warnke: "If the employee groups have gone through all the mediation and then an impasse has been declared, yes. If this bill were in, they would remain under the existing contract. The same thing occurs for the employer if they have the money for a raise and decided not to give it, they could also go through impasse and then decide that they are not going to implement and just let employees stay under an existing contract forever."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 114.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 114 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas. 22; nays, 27.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 168, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Halsan, at the time of the proposition, as I understand it, they can levy this service charge for six years and then an excess levy for three years in this proposal, but the excess levy can go for six years. Is that correct? That still remains?"

Senator Halsan: "I believe so. I don't believe it changes current law in regards to that."

Senator Rasmussen: "Now, at the time that this goes on the ballot for approval by the people in the fire districts, is it the intent that it would be spelled out exactly how the service charge will be assessed for each piece of property?"

Senator Halsan: "I don't think the bill addresses the levy being for the excess service charges. These are for the amounts of fire protection that are relative to the particular properties that are involved that need extra protection."

Senator Rasmussen: "So, the people will not have a chance to vote on the way that the service charge is assessed on them?"

Senator Halsan: "The imposition of the service charge goes to, in fact, lower the needs of the general public in the area for paying for the services provided for these major risks that they would otherwise have to cover, because the major risks would not be supporting their own services."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 168, as amended by the Senate.

Deferred price contracts include but are not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as delayed price, price later contracts, or open price contracts.

Sec. 20. Section 47, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.345 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The department may give written notice to the warehouseman or grain dealer to submit to inspection, and/or furnish required reports, documents, or other requested information, under such conditions and at such time as the department may deem necessary whenever a warehouseman or grain dealer fails to:
   (a) Submit his books, papers, or property to lawful inspection or audit;
   (b) Submit required reports or documents to the department by their due date; or
   (c) Furnish the department with requested information, including but not limited to correction notices.

(2) If the warehouseman or grain dealer fails to comply with the terms of the notice within twenty-four hours from the date of its issuance, or within such further time as the department may allow, the department shall levy a fine of fifty dollars per day from the final date for compliance allowed by this section or the department. In those cases where the failure to comply continues for more than thirty days or where the director determines the failure to comply creates a threat of loss to depositors, the department may, in lieu of levying further fines petition the superior court of the county where the licensee’s principal place of business in Washington is located, as shown by the license application, for an order:
   (a) Authorizing the department to seize and take possession of all books, papers, and property of all kinds used in connection with the conduct or the operation of the warehouseman’s or grain dealer’s business, and the books, papers, records, and property that pertain specifically, exclusively, and directly to that business; and
   (b) Enjoining the warehouseman or grain dealer from interfering with the department in the discharge of its duties as required by this chapter.

(3) All necessary costs and expenses, including attorneys’ fees, incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered at the same time and as part of the action filed under this section.

Sec. 21. Section 50, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.371 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a depositor stores a commodity with a warehouseman or sells a commodity to a grain dealer, the depositor has a priority lien on the commodity or the proceeds therefrom on or commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer if the depositor has written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of sale. The lien arises at the time the title is transferred from the depositor to the warehouseman or grain dealer, or if the commodity is under a storage obligation, the lien arises at the commencement of the storage obligation. The lien terminates when the liability of the warehouseman or grain dealer to the depositor terminates or when the depositor sells his commodity to the warehouseman or grain dealer, then thirty days after the (time of sale) date title passes. If, however, the depositor is tendered payment by check or draft, then the lien shall not terminate until forty days after the (time of sale) date if title passes.

(2) The lien created under this section shall be preferred to any lien or security interest in favor of any creditor of the warehouseman or grain dealer, regardless of whether the creditor’s lien or security interest attached to the commodity or proceeds before or after the date on which the depositor’s lien attached under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A depositor who claims a lien under subsection (1) of this section need not file any notice of the lien in order to perfect the lien. If, however, the depositor is not paid per the terms of the contract, they must notify the department within ten days of default.

(4) The lien created by subsection (1) of this section is discharged, except as to the proceeds therefrom and except as to commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer, upon sale of the commodity by the warehouseman or grain dealer to a buyer in the ordinary course of business.

Sec. 22. Section 52, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.391 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the failure of a grain dealer or warehouseman, the statutory lien created in RCW 22.09.371 shall be liquidated by the department to satisfy the claims of depositors in the following manner:

(1) The department shall take possession of all commodities in the warehouse, including those owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer, and those that are under warehouse receipts or any written evidence of ownership that disclose a storage obligation by a failed warehouseman, including but not limited to scale weight tickets, settlement sheets, and ledger cards. These commodities shall be distributed or sold and the proceeds distributed to satisfy the outstanding warehouse receipts or other written evidences of ownership. If a shortage exists, the department shall distribute the commodities or the proceeds from the sale of the commodities on a prorated basis to the depositors. To the extent the commodities or the proceeds from their sale are inadequate to satisfy the claims of depositors with evidence of storage obligations, the depositors have a first priority lien against any proceeds received from commodities sold while under a storage obligation or against any commodities owned by the failed warehouseman or grain dealer.

(2) Depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of a commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer, including but not limited to scale weight tickets, settlement sheets, deferred price contracts, or similar commodity delivery contracts, who have completed delivery and passed title during a thirty-day period immediately before the failure of the failed warehouseman or grain dealer have a second priority lien against the commodity, the proceeds of the sale, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities. If the commodity, commodity proceeds, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities are insufficient to wholly satisfy the claim of depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of the commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer, each depositor shall receive a pro rata share thereof.

(3) Upon the satisfaction of the claims of depositors qualifying for first or second priority treatment, all other depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of the commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer have a third priority lien against the commodity, the proceeds of the sale, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities. If the commodities, commodity proceeds, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities are insufficient to wholly satisfy these claims, each depositor shall receive a pro rata share thereof.

(4) The director of agriculture may represent depositors whom, under RCW 22.09.381, the director has determined have claims against the failed warehouseman or failed grain dealer in any action brought to enjoin or otherwise contest the distributions made by the director under this section.

Sec. 23. Section 52, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.520 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any commodity shall be delivered to a warehouse under this chapter, and the scale ticket or warehouse receipt issued therefor provides for the return of a like amount of like kind, grade, and class to the holder thereof, such delivery shall be a bailment and not a sale of the commodity so delivered. In no case shall such commodities be liable to seizure upon process of any court in an action against such bailee, except action by the legal holder of the warehouse receipt to enforce the terms thereof. Such commodities, in the event of failure or insolvency of such bailee, shall be applied exclusively to the redemption of such outstanding warehouse receipts and scale weight tickets covering commodities so stored with such bailee. The commodities on hand in any warehouse or warehouses with a particular license, as provided in RCW 22.09.030, shall be applied to the redemption and satisfaction of warehouse receipts and scale weight tickets which were issued pursuant to the particular license. Commodities in special piles or special bins shall be applied exclusively against the warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets issued therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 22.09 RCW to read as follows:

Every person who fails to comply with this chapter, or any rule adopted under it, may be subjected to a civil penalty, as determined by the director, in an amount of not more than one thousand dollars for every such violation. Each and every violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. Every person who, through an act of commission or omission, procures, aids, or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated this chapter and may be subject to the penalty provided for in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows:

For the purposes of this section "imported lamb products" shall include but not be limited to, live lambs imported from another country but slaughtered in the United States.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hansen, I notice that our weed board in Pierce County—it says here there is a penalty here if you are raising weeds in your yard. That doesn’t apply to the city, does it?"

Senator Hansen: "Would you say that over again, please?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Does the weed control where they can fine you for growing weeds in your back yard, does that extend to the city?"

Senator Hansen: "No, do you mean ornamental weeds? I don’t know—they say marijuana is one of our best crops, so I don’t know if this bill is getting into that variety or not."

Senator Rasmussen: "My question relates to other weeds. I can recognize marijuana."

Senator Hansen: "Can you recognize Tansey Ragwort?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Tansey Ragwort? I can recognize a dandelion, but I don’t know what a Knappweed is."

Senator Hansen: "There are four categories of weeds. Your Tansey, your Knappweed, one thing and another. Then you go down the list, down to about Rule 4. When you get down there, I think that’s where you run into the ones you eat for greens and things like that, so I think we are pretty well taken care of."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I have confidence in you since you found that marijuana on your river bank, but I don’t know these other weeds and I am afraid—"

Senator Hansen: "You know, there are a lot of those weeds I don’t recognize too, but I see that Knappweed coming from eastern Washington and when they get it down in Chehalis, you know it even made me feel kind of good to think that stuff will grow over here too."

Senator Rasmussen: "You’ve taken care of the Larkspur, Senator Hansen?"

Senator Hansen: "I would like to get the Larkspur along with it."

Further debate ensued.

Changing provisions relating to the annexation of areas by public utility districts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Williams, the following Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment was adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 1, Laws of 1931 as last amended by section 37, chapter 126, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 54.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:
Within ten days after such election, the county canvassing board shall canvass the returns, and if at such election a majority of the voters voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor of the formation of such district, the canvassing board shall so declare in its canvass of the returns of such election, and such public utility district shall then be and become a municipal corporation of the state of Washington, and the name of such public utility district shall be Public Utility District No. of County. The powers of the public utility district shall be exercised through a commission consisting of three members in three commissioner districts, and five members in five commissioner districts. When the public utility district is coextensive with the limits of such county, then, at the first election of commissioners and until any change shall have been made in the boundaries of public utility district commissioner districts, one public utility district commissioner shall be chosen from each of the three county commissioner districts of the county in which the public utility district is located if the county is not operating under a "Home Rule" charter. When the public utility district comprises only a portion of the county, with boundaries established in accordance with chapter 54.08 RCW, or when the public utility district is located in a county operating under a "Home Rule" charter, three public utility district commissioner districts, numbered consecutively, having approximately equal population and boundaries, following ward and precinct lines, as far as practicable, shall be described in the petition for the formation of the public utility district, which shall be subject to appropriate change by the county legislative authority if and when they change the boundaries of the proposed public utility district, and one commissioner shall be elected from each of said public utility district commissioner districts. In all five commissioner districts an additional commissioner at large shall be chosen from each of the two at large districts. No person shall be eligible to be elected to the office of public utility district commissioner for a particular district commissioner district unless he is a registered voter of the public utility district commissioner district or at large district from which he is elected.

Except as otherwise provided, the term of office of each public utility district commissioner other than the commissioners at large shall be six years, and the term of each commissioner at large shall be four years. Each term shall be computed in accordance with RCW 29.04.170 following the commissioner's election. One commissioner at large and one commissioner from a commissioner district shall be elected at each general election held in an even-numbered year for the term of four years and six years respectively. All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire public utility district.

When a public utility district is formed, three public utility district commissioners shall be elected at the same election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether such public utility district shall be formed. If the general election adopting the proposition to create the public utility district was held in an even-numbered year, the commissioner residing in commissioner district number one shall hold office for the term of six years; the commissioner residing in commissioner district number two shall hold office for the term of four years; and the commissioner residing in commissioner district number three shall hold office for the term of two years. If the general election adopting the proposition to create the public utility district was held in an odd-numbered year, the commissioner residing in commissioner district number one shall hold office for the term of five years, the commissioner in district two shall hold office for the term of three years, and the commissioner in district three shall hold office for the term of one year. The commissioners first to be elected as above provided shall hold office from the first day of the month following the commissioners' election and their respective terms of office shall be computed from the first day of January next following the election.

All public utility district commissioners shall hold office until their successors have been elected and have qualified and assume office in accordance with RCW 29.04.170. A filing for nomination for public utility district commissioner shall be accompanied by a petition signed by one hundred registered voters of the public utility district which shall be certified by the county auditor to contain the required number of registered voters, and shall otherwise be filed in accord with the requirements of RCW 29.21.060. At the time of filing such nominating petition, the person so nominated shall execute and file a declaration of candidacy subject to the provisions of RCW 29.21.060, as now or hereafter amended. The petition and each page of the petition shall state whether the nomination is for a commissioner from a particular commissioner district or for a commissioner at large and shall state the districts; otherwise it shall be void. A vacancy in the office of public utility district commissioner shall occur by death, resignation, removal, conviction of a felony, nonattendance at meetings of the public utility district commission by any statutory disqualification, or by any permanent disability preventing the proper discharge of his duty. In the event of a vacancy in said office, such vacancy shall be filled at the next general election held in an even-numbered year; the vacancy in the interim to be filled by appointment by the remaining commissioners. If more than one vacancy exists at the same time in a three commissioner district, or more than two in a five commissioner district, a special election shall be called by the county canvassing board upon the request of the remainder, or, that failing, by the county election board, such election to be held not more than forty days after the occurring of such vacancies.

A majority of the persons holding the office of public utility district commissioner at any time shall constitute a quorum of the commission for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of a majority of the persons holding such office at the time shall be necessary and shall be sufficient for the passage of any resolution, but no business shall be transacted, except in usual and ordinary course, unless there are in office at least a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law.

The boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district may be changed only by the public utility district commission, and shall be examined every ten years to determine substantial equality of population, but such boundaries shall not be changed oftener than once in four years, and only when all members of the commission are present. Whenever territory is added to a public utility district under RCW 54.04.035, the boundaries of the public utility commissioners' districts shall be changed to include such additional territory. The proposed change of the boundaries of the public utility district commissioners' district must be made by resolution and after public hearing. Notice of the time of a public hearing thereon shall be published for two weeks prior thereto. Upon a referendum petition signed by ten percent of the qualified voters of the public utility district being filed with the county auditor, the county legislative authority shall submit such proposed change of boundaries to the voters of the public utility district for their approval or rejection. Such petition must be filed within ninety days after the adoption of resolution of the proposed action. The validity of said petition shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 54.08 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 101, Laws of 1983 and RCW 54.04.035 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to other powers authorized in Title 54 RCW, public utility districts may annex territory as provided in this section.

The boundaries of a public utility district may be enlarged and new contiguous territory added pursuant to the procedures for annexation by cities and towns provided in RCW 35.13.015 through (35.13.160) 35.13.110. The provisions of these sections concerning community municipal corporations, review boards, and comprehensive plans, however, do not apply to public utility district annexations. For purposes of conforming with such procedures, the public utility district is deemed to be the city or town and the board of commissioners is deemed to be the city or town legislative body.

Annexation procedures provided in this section may only be used to annex territory(1 not located in another public utility district) that is both: (1) Contiguous to the annexing public utility district; and (2) located within the service area of the annexing public utility district. As used in this section, a public utility district's "service area" means those areas whether located within or outside of the annexing public utility district's boundaries that were generally served with electrical energy by the annexing public utility district on January 1, 1987. Such service area may, or may not, have been recognized in an agreement made under chapter 54.48 RCW, but no area may be included within such service area (shall not be provided) that was generally served with electrical energy on January 1, 1987, by another public utility as defined in RCW 54.48.010. An area proposed to be annexed may be located in the same or a different county as the annexing public utility district.

If an area proposed to be annexed is located within the boundaries of another public utility district, annexation may be initiated only upon petition of registered voters residing in the area in accordance with RCW 35.13.020 and adoption by the boards of commissioners of both districts of identical resolutions stating (a) the boundaries of the area to be annexed, (b) a determination that annexation is in the public interest of the residents of the area to be annexed as well as the public interest of their respective districts, (c) approval of annexation by the board, (d) the boundaries of the districts after annexation, (e) the disposition of any assets of the districts in the area to be annexed, (f) the obligations to be assumed by the annexing district, (g) apportionment of election costs, and (h) that voters in the area to be annexed will be advised of lawsuits that may impose liability on the annexed territory and the possible impact of annexation on taxes and utility rates.

If annexation is approved, the area annexed shall cease to be a part of the one public utility district at the same time that it becomes a part of the other district. The annexing public utility district shall assume responsibility for providing the area annexed with the services provided by the other public utility district in the area annexed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 54.04 RCW to read as follows:

When territory has been added to a public utility district in accordance with RCW 54.04.035, the supervisor of elections and other officers of the county in which the public utility district first operated shall coordinate elections, the levy and collection of taxes, and other necessary duties with the appropriate county officials of the other county. *

The applicant for a warehouse license may give a single bond meeting the requirements of this chapter, and all warehouses operated by the warehouseman are deemed to be one warehouse for the purpose of the amount of the bond required under this subsection. Any change in the capacity of a warehouse or addition of any new warehouse involving a change in bond liability under this chapter shall be immediately reported to the department.

(3) The bond required under this section for the issuance of a grain dealer license shall be in the sum of not less than fifty thousand dollars nor more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount that will be required for the dealer bond which shall be computed at a rate not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the sales of agricultural commodities purchased by the dealer from producers during the dealer's last completed fiscal year or in the case of a grain dealer who has been engaged in business as a grain dealer less than one year, the estimated aggregate dollar amount to be paid by the dealer to producers for agricultural commodities to be purchased by the dealer during the dealer's first fiscal year.

(4) An applicant making application for both a warehouse license and a grain dealer license may satisfy the bonding requirements set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section by giving to the state of Washington a single bond for the issuance of both licenses, which bond shall be in the sum of not less than fifty thousand dollars nor more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount of the bond which shall be computed at a rate of not less than fifteen cents nor more than thirty cents per bushel multiplied by the number of bushels of licensed commodity storage capacity of the warehouses of the applicant furnishing the bond, or at the rate of not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the gross sales of agricultural commodities of the applicant whichever is greater.

(5) The bonds required under this chapter shall be approved by the department and shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the licensee of the duties imposed upon him by this chapter. If a person has applied for warehouse licenses to operate two or more warehouses in this state, the assets applicable to all warehouses, but not the deposits..."
except in case of a station, are subject to the liabilities of each. The total and aggregate liability of the surety for all claims upon the bond (or) is limited to the face amount (specified in) of the bond.

(6) Any person required to submit a bond to the department under this chapter has the option to give the department a certificate of deposit or other security acceptable to the department payable to the director as trustee, in lieu of a bond or a portion thereof. The principal amount of the certificate or other security shall be the same as that required for a surety bond under this chapter or may be in an amount which, when added to the (applicant's) bond, will satisfy the licensee's requirements for a surety bond under this chapter. and the interest thereon shall be made payable to the purchaser of the certificate or other security. The certificate of deposit or other security shall remain on deposit until it is released, canceled, or discharged as provided for by rule of the department. The provisions of this chapter that apply to a bond required under this chapter apply to each certificate of deposit or other security given in lieu of such a bond.

(7) The department may, when it has reason to believe that a grain dealer does not have the ability to pay producers for grain purchased, or when it determines that the grain dealer does not have a sufficient net worth to outstanding financial obligations ratio, or when it believes there may be claims made against the bond in excess of the face amount of the bond, require a grain dealer to post an additional bond in a dollar amount deemed appropriate by the department or may require an additional certificate of deposit or other security. The additional bonding or other security may exceed the maximum amount of the bond otherwise required under this (section) chapter. Failure to post the additional bond (or), certificate of deposit, or other security constitutes grounds for suspension or revocation of a license issued under this chapter.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the license of a warehouseman or grain dealer shall automatically be suspended in accordance with RCW 22.09.100 for failure at any time to have or to maintain a bond (or), certificate of deposit, (or both) or other security or combination thereof in the amount and type required by this chapter. The department shall remove the suspension or issue a license as the case may be, when the required bond (or), certificate of deposit, or other security has been obtained.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Two or more applicants for a warehouse or grain dealer license may provide a single bond to the state of Washington, executed by a corporate surety licensed to do business in this state and designating each of the applicants as a principal on said bond. (2) The department shall promulgate rules establishing the amount of the bond required under this section. In no event shall that amount be less than ten percent of the aggregate amount of each of the bonds that would be required of the applicants under RCW 22.09.090 or less than the amount that would be required under RCW 22.09.090 for the applicant having the highest bond requirement under that section.

Sec. 4. Section 10, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 28, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every bond filed with and approved by the department shall without the necessity of periodic renewal remain in force and effect until such time as the warehouseman's or grain dealer license of each principal on the bond is revoked (for cause) or otherwise canceled.

(2) The surety on a bond, as provided in this chapter, shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state (accruing on the bond after) as to a principal whose license is revoked or canceled, which liability accrues after the expiration of thirty days from the effective date (a warehouseman's license is revoked for cause or otherwise terminated or after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which the surety lodged with the department a written request to be released and discharged, but this provision shall not) of the revocation or cancellation of the license. The surety on a bond under this chapter shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on the bond after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which the surety lodges with the department a written request to be released and discharged. Nothing in this section shall operate to relieve, release, or discharge the surety from any liability (already accrued or that has accrued) which accrues before the expiration of the respective thirty or ninety-day period. In the event of a cancellation by the surety, the surety shall simultaneously send the notification of cancellation in writing to any other governmental agency requesting it. Upon receiving any such request, the department shall promptly notify the principal or principals who furnished the bond, and unless the principal or principals file(s) a new bond on or before the expiration of the respective thirty or ninety-day period, the department shall forthwith cancel the (principals) license of the principal or principals whose bond has been canceled.

Sec. 5. Section 29, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 56, chapter 305, Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.570 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may bring action upon the bond of a warehouseman or grain dealer against both principal against whom a claim has been made and the surety in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the damages caused by any failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules adopted hereunder. Recovery for damages against a warehouseman or grain dealer on a bond furnished under section 3 of this 1987 act shall be limited to the bond amount that would be required for that warehouseman's or grain dealer under RCW 22.09.090.

Sec. 6. Section 33, chapter 7. Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 60, chapter 305. Laws of 1983 and RCW 22.09.610 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the refusal of the surety company to pay the demand, the director may thereupon bring an action on the warehouseman's or grain dealer's bond in behalf of the depositors or creditors. Upon any action being commenced on the bond, the director may require the filing of a new bond, and immediately upon the recovery in any action on the bond, ((the warehouseman or grain dealer shall the)) a new bond shall be filed. The failure to file the new bond or otherwise satisfy the security requirements of this chapter within ten days in either case constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of the ((warehouseman's or grain dealer's)) license of any principal on the bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The provisions of this section and sections 9 through 20 of this act constitute the grain indemnity fund program. Sections 9 through 20 of this act shall take effect on a date specified by the director but within ninety days after receipt by the director of a petition seeking implementation of the grain indemnity fund program provided for in this chapter and a determination by the director, following a public hearing on said petition, that a grain indemnity fund program is in the interest of the agricultural industry of this state. The petition shall be signed by licensees of at least thirty-three percent of the grain warehouses and thirty-three percent of the grain dealers. At least sixty days in advance, the director shall notify each licensed warehouse and grain dealer of the effective date of the grain indemnity fund program provisions.

(2) The grain indemnity fund program, if activated by the director, shall be in lieu of the bonding and security requirements of RCW 22.09.090 and section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) There is hereby established a fund to be known as the grain indemnity fund. The grain indemnity fund shall consist of assessments remitted by licensees pursuant to the provisions of sections 9 through 11 of this act and any interest or earnings on the fund balance.

(2) All assessments shall be paid to the department and shall be deposited in the grain indemnity fund. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the grain indemnity fund. Disbursements shall be on authorization of the director. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(3) The grain indemnity fund shall be used exclusively for purposes of paying claimants pursuant to this chapter, and paying necessary expenses of administering the grain indemnity fund, provided however, that one-half of the interest accumulated by the fund may be paid to the department to defray costs of administering the warehouse audit program. The state of Washington shall not be liable for any claims presented against the fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Every licensed warehouse and grain dealer and every applicant for any such license shall pay assessments to the department for deposit in the grain indemnity fund according to the provisions of sections 7 through 20 of this act and rules promulgated by the department to implement this chapter.

(2) The rate of the assessments shall be established by rule, provided however, that no single assessment against a licensed warehouse or grain dealer or applicant for any such license shall exceed five percent of the bond amount that would otherwise have been required of such grain dealer, warehouseman, or license applicant under RCW 22.09.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The department shall establish the initial assessment within sixty days of the activation of the grain indemnity fund program pursuant to section 7 of this act. Immediately upon promulgation of the rule, the department shall issue notice to each licensed warehouse and grain dealer of the assessment owed. The initial assessment and assessments issued thereafter shall be paid within thirty days of the date posted on the assessment notice.

(2) The surety bond or other security posted by a licensed warehouse or grain dealer in effect immediately preceding the effective date of the grain indemnity fund program, shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be released until thirty days after the initial assessment is paid. A certificate of deposit or other security in effect immediately preceding the effective date of the grain indemnity fund program shall remain on deposit until the initial assessment is paid and until such certificate of deposit or other security is released by the department following a prompt determination that no outstanding claims are pending against the security.

(3) Each new applicant for a warehouse or grain dealer license shall pay the assessment imposed pursuant to section 9 of this act at the time of application. No license to operate as a grain dealer or grain warehouse or both shall be issued until such assessment is paid.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 9(2) of this act, new applicants shall pay annual assessments into the grain indemnity fund for an equivalent number of years as those participating at the inception of the grain indemnity fund program and who continue to participate in the grain indemnity fund program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The assessments imposed pursuant to section 9 of this act shall be imposed annually, under rules promulgated by the department, until such time as the grain indemnity fund balance, less any outstanding claims, reaches three million dollars. For any year in which the grain indemnity fund balance, less any outstanding claims, exceeds three million dollars on the annual assessment date, no assessment shall be imposed by the department, except as provided in section 10(3) or 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department may, when it has reason to believe that a licensee does not have the ability to pay producers for grain purchased, or when it determines that the licensee does not have a sufficient net worth to outstanding financial obligations ratio, require from the licensee the payment of an additional assessment or, at the department’s option, the posting of a bond or other additional security in an amount to be prescribed by rule. The additional assessment or other security may exceed the maximum amount set forth in section 9 of this act. Failure of the licensee to timely pay the additional assessment or post the additional bond or other security constitutes grounds for suspension or revocation of a license issued under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) There is hereby created a grain indemnity fund advisory committee consisting of six members to be appointed by the director. The director shall make appointments to the committee no later than seven days following the date this section becomes effective pursuant to section 7 of this act. Of the initial appointments, three shall be for two-year terms and three shall be for three-year terms. Thereafter, appointments shall be for three-year terms, each term ending on the same day of the same month as did the term preceding it. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which the member’s predecessor was appointed shall hold office for the remainder of the predecessor’s term.

(2) The committee shall be composed of two producers primarily engaged in the production of agricultural commodities, two licensed grain dealers, and two licensed grain warehousemen.

(3) The committee shall meet at such places and times as it shall determine and as often as necessary to discharge the duties imposed upon it. Each committee member shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel and subsistence expense under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. The expenses of the committee and its operation shall be paid from the grain indemnity fund.

(4) The committee shall have the power and duty to advise the director concerning assessments, administration of the grain indemnity fund, and payment of claims from the fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In the event a grain dealer or warehouse fails, as defined in RCW 22.09.011(21), or otherwise fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter or rules promulgated hereunder, the department shall process the claims of depositors producing written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of a sale of commodities for damages caused by the failure, in the following manner:

(1) The department shall give notice and provide a reasonable time, not to exceed thirty days, to depositors possessing written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of sale of commodities to file their written verified claims with the department.

(2) The department may investigate each claim and determine whether the claimant’s commodities are under a storage obligation or whether a sale of commodities has occurred. The department shall notify each claimant, the grain warehouseman or grain dealer, and the committee of the department’s determination as to the validity and amount of each claimant’s claim. A claimant, warehouseman, or grain dealer may request a hearing on the department’s determination within twenty days of receipt of written notification and a hearing shall be held by the department pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Upon determining the amount and validity of the claim, the director shall pay the claim from the grain indemnity fund.

(3) The department may inspect and audit a failed warehouseman, as defined by RCW 22.09.011(21) to determine whether the warehouseman has in his possession, sufficient quantities of commodities to cover his storage obligations. In the event of a shortage, the department shall determine each depositor’s pro rata share of available commodities and the deficiency shall be considered as a claim of the depositor. Each type of commodity shall be treated separately for the purpose of determining shortages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If a depositor or creditor, after notification, refuses or neglects to file in the office of the director his verified claim against a warehouseman or grain dealer as requested by the director within thirty days from the date of the request, the director shall thereupon be relieved of responsibility for taking action with respect to such claim later asserted and no such claim shall be paid from the grain indemnity fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Subject to the provisions of sections 17 and 18 of this act and to a maximum payment of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars on all claims against a single licensee, approved claims against a licensed warehouseman or licensed grain dealer shall be paid from the grain indemnity fund in the following amounts:

(1) Approved claims against a licensed warehouseman shall be paid in full;

(2) Approved claims against a licensed grain dealer for payments due within thirty days of transfer of title shall be paid in full for the first twenty-five thousand dollars of the claim. The amount of such a claim in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars shall be paid to the extent of eighty percent;
(3) Approved claims against a licensed grain dealer for payments due between thirty and ninety days of transfer of title shall be paid to the extent of eighty percent.

(4) Approved claims against a licensed grain dealer for payments due after ninety days from transfer of title shall be paid to the extent of seventy-five percent.

(5) In the event that approved claims against a single licensee exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, recovery on those claims shall be prorated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. In addition to the payment limitations imposed by section 16 of this act, payment of any claim approved before the grain indemnity fund first reaches a balance of one million two hundred fifty thousand dollars, shall be limited to the following amounts:

(1) For claims against a licensed grain warehouse, payment shall not exceed the lesser of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars or an amount equal to the licensee's total bushels of licensed storage space multiplied by the rate of eighteen cents.

(2) For claims against a licensed grain dealer, payment shall not exceed the lesser of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars or an amount equal to six percent of the gross purchases of the licensee during the licensee's immediately preceding fiscal year.

(3) The unpaid balance of any claim subject to this section shall be paid when the grain indemnity fund first reaches a balance of one million two hundred fifty thousand dollars, provided that the total paid on the claim shall not exceed the limits specified in section 16 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The requirement that the state of Washington pay claims under this chapter only exists so long as the grain indemnity fund contains sufficient money to pay the claims. Under no circumstances whatsoever may any funds (other than assessment amounts and other money obtained under this chapter) be used to pay claims. In the event that the amount in the grain indemnity fund is insufficient to pay all approved claims in the amount provided for under section 16 or 17 of this act, the claims shall be paid in the order in which they were filed with the department, until such time as sufficient moneys are available in the grain indemnity fund to pay all of the claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Amounts paid from the grain indemnity fund in satisfaction of any approved claim shall constitute a debt and obligation of the grain dealer or warehouseman against whom the claim was made. On behalf of the grain indemnity fund, the director may bring suit, file a claim, or intervene in any legal proceeding to recover from the grain dealer or warehouseman the amount of the payment made from the grain indemnity fund, together with costs and attorneys’ fees incurred. In instances where the superior court is the appropriate forum for a recovery action, the director may elect to institute the action in the superior court of Thurston county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The department may deny, suspend, or revoke the license of any grain dealer or warehouseman who fails to timely pay assessments to the grain indemnity fund or against whom a claim has been made, approved, and paid from the grain indemnity fund. Proceedings for the denial, suspension, or revocation shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 3 and 7 through 20 of this act are each added to chapter 22.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5594, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.
ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 16, by Committee on Ways and Means/Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Grimm, Walker, Rust, Allen, Jacobsen, Winsley, Brekke, Locke, Unsoeld and Belcher)

Regulating wood stoves emissions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 5, beginning on line 14, strike all material down to and including "section." on line 19.
Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 6, line 13, after "wood" insert "and coal"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Kreidler, I am looking on page 4, Section 6, and the introductory words in Section 6 read, 'Any person in a residence or commercial establishment which has an adequate source of heat without burning wood shall'—and then there are two subsections which restrict the burning of wood under certain circumstances. I am wondering if those introductory words are there to allow a special exception if a person, for example, is very cold during a harsh winter and needs to burn wood perhaps as the only source of heat as a means of providing environmental support—necessary environmental support and warmth within the residence. Is that the intent of that language?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Pullen, that language is there to insure that a person has some way of appropriately heating their house and it would certainly mean that if their usual and customary means of heating the house outside of the wood burning stove or coal burning stove were inadequate, obviously then they would not have those stipulations apply and they would be able to use the wood burning stove."

Senator Pullen: "So, for those emergency or life support or necessary environmental purposes within the residence, they could burn wood without being subject to any present penalties?"

Senator Kreidler: "Absolutely."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator Kreidler, I am also looking at page 4 in that same section Senator Pullen referred to, on line 21, and the way I read from the middle of line 21, 'If, after July 1, 1990.' It appears to me that the Department could determine that there is evidence that wood stoves meeting the requirements of this bill, meaning even those stoves which are all right under this Act and the Department determines there is a quantitative evidence that wood stoves meeting this Act contribute to air quality, they could prohibit all wood stoves in the state of Washington on July 2, 1990?"

Senator Kreidler: "No. It would not accomplish that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator Kreidler, now that we have passed the Warnke amendment which has stricken Section 10, that dealt with the situation that unless allowed by rule, coal shall not be burned in any residential solid fuel burning device. We now have taken all of that out. So, I now revert back to Section 6, and in this section it says that—referring now to page 4 and the conversation you had with Senator Pullen, 'that residents cannot burn wood in any fuel heating device whenever the Department has determined there might be an air polluting episode.' My question to you is that now with Section 10 stricken, would it not be okay to burn coal even though there is an air pollution episode?"
Senator Kreidler: "No, it wouldn't, because under Section 9—New Section 9—of the bill, they still would have rule making power. If you look under Section 9, subsection (9), you would see they still would have the ability to have regulatory power."

Senator Nelson: "If I may address that, Section 9 does not list coal. It lists all of those things that, hopefully, nobody is burning out there today—the plastics, the garbage, the paints, the waste petroleum products and all the rest. It has nothing to do with the normal combustible material that people are using in the state of Washington to derive heat or pleasurable fire."

Senator Kreidler: "As you will see Section 9, subsection (9), 'Any substance, other than properly seasoned fuel wood, which normally emits dense smoke or obnoxious odors'—under that, I understand they would be able to adopt rules."

Senator Nelson: "So, it's your understanding in Section 9, subsection (9), coal would be included in that particular definition of a substance other than seasoned fuel wood, which emits dense smoke and obnoxious odors?"

Senator Kreidler: "I think that the Department could so construe it and I think that would be adequate protection if, indeed, it was determined that coal was presenting that magnitude of problem. At the current time, coal doesn't represent that kind of problem. The problem is around wood and I don't really believe, given the type of coal we have here—all respects to Black Diamond—that we really have the kind of quality of coal here that you'll ever see coal burning done on a usual and customary basis. So, I don't really see it as a problem, but if it were, I think that the Department would have adequate rule making powers to prevent any problem from occurring."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Back to Section 6, Senator Kreidler, where it says, 'Any person in a residence or commercial etc., etc., shall not burn wood.' Now, if a commercial building was a building that sold wood stoves, I assume they could not burn wood if, under RCW 70.94.715 air pollution existed in that area. How are we going to handle that problem?"

Senator Kreidler: "As you can see that if we wound up with a situation where you had a significant problem with air quality or they were in a geographic location where you would have a persistent air quality problem, they would have the ability, essentially, to protect public health. I might add that that particular language was one that was carefully evaluated by the people who sell wood stoves and they found that language acceptable."

Senator McCaslin: "They must have been renting the buildings. Thank you."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 16, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 16, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 16, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 13; excused, 1.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 16, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 56; by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Representative Sutherland)

Modifying provisions relating to surface mining permits and fees.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Owen moved that the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 64, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 215, Laws of 1984 and RCW 78.44.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

1) "Surface mining" shall mean all or any part of the process involved in mining of minerals by removing the overburden and mining directly from the mineral deposits thereby exposed, including open-pit mining of minerals naturally exposed at the surface of the earth, mining by the auger method, and including the production of surface mining refuse. Surface mining shall not include on-site processing of minerals such as concrete batching or rock crushing operations. For the purpose of this chapter surface mining shall mean those operations described in this paragraph (from) which (more than ten thousand tons of minerals are produced or more than two acres of land is newly disturbed within a period of twelve consecutive calendar months) collectively result in more than three acres of land being disturbed or that result in pit walls more than thirty feet high and steeper than one horizontal to one vertical. Surface mining shall not include disturbances of greater than three acres of land during any time period if the cumulative area that has not been rehabilitated according to the reclamation requirements outlined in this chapter is less than three acres. Surface mining shall not include excavation or removal of sand, gravel, clay, rock, top soil, or other materials in remote areas by an owner or holder of a possessory interest in land for the primary purpose of construction or maintenance of access roads to or on such landowner's property. Surface mining shall not include excavation or grading conducted for farming, on-site road construction or other on-site construction, but shall include adjacent or off-site borrow pits except those on landowner's property for use on access roads on such property. Prospecting and exploration activities shall be included within the definition of surface mining when they are of such nature and extent as to exceed the qualifying sizes listed above or when collectively they disturb more than one acre per eight acres of land area.

2) "Unit of surface mined area" shall mean the area of land and water covered by each operating permit that is actually newly disturbed by surface mining during each twelve-month period of time, beginning at the date of issuance of the permit, and shall comprise the area from which overburden and/or minerals have been removed, the area covered by spoil banks, and all additional areas used in surface mining operations which by virtue of such use are thereafter susceptible to excessive erosion.

3) "Abandonment of surface mining" shall mean a cessation of surface mining, not set forth in an operator's plan of operation or by any other sufficient written notice, extending for more than six consecutive months or when, by reason of examination of the premises or by any other means, it becomes the opinion of the department of natural resources that the operation has in fact been abandoned by the operator: PROVIDED, That the operator does not, within thirty days of receipt of written notification from the department of his intent to declare the operation abandoned, submit evidence to the department's satisfaction that the operation is in fact not abandoned.

(10) "Reclamation" shall mean the reasonable protection of all surface resources subject to disruption from surface mining and rehabilitation of the surface resources affected by surface mining including the area under stockpiled materials. Although both the need for and the practicability of reclamation will control the type and degree of reclamation in any specific instance, the basic objective will be to reestablish a continuing basis the vegetative cover, soil stability, water conditions, and safety conditions appropriate to the intended subsequent use of the area.

(11) "Reclamation plan" shall mean the operator's written proposal, as required and approved by the department, for reclamation of the affected resources which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) A statement of the proposed subsequent use of the land after reclamation ((and satisfactory evidence that all owners of)) which is signed by all individuals with a possessory interest in the land ((concurs with this proposed use)), or a copy of the conveyance that expressly grants or reserves the right to extract the mineral by surface mining methods, or if the conveyance does not expressly grant the right to extract the mineral by surface mining methods, then documentation that under applicable state law, the operator has the legal authority to extract the mineral by those methods: PROVIDED, That the applicant must provide notice reasonably calculated to advise all individuals with a possessory interest of the intent to remove minerals and the proposed subsequent use. Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 64, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 215, Laws of 1984 and RCW 78.44.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The permit fees required under this chapter shall be as follows:

(1) The basic fee for the permit shall be two hundred fifty dollars per permit year for each separate location, payable with submission of the application and annually thereafter with submission of the report required in RCW 78.44.130; PROVIDED, That a person who has held a valid surface mining permit and whose property has never been disturbed for surface mining may keep such permit in effect by paying an annual fee of fifty dollars. Before a person holding a fifty dollar permit begins surface mining during any permit year, that person shall pay the remainder of the two hundred fifty dollar fee.

(2) In addition, there shall be a five dollar per acre fee for all acreage exceeding ten acres which was newly disturbed by surface mining during the previous permit year, which acreage fee shall be paid at the time of submission of the report required in RCW 78.44.130.

(3) All fees collected shall be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 3. Section 15, chapter 64, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 215, Laws of 1984 and RCW 78.44.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of the operator's report, and at any other reasonable time the department may elect, the department shall cause the permit area to be inspected to determine if the operator has complied with the reclamation plan and the department's rules and regulations.

The operator shall proceed with reclamation as scheduled in the reclamation plan. Following any written notice by the department noting deficiencies, the operator shall commence action within thirty days, or as directed by the department if it has determined that emergency actions are required, to rectify these deficiencies and shall diligently proceed until the deficiencies are corrected: PROVIDED, That deficiencies that also violate other laws that require earlier rectification shall be corrected in accordance with the applicable time provisions of such laws. The department may extend performance periods referred to in this section and in RCW 78.44.090, for delays clearly beyond the operator’s control, but only when the operator is, in the opinion of the department, making every reasonable effort to comply.

Within thirty days after notification by the operator and when in the judgment of the department reclamation of a unit of surface mined area is properly completed, the mining operator shall be notified in writing and his bond on said area shall be released or decreased proportionately.

If reclamation of surface mined land is not proceeding in accordance with the reclamation plan and the operator has not commenced action to rectify deficiencies within thirty days after notification by the department or as directed by the department, or if reclamation is not properly completed in conformance with the reclamation plan within two years after completion or abandonment of surface mining on any segment of the permit area, the department is authorized, with the staff, equipment and material under his control, or by contract with others, to take such actions as are necessary for the reclamation of the surface mined areas. If the department intends to undertake the reclamation, the department shall ascertain the probable costs of reclamation and shall notify the operator, the surety, and the owner of the probable costs. The operator or surety, or both, shall pay that amount to the department for reclaiming the surface mined land. The department shall keep a record of all necessary expenses incurred in carrying out any project or activity authorized under this section, including a reasonable charge for the services performed by the state’s personnel and the state’s equipment and materials utilized.

The department shall notify the operator, the owner, and the surety by order. The order shall state the amount of necessary expenses incurred by the department in reclaiming the surface mined land and a notice that the amount is due and payable to the department by the operator and the surety to the extent that the amount has not already been paid. The department shall refund all amounts received above the amount of expenses incurred.

If the amount specified in the notice or order is not paid within thirty days after receipt of the notice, the attorney general, upon request of the department, shall bring an action on behalf of the state in the superior court for Thurston county or any county in which the persons to whom the notice or order is directed do business to recover the amount specified. The surety shall be liable to the state to the extent of the bond.

((The amount owed the department by the operator for the reclamation performed by the state may be recovered by a lien against the reclaimed property, which may be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as a mechanic’s lien.))

In addition to the other liabilities imposed by this chapter, failure to commence action to rectify deficiencies in reclamation within thirty days after notification by the department or failure satisfactorily to complete reclamation work on any segment of the permit area within two years after completion or abandonment of surface mining on any segment of the permit area shall constitute sufficient grounds for cancellation of a permit and refusal to issue another permit to the delinquent operator until such deficiencies are corrected by the operator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 78.44 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall by rule define the term "segment" as used in RCW 78.44.090 and 78.44.140 to establish the depth or extent of the operation covered.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bender, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

On page 5, after line 7, insert the following:

"Sec. 4. Section 11, chapter 182, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 7, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 14.08.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All powers, rights, and authority granted to any municipality in this chapter may be exercised and enjoyed by two or more municipalities, or by this state and one or more municipalities therein, acting jointly, either within or outside the territorial limits of either or any of the municipalities and within or outside this state, or by this state or any municipality therein acting jointly with any other state or municipality therein, either within or outside this state if the laws of the other state permit such joint action.

(2) For the purposes of this section only, unless another intention clearly appears or the context requires otherwise, this state is included in the term "municipality," and all the powers conferred upon municipalities in this chapter. If not otherwise conferred by law, are conferred upon this state when acting jointly with any municipality or municipalities. Where reference is made to the "governing body" of a municipality, that term means, as to the state, its secretary of transportation.

(3) Any two or more municipalities may enter into agreements with each other, duly authorized by ordinances or resolution, as may be appropriate, for joint action under this section. Concurrent action by the governing bodies of the municipalities involved constitutes joint action.

(4) Each such agreement shall specify its terms; the proportionate interest which each municipality shall have in the property, facilities, and privileges involved, and the proportion of preliminary costs, cost of acquisition, establishment, construction, enlargement, improvement, and equipment, and of expenses of maintenance, operation, and regulation to be borne by each, and make such other provisions as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. It shall provide for amendments thereof and for conditions and methods of termination; for the disposition of all or any part of the property, facilities, and privileges jointly owned if the property, facilities, and privileges, or any part thereof, cease to be used for the purposes provided in this section or if the agreement is terminated, and for the distribution of the proceeds received upon any such disposition, and of any funds or other property jointly owned and undisposed of, and the assumption or payment of any indebtedness arising from the joint venture which remains unpaid, upon any such disposition or upon a termination of the agreement.

(5) Municipalities acting jointly as authorized in this section shall create a board from the inhabitants of the municipalities for the purpose of acquiring property for, establishing, constructing, enlarging, improving, maintaining, equipping, operating, and regulating the airports and other air navigation facilities and airport protection privileges to be jointly acquired, controlled, and operated. The board shall consist of members to be appointed by the governing body of each municipality involved, the number to be appointed by each to be provided for by the agreement for the joint venture. Each member shall serve for such time and upon such terms as to compensation, if any, as may be provided for in the agreement."
(6) Each such board shall organize, select officers for terms to be fixed by the agreement, and adopt and from time to time amend rules of procedure.

(7) Such board may exercise, on behalf of the municipalities acting jointly by which it is appointed, all the powers of each of the municipalities granted by this chapter, except as provided in this section. Real property, airports, restricted landing areas, air protection privileges, or personal property costing in excess of a sum to be fixed by the joint agreement, may be acquired, and condemnation proceedings may be instituted, only by approval of the governing bodies of each of the municipalities involved. Upon the approval of the governing body, or if no approval is necessary then upon the board's own determination, such property may be acquired by private negotiation under such terms and conditions as seem just and proper to the board. The total amount of expenditures to be made by the board for any purpose in any calendar year shall be determined by the municipalities involved by the approval by each on or before the preceding December 1st, of a budget for the ensuing calendar year, which budget may be amended or supplemented by joint resolution of the municipalities involved during the calendar year for which the original budget was approved. Rules and regulations provided for by RCW 14.08.120(2) become effective only upon approval of each of the appointing governing bodies. No real property and no airport, other navigation facility, or air protection privilege, owned jointly, may be disposed of by the board by sale except by authority of all the appointing governing bodies, but the board may lease space, land area, or improvements and grant concessions on airports for aeronautical purposes, or other purposes which will not interfere with the aeronautical purposes of such airport, air navigation facility, or air protection privilege by private negotiation under such terms and conditions as seem just and proper to the board, subject to the provisions of RCW 14.08.120(4). Subject to the provisions of the agreement for the joint venture, and when it appears to the board to be in the best interests of the municipalities involved, the board may sell any personal property by private negotiations under such terms and conditions as seem just and proper to the board.

(8) Each municipality, acting jointly with another pursuant to the provisions of this section, is authorized and empowered to enact, concurrently with the other municipalities involved, such ordinances as are provided for by RCW 14.08.120(2), and to fix by such ordinances penalties for the violation thereof. When so adopted, the ordinances have the same force and effect within the municipalities and on any property jointly controlled by them or adjacent thereto, whether within or outside the territorial limits of either or any of them, as ordinances of each municipality involved, and may be enforced in any one of the municipalities in the same manner as are its individual ordinances. The consent of the state secretary of transportation to any such ordinance, where the state is a party to the joint venture, is equivalent to the enactment of the ordinance by a municipality. The publication provided for in RCW 14.08.120(2) shall be made in each municipality involved in the manner provided by law or charter for publication of its individual ordinances.

(9) Condemnation proceedings shall be instituted, in the names of the municipalities jointly, and the property acquired shall be held by the municipalities as tenants in common. The provisions of RCW 14.08.030(2) apply to such proceedings.

(10) For the purpose of providing funds for necessary expenditures in carrying out the provisions of this section, a joint fund shall be created and maintained, into which each of the municipalities involved shall deposit its proportionate share as provided by the joint agreement. Such funds shall be provided for by bond issues, tax levies, and appropriations made by each municipality in the same manner as though it were acting separately under the authority of this chapter. The revenues obtained from the ownership, control, and operation of the airports and other air navigation facilities jointly controlled shall be paid into the fund, to be expended as provided in this chapter. Revenues in excess of cost of maintenance and operating expenses of the joint properties shall be divided or allowed to accumulate for future anticipated expenditures as may be provided in the original agreement, or amendments thereto, for the joint venture. The action of municipalities involved in heretofore permitting such revenues to so accumulate is declared to be legal and valid.

(11) The governing body may by joint directive designate some person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the joint operating agency. Such a treasurer shall possess all the powers, responsibilities, and duties that the county treasurer and auditor possess for a joint operating agency related to creating and maintaining funds, issuing warrants, and investing surplus funds. The governing body may, and if the treasurer is not the county treasurer shall, require a bond, with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington, in an amount and under the terms and conditions which the governing body finds will protect the joint operating agency. The premium on such bond shall be paid by the joint operating agency. All disbursements from the joint fund shall be made by order of the board in accordance with such rules and regulations and for such purposes as the appointing governing bodies, acting jointly, shall prescribe. If no such joint directive is made by the governing appointing bodies to designate a treasurer, then the provisions of RCW 43.09.285 apply to such joint fund.
(12) Specific performance of the provisions of any joint agreement entered into as provided for in this section may be enforced as against any party thereto by the other party or parties thereto.

That any persons holding or who have held elective offices or persons appointed by the governor who are members in the retirement system and who have, prior to becoming such members, previously held an elective office, and did not at the start of such initial or successive terms of office exercise their option to become members, may apply for membership to be effective during such term or terms of office, and shall be allowed to establish the service credit applicable to such term or terms of office upon payment of the employee contributions therefor by the employee with interest as determined by the director and employer contributions therefor by the employer or employee with interest as determined by the director: AND PROVIDED FURTHER. That all contributions with interest submitted by the employee under this subsection shall be placed in the employee's individual account in the employee's savings fund and be treated as any other contribution made by the employee, with the exception that any contributions submitted by the employee in payment of the employer's obligation, together with the interest the director may apply to the employer's contribution, shall not be considered part of the member's annuity for any purpose except withdrawal of contributions;

(b) A member holding elective office in a town or city who has elected to apply for membership pursuant to (a) of this subsection and who later wishes to be eligible for a retirement allowance shall have the option of ending his or her membership in the retirement system. A member wishing to end his or her membership under this subsection must file, on a form supplied by the department, a statement indicating that the member agrees to irrevocably abandon any claim for service for future periods served as an elected official of a town or city. A member who receives more than ten thousand dollars per year in compensation for his or her elective service is not eligible for the option provided by this subsection (3)(b);

(c) A person who was eligible to establish membership under (a) of this subsection prior to October 1, 1977, is entitled to pay the required member contributions, not later than June 30, 1988, from the time of initial eligibility for membership to the present, with such interest as determined by the director: and membership shall be granted in the system as if the person were first employed and held membership prior to October 1, 1977:

(4) Employees holding membership in, or receiving pension benefits under, any retirement plan operated wholly or in part by an agency of the state or political subdivision thereof, or who are by reason of their current employment contributing to or otherwise establishing the right to receive benefits from any such retirement plan: PROVIDED. HOWEVER, In any case where the retirement system has in existence an agreement with another retirement system in connection with exchange of service credit or an agreement whereby members can retain service credit in more than one system, such an employee shall be allowed membership rights should the agreement so provide: AND PROVIDED FURTHER. That an employee shall be allowed membership if otherwise eligible while receiving survivor's benefits: AND PROVIDED FURTHER. That an employee shall not either before or after June 7, 1984, be excluded from membership or denied service credit pursuant to this subsection solely on account of enrollment under the relief and compensation provisions or the pension provisions of the volunteer firemen's relief and pension fund under chapter 41.24 RCW;

A member who elects to continue as a member of this system shall pay the appropriate member contributions and the city shall pay the employer contributions at the rates prescribed by this chapter. The city shall also transfer to this system all of such member’s accumulated contributions together with such further amounts as necessary to equal all employee and employer contributions which would have been paid into this system on account of such service with the city and thereupon the member shall be granted credit for all such service. Any city that becomes an employer as defined in RCW 41.40.010(4) as the result of an individual’s election under the first proviso of this subsection shall not be required to have all employees covered for retirement under the provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a city of the first class with its own retirement system from transferring all of its current employees to the retirement system established under this chapter. A member who withdraws from membership in the system under this section shall receive a refund of the member’s accumulated contributions.

The Speaker instructed the Sergeants at Arms to escort the Senators to seats on the House floor.

REMARKS BY THE SPEAKER

Speaker King: "It is a pleasure for me to give you the gavel to preside over this joint session, Governor Cherberg. In doing so, I wish to remind all of those present today that the purpose for this occasion originated in the House of Representatives. We are proud that one of our members, Representative John L. O'Brien, originated the idea for the Washington State Medal of Merit and was prime sponsor of the bill establishing this recognition. For that reason, all of us in the House feel that it is particularly appropriate that we should be hosts for this initial presentation ceremony. We welcome you, Governor Cherberg, our colleagues from the Senate, state elected officials, members of the Supreme Court, Medal recipients and all other guests who are with us today."

The Speaker presented the gavel to President Cherberg.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The purpose of the Joint Session is to present the first-ever Washington State Medal of Merit to the four most deserving Washington State citizens who have been distinguished by exceptionally meritorious conduct in performing outstanding services to the people and the state of Washington."
Governor Gardner: "It is my pleasure to present the Merit Award today to Orville A. Vogel. For almost fifty years, Mr. Vogel has been Washington’s leading agricultural commodity expert and our leading agricultural commodity has been soft white wheat. For fifty years, it has set economic stability in many regions of the state and in more personal terms a stable livelihood for countless Washington farmers. One person—one person did more to develop this crop and was a major contributor to our economy than any other single individual—Dr. Orville Vogel. A professor, a wheat breeder, a research scientist, an equipment inventor, through countless scientific and humanitarian endeavors, he has had a huge impact on the quality of life in our state and around the world. Among his many successful projects, he led the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington State University research teams to develop the first commercially successful semi-dwarf wheat variety in Washington State and in North America. This breakthrough has boosted Pacific Northwest wheat yield by twenty-five percent, breaking all world wheat yields. His pioneering work made a major contribution to the Green Revolution for which Dr. Norman Borlaug received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1970.

In this case, Dr. Vogel’s contributions went beyond wheat breeding. He is also a noted inventor. His special research plot planters and harvesters have automated the cultural practices of plant breeding. His work continues even in retirement. In 1980, Dr. Vogel launched the Orville A. Vogel Wheat Research Fund and has helped to raise more than $500,000 for research to expand crop yields. It has not gone without notice.

In 1977, he received the National Medal of Science from President Ford and in 1977, he received from his alma mater, Washington State University, the Distinguished Alumnus Award. It is appropriate today to honor this man with our state’s highest award. Dr. Vogel has done so much for the state of Washington and so much to feed the world that anything that we can give him is, indeed, very small thanks for a job well done. May we have a round of applause for Dr. Vogel?"

Governor Gardner presented the Medal of Merit to Dr. Orville A. Vogel.

Dr. Vogel: "Mr. Governor, members of the Legislature, honored guests, ladies and gentlemen. It is indeed a humbling experience to be a representative of a team effort of the United States Department of Agriculture and Washington State University to grow and develop wheat that is more nearly produced to take the applicability of a climate and soil. This honor has been the result of something we discovered and were cognizant of thirty years ago as a result of twenty-five years of experience and work before this time. This would not have been possible if it had not been for this body, the State Legislature, that provided WSU with the constant upgrading of facilities, technical expertise and a willingness to let us, the team members, experiment through trial and error to come up with the kind of wheat that now represents in practical production nearly as high as our climate and soil will permit.

So much for the past; my concern is for the future. With the reduction of federal support for wheat variety development, it is imperative that Washington, through its representatives, through its growers, through its research staff, through its administration see to it that there is an ever-continuing research supporting the new development of new varieties to meet the monstrously increased numbers of hazards. These are soil micro biornical; they are weather hazards and above all, EPA or people hazards. A wheat grower now, as compared to one fifty years ago, has so many restrictions and so many hazards and such a low price that if this state is going to be profitably producing wheat, it will be the result of new research or technically oriented research in the future and because I believe so firmly in that my wife and I, as has been pointed out, started an endowment. The endowment presently has a market value of $615,000. It has deferred gifts such as trusts and bonds worth several million more, so maybe twenty years from now the Vogel Wheat Research Fund will be producing $100,000 or more annually for research. This sounds big, but actually, it is a drop in the bucket compared to the kind of research and teaching that is necessary to maintain our level and our leadership in the development of agricultural products. Wheat is only one. Thank you."

The President of the Senate introduced Representative Joseph E. King, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

REMARKS BY THE SPEAKER
INTRODUCTION OF DR. LESTER SAUVAGE

Speaker King: "It is with a great deal of honor that I would like to introduce to you today, a native of Washington—Wapato, Washington—Dr. Lester Sauvage, who has so much improved the quality of lives in the state of Washington. In 1961, Dr. Sauvage pioneered successfully the coronary bypass surgery, now the most frequently performed heart surgery in the world. A graduate of St. Louis University School of Medicine, Dr. Sauvage entered private practice in Seattle in 1959. He founded the Bob Hope International Heart Research Institute in '61 and has served as the Director since that time. Through his work at the Institute, Dr. Sauvage has been instrumental in sharing his micro biological procedure and research with surgeons throughout the world. To date, surgeons from fourteen countries have completed scholarships at the Institute. Dr. Sauvage and the Institute have been credited with advancing cardio-vascular surgery and patient care, advancing the development of artificial heart valves and developing an improved line of artificial arteries. I think we might have a legislator or Senator in the back row that has benefited from some of Dr. Sauvage's techniques. While his interest in surgical research has been a strong motivating force in his life, Dr. Sauvage is also an active well-known cardio-vascular surgeon. His surgical caseload numbers almost three-hundred people a year.

"As is often the case with people with Type A personalities, Dr. Sauvage's sharing and time commitments carry over to an extensive community involvement. He is a past Jefferson Award winner; has received awards from the National Conference of Christians and Jews, the Wright Foundation and the Seattle Rotary Club. It is with a great deal of privilege to honor you today with the Washington Medal of Merit.

The Speaker presented the Medal of Merit to Dr. Sauvage.

REMARKS BY DR. LESTER SAUVAGE

Dr. Sauvage: "Speaker King, Governor Gardner, Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, Senators and Representatives, honored guests. I think I'm the only one here who wonders the reason why he is here. I know why the other people are here and to be in such company really astounds me. I wasn't going to question, however, because I relish the opportunity to be here. I mean, who wouldn't? I think it might be of some interest to you wonderful people out here for giving your time and effort to run this state, and most of you do it with relatively little thanks. You can ask the Governor. If it wasn't for you folks, nothing would happen. The reason I am here is because of a lot of people. I get the credit for a lot of things that might pass as judge. As I look back over the years I can remember when we would have been out of business if it hadn't been for this gentleman who is right behind me here, Senator Magnuson. We couldn't get money for research. Senator Magnuson was the one who got money, so that our work could continue.

"It has gotten today, from the standpoint of The National Institution of Health, it is very difficult to get money and we've gone more and more toward asking people as opposed to government, but in the early days, there is no question, I would have never been here with you today if it had not been for Senator Magnuson. I wish to publicly again thank you, Senator Magnuson."
Also, Dorothy Bullitt has been a strong supporter of our work. I would like to say for just a moment in terms of—people ask me, 'Where does Mr. Hope enter into the work that you are connected with?' Mr. Hope is an amazing gentleman. All I can say is, 'What a man!' He has taken a position of leadership with respect to our work and is putting his money behind it. He's putting his prestige behind it and this will become increasingly apparent in the next year. What are the objectives of the Hope Institute? There are two. They are very simple—to help, along with others. The University of Washington is a wonderful example of where marvelous work is going on—Russell Ross and others at the University of Washington.

'We have our role to play, too. It's to add to that sum total of human knowledge that's going to help people avoid becoming patients. We're talking about a deadly epidemic. Half of us in this room are going to die of heart and blood vessel disease. That equals that due to all other causes of death put together. We're not talking about something that happens to somebody else out there, we're talking about something that will take half of us in this room. Strokes that kill, you know, late, but they cripple long before they call us in death. Heart attacks account for about a million deaths per year. Aneurysms, difficulty with extremities. We can make a difference. I do believe that by the year 2000, major advances can be made that are going to drop this terrible toll.

'The second object of the Hope Heart Institute is to help add to that knowledge that is going to decrease the percentage of people who must have one operation, who have to have another—and another and another. It has become a way of life for a lot of people to have to pay that annual visit to the operating room. At least twenty percent of cardio-vascular surgery being done today is reoperative surgery and it's getting larger all the time. What's the future? The future is in education and if we're going to make a major difference in terms of the instance of people getting heart and blood vessel disease, it's going to have to start in childhood, in instructing children.

'Take smoking, for example. In our age group, there aren't a whole lot of people who are smoking, but you go to the high schools and it's very, very high. The whole cigarette industry is focusing in on the high school students. We need education and I'm sure that with continued research that this battle is going to be won by the year 2000—in terms of heart and blood vessel disease.

'People think I'm a bit peculiar and they're right. I ask my patients, 'What do you want to live longer for?' And I ask each of you that, 'Why do you want to live longer?' I ask myself this and I think it's a pertinent question for all of us in our materialistic society to ask ourselves. I think this is part of the heart, too. If we're talking about having people live longer instead of having them die with a nice heart attack when they are age seventy, we need to start thinking if we are going to remove these premature causes of death, either by removing heart disease and removing cancer and if you stop and think of it for a moment, if we got rid of all heart and blood vessel disease, people would live on an average, ten years longer. That's all. If you got rid of all cancer, people would live on an average of four years longer. You see? We are still going to come to that natural termination. It is high time that in most other things that we begin to think in terms of how we are going to speak to the inspirational aspects of life that enable people to look down that hallway toward the transition to eternity. I'm speaking from a philosophical standpoint that really embraces the five great religions of mankind because there is more that unites us than separates us—to help people as St. Francis of Assisi said, 'Lord, help me to become an instrument of Thine ministry.' I think that as we help people live longer, it is my firm conviction that we cannot help people find happiness with advancing years without a sense of generic spirituality. I think in our materialistic society that we need to give importance to that. I, again, wish to thank you for having honored me in a way that is a high point of my life. Thank you.'
responded by looking at him and said, 'If you would seek his monument, look around you.' Indeed, if one would seek the monuments to Dorothy Bullitt, one would look around the history of the state of Washington nearly since its beginning because she was born in the family home on Queen Anne Hill in the year 1892 and her career has nearly spanned the statehood of our state. If one looks at the cultural, to the business, to the civic history of the state of Washington, one must indeed see the monument to Dorothy Bullitt.

"In 1932, she took over the family business interests and in 1947 she, with some associates, founded the enterprise which is best known in our community as KING Broadcasting. Since that day, KING has purchased and has interests all over the state. She has a number of other business interests as well. From all this she has received a substantial number of honors. KING Broadcasting has received the George Foster Peabody Award for Youth and Children, the Thomas A. Edison Award for stations that best serve young people.

"Outside of her business interests, she has been an extraordinarily active person in the community. For many years, she served on the Board of Regents at the University of Washington and in 1983 she received the University of Washington Recognition Award. She has had a number of honorary degrees and awards from a variety of groups in our community. She was named Seattle's Woman of Achievement by the Seattle Business and Professional Women's Club. She was named Seattle's First Citizen by the Seattle Real Estate Board in 1959 and was named the Pioneer Woman Broadcaster by the state Chapter of the American Women in Radio and TV.

"Numerous charities which she has endowed throughout the state have made this state the kind of good state it is in which to live. I mention one in particular. Not too many years ago, she endowed a Chair in History at the University of Washington, which has been held by such distinguished persons as Professor Commager and Professor Freidel. It is my pleasure today to introduce to you, to receive on behalf of her grandmother, this Award of Merit, her granddaughter and namesake, Dorothy Bullitt."

The Chief Justice presented the Medal of Merit to Dorothy Bullitt, the granddaughter of the honoree.

REMARKS BY DOROTHY BULLITT

Dorothy Bullitt: "I suspect you all thought I got a facelift. Thank you all. Thank you, Governor and Justice Dolliver. My grandmother regrets being unable to attend today, sort of, because she is relieved she doesn't have to do this sort of thing anymore. She asked me to thank you all and to let you know she appreciates the recognition that this award implies.

"The last time I represented my grandmother at an award ceremony was in 1969 when she was awarded the Citizen of the Year Award by the Seattle Board of Realtors. I was four at the time and I crawled under the table. I promise I won't do that today. The four people who are being honored here today have each made a large and valuable contribution to the citizens of the state. Each have led a very different kind of life. My grandmother's life has spanned most of the state's history and her efforts on behalf of the citizens extend back to the early part of this century. An example of her civic contributions in the years before her interest in broadcasting, where most of you are familiar about her achievements, was in the 1930's when she served as the Chairman of the State Relief Commission. Senator Magnuson and I were talking about it beforehand, by coincidence. That Commission was set up during the depression to provide federal funds to projects intended to provide work for the unemployed. The Commission's responsibility was to determine which projects were appropriate to fund and which were not. In her capacity as Chairman of that Commission, she signed many documents, one of which authorized something called an Irrigation Project in eastern Washington. That turned out to be the Grand Coulee Dam.

"We're not in a depression anymore and we don't need any more dams on the Columbia River, we all know that, but those issues have been replaced by new ones and the communities' needs are ongoing and they are never ending. My grandmother recognized that and she took responsibility seriously as a citizen to help address the communities' needs. By doing so, she created a life that is worth emulating and I'm proud to be her granddaughter and I'm proud to share her name and I'm proud to accept this award on her behalf. Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
INTRODUCTION OF SENATOR WARREN G. MAGNUSON

President Cherberg: "I am indeed honored and proud to have the privilege of introducing our good friend, "Maggie." Many of us individuals have served in the Legislature, some going on for laudable careers in public service, but Senator Warren G. Magnuson is truly in a class by himself. His forty-eight years of public service have yet to be equaled. His forty-four years in the Congress is a record only half a dozen in the history of our nation have achieved. His twenty-five years service as Chairman of a major committee in the United States Senate has a record no other member has equaled. A number of laws and programs are now in the United States Code with his name, his imprint is another unequaled record.

"Behind all those records, there is even more. There is a quality of public service that may never be equaled: What he did to help protect the environment; what he did to help protect consumers in the marketplace; what he did to promote economic development; what he did to reopen trade and commerce with the People's Republic of China; what he did to bring water to over a million acres of arid land in eastern Washington; what he did to foster educational broadcasting; what he did to preserve television channels for public television; what he did to open college doors with student loans; what he did to help others find the cures to dread diseases; what he did to help others push out the frontiers of basic scientific discovery for what we know it today. That list could go on and on. There are two common threads, protecting the national heritage we all should enjoy while we preserve it for those to come and compassion for those among us who may need a helping hand. People throughout the world live longer, live better because of the things that Senator Magnuson did during his years of public service. And billions of people will never know of this champion from the state of Washington and what he did for them. We, in Washington State, have been especially blessed to have had Senator Magnuson serve as long and so well for us. Many of us are even more blessed to have known him as a friend, a true friend for all seasons. The one, the only, "Maggie."

The President presented the Medal of Merit to Senator Warren G. Magnuson.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MAGNUSON

Senator Magnuson: "Governor Gardner, distinguished guests, ladies and gentlemen. Thank you, John, for that generous introduction. I sorely wish my mother and father were alive to witness this. My father would have enjoyed it; my mother wouldn't have believed it. It's so true. Dr. Sauvage, I thank you for your kind remarks, too.

"I am unaccustomed to speaking to legislators lately, but this award, of course, has several meanings for me. Fifty-four years ago, I sat in this body in an outside seat in the second row. A lot of water has gone over the dam since then. It was the beginning of a long career for me, a career which spanned fifty years and all but two of those years have been as a legislator. I cherish those years and I'm glad for this honor here today. I deeply appreciate it.

"In two years, this state will celebrate its one hundredth anniversary. Governor, I suspect you are making preparations for it now. It's inconceivable to me that I have served in public office one-half of those hundred years--fifty long years and all but two of them in a legislative body. I can understand and I know well the trials and tribulations that legislators go through. That was a historic session in '54 when I served down here. Times were bad all over. This state had a thirty-nine percent unemployment rate. That was just the common. There were a lot of marches on Olympia, but they were hunger marches--people actually hungry--coming to the Legislature for help. We met that challenge like you folks are meeting the challenge here today. We had a sixty day session in those days and we tried to run a lot of legislation to work out the problems of the times. We stopped the clock and went on, but the Supreme Court, I guess, caught us at that and we can't do that anymore. It's with great pride that I feel toward this body.
"We established—Mrs. Bullitt was instrumental in this—the first WPA project in the whole United States and we established an old age pension system and that was the beginning of what is now Social Security. I had the advantage that I introduced the Old Age Pension Bill, it's a hard thing to believe, but it's true. In those days there were county poor houses. How many remember county poor houses? The popular song of the day was 'Over the Hill to the Poor House.' Well, we abolished the poor houses and made the start of Social Security. I remember Franklin D. Roosevelt once introducing me after I had gone to Congress, he said, 'Here's the young man who started the WPA Projects in the United States.' It wasn't quite true. And so we move along. I started a career from that second row seat in Washington for a half century.

"I think I can speak to you people as friends and colleagues. I sometimes wonder if you think like I thought on many occasions as a legislator—'Is it all worthwhile? Are there any rewards for being a legislator?' You're sort of lost in the shuffle sometimes. Well, there is a great reward. There's a great reward in the satisfaction that you are contributing to the welfare and the community, the state and the nation.

"You sometimes wonder what's happening now. We had to make some tough decisions in those days and you are asked to make them now. All legislators are important. We don't have hunger marches anymore, but you do have a lot of people who are hungry. You've had some unemployment marches; there are a lot of people who are still unemployed. I know you have goals and aims. It's great to be an American as I look at this body. It's great to be a citizen of this country. It's greater to be a resident of the state of Washington and be so honored as I am today. God speed your endeavors and I know that you know that you have the satisfaction of knowing deep down in that you are making a great contribution to the welfare of this state and this nation. I thank you for this award from the bottom of my heart. Thanks."

The President of the Senate instructed the escort committee to escort Governor Gardner from the House Chambers.

The President of the Senate instructed the escort committee to escort Justice Dolliver from the House Chambers.

The President of the Senate returned the gavel to the Speaker of the House.

MOTION
On motion of Representative McMullen, the Joint Session was dissolved.

The Senate was called to order at 10:37 a.m. by President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

Creating the Washington state health insurance pool.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Washington state health insurance coverage access act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the purpose and intent of the legislature to provide access to health insurance coverage to all residents of Washington who are denied adequate health insurance for any reason. It is the intent of the legislature that adequate levels of health insurance coverage be made available to residents of Washington who are otherwise considered uninsurable or who are underinsured. It is the intent of the Washington state health insurance coverage access act to provide a mechanism to insure the availability of comprehensive health insurance to persons unable to obtain such insurance coverage on either an individual or group basis directly under any health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meaning indicated, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Administrator" means the entity chosen by the board to administer the pool under section 8 of this act.

(2) "Board" means the board of directors of the pool.

(3) "Commissioner" means the insurance commissioner.

(4) "Health care facility" has the same meaning as in RCW 70.38.025.

(5) "Health care provider" means any physician, facility, or health care professional, who is licensed in Washington state and entitled to reimbursement for health care services.

(6) "Health care services" means services for the purpose of preventing, alleviating, curing, or healing human illness or injury.

(7) "Health insurance" means any group or individual disability insurance policy, health care service contract, and health maintenance agreement, except those contracts entered into for the provision of health care services pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1395 et seq. The term does not include short-term care, long-term care, dental, vision, accident, fixed indemnity, disability income contracts, civilian health and medical program for the uniform services (CHAMPUS), 10 U.S.C. 55, limited benefit or credit insurance, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of the worker's compensation or similar law, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and which is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(8) "Health plan" means any arrangement by which persons, including dependents or spouses, covered or making application to be covered by this pool, have access to hospital and medical benefits or rehabilitation including any group or individual disability insurance policy; health care service contract; health maintenance agreement; uninsured arrangements of group or group-type contracts including employer self-insured, cost-plus, or other benefit methodologies not involving insurance or not governed by Title 48 RCW; coverage under group-type contracts which are not available to the general public and can be obtained only because of connection with a particular organization or group; and coverage by Medicare or other governmental benefits. This term includes coverage through "health insurance" as defined under this section, and specifically excludes those types of programs excluded under the definition of "health insurance" in subsection (7) of this section.

(9) "Insured" means any individual resident of this state who is eligible to receive benefits from any member, or other health plan.

"Member" shall also mean, as soon as authorized by federal law, employers and other entities, including a self-funding entity and employee welfare benefit plans that provide health plan benefits in this state on or after the effective date of this section. "Member" does not include any insurer, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization whose products are exclusively dental products.

(13) "Plan of operation" means the pool, including articles, by-laws, and operating rules, adopted by the board pursuant to section 5 of this act.

(14) "Pool" means the Washington state health insurance pool as created in section 4 of this act.

(15) "Substantially equivalent health plan" means a "health plan" as defined in subsection (8) of this section which, in the judgment of the board or the administrator, offers persons including dependents or spouses covered or making application to be covered by this pool an overall level of benefits deemed approximately equivalent to the minimum benefits available under this pool.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) There is hereby created a nonprofit entity to be known as the Washington state health insurance pool. All members in this state on or after the effective date of this section shall be members of the pool. When authorized by federal law, all self-insured employers as designated by federal law shall also be members of the pool.

(2) Pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW the commissioner shall, within ninety days after the effective date of this section, give notice to all members of the time and place for the initial organizational meetings of the pool. A board of directors shall be established, which shall be comprised of nine members. The commissioner shall select three members of the board who shall represent (a) the general public, (b) health care providers, and (c) health insurance agents. The remaining members of the board shall be selected by election from among the members of the pool. The elected members shall, to the extent possible, include at least one representative of health care service contractors, one representative of health maintenance organizations, and one representative of commercial insurers which provides disability insurance. When self-insured organizations become eligible for participation in the pool, one member of the board shall represent the self-insurers.

(3) The original members of the board of directors shall be appointed for intervals of one to three years. Thereafter, all board members shall serve a term of three years. Board members shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.060 and 43.03.060.

(4) The board shall submit to the commissioner a plan of operation for the pool and any amendments thereto necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the pool. The commissioner shall, after notice and hearing pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, approve the plan of operation if it is determined to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the pool and provides for the sharing of pool losses on an equitable, proportionate basis among the members of the pool. The plan of operation shall become effective upon approval in writing by the commissioner consistent with the date on which the coverage under this chapter must be made available. If the board fails to submit a plan of operation within one hundred eighty days after the appointment of the board or any time thereafter fails to submit acceptable amendments to the plan, the commissioner shall, within ninety days after notice and hearing pursuant to chapters 34.04 and 48.04 RCW, adopt such rules as are necessary or advisable to effectuate this chapter. The rules shall continue in force until modified by the commissioner or superseded by a plan submitted by the board and approved by the commissioner.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The plan of operation submitted by the board to the commissioner shall:

(1) Establish procedures for the handling and accounting of assets and moneys of the pool;
(2) Establish regular times and places for meetings of the board of directors;
(3) Establish procedures for records to be kept of all financial transactions and for an annual fiscal reporting to the commissioner;
(4) Contain additional provisions necessary and proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the pool;
(5) Establish procedures for the collection of assessments from all members to provide for claims paid under the plan and for administrative expenses incurred or estimated to be incurred during the period for which the assessment is made;
(6) Establish the amount of assessment pursuant to section 6 of this act, which shall occur after March 1st of each calendar year, and which shall be due and payable within thirty days of the receipt of the assessment notice;
(7) Select an administrator in accordance with section 8 of this act;
(8) Develop and implement a program to publicize the existence of the plan, the eligibility requirements and procedures for enrollment, and to maintain public awareness of the plan; and
(9) Establish procedures under which applicants and participants may have grievances reviewed by an impartial body and reported to the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The board shall have the general powers and authority granted under the laws of this state to insurance companies licensed to transact the kinds of insurance defined under this title. In addition thereto, the board may:

(1) Enter into contracts as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions and purposes of this chapter including the authority, with the approval of the commissioner, to enter into contracts with similar pools of other states for the joint performance of common administrative functions, or with persons or other organizations for the performance of administrative functions;
(2) Sue or be sued, including taking any legal action as necessary to avoid the payment of improper claims against the pool or the coverage provided by or through the pool;
(3) Establish appropriate rates, rate schedules, rate adjustments, expense allowances, agent referral fees, claim reserve formulas and any other actuarial functions appropriate to the operation of the pool. Rates shall not be unreasonable in relation to the coverage provided, the risk experience, and expenses of providing the coverage. Rates and rate schedules may be adjusted for appropriate risk factors such as age and area variation in claim costs and shall take into consideration appropriate risk factors in accordance with established actuarial underwriting practices;
(4) Assess members of the pool in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and to make advance interim assessments as may be reasonable and necessary for the organizational or interim operating expenses. Any interim expenses will be credited as offsets against any regular assessments due following the close of the calendar year;
(5) Issue policies of insurance in accordance with the requirements of this chapter;
(6) Appoint appropriate legal, actuarial and other committees as necessary to provide technical assistance in the operation of the pool, policy, and other contract design, and any other function within the authority of the pool; and
(7) Conduct periodic audits to assure the general accuracy of the financial data submitted to the pool, and the board shall cause the pool to have an annual audit of its operations by an independent certified public accountant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The pool shall be subject to examination by the commissioner as provided under chapter 48.03 RCW. The board of directors shall submit, not later than March 1st of each year, a financial report for the preceding calendar year in a form approved by the commissioner. The board of directors shall further report to the appropriate standing committees of each house of the legislature by March 1st of each year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The board shall select an administrator through a competitive bidding process to administer the pool.

(1) The board shall evaluate bids based upon criteria established by the board, which shall include:
(a) The administrator's proven ability to handle accident and health insurance;
(b) The efficiency of the administrator's claims-paying procedures;
(c) An estimate of the total charges for administering the plan; and
(d) The administrator's ability to administer the pool in a cost-effective manner.
(2) The administrator shall serve for a period of three years subject to removal for cause.

At least one year prior to the expiration of each three-year period of service by the administrator, the board shall invite all interested parties, including the current administrator, to submit bids to serve as the administrator for the succeeding three-year period. Selection of the administrator for this succeeding period shall be made at least six months prior to the end of the current three-year period.
(3)(a) The administrator shall perform all eligibility and administrative claim payment functions relating to the pool:
(b) The administrator shall establish a premium billing procedure for collection of premiums from insured persons. Billings shall be made on a periodic basis as determined by the board, which shall not be more frequent than a monthly billing;
(c) The administrator shall perform all necessary functions to assure timely payment of benefits to covered persons under the pool including:
(i) Making available information relating to the proper manner of submitting a claim for benefits to the pool, and distributing forms upon which submission shall be made; and
(ii) Evaluating the eligibility of each claim for payment by the pool;
(d) The administrator shall submit regular reports to the board regarding the operation of the pool. The frequency, content, and form of the report shall be as determined by the board;
(e) Following the close of each calendar year, the administrator shall determine net written and earned premiums, the expense of administration, and the paid and incurred losses for the year and report this information to the board and the commissioner on a form as prescribed by the commissioner;
(f) The administrator shall be paid as provided in the plan of operation for its expenses incurred in the performance of its services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Following the close of each calendar year, the pool administrator shall determine the net premium (premiums less administrative expense allowances), the pool expenses of administration, and incurred losses for the year, taking into account investment income and other appropriate gains and losses.
(2)(a) Each member's proportion of participation in the pool shall be determined annually by the board based on annual statements and other reports deemed necessary by the board and filed by the member with the commissioner; and shall be determined by multiplying the total cost of pool operation by a fraction, the numerator of which equals that member's total number of resident insured persons, including spouse and dependents under the member's health plan in the state during the preceding calendar year, and the denominator of which equals the total number of resident insured persons including spouses and dependents insured under all health plans in the state by pool members.
(b) Any deficit incurred by the pool shall be recouped by assessments among members apportioned under this subsection pursuant to the formula set forth by the board among members.
(3) The board may abate or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of a member if, in the opinion of the board, payment of the assessment would endanger the ability of the member to fulfill its contractual obligations. If an assessment against a member is abated or deferred in whole or in part, the amount by which such assessment is abated or deferred may be assessed against the other members in a manner consistent with the basis for assessments set forth in subsection (2) of this section. The member receiving such abatement or deferment shall remain liable to the pool for the deficiency for four years.
(4) If assessments exceed actual losses and administrative expenses of the pool, the excess shall be held at interest and used by the board to offset future losses or to reduce pool premiums. As used in this subsection, "future losses" includes reserves for incurred but not reported claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any individual person who is a resident of this state is eligible for coverage upon providing evidence of rejection for medical reasons, a requirement of restrictive riders, an up-rated premium, or a preexisting conditions limitation on health insurance, the effect of which is to substantially reduce coverage from that received by a person considered a standard risk, by at least one member within six months of the date of application.
(2) The following persons are not eligible for coverage by the pool:
(a) Any person who is at the time of pool application eligible for medical assistance;
(b) Any person having terminated coverage in the pool unless (i) twelve months have lapsed since termination, or (ii) that person can show continuous other coverage which has been involuntarily terminated for any reason other than nonpayment of premiums;
(c) Any person on whose behalf the pool has paid out five hundred thousand dollars in benefits;
(d) Inmates of public institutions and persons whose benefits are duplicated under public programs.
(3) Any person whose health insurance coverage is involuntarily terminated for any reason other than nonpayment of premium may apply for coverage under the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The administrator shall prepare a brochure outlining the benefits and exclusions of the pool policy in plain language. After approval by the board of directors, such brochure shall be made reasonably available to participants or potential participants. The health insurance policy issued by the pool shall pay only usual, customary, and reasonable charges for medically necessary eligible health care services rendered or furnished for the diagnosis or treatment of illnesses, injuries, and conditions which are not otherwise limited or excluded. Eligible expenses are the usual, customary, and reasonable charges for the health care services and items for which benefits are extended under the pool policy. Such benefits shall at minimum include, but not be limited to, the following services or related items:

(a) Hospital services, including charges for the most common semiprivate room, for the most common private room if semiprivate rooms do not exist in the health care facility, or for the private room if medically necessary, but limited to a total of one hundred eighty inpatient days in a calendar year, and limited to thirty days inpatient care for mental and nervous conditions, or alcohol, drug, or chemical dependency or abuse per calendar year;

(b) Professional services including surgery for the treatment of injuries, illnesses, or conditions, other than dental, which are rendered by a health care provider, or at the direction of a health care provider, by a staff of registered or licensed practical nurses, or other health care providers;

(c) The first twenty outpatient professional visits for the diagnosis or treatment of one or more mental or nervous conditions or alcohol, drug, or chemical dependency or abuse rendered during a calendar year by one or more physicians, psychologists, or community mental health professionals, or, at the direction of a physician, by other qualified licensed health care practitioners:

(d) Drugs and contraceptive devices requiring a prescription;

(e) Services of a skilled nursing facility, excluding custodial and convalescent care, for not more than one hundred days in a calendar year as prescribed by a physician;

(f) Services of a home health agency;

(g) Chemotherapy, radiosotope, radiation, and nuclear medicine therapy;

(h) Oxygen;

(i) Anesthesia services;

(j) Prostheses, other than dental;

(k) Durable medical equipment which has no personal use in the absence of the condition for which prescribed;

(l) Diagnostic x-rays and laboratory tests;

(m) Oral surgery limited to the following: Fractures of facial bones; excisions of mandibular joints, lesions of the mouth, lip, or tongue, tumors, or cysts excluding treatment for temporomandibular joints; incision of accessory sinuses, mouth salivary glands or ducts; dislocations of the jaw; plastic reconstruction or repair of traumatic injuries occurring while covered under the pool; and excision of impacted wisdom teeth;

(n) Services of a physical therapist and services of a speech therapist;

(o) Hospice services;

(p) Professional ambulance service to the nearest health care facility qualified to treat the illness or injury; and

(q) Other medical equipment, services, or supplies required by physician's orders and medically necessary and consistent with the diagnosis, treatment, and condition.

(2) The board shall design and employ cost containment measures and requirements such as, but not limited to, preadmission certification and concurrent inpatient review which may make the pool more cost-effective.

(3) The pool benefit policy may contain benefit limitations, exceptions, and reductions that are generally included in health insurance plans and are approved by the insurance commissioner; however, no limitation, exception, or reduction may be approved that would exclude coverage for any disease, illness, or injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Subject to the limitation provided in subsection (3) of this section, a pool policy offered in accordance with this chapter shall impose a deductible. Deductibles of five hundred dollars and one thousand dollars on a per person per calendar year basis shall initially be offered. The board may authorize deductibles in other amounts. The deductible shall be applied to the first five hundred dollars, one thousand dollars, or other authorized amount of eligible expenses incurred by the covered person.

(2) Subject to the limitations provided in subsection (3) of this section, a mandatory coinsurance requirement shall be imposed at the rate of twenty percent of eligible expenses in excess of the mandatory deductible.

(3) The maximum aggregate out of pocket payments for eligible expenses by the insured in the form of deductibles and coinsurance shall not exceed in a policy year:

(a) One thousand five hundred dollars per individual, or three thousand dollars per family, per policy year for the five hundred dollar deductible policy;

(b) Two thousand five hundred dollars per individual, or five thousand dollars per family per policy year for the one thousand dollar deductible policy; or

(c) An amount authorized by the board for any other deductible policy.

(4) Eligible expenses incurred by a covered person in the last three months of a calendar year, and applied toward a deductible, shall also be applied toward the deductible amount in the next calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. All policy forms issued by the pool shall conform in substance to prototype forms developed by the pool, and shall in all other respects conform to the requirements of this chapter, and shall be filed with and approved by the commissioner before they are issued. The pool shall not issue a pool policy to any individual who, on the effective date of the coverage applied for, already has or would have coverage substantially equivalent to a pool policy as an insured or covered dependent, or who would be eligible for such coverage if he elected to obtain it at a lesser premium rate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Coverage shall provide that health insurance benefits are applicable to children of the person in whose name the policy is issued including adopted and newly born natural children. Coverage shall also include necessary care and treatment of medically diagnosed congenital defects and birth abnormalities. If payment of a specific premium is required to provide coverage for the child, the policy may require that notification of the birth or adoption of a child and payment of the required premium must be furnished to the pool within thirty-one days after the date of birth or adoption in order to have the coverage continued beyond the thirty-one day period. For purposes of this subsection, a child is deemed to be adopted, and benefits are payables, when the child is physically placed for purposes of adoption under the laws of this state with the person in whose name the policy is issued; and, when the person in whose name the policy is issued assumes financial responsibility for the medical expenses of the child. For purposes of this subsection, "newly born" means, and benefits are payables, from the moment of birth.

(2) A pool policy shall provide that coverage of a dependent, unmarried person shall terminate when the person becomes nineteen years of age: PROVIDED. That coverage of such person shall not terminate at age nineteen while he or she is and continues to be both (a) incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of developmental disability or physical handicap and (b) chiefly dependent upon the person in whose name the policy is issued for support and maintenance, provided proof of such incapacity and dependency is furnished to the pool by the policy holder within thirty-one days of the dependent’s attainment of age nineteen and subsequently as may be required by the pool but not more frequently than annually after the two-year period following the dependent’s attainment of age nineteen.

(3) A pool policy may contain provisions under which coverage is excluded during a period of six months following the effective date of coverage as to a given covered individual for preexisting conditions, as long as medical advice or treatment was recommended or received within a period of six months before the effective date of coverage.

These preexisting condition exclusions shall be waived to the extent to which similar exclusions have been satisfied under any prior health insurance which was for any reason other than nonpayment of premium involuntarily terminated, if the application for pool coverage is made not later than thirty days following the involuntary termination. In that case, with payment of appropriate premium, coverage in the pool shall be effective from the date on which the prior coverage was terminated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The board shall offer a medical supplement policy for persons receiving medicare benefits. The supplement policy shall provide coverage of one hundred percent of the deductible and copayment required under medicare and eighty percent of the charges for covered services under this chapter that are not paid by medicare. The coverage shall include a limitation of one thousand dollars per person on total annual out-of-pocket expenses for the covered services.

(2) If federal law is adopted that addresses this subject, the board shall offer a policy that is consistent with that federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) A pool policy offered under this chapter shall contain provisions under which the pool is obligated to renew the policy until the day on which the individual in whose name the policy is issued first becomes eligible for medicare coverage. At that time, coverage of dependents shall terminate if such dependents are eligible for coverage under a different health plan. Dependents who become eligible for medicare prior to the individual in whose name the policy is issued, shall receive benefits in accordance with section 15 of this act.

(2) The pool may not change the rates for pool policies except on a class basis, with a clear disclosure in the policy of the pool's right to do so.

(3) A pool policy offered under this chapter shall provide that, upon the death of the individual in whose name the policy is issued, every other individual then covered under the policy may elect, within a period specified in the policy, to continue coverage under the same or a different policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The commissioner shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW that:

1. Provide for disclosure by the member of the availability of insurance coverage from the pool; and

2. Implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Commencing with the effective date of this section, every member shall provide a notice and an application for coverage by the pool to any person who receives a rejection of coverage for health insurance or health care services, or has any health condition limited or excluded. The notice shall state that the person is eligible to apply for health insurance provided by the pool.
(2) Members of the pool shall provide the brochure outlining the benefits and exclusions of the pool policy to any person who is rejected by a member or who is offered a policy containing restrictive riders, up-rated premiums, or a preexisting conditions limitation on a health insurance plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Neither the participation by members in the establishment of rates, forms, or procedures for coverages issued by the pool, nor any other joint or collective action required by this chapter or the state of Washington shall be the basis of any legal action, civil or criminal liability or penalty against the pool or members of it either jointly or separately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The pool shall determine the standard risk rate by calculating the average group standard rate for groups comprised of up to ten persons charged by the five largest members offering coverages in the state comparable to the pool coverage. In the event five members do not offer comparable coverage, the standard risk rate shall be established using reasonable actuarial techniques and shall reflect anticipated experience and expenses for such coverage. Maximum rates for pool coverage shall be one hundred fifty percent of the rates established as applicable for group standard risks in groups comprised of up to ten persons. All rates and rate schedules shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. It is the express intent of this chapter that the pool be the last payor of benefits whenever any other benefit is available.

(1) Benefits otherwise payable under pool coverage shall be reduced by all amounts paid or payable through any other health insurance, or health benefit plans, including but not limited to self-insured plans and by all hospital and medical expense benefits paid or payable under any worker's compensation coverage, automobile medical payment or liability insurance whether provided on the basis of fault or nonfault, and by any hospital or medical benefits paid or payable under or provided pursuant to any state or federal law or program.

(2) The administrator or the pool shall have a cause of action against an eligible person for the recovery of the amount of benefits paid which are not for covered expenses. Benefits due from the pool may be reduced or refused as a set-off against any amount recoverable under this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any part of this chapter is found to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned. The rules under this chapter shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 48.14 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The taxes imposed in RCW 48.14.020 do not apply to premiums collected or received for policies of insurance issued under sections 1 through 21 of this act.

(2) In computing tax due under RCW 48.14.020, there may be deducted from taxable premiums the amount of any assessment against the taxpayer under sections 1 through 21 of this act. Any portion of the deduction allowed in this section which cannot be deducted in a tax year without reducing taxable premiums below zero may be carried forward and deducted in successive years until the deduction is exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

In computing tax there may be deducted from the measure of tax the amount of any assessment against the taxpayer under sections 1 through 21 of this act. Any portion of the deduction allowed in this section which cannot be deducted in a tax year without reducing taxable premiums below zero may be carried forward and deducted in successive years until the deduction is exhausted. Amounts deducted under section 23 of this act may not be deducted under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The board shall report to the commissioner and the appropriate committees of the legislature by April 1, 1990, on the implementation of this act. The report shall include information regarding enrollment, coverage utilization, cost, and any problems with the program and suggest remedies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Sections 1 through 22 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Moore, this bill is supposed to enable people who would be in an assigned risk pool, because of health reasons—heart, diabetes and whatever. What does this do for the people who can’t afford the one hundred and fifty percent rate on the health insurance?*

Senator Moore: “This bill doesn’t do anything, Senator Rasmussen, for that group. This is for those who can pay, but can’t get insured otherwise.”

Senator Rasmussen: “That’s what I wanted to find out. It really doesn’t do anything then?”

Senator Moore: “It will take care of those people that cannot get insurance now. At a price, ridiculous though that price may be, it will be available to them, but those that can’t afford it, can’t get insured. It almost seems the American way, Senator.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 298, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Haugen, Brough, P. King, Holm and Unsoeld)

Permitting certain library districts, metropolitan park districts, fire protection districts, and public hospital districts to withdraw areas from their boundaries.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Halsan, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 298 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Kreidler, I believe I heard you say that it was never intended that there be two codes in effect at one time with this bill—that this bill will only be effective until such time as the new fire code comes into place and takes jurisdiction over the problem?"

Senator Kreidler: "That's correct. Now, there would be the potential of seeing an overlap take place, but in effect, the same code would be identical if it occurred. That's the assurance that I've received—that there would not be a conflict even though this bill would, potentially, be in effect when the Uniform Fire Code is adopted. They would, essentially, be so close that there wouldn't be any conflict or problems with it. This is language we carefully worked out with people who represented interests that, obviously, would have been affected if there had been a conflict with it and they assured us that this would be acceptable."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 414, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Enacting the health care access act of 1987.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the health care access act of 1987.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this chapter at any time and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this chapter or any acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the legislature to amend or repeal this chapter at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) A significant percentage of the population of this state does not have reasonably available insurance or other coverage of the costs of necessary basic health care services;

(b) This lack of basic health care coverage is detrimental to the health of the individuals lacking coverage and to the public welfare, and results in substantial expenditures for emergency and remedial health care, often at the expense of health care providers, health care facilities, and all purchasers of health care, including the state; and

(c) The use of managed health care systems has significant potential to reduce the growth of health care costs incurred by the people of this state generally, and by low-income pregnant women who are an especially vulnerable population, along with their children, and who need greater access to managed health care.

(2) The purpose of this chapter is to provide necessary basic health care services in an appropriate setting to working persons and others who lack coverage, at a cost to these persons that does not create barriers to the utilization of necessary health care services. To that end, this chapter establishes a program to be made available to those residents under sixty-five years of age not otherwise eligible for medicare with gross family income at or below two hundred percent of the federal poverty guidelines who share in the cost of receiving basic health care services from a managed health care system.

(3) It is not the intent of this chapter to provide health care services for those persons who are presently covered through private employer-based health plans, nor to replace employer-based health plans. Further, it is the intent of the legislature to expand, wherever possible, the availability of private health care coverage and to discourage the decline of employer-based coverage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Washington basic health plan" or "plan" means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the Washington basic health plan board.

(3) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services. administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(4) "Enrollee" means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and/or dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five and not otherwise eligible for medicare, who resides in an area of the state served by a managed health care system participating in the plan, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed twice the federal poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal department of health and human services, who chooses to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board.

(5) "Subsidy" means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the basic health plan trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 10(2) of this act.

(6) "Premium" means a periodic payment, based upon gross family income and determined under section 10(2) of this act, which an enrollee makes to the board as consideration for enrollment in the plan.

(7) "Rate" means the per capita amount, negotiated by the board with and paid to a participating managed health care system, that is based upon the enrollment of enrollees in the plan and in that system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The basic health plan trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All revenue received under section ... of this act and all funds appropriated for this chapter shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account. Disbursements from the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health plan board. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the plan and payment of costs of administering the plan. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health project trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1988, the legislature shall not appropriate for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the ending balance anticipated to accrue in the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created the Washington basic health plan board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. The board shall be composed of five
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health plan shall be entitled to receive in return for premium payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize proven preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the plan only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services, the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080, and such other factors as the board deems appropriate.
(2) To design and implement a structure of periodic premiums due the board from enrollees that is based upon gross family income, giving appropriate consideration to family size as well as the ages of all family members. The enrollment of children shall not require the enrollment of their parent or parents who are eligible for the plan.

(3) To design and implement a structure of nominal copayments due a managed health care system from enrollees. The structure shall discourage inappropriate enrollee utilization of health care services, but shall not be so costly to enrollees as to constitute a barrier to appropriate utilization of necessary health care services.

(4) To limit enrollment of persons who qualify for subsidies so as to prevent an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close enrollment until the board finds the danger no longer exists.

(5) To adopt a schedule for the orderly development of the delivery of services and availability of the plan to residents of the state, subject to the limitations contained in section 12 of this act.

In the selection of any area of the state for the initial operation of the plan, the board shall take into account the levels and rates of unemployment in different areas of the state, the need to provide basic health care coverage to a population reasonably representative of the portion of the state's population that lacks such coverage, and the need for geographic, demographic, and economic diversity.

Before July 1, 1988, the board shall endeavor to secure participation contracts with managed health care systems in discrete geographic areas within at least five congressional districts.

(6) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the plan. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available to any enrollee of the plan from among a selection of two or more participating managed health care systems. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the several areas of the state.

(7) To receive periodic premiums from enrollees, deposit them in the basic health plan operating account, keep records of enrollee status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(8) To accept applications from individuals residing in areas served by the plan, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale premiums. An enrollee who remains current in payment of the sliding-scale premium, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, and whose gross family income has risen above twice the federal poverty level, may continue enrollment unless and until the enrollee's gross family income has remained above twice the poverty level for six consecutive months, by making payment at the unsubsidized rate required for the managed health care system in which he or she may be enrolled. No subsidy may be paid with respect to any enrollee whose gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to section 15 of this act, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW. In the event a number of enrollees drop their enrollment for no apparent good cause, the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for geographic, demographic, and economic diversity.

Before July 1, 1988, the board shall endeavor to secure participation contracts with managed health care systems in discrete geographic areas within at least five congressional districts.

(9) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for categorically needy medical coverage under RCW 74.09.510 or whose income does not exceed the medically needy income level under RCW 74.09.700 apply for such coverage, but the board shall enroll the individuals in the plan pending the determination of eligibility under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(10) To determine the rate to be paid to each participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system may apply to similar enrollees, the rates negotiated with participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating rates with participating systems, the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the local area, the need to conserve the resources of the basic health plan trust account, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(11) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic data reports concerning the utilization of health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books.
and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(12) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

(13) To evaluate the effects this chapter has on private employer-based health care coverage and to take appropriate measures consistent with state and federal statutes that will discourage the reduction of such coverage in the state.

(14) To develop a program of proven preventive health measures and to integrate it into the plan wherever possible and consistent with this chapter.

(15) To provide, consistent with available resources, technical assistance for rural health activities that endeavor to develop needed health care services in rural parts of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The benefits available under the plan shall be subject to RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee that provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. On and after July 1, 1988, the board shall accept for enrollment applicants eligible to receive covered basic health care services from the respective managed health care systems which are then participating in the plan. The board shall not allow the total enrollment of those eligible for subsidies to exceed thirty thousand.

Thereafter, total enrollment shall not exceed the number established by the legislature in any act appropriating funds to the board from the trust account.

Before July 1, 1988, the board shall endeavor to secure participation contracts from managed health care systems in discrete geographic areas within at least five congressional districts of the state and in such manner as to allow residents of both urban and rural areas access to enrollment in the plan.

The board shall at all times closely monitor growth patterns of enrollment so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the plan as a whole, in any area of the state or in any participating managed health care system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any enrollee whose premium payments to the board are delinquent or who moves his or her residence out of an area served by the plan may be dropped from enrollment status. An enrollee whose premium is the responsibility of the department of social and health services under section 15 of this act may not be dropped solely because of nonpayment by the department. The board shall provide delinquent enrollees with advance written notice of their removal from the plan and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board’s decision to drop the enrollee from the plan. Upon removal of an enrollee from the plan, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, if applicable, members of the enrollee’s family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall do so by contract with the board and shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. A participating managed health care system may offer, without additional cost, health care benefits or services not included in the schedule of covered services under the plan. A participating managed health care system shall not give preference in enrollment to enrollees who accept such additional health care benefits or services. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall not discriminate against any potential or current enrollee based upon health status, sex, race, ethnicity, or religion. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than authorized copayments, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The plan shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems serving their respective areas. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care system the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity. The plan shall allow enrollees to transfer their enrollment to another participating managed health care system at any time upon a showing of good cause for the transfer.
Any contract between a hospital and a participating managed health care system under this chapter is subject to the requirements of RCW 70.39.140(1) regarding negotiated rates.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different areas of the state. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the plan, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

1. The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served.

2. The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals.

3. The board may then select one or more systems to provide the covered services within a local area; and

4. The board may adopt a policy that gives preference to respondents, such as nonprofit community health clinics, that have a history of providing quality health care services to low-income persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the board as an agent for the participating managed health care systems on behalf of any enrollee who is a recipient of medical assistance, medical care-limited casualty program, or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW, at the maximum rate allowable for federal matching purposes under Title XIX of the social security act, but not to exceed the rate negotiated by the board with the participating managed health care system for the services covered by the plan, and no premium or copayment may be charged to such an enrollee. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the board under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making premium payments based on the enrollee's own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended, as long as the enrollee remains eligible under this chapter. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the plan. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of plan enrollees and payments on their behalf between the plan and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 8 and 10 of this act, the board has the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

1. With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor or evaluate the performance of participating managed health care systems.

2. With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the plan as managed health care systems.

3. With public or private agencies, including health care service contractors registered under RCW 48.44.015, and doing business in the state, for marketing and administrative services in connection with participation of managed health care systems, enrollment of enrollees, billing and collection services to the board, and other administrative functions ordinarily performed by health care service contractors, other than insurance. Any activities of a health care service contractor pursuant to a contract with the board under this section shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The activities and operations of the Washington basic health plan under this chapter, including those of managed health care systems to the extent of their participation in the plan, are exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW, except as provided in section 11 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 50.20 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall notify any person filing a claim under this chapter who resides in a local area served by the Washington basic health plan of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70. — RCW (sections 1 through 17 of this act), unless the Washington basic health plan board has notified the commissioner of a closure of enrollment in the area. The commissioner shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate employment service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 51.28 RCW to read as follows:
The director shall notify persons receiving time-loss payments under this chapter of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees under chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 17 of this act), unless the Washington basic health plan board has notified the director of closure of enrollment in the plan. The director shall maintain supplies of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms in all field service offices where the plan is available, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall notify any applicant for public assistance who resides in a local area served by the Washington basic health plan and is under sixty-five years of age of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 17 of this act), unless the Washington basic health plan board has notified the department of a closure of enrollment in the area. The department shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the board, in each appropriate community service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The Washington basic health plan board shall be appointed and commence operations as promptly as practicable after the effective date of this section. Not later than January 1, 1988, the board shall submit to the legislature a progress report including:

(1) The schedule of covered basic health care services adopted under section 10 of this act;
(2) A descriptive listing of managed health care systems expected to participate in the Washington basic health plan, along with an identification of prospective local areas for initial participation in the plan;
(3) The approximate amount of funds estimated to be on deposit in the basic health plan trust account as of March 31 and June 30, 1988;
(4) A description of the sliding fee schedule for enrollee premium payments and copayments adopted by the board under section 10 of this act;
(5) Any proposals for statutory changes which the board deems necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter; and
(6) Any other information which the board deems appropriate.

Not later than January 1, 1989, the board shall submit to the legislature a further progress report, updating its 1988 report, and covering the same items provided for therein, with projections based upon implementation of the plan to date. Further, the report shall include a description of the performance of the first managed health care systems included as eligible providers as provided in section 12 of this act. The board shall submit an annual report to the legislature by January 1 of each year thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services shall, to the extent that funds are specifically appropriated for this purpose, provide matching grants on a one-to-one state/local basis to hospitals that are designated by the hospital commission as meeting all of the following criteria:
   (a) Providing an amount of charity care equal to or greater than two hundred fifty percent of the state average:
   (b) A tertiary care center: and
   (c) Providing ten percent of the tertiary care to patients from outside the county in which the hospital is located.
   (2) Grants shall be allocated to eligible hospitals based on the hospital’s relative amount of charity care.
   (3) Local matching funds shall be from a nonrate-setting revenue source as defined by the hospital commission.
   (4) The department shall seek matching federal Title XIX medicaid funds pursuant to the “disproportionate share” provisions of the federal social security act. If necessary to obtain federal funds, the department may use the following provision in lieu of those set forth in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section: A hospital is eligible for a grant if it is designated by the hospital commission as having medical assistance charges exceeding twenty percent of the hospital’s total rate-setting revenue during the preceding calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

Such appropriation shall be repaid to the general fund as soon as practicable, but not later than June 30, 1989, from the revenue accruing to the basic health plan trust account.

(2) There is appropriated from the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury to the Washington basic health plan board, for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, the sum of twenty-eight million dollars, or as much thereof as shall be necessary, not exceeding funds deposited in the account, to carry out the purposes of chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 17 of this act).

Renumber the sections consecutively.
Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 26, beginning on line 23, strike all material down to and including "year." on page 27, line 30

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator McDermott, just to clarify what this section of the measure is purported to do. I would ask you to look at Section 22, line 26 and then lines 27, 28 and 29. This is a two part question. Senator McDermott, it says that these particular monies will be given by the Department of Social and Health Services, quote 'to the extent that funds are specifically appropriated for this purpose.' The first question is, appropriated by whom? Is that intended to be an appropriation by the Legislature or via Social and Health Services under some particular division of that Department? Then, the second question is, have we, at any point, during the budget process thus far, made any specific appropriation that would conform to this section?"

Senator McDermott: "The first part of your question, there has to be an appropriation of money and that is in this bill. There is twenty–three million dollars at the end of the bill, so that money is in the appropriation. The other part of it is—the second part of your question, repeat that again for me."

Senator Nelson: "I think you have answered the second part as well, because what I am trying to figure out is, where the money would be appropriated. If it's to be a part of this measure, or part of the regular budget, then I guess a follow-up question would be, subsequent to the passing of this bill, would it not then require that future Legislatures continue to appropriate and specifically designate money for the purpose of this section?"

Senator McDermott: "If there is going to be a further carrying on of this program—it's not something that goes on automatically—it would have to be appropriated in the future, as well."

Senator Nelson: "But, as I understand it, the money is appropriated in this measure to specifically give dollars on a matching basis under Section 22 to the hospitals that would qualify."

Senator McDermott: "That's correct, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator McDermott, in discussing those criteria that you had for the amount of charity care and so on, are there any hospitals outside the two that you listed that would fall within the range where they would be eligible for funds?"

Senator McDermott: "We looked at the hospitals in the state and the criteria, first of all the two hundred and fifty percent above the state average in charity care; secondly, a tertiary care center and finally, provides ten percent of tertiary care for patients outside the county. So, there are three criteria and to our knowledge that is really only two hospitals at this point and as things get worse, it might surprise us all how many hospitals wind up with two hundred and fifty percent priorities, or two hundred and fifty percent above the state average. The tertiary care question would be a very limited number of hospitals that could ever qualify if that criteria were left in. You are really talking about hospitals that use very high level care—hi tech kinds of medicine that are very expensive. We are talking about $1,000 to $1,500 a day for a bed—those kinds of operations and there are very few in the state."

Senator Smitherman: "Senator McDermott, I was wondering if you could answer another question? Did any hospital contact you and say, 'hey, we specifically want to be included or excluded from this' or anything like that? Was there contact by them saying, 'hey we'd like to be in this bill?'

Senator McDermott: "This provision was added in the House. It came in the House Bill. Nobody has contacted me since this bill has been in the Senate and asked to be added."

Further debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Wojahn to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Wojahn failed and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Sellar, the following amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted: On page 6, line 4, after "services" insert "and one member shall have expertise in health care benefit design, as well as the administration of a health care benefits program by private employers."

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted: On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "health care," strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.131 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 50.20 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 51.28 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.09 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 477, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Zimmerman, what would you consider to be a reasonable length of time to negotiate and work on this type of legislation?"

Senator Zimmerman: "The budget is what we are talking about. Senator McDermott is the best qualified."

Senator Moore: "Senator Zimmerman, I am speaking about the bill that we have before us and to which you alluded."

Senator Zimmerman: "This bill should be part of the total negotiations going on in regard to the budget. It should be part of that total picture. Hopefully, it will be."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 477, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Cantu moved that the following amendment be adopted:
On page 2, line 15, after "employed" insert "on a fulltime basis"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Cantu, under the intent of your amendment, if an individual is working, we'll say, six hours a day on a regular schedule, so they were regularly employed on a regular schedule, but only working six hours a day, thirty hours a week, would they qualify under this wording?"

Senator Cantu: "Yes, Senator Vognild, they would. My intent on fulltime is someone, they don't necessarily have to work eight hours, but they would be a regularly scheduled employee that would be there all the time, so they would be covered."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Cantu carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 498, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Vognild, I had a call from my city personnel director in Bellingham and I had passed the question on to you and I wanted to know if the people that we take under this bill—the dispatchers—are part of a bargaining unit? Do just the dispatchers then have the binding arbitration in that unit, or does the whole unit become a binding arbitration unit?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Anderson, I was unable to determine exactly what type of a structure of dispatching that they have. If the dispatchers involved are, in fact, regular employees of the fire department, they would be covered. Now, the only operation that I know of that operates in that manner—if the city through the fire department operates the dispatching center and nobody is there except the dispatchers, yes, they would be. If they are operating a separate dispatching department, if you will, then they would not be regular employees of the fire department. Therefore, none of them would be covered under this. We are only talking about that narrow group who are covered as regular employees of a fire department."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Barr and Kiskaddon were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 498, as amended by the Senate.

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5159 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hansen, I haven't checked the amendment, but all they're saying is to up their tares a little bit and they still can have a subsidy. What is the fare now on this ferry?"

Senator Hansen: "I guarantee it is as high as any of the fares we have on our state ferries and if you try to crowd them up anymore—their mail there—they have to use it. It's as bad as being on the Island. It's not like the county ferries that you have in your area where they are already getting gas tax money for that purpose, so this is a unique situation. It's a state highway and there are a few other considerations that tie in between Washington and Oregon. I really think they should have a break on that."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Hansen that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5159 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The motion by Senator Hansen carried and the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 5159 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 18, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 1, chapter 361, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.46.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state shall make payment of any underpayments within thirty days after the date the preliminary or final settlement report is submitted to the contractor.

(2) A contractor found to have received either overpayments or erroneous payments under a preliminary or final settlement shall refund such payments to the state within thirty days after the date the preliminary or final settlement report is submitted to the contractor, subject to the provisions of subsections (3), (4), and (7) of this section.

(3) Within the cost centers of nursing services and food, all savings resulting from the respective allowable costs being lower than the respective reimbursement rate paid to the contractor during the report period shall be refunded. In computing a preliminary or final settlement, savings in a cost center may be shifted to cover a deficit in another cost center up to the amount of any savings: PROVIDED, That not more than twenty percent of the rate in a cost center may be shifted into that cost center and no shifting may be made into the property cost center: PROVIDED FURTHER, That there shall be no shifting out of nursing services, and savings in food shall be shifted only to cover deficits in the nursing services cost center.

(4) Within the cost centers of administration and operations and property, the contractor shall retain at least fifty percent, but not more than seventy-five percent, of any savings resulting from the respective audited allowable costs being lower than the respective reimbursement rates paid to the contractor during the report period multiplied by the number of authorized medical care client days in which said rates were in effect, except that no savings may be retained if reported costs in the property cost center and the administration and operations cost center exceed audited allowable costs by ten cents or more per patient day. The secretary, by rule and regulation, shall establish the basis for the specific percentages of savings to the contractors. Such rules and regulations may provide for differences in the percentages allowed for each cost center to individual facilities based on performance measures related to administrative efficiency.

(5) All allowances provided by RCW 74.46.530 shall be retained by the contractor. Any industrial insurance dividend or premium discount under RCW 51.16.035 shall be retained by the contractor to the extent that such dividend or premium discount is attributable to the contractor's private patients.

(6) In the event the contractor fails to make repayment in the time provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department shall either:

(a) Deduct the amount of refund due plus assessment of interest, as determined by the secretary, from payment amounts due the contractor; or

(b) In the instance the contract has been terminated, (i) deduct the amount of refund due plus an assessment of interest, determined by the secretary, from any payments due; or (ii) assess the amount due plus interest, as determined by the secretary, on the amount due.

(7) Where the facility is pursuing timely-filed judicial or administrative remedies in good faith regarding settlement issues, the contractor need not refund nor shall the department withhold from the facility current payment amounts the department claims to be due from the facility but which are specifically disputed by the contractor. If the judicial or administrative remedy sought by the facility is not granted after all appeals are exhausted or mutually terminated, the facility shall make payment of such amounts due plus interest accrued from the date of filing of the appeal, as payable on judgments, within sixty days of the date such decision is made.

Sec. 2. Section 43, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 19, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.430 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department, as provided by this chapter, will determine prospective cost-related reimbursement rates for services provided to medical care recipients. Each rate so determined shall represent the contractor's maximum compensation within each cost center for each patient day for such medical care recipient.

(2) As required, the department may modify such maximum per patient day rates pursuant to the administrative review provisions of RCW 74.46.780.

(3) Until the effective date of RCW 74.46.510 and 74.46.530, the maximum prospective reimbursement rates for the administration and operations and the property cost centers shall be established based upon a minimum facility occupancy level of eighty-five percent.

(4) On and after the effective date of RCW 74.46.510 and 74.46.530, the maximum prospective reimbursement rates for the administration and operations and the property cost centers and the return on investment allowance shall be established based upon a minimum facility occupancy level of eighty-five percent.

(5) All contractors shall be required to adjust and maintain wages for all employees to a minimum hourly wage established by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, if the legislature appropriates moneys to fund prospectively, the portion of the minimum wage attributable to services to Medicaid patients. Prospective rate revisions to fund any minimum wage increases shall be made only on the dates authorized in the appropriation act. A portion of this legislative appropriation shall be used to enhance nonadministrative wages and benefits above the moneys necessary to fund the minimum wage specified in this section. The department in considering reimbursement for legislatively authorized wage enhancements will take into consideration facility wage history over the past three cost report periods.

Sec. 3. Section 46, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 15, chapter 361, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.46.460 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each contractor's reimbursement rates will be determined prospectively at least once each calendar year, to be effective July 1st.

(2) Rates may be adjusted as determined by the department to take into account variations (of more than ten percent) in the distribution of patient classifications or changes in patient characteristics from the prior reporting year, program changes required by the department, or changes in staffing levels at a facility required by the department. Rates shall be adjusted by the amount of legislatively authorized enhancements in accordance with RCW 74.46.430(5) and 74.46.470(2). Rates may also be adjusted to cover costs associated with placing a nursing home in receivership which costs are not covered by the rate of the former contractor, including: Compensation of the receiver, reasonable expenses of receivership and transition of control, and costs incurred by the receiver in carrying out court instructions or rectifying deficiencies found. Rates shall be adjusted for any capitalized additions or replacements made as a condition for licensure or certification. Rates shall be adjusted for capitalized improvements done under section 8 of this 1987 act.

(3) Where the contractor participated in the provisions of prospective cost-related reimbursement in effect prior to July 1, 1983, such contractor's prospective rate effective July 1, 1983, will be determined utilizing the contractor's desk-reviewed allowable costs for calendar year 1982.

(4) All prospective reimbursement rates for 1984 and thereafter shall be determined utilizing the prior year's desk-reviewed cost reports.

Sec. 4. Section 47, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 22, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.470 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A contractor's reimbursement rates for medical care recipients will be determined utilizing desk-reviewed cost report data within the following cost centers:

- Nursing services:
- Food:
- Administration and operations:
- Property.

(2) There shall be an enhancement cost center established to reimburse contractors for specific legislatively authorized enhancements for nonadministrative wages and benefits to ensure that such enhancements are used exclusively for the legislatively authorized purposes. For purposes of settlement, funds appropriated to this cost center shall only be used for expenditures for which the legislative authorization is granted. Such funds may be used only in the following circumstances:

- The contractor has increased expenditures for which legislative authorization is granted to at least the highest level paid in any of the last three cost years, plus, beginning July 1, 1987, any percentage inflation adjustment granted each year under RCW 74.46.495; and

- All funds shifted from the enhancement cost center are shown to have been expended for legislatively authorized enhancements.

(3) If the contractor does not spend the amount appropriated to this cost center in the legislatively authorized manner, then the amounts not appropriately spent shall be recouped at preliminary or final settlement pursuant to RCW 74.46.160.

(4) For purposes of this section, "nonadministrative wages and benefits" means wages and payroll taxes paid with respect to, and the employer share of the cost of benefits provided to, employees in job classes specified in an appropriation, which may not include administrators, assistant administrators, or administrators in training.
(5) Amounts expended in the enhancement cost center in excess of the minimum wage established under RCW 74.46.430 are subject to all provisions contained in this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 24, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.481 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The nursing services cost center shall include all costs related to the direct provision of nursing and related care, including fringe benefits and payroll taxes for the nursing and related care personnel. For rates effective for state fiscal year 1984, the department shall adopt by administrative rule a definition of "related care" which shall incorporate, but not exceed services reimbursable as of June 30, 1983. For rates effective for state fiscal year 1985, the definition of related care shall include ancillary care.

(2) The department shall adopt by administrative rules a method for establishing a nursing services cost center rate consistent with the principles stated in this section.

(3) Utilizing regression or other statistical technique, the department shall determine a reasonable limit on facility nursing staff taking into account facility patient characteristics. For purposes of this section, facility nursing staff refers to registered nurses, licensed practical nurses and nursing assistants employed by the facility or obtained through temporary labor contract arrangements. Effective January 1, 1988, the hours associated with the training of nursing assistants and the supervision of that training for nursing assistants shall not be included in the calculation of facility nursing staff. In selecting a measure of patient characteristics, the department shall take into account:

(a) The correlation between alternative measures and facility nursing staff; and
(b) The cost of collecting information for and computation of a measure.

If regression is used, the limit shall be set at predicted nursing staff plus 1.75 regression standard errors. If another statistical method is utilized, the limit shall be set at a level corresponding to 1.75 standard errors above predicted staffing computed according to a regression procedure.

(4) No facility shall receive reimbursement for nursing staff levels in excess of the limit, except that, if a facility was reimbursed for a nursing staff level in excess of the limit as of June 30, 1983, the facility may chose to continue to receive its June, 1983 nursing services rate plus any adjustments in rates, such as adjustments for economic trends, made available to all facilities. The reasonableness limit established pursuant to this subsection shall remain in effect for the period July 1, 1983 through June 30, 1985. At that time the department may revise the measure of patient characteristics or method used to establish the limit.

(5) The department shall select an index of cost increase relevant to the nursing and related services cost area. In the absence of a more representative index, the department shall use the medical care component index as maintained by the United States bureau of labor statistics.

(6) If a facility's nursing staff level is below the limit specified in subsection (3) of this section, the department shall determine the percentage increase for all items included in the nursing services cost center between the facility's most recent cost reporting period and the next prior cost reporting period.

(a) If the percentage cost increase for a facility is below the increase in the selected index for the same time period, the facility's reimbursement rate in the nursing services cost center shall equal the facility's cost from the most recent cost reporting period plus any allowance for inflation provided by legislative appropriation.

(b) If the percentage cost increase for a facility exceeds the increase in the selected index, the department shall limit the cost used for setting the facility's rate in the nursing services cost area to a level reflecting the increase in the selected index.

(7) If the facility's nursing staff level exceeds the reasonableness limit established in subsection (3) of this section, the department shall determine the increase for all items included in the nursing services cost center between the facility's most recent cost reporting period and the next prior cost reporting period.

(a) If the percentage cost increase for a facility is below the increase in the index selected pursuant to subsection (5) of this section, the facility's reimbursement rate in the nursing cost center shall equal the facility's cost from the most recent cost reporting period adjusted downward to reflect the limit on nursing staff, plus any allowance for inflation provided by legislative appropriation subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section.

(b) If the percentage cost increase for a facility exceeds the increase in the selected index, the department shall limit the cost used for setting the facility's rate in the nursing services cost center to a level reflecting the nursing staff limit and the cost increase limit, subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, plus any allowance for inflation provided by legislative appropriation.

(8) The department is authorized to determine on a systematic basis facilities with unmet patient care service needs. The department may increase the nursing services cost center prospective rate for a facility beyond the level determined in accordance with subsection (6) of this section if the facility's actual and reported nursing staffing is one standard error or more below predicted staffing as determined according to the method selected pursuant to subsection (3) of this section and the facility has unmet patient care service needs: PROVIDED, That prospective rate increases authorized by this subsection shall be funded only from legislative appropriations made for this purpose and the increases shall be conditioned on specified improvements in patient care at such facilities.

(9) The department shall establish a method for identifying patients with exceptional care requirements and a method for establishing or negotiating on a consistent basis rates for such patients.

(10) The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall adopt rules to establish the criteria the department will use in reviewing any requests by a contractor for a prospective rate adjustment to be used to increase the number of nursing staff. These rules shall also specify the time period for submission and review of staffing requests: PROVIDED, that a decision on a staffing request shall not take longer than sixty days from the date the department receives such a complete request. In establishing the criteria, the department may consider, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) Increases in acuity levels of contractors' residents;
(b) Staffing patterns for similar facilities;
(c) Physical plant of contractor; and
(d) Survey, inspection of care, and department consultation results.

(e) The percentage of public-pay residents in the facility;

(2) Rate adjustments under this section may be provided only if funds are appropriated for this purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The legislature finds that the closure of a nursing home can have devastating effects on residents and, under certain circumstances, courts should consider placing nursing homes in receivership. As receivership has long existed as a remedy to preserve assets subject to litigation and to reorganize troubled affairs, the legislature finds that receivership is to be used to correct problems associated with either the disregard of residents' health, safety, or welfare or with the possible closure of the nursing home for any reason.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A petition to establish a receivership shall allege that one or more of the following conditions exist and that the current operator has demonstrated an inability or unwillingness to take actions necessary to correct the conditions alleged:

(1) The facility is operating without a license;
(2) The facility has not given the department prior written notice of its intent to close and has not made arrangements within thirty days before closure for the orderly transfer of its residents. PROVIDED. That if the facility has given the department prior written notice but the department has not acted with all deliberate speed to transfer the facility's residents, this shall bar the filing of a petition under this section;
(3) An emergency exists that specifically demonstrates an immediate and serious threat of harm to the health, security, or welfare of the facility's residents, including, but not limited to, abandonment of the facility by the owner;
(4) A condition exists in the facility in violation of a licensing statute or regulation that specifically demonstrates an immediate and serious threat of harm to the health, safety, or welfare of the residents of the facility:
(5) The facility demonstrates a pattern and practice of violating chapter 18.51 or 74.42 RCW, or other statutes or regulations adopted by the department designed to safeguard the health, security, or welfare of residents such that the facility has demonstrated a repeated inability to maintain minimum patient care standards; or
(6) The facility demonstrates a pattern or practice of violating a condition level as defined by the federal government under the authority of Title XIX of the social security act.

The department may file a petition in the superior court in the county in which the nursing home is located or in the superior court of Thurston county. The current or former operator or licensee and the owner of the nursing home, if different than the operator or licensee, shall be made a party to the action. The court shall grant the petition if it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that one or more of the conditions listed in subsections (1) through (6) of this section exists and, subject to section 11 of this act, that the current operator is unable or unwilling to take actions necessary to correct the conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. It shall be a defense to the petition to establish a receivership that the conditions alleged do not in fact exist. It shall not be a defense to the petition to allege that the respondent did not possess knowledge of the alleged condition or could not have been reasonably expected to know about the alleged condition. In a petition that alleges that the health, safety, or welfare of the residents of the facility is at issue, it shall not be a defense to the petition that the respondent had not been afforded a reasonable opportunity to correct the alleged condition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A petition for receivership shall include the name of the candidate for receiver. The department shall maintain a list of qualified persons to act as receivers, however, no person may be considered to be qualified to be a receiver who:

(1) Is the owner, licensee, or administrator of the facility;
(2) Is affiliated with the facility;
(3) Has a financial interest in the facility; or
(4) Has owned or operated a nursing home that has been ordered into receivership.

If a receiver is appointed, he or she may be drawn from the list but need not be, but an appointee shall have experience in providing long-term health care and a history of satisfactory operation of a nursing home. Preference may be granted to persons expressing an interest in permanent operation of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Upon receipt of a petition for receivership, the court shall hear the matter within fourteen days. Temporary relief may be obtained under chapter 7.40 RCW and other applicable laws. In all actions arising under sections 10 through 22 of this act, the posting of a certified copy of the summons and petition in a conspicuous place in the nursing home shall constitute service of those documents upon the respondent.

In considering the petition, the court shall consider the following factors, among others:

(1) The history of the provider, including any prior history of deficiencies and corrective action taken; and
(2) Whether the circumstances alleged in the petition occurred for reasons that were beyond the control of the facility’s current or former operator, licensee, or owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Upon agreement of the candidate for receiver to the terms of the receivership and any special instructions of the court, the court may appoint that person as receiver of the nursing home if the court determines it is likely that a permanent operator will be found or conditions will be corrected without undue risk of harm to the patients. Appointment of a receiver may be in lieu of or in addition to temporary removal of some or all of the patients in the interests of their health, security, or welfare. A receiver shall be appointed for a term not to exceed six months, but a term may be extended for good cause shown.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The receivership shall terminate:

(1) At the end of the appointed term:
(2) When all residents have been transferred and the facility closed;
(3) When all deficiencies have been eliminated and the facility has been sold or returned to its former owner: PROVIDED, That when a rehabilitated facility is returned to its former owner, the court may impose conditions to assure the continued compliance with chapters 18.51 and 74.42 RCW, and other applicable laws and regulations; or
(4) Upon possession and control of the nursing home by a licensed replacement operator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The receiver shall render to the court an accounting of acts performed and expenditures made during the receivership. Nothing in this section relieves a court-appointee of the responsibilities of making all reports and certifications to the department required by law and regulation relating to the receiver’s operation of the nursing home, the care of its residents, and participation in the medicaid program, if any.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If a receiver is appointed, the court shall set reasonable compensation for the receiver to be paid from operating revenues of the nursing home. The receiver shall be liable in his or her personal capacity only for negligent acts, intentional acts, or a breach of a fiduciary duty to either the residents of the facility or the current or former licensee or owner of the facility.

The department may revise the nursing home’s medicaid reimbursement rate, consistent with reimbursement principles in chapter 74.46 RCW and rules adopted under that chapter, if revision is necessary to cover the receiver’s compensation and other reasonable costs associated with the receivership and transition of control. Rate revision may also be granted if necessary to cover start-up costs and costs of repairs, replacements, and additional staff needed for patient health, security, or welfare. The property return on investment components of the medicaid rate shall be established for the receiver consistent with reimbursement principles in chapter 74.46 RCW. The department may also expedite the issuance of necessary licenses, contracts, and certifications, temporary or otherwise, necessary to carry out the purposes of receivership.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Upon appointment of a receiver, the current or former licensee or operator and managing agent, if any, shall be divested of possession and control of the nursing home in favor of the receiver who shall have full responsibility and authority to continue operation of the home and the care of the residents. The receiver may perform all acts reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of receivership, including, but not limited to:

1. Protecting the health, security, and welfare of the residents;
2. Remedying violations of state and federal law and regulations governing the operation of the home;
3. Hiring, directing, managing, and discharging all consultants and employees for just cause; discharging the administrator of the nursing home; recognizing collective bargaining agreements; and settling labor disputes;
4. Receiving and expending in a prudent manner all revenues and financial resources of the home; and
5. Making all repairs and replacements needed for patient health, security, and welfare: PROVIDED, That expenditures for repairs or replacements in excess of five thousand dollars shall require approval of the court which shall expedite approval or disapproval for such expenditure.

Upon order of the court, a receiver may not be required to honor leases, mortgages, secured transactions, or contracts if the rent, price, or rate of interest was not a reasonable rent, price, or rate of interest at the time the contract was entered into or if a material provision of the contract is unreasonable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Upon order of the court, the department shall provide emergency or transitional financial assistance to a receiver not to exceed thirty thousand dollars. The receiver shall file with the court an accounting for any money expended. Any emergency or transitional expenditure shall be recovered from revenue generated by the facility which revenue is not obligated to the operation of the facility. If such funds are not fully recovered at the termination of the receivership, an action to recover such sums may be filed by the department against the former licensee or owner. In lieu of filing an action, the department may file a lien on the facility or on the proceeds of the sale of the facility. Such a lien shall take priority over all other liens except for liens for wages to employees. The owner of the facility shall be entitled to the proceeds of the facility or the sale of the facility to the extent that these exceed the liabilities of the facility, including liabilities to the state, receiver, employees, and contractors, at the termination of the receivership.

Revenues relating to services provided by the current or former licensee, operator, or owner and available operating funds belonging to such licensee, operator, or owner shall be under the control of the receiver. The receiver shall consult the court in cases of extraordinary or questionable debts incurred prior to his or her appointment and shall not have the power to close the home or sell any assets of the home without prior court approval.

Priority shall be given to debts and expenditures directly related to providing care and meeting the needs of patients. Any payment made to the receiver shall discharge the obligation of the payor to the owner of the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If the nursing home is providing care to recipients of state medical assistance, the receiver shall become the medicaid contractor for the duration of the receivership period and shall assume all reporting and other responsibilities required by applicable laws and regulations. The receiver shall be responsible for the refund of medicaid rate payments in excess of costs during the period of the receivership.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. No seizure, foreclosure, or interference with nursing home revenues, supplies, real property, improvements, or equipment may be allowed for the duration of the receivership without prior court approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. At least sixty days before the effective date of any change of ownership, change of operating entity, or change of management of a nursing home, the current operating entity shall notify separately and in writing, each resident of the home or the resident's guardian of the proposed change. The notice shall include the identity of the proposed new owner, operating entity, or managing entity and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of departmental personnel to whom comments regarding the change may be directed. If the proposed new owner, operating entity, or managing entity is a corporation, the notice shall include the names of all officers and the registered agent in the state of Washington. If the proposed new owner, operating entity, or managing entity is a partnership, the notice shall include the names of all general partners. This section shall apply regardless of whether the current operating entity holds a medicaid provider contract with the department and whether the operating entity intends to enter such a contract.

Sec. 23. Section 7, chapter 117, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 18, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department is authorized to deny, suspend, or revoke a license or, in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed (one) three thousand dollars per violation in any case in which it finds that the applicant, or licensee, or any partner, officer, director, owner of five percent or more of the assets of the nursing home, or managing employee:

stitutes a serious threat to patient life, health, or safety, or substantially limits the nursing home's capacity to render adequate care, the violator shall be so notified and a penalty may be assessed without prior opportunity to correct. Each day the violation continues may constitute a separate violation subject to assessment of a separate penalty.

The correction of a standard or condition level deficiency, as defined by the authority of Title XVIII of the social security act and 42 C.F.R. 405-110 subpart K, shall be maintained for a period of at least one year. Failure to maintain such correction shall constitute a separate vio­ separate penalty not to exceed three thousand dollars without a prior opportunity to correct. Each day the violation continues may constitute a separate violation subject to assessment of a separate penalty.

(3) A person subject to civil penalty under subsection (1)(b) through (h) of this section shall not have a prior opportunity to correct the violation before being assessed a civil monetary penalty under this section.

Following the notification of a violation of subsection (1)(b) through (h) of this section, each day upon which the same or a substantially similar action occurs shall constitute a separate violation subject to the assessment of a separate penalty.

(4) Any civil penalty assessed under this section or chapter 74.46 RCW shall bear a reasonable rate of interest from the date of notification of the violation. The department may administer civil fines under this section or chapter 74.46 RCW by:

completed to assure maintenance of such action: PROVIDED, That the penalty may be reduced or in part at the end of such year: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the penalty may be trebled if such corrective action is not maintained for one year.

(5) Any civil penalty assessed under this section or chapter 74.46 RCW shall be a nonreim­ burseable item under chapter 74.46 RCW.

Sec. 24. Section 63, chapter 211, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 236, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.51.091 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall make or cause to be made at least one inspection of each nursing home prior to license renewal and shall inspect community-based services as part of the licensing renewal survey. The inspection shall be made without providing advance notice of it. Every inspection may include an inspection of every part of the premises and an examination of all records, methods of administration, the general and special dietary and the stores and methods of supply. Those nursing homes that provide community-based care shall establish and maintain separate and distinct accounting and other essential records for the purpose of appropriately allocating costs of the providing of such care: PROVIDED. That such costs shall not be considered allowable costs for reimbursement purposes under chapter 74.46 RCW. Following such inspection or inspections, written notice of any violation of this law or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder shall be given the applicant or licensee and the department. The notice shall describe the reasons for the facility's noncompliance. (The notice shall inform the facility that it must comply with a plan of correction within a specified time, not to exceed sixty days from the date the plan of correction is approved by the department. The penalties in RCW 18.51.060 may be imposed if, after the specified period, the department determines that the facility has not complied. In life-threatening situations or situations which substantially limit the provider's capacity to render adequate care, the department may require immediate correction or proceed immediately under RCW 18.51.060.) The department may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alterations or additions to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit its plans and specifications thereto to the department for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized.

Sec. 25. Section 7, chapter 99. Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.220 are each amended to read as follows:

1. No licensee shall discriminate or retaliate in any manner against a patient or employee in its nursing home on the basis or for the reason that such patient or employee or any other person has initiated or participated in any proceeding specified in this chapter. A licensee who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty of not more than ($five hundred) three thousand dollars.

2. Any attempt to expel a patient from a nursing home, or any type of discriminatory treatment of a patient by whom, or upon whose behalf, a complaint has been submitted to the department or any proceeding instituted under or related to this chapter within one year of the filing of the complaint or the institution of such action, shall raise a rebuttable presumption that such action was taken by the licensee in retaliation for the filing of the complaint.

Sec. 26. Section 13, chapter 99. Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.260 are each amended to read as follows:

Each citation for a violation specified in (subsections (1) through (7) of) RCW 18.51.060 which is issued pursuant to this section and which has become final, or a copy or copies thereof, shall be prominently posted, as prescribed in regulations issued by the director, until the violation is corrected to the satisfaction of the department up to a maximum of one hundred twenty days. The citation or copy shall be posted in a place or places in plain view of the patients in the nursing home, persons visiting those patients, and persons who inquire about placement in the facility.

Sec. 27. Section 58, chapter 211. Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 184. Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.42.580 are each amended to read as follows:

((The notice shall inform the facility that, except for life-threatening situations or situations which substantially limit the provider's capacity to render adequate care which may be for a shorter period of time, the facility shall comply within a specified time, not to exceed sixty days from the date the plan of correction is approved by the department. The penalties in RCW 74.42.500 may be imposed if, upon inspection after the specified period, the department determines that the facility has not complied;))

Sec. 29. Section 11, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 22, chapter 288. Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.38.115 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the designee of the secretary of the department in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules of the department which establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;

(b) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;

(c) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(d) The financial feasibility and the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services in the community to be served, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals. An application by a hospital shall be denied if the state hospital commission does not recommend approval, unless the secretary provides the commission with a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons, and citing the applicable subsection or subsections of this section, for approving an application that the commission has determined to be not feasible;

(e) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of alternative uses of project resources for the provision of other health services, (ii) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served, and (iii) the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathy and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;

(f) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;

(g) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals, allopathic services and children's hospitals;

(h) Improvements or innovations in the financing and delivery of health services which foster cost containment and serve to promote quality assurance and cost-effectiveness;

(i) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and facilities similar to those proposed;

(j) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past; and

(k) In the case of hospital certificate of need applications, whether the hospital meets or exceeds the regional average level of charity care, as determined by the hospital commission.

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds:

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.
A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(4) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) The decisions of the department on nursing home certificate of need applications, including applications for use of space within hospitals and other health care facilities as nursing homes, shall be consistent with state-wide and area need for nursing home beds, to be determined biennially by the legislature and the department in the following manner:

(a) By September 30 of each even-numbered year, the state health coordinating council shall report to the legislature on the total need for nursing home beds in the state as of December 30 of the third year following;

(b) After considering the recommendation of the state health coordinating council pursuant to (a) of this subsection, the legislature shall, during its session in each odd-numbered year, in the state operating and appropriations act, determine the total need for nursing home beds in the state as of December 30 of the second year following: PROVIDED. That if the legislature does not make the determination the recommendation of the state health coordinating council shall have the same effect as a legislative determination;

(c) By no later than December 30 of each odd-numbered year, the department shall allocate the total need for nursing home beds, as determined under (b) of this subsection, among planning areas, to be specified in the state health plan, in keeping with a nursing home bed allocation method to be specified in the state health plan;

(d) Decisions of the department on nursing home certificate of need applications including applications for use of space within hospitals and other health care facilities as nursing homes, shall be consistent with the area bed allocations developed by the department pursuant to (c) and (e) of this subsection;

(e) The department may at any time reallocate beds among planning areas, in keeping with the bed allocation method to be specified in the state health plan, provided that such reallocations do not have the effect of permitting approval of nursing care bed certificate of need applications in excess of the state-wide need for nursing care beds as last determined under (b) of this subsection;

(f) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(((6))) (7) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

(((7))) (8) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

(((8))) (9) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

(((9))) (10) The department or a designated regional health council shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.
(H) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. An administrative law judge shall review the decision of the secretary's designee and render a proposed decision for consideration by the secretary in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW or remand the matter to the secretary's designee for further consideration. The secretary's final decision is subject to review by the superior court as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

The department may establish procedures and criteria for reconsideration of decisions.

An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

1. A new service;
2. An expansion of a service beyond that originally approved;
3. An increase in bed capacity;
4. A significant reduction in the scope of a project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved.

Sec. 30. Section 3, chapter 284, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.42.055 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The purpose of this section is to prohibit discrimination against medicaid recipients by nursing homes which have contracted with the department to provide skilled or intermediate nursing care services to medicaid recipients.
2. It shall be unlawful for any nursing home which has a medicaid contract with the department:
   a. To require, as a condition of admission, assurance from the patient or any other person that the patient is not eligible for or will not apply for medicaid;
   b. To deny or delay admission or readmission of a person to a nursing home because of his or her status as a medicaid recipient;
   c. To transfer a patient, except from a private room to another room within the nursing home, because of his or her status as a medicaid recipient;
   d. To transfer a patient to another nursing home because of his or her status as a medicaid recipient;
   e. To discharge a patient from a nursing home because of his or her status as a medicaid recipient;
   f. To charge any amounts in excess of the medicaid rate from the date of eligibility, except for any supplementation permitted by the department pursuant to RCW 18.51.070.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, on this particular amendment, would those licensing agencies—child care agencies—where they are supposed to check right now and they're required finger printing in their licensing, as well as some of the others that require it, would they still be able to check with the file or would this only be under criminal investigation?"

Senator Talmadge: "It would only be criminal investigations."

Senator Lee: "So, when someone was applying to have a child care home or license, they could not check with the file with the fingerprint they are required to have for child care workers?"

Senator Talmadge: "Number one, I am not sure they are required to have fingerprint for child care workers. Number two, it's only a question of what you maintain in the data base for purposes of criminal investigation. The theory behind the amendment, as you would keep in that system any arrest material, any conviction material for suspect individuals, but not necessarily anything from a license applicant such as, for example, say a real estate broker. Senator McCaslin has noted a couple times that real estate broker's have to submit fingerprint with their applications for a real estate brokers status."

Senator Lee: "I understand and I support the amendment, not to necessarily with your data problem. What I was interested in was, if we are requiring fingerprint for certain kinds of licensing and if they can't then check them with the data file that exists, people with criminal records and so on. I don't know what good it does us to take fingerprint in the first place?"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Talmadge and Pullen.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

(2) A person seeking appointment to the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, shall provide a sworn statement under penalty of perjury to the appointing authority stating that the person meets the requirements of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before making an appointment in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, the appointing agency shall complete a thorough background investigation of the candidate according to standards set by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In the case of a vacancy in the office of chief of police, chief law enforcement officer, marshal, director of public safety, or constable, all requirements and procedures of sections 4 and 5 of this act shall be followed in filling the vacancy.

(a) Is a citizen of the United States of America;
(b) Has obtained a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma;
(c) Has not been convicted under the laws of this state, another state, or the United States of a felony:
(d) Has not been convicted of a gross misdemeanor or any crime involving moral turpitude within five years of the date of application;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 8 through 10 of this act are each added to chapter 35A.21 RCW.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Halsan, on page 3, line 31, it mentions constables. Do we still have constables in any city or county of this state?"

Senator Halsan: "Not to my knowledge. Although, in some of the small towns, it's police chief or the marshal or a variety of terms. I think this covers them all— whoever is the chief law enforcement officer of the town."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Tanner, this amendment, I assume applies to Chief Davis of the Vancouver Police Department who was accused of harassing a female employee of the Department on the job. Does that mean that he will be protected from any opportunity to remove him, short of going through the civil service process to remove him?"

The order shall become effective upon service on the bank and shall remain effective unless set aside, limited, or suspended by a court in proceedings under section 8 of this act pending the completion of the administrative proceedings under the notice and until such time as the supervisor shall dismiss the charges specified in the notice or until the effective date of a cease and desist order issued against the bank pursuant to section 8 of this act.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Within ten days after the bank has been served with a temporary cease and desist order, the bank may apply to the superior court in the county of its principal place of business for an injunction setting aside, limiting, or suspending the order pending the completion of the administrative proceedings pursuant to the notice served. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to issue the injunction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In the case of a violation or threatened violation of a temporary cease and desist order issued, the supervisor may apply to the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank for an injunction to enforce the order, and the court shall issue an injunction if it determines that there has been a violation or threatened violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Any administrative hearing may be held at such place as is designated by the supervisor and shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The hearing shall be private unless the supervisor determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest after fully considering the views of the party afforded the hearing.

Within sixty days after the hearing the supervisor shall render a decision which shall include findings of fact upon which the decision is based and shall issue and serve upon each party to the proceedings an order or orders.

Unless a petition for review is timely filed in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank and until the record in the proceeding has been filed as therein provided, the supervisor may at any time modify, terminate, or set aside any order upon such notice and in such manner as deemed proper. Upon filing the record, the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside any order only with permission of the court.

The judicial review provided in this section for an order shall be exclusive.

(2) Any party to the proceeding or any person required by an order to refrain from any of the violations or practices stated therein may obtain a review of any order served under subsection (1) of this section other than one issued upon consent by filing in the superior court of the county of the principal place of business of the bank within ten days after the date of service of the order a written petition praying that the order of the supervisor be modified, terminated, or set aside. A copy of the petition shall be immediately served upon the supervisor and the supervisor shall then file in the court the record of the proceeding. The court shall have jurisdiction upon the filing of the petition, which jurisdiction shall become exclusive upon the filing of the record to affirm, modify, terminate, or set aside in whole or in part the order of the supervisor except that the supervisor may modify, terminate, or set aside an order with the permission of the court. The judgment and decree of the court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to appellate review under the rules of court.

(3) The commencement of proceedings for judicial review under subsection (2) of this section shall not operate as a stay of any order issued by the supervisor unless specifically ordered by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The supervisor may serve upon a director, officer, or employee of the Washington land bank a written notice of the supervisor's intention to remove the person from office or to prohibit participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank whenever:

(1) In the opinion of the supervisor any director, officer, or employee of the bank has committed or engaged in:
   (a) Any violation of law or rule or of a cease and desist order which has become final;
   (b) Any unsafe or unsound practice in connection with the bank; or
   (c) Any act, omission, or practice which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as director, officer, or employee; and

(2) The supervisor determines that:
   (a) The bank has suffered or may suffer substantial financial loss or other damage; or
   (b) The interests of its investors could be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(3) The violation or practice or breach of fiduciary duty is one involving personal dishonesty, recklessness, or incompetence on the part of the director, officer, or employee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A notice of an intention to remove a director, officer, or employee from office or to prohibit participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank shall contain a statement of the facts which constitute grounds therefor and shall fix a time and place at which a hearing will be held. The hearing shall be set not earlier than ten days nor later than thirty days after the date of service of the notice unless an earlier or later date is set by the supervisor at the request of the director, officer, or employee for good cause shown or of the attorney general of the state.

Unless the director, officer, or employee appears at the hearing personally or by a duly authorized representative, the person shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of an order of removal or prohibition or both. In the event of such consent, or if upon the record made at the hearing the supervisor finds that any of the grounds specified in the notice have been established, the supervisor may issue such orders of removal from office or prohibition from participation in the conduct of the affairs of the bank as the supervisor may consider appropriate.
Any order shall become effective at the expiration of ten days after service upon the bank and the director, officer, or employee concerned except that an order issued upon consent shall become effective at the time specified in the order.

An order shall remain effective except to the extent it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by the supervisor or a reviewing court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If at any time because of the removal of one or more directors under this chapter there shall be on the board of directors of the bank less than a quorum of directors, all powers and functions vested in or exercisable by the board shall vest in and be exercisable by the director or directors remaining until such time as there is a quorum on the board of directors. If all of the directors of the bank are removed under this chapter, the supervisor shall appoint persons to serve temporarily as directors until such time as their respective successors take office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 5 through 17 of this act are each added to chapter 31.30 RCW. *

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the following amendment by Senators Metcalf and Fleming be adopted:

(8) Every person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Rember the remaining section consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: “Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object of this amendment. The bill itself addresses boards of directors of banks and bank holding companies. The committee amendment addresses the state land bank. This goes way beyond that in talking about bank acquisitions and is much broader than the original bill or even the committee amendment, so I would challenge it on that basis.”

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Metcalf and Fleming was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Fleming moved that the following amendment by Senators Fleming and Metcalf be adopted:

On page 6, after line 9, insert the following:

*Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 246, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 30.04.410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The supervisor may ((the an action in the superior court of the county in which the bank is located to restrain the pending acquisition or control of a bank if he finds after considering the application and within thirty days after its filing any of the following)) disapprove the acquisition of a bank or trust company within thirty days after the filing of a complete application pursuant to RCW 30.04.405 or an extended period not exceeding an additional fifteen days if:

1. The poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank or might prejudice the interests of the bank depositors, borrowers, or shareholders;

2. The plan or proposal of the acquiring party to liquidate the bank, to sell its assets, to merge it with any person, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure or management is not fair and reasonable to the bank's depositors, borrowers, or stockholders or is not in the public interest;

3. The banking and business experience and integrity of any acquiring party who would control the operation of the bank indicates that approval would not be in the interest of the bank's depositors, borrowers, or shareholders;

4. The information provided by the application is insufficient for the supervisor to make a determination or there has been insufficient time to verify the information provided and conduct an examination of the qualification of the acquiring party; or

5. The acquisition would not be in the public interest.

An acquisition may be made prior to expiration of the disapproval period if the supervisor issues written notice of intent not to disapprove the action.

Whenever such a change in control occurs, each party to the transaction shall report promptly to the supervisor any changes or replacement of its chief executive officer or of any director occurring in the next twelve-month period, including in its report a statement of the past and current business and professional affiliations of the new chief executive officer or directors.

Renumber the remaining section accordingly and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would ask you to rule on the scope and object of this amendment, also. While it might fit the title, it certainly does not fit the original intent of the bill. A citizen looking at that in its original title wouldn't have a clue that interstate banking would be included in the discussion on this bill. I think it's clearly beyond the object of the original bill and beyond the scope of the original bill. It opens up a new section, a new title, that was not before the committee with this bill and was not even before the committee with the committee amendment, so it doesn't fit this bill."

Debate ensued.

INQUIRY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator West, did you or did you not raise the point of scope and object?"

Senator West: "Mr. President, I raise the scope and object on the points on code revisor draft No. S2698, the amendment Senator Fleming has moved before us."

President Cherberg: "Senator West has raised the point that the proposed amendment changes the scope and object of the bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Fleming and Metcalf on page 6, line 9, was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 6, after line 9, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. ___. Section 3, chapter 145, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 100, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.08.135 are each amended to read as follows:

'(1) The state treasurer shall maintain at all times cash, or demand deposits in qualified public depositories in an amount needed to meet the operational needs of state government; PROVIDED, That the state treasurer shall not be considered in violation of RCW 9A.56.060(1) if he maintains demand accounts in public depositories in an amount less than all treasury warrants issued and outstanding.

(2) The state treasurer may not maintain accounts in a public depository if that public depository or its holding company makes any contribution to a political committee registered under chapter 42.17 RCW. This restriction does not apply if the name of the public depository or its holding company is included in the name of the political committee."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.
POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, the previous speaker actually makes a very good point and I would join him next year to require truth in advertising and truth in naming of all PACs. We have a little PAC over in my area that's called the Brotherhood and I still don't know who the Brotherhood is, but they gave a lot of money in the campaign and it wasn't for me.

"Mr. President, I would ask that you also rule—I question the scope and object on this amendment. This takes an incredible leap of faith because you have to jump from title thirty clear across to title forty-three to get this one to be included in the bill and I would ask and suggest that this is outside the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 476 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 341, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives Dellwo, Nutley, Chandler, Silver, Lux, Meyers, P. King, Ferguson, Betrozoff, C. Smith and May)

Revising the corporate powers of banks.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendments were considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 1, line 5, strike all of NEW SECTION, Sec. 1 and renumber the remaining sections accordingly.
On page 1, line 25, after "assets" insert "or fifty percent of the net worth, whichever is less."
On page 1, line 25, after "company," insert "For purposes of this subsection, 'net worth' means the aggregate of capital, surplus, undivided profits, and all capital notes and debentures which are subordinate to the interest of depositors."
On page 2, line 9, after "The" strike "supervisor of banking" and insert ",(supervisor of banking)) director of general administration."
On page 2, beginning on line 16, strike "supervisor" and insert "(supervisor) director."
On page 2, line 22, after "distinction" strike "between" and insert "(between) among."
On page 2, line 27, after "the" strike "supervisor" and insert "(supervisor) director."
On page 2, line 28, after "The" strike "supervisor" and insert "(supervisor) director."
On page 2, line 29, after "supervisor of" insert "banking, with the supervisor of"
On page 2, line 33, after "The" strike "supervisor" and insert "(supervisor) director."
On page 2, line 36, after "The" strike "supervisor of banking" and insert "(supervisor of banking) director."
On page 3, line 2, after "1987." strike everything down to and Including "1986." on line 4 and insert "(A progress report shall be submitted to the governor and the respective standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate not later than December 1, 1986.)"

MOTION

Senator Smitherman moved that the following amendment by Senators Smitherman and Warnke be adopted:

On page 3, after line 6, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Expansion of small businesses will have a favorable impact on the Washington economy by creating jobs, increasing competition in the marketplace, and expanding tax revenues. Small business expansion is a major source of new employment opportunities for economically distressed communities, for economically disadvantaged individuals, and for individuals of low and moderate income generally; and

(2) There is an unmet need to provide long-term capital to rapidly growing small businesses whose growth exceeds their ability to generate internal earnings to finance that growth; and

(3) Under traditional standards used by banks many well-operated small businesses cannot provide security adequate to qualify for normal bank loans; and

(4) This problem is especially severe in its effects on economically distressed communities and on economically disadvantaged individuals; and
(5) It is desirable to address this problem by creating an efficient, nonbureaucratic form of state assistance to encourage banks to make many such loans which are not now made; and

(6) Assistance and encouragement of small business development to provide, maintain, and expand employment and tax revenues is an important function of the state; and

(7) The modest state expenditure to encourage such loans will be returned to the people of the state of Washington in the form of increased tax revenues based on business expansion and reduction in the number of unemployed persons.

In order to accomplish these goals, the legislature creates the Washington small business loan program. The intent of the legislature is to provide sufficient incentives to financial institutions and credit unions to make small business loans that would otherwise not be made to worthy small businesses. Further, it is the intent of the legislature to provide incentives which will result in greater availability of small business financing to economically distressed communities and to economically disadvantaged individuals to promote the creation of new employment opportunities and the retention of existing employment in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. As used in this chapter, the term:

(1) "Lender participant" means such financial institutions and credit unions as are approved by the supervisor to make loans under this chapter.

(2) "Eligible loan" means a loan to a person under the conditions set forth in this chapter.

(3) "Amount of loss" means an amount equal to the unpaid balance of the principal amount, less any amounts realized by perfecting rights under a security agreement, together with such interest as the executive director shall allow, to a maximum of such interest as may be allowed by rule. The amount of loss is subject to the limitations contained in section 14(2)(c) of this act.

(4) "Default" includes only such defaults as have existed for at least ninety days.

(5) "Premium charge" means the percent of the loan which shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund by the lender and the borrower on loans made pursuant to this chapter.

(6) "Executive director" means the executive director of the small business loan program.

(7) "Fund" means the small business loan reserve fund.

(8) "State match" means the percent of the loan which shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund by the state on loans made pursuant to this chapter.

(9) "Manufacturing" means all activities of a commercial or industrial nature wherein labor or skill is applied, by hand or machinery, to materials so that as a result thereof a new, different, or useful substance or article of tangible personal property is produced for sale or commercial or industrial use and shall include the production or fabrication of specially made or custom made articles. "Manufacturing" also includes computer programming, the production of computer software, and other computer-related services, and the activities performed by research and development laboratories and commercial testing laboratories.

(10) "Traded services" means those commercial and professional services that are developed for sale outside the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In addition to the powers and duties prescribed under this chapter, the state supervisor of banking may exercise all the powers necessary or convenient for the enforcement of this chapter. The supervisor may adopt such rules as he or she finds necessary or appropriate in carrying out this chapter after consultation with the director and representatives of small businesses and lender participants. The supervisor may examine the loans made under this chapter at any participating bank to ascertain compliance with this chapter and any rules adopted under this chapter, and to ascertain whether a bank is exercising reasonable care and diligence in the making and collection of loans made under this chapter.

An exempt position is hereby created within the department of community development for the executive director of the small business loan program. The executive director shall be appointed by the director of the department of community development and shall serve at the director's pleasure. The director shall delegate to the executive director such duties as the director deems necessary to the administration of the program. The program shall be administered in conjunction with the development loan fund authorized under chapter 43.168 RCW. The director may employ such other employees as may be needed to carry out the powers and duties imposed under this chapter.

The director shall report to the governor and the house ways and means and trade and economic development committees and the senate ways and means and commerce and labor committees by December 1 of each year and shall include in the report the following:

(1) The names of all financial institutions certified to participate in the small business loan program;

(2) The names and locations by county of all borrowers under the program:
(3) The number of employees by county of all borrowers under the program;
(4) The total amount of funds lent under the program by county;
(5) The total amount of funds lent under the program reported separately by categories of uses made by borrowers of the proceeds;
(6) The amount paid out of the fund for loans in default, by lender, and by county;
(7) The financial condition of the fund;
(8) An evaluation of the extent to which the results of the program meet the objectives of the program as defined in section 5 of this act. This evaluation shall include a review of success in meeting criteria listed in section 10(4) of this act;
(9) The expenditure of funds under section 9 of this act; and
(10) Such other information as in the director's judgment may be desirable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The small business loan reserve fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. The fund shall consist of appropriations made to the fund and any other public or private money received under this chapter. Moneys in the fund may be used only to secure loans made under this chapter. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the director. The fund is subject to the allotment procedure provided under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for disbursements.
(2) The state shall not be liable or obligated for any amount exceeding its appropriations to the small business loan reserve fund.
(3) Funds held in the small business loan reserve fund which are attributable to the lender participant's portion of the premium charge shall be accounted for on a lender-by-lender basis and shall include the matching premium charge paid by the borrowers and the state match paid by the state.
(4) Upon authorization by the director, disbursements from the small business loan reserve fund shall be made to financial institutions by the state treasurer in warrants drawn by the controller pursuant to this chapter.
(5) Funds in the small business loan reserve fund shall be invested in time certificates of deposit with lender participants in proportion to each lender participant's participation in the small business loan reserve program. Such funds shall be offered on a right of first refusal to lender participants. Should a lender participant refuse to receive such funds for investment, the funds shall then be offered other lender participants in proportion to their participation in the small business loan reserve program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) All income from funds invested pursuant to section 8 of this act shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund, and shall be used exclusively for the support of the small business loan reserve program.
(2) Whenever the director determines that the income from funds invested pursuant to section 8 of this act exceeds amounts necessary to support the small business loan reserve program pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the director may order any excess funds transferred into the general fund, but not to exceed the amount appropriated to the small business loan reserve fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The supervisor shall certify those financial institutions whose experience, financial capability, and such other criteria as the supervisor may establish under rules adopted under this chapter, qualify them to participate in the small business loan reserve program.
(2) Any financial institution may be disqualified from further participation in the small business loan reserve program on a finding, by the supervisor, as specified by rule, that such institution has violated any provision of this chapter, or any rule adopted under this chapter, or that such institution is insolvent.
(3) A loan made by a lender participant shall be recorded under this section if made to a corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, cooperative, or other association doing business primarily in Washington, whether nonprofit or organized for profit.
(4) The executive director shall adopt by rule eligibility criteria for loans made under this chapter. Such criteria shall be consistent with the intent of this chapter to assist small businesses with strong potential for growth and job creation and, to that end, such loans shall be primarily devoted to businesses engaging in manufacturing or traded services. Such criteria shall include but shall not be limited to: The potential for benefiting economically distressed communities; the potential for benefiting economically disadvantaged individuals; the potential for benefiting individuals of low and moderate income; the potential for creating new employment opportunities, especially opportunities for stable high wage employment; the potential for retaining existing employment, especially stable high wage employment; the potential for local economic diversification; the impact on the stabilization, modernization, and long-term growth potential of mature industries; and the size and types of businesses which shall be eligible to receive loans which may be based on the standard industrial classification code. Absence of a classification within the standard industrial classification code for a type of business shall not preclude it from being established as an eligible business.
(5) No more than twenty-five percent of the proceeds of any loans made under this chapter may be used by the borrowing business for the payment of existing loans to that business.
(6) Upon default by the borrower on any loan made under this chapter, the executive director may require from the lender a showing as to how the proceeds of the loan were disbursed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Prior to the making of a loan under this chapter, the executive director shall enter into contracts with lender participants and borrowers. In exchange for the state's agreement to place the state match in the small business loan reserve fund, the contracts shall: (1) Obligate the lender participants to adhere to the provisions of this chapter and to make loans, consistent with eligibility criteria established pursuant to this chapter, to small businesses which do not meet standard lender eligibility criteria; and (2) obligate borrowers to enter into first source hiring agreements with the employment security department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The lender and borrower shall negotiate the premium charge for each loan made pursuant to this chapter. Such charge shall be from three percent to seven percent of the loan. The lender and borrower shall contribute an equal amount to the premium charge. The state match made under this chapter shall be equal in amount to the premium charge. When a loan is participated in by two or more lender participants, the premium charge shall be a single rate, applicable to the entire loan. The lender's portion of the premium charge shall be apportioned among the lenders in proportion to each lender's participation in the loan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1)(a) An application to record a loan made under this chapter shall be made by an eligible lender on such form as the executive director may require. The application shall set forth the amount of the loan, its maturity, interest rate, and amortization. In addition, the executive director may require other information relating to job creation.

(b) If, upon application by a lender participant, the executive director finds that the lender has made an eligible loan, the executive director shall cause the loan to be recorded.

(2)(a) The lender shall submit, together with the application under subsection (1) of this section, the following premium charges determined by the lender under section 12 of this act: (1) The percent premium charge payable by the lender; and (ii) the percent premium charge payable by the borrower.

(b) Premium charges collected under this section shall be deposited in the small business loan reserve fund.

(c) Upon recording a loan, the director shall allocate, from appropriated funds, the state match payable by the state in the small business loan reserve fund.

(3) All loans made under this chapter shall be recorded in a register to be maintained by the supervisor. The registration shall set forth the information contained in the application.

(4) At least annually, and more frequently at the direction of the supervisor, a summary of the information contained in the register maintained pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, shall be provided to each lender participant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Upon default by the borrower on any loan made under this chapter, the lender, if a secured party, shall take steps, and avail itself of such rights and remedies as may be provided for in the security agreement and by virtue of chapter 62A.9 RCW except when, in the determination of the supervisor, special circumstances exist which do not warrant taking such action.

(2)(a) Upon default by the borrower on any loan made under this chapter, the lender shall promptly notify the supervisor and the executive director, and the director shall, if requested, either at that time, or after further collection efforts, pay to the lender the amount of the loss, subject to the limitation contained in (c) of this subsection, sustained by the lender.

(b) In addition to the amount of loss, the lender may claim five hundred dollars for collection expenses incurred in the attempted collection of the loan. Such collection expense shall be a charge against that portion of the small business loan reserve fund attributable to the lender who made the loan, and shall be subject to the limitation contained in (c) of this subsection.

(c) Payments made to a lender pursuant to this section shall not exceed the amount retained in the small business loan reserve fund attributable to the lender who made the loan.

(3) Amounts recovered by a lender's collection efforts subsequent to presenting a claim for loss pursuant to this section shall first be paid into the small business loan reserve fund to the credit of the lender to reimburse the fund for amounts paid to the lender pursuant to subsection (2)(a) of this section.

(4) Nothing in this section may be construed to excuse the lender from exercising reasonable care and diligence in the making and collection of loans under this chapter.

If the supervisor, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to an eligible lender, finds that it has substantially failed to exercise such care and diligence required under this section, the supervisor shall disqualify that lender for further loans under this chapter until the supervisor is satisfied that its failure has ceased and finds that there is reasonable assurance that the lender will in the future exercise necessary care and diligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 42.17.260 through 42.17.340, no application to record a loan or the register of loans under chapter 43.—RCW (sections 5 through 14 of this act) may be made available to the public.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 5 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, it is with great reluctance that I ask you to rule on the scope and object of this amendment. Now, unlike the last three amendments, I am in great sympathy with the intent of Senator Smitherman's amendment to this bill. Looking at the bill, it doesn't fit it at all and we run the risk of hurling the original bill, which is a very important bill and I hope that we can find some place else to put this bill. I would ask that you rule on the scope and object of this amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of the amendment by Senators Smitherman and Warnke was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 4, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 145, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 100, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.08.135 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state treasurer shall maintain at all times cash, or demand deposits in qualified public depositories in an amount needed to meet the operational needs of state government: PROVIDED, That the state treasurer shall not be considered in violation of RCW 9A.56.060(1) if he maintains demand accounts in public depositories in an amount less than all treasury warrants issued and outstanding.

(2) The state treasurer may not maintain accounts in a public depository if that public depository or its holding company makes a contribution to a political committee registered under chapter 42.17 RCW. This restriction does not apply if the name of the public depository or its holding company is included in the name of the political committee."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "A point of order, Mr. President. It appears to me that the amendment is beyond the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 341 and should be declared out."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 341 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 970, by Committee on Ways and Means/Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Sayan, Taylor, Cole, Padden, Baugher, D. Sommers, Rayburn, Rust, Vekich, Schoon, Barnes, Fisch and Jesernig)

Providing a reimbursement formula for institutions for the mentally retarded.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 970 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator McDermott, I notice that there is a fiscal note on this bill. It sounds like a worthy bill to send some more money to nursing home operators. Could you tell me how much it costs?"
Senator McDermott: "I just called my office and it's about a half million dollars for the next biennium."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 970.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 970 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Peterson, Sellar, Williams - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 970, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

believe that a person holding a registration, an applicant for registration, or an unregistered alphabetical or classified directory, the department may issue a citation under chapter 34.04 RCW containing an order of correction. Such order shall require the violator to cease the unlawful advertising.

opportunity for a hearing, under chapter 34.04 RCW, within thirty days after receiving the Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 18, chapter 2. Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for or renewing a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of six thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of four thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. A change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond.

(2) Any contractor registered as of the effective date of this 1983 act who maintains such registration in accordance with this chapter shall be in compliance with this chapter until the next annual renewal of the contractor's certificate of registration. At that time, the contractor shall provide a bond, cash deposit, or other security deposit as required by this chapter and comply with all of the other provisions of this chapter before the department shall renew the contractor's certificate of registration.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. The surety issuing the bond shall be named as a party to any suit upon the bond and shall be liable for court costs in the same manner as any other party to the suit. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by filing the complaint with the clerk of the appropriate superior court within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Service of process in an action upon such bond shall be exclusively by service upon the department. Three copies of the complaint and a fee of ten dollars to cover the handling costs shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Service is not complete until the department receives the ten-dollar fee and three copies of the complaint. Such service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond and the department shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond nor for any monetary penalty assessed pursuant to this chapter for an infraction. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments. If any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

(a) Labor, including employee benefits;
(b) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
(c) Material and equipment;
(d) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;
(e) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover.

(5) In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

(6) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

(7) Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

(8) The director may promulgate rules necessary for the proper administration of the security.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "contractors;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 18.27.020, 18.27.030, 18.27.100, and 18.27.040; and adding new sections to chapter 18.27 RCW.*

The standards and procedures set shall apply equally to schools and training within the United States of America and those in foreign jurisdictions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In addition to any other authority provided by law, the director may:

(a) Adopt rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW necessary to implement this chapter;
(b) Set all license, examination, and renewal fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086;
(c) Establish forms and procedures necessary to administer this chapter;

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Talmadge, will this apply to every agency of state government and all institutions?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, it will apply to all executive branch agencies of state government."

Senator Patterson: "Only executive branch agencies?"

Senator Talmadge: "It will not apply, as I understand it, to the judicial branches of government, nor the legislative branch of government on the principle of separation of power. Each of those institutions must adopt their own standards for a conflict of interest and so forth that would apply. I believe we have some standards with respect to personal service contracts in the legislative process, as they do in the judiciary."

Senator Patterson: "I am thinking in terms of transportation."

Senator Talmadge: "The committee or the department?"

Senator Patterson: "The commission—the commission of the—not so much the legislative transportation committee, but the commission itself."

Senator Talmadge: "The commission itself, Senator, would be subject to the provisions of this bill."

Senator Patterson: "That falls under the executive branch of government?"

Senator Talmadge: "It does."

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Cemeteries and other burial plots while used for that purpose;

(2) Divisions of land into lots or tracts each of which is one-one hundred twenty-eighth of a section of land or larger, or five acres or larger if the land is not capable of description as a fraction of a section of land, unless the governing authority of the city, town, or county in which the land is situated shall have adopted a subdivision ordinance requiring plat approval of such divisions: PROVIDED. (6) A division made for the purpose of alteration by adjusting boundary lines, between platted or unplatted lots or both, which does not create any additional lot, tract, parcel, site, or division nor create any lot, tract, parcel, site, or division which contains insufficient area and dimension to meet minimum requirements for width and area for a building site; and

(7) A division which is made by subjecting a portion of a parcel or tract of land to chapter 64.32 RCW if a city, town, or county has approved a binding site plan for all of such land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

A city, town, or county may adopt by ordinance procedures for the divisions of land by use of a binding site plan as an alternative to the procedures required by this chapter. The ordinance shall be limited and only apply to one or more of the following: (1) The use of a binding site plan to divisions for sale or lease of commercially or industrially zoned property as provided in RCW 58.17.040(4); (2) divisions of property for lease as provided for in RCW 58.17.040(5); and (3) divisions of property as provided for in RCW 58.17.040(7). All provisions, conditions, and requirements of the binding site plan shall be legally enforceable on the purchaser or any other person acquiring a lease or other ownership interest of any lot, parcel, or tract created pursuant to the binding site plan.

Any sale, transfer, or lease of any lot, tract, or parcel created pursuant to the binding site plan, that does not conform to the requirements of the binding site plan or without binding site plan approval, shall be considered a violation of chapter 58.17 RCW and shall be restrained by injunctive action and be illegal as provided in chapter 58.17 RCW.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Saling, what I am struggling with, with respect to this amendment, in the policy we are attempting to generate here, would you be supportive of a similar policy if it were to apply to port commissioners or community college presidents?"

Senator Saling: "I think it would be certainly appropriate for community college board of directors, because that is the way it is for them now. Port districts, I understand, are operated in a different manner. They are an organization that tries to create some economic development for the area in which they operate and I think that's fine for those. For a school board member, it is a voluntary position. People who are interested in school boards—who would want to serve and give of their time, the same as a service club—a person who wants to join a service club and provide some service for the community, that's the purpose of the school boards and service clubs. Port districts are a different thing. I do, however, agree with you, Senator Talmadge, that community college boards of trustees should be operated in the same manner that I am suggesting here."

Senator Talmadge: "I think my question was for community college presidents or, perhaps, even citizen legislators."

Senator Saling: "Well, Senator Talmadge, a community college president would be equal in service and in task to a school superintendent—that is a paid administrative position. Now, we are talking about school boards who are elected to that position, or community college trustees who are appointed by the Governor for the same function, to determine policy."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Saling and Bailey.
The motion by Senator Saling failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended. Second Substitute House Bill No. 163, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Gaspard, I think you understand our school system as well as anyone on the floor. Would you identify local funds, if you do not pass levies that could be utilized to pay the compensation referred to in this bill? My problem is the question that was just raised by Senator Bailey and I think through question and answer we ought to be able to advise our school boards as to where they get the money in the event they don't pass the local levies."

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Patterson, the bill as it is now worded says, 'from local money' which the interpretation would be from excess levy money if approved by the voters. I would also interpret that to mean any type of gifts of money, fund raisers specifically for that purpose, would also qualify. Just let me add one other thing, Senator Patterson, I was not particularly a fan of this bill at the very beginning until I did a little bit of research and found out that all of our community college boards are in the category of receiving compensation of up to $4,800 a year, which this would do. All of our four year institution boards of trustees, having the same benefit—the State Board for Community Colleges, the HEC Board. When I looked, the group that was left out was the local school boards and that's why I decided to support the bill."

Senator Patterson: "Senator, I am trying to have us identify through this dialogue for those districts that do not pass special levies and there are forty-three of them, as I understand it, in the state of Washington that do not have special levies—excess levy monies. What I am trying to do is see that they have an equal opportunity to address this bill. What would be a source of money other than contributions? You know, not very many people contribute and I just want to have those school districts that do not have special levies understand from us where we think they can find local monies for the purpose of compensating their school directors?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Patterson, as I mentioned before, with the local levies, gifts, grants, local fund raising activities. Beyond that, I don't know what would be included, because what we are trying to exclude is basic education money."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator Metcalf was excused. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 163, as amended by the Senate.

The results of the weighted caseload analysis shall be reviewed by the board for judicial administration and the judicial council, both of which shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1989. It is the intent of the legislature that weighted caseload analysis become the basis for creating additional district court positions, and recommendations should address that objective; and

(13) Attend to such other matters as may be assigned by the supreme court of this state."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Warnke, I took a look, I guess, at the committee amendment. As I understood it, the original bill that came to us from the House said that on a written contract of any amount or written bid of any amount that this disclosure statement was required. The committee amendment says that if it's a contract or bid of one thousand dollars or more, the disclosure statement is required. For the small householder—the consumer who is impacted by this situation, what protection do they have? Isn't this disclosure statement that which was designed to protect the small householder from problems with the contractor?"

Senator Warnke: "The protections are still there under the law. The only difference would be that the contractor does not disclose with a disclosure statement at the time of the bid for those bids that are under $1,000. The protections of the Department are still there to file the liens."

Authorizing creation of employee cooperatives.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Smitherman, the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter may be cited as the employee cooperative corporations act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given:

(1) "Employee cooperative" means a corporation that has elected to be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

(2) "Member" means a natural person who has been accepted for membership in, and owns a membership share issued by an employee cooperative.

(3) "Patronage" means the amount of work performed as a member of an employee cooperative, measured in accordance with the articles of incorporation and bylaws.

(4) "Written notice of allocation" means a written instrument which discloses to a member the stated dollar amount of the member's patronage allocation, and the terms for payment of that amount by the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state may elect to be governed as an employee cooperative under the provisions of this chapter, by so stating in its articles of incorporation, or articles of amendment filed in accordance with Title 23A RCW.

A corporation so electing shall be governed by all provisions of Title 23A RCW, except chapter 23A.20 RCW, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. An employee cooperative may revoke its election under this chapter by a vote of two-thirds of the members and through articles of amendment filed with the secretary of state in accordance with chapter 23A.16 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. An employee cooperative may include the word "cooperative" or "co-op" in its corporate name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The articles of incorporation or the bylaws shall establish qualifications and the method of acceptance and termination of members. No person may be accepted as a member unless employed by the employee cooperative on a full-time or part-time basis.

(2) An employee cooperative shall issue a class of voting stock designated as "membership shares." Each member shall own only one membership share, and only members may own these shares.

(3) Membership shares shall be issued for a fee as determined from time to time by the directors. RCW 23A.08.140 and 23A.08.200 do not apply to such membership shares.

Members of an employee cooperative shall have all the rights and responsibilities of stockholders of a corporation organized under Title 23A RCW, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) No capital stock other than membership shares shall be given voting power in an employee cooperative, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, or in the articles of incorporation.

(2) The power to amend or repeal bylaws of an employee cooperative shall be in the members only.

(3) Except as otherwise permitted by RCW 23A.16.030, no capital stock other than membership shares shall be permitted to vote on any amendment to the articles of incorporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The net earnings or losses of an employee cooperative shall be apportioned and distributed at the times and in the manner as the articles of incorporation or bylaws shall specify. Net earnings declared as patronage allocations with respect to a period of time, and paid or credited to members, shall be apportioned among the members in according to the ratio which each member's patronage during the period involved bears to total patronage by all members during that period.

(2) The apportionment, distribution, and payment of net earnings required by subsection (1) of this section may be in cash, credits, written notices of allocation, or capital stock issued by the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Any employee cooperative may establish through its articles of incorporation or bylaws a system of internal capital accounts to reflect the book value and to determine the redemption price of membership shares, capital stock, and written notices of allocation.

(2) The articles of incorporation or bylaws of an employee cooperative may permit the periodic redemption of written notices of allocation and capital stock, and must provide for recall and redemption of the membership share upon termination of membership in the cooperative. No redemption shall be made if redemption would result in a violation of RCW 23A.08.020.

(3) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide for the employee cooperative to pay or credit interest on the balance in each member's internal capital account.

(4) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize assignment of a portion of retained net earnings and net losses to a collective reserve account. Earnings assigned to the collective reserve account may be used for any and all corporate purposes as determined by the board of directors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) An internal capital account cooperative is an employee cooperative whose entire net book value is reflected in internal capital accounts, one for each member, and a collective reserve account, and in which no persons other than members own capital stock. In an internal capital account cooperative, each member shall have one and only one vote in any matter requiring voting by stockholders.

(2) An internal capital account cooperative shall credit the paid-in membership fee and additional paid-in capital of a member to the member's internal capital account, and shall also record the apportionment of retained net earnings or net losses to the members in accordance with patronage by appropriately crediting or debiting the internal capital accounts of members. The collective reserve account in an internal capital account cooperative shall reflect any paid-in capital, net losses, and retained net earnings not allocated to individual members.

(3) In an internal capital account cooperative, the balances in all the individual internal capital accounts and collective reserve account, if any, shall be adjusted at the end of each accounting period so that the sum of the balances is equal to the net book value of the employee cooperative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) When any employee cooperative revokes its election in accordance with section 4 of this act, the articles of amendment shall provide for conversion of membership shares and internal capital accounts or their conversion to securities or other property in a manner consistent with Title 23A RCW.

(2) An employee cooperative that has not revoked its election under this chapter may not consolidate or merge with another corporation other than an employee cooperative. Two or more employee cooperatives may consolidate or merge in accordance with chapter 23A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 23 RCW.

Sec. 13. Section 32, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 1, chapter 90, Laws of 1986 and RCW 21.20.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(6) Any transaction by an executor, administrator, sheriff, marshal, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, guardian, or conservator.

(7) Any transaction executed by a bona fide pledgee without any purpose of evading this chapter.

(8) Any offer or sale to a bank, savings institution, trust company, insurance company, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust, or other financial institution or institutional buyer, or to a broker-dealer, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or in some fiduciary capacity.

(9) Any transaction pursuant to an offering not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars effected in accordance with any rule by the director if the director finds that registration is not necessary in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(12) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which registration statements have been filed under both this chapter and the Securities Act of 1933 if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under either act.

(13) The issuance of any stock dividend, whether the corporation distributing the dividend is the issuer of the stock or not, if nothing of value is given by stockholders for the distribution other than the surrender of a right to a cash dividend where the stockholder can elect to take a dividend in cash or stock.

(14) Any transaction incident to a right of conversion or a statutory or judicially approved reclassification, recapitalization, reorganization, quasi reorganization, stock split, reverse stock split, merger, consolidation, or sale of assets.

(15) The offer or sale by a registered broker-dealer, or a person exempted from the registration requirements pursuant to RCW 21.20.040, acting either as principal or agent, of securities previously sold and distributed to the public: PROVIDED, That:

(a) Such securities are sold at prices reasonably related to the current market price thereof at the time of sale, and, if such broker-dealer is acting as agent, the commission collected by such broker-dealer on account of the sale thereof is not in excess of usual and customary commissions collected with respect to securities and transactions having comparable characteristics;

(b) Such securities do not constitute the whole or a part of an unsold allotment to or subscription or participation by such broker-dealer as an underwriter of such securities or as a participant in the distribution of such securities by the issuer, by an underwriter or by a person or group of persons in substantial control of the issuer or of the outstanding securities of the class being distributed; and

(c) The security has been lawfully sold and distributed in this state or any other state of the United States under this or any act regulating the sale of such securities.

(16) ((Any transactions by a mutual or cooperative association issuing to its patrons any receipt, written notice, certificate of indebtedness, or stock for a patronage dividend, or for contributions to capital by such patrons in the association if any such receipt, written notice, or certificate made pursuant to this paragraph is not transferable except in the case of death or by operation of law and so states conspicuously on its face.

(HP)) Any transaction effected in accordance with any rule adopted by the director establishing a limited offering exemption which furthers objectives of compatibility with federal exemptions and uniformity among the states, provided that in adopting any such rule the director may require that no commission or other remuneration be paid or given to any person, directly or indirectly, for effecting sales unless the person is registered under this chapter as a broker-dealer or salesperson.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The intent of the legislature in amending RCW 21.20.320 is to except from chapter 21.20 RCW membership shares in cooperatives that are organized under cooperative principles. MOTION

On motion of Senator Wojahn, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 480 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: Senator Wojahn, do I understand this bill that the state will now pay, under the provisions of this bill, for the foster home care of Indian children who are in homes not licensed or regulated by the state of Washington?

Senator Wojahn: Yes, wherever possible, Indian children will be placed in foster homes with the ethnic minority of their own race and they are not licensed.

Senator Newhouse: The only regulation is by the tribe?

Senator Wojahn: The regulation will be under the federal act, so there would be no need to license the homes according to the Department of Social and Health Services.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: Senator Wojahn, I thought—I was my understanding in committee—that the Indian tribes would find and license the foster homes. Was I incorrect in that?

Senator Wojahn: The Indian tribe?

Senator Deccio: That the tribe would have the responsibility—

Senator Wojahn: They would have the responsibility for the placement of the children. It comes under the federal act which does supercede the state act, but we should modify our act to follow the federal act and we can lose federal funds if we do not do that.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to foster cooperation between citizens of this state and state agencies in the efforts to control agricultural nonpoint source pollution problems. This cooperation shall be in the form of a system to refer complaints of nonpoint source pollution occurring on agricultural lands to a neutral entity which will work closely with the person conducting the agricultural activity in an effort to resolve the pollution problem. The focus of this system shall be to encourage the implementation of agricultural best management practices, to cooperate to achieve compliance with nonpoint pollution standards, and to avoid confrontation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department of ecology shall promulgate regulations to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act. These regulations shall: (1) Delineate the role of the conservation districts in determining whether water pollution is originating from nonpoint agricultural sources; (2) establish criteria for determining when nonpoint agricultural pollution has been resolved; (3) establish criteria for determining when a pollution control emergency exists with regard to nonpoint source water pollution from agricultural lands; (4) delineate the responsibilities of the conservation districts and the department in identifying and responding to emergencies; and (5) incorporate the definition of nonpoint pollution established in section 208 of the federal water pollution control act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. At the request of a conservation district, the department of ecology shall enter into a contract or memorandum of understanding with such conservation district to fund the activities of the district required by sections 2 through 7 of this act. The department may use federal water pollution control moneys, consistent with federal law, to provide a portion of the funding required to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act. If the resolution of a nonpoint pollution problem pursuant to sections 2 through 7 of this act involves a project eligible for funding under chapter 70.146 RCW, the district shall apply to the conservation commission for a grant to carry out such project with funds distributed to the conservation commission under chapter 70.146 RCW. Moneys to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act shall be distributed only to districts which have entered into a contract or memorandum of understanding with the department of ecology. Moneys to implement sections 2 through 7 of this act shall be distributed at the beginning of each fiscal year and shall be based on a formula developed by the department of ecology to estimate the activities to be required of the district during the fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Complaints received by the department of ecology regarding nonpoint source water pollution from agricultural lands shall be referred to the conservation district office in the jurisdiction where the land is located. The conservation district shall contact the person conducting agricultural activities on the land in question. Following consultation with the person and an assessment of agricultural activities being conducted on the land, the conservation district shall determine if a nonpoint source pollution problem exists.

Following the consultation, the conservation district shall provide a written report of its findings to the person. The report shall be retained in the conservation district office, and all identifying information shall be held confidentially. The conservation district shall inform the department of ecology that contact with the responsible party has been made."
(2) In the event measurable water pollution is attributable to agricultural activities, the conservation district shall offer assistance to the person in the form of information, education, technical assistance, and, if available, cost share and other incentives. The conservation district support may include the development of a cooperative farm plan, employing the wastewater management planning process referenced in section 208 of the 1972 federal water pollution control act, P.L. 92-500, or equivalent measures. The person has the option of accepting all or part of the assistance offered by the conservation district, or choosing to solve the pollution problem on his or her own.

(3) If a person accepts the assistance of the conservation district or chooses otherwise, a period of six months shall be allowed for the development of a plan described in subsection (2) of this section. Following the development of the plan, a period of up to eighteen months shall be allowed for implementation. Provisions shall be made for an extension of the deadline in the event the schedule is disrupted due to weather conditions, cropping or harvesting responsibilities, or other events or conditions beyond the person's control, or to correct an error in estimating the time required for completion.

(4) In the event that any conservation district chooses not to participate in the provisions of sections 2 through 7 of this act, the department of ecology shall retain its authority and shall be the primary contact with persons conducting agricultural activities consistent with the intent of sections 2 through 7 of this act.

(5) If a conservation district determines that it cannot continue to participate on any referred complaint, the conservation district shall rerefer the complaint back to the department of ecology for action consistent with the intent of sections 2 through 7 of this act.

(6) If a previously referred nonpoint pollution complaint recurs, or if an emergency exists as defined pursuant to section 3 of this act, and the landowner has refused to cooperate with the conservation district or make a good faith effort to solve the nonpoint agricultural pollution problem on his or her own, the conservation district or the department of ecology shall immediately notify the person that failure to take immediate corrective action may result in enforcement action by the department of ecology, which may include a resource damage assessment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of ecology shall not collect natural resource damage assessments authorized in RCW 90.48.142 for damages arising from agricultural nonpoint source pollution if the individual causing the resource damage is making a good faith effort to develop or implement a plan pursuant to sections 2 through 7 of this act and if the individual is employing best management practices described in appropriate state water quality management plans pursuant to section 208 of the federal water pollution control act, P.L. 95-217.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 2 through 5 of this act shall be administered by the department of ecology with the advice and consent of the state conservation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 90.48 RCW.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kreidler: "Mr. President, I'd like to raise the question of scope and object on this particular amendment. You take a look at the title and you take a look at the scope of the bill that's before us, you will see it is quite inconsistent with the amendment that is being proposed."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 277, by Representatives Gallagher, Doty, Walk, Schmidt and P. King (by request of Department of Licensing)

Extending the time permitted for providing the department of licensing proof of financial responsibility.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 9, after "((ten))" strike "sixty" and insert "twenty"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Halsan, this is a case where if you are found guilty of the violation of the accident, you are at fault or what?"

Senator Halsan: "Under the financial responsibility law that we are dealing with right in this particular thing, you have an accident and you do not have insurance, the person submits the accident report to the Department of Licensing and your license is suspended unless you post, effectively, a bond that might cover the damages to the other person if they ever recover against you in court. You don't have to pay the other person right up front. Although that would relieve you of the responsibility as well, but you do have to post security in order to protect that person, should they eventually prevail."

Senator Patterson: "At the time of the accident, a judgment has not been returned against you as to whether or not it is your fault. Is that correct?"

Senator Halsan: "That is correct and that's—"

Senator Patterson: "That you are supposed to have liability insurance regardless of whether you are at fault?"

Senator Halsan: "That's correct."

Senator Patterson: "So, this gives you twenty days to provide the security in the case you did not have insurance?"

Senator Halsan: "That is correct. You may eventually be found not to have been at fault in the accident, in which case you get the security back."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, I am sorry I haven't been following this, but as I understand it you are changing the House version from sixty to twenty days?"

Senator Talmadge: "That's right."

Senator Deccio: "May I ask what the rational is for reducing that from sixty to twenty?"

Senator Talmadge: "At present, Senator Deccio, the time period is ten days. If you are involved in an accident and you don't have insurance or other kind of financial coverage—a bond or some other assets posted—if that takes place, then there is a notification made and you have ten days in which to get insurance or post a bond or whatever. As I understand it, the Department of Licensing has been saying they can't simply turn these things around in a ten day time period and they asked us to extend that to sixty.

"But, it seems to me that these people have demonstrated once already that they are not responsible drivers; that they are driving without insurance or other kind of protection for others on the road. A twenty day time period seems to be more appropriate. It gives the Department more time to do what they need to do, but it does give us. I think, a little more protection from these people who are driving without insurance.”

Senator Deccio: "Well, I guess, this is the filing of proof of financial responsibility immediately after the accident or after the SR 22 filing that is required when the license is going to be reinstated? Which period of time are you talking about?"

Senator Talmadge: "I believe it's the time period from the filing--from mailing of the notice."

Senator Deccio: "To the state?"

Senator Talmadge: "To the driver."

Senator Deccio: "Of the accident?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

Senator Deccio: "Well, I guess the reason I am asking this is because if you are going to wait until the end of the reinstatement period, if the license has been suspended, you can't get insurance in twenty days. If it goes through the pool, it takes at least three weeks before they even determine who is going to be assigned the insurance. I think that twenty days would really not be adequate. I guess I would have to oppose the amendment based on that fact."

Senator Talmadge: "The only problem we have is if we have people driving without any kind of financial responsibility for a period of sixty days after an event at which they have demonstrated their financial irresponsibility. I have a concern about that time period being so delayed. I think the time is sufficient."

Senator Deccio: "Well, that's why I asked the question. If you are talking about just after the accident and not if you are being convicted--had your license revoked. You're not talking about a reinstatement period? You're talking about after the accident?"

Senator Talmadge: "The bill says, at present. Senator Deccio, 'In the event that any person required to give proof of financial responsibility under the law, to give such proof within--such and such a time period--after the Department has sent notice as hereinbefore provided the Department shall suspend and so forth,' so it's after the notice has been issued by the Department of Licensing to the person, that they are subject to having their license suspended if they fail to do it. I think that is the SR 22. period. It's not the accident, but the notice at the time which the time period begins."

Senator Deccio: "Well, again, I think you have me confused. I don't want to drag this on, but you've got one period that you have to file evidence of financial responsibility after the accident and then if your license has been revoked, then after the revocation period you have to file proof of financial responsibility before you can get your license back. That's the period you are talking about? Well, okay then, if it's before the accident or immediately after the accident, I would go along with the amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, before we all get confused, when you get in a traffic accident, you fill out an accident report form. In that form, there is a question--'Do you have insurance?' And, if you put down 'none' or if you put down 'Allstate,' the Department checks and if you're not insured by Allstate, then they send out a notice and they give you an opportunity for a hearing to show them why the accident was not your fault and the best thing you can use for evidence is the police officer's report which will indicate whether he thought it was your fault or not.

'If he thought it was your fault, or could have been your fault, you are going to lose at that hearing. Then they send you a notice. You then have a period of time to go down and do two things--post a bond for the accident you had and post proof of insurance for the future. That's the SR 22 form you are talking about. No insurance company is going to sell you a policy to cover an accident you've already had. You're going to have to go down and post a bond, or cash, or something in what the patrol officer thought was the estimated value of the damage that was done and if there has been a personal injury, then there is usually a filing by the injured party as to what that bond would be.'"
The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

Senator Vognild moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature declares that:

(1) Marketing is a dynamic and changing part of Washington agriculture and a vital element in expanding the state economy.

(2) The sale in the state and export to other states and abroad of wine made in the state contribute substantial benefits to the economy of the state, provide a large number of jobs and sizeable tax revenues, and have an important stabilizing effect on prices received by agricultural producers. Development of exports of these commodities abroad will contribute favorably to the balance of trade of the United States and of the state. The sale and export are therefore affected with the public interest.

(3) The production of wine grapes in the state is a new and important segment of Washington agriculture which has potential for greater contribution to the economy of the state if it undergoes healthy development.

(4) The general welfare of the people of the state will be served by healthy development of the activities of growing and processing wine grapes, which development will improve the tax bases of local communities in which agricultural land and processing facilities are located, and obviate the need for state and federal funding of local services. The industries are therefore affected with the public interest."
(5) Creation of a commission for the public purpose of administering the revenue of the commission under RCW 66.24.210(3) for the enhancement of production of wine grapes and wine and the marketing of Washington wine will materially advance the industries of growing and processing wine grapes and thereby the interests of the citizens of the state.

In making such appointments of the voting members, the director shall take into consideration recommendations made by the growers' association and the wine institute as the persons recommended for appointment as members of the commission. In appointing persons to the commission, the director shall seek to ensure as nearly as possible a balanced representation on the commission which would reflect the composition of the growers and wine producers throughout the state as to number of acres cultivated and amount of wine produced.

The appointment shall be carried out immediately subsequent to the effective date of this section and members so appointed as set forth in this chapter shall serve for the periods set forth for the original members of the commission under section 4 of this act.

(11) To sue and be sued as a commission, without individual liability for acts of the commission within the scope of the powers conferred upon it by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The commission shall create, provide for, and conduct a comprehensive and extensive research, promotional, and educational campaign as crop, sales, and market conditions reasonably require. It shall investigate and ascertain the needs of producers, conditions of markets, and degree of public awareness of products, and take into account the information adduced thereby in the discharge of its duties under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall adopt as major objectives of its research, promotional, and educational campaign such goals as will serve the needs of producers, which may include, without limitation, efforts to:

If the tax is not collected by means of stamps, the board may require that every such person shall execute to and file with the board a bond to be approved by the board, in such amount as the board may fix, securing the payment of the tax. If any such person fails to pay the tax when due, the board may forthwith suspend or cancel the license until all taxes are paid.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section. All revenues collected during any month from this additional tax shall be transferred to the state general fund by the twenty-fifth day of the following month.

(c) After July 1, 1993, assessment rates under subsection (1)(a) of this section may be changed pursuant to a referendum conducted by the Washington wine commission and approved by a majority vote of wine producers. Senator Metcalf: "Senator Benitz, what is the weighted voting? Is that done in any of the agricultural commissions around and what is the weighted voting and the purpose of it? I am a little nervous about the larger getting more of a vote."

Senator Benitz: "The bill was changed from its original form to where no one winery can have fifty percent or more of the vote. For a winery to have a weighted vote of more than fifty percent—thats been changed. A large winery would have to go with a couple of small wineries to have that majority. The weighted vote has been changed. It does not exist so that one winery could control—no way."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Benitz. I was just wondering. I received a little notice here discussing a party that is to be held this afternoon—a wine tasting party. I was wondering if this has been timed so that it went along with this particular bill?"

Senator Benitz: "Senator, I intended to respond to that issue on a note of personal privilege as soon as this bill is over with, especially if the vote is quite affirmative."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Senator Moore was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 569, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute House Bill No. 569, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 5; excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Moore - 1.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 569, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President. I request a point of personal privilege. I wish to thank all of you for the vote. I think we are on our way. In response to Senator Smitherman, if the time can be worked out to where the time is available this evening by the time we quit, and if it isn't too late. I invite you to the area of Senators Hayner and Sellar offices. We will taste one German wine to get a comparison and then several Washington premium wines—and I think you will enjoy them. We will have some cheese from the Yakima Valley from Senator Newhouse to kind of help the taste of the wine along. You are most welcome upon adjournment this afternoon. If we can't do it this afternoon, we'll do it the first time we can."

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MOTIONS

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“Sec. 1. Section 13, chapter 18, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 1, chapter 121, Laws of 1986 and RCW 88.16.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall have power on its own motion, or, in its discretion, upon the written request of any interested party, to investigate the performance of pilotage services subject to this chapter and to issue a reprimand, impose a fine against a pilot in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ((and)), suspend, withhold, or revoke the license of any pilot, or any combination of the above, for misconduct, incompetency, inattention to duty, intoxication, or failure to perform its duties under this chapter, or violation of any of the rules or regulations provided by the board for the government of pilots. The board may partially or totally stay any disciplinary action authorized in this subsection and subsection (2) of this section. The board shall have the power to require that a pilot satisfactorily complete a specific course of training or treatment.

(2) In all instances where a pilot licensed under this chapter performs pilotage services on a vessel exempt under RCW 88.16.070, the board may on its own motion, or in its discretion upon the written request of any interested party, investigate whether the services were performed in a professional manner consistent with sound maritime practices. ((If the board finds that the pilotage services were performed in a negligent manner so as to endanger life, limb, or property, the board shall impose a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars upon the offending pilot)) If the board finds that the pilotage services were performed in a manner that constitutes an act of incompetence, misconduct, or negligence so as to endanger life, limb, or property, or violated or failed to comply with state laws or regulations intended to promote marine safety or to protect navigable waters, the board may issue a reprimand, impose a fine against a pilot in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars, suspend, withhold, or revoke the state pilot license, or any combination of the above. The board shall have the power to require that a pilot satisfactorily complete a specific course of training or treatment.

(3) The board shall implement a system of specified disciplinary actions or corrective actions, including training or treatment, that will be taken when a state licensed pilot in a specified period of time has had multiple disciplinary actions taken against the pilot’s license pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section. In developing these disciplinary or corrective actions, the board shall take into account the cause of the disciplinary action and the pilot’s previous record.

(4) When the board determines that reasonable cause exists to issue a reprimand, impose a fine (or), suspend, revoke, or withhold any pilot’s license or require training or treatment under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, it shall forthwith prepare and personally serve upon such pilot a notice advising him of the board’s intended action, the specific grounds therefor, and the right to request a hearing to challenge the board’s action. The pilot shall have thirty days from the date on which notice is served to request a full hearing before an administrative law judge on the issue of the reprimand, fine (or), suspension, revocation, or withholding of his pilot’s license, or requiring treatment or training. The board’s proposed reprimand, fine (or), suspension, revocation, or withholding of a license, or requiring treatment or training shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the date notice is served, unless a hearing has been requested prior to that time. When a hearing is requested the board shall request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW who has sufficient experience and familiarity with pilotage matters to be able to conduct a fair and impartial hearing. The hearing shall be governed by the provisions of Title 34 RCW. All final decisions of the administrative law judge shall be subject to review by the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county or by the superior court of the county in which the pilot maintains his residence or principal place of business, to which court any case with all the papers and proceedings therein shall be immediately certificated by the administrative law judge if requested to do so by any party to the proceedings at any time within thirty days after the date of any such final decision. No appeal may be taken after the expiration of thirty days after the date of final decision. Any case so certificated to the superior court shall be tried de novo and after certification of the record to said superior court the proceedings shall be had as in a civil action. Moneys collected from fines under this section shall be deposited in the pilotage account.

(5) The board shall have the power, on an emergency basis, to temporarily suspend a state pilot’s license: (a) When a pilot has been involved in any vessel accident where there has been major property damage, loss of life, or loss of a vessel, or (b) where there is a reasonable cause to believe that a pilot has diminished mental capacity or is under the influence of drugs, alcohol, or other substances, when in the opinion of the board, such an accident or physical or mental impairment would significantly diminish that pilot’s ability to carry out pilotage duties and that the public health, safety, and welfare requires such emergency action. The board shall make a determination within seventy-two hours whether to continue the suspension. The board shall develop rules for exercising this authority including procedures for the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the board to temporarily order such suspensions, emergency meetings of the board to consider such suspensions, the length of suspension, opportunities for hearings, and an appeal process. The board shall develop rules under chapter 34.04 RCW.

(2) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. (4) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5). Sec. 2. Section 12. chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 20, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and by section 4, chapter 301, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility.

The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.
(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender’s address or employment;
(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
(f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant’s crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter: that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44-040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense; crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender’s address or employment;
(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
(v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender’s crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced on or after July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense; community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter: that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44-040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense; crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender’s address or employment;
(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
(v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender’s crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced on or after July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense; community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter: that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44-040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense; crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender’s address or employment;
(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
(v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender’s crime.
Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

(i) Crime-related provisions;

(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and

(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

(15) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce an order that relates directly to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, prohibiting the offender from having any contact with other specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision.

(16) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the defendant to serve the partial confinement in work release.

Sec. 3. Section 18, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An offender sentenced to a term of partial confinement shall be confined in the facility for at least eight hours per day. The offender shall be required as a condition of partial confinement to report to the facility at designated times. An offender may be required to comply with crime-related prohibitions during the period of partial confinement.

(2) An offender in a county jail ordered to serve all or part of a term of less than one year in work release who violates the rules of the work release facility or fails to remain employed, or enrolled in school may be transferred to the appropriate county detention facility without further court order but shall, upon request, be notified of the right to request an administrative hearing on the issue of whether or not the offender failed to comply with the order and relevant conditions. Pending such hearing, or in the absence of a request for the hearing, the offender shall serve the remainder of the term of confinement as total confinement. This subsection shall not affect transfer or placement of offenders committed to the state department of corrections.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 25, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules, partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under ((subsections (1) through (14) of)) this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsection(s) (3) (as amended (15)) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score. If since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community. Serious traffic convictions shall be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.
(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11)(c) or (12)(c) or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnapping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories. Two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide; count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

(12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for ((escape (escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120); Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.050((and)), or Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070((a))); count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(14) If the present conviction is for Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110, or Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120, count adult prior convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as 1/2 point.

(15) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count prior convictions in subsection (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 28, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime and the offender shall be sentenced for the current offense with the highest offender score. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently.

Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run concurrently with any felony sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the current sentence expressly orders that they be served consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 9A.32 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of homicide by abuse if, under circumstances manifesting an extreme indifference to human life, the person causes the death of a child or person under sixteen years of age, a developmentally disabled person, or a dependent adult, and the person has previously engaged in a pattern or practice of assault or torture of said child, person under sixteen years of age, developmentally disabled person, or dependent person.

(2) As used in this section, "dependent adult" means a person who, because of physical or mental disability, or because of extreme advanced age, is dependent upon another person to provide the basic necessities of life.

(3) Homicide by abuse is a class A felony.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 23, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.320 are each amended to read as follows:

On motion of Senator Halsan, the following amendment by Senators Halsan, Talmadge, Nelson and Newhouse to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 37, line 22, after "(RCW 69.50.401(d))" insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The legislature finds that many minor offenses that are established as misdemeanors are obsolete or can be more appropriately punished by the imposition of civil fines. The legislature finds that some misdemeanors should be decriminalized to allow resources of the legal system, such as judges, prosecutors, juries, and jails, to be used to punish serious criminal behavior, since acts characterized as criminal behavior have a tremendous fiscal impact on the legal system.

The establishment of a system of civil infractions is a more expeditious and less expensive method of disposing of minor offenses and will decrease the cost and workload of the courts of limited jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A task force on civil infractions is established. The membership of the task force is as follows: (1) Two members of the senate committee on judiciary selected by the chairman, one from each of the two major political parties; (2) two members of the house of representatives' committee on judiciary selected by the chairman, one from each of the two major political parties; (3) one person representing prosecuting attorneys selected by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys; (4) one person representing municipal attorneys selected by the Washington state association of municipal attorneys; (5) one person representing cities selected by the association of Washington cities; (6) one person representing counties selected by the Washington state association of counties; (7) one person representing law enforcement selected by the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs; (8) one person representing the courts of limited jurisdiction selected by the Washington state magistrate association; (9) one person representing misdemeanor corrections officers selected by the Washington state misdemeanor corrections officers' association; (10) one person representing defense attorneys selected by the Washington defender association; and (11) one person representing court administrators selected by the Washington state association of court administrators.

Members of the task force shall select the chairperson. The staff of the house and senate judiciary committees shall serve as the staff for the task force. Members of the task force shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 44.04.120, 43.03.050, and 43.03.060, respectively.

This section shall expire July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The task force shall study the various crimes designated as misdemeanors and gross misdemeanors in this state and determine if the offense should be classified as a civil infraction under this chapter or if the penalty for the offense should be eliminated or otherwise modified. In making these determinations, the task force shall consider the following: (1) The existing and predicted workload of the courts of limited jurisdiction; (2) the fiscal impact on the court system of characterizing certain behavior as criminal, including the cost of appointed counsel for indigents, jury trials, and jail facilities; (3) using resources of the legal system, such as judges, prosecutors, and juries, to punish minor offenses; (4) the willingness of prosecutors and judges to apply the sanctions of incarceration; (5) stigmas attached to persons convicted of violating criminal statutes; (6) the cost and benefits of implementing an alternative system for effectively and efficiently handling minor offenses; and (7) any other relevant factors affecting the classification.

The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature no later than June 30, 1989.

This section shall expire July 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) All violations of state law, local law, ordinance, regulation, or resolution designated as civil infractions may be heard and determined by a district court, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) Any municipal court has the authority to hear and determine pursuant to this chapter civil infractions that are established by municipal ordinance and that are committed within the jurisdiction of the municipality.

(3) Any city or town with a municipal court under chapter 3.50 RCW may contract with the county to have civil infractions that are established by city or town ordinance and that are committed within the city or town adjudicated by a district court.

(4) District court commissioners have the authority to hear and determine civil infractions pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Nothing in this chapter prevents any city, town, or county from hearing and determining civil infractions pursuant to its own system established by ordinance.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Notwithstanding any other provision of law governing service of process in civil cases, a court of limited jurisdiction having jurisdiction over an alleged civil infraction may issue process anywhere within the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. All judges and court commissioners adjudicating civil infractions shall complete such training requirements as are promulgated by the supreme court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. As used in this chapter, "enforcement officer" means a person authorized to enforce the provisions of the title or ordinance in which the civil infraction is established.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) A civil infraction proceeding is initiated by the issuance, service, and filing of a notice of civil infraction.
(2) A notice of civil infraction may be issued by an enforcement officer when the civil infraction occurs in the officer’s presence.
(3) A court may issue a notice of civil infraction if an enforcement officer files with the court a written statement that the civil infraction was committed in the officer’s presence or that the officer has reasonable cause to believe that a civil infraction was committed.
(4) Service of a notice of civil infraction issued under subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be as provided by court rule. Until such a rule is adopted, service shall be as provided in JTR 2.2(c)(1) and (3), as applicable.
(5) A notice of infraction shall be filed with a court having jurisdiction within forty-eight hours of issuance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A notice of infraction not filed within the time limits prescribed in this section may be dismissed without prejudice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A person who is to receive a notice of civil infraction under section 16 of this act is required to identify himself or herself to the enforcement officer by giving his or her name, address, and date of birth. Upon the request of the officer, the person shall produce reasonable identification, including a driver’s license or identification card.

A person who is unable or unwilling to reasonably identify himself or herself to an enforcement officer may be detained for a period of time not longer than is reasonably necessary to identify the person for purposes of issuing a civil infraction.

Each agency authorized to issue civil infractions shall adopt rules on identification and detention of persons committing civil infractions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) A notice of civil infraction represents a determination that a civil infraction has been committed. The determination is final unless contested as provided in this chapter.
(2) The form for the notice of civil infraction shall be prescribed by rule of the supreme court and shall include the following:
(a) A statement that the notice represents a determination that a civil infraction has been committed by the person named in the notice and that the determination is final unless contested as provided in this chapter;
(b) A statement that a civil infraction is a noncriminal offense for which imprisonment may not be imposed as a sanction;
(c) A statement of the specific civil infraction for which the notice was issued;
(d) A statement of the monetary penalty established for the civil infraction;
(e) A statement of the options provided in this chapter for responding to the notice and the procedures necessary to exercise these options;
(f) A statement that at any hearing to contest the determination the state has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the civil infraction was committed and that the person may subpoena witnesses including the enforcement officer who issued the notice of civil infraction;
(g) A statement that at any hearing requested for the purpose of explaining mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of the civil infraction, the person will be deemed to have committed the civil infraction and may not subpoena witnesses;
(h) A statement that the person must respond to the notice as provided in this chapter within fifteen days;
(i) A statement that failure to respond to the notice or a failure to appear at a hearing requested for the purpose of contesting the determination or for the purpose of explaining mitigating circumstances will result in a default judgment against the person in the amount of the penalty and that this failure may be referred to the prosecuting attorney for criminal prosecution for failure to respond or appear;
(j) A statement, which the person shall sign, that the person promises to respond to the notice of a civil infraction in one of the ways provided in this chapter;
(k) A statement that failure to respond to a notice of civil infraction as promised or to appear at a requested hearing is a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine or imprisonment in jail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) Any person who receives a notice of civil infraction shall respond to such notice as provided in this section within fifteen days of the date of the notice.
(2) If the person determined to have committed the civil infraction does not contest the determination, the person shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of civil infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice.
A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the civil infraction must be submitted with the response. The clerk of a court may accept cash in payment for an infraction. When a response which does not contest the determination is received, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court’s records.

(3) If the person determined to have committed the civil infraction wishes to contest the determination, the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of civil infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be earlier than seven days nor more than ninety days from the date of the notice of hearing, except by agreement.

(4) If the person determined to have committed the civil infraction does not contest the determination but wishes to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the infraction, the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of civil infraction requesting a hearing for that purpose and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be earlier than seven days nor more than ninety days from the date of the notice of hearing, except by agreement.

(5) The court shall enter a default judgment assessing the monetary penalty prescribed for the civil infraction and may notify the prosecuting attorney of the failure to respond to the notice of civil infraction or to appear at a requested hearing if any person issued a notice of civil infraction:

(a) Fails to respond to the notice of civil infraction as provided in subsection (2) of this section; or
(b) Fails to appear at a hearing requested pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) Procedures for the conduct of all hearings provided in this chapter may be established by rule of the supreme court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) A hearing held for the purpose of contesting the determination that a civil infraction has been committed shall be without a jury and shall be recorded in the manner provided for in courts of limited jurisdiction.

(2) The court may consider the notice of civil infraction and any other written report made under oath submitted by the enforcement officer who issued the notice or whose written statement was the basis for the issuance of the notice in lieu of the officer’s personal appearance at the hearing. The person named in the notice may request the court for issuance of subpoena of witnesses, including the enforcement officer who issued the notice, and has the right to present evidence and examine witnesses present in court.

The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may rely on no more information than that admitted by the plea agreement, or admitted, acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The facts shall be deemed proved at the hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. Facts that establish the elements of a more serious crime or additional crimes may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2) (c) ((rem)), (d), and (e).

Sec. 16. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 27, chapter 257. Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances
(a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.
(b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.
(c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.
(d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.
(e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

(f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

(g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances
(a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.
(b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.
(c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;
(ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;
(iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;
(iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.
(d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:

(i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or
(ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or
(iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or
(iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or
(v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or
(vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or
(e) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time; or

(f) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

Sec. 17. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 30, chapter 257, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.
STANDARD: A prosecuting attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:
Examples
The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.
(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.
(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:
(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and
(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and
(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and
(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.
This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.
(c) De Minimis Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.
(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and
(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;
(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and
(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.
(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and
(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;
(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;
(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and
(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.
(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.
(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.
(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.
(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:
(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;
(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;
(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.
Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.
The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification
The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.
STANDARD:
Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.
Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table below for the crimes within these categories.

Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:
(a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
(b) Will result in restitution to all victims.
(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:
(a) Charging a higher degree;
(b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:
(1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
(2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
(3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:
(1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
(2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended;

or
(3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:
(1) Polygraph testing;
(2) Hypnosis;
(3) Electronic surveillance;
(4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, I think there are some things in this bill that really do need to be addressed in our sentencing guidelines statutes, but I'm having really a tough time trying to figure out—in all of these different age groups, you have different kinds of crimes depending on how much older the perpetrator is than the victim. It seems to me as though there are some spaces here in between where if a person is at least fourteen, but less than eighteen and the perpetrator has to be at least forty-eight months older than the victim, etc., etc. I am simply using that as an example. My question is, that in cases where the perpetrator is not that much older than the victim, then any of the specificities that are in here, can they be convicted of rape at all? Even the definition of statutory rape, that you have in this section, takes in those age considerations."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, the problem that you have most often in these kinds of sexual misconduct situations is that rape is generally believed to be a nonconsensual activity, with the exception of statutory rape. The idea of the amendment that you have before you is to treat with, actually, very specifically the circumstances under which sexual misconduct or statutory rape might be present as between an older person and a younger person in the state of Washington.

"This amendment you have before you is an amendment that was worked with some care in the House of Representatives over the interim. It is one that is supported by the Washington Association of Prosecuting Attorneys and is supported by a number of other organizations who have been working with this subject over a period of time. I don't believe that there are any gaps in the age sequence that you see. You'll note, however, that this amendment is one that takes effect July 1, 1988. It's one that we want to put into place; it's one we want to work with. There are some other sexual related offenses that the House took a look at that are not present in this measure that would be part of that interim study by the Senate and the House Judiciary Committees. I think it's a well thought through proposal and does encompass the ages that I know you have a concern about."

Senator Lee: "Well, I appreciate hearing that it will have a delayed implementation date, but the question is—I'll make it a little more specific—what would be the crime as far as rape between individuals who were both between the ages of sixteen and eighteen? In other words, a sixteen year old boy raping a fifteen year old girl?"

Senator Talmadge: "You would not have statutory rape as defined in the statute."
Senator Lee: "What would you have?"

Senator Talmadge: "You would have—you would not have rape of the child in the first degree. You would probably have sexual misconduct with the minor in the second degree under the circumstances that you talked about, although it's not clear a significant relationship would be present. That's one of the crimes that the House was looking at in terms of a crime they termed, 'sexual battery.' They had a lot of questions attached to it and is one of the things we wanted to take a look at with some detail in the interim."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Talmadge, on page 22, New Section 26, it's the repealer section. You have a series of repealers in there. What do they repeal?"

Senator Talmadge: "I believe those are some of the older statutes relating to nonconsensual sexual relations or statutory rape. Senator Bluechel. This measure is designed, as Senator Halsan has pointed out, to clarify some of the more problematic sections with respect to relationships of a sexual nature and the crimes that are associated with them. I believe those are repealers of those older provisions."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Talmadge, I think what's bothering Senator Lee and me is, what's the situation where you have nonconsensual physical battering, including rape and I don't care whether the female is twenty and the male is sixteen, but it's a forceable rape situation?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, in a forceable rape situation, the statutes relating to rape remain in place. What this is attempting to do is to clarify the circumstances of nonconsensual sexual conduct, so to speak, and in the circumstances where forceable rape and violence are involved, the statutes relating to rape continue to apply, regardless of the age of the perpetrator."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Second Substitute House Bill No. 684 was deferred.

The legislature urges business, industry, and philanthropic community organizations to join with state government in making this program successful.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2.Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.
(1) “Conditional scholarship” means a loan that is forgiven in whole or in part if the recipient renders service as a teacher in the public schools of this state.

(5) Solicit and accept grants and donations from public and private sources for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The higher education coordinating board shall establish a planning committee to develop criteria for the screening and selection of recipients of the conditional scholarships. These criteria shall emphasize factors demonstrating excellence including but not limited to superior scholastic achievement, leadership ability, community contributions, and an ability to act as a role model for targeted ethnic minority students. PREJUDGMENT GARNISHMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. Except as limited by RCW 7.33.060, relating to the state and other public entities, and RCW 7.33.350, relating to continuing liens on earnings, the plaintiff at the time of commencing an action, or at any time thereafter before judgment in an action, may obtain a prejudgment writ of garnishment from a superior or district court of this state before which the action is pending on the following grounds:

(1) If the writ is directed to other than an employer and for a purpose other than garnishing a defendant's earnings as defined in section 1001 of this act, (a) on the ground that an attachment has been issued in accordance with chapter 7.12 RCW, (b) on the ground that the plaintiff sues on a debt that is due and owing and unpaid, or (c) on one or more of the grounds for issuance of attachment stated in RCW 7.12.020 or 7.12.030; or

(2) If the writ is directed to an employer for the purpose of garnishing earnings of a defendant, on the grounds that the defendant:

(a) Is not a resident of this state, or is about to move from this state; or

(b) Has concealed himself or herself, absconded, or absented himself or herself so that ordinary process of law cannot be served on him or her; or
(c) Has removed or is about to remove any of his or her property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud him or her creditors.

Sec. 902. Section 3, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.030 are each amended to read as follows:

In all cases of garnishment before judgment, before the writ shall issue, the plaintiff shall pay the fee described in RCW 7.33.040 and shall execute and file with the clerk a bond with ((two or more good and)) sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that ((the)) the plaintiff will prosecute ((him)) the suit without delay and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him or her for wrongfully suing out such garnishment((—PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall prohibit a credit agency, or other party contemplating multiple garnishments before judgment, from posting one large bond covering more than one garnishment proceeding)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. In an action on the bond under RCW 7.33.030, if it is shown that the garnishment was wrongfully sued out, the defendant may recover the actual damages sustained and reasonable attorney’s fees to be fixed by the court. If it is shown that such garnishment was sued out maliciously, the defendant may also recover exemplary damages, and the defendant need not wait until the principal suit is determined before suing on the bond by counterclaim in the original action or in a separate action.

Sec. 904. Section 34, chapter 264, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 61. Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 7.33.340 are each amended to read as follows:

In all actions in which a prejudgment writ of garnishment has been issued by a court and served upon a garnishee, in the event judgment is not entered for the plaintiff on the claim sued upon by plaintiff, and the claim has not voluntarily been settled or otherwise satisfied, the defendant shall have an action for damages against the plaintiff. The defendant’s action for damages may be brought by way of a counterclaim in the original action or in a separate action and, in the action the trier of fact, in addition to other actual damages sustained by the defendant, may award (him) the defendant reasonable attorney’s fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. The plaintiff or someone on the plaintiff’s behalf shall apply for a prejudgment writ of garnishment by affidavit, alleging that the garnishment is not sought and the action is not prosecuted to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant and also alleging that the defendant has reason to believe and does believe the following, together with specific facts on which the plaintiff’s belief in the allegations is based: (1) That the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff (specifying the nature of the claim and the amount of such indebtedness over and above all just credits and offsets); (2) that one or more of the grounds for prejudgment garnishment established in section 901 of this act exists; (3) that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating the garnishee’s name and residence or place of business, is indebted to the defendant in amounts exceeding those exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law, or that the garnishee has possession or control of personal property or effects belonging to the defendant which are not exempted from garnishment by any state or federal law; (4) whether or not the garnishee is the employer of the defendant; and (5) if the action is based on a debt not due, that nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness due from the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. (1) When application is made for a prejudgment writ of garnishment, the court shall issue the writ in substantially the form prescribed in RCW 7.33.050, 7.33.120, and 7.33.110 directing that the garnishee withhold an amount as prescribed in RCW 7.33.090, but, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the court shall issue the writ only after prior notice to the defendant, given in the manner prescribed in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, with an opportunity for a prior hearing at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the plaintiff’s claim and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(2) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the court shall issue the writ without prior notice to the defendant and without an opportunity for a prior hearing only if:

(a) A ground alleged in the plaintiff’s affidavit is: (1) A ground appearing in section 901(2)(c) of this act if the writ is directed to a garnishee in an action under RCW 7.33.030(1) of the attachment chapter; or (ii) if garnishment is necessary to permit the court to acquire jurisdiction over the action, the ground alleged is one appearing in RCW 7.12.020 (1) through (4) or in section 901(2) (a) or (b) of this act; and

(b) The court finds on the basis of specific facts, after an ex parte hearing, that there is probable cause to believe the allegations of the plaintiff’s affidavit.

(3) If a writ is issued under subsection (2) of this section without prior notice to the defendant, after service of the writ on the garnishee, the defendant shall be entitled to prompt notice of the garnishment and a right to an early hearing. If requested, at which the plaintiff shall establish the probable validity of the claim sued on and that there is probable cause to believe that the alleged ground for garnishment exists.

(4) When notice and a hearing are required under this section, notice may be given by a show cause order stating the date, time, and place of the hearing. Notice required under this section shall be jurisdictional and, except as provided for published notice in subsection (5) of this section, notice required under this section shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action and shall be served together with (a) copies of plaintiff's affidavit and of the writ and (b) a copy of the following "Notice of Right to a Hearing" or, if defendant is an individual, a copy of the claim form and the "Notice of Garnishment and of Your Rights" prescribed by section 1014 of this act, in which the following notice is substituted for the first paragraph of said Notice:

Service of this notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO A HEARING. At the hearing, the plaintiff must give evidence that there is probable cause to believe that the statements in the enclosed affidavit are true and also that the claim stated in the lawsuit is probably valid, or else the garnishment will be released.

(5) If service of notice on the defendant must be effected by publication, only the following notice need be published under the caption of the case:

To, Defendant:

A writ of prejudgment garnishment has been issued in the above captioned case, directed to ....... as Garnishee Defendant, commanding the Garnishee to withhold amounts due you or to withhold any of your property in the Garnishee's possession or control for application to any judgment that may be entered for plaintiff in the case.

If the defendant is an individual, the following paragraph shall be added to the published notice:

YOU MAY ALSO HAVE A RIGHT TO HAVE THE GARNISHMENT RELEASED if amounts or property withheld are exempt under federal or state statutes, for example, bank accounts in which benefits such as Aid to Families with Dependent children (AFDC), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security, United States pension, Unemployment Compensation, or Veterans' benefits have been deposited or certain personal property described in section 6.16.020 of the Revised Code of Washington.

NOTICE OF GARNISHMENT AND OF YOUR RIGHTS

A Writ of Garnishment issued by a Washington court has been or will be served on the garnishee named in the attached copy of the writ. After receipt of the writ, the garnishee is required to withhold payment of any money that was due to you and to withhold any other property of yours that the garnishee held or controlled. This notice of your rights is required by law.

YOU HAVE THE FOLLOWING EXEMPTION RIGHTS:

WAGES. If the garnishee is your employer who owes wages or other personal earnings to you, your employer is required to pay amounts to you that are exempt under state and federal laws, as explained in the writ of garnishment. You should receive a copy of your employer's answer, which will show how the exempt amount was calculated. If the garnishment is for child support, the exempt amount paid to you will be forty percent of wages due you, but if you are supporting a spouse or dependent child, you are entitled to claim an additional ten percent as exempt.

BANK ACCOUNTS. If the garnishee is a bank or other institution with which you have an account in which you have deposited benefits such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security, veterans' benefits, unemployment compensation, or a United States pension, you may claim the account as fully exempt if you have deposited only such benefit funds in the account. It may be partially exempt even though you have deposited money from other sources in the same account. An exemption is also available under RCW 26.16.200.
providing that funds in a community bank account that can be identified as the earnings of a stepparent are exempt from a garnishment on the child support obligation of the parent.

OTHER EXEMPTIONS. If the garnishee holds other property of yours, some or all of it may be exempt under RCW 6.16.020, a Washington statute that exempts up to five hundred dollars of property of your choice (including up to one hundred dollars in cash or in a bank account) and certain property such as household furnishings, tools of trade, and a motor vehicle (all limited by differing dollar values).

HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS. Fill out the enclosed claim form and mail or deliver it as described in instructions on the claim form. If the plaintiff does not object to your claim, the funds or other property that you have claimed as exempt must be released not later than 10 days after the plaintiff receives your claim form. If the plaintiff objects, the law requires a hearing not later than 14 days after the plaintiff receives your claim form, and notice of the objection and hearing date will be mailed to you at the address that you put on the claim form.

THE LAW ALSO PROVIDES OTHER EXEMPTION RIGHTS. IF NECESSARY, AN ATTORNEY CAN ASSIST YOU TO ASSERT THESE AND OTHER RIGHTS, BUT YOU MUST ACT IMMEDIATELY TO AVOID LOSS OF RIGHTS BY DELAY.

(2) The claim form required by RCW 7.33.320(1) to be mailed to or served on an individual judgment debtor shall be in the following form, printed or typed in type no smaller than elite type:

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation and benefits paid:

(i) If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award; PROVIDED. That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation and benefits paid:

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title; PROVIDED. That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees;

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1)(d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person:

(2) The recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of the warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

Sec. 1120. Section 35, chapter 43, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, Laws of 1986 and RCW 51.48.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or the director's designee is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, a public corporation, or any agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind whatsoever when he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or any agency of the state, property which is or shall become due, owing, or belonging to any employer upon whom a notice of assessment has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The effect of a notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be continuous from the date such notice and order to withhold and deliver is first made until the liability out of which such notice and order to withhold and deliver arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable because of lapse of time. The department shall release the notice and order to withhold and deliver when the liability out of which the notice and order to withhold and deliver arose is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time and shall notify the person against whom the notice and order to withhold and deliver was made that such notice and order to withhold and deliver has been released.

The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any duly authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation or any agency of the state upon whom service has been made is hereby required to answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with a notice and order to withhold and deliver, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's duly authorized representative upon service of the notice to withhold and deliver which will be held in trust by the director for application on the employer's indebtedness to the department, or for return without interest, in accordance with a final determination of a petition for review, or in the alternative such party shall furnish a good and sufficient surety bond satisfactory to the director conditioned upon final determination of liability. Should any party served and named in the notice to withhold and deliver fail to make answer to such notice and order to withhold and deliver, within the time prescribed herein, it shall be lawful for the court, after the time to answer such order has expired, to render judgment by default against the party named in the notice to withhold and deliver for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice to withhold and deliver together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, then the employer shall be entitled to assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW (sections 1001 through 1035 of this 1987 act) to which the wage earner may be entitled.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 927, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 995, by Committee on Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Todd, Cantwell, Crane, Cooper, Leonard and Nutley)

Establishing a mobile home park purchase fund.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Warnke moved that the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds:

(a) That manufactured housing and mobile home parks provide a source of low-cost housing to the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, without which they could not afford private housing; but rising costs of mobile home park development and operation, as well as turnover in ownership, has resulted in mobile home park living becoming unaffordable to the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, resulting in increased numbers of homeless persons, and persons who must look to public housing and public programs, increasing the burden on the state to meet the housing needs of its residents;

(b) That state government can play a vital role in addressing the problems confronted by mobile home park residents by providing assistance which makes it possible for mobile home park residents to acquire the mobile home parks in which they reside and convert them to resident ownership; and

(c) That to accomplish this purpose, information and technical support shall be made available through the department of community development.

(2) Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature, in order to maintain low-cost housing in mobile home parks to benefit the low income, elderly, poor and infirmed, to encourage and facilitate the conversion of mobile home parks to resident ownership, to protect low-income mobile home park residents from both physical and economic displacement, to obtain a high level of private financing for mobile home park conversions, and to help establish acceptance for resident-owned mobile home parks in the private market.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following definitions shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Affordable" means that, where feasible, low-income residents should not pay more than thirty percent of their monthly income for housing costs.

(2) "Conversion costs" includes the cost of acquiring the mobile home park, the costs of planning and processing the conversion, the costs of any needed repairs or rehabilitation, and any expenditures required by a government agency or lender for the project.

(3) "Department" means the department of community development.

(4) "Fund" means the mobile home park purchase fund created pursuant to section 4 of this act.

(5) "Housing costs" means the total cost of owning, occupying, and maintaining a mobile home and a lot or space in a mobile home park.

(6) "Individual interest in a mobile home park" means any interest which is fee ownership or a lesser interest which entitles the holder to occupy a lot or space in a mobile home park for a period of not less than either fifteen years or the life of the holder. Individual interests in a mobile home park include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Ownership of a lot or space in a mobile home park or subdivision;

(b) A membership or shares in a stock cooperative, or a limited equity housing cooperative; or

(c) Membership in a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation which owns, operates, or owns and operates the mobile home park.

(7) "Low-income resident" means an individual or household who resided in the mobile home park prior to application for a loan pursuant to this chapter and with an annual income at or below eighty percent of the median income for the county of standard metropolitan statistical area of residence. Net worth shall be considered in the calculation of income with the exception of the resident's mobile/manufactured home which is used as their primary residence.

(8) "Low-income spaces" means those spaces in a mobile home park operated by a resident organization which are occupied by low-income residents.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the park owner's right to exert full management and control of a portion of a park retained in the case of a sale of a portion of a mobile home park to a resident organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The mobile home park purchase fund is hereby created and shall be maintained in the office of the treasurer. The purpose of this fund is to provide loans according to the provisions of this chapter and for related administrative costs of the department. The fund shall include appropriations, loan repayments, interest, and any other money from private sources made available to the state for the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Subject to appropriation, the department may make loans from the fund to resident organizations for the purpose of financing mobile home park conversion costs, as defined in this chapter.

(2) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than three years and shall bear interest at a competitive rate set by the department and adjusted by the department when necessary.

(3) Loans granted pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to enable a resident organization to acquire and convert the mobile home park in which its members reside. However, in no case shall the loan amount exceed fifty percent of the approved conversion costs.

(4) The department shall only make loans to resident organizations of mobile home parks where a significant portion of the residents are low income, elderly, poor, or infirmed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department may make loans from the fund to low-income residents of mobile home parks converted to resident ownership or to resident organizations which have converted or plan to convert a mobile home park to resident ownership. The purpose of providing loans pursuant to this section is to reduce the monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level.

(2) Loans provided pursuant to this section shall be for a term of no more than thirty years and shall bear interest at a competitive rate set by the department.

(3) The department may establish flexible repayment terms for loans provided pursuant to this section if the terms are necessary to reduce monthly housing costs for low-income residents to an affordable level and do not represent an unacceptable risk to the security of the fund.

(4) Loans provided to low-income residents pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to reduce the borrower's monthly housing costs to an affordable level. However, in no case shall loan amounts exceed fifty percent of the acquisition costs of the interests in the mobile home park. In addition, the total indebtedness upon individual interests may not exceed ninety percent of the value of the interests.

(5) Loans provided to resident organizations pursuant to this section shall be for the least amount necessary to reduce the monthly housing costs of low-income residents to an affordable level. However, in no case shall the loan amounts exceed fifty percent of the conversion costs attributable to the low-income spaces. Funds provided pursuant to this section shall not be used to assist residents who are not low-income, or to reduce monthly housing costs for low-income residents to less than thirty percent of their monthly income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In determining the eligibility for, and the amount of, loans pursuant to sections 5 and 6 of this act, the department shall take into consideration, among other factors, all of the following: (1) The reasonableness of the conversion costs relating to repairs, rehabilitation, construction, or other costs; (2) whether or not the project complements the implementation of a local housing program to preserve or increase the supply of housing for persons and families of low or moderate income; (3) whether or not state funds are utilized in the most efficient and effective manner in the furtherance of the goals of this chapter; and (4) any administrative and security factors affecting the department's program operation and administration.

To the extent consistent with requests for assistance, the department shall allocate funds available for the purposes of this chapter throughout the state in accordance with identified housing needs, including seeking to allocate not less than twenty percent to rural areas.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The department shall adopt regulations for the administration and implementation of this chapter.

(2) The department shall obtain the best available security for loans made pursuant to this chapter. The security may be in the form of a note, deed of trust, assignment of lease, or other form of security on real or personal property which the department determines is adequate to protect the security of the fund and the interests of the state. To the extent applicable, these security documents shall be recorded or referenced in a recorded document in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the mobile home park is located.

(3) The department shall exercise sufficient regulatory control with respect to park operations to assure the accomplishment of the purposes of the program authorized by this chapter.

(4) Before providing financing pursuant to this chapter, the department shall require provision of, and approve, at least the following:

(a) Verification that at least two-thirds of the households residing in the mobile home park support the plan for acquisition and conversion of the park;

(b) Verification that either no park residents will be involuntarily displaced as a result of the park conversion, or the impacts of displacement will be mitigated so as not to impose an unreasonable hardship on the displaced resident or residents;

(c) Verification that the conversion is consistent with local zoning and land use requirements, other applicable state and local laws, and regulations and ordinances;

(d) Projected costs and sources of funds for all conversion activities;

(e) Projected operating budget for the park during and after conversion;

(f) A management plan for the conversion and operation of the park; and

(g) If necessary, a relocation plan, funded by the resident organization, for residents not participating.

(5) The department shall, to the greatest extent feasible, do both of the following:

(a) Require participation by cities and counties in loan applications submitted pursuant to this chapter; and

(b) Contract with private lenders or units of local government to provide program administration and to service loans made pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department shall provide technical assistance to resident organizations or low-income residents who wish to convert the mobile home park in which they reside to resident ownership or to acquire an individual interest in a mobile home park. Technical assistance provided under this section shall be general in nature and shall not include the final details connected with the sale or conversion of a mobile home park which would require the department to act in a representative capacity, or would require the department to draft documents affecting legal or property rights of the parties.

(2) As part of the general assistance to mobile home resident organizations, park owners, and landlords and tenants, the department shall establish an office of mobile home affairs which will serve as the coordinating office within state government for matters relating to mobile homes or manufactured housing.

This office will provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to problems and disputes between park owners and park residents and to provide technical assistance under subsection (1) of this section. The office will keep records of its activities in this area.

This office will also provide an ombudsman service to mobile home park owners and mobile home tenants with respect to accessing governmental services related to health and safety within mobile home parks.

This office will further recommend policies and strategies that will promote the development and utilization of mobile homes or manufactured housing and the conversion of mobile home parks to resident ownership as a means of enhancing the supply of safe, sanitary, low and moderate-income housing within the state, and advise the legislature, executive agencies of state government, and local government entities accordingly.

The office may not consider, evaluate, or develop policies or any means of government controlling the economic return to mobile home park owners resulting from operation of their parks.

(3) The department shall establish the mobile home and manufactured housing affairs advisory committee. The committee shall consist of five members appointed by the director of the department of community development. The committee shall be comprised of one representative of mobile home park tenants, one representative of mobile home park owners, and one representative of the public at large, each of whom shall be knowledgeable and have practical experience with the mobile home landlord tenant act, one representative of mobile home manufacturers and one representative of local governments. Only the representatives of the mobile home park tenants, mobile home park owners, and the public at large shall review and advise the office on issues relating to the mobile home landlord tenant act. The director of the department of community development shall appoint the committee chairperson. The entire committee shall advise the office in implementing the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The members of the committee shall not receive compensation or reimbursement for travel expenses.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Within two years of the completion of a sufficient number of mobile home park conversions to allow for meaningful evaluation, the department shall undertake an evaluation of the program established by this chapter, and submit its findings to the legislature. However, in no event shall this report be submitted later than December 31, 1990. This evaluation shall include an examination of the financial, governmental, and institutional constraints on the conversion of mobile home parks: the impact of park conversions upon low-income residents, including those residents who moved from the parks during the conversion process or within one year after conversion; the distribution and average income and assets of residents who have participated; data on loan delinquencies and defaults; the costs of acquiring and converting mobile home parks to resident ownership; and a comparison of different resident ownership structures financed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 59 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter shall remain in effect until July 1, 1991, and as of that date is repealed, unless that date is extended.

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following amendment to the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

On page 5, line 25 of the amendment, after "chapter," insert "Owners of mobile home parks shall not be assessed for the purposes of this fund."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Warnke carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "assistance;" strike the remainder of the title, and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 59 RCW; and providing an expiration date."

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 995, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Warnke, I note the creation of a loan fund and the money is to be loaned to mobile home park occupants and so forth. You are rather unclear as to where that money comes from. Can you tell us where they are going to get that money?"

Senator Warnke: "I'll have to look that up and get right back to you. I know it is a revolving fund where we establish the fund first and the fees generated to the tenants will pick up that money and pay back to the DCD, but let me pick it up here and I'll give it to you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, you mentioned that in the case where a mobile home park location was to be sold, that this would allow the tenants to move in and buy, if they so desire. We had one in Tacoma and the tenants were evicted and it is now part of Tacoma Mall. Is it meant that the tenants will have to buy at the price that the owner wants, or will he have to sell if he doesn't want to sell and does it contain the power of eminent domain?"

Senator Warnke: "It does not contain eminent domain. The tenants must bid at the fair market price, or meet the bid that comes to that owner from some other purchaser."

Senator Rasmussen: "They will have to bid on the open market?"

Senator Warnke: "Absolutely."

Senator Rasmussen: "How big a fund, as Senator Newhouse asked, are we going to have established? I think Senator Newhouse already asked, too, is it coming out of the general fund or out of the air? It is a serious problem and I am just wondering what the details are of how we are going to solve it without the powers of eminent domain?"

Senator Warnke: "Senator Newhouse and Senator Rasmussen, in the bill it says that an appropriation will be made to DCD. Also, they will use private funds, loan repayments, interest and other money from private sources that's made available to the fund, so there will be an appropriation made, but this bill does not contain an appropriation and we would hope that the budget would have some money for DCD and to establish this loan."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, I heard something else in there that this fund was going to be raised by increased rents to the tenants of mobile parks. That's what their problem is now. Are they going to put an additional charge on each person's rental?"

Senator Warnke: "No, Senator, I did not say that. What I said was 'repayment loans. interest.' If, from the loan fund, a group of tenants are granted a loan to purchase a park, they will repay that money to the DCD loan, plus interest. The interest then would go to pay off the initial appropriation to the fund established in DCD. It has nothing to do with rent, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 995, as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment to the committee amendment expands the scope and object of Substitute House Bill No. 244. The bill is really one calculated to deal with exemptions to public disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act a portion of the Public Disclosure Act. This particular amendment deals with something that is more involved in the political sphere and I believe it expands the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 244 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 324, by Committee on Constitution, Elections and Ethics (originally sponsored by Representatives Fisher, Madsen, Vekich, Pruitt and Fisch)

Revising public disclosure exemptions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 3, strike everything on lines 15 through 24 and insert the following:
(g) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by businesses during application for loans or program services provided by chapters 43.31, 43.63A, and 43.168 RCW.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 324, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 324, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 324, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 324, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 419, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Hargrove, Wineberry, Padden, Brekke, Holm, Patrick, Winsley, Brough, Silver and Moyer) (by request of Department of Social and Health Services)

Providing for administrative determination of paternity.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The state of Washington through the department of social and health services is required by state and federal statutes to provide paternity establishment services. These statutes require that reasonable efforts to establish paternity be made, if paternity of the child is in question. in all public assistance cases and whenever such services are requested in nonassistance cases.

The increasing number of children being born out of wedlock together with improved awareness of the benefits to the child and society of having paternity established have resulted in a greater demand on the existing judicial paternity establishment system.

Sec. 2. Section 23, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.280 are each amended to read as follows:

While discharging its responsibilities to enforce the support obligations of responsible parents, the department shall respect the right of privacy of recipients of public assistance and of other persons. Any inquiry about sexual activity shall be limited to that necessary to ((receive a genuine dispute about the parentage of a child. When a custodial mother has informed the department that a particular man is the father of her child, the department shall make no further inquiry into her personal life unless the man so identified has denied that he is the father of such child))) identify and locate possible fathers and to gather facts needed in the adjudication of parentage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department of social and health services shall augment its present paternity establishment services through the hiring of additional assistant attorneys general, or contracting with prosecutors or private attorneys licensed in the state of Washington in those judicial districts experiencing delay or an accumulation of unserved paternity cases. The employment of private attorneys shall be limited in scope to renewable six-month periods in judicial districts where the prosecutor or the attorney general cannot provide adequate, cost-effective service. The department of social and health services shall provide a written report of the circumstances requiring employment of private attorneys to the judiciary committees of the senate and house of representatives and provide copies of such reports to the office of the attorney general and to the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The sum of four hundred sixty-seven thousand seven hundred eighty-seven dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the office of support enforcement for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, to carry out the required paternity establishment services.

Pursuant to RCW 26.26.060(2), the office of support enforcement within the department of social and health services shall utilize this appropriation for ensuring that full paternity services are provided as mandated by federal and state law.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "Senator Talmadge, I've known a few couples—and I've had them report to me—that ran out of work, couldn't feed their children and couldn't qualify for assistance as long as he was around there, so he would leave and she would get assistance to keep the kids from starving to death and then have the courts turn around and land him in the slammer, because he couldn't pay child support after he left. I think—is this going to answer that problem at all or are you just going to put him in the slammer?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, this is kind of a different issue. The whole area of child support is very controversial. The other three of the four measures dealing with child support are on hold and I think some people want to take a look at those issues and that's something that is perfectly appropriate given the controversy associated with them.

"What we have here is a little bit different problem. When someone comes into the local community service office and says, 'I need aid to families with dependent children, because I have a child and I am without any other means of support'—where there is some opportunity to discover who the father of the child is, the state has an interest in that and pursuing that individual for child support purposes. This simply sets up the process by which you determine who is the father of that child and who must pay child support. This is a much simpler way of doing it and is very consistent with what is being done all over the state and I believe, in fact, your prosecutors over in the central part of the state have been very good about entering into contracts with the Office of Support Enforcement to do this. I, personally, feel there is a greater protection to all of the individuals concerned, if it is done in the Superior Court rather than if it's done on a paper hearing basis in some administrative office."

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 782, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99 and the pending Committee on Financial Institutions striking amendment, deferred April 9, 1987.

Debate on the committee amendment ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "uninsurable;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 48.14 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.04 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 48 RCW; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Moore, this bill exempts the premiums of the pool from premium taxes and provides certain deductions and assessments from business and occupation taxes. Do you have any idea if that will impact the general fund or not? No, it won't—yes it will because, the Insurance Commissioner's premium taxes go into the general fund. Do you have any idea what that amount will be?"

Senator Moore: "I think, Senator, that since they are not getting insurance now, that there's no impact, if I understand the question."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, we don't know if they are getting insurance or not."

Senator Moore: "Excuse me, Senator, these people cannot get insurance and that is the reason this is somewhat of an emergency."

Senator Rasmussen: "So, that is your reason you say it will not impact the general fund, because at the present time they are not buying this insurance—it's not available?"

Senator Moore: "That's correct."
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Moore, as I understand it, this program is set up for those people who cannot get insurance at the present time. Does that include insurance for AIDS?"

Senator Moore: "This would include anybody that was unable to get insurance. They would be eligible, under the rules the Insurance Commissioner sets up. They would be eligible to be insured."

Senator Bluechel: "How is the cost determined on something like this?"

Senator Moore: "It's going to be eventually determined actuarially. To start with, the premium will probably be one hundred and fifty percent of what the normal premium is."

Senator Bluechel: "It would seem to me that won't even begin to cover some of the problems that people have with very serious diseases, including AIDS or cancer or something like that—that the premium couldn't even start. Is this realistic?"

Senator Moore: "Senator Bluechel, there are a lot of things we do around here that, perhaps, are not totally realistic. We do make some brave, bold, new attempts to solve problems and I trust that this is one and if it isn't perfect, you know we will be back in January to take another look."

President Pro Tempore Rasmussen assumed the chair.

Further debate on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate, ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator McDermott, in our committee, I was one of the ones who signed this bill out and I would have preferred it to go to Ways and Means. The question that Senator Bluechel asked is one that, does this include AIDS and if it does, what are the costs? I think Senator Moore's statement that 'well, we can come back and tune it up next year,' but next year, once we adopt a program, maybe then there are people who would have a legal right to that program and it isn't so easy to come back and fix it up next year. I'd like to know what are the costs that we are talking about here?"

Senator McDermott: "Well, Senator, you asked several questions. Let me talk about a couple of them. First of all, this bill has a six month waiting period in it, so people can't immediately come walking in with a serious illness and immediately get coverage. If people have AIDS, the problems are usually so acute that they are going to be dealt with in a public hospital. Right now, most of the AIDS cases are taken care of at public expense in public hospitals. The costs originally—in fact in the east, the costs now are in the hundreds of thousands of dollars, but in the west we have been treating them at much less than that and it has been done by using a variety of things besides in-hospital care, there have been half-way houses and a variety of other studies in which people can be cared for who have AIDS. AIDS is one hundred percent fatal. When people get it, there hasn’t been anybody who has recovered from it and so the situation is really of caring for the dying patient—much like we do in a hospital.

The costs presently are being paid for by the public, in most instances, because most people's insurance runs out with the cost of this. The people who have been getting it have been young people who are not insured and this is an opportunity for people to actually buy insurance, who know that they have some kind of illness—some kind of chronic disease. I think, in the long run, that it will be much less costly to the public, because it will be including in it the contribution from the patients themselves who bought the insurance. Right now, if they get sick, they wind up in a public hospital and we are paying for it without any contribution from the patient at all. I think, in the long run, this will be a less costly way to go."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Moore, I am just curious. On page 26, it says 'the plan includes and subsection (4) premiums set at one hundred and fifty percent of the standard group rate set for groups up to ten persons.' Does that establish the premium or the rate?"
Senator Moore: "That is a starting point, however, you'll notice that in the legislation it does refer to a board of directors making a final establishment based on their actuarial findings. You know one hundred and fifty percent might be the opening and it may be five hundred percent or maybe it will be fifty percent, but it will be based on some actuarial finding as we progress."

Senator Deccio: "Well, that was what I was getting at and that answers Senator Metcalf's concerns. The pool will set its own experience and set its own rate and could be as high as five hundred percent of the standard for groups of five, if I understand what the legislation does."

Senator Moore: "Exactly right."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 99, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 4.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Hayner, Metcalf - 4.

MOTIONS

Senator Warnke moved that the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 19, chapter 222, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 44, chapter 52, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.85.310 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature further finds that current economic conditions, federal housing policies and declining resources at the federal, state, and local level adversely affect the ability of low and very low-income persons to obtain safe, decent, and affordable housing.

The legislature further finds that members of over one hundred twenty thousand households live in housing units which are overcrowded, lack plumbing, are otherwise threatening to health and safety, and have rents and utility payments which exceed thirty percent of their income.

The legislature further finds that the homeless, minorities, rural households, and migrant farm workers require housing assistance at a rate which significantly exceeds their proportion of the general population.

The legislature further finds that one of the most dramatic housing problems is that of persons (needing special housing-related services) with specialized housing needs.
such as the mentally ill, recovering alcoholics, frail elderly persons, and single parents. (These services include medical assistance, counseling, chore services, and child care.)

The legislature finds that housing assistance programs in the past have often failed to help those in greatest need.

The legislature declares that it is in the public interest to establish a continuously renewable housing trust fund to assist low and very low-income citizens in meeting their basic housing needs, and that the needs of very low-income citizens should be given priority.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall use funds from the housing trust fund to finance in whole or in part any loans or grant projects that will provide housing for the homeless and persons and families with special housing needs and with incomes at or below fifty percent of the median family income for the county or standard metropolitan statistical area where the project is located. Not less than thirty percent of such funds used in any given biennium shall be for the benefit of projects located in rural areas as defined in 63 Stat. 432, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1471 et seq.

(2) Activities eligible for assistance include, but are not limited to:

(a) New construction, rehabilitation, or acquisition of low and very low-income housing units;

(b) Rent subsidies in new construction or rehabilitated multifamily units;

(c) [(Matching funds for social services directly related to providing housing for special-need tenants in assisted projects:)]

((((d))) (d)) Administrative costs for housing assistance groups or organizations when such grant or loan will substantially increase the recipient's access to housing funds other than those available under this chapter;

((((d))) (e)) Shelters and related services for the homeless;

((((d))) (f)) Mortgage subsidies for new construction or rehabilitation of eligible multifamily units;

(((d))) (g)) Mortgage insurance guarantee or payments for eligible projects; and (((d))) (h)) Acquisition of housing units for the purpose of preservation as low-income or very low-income housing.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 298, Laws of 1986 and RCW 43.185.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a fund in the office of the treasurer known as the Washington housing trust fund. (The treasurer shall serve as the trustee thereof and shall make disbursements therefrom as directed by this chapter:) The housing trust fund shall include revenue from the sources established by this chapter, appropriations by the legislature, private contributions, and all other sources. Eighty percent of the return on the fund in the form of investment income or interest shall be added to the principal of the fund. The remaining twenty percent shall be placed in the general fund.

Sec. 7. Section 19, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 67.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

If no claim is made for the prize within this time, the prize shall be ([(retained in the state lottery fund for further use as prizes)]) placed in the housing trust fund established by RCW 43.185.030 and all rights to the prize shall be extinguished.

Sec. 8. Section 24, chapter 7, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 375, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.70.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The moneys in the state lottery account shall be used only: (1) For the payment of prizes to the holders of winning lottery tickets or shares; (2) for purposes of making deposits into the reserve account created by RCW 67.70.250 and into the lottery administrative account created by RCW 67.70.260; (3) for purposes of making deposits into the state's general fund; (4) for purposes of making deposits into the housing trust fund under the provisions of section 7 of this 1987 act; (5) for the purchase and promotion of lottery games and game-related services; and ([(5)]) (6) for the payment of agent compensation.

"Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 123, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9A.44.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Sexual intercourse" (a) has its ordinary meaning and occurs upon any penetration, however slight, and

(b) Also means any penetration of the vagina or anus however slight, by an object, when committed on one person by another, whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex, except when such penetration is accomplished for medically recognized treatment or diagnostic purposes, and

(c) Also means any act of sexual contact between persons involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex.

(2) "Married" means one who is legally married to another, but does not include a person who is living separate and apart from his or her spouse and who has filed in an appropriate court for legal separation or for dissolution of his or her marriage.

(3) "Mental incapacity" is that condition existing at the time of the offense which prevents a person from understanding the nature or consequences of the act of sexual intercourse whether that condition is produced by illness, defect, the influence of a substance or from some other cause;

(4) "Physically helpless" means a person who is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act;

(5) "Forcible compulsion" means physical force which overcomes resistance, or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of death or physical injury to herself or himself or another person, or in fear that she or he or another person will be kidnapped;

(6) "Consent" means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse;

(7) "Counselor" means an individual, practitioner, therapist, or analyst who engages in the practice of counselling to the public with or without a fee.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 14, Laws of 1987 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:"
(1) A person is guilty of rape in the third degree when, under circumstances not constituting rape in the first or second degrees, such person engages in sexual intercourse with another person, not married to the perpetrator:

(a) Where the victim did not consent as defined in RCW 9A.44.010(6), to sexual intercourse with the perpetrator and such lack of consent was clearly expressed by the victim's words or conduct, or

(b) Where there is threat of substantial unlawful harm to property rights of the victim, or

(c) Where the perpetrator gained the consent of the victim through the relationship of serving as a counselor to the victim.

(2) Rape in the third degree is a class C felony.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Craswell, being a criminal practitioner myself, I look at these things rather carefully. When we deal with consent in laws relating to rape, specifically, the one provision that we do have is that if a victim was incapable of consent by reason of being helpless or mentally incapacitated, that's dealing with a person who is being taken advantage of because they are retarded or some other type of helpless situation. In this situation, we have a person who is a counselor and the language that you have on page 2, where the perpetrator has gained the consent of the victim through the relationship of serving as a counselor to the victim, by implication that's stating that the person is incapable of consent because of the counselor relationship, but it doesn't say that. It also doesn't say that at the time the charge was made that the consent needed to be revoked and it also, potentially, could make it so that the prosecutor could charge a count of rape in the third degree if, in fact, a patient did happen to fall in love with her counselor. That isn't your intent is it?"

Senator Craswell: "No, that wasn't the intent. But I think of course, if the person falls in love with a counselor, they are not going to be bringing charges."

Senator Halsan: "They don't bring the charges, the prosecutor does."

Senator Craswell: "I see. I really don't think it would be a problem, but I certainly would consider an amendment if you have a solution to that."

Senator Halsan: "I'd have to sit down and work on writing one."

Senator Craswell: "I would just say that there seems to be a problem out there, because we keep hearing over and over again that the counselor is taking advantage of the counselee and there seems to be nothing that could be done about it."

Senator Halsan: "Perhaps we could put some language that the consent was gained through—-I'd have to take a look at it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Halsan, do you know of any prosecutor that has ever brought a charge unless he has been notified about somebody falling in love with a counselor?"

Senator Halsan: "Well, I don't know about that specifically. That is not in the statute right now, but I have known situations in which charges have been brought that both the victim and the alleged perpetrator have both wanted the prosecutor not to proceed."

Senator Rasmussen: "There are many other major crimes they could be working on. I agree with you. However, I think Senator Craswell's amendment is very clear that if the counselor did engage in sexual efforts with the client, that they would be considered raping in the third degree. I think that's very clear."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Craswell, my concern would be and, hopefully, Senator Halsan will be able to come up with some language, that it could well be that the counselling relationship was the first relationship and then they did fall in love—the counselling stopped, the relationship changed and then the person got angry at some point down stream and said, 'He raped me.' I would see that as a kind of scenario that would make it very difficult to really sort out what was there.

'I've always believed that if we want to have a way of stopping sexual activity with counselors and their clients, that to call it a crime is certainly much better than the registration bill that we passed. I guess what I'd really like—the best alternative would be to teach everybody in this state that if you do have sex with your counselor or your therapist, recognize it's not therapy and it's your business what you do. If there is no force involved, than you are free to choose regardless of your emotional condition—that you clearly know going in that that's not therapy and you chose to engage in some activity, well, then it's your responsibility. So, that would be, for me, the best solution. that if we could work it out in some way that it becomes a crime, that would be much better than believing that the registration bill that we passed will do any good. Senator Craswell, as you very well pointed out, licensed physiologists and psychiatrists have been licensed for years and that has not stopped this particular practice."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Craswell to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, a point of inquiry. I don't know which amendment Senator Warnke is offering. I've got three on my desk. One of them is a single sheet that contains the snack foods, one is a more substantial sheet that contains snack foods and fortified wine, and then I've got this third one that just includes fortified wine. Now, which one are we on? Is it the single bill?"
REPLY BY SENATOR WARNKE

Senator Warnke: "Mr. President, the amendment we are on is S3023."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "Mr. President, I would challenge the scope and object of subsection (6) of this amendment which deals with snack foods which does not come under a licensor. This is a licensor title which deals with class S licenses for tree trade zones for liquor and does not deal with snack foods."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Croswell: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the amendment on scope and object. Establishing the family independence program.

MOTIONS

Senator Wojahn moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. SHORT TITLE. This chapter may be cited as the family independence program.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. INTENT. The legislature hereby establishes as state policy the goal of economic independence for employable adults receiving public assistance, through employment, training, and education. The legislature finds that children living in families with incomes below the needs standard have reduced opportunities for physical and intellectual development. A family's economic future is frequently not improved by the current program.

Therefore, in order to break the cycle of poverty and dependence, a family independence program is established. Participating families are to receive benefits under this program at no less than they would otherwise have been entitled to receive.

The legislature finds that the state has a vital interest in ensuring that citizens who are in economic need are provided appropriate financial assistance. It is the intent of the legislature to maintain the existing partnership between state and federal government and that this program remain part of the federal welfare entitlement program. The legislature seeks federal authority for a five-year demonstration project and recognizes that waivers and congressional action may be required to achieve our purpose. The legislature does not seek a block grant approach to welfare.

The legislature recognizes that any program intended to assist new and current public assistance recipients will be more likely to succeed when the state, private sector, and recipients work together.

The legislature also recognizes the value of building on successful programs that utilize the development of networking and mentoring strategies to assist public assistance recipients to gain self-sufficiency. The legislature further encourages public-private cooperation in the areas of job readiness training, education, job training, and work opportunities.

The legislature finds that the goal of economic independence requires increased efforts to assist parents in exercising their children's right to economic support from absent parents.

The legislature recognizes the substantial participation in the workforce of women with preschool children, and the difficulty in reentering employment after long absences.

The legislature further recognizes that public assistance recipients can play a major role in setting their own goals.

The objectives of this chapter are to assure that: The maximum number of recipients of public assistance become independent and self-sufficient through employment, training, and education; financial incentives be available to recipients participating in job readiness, education, training, and work programs; the number of children growing up in poverty be substantially reduced; and unemployable recipients be afforded a basic level of financial and medical assistance consistent with the state's financial capabilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context requires to the contrary, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Benchmark standard" is the basic monthly level of cash benefits, established according to family size, which equals the state's payment standard under the aid to families with dependent children program, plus an amount not less than the full cash equivalent of food stamps for which any family of such size would otherwise be eligible.

(1) Upon implementation of the family independence program, all applicants for public assistance, except persons eligible for assistance under the general assistance—unemployable program, shall be enrolled in the family independence program and shall be eligible to receive financial and medical benefits under the following criteria:

(a) A person who is a “dependent child” as defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 606(a) or 42 U.S.C. Sec. 607(a), the caretaker relative(s) with whom the dependent child resides, or a pregnant woman as defined in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 606(b); and

(c) A person whose income does not exceed the benchmark standard plus appropriate incentive benefit payments established in accordance with this chapter. However, subject to subsection (2) of this section and section 18 of this act, the department may limit family independence program eligibility to exclude those new applicants whose monthly income would render them ineligible for aid to families with dependent children benefits under the payment level in effect at the time of the application. For the purposes of this subsection, a new applicant is a person who has not been a recipient of aid to families with dependent children or an enrollee for ninety days prior to application.

(2) Subject to the availability of funds for family independence program benefits, the department may expand eligibility to authorize family independence program benefits for additional categories of persons, but the department shall ensure that no person who would be eligible for benefits under the program requirements in place in this state as of January 1, 1988, pursuant to Titles IV-A and XIX of the federal social security act shall be denied financial or medical benefits under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. FAMILY INDEPENDENCE PROGRAM—EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—ADVISORY COMMITTEE—RECORDS—QUORUM—COMPENSATION AND TRAVEL EXPENSES. (1) The family independence program executive committee is hereby established.

(2) The executive committee shall consist of seven members as follows: Three representatives of social and health services, the commissioner of the employment security department, the senior official from each of those agencies who is responsible for the family independence program, an official of the office of financial management, and two nonvoting individuals with children under eighteen years of age who have received public assistance in the past but have subsequently achieved economic independence. The former recipient members of the executive committee shall be selected by the advisory committee. The former recipient representatives on the committee shall hold a nonrenewable term of not more than two years. The former recipient representatives shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The executive committee shall appoint and consult with an advisory committee of not less than ten or more than twenty members broadly representative of business, labor, education, community, enrollee, civic groups, and the public at large. The membership shall be geographically balanced with one-third of the membership composed of enrollees or community members in accordance with section 6 of this act. The advisory committee members shall serve terms of two years. In addition, the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate shall appoint a member of each caucus of the legislature to the advisory committee.

The initial terms of the advisory committee members shall be staggered in a manner determined by the executive committee. In the event of a vacancy on the advisory committee due to death, resignation, or removal of one of the advisory committee members, and upon the expiration of the term of any member, the executive committee shall appoint a successor from a list supplied by the family opportunity councils for a term expiring on the second anniversary of the successor’s date of the appointment, except that vacancies in a position appointed by a legislative officer shall be filled by that officer. Advisory committee members may be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(7) Three members of the executive committee constitute a quorum. The executive committee may act on the basis of motions. Motions shall be adopted upon the affirmative vote of a majority of a quorum of members present at any meeting of the executive committee. A vacancy in the membership of the committee does not impair the power of the committee to act under this chapter. However, in the case of a vacancy in one of the offices which constitutes the membership of the committee, the individual acting in the capacity of that officer shall also act as a member of the committee.

(8) The executive committee shall consult with the advisory committee on significant matters before taking action on such matters. Matters of significance include but are not limited to the nature and extent of contracts with private or nonprofit entities, decisions to modify incentive payments, and a right to review and comment upon the employment and child care plans and all reports submitted to the legislature, prior to their submission. The meetings of the executive committee are subject to chapter 42.30 RCW, the open public meetings act. The advisory committee shall study approaches to allow children in poverty to grow up healthy with self-confidence and the ability to break the cycle of dependence that can result form inadequate nutrition, housing, and other basic needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. FAMILY OPPORTUNITY COUNCILS. (1) The executive committee shall establish a family opportunity advisory council in each of the department’s regions to make recommendations on the social services, procedures, and income maintenance operations used in the family independence program. The councils shall also assist in providing mentors, mutual self-help, and information on alternatives to welfare dependency. The councils shall include: (a) Individuals currently receiving assistance; (b) individuals with children under eighteen years of age who have received public assistance in the past but have subsequently achieved economic independence; and (c) persons who are board members or employees of nonprofit organizations providing services of the types offered to family independence program recipients, including those with experience in developing self-esteem and individual motivation. A regional advisory council may establish panels representing specific geographic areas within the region.

(2) Each advisory council shall nominate three persons from which the executive committee shall elect one person from each region to be a member of the advisory committee authorized by section 5 of this act. Appointments shall be for a term of two years. Three regional appointments shall initially be for a term of one year. (2) The executive committee may mandate the participation of enrollees in education, training, or work activities, subject to the following:

(a) There shall be no mandatory participation of enrollees in education, training, or work activities during the first two years after implementation of this chapter;

After the first two years, participation in training, education, or work activities may become mandatory in regions in which the family independence program has been implemented in accordance with this chapter, in which more than fifty percent of the job-ready enrollees obtained placements within three months of the time they became assessed as job-ready, and in which incentive benefit payment levels are set as initially required under section 15 of this act;

(c) If mandatory participation is suspended, it may be suspended by rule on a county or regional basis, but may be retained for a discrete group of enrollees;

(d) When participation in work and training requirements becomes mandatory, the following persons are exempt from the mandatory participation requirement:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. TRAINING AND EDUCATION ACTIVITIES. (1) The department of social and health services and the employment security department shall provide education and training opportunities to enrollees when appropriate, pursuant to the employability plan required in section 19 of this act, and shall emphasize efforts which prepare enrollees for long-term unsubsidized employment and economic independence. This shall include opportunities for:

of the self-sufficiency plan, or an administrative review if mutual agreement cannot be achieved.

(3) Within available funds, the department shall provide for payment of support services including child care and family independence program benefits at the benefit incentive level for education and training as set forth in section 15 of this act to support appropriate training and education programs of enrollees. NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. DUE PROCESS PROCEDURES. The executive committee shall direct the department of social and health services and the employment security department to adopt rules providing due process of law protections to applicants for and recipients of family independence program benefits. The requirements shall confer protections no less than those which the federal statutes and regulations confer on participants in the food stamp, aid to families with dependent children, and work incentive programs. The protections shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The department shall provide adequate advance written notice to applicants or enrollees of any agency action to deny, award, reduce, terminate, increase, or suspend benefits or to change the manner or form of payment or of any agency action requiring the enrollee to take any action. Adequate notice includes a statement of what action the agency intends to take, the reasons for the intended agency action, the specific rules supporting the action, an explanation of the individual's right to request an administrative fair hearing, how to request one, and the circumstances under which assistance is continued pending such a hearing if requested.

(2) Advance notice must be mailed to enrollees at least ten days prior to the date on which the proposed action would become effective.

(3) An applicant or enrollee aggrieved by an action or decision of the departments, including requiring or denying participation in a work, training, or education activity, has the right to request a fair hearing to be conducted by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.12 and 34.04 RCW. The aggrieved person is entitled to all fair hearing rights provided under RCW 74.08.070 and to the right of judicial review therefrom as provided in RCW 74.08.080.

(4) When an enrollee requests a hearing during the advance notice period, the department shall not implement the challenged action until a written decision is rendered after a hearing. The advance notice period is the period prior to the effective date of the proposed action or ten days from the date of adequate written notice, whichever is later. Any assistance received pending a hearing or hearing decision may be considered to be an overpayment if the decision is against the enrollee.

(5) Financial, food stamp, and medical assistance shall be furnished to eligible individuals in a timely manner and shall be continued regularly to all eligible individuals until they are found to be ineligible. Applications should be disposed of as soon as possible in accordance with 7 C.F.R. Sec. 273.2 (g) and (l) and 45 C.F.R. Sec. 206.10 and no later than thirty days from the date of application unless good cause applies. Prior to denial or termination of family independence program cash or noncash benefits, each family's eligibility for financial assistance, medical assistance, and food stamp benefits shall be determined.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. NONCASH BENEFITS AND REQUIRED FINANCIAL PARTICIPATION. (1) When an enrollee ceases to receive family independence program cash benefits as a result of increased earnings, the enrollee shall be eligible to receive family independence program noncash child care and medical benefits for a period of one year following the cessation of family independence program cash eligibility.

(2) The executive committee may authorize the department to require financial participation based on income of the enrollee in the cost of the family independence program noncash benefits, but such financial participation requirement shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the cost of the noncash benefit or twenty-five percent of the amount by which the family's income exceeds the maximum income level, whichever is less.

(3) No person may be required to participate in the cost of medical benefits if the person would have been eligible for medicare benefits at no additional cost under the medically needy income levels or the program requirements in effect as of January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. LIMITATIONS ON SUBSIDIZED AND UNSUBSIDIZED EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS. (1) Enrollees referred to subsidized and unsubsidized employment positions established pursuant to this chapter shall not be considered employees of the executive committee or the state solely because of their status as enrollees in the family independence program. Enrollees in subsidized and unsubsidized employment positions established pursuant to this chapter shall be considered employees of the agency or employer sponsoring their employment. Enrollees in such subsidized and unsubsidized positions shall receive and enjoy the following protections and benefits of the sponsoring employer including, but not limited to, worker's compensation, old age and survivors health insurance, protections of a collective bargaining agreement, sick leave, retirement, medical benefits, vacation leave, and hours of work, provided that these protections and benefits shall not be created by this subsection if such protections and benefits do not already exist. Enrollees in such subsidized and unsubsidized positions shall also be covered for purposes of unemployment compensation, notwithstanding RCW 50.44.040(5) to the contrary.

(2) Subsidized and unsubsidized positions under this chapter to which enrollees are referred shall not be created as a result of, nor result in, any of the following:
(a) Displacement of currently employed workers or authorized positions, for the purpose of employing enrollees, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or other employment benefits;
(b) The filling of subsidized and unsubsidized positions that would otherwise be a promotional opportunity;
(c) The filling of a subsidized or unsubsidized position before compliance with applicable personnel procedures and collective bargaining agreements, including in the instance of subsidized jobs the written concurrence from any affected union representative organization;
(d) The filling of a subsidized or unsubsidized position created by a reduction in work force or change of employers;
(e) A strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute, or a violation of any existing collective bargaining agreement between employees and employers;
(f) Decertification of any bargaining unit;
(g) Creation of a new classification that has the intent or effect of subverting the intent of this section.

(3) Enrollees in subsidized and unsubsidized employment shall not continue participation at a place of employment that is involved in a strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute.

(4) The employment security department shall establish a dispute-resolution process for resolving disagreements arising from this section or other employment-related sections of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. COMPENSATION FOR ENROLLEES. The executive committee shall direct that no enrollee shall be referred to subsidized or unsubsidized employment in which the enrollee would be paid at a rate less than the highest of the following:
(I) The minimum wage set out in section 6(a)(1) of the fair labor standards act of 1938, as amended, or as established by state law;
(2) The prevailing rate of pay for persons employed in similar occupations by the same employer;
(3) The minimum entrance rate for inexperienced workers in the same occupation with the employer or, if the occupation is new to the employer, the prevailing entrance rate for the occupation among other employers in the area or community, or the applicable minimum rate required by an applicable bargaining agreement; or
(4) The prevailing rate established in accordance with the Davis-Bacon act, as amended, or the service contract act, as amended, for enrollees working in occupations covered by the applicable acts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REPORTS AND EVALUATION. (1) By January 1, 1988, the executive committee shall submit to the legislature:
(a) A child-care plan, which may include creative solutions to assist enrollees in making child-care arrangements;

(vii) A comparison of the family independence program enrollees with a sample of aid to families with dependent children recipients entering assistance between July 1, 1987, through June 30, 1988, to determine the characteristics of the caseloads of the family independence program and the aid to families with dependent children program, including demographic characteristics, employment, training, and educational histories, spells on assistance, and reasons for entry onto and exit from assistance:

(viii) Such administrative and operational factors as may be requested by the executive committee;

(ix) A longitudinal study over time of a sample of public assistance recipients or persons at risk of becoming eligible for assistance, to determine the causes of public dependency and the impact of changes in the economy or of public programs on dependency, work, or other relevant behaviors of the sample population.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall cause the evaluation plan to be implemented subject to legislative approval in a manner that will insure the independence of the evaluation through appropriate arrangements, which may include contracts, with objective evaluators. The evaluation plan and all evaluation products shall receive the review and comment of evaluation advisory groups to be convened by the Washington institute of public policy and which include representatives of the executive committee, appropriate legislative committee staffs, persons from the state’s higher education institutions, staff members of the department and the employment security department, recipients, and former recipients. The reviews shall consider relevance to state policy and budget concerns, methodological procedure, implementation, and results.

(4) The first report of this evaluation shall be submitted to the legislature no later than November 16, 1988, and annually thereafter, with a final report due no later than November 15, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. BENCHMARK STANDARD AND INCENTIVE BENEFIT PAYMENTS. (1) The legislature shall determine the benchmark standard for enrollees. The legislature may adjust the benchmark standard periodically. However, the department shall promptly pass on to enrollees any increases in federal food stamp program benefits. The executive committee shall designate what portion of the benchmark standard constitutes a cash payment for food stamp benefits and shall ensure that this designation information is regularly provided to recipients. The portion of the benchmark standard and incentive benefit levels that is designated as the cash payment for food stamp benefits shall be excluded as income to the full extent that food stamps are so excluded by current and subsequently enacted state and federal law.

(2) Enrollees shall receive cash assistance which, when added to other income, provides total income not less than the benchmark standard set by the legislature. Enrollees participating in work, education, or training programs shall receive incentive benefit payments which, when added to other income, provides gross income not less than the levels which shall be initially set as follows:

(a) One hundred five percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees participating in training or education programs;

(b) One hundred five percent of the benchmark standard for teenage parents if they stay in school and progress toward graduation and successfully participate in parenting education approved by the office of the superintendent of public instruction or the department;

(c) One hundred fifteen percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees working half time, but the department may authorize a higher incentive benefit payment level for enrollees working part time; and

(d) One hundred thirty-five percent of the benchmark standard for enrollees working full time.

(3) Family independence program cash benefits shall not be available to meet the needs of enrollees for whom participation in the work and training components of the family independence program is mandatory and who refuse without good cause to participate in such programs. However, medical benefits for such sanctioned individuals and payments on behalf of the other members of the family shall be provided. In such cases, payments to the remaining family members may be in the form of protective payee payments unless, after reasonable efforts, the state is unable to locate an appropriate protective payee, in which case the sanctioned individual can be the payee for the remaining family members. A participant under such sanction is eligible for the full benchmark plus appropriate incentive benefit level once he or she participates.

(4) The department, at the direction of the executive committee, may increase or decrease the incentive benefit payment levels based on the availability of funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. CURRENT PROGRAM BENEFITS ASSURED. No applicant for or recipient of family independence program benefits shall receive less financial assistance in family independence program benefits than the sum of the aid for families with dependent children cash benefits and the cash equivalent of food stamp benefits the applicant would have received under the program requirements of the federal law and under the benefit levels in place as of January 1, 1988, as adjusted to reflect all increases in the federal food stamp allotments and deductions and in the Washington state payment standard for aid to families with dependent children. Funds provided to the state under Title IV-A of the federal social security act and under the federal food stamp program shall be used first to make payments at one hundred percent of the benchmark level to all enrollees of the family independence program in accordance with the state plan, as well as to all recipients of aid to families with dependent children. Any remaining funds provided by the federal government may be used at the state’s discretion for incentive payments and services to either enrollees or recipients of aid to families with dependent children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. NONASSISTANCE FOOD STAMPS. The department shall continue to operate a federal food stamp program for persons who are not receiving family independence program benefits, including applicants awaiting determinations of eligibility for the family independence program.

No group of persons constituting a food stamp household under current food stamp law may receive less in any combination of food stamps and the portion of family independence program benefits designated as the food stamp cash equivalent pursuant to section 13 of this act than the amount for which they would have been eligible in food stamps if the family independence program did not include a cash-out of food stamp benefits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. DETERMINING FINANCIAL NEED AND TREATMENT OF INCOME. The department shall establish rules for the determination of financial need and the treatment of income of enrollees consistent with this section.

(a) Income and resources shall be reasonably evaluated and cannot be considered available to an applicant or recipient unless actually available.

(b) The following shall be excluded as income in family independence program eligibility and need determinations: The value of medical benefits, child care, higher education benefits, earned income tax credit, income tax refunds, any housing subsidy, energy assistance, the earnings of a child, retroactive family independence program benefits, the child support exempred by 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657(b) or 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a)(8)(V), and any benefit or moneys that provision of federal law in effect on January 1, 1988, excludes from being considered income for eligibility for aid to families with dependent children or food stamps or other exclusions which Congress may hereafter enact.

(c) The executive committee may direct the department to establish methods for evaluating what portion of income is considered gross income for persons whose income is earned over a longer period of time than the period in which it is received and for measuring the gross income of self-employed persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. ENROLLEE PARTICIPATION. (1) All enrollees shall register for assessment to evaluate the appropriateness of work, education, or training options for that individual.

(2) For those enrollees who seek to pursue work, training, and education activities, and for those enrollees who are required in accordance with this chapter to so participate, the state agencies and the enrollee shall jointly develop an employability plan which sets forth the participation activity or sequence of activities and the available supportive services. In some instances, the plan may require additional assessment. The plan is subject to the approval of the state agencies. An enrollee may seek a modification of the employability plan, or an administrative review if mutual agreement cannot be achieved.

(3) Appropriate child care and other social services shall be available to enable an enrollee to participate in work, training, or education activities.

(d) Prior to the determination that a mandatory enrollee has refused to cooperate, efforts must be made at conciliation of the dispute consistent with 45 C.F.R. Sec. 224.63.

(e) The assignment would result in a loss of income to the enrollee’s family;

(f) Exigent personal or family circumstances would interfere with successful participation in the assignment;

(g) The assignment involves conditions which are in violation of applicable health and safety regulations;

(h) The assignment would interrupt a program in process at the undergraduate or vocational level which is reasonably expected to result in economic self-sufficiency; or
The best interests of a child or children in the family would be served by the parent providing full or part-time care in the home due to the particular personal or family circumstances of the enrollee's family.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. IMPLEMENTATION OF PROGRAM. (1) The family independence program shall not be implemented before February 28, 1988, and shall not be implemented until specifically authorized by the legislature. However, upon the effective date of this section, the executive committee shall be appointed and shall carry out those functions necessary to plan for the implementation of the family independence program, including securing federal approval.

(2) The governor shall report to the legislature at least once each quarter of 1987 on the progress of the executive committee's efforts to secure federal approval of the family independence program.

(3)(a) The governor shall seek congressional action on any federal legislation necessary to implement this chapter. The governor shall seek legislation that provides that any program under this chapter shall be a demonstration project which remains within the federal aid to families with dependent children system under Title IV of the federal social security act. Provided that the purchasing, leasing or renting as used in RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.200 shall not be included in the term "purchasing" under this chapter.

(b) Any agreements with the federal government necessary to implement the family independence program shall provide that any program under this chapter shall be a demonstration project which remains within the federal aid to families with dependent children system under Title IV of the federal social security act. Such agreements shall provide for waivers from the federal aid to families with dependent children system only to the extent necessary to implement this chapter.

(4) If all proposed agreements between the state and federal governments which are necessary to implement the family independence program have been completed before February 1, 1988, a plan outlining such proposed agreements shall be submitted to the legislature no later than February 7, 1988. If all agreements between the state and federal governments necessary to implement the family independence program have not been completed by February 1, 1988, an implementation plan with the proposed agreements shall be submitted to the senate committee on human services and corrections, the house of representatives committee on human services, and the senate and house of representatives committees on ways and means for consideration. Copies of all such proposed agreements and any proposed changes to state statute shall be submitted to the legislature with the plan. The family independence program shall be implemented only after the legislature has approved the implementation plan and authorized the signing and completion of all federal-state agreements.

(5) Any agreements with the federal government pursuant to this chapter shall provide that such agreements may be canceled by the state or federal government upon six months' notice or immediately upon mutual agreement. If the agreements are canceled, those enrollees in the family independence program who are eligible for the aid to families with dependent children, medicaid, and the food stamp programs shall be converted to those programs.

(6) Subject to the approval of the executive committee, the department of social and health services and the employment security department shall enter into an interagency agreement for carrying out appropriate administrative functions and purposes as required with respect to the family independence program to be undertaken in this state.

(7) The family independence program shall be implemented only in counties of the state in which the average unemployment rate is less than twice the state-wide average. The executive committee may phase-in the program on a regional or county-by-county basis. The executive committee shall phase-in implementation in accordance with the plan outlined in section 7(1)(x)(s) of this act after the legislature has approved the plan.

(8) In at least one region, the executive committee shall use a mandatory monthly reporting system in its implementation of the family independence program. After an appropriate period, the executive committee shall evaluate the cost-effectiveness and the effects on recipients and caseloads of the reporting. The executive committee may discontinue the mandatory monthly reporting system if it determines it not to be cost-effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. REFERENCE TO OTHER LAWS. Unless the language specifically states to the contrary, any reference in this chapter to a provision or requirement of federal law or regulations refers to that provision as of January 1, 1988.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. CAPTIONS. Section captions as used in this chapter do not constitute any part of the law.

The department of social and health services shall implement the pilot project.
