(2) If the examination shows, to the satisfaction of the disability board, that the member is physically or mentally disabled from the further performance of duty, that such disability was not incurred in the line of duty, and that such disability had been continuous from the discontinuance of service, the disability board shall enter its written decision and order, accompanied by appropriate findings of fact and by conclusions evidencing compliance with this chapter, granting the member a disability retirement allowance. OTHERWISE, if the member is not found by the disability board to be so disabled, the application shall be denied pursuant to a similar written decision and order, subject to appeal to the director in accordance with section 235 of this act: PROVIDED, That in any order granting a nonduty disability retirement allowance, the disability board shall make a finding that the disability was not incurred in the line of duty.

(3) Every order of a disability board granting a nonduty disability retirement allowance shall immediately be reviewed by the director except the finding that the disability was not incurred in the line of duty. The director may affirm the decision of the disability board or remand the case for further proceedings; or the director may reverse the decision of the disability board if the director finds the disability board's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

(a) In violation of constitutional provisions;
(b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the disability board;
(c) Made upon unlawful procedure;
(d) Affected by other error of law;
(e) Clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in this chapter; or

If at the time that the disability ceases the member is over the age of fifty, he or she shall then receive either disability retirement allowance or retirement for service allowance, whichever is greater.

(4) Benefits under this section for a disability that is incurred while in other employment will be reduced by any amount the member receives or is entitled to receive from 'workers' compensation', group insurance, other pension plan, or any other similar source provided by another employer on account of the same disability.

(5) A member retired for disability shall be subject to periodic examinations by a physician approved by the disability board prior to attainment of age fifty, pursuant to rules adopted by the director under section 219 of this act. (2) Every order of a disability board determining that a member's disability has ceased pursuant to section 222(3) of this act shall immediately be reviewed by the director. (c) Made upon unlawful procedure;
(d) Affected by other error of law;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 224. Reexaminations of disability beneficiaries. (1) Upon the basis of reexaminations of members on disability retirement as provided in section 222 of this act, the disability board shall determine whether such disability beneficiary is still unable to perform his or her duties either physically or mentally for service in the department where he or she was employed.
(2) If the Disability Board determines that the beneficiary is not so incapacitated, the Retirement Allowance shall be canceled and the member shall be restored to duty in the same civil service rank, if any, held by the beneficiary at the time of his or her retirement or if unable to perform the duties of that rank, then, at his or her request, in such other like or lesser rank as may be or become open and available, the duties of which he or she is then able to perform. In no event, shall a beneficiary previously drawing a Disability Allowance be returned or be restored to duty at a salary or rate of pay less than the current salary attached to the rank or position held by the beneficiary at the date of retirement for disability. If the Disability Board determines that the beneficiary is able to return to service he or she shall be entitled to notice and a hearing, both the notice and the hearing shall comply with the requirements of Chapter 34.05 RCW.

(3) Should a Disability beneficiary reenter service and be eligible for membership in the retirement system, the Retirement Allowance shall be canceled and he or she shall immediately become a member of the retirement system.

(4) Should any disability beneficiary under age fifty refuse to submit to examination, the Retirement Allowance shall be discontinued until withdrawal of such refusal, and should such refusal continue for one year or more, the Retirement Allowance shall be canceled.

(5) Should the Disability Retirement Allowance of any disability beneficiary be canceled for any cause other than reentrance into service or retirement for service, he or she shall be paid the excess, if any, of the accumulated contributions at the time of retirement over all payments made on his or her behalf under this chapter.

(6) Any person feeling aggrieved by an order of a Disability Board determining that a beneficiary's Disability has not ceased, pursuant to section 222(3) of this act has the right to appeal the order or determination to the Director. The director shall have no jurisdiction to entertain the appeal unless a notice of appeal is filed with the director within thirty days following the rendition of the order by the Disability Board. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be served upon the director and the applicable Disability Board and, within ninety days thereof, the Disability Board shall certify its decision and order which shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, together with a transcript of all proceedings in connection therewith, to the director for review. New Section. Sec. 225. Sickness or Disability Benefits—Medical Services. (1) Whenever any active member, or any member hereafter retired, on account of service, sickness, or disability, not caused or brought on by dissipation or abuse, of which the Disability Board shall be judge, is confined in any hospital or in home, and whether or not so confined, requires medical services, the employer shall pay for the active or retired member the necessary medical services not payable from some other source as provided for in subsection (2) of this section. In the case of active or retired fire fighters the employer may make the payments provided for in this section from the Firemen's Pension Fund established pursuant to RCW 41.16.050 where the fund had been established prior to March 1, 1970. If this Pension Fund is depleted, the employer shall have the obligation to pay all benefits payable under Chapters 41.16 and 41.18 RCW.

(a) The Disability Board in all cases may have the active or retired member suffering from such sickness or disability examined at any time by a licensed physician or physicians, to be appointed by the Disability Board, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature and extent of the sickness or disability, the physician or physicians to report to the Disability Board the result of the examination within three days thereafter. (b) The Disability Board shall designate the medical services available to any sick or disabled member.

(2) The medical services payable under this section will be reduced by any amount received or eligible to be received by the member under workers' compensation, social security including the changes incorporated under Public Law 89-97, insurance provided by another employer, other pension plan, or any other similar source. Failure to apply for coverage if otherwise eligible under the provisions of Public Law 89-97 shall not be deemed a refusal of payment of benefits thereby enabling collection of charges under the provisions of this chapter.

(3) Upon making the payments provided for in subsection (1) of this section, the employer shall be subrogated to all rights of the member against any third party who may be held liable for the member's injuries or for payment of the cost of medical services in connection with a member's sickness or disability to the extent necessary to recover the amount of payments made by the employer.

(4) Any employer under this chapter, either singly, or jointly with any other such employer or employers through an association thereof as provided for in Chapter 48.21 RCW, may provide for all or part of one or more plans of group hospitalization and medical aid insurance to cover any of its employees who are members of the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, and/or retired former employees who were, before retirement, members of the retirement system, through contracts with regularly constituted insurance carriers, with health maintenance organizations as defined in Chapter 48.46 RCW, or with health care service contractors as defined in Chapter 48.44 RCW. Benefits payable under the plan or plans shall be deemed to be amounts received or eligible to be received by the active or retired member under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) Any employer, jointly with any other employer, or employers of the state, may participate in the medical benefits risk pool established under Chapter 41.--RCW (sections 301 through 310 of this act).
(6) Any employer under this chapter may, at its discretion, elect to reimburse a retired former employee under this chapter for premiums the retired former employee has paid for medical insurance that supplements Medicare, including in-patient care. The reimbursement for the purpose of Medicare Part B coverage shall be treated as death benefits for purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 226. DEATH BENEFITS--DUTY CONNECTED. (1) In the event of the duty connected death of any member who is in active service, or who has vested under section 216 of this act with twenty or more service credit years of service, or who is on duty connected disability leave or retired for duty connected disability, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to receive a monthly allowance equal to fifty percent of the final average salary at the date of death if active, or the amount of retirement allowance the vested member would have received at age fifty, or the amount of the retirement allowance such retired member was receiving at the time of death if retired for duty connected disability. The amount of this allowance will be increased five percent of final average salary for each child as defined in section 202(7) of this act, subject to a maximum combined allowance of sixty percent of final average salary: PROVIDED, that if the child or children is or are in the care of a legal guardian, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the child's legal guardian or, in the absence of a legal guardian and if the member has created a trust for the benefit of the child or children, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the trust.

(2) If at the time of the duty connected death of a vested member with twenty or more service credit years of service as provided in subsection (1) of this section or a member retired for duty connected disability, the surviving spouse has not been lawfully married to such member for one year prior to retirement or separation from service if a vested member, the surviving spouse shall not be entitled to receive the benefits under this section: PROVIDED, that if a member dies as a result of a disability incurred in the line of duty, then if he or she was married at the time he or she was disabled, the surviving spouse shall be eligible to receive the benefits under this section.

(3) If there be no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits at the time of such member's duty connected death, then the child or children of such member shall receive a monthly allowance equal to thirty percent of final average salary for one child and an additional ten percent for each additional child subject to a maximum combined payment, under this subsection, of sixty percent of final average salary. When there cease to be any eligible children as defined in section 202(7) of this act, there shall be paid to the legal heirs of the member the excess, if any, of accumulated contributions of the member at the time of death over all payments made to survivors on his or her behalf under this chapter: PROVIDED, that payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one. If the member has created a trust for the benefit of the child or children, the payment shall be made to the trust.

(4) If in the event that there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits under this section, and that there be no child or children eligible to receive benefits under this section, then the accumulated contributions shall be paid to the estate of the member.

(5) If a surviving spouse receiving benefits under the provisions of this section thereafter dies and there are children as defined in section 202(7) of this act, payment to the spouse shall cease and the child or children shall receive the benefits as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(6) The payment provided by this section shall become due the day following the date of death and payments shall be retroactive to that date.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 227. DEATH BENEFITS--NONDUTY CONNECTED. The amount of this allowance will be increased five percent of final average salary for each child as defined in section 202(7) of this act, subject to a maximum combined allowance of sixty percent of final average salary: PROVIDED, that if the child or children is or are in the care of a legal guardian, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the child's legal guardian or, in the absence of a legal guardian and if the member has created a trust for the benefit of the child or children, payment of the increase attributable to each child will be made to the trust.

(2) If at the time of the death of a vested member with twenty or more service credit years of service as provided in subsection (1) of this section or a member retired for service or disability, the surviving spouse has not been lawfully married to such member for one year prior to retirement or separation from service if a vested member, the surviving spouse shall not be entitled to receive the benefits under this section.

(3) If there be no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits at the time of such member's death, then the child or children of such member shall receive a monthly allowance equal to thirty percent of final average salary for one child and an additional ten percent for each additional child subject to a maximum combined payment, under this subsection, of sixty percent of final average salary. When there cease to be any eligible children as defined in section 202(7) of this act, there shall be paid to the legal heirs of the member the excess, if any, of accumulated contributions of the member at the time of death over all payments made to survivors on his or her behalf under this chapter: PROVIDED, that payments under this subsection to children shall be prorated equally among the children, if more than one. If the member has created a trust for the benefit of the child or children, the payment shall be made to the trust.

(4) In the event that there is no surviving spouse eligible to receive benefits under this section, and that there be no child or children eligible to receive benefits under this section, then the accumulated contributions shall be paid to the estate of the member.

(5) If a surviving spouse receiving benefits under the provisions of this section thereafter dies and there are children as defined in section 202(7) of this act, payment to the spouse shall cease and the child or children shall receive the benefits as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(6) The payment provided by this section shall become due the day following the date of death and payments shall be retroactive to that date.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 228. Ex spouse qualifying as surviving spouse—When. (1) An ex spouse of a retiree shall qualify as surviving spouse under section 228 of this act if the ex spouse:

(a) Has been provided benefits under any currently effective court decree of dissolution or legal separation or in any court order or court-approved property settlement agreement incident to any court decree of dissolution or legal separation entered after the member’s retirement and prior to December 31, 1979; and

(b) Was married to the retiree for at least thirty years, including at least twenty years prior to the member’s retirement or separation from service if a vested member.

(2) If two or more persons are eligible for a surviving spouse benefit under this subsection, benefits shall be divided between the surviving spouses based on the percentage of total service credit the member accrued during each marriage.

(3) This section shall apply retroactively.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 229. Refund of contributions on discontinuance of service—Reentry. (1) Should service of a member be discontinued except by death, disability, or retirement, the member shall, upon application thereafter, be paid the accumulated contributions within sixty days after the day of application and the rights to all benefits as a member shall cease: PROVIDED, THAT any member with at least five years’ service may elect the provisions of section 216 (2) of this act.

(2) Any member whose contributions have been paid in accordance with subsection (1) of this section and who reenters the service of an employer shall upon the restoration of withdrawn contributions, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of service following resumption of employment, then receive credit toward retirement for the period of previous service which these contributions are to cover.

(3) If the member fails to meet the time limitations of subsection (2) of this section, the member may make the payment required under RCW 41.50.165 (2) prior to retirement. The member shall then receive credit toward retirement for the period of previous service that the withdrawn contributions cover.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 230. Credit for military service. Each person affected by this chapter who at the time of entering the armed services was a member of this system or plan 1 under chapter 41.26 RCW, and has honorably served in the armed services of the United States, shall have added to the period of service as computed under this chapter, the period of service in the armed forces: PROVIDED, THAT such credited service shall not exceed five years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 231. Credit for service under prior pension system—Restoration of withdrawn contributions. If a member of this retirement system served as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter under a prior pension system and that service is not creditable to this retirement system because the member withdrew the contributions plus accrued interest from the prior pension system, the member’s prior service as a law enforcement officer shall be credited to this retirement system if the member pays the retirement system the amount under RCW 41.50.165 (2) prior to retirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 232. Credit for service under prior pension system—Service not covered under prior system. If a member’s prior service as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter under a prior pension system is not creditable because, although employed in a position covered by a prior pension act, the member had not yet become a member of the pension system governed by the act, the member’s prior service as a law enforcement officer or fire fighter shall be creditable if the member pays to the plan the amount set forth under RCW 41.50.165 (2) prior to retirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 233. Transfer of service credit from other retirement system—Irrevocable election allowed. (a) If the individual is employed by an employer in an eligible position, as of July 1, 1997, the election to transfer service must be filed in writing with the department no later than one year from the date they are employed by an employer in an eligible position.

(b) An individual transferring service under this section forfeits the rights to all benefits as a member of the restated law enforcement officers’ and fire fighters’ retirement system and will be permanently excluded from membership.

(3) Any individual choosing to transfer service under this section will have transferred to their current retirement system and plan: (a) All the individual’s accumulated contributions; (b) An amount sufficient to ensure that the employer contribution rate in the individual’s current system and plan will not increase due to the transfer; and (c) All applicable months of service, as defined in section 202 (14) of this act.

(4) If an individual has withdrawn contributions from the law enforcement officers’ and fire fighters’ retirement system plan 1 or the plan established by this chapter, the individual may restore the contributions, together with interest as determined by the director, and recover the service represented by the contributions for the sole purpose of transferring service under this section. The contributions must be restored before the transfer can occur and the restoration must be completed within the time limitations specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(5) Any service transferred under this section does not apply to the eligibility requirements for military service credit as defined in RCW 41.40.170 (3) or 43.43.260 (3).

(6) If an individual does not meet the time limitations of subsection (1) of this section, the individual may elect to restore any withdrawn contributions and transfer service under this section by paying the amount required under subsection (3) (b) of this section less any employee contributions transferred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 234. Service credit for paid leave of absence—Application to elected officials of labor organizations. (1) A member who takes a paid leave of absence authorized by a member’s employer shall continue to receive service credit as provided under this chapter.

(2) A member who receives compensation from an employer while on an authorized leave of absence to serve as an elected official of a labor organization, and whose employer is reimbursed by the labor organization for the COMPENSATION PAID TO THE MEMBER DURING THE PERIOD OF ABSENCE, MAY ALSO BE CONSIDERED TO BE ON A PAID LEAVE OF ABSENCE. THIS SUBSECTION SHALL ONLY APPLY IF THE MEMBER’S LEAVE OF ABSENCE IS AUTHORIZED BY A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT THAT PROVIDES THAT THE MEMBER RETAINS SENIORITY RIGHTS DURING THE PERIOD OF LEAVE. THE BASIC SALARY REPORTED FOR A MEMBER WHO ESTABLISHES SERVICE CREDIT UNDER THIS SUBSECTION MAY NOT BE GREATER THAN THE SALARY PAID TO THE HIGHEST PAID JOB CLASS COVERED BY THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT.

ANY PERSON FEELING AFFECTED BY ANY ORDER OR DETERMINATION OF A DISABILITY BOARD DENYING DISABILITY LEAVE OR DISABILITY RETIREMENT, OR CANCELING A PREVIOUSLY GRANTED DISABILITY RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE, SHALL HAVE THE RIGHT TO APPEAL THE ORDER OR DETERMINATION TO THE DIRECTOR. THE DIRECTOR SHALL HAVE NO JURISDICTION TO ENTERTAIN THE APPEAL UNLESS A NOTICE OF APPEAL IS FILED WITH THE DIRECTOR WITHIN THIRTY DAYS FOLLOWING THE RENDITION OF THE ORDER BY THE APPLICABLE DISABILITY BOARD. A COPY OF THE NOTICE OF APPEAL SHALL BE SERVED UPON THE DIRECTOR AND THE APPLICABLE DISABILITY BOARD AND, WITHIN NINETY DAYS THEREOF, THE DISABILITY BOARD SHALL CERTIFY ITS DECISION AND ORDER WHICH SHALL INCLUDE FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, TOGETHER WITH A TRANSCRIPT OF ALL PROCEEDINGS IN CONNECTION THERewith, TO THE DIRECTOR FOR REVIEW. UPON REVIEW OF THE RECORD, THE DIRECTOR MAY AFFIRM THE ORDER OF THE DISABILITY BOARD OR MAY REMAND THE CASE FOR SUCH FURTHER PROCEEDINGS AS HE OR SHE MAY DIRECT, IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH RULES OF PROCEDURE AS THE DIRECTOR SHALL ADOPT.

THE NOTICE OF HEARING SHALL SET FORTH IN FULL DETAIL THE GROUNDS UPON WHICH SUCH PERSON CONSIDERS SUCH DECISION UNJUST OR UNLAWFUL AND SHALL INCLUDE EVERY ISSUE TO BE CONSIDERED, AND IT MUST CONTAIN A DETAILED STATEMENT OF FACTS UPON WHICH SUCH PERSON REQUIRES IN SUPPORT THEREOF. (1) “CONSUMER PRICE INDEX” MEANS, FOR EACH CALENDAR YEAR, THAT YEAR’S AVERAGE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX FOR THE SEATTLE, WASHINGTON AREA FOR URBAN WAGE EARNERS AND CLERICAL WORKERS, ALL ITEMS (1957 = 100), COMPILED BY THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS OF THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR;

(2) “RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE” MEANS THE RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE PROVIDED FOR IN SECTIONS 217 AND 222 OF THIS ACT, AND THE MONTHLY ALLOWANCE PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 226 OF THIS ACT.

ON APRIL 1ST OF EACH YEAR, EVERY RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE WHICH HAS BEEN IN EFFECT FOR MORE THAN ONE YEAR SHALL BE ADJUSTED TO THAT DOLLAR AMOUNT WHICH EXCEEDS ITS ORIGINAL DOLLAR AMOUNT BY THE PERCENTAGE DIFFERENCE WHICH THE DEPARTMENT FINDS TO EXIST BETWEEN THE INDEX FOR THE PREVIOUS CALENDAR YEAR AND THE INDEX FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE RETIREMENT DATE OF THE PERSON TO WHOM, OR ON BEHALF OF WHOM, SUCH RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE IS BEING PAID.

FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, “BASIC ALLOWANCE” MEANS THAT PORTION OF A TOTAL RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE, AND ANY COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENT THEREON, ATTRIBUTABLE TO A MEMBER (INDIVIDUALLY) AND SHALL NOT INCLUDE THE INCREASED AMOUNTS ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE EXISTENCE OF A CHILD OR CHILDREN. IN THOSE CASES WHERE A CHILD CEASES TO BE QUALIFIED AS AN ELIGIBLE CHILD, SO AS TO LESSEN THE TOTAL ALLOWANCE, THE ALLOWANCE SHALL, AT THAT TIME, BE REDUCED TO THE BASIC ALLOWANCE PLUS THE AMOUNT ATTRIBUTABLE FOR THE APPROPRIATE NUMBER OF ELIGIBLE CHILDREN. IN THOSE CASES WHERE A CHILD QUALIFIES AS AN ELIGIBLE CHILD SUBSEQUENT TO THE RETIREMENT OF A MEMBER SO AS TO INCREASE THE TOTAL ALLOWANCE PAYABLE, SUCH INCREASED ALLOWANCE SHALL AT THE TIME OF THE NEXT AND APPROPRIATE SUBSEQUENT COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENTS, BE CONSIDERED THE ORIGINAL DOLLAR AMOUNT OF THE ALLOWANCE.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 239. INCREASE IN PRESENTLY PAYABLE BENEFITS FOR SERVICE OR DISABILITY AUTHORIZED. ALL BENEFITS PRESENTLY PAYABLE PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF RCW 41.20.050, 41.20.060, AND 41.20.080 AS SUCH RCW SECTIONS EXISTED PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE AMENDMENT OF SUCH RCW SECTIONS BY SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, CHAPTER 191, LAWS OF 1961 TO PERSONS WHO RETIRED PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE 1961 AMENDATORY ACT, SHALL BE INCREASED ANNUALLY AS PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION. THE LOCAL PENSION BOARD SHALL MEET SUBSEQUENT TO MARCH 31ST BUT PRIOR TO JUNE 30TH OF EACH YEAR FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADJUSTING BENEFIT ALLOWANCES PAYABLE PURSUANT TO RCW 41.20.050, 41.20.060, AND 41.20.080. THE LOCAL BOARD SHALL DETERMINE THE INCREASE IN THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX BETWEEN JANUARY 1ST AND JULY 1ST OF THE PREVIOUS YEAR AND INCREASE IN DOLLAR AMOUNT THE BENEFITS PAYABLE SUBSEQUENT TO JULY 1ST OF THE YEAR IN WHICH THE BOARD MAKES SUCH DETERMINATION BY A DOLLAR AMOUNT PROPORTIONATE TO THE INCREASE IN THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX PROVIDED, THAT REGARDLESS OF THE CHANGE IN THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX, SUCH INCREASE SHALL BE AT LEAST TWO PERCENT EACH YEAR SUCH ADJUSTMENT IS MADE.

EACH YEAR EFFECTIVE WITH THE JULY PAYMENT ALL BENEFITS SPECIFIED IN THIS SECTION, SHALL BE INCREASED AS AUTHORIZED BY THIS SECTION. THIS BENEFIT INCREASE SHALL BE PAID MONTHLY AS PART OF THE REGULAR PENSION PAYMENT AND SHALL BE CUMULATIVE.

FOR THE PURPOSE OF THIS SECTION, “CONSUMER PRICE INDEX” MEANS, FOR ANY CALENDAR YEAR, THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX FOR THE SEATTLE, WASHINGTON AREA AS COMPILED BY THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS OF THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 240. INCREASE IN CERTAIN PRESENTLY PAYABLE DEATH BENEFITS AUTHORIZED. ALL BENEFITS PRESENTLY PAYABLE PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF RCW 41.20.085 WHICH ARE NOT RELATED TO THE AMOUNT OF CURRENT SALARY ATTACHED TO THE POSITION HELD BY THE DECEASED MEMBER SHALL BE INCREASED ANNUALLY IN THE SAME MANNER AND TO THE SAME EXTENT AS PROVIDED FOR PURSUANT TO SECTION 239 OF THIS ACT.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 241. DECLARATION OF POLICY RESPECTING BENEFITS FOR INJURY OR DEATH—CIVIL ACTIONS ABOLISHED. THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON HEREBY DECLARES THAT THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN MEMBERS OF THE RESTATED LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS’ AND FIRE FIGHTERS’ RETIREMENT SYSTEM AND THEIR GOVERNMENTAL EMPLOYERS IS SIMILAR TO THAT OF WORKERS TO THEIR EMPLOYERS AND THAT THE SURE AND CERTAIN RELIEF GRANTED BY THIS CHAPTER IS DESIRABLE, AND AS BENEFICIAL TO SUCH LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND FIRE FIGHTERS AS WORKERS’ COMPENSATION COVERAGE IS TO PERSONS COVERED BY TITLE 51 RCW. THE LEGISLATURE FURTHER DECLARES THAT REMOVAL OF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND FIRE FIGHTERS FROM WORKERS’ COMPENSATION COVERAGE UNDER TITLE 51 RCW Necessitates the (1) continuance of sure and certain relief for personal injuries incurred in the course of employment or occupational disease, which the Legislature finds to be accomplished by the provisions of this chapter and (2) protection for the governmental employer from actions at law, and to this end the Legislature further declares that the benefits and remedies conferred by this chapter upon law enforcement officers and fire fighters covered under this chapter shall be to the exclusion of any other remedy, proceeding, or compensation for personal injuries or sickness, caused by the governmental employer except as otherwise provided by this chapter; and to that end all civil actions and civil causes of actions by such law enforcement officers and fire fighters against their governmental employers for personal injuries or sickness are hereby abolished, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 242. CAUSE OF ACTION FOR INJURY OR DEATH, WHEN. IF INJURY OR DEATH RESULTS TO A MEMBER FROM THE INTENTIONAL OR NEGLECTFUL ACT OR OMISSION OF A MEMBER’S GOVERNMENTAL EMPLOYER, THE MEMBER, THE WIDOW, WIDOWER, CHILD, OR DEPENDENT OF THE MEMBER SHALL HAVE THE PRIVILEGE TO BENEFIT UNDER THIS CHAPTER AND ALSO HAVE CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST THE GOVERNMENTAL EMPLOYER AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED BY LAW, FOR ANY EXCESS OF DAMAGES OVER THE AMOUNT RECEIVED OR RECEIVABLE UNDER THIS CHAPTER.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 243. Sections 1 through 10 and 201 through 242 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 41 RCW, to be designated chapter 41.26A RCW.

PART III

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. The purpose of this chapter is to establish a risk assumption program whereby employers of active and retired members of the restated law enforcement officers’ and fire fighters’ retirement system under chapter 41.26A RCW voluntarily enter into membership in a risk pool for the purpose of sharing the noninsured medical costs of long-term care and major medical services for retired members of the retirement system. Such long-term care and major medical services are those required under chapter 41.26A RCW and approved by city and county disability boards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 302. The definitions in this section apply to this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Contributions so collected shall be paid into the OASI contribution (WAP) account in partial discharge of the liability of such political subdivision or instrumentality under paragraph (a) of this subsection. The agencies shall also develop indicators of performance, stated in terms of expected results, to measure the agencies' progress in achieving the agencies' goals.

The task force shall include the following members in addition to the department of licensing: The Washington state tow truck association; the Washington state auto dealers; the independent towers of Washington; the Washington state patrol; and representatives of two local law enforcement agencies.

The task force shall also consider who bears liability for abandoned vehicles as well as the issue of impounding a registered owner’s car when someone other than the owner is driving.

NEW SECTION Sec. 603. The joint legislative audit and review committee shall conduct a performance audit to evaluate the advantages and disadvantages of removing the aviation division from the department of transportation and creating a Washington state department of aviation. At a minimum the evaluation must include: (1) A survey of aviation division customers to determine whether the current aviation division meets the needs of those customers; (2) A comparison of procedures, regulations, and requirements of the Federal Aviation Administration and the Federal Highway Administration to determine if the federal laws governing the aviation division conflict with those governing the department of transportation; (3) An analysis of the department of transportation’s processes to determine whether the creation of a separate aviation department would result in a cost savings to the state; and (4) A financial analysis to determine if the aviation fuel tax, aircraft registration fees, and other revenue from aviation services would enable a separate aviation division to operate without additional state resources. The joint legislative audit and review committee must report its findings to the legislature and the office of financial management by December 1, 2002.

NEW SECTION Sec. 604. The appropriations assumed in sections 217 and 220 of this act are based upon the project list within the transportation executive information system, capital projects and facilities reporting system known as 2001-03 Senate Floor Highway Construction Program Current Law Budget-Special Session, dated April 27, 2001.

(1) For the purposes of this section only, "assault" means an act by a motorist that results in physical injury to an employee of the department while engaged in highway construction or maintenance activities along a roadway right-of-way (fence line to fence line, landscaped areas) or in the loading and unloading of passenger vehicles in service of the vessel as a maritime employee not covered under chapter 51.32 RCW or engaged in those work activities as a Washington State Ferries terminal employee covered under chapter 51.32 RCW.
(2) In recognition of the nature of employment in departmental highway construction or maintenance activities and by the Washington State Ferries, this section provides a supplementary program to reimburse employees of the department for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of assault by motorists. This program is limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(3) An employee is entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section only if the secretary finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) A motorist has assaulted the employee who is engaged in highway construction or maintenance along a roadway right-of-way (fence line to fence line, landscaped areas) or service of the vessel as a maritime employee or terminal employee engaged in the loading or unloading of passenger vehicles and as a result the employee has sustained demonstrated physical injuries that have required the employee to miss one or more days of work;

(b) The assault is not attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment; and

(c) The department of labor and industries has approved the employee's workers' compensation application under chapter 51.32 RCW, or for maritime employees the department of transportation risk management office has approved maintenance and cure benefits under 46 U.S.C. Sec. 688 et seq.

(4) The reimbursement authorized under this section is as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days will not be reduced for the workdays missed. The injured worker who qualifies for and receives assault benefits will also receive full standard benefits (vacation leave, sick leave, health insurance, etc.) if uninjured;

(b) For an employee covered by chapter 51.32 RCW, for each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee will receive the full amount of the injured worker's net pay at the time of injury; and

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, or under federal maritime law benefits, including the Jones Act, for an employee deemed a maritime employee assigned to work in service of the vessel or a nonmaritime terminal employee covered under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee will be reimbursed in an amount that, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving no more than full net pay (gross pay less mandatory and voluntary deductions) for the workdays missed.

(5) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury. No application for assault benefits is valid nor may a claim be enforced unless it was made within one year after the day upon which the injury occurred.

(6) The employee is not entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (4) of this section for a workday for which the secretary or an applicable designee finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW or federal maritime law, including the Jones Act.

(7) The reimbursement may be made only for absences that the secretary or an applicable designee believes are justified.

(8) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she will continue to be classified as a state employee, and the reimbursement amount is considered as salary or wages.

(9) The department shall make all reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section.

(10) Nothing in this section precludes the department from recovering the supplemental payments authorized by this section from the assaulting motorist, and that recovery is considered exclusive of recovery under chapter 51.24 RCW.

(11) If the legislature revokes the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeals this section, no affected employee is entitled after that to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.

Third Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5327, under suspension of the rules, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

I cast my vote today in favor of Third Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5327, the current law transportation budget, with grave reservations. I recognize the legitimacy of the proposition, implicit in this bill, that no new project should be undertaken without the authorization of the revenue necessary to pay for it. Similarly, I recognize that recent ferry fare increases are intended to maintain current levels of service, not to expand service. The assertion is that restoration of necessary operations on the Tahlequah--Point Defiance ferry run will come from new revenue approved later in this special session and/or at the polls this fall. However, despite my personal willingness to immediately vote for a new transportation package, I strongly question whether the will exists among a majority of members in the other body to pass such a revenue measure. I also strongly question whether the restoration of service on an existing ferry run should be defined as a "new project." Finally, I will not support any new state transportation revenue package that does not include restoration of service on the Tahlequah--Point Defiance ferry run.

Senator Dow Constantine, Thirty-Fourth District

MOTION

On motion of Senator Honeyford, Senator Long was excused.

President Owen assumed the chair.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Johnson that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 contains two subjects in violation of Senate Rule 25, the President finds that this rule is taken verbatim from Article II, Section 19 of the State Constitution. In 1998, the President ruled, in interpreting Senate Rule 25, that it is appropriate to rely on decisions by the Supreme Court interpreting Article II, Section 19.

"In 1991, the Supreme Court held without dissent in Legislature v. Locke that under Article II, Section 19, substantive law may not be included within an omnibus appropriations measure. The court stated: 'We decline to adopt a categorical definition of 'substantive law,' but where the policy set forth in the budget has been treated in a separate substantive bill, its duration extends beyond the two year time period of the budget, or the policy defines rights or eligibility for services, such factors may certainly indicate substantive law is present. These are not the exclusive factors, however.'

"In addressing Senator Snyder's argument about the previous practices of the Senate, the President finds that the change in the Supreme Court's position in Locke dictates that prior Senate practice on the subject is no longer helpful in assisting the President in this question. In applying the Locke test, the President finds that Section 514 (17) of the budget bill contains some mandates that exceed the duration of the budget and some that do not. This factor is not conclusive. However, there is no question whatsoever that the policy set forth in Section 514 (17) has been treated in a substantive bill, namely Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5625. Extraordinarily, Section 514 (17) provides that if Engrossed Substitute Bill No. 5625 does not pass, then its provisions shall be adopted in the budget bill. The President need not even look behind Section 514 (17) to make a determination. Senator Brown argues that this is 'typical' budget language. The President disagrees. "For this reason, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 does violate Senate Rule 25 and that Senator Johnson's point of order is well taken."

The President ruled that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 was out of order.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Costa: “I rise to a point of personal privilege, Madam President. I’m sorry, people are hollering for me, because I cannot holler to get your attention. I just wanted to take a moment, because it is hard to get a word in edgewise with what we have going on. Most of you know that on the seventeenth of May, my mother entered the hospital in an emergency situation. On the eighteenth of May, we got word that her father, her ninety-six year old father and my grandfather had died. On the twenty-fourth of May, my fifty-nine year old mother passed away. “My mom and I were colleagues, not only daughter and mother, but colleagues for twenty-five years in the victims’ field and I will miss the opportunity to see her beaming face at all the meetings that we both appeared at--not knowing the other one was going to be there. Knowing how busy we are down here, that usually was the only time I got to see her any length of time.

“I want to thank you all for the support that you gave me during the week that we were in the hospital waiting to find out what was going on, dealing with all the situations there while I know we were in the final throws of the special session here. This weekend I had the opportunity to sit down and read through some of the letters and cards and the notes that I received. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the kind words of support that you gave. We often forget when we have this back and forth going on that here we are all family and that what happens to one does have an influence on the rest of us. So, again, I want to thank you for all the wonderful things that you said that have helped me through this very trying period. Thank you.”

WHEREAS, the State of Washington is presently in a drought emergency; and WHEREAS, water storage is essential to the economic vitality of the Yakima Basin; and
WHEREAS, the Keechelus Reservoir is capable of collecting and storing up to 157,800 acre feet of water, but is presently unable to hold its capacity and is at an extremely low level; and

General Fund–State Appropriation (FY 2003) $194,884,000
General Fund–Federal Appropriation $339,077,000

Health Services Account–State Appropriation $2,450,000
The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(a) Regional support networks shall use portions of the general fund—state appropriation for implementation of working agreements with the vocational rehabilitation program which will maximize the use of federal funding for vocational programs.

(b) From the general fund—state appropriations in this subsection, the secretary of social and health services shall assure that regional support networks reimburse the aging and adult services program for the general fund—state cost of medicare personal care services that enrolled regional support network consumers use because of their psychiatric disability.

(c) $388,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 2002, $1,927,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 2003, and $2,349,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation are provided solely for development and operation of community residential and support services for persons whose treatment needs constitute substantial barriers to community placement and who no longer require active psychiatric treatment at an inpatient hospital level of care, no longer meet the criteria for inpatient involuntary commitment, and who are clinically ready for discharge from a state psychiatric hospital. Primary responsibility and accountability for provision of appropriate community support for persons placed with these funds shall reside with the mental health program and the regional support networks, with partnerships for alcohol and substance abuse services programs. The department shall negotiate performance-based incentive contracts with those regional support networks which have the most viable plans for providing appropriate community support services for significant numbers of persons from their area who would otherwise be served in the state hospitals. The funds appropriated in this subsection shall not be considered "available resources" as defined in RCW 71.24.025 and are not subject to the standard allocation formula applied in accordance with RCW 71.24.035(13)(a).

(d) At least $1,000,000 of the federal block grant funding appropriated in this subsection shall be used for (i) initial development, training, and operation of the ambulatory care service support teams which will work with long-term state hospital patients near and subsequent to their return to the community; and (ii) development of support strategies which will reduce the unnecessary and excessive use of state and local hospitals for short-term crisis stabilization services. Such strategies may include training and technical assistance to community long-term care and substance abuse providers; the development of diversion beds and stabilization support teams; examination of state hospital policies regarding admissions; and the development of new contractual standards to assure that the statutory requirement that 85 percent of short-term detentions behandled locally is being fulfilled. The department shall report to the fiscal and policy committees of the legislature on the results of these efforts by November 1, 2001, and again by November 1, 2002.

(e) The department is authorized to implement a new formula for allocating available resources among the regional support networks. The new formula shall be phased in over a period of no less than six years. Furthermore, the department shall increase the medicaid capitation rates which a regional support network would otherwise receive under the formula by an amount sufficient to assure that total funding allocated to the regional support network in fiscal year 2001 increases by up to 2.1 percent over the amount actually paid to that regional support network in fiscal year 2000, and by up to an additional 2.3 percent in fiscal year 2003, if total funding to the regional support network would otherwise increase by less than those percentages under the new formula, and provided that the nonfederal share of the higher medicaid payment rate is provided by the regional support network from local funds.

Project services are to be delivered by teachers and teaching assistants who qualify as, or who are under the supervision of, mental health professionals meeting the requirements of chapter 275-57 WAC. The department shall increase medicaid payments to the regional support network by the amount necessary to cover the necessary and allowable costs of the demonstration, not to exceed the upper payment limit specified for the regional support network in the department's medicaid waiver agreement with the federal government. The department shall increase medicaid payments to the regional support network by the amount necessary to cover the necessary and allowable costs of the demonstration, not to exceed the upper payment limit specified for the regional support network in the department's medicaid waiver agreement with the federal government. The regional support network shall provide the department with (i) periodic reports on project service levels, methods, and outcomes; and (ii) an intergovernmental transfer equal to the state share of the increased medicaid payment provided for operation of this project.

(g) The health services account appropriation is provided solely for implementation of strategies which the department and the affected regional support networks conclude will best assure continued availability of community-based inpatient psychiatric services in all areas of the state. Such strategies may include, but are not limited to, emergency contracts for continued operation of inpatient facilities otherwise at risk of closure because of demonstrated uncompensated care; start-up grants for development of evaluation and treatment facilities; and increases in the rate paid for inpatient psychiatric services for medically indigent and/or general assistance for the unemployed patients. The funds provided in this subsection must be: (i) Prioritized for use in those areas of the state which are at greatest risk of losing sufficient inpatient psychiatric treatment capacity, rather than being distributed on a formula basis; (ii) prioritized for use by those hospitals which do not receive low-income disproportionate share hospital payments as of the date of application for funding; and (iii) matched on a one-quarter local, three-quarters state basis by funding from the regional support network or networks within the area in which the funds are expended. Payments from the amount provided in this subsection shall not be made to any provider that has not agreed that, except for prospective rate increases, the payment shall offset, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, any liability that may be established against, or any settlement that may be agreed to by the state, regarding the rate of state reimbursement for inpatient psychiatric care. The funds provided in this subsection shall not be considered "available resources" as defined in RCW 71.24.025 and are not subject to the distribution formula established pursuant to RCW 71.24.035.

(e) For specified enrollments in districts enrolling more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average annual full-time equivalent students in grades K-8, and for small school plants within any school district which enroll more than twenty-five average annual full-time equivalent students in grades K-8 and have been judged by the state board of education:

Units calculated under (f)(ii) of this subsection shall be reduced by certificated staff units at the rate of forty-six certificated instructional staff units and four certificated administrative staff units per thousand vocational full-time equivalent students.

(g) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full-time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit; and

(h) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full-time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated instructional staff unit.

(3) Allocations for classified salaries for the 2001-02 and 2002-03 school years shall be calculated using formula-generated classified staff units determined as follows:

(a) For enrollments generating certificated staff unit allocations under subsection (2)(d) through (h) of this section, one classified staff unit for each three certificated staff units allocated under such subsections;

(b) For all other enrollment in grades K-12, including vocational full-time equivalent enrollments, one classified staff unit for each six average annual full-time equivalent students; and

(c) For each nonhigh school district with an enrollment of more than fifty average annual full-time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a classified instructional staff unit.

(4) Fringe benefit allocations shall be calculated at a rate of 11.27 percent in the 2001-02 school year and 11.27 percent in the 2002-03 school year for certificated salary allocations provided under subsection (2) of this section, and a rate of 12.92 percent in the 2001-02 school year and 12.92 percent in the 2002-03 school year for classified salary allocations provided under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) Insurance benefit allocations shall be calculated at the maintenance rate specified in section 504(3) of this act, based on the number of benefit units determined as follows:

(a) The number of certificated staff units determined in subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) The number of classified staff units determined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by 1.152. This factor is intended to adjust allocations so that, for the purposes of distributing insurance benefits, full-time equivalent classified employees may be calculated on the basis of 1440 hours of work per year, with no individual employee counted as more than one full-time equivalent.

(6) (a) For nonemployee-related costs associated with each certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2)(a), (b), and (d) through (h) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $8,519 per certificated staff unit in the 2001-02 school year and a maximum of $8,715 per certificated staff unit in the 2002-03 school year.

(b) For nonemployee-related costs associated with each vocational certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2)(c)(i)(A) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $20,920 per certificated staff unit in the 2001-02 school year and a maximum of $21,401 per certificated staff unit in the 2002-03 school year.

(c) For nonemployee-related costs associated with each vocational certificated staff unit allocated under subsection (2)(c)(i)(B) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $16,233 per certificated staff unit in the 2001-02 school year and a maximum of $16,606 per certificated staff unit in the 2002-03 school year.

(7) Allocations for substitute costs for classroom teachers shall be distributed at a maintenance rate of $494.34 for the 2001-02 and 2002-03 school years per allocated classroom teachers exclusive of salary increase amounts provided in section 504 of this act. Solely for the purposes of this subsection, allocated classroom teachers shall be equal to the number of certificated instructional staff units allocated under subsection (2) of this section, multiplied by the ratio between the number of actual basic education certificated teachers and the number of actual basic education certificated instructional staff reported statewide for the prior school year.

(8) Any school district board of directors may petition the superintendent of public instruction by submission of a resolution adopted in a public meeting to reduce or delay any portion of its basic education allocation for any school year. The superintendent of public instruction shall approve such reduction or delay if it does not impair the district's financial condition. Any delay shall not be for more than two school years. Any reduction or delay shall have no impact on levy authority pursuant to RCW 84.52.0531 and local effort assistance pursuant to chapter 28A.500 RCW.

(9) The superintendent may distribute a maximum of $6,510,000 outside the basic education formula during fiscal years 2002 and 2003 as follows:

(a) For fire protection for school districts located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW, a maximum of $480,000 may be expended in fiscal year 2002 and a maximum of $491,000 may be expended in fiscal year 2003;

(b) For summer vocational programs at skills centers, a maximum of $2,098,000 may be expended each fiscal year;
(c) A maximum of $343,000 may be expended for school district emergencies; and
(d) A maximum of $500,000 per fiscal year may be expended for programs providing skills training for secondary students who are enrolled in extended day school-to-work programs, as approved by the superintendent of public instruction. The funds shall be allocated at a rate not to exceed $500 per full-time equivalent student enrolled in those programs.

(10) For purposes of RCW 84.52.0531, the increase per full-time equivalent student in state basic education appropriations provided under this act, including appropriations for salary and benefits increases, is 2.5 percent from the 2000-01 school year to the 2001-02 school year, and 3.3 percent from the 2000-01 school year to the 2002-03 school year.

(11) If two or more school districts consolidate and each district was receiving additional basic education formula staff units pursuant to subsection (2)(b) through (h) of this section, the following shall apply:
   (a) For three school years following consolidation, the number of basic education formula staff units shall not be less than the number of basic education formula staff units received by the districts in the school year prior to the consolidation; and
   (b) For the fourth through eighth school years following consolidation, the difference between the basic education formula staff units received by the districts for the school year prior to consolidation and the basic education formula staff units after consolidation pursuant to subsection (2)(a) through (h) of this section shall be reduced in increments of twenty percent per year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 503. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—BASIC EDUCATION

EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION. (1) The following calculations determine the salaries used in the general fund allocations for certificated instructional, certificated administrative, and classified staff units under section 502 of this act:

   (a) Salary allocations for certificated instructional staff units shall be determined for each district by multiplying the district's certificated instructional total base salary shown on LEAP Document 12E for the appropriate year, by the district's average staff mix factor for basic education and special education certificated instructional staff in that school year, computed using LEAP Document 1S; and
   (b) Salary allocations for certificated administrative staff units and classified staff units for each district shall be based on the district's certificated administrative and classified salary allocation amounts shown on LEAP Document 12E for the appropriate year.

(2) For the purposes of this section:
   (a) "Basic education certificated instructional staff" is defined as provided in RCW 28A.150.100 and "special education certificated staff" means staff assigned to the state-supported special education program pursuant to chapter 28A.155 RCW in positions requiring a certificate;
   (b) "LEAP Document 1S" means the computerized tabulation establishing staff mix factors for certificated instructional staff according to education and years of experience, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on March 25, 1999, at 16:55 hours; and
   (c) "LEAP Document 12E" means the computerized tabulation of 2001-02 and 2002-03 school year salary allocations for certificated administrative staff and classified staff and derived and total base salaries for certificated instructional staff as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on March 13, 2001, at 16:32 hours.

(3) Incremental fringe benefit factors shall be applied to salary adjustments at a rate of 10.63 percent for school years 2001-02 and 2002-03 for certificated staff and 9.42 percent for school years 2001-02 and 2002-03 for classified staff.

(4)(a) Pursuant to RCW 28A.150.410, the following state-wide salary allocation schedules for certificated instructional staff are established for basic education salary allocations:

(b) As used in this subsection, the column headings "BA+(N)" refer to the number of credits earned since receiving the baccalaureate degree.

(c) For credits earned after the baccalaureate degree but before the masters degree, any credits in excess of forty-five credits may be counted after the masters degree. Thus, as used in this subsection, the column headings "MA+(N)" refer to the total of:

(i) Credits earned since receiving the masters degree; and

(ii) Any credits in excess of forty-five credits that were earned after the baccalaureate degree but before the masters degree.

(5) For the purposes of this section:
(a) “BA” means a baccalaureate degree.
(b) “MA” means a masters degree.
(c) “PHD” means a doctorate degree.
(d) “Years of service” shall be calculated under the same rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction.
(e) “Credits” means college quarter hour credits and equivalent in-service credits computed in accordance with RCW 28A.415.020 and 28A.415.023.

(6) No more than ninety college quarter-hour credits received by any employee after the baccalaureate degree may be used to determine compensation allocations under the state salary allocation schedule and LEAP documents referenced in this act, or any replacement schedules and documents, unless:
(a) The employee has a masters degree; or
(b) The credits were used in generating state salary allocations before January 1, 1992.
(7) The certificated instructional staff base salary specified for each district in LEAP Document 12E and the salary schedules in subsection (4)(a) of this section include three learning improvement days originally added in the 1999-00 school year. A school district is eligible for the learning improvement day funds for school years 2001-02 and 2002-03, only if three learning improvement days have been added to the 180-day contract year. If fewer than three days are added, the additional learning improvement allocation shall be adjusted accordingly. The additional days shall be for activities related to improving student learning consistent with education reform implementation. The length of a learning improvement day shall not be less than the length of a full day under the base contract. The superintendent of public instruction shall ensure that school districts adhere to the intent and purposes of this subsection.
(8) The salary allocation schedules established in this section are for allocation purposes only except as provided in RCW 28A.400.200(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR SCHOOL EMPLOYEE

COMPENSATION ADJUSTMENTS

General Fund--State Appropriation (FY 2002) $124,130,000
General Fund--State Appropriation (FY 2003) $274,529,000
TOTAL APPROPRIATION $398,659,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $318,024,000 is provided for a cost of living adjustment for state formula staff units of 3.7 percent effective September 1, 2001, and another salary adjustment effective on September 1, 2002, in a percentage amount to be determined by the 2002 legislature consistent with the provisions of chapter 4, Laws of 2001 (Initiative Measure No. 732). The appropriations include associated incremental fringe benefit allocations at rates of 10.63 percent for school years 2001-02 and 2002-03 for certificated staff and 9.42 percent for school years 2001-02 and 2002-03 for classified staff.
(a) The appropriations in this section include the increased portion of salaries and incremental fringe benefits for all relevant state-funded school programs in part V of this act, in accordance with chapter 4, Laws of 2001 (Initiative Measure No. 732). Salary adjustments for state employees in the office of superintendent of public instruction and the education reform program are provided in part VII of this act. Increases for general apportionment (basic education) are based on the salary allocation schedules and methodology in section 502 of this act. Increases for special education result from increases in each districts basic education allocation per student. Increases for educational service districts and institutional education programs are determined by the superintendent of public instruction using the methodology for general apportionment salaries and benefits in section 502 of this act.
(b) The appropriations in this section provide cost-of-living and incremental fringe benefit allocations based on formula adjustments as follows:

NEW SECTION Sec. 3. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION--FOR SCHOOL FOOD SERVICE PROGRAMS
General Fund--State Appropriation (FY 2002) $ 3,100,000
General Fund--State Appropriation (FY 2003) $ 3,100,000
General Fund--Federal Appropriation $ 225,630,000
TOTAL APPROPRIATION $ 231,830,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:
(1) Funding for special education programs is provided on an excess cost basis, pursuant to RCW 28A.150.390. School districts shall ensure that special education students as a class receive their full share of the general apportionment allocation accruing through sections 502 and 504 of this act. To the extent a school district cannot provide an appropriate education for special education students under chapter 28A.155 RCW through the general apportionment allocation, it shall provide services through the special education excess cost allocation funded in this section.
(2) Effective with the 2001-02 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall change the S-275 personnel reporting system and all related accounting requirements to ensure that:
(A) Special education students are basic education students first;
(B) As a class, special education students are entitled to the full basic education allocation; and
(C) Special education students are basic education students for the entire school day.
(3) Each general fund--state fiscal year appropriation includes such funds as are necessary to complete the school year ending in the fiscal year and for prior fiscal year adjustments.
(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds to school districts based on two categories: The optional birth through age two program for special education eligible developmentally delayed infants and toddlers, and the mandatory special education program for special education eligible students ages three to twenty-one. A "special education eligible student" means a student receiving specially designed instruction in accordance with a properly formulated individualized education program.
(5) For the 2001-02 and 2002-03 school years, the superintendent shall distribute state funds to each district based on the sum of:
(A) A district's annual average headcount enrollment of developmentally delayed infants and toddlers ages birth through two, multiplied by the district's average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student, multiplied by 1.15; and
(B) For purposes of this subsection, "average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student" for a district shall be based on the staffing ratios required by RCW 28A.150.260 and shall not include enhancements, secondary vocational education, or small schools.
(6) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section.

(a) “Annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment” means the resident enrollment including students enrolled through choice (RCW 28A.225.225) and students from nonhigh districts (RCW 28A.225.210) and excluding students residing in another district enrolled as part of an interdistrict cooperative program (RCW 28A.225.250).

(b) “Enrollment percent” means the district’s resident special education annual average enrollment, excluding the birth through age two enrollment, as a percent of the district’s annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment. For the 2001-02 and the 2002-03 school years, each district’s funded enrollment percent shall be the lesser of the district’s actual enrollment percent for the school year for which the allocation is being determined or 12.7 percent for the 2001-02 school year or 13.0 percent for the 2002-03 school year.

(7) At the request of any interdistrict cooperative of at least 15 districts in which all excess cost services for special education students of the districts are provided by the cooperative, the maximum enrollment percent shall be 12.7 percent for the 2001-02 school year and 13.0 percent for the 2002-03 school year, and shall be calculated in the aggregate rather than individual district units. For purposes of this subsection, the average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student shall be calculated in the aggregate rather than individual district units.

(8) A maximum of $12,000,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2002 and a maximum of $10,623,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2003 are provided as safety net funding for districts with demonstrated needs for state special education funding beyond the amounts provided in subsection (5) of this section. Safety net funding shall be awarded by the state safety net oversight committee.

(a) The safety net oversight committee shall first consider the needs of districts adversely affected by the 1995 change in the special education funding formula. Awards shall be based on the lesser of the amount required to maintain the 1994-95 state special education excess cost allocation to the school district in aggregate or on a dollar per funded student basis.

(b) The committee shall then consider unmet needs for districts that can convincingly demonstrate that all legitimate expenditures for special education exceed all available revenues from state funding formulas. In the determination of need, the committee shall also consider additional available revenues from federal, local, and other state revenues. Differences in program costs attributable to district philosophy, service delivery choice, or accounting practices are not a legitimate basis for safety net awards.

(c) The maximum allowable indirect cost for calculating safety net eligibility may not exceed the federal restricted indirect cost rate for the district plus one percent.

(d) Safety net awards shall be adjusted based on the percent of potential medicaid eligible students billed as calculated by the superintendent in accordance with chapter 318, Laws of 1999.

(e) Safety net awards must be adjusted for any audit findings or exceptions related to special education funding.

(f) The superintendent may expend up to $120,000 per year of the amount provided in this subsection to provide staff assistance to the committee in analyzing applications for safety net funds received by the committee.

(g) The superintendent of public instruction may adopt such rules and procedures as are necessary to administer the special education funding and safety net award process. Prior to revising any standards, procedures, or rules, the superintendent shall consult with the office of financial management and the fiscal committees of the legislature.

(h) The safety net oversight committee appointed by the superintendent of public instruction shall consist of:

(1) One staff from the office of superintendent of public instruction;

(2) Staff of the office of the state auditor;

(3) Staff of the office of the financial management; and

(4) One or more representatives from school districts or educational service districts knowledgeable of special education programs and funding.

(11) To the extent necessary, $5,500,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation shall be expended for safety net funding to meet the extraordinary needs of one or more individual special education students. If safety net awards to meet the extraordinary needs exceed $5,500,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation, the superintendent shall expend all available federal discretionary funds necessary to meet this need. General fund–state funds shall not be expended for this purpose.

(12) A maximum of $678,000 may be expended from the general fund–state appropriations to fund 5.43 full-time equivalent teachers and 2.1 full-time equivalent aides at Children’s Orthopedic Hospital and Medical Center. This amount is in lieu of money provided through the home and hospital allocation and the special education program.

(13) $1,000,000 of the federal fund–federal appropriation is provided for projects to provide special education students with appropriate job and independent living skills, including work experience where possible, to facilitate their successful transition out of the public school system. The funds provided by this subsection shall be from federal discretionary grants.

(14) The superintendent shall maintain the percentage of federal flow-through to school districts at 85 percent. In addition to other purposes, school districts may use increased federal funds for high-cost students, for purchasing regional special education services from educational service districts, and for staff development activities particularly relating to inclusion issues.

(15) A maximum of $1,200,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation may be expended by the superintendent for projects related to use of inclusion strategies by school districts for provision of special education services. The superintendent shall prepare an information database on laws, best practices, examples of programs, and recommended resources. The information may be disseminated in a variety of ways, including workshops and other staff development activities.

(16) A school district may carry over from one year to the next year up to 10 percent of general fund–state funds allocated under this program; however, carry over funds shall be expended in the special education program.
(3) Allocations to provide tuition assistance for students eligible for free and reduced price lunch who complete the program shall be a maximum of $203.97 per eligible student in the 2001-02 and 2002-03 school years.

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk
CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Brown moved that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: "A point of order, Mr. President. Under Senate Rule 25, which stipulates that no bills shall embrace more than one subject and that should be representative in the title, I would argue that this amendment that has been given to us by the House of Representatives violates Rule 25. In fact, I have learned that there are six different areas in this budget where we authorize fee increases. This is a budget which spends money and in Senator Snyder's arguments the other day, he argued that, if in fact, the budget perhaps had some revenue increases in it, that then might violate the two subjects rule. Well, I learned since then that there actually are six different components. Section 145, under the Board of Accountancy, authorizes fee increases. Section 217, under L & I authorizes fee increases. Section 220, under the Department of Health, authorizes fee increases. Section 401, under the Department of Licensing authorizes fee increases. Section 601, under Higher Education, authorizes tuition and fee increases and Section 603, under the Community and Technical Colleges, authorizes tuition and fee increases.

"Mr. President, Initiative 601 was passed by the people of the state of Washington and specifically states that the Legislature shall authorize any fee increases that go outside the revenue growth factor. To put these in the budget places the Senate in the position of not considering these individually on their merit. There are other much more things in the budget--good spending practices, some bad spending practices that we would consider when we are voting for the budget. But in order to vote for the good in the budget, we would have to consider these fee increases. Now, a budget is spending money. There are tax bills and fee bills that would be introduced separately as a different subject that would raise these fees or authorize these fees to be raised. So, Mr. President, under that, I would ask that you rule consistent with your ruling the other day that this amendment sent to us by the House of Representatives violates the two subjects rule."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT
President Owen: “Senator West, the President needs clarification. In your opening statement, you said that the amendment violates Rule 25. Then you stated a number of sections. Is your challenge to the amendment or a challenge to all the sections?”

Senator West: “Mr. President, the challenge is to those specific sections within the amendment. The amendment is the document that was sent to us by the House. The document sent to the House was a striking amendment, which is the entire budget that is before us now. When I spoke to the amendment, I was speaking to the striking amendment by the House of Representatives.”

President Owen: “Thank you.”

REQUEST TO DEFER RULING

Senator Brown: “Mr. President, I would respectfully request that you defer your ruling on Senator West’s point for a brief amount of time and give us a chance to prepare a response. He raised several specific sections of the bill and I would like to have a chance to check those and incorporate those particular sections in my response.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “The President believes that the question is complex enough to honor that request. I would probably need that time anyway.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: “Mr. President, a point of order. In light of Senator Brown’s request, we are venturing into uncharted territory and how you rule on that particular request will determine the future. She has requested time to go off and prepare arguments against a point of order that was made on the floor. This is something that has never been allowed. It has never been allowed in the past. Allowing folks to do that, could in future cases, cause considerable delay and also put people at an extreme disadvantage in their arguments, unfair to both sides.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “Senator West, the President would take considerable time to review your point of order at any rate, and I will be doing that during that period of time. The President also believes that each situation demands a consideration as it comes up. This is a very complex issue and we do not want to make a mistake. The President feels that it is only appropriate that each side be able to present their remarks. In other situations, that are not quite so complex, that may not be the case. The President maintains his discretion to make that decision.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 415. FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
Trust Land Transfer Program (02-2-010)
The state building construction account appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:
(1) The total appropriation is provided to the department solely to transfer from trust status or enter into thirty-year timber harvest restrictive easements for certain trust lands of state-wide significance deemed appropriate for state park, fish and wildlife habitat, national area preserve, natural resources conservation area, open space, or recreation purposes.
(2) Property transferred under this section shall be appraised and transferred at fair market value. The value of the timber transferred shall be deposited by the department to the common school construction account in the same manner as timber revenues from other common school trust lands. No deduction shall be made for the resource management cost account under RCW 79.64.040. The value of the land transferred shall be deposited in the natural resources real property replacement account.
These funds shall be expended by the department for the exclusive purpose of acquiring real property of equal value to be managed as common school trust land.
(3) Property subject to easement agreements under this section shall be appraised at fair market value both with and without the imposition of the easement. The entire difference in appraised value shall be deposited by the department to the common school construction fund in the same manner as lease revenues from other common school trust lands. No deduction shall be made for the resource management cost account under RCW 79.64.040.
(4) All reasonable costs incurred by the department to implement this section are authorized to be paid out of this appropriation. Authorized costs include the actual cost of appraisals, staff time, environmental reviews, surveys, and other similar costs.
(5) Intergrant exchanges between common school and other trust lands of equal value may occur if the exchange is in the interest of each trust, as determined by the board of natural resources.
(6) Prior to or concurrent with conveyance of these properties, the department, with full cooperation of the receiving agencies, shall execute and record a real property instrument that dedicates the transferred properties to the purposes identified in subsection (1) of this section for a minimum period of thirty years. The department of natural resources, in consultation with the receiving state agencies, shall develop policy to address requests to replace transferred properties subject to the recorded property instrument that are no longer deemed appropriate for the purposes identified in subsection (1) of this section.
(7) The department and receiving agencies shall work in good faith to carry out the intent of this section. However, the department or receiving agencies may remove a property from the transfer list based on new, substantive information, if it is determined that transfer of the property is not in the statewide interest of either the common school trust or the receiving agency.
(8) The department shall execute trust land transfers and easements such that 80 percent of the appropriation in this section is deposited in the common school construction fund. To achieve the 80:20 ratio, the department may offset transfers of property with low timber-to-land ratios with easements on other properties.
(9) On June 30, 2003, the state treasurer shall transfer all remaining uncommitted funds from this appropriation to the common school construction fund and the appropriation in this section shall be reduced by an equivalent amount.
(10) The appropriation in this section is provided for a list of projects in LEAP capital document No. 2001-42, as

The Washington state arts commission may combine the proceeds from individual projects in order to fund larger works of art or mobile art displays in consultation with the state agency.

(4) At least eighty-five percent of the moneys spent by the Washington state arts commission during the 2001-2003 biennium for the purposes of RCW 28A.335.210, 28B.10.027, and 43.17.200 shall be spent solely for direct acquisition of works of art.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 908. The amounts shown under the headings “Prior Biennia,” “Future Biennia,” and “Total” in this act are for informational purposes only and do not constitute legislative approval of these amounts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 909. “Reappropriations” in this act are appropriations and, unless the context clearly provides otherwise, are subject to the relevant conditions and limitations applicable to appropriations. Reappropriations shall be limited to the unexpended balances remaining on June 30, 2001, from the 1999-2001 biennial appropriations for each project.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 910. To carry out the provisions of this act, the governor may assign responsibility for predesign, design, construction, and other related activities to any appropriate agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 911. If any federal moneys appropriated by this act for capital projects are not received by the state, the department or agency to which the moneys were appropriated may replace the federal moneys with funds available from private or local sources. No replacement may occur under this section without the prior approval of the director of financial management in consultation with the senate committee on ways and means and the house of representatives capital budget committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 912. Unless otherwise stated, for all appropriations under this act that require a match of nonstate money or in-kind contributions, the following requirement, consistent with RCW 43.88.150, shall apply: Expenditures of state money shall be timed so that the state share of project expenditures never exceeds the intended state share of total project costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 913. Any capital improvements or capital projects involving construction or major expansion of a state office facility, including, but not limited to, district headquarters, detachment offices, and off-campus faculty offices, shall be reviewed by the department of general administration for possible consolidation, collocation, and compliance with state office standards before allotment of funds. The intent of the requirement imposed by this section is to eliminate duplication and reduce total office space requirements where feasible, while ensuring proper service to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 914. The governor, through the office of financial management, may authorize a transfer of appropriation authority provided for a capital project that is in excess of the amount required for the completion of such project to another capital project for which the appropriation is insufficient. No such transfer may be used to expand the capacity of any facility beyond that intended by the legislature in making the appropriation. Such transfers may be effected only between capital appropriations to a specific department, commission, agency, or institution of higher education and only between capital projects that are funded from the same fund or account. No transfers may occur between projects to local government agencies except where the grants are provided within a single omnibus appropriation and where such transfers are specifically authorized by the implementing statutes which govern the grants.

For purposes of this section, the governor may find that an amount is in excess of the amount required for the completion of a project only if: (1) The project as defined in the notes to the budget document is substantially complete and there are funds remaining; or (2) bids have been let on a project and it appears to a substantial certainty that the project as defined in the notes to the budget document can be completed within the biennium for less than the amount appropriated in this act.

For the purposes of this section, the legislature intends that each project be defined as proposed to the legislature in the governor's budget document, unless it clearly appears from the legislative history that the legislature intended to define the scope of a project in a different way.
A report of any transfer effected under this section, except emergency projects or any transfer under $250,000, shall be filed with the legislative fiscal committees of the senate and house of representatives by the office of financial management at least thirty days before the date the transfer is effected. The office of financial management shall report all emergency or smaller transfers within thirty days from the date of transfer.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 916. NONTAXABLE AND TAXABLE BOND PROCEEDS. Portions of the appropriation authority granted by this act from the state building construction account may be transferred to the state taxable building construction account as deemed necessary by the state finance committee to comply with the federal internal revenue service rules and regulations pertaining to the use of nontaxable bond proceeds. The state treasurer shall submit written notification to the director of financial management if it is determined that a shift of appropriation authority from the state building construction account to the state taxable building construction account is necessary.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 917. The joint legislative audit and review committee shall study the following topics and shall submit a preliminary report to the appropriate legislative committees by December 1, 2001, and a final report, including recommendations, by September 15, 2002:

(1) FTEs funded by the capital budget. There appears to be over four hundred fifty FTEs funded in the capital budget, many of these not directly related to specific capital projects, and many funded with state general obligation bonds. The committee, with assistance from the office of financial management, shall: (a) Estimate the number of FTEs funded in the capital budget by agency, including those who are partially funded by the capital budget, whether they are paid for through bonds or other sources, what their function is related to capital projects, and whether they work directly or indirectly on capital projects; and (b) estimate the extent to which overhead and administrative costs are paid for through the capital budget, and the extent to which other indirect costs such as rent are funded through the capital budget. The committee shall make recommendations regarding how these FTEs and indirect costs can be better accounted for in the budgeting process, and regarding the policy implications of funding personnel and indirect costs in the capital budget; and

(2) Deferred renewal in higher education institutions. According to higher education institutions, deferred renewal of their facilities, such as capital maintenance and minor works preservation projects needed but not done, runs in the hundreds of millions of dollars statewide. The committee shall: (a) Study the reasons for this extensive deferred renewal of facilities; (b) estimate, with the assistance of the office of financial management and the higher education coordinating board, the deferred renewal for each four year institution and for the community and technical college system, and to what extent this deferred renewal poses a health and safety threat to persons using the campus; (c) review how other states approach higher education facility capital maintenance; (d) make recommendations regarding how this deferred renewal problem could be addressed; and (e) develop options to better coordinate facility maintenance with the operating budget and other options to increase the useful life of these facilities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 918. The office of financial management, in consultation with the department of general administration, shall identify capital projects that may benefit from an energy analysis to determine whether there are alternatives, more economical, and energy efficient means of completing the work. The office of financial management shall hold appropriations in allotment reserve on the following types of capital projects until this analysis can be completed: Heating, ventilation, and air conditioning modifications, chiller plants, steam plants, boilers, chilled water or steam lines, building control systems, lighting improvements, or other major energy using systems that may warrant additional analysis. Agencies receiving appropriations for such projects are encouraged to utilize energy performance contracts or alternative financing for equipment in lieu of state appropriated funds. The office of financial management may transfer funds remaining in allotment reserve to infrastructure savings projects within the agency that has realized savings from energy efficiency alternatives.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 919. State contracts for the legislative building renovation, Nisqually earthquake repair, and future earthquake mitigation shall conform to all rules, regulations, and requirements of the federal emergency management agency.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 920. FOR THE STATE TREASURER--TRANSFER

Public Works Assistance Account: For transfer to the parks renewal/stewardship account on or before December 31, 2001, for the purpose of providing funds for the coastal facility relocation project in section 324 of this act $ 5,700,000

NEW SECTION, Sec. 921. At any time after this act becomes effective, if any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 922. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately., and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business and further consideration of the point of order raised by Senator West to the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153.

CHALLENGE TO SCOPE AND OBJECT REQUEST
Senator Brown: “Mr. President, I would like to respond to the objection raised on the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153. I respectfully take the position that none of the six sections cited in the objection create a separate subject in the omnibus appropriations act. As the President observed in his ruling on June 8 of this year, the Legislature v. Locke provides some guidance on this issue. Factors used in that case include whether the provision in question has continuing effect beyond the duration of the budget, whether the provision enacts substantive law by defining rights or restricting eligibility for services, and whether the subject was previously treated in a separate substantive bill.

First, none of the six sections challenged by this objection have any continuing effect beyond the duration of the budget act. As declared in section 1 of this act, the budget bill appropriates funds, subject to various conditions and limitations, ‘for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 2001, and ending June 30, 2003.’ Thus, the budget appropriations and all of the conditions and limitations on those appropriations expire on June 30, 2003, and have no continuing effect. The budget provisos are all uncodified fiscal provisions.

Second, none of the budget provisos being challenged defines rights or restricts eligibility for services. Each of these six budget provisos authorizes state agencies to adjust current fees, which are already authorized under existing statutes, as necessary to support the appropriation levels contained in the budget act. Existing statutes, enacted as part of Initiative 601, expressly empower the Legislature to authorize these fee adjustments. Moreover, they are directly related to the budget appropriations to which they are attached.

Thirdly, none of these six budget provisions have been treated in separate substantive legislation. In examining each of these six budget provisos, some brief comments are in order:

Section 145 authorizes the Board of Accountancy to increase fee revenue in order to support the appropriation level from the dedicated account from which the Board operates. Section 145 expressly limits this authorization to Fiscal Years 2002 and 2003. There is no continuing effect.

Section 217 appropriates funds for the operation of the Department of Labor and Industries, including the elevator inspection program. The budget proviso attached to this appropriation directs the agency to generate sufficient fee revenue to support the appropriation; it is directly related to the subject of the bill — making appropriations for the operation of state agencies.

Section 220 similarly authorizes the Department of Health to generate sufficient fee revenue to support the licensing of health professions under the jurisdiction of the Department. This budget proviso merely reflects existing statutory law that requires all health-related licensing programs to be self-supporting through fee revenue. This statute can be found in RCW 43.70.110.

Section 401 provides the same fee-generating revenue to the Department of Licensing, which has an identical statute requiring all professional licensing program to be self-sufficient. This statute is RCW 43.24.086.

Sections 601 and 603 relates to the tuition and fee revenue received by the state’s institutions of higher education. RCW 28B.15.067 expressly authorizes the Legislature to establish tuition and fee levels in the omnibus appropriations act. These sections implement this statutory mandate and provide the tuition and fee revenue assumptions that are reflected in the appropriation levels contained in this act.

Finally, Mr. President, I respectfully submit that ESSB 6153 is a fiscal bill, as reflected in the title of the bill: ‘An act relating to fiscal matters.’ Each of the six budget provisos that are the subject of this objection are fiscal provisions that are inextricably linked to the budget appropriations to which they are attached. Simply put, these provisos make the appropriations work.

For these reasons, I respectfully urge the President to find that the point of order is not well taken.”

Debate ensued.

At 11:15 a.m., there being no objection, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 11:21 a.m. by President Owen.

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

June 20, 2001

MR. PRESIDENT:
The Co-Speakers have signed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1926, and the same is herewith transmitted.

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk

TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1926.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5990,
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6155.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of the Message from the House on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 and the motion by Senator Brown to concur in the House amendments made earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT
President Owen: “In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator West that the House striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 violates Senate Rule 25, the President finds that four of the fees cited by Senator West were previously authorized in statute to cover the cost of preexisting statutory programs. The Board of Accountancy fee in Section 145 is authorized in RCW 18.04.065; The Labor and Industries elevator fee in Section 217 is authorized in RCW 70.87.030; The Department of Health licensing fee in Section 220 is authorized in RCW 43.70.110; The Department of Licensing business license fee in Section 401 is authorized in RCW 43.24.086; and additionally, the tuition and fee increases set forth in Sections 601 and 603 are specifically authorized to occur in a budget bill in RCW 28B.15.087(3).

“The President would distinguish the preexisting fees in this budget bill from the child care co-pay provision addressed in Legislature v. Locke. In Locke, the court determined specifically that the ‘intent and effect was to restrict access to public assistance eligibility,’ therefore its inclusion by the Legislature in a budget bill violates Article II, Sec. 19.’

“The President does not find that the pre-existing administrative fees at issue in this budget are substantive provisions prohibited in a budget under Senate Rule 25. The President believes there is a distinction between a tax created or increased in a budget bill, for example, and the preexisting administrative fees addressed in this budget. For the distinction between a ‘fee’ and a ‘tax,’ the President would refer the members to the President’s rulings on the subject under I-601.

“In short, the President finds that the preexisting fees at issue are rationally related to the appropriation sections in question and that Senator West’s point of order is not well taken.”

The President ruled that the point of order by Senator West was not well taken and Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 was properly before the Senate.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Johnson: “A point of order, Mr. President. If the matter of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 is again before the Senate, which I gather that it is from the President’s Ruling, I raise a point of order with respect to Section 514, Sub. 17, which provides substantive provisions regarding assistance for schools. Most of which is taken from Senate Bill No. 5625 which passed the Senate, but did not pass the House and, therefore, did not pass the Legislature. The argument has been made once before and ruled upon in a slightly different form that the inclusion of those provisions in this bill, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 violate Rule 25, which is the rewrite of Article II, Section 19, of the State Constitution providing that no bill shall embrace more than one subject and that shall be expressed in the title. While the language of this particular section is not precisely the same as the prior ruling of the President, I urge that it is really a distinction without substantive difference. Now the language provides, among other things, that the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall conduct educational audits; shall enter into performance agreements; shall undertake recommendations from the community; which necessarily involves community hearings. The audit then shall address the needs and there again will be a public meeting, so it is trimmed down some, but has the same defects and therefore I urge the point of order.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR BROWN

Senator Brown: ‘Mr. President, I respectfully take the position that the House amendment does not create a second subject in the budget bill. The amendment honors and does not violate Senate Rule 25 and Article II, section 19 of the State Constitution. As the President noted last week, this has been the subject of several rulings by the state supreme court. In Flanders v. Morris (1977) and most recently in Legislature v. Locke (1999) the court ruled that a budget item violated Article II, section 19 of the Constitution because ‘the intent and effect was to restrict access to public assistance eligibility.’

“The fact patterns in Locke, Flanders and other cases involved a dispute between the legislative and executive branches which the court was compelled to resolve. In so doing, the court has stated clearly that the budget bill cannot include substantive law. The Locke court said that it would not adopt a categorical definition of ‘substantive law,’ but rather said that the presence of certain factors may indicate the presence of substantive law in an appropriations measure. These factors include whether or not rights or entitlement to services are restricted, whether the policy extends beyond the two years of the budget period, and whether there was treatment of the policy in a separate substantive bill.

“The House amendment does not qualify as ‘substantive law’ under any of the three potential tests for the presence of substantive law set forth in Locke. These are the tests:

First, does the language establish or restrict rights or entitlements? It does not. The amendment simply establishes a 2-year grant program. School districts are not required to accept the funds. The grant award of assistance to schools is voluntary and creates no rights or entitlements on the part of individuals or school districts, but simply gives struggling schools an opportunity to receive additional funds.

Second, does the grant program extend beyond the two-year budget period? It does not. The program expires when the budget expires.

The audit then shall address the needs and there again will be a public meeting, so it is trimmed down some, but has the same defects and therefore I urge the point of order.”
“Third, does the policy in the amendment differ from policies proposed in separate substantive bills? Yes, it does. While a variety of policy proposals over the years have treated the topic of assistance to struggling schools, the House amendment does not establish a change in statutory law that would, as the Locke court said, have no ‘expiration date.’

Mr. President, the House amendment appropriates $2.8 million for the biennium to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The language describes how the funds can be spent during the biennium. OSPI’s use of these funds during the fiscal biennium is limited to spending these funds to conduct educational audits of low performing schools and enter into performance agreements with school districts to implement the recommendations, administer the program, provide grants to school districts to develop plans, and to award plaques for achievement.

The House amendment’s provisions, Mr. President, do not affect rights or entitlements to services as did the provisions in Locke and Flanders. They do not extend beyond two years, nor do they make the changes in permanent law that other measures on the same subject would have made. The House amendment simply adds an appropriation, not a new subject to the budget. The amendment allocates funds for a biennium and protects the interests of the legislature and the public by attaching appropriate conditions to their use during that period. The restrictions and directions on the expenditure of the new appropriation do not constitute substantive law by any measure.

“In short, Mr. President, this amendment does not raise the type of concerns over “log rolling” that Art. II, Sec. 19 is designed to protect all of us from. For these reasons, I respectfully urge the President to find that the point of order is not well taken.”

WITHDRAWAL OF POINT OF ORDER

Senator Johnson: “Mr. President, with reference to the point of order, the President having ruled on the Republican Leader’s point of order against that point, it appears to me now, that the only impediment to the budget going to the Governor would be this point that I have raised. While I strenuously oppose the budget, it being in my view, unsustainable, I will respectfully withdraw that point of order.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Brown to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153. Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Brown carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153, as amended by the House, and the bill passed by the following vote: Yeas, 26; Nays, 14; Absent, 0; Excused, 9.

Voting nay: Senators Finkbeiner, Hochstatter, Horn, Johnson, Long, McDonald, Morton, Parlette, Rossi, Sheahan, Sheldon, T., Swecker, West and Zarelli - 14.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6153, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion on Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. The legislature intends the following omnibus bill to address the management of sex offenders in the civil commitment and criminal justice systems for purposes of public health, safety, and welfare. Provisions address siting of and continued operation of facilities for persons civilly committed under chapter 71.09 RCW and sentencing of persons who have committed sex offenses. Other provisions address the need for sex offender treatment providers with specific credentials. Additional provisions address the continued operation or authorized expansion of criminal justice facilities at McNeil Island, because these facilities are impacted by the civil facilities on McNeil Island for persons committed under chapter 71.09 RCW.

Sec. 102. RCW 71.09.020 and 2001 c 286 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Sexually violent predator" means any person who has been convicted of or charged with a crime of sexual violence and who suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder which makes the person likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility.

(2) "Mental abnormality" means a congenital or acquired condition affecting the emotional or volitional capacity which predisposes the person to the commission of criminal sexual acts in a degree constituting such person a menace to the health and safety of others.

(3) "Person" means an individual, including an unincorporated association.

(4) "Predisposes the person to the commission of criminal sexual acts in a degree constituting such person a menace to the health and safety of others" means that the person more probably than not will engage in such acts if released unconditionally from detention on the sexually violent predator petition.

(5) "Predatory" means acts directed towards: (a) Strangers; (b) individuals with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization; or (c) persons of casual acquaintance with whom no substantial personal relationship exists.

(6) "Recent overt act" means any act or threat that has either caused harm of a sexually violent nature or creates a reasonable apprehension of such harm in the mind of an objective person who knows of the history and mental condition of the person engaging in the act.

(7) "Risk potential facility" means an activity or facility that provides a higher incidence of risk to the public from persons conditionally released from the special commitment center. Such facilities include total confinement facilities, secure community transition facilities, and any residence used as a court-ordered placement under RCW 71.09.096.

(8) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services or his or her designee.

(9) "Secure facility" means a residential facility for persons civilly confined under the provisions of this chapter that includes security measures sufficient to protect the community. (10) "Secure community transition facility" means a residential facility for persons civilly committed and conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under this chapter. A secure community transition facility has supervision and security, and either provides or ensures the provision of sex offender treatment services. Secure community transition facilities include but are not limited to the facilities established pursuant to section 201 of this act and any community-based facilities established under this chapter and operated by the secretary or under contract with the secretary.

(11) "Sexually violent offense" means an act committed on, before, or after July 1, 1990, that is: (a) An act defined in Title 9A RCW as rape in the first degree, rape in the first degree by forcible compulsion, rape of a child in the first or second degree, statutory rape in the first or second degree, indecent liberties by forcible compulsion, indecent liberties against a child under age fourteen, incest against a child under age fourteen, or child molestation in the first or second degree; (b) A felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1990, that is comparable to a sexually violent offense as defined in (a) of this subsection, or any federal or out-of-state conviction for a felony offense that under the laws of this state would be a sexually violent offense as defined in this subsection; (c) An act of murder in the first or second degree, assault in the first or second degree, assault of a child in the first or second degree, kidnapping in the first or second degree, burglary in the first degree, residential burglary, or unlawful imprisonment, which act, either at the time of sentencing for the offense or subsequently during civil commitment proceedings pursuant to this chapter (210.9RCW), has been determined beyond a reasonable doubt to have been sexually motivated, as that term is defined in RCW 9.94A.030; or (d) An act as described in chapter 9A.28 RCW, that is an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of the felonies designated in (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection.

(13) "Total confinement facility" means a facility that provides supervision and sex offender treatment services in a total confinement setting. Total confinement facilities include the special commitment center and any similar facility designated as a secure facility by the secretary.

PART II

SITING AND OPERATION OF SECURE COMMUNITY TRANSITION FACILITIES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1)(a) The secretary is authorized to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island for persons authorized to petition for a less restrictive alternative under RCW 71.08.090(1) and who are conditionally released to a setting in that same county less restrictive than that facility.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, "long-term beds" means beds for persons whose progress toward a less restrictive alternative at a level less secure than the secure community transition facility established in this subsection and whose transition into more complete community involvement is projected to take substantially longer than the average resident of this facility.

(2) Notwithstanding RCW 36.70A.103 or any other law, this statute preempts and supersedes local laws, permitting requirements, inspection requirements, and all other laws as necessary to enable the secretary to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island.

(3) To the greatest extent possible, until June 30, 2003, persons who were not civilly committed from the county in which the secure community transition facility established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is located may not be conditionally released to a setting in that same county less restrictive than that facility.

(4) The department must:

(a) Identify the minimum and maximum number of secure community transition facility beds in addition to the facility established under subsection (1) of this section that may be necessary for the period of May 2004 through May 2007 and provide notice of these numbers to all counties by August 31, 2001;

(b) In consultation with the joint select committee established in section 225 of this act, develop and publish a notice of proposed rules containing criteria for the siting and operation of secure community transition facilities by October 1, 2001; and

(c) Provide a status report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2002, on the development of facilities under the incentive program established in section 204 of this act. The report shall include a projection of the anticipated number of secure community transition facility beds that will become operational between May 2004 and May 2007. If it appears that an insufficient number of beds will be operational, the department's report shall recommend a progression of methods to facilitate siting in counties and cities including, if necessary, preemption of local land use planning process and other laws.

(5)(a) The total number of secure community transition facility beds that may be required to be sited in a county between the effective date of this section and June 30, 2008, may be no greater than the total number of persons civilly committed from that county, or detained at the special commitment center under a pending civil commitment petition from that county where a finding of probable cause had been made on April 1, 2001. The total number of secure community transition facility beds required to be sited in each county between July 1, 2008, and June 30, 2015, may be no greater than the total number of persons civilly committed from that county or detained at the special commitment center under a pending civil commitment petition from that county where a finding of probable cause had been made as of July 1, 2008.

(b) Counties and cities that provide secure community transition facility beds above the maximum number that they could be required to site under this subsection are eligible for a bonus grant under the incentive provisions in section 204 of this act.

(c) Provide a status report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2002, on the development of facilities established in subsection (1) of this section in excess of the maximum number established by this subsection.

(6) In identifying potential sites within a county for the location of a secure community transition facility, the department shall work with and assist local governments to provide for the equitable distribution of such facilities unless the local government affirmatively decides to group similar facilities.

(7)(a) "Equitable distribution" means siting or locating secure community transition facilities in a manner that will not cause a disproportionate grouping of similar facilities either in any one county, or in any one jurisdiction or community within a county, as relevant; and

(b) "Jurisdiction" means a city, town, or geographic area of a county in which district political or judicial authority may be exercised.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary is authorized to operate a correctional facility on McNeil Island for the confinement of sex offenders and other offenders sentenced by the courts, and to make necessary repairs, renovations, additions, and improvements to state property for that purpose, notwithstanding any local comprehensive plans, development regulations, permitting requirements, or any other local laws. Operation of the correctional facility and other state facilities authorized by this section and other law includes access to adequate docking facilities on state-owned tidelands at the town of Steilacoom.

Sec. 203. RCW 36.70A.103 and 1991 sp.s. c 32 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:
State agencies shall comply with the local comprehensive plans and development regulations and amendments thereto adopted pursuant to this chapter except as otherwise provided in sections 201(1) and (2) and 202 of this act.

The provisions of this act do not affect the state's authority to site any other essential public facility under RCW 36.70A.200 in conformance with local comprehensive plans and development regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 36.70A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Upon receiving the notification required by section 201 of this act, counties must promptly notify the cities within the county of the maximum number of secure community transition facility beds that may be required and the projected number of beds to be needed in that county.

(2) The provisions of this act do not affect the state's authority to site any other essential public facility under RCW 36.70A.200 in conformance with local comprehensive plans and development regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 36.70A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. RCW 36.70A.200 and 1998 c 171 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The comprehensive plan of each county and city that is planning under (((this chapter))) RCW 36.70A.040 shall include a process for identifying and siting essential public facilities. Essential public facilities include those facilities that are typically difficult to site, such as airports, state education facilities and state or regional transportation facilities as defined in RCW 47.06.140, state and local correctional facilities, solid waste handling facilities, and in-patient facilities including substance abuse facilities, mental health facilities, ((and)) group homes, and secure community transition facilities as defined in RCW 71.09.020.

(2) Each county and city planning under RCW 36.70A.040 shall, not later than the deadline specified in RCW 36.70A.130, establish a process, or amend its existing process, for identifying and siting essential public facilities, and adopt or amend its development regulations as necessary to provide for the siting of secure community transition facilities consistent with statutory requirements and rules applicable to these facilities.

(3) Any city or county not planning under RCW 36.70A.040 shall, not later than the deadline specified in RCW 36.70A.130, establish a process for siting secure community transition facilities and adopt or amend its development regulations as necessary to provide for the siting of such facilities consistent with statutory requirements and rules applicable to these facilities.

(4) The office of financial management shall maintain a list of those essential state public facilities that are required or likely to be built within the next six years. The office of financial management may at any time add facilities to the list.

(5) No local comprehensive plan or development regulation may preclude the siting of essential public facilities. No county or city may preclude the siting of secure community transition facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

The provisions of this act shall not be construed to limit siting of secure community transition facilities to residential

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. Beginning on the effective date of this section, the state shall immediately enter into negotiations for a mitigation agreement with: (1) The county in which the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act is located; (2) each community in which the persons from that facility will reside or regularly spend time in pursuant to court orders for regular work or education, or to receive social services, or will regularly be transported through to reach those other communities; and (3) educational institutions in the communities identified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The negotiations must be toward an agreement that will provide state funding, as appropriated for this purpose, in an amount adequate to mitigate anticipated or realized increased costs resulting from any increased risks to public safety brought about by the presence of sexually violent predators in those communities due to the siting of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act. This section expires June 30, 2003.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall make reasonable efforts to distribute the impact of the employment, education, and social services needs of the residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act among the adjoining counties and not to concentrate the residents' use of resources in any one community.

(2) The department shall develop policies to ensure that, to the extent possible, placement of persons eligible in the future for conditional release to a setting less restrictive than the facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act will be equitably distributed among the counties and within jurisdictions in the county.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. The department of social and health services shall, by August 1, 2001, and prior to operating the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, hold at least three public hearings in the affected communities within the county where the facility is located.

The purpose of the public hearings is to seek input from county and city officials, local law enforcement officials, and the public regarding operations and security measures needed to adequately protect the community from any increased risk to public safety brought about by the presence of persons conditionally released from the special commitment center in these communities due to the siting of the facility. The department shall ensure that persons have a full opportunity to speak to the issues to be addressed during each hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. The secretary of social and health services shall coordinate with the secretary of corrections and the appropriate local or state law enforcement agency or agencies to establish a twenty-four-hour law enforcement presence on McNeil Island before any person is admitted to the secure community transition facility established under section 201(1) of this act. Law enforcement shall coordinate with the emergency response team for McNeil Island to provide planning and coordination in the event of an escape from the special commitment center or the secure community transition facility.

In addition, or if no law enforcement agency will provide a law enforcement presence on the island, not more than ten correctional employees, as selected by the secretary of corrections, who are members of the emergency response team for the McNeil Island correctional facility, shall have the powers and duties of a general authority peace officer while acting in a law enforcement capacity. If there is no law enforcement agency to provide the law enforcement presence, those correctional employees selected as peace officers shall provide a twenty-four-hour presence and shall not have correctional duties at the correctional facility in addition to the emergency response team while acting in a law enforcement capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By August 1, 2001, the department must provide the appropriate committees of the legislature with a transportation plan to address the issues of coordinating the movement of residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland with the movement of others who must use the same docks or equipment within the funds appropriated for this purpose.

(2) If the department does not provide a separate vessel for transporting residents of the secure community transition facility established in section 201(1) of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland, the plan shall include at least the following components:

(a) The residents shall be separated from minors and vulnerable adults, except vulnerable adults who have been found to be sexually violent predators.
(b) The residents shall not be transported during times when children are normally coming to and from the mainland for school.
(c) The department shall designate a separate waiting area at the points of debarkation, and residents shall be required to remain in this area while awaiting transportation.
(d) The department shall provide law enforcement agencies in the counties and cities in which residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act regularly participate in employment, education, or social services, or through which these persons are regularly transported, with a copy of the court's order of conditional release with respect to these persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

When considering whether a person civilly committed under this chapter and conditionally released to a secure community transition facility is appropriate for release to a placement that is less restrictive than that facility, the court shall comply with the procedures set forth in RCW 71.09.090 through 71.09.096. In addition, the court shall consider whether the person has progressed in treatment to the point that a significant change in the person's routine, including but not limited to a change of employment, education, residence, or sex offender treatment provider will not cause the person to regress to the point that the person presents a greater risk to the community than can reasonably be addressed in the proposed placement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except with respect to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, the secretary shall adopt rules that balance the average response time of emergency services to the general area of a proposed secure community transition facility against the proximity of the proposed site to risk potential activities and facilities in existence at the time the site is listed for consideration.

(2) In balancing the competing criteria of proximity and response time the rule shall endeavor to achieve an average law enforcement response time not greater than five minutes and in no case shall the rule permit location of a facility adjacent to, immediately across a street or parking lot from, or within the line of sight of a risk potential activity or facility in existence at the time a site is listed for consideration. “Within the line of sight” means that it is possible to reasonably visually distinguish and recognize individuals.

(3) The rule shall require that great weight be given to sites that are the farthest removed from any risk potential activity.

(4) The rule shall specify how distance from the location is measured and any variations in the measurement based on the size of the property within which a proposed facility is to be located.

(5) The rule shall establish a method to analyze and compare the criteria for each site in terms of public safety and security, site characteristics, and program components. In making a decision regarding a site following the analysis and comparison, the secretary shall give priority to public safety and security considerations. The analysis and comparison of the criteria are to be documented and made available at the public hearings prescribed in section 219 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall establish criteria for the siting of secure community transition facilities, other than the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, which shall include at least the following minimum requirements:

(1) Any real property listed for consideration for the location of or use as a secure community transition facility must meet all of the following criteria:
(a) The proximity and response time criteria established under section 213 of this act;
(b) The site or building is available for lease for the anticipated use period or for purchase;
(c) Security monitoring services and appropriate back-up systems are available and reliable;
(d) Appropriate mental health and sex offender treatment providers must be available within a reasonable commute; and
(e) Appropriate permitting for a secure community transition facility must be possible under the zoning code of the local jurisdiction.

(2) For sites which meet the criteria of subsection (1) of this section, the department shall analyze and compare the criteria in subsections (3) through (5) of this section using the method established in section 213 of this act.

(3) Public safety and security criteria shall include at least the following:
(a) Whether limited visibility between the facility and adjacent properties can be achieved prior to placement of any person;
(b) The distance from, and number of, risk potential activities and facilities, as measured using the rules adopted under section 213 of this act;
(c) The existence of or ability to establish barriers between the site and the risk potential facilities and activities;
(d) Suitability of the buildings to be used for the secure community transition facility with regard to existing or feasibly modified features; and
(e) The availability of electronic monitoring that allows a resident's location to be determined with specificity.

(4) Site characteristics criteria shall include at least the following:
(a) Reasonableness of rental, lease, or sale terms including length and renewability of a lease or rental agreement;
(b) Traffic and access patterns associated with the real property;
(c) Feasibility of complying with zoning requirements within the necessary time frame; and
(d) A contractor or contractors are available to install, monitor, and repair the necessary security and alarm systems.

(5) Program characteristics criteria shall include at least the following:
(a) Reasonable proximity to available medical, mental health, sex offender, and chemical dependency treatment providers and facilities;
(b) Suitability of the location for programming, staffing, and support considerations;
(c) Proximity to employment, educational, vocational, and other treatment plan components.

(6) For purposes of this section "available" or "availability" of qualified treatment providers include provider qualifications and willingness to provide services, average commute time, and cost of services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Security systems for all secure community transition facilities shall meet the following minimum qualifications:
(a) The security panel must be a commercial grade panel with tamper-proof switches and a key-lock to prevent unauthorized access.
(b) There must be an emergency electrical supply system which shall include a battery back-up system and a generator.
(c) The system must include personal panic devices for all staff.
(d) The security system must be capable of being monitored and signaled either by telephone through either a land or cellular telephone system or by private radio network in the event of a total dial-tone failure or through equivalent technologies.
(e) The department shall issue photo-identification badges to all staff which must be worn at all times.

(2) Security systems for the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act shall also include a fence and provide the maximum protection appropriate in a civil facility for persons in less than total confinement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Secure community transition facilities shall meet the following minimum staffing requirements:
(a) At any time the census of a facility is six or fewer residents, the facility shall maintain a minimum staffing ratio of one staff per resident during normal waking hours and two awake staff per three residents during normal sleeping hours.
(b) At any time the census of a facility is six or fewer residents, all staff shall be classified as residential rehabilitation counselor II or have a classification that indicates a higher level of skill, experience, and training.
(c) Before being assigned to a facility, all staff shall have training in sex offender issues, self-defense, and crisis de-escalation skills in addition to departmental orientation and, as appropriate, management training. All staff with resident treatment or care duties must participate in ongoing in-service training.
(d) All staff must pass a departmental background check and the check is not subject to the limitations in chapter 9.96A RCW. A person who has been convicted of a felony, or any sex offense, may not be employed at the secure community transition facility or be approved as an escort for the facility.

(2) With respect to the facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, the department shall, no later than December 1, 2001, provide a staffing plan to the appropriate committees of the legislature that will cover the growth of that facility to its full capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court:
(a) Residents of a secure community transition facility shall wear electronic monitoring devices at all times. To the extent that electronic monitoring devices that employ global positioning system technology are available and funds for this purpose are appropriated by the legislature, the department shall use these devices.
(b) At least one staff member, or other court-authorized and department-approved person must escort each resident when the resident leaves the secure community transition facility for appointments, employment, or other approved activities. Escorting personnel must supervise the resident closely and maintain close proximity to the resident. The escort must immediately notify the department of any serious violation, as defined in section 221 of this act, by the resident and must immediately notify law enforcement of any violation of law by the resident.

(2) Staff members of the special commitment center and any other total confinement facility and any secure community transition facility must be trained in self-defense and appropriate crisis responses including incident de-escalation. Prior to escorting a person outside of a facility, staff members must also have training in the offense pattern of the offender they are escorting.

(3) Any escort must carry a cellular telephone or a similar device at all times when escorting a resident of a secure community transition facility.

(4) The department shall require training in offender pattern, self-defense, and incident response for all court-authorized escorts who are not employed by the department or the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 218. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 217 of this act, residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act must be escorted at any time the resident leaves the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 219. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department operates, or the secretary enters into a contract to operate, a secure community transition facility except the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, the secure community transition facility may be operated only after the public notification and opportunities for review and comment as required by this section.

(2) The secretary shall establish a process for early and continuous public participation in establishing or relocating secure community transition facilities. The process shall include, at a minimum, public meetings in the local communities affected, as well as opportunities for written and oral comments, in the following manner:

(a) If there are more than three sites initially selected as potential locations and the selection process by the secretary or a service provider reduces the number of possible sites for a secure community transition facility to no fewer than three, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall notify the public of the possible siting and hold at least two public hearings in each community where a secure community transition facility may be sited.

(b) When the secretary or service provider has determined the secure community transition facility's location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall hold at least one additional public hearing in the community where the secure community transition facility will be sited.

(c) When the secretary has entered negotiations with a service provider and only one site is under consideration, then at least two public hearings shall be held.

(d) To provide adequate notice of, and opportunity for interested persons to comment on, a proposed location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall provide at least fourteen days' advance notice of the meeting to all newspapers of general circulation in the community, all radio and television stations generally available to persons in the community, any school district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited or whose boundary is within two miles of a proposed secure community transition facility, any library district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited, local business or fraternal organizations that request notification from the secretary or agency, and any person or property owner within a one-half mile radius of the proposed secure community transition facility. Before initiating this process, the department of social and health services shall contact local government planning agencies in the communities containing the proposed secure community transition facility. The department of social and health services shall coordinate with local government agencies to ensure that opportunities are provided for effective citizen input and to reduce the duplication of notice and meetings.

(3) If local government land use regulations require that a special use or conditional use permit be submitted and approved before a secure community transition facility can be sited, and the process for obtaining such a permit includes public notice and hearing requirements similar to those required under this section, the requirements of this section shall not apply to the extent they would duplicate requirements under the local land use regulations.

(4) This section applies only to secure community transition facilities sited after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 220. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall develop a process with local governments that allows each community in which a secure community transition facility is located to establish operational advisory boards of at least seven persons for the secure community transition facilities. The department may conduct community awareness activities to publicize this opportunity. The operational advisory boards developed under this section shall be implemented following the decision to locate a secure community transition facility in a particular community.

(2) The operational advisory boards may review and make recommendations regarding the security and operations of the secure community transition facility and conditions or modifications necessary with relation to any person who the secretary proposes to place in the secure community transition facility.

(3) The facility management must consider the recommendations of the community advisory boards. Where the facility management does not implement an operational advisory board recommendation, the management must provide a written response to the operational advisory board stating its reasons for its decision not to implement the recommendation.

(4) The operational advisory boards, their members, and any agency represented by a member shall not be liable in any cause of action as a result of its recommendations unless the advisory board acts with gross negligence or bad faith in making a recommendation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 221. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall adopt a violation reporting policy for persons conditionally released to less restrictive alternative placements. The policy shall require written documentation by the department and service providers of all violations of conditions set by the department, the department of corrections, or the court and establish criteria for returning a violator to the special commitment center or a secure community transition facility with a higher degree of security. Any conditionally released person who commits a serious violation of conditions shall be returned to the special commitment center, unless arrested by a law enforcement officer, and the court shall be notified immediately and shall initiate proceedings under RCW 71.09.098 to revoke or modify the less restrictive alternative placement. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the department to return a person to the special commitment center based on a violation that is not a serious violation as defined in this section. For the purposes of this section, "serious violation" includes but is not limited to:

(a) Any violation of any criminal offense; and
(b) Any violation of conditions targeted to address the person's documented pattern of offense that increases the risk to public safety.

(2) When a person is conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under this chapter and is under the supervision of the department of corrections, notice of any violation of the person's conditions of release must also be made to the department of corrections.

(3) Whenever the secretary contracts with a service provider to operate a secure community transition facility, the contract shall include a requirement that the service provider report to the department of social and health services any known violation of conditions committed by any resident of the secure community transition facility.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 222. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows: Whenever the secretary contracts with a provider to operate a secure community transition facility, the secretary shall include in the contract provisions establishing intermediate contract enforcement remedies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 223. (4) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

For offenders placed on community custody for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000, the department shall assess the offender's risk of reoffense and may establish and modify conditions of community custody, in addition to those imposed by the court, based upon the risk to community safety.

(6) "Community custody range" means the minimum and maximum period of community custody included as part of a sentence under RCW 9.94A.715, as established by the commission or the legislature under RCW 9.94A.040, for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000.

(7) "Community placement" means that period during which the offender is subject to the conditions of community custody and/or postrelease supervision, which begins either upon completion of the term of confinement (postrelease supervision) or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release. For the purposes of this definition, "earnings" means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonuses, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy a court-ordered legal financial obligation, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW.

Any violation of conditions of community custody established or modified by the board shall be subject to the provisions of sections 307 through 310 of this act.

(7) If the department finds that an emergency exists requiring the immediate imposition of conditions of release in addition to those set by the board under section 306 of this act in order to prevent the offender from committing a crime, the department may impose additional conditions. The department may not impose conditions that are contrary to those set by the board or the court and may not contravene or decrease court-imposed or board-imposed conditions. Conditions imposed under this subsection shall take effect immediately after notice to the offender by personal service, but shall not remain in effect longer than seven working days unless approved by the board under subsection (1) of this section within seven working days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall provide offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act with the opportunity for sex offender treatment during incarceration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1)(a) Before the expiration of the minimum term, as part of the end of sentence review process under RCW 72.09.340, 72.09.345, and where appropriate, 72.09.370, the department shall conduct, and the offender shall participate in, an examination of the offender, incorporating methodologies that are recognized by experts in the prediction of sexual dangerousness, and including a prediction of the probability that the offender will engage in sex offenses if released. (b) The board may contract for an additional, independent examination, subject to the standards in this section.

(2) The board shall impose the conditions and instructions provided for in RCW 9.94A.720. The board shall consider the department's recommendations and may impose conditions in addition to those recommended by the department. The board may impose or modify conditions of community custody following notice to the offender.

(3) No later than ninety days before expiration of the minimum term, but after the board receives the results from the end of sentence review process and the recommendations for additional or modified conditions of community custody from the department, the board may consider whether the offender would be more likely to engage in sex offenses if released on conditions to be set by the board. The board may consider an offender's failure to participate in an evaluation under subsection (1) of this section in determining whether to release the offender. The board shall order the offender released, under such affirmative and other conditions as the board determines appropriate, unless the board determines by a preponderance of the evidence that, despite such conditions, it is more likely than not that the offender will commit sex offenses if released. If the board does not order the offender released, the board shall establish a new minimum term, not to exceed an additional two years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(a) Hearings shall be conducted by members of the board unless the board enters into an agreement with the department to use the hearing officers established under RCW 9.94A.205.

(b) The board shall provide the offender with written notice of the violation, the evidence relied upon, and the reasons the particular sanction was imposed. The notice shall include a statement of the rights specified in this subsection, and the offender's right to file a personal restraint petition under court rules after the final decision of the board.

(c) The hearing shall be held unless waived by the offender, and shall be electronically recorded. For offenders not in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within fifteen working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation. For offenders in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within five working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation.

(d) The offender shall have the right to: (i) Be present at the hearing; (ii) have the assistance of a person qualified to assist the offender in the hearing, appointed by the hearing examiner if the offender has a language or communications barrier; (iii) testify or remain silent; (iv) call witnesses and present documentary evidence; (v) question witnesses who appear and testify; and (vi) be represented by counsel if revocation of the release to community custody is a possible sanction for the violation; and (vii) have the opportunity for a hearing before the hearing examiner.

The sanction shall take effect if affirmed by the hearing examiner. Within seven days after the hearing examiner’s decision, the offender may appeal the decision to a panel of three reviewing examiners designated by the chair of the board or by the chair’s designee. The sanction shall be reversed or modified if a majority of the panel finds that the sanction was not reasonably related to any of the following: (i) The crime of conviction; (ii) the violation committed; (iii) the offender’s risk of reoffending; or (iv) the safety of the community.

For purposes of this section, no finding of a violation of conditions may be based on unconfirmed or unconfirmable allegations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

In the event the board suspends release status of an offender released under section 306 of this act by reason of an alleged violation of a condition of release, or pending disposition of a new criminal charge, the board may nullify the suspension order and reinstate release under previous conditions or any new conditions the board determines advisable. Before the board may nullify a suspension order and reinstate release, it shall determine that the best interests of society and the offender shall be served by such reinstatement rather than return to confinement.

Sec. 311. RCW 9.94A.060 and 1986 c 332 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission consists of twenty voting members, one of whom the governor shall designate as chairperson. With the exception of ex officio voting members, the voting members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate.

The voting membership consists of the following:

(a) The head of the state agency having general responsibility for adult correction programs, as an ex officio member;
(b) The director of financial management or designee, as an ex officio member;
(c) The chair’s designee.

The head of the state agency, or the agency head’s designee, having responsibility for juvenile corrections programs, as an ex officio member;

Two prosecuting attorneys;
Two attorneys with particular expertise in defense work;
Four persons who are superior court judges;

In making the appointments, the governor shall endeavor to assure that the commission membership includes adequate representation and expertise relating to both the adult criminal justice system and the juvenile justice system. (a) All voting members of the commission, except ex officio voting members, shall serve terms of three years and until their successors are appointed and confirmed.

(b) The governor shall stagger the terms of the members appointed under subsection (2)(j), (k), and (l) of this section by appointing one of them for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years.

(4) The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may each appoint two nonvoting members to the commission, one from each of the two largest caucuses in each house. The members so appointed shall serve two-year terms, or until they cease to be members of the house from which they were appointed, whichever occurs first.

(5) The members of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, Legislative members shall be reimbursed by their respective houses as provided under RCW 44.04.120(l)(—as new existing or hereafter amended)). Members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250.

Sec. 312. RCW 9.94A.120 and 2001 c 10 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this chapter.
(2) (a) The court shall impose a sentence as provided in the following sections and as applicable in the case:
(b) Unless another term of confinement applies, the court shall impose a sentence within the standard sentence range established in RCW 9.94A.310;
(ii) RCW 9.94A.700 and 9.94A.705, relating to community placement;
(iii) RCW 9.94A.710 and 9.94A.715, relating to community custody;
(iv) RCW 9.94A.383, relating to community custody for offenders whose term of confinement is one year or less;
(v) RCW 9.94A.560, relating to persistent offenders;
(vi) RCW 9.94A.590, relating to mandatory minimum terms;
(vii) RCW 9.94A.650, relating to the first-time offender waiver;
(viii) RCW 9.94A.660, relating to the drug offender sentencing alternative;
(ix) RCW 9.94A.670, relating to the special sex offender sentencing alternative;
(x) Section 303 of this act, relating to certain sex offenses;
(xi) RCW 9.94A.390, relating to exceptional sentences;
(xii) RCW 9.94A.400, relating to consecutive and concurrent sentences.
If a standard sentence range has not been established for the offender's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement; community service work; until July 1, 2000, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year and on and after July 1, 2000, a term of community custody not to exceed one year, subject to conditions and sanctions as authorized in RCW 9.94A.710 (2) and (3); and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds reasons justifying an exceptional sentence as provided in RCW 9.94A.390.

(3) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(4) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial obligation, it shall be imposed as provided in RCW 9.94A.140, 9.94A.142, and 9.94A.145.

(5) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(4) and 9.94A.142(4), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision, community placement, or community custody which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(7) The court shall order restitution as provided in RCW 9.94A.140 and 9.94A.142.

(8) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions as provided in this chapter.

(9) The court may order an offender whose sentence includes community placement or community supervision to undergo a mental status evaluation and to participate in available outpatient mental health treatment, if the court finds that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the offender is a mentally ill person as defined in RCW 71.24.025, and that this condition is likely to have influenced the offense. An order requiring mental status evaluation or treatment must be based on a presentence report and, if applicable, mental status evaluations that have been filed with the court to determine the offender's competency or eligibility for a defense of insanity. The court may order additional evaluations at a later date if deemed appropriate.

(10) In any sentence of partial confinement, the court may require the offender to serve the partial confinement in work release, in a program of home detention, on work crew, or in a combined program of work crew and home detention.

(11) In sentencing an offender convicted of a crime of domestic violence, as defined in RCW 10.99.020, if the offender has a minor child, or if the victim of the offense for which the offender was convicted has a minor child, the court may, as part of any term of community supervision, community placement, or community custody, order the offender to participate in a domestic violence perpetrator program approved under RCW 26.50.150.

Sec. 313. RCW 9.94A.190 and 2000 c 28 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided in subsection (3) or (5) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county, or if home detention or work crew has been ordered by the court, in the residence of either the offender or a member of the offender's immediate family.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a sentence imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.660 which has a standard sentence range of over one year, regardless of length, shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

(5) Sentences imposed pursuant to section 303 of this act shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

Sec. 314. RCW 9.94A.390 and 2000 c 28 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for an offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence. Whenever a sentence outside the standard sentence range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard sentence range shall be a determinate sentence unless it is imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act. An exceptional sentence imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act shall be to a minimum term set by the court and a maximum term equal to the statutory maximum sentence for the offense of conviction under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard sentence range should be imposed, the sentence is subject to review only as provided in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400 (1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in this section, and may be appealed by the offender or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210 (2) through (6).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

(a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.
(b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his or her conduct, or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired. Voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded.

(f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(h) The defendant or the defendant's children suffered a continuing pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and the offense is a response to that abuse.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

(a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(c) The current offense was a violent offense, and the defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was pregnant.

(d) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time; or

(iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

(e) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:

(i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so;

(ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use;

(iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties;

(iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy;

(v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning, occurred over a lengthy period of time, or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional).

(f) The current offense included a finding of sexual motivation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.127.

(g) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time.

(h) The current offense involved domestic violence, as defined in RCW 10.99.020, and one or more of the following was present:

(i) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of psychological, physical, or sexual abuse of the victim manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time;

(ii) The offense occurred within sight or sound of the victim's or the offender's minor children under the age of eighteen years;

(iii) The offender's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty or intimidation of the victim.

(i) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(j) The defendant's prior unascertained misdemeanor or prior unascertained foreign criminal history results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(k) The offense resulted in the pregnancy of a child victim of rape.

(l) The defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was a youth who was not residing with a legal custodian and the defendant established or promoted the relationship for the primary purpose of victimization.

Sec. 315. RCW 9.94A.590 and 2000 c 28 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified under RCW 9.94A.390:

(a) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years.

(b) An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree or assault of a child in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.

(c) An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.

(d) An offender convicted of the crime of sexually violent predator escape shall be sentenced to a minimum term of total confinement not less than sixty months.
(2) During such minimum terms of total confinement, no offender subject to the provisions of this section is eligible for community custody, earned release time, furlough, home detention, partial confinement, work crew, work release, or any other form of early release authorized under RCW 9.94A.150, or any other form of authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility unless not in the direct custody of a corrections officer. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply: (a) In the case of an offender in need of emergency medical treatment; (b) for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility in the case of an offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree; or (c) for an extraordinary medical placement when authorized under RCW 9.94A.150(4).

Sec. 316. RCW 9.94A.670 and 2000 c 28 § 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this subsection apply to this section only.

(a) "Sex offender treatment provider" or "treatment provider" means a certified sex offender treatment provider as defined in RCW 18.155.020.

(b) "Victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. "Victim" also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

(2) An offender is eligible for the special sex offender sentencing alternative if:

(a) The offender has been convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense.

(b) The offender has no prior convictions for a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state; and

(c) The offender's standard sentence range for the offense includes the possibility of confinement for less than eleven years.

(3) If the court finds the offender is eligible for this alternative, the court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the offender, may order an examination to determine whether the offender is amenable to treatment.

(a) The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following:

(i) The offender's version of the facts and the official version of the facts;

(ii) The offender's offense history;

(iii) An assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors;

(iv) The offender's social and employment situation; and

(v) Other evaluation measures used.

The report shall set forth the sources of the examiner's information.

(b) The examiner shall assess and report on the offender's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

(i) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;

(ii) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;

(iii) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;

(iv) Anticipated length of treatment; and

(v) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

(c) The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The examiner shall be selected by the party making the motion. The offender shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost.

(4) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this section. If the court determines that this alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence or, pursuant to section 303 of this act, a minimum term of sentence, within the standard sentence range. If the sentence imposed is less (than (than)) than eleven years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension:

(a) The court shall place the offender on community custody for the length of the suspended sentence, the length of the maximum term imposed pursuant to section 303 of this act, or three years, whichever is greater, and require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department under RCW 9.94A.720.

(b) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court, in its discretion, shall order outpatient sex offender treatment or inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first notifying the prosecutor, the community corrections officer, and the court. If any party or the court objects to a proposed change, the offender shall not change providers or conditions without court approval after a hearing.

(5) As conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose one or more of the following:

(a) Up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense;

(b) Crime-related prohibitions;

(c) Require the offender to devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(d) Determine within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(f) Pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030;

(g) Perform community service work; or

(h) Reimburse the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

(6) At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment.

(7) The sex offender treatment provider shall submit quarterly reports on the offender's progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following: Dates of attendance, offender's compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the offender's relative progress in treatment, and any other material specified by the court at sentencing.

Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment provider and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the offender's compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community custody conditions. Either party may request, and the court may order, another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The offender shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds the offender to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may: (a) Modify conditions of community custody, and either (b) terminate treatment, or (c) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community custody.

If a violation of conditions occurs during community custody, the department shall either impose sanctions as provided for in RCW 9.94A.205(2)(a) or refer the violation to the court and recommend revocation of the suspended sentence as provided for in subsections (6) and (8) of this section.

(10) The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community custody and order execution of the sentence if: (a) The offender violates the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (b) the court finds that the offender is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community custody shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(11) Examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW unless the court finds that:
(a) The offender has already moved to another state or plans to move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; or (b)(i) No certified providers are available for treatment within a reasonable geographical distance of the offender's home; and
(ii) The evaluation and treatment plan comply with this section and the rules adopted by the department of health.
(12) If the offender is less than eighteen years of age when the charge is filed, the state shall pay for the cost of initial evaluation and treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 317. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) "Board" means the indeterminate sentence review board.
(2) "Community custody" means that portion of an offender's sentence subject to controls including crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions from the court, the board, or the department of corrections based on risk to community safety, that is served under supervision in the community, and which may be modified or revoked for violations of release conditions.
(3) "Crime-related prohibition" has the meaning defined in RCW 9.94A.030.
(4) "Department" means the department of corrections.
(5) "Parole" means that portion of a person's sentence for a crime committed before July 1, 1984, served on conditional release in the community subject to board controls and revocation and under supervision of the department.
(6) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of corrections or his or her designee.

Sec. 318. RCW 9.95.005 and 1986 c 224 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall meet at (the penitentiary and the reformatory) major state correctional institutions at such times as may be necessary for a full and complete study of the cases of all convicted persons whose durations of confinement are to be determined by it (((ae))); whose community custody supervision is under the board's authority; or whose applications for parole come before it. Other times and places of meetings may also be fixed by the board.

The superintendents of the different institutions shall provide suitable quarters for the board and assistants while in the discharge of their duties.

Sec. 319. RCW 9.95.010 and 1955 c 133 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person whose crime was committed before July 1, 1984, is convicted of any felony, except treason, murder in the first degree, or carnal knowledge of a child under ten years, and a new trial is not granted, the court shall sentence such person to community custody, or, if the law allows and the court sees fit to exercise such discretion, to the reformatory, and shall fix the maximum term of such person's sentence only.

The maximum term to be fixed by the court shall be the maximum provided by law for the crime of which such person was convicted, if the law provides for a maximum term. If the law does not provide a maximum term for the crime of which such person was convicted the court shall fix such maximum term, which may be for any number of years up to and including life imprisonment but in any case where the maximum term is fixed by the court it shall be fixed at not less than twenty years.

eral health, and, as necessary, mental disabilities, the appropriate regional support network, and the providers, as appropriate, shall develop a plan, as determined necessary by the team, for delivery of treatment and support services to the offender upon release. The team may include a school district representative for offenders under the age of twenty-one. The team shall consult with the offender's counsel, if any, and, as appropriate, the offender's family and community. The team shall notify the crime victim/witness program, which shall provide notice to all people registered to receive notice under RCW 9.94A.155 of the proposed release plan developed by the team. Victims, witnesses, and other interested people notified by the department may provide information and comments to the department on potential safety risk to specific individuals or classes of individuals posed by the specific offender. The team may recommend: (a) That the offender be evaluated by the county designated mental health professional, as defined in chapter 71.05 RCW, department-supervised community treatment; or (c) voluntary community mental health or chemical dependency or abuse treatment.

(3) Prior to release of an offender identified under this section, the team shall determine whether or not an evaluation by a county designated mental health professional is needed. If an evaluation is recommended, the supporting documentation shall be immediately forwarded to the appropriate county designated mental health professional. The supporting documentation shall include the offender's criminal history, history of judicially required or administratively ordered involuntary antipsychotic medication while in confinement, and any known history of involuntary civil commitment.

(4) If an evaluation by a county designated mental health professional is recommended by the team, such evaluation shall occur not more than ten days, nor less than five days, prior to release.

(5) A second evaluation by a county designated mental health professional shall occur on the day of release if requested by the team, based upon new information or a change in the offender's mental condition, and the initial evaluation did not result in an emergency detention or a summons under chapter 71.05 RCW.

(6) If the county designated mental health professional determines an emergency detention under chapter 71.05 RCW is necessary, the department shall release the offender only to a state hospital or to a consenting evaluation and treatment facility. The department shall arrange transportation of the offender to the hospital or facility.

(7) If the county designated mental health professional believes that a less restrictive alternative treatment is appropriate, he or she shall seek a summons, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 71.05 RCW, to require the offender to appear at an evaluation and treatment facility. If a summons is issued, the offender shall remain within the corrections facility until completion of his or her term of confinement and be transported, by corrections personnel on the day of completion, directly to the identified evaluation and treatment facility.

(8) The secretary shall adopt rules to implement this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 363. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 403. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

The treatment provider is not liable for civil damages resulting from the reoffense of a client unless the treatment provider's acts or omissions constituted gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. This limited liability provision does not eliminate the treatment provider's duty to warn of and protect from a client's threatened violent behavior if the client communicates a serious threat of physical violence against a reasonably ascertainable victim or victims. This limited liability provision applies only to the conduct of certified sex offender treatment providers and not the conduct of the state.

A treatment provider approved by the department of social and health services under (c) of this subsection, who is not certified by the department of health, shall consult with a certified provider during the person's period of treatment to ensure compliance with the rules adopted by the department of health. The frequency and content of the consultation shall be based on the recommendation of the certified provider.

(2) A treatment provider, whether or not he or she is employed or approved by the department of social and health services under subsection (1) of this section or otherwise certified, may not perform or provide treatment of sexually violent predators under this section if the treatment provider has been:

(a) Convicted of a sex offense, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;

(b) Convicted in any other jurisdiction of an offense that under the laws of this state would be classified as a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030; or

(c) Suspended or otherwise restricted from practicing any health care profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction.

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. The legislature intends the following omnibus bill to address the management of sex offenders in the civil commitment and criminal justice systems for purposes of public health, safety, and welfare. Provisions address siting of and continued operation of facilities for persons civilly committed under chapter 71.09 RCW and sentencing of persons who have committed sex offenses. Other provisions address the need for sex offender treatment providers with specific credentials. Additional provisions address the continued operation or authorized expansion of criminal justice facilities at McNeil Island, because these facilities are impacted by the civil facilities on McNeil Island for persons committed under chapter 71.09 RCW.

Sec. 102. RCW 71.09.020 and 2001 c 286 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "(Sexually violent predator) means any person who has been convicted of or charged with a crime of sexual violence and who suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder which makes the person likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility.

(2) "Mental abnormality" means a congenital or acquired condition affecting the emotional or volitional capacity which predisposes the person to the commission of criminal sexual acts in a degree constituting such a menace to the health and safety of others.

(3) "Department" means the Department of Social and Health Services.

(4) "Less restrictive alternative" means court-ordered treatment in a setting less restrictive than total confinement which satisfies the conditions set forth in RCW 71.09.092.

(5) "Likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility" means that the person more probably than not will engage in such acts if released unconditionally from detention on the sexually violent predator petition. Such likelihood must be evidenced by a recent overt act if the person is not totally confined at the time the petition is filed under RCW 71.09.030.

(6) "Mental abnormality" means a congenital or acquired condition affecting the emotional or volitional capacity which predisposes the person to the commission of criminal sexual acts in a degree constituting such a menace to the health and safety of others.

(7) "Predatory" means acts directed towards: (a) Strangers; (b) individuals with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization; or (c) persons of casual acquaintance with whom no substantial personal relationship exists.

(8) "Recent overt act" means any act or threat that has either caused harm of a sexually violent nature or creates a reasonable apprehension of such harm in the mind of an objective person who knows of the history and mental condition of the person engaging in the act.

(9) "Risk potential activity" or "risk potential facility" means an activity or facility that provides a higher incidence of risk to the public from persons conditionally released from the special commitment center. PART II

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A NEW SECTION IS ADDED TO CHAPTER 71.09 RCW TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1)(a) The Secretary is authorized to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island for persons authorized to petition for a less restrictive alternative under RCW 71.09.090(1) and who are conditionally released under a special commitment center on McNeil Island with up to four hundred four beds as a total confinement facility under this chapter, subject to appropriated funding for those purposes. The secure community transition facility shall be authorized for the number of beds needed to ensure compliance with the orders of the superior courts under this chapter and the federal district court for the western district of Washington. The total number of transitional beds shall be limited to fifteen. The residents occupying these beds shall be the only residents eligible for transitional services occurring in Pierce County. In no event shall more than fifteen residents of the secure community transition facility be participating in off-island transitional, educational, or employment activity at the same time in Pierce County. The department shall provide the Pierce County Sheriff, or his or her designee, with a list of the fifteen residents so designated, along with their photographs and physical descriptions, and it shall be immediately updated whenever a residential change occurs. The Pierce County Sheriff, or his or her designee, shall be provided an opportunity to confirm the residential status of each resident leaving McNeil Island.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, "transitional beds" means beds only for residents in halfway house status who are judged by a qualified expert to be suitable to leave the island for treatment, education, and employment.

(2)(a) The Secretary is authorized to site, either within the secure community transition facility established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section or within the special commitment center, up to nine pretransitional beds.

(b) Residents assigned to pretransitional beds shall not be permitted to leave McNeil Island for education, employment, treatment, or community activities in Pierce County.

(c) For purposes of this subsection, "pretransitional beds" means beds for residents whose progress toward a less secure residential environment and transition into more complete community involvement is projected to take substantially longer than a typical resident of the special commitment center.

(3) Notwithstanding RCW 36.70A.103 or any other law, this statute preempts and supersedes local plans, development regulations, permitting requirements, inspection requirements, and all other laws as necessary to enable the secretary to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island and a total confinement facility on McNeil Island.

(4) To the greatest extent possible, until June 30, 2003, persons who were not civilly committed from the county in which the secure community transition facility established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is located may not be conditionally released to a setting in that same county less restrictive than that facility.

(5) As of the effective date of this section, the state shall immediately cease any efforts in effect on such date to site secure community transition facilities, other than the facility authorized by subsection (1) of this section, and shall instead site such facilities in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(6) The department must:

(a) Identify the minimum and maximum number of secure community transition facility beds in addition to the facility established under subsection (1) of this section that may be necessary for the period of May 2004 through May 2007 and provide notice of these numbers to all counties by August 31, 2001;

(b) In consultation with the joint select committee established in section 225 of this act, develop and publish policy guidance for the siting and operation of secure community transition facilities by October 1, 2001; and

(c) Provide a status report to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2002, on the development of facilities under the incentive program established in section 204 of this act. The report shall include a projection of the anticipated number of secure community transition facility beds that will become operational between May 2004 and May 2007. If it appears that an insufficient number of beds will be operational, the department's report shall recommend a progression of methods to facilitate siting in counties and cities including, if necessary, preemption of local land use planning process and other laws.

(7)(a) The total number of secure community transition facility beds that may be required to be sited in a county between the effective date of this section and June 30, 2008, may be no greater than the total number of persons civilly committed from that county, or detained at the special commitment center under a pending civil commitment petition from that county where a finding of probable cause had been made on April 1, 2001. The total number of secure community transition facility beds required to be sited in each county between July 1, 2008, and June 30, 2015, may be no greater than the total number of persons civilly committed from that county or detained at the special commitment center under a pending civil commitment petition from that county where a finding of probable cause had been made as of July 1, 2008.

(b) Counties and cities that provide secure community transition facility beds above the maximum number that they could be required to site under this subsection shall not receive a bonus grant under the incentive provisions in section 204 of this act. The county where the special commitment center is located shall receive this bonus grant for the number of beds in the facility established in subsection (1) of this section in excess of the maximum number established by this subsection.

(c) No secure community transition facilities in addition to the one established in subsection (1) of this section may be required to be sited in the county where the special commitment center is located until after June 30, 2008.
Provided however, that the county and its cities may elect to site additional secure community transition facilities and shall be eligible under the incentive provisions of section 204 of this act for any additional facilities meeting the requirements of that section.

(8) In identifying potential sites within a county for the location of a secure community transition facility, the department shall work with and assist local governments to provide for the equitable distribution of such facilities. In coordinating and deciding upon the siting of secure community transition facilities, great weight shall be given by the county and cities within the county to:

(a) The number and location of existing residential facility beds operated by the department of corrections or the mental health division of the department of social and health services in each jurisdiction in the county; and

(b) The number of registered sex offenders classified as level II or level III and the number of sex offenders registered as homeless residing in each jurisdiction in the county.

(9)(a) "Equitable distribution" means siting or locating secure community transition facilities in a manner that will not cause a disproportionate grouping of similar facilities either in any one county, or in any one jurisdiction or community within a county, as relevant; and

(b) "Jurisdiction" means a city, town, or geographic area of a county in which district political or judicial authority may be exercised.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary is authorized to operate a correctional facility on McNeil Island for the confinement of sex offenders and other offenders sentenced by the courts, and to make necessary repairs, renovations, additions, and improvements to state property for that purpose, notwithstanding any local comprehensive plans, development regulations, permitting requirements, or any other local laws. Operation of the correctional facility and other state facilities authorized by this section and other law includes access to adequate docking facilities on state-owned tidelands at the town of Steilacoom.

Sec. 203. RCW 36.70A.103 and 1991 sp.s. c 32 § 4 are each amended to read as follows:

State agencies shall comply with the local comprehensive plans and development regulations and amendments thereto adopted pursuant to this chapter except as otherwise provided in sections 201 (1) through (3) and 202 of this act.

The provisions of this act do not affect the state's authority to site any other essential public facility under RCW 36.70A.200 in conformance with local comprehensive plans and development regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 36.70A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 204. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Upon receiving the notification required by section 201 of this act, counties must promptly notify the cities within the county of the maximum number of secure community transition facility beds that may be required and the projected number of beds to be needed in that county.

(2) The incentive grants provided under this section are subject to the following provisions:

(a) Counties and the cities within the county must notify each other of siting plans to promote the establishment and equitable distribution of secure community transition facilities;

(b) Development regulations, ordinances, plans, laws, and criteria established for siting must be consistent with statutory requirements and rules applicable to siting and operating secure community transition facilities;

(c) The minimum size for any facility is three beds; and

(d) The department must approve any sites selected.

(3) Any county or city that makes a commitment to initiate the process to site one or more secure community transition facilities by February 1, 2002, shall receive a planning grant as proposed and approved by the department of community, trade, and economic development.

(4) Any county or city that has issued all necessary permits by May 1, 2003, for one or more secure community transition facilities that comply with the requirements of this section shall receive an incentive grant in the amount of fifty thousand dollars for each bed sited.

(5) To encourage the rapid permitting of sites, any county or city that has issued all necessary permits by January 1, 2003, for one or more secure community transition facilities that comply with the requirements of this section shall receive a bonus in the amount of twenty percent of the amount provided under subsection (4) of this section.

(6) Any county or city that establishes secure community transition facility beds in excess of the maximum number that could be required to be sited in that county shall receive a bonus payment of one hundred thousand dollars for each bed established in excess of the maximum requirement.

(7) No payment shall be made under subsection (4), (5), or (6) of this section until all necessary permits have been issued.

Sec. 205. RCW 36.70A.200 and 1998 c 171 § 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The comprehensive plan of each county and city that is planning under (this chapter) RCW 36.70A.040 shall include a process for identifying and siting essential public facilities. Essential public facilities include those facilities that are typically difficult to site, such as airports, state education facilities and state or regional transportation facilities as defined in RCW 47.06.140, state and local correctional facilities, solid waste handling facilities, and in-patient facilities including substance abuse facilities, mental health facilities, (and) group homes, and secure community transition facilities as defined in RCW 71.09.020.

(2) Each county and city planning under RCW 36.70A.040 shall, not later than the deadline specified in RCW 36.70A.130, establish a process, or amend its existing process, for identifying and siting essential public facilities, and adopt or amend its development regulations as necessary to provide for the siting of secure community transition facilities consistent with statutory requirements applicable to these facilities.
(3) Any city or county not planning under RCW 36.70A.040 shall, not later than the deadline specified in RCW 36.70A.130, establish a process for siting secure community transition facilities and adopt or amend its development regulations as necessary to provide for the siting of such facilities consistent with statutory requirements applicable to these facilities.

(4) The office of financial management shall maintain a list of those essential state public facilities that are required or likely to be built within the next six years. The office of financial management may at any time add facilities to the list.

(5) No local comprehensive plan or development regulation may preclude the siting of essential public facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

The provisions of this act shall not be construed to limit siting of secure community transition facilities to residential neighborhoods.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. Beginning on the effective date of this section, the state shall immediately enter into negotiations for a mitigation agreement with: (1) The county in which the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act is located; and (2) each community in which the persons from that facility will reside or regularly spend time in pursuant to court orders for regular work or education, or to receive social services, or will regularly be transported through to reach those other communities; and (3) educational institutions in the communities identified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section. The negotiations must be toward an agreement that will provide state funding, as appropriated for this purpose, in an amount adequate to mitigate anticipated or realized increased costs resulting from any increased risks to public safety brought about by the presence of sexually violent predators in those communities due to the siting of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act. This section expires June 30, 2003.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall make reasonable efforts to distribute the impact of the employment, education, and social services needs of the residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act among the adjoining counties and to concentrate the residents’ use of resources in any one community.

(2) The department shall develop policies to ensure that, to the extent possible, placement of persons eligible in the future for conditional release to a setting less restrictive than the facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act will be equitably distributed among the counties and within jurisdictions in the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. The department of social and health services shall, by August 1, 2001, and prior to operating the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, hold at least three public hearings in the affected communities within the county where the facility is located.

The purpose of the public hearings is to seek input from county and city officials, local law enforcement officials, and the public regarding operations and security measures needed to adequately protect the community from any increased risk to public safety brought about by the presence of persons conditionally released from the special commitment center in these communities due to the siting of the facility. The department shall ensure that persons have a full opportunity to speak to the issues to be addressed during each hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 210. The secretary of social and health services shall coordinate with the secretary of corrections and the appropriate local or state law enforcement agency or agencies to establish a twenty-four-hour law enforcement presence on McNeil Island before any person is admitted to the secure community transition facility established under section 201(1) of this act. Law enforcement shall coordinate with the emergency response team for McNeil Island to provide planning and coordination in the event of an escape from the special commitment center or the secure community transition facility.

In addition, or if no law enforcement agency will provide a law enforcement presence on the island, not more than ten correctional employees, as selected by the secretary of corrections, who are members of the emergency response team for the McNeil Island correctional facility, shall have the powers and duties of a general authority peace officer while acting in a law enforcement capacity. If there is no law enforcement agency to provide the law enforcement presence, those correctional employees selected as peace officers shall provide a twenty-four-hour presence and shall not have correctional duties at the correctional facility in addition to the emergency response team while acting in a law enforcement capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By August 1, 2001, the department must provide the appropriate committees of the legislature with a transportation plan to address the issues of coordinating the movement of residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland with the movement of others who must use the same docks or equipment within the funds appropriated for this purpose.

(2) If the department does not provide a separate vessel for transporting residents of the secure community transition facility established in section 201(1) of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland, the plan shall include at least the following components:

(a) The residents shall be separated from minors and vulnerable adults, except vulnerable adults who have been found to be sexually violent predators.

(b) The residents shall not be transported during times when children are normally coming to and from the mainland for school.

(3) The department shall designate a separate waiting area at the points of debarkation, and residents shall be required to remain in this area while awaiting transportation.

(4) The department shall provide law enforcement agencies in the counties and cities in which residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act regularly participate in employment, education, or social services, or through which these persons are regularly transported, with a copy of the court’s order of conditional release with respect to these persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:
WHEN CONSIDERING WHETHER A PERSON CIVILLY COMMITTED UNDER THIS CHAPTER AND CONDITIONALLY RELEASED TO A SECURE COMMUNITY TRANSITION FACILITY IS APPROPRIATE FOR RELEASE TO A PLACEMENT THAT IS LESS RESTRICTIVE THAN THAT FACILITY, THE COURT SHALL CONSIDER WHETHER THE PERSON HAS PROGRESSED IN TREATMENT TO THE POINT THAT A SIGNIFICANT CHANGE IN THE PERSON’S ROUTINE, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO A CHANGE OF EMPLOYMENT, EDUCATION, RESIDENCE, OR SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT PROVIDER WILL NOT CAUSE THE PERSON TO REGRESS TO THE POINT THAT THE PERSON PRESENTS A GREATER RISK TO THE COMMUNITY THAN CAN REASONABLY BE ADDRESSED IN THE PROPOSED PLACEMENT.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 213. A NEW SECTION IS ADDED TO CHAPTER 71.09 RCW TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except with respect to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, the secretary shall develop policy guidelines that balance the average response time of emergency services to the general area of a proposed secure community transition facility against the proximity of the proposed site to risk potential activities and facilities in existence at the time the site is listed for consideration.

(2) In balancing the competing criteria of proximity and response time the policy guidelines shall endeavor to achieve an average law enforcement response time not greater than five minutes and in no case shall the policy guidelines permit location of a facility adjacent to, immediately across a street or parking lot from, or within the line of sight of a risk potential activity or facility in existence at the time a site is listed for consideration. "Within the line of sight" means that it is possible to reasonably visually distinguish and recognize individuals.

(3) The policy guidelines shall require that great weight be given to sites that are the farthest removed from any risk potential activity.

(4) The policy guidelines shall specify how distance from the location is measured and any variations in the measurement based on the size of the property within which a proposed facility is to be located.

(5) The policy guidelines shall establish a method to analyze and compare the criteria for each site in terms of public safety and security, site characteristics, and program components. In making a decision regarding a site follow the analysis and comparison, the secretary shall give priority to public safety and security considerations. The analysis and comparison of the criteria are to be documented and made available at the public hearings prescribed in section 219 of this act.

(6) Policy guidelines adopted by the secretary under this section shall be considered by counties and cities when providing for the siting of secure community transition facilities as required under RCW 36.70A.200.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 214. A NEW SECTION IS ADDED TO CHAPTER 71.09 RCW TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

THE SECRETARY SHALL ESTABLISH POLICY GUIDELINES FOR THE SITING OF SECURE COMMUNITY TRANSITION FACILITIES, OTHER THAN THE SECURE COMMUNITY TRANSITION FACILITY ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SECTION 201 OF THIS ACT, WHICH SHALL INCLUDE AT LEAST THE FOLLOWING MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

(3) Public safety and security criteria shall include at least the following:

(a) Whether limited visibility between the facility and adjacent properties can be achieved prior to placement of any person;

(b) The distance from, and number of, risk potential activities and facilities, as measured using the rules adopted under section 213 of this act;

(c) The existence of or ability to establish barriers between the site and the risk potential facilities and activities;

(d) Suitability of the buildings to be used for the secure community transition facility with regard to existing or feasibly modified features; and

(e) The availability of electronic monitoring that allows a resident’s location to be determined with specificity.

(4) Site characteristics criteria shall include at least the following:

(a) Reasonableness of rental, lease, or sale terms including length and renewability of a lease or rental agreement;

(b) Traffic and access patterns associated with the real property;

(c) Feasibility of complying with zoning requirements within the necessary time frame; and

(6) For purposes of this section "available" or "availability" of qualified treatment providers includes provider qualification and willingness to provide services, average commute time, and cost of services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 215. A NEW SECTION IS ADDED TO CHAPTER 71.09 RCW TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Security systems for all secure community transition facilities shall meet the following minimum qualifications:
NOTICE OF THE MEETING

THE SECRETARY OR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SERVICE PROVIDER SHALL NOTIFY THE PUBLIC OF THE MEETING AND OPPORTUNITY FOR REVIEW AND COMMENT AS REQUIRED BY THIS SECTION.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 218. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department operates, or the secretary enters into a contract to operate, a secure community transition facility except the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, the secure community transition facility may be operated only after the public notification and opportunities for review and comment as required by this section.

(2) The secretary shall establish a process for early and continuous public participation in establishing or relocating secure community transition facilities. The process shall include, at a minimum, public meetings in the local communities affected, as well as opportunities for written and oral comments, in the following manner:

(a) If there are more than three sites initially selected as potential locations and the selection process by the secretary or a service provider reduces the number of possible sites for a secure community transition facility to no fewer than three, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall notify the public of the possible siting and hold at least two public hearings in each community where a secure community transition facility may be sited.

(b) When the secretary or service provider has determined the secure community transition facility's location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall hold at least one additional public hearing in the community where the secure community transition facility will be sited.

(c) When the secretary has entered negotiations with a service provider and only one site is under consideration, then at least two public hearings shall be held.

(d) To provide adequate notice of, and opportunity for interested persons to comment on, a proposed location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall provide at least fourteen days' advance notice of the meeting to all newspapers of general circulation in the community, all radio and television stations
Generally available to persons in the community, any school district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited or whose boundary is within two miles of a proposed secure community transition facility, any library district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited, local business or fraternal organizations that request notification from the secretary or agency, and any person or property owner within a one-half mile radius of the proposed secure community transition facility. Before initiating this process, the department of social and health services shall contact local government planning agencies in the communities containing the proposed secure community transition facility. The department of social and health services shall coordinate with local government agencies to ensure that opportunities are provided for effective citizen input and to reduce the duplication of notice and meetings.

3. If local government land use regulations require that a special use or conditional use permit be submitted and approved before a secure community transition facility can be sited, and the process for obtaining such a permit includes public notice and hearing requirements similar to those required under this section, the requirements of this section shall not apply to the extent they would duplicate requirements under the local land use regulations.

4. This section applies only to secure community transition facilities sited after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION, SEC. 220. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall develop a process with local governments that allows each community in which a secure community transition facility is located to establish operational advisory boards of at least seven persons for the secure community transition facilities. The department may conduct community awareness activities to publicize this opportunity. The operational advisory boards developed under this section shall be implemented following the decision to locate a secure community transition facility in a particular community.

(2) The operational advisory boards may review and make recommendations regarding the security and operations of the secure community transition facility and conditions or modifications necessary with relation to any person with a secure community transition facility to place in the secure community transition facility.

(3) The facility management must consider the recommendations of the community advisory boards. Where the facility management does not implement an operational advisory board recommendation, the management must provide a written response to the operational advisory board stating its reasons for its decision not to implement the recommendation.

(4) The operational advisory boards, their members, and any agency represented by a member shall not be liable in any cause of action as a result of its recommendations unless the advisory board acts with gross negligence or bad faith in making a recommendation.

NEW SECTION, SEC. 221. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall adopt a violation reporting policy for persons conditionally released to less restrictive alternative placements. The policy shall require written documentation by the department and service providers of all violations of conditions set by the department, the department of corrections, or the court and establish criteria for returning a violator to the special commitment center or a secure community transition facility with a higher degree of security. Any conditionally released person who commits a serious violation of conditions shall be returned to the special commitment center, unless arrested by a law enforcement officer, and the court shall be notified immediately and shall initiate proceedings under RCW 71.09.098 to revoke or modify the less restrictive alternative placement. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the department to return a person to the special commitment center based on a violation that is not a serious violation as defined in this section. For the purposes of this section, "serious violation" includes but is not limited to:

(a) The commission of any criminal offense;

(b) Any unlawful use or possession of a controlled substance; and

(c) Any violation of conditions targeted to address the person's documented pattern of offense that increases the risk to public safety.

(2) When a person is conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under this chapter and is under the supervision of the department of corrections, notice of any violation of the person's conditions of release must also be made to the department of corrections.

(3) Whenever the secretary contracts with a service provider to operate a secure community transition facility, the contract shall include a requirement that the service provider must report to the department of social and health services any known violation of conditions committed by any resident of the secure community transition facility.

(4) The secretary shall document in writing all violations, penalties, actions by the department of social and health services to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations. The secretary shall compile this information and submit it to the appropriate committees of the legislature on an annual basis. The secretary shall give great weight to a service provider's record of violations, penalties, actions by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations in determining whether to execute, renew, or renegotiate a contract with a service provider.

NEW SECTION, SEC. 222. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Whenever the secretary contracts with a provider to operate a secure community transition facility, the secretary shall include in the contract provisions establishing intermediate contract enforcement remedies.

NEW SECTION, SEC. 223. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

A conditional release from a total confinement facility to a less restrictive alternative is a release that subjects the conditionally released person to the registration requirements specified in RCW 9A.44.130 and to community notification under RCW 4.24.550.

When a person is conditionally released to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201(1) of this act, the sheriff must provide each household on McNeil Island with the community notification information provided for under RCW 4.24.550.

NEW SECTION, SEC. 224. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:
AN EMPLOYER WHO HIRES A PERSON WHO HAS BEEN CONDITIONALLY RELEASED TO A LESS RESTRICTIVE ALTERNATIVE MUST NOTIFY ALL OTHER EMPLOYERS OF THE CONDITIONALLY RELEASED PERSON’S STATUS. NOTIFICATION FOR CONDITIONALLY RELEASED PERSONS WHO ENROLL IN AN INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION SHALL BE MADE PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF RCW 9A.44.130 RELATED TO SEX OFFENDERS ENROLLED IN INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND RCW 4.24.550. THIS SECTION APPLIES ONLY TO CONDITIONALLY RELEASED PERSONS WHOSE COURT APPROVED TREATMENT PLAN INCLUDES PERMISSION OR A REQUIREMENT FOR THE PERSON TO OBTAIN EDUCATION OR EMPLOYMENT AND TO EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS OR EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS THAT MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE COURT-APPROVED TREATMENT PLAN.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 225. (1) A joint select committee on the equitable distribution of secure community transition facilities is established.

1. Unless a condition is waived by the court, the conditions of community custody shall include those provided for in RCW 9.94A.700(4). The conditions may also include those provided for in RCW 9.94A.700(5). The court may also order the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs or otherwise perform affirmative conduct reasonably related to the circumstances of the offense, the offender's risk of reoffending, or the safety of the community, and the department shall enforce such conditions pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

(b) As part of any sentence that includes a term of community custody imposed under this subsection, the court shall also require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department under RCW 9.94A.205. The department shall assess the offender's risk of reoffense and may establish and modify additional conditions of the offender's community custody based upon the risk to community safety. In addition, the department may require the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs, or otherwise perform affirmative conduct, and to obey all laws.

(c) The department may not impose conditions that are contrary to those ordered by the court and may not contravene or decrease court imposed conditions. If a violation of a condition extended under this subsection occurs after the expiration of the offender's term of community custody, it shall be deemed a violation of the sentence for the purposes of RCW 9.94A.195 and may be punishable as contempt of court as provided in RCW 7.21.045. If the court extends a condition beyond the expiration of the term of community custody, the department is not responsible for supervision of the offender's compliance with the condition.

6. Within the funds available for community custody, the department shall determine conditions and duration of community custody on the basis of risk to community safety, and shall supervise offenders during community custody on the basis of risk to community safety and conditions imposed by the court. The secretary shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this subsection.

(6) An offender released by the board under section 306 of this act shall be subject to the supervision of the department until the expiration of the maximum term of the sentence. The department may not impose conditions that are contrary to those set by the board or the court and may not contravene or decrease court-imposed or board-imposed conditions. The board may consider an offender's failure to participate in an evaluation under subsection (1) of this section in determining whether to release the offender. The board shall order the offender released, under such affirmative and other conditions as the board determines appropriate, unless the board determines by a preponderance of the evidence that, despite such conditions, it is more likely than not that the offender will commit sex offenses if released. If the board does not order the offender released, the board shall establish a new minimum term, not to exceed an additional two years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:
(1) Whenever the board or a community corrections officer of this state has reason to believe an offender released under section 306 of this act has violated a condition of community custody or the laws of this state, any community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest and detention of the offender pending a determination by the board whether sanctions should be imposed or the offender's community custody should be revoked. The community corrections officer shall report all facts and circumstances surrounding the alleged violation to the board, with recommendations.
(2) If the board or the department causes the arrest or detention of an offender for a violation that does not amount to a new crime and the offender is arrested or detained by local law enforcement or in a local jail, the board or department, whichever caused the arrest or detention, shall be financially responsible for local costs. Jail bed costs shall be allocated at the rate established under RCW 9.94A.207(3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 309. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:
(1) If an offender released under section 306 of this act who is arrested and detained in physical custody by the authority of a community corrections officer, or upon the written order of the board, shall not be released from custody due to the offense or personal record of the offender, and the issuance by the board of an order reinstating the offender's release on the same or modified conditions. All chiefs of police, marshals of cities and towns, sheriffs of counties, and all police, prison, and peace officers and constables shall execute any such order in the same manner as any ordinary criminal process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:
(1) If an offender released under section 306 of this act violates any condition or requirement of community custody, the board may transfer the offender to a more restrictive confinement status to serve up to the remaining portion of the sentence, less credit for any period actually spent in community custody or in detention awaiting disposition of an alleged violation and subject to the limitations of subsection (2) of this section.
(2) Following the hearing specified in subsection (3) of this section, the board may impose sanctions such as work release, home detention with electronic monitoring, work crew, community service, inpatient treatment, daily reporting, curfew, educational or counseling sessions, supervision enhanced through electronic monitoring, or any other sanction available in the community, or may suspend or revoke the release to community custody whenever an offender released by the board under section 306 of this act violates any condition or requirement of community custody.
(3) If an offender released by the board under section 306 of this act is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, he or she is entitled to a hearing before the board prior to the imposition of sanctions. The hearing shall be considered as offender disciplinary proceedings and shall not be subject to chapter 34.05 RCW. The board shall develop hearing procedures and a structure of graduated sanctions consistent with the hearing procedures and graduated sanctions developed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.205. The board may suspend the offender's release to community custody and confine the offender in a correctional institution owned, operated by, or operated under contract with the state prior to the hearing unless the offender has been arrested and confined for a new crime.
(4) The hearing procedures required under subsection (3) of this section shall be developed by rule and include the following:
(a) Hearings shall be conducted by members of the board unless the board enters into an agreement with the department to use the hearing officers established under RCW 9.94A.205;
(b) The board shall provide the offender with written notice of the violation, the evidence relied upon, and the reasons the particular sanction was imposed. The notice shall include a statement of the rights specified in this subsection, and the offender's right to file a personal restraint petition under court rules after the final decision of the board;
(c) The hearing shall be held unless waived by the offender, and shall be electronically recorded. For offenders not in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within fifteen working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation. For offenders in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within five working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation;
(d) The offender shall have the right to: (i) Be present at the hearing; (ii) have the assistance of a person qualified to assist the offender at the hearing, appointed by the hearing examiner if the offender has a language or communications barrier; (iii) testify or remain silent; (iv) call witnesses and present documentary evidence; (v) question witnesses who appear and testify; and (vi) be represented by counsel if revocation of the release to community custody is a possible sanction for the violation; and
(e) The sanction shall take effect if affirmed by the hearing examiner. Within seven days after the hearing examiner's decision, the offender may appeal the decision to a panel of three reviewing examiners designated by the chair of the board or by the chair's designee. The sanction shall be reversed or modified if a majority of the panel finds that the sanction was not reasonably related to any of the following: (i) The crime of conviction; (ii) the violation committed; (iii) the offender's risk of reoffending; or (iv) the safety of the community.

(5) For purposes of this section, no finding of a violation of conditions may be based on unconfirmed or unconfirmable allegations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

In the event the board suspends release status of an offender released under section 306 of this act by reason of an alleged violation of a condition of release, or pending disposition of a new criminal charge, the board may nullify the suspension order and reinstate release under previous conditions or any new conditions the board determines advisable. Before the board may nullify a suspension order and reinstate release, it shall determine that the best interests of society and the offender shall be served by such reinstatement rather than return to confinement.

(4) The speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate may each appoint two nonvoting members to the commission, one from each of the two largest caucuses in each house. The members so appointed shall serve two-year terms, or until they cease to be members of the house from which they were appointed, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 312. RCW 9.94A.120 and 2001 c 10 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this chapter.

(2)(a) The court shall impose a sentence as provided in the following sections and as applicable in the case:

(i) Less another term of confinement applies, the court shall impose a sentence within the standard sentence range established in RCW 9.94A.310;

(ii) RCW 9.94A.700 and 9.94A.705, relating to community placement;

(iii) RCW 9.94A.710 and 9.94A.715, relating to community custody;

(iv) RCW 9.94A.383, relating to community custody for offenders whose term of confinement is one year or less;

(v) RCW 9.94A.560, relating to persistent offenders;

(vi) RCW 9.94A.590, relating to mandatory minimum terms;

(vii) RCW 9.94A.650, relating to the first-time offender waiver;

(viii) RCW 9.94A.660, relating to the drug offender sentencing alternative;

(x) RCW 9.94A.670, relating to the special sex offender sentencing alternative;
(x) Section 303 of this act, relating to certain sex offenses;

(10) RCW 9.94A.390, relating to exceptional sentences;

(11) RCW 9.94A.400, relating to consecutive and concurrent sentences.

(8) If a standard sentence range has not been established for the offender’s crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include more than one year of confinement; community service work; until July 1, 2000, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year and on and after July 1, 2000, a term of community custody not to exceed one year, subject to conditions and sanctions as authorized in RCW 9.94A.710 (2) and (3); and/or other legal financial obligations. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds reasons justifying an exceptional sentence as provided in RCW 9.94A.390.

(3) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(4) If a sentence imposed includes payment of a legal financial obligation, it shall be imposed as provided in RCW

(5) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(4) and 9.94A.142(4), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision, community placement, or community custody which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(7) The court shall order restitution as provided in RCW 9.94A.140 and 9.94A.142.

(8) As a part of any sentence, the court may impose and enforce crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions as provided in this chapter.

(9) The court may order an offender whose sentence includes community placement or community supervision to undergo a mental status evaluation and to participate in available outpatient mental health treatment, if the court finds that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the offender is a mentally ill person as defined in RCW 71.24.025, and that this condition is likely to have influenced the offense. An order requiring mental status evaluation or treatment must be based on a presentence report and, if applicable, mental status evaluations that have been filed with the court to determine the offender’s competency or eligibility for a defense of insanity. The court may order additional evaluations at a later date if deemed appropriate.

(11) In sentencing an offender convicted of a crime of domestic violence, as defined in RCW 10.99.020, if the offender has a minor child, or if the victim of the offense for which the offender was convicted has a minor child, the court may, as part of any term of community supervision, community placement, or community custody, order the offender to participate in a domestic violence perpetrator program approved under RCW 26.50.150.

Sec. 313. RCW 9.94A.190 and 2000 c 28 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided in subsection (3) or (5) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county, or if home detention or work crew has been ordered by the court, in the residence of either the offender or a member of the offender’s immediate family.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a sentence imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.660 which has a standard sentence range of over one year, regardless of length, shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

(5) Sentences imposed pursuant to section 303 of this act shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

Sec. 314. RCW 9.94A.390 and 2000 c 28 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for an offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

Whenever a sentence outside the standard sentence range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard sentence range shall be a determinate sentence unless it is imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act. An exceptional sentence imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act shall be to a maximum term set by the court and a maximum term equal to the statutory maximum sentence for the offense of conviction under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard sentence range should be imposed, the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).
A DEPARTURE FROM THE STANDARDS IN RCW 9.94A.400 (1) AND (2) GOVERNING WHETHER SENTENCES ARE TO BE SERVED CONSECUTIVELY OR CONCURRENTLY IS AN EXCEPTIONAL SENTENCE SUBJECT TO THE LIMITATIONS IN THIS SECTION, AND MAY BE APPEALED BY THE OFFENDER OR THE STATE AS SET FORTH IN RCW 9.94A.210 (2) THROUGH (6).

THE FOLLOWING ARE ILLUSTRATIVE FACTORS WHICH THE COURT MAY CONSIDER IN THE EXERCISE OF ITS DISCRETION TO IMPOSE AN EXCEPTIONAL SENTENCE. THE FOLLOWING ARE ILLUSTRATIVE ONLY AND ARE NOT INTENDED TO BE EXCLUSIVE REASONS FOR EXCEPTIONAL SENTENCES.

(1) MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES
   (a) TO A SIGNIFICANT DEGREE, THE VICTIM WAS AN INITIATOR, WILLING PARTICIPANT, AGGRESSOR, OR PROVOKER OF THE INCIDENT.
   (b) BEFORE DETECTION, THE DEFENDANT COMPENSATED, OR MADE A GOOD FAITH EFFORT TO COMPENSATE, THE VICTIM OF THE CRIMINAL CONDUCT FOR ANY DAMAGE OR INJURY SUSTAINED.
   (c) THE DEFENDANT COMMITTED THE CRIME UNDER DURESS, COERCION, THREAT, OR COMPULSION INSUFFICIENT TO CONSTITUTE A COMPLETE DEFENSE BUT WHICH SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER CONDUCT.

   (h) THE DEFENDANT OR THE DEFENDANT'S CHILDREN SUFFERED A CONTINUING PATTERN OF PHYSICAL OR SEXUAL ABUSE BY THE VICTIM OF THE OFFENSE AND THE OFFENSE IS A RESPONSE TO THAT ABUSE.

(2) AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES
   (a) THE DEFENDANT'S CONDUCT DURING THE COMMISSION OF THE CURRENT OFFENSE MANIFESTED DELIBERATE CRYPTGENCY TO THE VICTIM.
   (b) THE DEFENDANT KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN THAT THE VICTIM OF THE CURRENT OFFENSE WAS PARTICULARLY VULNERABLE OR INCAPABLE OF RESISTANCE DUE TO EXTREME YOUTH, ADVANCED AGE, DISABILITY, OR ILL HEALTH.

      (iv) THE DEFENDANT USED HIS OR HER POSITION OR STATUS TO FACILITATE THE COMMISSION OF THE CURRENT OFFENSE.
   (e) THE CURRENT OFFENSE WAS A MAJOR VIOLATION OF THE UNIFORM CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES ACT, CHAPTER 69.50 RCW (VCUSA), RELATED TO TRAFFICKING IN CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES, WHICH WAS MORE ONEROUS THAN THE TYPICAL OFFENSE OF ITS STATUTORY DEFINITION: THE PRESENCE OF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING MAY IDENTIFY A CURRENT OFFENSE AS A MAJOR VCUSA:
      (i) THE CURRENT OFFENSE INVOLVED AT LEAST THREE SEPARATE TRANSACTIONS IN WHICH CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES WERE SOLD, TRANSFERRED, OR POSSESSED WITH INTENT TO DO SO;
      (ii) THE CURRENT OFFENSE INVOLVED AN ATTEMPTED OR ACTUAL SALE OR TRANSFER OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES IN QUANTITIES SUBSTANTIALLY LARGER THAN FOR PERSONAL USE;

   (h) THE CURRENT OFFENSE INVOLVED DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, AS DEFINED IN RCW 10.99.020, AND ONE OR MORE OF THE FOLLOWING WAS PRESENT:
      (i) THE OFFENSE WAS PART OF AN ONGOING PATTERN OF PSYCHOLOGICAL, PHYSICAL, OR SEXUAL ABUSE OF THE VICTIM MANIFESTED BY MULTIPLE INCIDENTS OVER A PROLONGED PERIOD OF TIME;
      (ii) THE OFFENSE OCCURRED WITHIN SIGHT OR SOUND OF THE VICTIM'S OR THE OFFENDER'S MINOR CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF EIGHTEEN YEARS; OR
      (iii) THE OFFENDER'S CONDUCT DURING THE COMMISSION OF THE CURRENT OFFENSE MANIFESTED DELIBERATE CRYPTGENCY OR INTIMIDATION OF THE VICTIM.
   (i) THE OPERATION OF THE MULTIPLE OFFENSE POLICY OF RCW 9.94A.400 RESULTS IN A PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCE THAT IS CLEARLY TOO LENIENT IN LIGHT OF THE PURPOSE OF THIS CHAPTER, AS EXPRESSED IN RCW 9.94A.010.
   (j) THE DEFENDANT'S PRIOR UNSCORED MISDEMEANOR OR PRIOR UNSCORED FOREIGN CRIMINAL HISTORY RESULTS IN A PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCE THAT IS CLEARLY TOO LENIENT IN LIGHT OF THE PURPOSE OF THIS CHAPTER, AS EXPRESSED IN RCW 9.94A.010.
   (k) THE OFFENSE RESULTED IN THE PREGNANCY OF A CHILD VICTIM OF RAPE.
(l) The defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was a youth who was not residing with a legal custodian and the defendant established or promoted the relationship for the primary purpose of victimization.

Sec. 315. RCW 9.94A.590 and 2000 c 28 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified under RCW 9.94A.390:

(a) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years.

(b) An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree or assault of a child in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.

(c) An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.

(d) An offender convicted of the crime of sexually violent predator escape shall be sentenced to a minimum term of total confinement not less than sixty months.

(2) During such minimum terms of total confinement, no offender subject to the provisions of this section is eligible for community custody, earned release time, furlough, home detention, partial confinement, work crew, work release, or any other form of early release authorized under RCW 9.94A.150, or any other form of authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility while not in the direct custody of a corrections officer. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply: (a) In the case of an offender in need of emergency medical treatment; (b) for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility in the case of an offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree; or (c) for an extraordinary medical placement when authorized under RCW 9.94A.150(4).

Sec. 316. RCW 9.94A.670 and 2000 c 28 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this subsection apply to this section only.

(2) Sex offender treatment provider or "treatment provider" means a certified sex offender treatment provider as defined in RCW 18.155.020.

(b) "Victim" means any person who has sustained emotional, psychological, physical, or financial injury to person or property as a result of the crime charged. "Victim" also means a parent or guardian of a victim who is a minor child unless the parent or guardian is the perpetrator of the offense.

(2) An offender is eligible for the special sex offender sentencing alternative if:

(a) The offender has been convicted of a sex offense other than a violation of RCW 9A.44.050 or a sex offense that is also a serious violent offense;

(b) The offender has no prior convictions for a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 or any other felony sex offenses in this or any other state; and

(c) The offender's standard sentence range for the offense includes the possibility of confinement for less than eleven years.

(3) If the court finds the offender is eligible for this alternative, the court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the offender, may order an examination to determine whether the offender is amenable to treatment.

(a) The report of the examination shall include at a minimum the following:

(i) The offender's version of the facts and the official version of the facts;

(ii) The offender's offense history;

(iii) An assessment of problems in addition to alleged deviant behaviors;

(v) Other evaluation measures used.

The report shall set forth the sources of the examiner's information.

(b) The examiner shall assess and report regarding the offender's amenability to treatment and relative risk to the community. A proposed treatment plan shall be provided and shall include, at a minimum:

(i) Frequency and type of contact between offender and therapist;

(ii) Specific issues to be addressed in the treatment and description of planned treatment modalities;

(iii) Monitoring plans, including any requirements regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring by family members and others;

(iv) Anticipated length of treatment; and

(v) Recommended crime-related prohibitions.

(c) The court on its own motion may order, or on a motion by the state shall order, a second examination regarding the offender's amenability to treatment. The examiner shall be selected by the party making the motion. The offender shall pay the cost of any second examination ordered unless the court finds the defendant to be indigent in which case the state shall pay the cost.

(4) After receipt of the reports, the court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this alternative and consider the victim's opinion whether the offender should receive a treatment disposition under this section. If the court determines that this alternative is appropriate, the court shall then impose a sentence pursuant to section 303 of this act, a minimum term of sentence, within the standard sentence range. If the sentence imposed is less than eleven years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and impose the following conditions of suspension:

(a) The court shall place the offender on community custody for the length of the suspended sentence, the length of the maximum term imposed pursuant to section 303 of this act, or three years, whichever is greater, and require the offender to comply with any conditions imposed by the department under RCW 9.94A.720.

(b) The court shall order treatment for any period up to three years in duration. The court, in its discretion, shall order outpatient sex offender treatment of inpatient sex offender treatment, if available. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment. The offender shall not change sex offender treatment providers or treatment conditions without first NOTIFYING THE PROSECUTOR, THE COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS OFFICER, AND THE COURT. IF ANY PARTY OR THE COURT OBJECTS TO A PROPOSED CHANGE, THE OFFENDER SHALL NOT CHANGE PROVIDERS OR CONDITIONS WITHOUT COURT APPROVAL AFTER A HEARING.

6. As conditions of the suspended sentence, the court may impose one or more of the following:
   (a) up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense;
   (b) crime-related prohibitions;
   (c) require the offender to devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
   (d) remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer prior to any change in the offender’s address or employment;
   (e) report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
   (f) pay all court-ordered legal financial obligations as provided in RCW 9.94A.030;
   (g) perform community service work; or
   (h) reimburse the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender’s crime.

6. At the time of sentencing, the court shall set a treatment termination hearing for three months prior to the anticipated date for completion of treatment.

7. The sex offender treatment provider shall submit quarterly reports on the offender’s progress in treatment to the court and the parties. The report shall reference the treatment plan and include at a minimum the following dates of attendance, offender’s compliance with requirements, treatment activities, the offender’s relative progress in treatment, and any other material specified by the court at sentencing.

8. Prior to the treatment termination hearing, the treatment provider and community corrections officer shall submit written reports to the court and parties regarding the offender’s compliance with treatment and monitoring requirements, and recommendations regarding termination from treatment, including proposed community custody conditions. Either party may request, and the court may order, another evaluation regarding the advisability of termination from treatment. The offender shall pay the cost of any additional evaluation ordered unless the court finds that payment in order to be indigent. In which case the state shall pay the cost. At the treatment termination hearing the court may: (a) modify conditions of community custody, and either (b) terminate treatment, or (c) extend treatment for up to the remaining period of community custody.

9. If a violation of conditions occurs during community custody, the department shall either impose sanctions as provided for in RCW 9.94A.205(2)(a) or refer the violation to the court and recommend revocation of the suspended sentence as provided for in subsections (6) and (8) of this section.

10. The court may revoke the suspended sentence at any time during the period of community custody and order an evaluation of the sentence. (a) the offender violating the conditions of the suspended sentence, or (b) the court finds that the offender is failing to make satisfactory progress in treatment. All confinement time served during the period of community custody shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

11. Examinations and treatment ordered pursuant to this subsection shall only be conducted by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health pursuant to chapter 18.155 RCW unless the court finds that: (a) the offender has already moved to another state or plans to move to another state for reasons other than circumventing the certification requirements; or (b) no certified providers are available for treatment within a reasonable geographical distance of the offender’s home; and

(i) the evaluation and treatment plan comply with this section and the rules adopted by the department of health.

12. If the offender is less than eighteen years of age when the charge is filed, the state shall pay for the cost of initial evaluation and treatment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 317. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) “Board” means the indeterminate sentence review board.

(2) “Community custody” means that portion of an offender’s sentence subject to controls including crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions from the court, the board, or the department of corrections based on risk to community safety, that is served under supervision in the community, and which may be modified or revoked for violations of release conditions.

(3) “Crime-related prohibition” has the meaning defined in RCW 9.94A.030.

(4) “Department” means the department of corrections.

(5) “Parole” means that portion of a person’s sentence for a crime committed before July 1, 1984, served on conditional release in the community subject to board controls and conditions and revocation and supervision under supervision of the department.

(6) “Secretary” means the secretary of the department of corrections or his or her designee.

Sec. 318. RCW 9.95.005 and 1986 c 224 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall meet at ((the penitentiary and the reformatory)) major state correctional institutions at such times as may be necessary for a full and complete study of the cases of all convicted persons whose durations of confinement are to be determined by it ((424)); whose community custody supervision is under the board’s authority; or whose applications for parole come before it. Other times and places of meetings may also be fixed by the board. The superintendents of the different institutions shall provide suitable quarters for the board and assistants while in the discharge of their duties.

Sec. 319. RCW 9.95.010 and 1955 c 133 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person, whose crime was committed before July 1, 1984, is convicted of any felony, except treason, murder in the first degree, or carnal knowledge of a child under ten years, and a new trial is not granted, the court shall sentence such person to the penitentiary, or, if the law allows and the court sees fit to exercise such discretion, to the reformatory, and shall fix the maximum term of such person’s sentence only.

The maximum term to be fixed by the court shall be the maximum provided by the court law for the crime of which such person was convicted, if the law provides for a maximum term. If the law does not provide a maximum term for the crime of which such person was convicted the court shall find such maximum term, which may be for any number of years up to
AND INCLUDING LIFE IMPRISONMENT BUT IN ANY CASE WHERE THE MAXIMUM TERM IS FIXED BY THE COURT IT SHALL BE FIXED AT NOT LESS THAN TWENTY YEARS.

Sec. 320. RCW 9.95.011 and 1993 c 144 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the court commits a convicted person to the department of corrections on or after July 1, 1986, for an offense committed before July 1, 1984, the court shall, at the time of sentencing or revocation of probation, fix the minimum term. The term so fixed shall not exceed the maximum sentence provided by law for the offense of which the person is convicted.

The court shall attempt to set the minimum term reasonably consistent with the purposes, standards, and sentencing ranges adopted under RCW 9.94A.040, but the court is subject to the same limitations as those placed on the board under RCW 9.92.080. 9.95.040 (1) through (4), 9.95.115, 9A.32.040, 9A.44.045, and chapter 69.50 RCW. The court’s minimum term decision is subject to review to the same extent as a minimum term decision by the parole board before July 1, 1986.

Thereafter, the expiration of the minimum term set by the court minus any time credits earned under RCW 9.95.070 and 9.95.110 constitutes the parole eligibility review date, at which time the board may consider the convicted person for parole under RCW 9.95.100 and 9.95.110 and chapter 72.04A RCW. Nothing in this section affects the board’s authority to reduce or increase the minimum term, once set by the court, under RCW 9.95.040, 9.95.052, 9.95.055, 9.95.070, 9.95.080, 9.95.100, 9.95.115, 9.95.125, on 9.95.047.

(2) Not less than ninety days prior to the expiration of the minimum term of a person sentenced under section 303 of this act, for a sex offense committed on or after July 1, 2001, less any time credits permitted by statute, the board shall review the person for conditional release to community custody as provided in section 306 of this act. If the board does not release the person, it shall set a new minimum term not to exceed an additional two years. The board shall review the person again not less than ninety days prior to the expiration of the new minimum term.

Sec. 321. RCW 9.95.017 and 1986 c 224 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall cause the person to be prepared criteria for determination of confinement, release on parole, and length of parole for persons committed to prison for crimes committed before July 1, 1984.

The proposed criteria should take into consideration RCW 9.95.009(2). Before submission to the governor, the board shall solicit comments and review on their proposed criteria for parole release. These proposed criteria shall be submitted for consideration by the 1987 legislature.

(2) Persons committed to the department of corrections and who are under the authority of the board for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2001, are subject to the provisions for duration of confinement, release to community custody, and parole eligibility review, as provided in sections 303 through 310 of this act.

Sec. 322. RCW 9.95.020 and 1955 c 133 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentence of a person so convicted is not suspended by the court, the superintendent of the (superintendent or the superintendent of the reformatory) a major state correctional institution shall receive such person, if committed to his or her institution, and imprison (imprisoned) the person until released under the provisions of this chapter, under section 306 of this act, upon the completion of the statutory maximum sentence, or through the action of the governor.

Sec. 323. RCW 9.95.032 and 1984 c 114 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

Such statement shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and approved by the judge by whom the judgment was rendered and shall be delivered to the sheriff, traveling guard, department of corrections personnel, or other officer executing the sentence, and a copy of such statement shall be furnished to the defendant or his or her attorney. Such officer shall deliver the statement, at the time of the prisoner’s commitment, to the superintendent of the institution to which such prisoner has been (sentenced and) committed. The superintendent shall make such statement available for use by the board (of prison terms and parole).

Sec. 324. RCW 9.95.052 and 1986 c 224 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after the board (or the court after July 1, 1986) has determined the minimum term of confinement of any person subject to confinement in a state correctional institution for a crime committed before July 1, 1984, the board may request the superintendent of such correctional institution to conduct a full review of such person’s prospects for rehabilitation and report to the board the facts of such review and the resulting findings. Upon the basis of such report and such other information and investigation that the board deems appropriate, the board may redetermine and refix such convicted person’s minimum term of confinement whether the term was set by the board or the court.

The board shall not reduce a person’s minimum term of confinement unless the board has received from the department of corrections all institutional conduct reports relating to the person.

Sec. 325. RCW 9.95.055 and 1992 c 7 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

The indeterminate sentence review board is hereby granted authority, in the event of a declaration by the governor that a war emergency exists, including a general mobilization, and for the duration thereof only, to reduce downward the minimum term, as set by the board, of any inmate under the jurisdiction of the board confined in a state correctional facility, who will be accepted by and inducted into the armed services: PROVIDED, That a reduction downward shall not be made under this section for those inmates who are confined for treason, murder in the first degree or carnal knowledge of a female child under ten years: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, THAT NO SUCH INMATE SHALL BE RELEASED UNDER THIS SECTION WHO IS (FOUND TO BE A SEXUAL PSYCHOPATH UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF AND AS DEFINED BY CHAPTER 71.12 RCW) BEING CONSIDERED FOR CIVIL COMMITMENT AS A SEXUALLY VIOLENT PREDATOR UNDER CHAPTER 71.09 RCW OR WAS SENTENCED UNDER SECTION 303 OF THIS ACT FOR A CRIME COMMITTED ON OR AFTER JULY 1, 2001.

Sec. 326. RCW 9.95.064 and 1989 c 276 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In order to minimize the trauma to the victim, the court may attach conditions on release of (a defendant) an offender under RCW 9.95.062, convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, regarding the whereabouts of the defendant, contact with the victim, or other conditions.
(2) Offenders released under section 306 of this act are subject to crime-related prohibitions and affirmative conditions established by the court, the Department of Corrections, or the board pursuant to RCW 9.94A.715 and sections 303 through 310 of this act.

Sec. 327. RCW 9.95.070 and 1999 c 143 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every prisoner, convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, who has a favorable record of conduct at the penitentiary or the reformatory, and who performs in a faithful, diligent, industrious, orderly, and peaceable manner the work, duties, and tasks assigned to him or her to the satisfaction of the superintendent of the penitentiary or reformatory, and in whose behalf the superintendent of the penitentiary or reformatory files a report certifying that his or her conduct and work have been meritorious and recommending allowance of time credits to him or her, shall, upon, but not until, the adoption of such recommendation by the indefinite sentence review board, be allowed time credit reductions from the term of imprisonment fixed by the board.

(2) Offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act for a crime committed on or after July 1, 2001, are subject to the earned release provisions for sex offenders established in RCW 9.94A.150.

Sec. 328. RCW 9.95.080 and 1992 c 7 s 26 are each amended to read as follows:

In case any (convicted) person convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, and under the jurisdiction of the indefinite sentence review board under sentence in a state correctional institution (facility) institution commits any infractions of the rules and regulations of the institution, the board may revoke any order theretofore made determining the length of time such convicted person shall be imprisoned, including the forfeiture of all or a portion of credits earned or to be earned, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 9.95.110, and make a new order determining the length of time the person shall serve, not exceeding the maximum penalty provided by law for the crime for which the person was convicted, or the maximum fixed by the court. Such revocation and redetermination shall not be had except upon a hearing before the indefinite sentence review board. At such hearing the convicted person shall be present and entitled to be heard and may present evidence in his or her behalf.

Sec. 329. RCW 9.95.060 and 1999 c 143 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall require of every able bodied (convicted person imprisoned in the penitentiary or the reformatory) offender confined in a state correctional institution for a crime committed before July 1, 1984, as many hours of faithful labor in each and every day during his or her term of imprisonment as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the institution in which he or she is confined.

(2) Offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2001, shall perform work or other programming as required by the department of corrections during their term of confinement.

Sec. 330. RCW 9.95.100 and 1999 c 143 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (convicted) person convicted of a felony committed before July 1, 1984, and undergoing sentence in (the penitentiary or the reformatory) a state correctional institution, not sooner released under the provisions of this chapter, shall, in accordance with the provisions of law, be discharged from custody on serving the maximum punishment provided by law for the offense of which such person was convicted, or the maximum term fixed by the court where the law does not provide for a maximum term. The board shall not, however, until his or her maximum term expires, release a prisoner, unless in its opinion his or her rehabilitation has been complete and he or she is a fit subject for release.

Sec. 331. RCW 9.95.110 and 1999 c 143 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board may permit (a convicted person) an offender convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, to leave the buildings and enclosures of (the penitentiary or the reformatory) a state correctional institution on parole, after such convicted person has served the period of confinement fixed for him or her by the board, less time credits for good behavior and diligence in work: PROVIDED, That in no case shall an inmate be credited with more than one-third of his or her sentence as fixed by the board.

The board may establish rules and regulations under which (a convicted person) an offender may be allowed to leave the confines of (the penitentiary or the reformatory) a state correctional institution on parole, and may return such person to the confines of the institution from which he or she was paroled, at its discretion.

(2) The board may permit an offender convicted of a crime committed on or after July 1, 2001, and sentenced under section 303 of this act, to leave a state correctional institution on community custody according to the provisions of sections 303 through 310 of this act. The person may be returned to the institution following a violation of his or her conditions of release to community custody pursuant to the hearing provisions of section 309 of this act.

Sec. 332. RCW 9.95.115 and 1989 c 259 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The indefinite sentence review board is hereby granted authority to parole any person sentenced to the custody of the Department of Corrections, under a mandatory life sentence for a crime committed (prior to) before July 1, 1984, except those persons sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. No such person shall be granted parole unless the person has been continuously confined therein for a period of twenty consecutive years less earned good time: PROVIDED, That no such person shall be released under parole who is (found to be a sexual psychopath under the provisions of and as defined by chapter 71.06 RCW) subject to civil commitment as a sexually violent predator under chapter 71.09 RCW.

Sec. 333. RCW 9.95.120 and 1999 c 143 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the board or a (probation and parole) community corrections officer of this state has reason to believe a (convicted) person convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, has breached a condition of his or her parole or violated the law of any state where he or she may then be or the rules and regulations of the board, any (probation and parole) community corrections officer of this state may arrest or cause the arrest and detention and suspension of parole of such convicted person pending a determination by the board whether the parole of such convicted person shall be revoked. All facts and circumstances surrounding the violation by such convicted person shall be reported to the board by the (probation and parole) community corrections officer, with recommendations. The board, after consultation with the secretary of corrections, shall make all rules and regulations concerning procedural matters, which shall include the time when state (probation and parole) community corrections officers shall file with the board reports required by this section, procedures pertaining thereto and the filing of such information as may be necessary to enable the board to perform its functions under this section. On the basis of the REPORT BY THE (PROBATION AND PAROLE) COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS OFFICER, OR AT ANY TIME UPON ITS OWN DISCRETION, THE BOARD MAY REVISE OR MODIFY THE CONDITIONS OF PAROLE OR ORDER THE SUSPENSION OF PAROLE BY THE ISSUANCE OF A WRITTEN ORDER BEARING IN MIND ANY PEACE OFFICER TO TAKE INTO CUSTODY ANY CONVICTED PERSON WHO MAY BE ON PAROLE AND RETAIN SUCH PERSON IN THEIR CUSTODY UNTIL ARRANGEMENTS CAN BE MADE BY THE BOARD FOR HIS OR HER RETURN TO A STATE CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION FOR CONVICTED FELONS. ANY SUCH REVISION OR MODIFICATION OF THE CONDITIONS OF PAROLE OR THE ORDER SUSPENDING PAROLE SHALL BE PERSONALLY SERVED UPON THE PAROLEE.

ANY PAROLEE ARRESTED AND DETAINED IN PHYSICAL CUSTODY BY THE AUTHORITY OF A STATE (PROBATION AND PAROLE) COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS OFFICER, OR UPON THE WRITTEN ORDER OF THE BOARD, SHALL NOT BE RELEASED FROM CUSTODY ON BAIL OR PERSONAL RECOGNIZANCE, EXCEPT UPON APPROVAL OF THE BOARD AND THE ISSUANCE BY THE BOARD OF AN ORDER OF REINSTATEMENT ON PAROLE ON THE SAME OR MODIFIED CONDITIONS OF PAROLE.

ALL CHIEFS OF POLICE, MARSHALS OF CITIES AND TOWNS, SHERIFFS OF COUNTIES, AND ALL POLICE, PRISON, AND PEACE OFFICERS AND CONSTABLES SHALL EXECUTE ANY SUCH ORDER IN THE SAME MANNER AS ANY ORDINARY CRIMINAL PROCESS.

WHENEVER A PAROLED PRISONER IS ACCUSED OF A VIOLATION OF HIS OR HER PAROLE, OTHER THAN THE COMMISSION OF, AND CONVICTION FOR, A FELONY OR MISDEMEANOR UNDER THE LAWS OF THIS STATE OR THE LAWS OF ANY STATE WHERE HE OR SHE MAY THEN BE, HE OR SHE SHALL BE ENTITLED TO A FAIR AND IMPARTIAL HEARING OF SUCH CHARGES WITHIN THIRTY DAYS FROM THE TIME THAT HE OR SHE IS SERVED WITH CHARGES OF THE VIOLATION OF CONDITIONS OF (HH) PAROLE AFTER HIS OR HER ARREST AND DETENTION. THE HEARING SHALL BE HELD BEFORE ONE OR MORE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD AT A PLACE OR PLACES, WITHIN THIS STATE, REASONABLY NEAR THE SITE OF THE ALLEGED VIOLATION OR VIOLATIONS OF PAROLE.

IN THE EVENT THAT THE BOARD SUSPENDS A PAROLE BY REASON OF AN ALLEGED PAROLE VIOLATION OR IN THE EVENT THAT A PAROLEE IS SUSPENDED PENDING THE DISPOSITION OF A NEW CRIMINAL CHARGE, THE BOARD SHALL HAVE THE POWER TO NULLIFY THE ORDER OF SUSPENSION AND REINSTATE THE INDIVIDUAL TO PAROLE UNDER PREVIOUS CONDITIONS OR ANY NEW CONDITIONS THAT THE BOARD MAY DETERMINE ADVISABLE. BEFORE THE BOARD SHALL NULLIFY AN ORDER OF SUSPENSION AND REINSTATE A PAROLEE THEY SHALL HAVE DETERMINED THAT THE BEST INTERESTS OF SOCIETY AND THE INDIVIDUAL SHALL BEST BE SERVED BY SUCH REINSTATEMENT RATHER THAN A RETURN TO A PENAL INSTITUTION.

Sec. 334. RCW 9.95.121 and 1981 c 136 s 38 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For offenders convicted of crimes committed before July 1, 1984, within fifteen days from the date of notice to the department of corrections of the arrest and detention of the alleged parole violator, he or she shall be personally served by a state (probation and parole) community corrections officer with a copy of the factual allegations of the violation of the conditions of parole, and, at the same time shall be advised of his or her right to an on-site parole revocation hearing and of his or her rights and privileges as provided in RCW 9.95.120 through 9.95.126. The alleged parole violator, after service of the conditions of violations of the conditions of parole and the advice of rights, may waive the on-site parole revocation hearing as provided in RCW 9.95.120, and admit one or more of the alleged violations of the conditions of parole. If the board accepts the waiver it shall either, (1) restate the parolee on parole under the same or modified conditions, or (2) revoke the parole of the parolee and enter an order of parole revocation and return to state custody. A determination of a new minimum sentence shall be made within thirty days of return to state custody which shall not exceed the maximum sentence as provided by law for the crime of which the parolee was originally convicted or the maximum fixed by the court. If the waiver made by the parolee is rejected by the board it shall hold an on-site parole revocation hearing under the provisions of RCW 9.95.120 through 9.95.126.

(2) Offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act are subject to the violation hearing process established in section 309 of this act.

Sec. 335. RCW 9.95.122 and 1999 c 143 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) At any on-site parole revocation hearing for a person convicted of a crime committed before July 1, 1984, the alleged parolee violator shall be entitled to be represented by an attorney of his or her own choosing and at his or her own expense, except, upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence of indigency, and the request for the appointment of an attorney by the alleged parole violator, the board may cause the appointment of an attorney to represent the alleged parole violator to be paid for at state expense, and, in addition, the board may assume all or such other expenses in the presentation of evidence on behalf of the alleged parole violator as it may have authorized: PROVIDED, That funds are available for the payment of attorneys' fees and expenses. Attorneys for the representation of alleged parolee violators in on-site hearings shall be appointed by the superior courts for the counties wherein the on-site parole revocation hearing is to be held and such attorneys shall be compensated in such manner and in such amount as shall be fixed in a schedule of fees adopted by rule of the board.

(2) The rights of offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act are defined in section 309 of this act.

Sec. 336. RCW 9.95.123 and 1999 c 143 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

In conducting on-site parole or community custody revocation hearings or community custody violations hearings, the board shall have the authority to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, receive evidence, and issue subpoenas for the compulsory attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence for presentation at such hearings. Subpoenas issued by the board shall be effective throughout the state. Witnesses in attendance at any on-site parole or community custody revocation hearing shall be paid the same fees and allowances, in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided for witnesses in the courts of the state in accordance with chapter 2.40 RCW (as now or hereafter amended). If any person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the board, or obeys the subpoena but refuses to testify concerning any matter under examination at the hearing, the board may petition the superior court of the county where the hearing is being conducted for enforcement of the subpoena: PROVIDED, That an offer to pay statutory fees and mileage has been made to the witness at the time of the service of the subpoena. The petition shall be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service, and shall set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with, and shall ask an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify before the board, or refuse to appear and testify before the board. The court, upon entering such petition, may direct the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed in such order and then and there to show cause why he or she has not responded to the subpoena or has refused to testify. A copy of the order shall be served upon the witness. If it appears to the court that the subpoena was properly issued and that the particular questions which the witness refuses to answer are reasonable
AND RELEVANT, THE COURT SHALL ENTER AN ORDER THAT THE WITNESS APPEAR AT THE TIME AND PLACE FIXED IN THE ORDER AND TESTIFY OR PRODUCE THE REQUIRED PAPERS, AND ON FAILING TO OBEY (\textit{GAIID}) THE ORDER, THE WITNESS SHALL BE DEALT WITH AS FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.

The attorney general may make independent recommendations to the board about whether the violations constitute sufficient cause for the revocation of the parole and the return of the parolee to a state correctional institution for convicted felons. The hearings shall be open to the public unless the board for specifically stated reasons closes the hearing in whole or in part. The hearings shall be recorded either manually or by a mechanical recording device. An alleged parole violator may be requested to testify and any such testimony shall not be used against him or her in any criminal prosecution. The board shall adopt rules governing the formal and informal procedures authorized by this chapter and make rules of practice before the board in on-site parole revocation hearings, together with forms and instructions.

If the member, or members having heard the matter, should conclude that the allegations of violation of the conditions of parole have not been proven by a preponderance of the evidence, or, those which have been proven by a preponderance of the evidence are not sufficient cause for the revocation of parole, then the parolee shall be reinstated on parole on the same or modified conditions of parole. For parole violations not resulting in new convictions, modified conditions of parole may include sanctions according to an administrative sanction grid. If the member or members having heard the matter conclude that the allegations of violation of the conditions of parole have been proven by a preponderance of the evidence and constitute sufficient cause for the revocation of parole, then such member or members shall enter an order of parole revocation and return the parolee to state custody. Within thirty days of the return of such parolee to a state correctional institution (\textit{for convicted felons}) the board shall enter an order determining a new minimum term not exceeding the maximum penalty provided by law for the crime for which the parolee was originally convicted or the maximum fixed by the court.

To process and account for these expenditures a new treasury trust account is created to be used for all department of transportation one hundred percent federal and local reimbursable transportation expenditures. This new account is nonbudgeted and nonappropriated. At the same time, federal and private local appropriations and full-time equivalents in subprograms R2, R3, T6, Y6, and Z2 processed through this new account are removed from the department of transportation’s 1997-99 budget.

The department of transportation may make expenditures from the account before receiving federal and local reimbursements. However, at the end of each biennium, the account must maintain a zero or positive cash balance. In the twenty-fourth month of each biennium the department of transportation shall calculate and transfer sufficient cash from either the motor vehicle fund or the multimodal transportation (7) account to cover any negative cash balances. The amount transferred is calculated based on expenditures from each fund. In addition, any interest charges accruing to the new account must be distributed to the motor vehicle fund and the multimodal transportation (7) account.

The department of transportation shall provide an annual report to the legislative transportation committee and the office of financial management on expenditures and full-time equivalents processed through the new account. The report must also include recommendations for process changes, if needed.

Sec. 602. RCW 47.04.220 and 1997 c 94 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The miscellaneous transportation programs account is created in the custody of the state treasurer.

(2) Moneys from the account may be used only for the costs of:

(a) Miscellaneous transportation services provided by the department that are reimbursed by other public and private entities;

(b) Local transportation projects for which the department is a conduit for federal reimbursement to a municipal corporation or political subdivision;

(c) Other reimbursable activities as recommended by the legislative transportation committee and approved by the office of financial management.

(3) Moneys received as reimbursement for expenditures under subsection (2) of this section must be deposited into the account.

(4) No appropriation is required for expenditures from this account. This fund is not subject to allotment procedures provided under chapter 43.88 RCW.

(5) Only the secretary of transportation or the secretary’s designee may authorize expenditures from the account.

(6) It is the intent of the legislature that this account maintain a zero or positive cash balance at the end of each biennium. Toward this purpose the department may make expenditures from the account before receiving reimbursements under subsection (2) of this section. Before the end of the biennium, the department shall transfer sufficient cash to cover any negative cash balances from the motor vehicle fund and the multimodal transportation (7) account to the miscellaneous transportation programs account for unrecovered reimbursements. The department shall calculate the distribution of this transfer based on expenditures. In the ensuing biennium the department shall transfer the reimbursements received in the miscellaneous transportation programs account back to the motor vehicle fund and the multimodal transportation (7) account to the extent of the cash transferred at biennium end. The department shall also distribute any interest charges accruing to the miscellaneous transportation programs account to the motor vehicle fund and the multimodal transportation (7) account. Adjustments for any indirect cost recoveries may also be made at this time.

(7) The department shall provide an annual report to the legislative transportation committee and the office of financial management on the expenditures and full-time equivalents processed through the miscellaneous...
TRANSPORTATION PROGRAMS ACCOUNT. THE REPORT MUST ALSO INCLUDE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CHANGES TO THE PROCESS, IF NEEDED.

1. DEVELOP A MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING THAT GOVERNS A MULTIAGENCY GRANT COUNCIL TO COORDINATE STATE AND FEDERAL GRANT EFFORTS;
2. DEVELOP A SIMPLIFIED GRANT APPLICATION FORM THAT CAN BE USED BY ALL LOCAL GRANT-SEEKING AGENCIES;
3. COORDINATE CALLS FOR LOCAL GRANT APPLICATIONS;
4. INCREASE AWARENESS OF STATE-FUNDED LOCAL GRANT PROGRAMS; AND
5. DEVELOP A PROCESS TO FORWARD APPLICATIONS TO OTHER APPROPRIATE STATE AND FEDERAL FUNDING PROGRAMS.

Message from the Governor

JUNE 26, 2001

To the Honorable President and Members,

The Senate of the State of Washington

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 106; 210 (lines 10-13); 233(1); and 501 of Third Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5327 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to transportation funding and appropriations;"

My reasons for vetoing these sections are as follows:

Section 106, Pages 3-4, Washington State Patrol Communications Study (Joint Legislative Audit and Review Committee)

This section would have provided $50,000 from the State Patrol Highway Account to the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Committee for a study of the planning process and analysis employed by the Washington State Patrol in developing its 2001-03 budget request for replacement of its emergency communication system. The study as described in the proviso would have examined the planning process rather than the needs of the Patrol as they relate to statewide emergency communications. The Patrol has utilized the expertise of its employees and private sector engineers to establish a ten-year capital improvement plan for its outdated emergency communications system. Additional review of the planning process would serve only to delay real improvements to the system and would divert resources from more critical functions in the budget and fiscal and information technology offices of the State Patrol.

Section 210, Page 11, Line 10 beginning with "The Washington state patrol..." through line 13, Electronic Services Off-Duty Vehicle Assignment (Washington State Patrol-Support Services Bureau)

This proviso would have required the Washington State Patrol to allow electronic services field technicians to take home their assigned vehicle and equipment even though they may be off-duty. Currently, only on-call technicians are allowed to take home their vehicles and equipment. The agency has not experienced any adverse effect from the existing policy. The provision in this section would have required an additional $200,000 each biennium for fuel, maintenance and vehicle replacement costs resulting from the increase in mileage due to off-
Duty personnel commuting to and from work. These increased costs cannot be carved out of the agency’s existing budget, and no new funding was provided in the 2001-03 transportation budget.

Section 233(1), Page 24, East Lake Sammamish Trail Interim Improvement (Department of Transportation - Local Programs - Program Z - Capital)

This section would have directed the Washington State Department of Transportation to withhold federal transportation enhancement funds for the East Lake Sammamish Trail Interim Improvement Project until interlocal agreements are secured between King County and the cities of Sammamish, Redmond, and Issaquah. The transportation enhancement funds that were conditioned by this section are federal pass-through dollars designated for local agency transportation projects and programs. While the state plays an important role in selecting these types of projects for federal funding, I believe it would be inappropriate for the state to condition the receipt of these funds beyond the local agency guidelines prepared specifically for the administration of these projects.

Section 501, Pages 30-31, Performance Based Budgeting Provisions

Section 501 would have outlined performance-based budgeting requirements for state transportation agencies. While I support performance-based budgeting and commend the Transportation Committees’ interest, some elements of the criteria established in this section were inconsistent with current statewide budget and accounting standards. The Office of Financial Management is designated in the Budget, Accounting and Reporting Act as the agency responsible for establishing budget instructions and developing and maintaining statewide financial systems. The criteria in this section would have established additional and duplicative reporting requirements for transportation agencies. The creation of two separate tracks for the analysis of financial data would have made it impossible to provide consistent and connected statewide financial information. It is my expectation that agencies will continue to work with the Office of Financial Management and the legislative fiscal committees to develop and implement uniform performance-based budgeting reporting standards that will be applicable to all state agencies.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 106; 210 (lines 10-13); 233(1); and 501 of Third Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5327.

With the exception of sections 106; 210 (lines 10-13); 233(1); and 501, Third Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5327 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Gary Locke, Governor

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 5 and 6, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5937 entitled:

"An Act Relating to postretirement employment for teachers’ retirement system, public employees’ retirement system, and school employees’ retirement system retirees;"

This bill addresses worker retention problems in public employment by expanding post-retirement employment opportunities for Plan 1 members of the teachers’ and public employees’ retirement systems.

The state is facing a critical shortage of experienced teachers and other employees with skills that are in high demand. To meet this shortage, we need to attract retirees back to work. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5937 will help us in this task by creating a program for post-retirement employment. To improve the effectiveness of this program and ensure a steady supply of people with valuable expertise in our schools and state and local agencies, I have vetoed sections 5 and 6, which would have terminated the program in 2004. This sunset date would have been premature and would not have allowed sufficient time for the program to develop.

The bill contains provisions for a study of the program, and a means to recover any resulting costs from employers. These provisions provide adequate safeguards for the program and make sections 5 and 6 unnecessary.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 5 and 6 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5937. With the exception of sections 5 and 6, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5937 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Gary Locke, Governor

Message from the Governor
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6153

JUNE 26, 2001

TO THE HONORABLE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS,
THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I AM RETURNING HEREWITH, WITHOUT MY APPROVAL AS TO SECTIONS 2; 123(3); 203(1)(s); 217(4); 302(15); 302(16); 302(17); 308(6); 402(5); 514(12)(a); 603(12); 710; 912 AND 921 OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6153 ENTITLED:

"AN ACT Relating to fiscal matters;"

MY REASONS FOR VETOING THESE SECTIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 2, PAGE 2, RESTRICTIONS ON GOVERNOR'S SUPPLEMENTAL BUDGET

IN THE EVENT OF A PROJECTED CASH DEFICIT IN THE STATE GENERAL FUND, THE GOVERNOR WOULD HAVE BEEN DIRECTED TO MAKE ACROSS-THE-BOARD ALLOTMENT REDUCTIONS, AND TO RECOMMEND EXPENDITURES FROM THE EMERGENCY RESERVE FUND BEFORE PROPOSING ANY GENERAL FUND TAX INCREASES. THIS PROVISION WOULD HAVE RE-STATE EXISTING ALLOTMENT AUTHORITY, AS WELL AS LIMITING THE EXECUTIVE'S PREROGATIVE CONCERNING ITS SUPPLEMENTAL BUDGET RECOMMENDATIONS.

SECTION 123(3), PAGE 16, PERFORMANCE AUDITS (STATE AUDITOR)

THIS SECTION WOULD HAVE DIRECTED THE OFFICE OF STATE AUDITOR TO CONDUCT PERFORMANCE AUDITS OF THREE GOVERNMENTAL ENTITIES AS DEMONSTRATION AUDITS FOR STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT AGENCIES. THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE AUDIT AND REVIEW COMMITTEE (JLARC) ALREADY HAS STATUTORY RESPONSIBILITY FOR CONDUCTING PERFORMANCE AUDITS. THERE IS NO COMPELLING REASON TO DUPLICATE JLARC FUNCTIONS WITHIN THE OFFICE OF STATE AUDITOR. ALSO, BECAUSE OF AN APPARENT TECHNICAL ERROR, SUBSECTIONS (2) AND (3) WOULD HAVE AUTHORIZED EXPENDITURES FROM THE STATE GENERAL FUND GREATER THAN THE AGENCY APPROPRIATION. WITH RESPECT TO SUBSECTION (2), IT IS MY INTENT TO PURSUE CORRECTION OF THIS DOLLAR AMOUNT IN THE 2002 SUPPLEMENTAL BUDGET.

SECTION 203(1)(s), PAGE 44, CONTRACTED BEDS AT LOCAL COUNTY DETENTION FACILITIES (DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES - JUVENILE REHABILITATION PROGRAM)

THIS SUBSECTION WOULD HAVE AFFECTED THE FUNDING FOR THE 33 CONTRACTED LOCAL COUNTY DETENTION FACILITIES AND ALSO DIRECTED THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES (DHS) NOT TO CONSIDER BEDS IN THOSE FACILITIES TO ACHIEVE REDUCTIONS IN BED CAPACITY. THE JUNE 2001 FORECAST OF THE CASELOAD FORECAST COUNCIL INDICATES THAT THE JUVENILE REHABILITATION RESIDENTIAL POPULATION WILL BE DECLINING BY APPROXIMATELY 60 BEDS, AND THIS TENDENCY IS EXPECTED TO CONTINUE. BY ELIMINATING THESE CONTRACTED BEDS FROM CONSIDERATION FOR REDUCTIONS, DHS WOULD HAVE BEEN HINDERED IN ITS ABILITY TO EFFECTIVELY MANAGE AND UTILIZE RESIDENTIAL BEDS WHILE PROVIDING THE APPROPRIATE SERVICES TO YOUTHS.

SECTION 217(4), PAGE 72, SAFETY AND HEALTH GRANTS (DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES)

THIS SECTION ATTEMPTED TO PREVENT THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES FROM OPERATING THE SAFETY AND HEALTH GRANT PROGRAM, UNLESS SEPARATE LEGISLATION IS PASSED THAT SPECIFICALLY AUTHORIZES EXPENDITURES FOR THAT PROGRAM. HOWEVER, THE STATUTORY AUTHORITY FOR THAT PROGRAM ALREADY EXISTS AND CANNOT BE CHANGED BY AN APPROPRIATIONS BILL.

SECTION 302(15), PAGE 86, CULVERT REMOVAL ON ROCKY FORD CREEK (DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY)

THIS SUBSECTION WOULD HAVE REQUIRED THE DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY (DOE) TO PROVIDE $50,000 TO A LOCAL CONSERVATION DISTRICT IN MORGAN COUNTY FOR A CULVERT REMOVAL PROJECT ON ROCKY FORD CREEK. I SUPPORT ON-THE-GROUND EFFORTS TO ADDRESS FLOODING AND NOXIOUS WEED CONCERNS, BUT THIS SUBSECTION WOULD HAVE FUNDING FOR THIS TYPE OF PROJECT AVAILABLE FROM SEVERAL PREVIOUSLY APPROPRIATED ACCOUNTS THROUGH THE SALMON RECOVERY FUNDING BOARD, DOE, AND THE PUBLIC WORKS TRUST BOARD.

SECTION 302(16), PAGE 86, WASHINGTON WATERSHED, SCIENCE, AND TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM (DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY)

THIS SUBSECTION WOULD HAVE REQUIRED DOE TO PROVIDE $300,000 TO THE STATE CONSERVATION COMMISSION TO ESTABLISH THE WASHINGTON WATERSHED, SCIENCE, AND TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM. THIS PROGRAM WOULD HAVE PROVIDED TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO PRIVATE LANDOWNERS IN CONDUCTING WATER QUALITY MONITORING, RIPARIAN VEGETATION MANAGEMENT, AND NOXIOUS WEED CONTROL. ALTHOUGH I SUPPORT THE GOAL OF THIS PROVISO, THE CREATION OF A NEW TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR THESE ITEMS IS UNNECESSARY SINCE THE CONSERVATION COMMISSION, DOE, AND THE DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE ALREADY PROVIDE SUCH ASSISTANCE.

SECTION 302(17), PAGES 86-87, PALOUSE CONSERVATION DISTRICT PILOT PROJECT (DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY)

THE SUBSECTION WOULD HAVE REQUIRED DOE TO PROVIDE $75,000 TO A CONSERVATION DISTRICT IN THE PALOUSE REGION FOR A PILOT PROJECT TO EVALUATE THE ABILITY OF EXISTING VOLUNTARY AND REGULATORY PROGRAMS TO IMPROVE WATER QUALITY. FUNDING FOR THIS PROJECT IS AVAILABLE, AND HAS ALREADY BEEN APPLIED FOR, FROM THE CENTENNIAL CLEAN WATER FUND.

SECTION 308(6), PAGE 97, TRUST LAND ROADS NONAPPROPRIATED ACCOUNT (DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES)

THIS SUBSECTION WOULD HAVE RESTRICTED THE APPROPRIATION OF A NONAPPROPRIATED ACCOUNT. SINCE THERE IS NOT AN APPROPRIATION FROM THIS ACCOUNT, THE PROVISO IS NOT BINDING AND SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE APPROPRIATIONS BILL.

SECTION 402(5), PAGE 103, MOBILIZATION OF STATE FIRE SERVICE RESOURCES STUDY (WASHINGTON STATE PATROL)

THIS PROVISO WOULD HAVE REQUIRED THE WASHINGTON STATE PATROL, IN CONSULTATION WITH VARIOUS LOCAL AND STATE FIRE SERVICE ENTITIES, TO CONDUCT A STUDY OF THE FIRE MOBILIZATION PLAN AND PROCEDURES. THE STUDY WAS TO INCLUDE AN ANALYSIS OF THE COST EFFECTIVENESS AND EFFICIENCY OF THE FIRE SERVICE MOBILIZATION PLAN. HOWEVER, NO FUNDS were provided to the Patrol for this activity. I will direct the Patrol to examine, to the extent possible within existing resources, the fire mobilization plan and to make timely recommendations for improvements.

Section 514(12), Page 137, National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Bonus (Superintendent of Public Instruction - Education Reform)

Section 514(12) provides funding for bonuses for teachers who attain certification by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS). The Legislature extended the length of the bonus from two to three years, but subsection (A) would have resulted in ten teachers losing their third year bonus payment because they achieved NBPTS certification before the 1999-00 school year. Sufficient funds are provided in the fiscal year 2002 budget to make the third bonus payment to these outstanding teachers - who were the first in this state to pursue and obtain NBPTS certification. Therefore, I have vetoed Section 514(12)(A) and request that the Superintendent of Public Instruction make an annual bonus payment of $3,500 to every teacher who attained NBPTS certification before or during the 2001-02 school year.

This veto makes a technical correction to allow the full implementation of the three-year bonus limit adopted by the Legislature. Next session, I will again ask the Legislature to provide funding for bonus payments to teachers for each year in which their certification by the NBPTS is maintained.

Section 603(12), Page 152, Fee for Adult Basic Education Courses (State Board for Community and Technical Colleges)

The purpose of adult basic education is to provide adults the basic knowledge and skills that are normally acquired from kindergarten through 12th grade. Therefore, it has been the policy of the state to pay for this education. Before we ask students to pay for a portion of this education, there should be a public discussion about changing the current policy.

I am asking the State Board for Community and Technical Colleges to review their adult basic education programs and recommend changes to our policy that will improve this program, including any alterations in the way this program should be funded.

Section 710, Pages 169-170, Distribution of Excess Funds from the Forest Development Account (Department of Natural Resources)

Distribution of forest management funds to counties at this time is not in the best interest of the long-term health of the account or the long-term management of the resources on Forest Board lands. Prior transfers from this account have depleted the available balance. In addition, the Department of Natural Resources' June revenue forecast projects an $8.8 million decrease in revenue for the Forest Development Account.

Section 912, Pages 202-203, Forest Development Account Distribution of Fund Balance (Department of Natural Resources)

This section would have provided statutory authorization during the 2001-03 Biennium to distribute Forest Development Account funds as directed in section 710. Since section 710 has been vetoed, section 912 is unnecessary.

Section 921, Pages 210-212, Parks and Recreation Fees (Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission)

This section would have temporarily limited the statutory authority allowing the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission to charge fees for basic parkland access. The revenue from such fees can be used to provide desperately needed maintenance to park facilities. Currently, the parks system has a $40 million maintenance backlog in addition to a $232 million ten-year capital facilities funding need. I have in the past supported, and continue to believe it is important, that we preserve the Commission's ability to implement fees as it deems appropriate.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 2; 123(3); 203(1)(s); 217(4); 302(15); 302(16); 302(17); 308(6); 402(5); 514(12)(A); 603(12); 710; 912 and 921 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153.

With the exception of sections 2; 123(3); 203(1)(s); 217(4); 302(15); 302(16); 302(17); 308(6); 402(5); 514(12)(A); 603(12); 710; 912 and 921, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6153 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, GOVERNOR

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6155

To the Honorable President and Members,

The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to parts of sections 354 and 612 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6155 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the capital budget;"

Section 354(3), Page 93, Interagency Committee for Outdoor Recreation
THIS SUBSECTION WOULD HAVE PROVIDED $1 MILLION FOR A GRANT TO THE PEOPLE FOR SALMON ORGANIZATION TO COORDINATE AND IMPLEMENT VOLUNTEER SALMON RECOVERY EFFORTS. I WHOLE-HEARTEDLY ENDORSE VOLUNTEERISM IN SUPPORT OF SALMON RECOVERY. HOWEVER, I CONTINUE TO OPPOSE DIRECT APPROPRIATION OF DOLLARS TO PROJECTS, WHICH HAVE NOT BEEN THROUGH THE NORMAL SALMON RECOVERY FUNDING BOARD REVIEW PROCESS. WE MUST PRESERVE THE BOARD’S AUTHORITY TO MAKE THE BEST DECISIONS ABOUT HOW STATE AND FEDERAL SALMON RECOVERY MONEY IS SPENT.

SECTION 612, PAGE 126, LINES 1 - 5, SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF: PHASE 2B

THIS APPROPRIATION LANGUAGE WOULD HAVE UNNECESSARILY DELAYED THE DESIGN OF THE RENOVATION OF THE SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF BY MORE THAN TWO YEARS. SINCE THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE AUDIT AND REVIEW COMMITTEE (JLARC) AND PUBLIC POLICY STUDIES ARE DIRECTED AT CAPACITY PLANNING AND EDUCATIONAL DELIVERY SYSTEMS, THEIR FINDINGS ARE NOT EXPECTED TO SIGNIFICANTLY ALTER THE LEGISLATIVE-DIRECTED MASTER PLAN AND FACILITY PROGRAM STUDIES RECENTLY COMPLETED BY THE SCHOOL. THIS APPROPRIATION FUNDS THE PRELIMINARY DESIGN OF THE CAMPUS RENOVATION TO ADDRESS STUDENT SAFETY, ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM DELIVERY, AND THE PROJECT SHOULD NOT BE DELAYED FOR ADDITIONAL STUDIES.

FOR THESE REASONS I HAVE VETOED PORTIONS OF SECTIONS 354 AND 612 OF SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6155.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THOSE PORTIONS OF SECTIONS 354 AND 612 AS SPECIFIED ABOVE, SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6155 IS APPROVED.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
GARY LOCKE, GOVERNOR

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6167

JUNE 26, 2001

TO THE HONORABLE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS,
THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
I AM RETURNING HEREWITH, WITHOUT MY APPROVAL AS TO SECTION 18, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6167 ENTITLED:

"AN ACT RELATING TO ACTUARIAL FUNDING OF STATE RETIREMENT SYSTEMS;"

THIS BILL ESTABLISHES LONG-TERM ECONOMIC ASSUMPTIONS AND CONTRIBUTION RATES FOR THE STATE PENSION FUNDS. THESE ARE MATTERS OF GREAT CONCERN TO BOTH WORKING AND RETIRED MEMBERS OF THE RETIREMENT SYSTEMS AND FOR THE STATE AS A WHOLE. IMPLEMENTING THESE ASSUMPTIONS REQUIRES A HIGH LEVEL OF EXPERTISE AND APPROPRIATE INPUT FROM THOSE WITH THE EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS TO ENSURE THE CREDIBILITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY OF THE PROCESS.

SECTION 18 WOULD HAVE ABOLISHED THE PENSION FUNDING WORK GROUP ENTIRELY, AND TRANSFERRED STAFFING RESPONSIBILITY TO THE STATE ACTUARY. THIS APPROACH WOULD HAVE REDUCED THE AMOUNT OF EXPERTISE AND INPUT AVAILABLE AND WOULD HAVE ERODED CONFIDENCE IN THE RELIABILITY OF THE PENSION SYSTEM.

I AGREE WITH MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE THAT THE CURRENT PROCESS COULD BE BETTER, AND AM WILLING TO WORK WITH THEM ON ANOTHER SOLUTION.

FOR THESE REASONS, I HAVE VETOED SECTION 18 OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6167.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF SECTION 18, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6167 IS APPROVED.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
GARY LOCKE, GOVERNOR

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6194

JULY 13, 2001

TO THE HONORABLE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS,
THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
I AM RETURNING HEREWITH, WITHOUT MY APPROVAL AS TO SECTION 2, ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6194 ENTITLED:

"AN ACT RELATING TO AUTHORIZING THE PROVISION OF PILOTAGE SERVICES IN THE GRAYS HARBOR PILOTAGE DISTRICT BY PORT DISTRICTS;"

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6194 AUTHORIZES THE PORT OF GRAYS HARBOR TO UNDERTAKE PILOTAGE SERVICES UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS. THIS BILL WILL HELP ENSURE THE SAFE PASSAGE OF MARITIME TRAFFIC IN THE GRAYS HARBOR PILOTAGE DISTRICT WHEN NO PRIVATE SECTOR PILOTS ARE AVAILABLE.

SECTION 2 OF THE BILL MANDATES A STUDY OF THIS AUTHORIZATION BY THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE AUDIT AND REVIEW COMMITTEE. ALTHOUGH A REVIEW OF THE PROVISIONS AND EFFECTIVENESS OF THIS ACT SHOULD BE UNDERTAKEN, THE SCOPE OF THE STUDY IS TOO BROAD. IT SPECIFICALLY REQUESTS THAT THE COMMITTEE INVESTIGATE WHETHER OTHER PORTS HAVE INDICATED AN INTEREST IN PROVIDING PILOTAGE SERVICES, SUGGESTING THAT WE MIGHT CONSIDER THE PROVISION OF PILOTAGE SERVICES BY PORTS OTHER THAN GRAYS HARBOR.
In the case of Grays Harbor, it is clear that the private sector is no longer able to adequately provide this essential public service. However, there is no evidence to suggest that the public needs to provide these services in any other area. The public sector should not unnecessarily displace functioning private sector businesses.

For these reasons I have vetoed section 2 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6194. With the exception of section 2, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6194 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
GARY LOCKE, Governor

SENATE RESOLUTION 2001-8712

WHEREAS, The USS William Seiverling (DE-441) was commissioned at the New York Navy Yard on June 1, 1944, under the command of Lt. Commander Charles F. Adams, Jr. Since its de-commissioning on September 27, 1957, an annual reunion is held in remembrance of the ship and its mates; and
WHEREAS, Tony Mola served on board the USS William Seiverling as a Chief Machinist Repairman from 1944 to 1945 and is the host for the 2001 reunion. Tony resides in Kent, Washington, and the 2001 reunion is the first ever to be held on the West Coast; and
WHEREAS, The destroyer escort reached Oahu on September 17, 1944, and began a series of missions out of the Pearl Harbor base including torpedo, surface gunnery, and shore bombardment exercises. After October 8, 1944, she began antisubmarine warfare duty; and
WHEREAS, The USS William Seiverling arrived on December 2, 1944, in Ulithi and helped patrol the sea lanes between various islands in the Central Pacific to keep them clear of Japanese submarines. On January 7, 1945, during the transit to Luzon, her guns ward ed off a single plane attack; and

WHEREAS, On March 21, 1945, the USS William Seiverling got underway with Task Group 52.1 to support the assault and occupation of Okinawa. Upon her arrival in the Ryukyus on May 20, 1945, she began patrol duty on various antisubmarine and anti-aircraft defense stations around Okinawa. During this phase of her Okinawa duty, the USS William Seiverling came under numerous air attacks—including the attack on May 25, 1945. She claimed three kills and a number of hits but suffered no damage herself; and
WHEREAS, The USS William Seiverling was de-commissioned on March 21, 1947. However, the outbreak of hostilities in Korea during the summer of 1950 brought many warships in the reserve fleet back to active duty. Accordingly, on December 27, 1950, the USS William Seiverling was re-commissioned at San Diego, under the command of Lt. Commander Walter C. Cole; and
WHEREAS, IN JULY, THE USS WILLIAM SEIVERLING ARRIVED IN THE KOREAN WAR ZONE. FROM THE 6TH TO THE 12TH IN 1951, SHE CONDUCTED SHORE BOMBARDMENT MISSIONS NEAR SONGJIN. THROUGHOUT THE BRIEF ACTION, THE ENEMY CONSISTENTLY STRADDLED THE SHIP AND SUCCEEDED IN SCORING THREE HITS, ONE OF WHICH STRUCK THE SHIP BELOW THE WATERLINE AT THE NUMBER TWO FIRE-ROOM. THAT HIT CAUSED HER TO BREAK OFF THE ACTION AND RETIRE TO SASEBO FOR REPAIRS. SHE RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES ON NOVEMBER 22, 1951; AND

WHEREAS, THE USS WILLIAM SEIVERLING WAS PLACED OUT OF COMMISSION AT SAN DIEGO ON SEPTEMBER 27, 1957. THE WARSHIP EARNED FOUR BATTLE STARS DURING WORLD WAR II AND THREE BATTLE STARS DURING THE KOREAN CONFLICT;

REMARKS BY SENATOR SNYDER

SENATOR SNYDER: “THANK YOU, MR. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE SENATE. THE GOVERNOR CALLED US IN TO TRY AND SOLVE THE TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM THAT WE HAVE IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. WE HAD PEOPLE NEGOTIATING IN GOOD FAITH FROM BOTH SIDES OF THE AISLE IN BOTH HOUSES. WE CAME UP WITH AN AGREEMENT FOR A REGIONAL PLAN AND FOR A STATEWIDE PLAN. THE SENATE HAS THE VOTES TO PASS THE STATEWIDE PLAN AND THE REGIONAL PLAN OVER HERE. IN OUR NEGOTIATIONS, WE SAID WE WOULD PASS A REGIONAL PLAN HERE, WHICH WE HAVE THE VOTES FOR AND THAT THE HOUSE WOULD PASS THE STATEWIDE PLAN FIRST. WE HAVE BEEN SITTING HERE NOW AND WE HAVE MADE NO PROGRESS. WE HAVE THE VOTES IN THE SENATE TO PASS BOTH PLANS. THE HOUSE—APPARENTLY, THE WORD THAT WE HAVE IS THAT THE DEMOCRATS HAVE AT LEAST THIRTY VOTES OVER THERE FOR IT AND WE ARE NOT ABLE TO PRODUCE THE FIFTY VOTES OUT OF THERE. AFTER TALKING WITH LEADERSHIP OF THE REPUBLICAN CAUCUS AND THE SENATE, AND IN TALKING WITH MY MEMBERS OF THE SENATE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS, WE THOUGHT THE BEST THING WE COULD DO—RATHER THAN SIT HERE AND BECOME MORE FRUSTRATED EVERYDAY AND GET PRESSURE TO PASS BILLS THAT WOULDN’T BE CONSIDERED IF WE WEREN’T BACK HERE FOR THE TRANSPORTATION PACKAGE—THAT WOULD GO INTO A ROLLING RECESSION. WE HOPE THAT, ALONG THE WAY, WE CAN COME UP WITH SOMETHING THAT WOULD GET TWENTY-FIVE AND FIFTY VOTES AND ONE DOWN STAIRS FOR THE PACKAGES.

“UNTIL THAT TIME, WE ARE GOING TO ADJOURN TODAY UNTIL NEXT TUESDAY. WE WILL COME IN ON EITHER A THREE DAY BASIS OR A DAILY BASIS UNTIL WE CAN GET SOMETHING WORKED OUT OR UNTIL WE USE UP OUR THIRTY DAYS. I CERTAINLY THINK THAT THE TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IS OF HUGE, HUGE SIGNIFICANCE TO THE STATE. I BELIEVE IF WE DON’T DO SOMETHING, AND START AS SOON AS WE POSSIBLY CAN, OUR ECONOMY IS GOING TO GO INTO SERIOUS DOLDRUMS. WE HAVE ALL HEARD THE STORIES THAT BOEING PROBABLY WOULDN’T BUILD THEIR SUPER SONIC CRUISER IN SEATTLE UNLESS WE CAN SOLVE THE TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM. MICROSOFT IS TALKING ABOUT EXPANDING IN UTAH OR SOME OTHER STATES, RATHER THAN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. OTHER BUSINESSES ARE TALKING ABOUT MOVING OUT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. I THINK IT IS VERY, VERY CRUCIAL THAT WE KEEP WORKING AND TRY AND COME UP WITH A SOLUTION TO OUR TRANSPORTATION PROBLEMS IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON. IF NOT, FOUR OR FIVE OR SIX YEARS FROM NOW, WHEN WE COULD VERY POSSIBLY BE IN A DEEP RECESSION OR DEPRESSION, I CERTAINLY DON’T WANT PEOPLE LOOKING BACK AND SAYING, ‘WHY DIDN’T THEY DO SOMETHING BACK IN 01 WHEN THEY HAD THE OPPORTUNITY AND WE WOULDN’T BE HAVING THESE PROBLEMS?’ I HATE TO COME TO THIS CONCLUSION, BUT I THINK IT IS THE BEST SITUATION AND SOLUTION THAT WE CAN COME UP WITH AT THE PRESENT TIME.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAUGEN

SENATOR HAUGEN: “THANK YOU, MR. PRESIDENT. WELL, I WANT TO SAY ‘THANK YOU’ TO MY FELLOW SENATORS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE AISLE, WHO HAVE WORKED SHOULDER TO SHOULDER WITH ME THIS LAST WEEK. WITHOUT THE LEADERSHIP OF PEOPLE LIKE DAN MCDONALD AND JIM HORN AND BILL FINKBEINER AND JIM KASTAMA AND GEORGIA GARDNER AND KEN JACOBSEN, WE WOULDN’T HAVE HAD THE PACKAGE THAT WE HAVE HERE. THESE ARE EXTRAORDINARY INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE WORKED VERY HARD WITH ME. I ALSO WANT TO EXTEND A REAL ‘THANK YOU’ TO OUR STAFF. I THINK FEW OF US REALIZE THE MANY HOURS THAT OUR STAFF HAS WORKED LATE, LATE INTO THE NIGHT TO PUT TOGETHER THIS PACKAGE.
"What we have is a proposal that we all can be proud of. It is one, because we have worked together in a united way, that not only addresses the problems in Puget Sound, but has money in it that would solve problems throughout this state. It truly would keep the state of Washington moving. We are going home hoping that the House will take action. I will say that they have not worked as long and as hard as we have. I don’t think they had the understanding that we had. Perhaps, if we give them a few days, they will come around. Again, I want to say ‘thank you’ to my colleagues who worked with me and to our staff who worked so very hard.”
