NEW SECTION. Sec. 805. The amounts shown under the headings "Prior Biennia," "Future Biennia," and "Total" in this act are for informational purposes only and do not constitute legislative approval of these amounts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 806. "Reappropriations" in this act are appropriations and, unless the context clearly provides otherwise, are subject to the relevant conditions and limitations applicable to appropriations. Reappropriations shall be limited to the unexpended balances remaining on June 30, 1995, in the 1993-95 biennial appropriations for each project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 807. To carry out the provisions of this act, the governor may assign responsibility for predesign, design, construction, and other related activities to any appropriate agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 808. If any federal moneys appropriated by this act for capital projects are not received by the state, the department or agency to which the moneys were appropriated may replace the federal moneys with funds available from private or local sources. No replacement may occur under this section without the prior approval of the director of financial management in consultation with the senate committee on ways and means and the house of representatives committee on capital budget.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 809. (1) Unless otherwise stated, for all appropriations under this act that require a match of nonstate money or in-kind contributions, the following requirement, consistent with RCW 43.88.150, shall apply: Expenditures of state money shall be timed so that the state share of project expenditures never exceeds the intended state share of total project costs.

(2) Provision of the full amount of required matching funds is not required to permit the expenditure of capital budget appropriations for phased projects if a proportional amount of the required matching funds is provided for each distinct, identifiable phase of the project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 810. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, for the 1995-97 biennium, transfers of reimbursement by the state treasurer to the general fund from the community college capital projects account for debt service payments made under Title 28B RCW shall occur only after such debt service payment has been made and only to the extent that funds are actually available to the account. Any unpaid reimbursements shall be a continuing obligation against the community college capital projects account until paid. The state board for community and technical colleges need not accumulate any specific balance in the community college capital projects account in anticipation of transfers to reimburse the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 811. Any capital improvements or capital projects involving construction or major expansion of a state office facility, including, but not limited to, district headquarters, detachment offices, and off-campus faculty offices, shall be reviewed by the office of financial management and the department of general administration for possible consolidation, collocation, and compliance with state office standards before allotment of funds. The intent of the requirement imposed by this section is to eliminate duplication and reduce total office space requirements where feasible, while ensuring proper service to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 812. The governor, through the office of financial management, may authorize a transfer of appropriation authority provided for a capital project that is in excess of the amount required for the completion of such project to another capital project for which the appropriation is insufficient. No such transfer may be used to expand the capacity of any facility beyond that intended by the legislature in making the appropriation. Such transfers may be effected only between capital appropriations to a specific department, commission, agency, or institution of higher education and only between capital projects that are funded from the same fund or account. No transfers may occur between projects to local government agencies except where the grants are provided within a single omnibus appropriation and where such transfers are specifically authorized by the implementing statutes which govern the grants.

For purposes of this section, the governor may find that an amount is in excess of the amount required for the completion of a project only if: (1) The project as defined in the notes to the budget document is substantially complete and there are funds remaining; or (2) bids have been let on a project and it appears to a substantial certainty that the project as defined in the notes to the budget document can be completed within the biennium for less than the amount appropriated in this act.

For the purposes of this section, the legislature intends that each project be defined as proposed to the legislature in the governor's budget document, unless it clearly appears from the legislative history that the legislature intended to define the scope of a project in a different way.

A report of any transfer effected under this section except emergency projects or any transfer under $250,000 shall be filed with the legislative fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives by the director of financial management at least thirty days before the date the transfer is effected. The director shall report all emergency or smaller transfers within thirty days from the date of transfer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 813. To ensure that major construction projects are carried out in accordance with legislative and executive intent, appropriations in this act referencing this section or in excess of $5,000,000 shall not be expended until the office of financial management has reviewed the agency's predesign and other documents and approved an allotment for the project. The predesign document shall include but not be limited to program, site, and cost analysis in accordance with the predesign manual adopted by the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 814. Allotments for appropriations shall be provided in accordance with the capital project review requirements adopted by the office of financial management. The office of financial management shall notify the house of representatives capital budget committee and the senate ways and means committee of allotment releases based on review by the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 815. The office of financial management shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature, by December 1, 1996, the standards, policies and enrollment levels used as the basis for allotting funds for branch campus design and construction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 816. The department of information services shall act as lead agency in coordinating video telecommunications services for state agencies. MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Honorable Joel Pritchard
President of the Senate
The Legislature of the State of Washington
Olympia, Washington 98504
Mr. President:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration the following bill which has been partially vetoed by the Governor, together with the official veto message of the Governor setting forth his objections to the section or item of the bill as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution:

Section 2, Senate Bill No. 5266, the remainder of which has been designated Chapter 27, Laws of 1995 Regular Session.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Seal of the state of Washington

at Olympia, this 13th day of April, 1995.
(Seal) RALPH MUNRO, Secretary of State

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SENATE BILL NO. 5266

April 13, 1995

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2, Senate Bill No. 5266 entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to court reporting;"

Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 5266 amends RCW 18.145.010 by stipulating that no person may practice court reporting without first obtaining a certificate from the Department of Licensing. This amendment effectively elevates the regulation of this profession from certification to licensure in that it prevents non-certified individuals from performing court reporting functions in any capacity. This change is inconsistent with the intent of RCW 18.145 to regulate the profession at the level of certification. The law will continue to require individuals to meet and maintain minimum standards of competency in order to represent themselves as court reporters.

With the exception of section 2, Senate Bill No. 5266 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
MIKE LOWRY, Governor

MOTION

On motion of Senator Spanel, Senate Bill No. 5266 was held on the desk.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator West: "Mr. President, I would like to rise to a point of personal privilege. In light of the upcoming week-end, I feel that I owe the Senate--the folks here--an explanation and a clarification of remarks I made several weeks ago. You may recall, in a heated debate, I suggested that the Senator from the thirty-ninth district might still believe in the Easter Bunny. Some might have taken that as a disparaging remark, and actually it was a compliment, because I didn't mean to suggest that there wasn't an Easter Bunny and I wouldn't want anybody to be misled and think there is not an Easter Bunny and so, in fact, that was a compliment to the Senator from the thirty-ninth district and I wanted to make sure that everyone understood that at this time."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Quigley: "Rising to a point of personal privilege, I would like to thank Senator West for his apology, although I think it is in order because I have told him clearly that I do not believe in the Easter Bunny, although I still am in doubt about Santa Clause. Thank you."

- (4) The initial meeting of the committee shall be scheduled no later than August 1, 1995. At the initial meeting the members shall select a presiding officer and adopt procedures for carrying out their duties under sections 2 and 3 of this act. In conducting its review the committee shall, wherever possible, operate on a consensus basis and, when consensus is not possible to achieve, the committee should encourage the development of recommendations that are broadly supported within the committee. Where consensus is not achieved, other views within the committee shall be included in any reports required by sections 2 and 3 this act.
- (5) The committee may divide itself into subcommittees. The committee should seek input from people who are interested in its work and who will, in the committee's view, bring experience or technical or interdisciplinary insight to a thoughtful consideration of the issues before the committee.
- (6) The department shall provide staffing and other assistance to the committee, including facilitators from within or outside of state government if requested. Such assistance shall include information in response to reasonable requests from the committee, provided that the information is not protected by attorney-client privilege.
- (7) Legislative members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 44.04.120. Thereafter, a committee member shall disclose any potential conflicts of interest or bias that subsequently arise or of which the committee member subsequently becomes aware. A member shall refrain from participating in any matter that the member for any reason cannot act fairly, objectively, and in the public interest with regard to that matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The policy advisory committee shall review, provide advice, and develop recommendations on the following subjects, at a minimum:

- (a) Clean-up standards and clean-up levels, including the use of site-specific risk assessment;

- (b) Policies, rules, and procedures, including the use of cost, current and future land use, and other criteria in the selection of clean-up remedies;
- (c) How the department carries out the clean-up program in practice, including training, and accountability for clean-up decisions and their implementation;
- (d) Improving the clean-up process to provide additional incentives to potentially liable parties to fully and expeditiously fund cleanups;
- (e) The need for adoption of and recommended levels for ecologically based clean-up standards; and
- (f) A review of the effectiveness of independent cleanups.

(2) The committee shall begin meeting no later than August 1, 1995, to review the model toxics control act and its implementation to date. The committee is encouraged to submit recommendations on policies of state-wide or regional significance to the department at any point during its review. The committee shall submit a preliminary report not later than December 15, 1995, to the appropriate legislative committees, that identifies priority questions and issues that the committee intends to address. The preliminary report shall identify the schedule and approach planned for analyzing these priority issues. The committee shall develop a procedure to allow other interested parties to propose additional questions and issues for review. Any questions and issues the committee chooses to address shall be of regional or state-wide significance. It is not the intent that this committee become engaged in site-specific clean-up decisions at pilot projects or any other sites.

(3) The committee shall submit a final report to the department and the appropriate legislative committees not later than December 15, 1996, on the priority issues it has identified for review. In addition to action recommendations, the final report may identify issues and priorities for further study, including a recommendation as to whether the committee should continue in existence.

(4) The department shall assist the committee's review under this section by preparing case studies of a variety of site cleanups involving differing contaminants, quantities of contaminants, media affected, populations exposed, present and future land and resource uses, and other factors. The committee shall seek input from the affected community, potentially liable persons involved in the cleanup and other participants in the clean-up process at the site and include this input in the information included on the case study. The case studies, along with the other information gathered in the review, shall be used by the committee to provide advice and develop recommendations on the questions and issues addressed by the committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Not later than October 1, 1995, the policy advisory committee shall select two pilot projects from a list of proposed pilot project sites provided by the department. The purpose of the pilot projects is to evaluate alternative methods for accomplishing faster, less-expensive, and an equally protective degree of cleanup at complex sites, within the framework provided by the model toxics control act and the rules adopted under the model toxics control act. Pilot projects shall comply with the model toxics control act and the rules adopted under the model toxics control act. Public participation in the clean-up process for these sites shall be as provided in such rules. In order to be eligible for a pilot project, a site shall be conducting remedial actions under an order, agreed order, or consent decree under the model toxics control act and there shall not be significant opposition from the public potentially affected by the site. In addition, the following criteria shall be used by the department and the committee when recommending and selecting a site as a pilot project site:

- (a) The presence of multiple parties at the site and the willingness of these persons to participate in a pilot project;
- (b) The source of contamination at the site. Sites contaminated as a result of current or past industrial activities shall be given a preference over other sites;
- (c) The stage of cleanup at the site. Sites that are in the process of preparing or for which there is recently completed a remedial investigation/feasibility study shall be given preference over other sites; and
- (d) The degree of community support for selecting a site as a pilot project site. To determine the degree of community support, the department shall first consult with interested community and environmental groups. Thereafter, before proposing a site as a pilot project the department shall issue a public notice identifying the site and seeking public comment on the potential for the site to be a pilot project site.

(2) In the pilot projects the department shall include with the remedial investigation/feasibility study required under the model toxics control act any additional or alternative risk assessments or other analyses that potentially liable persons may wish to prepare at their expense for the purpose of exploration of improved methods to accomplish cleanup under the model toxics control act. The department shall provide technical assistance to identify an appropriate scope for such supplemental analyses, so that the analyses may prove useful in considering improvements to existing practices, policies, rules, and procedures. The department may establish a reasonable schedule for the preparation of any supplemental analyses. The preparation and evaluation of any supplemental analyses shall not result in a delay in remedial actions at the pilot sites. The analyses shall be included in the remedial investigation/feasibility study regardless of whether the department fully concurred in their scope. The department may simultaneously prepare or commission its own supplemental analyses at its own expense, as distinct from department-conducted or department-commissioned or contracted technical review of supplemental analyses prepared by potentially liable persons, which shall remain subject to cost recovery under the model toxics control act.

(3) In consultation with the potentially liable persons and affected public for each site, the department's site managers shall to the fullest extent possible use the administrative principles set forth, for both the clean-up process and for clean-up standards, as well as other flexible tools available in the rules adopted under the model toxics control act.

(4) In order to avoid misunderstanding and promote constructive dialogue, the public participation plan for each site shall be designed or revised to educate and involve the public on the nature of the pilot project, the specific issues being explored at the site, and the purpose and scope of any alternative or supplemental analyses.

(5) The department shall prepare a report on each pilot project highlighting any policy issues raised as a result of the pilot project and providing a copy of the remedial investigation/feasibility study and any supplemental analyses and public comments received for each pilot project to the policy advisory committee. The report shall be submitted to the committee within ninety days after the comment period ends on the remedial investigation/feasibility study for that site. The department shall also keep the committee informed about decisions made regarding the pilot project sites and progress made in implementation of cleanup at these sites. The intent is for the committee to use the information acquired from the pilot projects to supplement other information used in developing policy recommendations under section 2 of this act. The department shall submit a status report to the policy advisory committee no later than March 31, 1996, including an estimated schedule for reporting on each pilot project.

(6) Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent or limit the department from fully employing all procedures and standards available under the model toxics control act or the rules adopted to implement the model toxics control act with respect to any site, whether or not it is being considered as a possible pilot project under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill number, is not provided by June 30, 1995, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act is null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall expire January 15, 1997."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hale: "Senator Spanel, the United States Environmental Protection Agency is developing an unprecedented volume of rules to implement the federal Clean Air Act. Washington, also, has a complex state Clean Air Act, with provisions which may be construed as authority to develop regulations more stringent than, or in advance of, similar federal requirements. Is it the intention of the procedures required by Section 113 to provide a respite, so that federal requirements can be implemented and evaluated before the state imposes burdens sooner than, or more stringent than, the federal regulations?"

Senator Sheldon: "Yes, it is the intent of this section that the Department of Ecology may adopt or amend an air quality regulation that imposes burdens sooner than, or more stringent than, similar federal requirements only after complying with the analysis outlined in this section."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1010, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1010, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; Nays, 10; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Anderson, A., Bauer, Cantu, Deccio, Drew, Finkbeiner, Gaspard, Hale, Hargrove, Haugen, Hochstatter, Johnson, Long, Loveland, McAuliffe, McCaslin, McDonald, Morton, Moyer, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Palmer, Prince, Quigley, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Roach, Schow, Sellar, Sheldon, Smith, Snyder, Strannigan, Swecker, West, Winsley and Wood - 38.

Voting nay: Senators Fairley, Franklin, Fraser, Heavey, Kohl, Pelz, Prentice, Spanel, Sutherland and Wojahn - 10.

Excused: Senator Anderson, C. - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1010, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

(3) A city sealer ~~((shall))~~ may adopt the fee amounts established ~~((by the director pursuant to RCW 19.94.165))~~ under section 6 of this act. However, no city shall adopt or charge an inspection, testing, reinspection, retesting, or licensing fee or any other fee upon a weighing or measuring instrument or device that is in excess of the fee amounts ((adopted under RCW 19.94.165)) established by the department under the provisions of this chapter for substantially similar services.

(4) A city sealer shall keep a complete and accurate record of all official acts performed under the authority of this chapter and shall submit an annual report to the governing body of his or her city and shall make any reports as may be required by the director.

~~((6))~~ (3) With the exception of subsection ~~((7))~~ (4) of this section, no person shall be required to pay more than the established ~~((inspection and testing))~~ annual registration fee adopted under this section for any weighing or measuring instrument or device ~~((in any two-year period))~~ when the same has been found to be correct.

~~((e))~~ The establishment of exemptions from the sealing or marking inspection and testing requirements of RCW 19.94.250 with respect to weighing or measuring instruments or devices of such character or size that such sealing or marking would be inappropriate, impracticable, or damaging to the apparatus in question;

~~((f))~~ (e) The establishment of exemptions from the inspection and testing requirements of RCW 19.94.165 with respect to classes of weighing or measuring instruments or devices found to be of such character that periodic inspection and testing is unnecessary to ensure continued accuracy; and

~~((g))~~ (f) The establishment of inspection and approval techniques, if any, to be used with respect to classes of weighing or measuring instruments or devices that are designed specifically to be used commercially only once and then discarded, or are uniformly mass-produced by means of a mold or die and are not individually adjustable.

(2) These rules shall also include specifications and tolerances for the acceptable range of accuracy required of weighing or measuring instruments or devices and shall be designed to eliminate from use, without prejudice to weighing or measuring instruments or devices that conform as closely as practicable to official specifications and tolerances, those (a) that are of such construction that they are faulty, that is, that are not reasonably permanent in their adjustment or will not repeat their indications correctly, or (b) that facilitate the perpetration of fraud.

(3) Inspect, test, and, if found to be correct, issue a seal of approval for classes of weighing or measuring instruments or devices found to be few in number, highly complex, and of such character that differential inspection and testing frequency is necessary including, but not limited to, railroad track scales and grain elevator scales. The department shall develop rules regarding the inspection and testing procedures to be used for such weighing or measuring instruments or devices which shall include requirements for the provision, maintenance, and transport of any weight or measure standard necessary for inspection and testing at no expense to the state. ~~((The department may collect a reasonable fee, to be set by rule, for inspecting and testing any such weighing and measuring instruments or devices. This fee shall not be unduly burdensome and shall cover, to the extent possible, the direct costs of performing such service.))~~

In lieu of correction, the owner of such weighing and measuring instrument or device may dispose of the same, but only in the manner specifically authorized by the rejecting authority.

(3) Weighing and measuring instruments or devices that have been rejected shall not again be used commercially until they have been ~~((officially))~~ reexamined and ~~((if))~~ found to be correct ~~((, had an official seal of approval placed upon or issued for such weighing or measuring instrument or device by the rejecting authority))~~ by the department, city sealer, or a service agent registered with the department.

(4) If a weighing or measuring instrument or device marked or tagged as rejected is found to be correct by a service agent registered with the department, the agent shall provide a signed certification to the owner or operator of the instrument or device so indicating and shall report to the rejecting authority as provided by rule under RCW 19.94.190(1)(c).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 19.94 RCW to read as follows:

MOTIONS

Senator Hargrove moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the increasing number of inmates incarcerated in state correctional institutions, and the expenses associated with their incarceration, require expanded efforts to contain corrections costs. Cost containment requires improved planning and oversight, and increased accountability and responsibility on the part of both inmates and the department.

The legislature further finds that motivating inmates to participate in meaningful education and work programs in order to learn transferable skills and earn basic privileges is an effective and efficient way to meet the penological objectives of the corrections system.

The purpose of this act is to assist the department in fulfilling its mission, specifically to reduce offender recidivism, to mirror the values of the community by clearly linking inmate behavior to the receipt of privileges, and to prudently manage the resources it receives through the tax dollars of law-abiding citizens. This purpose is accomplished through the implementation of specific cost-control measures and the creation of a planning and oversight process that will improve the department's effectiveness and efficiency.

Sec. 2. RCW 72.09.010 and 1981 c 136 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to establish a comprehensive system of corrections for convicted law violators within the state of Washington to accomplish the following objectives.

(1) The system should ensure the public safety. The system should be designed and managed to provide the maximum feasible safety for the persons and property of the general public, the staff, and the inmates.

(2) The system should punish the offender for violating the laws of the state of Washington. This punishment should generally be limited to the denial of liberty of the offender.

(3) The system should positively impact offenders by stressing personal responsibility and accountability and by discouraging recidivism.

(4) The system should treat all offenders fairly and equitably without regard to race, religion, sex, national origin, residence, or social condition.

~~((4))~~ (5) The system, as much as possible, should reflect the values of the community including:

(a) Avoiding idleness. Idleness is not only wasteful but destructive to the individual and to the community.

(b) Adoption of the work ethic. It is the community expectation that all citizens should work and through their efforts benefit both themselves and the community.

(c) Providing opportunities for self improvement. All individuals should have opportunities to grow and expand their skills and abilities so as to fulfill their role in the community.

(d) ~~(Providing tangible rewards for accomplishment.)~~ Linking the receipt or denial of privileges to responsible behavior and accomplishments. The individual who works to improve himself or herself and the community should be rewarded for these efforts. As a corollary, there should be no rewards for no effort.

(e) Sharing in the obligations of the community. All citizens, the public and inmates alike, have a personal and fiscal obligation in the corrections system. All communities must share in the responsibility of the corrections system.

~~((5))~~ (6) The system should provide for prudent management of resources. The avoidance of unnecessary or inefficient public expenditures on the part of offenders and the department is essential. Offenders must be accountable to the department, and the department must be accountable to the public and the legislature. The human and fiscal resources of the community are limited. The management and use of these resources can be enhanced by wise investment, productive programs, the reduction of duplication and waste, and the joining together of all involved parties in a common endeavor. Since virtually all offenders return to the community, it is wise for the state and the communities to make an investment in effective rehabilitation programs for offenders and the wise use of resources.

~~((6))~~ (7) The system should provide for restitution. Those who have damaged others, persons or property, have a responsibility to make restitution for these damages.

~~((7))~~ (8) The system should be accountable to the citizens of the state. In return, the individual citizens and local units of government must meet their responsibilities to make the corrections system effective.

~~((8))~~ (9) The system should meet those national standards which the state determines to be appropriate.

For purposes of this chapter, "inmate" means any person committed to the custody of the department, including but not limited to persons residing in a correctional institution or facility (~~and~~), persons released on furlough, work release, or community custody, and persons received from another state, state agency, county, or federal jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislature intends that all inmates be required to participate in department-approved education programs, work programs, or both, unless exempted from participation under subsection (2) of this section. Eligible inmates who refuse to participate in available education or work programs shall lose inmate privileges according to the system established under RCW 72.09.130. The legislature recognizes that more inmates may agree to participate in education and work programs than are currently available. Accordingly, the department must give priority to placing inmates in available education and work programs who will be most likely to achieve significant personal and public benefit from the programs, and the department must prioritize available resources to work toward the goal of full participation as soon as possible.

(2) The department shall establish, in rule, objective medical standards to determine when an inmate is physically or mentally unable to participate in available education or work programs. When the department determines that an inmate is permanently unable to participate in any available education or work program due to a medical condition, the inmate is exempt from the requirement of subsection (1) of this section. When the department determines that an inmate is temporarily unable to participate in an education or work program due to a medical condition, the inmate is exempt from the requirement of subsection (1) of this section for the period of time he or she is temporarily disabled. The department shall periodically review the medical conditions of all temporarily disabled inmates to ensure the earliest possible entry or reentry by inmates into available programming.

(3) The department shall establish, in rule, the standards for participation in department-approved education and work programs. The standards shall address the following areas:

(a) Assessment. The department shall assess all inmates for their educational history, basic skills and literacy level, work history, and vocational or work skills. The initial assessment shall be conducted, whenever possible, within the first thirty days of an inmate's entry into the correctional system, except that initial assessments are not required for inmates who are sentenced to life without the possibility of release, assigned to an intensive management unit within the first thirty days after entry into the corrections system, are returning to the corrections system within one year of a prior release, or whose physical or mental condition renders them unable to complete the assessment process. The department shall periodically reassess the basic skills, literacy level, and vocational or work skills of inmates that they are participating in programming appropriate to their level of academic and technical competency.

(b) Placement. The department shall place inmates in appropriate education and work programs utilizing criteria to evaluate an inmate's likelihood of achieving significant benefit from the programming. The placement criteria shall include at least the following factors:

(i) An inmate's release date and custody level;

(ii) An inmate's educational history, basic skills, and literacy level;

(iii) An inmate's work history, and vocational or work skills;

(iv) An inmate's economic circumstances, including but not limited to an inmate's family support obligations; and

(v) Where applicable, an inmate's prior performance in department-approved education or work programs.

(c) Performance and goals. The department shall establish inmate behavior standards and program goals for all education or work programs. Inmates shall be notified of applicable behavior standards and program goals prior to placement in an education or work program and shall be removed from the education or work program if they consistently fail to meet the standards or goals.

(d) Financial responsibility. The department shall establish a formula by which inmates will pay all or a portion of the costs of participating in community college associate of arts degree programs, baccalaureate degree programs, and postbaccalaureate degree programs, including tuition, books, and fees. The formula will consider the inmates' ability to pay and the department's efforts to maintain a cost-efficient level of enrollment in programs for which it contracts with community colleges. When an inmate voluntarily chooses to participate in a postsecondary education program into which he or she has not been placed by the department under (b) of this subsection, the inmate must pay the full tuition costs of the postsecondary education program charged by the community colleges under contract with the department.

(e) An inmate sentenced to life without the possibility of release may participate in education programs, including English as a second language, adult basic education, general equivalency degree, high school diploma, or any associate, baccalaureate, or post-baccalaureate degree, only if he or she pays all tuition costs and fees of the program and only if space is available in the program after all other eligible inmates have been offered the opportunity to participate, except that inmates sentenced to life without the possibility of release who require vocational training to participate in a correctional industries job may participate in the vocational training under the same placement, performance, and financial responsibility standards as other inmates.

(4) The department shall coordinate educational and work programming opportunities among its several institutions, to the greatest extent possible, to facilitate continuity of programming for inmates who are transferred between institutions. Prior to transferring inmates enrolled in programs, the department shall consider the effect the transfer will have on an inmate's ability to continue or complete a program. This subsection shall not be used to delay or prohibit any transfer that is necessary for legitimate safety or security reasons.

(5) Before the construction of any new correctional institution or the expansion of any existing correctional institution, the department shall adopt a plan demonstrating how cable, closed-circuit, and satellite television will be used for educational and training purposes in the institution. The plan shall specify how the use of television in the educational and training programs will improve inmates' preparedness for available correctional industries jobs and job opportunities for which inmates may qualify upon release.

Sec. 6. RCW 72.09.130 and 1981 c 136 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall adopt, in rule, a system (~~providing incentives for good conduct and disincentives for poor conduct~~) that clearly links an inmate's behavior and participation in available education and work programs with the receipt or denial of earned early release days and other privileges. The system (~~may~~) shall include increases or decreases in the degree of liberty granted the inmate within the programs operated by the department, access to or withholding of privileges available within correctional institutions, and recommended increases or decreases in the number of earned early release days that an inmate can earn for good conduct and good performance.

(2) Earned early release days shall be recommended by the department as a form of tangible reward for accomplishment. The system shall be fair, measurable, and understandable to offenders, staff, and the public. At least once in each twelve-month period, the department shall inform the offender in writing as to his or her conduct and performance. This written evaluation shall include reasons for awarding or not awarding recommended earned early release days for good conduct and good performance. ~~((The term "good performance" as used in this section means successfully performing a work, work training, or educational task to levels of expectation as specified in writing by the department. The term "good conduct" as used in this section refers to compliance with department rules.~~ ~~Within one year after July 1, 1981, the department shall adopt, and provide a written description of, the system:))~~ An inmate is not eligible to receive earned early release days during any time in which he or she refuses to participate in an available education or work program into which he or she has been placed by the department pursuant to section 5 of this act.

(3) The department shall provide a ~~(copy of this)~~ written description of the system to each offender in its custody.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

To the greatest extent practical, all inmates shall contribute to the cost of inmate privileges provided by the department. The department shall establish standards by which inmates will pay a significant portion of the department's capital and operating costs of providing all inmate privileges, including but not limited to television cable access, extended family visitation, weight lifting and other recreational sports equipment and supplies, and associated staff supervision costs. Inmate contributions may be in the form of individual user fees assessed against an inmate's institution account, deductions from an inmate's gross wages or gratuities, or inmates' collective contributions to the institutional welfare/betterment fund. The contribution standards shall consider the assets available to inmates, the costs of administrating compliance with the contribution requirements, and shall not be unduly destructive of the work ethic.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall adopt in rule a uniform policy that prohibits receipt or possession of anything that is determined to be contraband. The rule shall provide maximum protection of legitimate penological interests, including prison security and order. The rule shall protect the legitimate interests of the public and inmates in the exchange of ideas. The secretary shall establish a method of reviewing all incoming and outgoing material, consistent with constitutional constraints, for the purpose of confiscating anything determined to be contraband.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The extended family visitation program is a privilege that the department may allow an inmate to participate in only after the superintendent determines an inmate is eligible. All extended family visits must be approved in advance by the superintendent or the superintendent's designee, who may cancel, interrupt, suspend, or terminate any visit for good cause.

(2) The department shall adopt, in rule, standards for participation in the extended family visitation program. The standards shall provide eligible inmates the opportunity, subject to the approval of the superintendent or the superintendent's designee, to maintain relationships with authorized family members, to maintain marriages and relationships that existed prior to incarceration, and to provide an incentive for inmates to maintain positive attitudes and behaviors while incarcerated. The standards shall address at least the following areas:

(a) Eligibility. The eligibility standards for inmates and their proposed visitors shall include at least the following factors for consideration:

(i) An inmate's release date and custody level. An inmate confined in maximum or close custody, in an intensive management unit, or in disciplinary or administrative segregation is not eligible to participate in an extended family visit;

(ii) An inmate's infraction history while incarcerated;

(iii) An inmate's prior criminal offense history;

(iv) The nature of the offense for which the inmate is incarcerated and whether the proposed visitor was a victim of the inmate's offense;

(v) When available, the opinion of a licensed medical practitioner or mental health professional as to the appropriateness of an extended family visit between an inmate and the proposed visitor or visitors;

(vi) The criminal history of the proposed visitor or visitors;

(vii) Where applicable, the conduct of the inmate and the proposed visitor or visitors during prior extended family visits.

(b) Conduct during visits. The department shall establish standards for the conduct of inmates and visitors participating in the extended family visitation program that protect the safety of visitors and preserve the orderly operation of the correctional institution.

Sec. 10. RCW 4.24.130 and 1992 c 30 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person desiring a change of his or her name or that of his or her child or ward, may apply therefor to the district court of the judicial district in which he or she resides, by petition setting forth the reasons for such change; thereupon such court in its discretion may order a change of the name and thenceforth the new name shall be in place of the former.

(2) An offender under the jurisdiction of the department of corrections who applies to change his or her name under subsection (1) of this section shall submit a copy of the application to the department of corrections no less than five days prior to the entry of an order granting the name change. No offender under the jurisdiction of the department of corrections at the time of application shall be granted an order changing his or her name if the court finds that doing so will interfere with legitimate penological goals, except that no order shall be denied when the name change is requested for religious or legitimate cultural reasons or in recognition of marriage or dissolution of marriage. An offender under the jurisdiction of the department of corrections who receives an order changing his or her name shall submit a copy of the order to the department of corrections within five days of the entry of the order. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor.

(3) The district court shall collect the fees authorized by RCW 36.18.010 for filing and recording a name change order, and transmit the fee and the order to the county auditor. The court may collect a reasonable fee to cover the cost of transmitting the order to the county auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The department may require an offender who obtains an order under RCW 4.24.130 changing his or her name to use the name under which he or she was committed to the department during all official communications with department personnel and in all matters relating to the offender's incarceration or community supervision. Violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 12. RCW 72.10.020 and 1989 c 157 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may develop and implement a health services plan for the delivery of health care services to ~~((inmates))~~ offenders in the department's ~~((custody))~~ correctional facilities, at the discretion of the secretary, and in conformity with state and federal law.

(2) In order to discourage the unwarranted use of health care services caused by unnecessary visits to health care providers, offenders shall participate in the costs of their health care services by paying a nominal amount of no less than three dollars per visit, determined by the secretary. Pursuant to the authority granted in RCW 72.01.050(2), the secretary may authorize the superintendent to collect this amount for health care services directly from an offender's institution account. All copayments collected from offenders' institution accounts shall be deposited into the general fund.

(3) Offenders are required to make copayments for health care visits that are offender initiated. Offenders are not required to pay for emergency treatment or for visits initiated by health care staff or treatment of those conditions that constitute a serious health care need.

(4) No offender may be refused any health care service because of indigence.

(5) At no time shall the withdrawal of funds for the payment of a medical service copayment result in reducing an offender's institution account to an amount less than the defined level of indigency as determined by the department. When an offender's institution account contains less money than the defined level of indigency at the time a copayment is assessed, the assessment shall be recorded as an outstanding debt and may be collected from an offender's institution account at any time sufficient funds become available.

Sec. 13. RCW 72.10.010 and 1989 c 157 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The first report prepared by the department shall include, at a minimum, all available information collected during the second half of fiscal year 1996.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 72.10 RCW to read as follows:

Upon entry into the adult correctional system, offenders shall receive an initial medical examination. The department shall prepare a health profile for each offender that includes at least the following information: (1) An identification of the offender's serious medical and dental needs; (2) an evaluation of the offender's capacity for work and recreation; and (3) a financial assessment of the offender's ability to pay for all or a portion of his or her health care services from personal resources or private insurance.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the secretary may enter into contracts with health care practitioners, health care facilities, and other entities or agents as may be necessary to provide basic medical care to inmates. The contracts shall not cause the termination of classified employees of the department rendering the services at the time the contract is executed.

(2) In contracting for services, the secretary is authorized to provide for indemnification of health care practitioners who cannot obtain professional liability insurance through reasonable effort, from liability on any action, claim, or proceeding instituted against them arising out of the good faith performance or failure of performance of services on behalf of the department. The contracts may provide that for the purposes of chapter 4.92 RCW only, those health care practitioners with whom the department has contracted shall be considered state employees. The Washington state health care authority shall contract with a private research company to conduct a review of corrections health services to determine if certain components of the health services system such as dental care, eye care, or laboratory work, could be provided more efficiently by contracting out for the services. The review shall be submitted to the legislature by December 1, 1996. The decision to implement any recommendations made in the report regarding contracting out any or all components of the health services system shall be made by the legislature and not by the secretary.

Sec. 18. RCW 9.94A.137 and 1993 c 338 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) An offender is eligible to be sentenced to a work ethic camp if the offender:

~~((a))~~ (i) Is sentenced to a term of total confinement of not less than ~~((twenty-two))~~ sixteen months or more than thirty-six months;

~~((b))~~ (ii) Is ~~((between the ages of))~~ eighteen ~~((and twenty-eight))~~ years of age or older; and

~~((c))~~ (iii) Has no current or prior convictions for any sex offenses or for violent offenses other than drug offenses for manufacturing, possession, delivery, or intent to deliver a controlled substance.

(b) An offender is not eligible to participate in the work ethic camp if the offender is found, at any time, to be an illegal alien or the subject of a hard detainer or deportation order. Any offender who is found to be an illegal alien or becomes the subject of a hard detainer or deportation order after being sentenced to or beginning the work ethic camp shall be immediately removed from the work ethic camp program.

(c) The length of the work ethic camp program shall be at least one hundred twenty days and not more than one hundred eighty days. Because of the conversion ratio, earned early release time shall not accrue to offenders who successfully complete the program.

(2) If the sentencing judge determines that the offender is eligible for the work ethic camp and is likely to qualify under subsection (3) of this section, the judge shall impose a sentence within the standard range and may recommend that the offender serve the sentence at a work ethic camp. The sentence shall provide that if the offender successfully completes the program, the department shall convert the period of work ethic camp confinement at the rate of one day of work ethic camp confinement to three days of total standard confinement. ~~((The court shall also provide that upon completion of the work ethic camp program, the offender shall be released on community custody for any remaining time of total confinement.))~~ In sentencing an offender to the work ethic camp, the court shall specify: (i) That upon completion of the work ethic camp program, the offender shall be released on community custody for any remaining time of total confinement; (ii) the applicable conditions of supervision on community custody status as authorized by RCW 9.94A.120(8)(b) and (c); and (iii) which conditions, if violated, may result in a return to total confinement for the balance of the offender's remaining time of confinement. The department may identify offenders who are eligible for the work ethic camp and, with concurrence from the sentencing judge, may refer the offender to the work ethic camp and adjust time served and community custody requirements as prescribed in this section.

(3) The department shall place the offender in the work ethic camp program, subject to capacity, unless (a) the department determines that the offender has physical or mental impairments that would prevent participation and completion of the program, (b) the department determines that the offender's custody level prevents placement in the program, or (c) the offender refuses to agree to the terms and conditions of the program.

~~((4))~~ (5) An (inmate) offender who fails to complete the work ethic camp program, who is administratively terminated from the program, or who otherwise violates any conditions of supervision, as defined by the department, shall be reclassified to serve the unexpired term of his or her sentence as ordered by the sentencing judge and shall be subject to all rules relating to earned early release time.

~~((5) The length of the work ethic camp program shall be at least one hundred twenty days and not more than one hundred eighty days. Because of the conversion ratio, earned early release time shall not accrue to offenders who successfully complete the program.))~~

(6) During the last two weeks prior to release from the work ethic camp program the department shall provide the offender with comprehensive transition training.

Sec. 19. RCW 9.94A.120 and 1994 c 1 s 2 (Initiative Measure No. 593) and 1993 c 31 s 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (4), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) A persistent offender shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement for life without the possibility of parole or, when authorized by RCW 10.95.030 for the crime of aggravated murder in the first degree, sentenced to death, notwithstanding the maximum sentence under any other law. An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree or assault of a child in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section. In addition, all offenders subject to the provisions of this subsection shall not be eligible for community custody, earned early release time, furlough, home detention, partial confinement, work crew, work release, or any other form of early release as defined under RCW 9.94A.150 (1), (2), (3), (5), (7), or (8), or any other form of authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility while not in the direct custody of a corrections officer or officers during such minimum terms of total confinement except in the case of an offender in need of emergency medical treatment or for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility in the case of an offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030 and/or perform community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7)(a)(i) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following: The defendant's version of the facts and the official version of the facts, the defendant's offense history, an assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors, the offender's social and employment situation, and other evaluation measures used. The report shall set forth the sources of the evaluator's information.

The examiner shall assess and report regarding the defendant's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

- (A) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;
- (B) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;
- (C) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;
- (D) Anticipated length of treatment; and
- (E) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The evaluator shall be selected by the party making the motion. The defendant shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost.

(ii) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this subsection. If the court determines that this special sex offender sentencing alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range. If this sentence is less than eight years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension:

(A) The court shall place the defendant on community supervision for the length of the suspended sentence or three years, whichever is greater; and

(B) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court in its discretion shall order outpatient sex offender treatment or inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court, and shall not change providers without court approval after a hearing if the prosecutor or community corrections officer object to the change. In addition, as conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (I) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (II) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (III) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (IV) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030, perform community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (V) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

(iii) The sex offender therapist shall submit quarterly reports on the defendant's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, defendant's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the defendant's relative progress in treatment, and any other material as specified by the court at sentencing.

(iv) At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment. Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment professional and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the defendant's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community supervision conditions. Either party may request and the court may order another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The defendant shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may:

- (A) Modify conditions of community supervision, and either
- (B) terminate treatment, or
- (C) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community supervision.

(v) The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community supervision and order execution of the sentence if: (A) The defendant violates the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (B) the court finds that the defendant is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(vi) Except as provided in (a)(vii) of this subsection, after July 1, 1991, examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW.

(vii) A sex offender therapist who examines or treats a sex offender pursuant to this subsection (7) does not have to be certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW if the court finds that: (A) The offender has already moved to another state or plans to move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; (B) no certified providers are available for treatment within a reasonable geographical distance of the offender's home; and (C) the evaluation and treatment plan comply with this subsection (7) and the rules adopted by the department of health.

For purposes of this subsection, "victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. "Victim" also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sex offense committed before July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of social and health services for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment program at the location determined by the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court. The sentencing court shall commit the offender to the department of corrections to serve the balance of the term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of the term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of the community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

After June 30, 1993, this subsection (b) shall cease to have effect.

(c) When an offender commits any felony sex offense on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

Except for an offender who has been convicted of a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or 9A.44.050, if the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his or her term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his or her community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his or her community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (c) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987. This subsection (c) does not apply to any crime committed after July 1, 1990.

(d) Offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987, may, subject to available funds, request an evaluation by the department of corrections to determine whether they are amenable to treatment. If the offender is determined to be amenable to treatment, the offender may request placement in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department. Placement in such treatment program is subject to available funds.

(8)(a) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense or a serious violent offense committed after July 1, 1988, but before July 1, 1990, assault in the second degree, assault of a child in the second degree, any crime against a person where it is determined in accordance with RCW 9.94A.125 that the defendant or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of commission, or any felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW, committed on or after July 1, 1988, the court shall in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to a one-year term of community placement beginning either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of such community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence.

(b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense or serious violent offense committed on or after July 1, 1990, the court shall in addition to other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community placement for two years or up to the period of earned early release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community placement shall begin either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned early release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of the community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence. Unless a condition is waived by the court, the terms of community placement for offenders sentenced pursuant to this section shall include the following conditions:

(i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;

(ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service;

(iii) The offender shall not consume controlled substances except pursuant to lawfully issued prescriptions;

(iv) An offender in community custody shall not unlawfully possess controlled substances;

(v) The offender shall pay supervision fees as determined by the department of corrections; and

(vi) The residence location and living arrangements are subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections during the period of community placement.

(c) The court may also order any of the following special conditions:

(i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary;

(ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime or a specified class of individuals;

(iii) The offender shall participate in crime-related treatment or counseling services;

(iv) The offender shall not consume alcohol; or

(v) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions.

(d) As a part of any sentence providing for conversion from total confinement to community custody pursuant to RCW 9.94A.137(2) after successful completion of a work ethic camp program, the court shall impose and enforce the conditions enumerated in (b) of this subsection and may order any of the special conditions enumerated in (c) of this subsection, including a prohibition against new felony convictions. The court shall specify which of the conditions, if violated, may result in a return to total confinement for the balance of the offender's remaining term of confinement.

(e) Prior to transfer to, or during, community placement, any conditions of community placement may be removed or modified so as not to be more restrictive by the sentencing court, upon recommendation of the department of corrections.

(9) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(10) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial obligation, the sentence shall specify the total amount of the legal financial obligation owed, and shall require the offender to pay a specified monthly sum toward that legal financial obligation. Restitution to victims shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations. Any legal financial obligation that is imposed by the court may be collected by the department, which shall deliver the amount paid to the county clerk for credit. The offender's compliance with payment of legal financial obligations shall be supervised by the department. All monetary payments ordered shall be paid no later than ten years after the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction or the date the sentence was entered. Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation. Nothing in this section makes the department, the state, or any of its employees, agents, or other persons acting on their behalf liable under any circumstances for the payment of these legal financial obligations. If an order includes restitution as one of the monetary assessments, the county clerk shall make disbursements to victims named in the order.

(11) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1) and 9.94A.142(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision or community placement which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(12) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, community placement, or legal financial obligation shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department of corrections or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow explicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment, and paying the supervision fee assessment. The department may require offenders to pay for special services rendered on or after July 25, 1993, including electronic monitoring, day reporting, and telephone reporting, dependent upon the offender's ability to pay. The department may pay for these services for offenders who are not able to pay.

(13) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, or community placement under the supervision of the department of corrections shall not own, use, or possess firearms or ammunition. Offenders who own, use, or are found to be in actual or constructive possession of firearms or ammunition shall be subject to the appropriate violation process and sanctions. "Constructive possession" as used in this subsection means the power and intent to control the firearm or ammunition. "Firearm" as used in this subsection means a weapon or device from which a projectile may be fired by an explosive such as gunpowder.

(14) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(15) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400 (1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210 (2) through (6).

(16) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

(17) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce an order that relates directly to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, prohibiting the offender from having any contact with other specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision or community placement.

(18) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the defendant to serve the partial confinement in work release, in a program of home detention, on work crew, or in a combined program of work crew and home detention.

(19) All court-ordered legal financial obligations collected by the department and remitted to the county clerk shall be credited and paid where restitution is ordered. Restitution shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall establish an illegal alien offender transition camp and be ready to assign inmates to the camp no later than July 1, 1996. The secretary shall locate the illegal alien offender transition camp within an already existing department compound or facility.

(2) The department shall develop all aspects of the illegal alien offender transition camp program including, but not limited to, residential arrangements, program standards, conduct standards, individual and team work goals, and measures to hold the offender accountable for his or her behavior. The secretary shall define successful completion of the program, based on successful attendance, participation, and performance. The illegal alien offender transition camp shall be designed and implemented so that offenders are engaged in work activities and unstructured time is kept to a minimum. The standards for work performance, physical work activities, and offenders' rights and responsibilities shall be equivalent to those of the work ethic camp for general inmates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) An offender is eligible to be sentenced to an illegal alien offender transition camp if the offender:

(a) Is an illegal alien who can be released to the United States immigration and naturalization service for deportation at the time of the offender's release from the camp;

(b) Is sentenced to a term of total confinement of not less than sixteen or more than thirty-six months;

(c) Is eighteen years of age or older;

(d) Has no current or prior convictions for any sex offenses or violent offenses other than drug offenses for manufacturing, possession, delivery, or intent to deliver a controlled substance; and

(e) Agrees in writing as required by subsection (5) of this section to the terms and conditions for participation.

(2) The length of the illegal alien offender transition camp program shall be at least one hundred twenty days and not more than one hundred eighty days.

(3) If the sentencing judge determines that an offender is potentially eligible for the illegal alien offender transition camp and is likely to meet the requirements of subsection (6) of this section, the judge shall impose a sentence of total standard confinement within the standard range and shall recommend that the offender serve the sentence at an illegal alien offender transition camp. The sentence shall provide that the offender shall serve one day in the transition camp for every three days of total standard confinement. In sentencing an offender to the illegal alien offender transition camp, the court shall specify that: (a) Upon completion of the illegal alien offender transition camp program, the offender shall be released within ten days to the custody of the immigration and naturalization service to be deported to his or her native country; and (b) in the event an offender cannot be released to the custody of the immigration and naturalization service within ten days, the department may detain the offender in the illegal alien offender transition camp for up to sixty days.

(4) The department may identify offenders under its jurisdiction who are or become eligible for the illegal alien offender transition camp and, with concurrence from the sentencing judge and the prosecuting attorney, may refer the offenders to the illegal alien offender transition camp and adjust time served as prescribed in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) The department shall notify the immigration and naturalization service of all suspected illegal alien offenders under its jurisdiction and request that the immigration and naturalization service begin deportation proceedings as expeditiously as possible. The department, in cooperation with the immigration and naturalization service, shall seek accelerated hearings for all suspected illegal aliens under its jurisdiction to facilitate their removal from the country upon their release by the department as soon as possible.

(6) An illegal alien offender who meets the eligibility requirements of subsection (1)(a) through (d) of this section shall be informed by the sentencing court or the department of his or her potential for participating in the illegal alien offender transition camp. The terms and conditions of the illegal alien offender transition camp shall be provided to the illegal alien offender, both verbally and in writing, in his or her native language. An illegal alien offender must agree in writing to the terms and conditions of the illegal alien offender transition camp at the time of sentencing or at the time of transfer to the camp.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The legislature finds that the responsibility for criminal activity should fall squarely on the criminal. To the greatest extent possible society should not be expected to have to pay the price for crimes twice, once for the criminal activity and again by feeding, clothing, and housing the criminal. The corrections system should be the first place criminals are given the opportunity to be responsible for paying for their criminal act, not just through the loss of their personal freedom, but by making financial contributions to alleviate the pain and suffering of victims of crime.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

Each year the department shall transfer twenty-five percent of the total annual revenues and receipts received in each institutional betterment fund subaccount to the department of labor and industries for the purpose of providing direct benefits to crime victims through the crime victims' compensation program as outlined in chapter 7.68 RCW. This transfer takes priority over any expenditure of betterment funds and shall be reflected on the monthly financial statements of each institution's betterment fund subaccount.

Any funds so transferred to the department of labor and industries shall be in addition to the crime victims' compensation amount provided in an omnibus appropriation bill. It is the intent of the legislature that the funds forecasted or transferred pursuant to this section shall not reduce the funding levels provided by appropriation.

Sec. 26. RCW 7.68.090 and 1973 1st ex.s. c 122 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall establish such fund or funds, separate from existing funds, necessary to administer this chapter, and payment to these funds shall be from legislative appropriation, statutory provision, reimbursement and subrogation as provided in this chapter, and from any contributions or grants specifically so directed.

Sec. 27. RCW 43.17.200 and 1983 c 204 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

All state agencies including all state departments, boards, councils, commissions, and quasi public corporations shall allocate, as a nondeductible item, out of any moneys appropriated for the original construction of any public building, an amount of one-half of one percent of the appropriation to be expended by the Washington state arts commission for the acquisition of works of art created by Washington state artists. The works of art may be placed on public lands, integral to or attached to a public building or structure, detached within or outside a public building or structure, part of a portable exhibition or collection, part of a temporary exhibition, or loaned or exhibited in other public facilities. In addition to the cost of the works of art the one-half of one percent of the appropriation as provided herein shall be used to provide for the administration of the visual arts program by the Washington state arts commission and all costs for installation of the works of art. For the purpose of this section building shall not include highway construction sheds, warehouses, or other buildings of a temporary nature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The department of corrections shall conduct the following reviews and prepare the following reports:

The secretary shall submit a report on the secretary's progress to the legislature and the joint committee on corrections cost-efficiencies oversight by December 1, 1995.

(3) The secretary shall review current perimeter security technologies and designs that could minimize or eliminate the need for staffed perimeter guard towers at medium and maximum custody correctional institutions. Upon completion of the review, the secretary shall submit a report to the legislature and the joint committee on corrections cost-efficiencies oversight on the secretary's findings and recommendations by December 1, 1995.

The review shall include at least the following: (a) A fiscal analysis of the capital and operating costs of implementing a twelve-hour scheduled rotation where each prison cell and bed could be used by multiple inmates; and (b) an analysis of how the department would address safety issues that might arise from a rotation system that increases the amount of time inmates would spend out of their cells. ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1305, by Representatives Johnson, Sheldon, Reams, Mastin, L. Thomas and Basich

Revising restrictions on growth outside of urban growth areas.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Haugen moved that the following Committee on Government Operations amendment not be adopted:

(1) Each county that is required or chooses to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 shall designate an urban growth area or areas within which urban growth shall be encouraged and outside of which growth can occur only if it is not urban in nature. Each city that is located in such a county shall be included within an urban growth area. An urban growth area may include more than a single city. An urban growth area may include territory that is located outside of a city only if such territory already is characterized by urban growth whether or not the urban growth area includes a city, or is adjacent to territory already characterized by urban growth, or is a designated fully contained community as defined by RCW 36.70A.350.

(2) Based upon the ~~((population))~~ growth management ~~((planning))~~ population projection made for the county by the office of financial management, the urban growth areas in the county shall include areas and densities sufficient to ~~((permit))~~ allow for the urban growth that is projected to occur in the county for the succeeding twenty-year period. Each urban growth area shall permit a range of urban densities and shall include greenbelt and open space areas. Local circumstances, traditions, and identity will result in unique choices and solutions by each county and each city within it. Accordingly, cities and counties enjoy broad discretion in their comprehensive plans to make many specific choices about how growth is to be accommodated. These choices include the specific location of particular land uses and development intensities, community character and design, spending priorities, level of service standards, financing mechanisms, and site development standards. While such policy choices may be included in the sizing or configuration of the urban growth area, they must be made in a measurable way and with sufficient documentation as to the rationale. While objective analysis is essential, counties and cities also have the latitude to consider subjective factors, such as a land supply market factor and the preferred vision that each county and city expresses in its comprehensive plan. The explicit articulation and balancing of these factors is required when designating urban growth areas.

Within one year of July 1, 1990, each county that as of June 1, 1991, was required or chose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040, shall begin consulting with each city located within its boundaries and each city shall propose the location of an urban growth area. Within sixty days of the date the county legislative authority of a county adopts its resolution of intention or of certification by the office of financial management, all other counties that are required or choose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 shall begin this consultation with each city located within its boundaries. The county shall attempt to reach agreement with each city on the location of an urban growth area within which the city is located. If such an agreement is not reached with each city located within the urban growth area, the county shall justify in writing why it so designated the area an urban growth area. A city may object formally with the department over the designation of the urban growth area within which it is located. Where appropriate, the department shall attempt to resolve the conflicts, including the use of mediation services.

(3) Urban growth should be located first in areas already characterized by urban growth that have adequate existing public facility and service capacities to serve such development, ~~((and))~~ second in areas already characterized by urban growth that will be served adequately by a combination of both existing public facilities and services and any additional needed public facilities and services that are provided by either public or private sources, and third in areas adjacent to territory already characterized by urban growth that will be served adequately by a combination of both existing public facilities and services and any additional needed public facilities and services that are provided by either public or private sources. Urban growth may also be located in designated fully contained communities as defined by RCW 36.70A.350. Further, in general it is appropriate that urban ~~((government))~~ governmental services be primarily provided by cities, and urban ~~((government))~~ governmental services should not be ~~((provided))~~ extended to or expanded in rural areas except in those limited circumstances shown to be necessary to protect basic public health and safety and the environment and when such services are financially supportable at rural densities and do not permit urban development.

(4) On or before October 1, 1993, each county that was initially required to plan under RCW 36.70A.040(1) shall adopt development regulations designating interim urban growth areas under this chapter. Within three years and three months of the date the county legislative authority of a county adopts its resolution of intention or of certification by the office of financial management, all other counties that are required or choose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 shall adopt development regulations designating interim urban growth areas under this chapter. Adoption of the interim urban growth areas may only occur after public notice; public hearing; and compliance with the state environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW, and RCW 36.70A.110. Such action may be appealed to the appropriate growth management hearings board under RCW 36.70A.280. Final urban growth areas shall be adopted at the time of comprehensive plan adoption under this chapter.

(5) Each county shall include designations of urban growth areas in its comprehensive plan.

(6) Nothing in this chapter shall prevent a county with a population greater than one million from including as part of the urban growth area established under this section any master planned development or fully contained community which prior to July 1, 1990, both: (a) Was designated or zoned potentially for urban growth activity under an officially adopted county plan; and (b) had a development application submitted to the county implementing that urban designation.

Sec. 2. RCW 36.70A.070 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 17 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive plan of a county or city that is required or chooses to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 shall consist of a map or maps, and descriptive text covering objectives, principles, and standards used to develop the comprehensive plan. The plan shall be an internally consistent document and all elements shall be consistent with the future land use map. A comprehensive plan shall be adopted and amended with public participation as provided in RCW 36.70A.140.

Each comprehensive plan shall include a plan, scheme, or design for each of the following:

(1) A land use element designating the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of land, where appropriate, for agriculture, timber production, housing, commerce, industry, recreation, open spaces, public utilities, public facilities, and other land uses. The land use element shall include population densities, building intensities, and estimates of future population growth. The land use element shall provide for protection of the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies. Where applicable, the land use element shall review drainage, flooding, and storm water run-off in the area and nearby jurisdictions and provide guidance for corrective actions to mitigate or cleanse those discharges that pollute waters of the state, including Puget Sound or waters entering Puget Sound.

(2) A housing element recognizing the vitality and character of established residential neighborhoods that: (a) Includes an inventory and analysis of existing and projected housing needs; (b) includes a statement of goals, policies, and objectives for the preservation, improvement, and development of housing; (c) identifies sufficient land for housing, including, but not limited to, government-assisted housing, housing for low-income families, manufactured housing, multifamily housing, and group homes and foster care facilities; and (d) makes adequate provisions for existing and projected needs of all economic segments of the community.

(3) A capital facilities plan element consisting of: (a) An inventory of existing capital facilities owned by public entities, showing the locations and capacities of the capital facilities; (b) a forecast of the future needs for such capital facilities; (c) the proposed locations and capacities of expanded or new capital facilities; (d) at least a six-year plan that will finance such capital facilities within projected funding capacities and clearly identifies sources of public money for such purposes; and (e) a requirement to reassess the land use element if probable funding falls short of meeting existing needs and to ensure that the land use element, capital facilities plan element, and financing plan within the capital facilities plan element are coordinated and consistent.

(4) A utilities element consisting of the general location, proposed location, and capacity of all existing and proposed utilities, including, but not limited to, electrical lines, telecommunication lines, and natural gas lines.

(5) Counties shall include a rural element including lands that are not designated for urban growth, agriculture, forest, or mineral resources. The rural element shall permit appropriate land uses that are compatible with the rural character of such lands and provide for a variety of rural densities and uses and may also provide for clustering, density transfer, design guidelines, conservation easements, and other innovative techniques that will accommodate appropriate rural uses.

(6) A transportation element that implements, and is consistent with, the land use element. The transportation element shall include the following subelements:

(a) Land use assumptions used in estimating travel;

(b) Facilities and services needs, including:

(i) An inventory of air, water, and land transportation facilities and services, including transit alignments, to define existing capital facilities and travel levels as a basis for future planning;

(ii) Level of service standards for all arterials and transit routes to serve as a gauge to judge performance of the system. These standards should be regionally coordinated;

(iii) Specific actions and requirements for bringing into compliance any facilities or services that are below an established level of service standard;

(iv) Forecasts of traffic for at least ten years based on the adopted land use plan to provide information on the location, timing, and capacity needs of future growth;

(v) Identification of system expansion needs and transportation system management needs to meet current and future demands;

(c) Finance, including:

(i) An analysis of funding capability to judge needs against probable funding resources;

(ii) A multiyear financing plan based on the needs identified in the comprehensive plan, the appropriate parts of which shall serve as the basis for the six-year street, road, or transit program required by RCW 35.77.010 for cities, RCW 36.81.121 for counties, and RCW 35.58.2795 for public transportation systems;

(iii) If probable funding falls short of meeting identified needs, a discussion of how additional funding will be raised, or how land use assumptions will be reassessed to ensure that level of service standards will be met;

(d) Intergovernmental coordination efforts, including an assessment of the impacts of the transportation plan and land use assumptions on the transportation systems of adjacent jurisdictions;

(e) Demand-management strategies.

After adoption of the comprehensive plan by jurisdictions required to plan or who choose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040, local jurisdictions must adopt and enforce ordinances which prohibit development approval if the development causes the level of service on a transportation facility to decline below the standards adopted in the transportation element of the comprehensive plan, unless transportation improvements or strategies to accommodate the impacts of development are made concurrent with the development. These strategies may include increased public transportation service, ride sharing programs, demand management, and other transportation systems management strategies. For the purposes of this subsection (6) "concurrent with the development" shall mean that improvements or strategies are in place at the time of development, or that a financial commitment is in place to complete the improvements or strategies within six years.

The transportation element described in this subsection, and the six-year plans required by RCW 35.77.010 for cities, RCW 36.81.121 for counties, and RCW 35.58.2795 for public transportation systems, must be consistent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No comprehensive plan adopted or amended before the effective date of this act may be considered to be in noncompliance with RCW 36.70A.070 or 36.70A.110, as in effect before their amendment by this act, if the comprehensive plan is in compliance with RCW 36.70A.070 and 36.70A.110 as amended by this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Haugen that the Committee on Government Operations striking amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 1305 not be adopted.

The motion by Senator Haugen carried and the committee striking amendment was not adopted.

"Sec. 1. RCW 36.70A.040 and 1993 sp.s. c 6 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each county that has both a population of fifty thousand or more and, until the effective date of this section, has had its population increase by more than ten percent in the previous ten years or, on or after the effective date of this section, has had its population increase by more than seventeen percent in the previous ten years, and the cities located within such county, and any other county regardless of its population that has had its population increase by more than twenty percent in the previous ten years, and the cities located within such county, shall conform with all of the requirements of this chapter. However, the county legislative authority of such a county with a population of less than fifty thousand population may adopt a resolution removing the county, and the cities located within the county, from the requirements of adopting comprehensive land use plans and development regulations under this chapter if this resolution is adopted and filed with the department by December 31, 1990, for counties initially meeting this set of criteria, or within sixty days of the date the office of financial management certifies that a county meets this set of criteria under subsection (5) of this section.

Once a county meets either of these sets of criteria, the requirement to conform with all of the requirements of this chapter remains in effect, even if the county no longer meets one of these sets of criteria.

(2) The county legislative authority of any county that does not meet either of the sets of criteria established under subsection (1) of this section may adopt a resolution indicating its intention to have subsection (1) of this section apply to the county. Each city, located in a county that chooses to plan under this subsection, shall conform with all of the requirements of this chapter. Once such a resolution has been adopted, the county and the cities located within the county remain subject to all of the requirements of this chapter.

(3) Any county or city that is initially required to conform with all of the requirements of this chapter under subsection (1) of this section shall take actions under this chapter as follows: (a) The county legislative authority shall adopt a county-wide planning policy under RCW 36.70A.210; (b) the county and each city located within the county shall designate critical areas, agricultural lands, forest lands, and mineral resource lands, and adopt development regulations conserving these designated agricultural lands, forest lands, and mineral resource lands and protecting these designated critical areas, under RCW 36.70A.170 and 36.70A.060; (c) the county shall designate and take other actions related to urban growth areas under RCW 36.70A.110; (d) if the county has a population of fifty thousand or more, the county and each city located within the county shall adopt a comprehensive plan under this chapter and development regulations that are consistent with and implement the comprehensive plan on or before July 1, 1994, and if the county has a population of less than fifty thousand, the county and each city located within the county shall adopt a comprehensive plan under this chapter and development regulations that are consistent with and implement the comprehensive plan by January 1, 1995, but if the governor makes written findings that a county with a population of less than fifty thousand or a city located within such a county is not making reasonable progress toward adopting a comprehensive plan and development regulations the governor may reduce this deadline for such actions to be taken by no more than one hundred eighty days. Any county or city subject to this subsection may obtain an additional six months before it is required to have adopted its development regulations by submitting a letter notifying the department of community, trade, and economic development of its need prior to the deadline for adopting both a comprehensive plan and development regulations.

(4) Any county or city that is required to conform with all the requirements of this chapter, as a result of the county legislative authority adopting its resolution of intention under subsection (2) of this section, shall take actions under this chapter as follows: (a) The county legislative authority shall adopt a county-wide planning policy under RCW 36.70A.210; (b) the county and each city that is located within the county shall adopt development regulations conserving agricultural lands, forest lands, and mineral resource lands it designated under RCW 36.70A.060 within one year of the date the county legislative authority adopts its resolution of intention; (c) the county shall designate and take other actions related to urban growth areas under RCW 36.70A.110; and (d) the county and each city that is located within the county shall adopt a comprehensive plan and development regulations that are consistent with and implement the comprehensive plan not later than four years from the date the county legislative authority adopts its resolution of intention, but a county or city may obtain an additional six months before it is required to have adopted its development regulations by submitting a letter notifying the department of community, trade, and economic development of its need prior to the deadline for adopting both a comprehensive plan and development regulations.

(5) If the office of financial management certifies that the population of a county that previously had not been required to plan under subsection (1) or (2) of this section has changed sufficiently to meet either of the sets of criteria specified under subsection (1) of this section, and where applicable, the county legislative authority has not adopted a resolution removing the county from these requirements as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the county and each city within such county shall take actions under this chapter as follows: (a) The county legislative authority shall adopt a county-wide planning policy under RCW 36.70A.210; (b) the county and each city located within the county shall adopt development regulations under RCW 36.70A.060 conserving agricultural lands, forest lands, and mineral resource lands it designated within one year of the certification by the office of financial management; (c) the county shall designate and take other actions related to urban growth areas under RCW 36.70A.110; and (d) the county and each city located within the county shall adopt a comprehensive land use plan and development regulations that are consistent with and implement the comprehensive plan within four years of the certification by the office of financial management, but a county or city may obtain an additional six months before it is required to have adopted its development regulations by submitting a letter notifying the department of community, trade, and economic development of its need prior to the deadline for adopting both a comprehensive plan and development regulations.

Sec. 2. RCW 11.88.040 and 1991 c 289 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Before appointing a guardian or a limited guardian, notice of a hearing, to be held not less than ten days after service thereof, shall be served personally ~~((to))~~ upon the alleged incapacitated person, if over fourteen years of age, and served upon the guardian ad litem.

Before appointing a guardian or a limited guardian, notice of a hearing, to be held not less than ten days after service thereof, shall be given by registered or certified mail to the last known address requesting a return receipt signed by the addressee or an agent appointed by the addressee, or by personal service in the manner provided for services of summons, to the following:

(1) The alleged incapacitated person, or minor, if under fourteen years of age;

(2) A parent, if the alleged incapacitated person is a minor, all known children not residing with a notified person, and the spouse of the alleged incapacitated person if any;

(3) Any other person who has been appointed as guardian or limited guardian, or the person with whom the alleged incapacitated person resides. No notice need be given to those persons named in subsections (2) and (3) of this section if they have signed the petition for the appointment of the guardian or limited guardian or have waived notice of the hearing.

(4) If the petition is by a parent asking for appointment as guardian or limited guardian of a minor child under the age of fourteen years, or if the petition is accompanied by the written consent of a minor of the age of fourteen years or upward, who consents to the appointment of the guardian or limited guardian asked for, or if the petition is by a nonresident guardian of any minor or incapacitated person, then the court may appoint the guardian without notice of the hearing. The court for good cause may reduce the number of days of notice, but in every case, at least three days notice shall be given.

The alleged incapacitated person shall be present in court at the final hearing on the petition: PROVIDED, That this requirement may be waived at the discretion of the court for good cause other than mere inconvenience shown in the report to be provided by the guardian ad litem pursuant to RCW 11.88.090 as now or hereafter amended, or if no guardian ad litem is required to be appointed pursuant to RCW 11.88.090, as now or hereafter amended, at the discretion of the court for good cause shown by a party. Alternatively, the court may remove itself to the place of residence of the alleged incapacitated person and conduct the final hearing in the presence of the alleged incapacitated person. Final hearings on the petition may be held in closed court without admittance of any person other than those necessary to the action or proceeding.

If presence of the alleged incapacitated person is waived and the court does not remove itself to the place of residence of such person, the guardian ad litem shall appear in person at the final hearing on the petition.

Sec. 3. RCW 11.88.045 and 1991 c 289 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) Alleged incapacitated individuals shall have the right to be represented by counsel at any stage in guardianship proceedings. The court shall provide counsel to represent any alleged incapacitated person at public expense when either: (i) The individual is unable to afford counsel, or (ii) the expense of counsel would result in substantial hardship to the individual, or (iii) the individual does not have practical access to funds with which to pay counsel. If the individual can afford counsel but lacks practical access to funds, the court shall provide counsel and may impose a reimbursement requirement as part of a final order. When, in the opinion of the court, the rights and interests of an alleged or adjudicated incapacitated person cannot otherwise be adequately protected and represented, the court on its own motion shall appoint an attorney at any time to represent such person. Counsel shall be provided as soon as practicable after a petition is filed and long enough before any final hearing to allow adequate time for consultation and preparation. Absent a convincing showing in the record to the contrary, a period of less than three weeks shall be presumed by a reviewing court to be inadequate time for consultation and preparation.

(b) Counsel for an alleged incapacitated individual shall act as an advocate for the client and shall not substitute counsel's own judgment for that of the client on the subject of what may be in the client's best interests. Counsel's role shall be distinct from that of the guardian ad litem, who is expected to promote the best interest of the alleged incapacitated individual, rather than the alleged incapacitated individual's expressed preferences.

(c) If an alleged incapacitated person is represented by counsel and does not communicate with counsel, counsel may ask the court for leave to withdraw for that reason. If satisfied, after affording the alleged incapacitated person an opportunity for a hearing, that the request is justified, the court may grant the request and allow the case to proceed with the alleged incapacitated person unrepresented.

(2) During the pendency of any guardianship, any attorney purporting to represent a person alleged or adjudicated to be incapacitated shall petition to be appointed to represent the incapacitated or alleged incapacitated person. Fees for representation described in this section shall be subject to approval by the court pursuant to the provisions of RCW 11.92.180.

(3) The alleged incapacitated person is further entitled upon request to a jury trial on the issues of his or her alleged incapacity. The standard of proof to be applied in a contested case, whether before a jury or the court, shall be that of clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.

(4) In all proceedings for appointment of a guardian or limited guardian, the court must be presented with a written report from a physician licensed to practice under chapter 18.71 or 18.57 RCW or licensed or certified psychologist selected by the guardian ad litem. The physician or psychologist shall have personally examined and interviewed the alleged incapacitated person within thirty days of preparation of the report to the court and shall have expertise in the type of disorder or incapacity the alleged incapacitated person is believed to have. The report shall contain the following information and shall be set forth in substantially the following format:

- (a) The name and address of the examining physician or psychologist;
- (b) The education and experience of the physician or psychologist pertinent to the case;
- (c) The dates of examinations of the alleged incapacitated person;
- (d) A summary of the relevant medical, functional, neurological, psychological, or psychiatric history of the alleged incapacitated person as known to the examining physician or psychologist;
- (e) The findings of the examining physician or psychologist as to the condition of the alleged incapacitated person;
- (f) Current medications;
- (g) The effect of current medications on the alleged incapacitated person's ability to understand or participate in guardianship proceedings;

(h) Opinions on the specific assistance the alleged incapacitated person needs;

(i) Identification of persons with whom the physician or psychologist has met or spoken regarding the alleged incapacitated person.

The court shall not enter an order appointing a guardian or limited guardian until a medical or psychological report meeting the above requirements is filed.

The requirement of filing a medical report is waived if the basis of the guardianship is minority.

Sec. 4. RCW 11.88.090 and 1991 c 289 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Upon receipt of a petition for appointment of guardian or limited guardian, except as provided herein, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of the alleged incapacitated person, who shall be a person found or known by the court to

- (a) be free of influence from anyone interested in the result of the proceeding;
- (b) have the requisite knowledge, training, or expertise to perform the duties required by this section.

No guardian ad litem need be appointed when a parent is petitioning for a guardian or a limited guardian to be appointed for his or her minor child and the minority of the child, as defined by RCW 11.92.010, is the sole basis of the petition. The order appointing the guardian ad litem shall recite the duties set forth in subsection (5) of this section. The appointment of a guardian ad litem shall have no effect on the legal competency of the alleged incapacitated person and shall not overcome the presumption of competency or full legal and civil rights of the alleged incapacitated person.

(3)(a) The superior court of each county shall develop by September 1, 1991, a registry of persons who are willing and qualified to serve as guardians ad litem in guardianship matters. The court shall choose as guardians ad litem only persons whose names appear on the registry, except in extraordinary circumstances.

(b) To be eligible for the registry a person shall:

(i) Present a written statement of qualifications describing the person's knowledge, training, and experience in each of the following: Needs of impaired elderly people, physical disabilities, mental illness, developmental disabilities, and other areas relevant to the needs of incapacitated persons, legal procedure, and the requirements of chapters 11.88 and 11.92 RCW; and

(ii) Complete a training program adopted by the court, or, in the absence of a locally adopted program, a candidate for inclusion upon the registry shall have completed a model training program as described in (d) of this subsection.

(d) The superior court of each county may approve a guardian ad litem training program on or before June 1, 1991. The department of social and health services, aging and adult services administration, shall convene an advisory group to develop a model guardian ad litem training program. The advisory group shall consist of representatives from consumer, advocacy, and professional groups knowledgeable in developmental disabilities, neurological impairment, physical disabilities, mental illness, aging, legal, court administration, and other interested parties.

(e) Any superior court that has not adopted a guardian ad litem training program by September 1, 1991, shall require utilization of a model program developed by the advisory group as described in (d) of this subsection, to assure that candidates applying for registration as a qualified guardian ad litem shall have satisfactorily completed training to attain these essential minimum qualifications to act as guardian ad litem.

(4) The guardian ad litem's written statement of qualifications required by RCW 11.88.090(3)(b)(i) shall be made part of the record in each matter in which the person is appointed guardian ad litem.

(5) The guardian ad litem appointed pursuant to this section shall have the following duties:

(a) To meet and consult with the alleged incapacitated person as soon as practicable following appointment and explain, in language which such person can reasonably be expected to understand, the substance of the petition, the nature of the resultant proceedings, the person's right to contest the petition, the identification of the proposed guardian or limited guardian, the right to a jury trial on the issue of his or her alleged incapacity, the right to independent legal counsel as provided by RCW 11.88.045, and the right to be present in court at the hearing on the petition;

(b) To obtain a written report according to RCW 11.88.045; and such other written or oral reports from other qualified professionals as are necessary to permit the guardian ad litem to complete the report required by this section;

(c) To meet with the person whose appointment is sought as guardian or limited guardian and ascertain:

(i) The proposed guardian's knowledge of the duties, requirements, and limitations of a guardian; and

(ii) The steps the proposed guardian intends to take or has taken to identify and meet the needs of the alleged incapacitated person;

(d) To consult as necessary to complete the investigation and report required by this section with those known relatives, friends, or other persons the guardian ad litem determines have had a significant, continuing interest in the welfare of the alleged incapacitated person;

(e) To provide the court with a written report which shall include the following:

(i) A description of the nature, cause, and degree of incapacity, and the basis upon which this judgment was made;

(ii) A description of the needs of the incapacitated person for care and treatment, the probable residential requirements of the alleged incapacitated person and the basis upon which these findings were made;

(iii) An evaluation of the appropriateness of the guardian or limited guardian whose appointment is sought and a description of the steps the proposed guardian has taken or intends to take to identify and meet current and emerging needs of the incapacitated person;

(iv) A description of the abilities of the alleged incapacitated person and a recommendation as to whether a guardian or limited guardian should be appointed. If appointment of a limited guardian is recommended, the guardian ad litem shall recommend the specific areas of authority the limited guardian should have and the limitations and disabilities to be placed on the incapacitated person;

(v) An evaluation of the person's mental ability to rationally exercise the right to vote and the basis upon which the evaluation is made;

(vi) Any expression of approval or disapproval made by the alleged incapacitated person concerning the proposed guardian or limited guardian or guardianship or limited guardianship;

(vii) Identification of persons with significant interest in the welfare of the alleged incapacitated person who should be advised of their right to request special notice of proceedings pursuant to RCW 11.92.150; and

(viii) Unless independent counsel has appeared for the alleged incapacitated person, an explanation of how the alleged incapacitated person responded to the advice of the right to jury trial, to independent counsel and to be present at the hearing on the petition.

Within forty-five days after notice of commencement of the guardianship proceeding has been served upon the guardian ad litem, and at least ten days before the hearing on the petition, unless an extension or reduction of time has been granted by the court for good cause, the guardian ad litem shall file its report and send a copy to the alleged incapacitated person and his or her spouse, all children not residing with a notified person, those persons described in ~~((d))~~ (e)(vii) of this subsection, and persons who have filed a request for special notice pursuant to RCW 11.92.150;

(f) To advise the court of the need for appointment of counsel for the alleged incapacitated person within five court days after the meeting described in (a) of this subsection unless (i) counsel has appeared, (ii) the alleged incapacitated person affirmatively communicated a wish not to be represented by counsel after being advised of the right to representation and of the conditions under which court-provided counsel may be available, or (iii) the alleged incapacitated person was unable to communicate at all on the subject, and the guardian ad litem is satisfied that the alleged incapacitated person does not affirmatively desire to be represented by counsel.

(6) If the petition is brought by an interested person or entity requesting the appointment of some other qualified person or entity and a prospective guardian or limited guardian cannot be found, the court shall order the guardian ad litem to investigate the availability of a possible guardian or limited guardian and to include the findings in a report to the court pursuant to RCW 11.88.090(5)(e) as now or hereafter amended.

(7) The court appointed guardian ad litem shall have the authority, in the event that the alleged incapacitated person is in need of emergency life-saving medical services, and is unable to consent to such medical services due to incapacity pending the hearing on the petition to give consent for such emergency life-saving medical services on behalf of the alleged incapacitated person.

(8) The guardian ad litem shall receive a fee determined by the court. The fee shall be charged to the alleged incapacitated person unless the court finds that such payment would result in substantial hardship upon such person, in which case the county shall be responsible for such costs: PROVIDED, That if no guardian or limited guardian is appointed the court may charge such fee to the petitioner or the alleged incapacitated person, or divide the fee, as it deems just; and if the petition is found to be frivolous or not brought in good faith, the guardian ad litem fee shall be charged to the petitioner. The court shall not be required to provide for the payment of a fee to any salaried employee of a public agency.

(9) Upon the presentation of the guardian ad litem report and the entry of an order either dismissing the petition for appointment of guardian or limited guardian or appointing a guardian or limited guardian, the guardian ad litem shall be dismissed and shall have no further duties or obligations unless otherwise ordered by the court. If the court orders the guardian ad litem to perform further duties or obligations, they shall not be performed at county expense.

Sec. 5. RCW 11.88.095 and 1991 c 289 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In determining the disposition of a petition for guardianship, the court's order shall be based upon findings as to the capacities, condition, and needs of the alleged incapacitated person, and shall not be based solely upon agreements made by the parties.

(2) Every order appointing a full or limited guardian of the person or estate shall include:

(a) Findings as to the capacities, condition, and needs of the alleged incapacitated person;

(b) The amount of the bond, if any, or a bond review period;

(c) When the next report of the guardian is due;

(d) Whether the guardian ad litem shall continue acting as guardian ad litem;

(e) Whether a review hearing shall be required upon the filing of the inventory;

(f) The authority of the guardian, if any, for investment and expenditure of the ward's estate; and

(g) Names and addresses of those persons described in RCW 11.88.090(5)(d), if any, whom the court believes should receive copies of further pleadings filed by the guardian with respect to the guardianship.

(3) If the court determines that a limited guardian should be appointed, the order shall specifically set forth the limits by either stating exceptions to the otherwise full authority of the guardian or by stating the specific authority of the guardian.

(4) In determining the disposition of a petition for appointment of a guardian or limited guardian of the estate only, the court shall consider whether the alleged incapacitated person is capable of giving informed medical consent or of making other personal decisions and, if not, whether a guardian or limited guardian of the person of the alleged incapacitated person should be appointed for that purpose.

(5) Unless otherwise ordered, any powers of attorney or durable powers of attorney shall be revoked upon appointment of a guardian or limited guardian of the estate.

If there is an existing medical power of attorney, the court must make a specific finding of fact regarding the continued validity of that medical power of attorney before appointing a guardian or limited guardian for the person.

Sec. 6. RCW 11.92.050 and 1990 c 122 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the filing of any intermediate guardianship or limited guardianship account required by statute, or of any intermediate account required by court rule or order, the guardian or limited guardian may petition the court for an order settling his or her account with regard to any ~~((and all))~~ receipts, expenditures, and investments made and acts done by the guardian or limited guardian to the date of ~~((said))~~ the interim report. Upon such petition being filed, the court may in its discretion, where the size or condition of the estate warrants it, set a date for the hearing of ~~((such))~~ the petition and require the service of the petition and a notice of ~~((such))~~ the hearing as provided in RCW 11.88.040 as now or hereafter amended; and, in the event ~~((such))~~ a hearing ~~((be))~~ is ordered, the court ~~((shall))~~ may also appoint a guardian ad litem, whose duty it shall be to investigate the report of the guardian or limited guardian of the estate and to advise the court thereon at ~~((said))~~ the hearing, in writing. At ~~((such))~~ the hearing on ~~((said))~~ the report of the guardian or limited guardian, if the court ~~((be))~~ is satisfied that the actions of the guardian or limited guardian have been proper, and that the guardian or limited guardian has in all respects discharged his or her trust with relation to ~~((such))~~ the receipts, expenditures, investments, and acts, then, in such event, the court shall enter an order approving such account~~((and such))~~. If the court has appointed a guardian ad litem, the order shall be final and binding upon the incapacitated person, subject only to the right of appeal as upon a final order; provided that at the time of final account of said guardian or limited guardian or within one year after ((said)) the incapacitated person attains his or her majority any such interim account may be challenged by ((said)) the incapacitated person on the ground of fraud.

(2) The procedure established in subsection (1) of this section for financial accounts by guardians or limited guardians of the estate shall apply to personal care reports filed by guardians or limited guardians of the person under RCW 11.92.043.

Sec. 7. RCW 11.92.053 and 1990 c 122 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

Within ninety days after the termination of a guardianship for any reason ~~((other than the death of the incapacitated person intestate))~~, the guardian or limited guardian of the estate shall petition the court for an order settling his or her account as filed in accordance with RCW 11.92.040(2) with regard to any ~~((and all))~~ receipts, expenditures, and investments made and acts done by the guardian to the date of ~~((said))~~ the termination. Upon ~~((such))~~ the filing of the petition ~~((being filed))~~, the court shall set a date for the hearing of ~~((such))~~ the petition after notice has been given in accordance with RCW 11.88.040. Any person interested may file objections to ~~((such))~~ the petition or may appear at the time and place fixed for the hearing thereof and present his or her objections thereto. The court may take such testimony as it deems proper or necessary to determine whether an order settling the account should be issued and the transactions of the guardian be approved, and the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to review the report.

At ~~((such))~~ the hearing on ~~((said))~~ the petition of the guardian or limited guardian, if the court ~~((be))~~ is satisfied that the actions of the guardian or limited guardian have been proper, and that the guardian has in all respects discharged his or her trust with relation to ~~((such))~~ the receipts, expenditures, investments, and acts, then, in such event, the court shall enter an order approving ~~((such))~~ the account, and ~~((such))~~ the order shall be final and binding upon the incapacitated person, subject only to the right of appeal as upon a final order~~((= PROVIDED, That))~~. However, within one year after ((said)) the incompetent attains his or her majority any such account may be challenged by the incapacitated person on the ground of fraud.

Sec. 8. RCW 11.92.180 and 1994 c 68 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

A guardian or limited guardian shall be allowed such compensation for his or her services as guardian or limited guardian as the court shall deem just and reasonable. Guardians and limited guardians shall not be compensated at county or state expense. Additional compensation may be allowed for other administrative costs, including services of an attorney and for other services not provided by the guardian or limited guardian. Where a guardian or limited guardian is an attorney, the guardian or limited guardian shall separately account for time for which compensation is requested for services as a guardian or limited guardian as contrasted to time for which compensation for legal services provided to the guardianship is requested. In all cases, compensation of the guardian or limited guardian and his or her expenses including attorney's fees shall be fixed by the court and may be allowed at any annual or final accounting; but at any time during the administration of the estate, the guardian or limited guardian or his or her attorney may apply to the court for an allowance upon the compensation or necessary expenses of the guardian or limited guardian and for attorney's fees for services already performed. If the court finds that the guardian or limited guardian has failed to discharge his or her duties as such in any respect, it may deny the guardian any compensation whatsoever or may reduce the compensation which would otherwise be allowed. Where the incapacitated person is a department of social and health services client residing in a nursing facility or in a residential or home setting and is required by the department of social and health services to contribute a portion of their income towards the cost of residential or supportive services then the department shall be entitled to notice of proceedings as described in RCW 11.92.150. The amount of guardianship fees and additional compensation for administrative costs shall not exceed the amount allowed by the department of social and health services by rule (and shall not include compensation for services provided or funded by the department or a department contractor that the incapacitated person is eligible to receive).

Sec. 9. RCW 11.94.010 and 1989 c 211 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a principal designates another as his or her attorney in fact or agent, by a power of attorney in writing, and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal," or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the disability of the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's disability, the authority of the attorney in fact or agent is exercisable on behalf of the principal as provided notwithstanding later disability or incapacity of the principal at law or later uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or the principal's guardian or heirs, devisees, and personal representative as if the principal were alive, competent, and not disabled. A principal may nominate, by a durable power of attorney, the guardian or limited guardian of his or her estate or person for consideration by the court if protective proceedings for the principal's person or estate are thereafter commenced. The court shall make its appointment in accordance with the principal's most recent nomination in a durable power of attorney except for good cause or disqualification. If a guardian thereafter is appointed for the principal, the attorney in fact or agent, during the continuance of the appointment, shall account to the guardian rather than the principal. The guardian has the same power the principal would have had if the principal were not disabled or incompetent, to revoke, suspend or terminate all or any part of the power of attorney or agency.

(2) Persons shall place reasonable reliance on any determination of disability or incompetence as provided in the instrument that specifies the time and the circumstances under which the power of attorney document becomes effective.

(3) A principal may authorize his or her attorney-in-fact to provide informed consent for health care decisions on the principal's behalf. Unless he or she is the spouse, or adult child or brother or sister of the principal, none of the following persons may act as the attorney-in-fact for the principal: Any of the principal's physicians, the physicians' employees, or the owners, administrators, or employees of the health care facility where the principal resides or receives care. This authorization is subject to the same limitations as those that apply to a guardian under RCW ~~((11.92.040(3)(a) through (d)))~~ 11.92.043(5) (a) through (c)."

On motion of Senator Smith, the following title amendment was adopted:

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1589, by House Committee on Health Care (originally sponsored by Representatives Backlund and Dyer)

Providing health care quality assurance.

MOTIONS

Senator Quigley moved that the following Committee on Health and Long-Term Care amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

QUALITY ASSURANCE--INTERAGENCY COOPERATION--ELIMINATION AND COORDINATION OF DUPLICATE STATE PROGRAMS. No later than July 1, 1995, the department of health together with the health care authority, the department of social and health services, the office of the insurance commissioner, and the department of labor and industries shall form an interagency group for coordination and consultation on quality assurance activities. By December 31, 1996, the group shall review all state agency programs governing health service quality assurance and shall recommend to the legislature, the consolidation, coordination, or elimination of rules and programs that would be made unnecessary pursuant to the development of a uniform quality assurance and improvement program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 48.43 RCW to read as follows:

No public or private health care payer subject to the jurisdiction of the state of Washington shall propose, issue, sign, or renew a provider agreement or enrollee service agreement that contains a clause whose effect, in any way, is to disclaim liability for the care delivered or not delivered to an enrollee because of a decision of the payer as to whether the care was a covered service, medically necessary, economically provided, medically appropriate, or similar consideration. Similarly, no clause shall attempt to shift liability for harm caused by such payer decision as to whether care should be delivered, as opposed to paid for, is between the provider and patient alone as if the fact of whether or not care is paid for played little or no role in a patient's decision to obtain care. Nothing in this section shall be inferred to result in liability to anyone for the payer's payment decisions that are consistent with the language of the applicable service agreement or consistent with the cost-effective delivery of health care. The intent of this section is only to prevent payers from shifting their liability for payment decisions to either providers, or enrollees, or both.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. RCW 70.170.080 and 1993 sp.s. c 24 s 925, 1991 sp.s. c 13 s 71, & 1989 1st ex.s. c 9 s 508 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding through the health services account to continue the comprehensive hospital abstract reporting system is not provided by June 30, 1995, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 3 of this act is null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. CAPTIONS. Captions as used in this act constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. EMERGENCY CLAUSE--EFFECTIVE DATE. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1995."

On motion of Senator Moyer, the following amendment by Senators Moyer, Deccio and Quigley to the Committee on Health and Long-Term Care amendment was adopted:

On page 2, after line 5, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. MANAGED COMPETITION--FINDINGS AND INTENT. (1) The legislature recognizes that competition among health care providers, facilities, payers, and purchasers will yield the best allocation of health care resources, the lowest prices for health care, and the highest quality of health care when there exists a large number of buyers and sellers, easily comparable health care plans and services, minimal barriers to entry and exit into the health care market, and adequate information for buyers and sellers to base purchasing and production decisions. However, the legislature finds that purchasers of health care services and health care coverage do not have adequate information upon which to base purchasing decisions; that health care facilities and providers of health care services face legal and market disincentives to develop economies of scale or to provide the most cost-efficient and efficacious service; that health carriers face market disincentives in providing health care coverage to those Washington residents with the most need for health care coverage; and that potential competitors in the provision of health care coverage bear unequal burdens in entering the market for health care coverage.

(2) The legislature therefore intends to exempt from state anti-trust laws, and to provide immunity from federal anti-trust laws through the state action doctrine for activities approved under this chapter that might otherwise be constrained by such laws and intends to displace competition in the health care market: To contain the aggregate cost of health care services; to promote the development of comprehensive, integrated, and cost-effective health care delivery systems through cooperative activities among health care providers and facilities; to promote comparability of health care coverage; to improve the cost-effectiveness in providing health care coverage relative to health promotion, disease prevention, and the amelioration or cure of illness; to assure universal access to a publicly determined, standard package of health care benefits; and to create reasonable equity in the distribution of funds, treatment, and medical risk among purchasers of health care coverage, payers of health care services, providers of health care services, health care facilities, and Washington residents. To these ends, any lawful action taken pursuant to chapter 492, Laws of 1993, by any person or entity created or regulated by chapter 492, Laws of 1993, are declared to be taken pursuant to state statute and in furtherance of the public purposes of the state of Washington.

(3) The legislature does not intend and unless explicitly permitted in accordance with section 4 of this act or under rules adopted pursuant to chapter 492, Laws of 1993, does not authorize any person or entity to engage in activities or to conspire to engage in activities that would constitute per se violations of state and federal anti-trust laws including but not limited to conspiracies or agreements:

- (a) Among competing health care providers not to grant discounts, not to provide services, or to fix the price of their services;
- (b) Among health carriers as to the price or level of reimbursement for health care services;
- (c) Among health carriers to boycott a group or class of health care service providers;
- (d) Among purchasers of health plans to boycott a particular carrier or class of carriers;
- (e) Among health carriers to divide the market for health care coverage; or

(f) Among health carriers and purchasers to attract or discourage enrollment of any Washington resident or groups of residents in a health carrier based upon the perceived or actual risk of loss in including such resident or group of residents in a health carrier or subscriber purchasing group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. MANAGED COMPETITION--COMPETITIVE OVERSIGHT--ATTORNEY GENERAL DUTIES--ANTI-TRUST IMMUNITY. (1) A health carrier, health care facility, health care provider, or other person involved in the development, delivery, or marketing of health care or health plans may request, in writing, that the insurance commissioner obtain an informal opinion from the attorney general as to whether particular conduct is lawful under federal and state anti-trust and similar statutes. Trade secret or proprietary information contained in a request for informal opinion shall be identified as such and shall not be disclosed other than to an authorized employee of the insurance commissioner or attorney general without the consent of the party making the request, except that information in summary or aggregate form and market share data may be contained in the informal opinion issued by the attorney general. The attorney general shall issue such opinion within thirty days of receipt of a written request for an opinion or within thirty days of receipt of any additional information requested by the attorney general necessary for rendering an opinion unless extended by the attorney general for good cause shown. If the attorney general concludes that such conduct is not lawful, the person or organization making the request may petition the commissioner for review and approval of such conduct in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

(2) After obtaining the written opinion of the attorney general and subject to the approval of the attorney general, the insurance commissioner:

(a) May authorize conduct by a health carrier, health care facility, health care provider, or any other person that could tend to lessen competition in the relevant market upon a strong showing that the conduct is likely to achieve the policy goals of health care reform and a more competitive alternative is impractical;

(b) Shall adopt rules governing conduct among providers, health care facilities, and health carriers including rules governing provider and facility contracts with health carriers, rules governing the use of "most favored nation" clauses and exclusive dealing clauses in such contracts, and rules providing that health carriers offering managed care health plans in rural areas contract with a sufficient number and type of health care providers and facilities to ensure consumer access to local health care services;

(c) Shall adopt rules permitting health care providers within the service area of a plan to collectively negotiate the terms and conditions of contracts with the carrier including the ability of providers to meet and communicate for the purposes of these negotiations; and

(d) Shall adopt rules governing cooperative activities among health care facilities and providers.

(3) A health carrier, health care facility, health care provider, or any other person involved in the development, delivery, and marketing of health services or health plans may file a written petition with the insurance commissioner requesting approval of conduct that could tend to lessen competition in the relevant market. Such petition shall be filed in a form and manner prescribed by rule of the insurance commissioner. Trade secret or proprietary information contained in a written petition shall be identified as such and shall not be disclosed other than to an authorized employee of the commissioner or the attorney general without the consent of the party filing the written petition, except that information in summary or aggregate form and market share data may be contained in the written decision issued by the commissioner.

Subject to the approval of the attorney general, the insurance commissioner shall issue a written decision approving or denying a petition filed under this section within ninety days of receipt of a properly completed written petition unless extended by the commissioner for good cause shown. The decision shall set forth findings as to benefits and disadvantages and conclusions as to whether the benefits outweigh the disadvantages.

(4)(a) In authorizing conduct and adopting rules of conduct under this section, the insurance commissioner with the advice of the attorney general, shall consider the benefits of such conduct in furthering the goals of health care reform including but not limited to:

- (i) Reduced competition among health carriers, health care providers, or health care facilities;
- (ii) Adverse impact on quality, availability, or price of health care services to consumers; or
- (iii) The availability of arrangements less restrictive to competition that achieve the same benefits.

(5) Conduct authorized by the insurance commissioner shall be deemed taken pursuant to state statute and in the furtherance of the public purposes of the state of Washington.

(6) With the assistance of the attorney general's office, the insurance commissioner shall actively supervise any conduct authorized under this section to determine whether such conduct or rules permitting certain conduct should be continued and whether a more competitive alternative is practical. The commissioner shall periodically review petitioned conduct through, at least, annual progress reports from petitioners, annual or more frequent reviews by the commissioner that evaluate whether the conduct is consistent with the petition, and whether the benefits continue to outweigh any disadvantages. Subject to the advice and approval of the attorney general, the commissioner may determine that the likely benefits of any conduct approved through rule, petition, or otherwise by the commissioner no longer outweigh the disadvantages.

attributable to potential reduction in competition and the commissioner shall order a modification or discontinuance of such conduct. Senator Quigley moved that the following Committee on Health and Long-Term Care amendment not be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PROTECTION OF CONSUMER CHOICE AND QUALITY HEALTH CARE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends through the enactment of this act to:

(1) Protect an individual's right to decide from which provider he or she will receive health services and to maintain a high quality health care system. The legislature intends to achieve this by: Requiring certain insurers to offer a plan that allows consumers to see "any willing provider"; maintaining traditional indemnity insurance plans in addition to managed care plans; allowing the use of medical savings accounts; providing whistleblower protection for anyone who complains about the quality of care in any health facility or within any health plan; requiring full disclosure of the contents of a health plan; requiring disclosure of staff ratios in hospitals and qualifications of providers; requiring plans to conduct annual patient satisfaction surveys; and allowing employers, individuals, health care facilities, and religiously sponsored health plans to choose nonparticipation with any health service to which they object;

(2) Eliminate preexisting condition exclusions in insurance, prevent cancellation of insurance because of sickness, and allow people to change jobs without losing their health care coverage. The legislature will achieve this by: Requiring insurers to renew policies as long as the premiums are duly paid; prohibiting insurers from denying a person insurance coverage because of a preexisting condition; and allowing the insurance commissioner to assess penalties for breaches of these provisions of law;

(3) Minimize the role of government in the state health care system. The legislature intends to achieve this by: Abolishing unneeded powers and duties of the health services commission; and eliminating unnecessary regulations related to certified health plans;

(4) Protect individual's, family's, and businesses' ability to maintain their health insurance and to allow those presently uninsured to purchase health insurance by making health insurance more affordable. The legislature will achieve this by allowing insurers to give limited discounts based on age and healthy lifestyle factors; allowing greater flexibility in the use of deductibles and coinsurance; by preventing self-insured companies from initially profiting from a healthier and less costly employee insurance pool and later cost-shifting if their employee insurance pool becomes less healthy and more costly; prohibiting insurers from cost-shifting from big business to small business and individuals in the sale of supplemental benefits; and permitting cooperative health care purchasing groups; and

(5) Advance the fundamental goal that all Washingtonians should have access to health insurance and intends to achieve universal access through incentives rather than an employer mandate. The legislature intends to do this by: Expanding the existing basic health plan to two hundred thousand enrollees; expanding the availability of medicaid to an additional one hundred twenty-five thousand children; giving preference in state government contracts to employers who provide health insurance to their employees; allowing employers to sign up for basic health plan health insurance through their periodic filings with the department of labor and industries; and eliminating the employer mandate.

Sec. 3. RCW 43.72.040 and 1994 c 4 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission has the following powers and duties:

(1) ~~((Ensure that all residents of Washington state are enrolled in a certified health plan to receive the uniform benefits package, regardless of age, sex, family structure, ethnicity, race, health condition, geographic location, employment, or economic status.~~

(2)) Endeavor to ensure that all residents of Washington state have access to appropriate, timely, confidential, and effective health services, and monitor the degree of access to such services. If the commission finds that individuals or populations lack access to certified health plan services, the commission shall:

(a) Authorize appropriate state agencies, local health departments, community or migrant health clinics, public hospital districts, or other nonprofit health service entities to take actions necessary to assure such access. This includes authority to contract for or directly deliver services described within the ~~((uniform benefits package))~~ minimum list of health services to special populations; or

(b) Notify appropriate certified health plans and the insurance commissioner of such findings. The commission shall adopt by rule standards by which the insurance commissioner may, in such event, require certified health plans in closest proximity to such individuals and populations to extend their catchment areas to those individuals and populations and offer them enrollment.

~~((3))~~ (2) Adopt necessary rules in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW to carry out the purposes of chapter 492, Laws of 1993. An initial set of draft rules establishing at least the commission's organization structure, the uniform benefits package, and standards for certified health plan certification, must be submitted in draft form to appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1994.

~~((4))~~ (3) Establish and modify as necessary, in consultation with the state board of health and the department of health, and in coordination with the planning process set forth in RCW 43.70.520, a uniform set of health services ~~((based on the recommendations of the health care cost control and access commission established under House Concurrent Resolution No. 4443 adopted by the legislature in 1990.~~

~~(5) Establish and modify as necessary the uniform benefits package as provided in RCW 43.72.130, which shall be offered to enrollees of a certified health plan. The benefit package shall be provided at no more than the maximum premium specified in subsection (6) of this section).~~

~~((6(a))) (4) Establish for each year a community-rated maximum premium for the ((uniform benefits package)) minimum list of health services, adjusted for enrollee cost-sharing, that shall operate to control overall health care costs. The maximum premium cost of the ((uniform benefits package)) minimum list of health services in the base year 1995 shall be established upon an actuarial determination of the costs of providing the ((uniform benefits package)) minimum list of health services and such other cost impacts as may be deemed relevant by the commission. Beginning in 1996, the growth rate of the premium cost of the ((uniform benefits package)) minimum list of health services for each certified health plan shall be allowed to increase by a rate no greater than the average growth rate in the cost of the package between 1990 and 1993 as actuarially determined, reduced by two percentage points per year until the growth rate is no greater than the five-year rolling average of growth in Washington per capita personal income, as determined by the office of financial management.~~

~~((b) In establishing the community-rated maximum premium under this subsection, the commission shall review various methods for establishing the community-rated maximum premium and shall recommend such methods to the legislature by December 1, 1994.~~

~~The commission may develop and recommend a rate for employees that provides nominal, if any, variance between the rate for individual employees and employees with dependents to minimize any economic incentive to an employer to discriminate between prospective employees based upon whether or not they have dependents for whom coverage would be required.~~

~~(c) If the commission adds or deletes services or benefits to the uniform benefits package in subsequent years, it may increase or decrease the maximum premium to reflect the actual cost experience of a broad sample of providers of that service in the state, considering the factors enumerated in (a) of this subsection and adjusted actuarially. The addition of services or benefits shall not result in a redetermination of the entire cost of the uniform benefits package.~~

~~(d) The level of state expenditures for the uniform benefits package shall be limited to the appropriation of funds specifically for this purpose.~~

~~(7) Determine the need for medical risk adjustment mechanisms to minimize financial incentives for certified health plans to enroll individuals who present lower health risks and avoid enrolling individuals who present higher health risks, and to minimize financial incentives for employer hiring practices that discriminate against individuals who present higher health risks. In the design of medical risk distribution mechanisms under this subsection, the commission shall (a) balance the benefits of price competition with the need to protect certified health plans from any unsustainable negative effects of adverse selection; (b) consider the development of a system that creates a risk profile of each certified health plan's enrollee population that does not create disincentives for a plan to control benefit utilization, that requires contributions from plans that enjoy a low-risk enrollee population to plans that have a high-risk enrollee population, and that does not permit an adjustment of the premium charged for the uniform benefits package or supplemental coverage based upon either receipt or contribution of assessments; and (c) consider whether registered employer health plans should be included in any medical risk adjustment mechanism. Proposed medical risk adjustment mechanisms shall be submitted to the legislature as provided in RCW 43.72.180.~~

~~((8)) (5) Design a mechanism to assure minors have access to confidential health care services as currently provided in RCW 70.24.110 and 71.34.030.~~

~~((9)) (6) Monitor the actual growth in total annual health services costs.~~

~~((10)) (7) Monitor the increased application of technology as required by chapter 492, Laws of 1993 and take necessary action to ensure that such application is made in a cost-effective and efficient manner and consistent with existing laws that protect individual privacy.~~

~~((11)) (8) Establish reporting requirements for certified health plans that own or manage health care facilities, health care facilities, and health care providers to periodically report to the commission regarding major capital expenditures of the plans. The commission shall review and monitor such reports and shall report to the legislature regarding major capital expenditures on at least an annual basis. The Washington health care facilities authority and the commission shall develop standards jointly for evaluating and approving major capital expenditure financing through the Washington health care facilities authority, as authorized pursuant to chapter 70.37 RCW. By December 1, 1994, the commission and the authority shall submit jointly to the legislature such proposed standards. The commission and the authority shall, after legislative review, but no later than June 1, 1995, publish such standards. Upon publication, the authority may not approve financing for major capital expenditures unless approved by the commission.~~

~~((12)) (9) Establish maximum enrollee financial participation levels. The levels shall be related to enrollee household income.~~

~~((13) Establish rules requiring employee enrollee premium sharing, as defined in RCW 43.72.010(9), be paid through deductions from wages or earnings.~~

~~((14)) (10) For health services provided under the ((uniform benefits package)) minimum list of health services and supplemental benefits, adopt standards for enrollment, and standardized billing and claims processing forms. The standards shall ensure that these procedures minimize administrative burdens on health care providers, health care facilities, certified health plans, and consumers. Subject to federal approval or phase-in schedules whenever necessary or appropriate, the standards also shall apply to state-purchased health services, as defined in RCW 41.05.011.~~

~~((15)) (11) Propose that certified health plans adopt certain practice indicators or risk management protocols for quality assurance, utilization review, or provider payment. The commission may consider indicators or protocols recommended according to RCW 43.70.500 for these purposes.~~

~~((16)) (12) Propose other guidelines to certified health plans for utilization management, use of technology and methods of payment, such as diagnosis-related groups and a resource-based relative value scale. Such guidelines shall be voluntary and shall be designed to promote improved management of care, and provide incentives for improved efficiency and effectiveness within the delivery system.~~

~~((17)) (13) Adopt standards and oversee and develop policy for personal health data and information system as provided in chapter 70.170 RCW.~~

~~((18)) (14) Adopt standards that prevent conflict of interest by health care providers as provided in RCW 18.130.320.~~

~~((19)) (15) At the appropriate juncture and in the fullness of time, consider the extent to which ((medical research and)) health professions training activities should be included within the health service system set forth in chapter 492, Laws of 1993.~~

~~((20)) (16) Evaluate and monitor the extent to which racial and ethnic minorities have access to and receive health services within the state, and develop strategies to address barriers to access.~~

~~((21)) (17) Develop standards for the certification process to certify health plans and employer health plans to provide the ((uniform benefits package)) minimum list of health services, according to the provisions for certified health plans and registered employer health plans under chapter 492, Laws of 1993.~~

~~((22) Develop rules for implementation of individual and employer participation under RCW 43.72.210 and 43.72.220 specifically applicable to persons who work in this state but do not live in the state or persons who live in this state but work outside of the state. The rules shall be designed so that these persons receive coverage and financial requirements that are comparable to that received by persons who both live and work in the state.~~

~~(23) After receiving advice from the health services effectiveness committee, adopt rules that must be used by certified health plans, disability insurers, health care service contractors, and health maintenance organizations to determine whether a procedure, treatment, drug, or other health service is no longer experimental or investigative.~~

~~(24) Establish a process for purchase of uniform benefits package services by enrollees when they are out of state.~~

~~(25) Develop recommendations to the legislature as to whether state and school district employees, on whose behalf health benefits are or will be purchased by the health care authority pursuant to chapter 41.05 RCW, should have the option to purchase health benefits through health insurance purchasing cooperatives on and after July 1, 1997. In developing its recommendations, the commission shall consider:~~

~~(a) The impact of state or school district employees purchasing through health insurance purchasing cooperatives on the ability of the state to control its health care costs; and~~

~~(b) Whether state or school district employees purchasing through health insurance purchasing cooperatives will result in inequities in health benefits between or within groups of state and school district employees.~~

~~(26) Establish guidelines for providers dealing with terminal or static conditions, taking into consideration the ethics of providers, patient and family wishes, costs, and survival possibilities.~~

~~(27) Evaluate the extent to which Taft-Hartley health care trusts provide benefits to certain individuals in the state; review the federal laws under which these trusts are organized; and make appropriate recommendations to the governor and the legislature on or before December 1, 1994, as to whether these trusts should be brought under the provisions of chapter 492, Laws of 1993 when it is fully implemented, and if the commission recommends inclusion of the trusts, how to implement such inclusion.~~

~~(28)) (18) Evaluate whether Washington is experiencing a higher percentage in in-migration of residents from other states and territories than would be expected by normal trends as a result of the availability of unsubsidized and subsidized health care benefits for all residents and report to the governor and the legislature their findings.~~

~~((29) In developing the uniform benefits package and other standards pursuant to this section, consider the likelihood of the establishment of a national health services plan adopted by the federal government and its implications.~~

~~(30)) (19) Evaluate the effect of reforms under chapter 492, Laws of 1993 on access to care and economic development in rural areas.~~

~~(20) Periodically make recommendations to the appropriate committees of the legislature and the governor regarding the minimum list of health services.~~

~~(21) Review and report on the use of medical savings accounts, including their impact on health of participants, and the cost of health insurance and cost shifting to, or from, other state residents who purchase insurance.~~

~~(22) Conduct a study to identify the number of children with special health care needs and the cost of providing their health care. Children with special health care needs may include children who have multiple diagnoses including birth defects, congenital heart defects, cancer, kidney disease, respiratory, metabolic and neurological problems, diabetes, sickle cell disease, HIV infection, rheumatological disorders, and posttraumatic injuries, any of which may require care for longer than a year. The commission shall make recommendations on an optimal system for managing health care services to children with special needs and report back to the legislature on their findings by January 1, 1996.~~

~~(23) Perform such planning and advisory duties as are required according to RCW 43.72.800 in order to recommend the inclusion of certain long-term care services in the minimum list of health services by July 1999.~~

~~(24) Review rules prepared by the insurance commissioner, health care authority, and department of health, and make recommendations to them where appropriate to facilitate consistency with the policies of this act.~~

To the extent that the exercise of any of the powers and duties specified in this section may be inconsistent with the powers and duties of other state agencies, offices, or commissions, the authority of the commission shall supersede that of such other state agency, office, or commission, except in matters of personal health data, where the commission shall have primary data system policy-making authority and the department of health shall have primary responsibility for the maintenance and routine operation of personal health data systems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.72 RCW to read as follows:

(3) Any certified health plan that submits a letter to the insurance commissioner stating their intent to offer the minimum list of health services, and that is determined by the commissioner to contain such documentation as may be required in rule, is deemed provisionally approved to offer the minimum list of health services. This provisional approval is valid for a length of time, to be determined by the commissioner, of no more than two years.

(4) To receive full approval to offer the minimum list of health services, prior to the expiration of the period of provisional approval under subsection (3) of this section, the certified health plan must demonstrate to the insurance commissioner that the certified health plan complies with WAC 245-04-050, or the certified health plan will lose their license as a health maintenance organization, health care service contractor, or disability insurer.

(5) No certified health plan may offer the minimum list of health services in this state as a health care service contractor, disability insurer, or health maintenance organization for more than two years under provisional approval without receiving full approval as a certified health plan from the insurance commissioner.

(6) Anyone violating subsection (1) or (2) of this section is liable for a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars and imprisonment not to exceed six months for each instance of such violation.

Sec. 5. RCW 43.72.100 and 1993 c 492 s 428 are each amended to read as follows:

A certified health plan shall:

(1) Provide the benefits included in the ~~((uniform benefits package))~~ minimum list of health services to enrolled Washington residents for a ~~(prepaid per capita)~~ community-rated premium not to exceed the maximum premium established by the commission and provide such benefits through managed care in accordance with rules adopted by the commission; PROVIDED, That certified health plans shall not be required to sell the minimum list of health services at the "community rate" to any individual who is at the time of proposed enrollment in the certified health plan employed by a self-insured employer, or to any employer who was self-insured after December 31, 1995: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing herein shall permit a certified health plan to sell the minimum list of services at less than the community rate;

(2) Offer supplemental benefits to enrolled Washington residents for a (~~prepaid per capita~~) community-rated premium and provide such benefits through managed care in accordance with rules adopted by the commission;

(3) Except for a health maintenance organization licensed under chapter 48.46 RCW, have available for purchase the minimum list of health services in at least one plan that provides direct enrollee access to any health provider eligible to receive payment under that plan. This plan may encourage, but not require, its enrollees to use the most cost-effective providers through variable enrollee participation incentives. However, in no instances shall the patient be liable for any balance billing by the provider beyond the normal copayment, or coinsurance. Within this plan, the certified health plan must permit every health care provider willing and able to meet the terms and conditions of the plan to provide health services or care for conditions included in the minimum list of health services to the extent that:

(a) The provision of such health services or care is within the health care providers' permitted scope of practice; and

(b) The providers agree to abide by the plan's standards related to:

(i) Provision, utilization review, and cost-containment of health services;

(ii) Management and administrative procedures; and

(iii) Provision of cost-effective and clinically efficacious health services;

(4) Accept for enrollment any state resident within the plan's service area and provide or assure the provision of all services within the (~~uniform benefits package~~) minimum list of health services and offer supplemental benefits regardless of age, sex, family structure, ethnicity, race, health condition, geographic location, employment status, socioeconomic status, other condition or situation, or the provisions of RCW 49.60.174(2). The insurance commissioner may grant a temporary exemption from this subsection, if, upon application by a certified health plan, the commissioner finds that the clinical, financial, or administrative capacity to serve existing enrollees will be impaired if a certified health plan is required to continue enrollment of additional eligible individuals;

~~((4))~~ (5) If the plan provides benefits through contracts with, ownership of, or management of health care facilities and contracts with or employs health care providers, demonstrate to the satisfaction of the insurance commissioner in consultation with the department of health and the commission that its facilities and personnel are adequate to provide the benefits prescribed in the (~~uniform benefits package~~) minimum list of health services and offer supplemental benefits to enrolled Washington residents, and that it is financially capable of providing such residents with, or has made adequate contractual arrangements with health care providers and facilities to provide enrollees with such benefits;

~~((5))~~ (6) Comply with portability of benefits requirements prescribed by the commission;

~~((6))~~ (7) Comply with administrative rules prescribed by the commission, department of health, the insurance commissioner, and other state agencies governing certified health plans;

~~((7))~~ (8) Provide all enrollees with instruction and informational materials to increase individual and family awareness of injury and illness prevention; encourage assumption of personal responsibility for protecting personal health; and stimulate discussion about the use and limits of medical care in improving the health of individuals and communities;

(9) Provide enrollees, and upon request, potential enrollees, with written disclosure of coverage and benefits, including coverage principles and any exclusions or restrictions on coverage, and make available upon request information on evaluation and treatment policies for specific conditions. Such information must be current, easily understandable, and easily available prior to enrollment and upon request thereafter;

(10) Conduct annual enrollee satisfaction surveys and provide the survey results to their enrollees. The department of health shall set the form of such surveys in rule based on the recommendations of the health services commission in consultation with certified health plans;

~~((8))~~ (11) Disclose to enrollees the charity care requirements under chapter 70.170 RCW;

~~((9))~~ (12) Include in all of its contracts with health care providers and health care facilities a provision prohibiting such providers and facilities from billing enrollees for any amounts in excess of applicable enrollee point of service cost-sharing obligations for services included in the (~~uniform benefits package~~) minimum list of health services and supplemental benefits;

~~((10))~~ (13) Include in all of its contracts issued for (~~uniform benefits package~~) minimum list of health services and supplemental benefits coverage a subrogation provision that allows the certified health plan to recover the costs of (~~uniform benefits package~~) minimum list of health services and supplemental benefits services incurred to care for an enrollee injured by a negligent third party. The costs recovered shall be limited to:

(a) If the certified health plan has not intervened in the action by an injured enrollee against a negligent third party, then the amount of costs the certified health plan can recover shall be limited to the excess remaining after the enrollee has been fully compensated for his or her loss minus a proportionate share of the enrollee's costs and fees in bringing the action. The proportionate share shall be determined by:

(i) The fees and costs approved by the court in which the action was initiated; or

(ii) The written agreement between the attorney and client that established fees and costs when fees and costs are not addressed by the court.

When fees and costs have been approved by a court, after notice to the certified health plan, the certified health plan shall have the right to be heard on the matter of attorneys' fees and costs or its proportionate share;

(b) If the certified health plan has intervened in the action by an injured enrollee against a negligent third party, then the amount of costs the certified health plan can recover shall be the excess remaining after the enrollee has been fully compensated for his or her loss or the amount of the plan's incurred costs, whichever is less;

~~((11))~~ (14) Establish and maintain a grievance procedure approved by the commissioner, to provide a reasonable and effective resolution of complaints initiated by enrollees concerning any matter relating to the provision of benefits under the (~~uniform benefits package~~) minimum list of health services and supplemental benefits, access to health care services, and quality of services. Each certified health plan shall respond to complaints filed with the insurance commissioner within fifteen working days. The insurance commissioner in consultation with the commission shall establish standards for resolution of grievances;

~~((12))~~ (15) Comply with the provisions of chapter 48.30 RCW prohibiting unfair and deceptive acts and practices to the extent such provisions are not specifically modified or superseded by the provisions of chapter 492, Laws of 1993 and be prohibited from offering or supplying incentives that would have the effect of avoiding the requirements of subsection ~~((3))~~ (4) of this section;

~~((14))~~ (17) Permit every category of health care provider to provide health services or care for conditions included in the (~~uniform benefits package~~) minimum list of health services to the extent that:

(a) The provision of such health services or care is within the health care providers' permitted scope of practice; and

(b) The providers agree to abide by standards related to:

(i) Provision, utilization review, and cost containment of health services;

- (ii) Management and administrative procedures; and
- (iii) Provision of cost-effective and clinically efficacious health services;
- ~~((15))~~ (18) Establish the geographic boundaries in which they will obligate themselves to deliver the services required under the ~~((uniform benefits package))~~ minimum list of health services and include such information in their application for certification, but the commissioner shall review such boundaries and may disapprove, in conformance with guidelines adopted by the commission, those that have been clearly drawn to be exclusionary within a health care catchment area;
- ~~((16))~~ (19) Annually report the names and addresses of all officers, directors, or trustees of the certified health plan during the preceding year, and the amount of wages, expense reimbursements, or other payments to such individuals;
- ~~((17))~~ (20) Annually report the number of residents enrolled and terminated during the previous year. Additional information regarding the enrollment and termination pattern for a certified health plan may be required by the commissioner to determine compliance with the open enrollment and free access requirements of chapter 492, Laws of 1993; and
- ~~((18))~~ (21) Disclose any financial interests held by officers and directors in any facilities associated with or operated by the certified health plan.

The administrator shall expand the schedule of covered basic health services that were available to an enrollee of the basic health plan as of July 1, 1994, to include services of licensed midwives, limited chiropractic care, limited chemical dependency services, limited mental health services, and limited medical rehabilitation. Such expansion shall not increase the actuarially determined average member per month cost, excluding adjustments for inflation and utilization by more than five percent. After the administrator has made the modifications to the basic health plan that are necessary to include these services, the basic health plan may not be further modified in a manner that will increase the average per member per month cost except by an act of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 41.05 RCW to read as follows:

The authority shall study and report to the legislature on the feasibility of including long-term care services in a medicare supplemental insurance policy offered according to RCW 41.05.197.

(4) Nothing in chapter 492, Laws of 1993 or chapter . . . Laws of 1995 (this act) shall be construed to affect the collective bargaining rights of employee organizations ~~((to the extent that federal law specifically restricts the ability of states to limit collective bargaining rights of employee organizations))~~.

(5) After July 1, 1999, no property or casualty insurance policy issued in this state may provide first-party coverage for health services to the extent that such services are provided under a uniform benefits package covering the resident to whom such property or casualty insurance policy is issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

(2)(a) "Improper quality of care" means any practice, procedure, action, or failure to act that violates any state law or rule of the applicable state health licensing authority under Title 18 RCW, or chapters 70.41, 70.96A, 70.127, 70.175, 71.05, 71.12, and 71.24 RCW, or certified health plan rules under the authority of this act and enforced by the insurance commissioner or the department of health. (c) "Whistleblower" means a consumer, employee, or health care professional who in good faith reports alleged quality of care concerns to the department of health.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits a health care facility from making any decision exercising its authority to terminate, suspend, or discipline an employee who engages in workplace reprisal or retaliatory action against a whistleblower.

(4) The department shall adopt rules to implement this section, including procedures for filing, investigation, and resolution of whistleblower complaints that are integrated with complaint procedures under Title 18 RCW for health professionals and chapter 43.72 RCW for certified health plans.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

All health care facilities, certified health plans, and providers must develop and disclose a staffing plan to include professional and nonprofessional staff including direct registered nurse to patient ratios for each treatment setting and shift. This section does not require a certified health plan, health care facility, or health provider to adhere to any particular standard that may not be otherwise provided by law. The department shall set in rule the forms, frequency of disclosure, and posting requirements for such information.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

The department of health in consultation with the nursing quality assurance commission under chapter 18.79 RCW may, within funds appropriated specifically for the purpose, study staffing plans for hospitals, including the relationship between staffing ratios and patient care needs. Sec. 14. RCW 43.72.070 and 1993 c 492 s 409 are each amended to read as follows:

Such endeavor shall be based upon the recognized quality science for continuous quality improvement. The commission shall impanel a committee composed of persons from the private sector and related sciences who have broad knowledge and successful experiences in continuous quality improvement and total quality management applications. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to develop quality standards for ~~((a Washington state health services supplier certification process))~~ certified health plans and recommend such standards, and the process for assuring that plans meet such standards, to the commission for review and adoption. Once adopted, the commission shall establish a schedule, with full compliance no later than ~~((July 1, 1996))~~ four years from the date of the plan's first provisional approval by the office of the insurance commissioner to provide the minimum list of health services, whereby all health ~~((service providers and health service facilities))~~ plans shall ~~((be certified prior to providing uniform benefits package services))~~ meet the requirements of the commission's quality assurance and improvement rules and be accredited by an approved quality review organization.

(1) No person engaged in the business of insurance shall engage in unfair methods of competition or in unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of such business as such methods, acts, or practices are defined pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(2) In addition to such unfair methods and unfair or deceptive acts or practices as are expressly defined and prohibited by this code, the commissioner may from time to time by regulation promulgated pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, define other methods of competition and other acts and practices in the conduct of such business reasonably found by the commissioner to be unfair or deceptive, which shall include any act or practice that has the effect of changing access to appropriate and effective health services in a manner proscribed by the laws and rules of the state of Washington.

(3) No such regulation shall be made effective prior to the expiration of thirty days after the date of the order by which it is promulgated.

(4) If the commissioner has cause to believe that any person is violating any such regulation, the commissioner may order such person to cease and desist therefrom. The commissioner shall deliver such order to such person direct or mail it to the person by registered mail with return receipt requested. If the person violates the order after expiration of ten days after the cease and desist order has been received by him or her, he or she may be fined by the commissioner a sum not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars for each violation committed thereafter.

(5) If any such regulation is violated, the commissioner may take such other or additional action as is permitted under the insurance code for violation of a regulation.

Sec. 16. RCW 48.44.490 and 1993 c 492 s 288 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to all health care service contracts issued or renewed on and after July 1, 1994, except limited health care service contracts as defined in RCW 48.44.035:

(a) Contracts shall guarantee continuity of coverage. Such provision, which shall be included in every contract, shall provide that:

(i) The contract may be canceled or nonrenewed without the prior written approval of the commissioner only for nonpayment of premiums, for violation of published policies of the contractor that have been approved by the commissioner, for persons who are entitled to become eligible for medicare benefits and fail to subscribe to a medicare supplement plan offered by the contractor, for failure of such subscriber to pay any deductible or copayment amount owed to the contractor and not the provider of health care services, for fraud, or for a material breach of the contract; and

(ii) The contract may be canceled or nonrenewed because of a change in the physical or mental condition or health of a covered person only with the prior written approval of the commissioner. Such approval shall be granted only when the contractor has discharged its obligation to continue coverage for such person by obtaining coverage with another insurer, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization, which coverage is comparable in terms of premiums and benefits as defined by rule of the commissioner.

(b) It is an unfair practice for a contractor to modify the coverage provided or rates applying to an in-force contract and to fail to make such modification in all such issued and outstanding contracts.

(c) Subject to rules adopted by the commissioner, it is an unfair practice for a health care service contractor to:

(i) Cease the sale of a contract form unless it has received prior written authorization from the commissioner and has offered all subscribers covered under such discontinued contract the opportunity to purchase comparable coverage without health screening; or

(ii) Engage in a practice that subjects subscribers to rate increases on discontinued contract forms unless such subscribers are offered the opportunity to purchase comparable coverage without health screening.

(2) The health care service contractor may limit an offer of comparable coverage without health screening to a period not less than thirty days from the date the offer is first made.

(3) In addition to such unfair methods and unfair or deceptive acts or practices as are expressly defined and prohibited by this code, the commissioner may from time to time by rule adopted pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, define other methods of competition and other acts and practices in the conduct of such business reasonably found by the commissioner to be unfair or deceptive, which shall include any act or practice that has the effect of changing access to appropriate and effective health services in a manner proscribed by the laws and rules of the state of Washington.

Sec. 17. RCW 48.46.560 and 1993 c 492 s 289 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to all health maintenance agreements issued or renewed on and after July 1, 1994, and in addition to the restrictions and limitations contained in RCW 48.46.060(4):

(a) Agreements shall guarantee continuity of coverage. Such provision, which shall be included in every agreement, shall provide that the agreement may be canceled or nonrenewed because of a change in the physical or mental condition or health of a covered person only with the prior written approval of the commissioner. Such approval shall be granted only when the organization has discharged its obligation to continue coverage for such person by obtaining coverage with another insurer, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization, which coverage is comparable in terms of premiums and benefits as defined by rule of the commissioner.

(b) It is an unfair practice for an organization to modify the coverage provided or rates applying to an in-force agreement and to fail to make such modification in all such issued and outstanding agreements.

(c) Subject to rules adopted by the commissioner, it is an unfair practice for a health maintenance organization to:

(i) Cease the sale of an agreement form unless it has received prior written authorization from the commissioner and has offered all enrollees covered under such discontinued agreement the opportunity to purchase comparable coverage without health screening; or

(ii) Engage in a practice that subjects enrollees to rate increases on discontinued agreement forms unless such enrollees are offered the opportunity to purchase comparable coverage without health screening.

(2) The health maintenance organization may limit an offer of comparable coverage without health screening to a period not less than thirty days from the date the offer is first made.

(3) In addition to such unfair methods and unfair or deceptive acts or practices as are expressly defined and prohibited by this code, the commissioner may from time to time by rule adopted pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW, define other methods of competition and other acts and practices in the conduct of such business reasonably found by the commissioner to be unfair or deceptive, which shall include any act or practice that has the effect of changing access to appropriate and effective health services in a manner proscribed by the laws and rules of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to Title 48 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes that every individual possesses a fundamental right to exercise their religious beliefs and conscience. The legislature further recognizes that in developing public policy, conflicting religious and moral beliefs must be respected. Therefore, while recognizing the right of conscientious objection to participating in specific health services, the state shall also recognize the right of individuals enrolled with a certified health plan to receive the full range of services covered under the minimum list of health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to Title 48 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No individual health care provider, health care facility, or religiously sponsored certified health plan may be required by law or contract in any circumstances to directly participate in the provision of or payment for a specific service in this minimum list of health services if they object to so doing for reason of conscience or religion. No person may be discriminated against in employment or professional privileges because of such objection.

(2) The provisions of this section are not intended to result in an enrollee being denied timely access to any service included in the minimum list of health services. Each certified health plan shall:

(a) Provide written notice to enrollees, upon enrollment with the plan and upon enrollee request thereafter, listing, by provider, services that any provider refuses to perform for reason of conscience or religion;

(b) Develop written information describing how an enrollee may directly access, in an expeditious manner, services that the provider refuses to perform; and

(c) Ensure that enrollees refused services under this section have prompt access to the information developed pursuant to (b) of this subsection.

(3) The health services commission shall adopt rules to implement this section and establish a mechanism to ensure enrollees timely access to the minimum list of health services and to assure prompt payment to service providers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to Title 48 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No individual or organization with a religious or moral tenet opposed to a specific service on the minimum list of health services may be required to purchase coverage for that service or services if the individual or organization objects to doing so for reason of conscience or religion.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not result in an enrollee being denied coverage of, and timely access to, any service or services excluded from their benefits package as a result of their employer's or another individual's exercise of the conscience clause outlined in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The health services commission shall define the process through which certified health plans may offer the minimum list of health services to individuals and organizations identified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section in accordance to the provisions of section 19(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 70.47 RCW to read as follows:

Insurance brokers and agents who hold the proper license pursuant to chapter 43.17 RCW shall be entitled to sell the basic health plan and shall receive from the health care authority a three percent commission for each individual sale of the basic health plan to anyone not previously signed up and a one percent commission for each group sale of the basic health plan. No commission shall be provided upon a renewal. Commissions shall be determined based on the estimated annual cost of the basic health plan. The health care authority shall use moneys in the basic health plan trust account for this purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that assuring adequate access to quality health services in rural and medically underserved areas requires special efforts to recruit and train health service providers and the development of health care systems in these areas. The state department of health has provided valuable coordination and technical assistance in these efforts through its office of rural health. The University of Washington's rural and underserved opportunities program and its community health systems development program have voluntarily initiated various creative efforts, which have made solid progress in meeting these essential state needs, despite the lack of explicit financial support from state government for these purposes. The legislature recognizes that increased price competition in health services delivery may jeopardize the University of Washington's laudatory efforts in these areas, and in other teaching and research endeavors that are critical to promoting universal access to quality health services. Therefore, the department of health is authorized to ensure the continuation of these efforts as well as their coordination in the context of overall health systems development, within funds specially appropriated for this purpose.

There is appropriated to the department of health from the health services account, the amount of five hundred thousand dollars for the 1995-1997 biennium to contract with the University of Washington to support community health systems development services and rural and underserved health provider opportunities in communities targeted by the department of health in consultation with selected local health jurisdictions and hospital districts in rural and medically underserved areas. This contract may contain no more than a ten percent indirect cost, overhead, or administrative allocation to the University of Washington. No less than fifty percent of the funds provided in this section must support expanded efforts in these areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The sum of dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1997, from the health services account to the health care authority to expand basic health plan subsidized enrollment to a total of at least two hundred thousand adults, including at least one hundred thousand employer-sponsored adults with income below two hundred percent of the federal poverty level.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. In addition to other moneys appropriated to the department of social and health services for medical assistance, the sum of dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1997, from the health services account to the department of social and health services, to serve an additional one hundred twenty-five thousand children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The health care authority, the office of financial management, the department of social and health services, and the state treasurer shall together monitor the enrollee level in the basic health plan and medicaid and adjust the funding levels by transfers of funds between the basic health plan and medicaid and adjust the funding levels by transfers of funds between the basic health plan subscription accounts and the medicaid dollars appropriated in sections 23 and 24 of this act to maximize enrollment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 43.19 RCW to read as follows:

Any person, firm, or organization that makes any bid to provide any goods or services to any state agency shall be granted a preference over other bidders if at the time the bid is submitted the vendor provides the minimum list of health services as defined in chapter 43.72 RCW to ninety-five percent of their employees and pays at least fifty percent of the related premium. The preference provided under this section shall be equal to ten percent of the total points awarded in the bid process. For purposes of this section employees of under three months are not included in the computation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A new section is added to Title 51 RCW to read as follows:

The department of labor and industries and the health care authority shall develop an easy employer payment method for the basic health plan under which an employer can make his or her basic health plan payment on the same forms and in the same check he or she uses to make workers' compensation payments.

Sec. 28. RCW 18.130.320 and 1993 c 492 s 408 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington health services commission established by RCW 43.72.020, in consultation with the secretary of health, and the health care disciplinary authorities under RCW 18.130.040(2)(b), shall establish standards and monetary penalties in rule prohibiting provider investments and referrals that present a conflict of interest resulting from inappropriate financial gain for the provider or his or her immediate family. These standards are not intended to inhibit the efficient operation of managed health care systems or certified health plans. ~~(The commission shall report to the health policy committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 1994, on the development of the standards and any recommended statutory changes necessary to implement the standards.)~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 43.72.200 and 1993 c 492 s 456;
- (2) RCW 43.72.220 and 1993 c 494 s 3 & 1993 c 492 s 464;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. Section 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Quigley that the Committee on Health and Long-Term Care striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1046 not be adopted.

The motion by Senator Quigley carried and the committee striking amendment was not adopted.

MOTIONS

Senator Quigley moved that the following amendment by Senators Quigley, Owen, Moyer and Deccio be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.47 RCW to read as follows:

BASIC HEALTH PLAN--EXPANDED ENROLLMENT. (1) The legislature finds that the basic health plan has been an effective program in providing health coverage for uninsured residents. Further, since 1993, substantial amounts of public funds have been allocated for subsidized basic health plan enrollment.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that the basic health plan enrollment be expanded expeditiously, consistent with funds available in the health services account, with the goal of two hundred thousand adult subsidized basic health plan enrollees and one hundred thirty thousand children covered through expanded medical assistance services by June 30, 1997, with the priority of providing needed health services to children in conjunction with other public programs.

(3) Effective January 1, 1996, basic health plan enrollees whose income is less than one hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level shall pay at least a ten-dollar premium share.

(4) No later than July 1, 1996, the administrator shall implement procedures whereby hospitals licensed under chapters 70.41 and 71.12 RCW, health carrier, rural health care facilities regulated under chapter 70.175 RCW, and community and migrant health centers funded under RCW 41.05.220, may expeditiously assist patients and their families in applying for basic health plan or medical assistance coverage, and in submitting such applications directly to the health care authority or the department of social and health services. The health care authority and the department of social and health services shall make every effort to simplify and expedite the application and enrollment process.

(5) No later than July 1, 1996, the administrator shall implement procedures whereby health insurance agents and brokers, licensed under chapter 48.17 RCW, may expeditiously assist patients and their families in applying for basic health plan or medical assistance coverage, and in submitting such applications directly to the health care authority or the department of social and health services. Brokers and agents shall be entitled to receive a commission for each individual sale of the basic health plan to anyone not at anytime previously signed up and a commission for each group sale of the basic health plan. No commission shall be provided upon a renewal. Commissions shall be determined based on the estimated annual cost of the basic health plan, however, commissions shall not result in a reduction in the premium amount paid to health carriers. For purposes of this section "health carrier" is as defined in section 4 of this act. The health care authority and the department of social and health services shall make every effort to simplify and expedite the application and enrollment process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. HEALTH CARE SAVINGS ACCOUNTS. (1) This chapter shall be known as the health care savings account act.

(2) The legislature recognizes that the costs of health care are increasing rapidly and most individuals are removed from participating in the purchase of their health care.

As a result, it becomes critical to encourage and support solutions to alleviate the demand for diminishing state resources. In response to these increasing costs in health care spending, the legislature intends to clarify that health care savings accounts may be offered as health benefit options to all residents as incentives to reduce unnecessary health services utilization, administration, and paperwork, and to encourage individuals to be in charge of and participate directly in their use of service and health care spending. To alleviate the possible impoverishment of residents requiring long-term care, health care savings accounts may promote savings for long-term care and provide incentives for individuals to protect themselves from financial hardship due to a long-term health care need.

(3) Health care savings accounts are authorized in Washington state as options to employers and residents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. HEALTH CARE SAVINGS ACCOUNTS--REQUEST FOR TAX EXEMPTION. The governor and responsible agencies shall:

(1) Request that the United States congress amend the internal revenue code to treat premiums and contributions to health benefits plans, such as health care savings account programs, basic health plans, conventional and standard health plans offered through a health carrier, by employers, self-employed persons, and individuals, as fully excluded employer expenses and deductible from individual adjusted gross income for federal tax purposes.

(2) Request that the United States congress amend the internal revenue code to exempt from federal income tax interest that accrues in health care savings accounts until such money is withdrawn for expenditures other than eligible health expenses as defined in law.

(3) If all federal statute or regulatory waivers necessary to fully implement this chapter have not been obtained by the effective date of this section, this chapter shall remain in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. DEFINITIONS. Unless otherwise specifically provided, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Adjusted community rate" means the rating method used to establish the premium for health plans adjusted to reflect actuarially demonstrated differences in utilization or cost attributable to geographic region, age, family size, and use of wellness activities.

(2) "Covered person" or "enrollee" means a person covered by a health plan including an enrollee, subscriber, policyholder, beneficiary of a group plan, or individual covered by any other health plan.

(3) "Eligible employee" means an employee who works on a full-time basis with a normal work week of thirty or more hours. The term includes a self-employed individual, including a sole proprietor, a partner of a partnership, and may include an independent contractor, if the self-employed individual, sole proprietor, partner, or independent contractor is included as an employee under a health benefit plan of a small employer, but does not work less than thirty hours per week and derives at least seventy-five percent of his or her income from a trade or business through which he or she has attempted to earn taxable income and for which he or she has filed the appropriate internal revenue service form. Persons covered under a health benefit plan pursuant to the consolidated omnibus budget reconciliation act of 1986 shall not be considered eligible employees for purposes of minimum participation requirements of this act.

(4) "Enrollee point-of-service cost-sharing" means amounts paid to health carriers directly providing services, health care providers, or health care facilities by enrollees and may include copayments, coinsurance, or deductibles.

(5) "Health care facility" or "facility" means hospices licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW, hospitals licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW, rural health care facilities as defined in RCW 70.175.020, psychiatric hospitals licensed under chapter 71.12 RCW, nursing homes licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, community mental health centers licensed under chapter 71.05 or 71.24 RCW, kidney disease treatment centers licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW, ambulatory diagnostic, treatment, or surgical facilities licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW, drug and alcohol treatment facilities licensed under chapter 70.96A RCW, and home health agencies licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW, and includes such facilities if owned and operated by a political subdivision or instrumentality of the state and such other facilities as required by federal law and implementing regulations.

(11) "Preexisting condition" means any medical condition, illness, or injury that existed any time prior to the effective date of coverage.

(12) "Premium" means all sums charged, received, or deposited by a health carrier as consideration for a health plan or the continuance of a health plan. Any assessment or any "membership," "policy," "contract," "service," or similar fee or charge made by a health carrier in consideration for a health plan is deemed part of the premium. "Premium" shall not include amounts paid as enrollee point-of-service cost-sharing.

(13) "Small employer" means any person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, political subdivision, or self-employed individual that is actively engaged in business that, on at least fifty percent of its working days during the preceding calendar quarter, employed no more than fifty eligible employees, with a normal work week of thirty or more hours, the majority of whom were employed within this state, and is not formed primarily for purposes of buying health insurance and in which a bona fide employer-employee relationship exists. In determining the number of eligible employees, companies that are affiliated companies, or that are eligible to file a combined tax return for purposes of taxation by this state, shall be considered an employer. Subsequent to the issuance of a health plan to a small employer and for the purpose of determining eligibility, the size of a small employer shall be determined annually. Except as otherwise specifically provided, a small employer shall continue to be considered a small employer until the plan anniversary following the date the small employer no longer meets the requirements of this definition. The term "small employer" includes a self-employed individual or sole proprietor. The term "small employer" also includes a self-employed individual or sole proprietor who derives at least seventy-five percent of his or her income from a trade or business through which the individual or sole proprietor has attempted to earn taxable income and for which he or she has filed the appropriate Internal Revenue Service form 1040, Schedule C or F, for the previous taxable year.

(15) "Basic health plan" means the plan described under chapter 70.47 RCW, as revised from time to time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. INSURANCE REFORM--PORTABILITY. (1) Every health carrier shall waive any preexisting condition exclusion or limitation for persons or groups who had similar health coverage under a different health plan at any time during the three-month period immediately preceding the date of application for the new health plan if such person was continuously covered under the immediately preceding health plan. If the person was continuously covered for at least three months under the immediately preceding health plan, the carrier may not impose a waiting period for coverage of preexisting conditions. If the person was continuously covered for less than three months under the immediately preceding health plan, the carrier must credit any waiting period under the immediately preceding health plan toward the new health plan. For the purposes of this subsection, a preceding health plan includes an employer provided self-funded health plan.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, nothing contained in this section requires a health carrier to amend a health plan to provide new benefits in its existing health plans. In addition, nothing in this section requires a carrier to waive benefit limitations not related to an individual or group's preexisting conditions or health history.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. INSURANCE REFORM--PREEXISTING CONDITIONS. (1) No carrier may reject an individual for health plan coverage based upon preexisting conditions of the individual and no carrier may deny, exclude, or otherwise limit coverage for an individual's preexisting health conditions; except that a carrier may impose a three-month benefit waiting period for preexisting conditions for which medical advice was given, or for which a health care provider recommended or provided treatment within three months before the effective date of coverage.

(2) No carrier may avoid the requirements of this section through the creation of a new rate classification or the modification of an existing rate classification. A new or changed rate classification will be deemed an attempt to avoid the provisions of this section if the new or changed classification would substantially discourage applications for coverage from individuals or groups who are higher than average health risks. These provisions apply only to individuals who are Washington residents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. INSURANCE REFORM--GUARANTEED ISSUE. (1) All health carriers shall accept for enrollment any state resident within the carrier's service area and provide or assure the provision of all covered services regardless of age, sex, family structure, ethnicity, race, health condition, geographic location, employment status, socioeconomic status, other condition or situation, or the provisions of RCW 49.60.174(2). The insurance commissioner may grant a temporary exemption from this subsection, if, upon application by a health carrier the commissioner finds that the clinical, financial, or administrative capacity to serve existing enrollees will be impaired if a health carrier is required to continue enrollment of additional eligible individuals.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, all health plans shall contain or incorporate by endorsement a guarantee of the continuity of coverage of the plan. For the purposes of this section, a plan is "renewed" when it is continued beyond the earliest date upon which, at the carrier's sole option, the plan could have been terminated for other than nonpayment of premium. In the case of group plans, the carrier may consider the group's anniversary date as the renewal date for purposes of complying with the provisions of this section.

(3) The guarantee of continuity of coverage required in health plans shall not prevent a carrier from canceling or nonrenewing a health plan for:

- (a) Nonpayment of premium;
- (b) Violation of published policies of the carrier approved by the insurance commissioner;
- (c) Covered persons entitled to become eligible for medicare benefits by reason of age who fail to apply for a medicare supplement plan or medicare cost, risk, or other plan offered by the carrier pursuant to federal laws and regulations;
- (d) Covered persons who fail to pay any deductible or copayment amount owed to the carrier and not the provider of health care services;
- (e) Covered persons committing fraudulent acts as to the carrier;
- (f) Covered persons who materially breach the health plan; or
- (g) Change or implementation of federal or state laws that no longer permit the continued offering of such coverage.

(4) The provisions of this section do not apply in the following cases:

- (a) A carrier has zero enrollment on a product; or
- (b) A carrier replaces a product and the replacement product is provided to all covered persons within that class or line of business, includes all of the services covered under the replaced product, and does not significantly limit access to the kind of services covered under the replaced product. The health plan may also allow unrestricted conversion to a fully comparable product; or

(c) A carrier is withdrawing from a service area or from a segment of its service area because the carrier has demonstrated to the insurance commissioner that the carrier's clinical, financial, or administrative capacity to serve enrollees would be exceeded.

(5) The provisions of this section do not apply to health plans deemed by the insurance commissioner to be unique or limited or have a short-term purpose, after a written request for such classification by the carrier and subsequent written approval by the insurance commissioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 48.43 RCW to read as follows:

Every health plan delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed by a health carrier on and after January 1, 1996, shall:

(1) Permit every category of health care provider to provide health services or care for conditions included in the basic health plan services to the extent that:

- (a) The provision of such health services or care is within the health care providers' permitted scope of practice; and
- (b) The providers agree to abide by standards related to:
 - (i) Provision, utilization review, and cost containment of health services;
 - (ii) Management and administrative procedures; and
 - (iii) Provision of cost-effective and clinically efficacious health services.

(2) Annually report the names and addresses of all officers, directors, or trustees of the health carrier during the preceding year, and the amount of wages, expense reimbursements, or other payments to such individuals.

One member of the board shall be designated by the governor as chair and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. All legislative members shall be appointed before the close of each regular or special session during an odd-numbered year.

(2) Of the members appointed by the governor, two shall be appointed to two-year terms and two shall be appointed to three-year terms. Thereafter, members shall be appointed to three-year terms. The chair shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term of the position being vacated. A majority of the voting members shall constitute a quorum.

(3) Members of the board appointed by the governor shall occupy their positions on a full-time basis and are exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW. They shall be paid a salary to be fixed by the governor in accordance with RCW 43.03.040.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. CHAIR--POWERS AND DUTIES. The chair shall be the chief administrative officer and the appointing authority of the board. The chair shall have the authority to employ personnel of the board in accordance with chapter 41.06 RCW and prescribe their duties. The chair may employ up to eight personnel exempt from the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW. The chair shall also have the following powers and duties:

- (1) Enter into contracts on behalf of the board;
- (2) Accept and expend donations, grants, and other funds received by the board;
- (3) Appoint advisory committees and undertake studies, research, and analysis necessary to support activities of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. BOARD--POWERS AND DUTIES. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Periodically make recommendations to the appropriate committees of the legislature and the governor on issues including, but not limited to the following:

- (g) The implementation of community rating and its impacts on the marketplace including costs and access;
- (h) The status of quality improvement programs in both the public and private sectors;
- (i) Models for billing and claims processing forms, ensuring that these procedures minimize administrative burdens on health care providers, facilities, carriers, and consumers. These standards shall also apply to state-purchased health services where appropriate;

(j) Guidelines to health carriers for utilization management and review, provider selection and termination policies, and coordination of benefits and premiums; and

(k) Study the feasibility of including long-term care services in a medicare supplemental insurance policy offered according to RCW 41.05.197;

(4) Conduct a comparative analysis of individual and group insurance markets addressing: Relative costs; utilization rates; adverse selection; and specific impacts upon small businesses and individuals. The analysis shall address, also, the necessity and feasibility of establishing explicit related policies, to include, but not be limited to, establishing the maximum allowable individual premium rate as a percentage of the small group premium rate. The board shall submit an interim report on its findings to the governor and appropriate committees of the legislature by December 15, 1995, and a final report on December 15, 1996;

(5) Develop sample enrollee satisfaction surveys that may be used by health carriers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. STUDY. In January 1999 the legislative budget committee shall commence a study of the necessity of the existence of the board and report its recommendations to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 1999.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 48.20 RCW to read as follows:

(1)(a) An insurer offering any health benefit plan to any individual shall offer and actively market to all individuals a health benefit plan providing benefits identical to the schedule of covered health services that are required to be delivered to an individual enrolled in the basic health plan. Nothing in this subsection shall preclude an insurer from offering, or an individual from purchasing, other health benefit plans that may have more or less comprehensive benefits than the basic health plan, provided such plans are in accordance with this chapter. An insurer offering a health benefit plan that does not include benefits provided in the basic health plan shall clearly disclose these differences to the individual in a brochure approved by the commissioner.

(b) A health benefit plan shall provide coverage for hospital expenses and services rendered by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW but is not subject to the requirements of RCW 48.20.390, 48.20.393, 48.20.395, 48.20.397, 48.20.410, 48.20.411, 48.20.412, 48.20.416, and 48.20.420 if the health benefit plan is the mandatory offering under (a) of this subsection that provides benefits identical to the basic health plan, to the extent these requirements differ from the basic health plan.

(2) Premiums for health benefit plans for individuals shall be calculated using the adjusted community rating method that spreads financial risk across the carrier's entire individual product population. All such rates shall conform to the following:

(a) The insurer shall develop its rates based on an adjusted community rate and may only vary the adjusted community rate for:

- (i) Geographic area;
- (ii) Family size;
- (iii) Age; and
- (iv) Wellness activities.

(b) The adjustment for age in (a)(iii) of this subsection may not use age brackets smaller than five-year increments which shall begin with age twenty and end with age sixty-five. Individuals under the age of twenty shall be treated as those age twenty.

(c) The insurer shall be permitted to develop separate rates for individuals age sixty-five or older for coverage for which medicare is the primary payer and coverage for which medicare is not the primary payer. Both rates shall be subject to the requirements of this subsection.

(d) The permitted rates for any age group shall be no more than four hundred twenty-five percent of the lowest rate for all age groups on January 1, 1996, four hundred percent on January 1, 1997, and three hundred seventy-five percent on January 1, 2000, and thereafter.

(e) A discount for wellness activities shall be permitted to reflect actuarially justified differences in utilization or cost attributed to such programs not to exceed twenty percent.

(f) The rate charged for a health benefit plan offered under this section may not be adjusted more frequently than annually except that the premium may be changed to reflect:

- (i) Changes to the family composition;
- (ii) Changes to the health benefit plan requested by the individual; or
- (iii) Changes in government requirements affecting the health benefit plan.

(g) For the purposes of this section, a health benefit plan that contains a restricted network provision shall not be considered similar coverage to a health benefit plan that does not contain such a provision, provided that the restrictions of benefits to network providers result in substantial differences in claims costs. This subsection does not restrict or enhance the portability of benefits as provided in section 5 of this act.

(3) Adjusted community rates established under this section shall pool the medical experience of all individuals purchasing coverage, and shall not be required to be pooled with the medical experience of health benefit plans offered to small employers under RCW 48.21.045.

(4) As used in this section, "health benefit plan," "basic health plan," "adjusted community rate," and "wellness activities" mean the same as defined in section 4 of this act.

Sec. 14. RCW 48.21.045 and 1990 c 187 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((A basic group disability insurance policy may be offered to employers of fewer than twenty-five employees. Such a basic group disability insurance policy))~~ (1)(a) An insurer offering any health benefit plan to a small employer shall offer and actively market to the small employer a health benefit plan providing benefits identical to the schedule of covered health services that are required to be delivered to an individual enrolled in the basic health plan. (2) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from offering, or a purchaser from seeking, benefits in excess of the basic ~~((coverage authorized herein))~~ health plan services. (c) The insurer shall be permitted to develop separate rates for individuals age sixty-five or older for coverage for which medicare is the primary payer and coverage for which medicare is not the primary payer. Both rates shall be subject to the requirements of this subsection (3).

(d) The permitted rates for any age group shall be no more than four hundred twenty-five percent of the lowest rate for all age groups on January 1, 1996, four hundred percent on January 1, 1997, and three hundred seventy-five percent on January 1, 2000, and thereafter.

(e) A discount for wellness activities shall be permitted to reflect actuarially justified differences in utilization or cost attributed to such programs not to exceed twenty percent.

(f) The rate charged for a health benefit plan offered under this section may not be adjusted more frequently than annually except that the premium may be changed to reflect:

Therefore, while recognizing the right of conscientious objection to participating in specific health services, the state shall also recognize the right of individuals enrolled with plans containing the basic health plan services to receive the full range of services covered under the plan.

(2)(a) No individual health care provider, religiously sponsored health carrier, or health care facility may be required by law or contract in any circumstances to participate in the provision of or payment for a specific service if they object to so doing for reason of conscience or religion. No person may be discriminated against in employment or professional privileges because of such objection.

(b) The provisions of this section are not intended to result in an enrollee being denied timely access to any service included in the basic health plan services. Each health carrier shall:

(i) Provide written notice to enrollees, upon enrollment with the plan, listing services that the carrier refuses to cover for reason of conscience or religion;

(ii) Provide written information describing how an enrollee may directly access services in an expeditious manner; and

(3)(a) No individual or organization with a religious or moral tenet opposed to a specific service may be required to purchase coverage for that service or services if they object to doing so for reason of conscience or religion.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not result in an enrollee being denied coverage of, and timely access to, any service or services excluded from their benefits package as a result of their employer's or another individual's exercise of the conscience clause in (a) of this subsection.

(c) The insurance commissioner shall define by rule the process through which health carriers may offer the basic health plan services to individuals and organizations identified in (a) and (b) of this subsection in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2)(c) of this section.

Such waivers shall include any waiver needed to require that point-of-service cost-sharing, based on recipient household income, be applied to medical assistance recipients. In negotiating the waiver, consideration shall be given to the degree to which benefits in addition to the minimum list of services should be offered to medical assistance recipients.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. REPEALERS. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 48.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each agreement for health care services that is delivered or issued for delivery or renewed on or after January 1, 1996, must contain provisions providing benefits for chiropractic services on the same basis as any other care. Treatment must be covered under chiropractic coverage if treatment is rendered by the health maintenance organization or if the health maintenance organization refers the enrolled participant or the enrolled participant's dependent to a physician licensed under chapter 18.25 RCW.

(2) A patient of a chiropractor may not be denied services under an agreement because the practitioner is not licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

Sec. 26. RCW 70.47.060 and 1995 c 2 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The administrator has the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, chiropractic services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, prescription drugs and medications, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which subsidized and nonsubsidized enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health plan shall be entitled to receive in return for premium payments to the plan. The schedule of services shall emphasize proven preventive and primary health care and shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care. However, with respect to coverage for groups of subsidized enrollees who are eligible to receive prenatal and postnatal services through the medical assistance program under chapter 74.09 RCW, the administrator shall not contract for such services except to the extent that such services are necessary over not more than a one-month period in order to maintain continuity of care after diagnosis of pregnancy by the managed care provider. The schedule of services shall also include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those subsidized or nonsubsidized enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the plan only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services, the administrator shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080, and such other factors as the administrator deems appropriate. On and after December 31, 1995, the uniform benefits package adopted and from time to time revised by the Washington health services commission pursuant to RCW 43.72.130 shall be implemented by the administrator as the schedule of covered basic health care services. However, with respect to coverage for subsidized enrollees who are eligible to receive prenatal and postnatal services through the medical assistance program under chapter 74.09 RCW, the administrator shall not contract for such services except to the extent that the services are necessary over not more than a one-month period in order to maintain continuity of care after diagnosis of pregnancy by the managed care provider.

(2)(a) To design and implement a structure of periodic premiums due the administrator from subsidized enrollees that is based upon gross family income, giving appropriate consideration to family size and the ages of all family members. The enrollment of children shall not require the enrollment of their parent or parents who are eligible for the plan. The structure of periodic premiums shall be applied to subsidized enrollees entering the plan as individuals pursuant to subsection (9) of this section and to the share of the cost of the plan due from subsidized enrollees entering the plan as employees pursuant to subsection (10) of this section.

(b) To determine the periodic premiums due the administrator from nonsubsidized enrollees. Premiums due from nonsubsidized enrollees shall be in an amount equal to the cost charged by the managed health care system provider to the state for the plan plus the administrative cost of providing the plan to those enrollees and the premium tax under RCW 48.14.0201.

(c) An employer or other financial sponsor may, with the prior approval of the administrator, pay the premium, rate, or any other amount on behalf of a subsidized or nonsubsidized enrollee, by arrangement with the enrollee and through a mechanism acceptable to the administrator, but in no case shall the payment made on behalf of the enrollee exceed the total premiums due from the enrollee.

(3) To design and implement a structure of copayments due a managed health care system from subsidized and nonsubsidized enrollees. The structure shall discourage inappropriate enrollee utilization of health care services, but shall not be so costly to enrollees as to constitute a barrier to appropriate utilization of necessary health care services. On and after July 1, 1995, the administrator shall endeavor to make the copayments structure of the plan consistent with enrollee point of service cost-sharing levels adopted by the Washington health services commission, giving consideration to funding available to the plan.

(4) To limit enrollment of persons who qualify for subsidies so as to prevent an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes. Whenever the administrator finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the administrator shall close enrollment until the administrator finds the danger no longer exists.

(5) To limit the payment of subsidies to subsidized enrollees, as defined in RCW 70.47.020.

(6) To adopt a schedule for the orderly development of the delivery of services and availability of the plan to residents of the state, subject to the limitations contained in RCW 70.47.080 or any act appropriating funds for the plan.

(7) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the plan. The administrator shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available to any enrollee of the plan from among a selection of two or more participating managed health care systems. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems and in its dealings with such systems, the administrator shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the several areas of the state. Contracts with participating managed health care systems shall ensure that basic health plan enrollees who become eligible for medical assistance may, at their option, continue to receive services from their existing providers within the managed health care system if such providers have entered into provider agreements with the department of social and health services.

(8) To receive periodic premiums from or on behalf of subsidized and nonsubsidized enrollees, deposit them in the basic health plan operating account, keep records of enrollee status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(9) To accept applications from individuals residing in areas served by the plan, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan as subsidized or nonsubsidized enrollees, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least semiannually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for sliding scale premiums. No subsidy may be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds twice the federal poverty level or, subject to RCW 70.47.110, who is a recipient of medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW. If, as a result of an eligibility review, the administrator determines that a subsidized enrollee's income exceeds twice the federal poverty level and that the enrollee knowingly failed to inform the plan of such increase in income, the administrator may bill the enrollee for the subsidy paid on the enrollee's behalf during the period of time that the enrollee's income exceeded twice the federal poverty level. If a number of enrollees drop their enrollment for no apparent good cause, the administrator may establish appropriate rules or requirements that are applicable to such individuals before they will be allowed to re-enroll in the plan.

(10) To accept applications from business owners on behalf of themselves and their employees, spouses, and dependent children, as subsidized or nonsubsidized enrollees, who reside in an area served by the plan. The administrator may require all or the substantial majority of the eligible employees of such businesses to enroll in the plan and establish those procedures necessary to facilitate the orderly enrollment of groups in the plan and into a managed health care system. The administrator shall require that a business owner pay at least fifty percent of the nonsubsidized premium cost of the plan on behalf of each employee enrolled in the plan. Enrollment is limited to those not eligible for medicare who wish to enroll in the plan and choose to obtain the basic health care coverage and services from a managed care system participating in the plan. The administrator shall adjust the amount determined to be due on behalf of or from all such enrollees whenever the amount negotiated by the administrator with the participating managed health care system or systems is modified or the administrative cost of providing the plan to such enrollees changes.

(11) To determine the rate to be paid to each participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for similar enrollees, the rates negotiated with participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating rates with participating systems, the administrator shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the local area, the need to conserve the resources of the basic health plan trust account, and other factors the administrator finds relevant.

(12) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic data reports concerning the utilization of health care services rendered to enrollees in order to provide adequate information for evaluation, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the administrator shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the plan. The administrator shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the department of health, to minimize duplication of effort.

(13) To evaluate the effects this chapter has on private employer-based health care coverage and to take appropriate measures consistent with state and federal statutes that will discourage the reduction of such coverage in the state.

(14) To develop a program of proven preventive health measures and to integrate it into the plan wherever possible and consistent with this chapter.

(15) To provide, consistent with available funding, assistance for rural residents, underserved populations, and persons of color."

Each such brewer or wholesaler shall procure from the board revenue stamps representing such tax in form prescribed by the board and shall affix the same to the barrel or package in such manner and in such denominations as required by the board, and shall cancel the same prior to commencing delivery from his or her place of business or warehouse of such barrels or packages. POINT OF ORDER

Senator Moyer: "A point of order, Mr. President. I raise the point of order challenging the scope and object of the amendment before the body. Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1046 is a policy bill, not a fiscal bill. The amendment before the Senate addresses only taxation rates. No reference is made either in the title or the body of the bill to the subject of this amendment. The bill addresses neither the taxation nor the spending of accounts receiving the existing health care taxes. Taxation issues were also not addressed in the policy committee. The amendment addresses sections of RCW not cited in the title and completely outside the scope of the bill itself. I ask that you rule this amendment out of order."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Sutherland: "Mr. President, anticipating that somebody else will be rising very shortly to oppose the amendment, prior to them doing so I would like to ask you another question. That is, if the first amendment is found to be within the scope and object, but defeated by the body--excuse me--let me rephrase that, to be within the scope and object and accepted by the body, will my motion that I am making just now that you recognized be in order--or will it be out of order?"

On page 30, after line 34 of the amendment, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that assuring adequate access to quality health services in rural and medically underserved areas requires special efforts to recruit and train health service providers and the development of health care systems in these areas. The state department of health has provided valuable coordination and technical assistance in these efforts through its office of rural health. The University of Washington's rural and underserved opportunities program and its community health systems development program have voluntarily initiated various creative efforts, which have made solid progress in meeting these essential state needs, despite the lack of explicit financial support from state government for these purposes. The legislature recognizes that increased price competition in health services delivery may jeopardize the University of Washington's laudatory efforts in these areas, and in other teaching and research endeavors that are critical to promoting universal access to quality health services. Therefore, the department of health is authorized to ensure the continuation of these efforts as well as their coordination in the context of overall health systems development, within funds specially appropriated for this purpose."

All health care facilities, health carriers overseeing health care delivery, and providers must develop and disclose a staffing plan to include professional and nonprofessional staff, including direct registered nurse to patient ratios for each treatment setting and shift. This section does not require a health carrier, health care facility, or health provider to adhere to any particular standard that may not be otherwise provided by law. (2) The real property transfer disclosure statement shall be for disclosure only, and shall not be considered part of any written agreement between the buyer and seller of residential real property. The real property transfer disclosure statement shall be only a disclosure made by the seller, and not any real estate licensee involved in the transaction, and shall not be construed as a warranty of any kind by the seller or any real estate licensee involved in the transaction.

Sec. 3. RCW 64.06.030 and 1994 c 200 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the buyer has expressly waived the right to receive the disclosure statement, ~~((within))~~ not later than five business days or as otherwise agreed to, ~~((of))~~ after mutual acceptance of a written agreement between a buyer and a seller for the purchase and sale of residential real property, the seller shall deliver to the buyer a completed, signed, and dated real property transfer disclosure statement. If the buyer does not deliver a written rescission notice to [the] seller within the three-business-day period, or as otherwise agreed to, the real property transfer disclosure statement will be deemed approved and accepted by the buyer.

Sec. 4. RCW 64.06.040 and 1994 c 200 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If, after the date that a seller of residential real property completes a real property transfer disclosure statement, the seller becomes aware of additional information, or an adverse change occurs which makes any of the disclosures made inaccurate, the seller shall amend the real property transfer disclosure statement, and deliver the amendment to the buyer. No amendment shall be required, however, if the seller takes whatever corrective action is necessary so that the accuracy of the disclosure is restored, or the adverse change is corrected, at least three business days prior to the closing date. Unless the ~~((adverse change is corrected or repaired))~~ corrective action is completed by the seller prior to the closing date, the buyer shall have the right to exercise one of the following two options: (a) Approving and accepting the amendment, or (b) rescinding the agreement of purchase and sale of the property within three business days after receiving the amended real property transfer disclosure statement. Acceptance or rescission shall be subject to the same procedures described in RCW 64.06.030. If the closing date provided in the purchase and sale agreement is scheduled to occur within the three-~~business~~-day rescission period provided for in this section, the closing date shall be extended until the expiration of the three-business-day rescission period. The buyer shall have no right of rescission if the seller takes whatever action is necessary so that the accuracy of the disclosure is restored at least three business days prior to the closing date.

(2) In the event any act, occurrence, or agreement arising or becoming known after the closing of a residential real property transfer causes a real property transfer disclosure statement to be inaccurate in any way, the seller of such property shall have no obligation to amend the disclosure statement, and the buyer shall not have the right to rescind the transaction under this chapter.

(3) If the seller in a residential real property transfer fails or refuses to provide to the prospective buyer a real property transfer disclosure statement as required under this chapter, the prospective buyer's right of rescission under this section shall apply until the earlier of three business days after receipt of the real property transfer disclosure statement or the date the transfer has closed, unless the buyer has otherwise waived the right of rescission in writing. Closing is deemed to occur when the buyer has paid the purchase price, or down payment, and the conveyance document, including a deed or real estate contract, from the seller has been delivered and recorded. After closing, the seller's obligation to deliver the real property transfer disclosure statement and the buyer's rights and remedies under this chapter shall terminate.

Sec. 5. RCW 64.06.050 and 1994 c 200 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The seller of residential real property shall not be liable for any error, inaccuracy, or omission in the real property transfer disclosure statement if the seller had no ~~((personal))~~ actual knowledge of the error, inaccuracy, or omission. Unless the seller of residential real property has actual knowledge of an error, inaccuracy, or omission in a real property transfer disclosure statement, the seller shall not be liable for such error, inaccuracy, or omission if the disclosure was based on information provided by public agencies, or by other persons providing information within the scope of their professional license or expertise, including, but not limited to, a report or opinion delivered by a land surveyor, title company, title insurance company, structural inspector, pest inspector, licensed engineer, or contractor.

(2) Any licensed real estate salesperson or broker involved in a residential real property transaction is not liable for any error, inaccuracy, or omission in the real property transfer disclosure statement if the licensee had no ~~((personal))~~ actual knowledge of the error, inaccuracy, or omission. Unless the salesperson or broker has actual knowledge of an error, inaccuracy, or omission in a real property transfer disclosure statement, the salesperson or broker shall not be liable for such error, inaccuracy, or omission if the disclosure was based on information provided by public agencies, or by other persons providing information within the scope of their professional license or expertise, including, but not limited to, a report or opinion delivered by a land surveyor, title company, title insurance company, structural inspector, pest inspector, licensed engineer, or contractor.

Sec. 6. RCW 64.06.070 and 1994 c 200 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 64.06.050, nothing in this chapter shall extinguish or impair any rights or remedies of a buyer of real estate against the seller or against any agent acting for the seller otherwise existing pursuant to common law, statute, or contract; nor shall anything in this chapter create any new right or remedy for a buyer of residential real property other than the right of rescission exercised on the basis and within the time limits provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 2 of this act shall apply to real property transfer disclosure statements completed by sellers of residential real property on or after the effective date of this act. Real property transfer disclosure statements completed by sellers of residential real property prior to the effective date of this act must comply with requirements of RCW 64.06.020 in effect at the time the transaction is started."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "disclosure;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 64.06.010, 64.06.020, 64.06.030, 64.06.040, 64.06.050, and 64.06.070; and providing an effective date.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5053 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5092, with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that it is in the interests of the people of the state of Washington to be able to establish library capital facility areas as quasi-municipal corporations and independent taxing units existing within the boundaries of existing rural county library districts, rural intercounty library districts, rural partial-county library districts, or island library districts, for the purpose of financing the construction of capital library facilities.

(1) "Library district" means rural county library district, rural intercounty library district, rural partial-county library district, or island library district.

(2) "Library capital facility area" means a quasi-municipal corporation and independent taxing authority within the meaning of Article VII, section 1 of the state Constitution, and a taxing district within the meaning of Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution, created by a county legislative authority of one or several counties. A library capital facility area may include all or a portion of a city or town.

(3) "Library capital facilities" includes both real and personal property including, but not limited to, land, buildings, site improvements, equipment, furnishings, collections, and all necessary costs related to acquisition, financing, design, construction, equipping, and remodeling.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Upon receipt of a completed written request to both establish a library capital facilities area and submit a ballot proposition under section 6 of this act to finance library capital facilities, that is signed by a majority of the members of the board of trustees of a library district or board of trustees of a city or town library, the county legislative authority or county legislative authorities for the county or counties in which a proposed library capital facility area is to be established shall submit separate ballot propositions to voters to authorize establishing the proposed library capital facilities area and authorizing the library capital facilities area, if established, to finance library capital facilities by issuing general indebtedness and imposing excess levies to retire the indebtedness. The ballot propositions may only be submitted to voters at a general election. Approval of the ballot proposition to create a library capital facilities area shall be by a simple majority vote.

A completed request submitted under this section shall include: (1) A description of the boundaries of the library capital facility area; and (2) a copy of the resolution of the legislative authority of each city or town, and board of trustees of each library district, with territory included within the proposed library capital facilities area indicating both: (a) Its approval of the creation of the proposed library capital facilities area; and (b) agreement on how election costs will be paid for submitting ballot propositions to voters that authorize the library capital facilities area to incur general indebtedness and impose excess levies to retire the general indebtedness.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The governing body of the library capital facility area shall be three members of the county legislative authority from each county in which the library capital facility area is located. In counties that have more than three members of their legislative body, the three members who shall serve on the governing body of the library capital facility area shall be chosen by the full membership of the county legislative authority. Where the library capital facility area is located in more than one county, a county may be represented by less than three members by mutual agreement of the legislative authorities of the participating counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A library capital facilities area may construct, acquire, maintain, and remodel library capital facilities and the governing body of the library capital facility area may, by interlocal agreement or otherwise, contract with a county, city, town, or library district to design, administer the construction of, operate, or maintain a library capital facility financed pursuant to this chapter. Legal title to library capital facilities acquired or constructed pursuant to this chapter may be transferred, acquired, or held by the library capital facility area or by a county, city, town, or library district in which the facility is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A library capital facility area may contract indebtedness or borrow money to finance library capital facilities and may issue general obligation bonds for such purpose not exceeding an amount, together with any existing indebtedness of the library capital facility area, equal to one and one-quarter percent of the value of the taxable property in the district and impose excess property tax levies to retire the general indebtedness as provided in RCW 39.36.050 if a ballot proposition authorizing both the indebtedness and excess levies is approved by at least three-fifths of the voters of the library capital facility area voting on the proposition, and the total number of voters voting on the proposition constitutes not less than forty percent of the total number of voters in the library capital facility area voting at the last preceding general election. The term "value of the taxable property" has the meaning set forth in RCW 39.36.015. Such a proposition may only be submitted to voters at a general election and may be submitted to voters at the same election as the election when the ballot proposition authorizing the establishing of the library capital facilities district is submitted.

(2) A library capital facility area may accept gifts or grants of money or property of any kind for the same purposes for which it is authorized to borrow money in subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A library capital facility area may be dissolved by a majority vote of the governing body when all obligations under any general obligation bonds issued by the library capital facility area have been discharged and any other contractual obligations of the library capital facility area have either been discharged or assumed by another governmental entity.

(2) A library capital facility area shall be dissolved by the governing body if the first two ballot propositions under section 6 of this act that are submitted to voters are not approved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 36.32 RCW to read as follows:

A county legislative authority may establish a library capital facility area pursuant to chapter 27.-- RCW (sections 1 through 7 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 27.14.010 and 1961 c 162 s 1;
- (2) RCW 27.14.015 and 1963 c 80 s 5;
- (3) RCW 27.14.020 and 1963 c 80 s 1 & 1961 c 162 s 2;
- (4) RCW 27.14.030 and 1963 c 80 s 2 & 1961 c 162 s 3;
- (5) RCW 27.14.035 and 1963 c 80 s 3;
- (6) RCW 27.14.040 and 1963 c 80 s 4 & 1961 c 162 s 4; and
- (7) RCW 27.14.050 and 1961 c 162 s 5.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 27 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "facilities;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 36.32 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 27 RCW; and repealing RCW 27.14.010, 27.14.015, 27.14.020, 27.14.030, 27.14.035, 27.14.040, and 27.14.050.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5092 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 7, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5155, with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that the shoreline management act requires that local shoreline master programs must provide for use designations that are consistent with state guidelines. The legislature further recognizes that the hydraulic project act requires a permit and complete plans for certain work within the high water line. The legislature therefore finds that the combined state oversight provided by both of these acts may be unnecessary when the same project requires a substantial development permit and a hydraulics permit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A public or private project that is designed to improve fish or wildlife habitat or fish passage shall be exempt from the substantial development permit requirements of this chapter when all of the following apply:

- (a) The project has been approved by the department of fish and wildlife;
- (b) The project has received hydraulic project approval by the department of fish and wildlife pursuant to chapter 75.20 RCW; and
- (c) The local government has determined that the project is substantially consistent with the local shoreline master program. The local government shall make such determination in a timely manner and provide it by letter to the project proponent.

(2) Approval authority under chapter 75.20 RCW for a public or private project that is not exempt from the substantial development permit requirements of this chapter, shall be delegated to cities, counties, or towns for projects located within a harbor area of that jurisdiction when an approved shoreline master program exists for that area and the city, town, or county has made a written request for such a delegation of authority."

On line 2 of the title, after "act;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 90.58 RCW; and creating a new section.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fraser: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe that the amendment passed by the House exceeds the scope and object of the bill. The bill that the Senate passed, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5155, is a very narrowly drawn exception to the Shoreline Management Act. It allows an exemption from the Shoreline permit for a very specific purpose, fish and wildlife improvement projects, and the only respect with which it addresses the hydraulics code is to provide one criteria that can be satisfied before a Shoreline permit may be excluded. The House amendment adds an entirely new subject to the bill both as to the laws involved and to the types of projects and it amends the hydraulics code in the Shoreline Act, rather than in the Hydraulic's Act. It allows delegation to local governments of any type of project that is within a harbor area. Harbor areas, as you know, are reserved forever for purposes of navigation and commerce, so you wouldn't be having a fish and wildlife enhancement project there, generally. I do feel that this is outside the scope and object."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President deferred further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5155.

MOTION

At 11:49 a.m., on motion of Senator Spanel, the Senate recessed until 1:00 p.m.

The Senate was called to order at 1:09 p.m. by President Pritchard.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5155 and the pending House amendments, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

"In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Fraser, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 5155 is a measure which exempts certain fish and wildlife enhancement projects from the substantial development permit requirements of the Shoreline Management Act if certain conditions are met.

"The striking amendment by the House of Representatives would transfer approval authority for all other hydraulic permits from the state to local governments for harbor projects when requested and an approved shoreline master program exists for that area.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The striking amendment and title amendment proposed by the House of Representatives to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5155 were ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fraser, the Senate does not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5155 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5088 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Sexually violent predator" means any person who has been convicted of or charged with a crime of sexual violence and who suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder which makes the person likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility.

(2) "Mental abnormality" means a congenital or acquired condition affecting the emotional or volitional capacity which predisposes the person to the commission of criminal sexual acts in a degree constituting such person a menace to the health and safety of others.

(3) "Likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence" means that the person more probably than not will engage in such acts. Such likelihood must be evidenced by a recent overt act if the person is not totally confined at the time the petition is filed under RCW 71.09.030.

(4) "Predatory" means acts directed towards strangers or individuals with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization.

~~((4))~~ (5) "Recent overt act" means any act that has either caused harm of a sexually violent nature or creates a reasonable apprehension of such harm.

(6) "Sexually violent offense" means an act committed on, before, or after July 1, 1990, that is: (a) An act defined in Title 9A RCW as rape in the first degree, rape in the second degree by forcible compulsion, rape of a child in the first or second degree, statutory rape in the first or second degree, indecent liberties by forcible compulsion, indecent liberties against a child under age fourteen, incest against a child under age fourteen, or child molestation in the first or second degree; (b) a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1990, that is comparable to a sexually violent offense as defined in (a) of this subsection, or any federal or out-of-state conviction for a felony offense that under the laws of this state would be a sexually violent offense as defined in this subsection; (c) an act of murder in the first or second degree, assault in the first or second degree, assault of a child in the first or second degree, kidnapping in the first or second degree, burglary in the first degree, residential burglary, or unlawful imprisonment, which act, either at the time of sentencing for the offense or subsequently during civil commitment proceedings pursuant to chapter 71.09 RCW, has been determined beyond a reasonable doubt to have been sexually motivated, as that term is defined in RCW 9.94A.030; or (d) an act as described in chapter 9A.28 RCW, that is an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of the felonies designated in (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection.

(7) "Less restrictive alternative" means court-ordered treatment in a setting less restrictive than total confinement.

(8) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services or his or her designee.

Sec. 2. RCW 71.09.025 and 1992 c 45 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) When it appears that a person may meet the criteria of a sexually violent predator as defined in RCW 71.09.020(1), the agency with jurisdiction shall refer the person in writing to the prosecuting attorney of the county where that person was charged, three months prior to:

(i) The anticipated release from total confinement of a person who has been convicted of a sexually violent offense;

(ii) The anticipated release from total confinement of a person found to have committed a sexually violent offense as a juvenile;

(iii) Release of a person who has been charged with a sexually violent offense and who has been determined to be incompetent to stand trial pursuant to RCW 10.77.090(3); or

(iv) Release of a person who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity of a sexually violent offense pursuant to RCW 10.77.020(3).

(b) The agency shall ~~((inform))~~ provide the prosecutor ~~((of))~~ with all relevant information including but not limited to the following information:

(i) ~~((The person's name, identifying factors, anticipated future residence, and offense history; and))~~ A complete copy of the institutional records compiled by the department of corrections relating to the person, and any such out-of-state department of corrections' records, if available;

(ii) ~~((Documentation of institutional adjustment and any treatment received))~~ A complete copy, if applicable, of any file compiled by the indeterminate sentence review board relating to the person;

(iii) All records relating to the psychological or psychiatric evaluation and/or treatment of the person;

(iv) A current record of all prior arrests and convictions, and full police case reports relating to those arrests and convictions; and

(v) A current mental health evaluation or mental health records review.

(2) This section applies to acts committed before, on, or after March 26, 1992.

(3) The agency, its employees, and officials shall be immune from liability for any good-faith conduct under this section.

(4) As used in this section, "agency with jurisdiction" means that agency with the authority to direct the release of a person serving a sentence or term of confinement and includes the department of corrections, the indeterminate sentence review board, and the department of social and health services.

Sec. 3. RCW 71.09.030 and 1992 c 45 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

When it appears that: (1) ~~((The term of total confinement of))~~ A person who at any time previously has been convicted of a sexually violent offense is about to ~~((expire, or has expired))~~ be released from total confinement on, before, or after July 1, 1990; (2) ~~((the term of total confinement of))~~ a person found to have committed a sexually violent offense as a juvenile is about to ~~((expire, or has expired))~~ be released from total confinement on, before, or after July 1, 1990; (3) a person who has been charged with a sexually violent offense and who has been determined to be incompetent to stand trial is about to be released, or has been released on, before, or after July 1, 1990, pursuant to RCW 10.77.090(3); ~~((of))~~ (4) a person who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity of a sexually violent offense is about to be released, or has been released on, before, or after July 1, 1990, pursuant to RCW 10.77.020(3), 10.77.110 (1) or (3), or 10.77.150; or (5) a person who at any time previously has been convicted of a sexually violent offense and has since been released from total confinement and has committed a recent overt act; and it appears that the person may be a sexually violent predator, the prosecuting attorney of the county where the person was convicted or charged or the attorney general if requested by the prosecuting attorney may file a petition alleging that the person is a "sexually violent predator" and stating sufficient facts to support such allegation.

Sec. 4. RCW 71.09.040 and 1990 c 3 s 1004 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the filing of a petition under RCW 71.09.030, the judge shall determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the person named in the petition is a sexually violent predator. If such determination is made the judge shall direct that the person be taken into custody ~~((and))~~.

(2) Within seventy-two hours after a person is taken into custody pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the court shall provide the person with notice of, and an opportunity to appear in person at, a hearing to contest probable cause as to whether the person is a sexually violent predator. At this hearing, the court shall (a) verify the person's identity, and (b) determine whether probable cause exists to believe that the person is a sexually violent predator. At the probable cause hearing, the state may rely upon the petition and certification for determination of probable cause filed pursuant to RCW 71.09.030. The state may supplement this with additional documentary evidence or live testimony.

(3) At the probable cause hearing, the person shall have the following rights in addition to the rights previously specified: (a) To be represented by counsel; (b) to present evidence on his or her behalf; (c) to cross-examine witnesses who testify against him or her; (d) to view and copy all petitions and reports in the court file.

(4) If the probable cause determination is made, the judge shall direct that the person ~~((shall))~~ be transferred to an appropriate facility for an evaluation as to whether the person is a sexually violent predator. The evaluation shall be conducted by a person deemed to be professionally qualified to conduct such an examination pursuant to rules developed by the department of social and health services. In adopting such rules, the department of social and health services shall consult with the department of health and the department of corrections. In no event shall the person be released from confinement prior to trial.

Sec. 5. RCW 71.09.050 and 1990 c 3 s 1005 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Within forty-five days after the ~~((filing of a petition pursuant to RCW 71.09.030))~~ completion of any hearing held pursuant to RCW 71.09.040, the court shall conduct a trial to determine whether the person is a sexually violent predator. The trial may be continued upon the request of either party and a showing of good cause, or by the court on its own motion in the due administration of justice, and when the respondent will not be substantially prejudiced. At all stages of the proceedings under this chapter, any person subject to this chapter shall be entitled to the assistance of counsel, and if the person is indigent, the court shall appoint counsel to assist him or her. The person shall be confined in a secure facility for the duration of the trial.

(2) Whenever any person is subjected to an examination under this chapter, he or she may retain experts or professional persons to perform an examination on their behalf. When the person wishes to be examined by a qualified expert or professional person of his or her own choice, such examiner shall be permitted to have reasonable access to the person for the purpose of such examination, as well as to all relevant medical and psychological records and reports. In the case of a person who is indigent, the court shall, upon the person's request, assist the person in obtaining an expert or professional person to perform an examination or participate in the trial on the person's behalf.

(3) The person, the prosecuting attorney or attorney general, or the judge shall have the right to demand that the trial be before a twelve-person jury. If no demand is made, the trial shall be before the court.

Sec. 6. RCW 71.09.060 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 12 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court or jury shall determine whether, beyond a reasonable doubt, the person is a sexually violent predator. When the determination is made by a jury, the verdict must be unanimous.

If, on the date that the petition is filed, the person was living in the community after release from custody, the state must also prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the person had committed a recent overt act. If the state alleges that the prior sexually violent offense that forms the basis for the petition for commitment was an act that was sexually motivated as provided in RCW 71.09.020~~((4))~~(6)(c), the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the alleged sexually violent act was sexually motivated as defined in RCW 9.94A.030. If the court or jury determines that the person is a sexually violent predator, the person shall be committed to the custody of the department of social and health services for placement in a secure facility operated by the department of social and health services for control, care, and treatment until such time as the person's mental abnormality or personality disorder has so changed that the person is safe either (a) to be at large, or (b) to be released to a less restrictive alternative as set forth in section 10 of this act. ~~((Such control, care, and treatment shall be provided at a facility operated by the department of social and health services.))~~ If the court or jury is not satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the person is a sexually violent predator, the court shall direct the person's release.

(2) If the person charged with a sexually violent offense has been found incompetent to stand trial, and is about to or has been released pursuant to RCW 10.77.090(3), and his or her commitment is sought pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the court shall first hear evidence and determine whether the person did commit the act or acts charged if the court did not enter a finding prior to dismissal under RCW 10.77.090(3) that the person committed the act or acts charged. The hearing on this issue must comply with all the procedures specified in this section. In addition, the rules of evidence applicable in criminal cases shall apply, and all constitutional rights available to defendants at criminal trials, other than the right not to be tried while incompetent, shall apply. After hearing evidence on this issue, the court shall make specific findings on whether the person did commit the act or acts charged, the extent to which the person's incompetence or developmental disability affected the outcome of the hearing, including its effect on the person's ability to consult with and assist counsel and to testify on his or her own behalf, the extent to which the evidence could be reconstructed without the assistance of the person, and the strength of the prosecution's case. If, after the conclusion of the hearing on this issue, the court finds, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the person did commit the act or acts charged, it shall enter a final order, appealable by the person, on that issue, and may proceed to consider whether the person should be committed pursuant to this section.

(3) The state shall comply with RCW 10.77.220 while confining the person pursuant to this chapter, except that during all court proceedings the person shall be detained in a secure facility. The facility shall not be located on the grounds of any state mental facility or regional habilitation center because these institutions are insufficiently secure for this population.

Sec. 7. RCW 71.09.070 and 1990 c 3 s 1007 are each amended to read as follows:

Each person committed under this chapter shall have a current examination of his or her mental condition made at least once every year. The annual report shall include consideration of whether conditional release to a less restrictive alternative is in the best interest of the person and will adequately protect the community. The person may retain, or if he or she is indigent and so requests, the court may appoint a qualified expert or a professional person to examine him or her, and such expert or professional person shall have access to all records concerning the person. The periodic report shall be provided to the court that committed the person under this chapter.

Sec. 8. RCW 71.09.080 and 1990 c 3 s 1008 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The involuntary detention or commitment of persons under this chapter shall conform to constitutional requirements for care and treatment.))~~ (1) Any person subjected to restricted liberty as a sexually violent predator pursuant to this chapter shall not forfeit any legal right or suffer any legal disability as a consequence of any actions taken or orders made, other than as specifically provided in this chapter.

(2) Any person committed pursuant to this chapter has the right to adequate care and individualized treatment. The department of social and health services shall keep records detailing all medical, expert, and professional care and treatment received by a committed person, and shall keep copies of all reports of periodic examinations made pursuant to this chapter. All such records and reports shall be made available upon request only to: The committed person, his or her attorney, the prosecuting attorney, the court, the protection and advocacy agency, or another expert or professional person who, upon proper showing, demonstrates a need for access to such records.

(3) At the time a person is taken into custody or transferred into a facility pursuant to a petition under this chapter, the professional person in charge of such facility or his or her designee shall take reasonable precautions to inventory and safeguard the personal property of the persons detained or transferred. A copy of the inventory, signed by the staff member making it, shall be given to the person detained and shall, in addition, be open to inspection to any responsible relative, subject to limitations, if any, specifically imposed by the detained person. For purposes of this subsection, "responsible relative" includes the guardian, conservator, attorney, spouse, parent, adult child, or adult brother or sister of the person. The facility shall not disclose the contents of the inventory to any other person without consent of the patient or order of the court.

(4) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a person presently committed from exercising a right presently available to him or her for the purpose of obtaining release from confinement, including the right to petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

(5) No indigent person may be conditionally released or unconditionally discharged under this chapter without suitable clothing, and the secretary shall furnish the person with such sum of money as is required by RCW 72.02.100 for persons without ample funds who are released from correctional institutions. As funds are available, the secretary may provide payment to the indigent persons conditionally released pursuant to this chapter consistent with the optional provisions of RCW 72.02.100 and 72.02.110, and may adopt rules to do so.

Sec. 9. RCW 71.09.090 and 1992 c 45 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the secretary (~~(of the department of social and health services)~~) determines that the person's mental abnormality or personality disorder has so changed that the person is not likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative or unconditionally discharged, the secretary shall authorize the person to petition the court for conditional release to a less restrictive alternative or unconditional discharge. The petition shall be served upon the court and the prosecuting attorney. The court, upon receipt of the petition for conditional release to a less restrictive alternative or unconditional discharge, shall within forty-five days order a hearing. The prosecuting attorney or the attorney general, if requested by the county, shall represent the state, and shall have the right to have the petitioner examined by an expert or professional person of his or her choice. The hearing shall be before a jury if demanded by either the petitioner or the prosecuting attorney or attorney general. The burden of proof shall be upon the prosecuting attorney or attorney general to show beyond a reasonable doubt that the petitioner's mental abnormality or personality disorder remains such that the petitioner is not safe to be at large and that if conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative or unconditionally discharged is likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence.

(2) Nothing contained in this chapter shall prohibit the person from otherwise petitioning the court for conditional release to a less restrictive alternative or unconditional discharge without the secretary's approval. The secretary shall provide the committed person with an annual written notice of the person's right to petition the court for conditional release to a less restrictive alternative or unconditional discharge over the secretary's objection. The notice shall contain a waiver of rights. The secretary shall forward the notice and waiver form to the court with the annual report. If the person does not affirmatively waive the right to petition, the court shall set a show cause hearing to determine whether facts exist that warrant a hearing on whether the person's condition has so changed that he or she is safe to be ~~((at large))~~ conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative or unconditionally discharged. The committed person shall have a right to have an attorney represent him or her at the show cause hearing but the person is not entitled to be present at the show cause hearing. If the court at the show cause hearing determines that probable cause exists to believe that the person's mental abnormality or personality disorder has so changed that the person is ~~((safe to be at large and is))~~ not likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative or unconditionally discharged, then the court shall set a hearing on the issue. At the hearing, the committed person shall be entitled to be present and to the benefit of all constitutional protections that were afforded to the person at the initial commitment proceeding. The prosecuting attorney or the attorney general if requested by the county shall represent the state and shall have a right to a jury trial and to have the committed person evaluated by experts chosen by the state. The committed person shall also have the right to have experts evaluate him or her on his or her behalf and the court shall appoint an expert if the person is indigent and requests an appointment. The burden of proof at the hearing shall be upon the state to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the committed person's mental abnormality or personality disorder remains such that the person is ~~((not safe to be at large and if released is))~~ likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative or unconditionally discharged.

(3) The jurisdiction of the court over a person civilly committed pursuant to this chapter continues until such time as the person is unconditionally discharged.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Before the court may enter an order directing conditional release to a less restrictive alternative, it must find the following: (1) The person will be treated by a treatment provider who is qualified to provide such treatment in the state of Washington under chapter 18.155 RCW; (2) the treatment provider has presented a specific course of treatment and has agreed to assume responsibility for such treatment and will report progress to the court on a regular basis, and will report violations immediately to the court, the prosecutor, the supervising community corrections officer, and the superintendent of the special commitment center; (3) housing exists that is sufficiently secure to protect the community, and the person or agency providing housing to the conditionally released person has agreed in writing to accept the person, to provide the level of security required by the court, and immediately to report to the court, the prosecutor, the supervising community corrections officer, and the superintendent of the special commitment center if the person leaves the housing to which he or she has been assigned without authorization; (4) the person is willing to comply with the treatment provider and all requirements imposed by the treatment provider and by the court; and (5) the person is willing to comply with supervision requirements imposed by the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) Upon the conclusion of the evidence in a hearing held pursuant to RCW 71.09.090, if the court finds that there is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find that the conditions set forth in section 10 of this act have been met, the court shall grant a motion by the state for a judgment as a matter of law on the issue of conditional release to a less restrictive alternative.

(2) Whenever the issue of conditional release to a less restrictive alternative is submitted to the jury, the court shall instruct the jury to return a verdict in substantially the following form: Has the state proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the proposed less restrictive alternative is not in the best interests of respondent or will not adequately protect the community? Answer: Yes or No.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) If the court or jury determines that conditional release to a less restrictive alternative is in the best interest of the person and will adequately protect the community, and the court determines that the minimum conditions set forth in section 9 of this act are met, the court shall enter judgment and direct a conditional release.

(2) The court shall impose any additional conditions necessary to ensure compliance with treatment and to protect the community. If the court finds that conditions do not exist that will both ensure the person's compliance with treatment and protect the community, then the person shall be remanded to the custody of the department of social and health services for control, care, and treatment in a secure facility as designated in RCW 71.09.060(1).

(3) If the service provider designated to provide inpatient or outpatient treatment or to monitor or supervise any other terms and conditions of a person's placement in a less restrictive alternative is other than the department of social and health services or the department of corrections, then the service provider so designated must agree in writing to provide such treatment.

(4) Prior to authorizing any release to a less restrictive alternative, the court shall impose such conditions upon the person as are necessary to ensure the safety of the community. The court shall order the department of corrections to investigate the less restrictive alternative and recommend any additional conditions to the court. These conditions shall include, but are not limited to the following: Specification of residence, prohibition of contact with potential or past victims, prohibition of alcohol and other drug use, participation in a specific course of inpatient or outpatient treatment that may include monitoring by the use of polygraph and plethysmograph, supervision by a department of corrections community corrections officer, a requirement that the person remain within the state unless the person receives prior authorization by the court, and any other conditions that the court determines are in the best interest of the person or others. A copy of the conditions of release shall be given to the person and to any designated service providers.

(5) Any service provider designated to provide inpatient or outpatient treatment shall monthly, or as otherwise directed by the court, submit to the court, to the department of social and health services facility from which the person was released, to the prosecutor of the county in which the person was found to be a sexually violent predator, and to the supervising community corrections officer, a report stating whether the person is complying with the terms and conditions of the conditional release to a less restrictive alternative.

(6) Each person released to a less restrictive alternative shall have his or her case reviewed by the court that released him or her no later than one year after such release and annually thereafter until the person is unconditionally discharged. Review may occur in a shorter time or more frequently, if the court, in its discretion on its own motion, or on motion of the person, the secretary, or the prosecuting attorney so determines. The sole question to be determined by the court is whether the person shall continue to be conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative. The court in making its determination shall be aided by the periodic reports filed pursuant to subsection (5) of this section and the opinions of the secretary and other experts or professional persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Any service provider submitting reports pursuant to section 12(5) of this act, the supervising community corrections officer, the prosecuting attorney, or the attorney general may petition the court, or the court on its own motion may schedule an immediate hearing, for the purpose of revoking or modifying the terms of the person's conditional release to a less restrictive alternative if the petitioner or the court believes the released person is not complying with the terms and conditions of his or her release or is in need of additional care and treatment.

(2) If the prosecuting attorney, the supervising community corrections officer, or the court, based upon information received by them, reasonably believes that a conditionally released person is not complying with the terms and conditions of his or her conditional release to a less restrictive alternative, the court or community corrections officer may order that the conditionally released person be apprehended and taken into custody until such time as a hearing can be scheduled to determine the facts and whether or not the person's conditional release should be revoked or modified. The court shall be notified before the close of the next judicial day of the person's apprehension. Both the prosecuting attorney and the conditionally released person shall have the right to request an immediate mental examination of the conditionally released person. If the conditionally released person is indigent, the court shall, upon request, assist him or her in obtaining a qualified expert or professional person to conduct the examination.

(3) The court, upon receiving notification of the person's apprehension, shall promptly schedule a hearing. The issue to be determined is whether the state has proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the conditionally released person did not comply with the terms and conditions of his or her release. Hearsay evidence is admissible if the court finds it otherwise reliable. At the hearing, the court shall determine whether the person shall continue to be conditionally released on the same or modified conditions or whether his or her conditional release shall be revoked and he or she shall be committed to total confinement, subject to release only in accordance with provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 14. RCW 71.09.110 and 1990 c 3 s 1011 are each amended to read as follows:

The department of social and health services shall be responsible for all costs relating to the evaluation and treatment of persons committed to their custody whether in a secure facility or under a less restrictive alternative under any provision of this chapter. Reimbursement may be obtained by the department for the cost of care and treatment of persons committed to its custody whether in a secure facility or under a less restrictive alternative pursuant to RCW 43.20B.330 through 43.20B.370.

Sec. 15. RCW 9A.76.120 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 47 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Escape in the second degree is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (a) The chief of police of the city, if any, in which the person will reside or in which placement will be made under a less restrictive alternative;

(b) The sheriff of the county in which the person will reside or in which placement will be made under a less restrictive alternative; and

(c) The sheriff of the county where the person was last convicted of a sexually violent offense, if the department does not know where the person will reside.

The department shall notify the state patrol of the release of all sexually violent predators and that information shall be placed in the Washington crime information center for dissemination to all law enforcement.

(2) The same notice as required by subsection (1) of this section shall be sent to the following if such notice has been requested in writing about a specific person found to be a sexually violent predator under this chapter:

(3) If a person committed as a sexually violent predator under this chapter escapes from a department of social and health services facility, the department shall immediately notify, by the most reasonable and expedient means available, the chief of police of the city and the sheriff of the county in which the committed person resided immediately before his or her commitment as a sexually violent predator, or immediately before his or her incarceration for his or her most recent offense. If previously requested, the department shall also notify the witnesses and the victims of the sexually violent offenses for which the person was convicted in the past or the victim's next of kin if the crime was a homicide. If the person is recaptured, the department shall send notice to the persons designated in this subsection as soon as possible but in no event later than two working days after the department learns of such recapture.

(4) If the victim or victims of any sexually violent offenses for which the person was convicted in the past or the victim's next of kin, or any witness is under the age of sixteen, the notice required by this section shall be sent to the parents or legal guardian of the child.

(5) The department of social and health services shall send the notices required by this chapter to the last address provided to the department by the requesting party. The requesting party shall furnish the department with a current address.

(6) Nothing in this section shall impose any liability upon a chief of police of a city or sheriff of a county for failing to request in writing a notice as provided in subsection (1) of this section.

not have access to this program. The evaluation system shall examine how the percentage of these children needing access to special education or remedial programs compares to the overall percentage of children needing such services and compares to the percentage of eligible students who did not have access to this program needing such services.

- (c) Reaching consensus upon educational expectations through community involvement and corresponding school management.

(4) The state board of education shall adopt rules governing procedural criteria. Such rules should be flexible so as to accommodate local goals and circumstances. The self-study process shall be conducted on a cyclical basis every seven years following the initial 1990-91 period.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall provide training to assist districts in their self-studies.

Sec. 505. RCW 28A.630.885 and 1994 c 245 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington commission on student learning is hereby established. The primary purposes of the commission are to identify the knowledge and skills all public school students need to know and be able to do based on the student learning goals in RCW 28A.150.210, to develop student assessment and school accountability systems, to review current school district data reporting requirements and make recommendations on what data is necessary for the purposes of accountability and meeting state information needs, and to take other steps necessary to develop a performance-based education system. The commission shall include three members of the state board of education, three members appointed by the governor before July 1, 1992, and five members appointed no later than June 1, 1993, by the governor elected in the November 1992 election. The governor shall appoint a chair from the commission members, and fill any vacancies in gubernatorial appointments that may occur. The state board of education shall fill any vacancies of state board of education appointments that may occur. In making the appointments, educators, business leaders, and parents shall be represented, and nominations from state-wide education, business, and parent organizations shall be requested. Efforts shall be made to ensure that the commission reflects the racial and ethnic diversity of the state's K-12 student population and that the major geographic regions in the state are represented. Appointees shall be qualified individuals who are supportive of educational restructuring, who have a positive record of service, and who will devote sufficient time to the responsibilities of the commission to ensure that the objectives of the commission are achieved.

(2) The commission shall establish advisory committees. Membership of the advisory committees shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, professionals from the office of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education, and other state and local educational practitioners and student assessment specialists.

(3) The commission, with the assistance of the advisory committees, shall:

(a) Develop essential academic learning requirements based on the student learning goals in RCW 28A.150.210. Essential academic learning requirements shall be developed, to the extent possible, for each of the student learning goals in RCW 28A.150.210. Goals one and two shall be considered primary. Essential academic learning requirements for RCW 28A.150.210(1), goal one, and the mathematics component of RCW 28A.150.210(2), goal two, shall be completed no later than March 1, 1995. Essential academic learning requirements that incorporate the remainder of RCW 28A.150.210 (2), (3), and (4), goals two, three, and four, shall be completed no later than March 1, 1996. To the maximum extent possible, the commission shall integrate goal four and the knowledge and skill areas in the other goals in the development of the essential academic learning requirements;

(b)(i) The commission shall present to the state board of education and superintendent of public instruction a state-wide academic assessment system for use in the elementary, middle, and high school years designed to determine if each student has mastered the essential academic learning requirements identified in (a) of this subsection. The academic assessment system shall include a variety of assessment methods, including performance-based measures that are criterion-referenced. Performance standards for determining if a student has successfully completed an assessment shall be initially determined by the commission in consultation with the advisory committees required in subsection (2) of this section.

(ii) The assessment system shall be designed so that the results under the assessment system are used by educators as tools to evaluate instructional practices, and to initiate appropriate educational support for students who have not mastered the essential academic learning requirements at the appropriate periods in the student's educational development.

(iii) Assessments measuring the essential academic learning requirements developed for RCW 28A.150.210(1), goal one, and the mathematics component of RCW 28A.150.210(2), goal two, shall be initially implemented by the state board of education and superintendent of public instruction no later than the 1996-97 school year, unless the legislature takes action to delay or prevent implementation of the assessment system and essential academic learning requirements. Assessments measuring the essential academic learning requirements developed for RCW 28A.150.210 (2), (3), and (4), goals two, three, and four, shall be initially implemented by the state board of education and superintendent of public instruction no later than the 1997-98 school year, unless the legislature takes action to delay or prevent implementation of the assessment system and essential academic learning requirements. To the maximum extent possible, the commission shall integrate knowledge and skill areas in development of the assessments.

(iv) Before the 2000-2001 school year, participation by school districts in the assessment system shall be optional. School districts that desire to participate before the 2000-2001 school year shall notify the superintendent of public instruction in a manner determined by the superintendent. Beginning in the 2000-2001 school year, all school districts shall be required to participate in the assessment system.

(v) The state board of education and superintendent of public instruction may modify the essential academic learning requirements and academic assessment system, as needed, in subsequent school years.

(vi) The commission shall develop assessments that are directly related to the essential academic learning requirements, and are not biased toward persons with different learning styles, racial or ethnic backgrounds, or on the basis of gender;

(c) After a determination is made by the state board of education that the high school assessment system has been implemented and that it is sufficiently reliable and valid, successful completion of the high school assessment shall lead to a certificate of mastery. The certificate of mastery shall be obtained by most students at about the age of sixteen, and is evidence that the student has successfully mastered the essential academic learning requirements during his or her educational career. The certificate of mastery shall be required for graduation but shall not be the only requirement for graduation. The commission shall make recommendations to the state board of education regarding the relationship between the certificate of mastery and high school graduation requirements. Upon achieving the certificate of mastery, schools shall provide students with the opportunity to continue to pursue career and educational objectives through educational pathways that emphasize integration of academic and vocational education. Educational pathways may include, but are not limited to, programs such as work-based learning, school-to-work transition, tech prep, vocational-technical education, running start, and preparation for technical college, community college, or university education;

(d) Consider methods to address the unique needs of special education students when developing the assessments in (b) and (c) of this subsection;

(e) Consider methods to address the unique needs of highly capable students when developing the assessments in (b) and (c) of this subsection;

(f) Develop recommendations on the time, support, and resources, including technical assistance, needed by schools and school districts to help students achieve the essential academic learning requirements. These recommendations shall include an estimate for the legislature, superintendent of public instruction, and governor on the expected cost of implementing the academic assessment system;

(g) Develop recommendations for consideration by the higher education coordinating board for adopting college and university entrance requirements for public school students that are consistent with the essential academic learning requirements and the certificate of mastery;

(h) Review current school district data reporting requirements for the purposes of accountability and meeting state information needs. The commission on student learning shall report recommendations to the joint select committee on education restructuring by September 15, 1996, on:

(i) What data is necessary to compare how school districts are performing before the essential academic learning requirements and the assessment system are implemented with how school districts are performing after the essential academic learning requirements and the assessment system are implemented; and

(ii) What data is necessary pertaining to school district reports under the accountability systems developed by the commission on student learning under this section:

(i) By December 1, 1998, recommend to the legislature, governor, state board of education, and superintendent of public instruction:

(i) A state-wide accountability system to monitor and evaluate accurately and fairly the level of learning occurring in individual schools and school districts. The accountability system shall be designed to recognize the characteristics of the student population of schools and school districts such as gender, race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, and other factors. The system shall include school-site, school district, and state-level accountability reports;

(ii) A school assistance program to help schools and school districts that are having difficulty helping students meet the essential academic learning requirements;

(iii) A system to intervene in schools and school districts in which significant numbers of students persistently fail to learn the essential academic learning requirements; and

(iv) An awards program to provide incentives to school staff to help their students learn the essential academic learning requirements, with each school being assessed individually against its own baseline. Incentives shall be based on the rate of percentage change of students achieving the essential academic learning requirements. School staff shall determine how the awards will be spent.

It is the intent of the legislature to begin implementation of programs in this subsection ~~(3)((h))~~ (i) on September 1, 2000;

~~((h))~~ (j) Report annually by December 1st to the legislature, the governor, the superintendent of public instruction, and the state board of education on the progress, findings, and recommendations of the commission; and

(4) The commission shall coordinate its activities with the state board of education and the office of the superintendent of public instruction.

(5) The commission shall seek advice broadly from the public and all interested educational organizations in the conduct of its work, including holding periodic regional public hearings.

(6) The commission shall select an entity to provide staff support and the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall provide administrative oversight and be the fiscal agent for the commission. The commission may direct the office of the superintendent of public instruction to enter into subcontracts, within the commission's resources, with school districts, teachers, higher education faculty, state agencies, business organizations, and other individuals and organizations to assist the commission in its deliberations.

(7) Members of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 5, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5275 with the following amendment(s):

"Sec. 1. RCW 35.10.460 and 1985 c 281 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Ballot titles on the questions shall be prepared as provided in RCW 35A.29.120.))~~ If a proposal for assumption of indebtedness is to be submitted to the voters of a city in which the indebtedness did not originate, the proposal shall be separately stated and the ballots shall contain, as a separate proposition to be voted on, the words "For Assumption of Indebtedness to be paid by the levy of annual property taxes in excess of regular property taxes" and "Against Assumption of Indebtedness to be paid by the levy of annual property taxes in excess of regular property taxes" or words equivalent thereto. If the question of the form or plan of government is to be submitted to the voters, the question shall be separately stated and the ballots shall contain, as a separate proposition to be voted on, the option of a voter to select one of the three forms or plans of government. If the question of the name of the proposed consolidated city is to be submitted to the voters, the question shall be separately stated and the ballots shall contain, as a separate proposition to be voted on, the option of a voter to select one of the names of the proposed consolidated city.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.10.470 and 1985 c 281 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The county canvassing board in each county involved shall canvass the returns in each election. The votes cast in each of such cities shall be canvassed separately, and the statement shall show the whole number of votes cast, the number of votes cast in each city for consolidation, and the number of votes cast in each city against such consolidation. If a proposal for assumption or indebtedness was voted upon in a city in which the indebtedness did not originate, the statement shall show the number of votes cast in such a city for assumption of indebtedness and the number of votes cast against assumption of indebtedness. If a question of the form or plan of government was voted upon, the statement shall show the number of votes cast in each city for each of the optional forms or plans of government. If a name for the proposed consolidated city was voted upon, the statement shall show the number of votes cast in each city for each optional name. A certified copy of such statement shall be filed with the legislative body of each of the cities proposed to be consolidated.

If it appears from such statement of canvass that a majority of the votes cast in each of the cities were in favor of consolidation, the consolidation shall be authorized and shall be effective when the newly elected legislative body members assume office, as provided in RCW 35.10.480.

If a question of the form or plan of government was voted upon, that form or plan receiving the greatest combined number of votes shall become the form or plan of government for the consolidated city. If two or three of the forms or plans of government received the same highest number of votes, the form or plan of government shall be chosen by lot between those receiving the same highest number, where the mayor of the largest of the cities proposed to be consolidated draws the lot at a public meeting.

If a proposition to assume indebtedness was submitted to voters of a city in which the indebtedness did not originate, the proposition shall be deemed approved if approved by a majority of at least three-fifths of the voters of the city, and the number of persons voting on the proposition constitutes not less than forty percent of the number of votes cast in the city at the last preceding general election. Approval of the proposition authorizes annual property taxes to be levied on the property within the city in which the indebtedness did not originate that are in excess of regular property taxes. However, if the general indebtedness in question was incurred by action of a city legislative body, a proposition for assuming the indebtedness need only be approved by a simple majority vote of the voters of the city in which such indebtedness did not originate.

If a question of the name of the proposed consolidated city was voted upon, that name receiving the greatest combined number of votes shall become the name of the consolidated city. If two proposed names receive the same number of votes, the name shall be chosen by lot, where the mayor of the largest of the cities proposed to be consolidated draws the lot at a public meeting.

Sec. 3. RCW 35.10.480 and 1985 c 281 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

If the voters of each of the cities proposed to consolidate approve the consolidation, elections to nominate and elect the elected officials of the consolidated city shall be held at times specified in RCW 35A.02.050. If the joint resolution or the petitions prescribe that councilmembers of the consolidated city shall be elected from wards, then the councilmembers shall be elected from wards under RCW 35A.12.180. Terms shall be established as if the city is initially incorporating.

The newly elected officials shall take office immediately upon their qualification. The effective date of the consolidation shall be when a majority of the newly elected members of the legislative body assume office. The clerk of the newly consolidated city shall transmit a duly certified copy of an abstract of the votes to authorize the consolidation and of the election of the newly elected city officials to the secretary of state and the office of financial management.

Sec. 4. RCW 35.10.490 and 1985 c 281 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

A joint resolution or the petitions may prescribe the name of the proposed consolidated city or may provide that a ballot proposition to determine the name of the proposed consolidated city be submitted to the voters of the cities proposed to be consolidated. If two alternative names are submitted, the name receiving the simple majority vote of the voters voting on the question shall become the name of the consolidated city. If the name for the proposed consolidated city is not prescribed by the joint resolution or petition, or a proposition on the name is not submitted to the voters of the cities proposed to be consolidated, then the newly consolidated city shall be known as the city of (listing the names of the cities that were consolidated in alphabetical order). The legislative body of the newly consolidated city may present another name or two names for the newly consolidated city to the city voters for their approval or rejection at the next municipal general election held after the effective date of the consolidation. If only one alternative name is submitted, this alternative name shall become the name of the consolidated city if approved by a simple majority vote of the voters voting on the question. If two alternative names are submitted, the name receiving the simple majority vote of the voters voting on the question shall become the name of the consolidated city.

Sec. 5. RCW 35.21.010 and 1991 c 363 s 37 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Municipal corporations now or hereafter organized are bodies politic and corporate under the name of the city of, or the town of, as the case may be, and as such may sue and be sued, contract or be contracted with, acquire, hold, possess and dispose of property, subject to the restrictions contained in other chapters of this title, having a common seal, and change or alter the same at pleasure, and exercise such other powers, and have such other privileges as are conferred by this title(~~(: PROVIDED, That)~~). However, not more than two square miles in area shall be included within the corporate limits of a town having a population of fifteen hundred or less, or located in a county with a population of one million or more, and not more than three square miles in area shall be included within the corporate limits of a town having a population of more than fifteen hundred in a county with a population of less than one million, nor shall more than twenty acres of unplatted land belonging to any one person be taken within the corporate limits of a town without the consent of the owner of such unplatted land(~~(: PROVIDED FURTHER, That)~~).

(2) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (3) of this section, a town located in three or more counties is excluded from a limitation in square mileage.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the original incorporation of a town shall be limited to an area of not more than one square mile and a population as prescribed in RCW 35.01.040.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

Unless a commission form of government is prescribed or submitted to the voters under RCW 35.10.430, a joint resolution or petition may prescribe that wards be used to elect the councilmembers of the consolidated city. The joint resolution or petition must contain a map of the proposed consolidated city that clearly delineates the boundaries of each ward. Each ward in the proposed consolidated city shall contain approximately the same population. To the greatest extent possible, the integrity of the boundaries of the cities that are proposed to be consolidated shall be respected when the wards are drawn so that the territory within each city is: (1) Included within the fewest number of wards, to the extent the city has a population that is greater than the maximum population established for each ward; or (2) included wholly within one ward, to the extent the city has a population that is equal to or less than the maximum population established for each ward. After the election specified in RCW 35.10.480, election wards may be modified in the manner specified in RCW 35A.12.180.

Sec. 7. RCW 35.10.420 and 1985 c 281 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The submission of a ballot proposal to the voters of two or more contiguous cities for the consolidation of these contiguous cities may also be caused by the filing of a petition with the legislative body of each such city, signed by the voters of each city in number equal to not less than ten percent of ~~((the votes cast))~~ voters who voted in the city at the last general municipal election therein, seeking consolidation of such contiguous cities. A copy of the petition shall be forwarded immediately by each city to the auditor of the county or counties within which that city is located.

The county auditor or auditors shall determine the sufficiency of the signatures in each petition within ten days of receipt of the copies and immediately notify the cities proposed to be consolidated of the sufficiency. If each of the petitions is found to have sufficient valid signatures, the auditor or auditors shall call a special election at which the question of whether such cities shall consolidate shall be submitted to the voters of each of such cities. If a general election is to be held more than ninety days but not more than one hundred eighty days after the filing of the last petition, the question shall be submitted at that election. Otherwise the question shall be submitted at a special election to be called for that purpose at the next special election date, as specified in RCW 29.13.020, that occurs ninety or more days after the date when the last petition was filed.

If each of the petitions is found to have sufficient valid signatures, the auditor or auditors also shall notify the county legislative authority of each county in which the cities are located of the proposed consolidation.

Petitions shall conform with the requirements for form prescribed in RCW 35A.01.040, except different colored paper may be used on petitions circulated in the different cities. A legal description of the cities need not be included in the petitions."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "towns;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 35.10.460, 35.10.470, 35.10.480, 35.10.490, 35.21.010, and 35.10.420; and adding a new section to chapter 35.10 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

(d) The department shall reimburse reasonable expenses for the production of data, materials, or documents incurred by the person in possession of the data, materials, or documents to be disclosed.

(e) Requesting information under (b) of this subsection that may indicate that a taxpayer is under investigation does not constitute a disclosure of tax return or tax information under this section.

(5) Any person acquiring knowledge of any return or tax information in the course of his or her employment with the department of revenue and any person acquiring knowledge of any return or tax information as provided under subsection (3) (f), (g), (h), or (i) of this section, who discloses any such return or tax information to another person not entitled to knowledge of such return or tax information under the provisions of this section, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and, if the person guilty of such violation is an officer or employee of the state, such person shall forfeit such office or employment and shall be incapable of holding any public office or employment in this state for a period of two years thereafter.

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5374 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This subchapter applies to limited liability partnerships. All other provisions of this chapter, not in conflict with this subchapter, also apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this subchapter.

(1) "Limited liability partnership" or "partnership" means a partnership formed pursuant to an agreement governed by the laws of this state, registered under section 6 of this act.

(2) "Foreign limited liability partnership" means a limited liability partnership formed pursuant to an agreement governed by the laws of another jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) To become and to continue as a limited liability partnership, a partnership shall file with the secretary of state an application stating the name of the partnership; the address of its principal office; if the partnership's principal office is not located in this state, the address of a registered office and the name and address of a registered agent for service of process in this state which the partnership will be required to maintain; the number of partners; a brief statement of the business in which the partnership engages; any other matters that the partnership determines to include; and that the partnership thereby applies for status as a limited liability partnership.

(2) The application shall be executed by a majority in interest of the partners or by one or more partners authorized to execute an application.

(3) The application shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred seventy-five dollars for each partnership.

(4) The secretary of state shall register as a limited liability partnership any partnership that submits a completed application with the required fee.

(5) A partnership registered under this section shall pay an annual fee, in each year following the year in which its application is filed, on a date and in an amount specified by the secretary of state. The fee must be accompanied by a notice, on a form provided by the secretary of state, of the number of partners currently in the partnership and of any material changes in the information contained in the partnership's application for registration.

(6) Registration is effective immediately after the date an application is filed, and remains effective until: (a) It is voluntarily withdrawn by filing with the secretary of state a written withdrawal notice executed by a majority in interest of the partners or by one or more partners authorized to execute a withdrawal notice; or (b) thirty days after receipt by the partnership of a notice from the secretary of state, which notice shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, that the partnership has failed to make timely payment of the annual fee specified in subsection (5) of this section, unless the fee is paid within such a thirty-day period.

(7) The status of a partnership as a limited liability partnership, and the liability of the partners thereof, shall not be affected by: (a) Errors in the information stated in an application under subsection (1) of this section or a notice under subsection (5) of this section; or (b) changes after the filing of such an application or notice in the information stated in the application or notice.

(8) The secretary of state may provide forms for the application under subsection (1) of this section or a notice under subsection (5) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The name of a limited liability partnership shall contain the words "limited liability partnership" or the abbreviation "L.L.P." or "LLP" as the last words or letters of its name.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A person or group of persons licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render professional services, as defined in RCW 18.100.030, within this state may organize and become a member or members of a limited liability partnership under the provisions of this chapter for the purposes of rendering professional service. Nothing in this section prohibits a person duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render professional services in any jurisdiction other than this state from becoming a member of a limited liability partnership organized for the purpose of rendering the same professional services. Nothing in this section prohibits a limited liability partnership from rendering professional services outside this state through individuals who are not duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render such professional services within this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A limited liability partnership formed and existing under this chapter, may conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or in any foreign country.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that the legal existence of a limited liability partnership formed and existing under this chapter be recognized outside the boundaries of this state and that the laws of this state governing a limited liability partnership transacting business outside this state be granted the protection of full faith and credit under the Constitution of the United States.

(3) The internal affairs of a partnership, including a limited liability partnership formed and existing under this chapter, including the liability of partners for debts, obligations, and liabilities of or chargeable to the partnership, shall be subject to and governed by the laws of this state.

(4) Subject to any statutes for the regulation and control of specific types of business, a foreign limited liability partnership, formed and existing under the laws of another jurisdiction, may do business in this state provided it registers with the secretary of state under this chapter in the same manner as a limited liability partnership.

(5) It is the policy of this state that the internal affairs of a foreign limited liability partnership, including the liability of partners for debts, obligations, and liabilities of or chargeable to partnerships, shall be subject to and governed by the laws of such other jurisdiction.

However, a foreign limited liability partnership formed and existing under the laws of another jurisdiction is subject to section 7 of this act if it renders professional services, as defined in RCW 18.100.030, in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, all partners are liable:

- (a) Jointly and severally for everything chargeable to the partnership under RCW 25.04.130 and 25.04.140; and
- (b) Jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership; but any partner may enter into a separate obligation to perform a partnership contract;
- (c) Except that:
 - (i) In no event shall a trustee or personal representative, a fiduciary, acting as a partner have personal liability except as provided in RCW 11.98.110 (2) and (4);
 - (ii) Any such liability under this section shall be satisfied first from the partnership assets and second from the trust or estate; and
 - (iii) If a fiduciary is liable, the fiduciary is entitled to indemnification first from the partnership assets and second from the trust or estate.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (5) of this section, a partner in a limited liability partnership is not liable directly or indirectly, including by way of indemnification, contribution, assessment, or otherwise for debts, obligations, and liabilities of or chargeable to the partnership, whether in tort, contract or otherwise, arising from omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct, or malpractice committed in the course of the partnership business by another partner or an employee, agent, or representative of the partnership.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not affect the liability of a partner in a limited liability partnership for his or her own omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct, or malpractice or that of any person under his or her direct supervision and control.

(4) A partner in a limited liability partnership is not a proper party to a proceeding by or against a limited liability partnership, the object of which is to recover damages or enforce the obligations arising from omissions, negligence, wrongful acts, misconduct, or malpractice described in subsection (2) of this section, unless such partner is personally liable under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) If the partners of a limited liability partnership or foreign limited liability partnership are required to be licensed to provide professional services, as defined in RCW 18.100.030, and the partnership fails to maintain for itself and for its members practicing in this state a policy of professional liability insurance, bond, deposit in trust, bank escrow of cash, bank certificates of deposit, United States Treasury obligations, bank letter of credit, insurance company bond, or other evidence of financial responsibility of a kind designated by rule by the state insurance commissioner and in the amount of at least one million dollars or such greater amount, not to exceed three million dollars, as the state insurance commissioner may establish by rule for a licensed profession or for any specialty within a profession, taking into account the nature and size of the businesses within the profession or specialty, then the partners shall be personally liable to the extent that, had such insurance, bond, deposit in trust, bank escrow of cash, bank certificates of deposit, United States Treasury obligations, bank letter of credit, insurance company bond, or other evidence of responsibility been maintained, it would have covered the liability in question.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The rights and duties of the partners in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to any agreement between them, by the following rules:

(1) Each partner shall be repaid his or her contributions, whether by way of capital or advances to the partnership property and share equally in the profits and surplus remaining after all liabilities, including those to partners, are satisfied; and except as provided in section 7(2) of this act, each partner must contribute toward the losses, whether of capital or otherwise, sustained by the partnership according to his or her share in the profits.

(2) The partnership must indemnify every partner in respect of payments made and personal liabilities reasonably incurred by him or her in the ordinary and proper conduct of its business, or for the preservation of its business or property.

(3) A partner, who in aid of the partnership makes any payment or advance beyond the amount of capital which he or she agreed to contribute, shall be paid interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(4) A partner shall receive interest on the capital contributed by him or her only from the date when repayment should be made.

(5) All partners have equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

(6) No partner is entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business, except that a surviving partner is entitled to reasonable compensation for his or her services in winding up the partnership affairs.

(7) No person can become a member of a partnership without the consent of all the partners.

(8) Any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners; but no act in contravention of any agreement between the partners may be done rightfully without the consent of all the partners.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Where a dissolution is caused by the act, death, or bankruptcy of a partner, each partner is liable to his or her copartners for his or her share of any liability created by any partner acting for the partnership as if the partnership had not been dissolved unless:

- (1) The dissolution being by act of any partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge of the dissolution; or
- (2) The dissolution being by the death or bankruptcy of a partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge or notice of the death or bankruptcy; or
- (3) The liability is for a debt, obligation, or liability for which the partner is not liable as provided in section 7(2) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The dissolution of the partnership does not of itself discharge the existing liability of any partner.

(2) A partner is discharged from any existing liability upon dissolution of the partnership by an agreement to that effect between himself or herself, the partnership creditor and the person or partnership continuing the business; and such agreement may be inferred from the course of dealing between the creditor having knowledge of the dissolution and the person or partnership continuing the business.

(3) Where a person agrees to assume the existing obligations of a dissolved partnership, the partners whose obligations have been assumed shall be discharged from any liability to any creditor of the partnership who, knowing of the agreement, consents to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of such obligations.

(4) The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for those obligations of the partnership incurred while he or she was a partner and for which he or she was liable under section 7 of this act, but subject to the prior payment of his or her separate debts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In settling accounts between the partners after dissolution, the following rules shall be observed, subject to any agreement to the contrary:

(1) The assets of the partnership are:

- (a) The partnership property;
- (b) The contributions of the partners specified in subsection (4) of this section.

(2) The liabilities of the partnership shall rank in order of payment, as follows:

- (a) Those owing to creditors other than partners;
- (b) Those owing to partners other than for capital and profits;
- (c) Those owing to partners in respect of capital;
- (d) Those owing to partners in respect of profits.

(3) The assets shall be applied in the order of their declaration in subsection (1) of this section to the satisfaction of the liabilities.

(4) Except as provided in section 7(2) of this act: (a) The partners shall contribute, as provided by section 8(1) of this act the amount necessary to satisfy the liabilities; and (b) if any, but not all, of the partners are insolvent, or, not being subject to process, refuse to contribute, the other partners shall contribute their share of the liabilities, and, in the relative proportions in which they share the profits, the additional amount necessary to pay the liabilities.

(5) An assignee for the benefit of creditors or any person appointed by the court shall have the right to enforce the contribution specified in subsection (4) of this section.

(6) Any partner or his or her legal representative shall have the right to enforce the contributions specified in subsection (4) of this section, to the extent of the amount which he or she has paid in excess of his or her share of the liability.

(7) The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for the contributions specified in subsection (4) of this section.

(8) When partnership property and the individual properties of the partners are in possession of a court for distribution, partnership creditors shall have priority on partnership property and separate creditors on individual property, saving the rights of lien or secured creditors as heretofore.

(9) Where a partner has become bankrupt or his or her estate is insolvent the claims against his or her separate property shall rank in the following order:

- (a) Those owing to separate creditors;
- (b) Those owing to partnership creditors;
- (c) Those owing to partners by way of contribution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act are each added to chapter 25.04 RCW and codified with the subchapter heading of "limited liability partnerships."

(4) Employers whose substance abuse testing programs meet, as of July 1, 1995, all of the requirements for the premium discount provided in this section are not eligible for certification. Employers whose substance abuse testing programs meet, as of July 1, 1995, some, but not all, of the requirements for the premium discount provided in this section may, upon subsequent compliance with the requirements, be eligible for certification.

(5) Nothing in this chapter creates or alters an obligation on the part of an employer seeking to participate in this program to bargain with a collective bargaining representative of its employees.

(6) An employer may not receive premium discounts from the department of labor and industries under more than one premium discount program. An employer participating in and meeting all of the requirements for the discount provided in this section and also participating in another premium discount program offered by the department of labor and industries is only entitled to the premium discount that is the highest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A drug-free workplace program established under this chapter must contain the following elements:

- (a) A written policy statement as provided in section 5 of this act;
- (b) Substance abuse testing as provided in section 6 of this act;
- (c) An employee assistance program as provided in accordance with section 7 of this act;
- (d) Employee education as provided in section 9 of this act; and
- (e) Supervisor training in accordance with section 10 of this act.

(2) In addition to the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, a drug-free workplace program established under this chapter must be implemented in compliance with the confidentiality standards provided in section 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) An alcohol and drug-free workplace program must contain a written substance abuse policy statement in order to qualify for the premium discount provided under section 3 of this act. The policy must:

- (a) Notify employees that the use or being under any influence of alcohol during working hours is prohibited;
- (b) Notify employees that the use, purchase, possession, or transfer of drugs or having illegal drugs in their system is prohibited and that prescription or nonprescription medications are not prohibited when taken in accordance with a lawful prescription or consistent with standard dosage recommendations;

- (c) Identify the types of testing an employee or job applicant may be required to submit to or other basis used to determine when such a test will be required;
 - (d) Identify the actions the employer may take against an employee or job applicant on the basis of a verified positive test result;
 - (e) Contain a statement advising an employee or job applicant of the existence of this chapter;
 - (f) Contain a general statement concerning confidentiality;
 - (g) Identify the consequences of refusing to submit to a drug test;
 - (h) Contain a statement advising an employee of the employee assistance program;
 - (i) Contain a statement that an employee or job applicant who receives a verified positive test result may contest or explain the result to the employer within five working days after receiving written notification of the positive test result;
 - (j) Contain a statement informing an employee of the provisions of the federal drug-free workplace act, if applicable to the employer;
- and

(k) Notify employees that the employer may discipline an employee for failure to report an injury in the workplace.

(2) An employer not having a substance abuse testing program in effect on July 1, 1995, shall ensure that at least sixty days elapse between a general one-time notice to all employees that a substance abuse testing program is being implemented and the beginning of the actual testing. An employer having a substance abuse testing program in place before July 1, 1995, is not required to provide a sixty-day notice period.

(3) An employer shall include notice of substance abuse testing to all job applicants. A notice of the employer's substance abuse testing policy must also be posted in an appropriate and conspicuous location on the employer's premises, and copies of the policy must be made available for inspection by the employees or job applicants of the employer during regular business hours in the employer's personnel office or other suitable locations. An employer with employees or job applicants who have trouble communicating in English shall make reasonable efforts to help the employees understand the policy statement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Substance abuse testing must be conducted in conformity with the standards and procedures established in this chapter and all applicable rules adopted by the department under this chapter. If an employer fails to maintain an alcohol and drug-free workplace program in accordance with the standards, procedures, and rules established under this chapter, the employer shall not qualify for the workers' compensation premium discount provided under section 3 of this act.

(2) To qualify for the premium discount under section 3 of this act, an employer shall:

(a) Be in good standing and remain in good standing with the department of labor and industries with respect to the employer's workers' compensation premium obligations;

(b) Require job applicants to submit to a drug test after extending an offer of employment. The employer may use a refusal to submit to a drug test or a verified positive test as a basis for not hiring the job applicant;

(c) Require an employee to submit to drug and alcohol tests if the employer has reasonable suspicion to believe that the employee is impaired by or under the influence of drugs or alcohol in the course of employment. Under this chapter, a first-time verified positive test result may not be used as a basis to terminate an employee's employment. However, an employee may be terminated for independent reasons, such as a violation of a safety rule or regulation;

(d) If the employee in the course of employment is referred to the employee assistance program by the employer as a result of a verified positive drug or alcohol test or an alcohol or drug-related incident in violation of employer rules, require the employee to submit to drug and alcohol testing in conjunction with any recommended rehabilitation program. If the employee assistance program determines that the employee does not require treatment services, the employee must still be required to participate in follow-up testing. However, if an employee voluntarily enters an employee assistance program, without a verified positive drug or alcohol test or a violation of any drug or alcohol related employer rule, follow-up testing is not required. If follow-up testing is conducted, the frequency of the testing shall be at least four times a year for a two-year period after completion of the rehabilitation program and advance notice of the testing date may not be given. A verified positive follow-up test result shall normally require termination of employment.

(3) This section does not prohibit an employer from conducting other drug or alcohol testing, such as upon reasonable suspicion or a random basis.

(4) Specimen collection and substance abuse testing under this section must be performed in accordance with regulations and procedures approved by the United States department of health and human services and the United States department of transportation regulations for alcohol and drug testing and must include testing for marijuana, cocaine, amphetamines, opiates, and phencyclidine. Employers may test for any drug listed in section 2(7) of this act.

(a) A specimen must be collected with due regard to the privacy of the individual providing the specimen and in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent substitution or contamination of the specimen.

(b) Specimen collection and analysis must be documented. The documentation procedures must include:

(i) Labeling of specimen containers so as to reasonably preclude the likelihood of erroneous identification of test results; and

(ii) An opportunity for the employee or job applicant to provide to a medical review officer information the employee or applicant considers relevant to the drug test, including identification of currently or recently used prescription or nonprescription medication or other relevant medical information.

(c) Specimen collection, storage, and transportation to the testing site must be performed in a manner that reasonably precludes specimen contamination or adulteration.

(d) An initial and confirmation test conducted under this section, not including the taking or collecting of a specimen to be tested, must be conducted by a laboratory as described in subsection (5) of this section.

(e) A specimen for a test may be taken or collected by any of the following persons:

(i) A physician, a physician's assistant, a registered professional nurse, a licensed practical nurse, a nurse practitioner, or a certified paramedic who is present at the scene of an accident for the purpose of rendering emergency medical service or treatment;

(ii) A qualified person certified or employed by a laboratory certified by the substance abuse and mental health administration or the college of American pathologists; or

(iii) A qualified person certified or employed by a collection company using collection procedures adopted by the United States department of health and human services and the United States department of transportation for alcohol collection.

(f) Within five working days after receipt of a verified positive test result from the laboratory, an employer shall inform an employee or job applicant in writing of the positive test result, the consequences of the result, and the options available to the employee or job applicant.

(g) The employer shall provide to the employee or job applicant, upon request, a copy of the test results.

(h) An initial test having a positive result must be verified by a confirmation test.

(i) An employer who performs drug testing or specimen collection shall use chain of custody procedures to ensure proper recordkeeping, handling, labeling, and identification of all specimens to be tested.

(j) An employer shall pay the cost of all drug or alcohol tests, initial and confirmation, that the employer requires of employees.

(k) An employee or job applicant shall pay the cost of additional tests not required by the employer.

(5)(a) A laboratory may not analyze initial or confirmation drug specimens unless:

(i) The laboratory is approved by the substance abuse and mental health administration or the college of American pathologists;

(ii) The laboratory has written procedures to ensure the chain of custody; and

(iii) The laboratory follows proper quality control procedures including, but not limited to:

(A) The use of internal quality controls including the use of samples of known concentrations that are used to check the performance and calibration of testing equipment, and periodic use of blind samples for overall accuracy;

(B) An internal review and certification process for test results, conducted by a person qualified to perform that function in the testing laboratory;

(C) Security measures implemented by the testing laboratory to preclude adulteration of specimens and test results; and

(D) Other necessary and proper actions taken to ensure reliable and accurate drug test results.

(b) A laboratory shall disclose to the employer a written test result report within seven working days after receipt of the sample. A laboratory report of a substance abuse test result must, at a minimum, state:

(i) The name and address of the laboratory that performed the test and the positive identification of the person tested;

(ii) Positive results on confirmation tests only, or negative results, as applicable;

(iii) A list of the drugs for which the drug analyses were conducted; and

(iv) The type of tests conducted for both initial and confirmation tests and the threshold detection levels of the tests.

A report may not disclose the presence or absence of a drug other than a specific drug and its metabolites listed under this chapter.

(c) A laboratory shall provide technical assistance through the use of a medical review officer to the employer, employee, or job applicant for the purpose of interpreting a positive confirmed drug test result that could have been caused by prescription or nonprescription medication taken by the employee or job applicant. The medical review officer shall interpret and evaluate the laboratory's positive drug test result and eliminate test results that could have been caused by prescription medication or other medically documented sources in accordance with the United States department of health and human services medical review officer manual.

(6) A positive initial drug test must be confirmed using the gas chromatography/mass spectrometry method or an equivalent or more accurate scientifically accepted method approved by the substance abuse and mental health administration as the technology becomes available in a cost-effective form.

(7) A workplace safety committee established according to the standards for safety committees under chapter 49.17 RCW shall monitor the ongoing effectiveness of the substance abuse testing program established by the employer under this chapter and shall, at reasonable intervals established by the committee but not less than annually, make recommendations for improving the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The employee assistance program required under this chapter shall provide the employer with a system for dealing with employees whose job performances are declining due to unresolved problems, including alcohol or other drug-related problems, marital problems, or legal or financial problems.

(2) To ensure appropriate assessment and referral to treatment:

(a) The employer must notify the employees of the benefits and services of the employee assistance program;

(b) The employer shall publish notice of the employee assistance program in conspicuous places and explore alternative routine and reinforcing means of publicizing the services; and

(c) The employer shall provide the employee with notice of the policies and procedures regarding access to and use of the employee assistance program.

(3) A list of approved employee assistance programs must be provided by the department according to recognized program standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1)(a) Rehabilitation of employees suffering from either or both alcohol or drug addiction shall be a primary focus of an employee assistance program.

(b) Under any program under this chapter, the employer may not use a first-time verified positive drug or alcohol test as the basis for termination of an employee. After a first-time verified positive test result, the employee must be given an opportunity to keep his or her job through the use of a last-chance agreement. The last-chance agreement shall require an employee to:

- (i) Submit to an employee assistance program evaluation for chemical dependency;
- (ii) Comply with any treatment recommendations;
- (iii) Be subject to follow-up drug and alcohol testing for two years;
- (iv) Meet the same standards of performance and conduct that are set for other employees; and
- (v) Authorize the employer to receive all relevant information regarding the employee's progress in treatment, if applicable.

Failure to comply with all the terms of this agreement normally will result in termination of employment.

(2) When substance abuse treatment is necessary, employees must use treatment services approved by the department, which include a continuing care component lasting for two years.

(a) The employee assistance program shall monitor the employee's progress while in treatment, including the two-year continuing care component, and notify the employer when an employee is not complying with the programs's treatment recommendations.

(b) The employer shall monitor job performance and conduct follow-up testing.

(3) An employer may terminate an employee for the following reasons:

- (a) Refusal to submit to a drug or alcohol test;
- (b) Refusal to agree to or failure to comply with the conditions of a last-chance agreement;
- (c) A second verified positive drug or alcohol test result; or
- (d) After the first verified positive drug or alcohol test, any violation of employer rules pertaining to alcohol and drugs.

(4) Nothing in this chapter limits the right of any employer who participates in the worker's compensation premium discount program under this chapter to terminate employment for any other reason.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. An employer shall provide all employees with an annual education program on substance abuse, in general, and its effects on the workplace, specifically. An employer with employees who have trouble communicating in English shall make reasonable efforts to help the employees understand the substance of the education program. An education program for a minimum of one hour should include but is not limited to the following information:

- (1) The explanation of the disease model of addiction for alcohol and drugs;
- (2) The effects and dangers of the commonly abused substances in the workplace; and
- (3) The employer's policies and procedures regarding substance abuse in the workplace and how employees who wish to obtain substance abuse treatment can do so.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In addition to the education program provided in section 9 of this act, an employer shall provide all supervisory personnel with a minimum of two hours of supervisor training, that should include but is not limited to the following information:

- (1) How to recognize signs of employee substance abuse;
- (2) How to document and collaborate signs of employee substance abuse;
- (3) How to refer employees to the employee assistance program or proper treatment providers; and
- (4) Circumstances and procedures for postinjury testing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) A physician-patient relationship is not created between an employee or job applicant and an employer, medical review officer, or person performing or evaluating a drug or alcohol test solely by the establishment, implementation, or administration of a drug or alcohol testing program.

(2) This chapter may not be construed to prevent an employer from establishing reasonable work rules related to employee possession, use, sale, or solicitation of drugs, including convictions for drug-related offenses, and taking action based upon a violation of any of those rules.

(3) This chapter may not be construed to operate retroactively. This chapter does not abrogate the right of an employer under state or federal law to conduct drug or alcohol tests or implement employee drug or alcohol testing programs. However, only those programs that meet the criteria outlined in this chapter qualify for workers' compensation insurance premiums discounts.

(4) This chapter may not be construed to prohibit an employer from conducting medical screening or other tests required, permitted, or not disallowed by a statute or rule for the purpose of monitoring exposure of employees to toxic or other unhealthy materials in the workplace or in the performance of job responsibilities. The screening or tests must be limited to testing for the specific material expressly identified in the statute or rule, unless prior written consent of the employee is obtained for other tests.

(5) This chapter does not establish a legal duty for employers to conduct alcohol or drug tests of employees or job applicants. A cause of action may not arise in favor of a person based upon the failure of an employer to establish or conduct a program or policy for substance abuse testing or to conduct a program or policy in conformance with the standards and procedures established in this chapter. This chapter does not create individual rights of action and may be enforced only by the department by denial of the workers' compensation premium discount provided in section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Confidentiality standards that apply to substance abuse testing programs implemented under this chapter include the following:

(1) Information, interviews, reports, statements, memoranda, and test results, written or otherwise, received through a substance abuse testing program are confidential communications, and may not be used or received in evidence, obtained in discovery, or disclosed in a civil or administrative proceeding, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section.

(2) An employer, laboratory, medical review officer, employee assistance program, drug or alcohol rehabilitation program, and their agents who receive or have access to information concerning test results shall keep the information confidential, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section.

(3) Any release of the information must be pursuant to a written consent form that complies with RCW 70.02.030 and is signed voluntarily by the person tested, unless the release is compelled by the division of alcohol and substance abuse of the department or a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with state and federal confidentiality laws, or unless required by a professional or occupational licensing board in a related disciplinary proceeding. Any disclosure by any agency approved by the department must be in accordance with RCW 70.96A.150. The consent form must contain at a minimum:

- (a) The name of the person who is authorized to obtain the information;
- (b) The purpose of the disclosure;
- (c) The precise information to be disclosed;
- (d) The duration of the consent; and
- (e) The signature of the person authorizing release of the information.

(4) Information on test results may not be released or used in a criminal proceeding against the employee or job applicant.

Information released contrary to this subsection is inadmissible as evidence in a criminal proceeding.

(5) Nothing in this chapter prohibits:

(a) An employer from using information concerning an employee or job applicant's substance abuse test results in a lawful manner with respect to that employee or applicant; or

(b) An entity that obtains the information from disclosing or using the information in a lawful manner as part of a matter relating to the substance abuse test, the test result, or an employer action with respect to the job applicant or employee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department shall adopt by rule procedures and forms for the certification of employers who establish and maintain a drug-free workplace that complies with this chapter. The department shall adopt by rule procedures for the decertification of employers formally certified for the workers' compensation premium discount provided under this chapter. The department may charge a fee for the certification of a drug-free workplace program in an amount that must approximate its administrative costs related to the certification. Certification of an employer is required for each year in which a premium discount is granted. The department may adopt any other rules necessary for the implementation of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The department of labor and industries may adopt rules necessary for the implementation of this chapter including but not limited to provisions for penalties and repayment of premium discounts by employers that are decertified by the department of social and health services under section 13 of this act.

(2) The department of labor and industries shall conduct an evaluation of the effect of the premium discount provided for under section 3 of this act on workplace safety and the state of Washington industrial insurance fund. The department of labor and industries shall report its preliminary findings to the appropriate committees of the legislature on September 1 of 1996 and 1997 and shall issue a comprehensive final report on December 1, 1998.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The department shall conduct an evaluation to determine the costs and benefits of the program under this chapter. If the department contracts for the performance of any or all of the evaluation, no more than ten percent of the contract amount may be used to cover indirect expenses. The department shall report its preliminary findings to the appropriate committees of the legislature on September 1 of 1996 and 1997 and shall issue a comprehensive final report on December 1, 1998.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the total premium discounts available under section 3 of this act shall not exceed five million dollars during any fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 16 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 49 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 16 of this act shall expire July 1, 1999.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1995."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5516 and requests of the House a conference thereon.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5544 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 43.143.010 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 2 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of this chapter is to articulate policies and establish guidelines for the exercise of state and local management authority over Washington's coastal waters, seabed, and shorelines.

(2) There shall be no leasing of Washington's tidal or submerged lands extending from mean high tide seaward three miles along the Washington coast from Cape Flattery south to Cape Disappointment, nor in Grays Harbor, Willapa Bay, and the Columbia river downstream from the Longview bridge, for purposes of oil or gas exploration, development, or production until at least July 1, ((1995)) 2000. During the ((1995)) 2000 legislative session, the legislature shall determine whether the moratorium on leasing should be extended past July 1, ((1995)) 2000. This determination shall be based on the information available at that time, including the analysis described in RCW 43.143.040. If the legislature does not extend the moratorium on leasing, the moratorium will end on July 1, ((1995)) 2000. At any time that oil or gas leasing, exploration, and development are allowed to occur, these activities shall be required to meet or exceed the standards and criteria contained in RCW 43.143.030.

(3) When conflicts arise among uses and activities, priority shall be given to resource uses and activities that will not adversely impact renewable resources over uses which are likely to have an adverse impact on renewable resources.

(4) It is the policy of the state of Washington to actively encourage the conservation of liquid fossil fuels, and to explore available methods of encouraging such conservation.

(5) It is not currently the intent of the legislature to include recreational uses or currently existing commercial uses involving fishing or other renewable marine or ocean resources within the uses and activities which must meet the planning and review criteria set forth in RCW 43.143.030. It is not the intent of the legislature, however, to permanently exclude these uses from the requirements of RCW 43.143.030. If information becomes available which indicates that such uses should reasonably be covered by the requirements of RCW 43.143.030, the permitting government or agency may require compliance with those requirements, and appeals of that decision shall be handled through the established appeals procedure for that permit or approval.

(6) The state shall participate in federal ocean and marine resource decisions to the fullest extent possible to ensure that the decisions are consistent with the state's policy concerning the use of those resources."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "resources;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 43.143.010.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Drew, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5544 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5632 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that river and stream systems can threaten public and private property during flood events. The legislature therefore declares that reducing flood damage through the use of structural and nonstructural projects is in the public interest and that it is the duty of the state to properly fund flood control projects. Structural and nonstructural projects include but are not limited to: Streambank stabilization, river channel maintenance, land use restrictions, land buy-outs, flood easements, and emergency notification.

Sec. 2. RCW 36.70A.060 and 1991 sp.s. c 32 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each county that is required or chooses to plan under RCW 36.70A.040, and each city within such county, shall adopt development regulations on or before September 1, 1991, to assure the conservation of agricultural, forest, and mineral resource lands designated under RCW 36.70A.170. Regulations adopted under this subsection may not prohibit uses legally existing on any parcel prior to their adoption and shall remain in effect until the county or city adopts development regulations pursuant to RCW 36.70A.120. Such regulations shall assure that the use of lands adjacent to agricultural, forest, or mineral resource lands shall not interfere with the continued use, in the accustomed manner and in accordance with best management practices, of these designated lands for the production of food, agricultural products, or timber, or for the extraction of minerals. Counties and cities shall require that all plats, short plats, development permits, and building permits issued for development activities on, or within three hundred feet of, lands designated as agricultural lands, forest lands, or mineral resource lands, contain a notice that the subject property is within or near designated agricultural lands, forest lands, or mineral resource lands on which a variety of commercial activities may occur that are not compatible with residential development for certain periods of limited duration.

(2) Each county and city shall adopt development regulations that protect critical areas that are required to be designated under RCW 36.70A.170. For counties and cities that are required or choose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040, such development regulations shall be adopted on or before September 1, 1991. For the remainder of the counties and cities, such development regulations shall be adopted on or before March 1, 1992.

(3) Such counties and cities shall review these designations and development regulations when adopting their comprehensive plans under RCW 36.70A.040 and implementing development regulations under RCW 36.70A.120 and may alter such designations and development regulations to insure consistency.

(4) Forest land and agricultural land located within urban growth areas shall not be designated by a county or city as forest land or agricultural land of long-term commercial significance under RCW 36.70A.170 unless the city or county has enacted a program authorizing transfer or purchase of development rights.

(5) All development regulations developed under this section shall be consistent with the flood plain management plan adopted by the county under RCW 86.26.105.

Sec. 3. RCW 36.70A.070 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 17 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive plan of a county or city that is required or chooses to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 shall consist of a map or maps, and descriptive text covering objectives, principles, and standards used to develop the comprehensive plan. The plan shall be an internally consistent document and all elements shall be consistent with the future land use map, and the comprehensive flood plain management plan adopted by the county under RCW 86.26.105. A comprehensive plan shall be adopted and amended with public participation as provided in RCW 36.70A.140.

Each comprehensive plan shall include a plan, scheme, or design for each of the following:

(1) A land use element designating the proposed general distribution and general location and extent of the uses of land, where appropriate, for agriculture, timber production, housing, commerce, industry, recreation, open spaces, public utilities, public facilities, and other land uses. The land use element shall include population densities, building intensities, and estimates of future population growth. The land use element shall provide for protection of the quality and quantity of ground water used for public water supplies. Where applicable, the land use element shall review drainage, flooding, and storm water run-off in the area and nearby jurisdictions and provide guidance for corrective actions to mitigate or cleanse those discharges that pollute waters of the state, including Puget Sound or waters entering Puget Sound.

(2) A housing element recognizing the vitality and character of established residential neighborhoods that: (a) Includes an inventory and analysis of existing and projected housing needs; (b) includes a statement of goals, policies, and objectives for the preservation, improvement, and development of housing; (c) identifies sufficient land for housing, including, but not limited to, government-assisted housing, housing for low-income families, manufactured housing, multifamily housing, and group homes and foster care facilities; and (d) makes adequate provisions for existing and projected needs of all economic segments of the community.

(3) A capital facilities plan element consisting of: (a) An inventory of existing capital facilities owned by public entities, showing the locations and capacities of the capital facilities; (b) a forecast of the future needs for such capital facilities; (c) the proposed locations and capacities of expanded or new capital facilities; (d) at least a six-year plan that will finance such capital facilities within projected funding capacities and clearly identifies sources of public money for such purposes; and (e) a requirement to reassess the land use element if probable funding falls short of meeting existing needs and to ensure that the land use element, capital facilities plan element, and financing plan within the capital facilities plan element are coordinated and consistent.

(4) A utilities element consisting of the general location, proposed location, and capacity of all existing and proposed utilities, including, but not limited to, electrical lines, telecommunication lines, and natural gas lines.

(5) Counties shall include a rural element including lands that are not designated for urban growth, agriculture, forest, or mineral resources. The rural element shall permit land uses that are compatible with the rural character of such lands and provide for a variety of rural densities.

(6) A transportation element that implements, and is consistent with, the land use element. The transportation element shall include the following subelements:

- (a) Land use assumptions used in estimating travel;
- (b) Facilities and services needs, including:

- (i) An inventory of air, water, and land transportation facilities and services, including transit alignments, to define existing capital facilities and travel levels as a basis for future planning;
- (ii) Level of service standards for all arterials and transit routes to serve as a gauge to judge performance of the system. These standards should be regionally coordinated;
- (iii) Specific actions and requirements for bringing into compliance any facilities or services that are below an established level of service standard;
- (iv) Forecasts of traffic for at least ten years based on the adopted land use plan to provide information on the location, timing, and capacity needs of future growth;
- (v) Identification of system expansion needs and transportation system management needs to meet current and future demands;
- (c) Finance, including:
 - (i) An analysis of funding capability to judge needs against probable funding resources;
 - (ii) A multiyear financing plan based on the needs identified in the comprehensive plan, the appropriate parts of which shall serve as the basis for the six-year street, road, or transit program required by RCW 35.77.010 for cities, RCW 36.81.121 for counties, and RCW 35.58.2795 for public transportation systems;
 - (iii) If probable funding falls short of meeting identified needs, a discussion of how additional funding will be raised, or how land use assumptions will be reassessed to ensure that level of service standards will be met;
- (d) Intergovernmental coordination efforts, including an assessment of the impacts of the transportation plan and land use assumptions on the transportation systems of adjacent jurisdictions;
- (e) Demand-management strategies.

After adoption of the comprehensive plan by jurisdictions required to plan or who choose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040, local jurisdictions must adopt and enforce ordinances which prohibit development approval if the development causes the level of service on a transportation facility to decline below the standards adopted in the transportation element of the comprehensive plan, unless transportation improvements or strategies to accommodate the impacts of development are made concurrent with the development. These strategies may include increased public transportation service, ride sharing programs, demand management, and other transportation systems management strategies. For the purposes of this subsection (6) "concurrent with the development" shall mean that improvements or strategies are in place at the time of development, or that a financial commitment is in place to complete the improvements or strategies within six years.

The transportation element described in this subsection, and the six-year plans required by RCW 35.77.010 for cities, RCW 36.81.121 for counties, and RCW 35.58.2795 for public transportation systems, must be consistent.

Sec. 4. RCW 36.70A.170 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 17 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) On or before September 1, 1991, each county, and each city, shall designate where appropriate:
 - (a) Agricultural lands that are not already characterized by urban growth and that have long-term significance for the commercial production of food or other agricultural products;
 - (b) Forest lands that are not already characterized by urban growth and that have long-term significance for the commercial production of timber;
 - (c) Mineral resource lands that are not already characterized by urban growth and that have long-term significance for the extraction of minerals; and
 - (d) Critical areas.

(2) In making the designations required by this section, counties and cities shall consider the guidelines established pursuant to RCW 36.70A.050, and shall make such designations so that they are consistent with the flood plain management plan adopted by the county under RCW 86.26.105.

Sec. 5. RCW 43.21C.020 and 1971 ex.s. c 109 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) The legislature, recognizing that ~~((man))~~ people depend((s)) on ~~((his))~~ their biological and physical surroundings for food, shelter, and other needs, and for cultural enrichment as well((:)), and recognizing further the profound impact of ~~((man's))~~ human activity on the interrelations of all components of the natural environment, particularly the profound influences of population growth, high-density urbanization, industrial expansion, resource utilization and exploitation, and new and expanding technological advances, and recognizing further the critical importance of restoring and maintaining environmental quality to the overall welfare and development of ~~((man))~~ people, declares that it is the continuing policy of the state of Washington, in cooperation with federal and local governments, and other concerned public and private organizations, to use all practicable means and measures, including financial and technical assistance, in a manner calculated to: (a) Foster and promote the general welfare; (b) ~~((te))~~ create and maintain conditions under which ~~((man))~~ people and nature can exist in productive harmony; and (c) fulfill the social, economic, and other requirements of present and future generations of Washington citizens.

(2) In order to carry out the policy set forth in this chapter, it is the continuing responsibility of the state of Washington and all agencies of the state to use all practicable means, consistent with other essential considerations of state policy, to improve and coordinate plans, functions, programs, and resources to the end that the state and its citizens may:

- (a) Fulfill the responsibilities of each generation as trustee of the environment for succeeding generations;

- (b) Assure for all people of Washington safe, healthful, productive, and aesthetically and culturally pleasing surroundings;
 - (c) Attain the widest range of beneficial uses of the environment without degradation, risk to health or safety, or other undesirable and unintended consequences;
 - (d) Preserve important historic, cultural, and natural aspects of our national heritage;
 - (e) Maintain, wherever possible, an environment which supports diversity and variety of individual choice;
 - (f) Achieve a balance between population and resource use which will permit high standards of living and a wide sharing of life's amenities; ~~(and)~~
 - (g) Enhance the quality of renewable resources and approach the maximum attainable recycling of depletable resources; and
 - (h) Provide for the prevention, minimization, and repair of flood damage as defined in RCW 86.16.120.
- (3) The legislature recognizes that each person has a fundamental and inalienable right to a healthful environment and that each person has a responsibility to contribute to the preservation and enhancement of the environment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 75.20 RCW to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply to RCW 75.20.100, 75.20.103, and 75.20.130.

(1) "Bed" means the land below the ordinary high water lines of state waters. This definition does not include irrigation ditches, canals, storm water run-off devices, or other artificial watercourses except where they exist in a natural watercourse that has been altered by humans.

(2) "Commercial" means any facility or building used for commerce, including those used for agricultural or industrial purposes.

(3) "Emergency" means an immediate threat to life, public land, or private property, or an immediate threat of serious environmental degradation.

(4) "Streambank stabilization" includes but is not limited to log and debris removal; bank protection including riprap, jetties, and groins; gravel removal; and erosion control.

(5) "To construct any form of hydraulic project or perform other work" does not include the act of driving across an established ford. Driving across streams or on wetted stream beds at areas other than established fords requires approval. Work within the ordinary high water line of state waters to construct or repair a ford or crossing requires approval.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 75.20 RCW to read as follows:

The permitting department may impose the following conditions on persons applying under RCW 75.20.100 or 75.20.103:

(1) The permittee shall establish an excavation line. "Excavation line" means a line on the dry bed, parallel to the water's edge unless otherwise stated, that changes with water level fluctuations.

(2) The permittee may not remove bed material from the water side of the excavation line.

(3) The permittee shall begin excavating at the excavation line and proceed toward the bank, perpendicular to the alignment of the watercourse.

(4) The permittee shall keep the maximum distance of excavation toward the bank from the excavation line approximately equal throughout the excavation zone. "Excavation zone" means the area between the excavation line and the bank.

(5) The permittee shall identify the excavation zone with boundary markers.

(6) The permittee shall maintain a minimum one-half percent gradient upward from the excavation line in the excavation zone.

(7) The permittee shall ensure that the excavation zone is free of pits or potholes.

(8) The permittee shall not stockpile or spoil excavated materials within the ordinary high water line except from June 15 to October 15.

(9) The permittee may not allow any equipment within the wetted perimeter of the watercourse without specific permission.

(10) The permittee shall dispose of debris in the excavation zone so it does not reenter the watercourse.

(11) The permittee may not perform gravel washing or crushing operations below the ordinary high water line.

(12) The permittee shall be allowed to remove only that amount of rock, sand, gravel, or silt which is naturally replenished on an annual basis, except in instances where a lapse in material removal has occurred. If such lapse has occurred, then an amount of material equivalent to the amount estimated to have accumulated since the last material removal operation, including debris and vegetation, may be removed.

Sec. 8. RCW 75.20.100 and 1993 sp.s. c 2 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event that any person or government agency desires to construct any form of hydraulic project or perform other work that will use, divert, obstruct, or change the natural flow or bed of any of the salt or fresh waters of the state, such person or government agency shall, before commencing construction or work thereon and to ensure the proper protection of fish life, secure the written approval of the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life. The hydraulic project approval authority of the department shall be limited to construction or other work that occurs at or below the mean higher high water line in salt water and estuaries or at or below the ordinary high water line in fresh water. The department shall neither deny nor condition a hydraulic project approval on the basis of human or animal actions or environmental conditions that occur above the higher high water line in salt water and estuaries or above the ordinary high water line in fresh water. The department may not limit, condition, or otherwise affect the amount, timing, or delivery method of water diverted under chapter 90.03

RCW. This approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Except as provided in RCW 75.20.1001 (~~and 75.20.1002~~), the department shall grant or deny approval within forty-five calendar days of the receipt of a complete application and notice of compliance with any applicable requirements of the state environmental policy act, made in the manner prescribed in this section. The applicant may document receipt of application by filing in person or by registered mail. A complete application for approval shall contain general plans for the overall project, complete plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work within the mean higher high water line in salt water or within the ordinary high water line in fresh water, and complete plans and specifications for the proper protection of fish life. The forty-five day requirement shall be suspended if ~~((1))~~ (a) after ten working days of receipt of the application, the applicant remains unavailable or unable to arrange for a timely field evaluation of the proposed project; ~~((2))~~ (b) the site is physically inaccessible for inspection; or ~~((3))~~ (c) the applicant requests delay. Immediately upon determination that the forty-five day period is suspended, the department shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the delay. Approval is valid for a period of up to five years from date of issuance. The permittee must demonstrate substantial progress on construction of that portion of the project relating to the approval within two years of the date of issuance. If the department denies approval, the department shall provide the applicant, in writing, a statement of the specific reasons why and how the proposed project would adversely affect fish life. Protection of fish life shall be the only ground upon which approval may be denied or conditioned.

(2) In making a decision as to whether fish life is protected, the department shall determine if a project as proposed or modified:

(a) Presents no substantial risk to fish life and provides fish habitat productivity that is equivalent to preproject conditions at the project site within three years of the project's completion; or

(b)(i) Protects a residential, commercial, or industrial facility or structure that is likely to incur significant flood damage during the next flood season if the project is not completed; and (ii) lessens the loss of fish life or habitat as compared to a project resulting from an emergency request under this section.

The department shall approve a project if it determines that the project meets either (a) or (b) of this subsection. This subsection (2) shall apply only to projects that are consistent with a comprehensive food control management plan, as determined by the county.

(3) Chapter 34.05 RCW applies to any denial of project approval, conditional approval, or requirements for project modification upon which approval may be contingent. If any person or government agency commences construction on any hydraulic works or projects subject to this section without first having obtained written approval of the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life, or if any person or government agency fails to follow or carry out any of the requirements or conditions as are made a part of such approval, the person or director of the agency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. If any such person or government agency is convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section and continues construction on any such works or projects without fully complying with the provisions hereof, such works or projects are hereby declared a public nuisance and shall be subject to abatement as such.

~~((For the purposes of this section and RCW 75.20.103, "bed" shall mean the land below the ordinary high water lines of state waters. This definition shall not include irrigation ditches, canals, storm water run-off devices, or other artificial watercourses except where they exist in a natural watercourse that has been altered by man.~~

~~The phrase "to construct any form of hydraulic project or perform other work" shall not include the act of driving across an established ford. Driving across streams or on wetted stream beds at areas other than established fords requires approval. Work within the ordinary high water line of state waters to construct or repair a ford or crossing requires approval.)~~

(4) In case of an emergency arising from weather or stream flow conditions or other natural conditions, upon request the department, through its authorized representatives, shall ~~((issue))~~ grant immediately ~~((upon request))~~, oral approval for removing any obstructions, repairing existing structures, restoring stream banks, or ~~((to protect))~~ protecting property threatened by the stream or a change in the stream flow without ~~((the necessity of obtaining))~~ requiring a written approval prior to commencing work. Conditions of an oral approval shall be reduced to writing within thirty days and complied with as provided for in this section. Oral approval shall be granted immediately upon request, for a stream crossing during an emergency situation.

(5) In granting approval for projects submitted by local flood control agencies, the department shall grant a special duration hydraulic permit approval if the submitted project is a multiyear maintenance program. The approval shall be granted for up to five years, or the actual number of years covered by the maintenance program, whichever is less.

(6) This section shall not apply to the repair of an existing flood control project if the project is determined by the county to be:

(a) Consistent with a currently approved comprehensive flood control management plan; and

(b) Necessary to avoid flood damage during the next flood season.

(7) This section shall not apply to the construction of any form of hydraulic project or other work which diverts water for agricultural irrigation or stock watering purposes authorized under or recognized as being valid by the state's water codes, or when such hydraulic project or other work is associated with streambank stabilization to protect farm and agricultural land as defined in RCW 84.34.020. These irrigation or stock watering diversion and streambank stabilization projects shall be governed by RCW 75.20.103.

Sec. 9. RCW 75.20.103 and 1993 sp.s. c 2 s 32 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the event that any person or government agency desires to construct any form of hydraulic project or other work that diverts water for agricultural irrigation or stock watering purposes, or when such hydraulic project or other work is associated with streambank stabilization or flood damage reduction to protect farm and agricultural land as defined in RCW 84.34.020, and when such ~~((diversion or~~ ~~streambank stabilization~~) hydraulic project will use, divert, obstruct, or change the natural flow or bed of any river or stream or will utilize any waters of the state or materials from the stream beds, the person or government agency shall, before commencing construction or work thereon and to ensure the proper protection of fish life, secure a written approval from the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life. The hydraulic project approval authority of the department shall be limited to construction or other work that occurs at or below the mean higher high water line in salt water and estuaries or at or below the ordinary high water line in fresh water. The department shall neither deny nor condition a hydraulic project approval on the basis of human or animal actions or environmental conditions that occur above the higher high water line in salt water and estuaries or above the ordinary high water line in fresh water. The department may not limit, condition, or otherwise affect the amount, timing, or delivery method of water diverted under chapter 90.03 RCW. This approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Except as provided in RCW 75.20.1001 (~~and 75.20.1002~~), the department shall grant or deny the approval within forty-five calendar days of the receipt of a complete application (~~and notice of compliance with any applicable requirements of the state environmental policy act~~) made in the manner prescribed in this section. The applicant may document receipt of application by filing in person or by registered mail.

(2) A complete application for an approval shall:

(a) Contain general plans for the overall project, complete plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work within ordinary high water line, and complete plans and specifications for the proper protection of fish life; and

(b) Not be required to include notice of compliance with any applicable requirements of the state environmental policy act. Final approval of a project may not be granted until any applicable requirements of the state environmental policy act have been satisfied.

(3) The forty-five day requirement shall be suspended if (~~((1))~~):

(a) ~~After ten working days of receipt of the application, the applicant remains unavailable or unable to arrange for a timely field evaluation of the proposed project; ((2))~~

(b) The site is physically inaccessible for inspection; ((or (3))) (c) After forty-four days of receipt of a complete application, a notice of compliance with the state environmental policy act has not been issued; or

~~(d) The applicant requests delay.~~

(4) Immediately upon determination that the forty-five day period is suspended, the department shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the delay.

(5) In making a decision as to whether fish life is protected, the department shall determine if a project as proposed or modified:

(a) Presents no substantial risk to fish life and provides fish habitat productivity that is equivalent to preproject conditions at the project site within three years of the project's completion; or

(b)(i) Protects a residential, commercial, or industrial facility or structure that is likely to incur significant flood damage during the next flood season if the project is not completed; and (ii) lessens the loss of fish life or habitat as compared to a project resulting from an emergency request under this section.

The department shall approve a project if it determines that the project meets either (a) or (b) of this subsection. This subsection (5) shall apply only to projects that are consistent with a comprehensive flood control management plan, as determined by the county.

(6) An approval shall remain in effect without need for periodic renewal for projects that divert water for agricultural irrigation or stock watering purposes and that involve seasonal construction or other work. Approval for streambank stabilization projects shall remain in effect without need for periodic renewal if the problem causing the need for the streambank stabilization occurs on an annual or more frequent basis. The permittee must notify the appropriate agency before commencing the construction or other work within the area covered by the approval.

(7) The permittee must demonstrate substantial progress on construction of that portion of the project relating to the approval within two years of the date of issuance. If the department denies approval, the department shall provide the applicant, in writing, a statement of the specific reasons why and how the proposed project would adversely affect fish life. Protection of fish life shall be the only ground upon which approval may be denied or conditioned. Issuance, denial, conditioning, or modification shall be appealable to the hydraulic appeals board established in RCW 43.21B.005 within thirty days of the notice of decision. The burden shall be upon the department to show that the denial or conditioning of an approval is solely aimed at the protection of fish life.

(8) The department may, after consultation with the permittee, modify an approval due to changed conditions. The modifications shall become effective unless appealed to the hydraulic appeals board within thirty days from the notice of the proposed modification. The burden is on the department to show that changed conditions warrant the modification in order to protect fish life.

(9) A permittee may request modification of an approval due to changed conditions. The request shall be processed within forty-five calendar days of receipt of the written request. A decision by the department may be appealed to the hydraulic appeals board within thirty days of the notice of the decision. The burden is on the permittee to show that changed conditions warrant the requested modification and that such modification will not impair fish life.

(10) If any person or government agency commences construction on any hydraulic works or projects subject to this section without first having obtained written approval of the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life, or if any person or government agency fails to follow or carry out any of the requirements or conditions as are made a part of such approval, the person or director of the agency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. If any such person or government agency is convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section and continues construction on any such works or projects without fully complying with the provisions hereof, such works or projects are hereby declared a public nuisance and shall be subject to abatement as such.

(11) In granting approval for projects submitted by local flood control agencies, the department shall grant a special duration hydraulic permit approval if the submitted project is a multiyear maintenance program. The approval shall be granted for up to five years, or the actual number of years covered by the maintenance program, whichever is less.

(12) In case of an emergency arising from weather or stream flow conditions or other natural conditions, the department, through its authorized representatives, shall issue immediately upon request oral approval for removing any obstructions, repairing existing structures, restoring stream banks, or to protect property threatened by the stream or a change in the stream flow without the necessity of obtaining a written approval prior to commencing work. Conditions of an oral approval shall be reduced to writing within thirty days and complied with as provided for in this section. Oral approval shall be granted immediately upon request, for a stream crossing during an emergency.

(For purposes of this chapter, "streambank stabilization" shall include but not be limited to log and debris removal, bank protection (including riprap, jetties, and groins), gravel removal and erosion control.)

(13) This section shall not apply to a project involving the repair of an existing flood control facility if the project is determined by the county to be:

(a) Consistent with a previously approved comprehensive flood control management plan; and

(b) Necessary to avoid flood damage during the next flood season.

Sec. 10. RCW 75.20.130 and 1993 sp.s. c 2 s 37 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created within the environmental hearings office under RCW 43.21B.005 the hydraulic appeals board of the state of Washington.

(2) The hydraulic appeals board shall consist of three members: The director of the department of ecology or the director's designee, the director of the department of agriculture or the director's designee, and the director or the director's designee of the department whose action is appealed under subsection (6) of this section. A decision must be agreed to by at least two members of the board to be final.

(3) The board may adopt rules necessary for the conduct of its powers and duties or for transacting other official business.

(4) The board shall make findings of fact and prepare a written decision in each case decided by it, and that finding and decision shall be effective upon being signed by two or more board members and upon being filed at the hydraulic appeals board's principal office, and shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times.

(5) The board has exclusive jurisdiction to hear appeals arising from the approval, denial, conditioning, or modification of a hydraulic approval issued by the department under the authority granted in RCW 75.20.103 for the diversion of water for agricultural irrigation or stock watering purposes or when associated with streambank stabilization to protect farm and agricultural land as defined in RCW 84.34.020.

(6)(a) Any person aggrieved by the approval, denial, conditioning, or modification of a hydraulic approval pursuant to RCW 75.20.103 may seek review from the board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of notice of the approval, denial, conditioning, or modification of such approval.

(b) The review proceedings authorized in (a) of this subsection are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW pertaining to procedures in adjudicative proceedings.

(c) If a review proceeding authorized in (a) of this subsection finds for the aggrieved permit applicant, the applicant may be awarded any legal and engineering costs involved in challenging the permit decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 79.90 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Use or modification, or both, of any river system must involve basic hydraulic principles, as well as harmonize as much as possible with existing aquatic ecosystems, and human needs.

(2) The department, commissioner, and board shall:

(a) Encourage bank and island stabilization programs which rely mainly on natural vegetative systems as holding elements;

(b) Encourage research to develop alternative methods of channel control, utilizing natural systems of stabilization;

(c) Recognize natural plant and animal communities and other features that provide an ecological balance to a streamway in evaluating competing human uses and require protection from significant human impact; and

(d) Recognize that hydraulic conditions may require the installation of riprap or other similar measure to further protect natural systems of stabilization.

(3) No person may remove normal stream depositions of logs, uprooted tree snags, and stumps which abut on shorelands and do not intrude on the navigational channel or reduce flow, or adversely redirect a river course, and are not harmful to life and property without the department's permission but the department must consider the need to protect the resultant dependent aquatic systems.

(4) No person may fill indentations such as mudholes, eddies, pools, and aeration drops without permission of the department.

(5) The department may permit river channel relocations only when an overriding public benefit can be shown. Filling, grading, lagooning, or dredging which would result in substantial detriment to navigable waters by reason of erosion, sedimentation, or impairment of fish and aquatic life are not authorized.

(6) No person may remove sand and gravel below the wetted perimeter of navigable rivers unless authorized by a hydraulics permit issued by either the department of fisheries or department of wildlife under RCW 75.20.100 and 75.20.103. These removals may be authorized for maintenance and improvement of navigational channels or for creating backwater channels for fish rearing or improvement of the flow capacity of the channels.

(7) The department may allow sand and gravel removals above the wetted perimeter of a navigable river which are not harmful to public health and safety when any or all of the following situations exist:

- (a) The removal is designed to create or improve a feature such as a pond, wetland, or other habitat valuable for fish and wildlife;
- (b) The removal provides recreational benefits;
- (c) The removal will aid in reducing a detrimental accumulation of aggregates in downstream lakes, reservoirs, and river beds;
- (d) The removal will aid in reducing damage to private or public land and property abutting a navigable river; or
- (e) The removal will contribute to increased flood protection for private or public land.

(8) The department may not allow sand and gravel removals above the wetted perimeter of a navigable river when:

- (a) The location of such material is below a dam and has inadequate supplementary feeding of gravel or sand;
- (b) Removal will cause unstable hydraulic conditions detrimental to fish, wildlife, public health, and safety; or
- (c) Removal will impact esthetics of nearby recreational facilities.

(9) No person may perform bank dumping or junk revetment on aquatic lands.

(10) The department shall condition sand and gravel removal leases to allow removal of only that amount which is naturally replenished on an annual basis, except in instances where a lapse in material removal has occurred. If such a lapse has occurred, then an amount of material equivalent to the amount estimated to have accumulated since the last material removal operation, including debris and vegetation, may be removed.

Sec. 12. RCW 79.90.150 and 1991 c 337 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

When gravel, rock, sand, silt or other material from any aquatic lands is removed by any public agency or under public contract for channel or harbor improvement, or flood control, use of such material may be authorized by the department of natural resources for a public purpose on land owned or leased by the state or any municipality, county, or public corporation: PROVIDED, That when no public land site is available for deposit of such material, its deposit on private land with the landowner's permission is authorized and may be designated by the department of natural resources to be for a public purpose. Prior to removal and use, the state agency, municipality, county, or public corporation contemplating or arranging such use shall first obtain written permission from the department of natural resources. No payment of royalty shall be required for such gravel, rock, sand, silt, or other material used for such public purpose, but a charge will be made if such material is subsequently sold or used for some other purpose: PROVIDED, That the department may authorize such public agency or private landowner to dispose of such material without charge when necessary to implement disposal of material. No charge shall be required for any use of the material obtained under the provisions of this chapter when used solely on an authorized site. No charge shall be required for any use of the material obtained under the provisions of this chapter if the material is used for public purposes by local governments. No charge may be required for removal or use of such material if the removal of the material is determined by the local government to be for flood control purposes. Public purposes include, but are not limited to, construction and maintenance of roads, dikes, and levies. Nothing in this section shall repeal or modify the provisions of RCW 75.20.100 or eliminate the necessity of obtaining a permit for such removal from other state or federal agencies as otherwise required by law.

Sec. 13. RCW 79.90.300 and 1991 c 322 s 26 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of natural resources, upon application by any person or when determined by the department to be in the best interest of the state, may enter into a contract or lease providing for the removal and sale of rock, gravel, sand, and silt, or other valuable materials located within or upon beds of navigable waters, or upon any tidelands or shorelands belonging to the state and providing for payment to be made therefor by such royalty as the department may fix, by negotiation, by sealed bid, or at public auction. If application is made for the purchase of any valuable material situated within or upon aquatic lands the department shall inspect and appraise the value of the material in the application. The department may reduce or eliminate royalties in areas prone to flooding. Removal of material from within the ordinary high water mark must be construed as being removed for flood control purposes. The department may include a provision in contracts for the removal of rock, gravel, sand, or silt that allows for payment to be made as the material is sold.

(2) The department shall actively seek to encourage through permit requirements and adjusted fees the removal of accumulated materials from rivers and streams where there is a flood damage reduction benefit. The department shall develop policies to accomplish this goal.

Sec. 14. RCW 86.15.030 and 1969 ex.s. c 195 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of a petition asking that a zone be created, or upon motion of the board, the board shall adopt a resolution which shall describe the boundaries of such proposed zone; describe in general terms the flood control needs or requirements within the zone; set a date for public hearing upon the creation of such zone, which shall be not more than thirty days after the adoption of such resolution. Notice of such hearing and publication shall be had in the manner provided in RCW 36.32.120(7).

At the hearing scheduled upon the resolution, the board shall permit all interested parties to be heard. Thereafter, the board may reject the resolution or it may modify the boundaries of such zone and make such other corrections or additions to the resolutions as they deem necessary to the accomplishment of the purpose of this chapter: PROVIDED, That if the boundaries of such zone are enlarged, the board shall hold an additional hearing following publication and notice of such new boundaries: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the boundaries of any zone shall generally follow the boundaries of the watershed area affected: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the immediately preceding proviso shall in no way limit or be construed to prohibit the formation of a county-wide flood control zone district authorized to be created by RCW 86.15.025.

Within ~~((ten))~~ thirty days after final hearing on a resolution, the board shall issue its ~~((order))~~ ordinance creating the flood control zone district.

Sec. 15. RCW 86.15.050 and 1961 c 153 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The board ~~((of county commissioners of each county))~~ shall be ex officio, by virtue of their office, supervisors of the zones created in each county. The supervisors of the district shall conduct the business of the flood control zone district according to the regular rules and procedures that it adopts.

Sec. 16. RCW 86.15.160 and 1986 c 278 s 60 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter the supervisors may authorize:

- (1) An annual excess ad valorem tax levy within any zone or participating zones when authorized by the voters of the zone or participating zones under RCW 84.52.052 and 84.52.054;
- (2) An assessment upon property, including state property, specially benefited by flood control improvements or storm water control improvements imposed under chapter 86.09 RCW;
- (3) Within any zone or participating zones an annual ad valorem property tax levy of not to exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when the levy will not take dollar rates that other taxing districts may lawfully claim and that will not cause the combined levies to exceed the constitutional and/or statutory limitations, and the additional levy, or any portion thereof, may also be made when dollar rates of other taxing units is released therefor by agreement with the other taxing units from their authorized levies under chapter 39.67 RCW;
- (4) A charge, under RCW 36.89.080 through 36.89.100, for the furnishing of service to those who are receiving or will receive benefits from storm water control facilities ~~((and))~~ or who are contributing to an increase in surface water runoff. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 90.03.525, any public entity and public property, including the state and state property, shall be liable for the charges to the same extent a private person and privately owned property is liable for the charges, and in setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of in-kind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property;
- (5) The creation of local improvement districts and utility local improvement districts, the issuance of improvement district bonds and warrants, and the imposition, collection, and enforcement of special assessments on all property, including any state-owned or other publicly-owned property, specially benefited from improvements in the same manner as provided for counties by chapter 36.94 RCW.

Sec. 17. RCW 86.26.105 and 1986 c 46 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((A comprehensive flood control management plan shall determine the need for flood control work, consider alternatives to in-stream flood control work, identify and consider potential impacts of in-stream flood control work on the state's in-stream resources, and identify the river's meander belt or floodway.))~~ (1) A comprehensive flood control management plan shall be completed and adopted ((within at least three years of the certification that it is being prepared, as provided in RCW 86.26.050)) by any county that has experienced at least two presidentially declared flood disasters within the most recent ten-year period by December 31, 1999, or within two years of a second presidentially declared flood disaster.

(2) If ((after this three-year period has elapsed)), by December 31, 1999, or within two years of a second presidentially declared flood disaster, such a comprehensive flood control plan has not been completed and adopted, grants for flood control maintenance projects shall not be made to the county or municipal corporations in the county until a comprehensive flood control plan is completed and adopted by the appropriate local authority. These limitations on grants shall not preclude allocations for emergency purposes made pursuant to RCW 86.26.060, however, priority consideration for emergency assistance shall be given to those counties that are required to plan, and have completed a plan, as required under this section.

Sec. 18. RCW 90.58.180 and 1994 c 253 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by the granting, denying, or rescinding of a permit on shorelines of the state pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 may seek review from the shorelines hearings board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of the date of filing as defined in RCW 90.58.140(6).

Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his or her request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board following which the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor. The failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The department and the attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with at any time within fifteen days from the date of the receipt by the department or the attorney general of a copy of the request for review filed pursuant to this section. The shorelines hearings board shall initially schedule review proceedings on such requests for review without regard as to whether such requests have or have not been certified or as to whether the period for the department or the attorney general to intervene has or has not expired, unless such review is to begin within thirty days of such scheduling. If at the end of the thirty day period for certification neither the department nor the attorney general has certified a request for review, the hearings board shall remove the request from its review schedule.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines hearings board and the appropriate local government within thirty days from the date the final order was filed as provided in RCW 90.58.140(6).

(3) The review proceedings authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW pertaining to procedures in adjudicative proceedings. Judicial review of such proceedings of the shorelines hearings board is governed by chapter 34.05 RCW.

(4) If the review proceedings authorized in subsection (1) of this section find for the requestor, and if the requestor is the permit applicant, the requestor may be awarded any legal and engineering costs involved in challenging the permit decision.

(5) A local government may appeal to the shorelines hearings board any rules, regulations, or guidelines adopted or approved by the department within thirty days of the date of the adoption or approval. The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

If the board determines that the rule, regulation, or guideline:

- (a) Is clearly erroneous in light of the policy of this chapter; or
- (b) Constitutes an implementation of this chapter in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; or
- (c) Is arbitrary and capricious; or
- (d) Was developed without fully considering and evaluating all material submitted to the department by the local government; or
- (e) Was not adopted in accordance with required procedures;

the board shall enter a final decision declaring the rule, regulation, or guideline invalid, remanding the rule, regulation, or guideline to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new rule, regulation, or guideline. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the rule, regulation, or guideline to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

~~((5))~~ (6) Rules, regulations, and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.05.570(2). No review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection ~~((4))~~ (5) of this section and the petition for court review is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

Each appropriate agency shall actively seek to encourage through permit requirements the removal of accumulated materials from rivers and streams where there is a flood damage reduction benefit. Each agency shall develop policies to accomplish this goal. Policies shall be developed from a designed, open-channel hydraulic engineering criteria to facilitate the natural downstream movement of detrimental material.

Sec. 20. RCW 86.12.200 and 1991 c 322 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The county legislative authority of any county may adopt a comprehensive flood control management plan for any drainage basin that is located wholly or partially within the county.

A comprehensive flood control management plan shall include the following elements:

- (1) Designation of areas that are susceptible to periodic flooding, from inundation by bodies of water or surface water runoff, or both, including the river's meander belt or floodway;
- (2) Establishment of a comprehensive scheme of flood control protection and improvements for the areas that are subject to such periodic flooding, that includes: (a) Determining the need for, and desirable location of, flood control improvements to protect or preclude flood damage to structures, works, and improvements, based upon a ~~((cost/benefit))~~ cost-benefit ratio between the expense of providing and maintaining these improvements and the benefits arising from these improvements; (b) establishing the level of flood protection that each portion of the system of flood control improvements will be permitted; (c) identifying alternatives to in-stream flood control work; (d) identifying areas where flood waters could be directed during a flood to avoid damage to buildings and other structures; ~~((and))~~ (e) identifying areas where a river may migrate into a new channel and developing options to prevent the creation of the new channel, and identifying practices that will avoid long-term accretion of sediments; and (f) identifying sources of revenue that will be sufficient to finance the comprehensive scheme of flood control protection and improvements;
- (3) Establishing land use regulations that preclude the location of structures, works, or improvements in critical portions of such areas subject to periodic flooding, including a river's meander belt or floodway, and permitting only flood-compatible land uses in such areas;
- (4) Establishing restrictions on construction activities in areas subject to periodic floods that require the flood proofing of those structures that are permitted to be constructed or remodeled; and
- (5) Establishing restrictions on land clearing activities and development practices that exacerbate flood problems by increasing the flow or accumulation of flood waters, or the intensity of drainage, on low-lying areas. Land clearing activities do not include forest practices as defined in chapter 76.09 RCW.

A comprehensive flood control management plan shall be subject to the minimum requirements for participation in the national flood insurance program, requirements exceeding the minimum national flood insurance program that have been adopted by the department of ecology for a specific flood plain pursuant to RCW 86.16.031, and rules adopted by the department of ecology pursuant to chapter 86.16 RCW and RCW 86.26.050 relating to flood plain management activities. When a county plans under chapter 36.70A RCW, it (~~may~~) must incorporate the portion of its comprehensive flood control management plan relating to land use restrictions in its comprehensive plan and development regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 36.70A RCW.

Sec. 21. RCW 90.58.030 and 1987 c 474 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 86.26 RCW to read as follows:

A flood protection project is work necessary to preserve, restore, or improve either natural or human-made stream banks or flood control facilities that repair or prevent flood damage as defined in RCW 86.16.120 including but not limited to damage by erosion, stream flow, sheet runoff, or other damages by the sea or other bodies of water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 86.12 RCW to read as follows:

Upon request by a county or city preparing a comprehensive flood management plan under chapter 86.12 RCW, the department of transportation shall:

(1) Provide an inventory of all state highways and bridges located in a floodplain as designated by the federal emergency management agency;

(2) Identify any state roads or bridges that may cause a constriction to the natural flow of flood waters;

(3) Identify state roads that, either by themselves or in conjunction with levees or other structures in the floodplain, may entrap floodwaters in areas originally intended to be flood-proofed; and

(4) Provide any other information available to the department to assist in preventing or minimizing flood damages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 75.20 RCW to read as follows:

By December 31, 1996, the departments of fish and wildlife, natural resources, and ecology shall jointly develop a memorandum of understanding to facilitate the consideration of projects that will aid in the minimization or prevention of flood damage as defined in RCW 86.16.120. To reduce the duplication of information required by a project's permits, the departments must provide in their memorandum procedures to share data to the extent practicable among themselves and with other agencies that may be involved in approving or denying a permit application. The departments' memorandum must provide a plan to implement a comprehensive permit process that is streamlined and easily understandable to permit applicants.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Drew, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5632 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 10, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5655 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 47.76.200 and 1993 c 224 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that a balanced multimodal transportation system is required to maintain the state's commitment to the growing mobility needs of its citizens and commerce. The state's freight rail system((s are)), including branch lines, mainlines, rail corridors, terminals, yards, and equipment, is an important element((s)) of this multimodal system. Washington's economy relies heavily upon the freight rail system to ensure movement of the state's agricultural, chemical, and natural resources and manufactured products to local, national, and international markets and thereby contributes to the economic vitality of the state.

Since 1970, Washington has lost ((nearly)) over one-third of its ((five thousand two hundred)) rail miles to abandonment and bankruptcies((, leaving approximately three thousand four hundred rail miles.

Abandonment of rail lines and rail freight service)). The combination of rail abandonments and rail system capacity constraints may alter the delivery to market of many commodities. In addition, the resultant motor vehicle freight traffic increases the burden on state highways and county roads. In many cases, the cost of maintaining and upgrading the state highways and county roads exceeds the cost of maintaining rail freight service. Thus, the economy of the state will be best served by a policy of maintaining and encouraging a healthy rail freight system by creating ~~((a)) mechanisms ~~((which keeps)) that keep~~ rail freight lines operating if the benefits of the service outweigh the cost.~~

Recognizing the implications of this trend for freight mobility and the state's economic future, the legislature ~~((believes)) finds~~ that better freight rail planning, better cooperation to preserve rail lines, and increased financial assistance from the state are necessary to maintain and improve the freight rail system within the state.

Sec. 2. RCW 47.76.210 and 1990 c 43 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington state department of transportation shall implement a state freight rail program ~~((for rail coordination, planning, and technical assistance)) that supports the freight rail service objectives identified in the state's multimodal transportation plan required under chapter 47.06 RCW. The support may be in the form of projects and strategies that support branch lines and light-density lines, provide access to ports, maintain adequate mainline capacity, and preserve or restore rail corridors and infrastructure.~~

Sec. 3. RCW 47.76.220 and 1993 c 224 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of transportation shall prepare and periodically update a state rail plan, the objective of which is to identify, evaluate, and encourage essential rail services. The plan shall:

(a) Identify and evaluate mainline capacity issues;

(b) Identify and evaluate port-to-rail access and congestion issues;

(c) Identify and evaluate those rail freight lines that may be abandoned or have recently been abandoned;

~~((b))~~ (d) Quantify the costs and benefits of maintaining rail service on those lines that are likely to be abandoned; ~~((and~~

~~((e)))~~ (e) Establish priorities for determining which rail lines should receive state support. The priorities should include the anticipated benefits to the state and local economy, the anticipated cost of road and highway improvements necessitated by the abandonment or capacity constraints of the rail line, the likelihood the rail line receiving funding can meet operating costs from freight charges, surcharges on rail traffic, and other funds authorized to be raised by a county or port district, and the impact of abandonment or capacity constraints on changes in energy utilization and air pollution;

(f) Identify and describe the state's rail system;

(g) prepare a state freight rail system map;

(h) Identify and evaluate rail commodity flows and traffic types;

(i) Identify lines and corridors that have been rail banked or preserved; and

(j) Identify and evaluate other issues affecting the state's rail traffic.

(2) The state rail plan may be prepared in conjunction with the rail plan prepared by the department pursuant to the federal Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act.

Sec. 4. RCW 47.76.230 and 1990 c 43 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department of transportation shall continue its responsibility for the development and implementation of the state rail plan and programs, and the utilities and transportation commission shall continue its responsibility for intrastate rates, service, and safety issues.

(2) The department of transportation shall maintain an enhanced data file on the rail system. Proprietary annual station traffic data from each railroad and the modal use of major shippers shall be obtained to the extent that such information is available.

(3) The department of transportation shall provide technical assistance, upon request, to state agencies and local interests. Technical assistance includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) ~~((Abandonment)) Rail project cost-benefit analyses~~((, to include the public and private costs and benefits of maintaining the service, providing alternative service including necessary road improvement costs, or of taking no action))~~ conducted in accordance with methodologies recommended by the Federal Railroad Administration;~~

(b) Assistance in the formation of county rail districts and port districts; and

(c) Feasibility studies for rail service continuation and/or rail service assistance.

(4) With funding authorized by the legislature, the department of transportation, in collaboration with the department of community, trade, and economic development, and local economic development agencies, and other interested public and private organizations, shall develop a cooperative process to conduct community and business information programs and to regularly disseminate information on rail matters. ~~((The following agencies and jurisdictions shall be involved in the process:~~

~~((a) The state departments of community development and trade and economic development;~~

~~((b) Local jurisdictions and local economic development agencies; and~~

~~((c) Other interested public and private organizations.))~~

Sec. 5. RCW 47.76.240 and 1993 c 224 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The state, counties, local communities, ports, railroads, labor, and shippers all benefit from continuation of rail service and should participate in its preservation. Lines ~~((which)) that~~ provide benefits to the state and local jurisdictions, such as avoided roadway costs, reduced traffic congestion, economic development potential, environmental protection, and safety, should be assisted through the joint efforts of the state, local jurisdictions, and the private sector.

State funding for rail service (~~(or)~~), rail preservation, and corridor preservation projects must benefit the state's interests (~~(, which include)~~). The state's interest is served by reducing public roadway maintenance and repair costs, increasing economic development opportunities, increasing domestic and international trade, preserving jobs, and enhancing safety (~~(, and)~~). State funding for projects is contingent upon appropriate local jurisdiction and private sector participation and cooperation. Before spending state moneys on projects the department shall seek federal, local, and private funding and participation to the greatest extent possible.

(1) The department of transportation shall continue to monitor the status of the state's (~~(high density line system)~~) mainline and branchline common carrier railroads and preserved rail corridors through the state rail plan and various analyses, and shall seek alternatives to abandonment prior to interstate commerce commission proceedings, where feasible.

(2) The utilities and transportation commission shall intervene in interstate commerce commission proceedings on abandonments, when necessary, to protect the state's interest.

(3) (~~(As conditions warrant, the following criteria shall be used for identifying the state's essential rail system:~~)
(a) ~~Established regional and short-line carriers excluding private operations which are not common carriers;~~
(b) ~~Former state project lines, which are lines that have been studied and have received funds from the state and federal governments;~~
(c) ~~Lines serving major agricultural and forest product areas or terminals, with such terminals generally being within a fifty-mile radius of producing areas, and sites associated with commodities shipped by rail;~~
(d) ~~Lines serving ports, seaports, and navigable river ports;~~
(e) ~~Lines serving power plants or energy resources;~~
(f) ~~Lines used for passenger service;~~
(g) ~~Mainlines connecting to the national and Canadian rail systems;~~
(h) ~~Major intermodal service points or hubs; and~~
(i) ~~The military's strategic rail network)~~ The department of transportation, in consultation with the Washington state rail policy development committee, shall establish criteria for evaluating rail projects and corridors of significance to the state.

(4) Local jurisdictions may implement rail service preservation projects in the absence of state participation.

(5) The department of transportation shall continue to monitor projects for which it provides assistance.

Sec. 6. RCW 47.76.250 and 1993 c 224 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The essential rail assistance account is created in the state treasury. Moneys in the account may be appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

(2) Moneys appropriated from the account to the department of transportation may be used by the department or distributed by the department to cities, county rail districts, counties, economic development councils, and port districts for the purpose of:

(a) Acquiring, rebuilding, rehabilitating, or improving (~~(branch)~~) rail lines;
(b) Purchasing or rehabilitating railroad equipment necessary to maintain essential rail service;
(c) Constructing railroad improvements to mitigate port access or mainline congestion;
(d) Construction of (~~(transloading)~~) loading facilities to increase business on light density lines or to mitigate the impacts of abandonment; (~~(or)~~

~~(d))~~ (e) Preservation, including operation, of (~~(viable)~~) light density lines, as identified by the Washington state department of transportation, in compliance with this chapter; or

(f) Preserving rail corridors for future rail purposes by purchase of rights of way. The department shall first pursue transportation enhancement program funds, available under the federal surface transportation program, to the greatest extent practicable to preserve rail corridors. Purchase of rights of way may include track, bridges, and associated elements, and must meet the following criteria:

(i) The right of way has been identified and evaluated in the state rail plan prepared under this chapter;

(ii) The right of way may be or has been abandoned; and

(iii) The right of way has potential for future rail service.

(3) The department or the participating local jurisdiction is responsible for maintaining any right of way acquired under this chapter, including provisions for drainage management, fire and weed control, and liability associated with ownership.

(4) Nothing in this section impairs the reversionary rights of abutting landowners, if any, without just compensation.

~~((3))~~ (5) The department, cities, county rail districts, counties, and port districts may grant franchises to private railroads for the right to operate on lines acquired under this chapter.

~~((4))~~ (6) The department, cities, county rail districts, counties, and port districts may grant trackage rights over rail lines acquired under this chapter.

~~((5))~~ (7) If rail lines or rail rights of way are used by county rail districts, port districts, state agencies, or other public agencies for the purposes of rail operations and are later abandoned, the rail lines or rail rights of way cannot be used for any other purposes without the consent of the underlying fee title holder or reversionary rights holder, or until compensation has been made to the underlying fee title holder or reversionary rights holder.

(6) If, ~~((pursuant to))~~ under official inquiry, investigation, or other authorized proceeding regarding specialized forest products not covered by a valid specialized forest products permit or other acceptable document, the inspecting law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the specialized forest products were harvested in this state or wrongfully obtained in another state or province, the officer may take into custody and detain, for a reasonable time, the specialized forest products, all supporting documents, invoices, and bills of lading, and the vehicle in which the products were transported until the true origin of the specialized forest products can be determined.

Sec. 8. RCW 76.48.096 and 1979 ex.s. c 94 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any cedar processor to purchase, take possession, or retain cedar products or cedar salvage subsequent to the harvesting and prior to the retail sale of ~~((such))~~ the products, unless the supplier thereof displays a specialized forest products permit, or true copy thereof ~~((, which))~~ that appears to be valid, or obtains the information ~~((pursuant to))~~ under RCW 76.48.075(5).

Sec. 9. RCW 76.48.098 and 1979 ex.s. c 94 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

The law enforcement officer shall provide reasonable protection for the specialized forest products involved during the period of litigation or he or she shall dispose of ~~((such))~~ the specialized forest products at the discretion or order of the court before which the arrested person is ordered to appear.

Upon any disposition of the case by the court, the court shall make a reasonable effort to return the specialized forest products to ~~((their))~~ its rightful owner or pay the proceeds of any sale of specialized forest products less any reasonable expenses of ~~((such))~~ the sale to the rightful owner. The county treasurer shall deposit the same in the county general fund. The return of the specialized forest products or the payment of the proceeds of any sale of products seized to the owner shall not preclude the court from imposing any fine or penalty upon the violator for the violation of the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 12. RCW 76.48.120 and 1979 ex.s. c 94 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any person, upon official inquiry, investigation, or other authorized proceedings, to offer as genuine any paper, document, or other instrument in writing purporting to be a specialized forest products permit, or true copy thereof, authorization, sales invoice, or bill of lading, or to make any representation of authority to possess or conduct harvesting or transporting of specialized forest products, knowing the same to be in any manner false, fraudulent, forged, or stolen.

Any person who knowingly or intentionally violates this section ~~((shall be))~~ is guilty of forgery, and shall be punished as a class C felony providing for imprisonment in a state correctional institution for a maximum term fixed by the court of not more than five years or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by both ~~((such))~~ imprisonment and fine.

Whenever any law enforcement officer reasonably suspects that a specialized forest products permit or true copy thereof, authorization, sales invoice, or bill of lading is forged, fraudulent, or stolen, it may be retained by the officer until its authenticity can be verified.

Sec. 13. RCW 76.48.130 and 1977 ex.s. c 147 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any))~~ A person who violates ~~((any))~~ a provision of this chapter, other than the provisions contained in RCW 76.48.120, as now or hereafter amended, ~~((shall be))~~ is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed one year or by both ~~((such))~~ a fine and imprisonment.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Owen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5011 and requests of the House a conference thereon.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5121 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

- (1) The state's highly productive and efficient agricultural sector is composed predominately of family-owned and managed farms and an industrious and efficient work force;
- (2) A reasonable level of safety regulation is needed to protect workers; and
- (3) The smaller but highly efficient farming operations would benefit from safety rules that are easily referenced and agriculture-specific to the extent possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 49.17 RCW to read as follows:

(1) To afford the legislature an opportunity to examine more closely the agricultural safety standards that should apply to the agricultural industry, no rules adopted under this chapter amending or establishing agricultural safety standards shall take effect during the period beginning January 1, 1995, and ending January 15, 1996. This subsection applies, but is not limited to applying, to a rule adopted prior to January 1, 1995, but with an effective date which is during the period beginning January 1, 1995, and ending January 15, 1996, and to provisions of rules adopted prior to January 1, 1995, which provisions are to become effective during the period beginning January 1, 1995, and ending January 15, 1996. This subsection does not apply to provisions of rules that were in effect prior to January 1, 1995.

(2) Rollover protective structures shall not be required before January 15, 1996, for any tractor that was manufactured before October 25, 1976. By December 15, 1995, the department shall prepare a list of the rollover protective structures available to persons in this state that fully satisfy the standards for such structures proposed for such tractors by the department by rule before January 1, 1995. The list shall include the name and address of the manufacturer of each structure listed, the manufacturer's price of the structure, and approximate delivery and installation costs. The department shall not list a structure if it: Is not readily available; restricts or eliminates a common use for the tractor for which it is designed; or does not include all of the parts needed to install the structure on the tractor for which it is designed in a manner that fully satisfies the standards proposed for such structures by the department. The department shall certify the accuracy of the information on the list and submit the list to the committees of the senate and the house of representatives with general jurisdiction over matters relating to agriculture and those with general jurisdiction over matters relating to labor.

(3) The following applies to rules for agricultural safety adopted under this chapter. The rules shall:

(a) Establish, for agricultural employers, an agriculture safety standard that includes agriculture-specific standards and specific references to the general industry safety standard adopted under this chapter; and

(b) Exempt agricultural employers from the general industry safety standard adopted under this chapter for all requirements not specifically referenced in the agriculture safety standard.

(4) The department shall publish in one volume all of the occupational safety standards that apply to agricultural employers and shall make this volume available to all agricultural employers before February 15, 1996. This volume must be available in both English and Spanish.

(5) The department shall provide training, education, and enhanced consultation services concerning its agricultural safety standards to agricultural employers before the standards take effect. The training, education, and consultation must continue throughout the winter of 1995-1996. Training and education programs must be provided throughout the state and must be coordinated with agricultural associations in order to meet their members' needs.

(6) Subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not limit the authority of the director to adopt rules that are specifically required by federal law, and only to the extent specifically required, for the agricultural safety standards under this chapter to be as effective as the standards adopted or recognized by the United States secretary of labor under the authority of the occupational safety and health act of 1970 (P.L. 91-596; 84 Stat. 1590).

(7) Once the single volume of all of the rules setting agricultural safety standards is first published as required by subsection (4) of this section, no new rules regarding agricultural safety may be established under this chapter except: As specifically required by federal law, and only to the extent specifically required; or as specifically authorized by the legislature by law enacted after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2 (1) and (2) of this act are remedial in nature and apply to rules and provisions of rules regarding agricultural safety that would take effect after December 31, 1994."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "standards;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 49.17 RCW; and creating new sections.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Drew, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5157 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 6, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5439, with the following amendment(s):

The legislature finds that within any group of people there exists a need for guidelines for acceptable behavior and that, presumptively, experience and maturity are better qualifications for establishing guidelines beneficial to and protective of individual members and the group as a whole than are youth and inexperience. The legislature further finds that it is the right and responsibility of adults to establish laws for the benefit and protection of the society; and that, in the same manner, the right and responsibility for establishing reasonable guidelines for the family unit belongs to the adults within that unit. The legislature reaffirms its position stated in RCW 13.34.020 that the family unit is the fundamental resource of American life which should be nurtured and that it should remain intact in the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary.

The legislature recognizes that the public is concerned about the growing problem with runaways. The legislature further recognizes that children have run away from home, are substance abusers, or have serious acting out behaviors and their parents have sought help. The legislature recognizes that families with children who are endangering themselves and others by their behavior also need services.

The legislature finds that many parents do not know their rights regarding their adolescent children and law enforcement, and parents and courts feel they have insufficient legal recourse for the chronic runaway child who is endangering himself or herself through his or her behavior. The legislature further finds that the juvenile justice reform enacted in 1977 does not adequately protect youth and families and that chronic runaways with substantial problems are left without adequate protection or legal recourse.

The legislature further recognizes that for chronic runaways whose behavior puts them in serious danger of harming themselves or others, secure facilities must be provided to assist parents and protect their children. The legislature intends, in chapter . . . Laws of 1995 (this act), to give tools to law enforcement, courts, and parents to keep families together and reunite them whenever possible.

The legislature intends to provide for the protection of children who, through their behavior, are endangering themselves. The legislature intends to provide appropriate residential services, including secure facilities, to protect, stabilize, and treat children with serious problems. The legislature further intends to empower parents by providing them with the assistance they require to raise their children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 13.32A RCW to read as follows:

The department shall establish appropriate security requirements for all crisis residential centers. The requirements shall be designed to prevent children from leaving the centers without authorization. Security requirements may include, but not be limited to, locked doors and windows, electronic monitoring bracelets, and perimeter fences or patrols. Sec. 5. RCW 13.32A.040 and 1994 c 304 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Families who are in conflict or who are experiencing problems with at-risk youth may request family reconciliation services from the department. The department shall involve the local multidisciplinary teams in determining the services to be provided and in providing those services, if a local multidisciplinary team exists. Such services shall be provided to alleviate personal or family situations which present a serious and imminent threat to the health or stability of the child or family and to maintain families intact wherever possible. Family reconciliation services shall be designed to develop skills and supports within families to resolve problems related to at-risk youth or family conflicts and may include but are not limited to referral to services for suicide prevention, psychiatric or other medical care, or psychological, welfare, legal, educational, or other social services, as appropriate to the needs of the child and the family. Upon a referral by a school or other appropriate agency, family reconciliation services may also include training in parenting, conflict management, and dispute resolution skills.

Sec. 6. RCW 13.32A.130 and 1994 sp.s. c 7 s 508 are each amended to read as follows:

A child admitted to a crisis residential center under this chapter who is not returned to the home of his or her parent or who is not placed in an alternative residential placement under an agreement between the parent and child, shall, except as provided for by RCW 13.32A.140 and 13.32A.160(2), reside in the placement under the rules established for the center for a period not to exceed five consecutive days from the time of intake, except as otherwise provided by this chapter. Crisis residential center staff shall make ~~((a concerted))~~ every reasonable effort to protect the child and achieve a reconciliation of the family. If a reconciliation, using family reconciliation services, and voluntary return of the child has not been achieved within forty-eight hours from the time of intake, and if the person in charge of the center does not consider it likely that reconciliation will be achieved within the five-day period, then the ~~((person in charge shall inform the parent and child of (1) the~~ availability of counseling services; (2) the right to file a petition for an alternative residential placement, the right of a parent to file an at-risk youth petition, and the right of the parent and child to obtain assistance in filing the petition; and (3) the right to request a review of any alternative residential placement) facility administrator or his or her designee shall immediately convene the multidisciplinary team, if one exists.

At no time shall information regarding a parent's or child's rights be withheld if requested. The department shall develop and distribute to all law enforcement agencies and to each crisis residential center administrator a written statement delineating the services and rights. Every officer taking a child into custody shall provide the child and his or her parent(s) or responsible adult with whom the child is placed with a copy of the statement. In addition, the administrator of the facility or his or her designee shall provide every resident and parent with a copy of the statement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 13.32A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each county shall have the authority to assemble a multidisciplinary team. To the extent possible, the multidisciplinary team shall draw upon existing community resources.

(2) The multidisciplinary team, if one exists, shall make every reasonable effort to protect the child and achieve a reconciliation of the family whenever possible. If a crisis residential center administrator or his or her designee makes a referral, the team must respond as soon as possible but no later than twelve hours after the referral is made. The team shall have the authority to assess the juvenile, and family members, if appropriate and agreed to, and shall:

- (a) With parental input, develop a plan of appropriate available services and assist the family in obtaining those services;
- (b) Make a referral to the designated chemical dependency specialist or the county designated mental health professional, if appropriate;
- (c) Recommend no further intervention because the juvenile and his or her family have resolved the problem causing the family conflict; or
- (d) With the family's consent, work with the family on a longer-term basis to achieve reconciliation of the child and family, whenever possible.

(3) To the maximum extent possible, the members of the multidisciplinary team shall include members who are representative of the cultures in the family's community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 13.32A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of the multidisciplinary team is to coordinate and communicate about services offered to the child and family.

(2) At the first meeting of the multidisciplinary team, it shall choose a member to act as case manager for the family. The parent member of the multidisciplinary team must agree with the choice of case manager. Thereafter, the team shall meet periodically.

Sec. 9. RCW 13.32A.140 and 1990 c 276 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(The department shall)~~ A juvenile, his or her parent, guardian, or custodian, or the case manager of the multidisciplinary team may file a petition to approve an alternative residential placement on behalf of a child under any of the following sets of circumstances:

(1) The child has been admitted to a crisis residential center or has been placed with a responsible person other than his or her parent, and:

- (a) The parent has been notified that the child was so admitted or placed;
- (b) Seventy-two hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, have passed since such notification;
- (c) No agreement between the parent and the child as to where the child shall live has been reached;
- (d) No petition requesting approval of an alternative residential placement has been filed by either the child or parent or legal custodian;

- (e) The parent has not filed an at-risk youth petition; and
- (f) The child has no suitable place to live other than the home of his or her parent.

(2) The child has been admitted to a crisis residential center and:

- (a) Seventy-two hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, have passed since such placement;
- (b) The staff, after searching with due diligence, have been unable to contact the parent of such child; and
- (c) The child has no suitable place to live other than the home of his or her parent.

(3) An agreement between parent and child made pursuant to RCW 13.32A.090(2)(e) or pursuant to RCW 13.32A.120(1) is no longer acceptable to parent or child, and:

- (a) The party to whom the arrangement is no longer acceptable has so notified the department;
- (b) Seventy-two hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, have passed since such notification;
- (c) No new agreement between parent and child as to where the child shall live has been reached;
- (d) No petition requesting approval of an alternative residential placement has been filed by either the child or the parent;
- (e) The parent has not filed an at-risk youth petition; and
- (f) The child has no suitable place to live other than the home of his or her parent.

Under the circumstances of subsections (1), (2), or (3) of this section, the child shall remain in a licensed child care facility, including but not limited to a crisis residential center, or in any other suitable residence to be determined by the department until an alternative residential placement petition filed by the department on behalf of the child is reviewed by the juvenile court and is resolved by such court. The department may authorize emergency medical or dental care for a child placed under this section. The state, when the department files a petition for alternative residential placement under this section, shall be represented as provided for in RCW 13.04.093.

Sec. 10. RCW 13.32A.150 and 1992 c 205 s 208 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section the juvenile court shall not accept the filing of an alternative residential placement petition by the child or the parents or the filing of an at-risk youth petition by the parent, unless verification is provided that a family assessment has been completed by the department. The family assessment provided by the department shall involve the multidisciplinary team as provided in RCW 13.32A.040, if one exists. The family assessment or plan of services developed by the multidisciplinary team shall be aimed at family reconciliation, reunification, and avoidance of the out-of-home placement of the child. If the department is unable to complete an assessment within two working days following a request for assessment the child or the parents may proceed under subsection (2) of this section or the parent may proceed under subsection (3) of this section.

(2) A child or a child's parent may file with the juvenile court a petition to approve an alternative residential placement for the child outside the parent's home. The department shall, when requested, assist either a parent or child in the filing of the petition. The petition shall only ask that the placement of a child outside the home of his or her parent be approved. The filing of a petition to approve such placement is not dependent upon the court's having obtained any prior jurisdiction over the child or his or her parent, and confers upon the court a special jurisdiction to approve or disapprove an alternative residential placement.

(3) A child's parent may file with the juvenile court a petition in the interest of a child alleged to be an at-risk youth. The department shall, when requested, assist the parent in filing the petition. The petition shall be filed in the county where the petitioning parent resides. The petition shall set forth the name, age, and residence of the child and the names and residence of the child's parents and shall allege that:

- (a) The child is an at-risk youth as defined in this chapter;
- (b) The petitioning parent has the right to legal custody of the child;
- (c) Court intervention and supervision are necessary to assist the parent to maintain the care, custody, and control of the child; and
- (d) Alternatives to court intervention have been attempted or there is good cause why such alternatives have not been attempted.

The petition shall set forth facts that support the allegations in this subsection and shall generally request relief available under this chapter. The petition need not specify any proposed disposition following adjudication of the petition. The filing of an at-risk youth petition is not dependent upon the court's having obtained any prior jurisdiction over the child or his or her parent and confers upon the court the special jurisdiction to assist the parent in maintaining parental authority and responsibility for the child. An at-risk youth petition may not be filed if the court has approved an alternative residential placement petition regarding the child or if the child is the subject of a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW. A petition may be accepted for filing only if alternatives to court intervention have been attempted. Juvenile court personnel may screen all at-risk youth petitions and may refuse to allow the filing of any petition that lacks merit, fails to comply with the requirements of this section, or fails to allege sufficient facts in support of allegations in the petition.

Sec. 11. RCW 13.50.010 and 1994 sp.s. c 7 s 541 are each amended to read as follows:

(d) "Records" means the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of any other juvenile justice or care agency in the case.

(2) Each petition or information filed with the court may include only one juvenile and each petition or information shall be filed under a separate docket number. The social file shall be filed separately from the official juvenile court file.

(3) It is the duty of any juvenile justice or care agency to maintain accurate records. To this end:

(a) The agency may never knowingly record inaccurate information. Any information in records maintained by the department of social and health services relating to a petition filed pursuant to chapter 13.34 RCW that is found by the court, upon proof presented, to be false or inaccurate shall be corrected or expunged from such records by the agency;

(b) An agency shall take reasonable steps to assure the security of its records and prevent tampering with them; and

(c) An agency shall make reasonable efforts to insure the completeness of its records, including action taken by other agencies with respect to matters in its files.

(4) Each juvenile justice or care agency shall implement procedures consistent with the provisions of this chapter to facilitate inquiries concerning records.

(5) Any person who has reasonable cause to believe information concerning that person is included in the records of a juvenile justice or care agency and who has been denied access to those records by the agency may make a motion to the court for an order authorizing that person to inspect the juvenile justice or care agency record concerning that person. The court shall grant the motion to examine records unless it finds that in the interests of justice or in the best interests of the juvenile the records or parts of them should remain confidential.

(6) A juvenile, or his or her parents, or any person who has reasonable cause to believe information concerning that person is included in the records of a juvenile justice or care agency may make a motion to the court challenging the accuracy of any information concerning the moving party in the record or challenging the continued possession of the record by the agency. If the court grants the motion, it shall order the record or information to be corrected or destroyed.

(7) The person making a motion under subsection (5) or (6) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties to the original action and to any agency whose records will be affected by the motion.

(8) The court may permit inspection of records by, or release of information to, any clinic, hospital, or agency which has the subject person under care or treatment. The court may also permit inspection by or release to individuals or agencies, including juvenile justice advisory committees of county law and justice councils, engaged in legitimate research for educational, scientific, or public purposes. The court may also permit inspection of, or release of information from, records which have been sealed pursuant to RCW 13.50.050(11). Access to records or information for research purposes shall be permitted only if the anonymity of all persons mentioned in the records or information will be preserved. Each person granted permission to inspect juvenile justice or care agency records for research purposes shall present a notarized statement to the court stating that the names of juveniles and parents will remain confidential.

(9) Juvenile detention facilities shall release records to the juvenile disposition standards commission under RCW 13.40.025 upon request. The commission shall not disclose the names of any juveniles or parents mentioned in the records without the named individual's written permission.

Sec. 12. RCW 13.32A.050 and 1994 sp.s. c 7 s 505 are each amended to read as follows:

A law enforcement officer shall take a child into custody:

(1) If a law enforcement agency has been contacted by the parent of the child that the child is absent from parental custody without consent; or

(2) If a law enforcement officer reasonably believes, considering the child's age, the location, and the time of day, that a child is in circumstances which constitute a danger to the child's safety or that a child is violating a local curfew ordinance; or

(3) If an agency legally charged with the supervision of a child has notified a law enforcement agency that the child has run away from placement; or

(4) If a law enforcement agency has been notified by the juvenile court that the court finds probable cause exists to believe that the child has violated a court placement order issued pursuant to chapter 13.32A RCW or that the court has issued an order for law enforcement pick-up of the child under this chapter.

Law enforcement custody shall not extend beyond the amount of time reasonably necessary to transport the child to a destination authorized by law and to place the child at that destination.

An officer who takes a child into custody under this section and places the child in a designated crisis residential center shall inform the department of such placement within twenty-four hours.

(5) Nothing in this section affects the authority of any political subdivision to make regulations concerning the conduct of minors in public places by ordinance or other local law.

(6) If a law enforcement officer receives a report that causes the officer to have reasonable suspicion that a child is being harbored under RCW 13.32A.080 or for other reasons has a reasonable suspicion that a child is being ~~((unlawfully))~~ harbored under RCW 13.32A.080, the officer shall remove the child from the custody of the person harboring the child and shall transport the child to one of the locations specified in RCW 13.32A.060.

Sec. 13. RCW 13.32A.060 and 1994 sp.s. c 7 s 506 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050 (1) or (2) shall inform the child of the reason for such custody and shall either:

(a) Transport the child to his or her home. The officer releasing a child into the custody of the parent shall inform the parent of the reason for the taking of the child into custody and shall inform the child and the parent of the nature and location of appropriate services available in their community; or

(b) Take the child to the home of an ~~((adult))~~ extended family member, a designated crisis residential center, or the home of a responsible adult after attempting to notify the parent or legal guardian:

(i) If the child expresses fear or distress at the prospect of being returned to his or her home which leads the officer to believe there is a possibility that the child is experiencing in the home some type of child abuse or neglect, as defined in RCW 26.44.020, as now law or hereafter amended; or

(ii) If it is not practical to transport the child to his or her home; or

(iii) If there is no parent available to accept custody of the child.

The officer releasing a child into the custody of an extended family member or a responsible adult shall inform the child and the extended family member or responsible adult of the nature and location of appropriate services available in the community.

(2) An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050 (3) or (4) shall inform the child of the reason for custody ~~((and))~~. An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050(3) shall take the child to a designated crisis residential center licensed by the department and established pursuant to chapter 74.13 RCW. ~~((However,))~~ An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050(4) ~~((may))~~ shall place the child in a juvenile detention facility as provided in RCW 13.32A.065. The department shall ensure that all the enforcement authorities are informed on a regular basis as to the location of the designated crisis residential center or centers in their judicial district, where children taken into custody under RCW 13.32A.050 may be taken.

(3) "Extended family members" means an adult who is a grandparent, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, aunt, or first cousin with whom the child has a relationship and is comfortable, and who is willing and available to care for the child.

Sec. 14. RCW 13.32A.065 and 1981 c 298 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A child ~~((may))~~ shall be placed in detention after being taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.32A.050(4). The court shall hold a detention review hearing within twenty-four hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The court shall release the child after twenty-four hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, unless:

(a) A motion and order to show why the child should not be held in contempt has been filed and served on the child at or before the detention hearing; and

(b) The court believes that the child would not appear at a hearing on contempt.

(2) If the court orders the child to remain in detention, the court shall set the matter for a hearing on contempt within seventy-two hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

Sec. 15. RCW 13.32A.070 and 1986 c 288 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except when expressly required otherwise in this chapter, an officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050 may, at his or her discretion, transport the child to the home of a responsible adult who is other than the child's parent or extended family member where the officer reasonably believes that the child will be provided with adequate care and supervision and that the child will remain in the custody of such adult until such time as the department can bring about the child's return home or an alternative residential placement can be agreed to or determined pursuant to this chapter. An officer placing a child with a responsible adult other than his or her parent or extended family member shall immediately notify the department's local community service office of this fact and of the reason for taking the child into custody.

(2) A law enforcement officer acting in good faith pursuant to this chapter in failing to take a child into custody, in taking a child into custody, or in releasing a child to a person other than a parent or extended family member of such child is immune from civil or criminal liability for such action.

(3) A person other than a parent of such child who receives a child pursuant to this chapter and who acts reasonably and in good faith in doing so is immune from civil or criminal liability for the act of receiving such child. Such immunity does not release such person from liability under any other law including the laws regulating licensed child care and prohibiting child abuse.

(4) As used in this section, "extended family member" has the meaning prescribed in RCW 13.32A.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 13.32A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person who, without legal authorization, provides shelter to a minor and who knows at the time of providing the shelter that the minor is away from the parent's home without the permission of the parent, shall promptly report the location of the child to a local law enforcement agency. The report may be made by telephone or any other reasonable means.

(2) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section.

(a) "Shelter" means the person's home or any structure over which the person has any control.

(b) "Promptly report" means to report within four hours after the person has knowledge that the minor is away from home without parental permission.

(c) "Parent" means any parent having legal custody of the child, whether individually or joint.

(3) Violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

When the department of licensing is provided with a notice under section 18 of this act, the department shall suspend for ninety days all driving privileges of the juvenile identified in the notice. To the extent it may be required to provide due process, the department may adopt rules to provide the juvenile with an opportunity to challenge the notice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 13.32A RCW to read as follows:

When petitioned to do so by a parent, the department shall determine whether the parent's child has, on two or more occasions within a twelve-month period, been absent from home for more than seventy-two consecutive hours without parental consent. If the department finds that the child has and also that the child has a Washington state driver's license, then the department shall provide a notice of its findings to the department of licensing which shall suspend the child's driver's license as provided in section 17 of this act. The twelve-month period shall be the twelve-calendar-month period immediately before the month in which the department receives the petition. The department shall develop procedures for verifying absences and if requested by either a parent or child shall conduct a hearing on the question of whether the absences have occurred.

Sec. 19. RCW 13.32A.196 and 1991 c 364 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At the dispositional hearing regarding an adjudicated at-risk youth, the court shall consider the recommendations of the parties and the recommendations of any dispositional plan submitted by the department. The court may enter a dispositional order that will assist the parent in maintaining the care, custody, and control of the child and assist the family to resolve family conflicts or problems.

(2) The court may set conditions of supervision for the child that include:

(a) Regular school attendance;

(b) Counseling;

(c) Participation in a substance abuse treatment program;

(d) If ordered under subsection (3) of this section, placement in a secure facility or other secure program of treatment;

(e) Reporting on a regular basis to the department or any other designated person or agency; and

~~((e))~~ (f) Any other condition the court deems an appropriate condition of supervision.

(3) If requested by a parent of an at-risk youth who is a habitual runaway, the court may include in its dispositional order or orders a requirement that the youth be placed, for up to one hundred eighty consecutive days, in a secure facility or other court-ordered secure program of treatment. The court may not include this requirement unless, at the disposition hearing, it finds that the placement is necessary in order to protect the at-risk youth and that a less-restrictive order or orders not requiring such placement would be inadequate to protect the youth, given the youth's age, maturity, propensity to run away from home, past exposure to serious risk when the youth ran away from home, and possible future exposure to serious risk should the youth run away from home again. For purposes of this section, an at-risk youth is a "habitual runaway" if the youth, on each of three or more occasions within the twelve-month period preceding the month in which the at-risk youth petition was filed, has been absent from home for more than seventy-two consecutive hours without parental consent; or if the youth during such twelve-month period has been absent from home without parental consent for more than thirty consecutive days. This subsection constitutes a method of placement or commitment that is in addition to methods prescribed under other laws and is not intended as the exclusive method for placement or commitment of children who qualify as at-risk youth.

(4) Except as provided in this section for habitual runaways, no dispositional order or condition of supervision ordered by a court pursuant to this section shall include involuntary commitment of a child for substance abuse or mental health treatment.

~~((4))~~ (5) The court may order the parent to participate in counseling services or any other services for the child requiring parental participation. The parent shall cooperate with the court-ordered case plan and shall take necessary steps to help implement the case plan. The parent shall be financially responsible for costs related to the court-ordered plan; however, this requirement shall not affect the eligibility of the parent or child for public assistance or other benefits to which the parent or child may otherwise be entitled. The parent may request dismissal of an at-risk youth proceeding at any time and upon such a request, the court shall dismiss the matter and cease court supervision of the child unless a contempt action is pending in the case. The court may retain jurisdiction over the matter for the purpose of concluding any pending contempt proceedings, including the full satisfaction of any penalties imposed as a result of a contempt finding.

~~((5))~~ (6) The court may order the department to monitor compliance with the dispositional order, assist in coordinating the provision of court-ordered services, and submit reports at subsequent review hearings regarding the status of the case.

Sec. 20. RCW 13.32A.198 and 1990 c 276 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon making a disposition regarding an adjudicated at-risk youth, the court shall schedule the matter on the calendar for review ~~((within three months))~~, advise the parties of the date thereof, appoint legal counsel for the child, advise the parent of the right to be represented by legal counsel at the review hearing at the parent's own expense, and notify the parties of their rights to present evidence at the hearing. The review hearing shall commence within ninety consecutive days after the date in which the dispositional order or orders are entered. However, if the order or orders provide for the placement of a habitual runaway in a secure facility or secure program of treatment, then the review hearing shall commence within thirty consecutive days after such date.

(2) At the review hearing, the court shall approve or disapprove the continuation of court supervision in accordance with the goal of assisting the parent to maintain the care, custody, and control of the child. The court shall determine whether the parent and child are complying with the dispositional plan. If court supervision is continued, the court may modify the dispositional plan. However, in the case of a habitual runaway placed in a secure facility or secure program of treatment, the court may continue the placement for an additional period only if requested by the parent and if the court finds that its findings under RCW 13.32A.196 are still accurate.

(3) Except for the placement of a habitual runaway in a secure facility or secure program of treatment, court supervision of the child may not be continued past one hundred eighty consecutive days from the day the review hearing commenced unless the court finds, and the parent agrees, that there are compelling reasons for an extension of supervision. Any extension granted pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed ninety days. The court may not require the placement of a habitual runaway for longer than a period of one hundred eighty consecutive days and may not provide for any extension of the placement beyond such period.

(4) The court may dismiss an at-risk youth proceeding at any time if the court finds good cause to believe that continuation of court supervision, including the placement of a habitual runaway, would serve no useful purpose or that the parent is not cooperating with the court-ordered case plan. The court shall dismiss an at-risk youth proceeding if the child is the subject of a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

If a juvenile required to attend school under the laws of the state of Washington fails to attend school without valid justification, the juvenile's school shall:

(1) Inform the juvenile's custodial parent, parents or guardian by a notice in writing or by telephone that the juvenile has failed to attend school without valid justification after one unexcused absence within any month during the current school year;

(2) Schedule a conference or conferences with the custodial parent, parents or guardian and juvenile at a time and place reasonably convenient for all persons included for the purpose of analyzing the causes of the juvenile's absences after two unexcused absences within any month during the current school year. If a regularly scheduled parent-teacher conference day is to take place within thirty days of the second unexcused absence, then the school district may schedule this conference on that day; and

(3) Take steps to eliminate or reduce the juvenile's absences. These steps shall include, where appropriate, adjusting the juvenile's school program or school or course assignment, providing more individualized or remedial instruction, preparing the juvenile for employment with specific vocational courses or work experience, or ~~((both))~~ refer the juvenile to a community truancy board, and assisting the parent or student to obtain supplementary services that might eliminate or ameliorate the cause or causes for the absence from school.

If action taken by a school pursuant to RCW 28A.225.020 is not successful in substantially reducing a student's absences from school, any of the following actions may be taken after five or more unexcused absences during the current school year: (1) The attendance officer of the school district or the community truancy board through its attorney may petition the ((juvenile)) court to assume jurisdiction under RCW 28A.200.010, 28A.200.020, and 28A.225.010 through 28A.225.150 for the purpose of alleging a violation of RCW 28A.225.010 by the parent; or (2) a petition alleging a violation of RCW 28A.225.010 by a child may be filed with the ((juvenile)) court by the parent of such child or by the attendance officer of the school district or the community truancy board through its attorney at the request of the parent. If the court assumes jurisdiction in such an instance, the provisions of RCW 28A.200.010, 28A.200.020, and 28A.225.010 through 28A.225.150, except where otherwise stated, shall apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 28A.225 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, "community truancy board" means a board comprised of members of the local community in which the juvenile attends school. The local school district shall direct the formation of the board, and if possible include a variety of representatives from the community. The community truancy board shall set conditions designed to improve school attendance and monitor subsequent school attendance.

Sec. 24. RCW 28A.225.150 and 1992 c 205 s 205 are each amended to read as follows:

The school district attendance officer shall report biannually to the educational service district superintendent, in the instance of petitions filed alleging a violation by a child under RCW 28A.225.030:

- (1) The number of petitions filed by a school district or by a parent;
- (2) The frequency of each action taken under RCW 28A.225.020 prior to the filing of such petition;
- (3) When deemed appropriate under RCW 28A.225.020, the frequency of delivery of supplemental services; and
- (4) Disposition of cases filed with the ((juvenile)) court, including the frequency of contempt orders issued to enforce a court's order under RCW 28A.225.090.

The educational service district superintendent shall compile such information and report annually to the superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall compile such information and report to the committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 1 of each year.

Sec. 25. RCW 70.96A.095 and 1991 c 364 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person fourteen years of age or older may give consent for himself or herself to the furnishing of counseling, care, treatment, or rehabilitation by a treatment program or by any person. Consent of the parent, parents, or legal guardian of a person less than eighteen years of age is not necessary to authorize the care, except that the person shall not become a resident of the treatment program without such permission except as provided in RCW 70.96A.120 or 70.96A.140. The parent, parents, or legal guardian of a person less than eighteen years of age are not liable for payment of care for such persons pursuant to this chapter, unless they have joined in the consent to the counseling, care, treatment, or rehabilitation. The parent's, parents', or guardians' insurance carrier is also not liable for payment and shall not be billed for payment unless the parent, parents, or guardian has given consent.

(2) The parent of any minor may apply to an approved treatment program for the admission of the minor for purposes authorized in this chapter. The consent of the minor shall not be required for the application or admission. The approved treatment program shall accept the application as if it were submitted voluntarily by the minor. The ability of a parent to apply to an approved treatment program for the involuntary admission of his or her child does not create any right to this treatment or to obtain or benefit from any public funds or resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 70.96A RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter authorizes school district personnel to refer minors to any treatment program or treatment provider without providing notice of the referral to the parent, parents, or guardians.

Sec. 27. RCW 70.96A.110 and 1990 c 151 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An alcoholic or other drug addict may apply for voluntary treatment directly to an approved treatment program. If the proposed patient is ((a minor or)) an incompetent person, he or she, a parent, a legal guardian, or other legal representative may make the application. If the proposed patient is a minor, the minor or the minor's parent, legal guardian, or other legal representative may make the application as provided in RCW 70.96A.095.

(2) Subject to rules adopted by the secretary, the administrator in charge of an approved treatment program may determine who shall be admitted for treatment. If a person is refused admission to an approved treatment program, the administrator, subject to rules adopted by the secretary, shall refer the person to another approved treatment program for treatment if possible and appropriate.

(3) If a patient receiving inpatient care leaves an approved treatment program, he or she shall be encouraged to consent to appropriate outpatient treatment. If it appears to the administrator in charge of the treatment program that the patient is an alcoholic or other drug addict who requires help, the department may arrange for assistance in obtaining supportive services and residential programs.

(4) If a patient leaves an approved public treatment program, with or against the advice of the administrator in charge of the program, the department may make reasonable provisions for his or her transportation to another program or to his or her home. If the patient has no home he or she should be assisted in obtaining shelter. If the patient is less than ((fourteen)) eighteen years of age or an incompetent person the request for discharge from an inpatient program shall be made by a parent, legal guardian, or other legal representative or by the ((minor or)) incompetent if he or she was the original applicant.

Sec. 28. RCW 70.96A.140 and 1993 c 362 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a designated chemical dependency specialist receives information alleging that a person is incapacitated as a result of chemical dependency, the designated chemical dependency specialist, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court or district court.

If a petition for commitment is not filed in the case of a minor, the parent, guardian, or custodian who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision made by the designated chemical dependency specialist in superior or district court. The parent, guardian, or custodian shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the designated chemical dependency specialist's report.

If the designated chemical dependency specialist finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020 or 71.34.020. If placement in a chemical dependency program is available and deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that: The person is chemically dependent and is incapacitated by alcohol or drug addiction, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for detoxification or chemical dependency treatment pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110, and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person is chemically dependent and has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment, by itself, does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician who has examined the person within five days before submission of the petition, unless the person whose commitment is sought has refused to submit to a medical examination, in which case the fact of refusal shall be alleged in the petition. The certificate shall set forth the licensed physician's findings in support of the allegations of the petition. A physician employed by the petitioning program or the department is eligible to be the certifying physician.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained in a program, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120, 71.05.210, or 71.34.050, ((as now or hereafter amended,)) in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the above specified seventy-two hours shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays: PROVIDED FURTHER, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the designated chemical dependency specialist on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony, including, if possible, the testimony, which may be telephonic, of at least one licensed physician who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. Communications otherwise deemed privileged under the laws of this state are deemed to be waived in proceedings under this chapter when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that the waiver is necessary to protect either the detained person or the public. The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained person for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained person, or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

The record maker shall not be required to testify in order to introduce medical, nursing, or psychological records of detained persons so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met, except that portions of the record that contain opinions as to whether the detained person is chemically dependent shall be deleted from the records unless the person offering the opinions is available for cross-examination. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4) If after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by clear, cogent, and convincing proof, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved treatment program. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved treatment program is available and able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her.

(5) A person committed under this section shall remain in the program for treatment for a period of sixty days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the sixty-day period, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the program, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days unless sooner discharged.

If a petition for recommitment is not filed in the case of a minor, the parent, guardian, or custodian who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision made by the designated chemical dependency specialist in superior or district court. The parent, guardian, or custodian shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the treatment progress report.

If a person has been committed because he or she is chemically dependent and likely to inflict physical harm on another, the program shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

(6) Upon the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsection (5) of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed: PROVIDED, That, the court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment program on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(7) The approved treatment program shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment program to another if transfer is medically advisable.

(8) A person committed to the custody of a program for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of a chemically dependent person committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself, herself, or another, the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.

(b) In case of a chemically dependent person committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity, that the incapacity no longer exists.

(9) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician of his or her choice. If the person is unable to obtain a licensed physician and requests examination by a physician, the court shall employ a licensed physician.

(10) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(11) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

(12) When in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the program providing involuntary treatment under this chapter, the committed patient can be appropriately served by less restrictive treatment before expiration of the period of commitment, then the less restrictive care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the initial treatment period, does not exceed the period of commitment. If the program designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the program providing the initial involuntary treatment, the program so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated chemical dependency specialist of original commitment, and the court of original commitment. The program designated to provide less restrictive care may modify the conditions for continued release when the modifications are in the best interests of the patient. If the program providing less restrictive care and the designated chemical dependency specialist determine that a conditionally released patient is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the patient's functioning has occurred, then the designated chemical dependency specialist shall notify the court of original commitment and request a hearing to be held no less than two and no more than seven days after the date of the request to determine whether or not the person should be returned to more restrictive care. The designated chemical dependency specialist shall file a petition with the court stating the facts substantiating the need for the hearing along with the treatment recommendations. The patient shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for the original involuntary treatment proceedings. The issues to be determined at the hearing are whether the conditionally released patient did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release to less restrictive care or that substantial deterioration of the patient's functioning has occurred and whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to a more restrictive program. The hearing may be waived by the patient and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but may not be waived unless all such persons agree to the waiver. Upon waiver, the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions.

Sec. 29. RCW 71.34.030 and 1985 c 354 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any minor (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen years or older may request and receive outpatient treatment without the consent of the minor's parent provided that the treatment provider provides notice to the minor's parent. The treatment provider must provide notice within forty-eight hours of the minor's request for treatment excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The notice shall contain the same information as required under subsection (2)(c) of this section. Parental authorization is required for outpatient treatment of a minor under the age of (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen).

(2) When in the judgment of the professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility there is reason to believe that a minor is in need of inpatient treatment because of a mental disorder, and the facility provides the type of evaluation and treatment needed by the minor, and it is not feasible to treat the minor in any less restrictive setting or the minor's home, the minor may be admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility in accordance with the following requirements:

(a) A minor under (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen years of age may only be admitted on the application of the minor's parent.

(b) A minor (~~(thirteen years or older)~~) may be voluntarily admitted by application of the parent. (~~(Such application must be accompanied by the written consent, knowingly and voluntarily given, of the minor.)~~ The consent of the minor is not required.

(c) A minor (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen years or older may, with the concurrence of the professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility, admit himself or herself without parental consent to the evaluation and treatment facility, provided that notice is given by the facility to the minor's parent in accordance with the following requirements:

(i) Notice of the minor's admission shall be in the form most likely to reach the parent within twenty-four hours of the minor's voluntary admission and shall advise the parent that the minor has been admitted to inpatient treatment; the location and telephone number of the facility providing such treatment; and the name of a professional person on the staff of the facility providing treatment who is designated to discuss the minor's need for inpatient treatment with the parent.

(ii) The minor shall be released to the parent at the parent's request for release unless the facility files a petition with the superior court of the county in which treatment is being provided setting forth the basis for the facility's belief that the minor is in need of inpatient treatment and that release would constitute a threat to the minor's health or safety.

(iii) The petition shall be signed by the professional person in charge of the facility or that person's designee.

(iv) The parent may apply to the court for separate counsel to represent the parent if the parent cannot afford counsel.

(v) There shall be a hearing on the petition, which shall be held within three judicial days from the filing of the petition.

(vi) The hearing shall be conducted by a judge, court commissioner, or licensed attorney designated by the superior court as a hearing officer for such hearing. The hearing may be held at the treatment facility.

(vii) At such hearing, the facility must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence presented at the hearing that the minor is in need of inpatient treatment and that release would constitute a threat to the minor's health or safety. The hearing shall not be conducted using the rules of evidence, and the admission or exclusion of evidence sought to be presented shall be within the exercise of sound discretion by the judicial officer conducting the hearing.

(d) Written renewal of voluntary consent must be obtained from the applicant (~~(and the minor thirteen years or older)~~) no less than once every twelve months.

(e) The minor's need for continued inpatient treatments shall be reviewed and documented no less than every one hundred eighty days.

(3) A notice of intent to leave shall result in the following:

(a) Any minor under the age of (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen and any minor fourteen or older admitted by a parent under subsection (2)(b) of this section must be discharged immediately upon written request of the parent.

(b) Any minor (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen years or older voluntarily admitted by himself or herself under subsection (2)(c) of this section may give notice of intent to leave at any time. The notice need not follow any specific form so long as it is written and the intent of the minor can be discerned.

(c) The staff member receiving the notice shall date it immediately, record its existence in the minor's clinical record, and send copies of it to the minor's attorney, if any, the county-designated mental health professional, and the parent.

(d) The professional person in charge of the evaluation and treatment facility shall discharge the minor, (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen years or older, from the facility within twenty-four hours after receipt of the minor's notice of intent to leave, unless the county-designated mental health professional or a parent or legal guardian files a petition or an application for initial detention within the time prescribed by this chapter.

(4) The ability of a parent to apply for treatment of his or her child under this section does not create a right to obtain this treatment or to obtain or benefit from any public funds or resources.

Sec. 30. RCW 71.34.040 and 1985 c 354 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

If a minor, (~~(thirteen)~~ fourteen years or older, is brought to an evaluation and treatment facility or hospital emergency room for immediate mental health services, the professional person in charge of the facility shall evaluate the minor's mental condition, determine whether the minor suffers from a mental disorder, and whether the minor is in need of immediate inpatient treatment. If it is determined that the minor suffers from a mental disorder, inpatient treatment is required, the minor is unwilling to consent to voluntary admission, and the professional person believes that the minor meets the criteria for initial detention set forth herein, the facility may detain or arrange for the detention of the minor for up to twelve hours in order to enable a county-designated mental health professional to evaluate the minor and commence initial detention proceedings under the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter authorizes school district personnel to refer minors to any evaluation and treatment program or mental health professional without providing notice of the referral to the minor's parent.

Sec. 32. RCW 71.34.050 and 1985 c 354 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a county-designated mental health professional receives information that a minor, (~~thirteen~~) fourteen years or older, as a result of a mental disorder presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled, has investigated the specific facts alleged and of the credibility of the person or persons providing the information, and has determined that voluntary admission for inpatient treatment is not possible, the county-designated mental health professional may take the minor, or cause the minor to be taken, into custody and transported to an evaluation and treatment facility providing inpatient treatment.

If the minor is not taken into custody for evaluation and treatment, the parent who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision made by the county designated mental health professional in court. The parent shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the county designated mental health professional's report or notes.

(2) Within twelve hours of the minor's arrival at the evaluation and treatment facility, the county-designated mental health professional shall serve on the minor a copy of the petition for initial detention, notice of initial detention, and statement of rights. The county-designated mental health professional shall file with the court on the next judicial day following the initial detention the original petition for initial detention, notice of initial detention, and statement of rights along with an affidavit of service. The county-designated mental health professional shall commence service of the petition for initial detention and notice of the initial detention on the minor's parent and the minor's attorney as soon as possible following the initial detention.

(3) At the time of initial detention, the county-designated mental health professional shall advise the minor both orally and in writing that if admitted to the evaluation and treatment facility for inpatient treatment, a commitment hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the minor's provisional acceptance to determine whether probable cause exists to commit the minor for further mental health treatment.

The minor shall be advised that he or she has a right to communicate immediately with an attorney and that he or she has a right to have an attorney appointed to represent him or her before and at the hearing if the minor is indigent.

(4) Whenever the county designated mental health professional petitions for detention of a minor under this chapter, an evaluation and treatment facility providing seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment must immediately accept on a provisional basis the petition and the person. Within twenty-four hours of the minor's arrival, the facility must evaluate the minor's condition and either admit or release the minor in accordance with this chapter.

(5) If a minor is not approved for admission by the inpatient evaluation and treatment facility, the facility shall make such recommendations and referrals for further care and treatment of the minor as necessary.

Sec. 33. RCW 71.34.070 and 1985 c 354 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The professional person in charge of an evaluation and treatment facility where a minor has been admitted involuntarily for the initial seventy-two hour treatment period under this chapter may petition to have a minor committed to an evaluation and treatment facility for fourteen-day diagnosis, evaluation, and treatment.

If the professional person in charge of the treatment and evaluation facility does not petition to have the minor committed, the parent who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision in court. The parent shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the treatment and evaluation facility's report.

(2) A petition for commitment of a minor under this section shall be filed with the superior court in the county where the minor is residing or being detained.

(a) A petition for a fourteen-day commitment shall be signed either by two physicians or by one physician and a mental health professional who have examined the minor and shall contain the following:

(i) The name and address of the petitioner;

(ii) The name of the minor alleged to meet the criteria for fourteen-day commitment;

(iii) The name, telephone number, and address if known of every person believed by the petitioner to be legally responsible for the minor;

(iv) A statement that the petitioner has examined the minor and finds that the minor's condition meets required criteria for fourteen-day commitment and the supporting facts therefor;

(v) A statement that the minor has been advised of the need for voluntary treatment but has been unwilling or unable to consent to necessary treatment;

(vi) A statement recommending the appropriate facility or facilities to provide the necessary treatment; and

(vii) A statement concerning whether a less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment is in the best interests of the minor.

(b) A copy of the petition shall be personally delivered to the minor by the petitioner or petitioner's designee. A copy of the petition shall be sent to the minor's attorney and the minor's parent.

Sec. 34. RCW 71.34.130 and 1985 c 354 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a minor receiving treatment under the provisions of this chapter and responsible others shall be liable for the costs of treatment, care, and transportation to the extent of available resources and ability to pay.

(2) The minor's parent shall not be liable for payment for the costs of treatment, care, and transportation unless the parent gave consent to the treatment, care, and transportation. The parent's insurance carrier is also not liable for payment and shall not be billed for payment unless the parent has given consent.

(3) The secretary shall establish rules to implement this section and to define income, resources, and exemptions to determine the responsible person's or persons' ability to pay.

Sec. 35. RCW 74.13.032 and 1979 c 155 s 78 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall establish, by contracts with private vendors, not less than eight regional crisis residential centers, which shall be structured group care facilities licensed under rules adopted by the department. Each regional center shall have an average of at least four adult staff members and in no event less than three adult staff members to every eight children. The staff shall be trained so that they may effectively counsel juveniles admitted to the centers, provide treatment, supervision, and structure to the juveniles, and carry out the responsibilities outlined in RCW 13.32A.090.

(2) The department shall, in addition to the regional facilities established under subsection (1) of this section, establish not less than thirty additional crisis residential centers pursuant to contract with licensed private group care or specialized foster home facilities. The department may also locate crisis residential centers in or adjacent to secure juvenile detention facilities operated by the county. Where a center is located in or adjacent to a secure juvenile detention facility, the center shall be operated in a manner that prevents in-person contact between the residents of the center and the persons held in such facility. The staff at the facilities shall be trained so that they may effectively counsel juveniles admitted to the centers, provide treatment, supervision, and structure to the juveniles, and carry out the responsibilities stated in RCW 13.32A.090. The responsibilities stated in RCW 13.32A.090 may, in any of the centers, be carried out by the department.

Crisis residential ((facilities)) centers shall be operated as ((semi-secure)) secure facilities.

Sec. 36. RCW 74.13.033 and 1992 c 205 s 213 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a resident of a center becomes by his or her behavior disruptive to the facility's program, such resident may be immediately removed to a separate area within the facility and counseled on an individual basis until such time as the child regains his or her composure. The department may set rules and regulations establishing additional procedures for dealing with severely disruptive children on the premises, ((which procedures are consistent with the federal juvenile justice and delinquency prevention act of 1974 and regulations and clarifying instructions promulgated thereunder)). Nothing in this section shall prohibit a center from referring any child who, as the result of a mental or emotional disorder, or intoxication by alcohol or other drugs, is suicidal, seriously assaultive or seriously destructive toward others, or otherwise similarly evidences an immediate need for emergency medical evaluation and possible care, for evaluation pursuant to chapter 71.34 RCW ((~~et~~)), to a mental health professional pursuant to chapter 71.05 RCW, or to a chemical dependency specialist pursuant to chapter 70.96A RCW whenever such action is deemed appropriate and consistent with law.

(2) When the juvenile resides in this facility, all services deemed necessary to the juvenile's reentry to normal family life shall be made available to the juvenile as required by chapter 13.32A RCW. In providing these services, the facility shall:

(a) Interview the juvenile as soon as possible;

(b) Contact the juvenile's parents and arrange for a counseling interview with the juvenile and his or her parents as soon as possible;

(c) Conduct counseling interviews with the juvenile and his or her parents, to the end that resolution of the child/parent conflict is attained and the child is returned home as soon as possible; and

(d) Provide additional crisis counseling as needed, to the end that placement of the child in the crisis residential center will be required for the shortest time possible, but not to exceed five consecutive days.

(3) A juvenile taking unauthorized leave from this residence ((may)) shall be apprehended and returned to it by law enforcement officers or other persons designated as having this authority as provided in RCW 13.32A.050. If returned to the facility after having taken unauthorized leave for a period of more than twenty-four hours a juvenile ((may)) shall be supervised by such a facility for a period, pursuant to this chapter, which, unless where otherwise provided, may not exceed five consecutive days on the premises. Costs of housing juveniles admitted to crisis residential centers shall be assumed by the department for a period not to exceed five consecutive days.

Sec. 37. RCW 74.13.034 and 1992 c 205 s 214 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A child taken into custody and taken to a crisis residential center established pursuant to RCW 74.13.032(2) may, if the center is unable to provide appropriate treatment, supervision, and structure to the child, be taken at department expense to another crisis residential center or the nearest regional crisis residential center. Placement in both centers shall not exceed five consecutive days from the point of intake as provided in RCW 13.32A.130.

(2) A child taken into custody and taken to a crisis residential center established by this chapter may be placed physically by the department or the department's designee and, at departmental expense and approval, in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by the county in which the center is located for a maximum of forty-eight hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, if the child has taken unauthorized leave from the center and the person in charge of the center determines that the center cannot provide supervision and structure adequate to ensure that the child will not again take unauthorized leave. Juveniles placed in such a facility pursuant to this section may not, to the extent possible, come in contact with alleged or convicted juvenile or adult offenders.

(3) Any child placed in secure detention pursuant to this section shall, during the period of confinement, be provided with appropriate treatment by the department or the department's designee, which shall include the services defined in RCW 74.13.033(2). If the child placed in secure detention is not returned home or if an alternative living arrangement agreeable to the parent and the child is not made within twenty-four hours after the child's admission, the child shall be taken at the department's expense to a crisis residential center. Placement in the crisis residential center or centers plus placement in juvenile detention shall not exceed five consecutive days from the point of intake as provided in RCW 13.32A.130.

~~(4) ((Juvenile detention facilities used pursuant to this section shall first be certified by the department to ensure that juveniles placed in the facility pursuant to this section are provided with living conditions suitable to the well-being of the child. Where space is available, juvenile courts, when certified by the department to do so, shall provide secure placement for juveniles pursuant to this section, at department expense.~~

~~(5))~~ It is the intent of the legislature that by July 1, 1982, crisis residential centers, supplemented by community mental health programs and mental health professionals, will be able to respond appropriately to children admitted to centers under this chapter and will be able to respond to the needs of such children with appropriate treatment, supervision, and structure."

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hargrove, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5439 and requests of the House a conference thereon.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:

April 13, 1995

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5448, with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

- (1) Protection of the state's water resources, and utilization of such resources for provision of public water supplies, requires more efficient and effective management than is currently provided under state law;
- (2) The provision of public water supplies to the people of the state should be undertaken in a manner that is consistent with the planning principles of the growth management act and the comprehensive plans adopted by local governments under the growth management act;
- (3) Small water systems have inherent difficulties with proper planning, operation, financing, management and maintenance. The ability of such systems to provide safe and reliable supplies to their customers on a long-term basis needs to be assured through proper management and training of operators;
- (4) New water quality standards and operational requirements for public water systems will soon generate higher rates for the customers of those systems, which may be difficult for customers to afford to pay. It is in the best interest of the people of this state that small systems maintain themselves in a financially viable condition;
- (5) The drinking water 2000 task force has recommended maintaining a strong and properly funded state-wide drinking water program, retaining primary responsibility for administering the federal safe drinking water act in Washington. The task force has further recommended delegation of as many water system regulatory functions as possible to local governments, with provision of adequate resources and elimination of barriers to such delegation. In order to achieve these objectives, the state shall provide adequate funding from both general state funds and funding directly from the regulated water system;
- (6) The public health services improvement plan recommends that the principal public health functions in Washington, including regulation of public water systems, should be fully funded by state revenues and undertaken by local jurisdictions with the capacity to perform them; and
- (7) State government, local governments, water suppliers, and other interested parties should work for continuing economic growth of the state by maximizing the use of existing water supply management alternatives, including regional water systems, satellite management, and coordinated water system development.

Sec. 2. RCW 70.116.060 and 1977 ex.s. c 142 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) A coordinated water system plan shall be submitted to the secretary for design approval within two years of the establishment of the boundaries of a critical water supply service area.
- (2) The secretary shall review the coordinated water system plan and, to the extent the plan is consistent with the requirements of this chapter and regulations adopted hereunder, shall approve the plan, provided that the secretary shall not approve those portions of a coordinated water system plan ((which)) that fail to meet the requirements for future service area boundaries until any boundary dispute is resolved as set forth in RCW 70.116.070.
- (3) Following the approval of a coordinated water system plan by the secretary:
 - (a) All purveyors constructing or proposing to construct public water system facilities within the area covered by the plan shall comply with the plan.
 - (b) No other purveyor shall establish a public water system within the area covered by the plan, unless the ((secretary)) local legislative authority determines that existing purveyors are unable to provide the service in a timely and reasonable manner, pursuant to guidelines developed by the secretary. An existing purveyor is unable to provide the service in a timely manner if the water cannot be provided to an applicant for water within one hundred twenty days unless specified otherwise by the local legislative authority. If such a determination is made, the ((secretary may)) local legislative authority shall require the new public water system to be constructed in accordance with the construction standards and specifications embodied in the coordinated water system plan approved for the area. The service area boundaries in the coordinated plan for the affected utilities shall be revised to reflect the decision of the local legislative authority.
- (4) The secretary may deny proposals to establish or to expand any public water system within a critical water supply service area for which there is not an approved coordinated water system plan at any time after two years of the establishment of the critical water supply service area: PROVIDED, That service connections shall not be considered expansions.
- (5) The affected legislative authorities may develop and utilize a mechanism for addressing disputes that arise in the implementation of the coordinated water system plan after the plan has been approved by the secretary.
- (6) After adoption of the initial coordinated water system plan, the local legislative authority or the secretary may determine that the plan should be updated or revised. The legislative authority may initiate an update at any time, but the secretary may initiate an update no more frequently than once every five years. The update may encompass all or a portion of the plan, with the scope of the update to be determined by the secretary and the legislative authority. The process for the update shall be the one prescribed in RCW 70.116.050.
- (7) The provisions of subsection (3) of this section shall not apply in any county for which a coordinated water system plan has not been approved under subsection (2) of this section.
- (8) If the secretary initiates an update or revision of a coordinated water system plan, the state shall pay for the cost of updating or revising the plan.

Sec. 3. RCW 70.119A.060 and 1991 c 304 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) In order to assure safe and reliable public drinking water and to protect the public health, public water systems shall:
 - (a) Protect the water sources used for drinking water;
 - (b) Provide treatment adequate to assure that the public health is protected;
 - (c) Provide and effectively operate and maintain public water system facilities;
 - (d) Plan for future growth and assure the availability of safe and reliable drinking water;
 - (e) Provide the department with the current names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the owners, operators, and emergency contact persons for the system, including any changes to this information, and provide to users the name and twenty-four hour telephone number of an emergency contact person; and
 - (f) Take whatever investigative or corrective action is necessary to assure that a safe and reliable drinking water supply is continuously available to users.
- (2) No new public water system may be approved or created unless: (a) It is owned or operated by a satellite system management agency established under RCW 70.116.134 and the satellite system management system complies with financial viability requirements of the department; or (b) a satellite management system is not available and it is determined that the new system has sufficient management and financial resources to provide safe and reliable service. The approval of any new system that is not owned by a satellite system management agency shall be conditioned upon future management or ownership by a satellite system management agency, if such management or ownership can be made with reasonable economy and efficiency, or upon periodic review of the system's operational history to determine its ability to meet the department's financial viability and other operating requirements. The department and local health jurisdictions shall enforce this requirement under authority provided under this chapter, chapter 70.116, or 70.05 RCW, or other authority governing the approval of new water systems by the department or a local jurisdiction.

(3) The department and local health jurisdictions shall carry out the rules and regulations of the state board of health adopted pursuant to RCW 43.20.050(2)(a) and other rules adopted by the department relating to public water systems.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 70.119A RCW to read as follows:

The department shall create a water supply advisory committee. Membership on the committee shall reflect a broad range of interests in the regulation of public water supplies, including water utilities of all sizes, local governments, business groups, special purpose districts, local health jurisdictions, other state and federal agencies, financial institutions, environmental organizations, the legislature, and other groups substantially affected by the department's role in implementing state and federal requirements for public water systems. Members shall be appointed for fixed terms of no less than two years, and may be reappointed. Any members of an existing advisory committee to the drinking water program may remain as members of the water supply advisory committee. The committee shall provide advice to the department on the organization, functions, service delivery methods, and funding of the drinking water program. The committee shall also review the adequacy and necessity of the current and prospective funding for the drinking water program, and the results of the committees' review shall be forwarded to the department for inclusion in a report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature no later than November 1, 1996. The report shall include a discussion of the extent to which the drinking water program has progressed toward achieving the objectives of the public health improvement plan, and an assessment of any changes to the program necessitated by modifications to the federal safe drinking water act.

Sec. 5. RCW 82.16.020 and 1989 c 302 s 204 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected from every person a tax for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in any one or more of the businesses herein mentioned. The tax shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate set out after the business, as follows:

(a) Railroad, express, railroad car, sewerage collection, and telegraph businesses: Three and six-tenths percent;

(b) Light and power business: Three and sixty-two one-hundredths percent;

(c) Gas distribution business: Three and six-tenths percent;

(d) Urban transportation business: Six-tenths of one percent;

(e) Vessels under sixty-five feet in length, except tugboats, operating upon the waters within the state: Six-tenths of one percent;

(4) Fifteen percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on water distribution businesses shall be deposited in the safe drinking water account created in RCW 70.119A.120.

(3) A certified operator may provide required services to more than one system or to a group of systems. The amount of time that a certified operator shall be required to be present at any given system shall be based upon the time required to properly operate and maintain the public water system as designed and constructed in accordance with RCW 43.20.050. (5) Any examination required by the department as a prerequisite for the issuance of a certificate under this chapter shall be offered in each region where the department has a regional office.

(6) Operators not required to be certified by this chapter are encouraged to become certified on a voluntary basis.

Sec. 8. RCW 70.116.050 and 1977 ex.s. c 142 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each purveyor within the boundaries of a critical water supply service area shall develop a water system plan for the purveyor's future service area if such a plan has not already been developed: PROVIDED, That nonmunicipally owned public water systems are exempt from the planning requirements of this chapter, except for the establishment of service area boundaries if they ~~(a) Were in existence as of September 21, 1977; and (b))~~ have no plans for water service beyond their existing service area ~~(, and (c) meet minimum quality and pressure design criteria established by the state board of health))~~: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if the county legislative authority permits a change in development that will increase the demand for water service of such a system beyond the existing system's ability to provide minimum water service, the purveyor shall develop a water system plan in accordance with this section. The establishment of future service area boundaries shall be in accordance with RCW 70.116.070.

(2) After the boundaries of a critical water supply service area have been established pursuant to RCW 70.116.040, the committee established in RCW 70.116.040 shall participate in the development of a coordinated water system plan for the designated area. Such a plan shall incorporate all water system plans developed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The plan shall provide for maximum integration and coordination of public water system facilities consistent with the protection and enhancement of the public health and well-being. Decisions of the committee shall be by majority vote of those present at meetings of the committee.

(3) Those portions of a critical water supply service area not yet served by a public water system shall have a coordinated water system plan developed by existing purveyors based upon permitted densities in county plans, ordinances, and/or growth policies for a minimum of five years beyond the date of establishment of the boundaries of the critical water supply service area.

(4) To insure that the plan incorporates the proper designs to protect public health, the secretary shall adopt regulations pursuant to chapter 34.05 RCW concerning the scope and content of coordinated water system plans, and shall ensure, as minimum requirements, that such plans:

(a) Are reviewed by the appropriate local governmental agency to insure that the plan is not inconsistent with the land use plans, shoreline master programs, and/or developmental policies of the general purpose local government or governments whose jurisdiction the water system plan affects.

(b) Recognize all water resource plans, water quality plans, and water pollution control plans which have been adopted by units of local, regional, and state government.

(c) Incorporate the fire protection standards developed pursuant to RCW 70.116.080.

(d) Identify the future service area boundaries of the public water system or systems included in the plan within the critical water supply service area.

(g) Include policies and procedures that generally address failing water systems for which counties may become responsible under RCW 43.70.195.

(5) If a "water general plan" for a critical water supply service area or portion thereof has been prepared pursuant to chapter 36.94 RCW and such a plan meets the requirements of subsections (1) and (4) of this section, such a plan shall constitute the coordinated water system plan for the applicable geographical area.

(6) The committee established in RCW 70.116.040 may develop and utilize a mechanism for addressing disputes that arise in the development of the coordinated water system plan.

(7) Prior to the submission of a coordinated water system plan to the secretary for approval ~~(of the design of the proposed facilities)~~ pursuant to RCW 70.116.060, ~~(the plan shall be reviewed for consistency with subsection (4) of this section by)~~ the legislative authorities of the counties in which the critical water supply service area is located shall hold a public hearing thereon and shall determine the plan's consistency with subsection (4) of this section. If within sixty days of receipt of the plan, the legislative authorities find any segment of a proposed service area of a purveyor's plan or any segment of the coordinated water system plan to be inconsistent with any current land use plans, shoreline master programs, and/or developmental policies of the general purpose local government or governments whose jurisdiction the water system plan affects, the secretary shall not approve that portion of the plan until the inconsistency is resolved between the local government and the purveyor. If no comments have been received from the legislative authorities within sixty days of receipt of the plan, the secretary may consider the plan for approval.

(8) Any county legislative authority may adopt an abbreviated plan for the provision of water supplies within its boundaries that includes provisions for service area boundaries, minimum design criteria, and review process. The elements of the abbreviated plan shall conform to the criteria established by the department under subsection (4) of this section and shall otherwise be consistent with other adopted land use and resource plans. The county legislative authority may, in lieu of the committee required under RCW 70.116.040, and the procedures authorized in this section, utilize an advisory committee that is representative of the water utilities and local governments within its jurisdiction to assist in the preparation of the abbreviated plan, which may be adopted by resolution and submitted to the secretary for approval. Purveyors within the boundaries covered by the abbreviated plan need not develop a water system plan, except to the extent required by the secretary or state board of health under other authority. Any abbreviated plan adopted by a county legislative authority pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to the same provisions contained in RCW 70.116.060 for coordinated water system plans that are approved by the secretary.

Sec. 9. RCW 70.119A.040 and 1993 c 305 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) In addition to or as an alternative to any other penalty or action allowed by law, a person who violates a law or rule regulating public water systems and administered by the department of health is subject to a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars per day for every such violation, or, in the case of a violation that has been determined to be a public health emergency, a penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars per day for every such violation. Every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. The amount of fine shall reflect the health significance of the violation and the previous record of compliance on the part of the public water supplier. In case of continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation.

(b) In addition, a person who constructs, modifies, or expands a public water system or who commences the construction, modification, or expansion of a public water system without first obtaining the required departmental approval is subject to penalties of not more than five thousand dollars per service connection, ~~((or))~~ except that a penalty may not exceed one thousand dollars per service connection if the public water system has less than one thousand connections and the person had submitted all information and plans to the department necessary for departmental approval for modification or expansion of the system and the department has not acted within a reasonable period of time. In the case of a system serving a transient population, a penalty of not more than four hundred dollars per person based on the highest average daily population the system serves or is anticipated to serve may be imposed. The total penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this subsection (1)(b) is five hundred thousand dollars. For the purpose of computing the penalty under this subsection, a service connection shall include any new service connection actually constructed, any anticipated service connection the system has been designed to serve, and, in the case of a system modification not involving expansions, each existing service connection that benefits or would benefit from the modification.

(c) Every person who, through an act of commission or omission, procures, aids, or abets a violation is considered to have violated the provisions of this section and is subject to the penalty provided in this section.

(2) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing to the person against whom the civil penalty is assessed and shall describe the violation. The notice shall be personally served in the manner of service of a summons in a civil action or in a manner that shows proof of receipt. A penalty imposed by this section is due twenty-eight days after receipt of notice unless application for an adjudicative proceeding is filed as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Within twenty-eight days after notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may file an application for an adjudicative proceeding and may pursue subsequent review as provided in chapter 34.05 RCW and applicable rules of the department or board of health.

(4) A penalty imposed by a final administrative order is due upon service of the final administrative order. A person who fails to pay a penalty assessed by a final administrative order within thirty days of service of the final administrative order shall pay, in addition to the amount of the penalty, interest at the rate of one percent of the unpaid balance of the assessed penalty for each month or part of a month that the penalty remains unpaid, commencing with the month in which the notice of penalty was served and such reasonable attorney's fees as are incurred in securing the final administrative order.

(5) A person who institutes proceedings for judicial review of a final administrative order assessing a civil penalty under this chapter shall place the full amount of the penalty in an interest bearing account in the registry of the reviewing court. At the conclusion of the proceeding the court shall, as appropriate, enter a judgment on behalf of the department and order that the judgment be satisfied to the extent possible from moneys paid into the registry of the court or shall enter a judgment in favor of the person appealing the penalty assessment and order return of the moneys paid into the registry of the court together with accrued interest to the person appealing. The judgment may award reasonable attorney's fees for the cost of the attorney general's office in representing the department.

(6) If no appeal is taken from a final administrative order assessing a civil penalty under this chapter, the department may file a certified copy of the final administrative order with the clerk of the superior court in which the public water system is located or in Thurston county, and the clerk shall enter judgment in the name of the department and in the amount of the penalty assessed in the final administrative order.

(7) A judgment entered under subsection (5) or (6) of this section shall have the same force and effect as, and is subject to all of the provisions of law relating to, a judgment in a civil action, and may be enforced in the same manner as any other judgment of the court in which it is entered.

(8) All penalties imposed under this section shall be payable to the state treasury and credited to the ~~((general fund))~~ safe drinking water account, and shall be used by the department to provide training and technical assistance to system owners and operators.

(9) Except in cases of public health emergencies, the department may not impose monetary penalties under this section unless a prior effort has been made to resolve the violation informally.

Sec. 10. RCW 70.119A.130 and 1991 c 304 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Until July 1, 1996, local governments shall be prohibited from administering a separate operating permit requirement for public water systems. After July 1, 1996,))~~ Local governments may establish separate operating permit requirements for public water systems provided the operating permit requirements have been approved by the department. The department shall not approve local operating permit requirements unless the local system will result in an increased level of service to the public water system. There shall not be duplicate operating permit requirements imposed by local governments and the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 70.119A RCW to read as follows:

A drinking water assistance account is created in the state treasury. The purpose of the account is to allow the state to take advantage of any federal funds that become available for safe drinking water. Expenditures from the account may only be made by the secretary or the public works board after appropriation. Moneys in the account may only be used to assist water systems to provide safe drinking water through a program administered through the department of health and the public works board. Money may be placed in the account from the proceeds of bonds when authorized by the legislature, transfers from other state funds or accounts, federal capitalization grants or other financial assistance, all repayments of moneys borrowed from the account, all interest payments made by borrowers from the account or otherwise earned on the account, or any other lawful source. Expenditures from the account may only be made by the secretary or the public works board after appropriation. Moneys in the account may only be used to assist local governments and water systems to provide safe and reliable drinking water and to administer the program.

Sec. 12. RCW 43.155.050 and 1993 sp.s. c 24 s 921 are each amended to read as follows:

The public works assistance account is hereby established in the state treasury. Money may be placed in the public works assistance account from the proceeds of bonds when authorized by the legislature or from any other lawful source. Money in the public works assistance account shall be used to make loans and to give financial guarantees to local governments for public works projects. Moneys in the account may also be appropriated to provide for state match requirements under federal law for projects and activities conducted and financed by the board under the drinking water assistance account. During the 1993-95 fiscal biennium, moneys in the public works assistance account may be appropriated for flood control assistance including grants under chapter 86.26 RCW. To the extent that moneys in the public works assistance account are not appropriated during the 1993-95 fiscal biennium for public works or flood control assistance, the legislature may direct their transfer to the state general fund. In awarding grants under chapter 86.26 RCW, the department of ecology shall give strong preference to local governments that have: (1) Implemented, or are in the process of implementing, an ordinance that establishes a flood plain policy that is substantially more stringent than minimum federal requirements; (2) completed a comprehensive flood control plan meeting the requirements of RCW 86.12.200; or (3) constructed, or are in the process of constructing, a system of overtopping dikes or levees that allow public access.

Sec. 13. RCW 80.04.110 and 1991 c 134 s 1 and 1991 c 100 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Complaint may be made by the commission of its own motion or by any person or corporation, chamber of commerce, board of trade, or any commercial, mercantile, agricultural or manufacturing society, or any body politic or municipal corporation, or by the public counsel section of the office of the attorney general, or its successor, by petition or complaint in writing, setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any public service corporation in violation, or claimed to be in violation, of any provision of law or of any order or rule of the commission: PROVIDED, That no complaint shall be entertained by the commission except upon its own motion, as to the reasonableness of the schedule of the rates or charges of any gas company, electrical company, water company, or telecommunications company, unless the same be signed by the mayor, council or commission of the city or town in which the company complained of is engaged in business, or not less than twenty-five consumers or purchasers of such gas, electricity, water or telecommunications service, or at least twenty-five percent of the consumers or purchasers of the company's service: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That when two or more public service corporations, (meaning to exclude municipal and other public corporations) are engaged in competition in any locality or localities in the state, either may make complaint against the other or others that the rates, charges, rules, regulations or practices of such other or others with or in respect to which the complainant is in competition, are unreasonable, unremunerative, discriminatory, illegal, unfair or intending or tending to oppress the complainant, to stifle competition, or to create or encourage the creation of monopoly, and upon such complaint or upon complaint of the commission upon its own motion, the commission shall have power, after notice and hearing as in other cases, to, by its order, subject to appeal as in other cases, correct the abuse complained of by establishing such uniform rates, charges, rules, regulations or practices in lieu of those complained of, to be observed by all of such competing public service corporations in the locality or localities specified as shall be found reasonable, remunerative, nondiscriminatory, legal, and fair or tending to prevent oppression or monopoly or to encourage competition, and upon any such hearing it shall be proper for the commission to take into consideration the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices of the public service corporation or corporations complained of in any other locality or localities in the state.

(2) All matters upon which complaint may be founded may be joined in one hearing, and no motion shall be entertained against a complaint for misjoinder of complaints or grievances or misjoinder of parties; and in any review of the courts of orders of the commission the same rule shall apply and pertain with regard to the joinder of complaints and parties as herein provided: PROVIDED, All grievances to be inquired into shall be plainly set forth in the complaint. No complaint shall be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant.

(3) Upon the filing of a complaint, the commission shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the person or corporation complained of, which shall be accompanied by a notice fixing the time when and place where a hearing will be had upon such complaint. The time fixed for such hearing shall not be less than ten days after the date of the service of such notice and complaint, excepting as herein provided. The commission shall enter its final order with respect to a complaint filed by any entity or person other than the commission within ten months from the date of filing of the complaint, unless the date is extended for cause. Rules of practice and procedure not otherwise provided for in this title may be prescribed by the commission. Such rules may include the requirement that a complainant use informal processes before filing a formal complaint.

(4) The commission shall, as appropriate, audit a nonmunicipal water system upon receipt of an administrative order from the department, or the city or county in which the water system is located, finding that the water delivered by a system does not meet state board of health standards adopted under RCW 43.20.050(2)(a) or standards adopted under chapters 70.116 and 70.119A RCW, and the results of the audit shall be provided to the requesting department, city, or county. However, the number of nonmunicipal water systems referred to the commission in any one calendar year shall not exceed twenty percent of the water companies subject to commission regulation as defined in RCW 80.04.010.

Every nonmunicipal water system referred to the commission for audit under this section shall pay to the commission an audit fee in an amount, based on the system's twelve-month audited period, equal to the fee required to be paid by regulated companies under RCW 80.24.010.

(5) Any customer or purchaser of service from a water system or company that is subject to commission regulation may file a complaint with the commission if he or she has reason to believe that the water delivered by the system to the customer does not meet state drinking water standards under chapter 43.20 or 70.116 RCW. The commission shall investigate such a complaint, and shall request that the state department of health or local health department of the county in which the system is located test the water for compliance with state drinking water standards, and provide the results of such testing to the commission. The commission may decide not to investigate the complaint if it determines that the complaint has been filed in bad faith, or for the purpose of harassment of the water system or company, or for other reasons has no substantial merit. The water system or company shall bear the expense for the testing. After the commission has received the complaint from the customer and during the pendency of the commission investigation, the water system or company shall not take any steps to terminate service to the customer or to collect any amounts alleged to be owed to the company by the customer. The commission may issue an order or take any other action to ensure that no such steps are taken by the system or company. The customer may, at the customer's option and expense, obtain a water quality test by a licensed or otherwise qualified water testing laboratory, of the water delivered to the customer by the water system or company, and provide the results of such a test to the commission. If the commission determines that the water does not meet state drinking water standards, it shall exercise its authority over the system or company as provided in this title, and may, where appropriate, order a refund to the customer on a pro rata basis for the substandard water delivered to the customer, and shall order reimbursement to the customer for the cost incurred by the customer, if any, in obtaining a water quality test.

Sec. 14. RCW 70.116.070 and 1977 ex.s. c 142 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The proposed service area boundaries of public water systems within the critical water supply service area that are required to submit water system plans under this chapter shall be ~~((determined by written agreement among the purveyors and with the approval of the appropriate legislative authority. Failure of the legislative authority to file with the secretary objections to the proposed service area boundaries within sixty days of receipt of the proposed boundary agreement may be construed as approval of the agreement))~~ identified in the system's plan. The local legislative authority, or its planning department or other designee, shall review the proposed boundaries to determine whether the proposed boundaries of one or more systems overlap. The boundaries determined by the local legislative authority not to overlap shall be incorporated into the coordinated water system plan. Where any overlap exists, the local legislative authority may attempt to resolve the conflict through procedures established under RCW 70.116.060(5).

(2) ~~((If no service area boundary agreement has been established within a reasonable period of time, or if the legislative authority has filed with the secretary objections in writing as provided in subsection (1) of this section))~~ Any final decision by a local legislative authority regarding overlapping service areas, or any unresolved disputes regarding service area boundaries, may be appealed or referred to the secretary in writing for resolution. After receipt of an appeal or referral, the secretary shall hold a public hearing thereon. The secretary shall provide notice of the hearing by certified mail to each purveyor ((providing service in the critical water supply service area)) involved in the dispute, to each county legislative authority having jurisdiction in the area and to the public. The secretary shall provide public notice pursuant to the provisions of chapter 65.16 RCW. Such notice shall be given at least twenty days prior to the hearing. The hearing may be continued from time to time and, at the termination thereof, the secretary may restrict the expansion of service of any purveyor within the area if the secretary finds such restriction is necessary to provide the greatest protection of the public health and well-being.

It is unlawful and a misdemeanor to make, or cause to be made, or to maintain any ~~((sewer))~~ connection with any sewer or water system of any sewer district, or with any sewer or water system which is connected directly or indirectly with any sewer or water system of any sewer district without having permission from the sewer district.

Sec. 16. RCW 57.08.180 and 1991 c 190 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful and a misdemeanor to make, or cause to be made, or to maintain any ~~((sewer))~~ connection with any sewer or water system of any water district, or with any sewer or water system which is connected directly or indirectly with any sewer or water system of any water district without having permission from the water district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Section 10 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1995."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sutherland, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5448 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 7, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5567, with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 36.70A.070 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 17 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive plan of a county or city that is required or chooses to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 shall consist of a map or maps, and descriptive text covering objectives, principles, and standards used to develop the comprehensive plan. The plan shall be an internally consistent document and all elements shall be consistent with the future land use map. A comprehensive plan shall be adopted and amended with public participation as provided in RCW 36.70A.140.

Each comprehensive plan shall include a plan, scheme, or design for each of the following:

(2) A housing element ~~((recognizing))~~ ensuring the vitality and character of established residential neighborhoods that: (a) Includes an inventory and analysis of existing and projected housing needs; (b) includes a statement of goals, policies, ~~((and))~~ objectives, and mandatory provisions for the preservation, improvement, and development of housing, including single-family residences, accessory apartments in single-family residences, and the leasing of rooms in single-family residences; (c) identifies sufficient land for housing, including, but not limited to, government-assisted housing, housing for low-income families, manufactured housing, multifamily housing, and group homes and foster care facilities; and (d) makes adequate provisions for existing and projected needs of all economic segments of the community.

(3) A capital facilities plan element consisting of: (a) An inventory of existing capital facilities owned by public entities, showing the locations and capacities of the capital facilities; (b) a forecast of the future needs for such capital facilities; (c) the proposed locations and capacities of expanded or new capital facilities; (d) at least a six-year plan that will finance such capital facilities within projected funding capacities and clearly identifies sources of public money for such purposes; and (e) a requirement to reassess the land use element if probable funding falls short of meeting existing needs and to ensure that the land use element, capital facilities plan element, and financing plan within the capital facilities plan element are coordinated and consistent.

(4) A utilities element consisting of the general location, proposed location, and capacity of all existing and proposed utilities, including, but not limited to, electrical lines, telecommunication lines, and natural gas lines.

(5) Counties shall include a rural element including lands that are not designated for urban growth, agriculture, forest, or mineral resources. The rural element shall permit land uses that are compatible with the rural character of such lands and provide for a variety of rural densities.

(6) A transportation element that implements, and is consistent with, the land use element. The transportation element shall include the following subelements:

(a) Land use assumptions used in estimating travel;

(b) Facilities and services needs, including:

(i) An inventory of air, water, and land transportation facilities and services, including transit alignments, to define existing capital facilities and travel levels as a basis for future planning;

(ii) Level of service standards for all arterials and transit routes to serve as a gauge to judge performance of the system. These standards should be regionally coordinated;

(iii) Specific actions and requirements for bringing into compliance any facilities or services that are below an established level of service standard;

(iv) Forecasts of traffic for at least ten years based on the adopted land use plan to provide information on the location, timing, and capacity needs of future growth;

(v) Identification of system expansion needs and transportation system management needs to meet current and future demands;

(c) Finance, including:

(i) An analysis of funding capability to judge needs against probable funding resources;

(ii) A multiyear financing plan based on the needs identified in the comprehensive plan, the appropriate parts of which shall serve as the basis for the six-year street, road, or transit program required by RCW 35.77.010 for cities, RCW 36.81.121 for counties, and RCW 35.58.2795 for public transportation systems;

(iii) If probable funding falls short of meeting identified needs, a discussion of how additional funding will be raised, or how land use assumptions will be reassessed to ensure that level of service standards will be met;

(d) Intergovernmental coordination efforts, including an assessment of the impacts of the transportation plan and land use assumptions on the transportation systems of adjacent jurisdictions;

(e) Demand-management strategies.

After adoption of the comprehensive plan by jurisdictions required to plan or who choose to plan under RCW 36.70A.040, local jurisdictions must adopt and enforce ordinances which prohibit development approval if the development causes the level of service on a transportation facility to decline below the standards adopted in the transportation element of the comprehensive plan, unless transportation improvements or strategies to accommodate the impacts of development are made concurrent with the development. These strategies may include increased public transportation service, ride sharing programs, demand management, and other transportation systems management strategies. For the purposes of this subsection (6) "concurrent with the development" shall mean that improvements or strategies are in place at the time of development, or that a financial commitment is in place to complete the improvements or strategies within six years.

The transportation element described in this subsection, and the six-year plans required by RCW 35.77.010 for cities, RCW 36.81.121 for counties, and RCW 35.58.2795 for public transportation systems, must be consistent."

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5567 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5616, with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature declares that it is the goal of the state of Washington to preserve and restore the natural resources of the state and, in particular, fish and wildlife and their habitat. It is further the policy of the state insofar as possible to utilize the volunteer organizations who have demonstrated their commitment to these goals.

To this end, it is the intent of the legislature to minimize the expense and delays caused by unnecessary bureaucratic process in securing permits for projects that preserve or restore native fish and wildlife habitat.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout sections 1 through 7 of this act.

(1) "Watershed restoration plan" means a plan, developed or sponsored by the department of fish and wildlife, the department of ecology, the department of natural resources, the department of transportation, a federally recognized Indian tribe acting within and pursuant to its authority, a city, a county, or a conservation district, that provides a general program and implementation measures or actions for the preservation, restoration, re-creation, or enhancement of the natural resources, character, and ecology of a stream, stream segment, drainage area, or watershed, and for which agency and public review has been conducted pursuant to chapter 43.21C RCW, the state environmental policy act. If the implementation measures or actions would have a probable significant, adverse environmental impact, a detailed statement under RCW 43.21C.031 must be prepared on the plan.

(2) "Watershed restoration project" means a public or private project authorized by the sponsor of a watershed restoration plan that implements the plan or a part of the plan and consists of one or more of the following activities:

(a) A project that involves less than ten miles of streamreach, in which less than twenty-five cubic yards of sand, gravel, or soil is removed, imported, disturbed, or discharged, and in which no existing vegetation is removed except as minimally necessary to facilitate additional plantings;

(b) A project for the restoration of an eroded or unstable stream bank that employs the principles of bioengineering, including limited use of rock as a stabilization only at the toe of the bank, and with primary emphasis on using native vegetation to control the erosive forces of flowing water; or

(c) A project primarily designed to improve fish and wildlife habitat, remove or reduce impediments to migration of fish, or enhance the fishery resource available for use by all of the citizens of the state, provided that any structure other than a bridge or culvert or instream habitat enhancement structure associated with the project is less than two hundred square feet in floor area and is located above the ordinary high water mark of the stream.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. By January 1, 1996, the Washington conservation commission shall develop, in consultation with other state agencies, tribes, and local governments, a consolidated application process for permits for a watershed restoration project developed by an agency or sponsored by an agency on behalf of a volunteer organization. The consolidated process shall include a single permit application form for use by all responsible state and local agencies. The commission shall encourage use of the consolidated permit application process by any federal agency responsible for issuance of related permits. The permit application forms to be consolidated shall include, at a minimum, applications for: (1) Approvals related to water quality standards under chapter 90.48 RCW; (2) hydraulic project approvals under chapter 75.20 RCW; and (3) Section 401 water quality certifications under 33 U.S.C. Sec. 1341 and chapter 90.48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Each agency of the state and unit of local government that claims jurisdiction or the right to require permits, other approvals, or fees as a condition of allowing a watershed restoration project to proceed shall designate an office or official as a designated recipient of project applications and shall inform the conservation commission of the designation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. All agencies of the state and local governments shall accept the single application developed under section 3 of this act. Unless the procedures under section 6 of this act are invoked, the application shall be processed without charge and permit decisions shall be issued within forty-five days of receipt of a complete application.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The applicant or any state agency, tribe, or local government with permit processing responsibility may request that the permit assistance center created by chapter ..., Laws of 1995 (House Bill No. 1724) appoint a project facilitator to develop in consultation with the applicant and permit agencies a coordinated process for permit decisions on the application. The process may incorporate procedures for coordinating state permits under chapter ..., Laws of 1995 (House Bill No. 1724). The center shall adopt a target of completing permit decisions within forty-five days of receipt of a complete application.

If House Bill No. 1724 is not enacted by June 30, 1995, this section shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. State agencies, tribes, and local governments responsible for permits or other approvals of watershed restoration projects as defined in section 2 of this act may develop general permits or permits by rule to address some or all projects required by an approved watershed restoration plan, or for types of watershed restoration projects. Nothing in this act precludes local governments, state agencies, and tribes from working out other cooperative permitting agreements outside the procedures of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 35.63 RCW to read as follows:

A permit required under this chapter for a watershed restoration project as defined in section 2 of this act shall be processed in compliance with sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 35A.63 RCW to read as follows:

A permit required under this chapter for a watershed restoration project as defined in section 2 of this act shall be processed in compliance with sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 36.70 RCW to read as follows:

A permit required under this chapter for a watershed restoration project as defined in section 2 of this act shall be processed in compliance with sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

A permit required under this chapter for a watershed restoration project as defined in section 2 of this act shall be processed in compliance with sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 43.21C RCW to read as follows:

Decisions pertaining to watershed restoration projects as defined in section 2 of this act are not subject to the requirements of RCW 43.21C.030(2)(c).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 43.30 RCW to read as follows:

A permit required by the department for a watershed restoration project as defined in section 2 of this act shall be processed in compliance with sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 75.20 RCW to read as follows:

A hydraulic project approval required by the department for a watershed restoration project as defined in section 2 of this act shall be processed in compliance with sections 1 through 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 90.48 RCW to read as follows:

A permit, certification, or other approval required by the department for a watershed restoration project as defined in section 2 of this act shall be processed in compliance with sections 1 through 7 of this act. Public review of proposed watershed restoration projects may be shortened or waived by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 90.58 RCW to read as follows:

Watershed restoration projects as defined in section 2 of this act are exempt from the requirement to obtain a substantial development permit. Local government shall review the projects for consistency with the locally adopted shoreline master program in an expeditious manner and shall issue its decision along with any conditions within forty-five days of receiving a complete consolidated application form from the applicant. No fee may be charged for accepting and processing applications for watershed restoration projects as used in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 89.08 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "projects;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding new sections to chapter 89.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35.63 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35A.63 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.70 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.70A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.21C RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.30 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 75.20 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 90.48 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 90.58 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Drew, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5616 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Swecker, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1995-8641

By Senators Swecker, Palmer and Roach

WHEREAS, The mission statement of the Lewis County Sesquicentennial Committee is "Celebrating the One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of Lewis County by Revisiting the Past and Exploring the Future"; and

WHEREAS, Throughout 1995, the citizens of Lewis County are celebrating their heritage as Washington's first county. WHEREAS, Lewis County, Washington's first county, was created by the Oregon Territorial Legislature on December 21, 1845. The Legislature proclaimed "That all that portion of Oregon Territory lying north of the Columbia River and west of the Cowlitz up to 54'40" north latitude be and the same is hereby created and organized into a separate county by the name of Lewis County." Because of its size, Lewis was known as "The Mother of All Counties"; and

WHEREAS, The county's current borders were established shortly before Washington became a state in 1889. Today, it is Washington's sixth largest county in land area. With 2,423 square miles, it is the largest county west of the Cascade Mountains; and

WHEREAS, Lewis County is named for Meriwether Lewis, the great explorer of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. His explorations were key in claiming this part of North America for the United States and residents are proud to live in a county bearing his name; and

WHEREAS, Lewis County is home to many of Washington "firsts": The first United States District Court north of San Francisco was held at the Jackson Courthouse, a building that still stands today. The oldest governmental records still in existence in Washington State are from the Board of Lewis County Commissioners in October, 1847. Simon Plamondon was the first white settler who settled near present day Toledo; and

WHEREAS, Lewis County is rich in natural resources. For the past one hundred fifty years, the land has provided a living to many of the county's citizens in agriculture, mining, and especially its vast forests. MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5064, with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 75.50 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that:

(1) Regional enhancement groups are a valuable resource for anadromous fish recovery. They improve critical fish habitat and directly contribute to anadromous fish populations through fish restoration technology.

(2) Due to a decrease in recreational and commercial salmon license sales, regional enhancement groups are receiving fewer financial resources at a time when recovery efforts are needed most.

(3) To maintain regional enhancement groups as an effective enhancement resource, technical assets of state agencies must be coordinated and utilized to maximize the financial resources of regional enhancement groups and overall fish recovery efforts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 75.50 RCW to read as follows:

The department's habitat division shall work with cities, counties, and regional fisheries enhancement groups to develop a program to identify and expedite the removal of human-made or caused impediments to anadromous fish passage. A priority shall be given to projects that immediately increase access to available and improved spawning and rearing habitat for depressed, threatened, and endangered stocks. The department may contract with cities and counties to assist in the identification and removal of impediments to anadromous fish passage.

A report on the progress of impediment identification and removal and the need for any additional legislative action shall be submitted to the senate and the house of representatives natural resources committees no later than January 1, 1996.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 75.50 RCW to read as follows:

To maximize available state resources, the department and the department of transportation shall work in partnership with the regional fisheries enhancement group advisory board to identify cooperative projects to eliminate fish passage barriers caused by state roads and highways. The advisory board may provide input to the department to aid in identifying priority barrier removal projects that can be accomplished with the assistance of regional fisheries enhancement groups. The department of transportation shall provide engineering and other technical services to assist regional fisheries enhancement groups with fish passage barrier removal projects, provided that the barrier removal projects have been identified as a priority by the department of fish and wildlife and the department of transportation has received an appropriation to continue the fish barrier removal program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 90.58 RCW to read as follows:

A regional fisheries enhancement group or cooperative group project that is primarily designed to improve fish habitat or fish passage; has been approved by the department of fish and wildlife; has been given or is qualified to be given a hydraulic permit; and has been determined by local government to not substantially affect other concerns of this chapter is exempt from the permitting requirements of this chapter. A letter of exemption must be obtained from the local government, which shall be provided in a timely manner.

Sec. 5. RCW 75.50.110 and 1990 c 58 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A regional fisheries enhancement group advisory board is established to make recommendations to the director. ((The advisory board shall make recommendations regarding regional enhancement group rearing project proposals and funding of those proposals.)) The members shall be appointed by the director and consist of two commercial fishing representatives, two recreational fishing representatives, and three at-large positions. At least two of the advisory board members shall be members of a regional fisheries enhancement group. Advisory board members shall serve three-year terms. The advisory board membership shall include two members serving ex officio to be nominated, one through the Northwest Indian fisheries commission, and one through the Columbia river intertribal fish commission. The chair of the regional fisheries enhancement group advisory board shall be elected annually by members of the regional fisheries enhancement advisory board. The advisory board shall meet at least quarterly. All meetings of the advisory board shall be open to the public under the open public meetings act, chapter 42.30 RCW.

The department shall invite the advisory board to comment and provide input into all relevant policy initiatives, including, but not limited to, wild stock, hatcheries, and habitat restoration efforts.

(2) Members shall not be compensated but shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The department may use account funds to provide agency assistance to the groups, to provide professional, administrative or clerical services to the advisory board, or to implement the training and technical services plan as developed by the advisory board pursuant to section 6 of this act. The level of account funds used by the department shall be determined by the director after review ((and)) of recommendation by the regional fisheries enhancement group advisory board and shall not exceed twenty percent of annual contributions to the account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 75.50 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The regional fisheries enhancement group advisory board shall:

(a) Assess the training and technical assistance needs of the regional fisheries enhancement groups;

(b) Develop a training and technical assistance services plan in order to provide timely, topical technical assistance and training services to regional fisheries enhancement groups. The plan shall be provided to the director and to the senate and house of representatives natural resources committees no later than October 1, 1995, and shall be updated not less than every year. The advisory board shall provide ample opportunity for the public and interested parties to participate in the development of the plan. The plan shall include but is not limited to:

(i) Establishment of an information clearinghouse service that is readily available to regional fisheries enhancement groups. The information clearinghouse shall collect, collate, and make available a broad range of information on subjects that affect the development, implementation, and operation of diverse fisheries and habitat enhancement projects. The information clearinghouse service may include periodical news and informational bulletins;

(ii) An ongoing program in order to provide direct, on-site technical assistance and services to regional fisheries enhancement groups. The advisory board shall assist regional fisheries enhancement groups in soliciting federal, state, and local agencies, tribal governments, institutions of higher education, and private business for the purpose of providing technical assistance and services to regional fisheries enhancement group projects; and

(d) Make recommendations to the director regarding regional enhancement group project proposals and funding of those proposals;

(e) Establish criteria for the redistribution of unspent project funds for any regional enhancement group that has a year ending balance exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

(2) The regional fisheries enhancement group advisory board may:

(a) Facilitate resolution of disputes between regional fisheries enhancement groups and the department;

(b) Promote community and governmental partnerships that enhance the salmon resource and habitat;

(c) Promote environmental ethics and watershed stewardship;

A surcharge of one dollar shall be collected on each recreational personal use food fish license sold in the state. A surcharge of one hundred dollars shall be collected on each commercial salmon fishery license, each salmon delivery license, and each salmon charter license sold in the state. The department shall study methods for collecting and making available, an annual list, including names and addresses, of all persons who obtain recreational and commercial salmon fishing licenses. This list may be used to assist formation of the regional fisheries enhancement groups and allow the broadest participation of license holders in enhancement efforts. MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 1995

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5084, with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 43.01.230 and 1993 c 394 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

State agencies may, (~~subject to appropriation and~~) under the internal revenue code rules, use public funds to financially assist agency-approved incentives for alternative commute modes, including but not limited to carpools, vanpools, purchase of transit and ferry passes, and guaranteed ride home programs, if the financial assistance is an element of the agency's commute trip reduction program as required under RCW 70.94.521 through 70.94.551. This section does not permit any payment for the use of state-owned vehicles for commuter ride sharing.

Sec. 2. RCW 43.01.225 and 1993 c 394 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby established an account in the state treasury to be known as the "state (~~capitol~~) vehicle parking account." All parking rental income (~~collected from rental of parking space~~) resulting from parking fees established by the department of general administration under RCW 46.08.172 at state-owned or leased property shall be deposited in the "state (~~capitol~~) vehicle parking account." Revenue deposited in the "state (~~capitol~~) vehicle parking account" shall be first applied to pledged purposes. Unpledged parking revenues deposited in the "state (~~capitol~~) vehicle parking account" may be used to:

(1) Pay costs incurred in the operation, maintenance, regulation, and enforcement of vehicle parking and parking facilities (~~on state-owned or leased properties~~);

(2) Support the lease costs and/or capital investment costs of vehicle parking and parking facilities (~~at agency-owned and leased facilities off the capitol campus~~); and

(3) Support agency commute trip reduction programs under RCW 70.94.521 through 70.94.551.

~~((Distribution of funds from the "state capitol vehicle parking account" are subject to appropriation by the legislature and will be made by the office of financial management after considering recommendations from the director of general administration and the interagency task force for commute trip reduction, under RCW 70.94.551-))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby established an account in the state treasury to be known as the state agency parking account. All parking income collected from the fees imposed by state agencies on parking spaces at state-owned or leased facilities, including the capitol campus, shall be deposited in the state agency parking account. Only the office of financial management may authorize expenditures from the account. The account is subject to allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for expenditures. No agency may receive an allotment greater than the amount of revenue deposited into the state agency parking account.

(2) An agency may, as an element of the agency's commute trip reduction program to achieve the goals set forth in RCW 70.94.527, impose parking rental fees at state-owned and leased properties. These fees will be deposited in the state agency parking account. Each agency shall establish a committee to advise the agency director on parking rental fees, taking into account the market rate of comparable, privately owned rental parking in each region. The agency shall solicit representation of the employee population including, but not limited to, management, administrative staff, production workers, and state employee bargaining units. Funds shall be used by agencies to: (a) Support the agencies' commute trip reduction program under RCW 70.94.521 through 70.94.551; (b) support the agencies' parking program; or (c) support the lease or ownership costs for the agencies' parking facilities.

(3) In order to reduce the state's subsidization of employee parking, after July 1997 agencies shall not enter into leases for employee parking in excess of building code requirements, except as authorized by the director of general administration. In situations where there are fewer parking spaces than employees at a worksite, parking must be allocated equitably, with no special preference given to managers.

(4) The director of general administration must report to the house and senate transportation committees no later than December 1, 1997, regarding the implementation of chapter . . . Laws of 1995 (this act). The report must include an estimate of the reduction in parking supply and an estimate of the cost savings.

Sec. 4. RCW 46.08.172 and 1993 c 394 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of the department of general administration shall establish equitable and consistent parking rental fees for (~~state-owned or leased property~~) the capitol campus and may, if requested by agencies, establish equitable and consistent parking rental fees for agencies off the capitol campus, to be charged to employees, visitors, clients, service providers, and others, that reflect the legislature's intent to reduce state subsidization of parking or to meet the commute trip reduction goals established in RCW 70.94.527. ~~((The department shall solicit representatives from affected state agencies, employees, and state employee bargaining units to meet as regional committees. These regional committees will advise the director on parking rental fees, taking into account the market rate of comparable, privately owned rental parking in each region. In the event that such fees become part of a collective bargaining agreement and there is a conflict between the agency and the collective bargaining unit, the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall prevail.))~~ All fees shall take into account the market rate of comparable privately owned rental parking, as determined by the director. However, parking rental fees are not to exceed the local market rate of comparable privately owned rental parking.

The director may delegate the responsibility for the collection of parking fees to other agencies of state government when cost-effective.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 43.01 RCW to read as follows:

All institutions of higher education as defined under RCW 28B.10.016 are exempt from the requirements under RCW 43.01.225.

Sec. 6. RCW 43.99H.070 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 14 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other charges authorized by law and to assist in the reimbursement of principal and interest payments on bonds issued for the purposes of RCW 43.99H.020(15), the following revenues may be collected:

(1) The director of general administration may assess a charge against each state board, commission, agency, office, department, activity, or other occupant of the facility or building constructed with bonds issued for the purposes of RCW 43.99H.020(15) for payment of a proportion of costs for each square foot of floor space assigned to or occupied by the entity. Payment of the amount billed to the entity for such occupancy shall be made quarterly during each fiscal year. The director of general administration shall deposit the payment in the capitol campus reserve account.

(2) The director of general administration may pledge a portion of the parking rental income collected by the department of general administration from parking space developed as a part of the facility constructed with bonds issued for the purposes of RCW 43.99H.020(15). The pledged portion of this income shall be deposited in the capitol campus reserve account. The unpledged portion of this income shall continue to be deposited in the state (~~capitol~~) vehicle parking account.

(3) The state treasurer shall transfer four million dollars from the capitol building construction account to the capitol campus reserve account each fiscal year from 1990 to 1995. Beginning in fiscal year 1996, the director of general administration, in consultation with the state finance committee, shall determine the necessary amount for the state treasurer to transfer from the capitol building construction account to the capitol campus reserve account for the purpose of repayment of the general fund of the costs of the bonds issued for the purposes of RCW 43.99H.020(15).

(4) Any remaining balance in the state building and parking bond redemption account after the final debt service payment shall be transferred to the capitol campus reserve account."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "programs;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 43.01.230, 43.01.225, 46.08.172, and 43.99H.070; and adding new sections to chapter 43.01 RCW.", and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator McDonald moved that the Committee on Government Operations be relieved of further consideration of Initiative 164 and that Initiative 164 be placed on the third reading calendar.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDONALD

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate, I believe we all know what this Initiative is about. It is about a property right. It is one that should be brought before the Senate; it should be disposed of in either a positive or a negative way. It is a very significant piece of legislation. It has been brought by a number of people to this body. I think it is a positive step in the right direction. I look forward to a positive vote on this motion."

MOTION BY SENATOR HAUGEN

Senator Haugen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would like to make a motion to amend that. I would like to move for this bill to be sent to the Committee on Ways and Means."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "An oral amendment?"

Senator Haugen: "An oral amendment moving this bill to Ways and Means and I would like to speak to that."

President Pritchard: "All right, Senator Haugen."

FURTHER REMARKS BY SENATOR HAUGEN

Senator Haugen: "Thank you, Mr. President. This bill has been in my committee. As you all well know, we heard a very lengthy hearing in my committee. Actually, we had a hundred and eight people come and testify--to sign up--for the Initiative and we had a hundred and thirty-three people come and sign up against it. At the end of that hearing, we took an informal poll of the people who served on my committee and it was obvious the bill did not have the support of the members of the committee to move out.

"However, one of the issues that was really clear to both myself and, I think, to my ranking minority member, that this bill had severe fiscal impacts, not only on the state of Washington, but also on the people in local government. I would say that before we vote on this bill, it should have the opportunity to have a complete fiscal hearing--at least a hearing so that these state agencies who are impacted and the local governments that will be impacted will have the opportunity to come and testify. We did not give them that opportunity that night, because we felt we needed to hear from the people.

"We are elected to be responsible; we are elected to do the work of the people in a responsible manner. Part of that responsibility is to pay for things in which we mandate and pay for things in which we see go into law. We have done that with Initiative No. 159, which did go through the fiscal committee and I believe this bill should be treated exactly like that Initiative. I would urge your support of sending this to Ways and Means."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pelz: "Would Senator Haugen yield to a question? Senator Haugen, I know you have undertaken a painstaking effort to determine a fiscal note on this Initiative. Could you tell me what, at this time, what you think the fiscal impact on the state budget will be on this Initiative?"

Senator Haugen: "Well, it is very difficult to say. We have--litigation, alone, could run about four million dollars. They figure the fiscal impact on local government is a billion dollars. The fiscal impact on the Department of Transportation is about thirty-four million dollars. The fiscal impact on the State Energy Office, they figure is about seven hundred thousand dollars. The Department of Health has about three million dollars; the Department of Fisheries has two point five million dollars; the Department of Labor and Industries--I don't see the number right here, but those are just some of the agencies. The Department of Agriculture also has a fiscal impact; the Attorney General's Office had a fiscal impact statement, also. It was really unfortunate, because the bill did not have the support to get out of committee, that it did not get to a fiscal committee where those issues could have been addressed."

Senator Pelz: "Do you remember what the total of that was, roughly? I am sorry I wasn't counting."

Senator Haugen: "Well, all I know it was a billion dollars per local government and that is kind of where my heart is--"

Senator Pelz: "A billion for local government?"

Senator Haugen: "A billion for local government--but several million--hundreds of millions--because you add up all these millions and it adds up real fast, but it doesn't make any difference whether it is one million or if it's a hundred million, the issue is, there are two fiscal impacts on the state of Washington."

Senator Pelz: "I guess it does make a difference. With the permission of the body, I want to ask Senator Rinehart a question, if I may?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Pritchard: "If it is within your three minutes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pelz: "Okay. Senator Rinehart, is it your understanding that if we were to pass the Initiative out of here in the next couple of days, would this impact--are we in the seventy million range? Would this have to be reflected in the budget that we vote out of here this year?"

Senator Rinehart: "Clearly, the impact on the state budget would have to be reflected. The question about the impact on local government is one that is a bit up in the air. It would probably show up in a supplemental budget. The issue is that under Initiative 601, this would likely to be assumed to be an unfunded mandate put on local government by state government and state government would likely be responsible for picking up the cost from local government, so those costs presumably would show up, then, in the second year of the biennium."

Senator Pelz: "And, therefore, my point being that if we pass Initiative 164 out of the Legislature, and I look forward to working with Senator Haugen to try and get a fiscal note for state government, but if it were fifty million dollars, that fifty million dollars would have to be included in the current budget and it would be coming out of K-12; it would be coming out of higher ed; it would be coming out of the runaway bill; it would be coming out of welfare reform. It is another factor that we have to fund out of here that we are going to be depriving our districts of when we write a budget."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDONALD

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President and fellow members. I would speak in opposition to the amendment to my motion. I would make a couple of points. One, there was plenty of opportunity during this session to send it to Ways and Means; they chose not to do that. We are at the end of the session and we have the ability and the authority to dispose of this issue. I think it is--I guess I would say that I think it is unfortunate that it didn't go through the Ways and Means process, but that was the choice of the Chair. We have only one choice now.

"I would also say that this Initiative is about changing behavior, changing the behavior of government, that you can't simply take people's property and if you do you are going to compensate them for that. I think that is a good thing. I think this is saying that the fiscal impact is as if there is no change in behavior and that is what this Initiative is about. Defeat the motion."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McAuliffe: "Senator McDonald, would you yield to a question? Is there a fiscal impact on this Initiative?"

Senator McDonald: "Appears to be."

Senator McAuliffe: "Excuse me?"

Senator McDonald: "Yes, there appears to be."

Senator McAuliffe: "There appears to be, and you intend to pass this through this Legislature without our having the opportunity to look at the fiscal impact when we are very concerned about how we are going to fund our educational system in this state?"

Senator McDonald: "Senator, if there are twenty-five people on this floor that choose to do that, I guess it will be passed."

Senator McAuliffe: "Regardless of the fiscal impact? Is that correct?"

Senator McDonald: "Senator McAuliffe, I told you that it was the choice of the Chair of that committee that this would not be brought to a vote, therefore it did not go to the Ways and Means Committee. This is our only opportunity and I choose to take it."

Senator McAuliffe: "Then, I would ask each member of this legislative body to recognize that their vote also is a vote with fiscal responsibility associated with Initiative 164."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SNYDER

Senator Snyder: "I request a roll call on the motion by Senator Haugen to refer Initiative 164 to the Committee on Ways and Means."

President Pritchard: "All right. Do one-sixth of the members sustain the request for a roll call? The roll call is demanded and sustained."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Haugen to refer Initiative 164 to the Committee on Ways and Means.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Haugen to refer Initiative 164 to the Committee on Ways and Means failed by the following vote: Yeas, 23; Nays, 25; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting nay: Senators Anderson, A., Cantu, Deccio, Finkbeiner, Hale, Hargrove, Hochstatter, Johnson, Long, McCaslin, McDonald, Morton, Moyer, Newhouse, Oke, Owen, Palmer, Prince, Roach, Schow, Sellar, Strannigan, Swecker, West and Wood - 25.

Excused: Senator Anderson, C. - 1.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRITCHARD

President Pritchard: "We now have the motion by Senator McDonald to relieve the Committee on Government Operations of Initiative 164 and to place the Initiative on the third reading calendar."

Senator Snyder: "I would request a roll call, please."

President Pritchard: "All right, a roll call has been requested. Do one-sixth of the members sustain the request? They do. The clerk will call the roll."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, frankly, I would rather be shot right now than take this vote. I am real serious. It would be a lot less painful, at this point in time, to just be put out of my misery, because I have a deep respect for both my caucus and the people in my caucus--and for the leadership of our caucus. It is something for people on the outside of this body to understand exactly what these votes mean today.

"But, this issue is one that I, not only have worked for the last three years with no resolution and no hope of resolution, but worked in the interim by working on the Initiative, by working with people to gather signatures, by working with people to raise money to do that, and we worked during this session to try to get this thing to the floor in some other way. I would rather not be doing this. In fact, if somebody has a gun, you can go ahead and put me out of my misery right now. That would be great. Anyone carrying--Senator Roach, we are looking at you. I guess the point is that there are few times in history--in all of history--where people have to stand up for what they believe in no matter what the consequence. I am ready to take the consequences for something I believe in."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAUGEN

Senator Haugen: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, as Chairman of this committee where this bill is being relieved from, I guess I have to, too, take my consequences and we all have to stand up for what we believe. First of all, I must apologize; my brothers always said my bladder was behind my eyes and so I weep very easily according to my brothers. What we have here is an Initiative. This is an Initiative to the Legislature. As an Initiative to the Legislature, we have three options in an Initiative to the Legislature. We can adopt it and it becomes law; we can put an alternative out and people can have their choice or we can choose to have the Initiative go to the people.

"I told people early on, when the bill came to my committee that we would hold a public hearing on it, because I, too, care a great deal about this issue. Over the years, I have introduced legislation in which to try to find ways to give local government stability to buy those rights, because I think they should. My county has been a leader in doing some things with property rights and there are many other counties in the state that have done it, also. It is very difficult for local government to do some things without the ability to pay and that is the problem that is out there.

"We held the public hearing and it was obvious that the debate had only begun. It is a great regret to me that this bill could not have been pulled apart, section by section, and sent to the many committees in which this impacts. Believe me, it does not only impact local government. It impacts agriculture, it impacts health, it impacts transportation in a big way and I can go on and on about the many parts of state agencies that it does impact. But, my committee--and I polled the members of my committee--there were not the votes in my committee, and as a Committee Chair, we all know--those of us who have the privilege to serve--it is not always easy to be a Committee Chair and sometimes the easiest thing to do is to allow a vote to occur, so you can simply look all the people in the eye and say, 'I didn't have the votes.' I chose--I chose not to do that, because I felt it was not fair to my committee members to put them in that position. I, instead, took all the phone calls. I, instead, have had the pressure put on me, and that was a decision that I took.

"Ladies and gentlemen, this bill needs to go to the vote of the people. This Initiative needs to go to the vote of the people, the debate needs to be continued. Because of the very people that Senator Hargrove and that I care about and that each one of you care about, will not be saved. Their property is not going to be saved by this, because they cannot afford an attorney and the only people who will ever benefit from this are those who can afford an attorney, because this bill will require lots and lots of litigation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PRITCHARD

President Pritchard: "Three minutes are up, Senator."

Senator Haugen: "I urge you to vote against this Initiative."

President Pritchard: "The clerk will call the roll on the motion by Senator McDonald to relieve the Government Operations Committee of further consideration of Initiative 164 and to place Initiative 164 on today's third reading calendar."

ROLL CALL

THIRD READING

INITIATIVE 164 by People of the state of Washington

Relating to regulation of private property.

The initiative was read the third time.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDONALD

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, I think we all know what this Initiative is about. It is about property rights; it is about people who have been forgotten in the governmental process for a very long time. It is about redress and I think it is about just compensation and that is all it is about. I think it is a very worthwhile bill--Initiative--and I think it deserves your positive vote."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PELZ

Senator Pelz: "Thank you, Mr. President, rising in opposition to this Initiative. This Initiative is not about people, this Initiative is about money. This Initiative marks a real low mark in Washington State politics. It's really, probably, well I guess it isn't the first Initiative that money went out and bought, but it is second or third on the list. This is an Initiative that wasn't going anywhere this fall, because there wasn't popular support for this Initiative. There wasn't an energized constituency out there, as our framers of our Constitution envisioned when they set up the Initiative process--that there would have to be an energized constituency for a measure that would be willing to spend their Saturday afternoons and their evenings out collecting signatures. That wasn't here for this Initiative, so some interest pumped tens of thousands of dollars overnight into this measure--went out and hired professional signature-gatherers to create this grassroots movement and that is why this issue is before us today.

"I had an experience at Christmas shopping this year when I went out to the K-Mart out in Aurora. I know that if you have been to K-Mart you know that is the store of choice for the working poor in our state now. Outside the K-Mart, there was a person collecting signatures for this measure and I asked him if he was paid and he said he was. People were walking in and he would say, 'Protect your property rights, protect your property rights--sign here to protect your property rights.' Well, my fellow colleagues, shoppers at K-Mart are renters and the ones at K-Mart that own a home, own a fairly modest home, maybe a box up off Aurora and they don't have a self-interest in this bill. The siren song of property rights was being sung by these paid signature gatherers and they bought that song momentarily and they signed the measure, which now turns out has a one billion dollar fiscal note for local government.

"This measure will, of course, enrich the attorneys who will fight it immediately in court, who will be hired by those wealthy property owners and developers, so that they can move rapidly to exploit this law. So, those renters will see their taxes go up to pay for this measure. On a state level, we will see our schools and our higher education and our other budget measures suffer once again, to pay for this measure. It is a sad day; I imagine there will be a referendum. Actually, I think, ironically, we will see this on the ballot, but I imagine the people that go out and get the fifty-five thousand signatures for a referendum will not be paid signature-gatherers. They will then come back and we will have the campaign in the fall where the wealthy interests will be spending a great deal of money. The public will get another look at this measure, but unfortunately we have to go through this rather tainted course to get there."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, I want to tell you a short story about a man named Frank LaDue. He lived in my district, no longer lives in my district. He bought thirty acres of land on the Hoquiam River about twenty years ago and built a home and filled three or four acres of that property. This was when he thought he only had wet land. This is before we know it as wetlands, the highly regulated thing that it is today. On this three acres, approximately, of area that he filled, he was growing vegetables and giving them to the local food bank--there is a lot of need in our area as a matter of fact. He was growing vegetable starts and through the CAP agency giving these starts to low-income, many single mothers that were using that to start their gardens or their flower pots or whatever. Guess what, the EPA and the DOE found out that he had filled this property. They wanted him to remove all of the fill. This guy was not building condominiums on this property; this guy had twenty-seven acres of his property forever in wildlife and wetlands. He was seventy-seven years old; he was a World War II veteran and he could not understand why the government that he fought to defend--the freedom that he fought to defend--was now turning on him.

"When I asked the regulators that came out, 'You are talking about taking his entire property?' They said, 'That is not our issue, he can take it to court.' So, this seventy-seven year old man had the opportunity to spend five or six hundred thousand dollars and go to our State Supreme Court to try and prove a taking on property that was worth fifteen thousand dollars.

"Well, Frank LaDue died and his wife, his widow, still is in doubt about what is going to happen on this property. That is why I feel so strongly about this and I urge your support."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DREW

Senator Drew: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Legislature. There are many stories that all of us have heard from our districts and there are wrongs that are committed by government. I don't think anyone in this body disputes that. However, I would like to disagree with the Senator from the forty-eighth district who said we all know what this is about. I don't believe we all know what this is about. I don't believe that we all know what the impacts are of this piece of legislation that we are trying to pass into law. I don't believe the people of this state know the impacts on their communities, on their local government, on their tax dollars, on the state budget--which we will have to find the money to fund this out of that which is the largest portion of our budget, education. I don't think we all know what the impacts are, because this hasn't had the extent of a fiscal analysis that perhaps needs to happen. I am on this Government Operations Committee; I do fully support the Chair of that committee.

"I do understand that there are issues and I also recognize that we in this Legislature have tried to address those issues. Have we passed a piece of legislation called 'taking?' 'No.' Have we passed 'regulatory reform?' 'Yes.' Two years ago we passed a bill that said that evaluation of your property must take into account growth management regulations. Is that done by the accessors? 'No.' Is it law? 'Yes,' because we in this Legislature decided to take some very important steps forward. We decided to combine our SEPA and GMA process, in a reflection of and in a return to what we heard from all of our constituents as to the regulatory problems. Yes, we have made many steps forward. I'm afraid that this piece of legislation, this Initiative, the one thing that everyone agrees on is that it is flawed. The one thing that everyone agrees on is that no two attorneys can agree on an interpretation. That means that the only thing that will happen is that we will have continuous litigation for the next many years. I do not see this as a solution and I do not think the people of this state have had yet the opportunity to discuss this and it should go to them for their vote. I urge your opposition."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KOHL

Senator Kohl: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. The Senator from the forty-eighth district finished his remarks by saying, 'This was simply a measure directed toward individual property owners and their rights.' What wasn't said was which individual property owners and their rights. I asked about the rights of the property owners of land adjoining that property in which the government would have to provide full compensation for quote, 'taking.' While it may not be found that a public nuisance could be created by the development of one parcel of land, it certainly could provide an impact and a very negative impact on the land of property owners adjoining that piece of land.

"Are they compensated for the negative impact on the value of their land or do they, then, have to pay their hard earned taxes to compensate their neighbor for a so-called taking? This Initiative has very good intentions and many of us want to see real changes made in the laws, both locally and state. However, this Initiative is poorly written. Even when proponents are asked about some of the flaws here with regard to the language, they will admit that. I too often hear the term, 'probably' being used when asked of the Initiative proponents--what could be potential problems.

"Lastly, the Senator from the twenty-fourth district, whom I do respect and I do believe is very sincere in his concerns, said that there was no resolution to be found without passage of this Initiative. However, there is a resolution. If we do not pass this Initiative, it does go to the ballot in November and the people can vote on it. Several years ago another Initiative was brought to the Legislature which many people supported--Initiative 120. A decision was made in the House of Representatives not to bring that Initiative for a vote on the House Floor. Many House members were very upset about that, but that Initiative did go to the people and that Initiative was approved by the people. There is, indeed, a resolution without passing this Initiative today."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SMITH

Senator Smith: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. I concur both in Senator Kohl's remarks and in Senator Drew's remarks that the big problem here is with regulation. I think Senator Drew is correct in that everyone can point to instances where government has regulated and has not done so in a very user-friendly manner. We have tried to address that issue and have, in fact, addressed it this session. The reason that I can't support this Initiative is because there is a fact that I think a lot of people are forgetting. When we have talked about how much this costs, everyone says, 'Well, you know the government ought to pay to protect individuals.'

"Unfortunately, individuals are the government. The costs that we have thrown out here are costs that all of our constituents are going to have to bear and going to have to pay. On the other side of the equation, are property owners. Now, the proponents of this Initiative have very smartly picked out the examples of where property regulations have hurt small people--people who don't have a great deal of money. It was not coincidence, as Senator Pelz alluded to, where all the money came from to support this Initiative. In essence, what we are going to do, if we pass this Initiative, is we are going to go out to all the old tax payers, all the old members of the government, who may not know they are members of the government, and ask them to pay for what is by and large, wealthy land owners use of their property. The bottom line in our society is the people who have money have more property. Now, it is just the way it works out. I believe that this Initiative is sort of a reversed Robin Hood. It will force the government--all of us tax payers--to pay--whatever the fiscal note may be--out, so the developers who bought and paid for this Initiative will be able to save money. I don't think that is in the best interest of the residents of my district and I cannot support the Initiative."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Mr. President, and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Well, I am one of those that has a great deal of property, as least a great deal of property for Pierce County. We are also one of the dying breed in the county and that is in agriculture. My reason for coming to the Legislature was to represent the dairy farmers, to represent the farmers, agriculture in my area. I find I am one of the few left, but I hope, not in this body, that we have lost the farm block. What I want to tell you that scares me more is having an airport across the street, very real--right across the street--a landfill at the headwaters of the creek that goes to our three hundred and sixty acres. We have Boeing down the street, had St. Regis Timber Company, which is no longer a timber company, sell all of their land holdings next to us, to development.

"Thirty-five years ago, we had eighteen fenced neighbors. In the nineteen hundreds, we had about four. Now, we have three times thirty fenced neighbors. Does that mean they are a nuisance? I have asked the attorneys and they have said naught. They don't know. I don't want to vote for something that is a job description for the attorneys in this state--economic development to them.

"My district is hammering me to vote for it; I wish they knew as much as I wish I knew about what the impacts would be. They are hammering me, they don't want an airport, except the people that own the property for the airport. They said, 'Sure, we'd like to sell.' I tell you where my life insurance is. It is not with any agent; it is in our land. Do I want to sell for the highest and best use? 'Yes.' We raised seven wonderful kids on our farm; can they farm on our farm? Probably not.

"Taxation--the best thing this Legislature ever did was to pass Open Spaces that keeps our farm intact. I would like to have a lot more questions answered before I see it go through this body. I would like to see it go to the voters. I think we need time; we need time to find out who and how we will all be impacted. I urge you to vote your conscience and vote your district and I am sure you will do that. I have to vote my farm; I have to vote my family, because that is why I am here."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. I think it is really unfortunate that this Initiative is not more carefully worded. It is very vague and I think one of the results is that it is going to do the opposite of what the drafters intend. I think it will harm small property owners. I spent fifteen years as a local elected official at the city and county level and I had the rather miserable job of making decisions on almost every conceivable kind of land use that there is, so, I too, could tell many stories of local regulation. But, what I will do instead is summarize and basically most of the decisions local elected officials have to make are on these disputes protecting one property owner from another, protecting property values and protecting community character. I think with this measure, which requires compensation, even if there is no loss of value, is a very serious matter.

"It will affect regulations--all the normal kinds--that all your constituents are used to--the standard subdivision layout, whether there is a setback from the adjacent subdivision, what the densities will be, whether or not there needs to be special consideration for various features, and on and on and on--all the details that go into regular neighborhood planning that goes on all around our state. Unfortunately, this Initiative provides that you have to be compensated unless it is a nuisance. Well, so much of what is done, is not a nuisance. It deals with fundamental values in this state of how people want to live and fundamental values in their communities and it is going to be very difficult for local elected officials to live up to their constituent's concerns. Under this Initiative, they won't even be able to require a traffic study. Property owners expect their government to protect them. Under this Initiative, they will be less able to do that and citizens will be forced into the courts themselves. I don't think that is a good alternative."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Would Senator Pelz yield to a question? Senator Pelz, a great argument has been made of the tremendous cost to state and local government. I am going to read a portion of the Initiative and I would like to have you explain to me and give me a breakdown of the costs and why that cost would be so tremendous to state and local government. It says, 'Full compensation means the reduction in the fair market value of the portion or parcel of property taken for general public use which is attributable to the regulation or restraint.' That is very clear to me and I guess I need to have you explain to me and maybe others on this floor and in the gallery why you are against this Initiative because of the tremendous cost to state and local government. How would that come about?"

Senator Pelz yielded to Senator Haugen.

Senator Haugen: "Well, the answer to that is truly when you take a look at several sections. First of all, it tells they have to do full economic analysis of every action they take, so every local--this is truly a bureaucrats dream, because many small jurisdictions do not have a lot of people who are able to do all of those analyses and every action that has to be taken has to be done with a full analysis to start with.

"Section 6 says that you can no longer require anyone to pay for any study, maps, plans or reports on restricting use. In essence, if there was to be a new subdivision coming in to a community or a new development, local government could no longer ask the developer to provide them with those plans. That would be a direct cost to local government; they would have to pay for them. For the state, the Department of Transportation tells us, now, when anyone wants an access on to the road, they have to provide those plans. The state would have to pay for those.

"Presently, because of an act that was enacted years ago, dealing with energy siting, we require the people who are going to put in place any kind of energy siting to pay for all the maps, and the studies, and the mitigation and all that. Under the interpretation that we have been given by the attorneys, we would have to pay for that. I think the big issue is that every action they take, they have to do an economic analysis before they do that. This would have a tremendous chilling effect. You, I know, as a former County Commissioner, knows how expensive it is whenever you have to have staff put together all of those plans. That is where the real costs would be for local government--is putting together all of those analyses."

Senator Deccio: "Yes, I was a County Commissioner for four years and I can say very proudly that to my knowledge there has never been a eminent domain action by Yakima County. They always paid the bill. I think that the strength of government has become awesome and fearful in the last several years and it is time that we, at least, balanced out this issue. Maybe it may work to the great benefit of the property owner and if it does, it is about time. To this point, the big hammer, the big banana, whatever you ever want to refer to it, is state and local government and also the federal government.

"The environmental issues that are before us from day to day have worked not to the benefit of the general public. At least, let's get an issue on the ballot that will tip the scales back in favor of the property owners for a change. This is a very important Initiative; the people are speaking out. I can tell you that if this goes to the ballot, it is going to pass overwhelming. Initiatives and referendums are a poor way to do business. We ought to solve this problem in the Legislature, but we haven't. That is why this issue is before us today and I hope there will be a proper vote. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FAIRLEY

Senator Fairley: "Thank you, Mr. President. There are two things about Initiative 164. First off, it is the full employment act for attorneys. Second off, it is bankruptcy for my town. Tomorrow night at seven thirty, I become a City Councilwoman, again, in a small town in North King County. Well, because, I will have to tell them what has gone on here today, and as Senator Fraser alluded to, this will be devastating to our people. We will have to hire a full time attorney. We will have to hire a full time land-use planner. On one little tiny issue alone--I took a look at it--the creek is overflowing because of something that was put on the creek earlier by our town. It is going to cost us five hundred and forty-six thousand dollars. Now people, my whole town's budget is five million a year. We are going to have to lock the doors and leave, because of the ambiguous language, the wording in this Initiative.

"I'm not saying there isn't something we should do on these lines, but this is not the way to do it. I didn't come here to give more money to the attorneys out there, more money to people who want to make it difficult for small towns like mine to exist. But, this is what is going on today."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ANN ANDERSON

Senator Ann Anderson: "Thank you, Mr. President. This is not a new debate; this is not a new issue for this floor. As a matter of fact, for four years in a row, I worked with some people in this body to try to relieve the pressure on this issue. I had a bill that said that before wetlands could be regulated, you first of all had to map the wetlands, so that you know what you are regulating. Secondly, you would have to notify the property owner that they potentially had a regulated wetland on their property. Thirdly, notify them of when the hearing was to come and talk about it, and then fourthly, if the local jurisdiction did decide to regulate private property, in some way then, the local jurisdiction was obligated to compensate, via through lower property taxes or other methods of compensation.

"During that debate, we heard from local governments--'we can't afford it, too expensive.' My question was, what makes you think that each one of those individual property owners can afford it? That's what happens, you see, in the system that we have now is that governments can write any regulation that they want to because they know they are not obligated to compensate in any way. Human nature is--when it is free, 'Hey, take more, stuff your pockets full.' So, instead of maybe a twenty-five foot buffer, we're seeing two hundred foot buffers, when the same environmental protection could have been satisfied by twenty-five foot buffers.

"That's why this measure is before us today. Systemically, every solution that we have had before has been turned down; the argument has been pat--'Local government can't afford it.' I'm telling you that individual property owners can no longer, out of their own pocket, afford it. If environmental protection is important, then society as a whole should be willing to pay for it. Local governments should be willing to budget that, just like they budget roads, just like they budget social services. That has to be figured in what their budgets are now, because people have said that protection is important, but it is time that everybody starts paying it and not just single property owners scattered throughout this state."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ROACH

Senator Roach: "Thank you, Mr. President. You maybe know that I work in King County and I work a lot with constituents. During the last few years, I have had grown men cry on the phone for the losses that have been imposed on them by government. For some members, I would like to either inform you if you don't know or remind you that in King County, they--the voters--authorized outright buy-outs of land. In King County, the voters also authorized development rights buy-outs--legitimate ways of acquiring land and people were compensated. Then began a series of declarations and rezones and those people weren't compensated in any way. I understand that we do have by a court ruling, the ability to zone, but there is an extent to which we need to understand that property owners need to be compensated.

"I believe that our State Constitution and the U.S. Constitution let us know. The fifth amendment of the Constitution of the United States says that there shall be no taking without compensation. I love the founding fathers of the state of Washington, because they go just one step further--'No private property shall be taken or damaged for public or private use without just compensation having first been made.' I think that is important to understand that our founding fathers took it just a little further, because they understood the nature of government and they have provided this extra protection for us. Unfortunately, legislators in the past--Legislatures in the past--have not been so responsive and we find ourselves buffeted one way or another by Initiatives solely because the Legislature hasn't addressed the issues the way the people want them addressed. I'm glad to know that they have the powers they do vested in them, and I'll be voting 'yes.'

REMARKS BY SENATOR McAULIFFE

Senator McAuliffe: "Thank you, Mr. President. Let me tell you a story and this is a story about myself. I am an individual property owner; I own two acres in King County. In 1989, a historic building that I own was caught on fire and needed to be remodeled and updated. I went to the King County Building and Land Department and put in my application for a permit. At that time, I was told that I would never get a permit for this property under the laws of this state. There were too many regulations, there were too many piled on top of each other; they would affect my stream, my historic building, my--let me see how I can say this--overlay of my parking lot. I didn't think I ever wanted to know about a grass line swale, I didn't think that I ever cared about an underground storage tank.

"Let me tell you, that six years later, I did receive a permit. I played by the rules; they were tough and they were hard. As an individual property owner, I didn't always have the money to gut through with the big projects, but I did it. Why did I do it, because I believed in the environment and I believed in playing by the rules. I want my creek restored and I want my building to be something that everyone could be proud of. I ask you to play by the rules. Initiative 164 does not do that. You have usurped this process, taken this from this committee after it has been heard, researched, evaluated and voted against and now you are usurping the process again. I'm afraid you are not playing by the rules and I am very disappointed in that--by this body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR PRENTICE

Senator Prentice: "Thank you, Mr. President. It is pretty clear what is happening in this room is that a minority of the people--those in this room--are going to be cramming their view down on the people of this state. I have to ask myself, 'Why they are so unwilling to let the people of this state vote on this?' I am absolutely certain and they know, also, that this would be voted down overwhelmingly when the people know what this is about. Why am I so sure? In the last race for the Land Commissioner, the current Land Commissioner was labeled an outright environmentalist--outright environmentalist. So, there she sits proudly commissioning the lands for whatever that means. Others have spoken more eloquently about what this harms--what harm this Initiative will do--not only to the environment, to jobs, to schools, the very financial underpinning of our state.

"Let's look at what this really is. Land developers have been hiding behind and manipulating elderly people. This is not about property rights; it is about greed--buck naked greed. I urge you to defeat this."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANKLIN

Senator Franklin: "Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, we hear the underpinnings of tiresome, boredom, get on with it, but this is indeed a very, very complex issue. It sounds really--property rights--I'm all for property rights and in regards to the illustrious Senator, I am very sensitive to his concerns. Having served on the Pierce County Commission for nine years, we came in contact in regards to this issue--the issue of taking. I knew that eventually, if it were not resolved that we would, in the future, would have been faced with an Initiative. Unfortunately, this Initiative, really, it touches the lives of everyone. It is not just for one particular group of people. The complexity of it will determine the future of all Washingtonians and tourists as they come and as we live in our beautiful state.

"Let us not think that it is just simply private property rights of which I am a strong believer, but the underpinning of what it is all about. It is a complex issue; it needs the debate within the public arena--the debate because John Q. Public out there--the citizens really do not understand what is going on here tonight--I really do not think at all. Because of my interest, having served on the Natural Resources Committee, I took this during the interim and went to Eastern Washington and had meetings dealing with the issue of property rights. The solution is not in this Initiative. I think now that if it is passed, that I will be in the wrong profession, that I will return to law school and earn a lot of money, because certainly this will not compare to it--go back to law school to become fully employed as a land use attorney and we will go from there."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WINSLEY

Senator Winsley: "Thank you, Mr. President, and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I represent a very suburban area and two of the areas in my district, Lakewood and University Place, just voted for incorporation. Last November, University Place, for the first time, put incorporation on the ballot and by eighty-two percent, the people voted to incorporate. What was the issue--growth and a lack of county regulation. People were tired of all the apartments that were being built. University Place is basically homes on a hill, overlooks Puget Sound. They were seeing new homes being built, trees being cut down and when it rained, the people down below were getting the mud from the homes of the people up above. One man had his garage washed away in the rain down below from the water that was coming down the bank--growth and a lack of county regulations.

"Lakewood voted, just this March, by a sixty percent vote to incorporate. What was the issue? Growth, lack of county regulations, too many apartments, too much strip zoning. There was a brochure that was put out. On the outside of the cover, it showed a picture of a man and his child walking along the lake and it said, 'This is not the real Lakewood,' and when you opened it up, there was a collage of about twenty-five apartment complexes-- and as it went on there was a picture of each one-- and they put them together and that was the whole message.

"For us down here, sent by the people that elect us, I feel that I am representing my district when ninety thousand people--sixty thousand of Lakewood, thirty thousand of University Place, can vote for incorporation with eighty-two percent of the vote. There is a strong message there. Yes, I suppose if I represented a rural area, I will look at this issue much differently, but we are here. For the suburbanites who just incorporated because they don't feel that the county is doing their job, I'm afraid they are going to get a message through this Initiative that they are probably not going to be able to put the brakes on growth as they thought they would. So, I am voting 'no' on behalf of my district."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAUGEN

Senator Haugen: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, it is really sad for Frank and his widow and I think the worst thing about it is that this is another false hope. This is an example of the Legislature riding into town again on its white horse, passing 164 and going out to the people and saying, 'We passed property rights,' only for it to end up in court. Frank's widow, I hope she lives long enough, I hope she has the ability to hire an attorney. Everyone, both pros and con--our colleagues in the House spent hours and hours trying to clarify what it says, because everyone knows it isn't clear what it says. I don't want to go into that; I think that the thing that is so ironic is that this undoes all the work that we did on regulatory reform and all the work we did on SEPA and GMA.

"What this does, it makes every action that local government takes--just read Section 7 where it says, 'Any action, requirement, or restriction by a governmental entity, other than actions to prevent or abate public nuisances'--which is very difficult to prove--that limits the use of public development'-- has to have a full economic development, which has to be prepared within thirty days. What does that do? It tells you that local governments simply aren't going to do it.

"Worst of all, what this does is that this guts the Growth Management Act of this state. Now, a lot of you say that is not true. Let me tell you, as of the tenth of this month, fifty cities have fully adopted growth management plans and four counties. Now, you and I both know that is a whole lot--and there are a whole lot more out there doing it. What this Initiative does it puts a very chilling effect on what is happening out there. All of those local governments will now stop their work.

"I had the privilege to work on growth management in this state and no matter what people think, growth management wasn't about a grand vision of what the state of Washington would look like, although I will maintain, that the people live in the state of Washington for the quality of life. It was about predictability, because from what we heard from developers and the small home owners, that they couldn't get a permit and they couldn't get through the whole maze and it is going to be back to that. I maintain that all those people who put their money in this and I don't want to question their reasons for doing that, but they will be here saying, 'You must do something; we must be able to get our permits,' because local governments aren't going to do it.

"This truly does gut the Growth Management Act and perhaps that is what you want, but for you to go back into your districts and look them in the eye and say, 'I did something for property rights' is a lie. This is nothing for property rights; this is nothing but something to be fought in the courts. Someday we will have to come back and try to fix it. Tomorrow, I will be on the streets gathering signatures so that the people have the right--have the right--to vote on that and I would urge you to have the courage to give them the right to vote on that. The public debate has only begun in this building; it will be continued in every town hall, every grange hall, every community center in this state."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the responsibility for criminal activity should fall squarely on the criminal. To the greatest extent possible society should not be expected to have to pay the price for crimes twice, once for the criminal activity and again by feeding, clothing, and housing the criminal. The corrections system should be the first place criminals are given the opportunity to be responsible for paying for their criminal act, not just through the loss of their personal freedom, but by making financial contributions to alleviate the pain and suffering of victims of crime.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

Each year the department shall transfer twenty-five percent of the total annual revenues and receipts received in each institutional betterment fund subaccount to the department of labor and industries for the purpose of providing direct benefits to crime victims through the crime victims' compensation program as outlined in chapter 7.68 RCW. This transfer takes priority over any expenditure of betterment funds and shall be reflected on the monthly financial statements of each institution's betterment fund subaccount.

Any funds so transferred to the department of labor and industries shall be in addition to the crime victims' compensation amount provided in an omnibus appropriation bill. It is the intent of the legislature that the funds forecasted or transferred pursuant to this section shall not reduce the funding levels provided by appropriation.

The director shall establish such fund or funds, separate from existing funds, necessary to administer this chapter, and payment to these funds shall be from legislative appropriation, statutory provision, reimbursement and subrogation as provided in this chapter, and from any contributions or grants specifically so directed."

(d) Where the license shall be issued to any corporation, association or person operating a bona fide restaurant in an airport terminal facility providing service to transient passengers with more than one place where liquor is to be dispensed and sold, such license shall be issued upon the payment of the annual fee, which shall be a master license and shall permit such sale within and from one such place. Such license may be extended to additional places on the premises at the discretion of the board and a duplicate license may be issued for each such additional place: PROVIDED, That the holder of a master license for a restaurant in an airport terminal facility shall be required to maintain in a substantial manner at least one place on the premises for preparing, cooking and serving of complete meals, and such food service shall be available on request in other licensed places on the premises: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That an additional license fee of twenty-five percent of the annual master license fee shall be required for such duplicate licenses.

Such license may be extended to the additional dining places on the property or, in the case of a class H licensed hotel, property owned or controlled by leasehold interest by that hotel for use as a conference or convention center or banquet facility open to the general public for special events in the same metropolitan area, at the discretion of the board and a duplicate license may be issued for each additional place: PROVIDED, That the holder of the master license for the dining place shall not offer alcoholic beverages for sale, service, and consumption at the additional place unless food service is available at both the location of the master license and the duplicate license: PROVIDED FURTHER, That an additional license fee of twenty dollars shall be required for such duplicate licenses.

(4) The total number of class H licenses issued in the state of Washington by the board, not including those class H licenses issued to clubs, shall not in the aggregate at any time exceed one license for each fifteen hundred of population in the state, determined according to the yearly population determination developed by the office of financial management pursuant to RCW 43.62.030.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, the board shall refuse a class H license to any applicant if in the opinion of the board the class H licenses already granted for the particular locality are adequate for the reasonable needs of the community."

It is unlawful for a person, firm, or corporation holding a certificate of approval issued under RCW 66.24.270 or 66.24.206, a beer wholesaler's license, a brewer's license, a beer importer's license, a domestic winery license, a wine importer's license, or a wine wholesaler's license within the state of Washington to modify any prices without prior notification to and approval of the board.

(1) Intent. This section is enacted, pursuant to the authority of this state under the twenty-first amendment to the United States Constitution, to promote the public's interest in fostering the orderly and responsible distribution of malt beverages and wine towards effective control of consumption; to promote the fair and efficient three-tier system of distribution of such beverages; and to confirm existing board rules as the clear expression of state policy to regulate the manner of selling and pricing of wine and malt beverages by licensed suppliers and wholesalers.

(2) Beer and wine wholesale price posting. (a) Every beer or wine wholesaler shall file with the board at its office in Olympia a price posting showing the wholesale prices at which any and all brands of beer and wine sold by such beer and/or wine wholesaler shall be sold to retailers within the state.

(b) Each price posting shall be made on a form prepared and furnished by the board, or a reasonable facsimile thereof, and shall set forth:

(i) All brands, types, packages, and containers of beer offered for sale by such beer and/or wine wholesaler;

(ii) The wholesale prices thereof to retail licensees, including allowances, if any, for returned empty containers.

(c) No beer and/or wine wholesaler may sell or offer to sell any package or container of beer or wine to any retail licensee at a price differing from the price for such package or container as shown in the price posting filed by the beer and/or wine wholesaler and then in effect, according to rules adopted by the board.

(d) Quantity discounts are prohibited. No price may be posted that is below acquisition cost plus ten percent of acquisition cost. However, the board is empowered to review periodically, as it may deem appropriate, the amount of the percentage of acquisition cost as a minimum mark-up over cost and to modify such percentage by rule of the board, except such percentage shall be not less than ten percent.

(e) Wholesale prices on a "close-out" item shall be accepted by the board if the item to be discontinued has been listed on the state market for a period of at least six months, and upon the further condition that the wholesaler who posts such a close-out price shall not restock the item for a period of one year following the first effective date of such close-out price.

(f) The board may reject any price posting that it deems to be in violation of this section or any rule, or portion thereof, or that would tend to disrupt the orderly sale and distribution of beer and wine. Whenever the board rejects any posting, the licensee submitting the posting may be heard by the board and shall have the burden of showing that the posting is not in violation of this section or a rule or does not tend to disrupt the orderly sale and distribution of beer and wine. If the posting is accepted, it shall become effective at the time fixed by the board. If the posting is rejected, the last effective posting shall remain in effect until such time as an amended posting is filed and approved, in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(g) All price postings filed as required by this section shall at all times be open to inspection to all trade buyers within the state of Washington and shall not in any sense be considered confidential.

(h) Any beer and/or wine wholesaler or employee authorized by the wholesaler-employer may sell beer and/or wine at the wholesaler's posted prices to any class A, B, C, D, E, F, H, G, or J licensee upon presentation to the wholesaler or employee at the time of purchase of a special permit issued by the board to such licensee.

(i) Every class A, B, C, D, E, F, H, G, or J licensee, upon purchasing any beer and/or wine from a wholesaler, shall immediately cause such beer or wine to be delivered to the licensed premises, and the licensee shall not thereafter permit such beer to be disposed of in any manner except as authorized by the license.

(ii) Beer and wine sold as provided in this section shall be delivered by the wholesaler or an authorized employee either to the retailer's licensed premises or directly to the retailer at the wholesaler's licensed premises. A wholesaler's prices to retail licensees shall be the same at both such places of delivery.

(3) Beer and wine suppliers' price filings, contracts, and memoranda. (a) Every brewery and winery offering beer and/or wine for sale within the state shall file with the board at its office in Olympia a copy of every written contract and a memorandum of every oral agreement which such brewery or winery may have with any beer or wine wholesaler, which contracts or memoranda shall contain a schedule of prices charged to wholesalers for all items and all terms of sale, including all regular and special discounts; all advertising, sales and trade allowances, and incentive programs; and all commissions, bonuses or gifts, and any and all other discounts or allowances. Whenever changed or modified, such revised contracts or memoranda shall forthwith be filed with the board as provided for by rule. The provisions of this section also apply to certificate of approval holders, beer and/or wine importers, and beer and/or wine wholesalers who sell to other beer and/or wine wholesalers.

Each price schedule shall be made on a form prepared and furnished by the board, or a reasonable facsimile thereof, and shall set forth all brands, types, packages, and containers of beer or wine offered for sale by such licensed brewery or winery; all additional information required may be filed as a supplement to the price schedule forms.

(b) Prices filed by a brewery or winery shall be uniform prices to all wholesalers on a state-wide basis less bona fide allowances for freight differentials. Quantity discounts are prohibited. No price shall be filed that is below acquisition/production cost plus ten percent of that cost, except that acquisition cost plus ten percent of acquisition cost does not apply to sales of beer or wine between a beer or wine importer who sells beer or wine to another beer or wine importer or to a beer or wine wholesaler, or to a beer or wine wholesaler who sells beer or wine to another beer or wine wholesaler. However, the board is empowered to review periodically, as it may deem appropriate, the amount of the percentage of acquisition/production cost as a minimum mark-up over cost and to modify such percentage by rule of the board, except such percentage shall be not less than ten percent.

(c) No brewery, winery, certificate of approval holder, wine importer, or wine wholesaler may sell or offer to sell any beer or wine to any persons whatsoever in this state until copies of such written contracts or memoranda of such oral agreements are on file with the board.

The purposes of this chapter are to protect the general welfare of the residents of this state who purchase construction services and the general economic welfare of business in compliance with this chapter, to enhance state revenue collections, and to promote compliance and enforcement of this chapter by providing swift and meaningful penalties for those failing to register as required by this chapter.

This chapter shall be strictly enforced to accomplish these purposes. Therefore, the doctrine of substantial compliance shall not be used by the department in the application and construction of this chapter. Anyone engaged in the activities of a contractor is presumed to know the requirements of this chapter.

Sec. 2. RCW 18.27.010 and 1993 c 454 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

"Contractor" includes any person, firm, or corporation covered by this subsection, whether or not registered as required under this chapter.

(2) "General contractor" means a contractor whose business operations require the use of more than two unrelated building trades or crafts whose work the contractor shall superintend or do in whole or in part. "General contractor" shall not include an individual who does all work personally without employees or other "specialty contractors" as defined (~~(herein)~~) in this section. The terms "general contractor" and "builder" are synonymous.

(3) "Specialty contractor" means a contractor whose operations (~~(as such)~~) do not fall within the foregoing definition of "general contractor".

(4) "Unregistered contractor" means a person, firm, or corporation doing work as a contractor without being registered in compliance with this chapter. (5) "Department" means the department of labor and industries.

~~((5))~~ (6) "Director" means the director of the department of labor and industries.

~~((6))~~ (7) "Verification" means the receipt and duplication by the city, town, or county of a contractor registration card that is current on its face.

(d) Transfer a valid registration to an unregistered contractor or allow an unregistered contractor to work under a registration issued to another contractor; or

(e) Knowingly subcontract work to a person, firm, or corporation not registered as required under this chapter. However, a contractor does not commit a misdemeanor under this section if a subcontractor becomes unregistered during the course of its work without the knowledge of the contractor.

(3) All misdemeanor actions under this chapter shall be prosecuted in the county where the (~~(infraction)~~) violation occurs.

(4) The director by rule shall establish a two-year audit and monitoring program for a contractor not registered under this chapter who becomes registered after receiving an infraction or conviction under this chapter as an unregistered contractor. The director shall notify the department of revenue and the employment security department of such infractions or convictions and shall cooperate with such departments in determining whether any taxes or registration, license, or other fees or penalties are owed the state.

Sec. 4. RCW 18.27.030 and 1992 c 217 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An applicant for registration as a contractor shall submit an application under oath upon a form to be prescribed by the director and which shall include the following information pertaining to the applicant:

(a) Employer social security number.

(b) As applicable: (i) The industrial insurance account number covering employees domiciled in Washington; and (ii) evidence of workers' compensation coverage in the applicant's state of domicile for the applicant's employees working in Washington who are not domiciled in Washington.

(c) Employment security department number.

(d) State excise tax registration number.

the corporate officers and statutory agent, if any, if the applicant be a corporation. The information contained in such application shall be a matter of public record and open to public inspection.

(2) The department may verify the workers' compensation coverage information provided by the applicant under subsection (1)(b) of this section, including but not limited to information regarding the coverage of an individual employee of the applicant. If coverage is provided under the laws of another state, the department may notify the other state that the applicant is employing employees in Washington.

(3) The department shall deny an application for registration ((shall be denied)) if the applicant has been previously registered as a sole proprietor, partnership, or corporation((, and was a principal or officer of the corporation,)) and ((if) the applicant has an unsatisfied final judgment in an action based on RCW 18.27.040((-)) that was incurred during a previous registration under this chapter. The department shall check for unsatisfied judgments under RCW 18.27.040 and a history of violations and misdemeanors when application is made. A history of violations, revoked and suspended registrations or licenses, or misdemeanors relating to the construction business may be grounds for denial.

Sec. 5. RCW 18.27.040 and 1988 c 139 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant shall((, at the time of applying for or renewing a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of six thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of four thousand dollars,)) accompany the application for a certificate of registration with a surety bond or continuation certificate issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars if the applicant is a general contractor and ten thousand dollars if the applicant is a specialty contractor. The bond shall have the state of Washington named as obligee with good and sufficient surety in a form to be approved by the department. The bond shall be continuous and may be canceled by the surety upon the surety giving written notice to the director of its intent to cancel the bond. A cancellation or revocation of the bond or withdrawal of the surety from the bond suspends the registration issued to the registrant until a new bond or reinstatement notice has been filed and approved as provided in this section. Whether or not the bond is renewed, continued, reinstated, reissued, or otherwise extended, replaced, or modified, including increases or decreases in the penal sum, it shall be considered one continuous obligation, and the surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate or cumulative amount exceeding the penal sum set forth on the face of the bond. In no event shall the penal sum, or a portion thereof, at two or more points in time be added together in determining the surety's liability. The bond shall be conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of ((negligent or improper work or)) breach of contract including negligent or improper work in the conduct of the contracting business. A change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond.

(2) Any contractor registered as of ((the effective date of this 1983 act)) July 1, 1995, who maintains such registration in accordance with this chapter shall be in compliance with this chapter until the next annual renewal of the contractor's certificate of registration. At that time, the contractor shall provide a bond, cash deposit, or other security deposit as required by this chapter and comply with all of the other provisions of this chapter before the department shall renew the contractor's certificate of registration.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon ((such)) the bond or deposit in the superior court of the county in which the work was done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. The surety issuing the bond shall be named as a party to any suit upon the bond. Action upon ((such)) the bond or deposit shall be commenced by filing the summons and complaint with the clerk of the appropriate superior court within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed or abandoned. Service of process in an action against the contractor, the contractor's bond, or the deposit shall be exclusively by service upon the department. Three copies of the summons and complaint and a fee of ten dollars to cover the handling costs shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Service is not complete until the department receives the ten-dollar fee and three copies of the summons and complaint. ~~((Such))~~ The service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond or deposit and the department shall transmit the summons and complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his or her application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

(4) The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond nor for any monetary penalty assessed pursuant to this chapter for an infraction. The liability of the surety shall not cumulate where the bond has been renewed, continued, reinstated, reissued or otherwise extended. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- (a) Employee labor, including employee benefits;
- (b) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
- (c) Material and equipment;
- (d) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;

(e) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover. The prevailing party in a bond claim action against the contractor and the contractor's bond, as required by this section, for breach of a construction contract is entitled to costs, interest, and reasonable attorneys' fees. In no event, however, may the combined costs, interest, attorneys' fees, and bond loss exceed the penal limit of the bond.

The total amount paid from a bond or deposit to claimants other than those asserting a claim for breach of construction contract shall not exceed in the aggregate six thousand dollars for a general contractor and four thousand dollars for a specialty contractor.

A payment made by the surety in good faith shall exonerate the bond to extent of any payment made by the surety.

(5) ~~((In the event that any))~~ If a final judgment ~~((shall))~~ impairs the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of ~~((such))~~ the contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims ~~((shall have been))~~ is furnished. If ~~((such))~~ the bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the ~~((increased))~~ rates prescribed by this section ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~.

(6) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

(7) Any person having filed and served a summons and complaint as required by this section having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of ~~((such))~~ the certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

(8) The director may ~~((promulgate))~~ adopt rules necessary for the proper administration of the security.

Sec. 6. RCW 18.27.060 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 2 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A certificate of registration shall be valid for one year and shall be renewed on or before the expiration date. The department shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration upon compliance with the registration requirements of this chapter.

(2) If the department approves an application, it shall issue a certificate of registration to the applicant. The certificate shall be valid for:

(a) One year;

(b) Until the bond expires; or

(c) Until the insurance expires, whichever comes first. The department shall place the expiration date on the certificate.

(3) A contractor may supply a short-term bond or insurance policy to bring its registration period to the full one year.

(4) If a contractor's surety bond or other security has an unsatisfied judgment against it or is canceled, or if the contractor's insurance policy is canceled, the contractor's registration shall be automatically suspended on the effective date of the impairment or cancellation. The department shall give notice of the suspension to the contractor by certified and by first class mail within forty-eight hours after suspension.

(5) Renewal of registration shall be considered valid upon the date the department receives the required fee and proof of bond and liability insurance, if sent by certified mail or other means requiring proof of delivery. The receipt or proof of delivery shall serve as the contractor's proof of renewed registration until he or she receives verification from the department.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1821 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) For the purpose of payment of contributions, "wages" means the remuneration paid by one employer during any calendar year to an individual in its employment under this title or the unemployment compensation law of any other state in the amount specified in RCW 50.24.010. If an employer (hereinafter referred to as a successor employer) during any calendar year acquires substantially all the operating assets of another employer (hereinafter referred to as a predecessor employer) or assets used in a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor employer, and immediately after the acquisition employs in the individual's trade or business an individual who immediately before the acquisition was employed in the trade or business of the predecessor employer, then, for the purposes of determining the amount of remuneration paid by the successor employer to the individual during the calendar year which is subject to contributions, any remuneration paid to the individual by the predecessor employer during that calendar year and before the acquisition shall be considered as having been paid by the successor employer.

(2) For the purpose of payment of benefits, "wages" means the remuneration paid by one or more employers to an individual for employment under this title during his base year: PROVIDED, That at the request of a claimant, wages may be calculated on the basis of remuneration payable. The department shall notify each claimant that wages are calculated on the basis of remuneration paid, but at the claimant's request a redetermination may be performed and based on remuneration payable.

(3) For the purpose of payment of benefits and payment of contributions, the term "wages" includes tips which are received after January 1, 1987, while performing services which constitute employment, and which are reported to the employer for federal income tax purposes.

(4)(a) "Remuneration" means all compensation paid for personal services including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all compensation paid in any medium other than cash. The reasonable cash value of compensation paid in any medium other than cash and the reasonable value of gratuities shall be estimated and determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner. Remuneration does not include payments to members of a reserve component of the armed forces of the United States, including the organized militia of the state of Washington, for the performance of duty for periods not exceeding seventy-two hours at a time.

(b) Previously accrued compensation, other than severance pay or payments received pursuant to plant closure agreements, when assigned to a specific period of time by virtue of a collective bargaining agreement, individual employment contract, customary trade practice, or request of the individual compensated, shall be considered remuneration for the period to which it is assigned.

Assignment clearly occurs when the compensation serves to make the individual eligible for all regular fringe benefits for the period to which the compensation is assigned.

(c) Settlements or other proceeds received by an individual as a result of a negotiated settlement for termination of an employment contract with a public agency prior to its expiration date shall be considered remuneration. The proceeds shall be deemed assigned in the same intervals and in the same amount for each interval as compensation was allocated under the contract.

(d) Except as provided in (c) of this subsection, the provisions of this ((section)) subsection (4) pertaining to the assignment of previously accrued compensation shall not apply to individuals subject to RCW 50.44.050.

Sec. 2. RCW 50.44.050 and 1990 c 33 s 587 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in subsections (1) through (4) of this section, benefits based on services in employment covered by or pursuant to this chapter shall be payable on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as compensation payable on the basis of other service subject to this title.

(1) Benefits based on service in an instructional, research or principal administrative capacity for an educational institution shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment which commences during the period between two successive academic years or terms within an academic year (or, when an agreement provides instead for a similar period between two regular but not successive terms within an academic year, during such period) if such individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and if there is a contract or reasonable assurance that such individual will perform services in any such capacity for any educational institution in the second of such academic years or terms. Any employee of a common school district who is presumed to be reemployed pursuant to RCW 28A.405.210 shall be deemed to have a contract for the ensuing term.

(2) Benefits shall not be paid based on services in any other capacity for an educational institution for any week of unemployment which commences during the period between two successive academic years or terms within an academic year, if such individual performs such services in the first of such academic years or terms and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the second of such academic years or terms: PROVIDED, That if benefits are denied to any individual under this subsection and that individual was not offered an opportunity to perform such services for the educational institution for the second of such academic years or terms, the individual is entitled to a retroactive payment of benefits for each week for which the individual filed a timely claim for benefits and for which benefits were denied solely by reason of this subsection.

(3) Benefits shall not be paid based on any services described in subsections (1) and (2) of this section for any week of unemployment which commences during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if such individual performs such services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess, and there is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform such services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

(4) Benefits shall not be paid (as specified in subsections (1), (2), or (3) of this section) based on any services described in subsections (1) or (2) of this section to any individual who performed such services in an educational institution while in the employ of an educational service district which is established pursuant to chapter 28A.310 RCW and exists to provide services to local school districts.

(5) As used in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, "academic year" includes fall, winter, spring, and summer quarters and comparable semesters unless, based upon objective criteria including enrollment and staffing, the quarter or comparable semester is not in fact a part of the academic year for the particular institution.

Sec. 3. RCW 50.44.053 and 1985 ex.s. c 5 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "reasonable assurance," as used in RCW 50.44.050, means a written, verbal, or implied agreement that the employee will perform services in the same capacity during the ensuing academic year or term as in the first academic year or term, provided that the agreement is not contingent on enrollment, funding, or program changes. A person shall not be deemed to be performing services "in the same capacity" unless those services are rendered under the same terms or conditions of employment in the ensuing year as in the first academic year or term.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

(1) The director of each local organization for emergency management may, in collaboration with other public and private agencies within this state, develop or cause to be developed mutual aid arrangements for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance in case of disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted. Such arrangements shall be consistent with the state emergency management plan and program, and in time of emergency it shall be the duty of each local organization for emergency management to render assistance in accordance with the provisions of such mutual aid arrangements. The ~~((director of community development))~~ adjutant general shall adopt and distribute a standard form of contract for use by local organizations in understanding and carrying out said mutual aid arrangements.

(2) The ~~((director of community development))~~ adjutant general and the director of each local organization for emergency management may, subject to the approval of the governor, enter into mutual aid arrangements with emergency management agencies or organizations in other states for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance in case of disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted. All such arrangements shall be pursuant to either of the compacts contained in subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section.

(a) The legislature recognizes that the compact language contained in this subsection is inadequate to meet many forms of emergencies. For this reason, after June 7, 1984, the state may not enter into any additional compacts under this subsection (2)(a).

INTERSTATE CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER COMPACT

The contracting States solemnly agree:

Article 1. The purpose of this compact is to provide mutual aid among the States in meeting any emergency or disaster from enemy attack or other cause (natural or otherwise) including sabotage and subversive acts and direct attacks by bombs, shellfire, and atomic, radiological, chemical, bacteriological means, and other weapons. The prompt, full and effective utilization of the resources of the respective States, including such resources as may be available from the United States Government or any other source, are essential to the safety, care and welfare of the people thereof in the event of enemy action or other emergency, and any other resources, including personnel, equipment or supplies, shall be incorporated into a plan or plans of mutual aid to be developed among the civil defense agencies or similar bodies of the States that are parties hereto. The Directors of Civil Defense (Emergency Services) of all party States shall constitute a committee to formulate plans and take all necessary steps for the implementation of this compact.

Article 2. It shall be the duty of each party State to formulate civil defense plans and programs for application within such State. There shall be frequent consultation between the representatives of the States and with the United States Government and the free exchange of information and plans, including inventories of any materials and equipment available for civil defense. In carrying out such civil defense plans and programs the party States shall so far as possible provide and follow uniform standards, practices and rules and regulations including:

- (a) Insignia, arm bands and any other distinctive articles to designate and distinguish the different civil defense services;
- (b) Blackouts and practice blackouts, air raid drills, mobilization of civil defense forces and other tests and exercises;
- (c) Warnings and signals for drills or attacks and the mechanical devices to be used in connection therewith;
- (d) The effective screening or extinguishing of all lights and lighting devices and appliances;
- (e) Shutting off water mains, gas mains, electric power connections and the suspension of all other utility services;
- (f) All materials or equipment used or to be used for civil defense purposes in order to assure that such materials and equipment will be easily and freely interchangeable when used in or by any other party State;
- (g) The conduct of civilians and the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrians and vehicular traffic, prior, during, and subsequent to drills or attacks;
- (h) The safety of public meetings or gatherings; and
- (i) Mobile support units.

Article 3. Any party State requested to render mutual aid shall take such action as is necessary to provide and make available the resources covered by this compact in accordance with the terms hereof; provided that it is understood that the State rendering aid may withhold resources to the extent necessary to provide reasonable protection for such State. Each party State shall extend to the civil defense forces of any other party State, while operating within its State limits under the terms and conditions of this compact, the same powers (except that of arrest unless specifically authorized by the receiving State), duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the State in which normally employed or rendering services. Civil defense forces will continue under the command and control of their regular leaders but the organizational units will come under the operational control of the civil defense authorities of the State receiving assistance.

Article 4. Whenever any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any State evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills, such person may render aid involving such skill in any party State to meet an emergency or disaster and such State shall give due recognition to such license, certificate or other permit as if issued in the State in which aid is rendered.

Article 5. No party State or its officers or employees rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission in good faith on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

Article 6. Inasmuch as it is probable that the pattern and detail of the machinery for mutual aid among two or more states may differ from that appropriate among other States party hereto, this instrument contains elements of a broad base common to all States, and nothing herein contained shall preclude any State from entering into supplementary agreements with another State or States. Such supplementary agreements may comprehend, but shall not be limited to, provisions for evacuation and reception of injured and other persons, and the exchange of medical, fire, police, public utility, reconnaissance, welfare, transportation and communications personnel, equipment and supplies.

Article 7. Each party State shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members of the civil defense forces of that State and the representatives of deceased members of such forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such State.

Article 8. Any party State rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party State receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests; provided, that any aiding State may assume in whole or in part such loss, damage, expense, or other cost, or may loan such equipment or donate such services to the receiving party State without charge or cost; and provided further that any two or more party States may enter into supplementary agreements establishing a different allocation of costs as among those States. The United States Government may relieve the party State receiving aid from any liability and reimburse the party State supplying civil defense forces for the compensation paid to and the transportation, subsistence and maintenance expenses of such forces during the time of the rendition of such aid or assistance outside the State and may also pay fair and reasonable compensation for the use or utilization of the supplies, materials, equipment or facilities so utilized or consumed.

Article 9. Plans for the orderly evacuation and reception of the civilian population as the result of an emergency or disaster shall be worked out from time to time between representatives of the party States and the various local civil defense areas thereof. Such plans shall include the manner of transporting such evacuees, the number of evacuees to be received in different areas, the manner in which food, clothing, housing, and medical care will be provided, the registration of the evacuees, the providing of facilities for the notification of relatives or friends and the forwarding of such evacuees to other areas or the bringing in of additional materials, supplies, and all other relevant factors. Such plans shall provide that the party State receiving evacuees shall be reimbursed generally for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in receiving and caring for such evacuees, for expenditures for transportation, food, clothing, medicines and medical care and like items. Such expenditures shall be reimbursed by the party State of which the evacuees are residents, or by the United States Government under plans approved by it. After the termination of the emergency or disaster the party State of which the evacuees are resident shall assume the responsibility for the ultimate support or repatriation of such evacuees.

Article 10. This compact shall be available to any State, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The term "State" may also include any neighboring foreign country or province or state thereof.

Article 11. The committee established pursuant to Article 1 of this compact may request the Civil Defense Agency of the United States Government to act as an informational and coordinating body under this compact, and representatives of such agency of the United States Government may attend meetings of such committee.

Article 12. This compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any State as between it and any other State or States so ratifying and shall be subject to approval by Congress unless prior Congressional approval has been given. Duly authenticated copies of this compact and of such supplementary agreements as may be entered into shall, at the time of their approval, be deposited with each of the party States and with the Civil Defense Agency and other appropriate agencies of the United States Government.

Article 13. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each party State until the legislature or the Governor of such party State takes action to withdraw therefrom. Such action shall not be effective until 30 days after notice thereof has been sent by the Governor of the party State desiring to withdraw to the Governors of all other party States.

Article 14. This compact shall be construed to effectuate the purposes stated in Article 1 hereof. If any provision of this compact is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be effected thereby.

Article 15. (a) This Article shall be in effect only as among those states which have enacted it into law or in which the Governors have adopted it pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority sufficient to give it the force of law as part of this compact. Nothing contained in this Article or in any supplementary agreement made in implementation thereof shall be construed to abridge, impair or supersede any other provision of this compact or any obligation undertaken by a State pursuant thereto, except that if its terms so provide, a supplementary agreement in implementation of this Article may modify, expand or add to any such obligation as among the parties to the supplementary agreement.

(b) In addition to the occurrences, circumstances and subject matters to which preceding articles of this compact make it applicable, this compact and the authorizations, entitlements and procedures thereof shall apply to:

1. Searches for and rescue of person who are lost, marooned, or otherwise in danger.
2. Action useful in coping with disasters arising from any cause or designed to increase the capability to cope with any such disasters.
3. Incidents, or the imminence thereof, which endanger the health or safety of the public and which require the use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in larger numbers than are locally available in order to reduce, counteract or remove the danger.
4. The giving and receiving of aid by subdivisions of party States.
5. Exercises, drills or other training or practice activities designed to aid personnel to prepare for, cope with or prevent any disaster or other emergency to which this compact applies.

(c) Except as expressly limited by this compact or a supplementary agreement in force pursuant thereto, any aid authorized by this compact or such supplementary agreement may be furnished by any agency of a party State, a subdivision of such State, or by a joint agency providing such aid shall be entitled to reimbursement therefor to the same extent and in the same manner as a State. The personnel of such a joint agency, when rendering aid pursuant to this compact shall have the same rights, authority and immunity as personnel of party States.

(d) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to exclude from the coverage of Articles 1-15 of this compact any matter which, in the absence of this Article, could reasonably be construed to be covered thereby.

(b) The compact language contained in this subsection (2)(b) is intended to deal comprehensively with emergencies requiring assistance from other states.

INTERSTATE MUTUAL AID COMPACT

Purpose

The purpose of this Compact is to provide voluntary assistance among participating states in responding to any disaster or imminent disaster, that over extends the ability of local and state governments to reduce, counteract or remove the danger. Assistance may include, but not be limited to, rescue, fire, police, medical, communication, transportation services and facilities to cope with problems which require use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in large numbers not locally available.

Authorization

Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution of the United States permits a state to enter into an agreement or compact with another state, subject to the consent of Congress. Congress, through enactment of Title 50 U.S.C. Sections 2281(g), 2283 and the Executive Department, by issuance of Executive Orders No. 10186 of December 1, 1950, encourages the states to enter into emergency, disaster and civil defense mutual aid agreements or pacts.

Implementation

It is agreed by participating states that the following conditions will guide implementation of the Compact:

1. Participating states through their designated officials are authorized to request and to receive assistance from a participating state. Requests will be granted only if the requesting state is committed to the mitigation of the emergency, and other resources are not immediately available.
2. Requests for assistance may be verbal or in writing. If the request is made by other than written communication, it shall be confirmed in writing as soon as practical after the request. A written request shall provide an itemization of equipment and operators, types of expertise, personnel or other resources needed. Each request must be signed by an authorized official.

3. Personnel and equipment of the aiding party made available to the requesting party shall, whenever possible, remain under the control and direction of the aiding party. The activities of personnel and equipment of the aiding party must be coordinated by the requesting party.

4. An aiding state shall have the right to withdraw some or all of their personnel and/or equipment whenever the personnel or equipment are needed by that state. Notice of intention to withdraw should be communicated to the requesting party as soon as possible.

General Fiscal Provisions

The state government of the requesting party shall reimburse the state government of the aiding party. It is understood that reimbursement shall be made as soon as possible after the receipt by the requesting party of an itemized voucher requesting reimbursement of costs.

1. Any party rendering aid pursuant to this Agreement shall be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for any damage to, loss of, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment used in responding to a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests.

2. Any state rendering aid pursuant to this Agreement shall be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for the cost of payment of compensation and death benefits to injured officers, agents, or employees and their dependents or representatives in the event such officers, agents, or employees sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this arrangement, provided that such payments are made in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such state.

Privileges and Immunities

1. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinances, rules, all pension, relief disability, workers' compensation, and other benefits which apply to the activity of officers, agents, or employees when performing their respective functions within the territorial limits of their respective political subdivisions, shall apply to them to the same degree and extent while engaged in the performance of any of their functions and duties extra-territorially under the provisions of this Agreement.

2. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinances, and rules, workers' compensation and other benefits which apply to duly enrolled or registered volunteers when performing their respective functions at the request of their state and within its territorial limits, shall apply to the same degree and extent while performing their functions extra-territorially under the provisions of this Agreement. Volunteers may include, but not be limited to, physicians, surgeons, nurses, dentists, structural engineers, and trained search and rescue volunteers.

3. The signatory states, their political subdivisions, municipal corporations and other public agencies shall hold harmless the corresponding entities and personnel thereof from the other state with respect to the acts and omissions of its own agents and employees that occur while providing assistance pursuant to the common plan.

4. Nothing in this arrangement shall be construed as repealing or impairing any existing Interstate Mutual Aid Agreements.

5. Upon enactment of this Agreement by two or more states, and by January 1, annually thereafter, the participating states will exchange with each other the names of officials designated to request and/or provide services under this arrangement. In accordance with the cooperative nature of this arrangement, it shall be permissible and desirable for the parties to exchange operational procedures to be followed in requesting assistance and reimbursing expenses.

6. This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

7. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate official of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until the thirtieth consecutive day after the notice provided in the statute has been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

Sec. 4. RCW 38.52.420 and 1994 c 264 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department (~~(of community, trade, and economic development)~~), in consultation with appropriate federal agencies, the departments of natural resources, fish and wildlife, and ecology, representatives of local government, and any other person the director may deem appropriate, shall develop a model contingency plan, consistent with other plans required for hazardous materials by federal and state law, to serve as a draft plan for local governments which may be incorporated into the state and local emergency management plans.

(2) The model contingency plan shall:

(a) Include specific recommendations for pollution control facilities which are deemed to be most appropriate for the control, collection, storage, treatment, disposal, and recycling of oil and other spilled material and furthering the prevention and mitigation of such pollution;

(b) Include recommendations for the training of local personnel consistent with other training proposed, funded, or required by federal or state laws for hazardous materials;

(c) Suggest cooperative training exercises between the public and private sector consistent with other training proposed, funded, or required by federal or state laws for hazardous materials;

(d) Identify federal and state laws requiring contingency or management plans applicable or related to prevention of pollution, emergency response capabilities, and hazardous waste management, together with a list of funding sources that local governments may use in development of their specific plans;

(e) Promote formal agreements between the department (~~(of community, trade, and economic development)~~) and local entities for effective spill response; and

(f) Develop policies and procedures for the augmentation of emergency services and agency spill response personnel through the use of volunteers: PROVIDED, That no contingency plan may require the use of volunteers by a responding responsible party without that party's consent.

Sec. 5. RCW 38.54.010 and 1992 c 117 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of community, trade, and economic development.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department of community, trade, and economic development.

(3) "State fire marshal" means the assistant director of the division of fire protection services in the department of community, trade, and economic development.

(4) "Fire chief" includes the chief officer of a statutorily authorized fire agency, or the fire chief's authorized representative. Also included are the department of natural resources fire control chief, and the department of natural resources regional managers.

(5) "Jurisdiction" means state, county, city, fire district, or port district (~~(fire)~~) fire fighting units, or other units covered by this chapter.

(6) "Mobilization" means that fire fighting resources beyond those available through existing agreements will be requested and, when available, sent (~~(to fight a fire)~~) in response to an emergency or disaster situation that has (~~(or soon will exceed)~~) exceeded the capabilities of available local resources. During a large scale (~~(fire)~~) emergency, mobilization includes the redistribution of regional or state-wide fire fighting resources to either direct (~~(fire fighting)~~) emergency incident assignments or to assignment in communities where fire fighting resources are needed.

When mobilization is declared and authorized as provided in this chapter, all fire fighting resources except those of the host fire protection authorities, i.e. incident jurisdiction, shall be deemed as mobilized under this chapter, including those that responded earlier under existing mutual aid or other agreement. All nonhost fire protection authorities providing fire fighting resources in response to a mobilization declaration shall be eligible for expense reimbursement as provided by this chapter from the time of the mobilization declaration.

This chapter shall not reduce or suspend the authority or responsibility of the department of natural resources under chapter 76.04 RCW.

(7) "Mutual aid" means emergency interagency assistance provided without compensation under (~~(and an)~~) an agreement between jurisdictions under chapter 39.34 RCW.

Sec. 6. RCW 38.54.020 and 1992 c 117 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

Because of the possibility of the occurrence of disastrous fires or other disasters of unprecedented size and destructiveness, the need to insure that the state is adequately prepared to respond to such a fire or disaster, the need to establish a mechanism and a procedure to provide for reimbursement to fire fighting agencies that respond to help others in time of need or to a host fire district that experiences expenses beyond the resources of the fire district, and generally to protect the public peace, health, safety, lives, and property of the people of Washington, it is hereby declared necessary to:

(1) Provide the policy and organizational structure for large scale mobilization of fire fighting resources in the state through creation of the Washington state fire services mobilization plan;

(2) Confer upon the director (~~(of the department of community development)~~) the powers provided herein; ~~(and)~~

(3) Provide a means for reimbursement to fire jurisdictions that incur expenses when mobilized by the director under the Washington state fire services mobilization plan; and

(4) Provide for reimbursement of host district fire fighting resources when the local district has: (a) Exhausted all of its resources; and (b) invoked its local mutual aid network and exhausted those resources. Upon implementation of state fire mobilization, the host district resources shall become state fire mobilization resources consistent with the fire mobilization plan.

It is the intent of the legislature that mutual aid and other interlocal agreements providing for enhanced emergency response be encouraged as essential to the public peace, safety, health, and welfare, and for the protection of the lives and property of the people of the state of Washington. If possible, mutual aid agreements should be without stated limitations as to resources available, time, or area. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed or interpreted to limit the eligibility of any nonhost fire protection authority for reimbursement of expenses incurred in providing fire fighting resources for mobilization.

Sec. 7. RCW 38.54.050 and 1992 c 117 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

The department (~~(of community development)~~) in consultation with the office of financial management shall develop procedures to facilitate reimbursement to jurisdictions from appropriate federal and state funds when jurisdictions are mobilized by the director under the Washington state fire services mobilization plan. The department shall ensure that these procedures provide reimbursement to the host district in as timely a manner as possible.

The director, from time to time, shall furnish the state military department, the department of community, trade, and economic development, the Washington state patrol, and all county sheriffs a list of the names, addresses, and license plate or radio station call letters of each person possessing the special amateur radio station license plates so that the facilities of such radio stations may be utilized to the fullest extent in the work of these governmental agencies.

Sec. 9. RCW 88.46.100 and 1991 c 200 s 423 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order to assist the state in identifying areas of the navigable waters of the state needing special attention, the owner or operator of a covered vessel shall notify the coast guard within one hour:

(a) Of the disability of the covered vessel if the disabled vessel is within twelve miles of the shore of the state; and

(b) Of a collision or a near miss incident within twelve miles of the shore of the state.

(2) The (~~(division of emergency management of the)~~) state military department (~~(of community development)~~) and the office shall request the coast guard to notify the (~~(division of emergency management)~~) state military department as soon as possible after the coast guard receives notice of a disabled covered vessel or of a collision or near miss incident within twelve miles of the shore of the state. The office shall negotiate an agreement with the coast guard governing procedures for coast guard notification to the state regarding disabled covered vessels and collisions and near miss incidents.

(3) The office shall prepare a summary of the information collected under this section and provide the summary to the regional marine safety committees, the coast guard, and others in order to identify problems with the marine transportation system.

- (5) Failure of any person to make a report under this section shall not be used as the basis for the imposition of any fine or penalty.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 38.52 RCW to read as follows:

All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the state military department.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 10, 1995

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1298 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 70.96A.400 and 1989 c 270 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

The state of Washington declares that there is no fundamental right to ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment. The state of Washington further declares that while methadone ~~((is an))~~ and other like pharmacological drugs, used in the treatment of opiate dependency are addictive substances, that ~~((it))~~ they nevertheless ~~((has))~~ have several legal, important, and justified uses and that one of ~~((its))~~ their appropriate and legal uses is, in conjunction with other required therapeutic procedures, in the treatment of persons addicted to or habituated to opioids.

Because methadone ~~((is))~~ and other like pharmacological drugs, used in the treatment of opiate dependency are addictive and ~~((is))~~ are listed as a schedule II controlled substance in chapter 69.50 RCW, the state of Washington and authorizing counties on behalf of their citizens have the legal obligation and right to regulate the use of ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment. The state of Washington declares its authority to control and regulate carefully, in cooperation with the authorizing counties, all clinical uses of methadone and other pharmacological drugs used in the treatment of ~~((opium))~~ opiate addiction.

Further, the state declares that the primary goal of ((methadone)) opiate substitution treatment is ((drug-free living)) total abstinence from chemical dependency for the individuals who participate in the treatment program. The state recognizes that a small percentage of persons who participate in opiate substitute treatment programs require treatment for an extended period of time. Opiate substitution treatment programs shall provide a comprehensive transition program to eliminate chemical dependency; including opiate and opiate substitute addiction of program participants.

Sec. 2. RCW 70.96A.410 and 1989 c 270 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A county legislative authority may prohibit ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment in that county. The department shall not certify ~~((a-methadone))~~ an opiate substitution treatment program in a county where the county legislative authority has prohibited ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment. If a county legislative authority authorizes ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs, it shall limit by ordinance the number of ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs operating in that county by limiting the number of licenses granted in that county. If a county has authorized ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs in that county, it shall only license ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs that comply with the department's operating and treatment standards under this section and RCW 70.96A.420. A county that authorizes ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment may operate the programs directly or through a local health department or health district or it may authorize certified ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs that the county licenses to provide the services within the county. Counties shall monitor ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs for compliance with the department's operating and treatment regulations under this section and RCW 70.96A.420.

(2) A county that authorizes ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs shall develop and enact by ordinance licensing standards, consistent with this chapter and the operating and treatment standards adopted under this chapter, that govern the application for, issuance of, renewal of, and revocation of the licenses. Certified programs existing before May 18, 1987, applying for renewal of licensure in subsequent years, that maintain certification and meet all other requirements for licensure, shall be given preference.

(3) In certifying programs, the department shall not discriminate against ~~((a-methadone))~~ an opiate substitution treatment program on the basis of its corporate structure. In licensing programs, the county shall not discriminate against ~~((a-methadone))~~ an opiate substitution treatment program on the basis of its corporate structure.

(4) A program applying for certification from the department and a program applying for a contract from a state agency that has been denied the certification or contract shall be provided with a written notice specifying the rationale and reasons for the denial. A program applying for a license or a contract from a county that has been denied the license or contract shall be provided with a written notice specifying the rationale and reasons for the denial.

(5) A license is effective for one calendar year from the date of issuance. The license shall be renewed in accordance with the provisions of this section for initial approval ~~((and in accordance with))~~; the goals for treatment programs under RCW 70.96A.400; the standards set forth in RCW 70.96A.420; and the rules adopted by the secretary.

(6) For the purpose of this chapter, opiate substitution treatment means dispensing an opiate substitution drug approved by the Federal Drug Administration for the treatment of opiate addiction and providing a comprehensive range of medical and rehabilitative services.

Sec. 3. RCW 70.96A.420 and 1989 c 270 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department, in consultation with ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment service providers and counties authorizing ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs, shall establish state-wide treatment standards for ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs. The department and counties that authorize ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs shall enforce these treatment standards. The treatment standards shall include, but not be limited to, reasonable provisions for all appropriate and necessary medical procedures, counseling requirements, urinalysis, and other suitable tests as needed to ensure compliance with this chapter ~~((and the treatment standard authorized by this chapter))~~. A ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment program shall not have a caseload in excess of three hundred fifty persons.

(2) The department, in consultation with ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs and counties authorizing ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs, shall establish state-wide operating standards for ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs. The department and counties that authorize ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs shall enforce these operating standards. The operating standards shall include, but not be limited to, reasonable provisions necessary to enable the department and authorizing counties to monitor certified and licensed ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs for compliance with this chapter and the treatment standards authorized by this chapter and to minimize the impact of the ~~((methadone))~~ opiate substitution treatment programs upon the business and residential neighborhoods in which the program is located.

(3) The department shall establish criteria for evaluating the compliance of opiate substitute treatment programs with the goals and standards established under this chapter. As a condition of certification, opiate substitution programs shall submit an annual report to the department and county legislative authority, including data as specified by the department necessary for outcome analysis. The department shall analyze and evaluate the data submitted by each treatment program and take corrective action where necessary to ensure compliance with the goals and standards enumerated under this chapter. Before January 1 of each year, the department shall submit an annual report to the legislature, including the outcome analysis of each treatment program."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 10, 1995

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1296 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Since enactment of chapter 227, Laws of 1984 most employers that participate in state retirement systems have been responsible for ensuring that member retirement contributions are transferred to the retirement trust funds, even in situations where service credit is being established on a retroactive basis for a member who is no longer employed by the employer.

(2) It is the responsibility of employers to accurately report their employees' compensation and service, and to ensure that all required member and employer contributions are transferred to the department of retirement systems. However, in situations where an employer determines that a former employee should have had contributions transferred, it is more reasonable and efficient to bill the employee for the past due member contributions than to make the employer responsible for them.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.50 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If an employer, pursuant to RCW 41.50.140(2), does not transfer member contributions for a former employee's prior period of service, the member shall not receive service credit for the period of service unless the member pays the required member contributions as provided in this section. In such cases the member shall have the option, but shall not be obligated, to pay the member contributions necessary to receive credit for the period of service. As provided by RCW 41.50.140(1), the department shall collect from the employer all employer contributions due for periods of service, regardless of whether the member elects to pay the member contributions necessary to receive credit for the period of service.

(2) The department shall adopt, by rule, a process by which separated and active members may pay member contributions needed to establish service credit for prior periods of service for which their employers did not transmit member contributions.

Sec. 3. RCW 41.50.140 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 52 s 33 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer participating in one or more of the retirement systems listed in RCW 41.50.030 shall fully cooperate in the administration of the systems in which its employees participate, including the distribution of information to employees, and shall accept and carry out all other duties as required by law, regulation, or administrative instruction. Every employer shall transmit to the department all member and employer contributions due for periods of service rendered in the retirement systems, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) When the department bills an employer for member and employer contributions owed for a prior period of service, the employer shall transmit the required contributions if the member is still an employee of the employer at the time of the billing. The employer shall have no duty to transfer member contributions for persons who are not employees on the date the department bills the employer but shall transfer the required employer contributions for the prior service.

(3) Members for whom member contributions for a prior period of service are not transferred by the employer pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall have the option of paying the required member contributions pursuant to section 2 of this act.

~~((2) If an employee is entitled to retroactive service credit which was not previously established through no fault of the employee, or through an employer error which has caused a member's compensation or contributions to be understated or overstated so as to cause a loss to the retirement funds, the director may bill the employer for the loss, to include interest, if applicable. The employer contributions, with interest thereon, will be treated as if in fact the interest was part of the normal employer contribution and no distribution of interest received shall be required.~~

~~(3) Employer paid employee contributions will not be credited to a member's account until the employer notifies the director in writing that the employer has been reimbursed by the employee or beneficiary for the payment. The employer shall have the right to collect from the employee the amount of the employee's obligation. Failure on the part of the employer to collect all or any part of the sums which may be due from the employee or beneficiary shall in no way cause the employer obligation for the total liability to be lessened.))~~

Sec. 4. RCW 41.54.020 and 1994 c 197 s 32 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Those persons who are dual members on or after July 1, 1988, shall not receive a retirement benefit from any prior system while dual members without the loss of all benefits under this chapter. Retroactive retirement in any prior system will cancel membership in any subsequent systems except as allowed under RCW 41.04.270 and will result in the refund of all employee and employer contributions made to such systems.

(2) If a member has withdrawn contributions from a prior system, the member may restore the contributions, together with interest since the date of withdrawal as determined by the system, and recover the service represented by the contributions. Such restoration must be completed within two years of establishing dual membership or prior to retirement, whichever occurs first.

(3) If a member does not meet the time limitation under subsection (2) of this section, the member, prior to retirement, may restore the service credit destroyed by the withdrawn contributions by paying the amount required under RCW 41.50.165(2). However, if a member failed to meet the applicable statutory deadline and filed a petition with the director of the department of retirement systems prior to January 1, 1995, requesting an extension of the applicable period; and if the director's findings in denying the petition affirmatively show that the failure was due to the fact that the department's customary bulletins and other notifications that were furnished to the member's employer for distribution were not furnished to the member by the employer, and that the member did not otherwise receive notice through other channels of communication and was not at fault, the member may elect to restore the required contributions and interest and regain service credit under subsection (2) of this section under the same terms and conditions and without further liability as if the election had been made on a timely basis. The election must be made not later than July 1, 1995, or prior to retirement, whichever comes first. The department shall provide written notice and an application directly to the affected members, and any further assistance as may be necessary to implement this section.

(4) Any service accrued in one system by the member shall not accrue in any other system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If specific funding for the purposes of sections 1 through 4 of this act, referencing sections 1 through 4 of this act by bill and section number, is not provided by June 30, 1995, in the omnibus appropriations act, sections 1 through 4 of this act shall be null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996."

Sec. 1403. RCW 43.19.1905 and 1986 c 158 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

Initial policy determinations for the functions described in RCW 43.19.1905 shall be developed and published within the 1975-77 biennium by the director (~~(, after consultation with the supply management advisory board)~~) for guidance and compliance by all state agencies, including educational institutions, involved in purchasing and material control. Modifications to these initial supply management policies established during the 1975-77 biennium shall be instituted by the director (~~(, after consultation with the advisory board,)~~) in future biennia as required to maintain an efficient and up-to-date state supply management system. The director shall transmit to the governor and the legislature in June 1976 and June 1977 a progress report which indicates the degree of accomplishment of each of these assigned duties, and which summarizes specific achievements obtained in increased effectiveness and dollar savings or cost avoidance within the overall state purchasing and material control system. The second progress report in June 1977 shall include a comprehensive supply management plan which includes the recommended organization of a state-wide purchasing and material control system and development of an orderly schedule for implementing such recommendation. In the interim between these annual progress reports, the director shall furnish periodic reports to the office of financial management for review of progress being accomplished in achieving increased efficiencies and dollar savings or cost avoidance.

It is the intention of the legislature that measurable improvements in the effectiveness and economy of supply management in state government shall be achieved during the 1975-77 biennium, and each biennium thereafter. All agencies, departments, offices, divisions, boards, and commissions and educational, correctional, and other types of institutions are required to cooperate with and support the development and implementation of improved efficiency and economy in purchasing and material control. To effectuate this legislative intention, the director, (~~(in consultation with the supply management advisory board, and)~~) through the state purchasing and material control director, shall have the authority to direct and require the submittal of data from all state organizations concerning purchasing and material control matters.

Sec. 1404. RCW 43.19.1906 and 1994 c 300 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Insofar as practicable, all purchases and sales shall be based on competitive bids, and a formal sealed bid procedure shall be used as standard procedure for all purchases and contracts for purchases and sales executed by the state purchasing and material control director and under the powers granted by RCW 43.19.190 through 43.19.1939. This requirement also applies to purchases and contracts for purchases and sales executed by agencies, including educational institutions, under delegated authority granted in accordance with provisions of RCW 43.19.190 or under RCW 28B.10.029. However, formal sealed bidding is not necessary for:

(1) Emergency purchases made pursuant to RCW 43.19.200 if the sealed bidding procedure would prevent or hinder the emergency from being met appropriately;

(2) Purchases not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management: PROVIDED, That the state director of general administration shall establish procedures to assure that purchases made by or on behalf of the various state agencies shall not be made so as to avoid the thirty-five thousand dollar bid limitation, or subsequent bid limitations as calculated by the office of financial management: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state purchasing and material control director is authorized to reduce the formal sealed bid limits of thirty-five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, to a lower dollar amount for purchases by individual state agencies if considered necessary to maintain full disclosure of competitive procurement or otherwise to achieve overall state efficiency and economy in purchasing and material control. Quotations from four hundred dollars to thirty-five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, shall be secured from at least three vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and may be obtained by telephone or written quotations, or both. The agency shall invite at least one quotation each from a certified minority and a certified women-owned vendor who shall otherwise qualify to perform such work. Immediately after the award is made, the bid quotations obtained shall be recorded and open to public inspection and shall be available by telephone inquiry. A record of competition for all such purchases from four hundred dollars to thirty-five thousand dollars, or subsequent limits as calculated by the office of financial management, shall be documented for audit purposes. Purchases up to four hundred dollars may be made without competitive bids based on buyer experience and knowledge of the market in achieving maximum quality at minimum cost: PROVIDED, That this four hundred dollar direct buy limit without competitive bids may be increased incrementally as required to a maximum of eight hundred dollars ((with the approval of at least ten of the members of the state supply management advisory board)), if warranted by increases in purchasing costs due to inflationary trends;

(3) Purchases which are clearly and legitimately limited to a single source of supply and purchases involving special facilities, services, or market conditions, in which instances the purchase price may be best established by direct negotiation;

(4) Purchases of insurance and bonds by the risk management office under RCW 43.19.1935;

(5) Purchases and contracts for vocational rehabilitation clients of the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, That this exemption is effective only when the state purchasing and material control director, after consultation with the director of the division of vocational rehabilitation and appropriate department of social and health services procurement personnel, declares that such purchases may be best executed through direct negotiation with one or more suppliers in order to expeditiously meet the special needs of the state's vocational rehabilitation clients;

(6) Purchases by universities for hospital operation or biomedical teaching or research purposes and by the state purchasing and material control director, as the agent for state hospitals as defined in RCW 72.23.010, and for health care programs provided in state correctional institutions as defined in RCW 72.65.010(3) and veterans' institutions as defined in RCW 72.36.010 and 72.36.070, made by participating in contracts for materials, supplies, and equipment entered into by nonprofit cooperative hospital group purchasing organizations;

(7) Purchases by institutions of higher education not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars: PROVIDED, That for purchases between two thousand five hundred dollars and thirty-five thousand dollars quotations shall be secured from at least three vendors to assure establishment of a competitive price and may be obtained by telephone or written quotations, or both. For purchases between two thousand five hundred dollars and thirty-five thousand dollars, each institution of higher education shall invite at least one quotation each from a certified minority and a certified women-owned vendor who shall otherwise qualify to perform such work. A record of competition for all such purchases made from two thousand five hundred to thirty-five thousand dollars shall be documented for audit purposes; and

(8) Beginning on July 1, 1995, and on July 1 of each succeeding odd-numbered year, the dollar limits specified in this section shall be adjusted as follows: The office of financial management shall calculate such limits by adjusting the previous biennium's limits by the appropriate federal inflationary index reflecting the rate of inflation for the previous biennium. Such amounts shall be rounded to the nearest one hundred dollars.

Sec. 1405. RCW 43.19.1937 and 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 21 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

No ((member of the state supply management advisory board or)) state employee whose duties performed for the state include:

- (1) Advising on or drawing specifications for supplies, equipment, commodities, or services;
- (2) Suggesting or determining vendors to be placed upon a bid list;
- (3) Drawing requisitions for supplies, equipment, commodities, or services;

Violation of this section shall be considered a malfeasance and may cause loss of position, and the violator shall be liable to the state upon his official bond for all damages sustained by the state. Contracts involved may be canceled at the option of the state. Penalties provided in this section are not exclusive, and shall not bar action under any other statute penalizing the same act or omission.

Sec. 1406. RCW 43.19A.020 and 1991 c 297 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall adopt standards specifying the minimum content of recycled materials in products or product categories. The standards shall:

(a) Be consistent with the USEPA product standards, unless the director finds that a different standard would significantly increase recycled product availability or competition;

(b) Consider the standards of other states, to encourage consistency of manufacturing standards;

(c) Consider regional product manufacturing capability;

(d) Address specific products or classes of products; and

(e) Consider postconsumer waste content and the recyclability of the product.

The standards may be adopted or applied by any other local government in product procurement. The standards shall provide for exceptions under appropriate circumstances to allow purchases of recycled products that do not meet the minimum content requirements of the standards.

HYDRAULIC APPEALS BOARD

Sec. 1901. RCW 43.21B.005 and 1990 c 65 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created an environmental hearings office of the state of Washington. The environmental hearings office shall consist of the pollution control hearings board created in RCW 43.21B.010, the forest practices appeals board created in RCW 76.09.210, and the shorelines hearings board created in RCW 90.58.170(~~(, and the hydraulic appeals board created in RCW 75.20.130)~~). The chairman of the pollution control hearings board shall be the chief executive officer of the environmental hearings office. Membership, powers, functions, and duties of the pollution control hearings board, the forest practices appeals board, and the shorelines hearings board(~~(, and the hydraulic appeals board)~~) shall be as provided by law.

The chief executive officer of the environmental hearings office may appoint an administrative appeals judge who shall possess the powers and duties conferred by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW, in cases before the boards comprising the office. The administrative appeals judge shall have a demonstrated knowledge of environmental law, and shall be admitted to the practice of law in the state of Washington. Additional administrative appeals judges may also be appointed by the chief executive officer on the same terms. Administrative appeals judges shall not be subject to chapter 41.06 RCW.

The chief executive officer may appoint, discharge, and fix the compensation of such administrative or clerical staff as may be necessary.

The chief executive officer may also contract for required services.

Sec. 1902. RCW 75.20.103 and 1993 sp.s. c 2 s 32 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that any person or government agency desires to construct any form of hydraulic project or other work that diverts water for agricultural irrigation or stock watering purposes, or when such hydraulic project or other work is associated with streambank stabilization to protect farm and agricultural land as defined in RCW 84.34.020, and when such diversion or streambank stabilization will use, divert, obstruct, or change the natural flow or bed of any river or stream or will utilize any waters of the state or materials from the stream beds, the person or government agency shall, before commencing construction or work thereon and to ensure the proper protection of fish life, secure a written approval from the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life. This approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Except as provided in RCW 75.20.1001 (~~(and 75.20.1002)~~), the department shall grant or deny the approval within forty-five calendar days of the receipt of a complete application and notice of compliance with any applicable requirements of the state environmental policy act, made in the manner prescribed in this section. The applicant may document receipt of application by filing in person or by registered mail. A complete application for an approval shall contain general plans for the overall project, complete plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work within ordinary high water line, and complete plans and specifications for the proper protection of fish life. The forty-five day requirement shall be suspended if (1) after ten working days of receipt of the application, the applicant remains unavailable or unable to arrange for a timely field evaluation of the proposed project; (2) the site is physically inaccessible for inspection; or (3) the applicant requests delay.

Immediately upon determination that the forty-five day period is suspended, the department shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the delay.

An approval shall remain in effect without need for periodic renewal for projects that divert water for agricultural irrigation or stock watering purposes and that involve seasonal construction or other work. Approval for streambank stabilization projects shall remain in effect without need for periodic renewal if the problem causing the need for the streambank stabilization occurs on an annual or more frequent basis. The permittee must notify the appropriate agency before commencing the construction or other work within the area covered by the approval.

The permittee must demonstrate substantial progress on construction of that portion of the project relating to the approval within two years of the date of issuance. If the department denies approval, the department shall provide the applicant, in writing, a statement of the specific reasons why and how the proposed project would adversely affect fish life. Protection of fish life shall be the only ground upon which approval may be denied or conditioned. ~~((Issuance, denial, conditioning, or modification shall be appealable to the hydraulic appeals board established in RCW 43.21B.005 within thirty days of the notice of decision.))~~ The burden shall be upon the department to show that the denial or conditioning of an approval is solely aimed at the protection of fish life.

The department may, after consultation with the permittee, modify an approval due to changed conditions. The modifications shall become effective ~~((unless appealed to the hydraulic appeals board))~~ within thirty days from the notice of the proposed modification. The burden is on the department to show that changed conditions warrant the modification in order to protect fish life.

A permittee may request modification of an approval due to changed conditions. The request shall be processed within forty-five calendar days of receipt of the written request. ~~((A decision by the department may be appealed to the hydraulic appeals board within thirty days of the notice of the decision.))~~ The burden is on the permittee to show that changed conditions warrant the requested modification and that such modification will not impair fish life.

If any person or government agency commences construction on any hydraulic works or projects subject to this section without first having obtained written approval of the department as to the adequacy of the means proposed for the protection of fish life, or if any person or government agency fails to follow or carry out any of the requirements or conditions as are made a part of such approval, the person or director of the agency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. If any such person or government agency is convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section and continues construction on any such works or projects without fully complying with the provisions hereof, such works or projects are hereby declared a public nuisance and shall be subject to abatement as such.

In case of an emergency arising from weather or stream flow conditions or other natural conditions, the department, through its authorized representatives, shall issue immediately upon request oral approval for removing any obstructions, repairing existing structures, restoring stream banks, or to protect property threatened by the stream or a change in the stream flow without the necessity of obtaining a written approval prior to commencing work. Conditions of an oral approval shall be reduced to writing within thirty days and complied with as provided for in this section.

For purposes of this chapter, "streambank stabilization" shall include but not be limited to log and debris removal, bank protection (including riprap, jetties, and groins), gravel removal and erosion control.

Sec. 1903. RCW 75.20.160 and 1991 c 279 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order to protect the property of marine waterfront shoreline owners it is necessary to facilitate issuance of hydraulic permits for bulkheads or rockwalls under certain conditions.

(2) The department shall issue a hydraulic permit with or without conditions within forty-five days of receipt of a complete and accurate application which authorizes commencement of construction, replacement, or repair of a marine beach front protective bulkhead or rockwall for single-family type residences or property under the following conditions:

(a) The waterward face of a new bulkhead or rockwall shall be located only as far waterward as is necessary to excavate for footings or place base rock for the structure and under no conditions shall be located more than six feet waterward of the ordinary high water line;

(b) Any bulkhead or rockwall to replace or repair an existing bulkhead or rockwall shall be placed along the same alignment as the bulkhead or rockwall it is replacing; however, the replaced or repaired bulkhead or rockwall may be placed waterward of and directly abutting the existing structure only in cases where removal of the existing bulkhead or rockwall would result in environmental degradation or removal problems related to geological, engineering, or safety considerations;

(c) Construction of a new bulkhead or rockwall, or replacement or repair of an existing bulkhead or rockwall waterward of the existing structure shall not result in the permanent loss of critical food fish or shellfish habitats; and

(d) Timing constraints shall be applied on a case-by-case basis for the protection of critical habitats, including but not limited to migration corridors, rearing and feeding areas, and spawning habitats, for the proper protection of fish life.

(3) Any bulkhead or rockwall construction, replacement, or repair not meeting the conditions in this section shall be processed under this chapter in the same manner as any other application.

MOTION

Representative Reams moved that the House concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1107 and pass the bill as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Chandler: Thank you Mr. Speaker. I would request a ruling on the scope and object on the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1107.

SPEAKER'S RULING

Representative Chandler, the Speaker is prepared to Rule on your Point of Order which challenges the Senate Amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1107 as being beyond the Scope and Object of the bill.

The title of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1107 is "AN ACT Relating to the elimination and consolidation of boards and commissions.

The title is narrow.

The title clearly limits the scope of the bill to the elimination and consolidation of various boards and commissions.

The Senate Amendment would:

(1) Direct the Department of Fish and Wildlife to establish an advisory committee to develop new provisions for hydraulic project permit conditions; and

(2) Continue the Puget Sound Water Quality Authority for seven more years; and

(3) Remove 128 gubernatorial appointments from existing senate confirmation requirements.

The Amendment creates rather than eliminates another board or commission, continues rather than eliminates an agency that will sunset under existing law on June 30, 1995, and removes current Senate oversight responsibility from various appointments made by the Governor. The Amendment clearly goes beyond the scope of the title to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1107.

The Speaker finds that the Senate Amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill.

Representative Chandler, Your Point of Order is well taken.

MOTION

Representative Reams moved that the House not concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1107 and ask the Senate to recede therefrom. The motion was carried.

As used in this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(3) "State treasurer" means the treasurer of the state of Washington.

(4)(a) "Employer" for plan I members, means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state, any political subdivision or association of political subdivisions of the state admitted into the retirement system, and legal entities authorized by RCW 35.63.070 and 36.70.060 or chapter 39.34 RCW; and the term shall also include any labor guild, association, or organization the membership of a local lodge or division of which is comprised of at least forty percent employees of an employer (other than such labor guild, association, or organization) within this chapter. The term may also include any city of the first class that has its own retirement system.

(b) "Employer" for plan II members, means every branch, department, agency, commission, board, and office of the state, and any political subdivision and municipal corporation of the state admitted into the retirement system, including public agencies created pursuant to RCW 35.63.070, 36.70.060, and 39.34.030.

(5) "Member" means any employee included in the membership of the retirement system, as provided for in RCW 41.40.023. Standby compensation is regular salary for the purposes of RCW 41.50.150(2).

(A) "Compensation earnable" for plan I members also includes the following actual or imputed payments, which are not paid for personal services:

(I) Retroactive payments to an individual by an employer on reinstatement of the employee in a position, or payments by an employer to an individual in lieu of reinstatement in a position which are awarded or granted as the equivalent of the salary or wage which the individual would have earned

(II) If a leave of absence is taken by an individual for the purpose of serving in the state legislature, the salary which would have been received for the position from which the leave of absence was taken, shall be considered as compensation earnable if the employee's contribution is paid by the employee and the employer's contribution is paid by the employer or employee.

(III) Assault pay only as authorized by RCW 27.04.100, 72.01.045, and 72.09.240;

(IV) Compensation that a member would have received but for a disability occurring in the line of duty only as authorized by RCW 41.40.038; and

(V) Compensation that a member receives due to participation in the leave sharing program only as authorized by RCW 41.04.650 through 41.04.670.

(B) "Compensation earnable" does not include:

(I) Remuneration for unused sick leave authorized under RCW 41.04.340, 28A.400.210, or 28A.310.490;

Compensation that a member receives for being in standby status is also compensation earnable, subject to the conditions of this subsection. A member is in standby status when not being paid for time actually worked and only when both of the following conditions exist: (i) The member is required to be present at, or in the immediate vicinity of, a specified location; and (ii) the employer requires the member to be prepared to report immediately for work, if the need arises, although the need may not arise. Standby compensation is regular salary for the purposes of RCW 41.50.150(2).

"Compensation earnable" for plan II members also includes the following actual or imputed payments, which are not paid for personal services:

(A) Retroactive payments to an individual by an employer on reinstatement of the employee in a position, or payments by an employer to an individual in lieu of reinstatement in a position which are awarded or granted as the equivalent of the salary or wage which the individual would have earned during a payroll period shall be considered compensation earnable to the extent provided above, and the individual shall receive the equivalent service credit;

(B) In any year in which a member serves in the legislature, the member shall have the option of having such member's compensation earnable be the greater of:

(I) The compensation earnable the member would have received had such member not served in the legislature; or

(II) Such member's actual compensation earnable received for nonlegislative public employment and legislative service combined. Any additional contributions to the retirement system required because compensation earnable under (b)(ii)(B)(II) of this subsection is greater than compensation earnable under (b)(ii)(B)(I) of this subsection shall be paid by the member for both member and employer contributions;

(C) Assault pay only as authorized by RCW 27.04.100, 72.01.045, and 72.09.240;

(D) Compensation that a member would have received but for a disability occurring in the line of duty only as authorized by RCW 41.40.038; and

(E) Compensation that a member receives due to participation in the leave sharing program only as authorized by RCW 41.04.650 through 41.04.670.

(9)(a) "Service" for plan I members, except as provided in RCW 41.40.088, means periods of employment in an eligible position or positions for one or more employers rendered to any employer for which compensation is paid, and includes time spent in office as an elected or appointed official of an employer. Compensation earnable earned in full time work for seventy hours or more in any given calendar month shall constitute one service credit month except as provided in RCW 41.40.088. Compensation earnable earned for less than seventy hours in any calendar month shall constitute one-quarter service credit month of service except as provided in RCW 41.40.088. Only service credit months and one-quarter service credit months shall be counted in the computation of any retirement allowance or other benefit provided for in this chapter. Any fraction of a year of service shall be taken into account in the computation of such retirement allowance or benefits. Time spent in standby status, whether compensated or not, is not service.

Payment shall be made prior to the retirement of such member.

Payments submitted by the member under this section shall be placed in the member's individual account in the members' savings fund and be treated as any other contribution made by the member, with the exception that the contributions submitted by the member in payment of the employer's obligation, together with the interest the director may apply to the employer's contribution, shall be excluded from the calculation of the member's annuity in the event the member selects a benefit with an annuity option.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW under the subchapter heading "PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PLAN I AND PLAN II" to read as follows:

(1) This section applies to the establishment of membership service with employers admitted to the retirement system after the effective date of this act.

(2) For current employees, membership service may be established for periods of employment with an employer prior to the employer's admission into the retirement system by making the payments required by this section.

(c) Option C: The member makes all of the required payments. Each member shall have the option to purchase the membership service.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

April 4, 1995

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1517 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this act is to assist community and economic development by clarifying the authority of all cities, towns, counties, and public corporations to engage in federally guaranteed "conduit financings" and to specify procedures that may be used for such conduit financings. Generally, in such a conduit financing a municipality borrows funds from the federal government or from private sources with the help of federal guarantees, without pledging the credit or tax revenues of the municipality, and then lends the proceeds for private projects that both fulfill public purposes, such as community and economic development, and provide the revenues to retire the municipal borrowings. Such conduit financings include issuance by municipalities of federally guaranteed notes under section 108 of the housing and community development act of 1974, as amended, to finance projects eligible under federal community development block grant regulations.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.21.735 and 1985 c 332 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature hereby declares that carrying out the purposes of federal grants or programs is both a public purpose and an appropriate function for ~~((such))~~ a city, town, county, or public corporation. The provisions of RCW 35.21.730 through 35.21.755 and RCW 35.21.660 and 35.21.670 and the enabling authority herein conferred to implement these provisions shall be construed to accomplish the purposes of RCW 35.21.730 through 35.21.755.

(2) All cities, towns ~~((and))~~, counties, and public corporations shall have the power and authority to enter into agreements with the United States or any agency or department thereof, or any agency of the state government or its political subdivisions, and pursuant to such agreements may receive and expend, or cause to be received and expended by a custodian or trustee, federal or private funds for any lawful public purpose. Pursuant to any such agreement, a city, town, county, or public corporation may issue bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness that are guaranteed or otherwise secured by funds or other instruments provided by or through the federal government or by the federal government or an agency or instrumentality thereof under section 108 of the housing and community development act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 5308), as amended, or its successor, and may agree to repay and reimburse for any liability thereon any guarantor of any such bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued by such jurisdiction or public corporation, or issued by any other public entity. For purposes of this subsection federal housing mortgage insurance shall not constitute a federal guarantee or security.

(3) A city, town, county, or public corporation may pledge, as security for any such bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness or for its obligations to repay or reimburse any guarantor thereof, its right, title, and interest in and to any or all of the following: (a) Any federal grants or payments received or that may be received in the future; (b) any of the following that may be obtained directly or indirectly from the use of any federal or private funds received as authorized in this section: (i) Property and interests therein, and (ii) revenues; (c) any payments received or owing from any person resulting from the lending of any federal or private funds received as authorized in this section; (d) any proceeds under (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection and any securities or investments in which (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection or proceeds thereof may be invested; (e) any interest or other earnings on (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this subsection.

(4) A city, town, county, or public corporation may establish one or more special funds relating to any or all of the sources listed in subsection (3)(a) through (e) of this section and pay or cause to be paid from such fund the principal, interest, premium if any, and other amounts payable on any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness authorized under this section, and pay or cause to be paid any amounts owing on any obligations for repayment or reimbursement of guarantors of any such bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness. A city, town, county, or public corporation may contract with a financial institution either to act as trustee or custodian to receive, administer, and expend any federal or private funds, or to collect, administer, and make payments from any special fund as authorized under this section, or both, and to perform other duties and functions in connection with the transactions authorized under this section. If the bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness and related agreements comply with subsection (6) of this section, then any such funds held by any such trustee or custodian, or by a public corporation, shall not constitute public moneys or funds of any city, town, or county and at all times shall be kept segregated and set apart from other funds.

(5) For purposes of this section, "lawful public purpose" includes, without limitation, any use of funds, including loans thereof to public or private parties, authorized by the agreements with the United States or any department or agency thereof under which federal or private funds are obtained, or authorized under the federal laws and regulations pertinent to such agreements.

(6) If any such federal or private funds are loaned or granted to any private party or used to guarantee any obligations of any private party, then any bonds, notes, other evidences of indebtedness issued or entered into for the purpose of receiving or causing the receipt of such federal or private funds, and any agreements to repay or reimburse guarantors, shall not be obligations of any city, town, or county and shall be payable only from a special fund as authorized in this section or from any of the security pledged pursuant to the authority of this section, or both. Any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness to which this subsection applies shall contain a recital to the effect that they are not obligations of the city, town, or county or the state of Washington and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state or any municipal corporation or subdivision of the state or any agency of any of the foregoing, is pledged to the payment of principal, interest, or premium, if any, thereon. Any bonds, notes, other evidences of indebtedness, or other obligations to which this subsection applies shall not be included in any computation for purposes of limitations on indebtedness. To the extent expressly agreed in writing by a city, town, county, or public corporation, this subsection shall not apply to bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued for, or obligations incurred for, the necessary support of the poor and infirm by that city, town, county, or public corporation.

(7) Any bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued by, or reimbursement obligations incurred by, a city, town, county, or public corporation consistent with the provisions of this section but prior to the effective date of this section, and any loans or pledges made by a city, town, or county in connection therewith substantially consistent with the provisions of this section but prior to the effective date of this section, are deemed authorized and shall not be held void, voidable, or invalid due to any lack of authority under the laws of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The authority granted by this act is additional and supplemental to any other authority of any city, town, county, or public corporation. Nothing in this act may be construed to imply that any of the power or authority granted hereby was not available to any city, town, county, or public corporation under prior law. Any previous actions consistent with the provisions of this act are ratified and confirmed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

(4) An approved in-service training program shall be a program approved by a school district board of directors, which meet standards adopted by the state board of education, and the development of said program has been participated in by an in-service training task force whose membership is the same as provided under RCW 28A.415.040, or a program offered by an education agency approved to provide in-service for the purposes of continuing education as provided for under rules adopted by the state board of education, or both.

An individual may not receive more than the equivalent of two college quarter credits for internships during a calendar-year period. The total number of credits for internships that an individual may earn to advance on the salary schedule developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee or its successor agency is limited to the equivalent of fifteen college quarter credits.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislative office on performance audit and fiscal analysis shall conduct an evaluation, by December 15, 1997, of internship credits granted to teachers to advance on the salary schedule as provided in section 2 of this act. SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1557, with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the business of insurance is one affected by the public interest, requiring that all persons be actuated by good faith, abstain from deception, and practice honesty and equity in all insurance matters. The payment of kickbacks, bribes, or rebates for referrals to service providers, as has been occurring with increasing regularity in this state, results in inflated or fraudulent insurance claims, results in greater insurance costs for all citizens, and is contrary to the public interest. In particular, the process whereby "cappers" buy and sell insurance claims without the controls of professional licensing and discipline creates a fertile ground for illegal activity and has, in this state, resulted in frauds committed against injured claimants, insurance companies, and the public. Operations that engage in this practice have some or all of the following characteristics: Cappers, acting under an agreement or understanding that they will receive a pecuniary benefit, refer claimants with real or imaginary claims, injuries, or property damage to service providers. This sets off a chain of events that corrupts both the provision of services and casualty or property insurance for all citizens. This chain of events includes false claims for services through the use of false estimates of repair; false prescriptions of care or rehabilitative therapy; services that either do not occur or are provided by persons unqualified to provide the services; submission of false claims; submission of and demands for fraudulent costs, lost wages, pain and suffering, and the like; and other devices meant to result in false claims under casualty or property insurance policies or contracts, whether insured or self-insured, and either directly or through subrogation.

The legislature finds that combatting these practices requires laws carefully fashioned to identify practices that mimic customary business practices. The legislature does not intend this law to be used against medical and other business referral practices that are otherwise legal, customary, and unrelated to the furtherance of some or all of the corrupt practices identified in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(1) "Casualty or property insurance" includes both the insurance under which a claim is filed and insurance that receives a claim through subrogation, and means insurance as defined in RCW 48.11.040 and 48.11.070 and includes self-insurance arrangements.

(2) "Claimant" means a person who has or is believed by an actor to have an insurance claim.

(3) "Group-buying arrangement" means an arrangement made by a membership organization having one hundred or more members in which the organization asks for or receives valuable consideration in exchange for referring its members to a service provider; the consideration asked for or received will be or is used to benefit the entire organization, not just one or more individuals in positions of power or influence in the organization; and reasonable efforts are made to disclose to affected members of the organization the nature of the referral relationship, including the nature, extent, amount, and use of the consideration.

(4) "Health care services" means a service provided to a claimant for treatment of physical or mental illness or injury arising in whole or substantial part from trauma.

(5) "Insurance claim" means a claim for payment, benefits, or damages under a contract, plan, or policy of casualty or property insurance.

(6) "Legal provider" means an active member in good standing of the Washington state bar association, and any other person authorized by the Washington state supreme court to engage in full or limited practice of law.

(7) "Service provider" means a person who directly or indirectly provides, advertises, or otherwise claims to provide services.

(8) "Services" means health care services, motor vehicle body or other motor vehicle repair, and preparing, processing, presenting, or negotiating an insurance claim.

(9) "Trauma" means a physical injury or wound caused by external force or violence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) It is unlawful for a person:

(a) Knowing that the payment is for the referral of a claimant to a service provider, either to accept payment from a service provider or, being a service provider, to pay another; or

(b) To provide or claim or represent to have provided services to a claimant, knowing the claimant was referred in violation of (a) of this subsection.

(2) It is unlawful for a service provider to engage in a regular practice of waiving, rebating, giving, paying, or offering to waive, rebate, give, or pay all or any part of a claimant's casualty or property insurance deductible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In a proceeding under this chapter, it is a defense if proven by the defendant by a preponderance of the evidence that, at the time of the offense:

(1) The conduct alleged was authorized by the Rules of Professional Conduct or the Admission to Practice Rules for lawyers as adopted by the state supreme court, Washington business and professions licensing statutes, or rules adopted by the secretary of health or the director of licensing;

(2) The payment was an incidental nonmonetary gift or gratuity, or was purely social in nature;

(3) The conduct alleged was an exercise of a group-buying arrangement;

(4) The conduct alleged was a legal provider paying a service provider's bills from the proceeds of an insurance claim that included the bills;

(5) The conduct alleged was a legal provider paying for services of an expert witness, including reports, consultation, and testimony; or

(6) The conduct alleged was a service provider's purchase of advertising from an unrelated business that provides referrals from advertising for groups of ten or more service providers that are not related to the advertising business and not related to each other.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A violation of section 3 of this act constitutes trafficking in insurance claims. A single violation is a gross misdemeanor. Each subsequent violation, whether alleged in the same or in subsequent prosecutions, is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Independent of authority granted to the attorney general, the prosecuting attorney may petition the superior court for an injunction against a person who has violated this chapter. Remedies in an injunctive action brought by a prosecuting attorney are limited to an order enjoining, restraining, or preventing the doing of any act or practice that constitutes a violation of this chapter and imposing a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars for each violation. The prevailing party in the action may, in the discretion of the court, recover its reasonable investigative costs and the costs of the action including a reasonable attorney's fee. The degree of proof required in an action brought under this section is a preponderance of the evidence. An action under this section must be brought within three years after the violation of this chapter occurred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Whenever a service provider or a person licensed by the state in a business or profession is convicted, enjoined, or found liable for damages or a civil penalty or other equitable relief under section 6 of this act, the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney shall provide written notification of the judgment to the appropriate regulatory or disciplinary body or agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A violation of this chapter is cause for discipline and constitutes unprofessional conduct that could result in any regulatory penalty provided by law, including refusal, revocation, or suspension of a business or professional license, or right or admission to practice. Conduct that constitutes a violation of this chapter is unprofessional conduct in violation of RCW 18.130.180.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Each insurer licensed to write direct insurance in this state shall institute and maintain an insurance antifraud plan. An insurer licensed on the effective date of this act shall file its antifraud plan with the insurance commissioner no later than December 31, 1995. An insurer licensed after the effective date of this act shall file its antifraud plan within six months of licensure. An insurer shall file any change to the antifraud plan with the insurance commissioner within thirty days after the plan has been modified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. An insurer's antifraud plan must establish specific procedures to:

(1) Prevent insurance fraud, including internal fraud involving employees or company representatives, fraud resulting from misrepresentation on applications for insurance coverage, and claims fraud;

(2) Review claims in order to detect evidence of possible insurance fraud and to investigate claims where fraud is suspected;

(3) Report fraud to appropriate law enforcement agencies and cooperate with those agencies in their prosecution of fraud cases;

(4) Undertake civil actions against persons who have engaged in fraudulent activities;

(5) Train company employees and agents in the detection and prevention of fraud.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If after review of an insurer's antifraud plan, the commissioner finds that the plan does not comply with section 10 of this act, the commissioner may disapprove the antifraud plan. Notice of disapproval must include a statement of the specific reasons for disapproval. The insurer shall refile a plan disapproved by the commissioner within sixty days of the date of the notice of disapproval. The commissioner may audit insurers to ensure compliance with antifraud plans.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Each insurer shall annually provide to the insurance commissioner a summary report on actions taken under its antifraud plan to prevent and combat insurance fraud. The report must also include, but not be limited to, measures taken to protect and ensure the integrity of electronic data-processing-generated data and manually compiled data, statistical data on the amount of resources committed to combating fraud, and the amount of fraud identified and recovered during the reporting period. The antifraud plans and summary of the insurer's antifraud activities are not public records and are exempt from chapter 42.17 RCW, are proprietary, are not subject to public examination, and are not discoverable or admissible in civil litigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. An insurer that fails to file a timely antifraud plan or who does not make a good faith attempt to file an antifraud plan that complies with section 10 of this act, is subject to the penalty provisions of RCW 48.01.080, but no penalty may be imposed for the first filing made by an insurer under this chapter. An insurer that fails to follow the antifraud plan is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars for each violation, at the discretion of the commissioner after consideration of all relevant factors, including the willfulness of the violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. It is the duty of all peace officers, law enforcement officers, and law enforcement agencies within this state to investigate, enforce, and prosecute all violations of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows: Information provided under sections 9 through 12 of this act are exempt from disclosure under this chapter.

Sec. 16. RCW 48.01.030 and 1947 c 79 s .01.03 are each amended to read as follows:

But such insurer shall not, by reason of the requirement so to furnish forms, have any responsibility for or with reference to the completion of such proof or the manner of any such completion or attempted completion. If a person makes a claim under a policy of insurance, the insurer may require that the person be examined under an oath administered by a person authorized by state or federal law to administer oaths.

(1) The secretary shall investigate complaints concerning practice by unlicensed persons of a profession or business for which a license is required by the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040. In the investigation of the complaints, the secretary shall have the same authority as provided the secretary under RCW 18.130.050.

(2) The secretary may issue a notice of intention to issue a cease and desist order to any person whom the secretary has reason to believe is engaged in the unlicensed practice of a profession or business for which a license is required by the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040. The person to whom such notice is issued may request an adjudicative proceeding to contest the charges. The request for hearing must be filed within twenty days after service of the notice of intention to issue a cease and desist order. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the secretary may enter a permanent cease and desist order, which may include a civil fine. All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

(3) If the secretary makes a final determination that a person has engaged or is engaging in unlicensed practice, the secretary may issue a cease and desist order. In addition, the secretary may impose a civil fine in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars for each day upon which the person engaged in unlicensed practice of a business or profession for which a license is required by one or more of the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040. The proceeds of such fines shall be deposited to the health professions account.

(4) If the secretary makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the secretary may issue a temporary cease and desist order. The person receiving a temporary cease and desist order shall be provided an opportunity for a prompt hearing. The temporary cease and desist order shall remain in effect until further order of the secretary. The failure to request a prompt or regularly scheduled hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the secretary may enter a permanent cease and desist order, which may include a civil fine.

(5) Neither the issuance of a cease and desist order nor payment of a civil fine shall relieve the person so practicing or operating a business without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy of a cease and desist order or civil fine shall be in addition to any criminal liability. The cease and desist order is conclusive proof of unlicensed practice and may be enforced under RCW 7.21.060. so practicing or operating a business without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(7) Unlicensed practice of a profession or operating a business for which a license is required by the chapters specified in RCW 18.130.040, unless otherwise exempted by law, constitutes a gross misdemeanor for a single violation.
