MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

February 29, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6336 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
"Sec. 1. RCW 9.94A.120 and 1999 c 324 s 2, 1999 c 197 s 4, 1999 c 196 s 5, and 1999 c 147 s 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (4), (5), (6), and (8) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) A persistent offender shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement for life without the possibility of parole or, when authorized by RCW 10.95.030 for the crime of aggravated murder in the first degree, sentenced to death, notwithstanding the maximum sentence under any other law. An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree or assault of a child in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. The foregoing... minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section. In addition, all offenders subject to the provisions of this subsection shall not be eligible for community custody, earned release time, furlough, home detention, partial confinement, work crew, work release, or any other form of early release as defined under RCW 9.94A.150 (1), (2), (3), ((4), (5), (6), (8), or (9), or any other form of authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility while not in the direct custody of a corrections officer or officers during such minimum terms of total confinement except: (a) In the case of an offender in need of emergency medical treatment; (b) for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility in the case of an offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree; or (c) for an extraordinary medical placement when authorized under RCW 9.94A.150(4).

(5)(a) In sentencing a first-time offender the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include a term of community supervision or community custody as specified in (b) of this subsection, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to the period specified in (b) of this subsection, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(iii) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(iv) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(v) Report as directed to a community corrections officer;

(vi) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030 and/or perform community service work.

(b) The terms and statuses applicable to sentences under (a) of this subsection are:

(i) For sentences imposed on or after July 25, 1999, for crimes committed before July 1, 2000, up to one year of community supervision. If treatment is ordered, the period of community supervision may include up to the period of treatment, but shall not exceed two years; and

(ii) For crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000, up to one year of community custody unless treatment is ordered, in which case the period of community custody may include up to the period of treatment, but shall not exceed two years. Any term of community custody imposed under this subsection (5) is subject to conditions and sanctions as authorized in this subsection (5) and in subsection (11)(b) and (c) of this section.

(c) The department shall discharge from community supervision any offender sentenced under this subsection (5) before July 25, 1999, who has served at least one year of community supervision and has completed any treatment ordered by the court.

(6)(a) An offender is eligible for the special drug offender sentencing alternative if:

(i) The offender is convicted of a felony that is not a violent offense or sex offense and the violation does not involve a sentence enhancement under RCW 9.94A.310 (3) or (4);

(ii) The offender has no current or prior convictions for a sex offense or violent offense in this state, another state, or the United States;

(iii) For a violation of the uniform controlled substances act under chapter 69.50 RCW or a criminal solicitation to commit such a violation under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the offense involved only a small quantity of the particular controlled substance as determined by the judge upon consideration of such factors as the weight, purity, packaging, sale price, and street value of the controlled substance; and

(iv) The offender has not been found by the United States attorney general to be subject to a deportation detainer or order.

(b) If the standard range is greater than one year and the sentencing judge determines that the offender is eligible for this option and that the offender and the community will benefit from the use of the special drug offender sentencing alternative, the judge may waive imposition of a sentence within the standard range and impose a sentence that must include a period of total confinement in a state facility for one-half of the midpoint of the standard range. During incarceration in the state facility, offenders sentenced under this subsection shall undergo a comprehensive substance abuse assessment and receive, within available resources, treatment services appropriate for the offender. The treatment services shall be designed by the division of alcohol and substance abuse of the department of social and health services, in cooperation with the department of corrections.

The court shall also impose:

(i) The remainder of the midpoint of the standard range as a term of community custody which must include appropriate substance abuse treatment in a program that has been approved by the division of alcohol and substance abuse of the department of social and health services;

(ii) Crime-related prohibitions including a condition not to use illegal controlled substances; and

(iii) A requirement to submit to urinalysis or other testing to monitor that status.

The court may prohibit the offender from using alcohol or controlled substances and may require that the monitoring for controlled substances be conducted by the department or by a treatment alternatives to street crime program or a comparable court or agency-referred program. The offender may be required to pay thirty dollars per month while on community custody to offset the cost of monitoring. In addition, the court shall impose three or more of the following conditions:

(A) Devote time to a specific employment or training;
(B) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer before any change in the offender's address or employment;
(C) Report as directed to a community corrections officer;
(D) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations;
(E) Perform community service work;
(F) Stay out of areas designated by the sentencing judge;
(G) Such other conditions as the court may require such as affirmative conditions.

If the offender violates any of the sentence conditions in (b) of this subsection, a violation hearing shall be held by the department unless waived by the offender. If the department finds that conditions have been willfully violated, the offender may be reclassified to serve the remaining balance of the original sentence.

(d) The department shall determine the rules for calculating the value of a day fine based on the offender's income and reasonable obligations which the offender has for the support of the offender and any dependents. These rules shall be developed in consultation with the administrator for the courts, the office of financial management, and the commission.

(e) An offender who fails to complete the special drug offender sentencing alternative program or who is administratively terminated from the program shall be reclassified to serve the unexpired term of his or her sentence as ordered by the sentencing judge and shall be subject to all rules relating to earned early release time. An offender who violates any conditions of supervision as defined by the department shall be sanctioned. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, reclassifying the offender to serve the unexpired term of his or her sentence as ordered by the sentencing judge. If an offender is reclassified to serve the unexpired term of his or her sentence, the offender shall be subject to all rules relating to earned early release time.

(7) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement; community service work; until July 1, 2000, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year and on and after July 1, 2000, a term of community custody not to exceed one year, subject to conditions and sanctions as authorized in subsection (11)(b) and (c) of this section; and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(8)(a)(i) When an offender is convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense and has no prior convictions for a sex offense or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following: The defendant's version of the facts and the official version of the facts, the defendant's offense history, an assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors, the offender's social and employment situation, and other evaluation measures used. The report shall set forth the sources of the evaluator's information.

The examiner shall assess and report regarding the defendant's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

(A) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;
(B) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;
(C) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;
(D) Anticipated length of treatment; and
(E) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The evaluator shall be selected by the party making the motion. The defendant shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost.

(ii) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sex offender sentencing alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this subsection. If the court determines that this special sex offender sentencing alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range. If this sentence is less than eleven years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension:

(A) The court shall place the defendant on community custody for the length of the suspended sentence or three years, whichever is greater, and require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department of corrections under subsection (15) of this section;
(B) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court in its discretion shall order outpatient sex offender treatment or inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court, and shall not change providers without court approval after a hearing if the prosecutor or community corrections officer object to the change. In addition, as conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(I) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(II) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(III) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(IV) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030, perform community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(V) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime; and

(C) Sex offenders sentenced under this special sex offender sentencing alternative are not eligible to accrue any earned release time while serving a suspended sentence.

(iii) The sex offender therapist shall submit quarterly reports on the defendant's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, defendant's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the defendant's relative progress in treatment, and any other material as specified by the court at sentencing.

(iv) At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment. Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment professional and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the defendant's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community supervision conditions. Either party may request and the court may order another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The defendant shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may:

(A) Modify conditions of community custody, and either (B) terminate treatment, or (C) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community custody.

(v) If a violation of conditions occurs during community custody, the department shall either impose sanctions as provided for in RCW 9.94A.205(2)(a) or refer the violation to the court and recommend revocation of the suspended sentence as provided for in (a)(vi) of this subsection.

(vi) The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community custody and order execution of the sentence if: (A) The defendant violates the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (B) the court finds that the defendant is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community custody shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(vii) Except as provided in (a)(viii) of this subsection, after July 1, 1991, examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW.

(viii) A sex offender therapist who examines or treats a sex offender pursuant to this subsection (8) does not have to be certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW if the court finds that: (A) The offender has already moved to another state or plans to move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; (B) no certified providers are available for treatment within a reasonable geographical distance of the offender's home; and (C) the evaluation and treatment plan comply with this subsection (8) and the rules adopted by the department of health.

(ix) For purposes of this subsection (8), “victim” means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. “Victim” also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

(x) If the defendant was less than eighteen years of age when the charge was filed, the state shall pay for the cost of initial evaluation and treatment.

(b) When an offender commits any felony sex offense on or after July 1, 1987, and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, request the department of corrections to evaluate whether the offender is amenable to treatment and the department may place the offender in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department.

Except for an offender who has been convicted of a violation of RCW 9A.44.040 or 9A.44.050, if the offender completes the treatment program before the expiration of his or her term of confinement, the department of corrections may request the court to convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and to place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:
(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender’s address or employment;
(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his or her community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his or her community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in this subsection (8)(b) shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987. This subsection (8)(b) does not apply to any crime committed after July 1, 1990.

(c) Offenders convicted and sentenced for a sex offense committed prior to July 1, 1987, may, subject to available funds, request an evaluation by the department of corrections to determine whether they are amenable to treatment. If the offender is determined to be amenable to treatment, the offender may request placement in a treatment program within a correctional facility operated by the department. Placement in such treatment program is subject to available funds.

(d) Within the funds available for this purpose, the department shall develop and monitor transition and relapse prevention strategies, including risk assessment and release plans, to reduce risk to the community after sex offenders’ terms of confinement in the custody of the department.

(9)(a)(ii) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense or a serious violent offense committed after July 1, 1988, but before July 1, 1990, assault in the second degree, assault of a child in the second degree, any crime against a person where it is determined in accordance with RCW 9.94A.125 that the defendant or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon at the time of commission, or any felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW not sentenced under subsection (6) of this section, committed on or after July 1, 1988, and before July 25, 1999, the court shall in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to a one-year term of community placement beginning either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of such community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence.

(ii) Except for persons sentenced under (b) of this subsection or subsection (10)(a) of this section, when a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for a violent offense, any crime against a person under RCW 9.94A.440(2), or any felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW not sentenced under subsection (6) of this section, committed on or after July 25, 1999, but before July 1, 2000, the court shall in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to a one-year term of community placement beginning either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences the offender under this subsection (9)(a)(ii) to the statutory maximum period of confinement, then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of such community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence.

(b) When a court sentences a person to a term of total confinement to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense committed on or after July 1, 1990, but before June 6, 1996, or a serious violent offense, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, committed on or after July 1, 1990, but before July 1, 2000, the court shall in addition to other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community placement for two years or up to the period of earned release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community placement shall begin either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). When the court sentences an offender under this subsection to the statutory maximum period of confinement then the community placement portion of the sentence shall consist entirely of the community custody to which the offender may become eligible, in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2). Any period of community custody actually served shall be credited against the community placement portion of the sentence. Unless a condition is waived by the court, the terms of community placement for offenders sentenced pursuant to this section shall include the following conditions:

(i) The offender shall report to and be available for contact with the assigned community corrections officer as directed;
(ii) The offender shall work at department of corrections-approved education, employment, and/or community service;
(iii) The offender shall not possess or consume controlled substances except pursuant to lawfully issued prescriptions;
(iv) The offender shall pay supervision fees as determined by the department of corrections;
(v) The residence location and living arrangements are subject to the prior approval of the department of corrections during the period of community placement; and
(vi) The offender shall submit to affirmative acts necessary to monitor compliance with the orders of the court as required by the department.
(c) As a part of any sentence imposed under (a) or (b) of this subsection, the court may also order any of the following special conditions:

(i) The offender shall remain within, or outside of, a specified geographical boundary;
(ii) The offender shall not have direct or indirect contact with the victim of the crime or a specified class of individuals;
(iii) The offender shall participate in crime-related treatment or counseling services;
(iv) The offender shall not consume alcohol;
(v) The offender shall comply with any crime-related prohibitions; or
(vi) For an offender convicted of a felony sex offense against a minor victim after June 6, 1996, the offender shall comply with any terms and conditions of community placement imposed by the department of corrections relating to contact between the sex offender and a minor victim or a child of similar age or circumstance as a previous victim.

(d) Prior to transfer to, or during, community placement, any conditions of community placement may be removed or modified so as not to be more restrictive by the sentencing court, upon recommendation of the department of corrections.

(10)(a) When a court sentences a person to the custody of the department of corrections for an offense categorized as a sex offense committed on or after June 6, 1996, but before July 1, 2000, the court shall, in addition to other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community custody for three years or up to the period of earned release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community custody shall begin either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2).

(b) Unless a condition is waived by the court, the terms of community custody shall be the same as those provided for in subsection (9)(b) of this section and may include those provided for in subsection (9)(c) of this section. As part of any sentence that includes a term of community custody imposed under this subsection, the court shall also require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department of corrections under subsection (15) of this section.

(c) At any time prior to the completion of a sex offender's term of community custody, if the court finds that public safety would be enhanced, the court may impose and enforce an order extending any or all of the conditions imposed pursuant to this section for a period up to the maximum allowable sentence for the crime as it is classified in chapter 9A.20 RCW, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community custody. If a violation of a condition extended under this subsection occurs after the expiration of the offender's term of community custody, it shall be deemed a violation of the sentence for the purposes of RCW 9.94A.195 and may be punishable as contempt of court as provided for in RCW 7.21.040.

(11)(a) When a court sentences a person to the custody of the department of corrections for a sex offense, a violent offense, any crime against a person under RCW 9.94A.440(2), or a felony offense under chapter 69.50 or 69.52 RCW not sentenced under subsection (6) of this section, committed on or after July 1, 2000, the court shall in addition to the other terms of the sentence, sentence the offender to community custody for the community custody range or up to the period of earned release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2), whichever is longer. The community custody shall begin either upon completion of the term of confinement or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release in accordance with RCW 9.94A.150 (1) and (2).

(b) Unless a condition is waived by the court, the conditions of community custody shall include those provided for in subsection (9)(b)(i) through (vi) of this section. The conditions may also include those provided for in subsection (9)(c)(i) through (vi) of this section. The court may also order the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs or otherwise perform affirmative conduct reasonably related to the circumstances of the offense, the offender's risk of reoffending, or the safety of the community, and the department shall enforce such conditions pursuant to (f) of this subsection. As part of any sentence that includes a term of community custody imposed under this subsection, the court shall also require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department of corrections under subsection (15) of this section. The department shall assess the offender's risk of reoffense and may establish and modify additional conditions of the offender's community custody based upon the risk to community safety. The department may not impose conditions that are contrary to those ordered by the court and may not contravene or decrease court imposed conditions. The department shall notify the offender in writing of any such conditions or modifications. In setting, modifying, and enforcing conditions of community custody, the department shall be deemed to be performing a quasi-judicial function.

(c) If an offender violates conditions imposed by the court or the department pursuant to this subsection during community custody, the department may transfer the offender to a more restrictive confinement status and impose other available sanctions as provided in RCW 9.94A.205 and 9.94A.207.

(d) Except for terms of community custody under subsection (8) of this section, the department shall discharge the offender from community custody on a date determined by the department, which the department may modify, based on risk and performance of the offender, within the range or at the end of the period of earned release, whichever is later.

(e) At any time prior to the completion or termination of a sex offender's term of community custody, if the court finds that public safety would be enhanced, the court may impose and enforce an order extending any or all of the conditions imposed pursuant to this section for a period up to the maximum allowable sentence for the crime as it is classified in chapter 9A.20 RCW, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community custody. If a violation of a condition extended under this subsection occurs after the expiration of the offender's term of community custody, it shall be deemed a violation of the sentence for the purposes of RCW 9.94A.195 and may be punishable as contempt of court as provided for in RCW 7.21.040. If the court extends a condition beyond the expiration of the term of community custody, the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender's compliance with the condition.

(f) Within the funds available for community custody, the department shall determine conditions and duration of community custody on the basis of risk to community safety, and shall supervise offenders during community custody on the basis of risk to community safety and conditions imposed by the court. The secretary shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this subsection (11)(f).

(g) By the close of the next business day after receiving notice of a condition imposed or modified by the department, an offender may request an administrative review under rules adopted by the department. The condition shall remain in effect unless the reviewing officer finds that it is not reasonably related to any of the following: (i) The crime of conviction; (ii) the offender's risk of reoffending; or (iii) the safety of the community.

(12) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(13)(a) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial obligation, the sentence shall specify the total amount of the legal financial obligation owed, and shall require the offender to pay a specified monthly sum toward that legal financial obligation. Restitution to victims shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations. Any legal financial obligation that is imposed by the court may be collected by the department, which shall deliver the amount paid to the county clerk for credit.

(b) For an offense committed prior to July 1, 2000, the offender's compliance with payment of legal financial obligations shall be supervised by the department for ten years following the entry of the judgment and sentence or ten years following the offender's release from total confinement, whichever period ends later. All monetary payments ordered shall be paid no later than ten years after the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction or the date the sentence was entered unless the superior court extends the criminal judgment an additional ten years. If the legal financial obligations including crime victims' assessments are not paid during the initial ten-year period, the superior court may extend jurisdiction under the criminal judgment an additional ten years as provided in RCW 9.94A.140, 9.94A.142, and 9.94A.145. If jurisdiction under the criminal judgment is extended, the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during the subsequent period.

(c) For an offense committed on or after July 1, 2000, the court shall retain jurisdiction over the offender, for purposes of the offender's compliance with payment of the legal financial obligations, until the obligation is completely satisfied, regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The department of corrections shall supervise the offender's compliance with payment of the legal financial obligations for ten years following the entry of the judgment and sentence or ten years following the offender's release from total confinement, whichever period ends later. The department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during any subsequent period of time the offender remains under the court's jurisdiction.

(d) Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation. Nothing in this section makes the department, the state, or any of its employees, agents, or other persons acting on their behalf liable under any circumstances for the payment of these legal financial obligations. If an order includes restitution as one of the monetary assessments, the county clerk shall make disbursements to victims named in the order.

(14) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1) and 9.94A.142(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision, community placement, or community custody which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(15) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, community placement, community custody, or legal financial obligation shall be under the supervision of the department of corrections and shall follow explicitly the instructions and conditions of the department of corrections. The department may require an offender to perform affirmative acts it deems appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions of the sentence imposed.

(a) The instructions shall include, at a minimum, reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment, and paying the supervision fee assessment.

(b) For offenders sentenced to terms involving community custody for crimes committed on or after June 6, 1996, the department may include, in addition to the instructions in (a) of this subsection, any appropriate conditions of supervision, including but not limited to, prohibiting the offender from having contact with any other specified individuals or specific class of individuals. For offenders sentenced to terms of community custody for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000, the department may additionally require the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs or otherwise perform affirmative conduct, and to obey all laws.

The conditions authorized under this subsection (15)(b) may be imposed by the department prior to or during an offender's community custody term. If a violation of conditions imposed by the court or the department pursuant to subsection (10) of this section occurs during community custody, it shall be deemed a violation of community placement for the purposes of RCW 9.94A.207 and shall authorize the department to transfer an offender to a more restrictive confinement status as provided in RCW 9.94A.205. At any time prior to the completion of an offender's term of community custody, the department may recommend to the court that any or all of the conditions imposed by the court or the department pursuant to subsection (10) or (11) of this section be continued beyond the expiration of the offender's term of community custody as authorized in subsection (10)(c) or (11)(e) of this section.

The department may require offenders to pay for special services rendered on or after July 25, 1993, including electronic monitoring, day reporting, and telephone reporting, dependent upon the offender's ability to pay. The department may pay for these services for offenders who are not able to pay.

(16) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, community custody, or community placement under the supervision of the department of corrections shall not own, use, or possess firearms or ammunition. Offenders who own, use, or are found to be in actual or constructive possession of firearms or ammunition shall be subject to the appropriate violation process and sanctions. "Constructive possession" as used in this subsection means the power and intent to control the firearm or ammunition. "Firearm" as used in this subsection means a weapon or device from which a projectile may be fired by an explosive such as gunpowder.

(17) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(18) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400 (1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210 (2) through (6).

(19) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

(20) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce an order that relates directly to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, prohibiting the offender from having any contact with other specified individuals or a specific class of individuals for a period not to exceed the maximum allowable sentence for the crime, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision or community placement.

(21) The court may order an offender whose sentence includes community placement or community supervision to undergo a mental status evaluation and to participate in available outpatient mental health treatment, if the court finds that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the offender is a mentally ill person as defined in RCW 71.24.025, and that this condition is likely to have influenced the offense. An order requiring mental status evaluation or treatment must be based on a presentence report and, if applicable, mental status evaluations that have been filed with the court to determine the offender's competency or eligibility for a defense of insanity. The court may order additional evaluations at a later date if deemed appropriate.

(22) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the defendant to serve the partial confinement in work release, in a program of home detention, on work crew, or in a combined program of work crew and home detention.

(23) All court-ordered legal financial obligations collected by the department and remitted to the county clerk shall be credited and paid where restitution is ordered. Restitution shall be paid prior to any other payments of monetary obligations.

(24) In sentencing an offender convicted of a crime of domestic violence, as defined in RCW 10.99.020, if the offender has a minor child, or if the victim of the offense for which the offender was convicted has a minor child, the court may, as part of any term of community supervision, order the offender to participate in a domestic violence perpetrator program approved under RCW 26.50.150.

(25)(a) Sex offender examinations and treatment ordered as a special condition of community placement or community custody under this section shall be conducted only by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health under chapter 18.155 RCW unless the court finds that: (i) The offender has already moved to another state or plans to move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; (ii) no certified providers are available for treatment within a reasonable geographic distance of the offender's home, as determined in rules adopted by the secretary; (iii) the evaluation and treatment plan comply with the rules adopted by the department of health; or (iv) the treatment provider is employed by the department. A treatment provider selected by an offender who is not certified by the department of health shall consult with a certified provider during the offender's period of treatment to ensure compliance with the rules adopted by the department of health. The frequency and content of the consultation shall be based on the recommendation of the certified provider.

(b) A sex offender's failure to participate in treatment ordered as a condition of community placement or community custody is a violation that will not be excused on the basis that no treatment provider was located within a reasonable geographic distance of the offender's home.

Sec. 2. RCW 9.94A.142 and 1997 c 121 s 4 and 1997 c 52 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) When restitution is ordered, the court shall determine the amount of restitution due at the sentencing hearing or within one hundred eighty days except as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The court may continue the hearing beyond the one hundred eighty days for good cause. The court shall then set a minimum monthly payment that the offender is required to make towards the restitution that is ordered. The court should take into consideration the total amount of the restitution owed, the offender's present, past, and future ability to pay, as well as any assets that the offender may have. During the period of supervision, the community corrections officer may examine the offender to determine if there has been a change in circumstances that warrants an amendment of the monthly payment schedule. The community corrections officer may recommend a change to the schedule of payment and shall inform the court of the recommended change and the reasons for the change. The sentencing court may then reset the monthly minimum payments based on the report from the community corrections officer of the change in circumstances. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, restitution ordered by a court pursuant to a criminal conviction shall be based on easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for treatment for injury to persons, and lost wages resulting from injury. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses, but may include the costs of counseling reasonably related to the offense. The amount of restitution shall not exceed double the amount of the offender's gain or the victim's loss from the commission of the crime. For the purposes of this section, for an offense committed prior to July 1, 2000, the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction for a term of ten years following the offender's release from total confinement or ten years subsequent to the entry of the judgment and sentence, whichever period (ends later). Prior to the expiration of the initial ten-year period, the superior court may extend jurisdiction under the criminal judgment an additional ten years for payment of restitution. For an offense committed on or after July 1, 2000, the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction until the obligation is completely satisfied, regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The portion of the sentence concerning restitution may be modified as to amount, terms, and conditions during (either the initial ten-year period or subsequent ten-year period if the criminal judgment is extended) any period of time the offender remains under the court's jurisdiction, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision and regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The court may not reduce the total amount of restitution ordered because the offender may lack the ability to pay the total amount. The offender's compliance with the restitution shall be supervised by the department of corrections for ten years following the entry of the judgment and sentence or ten years following the offender's release from total confinement. (If jurisdiction under the criminal judgment is extended, the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during the subsequent period.) The department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during any subsequent period of time the offender remains under the court's jurisdiction.

(2) Restitution shall be ordered whenever the offender is convicted of an offense which results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property or as provided in subsection (3) of this section unless extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment and the court sets forth such circumstances in the record. In addition, restitution shall be ordered to pay for an injury, loss, or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement.

(3) Restitution for the crime of rape of a child in the first, second, or third degree, in which the victim becomes pregnant, shall include: (a) All of the victim's medical expenses that are associated with the rape and resulting pregnancy; and (b) child support for any child born as a result of the rape if child support is ordered pursuant to a civil superior court or administrative order for support for that child. The clerk must forward any restitution payments made on behalf of the victim's child to the Washington state child support registry under chapter 26.23 RCW. Identifying information about the victim and child shall not be included in the order. The defendant shall receive a credit against any obligation owing under the administrative or superior court order for support of the victim's child. For the purposes of this subsection, the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction until the defendant has satisfied support obligations under the superior court or administrative order but not longer than a maximum term of twenty-five years following the offender's release from total confinement or twenty-five years subsequent to the entry of the judgment and sentence, whichever period is longer. The court may not reduce the total amount of restitution ordered because the offender may lack the ability to pay the total amount. The department shall supervise the offender's compliance with the restitution ordered under this subsection.

(4) Regardless of the provisions of subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, the court shall order restitution in all cases where the victim is entitled to benefits under the crime victims' compensation act, chapter 7.68 RCW. If the court does not order restitution and the victim of the crime has been determined to be entitled to benefits under the crime victims' compensation act, the department of labor and industries, as administrator of the crime victims' compensation program, may petition the court within one year of entry of the judgment and sentence for entry of a restitution order. Upon receipt of a petition from the department of labor and industries, the court shall hold a restitution hearing and shall enter a restitution order.

(5) In addition to any sentence that may be imposed, a defendant who has been found guilty of an offense involving fraud or other deceptive practice or an organization which has been found guilty of any such offense may be ordered by the sentencing court to give notice of the conviction to the class of persons or to the sector of the public affected by the conviction or financially interested in the subject matter of the offense by mail, by advertising in designated areas or through designated media, or by other appropriate means.

(6) This section does not limit civil remedies or defenses available to the victim, survivors of the victim, or defendant including support enforcement remedies for support ordered under subsection (3) of this section for a child born as a result of a rape of a child victim. The court shall identify in the judgment and sentence the victim or victims entitled to restitution and what amount is due each victim. The state or victim may enforce the court-ordered restitution in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. Restitution collected through civil enforcement must be paid through the registry of the court and must be distributed proportionately according to each victim's loss when there is more than one victim.

(1) Whenever a person is convicted of a felony, the court may order the payment of a legal financial obligation as part of the sentence. The court must on either the judgment and sentence or on a subsequent order to pay, designate the total amount of a legal financial obligation and segregate this amount among the separate assessments made for restitution, costs, fines, and other assessments required by law. On the same order, the court is also to set a sum that the offender is required to pay on a monthly basis towards satisfying the legal financial obligation. If the court fails to set the offender monthly payment amount, the department shall set the amount. Upon receipt of an offender's monthly payment, after restitution is satisfied, the county clerk shall distribute the payment proportionally among all other fines, costs, and assessments imposed, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(2) If the court determines that the offender, at the time of sentencing, has the means to pay for the cost of incarceration, the court may require the offender to pay for the cost of incarceration at a rate of fifty dollars per day of incarceration. Payment of other court-ordered financial obligations, including all legal financial obligations and costs of supervision shall take precedence over the payment of the cost of incarceration ordered by the court. All funds recovered from offenders for the cost of incarceration in the county jail shall be remitted to the county and the costs of incarceration in a prison shall be remitted to the department of corrections.

(3) The court may add to the judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay a statement that a notice of payroll deduction is to be immediately issued. If the court chooses not to order the immediate issuance of a notice of payroll deduction at sentencing, the court shall add to the judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay a statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income-withholding action may be taken, without further notice to the offender if a monthly court-ordered legal financial obligation payment is not paid when due, and an amount equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month is owed.

If a judgment and sentence or subsequent order to pay does not include the statement that a notice of payroll deduction may be issued or other income-withholding action may be taken if a monthly legal financial obligation payment is past due, the department may serve a notice on the offender stating such requirements and authorizations. Service shall be by personal service or any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(4) All legal financial obligations that are ordered as a result of a conviction for a felony, may also be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action by the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed. Restitution collected through civil enforcement must be paid through the registry of the court and must be distributed proportionately according to each victim's loss when there is more than one victim. The judgment and sentence shall identify the party or entity to whom restitution is owed so that the state, party, or entity may enforce the judgment. If restitution is ordered pursuant to RCW 9.94A.140(3) or 9.94A.142(3) to a victim of rape of a child and the victim's child born from the rape, the Washington state child support registry shall be identified as the party to whom payments must be made. Restitution obligations arising from the rape of a child in the first, second, or third degree that result in the pregnancy of the victim may be enforced for the time periods provided under RCW 9.94A.140(3) and 9.94A.142(3). All other legal financial obligations for an offense committed prior to July 1, 2000, may be enforced at any time during the ten-year period following the offender's release from total confinement or within ten years of entry of the judgment and sentence, whichever period ((is longer)) ends later. Prior to the expiration of the initial ten-year period, the superior court may extend the criminal judgment an additional ten years for payment of legal financial obligations including crime victims' assessments. ((If jurisdiction under the criminal judgment is extended, the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during the subsequent period)) All other legal financial obligations for an offense committed on or after July 1, 2000, may be enforced at any time the offender remains under the court's jurisdiction. The department of corrections shall supervise the offender's compliance with payment of the legal financial obligations for ten years following the entry of the judgment and sentence, or ten years following the offender's release from total confinement, whichever period ends later. The department is not responsible for supervision of the offender during any subsequent period of time the offender remains under the court's jurisdiction. Independent of the department, the party or entity to whom the legal financial obligation is owed shall have the authority to utilize any other remedies available to the party or entity to collect the legal financial obligation.

(5) In order to assist the court in setting a monthly sum that the offender must pay during the period of supervision, the offender is required to report to the department for purposes of preparing a recommendation to the court. When reporting, the offender is required, under oath, to truthfully and honestly respond to all questions concerning present, past, and future earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. The offender is further required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department.

(6) After completing the investigation, the department shall make a report to the court on the amount of the monthly payment that the offender should be required to make towards a satisfied legal financial obligation.

(7) During the period of supervision, the department may make a recommendation to the court that the offender's monthly payment schedule be modified so as to reflect a change in financial circumstances. If the department sets the monthly payment amount, the department may modify the monthly payment amount without the matter being returned to the court. Also, during the period of supervision, the offender may be required at the request of the department to report to the department for the purposes of reviewing the appropriateness of the collection schedule for the legal financial obligation. During this reporting, the offender is required under oath to truthfully and honestly respond to all questions concerning earning capabilities and the location and nature of all property or financial assets. Also, the offender is required to bring any and all documents as requested by the department in order to prepare the collection schedule.

(8) After the judgment and sentence or payment order is entered, the department shall for any period of supervision be authorized to collect the legal financial obligation from the offender. Any amount collected by the department shall be remitted daily to the county clerk for the purposes of disbursements. The department is authorized to accept credit cards as payment for a legal financial obligation, and any costs incurred related to accepting credit card payments shall be the responsibility of the offender.

(9) The department or any obligee of the legal financial obligation may seek a mandatory wage assignment for the purposes of obtaining satisfaction for the legal financial obligation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.201.

(10) The requirement that the offender pay a monthly sum towards a legal financial obligation constitutes a condition or requirement of a sentence and the offender is subject to the penalties as provided in RCW 9.94A.200 for noncompliance.

(11) The county clerk shall provide the department with individualized monthly billings for each offender with an unsatisfied legal financial obligation and shall provide the department with notice of payments by such offenders no less frequently than weekly.

(12) The department may arrange for the collection of unpaid legal financial obligations through the county clerk, or through another entity if the clerk does not assume responsibility for collection. The costs for collection services shall be paid by the offender.

Sec. 4. RCW 9.94A.170 and 1999 c 196 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A term of confinement ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from confinement without the prior approval of the entity in whose custody the offender has been placed. A term of partial confinement shall be tolled during any period of time spent in total confinement pursuant to a new conviction or pursuant to sanctions for violation of sentence conditions on a separate felony conviction.

(2) Any term of community custody ordered in a sentence pursuant to this chapter, community placement, or community supervision shall be tolled by any period of time during which the offender has absented himself or herself from supervision without prior approval of the entity under whose supervision the offender has been placed.

(3) Any period of community custody, community placement, or community supervision shall be tolled during any period of time the offender is in confinement for any reason. However, if an offender is detained pursuant to RCW 9.94A.207 or 9.94A.195 and is later found not to have violated a condition or requirement of community custody, community placement, or community supervision, time spent in confinement due to such detention shall not toll the period of community custody, community placement, or community supervision.

(4) For terms of confinement or community custody ordered in a sentence, community placement, or community supervision, the date for the tolling of the sentence shall be established by the entity responsible for the confinement or community custody.

Sec. 5. RCW 10.82.090 and 1995 c 291 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, financial obligations imposed in a judgment shall bear interest from the date of the judgment until payment, at the rate applicable to civil judgments. All nonrestitution interest retained by the court shall be split twenty-five percent to the state treasurer for deposit in the public safety and education account as provided in RCW 43.08.250, twenty-five percent to the state treasurer for deposit in the judicial information system account as provided in RCW 2.68.020, twenty-five percent to the county current expense fund, and twenty-five percent to the county current expense fund to fund local courts.

(2) With respect to financial obligations imposed for offenses committed on or after July 1, 2000, interest shall not accrue during any period of time the offender is in total confinement in a state correctional institution as defined in RCW 9.94.049, an institution operated or utilized by the department of corrections, an out-of-state correctional institution, or a federal correctional institution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 4 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately.

Correct the title, and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

February 29, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6555 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

The secretary shall:
(1)(a) Consult with relevant qualified professionals to develop a set of minimum guidelines to be used for identifying all children who are in a state-assisted support system, whether at-home or out-of-home, who are likely to need long-term care or assistance, because they face physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other long-term challenges;
(b) The guidelines must, at a minimum, consider the following criteria for identifying children in need of long-term care or assistance:
(i) Placement within the foster care system for two years or more;
(ii) Multiple foster care placements;
(iii) Repeated unsuccessful efforts to be placed with a permanent adoptive family;
(iv) Chronic behavioral or educational problems;
(v) Repetitive criminal acts or offenses;
(vi) Failure to comply with court-ordered disciplinary actions and other imposed guidelines of behavior, including drug and alcohol rehabilitation; and
(vii) Chronic physical, emotional, medical, mental, or other similar conditions necessitating long-term care or assistance;
(2) Develop programs that are necessary for the long-term care of children and youth that are identified for the purposes of this section. Programs must: (a) Effectively address the educational, physical, emotional, mental, and medical needs of children and youth; and (b) incorporate an array of family support options, to individual needs and choices of the child and family. The programs must be ready for implementation by January 1, 1995;
(3) Conduct an evaluation of all children currently within the foster care agency caseload to identify those children who meet the criteria set forth in this section. The evaluation shall be completed by January 1, 1994. All children entering the foster care system after January 1, 1994, must be evaluated for identification of long-term needs within ((thirty)) sixty days of placement;
(4) By region, report to the legislature on the following using aggregate data every six months beginning December 31, 2000:
(a) The number of children evaluated during the first sixty days of placement as required in subsection (3) of this section;

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has adopted ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8425 with the following amendment(s):

Beginning on page 1, line 1, strike the remainder of the resolution and insert the following:
WHEREAS, Chapter 370, Laws of 1985, created the Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board to plan, coordinate, and provide policy analysis for higher education and to represent the broad public interest above the interests of individual colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, Section 4, chapter 370, Laws of 1985, requires the board to prepare and update a master plan for higher education and requires the Legislature, by concurrent resolution, to "approve or recommend changes" to the master plan and its subsequent updates; and

WHEREAS, The provisions of the master plan that are approved by the Legislature become state higher education policy unless legislation is subsequently enacted to revise those policies; and

WHEREAS, The Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board submitted the initial master plan to the Legislature in December 1987, and submitted updates to the plan in December 1992, January 1996, and January 2000; and

WHEREAS, During the process used to develop the 2000 master plan, the board consulted with students and families, educators, business, labor, and civic organizations representing a cross-section of Washington citizens; and

WHEREAS, The board learned that the need and expectation for higher education among Washington citizens will continue to grow through the next decade, because of population increases as well as the demands of the state's increasingly technology-based economy; and

WHEREAS, The board reported that Washington's public and private colleges and universities and career schools would need to provide opportunities for additional students by the year 2010; and

WHEREAS, The board has spelled out its commitment to continuing to expand enrollment opportunities for Washington students, to keep public higher education affordable for students and families, and to provide financial assistance to those who cannot otherwise afford to go to college; and

WHEREAS, The board identified five specific goals for the state to address higher education needs in the next ten years:

1. Making student learning the yardstick by which institutional accountability, effectiveness, and efficiency is measured;
2. Linking students' participation in higher education to their achievement in the K-12 grades;
3. Providing the information citizens need to make the best use of the learning pathways available to them;
4. Enhancing higher education opportunity through greater use of e-learning technologies and by increasingly efficient use of public facilities; and
5. Helping colleges and universities meet student needs and compete in an increasingly competitive and complex education marketplace;

WHEREAS, The board challenged itself, students, and families, the public and private institutions, the private sector, and the state to each accept its individual responsibilities and to collaborate in the development of solutions; and

WHEREAS, The board described an implementation plan to guide the state's response to the needs of higher education and to estimate the costs of the strategies;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, the House of Representatives concurring, That the Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board be commended for its dedication and commitment to the State of Washington in producing the 2000 update of the master plan for higher education titled "The 21st Century Learner"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature thank the board for describing many of the challenges facing the state in its attempts to provide the postsecondary education and training our citizens need to fulfill their personal goals and participate fully in the world of the twenty-first century; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature reaffirm its commitment to create postsecondary opportunities in response to actual demand from citizens for access to high-quality education and training programs; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board reexamine its assumptions with regard to projected upper division and graduate enrollments, and that the plan reexamine the role of the community and technical colleges in meeting the postsecondary needs of a significant portion of Washington's population; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board reexamine its assumptions with regard to the capital needs of the community and technical colleges and the four-year institutions of higher education, including their branch campuses; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a joint select committee on the future facility needs of higher education be established to review the proposed higher education enrollment levels in the state master plan, review the facility needs for future students, and review the funding options for additional higher education facilities in the state. The committee shall consist of eight members, four members each selected by the President of the Senate and the Co-Speakers of the House of Representatives and that the committee include members from the House Capital Budget Committee, House Appropriations Committee, House Higher Education Committee, Senate Ways and Means Committee, and Senate Higher Education Committee. The joint select committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the Legislature at the regular session held in 2001; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature approve the following recommendations of the 2000 update of the master plan:

1. The goal that, by the year 2010, Washington's system of postsecondary education needs to provide opportunities for additional students to enroll in high-quality education and training programs;
(2) That solutions to the challenge may be found in strategies that (a) make student learning the yardstick by which institutional accountability, effectiveness, and efficiency is measured; and (b) link students' participation in higher education to their achievement in the K-12 grades;

(3) Provide the information citizens need to make the best use of the learning pathways available to them, and support outreach efforts designed to ensure that the higher education system reflects the diversity of the state's population;

(4) Expand the use of e-learning technologies and use public facilities to the fullest extent possible; and

(5) Help colleges and universities meet student needs and compete in an increasingly competitive and complex education marketplace; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board examine alternatives to address the operating and capital budget needs that are identified in the 2000 update of the master plan; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board proceed with the implementation of the 2000 update of the master plan as described in "The 21st Century Learner" and report to the 2001 Legislature on progress toward implementing its strategies and on the results of its review of projected enrollments and capital needs assumptions.

The cities were opposed to that and felt that that was a zoning issue rather than--and this bill essentially deals with trying to develop additional funds for community outdoor athletic facilities."

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6220 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 46.96 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the terms of a franchise agreement, a manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative, or an agent, officer, parent company, wholly or partially owned subsidiary, affiliated entity, or other person controlled by or under common control with a manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative, shall not:

(a) Discriminate between new motor vehicle dealers by selling or offering to sell a like vehicle to one dealer at a lower actual price than the actual price offered to another dealer for the same model similarly equipped;

(b) Discriminate between new motor vehicle dealers by selling or offering to sell parts or accessories to one dealer at a lower actual price than the actual price offered to another dealer;

(c) Discriminate between new motor vehicle dealers by using a promotion plan, marketing plan, or other similar device that results in a lower actual price on vehicles, parts, or accessories being charged to one dealer over another dealer;

(d) Discriminate between new motor vehicle dealers by adopting a method, or changing an existing method, for the allocation, scheduling, or delivery of new motor vehicles, parts, or accessories to its dealers that is not fair, reasonable, and equitable. Upon the request of a dealer, a manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative shall disclose in writing to the dealer the method by which new motor vehicles, parts, and accessories are allocated, scheduled, or delivered to its dealers handling the same line or make of vehicles;

(e) Give preferential treatment to some new motor vehicle dealers over others by refusing or failing to deliver, in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order, to a dealer holding a franchise for a line or make of motor vehicles sold or distributed by the manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative, a new vehicle, parts, or accessories, if the vehicle, parts, or accessories are being delivered to other dealers, or require a dealer to purchase unreasonable advertising displays or other materials, or unreasonably require a dealer to remodel or renovate existing facilities as a prerequisite to receiving a model or series of vehicles;

(f) Compete with a new motor vehicle dealer by acting in the capacity of a new motor vehicle dealer, or by owning, operating, or controlling, whether directly or indirectly, a motor vehicle dealership in this state. It is not, however, a violation of this subsection for:

(i) A manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative to own or operate a dealership for a temporary period, not to exceed two years, during the transition from one owner of the dealership to another where the dealership was previously owned by a franchised dealer and is currently for sale to any qualified independent person at a fair and reasonable price. The temporary operation may be extended for one twelve-month period on petition of the temporary operator to the department. The matter will be handled as an adjudicative proceeding under chapter 34.05 RCW. A dealer who is a franchisee of the petitioning manufacturer or distributor may intervene and participate in a proceeding under this subsection (1)(f)(i). The temporary operator has the burden of proof to show justification for the extension and a good faith effort to sell the dealership to an independent person at a fair and reasonable price;

(ii) A manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative to own or operate a dealership in conjunction with an independent person in a bona fide business relationship where the purpose of broadening the diversity of its dealer body and enhancing opportunities for qualified persons who are part of a group who have historically been underrepresented in its dealer body, or other qualified persons who lack the resources to purchase a dealership outright, and where the independent person: (A) Has made a significant, bona fide capital investment in the dealership that is subject to loss; (B) has an ownership interest in the dealership; and (C) operates the dealership under a bona fide written agreement with the manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative under which he or she will acquire all of the ownership interest in the dealership within a reasonable period of time and under reasonable terms and conditions. The manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative has the burden of proof of establishing that the acquisition of the dealership by the independent person was made within a reasonable period of time and under reasonable terms and conditions;

(iii) A manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative to own or operate a dealership in conjunction with an independent person in a bona fide business relationship where the independent person: (A) Has made a significant, bona fide capital investment in the dealership that is subject to loss; (B) has an ownership interest in the dealership; and (C) operates the dealership under a bona fide written agreement with the manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative under which he or she will acquire all of the ownership interest in the dealership within a reasonable period of time and under reasonable terms and conditions. The manufacturer, distributor, factory representative; branch, or factory representative has the burden of proof of establishing that the acquisition of the dealership by the independent person was made within a reasonable period of time and under reasonable terms and conditions. The number of dealerships operated under this subsection (1)(f)(iii) may not exceed four percent rounded up to the nearest whole number of a manufacturer's total of new motor vehicle dealer franchises in this state;

(iv) A truck manufacturer to own, operate, or control a new motor vehicle dealership that sells only trucks of that manufacturer's line make with a gross vehicle weight rating of 12,500 pounds or more, and the truck manufacturer has been continuously engaged in the retail sale of the trucks at least since January 1, 1993; or

(v) A manufacturer to own, operate, or control a new motor vehicle dealership trading exclusively in a single line make of the manufacturer if (A) the manufacturer does not own, directly or indirectly, in the aggregate, in excess of forty-five percent of the total ownership interest in the dealership, (B) at the time the manufacturer first acquires ownership or assumes operation or control of any such dealership, the distance between any dealership thus owned, operated, or controlled and the nearest new motor vehicle dealership trading in the same line make of vehicle and in which the manufacturer has no ownership or control is not less than fifteen miles and complies with the applicable provisions in the relevant market area sections of this chapter, (C) all of the manufacturer's franchise agreements confer rights on the dealer of that line make to develop and operate within a defined geographic territory or area, as many dealership facilities as the dealer and the manufacturer agree are appropriate, and (D) as of January 1, 2000, the manufacturer had no more than four new motor vehicle dealers of that manufacturer's line make in this state, and at least half of those dealers owned and operated two or more dealership facilities in the geographic territory or area covered by their franchise agreements with the manufacturer;

(g) Compete with a new motor vehicle dealer by owning, operating, or controlling, whether directly or indirectly, a service facility in this state for the repair or maintenance of motor vehicles under the manufacturer's new car warranty and extended warranty. Nothing in this subsection (1)(g), however, prohibits a manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative from owning or operating a service facility for the purpose of providing or performing maintenance, repair, or service work on motor vehicles that are owned by the manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative;

(h) Use confidential or proprietary information obtained from a new motor vehicle dealer to unfairly compete with the dealer. For purposes of this subsection (1)(h), "confidential or proprietary information" means trade secrets as defined in RCW 19.108.010, business plans, marketing plans or strategies, customer lists, contracts, sales data, revenues, or other financial information.

(2) Subsection (1)(a), (b), and (c) of this section do not apply to sales to a motor vehicle dealer: (a) For resale to a federal, state, or local government agency; (b) where the vehicles will be sold or donated for use in a program of driver's education; (c) where the sale is made under a manufacturer's bona fide promotional program offering sales incentives or rebates; (d) where the sale of parts or accessories is under a manufacturer's bona fide quantity discount program; or (e) where the sale is made under a manufacturer's bona fide fleet vehicle discount program. For purposes of this subsection, "fleet" means a group of fifteen or more new motor vehicles purchased or leased by a dealer at one time under a single purchase or lease agreement for use as part of a fleet, and where the dealer has been assigned a fleet identifier code by the department of licensing.

The following definitions apply to this section:

(a) "Actual price" means the price to be paid by the dealer less any incentive paid by the manufacturer, distributor, factory branch, or factory representative, whether paid to the dealer or the ultimate purchaser of the vehicle.

(b) "Control" or "controlling" means (i) the possession of, title to, or control of ten percent or more of the voting equity interest in a person, whether directly or indirectly through a fiduciary, agent, or other intermediary, or (ii) the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, through director control, by contract, or otherwise, except as expressly provided under the franchise agreement.

(c) "Motor vehicles" does not include trucks that are 14,001 pounds gross vehicle weight and above or recreational vehicles as defined in RCW 43.22.335.

(d) "Operate" means to manage a dealership, whether directly or indirectly.

(e) "Own" or "ownership" means to hold the beneficial ownership of one percent or more of any class of equity interest in a dealership, whether the interest is that of a shareholder, partner, limited liability company member, or otherwise. To hold an ownership interest means to have possession of, title to, or control of the ownership interest, whether directly or indirectly through a fiduciary, agent, or other intermediary.

(4) A violation of this section is deemed to affect the public interest and constitutes an unlawful and unfair practice under chapter 19.86 RCW. A person aggrieved by an alleged violation of this section may petition the department to have the matter handled as an adjudicative proceeding under chapter 34.05 RCW.”

Correct the title., and the same are herewith transmitted.

Sec. 35. RCW 43.21I.005 and 1997 c 449 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature declares that Washington's waters have irreplaceable value for the citizens of the state. These waters are vital habitat for numerous and diverse marine life and wildlife and the source of recreation, aesthetic pleasure, and pride for Washington's citizens. These waters are also vital for much of Washington's economic vitality.

The legislature finds that the transportation of oil on these waters creates a great potential hazard to these important natural resources. The legislature also finds that there is no state agency responsible for maritime safety to ensure this state's interest in preserving these resources.
The legislature therefore finds that in order to protect these waters it is necessary to establish an office of marine safety which will have the responsibility to promote the safety of marine transportation in Washington.

(2) The legislature finds that adequate funding is necessary for the state to continue its priority focus on the prevention of oil spills, as well as maintain a strong oil spill response, planning, and environmental restoration capability. The legislature further finds that the long-term environmental health of the state's waters depends upon the strength and vitality of its oil spill prevention and response program that fosters planning, coordination, and incident command. To that end, the merger of the office of marine safety with the department of ecology shall: Ensure coordination via streamlining the marine safety functions of two agencies into one; provide a focused prevention and response program under a single administration; generate efficient incident command response capability and continue to meet the challenges threatening marine safety and the environment; and increase accountability to the public, the executive branch, and the legislature.

(3) It is the intent of the legislature that the state's oil spill prevention, response, planning, and environmental restoration activities be sufficiently funded to maintain a strong prevention and response program. It is further the intent of the legislature that the merger of the office of marine safety with the department of ecology be accomplished in an organizational manner that maintains a priority focus and position for the oil spill prevention and response program. The merger shall allow for ready identification of the program by the public and ensure no diminution in the state's commitment to marine safety and environmental protection as follows:

(a) The director of the department of ecology shall consolidate all of the agency's oil spill prevention, planning, and response programs and personnel into a division or equivalent unit of organization within the department. The division shall be managed by a single administrator who is an assistant director or person of equivalent status in the department's organization. The administrator shall report directly to the director.
(b) The consolidated oil spill program unit within the department shall maintain prevention of oil spills as a specific program.
(c) The department shall identify and participate in resolving threats to safety of marine transportation and the impact of marine transportation on the environment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. The following acts or parts of acts are each decodified:
(1) RCW 43.21I.005 (Findings--Consolidation of oil spill programs--Administrator of consolidated oil spill program);

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

March 2, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5212 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature intends to improve student safety by helping school districts revise and update their crisis and emergency plans and by providing additional training to staff in the implementation of those plans. The legislature finds that all-hazard crisis planning will prevent catastrophic events from escalating into school-wide chaos, will minimize damage, and will help students, staff, and parents recover from the crisis.

(2) In addition to planning for a crisis, schools should plan to incorporate character education into each school's curriculum and crisis management plans to prevent a crisis resulting from violent acts by students. The legislature finds that academic success and school safety rest on a foundation of character. The legislature further finds that parents are the first and primary moral educators of children, and that schools have a role in reinforcing the character traits and values deemed important by parents and the local community. The legislature further finds that when character education is integrated into a school's curriculum there is a decline of incidences involving violence, bullying, and harassment. The legislature intends to encourage school districts to integrate character education into each school's curriculum and crisis management plans. The legislature further intends that local communities, in partnership with schools or school districts, will have the responsibility for determining which character traits and values are included in each district or school's character education program.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.305.130 and 1997 c 13 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the state board of education shall:

(1) Approve or disapprove the program of courses leading to teacher, school administrator, and school specialized personnel certification offered by all institutions of higher education within the state which may be accredited and whose graduates may become entitled to receive such certification.

(2) Conduct every five years a review of the program approval standards, including the minimum standards for teachers, administrators, and educational staff associates, to reflect research findings and assure continued improvement of preparation programs for teachers, administrators, and educational staff associates.

(3) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from any institution of higher education in this state relative to such certification as provided for in subsection (1) of this section, and prepare a list of accredited institutions of higher education of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded such certificates.

(4)(a) The state board of education shall adopt rules to allow a teacher certification candidate to fulfill, in part, teacher preparation program requirements through work experience as a classified teacher's aide in a public school or private school meeting the requirements of RCW 28A.195.010. The rules shall include, but are not limited to, limitations based upon the recency of the teacher preparation candidate's teacher aide work experience, and limitations based on the amount of work experience that may apply toward teacher preparation program requirements under this chapter.

(b) The state board of education shall require that at the time of the individual's enrollment in a teacher preparation program, the supervising teacher and the building principal shall jointly provide to the teacher preparation program of the higher education institution at which the teacher candidate is enrolled, a written assessment of the performance of the teacher candidate. The assessment shall contain such information as determined by the state board of education and shall include: Evidence that at least fifty percent of the candidate's work as a classified teacher's aide was involved in instructional activities with children under the supervision of a certificated teacher and that the candidate worked a minimum of six hundred thirty hours for one school year; the type of work performed by the candidate; and a recommendation of whether the candidate's work experience as a classified teacher's aide should be substituted for teacher preparation program requirements. In compliance with such rules as may be established by the state board of education under this section, the teacher preparation programs of the higher education institution where the candidate is enrolled shall make the final determination as to what teacher preparation program requirements may be fulfilled by teacher aide work experience.

(5) Supervise the issuance of such certificates as provided for in subsection (1) of this section and specify the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools by rule in accordance with RCW 28A.410.010.

(6) Accredit, subject to such accreditation standards and procedures as may be established by the state board of education, all schools that apply for accreditation, and approve, subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.195.010, private schools carrying out a program for any or all of the grades kindergarten through twelve: PROVIDED, That no private school may be approved that operates a kindergarten program only: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no public or private schools shall be placed upon the list of accredited schools so long as secret societies are knowingly allowed to exist among its students by school officials: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board may elect to require all or certain classifications of the public schools to conduct and participate in such preaccreditation examination and evaluation processes as may now or hereafter be established by the board.

(7) Make rules governing the establishment in any existing nonhigh school district of any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve. Before any such program or any new grades are established the district must obtain prior approval of the state board.

(8) Prepare such outline of study for the common schools as the board shall deem necessary, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall seek to secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools.

(9) Continuously reevaluate courses and adopt and enforce rules within the common schools so as to meet the educational needs of students and articulate with the institutions of higher education and unify the work of the public school system.

(10) Carry out board powers and duties relating to the organization and reorganization of school districts under chapters 28A.315, 28A.323, and 28A.343 RCW (28A.315.010 through 28A.315.680 and 28A.315.000).

(11) By rule adopted upon the advice of the chief of the Washington state patrol, through the director of fire protection, and in consultation with the superintendent of public instruction and the state military department, provide for the development by school districts and schools of comprehensive all-hazard crisis and emergency plans. The rules must require the plans to:
(a) Include how to prepare for, manage, and evaluate site-based responses to school crises, including but not limited to natural disasters and violent acts or serious injuries or death of students or staff;

(b) Provide for instruction of pupils in the public and private schools carrying out a K through 12 program, or any part thereof, so that in case of sudden crisis or emergency they shall be able to leave their particular school building in the shortest possible time or take such other steps as the particular emergency demands; (such rules and regulations shall be published and distributed to certificated personnel throughout the state whose duties shall include a familiarization therewith as well as the means of implementation thereof at their particular school)

(c) Be updated by school districts and schools at least once every five years or more frequently if circumstances change;

(d) Be developed by school districts in consultation with local law enforcement, fire, emergency medical services, and emergency management agencies;

(e) Include who to contact in an emergency;

(f) Include procedures for leaving a building safely;

(g) Include procedures for responding to an emergency;

(h) Include procedures for training students and certificated and classified staff;

(i) Include procedures for practicing the plan;

(j) Include procedures for notifying certificated and classified staff about the plan; and

(k) Include procedures for notifying parents and community members about the plan.

(12) Hear and decide appeals as otherwise provided by law.

The state board of education is given the authority to promulgate information and rules dealing with the prevention of child abuse for purposes of curriculum use in the common schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 28A.305 RCW to read as follows:

The comprehensive all-hazard crisis and emergency plan development assistance program is created. The superintendent of public instruction shall administer the program to provide funds, to the extent funds are appropriated, to school districts to update the crisis and emergency response plan for every school in their district and to train staff in the implementation of the plans. The superintendent of public instruction shall provide funds to school districts based upon the district developing an effective plan for updating and implementing its comprehensive all-hazard crisis and emergency response plan. The funds shall be used for developing the plan, staff training on implementing the plan, materials, and practicing the plan. In distributing funds to school districts, priority shall be given to school districts that have not received funds for crisis planning.

Sec. 4. RCW 28A.150.211 and 1994 c 245 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature also recognizes that certain basic values and character traits are essential to individual liberty, fulfillment, and happiness. However, these values and traits are not intended to be assessed or be standards for graduation. The legislature intends that local communities have the responsibility for determining how these values and character traits are learned as determined by consensus at the local level. These values and traits include the importance of:

(1) Honesty, integrity, and trust;

(b) Respect for self and others;

(c) Responsibility for personal actions and commitments;

(d) Self-discipline and moderation;

(e) Diligence and a positive work ethic;

(f) Respect for law and authority;

(g) Healthy and positive behavior; and

(h) Family as the basis of society.

(2) Each school district is strongly encouraged to develop and implement a character education program that incorporates into its curriculum the character traits and values included in subsection (1) of this section. Each school district is also strongly encouraged to develop its character education program in partnership with parents and all interested stakeholders in its local community. When developing a character education program, school districts shall comply with the open public meetings act in chapter 42.30 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Subject to availability of amounts appropriated for this specific purpose, the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall provide to each school district that develops and implements a character education program, in partnership with parents and all interested stakeholders in its local community under the provisions of RCW 28A.150.211, an equal amount per full-time equivalent elementary school student for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2001. However, the minimum allocation to a district shall be two hundred dollars for each elementary school operated by the district.

(2) A school district that receives funding in accordance with this section shall certify to the superintendent of public instruction that funds received were expended for the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill or chapter number, is not provided by June 30, 2000, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act is null and void.”
Correct the title., and the same are herewith transmitted.

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk
CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McAuliffe: "A point of order, Mr. President. I request a scope and object ruling from the President, as I believe the House amendment alters the scope of the bill. The scope and object of the bill, in its original form and as passed by the Senate, relates to the implementation of school districts and schools for comprehensive emergency plans that address how to respond to emergencies within the school. The Character Education program, as encompassed within the House amendment are programs that incorporate specific values and character traits within each school district curriculum. The amendment is not within the scope of this bill, because safety plans are administrative plans that address emergencies in schools. Character Education programs are student curriculums. The House amendment alters the intent language in an attempt to tie the two subjects together. The two issues, administrative plans and student curriculums are different."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McAuliffe to the scope and object of the House striking amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5212, the President finds that the measure relates only to the implementation by schools and school districts of comprehensive emergency response plans.

"The House striking amendment would encourage school districts to implement character education programs, and would set up a method of distribution of funds to districts that implement such programs. The amendment concerns curriculum, and does not relate to the implementation of emergency response plans.

"The President, therefore, finds that the House striking amendment does change the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is well taken."

The President ruled that the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5212 to be out of order.

MOTION

Senator McAuliffe moved that the Senate refuse to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5212 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator West: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Did the President rule that the amendment was out of scope and object?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "That is correct."

Senator West: "Mr. President, by tradition in the Senate, when a Senate Bill has House amendments that are outside of the scope and object, the bill is immediately sent to committee and is no longer considered by the body."

President Owen: "The President believes that you would be correct if he had dropped the gavel on the ruling, but she made the motion prior to that, to ask the House to recede from the amendment."

Senator West: "Mr. President, when I asked you if you had ruled, you stated, ‘yes.’ Now, you are saying, because you had not dropped the gavel that you had not ruled--if I am to interpret what you are saying correctly."

President Owen: "Well, Senator West, I think we are dancing around semantics. Just give me a moment--just give me a moment here, so that I can answer you correctly."

Senator West: "I just want it to be clear for a permanent record, because this could be important in the future."

FURTHER REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT
President Owen: "Senator West, the President will try to explain this clearly if he can. You are correct. I did make the ruling. However, the thing that would follow would be that the President would refer the bill back to the committee. That is what I did not drop the gavel on. If I don’t drop the gavel prior to referring the bill back to committee, she has the opportunity to ask the House to recede therefrom."

Senator West: "Thank you, Mr. President. The clarification will be helpful in the future."

Further debate ensued.

The question before the Senate is the motion by Senator McAuliffe to refuse to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5212 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

The motion by Senator McAuliffe carried and the Senate did not concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5212 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Just for my own information, when an amendment is out of scope and object, is it possible to concur?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "No."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5739 with the following amendment(s):

On page 2, after line 32, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. RCW 43.103.100 and 1991 c 176 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The council shall research and develop an appropriate training component on the subject of sudden, unexplained child death, including but not limited to sudden infant death syndrome. The training component shall include, at a minimum:

(1)(a) Medical information on sudden, unexplained child death for first responders, including awareness and sensitivity in dealing with families and child care providers, and the importance of forensically competent death scene investigation;

(1)(b) Information on community resources and support groups available to assist families who have lost a child to sudden, unexplained death, including sudden infant death syndrome; and

(1)(c) Development and adoption of an up-to-date protocol of investigation in cases of sudden, unexplained child death, including the importance of a consistent policy of thorough death scene investigation, and an autopsy in unresolved cases as appropriate;

(2) The council shall work with volunteer groups with expertise in the area of sudden, unexplained child death, including but not limited to the SIDS (Northwest Regional Center at Children's Hospital, the Washington chapter of the national SIDS) foundation, the Washington and the Washington association of county officials.

(Upon development of an appropriate curriculum, agreed upon by the council, the training module shall be offered to first responders, coroners, medical examiners, prosecuting attorneys serving as coroners, and investigators, both voluntarily through their various associations and as a course offering at the criminal justice training center.)

(3) Basic training for death investigators offered by the Washington association of coroners and medical examiners and the criminal justice training commission shall include a module which specifically addresses the investigations of the sudden unexplained deaths of children under the age of three. The training module shall include a scene investigation protocol endorsed or developed by the council. A similar training curriculum shall be required for city and county law enforcement officers and emergency medical personnel certified by the department of health as part of their basic training through the criminal justice training commission or the department of health emergency medical training certification program."
(4) Each county shall use a protocol that has been endorsed or developed by the council for scene investigations of the sudden unexplained deaths of children under the age of three. The council may utilize guidelines from the center for disease control and other appropriate resources.

(5) The council shall develop a protocol for autopsies of children under the age of three whose deaths are sudden and unexplained. This protocol shall be used by pathologists who are not certified by the American board of pathology in forensic pathology, and who are providing autopsy services to coroners and medical examiners.

Sec. 4. RCW 68.50.104 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 16 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The cost of autopsy shall be borne by the county in which the autopsy is performed, except when requested by the department of labor and industries, in which case, the department shall bear the cost of such autopsy, and except when performed on a body of an infant under the age of three years by the University of Washington medical school, in which case the medical school shall bear the cost of such autopsy.

(2) Except as provided in (c) of this subsection, when the county bears the cost of an autopsy, it shall be reimbursed from the death investigations account, established by RCW 43.79.445, as follows:

(((a))) (a) Up to forty percent of the cost of contracting for the services of a pathologist to perform an autopsy; ((and (b))) (b) Up to twenty-five percent of the salary of pathologists who are primarily engaged in performing autopsies and are (i) county coroners or county medical examiners, or (ii) employees of a county coroner or county medical examiner; and

(c) When the county bears the cost of an autopsy of a child under the age of three whose death was sudden and unexplained, the county shall be reimbursed for the expenses of the autopsy when the death scene investigation and the autopsy have been conducted under RCW 43.103.100 (4) and (5), and the autopsy has been done at a facility designed for the performance of autopsies.

Payments from the account shall be made pursuant to biennial appropriation: PROVIDED, That no county may reduce funds appropriated for this purpose below 1983 budgeted levels, and the same are herewith transmitted.

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk
TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Heavey: "A point of order, Mr. President. I believe the House amendment expands the scope and object of the Senate Bill and respectfully request your ruling thereon. Substitute House Bill No. 2476 was amended on to Senate Bill No. 5739. First, Senate Bill No. 5739 amends Chapter 70 RCW and Substitute House Bill No. 2476 amended different chapters--Chapter 43 and 68.

"Senate Bill No. 5739 and Substitute House Bill No. 2476 have nothing in common. Substitute House Bill No. 2476 addresses death investigations and autopsies of sudden unexplained deaths of children under the age of three. Senate Bill No. 5739 solely addresses certificates of death and expands the category of medical personnel who may be presented with a certificate."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Heavey to the scope and object of the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5739, the President finds that the measure permits certain persons to certify death or fetal death when he or she is the last person in attendance of the deceased; namely, a person in charge of interment, a physician’s assistant, or an advanced registered nurse.

"The House amendment would do several things unrelated to the bill which concern the investigation of sudden and unexplained deaths of children under the age of three, including (1) requiring training for death investigators; (2) establishing protocols for autopsies; and (3) permitting counties to reimburse costs of autopsies.

"The President, therefore, finds that the House amendment does change the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is well taken."

The President ruled the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5739 to be out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Heavey, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 5739 and asks the House to recede therefrom.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Honeyford, Senator Long was excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Franklin, Senator Kline was excused.

PRIOR ADJUDICATIONS

NOTE: References in the grid to days or weeks mean periods of confinement.

1. The vertical axis of the grid is the current offense category. The current offense category is determined by the offense of adjudication.
2. The horizontal axis of the grid is the number of prior adjudications included in the juvenile's criminal history. Each prior felony adjudication shall count as one point. Each prior violation, misdemeanor, and gross misdemeanor adjudication shall count as 1/4 point. Fractional points shall be rounded down.
3. The standard range disposition for each offense is determined by the intersection of the column defined by the prior adjudications and the row defined by the current offense category.
4. RCW 13.40.180 applies if the offender is being sentenced for more than one offense.
5. A current offense that is a violation is equivalent to an offense category of E. However, a disposition for a violation shall not include confinement.
OR

CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY DISPOSITION ALTERNATIVE

If the juvenile offender is subject to a standard range disposition of local sanctions or 15 to 36 weeks of confinement and has not committed an A- or B+ offense, the court may impose a disposition under RCW 13.40.160((4)) and 13.40.165.

OR

MANIFEST INJUSTICE

If the court determines that a disposition under option A or B would effectuate a manifest injustice, the court shall impose a disposition outside the standard range under RCW 13.40.160(2)."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Patterson, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6154. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6154, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6154, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; Nays, 1;Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting nay: Senator Heavey - 1.

Excused: Senators Franklin, Hargrove, Honeyford and Sellar - 4.

SENATE BILL NO. 6154, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goings, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243, deferred on second reading March 2, 2000, after the President ruled that the bill was not properly before the Senate at that time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Goings: "Mr. President, a point of order. We now have before us Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243. In light of the adoption of the Senate operating budget yesterday afternoon, March 5, I ask the President to reconsider his decision on this issue on whether it is properly before the Senate at this time."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Johnson: "A point of order. Mr. President, this bill is before us and the President ruled that it wasn't properly before us, because of the cutoff resolution. I believe the pathway for it to be properly before us would be a motion and that would require that the mover of the motion goes to the ninth order of business."

Debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Johnson, I'll try to walk through this carefully. In dealing with Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243, once the President made his ruling, Senator Betti Sheldon made the motion that the bill hold its place on the second reading calendar, which passed without objection. So, the issue now is--it is on the second reading calendar--the point that Senator Goings has raised is now can it be considered in light of the passage of the budget.

"The President believes that the bill can be brought up, but that it would have to be reviewed to determine whether or not it can be properly before us. We will now be dealing with Senator Goings point of order for the President to decide. He would allow arguments on either side if the members wish to do so."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY
Senator West: "The last several days the President has ruled that he allows one on each side to speak. The Senator from the Twenty-fifth district has already spoken. Granted, he did not say much, but he spoke."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Two issues--one, Senator Goings did not argue for his position. He stated his point of order. Two, the President also ruled that the number of people presenting on each side is at the President's discretion. However, we have only had an argument on one side. Senator Kline."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goings, further consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243 was deferred and the bill held its place on the second reading calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goings, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

President Pro Tempore Wojahn assumed the Chair.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6264 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature has recognized the need to develop a graduated licensing system in light of the disproportionately high incidence of motor vehicle crashes involving youthful motorists. This system will improve highway safety by progressively developing and improving the skills of younger drivers in the safest possible environment, thereby reducing the number of vehicle crashes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An intermediate license authorizes the holder to drive a motor vehicle under the conditions specified in this section. An applicant for an intermediate license must be at least sixteen years of age and:
   (a) Have possessed a valid instruction permit for a period of not less than six months;
   (b) Have passed a driver licensing examination administered by the department;
   (c) Have passed a course of driver's education in accordance with the standards established in RCW 46.20.100;
   (d) Present certification by his or her parent, guardian, or employer to the department stating (i) that the applicant has had at least fifty hours of driving experience, ten of which were at night, during which the driver was supervised by a person at least twenty-one years of age who has had a valid driver's license for at least three years, and (ii) that the applicant has not been issued a notice of traffic infraction or cited for a traffic violation that is pending at the time of the application for the intermediate license;
   (e) Not have been convicted of or found to have committed a traffic violation within the last six months before the application for the intermediate license; and
   (f) Not have been adjudicated for an offense involving the use of alcohol or drugs during the period the applicant held an instruction permit.

(2) For the first six months after the issuance of an intermediate license or until the holder reaches eighteen years of age, whichever occurs first, the holder of the license may not operate a motor vehicle that is carrying any passengers under the age of twenty who are not members of the holder's immediate family as defined in RCW 42.17.020. For the remaining period of the intermediate license, the holder may not operate a motor vehicle that is carrying more than three passengers who are under the age of twenty who are not members of the holder's immediate family.

(3) The holder of an intermediate license may not operate a motor vehicle between the hours of 1 a.m. and 5 a.m. except when the holder is accompanied by a parent, guardian, or a licensed driver who is at least twenty-five years of age.
(4) It is a traffic infraction for the holder of an intermediate license to operate a motor vehicle in violation of the restrictions imposed under this section.

(5) Enforcement of this section by law enforcement officers may be accomplished only as a secondary action when a driver of a motor vehicle has been detained for a suspected violation of this title or an equivalent local ordinance or some other offense.

(6) An intermediate licensee may drive at any hour without restrictions on the number of passengers in the vehicle if necessary for agricultural purposes.

(7) An intermediate licensee may drive at any hour without restrictions on the number of passengers in the vehicle if, for the twelve-month period following the issuance of the intermediate license, he or she:

(a) Has not been involved in an automobile accident; and
(b) Has not been convicted or found to have committed a traffic offense described in chapter 46.61 RCW or violated restrictions placed on an intermediate licensee under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 46.20 RCW to read as follows:

If a person issued an intermediate license is convicted of or found to have committed a traffic offense described in chapter 46.61 RCW or violated restrictions placed on an intermediate license under section 2 of this act:

(1) On the first such conviction or finding the department shall mail the parent or guardian of the person a letter warning the person of the provisions of this section;

(2) On the second such conviction or finding, the department shall suspend the person's intermediate driver's license for a period of six months or until the person reaches eighteen years of age, whichever occurs first, and mail the parent or guardian of the person a notification of the suspension;

(3) On the third such conviction or finding, the department shall suspend the person's intermediate driver's license until the person reaches eighteen years of age, and mail the parent or guardian of the person a notification of the suspension.

For the purposes of this section, a single ticket for one or more traffic offenses constitutes a single traffic offense.

Sec. 4. RCW 46.20.091 and 1999 c 6 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application. In order to apply for a driver's license or instruction permit the applicant must provide his or her:

(a) Name of record, as established by documentation required under RCW 46.20.035;
(b) Date of birth, as established by satisfactory evidence of age;
(c) Sex;
(d) Washington residence address;
(e) Description;
(f) Driving licensing history, including:

(i) Whether the applicant has ever been licensed as a driver or chauffeur and, if so, (A) when and by what state or country; (B) whether the license has ever been suspended or revoked; and (C) the date of and reason for the suspension or revocation; or

(ii) Whether the applicant's application to another state or country for a driver's license has ever been refused and, if so, the date of and reason for the refusal; and

(g) Any additional information required by the department.

(2) Sworn statement. An application for an instruction permit or for an original driver's license must be made upon a form provided by the department. The form must include a section for the applicant to indicate whether he or she has received driver training and, if so, where.

The identifying documentation verifying the name of record must be accompanied by the applicant's written statement that it is valid. The information provided on the form must be sworn to and signed by the applicant before a person authorized to administer oaths. An applicant who makes a false statement on an application for a driver's license or instruction permit is guilty of false swearing, a gross misdemeanor, under RCW 9A.72.040.

(3) Driving records from other jurisdictions. If a person previously licensed in another jurisdiction applies for a Washington driver's license, the department shall request a copy of the applicant's driver's record from the other jurisdiction. The driving record from the other jurisdiction becomes a part of the driver's record in this state.

(4) Driving records to other jurisdictions. If another jurisdiction requests a copy of a person's Washington driver's record, the department shall provide a copy of the record. The department shall forward the record without charge if the other jurisdiction extends the same privilege to the state of Washington. Otherwise the department shall charge a reasonable fee for transmittal of the record.

Sec. 5. RCW 46.20.105 and 1987 c 46 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may provide a method to distinguish the driver's license of a person who is under the age of twenty-one from the driver's license of a person who is twenty-one years of age or older.

(2) An instruction permit must be identified as an "instruction permit" and issued in a distinctive form as determined by the department.

(3) An intermediate license must be identified as an "intermediate license" and issued in a distinctive form as determined by the department.
Sec. 6. RCW 46.20.161 and 1999 c 308 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The department, upon receipt of a fee of twenty-five dollars, unless the driver's license is issued for a period other than five years, in which case the fee shall be five dollars for each year that the license is issued, which includes the fee for the required photograph, shall issue to every qualifying applicant a driver's license. A driver's license issued to a person under the age of eighteen is an intermediate license, subject to the restrictions imposed under section 2 of this act, until the person reaches the age of eighteen. The license must include a distinguishing number assigned to the licensee, the name of record, date of birth, Washington residence address, photograph, a brief description of the licensee, and either a facsimile of the signature of the licensee or a space upon which the licensee shall write his or her usual signature with pen and ink immediately upon receipt of the license. No license is valid until it has been so signed by the licensee.

Sec. 7. RCW 46.20.311 and 1998 c 212 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as specifically permitted under section 3 of this act, RCW 46.20.289, 46.20.291(5), or 74.20A.320, whenever the license or driving privilege of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, pursuant to chapter 46.29 RCW, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291 or 46.20.308, the suspension shall remain in effect until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, the department shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the alcoholism agency or probation department designated under RCW 46.61.5056 and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified. Whenever the license or driving privilege of any person is suspended as a result of certification of noncompliance with a child support order under chapter 74.20A RCW or a residential or visitation order, the suspension shall remain in effect until the person provides a release issued by the department of social and health services stating that the person is in compliance with the order.

(b)(i) The department shall not issue to the person a new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reissue fee of twenty dollars.

(ii) If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, or is the result of administrative action under RCW 46.20.308, the reissue fee shall be one hundred fifty dollars.

(2)(a) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (i) After the expiration of one year from the date the license or privilege to drive was revoked; (ii) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.20.3101 or 46.61.5055; (iii) after the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; or (iv) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.20.265.

(b)(i) After the expiration of the appropriate period, the person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with a reissue fee in the amount of twenty dollars.

(ii) If the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.20.308, 46.61.502, or 46.61.504, the reissue fee shall be one hundred fifty dollars. If the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, the department shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the alcoholism agency or probation department designated under RCW 46.61.5056 and shall deny reissuance of a license, permit, or privilege to drive until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified.

(c) Except for a revocation under RCW 46.20.265, the department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. For a revocation under RCW 46.20.265, the department shall not issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant that person the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways.

(3)(a) Whenever the driver's license of any person is suspended pursuant to Article IV of the nonresident violators compact or RCW 46.23.020 or 46.20.289 or 46.20.291(5), the department shall not issue to the person any new or renewal license until the person pays a reissue fee of twenty dollars.

(b) If the suspension is the result of a violation of the laws of this or any other state, province, or other jurisdiction involving (i) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (ii) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, the reissue fee shall be one hundred fifty dollars.

(b) For a conviction of driving while suspended or revoked in the second degree, as provided by subsection (1)(b) of this section, not issue a new license or restore the driving privilege for an additional period of one year from and after the date the person would otherwise have been entitled to apply for a new license or have his or her driving privilege restored; or

(c) Not extend the period of suspension or revocation if the conviction was under subsection (1)(c) of this section. If the conviction was under subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section and the court recommends against the extension and the convicted person has obtained a valid driver's license, the period of suspension or revocation shall not be extended.

Sec. 9. RCW 28A.220.030 and 1979 c 158 s 196 are each amended to read as follows:

MOTION

Senator Eide moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6264. Debate ensued.
Senator Finkbeiner demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Morton: "Senator Eide, if I understood you correctly, you mentioned that these students--these youth-- had not driven before. Do they not have to pass a qualified driver’s ed course in this state before obtaining their license?"

Senator Eide: "Thank you, Senator. Yes, they do. However, they have other adult instructors in the car with them and their parents. What I have given is from the age of fifteen to sixteen, before you get your intermediate drivers’s license, fifty hours now of driving and ten of those must be at night.

"Now, from there, the six months, which gives them the opportunity to not have any adult in their car--to get a little bit of the feeling of the road. Now, I wanted to tell you also that there is an exception and that is if you are on ag--anything to do with agriculture. Over in the House, they did amend the bill from 1:00 a.m to 5:00 a.m. We had 12:00 a.m. I understand harvesting happens sometimes at night and so they have made sure that was okay. I just wanted to make sure that it is very clear that between fifteen and sixteen--they have a little bit more experience behind the wheel.

"The intent of this bill, ladies and gentlemen, has not changed--it has not changed and what it is giving them is more experience. After the six months, they may have passengers, but during the first six months they don’t have to have an adult in the car with them. You know, I told my daughter, when she was fifteen years old, eleven months and twenty-nine days that she was not old enough to drive yet. So, I am just going to tell my son who is thirteen, who says, ‘Mom, is this bill going to affect me,’ and I said, ‘You darn right it will, because Buddy, I am going to save you and I am going to save your friend’s life, too.’

"So, now what I am going to tell him when he is sixteen and a half, that is, ‘That is when you can go out and drive with your buddies, but for the first six months, honey, I want you to drive by yourself, so that you can get the feel of the road and feel confident with yourself.’"

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Costa: "Senator Eide, would you please tell the body what the effective date of the bill is, as it came back from the House?"

Senator Eide: "Yes, thanks for asking that question, Senator. It is July 1, 2001."

Senator Costa: "So, Senator Eide, it is my understanding that you have promised to work with folks who have concerns about the exceptions that were taken out in the House, to insure that those do get into law before this bill actually becomes effective?"

Senator Eide: "Yes, Senator, in fact I have discussed that with the good Senator from the Twenty-fourth district. This is laying the foundation today ladies and gentlemen. The foundation--it is a strong one, but it can be built upon."

Senator Costa: "Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. PATIENT RIGHTS. It is the intent of the legislature that enrollees covered by health plans receive quality health care designed to maintain and improve their health. The purpose of this act is to ensure that health plan enrollees:

(1) Have improved access to information regarding their health plans;
(2) Have sufficient and timely access to appropriate health care services, and choice among health care providers;

(5) Are protected from unnecessary invasions of health care privacy; and
(6) Are assured that personal health care information will be used only as necessary to obtain and pay for health care or to improve the quality of care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.02 RCW to read as follows:

HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY. Third-party payors shall not release health care information disclosed under this chapter, except to the extent that health care providers are authorized to do so under RCW 70.02.050.

Sec. 3. RCW 70.02.110 and 1991 c 335 s 402 are each amended to read as follows:

HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY. (1) In making a correction or amendment, the health care provider shall:

(a) Add the amending information as a part of the health record; and
(b) Mark the challenged entries as corrected or amended entries and indicate the place in the record where the corrected or amended information is located, in a manner practicable under the circumstances.

(2) If the health care provider maintaining the record of the patient's health care information refuses to make the patient's proposed correction or amendment, the provider shall:

(a) Permit the patient to file as a part of the record of the patient's health care information a concise statement of the correction or amendment requested and the reasons therefor; and
(b) Mark the challenged entry to indicate that the patient claims the entry is inaccurate or incomplete and indicate the place in the record where the statement of disagreement is located, in a manner practicable under the circumstances.

(3) A health care provider who receives a request from a patient to amend or correct the patient's health care information, as provided in RCW 70.02.100, shall forward any changes made in the patient's health care information or health record, including any statement of disagreement, to any third-party payor or insurer to which the health care provider has disclosed the health care information that is the subject of the request.

Sec. 4. RCW 70.02.900 and 1991 c 335 s 901 are each amended to read as follows:

HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY. (1) This chapter does not restrict a health care provider, a third-party payor, or an insurer regulated under Title 48 RCW from complying with obligations imposed by federal or state health care payment programs or federal or state law.

(2) This chapter does not modify the terms and conditions of disclosure under Title 51 RCW and chapters 13.50, 26.09, 70.24, 70.39, 70.96A, 71.05, and 71.34 RCW and rules adopted under these provisions.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. HEALTH INFORMATION PRIVACY. (1) Health carriers and insurers shall adopt policies and procedures that conform administrative, business, and operational practices to protect an enrollee's right to privacy or right to confidential health care services granted under state or federal laws.

(2) The commissioner may adopt rules to implement this section after considering relevant standards adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations and the national association of insurance commissioners, and after considering the effect of those standards on the ability of carriers to undertake enrollee care management and disease management programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. INFORMATION DISCLOSURE. (1) A carrier that offers a health plan may not offer to sell a health plan to an enrollee or to any group representative, agent, employer, or enrollee representative without first offering to provide, and providing upon request, the following information before purchase or selection:

(a) A listing of covered benefits, including prescription drug benefits, if any, a copy of the current formulary, if any is used, definitions of terms such as generic versus brand name, and policies regarding coverage of drugs, such as how they become approved or taken off the formulary, and how consumers may be involved in decisions about benefits;

(b) A listing of exclusions, reductions, and limitations to covered benefits, and any definition of medical necessity or other coverage criteria upon which they may be based;

(c) A statement of the carrier's policies for protecting the confidentiality of health information;

(d) A statement of the cost of premiums and any enrollee cost-sharing requirements;

(e) A summary explanation of the carrier's grievance process;

(f) A statement regarding the availability of a point-of-service option, if any, and how the option operates; and

(g) A convenient means of obtaining lists of participating primary care and specialty care providers, including disclosure of network arrangements that restrict access to providers within any plan network. The offer to provide the information referenced in this subsection (1) must be clearly and prominently displayed on any information provided to any prospective enrollee or to any prospective group representative, agent, employer, or enrollee representative.

(2) Upon the request of any person, including a current enrollee, prospective enrollee, or the insurance commissioner, a carrier must provide written information regarding any health care plan it offers, that includes the following written information:

(a) Any documents, instruments, or other information referred to in the medical coverage agreement;

(b) A full description of the procedures to be followed by an enrollee for consulting a provider other than the primary care provider and whether the enrollee's primary care provider, the carrier's medical director, or another entity must authorize the referral;

(c) Procedures, if any, that an enrollee must first follow for obtaining prior authorization for health care services;

(d) A written description of any reimbursement or payment arrangements, including, but not limited to, capitation provisions, fee-for-service provisions, and health care delivery efficiency provisions, between a carrier and a provider or network;

(e) Descriptions and justifications for provider compensation programs, including any incentives or penalties that are intended to encourage providers to withhold services or minimize or avoid referrals to specialists;

(f) An annual accounting of all payments made by the carrier which have been counted against any payment limitations, visit limitations, or other overall limitations on a person's coverage under a plan;

(g) A copy of the carrier's grievance process for claim or service denial and for dissatisfaction with care; and

(h) Accreditation status with one or more national managed care accreditation organizations, and whether the carrier tracks its health care effectiveness performance using the health employer data information set (HEDIS), whether it publicly reports its HEDIS data, and how interested persons can access its HEDIS data.

(3) Each carrier shall provide to all enrollees and prospective enrollees a list of available disclosure items.

(4) Nothing in this section requires a carrier or a health care provider to divulge proprietary information to an enrollee, including the specific contractual terms and conditions between a carrier and a provider.

(5) No carrier may advertise or market any health plan to the public as a plan that covers services that help prevent illness or promote the health of enrollees unless it:

(a) Provides all clinical preventive health services provided by the basic health plan, authorized by chapter 70.47 RCW;

(b) Monitors and reports annually to enrollees on standardized measures of health care and satisfaction of all enrollees in the health plan. The state department of health shall recommend appropriate standardized measures for this purpose, after consideration of national standardized measurement systems adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations and state agencies that purchase managed health care services; and

(c) Makes available upon request to enrollees its integrated plan to identify and manage the most prevalent diseases within its enrolled population, including cancer, heart disease, and stroke.

(6) No carrier may preclude or discourage its providers from informing an enrollee of the care he or she requires, including various treatment options, and whether in the providers' view such care is consistent with the plan's health coverage criteria, or otherwise covered by the enrollee's medical coverage agreement with the carrier. No carrier may prohibit, discourage, or penalize a provider otherwise practicing in compliance with the law from advocating on behalf of an enrollee with a carrier. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize a provider to bind a carrier to pay for any service.

(7) No carrier may preclude or discourage enrollees or those paying for their coverage from discussing the comparative merits of different carriers with their providers. This prohibition specifically includes prohibiting or limiting providers participating in those discussions even if critical of a carrier.

(8) Each carrier must communicate enrollee information required in this act by means that ensure that a substantial portion of the enrollee population can make use of the information.

(9) The commissioner may adopt rules to implement this section. In developing rules to implement this section, the commissioner shall consider relevant standards adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations and state agencies that purchase managed health care services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. ACCESS TO APPROPRIATE HEALTH SERVICES. (1) Each enrollee in a health plan must have adequate choice among health care providers.

(2) Each carrier must allow an enrollee to choose a primary care provider who is accepting new enrollees from a list of participating providers. Enrollees also must be permitted to change primary care providers at any time with the change becoming effective no later than the beginning of the month following the enrollee's request for the change.

(3) Each carrier must have a process whereby an enrollee with a complex or serious medical or psychiatric condition may receive a standing referral to a participating specialist for an extended period of time.

(4) Each carrier must provide for appropriate and timely referral of enrollees to a choice of specialists within the plan if specialty care is warranted. If the type of medical specialist needed for a specific condition is not represented on the specialty panel, enrollees must have access to nonparticipating specialty health care providers.

(5) Each carrier shall provide enrollees with direct access to the participating chiropractor of the enrollee's choice for covered chiropractic health care without the necessity of prior referral. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent carriers from restricting enrollees to seeing only providers who have signed participating provider agreements or from utilizing other managed care and cost containment techniques and processes. For purposes of this subsection, "covered chiropractic health care" means covered benefits and limitations related to chiropractic health services as stated in the plan's medical coverage agreement, with the exception of any provisions related to prior referral for services.

(6) Each carrier must provide, upon the request of an enrollee, access by the enrollee to a second opinion regarding any medical diagnosis or treatment plan from a qualified participating provider of the enrollee's choice.

(7) Each carrier must cover services of a primary care provider whose contract with the plan or whose contract with a subcontractor is being terminated by the plan or subcontractor without cause under the terms of that contract for at least sixty days following notice of termination to the enrollees or, in group coverage arrangements involving periods of open enrollment, only until the end of the next open enrollment period. The provider's relationship with the carrier or subcontractor must be continued on the same terms and conditions as those of the contract the plan or subcontractor is terminating, except for any provision requiring that the carrier assign new enrollees to the terminated provider.

(8) Every carrier shall meet the standards set forth in this section and any rules adopted by the commissioner to implement this section. In developing rules to implement this section, the commissioner shall consider relevant standards adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations and state agencies that purchase managed health care services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. HEALTH CARE DECISIONS. (1) Carriers that offer a health plan shall maintain a documented utilization review program description and written utilization review criteria based on reasonable medical evidence. The program must include a method for reviewing and updating criteria. Carriers shall make clinical protocols, medical management standards, and other review criteria available upon request to participating providers.

(2) The commissioner shall adopt, in rule, standards for this section after considering relevant standards adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations and state agencies that purchase managed health care services.

(3) A carrier shall not be required to use medical evidence or standards in its utilization review of religious nonmedical treatment or religious nonmedical nursing care.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. RETROSPECTIVE DENIAL OF SERVICES. (1) A health carrier that offers a health plan shall not retrospectively deny coverage for emergency and nonemergency care that had prior authorization under the plan's written policies at the time the care was rendered.

(2) The commissioner shall adopt, in rule, standards for this section after considering relevant standards adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations and state agencies that purchase managed health care services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. GRIEVANCE PROCESS. (1) Each carrier that offers a health plan must have a fully operational, comprehensive grievance process that complies with the requirements of this section and any rules adopted by the commissioner to implement this section. For the purposes of this section, the commissioner shall consider grievance process standards adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations and state agencies that purchase managed health care services.
(2) Each carrier must process as a complaint an enrollee's expression of dissatisfaction about customer service or the quality or availability of a health service. Each carrier must implement procedures for registering and responding to oral and written complaints in a timely and thorough manner.

(3) Each carrier must provide written notice to an enrollee or the enrollee's designated representative, and the enrollee's provider, of its decision to deny, modify, reduce, or terminate payment, coverage, authorization, or provision of health care services or benefits, including the admission to or continued stay in a health care facility.

(4) Each carrier must process as an appeal an enrollee's written or oral request that the carrier reconsider: (a) Its resolution of a complaint made by an enrollee; or (b) its decision to deny, modify, reduce, or terminate payment, coverage, authorization, or provision of health care services or benefits, including the admission to, or continued stay in, a health care facility. A carrier must not require that an enrollee file a complaint prior to seeking appeal of a decision under (b) of this subsection.

(5) To process an appeal, each carrier must:
   (a) Provide written notice to the enrollee when the appeal is received;
   (b) Assist the enrollee with the appeal process;
   (c) Make its decision regarding the appeal within thirty days of the date the appeal is received. An appeal must be expedited if the enrollee's provider or the carrier's medical director reasonably determines that following the appeal process response timelines could seriously jeopardize the enrollee's life, health, or ability to regain maximum function. The decision regarding an expedited appeal must be made within seventy-two hours of the date the appeal is received;
   (d) Cooperate with a representative authorized in writing by the enrollee;
   (e) Consider information submitted by the enrollee;
   (f) Investigate and resolve the appeal; and
   (g) Provide written notice of its resolution of the appeal to the enrollee and, with the permission of the enrollee, to the enrollee's providers. The written notice must explain the carrier's decision and the supporting coverage or clinical reasons and the enrollee's right to request independent review of the carrier's decision under section 11 of this act.

(6) Written notice required by subsection (3) of this section must explain:
   (a) The carrier's decision and the supporting coverage or clinical reasons; and
   (b) The carrier's appeal process, including information, as appropriate, about how to exercise the enrollee's rights to obtain a second opinion, and how to continue receiving services as provided in this section.

(7) When an enrollee requests that the carrier reconsider its decision to modify, reduce, or terminate an otherwise covered health service that an enrollee is receiving through the health plan and the carrier's decision is based upon a finding that the health service, or level of health service, is no longer medically necessary or appropriate, the carrier must continue to provide that health service until the appeal is resolved. If the resolution of the appeal or any review sought by the enrollee under section 11 of this act affirms the carrier's decision, the enrollee may be responsible for the cost of this continued health service.

(8) Each carrier must provide a clear explanation of the grievance process upon request, upon enrollment to new enrollees, and annually to enrollees and subcontractors.

(9) Each carrier must ensure that the grievance process is accessible to enrollees who are limited English speakers, who have literacy problems, or who have physical or mental disabilities that impede their ability to file a grievance.

(10) Each carrier must: Track each appeal until final resolution; maintain, and make accessible to the commissioner for a period of three years, a log of all appeals; and identify and evaluate trends in appeals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. INDEPENDENT REVIEW OF HEALTH CARE DISPUTES. (1) There is a need for a process for the fair consideration of disputes relating to decisions by carriers that offer a health plan to deny, modify, reduce, or terminate coverage of or payment for health care services for an enrollee.

(2) An enrollee may seek review by a certified independent review organization of a carrier's decision to deny, modify, reduce, or terminate coverage of or payment for a health care service, after exhausting the carrier's grievance process and receiving a decision that is unfavorable to the enrollee, or after the carrier has exceeded the timelines for grievances provided in section 10 of this act, without good cause and without reaching a decision.

(3) The commissioner must establish and use a rotational registry system for the assignment of a certified independent review organization to each dispute. The system should be flexible enough to ensure that an independent review organization has the expertise necessary to review the particular medical condition or service at issue in the dispute.

(4) Carriers must provide to the appropriate certified independent review organization, not later than the third business day after the date the carrier receives a request for review, a copy of:
   (a) Any medical records of the enrollee that are relevant to the review;
   (b) Any documents used by the carrier in making the determination to be reviewed by the certified independent review organization;
   (c) Any documentation and written information submitted to the carrier in support of the appeal; and
(d) A list of each physician or health care provider who has provided care to the enrollee and who may have medical records relevant to the appeal. Health information or other confidential or proprietary information in the custody of a carrier may be provided to an independent review organization, subject to rules adopted by the commissioner.

(5) The medical reviewers from a certified independent review organization will make determinations regarding the medical necessity or appropriateness of, and the application of health plan coverage provisions to, health care services for an enrollee. The medical reviewers’ determinations must be based upon their expert medical judgment, after consideration of relevant medical, scientific, and cost-effectiveness evidence, and medical standards of practice in the state of Washington. Except as provided in this subsection, the certified independent review organization must ensure that determinations are consistent with the scope of covered benefits as outlined in the medical coverage agreement. Medical reviewers may override the health plan’s medical necessity or appropriateness standards if the standards are determined upon review to be unreasonable or inconsistent with sound, evidence-based medical practice.

(6) Once a request for an independent review determination has been made, the independent review organization must proceed to a final determination, unless requested otherwise by both the carrier and the enrollee or the enrollee’s representative.

(7) Carriers must timely implement the certified independent review organization’s determination, and may pay the certified independent review organization’s charges.

(8) When an enrollee requests independent review of a dispute under this section, and the dispute involves a carrier’s decision to modify, reduce, or terminate an otherwise covered health service that an enrollee is receiving at the time the request for review is submitted and the carrier’s decision is based upon a finding that the health service, or level of health service, is no longer medically necessary or appropriate, the carrier must continue to provide the health service if requested by the enrollee until a determination is made under this section. If the determination affirms the carrier’s decision, the enrollee may be responsible for the cost of the continued health service.

(9) A certified independent review organization may notify the office of the insurance commissioner if, based upon its review of disputes under this section, it finds a pattern of substantiated or egregious conduct by a carrier.

(10)(a) The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement this section after considering relevant standards adopted by national managed care accreditation organizations.

(b) This section is not intended to supplant any existing authority of the office of the insurance commissioner under this title to oversee and enforce carrier compliance with applicable statutes and rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

INDEPENDENT REVIEW ORGANIZATIONS. (1) The department shall adopt rules providing a procedure and criteria for certifying one or more organizations to perform independent review of health care disputes described in section 11 of this act.

(2) The rules must require that the organization ensure:

(a) The confidentiality of medical records transmitted to an independent review organization for use in independent reviews;

(b) That each health care provider, physician, or contract specialist making review determinations for an independent review organization is qualified. Physicians, other health care providers, and, if applicable, contract specialists must be appropriately licensed, certified, or registered as required in Washington state or in at least one state with standards substantially comparable to Washington state. Reviewers may be drawn from nationally recognized centers of excellence, academic institutions, and recognized leading practice sites. Expert medical reviewers should have substantial, recent clinical experience dealing with the same or similar health conditions. The organization must have demonstrated expertise and a history of reviewing health care in terms of medical necessity, appropriateness, and the application of other health plan coverage provisions;

(c) That any physician, health care provider, or contract specialist making a review determination in a specific review is free of any actual or potential conflict of interest or bias. Neither the expert reviewer, nor the independent review organization, nor any officer, director, or management employee of the independent review organization may have any material professional, familial, or financial affiliation with any of the following: The health carrier; professional associations of carriers and providers; the provider; the provider’s medical or practice group; the health facility at which the service would be provided; the developer or manufacturer of a drug or device under review; or the enrollee;

(d) The fairness of the procedures used by the independent review organization in making the determinations;

(e) That each independent review organization make its determination:

(i) Not later than the earlier of:

(A) The fifteenth day after the date the independent review organization receives the information necessary to make the determination; or

(B) The twentieth day after the date the independent review organization receives the request that the determination be made. In exceptional circumstances, when the independent review organization has not obtained information necessary to make a determination, a determination may be made by the twenty-fifth day after the date the organization received the request for the determination; and

(ii) In cases of a condition that could seriously jeopardize the enrollee’s health or ability to regain maximum function, not later than the earlier of:

(A) Seventy-two hours after the date the independent review organization receives the information necessary to make the determination; or
The department shall take into consideration standards for independent review organizations, which must be free from interference by state government in its functioning except as provided in subsection (8) of this section.

(3) To be certified as an independent review organization under this chapter, an organization must submit to the department an application in the form required by the department. The application must include:

(a) For an applicant that is publicly held, the name of each stockholder or owner of more than five percent of any stock or options;
(b) The name of any holder of bonds or notes of the applicant that exceed one hundred thousand dollars;
(c) The name and type of business of each corporation or other organization that the applicant controls or is affiliated with and the nature and extent of the affiliation or control;
(d) The name and a biographical sketch of each director, officer, and executive of the applicant and any entity listed under (c) of this subsection and a description of any relationship the named individual has with:

(i) A carrier;
(ii) A utilization review agent;
(iii) A nonprofit or for-profit health corporation;
(iv) A health care provider;
(v) A drug or device manufacturer; or
(vi) A group representing any of the entities described by (d)(i) through (v) of this subsection;
(e) The percentage of the applicant's revenues that are anticipated to be derived from reviews conducted under section 11 of this act;
(f) A description of the areas of expertise of the health care professionals and contract specialists making review determinations for the applicant; and
(g) The procedures to be used by the independent review organization in making review determinations regarding reviews conducted under section 11 of this act.

(4) If at any time there is a material change in the information included in the application under subsection (3) of this section, the independent review organization shall submit updated information to the department.

(5) An independent review organization may not be a subsidiary of, or in any way owned or controlled by, a carrier or a trade or professional association of health care providers or carriers.

(6) An independent review organization, and individuals acting on its behalf, are immune from suit in a civil action when performing functions under this act. However, this immunity does not apply to an act or omission made in bad faith or that involves gross negligence.

(7) Independent review organizations must be free from interference by state government in its functioning except as provided in subsection (8) of this section.

(8) The rules adopted under this section shall include provisions for terminating the certification of an independent review organization for failure to comply with the requirements for certification. The department may review the operation and performance of an independent review organization in response to complaints or other concerns about compliance.

(9) In adopting rules for this section, the department shall take into consideration standards for independent review organizations adopted by national accreditation organizations. The department may accept national accreditation or certification by another state as evidence that an organization satisfies some or all of the requirements for certification by the department as an independent review organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. CARRIER MEDICAL DIRECTOR. Any carrier that offers a health plan and any self-insured health plan subject to the jurisdiction of Washington state shall designate a medical director who is licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW. However, a naturopathic or complementary alternative health plan, which provides solely complementary alternative health care to individuals, groups, or health plans, may have a medical director licensed under chapter 18.36A RCW. A health plan or self-insured health plan that offers only religious nonmedical treatment or religious nonmedical nursing care shall not be required to have a medical director.

Sec. 14. RCW 51.04.020 and 1994 c 164 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall:

(1) Establish and adopt rules governing the administration of this title;
(2) Ascertain and establish the amounts to be paid into and out of the accident fund;
(3) Regulate the proof of accident and extent thereof, the proof of death and the proof of relationship and the extent of dependency;
(4) Supervise the medical, surgical, and hospital treatment to the intent that it may be in all cases efficient and up to the recognized standard of modern surgery;

(6) Investigate the cause of all serious injuries and report to the governor from time to time any violations or laxity in performance of protective statutes or regulations coming under the observation of the department;

(7) Compile statistics which will afford reliable information upon which to base operations of all divisions under the department;

(8) Make an annual report to the governor of the workings of the department;

(9) Be empowered to enter into agreements with the appropriate agencies of other states relating to conflicts of jurisdiction where the contract of employment is in one state and injuries are received in the other state, and insofar as permitted by the Constitution and laws of the United States, to enter into similar agreements with the provinces of Canada,

10) Designate a medical director who is licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

Sec. 15. RCW 74.09.050 and 1979 c 141 s 335 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary shall appoint such professional personnel and other assistants and employees, including professional medical screeners, as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The medical screeners shall be supervised by one or more physicians who shall be appointed by the secretary or his or her designee. The secretary shall appoint a medical director who is licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 41.05 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. CARRIER LIABILITY. (1)(a) A health carrier shall adhere to the accepted standard of care for health care providers under chapter 7.70 RCW when arranging for the provision of medically necessary health care services to its enrollees. A health carrier shall be liable for any and all harm proximately caused by its failure to follow that standard of care when the failure resulted in the denial, delay, or modification of the health care service recommended for, or furnished to, an enrollee.

(b) A health carrier is also liable for damages under (a) of this subsection for harm to an enrollee proximately caused by health care treatment decisions that result from a failure to follow the accepted standard of care made by its:

(i) Employees;

(ii) Agents; or

(iii) Ostensible agents who are acting on its behalf and over whom it has the right to exercise influence or control or has actually exercised influence or control.

(2) The provisions of this section may not be waived, shifted, or modified by contract or agreement and responsibility for the provisions shall be a duty that cannot be delegated. Any effort to waive, modify, delegate, or shift liability for a breach of the duty established by this section, through a contract for indemnification or otherwise, is invalid.

(3) This section does not create any new cause of action, or eliminate any presently existing cause of action, with respect to health care providers and health care facilities that are included in and subject to the provisions of chapter 7.70 RCW.

(4) It is a defense to any action or liability asserted under this section against a health carrier that:

(a) The health care service in question is not a benefit provided under the plan or the service is subject to limitations under the plan that have been exhausted;

(b) Neither the health carrier, nor any employee, agent, or ostensible agent for whose conduct the health carrier is liable under subsection (1)(b) of this section, controlled, influenced, or participated in the health care decision; or

(i) The affected enrollee has suffered substantial harm. As used in this subsection, "substantial harm" means loss of life, loss or significant impairment of limb, bodily or cognitive function, significant disfigurement, or severe or chronic physical pain; and

(ii) The affected enrollee or the enrollee's representative has exercised the opportunity established in section 11 of this act to seek independent review of the health care treatment decision.

(b) This subsection (7) does not prohibit an enrollee from pursuing other appropriate remedies, including injunctive relief, a declaratory judgment, or other relief available under law, if its requirements place the enrollee's health in serious jeopardy.

(8) In an action against a health carrier, a finding that a health care provider is an employee, agent, or ostensible agent of such a health carrier shall not be based solely on proof that the person's name appears in a listing of approved physicians or health care providers made available to enrollees under a health plan.
(9) Any action under this section shall be commenced within three years of the completion of the independent review process.

(10) This section does not apply to workers' compensation insurance under Title 51 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. DELEGATION OF DUTIES. Each carrier is accountable for and must oversee any activities required by this act that it delegates to any subcontractor. No contract with a subcontractor executed by the health carrier or the subcontractor may relieve the health carrier of its obligations to any enrollee for the provision of health care services or of its responsibility for compliance with statutes or rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. APPLICATION. This act applies to: Health plans as defined in RCW 48.43.005 offered, renewed, or issued by a carrier; medical assistance provided under RCW 74.09.522; the basic health plan offered under chapter 70.47 RCW; and health benefits provided under chapter 41.05 RCW.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6217 with the following amendment(s)

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“Sec. 1. RCW 13.34.030 and 1999 c 267 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter:

(1) “Abandoned” means when the child’s parent, guardian, or other custodian has expressed, either by statement or conduct, an intent to forego, for an extended period, parental rights or responsibilities despite an ability to exercise such rights and responsibilities. If the court finds that the petitioner has exercised due diligence in attempting to locate the parent, no contact between the child and the child’s parent, guardian, or other custodian for a period of three months creates a rebuttable presumption of abandonment, even if there is no expressed intent to abandon;

(2) "Child" and "juvenile" means any individual under the age of eighteen years;

(3) "Current placement episode" means the period of time that begins with the most recent date that the child was removed from the home of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian for purposes of placement in out-of-home care and continues until: (a) The child returns home; (b) an adoption decree, a permanent custody order, or guardianship order is entered; (c) the dependency is dismissed, whichever occurs first; (d) the most recent date of removal occurred prior to the filing of a dependency petition under this chapter or after filing but prior to entry of a disposition order, such time periods shall be included when calculating the length of a child’s current placement episode;

(4) "Dependency guardian" means the person, nonprofit corporation, or Indian tribe appointed by the court pursuant to (RCW 13.34.232) for the limited purpose of assisting the court in the supervision of the dependency;

(5) "Dependent child" means any child who: (a) Has been abandoned; (b) Is abused or neglected as defined in chapter 26.44 RCW by a person legally responsible for the care of the child; or (c) Has no parent, guardian, or custodian capable of adequately caring for the child, such that the child is in circumstances which constitute a danger of substantial damage to the child's psychological or physical development;

(6) "Developmental disability" means a disability attributable to mental retardation, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, or another neurological or other condition of an individual found by the secretary to be closely related to mental retardation or to require treatment similar to that required for individuals with mental retardation, which disability originates before the individual attains age eighteen, which has continued or can be expected to continue indefinitely, and which constitutes a substantial handicap to the individual;

(7) "Guardian" means the person or agency that: (a) Has been appointed as the guardian of a child in a proceeding other than a proceeding under this chapter; and (b) has the legal right to custody of the child pursuant to such appointment. The term "guardian" shall not include a "dependency guardian" appointed pursuant to a proceeding under this chapter.

(8) "Guardian ad litem" means a person, appointed by the court to represent the best interests of a child in a proceeding under this chapter, or in any matter which may be consolidated with a proceeding under this chapter. A "court-appointed special advocate" appointed

(1) A child taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.050 or 26.44.050 shall be immediately placed in shelter care. A child taken by a relative of the child in violation of RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070 shall be placed in shelter care only when permitted under RCW 13.34.055. ("Shelter care" means temporary physical care in a facility licensed pursuant to RCW 74.15.030 or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to that section.)

(a) Unless there is reasonable cause to believe that the health, safety, or welfare of the child would be jeopardized or that the efforts to reunite the parent and child will be hindered, priority placement for a child in shelter care shall be with any person described in RCW 74.15.020(2)(a). The person must be willing and available to care for the child and be able to meet any special needs of the child. If a child is not initially placed with a relative pursuant to this section, the supervising agency shall make an effort within available resources to place the child with a relative on the next business day after the child is taken into custody. The supervising agency shall document its effort to place the child with a relative pursuant to this section. Nothing within this subsection (1)(a) establishes an entitlement to services or a right to a particular placement.

(b) Whenever a child is taken into custody pursuant to this section, the supervising agency may authorize evaluations of the child's physical or emotional condition, routine medical and dental examination and care, and all necessary emergency care. In no case may a child who is taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.055, 13.34.050, or 26.44.050 be detained in a secure detention facility. No child may be held longer than seventy-two hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, after such child is taken into custody unless a court order has been entered for continued shelter care. The child and his or her parent, guardian, or custodian shall be informed that they have a right to a shelter care hearing. The court shall hold a shelter care hearing within seventy-two hours after the child is taken into custody, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. If a parent, guardian, or legal custodian desires to waive the shelter care hearing, the court shall determine, on the record and with the parties present, whether such waiver is knowing and voluntary.

(2) Whenever a child is taken into custody by child protective services pursuant to a court order issued under RCW 13.34.050 or when child protective services is notified that a child has been taken into custody pursuant to RCW 26.44.050 or 26.44.056, child protective services shall make reasonable efforts to inform the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the fact that the child has been taken into custody, the reasons why the child was taken into custody, and their legal rights under this title as soon as possible and in no event shall notice be provided more than twenty-four hours after the child has been taken into custody or twenty-four hours after child protective services has been notified that the child has been taken into custody. The notice of custody and rights may be given by any means reasonably certain of notifying the parents including, but not limited to, written, telephone, or in person oral notification. If the initial notification is provided by a means other than writing, child protective services shall make reasonable efforts to also provide written notification.

The written notice of custody and rights shall be in substantially the following form:

NOTICE
Upon receipt of the written notice, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian shall acknowledge such notice by signing a receipt prepared by child protective services. If the parent, guardian, or legal custodian does not sign the receipt, the reason for lack of a signature shall be written on the receipt. The receipt shall be made a part of the court’s file in the dependency action.

If after making reasonable efforts to provide notification, child protective services is unable to determine the whereabouts of the parents, guardian, or legal custodian, the notice shall be delivered or sent to the last known address of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian.

(3) If child protective services is not required to give notice under subsection (2) of this section, the juvenile court counselor assigned to the matter shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the time and place of any shelter care hearing, request that they be present, and inform them of their basic rights as provided in RCW 13.34.090.

(4) Reasonable efforts to advise and to give notice, as required in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, shall include, at a minimum, investigation of the whereabouts of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian. If such reasonable efforts are not successful, or the parent, guardian, or legal custodian does not appear at the shelter care hearing, the juvenile court counselor or caseworker shall testify at the hearing or state in a declaration:

(a) The efforts made to investigate the whereabouts of, and to advise, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian; and

(b) Whether actual advice of rights was made, to whom it was made, and how it was made, including the substance of any oral communication or copies of written materials used.

(5) At the commencement of the shelter care hearing the court shall advise the parties of their basic rights as provided in RCW 13.34.090 and shall appoint counsel pursuant to RCW 13.34.090 if counsel has not been retained by the parent or guardian and if the parent or guardian is indigent, unless the court finds that the right to counsel has been expressly and voluntarily waived in court.

(6) The court shall hear evidence regarding notice given to, and efforts to notify, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian and shall examine the need for shelter care. The court shall hear evidence regarding the efforts made to place the child with a relative. The court shall make an express finding as to whether the notice required under subsections (2) and (3) of this section was given to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian. All parties have the right to present testimony to the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care. Hearsay evidence before the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care must be supported by sworn testimony, affidavit, or declaration of the person offering such evidence.

(7) The juvenile court probation counselor shall submit a recommendation to the court as to the further need for shelter care, except that such recommendation shall be submitted by the department of social and health services in cases where the petition alleging dependency has been filed by the department of social and health services, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(8) The court shall release a child alleged to be dependent to the care, custody, and control of the child’s parent, guardian, or legal custodian unless the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe that:

(b) The child has no parent, guardian, or legal custodian to provide supervision and care for such child; or

(i) The release of such child would present a serious threat of substantial harm to such child; or

(ii) The parent, guardian, or custodian to whom the child could be released is alleged to have violated RCW 9A.40.060 or 9A.40.070.

If the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian and the child was initially placed with a relative pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the court shall order continued placement with a relative, unless there is reasonable cause to believe the safety or welfare of the child would be jeopardized. If the child was not initially placed with a relative, and the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the supervising agency shall make reasonable efforts to locate a relative pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. If a relative is not available, the court shall order continued shelter care or order placement with another suitable person, and the court shall set forth its reasons for the order. The court shall enter a finding as to whether subsections (2) and (3) of this section have been complied with. If actual notice was not given to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian and the whereabouts of such person is known or can be ascertained, the court shall order the supervising agency or the department of social and health services to make reasonable efforts to advise the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the status of the case, including the date and time of any subsequent hearings, and their rights under RCW 13.34.090.

(9) An order releasing the child on any conditions specified in this section may at any time be amended, with notice and hearing thereon, so as to return the child to shelter care for failure of the parties to conform to the conditions originally imposed.

The court shall consider whether nonconformance with any conditions resulted from circumstances beyond the control of the parent and give weight to that fact before ordering return of the child to shelter care.

(10) A shelter care order issued pursuant to this section may be amended at any time with notice and hearing thereon. The shelter care decision of placement shall be modified only upon a showing of change in circumstances. No child may be detained for longer than thirty days without an order, signed by the judge, authorizing continued shelter care.

(11) Any parent, guardian, or legal custodian who for good cause is unable to attend the initial shelter care hearing may request that a subsequent shelter care hearing be scheduled. The request shall be made to the clerk of the court where the petition is filed prior to the initial

The clerk shall notify all other parties of the hearing by any reasonable means.
At the commencement of the shelter care hearing the court shall advise the parties of basic rights as provided in RCW 13.34.090 and appoint counsel pursuant to RCW 13.34.090 if the parent or guardian is indigent unless counsel has been retained by the parent or guardian or the court finds that the right to counsel has been expressly and voluntarily waived in court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The juvenile court probation counselor shall submit a recommendation to the court as to the further need for shelter care unless the petition has been filed by the department, in which case the recommendation shall be submitted by the department.

(2) The court shall release a child alleged to be dependent to the care, custody, and control of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian unless the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe that:

(a) After consideration of the specific services that have been provided, reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home; and

(b)(i) The child has no parent, guardian, or legal custodian to provide supervision and care for such child; or

If the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, and the child was initially placed with a relative pursuant to RCW 13.34.060(1), the court shall order continued placement with a relative, unless there is reasonable cause to believe the health, safety, or welfare of the child would be jeopardized. If the child was not initially placed with a relative, and the court does not release the child to his or her parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the supervising agency shall make reasonable efforts to locate a relative pursuant to RCW 13.34.060(1). If a relative is not available, the court shall order continued shelter care or order placement with another suitable person, and the court shall set forth its reasons for the order. The court shall enter a finding as to whether RCW 13.34.060(2) and subsections (1) and (2) of this section have been complied with. If actual notice was not given to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian and the whereabouts of such person is known or can be ascertained, the court shall order the supervising agency or the department of social and health services to make reasonable efforts to advise the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the status of the case, including the date and time of any subsequent hearings, and their rights under RCW 13.34.090.

The court shall consider whether nonconformance with any conditions resulted from circumstances beyond the control of the parent and give weight to that fact before ordering return of the child to shelter care.

Sec. 8. RCW 13.34.070 and 1993 c 358 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons, one directed to the child, if the child is twelve or more years of age, and another to the parents, guardian, or custodian, and such other persons as appear to the court to be proper or necessary parties to the proceedings, requiring them to appear personally before the court at the time fixed to hear the petition. If the child is developmentally disabled and not living at home, the notice shall be given to the child's custodian as well as to the child's parent. The developmentally disabled child shall not be required to appear unless requested by the court. When the custodian is summoned, the parent or guardian or both shall also be served with summons. The fact-finding hearing on the petition shall be held no later than seventy-five days after the filing of the petition, unless exceptional reasons for a continuance are found. The party requesting the continuance shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that exceptional circumstances (i.e., (a) exist. To ensure that the hearing on the petition occurs within the seventy-five day time limit, the court shall schedule and hear the matter on an expedited basis.

(2) A copy of the petition shall be attached to each summons.

(3) The summons shall advise the parties of the right to counsel. The summons shall also inform the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian of his or her right to appointed counsel, if indigent, and of the procedure to use to secure appointed counsel.

(4) The summons shall advise the parents that they may be held responsible for the support of the child if the child is placed in out-of-home care.

(5) The judge may endorse upon the summons an order directing any parent, guardian, or custodian having the custody or control of the child to bring the child to the hearing.

(6) If it appears from affidavit or sworn statement presented to the judge that there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant of arrest or that the child needs to be taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.050, the judge may endorse upon the summons an order that an officer serving the summons shall at once take the child into custody and take him or her to the place of shelter designated by the court.

(7) If the person summoned as provided in this section is subject to an order of the court pursuant to subsection (5) or (6) of this section, and if the person fails to abide by the order, he or she may be proceeded against as for contempt of court. The order endorsed upon the summons shall conspicuously display the following legend:

NOTICE:

VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS SUBJECT TO PROCEEDING
FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT
PURSUANT TO RCW 13.34.070.

(8) If a party to be served with a summons can be found within the state, the summons shall be served upon the party personally as soon as possible following the filing of the petition, but in no case later than fifteen court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court. If the party is within the state and cannot be personally served, but the party’s address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, the summons may be served upon the party by mailing a copy (to be addressed) by certified mail as soon as possible following the filing of the petition, but in no case later than fifteen court days before the hearing, or such time as set by the court. If a party other than the child is without the state but can be found or the address is known, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, service of the summons may be made either by delivering a copy (to be addressed) to the party personally or by mailing a copy thereof to the party by certified mail at least ten court days before the fact-finding hearing, or such time as set by the court.

(9) Service of summons may be made under the direction of the court by any person eighteen years of age or older who is not a party to the proceedings or by any law enforcement officer, probation counselor, or department (of social and health services social worker) employee.

(10) In any proceeding brought under this chapter where the court knows or has reason to know that the child involved is a member or is eligible to be a member of an Indian tribe, notice of the pendency of the proceeding shall also be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the child’s tribe. If the identity or location of the tribe cannot be determined, such notice shall be transmitted to the secretary of the interior of the United States.

Sec. 9. RCW 13.34.080 and 1990 c 246 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In a dependency case where it appears by the petition or verified statement, that the person standing in the position of natural or legal guardian of the person of any child, is a nonresident of this state, or that the name or place of residence or whereabouts of such person is unknown, as well as at all places where, after due diligence, the officer has been unable to make service of the summons or notice provided for in RCW 13.34.070, and a copy of the notice has been deposited in the post office, postage prepaid, directed to such person at his last known place of residence,

(1) The court shall direct the clerk to publish notice in a legal newspaper printed in the county, qualified to publish summons, once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication of the notice to be at least twenty-five days prior to the date fixed for the hearing when it appears by the petition or verified statement that:

(i) The parent or guardian is a nonresident of this state; or

(ii) The name or place of residence or whereabouts of the parent or guardian is unknown; and

(2) Publication may proceed simultaneously with efforts to provide (in person or by service) by mail (for good cause shown), when the court determines there is reason to believe that (in person or by service) by mail will not be successful. (Such notice shall be directed to the parent, parents, or other person claiming the right to the custody of the child, if their names are known.) If their names are unknown, the phrase “To whom it may concern” shall be used (and), apply to, and be binding upon, those persons whose names are unknown. The name of the court, the name of the child (or children if of one family), the date of the filing of the petition, the date of hearing, and the object of the proceeding in general terms shall be set forth (and the whole shall be subscribed by the clerk). There shall be filed with the clerk an affidavit showing due publication of the notice (and). The cost of publication shall be paid by the county at a rate not greater than the rate paid (by the county) for other legal notices. The publication of notice shall be deemed equivalent to personal service upon all persons, known or unknown, who have been designated as provided in this section.

Sec. 10. RCW 13.34.090 and 1998 c 328 s 3 and 1998 c 141 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Any party has a right to be represented by an attorney in all proceedings under this chapter, to introduce evidence, to be heard in his or her own behalf, to examine witnesses, to receive a decision based solely on the evidence adduced at the hearing, and to an unbiased fact-finder.

At all stages of a proceeding in which a child is alleged to be dependent (as defined in RCW 13.34.030(4)), the child’s parent, guardian, or legal custodian has the right to be represented by counsel, and if indigent, to have counsel appointed for him or her by the court. Unless waived in court, counsel shall be provided to the child’s parent, guardian, or legal custodian, if such person (a) has appeared in the proceeding or requested the court to appoint counsel and (b) is financially unable to obtain counsel because of indigency (as defined in chapter 10.101 RCW).

If a party to an action under this chapter is represented by counsel, no order shall be provided to that party for his or her signature without prior notice and provision of the order to counsel.
(4) Copies of department of social and health services or supervising agency records to which parents have legal access pursuant to chapter 13.50 RCW shall be given to the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian, or his or her legal counsel, prior to any shelter care hearing and within fifteen days after the department or supervising agency receives a written request for such records from the parent, guardian, legal custodian, or his or her legal counsel. These records shall be provided to the child's parents, guardian, legal custodian, or legal counsel a reasonable period of time prior to the shelter care hearing in order to allow an opportunity to review the records prior to the hearing. These records shall be legible and shall be provided at no expense to the parents, guardian, legal custodian, or his or her counsel. When the records are served on legal counsel, legal counsel shall have the opportunity to review the records with the parents and shall review the records with the parents prior to the shelter care hearing.

Sec. 11. RCW 13.34.110 and 1995 c 313 s 1 and 1995 c 311 s 27 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing on the petition and, unless the court dismisses the petition, shall make written findings of fact, stating the reasons therefor, and after it has announced its findings of fact shall hold a hearing to consider disposition of the case immediately following the fact-finding hearing or at a continued hearing within fourteen days or longer for good cause shown. Immediately after the entry of the findings of fact, the court shall hold a disposition hearing unless there is good cause for continuing the matter for up to fourteen days. If good cause is shown, the case may be continued for longer than fourteen days. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice in open court is not given to a party, that party shall be notified by certified mail of the time and place of any continued hearing. Unless there is reasonable cause to believe the health, safety, or welfare of the child would be jeopardized or efforts to reunite the parent and child would be hindered, the court shall direct the department to notify those adult persons who: (1) Are related by blood or marriage to the child in the following degrees: Parent, grandparent, brother, sister, stepparent, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, or aunt; (2) are known to the department as having been in contact with the family or child within the past twelve months; and (3) would be an appropriate placement for the child. Reasonable cause to dispense with notification to a parent under this section must be proved by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.

The parties need not appear at the fact-finding or dispositional hearing if the parties, their attorneys, the guardian ad litem, and court-appointed special advocates, if any, are all in agreement. The court shall receive and review a social study before entering an order based on agreement. No social file or social study may be considered by the court in connection with the fact-finding hearing or prior to factual determination, except as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice in open court is not given to a party, that party shall be notified by certified mail of the time and place of any continued hearing. All hearings may be conducted at any time or place within the limits of the county, and such cases may not be heard in conjunction with other business of any other division of the superior court. The public shall be excluded, and only such persons may be admitted who are found by the judge to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. The court shall state on the record the reasons to disallow attendance, the court shall allow a child's relatives and, if a child resides in foster care, the child's foster parent, to attend all hearings and proceedings pertaining to the child for the sole purpose of providing oral and written information about the child and the child's welfare to the court.

Stenographic notes or any device which accurately records the proceedings may be required as provided in other civil cases pursuant to RCW 2.32.200.)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

All hearings may be conducted at any time or place within the limits of the county, and such cases may not be heard in conjunction with other business of any other division of the superior court. The public shall be excluded, and only such persons may be admitted who are found by the judge to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. The court shall state on the record the reasons to disallow attendance, the court shall allow a child's relatives and, if a child resides in foster care, the child's foster parent, to attend all hearings and proceedings pertaining to the child for the sole purpose of providing oral and written information about the child and the child's welfare to the court.

Stenographic notes or any device which accurately records the proceedings may be required as provided in other civil cases pursuant to RCW 2.32.200.

Sec. 13. RCW 13.34.120 and 1998 c 328 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

((44)) To aid the court in its decision on disposition, a social study((consisting of a written evaluation of matters relevant to the disposition of the case,)) shall be made by the person or agency filing the petition. A parent may submit a counselor's or health care provider's evaluation of the parent, which shall either be included in the social study or considered in conjunction with the social study. The study shall include all social ((records)) files and may also include facts relating to the child's cultural heritage, and shall be made available to the court. The court shall consider the social file, social study, guardian ad litem report, the court-appointed special advocate's report, if any, and any reports filed by a party at the disposition hearing in addition to evidence produced at the fact-finding hearing. At least ten working days before the disposition hearing, the department shall mail to the parent and his or her attorney a copy of the agency's social study and proposed service plan, which shall be in writing or in a form understandable to the parents or custodians. In addition, the department shall provide an opportunity for parents to review and comment on the plan at the (community service) local office closest to the parents' residence. If the parents disagree with the agency's plan or any part thereof, the parents shall submit to the court at least twenty-four hours before the hearing, in writing, or signed oral statement, an alternative plan to correct the problems which led to the finding of dependency. This section shall not interfere with the right of the parents or custodians to submit oral arguments regarding the disposition plan at the hearing.

(2) In addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section, a predisposition study to the court in cases of dependency alleged pursuant to RCW 13.34.030(1)(b) or (c) shall contain the following information:
(a) A statement of the specific harm or harms to the child that intervention is designed to alleviate;
(b) A description of the specific programs, for both the parents and child, that are needed in order to prevent serious harm to the child; the reasons why such programs are likely to be useful; the availability of any proposed services; and the agency’s overall plan for ensuring that the services will be delivered. The description shall identify services chosen and approved by the parent;
(c) If removal is recommended, a full description of the reasons why the child cannot be protected adequately in the home, including a description of any previous efforts to work with the parents and the child in the home; the in-home treatment programs which have been considered and rejected; the preventive services that have been offered or provided and have failed to prevent the need for out-of-home placement, unless the health, safety, and welfare of the child cannot be protected adequately in the home; and the parents’ attitude toward placement of the child;
(d) A statement of the likely harms the child will suffer as a result of removal. This section should include an exploration of the nature of the parent-child attachment and the meaning of separation and loss to both the parents and the child;
(e) A description of the steps that will be taken to minimize harm to the child that may result if separation occurs; and
(f) Behavior that will be expected before determination that supervision of the family or placement is no longer necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:
If the most recent date that a child was removed from the home of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian for purposes of placement in out-of-home care occurred prior to the filing of a dependency petition or after filing but prior to entry of a disposition order, such time periods shall be included when calculating the length of the current placement episode.

Sec. 15. RCW 13.34.130 and 1999 c 267 s 16, 1999 c 267 s 9, and 1999 c 173 s 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:
If, after a fact-finding hearing pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, it has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the child is dependent within the meaning of RCW 13.34.030(c) after consideration of the predisposition report social study prepared pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 and after a disposition hearing has been held pursuant to RCW 13.34.110, the court shall enter an order of disposition pursuant to this section.

1. The court shall order one of the following dispositions of the case:
(a) Order a disposition other than removal of the child from his or her home, which shall provide a program designed to alleviate the immediate danger to the child, to mitigate or cure any damage the child has already suffered, and to aid the parents so that the child will not be endangered in the future. In determining the disposition, the court should choose those services, including housing assistance, that least interfere with family autonomy and are adequate to protect the child.
(b) Order the child to be removed from his or her home and into custody, control, and care of a relative or the department of social and health services or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster family home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW. Unless there is reasonable cause to believe that the health, safety, or welfare of the child would be jeopardized or that efforts to reunite the parent and child will be hindered, such child shall be placed with a person who is (i) related to the child as defined in RCW 74.15.020(2)(a) and (ii) willing and available to care for the child.
(2) Placement of the child with a relative under this subsection shall be given preference by the court. An order for out-of-home placement may be made only if the court finds that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child’s home and to make it possible for the child to return home, specifying the services that have been provided to the child and the child’s parent, guardian, or legal custodian, and that preventive services have been offered or provided and have failed to prevent the need for out-of-home placement, unless the health, safety, and welfare of the child cannot be protected adequately in the home, and that:
(a) There is no parent or guardian available to care for such child;
(b) The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is not willing to take custody of the child;
(c) The court finds, by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, a manifest danger exists that the child will suffer serious abuse or neglect if the child is not removed from the home and an order under RCW 26.44.063 would not protect the child from danger;
(d) The extent of the child’s disability is such that the parent, guardian, or legal custodian is unable to provide the necessary care for the child and the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has determined that the child would benefit from placement outside of the home).
(3) If the court has ordered a child removed from his or her home pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section, the court may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed if the court finds: (a) Termination is recommended by the supervising agency, (b) termination is in the best interests of the child, and (c) that because of the existence of aggravated circumstances, reasonable efforts to unify the family are not required. Notwithstanding the existence of aggravated circumstances, reasonable efforts may be required if the court or department determines it is in the best interest of the child. In determining whether aggravated circumstances exist by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, the court shall consider one or more of the following:
(i) Conviction of the parent of rape of the child in the first, second, or third degree as defined in RCW 9A.44.073, 9A.44.075, and 9A.44.079;

(ii) Conviction of the parent of criminal mistreatment of the child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.44.020 and 9A.42.030;

(iii) Conviction of the parent of one of the following assault crimes, when the child is the victim: Assault in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.011 and 9A.36.021 or assault of a child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.120 or 9A.36.130;

(iv) Conviction of the parent of murder, manslaughter, or homicide by abuse of the child's other parent, sibling, or another child;

(v) Conviction of the parent of attempting, soliciting, or conspiracy to commit a crime listed in (c)(i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) of this subsection;

(vi) A finding by a court that a parent is a sexually violent predator as defined in RCW 71.09.020;

(vii) Failure of the parent to complete available treatment ordered under this chapter or the equivalent laws of another state, where such failure has resulted in a prior termination of parental rights to another child and the parent has failed to effect significant change in the interim. In the case of a parent of an Indian child, as defined in the Indian Child Welfare Act, P.L. 95-608 (25 U.S.C. Sec. 1903), the court shall also consider tribal efforts to assist the parent in completing treatment and make it possible for the child to return home;

(viii) An infant under three years of age has been abandoned as defined in RCW 13.34.030(4)(a);

(ix) The mother has given birth to three or more drug-affected infants, resulting in the department filing a petition under section 23, chapter 314, Laws of 1998;

(x) Conviction of the parent of a sex offense under chapter 9A.44 RCW or incest under RCW 9A.64.020 when the child is born of the offense.

3. If reasonable efforts are not ordered under subsection (2) of this section a permanency planning hearing shall be held within thirty days. Reasonable efforts shall be made to place the child in a timely manner in accordance with the permanency plan, and to complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the child.

4. Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child’s home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with:

(a) A permanency plan of care that shall identify one of the following outcomes as a primary goal and may identify additional outcomes as alternative goals: Return of the child to the home of the child’s parent, guardian, or legal custodian; adoption; guardianship; permanent legal custody; long term relative or foster care, until the child is age eighteen, with a written agreement between the parties and the care provider; and independent living, if appropriate and if the child is age sixteen or older; or a responsible living skills program. Whenever a permanency plan identifies independent living as a goal, the plan shall also specifically identify the services that will be provided to assist the child to make a successful transition from foster care to independent living. Before the court approves independent living as a permanency plan of care, the court shall make a finding that the provision of services to assist the child in making a transition from foster care to independent living will allow the child to manage his or her financial affairs and to manage his or her personal, social, educational, and nonfinancial affairs.

The department shall not discharge a child to an independent living situation before the child is eighteen years of age unless the child becomes emancipated pursuant to chapter 13.64 RCW.

(b) Unless the court has ordered, pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, that a termination petition be filed, a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties. All aspects of the plan shall include the goal of achieving permanence for the child.

(i) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered in order to enable them to resume custody, what requirements the parents must meet in order to resume custody, and a time limit for each service plan and parental requirement.

(ii) The agency shall be required to encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement. Visitation may be limited or denied only if the court determines that such limitation or denial is necessary to protect the child’s health, safety, or welfare.

(iii) A child shall be placed as close as possible, preferably in the child’s own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child’s or parent’s well-being.

(iv) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department of social and health services has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services.

(c) If the court has ordered, pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, that a termination petition be filed, a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to achieve permanency for the child, services to be offered or provided to the child, and if visitation would be in the best interests of the child, a recommendation to the court regarding visitation between parent and child pending a fact-finding hearing on the termination petition. The agency shall not be required to develop a plan of services for the parents or provide services to the parents.

5. If the court determines that the continuation of reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need to remove the child from his or her home or to safely return the child home should not be part of the permanency plan of care for the child, reasonable efforts shall be made to place the child in a timely manner and to complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the child.
(6) The court shall direct the supervising agency to conduct necessary background investigations as provided in chapter 74.15 RCW and report the results of such investigation to the court within thirty days. However, if such relative appears otherwise suitable and competent to provide care and treatment, the criminal history background check need not be completed before placement, but as soon as possible after placement. Any placements with relatives, pursuant to this section, shall be contingent upon cooperation by the relative with the agency case plan and compliance with court orders related to the care and supervision of the child including, but not limited to, court orders regarding parent-child contacts and any other conditions imposed by the court. Noncompliance with the case plan or court order shall be grounds for removal of the child from the relative's home, subject to review by the court.

(7) Except for children whose cases are reviewed by a citizen review board under chapter 13.70 RCW, the status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months from the beginning date of the placement episode or the date dependency is established, whichever is first, at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue. The review shall include findings regarding the agency and parental completion of disposition plan requirements, and if necessary, revised permanency time limits. The supervising agency shall provide a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative with notice of, and their right to an opportunity to be heard in, a review hearing pertaining to the child, but only if that person is currently providing care to that child at the time of the hearing. This section shall not be construed to grant party status to any person who has been provided an opportunity to be heard.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in this section no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.

(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:

(ii) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion, specifying the services provided or offered;

(iii) Whether the child has been placed in the least restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration and preference has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

(iv) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;

(v) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan by the child, the child's parents, and the agency supervising the placement;

(vi) Whether progress has been made toward correcting the problems that necessitated the child's placement in out-of-home care;

(vii) Whether the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;

(viii) Whether additional services, including housing assistance, are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be provided, specifying such services; and

(viii) The projected date by which the child will be returned home or other permanent plan of care will be implemented.

(c) The court may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

(8) The court's ability to order housing assistance under this section is:

(a) Limited to cases in which homelessness or the lack of adequate and safe housing is the primary reason for an out-of-home placement; and

(b) Subject to the availability of funds appropriated for this specific purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

A court may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed if the following requirements are met:

1. The court has removed the child from his or her home pursuant to RCW 13.34.130;

2. Termination is recommended by the supervising agency;

3. Termination is in the best interests of the child; and

4. Because of the existence of aggravated circumstances, reasonable efforts to unify the family are not required. Notwithstanding the existence of aggravated circumstances, reasonable efforts may be required if the court or department determines it is in the best interests of the child. In determining whether aggravated circumstances exist by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, the court shall consider one or more of the following:

(a) Conviction of the parent of rape of the child in the first, second, or third degree as defined in RCW 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, and 9A.44.079;

(b) Conviction of the parent of criminal mistreatment of the child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.42.020 and 9A.42.030;

(c) Conviction of the parent of one of the following assault crimes, when the child is the victim: Assault in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.011 and 9A.36.021 or assault of a child in the first or second degree as defined in RCW 9A.36.120 or 9A.36.130;

(d) Conviction of the parent of murder, manslaughter, or homicide by abuse of the child's other parent, sibling, or another child;
(e) Conviction of the parent of attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit a crime listed in (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this subsection;
(f) A finding by a court that a parent is a sexually violent predator as defined in RCW 71.09.020;
(g) Failure of the parent to complete available treatment ordered under this chapter or the equivalent laws of another state, where such failure has resulted in a prior termination of parental rights to another child and the parent has failed to effect significant change in the interim. In the case of a parent of an Indian child, as defined in the Indian Child Welfare Act, P.L. 95-608 (25 U.S.C. Sec. 1903), the court shall also consider tribal efforts to assist the parent in completing treatment and make it possible for the child to return home;
(h) An infant under three years of age has been abandoned;
(i) Conviction of the parent, when a child has been born of the offense, of: (A) A sex offense under chapter 9A.44 RCW; or (B) incest under RCW 9A.64.020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

If reasonable efforts are not ordered under section 16 of this act, a permanency planning hearing shall be held within thirty days of the court order to file a petition to terminate parental rights. Reasonable efforts shall be made to place the child in a timely manner in accordance with the permanency plan, and to complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a child is ordered removed from the child's home, the agency charged with his or her care shall provide the court with:

(a) A permanency plan of care that shall identify one of the following outcomes as a primary goal and may identify additional outcomes as alternative goals: Return of the child to the home of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian; adoption; guardianship; permanent legal custody; long-term relative or foster care, until the child is age eighteen, with a written agreement between the parties and the care provider; successful completion of a responsible living skills program; or independent living, if appropriate and if the child is age sixteen or older. The department shall not discharge a child to an independent living situation before the child is eighteen years of age unless the child becomes emancipated pursuant to chapter 13.64 RCW;

(b) Unless the court has ordered, pursuant to RCW 13.34.130(3), that a termination petition be filed, a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to return the child home, and what actions the agency will take to maintain parent-child ties. All aspects of the plan shall include the goal of achieving permanence for the child.

(i) The agency plan shall specify what services the parents will be offered to enable them to resume custody, what requirements the parents must meet to resume custody, and a time limit for each service plan and parental requirement.

(ii) The agency shall encourage the maximum parent-child contact possible, including regular visitation and participation by the parents in the care of the child while the child is in placement. Visitation may be limited or denied only if the court determines that such limitation or denial is necessary to protect the child's health, safety, or welfare.

(iii) A child shall be placed as close to the child's home as possible, preferably in the child's own neighborhood, unless the court finds that placement at a greater distance is necessary to promote the child's or parents' well-being.

(iv) The agency charged with supervising a child in placement shall provide all reasonable services that are available within the agency, or within the community, or those services which the department has existing contracts to purchase. It shall report to the court if it is unable to provide such services; and

(c) If the court has ordered, pursuant to RCW 13.34.130(3), that a termination petition be filed, a specific plan as to where the child will be placed, what steps will be taken to achieve permanency for the child, services to be offered or provided to the child, and, if visitation would be in the best interests of the child, a recommendation to the court regarding visitation between parent and child pending a fact-finding hearing on the termination petition. The agency shall not be required to develop a plan of services for the parents or provide services to the parents if the court orders a termination petition be filed.

(2) If the court determines that the continuation of reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need to remove the child from his or her home or to safely return the child home should not be part of the permanency plan of care for the child, reasonable efforts shall be made to place the child in a timely manner and to complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except for children whose cases are reviewed by a citizen review board under chapter 13.70 RCW, the status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months from the beginning date of the placement episode or the date dependency is established, whichever is first, at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue. The review shall include findings regarding the agency and parental completion of disposition plan requirements, and if necessary, revised permanency time limits. The supervising agency shall provide a foster parent, adoptive parent, or relative with notice of, and their right to an opportunity to be heard in, a review hearing pertaining to the child, but only if that person is currently providing care to that child at the time of the hearing. This section shall not be construed to grant party status to any person who has been provided an opportunity to be heard.

(a) A child shall not be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in RCW 13.34.130 no longer exists. The parents, guardian, or legal custodian shall report to the court the efforts they have made to correct the conditions which led to removal. If a child is returned, casework supervision shall continue for a period of six months, at which time there shall be a hearing on the need for continued intervention.
(b) If the child is not returned home, the court shall establish in writing:
   (i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion, specifying the services provided or offered;
   (ii) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration and preference has been given to placement with the child's relatives;
   (iii) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;
   (iv) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan by the child, the child's parents, and the agency supervising the placement;
   (v) Whether progress has been made toward correcting the problems that necessitated the child's placement in out-of-home care;
   (vi) Whether the parents have visited the child and any reasons why visitation has not occurred or has been infrequent;
   (vii) Whether additional services, including housing assistance, are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered specifying such services; and
   (viii) The projected date by which the child will be returned home or other permanent plan of care will be implemented.

(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

(2) The court's ability to order housing assistance under RCW 13.34.130 and this section is: (a) Limited to cases in which homelessness or the lack of adequate and safe housing is the primary reason for an out-of-home placement; and (b) subject to the availability of funds appropriated for this specific purpose.

Sec. 20. RCW 13.34.145 and 1999 c 267 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A permanency plan shall be developed no later than sixty days from the time the supervising agency assumes responsibility for providing services, including placing the child, or at the time of a hearing under RCW 13.34.130, whichever occurs first. The permanency planning process continues until a permanency planning goal is achieved or dependency is dismissed. The planning process shall include reasonable efforts to return the child to the parent's home.

(a) Whenever a child is placed in out-of-home care pursuant to RCW 13.34.130, the agency that has custody of the child shall provide the court with a written permanency plan of care directed towards securing a safe, stable, and permanent home for the child as soon as possible. The plan shall identify one of the following outcomes as the primary goal and may also identify additional outcomes as alternative goals: Return of the child to the home of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian; adoption; guardianship; permanent legal custody; long-term relative or foster care, until the child is age eighteen, with a written agreement between the parties and the care provider; a responsible living skills program; and independent living, if appropriate and if the child is age sixteen or older and the provisions of subsection (2) of this section are met.

(b) The identified outcomes and goals of the permanency plan may change over time based upon the circumstances of the particular case.

(c) Permanency planning goals should be achieved at the earliest possible date, preferably before the child has been in out-of-home care for fifteen months. In cases where parental rights have been terminated, the child is legally free for adoption, and adoption has been identified as the primary permanency planning goal, it shall be a goal to complete the adoption within six months following entry of the termination order.

(d) For purposes related to permanency planning:
   (i) "Guardianship" means a dependency guardianship ((pursuant to this chapter)), a legal guardianship pursuant to chapter 11.88 RCW, or equivalent laws of another state or a federally recognized Indian tribe.
   (ii) "Permanent custody order" means a custody order entered pursuant to chapter 26.10 RCW.
   (iii) "Permanent legal custody" means legal custody pursuant to chapter 26.10 RCW or equivalent laws of another state or of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

(2) Whenever a permanency plan identifies independent living as a goal, the plan shall also specifically identify the services that will be provided to assist the child to make a successful transition from foster care to independent living. Before the court approves independent living as a permanency plan of care, the court shall make a finding that the provision of services to assist the child in making a transition from foster care to independent living will allow the child to manage his or her financial ((affairs and to manage his or her)), personal, social, educational, and nonfinancial affairs. The department shall not discharge a child to an independent living situation before the child is eighteen years of age unless the child becomes emancipated pursuant to chapter 13.64 RCW.

(3) A permanency planning hearing shall be held in all cases where the child has remained in out-of-home care for at least nine months and an adoption decree, guardianship order, or permanent custody order has not previously been entered. The hearing shall take place no later than twelve months following commencement of the current placement episode.

(4) Whenever a child is removed from the home of a dependency guardian or long-term relative or foster care provider, and the child is not returned to the home of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian but is placed in out-of-home care, a permanency planning hearing shall take place no later than twelve months, as provided in subsection (3) of this section, following the date of removal unless, prior to the hearing, the child returns to the home of the dependency guardian or long-term care provider, the child is placed in the home of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian, an adoption decree, guardianship order, or a permanent custody order is entered, or the dependency is dismissed.
(5) No later than ten working days prior to the permanency planning hearing, the agency having custody of the child shall submit a written permanency plan to the court and shall mail a copy of the plan to all parties and their legal counsel, if any.

(6) At the permanency planning hearing, the court shall enter findings as required by (RCW 13.34.130(2)) section 19 of this act and shall review the permanency plan prepared by the agency. If the child has resided in the home of a foster parent or relative for more than six months prior to the permanency planning hearing, the court shall also enter a finding regarding whether the foster parent or relative was informed of the hearing as required in RCW 74.13.280 and (RCW 13.34.130(2)) section 19 of this act. If a goal of long-term foster or relative care has been achieved prior to the permanency planning hearing, the court shall review the child's status to determine whether the placement and the plan for the child's care remain appropriate. In cases where the primary permanency planning goal has not (RCW 13.34.130(7)) been achieved, the court shall inquire regarding the reasons why the primary goal has not been achieved and determine what needs to be done to make it possible to achieve the primary goal. In all cases, the court shall:

(i) Order the permanency plan prepared by the agency to be implemented; or
(ii) Modify the permanency plan, and order implementation of the modified plan; and

(b)(i) Order the child returned home only if the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in RCW 13.34.130 no longer exists; or

(ii) Order the child to remain in out-of-home care for a limited specified time period while efforts are made to implement the permanency plan.

(7) If the court orders the child returned home, casework supervision shall continue for at least six months, at which time a review hearing shall be held pursuant to (RCW 13.34.130(2)) section 19 of this act, and the court shall determine the need for continued intervention.

(8) Continued juvenile court jurisdiction under this chapter shall not be a barrier to the entry of an order establishing a legal guardianship or permanent legal custody when:(a) The court has ordered implementation of a permanency plan that includes legal guardianship or permanent legal custody; and (b) the party pursuing the legal guardianship or permanent legal custody is the party identified in the permanency plan as the prospective legal guardian or custodian. During the pendency of such proceeding, the juvenile court shall conduct review hearings and further permanency planning hearings as provided in this chapter. At the conclusion of the legal guardianship or permanent legal custody proceeding, a juvenile court hearing shall be held for the purpose of determining whether dependency should be dismissed. If a guardianship or permanent custody order has been entered, the dependency shall be dismissed.

(9) Following the first permanency planning hearing, the court shall hold a further permanency planning hearing in accordance with this section at least once every twelve months until a permanency planning goal is achieved or the dependency is dismissed, whichever occurs first.

(10) Except as (otherways) provided in RCW 13.34.235, the status of all dependent children shall continue to be reviewed by the court at least once every six months, in accordance with (RCW 13.34.130(2)) section 19 of this act, until the dependency is dismissed. Prior to the second permanency planning hearing, the agency that has custody of the child shall consider whether to file a petition for termination of parental rights.

(11) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to limit the ability of the agency that has custody of the child to file a petition for termination of parental rights or a guardianship petition at any time following the establishment of dependency. Upon the filing of such a petition, a fact-finding hearing shall be scheduled and held in accordance with this chapter unless the agency requests dismissal of the petition prior to the hearing or unless the parties enter an agreed order terminating parental rights, establishing guardianship, or otherwise resolving the matter.

(12) The approval of a permanency plan that does not contemplate return of the child to the parent does not relieve the supervising agency of its obligation to provide reasonable services, under this chapter, intended to effectuate the return of the child to the parent, including but not limited to, visitation rights.

(13) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to limit the procedural due process rights of any party in a termination or guardianship proceeding filed under this chapter.

Sec. 21. RCW 13.34.165 and 1998 c 296 s 38 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Failure by a party to comply with an order entered under this chapter is civil contempt of court as provided in RCW 7.21.030(e).

(2) The maximum term of (imprisonment) confinement that may be imposed as a remedial sanction for contempt of court under this section is confinement for up to seven days.

(3) A child (imprisoned) held for contempt under this section shall be confined only in a secure juvenile detention facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with a county.

(4) A motion for contempt may be made by a parent, juvenile court personnel, or by any public agency, organization, or person having custody of the child under a court order entered pursuant to this chapter.

(5) Whenever the court finds probable cause to believe, based upon consideration of a motion for contempt and the information set forth in a supporting declaration, that a child has violated a placement order entered under this chapter, the court may issue an order directing law enforcement to pick up and take the child to detention. The order may be entered ex parte without prior notice to the child or other parties. Following the child's admission to detention, a detention review hearing must be held in accordance with RCW 13.32A.065.
Sec. 22. RCW 13.34.170 and 1981 c 195 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

In any case in which ((an order or decree of)) the ((juvenile)) court ((requiring)) has ordered a parent or parents, guardian, or other person having custody of a child to pay ((for shelter care and/or)) support ((of such child is)) under RCW 13.34.160 and the order has not been complied with, the court may, upon such person or persons being duly summoned or voluntarily appearing, proceed to inquire into the amount due upon ((said)) the order ((is decreed)) and enter judgment for ((such)) that amount against the defaulting party or parties, and ((such)) the judgment shall be docketed as are other judgments for the payment of money.

In such judgments, the county in which the ((same are)) order is entered shall be ((denominated)) the judgment creditor, or the state may be the judgment creditor where the child is in the custody of a state agency ((and said)). Judgments may be enforced by the prosecuting attorney of ((such)) the county, or the attorney general where the state is the judgment creditor and any moneys recovered ((thereon)) shall be paid into the registry of the juvenile court and shall be disbursed to such person, persons, agency, or governmental department as the court ((shall find to be)) finds is entitled ((thereof)) to it.

Such judgments shall remain ((as)) valid and enforceable ((judgments)) for a period of ten years ((subsequent to the)) after the date of entry ((thereof)).

Sec. 23. RCW 13.34.174 and 1993 c 412 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The provisions of this section shall apply when a court orders a party to undergo an alcohol or substance abuse diagnostic investigation and evaluation.

(2) The facility conducting the investigation and evaluation shall make a written report to the court stating its findings and recommendations including family-based services or treatment when appropriate. If its findings and recommendations support treatment, it shall also recommend a treatment plan setting out:
   (a) Type of treatment;
   (b) Nature of treatment;
   (c) Length of treatment;
   (d) A treatment time schedule; and

The affected person shall be included in developing the appropriate ((plan of)) treatment plan. The ((plan of)) treatment plan must be signed by ((the))) the treatment provider and the affected person. The initial written progress report based on the treatment plan ((and response to treatment)) shall be sent to the appropriate persons six weeks after initiation of treatment((and))). Subsequent progress reports shall be provided after three months, ((six))) six months, ((twelve))) twelve months, and thereafter every six months if treatment exceeds twelve months. Reports are to be filed with the court in a timely manner. Close-out of the treatment record must include summary of pretreatment and posttreatment, with final outcome and disposition. The report shall also include recommendations for ongoing stability and decrease in destructive behavior.

((The))) Each report ((with the treatment plan)) shall also be filed with the court and a copy given to the person evaluated and the person's counsel. A copy of the treatment plan shall also be given to the department's caseworker and to the guardian ad litem. Any program for chemical dependency shall meet the program requirements contained in chapter 70.96A RCW.

(3) If the court has ordered treatment pursuant to a dependency proceeding it shall also require the treatment program to provide, in the reports required by subsection (2) of this section, status reports to the court, the department, the supervising child-placing agency if any, and the person or person's counsel regarding((the))) the person's cooperation with the treatment plan proposed((and))) and ((the))) the person's progress in treatment.

(4) ((In addition,)) If ((the party)) a person subject to this section fails or neglects to carry out and fulfill any term or condition of the treatment plan, the program or agency administering the treatment shall report such breach to the court, the department, the guardian ad litem, the supervising child-placing agency if any, and the person or person's counsel, within twenty-four hours, together with its recommendation. These reports shall be made as a declaration by the person who is personally responsible for providing the treatment.

(5) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as allowing the court to require the department to pay for the cost of any alcohol or substance abuse evaluation or treatment program.

Sec. 24. RCW 13.34.176 and 1993 c 412 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court ((or the department,)) upon receiving a report under RCW 13.34.174(4) or at the department's request, may schedule a show cause hearing to determine whether the person is in violation of the treatment conditions. All parties shall be given notice of the hearing. The court shall hold the hearing within ten days of the request for a hearing. At the hearing, testimony, declarations, reports, or other relevant information may be presented on the person's alleged failure to comply with the treatment plan and the person shall have the right to present similar information on his or her own behalf.

(2) If the court finds that there has been a violation of the treatment conditions it shall modify the dependency order, as necessary, to ensure the safety of the child. The modified order shall remain in effect until the party is in full compliance with the treatment requirements.

Sec. 25. RCW 13.34.180 and 1998 c 314 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:
A petition seeking termination of a parent and child relationship may be filed in juvenile court by any party to the dependency proceedings concerning that child. Such petition shall conform to the requirements of RCW 13.34.040, shall be served upon the parties as provided in RCW 13.34.070(8), and shall allege all of the following unless subsection (2) or (3) of this section applies:

(1)(a) That the child has been found to be a dependent child (under RCW 13.34.030(4)); (and
(2)(b) That the court has entered a dispositional order pursuant to RCW 13.34.130; (and
(3) That the child has been removed or will, at the time of the hearing, have been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency (under RCW 13.34.030(4)); (and
(4)(d) That the services ordered under (RCW 13.34.130) section 18 of this act have been expressly and understandably offered or provided and all necessary services, reasonably available, capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been expressly and understandably offered or provided; (and
(5) That there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future.

A parent's failure to substantially improve parental deficiencies within twelve months following entry of the dispositional order shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future. The presumption shall not arise unless the petitioner makes a showing that all necessary services reasonably capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been clearly offered or provided. In determining whether the conditions will be remedied the court may consider, but is not limited to, the following factors:

(1) Use of intoxicating or controlled substances so as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documented multiple failed treatment attempts; or

(ii) Psychological incapacity or mental deficiency of the parent that is so severe and chronic as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time, and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documentation that there is no treatment that can render the parent capable of providing proper care for the child in the near future; and

(iii) That continuation of the parent and child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for early integration into a stable and permanent home.

(2) In lieu of the allegations in subsection((a)) (1) ((through (a))) of this section, the petition may allege that the child was found under such circumstances that the whereabouts of the child's parent are unknown and no person has acknowledged paternity or maternity and requested custody of the child within two months after the child was found.

(3) In lieu of the allegations in subsection((a)) (2) ((through (a))) ((1)(b) through (f)) of this section, the petition may allege that the parent has been ((found by a court of competent jurisdiction)) convicted of:

(a) Murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, or homicide by abuse as defined in chapter 9A.32 RCW against another child of the parent;

(b) Manslaughter in the first degree or manslaughter in the second degree, as defined in chapter 9A.32 RCW against another child of the parent;

(c) Attempts, conspiring, or soliciting another to commit one or more of the crimes listed in (a) or (b) of this subsection; or

(d) Assault in the first or second degree, as defined in chapter 9A.36 RCW, against the surviving child or another child of the parent.

(4) Notice of rights shall be served upon the parent, guardian, or legal custodian with the petition and shall be in substantially the following form:

"NOTICE

A petition for termination of parental rights has been filed against you. You have important legal rights and you must take steps to protect your interests. This petition could result in permanent loss of your parental rights.

1. You have the right to a fact-finding hearing before a judge.

2. You have the right to have a lawyer represent you at the hearing. A lawyer can look at the files in your case, talk to the department of social and health services and other agencies, tell you about the law, help you understand your rights, and help you at hearings. If you cannot afford a lawyer, the court will appoint one to represent you. To get a court-appointed lawyer you must contact: (explain local procedure).

3. At the hearing, you have the right to speak on your own behalf, to introduce evidence, to examine witnesses, and to receive a decision based solely on the evidence presented to the judge.

You should be present at this hearing.

You may call (insert agency) for more information about your child. The agency's name and telephone number are (insert name and telephone number).

Sec. 26. RCW 13.34.190 and 1998 c 314 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:
After hearings pursuant to RCW 13.34.110 or 13.34.130, the court may enter an order terminating all parental rights to a child only if the court finds that:

1. (a) The allegations contained in the petition as provided in RCW 13.34.180(1) (through (6a)) are established by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence; or

(b) The provisions of RCW 13.34.180 (1)(a), (5), and (4) may be waived because the allegations under ((c) and (d) are established beyond a reasonable doubt and if so, then RCW 13.34.180(1)(c) and (d) may be waived. When an infant has been abandoned, as defined in RCW 13.34.030, and the abandonment has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt, then RCW 13.34.180(1)(c) and (d) may be waived; or

(c) The allegation under RCW 13.34.180((2)(a)) (2) is established beyond a reasonable doubt. In determining whether RCW 13.34.180 ((5) and (6)) (1) (e) and (f) are established beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall consider whether one or more of the aggravated circumstances listed in ((RCW 13.34.130((2))) section 16 of this act exist; or

(d) The allegation under RCW 13.34.180((2)(a)) (3) is established beyond a reasonable doubt; and

2. Such an order is in the best interests of the child.

Sec. 27. RCW 13.34.200 and 1977 ex.s. c 291 s 48 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the termination of parental rights pursuant to RCW 13.34.180, all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations, including any rights to custody, control, visitation, or support existing between the child and parent shall be severed and terminated and the parent shall have no standing to appear at any further legal proceedings concerning the child: PROVIDED, That any support obligation existing prior to the effective date of the order terminating parental rights shall not be severed or terminated. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent and the order shall so state.

(2) An order terminating the parent and child relationship shall not disentitle a child to any benefit due the child from any third person, agency, state, or the United States, nor shall any action under this chapter be deemed to affect any rights and benefits that ((a native American)) an Indian child derives from the child's descent from a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

Sec. 28. RCW 13.34.210 and 1991 c 127 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

If, upon entering an order terminating the parental rights of a parent, there remains no parent having parental rights, the court shall commit the child to the custody of the department ((of social and health services)) or to a licensed child-placing agency willing to accept custody for the purpose of placing the child for adoption((or in the absence thereof)). If an adoptive home has not been identified, the department or agency shall place the child in a licensed foster home, or take other suitable measures for the care and welfare of the child. The custodian shall have authority to consent to the adoption of the child consistent with chapter 26.33 RCW, the marriage of the child, the enlistment of the child in the armed forces of the United States, necessary surgical and other medical treatment for the child, and to consent to such other matters as might normally be required of the parent of the child.

If a child has not been adopted within six months after the date of the order and a ((general guardian)) guardianship of the child under RCW 13.34.231 or chapter 11.88 RCW, or a permanent custody order under chapter 26.10 RCW, has not been ((appointed)) entered by the court, ((the child shall be returned to the court for entry of further orders for his or her care, custody, and control, and, except for children whose cases are reviewed by a citizen review board under chapter 13.70 RCW,(a))) the court shall review the case every six months (b) until a decree of adoption is entered except for those cases which are reviewed by a citizen review board under chapter 13.70 RCW.

Sec. 29. RCW 13.34.231 and 1994 c 288 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

It the hearing on a dependency guardianship petition, all parties have the right to present evidence and cross examine witnesses. The rules of evidence apply to the conduct of the hearing. A guardianship shall be established if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that:

1. The child has been found to be a dependent child under RCW 13.34.030;
2. A dispositional order has been entered pursuant to RCW 13.34.130;
3. The child has been removed or will, at the time of the hearing, have been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency under RCW 13.34.030;
4. The services ordered under RCW 13.34.130 and section 18 of this act have been offered or provided and all necessary services, reasonably available, capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been offered or provided;
5. There is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future; and
6. A guardianship, rather than termination of the parent-child relationship or continuation of efforts to return the child to the custody of the parent, would be in the best interest of the child.

Sec. 30. RCW 13.34.233 and 1995 c 311 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Any party may request the court under RCW 13.34.150 to modify or terminate a dependency guardianship order ((under RCW 13.34.150)). Notice of any motion to modify or terminate the guardianship shall be served on all other parties, including any agency that was responsible for supervising the child's placement at the time the guardianship petition was filed. Notice ((shall)) in all cases shall be served upon the department ((of social and health services)). If the department was not previously a party to the guardianship proceeding, the department shall nevertheless have the right to: (a) Initiate a proceeding to modify or terminate a guardianship; and ((the right to)) (b) intervene at any stage of such a proceeding.

(2) The guardianship may be modified or terminated upon the motion of any party or the department if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a substantial change of circumstances subsequent to the establishment of the guardianship and that it is in the child's best interest to modify or terminate the guardianship. The court shall hold a hearing on the motion before modifying or terminating a guardianship.

(3) Upon entry of an order terminating the guardianship, the dependency guardian shall not have any rights or responsibilities with respect to the child and shall not have legal standing to participate as a party in further dependency proceedings pertaining to the child. The court may allow the child's dependency guardian to attend dependency review proceedings pertaining to the child for the sole purpose of providing information about the child to the court.

(4) Upon entry of an order terminating the guardianship, the child shall remain independent and the court shall either return the child to the child's parent or order the child into the custody, control, and care of the department ((of social and health services)) or a licensed child-placing agency for placement in a foster home or group care facility licensed pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW or in a home not required to be licensed pursuant to such chapter. The court shall not place a child in the custody of the child's parent unless the court finds that ((a) reasons for removal as set forth in RCW 13.34.130 no longer exist((i))) and that such placement is in the child's best interest. The court shall thereafter conduct reviews as provided in (RCW 13.34.110(3a)) section 19 of this act and, where applicable, shall hold a permanency planning hearing in accordance with RCW 13.34.145.

Sec. 31. RCW 13.34.235 and 1981 c 195 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:
A dependency guardianship ((established under RCW 13.34.231 and 13.34.232)) is not subject to the review hearing requirements of ((RCW 13.34.130)) section 19 of this act unless ordered by the court under RCW 13.34.232(1)(e).

Sec. 32. RCW 13.34.260 and 1990 c 284 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:
In an attempt to minimize the inherent intrusion in the lives of families involved in the foster care system and to maintain parental authority where appropriate, the department, absent good cause, shall follow the wishes of the natural parent regarding the placement of the child. Preferences such as family constellation, ethnicity, and religion shall be (given consideration) considered when matching children to foster homes. Parental authority is appropriate in areas that are not connected with the abuse or neglect that resulted in the dependency and (((name omitted))) shall be integrated through the foster care team. For purposes of this section, "foster care team" means the foster parent currently providing care, the currently assigned social worker, and the parent or parents.

Sec. 33. RCW 13.34.270 and 1998 c 229 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Whenever the department ((of social and health services)) places a ((developmentally disabled)) child with a developmental disability in out-of-home care pursuant to RCW 74.13.350, the department shall obtain a judicial determination within one hundred eighty days of the placement that continued placement is in the best interests of the child. If the child's out-of-home placement ends before one hundred eighty days have elapsed, no judicial determination is required.

(2) To obtain the judicial determination, the department shall file a petition alleging that there is located or residing within the county a child who has a developmental disability((, as defined in RCW 71A.10.020,)) and that the child has been placed in out-of-home care pursuant to RCW 74.13.350. The petition shall request that the court review the child's placement, make a determination ((that)) whether continued placement is in the best interests of the child, and take other necessary action as provided in this section. The petition shall contain the name, date of birth, and residence of the child and the names and residences of the child's parent or legal guardian who has agreed to the child's placement in out-of-home care. Reasonable attempts shall be made by the department to ascertain and set forth in the petition the identity, location, and custodial status of any parent who is not a party to the placement agreement and why that parent cannot assume custody of the child.

(3) Upon filing of the petition, the clerk of the court shall schedule the petition for a hearing to be held no later than fourteen calendar days after the petition has been filed. The department shall provide notification of the time, date, and purpose of the hearing to the parent or legal guardian who has agreed to the child's placement in out-of-home care. The department shall also make reasonable attempts to notify any parent who is not a party to the placement agreement, if the parent's identity and location is known. Notification under this section may be given by the most expedient means, including but not limited to, mail, personal service, and telephone((and telegraph)).

(4) The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the child as provided in RCW 13.34.100, unless the court for good cause finds the appointment unnecessary.

(5) Permanency planning hearings shall be held as provided in this ((subsection)) section. At the hearing, the court shall review whether the child's best interests are served by continued out-of-home placement and determine the future legal status of the child.

(a) For children age ten and under, a permanency planning hearing shall be held in all cases where the child has remained in out-of-home care for at least nine months and an adoption decree or guardianship order under chapter 11.88 RCW has not previously been entered. The hearing shall take place no later than twelve months following commencement of the child's current placement episode.

(b) For children over age ten, a permanency planning hearing shall be held in all cases where the child has remained in out-of-home care for at least fifteen months and an adoption decree or guardianship order under chapter 11.88 RCW has not previously been entered. The hearing shall take place no later than eighteen months following commencement of the current placement episode.
(c) No later than ten working days before the permanency planning hearing, the department shall submit a written permanency plan to the court and shall mail a copy of the plan to all parties. The plan shall be directed toward securing a safe, stable, and permanent home for the child as soon as possible. The plan shall identify one of the following outcomes as the primary goal and may also identify additional outcomes as alternative goals: Return of the child to the home of the child's parent or legal guardian; adoption; guardianship; or long-term out-of-home care, until the child is age eighteen, with a written agreement between the parties and the child's care provider.

(d) If a goal of long-term out-of-home care has been achieved before the permanency planning hearing, the court shall review the child's status to determine whether the placement and the plan for the child's care remains appropriate. In cases where the primary permanency planning goal has not been achieved, the court shall inquire regarding the reasons why the primary goal has not been achieved and determine what needs to be done to make it possible to achieve the primary goal.

(e) Following the first permanency planning hearing, the court shall hold a further permanency planning hearing in accordance with this section at least once every twelve months until a permanency planning goal is achieved or the voluntary placement agreement is terminated.

(6) Any party to the voluntary placement agreement may terminate the agreement at any time. Upon termination of the agreement, the child shall be returned to the care of the child's parent or legal guardian, unless the child has been taken into custody pursuant to RCW 13.34.050 or 26.44.050, placed in shelter care pursuant to RCW 13.34.060, or placed in foster care pursuant to RCW 13.34.130. The department shall notify the court upon termination of the voluntary placement agreement and return of the child to the care of the child's parent or legal guardian. Whenever a voluntary placement agreement is terminated, an action under this section shall be dismissed.

(7) This section does not prevent the department from filing a dependency petition if there is reason to believe that the child is a dependent child as defined in RCW 13.34.030. An action filed under this section shall be dismissed upon the filing of a dependency petition regarding a child who is the subject of the action under this section.

Sec. 34. RCW 13.34.300 and 1979 ex.s. c 201 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that it is the responsibility of the custodial parent, parents or guardian to ensure that children within the custody of such individuals attend school as provided for by law. To this end, while a parent's failure to cause a juvenile to attend school should not alone provide a basis for a neglect petition against the parent or guardian, when a neglect petition is filed on the basis of other evidence, a parent or guardian's failure to take reasonable steps to ensure that the juvenile attends school may be (used as evidence with respect) relevant to the question of the appropriate disposition of a neglect petition.

Sec. 35. RCW 13.34.340 and 1999 c 188 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

For minors who cannot consent to the release of their records with the department because they are not old enough to consent to treatment, or, if old enough, lack the capacity to consent, or if the minor is receiving treatment involuntarily with a provider the department has authorized to provide mental health treatment under RCW 13.34.320, the department shall disclose, upon the treating physician's request, all relevant records, including the minor's passport as established under RCW 74.13.285, in the department's possession that the treating physician determines contain information required for treatment of the minor. The treating physician shall maintain all records received from the department in a manner that distinguishes the records from any other records in the minor's file with the treating physician and the department may not be disclosed by the treating physician to any other person or entity absent a court order except that, for medical purposes only, a treating physician may disclose the department records to another treating physician.

Sec. 36. RCW 13.70.003 and 1989 1st ex.s. c 17 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature recognizes the importance of permanency and continuity to children and of fairness to parents in the provision of child welfare services.

The legislature intends to create a citizen review board system that will function in an advisory capacity to the judiciary, the department, and the legislature. The purpose of the citizen review board system is to:

1. Provide periodic review of cases involving substitute care of children in a manner that complies with case review requirements and time lines imposed by federal laws pertaining to child welfare services;

2. Improve the quality of case review provided to children in substitute care and their families; and

3. Provide a means for community involvement in monitoring cases of children in substitute care.

In order to accomplish the foregoing purposes, the citizen review board system shall not be subject to the procedures and standards usually applicable to judicial and administrative hearings, except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter and ((RCW 13.34.130)) section 19 of this act, 13.34.145, and 26.44.115. Nothing in this chapter and ((RCW 13.34.130)) section 19 of this act, 13.34.145, and 26.44.115 shall limit the ability of the department to utilize court review hearings and administrative reviews to meet the periodic review requirements imposed by federal law.

Sec. 37. RCW 13.70.110 and 1991 c 127 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

1. This section shall apply to cases where a child has been placed in substitute care pursuant to a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

2. Within forty-five days following commencement of the placement episode, the court shall assign the child's case to a board and forward to the board a copy of the dependency petition and any shelter care or dependency disposition orders which have been entered in the case by the court.
(3) The board shall review the case plan for each child whose case is assigned to the board by the court. The review shall take place at times set by the board. The first review shall occur within ninety days following commencement of the placement episode. The second review shall occur within six months following commencement of the placement episode. The next review shall occur within one year after commencement of the placement episode. Within eighteen months following commencement of the placement episode, a permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, the court shall assign the child's case for a board review or a court review hearing pursuant to section 17 of this act. A board review or a court review hearing shall take place at least once every six months until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or no longer in substitute care or until a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. After the permanency planning hearing, a court review hearing must occur at least once a year as provided in section 19 of this act. The board shall review any case where a petition to terminate parental rights has been denied, and such review shall occur as soon as practical but no later than forty-five days after the denial.

(4) The board shall prepare written findings and recommendations with respect to:

(a) Whether reasonable efforts were made before the placement to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the home, including whether consideration was given to removing the alleged offender, rather than the child, from the home;

(b) Whether reasonable efforts have been made subsequent to the placement to make it possible for the child to be returned home;

(c) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration has been given to placement with the child's relatives;

(d) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;

(e) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan;

(f) Whether progress has been made toward alleviating the need for placement;

(g) A likely date by which the child may be returned home or other permanent plan of care may be implemented; and

(h) Other problems, solutions, or alternatives the board determines should be explored.

(5) Within ten working days following the review, the board shall send a copy of its findings and recommendations to the parents and their attorneys, the child's custodians and their attorneys, mature children and their attorneys, other attorneys or guardians ad litem appointed by the court to represent children, the department and other child placement agencies directly responsible for supervising the child's placement, and any prosecuting attorney or attorney general actively involved in the case. If the child is an Indian as defined in the Indian child welfare act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., a copy of the board's findings and recommendations shall also be sent to the child's Indian tribe.

(6) If the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board recommendations, the department shall submit to the board, within ten working days after receipt of the findings and recommendations, an implementation report setting forth the reasons why the department is unable or unwilling to implement the board's recommendations. The report will also set forth the case plan which the department intends to implement.

(7) Within forty-five days following the review, the board shall either:

(a) Schedule the case for further review by the board; or

(b) Submit to the court the board's findings and recommendations and the department's implementation reports, if any. If the board's recommendations are different from the existing court-ordered case plan, the board shall also file with the court a motion for a review hearing.

(8) Within ten days of receipt of the board's written findings and recommendations and the department's implementation report, if any, the court shall review the findings and recommendations and implementation reports, if any. The court may on its own motion schedule a review hearing.

(9) Unless modified by subsequent court order, the court-ordered case plan and court orders that are in effect at the time that a board reviews a case shall remain in full force and effect. Board findings and recommendations are advisory only and do not in any way modify existing court orders or court-ordered case plans.

(10) The findings and recommendations of the board and the department's implementation report, if any, shall become part of the department's case file and the court social file pertaining to the child.

(11) Nothing in this section shall limit or otherwise modify the rights of any party to a dependency proceeding to request and receive a court review hearing pursuant to the provisions of chapter 13.34 RCW or applicable court rules.

Sec. 38. RCW 13.70.140 and 1993 c 505 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

A permanency planning hearing shall be held before the court in accordance with RCW 13.34.145. Thereafter, court review hearings shall occur at least once every six months, under section 19 of this act, until the child is no longer within the jurisdiction of the court or the child returns home or a guardianship order or adoption decree is entered. The court may review the case more frequently upon the court's own motion or upon the request of any party to the proceeding.

Sec. 39. RCW 26.44.115 and 1990 c 246 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

If a child is taken into custody by child protective services pursuant to a court order issued under section 5 of this act, the child protective services worker shall take reasonable steps to advise the parents immediately, regardless of the time of day, that the child has been taken into custody, the reasons why the child was taken into custody, and general information about the child's placement. The department shall comply with RCW 13.34.060 when providing notice under this section.
Sec. 40. RCW 74.15.030 and 1997 c 386 s 33 are each amended to read as follows:
The secretary shall have the power and it shall be the secretary's duty:

(1) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to designate categories of facilities for which separate or different requirements shall be developed as may be appropriate whether because of variations in the ages, sex and other characteristics of persons served, variations in the purposes and services offered or size or structure of the agencies to be licensed hereunder, or because of any other factor relevant thereto;

(2) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee, and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to adopt and publish minimum requirements for licensing applicable to each of the various categories of agencies to be licensed.

The minimum requirements shall be limited to:

(a) The size and suitability of a facility and the plan of operation for carrying out the purpose for which an applicant seeks a license;
(b) The character, suitability and competence of an agency and other persons associated with an agency directly responsible for the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons. In consultation with law enforcement personnel, the secretary shall investigate the conviction record or pending charges and dependency record information under chapter 43.43 RCW of each agency and its staff seeking licensure or relicensure. In order to determine the suitability of applicants for an agency license, licensees, their employees, and other persons who have unsupervised access to children in care, and who have not resided in the state of Washington during the three-year period before being authorized to care for children shall be fingerprinted. The fingerprints shall be forwarded to the Washington state patrol and federal bureau of investigation for a criminal history records check. The fingerprint criminal history records checks will be at the expense of the licensee except that in the case of a foster family home, if this expense would work a hardship on the licensee, the department shall pay the expense. The licensee may not pass this cost on to the employee or prospective employee, unless the employee is determined to be unsuitable due to his or her criminal history record. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining eligibility for a license and for determining the character, suitability, and competence of those persons or agencies, excluding parents, not required to be licensed who are authorized to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons. Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose;
(c) The number of qualified persons required to render the type of care and treatment for which an agency seeks a license;
(d) The safety, cleanliness, and general adequacy of the premises to provide for the comfort, care and well-being of children, expectant mothers or developmentally disabled persons;
(e) The provision of necessary care, including food, clothing, supervision and discipline; physical, mental and social well-being; and educational, recreational and spiritual opportunities for those served;
(f) The financial ability of an agency to comply with minimum requirements established pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031; and
(g) The maintenance of records pertaining to the admission, progress, health and discharge of persons served;
(3) To investigate any person, including relatives by blood or marriage except for parents, for character, suitability, and competence in the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons prior to authorizing that person to care for children, expectant mothers, and developmentally disabled persons. However, if a child is placed with a relative under RCW 13.34.130, and if such relative appears otherwise suitable and competent to provide care and treatment the criminal history background check information in this section need not be completed before placement, but shall be completed as soon as possible after placement;
(4) On reports of alleged child abuse and neglect, to investigate agencies in accordance with chapter 26.44 RCW, including child day-care centers and family day-care homes, to determine whether the alleged abuse or neglect has occurred, and whether child protective services or referral to a law enforcement agency is appropriate;
(5) To issue, revoke, or deny licenses to agencies pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031. Licenses shall specify the category of care which an agency is authorized to render and the ages, sex and number of persons to be served;
(6) To prescribe the procedures and the form and contents of reports necessary for the administration of chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and to require regular reports from each licensee;
(7) To inspect agencies periodically to determine whether or not there is compliance with chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and the requirements adopted hereunder;
(8) To review requirements adopted hereunder at least every two years and to adopt appropriate changes after consultation with the child care coordinating committee and other affected groups for child day-care requirements and with the children's services advisory committee for requirements for other agencies; and
(9) To consult with public and private agencies in order to help them improve their methods and facilities for the care of children, expectant mothers and developmentally disabled persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. RCW 13.34.170 shall be recodified to appear immediately following RCW 13.34.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:
(1) RCW 13.34.162 (Child support schedule) and 1993 c 412 s 10 and 1988 c 275 s 15; and
(2) RCW 13.34.220 (Order terminating parent and child relationship--Prevailing party to present findings, etc., to court, when) and 1979 c 155 s 50."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 29, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6218 with the following amendment(s)

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

The legislature finds that within any group of people there exists a need for guidelines for acceptable behavior and that, presumptively, the experience and maturity of parents make them better qualified to establish guidelines beneficial to and protective of their children. The legislature further finds that it is the right and responsibility of adults to establish laws for the benefit and protection of the society; and that, in the same manner, the right and responsibility for establishing reasonable guidelines for the family unit belongs to the adults within that unit. Further, absent abuse or neglect, parents (should) have the right to exercise control over their children. The legislature reaffirms its position stated in RCW 13.34.020 that the family unit is the fundamental resource of American life which should be nurtured and that it should remain intact in the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary.

The legislature recognizes there is a need for services and assistance for parents and children who are in conflict. These conflicts are manifested by children who exhibit various behaviors including: Running away, substance abuse, serious acting out problems, mental health needs, and other behaviors that endanger themselves or others.

The legislature finds many parents do not know their rights regarding their adolescent children and law enforcement. Parents and courts feel they have insufficient legal recourse for the chronic runaway child who is endangering himself or herself through his or her behavior. The legislature further recognizes that for chronic runaways whose behavior puts them in serious danger of harming themselves or others, secure facilities must be provided to allow opportunities for assessment, treatment, and to assist parents and protect their children. The legislature intends to give tools to parents, courts, and law enforcement to keep families together and reunite them whenever possible.

The legislature recognizes that some children run away to protect themselves from abuse or neglect in their homes. Abused and neglected children should be dealt with pursuant to chapter 13.34 RCW and it is not the intent of the legislature to handle dependency matters under this chapter."
The legislature intends services offered under this chapter be on a voluntary basis whenever possible to children and their families and that the courts be used as a last resort.

The legislature intends to increase the safety of children through the preservation of families and the provision of assessment, treatment, and placement services for children in need of services and at-risk youth including services and assessments conducted under chapter 13.32A RCW and RCW 74.13.033. Within available funds, the legislature intends to provide these services through crisis residential centers in which children and youth may safely reside for a limited period of time. The time in residence shall be used to conduct an assessment of the needs of the children, youth, and their families. The assessments are necessary to identify appropriate services and placement options that will reduce the likelihood that children will place themselves in dangerous or life-threatening situations.

The legislature recognizes that crisis residential centers provide an opportunity for children to receive short-term necessary support and nurturing in cases where there may be abuse or neglect. The legislature intends that center staff provide an atmosphere of concern, care, and respect for children in the center and their parents.

The legislature intends to provide for the protection of children who, through their behavior, are endangering themselves. The legislature intends to provide appropriate residential services, including secure facilities, to protect, stabilize, and treat children with serious problems. The legislature further intends to empower parents by providing them with the assistance they require to raise their children.

To prevent residents from taking unreasonable actions, the facility administrator, where appropriate, may condition a resident's leaving the facility upon the resident being accompanied by the administrator or the administrator's designee and the resident may be required to notify the administrator or the administrator's designee of any intent to leave, his or her intended destination, and the probable time of his or her return to the center.

Families who are in conflict or who are experiencing problems with at-risk youth or a child who may be in need of services may request family reconciliation services from the department. The department may involve a local multidisciplinary team in its response in determining the services to be provided and in providing those services. Such services shall be provided to alleviate personal or family situations which present a serious and imminent threat to the health or stability of the child or family and to maintain families intact wherever possible. Family reconciliation services shall be designed to develop skills and supports within families to resolve problems related to at-risk youth, children in need of services, or family conflicts. (1)(a) The administrator of a crisis residential center may convene a multidisciplinary team, which is to be locally based and administered, at the request of a child placed at the center or the child's parent.

(b) If the administrator has reasonable cause to believe that a child is a child in need of services and the parent is unavailable or unwilling to continue efforts to maintain the family structure, the administrator shall immediately convene a multidisciplinary team.

(c) A parent may disband a team twenty-four hours, excluding weekends and holidays, after receiving notice of formation of the team under (b) of this subsection unless a petition has been filed under RCW 13.32A.140. If a petition has been filed the parent may not disband the team until the hearing is held under RCW 13.32A.179. The court may allow the team to continue if an out-of-home placement is ordered under RCW 13.32A.179(3). Upon the filing of an at-risk youth or dependency petition the team shall cease to exist, unless the parent requests continuation of the team or unless the out-of-home placement was ordered under RCW 13.32A.179(3).

(2) The secretary shall request participation of appropriate state agencies to assist in the coordination and delivery of services through the multidisciplinary teams. Those agencies that agree to participate shall provide the secretary all information necessary to facilitate forming a multidisciplinary team and the secretary shall provide this information to the administrator of each crisis residential center.

(3) The secretary shall designate within each region a department employee who shall have responsibility for coordination of the state response to a request for creation of a multidisciplinary team. The secretary shall advise the administrator of each crisis residential center of the name of the appropriate employee. Upon a request of the administrator to form a multidisciplinary team the employee shall provide a list of the agencies that have agreed to participate in the multidisciplinary team.

(4) The administrator shall also seek participation from representatives of mental health and drug and alcohol treatment providers as appropriate.

(5) A parent shall be advised of the request to form a multidisciplinary team and may select additional members of the multidisciplinary team. The parent or child may request any person or persons to participate including, but not limited to, educators, law enforcement personnel, court personnel, family therapists, licensed health care practitioners, social service providers, youth residential placement providers, other family members, church representatives, and members of their own community. The administrator shall assist in obtaining the prompt participation of persons requested by the parent or child.

(6) When an administrator of a crisis residential center requests the formation of a team, the state agencies must respond as soon as possible. The team shall have the authority to evaluate the juvenile, and family members, if appropriate and agreed to by the parent, and shall:

(a) With parental input, develop a plan of appropriate available services and assist the family in obtaining those services;

(b) Make a referral to the designated chemical dependency specialist or the county designated mental health professional, if appropriate;

(c) Recommend no further intervention because the juvenile and his or her family have resolved the problem causing the family conflict; or

Sec. 5. RCW 13.32A.044 and 1995 c 312 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The purpose of the multidisciplinary team is to assist in a coordinated referral of the family to available social and health-related services.

(a) With parental input, develop a plan of appropriate available services and assist the family in obtaining those services;

(b) Make a referral to the designated chemical dependency specialist or the county designated mental health professional, if appropriate;

(c) Recommend no further intervention because the juvenile and his or her family have resolved the problem causing the family conflict; or

Sec. 6. RCW 13.32A.050 and 1997 c 146 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) If a law enforcement agency has been contacted by the parent of the child that the child is absent from parental custody without consent; or

(b) If a law enforcement officer reasonably believes, considering the child's age, the location, and the time of day, that a child is in circumstances which constitute a danger to the child's safety or that a child is violating a local curfew ordinance; or

(c) If an agency legally charged with the supervision of a child has notified a law enforcement agency that the child has run away from placement; or

(d) If a law enforcement agency has been notified by the juvenile court that the court finds probable cause exists to believe that the child has violated a court placement order issued (pursuant to) under this chapter (13.32A) or chapter 13.34 RCW or that the court has issued an order for law enforcement pick-up of the child under this chapter or chapter 13.34 RCW.

(2) Law enforcement custody shall not extend beyond the amount of time reasonably necessary to transport the child to a destination authorized by law and to place the child at that destination. Law enforcement custody continues until the law enforcement officer transfers custody to a person, agency, or other authorized entity under this chapter, or releases the child because no placement is available. Transfer of custody is not complete unless the person, agency, or entity to whom the child is released agrees to accept custody.

(3) If a law enforcement officer takes a child into custody pursuant to either subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section and transports the child to a crisis residential center, the officer shall, within twenty-four hours of delivering the child to the center, provide to the center a written report detailing the reasons the officer took the child into custody. The center shall provide the department with a copy of the officer's report.

(4) If the law enforcement officer who initially takes the juvenile into custody or the staff of the crisis residential center have reasonable cause to believe that the child is absent from home because he or she is abused or neglected, a report shall be made immediately to the department.

(5) Nothing in this section affects the authority of any political subdivision to make regulations concerning the conduct of minors in public places by ordinance or other local law.
(6) If a law enforcement officer ("receives a report that causes the officer to have") has a reasonable suspicion that a child is being unlawfully harbored ("under RCW 13.32A.080 or for other reasons has a reasonable suspicion that a child is being harbored under") in violation of RCW 13.32A.080, the officer shall remove the child from the custody of the person harboring the child and shall transport the child to one of the locations specified in RCW 13.32A.060.

(7) No child may be placed in a secure facility except as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 7. RCW 13.32A.060 and 1997 c 146 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050(1) (a) or (b) shall inform the child of the reason for such custody and shall:

(a) Transport the child to his or her home or to a parent at his or her place of employment, if no parent is at home. The parent may request that the officer take the child to the home of an adult extended family member, responsible adult, crisis residential center, the department, or a licensed youth shelter. In responding to the request of the parent, the officer shall take the child to a requested place which, in the officer's belief, is within a reasonable distance of the parent's home. The officer releasing a child into the custody of a parent, an adult extended family member, responsible adult, or a licensed youth shelter shall inform the person receiving the child of the reason for taking the child into custody and inform all parties of the nature and location of appropriate services available in the community; or

(b) After attempting to notify the parent, take the child to a designated crisis residential center's secure facility or a center's semi-secure facility if a secure facility is full, not available, or not located within a reasonable distance; or

(i) The child expresses fear or distress at the prospect of being returned to his or her home which leads the officer to believe there is a possibility that the child is experiencing some type of ((child)) abuse or neglect((, as defined in RCW 26.44.020));

(ii) It is not practical to transport the child to his or her home or place of the parent's employment; or

(iii) There is no parent available to accept custody of the child; or

(c) After attempting to notify the parent, if a crisis residential center is full, not available, or not located within a reasonable distance, ((the officer may)) request the department to accept custody of the child. If the department determines that an appropriate placement is currently available, the department shall accept custody and place the child in an out-of-home placement. Upon accepting custody of a child from the officer, the department may place the child in an out-of-home placement for up to seventy-two hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, without filing a child in need of services petition ((under this chapter)), obtaining parental consent, or obtaining an order for placement under chapter 13.34 RCW. Upon transferring a child to the department's custody, the officer shall provide written documentation of the reasons and the statutory basis for taking the child into custody. If the department declines to accept custody of the child, the officer may release the child after attempting to take the child to the following, in the order listed: The home of an adult extended family member; a responsible adult; or a licensed youth shelter ((and)). The officer shall immediately notify the department if no placement option is available and the child is released.

(2) An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050(1) (c) or (d) shall inform the child of the reason for custody. An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050(1)(c) may release the child to the supervising agency, or shall take the child to a designated crisis residential center's secure facility. If the secure facility is not available, not located within a reasonable distance, or full, the officer shall take the child to a semi-secure crisis residential center. An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050(1)(d) may place the child in a juvenile detention facility as provided in RCW 13.32A.065 or a secure facility, except that the child shall be taken to detention whenever the officer has been notified that a juvenile court has entered a detention order under this chapter or chapter 13.34 RCW.

(3) Every officer taking a child into custody shall provide the child and his or her parent or parents or responsible adult with a copy of the statement specified in RCW 13.32A.130(6).

(4) Whenever an officer transfers custody of a child to a crisis residential center or the department, the child may reside in the crisis residential center or may be placed by the department in an out-of-home placement for an aggregate total period of time not to exceed seventy-two hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. Thereafter, the child may continue in out-of-home placement only if the parents have consented, a child in need of services petition has been filed ((under this chapter)), or an order for placement has been entered under chapter 13.34 RCW.

(5) The department shall ensure that all law enforcement authorities are informed on a regular basis as to the location of all designated secure and semi-secure facilities within centers in their jurisdiction, where children taken into custody under RCW 13.32A.050 may be taken.

Sec. 8. RCW 13.32A.065 and 1996 c 133 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

If the administrator of the crisis residential center performs the duties listed in subsection (4) of this section, he or she shall also notify the department that a child has been admitted to the crisis residential center.

Sec. 12. RCW 13.32A.095 and 1996 c 133 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

The administrator of (a) a crisis residential center shall notify parents (b) the appropriate law enforcement agency, and the department immediately as to any unauthorized leave from the center by a child placed at the center.

Sec. 14. RCW 13.32A.120 and 1996 c 133 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where either a child or the child's parent or the person or facility currently providing shelter to the child notifies the center that such individual or individuals cannot agree to the continuation of an out-of-home placement arrived at pursuant to RCW 13.32A.090((2)(a)(i)) (3)(d)(ii), the administrator of the center shall immediately contact the remaining party or parties to the agreement and shall attempt to bring about the child's return home or to an alternative living arrangement agreeable to the child and the parent as soon as practicable.

(2) If a child and his or her parent cannot agree to an out-of-home placement under RCW 13.32A.090((2)(a)(i)) (3)(d)(ii), either the child or parent may file ((with the juvenile court)) a child in need of services petition to approve an out-of-home placement or the parent may file ((with the juvenile court)) an at-risk youth petition (in the interest of a child alleged to be an at-risk youth under this chapter).

(3) If a child and his or her parent cannot agree to the continuation of an out-of-home placement ((arrived at)) under RCW 13.32A.090((2)(a)(i)) (3)(d)(ii), either the child or parent may file ((with the juvenile court)) a child in need of services petition to ((approve)) continue an out-of-home placement or the parent may file ((with the juvenile court)) an at-risk youth petition (in the interest of a child alleged to be an at-risk youth under this chapter).

Sec. 15. RCW 13.32A.130 and 1997 c 146 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A child admitted to a secure facility ((within a crisis residential center)) shall remain in the facility for at least twenty-four hours after admission but for not more than five consecutive days((, but for at least twenty-four hours after admission)). If the child admitted under this section is transferred ((between centers or)) between secure and semi-secure facilities, the aggregate length of time spent in all such centers or facilities may not exceed five consecutive days per admission.

(ii) In making the determination the administrator shall consider the following information if known: (A) The child's age and maturity; (B) the child's condition upon arrival at the center; (C) the circumstances that led to the child's being taken to the center; (D) whether the child's behavior endangers the health, safety, or welfare of the child or any other person; (E) the child's history of running away ((which has endangered the health, safety, and welfare of the child)); and (F) the child's willingness to cooperate in the assessment.

(b) If the administrator of a secure facility determines the child is unlikely to remain in a semi-secure facility, the administrator shall keep the child in the secure facility pursuant to this chapter and in order to provide for space for the child may transfer another child who has been in the facility for at least seventy-two hours to a semi-secure facility. The administrator shall only make a transfer of a child after determining that the child who may be transferred is likely to remain at the semi-secure facility.

(c) A crisis residential center administrator is authorized to transfer a child to a crisis residential center in the area where the child's parents reside or where the child's lawfully prescribed residence is located.

(d) An administrator may transfer a child from a semi-secure facility to a secure facility whenever he or she reasonably believes that the child is likely to leave the semi-secure facility and not return and after full consideration of all factors in (a)(i) and (ii) of this subsection.

(3) If no parent is available or willing to remove the child during the first seventy-two hours following admission, the department shall consider the filing of a petition under RCW 13.32A.140.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the parents may remove the child at any time during the five-day period unless the staff of the crisis residential center has reasonable cause to believe that the child is absent from the home because he or she is abused or neglected or if allegations of abuse or neglect have been made against the parents. The department or any agency legally charged with the supervision of a child may remove a child from a crisis residential center at any time after the first twenty-four-hour period after admission has elapsed and only after full consideration by all parties of the factors in subsection (2)(a) of this section.

(5) Crisis residential center staff shall make reasonable efforts to protect the child and achieve a reconciliation of the family. If a reconciliation and voluntary return of the child has not been achieved within forty-eight hours from the time of ((intake)) admission, and if the administrator of the center does not consider it likely that reconciliation will be achieved within the five-day period, then the administrator shall inform the parent and child of: (a) The availability of counseling services; (b) the right to file a child in need of services petition for an out-of-home placement, the right of a parent to file an at-risk youth petition, and the right of the parent and child to obtain assistance in filing the petition; (c) the right to request the facility administrator or his or her designee to form a multidisciplinary team; (d) the right to request a review of any out-of-home placement; (e) the right to request a mental health or chemical dependency evaluation by a county-designated professional or a private treatment facility; and (f) the right to request treatment in a program to address the child's at-risk behavior under RCW 13.32A.197.

(6) At no time shall information regarding a parent's or child's rights be withheld. The department shall develop and distribute to all law enforcement agencies and to each crisis residential center administrator a written statement delineating the services and rights. ((Every officer taking a child into custody shall provide the child and his or her parent(s) or responsible adult with whom the child is placed with a copy of the statement. In addition,)) The administrator of the facility or his or her designee shall provide every resident and parent with a copy of the statement.

(7) A crisis residential center and ((the administrator or his or her designee)) any person employed at the center acting in good faith in carrying out the provisions of this section are immune from criminal or civil liability for such actions.

Sec. 16. RCW 13.32A.140 and 1997 c 146 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the department files a dependency petition, the department shall file a child in need of services petition to approve an out-of-home placement on behalf of a child under any of the following sets of circumstances:

1. The child has been admitted to a crisis residential center or has been placed by the department in an out-of-home placement, and:
   a. The parent has been notified that the child was so admitted or placed;
   b. The child cannot return home, and legal authorization is needed for out-of-home placement beyond seventy-two hours;
   c. No agreement between the parent and the child as to where the child shall live has been reached;
   d. No child in need of services petition has been filed by either the child or parent;
   e. The parent has not filed an at-risk youth petition; and
   f. The child has no suitable place to live other than the home of his or her parent.

2. The child has been admitted to a crisis residential center and:
   a. Seventy-two hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, have passed since such placement;
   b. The staff, after searching with due diligence, have been unable to contact the parent of such child; and
   c. The child has no suitable place to live other than the home of his or her parent.

3. An agreement between parent and child made pursuant to RCW 13.32A.090(((1)(ii))) (3)(d)(v) or pursuant to RCW 13.32A.120(1) is no longer acceptable to parent or child, and:
   a. The party to whom the arrangement is no longer acceptable has so notified the department;
   b. Seventy-two hours, including Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, have passed since such notification;
   c. No new agreement between parent and child as to where the child shall live has been reached;
   d. No child in need of services petition has been filed by either the child or parent;
   e. The parent has not filed an at-risk youth petition; and
   f. The child has no suitable place to live other than the home of his or her parent.

Under the circumstances of subsections (1), (2), or (3) of this section, the child shall remain in an out-of-home placement until a child in need of services petition filed by the department on behalf of the child is reviewed (by the juvenile court) and ((ii)) resolved by the juvenile court. The department may authorize emergency medical or dental care for a child admitted to a crisis residential center or placed in an out-of-home placement by the department. The state, when the department files a child in need of services petition under this section, shall be represented as provided for in RCW 13.04.093.

Sec. 17. RCW 13.32A.150 and 1996 c 133 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the juvenile court shall not accept the filing of a child in need of services petition by the child or the parents or the filing of an at-risk youth petition by the parent, unless verification is provided that the department has completed a family assessment (has been completed by the department). The family assessment (provided by the department) shall involve the multidisciplinary team (as provided in RCW 13.32A.040) if one exists. The family assessment or plan of services developed by the multidisciplinary team shall be aimed at family reconciliation, reunification, and avoidance of the out-of-home placement of the child. If the department is unable to complete an assessment within two working days following a request for assessment the child or the parents may proceed under subsection (2) of this section or the parent may proceed under RCW 13.32A.191.

2. A child or a child's parent may file with the juvenile court a child in need of services petition to approve an out-of-home placement for the child. The department shall, when requested, assist either a parent or child in the filing of the petition. The petition must be filed in the county where the parent resides. The petition shall allege that the child is a child in need of services and shall ask only that the placement of a child outside the home of his or her parent be approved. The filing of a petition to approve the placement is not dependent upon the court's having obtained any prior jurisdiction over the child or his or her parent, and confers upon the court a special jurisdiction to approve or disapprove an out-of-home placement under this chapter.

3. A petition may not be filed if the child is the subject of a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

Sec. 18. RCW 13.32A.152 and 1996 c 133 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Whenever a child in need of services petition is filed by: (a) A youth pursuant to RCW 13.32A.150; (b) the child or the child's parent pursuant to RCW 13.32A.120; or (c) the department pursuant to RCW 13.32A.140, the filing party shall have a copy of the petition served on the parents of the youth. Service shall first be attempted in person and if unsuccessful, then by certified mail with return receipt.

(2) Whenever a child in need of services petition is filed by a youth or parent pursuant to RCW 13.32A.150, the court shall immediately notify the department that a petition has been filed.

Sec. 19. RCW 13.32A.160 and 1997 c 146 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a proper child in need of services petition to approve an out-of-home placement is filed under RCW 13.32A.120, 13.32A.140, or 13.32A.150 the juvenile court shall: (a)(i) Schedule a fact-finding hearing to be held: (A) For a child who resides in a place other than his or her parent's home and other than an out-of-home placement, within five calendar days unless the last calendar day is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, in which case the hearing shall be held on the preceding judicial day; or (B) for a child living at home or in an out-of-home placement, within ten days; and (ii) notify the parent, child, and the department of such date; (b) notify the parent of the right to be represented by counsel and, if indigent, to have counsel appointed for him or her by the court; (c) appoint legal counsel for the child; (d) inform the child and his or her parent of the legal consequences of the court approving or disapproving a child in need of services petition; (e) notify the parents of their rights under this chapter and chapters 11.88, 13.34, 70.96A, and 71.34 RCW, including the right to file an at-risk youth petition, the right to submit an application for admission of their child to a treatment facility for alcohol, chemical dependency, or mental health treatment, and the right to file a guardianship petition; and (f) notify all parties, including the department, of their right to present evidence at the fact-finding hearing.

(2) Upon filing of a child in need of services petition, the child may be placed, if not already placed, by the department in a crisis residential center, foster family home, group home facility licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW, or any other suitable residence or reasonable discipline established by the parent.

(3) If the child has been placed in a foster family home or group care facility under chapter 74.15 RCW, the child shall remain there, or in any other suitable residence as determined by the department, pending resolution of the petition by the court. Any placement may be reviewed by the court within three judicial days upon the request of the juvenile or the juvenile's parent.

Sec. 20. RCW 13.32A.170 and 1996 c 133 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing to consider a proper child in need of services petition, giving due weight to the intent of the legislature that families have the right to place reasonable restrictions and rules upon their children, appropriate to the individual child's developmental level. The court may appoint legal counsel and/or a guardian ad litem to represent the child and advise parents of their right to be represented by legal counsel. At the commencement of the hearing, the court shall advise the parents of their rights as set forth in RCW 13.32A.160(1). If the court approves or denies a child in need of services petition, a written statement of the reasons must be filed.

(2) The court may approve an order stating that the child shall be placed in a residence other than the home of his or her parent only if it is established by a preponderance of the evidence, including a departmental recommendation for approval or denial of the petition, that:
   (a) The child is a child in need of services as defined in RCW 13.32A.030; or
   (b) If the petitioner is a child, he or she has made a reasonable effort to resolve the conflict;
   (c) Reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home; and
   (d) A suitable out-of-home placement resource is available.

   The court may not grant a petition filed by the child or the department if it is established that the petition is based only upon a dislike of reasonable rules or reasonable discipline established by the parent.

   The court may not grant the petition if the child is the subject of a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW.

(3) Following the fact-finding hearing the court shall: (a) Approve a child in need of services petition and, if appropriate, enter a temporary out-of-home placement for a period not to exceed fourteen days pending approval of a disposition decision to be made under RCW 13.32A.179(2); (b) approve an at-risk youth petition filed by the parents and dismiss the child in need of services petition; or (c) dismiss the petition.

At any time the court may order the department to review the case to determine whether the case is appropriate for a dependency petition under chapter 13.34 RCW.

Sec. 21. RCW 13.32A.179 and 1997 c 146 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A disposition hearing shall be held no later than fourteen days after the approval of the temporary out-of-home placement. The parents, child, and department shall be notified by the court of the time and place of the hearing.

(2) At the conclusion of the disposition hearing, the court may: (a) Reunite the family and dismiss the petition; (b) approve an at-risk youth petition filed by the parents and dismiss the child in need of services petition; (c) approve an out-of-home placement requested in the child in need of services petition by the parents; or (d) order an out-of-home placement at the request of the child or the department not to exceed ninety days.
At any time the court may order the department to review the matter for purposes of filing a dependency petition under chapter 13.34 RCW. Whether or not the court approves or orders an out-of-home placement, the court may also order any conditions of supervision as set forth in RCW 13.32A.196((2)(c))((3)).

(3) The court may only enter an order under subsection (2)(d) of this section if it finds by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that:
(a)(i) The order is in the best interest of the family; (ii) the parents have not requested an out-of-home placement; (iii) the parents have not exercised any other right listed in RCW 13.32A.160(1)(c); (iv) the child has made reasonable efforts to resolve the problems that led to the filing of the petition; (v) the problems cannot be resolved by delivery of services to the family during continued placement of the child in the parental home; (vi) reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home; and (vii) a suitable out-of-home placement resource is available; (b)(i) the order is in the best interest of the child; and (ii) the parents are unavailable; or (c) the parent's actions cause an imminent threat to the child's health or safety.

(4) The court may order the department to submit a dispositional plan if such a plan would assist the court in ordering a suitable disposition in the case. The plan, if ordered, shall address the needs of the child, and the perceived needs of the parents if the order was entered under subsection (2)(d) of this section or if specifically agreed to by the parents. If the parents do not agree or the order was not entered under subsection (2)(d) of this section the plan may only make recommendations regarding services in which the parents may voluntarily participate. If the court orders the department to prepare a plan, the department shall provide copies of the plan to the parent, the child, and the court. If the parties or the court desire the department to be involved in any future proceedings or case plan development, the department shall be provided with timely notification of all court hearings.

(5) A child who fails to comply with a court order issued under this section shall be subject to contempt proceedings, as provided in this chapter, but only if the noncompliance occurs within one year after the entry of the order.

(6) After the court approves or orders an out-of-home placement, the parents or the department may request, and the court may grant, dismissal of the child in need of services proceeding when it is not feasible for the department to provide services due to one or more of the following circumstances:
(a) The child has been absent from court approved placement for thirty consecutive days or more;
(b) The parents or the child, or all of them, refuse to cooperate in available, appropriate intervention aimed at reunifying the family; or
(c) The department has exhausted all available and appropriate resources that would result in reunification.

(7) The court shall dismiss a placement made under subsection (2)(c) of this section upon the request of the parents.

Sec. 22. RCW 13.32A.191 and 1995 c 312 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A child's parent may file with the juvenile court a petition in the interest of a child alleged to be an at-risk youth. The department shall, when requested, assist the parent in filing the petition. The petition shall be filed in the county where the petitioner resides. The petition shall set forth the name, age, and residence of the child and the names and residence of the child's parents and shall allege that:
(a) The child is an at-risk youth ((as defined in this chapter));
(b) The petitioner has the right to legal custody of the child;
(c) Court intervention and supervision are necessary to assist the parent to maintain the care, custody, and control of the child; and
(d) Alternatives to court intervention have been attempted or there is good cause why such alternatives have not been attempted.

(2) The petition shall set forth facts that support the allegations in this section and shall generally request relief available under this chapter. The petition need not specify any proposed disposition following adjudication of the petition. The filing of an at-risk youth petition is not dependent upon the court's having obtained any prior jurisdiction over the child or his or her parent and confers upon the court the special jurisdiction to assist the parent in maintaining parental authority and responsibility for the child.

(3) A petition may not be filed if a dependency petition is pending under chapter 13.34 RCW.

Sec. 23. RCW 13.32A.194 and 1996 c 133 s 27 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court shall hold a fact-finding hearing to consider a proper at-risk youth petition. The court shall grant the petition and enter an order finding the child to be an at-risk youth if the allegations in the petition are established by a preponderance of the evidence, unless the child is the subject of a proceeding under chapter 13.34 RCW. If the petition is granted, the court shall enter an order requiring the child to reside in the home of his or her parent or in an out-of-home placement as provided in RCW 13.32A.192(2).

(2) The court may order the department to submit a dispositional plan if such a plan would assist the court in ordering a suitable disposition in the case. If the court orders the department to prepare a plan, the department shall provide copies of the plan to the parent, the child, and the court. If the parties or the court desire the department to be involved in any future proceedings or case plan development, the department shall be provided with timely notification of all court hearings.

(3) (A) Dispositional hearing shall be held no later than fourteen days after the fact-finding hearing. Each party shall be notified of the time and date of the hearing.

(b) If the court grants or denies an at-risk youth petition, a statement of the written reasons shall be entered into the records. If the court denies an at-risk youth petition, the court shall verbally advise the parties that the child is required to remain within the care, custody, and control of his or her parent.

(4) Such penalty assessments shall be paid by the clerk of the superior court to the county treasurer who shall monthly transmit the money as provided in RCW 10.82.070. The department shall approve as comprehensive only programs which:

(a) Provide comprehensive services to victims and witnesses of all types of crime with particular emphasis on serious crimes against persons and property. It is the intent of the legislature to make funds available only to programs which do not restrict services to victims or witnesses of a particular type or types of crime and that such funds supplement, not supplant, existing local funding levels;

Before a program in any county west of the Cascade mountains is submitted to the department for approval, it shall be submitted for review and comment to each city within the county with a population of more than one hundred fifty thousand. The department will consider if the county's proposed comprehensive plan meets the needs of crime victims in cases adjudicated in municipal, district or superior courts and of crimes victims located within the city and county.

(5) Upon submission to the department of a letter of intent to adopt a comprehensive program, the prosecuting attorney shall retain the money deposited by the county under subsection (4) of this section until such time as the county prosecuting attorney has obtained approval of a program from the department. Approval of the comprehensive plan by the department must be obtained within one year of the date of the letter of intent to adopt a comprehensive program. The county prosecuting attorney shall not make any expenditures from the money deposited under subsection (4) of this section until approval of a comprehensive plan by the department. MOTION

Senator Hargrove moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6305.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hargrove: "Senator Franklin, the requirement that the GAL’s fees be set by the court was amended in the House, adding an exception for local court rules. Why is an exception needed for local court rules?"
Senator Franklin: "Each county has its own registry and sometimes multiple registries for different kinds of Guardians ad Litem appointed in cases. The local jurisdiction needs to be able to set fees according to the kind of Guardians ad Litem appointed. Some registries have Guardians ad Litem on contract with the state, and their fees cannot be set higher by the court without disrupting agency budgets."
Senator Hargrove: "Then, the intent of the amendment is to avoid disrupting contracts that cap fees? May each county develop its own rules that provide more protection to a minor or incapacitated person from excessive fees and costs than would be covered by the statutory provision?"
Senator Franklin: "That’s correct. The local jurisdiction could not have a rule that precluded court review of fees or that violated the policy set forth in statute that fees shall be limited before they are incurred. The legislative intent is to prevent excessive fees."
Senator Hargrove: "Thank you very much."

Further debate ensued.

(1) Appropriate for the age, individual needs, and particular circumstances of students, including the existence of mental, physical, emotional, or sensory disabilities;
(2) Provided at different times throughout the year in a manner which will ensure that all students receive such instruction; and
(3) Provided by individuals who possess appropriate knowledge and training, documentation of which shall be maintained by the school.

Sec. 8. RCW 72.40.040 and 1993 c 147 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:
The schools shall be free to residents of the state between the ages of three and twenty-one years, who are blind/visually impaired or deaf/hearing impaired, or with other disabilities where a vision or hearing disability is the major need for services.

The schools may provide nonresidential services to children ages birth through three who meet the eligibility criteria in this section, subject to available funding.

Each school shall admit and retain students on a space available basis according to criteria developed and published by each school superintendent in consultation with each board of trustees and school faculty: PROVIDED, That students over the age of twenty-one years, who are otherwise qualified may be retained at the school, if in the discretion of the superintendent in consultation with the faculty they are proper persons to receive further training given at the school and the facilities are adequate for proper care, education, and training.

The admission and retention criteria developed and published by each school superintendent shall contain a provision allowing the schools to refuse to admit or retain a student who is an adjudicated sex offender except that the schools shall not admit or retain a student who is an adjudicated level III sex offender as provided in RCW 13.40.217(3).

Sec. 9. RCW 72.40.050 and 1985 c 378 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superintendents may admit to their respective schools visually or hearing impaired children from other states as appropriate, but the parents or guardians of such children or other state will be required to pay annually or quarterly in advance a sufficient amount to cover the cost of maintaining and educating such children as set by the applicable superintendent.

(2) The admission and retention criteria developed and published by each school superintendent shall contain a provision allowing the schools to refuse to admit or retain a nonresident student who is an adjudicated sex offender, or the equivalent under the laws of the state in which the student resides, except that the schools shall not admit or retain a nonresident student who is an adjudicated level III sex offender or the equivalent under the laws of the state in which the student resides.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 72.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The schools shall implement a policy for the children who reside at the schools protecting those who are vulnerable to sexual victimization by other children who are sexually aggressive and residing at the schools. The policy shall include, at a minimum, the following elements:

(a) Development and use of an assessment process for identifying children, within thirty days of beginning residence at the schools, who present a moderate or high risk of sexually aggressive behavior for the purposes of this section. The assessment process need not require that every child who is adjudicated or convicted of a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 be determined to be sexually aggressive, nor shall a sex offense adjudication or conviction be required in order to determine a child is sexually aggressive. Instead, the assessment process shall consider the individual circumstances of the child, including his or her age, physical size, sexual abuse history, mental and emotional condition, and other factors relevant to sexual aggressiveness. The definition of "sexually aggressive youth" in RCW 74.13.075 does not apply to this section to the extent that it conflicts with this section;

(b) Development and use of an assessment process for identifying children, within thirty days of beginning residence at the schools, who may be vulnerable to victimization by children identified under (a) of this subsection as presenting a moderate or high risk of sexually aggressive behavior. The assessment process shall consider the individual circumstances of the child, including his or her age, physical size, sexual abuse history, mental and emotional condition, and other factors relevant to vulnerability;

(c) Development and use of placement criteria to avoid assigning children who present a moderate or high risk of sexually aggressive behavior to the same sleeping quarters as children assessed as vulnerable to sexual victimization, except that they may be assigned to the same multiple-person sleeping quarters if those sleeping quarters are regularly monitored by visual surveillance equipment or staff checks;

(d) Development and use of procedures for minimizing, within available funds, unsupervised contact in the residential facilities of the schools between children presenting moderate to high risk of sexually aggressive behavior and children assessed as vulnerable to sexual victimization. The procedures shall include taking reasonable steps to prohibit any child residing at the schools who present a moderate to high risk of sexually aggressive behavior from entering any sleeping quarters other than the one to which they are assigned, unless accompanied by an authorized adult.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Sleeping quarters" means the bedrooms or other rooms within a residential facility where children are assigned to sleep.

(b) "Unsupervised contact" means contact occurring outside the sight or hearing of a responsible adult for more than a reasonable period of time under the circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and this finding does not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. Rules adopted under this act must meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill or chapter number, is not provided by June 30, 2000, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act is null and void.∗

Correct the title., and the same are herewith transmitted.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 3, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6400 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

∗NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 26.50 RCW to read as follows:

The department of social and health services, in its discretion, may seek the relief provided in this chapter on behalf of and with the consent of any vulnerable adult as those persons are defined in RCW 74.34.020. Neither the department nor the state of Washington shall be liable for failure to seek relief on behalf of any persons under this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An order for protection of a vulnerable adult issued under this chapter which restrains the respondent or another person from committing acts of abuse, prohibits contact with the petitioner, excludes the person from any specified location, or prohibits the person from coming within a specified distance from a location, shall prominently bear on the front page of the order the legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.50 RCW AND WILL SUBJECT A VIOLATOR TO ARREST.

(2) Whenever an order for protection of a vulnerable adult is issued under this chapter, and the respondent or person to be restrained knows of the order, a violation of a provision restraining the person from committing acts of abuse, prohibiting contact with the petitioner, excluding the person from any specified location, or prohibiting the person from coming within a specified
Sec. 3. RCW 9.94A.220 and 1994 c 271 s 901 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When an offender has completed the requirements of the sentence, the secretary of the department or the secretary's designee shall notify the sentencing court, which shall discharge the offender and provide the offender with a certificate of discharge.

(2) An offender who is not convicted of a violent offense or a sex offense and is sentenced to a term involving community supervision may be considered for a discharge of sentence by the sentencing court prior to the completion of community supervision, provided that the offender has completed at least one-half of the term of community supervision and has met all other sentence requirements.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the discharge shall have the effect of restoring all civil rights lost by operation of law upon conviction, and the certificate of discharge shall so state. Nothing in this section prohibits the use of an offender's prior record for purposes of determining sentences for later offenses as provided in this chapter. Nothing in this section affects or prevents use of the offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution either as an element of an offense or for impeachment purposes. A certificate of discharge is not based on a finding of rehabilitation.

(4) Unless otherwise ordered by the sentencing court, a certificate of discharge shall not terminate the offender's obligation to comply with an order issued under chapter 10.99 RCW that excludes or prohibits the offender from having contact with a specified person or coming within a set distance of any specified location that was contained in the judgment and sentence. An offender who violates such an order after a certificate of discharge has been issued shall be subject to prosecution according to the chapter under which the order was originally issued.

Upon release from custody, the offender may apply to the department for counseling and help in adjusting to the community. This voluntary help may be provided for up to one year following the release from custody.

Sec. 4. RCW 10.31.100 and 1999 c 184 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

A police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a felony shall have the authority to arrest the person without a warrant. A police officer may arrest a person without a warrant for committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor only when the offense is committed in the presence of the officer, except as provided in subsections (1) through (10) of this section.

(1) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, involving physical harm or threats of harm to any person or property or the unlawful taking of property or involving the use or possession of cannabis, or involving the acquisition, possession, or consumption of alcohol by a person under the age of twenty-one years under RCW 66.44.270, or involving criminal trespass under RCW 9A.52.070 or 9A.52.080, shall have the authority to arrest the person.

(2) A police officer shall arrest and take into custody, pending release on bail, personal recognizance, or court order, a person without a warrant when the officer has probable cause to believe that:

(a) An order has been issued of which the person has knowledge under RCW 10.99.040(1), 10.99.050, 26.09.050, 26.09.060, 26.10.040, 26.10.115, 26.44.063, or chapter 10.99, 26.09, 26.10, 26.26 ((RCW, or chapter)), 26.50, or 74.34 RCW restraining the person and the person has violated the terms of the order restraining the person from acts or threats of violence, or restraining the person from going onto the grounds of or entering a residence, workplace, school, or day care, or prohibiting the person from knowingly coming within, or knowingly remaining within, a specified distance of a location or, in the case of an order issued under RCW 26.44.063, imposing any other restrictions or conditions upon the person; or

(b) A foreign protection order, as defined in RCW 26.52.010, has been issued of which the person under restraint has knowledge and the person under restraint has violated a provision of the foreign protection order prohibiting the person under restraint from contacting or communicating with another person, or ((of a provision) excluding the person under restraint from a residence, workplace, school, or day care, or prohibiting the person from knowingly coming within, or knowingly remaining within, a specified distance of a location), or a violation of any provision for which the foreign protection order specifically indicates that a violation will be a crime; or

(c) The person is sixteen years or older and within the preceding four hours has assaulted a family or household member as defined in RCW 10.99.020 and the officer believes: (i) A felonious assault has occurred; (ii) an assault has occurred which has resulted in bodily injury to the victim, whether the injury is observable by the responding officer or not; or (iii) that any physical action has occurred which was intended to cause another person reasonably to fear imminent serious bodily injury or death. Bodily injury means physical pain, illness, or an impairment of physical condition. When the officer has probable cause to believe that family or household members have assaulted each other, the officer is not required to arrest both persons. The officer shall arrest the person whom the officer believes to be the primary physical aggressor. In making this determination, the officer shall make every reasonable effort to consider: (i) The intent to protect victims of domestic violence under RCW 10.99.010; (ii) the comparative... extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating fear of physical injury; and (iii) the history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

(3) Any police officer having probable cause to believe that a person has committed or is committing a violation of any of the following traffic laws shall have the authority to arrest the person:

The judgment and order may direct the father to pay the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement. The judgment and order may include a continuing restraining order or injunction. Sec. 12. RCW 26.44.063 and 1993 c 412 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

1. It is the intent of the legislature to minimize trauma to a child involved in an allegation of sexual or physical abuse. The legislature declares that removing the child from the home often has the effect of further traumatizing the child. It is, therefore, the legislature's intent that the alleged offender, rather than the child, shall be removed from the home and that this should be done at the earliest possible point of intervention in accordance with RCW 10.31.100, 13.34.130, this section, and RCW 26.44.130.

2. In any judicial proceeding in which it is alleged that a child has been subjected to sexual or physical abuse, if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that an incident of sexual or physical abuse has occurred, the court may, on its own motion, or the motion of the guardian ad litem or other parties, issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction restraining or enjoining the person accused of committing the abuse from:
   a. Molesting or disturbing the peace of the alleged victim;
   b. Entering the family home of the alleged victim except as specifically authorized by the court; ((c))
   c. Having any contact with the alleged victim, except as specifically authorized by the court;
   d. Knowingly coming within, or knowingly remaining within, a specified distance of a specified location.

3. In issuing a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, the court may impose any additional restrictions that the court in its discretion determines are necessary to protect the child from further abuse or emotional trauma pending final resolution of the abuse allegations.

4. The court shall issue a temporary restraining order prohibiting a person from entering the family home if the court finds that the order would eliminate the need for an out-of-home placement to protect the child's right to nurturance, health, and safety and is sufficient to protect the child from further sexual or physical abuse or coercion.

5. The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the party to be restrained or other parties only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

6. A temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction:
   a. Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding; and
   b. May be revoked or modified.

7. The person having physical custody of the child shall have an affirmative duty to assist in the enforcement of the restraining order including but not limited to a duty to notify the court as soon as practicable of any violation of the order, a duty to request the assistance of law enforcement officers to enforce the order, and a duty to notify the department of social and health services of any violation of the order as soon as practicable if the department is a party to the action. The copy may be supplied by the court or any party.

3. The remedies provided in this section shall not apply unless restraining orders subject to this section (shall) bear this legend: VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER WITH ACTUAL NOTICE OF ITS TERMS IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNDER CHAPTER 26.44 RCW AND IS ALSO SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS.
(4) It is a defense to prosecution under subsection (1) of this section that the court order was issued contrary to law or court rule. No right of action shall accrue against any peace officer acting upon a properly certified copy of a court order lawful on its face if such officer employs otherwise lawful means to effect the arrest.

Sec. 14. RCW 26.50.035 and 1995 c 246 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (By RCW 1994)) The administrator for the courts shall develop and prepare instructions and informational brochures required under RCW 26.50.030(4), standard petition and order for protection forms, and a court staff handbook on domestic violence and the protection order process. The respondent has the sole responsibility to avoid or refrain from violating the order’s provisions. Only the court can change the order upon written application.”

(d) The court staff handbook shall allow for the addition of a community resource list by the court clerk.

(2) All court clerks shall obtain a community resource list from a domestic violence program, defined in RCW 70.123.020, serving the county in which the court is located. The community resource list shall include the names and telephone numbers of domestic violence programs serving the community in which the court is located, including law enforcement agencies, domestic violence agencies, sexual assault agencies, legal assistance programs, interpreters, multicultural programs, and batterers’ treatment programs. (6) The administrator for the courts shall update the instructions, brochures, standard petition and order for protection forms, and court staff handbook when changes in the law make an update necessary.

Sec. 15. RCW 26.50.060 and 1999 c 147 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon notice and after hearing, the court may provide relief as follows:

(d) On the same basis as is provided in chapter 26.09 RCW, the court shall make residential provision with regard to minor children of the parties. However, parenting plans as specified in chapter 26.09 RCW shall not be required under this chapter;

(e) Order the respondent to participate in a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program approved under RCW 26.50.150;

((#)) (b) Restrain the respondent from having any contact with the victim of domestic violence or the victim's children or members of the victim's household;

((#)) (i) Require the respondent to submit to electronic monitoring. The order shall specify who shall provide the electronic monitoring services and the terms under which the monitoring must be performed. The order also may include a requirement that the respondent pay the costs of the monitoring. The court shall consider the ability of the respondent to pay for electronic monitoring;

((#)) (j) Consider the provisions of RCW 9.41.800;

((#)) (k) Order possession and use of essential personal effects. The court shall list the essential personal effects with sufficient specificity to make it clear which property is included; and

(2) If a ((restraining)) protection order restrains the respondent from contacting the respondent's minor children the restraint shall be for a fixed period not to exceed one year. This limitation is not applicable to orders for protection issued under chapter 26.09, 26.10, or 26.26 RCW. With regard to other relief, if the petitioner has petitioned for relief on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the petitioner's family or household members or minor children, and the court finds that the respondent is likely to resume acts of domestic violence against the petitioner or the petitioner's family or household members or minor children when the order expires, the court may either grant relief for a fixed period or enter a permanent order of protection.

If the petitioner has petitioned for relief on behalf of the respondent's minor children, the court shall advise the petitioner that if the petitioner wants to continue protection for a period beyond one year the petitioner may either petition for renewal pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or may seek relief pursuant to the provisions of chapter 26.09 or 26.26 RCW.

(3) If the court grants an order for a fixed time period, the petitioner may apply for renewal of the order by filing a petition for renewal at any time within the three months before the order expires. The petition for renewal shall state the reasons why the petitioner seeks to renew the protection order. Upon receipt of the petition for renewal the court shall order a hearing which shall be not later than fourteen days from the date of the order. Except as provided in RCW 26.50.085, personal service shall be made on the respondent not less than five days before the hearing. If timely service cannot be made the court shall set a new hearing date and shall either require additional attempts at obtaining personal service or permit service by publication as provided in RCW 26.50.085 or by mail as provided in RCW 26.50.123. If the court permits service by publication or mail, the court shall set the new hearing date not later than twenty-four days from the date of the order. If the order expires because timely service cannot be made the court shall grant an ex parte order of protection as provided in RCW 26.50.070. The court shall grant the petition for renewal unless the respondent proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the respondent will not resume acts of domestic violence against the petitioner or the petitioner's children or family or household members when the order expires. The court may renew the protection order for another fixed time period or may enter a permanent order as provided in this section. The court may award court costs, service fees, and reasonable attorneys' fees as provided in subsection (1)(f) of this section.

(4) In providing relief under this chapter, the court may realign the designation of the parties as “petitioner” and “respondent” where the court finds that the original petitioner is the abuser and the original respondent is the victim of domestic violence and may issue an ex parte temporary order for protection in accordance with RCW 26.50.070 on behalf of the victim until the victim is able to prepare a petition for an order for protection in accordance with RCW 26.50.030.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, no order for protection shall grant relief to any party except upon notice to the respondent and hearing pursuant to a petition or counter-petition filed and served by the party seeking relief in accordance with RCW 26.50.050.

(6) The court order shall specify the date the order expires if any. The court order shall also state whether the court issued the protection order following personal service, service by publication, or service by mail and whether the court has approved service by publication or mail of an order issued under this section.

(7) If the court declines to issue an order for protection or declines to renew an order for protection, the court shall state in writing on the order the particular reasons for the court's denial.

Sec. 16. RCW 26.50.070 and 1996 c 248 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Where an application under this section alleges that irreparable injury could result from domestic violence if an order is not issued immediately without prior notice to the respondent, the court may grant an ex parte temporary order for protection, pending a full hearing, and grant relief as the court deems proper, including an order:

(a) Restraining any party from committing acts of domestic violence;

(b) Restraining any party from going onto the grounds of or entering the dwelling that the parties share, from the residence, workplace, or school of the other, or from the day care or school of a child until further order of the court;
(c) Prohibiting any party from knowingly coming within, or knowingly remaining within, a specified distance from a specified location;

(d) Restraining any party from interfering with the other's custody of the minor children or from removing the children from the jurisdiction of the court;

(2) Irreparable injury under this section includes but is not limited to situations in which the respondent has recently threatened petitioner with bodily injury or has engaged in acts of domestic violence against the petitioner.

(3) The court shall hold an ex parte hearing in person or by telephone on the day the petition is filed or on the following judicial day.

(4) An ex parte temporary order for protection shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed fourteen days or twenty-four days if the court has permitted service by publication under RCW 26.50.085 or by mail under RCW 26.50.123. The ex parte order may be reissued. A full hearing, as provided in this chapter, shall be set for not later than fourteen days from the issuance of the temporary order or not later than twenty-four days if service by publication or by mail is permitted. Except as provided in RCW 26.50.050, 26.50.085, and 26.50.123, the respondent shall be personally served with a copy of the ex parte order along with a copy of the petition and notice of the date set for the hearing.

(5) Any order issued under this section shall contain the date and time of issuance and the expiration date and shall be entered into a state-wide judicial information system by the clerk of the court within one judicial day after issuance.

(6) If the court declines to issue an ex parte temporary order for protection the court shall state the particular reasons for the court's denial. The court's denial of a motion for an ex parte order of protection shall be filed with the court.

Sec. 28. RCW 9.94A.440 and 1999 c 322 s 6 and 1999 c 196 s 11 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

1. Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A prosecuting attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and

(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and

(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today’s society; and

(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;
(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;
(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and
(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.
(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.
(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.
(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.
(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:
(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;
(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;
(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.
Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.
The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.
Notification
The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.
(a) STANDARD:
Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder. With regard to offenses prohibited by RCW 9A.44.040, 9A.44.050, 9A.44.073, 9A.44.076, 9A.44.079, 9A.44.083, 9A.44.086, 9A.44.089, and 9A.64.020 the prosecutor should avoid prefiling agreements or diversions intended to place the accused in a program of treatment or counseling, so that treatment, if determined to be beneficial, can be provided pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(8).

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.
See table below for the crimes within these categories.

(i) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:
   (A) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
   (B) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(ii) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:
   (A) Charging a higher degree;

(b) GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

(i) Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

   (A) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
   (B) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
   (C) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

(ii) Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

   (A) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
   (B) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or
   (C) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

(iii) Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

   (A) Polygraph testing;
   (B) Hypnosis;
   (C) Electronic surveillance;
   (D) Use of informants.

(iv) Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant
Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

(v) Pre-Filing Discussions with Victim(s)
Discussions with the victim(s) or victims’ representatives regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur before the filing of charges. The discussions may be considered by the prosecutor in charging and disposition decisions, and should be considered before reaching any agreement with the defendant regarding these decisions.

This includes but is not limited to: Willful misrepresentation of facts during a survey, investigation, or administrative proceeding or any other legal action; or use of threats or harassment against any patient, client, or witness, or use of financial inducements to any patient, client, or witness to prevent or attempt to prevent him or her from providing evidence during a survey or investigation, in an administrative proceeding, or any other legal action involving the department;

Sec. 15. RCW 70.127.180 and 1988 c 245 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The department may at any time conduct (an on-site review) a survey of all records and operations of a licensee ((or conduct in-home visits)) in order to determine compliance with this chapter. The department may ((also examine and audit records...)} necessary to determine compliance with this chapter) conduct in-home visits to observe patient/client care and services. The right to conduct (an on-site review and audit and examination of records) a survey shall extend to any premises and records of persons whom the department has reason to believe are providing home health, hospice, or home care services without a license.

(2) Following (an on-site review, in-home visit, or audit) a survey, the department shall give written notice of any violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The notice shall describe the reasons for noncompliance ((and inform the licensee that it must comply within a specified reasonable time, not to exceed sixty days. If the licensee fails to comply, the licensee is subject to disciplinary action under RCW 70.127.170)).

(3) The licensee may be subject to formal enforcement action under RCW 70.127.170 if the department determines: (a) The licensee has previously been subject to a formal enforcement action for the same or similar type of violation of the same statute or rule, or has been given previous notice of the same or similar type of violation of the same statute or rule; (b) the licensee failed to achieve compliance with a statute, rule, or order by the date established in a previously issued notice or order; (c) the violation resulted in actual serious physical or emotional harm or immediate threat to the health, safety, welfare, or rights of one or more individuals; or (d) the violation has a potential for serious physical or emotional harm or immediate threat to the health, safety, welfare, or rights of one or more individuals.

Sec. 16. RCW 70.127.190 and 1988 c 245 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

All information received by the department through filed reports, ((audit, on-site reviews,)) surveys, and in-home visits((or, as otherwise authorized)) conducted under this chapter shall not be disclosed publicly in any manner that would identify ((persons)) individuals receiving care under this chapter.

Sec. 17. RCW 70.127.200 and 1988 c 245 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the existence or use of any other remedy, the department may, in the manner provided by law and upon the advice of the attorney general, who shall represent the department in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person to restrain or prevent the advertising, operating, maintaining, managing, or opening of a home health, hospice, hospice care center, or home care agency without ((a)) an in-home services agency license under this chapter.

(2) The injunction shall not relieve the person operating an in-home services agency without a license from criminal prosecution, or the imposition of a civil fine under section 19(2) of this act, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to any criminal liability or civil fine. A person that violates an injunction issued under this chapter shall pay a civil penalty, as determined by the court, of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars, which shall be deposited in the department's local fee account. For the purpose of this section, the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain jurisdiction and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties. All fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a court because of a violation of RCW 70.127.020 shall be deposited in the department's local fee account.

Sec. 18. RCW 70.127.210 and 1988 c 245 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person violating RCW 70.127.020 is guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of a continuing violation is a separate violation.

(2) If any corporation conducts any activity for which a license is required by this chapter without the required license, it may be punished by forfeiture of its corporate charter. All fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a court because of a violation of RCW 70.127.020 shall be deposited in the department's local fee account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 70.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department may issue a notice of intention to issue a cease and desist order to any person whom the department has reason to believe is engaged in the unlicensed operation of an in-home services agency. The person to whom the notice of intention is issued may request an adjudicative proceeding to contest the charges. The request for hearing must be filed within twenty days after service of the notice of intention to issue a cease and desist order. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the department may enter a permanent cease and desist order, which may include a civil fine. All proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

(2) If the department makes a final determination that a person has engaged or is engaging in unlicensed operation of an in-home services agency, the department may issue a cease and desist order. In addition, the department may impose a civil fine in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars for each day upon which the person engaged in unlicensed operation of an in-home services agency. The proceeds of such fines shall be deposited in the department's local fee account.

(3) If the department makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the department may issue a temporary cease and desist order. The person receiving a temporary cease and desist order shall be provided an opportunity for a prompt hearing. The temporary cease and desist order shall remain in effect until further order of the department. The failure to request a prompt or regularly scheduled hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the department may enter a permanent cease and desist order, which may include a civil fine.
(4) Neither the issuance of a cease and desist order nor payment of a civil fine shall relieve the person so operating an in-home services agency without a license from criminal prosecution, but the remedy of a cease and desist order or civil fine shall be in addition to any criminal liability. The cease and desist order is conclusive proof of unlicensed operation and may be enforced under RCW 7.21.060. This method of enforcement of the cease and desist order or civil fine may be used in addition to, or as an alternative to, any provisions for enforcement of agency orders set out in chapter 34.05 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 70.127 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the operation of an in-home services agency without a license in violation of this chapter is a matter vitally affecting the public interest for the purpose of applying the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW. Operation of an in-home services agency without a license in violation of this chapter is not reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business. Such a violation is an unfair or deceptive act in trade or commerce and an unfair method of competition for the purpose of applying the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 70.127 RCW to read as follows:

1. Applicants desiring to operate a hospice care center are subject to the following:
   a. The application may only be made by a licensed hospice agency. The agency shall list which of the following service categories will be provided:
      i. General inpatient care;
      ii. Continuous home care;
      iii. Routine home care; or
      iv. Inpatient respite care;
   b. A certificate of need is required under chapter 70.38 RCW;
   c. A hospice agency may operate more than one hospice care center in its service area;
   d. For hospice agencies that operate a hospice care center, no more than forty-nine percent of patient care days, in the aggregate on a biennial basis, may be provided in the hospice care center;
   e. The maximum number of beds in a hospice care center is twenty;
   f. The maximum number of individuals per room is one, unless the individual requests a roommate;
   g. A hospice care center may either be owned or leased by a hospice agency. If the agency leases space, all delivery of interdisciplinary services, to include staffing and management, shall be done by the hospice agency; and
   h. A hospice care center may either be freestanding or a separate portion of another building.
2. The department is authorized to develop rules to implement this section. The rules shall be specific to each hospice care center service category provided. The rules shall at least specifically address the following:
   a. Adequate space for family members to visit, meet, cook, share meals, and stay overnight with patients or clients;
   b. A separate external entrance, clearly identifiable to the public when part of an existing structure;
   c. Construction, maintenance, and operation of a hospice care center;
   d. Means to inform the public which hospice care center service categories are provided; and
   e. A registered nurse present twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week for hospice care centers delivering general inpatient services.

3. Hospice agencies which as of January 1, 2000, operate the functional equivalent of a hospice care center through licensure as a hospital, under chapter 70.41 RCW, shall be exempt from the certificate of need requirement for hospice care centers if they apply for and receive a license as an in-home services agency to operate a hospice home care center by July 1, 2002.

Sec. 22. RCW 70.38.025 and 1997 c 210 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When used in this chapter, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings indicated.

1. "Board of health" means the state board of health created pursuant to chapter 43.20 RCW.
2. "Capital expenditure" is an expenditure, including a force account expenditure (i.e., an expenditure for a construction project undertaken by a nursing home facility as its own contractor) which, under generally accepted accounting principles, is not properly chargeable as an expense of operation or maintenance. Where a person makes an acquisition under lease or comparable arrangement, or through donation, which would have required review if the acquisition had been made by purchase, such expenditure shall be deemed a capital expenditure. Capital expenditures include donations of equipment or facilities to a nursing home facility which if acquired directly by such facility would be subject to certificate of need review under the provisions of this chapter and transfer of equipment or facilities for less than fair market value if a transfer of the equipment or facilities at fair market value would be subject to such review. The cost of any studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, and other activities essential to the acquisition, improvement, expansion, or replacement of any plant or equipment with respect to which such expenditure is made shall be included in determining the amount of the expenditure.
3. "Continuing care retirement community" means an entity which provides shelter and services under continuing care contracts with its members and which sponsors or includes a health care facility or a health service. A "continuing care contract" means a contract to provide a person, for the duration of that person's life or for a term in excess of one year, shelter along with nursing, medical, health-related, or personal care services, which is conditioned upon the transfer of property, the payment of an entrance fee to the provider of such services, or the payment of periodic charges for the care and services involved. A continuing care contract is not excluded from this definition because the contract is mutually terminable or because shelter and services are not provided at the same location.

(4) "Department" means the department of health.

(5) "Expenditure minimum" means, for the purposes of the certificate of need program, one million dollars adjusted by the department by rule to reflect changes in the United States department of commerce composite construction cost index; or a lesser amount required by federal law and established by the department by rule.

(6) "Health care facility" means hospices, hospice care centers, hospitals, psychiatric hospitals, nursing homes, kidney disease treatment centers, ambulatory surgical facilities, and home health agencies, and includes such facilities when owned and operated by a political subdivision or instrumentality of the state and such other facilities as required by federal law and implementing regulations, but does not include any health facility or institution conducted by and for those who rely exclusively upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any well-recognized church or religious denomination, or any health facility or institution operated for the exclusive care of members of a convent as defined in RCW 84.36.800 or rectory, monastery, or other institution operated for the care of members of the clergy. In addition, the term does not include any nonprofit hospital: (a) Which is operated exclusively to provide health care services for children; (b) which does not charge fees for such services; and (c) if not contrary to federal law as necessary to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

(7) "Health maintenance organization" means a public or private organization, organized under the laws of the state, which:

(a) Is a qualified health maintenance organization under Title XIII, section 1310(d) of the Public Health Services Act; or (b)(i) Provides or otherwise makes available to enrolled participants health care services, including at least the following basic health care services: Usual physician services, hospitalization, laboratory, x-ray, emergency, and preventive services, and out-of-area coverage; (ii) is compensated (except for copayments) for the provision of the basic health care services listed in (b)(i) to enrolled participants by a payment which is paid on a periodic basis without regard to the date the health care services are provided and which is fixed without regard to the frequency, extent, or kind of health service actually provided; and (iii) provides physicians' services primarily (A) directly through physicians who are either employees or partners of such organization, or (B) through arrangements with individual physicians or one or more groups of physicians (organized on a group practice or individual practice basis).

(8) "Health services" means clinically related (i.e., preventive, diagnostic, curative, rehabilitative, or palliative) services and includes alcoholism, drug abuse, and mental health services and as defined in federal law.

(9) "Health service area" means a geographic region appropriate for effective health planning which includes a broad range of health services.

(10) "Person" means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, a corporation (including associations, joint stock companies, and insurance companies), the state, or a political subdivision or instrumentality of the state, including a municipal corporation or a hospital district.

(11) "Provider" generally means a health care professional or an organization, institution, or other entity providing health care but the precise definition for this term shall be established by rule of the department, consistent with federal law.

(12) "Public health" means the level of well-being of the general population; those actions in a community necessary to preserve, protect, and promote the health of the people for which government is responsible; and the governmental system developed to guarantee the preservation of the health of the people.

(13) "Secretary" means the secretary of health or the secretary's designee.

(14) "Tertiary health service" means a specialized service that meets complicated medical needs of people and requires sufficient patient volume to optimize provider effectiveness, quality of service, and improved outcomes of care.

(15) "Hospital" means any health care institution which is required to qualify for a license under RCW 70.41.020(2); or as a psychiatric hospital under chapter 71.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 70.38 RCW to read as follows:

All certificate of need applications submitted by hospice agencies for the construction, development, or other establishment of a facility to be licensed as either a hospice under chapter 70.41 RCW or a nursing home under chapter 18.51 RCW, for the purpose of operating the functional equivalent of a hospice care center shall not require a separate certificate of need for a hospice care center provided the certificate of need application was declared complete prior to July 1, 2001, the applicant has been issued a certificate of need, and has applied for and received an in-home services agency license by July 1, 2002.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. This act takes effect January 1, 2002.

MOTION

Senator Heavey moved that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6431.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hargrove: “Senator Heavey, what are we talking about with nonconviction data? Maybe you could explain that to me.”

Senator Heavey: “Thank you, Senator Hargrove. What we are talking about and what I know specifically as a horse racing commissioner. We have had cases where we have had jockeys that have been accused in other states of rigging races. The information and the complaints were made and it may be a criminal complaint pending, but no conviction. Or it may be just an instance that we should know about or maybe ten instances of charges of fixing a race that we should know about before the jockey is licensed to ride horses in the state of Washington. Very key individuals—as are owners and trainers on keeping this board honest and straight forward and keeping the public support of it.”

Senator Hargrove: “Well, I have one more question. Would it not also include people that have been charged and not convicted? Would it not also include the investigation into those charges, even if they were exonerated?”

Senator Heavey: ”I do not know.”

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Heavey to concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 6431.

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Gardner moved that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. No. 6455.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Franklin: “Senator Gardner, under Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6455, I notice in reading that we do have a fee and we do have 695. I have some questions; can you give some clarity on that?”

Senator Gardner: “The information that we have is that this will have to go on the ballot and be approved by the voters.”

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Benton: “A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. The good Senator from Blaine has said the information she has received says that this would need to go on the ballot, if I heard her correctly. Is that right? So, my question to you, Mr. President, does the measure include a referendum clause and if not, should one be included and if it is not included, is the measure properly before the Senate?”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “Senator Benton, normally an inquiry as to what is in a bill is not appropriate for the President, but in this case, the President is sure that there is a referendum clause in the bill.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gardner that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6455.

The motion by Senator Gardner carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6455.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6455, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6455, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; Nays, 12; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Excused: Senators Brown, Deccio, Goings and Sellar - 4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6455, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM HOUSE

March 1, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6487 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to enhance and facilitate the ability of the department of corrections to carry out its responsibility of planning and ensuring community protection with respect to persons subject to sentencing under chapter 9.94A RCW by authorizing access to, and release or disclosure of, necessary information related to mental health services. This includes accessing and releasing or disclosing information of persons who received mental health services as a minor. The legislature does not intend this act to readdress access to information and records regarding continuity of care.

The legislature recognizes that persons with mental illness have a right to the confidentiality of information related to mental health services, including the fact of their receiving such services, unless there is a state interest that supersedes this right. It is the intent of the legislature to balance that right of the individual with the state interest to enhance public safety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 71.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Information related to mental health services" means all information and records compiled, obtained, or maintained in the course of providing services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services by a mental health service provider. This may include documents of legal proceedings under this chapter or chapter 71.05 or 10.77 RCW, or somatic health care information.
(b) "Mental health service provider" means a public or private agency that provides services to persons with mental disorders as defined under RCW 71.34.020 and receives funding from public sources. This includes evaluation and treatment facilities as defined in RCW 71.34.020, community mental health service delivery systems, or community mental health programs, as defined in RCW 71.24.025, and facilities conducting competency evaluations and restoration under chapter 10.77 RCW.

(2) Information related to mental health services delivered to a person subject to chapter 9.94A RCW shall be released, upon request, by a mental health service provider to department of corrections personnel for whom the information is necessary to carry out the responsibilities of their office. The information must be provided only for the purpose of completing presentence investigations, supervision of an incarcerated person, planning for and provision of supervision of a person, or assessment of a person's risk to the community. The request shall be in writing and shall not require the consent of the subject of the records.

(3) The information to be released to the department of corrections shall include all relevant records and reports, as defined by rule, necessary for the department of corrections to carry out its duties, including those records and reports identified in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The department and the department of corrections, in consultation with regional support networks, mental health service providers as defined in subsection (1) of this section, mental health consumers, and advocates for persons with mental illness, shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section related to the type and scope of information to be released. These rules shall:

(a) Enhance and facilitate the ability of the department of corrections to carry out its responsibility of planning and ensuring community protection with respect to persons subject to sentencing under chapter 9.94A RCW, including accessing and releasing or disclosing information of persons who received mental health services as a minor; and

(b) Establish requirements for the notification of persons under the supervision of the department of corrections regarding the provisions of this section.

(5) The information received by the department of corrections under this section shall remain confidential and subject to the limitations on disclosure outlined in RCW 71.34.200, except as provided in section 4 of this act.

(6) No mental health service provider or individual employed by a mental health service provider shall be held responsible for information released to or used by the department of corrections under the provisions of this section or rules adopted under this section.

(7) Whenever federal law or federal regulations restrict the release of information contained in the treatment records of any patient who receives treatment for alcoholism or drug dependency, the release of the information may be restricted as necessary to comply with federal law and regulations.

(8) This section does not modify the terms and conditions of disclosure of information related to sexually transmitted diseases under chapter 70.24 RCW.

(1) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Information related to mental health services" means all information and records compiled, obtained, or maintained in the course of providing services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services by a mental health service provider. This may include documents of legal proceedings under this chapter or chapter 71.34 or 10.77 RCW, or somatic health care information.

(4) The department and the department of corrections, in consultation with regional support networks, mental health service providers as defined in subsection (1) of this section, mental health consumers, and advocates for persons with mental illness, shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section related to the type and scope of information to be released. These rules shall:

(a) Enhance and facilitate the ability of the department of corrections to carry out its responsibility of planning and ensuring community protection with respect to persons subject to sentencing under chapter 9.94A RCW, including accessing and releasing or disclosing information of persons who received mental health services as a minor; and

(b) Establish requirements for the notification of persons under the supervision of the department of corrections regarding the provisions of this section.

(5) The information received by the department of corrections under this section shall remain confidential and subject to the limitations on disclosure outlined in chapter 71.05 RCW, except as provided in section 4 of this act.
(6) No mental health service provider or individual employed by a mental health service provider shall be held responsible for information released to or used by the department of corrections under the provisions of this section or rules adopted under this section except under RCW 71.05.670 and 71.05.440.

(8) This section does not modify the terms and conditions of disclosure of information related to sexually transmitted diseases under chapter 70.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The information received by the department under section 2 or 3 of this act may be released to the indeterminate sentence review board as relevant to carry out its responsibility of planning and ensuring community protection with respect to persons under its jurisdiction. Further disclosure by the indeterminate sentence review board is subject to the limitations set forth in subsections (3) and (4) of this section and must be consistent with the written policy of the indeterminate sentence review board. The decision to disclose or not shall not result in civil liability for the indeterminate sentence review board or its employees provided that the decision was reached in good faith and without gross negligence.

(2) The information received by the department under section 2 or 3 of this act may be used to meet the statutory duties of the department to provide evidence or report to the court. (3) The information received by the department under section 2 or 3 of this act may be disclosed by the department to other state and local agencies as relevant to plan for and provide offenders transition, treatment, and supervision services, or as relevant and necessary to protect the public and counteract the danger created by a particular offender, and in a manner consistent with the written policy established by the secretary. The decision to disclose or not shall not result in civil liability for the department or its employees so long as the decision was reached in good faith and without gross negligence. The information received by a state or local agency from the department shall remain confidential and subject to the limitations on disclosure set forth in chapters 70.02, 71.05, and 71.34 RCW and, subject to these limitations, may be released only as relevant and necessary to counteract the danger created by a particular offender.

(4) The information received by the department under section 2 or 3 of this act may be disclosed by the department to individuals only with respect to offenders who have been determined by the department to have a high risk of reoffending by a risk assessment, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, only as relevant and necessary for those individuals to take reasonable steps for the purpose of self-protection, or as provided in RCW 72.09.370(2). All disclosure of information to the public must be done in a manner consistent with the written policy established by the secretary. The decision to disclose or not shall not result in civil liability for the department or its employees so long as the decision was reached in good faith and without gross negligence. Nothing in this subsection prevents any person from reporting to law enforcement or the department behavior that he or she believes creates a public safety risk.

(11) To appropriate law enforcement agencies, upon request, all necessary and relevant information in the event of a crisis or emergent situation that poses a significant and imminent risk to the public. The decision to disclose or not shall not result in civil liability for the mental health service provider or its employees so long as the decision was reached in good faith and without gross negligence; information obtained pursuant to this chapter are not admissible as evidence in any legal proceeding outside this chapter, except guardianship or dependency, without the written consent of the minor or the minor's parent.

Sec. 8. RCW 9.94A.110 and 1999 c 197 s 3 and 1999 c 196 s 4 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing.

Except in cases where the defendant shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement for life without the possibility of release or, when authorized by RCW 10.95.030 for the crime of aggravated murder in the first degree, sentenced to death, the court may order the department to complete a risk assessment report. If available before sentencing, the report shall be provided to the court.

Unless specifically waived by the court, the court shall order the department to complete a chemical dependency screening report before imposing a sentence upon a defendant who has been convicted of a violation of the uniform controlled substances act under chapter 69.50 RCW or a criminal solicitation to commit such a violation under chapter 9A.28 RCW where the court finds that the offender has a chemical dependency that has contributed to his or her offense. In addition, the court shall, at the time of plea or conviction, order the department to complete a presentence report before imposing a sentence upon a defendant who has been convicted of a felony sexual offense. The department of corrections shall give priority to presentence investigations for sexual offenders. If the court determines that the defendant may be a mentally ill person as defined in RCW 71.24.025, although the defendant has not established that at the time of the crime he or she lacked the capacity to commit the crime, was incompetent to commit the crime, or was insane at the time of the crime, the court shall order the department to complete a presentence report before imposing a sentence.

The court shall consider the risk assessment report and presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed.

If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all risk assessment reports and presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

(2) To prevent wrongful disclosure of information related to mental health services, as defined in sections 2 and 3 of this act, a court may take only those steps necessary during a sentencing hearing or any hearing in which the department presents information related to mental health services to the court. The steps may be taken on motion of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, or on the court's own motion. The court may seal the portion of the record relating to information relating to mental health services, exclude the public from the hearing during presentation or discussion of information relating to mental health services, or grant other relief to achieve the result intended by this subsection, but nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent the subsequent release of information related to mental health services as authorized by sections 2 through 4 of this act. Any person who otherwise is permitted to attend any hearing pursuant to chapter 7.69 or 7.69A RCW shall not be excluded from the hearing solely because the department intends to disclose or discloses information related to mental health services.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Costa, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Senate Bill No. 6570.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6570, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 6570, as amended by the House, and the bill passed Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; Nays, 1; Absent, 1; Excused, 4.

Absent: Senator Deccio - 1.
Excused: Senators Bauer, Loveland, Sellar and Spanel - 4.

SENATE BILL NO. 6570, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order by Senator Goings concerning whether consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243 is in order, the President notes that the Senate is beyond the cutoff date established in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8421 to consider Senate Bills. The issue is therefore whether Second Substitute Senate Bill No.5243 is ‘necessary to implement’ the budget and exempt from the cutoff. The President notes that the exemption does not apply to a measure solely because it might be ‘referenced in the budget.’ The President has to assume that ‘necessary’ means ‘necessary.’

"The President finds that the appropriation to the state treasurer in the Senate budget remains the same regardless of the passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243. Therefore, the President rules that the measure is not necessary to implement the budget and may not properly be considered under Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8421."

The President ruled that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243 is not properly before the Senate.

MOTION

Senator Betti Sheldon moved that further consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No 5243 be deferred and that the bill hold its place on the second reading calendar.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Johnson: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would like a ruling from the President. I think this bill ought to be referred to the Committee on Rules. It has twice been ruled by the President that it is not properly before the Senate. The Second Reading Calendar is before the Senate. This should be referred to the Rules Committee."
REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Johnson, it has been the practice to refer a bill to Rules under such circumstances, but there is no rule that requires that to happen. Therefore, where the bill languishes is up to the body and so Senator Sheldon’s motion would be in order."

Senator Johnson: "I think if there is an objection, there will be a vote on that motion."

President Owen: "That would be absolutely correct."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Betti Sheldon to defer consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243 and to have the bill hold its place on the second reading calendar.

The motion by Senator Betti Sheldon carried and further consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5243 was deferred and the bill will hold its place on the second reading calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate reverted to the fourth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Eide, Senator Spanel was excused.

(5) "Prepayment" means the payment in full or refinancing of the federally insured or federally held mortgage or loan prior to its original maturity date, or the voluntary cancellation of mortgage insurance, if that would have the effect of terminating any low-income use restrictions.

2. This section shall not apply to the following activities:

   (b) A statement by an elected official in support of or in opposition to any ballot proposition at an open press conference or in response to a specific inquiry. For the purposes of this subsection, it is not a violation of this section for an elected official to respond to an inquiry regarding a ballot proposition, to make incidental remarks concerning a ballot proposition in an official communication, or otherwise comment on a ballot proposition without an actual, measurable expenditure of public funds. The ethics boards shall adopt by rule a definition of measurable expenditure;
   (c) Activities that are part of the normal and regular conduct of the office or agency; and
   (d) Creation of an electronic link from a web site operated by a state officer or state employee to a web site operated by the state; and

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Goings: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe the House amendment on page 8, after line 13, changes the scope and object of the bill as passed by the Senate."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order by Senator Goings to the scope and object of the House amendment on page 8, line 13, to Senate Bill No. 6775, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 6775 is a measure which relates only to filings with the public disclosure commission. The House amendment on page 8, after line 13, would amend the state ethics law to permit links from computers of state officers and employees to sites operated by the state. The amendment does not relate to PDC filings.

"The President, therefore, finds that the House amendment on page 8, after line 13, does change the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is well taken."

The President ruled the House amendment on page 8, after line 13, to Senate Bill No. 6775 to be out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Goings, the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment on page 8, line 13, to Senate Bill No. 6775 and asks the House to recede therefrom.
On motion of Senator Goings, the Senate concurred in the remaining three House amendments on page 2, line 27; page 4, line 33; and page 6, beginning on line 13; to Senate Bill No. 6775.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Franklin, Senators Loveland and Kline were excused.

MESSAGE FROM HOUSE

March 1, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6676 with the following amendments(s):

Strike everything after page 1, line 6 of the amendment, and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Cable television service" means the one-way transmission to subscribers of video programming and other programming service and subscriber interaction, if any, that is required for the selection or use of the video programming or other programming service.

(2) "Facilities" means all of the plant, equipment, fixtures, appurtenances, antennas, and other facilities necessary to furnish and deliver telecommunications services and cable television services, including but not limited to poles with crossarms, poles without crossarms, wires, lines, conduits, cables, communication and signal lines and equipment, braces, guys, anchors, vaults, and all attachments, appurtenances, and appliances necessary or incidental to the distribution and use of telecommunications services and cable television services.

(3) "Master permit" means the agreement in whatever form whereby a city or town may grant general permission to a service provider to enter, use, and occupy the right of way for the purpose of locating facilities. This definition is not intended to limit, alter, or change the extent of the existing authority of a city or town to require a franchise nor does it change the status of a service provider asserting an existing state-wide grant based on a predecessor telephone or telegraph company's existence at the time of the adoption of the Washington state Constitution to occupy the right of way. For the purposes of this subsection, a franchise, except for a cable television franchise, is a master permit. A master permit does not include cable television franchises.

(4) "Personal wireless services" means commercial mobile services, unlicensed wireless services, and common carrier wireless exchange access services, as defined by federal laws and regulations.

(5) "Right of way" means land acquired or dedicated for public roads and streets, but does not include:

(a) State highways;
(b) Land dedicated for roads, streets, and highways not opened and not improved for motor vehicle use by the public;
(c) Structures, including poles and conduits, located within the right of way;
(d) Federally granted trust lands or forest board trust lands;
(e) Lands owned or managed by the state parks and recreation commission; or
(f) Federally granted railroad rights of way acquired under 43 U.S.C. Sec. 912 and related provisions of federal law that are not open for motor vehicle use.

(6) "Service provider" means every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, firm, partnership, person, city, or town owning, operating, or managing any facilities used to provide and providing telecommunications or cable television service for hire, sale, or resale to the general public. Service provider includes the legal successor to any such corporation, company, association, joint stock association, firm, partnership, person, city, or town.

(7) "Telecommunications service" means the transmission of information by wire, radio, optical cable, electromagnetic, or other similar means for hire, sale, or resale to the general public. For the purpose of this subsection, "information" means knowledge or intelligence represented by any form of writing, signs, signals, pictures, sounds, or any other symbols. For the purpose of this chapter, telecommunications service excludes the over-the-air transmission of broadcast television or broadcast radio signals.

(8) "Use permit" means the authorization in whatever form whereby a city or town may grant permission to a service provider to enter and use the specified right of way for the purpose of installing, maintaining, repairing, or removing identified facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A city or town may grant, issue, or deny permits for the use of the right of way by a service provider for installing, maintaining, repairing, or removing facilities for telecommunications services or cable television services pursuant to ordinances, consistent with this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Cities and towns may require a service provider to obtain a master permit. A city or town may require, but not require, that a service provider with an existing state-wide grant to occupy the right of way obtain a master permit for wireline facilities.

(a) The procedures for the approval of a master permit and the requirements for a complete application for a master permit shall be available in written form.
(b) Where a city or town requires a master permit, the city or town shall act upon a complete application within one hundred twenty days from the date a service provider files the complete application for the master permit to use the right of way, except:

(i) With the agreement of the applicant; or

(ii) Where the master permit requires action of the legislative body of the city or town and such action cannot reasonably be obtained within the one hundred twenty day period.

(2) A city or town may require that a service provider obtain a use permit. A city or town must act on a request for a use permit by a service provider within thirty days of receipt of a completed application, unless a service provider consents to a different time period or the service provider has not obtained a master permit requested by the city or town.

(a) For the purpose of this section, "act" means that the city makes the decision to grant, condition, or deny the use permit, which may be subject to administrative appeal, or notifies the applicant in writing of the amount of time that will be required to make the decision and the reasons for this time period.

(b) Requirements otherwise applicable to holders of master permits shall be deemed satisfied by a holder of a cable franchise in good standing.

(c) Where the master permit does not contain procedures to expedite approvals and the service provider requires action in less than thirty days, the service provider shall advise the city or town in writing of the reasons why a shortened time period is necessary and the time period within which action by the city or town is requested. The city or town shall reasonably cooperate to meet the request where practicable.

(d) A city or town may not deny a use permit to a service provider with an existing state-wide grant to occupy the right of way for wireline facilities on the basis of failure to obtain a master permit.

(3) The reasons for a denial of a master permit shall be supported by substantial evidence contained in a written record. A service provider adversely affected by the final action denying a master permit, or by an unreasonable failure to act on a master permit as set forth in subsection (1) of this section, may commence an action within thirty days to seek relief, which shall be limited to injunctive relief.

(4) A service provider adversely affected by the final action denying a use permit may commence an action within thirty days to seek relief, which shall be limited to injunctive relief. In any appeal of the final action denying a use permit, the standard for review and burden of proof shall be as set forth in RCW 36.70C.130.

(5) A city or town shall:

(a) In order to facilitate the scheduling and coordination of work in the right of way, provide as much advance notice as reasonable of plans to open the right of way to those service providers who are current users of the right of way or who have filed notice with the clerk of the city or town within the past twelve months of their intent to place facilities in the city or town. A city is not liable for damages for failure to provide this notice. Where the city has failed to provide notice of plans to open the right of way consistent with this subsection, a city may not deny a use permit to a service provider on the basis that the service provider failed to coordinate with another project;

(b) Have the authority to require that facilities are installed and maintained within the right of way in such a manner and at such points so as not to inconvenience the public use of the right of way or to adversely affect the public, health, safety, and welfare;

(c) Cooperate with the city or town in ensuring that facilities are installed, maintained, repaired, and removed within the right of way in such a manner and at such points as not to inconvenience the public use of the right of way or to adversely affect the public, health, safety, and welfare;

(d) Provide information and plans as reasonably necessary to enable a city or town to comply with subsection (5) of this section, including, when notified by the city or town, the provision of advance planning information pursuant to the procedures established by the city or town;

(e) Obtain the written approval of the facility or structure owner, if the service provider does not own it, prior to attaching to or otherwise using a facility or structure in the right of way;

(f) Construct, install, operate, and maintain its facilities at its expense; and

(g) Comply with applicable federal and state safety laws and standards.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed as:

(a) Creating a new duty upon city or towns to be responsible for construction of facilities for service providers or to modify the right of way to accommodate such facilities;

(b) Creating, expanding, or extending any liability of a city or town to any third-party user of facilities or third-party beneficiary; or

(c) Limiting the right of a city or town to require an indemnification agreement as a condition of a service provider's facilities occupying the right of way;

(8) Nothing in this section creates, modifies, expands, or diminishes a priority of use of the right of way by a service provider or other utility, either in relation to other service providers or in relation to other users of the right of way for other purposes.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A city or town shall not adopt or enforce regulations or ordinances specifically relating to use of the right of way by a service provider that:
   (a) Impose requirements that regulate the services or business operations of the service provider, except where otherwise authorized in state or federal law;
   (b) Conflict with federal or state laws, rules, or regulations that specifically apply to the design, construction, and operation of facilities or with federal or state worker safety or public safety laws, rules, or regulations;
   (c) Regulate the services provided based upon the content or kind of signals that are carried or are capable of being carried over the facilities, except where otherwise authorized in state or federal law; or
   (d) Unreasonably deny the use of the right of way by a service provider for installing, maintaining, repairing, or removing facilities for telecommunications services or cable television services.

   (2) Nothing in this chapter, including but not limited to the provisions of subsection (1)(d) of this section, limits the authority of a city or town to regulate the placement of facilities through its local zoning or police power, if the regulations do not otherwise:

   (a) Prohibit the placement of all wireless or of all wireline facilities within the city or town;

   (b) Prohibit the placement of all wireless or of all wireline facilities within city or town rights of way, unless the city or town is less than five square miles in size and has no commercial areas, in which case the city or town may make available land other than city or town rights of way for the placement of wireless facilities; or

   (3) This section does not amend, limit, repeal, or otherwise modify the authority of cities or towns to regulate cable television services pursuant to federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A city or town shall not place or extend a moratorium on the acceptance and processing of applications, permitting, construction, maintenance, repair, replacement, extension, operation, or use of any facilities for personal wireless services, except as consistent with the guidelines for facilities siting implementation, as agreed to on August 5, 1998, by the federal communications commission's local and state government advisory committee, the cellular telecommunications industry association, the personal communications industry association, and the American mobile telecommunications association. Any city or town implementing such a moratorium shall, at the request of a service provider impacted by the moratorium, participate with the service provider in the informal dispute resolution process included with the guidelines for facilities siting implementation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Cities and towns may require service providers to relocate authorized facilities within the right of way when reasonably necessary for construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of the right of way for purposes of public welfare, health, or safety.

   (2) Cities shall notify service providers as soon as practicable of the need for relocation and shall specify the date by which relocation shall be completed. In calculating the date that relocation must be completed, cities shall consult with affected service providers and consider the extent of facilities to be relocated, the services requirements, and the construction sequence for the relocation, within the city's overall project construction sequence and constraints, to safely complete the relocation. Service providers shall complete the relocation by the date specified, unless the city, or a reviewing court, establishes a later date for completion, after a showing by the service provider that the relocation cannot be completed by the date specified using best efforts and meeting safety and service requirements.

   (3) Service providers may not seek reimbursement for their relocation expenses from the city or town requesting relocation under subsection (1) of this section except:

   (a) Where the service provider paid for the relocation cost of the same facilities at the request of the city or town within the past five years, the service provider's share of the cost of relocation will be paid by the city or town requesting relocation;

   (b) Where aerial to underground relocation of authorized facilities is required by the city or town under subsection (1) of this section, for service providers with an ownership share of the aerial supporting structures, the additional incremental cost of underground compared to aerial relocation, or as provided for in the approved tariff if less, will be paid by the city or town requiring relocation; and

   (c) Where the city or town requests relocation under subsection (1) of this section solely for aesthetic purposes, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties.

   (4) Where a project in subsection (1) of this section is primarily for private benefit, the private party or parties shall reimburse the cost of relocation in the same proportion to their contribution to the costs of the project. Service providers will not be precluded from recovering their costs associated with relocation required under subsection (1) of this section, provided that the recovery is consistent with subsection (3) of this section and other applicable laws.

   (5) A city or town may require the relocation of facilities at the service provider's expense in the event of an unforeseen emergency that creates an immediate threat to the public safety, health, or welfare.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A city or town may require that a service provider that is constructing, relocating, or placing ducts or conduits in public rights of way provide the city or town with additional duct or conduit and related structures necessary to access the conduit, provided that:

(1) The city or town enters into a contract with the service provider consistent with RCW 80.36.150. The contract rates to be charged should recover the incremental costs of the service provider. If the city or town makes the additional duct or conduit and related access structures available to any other entity for the purposes of providing telecommunications or cable television service for hire, sale, or resale to the general public, the rates to be charged, as set forth in the contract with the entity that constructed the conduit or duct, shall recover at least the fully allocated costs of the service provider. The service provider shall state both contract rates in the contract. The city or town shall inform the service provider of the use, and any change in use, of the requested duct or conduit and related access structures to determine the applicable rate to be paid by the city or town.

(2) Except as otherwise agreed by the service provider and the city or town, the city or town shall agree that the requested additional duct or conduit space be connected to the access structures and vaults of the service provider.

(3) The city or town shall not require that the additional duct or conduit space be connected to the access structures and vaults of the service provider.

(4) The value of the additional duct or conduit requested by a city or town shall not be considered a public works construction contract.

(5) This section shall not affect the provision of an institutional network by a cable television provider under federal law.

Sec. 8. RCW 35.21.860 and 1983 2nd ex.s. c 3 s 39 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No city or town may impose a franchise fee or any other fee or charge of whatever nature or description upon the light and power, or gas distribution businesses, as defined in RCW 82.16.010, or telephone business, as defined in RCW 82.04.065, or service provider for use of the right of way, except (((that))):

(a) A tax authorized by RCW 35.21.865 may be imposed (((and)));

(b) A fee may be charged to such businesses or service providers that recovers actual administrative expenses incurred by a city or town that are directly related to receiving and approving a permit, license, and franchise, to inspecting plans and construction, or to the preparation of a detailed statement pursuant to chapter 43.21C RCW;

(c) Taxes permitted by state law on service providers;

(d) Franchise requirements and fees for cable television services as allowed by federal law; and

(e) A site-specific charge pursuant to an agreement between the city or town and a service provider of personal wireless services acceptable to the parties for:

(i) The placement of new structures in the right of way regardless of height, unless the new structure is the result of a mandated relocation in which case no charge will be imposed if the previous location was not charged;

(ii) The placement of replacement structures when the replacement is necessary for the installation or attachment of wireless facilities, and the overall height of the replacement structure and the wireless facility is more than sixty feet; or

(iii) The placement of personal wireless facilities on structures owned by the city or town located in the right of way. However, a site-specific charge shall not apply to the placement of personal wireless facilities on existing structures, unless the structure is owned by the city or town.

A city or town is not required to approve the use permit for the placement of a facility for personal wireless services that meets one of the criteria in this subsection absent such an agreement. If the parties are unable to agree on the amount of the charge, the service provider may submit the amount of the charge to binding arbitration by serving notice on the city or town. Within thirty days of receipt of the initial notice, each party shall furnish a list of acceptable arbitrators. The parties shall select an arbitrator; failing to agree on an arbitrator, each party shall select one arbitrator and the two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator for an arbitration panel. The arbitrator or arbitrators shall determine the charge based on comparable siting agreements involving public land and rights of way. The arbitrator or arbitrators shall not decide any other disputed issues, including but not limited to size, location, and zoning requirements. Costs of the arbitration, including compensation for the arbitrator's services, must be borne equally by the parties participating in the arbitration and each party shall bear its own costs and expenses, including legal fees and witness expenses, in connection with the arbitration proceeding.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not prohibit franchise fees imposed on an electrical energy, natural gas, or telephone business, by contract existing on April 20, 1982, with a city or town, for the duration of the contract, but the franchise fees shall be considered taxes for the purposes of the limitations established in RCW 35.21.865 and 35.21.870 to the extent the fees exceed the costs allowable under subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act shall not preempt specific provisions in existing franchises or contracts between cities or towns and service providers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 35A.21 RCW to read as follows:

Each code city is subject to the requirements and restrictions regarding facilities and rights of way under this chapter.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 7 and 9 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 35 RCW."

Before any blended funding project is established by the secretary, any entity or person proposing the project shall seek input from the public health and safety network or networks established in the catchment area of the project. The network or networks shall submit recommendations on the blended funding project to the family policy council. Conditions that may warrant the use of dogs within a game management unit include, but are not limited to, confirmed cougar/human safety incidents, confirmed cougar/livestock and cougar/pet depredations, and the number of cougar capture attempts and relocations.
A person who violates subsection (1) or (2) of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. In addition to appropriate criminal penalties, the director shall revoke the hunting license of a person who violates subsection (1) or (2) of this section and a hunting license shall not be issued for a period of five years following the revocation. POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fraser: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I request a ruling from the President that the House amendment in Section 3, Subsection (4) to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6277 is beyond the scope and object of the bill. The underlying bill is a measure that would provide the authority for four specific state agencies, the Department of Ecology, the Department of Fish and Wildlife, the Department of Health and the Department of Natural Resources and local air pollution control agencies to recover certain costs for processing environmental permits and leases. The bill, as it left the Senate dealt only with the matter of processing permits. It is voluntary and it allows the applicants to negotiate with one or more of these agencies to enter into an agreement for the agency to recover these application processing costs in order to get expedited attention on the permit.

"The bill has identical authorizing language in the five chapters of the RCWs in which these four state agencies and the local air quality agencies are created. The amendment, I believe, goes far beyond the subject of processing and cost reimbursement, to amend substantive law relating to some of these permits and leases. Specifically, the Subsection in question amends the state’s Aquatic Lands Act to establish standards for leases, including the cost of those leases and that would have implications for the prices to be paid for them and revenues to the Aquatic Land’s Enhancement Account. It also establishes a thirty year term and it also creates a committee to study further lease price changes.

"So, this is beyond the scope and object, because it deals with the substance rather than the process. Further, by adding substantive lease of aquatic lands price to the bill. It brings into another category of government, namely port districts. I would also like to point out that there is a potential constitutional problem with the amendment because it attempts to amend portions of the Aquatic Lands Act by reference rather than setting out those references in full. I urge you to rule that this is beyond the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Fraser to the scope and object of the House striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6277, the President finds that the measure relates only to cost reimbursement agreements for applicants for public land leases and environmental permits.

"The House striking amendment also concerns cost reimbursement agreements. However, the amendment would also do the following: (1) require the department of natural resources to grant utility easements under some circumstances; and (2) create a utilities and aquatic lands task force.

"Because the striking amendment contains these two provisions, the President finds that the amendment is outside the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is well taken."

The President ruled that the House striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6277 to be out of order.

MOTION

Senator Fraser moved that the Senate refuse to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6277 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Heavey: "A point of order. Mr. President. I thought if the President had banged the gavel on the ruling that the bill went back to Rules and was dead essentially."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Heavey, in responding to your point or order, you are correct that the President did drop the gavel, but it did not refer the bill to committee as required in the rules. The dropping of the gavel was not in response to my referring the bill from this body to the Rules Committee. The practice has traditionally been to give the members the opportunity after the ruling to decide what the members would like to do with that measure.

"Therefore, the measure is appropriately before us and Senator Fraser's motion is appropriately before us as well."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Fraser that the Senate refuse to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6277.

The motion by Senator Fraser carried and the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6277.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 2000
MR. PRESIDENT:

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Kohl-Welles: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Yesterday when we had the floor resolution honoring President Jane Jervis from The Evergreen State College, I was actually very dismayed that the remarks were limited. I understood why; I understood the President's Ruling, because it was a resolution honoring President Jervis. However, I thought about it all day and it was very bothersome to me that some members of our body were not allowed to speak. I thought about it very much and this was not in keeping with the tradition of The Evergreen State College and President Jervis herself, who always has been one to stand up for everyone's ability to express her or his opinion. In fact, that dialogue and debate and a free open expression of different viewpoints is what Evergreen is about and what Jane Jervis, herself as an individual, has always stood for. So, I would like to express my regrets that what happened yesterday happened as it did. I value having every Senator's expression of opinions be able to be continued. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hochstatter: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. One of the things that I really like about this place and one of the things that really astounded me is to have my opinion changed by things that were said on this floor. I don't think there is a place on earth where we can push and shove at one another on different issues and put together constituencies that are so nebulous and on the very next issue make up a whole different constituency. I think that these kinds of things that we just passed through make us all tougher and more thankful. I am intensely honored to take my part in this body. Thank you very much."

On motion of Senator Hochstatter, Senator Oke was excused.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 10.73 RCW to read as follows:

(1) On or before December 31, 2002, a person in this state who has been sentenced to death or life imprisonment without possibility of release or parole and who has been denied postconviction DNA testing may submit a request to the county prosecutor in the county where the conviction was obtained for postconviction DNA testing, if DNA evidence was not admitted because the court ruled DNA testing did not meet acceptable scientific standards or DNA testing technology was not sufficiently developed to test the DNA evidence in the case. On and after January 1, 2003, a person must raise the DNA issues at trial or on appeal.

(2) The prosecutor shall screen the request. The request shall be reviewed based upon the likelihood that the DNA evidence would demonstrate innocence on a more probable than not basis. Upon determining that testing should occur and the evidence still exists, the prosecutor shall request DNA testing by the Washington state patrol crime laboratory. Contact with victims shall be handled through victim/witness divisions.

(3) A person denied a request made pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section has a right to appeal his or her request within thirty days of denial of the request by the prosecutor. The appeal shall be to the attorney general's office. If the attorney general's office determines that it is likely that the DNA testing would demonstrate innocence on a more probable than not basis, then the attorney general's office shall request DNA testing by the Washington state patrol crime laboratory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. By December 1, 2001, the office of public defense shall prepare a report detailing the following:

The report shall also provide an estimate of the number of persons convicted of crimes where DNA evidence was not admitted because the court ruled DNA testing did not meet acceptable scientific standards or where DNA testing technology was not sufficiently developed to test the DNA evidence in the case.

Sec. 3. RCW 10.37.050 and 1891 c 28 s 29 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) That it was found by a grand jury or prosecuting attorney of the county in which the court was held;

(3) That the defendant is named, or if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name or by reference to a unique genetic sequence of deoxyribonucleic acid, with the statement that his real name is ((([(()]])) (رسالة منامها)) unknown;

(4) That the crime was committed within the jurisdiction of the court, except where, as provided by law, the act, though done without the county in which the court is held, is triable therein;

(5) That the crime was committed at some time previous to the finding of the indictment or filing of the information, and within the time limited by law for the commencement of an action therefor;

(6) That the act or omission charged as the crime is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended;

(7) The act or omission charged as the crime is stated with such a degree of certainty as to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon a conviction according to the right of the case.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Nothing in this act is intended to create a legal right or cause of action. Nothing in this act is intended to deny or alter any existing legal right or cause of action. Nothing in this act should be interpreted to deny postconviction DNA testing requests under existing law by convicted and incarcerated persons who were sentenced to confinement for a term less than life or the death penalty."

On motion of Senator Patterson, the Senate receded from its amendment(s) to Substitute House Bill No 2392.

On motion of Senator Patterson, the rules were suspended and Substitute House Bill No. 2392 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Patterson moved that the following striking amendment be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that while government services are provided to the citizens of the state of Washington through many mechanisms, the most prevalent delivery of services occurs through city, county, or state government actions. Increased demand for these services and limited revenue to meet those services have led to unproductive competition between cities, counties, and the state for the revenue that is collected and shared between cities, counties, and the state.

Therefore, the legislature finds that there is a need to evaluate the delivery of government services, the allotment of revenues, and the collection and distribution of various fines and forfeitures through the establishment of a joint task force on local governments.

The legislature further finds that rules adopted by state agencies cause local governments to allocate funds to meet those rules that are not fully funded at the state level.

The legislature further finds that the state must recognize the costs to local governments of rules adopted by state agencies and mitigate the financial impacts of those rules for a significant period to allow local governments to develop strategies to comply with the requirements of Initiative Measure No. 695.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The joint task force on local governments is created, to consist of seventeen members including:

(a) The following four members of the house of representatives or their designees: (i) The chair and ranking minority member or the cochair of the committee on appropriations; and (ii) the chair and ranking minority member or the cochair of the committee on local government;

(b) The following four members of the senate or their designees: (i) The chair and the ranking minority member of the committee on ways and means; and (ii) the chair and ranking minority member of the committee on state and local government;

(c) One member from the office of the governor;

(d) Four members from the association of Washington cities;

(e) Two members from the Washington state association of counties; and

(f) Two members from the Washington association of county officials.

(2) The nonlegislative members of the task force shall serve without compensation, but will be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members of the task force will be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 44.04.120. The staff of senate committee services and the office of program research of the house of representatives shall provide support to the task force.

(3) The task force must be cochaired by one senator, chosen by the task force, and one state representative, chosen by the task force, from opposite political parties. The cochairs shall appoint experts and advisors as nonvoting members of the task force to provide information on various subjects, including but not limited to special purpose districts and public employee unions.

The task force shall establish rules of procedure at its first meeting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The joint task force on local governments shall:

(1) Complete a thorough study of the delivery of government services, allotment of revenues, and collection and distribution of various fines and forfeitures; and

(2) Commence the study by July 1, 2000, present an interim report of its findings and any recommendations to the legislature by January 30, 2001, and present a final report, including proposed legislation, addressing its recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 2002.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act expires March 30, 2002."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 2, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6675 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature makes the following findings:

(1) Access to telecommunications facilities and services is essential to the economic well-being of both rural and urban areas.

(2) Many persons and entities, particularly in rural areas, do not have adequate access to telecommunications facilities and services.

(3) Public utility districts and rural port districts may be well-positioned to construct and operate telecommunications facilities.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 54.16 RCW to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(2) “Telecommunications” has the same meaning as that contained in RCW 80.04.010.

(3) “Telecommunications facilities” means lines, conduits, ducts, poles, wires, cables, crossarms, receivers, transmitters, instruments, machines, appliances, instrumentalities and all devices, real estate, easements, apparatus, property, and routes used, operated, owned, or controlled by any entity to facilitate the provision of telecommunications services.

(4) “Wholesale telecommunications services” means the provision of telecommunications services or facilities for resale by an entity authorized to provide telecommunications services to the general public and internet service providers.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 54.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A public utility district in existence on the effective date of this act may construct, purchase, acquire, develop, finance, lease, license, handle, provide, add to, contract for, interconnect, alter, improve, repair, operate, and maintain any telecommunications facilities within or without the district's limits for the following purposes:

(a) For the district's internal telecommunications needs; and

(b) For the provision of wholesale telecommunications services within the district and by contract with another public utility district.
Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize public utility districts to provide telecommunications services to end users.

(2) A public utility district providing wholesale telecommunications services shall ensure that rates, terms, and conditions for such services are not unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential. Rates, terms, and conditions are discriminatory or preferential when a public utility district offering rates, terms, and conditions to an entity for wholesale telecommunications services does not offer substantially similar rates, terms, and conditions to all other entities seeking substantially similar services.

(3) When a public utility district establishes a separate utility function for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services, it shall account for any and all revenues and expenditures related to its wholesale telecommunications facilities and services separately from revenues and expenditures related to its internal telecommunications operations. Any revenues received from the provision of wholesale telecommunications services must be dedicated to the utility function that includes the provision of wholesale telecommunications services for costs incurred to build and maintain the telecommunications facilities until such time as any bonds or other financing instruments executed after the effective date of this act and used to finance the telecommunications facilities are discharged or retired.

(4) When a public utility district establishes a separate utility function for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services, all telecommunications services rendered by the separate function to the district for the district's internal telecommunications needs shall be charged at its true and full value. A public utility district may not charge its nontelecommunications operations rates that are preferential or discriminatory compared to those it charges entities purchasing wholesale telecommunications services.

(5) A public utility district shall not exercise powers of eminent domain to acquire telecommunications facilities or contractual rights held by any other person or entity to telecommunications facilities.

(6) Except as otherwise specifically provided, a public utility district may exercise any of the powers granted to it under this title and other applicable laws in carrying out the powers authorized under this section. Nothing in this act limits any existing authority of a public utility district under this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 54.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Prior to financing or constructing telecommunications facilities for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services, a public utility district shall:

(a) Develop a written implementation plan stating the district's intent to provide wholesale telecommunications services which must include:

(i) A general description of how the district intends to engage in the provision of wholesale telecommunications services under section 3 of this act; and

(ii) A discussion of how the public interest shall be served by the provision of wholesale telecommunications services; and

(b) Present the implementation plan to the district's commission, and make the plan available to the general public. The commission shall conduct at least three public hearings throughout the district to take public comment on the implementation plan. At least two weeks prior to each public hearing, a notice that includes a general description of the implementation plan and the date and place of hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the district is located.

(2) After the public hearings, the commission may adopt, alter, or reject the implementation plan by resolution. Within ninety days after the adoption of such resolution, a petition signed by at least ten percent of the registered voters in the district may be submitted to the commission requiring the subject of the resolution be put to a vote of the people in the district.

(3) If a petition meets the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall submit the resolution to the legislative authority of the county in which the district is located. Upon receipt of the resolution, the legislative authority shall submit a proposal to the voters of the district at the next general election regarding the question of providing wholesale telecommunications services in the district in substantially the following terms:

Shall Public Utility District No. . . . . of . . . . . . . . . County be authorized to provide wholesale telecommunications services within the boundaries of the district?

Yes . . .

No . . .

Within ten days after such an election, the election board of the county shall canvass the returns, and if at such an election a majority of voters voting on the proposition shall vote in favor of such authority, the district shall have the authority to provide wholesale telecommunications services.

(4) A public utility district providing wholesale telecommunications services shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1st of the second year of each biennium. The report must include, at a minimum, a description of the following activities:
(a) All activities relating to the construction, acquisition, operation, marketing, and leasing of telecommunications facilities and wholesale telecommunications services; and

(b) The number of new locations connected to the telecommunications facilities resulting from the provision of wholesale telecommunications services to enhanced service providers and entities authorized to provide telecommunications services to the general public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 54.16 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person or entity that has requested wholesale telecommunications services from a public utility district providing wholesale telecommunications services under this chapter may petition the commission under the procedures set forth in RCW 80.04.110 (1) through (3) if it believes the district's rates, terms, and conditions are unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential. The person or entity shall provide the public utility district notice of its intent to petition the commission and an opportunity to review within thirty days the rates, terms, and conditions as applied to it prior to submitting its petition. In determining whether a district is providing discriminatory or preferential rates, terms, and conditions, the commission may consider such matters as service quality, cost of service, technical feasibility of connection points on the district's facilities, time of response to service requests, system capacity, and other matters reasonably related to the provision of wholesale telecommunications services. If the commission, after notice and hearing, determines that a public utility district's rates, terms, and conditions are unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential, it shall issue a final order finding noncompliance with this section and setting forth the specific areas of apparent noncompliance. An order imposed under this section shall be enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The commission may order a public utility district to pay a share of the costs incurred by the commission in connection with adjudicating or enforcing the provisions of this section.

(3) Without limiting other remedies at law or equity, the commission and prevailing party may also seek injunctive relief to compel compliance with an order.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the commission's authority and jurisdiction with respect to actions, proceedings, or orders permitted or contemplated for a state commission under the federal telecommunications act of 1996, P.L. 104-104 (110 Stat. 56).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 53.08 RCW to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Commission" means the Washington utilities and transportation commission.

(2) "Rural port district" means a port district formed under chapter 53.04 RCW and located in a county with an average population density of fewer than one hundred persons per square mile.

(3) "Telecommunications" has the same meaning as contained in RCW 80.04.010.

(4) "Telecommunications facilities" means lines, conduits, ducts, poles, wires, cables, crossarms, receivers, transmitters, instruments, machines, appliances, instrumentalities and all devices, real estate, easements, apparatus, property, and routes used, operated, owned, or controlled by any entity to facilitate the provision of telecommunications services.

(5) "Wholesale telecommunications services" means the provision of telecommunications services or facilities for resale by an entity authorized to provide telecommunications services to the general public and internet service providers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 53.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A rural port district in existence on the effective date of this act may construct, purchase, acquire, develop, finance, lease, license, handle, provide, add to, contract for, interconnect, alter, improve, repair, operate, and maintain any telecommunications facilities within or without the district's limits for the following purposes:

(a) For the district's own use; and

(b) For the provision of wholesale telecommunications services within the district's limits. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize rural port districts to provide telecommunications services to end users.

(2) A rural port district providing wholesale telecommunications services under this section shall ensure that rates, terms, and conditions for such services are not unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential. Rates, terms, and conditions are discriminatory or preferential when a rural port district offering such rates, terms, and conditions to an entity for wholesale telecommunications services does not offer substantially similar rates, terms, and conditions to all other entities seeking substantially similar services.

(3) When a rural port district establishes a separate utility function for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services, it shall account for any and all revenues and expenditures related to its wholesale telecommunications facilities and services separately from revenues and expenditures related to its internal telecommunications operations. Any revenues received from the provision of wholesale telecommunications services must be dedicated to the utility function that includes the provision of wholesale telecommunications services for costs incurred to build and maintain the telecommunications facilities until such time as any bonds or other financing instruments executed after the effective date of this act and used to finance the telecommunications facilities are discharged or retired.

(4) When a rural port district establishes a separate utility function for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services, all telecommunications services rendered by the separate function to the district for the district's internal telecommunications needs shall be charged at its true and full value. A rural port district may not charge its nontelecommunications operations rates that are preferential or discriminatory compared to those it charges entities purchasing wholesale telecommunications services.

(5) A rural port district shall not exercise powers of eminent domain to acquire telecommunications facilities or contractual rights held by any other person or entity to telecommunications facilities.

(6) Except as otherwise specifically provided, a rural port district may exercise any of the powers granted to it under this title and other applicable laws in carrying out the powers authorized under this section. Nothing in this act limits any existing authority of a rural port district under this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 53.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Prior to financing or constructing telecommunications facilities for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services, a rural port district shall:

(a) Develop a written implementation plan stating the district's intent to provide wholesale telecommunications services which must include:

(i) A general description of how the district intends to engage in the provision of wholesale telecommunications services under section 7 of this act; and

(ii) A discussion of how the public interest shall be served by the provision of wholesale telecommunications services; and

(b) Present the implementation plan to the district's commission, and make the plan available to the general public. The commission shall conduct at least three public hearings throughout the district to take public comment on the implementation plan. At least two weeks prior to each public hearing, a notice that includes a general description of the implementation plan and the date and place of hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the district is located.

(2) After the public hearings, the commission may adopt, alter, or reject the implementation plan by resolution. Within ninety days after adoption of such resolution, a petition signed by at least ten percent of the registered voters in the district may be submitted to the commission requiring the subject of the resolution be put to a vote of the people in the district.

(3) If a petition meets the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall submit the resolution to the legislative authority of the county in which the district is located. Upon receipt of the resolution, the legislative authority shall submit a proposal to the voters of the district at the next general election regarding the question of providing wholesale telecommunications services in the district in substantially the following terms:

Shall Port District No. . . . . . . . . County be authorized to provide wholesale telecommunications services within the boundaries of the district?

Yes . . .

No . . .

Within ten days after such an election, the election board of the county shall canvass the returns, and if at such an election a majority of voters voting on the proposition shall vote in favor of such authority, the district shall have the authority to provide wholesale telecommunications services.

(4) A rural port district providing telecommunications services shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1st of the second year of each biennium. The report must include, at a minimum, a description of the following activities:

(a) All activities relating to the construction, acquisition, operation, marketing, and leasing of telecommunications facilities and wholesale telecommunications services; and

(b) The number of new locations connected to the telecommunications facilities resulting from the provision of wholesale telecommunications services to enhanced service providers and entities authorized to provide telecommunications services to the general public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 53.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A person or entity that has requested wholesale telecommunications services from a rural port district may petition the commission under the procedures set forth in RCW 80.04.110 (1) through (3) if it believes the district's rates, terms, and conditions are unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential. The person or entity shall provide the district notice of its intent to petition the commission and an opportunity to review within thirty days the rates, terms, and conditions as applied to it prior to submitting its petition. In determining whether a district is providing discriminatory or preferential rates, terms, and conditions, the commission may consider such matters as service quality, technical feasibility of connection points on the district's telecommunications facilities, time of response to service requests, system capacity, and other matters reasonably related to the provision of wholesale telecommunications services. If the commission, after notice and hearing, determines that a rural port district's rates, terms, and conditions are unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential, it shall issue a final order finding noncompliance with this section and setting forth the specific areas of apparent noncompliance. An order imposed under this section shall be enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The commission may order a rural port district to pay a share of the costs incurred by the commission in adjudicating or enforcing this section.

(3) Without limiting other remedies at law or equity, the commission and prevailing party may also seek injunctive relief to compel compliance with an order.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the commission's authority and jurisdiction with respect to actions, proceedings, or orders permitted or contemplated for a state commission under the federal telecommunications act of 1996, P.L. 104-104 (110 Stat. 56).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 80.01 RCW to read as follows:
The commission is authorized to perform the duties required by sections 5 and 9 of this act."
Correct the title, and the same are herewith transmitted.

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk
TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

MOTION
Senator Brown moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6675.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Long: "Senator Brown, I see that the House amendment says, 'Clarification is added that the injunctive relief available through the WUTC remedial procedures are not exclusive remedies.' What does that mean?"
Senator Brown: "Thank you, Senator. That is a good question. Included in this bill is a limited amount of authority for the WUTC. If there is some concern about rates being charged that are preferential or discriminatory, an individual having that complaint must first go to their PUD Commission with the complaint. The complaint cannot be resolved at that level. They are allowed to take the complaint further to the WUTC."
Senator Long: "Thank you, Senator Brown."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Snyder: "Senator Brown, Public Utility Districts have historically used telecommunications as part of operating their electrical, water and sewer utilities, and for some time have made excess capacity in and on their facilities available to others for telecommunications purposes. Many PUDs have existing telecommunications projects which they undertook pursuant to authorities recognized at the time these activities were undertaken. Does this bill affect their authority to continue these projects?"
Senator Brown: "Thank you, Senator Snyder. No, this bill intends to preserve the existing authority of PUDs and ports, which is defined both in current statutes and through a long history of interpretive court decisions. Current law makes very clear that PUDs' authorities are to be construed broadly. The bill does not limit any current authorities, but clarifies new ones with regard to new wholesale telecommunications services.

"Neither the procedural requirements nor operational parameters nor UTC oversight in this bill are intended to apply to telecommunications or other services provided pursuant to any existing authority. For example, the authority for the NOA Net project is not dependent on this legislation. Rather, this bill applies only to new wholesale telecommunications services that a PUD or rural port district may provide after the effective date of the act."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Brown to concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6675.

WHEREAS, Senator Wojahn was relentless in her support of issues affecting the lives of women; and

REMARKS BY GOVERNOR GARY LOCKE

Governor Locke: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. It is really an honor to be here. It is really an honor to pay tribute to Senator Wojahn, who has served thirty-two years in this great institution on behalf of the people of the state of Washington. I don't think any of us can ever claim that we could have had such an impact on the people of the state of Washington.

"As I heard the resolution and all the issues that you have worked on, a lot of those things are accepted as common-place now in our state of Washington. Yet, they were quite a struggle to even have them considered years and years ago.

"For any of us to have served that many years—for any of us to have actually touched as many people as you have, would be quite a legacy in and of itself. Just think, Senator Wojahn, you have made it possible for countless of thousands of women, the disabled, the sick, the poor, to reach higher limits which never could have been possible without your work. If any of us could even come close—not even to being one quarter of the woman you are, but even one-tenth of the person that you have been—one-tenth of the accomplishments that you have made, we would all be so very proud.

"On behalf of the great state of Washington, we just thank you for your dedicated service and we know that you will continue to be a trail blazer. We are blessed by your efforts and look forward to your continuing efforts. Thank you very much."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOJAHN

Senator Wojahn: "You may wish that I am what Senator Snyder called the--the bulldog with lockjaw, because I couldn't talk that long.

I want to reminisce with you for a few minutes here and to lay out some hall marks in the legislative history in which I have either been a part or helped to pass. The first one done was in 1970, my second year here, which was the bacon bill. That was the bill that the meat packers reverse the bacon in the package, so that the people could see the lean content rather than all the fat. Everybody laughed at that bill. I put it in 1969, my first year here, and I didn't get it. I went back the next year and we got it and we changed federal law with that bill.

"I had been back to Washington D.C., when I worked for the State AFL/CIO, lobbying for the Wholesome Meat Act and I knew that the Wholesome Meat Act said that there should be no mislabeling of packages, but it was not being enforced. That bill was a little tiny bill--about a one-half pager--and it changed federal law throughout the nation--good.

"Don Moos, who was the Secretary of Agriculture, came to me when we started session--we gave them a year to do it, that was in 1971 that it was supposed to be in effect. He came to me and said, 'Would you mind extending that time a little bit by law?' He said that there were only two meat packers in the country and they can't keep up with this demand. So, yes, we did that.

"The next year it was the Equal Rights Amendment to the State's Constitution, which we did pass and our Attorney General's aide had to change one hundred thirty-two codes all at once. That was done in the next session. She almost had a nervous breakdown and she didn't think--she worked and worked and didn't get through until it was on the ballot and it didn't look like it would pass, so she had relaxed because she didn't think she was going to have to continue to work on this. Low and behold, the absentee ballots from Fort Lawton in Seattle, which was a military base, passed the Equal Rights Amendment. It was a Seattle group at Fort Lawton, of all places. So, it did pass and she didn’t have a nervous breakdown but we did get one hundred thirty-two changes to the state code at that point.

“The next one was the ERA, the federal, which we were one of the last states to ratify. It only had thirty-five states that had never been ratified. I remember it passing here and passing by a two-thirds vote in both houses of the Legislature.

“Then, the next one in 1974 came in sex in Education. That is when we tied into Title Nine, the federal act, to suggest that academic and sports should open to women, also. That is what the University has been doing the last twenty years adding fields for women.

“Next was the extension of credit to women. Before that, a woman could not get--didn’t have to be notified if her husband encumbered the estate. He could charge anything or buy anything without her knowledge and she also owned all of her personal property that was acquired after the wedding. So, that got changed really fast.

“Anyway, I hope I have opened the doors and I want to thank you for this wonderful, wonderful occasion. I will treasure this all of my life and I am sure I have a few more years left. As Pat suggested, I may be down lobbying for my one percent for health.”

The Committee of Honor escorted Senator Wojahn to her seat in the Senate Chamber.

The President requested the Committee of Honor composed of Senators Snyder and West to escort Senator Al Bauer to the rostrum.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Snyder, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 2000-8763

By Senators Snyder, Benton, Brown, Costa, Deccio, Eide, Fairley, Finkbeiner, Franklin, Fraser, Gardner, Goings, Hale, Hargrove, Haugen, Heavey, Hochstatter, Honeyford, Horn, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kline, Kohl-Welles, Long, Loveland, McAuliffe, McCaslin, McDonald, Morton, Oke, Patterson, Prentice, Rasmussen, Roach, Rossi, Sellar, Sheahan, Sheldon, B., Sheldon, T., Shin, Spanel, Stevens, Swecker, Thibaudeau, West, Winsley, Wojahn, and Zarelli

WHEREAS, At the end of the 2000 Legislative Session, the Washington State Senate will bid farewell to a respected colleague and dear friend; and

WHEREAS, Senator Al Bauer will retire from this body marking a near-thirty-year career of dedicated elected public service, having served in the Legislature since 1971; and

WHEREAS, In those three decades, Al Bauer has been the Legislature’s most tireless advocate and leader on behalf of public education; and

WHEREAS, His belief in its importance began as a child, as the son of German immigrants who instilled in Al a fierce pride and a deep commitment to education; and

WHEREAS, After dropping out of high school to serve his country in the Navy, he returned from the service after six years to receive his high school diploma, go on to college, and eventually begin his long career as a public school teacher in La Center and Vancouver; and

WHEREAS, Behind nearly every major piece of legislation that has shaped our system of public education in the last thirty years was Al Bauer. No governor, superintendent of public instruction or legislator has had more influence on the state’s "paramount duty"; and

WHEREAS, Parents, teachers, and students alike can thank him for leading the charge on key education issues and programs such as: the Learning Assistance Program, smaller class sizes in the early grades, increasing parental involvement, bringing technology to smaller, rural communities, and defining basic education -- to name just a few; and

WHEREAS, His constituents in Clark County will be forever grateful for the work he has done to bring the Washington State University branch campus, attract new high-tech industries that pay good wages, and advocate tax benefits important to residents of the border county; and

WHEREAS, Bauer Hall, dedicated in 1988 at Clark College, will forever stand as a tribute to the good Senator from first the Seventeenth and then the Forty-ninth Legislative Districts; and
WHEREAS, The members of the Senate know that when Al Bauer sets his mind to something or as Al Bauer would say, "when he puts his pick in the ground," you had better get out of the way, for he is determined, committed, single-minded, and, more often than not, right; and

WHEREAS, Never known to have burned a bridge, Al Bauer has built his credibility and reputation as a gentleman by his true belief in cooperation and his willingness to step across the aisle to get things done; and

WHEREAS, He reminds us all why we’re here in the first place: not to win, but to do good; not to gloat over victories, but to share the credit; and

WHEREAS, His humility, loyalty, integrity, and knowledge of this institution are qualities that will be truly missed upon his retirement; and

WHEREAS, We thank Al Bauer’s wife of forty-seven years, Pat, and their three children, Sue, Jim and Nancy for sharing their husband and father for the past thirty years with the Washington State Legislature.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate do hereby recognize and honor the extraordinary public service career of Senator Al Bauer, thank him on behalf of the nearly one million students in our public schools whom he has helped, and wish him the very best in his retirement; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate immediately transmit a copy of this resolution to Senator Al Bauer, a good friend and an outstanding legislator.

Senators Snyder, McCaslin, Deccio, Kohl-Welles, Hargrove and Oke spoke to Senate Resolution 2000-8763.

REMARKS BY GOVERNOR GARY LOCKE

Governor Locke: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. It is an equal pleasure to be here to hear the great remarks and the tributes paid to Senator Al Bauer. I think that both Senator Wojahn and Senator Bauer have engendered so many great friends all through the years and that is why we see so many former members of the State Senate here--Senator George Fleming, Senator Rick Bender, Senator Marc Gaspard and a former member of the House of Representatives from the Vancouver area, Denny Heck, now head of TVW.

"Senator Wojahn has had a great influence on so many people throughout our state, so has Senator Bauer. In the resolution that was read, it mentioned the million children, who are in our public schools today. When you think about the fact that Senator Bauer has worked on education for some thirty years, the number of school age children may not have been a million children strong thirty years ago, but it must be fairly close, because of the kids of the baby-boomers--in fact, just the baby-boomers generation itself. Think of it Senator Bauer, your policies in terms of education, in terms of the Learning Assistance Program, reducing class sizes, emphasis on reading, scholarship programs. You really touched close to thirty million--thirty million--residents--school aged children in the state of Washington. How many of us will ever have that legacy that we can point to--thirty million kids?

"I think, as Senator Oke indicated, you have a strong affection, an allegiance to the military of our great state, of our great country. You interrupted your high school career to join the military; then you pursued your education upon your returning from the military. I think that is why you have embraced so many policies that are akin to our version of the GI Bill, always trying to make sure that people can go back to school and finish their education--go on to college. You have first hand knowledge of the benefits of that education and what it does for our society. You just have done so much in a gentlemanly way, in such a soft-spoken way, and for that I appreciate it as a former member of the Legislature and as Governor and as a parent now.

"I thank you for what you have established in making education a paramount duty of our state. So much of what I am doing now is just trying to build on the foundation that you have established and to continue that legacy that you set forth in motion. Thank you in behalf of all the children and now the adults of our great state of Washington. Thank you very much."

Senators Rossi, McAuliffe, Shin, Hochstatter, Heavey, Winsley, Haugen, Benton, Franklin, Wojahn and Thibaudeau continued to speak to Senate Resolution 2000-8763.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAUER
Senator Al Bauer: “Thank you. I wonder if I could have an amendment to the resolution. My wife tells me that we have been married forty-seven years instead of forty-six. Thank you Mr. President, Governor, Senators, friends, citizens, family for the opportunity you gave me to serve you here in Olympia for thirty years. I would never have time here this evening, and you wouldn’t allow me, to express all the gratitude I have for staff, for the House of Representatives, the Governor’s office—all the people that we work with, including all those citizens that come here today to make the pitch that assist us in doing the right thing for them.

“Special thanks to my family, my wife. For thirty years—I didn’t realize it until just recently that I had been gone thirty years—almost a half a year for all those thirty years away from home. In addition to that, at one time we had a little cattle ranch over in Eastern Washington, and when I left here, I would saddle up and go over there and spend all summer over there, while my family was in Vancouver. In October, we would move the cattle back to Pasco and then I would come home for a few months and then come back up here. It has been difficult for them and I apologize that I didn’t take my daughters and my son and grandchildren to the mountains to ski, the ocean to dig clams, because I always had some other kind of priority. If it wasn’t working on the farm, it was to get back here.

“When I say special thanks to the citizens of the state of Washington, you know they elected everyone of you. Your constituents decided you were the best person for this job. No matter what your politics are and how serious you are about that, and how you conduct yourself those citizens said, ‘you are the best; we want you down there representing us.’ Really, I think sometimes I feel guilty that I have not respected that other view as much as I should. Not that I had to agree with that view, but to respect that person that has been projecting that view. I can remember being so mad at some legislator for killing my bill or whatever and we got into some real battles—all of you have had that experience. But, the next day, you were together on a bill and you were the best of buddies and you couldn’t say enough good things about that person.

“I want to mention the staff. In 1973, Lenny Sawyer in the House developed a new staffing system where the staff would be here the year round and help us have some institutional memory. Where before, the staff went home and there was a void there and very little interim committee work and then we would all come back and we would all be starting over again, so to speak. He created that staff and implemented it also and those staff members are so important to all of us. I can’t believe that we could all function now days without them—in the manner in the time it takes to study the issues to be prepared and all that.

“I want to mention just one staff member and there are so many that I would like to mention. But, I have to mention just one. At one time when I was doing some strawberries out there on the farm and I ran out of strawberry flats for the cannery, so I went over to the neighbors to get some flats. Here was about a fifteen year old boy on a truck loading strawberries like a grown man and I borrowed some flats. In later years, that fifteen year old boy was a student at Columbia River High School and later that boy went to the Army Academy and came to the Legislature and was a leader in the House—majority leader—and later was Chief of Staff for the Governor and now he has created a major improvement for the people of the state of Washington in developing TVW. That is Denny Heck—my dear friend Denny Heck.

“With that I want to say thanks ever so much and with that I regret that I didn’t have or take enough time to come around to each and every one of you and express my appreciation for your loving spirit, your dedication to the state of Washington and to the people of the state of Washington. God Bless You!”

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

MOTION

On motion of Senator Brown, the following Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:
(a) There are geographic areas within communities that are characterized by a lack of employment opportunities, an average income level that is below the median income level for the surrounding community, a lack of affordable housing, deteriorating infrastructure, and a lack of facilities for community services, job training, and education;
(b) Strategies to encourage reinvestment in these areas by assisting local businesses to become stronger and area residents to gain economic power involve a variety of activities and partnerships;
(c) Reinvestment in these areas cannot be accomplished with only governmental resources and require a comprehensive approach that integrates various incentives, programs, and initiatives to meet the economic, physical, and social needs of the area;
(d) Successful reinvestment depends on a local government's ability to coordinate public resources in a cohesive, comprehensive strategy that is designed to leverage long-term private investment in an area;
(e) Reinvestment can strengthen the overall tax base through increased tax revenue from expanded and new business activities and physical property improvement;
(f) Local governments, in cooperation with area residents, can provide leadership as well as planning and coordination of resources and necessary supportive services to address reinvestment in the area; and
(g) It is in the public interest to adopt a targeted approach to revitalization and enlist the resources of all levels of government, the private sector, community-based organizations, and community residents to revitalize an area.

(2) The legislature declares that the purposes of the community empowerment zone act are to:

(a) Encourage reinvestment through strong partnerships and cooperation between all levels of government, community-based organizations, area residents, and the private sector;

(b) Involve the private sector and stimulate private reinvestment through the judicious use of public resources;

(c) Target governmental resources to those areas of greatest need; and

(d) Include all levels of government, community individuals, organizations, and the private sector in the policy-making process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) “Area” means a geographic area within a local government that is described by a close perimeter boundary.

(2) “Community empowerment zone” means an area meeting the requirements of RCW 43.63A.700 (as recodified by

(5) “Local government” means a city, code city, town, or county.

(b) The area must have at least fifty-one percent of the households in the area with incomes at or below eighty percent of the county's median income, adjusted for household size;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5.

(1) The five-year community empowerment plan required under RCW 43.63A.700 (as recodified by this act) shall contain information that describes the community development needs of the proposed community empowerment zone and present a strategy for meeting those needs. The plan shall address the following categories:

(a) Housing needs for all economic segments of the proposed community empowerment zone;

(c) Other public facilities needs, such as neighborhood facilities or facilities for the provision of health, education, recreation, public safety, and other services;

(d) Community economic development needs, such as commercial and industrial revitalization, job creation and retention considering the unemployment and underemployment of area residents, accessibility to financial resources by area residents and businesses, investment within the area, and other related components of community economic development; and

(2) The local government must provide a description of its strategy for meeting the needs identified in subsection (1) of this section. As part of the community empowerment zone strategy, the local government must identify the needs for which specific plans are currently in place and the source of funds expected to be used. For the balance of the area's needs, the local government must identify the source of funds expected to become available during the next two-year period and actions that the local government will take to acquire those funds.

(3) The local government must submit an annual progress report to the department that details the extent to which the local government is working to meet the needs identified in the five-year community empowerment plan. If applicable, the progress report must also contain a discussion on the impediments to meeting the needs outlined in the five-year community empowerment plan. The department must determine the date the annual progress reports are due from each local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6.

(1) The terms or conditions of a community empowerment zone approved under this chapter may be amended to:

(a) Alter the boundaries of the community empowerment zone; or

(2)(a) A request for an amendment under subsection (1)(a) of this section may not be in effect until the department issues an amended designation for the community empowerment zone that approves the requested amendment. The local government must promptly file with the department a request for approval that contains information the department deems necessary to evaluate the proposed changes and its impact on the area's designation as a community empowerment zone under RCW 43.63A.710 (as recodified by this act). The local government must hold at least two public hearings on the proposed changes and include the information in its request for an amendment to its community empowerment zone.
(b) The department shall approve or disapprove a proposed amendment to a community empowerment zone within sixty days of its receipt of a request under subsection (1)(a) of this section. The department may not approve changes to a community empowerment zone that are not in conformity with this chapter.

(3)(a) The termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone under subsection (1)(b) of this section is not effective until the department issues a finding stating the reasons for the termination, which may include lack of commitment of resources to activities in the community empowerment zone by the public, private, and community-based sectors. The local government may file an appeal to the department's findings within sixty days of the notice to terminate the area's designation. The department must notify the local government of the results within thirty days of the filing of the appeal.

(b) A termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone has no effect on benefits previously extended to individual businesses. The local government may not commit benefits to a business after the effective date of the termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone.

(4) The department may request applications from local governments for designation as community empowerment zones under this chapter as a result of a termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone under this section.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 7. The department must administer this chapter and has the following powers and duties:

(1) To monitor the implementation of chapter . . . , Laws of 2000 (this act) and submit reports evaluating the effectiveness of the program and any suggestions for legislative changes to the governor and legislature by December 1, 2000;

(2) To develop evaluation and performance measures for local governments to measure the effectiveness of the program at the local level on meeting the objectives of this chapter;

(3) To provide information and appropriate assistance to persons desiring to locate and operate a business in a community empowerment zone;

(4) To work with appropriate state agencies to coordinate the delivery of programs, including but not limited to housing, community and economic development, small business assistance, social service, and employment and training programs which are carried on in a community empowerment zone; and

(5) To develop rules necessary for the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 8. The administration of a community empowerment zone is under the jurisdiction of the local government. Each local government must, by ordinance, designate a community empowerment zone administrator for the area designated as a community empowerment zone that is within its jurisdiction. A community empowerment zone administrator must be an officer or employee of the local government. The community empowerment zone administrator is the liaison between the local government, the department, the business community, and labor and community-based organizations within the community empowerment zone.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 9. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington community empowerment zone act.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 10. Sections 1, 2, and 5 through 9 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 11. RCW 43.63A.700 and 43.63A.710, as amended by this act, are each recodified as sections in chapter 43.-- RCW (sections 1, 2, and 5 through 9 of this act).

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 12. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and this finding does not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. Rules adopted under this act must meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION.  Sec. 13. (1) The legislature finds that establishing a clear state-wide strategy for successful economic development will best prepare the state of Washington to respond to the challenges and take advantage of future economic cycles. The legislature further finds that without a state-wide economic development plan the state's budget and election cycles make it difficult for government to adhere to consistent, long-term economic development priorities that are essential to successful, enhanced economic development. The legislature further finds that the purpose of economic development is to increase the standard of living and enhance the quality of life of the citizens of this state.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that a strategic state-wide economic development plan be created that reflects the following goals and objectives:

(a) To create and maintain jobs and income that would not otherwise be created or maintained, and to increase wealth rather than to redistribute it;

(b) To add value to private sector economic activity; and

(c) To assist businesses in developing their business strategies, increasing the skills of their workers and managers, applying advanced technologies, developing infrastructure, accessing capital, and enhancing social capital.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. For the purposes of this chapter “department” means the department of community, trade, and economic development, or its successor agency or agencies. “The plan” or “state plan” means a state-wide economic development plan, as developed under sections 15 and 16 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. (1) The legislative committee on economic development shall take the lead responsibility for creating a state-wide strategic plan for economic development in conjunction with the department, and an advisory group of business, labor, and other interests. The advisory group shall be appointed by the lieutenant governor and shall consist of no more than twelve members.

(2) In preparing the state plan, the legislative committee on economic development and the department shall recognize:
   (a) Regional economic, political, and cultural differences, and acknowledge the special challenges facing urban and rural communities; and
   (b) Special contributions of, and challenges facing, women and minority-owned businesses.

(3) The plan should set priorities and concentrate resources on those priorities.

(4) The plan should include specific implementation steps and establish a process for institutionalizing economic development planning.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. The legislative committee on economic development and the department shall develop and include the following elements in the plan:

(1) New strategies that seek to improve the overall competitiveness of groups of similar businesses, usually termed clusters, and entire industries or sectors rather than traditional strategies that focus on individualized assistance. These strategies should foster interfirm cooperation and learning, technology adaptation, and work-based learning to improve work force skills. Under these strategies the state acts as a broker of available private and public development resources, or contracts for such broker services;

(2) Direction to the department to develop programs consistent with the state plan, and that are characterized by outcome-based performance management systems and decentralized decision making;

(3) Direction to the department to assist local governments and other interested parties in the creation of regional economic development plans consistent with the state plan; and

(4) Direction to the department to develop a professional research capacity to keep the state’s trade assistance operation regularly appraised of opportunities and updated on performance.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. The legislature recognizes the urgent need for having a plan in place as soon as is reasonably possible. The legislative committee on economic development and the department are directed to immediately develop a work plan and take other steps necessary to implement sections 13 through 16 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. Sections 13 through 16 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

Sec. 19. RCW 43.330.070 and 1993 c 280 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall work closely with local governments to increase their capacity to respond to economic, environmental, and social problems and challenges. The department shall coordinate the delivery of development services and technical assistance to local communities or regional areas. It shall promote partnerships between the public and private sectors and between state and local officials to encourage appropriate economic growth and opportunity in communities throughout the state, in particular strategies designed to encourage economic growth and opportunities in community empowerment zones designated under RCW 43.63A.700 (as recodified by this act). The department shall promote appropriate local development by: Supporting the ability of communities to develop and implement strategic development plans; assisting businesses to start up, maintain, or expand their operations; encouraging public infrastructure investment and private and public capital investment in local communities; supporting efforts to manage growth and provide affordable housing and housing services; providing for the identification and preservation of the state’s historical and cultural resources; and expanding employment opportunities.

(2) The department shall define a set of services including training and technical assistance that it will make available to local communities, community-based nonprofit organizations, regional areas, industry clusters, or businesses. The department shall simplify access to these programs by providing more centralized and user-friendly information and referral. The department shall coordinate community and economic development efforts to minimize program redundancy and maximize accessibility. The department shall develop a set of criteria for targeting services to local communities.

(3) The department shall develop a coordinated and systematic approach to providing training to community-based nonprofit organizations, local communities, industry clusters, and businesses. The approach shall be designed to increase the economic and community development skills available in local communities by providing training and funding for training for local citizens, nonprofit organizations, industry clusters, and businesses. The department shall emphasize providing training in those communities most in need of state assistance.
(4) As used in this section, "industry clusters" means a geographic concentration of interdependent competitive firms that do business with each other. Clusters also include firms that sell inside and outside of the geographic region as well as support firms that supply raw materials, components, and business services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The legislature finds that economic development, work force training, international trade, tourism development, housing assistance, assistance to local governments, and other programs and services provided by the department of community, trade, and economic development are vital to all regions of the state. The legislature further finds that program development and service delivery to the eastern region of the state could be significantly enhanced by a continuous, full-time physical staff presence in that region.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. For the purposes of sections 20 through 23 of this act:
(1) "Department" means the department of community, trade, and economic development, or its successor agency or agencies.
(2) "Director" means the director of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. In order to more effectively respond to the needs of eastern Washington communities, the department shall, as soon as practicable, establish a field office and a full-time staff presence in eastern Washington. If practicable, the office shall be colocated with one or more existing state agencies in the Tri-Cities area to facilitate the urgent economic development needs of southeastern Washington. This office shall be staffed by the director in the most efficient manner that is likely to provide improved service to eastern Washington communities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Program activities and priorities for this office serving eastern Washington shall be determined by the director, in consultation with local government officials, business, labor, and educational advisors from the region.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) The legislature finds that Washington's quality of life, standard of living, and social and economic opportunity all depend on the vitality of the state's economy. The legislature further finds that economic development tries to reinforce the natural way by which strong foundations in the areas of human resources, capital resources, technology, tax and regulatory, advanced physical infrastructure, information and communication infrastructure, and quality of life strengthen the economy. The legislature further finds that the strength and vitality of the state's economy depends on the competitiveness of the state's industry clusters. The legislature further finds industry clusters can become a powerful magnet for businesses to locate in an area and create a spawning ground for start-up companies. The legislature further finds that industry clusters create large, diverse pools of experienced workers; attract suppliers who tend to congregate in their vicinity for increased efficiency; and foster a competitive spirit that stimulates growth and innovative strategic alliances. The legislature further finds that the state must first identify and understand the industry clusters before strategies can be developed to enhance their competitive position in the world.
(2) It is the intent of the legislature to establish an industry cluster-based approach to economic development as a component of a state-wide strategy to address economic growth and quality of life issues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 43.330 RCW to read as follows:
(1) The department of community, trade, and economic development, or its successor agency, shall work with industry associations and organizations to identify industry clusters on a regional and state-wide basis. The industry clusters may include, but not be limited to aerospace, agriculture, food processing, forest products, business services, financial services, health and biomedical, software, transportation and distribution, environmental technology, and microelectronics.
(2) In the identification of industry clusters, the department's activities may include, but are not limited to:
(a) Conducting focus group discussions, facilitating meetings, and conducting studies to identify industry clusters, members of an industry cluster, the current state of the industry cluster, and issues of common concern of the industry cluster;
(b) Supporting the formation of industry cluster associations, publication of cluster association directories, and related efforts to encourage the entry of new firms into the industry cluster; and
(c) Providing methods for electronic communication and information dissemination among firms within industry clusters.
(3) The department shall work with identified industry clusters, private sector organizations, local governments, local economic development organizations, and higher education and training institutions to assist in the development of strategies designed to strengthen the competitiveness of the state's industry clusters. The department shall, on a continuing basis, evaluate effectiveness of the services provided to industry clusters using information gathered at the regional and state-wide level.
(4) As used in this section, "industry cluster" means a geographic concentration of interdependent competitive firms that do business with each other. Clusters also include firms that sell inside and outside of the geographic region as well as support firms that supply raw materials, components, and business services.
Sec. 26. RCW 43.330.090 and 1998 c 245 s 85 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The department shall work with private sector organizations, industry clusters, local governments, local economic development organizations, and higher education and training institutions to assist in the development of strategies to diversify the economy, facilitate technology transfer and diffusion, and increase value-added production by focusing on targeted sectors. The targeted sectors may include, but are not limited to, software, forest products, biotechnology, environmental industries, recycling markets and waste reduction, aerospace, food processing, tourism, film and video, microelectronics, new materials, robotics, and machine tools. The department shall, on a continuing basis, evaluate the potential return to the state from devoting additional resources to a targeted sector's approach to economic development and including additional sectors in its efforts. The department shall use information gathered in each service delivery region in formulating its sectoral strategies and in designating new targeted sectors.

(2) The department shall ensure that the state continues to pursue a coordinated program to expand the tourism industry throughout the state in cooperation with the public and private tourism development organizations. The department shall work to provide a balance of tourism activities throughout the state and during different seasons of the year. In addition, the department shall promote, market, and encourage growth in the production of films and videos, as well as television commercials within the state; to this end the department is directed to assist in the location of a film and video production studio within the state.

(3) In assisting in the development of a targeted sector, the department's activities may include, but are not limited to:

(a) Conducting focus group discussions, facilitating meetings, and conducting studies to identify members of the sector, appraise the current state of the sector, and identify issues of common concern within the sector;

(b) Supporting the formation of industry associations, publications of association directories, and related efforts to create or expand the activities or industry associations;

(c) Assisting in the formation of flexible networks by providing (i) agency employees or private sector consultants trained to act as flexible network brokers and (ii) funding for potential flexible network participants for the purpose of organizing or implementing a flexible network;

(d) Helping establish research consortia;

(e) Facilitating joint training and education programs;

(f) Promoting cooperative market development activities;

(g) Analyzing the need, feasibility, and cost of establishing product certification and testing facilities and services; and

(h) Providing for methods of electronic communication and information dissemination among firms and groups of firms to facilitate network or industry cluster activity.

(4) As used in this section, "industry cluster" has the same meaning as in section 25 of this act.

Sec. 27. RCW 82.60.049 and 1999 c 164 s 304 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Eligible area" also means a designated community empowerment zone approved before January 1, 2000, under RCW 43.63A.700 or a county containing a community empowerment zone approved before January 1, 2000.

(b) "Eligible investment project" also means an investment project in an eligible area as defined in this section.

(2) In addition to the provisions of RCW 82.60.040, the department shall issue a sales and use tax deferral certificate for state and local sales and use taxes due under chapters 82.08, 82.12, and 82.14 RCW, on each eligible investment project that is located in an eligible area, if the applicant establishes that at the time the project is operationally complete:

(a) The applicant will hire at least one qualified employment position for each seven hundred fifty thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested; and

(b) The positions will be filled by persons who at the time of hire are residents of the community empowerment zone in which the project is located. As used in this subsection, "resident" means the person makes his or her home in the community empowerment zone. A mailing address alone is insufficient to establish that a person is a resident for the purposes of this section. The persons must be hired after the date the application is filed with the department.

(3) All other provisions and eligibility requirements of this chapter apply to applicants eligible under this section.

(4) If a person does not meet the requirements of this section by the end of the calendar year following the year in which the project is certified as operationally complete, all deferred taxes are immediately due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. A new section is added to chapter 82.14 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The county legislative authority of a county in which there is a community empowerment zone as defined in section 2 of this act may submit an authorizing proposition to the county voters and, if the proposition is approved by a majority of persons voting, fix and impose a sales and use tax in accordance with the terms of this chapter for the purposes designated in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The tax authorized in this section shall be in addition to any other taxes authorized by law and shall be collected from those persons who are taxable by the state under chapters 82.08 and 82.12 RCW upon the occurrence of any taxable event within the county. The rate of tax shall equal one-tenth of one percent of the selling price in the case of sales tax, or value of the article used in the case of a use tax.
(3) Moneys received from any tax imposed under this section shall be used solely for the purpose of providing funds for costs associated with financing, design, acquisition, construction, equipping, operating, maintaining, remodeling, repairing, reequipping, and improvement of emergency communication systems and facilities.

(4) Counties in which there are community empowerment zones as defined in section 2 of this act are authorized to develop joint ventures to collocate emergency communication systems and facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.”

MOTION

Senator Spanel moved that the following striking amendment by Senators Spanel and Morton be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The intent of this act is to protect the health and safety of the citizens of the state of Washington and the quality of the state’s environment by developing and implementing environmental and public safety measures applicable to persons transporting hazardous liquids and gas by pipeline within the state of Washington. The legislature finds that public safety and the environment may best be protected by adopting standards that are equal to, or more stringent than, those adopted by the federal government, so long as they do not impermissibly interfere with interstate commerce.

(2) The legislature recognizes that additional federal authority is needed to implement a comprehensive pipeline safety program and by this act and other measures directs the state to seek that authority.

(3) It is also the intent of the legislature that the governor work with the state congressional delegation in seeking:

(a) To amend the federal pipeline safety act to delegate authority to qualified states to adopt and enforce standards equal to or more stringent than federal standards;

(b) State authority to administer and enforce federal requirements related to pipeline safety; and

Any fines collected under this chapter, or otherwise designated to this account must be deposited in the account. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the account may be used only for funding pipeline safety.

(2) Federal funds received before June 30, 2001, shall be treated as receipt of unanticipated funds and expended, without appropriation, for the designated purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A comprehensive program of hazardous liquid pipeline safety is authorized by sections 2, 4, 5, 9, 11, 13, and 20 of this act, and RCW 81.88.040 to be developed and implemented consistent with federal law. Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, the commission shall administer and enforce all laws related to hazardous liquid pipeline safety.

(1) The commission shall seek and accept federal delegation for the commission's inspectors as federal agents for the purposes of enforcement of federal laws covering gas pipeline safety and the associated federal rules, as they exist on the effective date of this section. The commission shall establish and submit to the United States secretary of transportation an inspection program that complies with requirements for delegated interstate agent inspection authority. If the secretary of transportation determines that the commission is not ready to accept federal delegation or that the commission lacks the resources to fulfill the inspection program requirements, the secretary of transportation may appoint a federal agent to perform such duties. If the commissioner does not accept federal delegation, the department shall also seek federal authority to adopt safety standards related to the monitoring and testing of interstate gas pipelines.

(2) Upon designation under subsection (1) of this section or under a grant of authority under subsection (2) of this section, to the extent authorized by federal law, the commission shall adopt rules for interstate gas pipelines that are no less stringent than the state's laws and rules for intrastate gas pipelines.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The commission may inspect any record, map, or written procedure required by federal law to be kept by a hazardous liquid pipeline company concerning the reportable releases, and the design, construction, testing, or operation and maintenance of hazardous liquid pipelines.

(1) All powers, duties, and functions of the utilities and transportation commission pertaining to hazardous liquid pipeline safety, except economic regulatory authority under chapters 81.88, 80.24, and 81.24 RCW, are transferred to the department of ecology effective upon the department's receipt of any delegated federal authority over interstate hazardous liquid pipelines, or upon such earlier date as the office of financial management may determine in the event that federal law is amended to remove all or part of the federal preemption of state regulation of hazardous liquid pipelines. The timing of the transfer shall be facilitated by a memorandum of agreement between the two agencies, with any disputes resolved by the office of financial management. All references to the commission or the utilities and transportation commission in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or the department of ecology when referring to the functions transferred in this section.

(2)(a) All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the utilities and transportation commission pertaining to the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be delivered to the custody of the department of ecology. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the utilities and transportation commission in carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be made available to the department of ecology. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be assigned to the department of ecology.

(b) Any appropriations made to the utilities and transportation commission for carrying out the powers, functions, and duties transferred shall be transferred and credited to the department of ecology under the agreement authorized in subsection (1) of this section.

(2) All owners of underground facilities within a one-number locator service area shall subscribe to the service. One-number locator service rates for cable television companies will be based on the amount of their underground facilities. If no one-number locator service is available, notice shall be provided individually to those owners of underground facilities known to or suspected of having underground facilities within the area of proposed excavation. The notice shall be communicated to the owners of underground facilities not less than two business days or more than ten business days before the scheduled date for commencement of excavation, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

(3) Upon receipt of the notice provided for in this section, the owner of the underground facility shall provide the excavator with reasonably accurate information as to its locatable underground facilities by surface-marking the location of the facilities. If there are identified but unlocatable underground facilities, the owner of such facilities shall provide the excavator with the best available information as to their locations. The owner of the underground facility providing the information shall respond no later than two business days after the receipt of the notice or before the excavation time, at the option of the owner, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. Excavators shall not excavate until all known facilities have been marked. Once marked by the owner of the underground facility, the excavator is responsible for maintaining the markings. Excavators shall have the right to receive compensation from the owner of the underground facility for costs incurred if the owner of the underground facility does not locate its facilities in accordance with this section.
The owner of the underground facility shall have the right to receive compensation for costs incurred in responding to excavation notices given less than two business days prior to the excavation from the excavator.

An owner of underground facilities is not required to indicate the presence of existing service laterals or appurtenances if the presence of existing service laterals or appurtenances on the site of the construction project can be determined from the presence of other visible facilities, such as buildings, manholes, or meter and junction boxes on or adjacent to the construction site.

Emergency excavations are exempt from the time requirements for notification provided in this section.

If the excavator, while performing the contract, discovers underground facilities which are not identified, the excavator shall cease excavating in the vicinity of the facility and immediately notify the owner or operator of such facilities, or the one-number locator service.

A new section is added to chapter 19.122 RCW to read as follows:

(1) After a pipeline company has been notified by an excavator pursuant to section 18 of this act that excavation work will uncover any portion of the pipeline, the pipeline company shall ensure that the pipeline section in the vicinity of the excavation is examined for damage prior to being reburied.

(2) Immediately upon receiving information of third-party damage to a hazardous liquid pipeline, the company that operates the pipeline shall terminate the flow of hazardous liquid in that pipeline until it has visually inspected the pipeline. After visual inspection, the operator of the hazardous liquid pipeline shall determine whether the damaged pipeline section should be replaced or repaired, or whether it is safe to resume pipeline operation. Immediately upon receiving information of third-party damage to a gas pipeline, the company that operates the pipeline shall conduct a visual inspection of the pipeline to determine whether the flow of gas through that pipeline should be terminated, and whether the damaged pipeline should be replaced or repaired. A record of the pipeline company’s inspection report and test results shall be provided to the utilities and transportation commission consistent with reporting requirements under 49 C.F.R. 195 Subpart B.

(3) Pipeline companies shall immediately notify local first responders and the department of any reportable release of a hazardous liquid from a pipeline. Pipeline companies shall immediately notify local first responders and the commission of any blowing gas leak from a gas pipeline that has ignited or represents a probable hazard to persons or property. Pipeline companies shall take all appropriate steps to ensure the public safety in the event of a release of hazardous liquid or gas under this subsection.

(4) No damaged pipeline may be buried until it is repaired or relocated. The pipeline company shall arrange for repairs or relocation of a damaged pipeline as soon as is practical or may permit the excavator to do necessary repairs or relocation at a mutually acceptable price.

A new section is added to chapter 48.48 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The chief of the Washington state patrol, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall, in consultation with the emergency management program within the state military department, the department of ecology, the utilities and transportation commission, and local emergency services organizations:

(a) Evaluate the preparedness of local first responders in meeting emergency management demands under subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) Conduct an assessment of the equipment and personnel needed by local first responders to meet emergency management demands related to pipelines.

(2) The chief of the Washington state patrol, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, shall develop curricula for training local first responders to deal with hazardous liquid and gas pipeline accidents. The curricula shall be developed in conjunction with pipeline companies and local first responders, and shall include a timetable and costs for providing training as defined in the curricula to all communities housing pipelines. Separate curricula shall be developed for hazardous liquid and gas pipelines so that the differences between pipelines may be recognized and appropriate accident responses provided. The need for a training program for regional incident management teams shall also be evaluated.
(3) In consultation with other relevant agencies, the chief of the Washington state patrol, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, shall identify the need and means for achieving consistent application of the national interagency incident management system.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "local first responders" means police, fire, emergency medical staff, and volunteers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A pipeline company that has been notified by an excavator that excavation work will occur near a hazardous liquid pipeline shall ensure that the pipeline company's representative consults with the excavator on-site prior to the excavation. The pipeline company has the discretion to require that the pipeline section in the vicinity of the excavation is fully uncovered and examined for damage prior to being reburied.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 80.28 RCW to read as follows:

A gas pipeline company that has been notified by an excavator that excavation work will occur near a gas transmission pipeline shall ensure that the pipeline company's representative consults with the excavator on-site prior to the excavation. The gas pipeline company has the discretion to require that the pipeline section in the vicinity of the excavation is fully uncovered and examined for damage prior to being reburied.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 19.122 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who willfully damages or removes a permanent marking used to identify an underground facility or pipeline, or a temporary marking prior to its intended use, is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 19.122 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any person who fails to notify the one-number locator service and causes damage to a hazardous liquid or gas pipeline is subject to a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation.

(2) All civil penalties recovered under this section relating to hazardous liquid pipelines shall be deposited into the hazardous liquid pipeline safety account created in section 4 of this act. All civil penalties recovered under this section relating to gas pipelines shall be deposited in the general fund and expended for the purpose of enforcement of gas pipeline safety laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A pipeline containing petroleum or petroleum products that is wholly owned by an individual and which pipeline is located wholly on the individual's property, that is not adjoining marine waters, is exempt from the provisions of this chapter. This exemption applies only for pipelines that do not have any connections to pipelines or facilities that extend beyond the pipeline owner's property and the petroleum or petroleum products must be for use only at that location.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and this finding does not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. Rules adopted under this act must meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. This act may be known and cited as the Washington state pipeline safety act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Sections 1, 2, 4 through 7, 9, 11, 13, 14, 21, and 25 through 27 of this act are each added to chapter 81.88 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Spanel and Morton to Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 2420, under suspension of the rules. The motion by Senator Spanel carried and the striking amendment, under suspension of the rules, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Spanel, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "safety;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 81.88.040, 19.122.020, and 19.122.030; adding new sections to chapter 81.88 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.110 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 80.28 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 19.122 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.48 RCW; prescribing penalties; and declaring an emergency;"

On motion of Senator Spanel, Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 2420, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Morton: "Senator Spanel, under Section 13 (1) of the bill, all powers, duties and functions of the UTC pertaining to hazardous liquid pipeline safety are transferred to the Department of Ecology. The transfer is effective upon the department's receipt of any delegated federal authority over interstate hazardous liquid pipelines. My question is, if the Federal Office of Pipeline Safety were to decline or refuse to grant the state authority over interstate hazardous liquid pipelines, because they want the authority for all pipelines to be located in a single agency, is there any discretion to avoid this transfer of authority from the UTC to the Department of Ecology?"

Senator Spanel: "Yes, Senator Morton. Section 13 (1) specifically addresses this issue by requiring the transfer to be effective upon the department's receipt of any delegated federal authority. If the Federal Office of Pipeline Safety did not grant the authority over hazardous liquid pipelines specifically to the Department of Ecology, the authority would remain with the UTC."

Senator Morton: "Thank you, Senator Spanel."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 2420, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 2420, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Sellar and Thibaudeau - 2.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2420, as amended by the Senate under suspension of the rules, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2850, by House Committee on Finance (originally sponsored by Representatives Reardon, Schoesler, Scott, D. Schmidt, Tokuda, Skinner, Thomas, Clements, Dunshee, McIntire and Pennington)

Modifying the tax treatment of linen and uniform supply services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Loveland moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means striking amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

‘NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that linen and uniform supply services have been incorrectly sited for tax purposes and as a result, some companies that perform laundry activities outside the state of Washington have not been required to collect retail sales taxes upon linen and uniform supply services provided to Washington customers. This error in tax treatment provides an incentive for businesses to locate their laundry functions out-of-state. In-state businesses cannot compete if out-of-state competitors are not required to collect sales tax.

The purpose of this act is to clarify the taxable situs of linen and uniform supply services.

Sec. 2. RCW 82.14.020 and 1997 c 201 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter:

(1) A retail sale consisting solely of the sale of tangible personal property shall be deemed to have occurred at the retail outlet at or from which delivery is made to the consumer.

(2) A retail sale consisting essentially of the performance of personal business or professional services shall be deemed to have occurred at the place at which such services were primarily performed, except that for the performance of a tow truck service, as defined in RCW 46.55.010, the retail sale shall be deemed to have occurred at the place of business of the operator of the tow truck service.

(3) A retail sale consisting of the rental of tangible personal property shall be deemed to have occurred (a) in the case of a rental involving periodic rental payments, at the primary place of use by the lessee during the period covered by each payment, or (b) in all other cases, at the place of first use by the lessee.

(4) A retail sale within the scope of RCW 82.04.050, and a retail sale of taxable personal property to be installed by the seller shall be deemed to have occurred at the place where the labor and services involved were primarily performed.

(5) A retail sale consisting of the providing to a consumer of telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065, other than a sale of tangible personal property under subsection (1) of this section or a rental of tangible personal property under subsection (3) of this section, shall be deemed to have occurred at the situs of the telephone or other instrument through which the telephone service is rendered.

(6) A retail sale of linen and uniform supply services shall be deemed to have occurred at the place of delivery to the customer. "Linen and uniform supply service" means the activity of providing customers with a supply of clean linen, towels, uniforms, gowns, protective apparel, clean room apparel, mats, rugs, and similar items, whether ownership of the item is in the person operating the linen and uniform supply service or in the customer. The term includes supply services operating their own cleaning establishments as well as those contracting with other laundry or dry cleaning businesses.

(7) "City" means a city or town.

(8) The meaning ascribed to words and phrases in chapters 82.04, 82.08 and 82.12 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, insofar as applicable, shall have full force and effect with respect to taxes imposed under authority of this chapter.

(9) "Taxable event" shall mean any retail sale, or any use of an article of tangible personal property, upon which a state tax is imposed pursuant to chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW, as they now exist or may hereafter be amended: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the term shall not include a retail sale taxable pursuant to RCW 82.08.150, as now or hereafter amended.

(10) "Treasurer or other legal depository" shall mean the treasurer or legal depository of a county or city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act takes effect July 1, 2000.
POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: “Senator Loveland, this is no time for nitpicking, but on line sixteen on the first page of the committee amendment, the word ‘situs’ is used and I was just checking with the Secretary whether that should be ‘status’ or if that is the correct word?”

Senator Loveland: “‘Situs’ would be correct--the place--at the place."

Senator Deccio: “Thank you. Next time, I will take my glasses off, so I won’t spot it.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 2850, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 2850, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; Nays, 2; Absent, 1; Excused, 1.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

March 8, 2000

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In compliance with the provision of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, the Governor hereby submits his report of each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon that he has granted since the adjournment of the 1999 First Special Session of the 56th Legislature, copy of which is attached.

Respectfully submitted.
FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF KARLO ALEXIS REYES

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, on November 20, 1994, Karlo Alexis Reyes, then age 18, was returning from a party in Bremerton, Washington to Seattle with a group of other youths. The group stopped at a convenience store in or near Bremerton. At the store, an alteration and shouting match broke out between the group with which Mr. Reyes was traveling and another group of youths. Mr. Reyes fired gunshots from the car he was riding in, injuring one young man. The car sped away, but was later apprehended. Mr. Reyes was arrested and charged with second degree assault with a deadly weapon. He accepted full responsibility for the crime, and in May of 1995 pled guilty to the charge and served time at the Washington State Reformatory in Monroe from June 1995 through July 1996. He was then transferred to immigration custody until he was bonded out on August 2, 1996. The remainder of his state sentence was served in community placement. Mr. Reyes had no prior offenses, and has remained law-abiding since his release from prison. This is the sole criminal offense in his life.

WHEREAS, the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service has issued an order to deport Mr. Reyes to the Philippines for having committed a crime of moral turpitude and having committed an aggravated felony. The order is effective at 9:30 a.m. on September 14, 1999. Categorizing Mr. Reyes as an "aggravated felon" was made possible only due to the passage on September 30, 1996, of the federal Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act in 1996. Under that act, the immigration laws were changed with retroactive effect to include Mr. Reyes' crime and sentence of more than one year. Under the laws in place at the time that Mr. Reyes entered his guilty plea, the definition of "aggravated felon" did not apply to him. Moreover, the new federal act precludes Mr. Reyes from filing any waivers for relief and eliminates appeal to the federal courts. Pursuant to 8 U.S.C. Section 1251 (a), a full and unconditional pardon is the only avenue of relief that will allow Mr. Reyes to continue his life in the United States.

WHEREAS, Mr. Reyes was a model prisoner while incarcerated and was commended by the prison counselor. At the request of the Assistant Superintendent, he spoke to young visitors to the prison. Mr. Reyes has accepted full responsibility for his actions. He has pre-paid all restitution and has had no prior or subsequent arrest or charges. He has severed all ties with acquaintances and friends prior to this offense. Convincing testimony that Mr. Reyes was never a gang member was presented to the Clemency and Pardons Board. Well-known Seattle School District youth counselor Mr. Tom Nakao spoke on Mr. Reyes' behalf at the Clemency and Pardons Board Hearing, and approximately two years later made a personal plea to the Governor to be merciful to Mr. Reyes, as one of his final acts before his death of cancer. Mr. Reyes is now beginning his senior year at the University of Washington, is working several part-time jobs and has maintained a respectable grade point average.

WHEREAS, Mr. Reyes moved to the United States from the Philippines with his family when he was approximately five years old, and became a permanent resident on February 6, 1993. Today his immediate and much of his extended family lives in Washington. Mr. Reyes does not speak any of the languages of the Philippines and has no allegiance to that country. The Clemency and Pardons Board was convinced that Mr. Reyes has fully paid for his actions, will be a worthy and productive member of society in the United States, and that deporting him to the Philippines would serve no purpose other than to destroy the hope and opportunity for this young man to complete his education and live a productive life in the United States with his family.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and the purpose for Mr. Reyes' request, and in light of the circumstances of the crime and all other factors, I have determined that the best interest of justice will be served by this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gary Locke, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of Washington, hereby grant to Karlo Alexis Reyes this Full and Unconditional Pardon for the express purpose of allowing him to obtain a deportation waiver and lawfully remain in the United States. This Full and Unconditional Pardon does not restore the right to receive, possess, own, ship or transport firearms and shall not under any circumstances be construed to remove any disability related to firearms under any state or federal law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 13th day of September, A.D., nineteen hundred ninety nine.

(SEAL)

GARY LOCKE
Governor of Washington

BY THE GOVERNOR
Donald F. Whiting
Assistant Secretary of State

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the fourth order of business.

If we vote on a bill, we can move for reconsideration and if we did confirm him the other day, what happens technically and legally and the records of the Senate--you know? It is a serious inquiry. I would like to know."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator McCaslin, it will take us a few minutes to confirm your inquiry to find out whether or not if we did confirm him and then reconfirm. MR. PRESIDENT:
Under suspension of the rules, SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6255 was returned to second reading and the House adopted the following amendment(s) and passed the bill as amended by the House:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) A person who, with intent to deprive the owner or owner’s agent, wrongfully obtains anhydrous ammonia, is guilty of theft of anhydrous ammonia.
(2) Theft of anhydrous ammonia is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A person is guilty of the crime of unlawful storage of anhydrous ammonia if the person possesses anhydrous ammonia in a container that (1) is not approved by the United States department of transportation to hold anhydrous ammonia, or (2) was not constructed to meet state and federal industrial health and safety standards for holding anhydrous ammonia. Violation of this section is a class C felony.

This section does not apply to public employees or private contractors authorized to clean up and dispose of hazardous waste or toxic substances under chapter 70.105 or 70.105D RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Any damages arising out of the unlawful possession of, storage of, or tampering with anhydrous ammonia or anhydrous ammonia equipment shall be the sole responsibility of the unlawful possessor, storer, or tamperer. In no case shall liability for damages arising out of the unlawful possession of, storage of, or tampering with anhydrous ammonia or anhydrous ammonia equipment extend to the lawful owner, installer, maintainer, designer, manufacturer, possessor, or seller of the anhydrous ammonia or anhydrous ammonia equipment, unless such damages arise out of the owner, installer, maintainer, designer, manufacturer, possessor, or seller’s acts or omissions that constitute negligent misconduct to abide by the laws regarding anhydrous ammonia possession and storage.

Sec. 4. RCW 69.50.440 and 1997 c 71 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to possess ephedrine ((α)), pseudoephedrine, or anhydrous ammonia with intent to manufacture methamphetamine. Any person who violates this section is guilty of a crime and may be imprisoned for not more

As collected, the first three thousand dollars of the fine must be deposited with the law enforcement agency having responsibility for cleanup of laboratories, sites, or substances used in the manufacture of the methamphetamine. The fine moneys deposited with that law enforcement agency must be used for such clean-up cost.

Sec. 5. RCW 9.94A.320 and 1999 c 352 s 3, 1999 c 322 s 5, and 1999 c 45 s 4 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The department may not use any funds under a cost-reimbursement agreement to replace or supplant existing funding. The restrictions of chapter 42.52 RCW apply to any cost-reimbursement agreement, and to any person hired as a result of a cost-reimbursement agreement.

(3) The department may not enter into any new cost-reimbursement agreements on or after July 1, 2005. The department may continue to administer any cost-reimbursement agreement which was entered into before July 1, 2005, until the project is completed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.70 RCW to read as follows:

COST-REIMBURSEMENT AGREEMENT BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH. (1) The department may enter into a written cost-reimbursement agreement with a permit applicant for a complex project to recover from the applicant the reasonable costs incurred by the department in carrying out the requirements of this chapter, as well as the requirements of other relevant laws, as they relate to permit coordination, environmental review, application review, technical studies, and permit processing. The cost-reimbursement agreement shall identify the specific tasks, costs, and schedule for work to be conducted under the agreement. For purposes of this section, a complex project is a project for which an environmental impact statement is required under chapter 43.21C RCW.

(2) The written cost-reimbursement agreement shall be negotiated with the permit applicant. Under the provisions of a cost-reimbursement agreement, funds from the applicant shall be used by the department to contract with an independent consultant to carry out the work covered by the cost-reimbursement agreement. The department shall, in developing the agreement, ensure that final decisions that involve policy matters are made by the agency and not by the consultant. The department shall make an estimate of the number of permanent staff hours to process the permits, and shall contract with consultants to replace the time and functions committed by these permanent staff to the project. The billing process shall provide for accurate time and cost accounting and may include a billing cycle that provides for progress payments. Use of cost-reimbursement agreements shall not reduce the current level of staff available to work on permits not covered by cost-reimbursement agreements. Under the provisions of a cost-reimbursement agreement, funds from the applicant shall be used by the air pollution control authority to contract with an independent consultant to carry out the work covered by the cost-reimbursement agreement. The air pollution control authority may also use funds provided under a cost-reimbursement agreement to assign current staff to review the work of the consultant, to provide necessary technical assistance when an independent consultant with comparable technical skills is unavailable, and to recover reasonable and necessary direct and indirect costs that arise from processing the permit. The air pollution control authority shall, in developing the agreement, ensure that final decisions that involve policy matters are made by the agency and not by the consultant. The air pollution control authority may not use any funds under a cost-reimbursement agreement to replace or supplant existing funding. The provisions of chapter 42.52 RCW apply to any cost-reimbursement agreement, and to any person hired as a result of a cost-reimbursement agreement. Members of the air pollution control authority's board of directors shall be considered as state officers, and employees of the air pollution control authority shall be considered as state employees, for the sole purpose of applying the restrictions of chapter 42.52 RCW to this section.

(3) An air pollution control authority may not enter into any new cost-reimbursement agreements on or after July 1, 2005. The department may continue to administer any cost-reimbursement agreement which was entered into before July 1, 2005, until the project is completed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 90.03 RCW to read as follows:

Any applicant for a new withdrawal or a change, transfer, or amendment of a water right pending before the department, may initiate a cost-reimbursement agreement with the department to provide expedited review of the application. A cost-reimbursement agreement may only be initiated under this section if the applicant agrees to pay for, or as part of a cooperative effort agrees to pay for, the cost of processing his or her application and all other applications from the same source of supply which must be acted upon before the applicant's request because they were filed prior to the date of when the applicant filed. The department shall use the process established under section 2 of this act for entering into cost-reimbursement agreements, except that it is not necessary for an environmental impact statement to be filed as a prerequisite for entering into a cost-reimbursement agreement under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Captions used in this act are not any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

MR. PRESIDENT:

Under suspension of the rules, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8425 was returned to second reading and the House adopted the following amendment(s) and passed the concurrent resolution as amended by the House:

Beginning on page 1, line 1, strike the remainder of the resolution and insert the following:

"WHEREAS, Chapter 370, Laws of 1985, created the Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board to plan, coordinate, and provide policy analysis for higher education and to represent the broad public interest above the interests of individual colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, Section 4, chapter 370, Laws of 1985, requires the board to prepare and update a master plan for higher education and requires the Legislature, by concurrent resolution, to "approve or recommend changes" to the master plan and its subsequent updates; and

WHEREAS, The provisions of the master plan that are approved by the Legislature become state higher education policy unless legislation is subsequently enacted to revise those policies; and
WHEREAS, The Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board submitted the initial master plan to the Legislature in December 1987, and submitted updates to the plan in December 1992, January 1996, and January 2000; and

WHEREAS, During the process used to develop the 2000 master plan, the board consulted with students and families, educators, business, labor, and civic organizations representing a cross-section of Washington citizens; and

WHEREAS, The board learned that the need and expectation for higher education among Washington citizens will continue to grow through the next decade, because of population increases as well as the demands of the state's increasingly technology-based economy; and

WHEREAS, The board identified the challenge of meeting future demand for college education should a greater proportion of Washington citizens seek upper division and graduate level study by the year 2010; and

WHEREAS, The board spelled out its commitment to continuing to expand enrollment opportunities for Washington students, to keep public higher education affordable for students and families, and to provide financial assistance to those who cannot otherwise afford to go to college; and

WHEREAS, The board identified five specific goals for the state to address higher education needs in the next ten years:

(1) Making student learning the yardstick by which institutional accountability, effectiveness, and efficiency is measured;
(2) Linking students' participation in higher education to their achievement in the K-12 grades;
(3) Providing the information citizens need to make the best use of the learning pathways available to them;
(4) Enhancing higher education opportunity through greater use of e-learning technologies and by increasingly efficient use of public facilities; and
(5) Helping colleges and universities meet student needs and compete in an increasingly competitive and complex education marketplace; and

WHEREAS, The board challenged itself, students, and families, the public and private institutions, the private sector, and the state to each accept its individual responsibilities and to collaborate in the development of solutions; and

WHEREAS, The board described an implementation plan to guide the state's response to the needs of higher education and to estimate the costs of the strategies, including the necessity to develop an enrollment accommodation plan that identifies where capacity exists and what the highest priorities should be;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, the House of Representatives concurring, That the Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board be commended for its dedication and commitment to the State of Washington in producing the 2000 update of the master plan for higher education titled "The 21st Century Learner"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature thank the board for describing many of the challenges facing the state in its attempts to provide the postsecondary education and training our citizens need to fulfill their personal goals and participate fully in the world of the twenty-first century; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature reaffirm its commitment to create postsecondary opportunities in response to documented demand from citizens for access to high-quality education and training programs; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board reexamine its assumptions with regard to projected upper division and graduate enrollments, and that the plan reexamine the role of the community and technical colleges in meeting the postsecondary needs of a significant portion of Washington's population; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board reexamine its assumptions with regard to the capital needs of the community and technical colleges and the four-year institutions of higher education, including their branch campuses; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board, in consultation with the office of financial management, work collaboratively with the public and independent two-year and four-year universities, private vocational schools, and appropriate legislative committees, to prepare an enrollment accommodation plan, contemplate various growth scenarios, identify related operational and capital needs, and examine alternatives to address the identified budget needs; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board communicate regularly with the appropriate legislative committees and the governor regarding the assigned tasks and report back with its results and findings before proceeding with the development of its biennial budget recommendations; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Legislature approve the following recommendations of the 2000 update of the master plan:

(1) The goal that, by the year 2010, Washington's system of postsecondary education needs to provide opportunities for additional students to enroll in high-quality education and training programs;
(2) That solutions to the challenge may be found in strategies that (a) make student learning the yardstick by which institutional accountability, effectiveness, and efficiency is measured; and (b) link students' participation in higher education to their achievement in the K-12 grades;
(3) Provide the information citizens need to make the best use of the learning pathways available to them, and support outreach efforts designed to ensure that the higher education system reflects the diversity of the state's population;
(4) Expand the use of e-learning technologies and use public facilities to the fullest extent possible; and
(5) Help colleges and universities meet student needs and compete in an increasingly competitive and complex education marketplace; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board proceed with implementation of the 2000 update of the master plan; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the board proceed with the implementation of the 2000 update of the master plan as described in "The 21st Century Learner" and modified by this resolution, and report to the 2001 Legislature on progress toward implementing its strategies.

MOTIONS
Senator Costa moved that the following striking amendment by Senators Costa and Swecker be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that fewer than five percent of all drivers use child booster seats for children over the age of four years. The legislature also recognizes that seventy-one percent of deaths resulting from car accidents could be eliminated if every child under the age of sixteen used an appropriate child safety seat, booster seat, or safety belt. The legislature further recognizes the National Transportation Safety Board's recommendations that promote the use of booster seats to increase the safety of children under eight years of age. Therefore, it is the legislature's intent to decrease deaths and injuries to children by promoting safety education and injury prevention measures, as well as increasing public awareness on ways to maximize the protection of children in vehicles.

Sec. 2. RCW 46.61.687 and 1994 c 100 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a child who is less than ((sixteen)) sixteen years of age is being transported in a motor vehicle that is in operation and that is required by RCW 46.37.510 to be equipped with a safety belt system in a passenger seating position, the driver of the vehicle shall keep the child properly restrained as follows:

(a) If the child is less than six years old and/or sixty pounds and the passenger seating position equipped with a safety belt system allows sufficient space for installation, then the child shall be restrained in a child restraint system that complies with standards of the United States department of transportation and that is secured in the vehicle in accordance with instructions of the manufacturer of the child restraint system;

(b) If the child is less than one year of age or weighs less than twenty pounds, the child shall be properly restrained in a rear-facing infant seat;

(c) If the child is more than one but less than ((four)) four years of age or weighs less than forty pounds but at least twenty pounds, the child shall be properly restrained in a forward facing child safety seat restraint system ((that complies with standards of the United States department of transportation and that is secured in the vehicle in accordance with instructions of the manufacturer of the child restraint system));

(1y5) (d) If the child is less than ((ten)) six but at least ((three)) four years of age or weighs less than sixty pounds but at least forty pounds, the child shall be properly restrained ((either as specified in (a) of this subsection or with a safety belt properly adjusted and fastened around the child's body.)) in a child booster seat;

(e) If the child is six years of age or older or weighs more than sixty pounds, the child shall be properly restrained with the motor vehicle's safety belt properly adjusted and fastened around the child's body or an appropriately fitting booster seat; and

(f) Enforcement of (a) through (e) of this subsection is subject to a visual inspection by law enforcement to determine if the child restraint system in use is appropriate for the child's individual height, weight, and age. The visual inspection for usage of a forward facing child safety seat must ensure that the seat in use is equipped with a four-point shoulder harness system. The visual inspection for usage of a booster seat must ensure that the seat belt properly fits across the child's lap and the shoulder strap crosses the center of the child's chest. The visual inspection for usage of a seat belt by a child must ensure that the lap belt properly fits across the child's lap and the shoulder strap crosses the center of the child's chest. In determining violations, consideration to the above criteria must be given in conjunction with the provisions of (a) through (e) of this subsection. The driver of a vehicle transporting a child who is under the age of six years old or weighs less than sixty pounds, when the vehicle is equipped with a passenger side air bag supplemental restraint system, and the air bag system is activated, shall transport the child in the back seat positions in the vehicle where it is practical to do so.

(2) A person violating subsection (1)(a) through (e) of this section may be issued a notice of traffic infraction under chapter 46.63 RCW. If the person to whom the notice was issued presents proof of acquisition of an approved child passenger restraint system or a child booster seat, as appropriate, within seven days to the jurisdiction issuing the notice and the person has not previously had a violation of this section dismissed, the jurisdiction shall dismiss the notice of traffic infraction. (3) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not constitute negligence by a parent or legal guardian; nor shall failure to use a child restraint system be admissible as evidence of negligence in any civil action.
(4) This section does not apply to: (a) For hire vehicles, (b) vehicles designed to transport sixteen or less passengers, including the driver, operated by auto transportation companies, as defined in RCW 81.68.010, and (c) vehicles providing customer shuttle service between parking, convention, and hotel facilities, and airport terminals, and (d) school buses.

(5) As used in this section "child booster seat" means a child passenger restraint system that meets the Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standards set forth in 49 C.F.R. 571.213 that is designed to elevate a child to properly sit in a federally approved lap/shoulder belt system.

(6) The requirements of subsection (1)(a) through (e) of this section do not apply in any seating position where there is only a lap belt available and the child weighs more than forty pounds.

Sec. 3. RCW 46.61.688 and 1990 c 250 s 58 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, the term "motor vehicle" includes:

(a) "Buses," meaning motor vehicles with motive power, except trailers, designed to carry more than ten passengers;

(b) "Multipurpose passenger vehicles," meaning motor vehicles with motive power, except trailers, designed to carry ten persons or less that are constructed either on a truck chassis or with special features for occasional off-road operation;

(c) "Passenger cars," meaning motor vehicles with motive power, except multipurpose passenger vehicles, motorcycles, or trailers, designed for carrying ten passengers or less; and

(d) "Trucks," meaning motor vehicles with motive power, except trailers, designed primarily for the transportation of property.

(2) This section only applies to motor vehicles that meet the manual seat belt safety standards as set forth in federal motor vehicle safety standard 208. This section does not apply to a vehicle occupant for whom no safety belt is available when all designated seating positions as required by federal motor vehicle safety standard 208 are occupied.

(3) Every person sixteen years of age or older operating or riding in a motor vehicle shall wear the safety belt assembly in a properly adjusted and securely fastened manner.

(4) No person may operate a motor vehicle unless all child passengers under the age of sixteen years are either: (a) Wearing a safety belt assembly or (b) are securely fastened into an approved child restraint device.

(5) A person violating this section shall be issued a notice of traffic infraction under chapter 46.63 RCW. A finding that a person has committed a traffic infraction under this section shall be contained in the driver's abstract but shall not be available to insurance companies or employers.

(6) Failure to comply with the requirements of this section does not constitute negligence, nor may failure to wear a safety belt assembly be admissible as evidence of negligence in any civil action.

(7) Except for subsection (4)(b) of this section, which must be enforced as a primary action, enforcement of this section by law enforcement officers may be accomplished only as a secondary action when a driver of a motor vehicle has been detained for a suspected violation of Title 46 RCW or an equivalent local ordinance or some other offense.

(8) This section does not apply to an operator or passenger who possesses written verification from a licensed physician that the operator or passenger is unable to wear a safety belt for physical or medical reasons.

(9) The state patrol may adopt rules exempting operators or occupants of farm vehicles, construction equipment, and vehicles that are required to make frequent stops from the requirement of wearing safety belts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.61 RCW to read as follows:

The traffic safety commission shall conduct an educational campaign using all available methods to raise public awareness of the importance of properly restraining child passengers and the value of seatbelts to adult motorists. The traffic safety commission shall report to the transportation committees of the legislature on the campaign and results observed on the highways. The first report is due December 1, 2000, and annually thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act may be known and cited as the Anton Skeen Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act takes effect July 1, 2002.

Debate ensued.
poundage of the infant, less than twenty pounds and another category of between, I think it is between forty and eighty. Will it be necessary to have scales in the vehicle to accommodate the enforcement of this? Thank you."

Senator Costa: "Actually, there was a suggestion that you could pull into a Truck Weight Station to determine the weight. Seriously, again to address the first question regarding allowing sufficient space for installation. That was to address the concern of whether or not there is enough room in a vehicle. We have been able to take a look at determining whether or not they can fit three seats. If they can’t, the child could be in the middle in a lap belt and a shoulder safety belt, as well. They will not be as safe, but they will be within the law. It will be subject to a visual inspection by a law enforcement officer—underneath this bill on page two—which means whether or not the child would be safe based on training that they received from the Traffic Safety Commission and others. That would determine the height, the weight and the birth date. Nobody needs to carry a birth certificate or poundage certificate.

"Again, I want to remind the members, in terms of enforcement, it does not become effective until July 1, 2002."

Further debate ensued..

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Costa and Swecker to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2675, under suspension of the rules.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Patterson: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I am missing Senator Sellar today and I understand that George is not doing well. I wondered if it would be all right if the Senate had a prayer this morning kind of an expert in this area, might help us with that."

Senator Morton offered a prayer for Senator George Sellar.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Long: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I see that we have on our desks a new packet on the transportation budget that we passed a few days ago. The day after we passed it, as some of you know, there was another death on Highway 522. 522 starts in the First Legislative District and goes all the way across my district and ends in the Thirty-ninth District. It is known as the death highway. After this latest death, it was referred to as the dead man's highway. If you don't remember, in 1995, the Reader's Digest did an article on the ten worst highways in America.

"Mr. President, with your permission, I would like to briefly read that. It isn't very long. It says, 'About 7:40 a.m., January 18, 1994, Nancy and Arnold Ligtenberg left for work with their nine year old son, Lance, whom they planned to drop off at school. As Nancy swung left onto Route 522, she turned the radio to the news--Highway 522 has been closed at 164th Street and traffic is being detoured--'

'There must have been a fatality Nancy observed, looking uneasily at Arnold. The couple's other two sons, Tyler, 16, and Andrew, 14, had just left for school in Tyler's Volkswagen Beetle. Their usual route was Highway 522, an overcrowded, two-lane road in the rapidly growing area northeast of Seattle. The worried parents went home to call the school. Andrew had not arrived. Nancy drove to a road adjacent to 522, only to witness what was left of the Beetle being loaded onto a flatbed. She raced home and found a policeman and minister talking with her husband. It was every parent's nightmare--doubled.

'Tyler and Andrew had died in a head-on crash with a Chevy Blazer--the 20th and 21st persons to die on a 10.6 mile section of 522 between Monroe and Woodinville over a five year period. Most of the fatalities involved head-on collisions. Why? Northbound motorists coming off Interstate 405 suddenly find themselves on a two lane road that can look like four. The illusion is understandable. Highway 522 was designed as a four laner. Part of its four lanes, graded roadbed has been in place for more than twenty years. To save money, however, only two lanes were finished, with no median barriers.

'The Washington State Department of Transportation has fixed Highway 522 on paper. A five stage $180 million project would widen the highway to four lanes and build two new interchanges, but funding in 1993 was diverted in a budget balancing act. The deaths of the Ligtenberg boys were especially troubling to Bob Green, an engineer with the DOT. His two sons, Danny, 18, and Brian, 16, were classmates of Tyler's and Andrew's and drive the same road to school. Researching accident records, Green pinpointed every fatal accident along the highway from 1977. They hammered one into the roadside at the site of each fatality. Each cross seemed to say 'Someone died here.' Local residents noticed immediately that motorists seemed to drive more slowly.

'Meanwhile, two mothers of school age children, Judy Flanagan and Nancy Enselman, founded a group called CRASH (Citizens Rallying for a Safer Highway) and secured 12,000 signatures on petitions to fix the road. They called a meeting at Monroe High School, inviting highway officials to hear their plea. Ron Anderson, DOT regional administrator, told five hundred citizens who turned out--and I was there--that without a major tax increase, Highway 522 couldn't be widened until after the Year 2000. He could promise only minor improvements and stricter enforcement of speed limits. He also said, 'Those crosses have to be taken down. They are a distraction to motorists and a violation of state law.'

'Standing in the back of the room thinking about his two sons, Arnold Ligtenberg was first stunned and then angry. What's the real reason they don't like the crosses, he asked himself. Is it because there are so many of them? Almost three weeks after Anderson's announcement, DOT maintenance workers carted the crosses away. The following day, Jim Malvern, a forty year old father of three who had signed the CRASH petition, was involved in a head on collision on Highway 522. He died hours later.'

'Now, after we passed the budget and because I have read and heard varying numbers about how many people have died on that 10.6 piece of road--miles--I had my staff research it. I knew there were a lot, but I was not
When I was given the answer, I said, ‘That can’t be right, please double check.’ This is a printout of all the people that have died on that highway. Since 1970, a hundred and twenty-seven people—that’s more than eight people per mile that have died on that road.

"Now, I have spoke with Senator Haugen, who has assured me she will fight for this in the budget. I also had a memo on my desk as I came back from lunch, that you probably all have, reminding us that there are several proposals and that our budget is one of three. I hope we have the collective will to see that this highway is repaired before more people die on it. Thank you all very much for giving me this time."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 6, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment(s) to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2939 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Eide, the Senate receded from its amendment(s) to Substitute House Bill No. 2939. On motion of Senator Costa, the rules were suspended and Substitute House Bill No. 2939 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Eide, the following striking amendment by Senators Eide, Swecker, Fraser and Morton was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The department of general administration shall work with commercial and industrial construction industry organizations to develop guidelines for implementing on-site construction waste management planning. The topics addressed in the guidelines shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(a) Standards for identifying the type of wastes generated during construction;
Methods for analyzing the availability and cost-effectiveness of recycling services for each type of waste;

Methods for evaluating construction waste management alternatives given limited recycling services in rural areas of the state;

Strategies to maximize reuse and recycling of wastes and minimize landfill disposal;

Standardized formats for on-site construction waste management planning and reporting documents; and

A training and technical assistance plan for public and private building owners and construction industry members, in order to facilitate incorporation of waste management planning and recycling into standard construction industry practice.

By December 15, 2000, the department of general administration shall provide a report to the legislature on the development of the guidelines required by subsection (1) of this section. The report shall include recommendations for incorporating job-site waste management planning and recycling into standard construction industry practice.

Sec. 2. RCW 43.19A.020 and 1996 c 198 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The USEPA federal product standards, as now or hereafter amended, adopted under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 6962(e) as it exists on the effective date of this act, are adopted as the minimum standards for the state of Washington. These standards shall be implemented for at least the products listed in (a) and (b) of this subsection (by the dates indicated), unless the director finds that a different standard would significantly increase recycled product availability or competition.

(a) By July 1, 1997:

(i) Paper and paper products;

(ii) Organic recovered materials;

(iii) Latex paint products;

(b) By July 1, 1997:

(i) Retread and remanufactured tires;

(ii) Lubricating oils;

(iii) Automotive batteries;

(iv) Building (insulation) products and materials;

(v) Panelboard; and

(vi) Compost products.

By July 1, 2001, the director shall adopt product standards for strawboard manufactured using as an ingredient straw that is produced as a by-product in the production of cereal grain or turf or grass seed.

The standards required by this section shall be applied to recycled product purchasing by the department and other state agencies. The standards may be adopted or applied by any other local government in product procurement. The standards shall provide for exceptions under appropriate circumstances to allow purchases of recycled products that do not meet the minimum content requirements of the standards.

Sec. 3. RCW 39.04.133 and 1996 c 198 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The state's preferences for the purchase and use of recycled content products shall be included as a factor in the design and development of state capital improvement projects.

Specifications for materials in state construction projects shall include the use of recycled content products and recyclable products whenever practicable. If a construction project receives state public funding, the product standards, as provided in RCW 43.19A.020, shall apply to the materials used in the project, whenever the administering agency and project owner determine that such products would be cost-effective and are readily available.

Sec. 4. RCW 70.95.010 and 1989 c 431 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds:

Continuing technological changes in methods of manufacture, packaging, and marketing of consumer products, together with the economic and population growth of this state, the rising affluence of its citizens, and its expanding industrial activity have created new and ever-mounting problems involving disposal of garbage, refuse, and solid waste materials resulting from domestic, agricultural, and industrial activities.

Improper methods and practices of handling and disposal of solid wastes pollute our land, air and water resources, blight our countryside, adversely affect land values, and damage the overall quality of our environment.

Considerations of natural resource limitations, energy shortages, economics and the environment make necessary the development and implementation of solid waste recovery and/or recycling plans and programs.
(4) Waste reduction must become a fundamental strategy of solid waste management. It is therefore necessary to change manufacturing and purchasing practices and waste generation behaviors to reduce the amount of waste that becomes a governmental responsibility.

(5) Source separation of waste must become a fundamental strategy of solid waste management. Collection and handling strategies should have, as an ultimate goal, the source separation of all materials with resource value or environmental hazard.

(6)(a) It (is the responsibility) should be the goal of every person to minimize his or her production of wastes and to separate recyclable or hazardous materials from mixed waste.

(b) It is the responsibility of state, county, and city governments to provide for a waste management infrastructure to fully implement waste reduction and source separation strategies and to process and dispose of remaining wastes in a manner that is environmentally safe and economically sound. It is further the responsibility of state, county, and city governments to monitor the cost-effectiveness and environmental safety of combusting separated waste, processing mixed waste, and recycling programs.

(c) It is the responsibility of county and city governments to assume primary responsibility for solid waste management and to develop and implement aggressive and effective waste reduction and source separation strategies.

(d) It is the responsibility of state government to ensure that local governments are providing adequate source reduction and separation opportunities and incentives to all, including persons in both rural and urban areas, and nonresidential waste generators such as commercial, industrial, and institutional entities, recognizing the need to provide flexibility to accommodate differing population densities, distances to and availability of recycling markets, and collection and disposal costs in each community; and to provide county and city governments with adequate technical resources to accomplish this responsibility.

(7) Environmental and economic considerations in solving the state's solid waste management problems requires strong consideration by local governments of regional solutions and intergovernmental cooperation.

(8) The following priorities for the collection, handling, and management of solid waste are necessary and should be followed in descending order as applicable:

(a) Waste reduction;

(b) Recycling, with source separation of recyclable materials as the preferred method;

(c) Energy recovery, incineration, or landfill of separated waste;

(d) Energy recovery, incineration, or landfilling of mixed wastes.

(9) It is the state's goal to achieve a fifty percent recycling rate by (1995) 2005.

(10) It is the state's goal that programs be established to eliminate residential or commercial yard debris in landfills by 2010.

(11) Steps should be taken to make recycling at least as affordable and convenient to the ratepayer as mixed waste disposal.

(12) It is necessary to compile and maintain adequate data on the types and quantities of solid waste that are being generated and to monitor how the various types of solid waste are being managed.

(13) Vehicle batteries should be recycled and the disposal of vehicle batteries into landfills or incinerators should be discontinued.

(14) Excessive and nonrecyclable packaging of products should be avoided.

(15) Comprehensive education should be conducted throughout the state so that people are informed of the need to reduce, source separate, and recycle solid waste.

(16) All governmental entities in the state should set an example by implementing aggressive waste reduction and recycling programs at their workplaces and by purchasing products that are made from recycled materials and are recyclable.

(17) To ensure the safe and efficient operations of solid waste disposal facilities, it is necessary for operators and regulators of landfills and incinerators to receive training and certification.

(18) It is necessary to provide adequate funding to all levels of government so that successful waste reduction and recycling programs can be implemented.

(19) The development of stable and expanding markets for recyclable materials is critical to the long-term success of the state's recycling goals. Market development must be encouraged on a state, regional, and national basis to maximize its effectiveness. The state shall assume primary responsibility for the development of a multifaceted market development program to carry out the purposes of this act.

(20) There is an imperative need to anticipate, plan for, and accomplish effective storage, control, recovery, and recycling of discarded tires and other problem wastes with the subsequent conservation of resources and energy.

Each county and city comprehensive solid waste management plan shall include the following:

1. A detailed inventory and description of all existing solid waste handling facilities including an inventory of any deficiencies in meeting current solid waste handling needs.

2. The estimated long-range needs for solid waste handling facilities projected twenty years into the future.

3. A program for the orderly development of solid waste handling facilities in a manner consistent with the plans for the entire county which shall:
   a. Meet the minimum functional standards for solid waste handling adopted by the department and all laws and regulations relating to air and water pollution, fire prevention, flood control, and protection of public health;
   b. Take into account the comprehensive land use plan of each jurisdiction;

   d. Contain a plan for financing both capital costs and operational expenditures of the proposed solid waste management system.

4. A program for surveillance and control.

5. A current inventory and description of solid waste collection needs and operations within each respective jurisdiction which shall include:
   a. Any franchise for solid waste collection granted by the utilities and transportation commission in the respective jurisdictions including the name of the holder of the franchise and the address of his or her place of business and the area covered by the franchise;
   b. Any city solid waste operation within the county and the boundaries of such operation;

   b. Source separation strategies, including:
      i. Programs for the collection of source separated materials from residences in urban and rural areas. In urban areas, these programs shall include collection of source separated recyclable materials from single and multiple family residences, unless the department approves an alternative program, according to the criteria in the planning guidelines. Such criteria shall include: Anticipated recovery rates and levels of public participation, availability of environmentally sound disposal capacity, access to markets for recyclable materials, unreasonable cost impacts on the ratepayer over the six-year planning period, utilization of environmentally sound waste reduction and recycling technologies, and other factors as appropriate. In rural areas, these programs shall include but not be limited to drop-off boxes, buy-back centers, or a combination of both, at each solid waste transfer, processing, or disposal site, or at locations convenient to the residents of the county. The drop-off boxes and buy-back centers may be owned or operated by public, nonprofit, or private persons;
      ii. Programs to monitor the collection of source separated waste at nonresidential sites where there is sufficient density to sustain a program;
      iii. Programs to collect yard waste, if the county or city submitting the plan finds that there are adequate markets or capacity for composted yard waste within or near the service area to consume the majority of the material collected; and
      iv. Programs to educate and promote the concepts of waste reduction and recycling;
      c. Recycling strategies, including a description of markets for recyclables, a review of waste generation trends, a description of waste composition, a discussion and description of existing programs and any additional programs needed to assist public and private sector recycling, and an implementation schedule for the designation of specific materials to be collected for recycling, and for the provision of recycling collection services;

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 6534 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 28A.400.210 and 1997 c 13 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:
Every school district board of directors may, in accordance with chapters 41.56 and 41.59 RCW, establish an attendance incentive program for all certificated and classified employees in the following manner, including covering persons who were employed during the 1982-'83 school year:
(1) In January of the year following any year in which a minimum of sixty days of leave for illness or injury is accrued, and each January thereafter, any eligible employee may exercise an option to receive remuneration for unused leave for illness or injury accumulated in the previous year at a rate equal to one day's monetary compensation of the employee for each four full days of accrued leave for illness or injury in excess of sixty days. Leave for illness or injury for which compensation has been received shall be deducted from accrued leave for illness or injury at the rate of four days for every one day's monetary compensation. No employee may receive compensation under this section for any portion of leave for illness or injury accumulated at a rate in excess of one day per month.

(2) Except as provided in RCW 28A.400.212, at the time of separation from school district employment (due to retirement or death) an eligible employee or the employee's estate shall receive remuneration at a rate equal to one day's current monetary compensation of the employee for each four full days of accrued leave for illness or injury in excess of sixty days. Leave for illness or injury for which compensation has been received shall be deducted from accrued leave for illness or injury at the rate of four days for every one day's monetary compensation. No employee may receive compensation under this section for any portion of leave for illness or injury accumulated at a rate in excess of one day per month.

For purposes of this subsection, "eligible employee" means (a) employees who separate from employment due to retirement or death; (b) employees who separate from employment and who are at least age fifty-five and have at least ten years of service under the teachers' retirement system plan 3 as defined in RCW 41.32.010(40), or under the Washington school employees' retirement system plan 3 as defined in RCW 41.35.010(31); or (c) employees who separate from employment and who are at least age fifty-five and have at least fifteen years of service under the teachers' retirement system plan 2 as defined in RCW 41.32.010(39), under the Washington school employees' retirement system plan 2 as defined in RCW 41.35.010(30), or under the public employees' retirement system plan 2 as defined in RCW 41.40.010(34).

Any benefit plan adopted after July 28, 1991, shall require, as a condition of participation under the plan, that the employee sign an agreement with the district to hold the district harmless should the United States government find that the district or the employee is in debt to the United States as a result of the employee not paying income taxes due on the equivalent funds placed into the plan, or as a result of the district not withholding or deducting any tax, assessment, or other payment on such funds as required under federal law.

Moneys or benefits received under this section shall not be included for the purposes of computing a retirement allowance under any public retirement system in this state.

The superintendent of public instruction in its administration hereof, shall promulgate uniform rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this section.

Should the legislature revoke any benefits granted under this section, no affected employee shall be entitled thereafter to receive such benefits as a matter of contractual right."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Brown, the Senate receded from its amendment(s) to Substitute House Bill No. 2460.

On motion of Senator Brown, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 2460 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION
On motion of Senator Brown, the following striking amendment by Senators Brown and Loveland was adopted:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) There are geographic areas within communities that are characterized by a lack of employment opportunities, an average income level that is below the median income level for the surrounding community, a lack of affordable housing, deteriorating infrastructure, and a lack of facilities for community services, job training, and education;

(b) Strategies to encourage reinvestment in these areas by assisting local businesses to become stronger and area residents to gain economic power involve a variety of activities and partnerships;

(c) Reinvestment in these areas cannot be accomplished with only governmental resources and require a comprehensive approach that integrates various incentives, programs, and initiatives to meet the economic, physical, and social needs of the area;

(d) Successful reinvestment depends on a local government's ability to coordinate public resources in a cohesive, comprehensive strategy that is designed to leverage long-term private investment in an area;

(e) Reinvestment can strengthen the overall tax base through increased tax revenue from expanded and new business activities and physical property improvement;

(f) Local governments, in cooperation with area residents, can provide leadership as well as planning and coordination of resources and necessary supportive services to address reinvestment in the area; and

(g) It is in the public interest to adopt a targeted approach to revitalization and enlist the resources of all levels of government, the private sector, community-based organizations, and community residents to revitalize an area.

(2) The legislature declares that the purposes of the community empowerment zone act are to:

(a) Encourage reinvestment through strong partnerships and cooperation between all levels of government, community-based organizations, area residents, and the private sector;

(b) Involve the private sector and stimulate private reinvestment through the judicious use of public resources;

    (c) The average unemployment rate for the area, for the most recent twelve-month period for which data is available must be at least one hundred twenty percent of the average unemployment rate of the county; and
    (d) A five-year community empowerment plan for the area that meets the requirements of (RCW 43.63A.700(1)(c) and as further defined by the director) section 5 of this act must be adopted.

(2) The director may establish, by rule, such other requirements as the director may reasonably determine necessary and appropriate to assure that the purposes of this (section) chapter are satisfied.

(3) In determining if an area meets the requirements of this section, the director may consider data provided by the United States bureau of the census from the most recent census or any other reliable data that the director determines to be acceptable for the purposes for which the data is used.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The five-year community empowerment plan required under RCW 43.63A.700 (as recodified by this act) shall contain information that describes the community development needs of the proposed community empowerment zone and present a strategy for meeting those needs.     (e) Social service needs of residents in the proposed community empowerment zone.

(2) The local government must provide a description of its strategy for meeting the needs identified in subsection (1) of this section. As part of the community empowerment zone strategy, the local government must identify the needs for which

For the balance of the area's needs, the local government must identify the source of funds expected to become available during the next two-year period and actions the local government will take to acquire those funds.

(3) The local government must submit an annual progress report to the department that details the extent to which the local government is working to meet the needs identified in the five-year community empowerment plan. If applicable, the progress report must also contain a discussion on the impediments to meeting the needs outlined in the five-year community empowerment plan. The department must determine the date the annual progress reports are due from each local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The terms or conditions of a community empowerment zone approved under this chapter may be amended to:
   (a) Alter the boundaries of the community empowerment zone; or
   (b) Terminate the designation of a community empowerment zone.

(2)(a) A request for an amendment under subsection (1)(a) of this section may not be in effect until the department issues an amended designation for the community empowerment zone that approves the requested amendment. The local government must promptly file with the department a request for approval that contains information the department deems necessary to evaluate the proposed changes and its impact on the area's designation as a community empowerment zone under RCW 43.63A.710 (as recodified by this act). The local government must hold at least two public hearings on the proposed changes and include the information in its request for an amendment to its community empowerment zone.
   (b) The department shall approve or disapprove a proposed amendment to a community empowerment zone within sixty days of its receipt of a request under subsection (1)(a) of this section. The department may not approve changes to a community empowerment zone that are not in conformity with this chapter.

(3)(a) The termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone under subsection (1)(b) of this section is not effective until the department issues a finding stating the reasons for the termination, which may include lack of commitment of resources to activities in the community empowerment zone by the public, private, and community-based sectors. The local government may file an appeal to the department's findings within sixty days of the notice to terminate the area's designation. The department must notify the local government of the results within thirty days of the filing of the appeal.
   (b) A termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone has no effect on benefits previously extended to individual businesses. The local government may not commit benefits to a business after the effective date of the termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone.

(4) The department may request applications from local governments for designation as community empowerment zones under this chapter as a result of a termination of an area's designation as a community empowerment zone under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department must administer this chapter and has the following powers and duties:
   (1) To monitor the implementation of chapter . . ., Laws of 2000 (this act) and submit reports evaluating the effectiveness of the program and any suggestions for legislative changes to the governor and legislature by December 1, 2000;

   (3) To provide information and appropriate assistance to persons desiring to locate and operate a business in a community empowerment zone;
   (4) To work with appropriate state agencies to coordinate the delivery of programs, including but not limited to housing, community and economic development, small business assistance, social service, and employment and training programs which are carried on in a community empowerment zone; and
   (5) To develop rules necessary for the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The administration of a community empowerment zone is under the jurisdiction of the local government. Each local government must, by ordinance, designate a community empowerment zone administrator for the area designated as a community empowerment zone that is within its jurisdiction. A community empowerment zone administrator must be an officer or employee of the local government. The community empowerment zone administrator is the liaison between the local government, the department, the business community, and labor and community-based organizations within the community empowerment zone.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington community empowerment zone act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1, 2, and 5 through 9 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. RCW 43.63A.700 and 43.63A.710, as amended by this act, are each recodified as sections in chapter 43.-- RCW (sections 1, 2, and 5 through 9 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any part of this act is found to be in conflict with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this act is inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with respect to the agencies directly affected, and this finding does not affect the operation of the remainder of this act in its application to the agencies concerned. Rules adopted under this act must meet federal requirements that are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

Sec. 13. RCW 82.60.049 and 1999 c 164 s 304 are each amended to read as follows:

   (b) "Eligible investment project" also means an investment project in an eligible area as defined in this section.

2. In addition to the provisions of RCW 82.60.040, the department shall issue a sales and use tax deferral certificate for state and local sales and use taxes due under chapters 82.08, 82.12, and 82.14 RCW, on each eligible investment project that is located in an eligible area, if the applicant establishes that at the time the project is operationally complete:
   (a) The applicant will hire at least one qualified employment position for each seven hundred fifty thousand dollars of investment on which a deferral is requested; and
   (b) The positions will be filled by persons who at the time of hire are residents of the community empowerment zone in which the project is located. A mailing address alone is insufficient to establish that a person is a resident for the purposes of this section. The persons must be hired after the date the application is filed with the department.

3. All other provisions and eligibility requirements of this chapter apply to applicants eligible under this section.

4. If a person does not meet the requirements of this section by the end of the calendar year following the year in which the project is certified as operationally complete, all deferred taxes are immediately due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Any member who receives an allowance under the provisions of this section shall be subject to comprehensive medical examinations as required by the department. If these medical examinations reveal that a member has recovered from the incapacitating disability and the member is offered reemployment by an employer at a comparable compensation, the member shall cease to be eligible for the allowance.

(2) If the recipient of a monthly retirement allowance under this section dies, any further benefit payments shall be conditioned by the payment option selected by the retiree as provided in section 314 of this act.

If there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive an allowance at the time of the member's death, such member's child or children under the age of majority shall receive an allowance, share and share alike. If the department determines that the member is able to return to service, the member is entitled to notice and a hearing. Both the notice and the hearing shall comply with the requirements of chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act.

(3) Those members subject to this chapter who became disabled in the line of duty on or after July 23, 1989, and who receive benefits under RCW 41.04.500 through 41.04.530 or similar benefits under RCW 41.04.535 shall receive or continue to receive service credit subject to the following:
   (a) No member may receive more than one month's service credit in a calendar month.
   (b) No service credit under this section may be allowed after a member separates or is separated without leave of absence.
   (c) Employer contributions shall be paid by the employer at the rate in effect for the period of the service credited.
   (d) Employee contributions shall be collected by the employer and paid to the department at the rate in effect for the period of service credited.
   (e) State contributions shall be as provided in RCW (41.26.450) 41.45.060 and section 507 of this act.
   (f) Contributions shall be based on the regular compensation which the member would have received had the disability not occurred.
   (g) The service and compensation credit under this section shall be granted for a period not to exceed six consecutive months.
(h) Should the legislature revoke the service credit authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled to receive the credit as a matter of contractual right.

(4)(a) If the recipient of a monthly retirement allowance under this section dies before the total of the retirement allowance paid to the recipient equals the amount of the accumulated contributions at the date of retirement, then the balance shall be paid to the member's estate, or such person or persons, trust, or organization as the recipient has nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the director, or, if there is no such designated person or persons still living at the time of the recipient's death, then to the surviving spouse, or, if there is neither such designated person or persons still living at the time of his or her death nor a surviving spouse, then to his or her legal representative.

(b) If a recipient of a monthly retirement allowance under this section died before April 27, 1989, and before the total of the retirement allowance paid to the recipient equalled the amount of his or her accumulated contributions at the date of retirement, then the department shall pay the balance of the accumulated contributions to the member's surviving spouse or, if there is no surviving spouse, then in equal shares to the member's children. If there is no surviving spouse or children, the department shall retain the contributions.

(5) Should the disability retirement allowance of any disability beneficiary be canceled for any cause other than reentrance into service or retirement for service, he or she shall be paid the excess, if any, of the accumulated contributions at the time of retirement over all payments made on his or her behalf under this chapter.

Sec. 1105. RCW 41.26.520 and 1996 c 61 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A member who is on a paid leave of absence authorized by a member's employer shall continue to receive service credit as provided for under the provisions of RCW 41.26.410 through 41.26.550.

(2) A member who receives compensation from an employer while on an authorized leave of absence to serve as an elected official of a labor organization, and whose employer is reimbursed by the labor organization for the compensation paid to the member during the period of absence, may also be considered to be on a paid leave of absence. This subsection shall only apply if the member's leave of absence is authorized by a collective bargaining agreement that provides that the member retains seniority rights with the employer during the period of leave. The basic salary reported for a member who establishes service credit under this subsection may not be greater than the salary paid to the highest paid job class covered by the collective bargaining agreement.

(3) Except as specified in subsection (6) of this section, a member shall be eligible to receive a maximum of two years service credit during a member's entire working career for those periods when a member is on an unpaid leave of absence authorized by an employer. Such credit may be obtained only if the member makes the employer, member, and state contributions plus interest as determined by the department for the period of the authorized leave of absence within five years of resumption of service or prior to retirement whichever comes sooner.

(4) If a member fails to meet the time limitations of subsection (3) of this section, the member may receive a maximum of two years of service credit during a member's working career for those periods when a member is on an unpaid leave of absence authorized by an employer. This may be done by paying the amount required under RCW 41.50.165(2) prior to retirement.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (3) of this section the contribution shall not include the contribution for the unfunded supplemental present value as required by RCW (41.26.450) 41.45.060, 41.45.061, and section 507 of this act. The contributions required shall be based on the average of the member's basic salary at both the time the authorized leave of absence was granted and the time the member resumed employment.

(6) A member who leaves the employ of an employer to enter the armed forces of the United States shall be entitled to retirement system service credit for up to five years of military service. This subsection shall be administered in a manner consistent with the requirements of the federal uniformed services employment and reemployment rights act.

(a) The member qualifies for service credit under this subsection if:

(i) Within ninety days of the member's honorable discharge from the United States armed forces, the member applies for reemployment with the employer who employed the member immediately prior to the member entering the United States armed forces; and

(ii) The member makes the employee contributions required under RCW ((41.26.450)) 41.45.060, 41.45.061, and section 507 of this act within five years of resumption of service or prior to retirement, whichever comes sooner; or

(iii) Prior to retirement and not within ninety days of the member's honorable discharge or five years of resumption of service the member pays the amount required under RCW 41.50.165(2).

(b) Upon receipt of member contributions under (a)(ii) of this subsection, the department shall establish the member's service credit and shall bill the employer and the state for their respective contributions required under RCW 41.26.450 for the period of military service, plus interest as determined by the department.
(c) The contributions required under (a)(ii) of this subsection shall be based on the compensation the member would have earned if not on leave, or if that cannot be estimated with reasonable certainty, the compensation reported for the member in the year prior to when the member went on military leave.

(7) A member receiving benefits under Title 51 RCW who is not receiving benefits under this chapter shall be deemed to be on unpaid, authorized leave of absence.

Sec. 1106. RCW 41.40.710 and 1996 c 61 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A member who is on a paid leave of absence authorized by a member's employer shall continue to receive service credit as provided for under the provisions of RCW 41.40.610 through 41.40.740.

(2) A member who receives compensation from an employer while on an authorized leave of absence to serve as an elected official of a labor organization, and whose employer is reimbursed by the labor organization for the compensation paid to the member during the period of absence, may also be considered to be on a paid leave of absence. This subsection shall only apply if the member's leave of absence is authorized by a collective bargaining agreement that provides that the member retains seniority rights with the employer during the period of leave. The compensation earnable reported for a member who establishes service credit under this subsection may not be greater than the salary paid to the highest paid job class covered by the collective bargaining agreement.

(3) Except as specified in subsection (4) of this section, a member shall be eligible to receive a maximum of two years service credit during a member's entire working career for those periods when a member is on an unpaid leave of absence authorized by an employer. Such credit may be obtained only if:

(a) The member makes both the plan 2 employer and member contributions plus interest as determined by the department for the period of the authorized leave of absence within five years of resumption of service or prior to retirement whichever comes sooner; or

(b) If not within five years of resumption of service but prior to retirement, pay the amount required under RCW 41.50.165(2).

The contributions required under (a) of this subsection shall be based on the average of the member's compensation earnable at both the time the authorized leave of absence was granted and the time the member resumed employment.

(4) A member who leaves the employ of an employer to enter the armed forces of the United States shall be entitled to retirement system service credit for up to five years of military service. This subsection shall be administered in a manner consistent with the requirements of the federal uniformed services employment and reemployment rights act.

(a) The member qualifies for service credit under this subsection if:

(i) Within ninety days of the member's honorable discharge from the United States armed forces, the member applies for reemployment with the employer who employed the member immediately prior to the member entering the United States armed forces; and

(ii) The member makes the employee contributions required under RCW 41.40.650, 41.45.061 and section 507 of this act within five years of resumption of service or prior to retirement, whichever comes sooner; or

(iii) Prior to retirement and not within ninety days of the member's honorable discharge or five years of resumption of service the member pays the amount required under RCW 41.50.165(2).

(b) Upon receipt of member contributions under (a)(ii) of this subsection, the department shall establish the member's service credit and shall bill the employer for its contribution required under RCW 41.40.650, 41.45.060, 41.45.061, and section 507 of this act for the period of military service, plus interest as determined by the department.

(c) The contributions required under (a)(ii) of this subsection shall be based on the compensation the member would have earned if not on leave, or if that cannot be estimated with reasonable certainty, the compensation reported for the member in the year prior to when the member went on military leave.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1107. A new section is added to chapter 41.50 RCW to read as follows:

As we read, Reed’s Rules prohibits reading of papers, the talking while another member is talking, the moving around, the standing in front of, the walking in front of. MESSAGE FROM HOUSE

March 9, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6525 with the following amendment(s):
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

'NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. In order to help reduce the current backlog of applications for changes, transfers, or amendments of existing water rights, the legislature intends to allow the processing of applications for such changes, transfers, or amendments without regard to possible impairment of pending applications for new water rights. While the legislature intends to assist the processing of such changes, transfers, and amendments, it does not intend to divert the department of ecology's efforts or in any other way deter the processing of applications for new water rights.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department may process and render decisions on an application for change independently from processing and making decisions on pending applications for new water rights from the same water source without regard to the dates on which the applications for the new rights were filed.

(2) Except as provided in this section, the department and a water conservancy board shall process applications for change from the same water source in the order in which they were filed with the department or the board. The exceptions are:

(a) The proposed change would alleviate a public health and safety emergency or otherwise preserve public health and safety or would authorize an emergency withdrawal under RCW 43.83B.410;

(b) There is insufficient information to render a decision on a senior application or applications for change, and the information cannot be obtained in a timely manner;

(c) The proposed change was filed by a claimant in a water rights adjudication, and a decision is needed expeditiously to ensure that orders or decrees of the superior court will be representative of the current water situation;

(d) The proposed change will move a point of diversion or withdrawal, or replace a diversion with a withdrawal, or replace a withdrawal with a diversion, or change the season of use, when it assists in the recovery of fish listed under the federal endangered species act as threatened or endangered;

(e) The proposed change or group of changes will result in providing public water supplies for at least one city and one town or at least two cities and will meet the general needs of the public for a regional area; or

(f) The proposed change is for the purposes of RCW 90.03.390.

(3) The department, any other state agency, or a water conservancy board shall not require an applicant to give any part of an applicant's valid right or claim to a state agency, to the trust water rights program, or to other parties.

(4) The department may adopt rules to implement this section, but such rules must strictly adhere to the provisions of this section.

(5) Pending applications for new water rights are not entitled to protection from impairment or given priority for any available water if the department or a water conservancy board processes an application for change from the same water source. New water rights issued after an application for change is approved from the same water source are not entitled to protection from impairment or priority for any available water in relation to the changed, transferred, or amended water right regardless of the dates on which the applications were filed with the department or the board.

(6) Notice of an application for a change of a water right must be published for the same period and in the same manner as prescribed for an application for a permit by RCW 90.03.280 in the county or counties in which water for the right is withdrawn or diverted and used, although the department may also post notice of the application on the internet at an electronic site containing other departmental information. The department or water conservancy board shall consider all comments received in writing by mail or personal delivery that are received within thirty days of the date of the last newspaper publication of the notice required under RCW 90.03.280.

(7) As used in this section:
(a) “Change of a water right” or “change” means a change or transfer of a water right referred to in RCW 90.03.380 or 90.03.390 or an amendment referred to in RCW 90.44.100 or 90.44.105; and
(b) “Water conservancy board” or “board” means a water conservancy board created under chapter 90.80 RCW.

Correct the title, and the same are herewith transmitted.

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk
TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kline: "I rise to a point of order, Mr. President. The point of order concerns the House striking amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 and particularly whether it is within the scope and object of the underlying bill. The underlying bill addresses the process and prioritizes the applications for transfers of water rights. The House amendment expands beyond that and they give the Water Conservancy Board the authority, which is new authority, to make changes as well as transfers. Those are two terms of art. They also--the current statutory authority is to process voluntary transfers between water users. The new authority has nothing to do with prioritizing the processing, but is rather a new statutory authority altogether. I urge the President to find this beyond the scope and object of the underlying bill."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Snyder: "I don't necessarily rise only on this bill, but I think it is on the process. I think the presiding officer in the other House ruled that this is within the scope and object of the underlying bill and I just wonder if we would be setting a precedent here or if we have had rulings in the past that would let this house determine what the other house has already decided."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Snyder, in researching the previous rulings, we have found that both houses are autonomous and neither house is bound by the other house rulings."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 was deferred and the bill held its place on the calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate advanced to the fifth order of business
INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SCR 8432 by Senator Tim Sheldon

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432 was advanced to second reading and placed on the second reading calendar.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8432, by Senator Tim Sheldon

Making exceptions to cutoff dates.

The concurrent resolution was read the second time.

WHEREAS, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8421 established cutoff dates for consideration of legislation during the 2000 Regular Session of the Fifty-Sixth Legislature;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, the House of Representatives concurring, That the cutoff dates established in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8421 do not apply to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 3128.

MOTION

Senator Tim Sheldon moved that the rules be suspended and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432 be advanced to third reading the second reading considered the third and the concurrent resolution be placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Hargrove: "Mr. President, I would like the opportunity to offer an amendment to this concurrent resolution."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Hargrove, for your information as to where we are--to make it clear--Senator Tim Sheldon has made the motion to suspend the rules and advance the bill. The only way that you could make an amendment at this time would be to defeat the motion or Senator Sheldon would have to withdraw the motion."

Senator Hargrove: "This concurrent resolution just hit our desks a few seconds ago. Many of us were unaware that this was coming. How would we have had time to prepare amendments for second reading?"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Franklin: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I--"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT
President Owen: "Senator Franklin, if you are going to talk about the measure before us, that is really not a point of personal privilege."
Senator Franklin: "All right. Thank you, Mr. President."
Debate ensued.

FURTHER REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Hargrove, the procedures that were used were within the rules. The opportunity was there to object to the suspension of the rules to advance the bill—not at this point—but to advance it on to second reading in the first place or to hold it at second reading and amend it. You still have the opportunity to either defeat the motion or to have the motion withdrawn."
Senator Hargrove demanded a roll call.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Fraser: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. What is the motion that is before us?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "At this point, Senator Hargrove has demanded a roll call on whether or not to suspend the rules and advance the concurrent resolution to third reading and final passage. I am waiting to find out if one-sixth of the members sustain the demand for a roll call. The demand was not sustained."
The President declared the question before the Senate is the motion by Senator Tim Sheldon to suspend the rules and advance Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432 to third reading and final passage.
Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Hargrove: "Mr. President, may I ask how many votes it takes for this suspension of the rules?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Hargrove, within ten days of SINE DIE, it takes a simple majority."
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Tim Sheldon to suspend the rules and advance Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432 to third reading and final passage.
The motion by Senator Tim Sheldon carried and the rules were suspended and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432 was placed on third reading, the second reading considered the third and the concurrent resolution was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called roll on the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432 and the concurrent resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; Nays, 4; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.
Excused: Senators Finkbeiner and Sellar - 2.
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8432, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Goings, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8432 was immediately transmitted to the House of Representatives.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Snyder: "A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Will it be necessary for the resolution that we just passed to pass the House and have a message returned from the House of Representatives that they have passed the resolution before we can consider the underlying bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "The President finds that it has been the tradition to pass a cutoff exemption resolution together with a Senate Bill. Whether the same is true of a House Bill is a case of first impression. The President finds that both bodies must first pass a cutoff exemption resolution before the Senate can pass a House measure that is not exempt. Otherwise, the Senate could pass the bill, it would go to the Governor and the cutoff resolution would be meaningless. The answer is 'yes.'"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate reverted to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM HOUSE

March 9, 2000

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5802, and the same is herewith transmitted.

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk
TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5802.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6530.

MOTION

At 8:20 p.m., on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 8:57 p.m. by President Owen.
There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525, deferred on second reading earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order by Senator Kline to the scope and object of the House striking amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 is a measure which establishes a new method of processing applications for changes and transfers of water rights to help reduce the current backlog of such applications.

"The House amendment would also establish a new method of processing applications for changes and transfers of water rights; albeit in a more detailed fashion.

"The President, therefore, finds that the House striking amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is not well taken."

The President ruled that Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 to be in order.

MOTION

Senator Honeyford moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Thibaudeau: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would like to request a ruling on whether this bill is properly before us. First, the bill did not pass the House prior to the cutoff for passage of Senate Bills. Second, the bill is not necessary to implement the budget and this is one of the criteria that the President has delineated earlier. Therefore, Mr. President, I urge you to determine that this bill is not properly before the Senate at this time."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Thibaudeau, the President finds that the cutoff resolution clearly states that after the fifty-fourth day the Senate may take up messages between the Houses and matters of differences between the Houses. In considering the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525, we are considering a matter of difference between the Houses. The measure is, therefore, properly before us."

The President ruled that Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 to be properly before the Senate.

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate. With reluctance, because of the hour and the day of the session, I need to urge you to vote ‘no.’ We all want a good little water bill. We all want a bill that will make changes and transfers easier for everybody. That is what the Senate sent over twice. What we have received back is quite different and I think that generated some of the prior points that were raised. This bill does give additional authority to Water Conservancy Boards. You have to decide for yourself if that is a good idea or a bad idea. I think there are a number of provisions in this amendment that is before us that create a great deal of confusion in processing water rights.

"We all know our water code is very complicated. Virtually every word either has been or will be litigated. I don’t think the people of the state want us to create further confusion, but I think that will be a sad outcome of this. I could go on, but I won’t. That is probably enough on the substance."
"I would also like to comment on the process. This amendment with all its complexities that affect thousands of people around the state was made available for review by its authors at noon today. So, here we are with a very complicated, potentially very high stakes water bill - translate water as gold--that people all over the state have not had a chance to review. I would echo the comments of the good Senator from the Twenty-ninth District that were made earlier, ‘This is not the right way to do the people's business.’ We should have more transparency and opportunity for democratic participation when we do a significant water bill.

"I think we will have other opportunities this year to work on water bills. I think we should collaborate and come up with a good water bill we can all agree on. In the meantime, because of the great controversy that this is generating now and will generate, if it is passed, I urge a ‘no’ vote."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Tim Sheldon: "Senator Honeyford, on page 1, line 23, do the words ‘department and a water conservancy board shall process applications for change’ mean that they both must process the same application or does it mean that the applicant may go to either the department or a water conservancy board, where one exits?"

Senator Honeyford: "This bill is designed to be consistent with the underlying statute related to water conservancy boards. In the underlying statute, Chapter 90.80 RCW, an applicant for a water right change or transfer may choose to apply with the department or a conservancy board. This measure is an extension of that current authority. Under no circumstances would the application have to be processed by both the department and a water conservancy board."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fraser: "Mr. President, this is a point of order that I have never raised before and I am not sure I have heard it raised before, but if I understand the colloquy that was just given, it appears to me--I don’t have a written copy of it--but it sounded like they were trying to make a point to interpret the bill differently than what it reads. So, I would like to make that point that the colloquy that was stated--perhaps I should look at a written copy--but it appears to attempt to rewrite the underlying bill and I object to that."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Heavey: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. I understand that because the bill has been amended by the House that it is now in dispute and is here for concurrence. When this day started, it had not been addressed by the House and assuming it wasn’t necessary to implement the budget--just because no motion was made challenging it--we now allow it to violate the cutoff resolution. Is that the ruling?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "No, Senator, it is not. It is the opinion of the President that it does not violate the cutoff resolution as written."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRASER

Senator Fraser: "Mr. President, I would like to ask that my remarks be added to the record of the day."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "They will be--the point of order that you made."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to speak in favor of concurrence if that is appropriate at this time. Ladies and gentlemen, I think it is time that we do something in this state that we put off for a very long time. In order for us to have a future in this state, a future for economic development, a future for growth, a future for economizing on the way we use our water. What we have to have is a mechanism to move water to the most appropriate use. That is, we have to take existing water rights and convert them to new things—things like agriculture and things like home development, things like instream flows, all kinds of kinds of new strategies. With the problems we have with the Endangered Species Act, there is not much hope on the horizon anymore for new water rights for people, because there just isn’t enough water at this time to pass around.

“If we really want to move ahead, we have to find strategies to use the water that we have in more efficient, more effective and more appropriate manners. We can’t freeze water use in this state at any point in time and right now, because we haven’t any decent mechanism to move water from one water right holder to a new water right holder, we are basically frozen in time and we are losing time rapidly. In my district, where we have mostly rural uses, rural activities, things have changed radically. We don’t have the timber industry anymore. We are producing different kinds of agriculture products. The dairy industry is going away; we are looking for new products to fill new niches—new strategies for producing things. Our population is growing, hopefully, under the control of things like the Growth Management Act. We just have to have a method to move water to its most appropriate use.

“I think this is the first step in that process. Maybe, it is not perfect, but it is the first step. I think we need to move ahead with this and then continue to perfect the process over the years as time goes on. I’m pleading with you, on behalf of my constituents to please give us the chance to take opportunities and make something of our lives. I urge your support.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: “Thank you, Mr. President. The purposes of the use of water, which the good Senator has just mentioned, are certainly a good idea. We certainly cannot freeze the use of water as he eloquently put it. The underlying bill would not have done that. We now have a striker which does something considerably more than that. I think in pointing to that, I would like to have some consistency among those of this body who have constantly sought to stop the bureaucratization of our legislative power—who have not wanted to see our legislative power vested in the bureaucracy. One Senator, in particular, is very adamant about this. I would like to test his, and there are others, consistency. This bill does exactly that. It gives power to the Water Conservancy Board to administer, not simply transfers of water rights, which are relatively simple—for which people ought to be able to go to the head of a different line—but also to administer changes in water rights—that is changes of the point of diversion—changes of the amount—changes of the place or the nature of use. These are a much bigger animal and a much more environmentally sensitive animal. To allow this to go to the bureaucracy, rather than to maintain it as a legislative power, I believe is wrong.

“Many others in this body, typically on the other side of this aisle, have in other contexts, argued the same thing. Is there consistency here? Are we going to continuously give to the bureaucracy the power to administer a legislative right? Now, I will be the first to agree that consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds, but there is an element here that I think is not addressed by those who seek to make changes in water rights freer and easier to grant. This is a very important and very typically legislative matter. We have it in our power now. It is in the current water law. It is the Department of Ecology’s own right to do that. It is not dispersed to Water Conservancy Boards across the state that have no particular expertise in that, nor have they demonstrated any great adeptness at that. Yet, we are about to do it. I ask the members who have consistently sought not to bureaucratize that right to address that issue. Thank you and I certainly urge a ‘no’ vote on the underlying bill. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORTON

Senator Morton: “Thank you, Mr. President, and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Mr. President, I would like to read a sentence, with your permission, from a letter that several of us received a few hours ago from the Governor, concerning this specific bill. Then I would like to comment on an answer to that. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, one sentence from the Governor’s letter, which troubled me says, ‘This bill would create two lines for water right applications and allow water right changes to be processed ahead of applications for new water.’ “I talked then, Mr. President, with the Director of Ecology as has been referenced by the Senator from the Thirty-seventh District, and he agreed to resolve this with a short—very short—letter. The contents of which I would like to share with the body and I think it might answer some of the questions as deliberate upon the matter in which they are going to vote.

"This is signed by Tom Fitzsimmons, the Director of Ecology. It reads, ‘Dear Senator Morton, I appreciate your concern about whether or not the Department of Ecology will continue to process new water right applications, subsequent to the passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525. I assure you it is our intent to continue to process all applications for water, whether they be changes, transfers, or for new appropriations.’ With this, I felt somewhat satisfied, because I was deeply concerned that as we established, what has been called two lines--I personally think it more like three lines--but as these lines may be established that only the one line would be administered and followed and the other one for new water right applications would be left untouched. I feel some assurance with this letter from the Governor’s administrative office through the Department of Ecology, that both lines will be addressed. I think that is important for us to have as an item out here on the floor in your consideration. I am going, therefore, to vote for this bill. Thank you."

STATE OF WASHINGTON
DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY
P. O. Box 47600, Olympia, Washington 98504-7600

March 9, 2000

The Honorable Bob Morton
Washington State Senator
P.O. Box 40482
Olympia, WA 98504-9482

Dear Senator Morton:

I appreciate your concern about whether or not the Department of Ecology will continue to process new water right applications, subsequent to the passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525. I assure you it is our intent to continue to process all applications for water, whether they be changes, transfers, or for new appropriations.

Thank you for bringing your concern to my attention.

Sincerely,

TOM FITZIMMONS, Director

MOTION BY SENATOR JOHNSON

Senator Johnson: "I move that the remarks by the Senator from the Seventh District, including the reference-the letter from the Department of Ecology be placed in the Journal."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Johnson has moved that the remarks by Senator Morton be spread upon the Journal. If there are no objections--Senator Johnson has moved that the remarks by Senator Morton be spread upon the Journal and the letter from the Department of Ecology be included, as well. All those in favor, will signify by saying ‘aye.’ Those opposed ‘no.’ The ‘ayes’ appear to have it--the ‘ayes’ have it, the motion carries."

MOTION BY SENATOR SNYDER
Senator Snyder: "Thank you, Mr. President. I feel to have the proper understanding of the debate that went on here today, I believe we should include all the debate and remarks made on this bill, so I would so move that all remarks on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 be spread upon the Journal."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Snyder has moved that all remarks on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 be spread upon the Journal. If there are not objections, so ordered."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Honeyford, now knowing that this is going to be spread upon the Journal, I would like to be articulate and I probably can't. However, my concern is and in the last colloquy, you have said that it could be one or the other. It could either be the Conservancy Board or the Department of Ecology. Is that not true?"

Senator Honeyford: "That is correct, but as I understand the underlying law is that all actions of the Conservancy Board have to be approved by the Department of Ecology."

Senator Rasmussen: "Okay, maybe that makes me feel a little bit better, but may I perhaps ask if--what I am concerned about is our underlying private property rights, which include water rights. While I know that some industries, whatever, would like to jump forward in the process, because they may be transferring that water to a use that the Conservancy Board, which is appointed by the counties, may want. "Let's just use for a little example--I have a company called 'Lonestar' that is in Pierce County. They have a substantial amount of water rights that they need in the processing of gravel. If the Conservancy Board says 'Aha, we'll transfer that water right that you use in your company and use it for municipal,' it is almost like a conflict of interest. I am not sure that my private property rights, as part of being on either the same aquifer or whatever would be secure under those types of scenarios.

"Now, that is not saying that if the Conservancy Boards would happen to do this without another overall factor such as the Department of Ecology having the final say. If that is the case, as the Senator from the Fifteenth District said, then I may have a little better feeling towards this bill. I do believe in the two line system, but I don't want to give up my water rights for the benefit of a municipality or another entity and I think that is one of my biggest concerns."

DEMAND FOR THE PREVIOUS QUESTION

Senators Snyder, Franklin and Betti Sheldon demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be shall the main question be now put.

The demand for the previous question carried

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Honeyford that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525.

The motion by Senator Honeyford to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 carried on a rising vote.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Heavey: "A point of order, Mr. President. Let me see if I can articulate this. The cutoff resolution says that after the fifty-fourth day the bills with certain exceptions are not supposed to be considered, except those that are amended and those that are in dispute. I would submit that that applies to bills that were put into dispute or amended prior to the fifty-fourth day. So, therefore, even though it was amended today, this bill is out of order and I believe that is the ruling of prior Presidents and I would encourage your ruling in that direction."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Heavey, if the rule said, 'Messages pertaining to amendments, matters and differences between the two houses that are placed in dispute by the fiftieth day,' you would have a point well taken. The rule does not say that. Therefore, the President must interpret the rule as the rule is written. Your point is not well taken."

MOTION BY SENATOR PATTERSON
Senator Patterson: "I move that there be a democratic caucus immediately."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Patterson has moved that there be a democratic—Senator Patterson, the President is not familiar with such a motion. Are you asking for a recess?"

Senator Patterson: "I withdraw that motion and I move that the Senate be at ease subject to the call of the President."

Senator Snyder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Patterson that the Senate be at ease subject to the call of the President.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion to go at ease carried by the following vote: Yeas, 25; Nays, 22; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

MOTION

At 9:38 p.m., on motion of Senator Patterson, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 10:06 p.m. by President Owen.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Snyder, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6525 will hold its place on the concurrence calendar.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. Senate Rules provide that a bill contain one subject. This bill, in Section 907, amends Initiative 601, which is substantive law. This is a budget document and in Legislature v. Locke, where the Legislature actually attempted to amend substantive law through the budget--I believe in that case it was day care and we challenged the Governor’s Veto and the court found us wrong in attempting to amend substantive law in the budget document.

"I think there are many numerous other cases or other cases that would point to a similar issue. I don’t think we are allowed to amend substantive law in a budget document. This is an act relating to fiscal matters; it is for purposes of adopting the budget. If we want to amend substantive law, we should introduce a bill and do that separately."

Senator Benton: "Thank you for your question, Senator. There is a typo in the effect clause. It should read, ‘Removes the taxing authority for transit agencies.’ That is a typo in the effect portion. There is no error in the actual amendment itself, only in the explanation line there. It has nothing to do with sound transit."

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, deferred on third reading earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator West that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404 contains two subjects and violates Senate Rule 25, the President finds that Section 907 of the bill would amend RCW 43.135.045 to permit a transfer of up to three hundred million dollars from the emergency reserve fund to the multimodal fund.

"Senator Snyder referred to the President’s ruling in 1998 that the measure that became Referendum 49 did not contain two subjects. Because that ruling did not concern a budget bill, the prior ruling is not squarely on point. Senator West points out that the recent decision in Legislature v. Locke did concern a second subject in a budget bill in violation of Article II, Section 19 of the State Constitution. The President finds that the Locke case provides guidance here.

"In Locke, the Supreme Court set forth the following questions to consider in weighing whether a provision of the budget constitutes a second subject: (1) whether the provision was treated in a separate substantive bill; (2) whether the duration of the provision extends beyond the two year time period of the budget; or (3) whether the provision defines rights or eligibility for services. In the case of Section 907 of the budget bill before us, the answer to all three questions is ‘No.’

"The President also finds that the fund shift in Section 907 is rationally related to the budget; in fact the budget depends on the fund shift.

"For these reasons, the President finds that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404 does not contain two subjects in violation of Senate Rule 25, and the point of order is not well taken."

The President ruled that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404 is properly before the Senate. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; Nays, 18; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 50.29 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Beginning with rate year 2000, if unemployment benefits are paid to claimants in any calendar quarter that exceed the maximum benefit amount under RCW 50.20.120(1)(a) due to a lockout by the employer, and the employer is assigned the contribution rate of rate class 20 under RCW 50.29.025, or is assigned the contribution rate under RCW 50.29.025(6)(a), for the rate year that includes that calendar quarter, the employer’s contributions for that calendar quarter under RCW 50.24.010 shall equal the total of the following:

(a) The amount of contributions determined under RCW 50.29.025;
(b) An amount equal to the full amount of benefits paid in the calendar quarter to the locked out claimants less the amount paid under (a) of this subsection; and

(2) At the end of each calendar quarter, the commissioner shall notify employers subject to this section, and shall include in each employer’s contribution notice for the calendar quarter a billing for the amount determined under this section. Contributions shall become due and be paid as prescribed by the commissioner for contributions under RCW 50.24.010.

(3) RCW 50.29.062 shall not apply to employers subject to this section. The Secretary of Senate had copies of the amendment delivered to each Senator.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator West: “Senator Brown, in the notes attached to the amendment, it states that the successor employer would be responsible for the new rate class if this rate class were put into place. Is that your understanding?”

Senator Brown: "Yes, it is."

Senator West: "So, if somebody were to purchase, in this particular case--the Kaiser Aluminum Company--that they would then be responsible for this obligation?"

Protecting privacy of personal information in commercial transactions.

MOTION

Senator Prentice moved that the following striking amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. INTENT. (1) The legislature finds that every entity has an affirmative and continuing obligation to respect the privacy of its consumers and to protect the security and confidentiality of consumers. The legislature finds that Washington's citizens have a right to privacy and a reasonable expectation that the personal information that they provide in commercial transactions with financial institutions and others who maintain and transfer information will be kept private and confidential. The legislature finds that there is no existing uniform law that creates an appropriate standard of conduct for disclosure of consumers' personal information and that Washington's citizens need additional statutory protection from fraud, deception, nuisance, invasion of privacy, and breach of confidentiality related to the disclosure of personal information. The legislature intends to ensure that entities and consumers work cooperatively to protect consumer information and enforce sanctions when violations occur.

(2) The legislature finds that the disclosure of personal and sensitive information has caused specific significant harms to Washington consumers, including the appearance of unauthorized charges or debits on consumers' accounts, misappropriation of sensitive information for the purpose of assuming a consumer's identity, the unwanted and unintended dissemination of personal and sensitive information, and the invasion of privacy.

(3) The legislature finds that the flow of less sensitive personal information has resulted in a number of increased market efficiencies that are beneficial to consumers. These include more rapid credit transactions and check verifications, as well as an increased number of choices for products and services. The legislature finds that these benefits can be maintained by giving consumers the opportunity to choose whether their less sensitive information will be shared. The legislature finds that giving consumers this choice best balances the benefits and harms of disclosure of such information.

(4) The legislature finds that the incidence of identity theft is rapidly growing, and that victims of identity theft need further assistance in obtaining the information necessary to the prosecution of their cases. The legislature finds that requiring additional information sharing by merchants with victims will result in greater protections for consumers and deter potential perpetrators.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Affiliate" means an entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control or common ownership with another entity. Companies that form alliances as a financial services group for purposes of marketing their services and are located at a common address, have personnel and payroll functions administered through a central office, jointly sponsor one combined employee savings and profit sharing plan, and have centralized data processing, mail service, communications, and procurement are considered under common control and affiliated with each other.

(2) "Consumer" or "customer" means a natural person or his or her legal representative, who is a resident of the state of Washington, who has been disclosed to be a resident of the state of Washington, and who purchases, leases, or otherwise contracts for products, goods, or services within the state of Washington or from an entity at its location in the state of Washington, that are primarily used for personal, family, or household purposes on or after the effective date of this section and who continues to be a resident of the state of Washington.

(3) "Control" means (a) ownership, control, or power to vote twenty-five percent or more of the outstanding shares of any class of voting security of the company, directly or indirectly, or acting through one or more other persons, if the company is shareholder-owned; (b) control in any manner over the election of a majority of the directors, trustees, or general partners (or individuals exercising similar functions) of the company; and (c) the power to exercise, directly or indirectly, a controlling influence over the management or policies of the company.

(4) "Consumer-requested purpose" means for the purpose of establishing or maintaining a business relationship, completing a transaction, or providing a product, good, or service requested by the consumer if the personal or sensitive information that is sold, shared, or transferred is subject to section 9(1) of this act.

(5) "De minimus cost method" means any method, such as a toll-free telephone number, a post office box or address for accepting first-class mail, or any similar, convenient, low-cost method, which does not exceed the cost of a first-class postage stamp for the consumer. If other de minimus cost methods are offered, accepting e-mail or online messages from consumers shall be considered a de minimus cost method.

(6) "Financial institution" means (a) a financial institution as defined in section 527(4) of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, P.L. 106-102; or (b) a bank holding company or financial holding company, as defined in sections 2(a) and 2(p) of the Bank Holding Company Act, as amended, or any subsidiary thereof as defined in section 2(d) of the Bank Holding Company Act, as amended.

(7) "Functional business purpose" means use or disclosure of sensitive or personal information between an information custodian and another entity or person to perform services or functions on behalf of the information custodian as part of the information custodian's provision of its products, goods, or services to its customers, or to assist in the maintenance or analysis of its relationships with customers, if the personal or sensitive information that is sold, shared, or transferred is subject to section 9 of this act;

(8) "Information custodian" means all nonpublic commercial entities that maintain data containing personal information or sensitive information about consumers they actually know reside in Washington and that sell, share, or otherwise transfer the information to nonaffiliates for purposes other than consumer-requested purposes, functional business purposes, or under the circumstances described in section 5(3) or 7(3) of this act. An "information custodian" does not include a consumer reporting agency, as defined in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1681 et seq.), to the extent its activities are directly related to assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties, and to the extent that the activities are regulated by the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 1681 et seq.). "Information custodian" does not include an agent or other entity (a) who obtains personal or sensitive information from a consumer or an information custodian; and (b) who has contracted, in writing, with the information custodian to provide products, goods, or services on behalf of the information custodian, that are part of or integral to the provision of the information custodian's own products, goods, or services to the consumer; and (c) who does not make an independent use, including marketing use, of the personal or sensitive information, apart from providing the products, goods, or services described in subsection (8)(b) of this section; and (d) who is subject to section 9 of this act. "Information custodian" does not include an entity that sells, shares, or transfers personal or sensitive information exclusively for consumer-requested purposes, functional business purposes, or under the circumstances described in section 5(3) or 7(3) of this act.

(9) "Marketer" means a nonpublic, commercial entity that maintains data containing personal information or sensitive information about consumers it knows reside in Washington and uses the information to engage in marketing.

(10) "Marketing" or "marketing information" means a promotion, solicitation, or advertisement that specifically references the sale or lease of products, goods, or services made through written, telephonic, electronic, or other means, that is directed to a specific named consumer, but shall not include any promotion, solicitation, or advertisement (a) included with a billing or statement, (b) directed to the public, or (c) made to such consumer while present at the marketer's place of business or during any other contact with the marketer initiated by or at the request of the consumer.

(11) "Personal information" means information that is provided by the consumer in a commercial context, and is correlated to a specific individual consumer, that concerns the amount or condition of the consumer's assets, liabilities, financial transactions, purchasing history, buying preferences, business relationships, customer status, demographic information, name, address, telephone number, electronic mail address, or that reflects current or historical deposit or credit card account balances or purchase amounts.

(12) "Sensitive information" means information maintained in a commercial context that is correlated to a specific individual consumer or a specific account and customarily held or used for the purpose of the consumer's transaction initiation, account access or identity verification, and includes account numbers, access codes or passwords, social security numbers, consumer tax identification numbers, driver's license or permit numbers, state identicard numbers issued by the department of licensing, and credit card numbers or expiration dates, and electronically captured signatures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. RESTRICTION ON CONSUMER INFORMATION. Information custodians and marketers shall, in performing a transaction with a consumer, providing a service for a consumer, or establishing a business relationship with a consumer, require only that the consumer provide information reasonably necessary to perform the transaction, establish the relationship, administer or maintain the business relationship, collect or service a debt, protect against fraud or unauthorized transactions, or comply with applicable law. Any optional information must be specified as such, and the consumer must be given the option not to provide it.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. CONSUMER PRIVACY POLICIES. (1) An information custodian must have a consumer privacy policy that discloses to existing and prospective consumers the policies and practices of the information custodian regarding the use of consumer personal information and sensitive information acquired or possessed by the information custodian. Entities that maintain data containing personal information or sensitive information but do not sell, share, or otherwise transfer the data, are not required to have a privacy policy.

(2) The consumer privacy policy, at a minimum, must summarize the information custodian's responsibilities under this chapter and describe the consumer's rights and remedies under it, and generally describe with whom the consumer's personal and sensitive information will be shared or to whom it will be sold or transferred. This general description must disclose either the names of those with which the information is shared, sold, or transferred or a reasonable description of the nature of each entity's business, with which information is shared, sold, or transferred.

(3) The consumer privacy policy must also provide a reasonable means for consumers to review their personal information that the information custodian shares, sells, or transfers to nonaffiliates for marketing purposes and that is retrievable in the ordinary course of business. The policy must also provide a reasonable process for consumers to dispute the accuracy or completeness of the information.

(4) An information custodian must provide a disclosure of its consumer privacy policy to customers about whom it has names and addresses or other means of contact:
(a) Within a reasonable period of time after the information custodian obtains the names and addresses or other means of contact;
(b) Not less than annually after that to a customer whose personal or sensitive information the information custodian, within the twelve-month period before the date of the provision of the policy, has sold, shared, or transferred to a nonaffiliate other than under the circumstances described in section 5(3) or 7(3) of this act, for a customer requested purpose, or for a functional business purpose; and
(c) Not less than thirty days after a prospective customer's initial request for the policy.

(5) An information custodian that is not a financial institution must disclose its consumer privacy policy, and any material changes that are made to the policy or the information custodian's business structure, clearly and conspicuously in writing, through means reasonably calculated to inform new customers of the policy's provisions or material changes that are made to the policy or the information custodian's business structure.

(6) If the information custodian sells or offers products, goods, or services online, the privacy policy must be disclosed on the effective date of this section, on a continuing basis, clearly and conspicuously, on a web page that is directly and prominently linked to the information custodian's website.

(7) The consumer privacy policy must be readily available for review at the information custodian's place of business.

(8) An information custodian that is a financial institution is deemed to have complied with the requirements of this section and section 5(1)(a) of this act if it provides the disclosures required by subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section and section 5(1)(a) of this act together with the disclosures provided in compliance with section 503 of Public Law 106-102 (the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act).

(2) If, under this section, a consumer chooses not to receive marketing information, the marketer and its affiliates with which it shares personal or sensitive information must stop marketing to the consumer within ninety days of receiving the consumer's notice. (3) A small business, as defined in RCW 19.85.020, that is not an information custodian, that markets solely to its existing customers or that markets to consumers whose personal information was obtained from an information custodian, is not subject to subsection (1) of this section.

(4) A marketer may disclose personal information to another entity to perform services or functions on behalf of the marketer, as part of the marketer's marketing of its own products, goods, or services. However, the personal information that is disclosed is subject to section 9 of this act.

If the written statement is made online, it must be on a separate web page.

(3) This section does not apply to disclosure of sensitive information under the following circumstances:

(t) Disclosure by an entity or person to the public related to the gathering, publishing, disseminating, or circulating of news or matters of public interest or concern.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. An information custodian shall not disclose, to a nonaffiliate, other than for a functional business purpose or a consumer-requested purpose, sensitive information for use in marketing to the consumer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY OF INFORMATION. (1) Nonaffiliates that obtain personal information or sensitive information from information custodians, other than those who receive driver's license numbers in connection with the offering or maintenance of an insurance policy, must: (a) Not sell, share, or otherwise transfer the information for any reason other than the allowed purposes for which the information was sold, shared, or transferred by the information custodian or under circumstances described in those subsections of sections 5(3) or 7(3) of this act to which this section is not expressly subject; (b) keep the information confidential; and (c) safeguard the information from loss, misuse, theft, unauthorized access, disclosure, defacement, or alteration.

(2) An information custodian, before sharing, selling, or otherwise transferring personal information or sensitive information, must obtain an agreement from the intended recipient providing for the following:
(a) To keep the information confidential;
(b) To use the information only for the allowed purposes for which it has been shared, sold, or provided, or under circumstances described in those subsections of sections 5(3) or 7(3) of this act to which this section is not expressly subject; and
(c) To safeguard the information from loss, misuse, theft, unauthorized access, disclosure, defacement, or alteration.

(3) Every information custodian must establish reasonable safeguards to ensure the confidentiality and safety of personal information and sensitive information and to protect them from loss, misuse, theft, unauthorized access, disclosure, defacement, or alteration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. ACTIONS OR TRANSACTIONS BY COMPETITIVE TELECOMMUNICATIONS COMPANIES. The actions or transactions of information custodians or marketers who are classified as competitive telecommunications companies under RCW 80.36.320 or who are telecommunications companies providing competitive telecommunications services are subject to this chapter and the Consumer Protection Act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. VIOLATION AN UNFAIR OR DECEPTIVE ACT. (1) Unfair and deceptive invasion of privacy rights is not reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business. The legislature finds that the practices covered by this chapter are matters vitally affecting the public interest for the purpose of applying the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW. A violation of this chapter is an unfair or deceptive act in trade or commerce for the purpose of applying the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

(2) In any action for a violation of this chapter, with the exception of section 7 of this act, an information custodian or marketer may raise as a defense that the violation was not intentional and was the result of a bona fide error. This defense must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. Examples of a bona fide error include clerical, calculation, computer malfunction and programming, and printing errors.

(3) Damages to a person who has been the victim of a violation of sections 5, 7, 8, or 9(1) of this act are five hundred dollars, or actual damages, whichever is greater. A court may increase the award of damages in an amount not more than three times the actual damages sustained, or one thousand five hundred dollars, whichever is greater, upon a showing by a preponderance of the evidence that a violation of the chapter was willful.

(4) Damages to a person who has been the victim of a violation of section 3, 4, 6, or 9 (2) or (3) of this act are actual damages. However, a court may increase the award up to five hundred dollars upon a showing that the violation was willful, intentional, or part of a pattern of repeated violations.

(5) In the case of a class action for a violation of this act, the total recovery of statutory damages in any class action arising out of the same failure to comply may not be more than the lesser of one million dollars or one percent of the net worth of the defendant. There is no limit on the recovery of actual damages.

(6) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the attorney general to enforce this chapter, or seek full recovery of both statutory and actual damages.

(7) The remedies provided for a violation of this chapter are exclusive of the remedies provided for a violation of chapter 9.35 RCW. No violation of this chapter is an unlawful activity under RCW 9.35.020(2) or under RCW 9.35.010.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. FILING ACTION--CONSEQUENCES. Filing an action for a violation of this chapter constitutes a certificate that to the best of the plaintiff's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after reasonable inquiry, it is well grounded in fact and is warranted by existing law or a good faith extension or reversal of existing law, and that it is not brought for any improper purpose, such as to harass or create a nuisance. If an action is filed in violation of this section, the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, may impose upon the plaintiff an appropriate sanction, that may include an order to pay to the other party or parties the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the filing of the action, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. FEDERAL INVALIDITY--ANTITRUST LAWS. If the responsible federal chartering authority, under applicable federal law, or if a court of competent jurisdiction declares that any provision of this chapter is invalid with respect to any financial institution, the provision is also invalid, to the same extent, with respect to financial institutions chartered under the laws of the state of Washington and to host branches of out-of-state financial institutions. The director of the department of financial institutions may, from time to time, publish provisions of state laws that have been found invalidated under federal law and procedures. This section does not impair in any manner the authority of the state attorney general to enforce antitrust laws applicable to financial institutions or their affiliates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REMEDIES NONEXCLUSIVE. Nothing in this chapter in any way limits, replaces, or diminishes the protections and remedies afforded by the Domestic Violence Prevention Act, chapter 26.50 RCW, or any other act intended to protect the privacy and safety of residents of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 9.35 RCW to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Financial information" means, to the extent it is nonpublic, any of the following information identifiable to the individual that concerns the amount and conditions of an individual's assets, liabilities, or credit:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 9.35 RCW to read as follows:

INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO VICTIM. (1) A person, financial information repository, corporation, trust, partnership, or unincorporated association possessing information relating to an actual or potential violation of this chapter, or who may have entered into a transaction, provided credit, products, goods, or services, accepted payment, or otherwise done business with a person who has used the victim's means of identification, must, upon request of the victim, provide copies of all information relevant to the potential or actual violation of this chapter.

(2) Before providing the information required under subsection (1) of this section, the provider may require the victim to provide positive identification of the victim and a copy of a police report evidencing the victim's claim. The provider may require reasonable compensation for the reasonable cost of providing the information requested.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Morton: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. I am looking on my desk for a proclamation from the Governor to keep us in session and I do not find it. What I found was the proclamation that was given on March 9, which clearly states that the Governor calls us into special session for not more than one week, according to Article II, Section 12. I raise a point of inquiry then if we are officially in session, although I understand by reviewing the Constitution, it is up to no more than thirty days, but because of the phrase in the Governor’s proclamation that it is not for more than one week. According to my calendar and time, that elapsed at about nine o’clock a.m. Maybe I am missing some information that has been conveyed by the Governor and I am not aware of it."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator Morton, the proclamation expresses the wishes and hopes and desires of the Governor, but the Constitution supersedes."

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Honorable Brad Owen
President of the State Senate
Legislature of the State of Washington
Olympia, Washington 98504

Dear President Owen:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration the following bill which has been partially vetoed by the Governor, together with the official veto message setting forth his objections to the sections or items of the bills, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution:

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6349

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the State of Washington, this 20th day of March, 2000.

RALPH MUNRO
(Seal)
Secretary of State

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6349

March 17, 2000

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6349 entitled:
“AN ACT Relating to extending the expiration date of the water well delegation program;”

This bill would have extended the authority of the Department of Ecology to delegate the administration and enforcement of tagging, sealing, and decommissioning of water wells to local health districts or counties until June 30, 2006. By vetoing section 2, the Department’s authority will be made permanent.

Currently, delegation of authority is only provided to local governments that meet the strict requirements of the Department, as set forth in a memorandum of understanding for each delegation. This program has been in place since 1992 and has already received two sunset reviews. It is time to make the program permanent because it is cost effective, and has a proven success record that is resulting in enhanced public health and environmental protections.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 2 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6349.

With the exception of section 2, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6349 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, Governor

MOTION

At 10:13 a.m., on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 11:57 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Wojahn.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Snyder: "This is a bit unusual, but the House has passed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404 with amendments and I would like to request a ruling on the number of votes necessary to pass Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, as amended by the House. In the regular session, President Owen made a ruling on the votes necessary to pass Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404. He ruled that a simple majority vote was required to transfer money from the emergency fund. In Section 907 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, money was transferred from the emergency fund to the multimodal transportation account, but Section 907 also expressly amended RCW 43.135.045 and removed the statutory requirement for a two-thirds vote to make the transfer. RCW 43.135.045 was adopted as part of Initiative 601 and the ruling in the earlier inquiry concerned the number of votes necessary to amend Initiative 601. I would like a ruling on the votes needed to pass Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, as amended by the House."

Debate ensued.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Wojahn: "Senator Snyder, I am not prepared to make that ruling at the present time and would like to defer further consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404."

MOTION

At 12:03 p.m., on motion of Senator Snyder, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, March 24, 2000.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

March 23, 2000

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise you that on March 23, 2000, Governor Locke approved the following Senate Bill entitled:

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6067

Relating to access to individual health insurance coverage.

Sincerely,

EVERETT H. BILLINGSLEA, General Counsel

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, as amended by the House, deferred March 23, 2000, after Senator Snyder's parliamentary inquiry regarding the number of votes needed for final passage.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Wojahn: "In ruling on the point of inquiry raised by Senator Snyder on March 23, 2000, concerning the number of votes necessary to pass Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, as amended by the House of Representatives, the President would first note that advisory rulings are not normally given by the President. For example, earlier this session, President Owen declined to rule on a point of order on whether a bill was properly before the Senate under Senate Rule 25, as long as that bill remained on Second Reading.

"The President reasoned that until such time as a bill is on final passage, it may be changed by the body. Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, as amended by the House, will be on third reading if a motion to concur is adopted. The House amendment cannot be changed by the Senate. For these reasons, the President finds that Senator Snyder's point of inquiry is timely.

"Section 501 of the House striking amendment to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404 would allocate money from the emergency reserve fund to school districts to pay for increased fuel costs. Section 724 would transfer money from the emergency reserve fund to the multimodal transportation account for rail programs. RCW 43.135.045(2) provides that the Legislature may appropriate moneys from the emergency reserve fund only with approval of at least two-thirds of the members of each house of the Legislature. The President, therefore, finds that final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No.6404, as amended by the House, would require a two-thirds vote of the Senate (thirty-three members).

"The President would distinguish an earlier ruling on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404 in which President Owen ruled that a simple majority vote was required to transfer money from the emergency reserve fund. In Section 907 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, money was transferred from the emergency fund to the multimodal transportation account. However, Section 907 also expressly amended RCW 43.135.045(2) to remove the statutory requirement for a two-thirds majority vote to make the transfer. RCW 43.135.045 was adopted as part of Initiative 601 and the point of inquiry in the earlier instance concerned the number of votes necessary to amend Initiative 601. President Owen ruled that only a simple majority was necessary to amend Initiative 601."

The President Pro Tempore ruled that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6404, as amended by the House, would take a two-thirds majority vote to pass the Senate.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Tim Sheldon: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I just wanted to, before we adjourned, to just take note of the big news event. Obviously, when we come back on Monday, we won't have the Seattle skyline the same. The King Dome will be gone--will be flattened. I just wanted to make a comment on a couple of figures I noticed from the newspapers. It is going to take nine million dollars to tear down the building. It is only twenty-four years old and we still owe--the taxpayers still owe two hundred and six million dollars. So, as you buy a tee shirt and watch it on TV, remember the taxpayers are still paying for that building for a long, long time."

MOTION

At 10:11 a.m., on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate adjourned until 10:30 a.m., Monday, March 27, 2000.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

President of the State Senate
Legislature of the State of Washington

Dear President Owen:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration the following bills which have been partially vetoed by the Governor, together with the official veto message setting forth his objections to the sections or items of the bills, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution:

Substitute Senate Bill No. 6675;
Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6400.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of the state of Washington, this 27th day of March, 2000.

GARY McINTOSH
Director of Elections
MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6675

March 23, 2000

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 4 and 8, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6675 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the provision of telecommunications services by public utility districts and rural port districts;"

This bill gives public utility districts and rural port districts express authority to be wholesalers of telecommunications services within their districts. I support this legislation as a key step in promoting advanced telecommunications facilities and services in underserved areas of Washington.

Sections 4 and 8 of the bill would impose overly restrictive requirements on public utility and rural port districts before financing or constructing telecommunications facilities, and would not significantly improve accountability. I strongly support the goal of ensuring accountability to the public. However, I believe that some of the requirements of sections 4 and 8 could impair districts' current activities and significantly complicate or delay the facilities and services that our rural areas so urgently need.

I fully expect that public utility and port districts will respond appropriately to requests for information from the Legislature regardless of any statutory requirement to do so.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 4 and 8 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6675.

With the exception of sections 4 and 8, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6675 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6400

March 24, 2000

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 29, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6400 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to domestic violence;"

This bill improves and clarifies our laws dealing with domestic violence in numerous ways, without imposing costs on state or local government. However, section 29 would make the entire bill "null and void" unless referenced and funded in the budget. Because the bill imposes no costs and requires no funding or reference in the budget, I have vetoed section 29.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 29 of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6400.

With the exception of section 29, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6400 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, Governor
On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the partial veto messages on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6675 and Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6400 were held on the desk.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

SENATE RESOLUTION 2000-8786

By Senators Shin, Zarelli and McAuliffe

WHEREAS, Athletics is one of the most effective ways for young women to develop leadership skills, self-discipline, initiative, and confidence; and

WHEREAS, The Meadowdale High School Girls’ Varsity Basketball Team, the Mavericks, demonstrated these qualities not only by defeating a strong team from Blanchet on March 4, 2000, to win this year’s Class 3A State Championship, but also by achieving their objective through adversity; and

WHEREAS, members of the team are seniors Yvette Avila and Jane Ireland; juniors Audrey Hutchison, Kristen O’Neill, Leslie Martin, and Alecia Suelzle; sophomores Anne Dawson, Jennie Swerk, and Kristy Hoffman; and freshmen Jacci Baker and Tara Jacob; and

WHEREAS, Karen Blair, head coach of the Mavericks Team for the past six years, is a Meadowdale graduate and former member of its team, who returned to the school with the goal of taking the team to the state championship; and

WHEREAS, with strong support from assistant coaches Leah Johnson, John Pope, and Lisa Hoppe, Coach Blair proved her staff’s ability to instill winning qualities that were remembered by the girls even during times when the goal might have looked discouragingly far away; and

WHEREAS, The 1999-2000 Mavericks struggled early in a rebuilding season that followed the graduation of five team leaders the previous year, and played a tough schedule this year with eight losses going into the district tournament; and

WHEREAS, The girls played knowing that earlier Maverick teams had won one-hundred games and lost only ten in the previous four years; and

WHEREAS, The Mavericks lost a crucial game at district, requiring them to rally and qualify from the losers’ bracket, but under the leadership of Coach Blair the girls pulled together as a team in this adversity and rededicated themselves to their goal, keeping in mind that it was important to be positive and have fun regardless of the outcome; and

WHEREAS, The Mavericks persevered to defeat strong teams with better records and win the State 3A Girls Basketball Championship for the year 2000; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Tina Roberts of the city of Lynnwood honored the team by declaring the week of March 13-19, 2000, as Meadowdale Mavericks Week;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Washington State Senate do hereby recognize Coach Karen Blair and all members of the Meadowdale Mavericks Girls’ Varsity Basketball Team for demonstrating skill, determination, and courage in winning the 2000 Class 3A High School Girls’ Basketball Championship; and

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

MOTION

At 10:21 a.m., on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 10:55 a.m. by President Owen.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 6088, by Senator Loveland

Making supplemental operating and capital appropriations.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Snyder, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6088 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 6088 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Thibaudeau moved that the following amendments by Senators Thibaudeau and Deccio be considered simultaneously and be adopted:

On page 61, on line 32, increase the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 by $1,000,000.

On page 61, on line 34, increase the general fund–federal appropriation by $1,000,000.

On page 65, after line 17, insert the following:

“(j) Notwithstanding any other limitations in this section, the secretary shall transfer $1,000,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 and $1,000,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation, or so much thereof as may be necessary, between subsections (1) and (2) of this section to implement the choice of service provisions in RCW 71A.16.010.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Thibaudeau, if these amendments pass, then we are, in effect, changing state policy which would direct the Department of Social and Health Services to allow choice for cottages operated by the state either for placement or for respite care and they would have to follow the policy dictated by this amendment, which is the intent of the Legislature? Is that correct?"

Senator Thibaudeau: "That is correct, Senator Deccio. We thought we were doing that a couple of years ago and apparently that didn't happen, so this will provide that the department follow that policy. Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendments by Senators Thibaudeau and Deccio on page 61, lines 32 and 34, and page 65, after line 17, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6088.

The motion by Senator Thibaudeau carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Honeyford moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 218, on line 26, following "biennium." insert "An interest rate equal to the 10 year U.S. treasury bond rate shall be applied to the repayment of the loan. Principal and interest payments shall be made from the state general fund."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Honeyford on page 218, line 26, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6088.
The motion by Senator Honeyford carried and the amendment was adopted.

Premium payments for individual provider home care workers shall be made only to the subsidized basic health plan. Home care agencies may obtain coverage either through the basic health plan or through an alternative plan with substantially equivalent benefits.

These funds shall be expended in accordance with priorities established by the stakeholder advisory group established in accordance with chapter 216, Laws of 1998 (developmental disabilities), except that (i) at least 60 percent of these amounts must be used to increase the number of people receiving residential, employment, family support, or other direct services; (ii) the services and supports must be designed and implemented such that the cost of continuing them in the 2001-03 biennium does not exceed $19.2 million, of which no more than $9.3 million is from state funds; and (iii) strong consideration shall be given to the need for increased wages for direct care workers in contracted residential programs.

(c) $82,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $329,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $428,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely to increase the number of developmentally disabled people receiving residential, employment, family support, or other direct services. The amounts in this subsection (1)(c) are subject to the restrictions in (b)(ii) of this subsection (1).

(d) $413,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $1,172,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $694,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided solely for employment, or other day activities and training programs, for young people who complete their high school curriculum in 1999 or 2000.

(e) $513,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $1,421,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $2,033,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation are provided to develop and operate... secure residential and day program placements for persons who seem likely to pose a significant risk to the public safety if their current residential arrangement were to continue.

(f) $209,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $664,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $939,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided to increase wages as required by Initiative No. 688 (state minimum wage) for contracted adult family homes, adult residential care facilities, hourly and daily family support providers, and hourly attendant care providers.

Payments to individual providers are to be increased from $6.18 per hour to $6.68 per hour on July 1, 1999, and to $7.18 per hour on July 1, 2000. Payments to agency providers are to be increased to $11.97 per hour on July 1, 1999, and to $12.62 per hour on July 1, 2000. All but 14 cents per hour of the July 1, 1999, increase to agency providers, and all but 15 cents per hour of the additional July 1, 2000, increase is to be used to increase wages for direct care workers. The appropriations in this subsection also include the funds needed for the employer share of unemployment and social security taxes on the amount of the increase.

(h) Within amounts appropriated in this subsection, the developmental disabilities program shall contract for a pilot program to test an alternative service delivery model for persons with autism. The department must use a competitive process to determine the site of the pilot. The pilot program must be time-limited and subject to an evaluation of client outcomes to determine the effectiveness and efficiency of the pilot program compared to the standard service model for persons with autism.

The department shall use these funds to enhance the community crisis response system managed by regional support networks, improve crisis prevention and stabilization services through the developmental disabilities community services system, and expand community residential capacity for persons with developmental disabilities who are ready for discharge from state psychiatric hospitals. Funding for community residential capacity is sufficient to move a biennium total of 48 patients out of the state hospitals at a reasonable pace by June 30, 2001. The department shall manage the intensity of services provided so that the average cost per day does not exceed $300 per person placed in this expanded community residential capacity. The legislature finds that, in addition to the appropriations in this subsection for improvements in services to persons with developmental disabilities who are committed to the custody of the secretary under chapter 71.05 RCW, it is necessary to study long-term treatment alternatives and their legal, fiscal, and policy implications. Therefore, the department shall provide a report to the ways and means committee of the senate and the appropriations committee of the house of representatives by December 1, 2000, containing options and recommendations for secure treatment programs.

The report shall identify various treatment models that could be implemented and various types and locations of secure facilities, both state-owned and leased, in which programs could be sited, together with the department’s recommendations. The report shall evaluate the potential for siting such programs on the grounds of existing state residential habilitation centers. The report shall also include analysis of advantages and disadvantages associated with contracting for some or all of the new program options identified.

The report shall evaluate the options based on short-term and long-term costs, client and community security, efficiency of coordination with other service delivery systems, and how they address specific legal issues. In developing this report, the department shall invite participation by representatives of the Washington protection and advocacy system (WPAS), and shall include in the report WPAS’ position on options and recommendations submitted by the department and any additional recommendations made by WPAS. The legislature recognizes a need to improve long-term services provided to individuals with developmental disabilities who are undergoing involuntary treatment under chapter 71.05 RCW. The legislature is committed to providing resources necessary to address issues in the U.S. District Court case of Allen v. Western State Hospital.

(i) $500,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 and $160,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided solely for increased family support services and related case management support.

The secretary may transfer these amounts between subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

   f. Report to the appropriate committees of the legislature, by December 1, (1999) 2000, how the new federal child support incentive system can be used to maximize federal incentive payments and to support the greatest achievement of WorkFirst program goals. In the event that the department earns federal child support incentive payments in excess of amounts budgeted, the department shall use one-half of those additional funds to offset general fund--state allotments and one-half of those additional funds to improve child support services.

2. ($50,860,000) $43,638,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2000 and ($50,825,000) $44,156,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 are provided solely for cash assistance and other services to recipients in the general assistance--unemployable program. Each of these reports shall describe the number of current contracts for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) or WorkFirst services that the department has with community social service providers and a description of the services being provided through each of those contracts.

(5) The legislature finds that, since the passage of the federal personal responsibility and work opportunity act in 1997, Washington's public assistance population has declined dramatically, and that the currently appropriated level for the temporary assistance for needy families program is sufficient for the 1999-01 biennium. The legislature further finds that federal funding for the temporary assistance for needy families program may decrease after the current five-year block grant has expired. The legislature declares that at least $60,000,000 of the year-end balance in the federal TANF grant shall be held in reserve by the office of financial management at the close of the 1999-01 biennium.

For any school district documenting a lower certificated instructional staff ratio, the allocation shall be based on the district's actual grades K-4 certificated instructional staff ratio achieved in that school year, or the statutory minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(b), if greater;

(B) Districts at or above 51.0 certificated instructional staff per one thousand full-time equivalent students in grades K-4 may dedicate up to 1.3 of the 53.2 funding ratio to employ additional classified instructional assistants assigned to basic education classrooms in grades K-4. Additional classified instructional assistants, for the purposes of this subsection, shall be determined using the 1989-90 school year as the base year;

(C) Any district maintaining a ratio equal to or greater than 53.2 certificated instructional staff per thousand full-time equivalent students in grades K-4 may use allocations generated under this subsection (2)(a)(iii) in excess of that required to maintain the minimum ratio established under RCW 28A.150.260(2)(b) to employ additional basic education certificated instructional staff or classified instructional assistants in grades 5-6. (c)(i) On the basis of full-time equivalent enrollment in:
(A) Vocational education programs approved by the superintendent of public instruction, a maximum of 0.92 certificated instructional staff units and 0.08 certificated administrative staff units for each 19.5 full-time equivalent vocational students for the 1999-00 school year and the 2000-01 school year. Districts documenting staffing ratios of less than 1 certificated staff per 19.5 students shall be allocated the greater of the total ratio in subsections (2)(a)(i) and (iv) of this section or the actual documented ratio; and

Units calculated under (f)(ii) of this subsection shall be reduced by certificated staff units at the rate of forty-six certificated instructional staff units and four certificated administrative staff units per thousand vocational full-time equivalent students.

(g) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full-time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit; and

A school district is eligible for the learning improvement day funds for school years 1999-00 and 2000-01, only if three days have been added to the base contract in effect for the 1998-99 school year. If fewer than three days are added, the additional learning improvement allocation shall be adjusted accordingly. The additional days shall be for activities related to improving student learning consistent with education reform implementation. The length of a learning improvement day shall not be less than the length of a full day under the base contract. The superintendent of public instruction shall ensure that school districts adhere to the intent and purposes of this subsection.

(8) The salary allocation schedules established in this section are for allocation purposes only except as provided in RCW 28A.400.200(2).

Sec. 507. 1999 c 309 s 507 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR SPECIAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

General Fund--State Appropriation (FY 2000) $392,036,000

General Fund--State Appropriation (FY 2001) $393,461,000

General Fund--Federal Appropriation $148,159,000

TOTAL APPROPRIATION $933,656,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Funding for special education programs is provided on an excess cost basis, pursuant to RCW 28A.150.390. School districts shall ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that special education students receive their appropriate share of the general apportionment allocation accruing through sections 502 and 504 of this act. To the extent a school district cannot provide an appropriate education for special education students under chapter 28A.155 RCW through the general apportionment allocation, it shall provide services through the special education allocation funded in this section.

(2) Each general fund--state fiscal year appropriation includes such funds as are necessary to complete the school year ending in the fiscal year and for prior fiscal year adjustments.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds to school districts based on two categories:

The optional birth through age two program for special education eligible developmentally delayed infants and toddlers, and the mandatory special education program for special education eligible students age three to twenty-one. A "special education eligible student" means a student receiving specially designed instruction in accordance with a properly formulated individualized education program.

(4) For the 1999-00 and 2000-01 school years, the superintendent shall distribute state funds to each district based on the sum of:

(a) A district's annual average headcount enrollment of developmentally delayed infants and toddlers ages birth through two, multiplied by the district's average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student, multiplied by 1.15; and

(b) A district's annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment multiplied by the funded enrollment percent determined pursuant to subsection (((4)(e))) (5)(c) of this section, multiplied by the district's average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student multiplied by 0.9309.

(a) "Average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student" for a district shall be based on the staffing ratios required by RCW 28A.150.260 and shall not include enhancements, secondary vocational education, or small schools.

(b) "Annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment" means the resident enrollment including students enrolled through choice (RCW 28A.225.225) and students from nonhigh districts (RCW 28A.225.210) and excluding students residing in another district enrolled as part of an interdistrict cooperative program (RCW 28A.225.250).

(c) "Enrollment percent" means the district's resident special education annual average enrollment including those students counted under the special education demonstration projects, excluding the birth through age two enrollment, as a percent of the district's annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment. For the 1999-00 and the 2000-01 school years, each district's funded enrollment percent shall be the lesser of the district's actual enrollment percent for the school year for which the allocation is being determined or 12.7 percent.

(6) At the request of any interdistrict cooperative of at least 15 districts in which all excess cost services for special education students of the districts are provided by the cooperative, the maximum enrollment percent shall be 12.7, and shall be calculated in the aggregate rather than individual district units. For purposes of this subsection, the average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student shall be calculated in the aggregate rather than individual district units.

(7) A maximum of $12,000,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2000 and a maximum of $12,000,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 are provided as safety net funding for districts with demonstrated needs for state special education funding beyond the amounts provided in subsection ((2i)) (4) of this section. Safety net funding shall be awarded by the state safety net oversight committee.

(a) The safety net oversight committee shall first consider the needs of districts adversely affected by the 1995 change in the special education funding formula. Awards shall be based on the amount required to maintain the 1994-95 state special education excess cost allocation to the school district in aggregate or on a dollar per funded student basis.

(b) The committee shall then consider unusual needs of districts due to a special education population which differs significantly from the assumptions of the state funding formula. Awards shall be made to districts that convincingly demonstrate need due to the concentration and/or severity of disabilities in the district. Differences in program costs attributable to district philosophy or service delivery style are not a basis for safety net awards.

(c) The maximum allowable indirect cost for calculating safety net eligibility may not exceed the federal restricted indirect cost rate for the district plus one percent.

(d) Safety net awards shall be adjusted based on the percent of potential medicaid eligible students billed as calculated by the superintendent in accordance with Substitute Senate Bill No. 5626 (medicaid payments to schools).

(e) Safety net awards must be adjusted for any audit findings or exceptions related to special education funding.

(f) The superintendent may expend up to $100,000 per year of the amounts provided in this subsection to provide staff assistance to the committee in analyzing applications for safety net funds received by the committee.

(8) The superintendent of public instruction may adopt such rules and procedures as are necessary to administer the special education appropriation and safety net award process. Prior to revising any standards, procedures, or rules, the superintendent shall consult with the office of financial management and the fiscal committees of the legislature.

(9) The safety net oversight committee appointed by the superintendent of public instruction shall consist of:

(a) Staff of the office of superintendent of public instruction;

(b) Staff of the office of the state auditor;

(c) Staff of the office of the financial management; and

(d) One or more representatives from school districts or educational service districts knowledgeable of special education programs and funding.

(10) To the extent necessary, $5,500,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation shall be expended for safety net funding to meet the extraordinary needs of one or more individual special education students. If safety net awards to meet the extraordinary needs of one or more individual special education students exceed $5,500,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation, the superintendent shall expend all available federal discretionary funds necessary to meet this need.

General fund--state funds shall not be expended for this purpose.

(11) A maximum of $678,000 may be expended from the general fund--state appropriations to fund 5.43 full-time equivalent teachers and 2.1 full-time equivalent aides at children's orthopedic hospital and medical center. This amount is in lieu of money provided through the home and hospital allocation and the special education program.

(12) A maximum of $1,000,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation is provided for projects to provide special education students with appropriate job and independent living skills, including work experience where possible, to facilitate their successful transition out of the public school system. The funds provided by this subsection shall be from federal discretionary grants.

(13) A school district may carry over from one year to the next year up to 10 percent of general fund--state funds allocated under this program; however, carry over funds shall be expended in the special education program.

(14) The superintendent shall maintain the percentage of federal flow-through to school districts at 85 percent. In addition to other purposes, school districts may use increased federal funds for high-cost students, for purchasing regional special education services from educational service districts, and for staff development activities particularly relating to inclusion issues.

(15) A maximum of $1,200,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation may be expended by the superintendent for projects related to use of inclusion strategies by school districts for provision of special education services. The superintendent shall prepare an information database on laws, best practices, examples of programs, and recommended resources. The information may be disseminated in a variety of ways, including workshops and other staff development activities.

   xii. Development and demonstration of alternative management technologies designed to carry out the top two hazardous waste management priorities of RCW 70.105.150.

3. The following moneys shall be deposited into the local toxics control account: Those revenues which are raised by the tax imposed under RCW 82.21.030 and which are attributable to that portion of the rate equal to thirty-seven one-hundredths of one percent.

(b) Funds may also be appropriated to the department of health to implement programs to reduce testing requirements under the federal safe drinking water act for public water systems. The department of health shall reimburse the account from fees assessed under RCW 70.119A.115 by June 30, 1995.

(5) One percent of the moneys deposited into the state and local toxics control accounts shall be allocated only for public participation grants to persons who may be adversely affected by a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance and to not-for-profit public interest organizations. The primary purpose of these grants is to facilitate the participation by persons and organizations in the investigation and remedying of releases or threatened releases of hazardous substances and to implement the state's solid and hazardous waste management priorities. However, during the 1999-2001 fiscal biennium, funding may not be granted to entities engaged in lobbying activities, and applicants may not be awarded grants if their cumulative grant awards under this section exceed $200,000. No grant may exceed sixty thousand dollars. Grants may be renewed annually. Only the secretary of the department of corrections or the secretary's designee may authorize expenditures from the fund. The fund is subject to allotment procedures under chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for expenditures.

Sec. 915. RCW 76.12.110 and 1999 sp.s. c 13 s 18 are each amended to read as follows:

Any bonds issued shall constitute a first and prior claim and lien against the account for the payment of principal and interest. No sums for the above purposes shall be withdrawn or paid out of the account except upon approval of the department.

Appropriations may be made by the legislature from the forest development account to the department for the purpose of carrying on the activities of the department on state forest lands, lands managed on a sustained yield basis as provided for in RCW 79.68.040, and for reimbursement of expenditures that have been made or may be made from the resource management cost account in the management of state forest lands. For the 1999-2001 fiscal biennium, moneys from the account shall be distributed as directed in the omnibus appropriations act to the beneficiaries of the revenues derived from state forest lands. Funds that accrue to the state from such a distribution shall be deposited into the salmon recovery account. These funds shall be used for a pilot program for riparian buffer zones.

Sec. 916. RCW 50.22.-- and 2000 c 2 (SHB 3077) s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

For the two fiscal years ending June 30, 2002, the commissioner may not obligate more than sixty million dollars for training benefits. Any funds not obligated in one fiscal year may be carried forward to the next fiscal year. For each fiscal year beginning after June 30, 2002, the commissioner may not obligate more than twenty million dollars annually in addition to any funds carried over from previous fiscal years. The state building construction account appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The total appropriation is provided to the department solely to transfer from trust status or enter into thirty-year timber harvest restrictive easements for certain trust lands of state-wide significance deemed appropriate for state park, fish and wildlife habitat, natural area preserve, natural resources conservation area, open space, or recreation purposes.

(2) Property transferred under this section shall be appraised and transferred at fair market value. The value of the timber transferred shall be deposited by the department to the common school construction account in the same manner as timber revenues from other common school trust lands. No deduction shall be made for the resource management cost account under RCW 79.64.040. The value of the land transferred shall be deposited in the natural resources real property replacement account. These funds shall be expended by the department for the exclusive purpose of acquiring real property of equal value to be managed as common school trust land.

(3) Property subject to easement agreements under this section shall be appraised at fair market value both with and without the imposition of the easement. The entire difference in appraised value shall be deposited by the department to the common school construction fund in the same manner as lease revenues from other common school trust lands. No deduction shall be made for the resource management cost account under RCW 79.64.040.

(4) All reasonable costs incurred by the department to implement this section are authorized to be paid out of this appropriation. Authorized costs include the actual cost of appraisals, staff time, environmental reviews, surveys, and other similar costs.

(5) Intergrant exchanges between common school and other trust lands of equal value may occur if the exchange is in the interest of each trust, as determined by the board of natural resources.
(6) Prior to or concurrent with conveyance of these properties, the department, with full cooperation of the receiving agencies, shall execute and record a real property instrument that dedicates the transferred properties to the purposes identified in subsection (1) of this section for a minimum period of thirty years. (7) The department and receiving agencies shall work in good faith to carry out the intent of this section. However, the department or receiving agencies may remove a property from the transfer list in subsection (8) of this section if, based on new, substantive information, it is determined that transfer of the property is not in the state-wide interest of either the common school trust or the receiving agency.

(8) The appropriation in this section is provided to execute transfers or easements for the list of properties identified in LEAP capital document No. ((99-3)) 2000-4, as developed on ((April 8, 1999)) February 28, 2000, as follows: Projects in category A shall be transferred; to the extent that local funding is provided for the land value of the property, projects in category B shall be transferred; and projects in category C and remaining projects in category B may be transferred or leased as funding allows.

(9) The department shall execute trust land transfers and easements such that 90 percent of the appropriation in this section is deposited in the common school construction fund. To achieve the 90:10 ratio, the department may offset transfers of property with low timber-to-land ratios with easements on other properties.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6781

March 27, 2000

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 4, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6781 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to dairy nutrients;"

This bill refines the Dairy Nutrient Management Act that was created in the 1989 legislative session. Among other things, it creates a dairy nutrient management task force consisting of legislative, executive, federal and interest group members. Section 4 of the bill would have required the Office of Financial Management to make recommendations to the task force on funding the dairy nutrient management program. Such recommendations are more properly the function of the industry.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 4 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6781. With the exception of section 4, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6781 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, Governor

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the partial veto message on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6781 was held on the desk.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6062

March 31, 2000

To the Honorable President and Members,

The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6062 entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to sales and use tax deferral for natural gas-fired energy generating facilities sited in rural areas;"

Substitute Senate Bill No. 6062 would have provided a sales and use tax exemption on the construction of, and purchase of machinery and equipment for, natural gas-fired combined cycle electrical generating facilities of 600 megawatts or more. In particular, this bill was targeted toward the construction of a proposed power plant in Sumas.

The Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council (EFSEC) must approve any power plant that might have taken advantage of the tax incentives created by this bill, before it can be built. The EFSEC process requires that the governor make the final decision whether an energy facility may be built on the proposed site. It is important for me to emphasize that in vetoing this bill, I make no statements about the environmental impact or suitability of the proposed Sumas plant or any other power plant, currently proposed or to be proposed in the future. It would be inappropriate for me to prejudge any project.

If any decisions on power plant construction reach my desk through the EFSEC process, I will very carefully and fairly evaluate them on their merits, according to the standards required by the EFSEC statute, with the complete record before me. This bill is premature. If the Sumas power plant receives an EFSEC permit, there will be opportunities then to revisit the appropriateness of tax exemptions for its construction.

I strongly support the development of economic opportunities for rural areas and additional energy generating capacity for our state. However, the strategy employed by this bill was not the most effective or efficient use of tax dollars. If built, the proposed Sumas plant will create only 25 permanent jobs at a cost of approximately $24 million in tax exemptions.

Tax exemptions should be used judiciously with the objective of attaining the greatest return on the state's investment. This entails targeting projects that provide a significant number of jobs and stimulate economic activity in other sectors of our economy. Our existing sales tax exemption program for rural areas requires the creation of one new full-time job for every $750,000 of capital investment. By applying this model to the proposed Sumas plant, for example, 467 new full-time jobs would have to be created, based upon the $350 million estimated cost of the project.

Tax exemptions should continue to be used as a tool to encourage private sector investment in clean energy alternatives that may not yet be sufficiently profitable to attract private sector investment, and for other types of projects, including some natural gas power plants that will create large numbers of jobs and have substantial economic benefit.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6062 in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, Governor

MOTION

On motion of Senator Spanel, the veto message on Substitute Senate Bill No. 6062 was held on the desk.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Honorable Brad Owen
President of the State Senate
Legislature of the State of Washington
Olympia, Washington 98504

Dear President Owen:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration the following bill which has been partially vetoed by the Governor, together with the official veto message setting forth his objection to the section or items of the bill as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution:

Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5802;

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of the state of Washington,
MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5802

March 30, 2000

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 203, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5802 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to telecommunications contractors and installations;"

This bill requires that contractors and installers who work with fiber optic cables and other telecommunications cabling be licensed and bonded, and that their work be inspected.

Section 203 of the bill states that "[i]t is the further intent of the legislature that the delegation of authority to the director and the board under chapter…, Laws of 2000 (this act) be strictly limited to the minimum delegation necessary to administer the clear and unambiguous directives under chapter…, Laws of 2000 (this act)…". This language is vague and ambiguous, and the bill provides no definition of "minimum delegation necessary."

Tax exemptions should be used judiciously with the objective of attaining the greatest return on the state's investment. This entails targeting project that provide a significant number of jobs and stimulate economic activity in other sectors of our economy. Our existing sales tax exemption program for rural areas requires the creation of one new full-time job for every $750,000 of capital investment. By applying this model to the proposed Sumas plant, for example, 467 new full-time jobs would have to be created, based upon the $350 million estimated cost of the project.

I strongly believe that regulations should not be burdensome, and should be as minimal and as streamlined as possible. However, I have grave concerns about this language. The Department of Labor and Industries, which is charged with implementing this law, will need maximum flexibility to apply the law effectively in a rapidly changing industry. How section 203 would limit the department's authority is very unclear, and it could have led to unnecessary legal challenges.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 203 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5802.
With the exception of section 203, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5802 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, Governor

TWENTY-NINTH DAY, FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Friday, April 7, 2000

The Senate was called to order at 10:30 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Wojahn. No roll call was taken. The Sergeant at Arms Color Guard, consisting of staff members Shirley Wayland and Nina Weld, presented the Colors. Secretary of the Senate Tony Cook offered the prayer.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE
Senator Snyder: "A point of personal privilege, Madam President. Before our flag bearers leave the rostrum this morning, I just want to say that we have some major changes going on with Kandy retiring from accounting. Nina has gone down to take her place in accounting. Nina has been in the workroom since 1977, I believe, except for a short period of time when she spent the summer in Alaska with her family when her husband was logging up there. Shirley has been here since 1973, if my notes are correct here. She worked the sessions of 1973 and 1974 and in January she went to work for Senator Del Bausch. She left there and came back here in 1981.

"They both have been in the workroom and it is just amazing the amount of work they do and the long hours they put in. I go back to the 1981 session, which we all remember. I have the hours that the Legislature put in on the floor. The last week of session in 1981, the Monday session lasted from 10:00 a.m. to 12:05 a.m. the next morning. Tuesday was twelve and a half hours and Wednesday was a short day with nine and a half hours. Thursday was almost sixteen hours; Friday was sixteen hours; Saturday was seventeen hours; Sunday was nineteen hours--it was Monday morning by that time. All together, there were over one hundred and four hours for that week. That didn't mean they got to go home; they stayed and got the work ready and to be sure all the bills were engrossed and got them over to the other house. "They have been just tremendous employees. Shirley is going to be retiring in October, so this is her final session. As I mentioned, Nina has gone down to take Kandy’s position and I think she only has two or three more years and she is going to retire. We just think that these calendars and all these things show up automatically on our desks. It isn’t that automatic, it is because of their hard work that they have put in--and a lot of hard hours for the Senate.

"I know I can speak for all the members of the Senate, present and past, that we certainly appreciate and thank you for your long, long hard hours and your fine, fine work for the Senate. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The legislature finds that additional funds or other benefits can be made available to Washington regional transit authorities by facilitating their entry into sale and leaseback, leaseout and leaseback, and similar transactions that provide to private parties, in consideration for the funds or other benefits obtained by the regional transit authorities, tax benefits that are not otherwise available to regional transit authorities. The legislature further finds that such transactions have been encouraged by agencies of the federal government as ways to provide additional funds for public facilities. To facilitate such transactions for regional transit authorities, the legislature has determined that while regional transit authorities may currently have the necessary statutory authority and may currently enjoy exemptions from Washington state taxes for such transactions, an explicit statement of statutory authority and exemption from Washington state taxes is necessary and helpful for the parties to such transactions. In recognition of the complexity of such transactions, the legislature desires that the authority and exemptions provided by sections 18 through 30 of this act be subject to certain limitations and be granted for a period as specified in section 30 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 81.112 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In order to enable regional transit authorities to acquire or finance equipment or facilities, or reduce the cost of equipment or facilities, regional transit authorities may enter into sale and leaseback, leaseout and leaseback, and other similar transactions with respect to equipment, facilities, and other real and personal property. In connection with any such transaction, a regional transit authority may execute, as it considers appropriate, contracts, agreements, notes, security agreements, conveyances, bills of sale, deeds, leases as lessee or lessor, and currency hedges, defeasance arrangements, interest rate, currency or other swap transactions, one or more payment undertaking agreements, and agreements relating to foreign and domestic currency. These agreements or instruments must have terms, maturities, durations, provisions as to governing laws, grants of security interests, and other provisions that are approved by the board of the regional transit authority.

(2) "Payment undertaking agreement" means one or more agreements, undertakings or arrangements under which all or a portion of the funds generated by a sale and leaseback, leaseout and leaseback, or other similar transaction are directed or paid to a financial institution, insurance company, or other entity that agrees to meet or fulfill, in consideration for the funds, some or all of the obligations of the regional transit authority, or any public corporation or other entity created under section 20 of this act, to make future rent, debt service, or purchase price installment payments in connection with the transaction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 81.112 RCW to read as follows:

Transactions undertaken under section 18 of this act are subject to the following conditions:

(1) The financial institution, insurance company, or other entity that enters into a payment undertaking agreement with the regional transit authority or public development corporation or entity created under section 20 of this act as a counterparty must have a rating from at least two nationally recognized credit rating agencies, as of the date of execution of the payment undertaking agreement, that is within the two highest long-term investment grade rating categories, without regard to subcategories, or the obligations of the counterparty must be guaranteed by a financial institution, insurance company, or other entity with that credit rating. The payment undertaking agreement must require that the obligations of the counterparty or the guarantor, as the case may be, must be collateralized by collateral of a type and in an amount specified by the governing body of the regional transit authority if the credit ratings of the counterparty or its guarantor fall below the level required by this subsection.

(2) The amount to be paid by the counterparties under payment undertaking agreements for a transaction under the terms of the agreements, when combined with the amount of securities, deposits, and investments set aside by the regional transit authority for payment in respect of the transactions, together with interest or other earnings on the securities, deposits, or investments, must be sufficient to pay when due all amounts required to be paid by the regional transit authority, or public corporation or entity created under section 20 of this act, as rent, debt service, or installments of purchase price, as the case may be, over the full term of the transaction plus any optional purchase price due under the transaction. A certification by an independent financial expert, banker, or certified public accountant, who is not an employee of the regional transit authority or public corporation or entity created under section 20 of this act, certifying compliance with this requirement is conclusive evidence that the arrangements, by their terms, comply with the requirement under this subsection on the sufficiency of the amount.

(3) The payment undertaking agreements, and all other basic and material agreements entered into in connection with the transactions, must specify that the parties to the agreements consent to the jurisdiction of state courts of Washington for disputes arising out of the agreements and agree not to contest venue before such courts. Regardless of the choice of law specified in the foregoing agreements, the agreements must acknowledge that the regional transit authority or public development corporation or entity created under section 20 of this act that is a party to the agreements is an entity created under the laws of the state of Washington whose power and authority and limitations and restrictions on the power and authority are governed by the laws of the state of Washington.

Payment undertaking agreements that meet the foregoing requirement must be treated for all relevant purposes as agreements under which future services are performed for a present payment and shall not be treated as payment agreements within the meaning of chapter 39.96 RCW.

NEW SECTION Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 81.112 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 82.12 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to the use of tangible personal property by a seller/lessee to a lessor under a sale/leaseback agreement under section 18 of this act in respect to tangible personal property used by the seller/lessee, or to the purchase amount paid by the lessee under an option to purchase at the end of the lease term, but only if the seller/lessee previously paid any tax otherwise due under this chapter or chapter 82.12 RCW at the time of acquisition of the tangible personal property.

Persons shall be treated as acting in concert when they have a relationship with each other such that one person influences or controls the actions of another through common ownership; and

When persons are not commonly owned or controlled, they shall be treated as acting in concert only when the unity with which the purchasers have negotiated and will consummate the transfer of ownership interests supports a finding that they are acting as a single entity. If the acquisitions are completely independent, with each purchaser buying without regard to the identity of the other purchasers, then the acquisitions shall be considered separate acquisitions.

The term "sale" shall not include:

A transfer by gift, devise, or inheritance.
