MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 2066.

SECOND READING

Changing school levy provisions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following Committee on Education amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 84.52.0531 and 1992 c 49 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1992, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1991.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the basic education allocation shall be determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350: PROVIDED, That when determining the basic education allocation under subsection (4) of this section, nonresident full time equivalent pupils who are participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW or in any other program pursuant to an interdistrict agreement shall be included in the enrollment of the resident district and excluded from the enrollment of the serving district.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of:

(a) and (b) of this subsection minus (c) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (4) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (5) of this section;

(b) In the case of nonhigh school districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.545 RCW for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW in such computation;

(c) The maximum amount of state matching funds under RCW 28A.500.010 for which the district is eligible in that tax collection year.

(4) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in (a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:
   (i) Pupil transportation;
   (ii) Handicapped education;
   (iii) Education of highly capable students;
   (iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;
   (v) Food services; and
   (vi) State-wide block grant programs; and

(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(5) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's maximum levy percentage shall be determined as follows:

(a) Multiply the district's maximum levy percentage for the prior year by the district's levy base as determined in subsection (4) of this section;

(b) Reduce the amount in (a) of this subsection by the total estimated amount of any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (6) of this section which are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(c) Divide the amount in (b) of this subsection by the district's levy base to compute a new percentage; and

(d) The percentage in (c) of this subsection or twenty percent, whichever is greater, shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for levies collected in that calendar year.

(e) For levies to be collected in calendar years 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997, the maximum levy rate shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for 1993 plus five percent reduced by any levy reduction funds. For levies collected in 1998, the prior year shall mean 1993.

(6) "Levy reduction funds" shall mean increases in state funds from the prior school year for programs included under subsection (4) of this section: (a) That are not attributable to enrollment changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments; and (b) that are or were specifically identified as levy reduction funds in the appropriations act. If levy reduction funds are dependent on formula factors which would not be finalized until after the start of the current school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall estimate the total amount of levy reduction funds by using prior school year data in place of current school year data. Levy reduction funds shall not include moneys received by school districts from cities or counties.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "prior school year" shall mean the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(8) For the purposes of this section, "current school year" shall mean the year immediately following the prior school year.

(9) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.500.010 and 1992 c 49 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Commencing with taxes assessed in (1988) 1993 to be collected in calendar year (1989) 1994 and thereafter, in addition to a school district's other general fund allocations, each eligible district shall be provided local effort assistance funds as provided in this section. Such funds are not part of the district's basic education allocation. (For the first distribution of local effort assistance funds provided under this section in calendar year 1989, state funds may be prorated according to the formula in this section.)

(2)(a) "Prior tax collection year" shall mean the year immediately preceding the year in which the local effort assistance shall be allocated.

(b) The "state-wide average ([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate" shall mean ([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent of the total levy bases as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4) summed for all school districts, and divided by the total assessed valuation for excess levy purposes in the prior tax collection year for all districts as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio established in RCW 84.48.075.

(c) The "([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate" of a district shall mean:

(i) ([1/100th]) Thirteen and three-tenths percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.0531(4), plus one-half of any amount computed under RCW 84.52.0531(6)(b) in the case of nonhigh school districts; divided by

(ii) The district's assessed valuation for excess levy purposes for the prior tax collection year as adjusted to one hundred percent by the county indicated ratio.

(d) "Eligible districts" shall mean those districts with a ([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate which exceeds the state-wide average ([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate.

(3) Allocation of state matching funds to eligible districts for local effort assistance shall be determined as follows:

(a) Funds raised by the district through maintenance and operation levies during that tax collection year shall be matched with state funds using the following formula: (i) The difference between the district's ([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate and the state-wide average ([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate; to (ii) the state-wide average ([1/100th]) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate.
(b) The maximum amount of state matching funds for which a district may be eligible in any tax collection year shall be (fifteen) thirteen and three-tenths percent of the district's levy base as defined in RCW 84.52.053(4), multiplied by the following percentage: (i) The difference between the district's (fifteen) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate and the state-wide average (fifteen) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate; divided by (ii) the district's (fifteen) thirteen and three-tenths percent levy rate.

(4)(a) Through tax collection year 1992, fifty-five percent of local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts during the applicable tax collection year on or before June 30 and forty-five percent shall be distributed on or before December 31 of any year.

(b) In tax collection year 1993 and thereafter, local effort assistance funds shall be distributed to qualifying districts as follows:

(i) (a) Thirty percent in April;
(ii) Twenty-three percent in May;
(iii) Two percent in June;
(iv) Twenty-six percent in August;
(v) Nine percent in October;
(vi) Seventeen percent in November; and
(vii) Two percent in December.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2 of this act shall expire December 31, 1997."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following amendment by Senators Pelz, Anderson, Gaspard, Rinehart and McDonald was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 84.52.0531 and 1992 c 49 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1992, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1991.

(2) For the purpose of this section, the basic education allocation shall be determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250,
28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350: PROVIDED, That when determining the basic education allocation under subsection (4) of this section, nonresident full time equivalent pupils who are participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW or in any other program pursuant to an interdistrict agreement shall be included in the enrollment of the resident district and excluded from the enrollment of the serving district.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of
(a) and (b) of this subsection minus (c) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (4) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (5) of this section;

(b) In the case of nonhigh school districts only, an amount equal to the total estimated amount due by the nonhigh school district to high school districts pursuant to chapter 28A.545 RCW for the school year during which collection of the levy is to commence, less the increase in the nonhigh school district's basic education allocation as computed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section due to the inclusion of pupils participating in a program provided for in chapter 28A.545 RCW in such computation;

(c) The maximum amount of state matching funds under RCW 28A.500.010 for which the district is eligible in that tax collection year.

(4) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in (a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget for the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:
(i) Pupil transportation;
(ii) Handicapped education;
(iii) Education of highly capable students;
(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;
(v) Food services; and
(vi) State-wide block grant programs; and
(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(5) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1993 and thereafter, a district's maximum levy percentage shall be determined as follows:

(a) Multiply the district's maximum levy percentage for the prior year by the district's levy base as determined in subsection (4) of this section;

(b) Reduce the amount in (a) of this subsection by the total estimated amount of any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (6) of this section which are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(c) Divide the amount in (b) of this subsection by the district's levy base to compute a new percentage; and
(d) The percentage in (c) of this subsection or twenty percent, whichever is greater, shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for levies collected in that calendar year.

(e) For levies to be collected in calendar years 1994 and 1995 the maximum levy rate shall be the district's maximum levy percentage for 1993 plus four percent reduced by any levy reduction funds. For levies collected in 1996, the prior year shall mean 1993.

(6) "Levy reduction funds" shall mean increases in state funds from the prior school year for programs included under subsection (4) of this section: (a) That are not attributable to enrollment changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments; and (b) that are or were specifically identified as levy reduction funds in the appropriations act. If levy reduction funds are dependent on formula factors which would not be finalized until after the start of the current school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall estimate the total amount of levy reduction funds by using prior school year data in place of current school year data. Levy reduction funds shall not include moneys received by school districts from cities or counties.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "prior school year" shall mean the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(8) For the purposes of this section, "current school year" shall mean the year immediately following the prior school year.

(9) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Section 2 of this act shall expire December 31, 1995.

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "levies;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 84.52.0531 and 28A.500.010; and providing an expiration date;".

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendments were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

On page 1, after line 14, insert the following:

"(2) Neither this section nor any other provision in this chapter or chapter 41.26, 41.32, 41.40, 41.54, or 43.43 RCW authorize the extension of statutory restore deadlines for members who do not receive notice of their eligibility to restore withdrawn contributions. This subsection applies retroactively to restoration periods which expired prior to the effective date of this act."

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 14, insert the following:

...
(1) Any person who was a member of the state-wide city employees' retirement system governed by chapter 41.44 RCW and who also became a member of the public employees' retirement system on or before July 26, 1987, may, in a writing filed with the director, elect to:

(a) Transfer to the public employees' retirement system all service currently credited under chapter 41.44 RCW;
(b) Reestablish and transfer to the public employees' retirement system all service which was previously credited under chapter 41.44 RCW but which was canceled by discontinuance of service and withdrawal of accumulated contributions as provided in RCW 41.44.190. The service may be reestablished and transferred only upon payment by the member to the employees' savings fund of the public employees' retirement system of the amount withdrawn plus interest thereon from the date of withdrawal until the date of payment at a rate determined by the director.

(c) Establish service credit for the initial period of employment not to exceed six months, prior to establishing membership under chapter 41.44 RCW, upon payment in full by the member of the total employer's contribution to the benefit account fund of the public employees' retirement system that would have been made under this chapter when the initial service was rendered. The payment shall be based on the first month's compensation earnable as a member of the state-wide city employees' retirement system and as defined in RCW 41.44.030(13). However, a person who has established service credit under RCW 41.40.010((444))(13) (c) or (d) shall not establish additional credit under this subsection nor may anyone who establishes credit under this subsection establish any additional credit under RCW 41.40.010((444))(13) (c) or (d). No additional payments are required for service credit described in this subsection if already established under this chapter.

(2)(a) In the case of a member of the public employees' retirement system who is employed by an employer on July 26, 1987, the written election required by subsection (1) of this section must be filed and the payments required by subsection (1)(b) and (c) of this section must be completed (in full within one year after July 26, 1987) by December 31, 1993.

(b) In the case of a former member of the public employees' retirement system who is not employed by an employer on July 26, 1987, the written election must be filed and the payments must be completed in full within one year after reemployment by an employer.

(c) In the case of a retiree receiving a retirement allowance from the public employees' retirement system on July 26, 1987, or any person having vested rights as described in RCW 41.40.150 ((12) or (5)) (4), the written election may be filed and the payments may be completed at any time.

(3) Upon receipt of the written election and payments required by subsection (1) of this section from any retiree described in subsection (2)(c) of this section, the department shall recompute the retiree's allowance in accordance with this section and shall pay any additional benefit resulting from such recomputation retroactively to the date of retirement from the system governed by this chapter.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

On page 1, after line 14, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW, under the subchapter heading "plan I," to read as follows:

Any active member or separated member who was not eligible to restore contributions under section 3, chapter 317, Laws of 1986, solely because he or she was an elected official, other than an elected official under Articles II or III of the Constitution of the state of Washington, shall be permitted to restore withdrawn contributions for periods of nonelected service no later than June 30, 1994, with interest as determined by the director."

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2071, by House Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives L. Johnson, Dellwo, Quall, Campbell and Karahalios)

Regulating access to tobacco.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that while present state law prohibits the sale and distribution of tobacco to minors, youth obtain tobacco products with ease. Availability and lack of enforcement put tobacco products in the hands of youth. Federal law requires states to enforce laws prohibiting sale and distribution of tobacco products to minors in a manner that can reasonably be expected to reduce the extent to which the products are available to minors. It is imperative to effectively reduce the sale, distribution, and availability of tobacco products to minors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions set forth in RCW 82.24.010 shall apply to sections 3 through 14 of this act. In addition, for the purposes of this chapter, unless otherwise required by the context:
(1) "Board" means the Washington state liquor control board.
(2) "Minor" refers to an individual who is less than eighteen years old.
(3) "Public place" means a public street, sidewalk, or park, or any area open to the public in a publicly owned and operated building.
(4) "Sample" means a tobacco product distributed to members of the general public at no cost or at nominal cost for promotion purposes.
(5) "Sampler" means a person engaged in the business of sampling other than a retailer.
(6) "Sampling" means the distribution of samples to members of the general public in a public place.
(7) "Tobacco product" means a product that contains tobacco and is intended for human consumption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A person who holds a license issued under RCW 82.24.520 or 82.24.530 shall:
(1) Display the license or a copy in a prominent location at the outlet for which the license is issued; and
(2) Display a sign concerning the prohibition of tobacco sales to minors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No person shall sell or permit to be sold any tobacco product through any device that mechanically dispenses tobacco products unless the device is located fully within premises from which minors are prohibited in industrial worksites where minors are not employed and not less than ten feet from all entrance or exit ways to and from each premises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. No person shall sell or permit to be sold cigarettes not in the original unopened package or container to which the stamps required by RCW 82.24.060 have been affixed.

This section does not apply to the sale of loose leaf tobacco by a retail business that generates a minimum of sixty percent of annual gross sales from the sale of tobacco products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) No person may engage in the business of sampling within the state unless licensed to do so by the board. If a firm contracts with a manufacturer to distribute samples of the manufacturer's products, that firm is deemed to be the person engaged in the business of sampling.
(2) The board shall issue a license to a sampler not otherwise disqualified by section 11 of this act upon application and payment of the fee.
(3) A sampler's license expires on the thirty-first day of June of each year and must be renewed annually upon payment of the appropriate fee.
(4) The board shall annually determine the fee for a sampler's license and each renewal. However, the fee for a manufacturer whose employees distribute samples within the state is five hundred dollars per annum, and the fee for all other samplers must be not less than fifty dollars per annum.
(5) A sampler's license entitles the licensee, and employees or agents of the licensee, to distribute samples at any lawful location in the state during the term of the license. A person engaged in sampling under the license shall carry the license or a copy at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) No person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in a public place. This prohibition does not apply to sampling (a) in an area to which persons under the age of eighteen are denied admission, (b) in or at a store or concession to which a retailer's license has been issued, or (c) at or adjacent to a production, repair, or outdoor construction site or facility.
(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, no person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in or on a public street, sidewalk, or park that is within five hundred feet of a playground, school, or other facility when that facility is being used primarily by persons under the age of eighteen for recreational, educational, or other purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. No person shall give or distribute cigarettes or other tobacco products to a person by a coupon if such coupon is redeemed in any manner that does not require an in-person transaction in a retail store.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A person under the age of eighteen who purchases or attempts to purchase or obtains or attempts to obtain cigarettes or tobacco products commits a class 3 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW and is subject to a fine as set out in chapter 7.80 RCW or participation in a smoking cessation program, or both. This provision does not apply if a person under the age of eighteen, with parental authorization, is participating in a controlled purchase as part of a liquor control board, law enforcement, or local health department activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Where there may be a question of a person's right to purchase or obtain tobacco products by reason of age, the retailer, sampler, or agent thereof, shall require the purchaser to present any one of the following officially issued identification that shows the purchaser's age and bears his or her signature and photograph:
- Liquor control authority card of identification of a state or province of Canada; driver's license, instruction permit, or identification card of a state or province of Canada; "identicard" issued by the Washington state department of licensing under chapter 46.20 RCW; United States military identification; passport; or merchant marine identification card issued by the United States coast guard.

(2) It is a defense to a prosecution under RCW 26.28.080(4) that the person making a sale reasonably relied on any of the officially issued identification as defined in subsection (1) of this section. The liquor control board shall waive the suspension or revocation of a license if the licensee clearly establishes that he or she acted in good faith to prevent violations and a violation occurred despite the licensee's exercise of due diligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The liquor control board may suspend or revoke a retailer's license held by a business at any location, or may impose a monetary penalty as set forth in subsection (2) of this section, if the liquor control board finds that the licensee has violated RCW 26.29.080(4), or section 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, or 10 of this act.
(2) The sanctions that the liquor control board may impose against a person licensed under RCW 82.24.530 and sections 6 and 7 of this act based upon one or more findings under subsection (1) of this section may not exceed the following:
(a) For violation of RCW 26.29.080(4) or section 3 of this act:
(i) A monetary penalty of one hundred dollars for the first violation within any two-year period;
The liquor control board shall, in addition to the board's other powers and authorities, have the authority to enforce the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500. The liquor control board shall have full power to revoke or suspend the license of any retailer or wholesaler in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of this act.

(2) The liquor control board and the board's authorized agents or employees shall have full power and authority to enter any place of business where tobacco products are sold for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500, a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board who has reasonable grounds to believe a person observed by the officer purchasing, attempting to purchase, or in possession of tobacco products is under the age of eighteen years of age, may detain such person for a reasonable period of time and in such a reasonable manner as is necessary to determine the person's true identity and date of birth. Further, tobacco products possessed by persons under the age of eighteen years of age are considered contraband and may be seized by a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500, a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board may require any person to cease and desist from any conduct that is in violation. The issuance of a cease and desist order shall not preclude the imposition of other sanctions authorized by this statute or any other provision of law.

(4) The liquor control board may seek injunctive relief to enforce the provisions of RCW 26.28.080(4) or 82.24.500 or this chapter. The liquor control board may initiate legal action to collect civil penalties imposed under this chapter if the same have not been paid within thirty days after imposition of such penalties. In any action filed by the liquor control board under this chapter, the court may, in addition to any other relief, award the liquor control board reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(5) All proceedings under subsections (1) through (6) of this section shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The liquor control board shall, in addition to the board's other powers and authorities, have the authority to enforce the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500. The liquor control board shall have full power to revoke or suspend the license of any retail or wholesaler in accordance with the provisions of section 11 of this act.

(2) The liquor control board and the board's authorized agents or employees shall have full power and authority to enter any place of business where tobacco products are sold for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500, a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board who has reasonable grounds to believe a person observed by the officer purchasing, attempting to purchase, or in possession of tobacco products is under the age of eighteen years of age, may detain such person for a reasonable period of time and in such a reasonable manner as is necessary to determine the person's true identity and date of birth. Further, tobacco products possessed by persons under the age of eighteen years of age are considered contraband and may be seized by a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board.

(4) The liquor control board may work with local county health departments or districts and local law enforcement agencies to conduct random, unannounced inspections to assure compliance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The youth tobacco prevention account is created in the state treasury. All fees collected pursuant to RCW 82.24.520 and 82.24.530 and funds collected by the liquor control board from the imposition of monetary penalties and samplers' fees shall be deposited into this account, except that ten percent of all such fees and penalties shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(2) Moneys appropriated from the youth tobacco prevention account to the department of health shall be used by the department of health for implementation of this chapter, including collection and reporting of data regarding enforcement and the extent to which access to tobacco products by youth has been reduced.

(3) The department of health shall enter into interagency agreements with the liquor control board to pay the costs incurred, up to thirty percent of available funds, in carrying out its enforcement responsibilities under this chapter. Such agreements shall set forth standards of enforcement and the extent to which access to tobacco products by youth has been reduced.
(4) The department of health and the department of revenue shall enter into an interagency agreement for the cost of administering the tobacco retailer licensing system and for the provision of quarterly documentation of tobacco wholesaler, retailer, and vending machine names and locations.

(5) The department of health shall, within up to seventy percent of available funds, provide grants to local health departments or other local community agencies to develop and implement coordinated tobacco intervention strategies to prevent and reduce tobacco use by youth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This chapter preempts political subdivisions from adopting or enforcing requirements for the licensure and regulation of tobacco product promotions and sales within retail stores, except that political subdivisions that have adopted ordinances prohibiting sampling by January 1, 1993, may continue to enforce these ordinances. No political subdivision may: (1) Impose fees or license requirements on retail businesses for possessing or selling cigarettes or tobacco products, other than general business taxes or license fees not primarily levied on tobacco products; or (2) regulate or prohibit activities covered by sections 3 through 9 of this act. This chapter does not otherwise preempt political subdivisions from adopting ordinances regulating the sale, purchase, use, or promotion of tobacco products not inconsistent with chapter ... Laws of 1993 (this act).

Sec. 15. RCW 82.24.530 and 1986 c 321 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

A fee of ((ten)) ninety-three dollars shall accompany each retailer's license application or license renewal application. A separate license is required for each separate location at which the retailer operates. A fee of ((ten)) thirty additional dollars for each vending machine shall accompany each application or renewal for a license issued to a retail dealer operating a cigarette vending machine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The department of health shall report to the house of representatives and senate committees with jurisdiction for health issues no later than February 1, 1995, on the effectiveness of enforcement and education activities as specified in this act. This study shall include information concerning the adequacy of revenue to support enforcement and education activities.

Sec. 17. RCW 82.24.550 and 1986 c 321 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of revenue shall enforce the provisions of this chapter except RCW 82.24.500, which will be enforced by the liquor control board. The department of revenue may adopt, amend, and repeal rules necessary to enforce and administer the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue has full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license or permit of any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer in the state upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of this chapter or upon the failure of such licensee to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) A license shall not be suspended or revoked except upon notice to the licensee and after a hearing as prescribed by the department of revenue. The department of revenue, upon a finding by same, that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of the chapter or any rule promulgated thereunder, shall, in the case of the first offender, suspend the license or licenses of the licensee for a period of not less than thirty consecutive business days, and, in the case of a second or plural offender, shall suspend the license or licenses for a period of not less than ninety consecutive business days more than twelve months, and, in the event the department of revenue finds the offender has been guilty of willful and persistent violations, it may revoke the license or licenses.

(3) Any person whose license or licenses have been so revoked may apply to the department of revenue for the expiation of one year for a reinstatement of the license or licenses. The license or licenses may be reinstated by the department of revenue if it appears to the satisfaction of the department of revenue that the licensee will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules promulgated thereunder.

(4) A person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall not sell cigarettes or permit cigarettes to be sold during the period of such suspension or revocation on the premises occupied by the person or upon other premises controlled by the person or others or in any other manner or form whatever.

(5) Any determination and order by the department of revenue, and any order of suspension or revocation by the department of revenue of the license or licenses, or refusal to restate a license or licenses after revocation shall be reviewable by an appeal to the superior court of Thurston county. The superior court shall review the order or ruling of the department of revenue and may hear the matter de novo, having due regard to the provisions of this chapter and the duties imposed upon the department of revenue.

Sec. 18. RCW 82.24.560 and 1986 c 321 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as specified in section 13 of this act, all fees and penalties received or collected by the department of revenue pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer, to be credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 2 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.*

For the purposes of this chapter, unless otherwise required by the context:

(1) "Wholesaler" means every person who purchases, sells, or distributes any one or more of the articles taxed herein to retailers for the purpose of resale only;

(2) "Retailer" means every person, other than a wholesaler, who purchases, sells, offers for sale, or distributes any one or more of the articles taxed herein, irrespective of quantity or amount, or the number of sales, and all persons operating under a retailer's registration certificate;

(3) "Retail selling price" means the ordinary, customary or usual price paid by the consumer for each package of cigarettes, the tax levied by this chapter and tax levied by this state;

(4) "Cigarette" means any roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco, irrespective of size or shape and irrespective of the tobacco being flavored, adulterated, or mixed with any other ingredient, where such roll has a wrapper or cover made of paper or any material, except where such wrapper is wholly or in the greater part made of natural leaf tobacco in its natural state;

(5) "Stamp" means the stamp or stamps or meter impressions by use of which the tax levy under this chapter is paid;

(6) "Board" means the liquor control board;

(7) The meaning attributed, in chapter 82.04 RCW, to the words "person," "sale," "business," and "successor" shall apply equally in the provisions of this chapter;

(8) "Minor" refers to an individual who is less than eighteen years old;

(9) "Public place" means a public street, sidewalk, or park, or any area open to the public in a publicly owned and operated building;

(10) "Sample" means a tobacco product distributed to members of the general public at no cost or at nominal cost for product promotion purposes;

(11) "Sampler" means a person engaged in the business of sampling other than a retailer;

(12) "Sampling" means the distribution of samples to members of the general public in a public place;

Sec. 5. RCW 82.24.027 and 1986 c 3 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby levied and there shall be collected by the ( (( ( (( board from the persons mentioned in and in the manner provided by this chapter, an additional tax upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, possession, or distribution of cigarettes in an amount equal to the rate of four mills per cigarette. The moneys collected under this section shall be deposited in the water quality account under RCW 70.146.030 through June 30, 2021, and in the general fund thereafter.

Sec. 6. RCW 82.24.030 and 1990 c 216 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to enforce collection of the tax hereby levied, the ( (( ( (( board shall design and have printed stamps of such size and denominations as may be determined by the ( (( ( (( board, such stamps to be affixed on the smallest container or package that will be handled, sold, used, consumed, or distributed, to permit the ( (( ( (( board to readily ascertain by inspection, whether or not such tax has been paid. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every person shall cause to be affixed on every package of cigarettes, stamps of an amount equaling the tax due thereon before he or she sells, offers for sale, uses, consumes, handles, removes, or otherwise disturbs and distributes the same: PROVIDED, That where it is established to the satisfaction of the ( (( ( (( board that it is impractical to affix such stamps to the smallest container or package, the ((department)) board may authorize the affixing of stamps of appropriate denomination to a large container or package.

The ((department)) board may authorize the use of meter stamping machines for imprinting stamps, which imprinted stamps shall be in lieu of those otherwise provided for under this chapter, and if such use is authorized, shall provide reasonable rules ((and regulations)) with respect thereto.

Sec. 7. RCW 82.24.040 and 1990 c 216 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

No wholesaler in this state may possess within this state unstamped cigarettes except that:

(1) Every wholesaler in the state who is licensed under Washington state law may possess within this state unstamped cigarettes for such period of time after receipt of any of the articles taxed herein as is reasonably necessary to affix the stamps as required; and

(2) Any wholesaler in the state who is licensed under Washington state law and who furnishes a surety bond in a sum satisfactory to the ((department)) board, shall be permitted to set aside, without affixing the stamps required by this chapter, such part of ((the)) the wholesaler's stock as may be necessary for the conduct of ((the)) the wholesaler's business in making sales to persons in another state or foreign country, or to an Indian tribe.

Sec. 8. RCW 82.24.050 and 1990 c 216 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Every retailer ((in this state may possess unstamped cigarettes within this state unless the retailer is licensed under Washington state law and within a period of time after receipt of any of the articles taxed herein as is reasonably necessary for the purpose, causes the same to have the requisite denomination and amount of stamps affixed to represent the tax imposed herein: PROVIDED, That those articles to which stamps have been properly affixed by a wholesaler or another retailer, licensed under Washington state law, may be retained by any retailer, and that those articles intended for sale to qualified purchasers may, under rules adopted by the department of revenue, be retained by federal instrumentalities and Indian tribal organizations, without affixing the stamps required by this chapter)) shall purchase cigarettes with the stamps affixed.

Sec. 9. RCW 82.24.070 and 1987 c 496 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Wholesalers ((and retailers)) subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be allowed compensation for their services in affixing the stamps herein required a sum computed at the rate of four dollars per one thousand stamps purchased or affixed by them.

Sec. 10. RCW 82.24.090 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 62 are each amended to read as follows:

Every wholesaler or retailer subject to the provisions of this chapter shall keep and preserve for a period of five years an accurate set of records, showing all transactions had with reference to the purchase and sale of any of the articles taxed herein and such persons shall also keep separately all invoices, and shall keep a record of all stamps purchased, and all such records and all stock of taxable articles on hand shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by the ((department of revenue)) board or its duly authorized agent.

Sec. 11. RCW 82.24.110 and 1990 c 216 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of the following acts is a gross misdemeanor and punishable as such:

(1) To sell, except as a licensed wholesaler or licensed retailer engaged in interstate commerce as to the article being taxed herein, without the stamp first being affixed;

(2) To use or have in possession knowingly or intentionally any forged or counterfeit stamps;

(3) For any person other than the ((department of revenue)) board or its duly authorized agent to sell any stamps not affixed to any of the articles taxed herein whether such stamps are genuine or counterfeit;

(4) To violate any of the provisions of this chapter;

(5) To violate any lawful rule ((or regulation)) made and published by the ((department of revenue)) board;

(6) To use any stamps more than once;

(7) To refuse to accept the ((department of revenue)) board or any duly authorized agent thereof, on demand, to make full inspection of any place of business where any of the articles herein taxed are sold or otherwise hinder or prevent such inspection;

(8) For any person, ((except one permitted to maintain an unstamped stock to engage in interstate business as provided herein,)) to have in possession in any place of business any of the articles herein taxed, unless the same have the proper stamps attached;

(i) For any person to make, use, or present or exhibit to the ((department of revenue)) board or any duly authorized agent thereof, any invoice for any of the articles herein taxed which bears an untrue date or falsely states the nature or quantity of the goods therein involved;

(j) For any wholesaler or retailer or ((his or her)) its agents or employees to fail to produce on demand of the ((department of revenue)) board all invoices of all the articles herein taxed or stamps bought ((by him or her)) or received in ((his or her)) its place of business within five years prior to such demand unless ((he or she)) the wholesaler or retailer can show by satisfactory proof that the nondelivery of the invoices was due to causes beyond ((his)) its control;

(k) For any person to receive in this state any shipment of any of the articles taxed herein, when the same are not stamped, are untaxed, or are untaxed and stamped for the purpose of avoiding payment of tax. It is presumed that persons other than dealers who purchase or receive shipments of unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes do so to avoid payment of the tax imposed herein:

1. Any person to possess or transport upon the public highways, roads, or streets of this state a quantity of sixty thousand cigarettes or less (unless the proper stamps required by this chapter have been affixed) that are unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes or unless the person transporting the cigarettes has in actual possession invoices or delivery tickets therefor which show the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes so transported and unless the cigarettes are consigned to or purchased by any person in this state who is a purchaser or consignee authorized by this chapter to possess unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes in this state.

2. It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to possess or to transport upon the public highways, roads, or streets of this state a quantity in excess of sixty thousand cigarettes (unless the proper stamps required by this chapter have been affixed thereto) that are unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes unless the person transporting the cigarettes actually possesses invoices or delivery tickets showing the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes so transported. Violation of this section shall be punished as a class C felony under Title 9A RCW.

3. Any agents, employees, and others who aid, abet, or otherwise participate in any way in the violation of the provisions of this chapter or in any of the offenses described in this chapter shall be guilty and punishable as principals, to the same extent as any wholesaler or retailer or any other person violating the provisions thereof.

Sec. 12. RCW 82.24.120 and 1990 c 267 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

If any person, subject to the provisions of this chapter or any rules (and regulations promulgated adopted by the (department of revenue) board under authority hereof, is found to have failed to affix the stamps required, or to have them affixed as herein provided, or to pay any tax due hereunder, or to have violated any of the provisions of this chapter or rules (and regulations promulgated adopted by the (department of revenue) board in the administration hereof, there shall be assessed and collected from such person, in addition to any tax that may be found due, a penalty equal to the greater of ten dollars per package of unstamped cigarettes or two hundred fifty dollars, plus interest thereon at the rate of one percent for each thirty days or portions thereof from the date the tax became due, and upon notice mailed to the last known address of the person said amount shall become due and payable in ten days, at which time the (department) board or its duly authorized agent may make immediate demand upon such person for the payment of all such taxes and penalties. The ((department) board, for good reason shown, may remit all or any part of penalties imposed, but the taxpayer must pay all taxes due and interest thereon, at the rate of one percent for each thirty days or portion thereof. The keeping of any unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped articles coming within the provisions of this chapter shall be prima facie evidence of intent to violate the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 13. RCW 82.24.130 and 1990 c 216 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The following are subject to seizure and forfeiture:

(a) Subject to RCW 82.24.250, any articles taxed in this chapter that are found at any point within this state, which articles are held, owned, or possessed by any person, and that ((do not have the stamps affixed to the packages or containers) are unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed and stamped.

(b) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, to transport, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation, for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in (a) of this subsection, except:

(i) A conveyance used by any person as a common or contract carrier having in actual possession invoices or delivery tickets showing the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes transported, unless it appears that the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter;

(ii) A conveyance subject to forfeiture under this section by reason of any act or omission of which the owner thereof establishes to have been committed or omitted without his or her knowledge or consent;

(iii) A conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest if the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission.

(c) Any vending machine used for the purpose of violating the provisions of this chapter.

2. Property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any agent of the ((department) board authorized to collect taxes or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court or district court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure without process may be made if:

(a) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant; or

(b) The ((department) board or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter and exigent circumstances exist making procurement of a search warrant impracticable.

3. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, articles taxed in this chapter which are in the possession of a wholesaler ((or retailer) licensed under Washington state law, for a period of time necessary to affix the stamps after receipt of the articles, shall not be considered contraband.

Sec. 14. RCW 82.24.135 and 1987 c 496 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

1. In all cases of seizure of any property made subject to forfeiture under this chapter the ((department) board shall proceed as follows:

(1) Forfeiture shall be deemed to have commenced by the seizure. Notice of seizure shall be given to the ((department) board immediately if the seizure is made by someone other than an agent of the ((department) board authorized to collect taxes.

(2) Upon notification or seizure by the ((department) board or upon receipt of property subject to forfeiture under this chapter from any other person, the ((department) board shall list and particularly describe the property seized in duplicate and have the property appraised by a qualified person not employed by the ((department) board or acting as its agent. Listing and appraisement of the property shall be done by a property appraiser, who shall be allowed a reasonable appraisal fee. No appraisal is required if the property seized is judged by the ((department) board to be less than one hundred dollars in value.
(3) The department board shall cause notice to be served within five days following the seizure or notification to the (department) board of the seizure on the owner of the property seized, if known, on the person in charge thereof, and on any other person having any right known or unknown to any interest therein, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. The notice may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by mail. If service is by mail it shall be by both certified mail with return receipt requested and regular mail. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the five-day period following the seizure or notification of the seizure to the (department) board.

(4) If no person notifies the (department) board in writing of the person’s claim of ownership or right to possession of the items seized within fifteen days of the date of the notice of seizure, the item seized shall be considered forfeited.

(5) If any person notifies the (department) board in writing, of the person’s claim of ownership or right to possession of the items seized within fifteen days of the date of the notice of seizure, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The hearing shall be before the (department) board or the (department) board’s designee, except that any person asserting a claim or right may bring an action for return of the seized items in the superior court of the county in which such property was seized, if the aggregate value of the article or articles involved is more than five hundred dollars. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

The burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence shall be upon the person claiming to be the lawful owner or the person claiming to have the lawful right to possession of the items seized. The (department) board shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of the items seized.

Sec. 15. RCW 82.24.145 and 1987 c 496 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:
When property is forfeited under this chapter the (department) board may:
(1) Retain the property or any part thereof for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state, another state, or the District of Columbia, or of the United States for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter or the laws of any other state or the District of Columbia or of the United States.

The proceeds of the sale and all moneys forfeited under this chapter shall be first applied to the payment of all proper expenses of any investigation leading to the seizure and of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, and court costs. The balance of the proceeds and all moneys shall be deposited in the general fund of the state. Proper expenses of investigation includes costs incurred by any law enforcement agency or any federal, state, or local agency.

Sec. 16. RCW 82.24.180 and 1990 c 267 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:
The (department of revenue) board may return any property seized under the provisions of this chapter when it is shown that there was no intention to violate the provisions thereof.

When any property is returned under this section, the (department) board may return such goods to the parties from whom they were seized if and when such parties affix the proper amount of stamps thereto, and pay to the (department) board as penalty an amount equal to the greater of ten dollars per package of unstamped cigarettes or two hundred fifty dollars, and interest thereon at the rate of one percent for each thirty days or portion thereof from the date the tax became due, and in such cases, no advertisement shall be made or notices posted in connection with said seizure.

Sec. 17. RCW 82.24.190 and 1987 c 202 s 244 are each amended to read as follows:
When the (department of revenue) board has good reason to believe that any of the articles taxed herein are being kept, sold, offered for sale, or given away in violation of the provisions of this chapter or (regulations) rules issued under authority hereof, it may make affidavit of such fact, describing the place or thing to be searched, before any judge of any court in this state, and such judge shall issue a search warrant directed to the sheriff, any deputy, police officer, or duly authorized agent of the (department of revenue) board commanding him or her diligently to search any building, room in a building, place, or vehicle as may be designated in the affidavit and search warrant, and to seize such tobacco products as may be found in the place or vehicle and to hold the same until disposed of by law, or to arrest the person in possession or control thereof. If upon the return of such warrant it shall appear that any of the articles taxed herein, unlawfully possessed, were seized, the same shall be sold as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 18. RCW 82.24.210 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 68 are each amended to read as follows:
The (department of revenue) board may (promulgate) adopt rules (and regulations) providing for the refund to dealers for the cost of stamps affixed to articles taxed herein, which by reason of damage become unfit for sale and are destroyed by the dealer or returned to the manufacturer or jobber. In the case of any articles to which stamps have been affixed, and which articles have been sold and shipped to a regular dealer in such articles in another state, the seller in this state shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of the stamps so affixed, less the affixing discount, upon condition that the seller in this state makes affidavit that the articles were sold and shipped outside of the state and that (the) the seller has received from the purchaser outside the state a written acknowledgment that (the) the purchaser has received such articles with the amount of stamps affixed thereto, together with the name and address of such purchaser. The (department of revenue) board may redeem any unused stamps purchased from it at the face value thereof less the affixing discount.

Sec. 19. RCW 82.24.230 and 1961 c 15 s 82.24.230 are each amended to read as follows:
All of the provisions contained in chapter 82.32 RCW except RCW 82.32.050, 82.32.060, 82.32.070, 82.32.100, and 82.32.270 shall have full force and application with respect to the taxes imposed under the provisions of this chapter (except the following sections thereof: RCW 82.32.050, 82.32.060, 82.32.070, 82.32.100, and 82.32.270): except that "department of revenue" or "department" means the liquor control board.

Sec. 20. RCW 82.24.250 and 1990 c 216 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:
No person other than (1) a licensed wholesaler in its own vehicle, or (2) a person who has given notice to the (department) board in advance of the commencement of transportation shall transport or cause to be transported unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes (not having the stamps affixed to the packages or containers), upon the public highways, roads, or streets of this state. In the case of transportation of unstamped cigarettes such person shall have in their actual possession invoices or delivery tickets for such cigarettes, which shall show the true name and address of the consignor or seller, the true name of the consignee or purchaser, and the quantity and brands of the cigarettes so transported. If the cigarettes are consigned to or purchased by any person in this state such purchaser or consignee must be a person who is authorized by chapter 82.24 RCW to possess unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes in this state. In the absence of such invoices or delivery tickets, or if the name or address of the consignee or purchaser is falsified or if the purchaser or consignee is not authorized to possess unstamped, untaxed or untaxed stamped cigarettes, the cigarettes so transported shall be deemed contraband subject to seizure and sale under the provisions of ROW 82.24.130.

Transportation of cigarettes from a point outside this state to a point in some other state will not be considered a violation of this section provided that the person so transporting such cigarettes has in his or her possession adequate invoices or delivery tickets which give the true name and address of such out-of-state seller or consignor and such out-of-state purchaser or consignee.

In any case where the department board or its duly authorized agent, or any peace officer of the state, has knowledge or reasonable grounds to believe that any vehicle is transporting cigarettes in violation of this section, the department board, such agent, or such peace officer, is authorized to stop such vehicle and to inspect the same for contraband cigarettes.

For purposes of this section, the term "person authorized by chapter 82.24 RCW to possess unstamped, untaxed, or untaxed stamped cigarettes" shall mean a wholesaler (or retailer) licensed under Washington state law, the United States or an agency thereof, and any Indian tribal organization authorized under rules adopted by the department board to possess (unstamped cigarettes) these articles.

Sec. 21. RCW 82.24.510 and 1986 c 321 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The licenses issuable under this chapter are as follows:
(a) A wholesaler's license.
(b) A retailer's license.
(c) A vending machine license.

(2) Application for the licenses shall be made through the master license system under chapter 19.02 RCW. The department board shall adopt rules regarding the regulation of the licenses. The department board may refrain from the issuance of any license under this chapter if the department board has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has willfully withheld information requested for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the applicant to receive a license. The department board has reasonable cause to believe that the information submitted in the application is false or misleading or is not made in good faith. Each such license shall expire on the master license expiration date, and each such license shall be continued annually if the licensee has paid the required fee and complied with all the provisions of this chapter and the rules of the department board made pursuant thereto.

Sec. 22. RCW 82.24.520 and 1986 c 321 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

A fee of six hundred fifty dollars shall accompany each wholesaler's license application or license renewal application. If a wholesaler sells or intends to sell cigarettes at two or more places of business, whether established or temporary, a separate license with a license fee of one hundred fifty dollars shall be required for each additional place of business. Each license, or certificate thereof, and other evidence of license as the department board requires, shall be exhibited in the place of business for which it is issued and in such manner as is prescribed for the display of a master license. The department board shall require each licensed wholesaler to file with the department board a bond in an amount not less than $5,000. Each such bond shall be executed by the wholesaler or the wholesaler's agent, and any Indian tribal organization authorized under rules adopted by the department board to engage in business as a surety company in this state, as surety. The bond shall run concurrently with the wholesaler's license.

Sec. 23. RCW 82.24.530 and 1986 c 321 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

A fee of (less) ninety-three dollars shall accompany each retailer's license application or license renewal application. A separate license is required for each separate location at which the retailer operates. A fee of (less) thirty dollars for each vending machine shall accompany each application or renewal for a license issued to a retail dealer operating a cigarette vending machine.

Sec. 24. RCW 82.24.550 and 1986 c 321 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department board shall enforce the provisions of this chapter. The department board has full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license or permit of any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer in the state upon sufficient cause of the violation of this chapter or upon the failure of such licensee to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) A license shall not be suspended or revoked except upon notice to the licensee and after a hearing as prescribed by the department board. The department board, upon a finding by the board that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or any rule of the board adopted under this chapter, shall, in the case of the first offender, suspend the license or licenses of the licensee for a period of not less than thirty consecutive business days, and, in the case of a second or plural offender, shall suspend the license or licenses for a period of not less than ninety consecutive business days nor more than twelve months, and, in the event the department board finds the offender has been guilty of willful and persistent violations, it may revoke the license or licenses.

(3) Any person whose license or licenses have been so revoked may apply to the department board at the expiration of one year for a reinstatement of the license or licenses. The license or licenses may be reinstated by the department board if it appears to the satisfaction of the department board that the licensee will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter.

(4) A person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall not sell cigarettes or permit cigarettes to be sold during the period of such suspension or revocation on the premises occupied by the person or upon other premises controlled by the person or others or in any other manner or form whatever.

(5) Any determination and order by the department board, and any order of suspension or revocation by the department board of the license or licenses, or refusal to reinstate a license or licenses after revocation shall be reviewable by an appeal to the superior court of Thurston county. The superior court shall review the order or ruling of the department board and may hear the matter de novo, having due regard to the provisions of this chapter and the duties imposed upon the department board.

Sec. 25. RCW 82.24.560 and 1986 c 321 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:
Except under section 55 of this act, all fees and penalties received or collected by the ((department of revenue)) board pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer, to be credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 82.24 RCW to read as follows:

The board may adopt rules to implement this chapter.

Sec. 27. RCW 82.26.010 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 70 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Tobacco products" means cigars, cheroots, stogies, periques, granulated, plug cut, crimp cut, ready rubbed, and other smoking tobacco, snuff, snuff flour, cavendish, plug and twist tobacco, fine-cut and other chewing tobaccos, shorts, refuse scraps, clippings, cuttings, and sweepings of tobacco, and other kinds and forms of tobacco, prepared in such manner as to be suitable for chewing or smoking in a pipe or otherwise, or both for chewing and smoking, but shall not include cigarettes as defined in RCW 82.24.010(44).

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person who manufactures and sells tobacco products;

(3) "Distributor" means (a) any person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products in this state who brings, or causes to be brought, into this state from without the state any tobacco products for sale, (b) any person who makes, manufactures, or fabricates tobacco products in this state in this state for sale in this state, (c) any person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products without this state who ships or transports tobacco products to retailers in this state, to be sold by those retailers;

(4) "Subjobber" means any person, other than a manufacturer or distributor, who buys tobacco products from a distributor and sells them to persons other than the ultimate consumers;

(5) "Retailer" means any person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products to ultimate consumers;

(6) "Sale" means any transfer, exchange, or barter, in any manner or by any means whatsoever, for a consideration, and includes and means all sales made by any person. It includes a gift by a person engaged in the business of selling tobacco products, for advertising, as a means of evading the provisions of this chapter, or for any other purposes whatsoever.

(7) "Wholesale sales price" means the established price for which a manufacturer sells a tobacco product to a distributor, exclusive of any discount or other reduction;

(8) "Business" means any trade, occupation, activity, or enterprise engaged in for the purpose of selling or distributing tobacco products in this state;

(9) "Place of business" means any place where tobacco products are sold or where tobacco products are manufactured, stored, or kept for the purpose of sale or consumption, including any vessel, vehicle, airplane, train, or vending machine;

(10) "Retail outlet" means each place of business from which tobacco products are sold to consumers;

(11) (("Department" means the state department of revenue)) "Board" means the liquor control board.

Sec. 28. RCW 82.26.050 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 72 are each amended to read as follows:

((From and after July 1, 1959)) No person shall engage in the business of a distributor or subjobber of tobacco products at any place of business without first having received from the ((department of revenue)) board a certificate of registration ((as provided in RCW 82.22.030)).

Sec. 29. RCW 82.26.060 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 73 are each amended to read as follows:

Every distributor shall keep at each registered place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices, of tobacco products held, purchased, manufactured, brought in or caused to be brought in from without the state, or shipped or transported to retailers in this state, and of all sales of tobacco products made, except sales to the ultimate consumer.

These records shall show the names and addresses of purchasers ("the inventory of all tobacco products on hand on July 1, 1959.") and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of tobacco products.

When a registered distributor sells tobacco products exclusively to the ultimate consumer at the address given in the certificate, no invoice of those sales shall be required, but itemized invoices shall be made of all tobacco products transferred to other retail outlets owned or controlled by that registered distributor. All books, records, and other papers and documents required by this section to be kept shall be preserved for a period of at least five years after the date of the document, as aforesaid, or the date of the entries thereof appearing in the records, unless the ((department of revenue)) board, in writing, authorizes their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours the ((department)) board, or its duly authorized agents or employees, may enter any place of business of a distributor, without a search warrant, and inspect the premises, the records required to be kept under this chapter, and the tobacco products contained therein, to determine whether or not all the provisions of this chapter are being fully complied with. If the ((department)) board, or any of its agents or employees, are denied free access or are hindered or interfered with in making such examination, the registration certificate of the distributor at such premises shall be subject to revocation by the ((department)) board.

Sec. 30. RCW 82.26.080 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 74 are each amended to read as follows:

Every retailer and subjobber shall procure itemized invoices of all tobacco products purchased. The invoices shall show the name and address of the seller and the place of purchase. The retailer and subjobber shall preserve a legible copy of each such invoice for five years from the date of the purchase. Invoices shall be available for inspection by the ((department of revenue)) board or its authorized agents or employees at the retailer's or subjobber's place of business.

Sec. 31. RCW 82.26.090 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 75 are each amended to read as follows:

Records of all deliveries or shipments of tobacco products from any public warehouse of first destination in this state shall be kept by the warehouse and be available to the ((department of revenue)) board for inspection. They shall show the name and address of the consignee, the date, the quantity of tobacco products delivered, and such other information as the ((department)) board may require. These records shall be preserved for five years from the date of delivery of the tobacco products.

Sec. 32. RCW 82.26.110 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 s 76 are each amended to read as follows:

Where tobacco products upon which the tax imposed by this chapter has been reported and paid, are shipped or transported by the distributor to retailers within the state, to be sold by those retailers, or are returned to the manufacturer by the distributor or destroyed by the distributor, credit of such tax may be made to the distributor in accordance with ((regulations)) rules prescribed by the ((department of revenue)) board.

Sec. 33. RCW 82.26.120 and 1963 ex.s. c 28 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

All of the provisions contained in chapter 82.32 RCW shall have full force and application with respect to taxes imposed under the provisions of this chapter; except that "department of revenue" or "department" means the liquor control board.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. A new section is added to chapter 82.26 RCW to read as follows: The board may adopt rules to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. A new section is added to chapter 82.32 RCW to read as follows: The liquor control board may contract with the department for the collection of taxes, penalties, and interest, and the making of refunds, related to the administration and enforcement of chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. All powers, duties, and functions of the department of revenue pertaining to chapters 82.24 and 82.26 RCW are transferred to the liquor control board. All references to the director or department of revenue in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the liquor control board when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the department of revenue pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the liquor control board. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the department of revenue in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the liquor control board. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the liquor control board.

Any appropriations made to the department of revenue for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the liquor control board.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. All employees of the department of revenue engaged in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred are transferred to the jurisdiction of the liquor control board. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the liquor control board to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. All rules and all pending business before the department of revenue pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be continued and acted upon by the liquor control board. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the liquor control board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the department of revenue shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this section. The director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriations accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. Nothing contained in sections 37 through 42 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. The legislature finds that while present state law prohibits the sale and distribution of tobacco to minors, youth obtain tobacco products with ease. Availability and lack of enforcement put tobacco products in the hands of youth. Federal law requires states to enforce laws prohibiting sale and distribution of tobacco products to minors in a manner that can reasonably be expected to reduce the extent to which the products are available to minors. It is imperative to effectively reduce the sale, distribution, and availability of tobacco products to minors.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. A person who holds a license issued under RCW 82.24.520 or 82.24.530 shall:
(1) Display the license or a copy in a prominent location at the outlet for which the license is issued; and
(2) Display a sign concerning the prohibition of tobacco sales to minors. Such sign shall:
(a) Be posted so that it is clearly visible to anyone purchasing tobacco products from the licensee;
(b) Be designed and produced by the department of health to read: "THE SALE OF TOBACCO PRODUCTS TO PERSONS UNDER AGE 18 IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED BY STATE LAW. IF YOU ARE UNDER 18, YOU COULD BE PENALIZED FOR PURCHASING A TOBACCO PRODUCT; PHOTO ID REQUIRED"; and
(c) Be provided free of charge by the liquor control board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. No person shall sell or permit to be sold any tobacco product through any device that mechanically dispenses tobacco products unless the device is located fully within premises from which minors are prohibited or in industrial worksites where minors are not employed and not less than ten feet from all entrance or exit ways to and from each premise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. No person shall sell or permit to be sold cigarettes not in the original unopened package or container to which the stamps required by RCW 82.24.060 have been affixed.

This section does not apply to the sale of loose leaf tobacco by a retail business that generates a minimum of sixty percent of annual gross sales from the sale of tobacco products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. No person may engage in the business of sampling within the state unless licensed to do so by the board. If a firm contracts with a manufacturer to distribute samples of the manufacturer's products, that firm is deemed to be the person engaged in the business of sampling.

(2) The board shall issue a license to a sampler not otherwise disqualified by section 52 of this act upon application and payment of the fee.

(3) A sampler's license expires on the thirtieth day of June of each year and must be renewed annually upon payment of the appropriate fee.

(4) The board shall annually determine the fee for a sampler's license and each renewal. However, the fee for a manufacturer whose employees distribute samples within the state is five hundred dollars per annum, and the fee for all other samplers must not be less than fifty dollars per annum.
(5) A sampler's license entitles the licensee, and employees or agents of the licensee, to distribute samples at any lawful location in the state during the term of the license. A person engaged in sampling under the license shall carry the license or a copy at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. (1) No person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in a public place. This prohibition does not apply to sampling (a) in an area to which persons under the age of eighteen are denied admission, (b) in or at a store or concession to which a retailer's license has been issued, or (c) at or adjacent to a production, repair, or outdoor construction site or facility.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, no person may distribute or offer to distribute samples in or on a public street, sidewalk, or park that is within five hundred feet of a playground, school, or other facility when that facility is being used primarily by persons under the age of eighteen for recreational, educational, or other purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. No person shall give or distribute cigarettes or other tobacco products to a person by a coupon if such coupon is redeemed in any manner that does not require an in-person transaction in a retail store.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. A person under the age of eighteen who purchases or attempts to purchase or obtains attempts to obtain cigarettes or tobacco products commits a class 3 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW and is subject to a fine as set out in chapter 7.80 RCW or participation in a smoking cessation program, or both. This provision does not apply if a person under the age of eighteen, with parental authorization, is participating in a controlled purchase as part of a liquor control board, law enforcement, or local health department activity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. (1) Where there may be a question of a person's right to purchase or obtain tobacco products by reason of age, the retailer, sampler, or agent thereof, shall require the purchaser or recipient to present any one of the following officially issued identification that shows the purchaser's age and bears his or her signature and photograph: Liquor control authority card of identification of a state or province of Canada; driver's license, instruction permit, or identification card of a state or province of Canada; "identicard" issued by the Washington state department of licensing under chapter 46.20 RCW; United States military identification; passport; or merchant marine identification card issued by the United States coast guard.

(2) It is a defense to a prosecution under RCW 26.28.080(4) that the person making a sale reasonably relied on any of the officially issued identification as defined in subsection (1) of this section. The liquor control board shall waive the suspension or revocation of a license if the licensee clearly establishes that he or she acted in good faith to prevent violations and a violation occurred despite the licensee's exercise of due diligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. (1) The liquor control board may suspend or revoke a retailer's license held by a business at any location, or may impose a monetary penalty as set forth in subsection (2) of this section, if the liquor control board finds that the licensee has violated RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, or 51 of this act.

(2) The sanctions that the liquor control board may impose against a person licensed under RCW 82.24.530 and sections 47 and 48 of this act based upon one or more findings under subsection (1) of this section may not exceed the following:

(a) For violation of RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44 or 51 of this act:
   (i) A monetary penalty of one hundred dollars for the first violation within any two-year period;
   (ii) A monetary penalty of three hundred dollars for the second violation within any two-year period;
   (iii) A monetary penalty of one thousand dollars and suspension of the license for a period of six months for the third violation within any two-year period;
   (iv) A monetary penalty of one thousand five hundred dollars and suspension of the license for a period of twelve months for the fourth violation within any two-year period;
   (v) Revocation of the license with no possibility of reinstatement for a period of five years for the fifth or more violation within any two-year period;
   (b) For violations of section 45 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of one hundred dollars for each day upon which such violation occurred;
   (c) For violations of section 46 of this act occurring on the licensed premises:
      (i) A monetary penalty of one hundred dollars for the first violation within any two-year period;
      (ii) A monetary penalty of three hundred dollars for the second violation within any two-year period;
      (iii) A monetary penalty of one thousand dollars and suspension of the license for a period of six months for the third violation within any two-year period;
   (d) For violations of sections 47 and 48 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of three hundred dollars for each violation;
   (e) For violations of section 49 of this act, a monetary penalty in the amount of one thousand dollars for each violation.

(3) The liquor control board may impose a monetary penalty upon any person other than a licensed cigarette retailer or licensed sampler if the liquor control board finds that the person has violated RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, or 51 of this act.

(4) The monetary penalty that the liquor control board may impose based upon one or more findings under subsection (3) of this section may not exceed the following:

(a) For violation of RCW 26.28.080(4), or section 44 or 51 of this act, fifty dollars for the first violation and one hundred dollars for each subsequent violation;
   (b) For violations of section 45 of this act, one hundred dollars for each day upon which such violation occurred;
   (c) For violations of section 46 of this act, one hundred dollars for each violation;
   (d) For violations of sections 47 and 48 of this act, three hundred dollars for each violation;
   (e) For violations of section 49 of this act, one thousand dollars for each violation.

(5) The liquor control board may adopt and offer a class for retail clerks and use this class in lieu of a monetary penalty for the clerk's first violation.

(6) The liquor control board may issue a cease and desist order to any person who is found by the liquor control board to have violated or intending to violate the provisions of this chapter, RCW 26.28.080(4) or chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW, requiring such person to cease specified conduct that is in violation. The issuance of a cease and desist order shall not preclude the imposition of other sanctions authorized by this statute or any other provision of law.

(7) The liquor control board may seek injunctive relief to enforce the provisions of RCW 26.28.080(4) or chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW or this chapter. The liquor control board may initiate legal action to collect civil penalties imposed under this chapter if the same have not been paid within thirty days after imposition of such penalties. In any action filed by the liquor control board under this chapter, the court may, in addition to any other relief, award the liquor control board reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs.

(8) All proceedings under subsections (1) through (6) of this section shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 53. (1) The liquor control board shall, in addition to the board's other powers and authorities, have the authority to enforce the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW. The liquor control board shall have full power to revoke or suspend the license of any retailer or wholesaler in accordance with the provisions of section 52 of this act.

(2) The liquor control board and the board’s authorized agents or employees shall have full power and authority to enter any place of business where tobacco products are sold for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of chapter 82.24 or 82.26 RCW or this chapter.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and RCW 26.28.080(4) and 82.24.500, a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board who has reasonable grounds to believe a person observed by the officer purchasing, attempting to purchase, or in possession of tobacco products is under the age of eighteen years of age, may detain such person for a reasonable period of time and in such a reasonable manner as is necessary to determine the person’s true identity and date of birth. Further, tobacco products possessed by persons under the age of eighteen years of age are considered contraband and may be seized by a peace officer or enforcement officer of the liquor control board.

(4) The liquor control board may work with local county health departments or districts and local law enforcement agencies to conduct random, unannounced, inspections to assure compliance.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 54. This chapter preempts political subdivisions from adopting or enforcing requirements for the licensure and regulation of tobacco product promotions and sales within retail stores, except that political subdivisions that have adopted ordinances prohibiting sampling by January 1, 1993, may continue to enforce these ordinances. No political subdivision may: (1) Impose fees or license requirements on retail businesses for possessing or selling cigarettes or tobacco products, other than general business taxes or license fees not primarily levied on tobacco products; or (2) regulate or prohibit activities covered by sections 44 through 50 of this act. This chapter does not otherwise preempt political subdivisions from enacting ordinances regulating the sale, purchase, use, or promotion of tobacco products not inconsistent with chapter .... Laws of 1993 (this act).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 55. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

The department of health shall report to the house of representatives and senate committees with jurisdiction for health issues no later than February 1, 1995, on the effectiveness of enforcement and education activities as specified in chapter .... Laws of 1993 (this act). This study shall include information concerning the adequacy of revenue to support enforcement and education activities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 56. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

The department of health shall report to the house of representatives and senate committees with jurisdiction for health issues no later than February 1, 1995, on the effectiveness of enforcement and education activities as specified in chapter .... Laws of 1993 (this act). This study shall include information concerning the adequacy of revenue to support enforcement and education activities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 58. RCW 82.24.260 and 1987 c 80 s 3 & 1986 c 3 s 13 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 59. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: “A point of order, Mr. President. I believe that the amendment by Senator McDonald expands the scope and object of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071. I think Senator McDonald was very candid in describing this amendment. Basically, it is a change in the collection of cigarette and other tobacco taxation, transferring that responsibility from the Department of Revenue to the Liquor Control Board. The basic objective of the bill that is before us, however, is a bill relating to minor access to tobacco products. It deals with the enforcement of laws relating to minors access to tobacco and, therefore, the amendment by Senator McDonald which deals with the question of who collects the cigarette and other tobacco taxes expands the scope and object of a bill that is designed to deal solely with the access of minors to tobacco products.”

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 was deferred.
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1435, by House Committee on Capital Budget (originally sponsored by Representatives Wang and Ogden) (by request of Office of Financial Management)

Adopting the supplemental capital budget.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1435 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1435.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1435 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; Nays, 6; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Newhouse, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 39.

Excused: Senators Cantu, McCaslin, Niemi and Owen - 4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1435, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1524, by House Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Silver and Valle) (by request of Office of Financial Management)

Making supplemental appropriations.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Rinehart moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I
GENERAL GOVERNMENT

Sec. 101. 1992 c 232 s 112 is amended to read as follows:
FOR THE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT
General Fund Appropriation $ (955,000) 1,000,000

Sec. 102. 1992 c 232 s 113 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:
FOR THE ADMINISTRATOR FOR THE COURTS
General Fund Appropriation $ (27,687,000) 27,921,000

Public Safety and Education
Account Appropriation $ 26,352,000
Judicial Information System
Account Appropriation $ 200,000
Drug Enforcement and Education Account
Appropriation $ 850,000

TOTAL APPROPRIATION $ (55,089,000) 55,323,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $(21,084,000) 21,084,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the superior court judges program. Of this amount, a maximum of $150,000 may be used to reimburse county superior courts for superior court judges temporarily assigned to other counties that are experiencing large and sudden surges in criminal filings. Reimbursement shall be limited to per diem and travel expenses of assigned judges.

(2) $1,744,000 of the public safety and education account appropriation is provided solely to install the district court information system (DISCIS) at forty-two district court sites. When providing equipment upgrades to an existing site, an equal amount of local matching funds shall be provided by the local jurisdictions.

(3) $217,000 of the public safety and education account appropriation is provided solely to contract with the state board for community college education to pay for court interpreter training classes in at least six community colleges for a total of at least 200 financially needy students, who shall be charged reduced tuition based on level of need. Other students may be served by charging the full tuition needed to recover costs.

(4) $688,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 127, Laws of 1991 (Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5127, foster care citizen review).

(6) In implementing the cost reduction measures required by this act, the administrator for the courts may enter into agreements with other judicial agencies to make efficient and effective use of available financial resources within the judicial branch.

(7) $345,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for implementation of Substitute House Bill No. 2459. The amount provided in this subsection is contingent on enactment of Substitute House Bill No. 2459 (superior court judges) and House Bill No. 2887 or 2997 (appellate court filing fees). If neither House Bill No. 2887 or 2997 is enacted by June 30, 1992, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

(8) $10,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the jury source list task force to continue to develop methodology and standards for merging the list of registered voters with the list of licensed drivers and identicard holders to form an expanded jury source list for use in the state. The task force shall include the department of information services. By November 2, 1992, the task force shall report its recommendations to the supreme court and the appropriate committees of the legislature. However, if Substitute House Bill No. 2945 is enacted by June 30, 1992, the amount provided in this subsection is provided solely to implement the bill.

Sec. 103. 1992 c 232 s 117 is amended to read as follows:

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $22,000 of the motor transport account appropriation and $111,000 of the air pollution control account appropriation are provided solely to implement the department's responsibilities under chapter 199, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1028, air quality).

(2) $2,176,000 of the motor transport account appropriation is provided solely for replacement of motor vehicles through the state treasurer's financing contract program under chapter 39.94 RCW. The department may acquire new motor vehicles only to replace and not to increase the number of motor vehicles within the department's fleet.

(3) $3,965,000 of the central stores revolving fund appropriation is provided solely for the purchasing and contract administration activities of the office of state procurement, division of purchasing, as provided in RCW 43.19.1923. Of this amount $155,000 is provided solely to implement chapter 297, Laws of 1991 (Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5143, purchasing recycled goods).

(4) $117,000 of the general administration facilities and services revolving fund appropriation is provided solely to assist state agencies in processing asbestos claims.

(5) The department shall develop a consolidated mail service to handle all incoming mail in the 98504 zip code area, as well as all outgoing mail of executive branch agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area, as determined by the director of general administration. Upon request, the department shall also provide outgoing mail services to legislative and judicial agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area. For purposes of administering the consolidated mail service, the director shall:

(a) Determine the nature and extent of agency participation in the service, including the phasing of participation;

(b) Subject to the approval of the director of financial management and in compliance with applicable personnel laws, transfer employees and equipment from other agencies to the department when the director determines that such transfers will further the efficiency of the consolidated mail service. The director of financial management shall ensure that there are no net increases in state-wide staffing levels as a result of providing services currently being performed by state agencies through the consolidated mail service;

(c) Periodically assess charges on participating agencies to recover the cost of providing consolidated mail services;

(d) Accurately account for all costs incurred in implementation of the consolidated mail operation, and document any cost savings or avoidances; and

(e) By September 1, 1992, report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on the implementation of the service, including documentation of cost savings or avoidances achieved from the consolidation of mail services during fiscal year 1992.

Sec. 112. 1992 c 232 s 152 is amended to read as follows:

General Fund--Federal Appropriation $ 7,582,000

General Fund--Private/Local Appropriation $ 180,000

TOTAL Appropriation $ ((16,668,000)) 16,722,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations: $10,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided to the public affairs office for headquarters STARC, Camp Murray, Washington air national guard solely for the purpose of a publication to assist in the recruitment and retention of the Washington national guard.

PART II
HUMAN SERVICES

Sec. 201. 1991 sp.s. c 16 s 201 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES

(1) [(Appropriations made in this act to the department of social and health services shall initially be allotted as required by this act. Subsequent allotment modifications shall not include transfers of moneys between sections of this act except as expressly provided in this act, nor shall allotment modifications permit moneys that are provided solely for a specified purpose to be used for other than that purpose].) The appropriations in sections 201 through 218 of chapter 16, Laws of 1991 1st sp. sess., as amended, shall be expended for the programs and in the amounts listed in those sections. However, after May 1, 1993, unless specifically prohibited by this act, the department may transfer moneys among programs and among amounts provided under conditions and limitations after approval by the director of financial management. The director of financial management shall notify the appropriate fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives in writing prior to approving any deviation from the appropriation levels and any deviation from conditions and limitations.

(2) The department of social and health services shall not initiate any services that will require expenditure of state general fund moneys unless expressly authorized in this act or other law, or unless the services were provided on March 1, 1991. The department may seek, receive, and spend, under RCW 43.79.260 through 43.79.282, federal moneys not anticipated in this act as long as the federal funding does not require expenditure of state moneys for the program in excess of amounts anticipated in this act. If the department receives unanticipated unrestricted federal moneys, those moneys shall be spent for services authorized in this act, and an equal amount of appropriated state general fund moneys shall lapse. As used in this subsection, "unrestricted federal moneys" includes block grants and other funds that federal law does not require to be spent on specifically defined projects or matched on a formula basis by state funds.
(3) Appropriations in this act derived from the $31,600,000 federal child care block grant and the Title IV-A grant are subject to the following conditions and limitations:
(a) $13,290,000 is provided solely for vendor rate increases for child care facilities. Increases by cluster shall result in rates set at a uniform percentile of child care provider rates across clusters. Rates set by other methods shall result in the same percentage increase as the state-wide average increase for rates set by cluster. The department shall transfer rate increase funds among child care programs as necessary to maintain a uniform rate policy.
(b) $1,000,000 is provided solely to contract with eligible providers for specialized child care and respite care for children of homeless parents. Providers shall demonstrate that licensed child-care facilities are available to provide specialized child care for children under six years of age. Respite child-care providers shall demonstrate that respite care is available for children under six years of age and shall submit to a felony background check through the state patrol. Child-care services provided by shelters shall be subject to the department of community development rules on applicant eligibility criteria. The total allocation to providers within a county shall be not less than twenty-five thousand dollars per fiscal year in counties that had at least one hundred children under the age of five served in emergency shelters for the preceding year as reported by the department of community development and not less than ten thousand dollars for all other counties. If Substitute Senate Bill No. 5653 (homeless child care) is enacted by July 31, 1991, the amount provided in this subsection is provided solely to implement the bill.
(c) $450,000 of this amount shall be deposited in the child care facility revolving fund for loans or grants to assist persons, businesses, or organizations to start or operate a licensed child care facility to the extent permitted by federal law, pursuant to chapter 248, Laws of 1991 (Substitute Senate Bill No. 5583, child care facility fund).
(d) $100,000 is provided solely for licensing and regulation activities of the department of social and health services.
(e) $100,000 is provided solely for data collection, evaluation, and reporting activities of the department of social and health services.
(f) $4,609,000 is provided solely to increase child care slots for low-income families.
(g) $100,000 is provided solely for transfer through interagency agreement to the department of health to fund increased child care licensing workload.

Sec. 202. 1992 c 232 s 201 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES--CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES PROGRAM

General Fund--State Appropriation $(277,041,000) 276,734,000
General Fund--Federal Appropriation $(121,473,000) 179,051,000
Drug Enforcement and Education
Account Appropriation $4,000,000
Public Safety and Education
Account Appropriation $2,418,000
TOTAL APPROPRIATION $(454,932,000) 462,203,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:
(1) $607,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 364, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, youth and family services) subject to the following conditions and limitations.

(a) $94,000 of this amount is provided solely for an evaluation of family reconciliation services pursuant to section 1, chapter 364, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, youth and family services).
(b) $513,000 is provided solely to expand family reconciliation services.
(2) $2,949,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $691,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely for vendor rate increases of two percent on July 1, 1992, and five percent on January 1, 1993, for children's out-of-home residential providers except interim care, including but not limited to foster parents and child placement agencies, and (3) two percent on July 1, 1992, and three percent on January 1, 1993, for other providers, except child care providers.
(3) $1,150,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement a therapeutic home program under section 2 of chapter 326, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1608, children's services).
(4) $500,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 283, Laws of 1991 (Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5341, foster parent liability insurance).
(5) $110,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for volunteers of America of Spokane's crosswalk project.
(6) $3,300,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for direct services provided by four existing continuum of care projects.
(7) $900,000 of the drug enforcement and education account appropriation and $300,000 of the general fund--state appropriation are provided solely to contract for the operation of one pediatric interim care facility. The facility shall provide residential care for up to twelve children through two years of age. Seventy-five percent of the children served by the facility must be in need of special care as a result of substance abuse by their mothers. The facility also shall provide on-site training to biological, adoptive, or foster parents. The facility shall provide at least three months of consultation and support to parents accepting placement of children from the facility. The facility may recruit new and current foster and adoptive parents for infants served by the facility. The department shall not require case management as a condition of the contract. The department shall solicit proposals from current pediatric interim care providers. The department shall select a provider from among the current pediatric interim care providers through an accelerated selection process by August 15, 1991. The contract shall be awarded by August 15, 1991.
(8) $700,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $299,000 of the drug enforcement and education account appropriation are provided solely for up to three nonfacility based programs for the training, consultation, support, and recruitment of biological, foster, and adoptive parents of children through age three in need of special care as a result of substance abuse by their mothers, except that each program may serve up to three medically fragile nonsubstance-abuse-affected children. In selecting nonfacility based programs, preference shall be given to programs whose federal or private funding sources have expired or have successfully performed under the existing pediatric interim care program. The department shall select providers under this subsection using an accelerated selection process, to be completed no later than August 15, 1991.

(9) The amounts in subsections (7) and (8) of this section may be used to continue the existing pediatric interim care programs through August 15, 1991.

(10) $100,000 of the public safety and education account is provided solely to implement sections 11 and 12, chapter 301, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1884, domestic violence programs).

(11) Up to $25,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided to implement section 7 of chapter 301, Laws of 1991 (Substitute House Bill No. 1884, domestic violence programs).

(12) $1,500,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for increased funding for domestic violence programs.

(13) $480,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for purchase of service and for grants to nonprofit child placement agencies licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW to recruit potential adoptive parents for, and place for adoption, children with physical, mental, or emotional disabilities, children who are part of a sibling group, children over age 10, and minority or limited English-speaking children.

(14) $1,000,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for the transfer of children who are inappropriately housed in crisis residential centers to residential services designed to meet their specific needs.

(15) $30,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to fund follow-up research on the Childhaven therapeutic childcare study.

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. $(8,648,000) 8,445,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $1,149,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely for the implementation of the Puget Sound water quality management plan.
2. $5,174,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for the auto emissions inspection and maintenance program. The amount provided in this subsection is contingent upon a like amount being deposited in the general fund from auto emission inspection fees in accordance with RCW 70.120.170(4).
3. $1,323,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for water resource management activities associated with the continued implementation of the growth management act (chapter 17, Laws of 1990 1st ex.s.).
4. $1,000,000 of the general fund--state appropriation and $578,000 of the water quality permit account appropriation are provided solely to carry out the recommendations of the commission on efficiency and accountability in government concerning the wastewater discharge permit program.
5. $961,000 of the general fund--state appropriation, $3,459,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation, and $2,316,000 of the air pollution control account appropriation are provided solely for grants to local air pollution control authorities.
(6) The aquatic lands enhancement account appropriation is provided solely for the department to: (a) Conduct a sediment transport study of the Nooksack river to determine the amount of material that would have to be removed from the river to minimize flooding; and (b) develop an environmental assessment, of the Nooksack river and, based on this assessment, develop a sand and gravel management plan, for the river. In preparing the management plan, the department shall seek input from appropriate state and local agencies, Indian tribes, and other interested parties to the maximum extent feasible. The department shall prepare the management plan in such a manner that the plan can be used as a model for future plans that may be developed for other state rivers.

(7) $295,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 347, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2026, water resources management).

(8) $(5,000,000) of the state toxics control account appropriation is provided solely for the following purposes:
   (a) To conduct remedial actions for sites for which there are no potentially liable persons or for which potentially liable persons cannot be found;
   (b) To provide funding to assist potentially liable persons under RCW 70.105D.070(2)(d)(xi) to pay for the cost of the remedial actions; and
   (c) To conduct remedial actions for sites for which potentially liable persons have refused to comply with the orders issued by the department under RCW 70.105D.030 requiring the persons to provide the remedial action.

(9) $3,104,000 of the oil spill administration account appropriation and the entire oil spill response account appropriation are provided solely to implement chapter 200, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1027, oil and hazardous substance spill prevention and response).

(10) $286,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 350, Laws of 1991 (Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5358, water system interties).

(11) $139,000 of the solid waste management account appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 297, Laws of 1991 (Senate Bill No. 5143, recycled products procurement).

(12) $200,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 273, Laws of 1991 (House Bill No. 2021, joint water resource policy committee).

(13) $100,000 of the state toxics control account appropriation is provided for a study on the need for regional hazardous materials response teams. The study shall include, but not be limited to, the following items: Review of existing services, determination of where services are needed and the risks of not providing those services, funding requirements, equipment standards, training, mutual aid between jurisdictions, liability, and cost recovery. The study shall include specific recommendations on each of these items. Furthermore, the study shall include a specific recommendation on how to implement regional teams based upon geographic location and public exposure. The study shall include a review of steps taken in Oregon to address these problems. The state emergency response commission shall act as the steering committee for the study. Representatives from adjoining states may be requested to assist the commission.

(14) The entire fresh water aquatic weed control account appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 302, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1389, aquatic plant regulation).

(15) $144,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely for the wastewater treatment operator certification and training program. Of this amount, no more shall be expended than the amount anticipated to be deposited by June 30, 1993, into the general fund from revenues from wastewater treatment operator certification and training fees.

Sec. 302. 1992 c 232 s 306 is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 501. 1992 c 232 s 502 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR GENERAL APPORTIONMENT (BASIC EDUCATION) General Fund Appropriation $ ((5,183,846,000)) 5,229,704,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $((499,307,000)) 499,786,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.

(2) Allocations for certificated staff salaries for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years shall be determined using formula-generated staff units calculated pursuant to this subsection. Small school enrollments in kindergarten through grade six shall generate funding under (a) of this subsection, and shall not generate allocations under (d) and (e) of this subsection, if the staffing allocations generated under (a) of this subsection exceed those generated under (d) and (e) of this subsection. The certificated staffing allocations shall be as follows:

(a) On the basis of average annual full time equivalent enrollments, excluding full time equivalent enrollment otherwise recognized for certificated staff unit allocations under (c) through (f) of this subsection:

(i) Four certificated administrative staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students excluding full time equivalent handicapped enrollment as recognized for funding purposes under section 509 of this act;

(ii) 54.3 certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent students in kindergarten through third grade, excluding full time equivalent handicapped students ages six through eight; and

(iii) Forty-six certificated instructional staff units for each one thousand full time equivalent students, excluding full time equivalent handicapped students ages nine and above;

(b) For school districts with a minimum enrollment of 250 full time equivalent students, whose full time equivalent student enrollment count in a given month exceeds the first of the month full time equivalent enrollment count by 5 percent, an additional state allocation of 110 percent of the share that such increased enrollment would have generated had such additional full time equivalent students been included in the normal enrollment count for that particular month;

(c) On the basis of full time equivalent enrollment in vocational education programs and skill center programs approved by the superintendent of public instruction, 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units for each 16.67 full time equivalent vocational students;

(d) For districts enrolling not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education and enroll not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight:

(i) For those enrolling no students in grades seven and eight, 1.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-twentieth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled; and

(ii) For those enrolling students in grades seven or eight, 1.68 certificated instructional staff units and 0.32 certificated administrative staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-tenth of a certificated instructional staff unit for each additional student enrolled.
(e) For specified enrollments in districts enrolling more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade eight, and for small school plants within any school district which enroll more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average full time equivalent kindergarten through eighth grade students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education:

(i) For enrollment of up to sixty annual average full time equivalent students in kindergarten through grade six, 2.76 certificated instructional staff units and 0.24 certificated administrative staff units; and

(ii) For enrollment of up to twenty annual average full time equivalent students in grades seven and eight, 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units.

(f) For districts operating no more than two high schools with enrollments of less than three hundred average annual full time equivalent students, for enrollment in grades nine through twelve in each such school, other than alternative schools:

(i) For remote and necessary schools enrolling students in any grades nine through twelve but no more than twenty-five annual average full time equivalent kindergarten through twelfth grade students, four and one-half certificated instructional staff units and one-quarter of a certificated administrative staff unit;

(ii) For all other small high schools under this subsection, nine certificated instructional staff units and one-half of a certificated administrative staff unit for the first sixty annual average full time equivalent students, and additional staff units based on a ratio of 0.8732 certificated instructional staff units and 0.1268 certificated administrative staff units per each additional forty-three and one-half average annual full time equivalent students.

Units calculated under (f)(ii) of this subsection shall be reduced by certificated staff units at the rate of forty-six certificated instructional staff units and four certificated administrative staff units per thousand vocational and handicapped full time equivalent students.

(g) For each non-high school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit;

(h) For each non-high school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit.

(3) Allocations for classified salaries for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years shall be calculated using formula-generated classified staff units determined as follows:

(a) For enrollments generating certificated staff unit allocations under subsection (2) (d) through (h) of this section, one classified staff unit for each certificated staff unit allocated under such subsections.

(b) For all other enrollments in grades kindergarten through twelve, including vocational but excluding handicapped full time equivalent enrollments, one classified staff unit for each sixty average annual full time equivalent students.

(c) For each non-high school district with an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, an additional one-half of a classified staff unit.

(4) Fringe benefit allocations shall be calculated at a rate of ((21.11)) 21.25 percent in the 1991-92 school year and (20.90) 20.75 percent in the 1992-93 school year of certificated salary allocations provided under subsection (2) of this section, and a rate of (21.25) 21.11 percent in the 1991-92 school year and (18.53) 18.66 percent in the 1992-93 school year of classified salary allocations provided under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) Insurance benefit allocations shall be calculated at the rates specified in section 505 of this act, based on:

(a) The number of certificated staff units determined in subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) The number of classified staff units determined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by 1.152. This factor is intended to adjust allocations so that, for the purposes of distributing insurance benefits, full time equivalent classified employees may be calculated on the basis of 1440 hours of work per year, with no individual employee counted as more than one full time equivalent.

(6)(a) For nonemployee-related costs associated with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2) (a), (b), and (d) through (h) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $6,848 per certificated staff unit in the 1991-92 school year and a maximum of $7,060 per certificated staff unit in the 1992-93 school year.

(b) For nonemployee-related costs associated with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2)(c) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $13,049 per certificated staff unit in the 1991-92 school year and a maximum of $13,454 per certificated staff unit in the 1992-93 school year.

(7) Allocations for substitute costs for classroom teachers shall be distributed at a maximum rate of $318 for the 1991-92 school year and $318 per year for the 1992-93 school year for allocated classroom teachers. Solely for the purposes of this subsection, allocated classroom teachers shall be equal to the number of certificated instructional staff units allocated under subsection (2) of this section, multiplied by the ratio between the number of actual basic education certificated teachers and the number of actual basic education certificated instructional staff reported state-wide for the 1990-91 school year.

(8) The superintendent may distribute a maximum of $4,690,000 outside the basic education formula during fiscal years 1992 and 1993 as follows:

(a) For fire protection for school districts located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW, a maximum of $386,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1992 and a maximum of $398,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1993.

(b) For summer vocational programs at skills centers, a maximum of $1,766,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1992 and a maximum of $1,856,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1993.

(c) A maximum of $284,000 may be expended for school district emergencies.

(9) For the purposes of RCW 84.52.0531, the increase per full time equivalent student in state basic education appropriations provided under this act, including appropriations for salary and benefits increases, is 5.6 percent from the 1990-91 school year to the 1991-92 school year, and 5.0 percent from the 1991-92 school year to the 1992-93 school year.

(10) A maximum of $2,450,000 may be expended in the 1991-92 fiscal year and a maximum of $2,450,000 may be expended in the 1992-93 fiscal year for high technology vocational equipment for secondary vocational education programs and skill centers.
(11)(a) Funds provided under subsection (2)(a)(ii) of this section in excess of the amount required to maintain the statutory minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(c), shall be allocated only if the district documents an actual ratio equal to or greater than 54.3 certificated instructional staff per thousand full time equivalent students in grades K-3. For any school district documenting a lower certificated instructional staff ratio, the allocation shall be based on the district’s actual K-3 certificated instructional staff ratio achieved in that school year, or the statutory minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(c), if greater.

(b) Districts at or above 51.0 certificated instructional staff per one thousand full time equivalent students in grades K-3 may dedicate up to 1.3 of the 54.3 funding ratio to employ additional classified instructional assistants assigned to basic education classrooms in grades K-3. For purposes of documenting a district’s staff ratio under subsection (11)(a) and (c) of this section, funds used by the district to employ additional classified instructional assistants shall be converted to a certificated staff equivalent and added to the district’s actual certificated instructional staff ratio. Additional classified instructional assistants, for the purposes of this subsection, shall be determined using the 1989-90 school year as the base year.

(c) Any district maintaining a ratio equal to or greater than 54.3 certificated instructional staff per thousand full time equivalent students in grades K-3 may use allocations generated under subsection (2)(a)(ii) in excess of that required to maintain the minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(c) to employ additional basic education certificated instructional staff or classified instructional assistants in grades 4-6. Funds allocated under this section shall only be expended to reduce class size in grades K-6. No more than 1.3 of the certificated instructional funding ratio amount may be expended for provision of classified instructional assistants.

(12) The superintendent of public instruction shall study the rate of staff per student if current levels of certificated instructional staffing and paraprofessionals are counted together as “classroom resources.” A report identifying “classroom resource” per pupil rates shall be provided to the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the house of representatives and senate by January 10, 1992.

Sec. 502. 1992 c 232 s 503 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--BASIC EDUCATION EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation $ (208,423,000) 208,927,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The following calculations determine the salaries used in the general fund allocations for certificated instructional, certificated administrative, and classified staff units under section 502 of this act:

(b) Salary allocations for certificated instructional staff units and classified staff units for each district shall be based on the district’s certificated administrative and classified salary allocation amounts shown on LEAP Document 12A.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) “Basic education certificated instructional staff” is defined as provided in RCW 28A.150.100.

(b) “LEAP Document 1A” means the computerized tabulation establishing staff mix factors for basic education certificated instructional staff according to education and years of experience, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on April 8, 1991, at 13:35 hours.

(c) “LEAP Document 12A” means the computerized tabulation of 1990-91, 1991-92, and 1992-93 school year salary allocations for basic education certificated administrative staff and basic education classified staff and derived base salaries for basic education certificated instructional staff as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on January 15, 1992, at 12:00 hours.

(3) Incremental fringe benefits factors shall be applied to salary increases at a rate of ((1.2042) 1.12061) for certificated salaries at (1.1554) 1.1559 for classified salaries for the 1991-92 school year. For the 1992-93 school year, the rate for certificated salaries shall be (1.1966) 1.2011 and the rate for classified salaries shall be (1.1503) 1.1516.

(4) The increase for each certificated administrative staff unit provided under section 502 of this act shall be the 1990-91 state-wide average certificated administrative salary increased by 4.0 percent for the 1991-92 school year, and further increased by 3.0 percent for the 1992-93 school year, as shown on LEAP Document 12A.

(5) The increase for each classified staff unit provided under section 502 of this act shall be the 1990-91 state-wide average classified salary increased by 4.0 percent for the 1991-92 school year and further increased by 3.0 percent for the 1992-93 school year, as shown on LEAP Document 12A.

(6) Increases for certificated instructional staff units provided under section 502 of this act shall be the difference between the salary allocation specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section and the salary allocation specified as follows:

(7)(a) Pursuant to RCW 28A.150.410, the following state-wide salary allocation schedules for certificated instructional staff are established for basic education salary allocations for the 1991-92 and 1992-93 school years:

(b) As used in this subsection, the column headings "BA+(N)" refer to the number of credits earned since receiving the baccalaureate degree.

(c) For credits earned after the baccalaureate degree but before the masters degree, any credits in excess of forty-five credits may be counted after the masters degree. Thus, as used in this subsection, the column headings "MA+(N)" refer to the total of:

(i) Credits earned since receiving the masters degree; and

(ii) Any credits in excess of forty-five credits that were earned after the baccalaureate degree but before the masters degree.

(8) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "BA" means a baccalaureate degree.

(b) "MA" means a masters degree.

(c) "PHD" means a doctorate degree.

(d) "Years of service" shall be calculated under the same rules used by the superintendent of public instruction for salary allocations in the 1990-91 school year.

(e) "Credits" means college quarter hour credits and equivalent inservice credits computed in accordance with RCW 28A.415.020.

(9) The salary allocation schedules established in subsection (7) of this section are for allocation purposes only except as provided in RCW 28A.400.200(2).

(10) The superintendent of public instruction, in cooperation with the legislative budget committee, shall conduct a study to verify the accuracy of education credits reported by school districts to the superintendent for purposes of calculating staff-mix ratios used in the 1991-93 biennial operating budget process. The study shall be presented to the fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives by November 1, 1992.

Sec. 504. 1992 c 232 s 504 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION–CATEGORICAL PROGRAM SALARY INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation $42,986,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The incremental fringe benefits factors applied to salary increases in subsection (3) of this section shall be the same as those specified in section 503(3) of this act.
2. Salary increases for each school year for state-supported formula units in the following categorical programs include costs of incremental fringe benefits and shall be distributed by increasing allocation rates for each school year by the amounts specified below:

   a. Translational bilingual instruction: The rates specified in section 519 of this act shall be increased by $((18.68)) 18.68 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and by $((32.99)) 32.99 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year.
   b. Learning assistance: The rates specified in section 520 of this act shall be increased by $((14.18)) 14.18 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and by $((25.12)) 25.12 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year.
   c. Education of highly capable students: The rates specified in section 515 of this act shall be increased by $((11.05)) 11.05 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and by $((17.65)) 17.65 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year.
   d. Pupil transportation: The rates provided under section 506 of this act shall be increased by $.72 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1991-92 school year, and by $1.28 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1992-93 school year.

3. The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute salary increases and incremental fringe benefits for state-supported staff unit allocations in the handicapped program (section 509 of this act), in the educational service districts (section 511 of this act), and in the institutional education program (section 514 of this act), in the same manner as salary increases are provided for basic education staff.

Sec. 505. 1992 c 232 s 505 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR SCHOOL EMPLOYEE INSURANCE BENEFIT INCREASES

General Fund Appropriation $((84,886,000)) 84,886,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. Allocations for insurance benefits from general fund appropriations provided under section 502 of this act shall be calculated at a rate of $246.24 per month for each certificated staff unit, and for each classified staff unit adjusted pursuant to section 502(5)(b) of this act.

2. The appropriation in this section is provided solely to increase insurance benefit allocations for state-funded certificated and classified staff for the 1991-92 school year, effective October 1, 1991, to a rate of $289.95 per month, and for the 1992-93 school year, effective October 1, 1992, to a rate of $317.79 as distributed pursuant to this section.

3. The increase in insurance benefit allocations for basic education staff units under section 502(5) of this act, for handicapped program staff units as calculated under section 509 of this act, for state-funded staff in educational service districts, and for institutional education programs is $43.71 per month for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $27.84 per month in the 1992-93 school year.

4. The increases in insurance benefit allocations for the following categorical programs shall be calculated by increasing the annual state funding rates by the amounts specified in this subsection. Effective October 1 of each school year, the maximum rate adjustments provided on an annual basis under this section are:

   a. For pupil transportation, an increase of $.40 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $.25 per weighted pupil-mile for the 1992-93 school year; $691,264,000
   b. For learning assistance, an increase of $10.92 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $6.96 for the 1992-93 school year; $775,164,000
   c. For education of highly capable students, an increase of $3.72 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $2.13 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year; $83,900,000
   d. For transitional bilingual education, an increase of $.90 per pupil for the 1991-92 school year and an additional $.72 per pupil for the 1992-93 school year; $761.464,000

Sec. 506. 1992 c 232 s 506 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR PUPIL TRANSPORTATION

General Fund Appropriation $((299,292,000)) 303,484,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. $26,183,000 is provided solely for distribution to school districts for the remaining months of the 1990-91 school year.
2. A maximum of $873,000 may be expended for regional transportation coordinators.
3. A maximum of $65,000 may be expended for bus driver training.
4. For eligible school districts, the small-fleet maintenance factor shall be funded at a rate of $.65 in the 1991-92 school year and $1.70 in the 1992-93 school year per weighted pupil-mile.
5. The superintendent shall ensure that, by the 1992-93 school year, school districts in accordance with RCW 28A.160.160(4) are making good faith efforts to alleviate the problem of hazardous walking conditions for students.
6. $755,000 of the general fund--state appropriation is provided solely to implement chapter 186, Laws of 1991 (Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5114, school bus safety crossing arms). Moneys provided in this subsection may be expended to reimburse school districts that purchased school bus safety crossing arms during the 1990-91 school year, subject to criteria and rules adopted by the superintendent.
7. $90,000 is provided solely for the 1992-93 school year for transportation of students enrolled in "choice" programs. Transportation shall be limited to low-income students who are transferring to "choice" programs solely for educational reasons. The superintendent shall provide a report to the legislature concerning the use of these moneys by November 1, 1993.

Sec. 507. 1992 c 232 s 508 is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR HANDICAPPED EDUCATION PROGRAMS

PART VI
HIGHER EDUCATION

Sec. 601. 1992 c 238 s 1 is amended to read as follows:

HIGHER EDUCATION. The appropriations in sections 602 through 610 of this act are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) "Institutions of higher education" means the institutions receiving appropriations pursuant to sections 602 through 610 of this act.

(2) (a) "Student quality standard" means, for each four-year institution and the community and technical colleges as a whole, the following amount divided by the budgeted enrollment levels specified in (b) of this subsection: The combined operating appropriations under this act from the general fund–state and the institutional operating fees account, less expenditures for plant maintenance and operation, with the exception of Washington State University, where cooperative extension and agriculture research expenditures are excluded, and with the exception of the state board for community and technical colleges, where technical college operations and FTE enrollments, the Seattle vocational institute operations and FTE enrollments, and supplemental funding and enrollments for timber-dependent communities are excluded.

(b) Budgeted Enrollments: Each institution shall enroll to its budgeted biennial average full time equivalent enrollments, plus four percent or minus two percent (except each branch campus shall enroll within plus or minus twelve percent). If the estimated 1991-93 average biennial full time equivalent student enrollment of an institution (or branch campus) (as estimated on April 30, 1993, by the office of financial management using spring enrollment reports submitted by the institutions) varies from the biennial budgeted amount by more than four percent above or two percent below the budgeted amount, then an amount equal to the student quality standard multiplied by the number of full time equivalent students above or below the variances shall revert to the state general fund. The variance allowance for the state board for community and technical colleges excludes the technical colleges.

Average

Budgeted

FTEs
(c) Facilities Quality Standard: During the 1991-93 biennium, no institution of higher education may allow its expenditures for plant operation and maintenance to fall more than five percent below the amounts allotted for this purpose.

(3)(a) Each four-year institution of higher education shall reduce the amount of operating fee foregone revenue from tuition waivers by 6.6 percent of the fiscal year 1993 projection under the office of financial management tuition and fee model used in the governor’s February 1992 forecast.

(b) The state board for community and technical colleges shall reduce the amount of operating fee foregone revenue from tuition waivers, for the community college system as a whole, by 6.6 percent of the fiscal year 1993 projection under the office of financial management tuition and fee model used in the governor’s February 1992 forecast, excluding the adult basic education program.

(4)(a) The amounts specified in (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection are maximum amounts that each institution may spend from the appropriations in sections 602 through 610 of this act for staff salary increases on January 1, 1992, and January 1, 1993, excluding classified staff salary increases, and subject to all the limitations contained in this section.

(b) The following amounts shall be used to provide instruction and research faculty at each four-year institution an average salary increase of 3.9 percent on January 1, 1992, and 3.0 percent on January 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. APPLICABILITY OF OTHER PROVISIONS. This act is subject to the provisions, definitions, conditions, and limitations of chapter 16, Laws of 1991 sp. sess., as amended by chapter 232, Laws of 1992, chapter 238, Laws of 1992, and this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 16, Laws of 1991 sp.s to read as follows:

SPENDING CONTROLS. (1) All agencies, including those headed by elected officials and appointed boards or commissions, shall control costs to ensure that operating expenditures for capital outlays and noncapitalized fixed assets for the period beginning April 1, 1993, and ending June 30, 1993, will not exceed the sum of that agency's monthly allotments for capital outlays and noncapitalized fixed assets for that same time period.

(2) All agencies, including those headed by elected officials and appointed boards or commissions, shall control costs to ensure that expenditures of state general fund appropriations for the period beginning April 1, 1993, and ending June 30, 1993, will not exceed the sum of that agency's monthly allotments of state general fund expenditures for that same time period.

(3) All agencies over one hundred employees, including those headed by elected officials and appointed boards or commissions, are directed to place into reserve status one percent of their April through June allotments for salaries. It is intended that these savings be achieved through the fiscal limitations imposed in the Governor's January 13, 1993, directive. Expenditure control mechanisms are assumed to include attrition, administrative efficiencies, and reductions in nonessential travel and purchases. The office of financial management shall issue agency savings targets and instructions for allotment amendment submittals.

Exceptions for the limitations described in subsections (1) through (3) of this section may be granted by the office of financial management only in cases of preexisting legal obligations or emergency conditions.

For the purposes of this section, "allotments" are considered to be the January 31, 1993, office of financial management approved expenditure plan as revised for any 1993 supplemental appropriations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. EMERGENCY CLAUSE. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 51.32.050 and 1991 c 88 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where death results from the injury the expenses of burial not to exceed two thousand dollars shall be paid.

(2)(a) Where death results from the injury, a surviving spouse of a deceased worker eligible for benefits under this title shall receive monthly for life or until remarriage payments according to the following schedule:

(i) If there are no children of the deceased worker, sixty percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars;

(ii) If there is one child of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-two percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred twenty dollars;

(iii) If there are two children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-four percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars;

(iv) If there are three children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-six percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars;

(v) If there are four children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, sixty-eight percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars;

(vi) If there are five or more children of the deceased worker and in the legal custody of such spouse, seventy percent of the wages of the deceased worker but not less than three hundred twenty dollars.

(b) Where the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker or where after the death of the worker legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be apportioned equally among such children.

(c) Payments to the surviving spouse of the deceased worker shall cease at the end of the month in which remarriage occurs. PROVIDED. That a monthly payment shall be made to the child or children of the deceased worker from the month following such remarriage in a sum equal to five percent of the wages of the deceased worker for one child and a sum equal to five percent for each additional child up to a maximum of five children. Payments to such child or children shall be apportioned equally among such children. Such sum shall be in place of any payments theretofore made for the benefit of or on account of any such child or children. If the surviving spouse does not have legal custody of any child or children of the deceased worker, or if after the death of the worker, legal custody of such child or children passes from such surviving spouse to another, any payment on account of such child or children not in the legal custody of the surviving spouse shall be made to the person or persons having legal custody of such child or children.

(e) In addition to the monthly payments provided for in (2)(a) through (2)(c) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum:

(f) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs.
However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of twenty-four times the monthly compensation rate in effect on the date of remarriage allocable to the spouse for himself or herself pursuant to (2)(a)(i) of this section and subject to any modifications specified under (2)(d) of this section and RCW 51.32.075(3) or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 28, 1991, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect; or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in (2)(f)(i) of this section to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage, or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment.

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum specified under subsection (2)(f)(i) of this section or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser.

(h) The effective date of resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) of this section shall not exceed the lesser of sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or ((one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, ((whichever is the lesser of the two sums,)) as follows:

If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) For claims filed prior to July 1, 1986, if the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse, the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

(7) For claims filed on or after July 1, 1986, every worker who becomes eligible for permanent total disability benefits shall elect an option as provided in RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 2. RCW 51.32.060 and 1988 c 161 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the worker shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(a) If married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifteen dollars per month.
(b) If married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

(c) If married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars per month.

(d) If married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-two dollars per month.

(e) If married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month.

(f) If married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred fifty-six dollars per month.

(g) If unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his or her wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month.

(h) If unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred twenty-two dollars per month.

(i) If unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month.

(j) If unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month.

(k) If unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month.

(l) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars per month.

(2) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.

(3) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW and RCW 51.04.105.

(4) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his or her prior injury.

(5) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed ((one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018((except that this)) as follows:

AFTER PERCENTAGE

June 30, 1993 110%
June 30, 1995 125%
June 30, 1997 150%

The limitations under this subsection shall not apply to the payments provided for in subsection (3) of this section.

(6) In the case of new or reopened claims, if the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that, at the time of filing or reopening, the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

(7) The benefits provided by this section are subject to modification under RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 3. RCW 51.32.090 and 1988 c 161 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the total disability is only temporary, the schedule of payments contained in RCW 51.32.060 (1) and (2) shall apply, so long as the total disability continues.

(2) Any compensation payable under this section for children not in the custody of the injured worker as of the date of injury shall be payable only to such person as actually is providing the support for such child or children pursuant to the order of a court of record providing for support of such child or children.

(3) As soon as recovery is so complete that the present earning power of the worker, at any kind of work, is restored to that existing at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payments shall cease. If and so long as the present earning power is only partially restored, the payments shall continue in the proportion which the new earning power shall bear to the old. No compensation shall be payable unless the loss of earning power shall exceed five percent.

(4) Whenever an employer requests that a worker who is entitled to temporary total disability under this chapter be certified by a physician as able to perform available work other than his or her usual work, the employer shall furnish to the physician, with a copy to the worker, a statement describing the available work in terms that will enable the physician to relate the physical activities of the job to the worker's disability. The physician shall then determine whether the worker is physically able to perform the work described. If the worker is released by his or her physician for said work, and the work thereafter comes to an end before the worker's recovery is sufficient in the judgment of his or her physician to permit him or her to return to his or her usual job, or to perform other available work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed. Should the available work described, once undertaken by the worker, impede his or her recovery to the extent that in the judgment of his or her physician he or she should not continue to work, the worker's temporary total disability payments shall be resumed when the worker ceases such work.

Once the worker returns to work under the terms of this subsection, he or she shall not be assigned by the employer to work other than the available work described without the worker's written consent, or without prior review and approval by the worker's physician.
In the event of any dispute as to the worker's ability to perform the available work offered by the employer, the department shall make the final determination.

(5) No worker shall receive compensation for or during the day on which injury was received or the three days following the same, unless his or her disability shall continue for a period of fourteen consecutive calendar days from date of injury:

PROVIDED, That attempts to return to work in the first fourteen days following the injury shall not serve to break the continuity of the period of disability if the disability continues fourteen days after the injury occurs.

(6) Should a worker suffer a temporary total disability and should his or her employer at the time of the injury continue to pay him or her the wages which he or she was earning at the time of such injury, such injured worker shall not receive any payment provided in subsection (1) of this section during the period his or her employer shall so pay such wages.

(7) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed ((one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018((i)) as follows:

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993.*
June 30, 1995 115%

(e) In addition to the monthly payments provided for in (2)(a) through (2)(c) of this section, a surviving spouse or child or children of such worker if there is no surviving spouse, or dependent parent or parents, if there is no surviving spouse or child or children of any such deceased worker shall be forthwith paid the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, any such children, or parents to share and share alike in said sum.

(f) Upon remarriage of a surviving spouse the monthly payments for the child or children shall continue as provided in this section, but the monthly payments to such surviving spouse shall cease at the end of the month during which remarriage occurs. However, after September 8, 1975, an otherwise eligible surviving spouse of a worker who died at any time prior to or after September 8, 1975, shall have an option of:

(i) Receiving, once and for all, a lump sum of twenty-four times the monthly compensation rate in effect on the date of remarriage allocable to the spouse for himself or herself pursuant to (2)(a)(i) of this section and subject to any modifications specified under (2)(d) of this section and RCW 51.32.075(3) or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension, whichever is the lesser: PROVIDED, That if the injury occurred prior to July 28, 1991, the remarriage benefit lump sum available shall be as provided in the remarriage benefit schedules then in effect; or

(ii) If a surviving spouse does not choose the option specified in (2)(f)(i) of this section to accept the lump sum payment, the remarriage of the surviving spouse of a worker shall not bar him or her from claiming the lump sum payment authorized in (2)(f)(i) of this section during the life of the remarriage, or shall not prevent subsequent monthly payments to him or to her if the remarriage has been terminated by death or has been dissolved or annulled by valid court decree provided he or she has not previously accepted the lump sum payment.

(g) If the surviving spouse during the remarriage should die without having previously received the lump sum payment provided in (2)(f)(i) of this section, his or her estate shall be entitled to receive the sum specified under subsection (2)(f)(i) of this section or fifty percent of the then remaining annuity value of his or her pension whichever is the lesser.

(h) The effective date of resumption of payments under (2)(f)(ii) of this section to a surviving spouse based upon termination of a remarriage by death, annulment, or dissolution shall be the date of the death or the date the judicial decree of annulment or dissolution becomes final and when application for the payments has been received.

(i) If it should be necessary to increase the reserves in the reserve fund or to create a new pension reserve fund as a result of the amendments in chapter 45, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess., the amount of such increase in pension reserve in any such case shall be transferred to the reserve fund from the supplemental pension fund.

(3) If there is a child or children and no surviving spouse of the deceased worker or the surviving spouse is not eligible for benefits under this title, a sum equal to thirty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker shall be paid monthly for one child and a sum equivalent to fifteen percent of such wage shall be paid monthly for each additional child, the total of such sum to be divided among such children, share and share alike: PROVIDED, That benefits under this subsection or subsection (4) of this section shall not exceed the lesser of sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of his or her death or ((one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, ((whichever is the lesser of the two sums,)) as follows:

(4) In the event a surviving spouse receiving monthly payments dies, the child or children of the deceased worker shall receive the same payment as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the worker leaves no surviving spouse or child, but leaves a dependent or dependents, a monthly payment shall be made to each dependent equal to fifteen percent of the average monthly support actually received by such dependent from the worker during the twelve months next preceding the occurrence of the injury, but the total payment to all dependents in any case shall not exceed the lesser of sixty-five percent of the wages of the deceased worker at the time of ((his or her death or (one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as defined in RCW 51.08.018, ((whichever is the lesser of the two sums,)) as follows:

If any dependent is under the age of eighteen years at the time of the occurrence of the injury, the payment to such dependent shall cease when such dependent reaches the age of eighteen years except such payments shall continue until the dependent reaches age twenty-three while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school. The payment to any dependent shall cease if and when, under the same circumstances, the necessity creating the dependency would have ceased if the injury had not happened.

(6) For claims filed prior to July 1, 1986, if the injured worker dies during the period of permanent total disability, whatever the cause of death, leaving a surviving spouse, or child, or children, the surviving spouse or child or children shall receive benefits as if death resulted from the injury as provided in subsections (2) through (4) of this section. Upon remarriage or death of such surviving spouse, the payments to such child or children shall be made as provided in subsection (2) of this section when the surviving spouse of a deceased worker remarries.

(7) For claims filed on or after July 1, 1986, every worker who becomes eligible for permanent total disability benefits shall elect an option as provided in RCW 51.32.067.

Sec. 2. RCW 51.32.060 and 1988 c 161 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the supervisor of industrial insurance shall determine that permanent total disability results from the injury, the worker shall receive monthly during the period of such disability:

(a) If married at the time of injury, sixty-five percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifteen dollars per month.

(b) If married with one child at the time of injury, sixty-seven percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

(c) If married with two children at the time of injury, sixty-nine percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred eighty-three dollars.

(d) If married with three children at the time of injury, seventy-one percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred six dollars per month.

(e) If married with four children at the time of injury, seventy-three percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-nine dollars per month.

(f) If married with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy-five percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred fifty-two dollars per month.

(g) If unmarried at the time of the injury, sixty percent of his or her wages but not less than one hundred eighty-five dollars per month.

(h) If unmarried with one child at the time of injury, sixty-two percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred twenty dollars per month.

(i) If unmarried with two children at the time of injury, sixty-four percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred fifty-three dollars per month.

(j) If unmarried with three children at the time of injury, sixty-six percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred seventy-six dollars per month.

(k) If unmarried with four children at the time of injury, sixty-eight percent of his or her wages but not less than two hundred ninety-nine dollars per month.

(l) If unmarried with five or more children at the time of injury, seventy percent of his or her wages but not less than three hundred twenty-two dollars per month.

(2) For any period of time where both husband and wife are entitled to compensation as temporarily or totally disabled workers, only that spouse having the higher wages of the two shall be entitled to claim their child or children for compensation purposes.

(3) In case of permanent total disability, if the character of the injury is such as to render the worker so physically helpless as to require the hiring of the services of an attendant, the department shall make monthly payments to such attendant for such services as long as such requirement continues, but such payments shall not obtain or be operative while the worker is receiving care under or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 51.36 RCW and RCW 51.04.105.

(4) Should any further accident result in the permanent total disability of an injured worker, he or she shall receive the pension to which he or she would be entitled, notwithstanding the payment of a lump sum for his or her prior injury.

(5) In no event shall the monthly payments provided in this section exceed ((one hundred percent)) the applicable percentage of the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018 except that this as follows:

(8) If the supervisor of industrial insurance determines that the worker is voluntarily retired and is no longer attached to the work force, benefits shall not be paid under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993.

Senator Anderson moved that the following amendment to the striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild be adopted:

On page 1, after line 6 of the amendment, strike all material through "1993." on page 9, line 18, and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) There is hereby created a legislative task force on workers' compensation to review the state's industrial insurance system and make recommendations on the following issues:

(a) The adequacy and equity of the industrial insurance benefit structure with regard to death and disability benefit increases;

(b) Alternative benefit formulas such as utilizing spendable income in the computation;

(c) The effectiveness and efficiency of claims management services with the department; and

(d) Alternative claims management options.

(2) The task force consists of up to twelve voting members, as follows:

(a) Two members from each caucus of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate, with at least two members from the membership of the labor and commerce committee.

(b) Two members from each caucus of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, with at least two members from the membership of the commerce and labor committee; and

(c) Two representatives of business, including self-insurers, and self-insured public employers; and two representatives of labor appointed jointly by the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives.

(3) The department of labor and industries shall cooperate with the task force and the deputy director of the department of labor and industries in charge of industrial insurance shall be the nonvoting chairperson.

(4) The task force shall use legislative staff and facilities, but may hire additional staff with specific technical expertise if such expertise is necessary to carry out the mandates of this section. All expenses of the task force, including travel, shall be paid jointly by the senate and the house of representatives.

(5) The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the appropriate legislative committees by December 1, 1994. The task force shall expire July 1, 1995.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Anderson on page 1, line 6, to the striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1248.

The motion by Senator Anderson failed and the amendment to the striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1248.

The striking amendment by Senators Gaspard, Moore and Vognild to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1248 was adopted.
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "benefits;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 51.32.050, 51.32.060, and 51.32.090; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1248, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1248, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1248, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; Nays, 19; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Cantu, McCaslin, Niemi and Owen - 4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1248, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1249, by House Committee on Appropriations (originally sponsored by Representatives Heavey, King, Franklin, Orr, G. Cole, Jones, Veloria, Johanson and R. Meyers)

Increasing industrial insurance partial disability awards.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Vognild moved that the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment be adopted:

(b) Beginning on July 1, 1993, compensation under this subsection shall be computed as follows:
  (i) Beginning on July 1, 1993, the compensation amounts for the specified disabilities listed in (a) of this subsection shall be increased by thirty-five percent; and
  (ii) Beginning on July 1, 1994, and each July 1 thereafter, the compensation amounts for the specified disabilities listed in (a) of this subsection, as adjusted under (b)(i) of this subsection, shall be readjusted to reflect the percentage change in the consumer price index, calculated as follows: The index for the calendar year preceding the year in which the July calculation is made, to be known as "calendar year A," is divided by the index for the calendar year preceding calendar year A, and the resulting ratio is multiplied by the compensation amount in effect on June 30 immediately preceding the July 1st on which the respective calculation is made. For the purposes of this subsection, "index" means the same as the definition in RCW 2.12.037(1).

(2) Compensation for amputation of a member or part thereof at a site other than those specified in subsection (1) of this section, and for loss of central visual acuity and loss of hearing other than complete, shall be in proportion to that which such other amputation or partial loss of visual acuity or hearing most closely resembles and approximates. Compensation shall be calculated based on the adjusted schedule of compensation in effect for the respective time period as prescribed in subsection (1) of this section.

(3)(a) Compensation for any other permanent partial disability not involving amputation shall be in the proportion which the extent of such other disability, called unspecified disability, shall bear to ([(that above)] the disabilities specified in subsection (1) of this section, which most closely resembles and approximates in degree of disability such other disability, and compensation for any other unspecified permanent partial disability shall be in an amount as measured and compared to total bodily impairment(\( \text{PROVIDED, That in order}\)). To reduce litigation and establish more certainty and uniformity in the rating of unspecified permanent partial disabilities, the department shall enact rules having the force of law classifying such disabilities in the proportion which the department shall determine such disabilities reasonably bear to total bodily impairment. In enacting such rules, the department shall give consideration to, but need not necessarily adopt, any nationally recognized medical standards or guides for determining various bodily impairments.

(b) Until July 1, 1993, for purposes of calculating monetary benefits under (a) of this subsection, the amount payable for total bodily impairment shall be deemed to be ninety thousand dollars(\( \text{PROVIDED, That}\)). Beginning on July 1, 1993, for purposes of calculating monetary benefits under (a) of this subsection, the amount payable for total bodily impairment shall be adjusted as follows:

  (i) Beginning on July 1, 1993, the amount payable for total bodily impairment under this section shall be increased to one hundred twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars; and
  (ii) Beginning on July 1, 1994, and each July 1 thereafter, the amount payable for total bodily impairment prescribed in (b)(i) of this subsection shall be adjusted as provided in subsection (1)(b)(ii) of this section.

(c) Until July 1, 1993, the total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities resulting from the same injury shall not exceed the sum of ninety thousand dollars(\( \text{PROVIDED FURTHER, That in case}\)). Beginning on July 1, 1993, total compensation for all unspecified permanent partial disabilities resulting from the same injury shall not exceed a sum calculated as follows:

  (i) Beginning on July 1, 1993, the sum shall be increased to one hundred twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars; and
  (ii) Beginning on July 1, 1994, and each July 1 thereafter, the sum prescribed in (b)(i) of this subsection shall be adjusted as provided in subsection (1)(b)(ii) of this section.

4 If permanent partial disability compensation is followed by permanent total disability compensation, any portion of the permanent partial disability compensation which exceeds the amount that would have been paid the injured worker if permanent total disability compensation had been paid in the first instance, shall be deducted from the pension reserve of such injured worker and his or her monthly compensation payments shall be reduced accordingly.

((6)) (5) Should a worker receive an injury to a member or part of his or her body already, from whatever cause, permanently partially disabled, resulting in the amputation thereof or in an aggravation or increase in such permanent partial disability but not resulting in the permanent total disability of such worker, his or her compensation for such partial disability shall be adjudged with regard to the previous disability of the injured member or part and the degree or extent of the aggravation or increase of disability thereof.

When the compensation provided for in subsections (1) through (3) of this section exceeds three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, payment shall be made in monthly payments in accordance with the schedule of temporary total disability payments set forth in RCW 51.32.090 until such compensation is paid to the injured worker in full, except that the first monthly payment shall be in an amount equal to three times the average monthly wage in the state as computed under the provisions of RCW 51.08.018, and interest shall be paid at the rate of eight percent on the unpaid balance of such compensation commencing with the second monthly payment. However, upon application of the injured worker or survivor the monthly payment may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump sum payment, in which event the monthly payment shall cease in whole or in part. Such conversion may be made only upon written application of the injured worker or survivor to the department and shall rest in the discretion of the department depending upon the merits of each individual application.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: “In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 is a measure which empowers the State Liquor Control Board to implement and enforce various procedures and prohibitions designed to reduce the availability of tobacco products to minors.

“The striking amendment by Senator McDonald would empower the Liquor Control Board to administer the program designed to reduce the availability of tobacco products to minors and, in addition, would transfer from the Department of Revenue to the Liquor Control Board the authority to administer all the laws relative to taxation on cigarettes and tobacco products.

“The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken.”

The striking amendment by Senator McDonald to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071 was ruled out of order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2071.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to work in the health care reform conference committee, I missed the vote on the following bills: Substitute House Bill No. 1765, as amended by the Senate; Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1140, as amended by the Senate; Substitute House Bill No. 1072, as amended by the Senate; Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate; Substitute House Bill No. 1014, as amended by the Senate; House Bill No. 1351; Substitute House Bill No. 1582; Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1493, as amended by the Senate; and Substitute House Bill No. 1912, as amended by the Senate.

I would have voted 'yes' on all the measures.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1765, by House Committee on Corrections (originally sponsored by Representatives L. Johnson, Morris, Long, Cooke, Dellwo, Mastin, Thibaudeau, Campbell, Riley, Johanson, Karahalios, Eide, J. Kohl, Springer and Leonard)

Creating a corrections mental health center operated through a partnership of the department of corrections and the University of Washington.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The department of corrections and the University of Washington may enter into a collaborative arrangement to provide improved services for mentally ill offenders with a focus on prevention, treatment, and reintegration into society. The participants in the collaborative arrangement may develop a strategic plan within sixty days after the effective date of this act to address the management of mentally ill offenders within the correctional system, facilitating their reentry into the community and the mental health system, and preventing the inappropriate incarceration of mentally ill individuals. The collaborative arrangement may also specify the establishment and maintenance of a corrections mental health center located at McNeil Island corrections center. The collaborative arrangement shall require that an advisory panel of key stakeholders be established and consulted throughout the development and implementation of the center. The stakeholders advisory panel shall include a broad array of interest groups drawn from representatives of mental health, criminal justice, and correctional systems. The stakeholders advisory panel shall include, but is not limited to, membership from: The department of corrections, the department of social and health services mental health division and division of juvenile rehabilitation, regional support networks, local and regional law enforcement agencies, the sentencing guidelines commission, county and city jails, mental health advocacy groups for the mentally ill, developmentally disabled, and traumatically brain-injured, and the general public. The center established by the department of corrections and University of Washington, in consultation with the stakeholder advisory groups, shall have the authority to:"
(a) Develop new and innovative treatment approaches for corrections mental health clients;
(b) Improve the quality of mental health services within the department and throughout the corrections system;
(c) Facilitate interdisciplinary staff recruitment and training to meet departmental, county, and municipal needs;
(d) Expand research activities within the department in the area of treatment services, the design of delivery systems, the development of organizational models, and training for corrections mental health care professionals;
(e) Improve the work environment for correctional employees by developing the skills, knowledge, and understanding of how to work with offenders with special chronic mental health challenges;
(f) Establish a more positive rehabilitative environment for offenders;
(g) Strengthen multidisciplinary mental health collaboration between the University of Washington, other groups committed to the intent of this section, and the department of corrections;
(h) Strengthen department linkages between institutions of higher education, public sector mental health systems, and county and municipal corrections;
(i) Assist in the continued formulation of corrections mental health policies;
(j) Develop innovative and effective recruitment and training programs for correctional personnel working with mentally ill offenders;
(k) Assist in the development of a coordinated continuum of mental health care capable of providing services from corrections entry to community return; and
(l) Evaluate all current and innovative approaches developed within this center in terms of their effective and efficient achievement of improved mental health of inmates, development and utilization of personnel, the impact of these approaches on the functioning of correctional institutions, and the relationship of the corrections system to mental health and criminal justice systems. Specific attention should be paid to evaluating the effects of programs on the reintegration of mentally ill offenders into the community and the prevention of inappropriate incarceration of mentally ill persons.

(2) The corrections mental health center may conduct research, training, and treatment activities for the mentally ill offender within selected sites operated by the department. The department shall provide support services for the center such as food services, maintenance, perimeter security, classification, offender supervision, and living unit functions. The University of Washington may develop, implement, and evaluate the clinical, treatment, research, and evaluation components of the mentally ill offender center. The institute of public policy and management may be consulted regarding the development of the center and in the recommendations regarding public policy. As resources permit, training within the center shall be available to state, county, and municipal agencies requiring the services. Other state colleges, state universities, and mental health providers may be involved in activities as required on a subcontract basis. Community mental health organizations, research groups, and community advocacy groups may be critical components of the center's operations and involved as appropriate to annual objectives. Mentally ill clients may be drawn from throughout the department's population and transferred to the center as clinical need, available services, and department jurisdiction permits.

(3) The department shall prepare a report of the center's progress toward the attainment of stated goals and provide the report to the legislature annually.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 3 of the title, after “Washington;” strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1765, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1765, as amended by the Senate.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spangle, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 34.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1765, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1140, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Locke, Horn, H. Myers, Eide, Valle, Rust, Leonard, Basich, Franklin, Shin, Springer and J. Kohl)
Revising provisions relating to metropolitan municipal corporations.
The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, the following Committee on Government Operations amendment was adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 35.58.030 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any area of the state containing two or more cities, at least one of which is (a city of the first class) of ten thousand or more population, may organize as a metropolitan municipal corporation for the performance of certain functions, as provided in this chapter. The boundaries of a metropolitan municipal corporation may not be expanded to include territory located in a county other than a component county except as a result of the consolidation of two or more contiguous metropolitan municipal corporations.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.58.040 and 1991 c 363 s 39 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time of its formation no metropolitan municipal corporation shall include only a part of any city, and every city shall be either wholly included or wholly excluded from the boundaries of such corporation. If subsequent to the formation of a metropolitan municipal corporation a part only of any city shall be included within the boundaries of a metropolitan municipal corporation such part shall be deemed to be "unincorporated" for the purpose of selecting a member of the metropolitan council pursuant to RCW 35.58.120(3) and such city shall neither select nor participate in the selection of a member on the metropolitan council pursuant to RCW 35.58.120.

Any metropolitan municipal corporation now existing (hereinafter created) within a county with a population of (from two hundred ten thousand to less than one million bordering a county with a population of one million or more, or within a county with a population of) one million or more (hereinafter created) shall, upon May 21, 1971, (as to metropolitan corporations existing on such date or upon the date of formation as to metropolitan corporations formed after May 21, 1971) have the same boundaries as those of the respective central county of such metropolitan corporation (prov. that). The boundaries of such metropolitan corporation may not be enlarged or diminished after such date by annexation as provided in chapter 35.58 RCW (as now or hereafter amended) and any purported annexation of territory shall be deemed void. Any contiguous metropolitan municipalities may be consolidated into a single metropolitan municipal corporation upon such terms, for the purpose of performing such metropolitan function or functions, and to be effective at such time as may be approved by resolutions of the respective metropolitan councils. In the event of such consolidation the component city with the largest population shall be the central city of such consolidated metropolitan municipal corporation and the component county with the largest population shall be the central county of such consolidated metropolitan municipal corporation.

Sec. 3. RCW 35.58.090 and 1973 1st ex.s. c 195 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

The election on the formation of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall be conducted by the auditor of the central county in accordance with the general election laws of the state and the results thereof shall be canvassed by the county canvassing board of the central county, which shall certify the result of the election to the (board of) county (commissioners) legislative authority of the central county, and shall cause a certified copy of such canvass to be filed in the office of the secretary of state. Notice of the election shall be published in one or more newspapers of general circulation in each component county in the manner provided in the general election laws. No person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless (herein) that person is a qualified voter under the laws of the state in effect at the time of such election and has resided within the metropolitan area for at least thirty days preceding the date of the election. The ballot proposition shall be in substantially the following form:

"FORMATION OF METROPOLITAN MUNICIPAL CORPORATION

Shall a metropolitan municipal corporation be established for the area described in a resolution of the (board of commissioners) county legislative authority of . . . . . . county adopted on the . . . . . . day of . . . . . . , 19 . . . to perform the metropolitan functions of . . . . . . (here insert the title of each of the functions to be authorized as set forth in the petition or initial resolution).

YES □

NO □

If a majority of the persons voting on the proposition residing within the central city shall vote in favor thereof and a majority of the persons voting on the proposition residing in the metropolitan area outside of the central city shall vote in favor thereof, the metropolitan municipal corporation shall thereupon be established and the (board of commissioners) county legislative authority of the central county shall adopt a resolution setting a time and place for the first meeting of the metropolitan council which shall be held not later than (thirty) sixty days after the date of such election. A copy of such resolution shall be transmitted to the legislative body of each component city and county and of each special district which shall be affected by the particular metropolitan functions authorized.

At the same election there shall be submitted to the voters residing within the metropolitan area, for their approval or rejection, a proposition authorizing the metropolitan municipal corporation, if formed, to levy at the earliest time permitted by law on all taxable property located within the metropolitan municipal corporation a general tax, for one year, of twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in excess of any constitutional or statutory limitation for authorized purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation. The proposition shall be expressed on the ballots in substantially the following form:

"ONE YEAR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER THOUSAND DOLLARS OF ASSESSED VALUE LEVY"
Shall the metropolitan municipal corporation, if formed, levy a general tax of twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value for one year upon all the taxable property within said corporation in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limits for authorized purposes of the corporation?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Such proposition to be effective must be approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the persons voting on the proposition to levy such tax, with a forty percent validation requirement, in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state((as amended by Amendment 59 and as thereafter amended)).

Sec. 4. RCW 35.58.120 and 1983 c 92 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation have been assumed by a county as provided in chapter 36.56 RCW, a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be governed by a metropolitan council composed of (the following):

(1) One member (a) who shall be the elected county executive of the central county, or (b) if there shall be no elected county executive, one member who shall be selected by, and from, the board of commissioners of the central county.

(2) One additional member for each county commissioner district or county council district which shall contain fifteen thousand or more persons residing within the metropolitan municipal corporation, who shall be the county commissioner or county councilman from such district;

(3) One additional member selected by the board of commissioners or county council of each component county for each county commissioner district or county council district containing fifteen thousand or more persons residing in the unincorporated portion of such commissioner district lying within the metropolitan municipal corporation, each such appointee to be a resident of such unincorporated portion;

(4) One member from each component city which shall have a population of fifteen thousand or more persons, who shall be the mayor of such city, if such city shall have the mayor-council form of government, and in other cities shall be selected by, and from, the mayor and city council of each of such cities.

(5) One member representing all component cities which have less than fifteen thousand population each, to be selected by and from the mayors of such smaller cities in the following manner. The mayors of all such cities shall meet on or before July 1 of each even-numbered year at a time and place to be fixed by the metropolitan council. The chairperson of the metropolitan council shall preside. After nominations are made, successive ballots shall be taken until one candidate receives a majority of all votes cast.

(6) One additional member selected by the city council of each component city containing a population of fifteen thousand or more for each fifty thousand population over and above the first fifteen thousand, such members to be selected from such city council until all council members are selected and thereafter to be selected from other officers of such city.

(7) For any metropolitan municipal corporation which shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan water pollution abatement, two additional members who shall be commissioners of a sewer district or a water district which is operating a sewer system and is a component part of the metropolitan municipal corporation and shall participate only in those council actions which relate to the performance of the function of metropolitan water pollution abatement. The commissioners of all such sewer districts and water districts which are component parts of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall meet on the first Tuesday of the month following May 21, 1971 and thereafter on the second Tuesday of June of each even-numbered year at seven o’clock p.m. at the office of the board of county commissioners of the central county. After election of a chairman, nominations shall be made to select members to serve on the metropolitan council and successive ballots taken for each member until one candidate receives a majority of all votes cast. The two members so selected shall not be from districts whose boundaries come within ten miles of each other.

(8) One member, who shall be chairman of the metropolitan council, selected by the other members of the council. The member shall not hold any public office of or be an employee of any component city or component county of the metropolitan municipal corporation elected officials of the component counties and component cities, and possibly other persons, as determined by agreement of each of the component counties and the component cities in number to at least twenty-five percent of the total number of component cities that have at least seventy-five percent of the combined component city populations. The agreement shall remain in effect until altered in the same manner as the initial composition is determined.

Sec. 5. RCW 35.58.230 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.230 are each amended to read as follows:

If a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan water supply, the metropolitan council shall, prior to the effective date of the assumption of such function, cause a metropolitan water advisory committee to be formed by notifying the legislative body of each component city which operates a water system to appoint one person to serve on such advisory committee and the board of commissioners of each water district, any portion of which lies within the metropolitan area, to appoint one person to serve on such committee who shall be a water district commissioner. The metropolitan water advisory committee shall meet at the time and place provided in the notice and elect a chairman. The members of such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing bodies and shall receive no compensation other than reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties. The function of such advisory committee shall be to advise the metropolitan council with respect to matters relating to the performance of the water supply function.

The requirement to create a metropolitan water advisory committee shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Sec. 6. RCW 35.58.270 and 1967 c 105 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

If a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan transportation with a commission form of management, a metropolitan transit commission shall be formed prior to the effective date of the assumption of such function. Except as provided in this section, the metropolitan transit commission shall exercise all powers of the metropolitan municipal corporation with respect to metropolitan transportation facilities, including but not limited to the power to construct, acquire, maintain, operate, extend, alter, repair, control and manage a local public transportation system within and without the metropolitan area, to establish new passenger transportation services and to alter, curtail, or abolish any services as the commission may deem desirable and to fix tolls and fares. The comprehensive plan for public transportation service and any amendments thereof shall be adopted by the metropolitan council and the metropolitan transit commission shall provide transportation facilities and service consistent with such plan. The metropolitan transit commission shall authorize expenditures for transportation purposes within the budget adopted by the metropolitan council. Tolls and fares may be fixed or altered by the commission only after approval thereof by the metropolitan council. Bonds of the metropolitan municipal corporation for public transportation purposes shall be issued by the metropolitan council as provided in this chapter.

The metropolitan transit commission shall consist of seven members. Six of such members shall be appointed by the metropolitan council and the seventh member shall be the chairman of the metropolitan council who shall be ex officio the chairman of the metropolitan transit commission. Three of the six appointed members of the commission shall be residents of the central city and three shall be residents of the metropolitan area outside of the central city. The three central city members of the first metropolitan transit commission shall be selected from the existing transit commission of the central city, if there be a transit commission in such city. The terms of first appointees shall be for one, two, three, four, five and six years, respectively. Thereafter, commissioners shall serve for a term of four years. Compensation of transit commissioners shall be determined by the metropolitan council.

The requirement to create a metropolitan transit commission shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Sec. 7. RCW 35.58.300 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.300 are each amended to read as follows:

If a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be authorized to perform the function of metropolitan parks and parkways, a metropolitan park board shall be formed prior to the effective date of the assumption of such function. Except as provided in this section, the metropolitan park board shall exercise all powers of the metropolitan municipal corporation with respect to metropolitan park and parkway facilities.

The metropolitan park board shall authorize expenditures for park and parkway purposes within the budget adopted by the metropolitan council. Bonds of the metropolitan municipal corporation for park and parkway purposes shall be issued by the metropolitan council as provided in this chapter.

The metropolitan park board shall consist of five members appointed by the metropolitan council at least two of whom shall be residents of the central city. The terms of first appointees shall be for one, two, three, four and five years, respectively. Thereafter members shall serve for a term of four years. Compensation of park board members shall be determined by the metropolitan council.

The requirement to create a metropolitan park board shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Sec. 8. RCW 35.58.320 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.320 are each amended to read as follows:

A metropolitan municipal corporation shall have power to acquire by purchase and condemnation all lands and property rights, both within and without the metropolitan area, which are necessary for its purposes. Such right of eminent domain shall be exercised by the metropolitan council in the same manner and by the same procedure as is or may be provided by law for cities ((of the first class)), except insofar as such laws may be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Except as otherwise provided herein, a metropolitan municipal corporation may sell, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property acquired in connection with any authorized metropolitan function and which is no longer required for the purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation in the same manner as provided for cities ((of the first class)). When the metropolitan council determines that a metropolitan facility or any part thereof which has been acquired from a component city or county without compensation is no longer required for metropolitan purposes, but is required as a local facility by the city or county from which it was acquired, the metropolitan council shall by resolution transfer it to such city or county.

Sec. 9. RCW 35.58.340 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.340 are each amended to read as follows:

All the powers and functions of a metropolitan municipal corporation shall be vested in the metropolitan council unless expressly vested in specific officers, boards, or commissions by this chapter, or vested in the county legislative authority of a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation as provided in chapter 36.56 RCW. Without limitation of the foregoing authority, or of other powers given it by this chapter, the metropolitan council shall have the following powers:

1. To establish offices, departments, boards and commissions in addition to those provided by this chapter which are necessary to carry out the purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation, and to prescribe the functions, powers and duties thereof.

2. To appoint or provide for the appointment of, and to remove or to provide for the removal of, all officers and employees of the metropolitan municipal corporation except those whose appointment or removal is otherwise provided by this chapter.

3. To fix the salaries, wages and other compensation of all officers and employees of the metropolitan municipal corporation unless the same shall be otherwise fixed in this chapter.

4. To employ such engineering, legal, financial, or other specialized personnel as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of the metropolitan municipal corporation.

Sec. 11. RCW 35.58.410 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.410 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the third Monday in June of each year, each metropolitan municipal corporation shall adopt a budget for the following calendar year. Such budget shall include a separate section for each authorized metropolitan function. Expenditures shall be segregated as to operation and maintenance expenses and capital and betterment outlays. Administrative and other expense general to the corporation shall be allocated among the authorized metropolitan functions. The budget shall contain an estimate of all revenues to be collected during the following budget year, including any surplus funds remaining unexpended from the preceding year. The remaining funds required to meet budget expenditures, if any, shall be designated as "Supplemental income" and shall be obtained from the component cities and counties in the manner provided in this chapter. The metropolitan council shall not be required to confine capital or betterment expenditures made from bond proceeds or emergency expenditures to items provided in the budget. The affirmative vote of three-fourths of all members of the metropolitan council shall be required to authorize emergency expenditures.
(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW. This subsection (2) shall apply only to a county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW.

Each county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW shall, on or before the third Monday in June of each year, prepare an estimate of all revenues to be collected during the following calendar year, including any surplus funds remaining unexpended from the preceding year for each authorized metropolitan function.

By June 30 of each year, the county shall adopt the rate for sewage disposal that will be charged to component cities and sewer districts during the following calendar year.

As long as any general obligation indebtedness remains outstanding that was issued by the metropolitan municipal corporation prior to the assumption by the county, the county shall continue to impose the taxes authorized by RCW 82.14.045 and 35.58.273(5) at the maximum rates and on all of the taxable events authorized by law. If, despite the continued imposition of those taxes, the estimate of revenues made on or before the third Monday in June shows that estimated revenues will be insufficient to make all debt service payments falling due in the following calendar year on all general obligation indebtedness issued by the metropolitan municipal corporation prior to the assumption by the county of the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation, the remaining amount required to make the debt service payments shall be designated as "supplemental income" and shall be obtained from component cities and component counties as provided under RCW 35.58.420.

The county shall prepare and adopt a budget each year in accordance with applicable general law or county charter. If supplemental income has been designated under this subsection, the supplemental income shall be reflected in the budget that is adopted. If during the budget year the actual tax revenues from the taxes imposed under the authority of RCW 82.14.045 and 35.58.273(5) exceed the estimates upon which the supplemental income was based, the difference shall be refunded to the component cities and component counties in proportion to their payments promptly after the end of the budget year. A county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation prior to the assumption by the county of the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall not be required to confine capital or betterment expenditures for authorized metropolitan functions from bond proceeds or emergency expenditures to items provided in the budget.

Sec. 12. RCW 39.36.020 and 1971 ex.s. c 218 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided by law or in subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section, no taxing district shall for any purpose become indebted in any manner to an amount exceeding three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such taxing district without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness incurred at any time exceed one and one-fourth percent on the value of the taxable property therein.

(2) Counties, cities, towns, and hospital districts are limited to an indebtedness amount not exceeding three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such counties, cities, towns, or hospital districts without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose. In cases requiring such assent counties, cities, towns, and public hospital districts are limited to a total indebtedness of two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property therein. However, any county that has assumed the rights, powers, functions, and obligations of a metropolitan municipal corporation under chapter 36.56 RCW may become indebted to a larger amount for its authorized metropolitan functions, as provided under chapter 35.58 RCW, but not exceeding an additional three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in the county without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose, and in cases requiring such assent not exceeding an additional two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property in the county.

(3) School districts are limited to an indebtedness amount not exceeding three-eighths of one percent of the value of the taxable property in such district without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election held for that purpose. In cases requiring such assent school districts are limited to a total indebtedness of two and one-half percent of the value of the taxable property therein.

(4) No part of the indebtedness allowed in this chapter shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly county, city, town, school district, township, port district, metropolitan park district, or other municipal purposes: PROVIDED, That a city or town, with such assent, may become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding two and one-half percent additional, determined as herein provided, for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light, and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the city or town; and a city or town, with such assent, may become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding two and one-half percent additional for acquiring or developing open space and park facilities: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any school district may become indebted to a larger amount but not exceeding two and one-half percent additional for capital outlays.

(5) Such indebtedness may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions and the amount of such authority may exceed the amount of indebtedness which could then lawfully be incurred. Such indebtedness may be incurred in one or more series of bonds from time to time out of such authority but at no time shall the total general indebtedness of any taxing district exceed the above limitation.

The term "value of the taxable property" as used in this section shall have the meaning set forth in RCW 39.36.015.

Sec. 13. RCW 35.58.450 and 1984 c 186 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the limitations of chapter 39.36 RCW and any other statutory limitations otherwise applicable and limiting municipal debt, a metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds and to pledge the full faith and credit of the corporation to the payment thereof, for any authorized capital purpose of the metropolitan municipal corporation, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general indebtedness, equal to three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. A metropolitan municipal corporation may additionally contract indebtedness and issue general obligation bonds, for any authorized capital purpose of a metropolitan municipal corporation, together with any other outstanding general indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to five percent of the value of the taxable property within the corporation, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, when a proposition authorizing the indebtedness has been approved by three-fifths of the persons voting on said proposition at said election at which such election the total number of persons voting on such bond proposition shall constitute not less than forty percent of the total number of ((votes cast)) voters voting within the area of said metropolitan municipal corporation at the last preceding state general election. Such general obligation bonds may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions and the amount of such authorization may exceed the amount of bonds which could then lawfully be issued. Such bonds may be issued in two or more series from time to time out of such authorization. The elections shall be held pursuant to RCW 39.36.350.

Whenever the voters of a metropolitan municipal corporation have, pursuant to RCW 84.52.056, approved excess property tax levies to retire such bond issues, both the principal of and interest on such general obligation bonds may be made payable from annual tax levies to be made upon all the taxable property within the metropolitan municipal corporation in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limit. The principal of and interest on any general obligation bond may be made payable from any other taxes or any special assessments which the metropolitan municipal corporation may be authorized to levy or from any other undeployed revenue which may be derived from the ownership or operation of properties or facilities incident to the performance of the authorized function for which such bonds are issued or may be made payable from any combination of the foregoing sources. The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of such bond issue an amount for engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal, urban design and other services incident to acquisition or construction solely for authorized capital purposes ((and may include an amount to establish a guaranty fund for revenue bonds issued solely for capital purposes)).

General obligation bonds shall be issued and sold by the metropolitan council as provided in chapter 39.46 RCW and shall mature in not to exceed forty years from the date of issue.

Sec. 14. RCW 35.58.460 and 1983 c 167 s 48 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A metropolitan municipal corporation may authorize the issuance of revenue bonds to provide funds to carry out its authorized metropolitan water pollution abatement, water supply, garbage disposal or transportation purposes, without submitting the matter to the voters of the metropolitan municipal corporation. The metropolitan council shall create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the metropolitan council may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of the particular utility constructed, acquired, improved, added to, or repaired out of the proceeds of sale of such bonds, as the metropolitan council shall determine and may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of such utility or any other revenue, fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, rentals, special taxes or other sources of payment lawfully authorized for such purpose, as the metropolitan council shall determine. The principal of, and interest on, such bonds shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, and the owners of such bonds shall have a lien and charge against the gross revenue of such utility or any other revenue, fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, special taxes or other authorized sources pledged to the payment of such bonds.

Such revenue bonds and the interest thereon issued against such fund or funds shall be a valid claim of the owners thereof only as against such fund or funds and the revenue pledged therefor, and shall not constitute a general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation.

Each such revenue bond shall state upon its face that it is payable from such special fund or funds, and all revenue bonds issued under this chapter shall be negotiable securities within the provisions of the law of this state. Such revenue bonds may be registered either as to principal only or as to principal and interest as provided in RCW 39.46.030, or may be bearer bonds; shall be in such denominations as the metropolitan council shall deem proper; shall be payable at such time or times and at such places as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall bear interest at such rate or rates as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the metropolitan council, ((one)) any of which signatures may be ((facsimile signatures)), and the seal of the metropolitan council shall be impressed or imprinted thereon; any attached interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officials.

Such revenue bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such price and at such rate or rates of interest as the metropolitan council shall deem to be the best interests of the metropolitan municipal corporation, either at public or private sale.

The metropolitan council may at the time of the issuance of such revenue bonds make such covenants with the owners of said bonds as it may deem necessary to secure and guarantee the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, including but not being limited to covenants to set aside adequate reserves to secure or guarantee the payment of such principal and interest, to maintain rates sufficient to pay such principal and interest and to maintain adequate coverage over debt service, to appoint a trustee or trustees for the bond owners to safeguard the expenditure of the proceeds of sale of such bonds and to fix the powers and duties of such trustee or trustees and to make such other covenants as the metropolitan council may deem necessary to accomplish the most advantageous sale of such bonds. The metropolitan council may also provide that revenue bonds payable out of the same source may later be issued on a parity with revenue bonds being issued and sold.

The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of any such revenue bond issue an amount to establish necessary reserves, an amount for working capital and an amount necessary for interest during the period of construction of any such metropolitan facilities plus six months. The metropolitan council may, if it deems it to the best interest of the metropolitan municipal corporation, provide in any contract for the construction or acquisition of any metropolitan facilities or additions or improvements thereto or replacements or extensions thereof that payment therefor shall be made only in such revenue bonds at the par value thereof.

If the metropolitan municipal corporation shall fail to carry out or perform any of its obligations or covenants made in the authorization, issuance and sale of such bonds, the owner of any such bond may bring action against the metropolitan municipal corporation and compel the performance of any or all of such covenants.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

Sec. 15. RCW 35.58.490 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.490 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A metropolitan municipal corporation may be authorized to levy a general tax on all taxable property located within the metropolitan municipal corporation in the manner provided in this chapter, either at the time of the formation of the metropolitan municipal corporation or subsequently, the. A metropolitan council shall have the power to authorize the issuance of interest bearing warrants on such terms and conditions as the metropolitan council shall provide, (same to be repaid from the proceeds of such tax when collected) and to repay the interest bearing warrants with any moneys legally authorized for such purposes, including tax receipts where appropriate.

Sec. 16. RCW 35.58.500 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.500 are each amended to read as follows:
The metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to levy special assessments payable over a period of not exceeding twenty years on all property within the metropolitan area specially benefited by any improvement, on the basis of special benefits conferred, to pay in whole or in part, the damage or costs of any such improvement, and for such purpose may establish local improvement districts and enlarged local improvement districts, issue local improvement warrants and bonds to be repaid by the collection of local improvement assessments and generally to exercise with respect to any improvements which it may be authorized to construct or acquire the same powers as may now or hereafter be conferred by law upon cities (of the first class). Such local improvement districts shall be created and such special assessments levied and collected and local improvement warrants and bonds issued and sold in the same manner as shall now or hereafter be provided by law for cities (of the first class). The duties imposed upon the city treasurer under such acts shall be imposed upon the treasurer of the county in which such local improvement district shall be located.

A metropolitan municipal corporation may provide that special benefit assessments levied in any local improvement district may be paid into such revenue bond redemption fund or funds as may be designated by the metropolitan council to secure the payment of revenue bonds issued to provide funds to pay the cost of improvements for which such assessments were levied. If local improvement district assessments shall be levied for payment into a revenue bond fund, the local improvement district created therefor shall be designated a utility local improvement district. A metropolitan municipal corporation that creates a utility local improvement district shall conform with the laws relating to utility local improvement districts created by a city.

SEC. 17. RCW 35.58.520 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.520 are each amended to read as follows:

A metropolitan municipal corporation shall have the power to invest its funds held in reserves or sinking funds or any such funds which are not required for immediate disbursement, in property or securities in which mutual savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control any investments in which a city is authorized to invest, as provided in RCW 35.39.030.

Territory located within a component county that is annexed to a component city after the establishment of a metropolitan municipal corporation shall by such act be annexed to (such) the metropolitan municipal corporation. Territory within a metropolitan municipal corporation may be annexed to a city which is not within such metropolitan municipal corporation in the manner provided by law and in such event either (1) such city may be annexed to such metropolitan municipal corporation by ordinance of the legislative body of the city concurred in by resolution of the metropolitan council, or (2) if such city shall not be so annexed such territory shall remain within the metropolitan municipal corporation unless such city shall by resolution of its legislative body request the withdrawal of such territory subject to any outstanding indebtedness of the metropolitan corporation and the metropolitan council shall by resolution consent to such withdrawal.

Any territory located within a component county that is contiguous to a metropolitan municipal corporation and lying wholly within an incorporated city or town may be annexed to such metropolitan municipal corporation by ordinance of the legislative body of such city or town requiring such annexation concurred in by resolution of the metropolitan council. Any other territory located within a component county that is adjacent to a metropolitan municipal corporation may be annexed thereto by vote of the qualified electors residing in the territory to be annexed, in the manner provided in this chapter. An election to annex such territory may be called pursuant to a petition or resolution in the following manner:

(1) A petition calling for such an election shall be signed by at least four percent of the qualified voters residing within the territory to be annexed and shall be filed with the auditor of the central county.

(2) A resolution calling for such an election may be adopted by the metropolitan council.

Any resolution or petition calling for such an election shall describe the boundaries of the territory to be annexed, and state that the annexation of such territory to the metropolitan municipal corporation will be conducive to the welfare and benefit of the persons or property within the metropolitan municipal corporation and within the territory proposed to be annexed.

Upon receipt of such a petition, the auditor shall examine the same and certify to the sufficiency of the signatures thereon. (For the purpose of examining the signatures on such petition, the auditor shall be permitted access to the voter registration books of each city within the territory proposed to be annexed and of each county a portion of which shall be located within the territory proposed to be annexed. No person may withdraw his name from a petition after it has been filed with the auditor.) Within thirty days following the receipt of such petition, the auditor shall transmit the same to the metropolitan council, together with his certificate as to the sufficiency thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) RCW 35.58.118 and 1971 ex.s. c 303 s 4 & 1967 c 105 s 10;

(2) RCW 35.58.440 and 1965 c 7 s 35.58.440; and

(3) RCW 35A.57.010 and 1967 ex.s. c 119 s 35A.57.010.*

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1175, by Representatives Jacobsen, Dellwo, Dorn, J. Kohl, Brumsickle, Linville, Dunshee, Pruitt, Johanson, Wood, Leonard and Basich

Regarding the study of American Indian languages and cultures in the common schools.
Senator Pelz moved that the following Committee on Education amendment be adopted:

Motion: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 28A.150.220 and 1990 c 33 s 105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section and RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260:

(a) The term "total program hour offering" shall mean those hours when students are provided the opportunity to engage in educational activity planned by and under the direction of school district staff, as directed by the administration and board of directors of the district, inclusive of intermissions for class changes, recess and teacher/parent-guardian conferences which are planned and scheduled by the district for the purpose of discussing students' educational needs or progress, and exclusive of time actually spent for meals.

(b) "Instruction in work skills" shall include instruction in one or more of the following areas: Industrial arts, home and family life education, business and office education, distributive education, agricultural education, health occupations education, vocational education, trade and industrial education, technical education and career education.

(2) Satisfaction of the basic education goal identified in RCW 28A.150.210 shall be considered to be implemented by the following program requirements:

(a) Each school district shall make available to students in kindergarten at least a total program offering of four hundred fifty hours. The program shall include reading, arithmetic, language skills and such other subjects and such activities as the school board shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students enrolled in such program;

(b) Each school district shall make available to students in grades one through three, at least a total program hour offering of two thousand seven hundred hours. A minimum of ninety-five percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of reading/language arts (which may include foreign languages, including American Indian languages), mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. The remaining five percent of the total program hour offerings may include such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades;

(c) Each school district shall make available to students in grades four through six at least a total program hour offering of two thousand nine hundred seventy hours. A minimum of ninety percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of reading/language arts (which may include foreign languages, including American Indian languages), mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. The remaining ten percent of the total program hour offerings may include such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades;

(d) Each school district shall make available to students in grades seven through eight, at least a total program hour offering of one thousand two hundred forty hours. A minimum of eighty-five percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of reading/language arts (which may include foreign languages, including American Indian languages), mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. A minimum of ten percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the area of work skills. The remaining five percent of the total program hour offerings may include such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades;

(e) Each school district shall make available to students in grades nine through twelve at least a total program hour offering of four thousand three hundred hours. A minimum of sixty percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the basic skills areas of language arts, foreign languages, which may be American Indian languages, mathematics, social studies, science, music, art, health and physical education. A minimum of twenty percent of the total program hour offerings shall be in the area of work skills. The remaining twenty percent of the total program hour offerings may include traffic safety or such subjects and activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students in such grades, with not less than one-half thereof in basic skills and/or work skills: PROVIDED, That each school district shall have the option of including grade nine within the program hour offering requirements of grades seven and eight so long as such requirements for grades seven through nine are increased to two thousand nine hundred seventy hours and such requirements for grades ten through twelve are decreased to three thousand two hundred forty hours.

(3) In order to provide flexibility to the local school districts in the setting of their curricula, and in order to maintain the intent of this legislation, which is to stress the instruction of basic skills and work skills, any local school district may establish minimum course mix percentages that deviate by up to five percentage points above or below those minimums required by subsection (2) of this section, so long as the total program hour requirement is still met.

(4) Nothing contained in subsection (2) of this section shall be construed to require individual students to attend school for any particular number of hours per day or to take any particular courses.

(5) Each school district's kindergarten shall be accessible to all students who are five years of age, as provided by RCW 28A.225.160, and less than twenty-one years of age and shall consist of a minimum of one hundred eighty days of school per school year in such grades as are conducted by a school district, and one hundred eighty half-days of instruction, or equivalent, in kindergarten: PROVIDED, That effective May 1, 1979, a school district may schedule the last five school days of the one hundred and eighty day school year for noninstructional purposes in the case of students who are graduating from high school, including, but not limited to, the observance of graduation and early release from school upon the request of a student, and all such students may be claimed as a full time equivalent student to the extent they could otherwise have been so claimed for the purposes of RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260.

(6) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement and ensure compliance with the program requirements imposed by this section, RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260, and such related supplemental program approval requirements as the state board may establish: PROVIDED, That each school district board of directors shall establish the basis and means for determining and monitoring the district's compliance with the basic skills and work skills percentage and course requirements of this section. The certification of the board of directors and the superintendent of a school district that the district is in compliance with such basic skills and work skills requirements may be accepted by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education.

(7) Handicapped education programs, vocational-technical institute programs, state institution and state residential school programs, all of which programs are conducted for the common school age, kindergarten through secondary school program students encompassed by this section, shall be exempt from the basic skills and work skills percentage and course requirements of this section in order that the unique needs, abilities or limitations of such students may be met.

(8) Any school district may petition the state board of education for a reduction in the total program hour offering requirements for one or more of the grade level groupings specified in this section. The state board of education shall grant all such petitions that are accompanied by an assurance that the minimum total program hour offering requirements in one or more other grade level groupings will be exceeded concurrently by no less than the number of hours of the reduction.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.150.220 and 1992 c 141 s 503 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Satisfaction of the basic education program requirements identified in RCW 28A.150.210 shall be considered to be implemented by the following program:

(a) Each school district shall make available to students enrolled in kindergarten at least a total instructional offering of four hundred fifty hours. The program shall include instruction in the essential academic learning requirements under RCW 28A.630.885 and such other subjects and such activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students enrolled in such program.

(b) Each school district shall make available to students enrolled in grades one through twelve, at least a district-wide average total instructional hour offering of one thousand hours. The state board of education may define alternatives to classroom instructional time for students in grades nine through twelve enrolled in alternative learning experiences. The state board of education shall establish rules to determine annual average instructional hours for districts including fewer than twelve grades. The program shall include the essential academic learning requirements under RCW 28A.630.885 and such other subjects and such activities as the school district shall determine to be appropriate for the education of the school district's students enrolled in such group;

(c) If the essential academic learning requirements include a requirement of languages other than English, the requirement may be met by students receiving instruction in one or more American Indian languages.

(2) Nothing contained in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed to require individual students to attend school for any particular number of hours per day or to take any particular courses.

(3) Each school district's kindergarten through twelfth grade basic educational program shall be accessible to all students who are five years of age, as provided by RCW 28A.225.160, and less than twenty-one years of age and shall consist of a minimum of one hundred eighty school days per school year in such grades as are conducted by a school district, and one hundred eighty half-days of instruction, or equivalent, in kindergarten: PROVIDED, That effective May 1, 1979, a school district may schedule the last five school days of the one hundred and eighty day school year for noninstructional purposes in the case of students who are graduating from high school, including, but not limited to, the observance of graduation and early release from school upon the request of a student, and all such students may be claimed as a full time equivalent student to the extent they could otherwise have been so claimed for the purposes of RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260.

(4) The state board of education shall adopt rules to implement and ensure compliance with the program requirements imposed by this section, RCW 28A.150.250 and 28A.150.260, and such related supplemental program approval requirements as the state board may establish.

Sec. 3. RCW 28A.230.090 and 1992 c 141 s 402 and 1992 c 60 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The state board of education shall establish high school graduation requirements or equivalencies for students. Any course in Washington state history and government used to fulfill high school graduation requirements is encouraged to include information on the culture, history, and government of the American Indian peoples who were the first inhabitants of the state.

(2) In recognition of the statutory authority of the state board of education to establish and enforce minimum high school graduation requirements, the state board shall periodically reevaluate the graduation requirements and shall report such findings to the legislature in a timely manner as determined by the state board.

(3) Pursuant to any foreign language requirement established by the state board of education or a local school district, or both, for purposes of high school graduation, students who receive instruction in American sign language or one or more American Indian languages shall be considered to have satisfied the state or local school district foreign language graduation requirement.

(4) If requested by the student and his or her family, a student who has completed high school courses before attending high school shall be given high school credit which shall be applied to fulfilling high school graduation requirements if:

(a) The course was taken with high school students, if the academic level of the course exceeds the requirements for seventh and eighth grade classes, and the student has successfully passed by completing the same course requirements and examinations as the high school students enrolled in the class; or

(b) The academic level of the course exceeds the requirements for seventh and eighth grade classes and the course would qualify for high school credit, because the course is similar or equivalent to a course offered at a high school in the district as determined by the school district board of directors.

(5) Students who have taken and successfully completed high school courses under the circumstances in subsection (4) of this section shall not be required to take an additional competency examination or perform any other additional assignment to receive credit. Subsection (4) of this section shall also apply to students enrolled in high school on April 11, 1990, who took the courses before attending high school.

Sec. 4. RCW 28A.600.060 and 1991 c 116 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

The recipients of the Washington state honors awards shall be selected based on student achievement in both verbal and quantitative areas, as measured by a test or tests of general achievement selected by the superintendent of public instruction, and shall include student performance in the academic core areas of English, mathematics, science, social studies, and foreign languages, which may be American Indian languages. The performance level in such academic core subjects shall be determined by grade point averages, numbers of credits earned, and courses enrolled in during the beginning of the senior year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 2 of this act shall take effect September 1, 1998. However, section 2 of this act shall not take effect if, by September 1, 1998, a law is enacted stating that a school accountability and academic assessment system is not in place."
On motion of Senator Pelz, the following amendment to the Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

On page 5, beginning on line 10, strike "requirement of languages other than English" and insert "foreign language requirement."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Education striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed House Bill No. 1175.

The Committee on Education striking amendment, as amended, to Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "education," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 28A.150.220, 28A.150.220, and 28A.600.060; reenacting and amending RCW 28A.230.090; and providing a contingent effective date."

On motion of Senator Pelz, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Pelz, in the summary it references information included in history curriculum. Do we now, besides the reference to language of the Indian culture, have any history requirement changes with this bill?"

Senator Pelz: "No, any course in Washington State History and Government used to fulfill high school graduation requirements is encouraged to include information on the culture, history and government of the American Indian people."

Senator Anderson: "So, there is no change and mandate on curriculum?"

Senator Pelz: "Absolutely not."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1175, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; Nays, 2; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting yea: Senators Amundson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McCaslin, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sheldon, Skratke, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson and McDonald - 2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1175, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1014, by House Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick and Riley)

Updating uniform commercial code articles 1, 3, and 4.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"ARTICLE 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS
PART 2
GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERPRETATION

Sec. 1. RCW 62A.1-201 and 1992 c 134 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent Articles of this Title which are applicable to specific Articles or Parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this Title:

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.
(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances, including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this Title (RCW 62A.1-205 and RCW 62A.2-208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this Title, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (RCW 62A.1-103). (Compare "Contract").
(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.
(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.
(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.
(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.
(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its non-existence.
(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.
(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals: (as: NON-NEGOTIABLE BILL OF LADING) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous". Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.
(11) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.
(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.
(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.
(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper, or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.
(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.
(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.
(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this Title to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.
(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.
(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.
(20) "Holder" with respect to ((an instrument, certificated security, or document of title means the person in possession if (a) in the case of an instrument, it is payable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession, (b) in the case of a security, the person in possession is the registered owner, or the security has been indorsed to the person in possession by the registered owner, or the security is in bearer form, or (c) in the case of a document of title, the goods are deliverable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession)) a negotiable instrument, means the person in possession if the instrument is payable to bearer or, in the case of an instrument payable to a designated person, if the person identified in possession. "Holder" with respect to a document of title means the person in possession if the goods are deliverable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession.
(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.
(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.
(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.
(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government (or an intergovernmental organization) and includes a monetary unit of account established by an intergovernmental organization or by agreement between two or more nations.
(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when (a) he has actual knowledge of it; or (b) he has received a notice or notification of it; or (c) from all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists.
A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this Title.
(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when (a) it comes to his attention; or
(b) it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.
(27) Notice, a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.
(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.
(29) "Party", as distinct from "third party", means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this Title.
(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization (See RCW 62A.1-102).
(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.
(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, issue or re-issue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.
(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.
(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.
(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.
(36) "Rights" includes remedies.
(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation, except for lease-purchase agreements under chapter 63.19 RCW. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (RCW 62A.2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest". The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Article 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under RCW 62A.2-401 is not a "security interest", but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest" but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (RCW 62A.2-326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.
(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.
(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.
(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.
(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.
(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.
(43) "Unauthorized signature" means one made without actual, implied or apparent authority and includes a forgery.
(44) "Value": Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (RCW 62A.3-303, RCW 62A.4-208 and RCW 62A.4-209) a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or (b) as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a preexisting claim; or (c) by accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase; or (d) generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.
(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.
(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form.

Sec. 2. RCW 62A.1-207 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 1-207 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) A party who, with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice", "under protest" or the like are sufficient.
(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to an accord and satisfaction.

(d) In addition, Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this Article.

Sec. 6. RCW 62A.3-104 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-104 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any writing to be a negotiable instrument within this Article must

(a) be signed by the maker or drawer; and

(b) contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money and no other promise, order, obligation or power given by the maker or drawer except as authorized by this Article; and

(c) be payable on demand or at a definite time; and

(d) be payable to order or to bearer.

(2) A writing which complies with the requirements of this section is

(a) a "draft" (bill of exchange) if it is an order;

(b) a "check" if it is a check drawn on a bank and payable on demand;

(c) a "certificate of deposit" if it is an acknowledgment by a bank of receipt of money with an engagement to repay it;

(d) a "note" other than a certificate of deposit.

(3) As used in other Articles of this Title, and as the context may require, the terms "draft", "check", "certificate of deposit" and "note" may refer to instruments which are not negotiable within this Article as well as to instruments which are so negotiable.)
NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENT. (a) Except as provided in subsections (c) and (d), "negotiable instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a fixed amount of money, with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order, if it:

(1) is payable to bearer or to order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder;

(2) is payable on demand or at a definite time; and

(3) does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money, but the promise or order may contain (i) an undertaking or power to give, maintain, or protect collateral to secure payment, (ii) an authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize on or dispose of collateral, or (iii) a waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of an obligor.

(b) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument.

c) An order that meets all of the requirements of subsection (a), except subsection (a)(1), and otherwise falls within the definition of "check" in subsection (f) is a negotiable instrument and a check.

d) A promise or order other than a check is not an instrument if, at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder, it contains a conspicuous statement, however expressed, to the effect that the promise or order is not negotiable or is not an instrument governed by this Article.

e) An instrument is a "note" if it is a promise and is a "draft" if it is an order. If an instrument falls within the definition of both "note" and "draft," a person entitled to enforce the instrument may treat it as either.

(f) "Check" means (i) a draft, other than a documentary draft, payable on demand and drawn on a bank, or (ii) a cashier's check or teller's check. An instrument may be a check even though it is described on its face by another term, such as "money order."

g) "Cashier's check" means a draft with respect to which the drawer and drawee are the same bank or branches of the same bank.

(h) "Teller's check" means a draft drawn by a bank (i) on another bank, or (ii) payable at or through a bank.

(i) "Traveler's check" means an instrument that (i) is payable on demand, (ii) is drawn on or payable at or through a bank, (iii) is designated by the term "traveler's check" or by a substantially similar term, and (iv) requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the instrument.

(j) "Certificate of deposit" means an instrument containing an acknowledgment by a bank that a sum of money has been received by the bank and a promise by the bank to repay the sum of money. A certificate of deposit is a note of the bank.

Sec. 7. RCW 62A.3-105 and 1965 ex.s. c 157’s 3-105 are each amended to read as follows:

WHEN PROMISE OR ORDER UNCONDITIONAL. (1) A promise or order otherwise unconditional is not made conditional by the fact that the instrument

(a) is subject to implied or constructive conditions; or

(b) states its consideration, whether performed or promised, or the transaction which gave rise to the instrument, or that the promise or order is made or the instrument matures in accordance with or "as per" such transaction; or

(c) refers to or states that it arises out of a separate agreement or refers to a separate agreement for rights as to prepayment or acceleration; or

(d) states that it is drawn under a letter of credit; or

(e) states that it is secured, whether by mortgage, reservation of title or otherwise; or

(f) indicates a particular account to be debited or any other fund or source from which reimbursement is expected; or

(g) is limited to payment out of a particular fund or the proceeds of a particular source, if the instrument is issued by a government or governmental agency or unit; or

(h) is limited to payment out of the entire assets of a partnership, unincorporated association, trust or estate by or on behalf of which the instrument is issued.

(2) A promise or order is not unconditional if the instrument

(a) states that it is subject to or governed by any other agreement; or

(b) states that it is to be paid only out of a particular fund or source except as provided in this section.)

ISSUE OF INSTRUMENT. (a) "Issue" means the first delivery of an instrument by the maker or drawer, whether to a holder or nonholder, for the purpose of giving rights on the instrument to any person.

(b) An unissued instrument, or an unissued incomplete instrument that is completed, is binding on the maker or drawer, but nonissuance is a defense. An instrument that is conditionally issued or is issued for a special purpose is binding on the maker or drawer, but failure of the condition or special purpose to be fulfilled is a defense.

(c) "Issuer" applies to issued and unissued instruments and means a maker or drawer of an instrument.

Sec. 8. RCW 62A.3-105 and 1989 c 13’s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(SUM CERTAIN. DEFINITIONS. (1) The sum payable is a sum certain even though it is to be paid

(a) with stated interest or by stated installments; or

(b) with stated different rates of interest before and after default or a specified date; or

(c) with a stated discount or addition if paid before or after the date fixed for payment; or

(d) with exchange or less exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or

(e) with costs of collection or an attorney’s fee or both upon default.

(2) A rate of interest that cannot be calculated by looking only to the instrument is a stated rate of interest in subsection (1) of this section if the rate during any period is readily ascertainable by a reference in the instrument to a published statute, regulation, rule of court, generally accepted commercial or financial index, compendium of interest rates, or announced or established rate of one or more named financial institutions.

(3) Graduated, variable, annuity or price-level adjusted payments are stated installments in subsection (1) of this section if such payments are provided for in the instrument.

(4) Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal.)

UNCONDITIONAL PROMISE OR ORDER. (a) Except as provided in this section, for the purposes of RCW 62A.3-104(a), a promise or order is unconditional unless it states (i) an express condition to payment, (ii) that the promise or order is subject to or governed by another writing, or (iii) that rights or obligations with respect to the promise or order are stated in another writing. A reference to another writing does not of itself make the promise or order unconditional.
(b) A promise or order is not made conditional (i) by a reference to another writing for a statement of rights with respect to collateral, prepayment, or acceleration, or (ii) because payment is limited to resort to a particular fund or source.

Sec. 9. RCW 62A.3-107 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-107 are each amended to read as follows:

"MONEY... (1) An instrument is payable in money if the medium of exchange in which it is payable is money at the time the instrument is made. An instrument payable in "currency" or "current funds" is payable in money.

(2) A promise or order to pay a sum stated in a foreign currency is for a sum certain in money and, unless a different medium of payment is specified in the instrument, may be satisfied by payment of that number of dollars which the stated foreign currency would purchase at the buying sight rate for that currency on the day on which the instrument is payable or, if payable on demand, on the day of demand. If such an instrument specifies a foreign currency as the medium of payment the instrument is payable in that currency.

INSTRUMENT PAYABLE IN FOREIGN MONEY. Unless the instrument otherwise provides, an instrument that states the amount payable in foreign money may be paid in the foreign money or in an equivalent amount in dollars calculated by using the current bank-offered spot rate at the place of payment for the purchase of dollars on the day on which the instrument is paid.

Sec. 10. RCW 62A.3-108 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-108 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYABLE ON DEMAND OR AT DEFINITE TIME. (a) A promise or order is "payable on demand" if it (i) states that it is payable on demand or at sight, or otherwise indicates that it is payable at the will of the holder, or (ii) does not state any time of payment.

(b) A promise or order is "payable at a definite time" if it is payable on elapse of a definite period of time after sight or acceptance or at a fixed date or dates or at a time or times readily ascertainable at the time the promise or order is issued, subject to rights of prepayment, (ii) acceleration at the option of the holder, or (iv) extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

(c) If an instrument, payable at a fixed date, is also payable upon demand made before the fixed date, the instrument is payable on demand until the fixed date and, if demand for payment is not made before that date, becomes payable at a definite time on the fixed date.

Sec. 11. RCW 62A.3-109 and 1989 c 13 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

DEFINITE TIME. (1) An instrument is payable at a definite time if by its terms it is payable:

(a) on or before a stated date or at a fixed period after a stated date, or
(b) at a fixed period after sight, or
(c) at a definite time subject to any acceleration; or
(d) at a definite time subject to extension at the option of the maker, or acceptor, or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

(e) by variable, graduated, annuity, or price level adjusted payments,

(f) by variable, graduated, annuity, or price level adjusted payments,

(g) by variable, graduated, annuity, or price level adjusted payments.

(2) An instrument which by its terms is otherwise payable only upon an act or event uncertain as to time of occurrence is not payable at a definite time even though the act or event has occurred.

PAYABLE TO BEARER OR TO ORDER. (a) A promise or order is payable to bearer if it:

(1) States that it is payable to bearer or to the order of bearer or otherwise indicates that the person in possession of the promise or order is entitled to payment;

(2) Does not state a payee; or

(3) States that it is payable to or to the order of cash or otherwise indicates that it is not payable to an identified person.

(b) A promise or order that is not payable to bearer is payable to order if it is payable (i) to the order of an identified person or (ii) to an identified person or order. A promise or order that is payable to order is payable to the identified person.

(c) An instrument payable to bearer may become payable to an identified person if it is specially indorsed pursuant to RCW 62A.3-205(a). An instrument payable to an identified person may become payable to bearer if it is indorsed in blank pursuant to RCW 62A.3-205(b).

Sec. 12. RCW 62A.3-110 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-110 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYABLE TO ORDER. (1) An instrument is payable to order when by its terms it is payable to the order or assigns of any person therein specified with reasonable certainty, or to him or his order, or when it is conspicuously designated on its face as "exchange" or the like and names a payee. It may be payable to the order of:

(a) the maker or drawer, or
(b) the drawer, or
(c) a payee who is not maker, drawer or drawer, or
(d) two or more payees together or in the alternative, or
(e) an estate, trust or fund, in which case it is payable to the order of the representative of such estate, trust or fund or his successors, or
(f) an officer, or an officer by his title as such in which case it is payable to the principal but the incumbent of the office or his successors may act as if he or they were the holder, or
(g) a partnership or unincorporated association, in which case it is payable to the partnership or association and may be indorsed or transferred by any person thereto authorized.
IDENTIFICATION OF PERSON TO WHOM INSTRUMENT IS PAYABLE. (a) The person to whom an instrument is initially payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as, or in the name or behalf of, the issuer of the instrument. The instrument is payable to the person intended by the signer even if that person is identified in the instrument by a name or other identification that is not that of the intended person. If more than one person signs in the name or behalf of the issuer of an instrument and all the signers do not intend the same person as payee, the instrument is payable to any person intended by one or more of the signers.

(b) If the signature of the issuer of an instrument is made by automated means, such as a check-writing machine, the payee of the instrument is determined by the intent of the person who supplied the name or identification of the payee, whether or not authorized to do so.

(c) A person to whom an instrument is payable may be identified in any way, including by name, identifying number, office, or account number. For the purpose of determining the holder of an instrument, the following rules apply:

1. If an instrument is payable to an account and the account is identified only by number, the instrument is payable to the person to whom the account is payable. If an instrument is payable to an account identified by number and by the name of a person, the instrument is payable to the named person, whether or not that person is the owner of the account identified by number.

2. If an instrument is payable to:
   (i) A trust, an estate, or a person described as trustee or representative of a trust or estate, the instrument is payable to the trustee, the representative, or a successor of either, whether or not the beneficiary or estate is also named;
   (ii) A person described as agent or similar representative of a named or identified person, the instrument is payable to the represented person, the representative, or a successor of the representative;
   (iii) A fund or organization that is not a legal entity, the instrument is payable to a representative of the members of the fund or organization;
   (iv) An office or to a person described as holding an office, the instrument is payable to the named person, the incumbent of the office, or a successor to the incumbent.

(d) If an instrument is payable to two or more persons alternatively, it is payable to any of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced by any or all of them in possession of the instrument. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons not alternatively, it is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced only by all of them. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.

PLACE OF PAYMENT. Except as otherwise provided for items in Article 4, an instrument is payable at the place of payment stated in the instrument. If no place of payment is stated, an instrument is payable at the address of the drawee or maker stated in the instrument. If no address is stated, the place of payment is the place of business of the drawee or maker. If a drawee or maker has more than one place of business, the place of payment is any place of business of the drawee or maker chosen by the person entitled to enforce the instrument. If the drawee or maker has no place of business, the place of payment is the residence of the drawee or maker.

ROW 62A.3-111 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-111 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYABLE TO BEARER. An instrument is payable to bearer when by its terms it is payable to a bearer or the order of bearer, or a specified person or bearer, or cash or the order of cash, or any other indication which does not purport to designate a specific payee.

IDENTIFICATION OF PERSON TO WHOM INSTRUMENT IS PAYABLE.

(a) The person to whom an instrument is initially payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as, or in the name or behalf of, the issuer of the instrument. The instrument is payable to the person intended by the signer even if that person is identified in the instrument by a name or other identification that is not that of the intended person. If more than one person signs in the name or behalf of the issuer of an instrument and all the signers do not intend the same person as payee, the instrument is payable to any person intended by one or more of the signers.

(b) If the signature of the issuer of an instrument is made by automated means, such as a check-writing machine, the payee of the instrument is determined by the intent of the person who supplied the name or identification of the payee, whether or not authorized to do so.

(c) A person to whom an instrument is payable may be identified in any way, including by name, identifying number, office, or account number. For the purpose of determining the holder of an instrument, the following rules apply:

1. If an instrument is payable to an account and the account is identified only by number, the instrument is payable to the person to whom the account is payable. If an instrument is payable to an account identified by number and by the name of a person, the instrument is payable to the named person, whether or not that person is the owner of the account identified by number.

2. If an instrument is payable to:
   (i) A trust, an estate, or a person described as trustee or representative of a trust or estate, the instrument is payable to the trustee, the representative, or a successor of either, whether or not the beneficiary or estate is also named;
   (ii) A person described as agent or similar representative of a named or identified person, the instrument is payable to the represented person, the representative, or a successor of the representative;
   (iii) A fund or organization that is not a legal entity, the instrument is payable to a representative of the members of the fund or organization;
   (iv) An office or to a person described as holding an office, the instrument is payable to the named person, the incumbent of the office, or a successor to the incumbent.

(d) If an instrument is payable to two or more persons alternatively, it is payable to any of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced by any or all of them in possession of the instrument. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons not alternatively, it is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced only by all of them. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.

ROW 62A.3-112 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-112 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYABLE TO BEARER. An instrument is payable to bearer when by its terms it is payable to a bearer or the order of bearer, or a specified person or bearer, or cash or the order of cash, or any other indication which does not purport to designate a specific payee.

IDENTIFICATION OF PERSON TO WHOM INSTRUMENT IS PAYABLE.

(a) The person to whom an instrument is initially payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as, or in the name or behalf of, the issuer of the instrument. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.

Sec. 15.

ROW 62A.3-113 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-113 are each amended to read as follows:

IDENTIFICATION OF PERSON TO WHOM INSTRUMENT IS PAYABLE.

(a) The person to whom an instrument is initially payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as, or in the name or behalf of, the issuer of the instrument. The instrument is payable to the person intended by the signer even if that person is identified in the instrument by a name or other identification that is not that of the intended person. If more than one person signs in the name or behalf of the issuer of an instrument and all the signers do not intend the same person as payee, the instrument is payable to any person intended by one or more of the signers.

(b) If the signature of the issuer of an instrument is made by automated means, such as a check-writing machine, the payee of the instrument is determined by the intent of the person who supplied the name or identification of the payee, whether or not authorized to do so.

(c) A person to whom an instrument is payable may be identified in any way, including by name, identifying number, office, or account number. For the purpose of determining the holder of an instrument, the following rules apply:

1. If an instrument is payable to an account and the account is identified only by number, the instrument is payable to the person to whom the account is payable. If an instrument is payable to an account identified by number and by the name of a person, the instrument is payable to the named person, whether or not that person is the owner of the account identified by number.

2. If an instrument is payable to:
   (i) A trust, an estate, or a person described as trustee or representative of a trust or estate, the instrument is payable to the trustee, the representative, or a successor of either, whether or not the beneficiary or estate is also named;
   (ii) A person described as agent or similar representative of a named or identified person, the instrument is payable to the represented person, the representative, or a successor of the representative;
   (iii) A fund or organization that is not a legal entity, the instrument is payable to a representative of the members of the fund or organization;
   (iv) An office or to a person described as holding an office, the instrument is payable to the named person, the incumbent of the office, or a successor to the incumbent.

(d) If an instrument is payable to two or more persons alternatively, it is payable to any of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced by any or all of them in possession of the instrument. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons not alternatively, it is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced only by all of them. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.
Sec. 16. RCW 62A.3-114 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-114 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) As agent or officer of a specified person is payable to his principal but the agent or officer may act as if he were the holder;

(b) as any other fiduciary for a specified person or purpose is payable to the payee and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by him;

(c) in any other manner is payable to the payee unconditionally and the additional words are without effect on subsequent parties.

OTHER AGREEMENTS AFFECTING INSTRUMENT. Subject to applicable law regarding exclusion of proof of contemporaneous or previous agreements, the obligation of a party to an instrument to pay the instrument may be modified, supplemented, or nullified by a separate agreement of the obligor and a person entitled to enforce the instrument, if the instrument is issued or the obligation is incurred in reliance on the agreement or as part of the same transaction giving rise to the agreement. To the extent an obligation is modified, supplemented, or nullified by an agreement under this section, the agreement is a defense to the obligation.

Sec. 20. RCW 62A.3-118 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-118 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) Where there is doubt whether the instrument is a draft or a note the holder may treat it as either. A draft drawn on the drawer is effective as a note.

(b) Handwritten terms control typewritten and printed terms, and typewritten control printed.

(c) Words control figures except that if the words are ambiguous figures control.

(d) Unless otherwise specified a provision for interest means interest at the judgment rate at the place of payment from the date of the instrument, or if it is undated from the date of issue.

(e) Unless the instrument otherwise specifies two or more persons who sign as maker, acceptor or drawer or indorser and as a part of the same transaction are jointly and severally liable even though the instrument contains such words as "I promise to pay."

(f) Unless otherwise specified consent to extension authorizes a single extension for not longer than the original period. A consent to extension, expressed in the instrument, is binding on secondary parties and accommodation makers. A holder may not exercise his option to extend an instrument over the objection of a maker or acceptor or other party who in accordance with RCW 62A.3-604 tenders full payment when the instrument is due.)

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. (a) Except as provided in subsection (e), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay a note payable at a definite time must be commenced within six years after the due date or dates stated in the note or, if a due date is accelerated, within six years after the accelerated due date.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (d) or (e), if demand for payment is made to the maker of a note payable on demand, an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the note must be commenced within six years after the demand. If no demand for payment is made to the maker, an action to enforce the note is barred if neither principal nor interest on the note has been paid for a continuous period of ten years.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (d), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to an unaccepted draft to pay the draft must be commenced within three years after dishonor of the draft or ten years after the date of the draft, whichever period expires first.

(d) An action to enforce the obligation of the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a teller's check, cashier's check, or traveler's check must be commenced within three years after demand for payment is made to the acceptor or issuer, as the case may be.

(e) An action to enforce the obligation of a party to a certificate of deposit to pay the instrument must be commenced within six years after demand for payment is made to the maker, but if the instrument states a due date and the maker is not required to pay before that date, the six-year period begins when a demand for payment is in effect and the due date has passed.

(f) An action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay an accepted draft, other than a certified check, must be commenced (i) within six years after the due date or dates stated in the draft or acceptance if the obligation of the acceptor is payable at a definite time, or (ii) within six years after the date of the acceptance if the obligation of the acceptor is payable on demand.

(g) Unless governed by other law regarding claims for indemnity or contribution, an action (i) for conversion of an instrument, for money had and received, or like action based on conversion, (ii) for breach of warranty, or (iii) to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this Article and not governed by this section must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

Sec. 21. RCW 62A.3-119 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-119 are each amended to read as follows:

OTHER WRITINGS AFFECTING INSTRUMENT.

(1) As between the obligor and his immediate obligee or any transferee the terms of an instrument may be modified or affected by any other written agreement executed as a part of the same transaction, except that a holder in due course is not affected by any limitation of his rights arising out of the separate written agreement if he had no notice of the limitation when he took the instrument.

(2) A separate agreement does not affect the negotiability of an instrument).

NOTICE.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO DEFEND ACTION. In an action for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over pursuant to this Article or Article 4, the defendant may give the third person written notice of the litigation, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over. If the notice states (i) that the person notified may come in and defend and (ii) that failure to do so will bind the person notified in an action later brought by the person giving the notice as to any determination of fact common to the two litigations, the person notified is so bound unless after reasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend.

PART 2

NEGOTIATION, TRANSFER, AND (NEGOTIATION) INDORSEMENT

Sec. 22. RCW 62A.3-201 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-201 are each amended to read as follows:

TRANSFER.

TRANSFER.

(1) Transfer of an instrument vests in the transferee such rights as the transferor has therein, except that a transferee who has himself been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument or who as a prior holder had notice of a defense or claim against it cannot improve his position by taking from a later holder in due course.

(2) A transfer of a security interest in an instrument vests the foregoing rights in the transferee to the extent of the interest transferred.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed any transfer for value of an instrument not then payable to bearer gives the transferee the specifically enforceable right to have the unpaid residue.

NEGOTIATION. (a) "Negotiation" means a transfer of possession, whether voluntary or involuntary, of an instrument by a person other than the issuer to a person thereby becomes its holder.

(b) Except for negotiation by a remitter, if an instrument is payable to an identified person, negotiation requires transfer of possession of the instrument and its indorsement by the holder. If an instrument is payable to bearer, it may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone.

Sec. 23. RCW 62A.3-202 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-202 are each amended to read as follows:

NEGOTIATION.

(1) Negotiation is the transfer of an instrument in such form that the transferee becomes a holder—If the instrument is payable to order it is negotiated by delivery with any necessary indorsement; if payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery.

(2) An indorsement must be written by or on behalf of the holder and on the instrument or on a paper so firmly affixed thereto as to become a part thereof.

(3) An indorsement is effective for negotiation only when it conveys the entire instrument or any unpaid residue. If it purports to be of less it operates only as a partial assignment.

(4) Words of assignment, condition, waiver, guaranty, limitation or disclaimer of liability and the like accompanying an indorsement do not affect its character as an indorsement.

NEGOTIATION SUBJECT TO RESCISSION. (a) Negotiation is effective even if obtained (i) from an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or a person without capacity, (ii) by fraud, duress, or mistake, or (iii) in breach of duty or as part of an illegal transaction.
(b) To the extent permitted by other law, negotiation may be rescinded or may be subject to other remedies, but those remedies may not be asserted against a subsequent holder in due course or a person paying the instrument in good faith and without knowledge of facts that are a basis for rescission or other remedy.

Sec. 24. RCW 62A.3-203 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-203 are each amended to read as follows:

(WRONG OR MISSPELLED NAME. Where an instrument is made payable to a person under a misspelled name or one other than his own he may indorse in that name or his own or both; but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or giving value for the instrument.)

TRANSFER OF INSTRUMENT: RIGHTS ACQUIRED BY TRANSFER. (a) An instrument is transferred when it is delivered by a person other than its issuer for the purpose of giving to the person receiving delivery the right to enforce the instrument.

(b) Transfer of an instrument, whether or not the transfer is a negotiation, vests in the transferee any right of the transferor to enforce the instrument, including any right as a holder in due course, but the transferee cannot acquire rights of a holder in due course by a transfer, directly or indirectly, from a holder in due course if the transferee engaged in fraud or illegally affecting the instrument.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed, if an instrument is transferred for value and the transferee does not become a holder because of lack of indorsement by the transferor, the transferee has a specifically enforceable right to the unqualified indorsement of the transferor, but negotiation of the instrument does not occur until the indorsement is made.

(d) If a transferor purports to transfer less than the entire instrument, negotiation of the instrument does not occur. The transferee obtains no rights under this Article and has only the rights of a partial assignee.

Sec. 25. RCW 62A.3-204 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-204 are each amended to read as follows:

(SPECIAL INDORSEMENT; BLANK INDORSEMENT. (1) A special indorsement specifies the person to whom or to whose order the instrument becomes payable. Any instrument specially indorsed becomes payable to the order of the special indorsee and may be further negotiated only by his indorsement.

(b) An indorsement in blank specifies no particular indorsee and may consist of a mere signature. An instrument payable to order and indorsed in blank becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery alone until specially indorsed.

(c) The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.)

INDORSEMENT. (a) "Indorsement" means a signature, other than that of a signer as maker, drawer, or acceptor, that alone or accompanied by other words is made on an instrument for the purpose of (i) negotiating the instrument, (ii) restricting payment of the instrument, or (iii) incurring indorser’s liability on the instrument, but regardless of the intent of the signer, a signature and its accompanying words are a basis for indorsement unless terms of the instrument, place of the signature, or other circumstances unambiguously indicate that the signature was made for a purpose other than indorsement.

(b) "Indorser" means a person who makes an indorsement.

(c) For the purpose of determining whether the transferee of an instrument is a holder, an indorsement that transfers a security interest in the instrument is effective as an unqualified indorsement of the instrument.

(d) If an instrument is payable to a holder under a name that is not the name of the holder, indorsement may be made by the holder in the name stated in the instrument or in the holder’s name or both, but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or taking the instrument for value or collection.

Sec. 26. RCW 62A.3-205 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-205 are each amended to read as follows:

(REstrictive Indorsements. An indorsement is restrictive which either

(a) is conditional; or

(b) purports to prohibit further transfer of the instrument; or

(c) includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms signifying a purpose of deposit or collection; or

(d) otherwise states that it is for the benefit or use of the indorser or of another person.)

SPECIAL INDORSEMENT; BLANK INDORSEMENT; ANOMALOUS INDORSEMENT. (a) If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument, whether payable to an identified person or payable to bearer, and the indorsement identifies a person to whom it makes the instrument payable, it is a "special indorsement." When specially indorsed, an instrument becomes payable to the identified person and may be negotiated only by the indorsement of that person. The principles stated in RCW 62A.3-110 apply to special indorsements.

(b) If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument and it is not a special indorsement, it is a "blank indorsement." When indorsed in blank, an instrument becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone or specially indorsed.

(c) The holder may convert a blank indorsement that consists only of a signature into a special indorsement by writing, above the signature of the indorser, words identifying the person to whom the instrument is made payable.

(d) "Anomalous indorsement" means an indorsement made by a person who is not the holder of the instrument. An anomalous indorsement does not affect the manner in which the instrument may be negotiated.

Sec. 27. RCW 62A.3-206 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-206 are each amended to read as follows:

(Effect of Restrictive Indorsement. (1) No restrictive indorsement prevents further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.

(2) An intermediary bank, or a payor bank which is not the depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherw

(e) (* Add the following: "(3) Except for an intermediary bank, any transferee under an indorsement which is conditional or includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms (subparagraphs (a) and (c) of RCW 62A.3-205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value. In addition such transferee is a holder in due course if he otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.

(4) The first taker under an indorsement for the benefit of the indorser or another person (subparagraph (d) of RCW 62A.3-205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and..." to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value. In addition such taker is a holder in due course if he otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course. A later holder for value is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by such restrictive indorsement unless he has knowledge that a fiduciary or other person has negotiated the instrument in any transaction for his own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty (subsection (2) of RCW 62A.3-304).)

RESTRICTIVE INDORESEMENT. (a) An indorsement limiting payment to a particular person or otherwise prohibiting further transfer or negotiation of the instrument is not effective to prevent further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.
(b) An indorsement stating a condition to the right of the indorsee to receive payment does not affect the right of the indorsee to enforce the instrument. A person paying the instrument or taking it for value or collection may disregard the condition, and the rights and liabilities of that person are not affected by whether the condition has been fulfilled.
(c) If an instrument bears an indorsement (i) described in RCW 62A.4-201(b), or (ii) in blank or to a particular bank using the words "for deposit," "for collection," or other words indicating a purpose of having the instrument collected by a bank for the indorser or for a particular account, the following rules apply:
   (1) A person, other than a bank, who purchases the instrument when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid for the instrument is received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.
   (2) A depositary bank that purchases the instrument or takes it for collection when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the amount paid by the bank with respect to the instrument is received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.
   (3) A payor bank that is also the depositary bank or that takes the instrument for immediate payment over the counter from a person other than a collecting bank converts the instrument unless the proceeds of the instrument are received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.
   (4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c)(3), a payor bank or intermediary bank may disregard the indorsement and is not liable if the proceeds of the instrument are not received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.
   (d) Except for an indorsement covered by subsection (c), if an instrument bears an indorsement using words to the effect that payment is to be made to the indorsee as agent, trustee, or other fiduciary for the benefit of the indorser or another person, the following rules apply:
      (1) Unless there is notice of breach of fiduciary duty as provided in RCW 62A.3-307, a person who purchases the instrument from the indorsee or takes the instrument from the indorsee for collection or payment may pay the proceeds of payment or the value given for the instrument to the indorsee without regard to whether the indorsee violates a fiduciary duty to the indorser.
      (2) A subsequent transferee of the instrument or person who pays the instrument is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by the restriction in the indorsement unless the transferee or payor knows that the fiduciary dealt with the instrument or its proceeds in breach of fiduciary duty.
   (e) The presence on an instrument of an indorsement to which this section applies does not prevent a purchaser of the instrument from becoming a holder in due course of the instrument unless the purchaser is a converter under subsection (c) or has notice or knowledge of breach of fiduciary duty as stated in subsection (d).
   (f) In an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor has a defense if payment would violate an indorsement to which this section applies and the payment is not permitted by this section.

Sec. 28. RCW 62A.3-207 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-207 are each amended to read as follows:

"NEGOTIATION EFFECTIVE ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE RESCINDED." (1) Negotiation is effective to transfer the instrument although the negotiation is
   (a) made by an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or any other person without capacity; or
   (b) obtained by fraud, duress or mistake of any kind; or
   (c) part of an illegal transaction; or
   (d) made in breach of duty.

(2) Except as against a subsequent holder in due course such negotiation is in an appropriate case subject to rescission, the declaration of a constructive trust or any other remedy permitted by law.

REACQUISITION. Reacquisition of an instrument occurs if it is transferred to a former holder, by negotiation or otherwise. A former holder who reacquires the instrument may cancel indorsements made after the reacquirer first became a holder of the instrument. If the cancellation causes the instrument to be payable to the reacquirer or to bearer, the reacquirer may negotiate the instrument. An indorser whose indorsement is canceled is discharged, and the discharge is effective against any subsequent holder.

PART 3

(RIGHTS OF A HOLDER) ENFORCEMENT OF INSTRUMENTS

Sec. 29. RCW 62A.3-301 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-301 are each amended to read as follows:

"PERSON ENTITLED TO ENFORCE INSTRUMENT. "Person entitled to enforce" an instrument means (i) the holder of the instrument, (ii) a nonholder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or (iii) a person not in possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument pursuant to RCW 62A.3-309 (section 37 of this act) or 62A.3-418(d). A person may be a person entitled to enforce the instrument even though the person is not the owner of the instrument or is in wrongful possession of the instrument.

Sec. 30. RCW 62A.3-302 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-302 are each amended to read as follows:

"HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. "((1) A holder in due course is a holder who takes the instrument (a) for value; and
(b) in good faith; and
(c) without notice that it is overdue or has been dishonored or of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person.

(2) A payee may be a holder in due course.

"Person entitled to enforce" an instrument means (i) the holder of the instrument, (ii) a nonholder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or (iii) a person not in possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument pursuant to RCW 62A.3-309 (section 37 of this act) or 62A.3-418(d). A person may be a person entitled to enforce the instrument even though the person is not the owner of the instrument or is in wrongful possession of the instrument.

"NEGOTIATION EFFECTIVE ALTHOUGH IT MAY BE RESCINDED." (1) Negotiation is effective to transfer the instrument although the negotiation is
   (a) made by an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or any other person without capacity; or
   (b) obtained by fraud, duress or mistake of any kind; or
   (c) part of an illegal transaction; or
   (d) made in breach of duty.

(2) Except as against a subsequent holder in due course such negotiation is in an appropriate case subject to rescission, the declaration of a constructive trust or any other remedy permitted by law.

REACQUISITION. Reacquisition of an instrument occurs if it is transferred to a former holder, by negotiation or otherwise. A former holder who reacquires the instrument may cancel indorsements made after the reacquirer first became a holder of the instrument. If the cancellation causes the instrument to be payable to the reacquirer or to bearer, the reacquirer may negotiate the instrument. An indorser whose indorsement is canceled is discharged, and the discharge is effective against any subsequent holder.

(RIGHTS OF A HOLDER) ENFORCEMENT OF INSTRUMENTS

"PERSON ENTITLED TO ENFORCE INSTRUMENT. "Person entitled to enforce" an instrument means (i) the holder of the instrument, (ii) a nonholder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or (iii) a person not in possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument pursuant to RCW 62A.3-309 (section 37 of this act) or 62A.3-418(d). A person may be a person entitled to enforce the instrument even though the person is not the owner of the instrument or is in wrongful possession of the instrument.
(3) A holder does not become a holder in due course of an instrument:
   (a) by purchase of it at judicial sale or by taking it under legal process; or
   (b) by taking it in good faith for value as the holder of a bulk transaction not in regular course of business of the transferor.
   (4) A purchaser of a limited interest can be a holder in due course only to the extent of the interest purchased.

(a) Subject to subsection (c) and RCW 62A.3-106(d), "holder in due course" means the holder of an instrument if:
   (1) The instrument when issued or negotiated to the holder does not bear such apparent evidence of forgery or alteration or is not otherwise so irregular or incomplete as to call into question its authenticity; and
   (2) The holder took the instrument (i) for value, (ii) in good faith, (iii) without notice that the instrument is overdue or has been dishonored or that there is an uncured default with respect to payment of another instrument issued as part of the same series, (iv) without notice that the instrument contains an unauthorized signature or has been altered, (v) without notice of any claim to the instrument described in RCW 62A.3-306, and (vi) without notice that any party has a defense or claim in recoupment described in RCW 62A.3-305(a).

(b) Notice of discharge of a party, other than discharge in an insolvency proceeding, is not notice of a defense under subsection (a), but discharge is effective against a person who became a holder in due course with notice of the discharge. Public filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice of a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument.

(c) Except to the extent a transferor or predecessor in interest has rights as a holder in due course, a person does not acquire rights of a holder in due course of an instrument taken (i) by legal process or by purchase in an execution, bankruptcy, or creditor's sale or similar proceeding, (ii) by purchase as part of a bulk transaction not in ordinary course of business of the transferor, or (iii) as the successor in interest to an estate or other organization.

(d) If, under RCW 62A.3-303(a)(1), the promise of performance that is the consideration for an instrument has been partially performed, the holder may assert rights as a holder in due course of the instrument only to the fraction of the amount payable under the instrument equal to the value of the partial performance divided by the value of the promised performance.

(f) To be effective, notice must be received at a time and in a manner that gives a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(g) This section is subject to any law limiting status as a holder in due course in particular classes of transactions.

Sec. 31. RCW 62A.3-303 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-303 are each amended to read as follows:

"Consideration" means any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. The drawer or maker of an instrument has a defense if the instrument is issued without consideration. If an instrument is issued for a promise of performance, the issuer has a defense to the extent of the performance of the promise is due and the promise has not been performed. If an instrument is issued for value as stated in subsection (a), the instrument is also issued for consideration.
(d) that an incomplete instrument has been completed, unless the purchaser has notice of any improper completion;
(e) that any person negotiating the instrument is or was a fiduciary;
(f) that there has been default in payment of interest on the instrument or in payment of any other instrument, except one of the same series;
(5) The filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice within the provisions of this Article to a person who would otherwise be a holder in due course.
(6) To be effective notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

OVERDUE INSTRUMENT. (a) An instrument payable on demand becomes overdue at the earliest of the following times:
(1) On the day after the day demand for payment is duly made;
(2) If the instrument is a check, 90 days after its date; or
(3) If the instrument is not a check, when the instrument has been outstanding for a period of time after its date which is unreasonably long under the circumstances of the particular case in light of the nature of the instrument and usage of the trade.
(b) With respect to an instrument payable at a definite time the following rules apply:
(1) If the principal is payable in installments and a due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue upon default under the instrument for nonpayment of an installment, and the instrument remains overdue until the default is cured.
(2) If the principal is not payable in installments and the due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the due date.
(3) If a due date with respect to principal has been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the accelerated due date.
(c) Unless the due date of principal has been accelerated, an instrument does not become overdue if there is default in payment of interest but no default in payment of principal.

Sec. 33. RCW 62A.3-305 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-305 are each amended to read as follows:

(RIGHTS OF A HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. To the extent that a holder is a holder in due course he takes the instrument free from:
(1) all claims to it on the part of any person; and
(2) all defenses of any party to the instrument with whom the holder has not dealt except
(a) infancy, to the extent that it is a defense to a simple contract; and
(b) such other incapacity, or duress, or illegality of the transaction, as renders the obligation of the party a nullity; and
(c) such misrepresentation as has induced the party to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to learn of its character or its essential terms; and
(d) discharge in insolvency proceedings; and
(e) any other discharge of which the holder has notice when he takes the instrument.)

DEFENSES AND CLAIMS IN RECOUPMENT. (a) Except as stated in subsection (b), the right of a party to pay an instrument is subject to the following:
(1) A defense of the obligor based on (i) infancy of the obligor to the extent it is a defense to a simple contract, (ii) duress, lack of legal capacity, or illegality of the transaction which, under other law, nullifies the obligation of the obligor, (iii) fraud that induced the obligor to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to learn of its character or its essential terms, or (iv) discharge of the obligor in insolvency proceedings;
(2) A defense of the obligor stated in another section of this Article or a defense of the obligor that would be available if the person entitled to enforce the instrument were enforcing a right to payment under a simple contract; and
(3) A claim in recoupment of the obligor against the original payee of the instrument if the claim arose from the transaction that gave rise to the instrument; but the claim of the obligor may be asserted against a transferee of the instrument only to reduce the amount owing on the instrument at the time the action is brought.
(b) The right of a holder in due course to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument is subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (a)(1), but is not subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (a)(2) or claims in recoupment stated in subsection (a)(3) against a person other than the holder.
(c) Except as stated in subsection (d), in an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor may not assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument a defense or claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument (RCW 62A.3-306) of another person, but the other person's claim to the instrument may be asserted by the obligor if the other person is joined in the action and personally asserts the claim against the person entitled to enforce the instrument. An obligor is not obliged to pay the instrument if the person seeking enforcement of the instrument does not have rights of a holder in due course and the obligor proves that the instrument is a lost or stolen instrument.
(d) In an action to enforce the obligation of an accommodation party to pay an instrument, the accommodation party may assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument any defense or claim in recoupment under subsection (a) that the accommodated party could assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument, except the defenses of discharge in insolvency proceedings, infancy, and lack of legal capacity.

Sec. 34. RCW 62A.3-306 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-306 are each amended to read as follows:

(RIGHTS OF ONE NOT HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. Unless he has the rights of a holder in due course any person takes the instrument subject to:
(a) all valid claims to it on the part of any person; and
(b) all defenses of any party which would be available in an action on a simple contract; and
(c) the defenses of want or failure of consideration, non-performance of any condition precedent, non-delivery, or delivery for a special purpose (RCW 62A.3-408); and
(d) the defense that he or a person through whom he holds the instrument acquired it by theft, or that payment or satisfaction to such holder would be inconsistent with the terms of a restrictive indorsement. The claim of any third person to the instrument is not otherwise available as a defense to any party liable thereon unless the third person himself defends the action for such party.)

CLAIMS TO AN INSTRUMENT. A person taking an instrument, other than a person having rights of a holder in due course, is subject to a claim of a properly or possessory right in the instrument or its proceeds, including a claim to rescind a negotiation and to recover the instrument or its proceeds. A person having rights of a holder in due course takes free of the claim to the instrument.

Sec. 35. ROW 62A.3-307 and 1965 ex.s.c. 157 s 3-307 are each amended to read as follows:

(BURDEN OF ESTABLISHING SIGNATURES, DEFENSES AND DUE COURSE. (1) Unless specifically denied in the pleadings each signature on an instrument is admitted. When the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue
   (a) the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature; but
   (b) the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized except where the action is to enforce the obligation of a purported signer who has died or become incompetent before proof is required.
   (2) When signatures are admitted or established, production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense.
   (3) After it is shown that a defense exists a person claiming the rights of a holder in due course has the burden of establishing that he or some person under whom he claims is in all respects a holder in due course.)

NOTICE OF BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY. (a) In this section:
   (1) "Fiduciary" means an agent, trustee, partner, corporate officer or director, or other representative owing a fiduciary duty with respect to an instrument.
   (2) "Represented person" means the principal, beneficiary, partnership, corporation, or other person to whom the duty stated in subsection (a)(1) is owed.

(b) If (i) an instrument is taken from a fiduciary for payment or collection or for value, or (ii) the taker has knowledge of the fiduciary status of the fiduciary, and (iii) the represented person makes a claim to the instrument or its proceeds on the basis that the transaction of the fiduciary is a breach of fiduciary duty, the following rules apply:

   (1) Notice of breach of fiduciary duty by the fiduciary is notice of the claim of the represented person.
   (2) In the case of an instrument payable to the represented person or the fiduciary as such, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is (i) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the represented person, (ii) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or (iii) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.
   (3) If an instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary as such, and made payable to the fiduciary personally, the taker does not have notice of the breach of fiduciary duty unless the taker knows of the breach of fiduciary duty.
   (4) If an instrument is issued by the represented person or the fiduciary as such, to the taker as payee, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is (i) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary, (ii) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary, or (iii) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to Title 62A ROW, to be codified as ROW 62A.3-308, to read as follows:

PROOF OF SIGNATURES AND STATUS AS HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. (a) In an action with respect to an instrument, the authenticity of, and authority to make, each signature on the instrument is admitted unless specifically denied in the pleadings. If the validity of a signature is denied in the pleadings, the burden of establishing validity is on the person claiming validity, but the signature is presumed to be authentic and authorized unless the action is to enforce the liability of the purported signer and the signer is dead or incompetent at the time of trial of the issue of validity of the signature. If an action to enforce the instrument is brought against a person as the undisclosed principal of a person who signed the instrument as a party to the instrument, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the defendant is liable on the instrument as a represented person under RCW 62A.3-402(a).

(b) If the validity of signatures is admitted or proved and there is compliance with subsection (a), a plaintiff producing the instrument is entitled to payment if the plaintiff proves entitlement to enforce the instrument under RCW 62A.3-301, unless the defendant proves a defense or claim in recoupment. If a defense or claim in recoupment is proved, the right to payment of the plaintiff is subject to the defense or claim, except to the extent the plaintiff proves that the plaintiff has rights of a holder in due course which are not subject to the defense or claim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to Title 62A ROW, to be codified as ROW 62A.3-309, to read as follows:

ENFORCEMENT OF LOST, DESTROYED, OR STOLEN INSTRUMENT. (a) A person not in possession of an instrument is entitled to enforce the instrument if (i) the person was in possession of the instrument and entitled to enforce it when loss of possession occurred, (ii) the loss of possession was not the result of a transfer by the person or a lawful seizure, and (iii) the person cannot reasonably obtain possession of the instrument because the instrument was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

(b) A person seeking enforcement of an instrument under subsection (a) must prove the terms of the instrument and the person's right to enforce the instrument. If that proof is made, ROW 62A.3-308 (section 36 of this act) applies to the case as if the person seeking enforcement had produced the instrument. The court may not enter judgment in favor of the person seeking enforcement unless it finds that the person required to pay the instrument is adequately protected against loss that might occur by reason of a claim by another person to enforce the instrument. Adequate protection may be provided by any reasonable means.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. A new section is added to Title 62A ROW, to be codified as ROW 62A.3-310, to read as follows:

EFFECT OF INSTRUMENT ON OBLIGATION FOR WHICH TAKEN. (a) Unless otherwise agreed, if a certified check, cashier's check, or teller's check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is discharged to the same extent discharge would result if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken in payment of the obligation. Discharge of the obligation does not affect any liability that the obligor may have as an indorser of the instrument.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed and except as provided in subsection (a), if a note or an uncertified check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is suspended to the same extent the obligation would be discharged if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken, and the following rules apply:

(1) In the case of an uncertified check, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the check or until it is paid or certified. Payment or certification of the check results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the amount of the check.
(2) In the case of a note, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the note or until it is paid. Payment of the note results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the payment.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (b)(4), if the check or note is dishonored and the obligee of the obligation for which the instrument was taken is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligee may enforce either the instrument or the obligation. In the case of an instrument of a third person which is negotiated to the obligee by the obligor, discharge of the obligor on the instrument also discharges the obligation.

(4) If the person entitled to enforce the instrument taken for an obligation is a person other than the obligee, the obligee may not enforce the obligation to the extent of the obligation is suspended. If the obligee is the person entitled to enforce the instrument but no longer has possession of it because it was lost, stolen, or destroyed, the obligation may not be enforced to the extent of the amount payable on the instrument, and to that extent the obligee's rights against the obligor are limited to enforcement of the instrument.

(c) If an instrument other than one described in subsection (a) or (b) is taken for an obligation, the effect is (i) that stated in subsection (a) if the instrument is one on which a bank is liable as maker or acceptor, or (ii) that stated in subsection (b) in any other case.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 39. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-311, to read as follows:

ACCORD AND SATISFACTION BY USE OF INSTRUMENT. (a) If a person against whom a claim is asserted proves that (i) that person in good faith tendered an instrument to the claimant as full satisfaction of the claim, (ii) the amount of the claim was unliquidated or subject to a bona fide dispute, and (iii) the claimant obtained payment of the instrument, the following subsections apply.

(b) Unless subsection (c) applies, the claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that the instrument or an accompanying written communication contained a conspicuous statement to the effect that the instrument was tendered as full satisfaction of the claim.

(c) Subject to subsection (d), a claim is not discharged under subsection (b) if either of the following applies:

(1) The claimant, if an organization, proves that (i) within a reasonable time before the tender, the claimant sent a conspicuous statement to the person against whom the claim is asserted that communications concerning disputed debts, including an instrument tendered as full satisfaction of a debt, are to be sent to a designated person, office, or place, and (ii) the instrument or accompanying communication was not received by that designated person, office, or place.

(2) The claimant, whether or not an organization, proves that within 90 days after payment of the instrument, the claimant tendered repayment of the amount of the instrument to the person against whom the claim is asserted. This subsection (c)(2) does not apply if the claimant is an organization that sent a statement complying with subsection (c)(1)(i).

(d) A claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that within a reasonable time before collection of the instrument was initiated, the claimant, or an agent of the claimant having direct responsibility with respect to the disputed obligation, knew that the instrument was tendered in full satisfaction of the claim.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 40. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-312, to read as follows:

LOST, DESTROYED, OR STOLEN CASHIER'S CHECK, TELLER'S CHECK, OR CERTIFIED CHECK. (a) In this section:

(1) "Check" means a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check.

(2) "Claimant" means a person who claims the right to receive the amount of a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check that was lost, destroyed, or stolen.

(3) "Declaration of loss" means a written statement, made under penalty of perjury, to the effect that (i) the declarer lost possession of a check, (ii) the declarer is the drawer or payee of the check, in the case of a certified check, or the remitter or payee of the check, in the case of a cashier's check or teller's check, (iii) the loss of possession was not the result of a transferee or assignee obtaining possession of the check by the declarer or a lawful seizure, and (iv) the declarer cannot reasonably obtain possession of the check because the check was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amendable to service of process.

(4) "Obligated bank" means the insurer of a cashier's check or teller's check or the acceptor of a certified check.

(b) A claimant may assert a claim to the amount of a check by a communication to the obligated bank describing the check with reasonable certainty and requesting payment of the amount of the check, if (i) the claimant is the drawer or payee of a certified check or the remitter or payee of a cashier's check or teller's check, (ii) the communication contains or is accompanied by a declaration of loss of the claimant with respect to the check, (iii) the communication is received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable time to act on it before the check is paid, and (iv) the claimant provides reasonable identification if requested by the obligated bank. Delivery of a declaration of loss is a warranty of the truth of the statements made in the declaration. If a claim is asserted in compliance with this subsection, the following rules apply:

(1) The claim becomes enforceable at the later of (i) the time the claim is asserted, or (ii) the ninetieth day following the date of the check, in the case of a cashier's check or teller's check, or the ninetieth day following the date of the acceptance, in the case of a certified check.

(2) Until the claim becomes enforceable, it has no legal effect and the obligated bank may pay the check or, in the case of a teller's check, may permit the drawee to pay the check. Payment to a person entitled to enforce the check discharges all liability of the obligated bank with respect to the check.

(3) If the claim becomes enforceable before the check is presented for payment, the obligated bank is not obliged to pay the check.
(4) When the claim becomes enforceable, the obligated bank becomes obliged to pay the amount of the check to the claimant if payment of the check has not been made to a person entitled to enforce the check. Subject to RCW 62A.4-302(a), payment to the claimant discharges all liability of the obligated bank with respect to the check.

(c) If the obligated bank pays the amount of a check to a claimant under subsection (b)(4) and the check is presented for payment by a person having rights of a holder in due course, the claimant is obliged to (i) refund the payment to the obligated bank if the check is paid, or (ii) pay the amount of the check to the person having rights of a holder in due course if the check is dishonored.

(d) If a claimant has the right to assert a claim under subsection (b) and is also a person entitled to enforce a cashier’s check, teller’s check, or certified check that is lost, destroyed, or stolen, the claimant may assert rights with respect to the check under this section.

PART 4
LIABILITY OF PARTIES

Sec. 41. RCW 62A.3-401 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-401 are each amended to read as follows:
SIGNATURE. (±(4)±(a)) A person is not liable on an instrument unless ((this signature appears thereon)) (i) the person signed the instrument, or (ii) the person is represented by an agent or representative who signed the instrument and the signature is binding on the represented person under RCW 62A.3-402.

±(b)±(A) Signature (±(b)±(A)) may be made ((by use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, upon an instrument, or by any word or mark used in lieu of a written signature)) (i) manually or by means of a device or machine, and (ii) by the use of any name, including a trade or assumed name, or by a word, mark, or symbol executed or adopted by a person with present intention to authenticate a writing.

Sec. 42. RCW 62A.3-402 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-402 are each amended to read as follows:
(SIGNATURE IN AMBIGUOUS CAPACITY. Unless the instrument clearly indicates that a signature is made in some other capacity, it is an indorsement.)

SIGNATURE BY REPRESENTATIVE. (a) If a person acting, or purporting to act, as a representative signs an instrument by signing either the name of the represented person or the name of the signer, the represented person is bound by the signature to the same extent the represented person would be bound if the signature were on a simple contract. If the represented person is bound, the signature of the representative is the “authorized signature of the represented person” and the representative is liable on the instrument, whether or not identified in the instrument.

(b) If a representative signs the name of the representative to an instrument and the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person, the following rules apply:

(1) If the form of the signature shows unambiguously that the signature is made on behalf of the represented person who is identified in the instrument, the representative is not liable on the instrument.

(2) Subject to subsection (c), if (i) the form of the signature does not show unambiguously that the signature is made in a representative capacity or (ii) the represented person is not identified in the instrument, the representative is liable on the instrument to a holder in due course that took the instrument without notice that the representative was not intended to be liable on the instrument. With respect to any other person, the representative is liable on the instrument unless the representative proves that the original parties did not intend the representative to be liable on the instrument.

(c) If a representative signs the name of the representative as drawer of a check without indication of the representative status and the check is payable from an account of the represented person who is identified on the check, the signer is not liable on the check if the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person.

Sec. 43. RCW 62A.3-403 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-403 are each amended to read as follows:
(SIGNATURE BY AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE. (1) A signature may be made by an agent or other representative, and his authority to make it may be established as in other cases of representation. No particular form of appointment is necessary to establish such authority.

(2) An authorized representative who signs his own name to an instrument

(a) is personally obligated if the instrument neither names the person represented nor shows that the representative signed in a representative capacity;

(b) except as otherwise established between the immediate parties, is personally obligated if the instrument names the person represented but does not show that the signature is made in a representative capacity, or if the instrument does not name the person represented but does show that the representative signed in a representative capacity;

(c) Except as otherwise established the name of an organization preceded or followed by the name and office of an authorized individual is a signature in a representative capacity.)

UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURE. (a) Unless otherwise provided in this Article or Article 4, an unauthorized signature is ineffective except as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of a person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value. An unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this Article.

(b) If the signature of more than one person is required to constitute the authorized signature of an organization, the signature of the authorized representative is the signature of the organization if one of the required signatures is lacking.

(c) The civil or criminal liability of a person who makes an unauthorized signature is not affected by any provision of this Article which makes the unauthorized signature effective for the purposes of this Article.

Sec. 44. RCW 62A.3-404 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-404 are each amended to read as follows:
(UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURES. (1) Any unauthorized signature is wholly inoperative as that of the person whose name is signed unless he ratifies it or is precluded from denying it; but it operates as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value.
In the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(2) An indorsement by any person in the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(a) An impostor by use of the mails or otherwise has induced the maker or drawer to issue the instrument to him or his confederate in the name of the payee;

(b) A person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument;

(c) An agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied him with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.

Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so indorsing.

EMPLOYER'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR FRAUDULENT INDORSEMENT BY EMPLOYEE. (a) In this section:

(1) Any alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any manner.

(2) A person acting in concert with the employee makes a fraudulent indorsement of the instrument, the indorsement is effective if

(a) an impostor, by use of the mails or otherwise, induces the issuer of an instrument to issue the instrument to the impostor, or to a person acting in concert with the impostor, by impersonating the payee of the instrument or a person authorized to act for the payee, an indorsement of the instrument by any person in the name of the payee is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(b) If (i) a person whose intent determines to whom an instrument is payable (RCW 62A.3-110 (a) or (b)) does not intend the person identified as payee to have any interest in the instrument, or (ii) the person identified as payee of an instrument is a fictitious person, the following rules apply until the instrument is negotiated by special indorsement:

(1) Any person in possession of the instrument is its holder.

(2) An indorsement by any person in the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(c) Under subsection (a) or (b), an indorsement is made in the name of a payee if (i) it is made in a name substantially similar to that of the payee or (ii) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depository bank to an account in a name substantially similar to that of the payee.

(d) With respect to an instrument to which subsection (a) or (b) applies, if a person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure contributes to loss resulting from payment of the instrument, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

Sec. 45. RCW 62A.3-405 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-405 are each amended to read as follows:

IMPOSTORS; SIGNATURE IN NAME OF PAYEE. (1) An indorsement by any person in the name of a named payee is effective if

(a) an impostor, by use of the mails or otherwise, induces the maker or drawer to issue the instrument to him or his confederate in the name of the payee;

(b) a person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument;

(c) an agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied him with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so indorsing.

EMPLOYER'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR FRAUDULENT INDORSEMENT BY EMPLOYEE. (a) In this section:

(1) An alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any manner.

(2) A person acting in concert with the employee makes a fraudulent indorsement of the instrument, the indorsement is effective if

(a) an impostor, by use of the mails or otherwise, induces the issuer of an instrument to issue the instrument to the impostor, or to a person acting in concert with the impostor, by impersonating the payee of the instrument or a person authorized to act for the payee, an indorsement of the instrument by any person in the name of the payee is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(b) If (i) a person whose intent determines to whom an instrument is payable (RCW 62A.3-110 (a) or (b)) does not intend the person identified as payee to have any interest in the instrument, or (ii) the person identified as payee of an instrument is a fictitious person, the following rules apply until the instrument is negotiated by special indorsement:

(1) Any person in possession of the instrument is its holder.

(2) An indorsement by any person in the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of a person who, in good faith, pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(c) Under subsection (a) or (b), an indorsement is made in the name of a payee if (i) it is made in a name substantially similar to that of the payee or (ii) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depository bank to an account in a name substantially similar to that of the payee.

(d) With respect to an instrument to which subsection (a) or (b) applies, if a person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure contributes to loss resulting from payment of the instrument, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

Sec. 46. RCW 62A.3-405 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-406 are each amended to read as follows:

ALTERATION. (1) Any alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any respect, including any such change in

(a) the number or relations of the parties; or

(b) an incomplete instrument, by completing it otherwise than as authorized; or

(c) the writing as signed, by adding to it or by removing any part of it.

(2) As against any person other than a subsequent holder in due course
(a) alteration by the holder which is both fraudulent and material discharges any party whose contract is thereby changed unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the defense.

(b) no other alteration discharges any party and the instrument may be enforced according to its original tenor, or as to incomplete instruments according to the authority given.

(3) A subsequent holder in due course may in all cases enforce the instrument according to its original tenor, and when an incomplete instrument has been completed, he may enforce it as completed.) (a) "Alteration" means (i) an unauthorized change in an instrument that purports to modify in any respect the obligation of a party, or (ii) an unauthorized addition of words or numbers or other change to an incomplete instrument relating to the obligation of a party.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), an alteration fraudulently made discharges a party whose obligation is affected by the alteration unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the alteration. No other alteration discharges a party, and the instrument may be enforced according to its original terms.

(c) A payor bank or drawee paying a fraudulently altered instrument or a person taking it for value, in good faith and without notice of the alteration, may enforce rights with respect to the instrument (i) according to its original terms, or (ii) in the case of an incomplete instrument altered by unauthorized completion, according to its terms as completed.

Sec. 48. RCW 62A.3-408 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-408 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Acceptance. "Acceptance" means the drawee's signed agreement to honor the draft as presented. It must be written on the draft and may consist of the drawee's signature alone. Acceptance may be made at any time and becomes effective when notification pursuant to instructions is given or the accepted draft is delivered for the purpose of giving notice of the acceptance to any person.

(b) A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer, is otherwise incomplete, is overdue, or has been dishonored.

(c) If a draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date the acceptance, the holder may complete the acceptance by supplying a date in good faith.

(d) "Certified check" means a check accepted by the bank on which it is drawn. Acceptance may be made as stated in subsection (a) or by a writing on the check which indicates that the check is certified. The drawee of a check has no obligation to certify the check, and refusal to certify is not dishonor of the check.

Sec. 49. RCW 62A.3-408 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-408 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certification of a check is acceptance.

(2) A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of rights on the acceptance to any person of the person demanding payment, and a holder may payment of the acceptance for the purpose of giving notice of the acceptance to any person.

(c) A payor bank or drawee paying a fraudulently altered instrument or a person taking it for value, in good faith and without notice of the alteration, may enforce rights with respect to the instrument (i) according to its original terms, or (ii) in the case of an incomplete instrument altered by unauthorized completion, according to its terms as completed.

Sec. 50. RCW 62A.3-410 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-410 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certification of a check is acceptance. Where a holder procures certification the drawer and all prior indorsers are discharged.

(b) If the obligated bank wrongfully (i) refuses to pay a cashier's check or certified check. (ii) stops payment of a teller's check, or (iii) refuses to pay a dishonored teller's check, the person asserting the right to enforce the check is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the nonpayment and may recover consequential damages if the obligated bank refuses to pay after receiving notice of particular circumstances giving rise to the damages.

(c) Expenses or consequential damages under subsection (b) are not recoverable if the refusal of the obligated bank to pay occurs because (i) the bank suspends payments. (ii) the obligated bank asserts a claim or defense of the bank that has reasonable grounds to believe is grounds against the person entitled to enforce the instrument. (iii) the obligated bank has a reasonable doubt whether the person demanding payment is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, or (iv) payment is prohibited by law.

Sec. 52. RCW 62A.3-412 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-412 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Acceptance is the drawee's signed engagement to honor the draft as presented. It must be written on the draft and may consist of the drawee's signature alone. Acceptance may be made at any time and becomes effective when notification pursuant to instructions is given or the accepted draft is delivered for the purpose of giving notice of the acceptance to any person.

(b) A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer, is otherwise incomplete, is overdue, or has been dishonored.

(c) If a draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date the acceptance, the holder may complete the acceptance by supplying a date in good faith.

(d) "Certified check" means a check accepted by the bank on which it is drawn. Acceptance may be made as stated in subsection (a) or by a writing on the check which indicates that the check is certified. The drawee of a check has no obligation to certify the check, and refusal to certify is not dishonor of the check.

Sec. 51. RCW 62A.3-411 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-411 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certification of a check is acceptance. Where a holder procures certification the drawer and all prior indorsers are discharged.

(b) If the obligated bank wrongfully (i) refuses to pay a cashier's check or certified check. (ii) stops payment of a teller's check, or (iii) refuses to pay a dishonored teller's check, the person asserting the right to enforce the check is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the nonpayment and may recover consequential damages if the obligated bank refuses to pay after receiving notice of particular circumstances giving rise to the damages.

(c) Expenses or consequential damages under subsection (b) are not recoverable if the refusal of the obligated bank to pay occurs because (i) the bank suspends payments. (ii) the obligated bank asserts a claim or defense of the bank that has reasonable grounds to believe is grounds against the person entitled to enforce the instrument. (iii) the obligated bank has a reasonable doubt whether the person demanding payment is the person entitled to enforce the instrument, or (iv) payment is prohibited by law.
(ACCEPTANCE VARYING DRAFT. (1) Where the drawer’s proffered acceptance in any manner varies the draft as presented the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored in which case the drawer is entitled to have his acceptance cancelled. (2) The terms of the draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at any particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at such bank or place. (3) Where the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of the draft each drawer and indorser who does not affirmatively assent is discharged.)

OBLIGATION OF ISSUER OF NOTE OR CASHIER’S CHECK. The issuer of a note or cashier’s check or other draft drawn on a bank is obliged to pay the instrument (i) according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or (ii) if the issuer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3.115 and 62A.3.407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to an indorser who paid the instrument under RCW 62A.3.415.

Sec. 53. RCW 62A.3.413 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-413 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) CONTRACT OF MAKER, DRAWER AND ACCEPTOR. (1) The maker or acceptor engages that he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his engagement or as completed pursuant to RCW 62A.3.115 on incomplete instruments.

(2) The drawer engages that upon dishonor of the draft and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest he will pay the amount of the draft to the holder or to any indorser who takes it up. The drawer may claim this liability by drawing without recourse.

(3) By making, drawing or accepting the party admits as against all subsequent parties including the drawee the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

OBLIGATION OF ACCEPTOR. (a) The acceptor of a draft is obliged to pay the draft (i) according to its terms at the time it was accepted, even though the acceptance states that the draft is payable “as originally drawn” or equivalent terms, (ii) if the acceptance varies the terms of the draft, according to the terms of the draft as varied, or (iii) if the acceptance states that the draft is payable “as drawn” or equivalent terms, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3.115 and 62A.3.407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to the drawer or an indorser who paid the draft under RCW 62A.3.414 or 62A.3.415.

(b) If the certification of a check or other acceptance of a draft states the amount certified or accepted, the obligation of the acceptor is that amount. If (i) the certification or acceptance does not state an amount, (ii) the amount of the instrument is subsequently raised, and (iii) the instrument is then negotiated to a holder in due course, the obligation of the acceptor is the amount of the instrument as it was taken by the holder in the due course.

Sec. 54. RCW 62A.3.414 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-414 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) CONTRACT OF INDORSER; ORDER OF LIABILITY. (1) Unless the indorsement otherwise specifies (as by such words as “without recourse”) every indorser engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his indorsement to the holder or to any subsequent indorser who takes it up, even though the indorser who takes it up was not obligated to do so.

(2) Unless they otherwise agree indorsers are liable to one another in the order in which they indorse, which is presumed to be the order in which their signatures appear on the instrument.

OBLIGATION OF DRAWER. (a) This section does not apply to cashier's checks or other drafts drawn on the drawer. (b) If an unaccepted draft is dishonored, the drawer is obliged to pay the draft (i) according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder, or (ii) if the drawer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3.115 and 62A.3.407. The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to an indorser who paid the draft under RCW 62A.3.414 or 62A.3.415. (c) If a draft is accepted by a bank, the drawer is discharged, regardless of whom or by whom acceptance was obtained. (d) If a draft is accepted by a bank, the obligation of the drawer to pay the draft if the draft is dishonored by the acceptor is the same as the obligation of an indorser under RCW 62A.3.415 (a) and (c).

(e) If a draft states that it is drawn “without recourse” or otherwise disclaims liability of the drawer to pay the draft, the drawer is not liable under subsection (b) to pay the draft if the draft is not a check. A disclaimer of the liability stated in subsection (b) is not effective if the draft is a check. (f) If (i) a check is not presented for payment or given to a depositary bank for collection within 30 days after its date, (ii) the drawee suspends payments after expiration of the 30-day period without paying the check, and (iii) because of the suspension of payments, the drawer is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee to cover payment of the check, the drawer to the extent deprived of funds may discharge its obligation to pay the check by assigning to the person entitled to enforce the check the rights of the drawer against the drawee with respect to the funds.

Sec. 55. RCW 62A.3.415 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-415 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) CONTRACT OF ACCOMMODATION PARTY. (1) An accommodation party is one who signs the instrument in any capacity for the purpose of lending his name to another party to it. (2) When the instrument has been taken for value before it is due the accommodation party is liable in the capacity in which he has signed even though the taker knows of the accommodation. As against a holder in due course and without notice of the accommodation oral proof of the accommodation is not admissible to give the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on his character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.

(4) An indorsement which shows that it is not in the chain of title is notice of its accommodation character. (5) An accommodation party is not liable to the party accommodated, and if he pays the instrument a right of recourse on the instrument against such party.

OBLIGATION OF INDORSER. (a) Subject to subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) and to RCW 62A.3.419(d), if an instrument is dishonored, an indorser is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument (i) according to the terms of the instrument at the time it was indorsed, or (ii) if the indorser indorsed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed, to the extent stated in RCW 62A.3.115 and 62A.3.407. The obligation of the indorser is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to a subsequent indorser who paid the instrument under this section.
(b) If an endorsement states that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaims liability of the indorser, the indorser is not liable under subsection (a) to pay the instrument.

(c) If notice of dishonor of an instrument is required by RCW 62A.3-503 and notice of dishonor complying with that section is not given to an indorser, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

(d) If a draft is accepted by a bank after an indorsement is made, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

(e) If an indorsement of a check is liable under subsection (a) and the check is not presented for payment, or given to a depositary bank for collection, within 30 days after the day the indorsement was made, the liability of the indorser under subsection (a) is discharged.

Sec. 56. RCW 62A.3-416 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-416 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Payment guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor without resort by the holder to any other party.

(2) "Collection guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor, but only after the holder has reduced his claim against the maker or acceptor to judgment and execution has been returned unsatisfied, or after the maker or acceptor has become insolvent or it is otherwise apparent that it is useless to proceed against him.

(3) Words of guaranty which do not otherwise specify guaranty payment.

(4) No words of guaranty added to the signature of a sole maker or acceptor affect his liability on the instrument. Such words added to the signature of one of two or more makers or acceptors create a presumption that the signature is for the accommodation of the others.

(5) When words of guaranty are used presentment, notice of dishonor and protest are not necessary to charge the user.

(6) Any guaranty written on the instrument is enforceable notwithstanding any statute of frauds.

WARRANTIES ON PRESENTMENT AND TRANSFER.

(a) A person who transfers an instrument for consideration warrants to a person who in good faith pays or accepts that:

(i) to the maker of a note; or

(ii) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted instrument.

(b) Any person who transfers an instrument and receives consideration warrants to the transferee and, if the transfer is by indorsement, to any subsequent transferee that:

(i) to the holder in due course acting in good faith;

(ii) to the maker of a note or to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(iii) to the acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance and obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and

(c) the instrument has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith:

(i) to the maker of a note or to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(ii) to an acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or

(iii) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance.

(2) Any person who transfers an instrument and receives consideration warrants to the transferee and, if the transfer is by indorsement, to any subsequent holder who takes the instrument in good faith that:

(a) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and

(b) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given to the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection (b) is discharged to the extent of any loss caused as a result of the breach.

(c) the instrument has not been materially altered;

(d) no defense of any party is good against him; and

(e) he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted instrument.

(3) By transferring "without recourse" the transferor limits the obligation stated in subsection (2)(d) to a warranty that he has no knowledge of such a defense.
(A) A selling agent or broker who does not disclose the fact that he is acting only as such gives the warranties provided in this section, but if he makes such disclosure warrants only his good faith and authority.\)

PRESENTMENT WARRANTIES. (a) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, (i) the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and (ii) a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee making payment or accepting the draft in good faith that:

(1) The warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;

(2) The draft has not been altered; and

(3) The warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the drawer of the draft is unauthorized.

(b) A drawer making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawer is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor. If the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

(c) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (a) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under RCW 62A.3-404 or 62A.3-405 or the drawer is precluded under RCW 62A.3-406 or 62A.4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.

(d) If (i) a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or (ii) any other instrument is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the instrument, and (iii) payment is received, the following rules apply:

(1) The person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the instrument warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the instrument, a person entitled to enforce the instrument or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the person entitled to enforce the instrument.

(2) The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.

(e) The warranties stated in subsections (a) and (d) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the liability of the warrantor under subsection (b) or (d) is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(f) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Sec. 58. RCW 62A.3-418 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-418 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) FINALITY OF PAYMENT OR ACCEPTANCE. Except for recovery of bank payments as provided in the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections (Article 4) and except for liability for breach of warranty on presentment under the preceding section, payment or acceptance of any instrument is final in favor of a holder in due course, or a person who has in good faith changed his position in reliance on the payment, if (i) payment or acceptance is final in favor of a holder in due course, or a person who has in good faith changed his position in reliance on the payment, or (ii) a drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor. If the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

Sec. 59. RCW 62A.3-419 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-419 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) CONVERSION OF INSTRUMENT; INNOCENT REPRESENTATIVE. (a) An instrument is converted when (i) a drawee to whom it is delivered for acceptance refuses to return it on demand; or (b) any person to whom it is delivered for payment refuses to pay or to return it; or (c) it is paid on a forged indorsement.

(b) In an action against a drawee under subsection (1) the measure of the drawee's liability is the face amount of the instrument. In any other action under subsection (1) the measure of liability is presumed to be the face amount of the instrument.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Title concerning restrictive indorsement a representative, including a depositary or collecting bank, who has in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards applicable to the business of such representative dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the true owner is not liable in conversion or otherwise to the true owner beyond the amount of any proceeds remaining in his hands.

(3) An intermediary bank or payor bank which is a depositary or the proceeds of an item indorsed restrictively (RCW 62A.3-404 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-405) are each amended to read as follows:

(1) NOTWITHSTANDING RCW 62A.4-213, if an instrument is paid or accepted by mistake and the payor or acceptor revokes payment or revokes acceptance under subsection (a) or (b), the instrument is deemed not to have been paid or accepted and is treated as dishonored, and the person from whom payment is recovered has rights as a person entitled to enforce the dishonored instrument.

INSTRUMENTS SIGNED FOR ACCOMMODATION. (a) If an instrument is issued for value given for the benefit of a party to the instrument ("accommodated party") and another party to the instrument ("accommodation party") signs the instrument for the purpose of incurring liability on the instrument without being a direct beneficiary of the value given for the instrument, the instrument is signed by the accommodation party "for accommodation." An accommodation party may sign the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser and, subject to subsection (d), is obliged to pay the instrument in the capacity in which the accommodation party signs. The obligation of an accommodation party may be enforced notwithstanding any statute of frauds and whether or not the accommodation party receives consideration for the accommodation.

(c) A person signing an instrument is presumed to be an accommodation party and there is notice that the instrument is signed for accommodation if the signature is an anomalous indorsement or is accompanied by words indicating that the signer is acting as surety or guarantor with respect to the obligation of another party to the instrument. Except as provided in RCW 62A.3-605, the obligation of an accommodation party to pay the instrument is not affected by the fact that the person enforcing the obligation had notice when the instrument was taken by that person that the accommodation party signed the instrument for accommodation.

(d) If the signature of a party to an instrument is accompanied by words indicating unambiguously that the party is guaranteeing collection rather than payment of the obligation of another party to the instrument, the signer is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument to a person entitled to enforce the instrument only if (i) execution of judgment against the other party has been returned unsatisfied, (ii) the other party is insolvent or in an insolvency proceeding, (iii) the other party cannot be served with process, or (iv) it is otherwise apparent that payment cannot be obtained from the other party.

(e) An accommodation party who pays the instrument is entitled to reimbursement from the accommodated party and is entitled to enforce the instrument against the accommodated party. An accommodated party who pays the instrument has no right of recourse against, and is not entitled to contribution from, an accommodation party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.3-420, to read as follows:

CONVERSION OF INSTRUMENT. (a) The law applicable to conversion of personal property applies to instruments. An instrument is also converted if it is taken by transfer, other than a negotiation, from a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or a bank makes or obtains payment with respect to the instrument for a person not entitled to enforce the instrument or receive payment. An action for conversion of an instrument may not be brought by (i) the issuer or acceptor of the instrument or (ii) a payee or indorsee who did not receive delivery of the instrument either directly or through delivery to an agent or a co-payee.

(b) In an action under subsection (a), the measure of liability is presumed to be the amount payable on the instrument, but recovery may not exceed the amount of the plaintiff's interest in the instrument.

(c) A representative, other than a depositary bank, who has in good faith dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the person entitled to enforce the instrument is not liable in conversion to that person beyond the amount of any proceeds that it has not paid out.

PART 5

((PRESENTMENT, NOTICE OF) DISHONOR (AND PROTEST))

Sec. 61. RCW 62A.3-501 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-501 are each amended to read as follows:

WILLIAM MARSHALL, Governor

(When presentment, notice of dishonor, and protest necessary or permissible. (1) Unless-excused (RCW 62A.3-511), presentment is necessary to charge secondary parties as follows:

(a) presentment for acceptance is necessary to charge the drawer and indorsers of a draft where the draft so provides, or

(b) presentment for acceptance is necessary to charge the bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, or

(c) presentment for payment is necessary to charge any indorser.

(2) Unless-excused (RCW 62A.3-511)

(a) notice of any dishonor is necessary to charge any indorser;

(b) in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, presentment for payment is necessary, but failure to make presentment discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in RCW 62A.3-502(1)(b).

(3) Unless-excused (RCW 62A.3-511) protest of any dishonor is necessary to charge the drawer and indorsers of any draft which on its face appears to be drawn or payable outside of the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia. The holder may at his option make protest of any dishonor of any other instrument and in the case of a foreign draft may on insolvency of the acceptor before maturity make protest for better security.

(4) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, neither presentment nor notice of dishonor nor protest is necessary to charge an indorser who has indorsed an instrument after maturity.

PRESENTMENT. (a) "Presentment" means a demand made by or on behalf of a person entitled to enforce an instrument

(i) to pay the instrument made to the drawee or a party obliged to pay the instrument or, in the case of a note or accepted draft payable at a bank, to the bank, or

(ii) to accept a draft made to the drawee.

(b) The following rules are subject to Article 4, agreement of the parties, and clearinghouse rules and the like:

(1) Presentment may be made at the place of payment of the instrument and must be made at the place of payment if the instrument is payable at a bank in the United States: may be made by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; is effective when the demand for payment or acceptance is received by the person to whom presentment is made; and is effective if made to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees, or other payors.

(2) Upon demand of the person to whom presentment is made, the person making presentment must (i) exhibit the instrument, (ii) give reasonable identification and, if presentment is made on behalf of another person, reasonable evidence of authority to do so, and (iii) sign a receipt on the instrument for any payment made or surrender the instrument if full payment is made.
(3) Without dishonoring the instrument, the party to whom presentment is made may (i) return the instrument for lack of a necessary indorsement, or (ii) refuse payment or acceptance for failure of the presentment to comply with the terms of the instrument, an agreement of the parties, or other applicable law or rule.

(4) The party to whom presentment is made may treat presentment as occurring on the next business day after the day of presentment if the party to whom presentment is made has established a cut-off hour not earlier than 2:00 p.m. for the receipt and processing of instruments presented for payment or acceptance and presentment is made after the cut-off hour.

Sec. 62. ROW 62A.3-502 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-502 are each amended to read as follows:

(UNEXCUSED DELAY; DISCHARGE) (1) Where without excuse any necessary presentment or notice of dishonor is delayed beyond the time when it is due
(a) any indorser is discharged; and
(b) any drawer or the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank who because the drawee or payor bank becomes insolvent during the delay is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee or payor bank to cover the instrument may discharge his liability by written assignment to the holder of his rights against the drawee or payor bank in respect of such funds, but such drawer, acceptor or maker is not otherwise discharged.

(2) Where without excuse a necessary presentment is delayed beyond the time when it is due any drawer or indorser is discharged.

DISHONOR. (a) Dishonor of a note is governed by the following rules:
(1) If the note is payable on demand, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made to the maker and the note is not paid on the day of presentment.
(2) If the note is not payable on demand and is payable at or through a bank or the terms of the note require presentment, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made and the note is not paid on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.
(3) If the note is not payable on demand and subsection (a)(2) does not apply, the note is dishonored if it is not paid on the day it becomes payable.

(b) Dishonor of an unaccepted draft other than a documentary draft is governed by the following rules:
(1) If a check is duly presented for payment to the payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter, the check is dishonored if the payor bank makes timely return of the check or sends timely notice of dishonor or nonpayment under RCW 62A.4-301 or 62A.4-302, or becomes accountable for the amount of the check under RCW 62A.4-302.

(2) If a draft is payable on demand and subsection (b)(1) does not apply, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the drawer and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.

(3) If a draft is payable on a date stated in the draft, the draft is dishonored if (i) presentment for payment is duly made to the drawer and payment is not made on the day the draft becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later, or (ii) presentment for acceptance is duly made before the day the draft becomes payable and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(4) If a draft is payable on elapse of a period of time after sight or acceptance, the draft is dishonored if presentment for acceptance is duly made and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(c) Dishonor of an unaccepted documentary draft occurs according to the rules stated in subsection (b) (2), (3), and (4), except that presentment for payment may be delayed without dishonor until no later than the close of the third business day of the drawee following the day on which payment or acceptance is required by subsection (b) (2), (3), and (4).

(d) Dishonor of an accepted draft is governed by the following rules:
(1) If the draft is payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment; or
(2) If the draft is not payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made to the acceptor and payment is not made on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.

(2) In any case in which presentment is otherwise required for dishonor under this section and presentment is excused under RCW 62A.3-504, dishonor occurs without presentment if the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.

(1) If a draft is dishonored because timely acceptance of the draft was not made and the person entitled to demand acceptance consents to a late acceptance, from the time of acceptance the draft is treated as never having been dishonored.

Sec. 63. ROW 62A.3-503 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-503 are each amended to read as follows:

(TIME OF PRESENTMENT) (1) Unless a different time is expressed in the instrument the time for any presentment is determined as follows:
(2) where an instrument is payable at or a fixed period after a stated date any presentment for acceptance must be made on or before the date it is payable;
(3) where an instrument is payable after sight it must either be presented for acceptance or negotiated within a reasonable time after date or issue whichever is later;
(4) where an instrument shows the date on which it is payable presentment for payment is due on that date;
(5) where an instrument is accelerated presentment for payment is due within a reasonable time after the acceleration;
(6) with respect to the liability of the drawer, thirty days after date or issue whichever is later;
(7) with respect to the liability of an endorser, seven days after his indorsement;
(8) where any presentment is due on a date which is not a full business day for either the person making presentment or the party to whom presentment is made is due on the next following day which is a full business day for both parties;

(3) Presentment to be sufficient must be made at a reasonable hour, and if at a bank during its banking day.)
NOTICE OF DISHONOR. (a) The obligation of an indorser stated in RCW 62A.3-415(a) and the obligation of a drawer stated in RCW 62A.3-414(b) may not be enforced unless (i) the indorser or drawer is given notice of dishonor of the instrument complying with this section or (ii) notice of dishonor is excused under RCW 62A.3-504(b).

(b) Notice of dishonor may be given by any person; may be given by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; and is sufficient if it reasonably identifies the instrument and indicates that the instrument has been dishonored or has not been paid or accepted. Return of an instrument given to a bank for collection is sufficient notice of dishonor.

(c) Subject to RCW 62A.3-504(c), with respect to an instrument taken for collection by a collecting bank, notice of dishonor must be given (i) by the bank before midnight of the next banking day following the banking day on which the bank receives notice of dishonor of the instrument or (ii) by any other person within 30 days following the day on which the person receives notice of dishonor. With respect to any other instrument, notice of dishonor must be given within 30 days following the day on which dishonor occurs.

Sec. 64. RCW 62A.3-504 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-504 are each amended to read as follows:

HOW PRESENTMENT MADE. (1) Presentment is a demand for acceptance or payment made upon the maker, acceptor, drawer or other payor by or on behalf of the holder.

(2) Presentment may be made
(a) by mail, in which event the time of presentment is determined by the time of receipt of the mail; or
(b) through a clearing house;
(c) at the place of acceptance or payment specified in the instrument or if there be none at the place of business or residence of the party to accept or pay. If neither the party to accept or pay nor anyone authorized to act for him is present or accessible at such place presentment is excused.

(3) It may be made
(a) to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawers or other payors; or
(b) to any person who has authority to make or refuse the acceptance or payment.

(4) A draft accepted or a note made payable at a bank in the United States must be presented at such bank.

(5) In the cases described in RCW 62A.4-210 presentment may be made in the manner and with the result stated in that section.

EXCUSED PRESENTMENT AND NOTICE OF DISHONOR. (a) Presentment for payment or acceptance of an instrument is excused if (i) the person entitled to present the instrument cannot with reasonable diligence make presentment, (ii) the maker or acceptor has repudiated an obligation to pay the instrument or is dead or in insolvency proceedings, (iii) by the terms of the instrument notice of dishonor is not necessary to enforce the obligation of indorsers or the drawer, (iv) the drawer or indorser whose obligation is being enforced has waived presentment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be paid or accepted, or (v) the drawer instructed the drawee not to pay or accept the draft or the drawee was not obligated to the drawer to pay the draft.

(b) Notice of dishonor is excused if (i) by the terms of the instrument notice of dishonor is not necessary to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, or (ii) the party whose obligation is being enforced waived notice of dishonor. A waiver of presentment is also a waiver of notice of dishonor.

(c) Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused if the delay was caused by circumstances beyond the control of the person giving the notice and the person giving the notice exercised reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceased to operate.

Sec. 65. RCW 62A.3-505 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-505 are each amended to read as follows:

RIGHTS OF PARTY TO WHOM PRESENTMENT IS MADE. (1) The party to whom presentment is made may without dishonor require
(a) exhibition of the instrument; and
(b) reasonable identification of the person making presentment and evidence of his authority to make it if made for another; and
(c) that the instrument be produced for acceptance or payment at a place specified in it, or if there be none at any place reasonable in the circumstances; and
(d) a signed receipt on the instrument for any partial or full payment and its surrender upon full payment.

(2) Failure to comply with any such requirement invalidates the presentment but the person presenting has a reasonable time in which to comply and the time for acceptance or payment runs from the time of compliance.

EVIDENCE OF DISHONOR. (a) The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of any notice of dishonor stated:

(1) A document regular in form as provided in subsection (b) that purports to be a protest;

(2) A purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank, or collecting bank on or accompanying the instrument stating that acceptance or payment has been refused unless reasons for the refusal are stated and the reasons are not consistent with dishonor;

(3) A book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or collecting bank, kept in the usual course of business which shows dishonor, even if there is no evidence of who made the entry.

(b) A protest is a certificate of dishonor made by a United States consul or vice-consul, or a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to that person. The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that presentment has been made or, if not made, the reason why it was not made, and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment. The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to some or all parties.

Sec. 66. RCW 62A.3-512 and 1990 c 203 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(A)(1) A person may not record the number of a credit card given as identification under RCW ((62A.2-505(4)(b)) 62A.3-501(b)(2)) or given as proof of credit worthiness when payment for goods or services is made by credit card or draft. Nothing in this section prohibits the recording of the number of a credit card given in lieu of a deposit to secure payment in the event of a default, loss, damage, or other occurrence.

Sec. 67. RCW 62A.3-515 and 1991 c 168 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

PART 6

DISCHARGE AND PAYMENT

Sec. 71. RCW 62A.3-601 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-601 are each amended to read as follows:

DISCHARGE OF PARTIES. (1) The extent of the discharge of any party from liability on an instrument is governed by the sections on

(a) payment or satisfaction (RCW 62A.3-603); or
(b) tender of payment (RCW 62A.3-604); or
(c) cancellation or renunciation (RCW 62A.3-605); or

(2) Nothing in this section precludes the right to commence action in any court under chapter 12.40 RCW for small claims.

Sec. 68. RCW 62A.3-520 and 1991 c 168 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The notice of dishonor shall be sent by mail to the drawer at (his or her) the drawer's last known address, and [(said)] the notice shall be substantially in the following form:

(Signature)

The holder shall retain the affidavit [(shall be retained)] with the check but shall file a copy of the affidavit [(shall be filed)] with the clerk of the court in which an action on the check is commenced.

Sec. 69. RCW 62A.3-522 and 1981 c 254 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to sending a notice of dishonor to the drawer of the check under RCW 62A.3-520, the holder of the check shall execute an affidavit certifying service of the notice by mail. The affidavit of service by mail [(shall)] must be attached to a copy of the notice of dishonor and [(shall)] must be substantially in the following form:

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE BY MAIL

I, ..........., hereby certify that on the _... day of ........., 19..., a copy of the foregoing Notice was served on .......... by mailing via the United States Postal Service, postage prepaid, at ........., Washington.

Dated: __......

(Signature)

The holder shall retain the affidavit [(shall be retained)] with the check but shall file a copy of the affidavit [(shall be filed)] with the clerk of the court in which an action on the check is commenced.

Sec. 70. RCW 62A.3-525 and 1981 c 254 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

No interest, collection costs, and attorneys' fees, except handling fees, [(shall be recovered)] are recoverable on any dishonored check under the provisions of RCW 62A.3-515 where the holder of [(such)] the check or any agent, employee, or assign of the holder has demanded:

1. Interest or collection costs in excess of that provided by RCW 62A.3-515; or
2. Interest or collection costs prior to the expiration of fifteen days after the mailing of notice of dishonor, as provided by RCW 62A.3-515 and 62A.3-520; or
3. Attorneys' fees either without having [(such)] the fees set by the court, or prior to the expiration of fifteen days after the mailing of notice of dishonor, as provided by RCW 62A.3-515 and 62A.3-520.
(d) impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (RCW 62A.3-606); or
(e) reacquisition of the instrument by a prior party (RCW 62A.3-208); or
(f) fraud and material alteration (RCW 62A.3-402); or
(g) certification of a check (RCW 62A.3-411); or
(h) acceptance varying a draft (RCW 62A.3-412); or
(i) unreasonable delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (RCW 62A.3-602).
(2) Any party is also discharged from his liability on an instrument to another party by any other act or agreement with such party which would discharge his simple contract for the payment of money.
(3) The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has himself no right of action or recourse on the instrument (a) reacquires the instrument in his own right; or
(b) is discharged under any provision of this Article, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of collateral (RCW 62A.3-606).

DISCHARGE AND EFFECT OF DISCHARGE. (a) The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is discharged as stated in this Article or by an act or agreement with the party which would discharge an obligation to pay money under a simple contract.
(b) Discharge of the obligation of a party is not effective against a person acquiring rights of a holder in due course of the instrument without notice of the discharge.

SEC. 72. ROW 62A.3-602 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-602 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYMENT. (a) Subject to subsection (b), an instrument is paid to the extent payment is made (i) by or on behalf of a party obliged to pay the obligation; and (ii) to a person entitled to enforce the instrument. To the extent of the payment, the obligation of any party to pay the instrument is discharged even though payment is made with knowledge of a claim to the instrument under ROW 62A.3-306 by another person.

(b) The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is not discharged under subsection (a) if:

(1) A claim to the instrument under ROW 62A.3-306 is enforceable against the party receiving payment and (i) payment is made with knowledge by the payor that payment is prohibited by injunction or similar process of a court of competent jurisdiction, or
(ii) in the case of an instrument other than a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check, the party making payment accepted, or

(2) The person making payment knows that the instrument is a stolen instrument and pays a person in wrongful possession of the instrument.

SEC. 73. ROW 62A.3-603 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-603 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYMENT OR SATISFACTION. (1) The liability of any party is discharged to the extent of his payment or satisfaction to the holder even though it is made with knowledge of a claim of another person to the instrument unless prior to such payment or satisfaction the person making the claim either supplies indemnity deemed adequate by the party seeking the discharge or enjoins payment or satisfaction by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and the holder are parties. This subsection does not, however, result in the discharge of the liability of a party who in bad faith pays or satisfies a holder who acquired the instrument by theft or who (unless having the rights of a holder in due course) holds through one who so acquired it; or

(b) of a party (other than an intermediary bank or a payor bank which is not a depository bank) who pays or satisfies the holder of an instrument which has been restrictively indorsed in a manner not consistent with the terms of such restrictive indorsement.

(2) Payment or satisfaction may be made with the consent of the holder by any person including a stranger to the instrument. Surrender of the instrument to such a person gives him the rights of a transferee (RCW 62A.3-201).

SEC. 74. ROW 62A.3-604 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-604 are each amended to read as follows:

TENDER OF PAYMENT. (1) Any party making tender of full payment to a holder when or after it is due is discharged to the extent of all subsequent liability for interest, costs and attorney's fees.
(2) The holder's refusal of such tender wholly discharges any party who has a right of recourse against the party making the tender.
(3) Where the maker or acceptor of an instrument payable otherwise than on demand is able and ready to pay at every place of payment specified in the instrument when it is due, it is equivalent to tender.)

DISCHARGE BY CANCELLATION OR RENUNCIATION. (a) A person entitled to enforce an instrument, with or without consideration, may discharge the obligation of a party to pay the instrument (i) by an intention voluntary act, such as surrender of the instrument to the party, destruction, mutilation, or cancellation of the instrument, cancellation or striking out of the party's signature, or the addition of words to the instrument indicating discharge, or (ii) by agreeing not to sue or otherwise renouncing rights against the party by a signed writing.
(b) Cancellation or striking out of an indorsement pursuant to subsection (a) does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the indorsement.

SEC. 75. ROW 62A.3-605 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 3-605 are each amended to read as follows:

(CANCELLATION AND RENUNCIATION. (1) The holder of an instrument may even without consideration discharge any party.
(a) in any manner apparent on the face of the instrument or the indorsement, as by intentionally cancelling the instrument or the party's signature by destruction or mutilation, or by striking out the party's signature, or
(b) by renouncing his rights by a writing signed and delivered or by surrender of the instrument to the party to be discharged.
(2) Neither cancellation nor renunciation without surrender of the instrument affects the title thereto.)

DISCHARGE OF INDOERS AND ACCOMMODATION PARTIES. (a) In this section, the term "indorser" includes a drawer having the obligation described in RCW 62A.3-414(d).
(b) Discharge, under RCW 62A.3-604, of the obligation of a party to pay an instrument does not discharge the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the discharged party,
(c) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to an extension of the due date of the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the extension discharges an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the party whose obligation is extended to the extent the indorser or accommodation party proves that the extension caused loss to the indorser or accommodation party with respect to the right of recourse.
(d) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to a material modification of the obligation of a party other than an extension of the due date, the modification discharges the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the person whose obligation is modified to the extent the modification causes loss to the indorser or accommodation party with respect to the right of recourse. The loss suffered by the indorser or accommodation party as a result of the modification is equal to the amount of the right of recourse unless the person enforcing the instrument proves that no loss was caused by the modification or that the loss caused by the modification was an amount less than the amount of the right of recourse.
(e) If the obligation of a party to pay an instrument is secured by an interest in collateral and a person entitled to enforce the instrument impairs the value of the interest in collateral, the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the obligor is discharged to the extent of the impairment. "The value of an interest in collateral is impaired to the extent (i) the value of the interest is reduced to an amount less than the amount of the right of recourse of the party asserting discharge, or (ii) the reduction in the value of the interest causes an increase in the amount by which the amount of the right of recourse exceeds the value of the interest. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.
(f) If the obligation of a party is secured by an interest in collateral not provided by an accommodation party and a person entitled to enforce the instrument impairs the value of the interest in collateral, the obligation of any party who is jointly and severally liable with respect to the secured obligation is discharged to the extent the impairment causes the party asserting discharge to pay more than that party would have been obliged to pay, taking into account rights of contribution, if impairment had not occurred. If the party asserting discharge is an accommodation party not entitled to discharge under subsection (e), the party is deemed to have a right to contribution based on joint and several liability rather than a right to reimbursement. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.
(g) Under subsection (e) or (f), impairing value of an interest in collateral includes (i) failure to obtain or maintain perfection or recordation of the interest in collateral, (ii) release of collateral without substitution of collateral of equal value, (iii) failure to perform a duty to preserve the value of collateral owed, under Article 9 or other law, to a debtor or surety or other person secondarily liable, or (iv) failure to comply with applicable law in disposing of collateral.

(a) affixing a "paid" or other stamp;
(b) entering a charge or entry to a customer's account;
(c) a restrictive indorsement, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment of a specific item drawn on a payor other than a bank, and with or without the approval of any person involved, may waive, modify, or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this Title for a period not exceeding two additional banking days without discharge of drawers or indorsers or liability to its transferor or a prior party.

(b) Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this Title or by instructions is excused if (i) the delay is caused by interruption of communication or computer facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank, and (ii) the bank exercises such diligence as the circumstances require.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 86. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-110, to read as follows:

ELECTRONIC PRESENTMENT. (a) "Agreement for electronic presentment" means an agreement, clearing-house rule, or Federal Reserve regulation or operating circular, providing that presentment of an item may be made by transmission of an image of an item or information describing the item ("presentment notice") rather than delivery of the item itself. The agreement may provide for procedures governing retention, presentment, payment, dishonor, and other matters concerning items subject to the agreement.
(b) Presentment of an item pursuant to an agreement for presentment is made when the presentment notice is received.
(c) If presentment is made by presentment notice, a reference to "item" or "check" in this Article means the presentment notice unless the context otherwise indicates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 87. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-111, to read as follows:

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. An action to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this Article must be commenced within three years after the cause of action accrues.

PART 2
COLLECTION OF ITEMS:
DEPOSITORY AND COLLECTING BANKS

Sec. 88. RCW 62A.4-201 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-201 are each amended to read as follows:

(PRESUMPTION AND DURATION OF AGENCY) STATUS OF COLLECTING BANK(§S) AS AGENT AND PROVISIONAL STATUS OF CREDITS; APPLICABILITY OF ARTICLE; ITEM INORDURED "PAY ANY BANK". (¶¶) (a) Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and (¶¶) before the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final (§s. 210 and 211, RCW 62A.4-210 and RCW 62A.4-211 and RCW 62A.4-212 and RCW 62A.4-213)) the bank, with respect to the item, is an agent or sub-agent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of indorsement or lack of indorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceed to the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and (valid) rights of recoupment or setoff. (¶¶) If an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment (¶¶), collection, or return, the relevant provisions of this Article apply even though action of the parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it. (¶) (b) After an item has been indorsed with the words "pay any bank" or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder until the item has been:

1. (¶) (a) Returned to the customer initiating collection; or
2. (¶) (b) Specially indorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank.

Sec. 89. RCW 62A.4-202 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-202 are each amended to read as follows:

RESPONSIBILITY FOR COLLECTION OR RETURN; WHEN ACTION (SEASONABLE) TIMELY. (¶¶) (a) A collecting bank must (use) exercise ordinary care in:

1. (¶) (a) Presenting an item or sending it for presentment; (¶¶)
2. (¶) (b) Sending notice of dishonor or non-payment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank's transferor (also directly to the depositary bank under subsection (2) of RCW 62A.4-212) after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be; (¶¶)
3. (¶) (a) Settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement; and
4. (¶) (b) Notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.

(b) A collecting bank, in taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice, or settlement. Taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may be reasonable but the bank has the burden of establishing timely.) (b) A collecting bank exercises ordinary care under subsection (a) by taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice, or settlement. Taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may constitute the exercise of ordinary care, but the bank has the burden of establishing timeliness.

(¶) Subject to subsection (¶) (§s. 111, to read as

Sec. 90. RCW 62A.4-203 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-203 are each amended to read as follows:

EFFECT OF INSTRUCTIONS. Subject to (¶)(a) Article 3 concerning conversion of instruments (¶¶) (RCW 62A.3.419)) (RCW 62A.3.420 (section 60 of this act)) and (¶¶) restrictive indorsements (RCW 62A.3.206); only a collecting bank's transferor can give instructions (¶¶) that affect the bank or constitute notice to it, and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to ((such)) the instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor.

Sec. 91. ROW 62A.4-204 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-204 are each amended to read as follows:

METHODS OF SENDING AND PRESENTING: SENDING ((DIRECT)) DIRECTLY TO PAYOR BANK. (1) A collecting bank ((must)) shall send items by a reasonably prompt method, taking into consideration ((any)) relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of ((such)) those items on hand, ((and)) the cost of collection involved, and the method generally used by it or others to present ((such)) those items.

((ii)(a)) A collecting bank may send;
((ii)(b)) An item ((direct)) directly to the payor bank;
((ii)(c)) An item to ((any)) a non-bank payor if authorized by its transferor; and ((ii)(d)) An item other than documentary drafts to ((any)) a non-bank payor, if authorized by Federal Reserve regulation or operating ((limited)) circular, clearing-house rule, or the like.

((iii)) Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank or other payor has requested that presentment be made.

Sec. 92. RCW 62A.4-205 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-205 are each amended to read as follows:

SUPPLYING MISSING INDOREMENT; NO NOTICE FROM PRIOR INDOREMENT.) DEPOSITORY BANK

HOLDER OF UNINDORSED ITEM

If a customer delivers an item to a depositary bank for collection:

((1)) A depositary bank which has taken an item for collection may supply any indorsement of the customer which is necessary to title unless the item contains the words "payee's indorsement required" or the like. In the absence of such a requirement a statement placed on the item by the depositary bank to the effect that the item was deposited by a customer or credited to his account is effective as the customer's indorsement.

(2) An intermediary bank, or payor bank which is not a depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive indorsement of any person except the banks immediately involved in the transfer of the item.

((i)) The depositary bank becomes a holder of the item at the time it receives the item for collection if the customer at the time of delivery was a holder of the item, whether or not the customer indorses the item, and, if the bank satisfies the other requirements of RCW 62A.3-302, it is a holder in due course; and

(ii) The depositary bank warrants to collecting banks, the payor bank or other payor, and the drawer that the amount of the item was paid to the customer or deposited to the customer's account.

Sec. 93. ROW 62A.4-206 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-206 are each amended to read as follows:

TRANSFER BETWEEN BANKS. Any agreed method ((which)) that identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank.

Sec. 94. ROW 62A.4-207 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-207 are each amended to read as follows:

TRANSFER WARRANTIES ((OF CUSTOMER AND COLLECTING BANK ON TRANSFER OR PRESENTMENT OF ITEMS; TIME FOR CLAIMS. (1)) Each customer or collecting bank who obtains payment or acceptance of an item and prior customer and collecting bank warrants to the payor bank or other payor who in good faith pays or accepts the item that

(a) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and

(b) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith

(i) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or

(ii) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawer of the item; or

(iii) to an acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and

(iv) to an acceptor of an item after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or

(v) to the accceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or

(vi) to the accceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.

(2) Each customer and collecting bank who transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to his transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

(a) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and

(b) all signatures are genuine or authorized; and

(c) the item has not been materially altered; and

(d) no defense of any party is good against him; and

(e) he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor protest he will take up the item.

(3) The warranties and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise notwithstanding the absence of indorsement or words of guaranty or warranty in the transfer or presentment and a collecting bank remains liable for their breach despite remittance to its transferor. Damages for breach of such warranties or engagement to honor shall not exceed the consideration received by the customer or collecting bank responsible plus finance charges and expenses related to the item, if any.

(4) Unless a claim for breach of warranty under this section is made within a reasonable time after the person claiming the breach, the person liable is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in making claim. (1) A customer or collecting bank that transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration warrants to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that:
(1) The warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the item;
(2) All signatures on the item are authentic and authorized;
(3) The item has not been altered;
(4) The item is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment (RCW 62A.3-305(a)) of any party that can be asserted against the warrantor; and
(5) The warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer.

(b) If an item is dishonored, a customer or collecting bank transferring the item and receiving settlement or other consideration is entitled to pay the amount due on the item:
(i) according to the terms of the item at the time it was transferred, or
(ii) if the transfer was of an incomplete item, according to its terms when completed as stated in RCW 62A.3-115 and 62A.3-407. The obligation of a transferor is owed to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that takes the item in good faith. A transferor cannot disclaim its obligation under this subsection by an indorsement stating that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaiming liability.

(c) A person to whom the warranties under subsection (a) are made and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the item plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

(d) The warranties stated in subsection (a) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(e) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Sec. 95. RCW 62A.4-208 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-208 are each amended to read as follows:

SECURITY INTEREST OF COLLECTING BANK IN ITEMS, ACcompanying DOCUMENTS AND PROCEEDS—(1) A bank has a security interest in any item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:
(a) in case of an item deposited in an account to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;
(b) in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon and whether or not there is a right of charge back; or
(c) if it makes an advance on or against the item.
(2) When credit which has been given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied part the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first give are first withdrawn.
(3) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of Article 9 except that:
(a) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subsection (1)(b) of RCW 62A.9-203);
(b) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and
(c) the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents or proceeds.)

PRESENTMENT WARRANTIES. (a) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, (i) the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and (ii) a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee that pays or accepts the draft in good faith that:
(1) The warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;
(2) The draft has not been altered; and
(3) The warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft is unauthorized.
(b) A drawee making payment may recover from a warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee receives or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft (i) breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor, and (ii) if the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from a warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

(c) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (a) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under RCW 62A.3-404 or 62A.3-405 or the drawer is precluded under RCW 62A.3-406 or 62A.4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.
(d) If (i) a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or (ii) any other item is presented for payment to a party obligated to pay the item, and the item is paid, the person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the item warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is, or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the item, a person entitled to enforce the item or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the item. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.
(e) The warranties stated in subsections (a) and (d) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within thirty days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(f) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.
WHEN BANK GIVES VALUE FOR PURPOSES OF HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, the bank has given value to the extent that it has a security interest in an item provided that the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.

ENCODING AND RETENTION WARRANTIES. (a) A person who encodes information on or with respect to an item after issue warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that the information is correctly encoded. If the customer of a depositary bank encodes, that bank also makes the warranty.

(b) A person who undertakes to retain an item pursuant to an agreement for electronic presentment warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that retention and presentment of the item comply with the agreement. If a customer of a depositary bank undertakes to retain an item, that bank also makes this warranty.

(c) A person to whom warranties are made under this section and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

Sec. 97. RCW 62A.4-210 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-210 are each amended to read as follows:

(PRESENTMENT BY NOTICE OF ITEM NOT PAYABLE BY, THROUGH OR AT A BANK; LIABILITY OF SECONDARY PARTIES. (1) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under RCW 62A.3-505 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

(2) Where presentment is made by notice and neither honor nor request for compliance with a requirement under RCW 62A.3-505 is received by the close of business on the day after maturity or in the case of demand items by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any secondary party by sending him notice of the facts.) SECURITY INTEREST OF COLLECTING BANK IN ITEMS, ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENTS AND PROCEEDS. (a) A collecting bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:

(1) In case of an item deposited in an account, to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;

(2) In case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon or there is a right of charge-back; or

(3) If it makes an advance on or against the item.

(b) If credit given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part, the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

(c) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents, and proceeds. So long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues to that extent and is subject to Article 9, but:

(1) No security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subsection (1) of RCW 62A.9-203);

(2) No filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

(3) The security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents, or proceeds.

Sec. 98. RCW 62A.4-211 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-211 are each amended to read as follows:

(MEDIA OF REMITTANCE; PROVISIONAL AND FINAL SETTLEMENT IN REMITTANCE CASES. (1) A collecting bank may take in settlement of an item

(a) a check of the remitting bank or of another bank on any bank except the remitting bank; or

(b) a cashier's check or similar primary obligation of a remitting bank which is a member of or clears through a member of the same clearing house or group as the collecting bank; or

(c) appropriate authority to charge an account of the remitting bank or of another bank with the collecting bank;

(d) if the item is drawn upon or payable by a person other than a bank, a cashier's check, certified check or other bank check or obligation.

(2) If before its midnight deadline the collecting bank properly dishonors a remittance check or authorization to charge on itself or presents or forwards for collection a remittance instrument of or on another bank which is or a kind approved by subsection (1) or has not been authorized by it, the collecting bank is not liable to prior parties in the event of the dishonor of such check, instrument or authorization.

(3) A settlement for an item by means of a remittance instrument or authorization to charge is or becomes a final settlement as to both the person making and the person receiving the settlement

(a) if the remittance instrument or authorization to charge is or is a kind approved by subsection (1) or has not been authorized by the person receiving the settlement and in either case the person receiving the settlement acts seasonably before its midnight deadline in presenting, forwarding for collection or paying the instrument or authorization, at such time the remittance instrument or authorization is finally paid by the payor which is or is a kind approved by subsection (1)(b), at the time of the receipt of such remittance check or obligation or

(b) if in a case not covered by subparagraphs (a) or (b) the person receiving the settlement fails to seasonably present, forward for collection, pay or return a remittance instrument or authorization to it to charge before its midnight deadline, at such midnight deadline.) WHEN BANK GIVES VALUE FOR PURPOSES OF HOLDER IN DUE COURSE. For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, bank has given value to the extent it has a security interest in an item, if the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of RCW 62A.3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.

Sec. 99. RCW 62A.4-212 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-212 are each amended to read as follows:

(RIGHT OF CHARGE-BACK OR REFUND. (1) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and itself fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account or obtain refund from its customer whether or not it is able to return the items if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns that the settlement is final, the person receiving settlement.

In such case, if the depositary bank has received provisional settlement for the item, it must reimburse the bank, draw the draft and any provisional credits for the item between banks shall become and remain final.

A depositary bank which is also the payor may charge back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (RCW 62A.4-301) (4).

The right to charge back is not affected by

(a) prior use of the credit given for the item; or

(b) failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item but any bank so failing remains liable.

A failure to charge back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(5) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign currency the dollar amount of any charge back or refund shall be calculated on the basis of the buying sight rate for the foreign currency prevailing on the day

PRESENTMENT BY NOTICE OF ITEM NOT PAYABLE BY, THROUGH, OR AT A BANK; LIABILITY OF DRAWER OR INDORSER. (a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or pay. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under RCW 62A.3-501 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

(b) If presentment is made by notice and payment, acceptance, or request for compliance with a requirement under RCW 62A.3-501 is not received by the close of business on the day after maturity or, in the case of demand items, by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any drawer or indorsor by sending it notice of the facts.

Sec. 100. RCW 62A.4-213 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-213 are each amended to read as follows:

FINAL PAYMENT OF ITEM BY PAYOR BANK; WHEN PROVISIONAL DEBITS AND CREDITS BECOME FINAL; WHEN CERTAIN CREDITS BECOME AVAILABLE FOR WITHDRAWAL. (1) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first:

(a) paid the item in cash; or

(b) settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement; or

(c) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith; or

(d) made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing house rule or agreement.

Upon a final payment under subparagraphs (b), (c) or (d) the payor bank shall be accountable for the amount of the item.

(2) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(3) A collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final (subsection (3) of RCW 62A.4-211, subsection (2) of RCW 62A.4-213), the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(4) Subject to any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in an account with its customer becomes available for withdrawal as of right

(a) in any case where the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item, when such settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to learn that the settlement is final;

(b) in any case where the bank is both a depositary bank and a payor bank and the item is finally paid, at the opening of the bank's next banking day following receipt of the item.

(5) A deposit of money in a bank is final when made but, subject to any right of the bank to apply the deposit to an obligation of the customer, the deposit becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day following receipt of the deposit.) MEDIUM AND TIME OF SETTLEMENT BY BANK. (a) With respect to settlement by a bank, the medium and time of settlement may be prescribed by Federal Reserve regulations or circulars, clearing-house rules, and the like, or agreement. In the absence of such prescription:

(1) The medium of settlement is cash or credit to an account in a Federal Reserve bank of or specified by the person to receive settlement.

(2) The time of settlement is:

(i) With respect to tender of settlement by cash, a cashier's check, or teller's check, when the cash or check is sent or delivered;

(ii) With respect to tender of settlement by credit in an account in a Federal Reserve bank, when the credit is made;

(iii) With respect to tender of settlement by a credit or debit to an account in a bank, when the credit or debit is made or, in the case of tender of settlement by authority to charge an account, when the authority is sent or delivered; or

(iv) With respect to tender of settlement by a funds transfer, when payment is made pursuant to RCW 62A.4A-406(1) to the person receiving settlement.

(b) If the tender of settlement is not by a medium authorized by subsection (a) or the time of settlement is not fixed by subsection (a), no settlement occurs until the tender of settlement is accepted by the person receiving settlement.
(c) If settlement for an item is made by cashier's check or teller's check and the person receiving settlement, before its midnight deadline:
   (1) Presents or forwards the check for collection, settlement is final when the check is finally paid; or
   (2) Fails to present or forward the check for collection, settlement is final at the midnight deadline of the person receiving settlement.

(d) If settlement for an item is made by giving authority to charge the account of the bank giving settlement in the bank receiving settlement, settlement is final when the charge is made by the bank receiving settlement if there are funds available in the account for the amount of the item.

Sec. 101. RCW 62A.4-214 and 1965 ex.s. c.157 § 4-214 are each amended to read as follows:

(INSOLVENCY AND PREFERENCE. (1) Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank which suspends payment and which item is not finally paid shall be returned by the receiver, trustee or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.

(2) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(3) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finally occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events (subsection (3) of RCW 62A.4-211, subsections (1)-(d), (2) and (3) of RCW 62A.4-213).

(4) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against such collecting bank.)

RIGHT OF CHARGE-BACK OR REFUND; LIABILITY OF COLLECTING BANK:
RETURN OF ITEM. (a) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank, or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account, or obtain refund from its customer, whether or not it is able to return the items. If by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. If the return or notice is delayed beyond the bank's midnight deadline or a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts, the bank may revoke the settlement, charge back the credit, or obtain refund from its customer, but it is liable for any loss resulting from the delay. These rights to revoke, charge-back, and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final.

(b) A collecting bank returns an item when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to its instructions.

(c) A depositary bank that is also the payor may charge-back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (RCW 62A.4-301).

(d) The right to charge-back is not affected by:
   (1) Previous use of a credit given for the item; or
   (2) Failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item, but a bank so failing remains liable.

(e) A failure to charge-back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(f) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign money, the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund must be calculated on the basis of the bank-offered spot rate for the foreign money prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 102. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-215, to read as follows:

FINIAL PAYMENT OF ITEM BY PAYOR BANK: WHEN PROVISIONAL DEBITS AND CREDITS BECOME FINAL; WHEN CERTAIN CREDITS BECOME AVAILABLE FOR WITHDRAWAL. (a) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has first done any of the following:
   (1) Paid the item in cash;
   (2) Settled for the item without having a right to revoke the settlement under statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement; or
   (3) Made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement.

(b) If provisional settlement for an item does not become final, the item is not finally paid.

(c) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(d) If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final, the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(e) Subject to (i) applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and (ii) any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in a customer's account becomes available for withdrawal as of right:
   (1) If the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item, when the settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to receive return of the item and the item has not been received within that time;
   (2) If the bank is both the depositary bank and the payor bank, and the item is finally paid, at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item.

(f) Subject to applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and any right of a bank to apply a deposit to an obligation of the depositor, a deposit of money becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day after receipt of the deposit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. A new section is added to Title 62A RCW, to be codified as RCW 62A.4-216, to read as follows:
INSOLVENCY AND PREFERENCE. (a) If an item is in or comes into the possession of a payor or collecting bank that suspends payment and the item has not been finally paid, the item must be returned by the receiver, trustee, or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank’s customer.

(b) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(c) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement’s becoming final if the finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events.

(d) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item, which settlement is or becomes final and the bank suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the collecting bank.

PART 3
COLLECTION OF ITEMS: PAYOR BANKS

Sec. 104. RCW 62A.4-301 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-301 are each amended to read as follows:

DEFERRED POSTING; RECOVERY OF PAYMENT BY RETURN OF ITEMS; TIME OF DISHONOR; RETURN OF ITEMS BY PAYOR BANK. (((Where an authorized settlement)) (a) If a payor bank settles for a demand item (other than a documentary draft) (received by a payor bank) presented otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter (has been made)) before midnight of the banking day of receipt, the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover (any payment) the settlement of the item at any time before it has made final payment (((subsection (1) of RCW 62A.4-213)) and before its midnight deadline, it:

((i)) (1) Returns the item; or
((ii)) (2) Sends written notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is ((held for protest or is otherwise)) unavailable for return.

((iii)) (b) If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books, it may return ((such)) the item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in ((the preceding)) subsection (a).

((iv)) (c) Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent, an item is dishonored at the time when purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent in accordance with this section.

((v)) (d) An item is returned:

((vi)) (1) As to an item ((received)) presented through a clearing house, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearing house or is sent or delivered in accordance with ((ii)) clearing-house rules; or ((vii)) (2) In all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank’s customer or transferor or pursuant to ((vi)) instructions.

Sec. 105. RCW 62A.4-302 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-302 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYOR BANK’S RESPONSIBILITY FOR LATE RETURN OF ITEM. (((In the absence of a valid defense such as breach of a presentment warranty (subsection (1) of RCW 62A.4-207), settlement effected or the like)) (a) If an item is presented ((en)) to and received by a payor bank, the bank is accountable for the amount of:

((i)) (1) A demand item, other than a documentary draft, whether properly payable or not, if the bank, in any case ((where)) in which it is not also the depositary bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, ((regardless of)) whether or not it is also the depositary bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline; or
((ii)) (2) Any other properly payable item unless, within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item, the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.

(b) The liability of a payor bank to pay an item pursuant to subsection (a) is subject to defenses based on breach of a presentment warranty (RCW 62A.4-208) or proof that the person seeking enforcement of the liability presented or transferred the item for the purpose of defrauding the payor bank.

Sec. 106. RCW 62A.4-303 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-303 are each amended to read as follows:

WHEN ITEMS SUBJECT TO NOTICE. (((STOP ORDER)) STOP PAYMENT ORDER, LEGAL PROCESS, OR SETOFF: ORDER IN WHICH ITEMS MAY BE CHARGED OR CERTIFIED. (((4) Any knowledge, notice, or ((stop order)) stop-payment order received by, legal process served upon, or setoff exercised by a payor bank(((whether or not effective under other rules of law)) comes too late to terminate, suspend, or modify the bank’s right or duty to pay an item or to charge its customer’s account for the item((comes too late to so terminate, suspend or modify such right or duty)) if the knowledge, notice, stop-payment order, or legal process is received or served and a reasonable time for the bank to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the ((bank has done any)) earliest of the following:

((1)) (a) The bank accepts or certifies the item;
((2)) (b) The bank pays the item in cash;
((3)) (c) The bank settles for the item without ((reserving) having a right to revoke the settlement ((and without having such right))) under statute, clearing-house rule, or agreement;
((4)) (d) The bank becomes accountable for the amount of the item under (((subsection (1)(d) of RCW 62A.4-213))) RCW 62A.4-302 dealing with the payor bank’s responsibility for late return of items; or ((5)) (e) With respect to checks, a cutoff hour no earlier than one hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check and no later than the close of that next banking day or, if no cutoff hour is fixed, the close of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check.

((ii)) (b) Subject to ((the provisions of)) subsection (((4))) (a) items may be accepted, paid, certified, or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order ((convenient to the bank)).
PART 4
RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PAYOR BANK AND ITS CUSTOMER

Sec. 107. RCW 62A.4-401 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-401 are each amended to read as follows:
WHEN BANK MAY CHARGE CUSTOMER'S ACCOUNT. (14) A bank may charge against the account (any) of a customer an item (which) that is (otherwise) properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft. An item is properly payable if it is authorized by the customer and is in accordance with any agreement between the customer and bank.

(15) A customer is not liable for the amount of an overdraft if the customer neither signed the item nor benefited from the proceeds of the item.

(c) A bank may charge against the account of a customer a check that is otherwise properly payable from the account, even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless the customer has given notice to the bank of the postdating describing the check with reasonable certainty. The notice is effective for the period stated in RCW 62A.4-403(b) for stop-payment orders, and must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the bank takes any action with respect to the check described in RCW 62A.4-303. A bank may not collect a fee from a customer based on the customer's giving notice to the bank of a postdating. If a bank charges against the account of a customer a check before the date stated in the notice of postdating, the bank is liable for damages for the loss resulting from its act. The loss may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items under RCW 62A.4-402.

A bank (which) that in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to:
(1) The original (which) terms of (the) altered item; or
(2) The (tenor) terms of (the) completed item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper.

Sec. 108. RCW 62A.4-402 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-402 are each amended to read as follows:
BANK'S LIABILITY TO CUSTOMER FOR WRONGFUL DISHONOR; TIME OF DETERMINING INSUFFICIENCY OF ACCOUNT. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, a bank wrongfully dishonors an item if it dishonors an item that is properly payable, but a bank may dishonor an item that would create an overdraft unless it has agreed to pay the overdraft.

(b) A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. (When the dishonor occurs through mistake) Liability is limited to actual damages proved (if so proximately caused) and (proved damages) may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case.

(c) A payor bank's determination of the customer's account balance on which a decision to dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is based may be made at any time between the time the item is received by the payor bank and the time that the payor bank returns the item or gives notice in lieu of return, and no more than one determination need be made. If, at the election of the payor bank, a subsequent balance determination is made for the purpose of reevaluating the bank's decision to dishonor the item, the account balance at that time is determinative of whether a dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is wrongful.

Sec. 109. RCW 62A.4-403 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-403 are each amended to read as follows:
CUSTOMER'S RIGHT TO STOP PAYMENT; BURDEN OF PROOF OF LOSS. (14) A customer or any other person authorized to draw on the account if there is more than one person may (by order to his bank) stop payment of any item (payable for him) drawn on the customer's account (for him) or close the account by order (for him) to the bank describing the item or account with reasonable certainty received at (for him) a time and in (for him) a manner (as to him) that affords the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it (prior to) before any action by the bank with respect to the item described in RCW 62A.4-303. If the signature of more than one person is required to draw on an account, any of these persons may stop payment or close the account.

(15) An oral order is binding upon the bank only for fourteen calendar days unless confirmed in writing within that period. A written order is effective for only six months unless renewed in writing.) (b) A stop-payment order is effective for six months, but it lapses after fourteen calendar days if the original order was oral and not confirmed in writing within that period. A stop-payment order may be renewed for additional six-month periods by a writing given to the bank within a period during which the stop-payment order is effective.

(16) The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop-payment order or to close the account on the customer. The loss from payment of an item contrary to a stop-payment order may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items under RCW 62A.4-402.

Sec. 110. RCW 62A.4-405 and 1965 ex.s. c 157 s 4-405 are each amended to read as follows:
DEATH OR INCOMPETENCE OF CUSTOMER. (14) (a) A payor or collecting bank's authority to accept, pay, or collect an item or to account for proceeds of its collection, if otherwise effective, is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank. Existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes (such) the authority to accept, pay, collect, or account until the bank knows of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and has reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(15) (b) Even with knowledge, a bank may for ten days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or (prior to) before that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account.

Sec. 111. RCW 62A.4-406 and 1991 sp.s. c 19 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(15) A bank that sends or makes available to a customer a statement of account showing payment of items for the account shall either return or make available to the customer the items paid, copies of the items paid, or provide information in the statement of account sufficient to allow the customer reasonably to identify the items paid. Until January 1, 1998, the statement of account provides sufficient information if the item is described by item number, amount, and date of payment. If the bank does not return the items paid or copies of the items paid, it shall provide in the statement of account the telephone number that the customer may call to request an item or copy of an item pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(b) If the items are not returned to the customer, the person retaining the items shall either retain the items or, if the items are destroyed, maintain the capacity to furnish legible copies of the items until the expiration of seven years after receipt of the items. A customer may request an item from the bank that paid the item, and that bank must provide in a reasonable time either the item or, if the item has been destroyed or is not otherwise obtainable, a legible copy of the item. A bank shall provide, upon request and without charge to the customer, at least five items or copies of items with respect to each statement of account sent to the customer. A bank may charge fees for additional items or copies of items in accordance with section 118 of this act. Requests for ten items or less shall be processed and completed within ten business days.

(c) If a bank sends or makes available a statement of account or items pursuant to subsection (a), the customer must exercise reasonable promptness in examining the statement or the items to determine whether any payment was not authorized because of an alteration of an item or because a purported signature by or on behalf of the customer was not authorized. If, based on the statement or items provided, the customer should reasonably have discovered the unauthorized payment, the customer must promptly notify the bank of the relevant facts.

(d) If the bank (establishes) proves that the customer failed with respect to an item to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by subsection (((1)) of this section)) or the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank:

(iii) the customer’s unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item, if the bank also (establishes) proves that it suffered a loss by reason of ((such)) the failure; and

(iv) the customer’s unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrong-doer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank ((after the first item and statement was available to the customer for a reasonable period and before the bank receives notification from the customer of any such unauthorized signature or alteration)) if the payment was made before the bank received notice from the customer of the unauthorized signature or alteration and after the customer had been afforded a reasonable period of time, not exceeding thirty days, in which to examine the item or statement of account and notify the bank.

If a payor bank has paid an item over the (stop payment) order of the drawer or maker to stop payment, or after an account has been closed, or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of the payment of the item, the payor bank (shall) is subrogated to the rights:

(i) (1) Of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker; (and)

(ii) (2) Of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker or any other holder of the item on which the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or indorsement or such alteration.

The preclusion under subsection (2) of this section does not apply if the customer establishes lack of ordinary care on the part of the bank in paying the item(s).

(4)) (e) If subsection (d) applies and the customer proves that the bank failed to exercise ordinary care in paying the item and that the failure substantially contributed to loss, the loss is allocated between the customer precluded and the bank asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of the customer to comply with subsection (c) and the failure of the bank to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss. If the customer proves that the bank did not pay the item in good faith, the preclusion under subsection (d) does not apply.

Without regard to care, lack of care of either the customer or the bank, a natural person whose account is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes who does not within one year and any other customer who does not within sixty days from the time the statement and items are made available to the customer (subsection (((1)) of this section)) discover and report (this or his) the customer’s unauthorized signature or any alteration on the face or back of the item or does not within (three years) one year from that time discover and report any unauthorized indorsement is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or indorsement or such alteration.

(5) If under this section a payor bank has a valid defense against a claim of a customer upon or resulting from payment of an item and waives or fails upon request to assert the defense the bank may not assert against any collecting bank or other prior party presenting or transferring the item a claim based upon the unauthorized signature or alteration giving rise to the customer’s claim. If there is a preclusion under this subsection, the payor bank may not recover for breach of warranty under RCW 62A.4-208 with respect to the unauthorized signature or alteration to which the preclusion applies.

Sec. 112. RCW 62A.4-407 and 1965 ex.s.c 157 s 4-407 are each amended to read as follows:

PAYOR BANK’S RIGHT TO SUBROGATION ON IMPROPER PAYMENT. If a payor bank has paid an item over the ((stop payment)) order of the drawer or maker to stop payment, or after an account has been closed, or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of the payment of the item, the payor bank (shall) is subrogated to the rights:

(i) (1) Of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker; (and)

(ii) (2) Of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker or any other holder of the item on which the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank

such unauthorized signature or indorsement or such alteration.

If a payor bank has paid an item over the ((stop payment)) order of the drawer or maker to stop payment, or after an account has been closed, or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of the payment of the item, the payor bank (shall) is subrogated to the rights:

(i) (1) Of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker; (and)

(ii) (2) Of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker or any other holder of the item on which the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or indorsement or such alteration.

PART 5
COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS

Sec. 113. RCW 62A.4-501 and 1965 ex.s.c 157 s 4-501 are each amended to read as follows:

HANDLING OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS; DUTY TO SEND FOR PRESENTMENT AND TO NOTIFY CUSTOMER OF DISHONOR. A bank ((which)) that takes a documentary draft for collection ((must)) shall present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and, upon learning that the draft has not been paid or accepted in due course ((must)) shall seasonably notify its customer of ((the)) the fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right.

Sec. 114. RCW 62A.4-502 and 1965 ex.s.c 157 s 4-502 are each amended to read as follows:

PRESENTMENT OF “ON ARRIVAL” DRAFTS. (which)) If a draft or the relevant instructions require presentment “on arrival”, “when goods arrive” or the like, the collecting bank need not present until in its judgment a reasonable time for arrival of the goods has expired. Refusal to pay or accept because the goods have not arrived is not dishonor; the bank must notify its transferor of ((the)) the refusal but need not present the draft again until it is instructed to do so or learns of the arrival of the goods.

Sec. 115. RCW 62A.4-503 and 1965 ex.s.c 157 s 4-503 are each amended to read as follows:
A financial institution may charge a customer for furnishing items or copies of items as defined in RCW 62A.4-104, in excess of the number of free items or copies of items provided for in 62A.4-406(b), fifty cents per copy furnished plus fees for retrieval at a rate not to exceed the rate assessed when complying with summons issued by the Internal Revenue Service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 119. No provision in this act changes or modifies existing common law or other law of Washington state concerning the recovery of attorneys' fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 120. This act shall take effect July 1, 1994."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1395, by Representatives Scott, Long, G. Cole, Riley, Johanson, Leonard, Ogden, King and Locke

Allowing counties to impose additional marriage license fees for funding family services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 36.18.010 and 1991 c 26 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

County auditors or recording officers shall collect the following fees for their official services:

For recording instruments, for the first page, legal size (eight and one-half by fourteen inches or less), five dollars; for each additional legal size page, one dollar; the fee for recording multiple transactions contained in one instrument will be calculated individually for each transaction requiring separate indexing as required under RCW 65.04.050;

For preparing and certifying copies, for the first legal size page, three dollars; for each additional legal size page, one dollar;

For preparing noncertified copies, for each legal size page, one dollar;

For administering an oath or taking an affidavit, with or without seal, two dollars;

For issuing a marriage license, ((eight)) fifteen dollars, ((eight dollars of this fee ((includes))) is for the purpose of taking necessary affidavits, filing returns, indexing, and transmittal of a record of the marriage to the state registrar of vital statistics; the remainder is for the funding of family service centers) plus an additional five-dollar fee for use and support of the prevention of child abuse and neglect activities to be transmitted monthly to the state treasurer and deposited in the state general fund, which five-dollar fee shall expire June 30, 1995, plus an additional ten-dollar fee to be transmitted monthly to the state treasurer and deposited in the state general fund. The legislature intends to appropriate an amount at least equal to the revenue generated by this fee for the purposes of the displaced homemaker act, chapter 28B.04 RCW;

For searching records per hour, eight dollars;

For recording plats, fifty cents for each lot except cemetery plats for which the charge shall be twenty-five cents per lot; also one dollar for each acknowledgment, dedication, and description: PROVIDED, That there shall be a minimum fee of twenty-five dollars per plat;

For recording of miscellaneous records, not listed above, for first legal size page, five dollars; for each additional legal size page, one dollar;

For modernization and improvement of the recording and indexing system, a surcharge as provided in RCW 36.22.170."

Debate ensued.
I. EDUCATION AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

Sec. 3. RCW 43.31.085 and 1989 c 430 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

MARKETING, FINANCE, AND MANAGEMENT ASSISTANCE. The business assistance center shall:
(1) Serve as the state's lead agency and advocate for the development and conservation of businesses.
(2) Coordinate the delivery of state programs to assist businesses.
(3) Provide comprehensive referral services to businesses requiring government assistance.
(4) Serve as the business ombudsman within state government and advise the governor and the legislature of the need for new legislation to improve the effectiveness of state programs to assist businesses.
(5) Aggressively promote business awareness of the state's business programs and distribute information on the services available to businesses.

(6) Develop, in concert with local economic development and business assistance organizations, coordinated processes that complement both state and local activities and services.

(7) [The business assistance center shall] Work with other federal, state, and local agencies and organizations to ensure that business assistance services including small business, trade services, and distressed area programs are provided in a coordinated and cost-effective manner.

(8) Provide or contract for technical assistance to minority and women-owned business enterprises in a variety of areas, including, but not limited to, marketing, finance, bidding and estimating assistance, public contracting assistance, and management.

(9) In collaboration with the child care coordinating committee in the department of social and health services, prepare and disseminate information on child care options for employers and the existence of the program. As much as possible, and through interagency agreements where necessary, such information should be included in the routine communications to employers from (a) the department of revenue, (b) the department of labor and industries, (c) the department of community development, (d) the employment security department, (e) the department of trade and economic development, (f) the small business development center, and (g) the department of social and health services.

(10) In collaboration with the child care coordinating committee in the department of social and health services, compile information on and facilitate employer access to individuals, firms, organizations, and agencies that provide technical assistance to employers to enable them to develop and support child care services or facilities.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.31.055 and 1985 C 466 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.210 RCW to read as follows:

EXPORT ASSISTANCE. The department shall assist in expanding the state's role as a major international gateway for landing and transshipping goods bound for domestic and foreign markets. The department shall identify and work with Washington businesses, especially minority and women-owned businesses and ethnic community-based organizations, which can utilize state assistance to increase domestic and foreign exports and are capable of increasing production of goods and services, including but not limited to manufactured goods, raw materials, services, and retail trade. The department shall participate in trade and industry exhibitions both foreign and domestic to promote and market state products and services. The department's activities shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) Operating an active and vigorous effort to market the state's products and services internationally, coordinated with private and public international trade efforts throughout the state.

(2) Coordinating with the domestic and foreign export market development activities of the state department of agriculture.

(3) Sending delegations to foreign countries and other states to promote trade with Washington.

(4) Acting as a centralized location for the assimilation and distribution of trade information.

(5) Identifying domestic and international markets in which minority and women-owned businesses may have an advantage and providing technical assistance to develop capacity for minority and women-owned businesses to participate in international trade.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.210 RCW to read as follows:

The small business export finance assistance center shall develop a minority business export outreach program. The program shall provide outreach services to minority-owned businesses in Washington to inform them of the importance of and opportunities in international trade, and to inform them of the export assistance programs available to assist these businesses to become exporters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 43.31 RCW to read as follows:

ENTREPRENEURIAL TRAINING COURSES. The department of trade and economic development shall contract with public and private agencies, organizations, and institutions. The contract shall be developed to provide strong, quality entrepreneurial training courses for minority and women-owned small businesses. The instruction shall be intensive, practical training courses in financing, marketing, management, accounting, and recordkeeping for small business, with an emphasis on federal, state, local, or private programs available to assist small businesses. The business assistance center may recommend professional instructors, with practical knowledge and experience on how to start and operate a business, to teach the courses. Instruction shall be offered in major population centers throughout the state at times and locations which are convenient for minority and women small business owners and entrepreneurs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 5 and 6 of this act, referencing sections 5 and 6 of this act by bill and section numbers, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 5 and 6 of this act are null and void.

II. FAIRNESS IN CONTRACTING AND CONCESSIONS

Sec. 8. RCW 39.19.060 and 1983 C 120 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Each state agency and educational institution shall comply with the annual goals established for that agency or institution under this chapter for public works and procuring goods or services. This chapter applies to all public works and procurement by state agencies and educational institutions, including all contracts and other procurement under chapters 28B.10, 39.04, 39.29, 43.19, and 47.28 RCW. Each state agency shall adopt a plan, developed in consultation with the director and the advisory committee, to ensure that minority and women-owned businesses are afforded the maximum practicable opportunity to directly and meaningfully participate in the execution of public contracts for public works and goods and services. The plan shall include specific measures the agency will undertake to increase the participation of certified minority and women-owned businesses. The office shall annually report to the governor, the state auditor, and the legislative budget committee of all agencies and educational institutions not in compliance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 39.19 RCW to read as follows:
(1) State agencies shall not require a performance bond for any public works project that does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars awarded to a prequalified and certified minority or woman-owned business that has been prequalified as provided under subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A limited prequalification questionnaire shall be required assuring:
   (a) That the bidder has adequate financial resources or the ability to secure such resources;
   (b) That the bidder can meet the performance schedule;
   (c) That the bidder is experienced in the type of work to be performed; and
   (d) That all equipment to be used is adequate and functioning and that all equipment operators are qualified to operate such equipment.

III. LOAN FUND AND GUARANTEES

Sec. 10. RCW 43.168.030 and 1985 c 164 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state development loan fund committee is established as an entity within the department of community development. The committee shall have (eight) eight members. The director shall appoint the members, subject to the following requirements: (a) Three members shall be experienced in investment finance and have skills in providing capital to new and innovative businesses, in starting and operating businesses and providing professional services to small or expanding businesses; (b) two members shall be residents of distressed areas; (c) one member shall represent organized labor; (d) one member shall represent a minority business; and (e) one member shall represent a women-owned business. Careful consideration in making these appointments shall be taken to ensure that the various geographic regions of the state are represented, that members will be available for meetings on a regular basis, and will have a commitment to working with local governments and local development organizations.

(2) Each member appointed by the director shall serve a term of three years, except that of the members first appointed, two shall serve two-year terms and two shall serve one-year terms. A person appointed to fill a vacancy of a member shall be appointed in a like manner and shall serve for only the unexpired term. A member is eligible for reappointment. A member may be removed by the director only for cause.

(3) The director shall designate a member of the board as its chairperson. The committee may elect such other officers as it deems appropriate. (Four) Five members of the committee constitute a quorum and (five) five affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(4) The members of the committee shall serve without compensation, but are entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) Members shall not be liable to the state, to the fund, or to any other person as a result of their activities, whether ministerial or discretionary, as members except for willful dishonesty or intentional violations of law. The department may purchase liability insurance for members and may indemnify these persons against the claims of others.

(6) The committee shall, subject to federal block grant criteria, give higher priority to economic development projects that contain provisions for child care.

(7) The committee may not approve an application if it fails to provide for adequate reporting or disclosure of financial data to the committee. The committee may require an annual or other periodic audit of the project books.

(8) The committee may require that the project be managed in whole or in part by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

(9) The committee may require the project be managed by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

(10) The committee may require the project be managed by a local development organization and may prescribe a management fee to be paid to such organization by the recipient of the loan or grant.

(11) The committee shall have (seven) seven members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (seven) seven affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(12) The committee shall have (eight) eight members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (eight) eight affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(13) The committee shall have (nine) nine members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (nine) nine affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(14) The committee shall have (ten) ten members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (ten) ten affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(15) The committee shall have (eleven) eleven members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (eleven) eleven affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(16) The committee shall have (twelve) twelve members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twelve) twelve affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(17) The committee shall have (thirteen) thirteen members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (thirteen) thirteen affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(18) The committee shall have (fourteen) fourteen members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (fourteen) fourteen affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(19) The committee shall have (fifteen) fifteen members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (fifteen) fifteen affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(20) The committee shall have (sixteen) sixteen members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (sixteen) sixteen affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(21) The committee shall have (seventeen) seventeen members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (seventeen) seventeen affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(22) The committee shall have (eighteen) eighteen members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (eighteen) eighteen affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(23) The committee shall have (nineteen) nineteen members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (nineteen) nineteen affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(24) The committee shall have (twenty) twenty members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty) twenty affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(25) The committee shall have (twenty-one) twenty-one members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-one) twenty-one affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(26) The committee shall have (twenty-two) twenty-two members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-two) twenty-two affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(27) The committee shall have (twenty-three) twenty-three members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-three) twenty-three affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(28) The committee shall have (twenty-four) twenty-four members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-four) twenty-four affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(29) The committee shall have (twenty-five) twenty-five members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-five) twenty-five affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(30) The committee shall have (twenty-six) twenty-six members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-six) twenty-six affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(31) The committee shall have (twenty-seven) twenty-seven members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-seven) twenty-seven affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.

(32) The committee shall have (twenty-eight) twenty-eight members. The members of the committee constitute a quorum and (twenty-eight) twenty-eight affirmative votes are necessary for the transaction of business or the exercise of any power or function of the committee.
not make funds available to projects located in areas not designated as distressed if the fund's net worth is less than seven million one hundred thousand dollars.

(12) For loans to minority and women-owned businesses who do not meet the credit criteria, the committee may consider nontraditional credit standards to offset past discrimination that has precluded full participation of minority or women-owned businesses in the economy. For applicants with high potential who do not meet the credit criteria, the committee shall consider developing alternative borrowing methods. For applicants denied loans due to credit problems, the committee shall provide financial counseling within available resources and provide referrals to credit rehabilitation services. In circumstances of compelling applications, priority shall be given to members of eligible groups which previously have been least served by this fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 43.168 RCW to read as follows:

Subject to the restrictions contained in this section, the committee is authorized to approve applications of minority and women-owned businesses for loans or loan guarantees from the fund. Applications approved by the committee under this section shall conform to applicable federal requirements. The committee shall prioritize available funds for loan guarantees rather than loans when possible. The committee may enter into agreements with other public or private lending institutions to develop a joint loan guarantee program for minority and women-owned businesses. If such a program is developed, the committee may provide funds, in conjunction with the other organizations, to operate the program. This section does not preclude the committee from making individual loan guarantees.

To the maximum extent practicable, the funds available under this section shall be made available on an equal basis to minority and women-owned businesses. The committee shall submit to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives quarterly reports that detail the number of loans approved and the characteristics of the recipients by ethnic and gender groups.

Sec. 13. RCW 43.168.070 and 1987 c 461 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee may receive and approve applications on a monthly basis but shall receive and approve applications on at least a quarterly basis for each fiscal year. The committee shall make every effort to simplify the loan process for applicants.

Department staff shall process and assist in the preparation of applications. Each application shall show in detail the nature of the project, the types and numbers of jobs to be created, wages to be paid to new employees, and methods to hire unemployed persons from the area. Each application shall contain a credit analysis of the business to receive the loan. The chairperson of the committee may convene the committee on short notice to respond to applications of a serious or immediate nature.

Sec. 14. RCW 43.168.100 and 1986 c 204 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee may make grants of state funds to local governments which qualify as "entitlement communities" under the federal law authorizing community development block grants. These grants may only be made on the condition that the entitlement community provide the committee with assurances that it will: (1) Spend the grant moneys for purposes and in a manner which satisfies state constitutional requirements; (2) spend the grant moneys for purposes and in a manner which would satisfy federal requirements; and (3) spend (double the) at least the same amount of the grant for loans to businesses from the federal funds received by the entitlement community.

IV. BONDING ASSISTANCE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 16 through 25 of this act.

(1) "Approved surety company" means a surety company approved by the department for participation in providing direct bonding assistance to qualified contractors.

(2) "Bond" means any bond or security required for bid, payment, or performance of contracts.

(3) "Department" means the department of trade and economic development.

(4) "Program" means the Washington state small business bonding assistance program provided for in this chapter.

(5) "Qualified contractor" means any resident minority business enterprise or women's business enterprise, as determined by the department to be consistent with the requirements of chapter 39.19 RCW and engaged in the contracting business, which has obtained a certificate of accreditation from the Washington state small business bonding assistance program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. PROGRAM ESTABLISHED. There is established within the department of trade and economic development the Washington state small business bonding assistance program to assist resident minority and women-owned small contracting businesses to acquire the managerial and financial skills, standards, and assistance necessary to enable them to obtain bid, payment, and performance bonds from surety companies for either advertised or designated contracts. The department shall implement the program by establishing a course of instruction as set forth in section 18 of this act. The department shall encourage surety companies and other private interests to help implement this course of instruction to assist minority and women-owned small contracting businesses. The department shall adopt rules to ensure the proper implementation of the program set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. ASSISTANCE. The department shall seek information, advice, and assistance from regional minority contractor organizations, and the United States small business administration and any other appropriate organization or agency.

The following departments, offices, and agencies shall, at the request of the department, provide information, advice, and assistance to the department:

(1) The department of general administration;

(2) The Washington state business assistance center;

(3) The office of the insurance commissioner;

(4) The Washington state economic development finance authority; and

(5) The office of minority and women's business enterprises.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. SPECIALIZED INSTRUCTION FOR SMALL CONTRACTING BUSINESSES. The business assistance center shall modify the entrepreneurial training course established in section 6 of this act in order to provide instruction which is appropriate to the specific needs of contracting businesses. This course of instruction shall be available to resident minority and women-owned small business contractors. The instruction shall be intensive, practical training courses in financing, bidding for contracts, managing, accounting, and recordkeeping for a contracting business, with an emphasis on federal, state, local, or private programs available to assist small contractors. The business assistance center shall appoint professional instructors, with practical knowledge and experience in the field of small business contracting, to teach those courses developed to meet the specific needs of contracting businesses. Instruction shall be offered in major population centers throughout the state at times and locations which are convenient for people in the contracting business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. ACCREDITATION OF SMALL CONTRACTING BUSINESSES. Any resident minority or women-owned small business contractor may select a key management employee or employees to attend any course of instruction established under section 6 of this act. When the records, maintained by the business assistance center, indicate that a key management employee of a small contracting business has attended all the courses offered, and has successfully completed any tests required, the department shall award the small contracting business a certificate of accreditation which acknowledges successful completion of the courses. The department may also award a certificate of accreditation if a review of the key management employee's education, experience, and business history indicates that the business already possesses the knowledge and skills offered through the course of instruction, or if the key management employee successfully completes all tests required of those who attend the entrepreneurial training course.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 20. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ASSISTANCE--GRANTS. Any qualified contractor seeking a grant for professional services assistance may apply to the department. If approved, the department may enter into an agreement to provide a grant of up to two thousand five hundred dollars on behalf of a qualified contractor for the acquisition of the professional services of certified public accountants, construction management companies, or any other technical, surety, financial, or managerial professionals. This assistance is only available to a qualified contractor on a one-time basis.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. GRANT MONITORING. The department shall administer all grants issued to assist qualified contractors and shall monitor the performance of all grant recipients in order to provide such further assistance as is necessary to ensure that all program requirements are met and that the program's purpose is fulfilled. However, nothing in this chapter should be construed to restrict the rendering of program services to any qualified contractor over and above the services provided by the grant.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. BOND GUARANTEE APPLICATIONS. If a qualified contractor makes a bond application to an approved surety company for a public or private contracting job, but fails to obtain the bond because the contractor is unable to meet the requirements of the surety company on such bonding contracts, for reasons other than nonperformance, and if the approved surety company applies to the department to have the bond guaranteed by the program, then the department may provide a bond guarantee of up to seventy-five thousand dollars on behalf of the qualified contractor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. BOND GUARANTEE APPROVAL. Upon receipt of an approved surety company's application for a bond guarantee, the program supervisor shall review the application in order to verify that:

1. The bond being sought by the qualified contractor is needed;
2. The contracting job is within the qualified contractor's capability to perform; and
3. The qualified contractor has not been denied a bond due to nonperformance.

If the application is approved, the department has the authority to enter into a contract with the approved surety company. Under the terms of this contract the approved surety company shall enter into a contract with, and issue the required bond to, the qualified contractor at the standard fees and charges usually made by the company for the type and amount of the bond issued. The bond issued by the approved surety company shall be guaranteed by money in the program fund. The approved surety company shall also agree to make a reasonable, good faith effort to pursue and collect any claims it may have against a qualified contractor who defaults on a bond guaranteed by the program, including, but not limited to, the institution of legal proceedings against the defaulting contractor prior to collecting on the guarantee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. PROGRAM FUND ESTABLISHED. The Washington state small business bonding assistance program fund is created in the state treasury. Any amounts appropriated, donated, or granted to the program shall be deposited and credited to the program fund. Moneys in the program fund may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the program fund shall only be used as follows:

1. To pay the implementation costs of the program provided for in this chapter;
2. To be disbursed by the department to enable qualified contractors to obtain services provided for in this chapter; and
3. To guarantee bonds issued pursuant to sections 22 and 23 of this act and to pay such bonds in the event of default by a qualified contractor.

However, the full faith and credit of the state of Washington shall not be used to secure the bonds and the state's liability shall be limited to the money appropriated by the legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. FUND SUPPORT. The department shall solicit funds and support from surety companies and other public and private entities with an interest in assisting Washington's small business contractors and may enter into agreements with such companies and interests by which they provide funds to the program fund to be matched with funds from nonstate sources.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. The department may receive gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources that may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the Washington state small business bonding assistance program and spend gifts, grants, endowments or any income from the public or private sources according to their terms.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 15 through 26 of this act, referencing sections 15 through 26 of this act by bill and section numbers, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 15 through 26 of this act are null and void.

V. LINKED DEPOSITS

Sec. 28. RCW 39.19.030 and 1989 c 175 s 85 are each amended to read as follows:
There is hereby created the office of minority and women's business enterprises. The governor shall appoint a director for the office, subject to confirmation by the senate. The director may employ a deputy director and a confidential secretary, both of whom shall be exempt under chapter 41.06 RCW, and such staff as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

The office shall consult with the minority and women's business enterprises advisory committee to:

(1) Develop, plan, and implement programs to provide an opportunity for participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in public works and the process by which goods and services are procured by state agencies and educational institutions from the private sector;

(2) Develop a comprehensive plan insuring that qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses are provided an opportunity to participate in public contracts for public works and goods and services;

(3) Identify barriers to equal participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses in all state agency and educational institution contracts;

(4) Establish annual overall goals for participation by qualified minority and women-owned and controlled businesses for each state agency and educational institution to be administered on a contract-by-contract basis or on a class-of-contracts basis;

(5) Develop and maintain a central minority and women's business enterprise certification list for all state agencies and educational institutions. No business is entitled to certification under this chapter unless it meets the definition of small business concern as established by the office. All applications for certification under this chapter shall be sworn under oath;

(6) Develop, implement, and operate a system of monitoring compliance with this chapter;

(7) Adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, governing: (a) Establishment of agency goals; (b) development and maintenance of a central minority and women's business enterprise certification program, including a definition of "small business concern" which shall be consistent with the small business requirements defined under section 3 of the Small Business Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 632, and its implementing regulations as guidance; (c) procedures for monitoring and enforcing compliance with goals, regulations, contract provisions, and this chapter; and (d) utilization of standard clauses by state agencies and educational institutions, as specified in RCW 39.19.050;

(8) Develop and implement, in consultation with the supervisor of the division of banking, a system of monitoring minority and women's business enterprises' access to capital and rating as satisfactory or unsatisfactory the performance of each of the state's public depositories in lending money for minority and women's business enterprises;

(9) Submit an annual report to the governor and the legislature outlining the progress in implementing this chapter;

(10) Investigate complaints of violations of this chapter with the assistance of the involved agency or educational institution; and

(11) Cooperate and act jointly or by division of labor with the United States or other states, and with political subdivisions of the state and Washington and their respective socially and economically disadvantaged and women business enterprise programs to carry out the purposes of this chapter. However, the power which may be exercised by the office under this subsection permits investigation and imposition of sanctions only if the investigation relates to a possible violation of chapter 39.19 RCW, and not to violation of local ordinances, rules, regulations, however denominated, adopted by political subdivisions of the state.

Sec. 29. RCW 43.85.230 and 1984 c 177 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

The state treasurer may deposit moneys not required to meet current demands upon a term deposit basis not to exceed five years at such interest rates and upon such conditions as to withdrawals of such moneys as may be agreed upon between the state treasurer and any qualified public depository.

Sec. 30. RCW 43.86A.030 and 1982 c 74 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds held in public depositories not as demand deposits as provided in RCW 43.86A.020 and 43.86A.030, shall be available for a time certificate of deposit investment program according to the following formula: The state treasurer shall apportion to all participating depositories an amount equal to five percent of the three year average mean of general state revenues as certified in accordance with Article VIII, section 1(b) of the state Constitution, or fifty percent of the total surplus treasury investment availability whichever is less. Within thirty days after certification, those funds determined to be available according to this formula for the time certificate of deposit investment program shall be deposited in qualified public depositories. These deposits shall be allocated among the participating depositories on a basis to be determined by the state treasurer. Effective July 1, 1994, deposits shall be made only in those otherwise qualified public depositories which have received a satisfactory rating from the office of minority and women's business enterprises under RCW 39.19.030(8). The formula so devised shall be a matter of public record giving consideration to, but not limited to deposits, assets, loans, capital structure, investments or some combination of these factors: PROVIDED, That, if in the judgment of the state treasurer the amount of allocation for certificates of deposit as determined by this section will impair the cash flow needs of the state treasury, the state treasurer may adjust the amount of the allocation accordingly.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This act may be known and cited as the omnibus minority and women-owned businesses assistance act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Sections 1, 2, and 15 through 26 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. CAPTIONS NOT LAW. Part headings and section captions as used in this act do not constitute part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The legislature finds that minority and women's business enterprises have been historically excluded from access to capital in the marketplace. The lack of capital has been a major barrier to the development and expansion of business by various minority groups and women. There has been a significant amount of attention on the capital needs of minority and women's business enterprises. It is the intent of the legislature to remedy the problem of a lack of access to capital by minority and women's business enterprises, and other small businesses by authorizing the state treasurer to operate a program that links state deposits to business loans by financial institutions to minority and women's business enterprises.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. A new section is added to chapter 43.86A RCW to read as follows:
(1) The state treasurer shall establish a linked deposit program for investment of deposits in qualified public depositaries. As a condition of participating in the program, qualified public depositaries must make qualifying loans as provided in this section. Each time certificate of deposit purchased by the state treasurer shall be equal to the amount of the qualifying loan made by the qualified public depositary. The state treasurer is authorized to set interest rates on certificates and on qualifying loans consistent with the intent of sections 28 through 32, chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (sections 28 through 32 of this act) and sound financial practices.
(2) Qualifying loans made under this section are those that:
(a) Are loans that have terms that do not exceed five years;
(b) Are made to a minority or women's business enterprise that has received state certification under chapter 39.19 RCW;
(c) Are made to minority or women's business enterprises that are considered a small business as defined in RCW 43.31.025;
(d) Are made where the interest rate on the loan to the minority or women's business enterprise does not exceed the interest rate on the corresponding time certificate of deposit by two hundred fifty basis points;
(e) Are made without points or fees charged at loan closing do not exceed one percent of the loan amount; and
(f) Are consistent with other criteria set by the state treasurer. In setting interest rates of time certificate of deposits, the state treasurer shall offer rates so that a two hundred basis point preference will be given to the qualified public depositary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:
(1) The department shall provide technical assistance and loan packaging services that enable minority and women-owned business enterprises to obtain financing under the linked deposit program created under section 29 of this act.
(2) The department shall, in consultation with the state treasurer, monitor the performance of loans made to minority and women-owned business enterprises under section 29 of this act.

Sec. 31. RCW 43.85.230 and 1994 c 177 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:
The state treasurer may deposit moneys not required to meet current demands upon a term deposit basis not to exceed ((one year)) five years at such interest rates and upon such conditions as to withdrawals of such moneys as may be agreed upon between the state treasurer and any qualified public depositary.

Sec. 32. RCW 43.86A.030 and 1982 c 74 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Funds held in public depositaries as demand deposits as provided in RCW 43.86A.020 and 43.86A.030, shall be available for a time certificate of deposit investment program according to the following formula: The state treasurer shall apportion to all participating depositaries an amount equal to five percent of the three year average mean of general state revenues as certified in accordance with Article VIII, section 1(b) of the state Constitution, or fifty percent of the total surplus treasury investment availability, whichever is less. Within thirty days after certification, those funds determined to be available according to this formula for the time certificate of deposit investment program shall be deposited in qualified public depositaries. These deposits shall be allocated among the participating depositaries on a basis to be determined by the state treasurer.
(2) The state treasurer may use up to fifty million dollars per year of all funds available under this section for the purposes of section 29 of this act. The amounts made available to these public depositaries shall be equal to the amounts of outstanding loans made under section 29 of this act.

Sec. 33. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:
The state treasurer may deposit moneys not required to meet current demands upon a term deposit basis not to exceed ((one year)) five years at such interest rates and upon such conditions as to withdrawals of such moneys as may be agreed upon between the state treasurer and any qualified public depositary.
(1) Funds held in public depositaries as demand deposits as provided in RCW 43.86A.020 and 43.86A.030, shall be available for a time certificate of deposit investment program according to the following formula: The state treasurer shall apportion to all participating depositaries an amount equal to five percent of the three year average mean of general state revenues as certified in accordance with Article VIII, section 1(b) of the state Constitution, or fifty percent of the total surplus treasury investment availability, whichever is less. Within thirty days after certification, those funds determined to be available according to this formula for the time certificate of deposit investment program shall be deposited in qualified public depositaries. These deposits shall be allocated among the participating depositaries on a basis to be determined by the state treasurer.

Sec. 34. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:
The linked deposit program shall be terminated on June 30, 1996, as provided in section 35 of this act.

Sec. 35. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:
The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1997:
(1) Section 29 of this act;
(2) Section 30 of this act; and
(3) Section 33 of this act.

SECOND READING

Reauthorizing and modifying the Washington service corps.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION
Senator Sheldon moved that the following Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 50.65.030 and 1987 c 167 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington service corps is established within the employment security department. The commissioner shall:

1. Appoint a director ((for the exchange)) and other personnel as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;
2. Coordinate youth employment and training efforts under the department's jurisdiction and cooperate with other agencies or departments providing youth services to ensure that funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter will not be expended to duplicate existing services, but will increase the services of youth to the state;
3. The employment security department is authorized to place subgrants with other federal, state, and local governmental agencies and private agencies to provide youth employment projects and to increase the numbers of youth employed;
4. Determine appropriate financial support levels by private business, community groups, foundations, public agencies, and individuals which will provide matching funds for enrollees in service projects under work agreements. The matching funds requirement may be waived for public agencies or reduced for private agencies;
5. Recruit enrollees who are residents of the state unemployed at the time of application and are at least eighteen years of age but have not reached their twenty-sixth birthday;
6. Develop supervising agencies to host the enrollees in full-time service activities (which shall not exceed six) of eleven months' duration, (which may be extended for an additional six months by mutual consent);
7. Assist supervising agencies in the development of scholarships and matching funds from private and public agencies, individuals, and foundations in support of a portion of the enrollee's stipend and benefits;
8. Develop general employment guidelines for placement of enrollees in supervising agencies to establish appropriate authority for hiring, firing, grievance procedures, and employment standards which are consistent with state and federal law;
9. Match enrollees with appropriate public agencies and available service projects;
10. Monitor enrollee activities for compliance with this chapter and compliance with work agreements;
11. Assist enrollees in transition to employment upon termination from the programs, including such activities as orientation to the labor market, on-the-job training, and placement in the private sector;
12. Establish a program for providing incentives to encourage successful completion of terms of enrollment in the service corps and the continuation of educational pursuits. Such incentives shall be in the form of educational assistance equivalent to two years of community or technical college tuition for eleven months of service. Educational assistance funding shall only be used for tuition, fees, and course-related books and supplies. Enrollees who receive educational assistance funding shall start using it within one year of completing service and shall finish using it within four years of their service completion;
13. Enter into agreements with the state's community and technical college system and other educational institutions or nonprofit agencies to provide special education in basic skills, including reading, writing, and mathematics for those participants who may benefit by participation in such classes. Participation is not mandatory but shall be strongly encouraged.

Sec. 2. RCW 50.65.040 and 1987 c 167 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner may select and enroll in the Washington service corps program any person who is at least eighteen years of age but has not reached their twenty-sixth birthday, is a resident of the state, and who is not for medical, legal, or psychological reasons incapable of service. ((In the selection of enrollees of the service corps, preference shall be given to youths residing in areas, both urban and rural, in which there exists substantial unemployment above the state average.) Efforts shall be made to enroll youths who are economically, socially, physically, or educationally disadvantaged. The commissioner may prescribe such additional standards and procedures in consultation with supervising agencies as may be necessary in conformance with this chapter. In addition, the commissioner may select and enroll youth fourteen to seventeen years of age on special projects during the summer and at other times during the school year that may complement and support their school curriculum or that link and support service with learning.

Sec. 3. RCW 50.65.060 and 1987 c 167 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Placements in the Washington service corps shall be made in supervising agencies under work agreements as provided under this chapter and shall include those assignments which provide for addressing community needs and conservation problems and will assist the community in economic development efforts. Each work agreement shall:

1. Demonstrate that the service project is appropriate for the enrollee's interests, skills, and abilities and that the project is designed to meet unmet community needs;
2. Include a requirement of regular performance evaluation. This shall include clear work performance standards set by the supervising agency and procedures for identifying strengths, recommended improvement areas and conditions for probation or dismissal of the enrollee; and
3. Include a commitment for partial financial support for the enrollee (for a) from private industry, public (agency) agencies, community groups, or foundations. The commissioner may establish additional standards for the development of placements for enrollees with supervising agencies and assure that the work agreements comply with those standards. This section shall not apply to conservation corps programs established by chapter 43.220 RCW.

Agencies of the state may use the (youth employment exchange) Washington service corps for the purpose of employing youth qualifying under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. For each enrollee, the work agreements, or combination of work agreements, developed under RCW 50.65.060 shall:

1. Include a variety of experiences consisting of: Indoor activities; outdoor activities; and volunteer activities;
2. Provide time for participation in a core training program common to all participants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The Washington service corps scholarship account is created in the custody of the state treasurer. The account shall consist of a portion of Washington service corps funding, deposited by the commissioner, in an amount sufficient to provide for the future awarding of educational assistance grants described in RCW 50.65.030. Expenditures from the account may be used only for educational assistance grants described in RCW 50.65.030. Only the commissioner or the commissioner's designee may authorize expenditures from the account. The account is subject to the allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for expenditures. All earnings of investments of surplus balances in the account shall be deposited to the treasury income account created in RCW 43.84.092.
The commissioner shall seek and may accept, on behalf of the Washington service corps, charitable donations of cash and other assistance including, but not limited to, equipment and materials if the donations are available for appropriate use for the purposes set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. RCW 50.65.900 and 1987 c 167 s 9 & 1983 1st ex.s. c 50 s 14 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 4 and 5 of this act are each added to chapter 50.65 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 50.65 RCW to read as follows:

No individual may participate in the Washington serves program created by chapter 50.65 RCW, Laws of 1993, if the person has previously participated for six months or longer in the Washington service corps within the last three years."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sheldon, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment was adopted:

On page 1, at the beginning of the amendment, strike the entire amendment and title amendment, and insert the following:

SECOND READING

Allowing families to retain a greater percentage of income before public benefits are reduced or terminated.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Public assistance is intended to be a temporary financial relief program, recognizing that families can be confronted with a financial crisis at any time in life. Successful public assistance programs depend on the availability of adequate resources to assist individuals deemed eligible for the benefits of such a program. In this way, eligible families are given sufficient assistance to reenter productive employment in a minimal time period.

(2) The current public assistance system requires a reduction in grant standards when income is received. In most cases, family income is limited to levels substantially below the standard of need. This is a strong disincentive to work. To remove this disincentive, the legislature intends to allow families to retain a greater percentage of income before it results in the reduction or termination of benefits;

(3) Employment, training, and education services provided to employable recipients of public assistance are effective tools in achieving economic self-sufficiency. Support services that are targeted to the specific needs of the individual offer the best hope of achieving economic self-sufficiency in a cost-effective manner;

(4) State welfare-to-work programs, which move individuals from dependence to economic independence, must be operated cooperatively and collaboratively between state agencies and programs. They also must include public assistance recipients as active partners in self-sufficiency planning activities. Participants in economic independence programs and services will benefit from the concepts of personal empowerment, self-motivation, and self-esteem; and

(5) Many barriers to economic independence are found in federal statutes and rules, and provide states with limited options for restructuring existing programs in order to create incentives for employment over continued dependence."
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of determining the amount of grant payments to recipients of aid to families with dependent children, all countable nonexempt earned income shall be subtracted from an amount equal to one hundred percent of the need standard. The department shall adopt rules necessary to implement the intent of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall amend the state plan to eliminate the one hundred hour work rule for recipients of aid to families with dependent children employable. The department shall seek federal approval for the amendment to the state plan and report on federal action to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department shall initiate a pilot project using electronic benefit transfer technology for the food stamp, aid to families with dependent children, and women, infant, and children programs. The department shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the project implementation status by December 1, 1994.

Sec. 5. RCW 74.04.005 and 1992 c 165 s 1 and 1992 c 136 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public assistance" or "assistance"—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance.

(2) "Department"—The department of social and health services.

(3) "County or local office"—The administrative office for one or more counties or designated service areas.

(4) "Director" or "secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) "Federal-aid assistance"—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

(6)(a) "General assistance"—Aid to persons in need who:

(i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance;

(ii) Meet one of the following conditions:

(A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal aid to families with dependent children program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance: (ix)

(B) Under twenty years of age and ineligible for aid to families with dependent children solely due to federal age requirements, and are full-time students reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training before the end of the month in which the person reaches age twenty. Reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training means maintaining a grade point average equal to or greater than a 2.5. For purposes of determining payment amount, the student is considered a member of the aid to families with dependent children household of which the student would be a member but for the federal age requirement. In determining eligibility, earnings of a full-time student shall be disregarded, in accordance with department standards, notwithstanding the earnings limitation imposed by RCW 74.04.266.

(C) Subject to chapter 165, Laws of 1992, incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of ninety days as determined by the department((ix)); or (((ix)) (D) Persons who are unemployed due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance.

Persons receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity, shall be referred to appropriate assessment, treatment, shelter, or supplemental security income referral services as authorized under chapter 74.50 RCW. Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcoholic and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for services under chapter 74.50 RCW. Subsection (6)(a)(iii)(D)(B)(i)(C) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the department from granting general assistance benefits to alcoholics and drug addicts who are incapacitated due to other physical or mental conditions that meet the eligibility criteria for the general assistance program;

(iii) Are citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise residing in the United States under color of law; and

(iv) Have furnished the department their social security account number. If the social security account number cannot be furnished because it has not been issued or is not known, an application for a number shall be made prior to authorization of assistance, and the social security number shall be provided to the department upon receipt.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i), (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance:

(i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or

(ii) (To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act.) Recipients of aid to families with dependent children whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received. Payment shall be made within fifteen days of the request.

(c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. Failure to accept such services shall result in termination until the person agrees to cooperate in accepting such services and subject to the following maximum periods of ineligibility after reapplication:

(i) First failure: One week;

(ii) Second failure within six months: One month;

(iii) Third and subsequent failure within one year: Two months.
(d) Persons found eligible for general assistance based on incapacity from gainful employment may, if otherwise eligible, receive general assistance pending application for federal supplemental security income benefits. Any general assistance that is subsequently revoked by the recipient's receipt of supplemental security income for the same period shall be considered a debt due the state and shall by operation of law be subject to recovery through all available legal remedies.

(e) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(f) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(10) "Resource"—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources:

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absolve themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days from such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That if in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent child or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having a sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance.

(c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(d) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance.

(e) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance shall have their eligibility based on resource limitations consistent with the aid to families with dependent children program rules adopted by the department.

(f) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such values shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance for a period not to exceed nine months from the date the agreement is signed pursuant to this section to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property: PROVIDED, That:

(A) The applicant or recipient signs an agreement to repay the lesser of the amount of aid received or the net proceeds of such sale;

(B) If the owner of the excess property ceases to make good faith efforts to sell the property, the entire amount of assistance may become an overpayment and a debt due the state and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 43.20B.630;

(C) Applicants and recipients are advised of their right to a fair hearing and afforded the opportunity to challenge a decision that good faith efforts to sell have ceased, prior to assessment of an overpayment under this section; and

(D) At the time assistance is authorized, the department files a lien without a sum certain on the specific property.

(11) "Income"—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance. The department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents, but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance. In determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of aid to families with dependent children is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements. The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.

(b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource.

(12) “Need”—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family.

(13) For purposes of determining eligibility for public assistance and participation levels in the cost of medical care, the department shall exempt restitution payments made to people of Japanese and Aleut ancestry pursuant to the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 and the Aleutian and Pribilof Island Restitution Act passed by congress, P.L. 100-383, including all income and resources derived therefrom.

(14) In the construction of words and phrases used in this title, the singular number shall include the plural, the masculine gender shall include both the feminine and neuter genders and the present tense shall include the past and future tenses, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary.

Sec. 6. RCW 74.25.020 and 1992 c 165 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services is authorized to contract with public and private employment and training agencies and other public service entities to provide services prescribed or allowed under the federal social security act, as amended, to carry out the purposes of the jobs training program. The department of social and health services has sole authority and responsibility to carry out the job opportunities and basic skills training program. No contracting entity shall have the authority to review, change, or disapprove any administrative decision, or otherwise substitute its judgment for that of the department of social and health services as to the application of policies and rules adopted by the department of social and health services.

(2) To the extent feasible under federal law, the department of social and health services and all entities contracting with it shall give first priority of service to individuals volunteering for program participation. PROVIDED, That the department shall require nonexempt parents under age twenty-four to actively participate in orientation, assessment, and other education, vocational training, or employment programs. At least one nonexempt parent in the aid to families with dependent children employable program shall actively participate in orientation, assessment, and either job search, education, training, or employment. Social services shall be offered to participants in accordance with federal law. The department shall adopt appropriate sanctions to ensure compliance with the requirements and policies of this chapter.

(3) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW establishing criteria constituting circumstances of good cause for an individual failing or refusing to participate in an assigned program component, or failing to accept or retain employment. These criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the following circumstances: (a) If the individual is a parent or other relative personally providing care for a child under age six years, and the employment would require the individual to work more than twenty hours per week; (b) if child care, or day care for an incapacitated individual living in the same home as a dependent child, is necessary for an individual to participate or continue participation in the program or accept employment, and such care is not available, and the department of social and health services fails to provide such care; (c) the employment would result in the family of the participant experiencing a net loss of cash income; or (d) circumstances that are beyond the control of the individual's household, either on a short-term or an ongoing basis.

(4) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW as necessary to effectuate the intent and purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department may provide grants to community action agencies or other local nonprofit organizations to provide job opportunities and basic skills training program participants with transitional support services, one-to-one assistance, and job retention services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. By October 1, 1993, the department shall request the governor to seek congressional and federal agency action on any federal legislation or federal regulation that may be necessary to implement chapter 74.-- RCW (sections 2 through 4, 7, and 10 of this act), and any other section of chapter . . . Laws of 1993 (this act) that may require a federal waiver.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 2 through 4, 7, and 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment be adopted:

On page 1, at the beginning of the amendment, strike the entire amendment and title amendment and insert the following: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

assist individuals deemed eligible for the benefits of such a program. In this way, eligible families are given sufficient assistance to reenter productive employment in a minimal time period.

(2) The current public assistance system requires a reduction in grant standards when income is received. In most cases, family income is limited to levels substantially below the standard of need. This is a strong disincentive to work. To remove this disincentive, the legislature intends to allow families to retain a greater percentage of income before it results in the reduction or termination of benefits;

(3) Employment, training, and education services provided to employable recipients of public assistance are effective tools in achieving economic self-sufficiency. Support services that are targeted to the specific needs of the individual offer the best hope of achieving economic self-sufficiency in a cost-effective manner;

(4) State welfare-to-work programs, which move individuals from dependence to economic independence, must be operated cooperatively and collaboratively between state agencies and programs. They also must include public assistance recipients as active partners in self-sufficiency planning activities. Participants in economic independence programs and services will benefit from the concepts of personal empowerment, self-motivation, and self-esteem;

(5) Many barriers to economic independence are found in federal statutes and rules, and provide states with limited options for restructuring existing programs in order to create incentives for employment over continued dependence;

(6) The legislature finds that the personal and societal costs of teenage childbearing are substantial. Teen parents are less likely to finish high school and more likely to depend upon public assistance than women who delay childbearing until adulthood; and

(7) The legislature intends that an effort be made to ensure that each teenage parent who is a public assistance recipient live in a setting that increases the likelihood that the teen parent will complete high school and achieve economic independence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of determining the amount of grant payments to recipients of aid to families with dependent children, all countable nonexempt earned income shall be subtracted from an amount equal to fifty-five percent of the need standard. The department shall adopt rules necessary to implement the intent of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall amend the state plan to eliminate the one hundred hour work rule for recipients of aid to families with dependent children-employable. The department shall seek federal approval for the amendment to the state plan and report on federal action to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department shall initiate a pilot project using electronic benefit transfer technology for the food stamp, aid to families with dependent children, and women, infant, and children programs. The department shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature on the project implementation status by December 1, 1994.

Sec. 5. RCW 74.04.005 and 1992 c 165 s 1 and 1992 c 136 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this title, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) “Public assistance” or “assistance”—Public aid to persons in need thereof for any cause, including services, medical care, assistance grants, disbursing orders, work relief, general assistance and federal-aid assistance.

(2) “Department”—The department of social and health services.

(3) “County or local office”—The administrative office for one or more counties or designated service areas.

(4) “Director” or “secretary” means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) “Federal-aid assistance”—The specific categories of assistance for which provision is made in any federal law existing or hereafter passed by which payments are made from the federal government to the state in aid or in respect to payment by the state for public assistance rendered to any category of needy persons for which provision for federal funds or aid may from time to time be made, or a federally administered needs-based program.

6(a) “General assistance”—Aid to persons in need who:

(i) Are not eligible to receive federal-aid assistance, other than food stamps and medical assistance; however, an individual who refuses or fails to cooperate in obtaining federal-aid assistance, without good cause, is not eligible for general assistance;

(ii) Meet one of the following conditions:

(A) Pregnant: PROVIDED, That need is based on the current income and resource requirements of the federal aid to families with dependent children program: PROVIDED FURTHER, That during any period in which an aid for dependent children employable program is not in operation, only those pregnant women who are categorically eligible for medicaid are eligible for general assistance; (i)(a)

(B) Under twenty years of age and ineligible for aid to families with dependent children solely due to federal age requirements, and are full-time students reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training before the end of the month in which the person reaches age twenty. Reasonably expected to complete a program of secondary school or the equivalent level of vocational or technical training means maintaining a grade point average equal to or greater than a 2.5. For purposes of determining payment amount, the student is considered a member of the aid to families with dependent children household of which the student would be a member but for the federal age requirement. In determining eligibility, earnings of a full-time student shall be disregarded, in accordance with department standards, notwithstanding the earnings limitation imposed by RCW 74.04.266:

(C) Subject to chapter 165, Laws of 1992, incapacitated from gainful employment by reason of bodily or mental infirmity that will likely continue for a minimum of ninety days as determined by the department; or

((W)) (D) Persons who are unemployable due to alcohol or drug addiction are not eligible for general assistance. Persons receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, or becoming eligible for such assistance thereafter, due to an alcohol or drug-related incapacity, shall be referred to appropriate assessment, treatment, shelter, or supplemental security income referral services as authorized under chapter 74.50 RCW. Referrals shall be made at the time of application or at the time of eligibility review. Alcoholic and drug addicted clients who are receiving general assistance on July 26, 1987, may remain on general assistance if they otherwise retain their eligibility until they are assessed for services under chapter 74.50 RCW. Subsection (6)(a)(ii)(C) of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the department from granting general assistance benefits to alcoholics and drug addicts who are incapacitated due to other physical or mental conditions that meet the eligibility criteria for the general assistance program;

(iii) Are citizens or aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise residing in the United States under color of law; and

(iv) Have furnished the department their social security account number. If the social security account number cannot be furnished because it has not been issued or is not known, an application for a number shall be made prior to authorization of assistance, and the social security number shall be provided to the department upon receipt.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6)(a)(i), (ii), and (c) of this section, general assistance shall be provided to the following recipients of federal-aid assistance:

(i) Recipients of supplemental security income whose need, as defined in this section, is not met by such supplemental security income grant because of separation from a spouse; or

(ii) (To the extent authorized by the legislature in the biennial appropriations act, to) Recipients of aid to families with dependent children whose needs are not being met because of a temporary reduction in monthly income below the entitled benefit payment level caused by loss or reduction of wages or unemployment compensation benefits or some other unforeseen circumstances. The amount of general assistance authorized shall not exceed the difference between the entitled benefit payment level and the amount of income actually received. Payment shall be made within fifteen days of the request.

(c) General assistance shall be provided only to persons who are not members of assistance units receiving federal aid assistance, except as provided in subsection (6)(a)(ii)(A) and (b) of this section, and will accept available services which can reasonably be expected to enable the person to work or reduce the need for assistance unless there is good cause to refuse. Failure to accept such services shall result in termination until the person agrees to cooperate in accepting such services and subject to the following maximum periods of ineligibility after reapplication:

(i) First failure: One week;

(ii) Second failure within six months: One month;

(iii) Third and subsequent failure within one year: Two months.

(d) Persons found eligible for general assistance based on incapacity from gainful employment may, if otherwise eligible, receive general assistance pending application for federal supplemental security income benefits. Any general assistance that is subsequently duplicated by the person’s receipt of supplemental security income for the same period shall be considered a debt due the state and shall by operation of law be subject to recovery through all available legal remedies.

(e) The department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(f) The process implementing the medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontroverted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(g) Recipients of general assistance based upon a finding of incapacity from gainful employment who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation. Recipients of general assistance based upon pregnancy who relinquish their child for adoption, remain otherwise eligible, and are not eligible to receive benefits under the federal aid to families with dependent children program shall not have their benefits terminated until the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the recipient’s child falls. Recipients of the federal aid to families with dependent children program who lose their eligibility solely because of the birth and relinquishment of the qualifying child may receive general assistance through the end of the month in which the period of six weeks following the birth of the child falls.

(h) Students with earnings shall not be eligible for the essential persons program unless the earnings are disregarded.
(7) "Applicant"—Any person who has made a request, or on behalf of whom a request has been made, to any county or local office for assistance.

(8) "Recipient"—Any person receiving assistance and in addition those dependents whose needs are included in the recipient's assistance.

(9) "Standards of assistance"—The level of income required by an applicant or recipient to maintain a level of living specified by the department.

(10) "Resource"—Any asset, tangible or intangible, owned by or available to the applicant at the time of application, which can be applied toward meeting the applicant's need, either directly or by conversion into money or its equivalent: PROVIDED, That an applicant may retain the following described resources and not be ineligible for public assistance because of such resources.

(a) A home, which is defined as real property owned and used by an applicant or recipient as a place of residence, together with a reasonable amount of property surrounding and contiguous thereto, which is used by and useful to the applicant. Whenever a recipient shall cease to use such property for residential purposes, either for himself or his dependents, the property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need, and if the recipient or his dependents absent themselves from the home for a period of ninety consecutive days such absence, unless due to hospitalization or health reasons or a natural disaster, shall raise a rebuttable presumption of abandonment: PROVIDED, That in the opinion of three physicians the recipient will be unable to return to the home during his lifetime, and the home is not occupied by a spouse or dependent children or disabled sons or daughters, such property shall be considered as a resource which can be made available to meet need.

(b) Household furnishings and personal effects and other personal property having great sentimental value to the applicant or recipient, as limited by the department consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions for federal aid assistance.

(c) A motor vehicle, other than a motor home, used and useful having an equity value not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(d) All other resources, including any excess of values exempted, not to exceed one thousand dollars or other limit as set by the department, to be consistent with limitations on resources and exemptions necessary for federal aid assistance.

(e) Applicants for or recipients of general assistance shall have their eligibility based on resource limitations consistent with the aid to families with dependent children program rules adopted by the department.

(f) If an applicant for or recipient of public assistance possesses property and belongings in excess of the ceiling value, such value shall be used in determining the need of the applicant or recipient, except that: (i) The department may exempt resources or income when the income and resources are determined necessary to the applicant's or recipient's restoration to independence, to decrease the need for public assistance, or to aid in rehabilitating the applicant or recipient or a dependent of the applicant or recipient; and (ii) the department may provide grant assistance for a period not to exceed nine months from the date the agreement is signed pursuant to this section to persons who are otherwise ineligible because of excess real property owned by such persons when they are making a good faith effort to dispose of that property: PROVIDED, That:

(A) The applicant or recipient signs an agreement to repay the lesser of the amount of aid received or the net proceeds of such sale;

(B) If the owner of the excess property ceases to make good faith efforts to sell the property, the entire amount of assistance may become an overpayment and a debt due the state and may be recovered pursuant to RCW 43.20B.630;

(C) Applicants and recipients are advised of their right to a fair hearing and afforded the opportunity to challenge a decision that good faith efforts to sell have ceased, prior to assessment of an overpayment under this section; and

(D) At the time assistance is authorized, the department files a lien without a sum certain on the specific property.

(11) "Income"—(a) All appreciable gains in real or personal property (cash or kind) or other assets, which are received by or become available for use and enjoyment by an applicant or recipient during the month of application or after applying for or receiving public assistance. The department may by rule and regulation exempt income received by an applicant for or recipient of public assistance which can be used by him to decrease his need for public assistance or to aid in rehabilitating him or his dependents; but such exemption shall not, unless otherwise provided in this title, exceed the exemptions of resources granted under this chapter to an applicant for public assistance. In determining the amount of assistance to which an applicant or recipient of aid to families with dependent children is entitled, the department is hereby authorized to disregard as a resource or income the earned income exemptions consistent with federal requirements. The department may permit the above exemption of earnings of a child to be retained by such child to cover the cost of special future identifiable needs even though the total exceeds the exemptions or resources granted to applicants and recipients of public assistance, but consistent with federal requirements. In formulating rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter, the department shall define income and resources and the availability thereof, consistent with federal requirements. All resources and income not specifically exempted, and any income or other economic benefit derived from the use of, or appreciation in value of, exempt resources, shall be considered in determining the need of an applicant or recipient of public assistance.
(b) If, under applicable federal requirements, the state has the option of considering property in the form of lump sum compensatory awards or related settlements received by an applicant or recipient as income or as a resource, the department shall consider such property to be a resource.

(12) “Need”—The difference between the applicant's or recipient's standards of assistance for himself and the dependent members of his family, as measured by the standards of the department, and value of all nonexempt resources and nonexempt income received by or available to the applicant or recipient and the dependent members of his family.

(13) For purposes of determining eligibility for public assistance and participation levels in the cost of medical care, the department shall exempt restitution payments made to people of Japanese and Aleut ancestry pursuant to the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 and the Aleutian and Pribilof Island Restitution Act passed by congress, P.L. 100-383, including all income and resources derived therefrom.

(14) In the construction of words and phrases used in this title, the singular number shall include the plural, the masculine gender shall include both the feminine and neuter genders and the present tense shall include the past and future tenses, unless the context thereof shall clearly indicate to the contrary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall amend the state plan to include an aid to families with dependent children essential persons program that would, to the extent permitted under federal law, allow eighteen to twenty year old students to be eligible for federal aid to families with dependent children matching grants.

Sec. 7. RCW 74.25.020 and 1992 c 165 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services is authorized to contract with public and private employment and training agencies and other public service entities to provide services prescribed or allowed under the federal social security act, as amended, to carry out the purposes of the jobs training program. The department of social and health services has sole authority and responsibility to carry out the job opportunities and basic skills training program. No contracting entity shall have the authority to review, change, or disapprove any administrative decision, or otherwise substitute its judgment for that of the department of social and health services as to the application of policies and rules adopted by the department of social and health services.

(2) To the extent feasible under federal law, the department of social and health services and all entities contracting with it shall give first priority of service to individuals volunteering for program participation; PROVIDED, That the department shall require nonexempt parents under age twenty-four to actively participate in orientation, assessment, and either education, vocational training, or employment programs. At least one nonexempt parent in the aid to families with dependent children-employable program shall actively participate in orientation, assessment, and either job search, education, training, or employment. Social services shall be offered to participants in accordance with federal law. The department shall adopt appropriate sanctions to ensure compliance with the requirements and policies of this chapter).

(3) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW establishing criteria constituting circumstances of good cause for an individual failing or refusing to participate in an assigned program component, or failing or refusing to accept or retain employment. These criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the following circumstances: (a) If the individual is a parent or other relative personally providing care for a child under age six years, and the employment would require the individual to work more than twenty hours per week; (b) if child care, or day care for an incapacitated individual living in the same home as a dependent child, is necessary for an individual to participate or continue participation in the program or accept employment, and such care is not available, and the department of social and health services fails to provide such care; (c) the employment would result in the family of the participant experiencing a net loss of cash income; or (d) circumstances that are beyond the control of the individual's household, either on a short-term or on an ongoing basis.

(4) The department of social and health services shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW as necessary to effectuate the intent and purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department may provide grants to community action agencies or other local nonprofit organizations to provide job opportunities and basic skills training program participants with transitional support services, one-to-one assistance, and job retention services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The department of social and health services shall design a program for implementation involving recipients of aid to families with dependent children. A goal of this program is to develop a system that segments the aid to families with dependent children recipient population and identifies subgroups, matches services to the needs of the subgroup, and prioritizes available services. The department shall specify the services to be offered in each population segment. The general focus of the services offered shall be on job training, work force preparedness, and job retention.

The program shall be designed for state-wide implementation on July 1, 1994. A proposal for implementation may include phasing certain components over time or geographic area. The department shall submit this program to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 74.12 RCW to read as follows:
(1) As part of the orientation and assessment conducted pursuant to RCW 74.25.020, the department shall assist the family of the recipient in determining, in the following order of priority, the most appropriate living situation that will best ensure the safety and well-being for each recipient of aid to families with dependent children who is receiving those benefits as a head of household and is under age eighteen. Appropriate living situations may include, but are not limited to:

(a) The parent's home;
(b) The home of a relative;
(c) A group living situation with adult supervision and guidance;
(d) Living independently; and
(e) Payment of the recipient's grant to another as provided in RCW 74.12.250.
(2) In conducting the assessment, the department shall consider all relevant factors, including but not limited to:
(a) Whether the recipient is enrolled in and attending school;
(b) Whether the recipient is employed;
(c) The situation in the home of the recipient's parents, including but not limited to, whether there is substance abuse or domestic violence in the home and the adequacy of the dwelling; and
(d) Whether there is a history of physical, emotional, or sexual abuse of the recipient by a person living in or frequenting the recipient's parents' home.
(3) If, as a result of the assessment, the department becomes aware of a recipient's need for other services that will help the recipient complete high school or achieve economic independence, and be an effective parent, the department shall make every effort to link the recipient with the services, including parenting classes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 74.04 RCW to read as follows:
In determining food stamp eligibility, the department shall exclude as income the child support exempted by 42 U.S.C. Sec. 602(a)(8)(vi) or 657 (b).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. By October 1, 1993, the department shall request the governor to seek congressional and federal agency action on any federal legislation or federal regulation that may be necessary to implement chapter 74.-- RCW (sections 2 through 4, 8, and 12 of this act), and any other section of chapter . . ., Laws of 1993 (this act) that may require a federal waiver.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 2 through 4, 8, and 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Section 2 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994, if specific funding for the purposes of section 2 of this act, referencing section 2 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1994, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 2 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Section 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1993, if specific funding for the purposes of section 3 of this act, referencing section 3 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 3 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1993, if specific funding for the purposes of section 4 of this act, referencing section 4 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 4 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Section 5 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1993, if specific funding for the purposes of section 5 of this act, referencing section 5 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 5 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Section 11 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994, if specific funding for the purposes of section 11 of this act, referencing section 11 of this act by bill and section number, is provided by July 1, 1994, in the omnibus appropriations act. If specific funding is not so provided, section 11 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "assistance;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 74.25.020; reenacting and amending RCW 74.04.005; adding new sections to chapter 74.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.12 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 74 RCW; creating new sections; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Talmadge, as we were adopting the amendments, did we adopt the Health and Human Services amendment to the Ways and Means amendment?"

Senator Talmadge: "Vice versus, we adopted the Ways and Means Committee amendment to the Health and Human Services Committee amendment."

Senator Anderson: "There is still some confusion about the food stamp cash out in this. Could you point out what section in the Ways and Means amendment that language is, then?"

Senator Talmadge: "There is no food stamp cash out in this bill. If I could explain, the two places where food stamps crop up or where people might have that perception, there is a pilot project that is allowed for electronic benefits transfer in the bill. That is not cashing out food stamps. This is merely to avoid paper work. It is a pilot project to examine the question of whether elimination of paper work would be useful.

"The second piece is the bill that Senator Winsley actually brought to the committee. The fifty dollar child support pass-through for food stamps. Under existing law, we provide a fifty dollar incentive to people that work with us -- a fifty dollar food stamp incentive -- for people that work with us in making child support collections. The way the law is set up with this fifty dollar amount coming in, it might make them ineligible for certain aspects of public assistance. What we have told the Department of Social and Health Services to do is to coordinate the eligibility levels for food stamps and for public assistance for these people that are helping us gain monies to the state by collecting child support from people that should pay it. There is no food stamp cash out in this bill, as was true in the original House Bill."

Senator Anderson: "If I may, in the original House Bill, in the New Section 5, there was a reference -- 'The Department may replace food stamps with a cash equivalent for individuals eligible -- on and on -- for if Congress grants that.' That language has been removed?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes, it is not in this bill."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1197, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 9; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 38.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter and Owen - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1197, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.
There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1307, as amended by the Senate, deferred on third reading earlier today.

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHELDON

Senator Sheldon: "Thank you, Mr. President, and I appreciate your patience. I would like to respond to a question by Senator Deccio on funding for the Washington Service Corp. The total cost of the program is slightly in excess of five million dollars. One point eight million dollars is in the existing administrative contingency fund, one point one will be from matching local funds, and this is consistent with what has been done in the past. Seven hundred thousand has been appropriated by the House Committee and that does leave some funding still unavailable currently, but the program will be cut back if that funding is not available."

Senator Deccio: "Thank you, I would like to thank Senator Sheldon. My concern was that if there was not sufficient funds, the program would be cut rather than figuring out some way to levy some additional taxes. I thank her for the information."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sheldon, Senator Fraser was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1307, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1307, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Fraser, Hochstatter and Owen - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1307, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senator Bluechel was excused.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1013, by House Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick and Riley)

Adopting the revised uniform commercial code on bulk sales.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment was adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 6-101 The following acts or parts of acts are repealed:
Sec. 6-102. RCW 62A.1-105 and 1981 c 41 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this Title applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

(2) Where one of the following provisions of this Title specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified:

- Rights of creditors against sold goods. RCW 62A.2-402.
- Applicability of the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections. RCW 62A.4-102. (Bulk transfers subject to the Article on Bulk Transfers—RCW 62A.6-102.)
- Applicability of the Article on Investment Securities. RCW 62A.8-106.
- Perfection provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions. RCW 62A.9-103.

Sec. 6-103. RCW 62A.2-403 and 1967 c 114 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A purchaser of goods acquires all title which his or her transferor had or had power to transfer except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person with voidable title has power to transfer a good title to a good faith purchaser for value. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the purchaser has such power even though

(a) the transferor was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser, or
(b) the delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored, or
(c) it was agreed that the transaction was to be a “cash sale”.

(2) Any entrusting of possession of goods to a merchant who deals in goods of that kind gives him or her power to transfer all rights of the entruster to a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(3) “Entrusting” includes any delivery and any acquiescence in retention of possession regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the delivery or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor's disposition of the goods have been such as to be larcenous under the criminal law.

(4) The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the Articles on Secured Transactions (Article 9) (Bulk Transfers (Article 6)) and Documents of Title (Article 7)."

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the following title amendment was adopted:

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1395 and the pending striking amendment by Senator Nelson, deferred earlier today.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Nelson to House Bill No. 1395.

The striking amendment by Senator Nelson to House Bill No. 1395 was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION
Senator Erwin moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 26.04.160 and 1985 c 82 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for (للإذن) a marriage license must be made and filed with the appropriate county auditor upon blanks to be provided by the county auditor for that purpose, which application shall be under the oath of each of the applicants, and each application shall state the name, address at the time of execution of application, age, birthplace, whether single, widowed or divorced, and whether under control of a guardian, residence during the past six months: PROVIDED, That each county may require such other and further information on said application as it shall deem necessary.

(2) The county legislative authority may impose an additional fee up to one dollar on a marriage license for the purpose of funding family services such as family support centers.

Sec. 2. RCW 36.18.020 and 1992 c 54 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Clerks of superior courts shall collect the following fees for their official services:

(1) The party filing the first or initial paper in any civil action, including an action for restitution, or change of name, shall pay, at the time said paper is filed, a fee of one hundred ten dollars except in proceedings filed under RCW 26.50.030 or 49.60.227 where the petitioner shall pay a filing fee of twenty dollars, or an unlawful detainer action under chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW where the plaintiff shall pay a filing fee of thirty dollars. If the defendant serves or files an answer to an unlawful detainer complaint under chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW, the plaintiff shall pay, prior to proceeding with the unlawful detainer action, an additional eighty dollars which shall be considered part of the filing fee. The thirty dollar filing fee under this subsection for an unlawful detainer action shall not include an order to show cause or any other order or judgment except a default order or default judgment in an unlawful detainer action. The county legislative authority may impose an additional fee up to twenty dollars on any petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or a declaration concerning the validity of a marriage, for the purpose of funding family services such as family support centers.

(2) Any party, except a defendant in a criminal case, filing the first or initial paper on an appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction or any party on any civil appeal, shall pay, when said paper is filed, a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(3) The party filing a transcript or abstract of judgment or verdict from a United States court held in this state, or from the superior court of another county or from a district court in the county of issuance, shall pay at the time of filing, a fee of fifteen dollars.

(4) For the filing of a tax warrant by the department of revenue of the state of Washington, a fee of five dollars shall be paid.

(5) For the filing of a petition for modification of a decree of dissolution, a fee of twenty dollars shall be paid.

(6) The party filing a demand for jury of six in a civil action, shall pay, at the time of filing, a fee of fifty dollars; if the demand is for a jury of twelve the fee shall be one hundred dollars. If, after the party files a demand for a jury of six and pays the required fee, any other party to the action requests a jury of twelve, an additional fifty-dollar fee will be required of the party demanding the increased number of jurors.

(7) For filing any paper, not related to or a part of any proceeding, civil or criminal, or any probate matter, required or permitted to be filed in the clerk's office for which no other charge is provided by law, or for filing a petition, written agreement, or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170, the clerk shall collect two dollars.

(8) For preparing, transcribing or certifying any instrument on file or of record in the clerk's office, with or without seal, for the first page or portion thereof, a fee of two dollars, and for each additional page or portion thereof, a fee of one dollar. For authenticating or exemplifying any instrument, a fee of one dollar for each additional seal affixed.

(9) For executing a certificate, with or without a seal, a fee of two dollars shall be charged.

(10) For each garnishee defendant named in an affidavit for garnishment and for each writ of attachment, a fee of five dollars shall be charged.

(11) For approving a bond, including justification thereon, in other than civil actions and probate proceedings, a fee of two dollars shall be charged.

(12) In probate proceedings, the party instituting such proceedings, shall pay at the time of filing the first paper therein, a fee of one hundred ten dollars: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, A fee of two dollars shall be charged for filing a will only, when no probate of the will is contemplated. Except as provided for in subsection (13) of this section a fee of two dollars shall be charged for filing a petition, written agreement, or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170.

(13) For filing any petition to contest a will admitted to probate or a petition to admit a will which has been rejected, or a petition objecting to a written agreement or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170, there shall be paid a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(14) For the issuance of each certificate of qualification and each certified copy of letters of administration, letters testamentary or letters of guardianship there shall be a fee of two dollars.
(15) For the preparation of a passport application there shall be a fee of four dollars.
(16) For searching records for which a written report is issued there shall be a fee of eight dollars per hour.
(17) Upon conviction or plea of guilty, upon failure to prosecute an appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction as provided by law, or upon affirmance of a conviction by a court of limited jurisdiction, a defendant in a criminal case shall be liable for a fee of one hundred ten dollars.
(18) With the exception of demands for jury hereafter made and garnishments hereafter issued, civil actions and probate proceedings filed prior to midnight, July 1, 1972, shall be completed and governed by the fee schedule in effect as of January 1, 1972: PROVIDED, That no fee shall be assessed if an order of dismissal on the clerk’s record be filed as provided by rule of the supreme court.
(19) No fee shall be collected when a petition for relinquishment of parental rights is filed pursuant to RCW 26.33.080 or for forms and instructional brochures provided under RCW 26.50.030.

Sec. 3. RCW 43.08.250 and 1992 c 54 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The money received by the state treasurer from fees, fines, forfeitures, penalties, reimbursements or assessments by any court organized under Title 3 or 35 RCW, or chapter 2.08 RCW, shall be deposited in the public safety and education account which is hereby created in the state treasury. The legislature shall appropriate the funds in the account to promote traffic safety education, highway safety, criminal justice training, crime victims’ compensation, judicial education, the judicial information system, civil representation of indigent persons, family support centers, winter recreation parking, and state game programs. During the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1993, the legislature may appropriate moneys from the public safety and education account for the purposes of local jail population data collection under RCW 10.98.130, the department of corrections’ county partnership program under RCW 72.09.300, the treatment alternatives to street crimes program, the criminal litigation unit of the attorney general’s office, and contracts with county officials to provide support enforcement services.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Erwin, and there being no objection, the striking amendment to House Bill No. 1395 was withdrawn.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1395 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Senate was called to order at 1:04 p.m. by President Pritchard.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Cantu, McCaslin, Prince, von Reichbauer and Winsley were excused.
SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1047, by House Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Rust, Horn, Valle, Long, Springer, Forner, Miller, Edmondson, Lemmon, Tate, Chandler, Wood, Roland and J. Kohl)

Requiring solid waste reports and landfill fee reciprocity on waste received from outside the state.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fraser, the following Committee on Ecology and Parks amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that:

(1) The state of Washington has responded to the increasing challenges of safe, affordable disposal of solid waste by an ambitious program of waste reduction, recycling and reuse, as well as strict standards to ensure the safe handling, transportation, and disposal of solid waste;

(2) All communities in Washington participate in these programs through locally available recycling services, increased source separation and material recovery requirements, programs for waste reduction and product reuse, and performance standards that apply to all solid waste disposal facilities in the state;

(3) New requirements for the siting and performance of disposal facilities have greatly decreased the number of such facilities in Washington, and the state has a significant interest in ensuring adequate disposal capacity within the state;

(4) The landfilling, incineration, and other disposal of solid waste may adversely impact public health and environmental quality, and the state has a significant interest in decreasing volumes of the waste stream destined for disposal;

(5) Because of the decreasing number of disposal facilities and other reasons, solid waste is being transported greater distances, often beyond the community where generated and is increasingly being transported between states;

(6) Washington's waste management priorities and programs are a balanced approach of increased reuse, recycling and waste reduction, the strengthening of markets for recycled content products, and the safe disposal of the remaining waste stream, with the costs of these programs shared equitably by all persons generating waste in the state;

(7) Those residing in other states who generate waste destined for disposal within Washington should also share the costs of waste diversion and management of Washington's disposal facilities, so that the risks of waste disposal and the costs of mitigating those risks are shared equitably by all waste generators, regardless of their location;

(8) Because Washington state may not directly regulate waste handling, reduction, and recycling activities beyond its state boundaries, the only reasonable alternative to ensure this equitable treatment of waste being disposed within Washington is to implement a program of reviewing such activities as to waste originating outside of Washington, and to assign the additional costs, when necessary, to ensure that the waste meets standards substantially equivalent to those applicable to waste generated within the state, and, in some cases, to prohibit disposal of waste where its generation and management is not subject to standards substantially equivalent to those applicable to waste generated within the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) At least sixty days prior to receiving solid waste generated from outside of the state, the operator of a solid waste disposal site facility shall report to the department the types and quantities of waste to be received from an out-of-state source. The department shall develop guidelines for reporting this information. The guidelines shall provide for less than sixty days notice for shipments of waste made on a short-term or emergency basis. The requirements of this subsection shall take effect upon completion of the guidelines.

(2) Upon notice under subsection (1) of this section, the department shall identify all activities and costs necessary to ensure that solid waste generated out-of-state meets standards relating to solid waste reduction, recycling, and management substantially equivalent to those required of solid waste generated within the state. The department may assess a fee on the out-of-state waste sufficient to recover the actual costs incurred in ensuring that the out-of-state waste meets equivalent state standards. The department may delegate, to a local health department, authority to implement the activities identified by the department under this subsection. All money received from fees imposed under this subsection shall be deposited into the solid waste management account created by RCW 70.95.800, and shall be used solely for the activities required by this section.
The department may prohibit in-state disposal of solid waste generated from outside of the state, unless the generators of the waste meet: (a) Waste reduction and recycling requirements substantially equivalent to those applicable in Washington state; and (b) solid waste handling standards substantially equivalent to those applicable in Washington state.

(4) The department may adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

On motion of Senator Fraser, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after “state;” strike the remainder of the title and insert “adding new sections to chapter 70.95 RCW; and declaring an emergency.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1047, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: “Senator Fraser, this is a good bill. In the discussion, however, did you have a chance to look to see if this may jeopardize any type of reciprocity from other states? In other words, Washington is very dependent on, for example, sending things to Arlington, Oregon. Would this jeopardize if that state didn’t have the same type of standards that we did–any reciprocity?”

Senator Fraser: “My understanding is that there is not a problem, especially with Oregon. They have similar legislation. Also, this has been–I’m not aware of reciprocity problems. Also, the bill does, to the best of my knowledge, meet the test of the commerce clause in that it doesn’t discriminate against out-of-state waste. The fee that is involved is merely to cover the state’s cost in management and processing of waste.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1047, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1047, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 0; Absent, 4; Excused, 7.

Absent: Senators Amondson, Deccio, McDonald and Vognild - 4.

Excused: Senators Cantu, Hochstatter, McCaslin, Owen, Prince, von Reichbauer and Winsley - 7.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1047, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1057, by House Committee on Trade, Economic Development and Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Franklin, Zellinsky, Campbell and Springer)

Correcting double amendments relating to regulation of mobile and manufactured homes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1057 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1057.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1057 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; Nays, 0; Absent, 3; Excused, 7.

Absent: Senators Amondson, Deccio and Vognild - 3.

Excused: Senators Cantu, Hochstatter, McCaslin, Owen, Prince, von Reichbauer and Winsley - 7.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1057, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1086, by House Committee on Environmental Affairs (originally sponsored by Representatives Valle, Edmondson, Rust and Kremen)

Modifying littering penalties.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Fraser moved that the following Committee on Ecology and Parks amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 70.93.060 and 1983 c 277 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall throw, drop, deposit, discard, or otherwise dispose of litter upon any public property in the state or upon private property in this state not owned by him or in the waters of this state whether from a vehicle or otherwise including but not limited to any public highway, public park, beach, campground, forest land, recreational area, trailer park, highway, road, street, or alley except:

((1)) (a) When (such) the property is designated by the state or (by any of) its agencies or political subdivisions for the disposal of garbage and refuse, and (such) the person is authorized to use such property for (such) that purpose;

((2)) (b) Into a litter receptacle in (such) a manner that (the litter) will (be prevented) prevent litter from being carried away or deposited by the elements upon any part of said private or public property or waters.

(Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and the fine for such violation shall not be less than fifty dollars for each offense. In addition thereto, except where infirmity or age or other circumstance would create a hardship, such person shall be directed by the court in which conviction is obtained to pick up and remove litter from public property and or private property, with prior permission of the legal owner, for not less than eight hours nor more than sixteen hours for each separate offense. The court shall schedule the time to be spent on such activities in such a manner that it does not interfere with the person's employment and does not interfere substantially with the person's family responsibilities)

(2)(a) It is a class 3 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount less than or equal to one cubic foot.

(b) It is a class 1 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount greater than one cubic foot. Unless suspended or modified by a court, the person shall also pay a litter cleanup fee of twenty-five dollars per cubic foot of litter. The court may, in addition to or in lieu of or all of the cleanup fee, order the person to pick up and remove litter from the property, with prior permission of the legal owner or, in the case of public property, of the agency managing the property.

Sec. 2. RCW 70.93.070 and 1983 c 277 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall prescribe the procedures for the collection of (fines and bail forfeitures including the imposition of additional penalty charges for late payment of fines) penalties, costs, and other charges allowed by chapter 7.80 RCW for violations of this chapter. Included in the procedures shall be provisions requiring (the distribution of) that one-half of the monetary amount ((of fines)) actually collected (under the enforcement) by the state or local government entity enforcing the provisions of this chapter (by a local governmental agency to) be distributed to that local governmental (agency) entity.

Sec. 3. RCW 70.95.240 and 1969 ex.s. c 134 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) After the adoption of regulations or ordinances by any county, city, or jurisdictional board of health providing for the issuance of permits as provided in RCW 70.95.160, it shall be unlawful for any person to dump or deposit or permit the dumping or depositing of any solid waste onto or under the surface of the ground or into the waters of this state except at a solid waste disposal site for which there is a valid permit(Provided, That nothing herein). This section shall not prohibit a person from dumping or depositing solid waste resulting from his own activities onto or under the surface of ground owned or leased by him when such action does not violate statutes or ordinances, or create a nuisance. ((Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor))

(2)(a) It is a class 3 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount less than or equal to one cubic foot.

(b) It is a class 1 civil infraction as defined in RCW 7.80.120 for a person to litter in an amount greater than one cubic foot. Unless suspended or modified by a court, the person shall also pay a litter cleanup fee of twenty-five dollars per cubic foot of litter. The court may, in addition to or in lieu of part or all of the cleanup fee, order the person to pick up and remove litter from the property, with prior permission of the legal owner or, in the case of public property, of the agency managing the property."

Senator Fraser moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 11 insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that the release into the atmosphere of large numbers of balloons inflated with lighter-than-air gasses poses a danger and nuisance to the environment, particularly to wildlife and marine animals. The legislature also finds that balloons released into the atmosphere are a significant source of litter and impair the fundamental need for a healthful, clean and beautiful environment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 70.93 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, it is unlawful for any person to intentionally release, organize the release, or intentionally cause to be released within a twenty-four hour period twenty-five or more balloons inflated with a gas that is lighter than air.

(2) It is not a violation of this section for a person to release:

(a) Balloons on behalf of a government agency or pursuant to a governmental contract for scientific or meteorological purposes;

(b) Hot air balloons that are recovered after launching; or

(c) Balloons indoors.

(3) A violation of this section is a class 1 civil infraction under chapter 7.80 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 70.93 RCW to read as follows:

Any person may petition a district court to enjoin the release of twenty-five or more balloons in violation of section 2 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, I would like to challenge the scope and object of this amendment. The bill creates penalties for littering and changes current penalties for the offense of littering. The amendment creates a new offense. The new offense is releasing of balloons. It is clearly beyond the scope; the scope of the bill is merely a penalty adjustment. This creates a new crime, so I would ask, Mr. President, that you rule that way."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was deferred.

SECOND READING

Creating the government accountability task force.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that many of the systems currently in place for assuring accountability in state government programs are not operated comprehensively, do not take advantage of modern management techniques, and do not contribute adequately to the optimum use of scarce resources. Critical variables that are not always taken into account include whether stated goals and objectives are being achieved, and whether desired results are being accomplished.

Agency executives need more accurate information for setting policy, determining whether new or existing programs are effective, and improving internal controls for agency management. These needs must be met at all levels of operation, and must be clearly communicated to the legislature and all interested parties.

Ensuring accountability in government involves a long-term commitment to policy planning, quality management, and results-oriented evaluation. It is the intent of this act to facilitate program evaluations and performance audits of selected state agencies and programs through the coordinated resources of the executive and legislative branches of state government.

Sec. 2. RCW 43.88.020 and 1991 c 358 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Budget" means a proposed plan of expenditures for a given period or purpose and the proposed means for financing these expenditures.

(2) "Budget document" means a formal, written statement offered by the governor to the legislature, as provided in RCW 43.88.030.

(3) "Director of financial management" means the official appointed by the governor to serve at the governor's pleasure and to whom the governor may delegate necessary authority to carry out the governor's duties as provided in this chapter. The director of financial management shall be head of the office of financial management which shall be in the office of the governor.

(4) "Agency" means and includes every state office, officer, each institution, whether educational, correctional or other, and every department, division, board and commission, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(5) "Public funds", for purposes of this chapter, means all moneys, including cash, checks, bills, notes, drafts, stocks, and bonds, whether held in trust, for operating purposes, or for capital purposes, and collected or disbursed under law, whether or not such funds are otherwise subject to legislative appropriation, including funds maintained outside the state treasury.

(6) "Regulations" means the policies, standards, and requirements, stated in writing, designed to carry out the purposes of this chapter, as issued by the governor or the governor's designated agent, and which shall have the force and effect of law.

(7) "Ensuing biennium" means the fiscal biennium beginning on July 1st of the same year in which a regular session of the legislature is held during an odd-numbered year pursuant to Article II, section 12 of the Constitution and which biennium next succeeds the current biennium.

(8) "Dedicated fund" means a fund in the state treasury, or a separate account or fund in the general fund in the state treasury, that by law is dedicated, appropriated or set aside for a limited object or purpose; but "dedicated fund" does not include a revolving fund or a trust fund.

(9) "Revolving fund" means a fund in the state treasury, established by law, from which is paid the cost of goods or services furnished to or by a state agency, and which is replenished through charges made for such goods or services or through transfers from other accounts or funds.

(10) "Trust fund" means a fund in the state treasury in which designated persons or classes of persons have a vested beneficial interest or equitable ownership, or which was created or established by a gift, grant, contribution, devise, or bequest that limits the use of the fund to designated objects or purposes.

(11) "Administrative expenses" means expenditures for: (a) Salaries, wages, and related costs of personnel and (b) operations and maintenance including but not limited to costs of supplies, materials, services, and equipment.

(12) "Fiscal year" means the year beginning July 1st and ending the following June 30th.

(13) "Lapse" means the termination of authority to expend an appropriation.
(14) "Legislative fiscal committees" means the legislative budget committee, the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee, the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives, and, where appropriate, the legislative transportation committee.

(15) "Fiscal period" means the period for which an appropriation is made as specified within the act making the appropriation.

(16) "Primary budget driver" means the primary determinant of a budget level, other than a price variable, which causes or is associated with the major expenditure of an agency or budget unit within an agency, such as a caseload, enrollment, workload, or population statistic.

(17) "Stabilization account" means the budget stabilization account created under RCW 43.88.525 as an account in the general fund of the state treasury.

(18) "State tax revenue limit" means the limitation created by chapter 43.135 RCW.

(19) "General state revenues" means the revenues defined by Article VIII, section 1(c) of the state Constitution.

(20) "Annual growth rate in real personal income" means the estimated percentage growth in personal income for the state during the current fiscal year, expressed in constant value dollars, as published by the office of financial management or its successor agency.

(21) "Estimated revenues" means estimates of revenue in the most recent official economic and revenue forecast prepared under RCW 82.33.020, and prepared by the office of financial management for those funds, accounts, and sources for which the office of the economic and revenue forecast council does not prepare an official forecast including estimates of revenues to support financial plans under RCW 44.40.070, that are prepared by the office of financial management in consultation with the interagency task force.

(22) "Estimated receipts" means the estimated receipt of cash in the most recent official economic and revenue forecast prepared under RCW 82.33.020, and prepared by the office of financial management for those funds, accounts, and sources for which the office of the economic and revenue forecast council does not prepare an official forecast.

(23) "State budgeting, accounting, and reporting system" means a system that gathers, maintains, and communicates fiscal information. The system links fiscal information beginning with development of agency budget requests through adoption of legislative appropriations to tracking actual receipts and expenditures against approved plans.

(24) "Allotment of appropriation" means the agency's statement of proposed expenditures, the director of financial management's review of that statement, and the placement of the approved statement into the state budgeting, accounting, and reporting system.

(25) "Statement of proposed expenditures" means a plan prepared by each agency that breaks each appropriation out into monthly detail representing the best estimate of how the appropriation will be expended.

(26) "Undesignated fund balance (or deficit)" means unreserved and undesignated current assets or other resources available for expenditure over and above any current liabilities which are expected to be incurred by the close of the fiscal period.

(27) "Internal audit" means an independent appraisal activity within an agency for the review of operations as a service to management, including a systematic examination of accounting and fiscal controls to assure that human and material resources are guarded against waste, loss, or misuse; and that reliable data are gathered, maintained, and fairly disclosed in a written report of the audit findings.

(28) "Performance audit" means an audit which determines the following: (a) Whether a government entity is acquiring, protecting, and using its resources economically and efficiently; (b) the causes of inefficiencies or uneconomical practices; (c) whether the entity has complied with laws and regulations applicable to the program; (d) the extent to which the desired results or benefits established by the legislature are being achieved; and (e) the effectiveness of organizations, programs, activities, or functions.

(29) "Program evaluation" means the use of a variety of policy and fiscal research methods to (a) determine the extent to which a program is achieving its legislative intent in terms of producing the effects expected, and (b) make an objective judgment of the implementation, outcomes, and net cost or benefit impact of programs in the context of their goals and objectives. It includes the application of systematic methods to measure the results, intended or unintended, of program activities.

(30) "Success measures" include, but are not limited to the following types of indicators: (a) Indicators of service efforts, stated in terms of human and material resource inputs expended on a service during a specific period; (b) indicators of service accomplishments or outputs, such as the amount of workload accomplished; and outcomes, such as numeric indicators of program results and service quality; and (c) indicators that relate service efforts to service accomplishments, such as indexes of productivity, efficiency, or effectiveness.

Sec. 3. RCW 43.88.090 and 1989 c 273 s 26 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of developing budget proposals to the legislature, the governor shall have the power, and it shall be the governor's duty, to require from proper agency officials such detailed estimates and other information in such form and at such times as the governor shall direct. The estimates for the legislature and the judiciary shall be transmitted to the governor and shall be included in the budget without revision. The estimates for state pension contributions shall be based on the rates provided in chapter 41.45 RCW. Copies of all such estimates shall be transmitted to the standing committees on ways and means of the house and senate at the same time as they are filed with the governor and the office of financial management.

(2) (Estimates from each agency shall include goals and objectives for each program administered by the agency. The goals and objectives shall, whenever possible, be stated in terms of objective measurable results.) For the purpose of assessing program performance, each state agency shall establish results-oriented goals and objectives, and develop success measures based on these goals and objectives, for each major program in its budget. Each agency shall express the success measures in an objective, quantifiable, and measurable form unless permitted by the office of financial management to adopt a different standard.

The estimates shall include statements or tables which indicate, by agency, the state funds which are required for the receipt of federal matching revenues. The estimates shall be revised as necessary to reflect legislative enactments and adopted appropriations and shall be included with the initial biennial allotment submitted under RCW 43.88.110.

(3) In the year of the gubernatorial election, the governor shall invite the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee to attend all hearings provided in RCW 43.88.100; and the governor shall furnish the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee with such information as will enable the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee to gain an understanding of the state's budget requirements. The governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee may ask such questions during the hearings and require such information as the governor-elect or the governor-elect's designee deems necessary and may make recommendations in connection with any item of the budget which, with the governor-elect's reasons therefor, shall be presented to the legislature in writing with the budget document. Copies of all such estimates and other required information shall also be submitted to the standing committees on ways and means of the house and senate.

Sec. 4. RCW 43.88.160 and 1992 c 118 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

This section sets forth the major fiscal duties and responsibilities of officers and agencies of the executive branch. The regulations issued by the governor pursuant to this chapter shall provide for a comprehensive, orderly basis for fiscal management and control, including efficient accounting and reporting therefor, for the executive branch of the state government and may include, in addition, such requirements as will generally promote more efficient public management in the state.

(1) Governor; director of financial management. The governor, through the director of financial management, shall devise and supervise a modern and complete accounting system for each agency to the end that all revenues, expenditures, receipts, disbursements, resources, and obligations of the state shall be properly and systematically accounted for. The accounting system shall include the development of accurate, timely records and reports of all financial affairs of the state. The system shall also provide for central accounts in the office of financial management at the level of detail deemed necessary by the director to perform central financial management. The director of financial management shall adopt and periodically update an accounting procedures manual. Any agency maintaining its own accounting and reporting system shall comply with the updated accounting procedures manual and the rules of the director adopted under this chapter. An agency may receive a waiver from complying with this requirement if the waiver is approved by the director. Waivers expire at the end of the fiscal biennium for which they are granted. The director shall forward notice of waivers granted to the appropriate legislative fiscal committees. The director of financial management may require such financial, statistical, and other reports as the director deems necessary from all agencies covering any period.

(2) The director of financial management is responsible for quarterly reporting of primary operating budget drivers such as applicable workloads, caseload estimates, and appropriate unit cost data. These reports shall be transmitted to the legislative fiscal committees or by electronic means to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee. Quarterly reports shall include actual monthly data and the variance between actual and estimated data to date. The reports shall also include estimates of these items for the remainder of the budget period.

(3) The director of financial management shall report at least annually to the appropriate legislative committees regarding the status of all appropriated capital projects, including transportation projects, showing significant cost overruns or underruns. If funds are shifted from one project to another, the office of financial management shall also reflect this in the annual variance report. Once a project is complete, the report shall provide a final summary showing estimated start and completion dates of each project phase compared to actual dates, estimated costs of each project phase compared to actual costs, and whether or not there are any outstanding liabilities or unsettled claims at the time of completion.

(4) In addition, the director of financial management, as agent of the governor, shall:

(a) Develop and maintain a system of internal controls and internal audits comprising methods and procedures to be adopted by each agency which will safeguard its assets, check the accuracy and reliability of its accounting data, promote operational efficiency, and encourage adherence to prescribed managerial policies for accounting and financial controls. The system developed by the director shall include criteria for determining the scope and comprehensiveness of internal controls required by classes of agencies, depending on the level of resources at risk.
Each agency head or authorized designee shall be assigned the responsibility and authority for establishing and maintaining internal controls following the standards of internal auditing of the institute of internal auditors;

(b) Make surveys and analyses of agencies with the object of determining better methods and increased effectiveness in the use of manpower and materials; and the director shall authorize expenditures for employee training to the end that the state may benefit from training facilities made available to state employees;

(c) Report to the governor with regard to duplication of effort or lack of coordination among agencies;

(d) Review any pay and classification plans, and changes thereunder, developed by any agency for their fiscal impact: PROVIDED, That none of the provisions of this subsection shall affect merit systems of personnel management now existing or hereafter established by statute relating to the fixing of qualifications requirements for recruitment, appointment, or promotion of employees of any agency. The director shall advise and confer with agencies including appropriate standing committees of the legislature as may be designated by the speaker of the house and the president of the senate regarding the fiscal impact of such plans and may amend or alter said plans, except that for the following agencies no amendment or alteration of said plans may be made without the approval of the agency concerned: Agencies headed by elective officials;

(e) Fix the number and classes of positions or authorized man years of employment for each agency and during the fiscal period amend the determinations previously fixed by the director except that the director shall not be empowered to fix said number or said classes for the following: Agencies headed by elective officials;

(f) Provide for transfers and repayments between the budget stabilization account and the general fund as directed by appropriation and RCW 43.88.525 through 43.88.540;

(g) Adopt regulations to effectuate provisions contained in (a) through ((e)) (f) of this subsection.

(5) The treasurer shall:

(a) Receive, keep, and disburse all public funds of the state not expressly required by law to be received, kept, and disbursed by some other persons: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to those public funds of the institutions of higher learning which are not subject to appropriation;

(b) Disburse public funds under the treasurer's supervision or custody by warrant or check;

(c) Keep a correct and current account of all moneys received and disbursed by the treasurer, classified by fund or account;

(d) Perform such other duties as may be required by law or by regulations issued pursuant to this law.

It shall be unlawful for the treasurer to issue any warrant or check for public funds in the treasury except upon forms duly prescribed by the director of financial management. Said forms shall provide for authentication and certification by the agency head or the agency head's designee that the services have been rendered or the materials have been furnished; or, in the case of loans or grants, that the loans or grants are authorized by law; or, in the case of payments for periodic maintenance services to be performed on state owned equipment, that a written contract for such periodic maintenance services is currently in effect and copies thereof are on file with the office of financial management; and the treasurer shall not be liable under the treasurer's surety bond for erroneous or improper payments so made: PROVIDED, That when services are lawfully paid for in advance of full performance by any private individual or business entity other than as provided for by RCW 42.24.035, such individual or entity other than central stores rendering such services shall make a cash deposit or furnish surety bond coverage to the state as shall be fixed in an amount by law, or if not fixed by law, then in such amounts as shall be fixed by the director of the department of general administration but in no case shall such required cash deposit or surety bond be less than an amount which will fully indemnify the state against any and all losses on account of breach of promise to fully perform such services: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That no payments shall be made in advance for any equipment maintenance services to be performed more than three months after such payment. Any such bond so furnished shall be conditioned that the person, firm or corporation receiving the advance payment will apply it toward performance of the contract. The responsibility for recovery of erroneous or improper payments made under this section shall lie with the agency head or the agency head's designee in accordance with regulations issued pursuant to this chapter. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit a public body to advance funds to a private service provider pursuant to a grant or loan before services have been rendered or material furnished.

(6) The state auditor shall:

(a) Report to the legislature the results of current post audits that have been made of the financial transactions of each agency; to this end the auditor may, in the auditor's discretion, examine the books and accounts of any agency, official or employee charged with the receipt, custody or safekeeping of public funds. Where feasible in conducting examinations, the auditor shall utilize data and findings from the internal control system prescribed by the office of financial management. The current post audit of each agency may include a section on recommendations to the legislature as provided in (c) of this subsection.

(b) Give information to the legislature, whenever required, upon any subject relating to the financial affairs of the state.

(c) Make the auditor's official report on or before the thirty-first of December which precedes the meeting of the legislature. The report shall be for the last complete fiscal period and shall include (at least the following) determinations as to whether agencies, in making expenditures, complied with the laws of this state(PROVIDED THAT nothing in this section may be construed to grant). The state auditor (the right) is authorized to perform or participate in performance audits only as expressly authorized by the legislature in the omnibus biennial appropriations acts. A performance audit for the purpose of this section is the examination of the effectiveness of the administration, its efficiency, and its adequacy in terms of the programs of departments or agencies as previously approved by the legislature. (The authority and responsibility to conduct such an examination shall be vested in the legislative budget committee as prescribed in RCW 44.28.085.) The state auditor, upon completing an audit for legal and financial compliance under chapter 43.09 RCW, may report to the legislative budget committee or other appropriate committees of the legislature, in a manner prescribed by the legislative budget committee, on facts relating to the management or performance of governmental programs where such facts are discovered incidental to the legal and financial audit: PROVIDED, That the auditor may make such a report to a legislative committee only if the auditor has determined that the agency has been given an opportunity and has failed to resolve the management or performance issues raised by the auditor. If the auditor makes a report to a legislative committee, the agency may submit to the committee a response to the report. This subsection (6) shall not be construed to authorize the auditor to allocate other than de minimis resources to performance audits except as expressly authorized in the appropriations acts.

(d) Be empowered to take exception to specific expenditures that have been incurred by any agency or to take exception to other practices related in any way to the agency's financial transactions and to cause such exceptions to be made a matter of public record, including disclosure to the agency concerned and to the director of financial management. It shall be the duty of the director of financial management to cause corrective action to be taken promptly, such action to include, as appropriate, the withholding of funds as provided in RCW 43.88.110.

(e) Promptly report any irregularities to the attorney general.

(f) Investigate improper governmental activity under chapter 42.40 RCW.

(7) The legislative budget committee may:

(a) Make post audits of the financial transactions of any agency and management surveys and program reviews as provided for in RCW 44.28.085 as well as performance audits and program evaluations. To this end the committee may in its discretion examine the books, accounts, and other records of any agency, official, or employee.

(b) Give information to the legislature or any legislative committee whenever required upon any subject relating to the performance and management of state agencies.

(c) Make a report to the legislature which shall include at least the following:

(i) Determinations as to the extent to which agencies in making expenditures have complied with the will of the legislature and in this connection, may take exception to specific expenditures or financial practices of any agencies; and

(ii) Such plans as it deems expedient for the support of the state's credit, for lessening expenditures, for promoting frugality and economy in agency affairs and generally for an improved level of fiscal management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 44.28 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In conducting program evaluations as defined in RCW 43.88.020, the legislative budget committee shall establish a biennial work plan that identifies state agency programs for which formal evaluation appears necessary. Among the factors to be considered in preparing the work plan are:

(a) Whether a program newly created or significantly altered by the legislature warrants continued oversight because (i) the fiscal impact of the program is significant, or (ii) the program represents a relatively high degree of risk in terms of reaching the stated goals and objectives for that program;

(b) Whether implementation of an existing program has failed to meet its goals and objectives by any significant degree.

(2) The project description for each program evaluation shall include start and completion dates, the proposed research approach, and cost estimates.

(3) The overall plan may include proposals to employ contract evaluators. As conditions warrant, the program evaluation work plan may be amended from time to time. All biennial work plans shall be transmitted to the appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the senate and the house of representatives.

Sec. 6. RCW 44.28.085 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 293 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative budget committee shall make management surveys and program reviews as to every public body, officer or employee subject to the provisions of RCW 43.09.290 through 43.09.340. The legislative budget committee may also make management surveys and program reviews of local school districts, intermediate school districts, and other units of local government receiving state funds as grants-in-aid or as shared revenues. Management surveys for the purposes of this section shall be an independent examination for the purpose of providing the legislature with an evaluation and report of the manner in which any public agency, officer, administrator, or employee has discharged the responsibility to faithfully, efficiently, and effectively administer any legislative purpose of the state. Program reviews for the purpose of this section shall be an examination of state or local government programs to ascertain whether or not such programs continue to serve their intended purposes, are conducted in an efficient and effective manner, or require modification or elimination: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall limit the power or duty of the state auditor to report to the legislature as directed by (subsection (3) of) RCW 43.88.160 (as now or hereafter amended. The authority in this section conferred excludes a like authority in the state auditor).

The legislative budget committee shall receive a copy of each report of examination issued by the state auditor under RCW 43.09.310, shall review all such reports, and shall make such recommendations to the legislature and to the state auditor as it deems appropriate."

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "government," strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.88.020, 43.88.090, 43.88.160, and 44.28.085; adding a new section to chapter 44.28 RCW; and creating a new section."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1372, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1372, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1372, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 6.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin, Owen, Prince, von Reichbauer and Winsley - 6.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1372, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senator Moyer was excused.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1407, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 and the pending amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: “In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator West, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 is a measure which changes the penalties for littering; changes the penalty for collection procedures; and establishes new definitions of littering.

“The amendment by Senator Fraser to the Committee on Ecology and Parks amendment would define as littering the release of balloons under certain circumstances and impose a penalty.

“The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment to the committee amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is not well taken.”

The amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086. Debate ensued.

The amendment by Senator Fraser on page 3, after line 11, to the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086.

The Committee on Ecology and Parks striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fraser, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after “littering:” strike the remainder of the title and insert “amending RCW 70.93.060, 70.93.070, and 70.95.240; and prescribing penalties.”

On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1086, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1086, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; Nays, 3; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley,
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1086, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1461, by House Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Representatives Kremen, Miller, Jacobsen and Long)

Extending the prohibition on mandatory local measured service.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1461 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1461.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1461 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1461, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1214, by House Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representative Appelwick)

Concerning health care information disclosure.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment was adopted:

On page 6, beginning on line 22, strike all material through "admitted" on line 25 and insert "(k) In the case of a hospital or health care provider to provide, in cases reported by fire, police, sheriff, or other public authority, name, residence, sex, age, occupation, condition, diagnosis, or extent and location of injuries as determined by a physician, and whether the patient was conscious when admitted"

Senator Sutherland moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:
On page 3, line 14, after "program" insert "or an organization under section 8 of this act"

On page 11, after line 27, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 48.01 RCW to read as follows:
This title does not apply to an organization that:
(1) Operates as a nonprofit organization registered under chapter 19.09 RCW;
(2) Produces a periodic publication that:
   (a) Suggests amounts publication subscribers may voluntarily give to other subscribers, with no assumption of risk or promise to pay either among the subscribers or between the subscribers and the publication;
   (b) Provides for the payment of subscriber financial or medical needs by payments directly from one subscriber to another; and
   (c) Discloses plainly in bold ink on the first page of any pamphlet, advertisement, questionnaire, enrollment, or subscription form:

   "WARNING: THIS IS NOT AN INSURANCE CONTRACT. IF YOU ARE NOT HELPED WITH ANY OF YOUR NEEDS, YOU HAVE NO LEGAL RECOURSE AGAINST ANY OTHER SUBSCRIBER OR THE ORGANIZATION. NO CONTRACT OF INSURANCE OR INDEMNIFICATION EXISTS EITHER IN FACT OR IMPLIED."

(3) Acts as an organizational clearinghouse for information between subscribers who have financial, physical, or medical needs and subscribers who choose to assist with those needs, matching subscribers with the present ability to pay with subscribers having a present financial or medical need; and
(4) Receives subscription fees or other payments or charges of any kind annually from subscribers that do not exceed an amount equal to eight and thirty-four one-hundredths percent of the total suggested amounts to give published annually."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe that these expand the scope and object of the bill. This is the subject of a bill we passed through here that was a type of insurance project--they didn't call it insurance. They said because we don't call it insurance, it is not insurance. It has nothing to do with disclosure in this bill."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1214 was deferred.

SECOND READING

Defining "employment" for unemployment compensation.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1292 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1292.

ROLL CALL
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1292 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1292, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 1214 and the pending amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 3, line 14, and page 11, after line 27, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Wojahn, the President finds that Substitute House Bill No. 1214 is a measure which provides for the disclosure of medical information under certain circumstances. The amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 3, line 14, and page 11, after line 27, would allow nonprofit organizations to publicize the health needs of newsletter subscribers. The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 3, line 14 and page 11, after line 27, to Substitute House Bill No. 1214 were ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Deccio was adopted: On page 4, line 17, after "authorizations" insert "given pursuant to an agreement with a treatment or monitoring program or disciplinary authority under chapters 18.72 or 18.130 RCW or"

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1214, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1214, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1214, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1214, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1352, by House Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Representatives Veloria, G. Cole and Franklin) (by request of Department of Labor and Industries)
Revising provisions for fee schedules for industrial insurance medical aid.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1352 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: “Senator Moore, I was just reading through this. How is this going to work in conjunction with the Health Care Bill? How does that all fit in with the basic notion of the Health Care Bill?”

Senator Moore: “Well, it is hoped that there will be some coordination between the various departments under this administration.”

Senator McDonald: “But, when they set the basic rate and the basic policy, how does that fit in with the whole fee schedule?”

Senator Moore: “I’m not sure that I have an accurate answer to that. Perhaps somebody else can fill in the blanks.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: “In response to Senator McDonald’s question, this would be the policy that would exist in the interim between now and anytime that the Legislature might decide to fold the medical aid fund to the Department of Labor and Industries into the personal health arrangements under the Health Care Reform Act. In the Health Care Reform Act, as it has passed the House, they provide for L & I services under medical aid fund being done on an interim basis in some managed care pilot projects. In both versions of the bill, there is a study and recommendations about folding the two systems together, so this setting of fees will be on an interim basis until those changes in the larger bill happen.”

Senator McDonald: “Is it anticipated that this will be immediate or is it going to be long-term?”

Senator Talmadge: “In terms of the two systems coming together?”

Senator McDonald: “Yes.”

Senator Talmadge: “My desire is that they would come together fairly quickly—approximately at the same time the employment mandates start to come together.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1352.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1352 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1352, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1518, by House Committee on Natural Resources and Parks (originally sponsored by Representatives Valle, Dunshie, Pruitt, Rust, J. Kohl, Holm, Jacobsen, Linville and Eide)
Creating a water trail recreation program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1518 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator West: "Senator Talmadge, actually I think this is a pretty good idea, but is this how we are going to find our underwater parks, by going on these trails?"

Senator Talmadge: "Only if they stick the nose of that canoe too far into the water, Senator." Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cantu: "Senator Fraser, I guess in looking at the report—I haven't read the bill—who pays the fees or what type of fees? Are these going to be fees for people that use the trail? Who has that responsibility to levy, to collect and you know, basically, who pays for it?"

Senator Fraser: "The fees would be set by the State Parks Department after consultation with the Water Trails Advisory Committee. They would be permit-use fees and voluntary contributions."

Senator Cantu: "OK, so the fees are basically for those that would use the trails and have access to them?"

Senator Fraser: "Right, it is designed to be a self-supporting program."

Senator Cantu: "I understand that. I was just curious as to whether it would be the people using it and I presume that that is what it is."

Senator Fraser: "That is the intent."

Senator Cantu: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Fraser, I had a call after this passed the Senate the first time. It was a question that I couldn't answer. In the first part of the bill, it references 'human or wind-powered,' and the call was regarding the wind surfing that is taking place like down on the Columbia River. Is this bill envisioned for only places where we have state parks now and where the parks are, the fees would be charged, or down on the Columbia River, where all the people put in at different places to wind surf? Would we now be charging those people also, for that activity? It was unclear to me, when I got that call, about how the fees would be charged."

Senator Fraser: "The subject of wind-surfing was not part of the testimony before the committee, so I can't give you a definitive answer on that. It is intended they would be charged as a general permit and fees at the site for the system."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "The water trail program is designed to be dealt with by the Parks Department. They would designate trails in water bodies on the rivers or on the ocean side, say on Puget Sound. Basically, what the fee gives people is the opportunity to pull in at night when they are done canoeing or doing the work. It really wouldn't affect wind-surfers. It essentially gives them a guaranteed slot to camp in; that is the idea of a trail. The people say that if they were canoeing on the Columbia River system, if they didn't run over a dam, they would have the opportunity to pull up at an appropriate state parks site and have a guaranteed reservation, so that they would have a place to rest--is what it comes down to. The trails would be designated by the Parks Department, so wind-surfing would not be covered by this bill."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Roach: "Senator Fraser, did this department explore thoroughly its ability to fund, through existing resources, a water parks and trails system?"

Senator Fraser: "This bill was brought to us by the advocates, by the users -- people who use kayaks, canoes, etc. They are well aware that the State Parks Department has a very limited budget and probably couldn't do this without these voluntary contributions."

Senator Roach: "Thank you, to proceed, and Senator Fraser has yielded to a question. The question really was, has the Parks, the administration, pursued funding this program, which is a very worthy program, through existing forms of revenue and through the existing budget?"

"I think it is a very important point to notice that we do have a great parks system in this state, but we also have, as our needs expand, the requirement--as least I think--a moral requirement to the taxpayer in this state--to prioritize projects and that this is just one of many projects, but somehow it has been set aside and outside of the regular budget process and I am wondering if, in fact, this was taken as a project and prioritized out and then we are looking for a new source of funding or if we are deciding, in fact, that it is so different that it needs its own source. Did they, in fact, study this and cast it off as something that they couldn't include?"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Spanel, Senator Loveland was excused.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Amondson was excused.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Roach: "A point of order, Mr. President. I never got the response, that is why I asked the question, I wanted to find out if, in fact, the Parks Department had explored prioritizing this project among all the others that there are in this state and was it purged or did they decide they would go after another funding source?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Well, it is not a point of order that they didn't respond to you."

Senator Roach: "Well, is it a point of order that you had recognized somebody before I had gotten my answer?"

President Pritchard: "I saw them standing. Is anybody else standing? For what reason do you rise, Senator Roach?"

Senator Roach: "Well, Senator Fraser had yielded to a question. I was just wondering if I could have the answer? I just didn't know."

Senator Pritchard: "Well, she obviously doesn't want to answer you and she doesn't have to."

Senator Roach: "OK, thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1518.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1518 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; Nays, 2; Absent, 0; Excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson and Roach - 2.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Hochstatter, Loveland, McCaslin and Owen - 5.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1518, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1530, by Representatives Morris, Foreman, Springer, Ogden, Carlson, Riley, Silver, Leonard, Chappell, H. Myers, Rayburn, Mastin, Thibaudreau, Anderson, Holm, Campbell, Brough, King, Hansen, Jones, Basich, Quall, Conway, Van Luven, Cothern, Long and Finkbeiner
Providing for continuation of property tax exemptions for senior citizens confined in hospitals and nursing homes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1530 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of House Bill No. 1530.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1530 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Voting nay: Senator Skratek - 1.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, Loveland, McCaslin and Owen - 4.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1530, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1808, by House Committee on Trade, Economic Development and Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Shin, Mastin, Forner, Wineberry, Rayburn, Jones, Cothern, J. Kohl, Wang, Van Luven, Chandler and Linville)

Creating the Washington council on international trade.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Skratek, the following Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the expansion of international trade is vital to the economy of Washington state. International trade-related activities currently account for approximately twenty percent of employment in this state even though only a small percentage of businesses do extensive exporting. Washington's long-term economic prosperity depends on the creation and retention of jobs that international trade provides through providing an expanded marketplace for goods and services produced in this state. Increasing the number of businesses exporting and the foreign markets accessed helps diversify the state economy and make the state's businesses more competitive by providing experience in the international marketplace. There are many international markets that offer export potential for Washington businesses that are not currently being accessed, particularly several Pacific Rim countries. The legislature also finds that there presently exists several programs and initiatives by federal, state, and local governments that have to be coordinated effectively within and among economic development organizations, state agencies, academic institutions, and businesses so as to enhance the sale of goods and services in foreign markets.

Therefore, the legislature declares that an important public purpose can be accomplished through the development and implementation of a state policy on international trade.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 44.52 RCW to read as follows:
(1) The council on international trade is established as a subcommittee of the executive legislative committee on economic development created in chapter ... (Senate Bill No. 5300), Laws of 1993. The council shall consist of at least three members of the full committee and may include advisory members. The advisory members may include a representative of trade organizations, a representative of ports, a representative of businesses active in exporting goods, an expert in foreign marketing, and an expert in export financing.

(2) Advisory members may receive reimbursement for travel from the governor's office under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The council shall:
(a) Review past studies of state export assistance programs and current state export targeting efforts;
(b) Develop a strategic plan to enhance international trade for consideration by the full committee, governor, and legislature; and
(c) Recommend specific programmatic changes and legislative actions necessary to enhance and coordinate state export assistance efforts.”

MOTIONS

Senator Skratek moved that the following amendment be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the expansion of international trade is vital to the economy of Washington state. International trade-related activities currently account for approximately twenty percent of employment in this state even though only a small percentage of businesses do extensive exporting. Washington’s long-term economic prosperity depends on the creation and retention of jobs that international trade provides through providing an expanded marketplace for goods and services produced in this state. Increasing the number of businesses exporting and the foreign markets accessed helps diversify the state economy and make the state's businesses more competitive by providing experience in the international marketplace. There are many international markets that offer export potential for Washington businesses that are not currently being accessed, particularly several Pacific Rim countries. The legislature also finds that there presently exists several programs and initiatives by federal, state, and local governments that have to be coordinated effectively within and among economic development organizations, state agencies, academic institutions, and businesses so as to enhance the sale of goods and services in foreign markets.

The legislature further finds that a strategy to expand international trade must be integrated into a comprehensive long-term economic development plan, and that the expertise of the private sector can enhance the joint strategic planning efforts of the governor, executive agencies, and the legislature.

Therefore, the legislature declares that an important public purpose can be accomplished through an international trade council that, through coordination and advice, can facilitate increased exporting by Washington businesses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 44.52 RCW to read as follows:
(1) The council on international trade is established. The council shall consist of fifteen members as follows:
(a) Two members of trade organizations, appointed by the governor;
(b) Two representatives of ports, appointed by the governor;
(c) Three representatives of businesses active in exporting goods, appointed by the governor;
(d) Three representatives from the executive-legislative committee on economic development created in chapter ..., (Senate Bill No. 5300), Laws of 1993;
(e) Two members with experience in foreign marketing, appointed by the governor;
(f) Two experts in financing export transactions, appointed by the governor; and
(g) The director of the department of trade and economic development.

(2) Nonlegislative members may receive reimbursement from the governor's office for travel under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members may be reimbursed under RCW 41.04.300.

(3) The council shall:
(a) Advise the executive-legislative committee on economic development regarding policies, programs, and activities to enhance the exporting of Washington goods and services to international markets;
(b) Review current state export targeting efforts and advise the executive-legislative committee on economic development regarding markets with potential that currently are not being emphasized;
(c) Assist in the coordination of public export programs state-wide;
(d) Identify for the executive-legislative committee on economic development current and long-term international trade issues that need to be addressed by the state in its long-term economic development plan; and

(e) Recommend methods to increase the awareness of international trade, especially its opportunities and its importance, throughout the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The council may accept gifts, grants, donations, devises, and bequests to facilitate the work of the council.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The council shall make a preliminary report to the executive-legislative committee on economic development on its activities by June 1, 1994, and make a final report by December 1, 1994.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This act shall expire on June 30, 1995."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendments by Senators Rasmussen, Erwin and Skratek to the striking amendment by Senator Skratek were considered simultaneously and were adopted on a rising vote:

On page 2, line 33, delete "and"

On page 2, line 36, strike "state." and insert "state;"

(f) Study the impact of the Uruguay round of the general agreement on tariffs and trade and the north american free trade agreement on the state's small manufacturing and export firms, focusing on the competitive threats and opportunities presented by the trade agreements to the state's six most significant traded sectors as measured by the number of employees in the sector and the aggregate dollar volume of goods and services traded in the sector. The counsel shall identify and utilize existing analyses, studies, and data from the federal government, national and state business and labor organizations, and educational and policy institutes."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Skratek, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 1808.

The striking amendment by Senator Skratek, as amended, to Substitute House Bill No. 1808 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Skratek, the following title amendment was adopted:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1602, by House Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Chappell, Cothern and Thomas) (by request of Superintendent of Public Instruction)

Changing election provisions for regional committee members.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pelz, the following Committee on Education amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 28A.315.030 and 1990 c 33 s 294 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, those persons who were county committee members and registered to vote as of July 28, 1985, shall constitute the regional committee of the educational service district within which they are registered to vote until the election of the initial regional committee pursuant to this section. The initial election of members of each regional committee shall be by those persons who were county committee members registered to vote within the educational service district as of July 28, 1985. Only persons who were county committee members and so registered to vote as of July 28, 1985, shall be eligible for membership on an initial regional committee, and only those persons who are eligible for such membership and are in attendance at a meeting held for the purpose of the election shall be entitled to cast a vote. The meeting shall be held at a time and place designated and announced by the educational service district superintendent, but no later than the thirtieth day after July 28, 1985. The educational service district superintendent shall preside over the meeting. Nominations shall be from the floor and shall be for position numbers assigned by the educational service district superintendent for the purpose of the initial election and all subsequent elections held pursuant to RCW 28A.315.060. The term of office of each regional committee member and position shall expire as of the second Monday of January 1995. Each regional committee member position shall therefore be open for election purposes in 1994. Members of each regional committee shall be elected by majority vote and shall serve for the staggered terms of office set forth in RCW 28A.315.060 and until their successors are certified as elected pursuant to RCW 28A.315.060. Regional committee member position numbers shall be assigned by the educational service district superintendent for purposes of all elections held pursuant to RCW 28A.315.060.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.315.060 and 1990 c 33 s 295 are each amended to read as follows:

The members of each regional committee shall be elected in the following manner:

(1) On or before the 25th day of September, 1994, and not later than the 25th day of September of every subsequent even-numbered year, each superintendent of an educational service district shall call an election to be held in each educational service district within which resides a member of a regional committee whose term of office expires on the second Monday of January next following, and shall give written notice thereof to each member of the board of directors of each school district in the educational service district. Such notice shall include instructions, and the rules and regulations established by the state board of education for the conduct of the election. The state board of education is hereby empowered to adopt rules pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW which establish standards and procedures which the state board deems necessary to conduct elections pursuant to this section; to conduct run-off elections in the event an election for a position is indecisive; and to decide run-off elections which result in tie votes, in a fair and orderly manner."
(2) Candidates for membership on a regional committee shall file a declaration of candidacy with the superintendent of the educational service district wherein they reside. Declarations of candidacy may be filed by person or by mail not earlier than the 1st day of October, and not later than the 15th day of October of each even-numbered year. The superintendent may not accept any declaration of candidacy that is not on file in his or her office or not postmarked before the 16th day of October, or if not postmarked or the postmark is not legible, if received by mail after the 20th day of October of each even-numbered year.

(3) Each member of the regional committee shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast for all candidates for the position by the members of the boards of directors of school districts in the educational service district. All votes shall be cast by mail ballot addressed to the superintendent of the educational service district wherein the school director resides. No votes shall be accepted for counting if postmarked after the 16th day of November or if not postmarked or the postmark is not legible, if received by mail after the 21st day of November of each even-numbered year. An election board comprised of three persons appointed by the board of the educational service district shall count and tally the votes not later than the 25th day of November or the next business day if the 25th falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday of each even-numbered year. Each vote cast by a school director shall be recorded as one vote. Within ten days following the count of votes, the educational service district superintendent shall certify to the superintendent of public instruction the name or names of the person(s) elected to be members of the regional committee.

(4) In the event of a change in the number of educational service districts or in the number of educational service district board members pursuant to chapter 28A.310 RCW a new regional committee shall be elected for each affected educational service district at the next (annual) election conducted pursuant to this section. Those persons who were serving on a regional committee within an educational service district affected by a change in the number of districts or board members shall continue to constitute the regional committee for the educational service district within which they are registered to vote until the majority of a new board has been elected and certified.

(5) No member of a regional committee shall continue to serve thereon if he or she ceases to be a registered voter of the educational service district board member district or if he or she is absent from three consecutive meetings of the committee without an excuse acceptable to the committee.

Sec. 3. RCW 28A.315.080 and 1990 c 33 s 296 are each amended to read as follows:
The terms of members of the regional committees shall be for ((five)) four years and until their successors are certified as elected. ((As nearly as possible one fifth of the members shall be elected annually.))

For the (initial) 1994 election conducted pursuant to RCW 28A.315.030 and the election of a new regional committee following a change in the number of educational service districts or board members, regional committee member positions one ((and six)), three, five, seven, and nine shall be for a term of ((five)) two years, positions two ((and seven)), four, six, and eight shall be for a term of four years((positions three and eight shall be for a term of three years, positions four and nine shall be for a term of two years, and position five shall be for a term of one year)).

(1) Whenever state officers or measures are voted upon at a state primary or general election held in an odd-numbered year under RCW 29.13.010, the state of Washington shall assume a prorated share of the costs of that state primary or general election.

(2) Whenever a primary or vacancy election is held to fill a vacancy in the position of United States senator or United States representative under chapter 29.68 RCW, the state of Washington shall assume a prorated share of the costs of that primary or vacancy election.

(3) Whenever a presidential preference primary election is held under chapter 29.19 RCW, the state of Washington shall assume all costs of holding the election if it is held alone. If any other election or elections are held at the same time, the state is liable only for its prorated share.

(4) The county auditor shall apportion the state's share of these expenses when prorating election costs under RCW 29.13.045 and shall file such expense claims with the secretary of state.

(5) The secretary of state shall include in his or her biennial budget requests sufficient funds to carry out this section. Reimbursements for election costs shall be from appropriations specifically provided by law for that purpose.

Sec. 4. RCW 29.19.050 and 1989 c 4 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as is practicable, and where the provisions of this chapter do not specifically indicate otherwise, the presidential preference primary shall be conducted in the same manner as a state partisan primary, including the certification of the election returns by the secretary of state. The requirement of rotation of names on the ballot does not apply to the candidates listed on the presidential preference primary ballot. County auditors may combine and consolidate two or more precincts for the purpose of conducting the presidential preference primary only if precinct vote totals for the primary can still be made available and the consolidation does not require a voter to go to a location different from that of the last regular election.

Each person desiring to vote in the presidential preference primary shall (((receive a ballot request form on which the voter shall sign his or her name and address and declare)) orally request the ballot for the party primary in which he or she wishes to participate. No record may be made of which party's ballot a voter receives and no voter may receive more than one ballot.

(The secretary shall prescribe rules for providing each party central committee a list of the voters who participated in the presidential primary of that party.

The signed ballot request forms shall be maintained in the centralized containers by the county auditor for a period of time as specified by rule of the secretary of state, after which time they shall be destroyed, unless otherwise directed by federal law.))

At a presidential preference primary, a voter may cast no more than one vote on a ballot. Any presidential preference primary ballot with more than one vote is void, and notice to this effect, couched in clear, simple language, and printed in large type, shall appear on the face of each presidential preference primary ballot. Where voting machines or electronic voting devices are in use, the notice shall be displayed on or about each machine or device."

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1809, by Representatives Locke and Wang

Permitting the pooling of department of natural resources trust management accounts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hargrove, the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 79.64.020 and 1985 c 57 s 80 are each amended to read as follows:

A resource management cost account in the state treasury is hereby created to be used solely for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses necessarily incurred by the department in managing and administering public lands and the making and administering of leases, sales, contracts, licenses, permits, easements, and rights of way as authorized under the provisions of this title. Appropriations from the account to the department shall be expended for no other purposes. Funds in the account may be appropriated or transferred by the legislature for the benefit of all of the trust lands from which the funds were derived.

Sec. 2. RCW 79.64.030 and 1988 c 70 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds in the account derived from the gross proceeds of leases, sales, contracts, licenses, permits, easements, and rights of way issued by the department and affecting school lands, university lands, agricultural college lands, scientific school lands, normal school lands, capitol building lands, or institutional lands shall be pooled and expended by the department solely for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses necessarily incurred in managing and administering (public lands of the same trust); provided, That all of the trust lands enumerated in this section. Such funds may be used for similar costs and expenses in managing and administering other lands managed by the department; provided that such expenditures that have been or may be made on such other lands shall be repaid to the resource management cost account together with interest at a rate determined by the board of natural resources.

An accounting shall be made annually of the accrued expenditures (as regards each) from the pooled trust funds in the account. In the event the accounting determines that expenditures have been made from moneys derived from (one category of) trust lands for the benefit of (another trust or) other lands, such expenditure shall be considered a debt (against the trust benefited) and (shall be considered) an encumbrance against the property (of the trust or trust funds) benefited, including property held under chapter 76.12 RCW. The results of the accounting shall be reported to the legislature at the next regular session. The state treasurer is authorized, upon request of the department, to transfer funds between the forest development account and the resource management cost account solely for purpose of repaying loans pursuant to this section.

The motion by Senator West failed.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1393, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1393, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; Nays, 19; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Niemi, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 27.
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1393, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1233, by House Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives R. Meyers, Zellinsky, Dellwo, R. Johnson, Scott, Riley, Kessler, Dunshee, Dorn, Foreman, Grant, Kremen and Johanson)

Regulating the mandatory offering of personal injury protection insurance.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Labor and Commerce amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Automobile" means a passenger car as defined in RCW 46.04.382 registered or principally garaged in this state other than:

(a) A farm-type tractor or other self-propelled equipment designed for use principally off public roads;
(b) A vehicle operated on rails or crawler-treads;
(c) A vehicle located for use as a residence;
(d) A motor home as defined in RCW 46.04.305; or
(e) A moped as defined in RCW 46.04.304.

(2) "Bodily injury" means bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death at any time resulting from the injury, sickness, or disease.

(3) "Income continuation benefits" means payments of at least eighty-five percent of the insured's loss of income from work, less credit for earned income received, because of bodily injury sustained by him or her in the accident, less income earned during the benefit payment period. The benefit payment period begins fourteen days after the date of the accident and ends at the earliest of the following:

(a) The date on which the insured is reasonably able to perform the duties of his or her usual occupation;
(b) The expiration of not more than fifty-two weeks from the fourteenth day; or
(c) The date of the insured's death.

(4) "Insured automobile" means an automobile of which the named insured is the registered owner, to which the automobile liability insurance policy applies.

(5) "Insured" means:

(a) The named insured or a person who is a resident of the named insured's household and is either related to the named insured by blood, marriage, or adoption, or is the named insured's ward, foster child, or stepchild; or
(b) A person who sustains bodily injury caused by accident while: (i) Occupying or using the insured automobile with the permission of the named insured; or (ii) a pedestrian accidentally struck by the insured automobile.

(6) "Loss of services benefits" means reimbursement for payment to others, not members of the insured's household, for expenses reasonably incurred for services in lieu of those the insured would usually have performed for his or her household without compensation, provided the services are actually rendered, and ending the earliest of the following:

(a) The date on which the insured person is reasonably able to perform those services;
(b) The expiration of fifty-two weeks; or
(c) The date of the insured's death.

(7) "Medical and hospital benefits" means payments for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by or on behalf of the insured for injuries sustained as a result of an automobile accident for health care services provided by persons licensed..."
under Title 18 RCW, including pharmaceuticals, prosthetic devices and eye glasses, and necessary ambulance, hospital, and professional nursing service.

(8) “Automobile liability insurance policy” means a policy insuring against loss resulting from liability imposed by law for bodily injury, death, or property damage suffered by any person and arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of an insured automobile.

(9) "Named insured" means the individual named in the declarations of the policy and includes his or her spouse if a resident of the same household.

(10) "Occupying" means in or upon or entering into or alighting from.

(11) "Pedestrian" means a natural person not occupying a motor vehicle as defined in RCW 46.04.320.

(12) "Personal injury protection" means the benefits described in sections 1 through 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) No new automobile liability insurance policy or renewal of such an existing policy may be issued unless personal injury protection coverage benefits at limits established in this chapter for medical and hospital expenses, funeral expenses, income continuation, and loss of services sustained by an insured because of bodily injury caused by an automobile accident are offered as an optional coverage.

(2) A named insured may reject, in writing, personal injury protection coverage and the requirements of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply. If a named insured has rejected personal injury protection coverage, that rejection shall be valid and binding as to all levels of coverage and on all persons who might have otherwise been insured under such coverage. If a named insured has rejected personal injury protection coverage, such coverage shall not be included in any supplemental, renewal, or replacement policy unless a named insured subsequently requests such coverage in writing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Personal injury protection coverage need not be provided for vendor's single interest policies, general liability policies, or other policies, commonly known as umbrella policies, that apply only as excess to the automobile liability policy directly applicable to the insured motor vehicle.

(2) Personal injury protection coverage need not be provided to or on behalf of:

(a) A person who intentionally causes injury to himself or herself;

(b) A person who is injured while participating in a prearranged or organized racing or speed contest or in practice or preparation for such a contest;

(c) A person whose bodily injury is due to war, whether or not declared, or to an act or condition incident to such circumstances;

(d) A person whose bodily injury results from the radioactive, toxic, explosive, or other hazardous properties of nuclear material;

(e) The named insured or a relative while occupying a motor vehicle owned by the named insured or furnished for the named insured's regular use, if such motor vehicle is not described on the declaration page of the policy under which a claim is made;

(f) A relative while occupying a motor vehicle owned by the relative or furnished for the relative's regular use, if such motor vehicle is not described on the declaration page of the policy under which a claim is made; or

(g) An insured whose bodily injury results or arises from the insured's use of an automobile in the commission of a felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. At a minimum, personal injury protection coverage must provide each insured:

(1) Up to ten thousand dollars for medical and hospital benefits for expenses incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Benefits for funeral expenses in an amount up to two thousand dollars;

(3) Income continuation benefits covering income losses incurred within one year after the date of the insured's injury in an amount up to ten thousand dollars, subject to a limit of the lesser of two hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income. The combined weekly payment receivable by the insured under any workers' compensation or other disability insurance benefits or other income continuation benefit and this insurance may not exceed eighty-five percent of the insured's weekly income; and

(4) Loss of services benefits in an amount of up to five thousand dollars, subject to a limit of forty dollars per day not to exceed two hundred dollars per week.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Insurers providing automobile liability insurance policies shall offer and provide, upon request, personal injury protection coverage limits for each insured of:

(1) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for medical and hospital benefits incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for one year's income continuation benefits, subject to a limit of the lesser of seven hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income; and

(3) Up to forty dollars per day for loss of services benefits, for up to one year from the date of the automobile accident.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 48.22 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The commissioner may adopt such rules as are necessary to implement sections 1 through 5 of this act by July 1, 1994.*

(f) A relative while occupying a motor vehicle owned by the relative or furnished for the relative's regular use, if such motor vehicle is not described on the declaration page of the policy under which a claim is made; or

(g) An insured whose bodily injury results or arises from the insured's use of an automobile in the commission of a felony.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Insurers providing automobile insurance policies must offer minimum personal injury protection coverage for each insured with maximum benefit limits as follows:

(1) Medical and hospital benefits of ten thousand dollars for expenses incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Benefits for funeral expenses in an amount of two thousand dollars;

(3) Income continuation benefits covering income losses incurred within one year after the date of the insured's injury in an amount of ten thousand dollars, subject to a limit of the lesser of two hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income. The combined weekly payment receivable by the insured under any workers' compensation or other disability insurance benefits or other income continuation benefit and this insurance may not exceed eighty-five percent of the insured's weekly income;

(4) Loss of services benefits in an amount of five thousand dollars, subject to a limit of forty dollars per day not to exceed two hundred dollars per week; and

(5) Payments made under personal injury protection coverage are limited to the amount of actual loss or expense incurred.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. In lieu of minimum coverage required under section 4 of this act, an insurer providing automobile liability insurance policies shall offer and provide, upon request, personal injury protection coverage with benefit limits for each insured of:

(1) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for medical and hospital benefits incurred within three years of the automobile accident;

(2) Up to two thousand dollars for funeral expenses incurred;

(3) Up to thirty-five thousand dollars for one year's income continuation benefits, subject to a limit of the lesser of seven hundred dollars per week or eighty-five percent of the weekly income; and

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 48.22 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1994.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. The commissioner may adopt such rules as are necessary to implement sections 1 through 5 of this act.
On motion of Senator Moore, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 2 of the title, after “insurance;” strike the remainder of the title and insert ”adding new sections to chapter 48.22 RCW; creating a new section; and providing an effective date.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1233, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1233, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1233, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; Nays, 10; Absent, 1; Excused, 3.
Voting yea: Senators Anderson, Deccio, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Moyer, Niemi, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 35.
Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Barr, Bluechel, Cantu, Erwin, McDonald, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke and Smith, L. - 10.
Absent: Senator Bauer - 1.
Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1233, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

Changing provisions relating to dependent children.
The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Hargrove, Fraser and Roach was adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“Sec. 1. RCW 13.34.145 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) In all cases where a child has been placed in substitute care for at least fifteen months, the agency having custody of the child shall prepare a permanency (planning) plan and present it in a hearing (shall be) held before the court no later than eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode.

(2) At the permanency planning hearing, the court shall enter findings as required by RCW 13.34.130((4),(5)). In addition the court shall: (a) Approve a (permanent plan of care) permanency plan which (can) shall include one of the following: Adoption, guardianship, (or) placement of the child in the home of the child's parent, relative placement with written permanency plan, or family foster care with written permanency agreement; (b) require filing of a petition for termination of parental rights; or (c) dismiss the dependency, unless the court finds, based on clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, that it is in the best interest of the child to continue the dependency beyond eighteen months, based on ((a permanent plan of care)) the permanency plan. Extensions may only be granted in increments of twelve months or less.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.34.180 and 1990 c 246 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:
A petition seeking termination of a parent and child relationship may be filed in juvenile court by any party to the dependency proceedings concerning that child. Such petition shall conform to the requirements of RCW 13.34.040, shall be served upon the parties as provided in RCW 13.34.070(7), and shall allege:

1. That the child has been found to be a dependent child under RCW 13.34.030(2); and
2. That the court has entered a dispositional order pursuant to RCW 13.34.130; and
3. That the child has been removed or will, at the time of the hearing, have been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency under RCW 13.34.030(2); and
4. That the services ordered under RCW 13.34.130 have been offered or provided and all necessary services, reasonably available, capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been offered or provided; and
5. That there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future. In determining whether the conditions will be remedied the court may consider, but is not limited to, the following factors:
   a. Use of intoxicating or controlled substances so as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documented multiple failed treatment attempts;
   b. Psychological incapacity or mental deficiency of the parent that is so severe and chronic as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time, and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documentation that there is no treatment that can render the parent capable of providing proper care for the child in the near future; or
   c. Severe abuse of a child under age thirteen inflicted by a parent, or by any person known by the parent, if the parent: (i) Knew or should have known that the person was abusing the child; (ii) did not intervene to protect the child; and (iii) was able to protect the child. For the purposes of this subsection, "severe abuse" means any of the following: Any single act of abuse that causes physical trauma of sufficient severity that, if left untreated, could cause death; any single act of sexual abuse that causes significant bleeding, deep bruising, or significant external or internal swelling; or more than one act of physical abuse, each of which causes bleeding, deep bruising, significant external or internal swelling, bone fracture, or unconsciousness; and
5. That continuation of the parent and child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for early integration into a stable and permanent home; or
6. That in lieu of the allegations in subsections (1) through (6) of this section, the petition may allege that the child was found under such circumstances that the whereabouts of the child's parent are unknown and no person has acknowledged paternity or maternity and requested custody of the child within two months after the child was found. A parent's failure to substantially improve parental deficiencies within twelve months following entry of the dispositional order shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future. The presumption shall not arise unless the state ensures that family reconciliation and other necessary services have been provided to the parent.

Notice of rights shall be served upon the parent, guardian, or legal custodian with the petition and shall be in substantially the following form:

"NOTICE

A petition for termination of parental rights has been filed against you. You have important legal rights and you must take steps to protect your interests. This petition could result in permanent loss of your parental rights.

1. You have the right to a fact-finding hearing before a judge.
2. You have the right to have a lawyer represent you at the hearing. A lawyer can look at the files in your case, talk to the department of social and health services and other agencies, tell you about the law, help you understand your rights, and help you at hearings. If you cannot afford a lawyer, the court will appoint one to represent you. To get a court-appointed lawyer you must contact: (explain local procedure).
3. At the hearing, you have the right to speak on your own behalf, to introduce evidence, to examine witnesses, and to receive a decision based solely on the evidence presented to the judge.

You should be present at this hearing.

You may call (insert agency) for more information about your child. The agency's name and telephone number are (insert name and telephone number).

Sec. 3. RCW 13.34.190 and 1992 c 145 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:
After hearings pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court may enter an order terminating all parental rights to a child if the court finds that:
(1) The allegations contained in the petition as provided in RCW 13.34.180 (1) through (6) are established by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence; or
(2) RCW 13.34.180 (3) and (4) may be waived because the allegations under RCW 13.34.180 (1), (2), (5), and (6) are established beyond a reasonable doubt; or
(3) The allegation under RCW 13.34.180(7) is established beyond a reasonable doubt.

In determining whether RCW 13.34.180 (5) and (6) are established beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall consider one or more of the following:

(a) Conviction of the parent of rape of the child in the first, second, or third degree as defined in RCW 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, and 9A.44.079;
(b) Conviction of the parent of criminal mistreatment of the child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.42.020 or 9A.42.030;
(c) Conviction of the parent of one of the following assault crimes, when the child is the victim: Assault in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.011 and 9A.36.021 or assault of a child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.120 or 9A.36.130;
(d) Conviction of the parent of murder, manslaughter, or homicide by abuse of the child's other parent, sibling, or another child;
(e) A finding by a court that a parent is a sexually violent predator as defined in RCW 71.09.020;
(f) Failure of the parent to complete available treatment ordered under this chapter or the equivalent laws of another state, where such failure has resulted in a prior termination of parental rights to another child and the parent has failed to effect significant change in the interim;

(4) Such an order is in the best interests of the child.

Sec. 4. RCW 13.34.232 and 1981 c 195 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:
If the court has made a finding under RCW 13.34.231, it shall enter an order establishing a guardianship for the child. The order shall:
(1) Appoint a person or agency to serve as guardian;
(2) Specify the guardian's rights and responsibilities concerning the care, custody, and control of the child. A guardian shall not have the authority to consent to the child's adoption;
(3) Specify an appropriate frequency of visitation between the parent and the child; and
(4) Specify the need for any continued involvement of the supervising agency and the nature of that involvement, if any. The order shall not affect the child's status as a dependent child, and the child shall remain dependent for the duration of the guardianship.

Sec. 5. RCW 26.09.191 and 1989 c 375 s 11 and 1989 c 326 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:
(1) The permanent parenting plan shall not require mutual decision-making or designation of a dispute resolution process other than court action if it is found that a parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (a) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (b) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (c) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.
(2)(a) If there is a conviction in a criminal action, or if a court in an action under this chapter finds by clear and convincing evidence, that a parent requesting residential time has sexually abused a child living in the parent's household at any time during the parent's life or any other child within the previous ten years, then there is a rebuttable presumption that the court shall not allow residential time to a parent and shall enter a permanent restraining order prohibiting the parent from contacting the child directly or indirectly.
(b) The presumption may be rebutted only after a finding that:
(i) The offending parent has successfully engaged in court-approved treatment for sexual offenders or is engaged in and making progress in such treatment and the treatment provider believes such contact is appropriate and poses minimal risk to the child;
(ii) If the child was sexually abused by the parent requesting residential time and if the child is in or has been in therapy for victims of sexual abuse, the child's counselor believes such contact between the child and the offending parent is in the child's best interest; and
(iii) An adequate plan for supervision of such residential time in accordance with the provisions of this chapter has been approved by the court.
(c) If the court finds that the presumption has been rebutted, the court may allow a parent who has been found to have sexually abused a child to have residential time with the child supervised by a neutral and independent adult. Unless the nonoffending parent approves the supervisor, the court shall make a finding that the proposed supervisor is neutral, independent, willing to supervise, and capable of intervening between the child and the parent if necessary. The court shall enter findings of fact regarding the qualifications of the appointed supervisor and shall notify the supervisor of the court's requirements regarding supervision. The court may immediately remove the supervisor from the supervisory role upon evidence being presented that the supervisor failed to supervise the residential time adequately.

(d) The parent's residential time with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

((ii)) (e) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting residential time. If the court expressly finds limitation on the residential time with the child will not adequately protect the child from the harm or abuse that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting residential time, the court shall restrain the parent requesting residential time from all contact with the child. If the parent requesting residential time is currently residing with another person who has a history of physical or sexual abuse of a child, whether that person is an adult or a juvenile, the court shall order that all residential time take place outside the presence of that person.

(1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights except as provided in subsection (2)

(f) Except as provided in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection, if the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm to the child and that the probability that the parent's harmful or abusive conduct will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of ((i)) and ((ii)) (d) and (e) of this subsection, or if the court expressly finds the parent's conduct did not have an impact on the child, then the court need not apply the limitations of ((i)) and ((ii)) (d) and (e) of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) A parent's involvement or conduct may have an adverse effect on the child's best interests, and the court may preclude or limit any provisions of the parenting plan, if any of the following factors exist:

(a) A parent's neglect or substantial nonperformance of parenting functions;
(b) A long-term emotional or physical impairment which interferes with the parent's performance of parenting functions as defined in RCW 26.09.004;
(c) A long-term impairment resulting from drug, alcohol, or other substance abuse that interferes with the performance of parenting functions;
(d) The absence or substantial impairment of emotional ties between the parent and the child;
(e) The abusive use of conflict by the parent which creates the danger of serious damage to the child's psychological development;

(f) A parent has withheld from the other parent access to the child for a protracted period without good cause; or
(g) Such other factors or conduct as the court expressly finds adverse to the best interests of the child.

(4) In entering a permanent parenting plan, the court shall not draw any presumptions from the provisions of the temporary parenting plan.

(5) In determining whether any of the conduct described in this section has occurred, the court shall apply the civil rules of evidence, proof, and procedure.

Sec. 6. RCW 26.10.160 and 1989 c 326 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2)(a) If there is a conviction in a criminal action, or if a court in an action under this chapter finds by clear and convincing evidence, that a parent requesting visitation has sexually abused a child living in the parent's household at any time during the parent's life or any other child within the previous ten years, then there is a rebuttable presumption that the court shall not allow visitation to a parent and shall enter a permanent restraining order prohibiting the parent from contacting the child directly or indirectly.

(b) The presumption may be rebutted only after a finding that:

(i) The offending parent has successfully engaged in court-approved treatment for sexual offenders or is engaged in and making progress in such treatment and the treatment provider believes such contact is appropriate and poses minimal risk to the child;

(ii) If the child was sexually abused by the parent requesting visitation and if the child is in or has been in therapy for victims of sexual abuse, the child's counselor believes such contact between the child and the offending parent is in the child's best interest; and

(iii) An adequate plan for supervision of such visitation in accordance with the provisions of this chapter has been approved by the court.
(c) If the court finds that the presumption has been rebutted, the court may allow a parent who has been found to have sexually abused a child to have visitation with the child supervised by a neutral and independent adult. Unless the nonoffending parent approves the supervisor, the court must make a finding that the proposed supervisor is neutral, independent, willing to supervise, and capable of intervening between the child and the parent if necessary. The court shall enter findings of fact regarding the qualifications of the appointed supervisor and shall notify the supervisor of the court's requirements regarding supervision. The court may immediately remove the supervisor from the supervisory role upon evidence being presented that the supervisor failed to supervise the residential time adequately.

(d) Visitation with the child shall be limited if it is found that the parent seeking visitation has engaged in any of the following conduct: (i) Willful abandonment that continues for an extended period of time or substantial refusal to perform parenting functions; (ii) physical, sexual, or a pattern of emotional abuse of a child; or (iii) a history of acts of domestic violence as defined in RCW 26.50.010(1) or an assault or sexual assault which causes grievous bodily harm or the fear of such harm.

((i)(a) (e) The limitations imposed by the court shall be reasonably calculated to protect the child from the physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting visitation. If the court expressly finds limitations on visitation with the child will not adequately protect the child from the harm or abuse that could result if the child has contact with the parent requesting visitation, the court shall restrain the person seeking visitation from all contact with the child. If the parent requesting visitation is currently residing with another person who has a history of physical or sexual abuse of a child, whether that person is an adult or a juvenile, the court shall order that all visitation take place outside the presence of that person.

((i)(ii)) (f) Except as provided in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection, if the court expressly finds that contact between the parent and the child will not cause physical, sexual, or emotional abuse or harm to the child and that the probability that the parent's harmful or abusive conduct will recur is so remote that it would not be in the child's best interests to apply the limitations of (((a) and (b))) (d) and (e) of this subsection, or if the court expressly finds the parent's conduct did not have an impact on the child, then the court need not apply the limitations of (((a) and (b))) (d) and (e) of this subsection. The weight given to the existence of a protection order issued under chapter 26.50 RCW as to domestic violence is within the discretion of the court.

(3) Any person may petition the court for visitation rights at any time including, but not limited to, custody proceedings. The court may order visitation rights for any person when visitation may serve the best interest of the child whether or not there has been any change of circumstances.

(4) The court may modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child. Modification of a parent's visitation rights shall be subject to the requirements of subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of this section shall apply when a court orders a party to undergo an alcohol or substance abuse diagnostic investigation and evaluation.

(2) The facility conducting the investigation and evaluation shall make a written report to the court stating its findings and recommendations including family-based services or treatment when appropriate. If its findings and recommendations support treatment, it shall also recommend a treatment plan setting out:

(a) Type of treatment;
(b) Nature of treatment;
(c) Length of treatment;
(d) A treatment time schedule; and
(e) Approximate cost of the treatment.

The affected person shall be included in developing the appropriate plan of treatment. The plan of treatment must be signed by treatment provider and the affected person. The initial written report based on the treatment plan and response to treatment shall be sent to appropriate persons six weeks after initiation of treatment, and after three months, after six months, after twelve months, and thereafter every six months if treatment exceeds twelve months. Reports are to be filed in a timely manner. Close-out of the treatment record must include summary of pretreatment and posttreatment, with final outcome and disposition. The report shall also include recommendations for ongoing stability and decrease in destructive behavior.

The report with the treatment plan shall be filed with the court and a copy given to the person evaluated and the person's counsel. A copy of the treatment plan shall also be given to the department's caseworker and to the guardian ad litem. Any program for alcoholism shall meet the program requirements contained in RCW 10.05.150.

(3) If the court has ordered treatment pursuant to a dependency proceeding it shall also require the treatment program to provide, in the reports required by subsection (2) of this section, status reports to the court, the department, the supervising child-placing agency if any, and the person or person's counsel regarding: (a) The person's cooperation with the treatment plan proposed; and (b) the person's progress in treatment.
(4) In addition, if the party fails or neglects to carry out and fulfill any term or condition of the treatment plan, the program or agency administering the treatment shall report such breach to the court, the department, the guardian ad litem, the supervising child-placing agency if any, and the person or person's counsel, within twenty-four hours, together with its recommendation. These reports shall be made as a declaration by the person who is personally responsible for providing the treatment.

(5) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as allowing the court to require the department to pay for the cost of any alcohol or substance abuse treatment program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The court or the department, upon receiving a report under section 7(4) of this act, may schedule a show cause hearing to determine whether the person is in violation of the treatment conditions. All parties shall be given notice of the hearing. The court shall hold the hearing within ten days of the request for a hearing. At the hearing, testimony, declarations, reports, or other relevant information may be presented on the person's alleged failure to comply with the treatment plan and the person shall have the right to present similar information on his or her own behalf.

(2) If the court finds that there has been a violation of the treatment conditions it shall modify the dependency order, as necessary, to ensure the safety of the child. The modified order shall remain in effect until the party is in full compliance with the treatment requirements.

Sec. 9. RCW 13.34.110 and 1991 c 340 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the petition and, unless the court dismisses the petition, shall make written findings of fact, stating the reasons therefor, and after it has announced its findings of fact shall hold a hearing to consider disposition of the case immediately following the fact-finding hearing or at a continued hearing within fourteen days or longer for good cause shown. The parties need not appear at the fact-finding or dispositional hearing if all the parties, their attorneys, the guardian ad litem, and court-appointed special advocates are all in agreement. The court shall receive and review a social study before entering an order based on agreement. No social file or social study may be considered by the court in connection with the fact-finding hearing or prior to factual determination, except as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice in open court is not given to a party, that party shall be notified by mail of the time and place of any continued hearing.

All hearings may be conducted at any time or place within the limits of the county, and such cases may not be heard in conjunction with other business of any other division of the superior court. The general public shall be excluded, and only such persons may be admitted who are found by the judge to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. If a child resides in foster care or in the home of a relative pursuant to a disposition order entered under RCW 13.34.130, the court may allow the child's foster parent or relative care provider to attend dependency review proceedings pertaining to the child for the sole purpose of providing information about the child to the court.

Stenographic notes or any device which accurately records the proceedings may be required as provided in other civil cases pursuant to RCW 2.32.200.

Sec. 10. RCW 13.34.120 and 1987 c 524 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To aid the court in its decision on disposition, a social study, consisting of a written evaluation of matters relevant to the disposition of the case, shall be made by the person or agency filing the petition. The study shall include all social records and may also include facts relating to the child's cultural heritage, and shall be made available to the court. The court shall consider the social file, social study, guardian ad litem report, the court-appointed special advocates report and any reports filed by a party at the disposition hearing in addition to evidence produced at the fact-finding hearing. At least ten working days before the disposition hearing, the department shall mail to the person who is personally responsible for the child's social and medical services a copy of the social study which shall be in writing or in a form understandable to the parents or custodians. In addition, the department shall provide an opportunity for parents to review and comment on the plan at the community service office. If the parents disagree with the agency's plan or any part thereof, the parents shall submit to the court at least twenty-four hours before the hearing, in writing or by oral statement, an alternative plan to correct the problems which led to the finding of dependency. This section shall not interfere with the right of the parents or custodians to submit oral arguments regarding the disposition plan at the hearing.

(2) In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section, a predisposition study to the court in cases of dependency alleged pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(2) (b) or (c) shall contain the following information:

(a) A statement of the specific harm or harms to the child that intervention is designed to alleviate;

(b) A description of the specific programs, for both the parents and child, that are needed in order to prevent serious harm to the child; the reasons why such programs are likely to be useful; the availability of any proposed services; and the agency's overall plan for ensuring that the services will be delivered;

(c) If removal is recommended, a full description of the reasons why the child cannot be protected adequately in the home, including a description of any previous efforts to work with the parents and the child in the home; the in-home treatment programs which have been considered and rejected; and the parents' attitude toward placement of the child;
A determination of child support shall be based upon the child support schedule and standards (adopted) provided under chapter 26.19 RCW (26.19.040).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 26.44 RCW to read as follows:
(1) This chapter shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not injurious to the child's health, welfare, and safety.
(2) Nothing in this chapter may be used to prohibit the reasonable use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline.
(3) No parent or guardian may be deemed abusive or neglectful solely by reason of the parent's or child's blindness, deafness, developmental disability, or other handicap.
(4) A person reporting injury, abuse, or neglect to an adult dependent person shall not suffer negative consequences if the person reporting believes in good faith that the adult dependent person has been found legally incompetent or disabled.

Sec. 14. RCW 26.44.020 and 1988 c 142 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:
For the purpose of and as used in this chapter:
(1) "Court" means the superior court of the state of Washington, juvenile department.
(2) "Law enforcement agency" means the police department, the prosecuting attorney, the state patrol, the director of public safety, or the office of the sheriff.
(3) "Practitioner of the healing arts" or "practitioner" means a person licensed by this state to practice (podiatric medicine and surgery, optometry, chiropractic, nursing, dentistry, osteopathy and surgery, or medicine and surgery or to provide other health services. The term "practitioner" shall include a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a person who is being furnished Christian Science treatment by a duly accredited Christian Science practitioner shall not be considered, for that reason alone, a neglected person for the purposes of this chapter.
(4) "Institution" means a private or public hospital or any other facility providing medical diagnosis, treatment or care.
(5) "Department" means the state department of social and health services.
(6) "Child" or "children" means any person under the age of eighteen years of age.
(7) "Professional school personnel" shall include, but not be limited to, teachers, counselors, administrators, child care facility personnel, and school nurses.
(8) "Social service counselor" shall mean anyone engaged in a professional capacity during the regular course of employment in encouraging or promoting the health, welfare, support or education of children, or providing social services to adults or families, including mental health, drug and alcohol treatment, and domestic violence programs, whether in an individual capacity, or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.
(9) "Psychologist" shall mean any person licensed to practice psychology under chapter 18.83 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.
(10) "Pharmacist" shall mean any registered pharmacist under the provisions of chapter 18.64 RCW, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.
(11) "Clergy" shall mean any regularly licensed or ordained minister, priest or rabbi of any church or religious denomination, whether acting in an individual capacity or as an employee or agent of any public or private organization or institution.
(12) "((Child)) Abuse or neglect" shall mean the injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, (or) negligent treatment, or maltreatment of a child, adult dependent, or developmentally disabled person by any person under circumstances which indicate that the child's or adult's health, welfare, and safety is harmed (thereby). An abused child is a child who has been subjected to child abuse or neglect as defined herein (provided).
(13) "Child protective services section" shall mean the child protective services section of the department.
(14) "Adult dependent persons ((not able to provide for their own protection through the criminal justice system))" shall be defined as those persons over the age of eighteen years who have been found to be legally incompetent or disabled pursuant to PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not proved to be injurious to the child's health, welfare, and safety. AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing in this section shall be used to prohibit the reasonable use of corporal punishment as a means of discipline. No parent or guardian shall be deemed abusive or neglectful solely by reason of the parent's or child's blindness, deafness, developmental disability, or other handicap).

chapter 11.88 RCW ((or found disabled to such a degree pursuant to said chapter, that such protection is indicated. PROVIDED, That no persons reporting injury, abuse, or neglect to an adult dependent person as defined herein shall suffer negative consequences if such a judicial determination of incompetency or disability has not taken place and the person reporting believes in good faith that the adult dependent person has been found legally incompetent pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW)).

(15) "Sexual exploitation" includes: (a) Allowing, permitting, or encouraging a child to engage in prostitution by any person; or (b) allowing, permitting, encouraging, or engaging in the obscene or pornographic photographing, filming, or depicting of a child ((for commercial purposes as those acts are defined by state law)) by any person.

(16) "Negligent treatment or maltreatment" means an act or omission which evidences a serious disregard of consequences of such magnitude as to constitute a clear and present danger to the child's health, welfare, and safety.

(17) "Developmentally disabled person" means a person who has a disability defined in RCW ((71.20.016)) 71A.10.020.

(18) "Child protective services" means those services provided by the department designed to protect children from child abuse and neglect and safeguard the general welfare of such children and shall include investigations of child abuse and neglect reports, including reports regarding child care centers and family child care homes, and the development, management, and provision of or referral to services to ameliorate conditions which endanger the welfare of children, the coordination of necessary programs and services relevant to the prevention, intervention, and treatment of child abuse and neglect, and services to children to ensure that each child has a permanent home. In determining whether protective services should be provided, the department shall not decline to provide such services solely because of the child's unwillingness or developmental inability to describe the nature and severity of the abuse or neglect.

(19) "Malice" or "maliciously" means an evil intent, wish, or design to vex, annoy, or injure another person. Such malice may be inferred from an act done in wilful disregard of the rights of another, or an act wrongfully done without just cause or excuse, or an act or omission of duty betraying a wilful disregard of social duty.

Sec. 15. RCW 26.44.030 and 1991 c 111 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When any practitioner, professional school personnel, registered or licensed nurse, social service counselor, psychologist, pharmacist, licensed or certified child care providers or their employees, employee of the department, or juvenile probation officer has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person, has suffered abuse or neglect, he or she shall report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department as provided in RCW 26.44.040. The reporting requirement shall also apply to any adult who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person, who resides with them, has suffered abuse or neglect. The report shall be made at the first opportunity, but in no case longer than forty-eight hours after there is reasonable cause to believe that the child or adult has suffered abuse or neglect. The report shall include the identity of the accused if known.

(2) The reporting requirement of subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the discovery of abuse or neglect that occurred during childhood if it is discovered after the child has become an adult. However, if there is reasonable cause to believe other children, dependent adults, or developmentally disabled persons are or may be at risk of abuse or neglect by the accused, the reporting requirement of subsection (1) of this section shall apply.

(3) Any other person who has reasonable cause to believe that a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person has suffered abuse or neglect may report such incident to the proper law enforcement agency or to the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040.

(4) The department, upon receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her other than by accidental means or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident to the proper law enforcement agency. In emergency cases, where the child, adult dependent, or developmentally disabled person's welfare is endangered, the department shall notify the proper law enforcement agency within twenty-four hours after a report is received by the department. In all other cases, the department shall notify the law enforcement agency within seventy-two hours after a report is received by the department. If the department makes an oral report, a written report shall also be made to the proper law enforcement agency within five days thereafter.

(5) Any law enforcement agency receiving a report of an incident of abuse or neglect pursuant to this chapter, involving a child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person who has died or has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him or her other than by accidental means, or who has been subjected to sexual abuse, shall report such incident in writing as provided in RCW 26.44.040 to the proper county prosecutor or city attorney for appropriate action whenever the law enforcement agency's investigation reveals that a crime may have been committed. The law enforcement agency shall also notify the department of all reports received and the law enforcement agency's disposition of them. In emergency cases, where the child, adult dependent, or developmentally disabled person's welfare is endangered, the law enforcement agency shall notify the department within twenty-four hours. In all other cases, the law enforcement agency shall notify the department within seventy-two hours after a report is received by the law enforcement agency.
(6) Any county prosecutor or city attorney receiving a report under subsection (5) of this section shall notify the victim, any persons the victim requests, and the local office of the department, of the decision to charge or decline to charge a crime, within five days of making the decision.

(7) The department may conduct ongoing case planning and consultation with those persons or agencies required to report under this section, with consultants designated by the department, and with designated representatives of Washington Indian tribes if the client information exchanged is pertinent to cases currently receiving child protective services or department case services for the developmentally disabled. Upon request, the department shall conduct such planning and consultation with those persons required to report under this section if the department determines it is in the best interests of the child or developmentally disabled person. Information considered privileged by statute and not directly related to reports required by this section shall not be divulged without a valid written waiver of the privilege.

(8) Any case referred to the department by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW on the basis of an expert medical opinion that child abuse, neglect, or sexual assault has occurred and that the child's safety will be seriously endangered if returned home, the department shall file a dependency petition unless a second licensed physician of the parents’ choice believes that such expert medical opinion is incorrect. If the parents fail to designate a second physician, the department may make the selection. If a physician finds that a child has suffered abuse or neglect but that such abuse or neglect does not constitute imminent danger to the child's health or safety, and the department agrees with the physician's assessment, the child may be left in the parents' home while the department proceeds with reasonable efforts to remedy parenting deficiencies.

(9) Persons or agencies exchanging information under subsection (7) of this section shall not further disseminate or release the information except as authorized by state or federal statute. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor.

(10) Upon receiving reports of abuse or neglect, the department or law enforcement agency may interview children. The interviews may be conducted on school premises, at day-care facilities, at the child's home, or at other suitable locations outside of the presence of parents. Parental notification of the interview shall occur at the earliest possible point in the investigation that will not jeopardize the safety or protection of the child or the course of the investigation. Prior to commencing the interview the department or law enforcement agency shall determine whether the child wishes a third party to be present for the interview and, if so, shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the child's wishes. Unless the child objects, the department or law enforcement agency shall make reasonable efforts to include a third party in any interview so long as the presence of the third party will not jeopardize the course of the investigation.

(11) Upon receiving a report of incidents, conditions, or circumstances of child abuse and neglect, the department shall have access to all relevant records of the child in the possession of mandated reporters and their employees.

(12) The department shall maintain investigation records and conduct timely and periodic reviews of all cases constituting abuse and neglect. The department shall maintain a log of screened-out nonabusive cases.

(13) The department (of social and health services) shall (within funds appropriated for this purpose,) use a risk assessment (tool) process when investigating child abuse and neglect referrals. (The tool shall be used, on a pilot basis, in three local office service areas.) The department shall present the risk factors at all hearings in which the placement of a dependent child is an issue. The department shall, within funds appropriated for this purpose, offer enhanced community-based services to persons who are determined not to require further state intervention.

The department shall provide annual reports to the (ways and means) appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives on the (use) effectiveness of the (tool by December 1, 1989. The report shall include recommendations on the continued use and possible expanded use of the tool) risk assessment process.

(14) Upon receipt of (such) a report of abuse or neglect the law enforcement agency may arrange to interview the person making the report and any collateral sources to determine if any malice is involved in the reporting.

Sec. 16. RCW 26.44.040 and 1987 c 206 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

An immediate oral report shall be made by telephone or otherwise to the proper law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services and, upon request, shall be followed by a report in writing. Such reports shall contain the following information, if known:

(1) The name, address, and age of the child or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person;

(2) The name and address of the child's parents, stepparents, guardians, or other persons having custody of the child or the residence of the adult dependent or developmentally disabled person;

(3) The nature and extent of the injury or injuries;

(4) The nature and extent of the neglect;

(5) The nature and extent of the sexual abuse;

(6) Any evidence of previous injuries, including their nature and extent; and

(7) Any other information which may be helpful in establishing the cause of the child's or adult dependent or developmentally disabled person's death, injury, or injuries and the identity of the alleged perpetrator or perpetrators.
Sec. 17. RCW 26.44.063 and 1988 c 190 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the intent of the legislature to minimize trauma to a child involved in an allegation of sexual or physical abuse. The legislature declares that removing the child from the home often has the effect of further traumatizing the child. It is, therefore, the legislature's intent that the alleged offender, rather than the child, shall be removed from the home and that this should be done at the earliest possible point of intervention in accordance with RCW 10.31.100, 13.34.130, this section, and RCW 26.44.130.

(2) In any judicial proceeding in which it is alleged that a child has been subjected to sexual or physical abuse, if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that an incident of sexual or physical abuse has occurred, the court may, on its own motion, or the motion of the guardian ad litem or other parties, issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction restraining or enjoining the person accused of committing the abuse from:

(a) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the alleged victim;
(b) Entering the family home of the alleged victim except as specifically authorized by the court; or
(c) Having any contact with the alleged victim, except as specifically authorized by the court.

(3) In issuing a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, the court may impose any additional restrictions that the court in its discretion determines are necessary to protect the child from further abuse or emotional trauma pending final resolution of the abuse allegations.

(4) The court shall issue a temporary restraining order prohibiting a person from entering the family home if the court finds that the order would eliminate the need for an out-of-home placement to protect the child's right to nurturance, health, and safety and is sufficient to protect the child from further sexual or physical abuse or coercion.

(5) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the party to be restrained or other parties only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(6) A temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding; and
(b) May be revoked or modified.

(7) The person having physical custody of the child shall have an affirmative duty to assist in the enforcement of the restraining order including but not limited to a duty to notify the court as soon as practicable of any violation of the order, a duty to request the assistance of law enforcement officers to enforce the order, and a duty to notify the department of social and health services of any violation of the order as soon as practicable if the department is a party to the action. Failure by the custodial party to discharge these affirmative duties shall be subject to contempt proceedings.

(8) Willful violation of a court order entered under this section is a misdemeanor. A written order shall contain the court's directive and shall bear the legend: “Violation of this order with actual notice of its terms is a criminal offense under chapter 26.44 RCW, is also subject to contempt proceedings, and will subject a violator to arrest.”

Sec. 18. RCW 26.44.067 and 1989 c 373 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person having had actual notice of the existence of a restraining order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to RCW 26.44.063 who refuses to comply with the provisions of such order (where requested by any peace officer of the state) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The notice requirements of subsection (1) of this section may be satisfied by the peace officer giving oral or written evidence to the person subject to the order by reading from or handing to that person a copy certified by a notary public or the clerk of the court to be an accurate copy of the original court order which is on file. The copy may be supplied by the court or any party.

(3) The remedies provided in this section shall not apply unless restraining orders subject to this section shall bear this legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.44 RCW AND IS ALSO SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS.

(4) It is a defense to prosecution under subsection (1) of this section that the court order was issued contrary to law or court rule. No right of action shall accrue against any peace officer acting upon a properly certified copy of a court order lawful on its face if such officer employs otherwise lawful means to effect the arrest.

Sec. 19. RCW 26.44.100 and 1985 c 183 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that parents and children often are not aware of their due process rights when agencies are investigating allegations of child abuse and neglect. The legislature reaffirms that all citizens, including parents, shall be afforded due process, that protection of children remains the priority of the legislature, and that this protection includes protecting the family unit from unnecessary disruption. To facilitate this goal, the legislature wishes to ensure that parents and children be advised in writing and orally, if feasible, of their basic rights and other specific information as set forth in this (act) chapter, provided that nothing contained in this (act) chapter shall cause any delay in protective custody action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 26.44 RCW to read as follows:
(1) If a person who has unsupervised visitation rights with a minor child pursuant to a court order is accused of sexually or physically abusing a child and the alleged abuse has been reported to the proper authorities for investigation, the law enforcement officer conducting the investigation may file a motion with the court for a temporary restraining order to restrain the alleged abuser's visitation rights during the investigation. The investigating law enforcement officer shall submit an affidavit stating that the person is currently under investigation for sexual or physical abuse of a child, that there is a risk of harm to the child if a temporary restraining order is not entered, and that the prosecuting attorney has informed the officer that the attorney does not have enough information at the time to determine whether prosecution is warranted. The restraining order shall be issued for up to ninety days or until the investigation has been concluded in favor of the alleged abuser, whichever is shorter.

(2) Willful violation of a court order entered under this section is a misdemeanor. The court order shall state: "Violation of this order is a criminal offense under chapter 26.44 RCW and will subject the violator to arrest."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall:

(1)(a) Consult with relevant qualified professionals to develop a set of minimum guidelines to be used for identifying all children who are in a state-assisted support system, whether at-home or out-of-home, who are likely to need long-term care or assistance, because they face physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other long-term challenges.

(b) The guidelines must, at a minimum, consider the following criteria for identifying children in need of long-term care or assistance:

(i) Placement within the foster care system for two years or more;

(ii) Multiple foster care placements;

(iii) Repeated unsuccessful efforts to be placed with a permanent adoptive family;

(iv) Chronic behavioral or educational problems;

(v) Repetitive criminal acts or offenses;

(vi) Failure to comply with court-ordered disciplinary actions and other imposed guidelines of behavior, including drug and alcohol rehabilitation; and

(vii) Chronic physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other similar conditions necessitating long-term care or assistance;

(2) Develop programs that are necessary for the long-term care and youth that are identified for the purposes of this section. Programs must: (a) Effectively address the educational, physical, emotional, mental, and medical needs of children and youth; and (b) incorporate an array of family support options, to individual needs and choices of the child and family. The programs must be ready for implementation by January 1, 1995;

(3) Conduct an evaluation of all children currently within the foster care agency caseload to identify those children who meet the criteria set forth in this section. The evaluation shall be completed by January 1, 1994. All children entering the foster care system after January 1, 1994, must be evaluated for identification of long-term needs within thirty days of placement;

(4) Study and develop a comprehensive plan for the evaluation and identification of all children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance, including, but not limited to, the mentally ill, developmentally disabled, medically fragile, seriously emotionally or behaviorally disabled, and physically impaired;

(5) Study and develop a plan for the children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance to ensure the coordination of services between the department’s divisions and between other state agencies who are involved with the child or youth.

(6) Study and develop guidelines for transitional services, between long-term care programs, based on the person's age or mental, physical, emotional, or medical condition; and

(7) Study and develop a statutory proposal for the emancipation of minors and report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1994.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Sections 5 and 6 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.”

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "children;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 13.34.145, 13.34.180, 13.34.190, 13.34.232, 26.10.160, 13.34.110, 13.34.120, 13.34.150, 13.34.162, 26.44.020, 26.44.030, 26.44.040, 26.44.063, 26.44.067, and 26.44.100; reenacting and amending RCW 26.09.191; adding new sections to chapter 13.34 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 26.44 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 74.14A RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency.”

MOTION
On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1512, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1512, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1512, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 0; Absent, 2; Excused, 3.

Absent: Senators Moyer and Quigley - 2.

Excused: Senators Hochstatter, McCaslin and Owen - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1512, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 5:25 p.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate was declared to be as ease.

MOTION

At 5:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Saturday, April 17, 1993.

JOEL PRITCHARD, President of the Senate

MARTY BROWN, Secretary of the Senate
The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Pritchard. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Anderson, Erwin, McCaslin, McDonald, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Rinehart, Skratek and Talmadge. On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Anderson, Erwin, McCaslin, McDonald and Moyer were excused. On motion of Senator Spanel, Senators Niemi, Rinehart, Skratek and Talmadge were excused. On motion of Senator Snyder, Senator Owen was excused.

The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of Pages Julie del Plain and Colleen Altstock, presented the Colors. Reverend Tammy Leiter, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the prayer.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

January 27, 1993

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to submit the following appointment, subject to your confirmation.

D. E. Chillberg, appointed January 27, 1993, for a term ending June 30, 1995, as Chair of the Housing Finance Committee.

Sincerely,

MIKE LOWERY, Governor

Referred to Committee on Labor and Commerce.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to work in the conference committee on health care reform, I missed the votes on the following bills: Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate; Amendment by Senator West to Engrossed Substitute House No. 1562; Engrossed House Bill No. 1617, as amended by the Senate; Engrossed House Bill No. 1007, as amended by the Senate; and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562, as amended by the Senate.

I would have voted 'yes' on all the measures, but 'no' on the West amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, deferred on second reading after the amendments by Senator Sutherland on page 1, lines 6 and 11, and page 7, after line 16, were ruled out of order, April 14, 1993.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hargrove, the following amendment by Senators Hargrove and Moore was adopted:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By July 1, 1994, the department shall develop and implement a voluntary certificate of competency program for general and specialty contractors registered under this chapter.

(2) The department shall prepare appropriate examinations for general and specialty contractors’ certificates of competency to be administered to eligible applicants. The examination must be constructed to determine:

(a) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures identified with the construction trade; and

(b) Whether the applicant is familiar with the applicable building codes, statutory requirements, and administrative rules pertaining to the construction trade.

(3)(a) An applicant for a contractor certificate of competency shall submit the required fee and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, an application to take the competency examination on the form and in the manner prescribed by the department. The applicant must be a registered contractor, and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, must provide written evidence that he or she has completed a course of study in the construction trade for general or specialty contractors, as appropriate, at a school or training program approved by the department. If the director determines that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the director shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the examination. The director shall establish reasonable rules for the conduct of examinations.

(b) The department shall certify the results of the examination and shall notify the applicant in writing whether he or she has passed or failed. An applicant who has failed the examination may retake the examination, on the terms and after a period of time determined by the department by rule. The number of times that an applicant may take the examination may not be limited.

(4) The department shall issue a certificate of competency to an applicant who has passed the examination and has paid all appropriate fees, or to a registered contractor engaged in a bona fide contracting business at least two years of experience, who has paid all appropriate fees. The certificate must bear the date of issuance, and must expire on the birthdate of the holder immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate is renewable every other year, upon application and payment of a fee, on or before the holder’s birthdate. A doubled fee shall be charged for failure to renew the certificate by the renewal date. A holder shall retake the examination and pay the examination fee if he or she does not renew the certificate within ninety days of the renewal date in order to renew the certificate.

(5) The department shall establish certification fees that cover the full cost of processing applications for certification, developing and administering the examination, and issuing and renewing certification.

(6) The holder of a certificate of competency may verbally represent that he or she holds a certificate of competency and may include the information that he or she holds the certificate in documents, including but not limited to advertising, contracts, business cards, and signs. A making of a claim by a contractor that he or she holds a certificate of competency when such a certificate has not been lawfully issued to the contractor or is not in force under this chapter is an infraction and the contractor is subject to having his or her registration suspended for up to two years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

(1) There is created a state advisory committee of construction contractors, comprised of seven members appointed by the director. One member shall be from each of the following construction classifications: (a) Commercial/retail construction; (b) highway/industrial construction; (c) municipal/utility construction; (d) marine construction; (e) residential single-family construction; and (f) residential multifamily construction. The seventh member shall be a representative of the general public who is familiar with the business and trade of construction.

(2) The initial terms of the members of the advisory committee shall be as follows: For the members representing commercial/retail and marine construction, one year; for the members representing highway/industrial, residential single-family construction, and the general public, two years; and for the members representing municipal/utility and residential multifamily construction, three years. The regular term of the members of the advisory committee shall be three years. The director shall appoint or reappoint committee members to fill vacancies created by the completion of terms. In the case of a vacancy on the committee for any other reason, the director shall appoint a successor from the same construction classification to serve out the term of the person whose position has become vacant.

(3) It shall be the purpose and function of the committee to advise the department on all matters pertaining to the development, implementation, and enforcement of the voluntary certificate of competency program for general and specialty contractors registered under this chapter.

(4) Each member of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses and paid special per diem rates in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for each day such member is engaged in bona fide business of the advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The director of the department of labor and industries may take such steps as are necessary to ensure that sections 12 and 13 of this act are implemented on their effective date.

On page 7, after line 16, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 18.27 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The director of the department of labor and industries may take such steps as are necessary to ensure that sections 12 and 13 of this act are implemented on their effective date.

On motion of Senator Moore, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "18.27.320;" strike "creating a new section; and prescribing penalties" and insert "adding new sections to chapter 18.27 RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate.
The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1505, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; Nays, 9; Absent, 0; Excused, 10.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Bauer, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Roach, Sheldon, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West and Winsley - 30.

Excused: Senators Anderson, Erwin, McCaslin, McDonald, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Rinehart, Skratek and Talmadge - 10.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1505, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1562, by House Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Brown, Dellwo, H. Myers, Orr, Mastin and J. Kohl)

Authorizing local governments to exceed statutory property tax limitations for the purpose of financing affordable housing for very low-income households.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 2, line 12, after "to do so by" strike "a majority" and insert "three-fifths of the persons"

Debate ensued.

Senator Nelson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senator West on page 2, line 12, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; Nays, 22; Absent, 1; Excused, 7.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Sheldon, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, Williams and Wojahn - 22.

Absent: Senator Bluechel - 1.

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 2, line 18, after "county." insert "If any levy imposed under this section, when added to any levies imposed under RCW 84.52.069 and 84.34.230 together exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation, the levy imposed under this section shall be reduced or eliminated so that the combined levies shall not exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation on any property."

On page 4, strike all of section 4.

Renumber the remaining section(s) accordingly

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senator West on page 2, line 18, and on page 4, strike all of section 4, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562.

The motion by Senator West carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator West, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, after line 7, strike all the material through and including "located." on page 3, line 2, and insert the following:

"(1) A county, city, or town may impose additional regular property tax levies of up to fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value of property in each year for up to ten consecutive years to finance affordable housing for very low-income households when specifically authorized to do so by a majority of at least three-fifths of the registered voters thereof approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted at a general or special election, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of registered voters voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the registered voters thereof voting on the proposition when the number of registered voters voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. Ballot propositions shall conform with RCW 84.52.054.

(2) The additional property tax levies may not be imposed until:
(a) The governing body of the county, city, or town declares the existence of an emergency with respect to the availability of housing that is affordable to very low-income households in the taxing district; and
(b) The governing body of the county, city, or town adopts an affordable housing financing plan to serve as the plan for expenditure of funds raised by a levy authorized under this section, and the governing body determines that the affordable housing financing plan is consistent with either the locally adopted or state-adopted comprehensive housing affordability strategy, required under the Cranston-Gonzalez national affordable housing act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12701, et seq.), as amended.

(3) For purposes of this section, the term "very low-income household" means a single person, or family whose income is at or below fifty percent of the median income, as determined by the United States department of housing and urban development, with adjustments for household size, for the county where the taxing district is located.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1562 was deferred.

SECOND READING

Planning high-speed ground transportation.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that major intercity transportation corridors in this state are becoming increasingly congested. In these corridors, population is expected to grow by nearly forty percent over the next twenty years, while employment will grow by nearly fifty percent. The estimated seventy-five percent increase in intercity travel demand must be accommodated to ensure state economic vitality and protect the state's quality of life.

The legislature finds that high-speed ground transportation offers a safer, more efficient, and environmentally responsible alternative to increasing highway capacity. High-speed ground transportation can complement and enhance existing air transportation systems. High-speed ground transportation can be compatible with growth management plans in counties and cities served by such a system. Further, high-speed ground transportation offers a reliable, all-weather service capable of significant energy savings over other intercity modes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that there is substantial public benefit to establishing a high-speed ground transportation program in this state. The program shall implement the recommendations of the high-speed ground transportation steering committee report dated October 15, 1992. The program shall be administered by the department of transportation in close cooperation with the utilities and transportation commission and affected cities and counties.

The high-speed ground transportation program shall have the following goals:
(1) Implement high-speed ground transportation service offering top speeds over 150 m.p.h. between Everett and Portland, Oregon by 2020. This would be accomplished by meeting the intermediate objectives of a maximum travel time between downtown Portland and downtown Seattle of two hours and thirty minutes by the year 2000 and maximum travel time of two hours by the year 2010;

(2) Implement high-speed ground transportation service offering top speeds over 150 m.p.h. between Everett and Vancouver, B.C. by 2025;

(3) Implement high-speed ground transportation service offering top speeds over 150 m.p.h. between Seattle and Spokane by 2030.

The department of transportation shall, subject to legislative appropriation, implement such projects as necessary to achieve these goals in accordance with the implementation plans identified in sections 3 and 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature finds it important to develop public support and awareness of the benefits of high-speed ground transportation by developing high-quality intercity passenger rail service as a first step. This high-quality intercity passenger rail service shall be developed through incremental upgrading of the existing service. The department of transportation shall, subject to legislative appropriation, develop a prioritized list of projects to improve existing passenger rail service and begin new passenger rail service, to include but not be limited to:

(1) Improvement of depots;

(2) Improved grade crossing protection or grade crossing elimination;

(3) Enhanced train signals to improve rail corridor capacity and increase train speeds;

(4) Revised track geometry or additional trackage to improve ride quality and increase train speeds; and

(5) Contract for new or improved service in accordance with federal requirements to improve service frequency.

Service enhancements and station improvements must be based on the extent to which local comprehensive plans contribute to the viability of intercity passenger rail service, including providing efficient connections with other transportation modes such as transit, intercity bus, and roadway networks. Before spending state moneys on these projects, the department of transportation shall seek federal, local, and private funding participation to the greatest extent possible. Funding priorities for station improvements must also be based on the level of local and private in-kind and cash contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature recognizes the need to plan for the high-speed ground transportation service and the high-quality intercity rail passenger service set forth in sections 2 and 3 of this act. The department of transportation shall, subject to legislative appropriation, develop a rail passenger plan through the conduct of studies addressing, but not limited to, the following areas:

(1) Refined ridership estimates;

(2) Preliminary location and environmental analysis on new corridors;

(3) Detailed station location assessments in concert with affected local jurisdictions;

(4) Coordination with the air transportation commission on state-wide air transportation policy and its effects on high-speed ground transportation service; and

(5) Coordination with the governments of Oregon and British Columbia, when appropriate, on alignment, station location, and environmental analysis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993."
Voting nay: Senators Cantu and Smith, L - 2.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1617, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

Enhancing state-wide transportation planning.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Transportation amendments were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

- On page 6, line 26, after “services” insert “and modes”
- On page 6, at the beginning of line 29, strike “allocating funds to public transportation agencies” and insert “existing federal authorizations administered by the department to transit agencies”

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1858, by Representatives Brown, Romero, Foreman, Leonard, Lemmon, Mielke, Karahalios, Brough, Long, Kessler, Patterson and Mastin

Providing for periodic case review for children in substitute care.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment was not adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 13.70.005 and 1991 c 363 s 14 and 1991 c 127 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows: Periodic case review of all children in substitute care ((shall ((may))) may be provided in counties designated by the office of the administrator for the courts, in accordance with this chapter ((and within funding provided by the legislature)).

The administrator for the courts shall coordinate and assist, within available funds, in the administration of ((the)) local citizen review boards ((pilot program)) created by this chapter.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.70.110 and 1991 c 127 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

(2) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the dependency petition and any shelter care or dependency disposition orders which have been entered in the case by the court.
(3) The board shall review the case plan for each child whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The ([next]) final board review shall occur within one year after commencement of the placement episode. (Within eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode, a permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, the court shall assign the child’s case for a board review or a court review hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.130(5). A board review or a court review hearing shall take place at least once every six months until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or no longer in substitute care or until a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. After the permanency planning hearing, a court review hearing must occur at least once a year as provided in RCW 13.34.130. The board shall review any case where a petition to terminate parental rights has been denied, and such review shall occur as soon as practical but no later than forty-five days after the denial.)

(4) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home, including whether consideration was given to removing the alleged offender, rather than the child, from the home;
(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;
(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child’s needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child’s relatives;
(d) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;
(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;
(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;
(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and
(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(5) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the parents and their attorneys, the child’s custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, other attorneys or guardians ad litem appointed by the court to represent children, the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child’s placement, and any prosecuting attorney or attorney general actively involved in the case. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board’s findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child’s Indian tribe.

(6) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board’s recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(7) Within forty-five days following the review, the board shall either:

(a) Schedule the case for further review by the board; or
(b) Submit to the court the board’s findings and recommendations and the department’s implementation reports, if any. If the board’s recommendations are different from the existing court-ordered case plan, the board shall also file with the court a motion for a review hearing.

(8) Within ten days of receipt of the board’s written findings and recommendations and the department’s implementation report, if any, the court shall review the findings and recommendations and implementation reports, if any. The court may on its own motion schedule a review hearing.

(9) Unless modified by subsequent court order, the court-ordered case plan and court orders that are in effect at the time that a board reviews a case shall remain in full force and effect. Board findings and recommendations are advisory only and do not in any way modify existing court orders or court-ordered case plans.

(10) The findings and recommendations of the board and the department’s implementation report, if any, shall become part of the department’s case file and the court social file pertaining to the child.

(11) Nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise modify the rights of any party to a dependency proceeding to request and receive a court review hearing pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13.34 RCW or applicable court rules.

Sec. 3. RCW 13.70.140 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:

(For cases which are subject to the foster care citizen review board pilot project under RCW 13.70.005, a court review hearing shall occur no later than eighteen months following commencement of the child’s placement episode.) A permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, court review hearings shall occur at least once every six months, under RCW 13.34.130(5), until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or the child returns home or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The court may review the case more frequently upon the court's own motion or upon the request of any party to the proceeding (or the citizen review board assigned to the child's case).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall:

1(a) Consult with relevant qualified professionals to develop a set of minimum guidelines to be used for identifying all children who are in a state-assisted support system, whether at-home or out-of-home, who are likely to need long-term care or assistance, because they face physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other long-term challenges.

(b) The guidelines must, at a minimum, consider the following criteria for identifying children in need of long-term care or assistance:

(i) Placement within the foster care system for two years or more;

(ii) Multiple foster care placements;

(iii) Repeated unsuccessful efforts to be placed with a permanent adoptive family;

(iv) Chronic behavioral or educational problems;

(v) Repetitive criminal acts or offenses;

(vi) Failure to comply with court-ordered disciplinary actions and other imposed guidelines of behavior, including drug and alcohol rehabilitation; and

(vii) Chronic physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other similar conditions necessitating long-term care or assistance;

2) Develop programs that are necessary for the long-term care of children and youth that are identified for the purposes of this section. Programs must: (a) Effectively address the educational, physical, emotional, mental, and medical needs of children and youth; and (b) incorporate an array of family support options, to individual needs and choices of the child and family. The programs must be ready for implementation by January 1, 1994;

3) Conduct an evaluation of all children currently within the foster care agency caseload to identify those children who meet the criteria set forth in this section. The evaluation shall be completed by January 1, 1994. All children entering the foster care system after January 1, 1994, must be evaluated for identification of long-term needs within thirty days of placement;

4) Study and develop a comprehensive plan for the evaluation and identification of all children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance, including, but not limited to, the mentally ill, developmentally disabled, medically fragile, seriously emotionally or behaviorally disabled, and physically impaired;

5) Study and develop a plan for the children and youth in need of long-term care or assistance to ensure the coordination of services between the department's divisions and between other state agencies who are involved with the child or youth;

6) Study and develop guidelines for transitional services, between long-term care programs, based on the person's age or mental, physical, emotional, or medical condition; and

7) Study and develop a statutory proposal for the emancipation of minors and report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1994.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendment by Senators Deccio and Talmadge was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“Sec. 1. RCW 13.70.005 and 1991 c 363 s 14 and 1991 c 127 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Periodic case review of all children in substitute care (shall) may be provided in counties designated by the office of the administrator for the courts, in accordance with this chapter (and within funding provided by the legislature).

The administrator for the courts shall coordinate and assist, within available funds, the administration of (the) local citizen review boards (pilot program) created by this chapter.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.70.100 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to written parental consent and a dependency petition has not been filed under chapter 13.34 RCW. If a dependency petition is subsequently filed and the child's placement in substitute care continues pursuant to a court order entered in a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW, the provisions set forth in RCW 13.70.110 shall apply.

2) Within thirty days following commencement of the placement episode, the department shall send a copy of the written parental consent to the juvenile court with jurisdiction over the geographical area in which the child resides.

3) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the written parental consent to placement.

4) The board shall review the case plan for each child in substitute care whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur within ninety days following consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives; returned home; from the home, including whether consideration was given to removing the alleged offender, rather than the child, from the home; denial.

terminate parental rights has been denied, and such review shall occur as soon as practical but no later than forty days following commencement of the placement episode. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The (next) final board review shall occur (within one year following commencement of the placement episode) no later than six months following the second review unless the child is no longer in substitute care or unless a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered.

The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:
(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home;
(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;
(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;
(d) Whether there is a continuing need for and whether the placement is appropriate;
(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;
(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;
(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and
(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the child's parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, and the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department in unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

The court shall not review the findings and recommendations of the board in cases where the child has been placed in substitute care with signed parental consent unless a dependency petition has been filed and the child has been taken into custody under RCW 13.34.050.

Sec. 3. RCW 13.70.110 and 1991 c 127 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

(2) Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the dependency petition and any shelter care or dependency disposition orders which have been entered in the case by the court.

(3) The board shall review the case plan for each child whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur (within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode) no later than six months following the second review unless the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court, no longer in substitute care, or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The (next) final board review shall occur within one year after commencement of the placement episode. (Within eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode, a permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, the court shall assign the child's case for a board review or a court review hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.130(5). A board review or a court review hearing shall take place at least once every six months until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or no longer in substitute care or until a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. After the permanency planning hearing, a court review hearing must occur at least once a year as provided in RCW 13.34.130. The board shall review any case where a petition to terminate parental rights has been denied, and such review shall occur as soon as practical but no later than forty-five days after the denial.)

(4) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:
(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home, including whether consideration was given to removing the alleged offender, rather than the child, from the home;
(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;
(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;
(d) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;
(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;
(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;
(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and
(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(5) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, other attorneys or guardians appointed by the court to represent children, the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement, and any prosecuting attorney or attorney general actively involved in the case. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

(6) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the board's findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(7) Within forty-five days following the review, the board shall either:
(a) Schedule the case for further review by the board; or
(b) Submit to the court the board's findings and recommendations and the department's implementation reports, if any. If the board's recommendations are different from the existing court-ordered case plan, the board shall also file with the court a motion for a review hearing.

(8) Within ten days of receipt of the board's written findings and recommendations and the department's implementation report, if any, the court shall review the findings and recommendations and implementation reports, if any. The court may on its own motion schedule a review hearing.

(9) Unless modified by subsequent court order, the court-ordered case plan and court orders that are in effect at the time that a board reviews a case shall remain in full force and effect. Board findings and recommendations are advisory only and do not in any way modify existing court orders or court-ordered case plans.

(10) The findings and recommendations of the board and the department's implementation report, if any, shall become part of the department's case file and the court social file pertaining to the child.

(11) Nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise modify the rights of any party to a dependency proceeding to request and receive a court review hearing pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13.34 RCW or applicable court rules.

Sec. 4. RCW 13.70.140 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:

(For cases which are subject to the foster care citizen review board pilot project under RCW 13.70.005, a court review hearing shall occur no later than eighteen months following commencement of the child's placement episode.) A permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, court review hearings shall occur at least once every ((year)) six months, under RCW 13.34.130(5), until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or the child returns home or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The court may review the case more frequently upon the court's own motion or upon the request of any party to the proceeding ((or the citizen review board assigned to the child's case)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 74.14A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall:

(1)(a) Consult with relevant qualified professionals to develop a set of minimum guidelines to be used for identifying all children who are in a state-assisted support system, whether at-home or out-of-home, who are likely to need long-term care or assistance, because they face physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other long-term challenges.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1957, by House Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives Dellwo, Wolfe, R. Meyers, Pruitt, L. Johnson, J. Kohl, Conway and Karahalios) (by request of Insurance Commissioner)

Creating the Washington health care coverage determination board.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS
Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Health and Human Services amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Because uneven practices have developed in this state that are adverse to the public interest, it is the purpose and intent of the legislature to provide an impartial and expeditious mechanism to assist the insurance commissioner in determining whether coverage for particular health care procedures, treatments, or drugs may be denied by issuers of health care coverage under their contracts on the basis that the procedures, treatments, or drugs are experimental or investigational.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the contest clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout this chapter:

1. "Committee" means the medical health coverage benefit determination committee created in section 3 of this act.
2. "Health coverage issuer" or "issuer" means:
   a. Every insurer, as defined in RCW 48.01.050, having a certificate of authority to transact disability insurance, as defined in RCW 48.11.030, in this state;
   b. Every health care service contractor, as defined in RCW 48.44.010(3), registered to transact business in this state;
   c. Every health maintenance organization, as defined in RCW 48.46.020(1), registered to transact business in this state;
   d. The Washington basic health plan, as defined in RCW 70.47.020(1);
   e. The Washington state health care authority, as defined in chapter 41.05 RCW;
   f. Every local government self-insured health and welfare benefit plan or program regulated under chapter 48.62 RCW; or
   g. The Washington state health insurance pool as defined in chapter 48.41 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1)(a) There is hereby created in the office of the insurance commissioner, the medical health coverage benefit determination committee consisting of nine members appointed by the commissioner on the basis of their knowledge and experience in health care services. In appointing the members the commissioner shall seek to appoint persons exhibiting a balance of and having a wide breadth of experience and knowledge in the treatment, research, and public or private funding of health care services.
   b. Seven members of the committee shall be medical or health professionals, one member shall represent consumers, and one member shall represent issuers of health insurance coverage.
   c. The commissioner shall designate one member of the committee to serve as chair of the committee.
   (2) Members of the committee shall be appointed for a term of four years and shall serve until their successors are appointed by the insurance commissioner. The terms of the original members of the committee shall be staggered so that two members shall be appointed to serve until June 1, 1994, two members until June 1, 1995, two members until June 1, 1996, and three members until June 1, 1997.
   (3) The commissioner may remove a member of the committee only for inefficiency, malfeasance, or misfeasance.
   (4) The committee shall meet at the request of the commissioner to:
      a. Consider, develop, and recommend criteria to guide future actions of issuers of health care coverage in determining whether a procedure, treatment, drug, or other health care service is no longer experimental or investigational for purposes of extending coverage;
      b. Consider and decide whether a procedure, treatment, drug, or other health care service is no longer experimental or investigational; and
      c. Consider actual specific denials of health coverage because the proposed medical procedure is considered by the issuer to be experimental or investigative and decide whether the denial was appropriate.
   (5) Members of the committee shall receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.
   (6) The insurance commissioner shall provide the committee with administrative, material, and staff support necessary for the proper functioning of the committee and may adopt all rules necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) In making a recommendation as to whether a procedure, treatment, drug, or other health care service is no longer experimental or investigative and in reviewing denials of individual coverage, the committee shall:
   a. Take into account findings, studies, or research conducted in this country and abroad;
   b. Consider whether treating physicians find the procedure, drug, or treatment efficacious or necessary for the health or survival of the patient, or whether there is a potential benefit to the public as a whole, as for example, where a disease is rare and treatment for it may remain experimental for the foreseeable future; and
   c. Consider other relevant information.
   (2) After considering all relevant information before it on each issue or denial of coverage, and recognizing that time is of the essence, the committee shall issue a written recommendation to the commissioner detailing its findings and conclusions.
(3) The commissioner shall publish at least once a year, and make available to the public and issuers of health care coverage, a summary of the committee's deliberations, recommendations, and conclusions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This chapter shall expire on July 1, 1998.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendments by Senator Moyer to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

On page 3, line 13 of the amendment, after "future," strike "and"
On page 3, line 14 of the amendment, after "information" insert "; and"
(d) Consider federal medicare guidelines"

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendments to the Committee on Health and Human Services striking amendment were considered simultaneously and were adopted:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 7, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5157 with the following amendment(s):
On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 12.20.060 and 1985 c 240 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When the prevailing party in district court is entitled to recover costs as authorized in RCW 4.84.010 in a civil action, the judge shall add the amount thereof to the judgment; in case of failure of the plaintiff to recover or of dismissal of the action, the judge shall enter up a judgment in favor of the defendant for the amount of his or her costs; and in case any party so entitled to costs is represented in the action by an attorney, the judge shall include attorney’s fees of ($50) one hundred twenty-five dollars as part of the costs: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the plaintiff shall not be entitled to such attorney fee unless he or she obtains, exclusive of costs, a judgment in the sum of ($25) fifty dollars or more., and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5157 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5375 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, line 11, after "contracts" strike everything through "process." and insert "((negotiated without an open competitive process), to centralize the location of information about personal service contracts for ease of public review, and ensure proper accounting of personal services expenditures."

On page 4, after line 8, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. RCW 39.29.018 and 1987 c 414 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Sole source contracts shall be filed with the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee and made available for public inspection at least ten working days prior to the proposed starting date of the contract. Documented justification for sole source contracts shall be provided to the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee when the contract is filed. For sole source contracts of ten thousand dollars or more that are state funded, documented justification shall include evidence that the agency attempted to identify potential consultants by advertising through state-wide or regional newspapers or other appropriate media or by notifying consultants on established bidders’ lists approved by the office of financial management.

(2) The office of financial management shall approve sole source contracts of ten thousand dollars or more that are state funded, before any such contract becomes binding and before any services may be performed under the contract. These requirements shall also apply to sole source contracts of less than ten thousand dollars if the total amount of such contracts between an agency and the same consultant is ten thousand dollars or more within a fiscal year. The office of financial management shall ensure that the costs, fees, or rates negotiated in filed sole source contracts of ten thousand dollars or more are reasonable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

Personal services may be procured only to resolve a particular agency problem or issue or to expedite a specific project that is temporary in nature. An agency may procure personal services only if it documents that:

(1) The service is critical to agency responsibilities or operations, or is mandated or authorized by the legislature;

(2) Sufficient staffing or expertise is not available within the agency to perform the service; and

(3) Other qualified public resources are not available to perform the service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:

(1) State-funded personal service contracts subject to competitive solicitation shall be filed with the office of financial management and the legislative budget committee and made available for public inspection at least ten working days before the proposed starting date of the contract.

(2) The office of financial management shall review and approve state-funded personal service contracts subject to competitive solicitation that provide services relating to management consulting, organizational development, marketing, communications, employee training, or employee recruitment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 39.29 RCW to read as follows:
The office of financial management shall maintain a publicly available list of all personal service contracts entered into by state agencies during each fiscal year. The list shall identify the contracting agency, the contractor, the purpose of the contract, effective dates and periods of performance, the cost of the contract and funding source, any modifications to the contract, and whether the contract was competitively procured or awarded on a sole source basis. The office of financial management shall also ensure that state accounting definitions and procedures are consistent with RCW 39.29.006 and permit the reporting of personal services expenditures by agency and by type of service. Designations of type of services shall include, but not be limited to, management and organizational services, legal and expert witness services, financial services, computer and information services, social or technical research, marketing, communications, and employee training or recruiting services. The office of financial management shall report annually to the fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives on sole source contracts filed under this chapter. The report shall describe: (1) The number and aggregate value of contracts for each category established in this section; (2) the number and aggregate value of contracts of two thousand five hundred dollars or greater but less than ten thousand dollars; (3) the number and aggregate value of contracts of ten thousand dollars or greater; (4) the justification provided by agencies for the use of sole source contracts; and (5) any trends in the use of sole source contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 39.80 RCW to read as follows:
Contracts entered into by any state agency for architectural and engineering services, and modifications thereto, shall be reported to the office of financial management on a quarterly basis, in such form as the office of financial management prescribes.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5375 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Pelz, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5405 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE
April 15, 1993
MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5577 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 9A.44.010 and 1988 c 146 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:
As used in this chapter:
(1) "Sexual intercourse" (a) has its ordinary meaning and occurs upon any penetration, however slight, and
(b) Also means any penetration of the vagina or anus however slight, by an object, when committed on one person by another, whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex, except when such penetration is accomplished for medically recognized treatment or diagnostic purposes, and
(c) Also means any act of sexual contact between persons involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex.
(2) "Sexual contact" means any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person done for the purpose of gratifying sexual desire of either party.
(3) "Married" means one who is legally married to another, but does not include a person who is living separate and apart from his or her spouse and who has filed in an appropriate court for legal separation or for dissolution of his or her marriage.
(4) "Mental incapacity" is that condition existing at the time of the offense which prevents a person from understanding the nature or consequences of the act of sexual intercourse whether that condition is produced by illness, defect, the influence of a substance or from some other cause.
(5) "Physically helpless" means a person who is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act.
(6) "Forcible compulsion" means physical force which overcomes resistance, or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of death or physical injury to herself or himself or another person, or in fear that she or he or another person will be kidnapped.
(7) "Consent" means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse or sexual contact there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact.
(8) "Significant relationship" means a situation in which the perpetrator is:
(a) A person who undertakes the responsibility, professionally or voluntarily, to provide education, health, welfare, or organized recreational activities principally for minors; or
(b) A person who in the course of his or her employment supervises minors.
(9) "Abuse of a supervisory position" means a direct or indirect threat or promise to use authority to the detriment or benefit of a minor.
(10) "Developmentally disabled," for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(c) and 9A.44.100(1)(c), means a person with a developmental disability as defined in RCW (71A.10.020).
(11) "Person with supervisory authority," for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(c) or (e) and 9A.44.100(1)(c) or (e), means any proprietor or employee of any public or private care or treatment facility who directly supervises developmentally disabled, mentally disordered, or chemically dependent persons at the facility.
(12) "Mentally disordered person" for the purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(e) and 9A.44.100(1)(e) means a person with a "mental disorder" as defined in RCW 71.05.020(2).
(13) "Chemically dependent person" for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050(1)(e) and 9A.44.100(1)(e) means a person who is "chemically dependent" as defined in RCW 70.96A.020(4).
(14) "Health care provider" for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050 and 9A.44.100 means a person who is, holds himself or herself out to be, or provides services as if he or she were: (a) A member of a health care profession under chapter 18.130 RCW; or (b) registered or certified under chapter 18.19 RCW, regardless of whether the health care provider is licensed, certified, or registered by the state.
(15) "Treatment" for purposes of RCW 9A.44.050 and 9A.44.100 means the active delivery of professional services by a health care provider which the health care provider holds himself or herself out to be qualified to provide.

Sec. 2. RCW 9A.44.050 and 1990 c 3 s 901 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) A person is guilty of rape in the second degree when, under circumstances not constituting rape in the first degree, the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person:
(a) By forcible compulsion;
(b) When the victim is incapable of consent by reason of being physically helpless or mentally incapacitated; (94)
(c) When the victim is developmentally disabled and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and who has supervisory authority over the victim;
(d) When the perpetrator is a health care provider, the victim is a client or patient, and the sexual intercourse occurs during a treatment session, consultation, interview, or examination. It is an affirmative defense that the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the client or patient consented to the sexual intercourse with the knowledge that the sexual intercourse was not for the purpose of treatment; or

(e) When the victim is a resident of a facility for mentally disordered or chemically dependent persons and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and has supervisory authority over the victim.

(2) Rape in the second degree is a class A felony.

Sec. 3. RCW 9A.44.100 and 1988 c 146 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of indecent liberties when he knowingly causes another person who is not his spouse to have sexual contact with him or another:
   (a) By forcible compulsion; or
   (b) When the other person is incapable of consent by reason of being mentally defective, mentally incapacitated, or physically helpless; (or)
   (c) When the victim is developmentally disabled and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and who has supervisory authority over the victim;

(d) When the perpetrator is a health care provider, the victim is a client or patient, and the sexual contact occurs during a treatment session, consultation, interview, or examination. It is an affirmative defense that the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the client or patient consented to the sexual contact with the knowledge that the sexual contact was not for the purpose of treatment; or

(e) When the victim is a resident of a facility for mentally disordered or chemically dependent persons and the perpetrator is a person who is not married to the victim and has supervisory authority over the victim.

(2) Indecent liberties is a class B felony.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5577 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5675 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, after the enacting clause, strike the remainder of the bill and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 36.89 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a city or town annexes an area, or a city or town incorporates an area, and the county has issued revenue bonds or general obligation bonds to finance storm water control facilities that are payable in whole or in part from rates or charges imposed in the area, the county shall continue imposing all portions of the rates or charges that are allocated to payment of the debt service on bonds in that area after the effective date of the annexation or official date of the incorporation until: (1) The debt is retired; (2) any debt that is issued to refinance the underlying debt is retired; or (3) the city or town reimburses the county amount that is sufficient to retire that portion of the debt borne by the annexed or incorporated area. The county shall construct all facilities included in the storm water plan intended to be financed by the proceeds of such bonds. If the county provides storm water management services to the city or town by contract, the contract shall consider the value of payments made by property owners to the county for the payment of debt service.

The provisions of this section apply whether or not the bonds finance facilities that are geographically located within the area that is annexed or incorporated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 36.94 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a city or town annexes an area, or a city or town incorporates an area, and the county has issued revenue bonds or general obligation bonds to finance storm or surface water drains or facilities that are payable in whole or in part from rates or charges imposed in the area, the county shall continue imposing all portions of the rates or charges that are allocated to payment of the debt service on bonds in that area after the effective date of the annexation or official date of the incorporation until: (1) The debt is retired; (2) any debt that is issued to refinance the underlying debt is retired; or (3) the city or town reimburses the county" amount that is sufficient to retire that portion of the debt borne by the annexed or incorporated area. The county shall construct all facilities included in the storm water plan intended to be financed by the proceeds of such bonds. If the county provides storm water management services to the city or town by contract, the contract shall consider the value of payments made by property owners to the county for the payment of debt service.

The provisions of this section apply whether or not the bonds finance facilities that are geographically located within the area that is annexed or incorporated.

Sec. 3. RCW 36.89.080 and 1970 ex.s. c 30 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

Any county legislative authority may provide by resolution for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of service to those served or receiving benefits or to be served or to receive benefits from any storm water control facility or contributing to an increase of surface water runoff. In fixing rates and charges, the county legislative authority may in its discretion consider: (1) Services furnished or to be furnished((a)); (2) benefits received or to be received((s)); (3) the character and use of land((u)) or its water runoff characteristics; (4) the nature or type of land user; or (5) any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. The service charges and rates collected shall be deposited in a special fund or funds in the county treasury to be used only for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost and expense of maintaining and operating storm water control facilities, all or any part of the cost and expense of planning, designing, establishing, acquiring, developing, constructing and improving any of such facilities, or to pay or secure the payment of all or any portion of any issue of general obligation or revenue bonds issued for such purpose.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5844 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.150 RCW to read as follows:
A volunteer organization or individual volunteer may assist a public agency, with the agency's approval, in a collaborative program designed to serve the needs of at-risk children. The center, with the advice and counsel of the attorney general, shall develop guidelines defining at-risk children and establish reasonable safety standards to protect the safety of program participants and volunteers, including but not limited to background checks for program supervisors or as appropriate as provided in RCW 43.43.830 through 43.43.834. In carrying out the volunteer activity, the individual volunteer or member of the volunteer organization shall not be considered to be an employee or agent of any public agency involved in the collaborative program. Prior to participation, a volunteer and the public agency administering the collaborative program shall sign a written master agreement, approved in form by the attorney general, that includes provisions defining the scope of the volunteer activities and waiving any claims against each other. An individual volunteer shall not be liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission arising from volunteer activities which comply with safety standards issued by the center for volunteerism and citizen service, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. In any action for damages against a public agency or volunteer organization, a claimant must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that a public agency or other sponsor of a program under this section failed to comply with reasonable safety standards established by the center.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5844 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. On Senate Bill No. 5675, we passed a motion to concur with Sections 1 and 2 and to not concur in Section 3. Mr. President, that was a striking amendment and I do not believe that we can concur with a portion of an amendment. If they were separate amendments, we could concur with one or two amendments and not concur with the other, but that is one amendment, Mr. President, and I am very concerned that if that is the procedure we are going to use, that we are going to have messages flying back and forth that we concur with the first sentence, but we don't concur with the second sentence of an amendment. I would like a ruling, Mr. President, please."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Senator Vognild, in responding to your parliamentary inquiry, it is the practice where the measures are easily divisible, for us to make that assertion and rule that way. Obviously, we are really better off in most cases if we don't do it, but it has been the practice for many years where it can be easily divided, that we have done that and have done it in this case. I think in this case it is easily divided, but I would agree with you that it is not the best practice. I would hope that we would use it very judicially."
MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senator Anderson was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5048 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"Sec. 1. RCW 39.04.155 and 1991 c 363 s 109 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) This section provides a uniform process to award contracts for public works projects by those (counties) municipalities that are authorized to use a small works roster in lieu of the requirements for formal sealed bidding. The state statutes governing (counties) a specific type of municipality shall establish the maximum dollar thresholds of the contracts that can be awarded under this process, and may include other matters concerning the small works roster process, for the (county) municipality.
(2) (Counties) Such municipalities may create a single general small works roster, or may create a small works roster for different categories of anticipated work. The small works roster or rosters shall consist of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list, and where required by law are properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state. At least section) twice a year, the (county) municipality shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the jurisdiction a notice of the existence of the roster or rosters and solicit the names of contractors for such roster or rosters.

The governing body of the (county) municipality shall establish a procedure for securing telephone or written quotations from the contractors on the general small works roster, or a specific small works roster for the appropriate category of work, to assure that a competitive price is established and to award contracts to the lowest responsible bidder, as defined in RCW 43.19.1911. Such invitations for quotations shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed as well as materials and equipment to be furnished. Whenever possible at least five contractors shall be invited to submit bids. Once a contractor has been afforded an opportunity to submit a proposal, that contractor shall not be offered another opportunity until all other appropriate contractors on the small works roster have been afforded an opportunity to submit a proposal on a contract. Proposals may be invited from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster.

A contract awarded from a small works roster under this section need not be advertised.

Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone inquiry.

Sec. 2. RCW 39.04.190 and 1991 c 363 s 110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section provides a uniform process to award contracts for the purchase of any materials, equipment, supplies, or services by those (counties) municipalities that are authorized to use this process in lieu of the requirements for formal sealed bidding. The state statutes governing (counties) a specific type of municipality shall establish the maximum dollar thresholds of the contracts that can be awarded under this process, and may include other matters concerning the awarding of contracts for purchases, for the (county) municipality.

(2) At least (once) twice per year, the (county) municipality shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the jurisdiction a notice of the existence of vendor lists and solicit the names of vendors for the lists. (Counties) Municipalities shall by resolution establish a procedure for securing telephone or written quotations, or both, from at least three different vendors whenever possible to assure that a competitive price is established and for awarding the contracts for the purchase of any materials, equipment, supplies, or services to the lowest responsible bidder as defined in RCW 43.19.1911. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and shall be available by telephone inquiry. A contract awarded pursuant to this section need not be advertised.

Sec. 3. RCW 39.04.200 and 1991 c 363 s 111 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (county) municipality that utilizes the small works roster process established in RCW 39.04.155 to award contracts for public works projects, or the uniform process established in RCW 39.04.190 to award contracts for purchases, must post a list of the contracts awarded under RCW 39.04.155 and 39.04.190 at least once every two months. The list shall contain the name of the contractor or vendor awarded the contract, the amount of the contract, a brief description of the type of work performed or items purchased under the contract, and the date it was awarded. The list shall also state the location where the bid quotations for these contracts are available for public inspection.

Sec. 4. RCW 39.30.045 and 1991 c 363 s 112 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (county) municipality, as defined in RCW 39.04.010, may purchase any supplies, equipment, or materials at auctions conducted by the government of the United States or any agency thereof, any agency of the state of Washington, any municipality or other government agency, or any private party without being subject to public bidding requirements if the items can be obtained at a competitive price.

Sec. 5. RCW 36.32.240 and 1991 c 363 s 57 are each amended to read as follows:

In any county the county legislative authority may by resolution establish a county purchasing department. In each county which exercises this option, the purchasing department shall contract on a competitive basis for all public works, enter into leases of personal property on a competitive basis, and purchase all supplies, materials, and equipment, on a competitive basis, for all departments of the county, as provided in this chapter and chapter 39.04 RCW, except that the county purchasing department is not required to make purchases for the county hospital, or make purchases that are paid from the county road fund or equipment revolving fund.

Sec. 6. RCW 36.32.253 and 1991 c 363 s 63 are each amended to read as follows:

No lease of personal property may be entered into by the county legislative authority or any elected or appointed officer of the county (until after bids have been submitted to the county. The county shall use the same) except upon use of the procedures specified in (RCW 36.32.245 and 39.04.190) this chapter and chapter 39.04 RCW for awarding contracts for purchases when it leases personal property from the lowest responsible bidder.

Sec. 7. RCW 36.32.245 and 1991 c 363 s 62 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No contract for the purchase of materials, equipment, or services may be entered into by the county legislative authority or by any elected or appointed officer of the county until after bids have been submitted to the county. Bid specifications shall be in writing and shall be filed with the clerk of the county legislative authority for public inspection. An advertisement shall be published in the official newspaper of the county stating the time and place where bids will be opened, the time after which bids will not be received, the materials, equipment, supplies, or services to be purchased, and that the specifications may be seen at the office of the clerk of the county legislative authority. The advertisement shall be published at least once at least [(thirty-three)] thirteen days prior to the last date upon which bids will be received.

(2) The bids shall be in writing and filed with the clerk. The bids shall be opened and read in public at the time and place named in the advertisement. Contracts requiring competitive bidding under this section may be awarded only to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry. Any or all bids may be rejected for good cause.

(3) For advertisement and formal sealed bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between two thousand five hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, the county legislative authority must use the uniform process to award contracts as provided in RCW 39.04.190. Advertisement and formal sealed bidding may be dispensed with as to purchases of less than two thousand five hundred dollars upon the order of the county legislative authority.

(4) This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW; or contracts and purchases for the printing of election ballots, voting machine labels, and all other election material containing the names of candidates and ballot titles.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the legislative authority of any county from allowing for preferential purchase of products made from recycled materials or products that may be recycled or reused.

Sec. 8. RCW 36.32.250 and 1991 c 363 s 58 are each amended to read as follows:

No contract for public works may be entered into by the county legislative authority or by any elected or appointed officer of the county until after bids have been submitted to the county upon specifications therefor. Such specifications shall be in writing and shall be filed with the clerk of the county legislative authority for public inspection. An advertisement shall be published in the county official newspaper stating the time and place where bids will be opened, the time after which bids will not be received, the character of the work to be done, the materials and equipment to be furnished, and that specifications therefor may be seen at the office of the clerk of the county legislative authority. An advertisement shall also be published in a legal newspaper of general circulation in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done. If the county official newspaper is a newspaper of general circulation covering at least forty percent of the residences in that part of the county in which such public works are to be done, then the publication of an advertisement of the applicable specifications in the county official newspaper shall be sufficient. Such advertisements shall be published at least once at least [(thirty-three)] thirteen days prior to the last date upon which bids will be received. The bids shall be in writing, shall be filed with the clerk, shall be opened and read in public at the time and place named therefor in the advertisements, and after being opened, shall be filed for public inspection. No bid may be considered for public work unless it is accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a surety bond, postal money order, cash, cashier's check, or certified check in an amount equal to five percent of the amount of the bid proposed. The contract for the public work shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. Any or all bids may be rejected for good cause. The county legislative authority shall require from the successful bidder for such public work a contractor's bond in the amount and with the conditions imposed by law. If the bidder to whom the contract is awarded fails to enter into the contract and furnish the contractor's bond as required within ten days after notice of the award, exclusive of the day of notice, the amount of the bid deposit shall be forfeited to the county and the contract awarded to the next lowest and best bidder. The bid deposit of all unsuccessful bidders shall be returned after the contract is awarded and the required contractor's bond given by the successful bidder is accepted by the county legislative authority. In the letting of any contract for public works involving less than ten thousand dollars, advertisement and competitive bidding may be dispensed with on order of the county legislative authority. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry.

For advertisement and competitive bidding to be dispensed with as to public works projects with an estimated value of ten thousand dollars up to one hundred thousand dollars ((seventy-five)), a county must use a small works roster process as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW.

Sec. 9. RCW 35.22.620 and 1989 c 431 s 59 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the term "public works" means as defined in RCW 39.04.010.

(2) A first class city may have public works performed by contract pursuant to public notice and call for competitive bids. As limited by subsection (3) of this section, a first class city may have public works performed by city employees in any annual or biennial budget period equal to a dollar value not exceeding ten percent of the public works construction budget, including any amount in a supplemental public works construction budget, over the budget period. The amount of public works that a first class city has a county perform for it under RCW 35.77.020 shall be included within this ten percent limitation.
If a first class city has public works performed by public employees in any budget period that are in excess of this ten percent limitation, the amount in excess of the permitted amount shall be reduced from the otherwise permitted amount of public works that may be performed by public employees for that city in its next budget period. Twenty percent of the motor vehicle fuel tax distributions to that city shall be withheld if two years after the year in which the excess amount of work occurred, the city has failed to so reduce the amount of public works that it has performed by public employees. The amount so withheld shall be distributed to the city when it has demonstrated in its reports to the state auditor that the amount of public works it has performed by public employees has been so reduced.

Whenever a first class city has had public works performed in any budget period up to the maximum permitted amount for that budget period, all remaining public works within that budget period shall be done by contract pursuant to public notice and call for competitive bids.

The state auditor shall report to the state treasurer any first class city that exceeds this amount and the extent to which the city has or has not reduced the amount of public works it has performed by public employees in subsequent years.

(3) In addition to the percentage limitation provided in subsection (2) of this section, a first class city with a population in excess of one hundred fifty thousand shall not have public employees perform a public works project in excess of fifty thousand dollars if more than a single craft or trade is involved with the public works project, or a public works project in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars if only a single craft or trade is involved with the public works project or the public works project is street signalization or street lighting. In addition to the percentage limitation provided in subsection (2) of this section, a first class city with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less shall not have public employees perform a public works project in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars if more than one craft or trade is involved with the public works project, or a public works project in excess of twenty thousand dollars if only a single craft or trade is involved with the public works project or the public works project is street signalization or street lighting. A public works project means a complete project. The restrictions in this subsection do not permit the division of the project into units of work or classes of work to avoid the restriction on work that may be performed by day labor on a single project.

(4) In addition to the accounting and record-keeping requirements contained in RCW 39.04.070, every first class city annually shall prepare a report for the state auditor indicating the total public works construction budget and supplemental public works construction budget for that year, the total construction costs of public works performed by public employees for that year, and the amount of public works that is performed by public employees above or below ten percent of the total construction budget. However, if a city budgets on a biennial basis, this annual report shall indicate the amount of public works that is performed by public employees within the current biennial period that is above or below ten percent of the total biennial construction budget.

After September 1, 1987, each first class city with a population of one hundred fifty thousand or less shall use the form required by RCW 43.09.205 to account and record costs of public works in excess of five thousand dollars that are not let by contract.

(5) The cost of a separate public works project shall be the costs of materials, supplies, equipment, and labor on the construction of that project. The value of the public works budget shall be the value of all the separate public works projects within the budget.

(6) When any emergency shall require the immediate execution of such public work, upon the finding of the existence of such emergency by the authority having power to direct such public work to be done and duly entered of record, publication of description and estimate may be made within seven days after the commencement of the work. Within two weeks of the finding that such an emergency existed, the city council shall adopt a resolution certifying the existence of this emergency situation.

(7) In lieu of the procedures of subsections (2) and (6) of this section, a first class city may use a small works roster process and award contracts ((under this subsection for contracts)) for public works projects with an estimated value of one hundred thousand dollars or less as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

(a) The city may maintain a small works roster comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state.

(b) Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, and the city uses the small works roster, the city shall invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster. PROVIDED, That not less than five separate appropriate contractors, if available, shall be invited to submit bids on any one contract. PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever possible, the city shall invite at least one proposal from a minority or woman contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. (Once a bidder on the small works roster has been offered an opportunity to bid, that bidder shall not be offered another opportunity until all other appropriate contractors on the small works roster have been afforded an opportunity to submit a bid. Invitations shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.

(c) When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, the city shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible bid.)
Sec. 10. RCW 35.23.352 and 1989 c 431 s 56 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any second or third class city or any town may construct any public works, as defined in RCW 39.04.010, by contract or day labor without calling for bids therefor whenever the estimated cost of the work or improvement, including cost of materials, supplies and equipment will not exceed the sum of thirty thousand dollars if more than one craft or trade is involved with the public works, or twenty thousand dollars if a single craft or trade is involved with the public works or the public works project is street signalization or street lighting. A public works project means a complete project. The restrictions in this subsection do not permit the division of the project into units of work or classes of work to avoid the restriction on work that may be performed by day labor on a single project.

Whenever the cost of the public works or improvement, including materials, supplies and equipment, will exceed these figures, the same shall be done by contract. All such contracts shall be let at public bidding upon (posting) publication of notice calling for sealed bids upon the work. The notice (thereof shall be posted in a public place in the city or town and by publication) shall be published in the official newspaper, or a newspaper of general circulation most likely to bring responsive bids, (once each week for two consecutive weeks before) at least thirteen days prior to the (date fixed for opening the bids) last date upon which bids will be received. The notice shall generally state the nature of the work to be done that plans and specifications therefor shall then be on file in the city or town hall for public inspections, and require that bids be sealed and filed with the council or commission within the time specified therein. Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid proposal deposit in the form of a cashier's check, postal money order, or surety bond to the council or commission for a sum of not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal deposit. The council or commission of the city or town shall let the contract to the lowest responsible bidder or shall have power by resolution to reject any or all bids and to make further calls for bids in the same manner as the original call.

When the contract is let then all bid proposal deposits shall be returned to the bidders except that of the successful bidder which shall be retained until a contract is entered into and a bond to perform the work furnished, with surety satisfactory to the council or commission, in (the full amount of the contract price) accordance with RCW 39.08.030. If the bidder fails to enter into the contract in accordance with his or her bid and furnish a bond within ten days from the date at which he or she is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the check or postal money order and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the council or commission or the council or commission shall recover the amount of the surety bond.

If no bid is received on the first call the council or commission may readvertise and make a second call, or may enter into a contract without any further call or may purchase the supplies, material or equipment and perform the work or improvement by day labor.

(2) The allocation of public works projects to be performed by city or town employees shall not be subject to a collective bargaining agreement.

(3) In lieu of the procedures of subsection (1) of this section, a second or third class city or a town may use a small works roster process and award public works contracts (under this subsection for contracts) with an estimated value of one hundred thousand dollars or less as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

(a) The city or town may maintain a small works roster comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in this state.

(b) Whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, and the city uses the small works roster, the city or town shall invite proposals from all appropriate contractors on the small works roster. PROVIDED, That) Whenever possible, the city or town shall invite at least one proposal from a minority or woman contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. (The invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.

(c) When awarding such a contract for work, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less, the city or town shall award the contract to the contractor submitting the lowest responsible bid.)

(4) After September 1, 1987, each second class city, third class city, and town shall use the form required by RCW 43.09.205 to account and record costs of public works in excess of five thousand dollars that are not let by contract.

(5) The cost of a separate public works project shall be the costs of the materials, equipment, supplies, and labor on that construction project.
(6) Any purchase of supplies, material, equipment or services other than professional services, except for public work or improvement, where the cost thereof exceeds seven thousand five hundred dollars shall be made upon call for bids (provided, That the limitations herein shall not apply to any purchases of materials at auctions conducted by the government of the United States, any agency thereof or by the state of Washington or a political subdivision thereof).

(7) Bids shall be called annually and at a time and in the manner prescribed by ordinance for the publication in a newspaper (published or) of general circulation in the city or town of all notices or newspaper publications required by law. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder.

(8) For advertisement and (competitive) formal sealed bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between seven thousand five hundred and fifteen thousand dollars, the city legislative authority must authorize by resolution (for securing telephone and/or written quotations from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price for awarding the contracts for purchase of materials, equipment, or services to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry)) provided in RCW 39.04.190.

(9) These requirements for purchasing may be waived by resolution of the city or town council which declared that the purchase is clearly and legitimately limited to a single source or supply within the near vicinity, or the materials, supplies, equipment, or services are subject to special market conditions, and recites why this situation exists. Such actions are subject to RCW 39.30.020.

(10) This section does not apply to performance-based contracts, as defined in RCW 39.35A.020(3), that are negotiated under chapter 39.35A RCW.

(11) Nothing in this section shall prohibit any second or third class city or any town from allowing for preferential purchase of products made from recycled materials or products that may be recycled or reused.

Sec. 11. RCW 52.14.110 and 1984 c 238 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as practicable, purchases and any public works by the district shall be based on competitive bids. A formal sealed bid procedure shall be used as standard procedure for purchases and contracts for purchases executed by the board of commissioners. Formal sealed bidding shall not be required for:

(1) Emergency purchases if the sealed bidding procedure would prevent or hinder the emergency from being addressed appropriately. The term emergency means an occurrence that creates an immediate threat to life or property;

(2) The purchase of any materials, supplies, or equipment if the cost will not exceed the sum of ((forty thousand five hundred dollars)) four thousand five hundred dollars (provided, That the purchase of any materials, supplies, or equipment if the cost will not exceed the sum of (four thousand five hundred dollars)) four thousand five hundred dollars up to ten thousand dollars, the commissioners (shall require quotations from at least three different sources to be obtained in writing or by telephone, and recorded for public perusal to assure establishment of a competitive price for such purchase) may by resolution use the process provided in RCW 39.04.190 to award contracts;

(3) Contracting for work to be done involving the construction or improvement of a fire station or other buildings where the estimated cost will not exceed the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, which includes the costs of labor, material, and equipment. However, whenever the estimated cost is from two thousand five hundred dollars up to ten thousand dollars, the commissioner may by resolution use the small works roster process provided in RCW 39.04.155;

(4) Purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply, or services, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation: PROVIDED, That this subsection shall not apply to purchases or contracts relating to public works as defined in chapter 39.04 RCW; and

(5) Purchases of insurance and bonds.

Sec. 12. RCW 52.14.120 and 1984 c 238 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notice of the call for bids shall be given by (publishing the notice in three public places in the district and by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks. The posting and first publication shall be at least two weeks before the date fixed for opening of the bids, and the publication shall be)) publishing the notice in a newspaper of general circulation within the district at least thirteen days before the last date upon which bids will be received. If no bid is received on the first call, the commissioners may readvertise and make a second call, or may enter into a contract without a further call.

(2) A public work involving three or more specialty contractors requires that the district retain the services of a general contractor as defined in RCW 18.27.010.

Sec. 13. RCW 53.08.120 and 1988 c 235 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

All material required by a port district may be procured in the open market or by contract and all work ordered may be done by contract or day labor. All such contracts for work, the estimated cost of which exceeds one hundred thousand dollars, shall be let at public bidding upon notice published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district at least ((thirty)) thirteen days before the last date upon which bids will be received, calling for sealed bids upon the work, plans and specifications for which shall then be on file in the office of the commission for public inspection. The same notice may call for bids on such work or material based upon plans and specifications submitted by the bidder.

Each port district shall maintain a small works roster (which shall be comprised of all contractors who have requested to be on the roster and are, where required by law, properly licensed or registered to perform such work in the state of Washington), as provided in RCW 39.04.155, and may use the small works roster process to award contracts in lieu of calling for sealed bids whenever work is done by contract, the estimated cost of which is one hundred thousand dollars or less; provided, That not less than five separate appropriate contractors shall be invited to submit proposals on any individual contract;-provided further, That whenever possible, the managing official shall invite at least one proposal from a minority contractor who shall otherwise qualify under this section. (Such invitation shall include an estimate of the scope and nature of the work to be performed, and materials and equipment to be furnished.)

When awarding such a contract for work, when utilizing proposals from the small works roster, the managing official shall give weight to the contractor submitting the lowest and best proposal, and whenever it would not violate the public interest, such contracts shall be distributed equally among contractors, including minority contractors, on the small works roster.

Sec. 14. RCW 54.04.070 and 1990 c 251 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Any item, or items of the same kind of materials, equipment, or supplies purchased, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars, exclusive of sales tax shall be by contract: provided, That a district may make purchases of the same kind of items of materials, equipment and supplies not exceeding five thousand dollars in any calendar month without a contract, purchasing any excess thereof over five thousand dollars by contract. Any work ordered by a district commission, the estimated cost of which is in excess of ten thousand dollars exclusive of sales tax, shall be by contract, except that a district commission may have its own regularly employed personnel perform work which is an accepted industry practice under prudent utility management without a contract. Prudent utility management means performing work with regularly employed personnel utilizing material of a worth not exceeding fifty thousand dollars in value without a contract: provided, That such limit on the value of material being utilized in work being performed by regularly employed personnel shall not include the value of individual items of equipment purchased or acquired and used as one unit of a project. Before awarding such a contract, the commission shall publish a notice once or more in a newspaper of general circulation in the district at least twenty days before the last date upon which bids will be received, inviting sealed proposals for the work or materials; plans and specifications of which shall at the time of the publication be on file at the office of the district subject to public inspection. Any published notice ordering work to be performed for the district shall be mailed at the time of publication to any established trade association which files a written request with the district to receive such notices. The commission may at the same time and as part of the same notice, invite tenders for the work or materials upon plans and specifications to be submitted by the bidders.

Notwithstanding any other provisions herein, all contract projects, the estimated cost of which is less than one hundred thousand dollars, may be awarded to a contractor using the small works roster: the small works roster shall be comprised of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list. The commission shall authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. Such procedure shall require that a good faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone inquiry. The small works roster shall be revised once a year.

All contract projects equal to or in excess of one hundred thousand dollars shall be let by competitive bidding.

Whenever equipment or materials required by a district are held by a governmental agency and are available for sale but such agency is unwilling to submit a proposal, the commission may ascertain the price of such items and file a statement of such price supported by the sworn affidavit of one member of the commission and may consider such price as a bid without a deposit or bond. In the event of an emergency when the public interest or property of the district would suffer material injury or damage by delay, upon resolution of the commission, or proclamation of an official designated by the board to act for the board during such emergencies, declaring the existence of such emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same, the board, or the official acting for the board, may waive the requirements of this chapter with reference to any purchase or contract, after having taken precautions to secure the lowest price practicable under the circumstances.

After determination by the commission during a public meeting that a particular purchase is available clearly and legitimately only from a single source of supply, the bidding requirements of this section may be waived by the commission.

Sec. 15. RCW 54.04.082 and 1977 ex.s.c 116 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the awarding of a contract to purchase any item, or items of the same kind of materials, equipment, or supplies in an amount exceeding five thousand dollars, but less than fifteen thousand dollars, exclusive of sales tax, the commission may, in lieu of the procedure described in RCW 54.04.070 and 54.04.080 requiring public notice to invite sealed proposals for such materials, equipment, or supplies, (authorize by) pursuant to commission resolution ((a staff procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from enough vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding such contracts for purchase of materials, equipment, or supplies to the lowest responsible bidder. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and shall be posted or otherwise made available at the office of the commission or any other officially designated location)) use the process provided in RCW 39.04.190. Waiver of the deposit or bid bond required under RCW 54.04.080 may be authorized by the commission in securing such bid quotations.

Sec. 16. RCW 56.08.070 and 1989 c 105 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All materials purchased and work ordered, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars shall be let by contract. All contract projects, the estimated cost of which is less than fifty thousand dollars, may be awarded to a contractor ((on)) using the small works roster(—The small works roster shall be comprised of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list) process provided in RCW 39.04.155 or the process provided in RCW 39.04.190 for purchases. The board of sewer commissioners may set up uniform procedures to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. ((The board of sewer commissioners shall authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. Such procedure shall require that a good faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available by telephone inquiry. The small works roster shall be revised once a year.)) All contract projects equal to or in excess of fifty thousand dollars shall be let by competitive bidding. Before awarding any competitive contract the board of sewer commissioners shall ((cause)) publish a notice (to be published) in a newspaper (in) of general circulation where the district is located at least once, (ten) thirteen days before the ((letting of such contract)) last date upon which bids will be received, inviting sealed proposals for such work, plans and specifications which must at the time of publication of such notice be on file in the office of the board of sewer commissioners subject to public inspection. Such notice shall state generally the work to be done and shall call for proposals for doing the same to be sealed and filed with the board of sewer commissioners on or before the day and hour named therein.

(2) Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid proposal deposit in the form of a certified check, cashier's check, postal money order, or surety bond payable to the order of the county treasurer for a sum not less than five percent of the amount of the bid and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal deposit. At the time and place named such bids shall be publicly opened and read and the board of sewer commissioners shall proceed to canvass the bids and may let such contract to the lowest responsible bidder upon plans and specifications: PROVIDED, That no contract shall be let in excess of the cost of (said) the materials or work, or if in the opinion of the board of sewer commissioners all bids are unsatisfactory they may reject all of them and readvertise and in such case all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders. If such contract be let, then all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract shall be entered into for the purchase of such materials or doing such work, and a bond to perform such work furnished with sureties satisfactory to the board of sewer commissioners in the full amount of the contract price between the bidder and the commission in accordance with bid. If (said) the bidder fails to enter into (said) the contract in accordance with (said) the bid and furnish such bond within ten days from the date at which (he) the bidder is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the (said) check, cash, or bid bonds and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the sewer district.

(3) In the event of an emergency when the public interest or property of the sewer district would suffer material injury or damage by delay, upon resolution of the board of sewer commissioners, or proclamation of an official designated by the board to act for the board during such emergencies, declaring the existence of such emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same, the board, or the official acting for the board, may waive the requirements of this chapter with reference to any purchase or contract. In addition, these requirements may be waived for purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply and purchases involving special facilities, services, or market conditions, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation.

Sec. 17. RCW 56.08.080 and 1989 c 308 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of commissioners of a sewer district may sell, at public or private sale, property belonging to the district if the board determines that the property is not and will not be needed for district purposes and if the board gives notice of intention to sell as in this section provided: PROVIDED, That no notice of intention is required to sell personal property of less than two thousand five hundred dollars in value.

The notice of intention to sell shall be published once a week for (three) two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. ((The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.)) The notice shall describe the property and state the time and place at which it will be sold or offered for sale, the terms of sale, whether the property is to be sold at public or private sale, and if at public sale the notice shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof and shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids.
Sec. 18. RCW 56.08.090 and 1989 c 308 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, no real property valued at two thousand five hundred dollars or more of the district shall be sold for less than ninety percent of the value thereof as established by a written appraisal made not more than six months prior to the date of sale by three disinterested real estate brokers licensed under the laws of the state or professionally designated real estate appraisers as defined in RCW 74.46.020. The appraisal shall be signed by the appraisers and filed with the secretary of the board of commissioners of the district, who shall keep it at the office of the district open to public inspection. Any notice of intention to sell real property of the district shall recite the appraised value thereof: PROVIDED, That there shall be no private sale of real property where the appraised value exceeds the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars.

(2) If no purchasers can be obtained for the property at ninety percent or more of its appraised value after one hundred (eighty) twenty days of offering the property for sale, the board of commissioners of the sewer district may adopt a resolution stating that the district has been unable to sell the property at the ninety percent amount. The sewer district then may sell the property at the highest price it can obtain at public auction. A notice of intention to sell at public auction shall be published once a week for (three) two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the sewer district. (The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.) The notice shall describe the property, state the time and place at which it will be offered for sale and the terms of sale, and shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof, and reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 19. RCW 57.08.015 and 1989 c 308 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of commissioners of a water district may sell, at public or private sale, property belonging to the district if the board determines that the property is not and will not be needed for district purposes and if the board gives notice of intention to sell as in this section provided: PROVIDED, That no such notice of intention shall be required to sell personal property of less than two thousand five hundred dollars in value.

The notice of intention to sell shall be published once a week for (three) two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. (The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.) The notice shall describe the property and state the time and place at which it will be sold or offered for sale, the terms of sale, whether the property is to be sold at public or private sale, and if at public sale the notice shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof and shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 20. RCW 57.08.016 and 1989 c 308 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, no real property valued at two thousand five hundred dollars or more of the district shall be sold for less than ninety percent of the value thereof as established by a written appraisal made not more than six months prior to the date of sale by three disinterested real estate brokers licensed under the laws of the state or professionally designated real estate appraisers as defined in RCW 74.46.020. The appraisal shall be signed by the appraisers and filed with the secretary of the board of commissioners of the district, who shall keep it at the office of the district open to public inspection. Any notice of intention to sell real property of the district shall recite the appraised value thereof: PROVIDED, That there shall be no private sale of real property where the appraised value exceeds the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars.

(2) If no purchasers can be obtained for the property at ninety percent or more of its appraised value after one hundred (eighty) twenty days of offering the property for sale, the board of commissioners of the water district may adopt a resolution stating that the district has been unable to sell the property at the ninety percent amount. The water district then may sell the property at the highest price it can obtain at public auction. A notice of intention to sell at public auction shall be published once a week for (three) two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the water district. (The last publication shall be at least twenty days but not more than thirty days before the date of sale.) The notice shall describe the property, state the time and place at which it will be offered for sale and the terms of sale, and shall call for bids, fix the conditions thereof, and reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 21. RCW 57.08.050 and 1989 c 105 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of water commissioners shall have authority to create and fill such positions and fix salaries and bonds thereof as it may by resolution provide.

(2) All materials purchased and work ordered, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars shall be let by contract. All contract projects, the estimated cost of which is less than fifty thousand dollars, may be awarded to a contractor ((in the) using a small works roster((The small works roster shall be comprised of all responsible contractors who have requested to be on the list)) process provided in RCW 39.04.155 or the process provided in RCW 39.04.190 for purchases. The board of water commissioners may set up uniform procedures to prequalify contractors for inclusion on the small works roster. (The board of water commissioners shall authorize by resolution a procedure for securing telephone and/or written quotations from the contractors on the small works roster to assure establishment of a competitive price and for awarding contracts to the lowest responsible bidder. Such procedure shall require that a good faith effort be made to request quotations from all contractors on the small works roster. Immediately after an award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded, open to public inspection, and available... by telephone inquiry. The small works roster shall be revised once a year.) All contract projects equal to or in excess of fifty thousand dollars shall be let by competitive bidding. Before awarding any such contract the board of water commissioners shall publish a notice (to be published) in a newspaper (of general circulation where the district is located at least once ((ten) thirteen days before the (letting of such contract)) last date upon which bids will be received, inviting sealed proposals for such work, plans and specifications which must at the time of publication of such notice be on file in the office of the board of water commissioners subject to public inspection. Such notice shall state generally the work to be done and shall call for proposals for doing the same to be sealed and filed with the board of water commissioners on or before the day and hour named therein.

(3) Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified or cashier’s check or postal money order payable to the order of the county treasurer for a sum not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, or accompanied by a bid bond in an amount not less than five percent of the bid with a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state, conditioned that the bidder will pay the district as liquidated damages the amount specified in the bond, unless (the) the bidder enters into a contract in accordance with his or her bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such check, cash or bid bond. At the time and place named such bids shall be publicly opened and read and the board of water commissioners shall proceed to canvass the bids and may let such contract to the lowest responsible bidder upon plans and specifications on file or to the best bidder submitting his or her own plans and specifications: PROVIDED, That no contract shall be let in excess of the cost of (the) materials or work, or if in the opinion of the board of water commissioners all bids are unsatisfactory they may reject all of them and readvertise and in such case all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders. If such contract be let, then all checks, cash or bid bonds shall be returned to the bidders, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract shall be entered into for the purchase of such materials for doing such work, and a bond to perform such work furnished, pro rata, with the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the water district as liquidated damages the amount specified in the bond, unless (the) the bidder is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the (check) check, cash or bid bonds and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the water district: PROVIDED, That if the bidder fails to enter into a contract in accordance with his or her bid, and the board of water commissioners deems it necessary to take legal action to collect on any bid bond required herein, then the water district shall be entitled to collect from (the) the bidder any legal expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees occasioned thereby.

(4) In the event of an emergency when the public interest or property of the water district would suffer material injury or damage by delay, upon resolution of the board of water commissioners, or proclamation of an official designated by the board to act for the board during such emergencies, declaring the existence of such emergency and reciting the facts constituting the same, the board, or official acting for the board, may waive the requirements of this chapter with reference to any purchase or contract. In addition, these requirements may be waived for purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply and purchases involving special facilities, services, or market conditions, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation.

Sec. 22. RCW 70.44.140 and 1965 c 83 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All materials purchased and work ordered, the estimated cost of which is in excess of five thousand dollars, shall be by contract. Before awarding any such contract, the commission shall publish a notice at least (thirty) thirteen days before the (letting of said contract) last date upon which bids will be received, inviting sealed proposals for such work. The plans and specifications must at the time of the publication of such notice be on file at the office of the public hospital district, subject to public inspection: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the commission may at the same time, and as part of the same notice, invite tenders for the work or materials upon plans and specifications to be submitted by bidders. The notice shall state generally the work to be done, and shall call for proposals for doing the same, to be sealed and filed with the commission on or before the day and hour named therein. Each bid shall be accompanied by bid proposal security in the form of a certified check, cashier’s check, postal money order, or surety bond made payable to the order of the commission, for a sum not less than five percent of the amount of the bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such bid proposal security. At the time and place named, such bids shall be publicly opened and read, and the commission shall proceed to canvass the bids, and may let such contract to the lowest responsible bidder upon plans and specifications on file, or to the best bidder submitting his or her own plans and specifications: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no contract shall be let in excess of the estimated cost of the materials or work, or if, in the opinion of the commission, all bids are unsatisfactory, they may reject all of them and readvertise, and in such case all bid proposal security shall be returned to the bidders; but if such contract be let, then and in such case all bid proposal security shall be returned to the bidders, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract shall be entered into for the purchase of such materials for doing such work, and a bond to perform such work furnished, with sureties satisfactory to the commission, in an amount to be fixed by the commission, not less than twenty-five percent of contract price in any case, between the bidder and commission, in accordance with the bid. If such bidder fails to enter into (said) the contract in accordance with (said) the bid and furnish such bond within ten days from the date at which (us) the bidder is notified that he or she is the successful bidder, the (said) bid proposal security and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the public hospital district.

(2) In lieu of the procedures of subsection (1) of this section, a public hospital district may use a small works roster process and award public works contracts for projects in excess of five thousand dollars up to fifty thousand dollars as provided in RCW 39.04.155.

(3) For advertisement and formal sealed bidding to be dispensed with as to purchases between five thousand and fifteen thousand dollars, the commission must authorize by resolution a procedure as provided in RCW 39.04.190.

The same are herewith transmitted.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to work in the conference committee on health care reform, I missed the votes on the following bills: Substitute Senate No. 5052, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5075, as amended by the House; Senate Bill No. 5107, as amended by the House; Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5237, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5261, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5263, as amended by the House; Senate Bill No. 5349, as amended by the House; Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5379, as amended by the House; Senate Bill No. 5387, as amended by the House; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5402, as amended by the House; and Substitute Senate Bill No. 5404, as amended by the House; and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5452, as amended by the House.

I would have voted 'yes' on all but Substitute Senate Bill No. 5262, as amended by the House.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5052 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 35.27.270 and 1965 c 7 s 35.27.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The town council shall meet ((on the second Tuesday)) in January succeeding the date of the general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once each month at such times as may be fixed by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor or by three (councilmen) councilmembers, by written notice (delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting) as provided in RCW 42.30.080. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other than a regular meeting. No such resolution or order shall be valid unless passed by the votes of at least three (councilmen) councilmembers.

All meetings of the council shall be held (within the corporate limits of the town) at such places as may be designated by (ordinance and shall) the town council. All final actions on resolutions and ordinances must take place within the corporate limits of the town. All meetings of the town council must be public.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.24.180 and 1965 c 7 s 35.24.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council and mayor shall meet ((on the first Tuesday)) in January next succeeding the date of each general municipal election, and shall take the oath of office, and shall hold regular meetings at least once during each month but not to exceed one regular meeting in each week, at such times as may be fixed by ordinance. Special meetings may be called by the mayor by written notice (delivered to each member of the council at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting) as provided in RCW 42.30.080. No ordinances shall be passed or contract let or entered into, or bill for the payment of money allowed at any special meeting.

All meetings of the city council shall be held (within the corporate limits of the city) at such place as may be designated by (ordinance) the city council. All final actions on resolutions and ordinances must take place within the corporate limits of the city. All meetings of the city council must be public.

Sec. 3. RCW 35A.12.110 and 1979 ex.s. c 18 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council and mayor shall meet regularly, at least once a month, at a place (within the corporate limits of the city) and at such times as may be (fixed by ordinance or resolution) designated by the city council. All final actions on resolutions and ordinances must take place within the corporate limits of the city. Special meetings may be called by the mayor or any three members of the council by written notice delivered to each member of the council at least twenty-four hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All actions that have heretofore been taken at special council meetings held pursuant to this section, but for which the number of hours of notice given has been at variance with requirements of RCW 42.30.080, are hereby validated. All council meetings shall be open to the public except as permitted by chapter 42.30 RCW. No ordinance or resolution shall be passed, or contract let or entered into, or bill for the payment of money allowed at any meeting not open to the public, nor at any public meeting the date of which is not fixed by ordinance, resolution, or rule, unless public notice of such meeting has been given by such notice to each local newspaper of general circulation and to each local radio or television station, as provided in RCW 42.30.080 as now or hereafter amended. Meetings of the council shall be presided over by the mayor, if present, or otherwise by the mayor pro tempore, or deputy mayor if one has been appointed, or by a member of the council selected by a majority of the council members at such meeting. Appointment of a council member to preside over the meeting shall not in any way abridge his right to vote on matters coming before the council at such meeting. In the absence of the clerk, a deputy clerk or other qualified person appointed by the clerk, the mayor, or the council, may perform the duties of clerk at such meeting. A journal of all proceedings shall be kept, which shall be a public record:.

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5075 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:
As used in sections 2 and 3 of this act, "hazing" includes any method of initiation into a student organization or living group, or any pastime or amusement engaged in with respect to such an organization or living group that causes, or is likely to cause, bodily danger or physical harm, or serious mental or emotional harm, to any student or other person attending a public or private institution of higher education or other postsecondary educational institution in this state. "Hazing" does not include customary athletic events or other similar contests or competitions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:
(1) No student, or other person in attendance at any public or private institution of higher education, or any other postsecondary educational institution, may conspire to engage in hazing or participate in hazing of another.
(2) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable as provided under RCW 9A.20.021.
(3) Any organization, association, or student living group that knowingly permits hazing is strictly liable for harm caused to persons or property resulting from hazing. If the organization, association, or student living group is a corporation whether for profit or nonprofit, the individual directors of the corporation may be held individually liable for damages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:
(1) A person who participates in the hazing of another shall forfeit any entitlement to state-funded grants, scholarships, or awards for a period of time determined by the institution of higher education.
(2) Any organization, association, or student living group that knowingly permits hazing to be conducted by its members or by others subject to its direction or control shall be deprived of any official recognition or approval granted by a public institution of higher education.
(3) The public institutions of higher education shall adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:
Institutions of higher education shall adopt rules providing sanctions for conduct associated with initiation into a student organization or living group, or any pastime or amusement engaged in with respect to an organization or living group not amounting to a violation of section 1 of this act. Conduct covered by this section may include embarrassment, ridicule, sleep deprivation, verbal abuse, or personal humiliation.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5261 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 43.20A.710 and 1989 c 334 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall investigate the conviction records, pending charges or disciplinary board final decisions of: (1) Persons being considered for state employment in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children, mentally ill persons, or individuals with mental illness or (2) individual providers who are paid by the state for in-home services and hired by individuals with physical disabilities, developmental disabilities, mental illness, or mental impairment. The investigation may include an examination of state and national criminal identification data and the child abuse and neglect register established under chapter 26.44 RCW. The secretary shall provide the results of the state background check on individual providers to the individuals with physical disabilities, developmental disabilities, mental illness, or mental impairment who hired them and to their legal guardians, if any. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining the character, suitability, and competence of these applicants except that in the case of individuals with physical disabilities, developmental disabilities, mental illness, or mental impairment who employ individual providers, the determination of character, suitability, and competence of applicants shall be made by the individual with a physical disability, developmental disability, mental illness, or mental impairment. Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose. If necessary, persons may be employed on a conditional basis pending completion of the background investigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act applies prospectively except individuals who currently employ individual providers paid by the state may be given the option to request a state background check during reassessment for services.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5263 with the following amendment(s):
On page 7, after line 18, strike all material through "impractical," on line 25, and insert the following:
"(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the director, within ninety days from the date the results of a referendum approved under subsection (2) of this section are filed with the secretary of state, shall adopt rules to establish a market pool in the market area, as provided for in this chapter. In conducting hearings on rules proposed for adoption under this subsection, the director shall invite public comment on whether milk regulation similar to the market area pooling plan proposed in the rules exists in neighboring states and whether a lack of such milk regulation in neighboring states would render such a market area pooling plan in this state ineffective or impractical."
On page 7, line 26, strike "(3)" and insert "((3)) (4) If, following hearings held under subsection (3) of this section, the director determines that the lack of milk regulation in neighboring states similar to the market area pooling plan proposed for this state would render such a pooling arrangement in this state ineffective or impractical, the director shall so state in writing. The director shall file the statement with the code reviser for publication in the Washington State Register. In such a case, a market area pooling plan shall not be established in the market area under subsection (3) of this section based upon the referendum that precipitated the hearings. If the director determines that such a lack of milk regulation in neighboring states would not render such a market area pooling plan ineffective or impractical in this state, the director shall adopt rules in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.
On page 7, line 32, strike "(4)" and insert "((4)) (6)"
On page 10, line 18, after "fund," insert "Moneys from such assessments shall be used to provide testing of the milk in a state-certified laboratory.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 5, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5379 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 15.36.115 and 1989 c 354 s 18 and 1989 c 175 s 48 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:
(1) If the results of an antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue test under RCW 15.36.110 are above the actionable level established in the pasteurized milk ordinance published by the United States public health service and determined using procedures set forth in the current edition of "Standard Methods for the Examination of Dairy Products," a producer holding a grade A permit is subject to a civil penalty. The penalty shall be in an amount equal to one-half the value of the sum of the volumes of milk equivalent produced under the permit on the day prior to and the day of the adulteration. The value of the milk shall be computed by the weighted average price for the federal market order under which the milk is delivered."
(2) The penalty is imposed by the department giving a written notice which is either personally served upon or transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person incurring the penalty. The notice of the civil penalty shall be a final order of the department unless, within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty appeals the penalty by filing a notice of appeal with the department. If a notice of appeal is filed in a timely manner, a hearing shall be conducted on behalf of the department by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.05 and 34.12 RCW (and to the extent they are not inconsistent with this subsection, the provisions of RCW 15.36.580). At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, and, if so, shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW. Tests performed for antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residues by a state or certified industry laboratory of a milk sample drawn by a department official or a licensed dairy technician shall be admitted as prima facie evidence of the presence or absence of an antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this section is due and payable upon the issuance of the final order by the department. The penalty shall be deducted by the violator's marketing organization from the violator's final payment for the month following the issuance of the final order. The department shall promptly notify the violator's marketing organization of any penalties contained in the final order.

(4) All penalties received or recovered from violations of this section shall be remitted monthly by the violator's marketing organization to the Washington state dairy products commission and deposited in a revolving fund to be used solely for the purposes of education and research. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(5) In case of a violation of the antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue test requirements, an investigation shall be made to determine the cause of the residue which shall be corrected. Additional samples shall be taken as soon as possible and tested as soon as feasible for antibiotic, pesticide, or other drug residue by the department or a certified laboratory. After the notice has been received by the producer and the results of a test of such an additional sample indicate that residues are above the actionable level or levels referred to in subsection (1) of this section, the producer's milk may not be sold until a sample is shown to be below the actionable levels established for the residues.

Sec. 2. RCW 69.07.040 and 1992 c 160 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a food processing plant or process foods in the state without first having obtained an annual license from the department, which shall expire on a date set by rule by the director. License fees shall be prorated where necessary to accommodate staggering of expiration dates. Application for a license shall be on a form prescribed by the director and accompanied by the license fee. The license fee is determined by computing the gross annual sales for the accounting year immediately preceding the license year. If the license is for a new operator, the license fee shall be based on an estimated gross annual sales for the initial license period.

If gross annual sales are: The license fee is:

- $0 to $50,000 $50.00
- $50,001 to $500,000 $100.00
- $500,001 to $1,000,000 $200.00
- $1,000,001 to $5,000,000 $350.00
- $5,000,001 to $10,000,000 $500.00
- Greater than $10,000,000 $750.00

Such application shall include the full name of the applicant for the license and the location of the food processing plant he or she intends to operate. If such applicant is an individual, receiver, trustee, firm, partnership, association or corporation, the full name of each member of the firm or partnership, or names of the officers of the association or corporation shall be given on the application. Such application shall further state the principal business address of the applicant in the state and elsewhere and the name of a person domiciled in this state authorized to receive and accept service of summons of legal notices of all kinds for the applicant. The application shall also specify the type of food to be processed and the method or nature of processing operation or preservation of that food and any other necessary information. Upon the approval of the application by the director and compliance with the provisions of this chapter, including the applicable regulations adopted hereunder by the department, the applicant shall be issued a license or renewal thereof.

Licenses shall be issued to cover only those products, processes, and operations specified in the license application and approved for licensing. Wherever a license holder wishes to engage in processing a type of food product that is different than the type specified on the application supporting the licensee's existing license and processing that type of food product would require a major addition to or modification of the licensee's processing facilities or has a high potential for harm, the licensee shall submit an amendment to the current license application. In such a case, the licensee may engage in processing the new type of food product only after the amendment has been approved by the department.

If upon investigation by the director, it is determined that a person is processing food for retail sale and is not under permit, license, or inspection by a local health authority, then that person may be considered a food processor and subject to the provisions of this chapter. The director may waive the licensure requirements of this chapter for a person's operations at a facility if the person is licensed under chapter 15.32 RCW or has a permit under chapter 15.36 RCW to conduct the same or a similar operation at the facility.

Sec. 3. RCW 15.36.595 and 1989 c 175 s 49 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director of agriculture shall adopt rules imposing a civil penalty for violations of the standards for component parts of fluid dairy products which are established by RCW 15.36.030 or adopted pursuant to RCW 69.04.398. The penalty shall not exceed ten thousand dollars and shall be such as is necessary to achieve proper enforcement of the standards. The rules shall be adopted before January 1, 1987, and shall become effective on July 1, 1987.

(2) The penalty is imposed by the department giving a written notice which is either personally served upon or transmitted by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person incurring the penalty. The notice of the civil penalty shall be a final order of the department unless, within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty appeals the penalty by filing a notice of appeal with the department. If a notice of appeal is filed in a timely manner, a hearing shall be conducted on behalf of the department by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapters 34.05 and 34.12 RCW ((and, to the extent they are not inconsistent with this subsection, the provisions of RCW 15.36.590)). At the conclusion of the hearing, the department shall determine whether the penalty should be affirmed, reduced, or not imposed and shall issue a final order setting forth the civil penalty assessed, if any. The order may be appealed to superior court in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW. Tests performed for the component parts of milk products by a state laboratory of a milk sample collected by a department official shall be admitted as prima facie evidence of the amounts of milk components in the product.

(3) Any penalty imposed under this section is due and payable upon the issuance of the final order by the department.

(4) All penalties received or recovered from violations of this section shall be remitted by the violator to the department and deposited in the revolving fund of the Washington state dairy products commission. One-half of the funds received shall be used for purposes of education with the remainder one-half to be used for dairy processing or marketing research, or both. No appropriation is required for disbursements from this fund.

(5) In case of a violation of the standards for the composition of milk products, an investigation shall be made to determine the cause of the violation which shall be corrected. Additional samples shall be taken as soon as possible and tested by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. RCW 15.36.580 and 1989 c 354 s 26, 1987 c 202 s 175, 1981 c 67 s 17, & 1961 c 11 s 15.36.580 are each repealed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5402 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds:

(a) Mathematics, science, and technology subtly but profoundly impact the lives of Washington state residents. In the coming years mathematics, science, and technology will become increasingly important in addressing societal concerns about health, environmental protection, conservation, energy supply, and industrial growth;

(b) There is consensus that the most likely leading industries in the twenty-first century will be in microelectronics, biotechnology, new materials industries, civilian aviation, telecommunications, robotics, and computer-related technologies. This means that literacy in mathematics, science, and technology will become increasingly important to the economic future of Washington state; and

(c) National education goal number four establishes that by the year 2000, United States students will be first in the world in science and mathematics achievement.

(2) The legislature recognizes that change is not optional and believes that only if literacy in mathematics, science, and technology is expanded to include all segments of the population can Washington state build upon existing public and private sector resources to take full advantage of the projected leading industries for the twenty-first century and achieve national education goal number four.

(3) It is the intent of the legislature to develop a long-range, comprehensive mathematics, science, and technology literacy program that reaches into all segments of society and supports a vision in which Washington state is a place where all citizens demonstrate, value, and support literacy in mathematics, science, and technology.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Before July 1, 1994, the higher education coordinating board may solicit, receive, and expend any private gifts or grants to conduct the study in section 3 of this act. Funds shall be expended in accordance with the conditions contingent in the gift or grant of those funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If sufficient funding from public or private sources is made available specifically for the purposes of this act by July 1, 1994, the higher education coordinating board shall contract with an appropriate person or entity to conduct a study on the feasibility and desirability of creating a Washington state institute for science, technology, and society. The study shall be completed by July 1, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The study in section 3 of this act shall include but not be limited to:
(1) Identification of an appropriate role and mission for the institute;
(2) Options for a governmental structure and location of an institute; and
(3) Options for funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. For the purpose of the study in section 3 of this act, the purpose of a Washington state institute for science, technology, and society is as follows:

(1) Implementation of a long-range comprehensive mathematics, science, and technology literacy program;
(2) Development, identification, and dissemination of math, science, and technology curriculum options, textbooks, and course materials;
(3) Provide institutes, workshops, and in-service training to teachers, college and university professors, and school administrators;
(4) Coordinate the dissemination of information to groups and agencies, including a clearinghouse of speakers on mathematics, science, and technology literacy; and
(5) Provide technical expertise to common schools and institutions of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Based on the study conducted under section 3 of this act, the higher education coordinating board shall report findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the legislature and the governor no later than January 1, 1996."

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5634 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to reduce the number of time-consuming and costly lawsuits between state agencies by establishing alternative dispute resolution processes available to any agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of sections 2 through 4 of this act, "state agency" means:

(1) Any agency for which the executive officer is listed in RCW 42.17.2401(1); and

(2) The office of the secretary of state; the office of the state treasurer; the office of the state auditor; the department of natural resources; the office of the insurance commissioner; and the office of the superintendent of public instruction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever a dispute arises between state agencies, agencies shall employ every effort to resolve the dispute themselves without resorting to litigation. These efforts shall involve alternative dispute resolution methods. If a dispute cannot be resolved by the agencies involved, any one of the disputing agencies may request the governor to assist in the resolution of the dispute. The governor shall employ whatever dispute resolution methods that the governor deems appropriate in resolving the dispute. Such methods may include, but are not limited to, the appointment by the governor of a mediator, acceptable to the disputing agencies, to assist in the resolution of the dispute. The governor may also request assistance from the attorney general to advise the mediator and the disputing agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

Sections 2 and 3 of this act shall not apply to any state agency that is a party to a lawsuit, which:

(1) Impleads another state agency into the lawsuit when necessary for the administration of justice; or

(2) Files a notice of appeal, petitions for review, or other filings subject to time limits, in order to preserve legal rights and remedies.

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "agencies;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 43.17 RCW; and creating a new section.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5751 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 27.12 RCW to read as follows:

A rural partial-county library district may be created in a portion of the unincorporated area of a county as provided in this section if a rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, or island library district has not been created in the county and the area proposed to be included in a rural partial-county library district has an assessed valuation of at least fifty million dollars.

The procedure to create a rural partial-county library district is initiated by the filing of petitions with the county auditor proposing the creation of the district that have been signed by at least ten percent of the registered voters residing in the area proposed to be included in the rural partial-county library district. The county auditor shall review the petitions and certify the sufficiency or insufficiency of the signatures to the county legislative authority.

If the petitions are certified as having sufficient valid signatures, the county legislative authority shall hold a public hearing on the proposed rural partial-county library district, may adjust the boundaries of the proposed district, and may cause a ballot proposition to be submitted to the voters of the proposed rural partial-county library district authorizing its creation if the county legislative authority finds that the creation of the rural partial-county library district is in the public interest. A subsequent public hearing shall be held if additional territory is added to the proposed rural partial-county library district by action of the county legislative authority.

A rural partial-county library district shall be created if the ballot proposition authorizing the creation of the district is approved by a simple majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition. Immediately after creation of the rural partial-county library district the county legislative authority shall appoint a board of library trustees for the district as provided under RCW 27.12.190.

Except as provided in this section, a rural partial-county library district is subject to all the provisions of law applicable to a rural county library district and shall have all the powers, duties, and authorities of a rural county library district, including, but not limited to, the authority to impose property taxes, incur debt, and annex a city or town with a population of less than one hundred thousand at the time of the annexation that is located in the same county as the rural partial-county library district.

Adjacent unincorporated territory in the county may be annexed to a rural partial-county library district in the same manner as territory is annexed to a sewer district, except that an annexation is not subject to potential review by a boundary review board.

If a ballot proposition is approved creating a rural county library district in the county, every rural partial-county library district in that county shall be dissolved and its assets and liabilities transferred to the rural county library district. Where a rural partial-county library district has annexed a city or town, the voters of the city or town shall be allowed to vote on the proposed creation of a rural county library district and, if created, the rural county library district shall include each city and town that was annexed to the rural partial-county library district.

Nothing in this section authorizes the consolidation of a rural partial-county library district with any rural county library district; island library district; city, county, or regional library; intercounty library district; or other rural partial-county library district, unless, in addition to any other requirements imposed by statute, the boards of all library districts involved approve the consolidation.

Sec. 2. RCW 27.12.010 and 1982 c 123 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter ((and chapter 27.08 RCW)), unless the context requires a different meaning:

(1) "Governmental unit" means any county, city, town, rural county library district, intercounty rural library district, rural partial-county library district, or island library district;

(2) "Legislative body" means the body authorized to determine the amount of taxes to be levied in a governmental unit; in rural county library districts, in intercounty rural library districts, and in island library districts, the legislative body shall be the board of library trustees of the district;

(3) "Library" means a free public library supported in whole or in part with money derived from taxation; ((and))
The bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 41; Nays, 0; Absent, 1; Excused, 7.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5751, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5751, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; Nays, 0; Absent, 1; Excused, 7.

Yeas: Senators Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, MaCulliffe, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Roach, Sellar, Sheldon, Skrake, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 41.

Absent: Senator Hargrove - 1.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Bluechel, McCaslin, Moyer, Niemi, Rinehart and Smith, L. - 7.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5751, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5768 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 38.52.010 and 1986 c 266 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:
(1) "Emergency management" or "comprehensive emergency management" means the preparation for and the carrying out of all emergency functions, other than functions for which the military forces are primarily responsible, to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from emergencies and disasters, and to aid victims suffering from injury or damage, resulting from disasters caused by all hazards, whether natural or man-made, and to provide support for search and rescue operations for persons and property in distress. However, "emergency management" or "comprehensive emergency management" does not mean preparation for emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack.
(2) "Local organization for emergency services or management" means an organization created in accordance with the provisions of this chapter by state or local authority to perform local emergency management functions.
(3) "Political subdivision" means any county, city or town.
(4) "Emergency worker" means any person, including but not limited to an architect registered under chapter 18.08 RCW or a professional engineer registered under chapter 18.43 RCW, who is registered with a local emergency management organization or the department of community development and holds an identification card issued by the local emergency management director or the department of community development for the purpose of engaging in authorized emergency management activities or is an employee of the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof who is called upon to perform emergency management activities.
(5) "Injury" as used in this chapter shall mean and include accidental injuries and/or occupational diseases arising out of emergency management activities.
(6) "Emergency or disaster" as used in this chapter shall mean an event or set of circumstances which: (a) Demands immediate action to preserve public health, protect life, protect public property, or to provide relief to any stricken community overtaken by such occurrences, or (b) reaches such a dimension or degree of destructiveness as to warrant the governor declaring a state of emergency pursuant to RCW 43.06.010.
(7) "Search and rescue" means the acts of searching for, rescuing, or recovering by means of ground, marine, or air activity any person who becomes lost, injured, or is killed while outdoors or as a result of a natural or man-made disaster, including instances involving searches for downed aircraft when ground personnel are used. Nothing in this section shall affect appropriate activity by the department of transportation under chapter 47.68 RCW.
(8) "Executive head" and "executive heads" means the county executive in those charter counties with an elective office of the governor declaring a state of emergency pursuant to chapter 47.68 RCW.
(9) "Department" means the department of community development.
(10) "Local director" means the director of a local organization of emergency management or emergency services.
(11) "Department" means the department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 38.52 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of the liability of an architect or engineer serving as a volunteer emergency worker, the exemption from liability provided under RCW 38.52.195 extends to all damages, so long as the conditions specified in RCW 38.52.195 (1) through (5) occur.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5768. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5768, as amended by the House.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 7, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5839 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to consolidate mail functions for state government in a manner that will provide timely, effective, efficient, and less-costly mail service for state government. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this section and section 3 of this act.

(1) "Consolidated mail service" means incoming, outgoing, and internal mail processing.
(2) "Department" means the department of general administration.
(3) "Director" means the director of the department of general administration.
(4) "Agency" means:
   (a) The office of the governor; and
   (b) Any office, department, board, commission, or other separate unit or division, however designated, of the state government, together with all personnel thereof: Upon which the statutes confer powers and impose duties in connection with operations of either a governmental or proprietary nature; and that has as its chief executive officer a person or combination of persons such as a commission, board, or council, by law empowered to operate it, responsible either to: (i) No other public officer or (ii) the governor.
(5) "Incoming mail" means mail, packages, or similar items received by an agency, through the United States postal service, private carrier services, or other courier services.
(6) "Outgoing mail" means mail, packages, or similar items processed for agencies to be sent through the United States postal service, private carrier services, or other courier services.
(7) "Internal mail" means interagency mail, packages, or similar items that are delivered or to be delivered to a state agency, the legislature, the supreme court, or the court of appeals, and their officers and employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.19 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall establish a consolidated mail service to handle all incoming, outgoing, and internal mail in the 98504 zip code area or successor zip code areas for agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area. The director may include additional geographic areas within the consolidated mail service, based upon his or her determination. The department shall also provide mail services to legislative and judicial agencies in the Olympia, Tumwater, and Lacey area upon request.

The director may transfer state agencies and other entities periodically for mail services rendered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. All employees of any state agency who are employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, or functions assigned to the department pursuant to section 3 of this act, may be transferred to the department of general administration. The office of financial management shall determine the number of employees to be transferred for efficient operation of the mail service. Upon such transfer to the department of general administration, such employees shall continue to be governed by the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, and shall retain their permanent or probationary status together with all rights, privileges, and immunities attaching thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department, in cooperation with the office of financial management, shall review current and prospective needs of state agencies for any equipment to process mail throughout state government. If after such consultation, the department should find that the economy, efficiency, or effectiveness of state government would be improved by such a transfer or other disposition, then the property shall be transferred or otherwise disposed.

After making such finding, the department shall direct the transfer of existing state property, facilities, and equipment pertaining to the consolidated mail service or United States postal service. Any dispute concerning the benefits in state governmental economy, efficiency, and effectiveness shall be resolved by the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993.,” and the same are herewith transmitted.

April 12, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5876 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that ride sharing and vanpools are the fastest growing transportation choice because of their flexibility and cost-effectiveness. Ride sharing and vanpools represent an effective means for local jurisdictions, transit agencies, and the private sector to assist in addressing the requirements of the Commute Trip Reduction Act, the Growth Management Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Clean Air Act.

Sec. 2. RCW 82.08.0287 and 1980 c 166 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:
The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply to sales of ( pasa

1.) passenger motor vehicles which are to be used (regularly) as ride-sharing vehicles, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(3), by not less than (seven) five persons, including ( passengers and) the driver, with a gross vehicle weight not to exceed 10,000 pounds where the primary usage is for commuter ride-sharing, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(1), or passenger motor vehicles where the primary usage is for ride-sharing for the elderly and the handicapped, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(2). If the ride-sharing vehicles are exempt under RCW 82.44.015 for thirty-six consecutive months beginning within thirty days of application for exemption under this section. If used as a ride-sharing vehicle for less than thirty-six consecutive months, the registered owner of one of these vehicles shall notify the department of revenue upon termination of primary use of the vehicle as a ride-sharing vehicle and is liable for the tax imposed by this chapter.

To qualify for the tax exemption, those passenger motor vehicles with five or six passengers, including the driver, used for commuter ride-sharing, must be operated either within the state's eight largest counties that are required to develop commute trip reduction plans as directed by chapter 70.94 RCW or in other counties, or cities and towns within those counties, that elect to adopt and implement a commute trip reduction plan. Additionally at least one of the following conditions must apply: (1) The vehicle must be operated by a public transportation agency for the general public; or (2) the vehicle must be used by a major employer, as defined in RCW 70.94.524 as an element of its commute trip reduction program for their employees; or (3) the vehicle must be owned and operated by individual employees and must be registered either with the employer as part of its commute trip reduction program or with a public transportation agency serving the area where the employees live or work. Individual employee owned and operated motor vehicles will require certification that the vehicle is registered with a major employer or a public transportation agency. agency. Major employers who own and operate motor vehicles for their employees must certify that the commuter ride-sharing arrangement conforms to a carpool/vanpool element contained within their commute trip reduction program.

Sec. 3. RCW 82.44.015 and 1982 c 142 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, in addition to the exclusions under RCW 82.44.010, "motor vehicle" shall not include: (1) (Vans) Passenger motor vehicles used (regularly) primarily as ride-sharing vehicles, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(3), by not fewer than ((seven)) five persons, including (passengers and the driver, or not fewer than ((five)) four persons including the driver, when at least (three) two of those persons are confined to wheelchairs when riding; or (2) vehicles with a seating capacity greater than fifteen persons which otherwise qualify as ride-sharing vehicles under RCW 46.74.010(3) used exclusively for ride sharing for the elderly or the handicapped by not fewer than seven persons, including the driver. This exemption is restricted to passenger motor vehicles with a gross vehicle weight not to exceed 10,000 pounds where the primary usage is for commuter ride-sharing as defined in RCW 46.74.010(1). The registered owner of one of these vehicles shall notify the department of licensing upon termination of (regular) primary use of the vehicle as a ride-sharing vehicle and shall be liable for the tax imposed by this chapter, prorated on the remaining months for which the vehicle is licensed.

To qualify for the tax exemption, those passenger motor vehicles with five or six passengers, including the driver, used for commuter ride-sharing, must be operated either within the state's eight largest counties that are required to develop commute trip reduction plans as directed by chapter 70.94 RCW or in other counties, or cities and towns within those counties, that elect to adopt and implement a commute trip reduction plan. Additionally at least one of the following conditions must apply: (1) The vehicle must be operated by a public transportation agency for the general public; or (2) the vehicle must be used by a major employer, as defined in RCW 70.94.524 as an element of its commute trip reduction program for their employees; or (3) the vehicle must be owned and operated by individual employees and must be registered either with the employer as part of its commute trip reduction program or with a public transportation agency serving the area where the employees live or work. Individual employee owned and operated motor vehicles will require certification that the vehicle is registered with a major employer or a public transportation agency. Major employers who own and operate motor vehicles for their employees must certify that the commuter ride-sharing arrangement conforms to a carpool/vanpool element contained within their commute trip reduction program.

Sec. 4. RCW 82.12.0282 and 1980 c 166 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The tax imposed by this chapter shall not apply with respect to the use of ((vans)) passenger motor vehicles used (regularly) as ride-sharing vehicles, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(3), by not less than ((seven)) five persons, including (passengers and the driver, with a gross vehicle weight not to exceed 10,000 pounds where the primary usage is for commuter ride-sharing, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(1), or passenger motor vehicles where the primary usage is for ride-sharing for the elderly and the handicapped, as defined in RCW 46.74.010(2), if the ((vans)) vehicles are exempt under RCW 82.44.015 for thirty-six consecutive months beginning with thirty days of application for exemption under this section. If the vehicle is a ride-sharing vehicle for less than thirty-six consecutive months, the registered owner of one of these vehicles shall notify the department of revenue upon termination of primary use of the vehicle as a ride-sharing vehicle and is liable for the tax imposed by this chapter.

To qualify for the tax exemption, those passenger motor vehicles with five or six passengers, including the driver, used for commuter ride-sharing, must be operated either within the state's eight largest counties that are required to develop commute trip reduction plans as directed by chapter 70.94 RCW or in other counties, or cities and towns within those counties, that elect to adopt and implement a commute trip reduction plan. Additionally at least one of the following conditions must apply: (1) The vehicle must be operated by a public transportation agency for the general public; or (2) the vehicle must be used by a major employer, as defined in RCW 70.94.524 as an element of its commute trip reduction program for their employees; or (3) the vehicle must be owned and operated by individual employees and must be registered either with the employer as part of its commute trip reduction program or with a public transportation agency serving the area where the employees live or work. Individual employee owned and operated motor vehicles will require certification that the vehicle is registered with a major employer or a public transportation agency. Major employers who own and operate motor vehicles for their employees must certify that the commuter ride-sharing arrangement conforms to a carpool/vanpool element contained within their commute trip reduction program.

Sec. 5. RCW 46.16.023 and 1987 c 175 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every owner or lessee of a vehicle seeking to apply for an excise tax exemption under RCW 82.08.0287, 82.12.0282, or 82.44.015 shall apply to the director for, and upon satisfactory showing of eligibility, receive in lieu of the regular motor vehicle license plates for that vehicle, special plates of a distinguishing separate numerical series or design, as the director shall prescribe. In addition to paying all other initial fees required by law, each applicant for license plates for that vehicle, special plates of a distinguishing separate numerical series or design, as the director shall prescribe.

(2) Whenever the ownership of a vehicle receiving special plates under subsection (1) of this section is transferred or assigned, the plates shall be removed from the motor vehicle, and another vehicle qualifying for special plates is acquired, the plates shall be transferred to that vehicle for a fee of five dollars, and the director shall be immediately notified of the transfer of the plates. Otherwise the removed plates shall be immediately forwarded to the director to be canceled. Whenever the owner or lessee of a vehicle receiving special plates under subsection (1) of this section is for any reason relieved of the tax-exempt status, the special plates shall immediately be forwarded to the director along with an application for replacement plates and the required fee. Upon receipt the director shall issue the license plates that are otherwise provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department shall adopt by rule a process requiring annual recertification upon renewal for vehicles registered under RCW 46.16.023 to discourage abuse of tax exemptions under RCW 82.08.0287, 82.12.0282, and 82.44.015. The department of licensing in consultation with the department of transportation shall submit a report to the legislative transportation committee and the house and senate standing committees on transportation by July 1, 1996, assessing the effectiveness of the department of licensing at limiting tax exemptions to bona fide ride-sharing vehicles.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. 1987 c 175 s 1 (uncodified) is repealed., and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

On page 1, after line 16, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes that the use of alcohol and other drugs during pregnancy can cause medical, psychological, and social problems for women and infants. The legislature further recognizes that communities are increasingly concerned about this problem and the associated costs to the mothers, infants, and society as a whole. The legislature recognizes that the department of health and other agencies are focusing on primary prevention activities to reduce the use of alcohol or drugs during pregnancy but few efforts have focused on secondary prevention efforts aimed at intervening in the lives of women already involved in the use of alcohol or other drugs during pregnancy. The legislature recognizes that the best way to prevent problems for chemically dependent pregnant women and their resulting children is to engage the women in alcohol or drug treatment. The legislature further recognizes that pretreatment services should be provided at locations where chemically dependent women are likely to be found, including correctional facilities, public health clinics, and domestic violence or homeless shelters. Therefore the legislature intends to prevent the detrimental effects of alcohol or other drug use to women and their resulting infants by promoting the establishment of local programs to help facilitate a woman's entry into alcohol or other drug treatment. These programs shall provide secondary prevention services and provision of opportunities for immediate treatment so that women who seek help are welcomed rather than ostracized.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Alcoholism" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on alcoholic beverages, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of alcohol use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning.

(2) "Approved treatment program" means a discrete program of chemical dependency treatment provided by a treatment program certified by the department of social and health services as meeting standards adopted under this chapter.

(3) "Assessment" means an interview with an individual to determine if he or she is chemically dependent and in need of referral to an approved treatment program.

(4) "Chemically dependent individual" means someone suffering from alcoholism or drug addiction, or dependence on alcohol or one or more other psychoactive chemicals.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The secretary shall develop and promote state-wide secondary prevention strategies designed to increase the use of alcohol and drug treatment services by women of child-bearing age, before, during, and immediately after pregnancy. These efforts are conducted through the division of alcohol and substance abuse. The secretary shall:

(1) Promote development of four pilot demonstration projects in the state to be called pretreatment projects for women of child bearing age. Two of the pilot projects are in urban areas and two are in rural areas.

(2) Ensure that two of the projects are located in public health department clinics that provide maternity services, one is located in a county correctional facility, and one is located with a domestic violence program.

(3) Hire four certified chemical dependency counselors to work as substance abuse educators in each of the four demonstration projects. The counselors may rotate between more than one clinic, correctional facility, or domestic violence program. The counselor for the domestic violence program shall also be trained in domestic violence issues.

(4) Ensure that the duties and activities of the certified chemical dependency counselors include, at a minimum, the following:

(a) Identifying substance-using pregnant women in the health clinics, correctional facilities, and domestic violence programs;
(b) Educating the women and agency staff on the effects of alcohol or drugs on health, pregnancy, and unborn children;
(c) Determining the extent of the women's substance use;
(d) Evaluating the women's need for treatment;
(e) Making referrals for chemical dependency treatment if indicated;
(f) Facilitating the women's entry into treatment; and
(g) Advocating on the client's behalf with other social service agencies or others to ensure and coordinate clients into treatment.

(5) Ensure that administrative costs of the department are limited to ten percent of the funds appropriated for the project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The sum of fifty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, from the general fund to the department of social and health services for the purposes of sections 4 and 5 of this act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Prentice, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "66.08 RCW;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; and making an appropriation."

(1) The official flag of the state of Washington shall be of dark green silk or bunting and shall bear in its center an embroidered, printed, painted, or stamped reproduction of the seal of the state of Washington. The edges of the flag may be fringed. If a fringe is used, it shall be of a gold or yellow color of the same shade as the seal. The dimensions of the flag may vary.

(2) The secretary of state is authorized, in his or her discretion, to provide the state flag without charge:

(a) To units of the armed forces, in memory of a state employee killed in the performance of his or her duties for the state;

(b) In memory of a current or former elected or appointed state official upon the death of that person; or

(c) To a citizen who has performed outstanding service for the benefit of the state.

The secretary of state is further authorized to sell the state flag to any citizen at a price to be determined by the secretary of state.

(3) The secretary of state is authorized to accept or request grants or gifts from citizens and other private sources to be used to defray the cost of appropriate hosting of visiting state, national, and international guests, including gift-giving and reciprocal gift-giving on behalf of the state of Washington. The office shall maintain a bank account into which it shall deposit all money received under this subsection. This money together with any interest which accrues shall not constitute public funds, shall be kept segregated and apart from funds of the state, and shall not be subject to appropriation or allotment by the state or subject to chapter 43.88 RCW. The secretary of state shall submit an annual accounting of all receipts, accruals, and expenditures to the state auditor within thirty days of the close of each fiscal year."

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "remembrances," strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 1.20.010."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1792, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Insofar as this appears to be an amendment to the provisions of Initiative 134, does this bill require a super majority in order to be adopted?"

At 4:45 p.m., there being no objection, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 4:49 p.m. by President Pritchard.
President Pritchard: "In responding to the question raised by Senator Talmadge, the Chair agrees that it takes a two-thirds vote for this measure to pass on final passage."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1792, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1792, as amended by the Senate, and the bill failed to receive a two-thirds majority by the following vote: Yeas, 19; Nays, 23; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, Barr, Cantu, Drew, Enwin, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McDonald, Moore, Oke, Quigley, Sellar, Skrake, Smith, A., Smith, L., Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West and Wojahn - 23.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Bluechel, Franklin, McCaslin, Moyer, Niemi and Rinehart - 7.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1792, as amended by the Senate, having failed to receive the two-thirds constitutional majority, was declared lost.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1560, by House Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Appelwick, Leonard, Karahalios and Johanson)

Adopting the uniform interstate family support act.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Adam Smith moved that the following Committee on Law and Justice amendment not be adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"ARTICLE 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:
(1) "Child" means an individual, whether over or under the age of majority, who is or is alleged to be owed a duty of support by the individual's parent or who is or is alleged to be the beneficiary of a support order directed to the parent.
(2) "Child support order" means a support order for a child, including a child who has attained the age of majority under the law of the issuing state.
(3) "Duty of support" means an obligation imposed or imposable by law to provide support for a child, spouse, or former spouse, including an unsatisfied obligation to provide support.
(4) "Home state" means the state in which a child lived with a parent or a person acting as parent for at least six consecutive months immediately preceding the time of filing of a petition or comparable pleading for support and, if a child is less than six months old, the state in which the child lived from birth with any of them. A period of temporary absence of any of them is counted as part of the six-month or other period.
(5) "Income" includes earnings or other periodic entitlements to money from any source and any other property subject to withholding for support under the law of this state.
(6) "Income-withholding order" means an order or other legal process directed to an obligor's employer or other debtor, as defined by chapter 6.27 RCW, to withhold support from the income of the obligor.
(7) "Initiating state" means a state in which a proceeding under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act is filed for forwarding to a responding state.
(8) "Initiating tribunal" means the authorized tribunal in an initiating state.
(9) "Issuing state" means the state in which a tribunal issues a support order or renders a judgment determining parentage.
(10) "Issuing tribunal" means the tribunal that issues a support order or renders a judgment determining parentage.
(11) "Law" includes decisional and statutory law and rules and regulations having the force of law.
(12) "Obligee" means:
(a) An individual to whom a duty of support is or is alleged to be owed or in whose favor a support order has been issued or a judgment determining parentage has been rendered;
(b) A state or political subdivision to which the rights under a duty of support or support order have been assigned or which has independent claims based on financial assistance provided to an individual obligee; or
(c) An individual seeking a judgment determining parentage of the individual's child.
(13) "Obligor" means an individual, or the estate of a decedent:
(a) Who owes or is alleged to owe a duty of support;
(b) Who is alleged but has not been adjudicated to be a parent of a child; or
(c) Who is liable under a support order.

14. "Register" means to record or file in the appropriate location for the recording or filing of foreign judgments generally or foreign support orders specifically, a support order or judgment determining parentage.

15. "Registering tribunal" means a tribunal in which a support order is registered.

16. "Responding state" means a state to which a proceeding is forwarded under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act.

17. "Responding tribunal" means the authorized tribunal in a responding state.

18. "Spousal support order" means a support order for a spouse or former spouse of the obligor.

19. "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. The term "state" includes an Indian tribe and includes a foreign jurisdiction that has established procedures for issuance and enforcement of support orders that are substantially similar to the procedures under this chapter.

20. "Support enforcement agency" means a public official or agency authorized to seek:
   (a) Enforcement of support orders or laws relating to the duty of support;
   (b) Establishment or modification of child support;
   (c) Determination of parentage; or
   (d) Location of obligors or their assets.

21. "Support order" means a judgment, decree, or order, whether temporary, final, or subject to modification, for the benefit of a child, a spouse, or a former spouse, that provides for monetary support, health care, arrearages, or reimbursement, and may include related costs and fees, interest, income withholding, attorneys' fees, and other relief.

22. "Tribunal" means a court, administrative agency, or quasi-judicial entity authorized to establish, enforce, or modify support orders or to determine parentage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. BASES FOR JURISDICTION OVER NONRESIDENT. In a proceeding to establish, enforce, or modify a support order or to determine parentage, a tribunal of this state may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident individual or the individual's guardian or conservator if:

1. The individual is personally served with summons within this state;
2. The individual submits to the jurisdiction of this state by consent, by entering a general appearance, or by filing a responsive document having the effect of waiving any contest to personal jurisdiction;
3. The individual resides with the child in this state;
4. The individual resided in this state and provided prenatal expenses or support for the child;
5. The child resides in this state as a result of the acts or directives of the individual;
6. The individual engaged in sexual intercourse in this state and the child may have been conceived by that act of intercourse; or
7. There is any other basis consistent with the Constitutions of this state and the United States for the exercise of personal jurisdiction.

A tribunal may not exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident as provided in this section for the purpose of establishing, enforcing, or modifying a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. PROCEDURE WHEN EXERCISING JURISDICTION OVER NONRESIDENT. A tribunal of this state exercising personal jurisdiction over a nonresident under section 201 of this act may apply section 316 of this act to receive evidence from another state, and section 318 of this act to obtain discovery through a tribunal of another state. In all other respects, Articles 3 through 7 of this act do not apply and the tribunal shall apply the procedural and substantive law of this state, including the rules on choice of law other than those established by this chapter.

PART B PROCEEDINGS INVOLVING TWO OR MORE STATES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 203. INITIATING AND RESPONDING TRIBUNAL OF THIS STATE. Under this chapter, a tribunal of this state may serve as an initiating tribunal to forward proceedings to another state and as a responding tribunal for proceedings initiated in another state. However, a tribunal of this state may not serve as an initiating or responding tribunal for purposes of establishing, enforcing, or modifying a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. SIMULTANEOUS PROCEEDINGS IN ANOTHER STATE. (1) A tribunal of this state may exercise jurisdiction to establish a support order if the petition or comparable pleading is filed after a petition or comparable pleading is filed in another state only if:
   a. The petition or comparable pleading in this state is filed before the expiration of the time allowed in the other state for filing a responsive pleading challenging the exercise of jurisdiction by the other state;
   b. The contesting party timely challenges the exercise of jurisdiction in the other state; and
   c. If relevant, this state is the home state of the child.

(2) A tribunal of this state may not exercise jurisdiction to establish a support order if the petition or comparable pleading is filed before a petition or comparable pleading is filed in another state if:
(a) The petition or comparable pleading in the other state is filed before the expiration of the time allowed in this state for filing a responsive pleading challenging the exercise of jurisdiction by this state;
(b) The contesting party timely challenges the exercise of jurisdiction by this state; and
(c) If relevant, the other state is the home state of the child.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 205. CONTINUING, EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION. (1) A tribunal of this state issuing a support order consistent with the law of this state has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a child support order:
(a) As long as this state remains the residence of the obligor, the individual obligee, or the child for whose benefit the support order is issued; or
(b) Until each individual party has filed written consent with the tribunal of this state for a tribunal of another state to modify the order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

(2) A tribunal of this state issuing a child support order consistent with the law of this state may not exercise its continuing jurisdiction to modify the order if the order has been modified by a tribunal of another state pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter.

(3) If a child support order of this state is modified by a tribunal of another state pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter, a tribunal of this state loses its continuing, exclusive jurisdiction with regard to prospective enforcement of the order issued in this state, and may only:
(a) Enforce the order that was modified as to amounts accruing before the modification;
(b) Enforce nonmodifiable aspects of that order; and
(c) Provide other appropriate relief for violations of that order which occurred before the effective date of the modification.

(4) A tribunal of this state shall recognize the continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of a tribunal of another state that has issued a child support order pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter.

(5) A temporary support order issued ex parte or pending resolution of a jurisdictional conflict does not create continuing, exclusive jurisdiction in the issuing tribunal.

(6) A tribunal of this state issuing a support order consistent with the law of this state has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a spousal support order throughout the existence of the support obligation. A tribunal of this state may not modify a spousal support order issued by a tribunal of another state having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over that order under the law of that state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 206. ENFORCEMENT AND MODIFICATION OF SUPPORT ORDER BY TRIBUNAL HAVING CONTINUING JURISDICTION. (1) A tribunal of this state may serve as an initiating tribunal to request a tribunal of another state to enforce or modify a support order issued in that state.

(2) A tribunal of this state having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a support order may act as a responding tribunal to enforce or modify the order. If a party subject to the continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of the tribunal no longer resides in the issuing state, in subsequent proceedings the tribunal may apply section 316 of this act to receive evidence from another state and section 318 of this act to obtain discovery through a tribunal of another state.

(3) A tribunal of this state that lacks continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over a spousal support order may not serve as a responding tribunal to modify a spousal support order of another state.

PART C RECONCILIATION WITH ORDERS OF OTHER STATES

NEW SECTION, Sec. 207. RECOGNITION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS. (1) If a proceeding is brought under this chapter, and one or more child support orders have been issued in this or another state with regard to an obligor and a child, a tribunal of this state shall apply the following rules in determining which order to recognize for purposes of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction:
(a) If only one tribunal has issued a child support order, the order of that tribunal must be recognized.
(b) If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and only one of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, the order of that tribunal must be recognized.
(c) If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and more than one of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, an order issued by a tribunal in the current home state of the child must be recognized, but if an order has not been issued in the current home state of the child, the order most recently issued must be recognized.
(d) If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and child, and none of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, the tribunal of this state may issue a child support order, which must be recognized.

(2) The tribunal that has issued an order recognized under subsection (1) of this section is the tribunal having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 208. MULTIPLE CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS FOR TWO OR MORE OBLIGEES. In responding to multiple registrations or petitions for enforcement of two or more child support orders in effect at the same time with regard to the same obligor and different individual obligees, at least one of which was issued by a tribunal of another state, a tribunal of this state shall enforce those orders in the same manner as if the multiple orders had been issued by a tribunal of this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 209. CREDIT FOR PAYMENTS. Amounts collected and credited for a particular period pursuant to a support order issued by a tribunal of another state must be credited against the amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under a support order issued by the tribunal of this state.

ARTICLE 3 CIVIL PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

NEW SECTION, Sec. 301. PROCEEDINGS UNDER THIS CHAPTER. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, this article applies to all proceedings under this chapter.

(2) This chapter provides for the following proceedings:
(a) Establishment of an order for spousal support or child support pursuant to Article 4 of this act;
NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. ACTION BY MINOR PARENT. A minor parent, or a guardian or other legal representative of a minor parent, may maintain a proceeding on behalf of or for the benefit of the minor’s child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 303. APPLICATION OF LAW OF THIS STATE. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, a responding tribunal of this state:

(1) Shall apply the procedural and substantive law, including the rules on choice of law, generally applicable to similar proceedings originating in this state and may exercise all powers and provide all remedies available in those proceedings; and

(2) Shall determine the duty of support and the amount payable in accordance with the law and support guidelines of this state except a responding tribunal of this state shall not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 304. DUTIES OF INITIATING TRIBUNAL. Upon the filing of a petition authorized by this chapter, an initiating tribunal of this state shall forward three copies of the petition and its accompanying documents:

(1) To the responding tribunal or appropriate support enforcement agency in the responding state; or

(2) If the identity of the responding tribunal is unknown, to the state information agency of the responding state with a request that they be forwarded to the appropriate tribunal and that receipt be acknowledged.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. DUTIES AND POWERS OF RESPONDING TRIBUNAL. (1) When a responding tribunal of this state receives a petition or comparable pleading from an initiating tribunal or directly pursuant to section 301(3) of this act, it shall cause the petition or pleading to be filed and notify the petitioner by first class mail where and when it was filed.

(2) A responding tribunal of this state, to the extent otherwise authorized by law, may do one or more of the following:

(a) Issue or enforce a support order, modify a child support order, or render a judgment to determine parenthood;

(b) Order an obligor to comply with a support order, specifying the amount and the manner of compliance;

(c) Order income withholding;

(d) Determine the amount of any arrearages, and specify a method of payment;

(e) Enforce orders by civil or criminal contempt, or both;

(f) Place liens and order execution on the obligor’s property;

(g) Set aside property for satisfaction of the support order;

(h) Order an obligor to keep the tribunal informed of the obligor’s current residential address, telephone number, employer, address of employment, and telephone number at the place of employment;

(i) Issue a bench warrant or writ of arrest for an obligor who has failed after proper notice to appear at a hearing ordered by the tribunal and enter the bench warrant or writ of arrest in any local and state computer systems for criminal warrants;

(j) Order the obligor to seek appropriate employment by specified methods;

(k) Award reasonable attorneys’ fees and other fees and costs; and

(l) Grant any other available remedy.

(3) A responding tribunal of this state shall include in a support order issued under this chapter, or in the documents accompanying the order, the calculations on which the support order is based.

(4) A responding tribunal of this state may not condition the payment of a support order issued under this chapter upon compliance by a party with provisions for visitation. A responding tribunal of this state may not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

(5) If a responding tribunal of this state issues an order under this chapter, the tribunal shall send a copy of the order by first class mail to the petitioner and the respondent and to the initiating tribunal, if any.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. INAPPROPRIATE TRIBUNAL. If a petition or comparable pleading is received by an inappropriate tribunal of this state, it shall forward the pleading and accompanying documents to an appropriate tribunal in this state or another state and notify the petitioner by first class mail where and when the pleading was sent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. DUTIES OF SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT AGENCY. (1) A support enforcement agency of this state, upon request, shall provide services to a petitioner in a proceeding under this chapter.

(2) A support enforcement agency that is providing services to the petitioner as appropriate shall:

(a) Take all steps necessary to enable an appropriate tribunal in this state or another state to obtain jurisdiction over the respondent;

(b) Request an appropriate tribunal to set a date, time, and place for a hearing;

(c) Make a reasonable effort to obtain all relevant information, including information as to income and property of the parties;

(d) Within two days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after receipt of a written notice from an initiating, responding, or registering tribunal, send a copy of the notice by first class mail to the petitioner;

(e) Within two days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after receipt of a written communication from the respondent or the respondent’s attorney, send a copy of the communication by first class mail to the petitioner; and

(f) Notify the petitioner if jurisdiction over the respondent cannot be obtained.

(3) This chapter does not create or negate a relationship of attorney and client or other fiduciary relationship between a support enforcement agency or the attorney for the agency and the individual being assisted by the agency.
charges were reasonable, necessary, and customary. The adverse party at least ten days before trial, are admissible in evidence to prove the amount of the charges billed and the payments were made.

The attorney's own name. The petition and accompanying documents must conform substantially with the requirements imposed by the forms mandated by federal law for use in cases filed by a support enforcement agency.

Nondisclosure of information in exceptional circumstances. Upon a finding, which may be made ex parte, that the health, safety, or liberty of a party or child would be unreasonably put at risk by the disclosure of identifying information, or if an existing order so provides, a tribunal shall order that the address of the child or party or other identifying information not be disclosed in a pleading or other document filed in a proceeding under this chapter.

Costs and fees. (1) The petitioner may not be required to pay a filing fee or other costs. (2) If an obligee prevails in a support enforcement proceeding, a responding tribunal may assess against an obligor filing fees, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred by the obligee and the obligee's witnesses. The tribunal in a support enforcement proceeding may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against the obligee or the support enforcement agency of either the initiating or the responding state, except as provided by RCW 4.84.080, civil rule 11 or, if the obligee or the support enforcement agency has acted in bad faith. (3) A responding tribunal may assess filing fees, reasonable attorneys' fees, and other costs to either party, and necessary travel and other reasonable costs incurred by the obligee and the obligee's witnesses. The petition and accompanying documents must provide, so far as known, the name, residential address, and social security numbers of the obligor and the obligee, and the name, sex, residential address, social security number, and date of birth of each child for whom support is sought. The petition must be accompanied by a certified copy of any support order in effect. The petition may include any other information that may assist in locating or identifying the respondent.

Limited immunity of petitioner. (1) Participation by a petitioner in a proceeding before a responding tribunal, whether in person, by private attorney, or through services provided by the support enforcement agency, does not confer personal jurisdiction over the petitioner in another proceeding. Assessments under this section shall be made in accordance with RCW 4.84.080 and 26.09.140 and civil rule 11. (4) Attorneys' fees may be taxed as costs, and may be ordered paid directly to the attorney, who may enforce the order in the attorney's own name. Payment of support owed to the obligee has priority over fees, costs, and expenses. (5) The tribunal shall order the payment of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees if it determines that a hearing was requested primarily for delay.

Limited immunity of petitioner. (1) Participation by a petitioner in a proceeding before a responding tribunal, whether in person, by private attorney, or through services provided by the support enforcement agency, does not confer personal jurisdiction over the petitioner in another proceeding. Assessments under this section shall be made in accordance with RCW 4.84.080 and 26.09.140 and civil rule 11. (2) A petitioner is not amenable to service of civil process while physically present in this state to participate in a proceeding under this chapter.

The immunity granted by this section does not extend to civil litigation based on acts unrelated to a proceeding under this chapter, committed by a party while present in this state to participate in the proceeding.

Nonparentage as defense. A party whose parentage of a child has been previously determined by order of a tribunal may not plead nonparentage as a defense to a proceeding under this chapter.

Special rules of evidence and procedure. (1) The physical presence of the petitioner in a responding tribunal of this state is not required for the establishment, enforcement, or modification of a support order or the rendition of a judgment determining parentage. (2) A verified petition, affidavit, document substantially complying with federally mandated forms, and a document incorporated by reference in any of them, not excluded under the hearsay rule if given in person, is admissible in evidence if given under oath by a party or witness residing in another state. (3) A copy of the record of child support payments certified as a true copy of the original by the custodian of the record may be forwarded to a responding tribunal. The copy is evidence of facts asserted in it, and is admissible to show whether payments were made. (4) Copies of bills for testing for parentage, and for prenatal and postnatal health care of the mother and child, furnished to the adverse party at least ten days before trial, are admissible in evidence to prove the amount of the charges billed and that the charges were reasonable, necessary, and customary.
ARTICLE 4 ESTABLISHMENT OF SUPPORT ORDER

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. PETITION TO ESTABLISH SUPPORT ORDER. (1) If a support order entitled to recognition under this chapter has not been issued, a responding tribunal of this state may issue a support order if:
   (a) The individual seeking the order resides in another state; or
   (b) The support enforcement agency seeking the order is located in another state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. RECEPTION AND DISBURSEMENT OF PAYMENTS. A support enforcement agency or tribunal of this state shall disburse promptly any amounts received pursuant to a support order, as directed by the order. The agency or tribunal shall furnish to a requesting party or tribunal of another state a certified statement by the custodian of the record of the amounts and dates of all payments received.

ARTICLE 5 DIRECT ENFORCEMENT OF ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE WITHOUT REGISTRATION

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. RECOGNITION OF INCOME-WITHHOLDING ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE. (1) An income-withholding order issued in another state may be sent by first class mail to the person or entity defined as the obligor's employer under chapter 6.27 RCW without first filing a petition or comparable pleading or registering the order with a tribunal of this state. Upon receipt of the order, the employer shall:
   (a) Treat an income-withholding order issued in another state that appears regular on its face as if it had been issued by a tribunal of this state;
   (b) Immediately provide a copy of the order to the obligor; and
   (c) Distribute the funds as directed in the income-withholding order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 502. ADMINISTRATIVE ENFORCEMENT OF ORDERS. (1) A party seeking to enforce a support order or an income-withholding order, or both, issued by a tribunal of another state may send the documents required for registering the order to a support enforcement agency of this state.
   (2) Upon receipt of the documents, the support enforcement agency, without initially seeking to register the order, shall consider and, if appropriate, use any administrative procedure authorized by the law of this state to enforce a support order or an income-withholding order, or both. The support enforcement agency may not attempt to enforce a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over. If the obligor does not contest administrative enforcement, the order need not be registered. If the obligor contests the validity or administrative enforcement of the order, the support enforcement agency shall register the order pursuant to this chapter.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 601. REGISTRATION OF ORDER FOR ENFORCEMENT. A support order or an income-withholding order issued by a tribunal of another state may be registered in this state for enforcement.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 602. PROCEDURE TO REGISTER ORDER FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) A support order or income-withholding order of another state may be registered in this state by sending the following documents and information to the superior court of any county in this state where the obligor resides, works, or has property:
   (a) A letter of transmittal to the tribunal requesting registration and enforcement;
   (b) Two copies, including one certified copy, of all orders to be registered, including any modification of an order;
   (c) A sworn statement by the party seeking registration or a certified statement by the custodian of the records showing the amount of any arrearages;
   (d) The name of the obligor and, if known:
      (i) The obligor's address and social security number;
      (ii) The name and address of the obligor's employer and any other source of income of the obligor; and
      (iii) A description and the location of property of the obligor in this state not exempt from execution; and
   (e) The name and address of the obligee and, if applicable, the agency or person to whom support payments are to be remitted.
   (2) On receipt of a request for registration, the registering tribunal shall cause the order to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one copy of the documents and information, regardless of their form.
   (3) A petition or comparable pleading seeking a remedy that must be affirmatively sought under other law of this state may be filed at the same time as the request for registration or later. The pleading must specify the grounds for the remedy sought.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 603. EFFECT OF REGISTRATION FOR ENFORCEMENT. (1) A support order or income-withholding order issued in another state is registered when the order is filed in the registering tribunal of this state.
   (2) A registered order issued in another state is enforceable in the same manner and is subject to the same procedures as an order issued by a tribunal of this state except a tribunal of this state shall not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.
   (3) Except as otherwise provided in this article, a tribunal of this state shall recognize and enforce, but may not modify, a registered order if the issuing tribunal had jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 604. CHOICE OF LAW. (1) The law of the issuing state governs the nature, extent, amount, and duration of current payments and other obligations of support and the payment of arrearages under the order.
   (2) In a proceeding for arrearages, the statute of limitations under the laws of this state or of the issuing state, whichever is longer, applies.

PART B CONTEST OF VALIDITY OR ENFORCEMENT

NEW SECTION, Sec. 605. NOTICE OF REGISTRATION OF ORDER. (1) When a support order or income-withholding order issued in another state is registered, the registering tribunal shall notify the nonregistering party. Notice must be given by certified or registered mail or by any means of personal service authorized by the law of this state. The notice must be accompanied by a copy of the registered order and the documents and relevant information accompanying the order.
   (2) The notice must inform the nonregistering party:
      (a) That a registered order is enforceable as of the date of registration in the same manner as an order issued by a tribunal of this state;
      (b) That a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order must be requested within twenty days after the date of receipt by certified or registered mail or personal service of the notice given to a nonregistering party within this state and within sixty days after the date of receipt by certified or registered mail or personal service of the notice on a nonregistering party outside of the state;
      (c) That failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner will result in confirmation of the order and enforcement of the order and the alleged arrearages and precludes further contest of that order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted; and
      (d) Of the amount of any alleged arrearages.
   (3) Upon registration of an income-withholding order for enforcement, the registering tribunal shall notify the obligor's employer pursuant to the income-withholding law of this state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 606. PROCEDURE TO CONTEST VALIDITY OR ENFORCEMENT OF REGISTERED ORDER. (1) A nonregistering party seeking to contest the validity or enforcement of a registered order in this state shall request a hearing within twenty days after the date of receipt of certified or registered mail or the date of personal service of notice of the registration on the nonmoving party within this state, or, within sixty days after the receipt of certified or registered mail or personal service of the notice on the nonmoving party outside of the state. The nonregistering party may seek to vacate the registration, to assert any defense to an allegation of noncompliance with the registered order, or to contest the remedies being sought or the amount of any alleged arrearages pursuant to section 607 of this act.
   (2) If the nonregistering party fails to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner, the order is confirmed by operation of law.
   (3) If a nonregistering party requests a hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order, the registering tribunal shall schedule the matter for hearing and give notice to the parties by first class mail of the date, time, and place of the hearing.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 607. CONTEST OF REGISTRATION OR ENFORCEMENT. (1) A party contesting the validity or enforcement of a registered order or seeking to vacate the registration has the burden of proving one or more of the following defenses:

(a) The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction over the contesting party;
(b) The order was obtained by fraud;
(c) The order has been vacated, suspended, or modified by a later order;
(d) The issuing tribunal has stayed the order pending appeal;
(e) There is a defense under the law of this state to the remedy sought;
(f) Full or partial payment has been made; or
(g) The statute of limitation under section 604 of this act precludes enforcement of some or all of the arrearages.

(2) If a party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense under subsection (1) of this section, a tribunal may stay enforcement of the registered order, continue the proceeding to permit production of additional relevant evidence, and issue other appropriate orders. An uncontested portion of the registered order may be enforced by all remedies available under the law of this state.

(3) If the contesting party does not establish a defense under subsection (1) of this section to the validity or enforcement of the order, the registering tribunal shall issue an order confirming the order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 608. CONFIRMED ORDER. Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice and hearing, precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter that could have been asserted at the time of registration.

PART C REGISTRATION AND MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDER

NEW SECTION. Sec. 609. PROCEDURE TO REGISTER CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE FOR MODIFICATION. A party or support enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a child support order issued in another state shall register that order in this state in the same manner provided in Part A of this article if the order has not been registered. A petition for modification may be filed at the same time as a request for registration, or later. The pleading must specify the grounds for modification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 610. EFFECT OF REGISTRATION FOR MODIFICATION. A tribunal of this state may enforce a child support order of another state registered for purposes of modification, in the same manner as if the order had been issued by a tribunal of this state, but the registered order may be modified only if the requirements of section 611 of this act have been met.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 611. MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDER OF ANOTHER STATE. (1) After a child support order issued in another state has been registered in this state, the responding tribunal of this state may modify that order only if, after notice and hearing, it finds that:

(a) The following requirements are met:
   (i) The child, the individual obligee, and the obligor do not reside in the issuing state;
   (ii) A petitioner who is a nonresident of this state seeks modification; and
   (iii) The respondent is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal of this state; or
   (b) An individual party or the child is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal and all of the individual parties have filed a written consent in the issuing tribunal providing that a tribunal of this state may modify the support order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the order.

(2) Modification of a registered child support order is subject to the same requirements, procedures, and defenses that apply to the modification of an order issued by a tribunal of this state and the order may be enforced and satisfied in the same manner.

(3) A tribunal of this state may not modify any aspect of a child support order that may not be modified under the law of the issuing state. A tribunal of this state may not modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

(4) On issuance of an order modifying a child support order issued in another state, a tribunal of this state becomes the tribunal of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

(5) Within thirty days after issuance of a modified child support order, the party obtaining the modification shall file a certified copy of the order with the issuing tribunal which had continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the earlier order, and in each tribunal in which the party knows that earlier order has been registered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 612. RECOGNITION OF ORDER MODIFIED IN ANOTHER STATE. A tribunal of this state shall recognize a modification of its earlier child support order by a tribunal of another state that assumed jurisdiction pursuant to a law substantially similar to this chapter and, upon request, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall:

(1) Enforce the order that was modified only as to amounts accruing before the modification;
(2) Enforce only nonmodifiable aspects of that order;
(3) Provide other appropriate relief only for violations of that order which occurred before the effective date of the modification; and
(4) Recognize the modifying order of the other state, upon registration, for the purpose of enforcement except a tribunal of this state shall not establish, enforce, or modify a support order for postsecondary educational support of a child eighteen years of age or over.

ARTICLE 7 DETERMINATION OF PARENTAGE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 701. PROCEEDING TO DETERMINE PARENTAGE. (1) A tribunal of this state may serve as an initiating or responding tribunal in a proceeding brought under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act to determine that the petitioner is a parent of a particular child or to determine that a respondent is a parent of that child.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. GROUNDS FOR RENDITION. (1) For purposes of this article, "governor" includes an individual performing the functions of governor or the executive authority of a state covered by this chapter.

(2) The governor of this state may:

(a) Demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual found in the other state who is charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee; or

(b) On the demand by the governor of another state, surrender an individual found in this state who is charged criminally in the other state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee.

(3) A provision for extradition of individuals not inconsistent with this chapter applies to the demand even if the individual whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state when the crime was allegedly committed and has not fled from the demanding state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. CONDITIONS OF RENDITION. (1) Before making demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee, the governor of this state may require a prosecutor of this state to demonstrate that at least sixty days previously the obligee had initiated proceedings for support pursuant to this chapter or that the proceeding would be of no avail.

(2) If, under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, or the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act, the governor of another state makes a demand that the governor of this state surrender an individual charged criminally in that state with having failed to provide for the support of a child or other individual to whom a duty of support is owed, the governor may require a prosecutor to investigate the demand and report whether a proceeding for support has been initiated or would be effective. If it appears that a proceeding would be effective but has not been initiated, the governor may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit the initiation of a proceeding.

(3) If a proceeding for support has been initiated and the individual whose rendition is demanded prevails, the governor may decline to honor the demand. If the petitioner prevails and the individual whose rendition is demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may decline to honor the demand if the individual is complying with the support order.

ARTICLE 9 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 803. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 905. CODIFICATION. Sections 101 through 903 of this act are each added to chapter 26.21 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 906. CAPTIONS, PART HEADINGS, AND ARTICLE DESIGNATIONS NOT LAW. Captions, part headings, and article designations as used in this act constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 907. EFFECTIVE DATE. This act shall take effect July 1, 1994."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House had passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 8016 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, beginning on line 1, strike everything through “Washington.” on page 3, line 2, and insert the following:

“TO THE HONORABLE BILL CLINTON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, AND TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE AND THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, AND TO THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED, AND TO THE SECRETARY OF THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, AND TO THE FEDERAL FOOD SAFETY AND INSPECTION SERVICE, AND TO THE CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL AND PREVENTION, AND TO THE FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION:

We, your Memorialists, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Washington, in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent and petition as follows:
WHEREAS, A great public health alarm has been caused in Washington state with over four hundred fifty people confirmed as having contracted Escherichia coli 0157:H7 since early December of 1992; and
WHEREAS, E. coli 0157:H7 has caused the death of three children, over one hundred fifty people have been hospitalized as of February 20, 1993, and thirty children have suffered hemolytic uremic syndrome, a serious side effect that causes kidney dysfunction and affects the blood clotting system; and
WHEREAS, People have contracted the infection by eating insufficiently cooked hamburger that had this particular strain of E. coli bacteria which contaminated the meat during or after the time of slaughter; and
WHEREAS, The extent that this newly detected strain of highly toxic bacteria is causing infections elsewhere in the United States is not accurately known because most other states have not designated E. coli 0157:H7 as a reportable disease; and
WHEREAS, Though citizens of the United States have enjoyed the safest food supply in the world, this outbreak has eroded confidence in food safety in general and meat inspection in particular, and unless the problem is fully addressed, additional outbreaks are likely to occur;
NOW, THEREFORE, Your memorialists respectfully pray that the appropriate federal agencies, including, but not limited to, the Food Safety and Inspection Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the Food and Drug Administration form a task force to:
(1) Promptly and fully investigate and monitor outbreaks of E. coli 0157:H7 throughout the United States in cooperation with state and local governments; (2) examine the full food chain process from farm to table to determine how improvements may be made to better guarantee the safety of our food supply; (3) examine whether meat and meat products imported into this country comply with comparable inspection and health standards as does domestically processed meat; (4) designate E. coli 0157:H7 as a reportable disease throughout the nation; and (5) start the process needed to update the Food and Drug Administration Model Food Code to reflect the new knowledge and technology that impact food safety.
BE IT RESOLVED, That the federal Food Safety and Inspection Service is requested to provide a written report to the Washington state legislature in January 1994 of the changes and improvements that have been accomplished to address this public health issue; and
BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this Memorial be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Bill Clinton, President of the United States, Mike Espy, Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture, the federal Food Safety and Inspection Service, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Food and Drug Administration, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the State of Washington; and

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House had passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5443 with the following amendment(s):

"Sec. 1. RCW 16.65.030 and 1991 c 17 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after June 10, 1959, no person shall operate a public livestock market without first having obtained a license from the director. Application for such license or renewal thereof shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the director, and shall include the following:

(a) A legal description of the property upon which the public livestock market shall be located.
(b) A complete description and blueprints or plans of the public livestock market physical plant, yards, pens, and all facilities the applicant proposes to use in the operation of such public livestock market.
(c) A detailed statement showing all the assets and liabilities of the applicant which must reflect a sufficient net worth to construct or operate a public livestock market.
(d) The schedule of rates and charges the applicant proposes to impose on the owners of livestock for services rendered in the operation of such livestock market.
(e) The weekly or monthly sales day or days on which the applicant proposes to operate his or her public livestock market sales.
(f) Projected source and quantity of livestock, by county, anticipated to be handled.
(g) Projected income and expense statements for the first year's operation.
(h) Facts upon which are based the conclusion that the trade area and the livestock industry will benefit because of the proposed market.
(i) Such other information as the director may reasonably require.

(2) The director shall, after public hearing as provided by chapter 34.05 RCW, grant or deny an application for original license for a public livestock market after considering evidence and testimony relating to all of the requirements of this section and giving reasonable consideration at the same hearing to:

(a) Benefits to the livestock industry to be derived from the establishment and operation of the public livestock market proposed in the application; and
(b) The present market services elsewhere available to the trade area proposed to be served.

(3) Such application shall be accompanied by a license fee based on the average gross sales volume per sales day of that market:

(a) Markets with an average gross sales volume up to and including ten thousand dollars, a fee of no less than one hundred ([dollars fee]) dollars or more than one hundred fifty dollars;
(b) Markets with an average gross sales volume over ten thousand dollars and up to and including fifty thousand dollars, a fee of no less than two hundred ([dollars fee]) dollars or more than three hundred fifty dollars; and
(c) Markets with an average gross sales volume over fifty thousand dollars, a fee of no less than three hundred ([dollars fee]) dollars or more than four hundred fifty dollars.

The fees for public livestock market licenses shall be set by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act.

(4) Any applicant operating more than one public livestock market shall make a separate application for a license to operate each such public livestock market, and each such application shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee.

(5) Upon the approval of the application by the director and compliance with the provisions of this chapter, the applicant shall be issued a license or renewal thereof. Any license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall only be valid at location and for the sales day or days for which the license was issued.

Sec. 2. RCW 16.65.090 and 1983 c 298 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall provide for brand inspection. When such brand inspection is required the licensee shall collect from the consignor and pay to the department, as provided by law, a fee for brand inspection for each animal consigned to the public livestock market or special open consignment horse sale(=(i) PROVIDED. That if in any one sale day the total fees collected for brand inspection do not exceed sixty dollars, then such licensee shall pay sixty dollars for each brand inspection or as much thereof as the director may prescribe). The director shall set by rule, adopted after a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act, a minimum daily inspection fee that shall be paid to the department by the licensee. Such a fee shall be not less than sixty dollars and not more than ninety dollars.
The director shall establish by rule a schedule for the renewal of registered brands. The fee for renewal of the brands shall be no less than twenty-five dollars for each two-year period of brand ownership, except that the director may, in adopting a renewal schedule, provide for the collection of renewal fees on a prorated basis and may by rule increase the registration and renewal fee for brands by no more than fifty percent subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. At least one hundred twenty days before the expiration of a registered brand, the director shall notify by letter the owner of record of the brand that on the payment of the requisite application fee and application of renewal the director shall issue the proof of payment allowing the brand owner exclusive ownership and use of the brand for the subsequent registration period. The failure of the registered owner to pay the renewal fee by the date required by rule shall cause such owner's brand to revert to the department. The director may for a period of one year following such reversion, reissue such brand only to the prior registered owner upon payment of (twenty dollars and an additional fee of ten dollars) the registration fee and a late filing fee to be prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act, for renewal subsequent to the regular renewal period. The director may at (his) the director's discretion, if such brand is not reissued within one year to the prior registered owner, issue such brand to any other applicant.

A brand is the personal property of the owner of record. Any instrument affecting the title of such brand shall be acknowledged in the presence of the recorded owner and a notary public. The director shall record such instrument upon presentation and payment of a (ten dollars) recording fee not to exceed fifteen dollars to be prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. Such recording shall be constructive notice to all the world of the existence and conditions affecting the title to such brand. A copy of all records concerning the brand, certified by the director, shall be received in evidence to all intent and purposes as the original instrument. The director shall not be personally liable for failure of (his) the director's agents to properly record such instrument.

The owner of a brand of record may procure from the director a certified copy of the record of (his) the owner's brand upon payment of (fifteen dollars) a fee not to exceed seven dollars and fifty cents to be prescribed by the director by rule subsequent to a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and in conformance with section 10 of this act. The director shall establish by rule a schedule for the issuance of individual horse and cattle identification certificates or other means of horse and cattle identification deemed appropriate. Such certificates or other means of identification shall be valid only for the use of the horse and cattle owner in whose name it is issued. The director may provide by rules and regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW for the issuance of individual horse and cattle identification certificates or other means of horse and cattle identification deemed appropriate. Such certificates or other means of identification shall be valid only for the use of the horse and cattle owner in whose name it is issued.

Horses and cattle identified pursuant to the provisions of this section and the rules and regulations adopted hereunder shall not be subject to brand inspection except when sold at points provided for in RCW 16.57.380. The director shall charge a fee for the certificates or other means of identification authorized pursuant to this section and no identification shall be issued until the director has received the fee. The schedule of fees shall be established in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW. NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 16.57 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The director shall establish a livestock identification advisory board. The board shall be composed of six members appointed by the director. One member shall represent each of the following groups: Beef producers, public livestock market operators, horse owners, dairy farmers, cattle feeders, and meat processors. In making appointments, the director shall solicit nominations from organizations representing these groups state-wide.

(2) The purpose of the board is to provide advice to the director regarding livestock identification programs administered under this chapter and regarding brand inspection fees and related licensing fees. The director shall consult the board before adopting, amending, or repealing a rule under this chapter or altering a fee under RCW 16.58.050, 16.58.130, 16.65.030, or 16.65.090. If the director publishes in the state register a proposed rule to be adopted under the authority of this chapter or a proposed rule setting a fee under RCW 16.58.050, 16.58.130, 16.65.030, or 16.65.090 and the rule has not received the approval of the advisory board, the director shall file with the board a written statement setting forth the director's reasons for proposing the rule without the board's approval.

(3) The members of the advisory board serve three-year terms. However, the director shall by rule provide shorter initial terms for some of the members of the board to stagger the expiration of the initial terms. The members serve without compensation. The director may authorize the expenses of a member to be reimbursed if the member is selected to attend a regional or national conference or meeting regarding livestock identification. Any such reimbursement shall be in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 11. RCW 16.57.410 and 1989 c 286 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may act as a registering agency without a permit issued by the department. The director may issue a permit to any person or organization to act as a registering agency for the purpose of issuing permanent identification symbols for horses in a manner prescribed by the director. Application for such permit, or the renewal thereof by January 1 of each year, shall be on a form prescribed by the director, and accompanied by the proof of registration to be issued, any other documents required by the director, and a fee of one hundred dollars.

(2) Each registering agency shall maintain a permanent record for each individual identification symbol. The record shall include, but need not be limited to, the name, address, and phone number of the horse owner and a general description of the horse. A copy of each permanent record shall be forwarded to the director, if requested by the director.

(3) Individual identification symbols shall be inspected as required for brands under RCW 16.57.220 and 16.57.380 (and 16.57.390). Any horse presented for inspection and bearing such a symbol, but not accompanied by proof of registration and certificate of permit, shall be sold as provided under RCW 16.57.290 through 16.57.330.

(4) The director shall adopt such rules as are necessary for the effective administration of this section pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. RCW 16.57.390 and 1974 ex.s. c 38 s 2 are each repealed.*, and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5443. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5443, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5443, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 3; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McCaslin, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skrzatek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 44.

Voting nay: Senators Cantu, Deccio and McDonald - 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5443, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Pursuant to Senate Rule 34, the undersigned submit the following statement protesting passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1988 for entry in the Journal:

"We protest the extraordinary action of the Senate in diverting funds placed in trust by Washington employers. However, our votes against Substitute House Bill No. 1988, which diverts such funds, must not be construed as opposition to workforce training for dislocated workers.

Diversion of unemployment insurance trust funds would not be necessary if the majority party had not reduced community college funding in the first place. To rob the fund that supports unemployed workers and their families while unemployment is increasing sets a dangerous precedent and shows a lack of foresight."
In recent years, we have provided aid to timber-dependent communities and made dramatic investments in higher education (since 1988, we have helped provide an average of $22 million per year, allowing over 5,500 new students to attend community colleges).

Through the debate and final vote on Substitute House Bill No. 1988, we fought to protect a fund that is the only financial support available to most unemployed workers in our state. We could not support this measure knowing it may reduce future benefits for unemployed workers or increase future payroll taxes for employers.

To workforce training, we say 'yes.' To stealing money from community colleges, then offering it back by robbing from employers and the unemployed, we say 'no.'"

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I submit the following statement in protest to passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

"Workforce training benefits workers and employers alike. I have been a strong supporter of workforce training programs. As a community college graduate and advocate, I was troubled when the general fund budgets were offered which cut deeply into community college funding. I voted no on these budgets.

Substitute House Bill No. 1988 seeks to fund these good programs with a bad funding source: the unemployment insurance trust fund. It is a trust fund because the workers trust the money will be there when they need it for unemployment compensation. Businesses trust that these monies will not be squandered on the general needs of government.

Today, we steal from the fund for workforce training. What additional worthy causes will this fund be asked to bear tomorrow? Drug rehabilitation? Day care? These are general fund expenditures. Workforce training should continue to be a general fund investment.

Amendments I supported to use general fund money for workforce training were offered, but turned down. On final passage, the Senate had the choice of stealing from laid-off workers to support community colleges. It's a choice we should never have been asked to make and one which I reject."

SENATOR TIM ERWIN, 44th District

SECOND READING

Providing for employment and training services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following Committee on Trade, Technology, and Economic Development amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:
(1) The economy of the state depends on a well-trained work force and a strong employment and unemployment system. A well-trained work force generates the productivity employers need in order to compete in the global economy and to pay workers good wages. A strong employment and unemployment system ameliorates the negative impacts of unemployment and matches the needs of employers with individuals seeking employment.
(2) The legislature further finds that too many Washington workers are unemployed, many of whom need new or enhanced work force skills in order to meet current demand in the labor market. With the increasing pace of economic change, employees must become life-long learners who periodically obtain additional education and training. The state should provide unemployed workers a variety of effective services, including timely payment of unemployment benefits, job and career counseling, job referral services, and training. (3) At the same time, too many employers report problems finding workers with the right skills. The state should provide employers with an effective training system and an efficient method for locating well-qualified workers. Therefore, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to create an employment and training trust fund in order to provide state funding for employment and training services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 50.24 RCW to read as follows:

Employment and training trust fund contributions to the employment and training trust fund shall accrue and become payable by each employer, except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, taxable local government employers as described in RCW 50.44.035, those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, and those qualified employers assigned rate class 20 under RCW 50.29.025 at the rate of twelve one-hundredths of one percent for rate years 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997. The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined under RCW 50.24.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby established the employment and training trust fund. All moneys in this fund are irrevocably vested for the administration of this title. The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all moneys from employment and training trust fund contributions as established in section 2 of this act. The treasurer of the employment security department shall deposit, administer, and disburse all moneys in the fund under rules adopted by the commissioner and RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 are not applicable to this fund. The treasurer of the employment security department shall be the treasurer of the employment and training trust fund as described in RCW 50.16.020 and shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties in connection with the fund. All sums recovered on the official bond for losses sustained by the employment and training trust fund must be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, all moneys received and deposited in the fund under chapter . . . ., Laws of 1993 (this act), remain part of the employment and training trust fund and may be used solely for the following purposes:

1. Providing training and related support services, including financial aid, to individuals who have been terminated or have received a notice of termination from employment, and who are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to unemployment compensation benefits within the previous twenty-four months;

2. Assisting workers in finding employment through job referral, job development, counseling, and referral to training resources;

3. Obtaining labor market information necessary for the administration of the unemployment insurance program and to assist unemployed workers in finding employment;

4. Performing research by an independent state auditing agency or an independent contractor to determine effectiveness of unemployment insurance programs and to determine whether program changes would benefit workers and employers;

5. Collecting contributions for and administration of the employment and training trust fund;

6. Improving service through improved use of information technology; and

7. Establishing collocation employment security and job service outstations at seven community and technical college campuses across the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

An individual may be eligible for applicable employment security benefits while participating in work force training. Eligibility is at the discretion of the commissioner of employment security after submitting a commissioner-approved training waiver and developing a detailed individualized training plan.

Benefits paid under this section may not be charged to the experience rating accounts of individual employers.

The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Aerospace workers unemployed as the result of downsizing and restructuring of the aerospace industry will be deemed to be dislocated workers for the purpose of commissioner approval of training under RCW 50.20.043.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The treasurer of the employment security department shall disburse the amounts appropriated by section 15, chapter . . . ., Laws of 1993 (section 15 of this act) to the state board for community and technical colleges. These funds shall be allotted for, and only for, training programs and related support services, including financial aid, in the community and technical college system that:

(a) Are consistent with work force training priorities and based upon the comprehensive plan for work force training developed by the work force training and education coordinating board. The state board for community and technical colleges shall develop a plan for use and evaluation of these funds which is to be approved by the work force training and education coordinating board for consistency with their work force priorities. Further, the state board for community and technical colleges shall report to the work force training and education coordinating board and the legislature annually on the progress and results of the training and support services provided to eligible participants;

(b) Provide increased enrollments for individuals who have been terminated or have received a notice of termination from employment, and who are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to unemployment compensation benefits within the previous twenty-four months, with first priority given to individuals who are unlikely to return to employment in the individuals' principal occupation or previous industry because of a diminishing demand for their skills in that occupation or industry; and

(c) Provide increased enrollments and support services, including financial aid, that do not replace or supplant any existing enrollments, programs, support services, or funding sources. For fiscal year 1994, the state board for community and technical colleges may borrow from the general fund to initiate the programs authorized under this act. However, the board shall repay the borrowed amount by the end of the fiscal biennium from funds appropriated to it from the employment and training trust fund.

(2) For purposes of chapter . . . ., Laws of 1993 (this act), training provided by the community and technical colleges shall only consist of basic skills and literacy, occupational skills, vocational education, and related or supplemental instruction for apprentices who are enrolled in a registered, state-approved apprenticeship program. Community and technical colleges may contract with skill centers to provide training authorized in this section. Upon the request of an eligible recipient, a community and technical college may contract with a private technical school for specialized vocational training. Available tuition for the training is limited to the amount that would otherwise be obtained per enrolled quarter to a public institution. Furthermore, the funding is only available to students who seek training in a course of study not available at a public institution within an eligible recipient's congressional district.

Sec. 7. RCW 50.16.010 and 1991 sp.s. c 13 s 59 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be maintained as special funds, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state an unemployment compensation fund, an administrative contingency fund, an employment and training trust fund, and a federal interest payment fund, which shall be administered by the commissioner exclusively for the purposes of this title, and to which RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 shall not be applicable.

1. The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of:
   (a) all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,
   (b) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,
   (c) all earnings of such property or securities,
   (d) any moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended.

2. All money recovered from official bonds for losses sustained by the fund,

3. All money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended.

4. All money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708-712; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and
   (h) all money received for the fund from any other source.

All moneys in the unemployment compensation fund shall be commingled and undivided.

2. The administrative contingency fund shall consist of:
   (i) All interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title;
   (ii) All fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title;
   (iii) All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund;
   (iv) Revenue received under RCW 50.24.014:
   PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

3. The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust fund contributions in accordance with section 2 of this act.

Sec. 8. RCW 50.16.010 and 1993 c ... s 7 (section 7 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be maintained as special funds, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state an unemployment compensation fund, an administrative contingency fund, an employment and training trust fund, and a federal interest payment fund, which shall be administered by the commissioner exclusively for the purposes of this title, and to which RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 shall not be applicable.

1. The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of:
   (a) All contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,
   (b) Any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,
   (c) All earnings of such property or securities,
   (d) Any moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended.

2. All money recovered from official bonds for losses sustained by the fund,

3. All money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended,

4. All money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708-712; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and
   (a) All interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title;
   (b) All fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title;
   (c) All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund;
   (d) Revenue received under RCW 50.24.014:
   PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

5. Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund, other than money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014, shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:
(iii) The proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the moneys are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available as a federal fund.

(iii) The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriation.

Money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014 may only be expended, after appropriation, for the purposes specified in RCW 50.62.010, 50.62.020, 50.62.030, 50.04.070, 50.04.072, 50.16.010, 50.29.025, 50.24.014, 50.44.053, and 50.22.010.

(4) The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust fund in accordance with section 2 of this act.}

Sec. 9. RCW 50.16.020 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 23 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner shall designate a treasurer and custodian of the unemployment compensation fund, the employment and training trust fund, and ((ii)) the administrative contingency fund, who shall administer such funds in accordance with the directions of the commissioner and shall issue his or her warrants upon them in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. ((He)) The treasurer and custodian shall maintain within the unemployment compensation fund three separate accounts as follows:

(1) a clearing account,
(2) an unemployment trust fund account, and
(3) a benefit account.

All moneys payable to the unemployment compensation fund, upon receipt thereof by the commissioner, shall be forwarded to the treasurer, who shall immediately deposit them in the clearing account. Refunds payable pursuant to the provisions of this title from the unemployment compensation fund may be paid from the clearing account upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That refunds of interest or penalties on delinquent contributions shall be paid from the administrative contingency fund upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner.

After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the social security act, as amended, any provisions of law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund. Moneys in the clearing and benefit accounts and in the administrative contingency fund shall not be commingled with other state funds, but shall be deposited by the treasurer, under the direction of the commissioner, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund. Such moneys shall be secured by said bank or public depository to the same extent and in the same manner as required by the general depository law of the state and collateral pledged shall be maintained in a separate custody account.

The treasurer shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties as a custodian of the funds in an amount fixed by the director of the department of general administration and in a form prescribed by law or approved by the attorney general. Premiums for said bond shall be paid from the administration fund. All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the unemployment compensation fund shall be deposited in such fund. All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the administrative contingency fund shall be deposited in such fund.

Sec. 10. RCW 50.16.020 and 1993 c ... s 9 (section 9 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner shall designate a treasurer and custodian of the unemployment compensation fund, the administrative contingency fund, who shall administer such funds in accordance with the directions of the commissioner and shall issue his or her warrants upon them in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. The treasurer and custodian shall maintain within the unemployment compensation fund three separate accounts as follows:

(1) a clearing account,
(2) an unemployment trust fund account, and
(3) a benefit account.

All moneys payable to the unemployment compensation fund, upon receipt thereof by the commissioner, shall be forwarded to the treasurer, who shall immediately deposit them in the clearing account. Refunds payable pursuant to the provisions of this title from the unemployment compensation fund may be paid from the clearing account upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That refunds of interest or penalties on delinquent contributions shall be paid from the administrative contingency fund upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner.

After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the social security act, as amended, any provisions of law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund. Moneys in the clearing and benefit accounts and in the administrative contingency fund shall not be commingled with other state funds, but shall be deposited by the treasurer, under the direction of the commissioner, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund. Such moneys shall be secured by said bank or public depository to the same extent and in the same manner as required by the general depository law of the state and collateral pledged shall be maintained in a separate custody account.

The treasurer shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties as a custodian of the funds in an amount fixed by the director of the department of general administration and in a form prescribed by law or approved by the attorney general. Premiums for said bond shall be paid from the administration fund. All sums recovered on official bonds for
The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

1. A fund balance ratio shall be determined by dividing the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the rate year by the total remuneration paid by all employers subject to contributions during the second calendar year preceding the rate year and reported to the department by the following March 31st. The division shall be carried to the fourth decimal place with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The fund balance ratio shall be expressed as a percentage.

2. The interval of the fund balance ratio, expressed as a percentage, shall determine which tax schedule in subsection (5) of this section shall be in effect for assigning tax rates for the rate year. The intervals for determining the effective tax schedule shall be:

3. An array shall be prepared, listing all qualified employers in ascending order of their benefit ratios. The array shall show for each qualified employer: (a) identification number; (b) benefit ratio; (c) taxable payrolls for the four calendar quarters immediately preceding the computation date and reported to the department by the cut-off date; (d) a cumulative total of taxable payrolls consisting of the employer's taxable payroll plus the taxable payrolls of all other employers preceding him or her in the array; and (e) the percentage equivalent of the cumulative total of taxable payrolls.

4. Each employer in the array shall be assigned to one of twenty rate classes according to the percentage intervals of cumulative taxable payrolls set forth in subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That if an employer's taxable payroll falls within two or more rate classes, the employer and any other employer with the same benefit ratio shall be assigned to the lowest rate class which includes any portion of the employer's taxable payroll.

5. The contribution rate for each employer in the array shall be the rate specified in the following table for the rate class to which he or she has been assigned, as determined under subsection (4) of this section, within the tax schedule which is to be in effect during the rate year:

All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the unemployment compensation fund shall be deposited in such fund. All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the administrative contingency fund shall be deposited in such fund.
(6) The contribution rate for each employer not qualified to be in the array shall be as follows:

(a) Employers who do not meet the definition of "qualified employer" by reason of failure to pay contributions when due shall be assigned the contribution rate of five and four-tenths percent, except employers who have an approved agency-deferred payment contract by September 30 of the previous rate year. If any employer with an approved agency-deferred payment contract fails to make any one of the succeeding deferred payments or fails to submit any succeeding tax report and payment in a timely manner, the employer's tax rate shall immediately revert to five and four-tenths percent for the current rate year;

(b) The contribution rate for employers exempt as of December 31, 1989, who are newly covered under the section 78, chapter 380, Laws of 1989 amendment to RCW 50.04.150 and not yet qualified to be in the array shall be 2.5 percent for employers whose standard industrial code is "013", "016", "017", "018", "019", "021", or "081"; and

(c) For all other employers not qualified to be in the array, the contribution rate shall be a rate equal to the average industry rate as determined by the commissioner; however, the rate may not be less than one percent. Assignment of employers by the commissioner to industrial classification, for purposes of this subsection, shall be in accordance with established classification practices found in the "Standard Industrial Classification Manual" issued by the federal office of management and budget to the third digit provided in the Standard Industrial Classification code.

Sec. 12. RCW 50.29.025 and 1993 c .... s 11 (section 11 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

A new section is added to chapter 50.29 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 50.29 RCW to read as follows:

For the purpose of simplification of employer reports, the "combined contribution rate" shall be used in the calculation of employer taxes. The combined contribution rate shall include the regular contribution rate as determined under RCW 50.29.025, employment and training trust fund contributions as determined under section 2 of this act, and special contributions required under RCW 50.29.040. A mention of the "combined contribution rate" may not be made on a tax form or publication unless the form or publication specifically identifies the specific contributions. The combined contribution rate may not be quoted on a form unless the specific component rates are also quoted. The sole purpose of the combined contribution rate is to allow an employer to perform a single calculation on a tax return rather than four separate calculations.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Prior to any increase in the employer tax schedule as provided in section 11 of this act, the commissioner shall provide a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature specifying to what extent the work force training expenditures in section 8 of this act elevated employer contribution rates for the effective tax schedule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The sum of twenty-nine million three hundred thirty thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the employment and training trust fund to the state board for community and technical colleges for the biennium ending June 30, 1995, to carry out training and related support services under this act. Of the amount appropriated by this section, twenty-six million four hundred thousand dollars shall provide for training enrollments, two million dollars may provide for child care for dependents of individuals being trained under this section, and nine hundred thousand dollars shall provide for transportation costs to individuals being trained under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This act applies to tax rate years beginning with tax rate year 1994.

If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state or the eligibility of employers in this state for federal unemployment tax credits, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state or the granting of federal unemployment tax credits to employers in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The legislature finds that:
(1) The economy of the state depends on a well-trained work force and a strong employment and unemployment system. A well-trained work force generates the productivity employers need in order to compete in the global economy and to pay workers good wages. A strong employment and unemployment system ameliorates the negative impacts of unemployment and matches the needs of employers with individuals seeking employment.
(2) The legislature further finds that too many Washington workers are unemployed, many of whom need new or enhanced work force skills in order to meet current demand in the labor market. With the increasing pace of economic change, employees must become life-long learners who periodically obtain additional education and training. The state should provide

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment to the Committee on Trade, Technology and Economic Development amendment was not adopted:

On page 1, after line 6 of the amendment, strike everything through “1994.” on page 20, line 16 and insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:
(1) The economy of the state depends on a well-trained work force and a strong employment and unemployment system. A well-trained work force generates the productivity employers need in order to compete in the global economy and to pay workers good wages. A strong employment and unemployment system ameliorates the negative impacts of unemployment and matches the needs of employers with individuals seeking employment.
(2) The legislature further finds that too many Washington workers are unemployed, many of whom need new or enhanced work force skills in order to meet current demand in the labor market. With the increasing pace of economic change, employees must become life-long learners who periodically obtain additional education and training. The state should provide unemployed workers a variety of effective services, including timely payment of unemployment benefits, job and career counseling, job referral services, and training.

At the same time, too many employers report problems finding workers with the right skills. The state should provide employers with an effective training system and an efficient method for locating well-qualified workers.

Therefore, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to create an employment and training trust fund in order to provide state funding for employment and training services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 50.24 RCW to read as follows:

Employment and training trust fund contributions to the employment and training trust fund shall accrue and become payable by each employer, except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, taxable local government employers as described in RCW 50.44.035, those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, and those qualified employers assigned rate class 20 under RCW 50.29.025 at the rate of twelve one-hundredths of one percent for rate years 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997. The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined under RCW 50.24.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby established the employment and training trust fund. All moneys in this fund are irrevocably vested for the administration of this title. The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all moneys from employment and training trust fund contributions as established in section 2 of this act. The treasurer of the employment security department shall deposit, administer, and disburse all moneys in the fund under rules adopted by the commissioner and RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 are not applicable to this fund. The treasurer of the employment security department shall be the treasurer of the employment and training trust fund as described in RCW 50.16.020 and shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties in connection with the fund. All sums recovered on the official bond for losses sustained by the employment and training trust fund must be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, all moneys received and deposited in the fund under chapter . . ., Laws of 1993 (this act), remain part of the employment and training trust fund and may be used solely for the following purposes:

1. Providing training and related support services, including financial aid, to individuals who have been terminated or have received a notice of termination from employment, and who are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to unemployment compensation benefits within the previous twenty-four months;
2. Assisting workers in finding employment through job referral, job development, counseling, and referral to training resources;
3. Obtaining labor market information necessary for the administration of the unemployment insurance program and to assist unemployed workers in finding employment;
4. Performing research by an independent state auditing agency or an independent contractor to determine effectiveness of unemployment insurance programs and to determine whether program changes would benefit workers and employers;
5. Collecting contributions for and administration of the employment and training trust fund;
6. Improving service through improved use of information technology; and
7. Establishing colocation employment security and job service outstations at seven community and technical college campuses across the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

An individual may be eligible for applicable employment security benefits while participating in work force training. Eligibility is at the discretion of the commissioner of employment security after submitting a commissioner-approved training waiver and developing a detailed individualized training plan.

Benefits paid under this section may not be charged to the experience rating accounts of individual employers. The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Aerospace workers unemployed as the result of downsizing and restructuring of the aerospace industry will be deemed to be dislocated workers for the purpose of commissioner approval of training under RCW 50.20.043.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The employment security department shall disburse the amounts appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of chapter . . ., Laws of 1993 (this act) to the state board for community and technical colleges. The community and technical college system may contract or otherwise work in partnership with other public and private providers of training services to serve the individuals eligible for training under chapter . . ., Laws of 1993 (this act). These funds shall be allotted for, and only for, training programs and related support services, including financial aid, in the community and technical college system that:

(a) Are consistent with work force training priorities and based upon the comprehensive plan for work force training developed by the work force training and education coordinating board. The state board for community and technical colleges shall develop a plan for use and evaluation of these funds which is to be approved by the work force training and education coordinating board for consistency with their work force priorities. Further, the state board for community and technical colleges shall report to the work force training and education coordinating board and the legislature annually on the progress and results of the training and support services provided to eligible participants;
(b) Provide increased enrollments for individuals who have been terminated or have received a notice of termination from employment, and who are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to unemployment compensation benefits within the previous twenty-four months, with first priority given to individuals who are unlikely to return to employment in the individuals' principal occupation or previous industry because of a diminishing demand for their skills in that occupation or industry; and
(c) Provide increased enrollments and support services, including financial aid, that do not replace or supplant any existing enrollments, programs, support services, or funding sources. For fiscal year 1994, the state board for community and technical colleges may borrow from the general fund to initiate the programs authorized under this act. However, the board shall repay the borrowed amount by the end of the fiscal biennium from funds appropriated to it from the employment and training trust fund.

(2) For purposes of chapter . . ., Laws of 1993 (this act), training provided by the community and technical colleges shall only consist of basic skills and literacy, occupational skills, vocational education, and related or supplemental instruction for apprentices who are enrolled in a registered, state-approved apprenticeship program. Community and technical colleges may contract with skill centers to provide training authorized in this section. Upon the request of an eligible recipient, a community and technical college may contract with a private technical school for specialized vocational training. Available tuition for the training is limited to the amount that would otherwise be obtained per enrolled quarter to a public institution. Furthermore, the funding is only available to students who seek training in a course of study not available at a public institution within an eligible recipient's congressional district.

Sec. 7. RCW 50.16.010 and 1991 sp.s. c 13 s 59 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be maintained as special funds, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state an unemployment compensation fund, an administrative contingency fund, an employment and training trust fund, and a federal interest payment fund, which shall be administered by the commissioner exclusively for the purposes of this title, and to which RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 shall not be applicable.

(1) The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of:
   ((i)) all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,
   ((ii)) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,
   ((iii)) all earnings of such property or securities,
   ((iv)) any moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended,
   ((v)) all money recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund,
   ((vi)) all money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended,
   ((vii)) all money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and ((viii)) all money received for the fund from any other source.

All moneys in the unemployment compensation fund shall be commingled and undivided.

2(a) The administrative contingency fund shall consist of:
   ((i)) all interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title((i));
   ((ii)) all fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title((i));
   ((iii)) all moneys recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund((i)); and
   ((iv)) revenue received under RCW 50.24.014:

   PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

(b) Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund, other than money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014, shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:

   (i) The proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the moneys are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available.

   (ii) The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriation.

Money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014 may only be expended, after appropriation, for the purposes specified in RCW ((74.09.035, 74.09.510, 74.09.520, and 74.09.700)) 50.62.010, 50.62.020, 50.62.030, 50.04.070, 50.04.072, 50.16.010, 50.29.025, 50.24.014, 50.44.053, and 50.22.010.

3) The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust fund contributions in accordance with section 2 of this act.

Sec. 8. RCW 50.16.010 and 1993 c ... s 7 (section 7 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be maintained as special funds, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state an unemployment compensation fund, an administrative contingency fund, an employment and training trust fund, and a federal interest payment fund, which shall be administered by the commissioner exclusively for the purposes of this title, and to which RCW 43.01.050 ((and 43.84.092)) shall not be applicable.

((i))) The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of:
   ((i))) all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,
   ((ii))) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,
   ((iii))) all earnings of such property or securities,
   ((iv))) all moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended,
   ((v))) all money recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund,
   ((vi))) all money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended,
   ((vii))) all money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and ((viii))) all money received for the fund from any other source.

All moneys in the unemployment compensation fund shall be commingled and undivided.

((i))) The administrative contingency fund shall consist of:
   ((i))) all interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title((i));
   ((ii))) all fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title((i)); ((iii))) all sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund((i)); and ((iv))) revenue received under RCW 50.24.014:

   PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.
Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund, other than money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014, shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:

(a) The proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the moneys are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available.

(b) The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriation.

Money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014 may only be expended, after appropriation, for the purposes specified in RCW 50.62.010, 50.62.020, 50.62.030, 50.04.070, 50.04.072, 50.16.010, 50.29.025, 50.24.014, 50.44.053, and 50.22.010.

(3) The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust fund contributions in accordance with section 2 of this act.

Sec. 10. RCW 50.16.020 and 1993 1st ex.s. c 23 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested

The commissioner shall designate a treasurer and custodian of the unemployment compensation fund, the employment and training trust fund, and (4d) the administrative contingency fund, who shall administer such funds in accordance with the directions of the commissioner and shall issue his or her warrants upon them in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. (The treasurer and custodian shall maintain within the unemployment compensation fund three separate accounts as follows:

1. a clearing account,
2. an unemployment trust fund account, and
3. a benefit account.

All moneys payable to the unemployment compensation fund, upon receipt thereof by the commissioner, shall be forwarded to the treasurer, who shall immediately deposit them in the clearing account. Refunds payable pursuant to the provisions of this title from the unemployment compensation fund may be paid from the clearing account upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That refunds of interest or penalties on delinquent contributions shall be paid from the administrative contingency fund upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner.

After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the social security act, as amended, any provisions of law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund. Moneys in the clearing and benefit accounts and in the administrative contingency fund shall not be commingled with other state funds, but shall be deposited by the treasurer, under the direction of the commissioner, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund.

Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund, other than money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014, shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:

(a) The proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the moneys are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available.

(b) The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriation.

Money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014 may only be expended, after appropriation, for the purposes specified in RCW 50.62.010, 50.62.020, 50.62.030, 50.04.070, 50.04.072, 50.16.010, 50.29.025, 50.24.014, 50.44.053, and 50.22.010.

(3) The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust fund contributions in accordance with section 2 of this act.

The commissioner shall designate a treasurer and custodian of the unemployment compensation fund, the employment and training trust fund, and (4d) the administrative contingency fund, who shall administer such funds in accordance with the directions of the commissioner and shall issue his or her warrants upon them in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. (The treasurer and custodian shall maintain within the unemployment compensation fund three separate accounts as follows:

1. a clearing account,
2. an unemployment trust fund account, and
3. a benefit account.

All moneys payable to the unemployment compensation fund, upon receipt thereof by the commissioner, shall be forwarded to the treasurer, who shall immediately deposit them in the clearing account. Refunds payable pursuant to the provisions of this title from the unemployment compensation fund may be paid from the clearing account upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That refunds of interest or penalties on delinquent contributions shall be paid from the administrative contingency fund upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner.

After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the social security act, as amended, any provisions of law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund. Moneys in the clearing and benefit accounts and in the administrative contingency fund shall not be commingled with other state funds, but shall be deposited by the treasurer, under the direction of the commissioner, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund.

After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the social security act, as amended, any provisions of law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund. Moneys in the clearing and benefit accounts and in the administrative contingency fund shall not be commingled with other state funds, but shall be deposited by the treasurer, under the direction of the commissioner, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund.

Such moneys shall be secured by said bank or public depository to the same extent and in the same manner as required by the general depository law of the state and collateral pledged shall be maintained in a separate custody account.
The treasurer shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties as a custodian of the funds in an amount fixed by the director of the department of general administration and in a form prescribed by law or approved by the attorney general. Premium for said bond shall be paid from the administrative contingency fund. All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the unemployment compensation fund shall be deposited in such fund.

Sec. 11. RCW 50.29.025 and 1990 c 245 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

(1) A fund balance ratio shall be determined by dividing the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the rate year by the total remuneration paid by all employers subject to contributions during the second calendar year preceding the rate year and reported to the department by the cut-off date; (d) a cumulative total of taxable payrolls consisting of the employer's taxable payroll plus the taxable payrolls of all other employers preceding him or her in the array; and (e) the percentage equivalent of the cumulative total of taxable payrolls.

(2) Each employer in the array shall be assigned to one of twenty rate classes according to the percentage intervals of the fund balance ratio, expressed as a percentage, shall determine which tax schedule in subsection (5) of this section shall be in effect for assigning tax rates for the rate year. The intervals for determining the effective tax schedule shall be:

(3) An array shall be prepared, listing all qualified employers in ascending order of their benefit ratios. The array shall show for each qualified employer: (a) Identification number; (b) benefit ratio; (c) taxable payrolls for the four calendar quarters immediately preceding the computation date and reported to the department by the cut-off date; (d) a cumulative total of taxable payrolls consisting of the employer's taxable payroll plus the taxable payrolls of all other employers preceding him or her in the array; and (e) the percentage equivalent of the cumulative total of taxable payrolls.

(4) Each employer in the array shall be assigned to one of twenty rate classes according to the percentage intervals of cumulative taxable payrolls set forth in subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That if an employer's taxable payroll falls within two or more rate classes, the employer and any other employer with the same benefit ratio shall be assigned to the lowest rate class which includes any portion of the employer's taxable payroll.

(5) The contribution rate for each employer in the array shall be the rate specified in the following tables for the rate class to which he or she has been assigned, as determined under subsection (4) of this section, within the tax schedule which is to be in effect during the rate year:

(6) The contribution rate for each employer not qualified to be in the array shall be as follows:

(a) Employers who do not meet the definition of "qualified employer" by reason of failure to pay contributions when due shall be assigned the contribution rate of five and four-tenths percent, except employers who have an approved agency-deferred payment contract by September 30th of the previous rate year. If any employer with an approved agency-deferred payment contract fails to make any one of the preceding deferred payments or fails to submit any succeeding tax report and payment in a timely manner, the employer's tax rate shall immediately revert to five and four-tenths percent for the current rate year;

(b) The contribution rate for employers exempt as of December 31, 1989, who are newly covered under the section 78, chapter 380, Laws of 1989 amendment to RCW 50.29.025 and 1993 c .... s 11 (section 11 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12. RCW 50.29.025 and 1993 c .... s 11 (section 11 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

(1) A fund balance ratio shall be determined by dividing the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the rate year by the total remuneration paid by all employers subject to contributions during the second calendar year preceding the rate year and reported to the department by the following March 31st. The division shall be carried to the fourth decimal place with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The fund balance ratio shall be expressed as a percentage.

(2) The interval of the fund balance ratio, expressed as a percentage, shall determine which tax schedule in subsection (5) of this section shall be in effect for assigning tax rates for the rate year. The intervals for determining the effective tax schedule shall be:

(3) An array shall be prepared, listing all qualified employers in ascending order of their benefit ratios. The array shall show for each qualified employer: (a) identification number; (b) benefit ratio; (c) taxable payrolls for the four calendar quarters immediately preceding the computation date and reported to the department by the cut-off date; (d) a cumulative total of taxable payrolls consisting of the employer's taxable payroll plus the taxable payrolls of all other employers preceding him or her in the array; and (e) the percentage equivalent of the cumulative total of taxable payrolls.

(4) Each employer in the array shall be assigned to one of twenty rate classes according to the percentage intervals of cumulative taxable payrolls set forth in subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That if an employer's taxable payroll falls within two or more rate classes, the employer and any other employer with the same benefit ratio shall be assigned to the lowest rate class which includes any portion of the employer's taxable payroll.

(5) The contribution rate for each employer in the array shall be the rate specified in the following tables for the rate class to which he or she has been assigned, as determined under subsection (4) of this section, within the tax schedule which is to be in effect during the rate year:
A new section is added to chapter 50.29 RCW to read as follows:

For the purpose of simplification of employer reports, the "combined contribution rate" shall be used in the calculation of employer tax. The combined contribution rate shall include the regular contribution rate as determined under RCW 50.29.025, employment and training trust fund contributions as determined under section 2 of this act, and special contributions required under RCW 50.24.014. A mention of the "combined contribution rate" may not be made on a tax form or publication unless the form or publication specifically identifies the specific contributions. The combined contribution rate may not be quoted on a form unless the specific component rates are also quoted. The sole purpose of the combined contribution rate is to allow an employer to perform a single calculation on a tax return rather than four separate calculations.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Prior to any increase in the employer tax schedule as provided in section 11 of this act, the commissioner shall provide a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature specifying to what extent the work force training expenditures in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act) elevated employer contribution rates for the effective tax schedule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) The employment security department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1994, and every year thereafter, on the status of the programs provided in this act and the resulting outcomes. The department shall include in its report quantitative and demographic information on the increase in job orders, placement referrals, individualized training plans, skill assessments, and other interventions achieved. The department also shall include in its report the number of repeat clients as a percentage of all clients served by programs provided in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act).

(2) The state board for community and technical colleges shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1994, and every year thereafter, the number of certified student full-time equivalents receiving training as provided in this act. In addition, the report must include information on the outcomes of the provided training. The report also must include indices of placement rates, student demographics, training plan completion rates, and comparisons of preprogram and postprogram wage levels.

(3) Each community and technical college shall confer and consult with its respective labor-management advisory board concerning the college’s efforts to provide the training and services rendered in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act) and meet the completion and placement goals of the work force training and education coordinating board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The work force employment and training program created in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act) shall expire June 30, 1998.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed, effective June 30, 1999:

(1) Section 1 of this act;
(2) Section 2 of this act;
(3) Section 3 of this act;
(4) Section 4 of this act;
(5) Section 6 of this act;
(6) Section 13 of this act; and
(7) Section 15 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Sections 8 and 10 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1999;
(2) Section 12 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1998.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state or the eligibility of employers in this state for federal unemployment tax credits, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state or the granting of federal unemployment tax credits to employers in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This act applies to tax rate years beginning with tax rate year 1994.*

MOTION

Senator Rinehart moved that the following amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 1, after line 7, strike everything through "1994." on page 21, line 4 and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) The economy of the state depends on a well-trained work force and a strong employment and unemployment system. A well-trained work force generates the productivity employers need in order to compete in the global economy and to pay workers good wages. A strong employment and unemployment system ameliorates the negative impacts of unemployment and matches the needs of employers with individuals seeking employment.

(2) The legislature further finds that too many Washington workers are unemployed, many of whom need new or enhanced work force skills in order to meet current demand in the labor market. With the increasing pace of economic change, employees must become life-long learners who periodically obtain additional education and training. The state should provide unemployed workers a variety of effective services, including timely payment of unemployment benefits, job and career counseling, job referral services, and training.

(3) At the same time, too many employers report problems finding workers with the right skills. The state should provide employers with an effective training system and an efficient method for locating well-qualified workers. Therefore, the legislature finds it necessary and in the public interest to create an employment and training trust fund in order to provide state funding for employment and training services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the purpose of this act to reduce the amount paid by employers in the state to the unemployment compensation fund by twelve one-hundredths of one percent of taxable wages.

It is also the purpose of this act to establish a separate fund for training and employment services for dislocated workers. This fund shall consist of contributions of twelve one-hundredths of one percent of taxable wages.

It is the intent of the legislature that this act not result in any net increase in employer tax rates. It is the further intent of the legislature that the employment security department and the state board for community and technical colleges shall work cooperatively to ensure expeditious training and placement of dislocated workers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 50.24 RCW to read as follows:

Employment and training trust fund contributions to the employment and training trust fund shall accrue and become payable by each employer consistent with the tax schedule in RCW 50.29.025 as now existing or hereafter amended, except employers as described in RCW 50.44.010 and 50.44.030 who have properly elected to make payments in lieu of contributions, taxable local government employers as described in RCW 50.44.035, those employers who are required to make payments in lieu of contributions, and those qualified employers assigned rate class 20 under RCW 50.29.025 at the rate of twelve one-hundredths of one percent for rate years 1994, 1995, 1996, and 1997. The amount of wages subject to tax shall be determined under RCW 50.24.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

There is hereby established the employment and training trust fund. All moneys in this fund are irrevocably vested for the administration of this title. The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all moneys from employment and training trust fund contributions as established in section 3 of this act. The treasurer of the employment security department shall deposit, administer, and disburse all moneys in the fund under rules adopted by the commissioner and RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 are not applicable to this fund. The treasurer of the employment security department shall be the treasurer of the employment and training trust fund as described in RCW 50.16.020 and shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties in connection with the fund. All sums recovered on the official bond for losses sustained by the employment and training trust fund must be deposited in the fund. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, all moneys received and deposited in the fund under chapter . . . Laws of 1993 (this act), remain part of the employment and training trust fund and may be used solely for the following purposes:

1) Providing training and related support services, including financial aid, to individuals who have been terminated or have received a notice of termination from employment, and who are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to unemployment compensation benefits within the previous twenty-four months;

2) Assisting workers in finding employment through job referral, job development, counseling, and referral to training resources;

3) Obtaining labor market information necessary for the administration of the unemployment insurance program and to assist unemployed workers in finding employment. In obtaining the information the employment security department shall ensure the inclusion of information gathered from small businesses as defined in RCW 43.31.025, with particular emphasis on businesses with fifteen or fewer employees;

4) Researching by an independent state auditing agency or an independent contractor to determine effectiveness of unemployment insurance programs and to determine whether program changes would benefit workers and employers;

5) Collecting contributions for and administration of the employment and training trust fund;

6) Improving service through improved use of information technology; and

7) Establishing colocation employment security and job service outstations at community and technical college campuses that are consistent with work force training priorities and based upon the comprehensive plan for work force training and development for the state. Outstations shall provide a one stop access point for unemployed and dislocated workers seeking job placement services, training program information, and labor market information. In communities without co-located outstations the local job service center and community or technical college shall collaborate to provide these services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. For calculations occurring on or after June 30, 1994, and in accordance with RCW 50.29.025, if the commissioner determines that the employment and training trust fund contributions for the most recent rate year have increased employer unemployment compensation contribution rates, the revenues received by the department from the employment and training contribution for calendar quarters beginning the following July 1st shall not be deposited in the employment and training trust fund but shall be deposited in the unemployment compensation fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 50.16 RCW to read as follows:

An individual may be eligible for applicable employment security benefits while participating in work force training. Eligibility is at the discretion of the commissioner of employment security after submitting a commissioner-approved training waiver and developing a detailed individualized training plan.

Benefits paid under this section may not be charged to the experience rating accounts of individual employers. The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Aerospace workers unemployed as the result of downsizing and restructuring of the aerospace industry shall be deemed to be dislocated workers for the purpose of commissioner approval of training under RCW 50.20.043.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The employment security department shall disburse the amounts appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (this act) to the state board for community and technical colleges. These funds shall be allotted for, and only for, training programs and related support services, including financial aid, in the community and technical college system that:

(a) Are consistent with work force training priorities and based upon the comprehensive plan for work force training developed by the work force training and education coordinating board. The state board for community and technical colleges shall develop a plan for use and evaluation of these funds which is to be approved by the work force training and education coordinating board for consistency with their work force priorities. In developing and approving the plan, information shall be gathered from small businesses as defined in RCW 43.31.025, with particular emphasis on businesses with fifteen or fewer employees. Further, the state board for community and technical colleges shall report to the work force training and education coordinating board and the legislature annually on the progress and results of the training and support services provided to eligible participants;

(b) Provide increased enrollments for individuals who have been terminated or have received a notice of termination from employment, and who are eligible for or have exhausted their entitlement to unemployment compensation benefits within the previous twenty-four months, with first priority given to individuals who are unlikely to return to employment in the individuals’ principal occupation or previous industry because of a diminishing demand for their skills in that occupation or industry; and

(c) Provide increased enrollments and support services, including financial aid, that do not replace or supplant any existing enrollments, programs, support services, or funding sources. For fiscal year 1994, the state board for community and technical colleges may borrow from the general fund to initiate the programs authorized under this act. However, the board shall repay the borrowed amount by the end of the fiscal biennium from funds appropriated to it from the employment and training trust fund.

(2) For purposes of chapter . . . , Laws of 1993 (this act), training provided by the community and technical colleges shall only consist of basic skills and literacy, occupational skills, vocational education, and related or supplemental instruction for apprentices who are enrolled in a registered, state-approved apprenticeship program. Community and technical colleges may contract with skill centers to provide training authorized in this section. Upon the request of an eligible recipient, a community and technical college may contract with a private technical school for specialized vocational training. Available tuition for the training is limited to the amount that would otherwise be obtained per enrolled quarter to a public institution. Furthermore, the funding is only available to students who seek training in a course of study not available at a public institution within an eligible recipient's congressional district.

Sec. 9. RCW 50.16.010 and 1991 sp.s c 13 s 59 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be maintained as special funds, separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state an unemployment compensation fund, an administrative contingency fund, an employment and training trust fund, and a federal interest payment fund, which shall be administered by the commissioner exclusively for the purposes of this title, and to which RCW 43.01.050 and 43.84.092 shall not be applicable.

1. The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of:
   (a) all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,
   (b) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,
   (c) all earnings of such property or securities,
   (d) any moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended,
   (e) all money recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund,
   (f) all money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended,
   (g) all money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708-712; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and
   (h) all moneys received for the fund from any other source.

All moneys in the unemployment compensation fund shall be commingled and undivided.

2. (a) The administrative contingency fund shall consist of:
   (i) all interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title;
   (ii) all fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title;
   (iii) all sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund;
   (iv) revenue received under RCW 50.24.014:
   PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.

(b) Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund, other than money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014, shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:
   (i) the proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the moneys are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available.
   (ii) the proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriation.

3. (a) The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust fund contributions in accordance with section 3 of this act.

(b) the employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust fund.

(c) The unemployment compensation fund shall consist of:
   (i) all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions collected pursuant to the provisions of this title,
   (ii) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the fund,
   (iii) all earnings of such property or securities,
   (iv) all moneys received from the federal unemployment account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the social security act, as amended,
   (v) all money recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund,
   (vi) all money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the social security act, as amended,
   (vii) all money received from the federal government as reimbursement pursuant to section 204 of the federal-state extended compensation act of 1970 (84 Stat. 708-712; 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3304), and (viii) all moneys received for the fund from any other source.

All moneys in the unemployment compensation fund shall be commingled and undivided.

4. (a) The administrative contingency fund shall consist of:
   (i) all interest on delinquent contributions collected pursuant to this title;
   (ii) all fines and penalties collected pursuant to the provisions of this title;
   (iii) all sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the fund;
   (iv) revenue received under RCW 50.24.014:
   PROVIDED, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a district court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended.
Moneys available in the administrative contingency fund, other than money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014, shall be expended upon the direction of the commissioner, with the approval of the governor, whenever it appears to him or her that such expenditure is necessary for:

(a) The proper administration of this title and no federal funds are available for the specific purpose to which such expenditure is to be made, provided, the moneys are not substituted for appropriations from federal funds which, in the absence of such moneys, would be made available.

(b) The proper administration of this title for which purpose appropriations from federal funds have been requested but not yet received, provided, the administrative contingency fund will be reimbursed upon receipt of the requested federal appropriations.

Money in the special account created under RCW 50.24.014 may only be expended, after appropriation, for the purposes specified in RCW 50.62.010, 50.62.020, 50.62.030, 50.04.070, 50.04.072, 50.16.010, 50.29.025, 50.24.014, 50.44.053, and 50.22.010.

The employment and training trust fund shall consist of all contributions received from the employment and training trust funds in accordance with section 2 of this act.

Sec. 11. RCW 50.16.020 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 23 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The commissioner shall designate a treasurer and custodian of the unemployment compensation fund, the employment and training trust fund, and (at) the administrative contingency fund, who shall administer such funds in accordance with the directions of the commissioner and shall issue his or her warrants upon them in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. (The treasurer and custodian shall maintain within the unemployment compensation fund three separate accounts as follows:

(1) a clearing account,
(2) an unemployment trust fund account, and
(3) a benefit account.

Moneys payable to the unemployment compensation fund, upon receipt thereof by the commissioner, shall be forwarded to the treasurer, who shall immediately deposit them in the clearing account. Refunds payable pursuant to the provisions of this title from the unemployment compensation fund may be paid from the clearing account warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That refunds of interest or penalties on delinquent contributions shall be paid from the administrative contingency fund upon warrants issued by the treasurer under the direction of the commissioner.

After clearance thereof, all other moneys in the clearing account shall be immediately deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the account of this state in the unemployment trust fund, established and maintained pursuant to section 904 of the social security act, as amended, any provisions of law in this state relating to the deposit, administration, release, or disbursement of moneys in the possession or custody of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The benefit account shall consist of all moneys requisitioned from this state's account in the unemployment trust fund. Moneys in the clearing and benefit accounts and in the administrative contingency fund shall not be commingled with other state funds, but shall be deposited by the treasurer, under the direction of the commissioner, in any bank or public depository in which general funds of the state may be deposited, but no public deposit insurance charge or premium shall be paid out of the fund.

Such moneys shall be secured by said bank or public depository to the same extent and in the same manner as required by the general depository law of the state and collateral pledged shall be maintained in a separate custody account.
The treasurer shall give a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his or her duties as a custodian of the funds in an amount fixed by the director of the department of general administration and in a form prescribed by law or approved by the attorney general. Premium for said bond shall be paid from the administration fund. All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the unemployment compensation fund shall be deposited in such fund. All sums recovered on official bonds for losses sustained by the administrative contingency fund shall be deposited in such fund.

Sec. 13. RCW 50.29.025 and 1990 c 245 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

(1) A fund balance ratio shall be determined by dividing the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as of the June 30th immediately preceding the rate year by the total remuneration paid by all employers subject to contributions during the second calendar year preceding the rate year and reported to the department by the following March 31st. The division shall be carried to the fourth decimal place with the remaining fraction, if any, disregarded. The fund balance ratio shall be expressed as a percentage.

(2) The interval of the fund balance ratio, expressed as a percentage, shall determine which tax schedule in subsection (5) of this section shall be in effect for assigning tax rates for the rate year. The intervals for determining the effective tax schedule shall be:

(3) An array shall be prepared, listing all qualified employers in ascending order of their benefit ratios. The array shall show for each qualified employer: (a) Identification number; (b) benefit ratio; (c) taxable payrolls for the four calendar quarters immediately preceding the computation date and reported to the department by the cut-off date; (d) a cumulative total of taxable payrolls consisting of the employer's taxable payroll plus the taxable payrolls of all other employers preceding him or her in the array; and (e) the percentage equivalent of the cumulative total of taxable payrolls.

(4) Each employer in the array shall be assigned to one of twenty rate classes according to the percentage intervals of cumulative taxable payrolls set forth in subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That if an employer's taxable payroll falls within two or more rate classes, the employer and any other employer with the same benefit ratio shall be assigned to the lowest rate class which includes any portion of the employer's taxable payroll.

(5) The contribution rate for each employer in the array shall be the rate specified in the following tables for the rate class to which he or she has been assigned, as determined under subsection (4) of this section, within the tax schedule which is to be in effect during the rate year:

(6) The contribution rate for each employer not qualified to be in the array shall be as follows:

(a) Employers who do not meet the definition of "qualified employer" by reason of failure to pay contributions when due shall be assigned the contribution rate of five and four-tenths percent, except employers who have an approved agency-deferred payment contract by September 30 of the previous rate year. If any employer with an approved agency-deferred payment contract fails to make any one of the succeeding deferred payments or fails to submit any succeeding tax report and payment in a timely manner, the employer's tax rate shall immediately revert to five and four-tenths percent for the current rate year;

(b) The contribution rate for employers exempt as of December 31, 1989, who are newly covered under the section 78, chapter 380, Laws of 1989 amendment to RCW 50.04.150 and not yet qualified to be in the array shall be 2.5 percent for employers whose standard industrial code is "013", "016", "017", "018", "019", "021", or "081"; and

(c) For all other employers not qualified to be in the array, the contribution rate shall be a rate equal to the average industry rate as determined by the commissioner; however, the rate may not be less than one percent. Assignment of employers by the commissioner to industrial classification, for purposes of this subsection, shall be in accordance with established classification practices found in the "Standard Industrial Classification Manual" issued by the federal office of management and budget to the third digit provided in the Standard Industrial Classification code.

Sec. 14. RCW 50.29.025 and 1993 c .... s 13 (section 13 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

The contribution rate for each employer shall be determined under this section.

The term "qualified employer" means any employer whose standard industrial code is "013", "016", "017", "018", "019", "021", or "081".
NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 50.29 RCW to read as follows:

For the purpose of simplification of employer reports, the "combined contribution rate" shall be used in the calculation of employer taxes. The combined contribution rate shall include the regular contribution rate as determined under RCW 50.29.025, employment and training trust fund contributions as determined under section 3 of this act, and special contributions required under RCW 50.24.014. A mention of the "combined contribution rate" may not be made on a tax form or publication unless the form or publication specifically identifies the specific contributions. The combined contribution rate may not be quoted on a form unless the specific component rates are also quoted. The sole purpose of the combined contribution rate is to allow an employer to perform a single calculation on a tax return rather than four separate calculations.

(6) The contribution rate for each employer not qualified to be in the array shall be as follows:

(a) Employers who do not meet the definition of "qualified employer" by reason of failure to pay contributions when due shall be assigned the contribution rate of five and four-tenths percent, except employers who have an approved agency-deferred payment contract by September 30 of the previous rate year. If any employer with an approved agency-deferred payment contract fails to make any one of the succeeding deferred payments or fails to submit any succeeding tax report and payment in a timely manner, the employer's tax rate shall immediately revert to five and four-tenths percent for the current rate year;

(b) The contribution rate for employers exempt as of December 31, 1989, who are newly covered under the section 78, chapter 380, Laws of 1989 amendment to RCW 50.29.025, and whose standard industrial code is "013", "016", "017", "018", "019", "021", or "081"; and

c) For all other employers not qualified to be in the array, the contribution rate shall be equal to the average industry rate as determined by the commissioner; however, the rate may not be less than one percent. Assignment of employers by the commissioner to industrial classification, for purposes of this subsection, shall be in accordance with established classification practices found in the "Standard Industrial Classification Manual" issued by the federal office of management and budget to the third digit provided in the Standard Industrial Classification code.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Prior to any increase in the employer tax schedule as provided in section 13, chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (section 13 of this act), the commissioner shall provide a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature specifying to what extent the work force training expenditures in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act) elevated employer contribution rates for the effective tax schedule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) The employment security department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1994, and every year thereafter, on the status of the programs provided in this act and the resulting outcomes. The department shall include in its report quantitative and demographic information on the increase in job orders, placement referrals, individualized training plans, skill assessments, and other interventions achieved. The department also shall include in its report the number of repeat clients as a percentage of all clients served by programs provided in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act).

(2) The state board for community and technical colleges shall report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by December 1, 1994, and every year thereafter, the number of certified student full-time equivalents receiving training as provided in this act. In addition, the report must include information on the outcomes of the provided training. The report also must include indices of placement rates, student demographics, training plan completion rates, and comparisons of preprogram and postprogram wage levels.

(3) Each community and technical college shall confer and consult with its respective labor-management advisory board concerning the college’s efforts to provide the training and services rendered in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act) and meet the completion and placement goals of the work force training and education coordinating board. Each community and technical college shall ensure the participation on its labor-management advisory board of small businesses as defined in RCW 43.31.025, with particular emphasis on businesses with fifteen or fewer employees.

(4) The work force training and education coordinating board shall conduct a study in consultation with the higher education coordinating board on the feasibility of: (a) Redirecting all state and federal job training and retraining funds distributed in the state into a separate job training trust fund; and (b) distributing the funds according to uniform criteria. The work force training and education coordinating board shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on the results of the study by January 1, 1995.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:
The work force employment and training program created in chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act) shall expire June 30, 1998.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:
The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed, effective June 30, 1999:
(1) Section 1 of this act;
(2) Section 2 of this act;
(3) Section 3 of this act;
(4) Section 4 of this act;
(5) Section 5 of this act;
(6) Section 6 of this act;
(7) Section 8 of this act;
(8) Section 15 of this act; and
(9) Section 17 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) Sections 10 and 12 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1999;
(2) Section 14 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1998.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state or the eligibility of employers in this state for federal unemployment tax credits, the conflicting part of this act is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this act. The rules under this act shall meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state or the granting of federal unemployment tax credits to employers in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. This act applies to tax rate years beginning with tax rate year 1994."

Renumber accordingly
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Skratek, I think I have heard you say just the opposite in the response given by Senator Rinehart. My understanding is that all of the monies in this bill would go to the community colleges for workforce training. It would not be used for supplanting; it would not go to Employment Security. Would you respond to that please?"

Senator Skratek: "I would be happy to, Senator Deccio. Senator Rinehart is correct. The bill does not contain any appropriation for either the community colleges or for the Employment Security Department. The Senate Budget, as written by Senator Rinehart and approved by this body, provided all of the dollars to the community and technical colleges. The House Budget, I must be honest, has provided a small funding source to the Employment Security Department. It is going to be the final determination made by this body, through the budget processes to which dollars go where. The bill, itself, does not appropriate money to the Employment Security Department, Senator."

Senator Deccio: "May I continue, Mr. President? A further question, can we be guaranteed, on this floor, that none of these monies, in either the House version or the Senate version, none of these monies will go to Employment Security and none will go to administration to further supplant the community colleges budgets--that it will all go for this purpose? I would like to have Senator Skratek respond, if I could--Senator Rinehart. This is not the colloquy that I am referring to. Whatever, go ahead."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RINEHART

Senator Rinehart: "To respond to Senator Deccio, you and I both know--we've been around here long enough--there are no guarantees of anything. I can reflect and remind you that the budget that came out of this body directed all of the money to the community colleges. The budget that I am defending whenever we get to a conference committee will include that."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Nelson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senator Anderson on page 3, line 20, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

MOTION

Senator Linda Smith moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:
On page 3, after line 32 of the amendment, insert the following:
"Notwithstanding any provision of this section, funds from the employment and training trust fund shall not be expended for personal services contracts or for salaries of persons who hold state elective office and who have received payments of more than $100,000 in the preceding calendar year for personal services contracts with the state of Washington."
Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Could you describe for the members of the Senate your policy with respect to the question of whether we start to get to the point at which amendments are frivolous within the meaning of Reed's Rules?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT
President Pritchard: "You know that gets to be sort of a gray area of what is a frivolous amendment. A frivolous amendment to one person isn't to another. If it doesn't bear on the bill--there is quite a bit of latitude in allowing amendments. I think we have to be pretty careful about not choking them off. As to what is frivolous and what isn't--we get to a certain point--I think that is as clear as I can say."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Linda Smith on page 3, after line 32, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988. ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; Nays, 29; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bluechel, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Niemi, Owen, Peitz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams and Wojahn - 29.

MOTION

Senator Linda Smith moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 3, after line 32 of the amendment, insert the following:

"Notwithstanding any provision of this section, funds from the employment and training trust fund shall not be disbursed to any agency, college or other entity that is a party to a personal services contract with a person who holds federal or state elective office."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would request a ruling from the Chair. I believe that the rule states that once a body has made a decision in the negative that the same basic concept cannot be brought before the body again. Although, a few words are changed, this will be the third time that this concept has been brought before the body."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "Well, we'll take a look at it. Do you want to respond Senator Smith?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR SMITH

Senator Linda Smith: "Thank you, Mr. President. This is the first amendment that addresses the institution itself. There is nothing that withholds the money from the institution. This is the only one that says, 'notwithstanding any provision of this section, funds from the employment and training trust fund shall not be disbursed to any agency, college or other entity that is a party to a personal services contract.' So, it says that the money will not go to them. The other amendments did not go that direction."

FURTHER REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "I'm not going to rule this out. One, it is the last of the line. I think if we were to continue this line, I probably would. There are some differences; we are in a gray area and we will let this last one go."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Linda Smith demanded a roll call and the demand was not sustained.

The motion by Senator Linda Smith failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 3, after line 32, insert the following:
"It is the intent of the legislature that expenditures from the employment and training trust fund be used to provide training and related support services to persons with financial need. Demand for such services will likely outweigh available funds. Therefore, the office of financial management shall develop eligibility guidelines. The guidelines shall give priority to individuals who earned an average annual income at the time of termination or notice of termination that is less than the median average annual income in Washington state."

Debate ensued.

Senator Nelson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senator Nelson on page 3, after line 32, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; Nays, 29; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 3, after line 32, insert the following:
"(8) As retraining becomes a common part of adult work life, it is important that all vocational education opportunities be used to the maximum extend possible. Skill centers established to provide vocational training for high school students are used during the morning and early afternoon. These facilities are idle during the late afternoon and evening hours. At the same time, community colleges have more students applying than they can accommodate. To assure that we meet the needs of our citizens in seeking training or retraining, all vocational training facilities should be used to the maximum extent possible. The superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community and technical colleges shall jointly develop and adopt rules governing this program, if such rules are necessary. The rules shall be written to encourage the maximum use of the program and shall not narrow or limit the enrollment options in this program."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Linda Smith failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:
On page 4, line 18, after "RCW 50.20.043." insert "Workers unemployed as a result of the tax and fee policies enacted by the 1993 Washington legislature will be deemed to be dislocated workers for the purpose of commissioner approval of training under RCW 50.20.043 if so certified by the worker's former employer."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator McDonald, for purposes of the definition here, does a 'dislocated worker' mean all of the people that have been offering amendments to this bill?"

Senator McDonald: "I will guarantee you that my typing skills are much inferior to my legislative skills, Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator McDonald on page 4, line 18, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988. The motion by Senator McDonald failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Oke moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 4, after Section 7, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Military workers unemployed as the result of downsizing and restructuring of the military will be deemed to be dislocated workers for the purposes of commissioner approval of training under RCW 50.20.043."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly and correct any internal references.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senator Oke on page 3, after line 32, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; Nays, 28; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

MOTION

Senator Sellar moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 4, after Section 7, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Military workers unemployed as the result of downsizing and restructuring of the military will be deemed to be dislocated workers for the purposes of commissioner approval of training under RCW 50.20.043."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly and correct any internal references.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Sellar on page 4, line 29, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

The motion by Senator Sellar failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Erwin moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 4, line 31, after "priorities." insert "For the purposes of voting on the approval of the plan, only business and labor representatives on the workforce training and education coordinating board shall have a vote."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Erwin on page 4, line 31, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988. The motion by Senator Erwin failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Anderson moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 19, after section 17, insert the following:
The legislature finds: (1) That permits are a necessary part of regulating some public and private activity for the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of this state; (2) that permit processing by state and local agencies should be done timely, fairly, and as efficiently as possible; (3) that permit processing by state and local agencies sometimes does not meet reasonable expectations of the citizens of this state; (4) that many projects require some regulatory review by several departments in the same agency or multiple review by different agencies; and (5) that better coordination of the issuance of permits in and between state and local agencies will enhance the permit process; and (6) permitting delays construction and results in less construction and ultimately fewer jobs. Sections 2 through 5 of this act intend to improve permit processing by state and local agencies by providing encouragement and technical assistance to establish coordinated, one-stop permit processes and by encouraging improved service to the citizens of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The workforce training education coordinating board shall convene a task force of agencies directors to recommend or implement changes to the processing of regulatory permits by state agencies. The goal of these recommendations or changes shall be to make the process more coordinated, more timely, more effective, and more service-oriented. The task force shall include, but not be limited to, the director of the department of ecology and the department of community development. The recommendations or changes shall consider at least the following: (1) Streamlining state environmental permit processing among natural resource and regulatory agencies, particularly regarding multiple agency permit processing and eliminating duplication; and (2) identifying a staff person in each regional office of regulatory agencies to coordinate cross-program or multiagency processing and decisions. The governor shall report to the appropriate legislative standing committees regarding this section by December 1, 1993.

Renumber all sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Anderson on page 19, after Section 17, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

The motion by Senator Anderson failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Amondson moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 19, after section 17, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) The competitive strategies task force is established for the purposes of developing strategies for reducing the cost of government services or other public sector activities; improving the quality of services, without increasing costs, that citizens require; and, minimizing the role of government where market competition is able to achieve the social good without significant government interference.

(2) The task force shall be composed of the following fifteen members: The executive director of the commission for efficiency and accountability in government or his or her designee, who shall serve as chair; the governor or the governor's designee; the director of the department of general administration or his or her designee; a representative from each caucus of the house of representatives; a representative from each caucus of the senate to be appointed by the president of the senate; a representative from a major state-wide public employee union; two representatives from major state-wide private sector unions; three representatives from a major state-wide business organization that represents a cross section of private sector industry; and, two representatives from the general public.

(3) The task force shall:

(a) Perform a thorough review and inventory of all state services and other activities of state government.

(b) Identify various arrangements that the state government might implement as alternative methods to the purchase or delivery of necessary services including but not limited to the transfer of facility operation to a private sector management company; cooperative public-private finance and development plans, joint public-private operation of existing facilities, infrastructure and services; sale or lease of government-owned real estate assets; transfer of selected services to the private sector; sale or recapitalization of government-owned companies; enhancement of cash management and debt restructuring; restructuring government organizations and management; use of leases and lease purchase arrangements for facilities and infrastructure; voucher-based programs; and intergovernmental agreements.

(c) Consider incentives to encourage the active use of the arrangements identified under (b) of this subsection by state agencies, departments, and institutions.

(d) Develop comprehensive guidelines or procedures for the implementation of arrangements identified under (b) of this subsection that ensure satisfactory accountability measures and protection of the public interest.

(e) Investigate efforts made by other states and nations to arrange for the use of competitive strategies.

(f) Report its final findings and recommendations to the legislature no later than December 15, 1993, including any legislation the task force finds necessary for the implementation of the findings and recommendations.

(4) The office of financial management shall provide the necessary staff support for the purposes of this task force.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. It is the intent of the legislature that:

(1) All agencies, departments, offices of elective or appointed state officers, state institutions, colleges, universities, community colleges, technical colleges, college districts, public school districts, the supreme court, the court of appeals and any other entity receiving appropriations from the legislature deliver high quality services to the people of the state of Washington in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible.
(2) The director of general administration, through the state purchasing and material control director established in RCW 43.19.180, be provided the highest level of flexibility in the purchase of all materials, supplies, services, and equipment necessary for the efficient support, maintenance, repair, and use of all agencies and departments under RCW 43.19.110.

(3) Primary deliberation regarding the purchase or delivery of services by state agencies, departments, and institutions focus upon strategies that foster cost controls and increased quality or service levels through the use of free market enterprise competition.

Sec. 20. RCW 41.06.380 and 1979 ex.s. c 46 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:
(Nothing contained in this chapter shall prohibit any department!) No agency, as defined in RCW 41.06.020, [(from purchasing services by contract with individuals or business entities if such services were regularly purchased by valid contract by such department prior to April 23, 1979]. PROVIDED, That no such contract may be executed or renewed if it would have the effect of terminating classified employees or classified employee positions existing at the time of the execution or renewal of the contract) may purchase services or the delivery of services through contracts with individuals or business entities. The execution or renewal of the contract must be in compliance with the provisions of RCW 43.19.1906.

Sec. 21. RCW 28B.16.040 and 1990 c 60 s 201 are each amended to read as follows:
The following classifications, positions, and employees of institutions of higher education and related boards are hereby exempted from coverage of this chapter:
(1) Members of the governing board of each institution and related boards, all presidents, vice presidents and their confidential secretaries, administrative and personal assistants; deans, directors, and chairmen; academic personnel; and executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions employed by institutions of higher education; and any employee of a community college district whose place of work is one which is physically located outside the state of Washington and who is employed pursuant to RCW 28B.50.092 and assigned to an educational program operating outside of the state of Washington.
(2) Student, part time, or temporary employees, and part time professional consultants, as defined by the higher education personnel board, employed by institutions of higher education and related boards.
(3) The director, his or her confidential secretary, assistant directors, and professional education employees of the state board for community and technical colleges (education).
(4) The personnel director of the higher education personnel board and his or her confidential secretary.
(5) The governing board of each institution, and related boards, may also exempt from this chapter, subject to the employees right of appeal to the higher education personnel board, classifications involving research activities, counseling of students, extension or continuing education activities, graphic arts or publications activities requiring prescribed academic preparation or special training, and principal assistants to executive heads of major administrative or academic divisions, as determined by the higher education personnel board. PROVIDED, That no nonacademic employee engaged in office, clerical, maintenance, food and trade services may be exempted by the higher education personnel board under this provision)

Any classified employee having civil service status in a classified position who accepts an appointment in an exempt position shall have the right of reversion to the highest class of position previously held, or to a position of similar nature and salary. A person occupying an exempt position who is terminated from the position for gross misconduct or malfeasance does not have the right of reversion to a classified position as provided for in this section.

Sec. 22. RCW 28B.16.240 and 1979 ex.s. c 46 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:
(Nothing contained in this chapter shall prohibit any) An institution of higher education, as defined in RCW 28B.10.016, or related board [(from purchasing services by contract with individuals or business entities if such services were regularly purchased by valid contract by such institution prior to April 23, 1979]. PROVIDED, That no such contract may be executed or renewed if it would have the effect of terminating classified employees or classified employee positions existing at the time of the execution or renewal of the contract) may purchase services or the delivery of services through contracts with individuals or business entities. The execution or renewal of the contract must be in compliance with the provisions of RCW 43.19.1906.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 28A.400 RCW to read as follows:
An agency shall be construed as providing or nonacademic services. Directors of school districts may purchase services or the delivery of services through contracts with individuals or business entities. The execution or renewal of the contract must be in compliance with the provisions of RCW 43.19.1906*

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Amondson on page 19, after Section 17, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

The motion by Senator Amondson failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 19, after line 37, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) The subcommittee on the aerospace industry is established as a subcommittee of the executive-legislative committee on economic development created in chapter ...(Senate Bill No. 5300), Laws of 1993. The subcommittee is to examine the overall impacts of the aerospace industry work slowdown and make recommendations to the full committee, the governor, and the legislature regarding:
(a) The need for short-term and long-term assistance for workers made unemployed by the slowdown, inducing extending unemployment benefits, job retraining, new employment assistance, family assistance, and other types of assistance; and
(b) A long-term approach to diversification of the region most affected by aerospace business fluctuations.

In conducting the examination, the subcommittee shall consider the impacts on: The state and substate regional economies; displaced workers and their families; and businesses not directly related to the aerospace industry
(2) The subcommittee shall consist of at least three members of the full committee and may include advisory members. The advisory members may include representatives from: (a) The aerospace industry; (b) chambers of commerce and economic development councils; (c) unions representing aerospace workers; (d) county councils; (e) city governments; and (f) the work force training and education coordinating board.

(3) The subcommittee shall as soon as is practicable and make a preliminary report to the full committee, the governor, and the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by September 15, 1993, and a final report before December 1, 1993.

(4) This section shall expire December 31, 1993.

MOTION

Senator Prince moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 20, after line 16 of the amendment, insert the following:

'Sec. 21. RCW 28C.18.020 and 1991 c 238 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created the work force training and education coordinating board as a state agency and as the successor agency to the state board for vocational education. Once the coordinating board has convened, all references to the state board for vocational education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the work force training and education coordinating board, except that reference to the state board for vocational education in RCW 49.04.030 shall mean the state board for community and technical colleges.

(2)(a) The board shall consist of nine voting members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, as follows: (\[\text{\textbf{\textit{Six}}}\]) Six representatives of business, three representatives of labor, and, serving as ex officio members, the superintendent of public instruction, the executive director of the state board for community and technical colleges, and the commissioner of the employment security department. The chair of the board shall be a nonvoting member selected by the governor with the consent of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. In selecting the chair, the governor shall seek a person who understands the future economic needs of the state and nation and the role that the state's training system has in meeting those needs. Each voting member of the board may appoint a designee to function in his or her place with the right to vote. In making appointments to the board, the governor shall seek to ensure geographic, ethnic, and gender diversity and balance. The governor shall also seek to ensure diversity and balance by the appointment of persons with disabilities.

(b) The business representatives shall be selected from among nominations provided by a state-wide business organization representing a cross-section of industries. However, the governor may request, and the organization shall provide, an additional list or lists from which the governor shall select the business representatives. The nominations and selections shall reflect the cultural diversity of the state, including women, people with disabilities, and racial and ethnic minorities, and diversity in sizes of businesses.

(c) The labor representatives shall be selected from among nominations provided by state-wide labor organizations. However, the governor may request, and the organizations shall provide, an additional list or lists from which the governor shall select the labor representatives. The nominations and selections shall reflect the cultural diversity of the state, including women, people with disabilities, and racial and ethnic minorities.

(d) Each business member may cast a proxy vote or votes for any business member who is not present and who authorizes in writing the present member to cast such vote.

(e) Each labor member may cast a proxy vote for any labor member who is not present and who authorizes in writing the present member to cast such vote.

(f) The chair shall appoint to the board one nonvoting member to represent racial and ethnic minorities, women, and people with disabilities. The nonvoting member appointed by the chair shall serve for a term of four years with the term expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term.

(g) The business members of the board shall serve for terms of four years, the terms expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term except that in the case of initial members, one shall be appointed to a two-year term and one appointed to a three-year term.

(h) The labor members of the board shall serve for terms of four years, the terms expiring on June 30th of the fourth year of the term except that in the case of initial members, one shall be appointed to a two-year term and one appointed to a three-year term.

(i) Any vacancies among board members representing business or labor shall be filled by the governor with nominations provided by state-wide organizations representing business or labor, respectively.

(j) The board shall adopt bylaws and shall meet at least bimonthly and at such other times as determined by the chair who shall give reasonable prior notice to the members or at the request of a majority of the voting members.

(k) Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.040 and shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(l) The board shall be formed and ready to assume its responsibilities under this chapter by October 1, 1991.

(m) The director of the board shall be appointed by the governor from a list of three names submitted by a committee made up of the business and labor members of the board. However, the governor may request, and the committee shall provide, an additional list or lists from which the governor shall select the director. The lists compiled by the committee shall not be subject to public disclosure. The governor may dismiss the director only with the approval of a majority vote of the board. The board, by a majority vote, may dismiss the director with the approval of the governor.

(3) The state board for vocational education is hereby abolished and its powers, duties, and functions are hereby transferred to the work force training and education coordinating board. All references to the director or the state board for vocational education in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or the work force training and education coordinating board.

Sec. 22. RCW 28C.18.030 and 1991 c 238 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of the board is to identify work force needs of Washington state employers and to provide planning, coordination, evaluation, monitoring, and policy analysis for the state training system as a whole, and advice to the governor and legislature concerning the state training system, in cooperation with the agencies which comprise the state training system, and the higher education coordinating board."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Prince on page 20, after line 16, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988. The motion by Senator West failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Nelson moved that the following amendment by Senators Nelson and Sellar to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 20, line 31, after "Sec. 23." insert "If at any time Washington state's rate of unemployment falls below the national rate of unemployment, then sixty days thereafter this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24."

Debate ensued.

Senator Nelson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the amendment by Senators Nelson and Sellar on page 20, line 31, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; Nays, 28; Absent, 1; Excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bluechel, Drew, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Niemi, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, Williams and Wojahn - 28.

Absent: Senator Owen - 1.

MOTION

Senator West moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel be adopted:

On page 1, after line 29, insert the following:

“(4) That additional taxes are needed to enhance the existing state spending that is in excess of six hundred million per biennium to accomplish the intent of this legislation.”

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator West on page 1, line 29, to the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988. The motion by Senator West failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel on page 1, after line 17, as amended, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: “Senator Skratek, we face a federal requirement of establishing a schedule of charges against employers around the state and one of the requirements in there is that the top rate--and there shall be a top-rate--and there shall be a group of employers in that top-rate of five point four percent. According to the machinery you have set up here, you would lower the rate, you say point one two and I don't believe that you can legally lower a rate. We'll then again have to raise it right to the five point four for the federal requirements and in addition, aren't you going to have an additional top-rate, so that the top-rate will be five point five two?”

Senator Skratek: “Thank you, Senator Newhouse, for asking that question. You are correct regarding the Class 20, which is why you will find in Section 3 of the striking amendment that those employers have been exempted from this particular requirement.”
The amendment by Senators Rinehart, Skratek and Bluechel on page 1, after line 7, as amended, to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "training;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 50.16.010, 50.16.020, and 50.29.025; adding a new section to chapter 50.24 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 50.16 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 50.29 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.131 RCW; creating new sections; and providing effective dates."

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1988, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote:

Yeas, 25; Nays, 23; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Cantu, Deccio, Erwin, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McCaslin, McDonald, Moore, Nelson, Newhouse, Oke, Prince, Sellar, Smith, L., Sutherland, Vognild, West and Wojahn - 23.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1988, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 19, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The Speaker has signed:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1003,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1057,
HOUSE BILL NO. 1395,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1415,
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1435,
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1461,

HOUSE BILL NO. 1535,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1824,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2111,
HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 4008, and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1003,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1057,
HOUSE BILL NO. 1395,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1415,
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1435,
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1461,
HOUSE BILL NO. 1530,
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1532,
HOUSE BILL NO. 1535,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1824,
ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 2111,
HOUSE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 4008.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate advanced to the ninth order of business.

MOTION
Senator Jesernig moved that the rules be suspended and the Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5976 and Senate Bill No. 5977 and that the bills be placed on the second reading calendar.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator McDonald: "Senator Jesernig, have any of these ever had a public hearing?"
Senator Jesernig: "I believe they have, Senator McDonald."
Senator McDonald: "According to my sources, they have not had a public hearing."
Senator Jesernig: "We can speak to Senator Rinehart and we can work that out."
Senator McDonald: "I think that these bills, as we discovered, have not had a hearing and it is not these bills. Senator Rinehart, that are the objection. I think the objection is pulling bills to the floor that have not had a public hearing. We did a number of them yesterday. We did not object at that time. This is an opportunity to do that. I think it is a poor public policy to be doing this particularly with bills that have not had a public hearing, period. I am going to raise this objection; I am not necessarily going to vote against this move, because I don't think these bills are detrimental, but I do think it is a very, very poor policy to do this."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RINEHART
Senator Rinehart: "Thank you, Mr. President. Both of these measures were included in Governor Gardner's budget and were the subject of a hearing before the Ways and Means Committee. Secretary of State Ralph Munro came and testified on both of these measures, so, while technically it is accurate that these bills separately have not been heard, the content of both of them has been heard in the Ways and Means Committee."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Jesernig that the Committee on Ways and Means be relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5976 and Senate Bill No. 5977 and that the bills be placed on the second reading calendar. The motion by Senator Jesernig carried and Senate Bill No. 5976 and Senate Bill No. 5977 were placed on the second reading calendar.

MOTION
At 4:12 p.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate recessed until 5:15 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 6:34 p.m. by President Pritchard.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate reverted to the third order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 19, 1993

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 5053 entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to the local vessel excise tax."

Senate Bill No. 5053 requires counties to contract with the Department of Licensing for the administration and collection of the local vessel excise tax authorized under RCW 82.49.070. Currently, King County is the only county now imposing this tax. Sections 38, and 40 through 42 of Substitute House Bill No. 1318, as amended by the Senate, repeal the local vessel excise tax as of June 30, 1994 and replace it with an increase in the state vessel registration fee the proceeds of which will be used for local boating safety, education, and enforcement programs. The Chair of the House Committee on Natural Resources and Parks has recommended that the House Concur in these Senate Amendments to Substitute House Bill 1318 and, along with the Sponsor of Senate Bill No. 5053 and representatives of King County, has communicated a desire for a veto of Senate Bill 5053.

The Senate amendments to Substitute House Bill No. 1318 will negate the need for the vessel excise tax administration and collection changes intended by Senate Bill No. 5053. For this reason, I have vetoed Senate Bill No. 5053 in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,
MIKE LOWRY, Governor

Senate Bill No. 5053 was held on the desk.
There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 8, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5195 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 21.20 RCW to read as follows:
It is unlawful for a broker-dealer, salesperson, investment adviser, or investment adviser salesperson knowingly to effect or cause to be effected, with or for a customer's account, transactions of purchase or sale (1) that are excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial resources and character of the account and (2) that are effected because the broker-dealer, salesperson, investment adviser, or investment adviser salesperson is vested with discretionary power or is able by reason of the customer's trust and confidence to influence the volume and frequency of the trades.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 21.20 RCW to read as follows:
(1) In recommending to a customer the purchase, sale, or exchange of a security, a broker-dealer, salesperson, investment adviser, or investment adviser salesperson must have reasonable grounds for believing that the recommendation is suitable for the customer upon the basis of the facts, if any, disclosed by the customer as to his or her other security holdings and as to his or her financial situation and needs.
(2) Before the execution of a transaction recommended to a noninstitutional customer, other than transactions with customers where investments are limited to money market mutual funds, a broker-dealer, salesperson, investment adviser, or investment adviser salesperson shall make reasonable efforts to obtain information concerning:
(a) The customer's financial status;
(b) The customer's tax status;
(c) The customer's investment objectives; and
(d) Such other information used or considered to be reasonable by the broker-dealer, salesperson, investment adviser, or investment adviser salesperson or registered representative in making recommendations to the customer.

Sec. 3. RCW 21.20.110 and 1986 c 14 s 45 are each amended to read as follows:
The director may by order deny, suspend, or revoke registration of any broker-dealer, salesperson, investment adviser salesperson, or investment adviser; censure or fine the registrant or an officer, director, partner, or person occupying similar functions for a registrant; or restrict or limit a registrant's function or activity of business for which registration is required in this state; if the director finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, any partner, officer, or director:
(1) Has filed an application for registration under this section which, as of its effective date, or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false, or misleading with respect to any material fact;"
(2) Has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or a predecessor act or any rule or order under this chapter or a predecessor act, or any provision of chapter 21.30 RCW or any rule or order thereunder;

(3) Has been convicted, within the past five years, of any misdemeanor involving a security, or a commodity contract or commodity option as defined in RCW 21.30.010, or any aspect of the securities or investment commodities business, or any felony involving moral turpitude;

(4) Is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the securities or investment commodities business;

(5) Is the subject of an order of the director denying, suspending, or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, salesperson, investment adviser, or investment adviser salesperson;

(6) Has been a broker-dealer, or has been an officer, director, or employee of a broker-dealer, during any period of twelve consecutive months that person does not direct more than fifteen employees;

(7) Has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities or investment commodities business;

(8) Is insolvent, either in the sense that his or her liabilities exceed his or her assets or in the sense that he or she cannot meet his or her obligations as they mature; but the director may not enter an order against a broker-dealer or investment adviser under this clause without a finding of insolvency as to the broker-dealer or investment adviser;

(9) Has not complied with a condition imposed by the director under RCW 21.20.100, or is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience, or knowledge of the securities or investment commodities business; or

(10) (a) Has failed to supervise reasonably ((if he or she is a broker-dealer)) a salesperson((if he or she is a broker-dealer)) or ((if he or she is an investment adviser salesperson)) an investment adviser salesperson ((if he or she is an investment adviser salesperson))

The director may by order summarily postpone or suspend registration pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. For the purposes of this subsection, no person fails to supervise reasonably another person, if:

(i) There are established procedures, and a system for applying those procedures, that would reasonably be expected to prevent and detect, insofar as practicable, any violation by another person of this chapter, or a rule or order under this chapter, and the supervising person has reasonably discharged the duties and obligations required by these procedures and system without reasonable cause to believe that another person was violating this chapter or rules or orders under this chapter.

(b) The director may issue a summary order pending final determination of a proceeding under this section upon a finding that it is in the public interest and necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors. The director may not impose a fine under this section except after notice and opportunity for hearing. The fine imposed under this section may not exceed five thousand dollars for each act or omission that constitutes the basis for issuing the order.

Sec. 4. RCW 21.20.005 and 1989 c 391 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section shall apply throughout this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Director" means the director of licensing of this state.

(2) "Salesperson" means any individual other than a broker-dealer who represents a broker-dealer or issuer in effecting or attempting to effect sales of securities, but "salesperson" does not include an individual who represents an issuer in (a) effecting a transaction in a security exempted by RCW 21.20.310 (1), (2), (3), (4), (9), (10), (11), (12), or (13), as now or hereafter amended, (b) effecting transactions exempted by RCW 21.20.320, or (c) effecting transactions with existing employees, partners, or directors of the issuer if no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any person in this state on behalf of the broker-dealer. "Broker-dealer" means any person engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities for the account of others or for that person's own account. "Broker-dealer" does not include (a) a salesperson, issuer, bank, savings institution, or trust company, (b) a person who has no place of business in this state if the person effects transactions in this state exclusively with or through the issuers of the securities involved in the transactions, other broker-dealers, or banks, savings institutions, trust companies, insurance companies, investment companies as defined in the investment company act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trusts, or other financial institutions or institutional buyers, whether acting for themselves or as trustees, or (c) a person who has no place of business in this state if during any period of twelve consecutive months that person does not direct more than fifteen offers to sell or to buy into this state in any manner to persons other than those specified in subsection (b) above.

(3) "Dealer" means a person who, for compensation, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through publications or writings, as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities, or who, for compensation and as a part of a regular business, issues or promulgates analyses or reports concerning securities. "Investment adviser" also includes financial planners and other persons who, as an integral component of other financially related services, (a) provide the foregoing investment advisory services to others for compensation as part of a business or (b) hold themselves out as providing the foregoing investment advisory services to others for compensation. Investment adviser shall also include any person who holds himself out as a financial planner.

"Investment adviser" does not include (a) a bank, savings institution, or trust company, (b) a lawyer, accountant, certified public accountant licensed under chapter 18.04 RCW, engineer, or teacher whose performance of these services is solely incidental to the practice of his or her profession, (c) a broker-dealer, (d) a publisher of any bona fide newspaper, news magazine, or business or financial publication of general, regular, and paid circulation, (e) a radio or television station, (f) a person whose advice, analyses, or reports concern only to securities exempted by RCW 21.20.310 (1), (g) a person who has no place of business in this state if (i) that person's only clients in this state are other investment advisers, broker-dealers, banks, savings institutions, trust companies, insurance companies, investment companies as defined in the investment company act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust, or other financial institutions or institutional buyers, whether acting for themselves or as trustees, or (ii) during any period of twelve consecutive months that person does not direct business communications into this state in any manner to more than five clients other than those specified in clause (i) above, or (h) such other persons not within the intent of this paragraph as the director may by rule or order designate.

(7) "Issuer" means any person who issues or proposes to issue any security, except that with respect to certificates of deposit, voting trust certificates, or collateral-trust certificates, or with respect to certificates of interest or shares in an unincorporated investment trust not having a board of directors (or persons performing similar functions) or of the fixed, restricted management, or unit type; the term "issuer" means the person or persons performing the acts and assuming the duties of depositor or manager pursuant to the provisions of the trust or other agreement or instrument under which the security is issued.

(8) "Nonissuer" means not directly or indirectly for the benefit of the issuer.

(9) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint-stock company, a trust where the interest of the beneficiaries are evidenced by a security, an unincorporated organization, a government, or a political subdivision of a government.

(10) "Sale" or "sell" includes every contract of sale of, contract to sell, or disposition of, a security or interest in a security for value. "Offer" or "offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of, or solicitation of an offer to buy, a security or interest in a security for value.

Any security given or delivered with, or as a bonus on account of, any purchase of securities or any other thing is considered to constitute part of the subject of the purchase and to have been offered and sold for value. A purported gift of assessable stock is considered to involve an offer and sale. Every sale or offer of a warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to another security of the same or another issuer, as well as every sale or offer of a security which gives the holder a present or future right or privilege to convert into another security of the same or another issuer, is considered to include an offer of the other security.

(12) "Security" means any note; stock; treasury stock; bond; debenture; evidence of indebtedness; certificate of interest or participation in any profit-sharing agreement, collateral-trust certificate; preorganization certificate or subscription; transferable share; investment contract; investment of money or other consideration in the risk capital of a venture with the expectation of a valuable benefit to the investor where the investor does not receive the right to exercise practical and actual control over the managerial decisions of the venture; voting-trust certificate; certificate of deposit for a security; certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease; charitable gift annuity; charitable remainder unitrust or charitable remainder trust certificate; certificate of interest or participation in, temporary or interim certificate for, receipt for, guarantee of, or warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing; or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a "security", or any certificate of interest or participation in, temporary or interim certificate for, receipt for, guarantee of, or warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing; or any sale of or indenture, bond or contract for the conveyance of land or any interest therein where such land is situated outside of the state of Washington and such sale or its offering is not conducted by a real estate broker licensed by the state of Washington. "Security" does not include any insurance or endowment policy or annuity contract under which an insurance company promises to pay money either in a lump sum or periodically for life or some other specified period.

(13) "State" means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, as well as the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

(14) "Investment adviser salesperson" means a person retained or employed by an investment adviser to solicit clients or offer the services of the investment adviser or manage the accounts of said clients.

(15) "Relatives", as used in ROW 21.20.310(11) as now or hereafter amended, shall include:
(a) A member's spouse;
(b) Parents of the member or the member's spouse;
(c) Grandparents of the member or the member's spouse;
(d) Natural or adopted children of the member or the member's spouse;
(e) Aunts and uncles of the member or the member's spouse; and
(f) First cousins of the member or the member's spouse.

(16) "Customer" means a person other than a broker-dealer or investment adviser.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5948 with following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 18.130.090 and 1986 c 259 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) If the disciplining authority determines, upon investigation, that there is reason to believe a violation of RCW 18.130.180 has occurred, a statement of charge or charges shall be prepared and served upon the license holder or applicant at the earliest practical time. The statement of charge or charges shall be accompanied by a notice that the license holder or applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. The license holder or applicant must file a request for hearing with the disciplining authority within twenty days after being served the statement of charges. If the twenty-day limit results in a hardship upon the license holder or applicant, he or she may request for good cause an extension not to exceed sixty additional days. If the disciplining authority finds that there is good cause, it shall grant the extension. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the disciplining authority may enter a decision on the basis of the facts available to it.
(2) If a hearing is requested, the time of the hearing shall be fixed by the disciplining authority as soon as convenient, but the hearing shall not be held earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the license holder or applicant. ([A notice of hearing shall be issued at least twenty days prior to the hearing, specifying the time, date, and place of the hearing. The notice shall also notify the license holder or applicant that a record of the proceeding will be kept, that he or she will have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses, who will be subject to cross-examination, and evidence in his or her own behalf, to cross examine witnesses testifying against him or her, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against him or her, to conduct depositions, and to have subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority.])"

"Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 18.130 RCW to read as follows:
REQUIRED UNIFORM PROCEDURES. (1) The secretary shall develop uniform procedural rules to respond to public inquiries concerning complaints and their disposition, active investigations, statement of charges, findings of fact, and final orders involving a licensee, applicant, or unlicensed person. The uniform procedural rules adopted under this subsection apply to all adjudicative proceedings conducted under this chapter and shall include provisions for the establishing time lines for discovery, settlement, and scheduling hearings.
(2) The uniform procedures for conducting investigations shall provide that prior to taking a written statement:
(a) For violation of this chapter, the investigator shall inform such person, in writing of: (i) The nature of the complaint; (ii) that the person may consult with legal counsel at his or her expense prior to making a statement; and (iii) that any statement that the person makes may be used in an adjudicative proceeding conducted under this chapter; and
(b) From a witness or potential witness in an investigation under this chapter, the investigator shall inform the person, in writing, that the statement may be released to the licensee, applicant, or unlicensed person under investigation if a statement of charges is issued.
(3) In order to assure the uniform application of the procedural rules developed by the secretary, the secretary or his or her designee shall serve as presiding officer for all proceedings under this chapter, including those conducted by disciplinary authorities identified in RCW 18.130.040(2)(b), other than the board of funeral directors and embalmers, and shall perform all functions of the presiding officer under chapter 34.05 RCW. In those areas where the disciplining authority is a board, the secretary or his or her designee, shall not vote on the final decision.

Sec. 3. RCW 18.130.175 and 1991 c 3 ss 270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In lieu of disciplinary action under RCW 18.130.160 and if the disciplining authority determines that the unprofessional conduct may be the result of substance abuse, the disciplining authority may refer the license holder to a voluntary substance abuse monitoring program approved by the disciplining authority.

The cost of the treatment shall be the responsibility of the license holder, but the responsibility does not preclude payment by an employer, existing insurance coverage, or other sources. Primary alcoholism or drug treatment shall be provided by approved treatment (facilities) programs under RCW (72.56A.020(2)) 70.96A.020: PROVIDED, That nothing shall prohibit the disciplining authority from approving additional services and programs as an adjunct to primary alcoholism or drug treatment. The disciplining authority may also approve the use of out-of-state programs. Referral of the license holder to the program shall be done only with the consent of the license holder. Referral to the program may also include probationary conditions for a designated period of time. If the license holder does not consent to be referred to the program or does not successfully complete the program, the disciplining authority may take appropriate action under RCW 18.130.160. The secretary shall adopt uniform rules for the evaluation by the disciplining authority of a relapse or program violation on the part of a license holder in the substance abuse monitoring program.

The evaluation shall encourage program participation with additional conditions, in lieu of disciplinary action, when the disciplining authority determines that the license holder is able to continue to practice with reasonable skill and safety.

(2) In addition to approving substance abuse monitoring programs that may receive referrals from the disciplining authority, the disciplining authority may establish by rule requirements for participation of license holders who are not being investigated or monitored by the disciplining authority for substance abuse. License holders voluntarily participating in the approved programs without being referred by the disciplining authority shall not be subject to disciplinary action under RCW 18.130.160 for their substance abuse, and shall not have their participation made known to the disciplining authority, if they meet the requirements of this section and the program in which they are participating.

(3) The license holder shall sign a waiver allowing the program to release information to the disciplining authority if the licensee does not comply with the requirements of this section or is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety. The substance abuse program shall report to the disciplining authority any license holder who fails to comply with the requirements of this section or the program or who, in the opinion of the program, is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety. License holders shall report to the disciplining authority if they fail to comply with this section or do not complete the program’s requirements. License holders may, upon the agreement of the program and disciplining authority, reenter the program if they have previously failed to comply with this section.

(4) The treatment and pretreatment records of license holders referred to or voluntarily participating in approved programs shall be confidential, shall be exempt from RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.400, and shall not be subject to discovery by subpoena or admissible as evidence except for monitoring records reported to the disciplining authority for cause as defined in subsection (3) of this section. Monitoring records relating to license holders referred to the program by the disciplining authority or relating to license holders reported to the disciplining authority by the program for cause, shall be released to the disciplining authority at the request of the disciplining authority. Records held by the disciplining authority under this section shall be exempt from RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.400 and shall not be subject to discovery by subpoena except by the license holder.

(5) "Substance abuse," as used in this section, means the impairment, as determined by the disciplining authority, of a license holder's professional services by an addiction to, a dependency on, or the use of alcohol, legend drugs, or controlled substances.

(6) This section does not affect an employer's right or ability to make employment-related decisions regarding a license holder. This section does not restrict the authority of the disciplining authority to take disciplinary action for any other unprofessional conduct.

(7) A person who, in good faith, reports information or takes action in connection with this section is immune from civil liability for reporting information or taking the action.

(a) The immunity from civil liability provided by this section shall be liberally construed to accomplish the purposes of this section and the persons entitled to immunity shall include:

(i) An approved monitoring treatment program;

(ii) The professional association operating the program;

(iii) Members, employees, or agents of the program or association;

(iv) Persons reporting a license holder as being impaired or providing information about the license holder's impairment; and

(v) Professionals supervising or monitoring the course of the impaired license holder's treatment or rehabilitation.

(b) The immunity provided in this section is in addition to any other immunity provided by law.

(8) In addition to health care professionals governed by this chapter, this section also applies to pharmacists under chapter 18.64 RCW and pharmacy assistants under chapter 18.64A RCW. For that purpose, the board of pharmacy shall be deemed to be the disciplining authority and the substance abuse monitoring program shall be in lieu of disciplinary action under RCW 18.64.160 or 18.64A.050. The board of pharmacy shall adjust license fees to offset the costs of this program.

Sec. 4. RCW 18.130.040. 4 and 1992 c 128 ss 6 and 1992 c 158 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter applies only to the secretary and the boards having jurisdiction in relation to the professions licensed under the chapters specified in this section. This chapter does not apply to any business or profession not licensed under the chapters specified in this section.

(2)(a) The secretary has authority under this chapter in relation to the following professions:

(i) Dispensing opticians licensed under chapter 18.34 RCW;

(ii) Naturopaths licensed under chapter 18.36A RCW;

(iii) Midwives licensed under chapter 18.50 RCW;

(iv) Oculists licensed under chapter 18.55 RCW;

(v) Massage operators and businesses licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW;

(vi) Dental hygienists licensed under chapter 18.29 RCW;
sec. 5. RCW 18.130.050 and 1987 c 150 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The disciplining authority has the following authority:

(1) To adopt, amend, and rescind such rules as are deemed necessary to carry out this chapter;

(2) To investigate all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct as defined in this chapter and to hold hearings as provided in this chapter;

(3) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken and use other discovery procedures as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(5) To compel attendance of witnesses at hearings;

(6) In the course of investigating a complaint or report of unprofessional conduct, to conduct practice reviews;

(7) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of a license, or restriction or limitation of the licensee's practice pending proceedings by the disciplining authority;

(8) To use the office of administrative hearings as authorized in chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct hearings. However, the disciplining authority shall make the final decision regarding disposition of the license;

(9) To use individual members of the boards to direct investigations. However, the member of the board shall not subsequently participate in the hearing of the case;

(10) To enter into contracts for professional services determined to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(11) To contract with licensees or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervision of licensees who are placed on probation, whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to monitoring by the disciplining authority;

(12) To adopt standards of professional conduct or practice;

(13) To grant or deny license applications, and in the event of a finding of unprofessional conduct by an applicant or license holder, to impose any sanction against a license applicant or license holder provided by this chapter;

(14) To enter into an assurance of discontinuance in lieu of issuing a statement of charges or conducting a hearing. The assurance shall consist of a statement of the law in question and an agreement to not violate the stated provision. The applicant or license holder shall not be required to admit to any violation of the law, nor shall the assurance be construed as such an admission. Violation of an assurance under this subsection is grounds for disciplinary action; and

(15) To designate individuals authorized to sign subpoenas and statements of charges.

sec. 6. RCW 18.130.160 and 1986 c 259 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:
Upon a finding, after hearing, that a license holder or applicant has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition, the disciplining authority may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following:

1. Revocation of the license;
2. Suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;
3. Restriction or limitation of the practice;
4. Requiring the satisfactory completion of a specific program of remedial education or treatment;
5. The monitoring of the practice by a supervisor approved by the disciplining authority;
6. Censure or reprimand;
7. Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;
8. Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed $5,000 per violation. Funds received shall be placed in the health professions account;
9. Denial of the license request;
10. Corrective action;
11. Refund of fees billed to and collected from the consumer.

Any of the actions under this section may be totally or partly stayed by the disciplining authority. In determining what action is appropriate, the disciplining authority must first determine whether sanctions are necessary to protect or compensate the public. Only after such provisions have been made may the disciplining authority consider and include in the order requirements designed to rehabilitate the license holder or applicant. All costs associated with compliance with orders issued under this section are the obligation of the license holder or applicant.

The licensees or applicant may enter into a stipulated disposition of charges that includes one or more of the sanctions of this section, but only after a statement of charges has been issued and the licensees have been afforded an opportunity for a hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 18.130 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Prior to serving a statement of charges under RCW 18.130.090 or 18.130.170, the disciplinary authority shall furnish a statement of allegations to the licensee or applicant along with a detailed summary of the evidence relied upon to establish the allegations and a proposed stipulation for informal resolution of the allegations. These documents shall be exempt from public disclosure at such time as the allegations are resolved either by stipulation or otherwise.

(2) The disciplinary authority and the licensees or applicants may stipulate that the allegations may be disposed of informally in accordance with this subsection. The stipulation shall contain a statement of the facts leading to the filing of the complaint; the acts or acts of unprofessional conduct alleged to have been committed or the alleged basis for determining that the applicant or licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety; a statement that the stipulation is not to be construed as a finding of either unprofessional conduct or inability to practice; an acknowledgement that a finding of unprofessional conduct or inability to practice, if proven, constitutes grounds for discipline under this chapter; and an agreement on the part of the disciplinary authority to forego further disciplinary proceedings concerning the allegations.

A stipulation entered into pursuant to this subsection shall be considered formal disciplinary action for all purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. RCW 18.130.185 and 1987 c 150 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) To implement a substance abuse monitoring program for license holders specified under RCW 18.130.040, who are impaired by substance abuse, the disciplinary authority may enter into a contract with a voluntary substance abuse program under RCW 18.130.175. The program may include any or all of the following:
   (a) Contracting with providers of treatment programs;
   (b) Receiving and evaluating reports of suspected impairment from any source;
   (c) Intervening in cases of verified impairment;
   (d) Referring impaired license holders to treatment programs;
   (e) Monitoring the treatment and rehabilitation of impaired license holders including those ordered by the disciplinary authority;
   (f) Providing education, prevention of impairment, posttreatment monitoring, and support of rehabilitated impaired license holders; and
   (g) Performing other activities as agreed upon by the disciplinary authority.
(2) A contract entered into under subsection (1) of this section may be financed by a surcharge on each license issuance or renewal to be collected by the department of (licensing) health from the license holders of the same regulated health profession. These moneys shall be placed in the health professions account to be used solely for the implementation of the program.

Sec. 10. RCW 18.130.300 and 1984 c 279 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:
The ((director)) secretary, members of the boards, or individuals acting on their behalf are immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based on any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in the course of their duties.

Sec. 11. RCW 18.135.070 and 1984 c 281 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:
The licensing authority of health care facilities or the ((disciplinary board)) disciplining authority of the delegating or supervising health care practitioner shall investigate all complaints or allegations of violations of proper certification of a health care assistant or violations of delegation of authority or supervision. A substantiated violation shall constitute sufficient cause for disciplinary action by the licensing authority of a health care facility or the ((disciplinary board)) disciplining authority of the health care practitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 18.135 RCW to read as follows:
The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs uncertified practice, the issuance and denial of certificates, and the discipline of certificate holders under this chapter. The secretary shall be the disciplining authority under this chapter.

In addition to the grounds under RCW 18.130.170 and 18.130.180, the board of pharmacy ((shall have the power to refuse, suspend, or revoke)) may take disciplinary action against the license of any pharmacist or intern upon proof that:

(1) His or her license was procured through fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit;
(2) ((He or she has been convicted of a felony relating to his or her practice as a pharmacist;))
(3) He or she has committed any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, if the act committed directly relates to the pharmacist's fitness to practice pharmacy. Upon such conviction, however, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence of the guilt of the respondent pharmacist of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of his or her conviction of the statute upon which it is based;
(4) He or she is unfit to practice pharmacy because of habitual intemperance in the use of alcoholic beverages, drugs, controlled substances, or any other substance which impairs the performance of professional duties;
(5) He or she exhibits behavior which may be due to physical or mental impairment, which creates an undue risk of causing harm to him or herself or to other persons when acting as a licensed pharmacist or intern;
(6) He or she has incompetently or negligently practiced pharmacy, creating an unreasonable risk of harm to any individual;
(7) His or her legal authority to practice pharmacy, issued by any other properly constituted licensing authority of any other state, has been and is currently suspended or revoked;
(8) He or she has knowingly violated or permitted the violation of any provision of any state or federal law, rule, or regulation governing the possession, use, distribution, or dispensing of drugs, including, but not limited to, the violation of any provision of this chapter, Title 69 RCW, or rule or regulation of the board;
(9) He or she has knowingly allowed any unlicensed person to take charge of a pharmacy or engage in the practice of pharmacy, except a pharmacy intern or pharmacy assistant acting as authorized in this chapter or chapter 18.64A RCW in the presence of and under the immediate supervision of a licensed pharmacist;
(10) He or she has compounded, dispensed, or caused the compounding or dispensing of any drug or device which contains more or less than the equivalent quantity of ingredient or ingredients specified by the person who prescribed such drug or device: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the pharmacist from exercising professional judgment in the preparation or providing of such drugs or devices, or in any case of the refusal, suspension, or revocation of a license by said board of pharmacy under the provisions of this chapter, said board shall proceed in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 18.64 RCW to read as follows:
The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs unlicensed practice, the issuance and denial of licenses of pharmacists and pharmacy interns, and the discipline of licensed pharmacists and pharmacy interns under this chapter.

Sec. 15. RCW 18.64A.050 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 9 s 424 are each amended to read as follows:
In addition to the grounds under RCW 18.130.170 and 18.130.180, the board of pharmacy ((shall have the power to refuse, suspend, or revoke)) may take disciplinary action against the certificate of any pharmacy assistant upon proof that:

(1) His or her certificate was procured through fraud, misrepresentation or deceit;
(2) He or she has been found guilty of any offense in violation of the laws of this state relating to drugs, poisons, cosmetics or drug sundries by any court of competent jurisdiction. Nothing herein shall be construed to affect or alter the provisions of RCW 9.96A.020;
(3) He or she is unfit to perform his or her duties because of habitual intoxication or abuse of controlled substances;
(4) He or she has exhibited gross incompetency in the performance of his or her duties;
(5) He or she has willfully or repeatedly violated any of the rules and regulations of the board of pharmacy or of the department;
(6) He or she has willfully or repeatedly performed duties beyond the scope of his or her certificate in violation of the provisions of this chapter; or
(7) He or she has impersonated a licensed pharmacist.

(If any case of the refusal, suspension, or revocation of a certificate by the board, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with RCW 18.130.130.)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 18.64A RCW to read as follows:
The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of certificates and the discipline of certificants under this chapter.

Sec. 17. RCW 18.72.340 and 1986 c 300 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Every institution or organization providing professional liability insurance to physicians shall send a complete report to the medical disciplinary board of all malpractice settlements, awards, or payments in excess of twenty thousand dollars as a result of a claim or action for damages alleged to have been caused by an insured physician's incompetency or negligence in the practice of medicine. Such institution or organization shall also report the award, settlement, or payment of three or more claims during a five-year time period as the result of the alleged physician's incompetency or negligence in the practice of medicine regardless of the dollar amount of the award or payment.
(2) Reports required by this section shall be made within sixty days of the date of the settlement or verdict. Failure to comply with this section is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

Sec. 18. RCW 18.72.380 and 1991 c 3 s 170 are each amended to read as follows:
There is hereby levied to be collected by the department of health from every physician and surgeon licensed pursuant to chapter 18.71 RCW and every physician assistant licensed pursuant to chapter 18.71A RCW an annual medical disciplinary assessment equal to the license renewal fee established under RCW 43.70.250. The assessment levied pursuant to this subsection is in addition to any license renewal fee established under RCW 43.70.250.

Sec. 19. RCW 18.130.190 and 1991 c 3 s 271 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The secretary shall investigate complaints concerning practice by unlicensed persons of a profession or business for which a license is required by the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040. In the investigation of the complaints, the secretary shall have the same authority as provided the secretary under RCW 18.130.050. (The secretary shall issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has violated this subsection.)
(2) The secretary may issue a notice of intention to issue a cease and desist order to any person whom the secretary has reason to believe is engaged in the unlicensed practice of a profession or business for which a license is required by the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040. The person to whom such notice is issued may request an adjudicative proceeding to contest the charges. The request for hearing must be filed within twenty days after service of the notice of intention to issue a cease and desist order. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the secretary may enter a permanent cease and desist order, which may include a civil fine. All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.
(3) If the secretary makes a final determination that a person has engaged or is engaging in unlicensed practice, the secretary may issue a cease and desist order. In addition, the secretary may impose a civil fine in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars for each day upon which the person engaged in unlicensed practice of a business or profession for which a license is required by one or more of the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040. The proceeds of such fines shall be deposited to the health professions account.
(4) If the secretary makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the secretary may issue a temporary cease and desist order. The person receiving a temporary cease and desist order shall be provided an opportunity for a prompt hearing. The temporary cease and desist order shall remain in effect until further order of the secretary. The failure to request a prompt or regularly scheduled hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the secretary may enter a permanent cease and desist order, which may include a civil fine.
(5) Neither the issuance of a cease and desist order nor payment of a civil fine shall (i) relieve the person so practicing or operating a business without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy of a cease and desist order or civil fine shall be in addition to any criminal liability. The cease and desist order is conclusive proof of unlicensed practice and may be enforced under RCW 7.21.060. This method of enforcement of the cease and desist order or civil fine may be used in addition to, or as an alternative to, any provisions for enforcement of agency orders set out in chapter 34.05 RCW.
(6) The attorney general, a county prosecuting attorney, the secretary, a board, or any person may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action in the name of the state to enjoin any person practicing a profession or business for which a license is required by the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040 without a license from engaging in such practice or operating such business until the required license is secured. However, the injunction shall not relieve the person so practicing or operating a business without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to any criminal liability.
(7) Unlicensed practice of a profession or operating a business for which a license is required by the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040, unless otherwise exempted by law, constitutes a gross misdemeanor. All fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a court because of a violation of this section shall be remitted to the health professions account.

Sec. 20. RCW 18.130.165 and 1987 c 150 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:
Where an order for payment of a fine is made as a result of a hearing under RCW 18.130.100 or 18.130.190 and timely payment is not made as directed in the final order, the disciplining authority may enforce the order for payment in the superior court in the county in which the hearing was held. This right of enforcement shall be in addition to any other rights the disciplining authority may have as to any licensee ordered to pay a fine but shall not be construed to limit a licensee's ability to seek judicial review under RCW 18.130.140.

In any action for enforcement of an order of payment of a fine, the disciplining authority's order is conclusive proof of the validity of the order of payment of a fine and the terms of payment.

Sec. 21. RCW 18.130.050 and 1987 c 150 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:
The disciplining authority has the following authority:
(1) To adopt, amend, and rescind such rules as are deemed necessary to carry out this chapter;
(2) To investigate all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct as defined in this chapter and to hold hearings as provided in this chapter;
(3) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;
(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken and use other discovery procedures as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;
(5) To compel attendance of witnesses at hearings;
(6) In the course of investigating a complaint or report of unprofessional conduct, to conduct practice reviews;
(7) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of a license, or restriction or limitation of the licensee's practice pending proceedings by the disciplining authority.

(8) To use the office of administrative hearings authorized in chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct hearings. However, the disciplining authority shall make the final decision regarding disposition of the license.

(9) To use individual members of the board to direct investigations. However, the member of the board shall not subsequently participate in the hearing of the case.

(10) To enter into contracts for professional services determined to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(11) To contract with licensees or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervision of licensees who are placed on probation, whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to monitoring by the disciplining authority;

(12) To adopt standards of professional conduct or practice;

(13) To grant or deny license applications, and in the event of a finding of unprofessional conduct by an applicant or license holder, to impose any sanction against a license applicant or license holder provided by this chapter;

(14) To enter into an assurance of discontinuance in lieu of issuing a statement of charges or conducting a hearing. The assurance shall consist of a statement of the law in question and an agreement to not violate the stated provision. The applicant or license holder shall not be required to admit to any violation of the law, nor shall the assurance be construed as such an admission. Violation of an assurance under this subsection is grounds for disciplinary action;

(15) To designate individuals authorized to sign subpoenas and statements of charges;

(16) To establish panels consisting of three or more members of the board to perform any duty or authority within the board's jurisdiction under this chapter;

(17) To review and audit the records of licensed health facilities' or services' quality assurance committee decisions in which a licensee's practice privilege or employment is terminated or restricted. Each health facility or service shall produce and make available to the disciplining authority the appropriate records and otherwise facilitate the review and audit. Information so gained shall not be subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action pursuant to RCW 70.41.200(3);

Sec. 22. RCW 18.130.180 and 1991 c 332 s 34 and 1991 c 215 c 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute unprofessional conduct for any license holder or applicant under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such a conviction, however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this section, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;

(3) All advertising which is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

(4) Incompetence, negligence, or malpractice which results in injury to a patient or which creates an unreasonable risk that a patient may be harmed. The use of a nontraditional treatment by itself shall not constitute unprofessional conduct, provided that it does not result in injury to a patient or create an unreasonable risk that a patient may be harmed;

(5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice the profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction, a certified copy of the order, stipulation, or agreement being conclusive evidence of the revocation, suspension, or restriction;

(6) The possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for legitimate or therapeutic purposes, diversion of controlled substances or legend drugs, the violation of any drug law, or prescribing controlled substances for oneself;

(7) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative rule regulating the profession in question, including any statute or rule defining or establishing standards of patient care or professional conduct or practice;

(8) Failure to cooperate with the disciplining authority by:

(a) Not furnishing any papers or documents;

(b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the disciplining authority;

(9) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the accused in the proceeding;

(10) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required;

(11) Violations of rules established by any health agency;

(12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law or rule;

(13) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the business or profession;

(14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's health or safety is at risk;

(15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health;

(16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service;

(17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of the person's profession. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(18) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, a criminal abortion;
The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the disciplining authority;

(20) The willful betrayal of a practitioner-patient privilege as recognized by law;

(21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW;

(22) Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by willful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative, or by the use of threats or harassment against any patient or witness to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action;

(23) Current misuse of:
(a) Alcohol;

(b) Controlled substances; or
(c) Legend drugs;

(24) Abuse of a client or patient or sexual contact with a client or patient;

(25) Acceptance of more than a nominal gratuity, hospitality, or subsidy offered by a representative or vendor of medical or health-related products or services intended for patients, in contemplation of a sale or for use in research publishable in professional journals, where a conflict of interest is presented, as defined by rules of the disciplining authority, in consultation with the department, based on recognized professional ethical standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) RCW 18.135.080 and 1991 c 3 s 277 & 1984 c 281 s 8;
(2) RCW 18.64.260 and 1987 c 202 s 184, 1969 ex.s. c 199 s 17, 1909 c 213 s 9, & 1899 c 121 s 17; and
(3) RCW 18.71A.070 and 1990 c 196 s 7, 1979 c 158 s 58, & 1975 1st ex.s. c 190 s 3.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5948 and requests of the House a conference thereon.

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5186 with following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9A.40 RCW to read as follows:
A person commits the crime of luring if the person:
(1)(a) Orders, lures, or attempts to lure a minor or developmentally disabled person into a structure that is obscured from or inaccessible to the public or into a motor vehicle;
(b) Does not have the consent of the minor's parent or guardian or the developmentally disabled person's guardian; and
(c) Is unknown to the child or developmentally disabled person.
(2) It is a defense to luring, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant's actions were reasonable under the circumstances and the defendant did not have any intent to harm the health, safety, or welfare of the minor or developmentally disabled person.
(3) For purposes of this section:
(a) "Minor" means a person under the age of sixteen;
(b) "Developmentally disabled person" means a person with a developmental disability as defined in RCW 71A.10.020.
(4) Luring is a class C felony.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk
On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5186.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5186, as amended by the House.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 13, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5025 with following amendment(s):

On page 3, strike lines 4 through 18 and insert:

(c) Investigate the origin and cause of all forest fires to determine whether either a criminal act or negligence by any person, firm, or corporation caused the starting, spreading, or existence of the fire. In conducting investigations, the department shall work cooperatively, to the extent possible, with utilities, property owners, and other interested parties to identify and preserve evidence. Except as provided otherwise in this subsection, the department in conducting investigations is authorized, without court order, to take possession or control of relevant evidence found in plain view and belonging to any person, firm, or corporation. To the extent possible, the department shall notify the person, firm, or corporation of its intent to take possession or control of the evidence. The person, firm, or corporation shall be afforded reasonable opportunity to view the evidence and, before the department takes possession or control of the evidence, also shall be afforded reasonable opportunity to examine, document, and photograph it. If the person, firm, or corporation objects in writing to the department's taking possession or control of the evidence, the department must either return the evidence within seven days after the day on which the department is provided with the written objections or obtain a court order authorizing the continued possession or control.

Absent a court order authorizing otherwise, the department may not take possession or control of evidence over the objection of the owner of the evidence if: (i) The evidence is used by the owner in conducting a business or in providing an electric utility service; and (ii) the department's taking possession or control of the evidence would substantially and materially interfere with the operation of the business or provision of electric utility service. Absent a court order authorizing otherwise, the department may not take possession or control of evidence over the objection of an electric utility when the evidence is not owned by the utility but has caused damage to property owned by the utility. However, this paragraph does not apply if the department has notified the utility of its intent to take possession or control of the evidence and provided the utility with reasonable time to examine, document, and photograph the evidence.

Only personnel qualified to work on electrical equipment may take possession or control of evidence owned or controlled by an electric utility.

On page 3, strike line 25 through 34., and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Deccio, McCaslin and Linda Smith were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5025, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 4; Absent, 0; Excused, 7.
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5056 with following amendment(s):

- Strike the remainder of the bill and insert:

new section. sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definition in this section applies throughout this chapter.

"Marine aquatic plants" means saltwater marine plant species that are dependent upon the marine aquatic or tidal environment, and exist in either an attached or free-floating state. Marine aquatic plants include but are not limited to seaweed of the classes Chlorophyta, Phaeophyta, and Rhodophyta.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The maximum daily wet weight harvest or possession of seaweed for personal use from all private and public tidelands shall be ten pounds per person. The department of natural resources in cooperation with the department of fisheries may establish seaweed harvest limits of less than ten pounds for conservation purposes. This section shall in no way affect the ability of any state agency to prevent harvest of any species of marine aquatic plant from lands under its control, ownership, or management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A violation of section 3 of this act is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW, punishable by a penalty of one hundred dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department of fisheries may enforce the provisions of sections 3 and 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 3 of this act does not apply to commercial harvest of marine aquatic plants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. RCW 75.10.010 and 1985 c 155 s 1 are amended to read as follows:

(1) Fisheries patrol officers and ex officio fisheries patrol officers within their respective jurisdictions, shall enforce this title, rules of the director, and other statutes as prescribed by the legislature.

(2) When acting within the scope of subsection (1) of this section and when an offense occurs in the presence of the fisheries patrol officer who is not an ex officio fisheries patrol officer, the fisheries patrol officer may enforce all criminal laws of the state. The fisheries patrol officer must have successfully completed the basic law enforcement academy course sponsored by the criminal justice training commission, or a supplemental course in criminal law enforcement as approved by the department and the criminal justice training commission and provided by the department or the criminal justice training commission, prior to enforcing the criminal laws of the state.

(3) Any liability or claim of liability which arises out of the exercise or alleged exercise of authority by a fisheries patrol officer rests with the department of fisheries unless the fisheries patrol officer acts under the direction and control of another agency or unless the liability is otherwise assumed under a written agreement between the department of fisheries and another agency.

(4) Fisheries patrol officers may serve and execute warrants and processes issued by the courts.

(5) Fisheries patrol officers may enforce the provisions of sections 3 and 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. By December 31, 1993, the department of natural resources in cooperation with the department of fisheries shall develop and report to the appropriate committees of the legislature on a process and budget necessary to accomplish the following:

(1) Inventory and monitor the seaweed resource for seaweed species that are or have the potential to be harvested for recreational or tribal ceremonial and subsistence purposes;

(2) Develop a management plan that will address the appropriate level of recreational harvest of seaweed while conserving the seaweed resource;

(3) Identify the respective state and tribal roles in managing the seaweed resource; and

(4) Involve interested parties in development of the inventory and management plan, including the state parks and recreation commission, affected counties, private tideland owners, the tribes, and representatives of those who harvest seaweed for personal use. The department of natural resources shall also involve these interested parties in development of the process and budget.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 2 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 79.01 RCW ".", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5056.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 5056, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5056, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 8.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Nelson, Newhouse, Niemi, Oke, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Sellar, Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, West, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 41.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5056, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Loveland, Senators Rinehart and Skratek were excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 5, 1993

SENATE BILL NO. 5079, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5088 with following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that while the 1988 Administrative Procedure Act expanded public participation in the agency rule-making process, there continue to be instances when participants have developed adversarial relationships with each other, resulting in the inability to identify all of the issues, the failure to focus on solutions to problems, unnecessary delays, litigation, and added cost to the agency, affected parties, and the public in general.

When interested parties work together, it is possible to negotiate development of a rule that is acceptable to all affected, and that conforms to the intent of the statute the rule is intended to implement."
After a rule is adopted, unanticipated negative impacts may emerge. Examples include excessive costs of administration for the agency and compliance by affected parties, technical conditions that may be physically or economically unfeasible to meet, problems in interpretation due to lack of clarity, and reporting requirements that duplicate or conflict with those already in place. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to encourage flexible approaches to developing administrative rules, including but not limited to negotiated rule making and a process for testing the feasibility of adopted rules, often called the pilot rule process. However, nothing in this act shall be construed to create any mandatory duty for an agency to use the procedures in RCW 34.05.310 or section 4 of this act in any particular instance of rule making. Agencies shall determine, in their discretion, when it is appropriate to use these procedures.

Sec. 2. RCW 34.05.310 and 1989 c 175 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) In addition to seeking information by other methods, an agency, before publication of a notice of a proposed rule adoption under RCW 34.05.320, is encouraged to solicit comments from the public on a subject of possible rule making under active consideration within the agency, by causing notice to be published in the state register of the subject matter and indicating where, when, and how persons may comment.

(b) Each agency may appoint committees to comment, before publication of a notice of proposed rule adoption under RCW 34.05.320, on the subject of a possible rule making action under active consideration within the agency.

(c) Each agency shall designate a rules coordinator, who shall have knowledge of the subjects of rules being proposed or prepared within the agency for proposal, maintain the records of any such action, and respond to public inquiries about possible or proposed rules and the identity of agency personnel working, reviewing, or commenting on them. The office and mailing address of the rules coordinator shall be published in the state register at the time of designation and in the first issue of each calendar year thereafter for the duration of the designation. The rules coordinator may be an employee of another agency.

(d) To meet the intent of providing greater public access to administrative rule making and to promote consensus among interested parties, agencies are encouraged to:

(1) Solicit comments from the public on a subject of possible rule making before publication of a notice of proposed rule adoption under RCW 34.05.320. This process can be accomplished by having a notice published in the state register of the subject under active consideration and indicating where, when, and how persons may comment; and

(2) Develop and use new procedures for reaching agreement among interested parties before publication of notice and the adoption hearing on a proposed rule. Examples of new procedures include, but are not limited to:

(a) Identifying individuals and organizations that have a recognized interest in or will be significantly affected by the adoption of the proposed rule;

(b) Soliciting participation by persons who are capable, willing, and appropriately authorized to enter into such negotiations;

(c) Assuring that participants fully recognize the consequences of not participating in the process, are committed to negotiate in good faith, and recognize the alternatives available to other parties;

(d) Establishing guidelines to encourage consideration of all pertinent issues, to set reasonable completion deadlines, and to provide fair and objective settlement of disputes that may arise;

(e) Agreeing on a reasonable time period during which the agency will be bound to the rule resulting from the negotiations without substantive amendment; and

(f) Providing a mechanism by which one or more parties may withdraw from the process or the negotiations may be terminated if it appears that consensus cannot be reached on a draft rule that accommodates the needs of the agency, interested parties, and the general public and conforms to the legislative intent of the statute that the rule is intended to implement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each agency shall designate a rules coordinator, who shall have knowledge of the subjects of rules being proposed or prepared within the agency for proposal, maintain the records of any such action, and respond to public inquiries about possible or proposed rules and the identity of agency personnel working, reviewing, or commenting on them. The office and mailing address of the rules coordinator shall be published in the state register at the time of designation and in the first issue of each calendar year thereafter for the duration of the designation. The rules coordinator may be an employee of another agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If, during development of a rule or after its adoption, an agency determines that implementation may produce unreasonable economic, procedural, or technical burdens, agencies are encouraged to develop methods for measuring or testing the feasibility of compliance with the rule, including the use of voluntary pilot study groups. Measuring and testing methods should emphasize public notice, participation by persons who have a recognized interest in or are significantly affected by the adoption of the proposed rule, a high level of involvement from agency management, consensus on issues and procedures among participants in the pilot group, assurance of fairness, and reasonable completion dates, and a process by which one or more parties may withdraw from the process or the process may be terminated if consensus cannot be reached on the rule.

The findings of the pilot project should be widely shared and, where appropriate, adopted as amendments to the rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are each added to chapter 34.05 RCW under the subchapter heading "rule-making procedures.””, and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5260 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that salmon consumers in Washington benefit from knowing the species and origin of the salmon they purchase. The accurate identification of such species, as well as knowledge of the country or state of origin and of whether they were caught commercially or were farm-raised, is important to consumers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows: Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 3 through 5 of this act.

(1) "Salmon" means all species of the genus Oncorhynchus, except those classified as game fish in Title 77 RCW, and includes:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SCIENTIFIC NAME</th>
<th>COMMON NAME</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Oncorhynchus tshawytscha</td>
<td>Chinook salmon or king salmon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oncorhynchus kisutch</td>
<td>Coho salmon or silver salmon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oncorhynchus keta</td>
<td>Chum salmon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oncorhynchus gorbuscha</td>
<td>Pink salmon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Oncorhynchus nerka</td>
<td>Sockeye salmon</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Salmo salar (in other than its landlocked form)</td>
<td>Atlantic salmon</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

(2) "Commercially caught" means salmon harvested by commercial fishers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows: With the exception of a commercial fisher engaged in sales of fish to a fish buyer, no person may sell at wholesale or retail any fresh or frozen salmon food fish or cultured aquatic salmon without identifying the species of salmon by its common name to the buyer at the point of sale such that the buyer can make an informed decision in purchasing. A person knowingly violating this section is guilty of misbranding under this chapter. A person who receives misleading or erroneous information about the species of salmon and subsequently inaccurately identifies salmon shall not be guilty of misbranding. This section shall not apply to salmon that is minced, pulverized, coated with batter, or breaded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows: With the exception of a commercial fisher engaged in sales of fish to a fish buyer, no person may sell at wholesale or retail any fresh or frozen:

(1) Private sector cultured aquatic salmon without identifying the product as farm-raised salmon; or
(2) Commercially caught salmon designated as food fish under Title 75 RCW without identifying the product as commercially caught salmon.

Identification of the products under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be made to the buyer at the point of sale such that the buyer can make an informed decision in purchasing. A person knowingly violating this section is guilty of misbranding under this chapter. A person who receives misleading or erroneous information about whether the salmon is farm-raised or commercially caught, and subsequently inaccurately identifies salmon shall not be guilty of misbranding. This section shall not apply to salmon that is minced, pulverized, coated with batter, or breaded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 69.04 RCW to read as follows:

To promote honesty and fair dealing for consumers, the director, in consultation with the director of the department of fisheries, shall adopt rules:
(1) Fixing and establishing a reasonable definition and standard of identity for salmon for purposes of identifying and selling salmon;
(2) Enforcing sections 3 and 4 of this act.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5260. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5260, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5260, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5260, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5270 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that, given the overlap of powers and products in the companies regulated, the consolidation of the agencies regulating financial institutions and securities into one department will better serve the public interest through more effective use of staff expertise. Therefore, for the convenience of administration and the centralization of control and the more effective use of state resources and expertise, the state desires to combine the regulation of financial institutions and securities into one department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A state department of financial institutions, headed by the director of financial institutions, is created. The department shall be organized and operated in a manner that to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law protects the public interest, protects the safety and soundness of depository institutions and entities under the jurisdiction of the department, ensures access to the regulatory process for all concerned parties, and protects the interests of investors. The department of financial institutions shall be structured to reflect the unique differences in the types of institutions and areas it regulates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The director of financial institutions shall be appointed by the governor and shall exercise all powers and perform all of the duties and functions transferred under section 6 of this act, and such other powers and duties as may be authorized by law. The director may deputize, appoint, and employ examiners and other such assistants and personnel as may be necessary to carry on the work of the department. The director of financial institutions shall receive a salary in an amount fixed by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A person is not eligible for appointment as director of financial institutions unless he or she is, and for the last two years before his or her appointment has been, a citizen of the United States. A person is not eligible for appointment as director of financial institutions if he or she has an interest at the time of appointment, as a director, trustee, officer, or stockholder in any bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, consumer loan company, trust company, securities broker-dealer or investment advisor, or other institution regulated by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The director of financial institutions may adopt any rules, under chapter 34.05 RCW, necessary to implement the powers and duties of the director under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) All powers, duties, and functions of the department of general administration under Titles 30, 31, 32, 33, and 43 RCW and any other title pertaining to duties relating to banks, savings banks, foreign bank branches, savings and loan associations, credit unions, consumer loan companies, check cashers and sellers, trust companies and departments, and other similar institutions are transferred to the department of financial institutions. All references to the director of general administration, supervisor of banking, or the supervisor of savings and loan associations in the Revised Code of Washington are construed to mean the director of the department of financial institutions when referring to the functions transferred in this section. All references to the department of general administration in the Revised Code of Washington are construed to mean the director or department of financial institutions when referring to the functions transferred in this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other written or electronically stored material in the possession of the department of general administration or the department of licensing and pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 6 of this act shall be delivered to the custody of the department of financial institutions. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property purchased by the division of licensing in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 6 of this act shall be transferred to the department of financial institutions. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the department of licensing in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 6 of this act shall be made available to the department of financial institutions. All funds, credits, or other assets held by the department of general administration or the department of licensing in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 6 of this act shall be assigned to the department of financial institutions.

Any appropriations made to the department of general administration or the department of licensing for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 6 of this act shall, on the effective date of this act, be transferred and credited to the department of financial institutions.

If a dispute arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director of financial institutions may appoint assistant directors for each of the divisions of the department and delegate to them the power to perform any act or duty conferred upon the director. The director is responsible for the official acts of these assistant directors.

The department of financial institutions shall consist of at least the following four divisions: The division of FDIC insured institutions, with regulatory authority over all state-chartered FDIC insured institutions; the division of credit unions, with regulatory authority over all state-chartered credit unions; the division of consumer affairs, with regulatory authority over state-licensed nondepository lending institutions and other regulated entities; and the division of securities, with regulatory authority over securities, franchises, business opportunities, and commodities. The director of financial institutions is granted broad administrative authority to add additional responsibilities to the divisions as necessary and consistent with applicable law.

For purposes of this section, "FDIC" means the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, who are employees of the department of general administration or the department of licensing in performing the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 6 of this act are transferred to the department of financial institutions. All such employees are assigned to the department of financial institutions to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. All rules and all pending business before the department of general administration or the department of licensing pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred by section 6 of this act shall be continued and acted upon by the department of financial institutions. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the department of financial institutions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the department of general administration or the department of licensing under sections 6, 7, 9, and 10 of this act does not affect the validity of any act performed by such an employee before the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 6 through 11 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, to the state auditor, and to the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Nothing contained in sections 6 through 11 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the expiration date of the current agreement or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

Sec. 14. RCW 21.20.005 and 1989 c 391 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section shall apply throughout this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires.

(1) "Director" means the director of ([licensing]) financial institutions of this state.

(2) "Salesperson" means any individual other than a broker-dealer who represents a broker-dealer or issuer in effecting or attempting to effect sales of securities, but "salesperson" does not include an individual who represents an issuer in (a) effecting a transaction in a security exempted by RCW 21.20.310(1), (2), (3), (4), (9), (10), (11), (12), or (13), ([as now or hereafter amended,]) (b) effecting transactions exempted by RCW 21.20.320, or (c) effecting transactions with existing employees, partners, or directors of the issuer if no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any person in this state.

(3) "Broker-dealer" means any person engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities for the account of others or for that person's own account. "Broker-dealer" does not include (a) a salesperson, issuer, bank, savings institutions, or trust company, (b) a person who has no place of business in this state if the person effects transactions in this state exclusively with or through the issuers of the securities involved in the transactions, other broker-dealers, or banks, savings institutions, trust companies, insurance companies, investment companies as defined in the investment company act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trusts, or other financial institutions or institutional buyers, whether acting for themselves or as trustees, or (c) a person who has no place of business in this state if during any period of twelve consecutive months that person does not direct more than fifteen offers to sell or to buy into this state in any manner to persons other than those specified in subsection (b) above.

(4) "Guaranteed" means guaranteed as to payment of principal, interest, or dividends.

(5) "Full business day" means all calendar days, excluding therefrom Saturdays, Sundays, and all legal holidays, as defined by statute.

(6) "Investment adviser" means any person who, for compensation, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through publications or writings, as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities, or who, for compensation and as a part of a regular business, issues or promulgates analyses or reports concerning securities. "Investment adviser" also includes [advisor] and other persons who, as an integral component of other financially related services, (a) provide the foregoing investment advisory services to others for compensation as part of a business or (b) hold themselves out as providing the foregoing investment advisory services to others for compensation. Investment adviser shall also include any person who holds himself out as a financial planner.
"Investment adviser" does not include (a) a bank, savings institution, or trust company, (b) a lawyer, accountant, certified public accountant licensed under chapter 18.04 RCW, engineer, or teacher whose performance of these services is solely incidental to the practice of his or her profession, (c) a broker-dealer, (d) a publisher of his or her newspaper, news magazine, or bulletin, or financial publication of general, regular, and paid circulation, (e) a radio or television station, (f) a person whose advice, analyses, or reports relate only to securities exempted by RCW 21.20.310(1), (g) a person who has no place of business in this state if (i) that person’s only clients in this state are other investment advisers, broker-dealers, banks, savings institutions, trust companies, insurance companies, investment companies as defined in the investment company act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust, or other financial institutions or institutional buyers, whether acting for themselves or as trustees, or (ii) during any period of twelve consecutive months that person does not direct business communications into this state in any manner to more than five clients other than those specified in clause (i) above, or (h) such other persons not within the intent of this paragraph as the director may by rule or order designate.

(7) "Issuer" means any person who issues or proposes to issue any security, except that with respect to certificates of deposit, voting trust certificates, or collateral-trust certificates, or with respect to certificates of interest or shares in an unincorporated investment trust not having a board of directors (or persons performing similar functions) or of the fixed, restricted management, or unit type; the term "issuer" means the person or persons performing the acts and assuming the duties of depositor or manager pursuant to the provisions of the trust or other agreement or instrument under which the security is issued.

(8) "Nonissuer" means not directly or indirectly for the benefit of the issuer.

(9) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint-stock company, a trust where the interest of the beneficiaries are evidenced by a security, an unincorporated organization, a government, or a political subdivision of a government.

(10) "Sale" or "sell" includes every contract of sale of, contract to sell, or disposition of, a security or interest in a security for value. "Offer" or "offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of, or solicitation of an offer to buy, a security or interest in a security for value.

Any security given or delivered with, or as a bonus on account of, any purchase of securities or any other thing is considered to constitute part of the subject of the purchase and to have been offered and sold for value. A purported gift of assessable stock is considered to involve an offer and sale. Every sale or offer of a warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to another security of the same or another issuer, as well as every sale or offer of a security which gives the holder a present or future right or privilege to convert into another security of the same or another issuer, is considered to include an offer of the other security.

(12) "Security" means any note; stock; treasury stock; bond; debenture; evidence of indebtedness; certificate of interest or participation in any profit-sharing agreement; collateral-trust certificate; preorganization certificate or subscription; transferable share; investment contract; investment of money or other consideration in the risk capital of a venture with the expectation of sharing in profits or profits; or other interests or instruments commonly known as "securities" which have been iss

"Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935(14)," and "Investment Company Act of 1940" means the federal statutes of those names as amended before or after June 10, 1959.

"Investment adviser" does not include (a) a bank, savings institution, or trust company, (b) a lawyer, accountant, certified public accountant licensed under chapter 18.04 RCW, engineer, or teacher whose performance of these services is solely incidental to the practice of his or her profession, (c) a broker-dealer, (d) a publisher of his or her newspaper, news magazine, or bulletin, or financial publication of general, regular, and paid circulation, (e) a radio or television station, (f) a person whose advice, analyses, or reports relate only to securities exempted by RCW 21.20.310(1), (g) a person who has no place of business in this state if (i) that person’s only clients in this state are other investment advisers, broker-dealers, banks, savings institutions, trust companies, insurance companies, investment companies as defined in the investment company act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust, or other financial institutions or institutional buyers, whether acting for themselves or as trustees, or (ii) during any period of twelve consecutive months that person does not direct business communications into this state in any manner to more than five clients other than those specified in clause (i) above, or (h) such other persons not within the intent of this paragraph as the director may by rule or order designate.

(7) "Issuer" means any person who issues or proposes to issue any security, except that with respect to certificates of deposit, voting trust certificates, or collateral-trust certificates, or with respect to certificates of interest or shares in an unincorporated investment trust not having a board of directors (or persons performing similar functions) or of the fixed, restricted management, or unit type; the term "issuer" means the person or persons performing the acts and assuming the duties of depositor or manager pursuant to the provisions of the trust or other agreement or instrument under which the security is issued.

(8) "Nonissuer" means not directly or indirectly for the benefit of the issuer.

"Offer" or "offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of, or solicitation of an offer to buy, a security or interest in a security for value.

Any security given or delivered with, or as a bonus on account of, any purchase of securities or any other thing is considered to constitute part of the subject of the purchase and to have been offered and sold for value. A purported gift of assessable stock is considered to involve an offer and sale. Every sale or offer of a warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to another security of the same or another issuer, as well as every sale or offer of a security which gives the holder a present or future right or privilege to convert into another security of the same or another issuer, is considered to include an offer of the other security.

(12) "Security" means any note; stock; treasury stock; bond; debenture; evidence of indebtedness; certificate of interest or participation in any profit-sharing agreement; collateral-trust certificate; preorganization certificate or subscription; transferable share; investment contract; investment of money or other consideration in the risk capital of a venture with the expectation of sharing in profits or profits; or other interests or instruments commonly known as "securities" which have been iss

The administration of the provisions of this chapter shall be under the department of ((licensing)) financial institutions.

The director may from time to time make, amend, and ((ascend)) repeal such rules and forms as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including rules defining any term, whether or not such term is used in the Washington securities law. The director may classify securities, persons, and matters within the director's jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. No rule or form((c)) may be made unless the director finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter. In prescribing rules and forms the director may cooperate with the securities administrators of the other states and the securities and exchange commission with a view to effectuating the policy of this statute to achieve maximum uniformity in the form and content of registration statements, applications, and reports wherever practicable. All rules and forms of the director shall be published.

Sec. 15. RCW 21.20.450 and 1979 ex.s. c 68 s 33 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 16. RCW 21.20.720 and 1987 c 421 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

1. A director, officer, or controlling person of a debenture company shall not:

(a) Have any interest, direct or indirect, in the gains or profits of the debenture company, except to receive dividends upon the amounts contributed by him or her, the same as any other investor or shareholder and under the same regulations and conditions; PROVIDED, That nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit salaries as may be approved by the debenture company's board of directors;
(b) Become a member of the board of directors or a controlling shareholder of another debenture company or a bank, trust company, or national banking association, of which board enough other directors or officers of the debenture company are members so as to constitute with him or her a majority of the board of directors.

(2) A director, an officer, or controlling person shall not:
(a) For himself or herself or as agent or partner of another, directly or indirectly use any of the funds held by the debenture company, except to make such current and necessary payments as are authorized by the board of directors;
(b) Receive directly or indirectly and retain for his or her own use any commission on or benefit from any loan made by the debenture company, or any pay or emolument for services rendered to any borrower from the debenture company in connection with such loan;
(c) Become an indorser, surety, or guarantor, or in any manner an obligor, for any loan made from the debenture company and except when approval has been given by the director of ((licensing)) financial institutions or the director's administrator of securities upon recommendation by the company's board of directors.
(d) For himself or herself or as agent or partner of another, directly or indirectly borrow any of the funds held by the debenture company, or become the owner of real or personal property upon which the debenture company holds a mortgage, deed of trust, or property contract. A loan to or a purchase by a corporation in which he or she is a stockholder to the amount of fifteen percent of the total outstanding stock, or in which he or she and other directors, officers, or controlling persons of the debenture company hold stock to the amount of twenty-five percent of the total outstanding stock, shall be deemed a loan to or a purchase by such director or officer within the meaning of this section, except when the loan to or purchase by such corporation occurred without his or her knowledge or against his or her protest.

Sec. 17. RCW 43.17.010 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 9 s 810 are each amended to read as follows:
There shall be departments of the state government which shall be known as (1) the department of social and health services, (2) the department of ecology, (3) the department of labor and industries, (4) the department of agriculture, (5) the department of fisheries, (6) the department of wildlife, (7) the department of transportation, (8) the department of licensing, (9) the department of general administration, (10) the department of trade and economic development, (11) the department of veterans affairs, (12) the department of revenue, (13) the department of retirement systems, (14) the department of corrections, (15) the department of community development, (16) the department of health, and (17) the department of financial institutions, which shall be charged with the execution, enforcement, and administration of such laws and shall carry out such duties, as the legislature may provide.

Sec. 18. RCW 43.17.020 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 9 s 811 are each amended to read as follows:
There shall be a chief executive officer of each department to be known as: (1) The secretary of social and health services, (2) the director of ecology, (3) the director of labor and industries, (4) the director of agriculture, (5) the director of fisheries, (6) the director of wildlife, (7) the secretary of transportation, (8) the director of licensing, (9) the director of general administration, (10) the director of trade and economic development, (11) the director of veterans affairs, (12) the director of revenue, (13) the director of retirement systems, (14) the secretary of corrections, (15) the director of community development, (16) the secretary of health, and (17) the director of financial institutions.

Such officers, except the secretary of transportation, shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. The director of wildlife, however, shall be appointed according to the provisions of RCW 77.04.080. If a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next meeting of the senate. A temporary director of wildlife shall not serve more than one year. The secretary of transportation shall be appointed by the transportation commission as prescribed by RCW 47.01.041.

Sec. 19. RCW 43.19.010 and 1988 c 25 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:
The department of general administration shall be organized into divisions, which shall include (1) ((the division of banking, (2) the division of savings and loan associations, (3)) the division of capitol buildings, (4)) [2] the division of purchasing, (5) [44] the division of engineering and architecture, and (6) [44] the division of motor vehicle transportation service.

The director of general administration shall have charge and general supervision of the department. He or she may appoint and deputize such clerical and other assistants as may be necessary for the general administration of the department. The director of general administration shall receive a salary in an amount fixed by the governor.

Sec. 20. RCW 43.19.020 and 1977 ex.s. c 185 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:
The director of (general administration) financial institutions shall appoint ((and)), deputize ((an assistant director to be known as the supervisor of banking, who shall have charge and supervision of the division of banking. With the approval of the director, he may appoint)), and employ ((bank)) examiners and such other assistants and personnel as may be necessary to carry on the work of the (division).

No person shall be eligible for appointment as supervisor of banking unless he is, and for the last two years prior to his appointment has been, a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state, nor if he is interested in any bank or trust company as director, officer, or stockholder) department of financial institutions.

In the event of the ((supervisor's)) director's absence the director (of general administration)) shall have the power to deputize one of the assistants of the ((supervisor)) director to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties prescribed by law with respect to banks ((and)), savings banks, foreign bank branches, savings and loan associations, credit unions, consumer loan companies, check cashers and sellers, trust companies, (mutual savings banks, loan agencies)) and departments, securities, franchises, business opportunities, commodities, and other similar institutions or areas that are performed by the ((supervisor)) director so long as the ((supervisor)) director is absent: PROVIDED, That such deputized ((supervisor)) assistant shall not have the power to approve or disapprove new charters, licenses, branches, and satellite facilities, unless such action has received the prior written approval of the ((supervisor)) director. Any person so deputized shall possess the same qualifications as those set out in this section for the ((supervisor)) director.

Sec. 21. RCW 43.19.030 and 1977 ex.s. c 270 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:
Before entering (upon his)) office each (bank)) examiner shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of (his) the office.
Oaths shall be filed with the secretary of state.
Neither the (supervisor of banking) director of financial institutions, any (deputy supervisor) deputized assistant of the director, nor any (bank) examiner or employee shall be personally liable for any act done (by him) in good faith in the performance of his or her duties.

Sec. 22. RCW 43.19.050 and 1965 c 8 s 43.19.050 are each amended to read as follows:
The (supervisor of financial institutions) director of financial institutions shall maintain an office at the state capitol, but may with the consent of the governor also maintain (an office) branch offices at (seems) other convenient (business centers) business centers in this state.

The (supervisor) The director shall keep books of record of all moneys received or disbursed by (him) the director into or from the banking examination fund, the credit union examination fund, the securities regulation fund, and any other accounts maintained by the department of financial institutions. (He shall adopt an official seal.)

Sec. 23. RCW 43.19.080 and 1965 c 8 s 43.19.080 are each amended to read as follows:

1. It shall be unlawful for the (supervisor or any deputy or employee of his division) director of financial institutions, any deputized assistant of the director, or any employee of the department of financial institutions to borrow money from any bank (for trust company under his jurisdiction), consumer loan company, credit union, foreign bank branch, savings bank, savings and loan association, or trust company or department, securities broker-dealer or investment advisor, or similar lending institution under the department's direct jurisdiction unless the extension of credit:

(a) Is made on substantially the same terms (including interest rates and collateral) as, and following credit underwriting procedures that are not less stringent than, those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions by the financial institution with other persons that are not employed by either the department or the institution; and

(b) Does not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features.

2. The director of the office of financial management shall adopt rules, policies, and procedures interpreting and implementing this section.

3. Every person who knowingly violates this section shall forfeit his or her office or employment and be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 24. RCW 43.19.090 and 1977 c 75 s 43 are each amended to read as follows:
The (supervisor) director of financial institutions shall file in his or her office all reports required to be made to (him) the director, prepare and furnish to banks (and), savings banks, foreign bank branches, savings and loan associations, credit unions, consumer loan companies, check cashers and sellers, and trust companies and departments, blank forms for such reports as are required of them, and each year make a report to the governor showing:

1. A summary of the conditions of the banks, savings banks, foreign bank branches, savings and loan associations, credit unions, consumer loan companies, check cashers and sellers, and trust companies and departments at the date of their last report; and

2. A list of those organized or closed during the year.

Sec. 25. RCW 43.19.095 and 1981 c 241 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created a local fund known as the "banking examination fund" which shall consist of all moneys received by the (division of banking) department of financial institutions from banks, savings banks, foreign bank branches, savings and loan associations, consumer loan companies, check cashers and sellers, and trust companies and departments, and which shall be used for the purchase of supplies and necessary equipment and the payment of salaries, wages, utilities, and other incidental costs required for the proper (maintenance of the division) regulation of these companies. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the fund. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the director of (general administration or the supervisor of banking) financial institutions or the director's (or supervisor's) designee. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, the fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from the fund.

Sec. 26. RCW 43.19.112 and 1981 c 241 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created a local fund known as the "savings and loan associations and credit unions examination fund" which shall consist of all moneys received by the (division of savings and loan associations) department of financial institutions from credit unions and which shall be used for the purchase of supplies and necessary equipment and the payment of salaries, wages, utilities, and other incidental costs required for the proper (maintenance of the division) regulation of these institutions. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the fund. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the director of (general administration or the supervisor of savings and loan associations) financial institutions or the director's (or supervisor's) designee. In order to maintain an effective expenditure and revenue control, the fund shall be subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required to permit expenditures and payment of obligations from the fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is created in the state treasury a fund known as the "securities regulation fund" that shall consist of thirteen percent of all moneys received by the division of securities of the department of financial institutions. Expenditures from the account may be used only for the purchase of supplies and necessary equipment and the payment of salaries, wages, utilities, and other incidental costs required for the regulation of securities, franchises, business opportunities, commodities, and other similar areas regulated by the division. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

1. RCW 43.19.040 and 1965 c 8 s 43.19.040;
2. RCW 43.19.100 and 1982 c 3 s 113, 1977 ex.s.c. 185 s 2, & 1965 c 8 s 43.19.100; and
3. RCW 43.19.110 and 1965 c 8 s 43.19.110.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Sections 1 through 13 and 27 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. RCW 43.19.020, 43.19.030, 43.19.050, 43.19.080, 43.19.090, 43.19.095, and 43.19.112 are recodified as sections in chapter 43 _RCW (sections 1 through 13 and 27 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This act takes effect October 1, 1993.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. The directors of the department of general administration and the department of licensing shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that this act is implemented on October 1, 1993.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5270. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5270, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5270, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5270, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5307 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 9.41.280 and 1989 c 219 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for ((an elementary or secondary school student under the age of twenty-one knowingly)) a person to carry onto public or private elementary or secondary school premises, school-provided transportation, or areas of facilities while being used exclusively by public or private schools:

(a) Any firearm; or
(b) Any dangerous weapon as defined in RCW 9.41.250; or
(c) Any device commonly known as “nun-chu-ka sticks”, consisting of two or more lengths of wood, metal, plastic, or similar substance connected with wire, rope, or other means; or
(d) Any device, commonly known as “throwing stars”, which are multi-pointed, metal objects designed to embed upon impact from any aspect; or
(e) Any air gun, including any air pistol or air rifle, designed to propel a BB, pellet, or other projectile by the discharge of compressed air, carbon dioxide, or other gas.

(2) Any such ((student)) person violating subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Any violation of subsection (1) of this section by elementary or secondary school students constitutes grounds for expulsion from the state’s public schools in accordance with RCW 28A.600.010. However, any violation of subsection (1)(a) of this section by an elementary or secondary school student shall result in expulsion in accordance with RCW 28A.600.010. An appropriate school authority shall promptly notify law enforcement and the student’s parent or guardian regarding any allegation or indication of such violation.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to:

(a) Any student or employee of a private military academy when on the property of the academy. ((military academy))
(b) Any ((student)) person engaged in military law enforcement, or school district security activities. (federal or state governments while engaged in official duties)); ((e))
(c) Any ((student)) person who is ((attending)) involved in a convention, showing, demonstration, lecture, or firearms safety course authorized by school authorities in which the firearms of collectors or instructors are handled or displayed; ((e))
(d) Any ((student)) person who possesses nun-chu-ka sticks, throwing stars, or other dangerous weapons to be used in martial arts classes authorized to be conducted on the school premises; ((e))
(e) Any ((student)) person while the ((student)) person is participating in a firearms or air gun competition approved by the school or school district;
(f) Any person who has been issued a license under RCW 9.41.070, while picking up or dropping off a student;
(g) Any person legally in possession of a firearm or dangerous weapon that is secured within an attended vehicle or concealed from view within a locked unattended vehicle while conducting legitimate business at the school; or
(h) Any person who is in lawful possession of an unloaded firearm, secured in a vehicle while conducting legitimate business at the school; or
(i) Any law enforcement officer of the federal, state, or local government agency;

(4) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), (c), (e), and (i) of this section, firearms are not permitted in a public or private school building.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28A.320 RCW to read as follows:

Each school district and each private school approved under chapter 28A.195 RCW shall report to the superintendent of public instruction by January 31st of each year all known incidents involving the possession of weapons on school premises, on transportation systems, or in areas of facilities while being used exclusively by public or private schools, in violation of RCW 9.41.280 in the year preceding the report. The superintendent shall compile the data and report it to the house of representatives, the senate, and the governor.

Sec. 3. RCW 28A.635.060 and 1989 c 269 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who has knowledge under RCW 10.99.040(2), 10.99.050, 26.09.060, or 26.44.063, chapter 26.26 RCW, or chapter 26.50 RCW restraining the person and the person has violated the terms of the order restraining the person from acts or threats of violence or excluding the person from a residence or, in the case of an order issued under RCW 26.44.063, imposing any other restrictions or conditions upon the person; or

(b) The person is eighteen years or older and within the preceding four hours has assaulted that person's spouse, former spouse, or a person eighteen years or older with whom the person resides or has formerly resided and the officer believes: (i) A felonious assault has occurred; (ii) an assault has occurred which has resulted in bodily injury to the victim, whether the injury is observable by the responding officer or not; or (iii) that any physical action has occurred which was intended to cause another person reasonably to fear imminent serious bodily injury or death. Bodily injury means physical pain, illness, or an impairment of physical condition. When the officer has probable cause to believe that spouses, former spouses, or other persons who reside together or formerly resided together have assaulted each other, the officer is not required to arrest both persons. The officer shall arrest the person whom the officer believes to be the primary physical aggressor. In making this determination, the officer shall make every reasonable effort to consider: (i) The intent to protect victims of domestic violence under RCW 10.99.010; (ii) the comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury; and (iii) the history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

(3) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of any of the following traffic laws shall have the authority to arrest the person:

(a) RCW 46.52.010, relating to duty on striking an unattended car or other property;
(b) RCW 46.52.020, relating to duty in case of injury to or death of a person or damage to an attended vehicle;
(c) RCW 46.61.500 or 46.61.530, relating to reckless driving or racing of vehicles;
(d) RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, relating to persons under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs;
(e) RCW 46.20.342, relating to driving a motor vehicle while operator's license is suspended or revoked;
(f) RCW 46.61.525, relating to operating a motor vehicle in a negligent manner.

(4) A law enforcement officer investigating at the scene of a motor vehicle accident may arrest the driver of a motor vehicle involved in the accident if the officer has probable cause to believe that the driver has committed in connection with the accident a violation of any traffic law or regulation.

(5) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of RCW 88.12.100 shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(6) An officer may act upon the request of a law enforcement officer in whose presence a traffic infraction was committed, to stop, detain, arrest, or issue a notice of traffic infraction to the driver who is believed to have committed the infraction. The request by the witnessing officer shall give an officer the authority to take appropriate action under the laws of the state of Washington.

(7) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing any act of indecent exposure, as defined in RCW 9A.88.010, may arrest the person.

(8) A police officer may arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that an order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under chapter 10.14 RCW and the person has violated the terms of that order.
A police officer having probable cause to believe that a person illegally possesses or illegally has possessed a firearm or other dangerous weapon on private or public elementary or secondary school premises shall have the authority to arrest the person. For purposes of this subsection, the term "firearm" has the meaning defined in RCW 9.41.010 and the term "dangerous weapon" has the meaning defined in RCW 9.41.250 and 9.41.280(1)(c) through (e).

Except as specifically provided in subsections (2), (3), (4), and (6) of this section, nothing in this section extends or otherwise affects the powers of arrest prescribed in Title 46 RCW.

No police officer may be held criminally or civilly liable for making an arrest pursuant to RCW 10.31.100(2) or (8) if the police officer acts in good faith and without malice.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk
MR. PRESIDENT:

The Senate passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5380 with the following amendment(s):

Strike the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 41.56.475 and 1988 c 110 § 2 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the classes of employees in RCW 41.56.030(7), the provisions of RCW 41.56.430((.41.56.440, and)) through 41.56.452 and RCW 41.56.470, 41.56.480, and 41.56.490 also apply to Washington state patrol officers appointed under RCW 43.43.020 as provided in this section, subject to the following:

(1) The mediator shall not consider wages and wage-related matters.

(2) (a) The services of the mediator, including any per diem expenses, shall be provided by the commission without cost to the parties. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the public employer and a bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute at their own expense some other mediator or mediation procedure.

(b) If the public employer and a bargaining representative are unable to reach an agreement in mediation, either party, by written notice to the other party and to the commission, may request that the matters in dispute be submitted to a fact-finder for recommendations. If the executive director, upon the recommendation of the mediator, finds that the parties remain at an impasse after a reasonable period of negotiations, the executive director shall initiate fact-finding proceedings.

(c) The executive director shall provide the parties with a list of five persons qualified to serve as the neutral fact-finder. The parties shall without delay attempt to agree upon a fact-finder from the list provided by the commission or to agree upon some other person as a fact-finder. Upon the request of either party, the commission shall appoint a fact-finder from the list provided by the commission or to appoint a fact-finder. The commission shall not appoint as fact-finder the same person who acted as mediator in the dispute.

(d) The fact-finder shall promptly establish a date, time, and place to meet with the representatives of the parties and shall provide reasonable notice of the meeting to the parties to the dispute. The requirements of chapter 34.60 RCW shall not apply to fact-finding proceedings. The fact-finder shall make inquiries and investigations, hold hearings, and take such other steps as he or she deems appropriate. The fact-finder may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence.

(e) The fact-finder shall, within thirty days following the conclusion of the hearing, make written findings of fact and written recommendations to the parties as to how their dispute should be resolved. A copy shall be delivered or mailed to each of the parties to the dispute. A copy shall be filed with the commission. The findings and recommendations of the fact-finder are advisory only.

(f) The findings and recommendations of the fact-finder shall be held in confidence among the fact-finder, the public employer, the bargaining representative, and the commission for seven calendar days following their issuance, to permit the public employer and the bargaining representative to study the recommendations. No later than seven calendar days following the issuance of the recommendations of the fact-finder, each party shall notify the commission and the other party whether it accepts or rejects, in whole or in part, the recommendations of the fact-finder. If the parties remain in disagreement following the expiration of the seven-day period, the findings and recommendations of the fact-finder may be made public.

(g) The fees and expenses of the fact-finder shall be paid by the parties to the dispute, in equal amounts. All other costs of the proceeding shall be paid by the party incurring those costs. Nothing in this section prohibits an employer and an exclusive bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute, at their own expense, some other impasse procedure or from agreeing to some other allocation of the costs of fact-finding between them."

In making its determination, the arbitration panel shall be mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in RCW 41.56.430 and, as additional standards or guidelines to aid it in reaching a decision, shall take into consideration the following factors:

(a) The constitutional and statutory authority of the employer;

(b) Stipulations of the parties;

(c) Comparison of the hours and conditions of employment of personnel involved in the proceedings with the hours and conditions of employment of like personnel of similar size on the west coast of the United States;

(d) Changes in any of the foregoing circumstances during the pendency of the proceedings; and

(e) Such other factors, not confined to the foregoing, which are normally or traditionally taken into consideration in the determination of hours and conditions of employment.".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5380. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5380, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5380, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; Nays, 9; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bluechel, Cantu, Hochstatter, McCaslin, McDonald, Newhouse, Oke and Prince - 9.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5380, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5483 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:
In addition to the classes of employees listed in RCW 41.56.030(7), the provisions of RCW 41.56.430 through 41.56.452, 41.56.470, 41.56.480, and 41.56.490 shall also be applicable to the employees of a public passenger transportation system of a metropolitan municipal corporation, county transportation authority, public transportation benefit area, or city public passenger transportation system, subject to the following:

(1) Negotiations between the public employer and the bargaining representative may commence at any time agreed to by the parties. If no agreement has been reached ninety days after commencement of negotiations, either party may demand that the issues in disagreement be submitted to a mediator. The services of the mediator shall be provided by the commission without cost to the parties, but nothing in this section or RCW 41.56.440 shall be construed to prohibit the public employer and the bargaining representative from agreeing to substitute at their own expense some other mediator or mediation procedure; and

(2) If an agreement has not been reached following a reasonable period of negotiations and mediation, and the mediator finds that the parties remain at impasse, either party may demand that the issues in disagreement be submitted to an arbitration panel for a binding and final determination. In making its determination, the arbitration panel shall be mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in RCW 41.56.430 and as additional standards or guidelines to aid it in reaching a decisions, shall take into consideration the following factors:
(a) The constitutional and statutory authority of the employer;
(b) Stipulations of the parties;
(c) Compensation package comparisons, economic indices, fiscal constraints, and similar factors determined by the arbitration panel to be pertinent to the case; and
(d) Such other factors, not confined to the foregoing, which are normally or traditionally taken into consideration in the determination of wages, hours, and conditions of employment., and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5492 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 23.86.070 and 1991 c 72 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:
For filing articles of incorporation of an association organized under this chapter or filing application for a certificate of authority by a foreign corporation, there shall be paid to the secretary of state the sum of twenty-five dollars ((and for filing of an amendment the sum of twenty dollars)). Fees for filing an amendment to articles of incorporation shall be established by the secretary of state by rule. For filing other documents with the secretary of state and issuing certificates, fees shall be as prescribed in RCW 23B.01.220. Associations subject to this chapter shall not be subject to any corporation license fees excepting the fees hereinabove enumerated.

Sec. 2. RCW 23B.01.220 and 1992 c 107 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The secretary of state shall collect in accordance with the provisions of this title:
(a) Fees for filing documents and issuing certificates;
(b) Miscellaneous charges;
(c) License fees as provided in RCW 23B.01.500 through 23B.01.550;
(d) Penalty fees; and
(e) Other fees as the secretary of state may establish by rule adopted under chapter 34.05 RCW.

(2) The secretary of state shall collect the following fees when the documents described in this subsection are delivered for filing:

(1) One hundred seventy-five dollars, pursuant to RCW 23B.01.520 and 23B.01.540, for:
   (a) Articles of incorporation; and
   (b) Application for certificate of authority;
   (c) Fifty dollars for an initial report;
   (d) Initial report; and
   (e) Articles of revocation of dissolution.

(2) The secretary of state shall establish by rule, fees for the following:
   (a) Application for reinstatement;
   (b) Articles of correction;
   (c) Amendment of articles of incorporation;
   (d) Restatement of articles of incorporation, with or without amendment;
   (e) Shares of stock or share exchange;
   (f) Articles of revocation of dissolution;
   (g) Application for amended certificate of authority;
   (h) Application for reservation, registration, or assignment of reserved name;
   (i) Ten dollars for an application for certificate of authority.

(3) The secretary of state shall collect the following fees when the documents described in this subsection are delivered for filing:

(a) Twenty-five dollars for:
   (i) Articles of incorporation;
   (ii) Articles of correction;
   (iii) Amendment of articles of incorporation;
   (iv) Restatement of articles of incorporation, with or without amendment;
   (v) Shares of stock or share exchange;
   (vi) Articles of revocation of dissolution;
   (vii) Application for amended certificate of authority;
   (viii) Application for reservation, registration, or assignment of reserved name;
   (ix) Ten dollars for an application for certificate of authority.

(4) The secretary of state shall charge and collect fees for:

(a) A corporation seeking reinstatement shall pay the full amount of all annual corporation license fees which would have accrued during any period of delinquency, plus a surcharge, if applicable, which, under those laws, would have accrued during any period of delinquency, dissolution, or expiration of corporate duration.

(b) Any document not listed in this subsection that is required or permitted to be filed under this title.

(c) No fee for:

(i) Application for reservation, registration, or assignment of reserved name;
(ii) Initial report when filed concurrently with the payment of annual license fees.

(5) The secretary of state shall collect a fee ((of twenty-five dollars)) in an amount established by the secretary of state by rule per defendant served, upon being served process under this title. The party to a proceeding causing service of process is entitled to recover this fee as costs if such party prevails in the proceeding.

(6) The secretary of state shall establish by rule and collect a fee from every person or organization:

(a) For furnishing a certified copy of any document, instrument, or paper relating to a corporation;
(b) For furnishing a certificate, under seal, attesting to the existence of a corporation, or any other certificate;
(c) For furnishing copies of any document, instrument, or paper relating to a corporation, other than of an initial report or an annual report, one dollar for the first page and twenty cents for each page copied thereafter. The fee for furnishing a copy of the most recent annual report of a corporation (or of the initial report if no annual report has been filed) is one dollar, and the fee for furnishing a copy of any other annual report of a corporation is five dollars.

(7) For annual license fees for domestic and foreign corporations, see RCW 23B.01.500, 23B.01.510, 23B.01.530, and 23B.01.550. For penalties for nonpayment of annual license fees and failure to complete annual report, see RCW 23B.01.570.

Sec. 3. RCW 23B.01.530 and 1989 c 165 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

For the privilege of doing business, every corporation organized under the laws of this state, except the corporations for which existing law provides a different fee schedule, shall make and file a statement in the form prescribed by the secretary of state and shall pay an annual license fee each year following incorporation, on or before the expiration date of its corporate license, to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall collect an annual license fee of ten dollars for each inactive corporation and fifty dollars for all other corporations. As used in this section, "inactive corporation" means a corporation that certifies at the time of filing under this section that it did not engage in any business activities during the year ending on the expiration date of its corporate license.

Sec. 4. RCW 23B.01.560 and 1989 c 165 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A corporation seeking reinstatement shall pay the full amount of all annual corporation license fees which would have been assessed for the license years of the period of administrative dissolution had the corporation been in active status, plus a surcharge, if applicable, established by the secretary of state by rule, and the license fee for the year of reinstatement.

(2) The penalties herein established shall be in lieu of any other penalties or interest which could have been assessed by the secretary of state under the corporation laws or which, under those laws, would have accrued during any period of delinquency, dissolution, or expiration of corporate duration.

Sec. 5. RCW 24.03.405 and 1991 c 223 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(i) Filing an application of merger of a foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state (twenty dollars).
(j) Filing an application for withdrawal of a foreign corporation and issuing a certificate of withdrawal, no fee.
(k) Filing a certificate by a foreign corporation of the appointment of a registered agent (ten dollars). A separate fee for filing such certificate shall not be charged if the statement appears in an amendment to the articles of incorporation or in conjunction with the annual report.
(l) Filing a certificate by a foreign corporation of the revocation of the appointment of a registered agent (ten dollars).
(m) Filing an application to reserve a corporate name (twenty dollars).
(n) Filing a notice of transfer of a reserved corporate name (twenty dollars).
(o) Filing a certificate by a foreign corporation of the revocation of the appointment of a registered agent (ten dollars). A separate fee for filing such certificate shall not be charged if the statement appears in an amendment to the articles of incorporation or in conjunction with the annual report.

Sec. 8. RCW 24.06.455 and 1982 c 35 s 111 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The secretary of state shall (charge and collect in advance) establish by rule, fees for the following:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 43.07 RCW to read as follows:

"The secretary of state may adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW establishing reasonable fees for the following services rendered under chapter 11.110 or 19.09 RCW:

1. Any service rendered in person at the secretary of state's office;
2. Any expedited service;
3. The electronic transmittal of documents;
4. The providing of information by microfiche or other reduced-format compilation;
5. The handling of checks or drafts for which sufficient funds are not on deposit;
6. The resubmission of documents previously submitted to the secretary of state where the documents have been returned to the submitter to make such documents conform to the requirements of the applicable statute;
7. The handling of telephone requests for information; and
8. Special search charges."

"The following fees from each association:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. RCW 43.07.120 and 1991 c 72 § 53 are each amended to read as follows:

"(1) Any service rendered in person at the secretary of state's office;
(2) The electronic transmittal of documents;
(3) The providing of information by microfiche or other reduced-format compilation;
(4) The handling of checks or drafts for which sufficient funds are not on deposit;
(5) The resubmission of documents previously submitted to the secretary of state where the documents have been returned to the submitter to make such documents conform to the requirements of the applicable statute;
(6) The handling of telephone requests for information; and
(7) Special search charges."

"Any service rendered in person at the secretary of state's office, any expedited service, the electronic transmittal of documents, the providing of information by microfiche or other reduced-format compilation, the handling of checks or drafts for which sufficient funds are not on deposit, the resubmission of documents previously submitted to the secretary of state where the documents have been returned to the submitter to make such documents conform to the requirements of the applicable statute, the handling of telephone requests for information, and special search charges are required of general corporations for filing similar papers."

"The following fees from each association:

Thereupon such corporation shall be reinstated and its corporate existence renewed as of the date on which its previous term of existence expired and all things done or omitted by it or by its officers, directors, agents and members before such reinstatement shall be as valid and have the same legal effect as if its previous term of existence had not expired.

A corporation reinstating under this section shall pay to the state all fees and penalties which would have been due if the corporate charter had not expired, plus a reinstatement fee (twenty-five dollars) established by the secretary of state by rule.

The secretary of state shall establish by rule and collect the fees herein prescribed for the secretary of state's official services in this subsection:

(a) For a copy of any law, resolution, record, or other document or paper on file in the secretary's office ((for which no other fee is provided, fifty cents per page for the first ten pages and twenty-five cents per page for each additional page));
(b) For filing and recording trademark((fifty dollars));
(c) For each deed or patent of land issued by the governor((if for one hundred and sixty acres of land, or less, one dollar, and for each additional one hundred and sixty acres, or fraction thereof, one dollar)));
The secretary of state may adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW establishing reasonable fees for the following services rendered under Title 23B RCW, chapter 18.100, 23.86, 23.90, 24.03, 24.06, 24.12, 24.20, 24.24, 24.28, 24.36, or 25.10 RCW:

(a) Any service rendered in-person at the secretary of state's office;
(b) Any expedited service;
(c) The electronic or facsimile transmittal of information from corporation records or copies of documents;
(d) The providing of information by (microfiche) or other reduced-format compilation;
(e) The handling of checks or credit or debit cards upon adoption of rules authorizing their use for which sufficient funds are not on deposit; and
(f) The resubmission of documents previously submitted to the secretary of state where the documents have been returned to the submitter to make such documents conform to the requirements of the applicable statute;
(g) The handling of telephone requests for information; and
(h) Special search charges.

The secretary of state may adopt rules for the use of credit or debit cards for payment of fees.

(5) No member of the legislature, state officer, justice of the supreme court, judge of the court of appeals, or judge of the superior court shall be charged for any search relative to matters pertaining to the duties of his or her office; nor may such official be charged for a certified copy of any law or resolution passed by the legislature relative to his or her official duties, if such law has not been published as a state law.

Section 16. RCW 46.64.040 and 1982 c 35 s 197 are each amended to read as follows:

A nonresident of the state shall, for his or her operation of a vehicle thereon, or the operation thereon of his or her vehicle with his or her consent, express or implied, shall be deemed equivalent to and construed to be an appointment by such nonresident of the secretary of state as the true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful summons and processes against him or her growing out of any accident, collision, or liability in which such nonresident may be involved while operating a vehicle upon the public highways, or while his or her vehicle is being operated thereon with his or her consent, express or implied, and such operation and acceptance shall be a filing of the nonresident's agreement that any summons or process against him or her which is so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on (herein) the nonresident personally within the state of Washington. Likewise each resident of this state who, while operating a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state, is involved in any accident, collision or liability and thereafter within three years departs from this state appoints the secretary of state of the state of Washington as his or her true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful summons and processes against him or her.

Section 17. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1993.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 7, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5523 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1 strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 3.34.130 and 1986 c 161 § 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each district court shall designate one or more persons as judge pro tempore who shall serve during the temporary absence, disqualification, or incapacity of a district judge. The qualifications of a judge pro tempore shall be the same as for a district judge, except that with respect to RCW 3.34.060(1), the person appointed need only be a registered voter of the state. A district that has a population of not more than ten thousand and that has no person available who meets the qualifications under RCW 3.34.060 (2)(a) or (b), may appoint as a pro tempore judge a person who has taken and passed the qualifying examination for the office of district judge as is provided by rule of the supreme court. A judge pro tempore may sit in any district of the county for which he or she is appointed. A judge pro tempore shall be paid the salary authorized by the county legislative authority. For each day that a judge pro tempore serves in excess of thirty days during any calendar year, the annual salary of the judge in whose place he or she serves shall be reduced by an amount equal to one-hundred five hundredth of such salary: PROVIDED, That each full time district judge shall have up to fifteen days annual leave without reduction for service on judicial commissions established by the legislature or the chief justice of the supreme court. No reduction in salary shall occur when a judge pro tempore serves while a district judge is using sick leave granted in accordance with RCW 3.34.100." dollars shall be charged.

(11) For approving a bond, including justification thereon, in other than civil actions and probate proceedings, a fee of two dollars shall be required of the party.

(12) The legislature may appropriate money for the purpose of reimbursing counties for the salaries of judges pro tempore for certain days in excess of thirty worked per year that the judge pro tempore was required to work as the result of service by a judge on a commission as authorized under subsection (1) of this section. No later than September 1 of each year, each county treasurer shall certify to the administrator for the courts for the year ending the preceding June 30, the number of days in excess of thirty that any judge pro tempore was required to work as the result of service on a commission as authorized under subsection (1) of this section. Upon receipt of the certification, the administrator for the courts shall reimburse the county from money appropriated for that purpose.*., and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5528 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 36.18.020 and 1992 c 54 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Clerks of superior courts shall collect the following fees for their official services:

(1) The party filing the first or initial paper in any civil action, including an action for restitution, or change of name, shall pay, at the time said paper is filed, a fee of one hundred ten dollars except in proceedings filed under RCW 26.50.030 or 49.60.227 where the petitioner shall pay a filing fee of twenty dollars, or an unlawful detainer action under chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW where the plaintiff shall pay a filing fee of thirty dollars. If the defendant serves or files an answer to an unlawful detainer complaint under chapter 59.18 or 59.20 RCW, the plaintiff shall pay, prior to proceeding with the unlawful detainer action, an additional eighty dollars which shall be considered part of the filing fee. The thirty dollar filing fee under this subsection for an unlawful detainer action shall not include an order to show cause or any other order or judgment except a default order or default judgment in an unlawful detainer action.

(2) Any party, except a defendant in a criminal case, filing the first or initial paper on an appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction or any party on any civil appeal, shall pay, when said paper is filed, a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(3) The party filing a transcript or abstract of judgment or verdict from a United States court held in this state, or from the superior court of another county or from a district court in the county of issuance, shall pay at the time said paper is filed, a fee of fifteen dollars.

(4) For the filing of a tax warrant by the department of revenue of the state of Washington, a fee of five dollars shall be paid.

(5) For the filing of a petition for modification of a decree of dissolution, a fee of twenty dollars shall be paid.

(6) The party filing a demand for jury of six in a civil action, shall pay, at the time of filing, a fee of fifty dollars; if the demand is for a jury of twelve the fee shall be one hundred dollars. If, after the party files a demand for a jury of six and pays the required fee, any other party to the action requests a jury of twelve, an additional fifty-dollar fee will be required of the party demanding the increased number of jurors.

(7) For filing any paper, not related to or a part of any proceeding, civil or criminal, or any probate matter, required or permitted to be filed in the clerk's office for which no other charge is provided by law, or for filing a petition, written agreement, or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170, the clerk shall collect ((50)) twenty dollars.

(8) For preparing, transcribing or certifying any instrument on file or of record in the clerk's office, with or without seal, for the first page or portion thereof, a fee of two dollars, and for each additional page or portion thereof, a fee of one dollar. For authenticating or exemplifying any instrument, a fee of one dollar for each additional seal affixed.

(9) For executing a certificate, with or without a seal, a fee of two dollars shall be charged.

(10) For each garnishee defendant named in an affidavit for garnishment and for each writ of attachment, a fee of ((50)) twenty dollars shall be charged.

(11) For approving a bond, including justification thereon, in other than civil actions and probate proceedings, a fee of two dollars shall be charged."
(12) In probate proceedings, the party instituting such proceedings, shall pay at the time of filing the first paper therein, a fee of one hundred ten dollars: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, A fee of (two) twenty dollars shall be charged for filing a will only, when no probate of the will is contemplated. Except as provided for in subsection (13) of this section a fee of two dollars shall be charged for filing a petition, written agreement, or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170.

(13) For filing any petition to contest a will admitted to probate or a petition to admit a will which has been rejected, or a petition objecting to a written agreement or memorandum as provided in RCW 11.96.170, there shall be paid a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(14) For the issuance of each certificate of qualification and each certified copy of letters of administration, letters testamentary or letters of guardianship there shall be a fee of two dollars.

(15) For the preparation of a passport application (there shall be a fee of four dollars) the clerk may collect an execution fee as authorized by the federal government.

(16) For (searching records for which a written report is issued there shall be a fee of eight dollars per hour) clerks' special services such as processing ex parte orders by mail, performing historical searches, compiling statistical reports, and conducting exceptional record searches the clerk may collect a fee not to exceed twenty dollars per hour or portion of an hour.

(17) For duplicated recordings of court's proceedings there shall be a fee of ten dollars for each audio tape and twenty-five dollars for each video tape.

(18) Upon conviction or plea of guilty, upon failure to prosecute an appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction as provided by law, or upon affirmance of a conviction by a court of limited jurisdiction, a defendant in a criminal case shall be liable for a fee of one hundred ten dollars.

(19) With the exception of demands for jury hereafter made and garnishments hereafter issued, civil actions and probate proceedings filed prior to midnight, July 1, 1972, shall be completed and governed by the fee schedule in effect as of January 1, 1972: PROVIDED, That no fee shall be assessed if an order of dismissal on the clerk's record be filed as provided by rule of the supreme court.

(20) No fee shall be collected when a petition for relinquishment of parental rights is filed pursuant to RCW 26.33.080 or for forms and instructional brochures provided under RCW 26.50.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 26.12 RCW to read as follows:

A county may create a courthouse facilitator program to provide basic services to pro se litigants in family law cases. The legislative authority of any county may impose user fees or may impose a surcharge of up to ten dollars on only those superior court cases filed under Title 26 RCW, or both, to pay for the expenses of the courthouse facilitator program. Fees collected under this section shall be collected and deposited in the same manner as other county funds are collected and deposited, and shall be maintained in a separate account to be used as provided in this section.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Adam Smith moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5528.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Smith, what are these facilitators in domestic relation's cases in the Superior Court to do? I am not familiar with Representative Appelwick's bill and this idea of having someone who looks to me very much like they are going to be providing some legal assistance to people. Preciously what is it that they are going to be doing?"

Senator Adam Smith: "Well, my understanding is that this is a program that several counties had, but they were doing it by a grant that ran out, so this is another way to make that program work. Frankly, as far as specifically what they are doing, I don't know specifically, but I have heard that it works very well--advising them on domestic relation's cases--so they don't have to go out and pay a lot of money for a lawyer to give them some pro se advise. That is my understanding of it."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Adam Smith that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5528.

The motion by Senator Adam Smith carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5528.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5528, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5528, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; Nays, 14; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Jesernig, Loveland, McAuliffe, Moore, Moyer, Niemi, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Sheldon, Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, West, Winsley and Wojahn - 33.

Excused: Senators Rinehart and Smith, L. - 2.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE
MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5534 with the following amendment(s):
On page 1, beginning on line 14, strike the remainder of subsection (b) and insert "have terminal operations in the state of Washington are subject to commission jurisdiction.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5534. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5534, as amended by the House.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5245 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 46.61.502 and 1987 c 373 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person drives a vehicle within this state (while):

((a)) (a) And the person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath within two hours after driving, as shown by analysis of the person's breath made under RCW 46.61.506; or

((b)) (b) And the person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood within two hours after driving, as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

((c)) (c) While the person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or

((d)) (d) While the person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk
The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section.

(3) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of driving and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.10 or more within two hours after driving. The court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

(4) Analyses of blood or breath samples obtained more than two hours after the alleged driving may be used as evidence that within two hours of the alleged driving, a person had 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath or 0.10 percent or more of alcohol in the person's blood, pursuant to subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section, and may be used as evidence that a person was under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquors or any drug pursuant to subsection (1) (c) and (d) of this section.

Sec. 2. RCW 46.61.504 and 1987 c 373 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person has actual physical control of a vehicle within this state ((while):

(a) And the person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath within two hours after being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle, as shown by analysis of the person's breath made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(b) And the person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood within two hours after being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle, as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(c) While the person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or

(d) While the person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

(2) The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

(3) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.10 or more within two hours after driving in actual physical control of a motor vehicle. The court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

(4) Analyses of blood or breath samples obtained more than two hours after the alleged driving may be used as evidence that within two hours of the alleged physical control of a motor vehicle, a person had 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath or 0.10 percent or more of alcohol in the person's blood, pursuant to subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section, and may be used as evidence that a person was under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquors or any drug pursuant to subsection (1) (c) and (d) of this section.

The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section.

The court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

(1) A person is guilty of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug if the person has actual physical control of a vehicle within this state ((while):

(a) And the person has 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath within two hours after being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle, as shown by analysis of the person's breath made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(b) And the person has 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood within two hours after being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle, as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(c) While the person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor or any drug; or

(d) While the person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

(2) The fact that any person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use such drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

(3) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.10 or more within two hours after driving in actual physical control of a motor vehicle. The court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

(4) Analyses of blood or breath samples obtained more than two hours after the alleged driving may be used as evidence that within two hours of the alleged physical control of a motor vehicle, a person had 0.10 grams or more of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath or 0.10 percent or more of alcohol in the person's blood, pursuant to subsection (1) (a) and (b) of this section, and may be used as evidence that a person was under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquors or any drug pursuant to subsection (1) (c) and (d) of this section.

That the bill be engrossed for the third time and be read as amended on final passage.

The bill having passed the Senate, the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5280 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The director of the department of labor and industries shall conduct a study to determine whether there is a need for increased regulation, such as a voluntary certificate of competency program, of general and specialty contractors registered under chapter 18.27 RCW. In conducting the study, the director shall consult with representatives of the following construction classifications: Commercial/retail construction; highway/industrial construction; municipal/utility construction; marine construction; residential single-family construction; and residential multifamily construction. The director shall also consult with representatives of state and local governmental agencies and members of the general public who are familiar with the business and trade of construction.

No later than February 1, 1994, the director shall present findings and recommendations to the appropriate legislative committees concerning whether contractors should be subject to increased regulation by the state, such as a voluntary certificate of competency program.

The study and recommendations of the director shall be guided by the principle that increased regulation by the state is appropriate only when: Unregulated practice can clearly harm or endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public, and the potential harm is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument; the public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from an assurance of initial and continuing professional responsibility; and the public cannot be effectively protected by other means in a more cost-beneficial manner.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On page 2, at the beginning of line 9, strike "((((c)))) (d)" and insert "(c)"

On page 2, after line 21, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. RCW 18.08.350 and 1993 c ... s 1 (section 1 of this act) are each amended to read as follows:

1) A certificate of registration shall be granted by the director to all qualified applicants who are certified by the board as having passed the required examination and as having given satisfactory proof of completion of the required experience.

2) Applications for examination shall be filed as the board prescribes by rule. The application and examination fees shall be determined by the director under RCW 43.24.086.

3) An applicant for registration as an architect shall be of a good moral character, at least eighteen years of age, and shall possess any of the following qualifications:

(a) Have an accredited architectural degree and three years' practical architectural work experience approved by the board, which may include designing buildings as a principal activity. At least two years' work experience must be supervised by an architect with detailed professional knowledge of the work of the applicant; or

(b) Have eight years' practical architectural work experience approved by the board. Each year spent in an accredited architectural program approved by the board shall be considered one year of practical experience. At least four years' practical work experience shall be under the direct supervision of an architect(s).

(c) Be a person who has been designing buildings as a principal activity for eight years, or has an equivalent combination of education and experience, but who was not registered under chapter 323, Laws of 1959, as amended, as it existed before July 28, 1992, provided that application is made within four years after July 28, 1992. Nothing in this chapter prevents such a person from designing buildings for four years after July 28, 1992, or the five-year period allowed for completion of the examination process, after that person has applied for registration. A person who has been designing buildings and is qualified under this subsection shall upon application to the board of registration for architects, be allowed to take the examination for architect registration on an equal basis with other applicants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2 of this act shall take effect July 29, 2001.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5545.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Niemi: "Senator Williams, for the record, is the phrase 'designing buildings as a principal activity' intended to include building designers working under the provisions of RCW 18.08.410 (5) and (6)?" Senator Williams: "Yes."
Senator Niemi: "And is the phrase 'supervised by an architect with detailed professional knowledge of the work of the applicant' intended to clarify that the board shall recognize other mentor/learner relationships between the architect and the exam applicant beside employer/employee relationships?"

Senator Williams: "Yes."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Moore that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5545.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5545.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5545, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5545, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Amondson, Owen, Prince and Rinehart - 4.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5545, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 12:01 p.m., on motion of Senator Jesernig, the Senate recessed until 1:00 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 1:06 p.m. by President Pritchard.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Oke, Senators Barr, Deccio, McCaslin, Moyer, Sellar and West were excused.

On motion of Senator Loveland, Senators Skratek and Talmadge were excused.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Due to work on health care reform, I missed the votes on concurrence on Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 5574; Senate Bill No. 5584; Substitute Senate Bill No. 5686; Senate Bill No. 5330; Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5342 and Senate Bill No. 5799.

I would have voted 'yes' on each measure.

SENATOR PHIL TALMADGE, 34th District

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5574 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that consumers have a vital interest in establishing and maintaining creditworthiness. The legislature further finds that an elaborate mechanism using credit reports has developed for investigating and evaluating a consumer's creditworthiness, credit capacity, and general reputation and character. As such, credit reports are used for evaluating credit card, loan, mortgage, and small business financing applications, as well as for decisions regarding employment and the rental or leasing of dwellings. Moreover, financial institutions and other creditors depend upon fair and accurate credit reports to efficiently and accurately evaluate creditworthiness. Unfair or inaccurate reports undermine both public and creditor confidences in the reliability of credit granting systems.

Therefore, this chapter is necessary to assure accurate credit data collection, maintenance, and reporting on the citizens of the state. It is the policy of the state that credit reporting agencies maintain accurate credit reports, resolve disputed reports promptly and fairly, and adopt reasonable procedures to promote consumer confidentiality and the proper use of credit data in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This chapter shall be known as the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1)(a) "Adverse action" includes:

(i) Denial of, increase in any charge for, or reduction in the amount of insurance for personal, family, or household purposes;
(5) "Consumer reporting agency" means a person who, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in part in the business of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties, and who uses any means or facility of commerce for the purpose of preparing or furnishing consumer reports.

(6) "Credit transaction that is not initiated by the consumer" does not include the use of a consumer report by an assignee for collection or by a person with which the consumer has an account, for purposes of (a) reviewing the account, or (b) collecting a refusal or failure to authorize an account transaction at a point of sale.

(b) "Adverse action" does not include:

(i) A refusal to extend additional credit under an existing credit arrangement if:

(A) The applicant is delinquent or otherwise in default with respect to the arrangement; or

(B) The additional credit would exceed a previously established credit limit; or

(ii) A refusal or failure to authorize an account transaction at a point of sale.

(2) "Attorney general" means the office of the attorney general.

(3) "Consumer" means an individual.

(4)(a) "Consumer report" means a written, oral, or other communication of information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on a consumer's creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living that is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in part for:

(i) The purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer's eligibility for credit or insurance to be used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes;

(ii) Employment purposes;

(iii) Other purposes authorized under section 4 of this act.

(b) "Consumer report" does not include:

(i) A report containing information solely as to transactions or experiences between the consumer and the person making the report;

(ii) An authorization or approval of a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly by the issuer of a credit card or similar device;

(iii) A report in which a person who has been requested by a third party to make a specific extension of credit directly or indirectly to a consumer conveys his or her decision with respect to the request, if the third party advises the consumer of the name and address of the person to whom the request was made and the person makes the disclosures to the consumer required under section 9 of this act;

(iv) A list compiled by a consumer reporting agency to be used by its client for direct marketing of goods or services not involving an offer of credit;

(v) A report solely conveying a decision whether to guarantee a check in response to a request by a third party; or

(vi) A report furnished for use in connection with a transaction that consists of an extension of credit to be used for a commercial purpose.

(5) "Consumer reporting agency" means a person who, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in part in the business of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties, and who uses any means or facility of commerce for the purpose of preparing or furnishing consumer reports. "Consumer reporting agency" does not include a person solely by reason of conveying a decision whether to guarantee a check in response to a request by a third party or a person who obtains a consumer report and provides the report or information contained in it to a subsidiary or affiliate of the person.

(6) "Credit transaction that is not initiated by the consumer" does not include the use of a consumer report by an assignee for collection or by a person with which the consumer has an account, for purposes of (a) reviewing the account, or (b) collecting the account. For purposes of this subsection "reviewing the account" includes activities related to account maintenance and monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

(7) "Direct solicitation" means the process in which the consumer reporting agency compiles or edits for a client a list of consumers who meet specific criteria and provides this list to the client or a third party on behalf of the client for use in soliciting those consumers for an offer of a product or service.

(8) "Employment purposes." when used in connection with a consumer report, means a report used for the purpose of evaluating a consumer for employment, promotion, reassignment, or retention as an employee.

(9) "File," when used in connection with information on any consumer, means all of the information on that consumer recorded and retained by a consumer reporting agency regardless of how the information is stored.

(10) "Investigative consumer report" means a consumer report or portion of it in which information on a consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through personal interviews with neighbors, friends, or associates of the consumer reported on or with others with whom the consumer is acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any items of information. However, the information does not include specific factual information on a consumer's credit record obtained directly from a creditor of the consumer or from a consumer reporting agency when the information was obtained directly from a creditor of the consumer or from the consumer.

(11) "Medical information" means information or records obtained, with the consent of the individual to whom it relates, from a licensed physician or medical practitioner, hospital, clinic, or other medical or medically related facility.

(12) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, and any other legal or commercial entity.

(13) "Prescreening" means the process in which the consumer reporting agency compiles or edits for a client a list of consumers who meet specific credit criteria and provides this list to the client or a third party on behalf of the client for use in soliciting those consumers for an offer of credit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A consumer reporting agency may furnish a consumer report only under the following circumstances:

(a) In response to the order of a court having jurisdiction to issue the order;

(b) In accordance with the written instructions of the consumer to whom it relates; or

(c) To a person that the agency has reason to believe:
(i) Intends to use the information in connection with a credit transaction involving the consumer on whom the information is to be furnished and involving the extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of, the consumer;
(ii) Intends to use the information for employment purposes;
(iii) Intends to use the information in connection with the underwriting of insurance involving the consumer;
(iv) Intends to use the information in connection with a determination of the consumer's eligibility for a license or other benefit granted by a governmental instrumentality required by law to consider an applicant's financial responsibility or status; or
(v) Otherwise has a legitimate business need for the information in connection with a business transaction involving the consumer.

Sec. 2. (a) A person may not procure a consumer report, or cause a consumer report to be procured, for employment purposes with respect to any consumer who is not an employee at the time the report is procured or caused to be procured unless:
(i) A clear and conspicuous disclosure has been made in writing to the consumer before the report is procured or caused to be procured that a consumer report may be obtained for purposes of considering the consumer for employment. The disclosure may be contained in a written statement contained in employment application materials; or
(ii) The consumer authorizes the procurement of the report.
(b) A person may not procure a consumer report, or cause a consumer report to be procured, for employment purposes with respect to any employee unless the employee has received, at any time after the person became an employee, written notice that consumer reports may be used for employment purposes. A written statement that consumer reports may be used for employment purposes that is contained in employee guidelines or manuals available to employees or included in written materials provided to employees constitutes written notice for purposes of this subsection. This subsection does not apply with respect to a consumer report of an employee who the employer has reasonable cause to believe has engaged in specific activity that constitutes a violation of law.
(c) In using a consumer report for employment purposes, before taking any adverse action based in whole or in part on the report, a person shall provide to the consumer to whom the report relates: (i) The name, address, and telephone number of the consumer reporting agency providing the report; (ii) a description of the consumer's rights under this chapter pertaining to consumer reports obtained for employment purposes; and (iii) a reasonable opportunity to respond to any information in the report that is disputed by the consumer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A consumer reporting agency may provide a consumer report relating to a consumer under section 4(1)(c)(i) of this act in connection with a credit transaction that is not initiated by the consumer only if:
(a) The consumer authorized the consumer reporting agency to provide the report to such a person; or
(b) The consumer has not elected in accordance with subsection (3) of this section to have the consumer's name and address excluded from such transactions.
(2) A consumer reporting agency may provide only the following information under subsection (1) of this section:
(a) The name and address of the consumer; and
(b) Information pertaining to a consumer that is not identified or identifiable with particular accounts or transactions of the consumer.
(3)(a) A consumer may elect to have his or her name and address excluded from any list provided by a consumer reporting agency through prescreening under subsection (1) of this section or from any list provided by a consumer reporting agency for direct solicitation transactions that are not initiated by the consumer by notifying the consumer reporting agency. The notice must be made in writing through the notification system maintained by the consumer reporting agency under subsection (4) of this section and must state that the consumer does not consent to any use of consumer reports relating to the consumer in connection with any transaction that is not initiated by the consumer.
(b) An election of a consumer under (a) of this subsection is effective with respect to a consumer reporting agency, within five business days after the consumer reporting agency receives the consumer's notice.
(4) A consumer reporting agency that provides information intended to be used in a prescreened credit transaction or direct solicitation transaction that is not initiated by the consumer shall:
(a) Maintain a notification system that facilitates the ability of a consumer in the agency's data base to notify the agency to promptly withdraw the consumer's name from lists compiled for prescreened credit transactions and direct solicitation transactions not initiated by the consumer; and
(b) Publish at least annually in a publication of general circulation in the area served by the agency, the address for consumers to use to notify the agency of the consumer's election under subsection (3) of this section.
(5) A consumer reporting agency that maintains consumer reports on a nation-wide basis shall establish a system meeting the requirements of subsection (4) of this section on a nation-wide basis, and may operate such a system jointly with any other consumer reporting agencies.
(6) Compliance with the requirements of this section by any consumer reporting agency constitutes compliance by the agency's affiliates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as authorized under subsection (2) of this section, no consumer reporting agency may make a consumer report containing any of the following items of information:
(a) Bankruptcies that, from date of adjudication of the most recent bankruptcy, antedate the report by more than ten years;
(b) Suits and judgments that, from date of entry, antedate the report by more than seven years; or until the governing statute of limitations has expired, whichever is the longer period;
(c) Paid tax liens that, from date of payment, antedate the report by more than seven years;
(d) Accounts placed for collection or charged to profit and loss that antedate the report by more than seven years;
(e) Records of arrest, indictment, or conviction of crime that, from date of disposition, release, or parole, antedate the report by more than seven years;
(f) Any other adverse item of information that antedates the report by more than seven years.
(2) Subsection (1) of this section is not applicable in the case of a consumer report to be used in connection with:
(a) A credit transaction involving, or that may reasonably be expected to involve, a principal amount of fifty thousand dollars or more;
(b) The underwriting of life insurance involving, or that may reasonably be expected to involve, a face amount of fifty thousand dollars or more; or

c) The employment of an individual at an annual salary that equals, or that may reasonably be expected to equal, twenty thousand dollars or more.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A person may not procure or cause to be prepared an investigative consumer report on a consumer unless:

(a) It is clearly and accurately disclosed to the consumer that an investigative consumer report including information as to the consumer's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living, whichever are applicable, may be made, and the disclosure:

(i) is made in a writing mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer not later than three days after the date on which the report was first requested; and

(ii) includes a statement informing the consumer of the consumer's right to request the additional disclosures provided for under subsection (2) of this section and the written summary of the rights of the consumer prepared under section 10(7) of this act; or

(b) The report is to be used for employment purposes for which the consumer has not specifically applied.

(2) A person who procures or causes to be prepared an investigative consumer report on a consumer shall make, upon written request made by the consumer within a reasonable period of time after the receipt by the consumer of the disclosure required in subsection (1)(a) of this section, a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation requested. This disclosure must be made in a writing mailed, or otherwise delivered, to the consumer not later than five days after the date on which the request for the disclosure was either received from the consumer or the report was first requested.

(3) No person may be held liable for a violation of subsection (1) or (2) of this section if the person shows by a preponderance of the evidence that at the time of the violation the person maintained reasonable procedures to assure compliance with subsection (1) or (2) of this section.

(4) A consumer reporting agency shall maintain a detailed record of:

(a) The identity of the person to whom an investigative consumer report or information from a consumer report is provided by the consumer reporting agency; and

(b) The certified purpose for which an investigative consumer report on a consumer, or any other information relating to a consumer, is requested by the person.

For purposes of this subsection, "person" does not include an individual who requests the report unless the individual obtains the report or information for his or her own individual purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A consumer reporting agency shall maintain reasonable procedures designed to avoid violations of section 6 of this act and to limit the furnishing of consumer reports to the purposes listed under section 4 of this act. These procedures must require that prospective users of the information identify themselves, certify the purposes for which the information is sought, and certify that the information will be used for no other purpose. A consumer reporting agency shall make a reasonable effort to verify the identity of a new prospective user and the uses certified by the prospective user before furnishing the user a consumer report. No consumer reporting agency may furnish a consumer report to a person if the agency has reasonable grounds for believing that the consumer report will not be used for a purpose listed in section 4 of this act.

(2) Whenever a consumer reporting agency prepares a consumer report it shall follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum feasible accuracy of the information concerning the individual about whom the report relates.

(3) Notwithstanding section 4 of this act, a consumer reporting agency may furnish identifying information about a consumer, limited to the consumer's name, address, former addresses, places of employment, or former places of employment, to a governmental agency.

(4) A consumer reporting agency shall maintain a detailed record of:

(a) The identity of any person to whom a consumer report or information from a consumer report is provided by the consumer reporting agency; and

(b) The certified purpose for which a consumer report on a consumer, or any other information relating to a consumer, is requested by any person.

For purposes of this subsection, "person" does not include an individual who requests the report unless the individual obtains the report or information for his or her own purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A consumer reporting agency shall, upon request by the consumer, clearly and accurately disclose:

(1) All information in the file on the consumer at the time of request, except that medical information may be withheld. The agency shall inform the consumer of the existence of medical information, and the consumer has the right to have that information disclosed to the health care provider of the consumer's choice. Nothing in this chapter prevents, or authorizes a consumer reporting agency to prevent, the health care provider from disclosing the medical information to the consumer. The agency shall inform the consumer of the right to disclosure of medical information at the time the consumer requests disclosure of his or her file.

(2) All items of information in its files on that consumer, including disclosure of the sources of the information, except that sources of information acquired solely for use in an investigative report may only be disclosed to a plaintiff under appropriate discovery procedures.

(3) Identification of (a) each person who for employment purposes within the two-year period before the request, and (b) each person who for any other purpose within the six-month period before the request, procured a consumer report.

(4) A record identifying all inquiries received by the agency in the six-month period before the request that identified the consumer in connection with a credit transaction that is not initiated by the consumer.

(5) An identification of a person under subsection (3) or (4) of this section must include (a) the name of the person or, if applicable, the trade name under which the person conducts business; and (b) upon request of the consumer, the address of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) A consumer reporting agency shall make the disclosures required under 9 of this act during normal business hours and on reasonable notice.

(2) The consumer reporting agency shall make the disclosures required under section 9 of this act to the consumer:

(a) In person if the consumer appears in person and furnishes proper identification;
(b) By telephone if the consumer has made a written request, with proper identification, for telephone disclosure and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to the consumer; or
(c) By any other reasonable means that are available to the consumer reporting agency if that means is authorized by the consumer.

(3) A consumer reporting agency shall provide trained personnel to explain to the consumer, information furnished to the consumer under section 9 of this act.

(4) The consumer reporting agency shall permit the consumer to be accompanied by one other person of the consumer's choosing, who shall furnish reasonable identification. A consumer reporting agency may require the consumer to furnish a written statement granting permission to the consumer reporting agency to discuss the consumer's file in the other person's presence.

(5) If a credit score is provided by a consumer reporting agency to a consumer, the agency shall provide an explanation of the meaning of the credit score.

(6) Except as provided in section 17 of this act, no consumer may bring an action or proceeding in the nature of defamation, invasion of privacy, or negligence with respect to the reporting of information against a consumer reporting agency or a user of information, based on information disclosed under this section or section 9 of this act, except as to false information furnished with malice or willful intent to injure the consumer. Except as provided in section 17 of this act, no consumer may bring an action or proceeding against a person who provides information to a consumer reporting agency in the nature of defamation, invasion of privacy, or negligence for unintentional error.

(7)(a) A consumer reporting agency must provide to a consumer, with each written disclosure by the agency to the consumer under section 9 of this act, a written summary of all rights and remedies the consumer has under this chapter.

(b) The summary of the rights and remedies of consumers under this chapter must include:
   (i) A brief description of this chapter and all rights and remedies of consumers under this chapter;
   (ii) An explanation of how the consumer may exercise the rights and remedies of the consumer under this chapter; and
   (iii) A list of all state agencies, including the attorney general's office, responsible for enforcing any provision of this chapter and the address and appropriate phone number of each such agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) If the completeness or accuracy of an item of information contained in a consumer's file at a consumer reporting agency is disputed by the consumer and the consumer notifies the agency directly of the dispute, the agency shall reinvestigate without charge and record the current status of the disputed information before the end of thirty business days, beginning on the date the agency receives the notice from the consumer.

(2) Before the end of the five-business-day period beginning on the date a consumer reporting agency receives notice of a dispute from a consumer in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the agency shall notify any person who provided an item of information in dispute.

(3)(a) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a consumer reporting agency may terminate a reinvestigation of information disputed by a consumer under subsection (1) of this section if the agency determines that the dispute by the consumer is frivolous or irrelevant, including by reason of a failure of the consumer to provide sufficient information.

(b) Upon making a determination in accordance with (a) of this subsection that a dispute is frivolous or irrelevant, a consumer reporting agency shall notify the consumer within five business days of the determination. The notice shall be made in writing or any other means authorized by the consumer that are available to the agency, but the notice shall include the reasons for the determination and a notice of the consumer's rights under subsection (6) of this section.

(4) In conducting a reinvestigation under subsection (1) of this section with respect to disputed information in the file of any consumer, the consumer reporting agency shall review and consider all relevant information submitted by the consumer in the period described in subsection (1) of this section with respect to the disputed information.

(5)(a) If, after a reinvestigation under subsection (1) of this section of information disputed by a consumer, the information is found to be inaccurate or cannot be verified, the consumer reporting agency shall promptly delete the information from the consumer's file.

(b)(i) If information that has been deleted from a consumer's file under (a) of this subsection is reinserted in the file in accordance with (b)(i) of this subsection, the consumer reporting agency shall notify the consumer of the reinseration within thirty business days. The notice shall be in writing or any other means authorized by the consumer that are available to the agency.

(6) If the reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute or if the consumer reporting agency determines the dispute is frivolous or irrelevant, the consumer may file a brief statement setting forth the nature of the dispute. The consumer reporting agency may limit these statements to not more than one hundred words if it provides the consumer with assistance in writing a clear summary of the dispute.

(7) After the deletion of information from a consumer's file under this section or after the filing of a statement of dispute under subsection (6) of this section, the consumer reporting agency shall, at the request of the consumer, furnish notification that the item of information has been deleted or that item of information is disputed. In the case of disputed information, the notification shall include the statement filed under subsection (6) of this section. The notification shall be furnished to any person specifically designated by the consumer, who has, within two years before the deletion or filing of a dispute, received a consumer report concerning the consumer for employment purposes, or who has, within six months of the deletion or the filing of the dispute, received a consumer report concerning the consumer for any other purpose, if these consumer reports contained the deleted or disputed information.

(8)(a) Upon completion of the reinvestigation under this section, a consumer reporting agency shall provide notice, in writing or by any other means authorized by the consumer, of the results of a reinvestigation within five business days.

(b) The notice required under (a) of this subsection must include:
   (i) A statement that the reinvestigation is completed;
   (ii) A consumer report that is based upon the consumer's file as that file is revised as a result of the reinvestigation;
   (iii) A description or indication of any changes made in the consumer report as a result of those revisions to the consumer's file;
If requested by the consumer, a description of the procedure used to determine the accuracy and completeness of the information shall be provided to the consumer by the agency, including the name, business address, and telephone number of any person contacted in connection with the information;

(v) If the re-investigation does not resolve the dispute, a summary of the consumer’s right to file a brief statement as provided in subsection (6) of this section; and

(vi) If information is deleted or disputed after re-investigation, a summary of the consumer’s right to request notification to persons who have received a consumer report as provided in subsection (7) of this section.

(9) In the case of a consumer reporting agency that complies and maintains consumer reports on a nationwide basis, the consumer reporting agency must provide to a consumer who has undertaken to dispute the information contained in his or her file a toll-free telephone number that the consumer can use to communicate with the agency. A consumer reporting agency that provides a toll-free number required by this subsection shall also provide adequately trained personnel to answer basic inquiries from consumers using the toll-free number.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, a consumer reporting agency may charge the following fees to the consumer:

(a) For making a disclosure under sections 9 and 10 of this act, the consumer reporting agency shall charge a fee not exceeding eight dollars. Beginning January 1, 1995, the eight-dollar charge may be adjusted on January 1st of each year based on corresponding changes in the Consumer Price Index with fractional changes rounded to the nearest half dollar.

(b) For furnishing a notification, statement, or summary to a person under section 11(7) of this act, the consumer reporting agency may charge a fee not exceeding the charge that the agency would impose on each designated recipient for a consumer report. The amount of any charge must be disclosed to the consumer before furnishing the information.

(2) A consumer reporting agency shall make all disclosures under sections 9 and 10 of this act and furnish all consumer reports under section 11 of this act without charge, if requested by the consumer within sixty days after receipt by the consumer of a notification of adverse action under section 13 of this act or of a notice from a debt collection agency affiliated with that consumer reporting agency stating that the consumer’s credit rating may be or has been adversely affected.

(3) A consumer reporting agency shall not impose any charge for (a) providing notice to a consumer required under section 11 of this act, or (b) notifying a person under section 11(7) of this act of the deletion of information that is found to be inaccurate or that can no longer be verified, if the consumer designates that person to the agency before the end of the thirty-day period beginning on the date of notice under section 11(8) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If a person takes an adverse action with respect to a consumer that is based, in whole or in part, on information contained in a consumer report, the person shall:

(1) Provide written notice of the adverse action to the consumer, except verbal notice may be given by a person in an adverse action involving a business regulated by the Washington utilities and transportation commission or involving an application for the rental or leasing of residential real estate if such verbal notice does not impair a consumer’s ability to obtain a credit report without charge under section 12(2) of this act; and

(2) Provide the consumer with the name, address, and telephone number of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report to the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. An action to enforce a liability created under this chapter is permanently barred unless commenced within two years after the cause of action accrues, except that where a defendant has materially and willfully misrepresented information required under this chapter to be disclosed to an individual and the information so misrepresented is material to the establishment of the defendant’s liability to that individual under this chapter, the action may be brought at any time within two years after discovery by the individual of the misrepresentation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A person who knowingly and willfully obtains information on a consumer from a consumer reporting agency under false pretenses is subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars or imprisonment for up to one year, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. An officer or employee of a consumer reporting agency who knowingly and willfully provides information to an individual from the agency’s files to a person not authorized to receive that information is subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars or imprisonment for up to one year, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The legislature finds that the practices covered by this chapter are matters vitally affecting the public interest for the purpose of applying the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW. Violations of this chapter are not reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business. A violation of this chapter is an unfair or deceptive act in trade or commerce and an unfair method of competition for the purpose of applying the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW. The burden of proof in an action alleging a violation of this chapter shall be by a preponderance of the evidence, and the applicable statute of limitation shall be as set forth in section 14 of this act. For purposes of a judgment awarded pursuant to an action by a consumer under chapter 19.86 RCW, the consumer shall be awarded actual damages and costs of the action together with reasonable attorney’s fees as determined by the court. However, where there has been willful failure to comply with any requirement imposed under this chapter, the consumer shall be awarded actual damages, a monetary penalty of one thousand dollars, and the costs of the action together with reasonable attorneys’ fees as determined by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. This act takes effect January 1, 1994. , and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5574.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5574, as amended by the House.

MOTION
The legislature finds that:
(a) Housing is of vital state-wide importance to the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of the state;
(b) Safe, affordable housing is an essential factor in stabilizing communities;
(c) Residents must have a choice of housing opportunities within the community where they choose to live;
(d) Housing markets are linked to a healthy economy and can contribute to the state's economy;
(e) Land supply is a major contributor to the cost of housing;
(f) Housing must be an integral component of any comprehensive community and economic development strategy;
(g) State and local government must continue working cooperatively toward the enhancement of increased housing units by reviewing, updating, and removing conflicting regulatory language;
(h) State and local government should work together in developing creative ways to reduce the shortage of housing;
(i) The lack of a coordinated state housing policy inhibits the effective delivery of housing for some of the state's most vulnerable citizens and those with limited incomes; and
(j) It is in the public interest to adopt a statement of housing policy objectives.

The objectives of the Washington housing policy act shall be to attain the state's goal of a decent home in a healthy, safe environment for every resident of the state. The legislature declares that attainment of that goal is a state priority.

The objectives of the Washington housing policy act shall be to attain the state's goal of a decent home in a healthy, safe environment for every resident of the state by strengthening public and private institutions that are able to:
(1) Develop an adequate and affordable supply of housing for all economic segments of the population;
(2) Assist very low-income and special needs households who cannot obtain affordable, safe, and adequate housing in the private market;
(3) Encourage and maintain home ownership opportunities;
(4) Reduce life cycle housing costs while preserving public health and safety;
(5) Preserve the supply of existing affordable housing;
(6) Provide housing for special needs populations;
(7) Ensure fair and equal access to the housing market;
(8) Increase the availability of mortgage credit at low interest rates; and
(9) Coordinate and be consistent with the goals, objectives, and required housing element of the comprehensive plan in the state's growth management act in RCW 36.70A.070.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:
(1) "Affordable housing" means residential housing that is rented or owned by a person or household whose monthly housing costs, including utilities other than telephone, do not exceed thirty percent of the household's monthly income.
(2) "Department" means the department of community development.
(3) “Director” means the director of community development.

(4) “Nonprofit organization” means any public or private nonprofit organization that: (a) is organized under federal, state, or local laws; (b) has no part of its net earnings inuring to the benefit of any member, founder, contributor, or individual; and (c) has among its purposes significant activities related to the provision of decent housing that is affordable to very low-income, low-income, or moderate-income households and special needs populations.

(5) “Regulatory barriers to affordable housing” and “regulatory barriers” mean any public policies (including those embodied in statutes, ordinances, regulations, or administrative procedures or processes) required to be identified by the state or local government in connection with its strategy under section 105(b)(4) of the Cranston-Gonzalez national affordable housing act (42 U.S.C. 12701 et seq.).

(6) “Tenant-based organization” means a nonprofit organization whose governing body includes a majority of members who reside in the housing development and are considered low-income households.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The department shall establish the affordable housing advisory board to consist of twenty-one members.

(a) The following eighteen members shall be appointed by the governor:

(ii) Two representatives of the home mortgage lending profession;

(iii) One representative of the real estate sales profession;

(iv) One representative of the for-profit housing development industry;

(v) One representative of the nonprofit housing development industry;

(vi) One representative of homeless shelter operators;

(vii) One representative of lower-income persons;

(ix) One representative of special needs populations;

(xi) One representative of the nonprofit housing development industry as created under chapter 35.82 RCW;

(xii) Two representatives of the Washington association of counties, one representative shall be from a county that is located east of the crest of the Cascade mountains;

(xiii) Two representatives of the association of Washington cities, one representative shall be from a city that is located east of the crest of the Cascade mountains;

(xiv) One representative to serve as chair of the affordable housing advisory board;

(xv) One representative at large.

(b) The following three members shall serve as ex officio, nonvoting members:

(i) The director or the director's designee;

(ii) The executive director of the Washington state housing finance commission or the executive director's designee; and

(iii) The secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee.

(2)(a) The members of the affordable housing advisory board appointed by the governor shall be appointed for four-year terms, except that the chair shall be appointed to serve a two-year term. The terms of five of the initial appointees shall be for two years from the date of appointment and the terms of six of the initial appointees shall be for three years from the date of appointment. The governor shall designate the appointees who will serve the two-year and three-year terms. The members of the advisory board shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(b) The governor, when making appointments to the affordable housing advisory board, shall make appointments that reflect the cultural diversity of the state of Washington.

(3) The affordable housing advisory board shall serve as the department's principal advisory body on housing and housing-related issues, and replaces the department's existing boards and task forces on housing and housing-related issues.

(4) The affordable housing advisory board shall meet regularly and may appoint technical advisory committees, which may include members of the affordable housing advisory board, as needed to address specific issues and concerns.

(5) The department, in conjunction with the Washington state housing finance commission and the department of social and health services, shall supply such information and assistance as are deemed necessary for the advisory board to carry out its duties under this section.

(6) The department shall provide administrative and clerical assistance to the affordable housing advisory board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The affordable housing advisory board shall:

(1) Analyze those solutions and programs that could begin to address the state’s need for housing that is affordable for all economic segments of the state, and special needs populations, including but not limited to programs or proposals which provide for:

(a) Financing for the acquisition, rehabilitation, preservation, or construction of housing;

(b) Use of publicly owned land and buildings as sites for affordable housing;

(c) Coordination of state initiatives with federal initiatives and financing programs that are referenced in the Cranston-Gonzalez national affordable housing act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12701 et seq.), as amended, and development of an approved housing strategy as required in the Cranston-Gonzalez national affordable housing act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12701 et seq.), as amended;

(d) Identification and removal, where appropriate and not detrimental to the public health and safety, or environment, of state and local regulatory barriers to the development and placement of affordable housing;

(e) Stimulating public and private sector cooperation in the development of affordable housing; and

(f) Development of solutions and programs affecting housing, including the equitable geographic distribution of housing for all economic segments, as the advisory board deems necessary;

(2) Consider both homeownership and rental housing as viable options for the provision of housing. The advisory board shall give consideration to various types of residential construction and innovative housing options, including but not limited to manufactured and mobile housing;

(3) Review, evaluate, and make recommendations regarding existing and proposed housing programs and initiatives including but not limited to tax policies, land use policies, and financing programs. The advisory board shall provide recommendations to the director, along with the department's response in the annual housing report to the legislature required in section 12 of this act; and

(4) Prepare and submit to the director, by each December 1st, beginning December 1, 1993, a report detailing its findings and make specific program, legislative, and funding recommendations and any other recommendations it deems appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall, in consultation with the affordable housing advisory board created in section 5 of this act, report to the legislature on the development and placement of accessory apartments. The department shall produce a written report by December 15, 1993, which:

(a) Identifies local governments that allow the siting of accessory apartments in areas zoned for single-family residential use; and

(b) Makes recommendations to the legislature designed to encourage the development and placement of accessory apartments in areas zoned for single-family residential use.

(2) The recommendations made under subsection (1) of this section shall not take effect before ninety days following adjournment of the 1994 regular legislative session.

(3) Unless provided otherwise by the legislature, by December 31, 1994, local governments shall incorporate in their development regulations, zoning regulations, or official controls the recommendations contained in subsection (1) of this section. The accessory apartment provisions shall be part of the local government's development regulation, zoning regulation, or official control. To allow local flexibility, the recommendations shall be subject to such regulations, conditions, procedures, and limitations as determined by the local legislative authority.

(4) As used in this section, "local government" means:

(a) A city or code city with a population that exceeds twenty thousand;

(b) A county that is required to or has elected to plan under the state growth management act; and

(c) A county with a population that exceeds one hundred twenty-five thousand.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 35.63 RCW to read as follows:

Any local government, as defined in section 7 of this act, that is planning under this chapter shall comply with section 7(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 35A.63 RCW to read as follows:

Any local government, as defined in section 7 of this act, that is planning under this chapter shall comply with section 7(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 36.70 RCW to read as follows:

Any local government, as defined in section 7 of this act, that is planning under this chapter shall comply with section 7(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

Any local government, as defined in section 7 of this act, that is planning under this chapter shall comply with section 7(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The department shall, in consultation with the affordable housing advisory board created in section 5 of this act, prepare and from time to time amend a five-year housing advisory plan. The purpose of the plan is to document the need for affordable housing in the state and the extent to which that need is being met through public and private sector programs, to facilitate planning to meet the affordable housing needs of the state, and to enable the development of sound strategies and programs for affordable housing. The information in the five-year housing advisory plan must include:

(a) An assessment of the state's housing market trends;

(b) An assessment of the housing needs for all economic segments of the state and special needs populations;

(c) An inventory of the supply and geographic distribution of affordable housing units made available through public and private sector programs;

(d) A status report on the degree of progress made by the public and private sector toward meeting the housing needs of the state;

(e) An identification of state and local regulatory barriers to affordable housing and proposed regulatory and administrative techniques designed to remove barriers to the development and placement of affordable housing; and

(f) Specific recommendations, policies, or proposals for meeting the affordable housing needs of the state.

(2)(a) The five-year housing advisory plan required under subsection (1) of this section must be submitted to the legislature on or before February 1, 1994, and subsequent plans must be submitted every five years thereafter.

(b) Each February 1st, beginning February 1, 1995, the department shall submit an annual progress report, to the legislature, detailing the extent to which the state's affordable housing needs were met during the preceding year and recommendations for meeting those needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall be the principal state department responsible for coordinating federal and state resources and activities in housing, except for programs administered by the Washington state housing finance commission under chapter 43.180 RCW, and for evaluating the operations and accomplishments of other state departments and agencies as they affect housing.

(2) The department shall work with local governments, tribal organizations, local housing authorities, nonprofit community or neighborhood-based organizations, and regional or state-wide nonprofit housing assistance organizations, for the purpose of coordinating federal and state resources with local resources for housing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department shall provide technical assistance and information to state agencies and local governments to assist in the identification and removal of regulatory barriers to the development and placement of affordable housing. In providing assistance the department may:

(1) Analyze the costs and benefits of state legislation, rules, and administrative actions and their impact on the development and placement of affordable housing;

(2) Analyze the costs and benefits of local legislation, rules, and administrative actions and their impact on the development and placement of affordable housing;
(3) Assist state agencies and local governments in determining the impact of existing and anticipated actions, legislation, and rules on the development and placement of affordable housing;

(4) Investigate techniques and opportunities for reducing the life cycle housing costs through regulatory reform;

(5) Develop model standards and ordinances designed to reduce regulatory barriers to affordable housing and assisting in their adoption and use at the state and local government level;

(6) Provide technical assistance and information to state agencies and local governments for implementation of legislative and administrative reform programs to remove barriers to affordable housing;

(7) Prepare state regulatory barrier removal strategies;

(8) Provide staffing to the affordable housing advisory board created in section 5 of this act; and

(9) Perform other activities as the director deems necessary to assist the state, local governments, and the housing industry in meeting the affordable housing needs of the state.

Sec. 15. RCW 43.185.110 and 1991 c 204 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall prepare an annual report and shall send copies to the chair of the house of representatives committee on housing, the chair of the senate committee on commerce and labor, and one copy to the staff of each committee that summarizes the housing trust fund's income, grants and operating expenses, implementation of its program, and any problems arising in the administration thereof. The director shall promptly appoint a low-income housing assistance advisory committee composed of a representative from each of the following groups: Apartment owners, landlords, mortgage lending or servicing institutions, private nonprofit housing assistance programs, tenant associations, and public housing assistance programs. The affordable housing advisory (group) board established in section 5 of this act shall advise the director on housing needs in this state, including housing needs for persons who are mentally ill or developmentally disabled or youth who are blind or deaf or otherwise disabled, operational aspects of the grant and loan program or revenue collection programs established by this chapter, and implementation of the policy and goals of this chapter. Such advice shall be consistent with policies and plans developed by regional support networks according to chapter 71.24 RCW for the mentally ill and the developmental disabilities planning council for the developmentally disabled.

Sec. 16. RCW 43.185A.020 and 1991 c 356 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

The affordable housing program is created in the department of community development for the purpose of developing and coordinating public and private resources targeted to meet the affordable housing needs of low-income households in the state of Washington. The program shall be developed and administered by the department with advice and input from the (low-income housing assistance advisory committee established in RCW 43.185.110) affordable housing advisory board established in section 5 of this act.

Sec. 17. RCW 35.82.070 and 1991 c 167 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

An authority shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, and having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this chapter, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

(1) To sue and be sued; to have a seal and to alter the same at pleasure; to have perpetual succession; to make and execute contracts and other instruments, including but not limited to partnership agreements and joint venture agreements, necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers of the authority; to participate in the organization or the operation of a nonprofit corporation which has as one of its purposes to provide or assist in the provision of housing for persons of low income; and to make and from time to time amend and repeal bylaws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this chapter, to carry into effect the powers and purposes of the authority.

(2) Within its area of operation: To prepare, carry out, acquire and operate housing projects; to provide for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, alteration or repair of any housing project or any part thereof; to agree to rent or sell dwellings forming part of the projects to or for persons of low income. Where an agreement or option is made to sell a dwelling to a person of low income, the authority may convey the dwelling to the person upon fulfillment of the agreement irrespective of whether the person is at the time of the conveyance a person of low income. Leases, options, agreements, or conveyances may include such covenants as the authority deems appropriate to assure the achievement of the objectives of this chapter.

(3) To acquire, lease, rent, sell, or otherwise dispose of any commercial space located in buildings or structures containing a housing project or projects.

(4) To arrange or contract for the furnishing by any person or agency, public or private, of services, privileges, works, or facilities for, or in connection with, a housing project or the occupants thereof; and (notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this chapter or in any other provision of law) to include in any contract let in connection with a project, stipulations requiring that the contractor and any subcontractors comply with requirements as to minimum wages and maximum hours of labor, and comply with any conditions which the federal government may have attached to its financial aid of the project or service; and

(5) To lease or rent any dwellings, houses, accommodations, lands, buildings, structures or facilities embraced in any housing project and (subject to the limitations contained in this chapter) to establish and revise the rents or charges therefor; to own or manage buildings containing a housing project or projects as well as commercial space or other dwelling units that do not constitute a housing project as that term is defined in this chapter; PROVIDED, That notwithstanding the provisions under subsection (1) of this section, dwelling units made available or sold to persons of low income, together with functionally related and subordinate facilities, shall occupy (at least thirty percent of the interior space of any individual building other than a detached single family or duplex residential building or mobile or manufactured home and); at least fifty percent of the interior space of the total development owned by the authority or at least fifty percent of the total number of units in the development owned by the authority, whichever produces the greater number of units for persons of low income, and for mobile home parks, the mobile home lots made available to persons of low income shall be at least fifty percent of the total number of mobile home lots in the park owned by the authority; to own, hold, and improve real or personal property; to purchase, lease, obtain options upon, acquire by gift, grant, bequest, devise, or otherwise including financial assistance and other aid from the state or any public body, person or corporation, any real or personal property or any interest therein; to acquire by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any real property; to sell, lease, exchange, transfer, assign, and dispose of any real or personal property or any interest therein; to sell, lease, exchange, transfer, or dispose of any real or personal property or interest therein at less than fair market value to a governmental entity for any purpose when such action assists the housing authority in carrying out its powers and purposes under this chapter, to a low-income person or family for the purpose of providing housing for that person or family, or to a nonprofit corporation provided...
the nonprofit corporation agrees to sell the property to a low-income person or family to use the property for the provision of housing for persons of low income for at least twenty years; to insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the authority against any risks or hazards; to procure or agree to the procurement of insurance or guarantees from the federal government of the payment of any bonds or parts thereof issued by an authority, including the power to pay premiums on any such insurance.

(6) To invest any funds held in reserves or sinking funds, or any funds not required for immediate disbursement, in property or securities in which savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to purchase its bonds at a price not more than the principal amount thereof and accrued interest, all bonds so purchased to be canceled.

(7) Within its area of operation: To investigate into dwelling, housing and living conditions and into the means and methods of improving such conditions; to determine where slum areas exist or where there is a shortage of decent, safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income; to make studies and recommendations relating to the problem of clearing, replanning and reconstructing of slum areas, and the problem of providing dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, and to cooperate with the city, the county, the state or any political subdivision thereof in action taken in connection with such problems; and to engage in research, studies and experimentation on the subject of housing.

(8) Acting through one or more commissioners or other person or persons designated by the authority: To conduct examinations and investigations and to hear testimony and take proof under oath at public or private hearings on any matter material for its information; to administer oaths, issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of books and papers and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are outside of the state or unable to attend before the authority, or excused from attendance; to make available to appropriate agencies (including those charged with the duty of abating or requiring the correction of nuisances or like conditions, or of demolishing unsafe or insanitary structures within its area of operation) its findings and recommendations with regard to any building or property where conditions exist which are dangerous to the public health, morals, safety or welfare.

(9) To initiate eviction proceedings against any tenant as provided by law. Activity occurring in any housing authority unit that constitutes a violation of chapter 69.41, 69.50 or 69.52 RCW shall constitute a nuisance for the purpose of RCW 59.12.030(5).

(10) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted.

No provisions of law with respect to the acquisition, operation or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to an authority unless the legislature shall specifically so state.

(11) To agree (notwithstanding the limitation contained in RCW 35.82.210) to make such payments in lieu of taxes as the authority finds consistent with the achievement of the purposes of this chapter.

(12) Upon the request of a county or city, to exercise any powers of an urban renewal agency under chapter 35.81 RCW or a public corporation, commission, or authority under chapters 35.82 and 35.83 RCW. However, in the exercise of any such powers the housing authority shall be subject to any express limitations contained in this chapter.

(13) To exercise the powers granted in this chapter within the boundaries of any city, town, or county not included in the area in which such housing authority is originally authorized to function: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, The governing or legislative body of such city, town, or county, as the case may be, adopts a resolution declaring that there is a need for the authority to function in such territory.

(14) To administer contracts for assistance payments to persons of low income in accordance with section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended by Title II, section 201 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, P.L. 93-383.

(15) To sell at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, for fair market value, any mortgage or other obligation held by the authority.

(16) To the extent permitted under its contract with the holders of bonds, notes, and other obligations of the authority, to consent to any modification with respect to rate of interest, time and payment of any installment of principal or interest security, or any other term of any contract, mortgage, mortgage loan, mortgage loan commitment, contract or agreement of any kind to which the authority is a party.

(17) To make, purchase, participate in, invest in, take assignments of, or otherwise acquire loans to persons of low income to enable them to acquire, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, improve, lease, or refinance their dwellings, and to take such security therefor as is deemed necessary and prudent by the authority.

(18) To make, purchase, participate in, invest in, take assignments of, or otherwise acquire loans for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, leasing, or refinancing of land, buildings, or developments for housing for persons of low income. For purposes of this subsection, development shall include either land or buildings or both.

(a) Any development financed under this subsection shall be subject to an agreement that for at least twenty years the dwelling units made available to persons of low income together with functionally related and subordinate facilities shall occupy at least (thirty percent of the interior space of any individual building other than a detached single-family or duplex residential building or mobile or manufactured home and shall occupy at least) fifty percent of the interior space in the total development or at least fifty percent of the total number of units in the development, whichever produces the greater number of units for persons of low income.

For mobile home parks, the mobile home lots made available to persons of low income shall be at least fifty percent of the total number of mobile home lots in the park. During the term of the agreement, the owner shall use its best efforts in good faith to maintain the dwelling units or mobile home lots required to be made available to persons of low income at rents affordable to persons of low income. The twenty-year requirement under this subsection (18)(a) shall not apply when an authority finances the development by nonprofit corporations or governmental units of dwellings or mobile home lots intended for sale to persons of low and moderate income, and shall not apply to construction or other short-term financing provided to nonprofit corporations or governmental units when the financing has a repayment term of one year or less.

(b) In addition, if the development is owned by a for-profit entity, the dwelling units or mobile home lots required to be made available to persons of low income shall be rented to persons whose incomes do not exceed fifty percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size, and shall have unit or lot rents that do not exceed fifteen percent of area median income, adjusted for household size, unless the authority determines that to make them affordable to persons of low income.

For purposes of this subsection (18)(b), if the development is owned directly or through a partnership by a governmental entity or a nonprofit organization, which nonprofit organization is itself not controlled by a for-profit entity or affiliated with any for-profit entity that a nonprofit organization itself does not control, it shall not be treated as being owned by a for-profit... entity when the governmental entity or nonprofit organization exercises legal control of the ownership entity and in addition, (i) the dwelling units or mobile home lots required to be made available to persons of low income are rented to persons whose incomes do not exceed sixty percent of the area median income, adjusted for household size, and (ii) the development is subject to an agreement that transfers ownership to the governmental entity or nonprofit organization or extends an irrevocable right of first refusal to purchase the development under a formula for setting the acquisition price that is specified in the agreement.

(c) Commercial space in any building financed under this subsection that exceeds four stories in height shall not constitute more than twenty percent of the interior area of the building. Before financing any development under this subsection the authority shall make a written finding that financing is important for project feasibility or necessary to enable the authority to carry out its powers and purposes under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that:
(a) The trend toward smaller household sizes will continue into the foreseeable future;
(b) Many of these households are in housing units that contain more bedrooms than occupants;
(c) There are older homeowners on relatively low, fixed income who are experiencing difficulties maintaining their homes; and
(d) There are single parents, recently widowed persons, people in the midst of divorce or separation, and handicapped that are faced with displacement due to the high cost of housing.

(2) The legislature declares that the purpose of section 19 of this act is to develop a pilot program designed to:
(a) Provide home-matching services that can enable people to continue living in their homes while promoting continuity of home ownership and community stability; and
(b) Counter the problem of displacement among people on relatively low, fixed incomes by linking people offering living space with people seeking housing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department may develop and administer a home-matching program for the purpose of providing grants and technical assistance to eligible organizations to operate local home-matching programs. For purposes of this section, "eligible organizations" are those organizations eligible to receive assistance through the Washington housing trust fund, chapter 43.185 RCW.

(2) The department may select up to five eligible organizations for the purpose of implementing a local home-matching program. The local home-matching programs are designed to facilitate: (a) Intergenerational homesharing involving older homeowners sharing homes with younger persons; (b) homesharing arrangements that involve an exchange of services such as cooking, housework, gardening, or babysitting for room and board or some financial consideration such as rent; and (c) the more efficient use of available housing.

(3) In selecting local pilot programs under this section, the department shall consider:
(a) The eligible organization's ability, stability, and resources to implement the local home-matching program;
(b) The eligible organization's efforts to coordinate other support services needed by the individual or family participating in the local home-matching program; and
(c) Other factors the department deems appropriate.

(4) The eligible organizations shall establish criteria for participation in the local home-matching program. The eligible organization shall make a determination of eligibility regarding the individuals' or families' participation in the local home-matching program. The determination shall include, but is not limited to a verification of manner individual's or family's history of making rent payments in a consistent and timely manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 35.63 RCW to read as follows:

Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 35A.63 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 36.70 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. This chapter may be known and cited as the "Washington housing policy act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Sections 1 through 6, 12, and 24 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW., and the same is herewith transmitted.

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5686 with the following amendment(s):

"Sec. 1. RCW 63.14.090 and 1984 c 280 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The holder of any retail installment contract, retail charge agreement, or lender credit card agreement may not collect any delinquency or collection charges, including any attorney's fee and court costs and disbursements, unless the contract, charge agreement, or lender credit card agreement so provides. In such cases, the charges shall be reasonable, and no attorney's fee may be recovered unless the contract, charge agreement, or lender credit card agreement is referred for collection to an attorney not a salaried employee of the holder.

(2) The contract, charge agreement, or lender credit card agreement may contain other provisions not inconsistent with the purposes of this chapter, including but not limited to provisions relating to refinancing, transfer of the buyer's equity, construction permits, and title reports.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, where the minimum payment is received within the ten days following the payment due date, delinquency charges for the late payment of a retail charge agreement or lender credit card agreement may not be more than ten percent of the average balance of the delinquent account for the prior thirty-day period when the average balance of the account for the prior thirty-day period is less than one hundred dollars, except that a minimum charge of up to two dollars shall be allowed. This subsection (3) shall not apply in cases where the payment on the account is more than thirty days overdue ", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5044 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 35.02.010 and 1986 c 234 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

All city or town elected officials shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified and assume office in accordance with RCW 29.04.170.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.02.020 and 1986 c 234 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

A petition for incorporation must be signed by (qualified) registered voters resident within the limits of the proposed city or town equal in number to ten percent of the (voters cast) voters voting at the last state general election and presented to the auditor of the county in which all, or the largest portion of, the proposed city or town is located.

Sec. 3. RCW 35.02.090 and 1986 c 234 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

The elections on the proposed incorporation and for the nomination and election of the initial elected officials shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, except as provided in this chapter. No person is entitled to vote (thereof) unless he or she is a (qualified elector) registered voter of the county, or any of the counties in which the proposed city or town is located, and has resided within the limits of the proposed city or town for at least thirty days next preceding the date of election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

At the first municipal general election that occurs one year or more after the official date of incorporating a new city or town, an election shall be held to elect city or town elected officials. Candidates for council or commission positions shall run for specific positions.

The staggering of terms of office for councilmembers shall occur at this election, where a simple majority of the persons who are elected receiving the greatest numbers of votes shall be elected to four-year terms of office and the remaining persons who are elected shall be elected to two-year terms of office. Their successors shall be elected to four-year terms of office.

City or town elected officials shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified and assume office in accordance with RCW 29.04.170.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

City or town councilmembers in a newly incorporated town or city incorporated under this title shall receive compensation based upon the population of the newly incorporated city or town, as provided in RCW 35A.12.070 and 35A.13.040 for the councilmembers of newly incorporated code cities.

Whenever a commission form of government has been selected for a newly incorporated noncode city with a population of from two thousand to less than thirty thousand, each commissioner shall receive compensation at the same rate that a councilmember would receive compensation under RCW 35A.12.070 based upon the population of the newly incorporated city, but the commissioner who is designated the mayor shall not receive the compensation under RCW 35A.12.070 that is provided for the mayor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

No city or town in a county in which urban growth areas have been designated under RCW 36.70A.110 may incorporate if a commission form of government has been selected for a newly incorporated noncode city with a population of from two thousand to less than thirty thousand, each commissioner shall receive compensation at the same rate that a councilmember would receive compensation under RCW 35A.12.070 based upon the population of the newly incorporated city, but the commissioner who is designated the mayor shall not receive the compensation under RCW 35A.12.070 that is provided for the mayor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

The salaries of the councilmen of the mayor and the councilmembers shall be fixed by ordinance and may be revised from time to time by ordinance, but any increase in the compensation attaching to an office shall not be applicable to the term then being served by the incumbent if such incumbent is a member of the city legislative body fixing his own compensation or as mayor in a mayor-council code city; casts a tie-breaking vote relating to such ordinance. PROVIDED, That).

Compensation for the mayor may be increased during the mayor's current term of office if the mayor of such a city does not cast a tie-breaking vote (his salary may be increased during his term of office) to adopt the ordinance revising the compensation for the mayor.

Until the first elective officers of a newly organized code city under this mayor-council plan of government may lawfully be compensation provided by (such salary) an ordinance establishing different levels of compensation, such officers shall be entitled to be compensated in the same manner and in the same amount as the compensation paid to officers of such city performing comparable services immediately prior to adoption of this mayor-council plan.

Until (a salary ordinance can be passed and become effective as to) elective officers of a newly incorporated code city may lawfully be paid the compensation provided by an ordinance establishing different levels of compensation, such first elective officers shall be entitled to compensation as follows: (1) in cities having less than five thousand inhabitants, the mayor shall be entitled to a salary of one hundred ($100) fifty dollars per calendar month, and a (councilman) councilmember shall be entitled to twenty dollars per meeting for not more than two meetings per month; (2) in cities having more than five thousand but less than fifteen thousand inhabitants, the mayor shall be entitled to a salary of three hundred ($300) fifty dollars per calendar month, and a (councilman) councilmember shall be entitled to one hundred ($100) fifty dollars per calendar month; and (3) in cities having more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, the mayor shall be entitled to a salary of twelve hundred ($1200) fifty dollars per calendar month, and a (councilman) councilmember shall be entitled to four hundred dollars per calendar month. PROVIDED, That such interim compensation shall remain in effect only until a salary ordinance is passed and becomes effective as to such officers, and the amounts herein provided shall not be construed as fixing the usual salary of such officers.

The mayor and (councilman) councilmembers shall receive reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of their office, or the council by ordinance may provide for a per diem allowance. Procedure for approval of claims for expenses shall be as provided by ordinance.

Sec. 8. RCW 35A.13.040 and 1979 ex.s. c 18 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

(The salaries of the councilmen) Compensation for councilmembers, including the mayor, shall be fixed by ordinance and may be revised from time to time by ordinance, but any increase or reduction in the compensation attaching to an office shall not become effective until the expiration of the term then being served by the incumbent. PROVIDED, That compensation of councilmen may not be increased or diminished after their election nor may the compensation of the mayor be increased or diminished after the mayor has been chosen by the council).
Until the councilmembers of a newly organized council-manager code city may lawfully be paid as provided by an ordinance establishing different levels of compensation, such councilmembers shall be entitled to compensation at the same rate as the usual compensation rate for councilmen in cities of similar population and financial condition. Councilmembers, including the mayor, shall receive reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of their office, or the council by ordinance may provide for a per diem allowance. Procedure for approval of claims for expenses shall be as provided by ordinance.

Sec. 9. RCW 35.13.175 and 1973 1st ex.s. c 164 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

After the filing of any petition or resolution for annexation with the county legislative authority, or city or town council, and pending its final disposition as provided for in this chapter, or after the filing of a petition for the incorporation of a city or town, and pending its final disposition, no other petition or resolution for annexation or petition for incorporation which embraces any of the territory included therein shall be acted upon by the county auditor or the county annexation review board for the county in which the proposed city is located, or by any city or town clerk, city or town council, or by any other public official or body that might otherwise be empowered to receive or act upon such a petition.

Sec. 10. RCW 35A.14.230 and 1967 ex.s. c 119 s 35A.14.230 are each amended to read as follows:

After the filing of any petition or resolution for annexation or for an annexation election with the county legislative authority, the boundary review board or the county annexation review board for the county or the legislative body of a code city, and pending its final disposition as provided in this chapter, or after the filing of a petition for the incorporation of a code city and pending its final disposition, no other petition or resolution for annexation, or petition for incorporation, which embraces any of the territory included therein shall be acted upon by any public official or body that might otherwise be empowered to receive or act upon such a petition or resolution."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, Senator Loveland was excused.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5342 with the following amendment(s):
On page 1, at the beginning of line 9, insert "(1)"
On page 1, line 14, after "year." insert the following:
"(2)"
On page 1, line 16, after "alcohol" insert "receiving the exemption under subsection (1) of this section and"
On page 2, at the beginning of line 3, insert "(3)"
and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5342.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Anderson: "Senator Vognild, reading the House amendment--we have a synopsis in our book--it says that the creditor exemption is only available for alcohol manufactured by small companies. So, we are companies instead of amount now?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator, when the bill left here, it said 'companies' and that is the way that Senator Prince, who was very concerned with this, and some other people who were concerned--about three companies in this state--that manufactured small amounts and they can continue to receive their credits and that is the language agreed upon before it left here."

Senator Anderson: "Senator Vognild, currently, the Georgia-Pacific Corporation in Bellingham has been manufacturing alcohol or gasohol. Are they exempted under this bill?"

Senator Vognild: "It is my understanding that they are exempt--pardon me--they are not exempt, it is my understanding they are eligible for the credit which is given under this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Nelson: "Senator Vognild, with the House amendments to this bill, what now becomes the proposed revenue that the state will receive from the elimination of this exemption? Has it changed based on the House amendment, in any way? Is it still something around forty million dollars?"

Senator Vognild: "Yes, the House amendment has not changed it. The full repeal was in the neighborhood of forty-two million dollars. It was estimated that when the bill passed here that there would be about a two to two and a half million exemption still out there, so the anticipated revenue should be in the neighborhood of thirty-nine million now."

Senator Nelson: "Which would be equivalent to roughly two pennies of gas tax money?"

Senator Vognild: "Not quite two pennies. A penny generates about twenty-six million a year or so, so it would be about one and one-half or one and three quarter."

Senator Nelson: "OK, so it is in essence passed on, in most cases, to the consumer at the pump?"

Senator Vognild: "That is correct, Senator, there is one peculiar thing about this particular revenue scheme and that is one-half of this goes to local government, so only one-half of this would accrue to the state."

Further debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5342.
The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5342.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5342, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5342, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; Nays, 13; Absent, 1; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bluecheil, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, McAuliffe, Moore, Moyer, Niemi, Oke, Owen, Pelz, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Skratek, Smith, A., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Vognild, Williams, Winsley and Wojahn - 31.

Absent: Senator Rinehart - 1.

Excused: Senators Loveland, Sheldon, Talmadge and West - 4.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5342, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5704 with the following amendment(s):

On page 2, beginning on line 15, after “person” strike all material through “by” on line 17, and insert “, with intent to defraud a cardholder, credit card issuer, or financial institution”

On page 2, line 18, after “(a)” strike “Presenting to or depositing with, or causing” and insert “Presents to or deposits with, or causes”

On page 2, line 22, after “(b)” strike “Employing, soliciting, or otherwise causing” and insert “Employs, solicits, or otherwise causes”

On page 2, line 27, after (c) strike “Employing, soliciting, or otherwise causing” and insert “Employs, solicits, or otherwise causes”, and the same are herewith transmitted.

MARILYN SHOWALTER, Deputy Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5704 and requests of the House a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 5704 and the House amendments thereto: Senators Adam Smith, McCaslin and Quigley.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Adam Smith, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Amondson: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Would it be offensive to you or to this body if we removed our coat? It is a little warm in here.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: “I think we are going to stick with the rule. I would want to talk to the people on both sides of the aisle and have leadership to talk it over for us to make a change. The rule has been that gentlemen wear coats. I realize that if there was a strong feeling on a large number of people--Senator McCaslin do you have a feeling on this subject?”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. You asked if we checked with the other side, I'd like your permission to talk with Senator Jesernig concerning the temperature on the floor and whether or not Senators should be--what is the word I am looking for--cajoled, forced, mandated, that we wear coats, while all the wonderful ladies here have no ties on. They do have blouses, if that is the correct pronunciation—necklaces—and I just think it would be fair. I know you are always fair, Mr. President, to the whole body, so I would appreciate an affirmative ruling.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Moore: “On a matter of personal privilege, also, Mr. President. Although I have been known to wear unique ties on occasion, I hold this building in great awe. I was here, believe it or not, when it was built and I know you can very well believe it, Senator von Reichbauer. I really feel strongly that this building deserves the dignity of wearing a coat. I will also wear mine, no matter how hot it gets. Thank you.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: “Of course what I would like, Senator Moore, is to have the temperature right so that people would feel comfortable. I am always amazed that on the same day I can have one member complain about how cold it is out in the seats here complaining that it is too cold and another Senator comes along and says that it is too hot. Senator Hargrove would like to get in on the discussion and Senator what have you got to say?”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hargrove: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I think that if you want to have everybody feel comfortable and get rid of the heat, we are going to have to get rid of a lot of these bills.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Obviously, ladies and gentlemen, the acoustics are poor in here. Senator Moore we did not ask you to remove your coat; we asked if we could remove ours.”

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Deccio: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. The reason that Senator Wojahn feels like she is in a wind tunnel is that she sits directly across from Senator McCaslin. Senator McCaslin isn't thinking right today. He is getting older and today is his birthday.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Roach: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Yes, I am a little surprised. I thought that we have not been able to demonstrate yet that there is any variance in the temperature. To me it seems quite normal, and I always thought it was not the other gender that got the hot flashes.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: “Well, the President will take all these requests under advisement and I think it is time we go back to a Message from the House.”

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5736 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
“Sec. 1. RCW 51.04.030 and 1989 c 189 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:
The director shall, through the division of industrial insurance, supervise the providing of prompt and efficient care and treatment, including care provided by physicians' assistants governed by the provisions of chapters 18.57A and 18.71A RCW, acting under a supervising physician, and including chiropractic care, to workers injured during the course of their employment at the least cost consistent with promptness and efficiency, without discrimination or favoritism, and with as great uniformity as the various and diverse surrounding circumstances and locations of industries will permit and to that end shall, from time to time, establish and promulgate and supervise the administration of printed forms, rules, regulations, and practices for the furnishing of such care and treatment: PROVIDED, That, the department may recommend to an injured worker particular health care services and providers where specialized treatment is indicated or where cost effective payment levels or rates are obtained by the department: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the department may enter into contracts for goods and services including, but not limited to, durable medical equipment so long as state-wide access to quality service is maintained for injured workers.
The director shall make and, from time to time, change as may be, and promulgate a fee bill of the maximum charges to be made by any physician, surgeon, chiropractor, hospital, druggist, physicians' assistants as defined in chapters 18.57A and 18.71A RCW, acting under a supervising physician or other agency or person rendering services to injured workers. No service covered under this title shall be charged or paid at a rate or rates exceeding those specified in such fee bill, and no contract providing for greater fees shall be valid as to the excess.

The director or self-insurer, as the case may be, shall make a record of the commencement of every disability and the termination thereof and, when bills are rendered for the care and treatment of injured workers, shall approve and pay those which conform to the promulgated rules, regulations, and practices of the director and may reject any bill or item thereof incurred in violation of the principles laid down in this section or the rules and regulations promulgated under it.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 51.04 RCW to read as follows:

The director shall appoint an associate medical director for chiropractic. The associate medical director must be eligible to be licensed under chapter 18.25 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 51.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The health services that are available to an injured worker under RCW 51.36.010 include chiropractic treatment in appropriate cases within the scope of practice under chapter 18.25 RCW. As appropriate, and subject to the requirements for examinations of workers specified in this title, a worker may be required by the department to undergo chiropractic examination by a chiropractor licensed under chapter 18.25 RCW for the purpose of assisting the department in making determinations for the closure of a claim, in assessing the necessity and appropriateness of chiropractic care, or in making other determinations within the scope of chiropractic practice related to the worker’s industrial injury.

(2) The department may establish treatment and utilization standards for chiropractic treatment in consultation with representatives of the chiropractic profession. The standards, if any, may be developed in conjunction with the department of health. The standards should include some or all of the following:

(a) Standards designed to assure quality treatment and to maximize recovery from the industrial injury;

(b) Standards designed to contain costs, consistent with assured access to medically necessary treatment;

(c) Standards that permit review of an injured worker’s progress toward recovery after a stated number of chiropractic treatments;

(d) Standards for requesting consultation with chiropractors by the department or other health services providers on the necessity or appropriateness of chiropractic care or other subjects within the chiropractic scope of practice.

Sec. 4. RCW 51.32.112 and 1988 c 114 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall develop standards for the conduct of special medical examinations to determine permanent disabilities, including, but not limited to:

(a) The qualifications of persons conducting the examinations;

(b) The criteria for conducting the examinations, including guidelines for the appropriate treatment of injured workers during the examination; and

(c) The content of examination reports.

(2) Within the appropriate scope of practice, chiropractors licensed under chapter 18.25 RCW may conduct special medical examinations to determine permanent disabilities in consultation with physicians licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW. The department, in its discretion, may request that a special medical examination be conducted by a single chiropractor if the department determines that the sole issues involved in the examination are within the scope of practice under chapter 18.25 RCW. However, nothing in this section authorizes the use as evidence before the board of a chiropractor’s determination of the extent of a worker’s permanent disability if the determination is not requested by the department.

(3) The department shall investigate the amount of examination fees received by persons conducting special medical examinations to determine permanent disabilities, including total compensation received for examinations of department and self-insured claimants, and establish compensation guidelines and compensation reporting criteria.

(4) The department shall investigate the level of compliance of self-insurers with the requirement of full reporting of claims information to the department, particularly with respect to medical examinations, and develop effective enforcement procedures or recommendations for legislation if needed.

Sec. 5. RCW 51.36.100 and 1986 c 200 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds and declares it to be in the public interest of the residents of the state of Washington that a proper regulatory and inspection program be instituted in connection with the provision of medical, chiropractic, dental, vocational, and other health services to industrially injured workers pursuant to Title 51 RCW. In order to effectively accomplish such purpose and to assure that the industrially injured worker receives such services as are paid for by the state of Washington, the acceptance by the industrially injured worker of such services, and the request by a provider of services for reimbursement for providing such services, shall authorize the director of the department of labor and industries or the director’s authorized representative to inspect and audit all records in connection with the provision of such services.

Sec. 6. RCW 51.36.110 and 1986 c 200 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of the department of labor and industries or the director’s authorized representative shall have the authority to:

(1) Conduct audits and investigations of providers of medical, chiropractic, dental, vocational, and other health services furnished to industrially injured workers pursuant to Title 51 RCW. In the conduct of such audits or investigations, the director or the director’s authorized representatives may examine all records, or portions thereof, including patient records, for which services were rendered by a health services provider and reimbursed by the department, notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute which may make or purport to make such records privileged or confidential: PROVIDED, That no original patient records shall be removed from the premises of the health services provider, and that the disclosure of any records or information obtained under authority of this section by the department of labor and industries is prohibited and constitutes a violation of RCW 42.22.040, unless such disclosure is directly connected to the official duties of the department: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the disclosure of patient information as required under this section shall not subject any physician or other health services provider to any liability for breach of any confidential relationships between the provider and the patient: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the director or the director’s authorized representative shall destroy all copies of patient medical records in their possession upon completion of the audit, investigation, or proceedings;
(2) Approve or deny applications to participate as a provider of services furnished to industrially injured workers pursuant to Title 51 RCW; and

(3) Terminate or suspend eligibility to participate as a provider of services furnished to industrially injured workers pursuant to Title 51 RCW.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Wojahn: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe this particular amendment to the Senate Bill expands the scope and object of this particular bill. In the first place, it requires that chiropractors do disability rating exams that determine personal permanent disability awards and pensions which expands what they are able to do now and, also, it prohibits the department from adopting standards that terminate chiropractic treatments based on the number of chiropractic treatments. The third thing that it does, it authorizes the department to develop treatment and utilization standards, but only in consultation with the chiropractic profession, which vastly expands the scope of this bill."

There being no objection, the President deferred further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5736.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 9, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5799 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 58.17.280 and 1969 ex.s. c 271 s 29 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city, town or county may, by ordinance, regulate the procedure whereby short subdivisions, subdivisions, streets, lots and blocks are named and numbered. A lot numbering system and a house address system, however, shall be provided by the municipality for short subdivisions and subdivisions and must be clearly shown on the short plat or final plat at the time of approval.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5799.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5799, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5799, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 1; Excused, 2.

Absent: Senator Rinehart - 1.

Excused: Senators Loveland and Talmadge - 2.

SENATE BILL NO. 5799, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5829 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 19.146.005 and 1987 c 391 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds and declares that the brokering of residential real estate loans substantially affects the public interest. The practices of mortgage brokers have had significant impact on the citizens of the state and the banking and real estate industries. It is the intent of the legislature to establish a temporary state system of licensure in addition to rules of practice and conduct of mortgage brokers to promote honesty and fair dealing with citizens and to preserve public confidence in the lending and real estate community.

Sec. 2. RCW 19.146.010 and 1987 c 391 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.
(1) "Affiliate" means any person who directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with another person.

(2) "Computer loan origination systems" or "CLO system" means the real estate mortgage financing information system defined by rule of the director.

(3) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(4) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(5) "Loan originator" means a natural person employed, either directly or indirectly, by a licensed mortgage broker, or a natural person who represents a licensed mortgage broker, in the performance of any acts specified in subsection (7) of this section.

(6) "Lock-in agreement" means an agreement with a borrower made by a mortgage broker or loan originator, in which the mortgage broker agrees that, for a period of time, a specific interest rate or other financing terms will be the rate or terms at which it will make a loan available to that borrower.

(7) "Mortgage broker" means (i) any person who for compensation or gain, or in the expectation of compensation ((either directly or indirectly makes, negotiates, or offers to make or negotiate a residential mortgage loan)) (ii) in direct or indirect negotiations, places, assists in placement, finds, or offers to negotiate, place, assist in placement, or find residential mortgage loans for others.

("(i)" (8) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, company, partnership, or association.

("(i)" (9) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, company, partnership, or association.

("(i)" (10) "Third-party provider" means any person other than a mortgage broker or lender who provides goods or services to the mortgage broker in connection with the preparation of the borrower's loan and includes, but is not limited to, credit reporting agencies, title companies, appraisers, structural and pest inspectors, or escrow companies.

Sec. 3. RCW 19.146.020 and 1987 c 391 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, company, partnership, or association.

(2) "Residential mortgage loan" means any loan primarily for personal, family, or household use secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on residential real estate upon which is constructed or intended to be constructed a single family dwelling or multiple family dwelling of four or less units.

(3) "Third-party provider" means any person other than a mortgage broker or lender who provides goods or services to the mortgage broker in connection with the preparation of the borrower's loan and includes, but is not limited to, credit reporting agencies, title companies, appraisers, structural and pest inspectors, or escrow companies.

(4) "Affiliate" means any person who directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with another person.

(5) "Loan originator" means a natural person employed, either directly or indirectly, by a licensed mortgage broker, or a natural person who represents a licensed mortgage broker, in the performance of any acts specified in subsection (7) of this section.

(6) "Lock-in agreement" means an agreement with a borrower made by a mortgage broker or loan originator, in which the mortgage broker agrees that, for a period of time, a specific interest rate or other financing terms will be the rate or terms at which it will make a loan available to that borrower.

(7) "Mortgage broker" means (i) any person who for compensation or gain, or in the expectation of compensation ((either directly or indirectly makes, negotiates, or offers to make or negotiate a residential mortgage loan)) (ii) in direct or indirect negotiations, places, assists in placement, finds, or offers to negotiate, place, assist in placement, or find residential mortgage loans for others.

(8) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, company, partnership, or association.

(9) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, company, partnership, or association.

(10) "Third-party provider" means any person other than a mortgage broker or lender who provides goods or services to the mortgage broker in connection with the preparation of the borrower's loan and includes, but is not limited to, credit reporting agencies, title companies, appraisers, structural and pest inspectors, or escrow companies.

Sec. 4. It is unlawful for a loan originator, mortgage broker required to be licensed under this chapter, or mortgage broker otherwise exempted from this chapter under RCW 19.146.020(1) (f), (g), or (i) in connection with a residential mortgage loan to:

(1) Directly or indirectly employ any scheme, device, or artifice to defraud or mislead borrowers or lenders;

(2) Engage in any conduct that operates as a fraud upon or unfair or deceptive practice toward any person;

(3) Obtain property by fraud or misrepresentation;

(4) Solicit or enter into a contract with a borrower that provides in substance that the mortgage broker may earn a fee or commission through the mortgage broker's "best efforts" to obtain a loan even though no loan is actually obtained for the borrower;

(5) Solicit, advertise, or enter into a contract for specific interest rates, points, or other financing terms unless the terms are actually available at the time of soliciting, advertising, or contracting from a person exempt from licensing under RCW 19.146.020(1) (f) or (g) or a lender with whom the mortgage broker maintains a written correspondent or loan brokerage agreement under RCW 19.146.040;

(6) Fail to make disclosures to loan applicants and noninstitutional investors as required by RCW 19.146.030 and any other applicable state or federal law;

(7) Make, in any manner, any false or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, points, or other financing terms or conditions for a residential mortgage loan;

(8) Make any false statement in connection with any reports filed by a licensee, or in connection with any examination of the licensee's business;

(9) Make any payment, directly or indirectly, to any fee appraiser third party of a property, for the purposes of influencing the independent judgment of the appraiser with respect to the value of the property;

(10) Fail to include the words "licensed mortgage broker" in all advertising for the broker's services that are directed at the general public if the person is required to be licensed under this chapter; application by October 31, 1993.

Sec. 5. (1) A person may not engage in the business of a mortgage broker, except as an employee of a person licensed or exempt from licensing, without first obtaining and maintaining a license under this chapter.

(2) A person may not bring a suit or action for the collection of compensation as a mortgage broker unless the plaintiff alleges and proves that he or she was a duly licensed mortgage broker, or exempt from the license requirement of this chapter, at the time of offering to perform or performing any such an act or service regulated by this chapter. This subsection does not apply to suits or actions for the collection or compensation for services performed prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Application for a mortgage broker license under this chapter shall be in writing and in the form prescribed by the director. Unless waived by the director, the application shall contain at least the following information:

(a) The name, address, date of birth, and social security number of the applicant, and any other names, dates of birth, or social security numbers previously used by the applicant;

(b) If the applicant is a partnership or association, the name, address, date of birth, and social security number of each general partner or principal of the association, and any other names, dates of birth, or social security numbers previously used by the members;

(c) If the applicant is a corporation, the name, address, date of birth, and social security number of each officer, director, registered agent, and each principal stockholder, and any other names, dates of birth, or social security numbers previously used by the officers, directors, registered agents, and principal stockholders;

(d) The street address, county, and municipality where the principal business office is to be located;

(e) Submission of a complete set of fingerprints taken by an authorized law enforcement officer; and

(f) Such other information regarding the applicant's background, financial responsibility, experience, character, and general fitness as the director may require by rule.

(2) At the time of filing an application for a license under this chapter, each applicant shall pay to the director the appropriate license fee in an amount determined by rule of the director in accordance with RCW 43.24.086 to be sufficient to cover, but not exceed, the department's costs in administering this chapter. The director shall deposit the moneys in the mortgage broker fund created under section 19 of this act.

(3)(a) Each applicant for a mortgage broker's license shall file and maintain a surety bond, in an amount of forty thousand dollars or such lower amount the director deems adequate to protect the public interest, executed by the applicant as obligor and by a surety company authorized to do a surety business in this state as surety. The bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee, and shall run to the benefit of the state and any person or persons who suffer loss by reason of the applicant's violation of any provision of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter. The bond shall be conditioned that the obligor as licensee will faithfully conform to and abide by this chapter and all rules adopted under this chapter, and shall reimburse all persons who suffer loss by reason of a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter. The bond shall be continuous and may be canceled by the surety upon the surety giving written notice to the director of its intent to cancel the bond. The cancellation shall be effective thirty days after the notice is received by the director. Whether or not the bond is renewed, continued, reinstated, reissued, or otherwise extended, replaced, or modified, including increases or decreases in the penal sum, it shall be considered one continuous obligation, and the surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate or cumulative amount exceeding the penal sum set forth on the face of the bond. In no event shall the penal sum, or any portion thereof, at two or more points in time be added together in determining the surety's liability. The bond shall not be liable for any penalties imposed on the licensee, including, but not limited to, any increased damages or attorneys' fees, or both, awarded under RCW 19.86.090. The applicant may obtain the bond directly from the surety or through a group bonding arrangement involving a professional organization comprised of mortgage brokers if the arrangement provides at least as much coverage as is required under this subsection.

(b) In lieu of a surety bond, the applicant may, upon approval by the director, file with the director a certificate of deposit, an irrevocable letter of credit, or such other instrument as approved by the director by rule, drawn in favor of the director for an amount equal to the required bond.

(c) In lieu of the surety bond or compliance with (b) of this subsection, an applicant may obtain insurance or coverage from an association comprised of mortgage brokers that is organized as a mutual corporation for the sole purpose of insuring or self-insuring claims that may arise from a violation of this chapter. An applicant may only substitute coverage under this subsection for the requirements of (a) or (b) of this subsection if the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, has authorized such association to organize a mutual corporation under such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the director to ensure that the corporation is operated in a financially responsible manner to pay any claims within the financial responsibility limits specified in (a) of this subsection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The director shall issue and deliver a mortgage broker license to an applicant if, after investigation, the director makes the following findings:

(a) The applicant has paid the required license fees;

(b) The applicant has complied with section 6 of this act;

(c) The applicant has not had a license issued under this chapter or any similar state statute suspended or revoked within five years of the filing of the present application;

(d) The applicant has not been convicted of a felony within seven years of the filing of the present application;

(e) The applicant has at least two years of experience in the residential mortgage loan industry; and

(f) The applicant has demonstrated financial responsibility, character, and general fitness such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant a belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter.

(2) If the director does not find the conditions of subsection (1) of this section have met, the director shall not issue the license. The director shall notify the applicant of the denial and return to the applicant the bond or approved alternative and any remaining portion of the license fee that exceeds the departments actual cost to investigate the license.

(3) The director may delay the effective date of section 5 of this act for an additional thirty days with respect to an applicant for a mortgage broker license for the purpose of processing the application when the applicant has filed a completed application by October 31, 1993.

(4) A license issued pursuant to this chapter is valid from the date of issuance.
(5) A licensee may surrender a license by delivering to the director written notice of surrender, but the surrender does not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability arising from acts or omissions occurring before such surrender.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The director shall enforce all laws and rules relating to the licensing of mortgage brokers, grant or deny licenses to mortgage brokers, and hold hearings. The director may impose any one or more of the following sanctions: Suspend or revoke licenses, deny applications for licenses, or fine violators under this chapter. In addition, the director may issue an order directing a licensee or person subject to this chapter to cease and desist from conducting business in a manner that is injurious to the public or violates any provision of this chapter.

(2) The director may take those actions specified in subsection (1) of this section if the director finds any of the following:

(a) The licensee has failed to pay a fee due the state of Washington, to maintain in effect the bond or approved alternative required under this chapter, or to comply with any specific order or demand of the director lawfully made and directed to the licensee in accordance with this chapter; or

(b) The licensee or person subject to this chapter has violated any provision of this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter; or

(c) The licensee made false statements on the application or omitted material information that, if known, would have allowed the director to deny the application for the original license.

(3) The director shall establish by rule standards for licensure of applicants licensed in other jurisdictions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. In accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW, the director may issue rules to govern the activities of licensed mortgage brokers consistent with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The proceedings for denying license applications, issuing cease and desist orders, and suspending or revoking licenses issued pursuant to this chapter and any appeal therefore or review thereof shall be governed by the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. For purposes of investigating complaints arising under this chapter, the director may at any time, either personally or by a designee, examine the business, including but not limited to the books, accounts, records, and files used therein, of every licensee and of every person engaged in the business of mortgage brokering, whether such a person shall act or claim to act under or without the authority of this chapter. For that purpose the director and designated representatives shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all such persons. The director or designated person may require the attendance of and examine under oath all persons whose testimony may be required about the loans or the business or subject matter of any such investigation.

Sec. 12. RCW 19.146.030 and 1987 c 391 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon receipt of a loan application and before the receipt of any moneys from a borrower, a mortgage broker shall provide to the borrower a written notice indicating the number of and the name of the lenders with whom it maintains a written correspondent or loan brokerage agreement, unless exempt from licensing under this chapter, and make a full written disclosure to each borrower containing an itemization and explanation of all fees and costs that the borrower is required to pay in connection with obtaining a residential mortgage loan. A good faith estimate of a fee or cost shall be provided if the exact amount of the fee or cost is not determinable.

(2) The written disclosure shall contain the following information:

(a) The annual percentage rate, finance charge, amount financed, total amount of all payments, number and amount of each payment, amount of points or prepaid interest and the conditions and terms under which any loan terms may change between the time of disclosure and closing of the loan; and if a variable rate, the circumstances under which the rate may change, any limitation on the increase, the effect of an increase, and an example of the payment terms resulting from an increase. Disclosure in compliance with the requirements of the Truth-in-Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 1601 and Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. Sec. 226, as now or hereafter amended, shall be deemed to comply with the disclosure requirements of this subsection;

(b) The itemized costs of any credit report, appraisal, title report, title insurance policy, mortgage insurance, escrow fee, property tax, insurance, structural or pest inspection, and any other third-party provider's costs associated with the residential mortgage loan. Disclosure through good faith estimates of settlement services and special information booklets in compliance with the requirements of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 2601, and Regulation X, 12 C.F.R. Sec. 3500, as now or hereafter amended, shall be deemed to comply with the disclosure requirements of this subsection;

(c) If applicable, the cost, terms, duration, and conditions of a lock-in agreement and whether a lock-in agreement has been entered;

(d) A statement that if the borrower is unable to obtain a loan for any reason, the mortgage broker must, within five days of a written request by the borrower, give copies of any appraisal, title report, or credit report paid for by the borrower to the borrower and transmit the appraisal, title report, or credit report to any other mortgage broker or lender to whom the borrower directs the documents to be sent;

(e) The name of the lender and the nature of the business relationship between the lender providing the residential mortgage loan and the mortgage broker, if any: PROVIDED, That this disclosure may be made at any time up to the time the borrower accepts the lender's commitment; and

(f) A statement providing that moneys paid by the borrower to the mortgage broker for third-party provider services are held in a trust account and any moneys remaining after payment to third-party providers will be refunded.

(g) A violation of the Truth-in-Lending Act, Regulation Z, the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, and Regulation X is a violation of this section for purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 13. RCW 19.146.070 and 1987 c 391 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise permitted by this section, a mortgage broker shall not receive a fee, commission, or compensation of any kind in connection with the preparation, negotiation, and brokering of a residential mortgage loan unless a borrower actually obtains a loan from a lender on the terms and conditions agreed upon by the borrower and mortgage broker.

(2) A mortgage broker may:

(a) If the mortgage broker has obtained for the borrower a written commitment from a lender for a loan on the terms and conditions agreed upon by the borrower and the mortgage broker, and the borrower fails to close on the loan through no fault of the mortgage broker, charge a fee not to exceed three hundred dollars for services rendered, preparation of documents, or transfer of documents in the borrower’s file which were prepared or paid for by the borrower if the fee is not otherwise prohibited by the Truth-in-Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 1601, and Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. Sec. 226, as now or hereafter amended; or
(b) Solicit or receive fees for third party provider goods or services in advance. Fees for any goods or services not provided must be refunded to the borrower and the mortgage broker may not charge more for the goods and services than the actual costs of the goods or services charged by the third party provider.
(2) A mortgage broker may not:
(a) Solicit or enter into a contract with a borrower that provides in substance that the mortgage broker may earn a fee or commission through the mortgage broker's "best efforts" to obtain a loan even though no loan is actually obtained for the borrower; or
(b) Solicit, advertise, or enter into a contract for specific interest rates, points, or other financing terms unless the terms are actually available at the time of soliciting, advertising, or contracting.)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Any person injured by a violation of this chapter may bring an action against the surety bond or approved alternative of the licensed mortgage broker who committed the violation or who employed the loan originator committing the violation.
(2) A person who is damaged by the licensee's violation of this chapter, or rules adopted under this chapter, may bring suit upon the surety bond or approved alternative in the superior court of any county in which jurisdiction over the licensee may be obtained. Jurisdiction shall be exclusively in the superior court. Any such action must be brought not later than one year after the alleged violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter. In the event valid claims against a bond or deposit exceed the amount of the bond or deposit, each claimant shall only be entitled to a pro rata amount, based on the amount of the claim as it is valid against the bond or deposit, without regard to the date of filing of any claim or action. A judgment arising from a violation of this chapter or rule adopted under this chapter shall be entered for actual damages and in no case be less than the amount paid by the borrower to the licensed mortgage broker plus reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. In no event shall the surety bond or approved alternative provide payment for any trebled or punitive damages.
(3) The remedies provided under this section are cumulative and nonexclusive and do not affect any other remedy available at law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A licensed mortgage broker is liable for any conduct violating this chapter by a loan originator or other licensed mortgage broker employed by the mortgage broker. In addition, a branch office manager is liable for any conduct violating this chapter by a loan originator or other licensed mortgage broker employed at the branch office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. No license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall authorize any person other than the person to whom it is issued to do any act by virtue thereof nor to operate in any other manner than under his or her own name except:
(1) A licensed mortgage broker may operate or advertise under a name other than the one under which the license is issued by obtaining the written consent of the director to do so; and
(2) A broker may establish one or more branch offices under a name or names different from that of the main office if the name or names are approved by the director, so long as each branch office is clearly identified as a branch or division of the main office. No broker may establish branch offices under more than three names. Both the name of the branch office and of the main office must clearly appear on the sign identifying the office, if any, and in any advertisement or on any letterhead of any stationary or any forms, or signs used by the mortgage firm on which either the name of the main or branch offices appears.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Every licensed mortgage broker must have and maintain an office in this state accessible to the public which shall serve as his or her office for the transaction of business. Every office so established must comply with the zoning requirements of city or county ordinances and the broker's license must be prominently displayed therein. In addition, any branch office must comply with the zoning requirements of city or county ordinances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A licensed mortgage broker may apply to the director for authority to establish one or more branch offices under the same or different name as the main office upon the payment of a fee as prescribed by the director by rule. The director shall issue a duplicate license for each of the branch offices showing the location of the main office and the particular branch. Each duplicate license shall be prominently displayed in the office for which it is issued. Each branch office shall be required to have a branch manager who shall be a licensed mortgage broker authorized by the mortgage broker to perform the duties of a branch manager.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. All moneys collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the mortgage brokers' licensing account hereby created in the state treasury. Expenditures from the account, subject to appropriation, may be used solely for department costs in administering this chapter.

Sec. 20. RCW 19.146.110 and 1987 c 391 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:
(a) Any provision of (('(RCW 19.146.005 through 19.146.040)) this chapter other than RCW 19.146.050 or any rule or order of the director shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW. Any person who violates RCW 19.146.050 shall be guilty of a class C felony under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. (1) There is established the mortgage brokerage commission consisting of five commission members who shall act in an advisory capacity to the director on mortgage brokerage issues.
(2) The director shall appoint the members of the commission, weighing the recommendations from professional organizations representing mortgage brokers. At least three of the commission members shall be mortgage brokers required to apply for a mortgage brokers license under this chapter and at least one shal be exempt from licensure under RCW 19.146.020(1) (f) or (g). No commission member shall be appointed who has had less than five years' experience in the business of residential mortgage lending. In addition, the attorney general, or a designee, and the director, or a designee, shall serve as ex officio, nonvoting members of the commission. Voting members of the commission shall serve for two-year terms with three of the initial commission members serving one-year terms. The department shall provide staff support to the commission.
(3) Members of the commission shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. All costs and expenses associated with the commission shall be paid from the mortgage brokers' licensing account created in section 19 of this act.
(4)(a) The commission shall advise the director on the characteristics and needs of the mortgage brokerage profession. In addition to its advisory capacity, the commission shall review all state and federal provisions governing mortgage brokers and shall prepare a report:
NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The director shall take steps and adopt rules necessary to implement the sections of this act by their effective dates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 4 through 11, 14 through 19, and 21 of this act are each added to chapter 19.146 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) If the powers, duties, and functions of the division of banking and the division of savings and loan are transferred into a new department, the powers, duties, and functions of the department relating to the administration of chapter 19.146 RCW shall be transferred to the new department. In such event, all references to the director or the department of licensing shall be construed to mean the new department or its director.

(2) In the event that the new department is created, all reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other written or electronically stored material in the possession of the department of licensing pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred under subsection (1) of this section shall be delivered to the custody of the new department. All furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the department of licensing in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred by subsection (1) of this section shall be made available to the new department if such property was purchased from funds deposited in the mortgage brokers’ licensing account. All funds contained in the mortgage brokers’ licensing account shall be transferred to the appropriate account of the new department for administration of chapter 19.146 RCW and shall be used solely for the costs of administering this chapter. In the event any dispute arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and powers transferred under subsection (1) of this section, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. (1) Sections 2 through 4, 9, 13, and 21 through 23 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

(2) Sections 6 through 8, 10, 18, and 19 of this act shall take effect September 1, 1993.

(3) Sections 1, 5, 11, 12, 14 through 17, and 20 of this act shall take effect October 31, 1993. However, the effective date of section 5 of this act may be delayed thirty days upon an order of the director of licensing under section 7(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. This act shall expire October 31, 1994, except for section 21 of this act. However, if a licensing program for mortgage brokers is not extended past October 31, 1994, section 21 of this act also shall expire on October 31, 1994. *.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5829. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5829, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5829, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 2; Excused, 1.

Abs: Senators Hargrove and Rinehart - 2.
Excused: Senator Loveland - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5829, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Oke, Senator Bluechel was excused.
effectively administering the permit program. May withdraw delegation if the fire protection agency, county, or conservation district within the jurisdictional boundaries of the local air authority. It is the responsibility of ecology upon its finding that the fire protection agency, county, or conservation district is not effectively administering the permit program.

(1) Any person who proposes to set fires in the course of agricultural burning, including telephone, facsimile transmission, issuance from local city or county offices, or other methods.

(2) Any person who proposes to set fires under this section based on seasonal operations or by individual operations, or both. All permits shall be conditioned to ensure that the public interest in air, water, and land pollution and safety to life and property is fully considered. In addition to any other requirements established by the department to protect air quality pursuant to other laws, applicants for permits must show that the setting of fires as requested is the most reasonable procedure to follow in safeguarding life or property under all circumstances of which they may reasonably have knowledge. The applicant shall notify the enterprise in which the applicant is engaged, or both. All burning permits will be designed to minimize air pollution insofar as practical. Nothing in this section shall relieve the applicant from obtaining permits, licenses, or other approvals required by any other law. An application for a permit to set fires in the course of agricultural burning for controlling diseases, insects, weed abatement or development of physiological conditions conducive to increased crop yield, shall be acted upon within seven days from the date such application is filed. The department of ecology and local air authorities shall provide convenient methods for issuance and oversight of agricultural burning permits. The department and local air authorities shall, through agreement, work with counties and cities to provide convenient methods for granting permission for agricultural burning, including telephone, facsimile transmission, issuance from local city or county offices, or other methods.

(3) An agricultural burning practices and research task force shall be established under the direction of the department.

(4) An agricultural burning practices and research task force shall be established under the direction of the department. The task force shall be composed of a representative from the department who shall serve as chair; one representative of eastern Washington local air authorities; one representative of the agricultural community from different agricultural pursuits; one representative of the department of agriculture; two representatives from universities or colleges knowledgeable in agricultural issues; one representative of the public health or medical community; and one representative of the conservation districts. The task force shall identify best management practices for reducing air contaminant emissions from agricultural activities and provide such information to the department and local air authorities. The task force shall determine the level of fees to be assessed by the permitting agency pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, based upon the level necessary to cover the costs of administering and enforcing the permit programs, to provide funds for research into alternative methods to reduce emissions from such burning, and to the extent possible, for lesser fees for permitees who use best management practices to minimize air contaminant emissions. The task force shall identify research needs related to minimizing emissions from agricultural burning and alternatives to such burning. Further, the task force shall make recommendations to the department on priorities for spending funds provided through this chapter for research into alternative methods to reduce emissions from agricultural burning.

Sec. 2. RCW 70.94.654 and 1991 c 199 s 408 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department of ecology shall find that any fire protection agency, county, or conservation district which is outside the jurisdictional boundaries of an activated air pollution control authority is capable of effectively administering the issuance and enforcement of permits for any or all of the kinds of burning identified in RCW 70.94.650 and desirous of doing so, the department of ecology may delegate powers necessary for the issuance or enforcement, or both, of permits for any or all of the kinds of burning to the fire protection agency, county, or conservation district. Such delegation may be withdrawn by the department of ecology upon its finding that the fire protection agency, county, or conservation district is not effectively administering the permit program.

(2) A local air authority may delegate authority to issue and enforce permits for burning under RCW 70.94.650 to any fire protection agency, county, or conservation district within the jurisdictional boundaries of the local air authority. A local air authority may withdraw delegation if the local air authority finds that the fire protection agency, county, or conservation district is not effectively administering the permit program.

Voting nay: Senator Barr - 1.

The legislature further finds that a comprehensive review and revision of siting policy is needed to ensure timely development of adequate, environmentally sound energy resources at an affordable cost.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is created an energy siting process review committee. The committee shall review the siting processes currently applicable to energy facilities, including: (1) Major thermal power plants; (2) natural gas-fired combustion turbines; (3) cogeneration plants; (4) hydroelectric facilities; (5) other renewable resources, including wind, solar, geothermal, and biomass energy; (6) natural gas pipelines; and (7) electric transmission lines. The committee shall recommend changes to statutes, rules, and policies that will reduce the cost and allow timely siting of new resources while preserving environmental quality, recognizing and ensuring coordination with applicable federal licensing and permitting authorities, promoting energy system reliability, allowing public review and comment, and ensuring an appropriate role for local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The energy siting process review committee shall consist of fifteen members, as follows:

(1) One member from each of the two largest caucuses of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate;
(2) One member from each of the two largest caucuses of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; and
(3) Eleven members appointed by the governor, representing the following interests:
(a) One member representing cities;
(b) One member representing counties;
(c) One member representing publicly owned electric utilities;
(d) One member representing investor-owned electric utilities;
(e) One member representing natural gas local distribution utilities;
(f) One member representing natural gas pipeline companies;
(g) One member representing environmental organizations;
(h) One member representing independent power producers; and
(i) Three members representing citizens at large.

Members appointed by the governor shall represent the various geographical regions of the state. The chairperson shall be selected by the governor from the citizen members of the committee. Members appointed by the governor shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members shall be reimbursed for expenses as provided in RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state energy office shall provide staff support to the energy siting process review committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The energy siting process review committee shall report its findings and recommendations, including proposed legislation, to the governor and appropriate standing committees of the legislature no later than December 1, 1993.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act shall expire June 30, 1994,"; and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk
On motion of Senator Sutherland, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5838.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5838, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5838, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5963 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 47.05.010 and 1969 ex.s. c 39 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that (anticipated revenues available for state highways for the foreseeable future will fall substantially short of the amount required to satisfy all transportation needs... It is the purpose of this chapter to establish a policy of priority programming for highway development having as its basis the rational selection of projects according to factual need, systematically scheduled to carry out defined objectives within limits of money and manpower, and fixed in advance with reasonable flexibility to meet changed conditions) solutions to state highway deficiencies have become increasingly complex and diverse and that anticipated transportation revenues will fall substantially short of the amount required to satisfy all transportation needs. Difficult investment trade-offs will be required.

It is the intent of the legislature that investment of state transportation funds to address deficiencies on the state highway system be based on a policy of priority programming having as its basis the rational selection of projects and services according to factual need and an evaluation of life cycle costs and benefits and which are systematically scheduled to carry out defined objectives within available revenue.

The priority programming system shall ensure preservation of the existing state highway system, provide mobility for people and goods, support the state's economy, and promote environmental protection and energy conservation.

The priority programming system shall implement the state-owned highway component of the state-wide multimodal transportation plan, consistent with local and regional transportation plans, by targeting state transportation investment to appropriate multimodal solutions which address identified state highway system deficiencies.

The priority programming system for improvements shall incorporate a broad range of solutions that are identified in the state-wide multimodal transportation plan, as appropriate to address state highway system deficiencies including but not limited to highway expansion, efficiency improvements, nonmotorized transportation facilities, high occupancy vehicle facilities, transit facilities and services, rail facilities and services, and transportation demand management programs.

Sec. 2. RCW 47.05.021 and 1987 c 505 s 50 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The transportation commission is hereby directed to conduct periodic analyses of the entire state highway system, report thereon to the chairs of the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, biennially and based thereon, to subdivide, classify, and subclassify according to their function and importance all designated state highways and those added from time to time and periodically review and revise the classifications into the following three functional classes:

(a) The "principal arterial system" shall consist of a connected network of rural arterial routes with appropriate extensions into and through urban areas, including all routes designated as part of the interstate system, which serve corridor movements having travel characteristics indicative of substantial state-wide and interstate travel;

(b) The "minor arterial system" shall, in conjunction with the principal arterial system, form a rural network of arterial routes linking cities and other activity centers which generate long distance travel, and, with appropriate extensions into and through urban areas, form an integrated network providing interstate and interregional service; and

(c) The "collector system" shall consist of routes which primarily serve the more important intercounty, intracounty, and intraurban travel corridors, collect traffic from the system of local access roads and convey it to the arterial system, and on which, regardless of traffic volume, the predominant travel distances are shorter than on arterial routes.

(2) Those state highways which perform no arterial or collector function, which serve only local access functions, and which lack essential state highway characteristics shall be designated "local access" highways.

(3) In making the functional classification the transportation commission shall adopt and give consideration to criteria consistent with this section and federal regulations relating to the functional classification of highways, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Urban population centers within and without the state stratified and ranked according to size; improvements that can be achieved by meeting the consideration to the following factors:

roadway and bridge maintenance activities as compared to roadway and bridge preservation program activities and adjust those performance measures, the transportation commission shall evaluate investment trade-offs, the legislature in support of the biennial budget request under RCW 44.40.070 and system to improve mobility, safety, support for the economy, and protection of the environment.

program for preservation shall identify projects for two years and major deficiencies proposed to be addressed in the six-year investment program to the legislature in support of the biennial budget request under RCW 44.40.070 and 44.40.080.

The transportation commission shall adopt (and periodically review, after consultation with the legislative transportation committee) a comprehensive six-year (program and financial plan for highway improvements specifying program objectives for each of the highway categories, "A," "B," "C," and "H," defined in this section, and within the framework of estimated funds for such period. The program and plan shall be based upon the improvement needs for state highways as determined by the department from time to time.

With such reasonable deviations as may be required to effectively utilize the estimated funds and to adjust to unanticipated delays in programmed projects, the commission shall allocate the estimated funds among the following described categories of highway improvements, so as to carry out the commission's program objectives:

(1) Category A shall consist of those improvements necessary to sustain the structural, safety, and operational integrity of the existing state highway system (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations, and improvements designated in subsections (2) through (4) of this section).

(2) Category B shall consist of improvements for the continued development of the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations.

(3) Category C shall consist of investments necessary to improve the state wide multimodal transportation network.

(4) Category H shall consist of those improvements necessary to sustain the structural and operational integrity of existing bridges on the highway system (other than bridges on the interstate system or bridge work included in another category because of its association with a highway project in such category).

Projects which are financed one hundred percent by federal funds or other agency funds shall, if the commission determines that such work will improve the state highway system, be managed separately from the above categories) investment program specifying program objectives and performance measures for the preservation and improvement programs defined in this section. In the specification of investment program objectives and performance measures, the transportation commission, in consultation with the Washington state department of transportation, shall define and adopt standards for effective prioritization practices including a needs analysis process. The needs analysis process shall ensure the identification of problems and deficiencies, the evaluation of alternative solutions and trade-offs, and estimations of the costs and benefits of prospective projects. The investment program shall be revised biennially, effective on July 1st of odd-numbered years. The investment program shall be based upon the needs identified in the state-owned highway component of the state-wide multimodal transportation plan as defined in RCW 47.01.071(3).

(1) The preservation program shall consist of those investments necessary to preserve the existing state highway system and to restore existing safety features, giving consideration to lowest life cycle costing. The comprehensive six-year investment program for preservation shall identify projects for two years and an investment plan for the remaining four years.

(2) The improvement program shall consist of investments needed to address identified deficiencies on the state highway system to improve mobility, safety, support for the economy, and protection of the environment. The six-year investment program for improvements shall identify projects for two years and major deficiencies proposed to be addressed in the six-year period giving consideration to relative benefits and life cycle costs.

The transportation commission shall approve and present the comprehensive six-year investment program to the legislature in support of the biennial budget request under RCW 44.40.070 and 44.40.080.

(1) The transportation commission, in preparing the comprehensive six-year program and financial plan for highway improvements, shall allocate the estimated funds among categories A, B, C, and H)

In developing program objectives and performance measures, the transportation commission shall evaluate investment trade-offs between the preservation and improvement programs. In making these investment trade-offs, the commission shall evaluate, using cost-benefit techniques, roadway and bridge maintenance activities as compared to roadway and bridge preservation program activities and adjust those programs accordingly.

The commission shall allocate the estimated revenue between preservation and improvement programs, giving primary consideration to the following factors:

(1) The need to provide adequate funding for (categories of improvements) preservation to protect the state's investment in its existing highway system.

(2) The need to provide adequate funding for (categories of improvements) transportation development (of all categories of improvements) with those improvements previously programmed; and...
The availability of ([special categories of federal]) dedicated funds for a specific type of work.

Sec. 5. RCW 47.05.051 and 1987 c 179 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(4) The commission in preparing the comprehensive six-year program and financial plan shall establish program objectives for each of the highway categories, A, B, C, and H.)

The provisions of chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act) modifying procedures for priority programming for highway development as set forth in chapter 47.05.050, as now or hereafter amended, shall determine the category of each highway improvement.

(6) Select of specific category A and H projects for the six-year) systems that incorporate the following criteria:

(1) Priority programming for the preservation program shall take into account the ([criteria set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) Selection of specific category B projects for the six-year program shall be based on commission-established priorities for completion and preservation of the interstate system.

(3) In selecting each category A and H project as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the following criteria (i) following, not necessarily in order of importance (i) shall be taken into consideration:

(a) Extending the service life of the existing highway system;
(b) Ensuring the structural ability to carry loads imposed upon (i) highways and bridges;
(c) Its capacity to move traffic at reasonable speeds without undue congestion;
(d) Its adequacy of alignment and related geometrics;
(e) Its accident experience; and
(f) Its accident risk reduction;

(7) The commission in preparing the comprehensive six-year program shall take into account the following:

(a) Support for the state's economy, including job creation and job preservation;
(b) The cost-effective movement of people and goods;
(c) Accident and accident risk reduction;
(d) Protection of the state's natural environment;
(e) Continuity ([6]) and systematic development of the highway transportation network;
(f) Coordination with the development of other modes of transportation;
(g) Feasibility of financing the full proposed improvement;
(h) Commitments established in previous legislative sessions;
(i) Relative costs and benefits of candidate programs;
(m) Major projects addressing capacity deficiencies which prioritize allowing for preliminary engineering shall be reprioritized during the succeeding biennium, based upon updated project data. Reprioritized projects may be delayed or canceled by the transportation commission if higher priority projects are awaiting funding; and

(n) Major project approvals which significantly increase a project's scope or cost from original prioritization estimates shall include a review of the project's estimated revised priority rank and the level of funding provided. Projects may be delayed or canceled by the transportation commission if higher priority projects are awaiting funding.

The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 47.05.050 RCW to read as follows:

Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 47.05.050 RCW, first apply to the comprehensive six-year state highway improvement program for the periods 1995 to 2001. For the transition biennium ending June 30, 1995, the commission may deviate from the modified procedures prescribed by chapter ..., Laws of 1993 (this act).

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5963. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5963, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5963, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; Nays, 0; Absent, 1; Excused, 1.

Absent: Senator Deccio - 1.

Excused: Senator Rinehart - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5963, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5736 and the pending House striking amendment, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: “In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Wojahn, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5736 is a measure which adds chiropractic care to the list of care that must be provided to injured workers under the state industrial insurance laws and provides direction to the Department of Labor and Industries in authorizing such treatment.

“The amendment by the House of Representatives would add chiropractic care to the list of care provided under the state industrial insurance laws and places requirements and directions for the Department of Labor and Industries in its authorization of chiropractic treatment.

“The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is not well taken.”

The House striking amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5736 was ruled in order.

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5736. Debate ensued.

Senator Jesernig demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jesernig, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5736 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 15, 1993

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5879 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
“Sec. 1. RCW 46.61.687 and 1987 c 330 s 745 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) [(After December 31, 1983, the parent or legal guardian of a child less than five years old, when the parent or legal guardian is operating anywhere in the state his or her own motor vehicle registered under chapter 46.16 RCW, in which the child is] a passenger, shall have the child properly secured in a manner approved by the state patrol. Even though a separate child passenger restraint device is considered the ideal method of protection, a properly adjusted and fastened, federally approved seat belt is deemed sufficient to meet the requirements of this section for children one through four years of age. Whenever a child who is less than six years of age is being transported in a motor vehicle that is in operation and that is required by RCW 46.37.510 to be equipped with a safety belt system in a passenger seating position, with the exception of (a) for hire vehicles as defined in RCW 46.72.010(1); (b) motor vehicles designed to transport sixteen or more passengers, including the driver; and (c) auto transportation companies, the driver of the vehicle shall keep the child properly restrained as follows:

(i) If the child weighs less than forty pounds or is less than four years of age, the child shall be properly restrained in a child restraint system that complies with standards of the United States department of transportation and that is secured in the vehicle in accordance with instructions of the manufacturer of the child restraint system;

(ii) If the child is less than six but weighs at least forty pounds or is at least four years of age, the child shall be restrained either as specified in (i) of this subsection or with a safety belt properly adjusted and fastened around the child's body.

(2) During the period from January 1, 1984, to July 1, 1984, a person violating subsection (1) of this section may be issued a written warning of the violation. After July 1, 1984, a person violating subsection (1) of this section may be issued a notice of traffic infraction under chapter 46.63 RCW. If the person to whom the notice was issued presents proof of acquisition of an approved child passenger restraint system within seven days to the jurisdiction issuing the notice, the jurisdiction shall dismiss the notice of traffic infraction. If the person fails to present proof of acquisition within the time required, he or she is subject to a penalty assessment of not less than thirty dollars.

(3) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not constitute negligence by a parent or legal guardian; nor shall failure to use a child restraint system be admissible as evidence of negligence in any civil action.*

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5360 with the following amendment(s):
On page 1, beginning on line 16, after "required" strike all material through "proficiency" on line 17
On page 2, line 37, after "list by" strike "court staff" and insert "the court clerk"
On page 3, line 1, after "(2)" strike "Court staff shall be required to obtain" and insert "All court clerks shall obtain"
On page 3, beginning on line 14, after "brochures to" strike "the staff of all courts" and insert "all court clerks"
On page 3, after line 16, insert the following:
"(4) For purposes of this section, "court clerks" means court administrators in courts of limited jurisdiction and elected court clerks."

On page 2, beginning on line 33, after "order," strike all material through "order," on line 35, and insert "and the following statement: "You can be arrested even if the person or persons who obtained the order invite or allow you to violate the order's prohibitions. The respondent has the sole responsibility to avoid or refrain from violating the order's provisions. Only the court can change the order upon written application."

On page 3, after line 16, insert the following:
"(4) The administrator for the courts shall arrange for translation of the instructions and informational brochures required by this section, which shall contain a sample of the standard petition and order for protection forms, into Spanish, Vietnamese, Laotian, Cambodian, and Chinese, and shall distribute a master copy of the translated instructions and informational brochures to all court clerks by January 1, 1995."

On page 5, after line 37 insert:
"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding for section 2 subsection (4) of this act, referencing this act by bill, section and subsection number, is not provided by June 30, 1993, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 2 subsection (4) is null and void."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

On page 5, after line 37, insert the following:
"Sec. 4. RCW 7.69.020 and 1985 c 443 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Crime" means an act punishable as a felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor under the laws of this state or equivalent federal or local law.

(2) "Survivor" or "survivors" of a victim of crime means a spouse, child, parent, legal guardian, sibling, or grandparent. If there is more than one survivor of a victim of crime, one survivor shall be designated by the prosecutor to represent all survivors for purposes of providing the notice to survivors required by this chapter.

(3) "Victim" means a person against whom a crime has been committed.

(4) "Victim impact statement" means a statement submitted to the court by the victim or survivor, which may include but is not limited to information assessing the financial, medical, social, and psychological impact of the offense upon the victim or survivors.

(5) "Witness" means a person who has been or is expected to be summoned to testify for the prosecution in a criminal action, or who by reason of having relevant information is subject to call or likely to be called as a witness for the prosecution, whether or not an action or proceeding has been commenced.

(6) "Crime victim/witness program" means any crime victim and witness program of a county or local law enforcement agency or prosecutor's office, any rape crisis center's sexual assault victim advocacy program as provided in chapter 70.125 RCW, any domestic violence program's legal and community advocate program for domestic violence victims as provided in chapter 70.123 RCW, or any other crime victim advocacy program which provides trained advocates to assist crime victims during the investigation and prosecution of the crime.

Sec. 5. RCW 7.69.030 and 1985 c 443 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a reasonable effort made to ensure that victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crimes have the following rights:

(1) With respect to victims of violent or sex crimes, to receive, at the time of reporting the crime to law enforcement officials, a written statement of the rights of crime victims as provided in this chapter. The written statement shall include the name, address, and telephone number of a county or local crime victim/witness program, if such a crime victim/witness program exists in the county;

(2) To be informed by local law enforcement agencies or the prosecuting attorney of the final disposition of the case in which the victim, survivor, or witness is involved;

(2) To be notified by the party who issued the subpoena that a court proceeding to which they have been subpoenaed will not occur as scheduled, in order to save the person an unnecessary trip to court;

(3) To receive protection from harm and threats of harm arising out of cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts, and to be provided with information as to the level of protection available;

(4) To be informed of the procedure to be followed to apply for and receive any witness fees to which they are entitled;

(5) To be provided, whenever practical, a secure waiting area during court proceedings that does not require them to be in close proximity to defendants and families or friends of defendants;
To have any stolen or other personal property expeditiously returned by law enforcement agencies or the superior court when no longer needed as evidence. When feasible, all such property, except weapons, currency, contraband, property subject to evidentiary analysis, and property of which ownership is disputed, shall be photographed and returned to the owner within ten days of being taken;

To be provided with appropriate employer intercession services to ensure that employers of victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crime will cooperate with the criminal justice process in order to minimize an employee's loss of pay and other benefits resulting from court appearance;

Access to immediate medical assistance and not to be detained for an unreasonable length of time by a law enforcement agency before having such assistance administered. However, an employee of the law enforcement agency may, if necessary, accompany the person to a medical facility to question the person about the criminal incident if the questioning does not hinder the administration of medical assistance;

With respect to victims of violent and sex crimes, to have a crime victim advocate from a crime victim/witness program present at any prosecutorial or defense interviews with the victim. This subsection applies if practical and if the presence of the crime victim advocate does not cause any unnecessary delay in the investigation or prosecution of the case. The role of the crime victim advocate is to provide emotional support to the crime victim;

With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to be physically present in court during trial, or if subpoenaed to testify, to be scheduled as early as practical in the proceedings in order to be physically present during trial after testifying and not to be excluded solely because they have testified;

With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the date, time, and place of the trial and of the sentencing hearing for felony convictions upon request by a victim or survivor;

To submit a victim impact statement or report to the court, with the assistance of the prosecuting attorney if requested, which shall be included in all presentence reports and permanently included in the files and records accompanying the offender committed to the custody of a state agency or institution;

With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to present a statement personally or by representation, at the sentencing hearing for felony convictions; and

With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to entry of an order of restitution by the court in all felony cases, even when the offender is sentenced to confinement, unless extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment.

Sec. 6. RCW 7.69A.020 and 1992 c 188 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Crime" means an act punishable as a felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor under the laws of this state or equivalent federal or local law.

(2) "Child" means any living child under the age of eighteen years.

(3) "Victim" means a living person against whom a crime has been committed.

(4) "Witness" means a person who has been or is expected to be summoned to testify for the prosecution in a criminal action, or who by reason of having relevant information is subject to call or likely to be called as a witness for the prosecution, whether or not an action or proceeding has been commenced.

(5) "Family member" means child, parent, or legal guardian.

(6) "Advocate" means any person, including a family member not accused of a crime, who provides support to a child victim or child witness during any legal proceeding.

(7) "Court proceedings" means any court proceeding conducted during the course of the prosecution of a crime committed against a child victim, including pretrial hearings, trial, sentencing, or appellate proceedings.

(8) "Identifying information" means the child's name, address, location, and photograph, and in cases in which the child is a relative or stepchild of the alleged perpetrator, identification of the relationship between the child and the alleged perpetrator.

(9) "Crime victim/witness program" means any crime victim and witness program of a county or local law enforcement agency or prosecutor's office, any rape crisis center's sexual assault victim advocacy program as provided in chapter 70.125 RCW, any domestic violence program's legal and community advocate program for domestic violence victims as provided in chapter 70.123 RCW, or any other crime victim advocacy program which provides trained advocates to assist crime victims during the investigation and prosecution of the crime.

Sec. 7. RCW 7.69A.030 and 1985 c 394 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the rights of victims and witnesses provided for in RCW 7.69.030, there shall be every reasonable effort made by law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, and judges to assure that child victims and witnesses are afforded the rights enumerated in this section. The enumeration of rights shall not be construed to create substantive rights and duties, and the application of an enumerated right in an individual case is subject to the discretion of the law enforcement agency, prosecutor, or judge. Child victims and witnesses have the following rights:

1. To have explained in language easily understood by the child, all legal proceedings and/or police investigations in which the child may be involved.

2. With respect to child victims of sex or violent crimes or child abuse, to have a crime victim advocate from a crime victim/witness program present at any prosecutorial or defense interviews with the child victim. This subsection applies if practical and if the presence of the crime victim advocate does not cause any unnecessary delay in the investigation or prosecution of the case. The role of the crime victim advocate is to provide emotional support to the child victim and to promote the child's feelings of security and safety.

3. To be provided, whenever possible, a secure waiting area during court proceedings and to have an advocate or support person remain with the child prior to and during any court proceedings.

4. To not have the names, addresses, nor photographs of the living child victim or witness disclosed by any law enforcement agency, prosecutor's office, or state agency without the permission of the child victim, child witness, parents, or legal guardians to anyone except another law enforcement agency, prosecutor, defense counsel, or private or governmental agency that provides services to the child victim or witness.

5. To allow an advocate to make recommendations to the prosecuting attorney about the ability of the child to cooperate with prosecution and the potential effect of the proceedings on the child.

6. To allow an advocate to provide information to the court concerning the child's ability to understand the nature of the proceedings.

7. To be provided information or appropriate referrals to social service agencies to assist the child and/or the child's family with the emotional impact of the crime, the subsequent investigation, and judicial proceedings in which the child is involved.

8. To allow an advocate to be present in court while the child testifies in order to provide emotional support to the child.

9. To provide information to the court as to the need for the presence of other supportive persons at the court proceedings while the child testifies in order to promote the child's feelings of security and safety.

10. To allow law enforcement agencies the opportunity to enlist the assistance of other professional personnel such as child protection services, victim advocates or prosecutorial staff trained in the interviewing of the child victim.

11. With respect to child victims of violent or sex crimes or child abuse, to receive either directly or through the child's parent or guardian if appropriate, at the time of reporting the crime to law enforcement officials, a written statement of the rights of child victims as provided in this chapter. The written statement shall include the name, address, and telephone number of a county or local crime victim/witness program, if such a crime victim/witness program exists in the county.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly, and the same are herewith transmitted.

ALAN THOMPSON, Chief Clerk

MOTION

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5360, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 0; Absent, 3; Excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Amondson, Anderson, Barr, Bauer, Bluechel, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Erwin, Franklin, Fraser, Gaspard, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Jesernig, Loveland, Mcauliffe, McCaslin, McDonald, Moore, Moyer, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Prentice, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, M., Rinehart, Roach, Sellar, Skratek, Smith, A., Smith, L., Snyder, Spanel, Sutherland, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, West, Williams and Winsley - 44.

Absent: Senators Nelson, Pelz and Wojahn - 3.

Excused: Senators Niemi and Sheldon - 2.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5360, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.
MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5502 with the following amendment(s):

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that the extraction of minerals through surface mining has historically included regulatory involvement by both state and local governments.

It is the intent of the legislature to clarify that surface mining is an appropriate land use, subject to reclamation authority exercised by the department of natural resources and land use and operation regulatory authority by counties, cities, and towns.

Sec. 2. RCW 78.44.010 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes that the extraction of minerals by surface mining is (a basic and) an essential activity making an important contribution to the economic well-being of the state and nation. (At the same time, proper reclamation of surface) It is not possible to extract minerals without producing some environmental impacts. At the same time, comprehensive regulation of mining and thorough reclamation of mined lands is necessary to prevent (undesirable land and water) or mitigate conditions that would be detrimental to the environment and to protect the general welfare, health, safety, and property rights of the citizens of the state. Surface mining takes place in diverse areas where the geologic, topographic, climatic, biologic, and social conditions are significantly different, and reclamation specifications must vary accordingly. (it is not practical to extract minerals required by our society without disturbing the surface of the earth and producing waste materials, and the very character of many types of surface mining operations precludes complete restoration of the land to its original condition. However, the legislature finds that reclamation of surface mined lands as provided in this chapter will allow the mining of valuable minerals and will provide for the protection and subsequent beneficial use of the mined and reclaimed land.) Therefore, the legislature finds that a balance between appropriate environmental regulation and the production and conservation of minerals is in the best interests of the citizens of the state.

Sec. 3. RCW 78.44.020 and 1970 ex.s. c 64 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The purposes of this chapter (ii) are to:

(1) Provide that the usefulness, productivity, and scenic values of all lands and waters involved in surface mining within the state will receive the greatest practical degree of protection and (restoration. It is a further purpose of this chapter to provide a means of cooperation between private and governmental entities in carrying this chapter into effect)) reclamation at the earliest opportunity following completion of surface mining;

(2) Provide for the greatest practical degree of state-wide consistency in the regulation of surface mines;

(3) Apportion regulatory authority between state and local governments in order to minimize redundant regulation of mining;

(4) Ensure that reclamation is consistent with local land use plans; and

(5) Ensure the power of local government to regulate land use and operations pursuant to section 16 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Approved subsequent use" means the post-surface-mining land use contained in an approved reclamation plan and approved by the local land use authority.

(2) "Completion of surface mining" means the cessation of mining and directly related activities in any segment of a surface mine that occurs when essentially all minerals that can be taken under the terms of the reclamation permit have been depleted except minerals required to accomplish reclamation according to the approved reclamation plan.

(3) "Department" means the department of natural resources.

(4) "Determination" means any action by the department including permit issuance, reporting, reclamation plan approval or modification, permit transfers, orders, fines, or refusal to issue permits.

(5) "Disturbed area" means any place where activities clearly in preparation for, or during, surface mining have physically disrupted, covered, compacted, moved, or otherwise altered the characteristics of soil, bedrock, vegetation, or topography that existed prior to such activity. Disturbed areas may include but are not limited to: Working faces, water bodies created by mine-related excavation, pit floors, the land beneath processing plant and stock pile sites, spoil pile sites, and equipment staging areas. Disturbed areas do not include:

(a) Surface mine access roads unless these have characteristics of topography, drainage, slope stability, or ownership that, in the opinion of the department, make reclamation necessary; and
(b) Lands that have been reclaimed to all standards outlined in this chapter, rules of the department, any applicable SEPA document, and the approved reclamation plan.

(6) "Miner" means any person or persons, any partnership, limited partnership, or corporation, or any association of persons, including every public or governmental agency engaged in mining from the surface.

(7) "Minerals" means clay, coal, gravel, industrial minerals, metallic substances, peat, sand, stone, topsoil, and any other similar solid material or substance to be excavated from natural deposits on or in the earth for commercial, industrial, or construction use.

(8) "Operations" means all mine-related activities, exclusive of reclamation, that include, but are not limited to activities that affect noise generation, air quality, surface and ground water quality, quantity, and flow, glare, pollution, traffic safety, ground vibrations, and/or significant or substantial impacts commonly regulated under provisions of land use or other permits of local government and local ordinances, or other state laws.

Operations specifically include:
(a) The mining or extraction of rock, stone, gravel, sand, earth, and other minerals;
(b) Blasting, equipment maintenance, sorting, crushing, and loading;
(c) On-site mineral processing including asphalt or concrete batching, concrete recycling, and other aggregate recycling;
(d) Transporting minerals to and from the mine, on site road maintenance, road maintenance for roads used extensively for surface mining activities, traffic safety, and traffic control.

(9) "Overburden" means the earth, rock, soil, and topsoil that lie above mineral deposits.

(10) "Permit holder" means any person or persons, any partnership, limited partnership, or corporation, or any association of persons, either natural or artificial, including every public or governmental agency engaged in surface mining and/or the operation of surface mines, whether individually, jointly, or through subsidiaries, agents, employees, operators, or contractors who holds a state reclamation permit.

(11) "Reclamation" means rehabilitation for the appropriate future use of disturbed areas resulting from surface mining including areas under associated mineral processing equipment and areas under stockpiled materials. Although both the need for and the practicability of reclamation will control the type and degree of reclamation in any specific surface mine, the basic objective shall be to reestablish on a perpetual basis the vegetative cover, soil stability, and water conditions appropriate to the approved subsequent use of the surface mine and to prevent or mitigate future environmental degradation.

(12) "Reclamation setbacks" include those lands along the margins of surface mines wherein minerals and overburden shall be preserved in sufficient volumes to accomplish reclamation according to the approved plan and the minimum reclamation standards. Maintenance of reclamation setbacks may not preclude other mine-related activities within the reclamation setback.

(13) "Recycling" means the reuse of minerals or rock products.

(14) "Screening" consists of vegetation, berms or other topography, fencing, and/or other screens that may be required to mitigate impacts of surface mining on adjacent properties and/or the environment.

(15) "Segment" means any portion of the surface mine that, in the opinion of the department:
(a) Has characteristics of topography, drainage, slope stability, ownership, mining development, or mineral distribution, that make reclamation necessary;
(b) Is not in use as part of surface mining and/or related activities; and
(c) Is larger than seven acres and has more than five hundred linear feet of working face except as provided in a segmental reclamation agreement approved by the department.

(16) "SEPA" means the state environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW and rules adopted thereunder.

(17)(a) "Surface mine" means any area or areas in close proximity to each other, as determined by the department, where extraction of minerals from the surface results in:
(i) More than three acres of disturbed area;
(ii) Mined slopes greater than thirty feet high and steeper than 1.0 foot horizontal to 1.0 foot vertical; or
(iii) More than one acre of disturbed area within an eight acre area, when the disturbed area results from mineral prospecting or exploration activities.

(b) Surface mines include areas where mineral extraction from the surface occurs by the auger method or by reworking mine refuse or tailings, when these activities exceed the size or height thresholds listed in (a) of this subsection.

(c) Surface mining shall exclude excavations or grading used:
(i) Primarily for on-site construction, on-site road maintenance, or on-site landfill construction;
(ii) For the purpose of public safety or restoring the land following a natural disaster;
(iii) For the purpose of removing stockpiles;
(iv) For forest or farm road construction or maintenance on-site or on contiguous lands;
(v) For sand authorized by RCW 43.51.685; and shall contain the following information and shall be considered part of the reclamation permit:

Prior to the use of an inactive site, the reclamation plan must be brought up to current standards. After the effective date of this section, permits issued by the department between January 1, 1971, and June 30, 1993, shall be considered reclamation permits provided the permit holder may engage in surface mining without having first obtained a reclamation permit from the department.

Sections 12 and 20 of this act within five years after the effective date of this section. The primary objective of a segmental reclamation agreement should be to enhance final reclamation. The department shall have the exclusive authority to regulate surface mine reclamation except that, by contractual agreement, the department may delegate some or all of its enforcement authority to a county, city, or town. All counties, cities, or towns shall have the authority to zone surface mines and adopt ordinances regulating operations pursuant to section 16 of this act, except that county, city, or town operations ordinances may be preempted by the department during the emergencies outlined in section 27 of this act and related rules.

This chapter shall not (1) affect or preempt any of the provisions of the state fisheries laws (Title 75 RCW), the state water allocation and use laws (chapters 90.03 and 90.44 RCW), the state water pollution control laws (Chapter 90.48 RCW), the state wildlife laws (Title 77 RCW), other state laws, and shall be cumulative and nonexclusive state noise laws or air quality laws (Title 70 RCW), the state environmental policy act (Chapter 70.43 RCW), state growth management (Chapter 35.65 RCW), state drinking water laws (chapters 90.22, 90.26, and 70.119A RCW), or any other state statutes.

The department shall have the exclusive authority to conduct investigations, research, experiments, and demonstrations, and to collect and disseminate information relating to surface mining and reclamation of surface mined lands.

The department may cooperate with other governmental and private agencies (in this state and other states) and agencies of the federal government, and may reasonably reimburse them for any services the department requests that they provide. The department may also receive any federal funds, state funds and any other funds and expend them for reclamation of land affected by surface mining and for purposes enumerated in RCW 78.44.060.

The department of natural resources is charged with the administration of surface mine reclamation. The surface mining reclamation account is created in the state treasury. Annual mining fees, funds received by the department from state, local, or federal agencies for research purposes, as well as other mine-related funds and fines received by the department shall be deposited into this account. The surface mine reclamation account may be used by the department only to:

(1) Administer its regulatory program pursuant to this chapter;

(3) Undertake research relating to surface mine regulation, reclamation of surface mine lands, and related issues; and

(4) Cover costs arising from appeals from determinations made under this chapter.

The reclamation permit shall consist of the permit forms and any exhibits attached thereto. The permit holder shall comply with the provisions of the reclamation permit unless waived and explained in writing by the department.

Prior to receiving a reclamation permit, an applicant must submit an application on forms provided by the department that shall contain the following information and shall be considered part of the reclamation permit:

(1) Name and address of the legal landowner, or purchaser of the land under a real estate contract;
The name of the applicant and, if the applicants are corporations or other business entities, the names and addresses of their principal officers and resident agent for service of process;

(3) A reasonably accurate description of the minerals to be surface mined;

(4) Type of surface mining to be performed;

(5) Estimated starting date, date of completion, and date of completed reclamation of surface mining;

(6) Size and legal description of the permit area and maximum lateral and vertical extent of the disturbed area;

(7) Expected area to be disturbed by surface mining during (a) the next twelve months, and (b) the following twenty-four months;

(8) Any applicable SEPA documents; and

(9) Other pertinent data as required by the department.

The reclamation permit shall be granted for the period required to deplete essentially all minerals identified in the reclamation permit on the land covered by the reclamation plan. The reclamation permit shall be valid until the reclamation is complete unless the permit is canceled by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. RECLAMATION PLANS. An applicant shall provide a reclamation plan and copies acceptable to the department prior to obtaining a reclamation permit. The department shall have the sole authority to approve reclamation plans. Reclamation plans or modified reclamation plans submitted to the department after June 30, 1993, shall meet or exceed the minimum reclamation standards set forth in this chapter and by the department in rule. Each applicant shall also supply copies of the proposed plans and final reclamation plan approved by the department to the county, city, or town in which the mine will be located. The department shall solicit comment from local government prior to approving a reclamation plan. The reclamation plan shall include:

(1) A written narrative describing the proposed mining and reclamation scheme with:

(a) A statement of a proposed subsequent use of the land after reclamation that is consistent with the local land use designation. Approval of the reclamation plan shall not vest the proposed subsequent use of the land;

(b) If the permit holder is not the sole landowner, a copy of the conveyance or a written statement that expressly grants or reserves the right to extract minerals by surface mining methods;

(c) A simple and accurate legal description of the permit area and disturbed areas;

(d) The maximum depth of mining;

(e) A reasonably accurate description of the minerals to be mined;

(f) A description of the method of mining;

(g) A description of the sequence of mining that will provide, within limits of normal procedures of the industry, for completion of surface mining and associated disturbance on each portion of the permit area so that reclamation can be initiated at the earliest possible time on each segment of the mine;

(h) A schedule for progressive reclamation of each segment of the mine;

(i) Where mining on flood plains or in river or stream channels is contemplated, a thoroughly documented hydrogeologic evaluation that will outline measures that would protect against or would mitigate avulsion and erosion as determined by the department;

(j) Where mining is contemplated within critical aquifer recharge areas, special protection areas as defined by chapter 90.48 RCW and implementing rules, public water supply watersheds, sole source aquifers, wellhead protection areas, and designated aquifer protection areas as set forth in chapter 36.36 RCW, a thoroughly documented hydrogeologic analysis of the reclamation plan may be required; and

(k) Additional information as required by the department including but not limited to: The positions of reclamation setbacks and screening, conservation of topsoil, interim reclamation, revegetation, postmining erosion control, drainage control, slope stability, disposal of mine wastes, control of fill material, development of wetlands, ponds, lakes, and impoundments, and rehabilitation of topography.

(2) Maps of the surface mine showing:

(a) All applicable data required in the narrative portion of the reclamation plan;

(b) Existing topographic contours;

(c) Contours depicting specifications for surface gradient restoration appropriate to the proposed subsequent use of the land and meeting the minimum reclamation standards;

(d) Locations and names of all roads, railroads, and utility lines on or adjacent to the area;

(e) Locations and types of proposed access roads to be built in conjunction with the surface mining;

(f) Detailed and accurate boundaries of the permit area, screening, reclamation setbacks, and maximum extent of the disturbed area; and

(g) Estimated depth to ground water and the locations of surface water bodies and wetlands both prior to and after mining.
(3) At least two cross sections of the mine including all applicable data required in the narrative and map portions of the reclamation plan.

(4) Evidence that the proposed surface mine has been approved under local zoning and land use regulations.

(5) Written approval of the reclamation plan by the landowner for mines permitted after June 30, 1993.

(6) Other supporting data and documents regarding the surface mine as reasonably required by the department.

If the department refuses to approve a reclamation plan in the form submitted by an applicant or permit holder, it shall notify the applicant or permit holder stating the reasons for its determination and describe such additional requirements to the applicant or permit holder’s reclamation plan as are necessary for the approval of the plan by the department. If the department refuses to approve a complete reclamation plan within one hundred twenty days, the miner or permit holder may appeal this determination under the provisions of this chapter.

Only insignificant deviations may occur from the approved reclamation plan without prior written approval by the department for the proposed change.

The department retains the authority to require that the reclamation plan be updated to the satisfaction of the department at least every ten years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. JOINT RECLAMATION PLANS. Where two or more surface mines join along a common boundary, the department may require submission of a joint reclamation plan in order to provide for optimum reclamation or to avoid waste of mineral resources. Such joint reclamation plans may be in the form of a single collaborative plan submitted by all affected permit holders or as individual reclamation plans in which the schedule of reclamation, finished contours, and revegetation match reclamation plans of adjacent permit holders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. FEES. (1) An applicant for a public or private reclamation permit shall pay an application fee to the department before being granted a surface mining permit. The amount of the application fee shall be six hundred fifty dollars.

(2) After June 30, 1993, each public or private permit holder shall pay an annual permit fee of six hundred fifty dollars. The annual permit fee shall be payable to the department on the first anniversary of the permit date and each year thereafter.

(3) After July 1, 1995, the department may modify annual permit fees by rule if:

(a) The total annual permit fees are reasonably related to the approximate costs of administering the department’s surface mining regulatory program;

(b) The annual fee does not exceed five thousand dollars; and

(c) The mines are small mines in remote areas that are used primarily for public service, then lower annual permit fees may be established.

(4) Appeals from any determination of the department shall not stay the requirement to pay any annual permit fee. Failure to pay the annual fee may constitute grounds for an order to suspend surface mining or cancellation of the reclamation permit as provided in this chapter.

(5) All fees collected by the department shall be deposited into the surface mining reclamation account.

(6) If the department delegates enforcement responsibilities to a county, city, or town, the department may allocate funds collected under this section to such county, city, or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. PERFORMANCE SECURITY. The department shall not issue a reclamation permit until the applicant has deposited with the department an acceptable performance security on forms prescribed and furnished by the department. A public or governmental agency shall not be required to post performance security nor shall a permit holder be required to post surface mining performance security with more than one state, local, or federal agency.

This performance security may be:

(1) Bank letters of credit acceptable to the department;

(2) A cash deposit;

(3) Negotiable securities acceptable to the department;

(4) An assignment of a savings account;

(5) A savings certificate in a Washington bank on an assignment form prescribed by the department;

(6) Assignments of interests in real property within the state of Washington; or

(7) A corporate surety bond executed in favor of the department by a corporation authorized to do business in the state of Washington under Title 48 RCW and authorized by the department.

The performance security shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the requirements set forth in this chapter and of the rules adopted under it.

The department shall have the authority to determine the amount of the performance security using a standardized performance security formula developed by the department. The amount of the security shall be determined by the department and based on the estimated costs of completing reclamation according to the approved reclamation plan or minimum standards and related administrative overhead for the area to be surface mined during (a) the next twelve-month period, (b) the following twenty-four months, and (c) any previously disturbed areas on which the reclamation has not been satisfactorily completed and approved.

The department may increase or decrease the amount of the performance security at any time to compensate for a change in the disturbed area, the depth of excavation, a modification of the reclamation plan, or any other alteration in the conditions of the mine that affects the cost of reclamation. The department may, for any reason, refuse any performance security not deemed adequate.

Liability under the performance security shall be maintained until reclamation is completed according to the approved reclamation plan to the satisfaction of the department unless released as hereinafter provided. Liability under the performance security may be released only upon written notification by the department. Notification shall be given upon completion of compliance or acceptance by the department of a substitute performance security. The liability of the surety shall not exceed the amount of security required by this section and the department's reasonable legal fees to recover the security.

Any interest or appreciation on the performance security shall be held by the department until reclamation is completed to its satisfaction. At such time, the interest shall be remitted to the permit holder; except that such interest or appreciation may be used by the department to effect reclamation in the event that the permit holder fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter and the costs of reclamation exceed the face value of the performance security.

No other state agency or local government shall require performance security for the purposes of surface mine reclamation and only one agency of government shall require and hold the performance security. The department may enter into written agreements with federal agencies in order to avoid redundant bonding of surface mines straddling boundaries between federally controlled and other lands within Washington state.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, nothing shall preclude the department of ecology from requiring a separate performance security for metallic minerals or uranium surface mines under any authority if any that may be presently vested in the department of ecology relating to such mines.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Where the county has classified mineral lands pursuant to RCW 36.70A.050 and mineral resource lands of long-term commercial significance exist, a county, city, or town shall designate sufficient mineral resource lands in the comprehensive plans to meet the projected twenty-year, county-wide need. Once designated, mineral resource uses, including operations as defined in section 4 of this act, shall be established as an allowed use in local development regulations subject to the permit process described in this section.

The county, city, or town shall designate mineral resource deposits, both active and inactive, in economically viable proximity to locations where the deposits are likely to be used.

Through its comprehensive plan and development regulations, as defined in RCW 36.70A.030, the county, city, or town shall discourage the siting of incompatible uses adjacent to mineral resource industries, deposits, and holdings.

For purposes of this section, "long-term commercial significance" includes the mineral composition of the land for long-term economically viable commercial production, in consideration with the mineral resource land's proximity to population areas, product markets, and the possibility of more intense uses of the land.

(2)(a) Counties, cities, and towns may only regulate surface mining operations by ordinance and only in accordance with the requirements and limitations of this subsection.

(b) Local surface mining operating standards shall:

(i) Address only:

(A) Traffic;
(B) Light emission;
(C) Visual screening;
(D) Noise emission; and

(E) Other significant or substantial mining impacts that are not covered by a subject area of regulation embodied in any other state or federal law, including among others the subject areas pertaining to water allocation, use, and control and fisheries and wildlife habitat set forth in section 19 of this act.

(ii) Be performance-based, objective standards that:

(A) Are directly and proportionately related to limiting surface mining impacts;

(B) Are reasonable and generally capable of being achieved;

(C) Take into account existing and available technologies; and

(D) May be met by any lawful means selected by the applicant or operator that, in the judgment of the county, city, or town, achieve compliance with the standard.
(iii) Limit application and monitoring fees to the amount necessary to pay the costs of administering, processing, monitoring, and enforcing the regulation of surface mining in accordance with this section.

(iv) Except as otherwise provided in this section, implement the ordinance through an operating plan review and approval process. Such approval process shall:

(A) Require submittal of sufficient, complete, and accurate information, as specified by the local ordinance, to allow the decision maker to review the plan for compliance with local standards;

(B) At the option of the county, city, or town, provide for administrative approval subject to appeal or for initial consideration through a public hearing process; and

(C) Require that project-specific conditions or restrictions be based upon written findings of facts demonstrating their need to achieve compliance with local standards.

(v) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, provide that approvals issued will be valid for fifty years.

(3) Operating regulations and amendments thereto adopted pursuant to this section may be applied to lawfully preexisting mining operations only if the local ordinance:

(a) Limits application of subsection (2)(b)(i)(A) of this section relating to traffic to the designation of approved haul routes;

(b) Exempts such preexisting operations from any operating plan review and approval process;

(c) Provides reasonable time periods for compliance with new or amended local operating standards that in no event may be less than one year; and

(d) Includes a variance procedure to allow continuation of existing operations for a nonconforming surface mining operation where strict adherence to a local operating standard would be economically or operationally impractical due to conditions relating to site configuration, topography, or the nature of historic operations.

(4) Nothing in this section precludes a county, city, or town from exercising the express authority delegated to it by a state agency under state law, or from complying with state law when required as a regulated entity.
