Senator Bailey: "Sorry, I can't answer that. It's probably when you were down here and you made that determination. That was way before my time."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, at one time of course, we weren't selling or leasing any school buildings. We were building more all the time. Now that there is a surplus, it would seem that some of that money--some of those locations where the schools are being vacated can go for very high priced condominium sites and things like that. I think that maybe you should take a look at that and maybe we can recover some of that money and revert it back into the building fund, so that we will have enough to build new schools where there is a great need."

Senator Bailey: "Thank you. I'll take that under consideration."

Senator Rasmussen: "This is just a kind of a new area when we have schools for sale and for lease. You will look it up and get some information for us? You want to hold this bill up then, until we get this information?"

Senator Bailey: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think it's a good idea."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6012.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6012 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 6; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Gaspard, Hansen, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Stratton, Thorsness, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Rasmussen, Smitherman, Sutherland, Talmadge, Wojahn - 6.
Excused: Senators DeJarnatt, Hayner, Moore - 3.

SENATE BILL NO. 6012, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate advanced to the ninth order of business.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Committee on Law and Justice was relieved of further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1702.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, Engrossed House Bill No. 1702 was referred to the Committee on Health Care and Corrections.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having served prior notice, Senator Nelson moved to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5558 passed the Senate March 7, 1989.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognlid: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. Under Rule 37 of the Senate Rules, it says that a motion to reconsider shall be considered on the next working day and then it goes on to read, 'that the motion to reconsider is pending and before passing the order of motions, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue.' That is a positive statement. We cannot have two positives. Mr. President, two days after this motion was made, at 11:17 p.m., Senator Talmadge gave notice of intent to reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 5819 passed the Senate. We then went on to continue on the Second Reading Calendar. Later that day, at 2:53 p.m., Senator Talmadge moved to suspend the rules and immediately reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 5819 passed. Senator Hayner moved to defer the motion. At 3:09 p.m., we now resumed the motion to suspend the rules and reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 5819 passed the Senate earlier that day. That motion was then carried. Senator Metcalf moved that the rules be suspended and we returned that bill to second reading and in the process, had intervening business.

"Mr. President, I submit to you, that at 3:09 p.m., the Senate went to the ninth order of business which was the only order of business under which we could have considered Senator Talmadge's motion to reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 5819 passed. The Senate, having gone to the ninth order of business and then returning to regular Senate business, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5558, at that point in time, should have been immediately transmitted to the House. That measure is not properly before this body at this time. Mr. President, I would request a ruling from the President regarding my statement."

Debate ensued.

At 4:08 p.m., President Pritchard declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 4:21 p.m. by President Pritchard.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "The Chair will now rule on the point of order that Senator Vognild raised. The Journal reflects that no motion was made to go to the ninth order of business. The time to raise that point of order has passed."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, I'm not sure I understand the ruling. You ruled that the only time I could raise that question was at the time it happened?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "You had to raise that point of order at that time. It did not go to the ninth order of business. That does not mean that we can't conduct business without going to the ninth order. If you want to raise an objection, you can and we'll go. Every time one of the Senators is excused, technically, we should go to the ninth order of business to do that, but we don't. We go ahead unless somebody wanted to raise that objection."

Senator Vognild: "Well, Mr. President, I will accept your ruling. I am a little confused. I thought that the time to raise the question would be if the bill was brought back to us, because my understanding would be that the bill would automatically be transmitted. Therefore, there would be no question for me to raise until such time as somebody attempted to bring that bill back before the body and that is what I waited for."

President Pritchard: "This is the first time we've been on the ninth order. Senator. No one raised that objection at that time."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Nelson to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5558 passed the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF CLARIFICATION

Senator Thorsness: "I would request from you, Mr. President, a clarification. I don't understand what the current status is and I'll use my newness in the Legislature. I've supported the bill before and I will again. Frankly, I'd like to see it five or seven days, but I've committed to support it and I will. Can you clarify for me what happens either way we go on this on the vote to reconsider and what happens thereafter, please?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Senator Nelson has moved to reconsider the vote by which this bill passed. You vote. If you wish to reconsider, then the bill is before the body to do what it wants with the bill. If you don't move to reconsider--it failed--then the bill is gone to the House."

Senator Thorsness: "So, if we do reconsider the bill it is still automatically before this body?"

President Pritchard: "Back for disposition of the majority, whatever it might be--of the members. It's on third reading, but it can be moved around."

Senator Vognild demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Nelson to reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5558 passed the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion for reconsideration carried by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 22; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Hayner, Johnson, Lee, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Nelson, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Thorsness, von Reichbauer, West - 25.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Hansen, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Murray, Niemi, Owen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 22.

Excused: Senators DeJarnatt, Moore - 2.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5558, on reconsideration, was deferred.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Committee on Governmental Operations was relieved of further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1395.

On motion of Senator Newhouse, Engrossed House Bill No. 1395 was referred to the Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to a point of personal privilege. I recently made a remark on the floor and I believe I was somewhat in error and I want the record to show correctly what happened. The motion was made to reconsider. I raised a point of order. During the time that you were considering the point of order, one of my members was approached. The conversation was more clearly, 'Will you present these amendments?' The answer was, 'no.' The next statement was, 'Then your bill is dead.' I want the record to show it was that way and the statement was not directly tied to my point of order."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate reverted to the eighth order of business.

President Pro Tempore Bluechel assumed the Chair.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1989-8636

by Senator Sutherland

WHEREAS, The Columbia Aluminum Corporation has purchased the aluminum plant formerly owned by Commonwealth Aluminum located near Goldendale; and
WHEREAS, The Goldendale aluminum smelter was restarted in August, 1987; and

WHEREAS, Those formerly employed at the smelter have shown a community of spirit by taking over part ownership in a major industry in the area; and

WHEREAS, These individuals have found through their own effort a means of survival for themselves and for their community; and

WHEREAS, The smelter employees and Kenneth Peterson of Columbia Aluminum Corporation have worked successfully together to reach a working contractual agreement; and

WHEREAS, The employees of the plant own a major percentage of the new smelter operation under the terms of an employee stock ownership plan;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington salute the men and women responsible for the Goldendale smelter's new operation and commend them for their perseverance, initiative, and loyalty to their community, and for demonstrating what can be achieved when business and labor work together; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the officers of the United Steel Workers of America Local 8147, and to Kenneth Peterson of the Columbia Aluminum Corporation.

MOTION

At 5:47 p.m., on motion of Senator Newhouse, the Senate adjourned until 8:30 a.m., Monday, March 13, 1989.

JOEL PRITCHARD, President of the Senate.
GORDON A. GOLOB, Secretary of the Senate.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1989-8611

by Senators DeJarnatt and Smith .

WHEREAS, The Castle Rock High School football team won this year's Class A high school football championship at the King Bowl on Saturday, December 3, 1988; and

WHEREAS, The Castle Rock Rockets, in winning this championship, defeated the two-time defending state champion Ephrata Bulldogs, breaking their winning streak at thirty-eight games; and

WHEREAS, The Rockets were outsize by every opponent they faced in the playoffs, and they also suffered under the hardship of having their high school closed due to asbestos contamination prior to the beginning of the school year; and

WHEREAS, In spite of the distraction of double-shift classes in the school district's remaining buildings from before dawn until well after dark, the Castle Rock Rockets football team set forth on their undefeated season determined to let nothing stand in the way of their ultimate success;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the President and members of the Washington State Senate salute head coach Tom Bate, assistant coaches Fred Amrine, Henry Karnotski, Steve Sorenson and Kurt Gray for their guidance and development of their young athletes. The Senate also applauds these student athletes for their determination and for their achievement. The Senate also recognizes that nothing great can be achieved without teamwork, and, therefore, the Senate acknowledges the constant support of the cheerleaders, the student body, the teachers and the community of Castle Rock which made possible the stirring success of this football team;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate hopes that each of these young athletes is able to take this achievement along with them through their lives as proof that determination and the courage to compete are as important in life's other endeavors as they are in athletics;

(a) May establish requirements for notification, recordkeeping, reporting, packaging, and emergency response;

The motion by Senator Saling carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDonald, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 4, after line 24, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1989, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void."

Senator Smitherman moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 4, after line 24, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. One million nine hundred twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the higher education coordinating board from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for the purposes of this act."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Smitherman, since this amendment that you're proposing was not an amendment to the committee amendment, the null and void clause, was accepted by this body. Do you, therefore, intend that there be even more money than this in order that the act be valid, because it now states that unless there is actual funding within the budget, that the entire act is null and void."

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Lee, I've never been a fan of the null and void concept. I think, because it allows us to play with responsibility for funding bills, and I recognize that it's a means to set off things until we know a little bit more about the revenue forecast and so on, but I think we're almost there. I think that we do know what the forecasts are going to be and I don't see any reason why we can't make some reasonable effort toward funding these students."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Smitherman on page 4, line 24, to Senate Bill No. 5215.

The motion by Senator Smitherman failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Senators Kreidler, Warnke and Vognild were excused.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, strike "and"

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "28B.10.808" and before the period, insert "; and creating a new section"

On motion of Senator Saling, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5215 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5215.

Modifying the business and occupation tax on low-level waste.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Newhouse, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5294 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5294 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator McDonald moved that the following amendment by Senators McDonald and Newhouse be adopted:

On page 4, after line 8, strike everything through line 14 and insert the following:

(b) Twenty percent in 1989 when the volume of waste is equal to or less than five hundred thousand cubic feet, or when the volume of waste is greater than three hundred thousand cubic feet;

(c) Ten percent in 1990 and 1991 when the volume of waste is equal to or less than five hundred thousand cubic feet, or when the volume of waste is greater than three hundred thousand cubic feet;

(d) Five percent in 1992 when the volume of waste is equal to or less than five hundred thousand cubic feet, or when the volume of waste is greater than three hundred thousand cubic feet; and

(e) Five percent in 1993 and thereafter when the volume of waste is equal to or less than five hundred thousand cubic feet.

The rates of tax in (b) through (d) of this subsection shall apply if the volume of waste falls to three hundred thousand cubic feet or less because of explicit regulatory or statutory provision."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator McDonald, just in reading the language in subsection (e) of the amendment, it talks about five percent in 1993 and thereafter, but it puts it up to five hundred thousand dollars. I was just wondering why we need a limit in the particular section. In other words, I don't know what the circumstances might be, but if for some reason or other, there were some change in policy or something and somehow Hanford took more than five hundred thousand, what would the rate be?"

Senator McDonald: "Senator Williams, after 1992, we are going to be a regional waste site. I don't believe that we're going to have that upper limit problem and I believe that the five percent is going to be predominate or will take effect, so I don't see that as a major problem."

Senator Williams: "I understand the principle is that the compact will be in place and we won't take that much. I just found that it was interesting that we left-- you never know what may happen and I just found it interesting. We'll have to decide when that happens, I suppose."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators McDonald and Newhouse on page 4, after line 8, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5294.

The motion by Senator McDonald carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

"To ensure the availability of funding for construction of educational facilities, on the effective date of this 1989 act, the state shall offer for sale all timber on state lands that has been deferred from scheduled sale in the sustained yield management program because it lays on land that has been designated, studied or planned as spotted owl habitat."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Owen, how many acres of land would be affected by the amendment that you proposed?"

Senator Owen: "I understand that it's around six thousand. It could be as much as six thousand acres."

Senator Talmadge: "In the Senate Ways and Means Committee, there was a question raised with respect to the issue of sustained yield and whether or not this proposed amendment would substantially affect the state's policy of sustained yield on trust lands. Has that issue been addressed at all with respect to this amendment?"

Senator Owen: "The amendment does not affect the sustained yield program at all. It does not require that they go outside the sustained yield program, so the department would still be required to cut within the sustained yield levels already determined by the Board of Natural Resources."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Owen, if I recall correctly, these lands were included prior to the owl and sustained yield, that is they went through the Natural Resources Forestry Board and they were all scheduled on a sustained yield basis."

Senator Owen: "That's correct. We referenced those that were a scheduled sale in the sustained yield."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Owen, Conner, Madsen, Bauer, Barr, Johnson, Anderson, Craswell, Vognild, Smith, Bailey, Rasmussen, McCaslin, Matson, Hansen and Newhouse on page 1, beginning on line 27, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5911.

Senator Johnson: "I do not know. I have never received a call like that. I don't think that that works very well myself. We don't do it in the bearing business either."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it doesn't do any good after you're dead. I'm sure they do the pre-sale before you die, but that's my concern. I did receive a card from one of the inspectors of one of the cemetery boards and he indicated that the cancellation fee for the handling of the trust was too high and he says they have a terrible time with those people that are out selling these plans to the poor people that you're talking about--the senior citizens. I'm going to ask the House to take another look at that fifteen percent where you get sold a burial plan and you want to get out of it after thirty days. They take fifteen percent of it. Some of those are quite costly. What is the average price, Senator Johnson? Do you know?"

Senator Johnson: "I do not know. I know that if you happen to be on welfare, you can buy a pre-plan and it is not used in the spend down--twenty-five hundred dollars--Senator von Reichbauer says is the average cost, but this should save the state some money dealing with welfare recipients that leave us."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This act shall be known and cited as the 1989 Washington centennial food fish enhancement act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the state of Washington possesses the resources to become the sport fishing capital of the United States and the Pacific Northwest possesses the resources to become the sport fishing capital of all of North America. The natural runs of salmon, sturgeon, and steelhead, the quality of habitat, the favorable harbors, and the investment in hatcheries and fishing equipment have Washington poised to capture the recreational fishing market.

It is the intent of the legislature to develop and implement policies and programs which will establish Washington as the sport fishing capital of the United States. The social and economic benefits of such programs will enhance all citizens of the state, the local economies, and the welfare of the state's residents.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The legislature further finds that it is in the best interest of the salmon resource of the state to encourage the development of regional fisheries enhancement groups. The accomplishments of one existing group, the Grays Harbor fisheries enhancement task force, have been widely recognized as being exemplary. The legislature recognizes the potential benefits to the state that would occur if each region of the state had a similar group of dedicated citizens working to enhance the salmon resource.

The legislature authorizes the formation of regional fisheries enhancement groups. These groups shall be eligible for state financial support and shall be actively supported by the department of fisheries. The regional groups shall be operated on a strictly nonprofit basis, and shall seek to maximize the efforts of volunteer and private donations to improve the salmon resource for all citizens of the state.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 112, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 5, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.08.012 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall manage, preserve and maintain, protect(;;) and perpetuate ((and manage)), and enhance and supplement populations of the food fish and shellfish in state waters and offshore waters.

The department shall conserve the food fish and shellfish resources in a manner that does not impair the resource. In a manner consistent with this goal, the department shall seek to maintain the economic well-being and stability of the recreational and commercial fishing industry in the state, subject to subsection (2) of this section. The department shall promote orderly fisheries and shall enhance and improve recreational and commercial fishing in this state.

(2) It shall be the responsibility of the department to manage the recreational fish in the state as defined in RCW 75.08.011 in a manner that will develop, promote, and enhance recreational fishing opportunities. All recreational species of food fish shall be managed for the primary benefit of the recreational fisheries.

The department shall manage the commercial food fish in this state as defined in RCW 75.08.011, in a manner that will develop, promote, and enhance commercial fishing opportunities. Commercial species of food fish shall be managed for the primary benefit of the commercial fishery.

(3) The department shall manage commercial fisheries to minimize the incidental harvest of wild depleted stocks of chinook and coho salmon, the incidental harvest of sturgeon, and the handling of steelhead.

(4) By December 15, 1989, the department shall prepare and implement a management and enhancement plan. The department shall submit to the appropriate committees of the legislature a description of the process which will be followed in preparation of the management and enhancement plan. The regional fisheries enhancement groups created in sections 3, 10, and 11 of this act shall be involved in the development of the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 75.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An essential element in the production of wild fish is the retention, development, and improvement of appropriate habitat. The department shall vigorously work with all local, state, federal, tribal, and private organizations and the regional fisheries enhancement groups created in sections 3, 10, and 11 of this act to:

- (a) Retain adequate stream flows for fish passage, reproduction, and growth;
- (b) Protect streams and streamside habitat in order to maintain spawning and rearing areas for wild stocks and their supplemental population development;
- (c) Improve existing habitat through removing physical barriers, improving water quality, educating the public, and other necessary steps; and
- (d) Consider all of the needs of wild fish and supplementation in all state-managed waters.

(2) In all state-managed waters, the department shall strive to enhance fish populations through research, development of habitat, improved fish passage, disease control, protection of wild runs, construction of hatcheries, development of cooperative projects by nonprofit groups, public education, and other appropriate activities.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 35, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1988 and RCW 75.08.245 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature recognizes that the management of chinook and coho salmon for the primary benefit of recreational anglers may cause more fish to return to a hatchery or spawning grounds than is necessary for the perpetuation of the run. The legislature further recognizes that such practices are appropriate and acceptable. Proceeds from the sale of those surplus salmon or salmon parts shall be used exclusively by the department for salmon enhancement projects, including the regional enhancement groups established in sections 3, 10, and 11 of this act.

(2) The department may supply, at a reasonable charge, surplus salmon eggs to a person for use in the cultivation of salmon. The department shall not intentionally create a surplus of salmon to provide eggs for sale. The department shall only sell salmon eggs from stocks that are not suitable for salmon population rehabilitation or enhancement in state waters in Washington. All sales or transfers shall be consistent with the department's egg transfer and aquaculture disease control regulations as now existing or hereafter amended. Prior to department determination that eggs of a salmon stock are surplus and available for sale, the department shall assess the productivity of each watershed that is suitable for receiving eggs and the needs of the regional enhancement groups established in sections 3, 10, and 11 of this act.

The salmon enhancement advisory council, created in RCW 75.48.120, shall consider egg sales at each meeting.

Sec. 7. Section 75.04.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 4, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.08.011 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 3 and 10 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 75 RCW."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, I would rise to a point of order. I would have to question the scope and object of the amendment as made. The underlying bill, the prime bill, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5289 creates six regional fisheries enhancement groups. That's all it does. Now, the proposed amendment, which has a striking resemblance to Senate Bill No. 5141, which I happen to have been a sponsor of, goes much beyond that--the amendment goes much beyond that. It talks about more than just these groups. It talks about enhancing, promoting, maintaining, developing, and stabilizing the fisheries, which are all good things to do, but don't fit under Substitute Senate Bill No. 5289. It also goes on to talk about the incidental commercial harvest of chinook, wild chinook, coho, sturgeon, and the handling of steelhead in commercial fisheries. It goes way beyond. Now, the drafter of the amendment craftily intertwined the amendment into the original bill, but that's not the point. The point is, the original bill said one thing. This doesn't necessarily change what was said by the original bill, but goes far afield in trying to direct state policy in fisheries--way beyond what the original bill did."

Further debate ensued.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 117, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.21C.075 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Because a major purpose of this chapter is to combine environmental considerations with public decisions, any appeal brought under this chapter shall be linked to a specific governmental action. The State Environmental Policy Act provides a basis for challenging whether governmental action is in compliance with the substantive and procedural provisions of this chapter. The State Environmental Policy Act is not intended to create a cause of action unrelated to a specific governmental action.

(2) Unless otherwise provided by this section:

(a) Appeals under this chapter shall be of the governmental action together with its accompanying environmental determinations.

(b) Appeals of environmental determinations made (or lacking) under this chapter shall be commenced within the time required to appeal the governmental action which is subject to environmental review.

(3) If an agency has a procedure for appeals of agency environmental determinations made under this chapter, such procedure:

(a) Shall not allow more than one agency appeal proceeding on a procedural determination (the adequacy of a determination of significance/nonsignificance or of a final environmental impact statement), consistent with any state statutory requirements for appeals to local legislative bodies. The appeal proceeding on a determination of significance/nonsignificance may occur before the agency's final decision on a proposed action. Such an appeal shall also be allowed for a determination of significance/nonsignificance which may be issued by the agency after supplemental review;

(b) Shall consolidate appeal of procedural issues and of substantive determinations made under this chapter (such as a decision to require particular mitigation measures or to deny a proposal) by providing for simultaneous appeal of an agency decision on a proposal and any environmental determinations made under this chapter, with the exception of the threshold determination appeal as provided in (a) of this subsection or an appeal to the local legislative authority under RCW 43.21C.060 or other applicable state statutes;

(c) Shall provide for the preparation of a record for use in any subsequent appeal proceedings, and shall provide for any subsequent appeal proceedings to be conducted on the record, consistent with other applicable law. An adequate record consists of findings and conclusions, testimony under oath, and taped or written transcript. An electronically recorded transcript will suffice for purposes of review under this paragraph; and

(d) Shall provide that procedural determinations made by the responsible official shall be entitled to substantial weight.

(4) If a person aggrieved by an agency action has the right to judicial appeal and if an agency has an appeal procedure, such person shall, prior to seeking any judicial review, use such procedure if any such procedure is available, unless expressly provided otherwise by state statute.

(5) RCW 43.21C.080 establishes an optional "notice of action" procedure which, if used, imposes a time period for appealing decisions under this chapter. Some statutes and ordinances contain time periods for challenging governmental actions which are subject to review under this chapter, such as various local land use approvals (the "underlying governmental action"). This section does not modify any such time periods. This section governs when a judicial appeal must be brought under this chapter where a "notice of action" is used, and/or where there is another time period which is required by statute or ordinance for challenging the underlying governmental action. In this subsection, the term "appeal" refers to a judicial appeal only.

(a) If there is a time period for appealing the underlying governmental action, appeals under this chapter shall be commenced within thirty days. The agency shall give official notice stating the date and place for commencing an appeal. If there is an agency proceeding under subsection (3) of this section, the appellant shall, prior to commencing a judicial appeal, submit to the responsible official a notice of intent to commence a judicial appeal. This notice of intent shall be given within the time period for commencing a judicial appeal on the underlying governmental action.

(b) A notice of action under RCW 43.21C.080 may be used. If a notice of action is used, judicial appeals shall be commenced within the time period specified by RCW 43.21C.080, unless there is a time period for appealing the underlying governmental action in which case (a) of this subsection shall apply.

(c) Notwithstanding RCW 43.21C.080(1), if there is a time period for appealing the underlying governmental action, a notice of action may be published within such time period.

(d)(a) Judicial review of an appeal decision made by an agency under RCW 43.21C.075(5) shall be on the record, consistent with other applicable law.

(b) A taped or written transcript may be used. If a taped transcript is to be reviewed, a record shall identify the location on the taped transcript of testimony and evidence to be reviewed. Parties are encouraged to designate only those portions of the testimony necessary to present the issues raised on review, but if a party alleges that a finding of fact is not supported by evidence, the party should include in the record all evidence relevant to the disputed finding. Any other party may designate additional portions of the taped transcript relating to issues raised on review. A party may provide a written transcript of portions of the testimony at the party's own expense or apply to that court for an order requiring the party seeking review to pay for additional portions of the written transcript.

(c) Judicial review under this chapter shall without exception be of the governmental action together with its accompanying environmental determinations.

(7) Jurisdiction over the review of determinations under this chapter in an appeal before an agency or superior court shall upon consent of the parties be transferred in whole or part to the shorelines hearings board. The shorelines hearings board shall hear the matter and sign the final order expeditiously. The superior court shall certify the final order of the shorelines hearings board and said certified final order may only be appealed to an appellate court.

(8) For purposes of this section and RCW 43.21C.080, the words "action", "decision", and "determination" mean substantive agency action including any accompanying procedural determinations under this chapter (except where the word "action" means "appeal" in RCW 43.21C.080(2) and (3)). The word "action" in this section and RCW 43.21C.080 does not mean a procedural determination by itself made under this chapter. The word "determination" includes any environmental document required by this chapter and state or local implementing rules. The word "agency" refers to any state or local unit of government. The word "appeal" refers to administrative, legislative, or judicial appeals.

(9) The court in its discretion may award reasonable attorney's fees of up to one thousand dollars in the aggregate to the prevailing party, including a governmental agency, on issues arising out of this chapter if the court makes specific findings that the legal position of a party is frivolous and without reasonable basis.

(10) Whenever an appeal is filed, either administrative or judicial, the party filing the appeal shall provide to the hearings body, such information as may be requested by the presiding officer to establish standing to file an appeal under this chapter. No party shall have standing to appeal unless such party is an aggrieved person affected by the proposed action.

(11) Whenever an appeal, either administrative or judicial, is filed under this chapter and any parties to the appeal, including the project proponent whether or not named in the appeal, agree to settle the appeals issues prior to final disposition of the appeal by the hearings body, and by settlement agreement, withdraw the appeal, the settlement agreement shall meet the following criteria:

(a) All terms of the settlement agreement shall be filed with the appellant body and shall be available to the public for review.

(b) Any term of agreement requiring mitigation of impacts caused by the proposed action shall be consistent with the jurisdiction's policies adopted pursuant to RCW 43.21C.060. All mitigation shall be directly attributable to the proposed action.

(c) No settlement agreement shall include the payment of any monetary compensation to any party other than a general purpose local government or state agency and the monetary compensation shall be pursuant to and shall comply with the provisions of RCW 82.02.020.

(12) No covenant agreed to for the purpose of preventing a formal appeal or for the withdrawal or dismissal of an appeal under this chapter, shall be enforceable against the owner of or tenant occupying real property, unless there is recorded with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located an affidavit of awareness of the covenant by the owner or tenant signed at the time the real property was purchased, leased, rented, or occupied; and any person attempting to enforce any such covenant must produce a certified copy of the affidavit before attempting to enforce the covenant. Any covenant agreed to for the purpose of preventing a formal appeal or obtaining the dropping of an appeal under this chapter shall be enforceable only by the property owners subject to the covenant.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 109, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 43.21C.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The purposes of this chapter are: (1) To declare a state policy which will encourage productive and enjoyable harmony between man and his environment; (2) to promote efforts which will prevent or eliminate damage to the environment and biosphere; (3) ~~((and))~~ to stimulate the health and welfare of man; ~~((and))~~ (4) to enrich the understanding of the ecological systems and natural resources important to the state and nation; and (5) to ensure that environmental decisions are made for the public good and that state environmental policy is not used for private gain.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 109, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 43.21C.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature, recognizing that man depends on his biological and physical surroundings for food, shelter, and other needs, and for cultural enrichment as well; and recognizing further the profound impact of man's activity on the interrelationships of all components of the natural environment, particularly the profound influences of population growth, high-density urbanization, industrial expansion, resource utilization and exploitation, and new and expanding technological advances and recognizing further the critical importance of restoring and maintaining environmental quality to the overall welfare and development of man, declares that it is the continuing policy of the state of Washington, in cooperation with federal and local governments, and other concerned public and private organizations, to use all practicable means and measures, including financial and technical assistance, in a manner calculated to: (a) Foster and promote the general welfare; (b) to create and maintain conditions under which man and nature can exist in productive harmony; and (c) fulfill the social, economic, and other requirements of present and future generations of Washington citizens.

(2) In order to carry out the policy set forth in this chapter, it is the continuing responsibility of the state of Washington and all agencies of the state to use all practicable means, consistent with other essential considerations of state policy, to improve and coordinate plans, functions, programs, and resources to the end that the state and its citizens may:

(a) Fulfill the responsibilities of each generation as trustee of the environment for succeeding generations;

(b) Assure for all people of Washington safe, healthful, productive, and esthetically and culturally pleasing surroundings;

(c) Attain the widest range of beneficial uses of the environment without degradation, risk to health or safety, or other undesirable and unintended consequences;

(d) Preserve important historic, cultural, and natural aspects of our national heritage;

(e) Maintain, wherever possible, an environment which supports diversity and variety of individual choice;

(f) Achieve a balance between population and resource use which will permit high standards of living and a wide sharing of life's amenities; and

(g) Enhance the quality of renewable resources and approach the maximum attainable recycling of depletable resources.

(3) The legislature recognizes that each person has a fundamental and inalienable right to a healthful environment and that each person has a responsibility to contribute to the preservation and enhancement of the environment.

(4) In order to effectively implement the procedures provided for in this chapter, and to maintain public support for those procedures, it is necessary to ensure that those procedures are used only in the public interest and not for private purpose or gain; and it is the responsibility of the state of Washington, its agencies, and political subdivisions to take such actions as necessary to prevent misuse of the state environmental policy and the procedures designed to implement that policy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Anderson, in the section that relates to who has standing in filing an appeal, what would your description of an aggrieved person be? I'm particularly interested in whether it would mean community councils or community clubs or groups of people who live in an area and have formed some sort of an association representative generally of that area. Is that what you would conceive of as being an aggrieved person?"

Senator Anderson: "Senator Williams, not being an attorney, I cannot answer that. This was drawn up by an attorney that has worked with many cases, but for the environmental groups and for developers. Our original language was that the aggrieved party was directly related and was directly aggrieved. Aggrieved party in this case would be someone who has felt that they have a negative impact because of a project. It could be a group; it could be a person."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Anderson to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5855.

The motion by Senator Anderson carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "appeals," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.21C.075, 43.21C.010, and 43.21C.020; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5855 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Anderson, Section 11 establishes that no party shall have standing to an administrative or judicial appeal unless that party is an aggrieved party directly affected by the proposed action. Is this a change from the current law?"

Senator Anderson: "No, Senator Metcalf, the Washington State Supreme Court has determined in a number of cases such as S.A.V.E. v. Bothel that to bring an appeal under SEPA the appellant must be an aggrieved party. The intent of Section 11 is merely to codify this requirement and to clarify that the same standing requirement is applicable in administrative as well as judicial appeals. When a county provides an optional administrative SEPA appeal proceeding, aggrieved parties who would otherwise be limited to filing SEPA appeals in court, are first provided an administrative proceeding. It was never the intent of SEPA to allow just any person to file administrative appeals. Section 11 simply clarifies this intent."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following remarks by Senator Niemi were to be included in the Journal.

REMARKS BY NIEMI

Senator Niemi: "Thank you, Mr. President. I'd like to clear up a problem, I think, with the colloquy which we just heard between Senator Metcalf and Senator Anderson. This amendment of Senator Anderson's takes out the word, 'directly,' and it makes a big change. If we pass this bill, and a court has to look at the colloquy, I think it should be perfectly clear that 'directly' is not in the amendment and is not intended to be in the bill, as amended."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Anderson, I asked you earlier what an 'aggrieved person' meant and also you had the question and answer session between you and Senator Metcalf. Basically, as I heard you say, there was no intent to change present practice except to restrict those abuses that were talked about. I guess my question is to you, as the maker of the amendment, is it your intention that the community groups that today have the appeal process under SEPA and so forth, is it your intention that legitimate community councils, community groups, and so forth, in any way be impacted by this amendment?"

Senator Anderson: "Senator Williams, the wording that I have is 'aggrieved party,'—I'm looking at 'aggrieved party,' not 'aggrieved person.'"

Senator Williams: "I understand what you're just saying, but I guess I'm asking what your intention behind the wording is. Is it your intention to affect community groups' standing as they exist today?"

Senator Anderson: "Not if they're aggrieved by the action."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 5734, deferred on second reading earlier today after two Committee on Ways and Means amendments on page 2, line 11, and page 3, line 10, were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Gaspard be adopted:

On page 3, after line 10, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.10 RCW to read as follows:

The attorney general shall appear for and represent individual non-Indian owners of owner-occupied residential real estate before the courts of the state, state and federal, in all cases in which individual tribal members of a tribe signatory to a land settlement agreement with the state of Washington has instituted actions or proceedings raising claims of Indian title for lands located within the properties comprising the settlement agreement."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator Rasmussen, I understand the amendment to be within the land settlement--any non-Indian that has a claim filed will be defended."

Senator Rasmussen: "By anybody subject to the title agreement, yes, within the--"

Senator Warnke: "What about an Indian who may own property within the claim settlement and is not a member of the signatory tribe?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't think that makes any difference. The agreement is within the area."

Senator Warnke: "No, it says, 'an individual non-Indian,' so if you're a Mohawk, living in the settlement area of the Puyallups and you're not a signatory to Washington State, you wouldn't be defended by the Attorney General."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think, Senator Warnke, that you would realize this agreement is with the Puyallup Tribe. It doesn't concern the Mohawk, Nez Perce, Duwamish, or any of the others."

Senator Warnke: "You're absolutely right, Senator, and that's exactly why I raised the question. The Mohawk, or the Assiniboines, or the Sioux are not portions of this, but they may own a piece of residential land within this settlement and with this amendment, they would not be defended by the Attorney General, but the non-Indian living next door to them, would be."

Senator Rasmussen: "They wouldn't institute a suit, Senator Warnke. If they did, I'd defend them myself."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Gaspard was adopted:

SENATE BILL NO. 5021, by Senator Kreidler

Establishing a health education program on fats and cholesterol.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator West, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5021 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5021 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Rinehart moved that the following amendment by Senators Rinehart and Saling be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that chronic heart disease and cancer take the lives of many Washington citizens each year. The surgeon general of the United States has determined that extensive and conclusive scientific research indicates diets high in saturated fats and total fats places one at an increased risk for these diseases. Additionally, a diet high in cholesterol places one at risk for cardiovascular disease. The American diet for both children and adults is typically high in both cholesterol and fat. Reductions in the consumption of total fats will reduce the risk of chronic heart disease and certain cancers, while a reduction in cholesterol will reduce the risk of heart disease.

The legislature further finds that many citizens are becoming aware of the importance of good diet to good health. The legislature further recognizes the necessity of good health habits and that good health habits such as diet and exercise are interrelated. Public awareness through education beginning with our youngest citizens and continuing through adulthood is one of the most effective ways to promote good health habits including but not limited to good diet and proper nutrition.

At the same time people are becoming aware of the importance of good diets, they are also increasingly choosing to eat meals outside the home in restaurants. Both adults and children eat an increasing number of meals outside the home. Many marketing techniques are aimed specifically at children. It is difficult to identify foods with low fat and cholesterol content, since most restaurants and school cafeterias do not provide such information. A program to encourage good health includes encouraging restaurants and school cafeterias to voluntarily disclose information that would help citizens select foods low in fat and cholesterol when eating outside the home.

The legislature recognizes that habits learned as children are difficult to change as adults. A program designed to teach the benefits of lifelong health habits will create healthier citizens.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

As used in section 3 through 5 of this act, "department" means the department of social and health services, or the department of health if created by the legislature. "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services, or the director of the department of health if the department of health is created by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall establish programs to promote education of the public about good health habits including the reduction of high fat and high cholesterol foods in the diet. The Washington healthy families program is established. One project within the program shall be known as the "Washington low fat and cholesterol awareness program" and promote increased awareness of the content of fat and cholesterol in foods served in restaurants. Another project within the program shall be known as the "Washington healthy kids project" and shall promote health habits in children that will help teach school age children good health habits that will help them become healthy adults.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) In order to reduce the administrative costs associated with design of the Washington low fat and cholesterol awareness project, the secretary shall work with an institute of higher education to allow students in an appropriate graduate training program to design the project at no cost to the state. The ongoing operation of the project shall be the responsibility of the department.

(3) Participating restaurants and school cafeterias shall indicate which foods meet accepted levels of fat and cholesterol by designating the project symbol on the menu by the food item. The restaurant or school cafeteria may also advertise itself as a participating restaurant or school cafeteria, if it meets the standards or criteria established by the department.

(4) Participation in the project is voluntary.

(5) The department shall:

(a) Work with the restaurant association, the cancer society, the heart association, the superintendent of public instruction, and other organizations and agencies to promote participation in the project, including identification of participating restaurants and school cafeterias;

(b) Identify acceptable fat and cholesterol standards or criteria;

(c) Establish procedures for restaurants and school cafeterias to participate in the program, including analysis of menu items and food preparation practices for fat and cholesterol content, differing levels of fat and cholesterol for children and adults, and develop a display format for the program symbol and other nutritional information on restaurant and school cafeteria menus;

(d) Disseminate educational information to participating restaurants and school cafeterias concerning fat and cholesterol in food;

(e) Design a project logo; and

(f) Pursue other activities necessary to implement the project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The Washington healthy kids project shall be conducted by the department in conjunction with the superintendent of public instruction. The project shall provide for every student enrolled in kindergarten through twelfth grade in a public school in this state to receive health education appropriate to each grade level under a health education plan established by the local school district under subsection (2) of this act.

(2) Every school district shall develop a written health education plan for implementation beginning with the 1992-93 school year. The development of plans may be coordinated by educational service districts. The plan shall be designed to provide an appropriate health education program for every student in the school district. The plan shall provide for:

(a) The coordination and integration of the provision of health education programs including, but not limited to:

(i) Instruction in nutrition which includes information about the necessary diet for adequate growth and disease prevention, meal planning, and how to choose meals with low fat and cholesterol content in restaurants and school cafeterias;

(ii) The primary prevention program for child abuse and neglect under RCW 26A.03.514;

(viii) Parenting education including, but not limited to, information about the decision-making process regarding becoming a parent and about human development and reproduction.

(b) A definition of health education including, but not limited to, the elements in (a) of this subsection.

(c) The development of health curriculum that is sequential and appropriate for each grade level and review of the curriculum in conjunction with the instructional materials committee under RCW 28A.58.103. Model curriculum guidelines for health education programs developed by the office of the superintendent of public instruction under RCW 28A.03.425 shall be considered.

(d) The planned instructional time for health education programs at each grade level.

(e) Methods of involving health professionals, classroom teachers, parents, students, and members of the community, including the business community, in the planning and provision of a health education program.

(f) Methods of providing teachers and others, if appropriate, with the necessary training for health education instruction.

(g) Methods for assuring that teachers providing health education instruction have the necessary training.

(h) Methods for assessing the effectiveness of the health education program, including the goal-setting provisions of RCW 28A.58.094 and the self-study provisions of RCW 28A.58.085.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary may apply for, receive, and accept gifts and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person and may make use of these receipts as grants to organizations other than the department involved in implementation of the healthy families program."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, I would raise the issue of point of order. I would raise the issue of scope and object on this. The underlying bill, the original bill, deals with cholesterol and fat. The amendment deals with school base programs. It talks about AIDS education. It talks about substance abuse. It talks about physical exercise, which some of us could use, and it's a good bill--a good idea--but it doesn't fit this title and so I'd like the President to rule on scope and object."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lee, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5754 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5754 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Anderson moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 28, insert the following:

*Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any worker entitled to receive any benefits or claiming such under this title shall, if requested by the department or self-insurer, submit himself or herself for medical examination, at a time and from time to time, at a place reasonably convenient for the worker and as may be provided by the rules of the department. If the worker refuses to submit to medical examination, or obstructs the same, or, if any injured worker shall persist in unsanitary or injurious practices which tend to imperil or retard his or her recovery, or shall refuse to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is reasonably essential to his or her recovery or refuse or obstruct evaluation or examination for the purpose of vocational rehabilitation or does not cooperate in reasonable efforts at such rehabilitation, the department or the self-insurer (~~upon approval by the department~~) with notice to the worker may suspend any further action on any claim of such worker so long as such refusal, obstruction, noncooperation, or practice continues and reduce, suspend, or deny any compensation for such period: PROVIDED, That the department or the self-insurer shall not suspend any further action on any claim of a worker or reduce, suspend, or deny any compensation if a worker has good cause for refusing to submit to or to obstruct any examination, evaluation, treatment or practice requested by the department or required under this section. If the worker necessarily incurs traveling expenses in attending for examination pursuant to the request of the department, such traveling expenses shall be repaid to him or her out of the accident fund upon proper voucher and audit or shall be repaid by the self-insurer, as the case may be.

The department or the self-insurer shall be entitled to reimbursement from the worker for the cost of any scheduled examination arranged by the department or the self-insurer that the worker fails to attend without good cause. Reimbursement may be offset against entitlement to benefits. Disputes concerning whether there was good cause for a worker's failure to attend an examination shall be determined on the application of either party by the director or the director's designee with no right of appeal.

If the medical examination required by this section causes the worker to be absent from his or her work without pay he or she shall be paid for such time lost in accordance with the schedule of payments provided in RCW 51.32.090 as amended."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I believe the amendment by Senator Anderson expands the scope and object of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5754. Specifically, this is an act relating to the release of health care information under industrial insurance. I recognize that the title usually does not govern on scope and object, but the title is indicative of the fact that the object of the bill was only to deal with the question of physician-patient privilege and the waiver thereof in the principle bill.

"This amendment which deals with penalties under the Industrial Insurance Act is found in a different chapter of RCW title 51 and goes far beyond the original scope of the bill which was only to deal with this question of disclosure information. This is a penalty amendment and I believe it does expand the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5754 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5808, by Senators Lee, Matson, McMullen, Warnke and Vognilid

"Sec. 2. Section 51.44.070, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 312, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For every case resulting in death or permanent total disability the department shall transfer on its books from the accident fund of the proper class and/or appropriate account to the "reserve fund" a sum of money for that case equal to the estimated present cash value of the monthly payments provided for it, to be calculated upon the basis of an annuity covering the payments in this title provided to be made for the case. Such annuity values shall be based upon rates of mortality, disability, remarriage, and interest as determined by the state insurance commissioner, taking into account the experience of the reserve fund in such respects.

Similarly, a self-insurer in these circumstances shall pay into the reserve fund a sum of money computed in the same manner, and the disbursements therefrom shall be made as in other cases.

(2) As an alternative to payment procedures otherwise provided under law, in the event of death or permanent total disability to workers of self-insured employers, a self-insured employer may upon establishment of such obligation file with the department a bond, ~~((or))~~ an assignment of account from a federally or state chartered commercial banking institution authorized to conduct business in the state of Washington, or purchase an annuity, in an amount deemed by the insurance commissioner to be reasonably sufficient to insure payment of the pension benefits provided by law. The department shall adopt rules governing assignments of account or annuities. Such rules shall ensure that the funds are available if needed, even in the case of failure of the banking institution, the institution authorized to provide annuities, or ~~((or))~~ the employer's business.

The annuity value for every such case shall be determined by the insurance commissioner based upon the commissioner's experience as to rates of mortality, disability, remarriage, and interest. The amount of the required bond ~~((or))~~, assignment of account, or annuity may be reviewed and adjusted periodically by the department, based upon periodic redeterminations by the insurance commissioner as to the outstanding annuity value for the case.

Under such alternative, the ~~((department))~~ self-insurer shall ~~((make the monthly payments from the pension reserve fund))~~ provide for the benefits provided for by RCW 51.32.050 and 51.32.060 to the self-insured beneficiary or beneficiaries ~~((and the department shall be reimbursed for all such payments from the particular self-insured employer through periodic charges not less than quarterly in a manner to be determined by the director))~~.

Any self-insured employer electing this alternative method of providing for payment to the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall additionally pay to the department a deposit equal to the first three months' payments otherwise required under RCW 51.32.050 and 51.32.060. Such deposit shall be placed in the reserve fund in accordance with RCW 51.44.140 and shall be returned to the respective self-insured employer when monthly payments are no longer required for such particular obligation.

If a self-insurer delays or refuses to reimburse the department beyond fifteen days after the reimbursement charges become due, there shall be a penalty paid by the self-insurer upon order of the director of an additional amount equal to twenty-five percent of the amount then due which shall be paid into the pension reserve fund. Such an order shall conform to the requirements of RCW 51.52.050."

On motion of Senator Lee, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "51.14.020" insert "and 51.44.070"

SENATE BILL NO. 6051, by Senators Anderson, Cantu, Stratton, Smith, Thorsness, McMullen, Wojahn, Lee and Bailey

MOTIONS

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment by Senators Wojahn, Kreidler, Niemi, Talmadge, Smitherman and Murray be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that increasing the availability and affordability of quality child care will enhance the stability of the family and facilitate expanded economic prosperity in the state. The legislature finds that balancing work and family life is a critical concern for employers and employees. The dramatic increase in participation of women in the work force has resulted in a demand for quality, affordable child care exceeding the supply. The future of the state's work force depends in part upon the availability of quality, affordable child care. There are not enough child care services and facilities to meet the needs of working parents, the costs of care are often beyond the resources of working parents, and facilities are not located conveniently to work places and neighborhoods. The prospect for labor shortages resulting from the aging of the population and the importance of the quality of the work force to the competitiveness of Washington businesses make the availability of quality child care an important concern for the state and its businesses.

The legislature further finds that making information on child care options available to businesses can help the market for child care adjust to the needs of businesses and working families and improve productivity, reduce absenteeism, improve recruitment, and improve morale among Washington's labor force. The legislature further finds that private and public partnerships and investments are necessary to increase the supply, affordability, and quality of child care in the state.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 213, Laws of 1988 and RCW 74.13.085 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the policy of the state of Washington to:

(1) Recognize the family as the most important social and economic unit of society and support the central role parents play in child rearing. All parents are encouraged to care for and nurture their children through the traditional methods of parental care at home. However, ((to the extent child care services are used;)) there has been a dramatic increase in participation of women in the workforce which has made the availability of quality, affordable child care a critical concern for the state and its citizens. There are not enough child care services and facilities to meet the needs of working parents, the costs of care are often beyond the resources of working parents, and child care facilities are not located conveniently to work places and neighborhoods. Parents are encouraged to participate fully in the effort to improve the quality of child care services.

(2) Promote a variety of culturally and developmentally appropriate child care settings and services of the highest possible quality in accordance with the basic principle of continuity of care. These settings shall include, but not be limited to, family day care homes, mini-centers, centers and schools.

(3) Promote the growth, development and safety of children by working with community groups including providers and parents to establish standards for quality service, training of child care providers, fair and equitable monitoring, and salary levels commensurate with provider responsibilities and support services.

(4) Promote equal access to quality, affordable, socio-economically integrated child care for all children and families.

(5) Facilitate broad community and private sector involvement in the provision of quality child care services to foster economic development and assist industry.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 213, Laws of 1988 and RCW 74.13.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is established a child care coordinating committee to provide coordination and communication between state agencies responsible for child care and early childhood education services. The child care coordinating committee shall be composed of not less than seventeen nor more than thirty members who shall include:

(a) One representative each from the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and any other agency having responsibility for regulation, provision, or funding of child care services in the state;

(b) One representative from the ~~((governor's commission on children))~~ department of labor and industries;

(c) One representative from the department of trade and economic development;

(d) One representative from the department of revenue;

(e) One representative from the employment security department;

(f) At least one representative of family home child care providers and one representative of center care providers;

~~((f))~~ (g) At least one representative of early childhood development experts;

~~((f))~~ (h) At least one representative of school districts and teachers involved in the provision of child care and preschool programs;

~~((f))~~ (i) At least one parent education specialist;

~~((f))~~ (j) At least one representative of resource and referral programs;

~~((f))~~ (k) One pediatric or other health professional;

~~((f))~~ (l) At least one representative of college or university child care providers;

~~((f))~~ (m) At least one representative of a citizen group concerned with child care;

~~((f))~~ (n) At least one representative of a labor organization;

~~((m))~~ (o) At least one representative of a head start - early childhood education assistance program agency;

~~((m))~~ (p) At least one employer who provides child care assistance to employees;

~~((e))~~ (q) Parents of children receiving, or in need of, child care, half of whom shall be parents needing or receiving subsidized child care and half of whom shall be parents who are able to pay for child care.

The named state agencies shall select their representative to the child care coordinating committee. The department of social and health services shall select the remaining members, considering recommendations from lists submitted by professional associations and other interest groups until such time as the committee adopts a member selection process. Staff support for the child care coordinating committee shall be provided within available resources by the department of social and health services on an ongoing basis. The department shall use any federal funds which may become available to accomplish the purposes of RCW 74.13.085 through 74.13.095.

The committee shall elect officers from among its membership and shall adopt policies and procedures specifying the lengths of terms, methods for filling vacancies, and other matters necessary to the ongoing functioning of the committee. The secretary of social and health services shall appoint a temporary chair until the committee has adopted policies and elected a chair accordingly. Child care coordinating committee members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) To the extent possible within available funds, the child care coordinating committee shall:

(a) Serve as an advisory coordinator for all state agencies responsible for early childhood or child care programs for the purpose of improving communication and interagency coordination, but not to review the substance of programs. ~~((The committee shall))~~

(b) Annually review state programs and make recommendations to the agencies and the legislature which will maximize funding and promote furtherance of the policies set forth in RCW 74.13.085(;;). Reports shall be provided to all appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1 of each year. At a minimum the committee shall:

~~((b))~~ (i) Review and propose changes to the child care subsidy system ~~((by December 1, 1989))~~ in its December 1989 report;

(ii) Review alternative models for child care service systems, in the context of the policies set forth in RCW 74.13.085, and recommend to the legislature a new child care service structure;

(iii) Review options and make recommendations on the feasibility of establishing an allocation for day care facilities when constructing state buildings; and

(iv) Review and propose statutory and administrative changes to encourage employer involvement in child care and partnerships between employers and the public sector to increase the quantity, quality, and affordability of child care services and facilities in this state.

(c) Review ((agency)) department of social and health services administration of the child care expansion grant program described in RCW 74.13.095((:));

(d) ((Review alternative models for child care service systems, in the context of the policies set forth in RCW 74.13.085, and recommend to the legislature a new child care service structure;

(e) Review options and make recommendations on the feasibility of establishing an allocation for day care facilities when constructing state buildings; and

(f)) Review department of social and health services administration of the child care partnership program described in section 4 of this act.

(e) Review employer-assisted loan applications submitted under sections 6 through 8 of this act and make determinations on those applications.

(f) Perform other functions to improve the quantity and quality of child care in the state, including compliance with existing and future prerequisites for federal funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 74.13 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The child care partnership program is established within the department of social and health services under the direction of the child care resource coordinator. The program shall encourage employer assistance and involvement in child care and foster partnerships between employers and the public sector to better meet the critical need for affordable, quality child care services in the state. In addition to the activities included in subsection (2) of this section, the program shall provide assistance to community-based child care resource and referral agencies to increase their capacity to provide quality technical assistance to employers in their community. To the greatest extent possible and consistent with the need to ensure the quality of assistance provided to employers, funds appropriated for the purposes of the child care partnership program shall be allocated to community-based child care resource and referral agencies to carry out the activities included in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The program shall work with the assistance of, and in consultation with, the business assistance center established under RCW 43.31.085 and the child care coordinating committee, particularly the representatives of the department of trade and economic development, the department of labor and industries, and the department of revenue, and shall:

Such technical assistance shall include, but not be limited to: Assessment of the child care needs of employees and prospective employees; review of options available to employers interested in increasing access to child care for their employees; development of techniques to permit smaller employers to increase access to child care for their employees in a cost-effective manner; review of methods for evaluating the impact of child care activities on the employer; workplace personnel practices and policies, including flexible work schedules; alternate child care services systems; and contributions an employer may make to the recruiting and training of child care providers;

(b) Develop a list of firms and individuals with expertise in the field of employer involvement in child care and utilize such firms and individuals, as appropriate, in delivering technical assistance. The program shall make this information available to employers to whom it provides technical assistance;

(d) Encourage local governments to create incentives for employer support for child care by providing information on such local government incentives in this state and other states;

(g) Review regulations regarding child care facilities and services for the purpose of identifying those which unnecessarily obstruct the provision of employee-assisted child care in the state, and make recommendations to the legislature in this regard;

(h) Work to make the partnership eligible for any federal funding which will benefit child care businesses, assist employers in assisting their employees in meeting their child care needs, and facilitate the development of child care as a strategy for economic development;

(i) Prepare, collect, and distribute current research and information on child care options for employers, including information on the existence, responsibilities, and capabilities of the partnership. As much as possible, and through interagency agreements where appropriate, information should be included in routine communications to employers from: (i) The department of revenue, (ii) the department of labor and industries, (iii) the employment security department, (iv) the department of trade and economic development, (v) the small business development center, and (vi) the department of social and health services;

SENATE BILL NO. 5140, by Senators McCaslin and DeJarnatt (by request of Governor Gardner)

Changing provisions relating to state personnel administration.

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5140 be substituted for Senate Bill No. 5140 and the substitute bill be placed on second reading and read the second time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object with respect to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5140. A substitute measure before the body is one that should be treated as an amendment. That is the case under Reed's Rules, and the substitute bill that is before us is one that expands upon the original scope of the bill, which addressed the issue of the appointment of the director of the Department of Personnel and the membership of the personnel board. The substitute bill contains in it, not only those issues, but clearly deals with additional questions, including certain rights under the Civil Service Law and expands clearly upon the original scope of the bill, which was to deal only with civil service administration. The amendment that is before us as a substitute bill encompasses a wide variety of issues beyond simply the administration of the personnel system and gets into substantive civil service law, therefore expanding the scope and object of the original bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I believe the scope—the point is not timely given. The gavel had already sounded."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Senator Newhouse, I'm not going to agree with you on that, because he was standing as I hit it and it is sometimes a little hard for me to see it all, but I think in all fairness, he was on his feet. Would you like to set it down so I would have a chance to rule?"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5140 was deferred.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5754 and the pending amendment by Senator Anderson on page 1, after line 28, deferred earlier today.

WITHDRAWAL OF AMENDMENT

On motion of Senator Anderson, and there being no objection, the amendment on page 1, after line 28, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5754 was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 28, insert new sections to read as follows:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. When a health care provider finds that there exists a medical emergency, that provider shall take steps to protect the public from the dangers of that emergency. Those steps shall include, but not be limited to, the declaration to the public that an emergency exists; the acquisition of vaccines and the administration of those vaccines.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. As much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, from the general fund to the department of social and health services for grants to health districts for the purposes of section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "I rise to a point of order. I'd raise the issue of scope and object. This, while it's well intended, has good intentions, it obviously doesn't fit this bill and I'd like to offer to Senator Hansen, that we get together and work something out perhaps with the budget or for some other bill and take care of this problem in another fashion, but it doesn't fit this bill."

On motion of Senator Hansen, and there being no objection, the amendment on page 1, after line 28, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5754 was withdrawn.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. (1) The legislature finds that more and more young people, especially in the urban areas of the state, are becoming involved with gangs, substance abuse, including drug trafficking, and teen pregnancy. As they become involved in such activities, they more frequently drop out of school than other students and are at greater risk of experiencing unemployment, becoming involved with criminal activities, and turning to public assistance programs for support. The end result is harm to both themselves and society. Substance abuse, gang activity, unemployment, and teen pregnancy are taking a disproportionate toll on minority youth.

(2) The legislature further finds that existing programs take a piecemeal approach to the needs of high-risk youth, offering only limited services. As a consequence, the current programs are not adequately effective in stopping the proliferation of gangs, substance abuse, unemployment, teen pregnancy, or other problems among youth, particularly in the urban areas of the state. Studies show clearly that poor academic performance plays a significant part in these problems.

(3) The purpose of sections 42 through 51 of this act is to create a cost-effective program that will challenge, motivate, and give incentive to underachieving, high-risk students in an effort to: Boost their academic achievement in school; reduce their involvement with gangs and substance abuse; reduce the numbers of high-risk youth, particularly minorities, who are unemployed; and reduce the number of teen pregnancies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent, working with the employment security department, the department of social and health services, the department of community development, the state board for vocational education in the office of the governor, and other state agencies as are appropriate, shall be the lead agency in developing and administering project DREAM (dare to reach for educational aspirations and marks), a pilot program for academic excellence for underachieving, high-risk students.

(2) Initially, the program shall be limited to the school districts of Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Yakima, and Pasco, focusing on the areas within these school districts with the highest percentages of underachieving, high-risk students. The program shall emphasize a focus on minority students but shall not be exclusively limited to serving minority students.

(3) Project DREAM shall commence with the beginning of the 1989-90 school year and end at the completion of the 1992-93 school year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Individual programs under project DREAM shall consist of the following:

(1) Academic counseling and outreach, including study skills;

(2) Parent and family involvement, including outreach and counseling as necessary and appropriate;

(3) Employment and vocational counseling and training;

(4) Substance abuse awareness, and counseling and treatment as necessary;

(5) Teen pregnancy and teen parenting counseling; and

(6) Positive self-image building.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Each adult advisor shall be responsible for the following:

(1) Maintain a caseload of high-risk students not to exceed fifteen;

(2) Sign a written agreement with each student to comply with specific state or local regulations, or both, while participating in project DREAM;

(3) Meet weekly with each student to monitor the student's progress under project DREAM;

(4) Meet bi-weekly with each student's teachers, school counselor, parent or guardian, and family members;

(5) Maintain a portfolio for each student; and

(6) Serve as the facilitator in getting the student together with or to school or community-based health care providers, vocational counselors, job service center personnel, employment interviews, court ordered activities or programs, as necessary, including, as appropriate, an intake officer, probation counselor or prosecuting attorney, and other persons or groups that can help the student gain maximum benefits from participating in project DREAM.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Each participating student shall be responsible for the following:

(1) Sign a written agreement with their adult advisor to comply with all state or local regulations, or both, while a participant in project DREAM;

(2) Meet weekly with their adult advisor to discuss the student's progress; and

(3) Maintain a personal written or audio portfolio.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each participating school district shall be responsible for designing the specific elements of its project DREAM program. The district shall determine, in accordance with section 42(2) of this act, which schools shall participate in the local program. Every eligible high-risk student in the building shall be encouraged to participate in the program.

(2) In designing the local program the participating districts are encouraged to consider:

(a) Dropout prevention strategies developed by school districts under RCW 28A.120.060 through 28A.120.072, the state grant program for school district student motivation, retention, and retrieval programs; and

(b) Substance abuse prevention, intervention, and aftercare strategies developed by school districts under RCW 28A.120.030 through 28A.120.050, the state grant program for school district substance abuse awareness programs.

(c) As necessary, contact the local juvenile court including the intake officer, probation counselor or prosecuting attorney, to determine, as appropriate, how decisions of the court affecting a student participating in a local project DREAM program may be implemented as part of the student's responsibilities under the local project DREAM program.

(4) In designing the local program, the participating districts shall be responsible for:

(a) Screening and employing adult advisors to work with high-risk students selected to participate in the program; and

(b) Providing any training necessary for the adult advisors to effectively carry out their responsibilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each school district participating in project DREAM shall submit annually to the superintendent of public instruction a report on the district's local program. The report shall include an assessment of the effectiveness of the services, programs, or activities provided to the participating high-risk students and other information as may be required by the superintendent.

(2) The superintendent shall establish the date for submittal of reports. The superintendent shall work with the participating districts in developing reporting requirements that do not create excessive paperwork but that provide information necessary for the legislature to evaluate the impact of project DREAM on the participating high-risk students.

(3) The superintendent shall submit annually to the legislature a report on project DREAM. The first report shall be submitted not later than December 1, 1990. Subsequent reports shall be submitted by December 1. The final report shall be submitted not later than December 1, 1993 and shall include final findings and recommendations.

The reports shall include information on how many students have or are participating in the local programs and the success of the programs in meeting the needs of the participating high-risk students.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. A new section is added to chapter 28A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Moneys in the account may be spent only for the purposes of sections 42 through 48 of this act. Disbursements from this account shall be on the authorization of the superintendent or the superintendent's designee. The account is subject to the allotment procedure provided under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for disbursements.

On page 34, following line 19, insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 44. This act shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "I rise to a point of order. I would reluctantly challenge Senator Fleming's amendments on scope and object. I believe the amendments, although well meaning, are addressing a whole other RCW that addresses 28A, which is the education area. The bill before us does not even touch that area. The bill before is addressing run-away children who are in conflict with their parents, not academically at risk students, which is what Senator Fleming's amendments do. He is amending on a whole other bill, and I believe it's out of scope and object. Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon Senator Talmadge's point of order, the President finds himself in a truly precedent-making situation. The Senate Rules are silent on whether a point of order based on scope and object may be raised on a proposed substitute bill.

"Reeds Parliamentary Rule, No. 77, states in part: 'Substitute Bill - When changes are numerous and otherwise not easy to be understood, the best way for a committee to do is to report the bill or paper in a new draft as a substitute for the paper committed. This substitute could then be regarded as an amendment or be acted on as an original bill, as the committee may determine.'

"The Senate has apparently treated substitutes as an original bill as the President can find no prior Senate ruling on this question.

"The President feels that to allow a scope and object challenge to a substitute bill would have the potential of fundamentally altering the way in which the Senate has conducted its business and the way in which the Senate has routinely contemplated doing its business.

"The President is extremely reluctant to unilaterally institute such a mid-stream change in the course of a legislative session.

"The President, therefore, finds that a point of order may not be raised on the scope and object of a substitute bill."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, just a question of the President. We are moving into a new area, where we will have House Bills. If a House Bill comes back from committee, with a full striking amendment, and then was challenged as scope and object, would that fall under this ruling or would that take a separate ruling?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Well, Senator, I guess we will have to address that issue when it happens. Hopefully, by that time, I'll be ready."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Williams: "Mr. President, your ruling has raised a question in my mind in terms of what then might be the guidelines for a substitute bill. My concern would be the jeopardy that an individual sponsoring a bill would have dealing with a certain subject. Your ruling, it seems to me, might open the door to carrying subject matter on that bill much beyond what the original sponsor's intent was or desire might be."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Well, number one we're going to do it the way, at least through this session, we're going to be doing it as we have done it in the past. We're going to not look behind the committee action. Obviously, if people feel this change should be made, why I think it's obvious that it's entirely proper for the rules to be changed by the body and at any time they can do that. I'm only ruling on the situation as it is.

"I would be very reluctant to make that change. You know people can make a very good argument on both sides of this issue, but, I think, then the determination on making that change is left with the body and not with the Chair to make some arbitrary ruling, particularly, a change in precedent that's been going on, as far as we can tell, for the last seventy-five years."

Senator Williams: "Thank you, Mr. President. I recognize that, however it seems to me that your ruling, though, does open the door to the need for subsequent clarification and unless the body changes its rules, then the President will find himself in the position of forced to make rulings on what degree of change a substitute bill can have."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Newhouse that Senate Bill No. 5140 be substituted.

The motion by Senator Newhouse carried and Substitute Senate Bill No. 5140 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5140 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 51, line 10, after "67," strike all material down to and including the period on line 11 and insert "Sections 3 and 7 of this act shall be submitted to the people for their approval and ratification, or rejection, at the next succeeding general election to be held in this state, in accordance with Article II, section 1 of the state Constitution, as amended, and the laws to facilitate the operation thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. Sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and sections 8 through 66 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1990, if sections 3 and 7 are validly submitted and approved and ratified by the voters at a general election held in November 1989. If sections 3 and 7 are not approved and ratified, sections 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and sections 8 through 66 are void in their entirety."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I believe the amendment by Senators Benitz and Rasmussen expands the scope and object of Senate Bill No. 6034. Mr. President, if I might, the original bill was calculated to alter the administration arrangements for the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council. This is calculated to repeal it, in effect, and it clearly expands the original intention of the bill which simply was to modify the administrative arrangements for that particular agency and this is a repealer, I think, in and of itself that suggests that the scope and object of the legislation has been expanded."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Section 1 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 1 of this act shall expire June 30, 1994."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sutherland: "Mr. President, during the course of this session, I've been taking careful notes on Senator West's requests, and I would like to request a ruling on scope and object on this amendment. I would point out a couple of factors. First of all, Senator Benitz's comments on Senator Williams' amendment clearly stated that his proposal--his amendment--would create a new board with a different orientation and those are right in the beginning on page 1 of the amendment, lines 10 and 11. I draw your attention also to page 2, lines 29, 30 and 31, which would require the Legislative Budget Committee to conduct a study and fiscal review of something that's being terminated.

"That study is new and then comparing that with the substitute bill which came out of committee, Mr. President, is just a total repealer of the Nuclear Waste Board and the Nuclear Waste Advisory Council. It appears to me, as if the two are totally different. One terminates the board; the other one starts or initiates a separate board."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6033 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5127, by Senator McCaslin

Eliminating boundary review boards.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McCaslin, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5127 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Sutherland moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 1, line 8, beginning with "(if strike all material through "or)") on line 9 and insert "if the boundary review board approves or modifies and approves the proposal in other than counties containing a population of three hundred thousand or more, where an election shall be held even though the boundary review board disapproves, or"

On page 1, line 15, after "authorities, or" strike all material through "approval)" on line 16 and insert "in other than counties containing a population of three hundred thousand or more, the approval or modification and approval"

On page 3, line 4, after "that" insert "in counties containing a population of three hundred thousand or more"

On page 3, line 21, after "town" and before the comma, insert "in a county containing a population of three hundred thousand or more"

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 1, lines 8 and 15 and page 3, lines 4 and 21, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127.

The motion by Senator Sutherland failed and the amendments were not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator McCaslin, if the Boundary Review Board does not make a decision, who does? Is there another committee? Is there somebody else doing this or--"

Senator McCaslin: "Yes, Jack, the county commissioners or the county council, because as Senator Sutherland pointed out, there are only nineteen in the state and you wonder how the other counties get along. What have we got, twenty-nine counties? Thirty-nine counties, it's even moved up since I've been here talking to you, Jack. But, anyway they get along fine. Jack, what this does is the Bounty Review Boards are making decisions the county commissioners should be making. We've got to stand up as elected people and make our decisions when the people put us in office."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 12; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Lee, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Stratton, Thorsness, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 36.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Fleming, Kreidler, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Rinehart, Smitherman, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognlid - 12.

Excused: Senator DeJarnatt - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5127, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5699, by Senators Williams, Johnson, Moore, Amondson, Matson, Saling, Wojahn and McCaslin

Extending the historic property tax exemption.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5699 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Williams, first of all, could you tell me who it is the might be in opposition to this legislation? Secondly, could you give me a few names of some of, maybe, the more known organizations or places that took advantage--that list of them that you named off? Thirdly, if by doing this, are there any named organizations or places that would be able to benefit from this, such as the Rainier Club, or something like that?"

Senator Williams: "If I can remember your questions. First, of all the only known opposition, other than what you've heard here on the floor, basically has come from the assessors, and I'm not going to try and make their argument for them. Perhaps it complicates their life. I don't know."

"You know, property owners in Pioneer Square in Seattle, for instance, have taken advantage of this. Any building which qualifies on the historic register and goes through the process and covenant process and so forth, the rehabs that take place in these buildings, have to comply with national standards for rehabilitation of historic buildings. So, it's not just a give-away program. Also, the historic buildings that are subject to this, in Seattle at least, those historic buildings are subject to more stringent building code regulations than other property owners. This, in a sense, is a giving to those property owners for something that we impose on them that is more strict than other property owners."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5699.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5699 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 5; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Cantu, Craswell, Nelson, Patterson, Pullen - 5.

Excused: Senator DeJarnatt - 1.

SENATE BILL NO. 5699, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5314, by Senators Bailey, Craswell, Thorsness, Lee, Anderson, Nelson, Benitz, Bauer, Rasmussen and Smith

Prohibiting persons convicted of sex crimes or other crimes affecting children from working in the public schools.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5314 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5314 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, after line 27, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.43 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The supreme court shall by rule require the courts of the state to determine if a person has a certificate to teach under chapter 28A.70 RCW upon conviction of that person of any felony crime involving the physical neglect of children, the physical injury of children (except motor vehicle violations under chapter 46.61 RCW), sexual exploitation of children, child pornography, sexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim, promoting prostitution of a minor, the sale or purchase of a minor child under RCW 9A.64.030, or the sexual abuse of children. The supreme court by rule shall require the courts of the state to notify the state patrol of such convictions.

(2) When the state patrol receives information that a person with a certificate to teach has been convicted of one of the felony crimes under subsection (1) of this section, the state patrol shall immediately transmit that information to the state board of education and the superintendent of public instruction."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following title amendments were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "RCW 28A.70.180;" strike "and"

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "RCW" insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 43.43 RCW"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5314 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Bailey, your amendment, is this a new function that the state patrol would have? To my knowledge, they have the ability to, through a fingerprint system, to identify people, but do they follow the court as to convictions and what have you and are they asked to do this?"

Senator Bailey: "This will not be a new function for the state patrol. We used the language that is already in WAC for the state patrol. It simply provides identification to each school district, through the Superintendent of Public Instruction Office of those convictions of felonies against children."

Senator Patterson: "They do have a function now?"

Senator Bailey: "Yes, they do have a function now."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bender, Senator Owen was excused.

On motion of Senator Anderson, Senator Amondson was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5314.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5314 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vogtild, von Retzbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 46.

Excused: Senators Amondson, DeJarnatt, Owen - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5314, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5499, by Senators von Reichbauer, Rasmussen, Sellar, Moore, Newhouse, Lee and Johnson

Requiring motor vehicle liability insurance.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5499 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5499 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Sellar moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 34, insert the following:

"(5) No driver or owner of a motor vehicle may receive compensation for general damages greater than two times the medical bills for injuries or damages arising out of an automobile accident in which the driver or owner was an occupant of an involved motor vehicle unless the driver or owner first proves compliance with this chapter at the time of the accident. Nothing in this subsection prohibits a noncomplying person from receiving compensation for special damages."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McMullen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would like to rise to question the scope and object of this amendment. I believe it expands the scope and object of the original bill. The original bill dealt with other people having insurance for my injuries. This deals with my ability to recover and I think it's beyond the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5499 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5145, by Senators Smith, Niemi, Johnson, Kreidler, West and Moore

(9) Licenses shall be issued for no less than one and no more than three years as determined by the department.

(10) If a licensed sponsor desires to apply for a renewal of a license he or she must submit a renewal application to the department. If the department fails to act by the expiration date of the license, the license shall continue in effect until the department acts.

(11) The department shall conduct an inspection of the adult family home prior to license renewal to ensure the requirements of this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter are met.

(12) The department may deny a license to any applicant that:

(a) Operated an adult family home without a license or under a revoked or suspended license;

(14) The department shall notify the residents of the denial, suspension, or revocation or nonrenewal of a license.

(15) If the department determines that an emergency exists as a result of an adult family home's failure or refusal to comply with requirements of this chapter, the department may order the immediate closure of the adult family home, the immediate transfer of residents, or both.

(16) (a) The department shall order stop placement on an adult family home, effective upon oral or written notice, when the department determines that the adult family home no longer substantially meets the requirements of this chapter; or any applicable state rules; and the deficiency or deficiencies in the adult family home jeopardize the health and safety of the residents or seriously limit the adult family home's capacity to provide adequate care.

(b) When the department has initiated a stop placement, the department may approve a readmission to the adult family home from a hospital when the department determines the readmission would be in the best interest of the individual seeking readmission.

(c) The department shall notify the sponsors, by certified mail, of its intention to deny, suspend, or revoke the sponsors license. The letter shall state the grounds for the action, the time frame for corrective action, if any, and the opportunity to contest the departments action.

(d) All orders of the department denying, suspending, or revoking the adult family home license shall become final twenty days after service upon the applicant or licensee unless a hearing is requested.

(e) Orders of the department imposing stop placement, emergency closure, emergency transfer, or stop payment shall be effective immediately upon notice and pending any hearing.

(f) The department shall terminate the stop placement when:

(i) The sponsor states in writing that the deficiencies necessitating the stop placement action have been corrected; and

(ii) Department staff confirms in a timely fashion not to exceed fifteen working days that:

(A) The deficiencies necessitating stop placement action have been corrected; and

(B) The sponsor exhibits the capacity to maintain adequate care and service.

(g) An adult family home sponsor shall have the right to an informal review to present written evidence to refute the deficiencies cited as the basis for the stop placement. If an informal review is desired, the adult family home shall request the review in writing within ten days of the effective date of the stop placement.

(h) A stop placement shall not be delayed or suspended because the adult family home requests a contested hearing or an informal review. The stop placement shall remain in effect until:

(i) The department terminates the stop placement;

(ii) Fourteen days after an initial decision terminating the stop placement is mailed and the department does not file a petition for administrative review; or

(iii) A review decision terminating the stop placement is mailed.

(17) The department shall by rule specify criteria as to when and how the sanctions specified in this section shall be applied. Such criteria shall provide for the imposition of incrementally more severe penalties for deficiencies that are repeated, uncorrected, pervasive, or present a threat to the health, safety, or welfare of the residents. Penalties may include civil monetary penalties.

(18) At the time of the application for or renewal of a license the licensee shall at the department's discretion, pay a license fee as established by the department under RCW 43.20B.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Notwithstanding the existence or use of any other remedy, the department or a resident may bring an action for a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or other action against any person who operates a facility in noncompliance with this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department shall, in the interest of public health, safety and welfare, adopt rules with respect to licensed adult family homes and sponsors as may be needed to further promote this chapter and the safe and adequate care of individuals in adult family homes.

(2) All hearings hereunder and judicial review of such determinations shall be in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. All information received by the department through filed reports, inspections, or as otherwise authorized under this chapter, shall not be disclosed publicly in any manner identifying residents or sponsors, except in a proceeding involving denial, suspension, or revocation of a license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department shall have the authority, in consultation with the state fire marshal, to:

(1) Adopt recognized minimum standard requirements for adult family homes necessary to protect residents from fire hazards; and

(2) To make or cause to be made inspections, necessary to protect all persons residing in the adult family home from fire hazards. These inspections may be made by department licensing staff or the local fire authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Each resident shall have, in addition to any rights established by law, the following rights:

(a) To be informed or to have an agent, designated by the resident, informed of the resident's rights and the policies of the adult family home at the time of admission. A written copy of rights and policies shall be provided to each resident or designated agent;

(b) To be treated in a manner that respects his or her individual identity and human dignity and fosters self-esteem;

(c) To associate and communicate privately with persons of his or her choice; to send or receive uncensored correspondence through the mail; and to have reasonable access to a telephone both to make and to receive personal phone calls;

(d) To manage personal financial affairs unless the person has been adjudicated to be incompetent or unless a representative or protective payee has been appointed;

(e) To retain and use personal clothing and possessions;

(f) To be assured privacy for visits with relatives or guests;

(k) To have information contained in resident health records kept confidential with access only to authorized personnel and the department unless the resident authorizes a release of information; and

(l) To be given timely notice of changes in policies and procedures.

(2) Each resident shall have at least one comfortable pillow and adequate, clean bedding. Clean sheets, a pillow case, towels, and washcloths shall be provided as needed and in any case at least once a week.

(3) Services shall be provided so as to attain or maintain each resident's highest degree of independent functioning possible and be compatible with individual safety and welfare.

(4) Nothing in this section shall allow a danger to be created or an infringement upon the rights of others.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The sponsor shall comply with federal and state statutory and regulatory requirements regarding nondiscrimination.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department shall establish a procedure for making on-site investigations of complaints against adult family homes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department shall inspect and investigate all adult family homes when the department has reason to believe the adult family home or sponsor may be in violation of provisions of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Each adult family home shall meet applicable local licensing, zoning, building, and housing codes, and state and local fire safety regulations. It is the responsibility of the sponsor to check with local authorities to ensure all local codes are met. An adult family home shall be a residential use of property for zoning purposes. Political jurisdictions shall treat adult family homes as a permitted use in all residential zoning districts, including all single family residential zoning districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. No sponsor shall be licensed to operate more than one adult family home concurrently. A sponsor shall not be employed by a corporation, partnership, or individual to operate an adult family home. Being employed by someone to be a sponsor shall be grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of that application or license and all associated applications and licenses. Exceptions may be authorized by the department for good cause.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5225, by Senators Saling, Stratton, Bauer, Patterson, Lee and West

Creating the Spokane intercollegiate research and technology institute.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Saling, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5225 and the second substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Saling, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Saling, on our reading calendar for today, there are two measures, the Spokane Surety Bill which you just spoke for and the Access for Higher Education. That is a bill that is of concern and importance to a number of us, because it provides for a higher education access into those areas we think most need it. Will the other bill, Senate Bill No. 5975, then follow this bill for our consideration?"

Senator Saling: "I don't know if it will follow this bill or not. As you are well aware, there are a considerable number of amendments on the other bill. We are looking at those amendments; we are talking about those amendments. We're trying to work out what we could accept and what we could not accept in those amendments and at this point in time, I'm not able to tell you how many of those amendments we can accept and how many we want to discuss with you and with others who have put those amendments on the desk. I hope, as you do, that we can get the higher education access bill along with a branch campus bill, which would be attached to it out of this body and over to the House as quickly as possible."

Senator Gaspard: "I would hope that, too. I'm asking from you, are we going to have a commitment from your side of the aisle that that issue will be before us before the cut-off at five o'clock?"

Senator Saling: "I can't give you any commitment on what bills will pass. That's beyond my control."

Senator Gaspard: "I didn't ask commitment for passage. I want to know if we're going to have them up for consideration?"

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I would like to speak on a point of personal privilege. I want to speak to the question of Senator Newhouse resenting comments that I might have made about the process that affects me personally. I'll be very brief. Mr. President, I'm sorry that Senator Newhouse resented the fact that I spoke to the process, but when I went to a member on this floor and said that I had amendments to the branch campus bill, and was told if amendments were offered, then the bill would not come before us and they would handle it in the budget process. I thought that was prima facie evidence that I could make the assumption that there was going to be another process used, rather than having the bill before us to amend, so I'm sorry that Senator Newhouse resented the fact, but I thought my information that I had, warranted my comments on the floor."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that further consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 be deferred and the Senate immediately consider Senate Bill No. 5975. Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of parliamentary inquiry. Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 is a Senate Bill that has fiscal notes on it; it has appropriations on it and it is directly related to the budget procedure. Under that belief of mine, would you rule whether this bill survives the cut-off tonight at five o'clock?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "That issue isn't before us at this moment. When it is before us, I'll rule."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild to defer further consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 and to immediately consider Senate Bill No. 5975.

The motion by Senator Vognild failed and the Senate continued consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225.

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, I rise for a parliamentary inquiry. The bill that is now before us, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225, is an act relating to Spokane intercollegiate research. It does have an appropriation. It has language talking about an operating fund appropriation that would be necessary to carry out the act. You would have to have a capital budget in order to carry out this act and a bond proposal, and I would like to have a ruling if this would be exempt from today's cut-off."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Well, you're asking me. The ruling says, 'what is necessary to implement the budget,' and I cannot, at this time, make a judgment on what is necessary to implement the budget, so I can't make that ruling."

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, who does make that ruling then?"

President Pritchard: "Well, we'll make it. I don't know anyone that can tell you right now what is necessary to implement the budget."

Senator Gaspard: "I don't want to belabor the point, but we do have a resolution before us that sets out the rules before the Senate and items necessary to implement the budget. Who then will make that determination of what is necessary to implement the budget?"

President Pritchard: "I don't think anyone today can tell you what is necessary to implement the budget."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator McDonald, the Lieutenant Governor is unable to make a determination on whether or not this bill would survive the cut-off. Since you're drafting the budget, could you tell us whether or not, this bill is necessary for the implementation of the budget?"

Senator McDonald: "Senator Warnke, as you know, I can't tell you that. That is a decision of the Ways and Means Committee and of this body and that will be done at a later time."

Further debate ensued.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 24; excused, 1.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5225, having failed to receive the constitutional majority was declared lost.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Vognild moved to immediately reconsider the vote by which Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5225 failed to pass the Senate.

CLARIFICATION OF PRESIDENT'S RULING

President Pritchard: "Senator Gaspard, I would like to clarify and kind of restate, and give you a better answer than I gave you when you asked me that question. I've had a little time to go over this and go through it. Let me just say in reading the rules here it says, 'be it further resolved that after 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 14, 1989, the ninety-sixth day, neither house may consider any bills, memorials or joint resolution, except budgets, matters necessary to implement budgets, tax reform legislation, initiatives to the legislature, etc.' As I've gone through this, I think I'm not satisfied with my answer that I gave you and, I think, it appears that this measure would be in a general sense, necessary to implement a budget, so at this time the Chair would tell you that the bill would survive today's cut-off."

EDITOR'S NOTE: The President quoted from the ninety-sixth day of the cut-off resolution, House Concurrent Resolution No. 4404, to clarify the measures that qualify and are necessary to implement a budget.

Debate ensued.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5525, by Senators Craswell, Owen, Smith, Stratton and Amondson

Regarding foster care.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Smith, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5525 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5525 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment by Senators Vognild and Niemi be adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 5, strike all material through "case plan." on page 3, line 7, and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 74.13 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes that the foster care system is currently overburdened because of increased children in placement and lack of resources with which to handle those placements. In addition, the legislature also recognizes that placement decisions are a matter of individual caseworker judgment or local department office policy which is applied inconsistently from case to case throughout the state. The legislature further recognizes that caseworker inexperience, an overwhelming feeling of responsibility attendant on the need to protect the child where there is a possibility of abuse, and the fear of public censure should the child be injured all influence placement decisions.

It is the legislature's intent that a standardized tool for use in decision-making be developed to guide caseworker's decisions on the need for out-of-home placement and that this tool be used to help ensure uniformity in these decisions across the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.13 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall develop placement guidelines for use by caseworkers and other staff in assessing or reviewing the need for out-of-home placement. The risk assessment model used to determine the level of intervention required for child protective services investigations may be used as a model upon which to base the out-of-home placement guidelines. The guidelines should include components which deal with the initial decision of whether to place a child and to focus on the critical elements that indicate the need for out-of-home placement. The guidelines should also include an evaluatory component for ongoing placement evaluation.

The department shall report to the committee on children and family services on its progress in developing these out-of-home placement guidelines by December 1, 1989.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 7, chapter 118, Laws of 1982 and RCW 74.15.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An agency seeking to accept and serve children, developmentally disabled persons, or expectant mothers as a foster-family home shall make application for license in such form and substance as required by the department. The department shall maintain a list of applicants through which placement may be undertaken. However, agencies and the department shall not place a child, developmentally disabled person, or expectant mother in a home until the home is licensed. Foster-family homes shall be inspected prior to licensure, except that inspection by the department is not required if the foster-family home is under the supervision of a licensed agency upon certification to the department by the licensed agency that such homes meet the requirements for foster homes as adopted pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031.

(2) Licenses provided for under this section shall be issued for a period of two years. Licensed foster-family homes shall be subject to on-site semiannually monitoring by department or private nonprofit agency licensing staff. The department or private nonprofit agencies may, at their discretion, reduce the frequency of monitoring if a home has been monitored for two years and the previous reports have shown no concerns raised regarding inappropriate care. In no case should the monitoring be less frequent than annually.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary of the department of social and health services may, in his or her discretion, issue a probationary license to any foster-family home for a period not to exceed six months. The probationary license shall not be granted until a criminal background check on the prospective foster parents is completed and minimum licensing requirements have been met. In addition, the department may adopt any rules necessary to ensure that foster parents are suitable for the six-month probationary period. The six-month probationary license may be renewed for one additional six-month period. The department may terminate the probationary license for any reason, at any time.

During the six-month probationary period, the department shall monitor the performance of the foster parents, the nature and extent of their training needs, and their specific strengths, weaknesses, and interests as foster parents. The department shall recommend services to foster parents which assist them in better developing their skills as foster parents."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Senate Bill No. 5975, the Higher Education Access Bill, is on the second reading calendar for today. As I read the summary of this, it says, 'Under the proposed second substitute that the bill is contingent on funding in the budget.' Mr. President, my inquiry is, would that bill survive the cut-off?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "This measure would appear to survive the 5:00 p.m. deadline as currently constituted. The bill appears to be a budget implementing measure."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624 and the pending amendments by Senator Fleming on page 3, line 2; page 8, line 31; page 28, lines 16 and 17; page 33, line 15 and page 34, lines 15 and 19, deferred, March 14, 1989.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Craswell, the President finds that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624 is a measure which establishes new procedures for dealing with youths who are runaways, chronically truant, in conflict with their parents or have serious abuse or chemical dependency problems. These procedures include limited or temporary custody, crisis intervention, court intervention, conditions of supervision and court ordered confinement in certain cases:

"The amendments proposed by Senator Fleming also deal with some of these same problems, but establish a new program for academic excellence for under-achieving, at-risk students.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by Senator Fleming to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624 were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Craswell, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 20, line 34, delete "file" and insert "request that the prosecuting attorney file a petition alleging that a minor is a high risk youth"

On motion of Senator Craswell, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 32, line 8, strike "section ____" and insert "sections 37 through 39"

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 13, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 40. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:
The department of social and health services shall raise foster care basic rates from current level eighty-five percent level to one hundred percent of the United States Department of Agriculture low-cost standard."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, I challenge this amendment on scope and object. This is an amendment to require DSHS to raise foster care rates. I don't believe it's appropriate in this bill. The bill doesn't even address the Department of Social and Health Services, and it doesn't address how much we pay foster care parents."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, further consideration of the amendment by Senator Vognild on page 33, after line 13, to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624 was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved that the following amendment by Senator Talmadge be adopted:

On page 33, after line 13, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 41. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:
The department of social and health services shall bring the current number of homemakers to one hundred per year which represents a three hundred percent increase over current level to meet state-wide need."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, I challenge this amendment on scope and object. While I highly agree with the program and hope that we'll address it in the budget, I believe it inappropriate in this bill since it's requiring DSHS to increase the number of homemakers and the bill doesn't even address homemakers and doesn't address the Department of Social and Health Services."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 13, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 42. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:
The department of social and health services shall lower the staff to cases ratio for child protective and child welfare services from current levels which are reported to be as high as one to thirty-four, down to the nationally recommended ratio of one per twenty-five."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, I challenge this on scope and object for the same reasons given for the other amendments."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 13, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 43. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:
The department of social and health services shall expand the contracted homebuilders program to Thurston county, King county, Skagit county, and Jefferson county thereby increasing access to services by fifty percent over the current level."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, I challenge the amendment on scope and object for the same reasons given for the other amendments."
Further debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 13, insert the following new section:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:
The department of social and health services shall increase the number of regional crisis residential centers by no less than sixteen to improve service access state-wide."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, I challenge this on scope and object for the same reasons, plus the fact that the local governments are to contract for themselves and the bill does not require crisis residential centers."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 13, insert the following new section:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:
The department of social and health services shall provide emergency services for homeless children which shall include but is not limited to food, shelter, clothing, and medical care."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, I challenge this amendment on scope and object for the same reasons given to the other amendments."

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 33, after line 13, insert the following new section:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:
The department of social and health services shall provide mental health inpatient and outpatient services for high risk youth as defined in section 1(6) of this act."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Craswell: "Thank you, Mr. President, I challenge this on scope and object for the same reasons for the others, plus it allows provisions for the counties to do that, not the Department of Social and Health Services."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Craswell, the President finds that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624 is a measure which establishes new procedures for dealing with youths who are runaways, chronically truant, in conflict with their parents or have serious abuse or chemical dependency problems. Senator Lee: "Would that, therefore, mean that a member of the House of Representatives could only have mass mailings during the first six months of their term?"

Senator Warnke: "If that is what the interpretation is after they get through with the bill in the House, that's what it would be."

Senator Lee: "In other words, that could be the affect of this amendment if this were carried all the way through."

Senator Warnke: "I believe you're right."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stratton: "Senator Warnke, how do you plan to police this? Would it be by reducing the mail allowance, because there's an awful lot of postage allowance out there to use up if all of this is stopped."

Senator Warnke: "Yes, the billings, that I believe the Senate receives from printing, would tell by the individual legislator. They know now how many pieces of individual mail we mail out of here, so the Senate would have control of the number of pieces and would let you know when you had reached your cap."

CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURE LIMITATIONS AND MATCHING FUNDS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions under RCW 42.17.020 apply to sections 2 through 20 of this act except as modified by this section. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 2 through 20 of this act:

(1) "Authorized committee" means a political committee authorized in any manner by a candidate, or by an elected official against whom recall charges have been filed, to accept contributions or make expenditures on behalf of the candidate or the official.

(3) "Candidate" means an individual seeking nomination for election or seeking election to a state office. Such an individual is seeking nomination for election or seeking election when the individual first:

(a) Announces publicly or files for the office;

(b) Receives contributions or makes expenditures or reserves space or facilities with intent to promote his or her candidacy for the office; or

(d) A loan, payment, pledge, or transfer of anything of value owned by the candidate to the candidate's authorized political committees.

Contributions other than money or its equivalents are deemed to have a money value equivalent to the fair market value of the contribution. Sums paid for tickets to fund-raising events such as dinners and parties are contributions. However, the amount of any such contribution may be reduced for the purpose of complying with the requirements of sections 2 through 20 of this act, by the actual cost of consumables furnished in connection with the purchase of the tickets, and only the excess over the actual cost of the consumables is a contribution. The money value of contributions of postage is the face value of the postage.

(6) "Election cycle" means the period beginning on the first day of December after the date of the last previous general election for the office or seat that the candidate seeks and ending on November thirtieth after the next election for the office or seat.

(7) "Eligible candidate" means a candidate for a state office who is eligible under section 3 of this act to receive payments under this subchapter.

(11) "Labor organization" means an organization, agency, or employee committee that exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of representing employees in dealings with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work.

(12) "Major party" means a major political party as defined in RCW 29.01.090.

(13) "Minor party" means a minor political party as defined in RCW 29.01.100.

(14) "Primary" means the procedure for nominating a candidate to state office under chapter 29.18 or 29.21 RCW or any other primary for an election that uses, in large measure, the procedures established in chapter 29.18 or 29.21 RCW.

(15) "Primary period" means the period beginning on the first day of December after the date of the last election for the office and ending on the tenth day after the next primary conducted for the office or the date on which the candidate withdraws from the election or otherwise ceases actively to seek election, whichever occurs first.

(16) "Recall campaign" means the period of time beginning on the date of the filing of recall charges under RCW 29.82.015 and ending thirty days after the recall election.

(17) "State campaign fund" or "fund" means the election campaign fund of this state established in section 10 of this act.

(1) Certify to the commission under penalty of perjury that the candidate qualifies for the general election ballot for a state office and that, as of the date of this certification, the candidate and the authorized committees of the candidate have received contributions in a threshold amount of at least:

(a) For a campaign for the office of governor, one hundred thousand dollars;

(b) For a campaign for state executive office other than the office of governor, twenty thousand dollars;

(c) For a campaign for the office of a member of the state senate, ten thousand dollars; and

(d) For a campaign for the office of a member of the state house of representatives, five thousand dollars;

(2) Certify to the commission under penalty of perjury that all contributions received for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section satisfy section 5 of this act;

(3) Certify to the commission under penalty of perjury that the candidate and the authorized committees of the candidate have not made expenditures for the primary that exceed the expenditure limitation for the primary established in section 4(1) of this act for the office sought by the candidate if a primary is conducted for the office;

(4) Agree in writing that the candidate and the candidate's authorized committees:

(a) Have not made and will not make expenditures for the general election that exceed the expenditure limitation for the general election established in section 4(1) of this act for the office sought by the candidate;

(b) Have not accepted and will not accept during the election cycle contributions from political committees, corporations, or labor organizations that in the aggregate exceed forty percent of the following amount: The sum of the expenditure limits applicable to the candidate under section 4(1) (a) and (b) of this act minus the total of all public funds that may legally be distributed to the candidate and the candidate's authorized committees from the state campaign fund for the election. This subsection (b) does not apply to contributions from a bona fide political party, a caucus of the state legislature, or a candidate's authorized committee;

(c) Will deposit all payments received under this section in a separate checking account that shall contain only funds so received, and will make no expenditures of funds received under this section except by checks drawn on that account. The account shall be in a financial institution located in this state whose deposits are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, federal savings and loan insurance corporation, or national credit union administration;

(d) Will furnish campaign records, evidence of contributions, and other appropriate information to the commission;

(e) Will cooperate in the case of any audit and examination by the commission under section 11 of this act; and

(f) Will apply to the commission for a payment as provided for in section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1)(a) The expenditure limit for a primary for a candidate for state office who agrees to the limitations established in this subchapter in exchange for matching funds from the state campaign fund for the general election is the greater of: (i) The base amount established for the office sought under subsection (2) of this section; or (ii) the base amount plus the amounts applicable to the candidate under subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(b) The expenditure limit for a general election for a candidate for state office who agrees to the limitations established in this subchapter in exchange for matching funds from the state campaign fund is the greater of: (i) The base amount established for the office sought under subsection (2) of this section; or (ii) the base amount plus the amounts applicable to the candidate under subsection (3) of this section and under subsection (4) or (5) of this section.

(2) The base amount referred to in subsection (1) of this section is:

(a) For the office of governor, one million dollars;

(b) For a state executive office other than the office of governor, three hundred thousand dollars;

(c) For the office of a member of the state senate, forty thousand dollars;

(d) For the office of a member of the state house of representatives, twenty-five thousand dollars.

(3) If, during the twelve months before the election in which the candidate is seeking office, independent expenditures by a person or persons aggregating more than an amount equal to ten percent of the base amount established in subsection (2) of this section for the office sought are made in opposition to the candidate or for an opposing candidate, the expenditure limitation applicable to the candidate (not the opposing candidate) is increased by an amount equal to the amount of the independent expenditures. The candidate (not the opposing candidate) may choose to apply this amount to the candidate's expenditure limitation for the primary or for the general election or may choose to apply a portion of the amount to the primary expenditure limitation and the remaining portion to the expenditure limitation for the general election.

(4) (a) If, during the election cycle in which the candidate is seeking state office, any other candidate for the office sought by the candidate receives contributions aggregating more than the sum of the expenditure limitations applicable to that other candidate under subsections (1) (a) and (b) of this section, the expenditure limitation applicable to the candidate (not the other candidate) is increased by an amount equal to the base amount established for the office sought; or

(b) If, during the primary period preceding the election, any other candidate for the office sought by the candidate makes expenditures that exceed the expenditure limitation applicable to that other candidate under subsection (1) (a) of this section, the expenditure limitation for the candidate (not the other candidate) for the primary is increased by an amount equal to the base amount established for the office sought.

For the purposes of this subsection (4), the amounts applicable to such an "other" candidate are those that could not be exceeded for that candidate to qualify for moneys from the state campaign fund.

(5) If a candidate agrees to accept the expenditure limits in exchange for public matching funds under section 3 of this act within seven days after qualifying for the general election ballot, but an opposing candidate does not so agree, then the expenditure limitation for the general election as it applies to the candidate (not the opposing candidate) is increased by an amount equal to the base amount established for the office sought. This subsection applies only if: (a) The candidate is a major party candidate, or the candidate is an independent or minor party candidate who received more than fifteen percent of the votes cast for the office at the preceding primary; and (b) the opposing candidate under this subsection is a major party candidate, or the opposing candidate is an independent or minor party candidate who received more than fifteen percent of the votes cast for the office at the preceding primary.

(6) For the purposes of this subchapter, the expenditures made and the contributions received by a candidate and the expenditures made and the contributions received by each of the authorized committees of the candidate are considered to be expenditures made and contributions received by the candidate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. For a contribution received by a candidate or the candidate's authorized committees to qualify as being one that satisfies the requirements of section 3(1) of this act for raising a threshold amount of contributions or to qualify to be matched by public moneys from the state campaign fund under section 8 of this act, the contribution must satisfy each of the following requirements:

(1) The contribution must be a gift of money made by a written instrument that identifies the person making the contribution;

(2) The contribution must be made directly to the candidate, or the candidate's authorized committees. Contributions made through any other person do not count. This subsection does not apply to bona fide joint fund-raising efforts conducted solely for the purpose of sponsorship of a fund-raising reception, dinner, or other event, under rules adopted by the commission, by: (a) Two or more candidates, or (b) one or more candidates and one or more national, state, or local committees of a political party acting on their own behalf;

(3) The contribution must have come from an individual or individuals residing in the state of Washington or from another entity or entities whose principal offices for conducting the activities of the entities are located within this state;

(4) A contribution from a person shall not exceed two hundred dollars when added to the total amount of all other contributions made by the person to or for the benefit of the candidate. This provision applies to contributions during the period specified in subsection (5) of this section:

(a) For the purposes of this subsection, all contributions by one person who is controlled by any other person shall be considered to have been made by such other person. Without limiting its scope and effect whatsoever, this general rule means that: (i) A contribution by a subsidiary, branch, division, department, or local unit of an association shall be considered to have been made by the association, and (ii) a contribution by a political committee controlled by a person shall be considered to be a contribution by that person;

(b) The provisions of (a) of this subsection shall not be construed as applying to the relationship between an individual and the spouse of the individual or to the relationship between a bona fide political party and a district or county organization of that party or a caucus of the state legislature of the members of that party;

(c) In determining whether a person is controlled by any other person for the purposes of (a) of this subsection, the following shall, if applicable, be considered:

(i) Ownership of a controlling interest in voting shares or securities;

(ii) Provisions of bylaws, articles of incorporation, charters, constitutions, or other documents by which one person has the authority, power, or ability to direct another;

(iii) The authority, power, or ability to hire, appoint, discipline, discharge, demote, remove, or influence the decision of the officers or members of an entity;

(iv) Similar patterns or contributions; and

(v) The extent of the transfer of funds between the persons.

(5) The contribution must be received on or after January 1st of the calendar year before the year in which the general election involved is held and by the date on which the general election involved is held. However, in the case of a special election for a state office, the contribution must be received on or after the date on which the vacancy occurs in that office and by the date on which the general election involved is held.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A candidate who receives a payment from the state campaign fund for use in a general election under this subchapter shall not make expenditures during the primary period or during the general election period for the candidate's primary or general election campaign from the personal funds of the candidate, or the funds of any member of the immediate family of the candidate, aggregating in excess of three percent of the expenditure limit established by section 4(1) of this act for the office sought. For the purposes of this subsection, a loan by a candidate or a member of the immediate family of the candidate to the campaign of the candidate is considered to be an expenditure by the candidate.

(2) A candidate who receives, either directly or through the authorized committees of the candidate, a payment from the state campaign fund for use in a general election under this subchapter and the authorized committees of the candidate shall not make expenditures for the general election that in the aggregate exceed the expenditure limit in section 4(1)(b) of this act.

(3) A candidate who receives, either directly or through the candidate's authorized committees, a payment from the state campaign fund shall not accept or use during the election cycle contributions from political committees, corporations, or labor organizations that in the aggregate exceed forty percent of the following amount: The sum of the expenditure limits applicable to the candidate under section 4(1) (a) and (b) of this act minus the total of all public funds that may legally be distributed to the candidate and the candidate's authorized committees from the state campaign fund for the election. This subsection does not apply to contributions from a bona fide political party, a caucus of the state legislature, or a candidate's authorized committee.

(4) For the purposes of this subchapter, a contribution received within the twelve-month period after a general election for a state office is considered to be a contribution during the election cycle for the state office. This subsection only applies to the extent the contribution is used to pay a debt or obligation incurred to influence the outcome of that election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. At the beginning of each calendar year, the commission shall increase or decrease the threshold amounts established in section 3(1) of this act, the base amounts established in section 4(2) of this act, and the campaign contribution limitations established in section 16 of this act based on changes in economic conditions as reflected in the inflationary index used by the commission under RCW 42.17.370. The base year to be used for revisions made under this section is 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, an eligible candidate is entitled to payments from the state campaign fund equal to:

(a) (i) One dollar for each qualifying dollar received by the candidate as a contribution for the election campaign of the candidate if the expenditure limitation applicable to the candidate is not increased under section 4 (4) or (5) of this act; or (ii) two dollars for each qualifying dollar received by the candidate as a contribution for the election campaign of the candidate if the expenditure limitation applicable to the candidate is so increased. A qualifying dollar is one that satisfies all provisions of section 5 of this act regarding contributions; and

(b) The aggregate amount of independent expenditures made or obligated to be made during the twelve months before the election by any person in opposition to, or on behalf of an opponent of, the eligible candidate if that amount exceeds ten percent of the base amount established in section 4 (2) of this act for the office sought.

(2) Payments received by a candidate under this section shall be deposited as required in section 3 (4) (c) of this act and shall be used to pay for goods and services furnished during the election period for which the payments were received. The payments shall not be used:

(a) To make a payment, directly or indirectly, to the candidate or to a member of the immediate family of the candidate;

(b) To make an expenditure other than an expenditure to further the election of the candidate;

(c) To make an expenditure that constitutes a violation of a law of the United States or of the state; or

(d) To repay a loan to a person except to the extent the proceeds of the loan were used to further the general election of the candidate.

(3) A candidate is not eligible to receive payments from the state campaign fund for a general election for an office unless:

(a) At least two major party candidates qualify under state law for the same general election ballot for the same office; or

(b) One major party candidate and one or more independent or minor party candidates qualify under state law for the same general election ballot for the same office and at least one of those independent or minor party candidates received more than fifteen percent of the votes cast for the office at the preceding primary.

(4) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, the sum of all payments from the state campaign fund to a candidate for a general election may not exceed the following amounts for the office sought:

(i) For the office of governor, three hundred thousand dollars;

(ii) For state executive office other than the office of governor, one hundred thousand dollars;

(iii) For the office of a member of the state senate, fifteen thousand dollars;

(iv) For the office of a member of the state house of representatives, ten thousand dollars.

(b) If the expenditure limitation applicable to the candidate is increased under section 4 (4) or (5) of this act, the amount listed for the office sought by the candidate in (a) of this subsection shall be doubled as it applies to the candidate. If the expenditure limitation applicable to the candidate is increased under section 4(3) of this act as a result of independent expenditures, the amount listed for the office sought by the candidate in (a) of this subsection or double that amount as provided by this subsection, as it applies to the candidate, shall be increased by an amount equal to those independent expenditures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No later than two business days after an eligible candidate files a request with the public disclosure commission to receive payments under this section, the commission shall determine whether the candidate is eligible to receive payments from the state campaign fund and, if the candidate is eligible to receive such payments, pay to the candidate from the fund the full amount to which the candidate is entitled.

A candidate desiring such payments shall file a request with the commission that shall contain:

(1) Such information and be made in accordance with such procedures as the commission may provide by rule; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislature intends to serve the unmet higher education needs in certain urban localities by eliminating the underrepresentation of ethnic minorities in graduate and professional programs and to enrich the education of students generally, through their exposure to the ideas of those previously unable to pursue advanced studies.

(2) The board of regents or trustees of each of the state's regional universities, The Evergreen State College, or state universities may waive tuition and fees for minority students pursuing graduate and professional degrees. Minority students are defined as persons from racial backgrounds that have traditionally been discriminated against because of their race, color, heritage, or national origin. Only persons who are United States citizens or permanent residents are eligible under RCW 28B.15.740, this section, and section 10 of this act.

(3) The higher education coordinating board shall prepare a report biannually which shall include an evaluation of the tuition waiver program, a student progress tracking report, and a recommendation on funding for the next biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

The board of regents or trustees of each of the state's regional universities, The Evergreen State College, or state universities may waive the tuition and services and activities fees for graduate and professional minority students subject to the following limitations:

(1) A pilot program of three hundred graduate and professional students shall be initiated. The amount of total waivers awarded at the state's regional universities, The Evergreen State College, and state universities shall be based on the proportion of individual institution graduate and professional student enrollment to total graduate and professional student enrollment.

(2) Priority shall be given to minority students who are enrolled in graduate and professional programs of study where they have traditionally been underrepresented.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 262, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 232, Laws of 1986 and RCW 28B.15.740 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The boards of trustees or regents of each of the state's regional universities, The Evergreen State College, or state universities, and the various community colleges, consistent with regulations and procedures established by the state board for community college education, may waive, in whole or in part, tuition and services and activities fees subject to the limitations set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The total dollar amount of tuition and fee waivers awarded by any state university, regional university, or state college, shall not exceed four percent, and for the community colleges considered as a whole, such amount shall not exceed three percent of an amount determined by estimating the total collections from tuition and services and activities fees had no such waivers been made and deducting the portion of that total amount which is attributable to the difference between resident and nonresident fees: PROVIDED, That at least three-fourths of the dollars waived shall be for needy students who are eligible for resident tuition and fee rates pursuant to RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the remainder of the dollars waived, not to exceed one-fourth of the total, may be applied to other students at the discretion of the board of trustees or regents, except on the basis of participation in intercollegiate athletic programs: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the waivers for undergraduate and graduate students of foreign nations under RCW 28B.15.556 are not subject to the limitation under this section and minority students provided under sections 10 and 11 of this act are not subject to the limitation under this section."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Benitz, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 6095 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Saling, in Senate Bill No. 6095, what do you mean by Section 2?"

Senator Saling: "Section 2 requires that any branch campus program, not presently operating, receive prior approval from the Higher Education Coordinating Board and the Legislature. For example, any university interested in establishing a free standing, separate, degree granting institution would certainly need prior approval from the Higher Education Coordinating Board and the Legislature."

Senator Bauer: "Thank you, Senator Saling, and the second question--would this require colleges and universities that already have programs operating in branch campus sites or elsewhere to get Higher Education Coordinating Board and legislative approval?"

Senator Saling: "No, Section 2 of the bill grandfathers in programs existing prior to the effective date of the act. For example, WSU's existing program at Vancouver would not require approval by the Higher Education Coordinating Board and the Legislature because of this bill. However, should WSU change the method of organization, governance or administration, say to establish a new free standing institution that offers degrees, then the program would need HECB and Legislative approval."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Saling, I looked at this, and I'm for the branch campuses, and I'm going to vote for the bill, so I'm not trying to talk it to death. When I looked at this though, and I kept looking and looking and I thought I had a wrong pair of glasses on. I thought I went on the branch campus bill with Senator Saling. This is an entirely new set of names. Where did they come from?"

Senator Saling: "Well, this bill was introduced, it was run through the Higher Education Committee, it was put on the calendar, now we're voting on it."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I'm still for the branch campuses, but I would have appreciated it, if my name had been left on the bill because Tacoma wants a branch campus very badly."

Senator Saling: "Well, I'm sorry that your name was not on the bill. There were some others who did not get on this bill also--quite a few on this side. I have heard from all of them and I'm glad to hear from you, too, because I want this a bi-partisan criticism, not just from my side."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, all members who wish to sign on as sponsors of Senate Bill No. 6095 may do so at the present time.

Senators Rasmussen, West, Thorsness, Bailey, Johnson and Nelson signed on as additional sponsors of Senate Bill No. 6095.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1324 and the pending amendment by Senator Madsen on page 42, after line 26, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Wojahn, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1324 is an omnibus measure creating the Department of Health, establishing various ad hoc advisory groups and transferring many public health functions from DSHS to the new department including certain sewage programs.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Madsen requires the new Department of Health to prohibit new sewage sludge permits and establishes a sewage sludge study task force to review health, safety and technical information regarding the effects of sewage sludge disposal.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Madsen on page 42, after line 26, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1324 was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Madsen, if the Health Department goes ahead and authorizes additional disposal sites and they're found to be highly toxic and poisonous, would they be subject to a law suit?"

Senator Madsen: "Well, you might ask that question to an attorney, Senator, but it would seem to me, that if we have standards, that say Metro meets, and we find out later that the standards were not correct, and people did have health problems, I can't believe that the state is not somewhat liable."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Madsen on page 42, after line 26, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1324.

The motion by Senator Madsen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 6, line 2, after "act;" insert a new subsection as follows:

"(5) Act as the state health policy and planning agency."

On page 8, line 26, after "proceeding;" add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 110. The department shall be empowered, in consultation with the board of health to assess and develop policy concerning personal and public health including at least, matters related to cost, quality, access and public health protection."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Smitherman: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to a point of personal privilege. Earlier today, many of you received notices that I would be offering an amendment on the floor relating to the control of assault weapons. As you know, we've had several attempts to deal with the idea of assault with rifles, like the AK47, AR15, the MAC11, Uzi, and so on, which many people feel have been used increasingly by drug dealers, producers, and organized street gangs for defending crack houses, plantations, as well as drive-by shootings. In Tacoma, recently, we had a shooting of a young girl on 56th Street--just last week--about a mile away from where Senator Wojahn lives. That was the second such shooting, within the period of less than a year, of totally innocent victims who were not involved with any type of illegal activity, or with the gangs. I wasn't going to, in my amendment, say we were going to do away with these weapons. Instead my amendment, the one I had intended to offer, didn't go that far. I would have required a state issued license to purchase or to own an assault weapon, but I wouldn't have prohibited them. The initial licensing fee would have been a hundred dollars with renewal of fifty dollars annually. I felt this would not only allow the police to know who might have these weapons, but also allow confiscation of ones held illegally. In addition, I felt it would raise new revenues which could be used in the fight on the war on drugs.

"I've decided not to offer that amendment for several reasons. First, in counting the votes on the floor, talking to people about it, I simply don't think that it is the will of this body to have such an amendment hang. Secondly, in a sense, it is almost totally symbolic in that the monies it would raise, would be very small and for all I know, you could create a problem for law enforcement in trying to enforce it and probably even another consideration would be that people might unintentionally become criminals, because they didn't know about the law, so that would be a problem. Lastly, I think the best legislation comes out of work with organizations like NRA and others to come to some conclusion about where we should go with these issues. So, it would be my intent to work with that organization toward doing something about assault weapons, but to do it in an orderly fashion and not through an amendment. I will not be offering that amendment and I wanted members to know. Thank you."

NOTICE FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Nelson served notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 5691 failed to pass the Senate earlier today.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the first order of business.

The director of the department of veterans affairs shall coordinate the design, construction, and placement of a memorial within the state capitol grounds honoring Washington state residents who died or are "missing-in-action" in the Korean conflict.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Thorsness, I had a gentleman drop by my office claiming to be one of the leaders for this particular memorial concept and it was his intent not for us to put twenty-five thousand dollars in it. He indicated to me that it was very important for them to have this be totally funded by private efforts. He felt that that was really essential--it was really an essential thing to him. Did that same gentleman talk to you or have you heard of that concept?"

Senator Thorsness: "He did not. We did have many Korean veterans speak to us from various veterans organizations and individuals. In fact, I asked during the hearing in Governmental Operations, what would they think of a loan if it needed that to get started and the unanimous, amongst those there and it was quite a variety of veterans of different organizations, did ask for this grant."

Sec. 103, Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 12, chapter 153, Laws of 1988 and by section 3, chapter 157, Laws of 1988 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

(3) Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(4) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(5) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(6) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(7) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(8) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (12) or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (10), (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, Homicide by Abuse, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (9) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(12) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide or Vehicular Assault; for each felony offense or serious traffic offense, count one point for each adult and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior conviction.

(13) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count ~~((two))~~ three points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and ~~((one))~~ two points for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(14) If the present conviction is for Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060, or Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

(15) If the present conviction is for Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110, or Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120, count adult prior convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as 1/2 point.

(16) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection (8) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

(17) If the present conviction is for an offense committed while the offender was under community placement, add one point.

Sec. 108. Section 9A.36.050, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.36.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of reckless endangerment in the second degree when he recklessly engages in conduct (~~which creates a substantial risk of death or serious physical injury to another person~~) not amounting to reckless endangerment in the first degree.

(2) Reckless endangerment in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 109. Section 10, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 11, chapter 455, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.82.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(b) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may file an action: (i) On behalf of those persons injured or, respectively, on behalf of the state or county if the entity has sustained damages, or (ii) to prevent, restrain, or remedy a pattern of criminal profiteering activity or a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(2) The superior court has jurisdiction to prevent, restrain, and remedy a pattern of criminal profiteering or a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 after making provision for the rights of all innocent persons affected by the violation and after hearing or trial, as appropriate, by issuing appropriate orders.

(3) Prior to a determination of liability, orders issued under subsection (2) of this section may include, but are not limited to, entering restraining orders or prohibitions or taking such other actions, including the acceptance of satisfactory performance bonds, in connection with any property or other interest subject to damages, forfeiture, or other restraints pursuant to this section as the court deems proper. The orders may also include attachment, receivership, or injunctive relief in regard to personal or real property pursuant to Title 7 RCW. In shaping the reach or scope of receivership, attachment, or injunctive relief, the superior court shall provide for the protection of bona fide interests in property, including community property, of persons who were not involved in the violation of this chapter, except to the extent that such interests or property were acquired or used in such a way as to be subject to forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f).

(4) Following a determination of liability, orders may include, but are not limited to:

(a) Ordering any person to divest himself or herself of any interest, direct or indirect, in any enterprise.

(b) Imposing reasonable restrictions on the future activities or investments of any person, including prohibiting any person from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise engaged in, the activities of which affect the laws of this state, to the extent the Constitutions of the United States and this state permit.

(f) Ordering forfeiture first as restitution to any person damaged by an act of criminal profiteering that is part of a pattern of criminal profiteering then to the state general fund or antiprofitteering revolving fund of the county, as appropriate, to the extent not already ordered to be paid in other damages, of the following:

(i) Any property or other interest acquired or maintained in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 to the extent of the investment of funds, and any appreciation or income attributable to the investment, from a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(ii) Any property, contractual right, or claim against property used to influence any enterprise that a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of, in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(5) In addition to or in lieu of an action under this section, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may file an action for forfeiture to the state general fund or antiprofitteering revolving fund of the county, as appropriate, to the extent not already ordered paid pursuant to this section, of the following:

(a) Any interest acquired or maintained by a person in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 to the extent of the investment of funds obtained from a violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 and any appreciation or income attributable to the investment.

(b) Any property, contractual right, or claim against property used to influence any enterprise that a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of, in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(c) All proceeds traceable to or derived from an offense included in the pattern of criminal profiteering activity and all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, and other things of value significantly used or intended to be used significantly to facilitate the commission of the offense.

(6) A defendant convicted in any criminal proceeding is precluded in any civil proceeding from denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense proven in the criminal trial in which the defendant was convicted. For the purposes of this subsection, a conviction shall be deemed to have occurred upon a verdict, finding, or plea of guilty, notwithstanding the fact that appellate review of the conviction and sentence has been or may be sought. If a subsequent reversal of the conviction occurs, any judgment that was based upon that conviction may be reopened upon motion of the defendant.

(7) The initiation of civil proceedings under this section shall be commenced within three years after discovery of the pattern of criminal profiteering activity or after the pattern should reasonably have been discovered.

(8) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may, in a civil action brought pursuant to this section, file with the clerk of the superior court a certificate stating that the case is of special public importance. A copy of that certificate shall be furnished immediately by the clerk to the presiding chief judge of the superior court in which the action is pending and, upon receipt of the copy, the judge shall immediately designate a judge to hear and determine the action. The judge so designated shall promptly assign the action for hearing, participate in the hearings and determination, and cause the action to be expedited.

(9) The standard of proof in actions brought pursuant to this section is the preponderance of the evidence test.

(10) A person other than the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney who files an action under this section shall serve notice and one copy of the pleading on the attorney general within thirty days after the action is filed with the superior court. The notice shall identify the action, the person, and the person's attorney. Service of the notice does not limit or otherwise affect the right of the state to maintain an action under this section or intervene in a pending action nor does it authorize the person to name the state or the attorney general as a party to the action.

(11) Except in cases filed by a county prosecuting attorney, the attorney general may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under this section if the attorney general certifies that in the attorney general's opinion the action is of special public importance. Upon intervention, the attorney general may assert any available claim and is entitled to the same relief as if the attorney general had instituted a separate action.

(12) In addition to the attorney general's right to intervene as a party in any action under this section, the attorney general may appear as amicus curiae in any proceeding in which a claim under this section has been asserted or in which a court is interpreting RCW 9A.82.010, 9A.82.080, 9A.82.090, 9A.82.110, or 9A.82.120, or this section.

(13) A private civil action under this section does not limit any other civil or criminal action under this chapter or any other provision. Private civil remedies provided under this section are supplemental and not mutually exclusive.

(14) Upon motion by the defendant, the court may authorize the sale or transfer of assets subject to an order or lien authorized by this chapter for the purpose of paying actual attorney's fees and costs of defense. The motion shall specify the assets for which sale or transfer is sought and shall be accompanied by the defendant's sworn statement that the defendant has no other assets available for such purposes. No order authorizing such sale or transfer may be entered unless the court finds that the assets involved are not subject to possible forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f). Prior to disposition of the motion, the court shall notify the state of the assets sought to be sold or transferred and shall hear argument on the issue of whether the assets are subject to forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f). Such a motion may be made from time to time and shall be heard by the court on an expedited basis.

(15) In an action brought under subsection (1) (a) and (b)(i) of this section, either party has the right to a jury trial.

Sec. 110. Section 2, chapter 138, Laws of 1981 and RCW 10.95.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of aggravated first degree murder if he or she commits first degree murder as defined by RCW 9A.32.030(1)(a), as now or hereafter amended, and one or more of the following aggravating circumstances exist:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 111. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

(a) Any person who violates RCW 69.50.401(a) by manufacturing, selling, delivering, or possessing with the intent to manufacture, sell, or deliver a controlled substance listed under that subsection to a person in a school or on a school bus or within one thousand feet of a school bus route stop designated by the school district or within one thousand feet of the perimeter of the school grounds is punishable by a fine twice that authorized by RCW 69.50.401(a), a term of imprisonment twice that authorized by RCW 69.50.401(a), or both.

(b) It is not a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the person was unaware that the prohibited conduct took place while in a school or school bus or within one thousand feet of the school or school bus route stop.

(c) It is not a defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section or any other prosecution under this chapter that persons under the age of eighteen were not present in the school, the school bus, or at the school bus route stop at the time of the offense or that school was not in session.

(d) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution for a violation of this section that the prohibited conduct took place entirely within a private residence, that no person under eighteen years of age or younger was present in such private residence at any time during the commission of the offense, and that the prohibited conduct did not involve delivering, manufacturing, selling, or possessing with the intent to manufacture, sell, or deliver any controlled substance in RCW 69.50.401(a) for profit. The affirmative defense established in this section shall be proved by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence. This section shall not be construed to establish an affirmative defense with respect to a prosecution for an offense defined in any other section of this chapter.

(e) In a prosecution under this section, a map produced or reproduced by any municipal, school district, or county engineer for the purpose of depicting the location and boundaries of the area on or within one thousand feet of any property used for a school or school bus route stop, or a true copy of such a map, shall under proper authentication, be admissible and shall constitute prima facie evidence of the location and boundaries of those areas if the governing body of the municipality, school district, or county has adopted a resolution or ordinance approving the map as the official location and record of the location and boundaries of the area on or within one thousand feet of the school or school bus route stop. Any map approved under this section or a true copy of the map shall be filed with the clerk of the municipality or county, and shall be maintained as an official record of the municipality or county. This section shall not be construed as precluding the prosecution from introducing or relying upon any other evidence or testimony to establish any element of the offense. This section shall not be construed as precluding the use or admissibility of any map or diagram other than the one which has been approved by the governing body of a municipality, school district, or county if the map or diagram is otherwise admissible under court rule.

(f) As used in this section the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "School" has the meaning under RCW 28A.01.055 or 28A.01.060. The term "school" also includes a private school approved under RCW 28A.02.201;

(2) "School bus" means a school bus as defined by the superintendent of public instruction by rule which is owned and operated by any school district and all school buses which are privately owned and operated under contract or otherwise with any school district in the state for the transportation of students. The term does not include buses operated by common carriers in the urban transportation of students such as transportation of students through a municipal transportation system; and

(3) "School bus route stop" means a school bus stop as designated on maps submitted by school districts to the office of the superintendent of public instruction.

JUVENILE JUSTICE BOOT CAMP PILOT PROJECT

Sec. 114. Section 57, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) The juvenile disposition standards commission shall propose to the legislature no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year disposition standards for all offenses. The standards shall establish, in accordance with the purposes of this chapter, ranges which may include terms of confinement, including the boot camp program established in section 115 of this 1989 act, and/or community supervision established on the basis of a youth's age, the instant offense, and the history and seriousness of previous offenses, but in no case may the period of confinement and supervision exceed that to which an adult may be subjected for the same offense(s). Standards proposed for offenders listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) shall include a range of confinement which may not be less than thirty days. No standard range may include a period of confinement which includes both more than thirty, and thirty or less, days. Disposition standards proposed by the commission shall provide that in all cases where a youth is sentenced to a term of confinement in excess of thirty days the department may impose an additional period of parole not to exceed eighteen months. Standards of confinement which may be proposed may relate only to the length of the proposed terms and not to the nature of the security to be imposed. In developing proposed disposition standards, the commission shall consider the capacity of the state juvenile facilities and the projected impact of the proposed standards on that capacity.

(b) The secretary shall submit guidelines pertaining to the nature of the security to be imposed on youth placed in his or her custody based on the age, offense(s), and criminal history of the juvenile offender. Such guidelines shall be submitted to the legislature for its review no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year. At the same time the secretary shall submit a report on security at juvenile facilities during the preceding two-year period. The report shall include the number of escapes from each juvenile facility, the most serious offense for which each escapee had been confined, the number and nature of offenses found to have been committed by juveniles while on escape status, the number of authorized leaves granted, the number of failures to comply with leave requirements, the number and nature of offenses committed while on leave, and the number and nature of offenses committed by juveniles while in the community on minimum security status; to the extent this information is available to the secretary. The department shall include security status definitions in the security guidelines it submits to the legislature pursuant to this section.

(2) If the commission fails to propose disposition standards as provided in this section, the existing standards shall remain in effect and may be adopted by the legislature or referred to the commission for modification as provided in subsection (3) of this section. If the standards are referred for modification, the provisions of subsection (4) shall be applicable.

(3) The legislature may adopt the proposed standards or refer the proposed standards to the commission for modification. If the legislature fails to adopt or refer the proposed standards to the commission by February 15th of the following year, the proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(4) If the legislature refers the proposed standards to the commission for modification on or before February 15th, the commission shall resubmit the proposed modifications to the legislature no later than March 1st. The legislature may adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards. If the legislature fails to adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards by April 1st, the resubmitted proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(5) In developing and promulgating the permissible ranges of confinement under this section the commission shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) Where the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term in the range may be no less than fifty percent of the maximum term in the range;

(b) Where the maximum term in the range is greater than ninety days but not greater than one year, the minimum term in the range may be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) Where the maximum term in the range is more than one year, the minimum term in the range may be no less than eighty percent of the maximum term in the range.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 115. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is the intent of the legislature that the program established pursuant to this section shall benefit the state and counties by reducing the crowding in juvenile detention facilities and shall benefit both the community and the offenders by promoting the offenders' personal development and self-discipline, thereby making them more effective participants in society.

(2) The department of social and health services shall develop a juvenile boot camp program. At a minimum, such program shall include training in military discipline, physical training, counseling, community service, vocational training, and education classes that emphasize self-discipline, respect toward society, and obedience to the law. The program shall provide an intensive basic training and rehabilitative program for juveniles. The department shall adopt rules for the operation and successful completion of such program.

(3) The boot camp program shall last ninety days for any juvenile, except that the secretary may extend the time limit to one hundred twenty days if the juvenile has not adequately completed the program within ninety days as determined by the secretary according to rules adopted by the secretary.

(4)(a) A juvenile may be placed in the boot camp program if he or she is between fifteen and eighteen years of age at the time of adjudication and has been committed to the department for a term of confinement for which the maximum term is at least twelve weeks.

(b) The judge may order that a juvenile be placed in the boot camp program even when the sentencing standards do not provide for a term of which the maximum is at least twelve weeks if the judge makes a finding that ordering a lesser term would create a manifest injustice.

(c) Eligibility shall be denied if the respondent suffers from any mental or physical problem which could endanger his or her health or drastically affect his or her performance in the program.

(d) If the court has recommended a respondent for the boot camp program, the secretary shall assign that juvenile to the program if the secretary determines that he or she is eligible for and that there is room for the juvenile in the program.

(5)(a) The department shall provide an aftercare component for monitoring and assisting the release of boot camp participants into the community.

(b) The department shall keep records and monitor criminal activity and employment placement of the program participants after their release from the program. An outcome evaluation study shall be published no later than December 31, 1992, which shall include a comparison of criminal activity and employment placement records of juveniles completing the boot camp program with the criminal activity and employment records of youths completing other programs or commitment time.

(6) The department shall either establish criteria for training contract staff or provide a special training program for department staff selected for the boot camp program and shall include appropriate methods of dealing with minors.

(7) If a juvenile in the boot camp program becomes unmanageable or medically ineligible, the department shall remove the juvenile from the program and place the juvenile in secure detention until he or she is transferred to an equally restrictive commitment program.

(8) The department may contract with private companies for the operation of the boot camp program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 116. Section 115 of this act shall expire on July 1, 1993.

(1) RCW 9.73.030 through 9.73.080 shall not apply to employees of the department of corrections in the following instances: Intercepting, recording, or divulging any telephone calls from an inmate or resident of a state correctional facility. For the purposes of this section, "state correctional facility" means a facility that is under the control and authority of the department of corrections, and used for the incarceration, treatment, or rehabilitation of convicted felons.

SUBPART C
PROPERTY FORFEITURE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. The legislature finds that: Drug offenses and crimes resulting from illegal drug use are destructive to society; the nature of drug trafficking results in many property crimes and crimes of violence; state and local governmental agencies incur immense expenses in the investigation, prosecution, adjudication, incarceration, and treatment of drug-related offenders and the compensation of their victims; drug-related offenses are difficult to eradicate because of the profits derived from the criminal activities, which can be invested in legitimate assets and later used for further criminal activities; and the forfeiture of real assets where a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the substances and the real property will provide a significant deterrent to crime by removing the profit incentive of drug trafficking, and will provide a revenue source that will partially defray the large costs incurred by government as a result of these crimes. The legislature recognizes that seizure of real property is a very powerful tool and should not be applied in cases in which a manifest injustice would occur as a result of forfeiture of an innocent spouse's community property interest.

Sec. 209. Section 15, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 as last amended by section 2, chapter 282, Laws of 1988 and RCW 69.50.505 are each amended to read as follows:

- (a) The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture and no property right exists in them:
- (1) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, ~~((or))~~ acquired, or possessed in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (2) All raw materials, products, and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs (1) or (2);
 - (4) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, in any manner to facilitate the sale of property described in paragraphs (1) or (2), ~~((but))~~ except that:
 - (i) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (ii) No conveyance is subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without ~~((his))~~ the owner's knowledge or consent;
 - (iii) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission; and
 - (iv) When the owner of a conveyance has been arrested under this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW the conveyance in which the person is arrested may not be subject to forfeiture unless it is seized or process is issued for its seizure within ten days of the owner's arrest;
 - (5) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW;
 - (6) All drug paraphernalia; ~~((and))~~
 - (7) All moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property of value furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for a controlled substance in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, all tangible or intangible personal property, proceeds, or assets acquired in whole or in part with proceeds traceable to ((such)) an exchange or series of exchanges in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, and all moneys, negotiable instruments, and securities used or intended to be used to facilitate any violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW; PROVIDED, That a forfeiture of money, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if, at the time the security interest was created, the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no personal property may be forfeited under this paragraph, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission which that owner establishes was committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent; and
 - (8) All real property, including any right, title, and interest in the whole of any lot or tract of land, and any appurtenances or improvements which are being used with the knowledge of the owner for the manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivery, importing, or exporting of any controlled substance, or which have been acquired in whole or in part with proceeds traceable to an exchange or series of exchanges in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW, if such activity is not less than a class C felony and a substantial nexus exists between the commercial production or sale of the controlled substance and the real property; PROVIDED, That:

(i) No property may be forfeited pursuant to this subsection, to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent;

(ii) The bona fide gift of a controlled substance, legend drug, or imitation controlled substance shall not result in the forfeiture of real property;

(iii) The possession of marijuana shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the marijuana is possessed for commercial purposes, the amount possessed is five or more plants or one pound or more of marijuana, and a substantial nexus exists between the possession of marijuana and the real property. In such a case, the intent of the offender shall be determined by the preponderance of the evidence, including the offender's prior criminal history, the amount of marijuana possessed by the offender, the sophistication of the activity or equipment used by the offender, and other evidence which demonstrates the offender's intent to engage in commercial activity;

(iv) The unlawful sale of marijuana or a legend drug shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the sale was forty grams or more in the case of marijuana or one hundred dollars or more in the case of a legend drug, and a substantial nexus exists between the unlawful sale and the real property; and

(v) A forfeiture of real property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party, at the time the security interest was created, neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission.

(b) Real or personal property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure of real property shall include the filing of a lis pendens by the seizing agency. Real property seized under this section shall not be transferred or otherwise conveyed until ninety days after seizure or until a judgment of forfeiture is entered, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That real property seized under this section may be transferred or conveyed to any person or entity who acquires title by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure of a security interest. Seizure of personal property without process may be made if:

(1) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(2) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

(3) A board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(4) The board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(c) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (b), proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, including any community property interest, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. Service of notice of seizure of real property shall be made according to the rules of civil procedure. However, the state may not obtain a default judgment with respect to real property against a party who is served by substituted service absent an affidavit stating that a good faith effort has been made to ascertain if the defaulted party is incarcerated within the state, and that there is no present basis to believe that the party is incarcerated within the state. The notice of seizure in other cases may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(d) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited. No real property interest may be forfeited from a person who did not participate in the violation committed by a person who was a spouse at the time of the violation, that gave rise to the seizure to the extent of that person's homestead interest in the real property.

(e) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(5), (a)(6), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section within forty-five days of the seizure in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the chief law enforcement officer's designee, except where the seizing agency is a state agency as defined in RCW 34.12.020(4), the hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. The court to which the matter is to be removed shall be the district court when such aggregate value is ten thousand dollars or less of personal property. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party shall be entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorney's fees. In cases involving personal property, the burden of producing evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of ((items specified in subsection (a)(4) or (a)(7) of this section)) the property. In cases involving real property, the burden of producing evidence shall be upon the law enforcement agency. The burden of proof that the seized property is subject to forfeiture shall be upon the law enforcement agency. The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (a)(2), (a)(3), (a)(4) ((or)), (a)(5), (a)(6), (a)(7), or (a)(8) of this section.

(f) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or seizing law enforcement agency may:

(1) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

(2) (i) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public. The proceeds and all moneys forfeited under this title shall be used for payment of all proper expenses of the investigation leading to the seizure, including any money delivered to the subject of the investigation by the law enforcement agency, and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, actual costs of the prosecuting or city attorney, and court costs. Money remaining after the payment of all expenses shall be distributed as follows:

(A) ((Seventy-five)) Twenty-five percent of the money derived from the forfeiture of real property and seventy-five percent of the money derived from the forfeiture of personal property shall be deposited in the general fund of the state, county, and/or city of the seizing law enforcement agency and shall be used exclusively for the expansion or improvement of law enforcement services. These services may include the creation of reward funds for the purpose of rewarding informants who supply information leading to the arrest, prosecution and conviction of persons who violate laws relating to controlled substances. Such moneys shall not supplant preexisting funding sources; ((and))

(B) Twenty-five percent of money derived from the forfeiture of real property and twenty-five percent of money derived from the forfeiture of personal property shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the public safety and education account established in RCW 43.08.250;

(C) Fifty percent of money derived from the forfeiture of real property shall be remitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the drug enforcement and education account created pursuant to section 401 of this 1989 act; and

(D) If an investigation involves a seizure of moneys and proceeds having an aggregate value of less than five thousand dollars, the moneys and proceeds may be deposited in total in the general fund of the governmental unit of the seizing law enforcement agency and shall be appropriated exclusively for the expansion of narcotics enforcement services. Such moneys shall not supplant preexisting funding sources.

(ii) Money deposited according to this section must be deposited within ninety days of the date of final disposition of either the administrative seizure or the judicial seizure;

(3) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

(4) Forward it to the drug enforcement administration for disposition.

(g) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited to the state. (h) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(i) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

(j) Upon the entry of an order of forfeiture of real property, the court shall forward a copy of the order to the assessor of the county in which the property is located. Orders for the forfeiture of real property shall be entered by the superior court, subject to court rules. Such an order shall be filed by the seizing agency in the county auditor's records in the county in which the real property is located.

SUBPART D OFF-LIMITS ORDERS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. The legislature finds that drug abuse is escalating at an alarming rate. New protections need to be established to address this drug crisis which is threatening every stratum of our society. Prohibiting known drug traffickers from frequenting areas for continuous drug activity is one means of addressing this pervasive problem.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Applicant" means any person who owns, occupies, or has a substantial interest in property, or who is a neighbor to property which is adversely affected by drug trafficking, including:

(a) A "family or household member" as defined by RCW 10.99.020(1), who has a possessory interest in a residence as an owner or tenant, at least as great as a known drug trafficker's interest;

(b) An owner or lessor;

(c) An owner, tenant, or resident who lives or works in a designated PADT area; or

(d) A city or prosecuting attorney for any jurisdiction in this state where drug trafficking is occurring.

(2) "Drug" or "drugs" means a controlled substance as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW or an "imitation controlled substance" as defined in RCW 69.52.020.

(3) "Known drug trafficker" means any person who has been convicted of a felony adult or juvenile drug offense in this state or an adult felony drug offense in another state or federal court who subsequently has been arrested for an adult felony drug offense in this state.

(4) "Off-limits orders" means an order issued by a superior or district court in the state of Washington that enjoins known drug traffickers from entering or remaining in a designated PADT area.

(5) "Protected against drug trafficking area" or "PADT area" means any specifically described area, public or private, contained in an off-limits order. The perimeters of a PADT area shall be defined using street names and numbers and shall include all real property contained therein, where drug sales, possession of drugs, pedestrian or vehicular traffic attendant to drug activity, or other activity associated with drug offenses confirms a pattern associated with drug trafficking. The area may include the full width of streets, alleys and sidewalks on the perimeter, common areas, planting strips, parks and parking areas within the area described using the streets as boundaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. A court may enter an off-limits order enjoining a known drug trafficker who has been associated with drug trafficking in an area that the court finds to be a PADT area, from entering or remaining in a designated PADT area for up to one year. This relief may be ordered pursuant to applications for injunctive relief or as part of a criminal proceeding as follows:

(1) In a civil action, including an action brought under this chapter;

(2) In a nuisance abatement action pursuant to chapter 7.43 RCW;

(3) In an eviction action to exclude known drug traffickers or tenants who were evicted for allowing drug trafficking to occur on, the premises which were the subject of the eviction action;

Upon the filing of an application for an off-limits order under section 212 (1), (2), or (3) of this act, the court shall set a hearing fourteen days from the filing of the application, or as soon thereafter as the hearing can be scheduled. If the respondent has not already been served with a summons, the application shall be served on the respondent not less than five court days before the hearing. If timely service cannot be made, the court may set a new hearing date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. Upon filing an application for an off-limits order under this chapter, an applicant may obtain an ex parte temporary off-limits order, with or without notice, only upon a showing that serious or irreparable harm will result to the applicant if the temporary off-limits order is not granted. An ex parte temporary off-limits order shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed fourteen days, but the court may reissue the order upon a showing of good cause. A hearing on a one-year off-limits order, as provided in this chapter, shall be set for fourteen days from the issuance of the temporary order. The respondent shall be personally served with a copy of the temporary off-limits order along with a copy of the application and notice of the date set for the full hearing. At the hearing, if the court finds that respondent is a known drug trafficker who has engaged in drug trafficking in a particular area, and that the area is associated with a pattern of drug activities, the court shall issue a one-year off-limits order prohibiting the respondent from having any contact with the PADT area. At any time within three months before the expiration of the order, the applicant may apply for a renewal of the order by filing a new petition under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. In granting a temporary off-limits order or a one-year off-limits order, the court shall have discretion to grant additional relief as the court considers proper to achieve the purposes of this chapter. The PADT area defined in any off-limits order must be reasonably related to the area or areas impacted by the unlawful drug activity as described by the applicant in any civil action under section 212(1), (2), or (3) of this act. The court in its discretion may allow a respondent, who is the subject of any order issued under section 211 of this act as part of a civil or criminal proceeding, to enter an off-limits area or areas for health or employment reasons, subject to conditions prescribed by the court. Upon request, a certified copy of the order shall be provided to the applicant by the clerk of the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. A temporary off-limits order or a one-year off-limits order may not issue under this chapter except upon the giving of a bond or security by the applicant. The court shall set the bond or security in the amount the court deems proper, but not less than one thousand dollars, for the payment of costs and damages that may be incurred by any party who is found to have been wrongfully restrained or enjoined. A bond or security shall not be required of the state of Washington, municipal corporations, or political subdivisions of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 221. The superior courts shall have jurisdiction of all civil actions and all felony criminal proceedings brought under this chapter. Courts of limited jurisdiction shall have jurisdiction of all misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor criminal actions brought under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 222. For the purposes of this chapter, an action may be brought in any county in which any element of the alleged drug trafficking activities occurred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 223. Upon application, notice to all parties, and a hearing, the court may modify the terms of an off-limits order. When an order is terminated, modified, or amended before its expiration date, the clerk of the court shall forward, on or before the next judicial day, a true copy of the amended order to the law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of an order, the law enforcement agency shall promptly enter it into an appropriate law enforcement information system.

The ~~((police or the emergency service patrol))~~ peace officer or staff designated by the county, in detaining the person and in taking him or her to an approved treatment facility, is taking him or her into protective custody and shall make every reasonable effort to protect his or her health and safety. In taking the person into protective custody, the detaining peace officer or ~~((member of an emergency patrol))~~ staff designated by the county may take reasonable steps including reasonable force if necessary to protect himself or herself or effect the custody. (4) A person who is found to be incapacitated or gravely disabled by alcohol or other drugs at the time of his or her admission or to have become incapacitated or gravely disabled at any time after his or her admission, may not be detained at the facility for more than seventy-two hours after admission as a patient, unless a petition is filed under RCW 70.96A.140, as now or hereafter amended: PROVIDED, That the treatment personnel at ~~((the))~~ an approved treatment facility are authorized to use such reasonable physical restraint as may be necessary to retain an incapacitated or gravely disabled person ~~((incapacitated by alcohol at such facility))~~ for up to seventy-two hours from the time of admission. (1) When the person in charge of a treatment facility, or his or her designee, receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of alcoholism, the person in charge, or his or her designee, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court. If the person in charge, or his or her designee, finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020. If placement in an alcohol treatment facility is deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that: The person is an alcoholic who is incapacitated by alcohol, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for ((the voluntary)) detoxification or treatment for alcoholism pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110 and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is an alcoholic who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment, by itself, does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within ((two)) five days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the licensed physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning facility or the department is ((not)) eligible to be the certifying physician.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than ~~((three))~~ two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained ~~((by the))~~ in a facility, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120 or 71.05.210, as now or hereafter amended, in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified seventy-two hours shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony, which may be telephonic, of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. Communications otherwise deemed privileged under the laws of this state are deemed to be waived in proceedings under this chapter when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that the waiver is necessary to protect either the detained person or the public. The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained person for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained person, or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

The record maker shall not be required to testify in order to introduce medical, nursing, or psychological records of detained persons so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met, except that portions of the record that contain opinions as to whether the detained person is an alcoholic must be deleted from the records unless the person offering the opinions is available for cross-examination. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her: in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment facility. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment facility is able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her (~~and the treatment is likely to be beneficial~~).

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the facility for treatment for a period of ~~((thirty)) sixty~~ days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the ~~((thirty)) sixty~~-day period, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the facility, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

~~(6) (A person recommitted under subsection (5) of this section who has not been discharged by the facility before the end of the ninety day period shall be discharged at the expiration of that period unless the facility, before expiration of the period, obtains a court order on the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for recommitment for a further period not to exceed ninety days. If a person has been committed because he or she is an alcoholic likely to inflict physical harm on another, the facility shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists. Only two recommitment orders under subsections (5) and (6) of this section are permitted.~~

~~(7))~~ Upon the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsection~~(s)) (5) ((or (6)))~~ of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than ~~((three)) two~~ and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed: PROVIDED, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment facility on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

~~((8))~~ (7) The approved treatment facility shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment facility to another if transfer is medically advisable.

~~((9))~~ (8) A person committed to the custody of a facility for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon ~~himself, herself, or another, ((that he or she is no longer an alcoholic or))~~ the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.

(b) In case of an alcoholic committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity, that the incapacity no longer exists.

~~((10))~~ (9) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician of his or her choice. If the person is unable to obtain a licensed physician and requests examination by a physician, the court shall employ a licensed physician.

~~((11))~~ (10) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

~~((12))~~ (11) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

(12) When in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility providing involuntary treatment under this chapter, the committed patient can be appropriately served by less restrictive treatment before expiration of the period of commitment, then the less restrictive care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the initial treatment period, does not exceed the period of commitment. If the facility designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the facility providing the initial involuntary treatment, the facility so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated county alcoholism specialist, and the court of original commitment. The facility designated to provide less restrictive care may modify the conditions for continued release when the modifications are in the best interests of the patient. If the facility providing less restrictive care and the designated county alcoholism specialist determine that a conditionally released patient is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the patient's functioning has occurred, then the designated county alcoholism specialist shall notify the court of original commitment and request a hearing to be held no less than two and no more than seven days after the date of the request to determine whether or not the person should be returned to more restrictive care. The designated alcoholism specialist shall file a petition with the court stating the facts substantiating the need for the hearing along with the treatment recommendations. The patient shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for the original involuntary treatment proceedings. The issues to be determined at the hearing are whether the conditionally released patient did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release to less restrictive care or that substantial deterioration of the patient's functioning has occurred and whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to a more restrictive facility. The hearing may be waived by the patient and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but may not be waived unless all such persons agree to the waiver. Upon waiver, the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 70.96A RCW to read as follows:

In any judicial proceeding for involuntary commitment or detention under this chapter, or in any proceeding challenging such commitment or detention, the prosecuting attorney for the county in which the proceeding was initiated shall represent the individuals or agencies petitioning for commitment or detention and shall defend all challenges to such commitment or detention.

Sec. 312. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 31, chapter 75, Laws of 1987 and by section 9, chapter 406, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.04.005 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public assistance" or "assistance"—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance.

(2) "Department"—The department of social and health services.

(3) "County or local office"—The administrative office for one or more counties or designated service areas.

(4) "Director" or "secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) "Federal-aid assistance"—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

(6) (a) "General assistance"—Aid to persons in need who:

(i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance;

(ii) Are either:

(A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal aid to families with dependent children program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance; or

(B) Incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of sixty days as determined by the department. Persons who are unemployable due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance (~~Persons receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity;~~) and shall be (~~referred to~~) advised as to appropriate assessment, treatment, (shelter, or supplemental security income referral) or program services ((as authorized)) that may be available to them under chapters ~~((74-56))~~ 69.54, 70.96, and 70.96A RCW. Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcohol and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for ~~((services))~~ treatment under chapters ~~((74-56))~~ 69.54, 70.96, and 70.96A RCW. This subsection (6)(a)(ii)(B) shall not be construed to prohibit the department from granting general assistance benefits to alcoholics and drug addicts who are incapacitated due to other physical or mental conditions that meet the eligibility criteria for the general assistance program;

(iii) Are citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise residing in the United States under color of law; and

(iv) Have furnished the department their social security account number. If the social security account number cannot be furnished because it has not been issued or is not known, an application for a number shall be made prior to authorization of assistance, and the social security number shall be provided to the department upon receipt.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i), (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance:

(i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or

(ii) To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, to recipients of aid to families with dependent children whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received.

(c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. Failure to accept such services shall result in termination until the person agrees to cooperate in accepting such services and subject to the following maximum periods of ineligibility after reapplication:

(i) First failure: One week;

(ii) Second failure within six months: One month;

(iii) Third and subsequent failure within one year: Two months.

(d) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(e) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(f) Recipients of general assistance who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacity.

(7) "Applicant"—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance.

(8) "Recipient"—Any person receiving assistance and in addition those dependents whose needs are included in the recipient's assistance.

(9) "Standards of assistance"—The level of income required by an applicant or recipient to maintain a level of living specified by the department.

(10) "Resource"—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources.

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absent themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That if in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance.

(c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(d) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance.

(e) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance may retain the following described resources in addition to exemption for a motor vehicle or home and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources:

(i) Household furnishings, personal effects, and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient;

(ii) Term and burial insurance for use of the applicant or recipient;

(iii) Life insurance having a cash surrender value not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(iv) Cash, marketable securities, and any excess of values above one thousand five hundred dollars equity in a vehicle and above one thousand five hundred dollars in cash surrender value of life insurance, not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars for a single person or two thousand two hundred fifty dollars for a family unit of two or more. The one thousand dollar limit in subsection (10)(d) of this section does not apply to recipients of or applicants for general assistance.

(f) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property, but the recipient must sign an agreement to dispose of the property and repay assistance payments made to the date of disposition of the property which would not have been made had the disposal occurred at the beginning of the period for which the payments of such assistance were made. In no event shall such amount due the state exceed the net proceeds otherwise available to the recipient from the disposition, unless after nine months from the date of the agreement the property has not been sold, or if the recipient's eligibility for financial assistance ceases for any other reason. In these two instances the entire amount of assistance paid during this period will be treated as an overpayment and a debt due the state, and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 43.20B.630.

(11) "Income"—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance: PROVIDED, That the department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents, but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of aid to families with dependent children is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements: PROVIDED FURTHER, The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.

(b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource.

(12) "Need"—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family.

(13) In the construction of words and phrases used in this title, the singular number shall include the plural, the masculine gender shall include both the feminine and neuter genders and the present tense shall include the past and future tenses, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 313. A new section is added to chapter 69.54 RCW to read as follows:

Where such treatment includes either residential care or a living stipend, the assessment service shall include a diagnostic evaluation for the purpose of determining who is eligible and what treatment is appropriate. The department shall establish rules of eligibility for the financially limited number of slots in both the residential care program and the outpatient treatment program accompanied by a living stipend. The rules shall set forth income and resource limits to assure that treatment priority is given to persons who are indigent or of low income. The department may require an applicant to complete a residential evaluation for the purpose of clarifying individualized treatment needs when the department is not capable of making an accurate assessment of that individual's needs within the ordinary assessment process.

(2) If the department determines that a woman who is pregnant or parenting an infant is eligible for treatment, that woman shall be given immediate priority for available treatment. The living allowance may not be used to provide shelter to clients in a dormitory setting that does not require sobriety as a condition of residence. The living allowance shall be administered on the clients' behalf by the outpatient treatment facility or other social service agency designated by the department. The department is authorized to pay the facility a fee for administering this allowance.

(2) With the exception of those treatment services funded through alcohol and drug grants to counties and congregate care facility residential moneys, no individual may receive a combination of inpatient or outpatient treatment services for a total of more than six months in any two-year period. The department may approve an additional treatment or living allowance in an exceptional case.

~~((3))~~ (5) The department shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment for alcoholics, persons incapacitated by alcohol, and intoxicated persons admitted under RCW 70.96A.110 through 70.96A.140. Treatment may not be provided at a jail or prison except for inmates.

~~((4))~~ (6) All appropriate public and private resources shall be coordinated with and utilized in the program if possible.

~~((5))~~ (7) The department shall prepare, publish, and distribute annually a list of all approved public and private treatment facilities.

~~((6))~~ (8) The department may contract for the use of any facility as an approved public treatment facility if the secretary, subject to the policies of the department, considers this to be an effective and economical course to follow.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 316. A new section is added to chapter 70.96A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall provide client assessment and treatment within available funds. Where such treatment includes either residential care or a living stipend, the assessment service shall include a diagnostic evaluation for the purpose of determining who is eligible and what treatment is appropriate. COMMUNITY MOBILIZATION

NEW SECTION, Sec. 318. The legislature recognizes that state-wide efforts aimed at reducing the incidence of substance abuse must be increased. The legislature further recognizes that the most effective strategy for reducing the impact of alcohol and other drug abuse is through the collaborative efforts of educators, law enforcement, local government officials, local treatment providers, and concerned community and citizens' groups.

The legislature intends to support the development and activities of community mobilization strategies against substance abuse through the following efforts:

(1) Provide funding support for prevention, treatment, and enforcement activities identified by communities that have brought together education, treatment, local government, law enforcement, and other key elements of the community;

(2) Provide technical assistance and support to help communities develop and carry out effective activities; and

(3) Provide communities with opportunities to share suggestions for state program operations and budget priorities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 319. There is established in the office of the governor a grant program to provide incentive for and support for communities to develop targeted and coordinated strategies to reduce the incidence and impact of substance abuse.

Activities which may be funded through this grant program include those which:

(1) Prevent substance abuse through educational and self-esteem efforts, development of positive alternatives, intervention with high-risk groups, and other prevention strategies;

(2) Support effective treatment by increasing access to and availability of treatment opportunities, particularly for underserved or highly impacted populations, developing after-care and support mechanisms, and other strategies to increase the availability and effectiveness of treatment;

(3) Provide meaningful consequences for participation in illegal activity and promote safe and healthy communities through support of law enforcement strategies;

(4) Create or build on efforts by existing community programs, coordinate their efforts, and develop cooperative efforts or other initiatives to make most effective use of resources to carry out the community's strategy against substance abuse; and

(5) Other activities which demonstrate both feasibility and a rationale for how the activity will achieve measurable results in the strategy against substance abuse.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 320. Applications for funding under this chapter must:

(1) Demonstrate that the community has developed and is committed to carrying out a coordinated strategy of prevention, treatment, and law enforcement activities; and

(2) Contain evidence of active participation of the community and specific commitments to implementing the community-wide agenda by leadership from at least education, law enforcement, local government, tribal government, and treatment entities in the community, and the opportunity for meaningful involvement from others such as neighborhood and citizen groups, businesses, human service, health and job training organizations, and other key elements of the community, particularly those whose responsibilities in law enforcement, treatment, prevention, or other community efforts provide direct, ongoing contact with substance abusers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 321. This grant program will be available to communities of any geographic size but will encourage and reward communities which develop coordinated or complimentary strategies within geographic areas such as county areas or groups of county areas which correspond to units of government with significant responsibilities in the area of substance abuse, existing coalitions, or other entities important to the success of a community's strategy against substance abuse.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 322. At a minimum, grant applications must include the following:

(1) Definition of geographic area;

(2) A description of the extent and impact of substance abuse in the community, including an explanation of those who are most severely impacted and those most at risk of substance abuse;

(3) An explanation of the community-wide strategy for prevention, treatment, and law enforcement activities related to substance abuse with particular attention to those who are most severely impacted and those most at risk of substance abuse;

(4) Explanation of who was involved in development of the strategy and what specific commitments have been made to carrying it out;

(5) Identification of existing prevention, treatment, and law enforcement resources committed by the community, including financial and other support, and an explanation of how the community's strategy involves and builds on the efforts of existing organizations or coalitions that have been carrying out community efforts against substance abuse;

(6) Identification of activities that address specific objectives in the strategy for which additional resources are needed;

(7) Identification of additional local resources, including public or private funds, donated goods or services, and other measurable commitments, that have been committed to the activities identified in subsection (6) of this section;

(8) Identification of activities which address specific objectives in the strategy for which funding is requested. Activities should be presented in priority order;

(9) Each activity for which funding is requested must be explained in sufficient detail to demonstrate:

(a) Feasibility through deliberative design, specific objectives, and realistic plan for implementation;

(b) A rationale for how this activity will achieve measurable results and how it will be evaluated;

(c) That funds requested are necessary and appropriate to effectively carry out the activity; and

(10) Identification of a fiscal agent meeting state requirements for each activity proposed for funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 323. The governor shall make awards, subject to funds appropriated by the legislature, under the following terms:

(b) Evidence of active participation in preparation of the proposal and specific commitments to implementing the community-wide agenda by leadership from at least education, law enforcement, local government, tribal government, and treatment entities in the community, and the opportunity for meaningful involvement from others such as neighborhood and citizen groups, businesses, human service, health and job training organizations, and other key elements of the community, particularly those whose responsibilities in law enforcement, treatment, prevention, or other community efforts provide direct, ongoing contact with substance abusers, or those at risk for substance abuse;

(c) That they have met the requirements listed in section 322 of this act; and

(d) Evidence of additional local resources committed to its strategy totaling at least twenty-five percent of funds awarded under this section. These resources may consist of public or private funds, donated goods or services, and other measurable commitments, including in-kind contributions such as volunteer services, materials, supplies, physical facilities or a combination thereof.

(2) In order to encourage and reward communities which develop coordinated or complementary strategies within geographic areas which correspond to units of government with significant responsibilities in the area of substance abuse, up to fifty percent of funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter may be awarded on a per capita basis to eligible applications reflecting coordinated strategy from a county area or group of county areas. The governor may establish minimum allotments per eligible county areas up to fifteen thousand dollars; and

(3) No less than fifty percent of funds appropriated under this chapter shall be awarded on a competitive basis for activities by communities not participating in a county-wide strategy and activities identified by county-wide strategies but not funded through per capita grants. Eligible applications will be assessed and compared by a peer review committee whose members have experience in prevention, treatment, law enforcement, and other community efforts against substance abuse using the following criteria:

(a) The extent and impact of substance abuse;

(b) The extent to which key elements of the community are involved in and committed to the coordinated strategy;

(c) The extent of commitments of local resources to the coordinated strategy;

The peer review committee will advise the governor on the extent to which each eligible applicant has met these criteria. The governor will distribute available funds based on this information.

(4) The governor shall distribute fifty percent of the initial appropriation for the purposes of this chapter no later than October 1, 1989, and the remainder no later than July 1, 1990.

(5) Activities funded under this section may be considered for funding in future years, but will be considered under the same terms and criteria of new activities. Funding under this section shall not constitute an obligation by the state of Washington to provide ongoing funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 324. The governor shall ask communities for suggestions on state practices, policies, and priorities that would help communities implement their strategies against substance abuse. The governor or appropriate agency officials shall review and respond to those suggestions making necessary changes where feasible, making recommendations to the legislature where appropriate, and providing an explanation as to why suggested changes cannot be accomplished, if the suggestions cannot be acted upon.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 325. The governor may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of this act and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

PART VI
MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 601. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

The state of Washington fully occupies and preempts the entire field of setting penalties for violations of the controlled substances act. Cities, towns, and counties or other municipalities may enact only those laws and ordinances relating to controlled substances that are consistent with this chapter. Such local ordinances shall have the same penalties as provided for by state law. Local laws and ordinances that are inconsistent with the requirements of state law shall not be enacted and are preempted and repealed, regardless of the nature of the code, charter, or home rule status of the city, town, county, or municipality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 602. The legislature ratifies the juvenile disposition standards commission guidelines submitted to the 1989 legislature and endorses the action to increase penalties for juvenile drug offenders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 603. Part, subpart, and section headings and the index as used in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 604. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 605. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except sections 501 through 505 of this act shall take effect June 1, 1989."

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following amendment by Senators Nelson and Rasmussen to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 12, after line 10 of the amendment, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 107. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to deliver, or possess with intent to deliver, hypodermic syringes, needles, or other objects used, intended for use, or designed for use in parenterally injecting controlled substances into the human body, knowingly or under circumstances where the person reasonably should know that such syringes, needles, or other objects will be used or are intended to be used to unlawfully introduce a controlled substance into the human body. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I think the amendment by Senator Nelson and Senator Rasmussen expands the scope and object of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1793. I think the bill that we have before us is an omnibus bill relating to alcohol and drug abuse prevention. There's no question about that, but it is very clear that the amendment by Senator Nelson and Senator Rasmussen is calculated to deal with the issue of AIDS. It has been spoken to in the context of the issue of AIDS. It is a concern that has been raised in several of the cities about the spread of the deadly AIDS virus and the question of whether IV drug use and the use of dirty needles is something that enhances and expands the problem of AIDS in the society. I think the amendment is not calculated to deal specifically with the issue of alcohol and drug abuse prevention, but rather is one dealing with the AIDS issue, raised in the context of the Omnibus AIDS Bill from last year and I believe for that reason it expands the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President deferred further consideration of the amendment by Senators Nelson and Rasmussen to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1793.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Fleming to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

On page 31, beginning on line 5 of the amendment, strike all of sections 201 through 206 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the unlawful manufacturing, selling, and distributing of controlled substances is becoming increasingly prevalent and violent. Attempts by law enforcement officers to prevent the manufacture, sale, and distribution of drugs is resulting in numerous life-threatening situations since drug dealers are using sophisticated weapons and modern technological devices to deter the efforts of law enforcement officials to enforce the controlled substance statutes. Dealers of unlawful drugs are employing a wide variety of violent methods to realize the enormous profits of the drug trade.

Therefore, the legislature finds that conversations regarding illegal drug operations should be intercepted and transmitted in certain circumstances without prior judicial approval in order to protect the life and safety of law enforcement personnel and to enhance prosecution of drug offenses, and that that interception and transmission can be done without violating the constitutional guarantees of privacy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

(6) The authorizing agency shall immediately destroy any written, transcribed, or recorded information obtained from an interception or transmission authorized under this section unless the agency determines there has been a personal injury or death or a serious violent offense which may give rise to a civil action or criminal prosecution in which the information may be admissible under subsection (4)(b) or (c) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

During the period that each judge or magistrate is designated, he or she shall be equipped with an electronic paging device when not present at his or her usual telephone. It shall be the designated judge's or magistrate's responsibility to ensure that all attempts to reach him or her for purposes of requesting authorization pursuant to this chapter are forwarded to the electronic page number when the judge or magistrate leaves the place where he or she would normally receive such calls.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. A new section is added to chapter 9.73 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As part of a bona fide criminal investigation, the chief law enforcement officer of a law enforcement agency or his or her designee above the rank of first line supervisor may authorize the interception, transmission, or recording of a conversation or communication by officers under the following circumstances:

(a) At least one party to the conversation or communication has consented to the interception, transmission, or recording; and

(b) Probable cause exists to believe that the conversation or communication involves the unlawful manufacture, delivery, sale, or possession with intent to manufacture, deliver, or sell, controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, or legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW, or imitation controlled substances as defined in chapter 69.52 RCW.

(2) The agency's chief officer or designee authorizing an interception, transmission, or recording under subsection (1) of this section, shall prepare a written report at the time of authorization indicating:

(a) The circumstances that meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section;

(b) The names of the authorizing and consenting parties, except that in those cases where the consenting party is a confidential informant, the name of the confidential informant need not be divulged;

(c) The names of the officers authorized to intercept, transmit, and record the conversation or communication;

(d) The identity of the particular person or persons, if known, who may have committed or may commit the offense;

(e) The details of the particular offense or offenses that may have been or may be committed and the expected date, location, and approximate time of the conversation or communication; and

(f) Whether there was an attempt to obtain authorization pursuant to RCW 9.73.090(2) and, if there was such an attempt, the outcome of the attempt.

(3) An authorization under this section is valid in all jurisdictions within Washington state and for the interception of communications from additional persons if the persons are brought into the conversation or transaction by the nonconsenting party or if the nonconsenting party or such additional persons cause or invite the consenting party to enter another jurisdiction.

(4) The recording of any conversation or communication under this section shall be done in such a manner that protects the recording from editing or other alterations.

(5) An authorization made under this section is valid for no more than twenty-four hours from the time it is signed by the authorizing officer. The authorizing officer shall sign the written report required under subsection (2) of this section, certifying the exact date and time of his or her signature.

(6) Within fifteen days after any interception, transmission, or recording of a conversation or communications pursuant to this section, the law enforcement agency which made the interception, transmission, or recording shall submit a report to a judge of a court having jurisdiction which report shall identify (a) the persons, including the consenting party, who participated in the conversation, and (b) the date, location, and approximate time of the conversation.

In those cases where the consenting party is a confidential informant, the name of the confidential informant need not be divulged.

A monthly report shall be filed by the law enforcement agency with the administrator for the courts indicating the number of authorizations granted, the date and time of each authorization, interceptions made, arrests resulting from an interception, and subsequent invalidations.

If the court determines that probable cause did not exist, the court shall order that any recording and any copies or transcriptions of the conversation or communication be destroyed.

(b) Absent a continuation under (c) of this subsection, six months following a determination under (a) of this subsection that probable cause did not exist, the court shall cause a notice to be mailed to the last known address of any nonconsenting party to the conversation or communication that was the subject of the authorization. The notice shall indicate the date, time, and place of any interception, transmission, or recording made pursuant to the authorization. The notice shall also identify the agency that sought the authorization and shall indicate that a review under (a) of this subsection resulted in a determination that the authorization was made in violation of this section.

(c) An authorizing agency may obtain six-month extensions to the notice requirement of (b) of this subsection in cases of active, ongoing criminal investigations that might be jeopardized by sending the notice.

(8) In any subsequent judicial proceeding, evidence obtained through the interception or recording of a conversation or communication pursuant to this section shall be admissible only if:

(a) The court finds that there was probable cause as required by subsection (1)(b) of this section and the evidence is used in prosecuting an offense listed in subsection (1)(b) of this section; or

(b) The evidence is admitted with the permission of the person whose communication or conversation was intercepted, transmitted, or recorded; or

(c) The evidence is admitted in a prosecution for a "serious violent offense" as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 in which a party who consented to the interception, transmission, or recording was a victim of the offense; or

(9) Any determination of invalidity of an authorization under this section shall be reported by the court to the office of the administrator for the courts.

(10) Any person who intentionally intercepts, transmits, or records or who intentionally authorizes the interception, transmission, or recording of a conversation or communication in violation of this section, is guilty of a class C felony punishable according to chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(11) An authorizing agency is liable for twenty-five thousand dollars in exemplary damages, in addition to any other damages authorized by this chapter or by other law, to a person whose conversation or communication was intercepted, transmitted, or recorded pursuant to an authorization under this section if:

(a) In a review under subsection (7) of this section, or in a suppression of evidence proceeding, it has been determined that the authorization was made without the probable cause required by subsection (1)(b) of this section; and

(b) The authorization was also made without a reasonable suspicion that the conversation or communication would involve the unlawful acts identified in subsection (1)(b) of this section. Sec. 205, Section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 38, Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.73.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any recording or interception of a communication or conversation incident to a lawfully recorded or intercepted communication or conversation pursuant to this subsection shall be lawful and may be divulged.

Any such communication or conversation may be intercepted, transmitted, recorded, or disclosed as authorized notwithstanding a change in the time or location of the communication or conversation after the authorization has been obtained or the presence of or participation in the communication or conversation by any additional party not named in the authorization.

Authorizations issued under this subsection shall be effective for not more than fourteen days, after which period the issuing authority may renew or continue the authorization for an additional period not to exceed fourteen days.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1026 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Metcalf, this is one of those moratorium bills. My question is, the Constitution provides that we shall never grant any hereditary privileges. This would indicate that these licenses stay in the family for ever and ever and ever. Isn't that prohibited by the Constitution?"

Senator Metcalf: "OK, I'm not an expert on that part of the Constitution. The requirement is that in order to retain a license to harvest sea urchins, you must have harvested them for the last couple of years--a certain amount--and then those licenses like the other crab and salmon licenses that we have had, you retain them. You can't just put them on the market and sell them--but they can go from one family member to another."

Senator Rasmussen: "We had that in the old English, where we had dukes and earls and it went down through the family and only through the family and we're heading that way now and I thought the Constitution prohibited that."

Senator Metcalf: "As I say, I'm not an expert on that part of the Constitution. I don't know how this would come out constitutionally in a court case."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1026.

THIRD READING

INITIATIVE TO THE LEGISLATURE NO. 99

Providing for a presidential preference primary.

The initiative was read the third time.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator McCaslin, Senator Bluechel mentioned something and I wasn't on the committee and I apologize for not knowing this for absolute certain. If this bill passes and if you want to vote in a presidential primary, as a result of this bill, will you have to go down and register as a Republican or a Democrat or will you have to ask for a Republican or Democratic ballot and will that be recorded anywhere?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, it's a two part question. When you ask me if you have to register, no you do not have to register. If you wish to vote in a presidential election, you must request a ballot which will identify you as a Republican or a Democrat. What goes on from then, I'm not sure, but I'm sure that somehow people will get lists from it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sutherland: "Senator McCaslin, the question that Senator Metcalf just raised and that was one of some sort of a partisan affiliation or identification during a presidential primary process. I just thought it might be helpful for us to clarify. In the current process that we have right now, the caucus process, when we attend those functions, do we in some way sign in and register whether we're going to a Democratic or to a Republican caucus?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, I think when we arrive at our precinct committee persons' residence to discuss the upcoming campaigns, I think we identify ourselves as either Republican or Democrat."

Senator Sutherland: "And those lists are then made available, as time goes on, to other individuals? Is that correct?"

Senator McCaslin: "Yes, we have lists all over the place."

Senator Sutherland: "So, I guess in a manner of speaking, this piece of legislation doesn't really change whether or not you're going to be identifying yourself as a Republican or a Democrat if you participate in a presidential primary. It just expands it so a lot of individuals can participate rather than just a limited number."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Initiative No. 99.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Initiative No. 99 and the initiative passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 10; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Lee, Matson, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Patterson, Pullen, Sellar, West - 10.

Excused: Senator DeJarnatt - 1.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Craswell moved that the following amendment by Senators Craswell, Bailey, Johnson, Smitherman, Wojahn, Gaspard, von Reichbauer, Rasmussen, Warnke and Stratton be adopted:

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as amended by section 15, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.04.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in chapter 13.04, 13.06, 13.32A, 13.34, or 13.40 RCW may be construed to prevent a juvenile from being found ((both)) a dependent, a high-risk youth, and an offender if there exists a factual basis for such a finding.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) There is established in Pierce county a pilot project for high-risk youth.

(2) The juvenile court in Pierce county shall have the exclusive original jurisdiction over proceedings relating to juveniles alleged or found to be high-risk youth as provided in this chapter.

(3) Probation counselors appointed by the juvenile court administrator in Pierce county shall receive and examine referrals to the juvenile court for the purpose of considering the filing of a petition alleging that a youth is a high-risk youth under this chapter. Probation counselors shall also assist in any intervention necessitated by this chapter.

Sec. 5634 et seq.) and regulations and clarifying instructions promulgated thereunder. To prevent residents from taking unreasonable actions, the facility administrator, where appropriate, may condition a resident's leaving the facility upon the resident being accompanied by the administrator or the administrator's designee and the resident may be required to notify the administrator or the administrator's designee of any intent to leave, his or her intended destination, and the probable time of his or her return to the center. The facility administrator shall notify a parent and the appropriate law enforcement agency within four hours of all unauthorized leaves.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) Any minor age fourteen or less who is taken into custody, pursuant to a request by his parent, guardian, or custodian, may be provided crisis intervention services by the probation department, an agency or association with which the probation department or juvenile court contracts or any other agency or association approved by the court, provided that the staff of the probation department, association, or agency (a) immediately investigates the circumstances of the minor and the facts surrounding the minor being taken into custody and promptly explains these facts and circumstances to the minor, and (b) makes a reasonable effort to inform the minor's parent, guardian, or custodian of the fact that the minor has been taken into limited custody and where the minor is being kept, and (c) if the minor consents, makes a reasonable effort to transport, arrange for the transportation of, or otherwise release the minor to the parent, guardian, or custodian. Upon release of the child who is believed to need or benefit from medical, psychological, psychiatric, or social services, the probation department, association, or agency may inform the minor and the person to whom the minor is released of the nature and location of appropriate services and shall, if requested, assist in establishing contact between the family and other associations or agencies providing such services. If the probation department, agency, or association is unable by all reasonable efforts to contact a parent, guardian, or custodian, if the person contacted lives an unreasonable distance away, if the minor refuses to be taken to his or her home or other appropriate residence, or if the agency or association is otherwise unable despite all reasonable efforts to make arrangements for the safe return of the minor, the minor may be temporarily placed in a facility approved by the court.

(2) The probation department, any agency, or association or employee thereof acting reasonably and in good faith in the care of a minor being provided interim crisis intervention services and shelter care shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability resulting from such care.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) A minor and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian may agree to an arrangement for alternative voluntary residential placement without court order. The placement may continue as long as there is agreement.

(2) If the minor and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian cannot agree to an arrangement for alternative voluntary residential placement in the first instance, or cannot agree to the continuation of such placement, and the minor refuses to return home, the minor or his or her parent, guardian, or custodian may file with the court a petition alleging that the minor is a high-risk youth.

(3) This section shall not be construed as an alternative residential placement under chapter 13.32A RCW.

Sec. 7. Section 14, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is punishable as contempt.

(2) Contempt under this section is punishable by a fine of up to one hundred dollars and ~~((imprisonment for up to seven days, or both))~~ up to thirty days detention: PROVIDED, That in using detention to punish the contempt the court uses increasing days in detention up to thirty days for additional contemptuous behavior.

(3) A child found in contempt under this section shall be ~~((imprisoned))~~ detained only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) The procedure in a contempt proceeding held under this section is governed by RCW 7.20.040 through 7.20.080, as now law or hereafter amended.

(5) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, a child, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order adopted pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Any minor taken into custody pursuant to this chapter who requires care away from his or her home but who does not require physical restriction shall be given temporary care in a foster home, receiving home, group home, or other shelter facility designated by the court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. When a minor is delivered to the court or to the place designated by the court under section 8 of this act, a probation counselor or other public officer designated by the court shall immediately investigate the circumstances of the minor and the facts surrounding his or her being taken into custody. The minor shall be immediately released to the custody of his or her parent, guardian, legal custodian, or responsible relative, unless the probation counselor or such other public officer designated by the court finds that further shelter care is necessary.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) Unless sooner released a minor who is a high-risk youth, and taken into custody, must be brought before a judicial officer within seventy-two hours, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and court-designated holidays, for a shelter care hearing to determine whether he or she should be temporarily placed outside his or her home.

(2) If the probation counselor determines that the minor should be temporarily placed, he or she shall cause a petition to be filed as provided in section 13 of this act, and the clerk of the court shall set the matter for hearing on the shelter care hearing calendar. When a parent, guardian, custodian, or responsible relative is present and so requests, the shelter care hearing shall be held immediately if the court is in session, otherwise at the earliest feasible time. The probation counselor shall notify the minor's parent, guardian, custodian, or responsible relative of the time and place of the hearing. The notice may be given orally.

(3) The minor must be released from custody or placement at the expiration of the seventy-two hour period, if not brought before a judicial officer within that period.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. At the appearance of the minor before the court at the shelter care hearing, all witnesses present shall be examined before the court in relation to any matter connected with the allegations made in the petition.

(1) If the court finds that there is not probable cause to believe that the minor is a high-risk youth, it shall release the minor and dismiss the petition.

(2) If the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that the minor is a high-risk youth, the minor, his or her parent, guardian, custodian, and other persons able to give relevant testimony shall be examined before the court. After such testimony, the court may enter an order that the minor shall be released upon the request of a parent, guardian, or custodian if the guardian, parent, or custodian agrees to take custody. If the court finds that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor or of the person or property of another that the minor be placed in a shelter care facility, or that he or she is likely to flee the jurisdiction of the court, and further finds that reasonable efforts have been made or good cause shown why reasonable efforts cannot prevent or eliminate the necessity of removal of the minor from his or her home, the court may prescribe shelter care and order that the minor be kept in a suitable place designated or licensed by the court or in a foster care home, or other center or home licensed and designated by the department of social and health services for placement of high-risk youth; otherwise, it shall release the minor from custody. The court shall make findings of fact in support of the order for shelter care placement.

Once the court finds that it is a matter of immediate and urgent necessity for the protection of the minor that the minor be placed in shelter care, the minor shall not be returned to the parent, guardian, or custodian until the court finds that such placement is no longer necessary for the protection of the minor.

(3) If neither the parent, guardian, legal custodian, responsible relative, nor counsel of the minor has had actual notice of or is present at the shelter care hearing, he or she may file his or her affidavit setting forth these facts, and the clerk shall set the matter for rehearing not later than twenty-four hours, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, after the filing of the affidavit. At the rehearing, the court shall proceed in the same manner as upon the original hearing.

(4) Only when there is reasonable cause to believe that the minor has committed an offense may the minor be kept or detained in a detention facility. This section shall in no way be construed to limit subsection (5) of this section.

(5) No minor alleged or found to be a high-risk youth may be detained in a detention facility or county or municipal jail unless the youth has also committed an offense.

(6) If the minor is not brought before a judicial officer within the time period specified in section 10 of this act, the minor must immediately be released from custody.

(7) If neither the parent, guardian, nor custodian appears within twenty-four hours to take custody of the minor released upon request pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, then the clerk of the court shall set the matter for rehearing not later than seven days after the original order and shall issue a summons directed to the parent, guardian, or custodian to appear. At the same time the probation department shall prepare a report on the minor. If a parent, guardian, or custodian does not appear at the rehearing, the judge may enter an order prescribing that the minor be kept in a suitable place recommended by the probation department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) The juvenile probation department shall confer in a preliminary conference with a parent, guardian, or custodian seeking to file a petition under section 13 of this act concerning the advisability of filing the petition, with a view to adjusting suitable cases without the filing of a petition. A petition shall be filed only if alternatives to court intervention have been attempted and if such alternatives have not been attempted, good reason exists why they have not been attempted.

The probation counselor should schedule a conference promptly.

(2) This section does not authorize any probation counselor to compel any person to appear at any conference, produce any papers, or visit any place.

(3) No statement made during a preliminary conference may be admitted into evidence at a fact-finding hearing or at any proceeding against the minor under the criminal laws of this state prior to his or her conviction thereunder.

(4) The probation counselor shall promptly formulate a written, nonjudicial adjustment plan following the initial conference.

(5) Nonjudicial adjustment plans may include but are not limited to one or more of the following:

(a) Up to six months informal supervision within the family;

(b) Up to six months informal supervision with a probation counselor involved;

(c) Up to six months informal supervision with release to a person other than a parent;

(d) Referral to special educational, counseling, or other rehabilitative social or educational programs;

(e) Referral to residential treatment programs; and

(f) Any other appropriate action with consent of the minor and a parent.

(6) In developing an informal adjustment plan, the probation counselor shall assess the family situation, including the nature of the conflict, and refer the minor or his or her parent, custodian, or guardian, or both for proper assistance in dealing with the conflict.

(7) The juvenile court is authorized to contract out with private agencies to provide this assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Any parent or guardian may request that the probation counselor file a petition in respect to a minor alleged to be a high-risk youth under this chapter. The petition and all subsequent court documents shall be entitled "In the interest of a minor, alleged to be a high-risk youth."

(2) The petition shall be verified but the statements may be made upon information and belief. It shall allege that the minor is alleged to be a high-risk youth and set forth (a) facts sufficient to bring the minor under RCW 13.32A.030(4); (b) the name, age, and residence of the minor; (c) the names and residences of his or her parents; (d) the name and residence of his or her legal guardian or the person or persons having custody or control of the minor, or of the nearest known relative if no parent or guardian can be found; and (e) if the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought is sheltered in custody, the date on which shelter care was ordered by the court or the date set for a shelter care hearing. If any of the facts herein required are not known by the petitioner, the petition shall so state.

(3) The petition must allege that it is in the best interests of the minor and of the public that he or she be adjudged a high-risk youth and may pray generally for relief available under this chapter. The petition need not specify any proposed disposition following such adjudication.

(4) If an order of protection under section 21 of this act is sought against any person, the petition shall so state, shall name that person as a respondent, and give the address where he or she resides.

(5) At any time before dismissal of the petition or before final closing and discharge under section 27 of this act, one or more supplemental petitions may be filed in respect to the same minor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1)(a) When a petition has been filed alleging that the minor is a high-risk youth, a fact-finding hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a demand made by any party, except that when the court determines that the state, without success, has exercised due diligence to obtain evidence material to the case and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence may be obtained at a later date, the court may, upon motion by the state, continue the fact-finding hearing for not more than thirty additional days.

The one hundred twenty-day period in which a fact-finding hearing shall be held is tolled by: (i) Delay occasioned by the minor; or (ii) a continuance allowed after a court's determination of the minor's physical incapacity for trial; or (iii) an interlocutory appeal. Any such delay shall temporarily suspend, for the time of the delay, the period within which the fact-finding hearing must be held. On the day of expiration of the delay, the said period shall continue at the point at which it was suspended.

(b) When no such fact-finding hearing is held within the time required by (a) of this subsection, the court shall, upon motion by any party, dismiss the petition with prejudice.

(2) Without affecting the applicability of the tolling and multiple prosecution provisions of subsection (1) of this section, when a petition has been filed alleging that the minor is a high-risk youth and the minor is in shelter care, the fact-finding hearing shall be held within ten judicial days after the date of the order directing shelter care, or the earliest possible date in compliance with the notice provisions of this act as to the custodial parent, guardian, or legal custodian, but not later than thirty judicial days from the date of the order of the court directing shelter care.

(3) Any failure to comply with the time limits of subsection (2) of this section shall require the immediate release of the minor from shelter care, and the time limits of subsection (1) of this section shall apply.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents a minor, a minor's parents, or guardian from exercising their respective rights to waive the time limits set forth in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) When a petition is filed, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons with a copy of the petition attached. The summons shall be directed to the minor's legal guardian or custodian and to each person named as a respondent in the petition.

(2) The summons must contain a statement that the minor or any of the respondents is entitled to have an attorney present at the hearing on the petition, and that the clerk of the court shall be notified promptly if the minor or any other respondent desires to be represented by an attorney but is financially unable to employ counsel.

(3) The summons shall be issued under the seal of the court, attested to and signed with the name of the clerk of the court, dated on the day it is issued, and shall require each respondent to appear and answer the petition on the date set for the fact-finding hearing.

(4) Service of the summons may be made under the direction of the court by any person eighteen years of age or older who is not a party to the proceedings or by any law enforcement officer or probation counselor, even if the counselor or officer is the petitioner.

(5) If the person to be served with a summons and petition can be found within the state, the summons and petition shall be served personally upon the person at least three court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court. If the person is within the state and cannot be personally served, but the person's address is known or with reasonable diligence can be ascertained, the summons and petition may be served upon the person by mailing a copy thereof by certified mail at least ten days before the hearing, or such time as set by the court. If a person other than the minor is outside the state but can be found or the address is known, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons and petition may be made either by delivering a copy thereof to the party or by certified mail at least ten days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) If service upon individuals as provided in section 15 of this act is not made on any respondents within a reasonable time or if any person is made a respondent under the designation of "All to whom it may concern," or if service cannot be made because the whereabouts of a respondent are unknown, service may be made by publication. The clerk of the court as soon as possible shall cause publication to be made once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the action is pending. Notice by publication is not required in any case when the person alleged to have legal custody of the minor has been served with summons personally or by certified mail, but the court may not enter any order or judgment against any person who cannot be served with process other than by publication unless notice by publication is given or unless that person appears. When a minor has been sheltered under section 18 of this act and summons has not been served personally or by certified mail within twenty days from the date of the order of the court directing such shelter care, the clerk of the court shall cause publication.

(2) The clerk shall also at the time of the publication of the notice send a copy thereof by mail to each of the respondents on account of whom publication is made at his or her last known address. The certificate of the clerk that he or she has mailed the notice is evidence thereof. No other publication notice is required. Every respondent notified by publication under this section must appear and answer in open court at the hearing. The court may not proceed with the fact-finding hearing until ten days after service by publication on any custodial parent, guardian, or legal custodian in the case of a minor alleged to be a high-risk youth.

(3) If it becomes necessary to change the date set for the hearing in order to comply with section 15 of this act or with this section, notice of the resetting of the date must be given, by certified mail or other reasonable means, to each respondent who has been served with summons personally or by certified mail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) Immediately upon the filing of a petition alleging that the minor is a high-risk youth, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor if:

(a) The petition alleges that the minor is the victim of sexual abuse or misconduct; or

(b) The petition alleges that charges alleging the commission of any of the sex offenses defined in chapter 9A.44 RCW have been filed against a defendant in any court and that the minor is the alleged victim of the acts of the defendant in the commission of such offense.

(2) Unless the guardian ad litem appointed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is an attorney at law, he or she shall be represented in the performance of his or her duties by counsel.

(3) Before proceeding with the hearing, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor if:

(a) No parent, guardian, custodian, or relative of the minor appears at the first or any subsequent hearing of the case; or

(b) The petition for which the minor is before the court resulted from a report made pursuant to chapter 26.44 RCW.

(4) The court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor whenever it finds that there may be a conflict of interest between the minor and his or her parents or other custodian or that it is otherwise in the minor's interest to do so.

(5) The reasonable fees of a guardian ad litem appointed under this section shall be fixed by the court and charged to the parents of the minor, to the extent they are able to pay. If the parents are unable to pay those fees, they shall be paid from the general fund of the county.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. At the fact-finding hearing, the court shall first consider only the question whether the minor is a high-risk youth. The standard of proof and the rules of evidence in the nature of civil proceedings in this state are applicable to section 19 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. (1) The court may enter an order of continuance under supervision (a) upon an admission or stipulation by the appropriate respondent or minor respondent of the facts supporting the petition and before proceeding to findings and adjudication, or after hearing the evidence at the fact-finding hearing but before noting in the minutes of proceedings a finding of whether or not the minor is a high-risk youth; and (b) in the absence of objection made in open court by the minor, his or her parent, guardian, custodian, responsible relative, defense attorney, or the prosecuting attorney.

(2) If the minor, his or her parent, guardian, custodian, responsible relative, defense attorney, or prosecuting attorney objects in open court to any such continuance and insists upon proceeding to findings and adjudication, the court shall so proceed.

(3) Nothing in this section limits the power of the court to order a continuance of the hearing for the production of additional evidence or for any other proper reason.

(4) When a hearing where a minor is alleged to be a high-risk youth is continued pursuant to this section, the court may permit the minor to remain in his or her home subject to conditions concerning his or her conduct and supervision as the court may require by order.

(5) If a petition is filed charging a violation of a condition of the continuance under supervision, the court shall conduct a hearing. If the court finds that a condition of supervision has not been fulfilled the court may proceed to findings and adjudication and disposition. The filing of a petition for violation of a condition of the continuance under supervision shall toll the period of continuance under supervision until the final determination of the allegation, and the term of the continuance under supervision shall not run until the hearing and disposition of the petition for violation. However, where the petition alleges conduct that does not constitute a criminal offense, the hearing must be held within fifteen days of the filing of the petition unless a delay in such hearing has been occasioned by the minor, in which case the delay shall continue the tolling of the period of continuance under supervision for the period of such delay.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. (1) After hearing the evidence the court shall make and note in the record a finding of whether or not the person is a high-risk youth. If it finds that the minor is not such a person, the court shall order the petition dismissed and the minor discharged from any restriction previously ordered in such proceeding.

(2) If the court finds that the person is a high-risk youth, the court shall note in its findings that he or she does require intervention. The court shall then set a time for a dispositional hearing to be conducted under section 21 of this act, at which hearing the court shall determine what disposition is in the best interests of the minor. To assist the court in making this and other determinations at the dispositional hearing, the court may order that an investigation be conducted and a predispositional report be prepared concerning the minor's physical and mental history and condition, family situation and background, economic status, education, occupation, history of delinquency or criminality, personal habits, and any other information that may be helpful to the court. Such investigation or predispositional report shall be conducted or prepared by the juvenile probation department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. (1) At the dispositional hearing, the court shall determine the proper disposition best serving the interests of the minor and the public. All evidence helpful in determining these questions, including oral and written reports, may be admitted and may be relied upon to the extent of its probative value, even though not competent for the purposes of the fact-finding hearing.

(2) Notice in compliance with sections 15 and 16 of this act must be given to all parties-respondent prior to proceeding to a dispositional hearing. Before making an order of disposition the court shall advise the prosecuting attorney, the parents, guardian, custodian, or responsible relative or their counsel of the factual contents and the conclusions of the reports prepared for the use of the court and considered by it, and afford fair opportunity, if requested, to controvert them. The court may order, however, that the documents containing the reports need not be submitted for inspection, or that sources of confidential information need not be disclosed except to the attorneys for the parties. Factual contents, conclusions, documents, and sources disclosed by the court under this subsection shall not be further disclosed without the express approval of the court pursuant to an in camera hearing.

(3) A record of a prior continuance under supervision under section 19 of this act, whether successfully completed or not, is admissible at the dispositional hearing.

(4) On its own motion or that of the prosecuting attorney, a parent, guardian, custodian, responsible relative, or counsel, the court may adjourn the hearing for a reasonable period to receive reports or other evidence. In scheduling investigations and hearings, the court shall give priority to proceedings in which a minor has been removed from his or her home before an order of disposition has been made.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. The following kinds of orders of disposition may be made in respect to wards of the court:

(1) A minor found to be a high-risk youth under section 4 of this act may be:

(a) Placed under supervision and released to his or her parents, guardian, or legal custodian; or

(b) Placed in accordance with section 26 of this act with or without also being placed under supervision. Conditions of supervision shall be set by the court and may include but are not limited to the following:

- (i) Regular school attendance;
- (ii) Counseling, which may include parents;
- (iii) Community service;
- (iv) Reporting to a probation counselor on a regular basis;
- (v) Participation in a treatment program for substance abuse problems;
- (vi) Any other condition the court deems an appropriate condition of supervision.

(2) Any order of disposition may provide for protective supervision under section 23 of this act and may include an order of protection under section 24 of this act.

(3) Unless the order of disposition expressly so provides, it does not operate to close proceedings on the pending petition, but is subject to modification until final closing and discharge of the proceedings under section 27 of this act.

(4) Any order for disposition where the minor is placed in accordance with section 26 of this act shall provide for the parents or guardian of the estate of such minor to pay such sums as are determined by the court as reasonable for the minor's needs and to defray the costs of placement.

(5) Whenever the order of disposition requires the minor to attend school or participate in a program of training, the probation counselor shall regularly report to the court if the minor is regularly truant.

(6) Any order for disposition where the minor is ordered to obtain counseling, therapy, or treatment shall provide for the parents or guardian to pay such sums as the court determines are reasonable to defray the costs of such counseling, therapy, or treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If the order of disposition releases the minor to the custody of his or her parents, guardian, or legal custodian, or continues the minor in such custody, the court may place the person having custody of the minor, except for representatives of private or public agencies or governmental departments, under supervision of the probation office. Rules or orders of court shall define the terms and conditions of protective supervision, which may be modified or terminated when the court finds that the best interests of the minor and the public will be served thereby.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) The court may make an order of protection in assistance of or as a condition of any other order authorized by this chapter. The order of protection may set forth reasonable conditions of behavior to be observed for a specified period by any person who is before the court on the original or supplemental petition. An order may require any such person:

- (a) To stay away from the home or the minor;
- (b) To permit a parent to visit the minor at stated periods;
- (c) To abstain from offensive conduct against the minor, the minor's parent or any person to whom custody of the minor is awarded;
- (d) To give proper attention to the care of the home;
- (e) To cooperate in good faith with an agency to which custody of a minor is entrusted by the court or with an agency or association to which the minor is referred by the court;
- (f) To refrain from acts of commission or omission that tend to make the home not a proper place for the minor.

(2) After notice and opportunity for hearing afforded to a person subject to an order of protection, the order may be modified or extended for a further specified period or both or may be terminated if the court finds that the best interests of the minor and the public will be served thereby.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) Orders of protective supervision and orders of protection may be enforced by citation to show cause for contempt of court by reason of any violation and, where protection of the welfare of the minor requires, by the issuance of a warrant to take the alleged violator into custody and bring the violator before the court.

(2) In any case where an order of protection has been entered, the clerk of the court may issue to the petitioner, to the minor, or to any other person affected by the order a certificate stating that an order of protection has been made by the court concerning such persons and setting forth its terms and requirements. The presentation of the certificate to any law enforcement officer authorizes the law enforcement officer to take into custody a person charged with violating the terms of the order of protection, to bring such person before the court and, within the limits of the law enforcement officer's legal authority as such law enforcement officer, otherwise to aid in securing the protection the order is intended to afford.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. (1) If the court finds that the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of a minor adjudged a high-risk youth are unfit or are unable, for some reason other than financial circumstances alone, to care for, protect, train, or discipline the minor or are unwilling to do so, and that appropriate services aimed at family preservation and family reunification have been unsuccessful in rectifying the conditions which have led to such a finding of unfitness or inability to care for, protect, train, or discipline the minor, and that it is in the best interest of the minor to take the minor from the custody of the minor's parents, guardian, or custodian, the court may:

(a) Place him or her in the custody of a suitable relative or other person;
 (b) Place him or her in a foster home, group home, or other placement facility approved by the court;

(c) Place him or her in a treatment facility.

(2) When making such placement, the court, wherever possible, shall select a person holding the same religious belief as that of the minor or a private agency controlled by persons of like religious faith of the minor. In addition, whenever alternative plans for placement are available, the court shall ascertain and consider, to the extent appropriate in the particular case, the views and preferences of the minor.

(3) Whenever any minor is placed in a facility which falls under the definition of staff-secure facility pursuant to RCW 13.32A.030, a review hearing shall be held every ninety days to allow the court to assess the minor's progress in the facility.

(4) No placement by any probation counselor may be made in any out-of-state child care facility unless it complies with the interstate compact on the placement of children.

(5) The clerk of the court shall issue to such legal custodian or guardian of the person a certified copy of the order of the court, as proof of authority. No other process is necessary as authority for the keeping of the minor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. (1) All proceedings under this chapter in respect to any minor automatically terminate upon the minor attaining the age of eighteen years.

(2) Whenever the court finds that the best interests of the minor and the public no longer require court intervention, the court shall order the matter terminated and all proceedings under this chapter respecting that minor finally closed and discharged.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Law enforcement agencies who come into contact with a youth believed to be a high-risk youth shall follow the requirements of RCW 13.32A.050, 13.32A.060, 13.32A.065, and 13.32A.070. In those instances under chapter 13.32A RCW in which the law enforcement agency is required to notify the department of social and health services, when the youth falls under the definition of high-risk youth, the law enforcement agency shall notify the probation department. In any event, the law enforcement agency shall notify the probation department of every contact it has with a high-risk youth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. This act shall take effect September 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. Sections 5, 6, and 8 through 28 of this act are each added to chapter 13.32A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1989, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Craswell, I'm trying to understand how this amendment works exactly, because you've represented to the Senate that this is only a pilot project, but as I read the sections of the bill that follow after Section 4, I believe those apply generally in the Juvenile Code and would apply to every county in the state of Washington. Tell me how that only applies as a pilot project in Pierce County."

Senator Craswell: "Section 4, Senator Talmadge, defines high risk youth. The high risk youth title only will be used when the parents have petitioned the court in Pierce County and declared, after looking at the record, that the child is a high risk youth."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, the concern I have is if this were indeed a pilot project that pertained solely and exclusively to Pierce County, that would be one thing, but the way this amendment is drawn, at least in my view, the funding portion relates to Pierce County. The pilot project will be located in Pierce County, but the legal authority for law enforcement officers to do whatever they're going to do, that exists from Section 4 throughout the remainder of the bill, applies to every other county in the state of Washington."

Senator Craswell: "Thank you, Senator Talmadge, I don't read it that way, but I'll be happy to sit down with you a little later and look at it. The House has scheduled action on it on Wednesday and we'll correct it over there, if we've got a problem."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Craswell, Bailey, Johnson, Smitherman, Wojahn, Gaspard, von Reichbauer, Rasmussen, Warnke and Stratton to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624.

The motion by Senator Craswell carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "youth;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.04.240, 13.04.300, 13.32A.030, and 13.32A.250; adding new sections to chapter 13.32A RCW; creating new sections; and providing an effective date."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5624 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 10; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Conner, Hansen, Kreidler, Moore, Niemi, Patterson, Rinehart, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams - 10.

Excused: Senator DeJarnatt - 1.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5624, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President reverted the Senate to the fourth order of business.

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE

STATE OF WASHINGTON
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
Ninth and Columbia Building, Olympia, Washington

March 31, 1989

Mr. Gordon A. Golob
Secretary of the Senate
306 Legislative Building
Olympia, Washington 98504

Dear Mr. Golob:

I am pleased to submit this final report assessing the positive and negative economic impacts of state correctional institutions on communities in which they are located, as required by Section 217, Chapter 7, laws of 1987.

This report was developed in cooperation with an advisory committee, that provided direction to the study and reviewed the analysis. The advisory group included Harmon Johnson, Walla Walla County Commissioner; Bill Stoner, Pierce County Council member; Mike Gibson, Mason County Commissioner; Margaret Schacht, Walla Walla County Courts and Human Services; Representative Art Sprenkle; Senator Jeannette Hayner; Sam McCullum, State Traffic Safety Commission; John King and Joseph Lehman of the State Department of Corrections. The study upon which this report is based was conducted by the Institute of Public Policy at The Evergreen State College. Copies of the data collected and the analysis for each of the major correctional facilities are available upon request.

The study concluded that Washington's prisons contribute to local economies. It appears that in most communities, the impact on local social, juvenile justice, or criminal justice services is not great. Walla Walla County is the only exception to this, because of the large number of inmate-related families that relocate to that area.

Although the study did not identify specific, quantifiable costs associated with the proximity of correctional facilities, the advisory committee did make recommendations to the Legislature, and I am submitting them with this letter.

If you have any questions or want additional information, please call me at (206) 753-5625.

Sincerely,
CHUCK CLARKE, Director

The Report of the Select Committee is filed in the Office of the Secretary of the Senate.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1289, by Representatives Cole, Patrick, Vekich, Leonard, Walker, Jones, Wolfe, Prentice and Smith

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1289 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Lee, would this allow liquor manufacturers or importers to provide to license retailers, tickets or admission fees? Could they provide a season ticket to the Mariners--to some retailer?"

Senator Lee: "The requirement is, Senator Metcalf, that they must actually accompany them, because it is only in the situation where it is a bona fide business meeting in that kind of an atmosphere. In other words, they could, if they had a loge box, for example, and invited them to come to a particular game, then they could, if business transactions were discussed, then it would be legal. If they simply bought them season tickets for some place down on the floor, and they--the particular person who provided it was not also there--it would not be legal."

Senator Metcalf: "Ok, so they'd have to go with them, so it isn't a way they could provide tickets? OK, thank you."

On motion of Senator Bailey, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5269 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rinehart: "Senator Bailey, you indicated that some of the bill was in the budget and some was not. Could you identify for us, what part of this is actually funded?"

Senator Bailey: "The parts of this bill that are funded are the class size, the 16.67, the annual average full-time equivalent students in grades nine through twelve, is fully funded--and we've been trying to do this for years and we finally have this part of the bill funded. We also are funding to the extent of six million dollars for the equipment that we need. We asked originally for twelve million dollars. Six million dollars will go a long way to providing the equipment for the schools for vocational training."

Senator Rinehart: "If I might continue. Is the amount for the ratio what was requested--the nine million?"

Senator Bailey: "Yes."

Senator Rinehart: "So, it has a total of fifteen million dollars? The nine for the ratio and six--the half of the request. So, the part then that is not funded is the Voc Ed for the 21st Century, the technology services, the technology grants, and the one-half of the equipment upgrade?"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5269.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pullen, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1254, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Senator Pullen. I believe it is important that we clarify the legislative intent on this bill. As you know, this bill establishes whistleblower immunity for individuals who provide important information to government agencies. It also authorizes government agencies which receive such information to defend whistleblowers against retaliatory law suits. Finally, this bill allows a whistleblower or intervening agency to recover any costs and attorney fees incurred in establishing the immunity defense.

"My question is this, does this bill apply prospectively only or would it apply to pending actions based on communications occurring prior to its effective date?"

Senator Pullen: "I believe that the bill applies equally to any pending civil action that is based on communications which would be protected under this bill. Statutes are generally presumed to operate prospectively only. However, a statute may apply retroactively if the statute relates to practice, procedure, or remedies and does not affect a contractual or vested right or impose a penalty. Such is the case here. I would also note, Senator Talmadge, that the Office of the Attorney General has issued an informal opinion which supports the view that this bill would apply retroactively if enacted."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Senator Pullen, for helping to clarify this important bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1379 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you, Senator McCaslin. On some of these bills that fly through on the consent calendar, it's kind of necessary to read them. This one raises some questions in my mind, I guess. I question if you have a circumstance where you're bidding on a public project and you decide that you want to undercut all of your competition by bidding very low, knowing there's no way in the world that you can get that contract, but having a suspicion that all of the other bidders might be well beyond what the bid price was set. Isn't this a real invitation to negotiated bids and some attendant problems that such negotiated bids create in terms of insider activities?"

Senator McCaslin: "Your question brings to mind the Womens' Minority Bill that we passed some time ago, which was absolutely an open book and which I think you supported. That was much more an open book than this and I've got to give credit to the agencies where they can negotiate this. Besides, Senator Talmadge, if we do have a problem with this, if in your research and your study of the bids, it shows that we're having a problem, then we can readdress it next session."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1379.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved that the following amendment by Senators Pullen and Talmadge be adopted:

On page 18, after line 7, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The legislature finds that treatment of the emotional problems of child sexual abuse victims may be impaired by lengthy delay in trial of the accused and the resulting delay in testimony of the child victim. The trauma of the abusive incident is likely to be exacerbated by requiring testimony from a victim who has substantially completed therapy and is forced to relive the incident. The legislature finds that it is necessary to prevent, to the extent reasonably possible, lengthy and unnecessary delays in trial of a person charged with abuse of a minor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 10.46 RCW to read as follows:

When a defendant is charged with a crime which constitutes a violation of RCW 9A.64.020 or chapter 9.68, 9.68A, or 9A.44 RCW, and the alleged victim of the crime is a person under the age of eighteen years, neither the defendant nor the prosecuting attorney may agree to extend the originally scheduled trial date unless the court within its discretion finds that there are substantial and compelling reasons for a continuance of the trial date and that the benefit of the postponement outweighs the detriment to the victim. The court may consider the testimony of lay witnesses and of expert witnesses, if available, regarding the impact of the continuance on the victim."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Pullen and Talmadge on page 18, after line 7, to Substitute House Bill No. 1065.

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR MURRAY

Senator Murray: "Mr. President, may I say that my point is that I would invite anybody who would like to wear a red arm band in support of the Children's Initiative--since we probably won't be allowed to vote on it--I would welcome you back to my desk to do so. Thank you."

(4) Any retail purchaser who (~~shall have~~) has suffered any loss or damage by reason of breach of warranty or by any act by a dealer which constitutes a violation of this chapter (~~shall have the right to~~) may institute an action for recovery against such dealer and the surety upon such bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of said bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety the vehicle dealer license shall automatically be deemed canceled.

((+)) (5) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the bond for any vehicle dealer licensed or to be licensed under more than one classification shall be the highest bond required for any such classification.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1386, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Phillips, Ferguson, Horn and Haugen)

Amending the requirement for creating small works roster.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A county may use a small works roster and award contracts under sections 2 through 4 of this act for any project for which the estimated cost is one hundred thousand dollars or less.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Each county may maintain a small works roster which shall be comprised of all contractors requesting to be on the roster and who are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform work in the state of Washington. Whenever possible, the county shall actively solicit participation by women and minority contractors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Whenever construction is done by contract for which the estimated cost is one hundred thousand dollars or less and the county uses a small works roster, the county shall invite proposals from appropriate contractors on the small works roster. Such invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed as well as materials and equipment to be furnished. Whenever possible, not less than five separate appropriate contractors shall be requested to submit proposals on any individual contract.

Once a contractor on the small works roster has been offered an opportunity to submit a proposal, that contractor shall not be offered another opportunity on any contract until all other appropriate contractors, including minority and women contractors, have been afforded an opportunity to submit a proposal on a contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, the county shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible proposal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 4 of this act are each added to chapter 36.32 RCW.

Sec. 6. Section 36.32.250, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 9, chapter 169, Laws of 1985 and by section 1, chapter 369, Laws of 1985 and RCW 36.32.250 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

No contract, lease, or purchase may be entered into by the county legislative authority or by any elected or appointed officer of such county until after bids have been submitted to the county upon specifications therefor. Such specifications shall be in writing and shall be filed with the clerk of the county legislative authority for public inspection, and an advertisement thereof stating the time and place where bids will be opened, the time after which bids will not be received, the character of the work to be done, or material, equipment, or service to be purchased, and that specifications therefor may be seen at the office of the clerk of the county legislative authority, shall be published in the county official newspaper: PROVIDED, That advertisements for public works contracts for construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of public facilities shall be additionally published in a legal newspaper of general circulation in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the county official newspaper is a newspaper of general circulation covering at least forty percent of the residences in that part of the county in which such public works are to be done publication of an advertisement of the applicable specifications in the county official newspaper only shall be sufficient. Such advertisements shall be published at least once in each week for two consecutive weeks prior to the last date upon which bids will be received and as many additional publications as shall be determined by the county legislative authority. The bids shall be in writing, shall be filed with the clerk, shall be opened and read in public at the time and place named therefor in said advertisements, and after being opened, shall be filed for public inspection. No bid may be considered for public work unless it is accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a surety bond, postal money order, cash, cashier's check, or certified check in an amount equal to five percent of the amount of the bid proposed. The contract for the public work, lease, or purchase shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, taking into consideration the quality of the articles or equipment to be purchased or leased. Any or all bids may be rejected for good cause. The county legislative authority shall require from the successful bidder for such public work a contractor's bond in the amount and with the conditions imposed by law. If the bidder to whom the contract is awarded fails to enter into the contract and furnish the contractor's bond as required within ten days after notice of the award, exclusive of the day of notice, the amount of the bid deposit shall be forfeited to the county and the contract awarded to the next lowest and best bidder. The bid deposit of all unsuccessful bidders shall be returned after the contract is awarded and the required contractor's bond given by the successful bidder is accepted by the county legislative authority. In the letting of any contract, lease, or purchase involving less than ((three thousand five hundred)) ten thousand dollars, advertisement and competitive bidding may be dispensed with on order of the county legislative authority. Notice of intention to let contracts or to enter into lease agreements involving amounts exceeding one thousand dollars but less than ((three thousand five hundred)) ten thousand dollars, shall be posted by the county legislative authority on a bulletin board in its office not less than three days prior to making such lease or contract. For advertisement and competitive bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between one thousand and ((three thousand five hundred)) ten thousand dollars, the county legislative authority must authorize by resolution a county procedure for securing telephone or written quotations, or both, from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding such contracts for purchase of materials, equipment, or services to the lowest responsible bidder. The procedure shall include the annual establishment of an array of general categories in which such contracts, leases, or purchases are anticipated. A roster shall be developed for each category, consisting of all potential bidders who have requested to be included on the roster. The county shall invite proposals from all vendors listed on the appropriate roster for each purchase between one thousand and ten thousand dollars. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry. Wherever possible, supplies shall be purchased in quantities for a period of at least three months, and not to exceed one year. Supplies generally used throughout the various departments shall be standardized insofar as possible, and may be purchased and stored for general use by all of the various departments which shall be charged for the supplies when withdrawn from the purchasing department.

This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW."

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "counties;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "reenacting and amending RCW 36.32.250; and adding new sections to chapter 36.32 RCW."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1386, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator McCaslin, I've not had an opportunity to go through the amendment in detail, but in the original proposal it discussed a process where five contractors would be asked to submit bids on a contract and it also discussed the fact that out of that five, one had to be a woman or a minority contractor. Is that provision held within your amendment?"

Senator McCaslin: "Yes, and they must consider those when they do award the bid."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1386, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent, 2; excused, 2.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1025, by Representatives R. King, Sayan, S. Wilson, Haugen, Basich and Spanel (by request of Department of Fisheries)

Changing standards for commercial fishing licenses.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Sutherland moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, after line 19, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 75.28.100, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 107, chapter 46, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.035 are each amended to read as follows:

An application for issuance or renewal of a commercial fishing license or permit shall contain the name and address of the vessel owner, the name and address of the vessel operator, the name and number of the vessel, a description of the vessel and fishing gear to be carried on the vessel, and other information required by the department.

At the time of issuance of a commercial fishing license or permit the director shall furnish the licensee with a vessel registration and two license decals.

Vessel registrations and license and permit decals issued by the director shall be displayed as provided by rule of the director.

A commercial fishing license or permit is not valid if the vessel is operated by a person other than the operator listed on the license or permit. ~~(The director may authorize additional operators for the license or permit. The fee for an additional operator is ten dollars.)~~

The vessel owner shall notify the director on forms provided by the department of changes of ownership or operator and a new license or permit shall be issued upon payment of a fee of ten dollars.

A defaced, mutilated, or lost license or license decal shall be replaced immediately. The replacement fee is two dollars."

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Sutherland, I don't remember discussing this in committee or discussing this with you. Is this cleared with the department--this amendment? The bill is a tune-up of noncontroversial things for the department. Is this amendment cleared with the department?"

Senator Sutherland: "Senator Metcalf, no, as a matter of fact, the department and Legislature differ quite often on a number of legislative issues. This is probably one that the department would differ with the legislative action on, although I don't know that for sure. I didn't have time to clear it with the department and I'm asking this body to act independently of clearing it with the department."

Senator Metcalf: "And would you repeat again why we're doing this? Is it the additional ten dollar fee that we object to, or the director, or the director's authority that we would object to?"

Senator Sutherland: "Senator Metcalf, let me just walk through a little bit of current authority. Currently, those that are granted commercial fishing licenses, particularly those for gill netting, may decide that they, in fact, don't want to actually do any of the fishing any longer. So they can, with a ten dollar permit, hire someone else to operate those vessels for them. In fact, many of the commercial operators in the state of Washington hold more than one permit, and since they can't be on more than one boat at the same time, they have a number of people actually doing the work for them under their license.

"Many of us in the state of Washington believe that, as with recreational anglers, I'm the only one that can fish under my recreational license, and that if commercial folks are interested in having a family occupation based on their ability to fish, then they ought to be the ones out there fishing rather than just purchasing up licenses from many, many different sources and then having a number of other folks, in fact, making it a major corporation type of a business. So, a few of us believe that we should restrict it down and just have the vessel owner be the one that's actually doing the fishing."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Sutherland, as I read this, if I owned a boat and a license and I was to become ill, I would not be allowed to have somebody else fish my boat. I could lose a whole season and lose my right to the license under your amendment."

Senator Sutherland: "Senator Rasmussen, that is correct. This license, under this amendment is the topic of two bills that were introduced this year--one that I introduced and one that Senator Smith introduced--both doing the same thing in response to a number of constituent inquiries. This would require that the operator be the one doing the fishing. So, Senator Rasmussen, you are correct."

Further debate ensued.

WITHDRAWAL OF AMENDMENT

On motion of Senator Sutherland, and there being no objection, the amendment on page 2, after line 19, to House Bill No. 1025 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1025 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1025.

ROLL CALL

HOUSE BILL NO. 1025, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Providing industrial insurance coverage for the horse racing industry.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lee, the following Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 51.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall assess premiums, under the provisions of this section, for certain horse racing employments licensed in accordance with chapter 67.16 RCW. This premium assessment shall be for the purpose of providing industrial insurance coverage for employees of trainers licensed under chapter 67.16 RCW, including but not limited to exercise riders, pony riders, and grooms, and includes all on or off track employment. For the purposes of sections 1 through 7 of this act a hotwalker shall be considered a groom. The department may adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW to carry out the purposes of this section, including rules providing for alternative reporting periods and payment due dates for coverage under this section.

(2) The department shall compute industrial insurance premium rates on a per license basis, which premiums shall be assessed at the time of each issuance or renewal of the license for owners, trainers, and grooms in amounts established by department rule for coverage under this section. This premium assessment shall be for the purpose of providing industrial insurance coverage for workers licensed under chapter 67.16 RCW, including but not limited to exercise riders, pony riders, and grooms. Premium assessments shall be determined in accordance with the requirements of this title, except that assessments shall not be experience rated and shall be fixed at the basic manual rate. However, rates may vary according to differences in working conditions at major tracks and fair tracks.

(3) For the purposes of paying premiums and assessments under this section and making reports under this title, individuals licensed as trainers by the Washington horse racing commission shall be considered employers. The premium assessment for a groom's license shall be paid by the trainer responsible for signing the groom's license application and shall be payable at the time of license issuance or renewal.

(4) Premium assessments under this section shall be collected by the Washington horse racing commission and deposited in the industrial insurance trust funds as provided under department rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 67.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the license fees authorized by this chapter, the commission shall collect the industrial insurance premium assessments required under section 1 of this act from trainers and grooms. The industrial insurance premium assessments required under section 1 of this act shall be retroactive to January 1, 1989, and shall be collected from all licensees whose licenses were issued after that date. The department shall adopt such rules as are necessary to ensure that no licensee licensed prior to the effective date of this act shall pay more than the assessment fixed at the basic manual rate. The commission shall deposit the industrial insurance premium assessments in the industrial insurance trust fund as required by rules adopted by the department of labor and industries.

(2) In addition to the license fees to be imposed on owner licenses as authorized by this chapter, the commission shall collect the industrial insurance premium assessments required under section 1 of this act, to apply retroactively to all licenses issued prior to the effective date of this act and after January 1, 1989. The assessment on each owner's license shall not imply that an owner is an employer, but shall be required as part of the privilege of holding an owner's license. The fee to be assessed on owner licenses as required by section 1 of this act shall in no case exceed one hundred fifty dollars. The commission shall deposit the industrial insurance premium assessments collected in the industrial insurance trust fund as required by rules adopted by the department of labor and industries.

Sec. 3. Section 51.16.140, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 29, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.16.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer who is not a self-insurer shall deduct from the pay of each of his or her workers one-half of the amount he or she is required to pay, for medical benefits within each risk classification. Such amount shall be periodically determined by the director and reported by him or her to all employers under this title: PROVIDED, That the state governmental unit shall pay the entire amount into the medical aid fund for volunteers, as defined in RCW 51.12.035, and the state apprenticeship council shall pay the entire amount into the medical aid fund for registered apprentices or trainees, for the purposes of RCW 51.12.130. The deduction under this section is not authorized for premiums assessed under section 1 of this 1989 act.

(2) It shall be unlawful for the employer, unless specifically authorized by this title, to deduct or obtain any part of the premium or other costs required to be by him or her paid from the wages or earnings of any of his or her workers, and the making of or attempt to make any such deduction shall be a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Section 9, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.32.073 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, each employer shall retain from the earnings of each worker that amount as shall be fixed from time to time by the director, the basis for measuring said amount to be determined by the director. The money so retained shall be matched in an equal amount by each employer, and all such moneys shall be remitted to the department in such manner and at such intervals as the department directs and shall be placed in the supplemental pension fund: PROVIDED, That the state apprenticeship council shall pay the entire amount into the supplemental pension fund for registered apprentices or trainees during their participation in supplemental and related instruction classes. The moneys so collected shall be used exclusively for the additional payments from the supplemental pension fund prescribed in this title and for the amount of any increase payable under the provisions of RCW 51.32.075, as now or hereafter amended, and shall be no more than necessary to make such payments on a current basis. The department may require a self-insurer to make any additional payments which are payable from the supplemental pension fund and thereafter such self-insurer shall be reimbursed therefrom.

(2) None of the amount assessed for the supplemental pension fund under section 1 of this 1989 act may be retained from the earnings of workers covered under section 1 of this 1989 act.

Sec. 5, Section 4, chapter 55, Laws of 1933 as last amended by section 2, chapter 146, Laws of 1985 and RCW 67.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the commission, as soon as it is possible after its organization, to prepare and promulgate a complete set of rules and regulations to govern the race meets in this state. It shall determine and announce the place, time and duration of race meets for which license fees are exacted; and it shall be the duty of each person holding a license under the authority of this chapter, and every owner, trainer, jockey, and attendant at any race course in this state, to comply with all rules and regulations promulgated and all orders issued by the commission. It shall be unlawful for any person to hold any race meet without having first obtained and having in force and effect a license issued by the commission as in this chapter provided; and it shall be unlawful for any owner, trainer or jockey to participate in race meets in this state without first securing a license therefor from the state racing commission, the fee for which shall be set by the commission which shall offset the cost of administration and shall not be for a period exceeding ~~((three))~~ one year(s).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The house commerce and labor committee and the senate economic development and labor committee, in conjunction with the horse racing commission and the department of labor and industries, shall conduct a study of industrial insurance coverage of the horse racing industry, specifically including coverage for jockeys. The committees shall report the results of the study to the house of representatives and the senate by December 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect April 1, 1989."

On motion of Senator Lee, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "industry;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 51.16.140, 51.32.073, and 67.16.020; adding a new section to chapter 51.16 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 67.16 RCW; creating a new section; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lee, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 2060, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Lee, I have two concerns with the bill and I am unable to find the definitions. Is it your intent that four or five owners that own one horse, that each of those would be subject to the one hundred-fifty dollar industrial insurance levy?"

Senator Lee: "My understanding, Senator Vognild, is that that is not the intent of the act, because of the fact that the assessment is tied to the license to run that particular horse and so it goes with the application for that fee. Whether or not it is one individual or whether it is a consortium of individuals, since it is tied to the license fee, it would be a single assessment."

Senator Vognild: "Well, I would be safe then in saying that for the purpose of this act, that it is intended that a license to run a horse here is the license on that horse and it does not matter how many owners there are? Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 2060, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 2060, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 1; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Gaspard, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vogndild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 46.

Voting nay: Senator Hansen - 1.

Absent: Senator Niemi - 1.

Excused: Senator DeJarnatt - 1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 2060, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. We have two different times in the chamber. We have twelve o'clock on one wall, which I believe is the west wall, and we have eleven o'clock on the east wall. Now, if we have a bill on reconsideration at a time certain, there would be a tremendous amount of confusion in here, so I would recommend either that clock be set back, or that clock be set ahead. Preferably that clock set ahead which would then be on daylight savings time and we would be in unison and agreement in the chamber."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The "practice of shorthand reporting or court reporting" means the making by means of written symbols or abbreviations in shorthand or machine writing of a verbatim record of any oral court proceeding, deposition, or proceeding before a jury, referee, court commissioner, special master, governmental entity, or administrative agency and the producing of a transcript from the proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(11) Establish by rule the procedures for an appeal of a failure of an examination;

(12) Conduct a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW on an appeal of a denial of a certificate based on the applicant's failure to meet minimum qualifications for certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The state shorthand reporters advisory board is established to advise the director concerning the administration of this chapter. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the director. Three members of the board shall be certified shorthand reporters, except for the initial members of the board, two of whom shall be freelance shorthand reporters and one a court-employed shorthand reporter, each engaged in the continuous practice of shorthand reporting for at least five years preceding appointment. Two members of the board shall be unaffiliated with the profession. One shall be a current member of the state bar association or state judiciary, the other shall be a public member. The term of office for board members is four years, except the terms of the first board members shall be staggered to ensure an orderly succession of new board members. The director may remove a board member for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty as specified by rule. Upon the death, resignation, or removal of a member, the director shall appoint a new member to fill a vacancy on the board for the remainder of the unexpired term. No board member may serve more than two consecutive terms, whether full or partial.

(2) Board members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) Upon receipt of complaints against shorthand reporters, the director shall investigate and evaluate the complaint to determine if disciplinary action is appropriate. At the discretion of the director, individual board members may participate in or conduct investigations or evaluations of investigation reports and make recommendations regarding further action. The director shall hold disciplinary hearings pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director, members of the board, and individuals acting on their behalf shall not be civilly liable for any act performed in good faith in the course of their duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department shall issue a certificate to any applicant who, as determined by the director upon advice of the board, has:

(a) Successfully completed an examination approved by the director;

(b) Good moral character;

(c) Not engaged in unprofessional conduct; and

(d) Not been determined to be unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety as a result of a physical or mental impairment.

(2) A one-year temporary certificate may be issued, at the discretion of the director, to a person holding one of the following: National shorthand reporters association certificate of proficiency, registered professional reporter certificate, or certificate of merit; a current court or shorthand reporter certification, registration, or license of another state; or a certificate of graduation of a court reporting school. To continue to be certified under this chapter, a person receiving a temporary certificate shall successfully complete the examination under subsection (1)(a) of this section within one year of receiving the temporary certificate, except that the director may renew the temporary certificate if extraordinary circumstances are shown.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Applications for certification shall be submitted on forms provided by the department. The department may require information and documentation to determine whether the applicant meets the criteria for certification as provided in this chapter. Each applicant shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 which shall accompany the application.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The director shall establish by rule the requirements and the renewal and late renewal fees for certification. Failure to renew the certificate on or before the expiration date cancels all privileges granted by the certificate. If an individual desires to reinstate a certificate which had not been renewed for three years or more, the individual shall satisfactorily demonstrate continued competence in conformance with standards determined by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Persons with two or more years' experience in shorthand reporting in Washington state as of the effective date of this act shall be granted a shorthand reporters certificate without examination, if application is made within one year of the effective date of this act. Shorthand reporters with less than two years' experience in shorthand reporting in this state as of the effective date of this act shall be granted a temporary certificate for one year. To continue to be certified under this chapter, a person receiving a temporary certificate shall successfully complete the examination under section 9 of this act within one year of receiving the temporary certificate, except that the director may renew the temporary certificate if extraordinary circumstances are shown.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In determining what action is appropriate, the director shall consider sanctions necessary to protect the public, after which the director may consider and include in the order requirements designed to rehabilitate the certificate holder or applicant. All costs associated with compliance to orders issued under this section are the obligation of the certificate holder or applicant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute unprofessional conduct for any certificate holder or applicant under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of shorthand reporting, whether or not the act constitutes a crime. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining or in seeking reinstatement of a certificate;

(3) Advertising in a false, fraudulent, or misleading manner;

(4) Incompetence or negligence;

(5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's certificate, registration, or license to practice shorthand reporting by a regulatory authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction;

(6) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative rule regulating the profession;

(7) Failure to cooperate in an inquiry, investigation, or disciplinary action by:

(a) Not furnishing papers or documents;

(8) Failure to comply with an order issued by the director or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the director;

(9) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the business or profession;

(10) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of the profession. For the purpose of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. This chapter may be known and cited as the shorthand reporting practice act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This act shall take effect September 1, 1989 except that the director may immediately take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on its effective date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The sum of forty-eight thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the department of licensing for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, to carry out the purposes of this act. The amount spent shall be repaid to the general fund from fees imposed as a result of this act prior to the end of the biennium ending June 30, 1993."

On motion of Senator Lee, the following amendment to the Committee on Economic Development and Labor amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 28, of the striking amendment, after "shall be" insert "no more difficult than"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Economic Development and Labor striking amendment, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 1208.

The motion by Senator Lee carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lee, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "reporters;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 18 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date."

On motion of Senator Lee, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1208, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Lee, I have two questions, I guess. I'm a supporter of the bill, but I wanted to make sure, first of all that there's nothing in this bill that purports to preclude the use of any technological innovations in shorthand reporting so that to have an inability to use say electronic recording or any other changes that might be available in the future for reporting depositions on law suits."

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, that was a question that was also asked within the committee and the answer that was given was that 'no' it does not prohibit any adjunct kind of recording. It does not however, as far as I can tell, say that you can do away with the shorthand reporter, but adjunct reporting is, in fact, in many cases beneficial."

Senator Talmadge: "One further question if I could, Senator. There is also a problem in practical experience with shorthand reporters, that the transcripts that are produced by shorthand reporters, deposition transcripts or lawsuit transcripts, can sometimes cost three, three and a half, four dollars a page, or more, in some instances, to transcribe and that cost is passed on to the clients by the lawyers. Is there anything in this legislation that would permit arbitration with respect to fees or some effort on the part of this board to examine the fee structure that may be charged by shorthand reporters?"

Senator Lee: "No, Senator Talmadge, because this only addresses itself to the Department of Licensing and not to what would be any kind of negotiation with the court itself. It would have to be another portion of the RCWs to do that."

Senator Talmadge: "Thank you. Perhaps, we can work on that fee issue a little bit later."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1208, as amended by the Senate.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1208, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; excused, 2.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 26.26 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In entering or modifying a support order under this chapter, the court shall require either or both parents to maintain or provide health insurance coverage for any dependent child as provided under RCW 26.09.105.

(2) This section shall not be construed to limit the authority of the court to enter or modify support orders containing provisions for payment of uninsured health expenses, health costs, or insurance premiums which are in addition to and not inconsistent with this section. "Health insurance coverage" as used in this section does not include medical assistance provided under chapter 74.09 RCW.

(3) A parent ordered to provide health insurance coverage shall provide proof of such coverage within twenty days of the entry of the order, or within twenty days of the date such coverage becomes available, to:

(4) Every order requiring a parent to provide health insurance coverage shall be entered in compliance with RCW 26.23.050 and be subject to direct enforcement as provided under chapter 26.18 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 26.18 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever an obligor parent who has been ordered to provide health insurance coverage for a dependent child fails to provide such coverage or lets it lapse, the department or the obligee may seek enforcement of the coverage order as provided under this section.

(2)(a) If the obligor parent's order to provide health insurance coverage contains language notifying the obligor that failure to provide such coverage may result in direct enforcement of the order and orders payments through, or has been submitted to, the Washington state support registry for enforcement, then the department may, without further notice to the obligor, send a notice of enrollment to the obligor's employer or union by certified mail, return receipt requested.

The notice shall require the employer or union to enroll the child in the health insurance plan as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(b) If the obligor parent's order to provide health insurance coverage does not order payments through, and has not been submitted to, the Washington state support registry for enforcement:

(i) The obligee may, without further notice to the obligor send a certified copy of the order requiring health insurance coverage to the obligor's employer or union by certified mail, return receipt requested; and

(ii) The obligee shall attach a notarized statement to the order declaring that the order is the latest order addressing coverage entered by the court and require the employer or union to enroll the child in the health insurance plan as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Upon receipt of an order that provides for health insurance coverage, or a notice of enrollment:

(a) The obligor's employer or union shall answer the party who sent the order or notice within thirty-five days and confirm that the child:

(i) Has been enrolled in the health insurance plan;

(ii) Will be enrolled in the next open enrollment period; or

(iii) Cannot be covered, stating the reasons why such coverage cannot be provided;

(b) The employer or union shall withhold any required premium from the obligor's income or wages;

(c) If more than one plan is offered by the employer or union, and each plan may be extended to cover the child, then the child shall be enrolled in the obligor's plan. If the obligor's plan does not provide coverage which is accessible to the child, the child shall be enrolled in the least expensive plan otherwise available to the obligor parent;

(d) The employer or union shall provide information about the name of the health insurance coverage provider or insurer and the extent of coverage available to the obligee or the department and shall make available any necessary claim forms or enrollment membership cards.

(4) If the order for coverage contains no language notifying the obligor that failure to provide health insurance coverage may result in direct enforcement of the order, the department or the obligee may serve a written notice of intent to enforce the order on the obligor by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service. If the obligor fails to provide written proof that such coverage has been obtained or applied for within twenty days of service of the notice, or within twenty days of coverage becoming available the department or the obligee may proceed to enforce the order directly as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) If the obligor ordered to provide health insurance coverage elects to provide coverage that will not be accessible to the child because of geographic or other limitations when accessible coverage is otherwise available, the department or the obligee may serve a written notice of intent to purchase health insurance coverage on the obligor by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall also specify the type and cost of coverage.

(6) If the department serves a notice under subsection (5) of this section the obligor shall, within twenty days of the date of service:

(a) File an application for an adjudicative proceeding; or

(b) Provide written proof to the department that the obligor has either applied for, or obtained, coverage accessible to the child.

(7) If the obligee serves a notice under subsection (5) of this section, within twenty days of the date of service the obligor shall provide written proof to the obligee that the obligor has either applied for, or obtained, coverage accessible to the child.

(8) If the obligor fails to respond to a notice served under subsection (5) of this section to the party who served the notice, the party who served the notice may purchase the health insurance coverage specified in the notice directly. The amount of the monthly premium shall be added to the support debt and be collectible without further notice. The amount of the monthly premium may be collected or accrued until the obligor provides proof of the required coverage.

(9) The signature of the obligee or of a department employee shall be a valid authorization to the coverage provider or insurer for purposes of processing a payment to the child's health services provider. An order for health insurance coverage shall operate as an assignment of all benefit rights to the obligee or to the child's health services provider, and in any claim against the coverage provider or insurer, the obligee or the obligee's assignee shall be subrogated to the rights of the obligor. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section regarding assignment of benefits, this section shall not require a health care service contractor authorized under chapter 48.44 RCW or a health maintenance organization authorized under chapter 48.46 RCW to deviate from their contractual provisions and restrictions regarding reimbursement for covered services. If the coverage is terminated, the employer shall mail a notice of termination to the department or the obligee at the obligee's last known address within thirty days of the termination date.

(10) This section shall not be construed to limit the right of the obligor or the obligee to bring an action in superior court at any time to enforce, modify, or clarify the original support order.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a health maintenance organization, or health care service contractor, to extend coverage to a child who resides outside its service area.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 74.20A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a support order is entered or modified under this chapter, the department shall require the responsible parent to maintain or provide health insurance coverage for any dependent child as provided under RCW 26.09.105.

(2) "Health insurance coverage" as used in this section does not include medical assistance provided under chapter 74.09 RCW.

In furtherance of the policy of the state to cooperate with the federal government in the administration of the child support enforcement program, the department may adopt such rules and regulations as may become necessary to entitle the state to participate in federal funds, unless such rules would be expressly prohibited by law. Any section or provision of law dealing with the child support program which may be susceptible to more than one construction shall be interpreted in favor of the construction most likely to comply with federal laws entitling the state to receive federal funds. If any law dealing with the child support enforcement program is ruled to be in conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition of the allocation of federal funds, such conflicting law is declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict.

Sec. 8. Section 5, chapter 435, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.23.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(l) The reasons for not ordering health insurance coverage if the order fails to require such coverage.

~~((5))~~ (6) The physical custodian's address shall be omitted from an order entered under the administrative procedure act. (7) The superior court clerk, the office of administrative hearings, and the department of social and health services shall, within five days of entry, forward to the Washington state support registry, a true and correct copy of all superior court orders or administrative orders establishing or modifying a support obligation which provide that support payments shall be made to the support registry. Promoting improvements of waterfront sewer systems.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved that the following Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendments be considered simultaneously and not be adopted:

On page 2, line 3, after the first "mg/l" strike "BODS, and" and insert "BOD5."

On page 2, line 4, after "solids" insert ", and (3) less than 200 MPN/ml fecal coliform bacteria"

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Metcalf, does this still allow the usage of new technology in the septic tanks systems that is driven by objective standards such as quantities of pollutants, and things like that?"

Senator Metcalf: "It is my understanding that it encourages it, yes."

Senator Bluechel: "It encourages it. It doesn't in any way restrict it from what the original bill did?"

Senator Metcalf: "No, not to my understanding. That was part of the problem the people had with the bill, which they do not have anymore."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Metcalf that the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources amendments on page 2, lines 3, 4, 6, 30, 33 and after 36, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1369 be not adopted.

The motion by Senator Metcalf carried and the committee amendments were not adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the following amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.118 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that:

(1) Many saltwater-front lots were developed without adequate means of sewage disposal;

(2) Installation of community sewers is not practical in many of these areas;

(3) Many of these homes are being expanded, remodeled, or rebuilt in violation of the building code; and

(4) These sewer systems are polluting the waters of the state.

The legislature further finds that modern technology has developed effective ways to treat the sewage from these residences in order to protect against significant health hazards and water quality degradation.

It is the intent of the legislature to allow the owners of single-family saltwater-front residences to replace inadequate on-site sewage treatment facilities with modern effective systems. It is also the intent of the legislature to provide incentives for these homeowners to upgrade their sewage disposal systems by allowing these homes to be remodeled, rebuilt, or expanded.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.118 RCW to read as follows:

The owners of single-family residences that were legally occupied prior to June 9, 1988, and that are on property adjacent to marine waters or discharge untreated sewage directly into marine waters, who repair or replace an existing on-site sewage disposal system so that the system achieves a thirty-day average effluent quality of: (1) Less than 10 mg/l BOD₅, and (2) less than 10 mg/l total suspended solids, and (3) less than 200 MPN/100 ml fecal coliform bacteria may remodel, expand, or replace the single-family residence. This standard must be met prior to discharge of the effluent below the surface of the ground. Residences expanded under this section shall use low-flow plumbing fixtures. Not later than January 1, 1990, the state board of health shall adopt such minimum nutrient loading standards for systems allowed under this section as the board finds necessary to ensure protection of the public health, attainment of state water quality standards, and the protection of shellfish and other public resources.

If the department of social and health services finds that more restrictive standards are necessary to ensure protection of the public health, attainment of state water quality standards, and the protection of shellfish and other public resources, the department may propose rules for adoption by the state board of health identifying the standards necessary for implementing its finding. The department may also identify the geographic areas where it is necessary to implement the more restrictive standards. In addition, the department may propose standards for the design, construction, maintenance, and monitoring of sewage disposal systems.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 70.118 RCW to read as follows:

If the legislative authority of a county or city finds that more restrictive standards than those contained in section 2 of this act or those adopted by the state board of health for systems allowed under section 2 of this act or limitations on expansion of a residence are necessary to ensure protection of the public health, attainment of state water quality standards, and the protection of shellfish and other public resources, the legislative authority may adopt ordinances or resolutions setting standards as they may find necessary for implementing their findings. The legislative authority may identify the geographic areas where it is necessary to implement the more restrictive standards. In addition, the legislative authority may adopt standards for the design, construction, maintenance, and monitoring of sewage disposal systems.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, this act shall take effect November 1, 1989.

(2) Section 2 of this act shall not take effect if the state board of health adopts standards for the replacement and repair of existing on-site sewage disposal systems located on property adjacent to marine waters by October 31, 1989.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The house of representatives committee on environmental affairs and the senate committee on environment and natural resources shall investigate on-site sewage regulation and practices in the state including, but not limited to, ways to ensure long-term maintenance and operation of these systems and report to their respective houses at the 1990 session of the Washington state legislature.*

On motion of Senator Metcalf the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "systems;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 70.118 RCW; creating a new section; and providing an effective date."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1369, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Smitherman: "Senator Metcalf, does anything in Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1369 prevent a health department from withholding enforcement action on a failing on-site system while residents are actively pursuing a community sewer system?"

Senator Metcalf: "No, Senator Smitherman, this act does not speak to that issue at all, but it only makes sense for a health department to hold off on requiring expensive improvements in a system that is about to be replaced."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1369, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1369, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McDonald, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Smith, Smitherman, Stratton, Sutherland, Thorsness, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 45.

Voting nay: Senators Talmadge, Vogniold - 2.

Excused: Senators Craswell, DeJarnatt - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1369, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1253, by Representatives Prentice, G. Fisher, Wood, Rasmussen, Day, Leonard and Wineberry (by request of Department of Licensing)

Changing provisions regarding nursing assistants.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator West, the following amendment by Senators West and Kreidler was adopted:

On page 2, after line 35, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 267, Laws of 1988 and RCW 18.52B.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature takes special note of the contributions made by nursing assistants in (~~nursing homes~~) health care facilities whose tasks are arduous and whose working conditions may be contributing to the high and often critical turnover among the principal cadre of health care workers who provide for the basic needs of (~~long-term care~~) patients. The legislature also recognizes the growing shortage of nurses (~~in long-term care~~) as the proportion of the elderly population grows and as the acuity of patients in hospitals and nursing homes becomes generally more severe.

The legislature finds and declares that occupational nursing assistants should have a formal system of educational and experiential qualifications leading to career mobility and advancement. The establishment of such a system should bring about a more stabilized work force in (~~the nursing home setting~~) health care facilities, as well as provide a valuable resource for recruitment into licensed nursing practice.

The legislature declares that the registration of nursing assistants and providing for voluntary certification of those who wish to seek higher levels of qualification is in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 267, Laws of 1988 and RCW 18.52B.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

- (1) "Department" means the department of licensing.
- (2) "Director" means the director of licensing or the director's designee.
- (3) "Board" means the Washington state board of nursing.
- (4) "Nursing assistant--certified" means an individual certified under this chapter.
- (5) "Nursing assistant--registered" means an individual registered under this chapter.
- (6) "Committee" means the Washington state nursing assistant advisory committee.
- (7) "Certification program" means an educational program approved by the superintendent of public instruction or the state board for community college education in consultation with the board, and offered by or under the administration of an accredited educational institution, either at a school site or a (~~nursing home~~) health care facility site. A program shall be offered at or near a (~~nursing home~~) health care facility site only if the (~~nursing home~~) health care facility can provide adequate classroom and clinical facilities.

(8) (~~"Registration program" means a nursing assistant training program as defined under chapter 18.52A RCW.~~

(9) (~~"Nursing home" means a facility licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW~~) "Health care facility" means a nursing home, hospital, hospice care facility, home health care agency, hospice agency, or other entity for delivery of health care services.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 267, Laws of 1988 and RCW 18.52B.030 are each amended to read as follows:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Nelson, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1689 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Patterson, would this bill take an amendment so you'd get the actual valuation on your car or truck or whatever?"

Senator Patterson: "I'm no parliamentarian, I'm not sure whether or not the bill has a title that would handle an amendment like that. I would suggest, Senator, that coming along later we have a bill that is going to totally change the evaluation system as it applies to our vehicles, which would put it on a staggered uniform reduction in the value based upon the original retail value, so you will always know what the value of your vehicle is and what the license tabs that you'll pay."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I'd hate to have to vote for a ten cent gas tax to get that change made. Is that all wrapped up in one?"

Senator Patterson: "Senator, the bill is a separate bill from the gas tax bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Patterson, if you recall--was it last year--that I was before your committee with a bill to forgive all of the over, or the under charges. I think that statistics showed that they were spending more money collecting the under charges than they were actually getting. If I recall the numbers, it cost them a million dollars or so to collect six hundred thousand dollars and I asked the department, 'let's just forgive all those and save the state four hundred thousand. We could save money by forgiving them.' and they said, 'Oh, don't worry about it, come next year we're going to have this on-line computer statewide and all those agencies out in the community will be making no more mistakes and therefore we won't need it.' Now, are you telling us, that we're going to raise it to ten dollars now, so that we're going to have a larger cost of collection? Tell me about this computer that was going to be on-line, will you?"

Senator Patterson: "Senator, I'd love to tell you about that computer. All the agents and sub-agents are not on-line on the CAP system, that's what you're referring to. The sub-agents, you know, are doing a tremendous volume of this work. Many times we blame the department for errors that are made at the local level. The sub-agents that have an operation to license your vehicles, obviously it's either that or you go to the county and you can blame the county. We have a number of sub-agents that are involved in making these errors. This bill merely says that it definitely is a loser if you go after a five dollar bill. You're raising the threshold to ten dollars which may be a break-even proposition, but you have to remember that the consumer is entitled, where he over pays, the consumer is entitled to get a rebate--refund--on the over-payment and that's what we're primarily concerned with. This, I think, will cut down on the lower end of it, from five dollars to ten dollars."

Senator Bauer: "When the person goes in and buys his license and they look at the little book, and they do their thing and they charge them so much, he's not going to be aware that he has over-paid. There's no way. He goes home and forgets it. Now, the department comes along and recomputes it and finds the mistake and now they're not going to tell him. He has to go and apply for it, not knowing that he's entitled to it even. It's really like saying, 'Hey, you know, you're entitled to it, but if nobody says anything, unless you try to find it out, spend a lot of days searching around to save five or ten dollars, you're not going to get it back.'"

Senator Patterson: "Well, this bill addresses the issue that you spoke of last year. The five dollars was a losing proposition. Now, I'm not going to stand here and suggest that when the state makes an error either way, that representing the department or representing the consumer, they should not go ahead and tell the consumer--suggest to the consumer--that, 'you have an over-payment or go ahead and pay it or that you haven't paid enough.' The threshold goes to ten and I presume that the ten dollars will make it pay, I don't know."

Senator Bauer: "Well, I'm waiting for the computer."

Senator Patterson: "Well, you're going to have to wait a little while longer for the computer."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Smith, Senator Anderson was excused.

Providing for oil spill damage assessments.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Conner moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 8, beginning on line 26, strike "of a continuing violation (" and insert "~~(of a continuing violation~~" and after ")")" insert the spill poses risks to the environment as determined by the director

On page 8, line 30, after "violation" strike ", for each day of continuing violation" and insert "and for each day the spill poses risks to the environment as determined by the director"

The motion by Senator Conner carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1853, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Thorsness: "Senator Metcalf, with the adoption of the Connor amendments, just so I understand it, now that it's in this bill, for example, if we had the contamination for up to say three years, would that company be liable for up to one hundred thousand dollars per day for that three years?"

Senator Metcalf: "Well, potentially it could be. The words that I read, 'as determined by the director,' and I think the director has the option to look carefully and be sure that it isn't unreasonable. If there is some particular thing that causes a massive damage that would go on and on, then yes, I think that they could."

Senator Thorsness: "So, the check and balance is the director?"

Senator Metcalf: "Yes, in my view, the director has the option and is responsible--to be responsible so to speak."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Nelson, you were indicating that we didn't have anything to base the decision on. We completed a number of years ago, and it's on file. I think, with the Department of Natural Resources, a base-line study. This was to anticipate what damage would be caused and that's why the base-line study was made to show just exactly what was in the whole area that would be affected by any oil spills. Wouldn't that be a governing factor? You have a base-line and it says there's this much here and there's this much damage and leave it up to the director and the Governor to decide what the fine should be."

Senator Nelson: "Senator Rasmussen, thank you for the question because that base-line study is not complete in every area of our state or on our waters and that base-line changes from year to year based on the conditions that occur especially along the shorelines. I only point out, and Senator Talmadge and I worked on this particular issue in the Puget Sound Water Quality Bill, you have on the development of the shorelines of the state of Washington, a continual change and what affluent then arrives into our open waters, based on what cities do with their primary treatment plants or in most cases, the major cause of Puget Sound pollution, which is non-point pollution from water run-off of the surface water areas as well as septic tanks, as well as agricultural changes that occur. So, that base-line is always changing. You have to come back and re-do what perhaps you assess as being the environmental condition of the waters and the shoreline."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1853, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1853, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 10; absent, 1; excused, 1.

SECOND READING
CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MOTION

Senator Saling moved that Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9108, Jean L. Beschel, as a member of the Board of Trustees for Eastern Washington University, be confirmed.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. When we recessed, there was a motion pending to relieve the Senate Ways and Means Committee of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1190. Do we need to act on that motion prior to the time we take up the gubernatorial appointment or do I need to renew my motion at some point?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Talmadge, your motion is pending before us at this time."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I would like to raise the point of order that the motion by Senator Talmadge was not raised in the proper order of business. We were, I believe, on the sixth order and the motion should have been made on the ninth order."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, on that point, I think there has been a previous ruling by the Chair that such a motion would be in order. We can't go to the ninth order of business every time a motion is made to take various kinds of action on the floor of the Senate, and I think it has been at least a custom in the Senate to permit a motion of this sort or various kinds of motions without the necessity of going to the ninth order of business."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Talmadge, upon ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Newhouse, the President believes the Senate had not acted upon Senator Talmadge's motion, that the objection to deciding that motion is timely, and that Senator Newhouse is correct in that the Senate was not on the proper order.

"The point of order is well taken."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I move that the Senate go to the ninth order of business. As a means of explanation, this is for the purpose of offering a motion to relieve the Ways and Means Committee of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1190 about which we've spoken. I think it's particularly important in light of the oil spill related issues and the concern that's been expressed about oil leasing in the coastlands of the state of Washington—that we have an opportunity to vote on this critical bill."

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Talmadge that the Senate advance to the ninth order of business.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talmadge to advance to the ninth order of business failed by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 24; absent, 3; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Kreidler, Madsen, McMullen, Moore, Murray, Niemi, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Smitherman, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 21.

Excused: Senator DeJarnatt - 1.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Do I understand that the President has just ruled that we must go to the ninth order of business in order to make a motion to move a bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "No, Senator Vognild, only when there are no objections. If there are objections, we must go to the ninth order; if there are no objections, we can move a bill at any time."

Senator Vognild: "So that I correctly understand it, if there's any one objection on the floor, then we must move to the ninth order of business to make a motion?"

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "It's subject to a majority vote then, Senator Vognild."

Senator Vognild: "Well, Mr. President, I want to be very clear on this, because I think it's an unusual ruling—a majority vote to do what?"

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "To move to a different order of business, if there are objections. If there are no objections, we can move to a different order of business at any time. If there are objections, it would normally take a majority vote."

Senator Vognild: "I understand that, Mr. President, and I agree. What I want to know is, if there is any objection to a motion made without going to the ninth order, then we must go to the ninth order? I believe that's the ruling that the President made."

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Vognild, in this particular instance, we were dealing with a bill that was not before us. We can move bills that are on the calendar without going to the ninth order, but this bill was not on the calendar. This bill was still in the committee. Your statement was overly broad, Senator."

Senator Vognild: "I understand the President has made a ruling, but in some cases a motion is in order without going to the ninth order even if somebody objects and the case you cite is if the bill is on the calendar and we are doing something with that bill although we are not working that bill."

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "That is just one example, Senator Vognild. Where you are pulling a bill from a committee, then you must have the motion on the ninth order, or without objections."

Senator Vognild: "As long as we're all playing by the same rules."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9108 and the pending motion by Senator Saling that the confirmation of Jean L. Beschel as a member of the Board of Trustees for Eastern Washington University be confirmed.

The motion by Senator Saling carried and Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9108, Jean L. Beschel, as a member of the Board of Trustees for Eastern Washington University, was confirmed.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I'm in a peculiar position. I'd like to rise to a point of order. Are these two amendments being taken separately?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Madsen has only moved one amendment at the present time."

Senator Newhouse: "I'd like to raise the point of order that the amendments expand the scope and object of the bill. I point out the bill has to do with illegal discharge into the waters of the state and the amendments get into mentioning first sewer sludge and then expanding into a new section having to do with counties, Class A and AA, disposing of sewer sludge which would expand the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1854 was deferred.

Excluding certain types of housing from the boarding home definition.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Stratton moved that the following amendments by Senators Stratton and Lee be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 1, line 14, after "include" insert "facilities certified as group training homes pursuant to RCW 71A.22.040, nor"

On page 2, after line 3, insert a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. Section 804, chapter 176, Laws of 1988 and RCW 71A.22.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, corporation, or association may apply to the secretary for approval and certification of the applicant's facility as a day training center or a group training home for persons with developmental disabilities, or a combination of both. The secretary may either grant or deny certification or revoke certification previously granted after investigation of the applicant's facilities, to ascertain whether or not such facilities are adequate for the (~~health, safety,~~) care, treatment, maintenance, training, and support of persons with developmental disabilities, under standards in rules adopted by the secretary. Day training centers and group training homes must meet local health and safety standards as may be required by local health and fire-safety authorities."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Stratton, on your second amendment on day training centers and group training homes, are those defined in statute?"

Senator Stratton: "Where are you looking?"

Senator McCaslin: "Are you on this amendment here, 1965?"

Senator Stratton: "Yes."

Senator McCaslin: "It says, 'day training centers and group training homes.'"

Senator Stratton: "What line are you on?"

Senator McCaslin: "I'm on the fourth from the bottom."

Senator Stratton: "OK, and what was your question?"

Senator McCaslin: "What are they? Are they defined in statute?"

Senator Stratton: "You might ask Senator Lee that. She's chairman of the committee. I'm sure they are."

Senator McCaslin: "Well, maybe Senator Lee can answer that question."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LEE

Senator Lee: "Yes, Senator McCaslin, I can't be as definitive as I'd like to be other than to indicate to you that at the very top of the amendment, it indicates that these are facilities that are identified in WAC--in RCW 71A.22.040."

Senator McCaslin: "Well, are we giving local help broad powers now to put in sprinkler systems, and escape routes and height on ceilings, and--"

Senator Lee: "Senator McCaslin, it is precisely the opposite. In fact, this amendment is being asked to be added to the boarding home exclusion--the exclusion for independent residential living units--from the boarding home regulations, because the boarding home regulations have been made so stringent. They're very similar now to nursing home requirements. The original bill which talks about independent living units, it is ridiculous for them to have that particular kind of standard, so this is an additional one--an addition to the boarding homes--that does not need that high of standard, since those rules were just recently revised."

Senator McCaslin: "So, you're saying this will assist those owners of these homes?"

Senator Lee: "That is correct. It will assist them to continue in the safe manner in which they are now operating."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you very much, Senator Lee."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators Stratton and Lee on page 1, line 14, and page 2, after line 3, to Substitute House Bill No. 1965.

The motion by Senator Stratton carried and the amendments were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Well sub (2) of Section 1 says, 'The county auditor shall initiate his or her inquiry, by sending by first class mail a written notice to the challenged voter at the address indicated on the voter's permanent registration.' So, according to that paragraph, he is."

Senator Madsen: "I guess I have a concern then about this bill. Do the county auditors support this bill?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Madsen: "Senator McCaslin, in the explanation, it says that there can be a voter approved regular property tax levy or a tax approved excess levy. Now, the regular property tax levy, is that within the nine dollar and fifteen cent limit?"

Senator McCaslin: "Beats the stuffing out of me, but I assume it is. I could check with my brains off the floor in the wing, if you'd like me to."

Senator Madsen: "I would appreciate that, because that could cause problems for the fire districts."

Senator McCaslin: "Could we hold for just a minute, Mr. President?"

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore deferred further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 2013.

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 2088 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator von Reichbauer, could you explain how this might work in all practical circumstances? I can foresee a situation for example, with a company like Washington Mutual Savings Bank, that has a variety of services, and this would permit some of those people inside of that umbrella to charge fees of clients that were in effect, referred to them by another branch of that overall umbrella financial agency. I'm not singling out Washington Mutual, but say it's an insurance company that is the umbrella organization doing the same thing. This is a situation where you can refer people within the various arms of the umbrella, but there has to be disclosure to the person who is so referred?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Absolutely, full disclosure, but before it's done, it has to be approved by the Insurance Commissioner's Office. There's no blanket permission given to any company. Every individual situation must be brought to the attention of the Insurance Commissioner."

Senator Talmadge: "So, that client that comes in the door, has to know that when they're referred to X Financial Institution, or Y whatever it might be, that that's another arm of the same overall company, so to speak?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Full disclosure must be given to the client as well as to the officers of the corporation."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Anderson, Senator Lee was excused.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McDonald, I know you have as much concern as the rest of us, for especially hardship cases. How many times would you anticipate that it would be required from past records on serious crimes, that the director would wish to waiver with the approval of the Governor?"

Senator McDonald: "They are, as I remember the figures, Senator Rasmussen, they are the vast majority. It's only a few percentage of the victims that have exceeded forty-five thousand dollars. As you may remember, when it first came to the Senate, the limit was considerably less than the forty-five thousand dollars and we raised it to that level for precisely those reasons. So, it is going to be taking in virtually all of the victims of crime."

Senator Rasmussen: "So, the ordinary rule would cover it under the forty-five thousand, but in isolated cases, very isolated, it may have a cost run over?"

Senator McDonald: "That is correct."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5691, on reconsideration, deferred March 31, 1989.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator McDonald, is Substitute Senate Bill No. 5691 specifically referenced in the budget passed by the Senate?"

Senator McDonald: "I believe it is, Senator Talmadge. It is a bill necessary to implement the budget, because it does carry a revenue impact or an expenditure impact, so I believe it is very much within the purview of this body."

Senator Talmadge: "I guess what I was interested in knowing was if it was specifically referenced by bill number?"

Senator McDonald: "I'll investigate that and get together with you, Senator Talmadge, but it certainly is a bill necessary to implement the budget and I think that's what we're dealing with."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of order, I raise the point of order that I don't believe Substitute Senate Bill No. 5691 is specifically referenced in the budget and if it is not specifically referenced in the budget, I believe it is outside the purview of the cutoff resolution adopted by both Houses."

Further debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "Senator Vognild and Senator Talmadge, to answer your direct inquiry there, reading line 12, of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4404, which is the cut-off resolution, it says, 'Be it further resolved that the following cut-off date shall apply to all bills, memorials, and joint resolutions with the exception of budgets, matters necessary to implement budgets, tax reform legislation, initiatives to the legislature and legislative alternatives to such initiatives.' Accordingly, Senator Talmadge, your point is not well taken."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5691, on reconsideration.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. I need a clarification on the ruling the Chair just made. If I understood it correctly, the Chair ruled that this bill is alive, because it's necessary to implement the budget. Is that the ruling the Chair made?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "That's right."

Senator Vognild: "The bill is not referenced in the budget, but it's alive, therefore, any bill which would have a fiscal impact of any kind--would have any type of effect on the budget--should be alive under your ruling? Is that correct?"

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "That's not what I ruled on. I ruled on this one, this specific one. It was alive because the issue that you raised was stated very clearly in the budget."

Senator Vognild: "Mr. President, just so I want to be extremely clear, I know exactly what's happening here. You ruled on one bill and one bill only, and you ruled that it is alive, because the chairman of Ways and Means said it is necessary to implement the budget."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

The joint memorial was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saling, the rules were suspended, House Joint Memorial No. 4015 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the joint memorial was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Saling, in this memorial is there any definition or any other indication to guide the loan officers in these institutions as to what would constitute an excessive debt burden for a student?"

Senator Saling: "Not to my knowledge. They would have to figure out with that student, the amount of income the student has, and what their ability would be to pay back a loan. They do have sophisticated formulas that they have now to determine whether a student is actually needy or not. It takes into consideration the student's income, the parents' income, the assets of the student and so on. I assume that what they would do is try and figure out some method of determining that at each local campus, but it doesn't speak to it in this memorial."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1854 and the pending amendment by Senator Madsen on page 3, line 7, deferred April 5, 1989.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Newhouse, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1854 is a measure which defines the type of damages which may be collected from illegal discharges into state waters; provides for any money recovered as damages to be transferred to the Coastal Protection Fund; and establishes a steering committee to authorize expenditures from this fund for a variety of purposes, including investigations of long-term effects of discharges.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Madsen, authorizes the steering committee to investigate the long-term effects of sludge discharges.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Madsen on page 3, line 7, to Substitute House Bill No. 1854 was ruled in order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Madsen on page 3, line 7, to Substitute House Bill No. 1854.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Madsen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Madsen moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 4, after line 25, insert the following section:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Any metropolitan municipal corporation, or class A or AA county disposing sewage sludge in any county in this state shall first execute a surety bond as principal with one or more sureties whose liability in the aggregate as such sureties will equal at least an amount set by the county in which the sewage sludge is to be disposed.

The issuer of the surety bond shall be licensed to do business in this state, and shall promptly notify the county when claims or payments are made against the bond. The bond shall be filed with the county and shall run to the county and to any person who may have a cause of action against the obligor of said bonds for any claim arising out of the sewage sludge disposal."

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, I'd like to raise the scope and object issue with this particular amendment. This is the one."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Newhouse, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1854 is a measure which defines the type of damages which may be collected from illegal discharges into state waters; provides for any money recovered as damages to be transferred to the Coastal Protection Fund; and establishes a steering committee to authorize expenditures from this fund for a variety of purposes, including investigations of long-term effects of discharges.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Madsen, would require metropolitan municipal corporations or Class A or AA counties who dispose of sludge to execute a surety bond in an amount set by the county in which the sludge is to be disposed.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Madsen on page 4, after line 25, to Substitute House Bill No. 1854 was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Metcalf, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1854, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Metcalf, at the present time, if a farmer discharges from his farm into the stream, he can be penalized up to the amount of damages to the fish life. What additional damages will that farmer have on top of that? They've assessed the cost of restocking the stream in several instances and this will be more damages on top of that?"

Senator Metcalf: "It could be, depending on the situation. The lost value between injury and restoration, for example, is defined or if restoration isn't possible, there would be compensation for the lost value of the resource, so it could be. The answer to your question is, 'yes,' it could be more damages in that particular case."

Senator Rasmussen: "And who sets the damages, the court or the Department of Ecology or just who sets the damages?"

Senator Metcalf: "It is my understanding that it is the Department of Ecology."

Senator Rasmussen: "There are no limits on what the Department of Ecology can assess and collect?"

Senator Metcalf: "Well, I don't think so, but you always have recourse to court if you think it's excessive."

Senator Rasmussen: "There are absolutely no limits on it? Thank you, Senator Metcalf."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, Senator Smith was excused.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1854, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1854, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 3; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yeas: Senators Amondson, Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Gaspard, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kreidler, Lee, Madsen, Matson, McCaslin, McMullen, Metcalf, Moore, Murray, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rinehart, Sellar, Smitherman, Stratton, Sutherland, Talmadge, Thorsness, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, West, Williams, Wojahn - 41.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1952, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Braddock, Appelwick and P. King)

Clarifying the durable power of attorney statute.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Craswell moved that the following amendment by Senators Craswell and Rasmussen be adopted:

On page 2, line 12, after "behalf" insert ": PROVIDED, That the attorney-in-fact may not consent to decisions to withhold or withdraw nutrition or hydration from the principal, except where the principal is physically unable to tolerate the administration of nutrition or hydration"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I believe the amendment by Senators Craswell and Rasmussen expands the scope and object of Substitute House Bill No. 1952. The bill that is before us is merely a technical correction in the law relating to the Durable Power of Attorney, something recommended by the Bar Association and something so non-controversial as to be on the consent calendar. The amendment by Senators Craswell and Rasmussen is more appropriately placed in the Natural Death Act section of the law. It really pertains to that issue and not to a simple technical correction, recommended by the Bar Association of the Durable Power of Attorney statute. Therefore, I believe the amendment expands the scope and object of the bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Newhouse, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1952 was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that Substitute House Bill No. 1952 be moved to the bottom of the second reading calendar.

Senator Newhouse suggested that that decision be made after the Ruling by the President on the amendment by Senators Craswell and Rasmussen.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore advanced the Senate to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 2013, deferred on third reading April 5, 1989.

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MADSEN

Senator Madsen: "I asked Senator McCaslin, when this bill came up, if this new park and recreation district would have a property tax level within the $9.15 property tax lid. My concern was if it was put in there, it would compete with fire districts for that limited amount of resources that is within the $9.15. In talking with the staff of the Governmental Operations Committee, I found out that a couple of years ago we prioritized the levy within the $9.15. This district would be a junior, junior, junior taxing district. This is even lower on the priority list than a cemetery district. I'm comfortable with it and now I ask your support of it."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2013.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 2013 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators DeJarnatt, Fleming - 2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2013, having received the constitutional majority was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the President Pro Tempore returned the Senate to the sixth order of business.

~~(b) A court, after a hearing at which all interested parties were given an opportunity to be heard, on equitable principles, orders that credit be given.~~

~~(3) The rights of the payee under an order for support shall not be prejudiced if the department grants credit under subsection (2)(a) of this section. If the department determines that credit should be granted pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the department shall mail notice of its decision to the last known address of the payee, together with information about the procedure to contest the determination.~~

When, following termination of public assistance, the office of support enforcement collects support, all moneys collected up to the maximum of the support due for the period following termination from public assistance shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, be paid to the custodial parent before any distribution to the office of support enforcement under federal law. This section shall not apply to support collected through intercepting federal tax refunds under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 664. When a responsible parent has more than one support obligation, or a support debt is owed to more than one party, moneys received will be distributed between the parties proportionally, based upon the amount of the support obligation and/or support debt owed.

(2) Distribute support payments to the payee under the support order or to another person who has lawful physical custody of the child or custody with the payee's consent. Upon service of the notice all moneys not yet disbursed or spent or like moneys to be received in the future are deemed to be impounded and shall be held in trust pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested.

The notice shall be answered under oath and in writing within twenty days of the date of service, which answer shall include true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice. The answer shall also either acknowledge the department's right to the moneys or request an administrative hearing to contest the allegation that chapter 26.18 RCW, RCW 74.20A.100, or 26.23.040, has been violated, or determine the rights to ownership of the support moneys in issue. The hearing shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW, and the rules of the department and shall be ~~((a-contested case))~~ an adjudicative proceeding as provided for in chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW. The burden of proof to establish ownership of the support moneys claimed, including but not limited to moneys not yet disbursed or spent, is on the department.

If no answer is made within the twenty days, the department's claim shall be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt pursuant to chapter 26.18 or 74.20A RCW, or RCW 26.23.040. Any such debtor may, at any time within one year from the date of service of the notice of support debt, petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for a hearing upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60. A copy of the petition shall also be served on the department. The filing of the petition shall not stay any collection action being taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee or the courts on any appeal made pursuant to chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW. Any moneys held and/or taken by collection action prior to the date of any such stay and any support moneys claimed by the department, including moneys to be received in the future to which the department may have a claim, shall be held in trust pending final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall condition the stay to provide for the trust.

If the hearing is granted it shall be an administrative hearing limited to the determination of the ownership of the moneys claimed in the notice of debt. The right to the hearing is conditioned upon holding of any funds not yet disbursed or expended or to be received in the future in trust pending the final order in these proceedings or during any appeal made to the courts. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall enter an appropriate order providing for the terms of the trust.

The hearing shall be an ~~((contested case))~~ adjudicative proceeding as provided for in chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW and shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter ~~((34-04))~~ 34.05 RCW, and the rules of the department. The hearing shall be promptly scheduled within thirty days from the date of receipt of the answer by the department. The hearing shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose. Hearings may be held in the county of residence of the debtor or other place convenient to the debtor.

If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing examiner shall, upon showing of valid service, enter an initial decision and order declaring the amount of support moneys, as claimed in the notice, to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of the decision and order the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate the decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing and review process shall be as provided for in RCW 74.20A.055.

If, at any time, the superior court enters judgment for an amount of debt at variance with the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings, the judgment shall supersede the final order in these proceedings. Any debt determined by the superior court in excess of the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings shall be the property of the department as assigned under 42 U.S.C. 602(A)(26)(a), RCW 74.20.040, 74.20A.250, 74.20.320, or 74.20.330. The department may, despite any final order in these proceedings, take action pursuant to chapters 74.20 or 74.20A RCW to obtain such a judgment or to collect moneys determined by such a judgment to be due and owing.

If public assistance moneys have been paid to a parent for the benefit of that parent's minor dependent children, debt under this chapter shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from that parent because of that payment of assistance. Nothing in this section prohibits or limits the department from acting pursuant to RCW 74.20.320 and this section to assess a debt against a recipient or ex-recipient for receipt of support moneys paid in satisfaction of the debt assigned under RCW 74.20.330 which have been assigned to the department but were received by a recipient or ex-recipient from another responsible parent and not remitted to the department. To collect these wrongfully retained funds from the recipient, the department may not take collection action in excess of ten percent of the grant payment standard during any month the public assistance recipient remains in that status unless required by federal law. Payments not credited against the department's debt pursuant to RCW 74.20.101 may not be assessed or collected under this section.

Sec. 36. Section 17, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section the court has continuing jurisdiction to prospectively modify a judgment and order for future education and future support, and with respect to matters listed in RCW 26.26.130 (3) and (4), and RCW 26.26.150(2) upon showing a substantial change of circumstances. The procedures set forth in RCW 26.09.175 shall be used in modification proceedings under this section.

(2) A judgment or order entered under this chapter may be modified without a showing of substantial change of circumstances upon the same grounds as RCW 26.09.170 permits support orders to be modified without a showing of a substantial change of circumstance.

Sec. 37. Section 6, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 26, chapter 263, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.09.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In a proceeding for:

(a) Dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or a declaration of invalidity; or

(b) Disposition of property or liabilities, maintenance, or support following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse, either party may move for temporary maintenance or for temporary support of children entitled to support. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:

(a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring him to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child and, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the party so restrained or enjoined has used or displayed or threatened to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in an act of violence or has previously committed acts of domestic violence and is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon in an act of domestic violence, requiring the party to surrender any deadly weapon in his immediate possession or control or subject to his immediate possession or control to the sheriff of the county having jurisdiction of the proceeding or to the restrained or enjoined party's counsel or to any person designated by the court. The court may order temporary surrender of deadly weapons without notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for response has elapsed;

(c) Entering the family home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;

(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) Restraining orders issued under this section restraining the person from molesting or disturbing another party or from entering a party's home shall bear the legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.09 RCW AND WILL SUBJECT A VIOLATOR TO ARREST.

(6) The court may order that any temporary restraining order granted under this section be forwarded by the clerk of the court on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order. Upon receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall forthwith enter the order for one year into any computer-based criminal intelligence information system available in this state used by law enforcement agencies to list outstanding warrants. Entry into the law enforcement information system constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any county in the state.

(7) A temporary order, temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified;

(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered, except as provided under subsection (8) of this section, or when the petition for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed;

(d) May be entered in a proceeding for the modification of an existing decree.

(8) ~~((A support debt owed to the state for public assistance expenditures which has been charged against a party pursuant to RCW 74.20A.040 and/or 74.20A.055 shall not be merged in, or otherwise extinguished by, the final decree or order, unless the office of support enforcement has been given notice of the final proceeding and an opportunity to present its claim for the support debt to the court and has failed to file an affidavit as provided in this subsection. Notice of the proceeding shall be served upon the office of support enforcement personally, or by certified mail, and shall be given no fewer than thirty days prior to the date of the final proceeding. An original copy of the notice shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter. The office of support enforcement may present its claim, and thereby preserve the support debt, by filing an affidavit setting forth the amount of the debt with the court, and by mailing a copy of the affidavit to the parties or their attorney prior~~ to the date of the final proceeding)) Delinquent support payments accrued under an order for temporary support remain collectible and are not extinguished when a final decree is entered unless the decree contains specific language to the contrary. A support debt under a temporary order owed to the state for public assistance expenditures shall not be extinguished by the final decree if:

(a) The obligor was given notice of the state's interest under chapter 74.20A RCW; or

(b) The temporary order directs the obligor to make support payments to the office of support enforcement or the Washington state support registry.

Sec. 38. Section 10, chapter 157, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 275, Laws of 1988 and RCW 26.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, declaration of invalidity, maintenance, or child support, after considering all relevant factors but without regard to marital misconduct, the court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to any child of the marriage dependent upon either or both spouses to pay an amount determined pursuant to the schedule adopted under RCW 26.19.040. The court may require ((annual adjustments of support based upon changes in a party's income or the child's needs, or based upon changes in the child support schedule)) periodic adjustments of support.

Sec. 39. Section 4, chapter 435, Laws of 1987 and RCW 26.23.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) The legislature recognizes that, in order for the support registry to operate in an effective and efficient manner and to ensure that delinquent child support payments will be enforced and collected promptly, especially when the responsible parent is employed and earning regular wages, current employment information must be available to the registry. The legislature also recognizes that the current employer reporting requirements to the department of employment security are not sufficient to facilitate the efforts of the registry to operate effectively and efficiently and collect delinquent payments promptly. Finally, the legislature recognizes that it may not be reasonable to create several different employer reporting systems because of the burdens that would be imposed on employers, especially small businesses. Therefore, the legislature directs the secretary of social and health services and the commissioner of employment security to work with business and employer groups to devise a single reporting process which will meet the needs of both departments and which will provide for prompt and timely employer reporting. The secretary and the commissioner shall prepare and submit a joint report to the judiciary and commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate by November 1, 1987. The report shall describe the progress that has been made in devising a new reporting system and shall include any recommendations for legislative action that have been agreed upon by the departments and the business and employer groups.~~

~~(2) The report shall include exemptions from the reporting requirement for employees employed for less than two months duration, whether they are full-time or part-time employees or employed on a sporadic basis, employees who earn less than three hundred dollars per month, and other appropriate exemptions. The report shall also provide for simple methods for employers to use in reporting information to the registry which shall include mailing a copy of the W-4 form, calling a toll-free telephone number maintained by the registry, or by other authorized means. The reporting process established by the report shall be designed to provide for up-to-date employment reports without imposing undue burdens on employers and small businesses.~~

~~(3) The secretary and the commissioner shall prepare and submit a report to the judiciary and commerce and labor committees of the house of representatives and the senate by January 25, 1989. This report shall describe the system or systems in effect at that time for employer reporting, identify any problems with the system or systems, include an assessment of the costs associated with the system or systems and the benefits derived from the information reported, if these costs and benefits can be quantified and identified, assess the additional work load for employers to comply with reporting requirements, propose a means by which employers may be compensated for their costs to comply with the reporting requirements, and include recommendations for legislative action if appropriate.~~

~~(4)) (1) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, all employers doing business in the state of Washington, and to whom the department of employment security has assigned the standard industrial classification sic codes listed in subsection (2) of this section, shall report to the Washington state support registry:~~

~~(a) The hiring of any person who resides or works in this state to whom the employer anticipates paying earnings; and~~

~~(b) The rehiring or return to work of any employee who was laid off, furloughed, separated, granted a leave without pay, or terminated from employment.~~

~~(2) Employers in the standard industrial classifications that shall report to the Washington state support registry include:~~

~~(a) Construction industry sic codes: 15, building; and 16, other than building;~~

~~(b) Manufacturing industry sic code 37, transportation equipment;~~

(c) Wholesale trade industry sic codes: 73, business services, except sic code 7362 (temporary help supply services); and 80, health services.

(3) Employers are not required to report the hiring of any person who:

(a) Will be employed for less than one month's duration;

(b) Will be employed sporadically so that the employee will be paid for less than three hundred fifty hours during a continuous six-month period; or

(c) Will have gross earnings less than three hundred dollars in every month.

The secretary of the department of social and health services may adopt rules to establish additional exemptions if needed to reduce unnecessary or burdensome reporting.

(4) Employers may report by mailing the employee's copy of the W-4 form, or other means authorized by the registry which will result in timely reporting.

(5) Employers shall submit reports within thirty-five days of the hiring, rehiring, or return to work of the employee. The report shall contain:

(a) The employee's name, address, social security number, and date of birth; and

(b) The employer's name, address, and employment security reference number or unified business identifier number.

(6) An employer who fails to report as required under this section shall be given a written warning for the first violation and shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to two hundred dollars per reporting period, for each subsequent violation. The penalty may be imposed and collected by the office of support enforcement under RCW 74.20A.270.

(7) The registry shall retain the information for a particular employee only if the registry is responsible for establishing, enforcing, or collecting a support obligation or debt of the employee. If the employee does not owe such an obligation or a debt, the registry shall not create a record regarding the employee and the information contained in the notice shall be promptly destroyed.

(8) This section shall expire on July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. A new section is added to chapter 26.23 RCW to read as follows:

The legislative budget committee shall conduct a study of the effectiveness of the reporting program contained in RCW 26.23.040. The study shall include a cost-benefit analysis using accepted accounting practices, control group comparisons of responsible parent work history and support payment history between industries and employers who report and those who do not, statistical detail by standard industrial code to describe (1) the percentage of reports made to the support registry, (2) the percentage of resulting matches with open support enforcement cases, and (3) the level of recovery of delinquent child support, a review of alternative or expedited reporting procedures utilizing new hire data from other public or private sources, control group comparisons regarding the responsible parent work history and support payment history using existing or expedited data sources compared with the employer reporting program, and recommendations as to expansion, termination, or enhancement of the reporting program.

The secretary of the department of social and health services and the commissioner of employment security shall provide necessary data and assistance to conduct the employer reporting program and the study and participate in the review of alternative reporting procedures. The department of social and health services shall reimburse the legislative budget committee and the employment security department for necessary expenses subject to the approval of the office of financial management.

The committee shall prepare and submit a report to the appropriate committees of the house of representatives and senate by November 7, 1992.

Sec. 41. Section 1, chapter 440, Laws of 1987 as amended by section 4, chapter 275, Laws of 1988 and RCW 26.19.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A child support schedule commission is established. The commission shall review and propose changes to the child support schedule and review and adopt changes to the worksheets and instructions.

(2) The commission shall be composed of the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee and ~~(ten)~~ eleven other members. Eight members shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, as follows: (a) A superior court judge; (b) a representative from the state bar association; (c) an attorney representing indigent persons in Washington; (d) two other persons who have demonstrated an interest or expertise in the study of economic data or child support issues, one of whom shall be a non-custodial parent; and (e) three public members who represent the affected populations, two of whom shall be non-custodial parents. ~~(Two)~~ Three members shall be the administrator for the courts or his or her designee ~~(and)~~, the attorney general or his or her designee, and the chief administrative law judge or his or her designee. In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of the association of superior court judges in respect to the member who is a superior court judge; and of the state bar association in respect to the state bar association and indigent attorney representatives.

(3) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee shall serve as chair of the commission.

(4) The secretary, administrator for the courts, chief administrative law judge, and attorney general shall serve on the commission while holding their respective positions. The term of the remaining members of the commission shall be three years, except that members serving on the commission as of March 24, 1988, shall serve staggered terms which shall be determined by lot, but shall not serve longer than three years from the date of appointment unless reappointed for an additional three-year term. In the event of a vacancy, the appointing authority shall designate a new member to complete the remainder of the unexpired term.

(5) Commission members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Members shall be compensated under RCW 43.03.240.

(6) The office of the administrator for the courts and the office of support enforcement shall provide clerical and other support to the commission to enable it to perform its functions. The office of support enforcement shall be responsible for travel expenses and compensation of commission members.

(7) The commission shall invite public participation and input, particularly from persons who are affected by child support orders.

(8) This section shall expire July 1, 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 19, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 17, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 33, chapter 435, Laws of 1987 and RCW 74.20A.190; and

MOTION

Senator Owen moved that the following amendments by Senators Owen, McDonald and Stratton to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 18, line 15, after "; strike "and"

On page 18, line 29, after "1990" insert "; and

(c) A statement that the receiving parent may be required to submit an accounting of how the support is being spent to benefit the child"

The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth facts that establish reasonable cause to believe that a substantial portion of the child support is not benefitting the child for whom is intended. The motion and affidavit shall also be served on the parent receiving the child support payments.

(3) If the court determines that the motion and affidavit establish reasonable cause, it shall require the receiving parent to appear at a certain time and place for a hearing on the motion. The court shall require the parent receiving the support to present such records and information as it determines are necessary to establish how the child support is spent.

(4) If after hearing the court determines that a substantial portion of the child support payments are not benefitting the child, the court shall enter an appropriate order directing the receiving parent to spend the child support to benefit the child.

(5) Unless the court has entered an order under subsection (4) of this section, a parent may not file a motion under this section more frequently than once every twelve months.

(6) If after hearing the court determines that the motion was not brought in good faith or that the motion was brought to harass the parent receiving the child support, the court shall award reasonable costs and attorney's fees to the receiving parent."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Niemi, what is the law at the present time regarding guardians and guardians ad litem? Does that require an annual report and accounting to the court?"

Senator Niemi: "It certainly does."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Niemi."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I believe the series of amendments by Senators Owen, McDonald and Stratton expand the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1635. In particular, this is a bill relating to the collection of child support obligations. It is a request of the Department of Social and Health Services. It pertains specifically and exclusively to the process by which support obligations are collected. Senator Owen, by his own admission, in his remarks on the amendments, is attempting to deal with the issue of accountability with respect to child support. It does not pertain to the collection of child support and, therefore, I believe the amendments expand the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1635."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hayner, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1635 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1444, by Committee on Education/Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Peery, Betrozoff, G. Fisher, Holland, Walker, May, O'Brien, Locke, Winsley, Bowman, Moyer, Valle, Horn, D. Sommers, Ferguson, Wineberry, Rector, Prentice, R. King, Sprengle, Basich, Dorn, Rust, Todd and H. Myers) (by request of Governor Gardner)

Revising programs for students at risk.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Saling moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"STUDENTS AT RISK

LEARNING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR STUDENTS AT RISK OF DROPPING OUT

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 478, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that an important and effective means of improving the educational performance of many students with special needs is to improve the general education program. The legislature also finds that there is a continuum of educational program needs among students with learning problems or poor academic performance. The legislature wants to encourage school districts to serve students with special needs within the regular classroom. Therefore, the legislature intends to replace the remediation program with a broader range of program options, without reducing special instructional programs when those services are both necessary and appropriate. The legislature intends to enhance the ability of basic education teachers to identify and address learning problems within the regular classroom. The legislature further intends to stimulate development by local schools and school districts of innovative and effective means of serving students with special needs. The goal is to increase the achievement of students with special needs in a shorter period of time using processes that are more timely, appropriate and effective in producing better outcomes.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 478, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.016 are each amended to read as follows:

Each school district which applies for state funds distributed pursuant to RCW 28A.120.022 shall conduct a needs assessment and, on the basis of its findings, shall develop a plan for the use of these funds. The plan may incorporate plans developed by each eligible school. Districts are encouraged to place special emphasis on addressing the needs of students in the early grades. The needs assessment and plan shall be updated at least biennially, and shall be determined in consultation with an advisory committee including but not limited to members of the following groups: Parents, including parents of students served by the program; teachers; principals; administrators; and school directors. The district shall submit a biennial application specifying this plan to the office of the superintendent of public instruction for approval. Plans shall include:

(1) The means which the district will use to identify participating students to receive additional services or support under the proposed program;

(2) The specific services or activities which the funds will be used to support, and their estimated costs;

(3) A plan for annual evaluation of the program by the district, based on performance objectives related to basic skills achievement of participating students, and a plan for reporting the results of this evaluation to the superintendent of public instruction;

(4) Procedures for recordkeeping or other program documentation as may be required by the superintendent of public instruction; and

(5) The approval of the local school district board of directors.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 478, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Services or activities which may be supported under an approved program of learning assistance shall include but not be limited to:

(1) Consultant teachers to assist classroom teachers in meeting the needs of participating students;

(2) Instructional support staff and instructional assistants to assist classroom teachers in meeting the needs of participating students;

(3) In-service training for classroom teachers, instructional support staff, and instructional assistants in multicultural differences and the identification of learning problems or in instructional methods for teaching students with learning problems;

(4) Special instructional programs for participating students, of sufficient size, scope, and quality to address the needs of these students and to give reasonable promise of substantial progress toward(s) meeting their educational objectives;

(5) Tutoring assistance during or after school or on Saturday provided by instructional support staff, a student tutor, teacher, or instructional assistant;

(6) In-service training for parents of participating students; and

(7) Counseling, with an emphasis on services for elementary students who are in need of learning assistance, provided by instructional support staff such as school counselors, school psychologists, school nurses, and school social workers. Pursuant to the provisions of section 4(2) of this act, learning assistance funds may be used to provide counseling for students who in the absence of counseling would likely become in need of such learning assistance.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 478, Laws of 1987 and RCW 28A.120.022 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each school district which has established an approved program shall be eligible, as determined by the superintendent of public instruction, for state funds made available for the purposes of such programs. The superintendent of public instruction shall make use of data derived from the basic skills tests in determining the amount of funds for which a district may be eligible. Funds shall be distributed according to the district's total full-time equivalent enrollment in kindergarten through grade nine and the percentage of the district's students taking the basic skills tests who scored in the lowest quartile as compared with national norms. In making this calculation, the superintendent of public instruction may use an average over the immediately preceding five or fewer years of the district's percentage scoring in the lowest quartile. The superintendent of public instruction shall also deduct the number of students at these age levels who are identified as specific learning disabled and are generating state funds for special education programs conducted pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW, in distributing state funds for learning assistance.

(2) In those districts receiving learning assistance funds in which students' test scores improve, districts may retain learning assistance funds based on the state-wide average of students eligible for participation in the learning assistance program, or the district's current level of funding under the learning assistance program, whichever is higher: PROVIDED, That only those learning assistance funds which are retained but would have been reduced due to improved student test scores, may be used for district identified purposes: PROVIDED FURTHER, That districts shall consider, as the first priority, expending such retained funds on prevention and intervention programs for students in grades preschool through sixth grade.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall review this allocation method and submit a report to the legislature by December 1, 1991. The report shall include but is not limited to the following information:

(a) An analysis of the impact of the allocation method and any recommendations regarding the continuation or discontinuation of the allocation method;

(b) A comparison of students' test scores for each district participating in the learning assistance program for the 1988-89 and 1990-91 school years against the test scores of students in the district for the 1986-87 and 1987-88 school years; and mandates that every school implement that plan. I believe that this is far beyond what the original scope of the bill was."

Further debate ensued.

Selection shall be made by a broadly based committee of professionals, after consideration of the results of the multiple criteria assessment.

(2) Students selected pursuant to procedures outlined in this section shall be provided, to the extent feasible, an educational opportunity which takes into account each student's unique needs and capabilities and the limits of the resources and program options available to the district, including those options which can be developed or provided by using funds allocated by the superintendent of public instruction for that purpose."

Notwithstanding that standards of quality established for the waters of the state would not be violated, wastes and other materials and substances shall not be allowed to enter such waters which will reduce the existing quality thereof, except in those situations where it is clear that overriding considerations of the public interest will be served. Technology-based effluent limitations or standards for discharges for municipal water treatment plants located on the Chehalis, Columbia, Cowlitz, Lewis, or Skagit river shall be adjusted to reflect credit for substances removed from the plant intake water if:

(i) The municipality demonstrates that the intake water is drawn from the same body of water into which the discharge is made; and

(ii) The municipality demonstrates that no violation of receiving water quality standards or appreciable environmental degradation will result.

(4) Adequate and safe supplies of water shall be preserved and protected in potable condition to satisfy human domestic needs.

(5) Multiple-purpose impoundment structures are to be preferred over single-purpose structures. Due regard shall be given to means and methods for protection of fishery resources in the planning for and construction of water impoundment structures and other artificial obstructions.

(6) Federal, state, and local governments, individuals, corporations, groups and other entities shall be encouraged to carry out practices of conservation as they relate to the use of the waters of the state. In addition to traditional development approaches, improved water use efficiency and conservation shall be emphasized in the management of the state's water resources and in some cases will be a potential new source of water with which to meet future needs throughout the state.

(7) Development of water supply systems, whether publicly or privately owned, which provide water to the public generally in regional areas within the state shall be encouraged. Development of water supply systems for multiple domestic use which will not serve the public generally shall be discouraged where water supplies are available from water systems serving the public.

(8) Full recognition shall be given in the administration of water allocation and use programs to the natural interrelationships of surface and ground waters.

(9) Expressions of the public interest will be sought at all stages of water planning and allocation discussions.

(10) Water management programs, including but not limited to, water quality, flood control, drainage, erosion control and storm runoff are deemed to be in the public interest.

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 216, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 90.03.005 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the policy of the state to promote the use of the public waters in a fashion which provides for obtaining maximum net benefits arising from both diversionary uses of the state's public waters and the retention of waters within streams and lakes in sufficient quantity and quality to protect instream and natural values and rights. Consistent with this policy, the state supports economically feasible and environmentally sound development of physical facilities through the concerted efforts of the state with the United States, public corporations, Indian tribes, or other public or private entities. Further, based on the tenet of water law which precludes wasteful practices in the exercise of rights to the use of waters, the department of ecology shall reduce these practices to the maximum extent practicable, taking into account sound principles of water management, the benefits and costs of improved water use efficiency, and the most effective use of public and private funds, and, when appropriate, to work to that end in concert with the agencies of the United States and other public and private entities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Nothing in this act shall affect or operate to impair any existing water rights.

(2) Nothing in this act shall be used to prevent future storage options, recognizing that storage may be necessary as a method of conserving water to meet both instream and out-of-stream needs.

(3) Nothing in this act shall infringe upon the rate-making prerogatives of any public water purveyor.

(4) Nothing in this act shall preclude the joint select committee on water resource policy from reviewing any subject matter contained herein for any future modifications.

Sec. 4. Section 13, chapter 225, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.54.120 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, unless the context is clearly to the contrary, the following definitions shall be used:

(1) "Department" means department of ecology.

(2) "Utilize" or "utilization" shall not only mean use of water for such long recognized consumptive or nonconsumptive beneficial purposes as domestic, stock watering, industrial, commercial, agricultural, irrigation, hydroelectric power production, thermal power production, mining, recreational, maintenance of wildlife and fishlife purposes, but includes the retention of water in lakes and streams for the protection of environmental, scenic, aesthetic and related purposes, upon which economic values have not been placed historically and are difficult to quantify.

(3) "Water use efficiency" means those measures, projects, practices, or techniques which result in a net water savings that cost less than obtaining an equivalent amount of water from the next least costly source of supply.

(4) "Greywater" means water collected from the shower, bath, kitchen and bathroom sinks, and washing machine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows:

Consistent with the fundamentals of water resource policy set forth in this chapter, state and local governments, individuals, corporations, groups and other entities shall be encouraged to carry out water use efficiency and conservation programs and practices consistent with the following:

(1) Water efficiency and conservation programs should utilize an appropriate mix of economic incentives, cost share programs, regulatory programs, and technical and public information efforts. Programs which encourage voluntary participation are preferred.

(2) Increased water use efficiency should receive consideration as a potential source of water in state and local water resource planning processes. In determining the cost-effectiveness of alternative water sources, consideration should be given to the benefits of conservation, waste water recycling, and impoundment of waters.

(3) In determining the cost-effectiveness of alternative water sources, full consideration should be given to the benefits of storage which can reduce the damage to stream banks and property, increase the utilization of land, provide water for municipal, industrial, agricultural, and other beneficial uses, provide for the generation of electric power from renewable resources, and improve stream flow regimes for fishery and other instream uses.

(4) Entities receiving state financial assistance for construction of water source expansion or acquisition of new sources shall develop, and implement if cost-effective, a water use efficiency and conservation element of a water supply plan pursuant to section 12(1) of this act.

(5) State programs to improve water use efficiency should focus on those areas of the state in which water is overappropriated; areas that experience diminished streamflows or aquifer levels; and areas where projected water needs, including those for instream flows, exceed available supplies.

(6) Existing and future generations of citizens of the state of Washington should be made aware of the importance of the state's water resources and the need for wise and efficient use and development of this vital resource. In order to increase this awareness, state agencies should integrate public education on increasing water use efficiency into existing public information efforts. This effort shall be coordinated with other levels of government, including local governments and Indian tribes.

Sec. 6. Section 37, chapter 117, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 92, chapter 109, Laws of 1987 and RCW 90.03.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The owner or owners of any ditch or canal shall maintain, to the satisfaction of the department of ecology, substantial controlling works, and a measuring device at the point where the water is diverted, and these shall be so constructed and maintained as to permit (of) accurate measurement and practical regulation of the flow of water diverted into said ditch or canal. Every owner or manager of a reservoir for the storage of water shall construct and maintain, when required by the department, any measuring device necessary to ascertain the natural flow into and out of said reservoir.

Metering of diversions or measurement by other approved methods may be required as a condition for all new water right permits. The department may also require, as a condition for such permits, reports regarding such metered diversions as to the amount of water being diverted. Such reports shall be in a form prescribed by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 90.44 RCW to read as follows:

The department of ecology may require withdrawals of ground water to be metered, or measured by other approved methods, as a condition for a new water right permit. The department may also require, as a condition for such permits, reports regarding such withdrawals as to the amount of water being withdrawn. These reports shall be in a form prescribed by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 19.27 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The state building code council shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW that implement and incorporate the water conservation performance standards in subsections (3) and (4) of this section. These standards shall apply to all new construction and all remodeling involving replacement of plumbing fixtures in all residential, hotel, motel, school, industrial, commercial use, or other occupancies determined by the council to use significant quantities of water.

(2) The legislature recognizes that a phasing-in approach to these new standards is appropriate. Therefore, standards in subsection (3) of this section shall take effect on July 1, 1990. The standards in subsection (4) of this section shall take effect July 1, 1993.

(3) Standards for water use efficiency effective July 1, 1990.

(a) Standards for waterclosets. The guideline for maximum water use allowed in gallons per flush (gpf) for any of the following waterclosets is the following:

Tank-type toilets	3.5 gpf.
Flushometer-valve toilets	3.5 gpf.

The assessment shall consider the availability of low-volume fixtures which are technologically feasible, will operate effectively, and are economically justified. The council shall also assess the potential impact on the necessary flow or water required to insure sewerage or septic lines and treatment plants will effectively operate.

The council shall submit a report to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and the secretary of the senate by October 30, 1992, setting forth its conclusions, and any recommendations for legislative action.

(6) The water conservation performance standards shall supersede all local government codes. After July 1, 1990, cities, towns, and counties shall not amend the code revisions and standards established under subsection (3) or (4) of this section.

Sec. 9. Section 5, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27.031 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, there shall be in effect in all counties and cities the state building code which shall consist of the following codes which are hereby adopted by reference:

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following.

The council may issue opinions relating to the codes at the request of a local building official.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 90.48 RCW to read as follows:

The department of ecology shall require sewer plans to include a discussion of water conservation measures considered or underway and their anticipated impact on public sewer service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of ecology may establish a task force to assist in a state-wide evaluation of irrigated areas, not to exceed six months in duration, to determine the associated impacts of efficiency measures, efficiency opportunities, and local interest. The department and the task force shall establish a list of basin and stream efficiency initiatives and select an irrigation area for a voluntary demonstration project.

(2) Prior to conducting conservation assessments and developing conservation plans, the department of ecology shall secure technical and financial assistance from the bureau of reclamation to reduce the costs to the state to the extent possible.

(3) A "conservation assessment" as described in this section shall be conducted before a demonstration project to increase the efficiency of irrigated agriculture is undertaken for an irrigated area, a basin, subbasin, or stream. The conservation assessment should:

(a) Evaluate existing patterns, including current reuse of return flows, and priorities of water use;

(b) Assess conflicting needs for future water allocations and claims to reserved rights;

(c) Evaluate hydrologic characteristics of surface and ground water including return flow characteristics;

(d) Assess alternative efficiency measures;

(e) Determine the likely net water savings of efficiency improvements including the amount and timing of water that would be saved and potential benefits and impacts to other water uses and resources including effects on artificial recharge of ground water and wetland impacts;

(f) Evaluate the full range of costs and benefits that would accrue from various measures; and

(g) Evaluate the potential for integrating conservation efforts with operation of existing or potential storage facilities.

(4) The conservation assessment shall be used as the basis for development of a demonstration conservation plan to rank conservation elements based on relative costs, benefits, and impacts. It shall also estimate the costs of implementing the plan and propose a specific basis for cost share distributions.

The demonstration conservation plan shall be developed jointly by the department and a conservation plan formulation committee consisting of representatives of a cross-section of affected local water users, members of the public, and tribal governments. Other public agencies with expertise in water resource management may participate as nonvoting committee members. A proposed demonstration conservation plan may be approved by the department and the committee only after public comment has been received.

(5) The department shall reimburse any members of the task force in subsection (2) of this section or of the committee in subsection (4) of this section who are not representing governmental agencies or entities for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 43.20 RCW to read as follows:

Consistent with the water resource planning process of the department of ecology, the department of social and health services shall, contingent on the availability of funds:

(1) Develop procedures and guidelines relating to water use efficiency, as defined in section 4(3) of this act, to be included in the development and approval of cost-efficient water system plans required under RCW 43.20.050;

(2) Develop criteria, with input from technical experts, with the objective of encouraging the cost-effective reuse of greywater and other water recycling practices, consistent with protection of public health and water quality; and

(3) Provide advice and technical assistance upon request in the development of water use efficiency plans and model rate-setting formulas.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On motion of Senator Barr, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "conservation," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 90.54.020, 90.03.005, 90.54.120, 90.03.360, and 19.27.031; adding new sections to chapter 90.54 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 19.27 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.20 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 90.44 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 90.48 RCW; and creating a new section."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1952 is a measure which, among other things, alters the powers granted in a Durable Power of Attorney by extending those powers to include health care decisions, subject to certain exemptions.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Craswell and Rasmussen also deals with the health care powers of a Durable Power of Attorney and exempts the power to withhold or withdraw nutrition or hydration from the principal in certain situations.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senators Craswell and Rasmussen on page 2, line 12, was ruled in order.

MOTIONS

Senator Bailey moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to Title 28A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Senior citizens have a wealth of experience and knowledge which can be of value to the children of our state. To encourage the exchange of knowledge and experience between senior citizens and our children, the six-plus-sixty volunteer program is created. The purpose of the program is to encourage senior citizens to volunteer in our public schools.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction may grant funds to selected school districts for planning and implementation of a volunteer program utilizing senior citizens. The funds may be used to provide information on volunteer opportunities to the community, to schools, and to senior citizens and may also be used to provide training to the senior citizens who participate in the program. Funds may also be used to compensate volunteers for their transportation costs by paying mileage, providing transportation on school buses, and providing a school lunch.

(3) The superintendent shall appoint an advisory committee composed of certificated and noncertificated staff, administrators, senior citizens, and the state center for voluntary action under chapter 43.150 RCW. The committee shall propose criteria to the superintendent to evaluate grant proposals for the six-plus-sixty volunteer program.*

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following amendment by Senators Rinehart and Anderson to the Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 2, after line 12, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop a model intergenerational child care program. The superintendent of public instruction shall design the program to:

(a) Provide child care to children five years of age and under, whose mothers are under the age of eighteen, and other children five years of age and under as space is available;

(b) Involve senior citizens in the community in the provision of care and also involve in the provision of care other persons in the community including students at public and private colleges and universities and students at vocational-technical institutes;

(c) Seek funding from multiple sources, including but not limited to, business and industry, private foundations, local governments, the federal government, and other state agencies;

(d) Select at least one site for the program, in an area that has a rate of teenage pregnancy higher than the state-wide average and also has a large senior citizen population;

(e) Develop innovative service delivery models including combining programs which may include existing programs such as: Project even start under chapter 28A.130 RCW; the early childhood education and assistance program under chapter 28A.34A RCW; a before-and-after school care program authorized under chapter 28A.34 RCW; a child care program at a college or university; and an existing child care program funded with any combination of private or public moneys; and

(f) Select facilities, if possible, that have access to or are part of other community services such as senior centers, community centers, park facilities, schools, colleges or universities, vocation-technical institutes, private business or industry, or health care institutions.

(2) In developing and implementing the program, the department shall work with state, federal, and local agencies.*

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bailey, I'm just reading the amendment that was adopted. It says, 'The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall develop a model child-care program.' Is Senator McDonald aware of the directions that we're giving to the Superintendent? Is he going to take care of that in the budget?"

Senator Bailey: "Yes, I think Senator McDonald is aware of the amendment."

Senator Rasmussen: "But, he may or may not take care of it in the budget?"

Senator Bailey: "I think Senator McDonald will take care of it, but I will let Senator McDonald speak for himself."

Senator Rasmussen: "The reason I'm asking is that once you develop the plan, it becomes pretty expensive to provide child-care for all the children under five and we can't discriminate."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1334, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1334, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; excused, 1.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Bluechel: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1635 is a comprehensive measure which makes numerous changes in the area of child support, child support enforcement and procedures available to both the custodial and non-custodial parent.

"The bill would, among other things, affect lien priorities, increase the scope of support orders, provide procedures for additional hearings under certain circumstances, require some employers to report new employees in certain situations and add items in court orders which establish or modify a support obligation.

"The amendments on page 18, lines 15 and 29, by Senators Owen, McDonald and Stratton to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment would add to the content of a support order a statement that the receiving parent may be required to submit an accounting of how support money is benefitting the child.

"The amendments on page 47, lines 19 and 29 by Senators Owen, McDonald and Stratton to Committee on Law and Justice amendment would allow certain parents who are responsible for making child support payments to request an accounting and a court hearing on the issue of whether such payments are benefitting the intended child, limits the frequency of such request, and provides for court sanctions if such request are not brought in good faith.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments to the committee amendment do not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments by Senators Owen, McDonald and Stratton to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment were ruled in order.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators Owen, McDonald and Stratton on page 18, lines 15 and 29 and page 47, lines 19 and 29, to the Committee on Law and Justice amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1635.

Whenever any person who has been issued license plates under this section applies to the department for transfer of the plates to a subsequently acquired motor vehicle, a transfer fee of five dollars shall be charged in addition to all other appropriate fees."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Nelson: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. Reluctantly, I believe that this particular amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. The original bill deals with the new measure, a new approach to permitting the recognition of those veterans within the state of Washington, who will now be able to apply and pay five dollars for a little teeny, weeny, little emblem that can be put on the front license plate, in the area that you normally put the registration decal. Most of us know that is vacant today. There's nothing in that spot. This amendment asks for a revision in the entire license plate area of our state statutes in existing law. I might add, whereby those Pearl Harbor survivors who have plates, can now extend the use of those plates to the surviving spouse. Having voted for that bill that came through these chambers, I well recognize the meritorious intent of that bill, but this particular amendment now carrying that bill would be well beyond the scope and object of the original Engrossed House Bill No. 1412 that only deals with a small, little decal on existing plates."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1645, by Representatives Walk, Prince, Zellinsky, Ballard, R. Fisher, R. Meyers and Chandler

Regulating the relationship between motor vehicle dealers and manufacturers.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Nelson moved that the following Committee on Transportation amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that the distribution and sale of motor vehicles in this state vitally affect the general economy of the state and the public interest and public welfare, that provision for warranty service to motor vehicles is of substantial concern to the people of this state, that the maintenance of fair competition among dealers and others is in the public interest, and that the maintenance of strong and sound dealerships is essential to provide continuing and necessary reliable services to the consuming public in this state and to provide stable employment to the citizens of this state. The legislature further finds that there is a substantial disparity in bargaining power between automobile manufacturers and their dealers, and that in order to promote the public interest and the public welfare, and in the exercise of its police power, it is necessary to regulate the relationship between motor vehicles dealers and motor vehicle manufacturers, importers, distributors, and their representatives doing business in this state, not only for the protection of dealers but also for the benefit for the public in assuring the continued availability and servicing of automobiles sold to the public.

The legislature recognizes it is in the best interest for manufacturers and dealers of motor vehicles to conduct business with each other in a fair, efficient, and competitive manner. The legislature declares the public interest is best served by dealers being assured of the ability to manage their business enterprises under a contractual obligation with manufacturers where dealers do not experience unreasonable interference and are assured of the ability to transfer ownership of their business without undue constraints. It is the intent of the legislature to impose a regulatory scheme and to regulate competition in the motor vehicle industry to the extent necessary to balance fairness and efficiency. These actions will permit motor vehicle dealers to better serve consumers and allow dealers to devote their best competitive efforts and resources to the sale and services of the manufacturer's products to consumers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. In addition to the definitions contained in RCW 46.70.011, which are incorporated by reference into this chapter, the definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) A "new motor vehicle" is a vehicle that has not been titled by a state and ownership of which may be transferred on a manufacturer's statement of origin (MSO).

(2) "New motor vehicle dealer" means a motor vehicle dealer engaged in the business of buying, selling, exchanging, or otherwise dealing in new motor vehicles or new and used motor vehicles at an established place of business, under a franchise, sales and service agreement, or contract with the manufacturer of the new motor vehicles. However, the term "new motor vehicle dealer" does not include a miscellaneous vehicle dealer as defined in RCW 46.70.011(3)(c) or a motorcycle dealer as defined in chapter 46.94 RCW.

(3) "Franchise" means one or more agreements, whether oral or written, between a manufacturer and a new motor vehicle dealer, under which the new motor vehicle dealer is authorized to sell, service, and repair new motor vehicles, parts, and accessories under a common name, trade name, trademark, or service mark of the manufacturer.

"Franchise" includes an oral or written contract and includes a dealer agreement, either expressed or implied, between a manufacturer and a new motor vehicle dealer that purports to fix the legal rights and liabilities between the parties and under which (a) the dealer is granted the right to purchase and resell motor vehicles manufactured, distributed, or imported by the manufacturer; (b) the dealer's business is associated with the trademark, trade name, commercial symbol, or advertisement designating the franchisor or the products distributed by the manufacturer; and (c) the dealer's business relies on the manufacturer for a continued supply of motor vehicles, parts, and accessories.

(4) "Good faith" means honesty in fact and fair dealing in the trade as defined and interpreted in RCW 62A.2-103.

(5) "Designated successor" means:

(a) The spouse, biological or adopted child, grandchild, parent, brother, or sister of the owner of a new motor vehicle dealership who, in the case of the owner's death, is entitled to inherit the ownership interest in the new motor vehicle dealership under the terms of the owner's will or similar document, and if there is no such will or similar document, then under applicable intestate laws;

(b) A qualified person experienced in the business of a new motor vehicle dealer who has been nominated by the owner of a new motor vehicle dealership as the successor in a written, notarized, and witnessed instrument submitted to the manufacturer; or

(c) In the case of an incapacitated owner of a new motor vehicle dealership, the person who has been appointed by a court as the legal representative of the incapacitated owner's property.

(6) "Owner" means a person holding an ownership interest in the business entity operating as a new motor vehicle dealer and who is the designated dealer in the new motor vehicle franchise agreement.

(7) "Person" means every natural person, partnership, corporation, association, trust, estate, or any other legal entity.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise and notwithstanding the terms of a waiver, no manufacturer may terminate, cancel, or fail to renew a franchise with a new motor vehicle dealer, unless the manufacturer has complied with the notice requirements of section 7 of this act and an administrative law judge has determined, if requested in writing by the new motor vehicle dealer within the applicable time period specified in section 7(1), (2), or (3) of this act, after hearing, that there is good cause for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise and that the manufacturer has acted in good faith, as defined in this chapter, regarding the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new motor vehicle dealer who has received written notification from the manufacturer of the manufacturer's intent to terminate, cancel, or not renew the franchise may file a petition with the department for a determination as to the existence of good cause and good faith for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise. The petition shall contain a short statement setting forth the reasons for the dealer's objection to the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise. Upon the filing of the petition and the receipt of the filing fee, the department shall promptly notify the manufacturer that a timely petition has been filed and shall request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct a hearing. The franchise in question shall continue in full force and effect pending the administrative law judge's decision. If the decision of the administrative law judge terminating, canceling, or failing to renew a dealer's franchise is appealed by a dealer, the franchise in question shall continue in full force and effect until the appeal to superior court is finally determined or until the expiration of one hundred eighty days from the date of issuance of the administrative law judge's written decision, whichever is less. Nothing in this section precludes a manufacturer or dealer from petitioning the superior court for a stay or other relief pending judicial review.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing and render a final decision as expeditiously as possible, but in any event not later than one hundred eighty days after a petition is filed. If the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal is under section 7(2) of this act, the administrative law judge shall give the proceeding priority consideration and shall render a final decision not later than sixty days after a petition is filed.

(2) The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing as an adjudicative proceeding in accordance with the procedures provided for in the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW. The administrative law judge shall render the final decision and shall enter a final order. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 34.05.446 and 34.05.449, all hearing costs shall be borne on an equal basis by the parties to the hearing.

(3) A party to a hearing under this chapter may be represented by counsel. A party to a hearing aggrieved by the final order of the administrative law judge concerning the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise may seek judicial review of the order in the superior court in the manner provided for in RCW 34.05.510 through 34.05.598. A petitioner for judicial review need not exhaust all administrative appeals or administrative review processes as a prerequisite for seeking judicial review under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise or the terms of a waiver, and except as otherwise provided in section 7(2) (a) through (d) of this act, good cause exists for termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal when there is a failure by the new motor vehicle dealer to comply with a provision of the franchise that is both reasonable and of material significance to the franchise relationship, if the new motor vehicle dealer was notified of the failure within one hundred eighty days after the manufacturer first acquired knowledge of the failure and the new motor vehicle dealer did not correct the failure after being requested to do so.

If, however, the failure of the new motor vehicle dealer relates to the performance of the new motor vehicle dealer in sales, service, or level of customer satisfaction, good cause is the failure of the new motor vehicle dealer to comply with reasonable performance standards determined by the manufacturer in accordance with uniformly applied criteria, and:

(a) The new motor vehicle dealer was advised, in writing, by the manufacturer of the failure;

(b) The notice under this subsection stated that notice was provided of a failure of performance under this section;

(c) The manufacturer provided the new motor vehicle dealer with specific, reasonable goals or reasonable performance standards with which the dealer must comply, together with a suggested timetable or program for attaining those goals or standards, and the new motor vehicle dealer was given a reasonable opportunity, for a period not less than one hundred eighty days, to comply with the goals or standards; and

(d) The new motor vehicle dealer did not substantially comply with the manufacturer's performance standards during that period and the failure to demonstrate substantial compliance was not due to market or economic factors within the new motor vehicle dealer's relevant market area that were beyond the control of the dealer.

(2) The manufacturer has the burden of proof of establishing good cause and good faith for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Before the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise, the manufacturer shall give written notification to both the department and the new motor vehicle dealer. The notice shall be by certified mail or personally delivered to the new motor vehicle dealer and shall state the intention to terminate, cancel, or not renew the franchise, the reasons for the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal, and the effective date of the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal. The notice shall be given:

(1) Not less than ninety days before the effective date of the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal;

(2) Not less than fifteen days before the effective date of the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal with respect to any of the following that constitute good cause for termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal:

(a) Insolvency of the new motor vehicle dealer or the filing of any petition by or against the new motor vehicle dealer under bankruptcy or receivership law;

(b) Failure of the new motor vehicle dealer to conduct sales and service operations during customary business hours for seven consecutive business days, except for acts of God or circumstances beyond the direct control of the new motor vehicle dealer;

(c) Conviction of the new motor vehicle dealer, or principal operator of the dealership, of a felony punishable by imprisonment; or

(d) Suspension or revocation of a license that the new motor vehicle dealer is required to have to operate the new motor vehicle dealership where the suspension or revocation is for a period in excess of thirty days;

(3) Not less than one hundred eighty days before the effective date of termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal, where the manufacturer intends to discontinue sale and distribution of the new motor vehicle line.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Upon the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of a franchise by the manufacturer under this chapter, the manufacturer shall pay the new motor vehicle dealer, at a minimum:

(a) Dealer cost plus any charges by the manufacturer for distribution, delivery, and taxes, less all allowances paid or credited to the dealer by the manufacturer, of unused, undamaged, and unsold new motor vehicles in the new motor vehicle dealer's inventory that were acquired from the manufacturer or another new motor vehicle dealer of the same line make within the previous twelve months;

(b) Dealer cost for all unused, undamaged, and unsold supplies, parts, and accessories in original packaging, except that in the case of sheet metal, a comparable substitute for original packaging may be used, if the supply, part, or accessory was acquired from the manufacturer or from another new motor vehicle dealer ceasing operations as a part of the new motor vehicle dealer's initial inventory as long as the supplies, parts, and accessories appear in the manufacturer's current parts catalog, list, or current offering;

(c) Dealer cost for all unused, undamaged, and unsold inventory, whether vehicles, parts, or accessories, the purchase of which was required by the manufacturer;

(d) The fair market value of each undamaged sign owned by the new motor vehicle dealer that bears a common name, trade name, or trademark of the manufacturer, if acquisition of the sign was recommended or required by the manufacturer and the sign is in good and usable condition less reasonable wear and tear, and has not been depreciated by the dealer more than fifty percent of the value of the sign;

(e) The fair market value of all equipment, furnishings, and special tools owned or leased by the new motor vehicle dealer that were acquired from the manufacturer or sources approved by the manufacturer and that were recommended or required by the manufacturer and are in good and usable condition, less reasonable wear and tear. However, if the equipment, furnishings, or tools are leased by the new motor vehicle dealer, the manufacturer shall pay the new motor vehicle dealer such amounts that are required by the lessor to terminate the lease under the terms of the lease agreement; and

(f) The cost of transporting, handling, packing, and loading of new motor vehicles, supplies, parts, accessories, signs, special tools, equipment, and furnishings.

To the extent the franchise agreement provides for payment or reimbursement to the new motor vehicle dealer in excess of that specified in this section, the provisions of the franchise agreement shall control.

(2) The manufacturer shall pay the new motor vehicle dealer the sums specified in subsection (1) of this section within ninety days after the tender of the property, if the new motor vehicle dealer has clear title to the property and is in a position to convey that title to the manufacturer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) In the event of a termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal under this chapter, except for termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal under section 7(2) of this act, the manufacturer shall, at the request and option of the new motor vehicle dealer, also pay to the new motor vehicle dealer:

(a) A sum equivalent to rent for the unexpired term of the lease or one year, whichever is less, or such longer term as provided in the franchise, if the new motor vehicle dealer is leasing the new motor vehicle dealership facilities from a lessor other than the manufacturer; or

(b) A sum equivalent to the reasonable rental value of the new motor vehicle dealership facilities for one year or until the facilities are leased or sold, whichever is less, if the new motor vehicle dealer owns the new motor vehicle dealership facilities.

(2) The rental payment required under subsection (1) of this section is only required to the extent that the facilities were used for activities under the franchise and only to the extent the facilities were not leased for unrelated purposes. If payment under subsection (1) of this section is made, the manufacturer is entitled to possession and use of the new motor vehicle dealership facilities for the period rent is paid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 3 through 9 of this act do not relieve a new motor vehicle dealer from the obligation to mitigate the dealer's damages upon termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal of the franchise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise, an owner may appoint a designated successor to succeed to the ownership of the new motor vehicle dealer franchise upon the owner's death or incapacity.

(2) Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise, a designated successor of a deceased or incapacitated owner of a new motor vehicle dealer franchise may succeed to the ownership interest of the owner under the existing franchise, if:

(a) In the case of a designated successor who meets the definition of a designated successor under section 2(5)(a) of this act, but who is not experienced in the business of a new motor vehicle dealer, the person will employ an individual who is qualified and experienced in the business of a new motor vehicle dealer to help manage the day-to-day operations of the motor vehicle dealership; or in the case of a designated successor who meets the definition of a designated successor under section 2(5)(b) or 2(5)(c) of this act, the person is qualified and experienced in the business of a new motor vehicle dealer and meets the normal, reasonable, and uniformly applied standards for grant of an application as a new motor vehicle dealer by the manufacturer; and

(b) The designated successor furnishes written notice to the manufacturer of his or her intention to succeed to the ownership of the new motor vehicle dealership within sixty days after the owner's death or incapacity; and

(c) The designated successor agrees to be bound by all terms and conditions of the franchise.

(3) The manufacturer may request, and the designated successor shall promptly provide, such personal and financial information as is reasonably necessary to determine whether the succession should be honored.

(4) A manufacturer may refuse to honor the succession to the ownership of a new motor vehicle dealer franchise by a designated successor if the manufacturer establishes that good cause exists for its refusal to honor the succession. If the designated successor of a deceased or incapacitated owner of a new motor vehicle dealer franchise fails to meet the requirements set forth in subsections (2) (a), (b), and (c) of this section, good cause for refusing to honor the succession is presumed to exist. If a manufacturer believes that good cause exists for refusing to honor the succession to the ownership of a new motor vehicle dealer franchise by a designated successor, the manufacturer shall serve written notice on the designated successor and on the department of its refusal to honor the succession no earlier than sixty days from the date the notice is served. The notice must be served not later than sixty days after the manufacturer's receipt of:

(a) Notice of the designated successor's intent to succeed to the ownership interest of the new motor vehicle dealer's franchise; or

(b) Any personal or financial information requested by the manufacturer.

(5) The notice in subsection (4) of this section shall state the specific grounds for the refusal to honor the succession. If the notice of refusal is not timely and properly served, the designated successor may continue the franchise in full force and effect, subject to termination only as otherwise provided under this chapter.

(6) Within twenty days after receipt of the notice or within twenty days after the end of any appeal procedure provided by the manufacturer, whichever is greater, the designated successor may file a petition with the department protesting the refusal to honor the succession. The petition shall contain a short statement setting forth the reasons for the designated successor's protest. Upon the filing of a protest and the receipt of the filing fee, the department shall promptly notify the manufacturer that a timely protest has been filed and shall request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct a hearing. The manufacturer shall not terminate or otherwise discontinue the existing franchise until the administrative law judge has held a hearing and has determined that there is good cause for refusing to honor the succession. If an appeal is taken, the manufacturer shall not terminate or discontinue the franchise until the appeal to superior court is finally determined or until the expiration of one hundred eighty days from the date of issuance of the administrative law judge's written decision, whichever is less. Nothing in this section precludes a manufacturer or dealer from petitioning the superior court for a stay or other relief pending judicial review.

(7) The manufacturer has the burden of proof to show that good cause exists for the refusal to honor the succession.

(8) The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing and render a final decision as expeditiously as possible, but in any event not later than one hundred eighty days after a protest is filed.

(9) The administrative law judge shall conduct any hearing concerning the refusal to the succession as provided in section 5(2) of this act and all hearing costs shall be borne as provided in that subsection. A party to such a hearing aggrieved by the final order of the administrative law judge may appeal as provided and allowed in section 5(3) of this act.

(10) This section does not preclude the owner of a new motor vehicle dealer franchise from designating any person as his or her successor by a written, notarized, and witnessed instrument filed with the manufacturer. In the event of a conflict between such a written instrument that has not been revoked by written notice from the owner to the manufacturer and this section, the written instrument governs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) For the purposes of this section, and throughout this chapter, the term "relevant market area" is defined as follows:

(a) If the population in the county in which the proposed new or relocated dealership is to be located is four hundred thousand or more, the relevant market area is the geographic area within a radius of ten miles around the proposed site:

(b) If the population in the county in which the proposed new or relocated dealership is to be located is less than four hundred thousand, the relevant market area is the geographic area within a radius of fifteen miles around the proposed site.

In determining population for this definition, the most recent census by the United States Bureau of Census or the most recent population update, either from the National Planning Data Corporation or other similar recognized source, shall be accumulated for all census tracts either wholly or partially within the relevant market area.

(2) Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise and notwithstanding the terms of a waiver, if a manufacturer intends or proposes to enter into a franchise to establish an additional new motor vehicle dealer or to relocate an existing new motor vehicle dealer within or into a relevant market area in which the same line make of motor vehicle is then represented, the manufacturer shall provide at least sixty days advance written notice to the department and to each new motor vehicle dealer of the same line make in the relevant market area, of the manufacturer's intention to establish an additional new motor vehicle dealer or to relocate an existing new motor vehicle dealer within or into the relevant market area. The notice shall be sent by certified mail to each such party and shall include the following information:

(a) The specific location at which the additional or relocated motor vehicle dealer will be established;

(b) The date on or after which the additional or relocated motor vehicle dealer intends to commence business at the proposed location;

(c) The identity of all motor vehicle dealers who are franchised to sell the same line make vehicles as the proposed dealer and who have licensed locations within the relevant market area;

(d) The names and addresses, if available, of the owners of and principal investors in the proposed additional or relocated motor vehicle dealership; and

(e) The specific grounds or reasons for the proposed establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealer or relocation of an existing dealer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Within thirty days after receipt of the notice under section 12 of this act, or within thirty days after the end of an appeal procedure provided by the manufacturer, whichever is greater, a new motor vehicle dealer so notified or entitled to notice may file a petition with the department protesting the proposed establishment or relocation. The petition shall contain a short statement setting forth the reasons for the dealer's objection to the proposed establishment or relocation. Upon the filing of a protest and the receipt of the filing fee, the department shall promptly notify the manufacturer that a timely protest has been filed and shall request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct a hearing. The manufacturer shall not establish or relocate the new motor vehicle dealer until the administrative law judge has held a hearing and has determined that there is good cause for permitting the proposed establishment or relocation. When more than one protest is filed against the establishment or relocation of the same dealer, the administrative law judge shall consolidate the hearings to expedite disposition of the matter.

(2) If a manufacturer provides in the franchise agreement or by written statement distributed and provided to its dealers for arbitration under the Washington Arbitration Act, chapter 7.04 RCW, as a mechanism for resolving disputes relating to the establishment of an additional new motor vehicle dealer or the relocation of a new motor vehicle dealer, then the provisions of this section and section 15 of this act relating to hearings by an administrative law judge do not apply, and a dispute regarding the establishment of an additional new motor vehicle dealer or the relocation of an existing new motor vehicle dealer shall be determined in an arbitration proceeding conducted in accordance with the Washington Arbitration Act, chapter 7.04 RCW. The thirty-day period for filing a protest under this section still applies except that the protesting dealer shall file his protest with the manufacturer within thirty days after receipt of the notice under section 12 of this act.

(3) The dispute shall be referred for arbitration to such arbitrator as may be agreed upon by the parties to the dispute. If the parties cannot agree upon a single arbitrator within thirty days from the date the protest is filed, the protesting dealer will select an arbitrator, the manufacturer will select an arbitrator, and the two arbitrators will then select a third. If a third arbitrator is not agreed upon within thirty days, any party may apply to the superior court, and the judge of the superior court having jurisdiction will appoint the third arbitrator. The protesting dealer will pay the arbitrator selected by him, and the manufacturer will pay the arbitrator it selected. The expense of the third arbitrator and all other expenses of arbitration will be shared equally by the parties. Attorneys' fees and fees paid to expert witnesses are not expenses of arbitration and will be paid by the person incurring them.

(4) Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise or written statement of the manufacturer and notwithstanding the terms of a waiver, the arbitration will take place in the state of Washington in the county where the protesting dealer has his principal place of business. Section 14 of this act applies to a determination made by the arbitrator or arbitrators in determining whether good cause exists for permitting the proposed establishment or relocation of a new motor vehicle dealer, and the manufacturer has the burden of proof to establish that good cause exists for permitting the proposed establishment or relocation. After a hearing has been held, the arbitrator or arbitrators shall render a decision as expeditiously as possible, but in any event not later than one hundred twenty days from the date the arbitrator or arbitrators are selected or appointed. The manufacturer shall not establish or relocate the new motor vehicle dealer until the arbitration hearing has been held and the arbitrator or arbitrators have determined that there is good cause for permitting the proposed establishment or relocation. The written decision of the arbitrator is binding upon the parties unless modified, corrected, or vacated under the Washington Arbitration Act. Any party may appeal the decision of the arbitrator under the Washington Arbitration Act, chapter 7.04 RCW.

(5) If the franchise agreement or the manufacturer's written statement distributed to its dealers does not provide for arbitration under the Washington Arbitration Act as a mechanism for resolving disputes relating to the establishment of an additional new motor vehicle dealer or the relocation of a new motor vehicle dealer, then the hearing provisions of this section and section 15 of this act apply. Nothing in this section is intended to preclude a new motor vehicle dealer from electing to use any other dispute resolution mechanism offered by a manufacturer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. In determining whether good cause exists for permitting the proposed establishment or relocation of a new motor vehicle dealer of the same line make, the administrative law judge shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to:

(1) The extent, nature, and permanency of the investment of both the existing motor vehicle dealers of the same line make in the relevant market area and the proposed additional or relocating new motor vehicle dealer, including obligations reasonably incurred by the existing dealers to perform their obligations under their respective franchises;

(2) The growth or decline in population and new motor vehicle registrations during the past five years in the relevant market area;

(3) The effect on the consuming public in the relevant market area;

(4) The effect on the existing new motor vehicle dealers in the relevant market area, including any adverse financial impact;

(5) The reasonably expected or anticipated vehicle market for the relevant market area, including demographic factors such as age of population, income, education, size class preference, product popularity, retail lease transactions, or other factors affecting sales to consumers in the relevant market area;

(6) Whether it is injurious or beneficial to the public welfare for an additional new motor vehicle dealer to be established;

(7) Whether the new motor vehicle dealers of the same line make in the relevant market area are providing adequate competition and convenient customer care for the motor vehicles of the same line make in the relevant market area, including the adequacy of motor vehicle sales and service facilities, equipment, supply of vehicle parts, and qualified service personnel;

(8) Whether the establishment of an additional new motor vehicle dealer would increase competition and be in the public interest;

(9) Whether the manufacturer is motivated principally by good faith to establish an additional or new motor vehicle dealer and not by noneconomic considerations;

(10) Whether the manufacturer has denied its existing new motor vehicle dealers of the same line make the opportunity for reasonable growth, market expansion, establishment of a subagency, or relocation;

(11) Whether the protesting dealer or dealers are in substantial compliance with their dealer agreements or franchises; and

(12) Whether the manufacturer has complied with the requirements of sections 12 and 13 of this act.

In considering the factors set forth in this section, the administrative law judge shall give the factors equal weight, and in making a determination as to whether good cause exists for permitting the proposed establishment or relocation of a new motor vehicle dealer of the same line make, the administrative law judge must find that at least nine of the factors set forth in this section weigh in favor of the manufacturer and in favor of the proposed establishment or relocation of a new motor vehicle dealer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. (1) The manufacturer and the proposed additional or relocating new motor vehicle dealer have the burden of proof to establish that good cause exists for permitting the proposed establishment or relocation.

(2) The administrative law judge shall conduct any hearing as provided in section 5(2) of this act, and all hearing costs shall be borne as provided in that subsection. The administrative law judge shall render the final decision as expeditiously as possible, but in any event not later than one hundred twenty days after a protest is filed. If more than one protest is filed, the one hundred twenty days commences to run from the date the last protest is filed. A party to such a hearing aggrieved by the final order of the administrative law judge may appeal as provided and allowed in section 5(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. Sections 12 through 15 of this act do not apply:

(1) To the sale or transfer of the ownership or assets of an existing new motor vehicle dealer where the transferee proposes to engage in business representing the same line make at the same location or within two miles of that location;

(2) To the relocation of an existing new motor vehicle dealer within the dealer's relevant market area, if the relocation is not at a site within ten miles of any new motor vehicle dealer of the same line make;

(3) If the proposed new motor vehicle dealer is to be established at or within two miles of a location at which a former new motor vehicle dealer of the same line make had ceased operating within the previous twenty-four months;

(4) Where the proposed relocation is two miles or less from the existing location of the relocating new motor vehicle dealer; or

(5) Where the proposed relocation is to be further away from all other existing new motor vehicle dealers of the same line make in the relevant market area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A manufacturer shall not coerce, threaten, intimidate, or require a new motor vehicle dealer, as a condition to granting or renewing a franchise, to waive, limit, or disclaim a right that the dealer may have to protest the establishment or relocation of another motor vehicle dealer in the relevant market area as provided in section 13 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise, a manufacturer shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the sale, transfer, or exchange of a franchise to a qualified buyer who meets the normal, reasonable, and uniformly applied standards established by the manufacturer for the appointment of a new dealer or is capable of being licensed as a new motor vehicle dealer in the state of Washington. A decision or determination made by the administrative law judge as to whether a qualified buyer is capable of being licensed as a new motor vehicle dealer in the state of Washington is not conclusive or determinative of any ultimate determination made by the department of licensing as to the buyer's qualification for a motor vehicle dealer license. A manufacturer's failure to respond in writing to a request for consent under this subsection within sixty days after receipt of a written request on the forms, if any, generally used by the manufacturer containing the information and reasonable promises required by a manufacturer is deemed to be consent to the request. A manufacturer may request, and, if so requested, the applicant for a franchise (a) shall promptly provide such personal and financial information as is reasonably necessary to determine whether the sale, transfer, or exchange should be approved, and (b) shall agree to be bound by all reasonable terms and conditions of the franchise.

(2) If a manufacturer refuses to approve the sale, transfer, or exchange of a franchise, the manufacturer shall serve written notice on the applicant, the transferring, selling, or exchanging new motor vehicle dealer, and the department of its refusal to approve the transfer of the franchise no later than sixty days after the date the manufacturer receives the written request from the new motor vehicle dealer. If the manufacturer has requested personal or financial information from the applicant under subsection (1) of this section, the notice shall be served not later than sixty days after the receipt of all of such documents. Service of all notices under this section shall be made by personal service or by certified mail, return receipt requested.

(3) The notice in subsection (2) of this section shall state the specific grounds for the refusal to approve the sale, transfer, or exchange of the franchise.

(4) Within twenty days after receipt of the notice of refusal to approve the sale, transfer, or exchange of the franchise by the transferring new motor vehicle dealer, the new motor vehicle dealer may file a petition with the department to protest the refusal to approve the sale, transfer, or exchange. The petition shall contain a short statement setting forth the reasons for the dealer's protest. Upon the filing of a protest and the receipt of the filing fee, the department shall promptly notify the manufacturer that a timely protest has been filed, and the department shall arrange for a hearing with an administrative law judge as the presiding officer to determine if the manufacturer unreasonably withheld consent to the sale, transfer, or exchange of the franchise.

(5) In determining whether the manufacturer unreasonably withheld its approval to the sale, transfer, or exchange, the manufacturer has the burden of proof that it acted reasonably. A manufacturer's refusal to accept or approve a proposed buyer who otherwise meets the normal, reasonable, and uniformly applied standards established by the manufacturer for the appointment of a new dealer, or who otherwise is capable of being licensed as a new motor vehicle dealer in the state of Washington, is presumed to be unreasonable.

(6) The administrative law judge shall conduct a hearing and render a final decision as expeditiously as possible, but in any event not later than one hundred twenty days after a protest is filed. Only the selling, transferring, or exchanging new motor vehicle dealer and the manufacturer may be parties to the hearing.

(7) The administrative law judge shall conduct any hearing as provided in section 5(2) of this act, and all hearing costs shall be borne as provided in that subsection. Only the manufacturer and the selling, transferring, or exchanging new motor vehicle dealer may appeal the final order of the administrative law judge as provided in section 5(3) of this act.

(8) This section and sections 3 through 17 of this act apply to all franchises and contracts existing on the effective date of this act between manufacturers and new motor vehicle dealers as well as to all future franchises and contracts between manufacturers and new motor vehicle dealers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The department shall determine and establish the amount of the filing fee required in sections 4, 11, 13, and 18 of this act. The fees shall be set in accordance with RCW 43.24.086.

The department may also require the petitioning or protesting party to give security, in such sum as the department deems proper but not in any event to exceed one thousand dollars, for the payment of such costs as may be incurred in conducting the hearing as required under this chapter. The security may be given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties.

At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall assess, in equal shares, each of the parties to the hearing for the cost of conducting the hearing. Upon receipt of payment of the costs, the department shall refund and return to the petitioning party such excess funds, if any, initially posted by the party as security for the hearing costs. If the petitioning party provided security in the form of a bond or other undertaking with one or more sureties, the bond or other undertaking shall then be exonerated and the surety or sureties under it discharged.

Sec. 20. Section 16, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 18, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of the following acts or practices is unlawful:

(1) To cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcasted, televised, or disseminated in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That no down payment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a down payment is in fact required, or that a vehicle may be purchased for a smaller down payment than is actually required;

(b) That a certain percentage of the sale price of a vehicle may be financed when such financing is not offered in a single document evidencing the entire security transaction;

(c) That a certain percentage is the amount of the service charge to be charged for financing, without stating whether this percentage charge is a monthly amount or an amount to be charged per year;

(d) That a new vehicle will be sold for a certain amount above or below cost without computing cost as the exact amount of the factory invoice on the specific vehicle to be sold;

(e) That a vehicle will be sold upon a monthly payment of a certain amount, without including in the statement the number of payments of that same amount which are required to liquidate the unpaid purchase price.

(2) To incorporate within the terms of any purchase and sale agreement any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to terms that include as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle an amount for licensing or transfer of title of that vehicle which is not actually due to the state, unless such amount has in fact been paid by the dealer prior to such sale.

(3) To set up, promote, or aid in the promotion of a plan by which vehicles are to be sold to a person for a consideration and upon further consideration that the purchaser agrees to secure one or more persons to participate in the plan by respectively making a similar purchase and in turn agreeing to secure one or more persons likewise to join in said plan, each purchaser being given the right to secure money, credits, goods, or something of value, depending upon the number of persons joining the plan.

(4) To commit, allow, or ratify any act of "bushing" which is defined as follows: Taking from a prospective buyer of a vehicle a written order or offer to purchase, or a contract document signed by the buyer, which:

(a) Is subject to the dealer's, or his authorized representative's future acceptance, and the dealer fails or refuses within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and prior to any further negotiations with said buyer, to deliver to the buyer either the dealer's signed acceptance or all copies of the order, offer, or contract document together with any initial payment or security made or given by the buyer, including but not limited to money, check, promissory note, vehicle keys, a trade-in, or certificate of title to a trade-in; or

(b) Permits the dealer to renegotiate a dollar amount specified as trade-in allowance on a vehicle delivered or to be delivered by the buyer as part of the purchase price, for any reason except substantial physical damage or latent mechanical defect occurring before the dealer took possession of the vehicle and which could not have been reasonably discoverable at the time of the taking of the order, offer, or contract; or

(c) Fails to comply with the obligation of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer requiring the furnishing of services or repairs within a reasonable time.

(5) To commit any offense relating to odometers, as such offenses are defined in RCW 46.37.540, 46.37.550, 46.37.560, and 46.37.570. A violation of this subsection is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) For any vehicle dealer or vehicle salesman to refuse to furnish, upon request of a prospective purchaser, the name and address of the previous registered owner of any used vehicle offered for sale.

(7) To commit any other offense under RCW 46.37.423, 46.37.424, or 46.37.425.

(8) To commit any offense relating to a dealer's temporary license permit, including but not limited to failure to properly complete each such permit, or the issuance of more than one such permit on any one vehicle.

(9) For a dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer, having taken an instrument or cash "on deposit" from a purchaser prior to the delivery of the bargained-for vehicle, to commingle said "on deposit" funds with assets of the dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer instead of holding said "on deposit" funds as trustee in a separate trust account until the purchaser has taken delivery of the bargained-for vehicle. Failure, immediately upon receipt, to endorse "on deposit" instruments to such a trust account, or to set aside "on deposit" cash for deposit in such trust account, and failure to deposit such instruments or cash in such trust account by the close of banking hours on the day following receipt thereof, shall be evidence of intent to commit this unlawful practice: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a motor vehicle dealer may keep a separate trust account which equals his customary total customer deposits for vehicles for future delivery.

(10) For a dealer or manufacturer to fail to comply with the obligations of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer or manufacturer requiring the furnishing of goods and services or repairs within a reasonable period of time, or to fail to furnish to a purchaser, all parts which attach to the manufactured unit including but not limited to the undercarriage, and all items specified in the terms of a sales agreement signed by the seller and buyer.

(11) Being a manufacturer, other than a motorcycle manufacturer governed by chapter 46.94 RCW, to:

(a) Coerce or attempt to coerce any vehicle dealer to order or accept delivery of any vehicle or vehicles, parts or accessories, or any other commodities which have not been voluntarily ordered by the vehicle dealer: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute coercion;

(b) Cancel or fail to renew the franchise or selling agreement of any vehicle dealer doing business in this state without fairly compensating the dealer at a fair going business value for his capital investment which shall include but not be limited to tools, equipment, and parts inventory possessed by the dealer on the day he is notified of such cancellation or termination and which are still within the dealer's possession on the day the cancellation or termination is effective, if: (i) The capital investment has been entered into with reasonable and prudent business judgment for the purpose of fulfilling the franchise; and (ii) said cancellation or nonrenewal was not done in good faith. Good faith is defined as the duty of each party to any franchise to act in a fair and equitable manner towards each other, so as to guarantee one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.

(c) Encourage, aid, abet, or teach a vehicle dealer to sell vehicles through any false, deceptive, or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;

(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer's franchise agreement;

(e) Refuse to deliver any vehicle publicly advertised for immediate delivery to any duly licensed vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual agreement for the retail sale of new and unused vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer within sixty days after such dealer's order has been received in writing unless caused by inability to deliver because of shortage or curtailment of material, labor, transportation, or utility services, or by any labor or production difficulty, or by any cause beyond the reasonable control of the manufacturer;

(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer may only make any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer of that item.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative, or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor does the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section if any such contract or the terms thereof requiring performance, have been freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties. This paragraph and subsection (11)(b) of this section do not apply to new motor vehicle manufacturers governed by chapter 46.-- RCW (sections 1 through 19 of this act).

Sec. 21. Section 21, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 19, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this chapter, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

~~((Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer pursuant to RCW 46.70.180(11)(b) and this section shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of RCW 46.70.180(11)(b), with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.))~~ If a new motor vehicle dealer recovers a judgment or has a claim dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer under sections 4 or 5(3) of this act or this section, the new motor vehicle dealer is precluded from pursuing that same claim or recovering judgment for that same claim against the same manufacturer under the federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 U.S.C. Sections 1221 through 1225, but only to the extent that the damages recovered by or denied to the new motor vehicle dealer are the same as the damages being sought under the federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act. Likewise, if a new motor vehicle dealer recovers a judgment or has a claim dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer under the federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, the dealer is precluded from pursuing that same claim or recovering judgment for that same claim against the same manufacturer under this chapter, but only to the extent that the damages recovered by or denied to the dealer are the same as the damages being sought under this chapter.

A civil action brought in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of this section must be filed no later than one year following the alleged violation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 17, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 20, chapter 241, Laws of 1986 and RCW 46.70.200; and

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 9-312, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 52, chapter 35, Laws of 1986 and RCW 62A.9-312 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The rules of priority stated in other sections of this Part and in the following sections shall govern when applicable: RCW 62A.4-208 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; RCW 62A.9-103 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; RCW 62A.9-114 on consignments.

(2) ~~((A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest))~~ Conflicting priorities between security interests in crops shall be governed by chapter 60.11 RCW.

(3) A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if

(a) the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(b) the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory (i) before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party, or (ii) before the beginning of the twenty-one day period where the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession (subsection (5) of RCW 62A.9-304); and

(c) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(d) the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

(4) A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty days thereafter.

(5) In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in subsections (3) and (4) of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined according to the following rules:

(a) Conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the time a filing is first made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first perfected, whichever is earlier, provided that there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

(b) So long as conflicting security interests are unperfected, the first to attach has priority.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5) a date of filing or perfection as to collateral is also a date of filing or perfection as to proceeds.

(7) If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected by filing, the taking of possession, or under RCW 62A.8-321 on securities, the security interest has the same priority for the purposes of subsection (5) with respect to the future advances as it does with respect to the first advance. If a commitment is made before or while the security interest is so perfected, the security interest has the same priority with respect to advances made pursuant thereto. In other cases a perfected security interest has priority from the date the advance is made.

Sec. 2. Section 9-402, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 186, Laws of 1982 and RCW 62A.9-402 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A financing statement is sufficient if it gives the names of the debtor and the secured party, is signed by the debtor, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. When the financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of RCW 62A.9-103, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (RCW 62A.9-313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also comply with subsection (5). A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of a security agreement or a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement if the security agreement so provides or if the original has been filed in this state.

(2) A financing statement which otherwise complies with subsection (1) is sufficient when it is signed by the secured party instead of the debtor if it is filed to perfect a security interest in

(a) collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state or when the debtor's location is changed to this state. Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor's location was changed to this state under such circumstances; or

(b) proceeds under RCW 62A.9-306 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral; or

(c) collateral as to which the filing has lapsed; or

(d) collateral acquired after a change of name, identity or corporate structure of the debtor (subsection (7)).

(3) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection (1):

Name of debtor (or assignor)

Address

Name of secured party (or assignee)

Address

1. This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property:
(Describe)

2. (If applicable) The above goods are to become fixtures on* and this financing statement is to be filed for record in the real estate records. (If the debtor does not have an interest of record) The name of a record owner is ..

*Where appropriate substitute either "The above timber is standing on" or "The above minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts will be financed at the wellhead or minehead of the well or mine located on"

3. (If products of collateral are claimed)
Products of the collateral are also covered whichever Signature of Debtor (or Assignor)

is applicable) Signature of Secured Party (or Assignee)

(4) A financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party: PROVIDED, That a secured party may amend a financing statement without the signature of the debtor when the amendment is to change the address or name of the secured party. An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this Article, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "financing statement" means the original financing statement and any amendments. The fee for filing an amendment shall be the same as the fee for filing a financing statement.

(5) A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of RCW 62A.9-103, or a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (RCW 62A.9-313) where the debtor is not a transmitting utility, must show that it covers this type of collateral, must recite that it is to be filed for record in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real estate, the financing statement must show the name of a record owner.

(6) A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing from the date of its recording if (a) the goods are described in the mortgage by item or type, (b) the goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real estate described in the mortgage, (c) the mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records, and (d) the mortgage is duly recorded. No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

(7) A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or the names of partners. Where the debtor so changes his name or in the case of an organization its name, identity or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the change, unless a new appropriate financing statement or an amendment is filed before the expiration of that time. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of or consents to the transfer.

(8) A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading."

The motion by Senator McCaslin carried and the committee amendment was not adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator McCaslin, this would indicate that the property would be offered to the former owner if it was condemned to get the property. Will it be offered to the former owner to purchase at the price he received at the condemnation or at the later appraisal?"

Senator McCaslin: "I really don't know. I would assume that two appraisers would appraise that property and establish a present-day value and then sell it to the former owner at the combined average of the two appraisals."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, if they took my property for a hundred thousand dollars--they condemned it--I didn't want to sell it--but they condemned it--and two years later that property has increased in value to two hundred thousand dollars and they offered me the chance to buy it back at two hundred thousand, it seems to me, in the first place, I'd been injured when they'd condemned me and I didn't want to sell. In the second place, they're offering me the chance to buy it back at the increased price. It doesn't seem very fair."

Senator McCaslin: "I agree with you; it doesn't."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well then, why did you pass the bill out of committee that way?"

Senator McCaslin: "Well, I would expect then, that if they did that to you, you could probably take them to court, Senator, and then you know how fair the courts are. I'm sure they would give you a fair hearing."

Senator Rasmussen: "You're a dreamer, too."

(3) The renter shall initial the page prescribed under subsection (1) of this section to indicate actual receipt of the disclosures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The joint select committee on collision damage waivers is created. The committee shall consist of four members from the senate appointed by the president of the senate and four members from the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The committee shall include equal numbers of members from the majority and minority parties of each house. The joint select committee chairman shall be chosen by a majority vote of the committee members and shall serve for the duration of the committee. The committee shall be staffed from the senate and house of representatives committees on financial institutions and insurance.

(2) The committee shall examine the content of collision damage waivers sold in Washington, the price charged for the waiver in relation to the risk assumed by the car rental company, the environment in which the waivers are sold, and other related issues. The committee should review the collision damage waiver proposals recommended or adopted by other states or national associations. Such proposals should include, but not be limited to, disclosure requirements, waiver elimination, waiver content, rate regulation, and combinations of these proposals.

(3) The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the senate and house of representatives committees on financial institutions and insurance by December 1, 1989.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1756, by Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Representatives Sprenkle, S. Wilson, Rector, Fuhrman, Hargrove, K. Wilson, Haugen, Jacobsen and Scott)

Providing for extended area service by telecommunications companies.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Benitz moved that the following Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Universal telephone service for the people of the state of Washington is a policy goal of the legislature and has been enacted previously into Washington law. Access to universal and affordable telephone service enhances the economic and social well-being of Washington citizens.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in section 3 of this act, "extended area service" means the ability to call from one exchange to another exchange without incurring a toll charge.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any business, resident, or community may petition for and shall receive extended area service within the service territory of the local exchange company that provides service to the petitioner under the following conditions:

(1) Any customer, business or residential, interested in obtaining extended area service in their community must collect and submit to the commission the signatures of a representative majority of affected customers in the community. A "representative majority" for purposes of this section consists of fifteen percent of the access lines in that community;

(2) After receipt of the signatures, the commission shall authorize a study to be conducted by the affected local exchange company in order to determine whether a community of interest exists for the implementation of extended area service. For purposes of this section a community of interest shall be found if the average number of calls per customer per month from the area petitioning for extended area service to the area to which extended area service will be implemented is at least five;

(3) If a community of interest exists, the commission shall then calculate any increased rate that would be applied to the area which would have extended area service granted to it. This rate shall be based on the charges to a rate group having the same or similar calling capability as set forth in the tariffs of the local exchange telecommunications company involved;

(4) The affected telecommunications company shall be given the opportunity to propose an alternative plan that might be priced differently and that plan shall be included in the poll of subscribers as an alternative under subsection (5) of this section;

(5) After determining the amount of any additional rate, the commission shall notify the subscribers who will be affected by the increased rate and conduct a poll of those subscribers. If a simple majority votes its approval the commission shall order extended area service; and

(6) Any extended area service program pursuant to this section shall not result in any increase in prices charged to any provider of intralata and interlata interexchange service for access to facilities of local exchange companies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The pilot program specified in sections 2 and 3 of this act applies only to extended area service petitions which meet the conditions under section 3 of this act, and have been filed with the commission by January 1, 1989. Any petitions for extended area service filed after January 1, 1989, shall be addressed under terms and conditions determined by the commission. By December 1, 1990, the commission shall submit to the energy and utilities committees of the house of representatives and the senate a report on extended area service. The report shall include:

(1) The status of any experimental, pilot program which provides extended area service developed under this section, and whether such an experimental, pilot program approach should continue to be made available.

(2) The status of all extended area service petitions pending at the commission;

(3) Commission action on the recommendations of the local extended calling advisory committee; and

(4) Commission recommendations for any other legislation addressing the issue of extended area service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The extended area service program under sections 2 through 5 of this act shall expire on December 1, 1990, except for any extended area service obtained by any business residence or community and put in place under section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 and 3 of this act are each added to chapter 80.36 RCW."

"(6) Any extended area service program adopted pursuant to this section shall be considered experimental and not binding on the commission in subsequent extended area service proceedings. If an extended area service program adopted pursuant to this section results in a revenue deficiency for a local exchange company, the commission shall allocate the resulting revenue requirement in a manner which produces fair, just and reasonable rates for all classes of customers."

The study shall include recommendations as to methods to equitably share the costs of any such program, any recommendations for legislative action, and an analysis of technological changes which may alter the telecommunications network in the next decade. The utilities and transportation commission shall report the results of the study to the energy and utilities committees of the house of representatives and the senate by December 1, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The sum of forty-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, from the public service revolving fund to the utilities and transportation commission for the purposes of section 6 of this act.
