(12) "Pattern of criminal profiteering activity" means engaging in at least three acts of criminal profiteering, one of which occurred after July 1, 1985, and the last of which occurred within five years, excluding any period of imprisonment, after the commission of the earliest act of criminal profiteering. In order to constitute a pattern, the three acts must have the same or similar intent, results, accomplices, principals, victims, or methods of commission, or be otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics including a nexus to the same enterprise, and must not be isolated events. However, in any civil proceedings brought pursuant to RCW 9A.82.100 by any person other than the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney in which one or more acts of fraud in the purchase or sale of securities are asserted as acts of criminal profiteering activity, it is a condition to civil liability under RCW 9A.82.100 that the defendant has been convicted in a criminal proceeding of fraud in the purchase or sale of securities under RCW 21.20.400 or under the laws of another state or of the United States requiring the same elements of proof, but such conviction need not relate to any act or acts asserted as acts of criminal profiteering activity in such civil action under RCW 9A.82.100.
(13) "Real property" means any real property or interest in real property, including but not limited to a land sale contract, lease, or mortgage of real property.
(14) "Records" means any book, paper, writing, record, computer program, or other material.
(15) "Repayment of an extension of credit" means the repayment, satisfaction, or discharge in whole or in part of a debt or claim, acknowledged or disputed, valid or invalid, resulting from or in connection with that extension of credit.
(16) "Stolen property" means property that has been obtained by theft, robbery, or extortion.
(17) "To collect an extension of credit" means to induce in any way a person to make repayment thereof.
(18) "To extend credit" means to make or renew a loan or to enter into an agreement, tacit or express, whereby the repayment or satisfaction of a debt or claim, whether acknowledged or disputed, valid or invalid, and however arising, may or shall be deferred.
(19) "Traffic" means to sell, transfer, distribute, dispense, or otherwise dispose of stolen property to another person, or to buy, receive, possess, or obtain control of stolen property, with intent to sell, transfer, distribute, dispense, or otherwise dispose of the property to another person.

(20)(a) "Trustee" means:
(i) A person acting as a trustee under a trust established under Title 11 RCW in which the trustee holds legal or record title to real property;
(ii) A person who holds legal or record title to real property in which another person has a beneficial interest; or
(iii) A successor trustee to a person who is a trustee under (a)(i) or (ii) of this subsection.
(b) "Trustee" does not mean a person appointed or acting as:
(i) A personal representative under Title 11 RCW;
(ii) A trustee of any testamentary trust;
(iii) A trustee of any indenture of trust under which a bond is issued; or
(iv) A trustee under a deed of trust.

(21) "Unlawful debt" means any money or other thing of value constituting principal or interest of a debt that is legally unenforceable in the state in full or in part because the debt was incurred or contracted:
(a) In violation of any one of the following:
(i) Chapter 67.16 RCW relating to horse racing;
(ii) Chapter 9.46 RCW relating to gambling;
(b) In a gambling activity in violation of federal law; or
(c) In connection with the business of lending money or a thing of value at a rate that is at least twice the permitted rate under the applicable state or federal law relating to usury.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator West: “A point of order, Mr. President. First of all, I want to make clear that I am not an enemy of this bill and I would like to see it pass. Mr. President, I would like for you to rule whether this is a fee or a tax and whether it requires a simple majority or a two-thirds vote on final passage under Initiative 601. I would point out the difference between a fee and a tax. A fee is a charge for a particular service. You pay a fee to, perhaps, use something that government has or to be provided with a service. A fee typically pays for the cost of providing that service. A tax, on the other hand, is an amount of money levied, but then is used for some purpose other than the transaction upon which it was paid. In this case, you will be paying the county clerk an amount of money for the privilege of recording documents. If you call it a fee, it would imply that the cost of recording those documents is imbedded in that and that is the sole purpose for that money—to call it anything other than a tax. It is a tax if that money, then, is used for some other stated purpose and in this bill it is used for housing. Again, I am not an enemy of the bill, but I want it clear that we are either levying a tax, which I believe this is, or we are assessing a fee. So, I would like the Lieutenant Governor to rule on that important point.”

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “In ruling on the point of order by Senator West, concerning the number of votes necessary to pass Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5936, the President finds that the measure requires county auditors to collect a three dollar surcharge for the recording of instruments. Up to ten percent of the surcharge would be retained by county auditors to cover the cost of collection. Forty percent of the remainder of the surcharge would be deposited into the Washington housing trust account. Sixty percent of the remainder of the surcharge would be retained by counties for low income housing projects.

Because no part of the surcharge would be considered ‘state revenues’ under RCW 43.35.135 (Initiative 601), the President finds that final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5936 requires a simple majority vote.”

The President ruled that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5936 would require a simple majority vote on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Prentice, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5936 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5936.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5936 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; Nays, 11; Absent, 0; Excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Hale and Honeyford - 2.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5936, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hewitt, Senator Zarelli was excused.

The legislature also finds that the demands of the workplace, the needs of the criminal justice system, and the needs of crime victims must be balanced in order to have economic security and a well-functioning society. The legislature further finds that employers today, especially small businesses, face a complicated array of mandated leave requirements that overlap and are difficult to administer. NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) There is hereby created a joint select committee on leave from employment for crime victims composed of the following four voting members:

In addition, if requested, the labor market and economic analysis branch of the employment security department, or other state agency staff shall assist the joint select committee with its duties.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The joint select committee, in consultation with the advisory committee, shall study and make findings and recommendations related to the following aspects of leave from employment for crime victims:
(1) The number of workers that would require such leave from employment each year and for what reasons a crime victim may need to take leave from employment;
(2) The extent to which state and federal mandated leave is currently available to crime victims and the extent to which employers already have programs in place to accommodate crime victims without legal requirements to do so;
(3) The extent to which additional leave, if any, may be necessary;
(4) To what types of crimes should such leave apply and to what size of employer should such leave requirements apply;
(5) What remedies, if any, should be available for crime victims denied leave;
(6) The extent to which such leave requirements would impose additional hardships on employers and the extent to which remedies are available to minimize such hardships;
(7) The extent to which consistency between state and federal leave laws can be achieved and the extent to which improvements can be made to existing leave laws to reduce the burden on businesses and create greater flexibility for workers;
(8) The extent to which changes, if any, in state and federal laws are necessary to implement the findings and recommendations of this committee; and
(9) Any other issues identified by the joint select committee.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature recognizes that the individualized treatment required for constitutional civil commitment includes the realistic possibility of release to a less restrictive alternative than total confinement in appropriate cases. The legislature finds that most persons civilly committed under chapter 71.09 RCW who become eligible for release to a less restrictive alternative do not have appropriate housing and that the lack of housing may unduly restrict the person's ability to move to a less restrictive alternative placement. The legislature also finds that these facilities are essential public facilities, are subject to public protest upon siting, and that some cities and counties have imposed moratoriums on zoning and permitting processes. The legislature further finds that this reaction hampers its ability and the ability of the department of social and health services to comply with constitutional and statutory requirements and with court orders to create housing for less restrictive alternative placements. The legislature, therefore, intends to provide statewide guidance for the siting of less restrictive alternative housing for persons placed on less restrictive alternative placements under chapter 71.09 RCW.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to:

(a) Enhance public safety and maximize the potential for successful treatment of sexually violent predators through the tightly managed use of less restrictive alternatives in community-based secure community transition facilities;

(b) Maximize the safety of communities in which secure community transition facilities are located and ensure public input into secure community transition facilities by enabling community participation in decisions involving these essential public facilities;

(c) Comply with federal court orders and require the siting of less restrictive alternative housing facilities and to preclude the possibility that the department of social and health services would be unable to site a facility due to local moratoriums and requirements;

(d) Require the department to work with local jurisdictions to address specific local concerns and develop zoning requirements and development regulations that balance the need for siting with public safety; and

(e) Improve public safety by strengthening the safeguards in placement, oversight, and monitoring of the persons released to a less restrictive alternative in a secure community transition facility, and by establishing minimum standards for the siting and operation of secure community transition facilities.

(3) The legislature finds that community participation in siting and oversight is vital to the success of secure community transition facilities for less restrictive alternatives.

Sec. 2. RCW 71.09.020 and 1995 c 216 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

“Secretary” means the secretary of social and health services or the secretary’s designee.

“Step-down facility” means any secure community transition facility that provides residence for more than five persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall adopt rules that balance the average response time of emergency services to the general area of the proposed facility against the proximity of the proposed site to risk potential activities and facilities in existence at the time the site is listed for consideration.

(2) In balancing the competing criteria of proximity and response time the rule shall endeavor to achieve an average law enforcement response time not greater than five minutes and in no case shall the rule permit location of a facility adjacent to, immediately across a street or parking lot from, or within the line of sight of a risk potential activity or facility in existence at the time a site is listed for consideration. “Within the line of sight” means that it is possible to reasonably visually distinguish and recognize individuals.

(3) The site shall require that great weight be given to sites that are the farthest removed from any risk potential activity.

(4) The site shall specify how distance from the location is measured and any variations in the measurement based on the size of the property within which a proposed facility is to be located.

(5) The rule shall establish a method to analyze and compare the criteria for each site in terms of public safety and security, site characteristics, and program components. In making a decision regarding a site following the analysis and comparison, the secretary shall give priority to public safety and security considerations. The analysis and comparison of the criteria are to be documented and made available at the public hearings prescribed in section 7 of this act.

(6) The rule shall contain a schedule of monetary penalties for contractors operating secure community transition facilities, not to exceed the total compensation set forth in the contract, and include provisions for termination of all contracts with a service provider that has repeated or serious violations of section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. By December 1, 2001, the secretary of the department of social and health services shall determine and report to the legislature whether there is a significant group of potential locations that are outside of a five-minute law enforcement response time zone that are more than two miles from any risk potential activities and whether, in the secretary’s judgment, the legislature should require the rule to be revised to permit consideration of these properties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall establish criteria for the siting of secure community transition facilities which shall include at least the following minimum requirements:

(1) Any real property listed for consideration for the location of or use as a secure community transition facility must meet all of the following criteria:

(a) The proximity and response time criteria established under section 3 of this act;

(b) The site or building is available for lease for the anticipated use period or for purchase;

(c) Security monitoring services and appropriate back-up systems are available and reliable;

(d) Appropriate mental health and sex offender treatment providers must be available within a reasonable commute; and

(e) Appropriate permitting for a secure community transition facility must be possible under the zoning code of the local jurisdiction.

(2) For sites which meet the criteria of subsection (1) of this section, the department shall analyze and compare the criteria in subsections (3) through (5) of this section using the method established in section 3 of this act.

(3) Public safety and security criteria shall include at least the following:

(a) Whether limited visibility between the facility and adjacent properties can be achieved prior to placement of any person;

(b) The distance from, and number of, risk potential activities and facilities, as measured using the rules adopted under section 3 of this act;

(c) The existence of or ability to establish barriers between the site and the risk potential facilities and activities;
(d) Suitability of the buildings to be used for the secure community transition facility with regard to existing or feasibly modified features; and

(e) The availability of electronic monitoring that allows a resident's location to be determined with specificity.

4. Site characteristics criteria shall include at least the following:
   (a) Reasonableness of rental, lease, or sale terms including length and renewability of a lease or rental agreement;
   (b) Traffic and access patterns associated with the real property;
   (c) Feasibility of complying with zoning requirements within the necessary time frame; and
   (d) A contractor or contractors are available to install, monitor, and repair the necessary security and alarm systems.

5. Program characteristics criteria shall include at least the following:
   (a) Reasonable proximity to available medical, mental health, sex offender, and chemical dependency treatment providers and facilities;
   (b) Suitability of the location for programming, staffing, and support considerations;
   (c) Proximity to employment, educational, vocational, and other treatment plan components; and
   (d) In facilities housing five or fewer residents, a minimum staffing ratio of one staff per resident during normal waking hours and two awake staff during normal sleeping hours. In no case shall all staff on a shift be persons classified as entry or trainee level staff.

6. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, at least one staff member, or other court-approved and department-approved person must escort each resident when the resident leaves the site for appointments, employment, or other approved activities. Escorting persons must supervise the resident closely and maintain close proximity to the resident.

7. For purposes of this section “available” or “availability” of qualified treatment providers includes provider qualifications and willingness to provide services, average commute time, and cost of services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Security systems for secure community transition facilities housing five or fewer residents shall meet the following minimum qualifications:

(1) (a) The security panel must be a commercial grade panel with tamper-proof switches and a key-lock to prevent unauthorized access.
   (b) There must be an emergency electrical supply system which shall include a battery back-up system and a generator.
   (2) The system must include personal panic devices for all staff.
   (3) The security system must be capable of being monitored and signaled either by telephone through either a land or cellular telephone system or by private radio network in the event of a total dial-tone failure or through equivalent technologies.
   (4) The department shall issue photo-identification badges to all staff which must be worn at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the department of social and health services operates, or the secretary enters a contract to operate, a secure community transition facility, the secure community transition facility may be operated only after the public notification and opportunities for review and comment as required by this section.

(2) The secretary shall establish a process for early and continuous public participation in establishing or relocating secure community transition facilities. The process shall include, at a minimum, public meetings in the local communities affected, as well as opportunities for written and oral comments, in the following manner:
   (a) If there are more than three sites initially selected as potential locations and the selection process by the secretary or a service provider reduces the number of possible sites for a secure community transition facility to no fewer than three, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall notify the public of the possible sites and hold at least two public hearings in each community where a secure community transition facility may be sited.
   (b) When the secretary or service provider has determined the secure community transition facility’s location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall hold at least one additional public hearing in the community where the secure community transition facility will be sited.
   (c) When the secretary has entered negotiations with a service provider and only one site is under consideration, then at least two public hearings shall be held.
   (d) To provide adequate notice of, and opportunity for interested persons to comment on, a proposed location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall provide at least fourteen days’ advance notice of the meeting to all newspapers of general circulation in the community, all radio and television stations generally available to persons in the community, any school district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited or whose boundary is within two miles of a proposed secure community transition facility, any library district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited, local business or fraternal organizations that request notification from the secretary or agency, and any person or property owner within a one-half mile radius of the proposed secure community transition facility. Before initiating this process, the department of social and health services shall contact local government planning agencies in the communities containing the proposed secure community transition facility. The department of social and health services shall coordinate with local government agencies to ensure that opportunities are provided for effective citizen input and to reduce the duplication of notice and meetings.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by law, this section applies only to secure community transition facilities sited after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall develop a process with local governments that allows each community in which a secure community transition facility is located to establish operational advisory boards for the secure community transition facilities. The department of social and health services may conduct community awareness activities to publicize this opportunity. The operational advisory boards developed under this section shall be implemented following the decision to locate a secure community transition facility in a particular community.

(2) The operational advisory boards may review and make recommendations regarding the security and operations of the secure community transition facility and conditions or modifications necessary with relation to any person who the secretary proposes to place in the secure community transition facility.
(3) The operational advisory boards, their members, and any agency represented by a member shall not be liable in any case of action as a result of its recommendations unless the advisory board acts with gross negligence or bad faith in making a recommendation.

(4) Members of a board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall adopt a violation reporting policy for persons conditionally released to less restrictive alternative placements in secure community transition facilities. The policy shall require written documentation by the department of social and health services and service providers of all violations of conditions set by the department of social and health services, the department of corrections, or the court and establish criteria for returning a violator to the special commitment center or a step-down facility. Any conditionally released person who commits a serious violation of conditions shall be returned to the special commitment center and the court shall be notified immediately and the court shall initiate proceedings under RCW 71.09.098 to revoke or modify the less restrictive alternative placement unless the department makes a good cause showing why proceedings should not be initiated. For the purposes of this section, "serious violation" includes but is not limited to:

(a) The commission of any criminal offense;
(b) Any unlawful use or possession of a controlled substance; and
(c) Any violation of conditions targeted to address the person's documented pattern of offense that increases the risk to public safety.

When a person is released to a less restrictive alternative in a secure community transition facility under this chapter and is under the supervision of the department of corrections, notice of any violation of the person's conditions of release must also be made to the department of corrections.

(2) Whenever the secretary contracts with a service provider to operate a secure community transition facility, the contract shall include a requirement that the service provider must report to the department of social and health services any known violation of conditions committed by any resident of the secure community transition facility.

The secretary shall maintain a record in writing of all violations, actions by the department of social and health services to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations. The secretary shall give great weight to a service provider's record of violations, penalties, actions by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations in determining to execute, renew, or renegotiate a contract with a service provider.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

(1) On or before September 1, 2002, the legislative authority of each county in the state shall adopt a countywide planning policy to establish the process for an equitable distribution of secure community transition facilities as defined in RCW 71.09.020 within the county and the cities located in whole or in part within the county. The countywide planning policy required by this section shall be adopted in cooperation with the cities located in whole or in part within the county. Counties planning under the growth management act may integrate the planning policy required in the section with their growth management act planning process.

(2) The department of social and health services shall be notified by each county of its intent to begin the countywide planning process required by this section and the department shall be invited to participate in this process.

(3) The countywide planning policy required by this section shall, at a minimum, address the following:

(a) The location of existing secure community transition facilities;
(b) The social, economic, and other impacts of the existing secure community transition facilities on the communities in which they are located and the incremental impacts of siting additional secure community transition facilities in these communities;
(c) A proposed allocation for the siting of future secure community transition facilities among the county and the cities located within or in part within the county; and
(d) Coordination of development regulations, including but not limited to zoning regulations and design standards, to ensure that the proposed allocation of future secure community transition facilities can be achieved.

(4) The countywide planning policy required by this section shall:

(a) Be consistent with the siting criteria established pursuant to sections 3 and 5 through 7 of this act;
(b) Require any local conditional use permit or other development application process not to exceed sixty days in length and provide for an appeal process.

(5) Within six months of the date the countywide planning policy required by subsection (1) of this section is adopted, the county and each city within the county shall adopt development regulations implementing the policy adopted under this section through appropriate revisions to their comprehensive plan and development regulations.

COUNTIES PLANNING UNDER THIS CHAPTER MUST ADOPT A COUNTYWIDE PLANNING POLICY FOR THE SITING OF Secure Community Transition Facilities COMPATIBLE WITH THE TIMELINES AND REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 10 OF THIS ACT.

Sec. 12. RCW 36.70A.200 and 1998 c 171 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The comprehensive plan of each county and city that is planning under this chapter shall include a process for identifying and siting essential public facilities. Essential public facilities include those facilities that are typically difficult to site, such as airports, state education facilities and state or regional transportation facilities as defined in RCW 47.06.140, state and local correctional facilities, solid waste handling facilities, and in-patient facilities including substance abuse facilities, mental health facilities, and group homes, and secure community transition facilities as defined in RCW 71.09.020.

(2) The office of financial management shall maintain a list of those essential state public facilities that are required or likely to be built within the next six years. The office of financial management may at any time add facilities to the list. No local comprehensive plan or development regulation may preclude the siting of essential public facilities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this act shall operate to restrict a court's authority to make less restrictive alternative placements to a committed person's individual residence. A court-ordered less restrictive alternative placement to a committed person's individual residence is not a less restrictive placement to a secure community transition facility.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5914 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Hochstatter: "Senator Fraser, in looking at the description of the bill at the top of page forty-nine in the calendar, this statement is made, 'The land from which a family farm permit has been transferred must obtain a permit to make any ground water withdrawal that is not already being made. This provision must be recorded by the county auditor. A certificate must be issued to the extent that water is being put to beneficial purpose.' My question, Senator Fraser, is that practically all rural places have an irrigation well or irrigation source and an exempt domestic well. This says, 'any use,' so if you transfer your irrigation--and it says, 'any other water right.'--does this bill attack your exempt permit on your domestic well?"

Senator Fraser: "Thank you for the question. I am very happy to clarify that because I asked that same question about the draft that we had. That requirement is prospective only. It doesn’t affect any existing wells. What I call this portion that you are referring to as ‘You can’t have your cake and eat it, too,’ amendment. The purpose of the amendment there is to say, ‘If you transfer your family farm water out of your property onto another property for another purpose--whatever that quantity is--you can’t then drill wells and get that same amount back by using another source from your property. In other words, you can’t give away your family farm water and then get more family farm water. It doesn’t affect existing wells or existing use or existing irrigation. It is prospective only. You can’t have your cake and eat it too--prospectively.”

Senator Hochstatter: “Thank you, Senator.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5914.

On page 2, line 6, after "privacy." insert "After the arrest of a suspect and referral of the case to the prosecuting authority, basic arrest information contained within the police incident report is no longer exempt, unless the agency promptly requests an examination of the record in camera and obtains an injunction against such release pursuant to RCW 42.17.330. After conviction, acquittal, dismissal of charges, or declination to file, the remainder of the investigative file in that particular case is no longer exempt, unless the agency promptly requests an examination of the record in camera and obtains an injunction against such release pursuant to RCW 42.17.330."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Kline: "A point of order, Mr. President. I want to phrase this in a way that does no harm to a very good piece of legislation put forth by Senator McCaslin. The question is whether the amendment fits within the scope and object of the underlying bill. The amendment does have something in common with the underlying bill in that it deals with the Public Disclosure Act, RCW 42.17. It has something else to do with the underlying bill in that the people whose secrets are kept happen to be in uniform, but beyond that, this is an entire different piece of legislation.”

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Snyder, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 5058 was deferred

Basic parkland access fees are not conducive to maximizing public access to these lands which all members of the public have helped to pay for. On motion of Senator Fraser, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5912 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Fraser, because there is a large public facility in my district that is causing my citizens a lot of trouble--lowering their property values and creating a lot of environmental damage to my district, I am interested to know what this bill says about siting of the facilities and how the bill addresses the mitigation of the impact of those sitings to the citizens who may live near the facilities?" Senator Fraser: "Senator Patterson, I think there are a couple of things I could say in response to that question. First, additional public hearing is required. Secondly, it doesn't change any of the standards for mitigation of the plant or the pipeline or whatever. So, existing laws on air and water, for example, continue to apply. The bill does give more deference to local land use planning and zoning. Under current law, they can totally preempt it. Under this proposal, they can still preempt it, but they have to go through a process of listening to the local people before they would decide that. So, that is what I mean when I say it would give a little more deference and the other is by not allowing preemption of priority lands such as parks without their permission or subject to conditions they would require is another way to be sensitive to the local community."

Further debate ensued.
The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5912.

On motion of Senator Haugen, the following striking amendment by Senators Haugen, Horn and Benton was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that transportation in the state of Washington is in crisis. Congestion on the state highways has reached unprecedented proportions in several parts of the state, some roads and bridges are in poor condition and need improvement, and the revenues that state and local governments have traditionally used to fund projects are declining.

The legislature further finds that the Blue Ribbon Commission on Transportation, in its final report, recognized that a lack of governmental coordination among jurisdictions creates an inability to provide an integrated transportation system and recommended that efficiencies in agencies be accomplished whenever possible.

Therefore, it is the legislature's intent to create the transportation funding board. It is the legislature's further intent to consolidate three separately funded transportation agencies because many of their services are duplicative with each other and with services offered by the state department of transportation. In these times of insufficient funding, it makes sense to achieve a savings for the state that can be better spent in addressing the transportation needs of the citizens of Washington. The legislature therefore intends that some functions of the county road administration board, all of the functions of the transportation improvement board, and all of the functions of the freight mobility strategic investment board be consolidated into the highway and local programs division of the department of transportation and administered by the transportation funding board.

It is the further intent of the legislature to create the legislative transportation accountability program as a single point of accountability at the state level to monitor and analyze the performance of the state’s transportation system and ensure that statewide transportation benchmarks are achieved.

It is the further intent of the legislature to authorize the governor to appoint the secretary of transportation and transfer the functions of the transportation commission to the department of transportation, the transportation funding board, and the legislative transportation accountability program.

Refunds of interest to the federal treasury required under the cash management improvement act fall under RCW 43.88.180. and shall not require appropriation. The office of financial management shall determine the amounts due to or from the federal government pursuant to the cash management improvement act. The office of financial management may direct transfers of funds between accounts as deemed necessary to implement the provisions of the cash management improvement act, and this subsection. Refunds or allocations shall occur prior to the distributions of earnings set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

1. "Board" means the (transportation funding board created in RCW 47.06A.030)

2. "Department" means the department of transportation.

3. "Freight mobility" means the safe, reliable, and efficient movement of goods within and through the state to ensure the state's economic vitality.

4. "Local governments" means cities, towns, counties, special purpose districts, port districts, and any other municipal corporations or quasi-municipal corporations in the state excluding school districts.

5. "Public entity" means a state agency, city, town, county, port district, or municipal or regional planning organization.

6. "Strategic freight corridor" means a transportation corridor of great economic importance within an integrated freight system that:

a. Serves international and domestic interstate and intrastate trade;

b. Enhances the state's competitive position through regional and global gateways;

c. Carries freight tonnages of at least:

i. Four million gross tons annually on state highways, city streets, and county roads;

ii. Five million gross tons annually on railroads; or
(iii) Two and one-half million net tons on waterways; and
(d) Has been designated a strategic corridor by the board under RCW 47.06A.020(3). However, new alignments to, realignments of, and new links to strategic corridors that enhance freight movement may qualify, even though no tonnage data exists for facilities to be built in the future.

Sec. 29. RCW 47.06A.020 and 1999 c 216 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The highways and local programs division of the department and the board shall:
(a) Adopt rules and procedures necessary to implement the freight mobility strategic investment program;
(b) Solicit from public entities proposed projects that meet eligibility criteria established in accordance with subsection (4) of this section; and
(c) Review and evaluate project applications based on criteria established under this section, and prioritize and select projects comprising a portfolio to be funded in part with grants from state funds appropriated for the freight mobility strategic investment program. In determining the appropriate level of state funding for a project, the board shall ensure that state funds are allocated to leverage the greatest amount of partnership funding possible. After selecting projects comprising the portfolio, the board shall submit them as part of its budget request to the office of financial management and the legislature. The board shall ensure that projects submitted as part of the portfolio are not more appropriately funded with other federal, state, or local government funding mechanisms or programs. The board shall reject those projects that appear to improve overall general mobility with limited enhancement for freight mobility.

The board shall provide periodic progress reports on its activities to the office of financial management and the legislative transportation committee.

(2) The board may:
(a) Accept from any state or federal agency, loans or grants for the financing of any transportation project and enter into agreements with any such agency concerning the loans or grants;
(b) Provide technical assistance to project applicants;
(c) Accept any gifts, grants, or loans of funds, property, or financial, or other aid in any form from any other source on any terms and conditions which are not in conflict with this chapter;
(d) Adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter; and
(e) Do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted or implied under this chapter.

(3) The board shall designate strategic freight corridors within the state. The board shall update the list of designated strategic corridors not less than every two years, and shall establish a method of collecting and verifying data, including information on city and county-owned roadways.

(4) From June 11, 1998, through the biennium ending June 30, 2001, the board shall utilize threshold project eligibility criteria that, at a minimum, includes the following:
(a) The project must be on a strategic freight corridor;
(b) The project must meet one of the following conditions:
   (i) It is primarily aimed at reducing identified barriers to freight movement with only incidental benefits to general or personal mobility; or
   (ii) It is primarily aimed at increasing capacity for the movement of freight with only incidental benefits to general or personal mobility; or
   (iii) It is primarily aimed at mitigating the impact on communities of increasing freight movement, including roadway/railway conflicts; and
   (c) The project must have a total public benefit/total public cost ratio of equal to or greater than one.

(5) From June 11, 1998, through the biennium ending June 30, 2001, the board shall use the multicriteria analysis and scoring framework for evaluating and ranking eligible freight mobility and freight mitigation projects developed by the freight mobility project prioritization committee and contained in the January 16, 1998, report entitled "Project Eligibility, Priority and Selection Process for a Strategic Freight Investment Program." The prioritization process shall measure the degree to which projects address important program objectives and shall generate a project score that reflects a project's priority compared to other projects. The board shall assign scoring points to each criterion that indicate the relative importance of the criterion in the overall determination of project priority. After June 30, 2001, the board may supplement and refine the initial project priority criteria and scoring framework developed by the freight mobility project prioritization committee as expertise and experience is gained in administering the freight mobility program.

(6) It is the intent of the legislature that each freight mobility project contained in the project portfolio submitted by the board utilize the greatest amount of nonstate funding possible. The board shall adopt rules that give preference to projects that contain the greatest levels of financial participation from nonprogram fund sources. The board shall consider twenty percent as the minimum partnership contribution, but shall also ensure that there are provisions allowing exceptions for projects that are located in areas where minimal local funding capacity exists or where the magnitude of the project makes the adopted partnership contribution financially unfeasible.

(7) The board shall develop and recommend policies that address operational improvements that primarily benefit and enhance freight movement, including, but not limited to, policies that reduce congestion in truck lanes at border crossings and weigh stations and provide for access to ports during nonpeak hours.

The term "board" as used in this chapter means the transportation ((improvement)) funding board.

Sec. 31. RCW 47.26.080 and 1999 c 94 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the motor vehicle fund the urban arterial trust account. The intent of the urban arterial trust account program is to improve the arterial street system of the state by improving mobility and safety while supporting an environment essential to the quality of life of the citizens of the state of Washington. The city hardship assistance program, as provided in (RCW 47.26.104) section 16 of this act, and the small city program, as provided for in RCW 47.26.115, are implemented within the urban arterial trust account.

The board shall not allocate funds, nor make payments of the funds under RCW 47.26.260, to any county, city, or town identified by the governor under RCW 36.70A.340.
No more than two percent of the funds in the urban arterial trust account may be spent on administrative costs in implementing programs under this account.

Sec. 32. RCW 47.26.084 and 1999 c 94 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:
The transportation improvement account is hereby created in the motor vehicle fund. The intent of the program is to improve mobility of people and goods in Washington state by supporting economic development and environmentally responsive solutions to our statewide transportation system needs.

Within one year after board approval of an application for funding, a county, city, or transportation benefit district shall provide written certification to the board of the pledged local and/or private funding. Funds allocated to an applicant that does not certify its funding within one year after approval may be reallocated by the board.

No more than two percent of the funding in the account may be spent for the administrative costs to operate the program.

Sec. 33. RCW 47.26.170 and 1994 c 179 s 16 are each amended to read as follows:
Each county having within its boundaries an urban area and cities and towns shall prepare and submit to the transportation improvement board an inventory data required to determine the long-range arterial construction needs. The counties, cities, and towns shall revise the arterial inventory data every years to show the current arterial construction needs through the advanced planning period, and as revised shall submit to them to the transportation improvement board during the first week of January every four years beginning in 1996. The inventory data shall be prepared pursuant to guidelines established by the transportation committees of the house and senate.

Sec. 34. RCW 47.26.185 and 1994 c 179 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:
The transportation improvement board may adopt rules establishing qualifications for cities and counties administering and supervising the design and construction of projects financed in part from funds administered by the board. The rules establishing qualification shall take into account the resources and population of the city or county, its permanent engineering staff, its design and construction supervision experience, and other factors the board deems appropriate. Any city or county failing to meet the qualifications established by the board for administering and supervising a project shall contract with a qualified city or county or the department for the administration and supervision of the design and construction of any approved project as a condition for receiving funds for the project.

Sec. 35. RCW 47.26.260 and 1994 c 179 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:
The transportation improvement board shall adopt rules providing for the approval of payments of funds in the accounts to a county, city, town, or transportation benefit district for costs of predesign, design, engineering, and costs of construction of an approved project from time to time as work progresses. These payments shall at no time exceed the account share of the costs incurred to the date of the voucher covering such payment.

Sec. 36. RCW 47.26.270 and 1994 c 179 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:
Counties, cities, towns, and transportation benefit districts receiving funds from the board shall provide such matching funds as established by rules adopted by the transportation improvement board. When determining matching requirements, the board shall consider (1) financial resources available to counties and cities to meet arterial needs, (2) the amounts and percentages of funds available for road or street construction traditionally expended by counties and cities on arterials, (3) in the case of counties, the relative needs of arterials lying outside urban areas, and (4) the requirements necessary to avoid diversion of funds traditionally expended for arterial construction to other street or road purposes or to nonhighway purposes.

Sec. 37. RCW 47.26.426 and 1999 c 268 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:
At least one year prior to the date any interest is due and payable on such first authorization bonds, series II, series III bonds, and series IV bonds or before the maturity date of any such bonds, the state finance committee shall estimate, subject to the provisions of RCW 47.26.425, 47.26.4252, and 47.26.4254 the percentage of the receipts in money of the motor vehicle fund, resulting from collection of excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels, for each month of the year which shall be required to meet interest or bond payments hereunder when due, and shall notify the state treasurer of such estimated requirement. The state treasurer, subject to RCW 47.26.425, 47.26.4252, and 47.26.4254, shall thereafter from time to time each month as such funds are paid into the motor vehicle fund, transfer such percentage of the monthly receipts from excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels of the motor vehicle fund to the transportation improvement bond retirement account, maintained in the office of the state treasurer, which fund shall be available for payment of interest or bonds when due. If in any month it shall appear that the estimated percentage of money so made is insufficient to meet the requirements for interest or bond retirement, the treasurer shall notify the state finance committee forthwith and such committee shall adjust its estimates so that all requirements for interest and principal of all bonds issued shall be fully met at all times.

Sec. 38. RCW 47.26.440 and 1994 c 179 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:
Not later than November 1st of each even-numbered year the transportation improvement board shall prepare and present to the commission department for comment and recommendation an adopted budget for expenditures from funds administered by the board during the ensuing biennium. The budget shall contain an estimate of the revenues to be credited to the several accounts and the amount, if any, of bond proceeds which the board determines should be made available through the sale of bonds in the ensuing biennium.

Sec. 39. RCW 47.26.507 and 1999 c 268 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:
Whenever the percentage of the motor vehicle fund arising from excise taxes on motor vehicle and special fuels payable into the transportation improvement bond retirement account, shall prove more than is required for the payment of interest on bonds when due, or current retirement of bonds, any excess may, in the discretion of the state finance committee, be available for the prior redemption of any bonds or remain available in the fund account to reduce the requirements upon the fuel excise tax portion of the motor vehicle fund at the next interest or bond payment period.

Sec. 40. RCW 82.44.150 and 1999 c 94 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The director of licensing shall, on the twenty-fifth day of February, May, August, and November of each year, advise the state treasurer the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes imposed by RCW 82.44.020(1) remitted to the department during the preceding calendar quarter ending on the last day of March, June, September, and December, respectively, except for those payable under RCW 82.44.030, from motor vehicle owners residing within each municipality which has levied a tax under RCW 35.58.273, which amount of excise taxes shall be determined by the director as follows:
The total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes remitted to the department, except those payable under RCW 82.44.020(2) and 82.44.030, from each county shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the population of the municipality or portion thereof, and the denominator of which is the total population of the county in which such municipality or portion thereof is located. The product of this computation shall be the amount of excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing within such municipality or portion thereof. Where the municipality levying a tax under RCW 35.58.273 is located in more than one county, the above computation shall be made by county, and the combined products shall provide the total amount of motor vehicle excise taxes from motor vehicle owners residing in the municipality as a whole. Population figures required for these computations shall be supplied to the director by the office of financial management, who shall adjust the fraction annually.

(2) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer based upon information provided by the department shall, from motor vehicle excise taxes deposited in the transportation fund under RCW 82.44.110, [(make the following deposits:]
   (a) deposit to the high capacity transportation account created in RCW 47.78.010, a sum equal to four and five-tenths percent of the special excise tax levied under RCW 35.58.273 by those municipalities authorized to levy a special excise tax within each county that has a population of one hundred seventy-five thousand or more and has an interstate highway within its borders; except that in a case of a municipality located in a county that has a population of one hundred seventy-five thousand or more that does not have an interstate highway located within its borders, that sum shall be deposited in the passenger ferry account;
   (b) To the public transportation systems account created in RCW 82.44.180; for revenues distributed after June 30, 1999, within a county with a population of one million or more and a county with a population of from two hundred thousand to less than one million bordering a county with a population of one million or more with which it shares a border of more than five miles, a sum equal to 6.8688 percent of the special excise tax distributed under RCW 35.58.273; and
   (c) To the public transportation systems account created in RCW 82.44.180, for revenues distributed after June 30, 1999, within counties not described in (b) of this subsection, a sum equal to 1.0534 percent of the special excise tax levied and collected under RCW 35.58.273).

(3) On the first day of the months of January, April, July, and October of each year, the state treasurer, based upon information provided by the department, shall remit motor vehicle excise tax revenues imposed and collected under RCW 35.58.273 as follows:
   (a) The amount required to be remitted by the state treasurer to the treasurer of any municipality levying the tax shall not exceed in any calendar year the amount of locally-generated tax revenues, excluding (i) the excise tax imposed under RCW 35.58.273 for the purposes of this section, which shall have been budgeted by the municipality to be collected in such calendar year for any public transportation purposes including but not limited to operating costs, capital costs, and debt service on general obligation or revenue bonds issued for these purposes; and (ii) the sales and use tax equalization distributions provided under RCW 82.14.046, and
   (b) In no event may the amount remitted in a single calendar quarter exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during the calendar quarter next preceding the immediately preceding quarter, excluding the sales and use tax equalization distributions provided under RCW 82.14.046.

(4) At the close of each calendar year accounting period, but not later than April 1, each municipality that has received motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (3) of this section shall transmit to the director of licensing and the state auditor a written report showing by source the previous year's budgeted tax revenues for public transportation purposes as compared to actual collections. Any municipality that has not submitted the report by April 1 shall cease to be eligible to receive motor vehicle excise taxes under subsection (3) of this section until the report is received by the director of licensing. If a municipality has received more or less money under subsection (3) of this section for the period covered by the report than it is entitled to receive by reason of its locally-generated collected tax revenues, the director of licensing shall, during the next ensuing quarter that the municipality is eligible to receive motor vehicle excise tax funds, increase or decrease the amount to be remitted in an amount equal to the difference between the locally-generated budgeted tax revenues and the locally-generated collected tax revenues. In no event may the amount remitted for a calendar year exceed the amount collected on behalf of the municipality under RCW 35.58.273 during that same calendar year excluding the sales and use tax equalization distributions provided under RCW 82.14.046. At the time of the next fiscal audit of each municipality, the state auditor shall verify the accuracy of the report submitted and notify the director of licensing of any discrepancies.

(5) The motor vehicle excise taxes imposed under RCW 35.58.273 and required to be remitted under this section and RCW 82.14.046 shall be remitted without legislative appropriation.

(6) Any municipality levying and collecting a tax under RCW 35.58.273 which does not have an operating, public transit system or a contract for public transportation services in effect within one year from the initial effective date of the tax shall return to the state treasurer all motor vehicle excise taxes received under subsection (3) of this section.

Sec. 41. RCW 82.44.180 and 1999 c 402 s 5 and 1999 c 49 s 31 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

((44)) The transportation fund is created in the state treasury. Revenues under RCW 82.44.110 and 82.50.510 shall be deposited into the fund as provided in those sections.

Moneys in the fund may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the fund may be used only for transportation purposes and activities and operations of the Washington state patrol not directly related to the policing of public highways and that are not authorized under Article II, section 40 of the state Constitution:

(a) Planning;
(b) Development of capital projects;
(c) Development of high capacity transportation systems as defined in RCW 81.104.015;
(d) Development of high occupancy vehicle taxes and related facilities as defined in RCW 81.100.020;
(e) Other public transportation system-related roadway projects on state highways, county roads, or city streets;
(f) Public transportation system contributions required to fund projects under federal programs and those approved by the transportation improvement board from other fund sources; and
The legislative transportation accountability program committee is created, consisting of four senators, two from each of the two largest caucuses, and four representatives, two from each of the two largest caucuses, from the legislature. The president of the senate shall appoint the senate members of the committee, and the speaker of the house shall appoint the house members of the committee. Not more than two members from each house may be from the same political party. All members must be appointed before the close of the 2001 session of the legislature and before the close of each regular session during each succeeding odd-numbered year. Members are subject to confirmation, as to the senate members by the senate, and as to the house members by the house.

The term of office of the members of the committee who continue to be members of the senate and house is from the close of the session in which they were appointed or elected as provided in section 42 of this act until the close of the next regular session during an odd-numbered year, or, if the appointments or elections are not made, until the close of the next regular session during an odd-numbered year during which successors are appointed or elected. The terms of office of committee members who do not continue to be members of the senate and house cease upon the convening of the next regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year after their confirmation, election, or appointment. Vacancies on the committee must be filled by interim appointment by the speaker of the house and president of the senate. All such vacancies must be filled from the same political party and from the same house as the member whose seat was vacated.

Upon the commencement of a succeeding regular session of the legislature during an odd-numbered year, those members of the committee who continue to be members of the senate and house, respectively, shall continue as members of the committee as indicated in section 43 of this act and the committee shall continue with all its powers, duties, authorities, records, papers, personnel, and staff, and all funds made available for its use.

The members of the committee shall serve without additional compensation, but will be reimbursed under RCW 44.04.120 while attending sessions of the committee or meetings of any subcommittee of the committee, or on other committee business authorized by the committee.

The committee shall acquire a data processing service capability under the exclusive jurisdiction and control of the legislature acting through the committee and its administrator for the purpose of providing the legislature and its staff with the type of information required for in-depth analysis and monitoring of state transportation activities. The legislative transportation accountability program established in this section may be referred to in this chapter as the LTAP administration.

To carry out section 48 of this act the LTAP administration shall provide for:

1. Automated data bases and application systems in support of legislative requirements to monitor, evaluate, analyze, report, and review;
2. Maintenance of computer software, application programs, data bases, and related documentation;
3. Education, training, and programming services;
4. Procedural documentation support; and
5. Consulting assistance on special projects.

The legislature recognizes that the Blue Ribbon Commission on Transportation issued comprehensive reports on transportation in November of 2000, in which seventeen separate benchmarks to measure performance were outlined. These benchmarks set forth a vision of comprehensive transportation system performance measurements and goals towards which all levels of government and modes of transportation should work. Adoption of these benchmarks is essential to forming the cornerstone of government accountability at the state, city, county, and transit district levels. The legislature intends to adopt these benchmarks, and further intends that they be used to measure results and monitor performance of the state’s transportation system at the state, city, county, and transit district levels. These benchmarks will provide a baseline of transportation performance against which future action can be measured and performance goals set to achieve these benchmarks. The legislature intends that transportation funding be tied to progress in achieving these benchmarks. All modes and facets of the transportation system, both existing and new or proposed systems, are subject, and must work, to ensure that these benchmarks are met at the state, city, county, and transit district levels.

On December 15th of each year, the LTAP committee shall prepare and submit to the house and senate standing committees on transportation and the office of financial management, a comprehensive statewide report on transportation systems at the state, county, city, and transit levels, measuring each system’s performance and progress in achieving the following benchmarks:

1. No interstate highway within the state is in poor condition;
2. No major state route is in poor condition;
3. No local arterial in the state is in poor condition;
4. No bridge in the state is structurally deficient;
5. Traffic congestion on urban interstate highways does not exceed the national mean for national metropolitan areas;
6. Driver delay in metropolitan areas does not exceed the national mean for national metropolitan areas;
7. All bridges within the state have been retrofitted for seismic safety, and are maintained to ensure seismic safety;
8. Per capita vehicle miles traveled does not exceed the total per capita vehicle miles driven in calendar year 2000;
(9) Nonautomobile trips in urban centers are a significant portion of all trips within urban area;
(10) Administrative costs as a percentage of transportation spending are no greater than the national median, and are consistently improved until they are at least within the most efficient quartile nationally;
(11) Public transit agencies achieve the median cost per vehicle revenue hour of peer group transit agencies, after adjustment to reflect regional cost-of-living is made;
(12) The number of traffic accidents on systems throughout the state continues to decline;
(13) Air quality is maintained at federally required levels;
(14) Operations, maintenance, and project delivery costs are continuously improved to incorporate the best and most cost-effective practices available;
(15) There are adequate funding sources to ensure that the transportation system keeps pace with growth in population and economy;
(16) Freight mobility is accommodated within the transportation system; and
(17) Overall hours of travel delay per person in congested corridors are reduced to and maintained at reasonable levels. These benchmarks represent only minimum standards, and while each system need not meet all benchmarks at any given time, each system must consistently work towards achieving, maintaining, and surpassing these benchmarks.

The LTAP may compile data and adopt rules and standards necessary to define and measure these benchmarks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. (1) The LTAP shall serve as a single, independent, statewide point of accountability for reporting, funding, and monitoring the performance of an integrated transportation system. The LTAP has the following functions:
(a) Take responsibility for overseeing the attainment of benchmarks adopted by the Blue Ribbon Commission on Transportation on November 29, 2000;
(b) Report annually to the governor and the legislature on:
(i) Progress toward achieving reform and efficiencies;
(ii) Progress toward accomplishment of the legislature's adopted investment strategies; and
(iii) Policy proposals for furthering progress toward benchmarks and related transportation policies;
(c) Review regional and integrated statewide transportation plans and budgets and advise local and state entities on whether those plans and budgets are consistent with statewide transportation benchmarks; and
(d) Monitor and report the efforts at the state, city, county, and transit district levels on adopting leading edge transportation strategies and achieving transportation benchmarks.

(2) The committee may:

WHEREAS, It is the tradition of the Washington State Senate to recognize the outstanding and much-needed efforts of individuals, groups and organizations that work to protect human rights; and
WHEREAS, March is National Women’s History Month, during which sexual trafficking is recognized as a serious issue for women and human rights advocates around the world; and
WHEREAS, Sexual trafficking is defined as the purchase, sale, recruitment, harboring transportation, transfer or receipt of a person for the purpose of a commercial sex act; and
WHEREAS, Most Americans are unaware that millions of young women and children are trafficked every year into the international sex trade; and
WHEREAS, The UNICEF organization has donated a great deal of time, energy and resources for implementing prevention, protection and rescue efforts of sexual trafficking victims who are often taken to cities or remote areas where their captors take away passports, visas, and identification and control them through threats, abuse and terror; and
WHEREAS, Oprah Winfrey dedicated an entire television show to recognize former President Bill Clinton’s signing of the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act 2000 and the brutal effects of sexual trafficking, since an estimated 45,000-50,000 women and children are trafficked annually to the United States and that sexual trafficking is organized crime’s third largest source of money-surpassed only by drugs and guns-generating $8 billion a year; and
WHEREAS, The Coalition Against Trafficking in Women, in conjunction with the International Human Rights Network, has led and won a decisive battle to influence a strong and inclusive definition of trafficking that is at the core of a new United Nations’ Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children; and
WHEREAS, The organization End Child Prostitution in Asian Tourism has fought hard to stop advertising for and easy access to foreign sex tour since several countries do not acknowledge sexual trafficking as anything more than a legitimate barter of commodities; and
WHEREAS, Concerned Women for America has worked to raise awareness by supporting legislation to enforce the punishment of traffickers and protect the rights of victims; and
WHEREAS, The Miramed Institute works with girls in rural areas and small villages who are at risk of being kidnapped and trafficked and tries to protect girls from suffering intolerable brutalization as workers in sex tourism destinations and brothels around the world; and
WHEREAS, Women’s World magazine has designated an ongoing trafficking resource guide so readers can get information on trafficking, verify legitimate businesses, offer help to girls returning to their countries of origin after escaping, and have information about jobs to be cautious of such as child-care providers, restaurant workers, and maid which are often traps; and
WHEREAS, The Center for Women Policy Studies recommends that efforts to address sexual trafficking focus on criminalizing the activities of traffickers rather than the women and girls who are their victims, many countries deal with prostitutes as criminals and put them in jail as an attempt to control AIDS and STD’s regardless if the girls were kidnapped or forced to be sex slaves; and
WHEREAS, The Center for Women Policy Studies also works to bring awareness to the fact that many victims of sexual trafficking are taken across foreign borders where they do not speak the language, and the victims fear arrest, imprisonment and deportation to their home country – where they likely will be ostracized or punished because of their sexual exploitation; and
WHEREAS, The Sanlaap organization has established shelters to protect, rehabilitate, counsel and reintegrate victims into society; and NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate does hereby recognize and commend the honorable efforts of those organizations that work to put a stop to the sexual trafficking and exploitation of women and children throughout the world; and Senators Costa, Kohl-Welles, Zarelli and Shin spoke to Senate Resolution 2001-8649.

MOTION

Senator Deccio moved that the following resolution be adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 2001-8644

By Senator Deccio

WHEREAS, the Senate adopted permanent rules for the 2001-02 biennium under Senate Resolution 2001-8601; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Senate Rule 35, the Senate has received one day’s notice from Senator Deccio of his intent to move adoption of an amendment to the Senate Rule 29 in the manner set forth below;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Senate Resolution 2001-8601 and Rule 29 of the Permanent Rules of the Senate for the 2001-02 biennium are each amended to read as follows:

“Rule 29. When any senator is about to speak in debate, or submit any matter to the Senate, the senator shall rise, and standing in place, respectfully address the President, and when recognized shall, in a courteous manner, first announce his or her position on the question under debate and then speak to the question under debate, avoiding personalities; provided that a senator may refer to another member using the title “Senator” and the surname of the other member. No senator shall impeach the motives of any other member or speak more than twice (except for explanation) during the consideration of any one question, on the same day or a second time without leave, when others who have not spoken desire the floor, but incidental and subsidiary questions arising during the debate shall not be considered the same question. A majority of the members present may further limit the number of times a member may speak on any question and may limit the length of time a member may speak but, unless a demand for the previous question has been sustained, a member shall not be denied the right to speak at least once on each question, nor shall a member be limited to less than three minutes on each question. In any event, the senator who presents the motion may open and close debate on the question.”

Senators Snyder, Honeyford, T. Sheldon, Morton, McCaslin, Fraser and Roach spoke to Senate Resolution 2001-8644, some in favor of and some against the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Roach: “Senator Deccio, I am wondering--looking at this requirement that we first announce our positions on the question under debate--would your reasoning for requiring this, since we have all mentioned that sometimes it takes us half way through debate to determine our position, would your motivation really be to limit our debate and make things move a little more quickly and make it a little bit more easy for you to sit and be here on the Senate floor?"

Senator Deccio: "I don't know; I haven't decided."

Senators Hargrove, Gardner, Prentice, Johnson, McAuliffe, Snyder, Carlson and Deccio also spoke to Senate Resolution 2001-8644, some for the resolution and some against the resolution.

MOTION TO WITHDRAW RESOLUTION

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Deccio, Senate Resolution 2001-8644 was withdrawn.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY WISHES

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator West: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I really do think this one does apply to me, so it is would be personal. Senator Winsley said it was down hill from here and she is on the side of fifty that she would have evidence of that. I would point out, Sir, that I am still below the median age of the State Senate and I hope to remain there for quite a few years. I would also like to point out that I share this date and time--not the year--but the month and day with Bette Snyder, the wife of the distinguished majority leader. So, we wish her a Happy Birthday on this great and glorious day."

At 10:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 noon, Thursday, March 29, 2001.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Constantine: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would like the President to rule on to whether the amendment is in order with regard to the scope and object of the bill and whether it violates the requirement of a single subject. It is my belief that this amendment is an attempt to repel permanent statutory law within the budget act. It is also outside of the title. In the case the Legislature v. Locke, the Supreme Court made clear that we cannot include permanent substantive law in the budget. The budget, in fact, is limited to appropriations, although there is policy within it, we do not make of repel permanent statutory law. This amendment, in fact, is a bill that is pending before the body and can be hung on the budget. I would appreciate the President's ruling. Thank you, Mr. President."

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. Appropriations made in this act to the department of social and health services shall initially be allotted as required by this act. Subsequent allotment modifications shall not include transfers of moneys between sections of this act except as expressly provided in this act, nor shall allotment modifications permit moneys that are provided solely for a specified purpose to be used for other than that purpose, except as expressly provided in subsection (3) of this section.

2. The department of social and health services shall not initiate any services that will require expenditure of state general fund moneys unless expressly authorized in this act or other law. The department may seek, receive, and spend, under RCW 43.79.260 through 43.79.282, federal moneys not anticipated in this act as long as the federal funding does not require expenditure of state moneys for the program in excess of amounts anticipated in this act. If the department receives unanticipated unrestricted federal moneys, those moneys shall be spent for services authorized in this act or in any other legislation providing appropriation authority, and an equal amount of appropriated state general fund moneys shall lapse. Upon the lapsing of any moneys under this subsection, the office of financial management shall notify the legislative fiscal committees. As used in this subsection, “unrestricted federal moneys” includes block grants and other funds that federal law does not require to be spent on specifically defined projects or matched on a formula basis by state funds.

3. (a) The appropriations to the department of social and health services in this act shall be expended for the programs and in the amounts specified herein. However, after May 1, 2000, unless specifically prohibited by this act, the department may transfer general fund–state appropriations for fiscal year 2000 among programs after approval by the director of financial management. However, the department shall not transfer state moneys that are provided solely for a specified purpose except as expressly provided in subsection (3)(b) of this section.

However, the department shall not transfer state moneys that are provided for a specified purpose except as expressly provided in subsection (3) of this section.

c) To the extent that transfers under subsection (3)(a) of this section are insufficient to fund actual expenditures in excess of fiscal year 2000 caseload forecasts and utilization assumptions in the medical assistance, long-term care, foster care, adoption support, voluntary placement, and child support programs, the department may transfer state moneys that are provided solely for a specified purpose after approval by the director of financial management.

The department shall distribute these additional appropriations among the regional support networks according to each regional support network's capitation rate by eligibility category.

(j) The health services account appropriation is provided solely for implementation of strategies which the department and the affected regional support networks conclude will best assure continued availability of community-based inpatient psychiatric services in all areas of the state. Such strategies may include, but are not limited to, emergency contracts for continued operation of inpatient facilities otherwise at risk of closure because of demonstrated, disproportionate uncompensated care; start-up grants for development of evaluation and treatment facilities; and increases in the rate paid for inpatient psychiatric services for medically indigent and/or general assistance for the unemployed patients. The funds provided in this subsection shall not be considered "available resources" as defined in RCW 71.24.025 and are not subject to the distribution formula established pursuant to RCW 71.24.035.

(b) The mental health program at Western state hospital shall continue to use labor provided by the Tacoma prerelease program of the department of corrections.

(c) The department shall use general fund–local appropriations in this subsection to establish a third-party revenue incentive pool, which shall be used for staff-initiated projects which will increase the quality of care at the state hospitals. (e) By March 1, 2001, the department shall modify the treatment approach on at least two state hospital wards to more cost-effective models of care. The models shall place greater emphasis upon community transition, or upon long-term support, than upon intensive psychiatric rehabilitation for residents for whom such an alternative model of care is determined appropriate by their treatment team. The alternative treatment approaches may include closure of a ward and use of hospital staff to provide transitional community services, in coordination with the regional support networks.

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES--DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES PROGRAM

(1) COMMUNITY SERVICES
General Fund–State Appropriation (FY 2000) $ 185,473,000
General Fund–State Appropriation (FY 2001) $((205,593,000))

General Fund–Federal Appropriation $((325,535,000))

Health Services Account–State Appropriation $ 262,000
Total Appropriation $((716,863,000))

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:
(a) The health services account appropriation and $127,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided solely for health care benefits for home care workers with family incomes below 200 percent of the federal poverty level who are employed through state contracts for twenty hours per week or more. Premium payments for individual provider home care workers shall be made only to the subsidized basic health plan. Home care agencies may obtain coverage either through the basic health plan or through an alternative plan with substantially equivalent benefits.
(b) $3,100,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $4,650,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $8,250,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided solely to increase services and supports for people with developmental disabilities. These funds shall be expended in accordance with priorities established by the stakeholder advisory group established in accordance with chapter 216, Laws of 1998 (developmental disabilities), except that (i) at least 50 percent of these amounts must be used to increase the number of people receiving residential, employment, family support, or other direct services; (ii) the services and supports must be designed and implemented such that the cost of continuing them in the 2001-03 biennium does not exceed $19.2 million, of which no more than $9.3 million is from state funds; and (iii) strong consideration shall be given to the need for increased wages for direct care workers in contracted residential programs.

(d) $1,919,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $6,673,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $7,361,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided solely to improve services for persons with developmental disabilities who would otherwise be at risk of needing involuntary commitment to or prolonged treatment at state psychiatric hospitals. The department shall use these funds to enhance the community crisis response system managed by regional support networks, improve crisis prevention and stabilization services through the developmental disabilities community services system, and expand community residential capacity for persons with developmental disabilities who are ready for discharge from state psychiatric hospitals. Funding for community residential capacity is sufficient to move a biennium total of 48 patients out of the state hospitals at a reasonable pace by June 30, 2001. The department shall manage the intensity of services provided so that the average cost per day does not exceed $300 per person placed in this expanded community residential capacity.

The department shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature progress towards implementing this subsection after each calendar quarter. The legislature finds that, in addition to the appropriations in this subsection for improvements in services to persons with developmental disabilities who are committed to the custody of the secretary under chapter 71.05 RCW, it is necessary to study long-term treatment alternatives and their legal, fiscal, and policy implications. Therefore, the department shall provide a report to the ways and means committee of the senate and the appropriations committee of the house of representatives by December 1, 2000, containing options and recommendations for special treatment programs. The report shall identify various treatment models that could be implemented and various types and locations of secure facilities, both state-owned and leased, in which programs could be sited, together with the department's recommendations. The report shall evaluate the potential for siting such programs on the grounds of existing state residential habilitation centers. The report shall also include analysis of advantages and disadvantages associated with contracting for some or all of the new program options identified. The report shall evaluate the options based on short-term and long-term costs, client and community security, efficiency of coordination with other service delivery systems, and how they address specific legal issues. In developing this report, the department shall invite participation by representatives of the Washington protection and advocacy system (WPAS), and shall include in the report WPAS' position on options and recommendations submitted by the department and any additional recommendations made by WPAS. The legislature recognizes a need to improve long-term services provided to individuals with developmental disabilities who are undergoing involuntary treatment under chapter 71.05 RCW. The legislature is committed to providing resources necessary to address issues in the U.S. District Court case of Allen v. Western State Hospital.

(e) $513,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $1,421,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $2,033,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided to develop and operate secure residential and day program placements for persons who seem likely to pose a significant risk to the public safety if their current residential arrangements were to continue.

(g) $1,978,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2000, $4,475,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001, and $6,989,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided solely to increase compensation for individual and agency home care workers. Payments to individual providers are to be increased from $6.18 per hour to $6.68 per hour on July 1, 1999, and to $7.18 per hour on July 1, 2000. Payments to agency providers are to be increased to $11.97 per hour on July 1, 1999, and to $12.62 per hour on July 1, 2000. All but 14 cents per hour of the July 1, 1999, increase to agency providers, and all but 15 cents per hour of the additional July 1, 2000, increase is to be used to increase wages for direct care workers. The appropriations in this subsection also include the funds needed for the employer share of unemployment and social security taxes on the amount of the increase.

(h) Within amounts appropriated in this subsection, the developmental disabilities program shall contract for a pilot program to test an alternative service delivery model for persons with autism. The department must use a competitive process to determine the site of the pilot. The pilot program must be time-limited and subject to an evaluation of client outcomes to determine the effectiveness and efficiency of the pilot program compared to the standard service model for persons with autism.

(i) $500,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 and $160,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation are provided solely for increased family support services and related case management support.

Valid outcome measures of job retention and wage progression shall be developed and reported quarterly to appropriate fiscal and policy committees of the legislature for families who leave assistance, measured after 12 months, 24 months, and 36 months. An increased attention to job retention and wage progression is necessary to emphasize the legislature's goal that the WorkFirst program succeed in helping recipients gain long-term economic independence and not cycle on and off public assistance. The department shall report annually to the legislature the number of families who have had exit interviews, been reached successfully by phone, and sent mail. The report shall also include the percentage of families who elect to continue each of the benefits and the percentage found ineligible by each substantive reason code. A substantive reason code shall not be "other." The report shall identify barriers to informing families about work support benefits and describe existing and future actions to overcome such barriers.

(c) Provide $500,000 from the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2000 and $500,000 from the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 for continuation of the WorkFirst evaluation conducted by the joint legislative audit and review committee.

The department shall also work with the Washington state association of county clerks to identify ways to protect the confidentiality of social security numbers on court documents needed by the child support enforcement system while ensuring the reliability of this information without significantly increasing the cost to administer the child support system. The department shall report its recommendations for protecting the confidentiality of social security numbers to appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2000.

(e) Provide up to $500,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation to the office of financial management for a study of rate setting methods and policy for subsidized child care, the best method for coordinating and consolidating child care and early education programs currently funded by state government, and for a review of the various state programs for low-income families with children. The child care rate study shall analyze the effects of rate setting policy on the affordability and quality of the overall child care market. The child care and early education program study shall evaluate how current programs may be coordinated and consolidated to provide the most efficient level of administration, grant funding, and increased accessibility by families who are served by these programs. The study of state programs for low-income families shall compare and contrast eligibility and access to these programs and identify ways to coordinate or consolidate these programs to reduce administrative costs and improve access. The office shall submit a report to the department of social and health services and the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2000.

(f) Convene a working group that includes stakeholders and recipients of public assistance to establish basic customer service performance measures and goals. The customer service measures and goals will seek to make support for working families a priority. Each of these reports shall describe the number of current contracts for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) or WorkFirst services that the department has with community social service providers and a description of the services being provided through each of those contracts.

(5) The legislature finds that, since the passage of the federal personal responsibility and work opportunity act in 1997, Washington's public assistance population has declined dramatically, and that the currently appropriated level for the temporary assistance for needy families program is sufficient for the 1999-01 biennium. The legislature further finds that federal funding for the temporary assistance for needy families program may decrease after the current five-year block grant has expired. The legislature declares that at least $60,000,000 of the state appropriation for fiscal year 2000 and $43,386,000 of the general fund--state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 shall be held in reserve by the office of financial management at the close of the 1999-01 biennium.

Upon the lapse of any moneys under this subsection, the office of financial management shall notify the legislative fiscal committees. Sec. 505. 2000 2nd sp.s. c 1 s 507 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR SPECIAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS

General Fund–State Appropriation (FY 2000) $387,011,000
General Fund–State Appropriation (FY 2001) $385,482,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) Funding for special education programs is provided on an excess cost basis, pursuant to RCW 28A.150.390. School districts shall ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that special education students receive their appropriate share of the general apportionment allocation accruing through sections 502 and 504 of this act. To the extent a school district cannot provide an appropriate education for special education students under chapter 28A.155 RCW through the general apportionment allocation, it shall provide services through the special education allocation funded in this section.

(2) Each general fund–state fiscal year appropriation includes such funds as are necessary to complete the school year ending in the fiscal year and for prior fiscal year adjustments.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds to school districts based on two categories: The optional birth through age two program for special education eligible developmentally delayed infants and toddlers, and the mandatory special education program for special education eligible students ages three to twenty-one. A “special education eligible student” means a student receiving specially designed instruction in accordance with a properly formulated individualized education program.

(4) For the 1999-00 and 2000-01 school years, the superintendent shall distribute state funds to each district based on the sum of:

(a) A district's annual average headcount enrollment of developmentally delayed infants and toddlers ages birth through two, multiplied by the district's average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student, multiplied by 1.15; and

(b) A district's annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment multiplied by the funded enrollment percent determined pursuant to subsection (5)(c) of this section, multiplied by the district's average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student multiplied by 0.9309.

(5) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section.

(a) “Annual average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student” for a district shall be based on the staffing ratios required by RCW 28A.150.260 and shall not include enhancements, secondary vocational education, or small schools.

(b) “Annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment” means the resident enrollment including students enrolled through choice (RCW 28A.225.225) and students from nonhigh districts (RCW 28A.225.210) and excluding students residing in another district as part of an interdistrict cooperative program (RCW 28A.225.250).

(c) "Enrollment percent" means the district's resident special education annual average enrollment including those students counted under the special education demonstration projects, excluding the birth through age two enrollment, as a percent of the district's annual average full-time equivalent basic education enrollment. For the 1999-00 and the 2000-01 school years, each district's funded enrollment percent shall be the lesser of the district's actual enrollment percent for the school year for which the allocation is being determined or 12.7 percent.

(6) At the request of any interdistrict cooperative of at least 15 districts in which all excess cost services for special education students of the districts are provided by the cooperative, the maximum enrollment percent shall be 12.7, and shall be calculated in the aggregate rather than individual district units. For purposes of this subsection, the average basic education allocation per full-time equivalent student shall be calculated in the aggregate rather than individual district units.

(7) A maximum of $12,000,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2000 and a maximum of $12,000,000 of the general fund–state appropriation for fiscal year 2001 are provided as safety net funding for districts with demonstrated needs for state special education funding beyond the amounts provided in subsection (4) of this section. Safety net funding shall be awarded by the state safety net oversight committee.

(a) The safety net oversight committee shall first consider the needs of districts adversely affected by the 1995 change in the special education funding formula. Awards shall be based on the amount required to maintain the 1994-95 state special education excess cost allocation to the school district in aggregate or on a dollar per funded student basis.

(b) The committee shall then consider unusual needs of districts due to a special education population which differs significantly from the assumptions of the state funding formula. Awards shall be made to districts that convincingly demonstrate need due to the concentration and/or severity of disabilities in the district. Differences in program costs attributable to district philosophy or service delivery style are not a basis for safety net awards.

(c) The maximum allowable indirect cost for calculating safety net eligibility may not exceed the federal restricted indirect cost rate for the district plus one percent.

(d) Safety net awards shall be adjusted based on the percent of potential medicaid eligible students billed as calculated by the superintendent in accordance with Substitute Senate Bill No. 5626 (medicaid payments to schools).

(e) Safety net awards must be adjusted for any audit findings or exceptions related to special education funding.

(f) The superintendent may expend up to $100,000 per year of the amounts provided in this subsection to provide staff assistance to the committee in analyzing applications for safety net funds received by the committee.

(8) The superintendent of public instruction may adopt such rules and procedures as are necessary to administer the special education funding and safety net award process. Prior to revising any standards, procedures, or rules, the superintendent shall consult with the office of financial management and the fiscal committees of the legislature.

(9) The safety net oversight committee appointed by the superintendent of public instruction shall consist of:

(a) Staff of the office of superintendent of public instruction;

(b) Staff of the office of the state auditor;

(c) Staff of the office of the financial management; and

(d) One or more representatives from school districts or educational service districts knowledgeable of special education programs and funding.

(10) To the extent necessary, $5,500,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation shall be expended for safety net funding to meet the extraordinary needs of one or more individual special education students. If safety net awards to meet the extraordinary needs of one or more individual special education students exceed $5,500,000 of the general fund–federal appropriation appropriation, the superintendent shall expend all available federal discretionary funds necessary to meet this need. General fund--state funds shall not be expended for this purpose.
(11) A maximum of $678,000 may be expended from the general fund--state appropriations to fund 5.43 full-time equivalent teachers and 2.1 full-time equivalent aides at children's orthopedic hospital and medical center. This amount is in lieu of money provided through the home and hospital allocation and the special education program.
(12) A maximum of $1,000,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation is provided for projects to provide special education students with appropriate job and independent living skills, including work experience where possible, to facilitate their successful transition out of the public school system. The funds provided by this subsection shall be from federal discretionary grants.
(13) A school district may carry over from one year to the next year up to 10 percent of general fund--state funds allocated under this program; however, carry over funds shall be expended in the special education program.
(14) The superintendent shall maintain the percentage of federal flow-through to school districts at 85 percent. In addition to other purposes, school districts may use increased federal funds for high-cost students, for purchasing regional special education services from educational service districts, and for staff development activities particularly relating to inclusion issues.
(15) A maximum of $1,200,000 of the general fund--federal appropriation may be expended by the superintendent for projects related to use of inclusion strategies by school districts for provision of special education services. The superintendent shall prepare an information database on laws, best practices, examples of programs, and recommended resources. The information may be disseminated in a variety of ways, including workshops and other staff development activities.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Patterson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On line 1 of the title, after "legislature:"
strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 44.28.060, 44.28.065, 44.40.015, 44.40.040, 44.40.090, 44.40.100, 44.44.030, 44.48.050, 44.48.090, 44.48.120, 44.68.040, and 44.68.050; adding a new section to chapter 44.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 44.28 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 44.40 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 44.44 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 44.48 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 44.68 RCW.”

On motion of Senator Patterson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1391, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Thibaudeau: “Senator Patterson, my question has to do with the amendment that you just discussed, and being a little bit slow this morning, I didn’t respond earlier, but I did vote ‘no’ on the amendment. My concern has to do with a number of amendments to bills that were handled, I believe in the Judiciary Committee, and it required much greater oversight by JLARC. The concern was that agencies were not implementing bills as we passed them. So, I guess my question has to do with how specific is this in terms of what is going to be required of the policy committees following every single solitary rule that gets adopted by our agencies?”

Senator Patterson: “Thank you, Senator Thibaudeau. What this legislation says is that a process will be developed—an oversight process—relating to the budget, relating to contracting procedures, personnel policies, how we pay folks that work for the committees, the compensation plans, how it is we go about hiring the chief administrator for these committees and how the money is spent. These policies—there will be oversight provided related to these policies by the Senate Facility and Operations Committee and the Executive Rules Committee of the House.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Long: “Senator Patterson, how would it affect current administrators—current people who are staffing these positions?” Senator Patterson: “The bill would have no effect whatsoever on the folks that are working for these committees now—any of the policies relating to them as employees. The bill simply attempts to try to coordinate between the House and the Senate what our policy is going to be in the future regarding contracting, hiring and firing and different personnel related rules.”

Senator Long: “I am asking the question because it indicates in the summary the hiring of the chief administrator, so would the current administrators remain or would some of them be changed?”

Senator Patterson: “There has been no discussion about changing anyone’s employment status. There has been absolutely no discussion—”

Senator Long: “This is all prospective?”

Senator Patterson: “That is correct.”

Senator Long: “Thank you.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1391, as amended by the Senate.

Senator Rasmussen; “A personal privilege, Mr. President. I, too, would like to welcome the dairy ambassadors to the Senate. A couple of weeks ago, we had a floor resolution and while not having a chance to read the floor resolution again to the body, I do think that it is appropriate that we give time to honor the dairy industry and also farming in general. I think it is tremendously important to our economy, but more important to a way of life. These young people represent the cream of the crop. They are the young people that will be our future leaders, but more importantly, they will be the foundation and stability for the State of Washington. So, I too, would like to welcome them here and to give them the resolution we read in session a couple of weeks ago, because we were not sure what the stability of this place would be. I know the stability of farming in this state is tremendously important to all of us. I thank you for being here.”

The citizens of the county of Okanagan and their county commissioners have drawn a line in the sand and they have said that beyond this point, we will go no further. So, they are suing—and that is what this is about—they are suing the federal government, the National Marine Fisheries, the United States Forest Service and the outcome of this will determine state’s rights and do we really have the state’s rights of water and its use or do we not? It is a major undertaking for this county, and Mr. President, will have a major impact on the decision from it for the whole of the state. I wanted you to have this information. Thank you, Mr. President."

MOTIONS
ON MOTION OF SENATOR KLINE, THE FOLLOWING COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY STRIKING AMENDMENT WAS ADOPTED:

STRIKE EVERYTHING AFTER THE ENACTING CLAUSE AND INSERT THE FOLLOWING:

“SECTION 1. (1) An appointment as attorney in fact, including appointment as successor or co-attorney in fact, under a power of attorney shall be revoked upon entry of a decree of dissolution or legal separation or declaration of invalidity of the marriage of the principal and the attorney in fact, unless the power of attorney or the decree provides otherwise. The effect of this revocation shall be as if the spouse resigned as attorney in fact, or if named as successor attorney in fact, renounced the appointment, as of the date of entry of the decree or declaration, and the power of attorney shall otherwise remain in effect with respect to appointments of other persons as attorney in fact for the principal or procedures prescribed in the power of attorney to appoint other persons, and any terms relating to service by persons as attorney in fact.

(2) This section applies to all decrees of dissolution and declarations of invalidity of marriage entered after the effective date of this act.

SECTION 2. RCW 11.94.040 and 1985 c 30 s 28 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person acting without negligence and in good faith in reasonable reliance on a power of attorney shall not incur any liability (hereinafter).

(2) If the attorney in fact presents the power of attorney to a third person and requests the person to accept the attorney in fact’s authority to act for the principal, and also presents to the person an acknowledged affidavit or declaration signed under penalty of perjury in the form designated in RCW 9A 72.085, signed and dated contemporaneously with presenting the power of attorney, which meets the requirements of subsection (3) of this section, and the person accepting the power of attorney has examined the power of attorney and confirmed the identity of the attorney in fact, then the person’s reliance on the power of attorney is presumed to be without negligence and in good faith in reasonable reliance, which presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence that the person accepting the power of attorney knew or should have known that one or more of the material statements in the affidavit is untrue. It shall not be found that an organization knew or should have known of circumstances that would revoke or terminate the power of attorney or limit or modify the authority of the attorney in fact, unless the individual accepting the power of attorney on behalf of the organization knew or should have known of the circumstances.

(3) An affidavit presented pursuant to subsection (2) of this section shall state that:

(a) The person presenting himself or herself as the attorney in fact and signing the affidavit or declaration is the person so named in the power of attorney;

(b) If the attorney in fact is named in the power of attorney as a successor attorney in fact, the circumstances or conditions stated in the power of attorney that would cause that person to become the acting attorney in fact have occurred;

(c) To the best of the attorney in fact’s knowledge, the principal is still alive;

(d) To the best of the attorney in fact’s knowledge, at the time the power of attorney was signed, the principal was competent to execute the document and was not under undue influence to sign the document;

(e) All events necessary to making the power of attorney effective have occurred;

(f) The attorney in fact does not have actual knowledge of the revocation, termination, limitation, or modification of the power of attorney or of the attorney in fact’s authority;

(g) The attorney in fact does not have actual knowledge of the existence of other circumstances that would limit, modify, revoke, or terminate the power of attorney or the attorney in fact’s authority to take the proposed action;

(h) If the attorney in fact was married to the principal at the time of execution of the power of attorney, then at the time of signing the affidavit or declaration, the marriage of the principal and the attorney in fact has not been dissolved or declared invalid; and

(i) The attorney in fact is acting in good faith pursuant to the authority given under the power of attorney.

(4) Unless the document contains a time limit, the length of time which has elapsed from its date of execution shall not be a basis for any reasonably relying on the document.

(5) Unless the document contains a requirement that it be filed for record to be effective, a person (shall) may place reasonable reliance on it regardless of whether it is so filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A person designated in section 4 of this act may file a petition requesting that the court:

(a) Determine whether the power of attorney is in effect or has terminated;

(b) Compel the attorney in fact to submit the attorney in fact’s accounts or report the attorney in fact’s acts as attorney in fact to the principal, the spouse of the principal, the guardian of the person or the estate of the principal, or to any other person required by the court in its discretion, if the attorney in fact has failed to submit an accounting or report within sixty days after written request from the person filing the petition, however, a government agency charged with the protection of vulnerable adults may file a petition upon the attorney in fact’s refusal or failure to submit an accounting upon written request and shall not be required to wait sixty days;

(c) Ruthify past acts or approve proposed acts of the attorney in fact;

(d) Order the attorney in fact to exercise or refrain from exercising authority in a particular manner or for a particular purpose;

(e) Modify the authority of an attorney in fact under a power of attorney;

(f) Remove the attorney in fact on a determination by the court of both of the following:

(i) The attorney in fact has violated or is unfit to perform the fiduciary duties under the power of attorney; and

(ii) The removal of the attorney in fact is in the best interest of the principal;

(g) Approve the resignation of the attorney in fact and approve the final accounting of the resigning attorney in fact if submitted, subject to any orders the court determines are necessary to protect the principal’s interests;

(h) Confirm the authority of a successor attorney in fact to act under a power of attorney upon removal or resignation of the previous attorney in fact;
(i) compel a third person to honor the authority of an attorney in fact, provided that a third person may not be compelled to honor the agent’s authority if the principal could not compel the third person to act in the same circumstances;

(j) order the attorney in fact to furnish a bond in an amount the court determines to be appropriate.

(2) The petition shall contain a statement identifying the principal’s known immediate family members, and any other persons known to petitioner to be interested in the principal’s welfare or the principal’s estate, stating which of said persons have an interest in the action requested in the petition and explaining the determination of who is interested in the petition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A petition may be filed under section 3 of this act by any of the following persons:
(a) the attorney in fact;
(b) the principal;
(c) the spouse of the principal;
(d) the guardian of the estate or person of the principal; or
(e) any other interested person, as long as the person demonstrates to the court’s satisfaction that the person is interested in the welfare of the principal and has a good faith belief that the court’s intervention is necessary, and that the principal is incapacitated at the time of filing the petition or otherwise unable to protect his or her own interests.

(2) Notwithstanding section 1 of this act, the principal may specify in the power of attorney by name certain persons who shall have no authority to bring a petition under section 3 of this act with respect to the power of attorney. This provision is enforceable:
(a) if the person so named is not at the time of filing the petition the guardian of the principal;
(b) if at the time of signing the power of attorney the principal was represented by an attorney who advised the principal regarding the power of attorney and who signed a certificate at the time of execution of the power of attorney stating that the attorney has advised the principal concerning his or her rights, the applicable law, and the effect and consequences of executing the power of attorney; or
(c) if (A) and (B) of this subsection do not apply, unless the person so named can establish that the principal was unduly influenced by another or under mistaken beliefs when excluding the person from the petition process, or unless the person named is a government agency charged with protection of vulnerable adults.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In ruling on a petition filed under section 3 of this act and ordering any relief, the court must consider the best interests of the principal and will order relief that is the least restrictive to the exercise of the power of attorney while still adequate in the court’s view to serve the principal’s best interests. Upon entry of an order ruling on a petition, the court’s oversight of the attorney in fact’s actions and of the operation of the power of attorney ends unless another petition is filed under this chapter or unless the order specifies further court involvement that is necessary for a resolution of the issues raised in the petition.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. In any proceeding commenced by the filing of a petition under section 3 of this act by a person other than the attorney in fact, the court may in its discretion award costs, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, to any person participating in the proceedings from any other person participating in the proceedings, or from the assets of the principal, as the court determines to be equitable. In determining what is equitable in making the award, the court must consider whether the petition was filed without reasonable cause, and order costs and fees paid by the attorney in fact individually only if the court determines that the attorney in fact has clearly violated his or her fiduciary duties or has refused without justification to cooperate with the principal or the principal’s guardian or personal representative. In a proceeding to compel a third party to accept a power of attorney, the court may order costs, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, to be paid by the third party only if the court determines that the third party did not have a good faith concern that the attorney in fact’s exercise of authority would be improper. To the extent this section is inconsistent with RCW 11.96A.150, this section controls the award of costs and attorneys’ fees in proceedings brought under section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The provisions of chapter 11.96A RCW, except for RCW 11.96A.260 through 11.96A.320, are applicable to proceedings commenced by the filing of a petition under section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The following persons are entitled to notice of hearing on any petition under section 3 of this act:
(a) the principal;
(b) the principal’s spouse;
(c) the attorney in fact;
(d) the guardian of the estate or person of the principal;
(e) any other person identified in the petition as being interested in the action requested in the petition, or identified by the court as having a right to notice of the hearing. If a person would be excluded from bringing a petition under section 4(2) of this act, then that person is not entitled to notice of the hearing.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if the whereabouts of the principal are unknown or the principal is otherwise unavailable to receive notice, the court may waive the requirement of notice to the principal, and if the principal’s spouse is similarly unavailable to receive notice, the court may waive the requirement of notice to the principal’s spouse.

(3) Notice must be given as required under chapter 11.96A RCW, except that the parties entitled to notice shall be determined under this section.

Sec. 9. RCW 11.96A.040 and 1999 c 42 s 201 are each amended to read as follows:

(4) The subject matter jurisdiction of the superior court applies without regard to venue. A proceeding or action by or before a superior court is not defective or invalid because of the selected venue if the court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action.

Sec. 10. RCW 11.96A.050 and 1999 c 42 s 202 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Venue for proceedings pertaining to trusts shall be:

(2) Venue for proceedings subject to chapter 11.88 or 11.92 RCW shall be determined under the provisions of those chapters.

(3) Venue for proceedings pertaining to the probate of wills, the administration and disposition of a decedent’s property, including nonprobate assets, and any other matter not identified in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, may be in any county in the state of Washington. A party to a proceeding may request that venue be changed if the request is made within four months of the mailing of the notice of appointment and pendency of probate required by RCW 11.28.237, and except for good cause shown, venue must be moved as follows:

(a) If the decedent was a resident of the state of Washington at the time of death, to the county of the decedent’s residence; or

(b) If the decedent was not a resident of the state of Washington at the time of death, to any of the following:

(i) Any county in which any part of the probate estate might be;

(ii) Any county where any nonprobate asset might be;

(iii) The county in which the decedent died.

(4) Letters testamentary or of administration have been granted in the state of Washington, all orders, settlements, trials, and other proceedings under this title shall be had or made in the county in which such letters have been granted unless venue is moved as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) Venue for proceedings pertaining to powers of attorney shall be in the superior court of the county of the principal’s residence, except for good cause shown.

(6) If venue is moved, an action taken before venue is changed is not invalid because of the venue.

(7) Any request to change venue that is made more than four months after the commencement of the action may be granted in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 11. RCW 11.96A.120 and 1999 c 42 s 305 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section is intended to adopt the common law concept of virtual representation. This section supplements the common law relating to the doctrine of virtual representation and shall not be construed as limiting the application of that common law doctrine.

(a) Any notice requirement in this title is satisfied if notice is given as follows:

(i) Where an interest in an estate, trust, or nonprobate asset or an interest that may be affected by a power of attorney has been given to persons who comprise a certain class upon the happening of a certain event, notice may be given to the living persons who would constitute the class if the event had happened immediately before the commencement of the proceeding requiring notice, and the persons shall virtually represent all other members of the class;

(ii) Where an interest in an estate, trust, or nonprobate asset or an interest that may be affected by a power of attorney has been given to a living person, and the same interest, or a share in it, is to pass to the surviving spouse or to persons who are, or might be, the distributees, heirs, issue, or other kindred of that living person upon the happening of a future event, notice may be given to that living person, and the living person shall virtually represent the surviving spouse, distributees, heirs, issue, or other kindred of the person; and

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, where an interest in an estate, trust, or nonprobate asset or an interest that may be affected by a power of attorney has been given to a person or a class of persons, or both, upon the happening of a future event, and the same interest or a share of the interest is to pass to another person or class of persons, or both, upon the happening of an additional future event, notice may be given to the living person or persons who would take the interest upon the happening of the first event, and the living person or persons shall virtually represent the persons and classes of persons who might take on the happening of the additional future event.

(2) A party is not virtually represented by a person receiving notice if a conflict of interest involving the matter is known to exist between the notified person and the party.

(3) An action taken by the court is conclusive and binding upon each person receiving actual or constructive notice or who is otherwise virtually represented.

Sec. 12. RCW 11.94.050 and 1989 c 87 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Although a designated attorney in fact or agent has all powers of absolute ownership of the principal, or the document has language to indicate that the attorney in fact or agent shall have all the powers the principal would have if alive and competent, the attorney in fact or agent shall not have the power to make, amend, alter, or revoke the principal’s wills or codicils, and shall not have the power, unless specifically provided otherwise in the document: To
MAKE, AMEND, ALTER, OR REVOKE ANY OF THE PRINCIPAL’S (((WILLS, CODICILS))) LIFE INSURANCE, ANNUITY, OR SIMILAR CONTRACT BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS, EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS, TRUST AGREEMENTS, REGISTRATION OF THE PRINCIPAL’S SECURITIES IN BENEFICIARY FORM, PAYABLE ON DEATH OR TRANSFER ON DEATH BENEFICIARY DESIGNATIONS, DESIGNATION OF PERSONS AS JOINT TENANTS WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP WITH THE PRINCIPAL WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE PRINCIPAL’S PROPERTY, COMMUNITY PROPERTY AGREEMENTS, OR ANY OTHER PROVISIONS FOR NONPROBATE TRANSFER AT DEATH CONTAINED IN NONTESTAMENTARY INSTRUMENTS DESCRIBED IN RCW 11.02.091; TO MAKE ANY GIFTS OF PROPERTY OWNED BY THE PRINCIPAL; TO MAKE TRANSFERS OF PROPERTY TO ANY TRUST (WHETHER OR NOT CREATED BY THE PRINCIPAL) UNLESS THE TRUST BENEFITS THE PRINCIPAL ALONE AND DOES NOT HAVE DISPOSITIVE PROVISIONS WHICH ARE DIFFERENT FROM THOSE WHICH WOULD HAVE GOVERNED THE PROPERTY HAD IT NOT BEEN TRANSFERRED INTO THE TRUST, OR TO DISCLAIM PROPERTY.

(2) Nothing in this section prohibits an attorney in fact or agent from making any transfer of resources not prohibited under chapter 74.09 RCW when the transfer is for the purpose of qualifying the principal for medical assistance or the limited casualty program for the medically needy.

NEW SECTION, SEC. 13. Sections 1 and 3 through 8 of this act are each added to chapter 11.94 RCW.”

(3) AT THE HEARING, IF THE COURT FINDS BY A PREPONDERANCE OF THE EVIDENCE THAT UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT EXISTS, A CIVIL ANTIHARASSMENT PROTECTION ORDER SHALL ISSUE PROHIBITING SUCH UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT.

(4) AN ORDER ISSUED UNDER THIS CHAPTER SHALL BE EFFECTIVE FOR NOT MORE THAN ONE YEAR UNLESS THE COURT FINDS THAT THE RESPONDENT IS LIKELY TO RESUME UNLAWFUL HARASSMENT OF THE PETITIONER WHEN THE ORDER EXPIRES. IF SO, THE COURT MAY ENTER AN ORDER FOR A FIXED TIME EXCEEDING ONE YEAR OR MAY ENTER A PERMANENT ANTIHARASSMENT PROTECTION ORDER. THE COURT SHALL NOT ENTER AN ORDER THAT IS EFFECTIVE FOR MORE THAN ONE YEAR IF THE ORDER RESTRAINS THE RESPONDENT FROM CONTACTING THE RESPONDENT’S MINOR CHILDREN. THIS LIMITATION IS NOT APPLICABLE TO CIVIL ANTIHARASSMENT PROTECTION ORDERS ISSUED UNDER CHAPTER 26.09, 26.10, OR 26.26 RCW. IF THE PETITIONER SEeks RELIEF FOR A PERIOD LONGER THAN ONE YEAR ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENT’S MINOR CHILDREN, THE COURT SHALL ADVISE THE PETITIONER THAT THE PETITIONER MAY APPLY FOR RENEWAL OF THE ORDER AS PROVIDED IN THIS CHAPTER OR IF APPROPRIATE MAY SEEK RELIEF PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 26.09 OR 26.10 RCW.

(8) THE COURT ORDER SHALL SPECIFY THE DATE AN ORDER ISSUED PURSUANT TO SUBSECTIONS (4) AND (5) OF THIS SECTION EXPIRES IF ANY. THE COURT ORDER SHALL ALSO STATE WHETHER THE COURT ISSUED THE PROTECTION ORDER FOLLOWING PERSONAL SERVICE OR SERVICE BY PUBLICATION AND WHETHER THE COURT HAS APPROVED SERVICE BY PUBLICATION OF AN ORDER ISSUED UNDER THIS SECTION.

Sec. 2. RCW 10.14.100 and 1992 c 143 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ANY ORDER ISSUED UNDER THIS CHAPTER SHALL BE PERSONALLY SERVED UPON THE RESPONDENT, EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTIONS (5) AND (7) OF THIS SECTION.

(2) THE SHERIFF OF THE COUNTY OR THE PEACE OFFICERS OF THE MUNICIPALITY IN WHICH THE RESPONDENT RESIDES SHALL SERVE THE RESPONDENT PERSONALLY UNLESS THE PETITIONER ELECTS TO HAVE THE RESPONDENT SERVED BY A PRIVATE PARTY.

(3) IF THE SHERIFF OR MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICER CANNOT COMPLETE SERVICE UPON THE RESPONDENT WITHIN TEN DAYS, THE SHERIFF OR MUNICIPAL PEACE OFFICER SHALL NOTIFY THE PETITIONER.

(4) RETURNS OF SERVICE UNDER THIS CHAPTER SHALL BE MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE APPLICABLE COURT RULES.

(5) IF AN ORDER ENTERED BY THE COURT RECITES THAT THE RESPONDENT APPEARED IN PERSON BEFORE THE COURT, THE NEECESSITY FOR FURTHER SERVICE IS WAIVED AND PROOF OF SERVICE OF THAT ORDER IS NOT NECESSARY. THE COURT'S ORDR ENTERED AFTER A HEARING NEED NOT BE SERVED ON A RESPONDENT WHO FAILS TO APPEAR BEFORE THE COURT. IF MATERIAL TERMS OF THE ORDER HAVE NOT CHANGED FROM THOSE CONTAINED IN THE TEMPORARY ORDER, AND IT IS SHOWN TO THE COURT'S SATISFACTION THAT THE RESPONDENT HAS PREVIOUSLY BEEN PERSONALLY SERVED WITH THE TEMPORARY ORDER.

(6) EXCEPT IN CASES WHERE THE PETITIONER IS GRANTED LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS, MUNICIPAL POLICE DEPARTMENTS SERVING DOCUMENTS AS REQUIRED UNDER THIS CHAPTER MAY COLLECT THE SAME FEES FOR SERVICE AND MILEAGE AUTHORIZED BY RCW 36.18.040 TO BE COLLECTED BY SHERIFFS.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 42.30.110 and 1989 c 238 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed to prevent a governing body from holding an executive session during a regular or special meeting:

(a) To consider matters affecting national security;
(b) To consider the selection of a site or the acquisition of real estate by lease or purchase when public knowledge regarding such consideration would cause a likelihood of increased price;
(c) To consider the minimum price at which real estate will be offered for sale or lease when public knowledge regarding such consideration would cause a likelihood of decreased price. However, final action selling or leasing public property shall be taken in a meeting open to the public;
(d) To review negotiations on the performance of publicly bid contracts when public knowledge regarding such consideration would cause a likelihood of increased costs;
(e) To consider, in the case of an export trading company, financial and commercial information supplied by private persons to the export trading company;
(f) To receive and evaluate complaints or charges brought against a public officer or employee. However, upon the request of such officer or employee, a public hearing or a meeting open to the public shall be conducted upon such complaint or charge;
(g) To evaluate the qualifications of an applicant for public employment or to review the performance of a public employee. However, subject to RCW 42.30.140(4), discussion by a governing body of salaries, wages, and other conditions of employment to be generally applied within the agency shall occur in a meeting open to the public, and when a governing body elects to take final action hiring, setting the salary of an individual employee or class of employees, or discharging or disciplines an employee, that action shall be taken in a meeting open to the public;
(h) To evaluate the qualifications of a candidate for appointment to elective office. However, any interview of such candidate and final action appointing a candidate to elective office shall be in a meeting open to the public;
(i) To discuss with legal counsel representing the agency matters relating to agency enforcement actions, or to discuss with legal counsel representing the agency litigation or potential litigation to which the agency, the governing body, or a member acting in an official capacity is, or is likely to become, a party, when public knowledge regarding the discussion is likely to result in an adverse legal or financial consequence to the agency;

This subsection (1)(i) does not permit a governing body to hold an executive session solely because an attorney representing the agency is present. For purposes of this subsection (1)(i), “potential litigation” means matters protected by RPC 1.6 or RCW 5.50.060(3)(a) concerning:

(A) Litigation that has been specifically threatened to which the agency, the governing body, or a member acting in an official capacity is, or is likely to become, a party;
(B) Litigation that the agency reasonably believes may be commenced by or against the agency, the governing body, or a member acting in an official capacity; or
(C) Litigation or legal risks of a proposed action or current practice that the agency has identified when public discussion of the litigation or legal risks is likely to result in an adverse legal or financial consequence to the agency;

(j) To consider, in the case of the state library commission or its advisory bodies, western library network prices, products, equipment, and services, when such discussion would be likely to adversely affect the network's ability to conduct business in a competitive economic climate. However, final action on these matters shall be taken in a meeting open to the public;
(k) To consider, in the case of the state investment board, financial and commercial information when the information relates to the investment of public trust or retirement funds and when public knowledge regarding the discussion would result in loss to such funds or in private loss to the providers of this information.

(2) Before convening in executive session, the presiding officer of a governing body shall publicly announce the purpose for excluding the public from the meeting place, and the time when the executive session will be concluded. The executive session may be extended to a stated later time by announcement of the presiding officer.

(1) The department of transportation may grant franchises to persons, associations, private or municipal corporations, the United States government, or any agency thereof, to use any state highway for the construction and maintenance of water pipes, flume, gas, oil or coal pipes, telephone, telegraph and electric light and power lines and conduits, trams or railways, and any structures or facilities (such) that are part of an urban public transportation system owned or operated by a municipal corporation, agency, or department of the state of Washington other than the department of transportation, and any other such facilities. In order to minimize the disruption of traffic and damage to the roadway, the department is encouraged to develop a joint trenching policy with other affected jurisdictions so that all permittees and franchisees requiring access to ground under the roadway may do so at one time.

(2) All applications for (such) the franchise (shall) must be made in writing and subscribed by the applicant, and (shall) describe the state highway or portion thereof over which franchise is desired and the nature of the franchise. The application must also include the identification of all jurisdictions affected by the franchise and the names of other possible franchisees who should receive notice of the application for a franchise.

(3) The department of transportation shall advance costs providing for a hearing or an opportunity for a hearing with reasonable public notice thereof with respect to any franchise application involving the construction and maintenance of utilities or other facilities within the highway right of way which the department determines may (such) during construction, significantly disrupt the flow of traffic or use of driveways or other facilities within the right of way, or (such) during or following construction, cause a significant and adverse effect upon the surrounding environment.

Sec. 6. RCW 47.44.020 and 1980 c 28 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the department of transportation deems it to be for the public interest, the franchise may be granted in whole or in part, with or without hearing under such regulations and conditions as the department may prescribe, with or without compensation, but not in excess of the reasonable cost for investigating, handling, and granting the franchise. The department may require that the utility and appurtenances be so placed on the highway that they will, in its opinion, least interfere with other uses of the highway.

(2) If a hearing is held, it (shall) must be conducted by the department, and may be adjourned from time to time until completed. The applicant may be required to produce all facts pertaining to the franchise, and evidence may be taken for good cause against granting it.

(3) The facility (shall) must be made subject to removal when necessary for the construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of the highway and at the expense of the franchise holder, except that the state shall pay the cost of (such) the removal whenever the state (shall be) entitled to receive proportionate reimbursement therefor from the United States in the cases and in the manner set forth in RCW 47.44.030. Renewal upon expiration of a franchise (shall) must be by application.

(4) A person constructing or operating such a utility on a state highway is liable to any person injured thereby for any damages incident to the work of installation or the continuation of the occupancy of the highway by the utility, and except as provided above, is liable to the state for all necessary expenses incurred in restoring the highway to a permanent suitable condition for travel. A person constructing or operating such a utility on a state highway is also liable to the state for all necessary expenses incurred in inspecting the construction and restoring the pavement or other related transportation equipment or facilities to a permanent condition suitable for travel and operation in accordance with requirements set by the department. Permit and franchise holders are also financially responsible to the department for trenching work not completed within the contractual period and for compensating for the loss of useful pavement life caused by trenching. No franchise may be granted for a longer period than fifty years, and no exclusive franchise (shall) or privilege may be granted.

(5) The holder of a franchise granted under this section is financially responsible to the department for trenching work not completed within the period of the permit and for compensating for the loss of useful pavement life caused by trenching. In the case of common trenching operations, liability under this subsection will be assessed equally between the franchisees. The assessed parties may thereafter pursue claims of contribution or indemnity in accord with such fault as may be determined by arbitration or other legal action.

Sec. 7. RCW 47.44.050 and 1984 c 7 s 237 are each amended to read as follows:

(c) The department (may) may grant a permit to construct or maintain on, over, across, or along any state highway any water, gas, telephone, telegraph, light, power, or other such facilities when they do not extend along the state highway for a distance greater than three hundred feet. The department may require such information as it deems necessary in the application for any such permit, and may grant or withhold the permit within its discretion.
Any permit granted may be canceled at any time, and any facilities remaining upon the right of way of the state highway after thirty days written notice of the cancellation (section 47.52.020) are an unlawful obstruction and may be removed in the manner provided by law.

2. The holder of a permit granted under this section is financially responsible to the department for trenching work not completed within the period of the permit and for compensating for the loss of useful pavement life caused by trenching. In the case of common trenching operations, liability under this subsection will be assessed equally between the permit holders. The assessed parties may thereafter pursue claims of contribution or indemnity in accord with such fault as may be determined by arbitration or other legal action.

Sec. 8. RCW 47.24.020 and 1993 C 126 S 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The jurisdiction, control, and duty of the state and city or town with respect to such streets (section 47.52.020) is as follows:

(1) The department has no authority to change or establish any grade of any such street without approval of the governing body of such city or town, except with respect to limited access facilities established by the commission;

(2) The city or town shall exercise full responsibility for and control over any such street beyond the curbs and if no curb is installed, beyond that portion of the highway used for highway purposes. However, within incorporated cities and towns the title to a state limited access highway vests in the state, and, notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the department shall exercise full jurisdiction, responsibility, and control to and over such facility as provided in chapter 47.52 RCW;

(3) The department has authority to prohibit the suspension of signs, banners, or decorations above the portion of such street between the curbs or portion used for highway purposes up to a vertical height of twenty feet above the surface of the roadway;

(4) The city or town shall at its own expense maintain all underground facilities in such streets, and has the right to construct such additional underground facilities as may be necessary in such streets. However, pavement trenching and restoration performed as part of installation of such facilities must meet or exceed requirements established by the department;

(5) The city or town has the right to grant the privilege to open the surface of any such street, but all damage occasioned thereby shall promptly be repaired either by the city or town itself or at its direction. Pavement trenching and restoration performed under a privilege granted by the city under this subsection must meet or exceed requirements established by the department;

(6) The city or town at its own expense shall provide street illumination and shall clean all such streets, including the gutter, sewer inlets and catch basins, and remove all snow, except that the state shall when necessary plow the snow on the roadway. In cities and towns having a population of twenty-two thousand five hundred or less according to the latest determination of population by the office of financial management, the state, when necessary for public safety, shall assume, at its expense, responsibility for the stability of the slopes of cuts and fills and the embankments within the right of way to protect the roadway itself. When the population of a city or town first exceeds twenty-two thousand five hundred according to the determination of population by the office of financial management, the city or town shall have three years from the date of the determination to plan for additional staffing, budgetary, and equipment requirements before being required to assume the responsibilities under this subsection. The state shall install, maintain, and operate all illuminating facilities on any limited access facility, together with its interchanges, located within the corporate limits of any city or town, and shall assume and pay the costs of all such installation, maintenance, and operation incurred after November 1, 1954;

(7) The department has the right to use all storm sewers on such highways without cost; and if new storm sewer facilities are necessary in construction of new streets by the department, the cost of the facilities shall be borne by the state and/or city as may be mutually agreed upon between the department and the governing body of the city or town;

(8) Cities and towns have exclusive right to grant franchises not in conflict with state laws and rules, over, beneath, and upon such streets, but the department is authorized to enforce in an action brought in the name of the state any condition of any franchise which a city or town has granted on such street. No franchise for transportation of passengers in motor vehicles may be granted on such streets without the approval of the department, but the department shall not refuse to approve such franchise unless another street conveniently located and of strength of construction to sustain travel of such vehicles is accessible;

(9) Every franchise or permit granted any person by a city or town for use of any portion of such street by a public utility (section 47.52.020) must require the grantee or permittee to restore, repair, and replace (section 47.52.020) any portion of the street damaged or injured by it to conditions that meet or exceed requirements established by the department;

(10) The city or town has the right to issue overload or overweight permits for vehicles to operate on such streets or roads subject to regulations printed and distributed to the cities and towns by the department;

(11) Cities and towns shall regulate and enforce all traffic and parking restrictions on such streets, but all regulations adopted by a city or town relating to speed, parking, and traffic control devices on such streets not identical to state law relating thereto are subject to the approval of the department before becoming effective. All regulations pertaining to speed, parking, and traffic control devices relating to such streets heretofore adopted by a city or town not identical with state laws shall become null and void unless approved by the department heretofore or within one year after March 21, 1963;

(12) The department shall erect, control, and maintain at state expense all route markers and directional signs, except street signs, on such streets;

(13) The department shall install, operate, maintain, and control at state expense all traffic control signals, signs, and traffic control devices for the purpose of regulating both pedestrian and motor vehicular traffic on, entering upon, or leaving state highways in cities and towns having a population of twenty-two thousand five hundred or less according to the latest determination of population by the office of financial management. Such cities and towns may submit to the department a plan for traffic control signals, signs, and traffic control devices desired by

(14) All revenue from parking meters placed on such streets belongs to the city or town;

(15) Rights of way for such streets shall be acquired by either the city or town or by the state as shall be mutually agreed upon. Costs of acquiring rights of way may be at the sole expense of the state or at the expense of the city or town or at the expense of the state and the city or town as may be mutually agreed upon. Title to all such rights of way so acquired shall vest in the city or town: PROVIDED, That no vacation, sale, rental, or any other nontransportation use of any unused portion of any such street may be made by the city or town without the prior written approval of the department; and all revenue derived from sale, vacation, rental, or any nontransportation use of such rights of way shall be shared by the city or town and the state in the same proportion as the purchase costs were shared;

(16) If any city or town fails to perform any of its obligations as set forth in this section or in any cooperative agreement entered into with the department for the maintenance of a city or town street forming part of the route of a state highway, the department may notify the mayor of the city or town to perform the necessary maintenance within thirty days. If the city or town within the thirty days fails to perform the maintenance or fails to authorize the department to perform the maintenance as provided by RCW 47.24.050, the department may perform the maintenance, the cost of which is to be deducted from any sums in the motor vehicle fund credited or to be credited to the city or town.

SECOND READING

Substitute House Bill No. 1680, by House Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Representatives Fisher, Mitchell and Poulsen) (by request of The Blue Ribbon Commission on Transportation)

Extending design-build for public works.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION
ON MOTION OF SENATOR GARDNER, THE FOLLOWING COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION STRIKING AMENDMENT WAS ADOPTED:

STRIKE EVERYTHING AFTER THE ENACTING CLAUSE AND INSERT THE FOLLOWING:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that a contracting procedure that facilitates construction of transportation facilities in a more timely manner may occasionally be necessary to ensure that construction can proceed simultaneously with the design of the facility. The legislature further finds that the design-build process and other alternative project delivery concepts achieve the goals of time savings and avoidance of costly change orders.

The legislature finds and declares that a 2001 audit, conducted by Talbot, Korvola & Warwick, examining the Washington State ferries’ capital program resulted in a recommendation for improvements and changes in auto ferry procurement processes. The auditors recommended that auto ferries be procured through use of a modified request for proposals process whereby the prevailing shipbuilder and Washington State ferries engage in a design and build partnership. This process promotes ownership of the design by the shipbuilder while using the department of transportation’s expertise in ferry design and operations. Alternative processes like design-build partnerships can promote innovation and create competitive incentives that increase the likelihood of finishing projects on time and within the budget.

The purpose of this act is to authorize the department’s use of a modified request for proposals process for procurement of auto ferries, and to prescribe appropriate requirements and criteria to ensure that contracting procedures for this procurement process serve the public interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 47.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department of transportation shall develop a process for awarding competitively bid highway construction contracts for projects over ten million dollars that may be constructed using a design-build procedure. As used in this section and section 3 of this act, “design-build procedure” means a method of contracting under which the department of transportation contracts with another party for the party to both design and build the structures, facilities, and other items specified in the contract.

The process developed by the department must, at a minimum, include the scope of services required under the design-build procedure, contractor prequalification requirements, criteria for evaluating technical information and project costs, contractor selection criteria, and issue resolution procedures. In addition, the department should provide methods by which public employees may participate in the design-build process. This section expires April 30, 2008.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 47.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department of transportation may use the design-build procedure for public works projects over ten million dollars where:

1. The construction activities are highly specialized and a design-build approach is critical in developing the construction methodology; or
2. The projects selected provide opportunity for greater innovation and efficiencies between the designer and the builder; or
3. Significant savings in project delivery time would be realized.

This section expires April 30, 2008.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

The department may purchase new auto ferries through use of a modified request for proposals process whereby the prevailing shipbuilder and the department engage in a design and build partnership for the design and construction of the auto ferries. The process consists of the three phases described in subsection (2) of this section.

2. The definitions in this subsection apply throughout sections 5 through 10 of this act.

(a) “Phase one” means the evaluation and selection of proposers to participate in development of technical proposals in phase two.

(b) “Phase two” means the preparation of technical proposals by the selected proposers in consultation with the department.

(c) “Phase three” means the submittal and evaluation of bids, the award of the contract to the successful proposer, and the design and construction of the auto ferries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

To commence the request for proposals process, the department shall publish a notice of its intent once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in at least one trade paper and one other paper, both of general circulation in the state. The notice must contain, but is not limited to, the following information:

1. The number of auto ferries to be procured, the auto and passenger capacities, the delivery dates, and the estimated price range for the contract;
2. A statement that a modified request for proposals design and build partnership will be used in the procurement process;
3. A short summary of the requirements for prequalification of proposers including a statement that prequalification is a prerequisite to submission of a proposal in phase one; and
4. An address and telephone number that may be used to obtain a prequalification questionnaire and the request for proposals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

Subject to legislative appropriation for the procurement of vessels, the department shall issue a request for proposals to interested parties that must include, at least, the following:

1. Solicitation of a proposal to participate in a design and build partnership with the department to design and construct the auto ferries;
2. Instructions on the prequalification process and procedures;
A description of the modified request for proposals process. Under this process, the department may modify any component of the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, by addendum at any time before the submittal of bids in phase three;

A description of the design and build partnership process to be used for procurement of the vessels;

Outline specifications that provide the requirements for the vessels including, but not limited to, items such as length, beam, displacement, speed, propulsion requirements, capacities for autos and passengers, passenger space characteristics, and crew size. The department will produce notional line drawings depicting hull geometry that will interface with Washington state ferries terminal facilities. Notional lines may be modified in phase two, subject to approval by the department;

Instructions for the development of technical proposals in phase two, and information regarding confidentiality of technical proposals;

The vessel delivery schedule, identification of the port on Puget Sound where delivery must take place, and the location where acceptance trials must be held;

The estimated price range for the contract;

The form and amount of the required bid deposit and contract security;

A copy of the contract that will be signed by the successful proposer;

The date by which proposals in phase one must be received by the department in order to be considered;

A description of information to be submitted in the proposals in phase one concerning each proposer’s qualifications, capabilities, and experience;

A statement of the maximum number of proposers that may be selected in phase one for development of technical proposals in phase two;

Criteria that will be used for the phase one selection of proposers to participate in the phase two development of technical proposals;

A description of the process that will be used for the phase three submittal and evaluation of bids, award of the contract, and postaward administrative activities;

A requirement that the contractor comply with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations including but not limited to those pertaining to the environment, worker health and safety, and prevailing wages;

A requirement that the vessels be constructed within the boundaries of the state of Washington except that equipment furnished by the state and components, products, and systems that are standard manufactured items are not subject to the in-state requirement under this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection, “constructed” means the fabrication, by the joining together by welding or fastening of all steel parts from which the total vessel is constructed, including, but not limited to, all shell frames, longitudinals, bulkheads, webs, piping runs, wire ways, and ducting. “Constructed” also means the installation of all components and systems, including, but not limited to, equipment and machinery, castings, electrical, electronics, deck covering, lining, paint, and joiner work required by the contract. “Constructed” also means the interconnection of all equipment, machinery, and services, such as piping, wiring, and ducting; and

A requirement that all warranty work on the vessel must be performed within the boundaries of the state of Washington insofar as practical.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

PHASE ONE OF THE REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS PROCESS CONSISTS OF EVALUATION AND SELECTION OF PREQUALIFIED PROPOSERS TO PARTICIPATE IN SUBSEQUENT DEVELOPMENT OF TECHNICAL PROPOSALS IN PHASE TWO, AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The department shall issue a request for proposals to interested parties.

(2) The request for proposals must require that each proposer prequalify for the contract under chapter 468-310 WAC, except that the department may adopt rules for the financial prequalification of proposers for this specific contract only. The department shall modify the financial prequalification rules in chapter 468-310 WAC in order to maximize competition among financially capable and otherwise qualified proposers. In adopting these rules, the department shall consider factors including, without limitation: (A) Shipyard resources in Washington state; (B) the cost to design and construct multiple vessels under a single contract without options; and (C) the sequenced delivery schedule for the vessels.

(3) The department may use some, or all, of the nonfinancial prequalification factors as part of the evaluation factors in phase one to enable the department to select a limited number of best qualified proposers to participate in development of technical proposals in phase two.

(4) The department shall evaluate submitted proposals in accordance with the selection criteria established in the request for proposals. Selection criteria may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Shipyard facilities;

(b) Organization components;

(c) Design capability;

(d) Build strategy;

(e) Experience and past performance;

(f) Ability to meet vessel delivery dates;

(g) Projected workload; and

(h) Expertise of project team and other key personnel.

(5) Upon concluding its evaluation of proposals, the department shall select the best qualified proposers in accordance with the request for proposals. The selected proposers must participate in development of technical proposals. Selection must be made in accordance with the selection criteria stated in the request for proposals. All proposers must be ranked in order of preference as derived from the same selection criteria.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

PHASE TWO OF THE REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS PROCESS CONSISTS OF PREPARATION OF TECHNICAL PROPOSALS IN CONSULTATION WITH THE DEPARTMENT, AS FOLLOWS:
(1) The development of technical proposals in compliance with the detailed instructions provided in the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, and any addenda to them. Technical proposals must include the following:

(a) Design and specifications sufficient to fully depict the ferries’ characteristics and identify installed equipment;
(b) Drawings showing arrangements of equipment and details necessary for the proposer to develop a firm, fixed price bid;
(c) Project schedule including vessel delivery dates; and
(d) Other appropriate items.

(2) The department shall conduct periodic reviews with each of the selected proposers to consider and critique their designs, drawings, and specifications. These reviews must be held to ensure that technical proposals meet the department’s requirements and are responsive to the critiques conducted by the department during the development of technical proposals.

(3) If, as a result of the periodic technical reviews or otherwise, the department determines that it is in the best interests of the department to modify any element of the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, it shall do so by written addenda to the request for proposals.

(4) Proposers must submit final technical proposals for approval that include design, drawings, and specifications at a sufficient level of detail to fully depict the ferries’ characteristics and identify installed equipment, and to enable a proposer to deliver a firm, fixed price bid to the department. The department shall reject final technical proposals that modify, fail to conform to, or are not fully responsive to and in compliance with the requirements of the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, as amended by addenda.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

Phase three consists of the submittal and evaluation of bids and the award of the contract to the successful proposer. After the final design and construction of the auto ferries, as follows:

(1) The department shall request bids for detailed design and construction of the vessels after completion of the review of technical proposals in phase two. The department will review detailed design drawings in phase three for conformity with the technical proposals submitted in phase two. In no case may the department’s review replace the builder’s responsibility to deliver a product meeting the phase two technical proposal. The department may only consider bids from selected proposers that have qualified to bid by submitting technical proposals that have been approved by the department.

Each qualified proposer must submit its total bid price for all vessels, including certification that the bid is based upon its approved technical proposal and the request for proposals.

(3) Bids constitute an offer and remain open for ninety days from the date of the bid opening. A deposit in cash, certified check, cashier’s check, or surety bond in an amount specified in the request for proposals must accompany each bid and no bid may be considered unless the deposit is enclosed.

(4) The department shall evaluate the submitted bids. Upon completing the bid evaluation, the department may select the responsive and responsible proposer that offers the lowest total bid price for all vessels.

(5) The department may waive informalities in the proposal and bid process, accept a bid from the lowest responsive and responsible proposer, reject any or all bids, republish, and revise or cancel the request for proposals to serve the best interests of the department.

(6) The department may:

(a) Award the contract to the proposer that has been selected as the responsive and responsible proposer that has submitted the lowest total bid price;
(b) If a contract cannot be signed with the apparent successful proposer, award the contract to the next lowest responsive and responsible proposer; or
(c) If necessary, repeat this procedure with each responsive and responsible proposer in order of rank until the list of those proposers has been exhausted.

(7) If the department awards a contract to a proposer under this section, and the proposer fails to enter into the contract and furnish satisfactory contract security as required by chapter 39.08 RCW within twenty days from the date of award, its deposit is forfeited to the state and will be deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the Puget Sound capital construction account. Upon the execution of a ferry design and construction contract all proposal deposits will be returned.

The department may provide an honorarium to reimburse each unsuccessful phase three proposer for a portion of its technical proposal preparation costs at a preset, fixed amount to be specified in the request for proposals. If the department rejects all bids, the department may provide the honoraria to all phase three proposers that submitted bids.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall immediately notify those proposers that are not selected to participate in development of technical proposals in phase one and those proposers who submit unsuccessful bids in phase three.

(2) If the department’s decision is conclusive unless an aggrieved proposer files an appeal with the superior court of Thurston County within five days after receiving notice of the department’s award decision. The court shall hear any such appeal on the department’s administrative record for the project. The court may affirm the decision of the department, or it may reverse or remand the administrative decision if it determines the action of the department was arbitrary and capricious."

SENATOR HORN moved that the following striking amendment by SENATORS HAUGEN, HORN and BENTON be adopted:

SEC. 1. RCW 47.05.010 and 1993 c 490 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

THE LEGISLATURE FINDS THAT SOLUTIONS TO STATE HIGHWAY DEFICIENCIES HAVE BECOME INCREASINGLY COMPLEX AND DIVERSE AND THAT ANTICIPATED TRANSPORTATION REVENUES WILL FALL SUBSTANTIALLY SHORT OF THE AMOUNT REQUIRED TO SATISFY ALL TRANSPORTATION NEEDS. DIFFICULT INVESTMENT TRADE-OFFS WILL BE REQUIRED.

IT IS THE INTENT OF THE LEGISLATURE THAT INVESTMENT OF STATE TRANSPORTATION FUNDS TO ADDRESS DEFICIENCIES ON THE STATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM BE BASED ON A POLICY OF PRIORITY PROGRAMMING HAVING AS ITS BASIS THE RATIONAL SELECTION OF PROJECTS AND SERVICES ACCORDING TO FACTUAL NEED AND AN EVALUATION OF LIFE CYCLE COSTS AND BENEFITS WHICH ARE SYSTEMATICALLY SCHEDULED TO CARRY OUT DEFINED OBJECTIVES WITHIN AVAILABLE REVENUE. THE STATE MUST DEVELOP ANALYTIC TOOLS TO USE A COMMON METHODOLOGY FOR THE IDENTIFICATION OF INVESTMENT PRIORITIES AND WHERE APPROPRIATE, ESTIMATES OF THE COSTS AND BENEFITS FOR ALL MODES OF TRANSPORTATION.

THE PRIORITY PROGRAMMING SYSTEM (SHALL) MUST ENSURE PRESERVATION OF THE EXISTING STATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM, RELIEVE CONGESTION, PROVIDE MOBILITY FOR PEOPLE AND GOODS, SUPPORT THE STATE'S ECONOMY, AND PROMOTE ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AND ENERGY CONSERVATION.

THE PRIORITY PROGRAMMING SYSTEM (SHALL) MUST IMPLEMENT THE STATE-OWNED HIGHWAY COMPONENT OF THE STATEWIDE (MULTIMODAL) TRANSPORTATION PLAN, CONSISTENT WITH LOCAL AND REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION PLANS, BY TARGETING STATE TRANSPORTATION INVESTMENT TO APPROPRIATE MULTIMODAL SOLUTIONS (WHICH) THAT ADDRESS IDENTIFIED STATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM DEFICIENCIES.

THE PRIORITY PROGRAMMING SYSTEM FOR IMPROVEMENTS (SHALL) MUST INCORPORATE A BROAD RANGE OF SOLUTIONS THAT ARE IDENTIFIED IN THE STATEWIDE (MULTIMODAL) TRANSPORTATION PLAN AS APPROPRIATE TO ADDRESS STATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM DEFICIENCIES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO HIGHWAY EXPANSION, EFFICIENCY IMPROVEMENTS, NONMOTORIZED TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES, HIGH OCCUPANCY VEHICLE FACILITIES, TRANSIT FACILITIES AND SERVICES, RAIL FACILITIES AND SERVICES, AND TRANSPORTATION DEMAND MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS.

SEC. 2. RCW 47.05.030 and 1998 c 171 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The preservation program (Shall) consists of those investments necessary to preserve the existing state highway system and to restore existing safety features, giving consideration to lowest life cycle costing. The preservation program must require use of the most cost-effective pavement surfaces, considering:

(A) LIFE CYCLE COST ANALYSIS;
(B) TRAFFIC VOLUME;
(C) SUBGRADE SOIL CONDITIONS;
(D) ENVIRONMENTAL AND WEATHER CONDITIONS;
(E) MATERIALS AVAILABLE; AND
(F) CONSTRUCTION FACTORS.

The comprehensive six-year investment program for preservation (Shall) must identify projects for two years and an investment plan for the remaining four years.

2. The improvement program (Shall) consists of investments needed to address identified deficiencies on the state highway system to increase mobility, address congestion, and improve safety, support for the economy, and protection of the environment. The six-year investment program for improvements (Shall) must identify projects for two years and major deficiencies proposed to be addressed in the six-year period giving consideration to relative benefits and life cycle costing. The transportation commission shall give higher priority for correcting identified deficiencies on those facilities classified as facilities of statewide significance as defined in RCW 47.06.140.

The transportation commission shall approve and present the comprehensive six-year investment program to the legislature in support of the biennial budget request under RCW 44.40.070 and 44.40.080.

SEC. 3. RCW 47.05.035 and 1993 c 490 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The transportation commission shall develop and use transportation demand modeling tools to evaluate investments based on the best mode or improvement, or mix of modes and improvements, to meet current and future long-term demand within a corridor or system for the lowest cost. The end result of these demand modeling tools is to provide a cost-benefit analysis by which the commission can determine the relative mobility improvement and congestion relief each mode or improvement under consideration will provide and the relative investment each mode or improvement under consideration will need to achieve that relief. In developing program objectives and performance measures, the transportation commission shall evaluate investment trade-offs between the preservation and improvement programs. In making these investment trade-offs, the commission shall evaluate, using cost-benefit techniques,
ROADWAY AND BRIDGE MAINTENANCE ACTIVITIES AS COMPARED TO ROADWAY AND BRIDGE PRESERVATION PROGRAM ACTIVITIES AND ADJUST THOSE PROGRAMS ACCORDINGLY.

THE COMMISSION SHALL ALLOCATE THE ESTIMATED REVENUE BETWEEN PRESERVATION AND IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMS GIVING PRIMARY CONSIDERATION TO THE FOLLOWING FACTORS:

(1) THE RELATIVE NEEDS IN EACH OF THE PROGRAMS AND THE SYSTEM PERFORMANCE LEVELS THAT CAN BE ACHIEVED BY MEETING THESE NEEDS;
(2) THE NEED TO PROVIDE ADEQUATE FUNDING FOR PRESERVATION TO PROTECT THE STATE'S INVESTMENT IN ITS EXISTING HIGHWAY SYSTEM;
(3) THE CONTINUITY OF FUTURE TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT WITH THOSE IMPROVEMENTS PREVIOUSLY PROGRAMMED; AND
(4) THE AVAILABILITY OF DEDICATED FUNDS FOR A SPECIFIC TYPE OF WORK.

SEC. 4. RCW 47.05.051 AND 1998 c 175 s 12 ARE EACH AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
The comprehensive six-year investment program shall be based upon the needs identified in the state-owned highway component of the statewide multimodal transportation plan as defined in RCW 47.01.071(3) and priority selection systems that incorporate the following criteria:

(1) PRIORITY PROGRAMMING FOR THE PRESERVATION PROGRAM SHALL TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE FOLLOWING, NOT NECESSARILY IN ORDER OF IMPORTANCE:
(A) EXTENDING THE SERVICE LIFE OF THE PRESENT HIGHWAY SYSTEM, INCLUDING USING THE MOST COST-EFFECTIVE PAVEMENT SURFACES, CONSIDERING:
   (i) LIFE CYCLE COST ANALYSIS;
   (ii) TRAFFIC VOLUME;
   (iii) SUBGRADE SOIL CONDITIONS;
   (iv) ENVIRONMENTAL AND WEATHER CONDITIONS;
   (v) MATERIALS AVAILABLE; AND
   (vi) CONSTRUCTION FACTORS;
(B) ENSURING THE STRUCTURAL ABILITY TO CARRY LOADS IMPOSED UPON HIGHWAYS AND BRIDGES; AND
(C) MINIMIZING LIFE CYCLE COSTS. THE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION IN CARRYING OUT THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION MAY DELEGATE TO THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION THE AUTHORITY TO SELECT PRESERVATION PROJECTS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE SIX-YEAR PROGRAM.

(2) PRIORITY PROGRAMMING FOR THE IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM SHALL TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE FOLLOWING:
(A) SUPPORT FOR THE STATE'S ECONOMY, INCLUDING JOB CREATION AND JOB PRESERVATION;
(B) THE COST-EFFECTIVE MOVEMENT OF PEOPLE AND GOODS;
(C) ACCIDENT AND ACCIDENT RISK REDUCTION;
(D) PROTECTION OF THE STATE'S NATURAL ENVIRONMENT;
(E) CONTINUITY AND SYSTEMATIC DEVELOPMENT OF THE HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION NETWORK;
(F) CONSISTENCY WITH LOCAL COMPREHENSIVE PLANS DEVELOPED UNDER CHAPTER 36.70A RCW;
(G) CONSISTENCY WITH REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION PLANS DEVELOPED UNDER CHAPTER 47.80 RCW;
(H) PUBLIC VIEWS CONCERNING PROPOSED IMPROVEMENTS;
(I) THE CONSERVATION OF ENERGY RESOURCES;
(J) FEASIBILITY OF FINANCING THE FULL PROPOSED IMPROVEMENT;
(K) COMMITMENTS ESTABLISHED IN PREVIOUS LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS;
(L) RELATIVE COSTS AND BENEFITS OF CANDIDATE PROGRAMS;
(M) MAJOR PROJECTS ADDRESSING CAPACITY DEFICIENCIES WHICH PRIORITIZE ALLOWING FOR PRELIMINARY ENGINEERING SHALL BE REPRIORITIZED DURING THE SUCCEEDING BIENNIAL, BASED UPON UPDATED PROJECT DATA. REPRIORITIZED PROJECTS MAY BE DELAYED OR CANCELED BY THE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION IF HIGHER PRIORITY PROJECTS ARE AWAITING FUNDING.
(N) MAJOR PROJECT APPROVALS WHICH SIGNIFICANTLY INCREASE A PROJECT'S SCOPE OR COST FROM ORIGINAL PRIORITIZATION ESTIMATES SHALL INCLUDE A REVIEW OF THE PROJECT'S ESTIMATED REVISED PRIORITY RANK AND THE LEVEL OF FUNDING PROVIDED. PROJECTS MAY BE DELAYED OR CANCELED BY THE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION IF HIGHER PRIORITY PROJECTS ARE AWAITING FUNDING.

(3) THE COMMISSION MAY DEPART FROM THE PRIORITY PROGRAMMING ESTABLISHED UNDER SUBSECTIONS (1) AND (2) OF THIS SECTION: (A) TO THE EXTENT THAT OTHERWISE FUNDS CANNOT BE UTILIZED FEASIBLY WITHIN THE PROGRAM; (B) AS MAY BE REQUIRED BY A COURT JUDGMENT, LEGALLY BINDING AGREEMENT, OR STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS AND REGULATIONS; (C) AS MAY BE REQUIRED TO COORDINATE WITH FEDERAL, LOCAL, OR OTHER STATE AGENCY CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS; (D) TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SOME SUBSTANTIAL FINANCIAL BENEFIT THAT MAY BE AVAILABLE; (E) FOR CONTINUITY OF ROUTE DEVELOPMENT; OR (F) BECAUSE OF CHANGED FINANCIAL OR PHYSICAL CONDITIONS OF AN UNFORESEEN OR EMERGENT NATURE. THE COMMISSION OR SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION SHALL MAINTAIN IN ITS FILES INFORMATION SUFFICIENT TO SHOW THE EXTENT TO WHICH THE COMMISSION HAS DEPARTED FROM THE ESTABLISHED PRIORITY.

(4) THE COMMISSION SHALL IDENTIFY THOSE PROJECTS THAT YIELD FREIGHT MOBILITY BENEFITS OR THAT ALLEVIATE THE IMPACTS OF FREIGHT MOBILITY UPON AFFECTED COMMUNITIES.

SEC. 5. RCW 47.06.130 AND 1993 c 446 s 13 ARE EACH AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) THE DEPARTMENT MAY CARRY OUT SPECIAL TRANSPORTATION PLANNING STUDIES TO RESOLVE SPECIFIC ISSUES WITH THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE STATE TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM OR OTHER STATEWIDE TRANSPORTATION ISSUES.

(2) THE DEPARTMENT SHALL CONDUCT MULTIMODAL CORRIDOR ANALYSES ON MAJOR CONGESTED CORRIDORS. ANALYSIS WILL INCLUDE THE COST-EFFECTIVENESS OF ALL FEASIBLE STRATEGIES IN ADDRESSING CONGESTION OR IMPROVING MOBILITY WITHIN THE CORRIDOR, AND MUST RECOMMEND THE MOST EFFECTIVE STRATEGY OR MIX OF STRATEGIES TO ADDRESS IDENTIFIED DEFICIENCIES. A LONG-TERM VIEW OF CORRIDORS SHALL BE EMPLOYED TO DETERMINE WHETHER AN EXISTING CORRIDOR SHOULD BE EXPANDED, A CITY OR COUNTY ROAD SHOULD BECOME A STATE ROUTE, AND WHETHER A NEW CORRIDOR IS NEEDED TO ALLEVIATE CONGESTION AND ENHANCE MOBILITY BASED ON TRAVEL DEMAND. TO THE EXTENT PRACTICABLE, FULL COSTS OF ALL STRATEGIES MUST BE REFLECTED IN THE ANALYSIS. AT A MINIMUM, THIS ANALYSIS SHALL INCLUDE:
(a) The current and projected future demand for total person trips on that corridor;
(b) The impact of making no improvements to that corridor;
(c) The daily cost per added person served for each mode or improvement proposed to meet demand;
(d) The cost per hour of travel time saved per day for each mode or improvement proposed to meet demand; and
(e) How much of the current and anticipated future demand will be met and left unmet for each mode or improvement proposed to meet demand.

The end result of this analysis will be to provide a cost-benefit analysis by which lawmakers can determine the most cost-effective improvement or mode, or mix of improvements and modes, for increasing mobility and reducing congestion.

New section, Sec. 6. This act takes effect July 1, 2001.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Haugen, the following amendments by Senators Haugen, Horn, Hargrove and Benton to the striking amendment by Senators Haugen, Horn and Benton were considered simultaneously and were adopted:
- On page 2, after line 19 of the amendment, strike all material through "appropriate." on line 21
- On page 3, line 15 of the amendment, after "47.06.140," insert "Project prioritization must be based primarily upon cost-benefit analysis, where appropriate."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Haugen, Horn and Benton, as amended, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5749.

The motion by Senator Horn carried and the striking amendment, as amended, was adopted.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5749 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Excused: Senator Brown - 1.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5749, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

Senate Bill No. 5765, by Senators Prentice, Swecker, Shin, Oke, Parlette, Horn, Haugen and McDonald (by request of the Blue Ribbon Commission on Transportation)

Streamlining the environmental permit process for transportation projects.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Prentice, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5765 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5765 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Prentice, the following striking amendment by Senators Prentice and Swecker was adopted:
- Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
  "New section, Sec. 1. Legislative intent and findings. The legislature finds that the public health and safety of its citizens, natural resources, and the environment are vital interests of the state that need to be protected and preserved. The legislature further finds that the safety of the traveling public and the state's..."
ECONOMIC WELL-BEING ARE VITAL INTERESTS THAT DEPEND UPON THE DEVELOPMENT OF COST-EFFECTIVE AND EFFICIENT TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS PLANNED, DESIGNED, CONSTRUCTED, AND MAINTAINED THROUGH EXPEDITED PERMIT DECISION-MAKING PROCESSES.

IT IS THE INTENT OF THE LEGISLATURE TO ACHIEVE TRANSPORTATION PERMIT REFORM TO EXPEDITE THE DELIVERY OF STATEWIDE SIGNIFICANT TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS THROUGH A STREAMLINED APPROACH TO ENVIRONMENTAL PERMIT DECISION MAKING WHILE IMPROVING ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS THROUGH A WATERSHED-BASED APPROACH TO AQUATIC AND NATURAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT. IN ORDER TO OPTIMIZE THE LIMITED RESOURCES AVAILABLE FOR TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM IMPROVEMENTS AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION, STATE REGULATORY AND NATURAL RESOURCE AGENCIES, PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTOR INTERESTS, INDIAN TRIBES, AND THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION MUST WORK COOPERATIVELY TO ESTABLISH COMMON GOALS, MINIMIZE PROJECT DELAYS, DEVELOP CONSISTENCY IN THE APPLICATION OF ENVIRONMENTAL STANDARDS, MAXIMIZE ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS THROUGH COORDINATED INVESTMENT STRATEGIES, AND ELIMINATE DUPLICATIVE PROCESSES THROUGH DELEGATION OF SELECTED PERMIT DRAFTING AND COMPLIANCE ACTIVITIES BETWEEN STATE AND FEDERAL AGENCIES.

THEREFORE, THE TRANSPORTATION PERMIT EFFICIENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY COMMITTEE IS CREATED. THE COMMITTEE MUST CONDUCT THREE ENVIRONMENTAL PERMIT STREAMLINING PILOT PROGRAMS. THE COMMITTEE MUST ALSO IDENTIFY AND DEVELOP GENERAL PERMITS AND A PROGRAMMATIC CONSULTATION PROCESS. FINALY, THE COMMITTEE MUST EXPLORE OTHER PERMIT STREAMLINING OPPORTUNITIES BY DESIGNATING TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS OF STATEWIDE SIGNIFICANCE AND SELECTED DELEGATION OF PERMIT AUTHORITY.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. THE DEFINITIONS IN THIS SECTION APPLY THROUGHOUT THIS CHAPTER UNLESS THE CONTEXT CLEARLY REQUIRES OTHERWISE.

(1) "BEST AVAILABLE INFORMATION" MEANS THE EXISTING SOURCES OF DATA, INCLUDING LIMITING FACTORS ANALYSES REQUIRED UNDER CHAPTER 77.85 RCW THAT CAN BE USED TO MAKE INFORMED DECISIONS REGARDING ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS WITHIN A WATERSHED.

(2) "BEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICES" MEANS CURRENTLY AVAILABLE AND GENERALLY ACCEPTED TECHNIQUES, INCLUDING NEW TECHNOLOGIES, OR STRATEGIES THAT SEEK TO REDUCE THE NEGATIVE IMPACTS OF TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES, PROJECTS, AND SERVICES ON COMMUNITIES AND THE ENVIRONMENT, AND PROMOTE MORE EFFICIENT AND EFFECTIVE USE OF TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES. EXAMPLES INCLUDE TRANSPORTATION DEMAND MANAGEMENT, TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS MANAGEMENT, AND COMPENSATORY MITIGATION.

(3) "COMMITTEE" MEANS THE TRANSPORTATION PERMIT EFFICIENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY COMMITTEE CREATED IN SECTION 3 OF THIS ACT.

(4) "GENERAL PERMIT" MEANS A PERMIT THAT COVERS A GEOGRAPHIC AREA AND APPLIES TO A PROJECT ACTIVITY. A GENERAL PERMIT ALLOWS ACTIONS TO PROCEED WITHOUT INDIVIDUAL REVIEW BY EACH PERMIT DECISION-MAKING AGENCY.

(5) "LARGER-IMPACTING PROJECTS" MEANS PROJECTS THAT ARE LIKELY TO AFFECT A SPECIES OR ITS HABITAT AND MUST BE EXAMINED FOR WAYS TO MITIGATE OR REDUCE THE IMPACT TO AVOID HARM.

(6) "LEAST COST PLANNING" MEANS THE USE OF BEST AVAILABLE INFORMATION WITHIN A WATERSHED BASIN APPLIED TO TRANSPORTATION DECISION MAKING IN THE PLANNING, PERMIT DECISION MAKING, AND MITIGATION PHASES OF A PROJECT.

(7) "LOW-IMPACT DEVELOPMENT PROJECT" MEANS AN ACTIVITY OR SERIES OF ACTIONS THAT CONFORM TO A COMPREHENSIVE LAND-USE PLANNING AND ENGINEERING DESIGN APPROACH WITH A GOAL OF MAINTAINING OR RESTORING EXISTING NATURAL HABITAT FUNCTIONS AND HYDROLOGIC REGIME OF URBAN AND DEVELOPING WATERSHEDS. THESE PROJECTS INCORPORATE STRATEGIC WATERSHED PLANNING WITH SITE-SPECIFIC MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES TO REDUCE DEVELOPMENT IMPACTS TO BETTER REPLICATE NATURAL WATERSHED HYDROLOGY AND WATER QUALITY, WHILE ALLOWING FOR DEVELOPMENT OR INFRASTRUCTURE REHABILITATION TO OCCUR.

(8) "ONE-STOP PERMIT DECISION MAKING" MEANS A COORDINATED PERMIT DECISION-MAKING PROCESS THAT STREAMLINES ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW AND PERMIT DECISION MAKING FOR TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS BY PROVIDING CONCURRENT, CONSOLIDATED REVIEW BY EACH AGENCY REQUIRED TO REVIEW THE PROJECT.

(9) "PROGRAMMATIC AGREEMENT" MEANS A REGULATORY INSTRUMENT THAT OUTLINES PERMIT CONDITIONS AND OBLIGATIONS UNDER WHICH A VARIETY OF IDENTIFIED PROJECT ACTIVITIES FOR AN AGENCY PROGRAM OR OTHER ACTIONS MAY BE CONDUCTED WITHIN A WATERSHED OR OTHER GEOGRAPHICALLY DEFINED TERRITORY, WITHOUT THE Necessity OF OBTAINING INDIVIDUAL PERMITS.

(10) "TRANSPORTATION PROJECT OF STATEWIDE SIGNIFICANCE" MEANS A SURFACE TRANSPORTATION PROJECT OR COMBINATION OF SURFACE TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS, THAT CROSSES MULTIPLE CITY OR COUNTY JURISDICTIONAL BOUNDARIES OR CONNECTS MAJOR STATE DESTINATIONS IN SUPPORT OF THE STATE'S ECONOMY AND IS SO DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND APPROVED BY THE TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. THE TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES MAY ALSO DESIGNATE SUCH PROJECTS. THE PILOT PROJECTS ESTABLISHED IN SECTION 4 OF THIS ACT ARE EXAMPLES OF TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS OF STATEWIDE SIGNIFICANCE, BUT TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS OF STATEWIDE SIGNIFICANCE ARE NOT LIMITED TO THE PILOT PROJECTS.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. TRANSPORTATION PERMIT EFFICIENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY COMMITTEE--CREATED. THE TRANSPORTATION PERMIT EFFICIENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY COMMITTEE IS CREATED.

(1) THE COMMITTEE WILL CONSIST OF FIFTEEN VOTING MEMBERS, INCLUDING TWO MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FROM EACH OF THE TWO LARGEST CAUCUSES AND TWO MEMBERS OF THE SENATE FROM EACH OF THE TWO LARGEST CAUCUSES; ONE MEMBER DESIGNATED BY THE SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION; ONE MEMBER DESIGNATED BY THE DIRECTOR OF FISH AND WILDLIFE; ONE MEMBER DESIGNATED BY THE DIRECTOR OF ECOLOGY; ONE MEMBER DESIGNATED BY THE STATE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC LANDS; ONE MEMBER DESIGNATED BY THE NORTHWEST INDIAN FISHERIES COMMISSION; ONE MEMBER DESIGNATED BY THE COLUMBIA RIVER INTERTRIBAL FISHERIES COMMISSION; TWO MEMBERS APPOINTED BY THE STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION OR ITS SUCCESSOR AGENCY, UPON CONSULTATION WITH THE ASSOCIATION OF WASHINGTON CITIES AND THE WASHINGTON ASSOCIATION OF COUNTIES, TO REPRESENT LOCAL GOVERNMENT INTERESTS; ONE MEMBER APPOINTED BY THE STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION OR ITS SUCCESSOR AGENCY, UPON CONSULTATION WITH THE CONSULTING ENGINEERS COUNCIL OF WASHINGTON, THE ASSOCIATED GENERAL CONTRACTORS OF WASHINGTON, AND THE WASHINGTON CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY COUNCIL, TO REPRESENT THE CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY; ONE MEMBER APPOINTED BY THE STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION OR ITS SUCCESSOR AGENCY, UPON CONSULTATION WITH STATEWIDE ENVIRONMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS, TO REPRESENT ENVIRONMENTAL INTERESTS; AND ONE MEMBER APPOINTED BY THE STATE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION OR ITS SUCCESSOR AGENCY, UPON CONSULTATION WITH THE STATE FISH AND WILDERNESS COMMISSION, TO REPRESENT THE INTERESTS OF CITIZENS ENGAGED IN FISH AND WILDLIFE RECOVERY. THE COMMITTEE SHALL ELECT A CHAIR FROM THE FOUR LEGISLATORS APPOINTED TO THE COMMITTEE.

(4) NONVOTING MEMBERS WILL NOT BE COMPENSATED BUT WILL RECEIVE REIMBURSEMENT FOR TRAVEL EXPENSES IN ACCORDANCE WITH RCW 43.03.050 AND 43.03.060.

(5) THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION OFFICE OF ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS SHALL PROVIDE ADMINISTRATIVE AND CLERICAL ASSISTANCE TO THE COMMITTEE.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. PILOT PROJECTS. (1) IT IS THE EXPECTATION OF THE LEGISLATURE THAT A COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO ENVIRONMENTAL PERMIT DECISION MAKING FOR TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS CREATED BETWEEN AGENCIES, PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SECTOR INTERESTS, AND TRIBES THAT FOCUSES ON CONCISE DESIGN STANDARDS AND A COMMITMENT TO EXPEDITED PERMIT DECISIONS WILL MINIMIZE DuplicATIVE AND TIME-CONSUMING PERMIT PROCESSES AND ACHIEVE A GREATER POTENTIAL FOR BENEFIT TO THE ENVIRONMENT. PILOT EFFORTS DESIGNED TO DELEGATE SELECTED PERMIT DRAFTING AND COMPLIANCE ACTIVITIES TO THE DEPARTMENT WHEN AGREEMENT ON STANDARDS ARE ACHIEVED AND WHEN COMPLIANCE SAFEGUARDS ARE IMPLEMENTED SHOULD BE TESTED. TO THIS END, THE LEGISLATURE DIRECTS THE COMMITTEE TO SELECT AND CONDUCT THREE PERMIT REFORM PILOT PROGRAMS.

(2) THE COMMITTEE MUST SELECT ONE PERMIT REFORM PILOT PROGRAM THAT INCLUDES A MIX OF PROJECTS FROM EACH OF THE FOLLOWING GEOGRAPHIC AREAS:

THE TRANSLAKE AND I-405 CONGESTION RELIEF STUDY AREAS TO TEST THE APPLICATION OF PERMIT REFORM TO NEAR BUILT-OUT CONDITIONS IN URBAN AREAS WITHIN THE CEDAR-SAMMAMISH, DUWAMISH-GREEN, AND OTHER ADJACENT WATERSHEDS AGREED TO BY THE COMMITTEE;

(b) TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS THAT CAN BE GROUPED FOR GEOGRAPHIC PERMIT DECISION MAKING RELATED TO WESTERN WASHINGTON WATERSHEDS AND SALMON RECOVERY AREAS FOR THE WILLAPA, GRAYS-ELCHOMAN, LEWIS, SALMON-WASHOUGAL, WIND-WHITE SALMON, KICKITAT, AND OTHER APPLICABLE ADJOINING WATERSHEDS AGREED TO BY THE COMMITTEE;

(c) TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS THAT CAN BE GROUPED FOR GEOGRAPHIC PERMIT DECISION MAKING RELATED TO EASTERN WASHINGTON WATERSHEDS AND SALMON RECOVERY AREAS FOR THE WALLA WALLA, MIDDLE SNAKE, LOWER SNAKE, ROCK-GLADE, AND OTHER APPLICABLE ADJOINING WATERSHEDS AGREED TO BY THE COMMITTEE.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. COMMITTEE–RESPONSIBILITIES FOR TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS OF STATEWIDE SIGNIFICANCE. (1) THE COMMITTEE AND ITS AUTHORIZED TECHNICAL SUBCOMMITTEES SHALL DEVELOP A ONE-STOP PERMIT DECISION-MAKING PROCESS THAT USES INTERDISCIPLINARY REVIEW OF TRANSPORTATION PROJECTS OF STATEWIDE SIGNIFICANCE TO STREAMLINE AND EXPEDITE PERMIT DECISION MAKING. THE ONE-STOP PERMITTING PROCESS MUST INCLUDE EARLY REVIEW AND COORDINATION BETWEEN STATE REGULATORY AGENCIES AND THE DEPARTMENT IN ORDER TO DEVELOP COMMON ENVIRONMENTAL GOALS AND STRATEGIES, AND MINIMIZE SUBSEQUENT CHANGES TO CONDITIONS.

(2) THE COMMITTEE MUST USE A ONE-STOP PERMITTING PROCESS AND OTHER COMPONENTS IDENTIFIED IN THIS CHAPTER TO:

(a) LINK EXPEDITED PERMIT DECISION MAKING TO BEST AVAILABLE INFORMATION FOR A WATERSHED; AND

(b) LINK INVESTMENT STRATEGY AND PRIORITIES OF THE PILOT WATERSHED AREAS WITH THE MITIGATION NEEDS OF THE DEPARTMENT ALONG A GEOGRAPHIC BASED APPROACH.

(3) THE COMMITTEE MUST USE AN INTERDISCIPLINARY PERMIT REVIEW APPROACH FOR EACH PILOT PROJECT IN ORDER TO:

(a) PROVIDE COORDINATED AND CONSOLIDATED REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF PERMIT APPLICATIONS;

(b) PROVIDE COORDINATED AND CONSOLIDATED PUBLIC HEARINGS WHERE REQUIRED BY ONE OR MORE REGULATORY AGENCIES UNDER STATE LAW;

(c) ESTABLISH TIMELINES FOR PERMIT DECISION MAKING;

WE HAVE JUST ABOUT COMPLETED ALL THE WORK ON THE BLUE RIBBON COMMISSION’S RECOMMENDATIONS. THEY CAME TO US WITH TWO YEARS OF WORK AND SAID ‘PLEASE, PLEASE, WE NEED YOU TO MAKE CHANGES, BUT WE KNOW YOU WILL DO BUSINESS AS USUAL.’ LAST WEEK AND THIS WEEK WE HAVE ENACTED ALMOST EVERYONE OF THEIR RECOMMENDATIONS WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION ISSUE AND THE NEW REVENUE SOURCE. I JUST WANT TO SAY THAT WE DID SOMETHING HERE IN THE SENATE THAT WAS SIGNIFICANT. WE DID BUSINESS NOT AS USUAL.

“AS YOU CAN SEE, ALL THESE BILLS PASSED IN THE SENATE WITH STRONG BIPARTISAN SUPPORT AND I WANT TO THANK THE MEMBERS OF MY COMMITTEE AND AS YOU SAW THERE WERE VARIOUS MEMBERS WHO WORKED ON ALL THESE BILLS. I WANT TO THANK YOU FOR YOUR EFFORTS IN ORDER TO PUT DOWN THE PARTISAN ISSUES AND TRIED TO DEAL WITH TRANSPORTATION. IF WE DON’T BEGIN TO MAKE MAJOR INVESTMENTS IN THIS STATE, OUR STATE WILL NO LONGER BE THE PLACE THAT WE ALL WANT TO LIVE IN. I BELIEVE THAT WE HAVE, IN THIS BODY, AT LEAST MADE THE FIRST MAJOR STEPS IN TRYING TO PUT TOGETHER A REVENUE PACKAGE, SO THAT ALL OF US CAN GO HOME PROUD OF WHAT WE HAVE DONE THIS SESSION. AGAIN, I WANT TO THANK EACH ONE OF YOU FOR YOUR EFFORTS; EACH ONE OF YOU FOR YOUR VOTES. MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thibaudeau, the following Committee on Health and Long-Term Care striking amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
Sec. 1. RCW 70.128.005 and 2000 c 121 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:
The legislature finds that adult family homes are an important part of the state's long-term care system. Adult family homes provide an alternative to institutional care and promote a high degree of independent living for residents. Persons with functional limitations have broadly varying service needs. Adult family homes that can meet those needs are an essential component of a long-term system. The legislature further finds that different populations living in adult family homes, such as the developmentally disabled and the elderly, often have significantly different needs and capacities from one another.

It is the legislature's intent that department rules and policies relating to the licensing and operation of adult family homes recognize and accommodate the different needs and capacities of the various populations served by the homes. Furthermore, the development and operation of adult family homes that can provide quality personal care and special care services should be encouraged.

The legislature finds that many residents of community-based long-term care facilities are vulnerable and their health and well-being are dependent on their caregivers. The quality, skills, and knowledge of their caregivers are critical to the quality of care. The legislature finds that the need for well-trained caregivers is growing as the state's population ages and residents' needs increase. The legislature intends that current training standards be enhanced.

The legislature finds that the state of Washington has a compelling interest in protecting and promoting the health, welfare, and safety of vulnerable adults residing in adult family homes. The health, safety, and well-being of vulnerable adults must be the paramount concern in determining whether to issue a license to an applicant, whether to suspend or revoke a license, or whether to take other licensing actions.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Except as ordered by the court or required by the trust instrument, no filing, report, registration, or periodic accounting shall be required of the trust or the trustee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. If no trustee is designated or no designated trustee is willing or able to serve, the court shall name a trustee. The court may order the removal of an acting trustee and the transfer of the property to another trustee if it is necessary or appropriate in order to assure that the intended use is carried out. A court may also make such other orders and determinations as shall be advisable to carry out the intent of the trustor and the purpose of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. In construing the language of a trust for an animal, the governing instrument shall be liberally construed to provide the protections of this chapter. NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. RCW 11.98.130 through 11.98.160 apply to trusts that are subject to this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. Except as otherwise provided in the trust instrument or in this chapter, all powers and duties conferred on a trustee under Washington law also apply to the trustee of a trust for animals.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. This chapter applies to trusts that are created on or after the effective date of this act and to trusts that are in existence on the effective date of this act, but that are revocable by the trustor on the effective date of this act. If a trustee is incompetent to exercise a power of revocation on the effective date of this act, this chapter does not apply to such trust unless the trustor later becomes competent to exercise such power of revocation, in which case this chapter applies to such trust.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. (1) Sections 1 through 9, 12, and 13 of this act take effect October 1, 2001.

(2) Section 10 of this act takes effect October 1, 2001, if Senate Bill No. 5054, or its legislative successor bearing the same bill number, does not take effect by October 1, 2001.

(3) Section 11 of this act takes effect October 1, 2001, if Senate Bill No. 5054, or its legislative successor bearing the same bill number, takes effect by October 1, 2001.

MOTION

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“Sec. 1. RCW 13.50.050 and 1999 c 198 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:"

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (12) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section, RCW 13.50.010, 13.40.215, and 4.24.550.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Except as provided in RCW 4.24.550, information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile’s family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile’s family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys’ records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.
(7) Upon the decision to arrest or the arrest, law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys may cooperate with schools in releasing information to a school pertaining to the investigation, diversion, and prosecution of a juvenile attending the school. Upon the decision to arrest or the arrest, incident reports may be released unless releasing the records would jeopardize the investigation or prosecution or endanger witnesses. If release of incident reports would jeopardize the investigation or prosecution or endanger witnesses, law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys may release information to the maximum extent possible to assist schools in protecting other students, staff, and school property.

(8) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(9) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(10) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(11) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and, subject to subsection (23) of this section, order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(12) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (11) of this section if it finds that:

(A) For class B offenses other than sex offenses, since the last date of release from confinement, including full-time residential treatment, if any, or entry of disposition, the person has spent ten consecutive years in the community without committing any offense or crime that subsequently results in conviction. For class C offenses other than sex offenses, since the last date of release from confinement, including full-time residential treatment, if any, or entry of disposition, the person has spent five consecutive years in the community without committing any offense or crime that subsequently results in conviction. For misdemeanors, since the last date of release from confinement, including full-time residential treatment, if any, or entry of disposition, the person has spent two consecutive years in the community without committing any offense or crime that subsequently results in conviction.

(B) For gross misdemeanors, since the last date of release from confinement, including full-time residential treatment, if any, or entry of disposition, the person has spent three consecutive years in the community without committing any offense or crime that subsequently results in conviction;

(C) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(D) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person;

(E) The person has not been convicted of a class A or sex offense; and

(F) Full restitution has been paid.

(13) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (11) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(14) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (11) of this section, it shall, subject to subsection (23) of this section, order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(15) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8) and subsection (23) of this section.

(16) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any charging of an adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW.

(17) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted, subject to subsection (23) of this section, if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(18) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (17) of this section, it shall, subject to subsection (23) of this section, order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records in the order to be destroyed.

(19) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (17) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.
(20) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(21) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(22) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subsection (23) of this section and (A) and (B) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(A) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person who has access to the record requests that the record be destroyed and waives any rights under this section. The procedure shall not result in the destruction of any record concerning a person when such record is required under statute or in a case involving the juvenile court or for the purpose of keeping current records of the juvenile court file in accordance with subsection (13) of this section.

(B) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

(23) No identifying information held by the Washington State Patrol in accordance with chapter 43.43 RCW is subject to destruction or sealing under this section. For the purposes of this subsection, identifying information includes photographs, fingerprints, palmprints, soleprints, toeprints and any other data that identifies a person by physical characteristics, name, birthdate, or address, but does not include information regarding criminal activity, arrest, charging, diversion, conviction or other information about a person's treatment by the criminal justice system or about the person's behavior.

(24) Information identifying child victims under age eighteen who are victims of sexual assaults by juvenile offenders is confidential and not subject to release to the press or public without the permission of the child victim or the child's legal guardian. Identifying information includes the child victim's name, addresses, location, photographs, and in cases in which the child victim is a relative of the alleged perpetrator, identification of the relationship between the child and the alleged perpetrator. Information identifying a child victim of sexual assault may be released to law enforcement, prosecutors, judges, defense attorneys, or private or governmental agencies that provide services to the child victim of sexual assault.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislature recognizes that prenatal and postdelivery health care for newborns and their mothers is especially critical to their survival and well-being. The legislature intends that reasonable steps be taken to remove any barriers to such care, particularly for those parents who may otherwise encounter emotional and/or psychological barriers to obtaining such care by reducing impediments to obtaining prenatal and postdelivery care to newborns while encouraging pregnant women to act responsibly regarding the health of their newborns. The legislature does not intend to encourage the abandonment of newborn children nor to change existing law relating to notification to parents under chapter 13.34 RCW, but rather to assure that abandonment does not occur and that all newborns have an opportunity for adequate health care and a stable home life.

Sec. 2. RCW 46.20.311 AND 2000 c 115 S 7 ARE EACH AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1)(a) THE DEPARTMENT SHALL NOT SUSPEND A DRIVER’S LICENSE OR PRIVILEGE TO DRIVE A MOTOR VEHICLE ON THE PUBLIC HIGHWAYS FOR A FIXED PERIOD OF MORE THAN ONE YEAR, EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY PERMITTED UNDER RCW 46.20.267, 46.20.342, OR OTHER PROVISION OF LAW. EXCEPT FOR A SUSPENSION UNDER RCW 46.20.267, 46.20.289, 46.20.291(5), 46.61; -- (SECTION 1 OF THIS ACT), OR 74.20A.320, WHENEVER THE LICENSE OR DRIVING PRIVILEGE OF ANY PERSON IS SUSPENDED BECAUSE OF CONVICTION, A FINDING THAT A TRAFFIC INFRACTION HAS BEEN COMMITTED, PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 46.29 RCW, OR PURSUANT TO RCW 46.20.291 OR
46.20.308, the suspension shall remain in effect until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, the department shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the alcoholism agency or probation department designated under RCW 46.61.5056 and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified. Whenever the license or driving privilege of any person is suspended as a result of certification of noncompliance with a child support order under chapter 74.20A RCW or a residential or visitation order, the suspension shall remain in effect until the person provides a release issued by the department of social and health services stating that the person is in compliance with the order.

(ii) The department shall not issue to the person a new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reissue fee of twenty dollars.

(2)(A) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (i) After the expiration of one year from the date the license or privilege to drive was revoked; (ii) After the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.20.265, (iii) After the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; or (iv) After the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.20.265.

If the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, the department shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon the reports provided by the alcoholism agency or probation department designated under RCW 46.61.5056 and shall deny reissuance of a license, permit, or privilege to drive until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified.

(c) Except for a revocation under RCW 46.20.265, the department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. For a revocation under RCW 46.20.265, the department shall not issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant that person the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways.

(3)(A) Whenever the driver's license of any person is suspended pursuant to Article IV of the nonresident violators compact or RCW 46.23.020 or 46.20.289 or 46.20.291(5), the department shall not issue to the person any new or renewal license until the person pays a reissue fee of twenty dollars.

(b) If the suspension is the result of a violation of the laws of this or any other state, province, or other jurisdiction involving (i) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (ii) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, the reissue fee shall be one hundred fifty dollars.

The minimum sentence of confinement required shall not be suspended or deferred. MOTION

Senator Rasmussen: “Thank you, Madam President. I move adoption of the resolution. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I think we truly, truly have one of the finest individuals ever born in this country—I mean this world, because he was born in Austria. He is a supreme, wonderful, wonderful person. I brought this resolution to you because I want you to know how great America is because this fellow certainly has proved it in his patriotism and his volunteerism.

“If you read the resolution—just think of it—97,000 people he screened for diabetes. Ninety percent of those, he did himself. That’s a lot. Think of what he’s done for our country, being an interpreter in the Nuremberg trials. I just want to give you this opportunity to get to meet Brownie. I am so delighted that he is here and I am hoping that we will have enough time for Brownie to tell us a little bit about his life. Every once in awhile you want to make sure there’s somebody for your kids to look up to. We all look up to you, Brownie, and we love you very much.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR OKE
Senator Oke: “Thank you, Madam Chair. Brownie, again, it’s an honor to be here with you and I salute you, sir, for your service. You’ve got a wonderful looking hair cut, I’ll tell you that. Every time I attend a veteran’s event, Brownie’s there. I don’t know how he finds time to be everywhere, but you can see from what’s already shared that this individual has done so much in his life. He has a heart for people and he has helped so many people. The World War II Memorial is something that Brownie was deeply involved with and reminded me quite often that if we didn’t get that memorial, there wouldn’t be anybody that served that could actually view it. That memorial is a tribute to you, Brownie, and thanks for the years of service, and thank you and God bless you, sir.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KASTAMA

Senator Kastama: “Thank you, Madam President. Brownie, it’s a pleasure to go ahead and speak on your behalf. I think this is just a clear example of a person’s life when you concentrate on the needs of others, your concerns, your fears, your animosities, they fade to the background and you can see life in a clear way, and I think Brownie’s a clear example of that. As was said in the resolution, he was born in Austria in 1926. He was actually forced into the Hitler Youth Organization as a thirteen year old, but then ejected from that when they found out his mother was Jewish. What it doesn’t say was the fact that because of this, everyday when he was on his way to school and after school, he was beaten by those very same individuals--those Hitler youth individuals.

“Coming to this country, he served the United States in World War II, Korea and in Vietnam. Then, he went on to participate in volunteerism to give back to this country. Brownie, thank you very much for that. It’s already been said that he was the coordinator for the VFW Volunteers, the VA Hospital, Chairman of the Pierce County Veteran’s Advisory Council and then he also worked extensively in diabetes, assisting people in that regard.

“I’d like to read from a column that was written on your behalf, Brownie, in February this year, and again, I think this just displays the fact that concentrating on other people’s concerns often takes your life and puts it in the background and makes you see things clear. This is quoting from Brownie, he said, ’My glass is still half full. I’ve had a very good life. I’ve had the opportunity to come to a free country. Think what would have happened to me if I would have ended up in a concentration camp. I could have died on patrol in Vietnam. I hope I’ve given back, but I need a little bit more time now to find replacements for me and to train them. Nobody is irreplaceable.’

“Brownie, you’re not replaceable, we know that. The columnist goes on to say that we agree Brownie. Heroes are mighty hard to replace. You’re a hero. Thank you, Brownie.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR WINSLEY

Senator Winsley: “Thank you, Madam President. It’s an honor to pay tribute to Brownie. I think of Brownie as Mr. Veteran, but I also have to think about Tom Brokaw’s book about the greatest generation that every lived. Brownie has seen the depression and the political turmoil in Europe and then he came and joined American forces in World War II. That generation is, I think, a generation that we really need to pay tribute to as a whole. I sometimes--I used to tell my children and now I tell my grandchildren, how many miles I had to walk to school one way. We’ve all done that, haven’t we? They laugh and then my husband always says, ‘And I was working when I was thirteen.’ That initiative, that work ethic, is part of that generation.

“I’d also like to share with members that Brownie’s illness is probably due to Agent Orange that he contacted in Vietnam and that’s sad that all those many years he gave to our country--and now his illness is probably due to that service. Anyhow, God bless you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHIN

Senator Shin: “Thank you, Madam President. I stand up to honor Senate Resolution 2001-8657. Brownie’s story is an epitome of what America stands for. Throughout history, from way back in the nineteenth century to today, multitudes of people, refugees and political exiles came to this country. Once they found freedom, they did not stop there. They appreciate freedom and protect their freedom and they want to pay back the blessings they have received. Brownie, I want to congratulate you. Learning about the Third Reich and what the Hitler regime has done to, not only Germany, but to Europe, especially against the Jewish people is unthinkable--is repugnant.

“But history may not repeat itself, because of what you have done. You came here to this country, not as a refugee alone and you’re grateful for this country. Therefore, you not only volunteered to the military, serving there in many capacities, but to the Alzheimer and the Diabetes Association. You’re the kind of person whose footsteps I would like to follow, because you lead me and I, too, am an immigrant. I’m not a refugee, but I am an immigrant who came from abroad and learned about the blessings of this country. I would like to have the members of the Senate know what this country means to me and to know that even though we are immigrants, we’ll make good American citizens.

“Many people ask me, ‘Are you Japanese?’ I said, ‘No.’ ‘Are you Chinese?’ I said, ‘No.’ ‘Then, what are you?’ I tell them proudly, ‘I am an American.’” In 1998, when I was elected as a State Senator, I was the highest ranking officer of Korean descent elected to legislative office in this country. The Korean government invited me to Korea and at the airport, there was media and TV and radio and dignitaries welcoming me as a national hero. The press asked me, 'In your district, are your constituents mostly Asians?’ I said, ‘No.’ Then they said, ‘Who are they?’ I answered, ‘Well, ninety-six percent are white Americans and four percent are minority.’ And they voted for you?’ I said, ‘Yes.’ ‘How could they vote for you?’ I didn’t know what to say. I said, ‘That’s a living testimony that American democracy really works.’ Next morning on the front page of the newspaper, American democracy really does works. I was proud of what I said to them. A little bit of a lesson in democracy could teach others, as well.

‘Brownie, like you, I’m grateful to this country. I think you have paid back the dues more than we deserve and congratulations to you. I’m sorry I didn’t get a chance to meet you sooner, but I wish to have a chance to talk to you and learn something about what really admonished you to serve and for what you have done for this country. In 1963, President Kennedy said, ‘Ask not what your country can do for you but ask what you can do for your country.’ Thank you very much for the lesson and the living testimony.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENTON

Senator Benton: “Thank you, Madam President. I, too, rise to add my name to those here honoring Brownie today. It’s an honor for him to be here, but I’ll tell you it’s an honor for us to be able to honor you, sir. It has been my pleasure to work with you since my arrival in the House of Representatives in 1995 and throughout that time, we have worked very closely together, most of those years struggling to build the World War II Memorial here on the Capital Campus. Without your tenacity and dedication to that cause, it certainly would never have occurred and for that I thank you, as many generations to come will as well.

‘Thank you for your service to this great country and thank you for your service to the citizens of this great state.
As many people before me have said, you are a model mentor—someone for all of us to look up to. So, on behalf of my family and my children and my grandchildren to come, I thank you for everything you have done for all of us.
Thank you, Brownie.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR REGALA

Senator Regala: “Thank you, Madam President. It’s also my privilege to be able to stand here and to honor Brownie this morning. You know, it was interesting as I watched my fellow Senators as we were listening to the resolution, the expressions on people’s faces as it began to sink in what an outstanding man this man in front of us—Brownie Braunsteiner—is and the accomplishments that he has had in his life. Although he has done some really outstanding things and met some very famous people and been in very important places, the thing that stands out in my mind is that whenever you meet Brownie, he always has a smile. He’s always very happy to meet you no matter who you are and he has devoted his life to serving this country that he adopted and also to serving some of those who others would consider less important. Brownie has worked tirelessly on behalf of veterans who are dealing with substance abuse, veterans who are homeless and of course, he has done his outstanding service for those who are suffering with diabetes. Although he has met many high and famous people, Brownie has never forgotten that everyone is important and he works very hard for them. I think the fact that he’s always willing to give of himself is what makes him such a wonderful person and I hope that we’ll all be able to give you some love back that will sustain you in these next few days as you struggle. Thank you, Brownie.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR DECCIO

Senator Deccio: “Thank you, Madam President. Sir, I don’t know you, but we have something in common. As a veteran of World War II and a diabetic, I salute you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR SNYDER

Senator Snyder: “Thank you, Madam President. I was privileged to serve on the World War II Memorial Committee with Brownie. He was one of the worker bees. I was privileged to be on the committee and. I hope that I did my share, but Brownie carried the load for several people and he’s one of those people that, as the resolution says, that’s been doing things for everybody forever. We’re sorry that he can’t go on for another one hundred years to keep doing those things, because I am sure it’s going to take several people to take his place to do all of the things that he has been doing these past number of years.

“As I’ve been listening to the remarks and reread the resolution, I think of two comments that have been made and one of them is that you Brownie never said a lot at the meetings, but when you did speak, it was like the old E. F. Hutton ad, ‘When Brownie speaks, everybody listens.’ The other one was what Warren Magnuson used to say, ‘That there’s two types of horses--there are show horses and there are work horses.’ Brownie is a work horse.
There’s no question about it. I want to thank you too on behalf of everybody. Thank you.”
REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

Senator Swecker: “Thank you, Madam President. Well, Brownie, I want you to know that you’re a model. I’m a veteran from a subsequent war and a younger generation, but your dedication to the cause of serving fellow veterans well beyond your service, your formal service in our country–our country’s armed forces–is a model that my generation needs to emulate. So, I thank you for your demonstration of leadership for us and I just pray that our generation has those talented and key individuals who are willing to step forth and be advocates for the veterans of our conflicts. Thank you.”

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution 2001-8657.
The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and Senate Resolution 2001-8657 was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Benton, the names of all members of the Senate will be added as sponsors of the resolution.

On motion of Senator Benton, the remarks by the members on the resolution will be spread across the Journal and sent to Mr. Braunsteiner.

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: “Thank you, Madam President. I hope we indeed will have time to have some remarks from Brownie and as we welcome him and as we honor him. We want our hero to be able to say a few remarks and those, too, I would like to make sure they are spread upon the journal. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY HELMUT “BROWNIE” BRAUNSTEINER

Helmut ‘Brownie’ Braunsteiner: “Well, thank you so much. I’ve temporarily done away with my oxygen. I hope I don’t run out of steam. I’m overwhelmed. The resolution is just marvelous. But standing before you, you know, coming from a country that formerly had a mandatory system of voting made me more conscious in the United States of the political system and I have followed what you have been doing for many, many years. Some are gone now and others have taken their place, but I tell you that you’re doing a marvelous job. I cannot tell you that the system that we have, not only in the state, but overall in the United States is just fantastic.

“Senator ‘Mom’ wanted me to just briefly explain one incident in my life and I was been very privileged and that is when I acted as an interpreter translator for John F. Kennedy in Berlin. One of the interesting features–first of all, let me explain something. I spent about four hours with President Kennedy sitting in a room trying to get a statement that he wished to make to the people in Berlin and it translated into this huge crowd that was assembled in the Square. What he wanted to convey to them that if as an enclave that was entirely surrounded by the Soviet Union and the East Germans, if in fact, they felt that freedom meant that much to them being inhibited in movement in any direction. Now, that sentence--and I have to give it to you in German--‘Ich bin ein Berliner.’ [I am a resident of Berlin.]. That’s the way the German language works.

‘Now, he was in a mode where he would say, ‘Ick bin ein Berliner,’ so it took several hours of phonetic explanation. He would take one word--John F. Kennedy was a very, very bright and astute individual, but he was very impatient. He was very driving and abrupt and he just forced everything out of you. He had a great memory, but he scribbled on a piece of paper and in order to prevent him from saying ‘Ick’ because the ‘ch’ is very hard to pronounce for Americans, so we had to stretch it out to ‘iss.’ That took ten minutes until we finally got the sound and he scribbled it on a piece of paper. Then ‘Ein’ was not that much of a problem, because I said simply take mine–in other words, my book, this book is mine and take that and drop the ‘m’ and just ‘ein’ and it came out perfect. The other word ‘bin’, well, that’s easy too in the English language. Then finally, the ‘Berliner’– that’s a very--because when you make a mistake telling people where they are from,--then you’re in trouble. So, we worked on that for a long, long time and he finally got it and I think he said it perfectly. This is still on the Internet and you can find the voice of the original speech that he made on that date.

“I can tell you something. I stood way in the background on that large stage overlooking that crowd, but the people went wild. They went completely wild. I also had the privilege of, later on, acting as an interpreter translator for Robert Kennedy, who brought his whole clan--six children and his wife--and we kept the children busy climbing all over a tank while Robert Kennedy reviewed some of the issues in Berlin at that time. I also had the privilege, of course, of being an interpreter translator to the Nuremberg war trials where I got my revenge. I made a few mistakes in translating things that the......but that’s another story. I don’t want to go into that.
“To make a long story short, I know many of you personally. I think you’re doing a marvelous job. Please continue. If nothing else in my memory, take care of the veterans and that’s all I ask you to do. Thank you so much. Thank you. I salute you.”

(ii) Is not already at his or her place of employment when called to serve as a volunteer, unless the employer agrees to provide such an accommodation; and

(iii) Has been ordered to remain at his or her position by the commanding authority at the scene of the fire.

(4) The legislature declares that the public policies articulated in this section depend on the procedures established in this section and no civil or criminal action may be maintained relying on the public policies articulated in this section without complying with the procedures set forth in this section, and to that end all civil actions and civil causes of action for such injuries and all jurisdiction of the courts of this state over such causes are hereby abolished, except as provided in this section."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jacobsen, the following Committee on Natural Resources, Parks and Shorelines striking amendment was adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(2) The sale in the state and export to other states and abroad of forest products made in the state contribute substantial benefits to the economy of the state, provide a large number of jobs and sizeable tax revenues, and are key components of the health of many local communities because many secondary businesses are largely dependent on the health of the forest products industry; and

(3) Forest products are made from a renewable resource and are more environmentally sound than many alternative products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the forest products commission.

(2) "Department" means the department of agriculture.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of agriculture or the director's authorized representative.

(8) "Western Washington" means that portion of the state lying west of the Cascade mountain range.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1)(a) There is created a commodity commission to be known and designated as the Washington forest products commission. The commission is composed of nine voting members. Of the members, six shall be from western Washington, and three shall be from eastern Washington. After the initial election of commission members, however, if a position cannot be filled by a member from eastern Washington or western Washington, the position may be filled by a member from the state. Under no circumstances will there be less than two board members from eastern Washington. If a position was filled by a member from western Washington because of a lack of candidates from eastern Washington, and districts are not used for the nomination and election of members, then a person from eastern Washington must fill the next available vacancy or open position at the next election to bring the number of representatives from eastern Washington up to three members. All members shall be elected by the entire group of producers unless the commission creates districts for the members as authorized in section 5 of this act. If districts are used for the nomination and election of commission members, and it does not appear that one of the positions from eastern Washington will be filled because of a lack of candidates, then a commission member who resides in western Washington must be elected by the entire group of producers as an at-large member. The position of the western Washington member who is elected as an at-large member shall be filled by a member from eastern Washington at the expiration of the term of the at-large member. If districts are not used for the nomination and election of members, the commission shall strive to achieve representation on the commission from the different geographic regions of the state.

(b) Of the six members from western Washington, three members must have annual harvests of more than seventy-five million board feet, and three members must have annual harvests between two million board feet and seventy-five million board feet.

(c) Of the two members from eastern Washington, one member must have an annual harvest greater than forty million board feet, and one member must have an annual harvest between two million board feet and forty million board feet. If there is a third member from eastern Washington, the only harvest requirement is that the member have an annual harvest of at least two million board feet.

(2) The members must be citizens and residents of this state, and over the age of twenty-one years. Each member must currently, and for the five years last preceding his or her election, be actually engaged in producing forest products within the state of Washington, either individually or as an officer of a corporation, firm, partnership, trust, association, or business organization at the level of production required to qualify as a producer. Each member must also derive a substantial amount of his or her income from the production of forest products. The qualifications set forth in this section apply throughout each member's term of office.

(3) No more than one member of the commission may be employed by, or connected in a proprietary capacity with, the same corporation, firm, partnership, trust, association, or business organization.
The powers and duties of the commission include:

(1) To elect a chairman and such officers as the commission deems advisable. The commission shall adopt rules for its own governance, which provide for the holding of an annual meeting for the election of officers and transaction of other business and for such other meetings as the commission may direct;

(2) To adopt any rules necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, in conformance with chapter 34.05 RCW;

(3) To administer and do all things reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(4) At the pleasure of the commission, to employ a treasurer who is responsible for all receipts and disbursements by employees of the commission;

(5) At the pleasure of the commission, to employ and discharge managers, secretaries, agents, attorneys, and employees and to engage the services of independent contractors as the commission deems necessary, to prescribe their duties, and to fix their compensation;

(6) To engage directly or indirectly in the promotion of Washington forest products and managed forests, and shall in the good faith judgment of the commission be in aid of the marketing, advertising, or sale of forest products, or of research related to such marketing, advertising, or sale of forest products, or of research related to managed forests;

(7) To enforce the provisions of this chapter, including investigating and prosecuting violations of this chapter;

(8) To acquire and transfer personal and real property, establish offices, incur expense, and enter into contracts. Contracts for creation and printing of promotional literature are not subject to chapter 43.78 RCW, but such contracts may be canceled by the commission unless performed under conditions of employment which substantially conform to the laws of this state and the rules of the department of labor and industries. The commission may create such debt and other liabilities as may be reasonable for proper discharge of its duties under this chapter.
(9) To maintain such account or accounts with one or more qualified public depositories as the commission may direct, to cause moneys to be deposited therein, and to expend moneys for purposes authorized by this chapter by drafts made by the commission, or by such institutions as the commission may direct, or by other means;
(10) To cause to be kept and annually closed, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, accurate records of all receipts, disbursements, and other financial transactions, available for audit by the state auditor;
(11) To create and maintain a list of producers and to disseminate information among and solicit the opinions of producers with respect to the discharge of the duties of the commission, directly or by arrangement with trade associations or other instrumentalities;
(12) To employ, designate as agent, act in concert with, and enter into contracts with any person, council, commission, or other entity for the purpose of assisting the sale and distribution of Washington forest products in domestic and foreign commerce, expending moneys as it may deem necessary or advisable for such purpose and for the purpose of paying its proportionate share of the cost of any program provided directly or indirectly to the sale and distribution of Washington forest products in domestic or foreign commerce, employ and engaging for vendors of professional services of all kinds;
(13) To sue and be sued as a commission, without individual liability for acts of the commission within the scope of the powers conferred upon it by this chapter;
(14) To propose assessment levels for producers subject to referendum approval under section 11 of this act; and
(15) To participate in federal and state agency hearings, meetings, and other proceedings relating to the regulation, production, manufacture, distribution, sale, or use of forest products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The commission shall create, provide for, and conduct a research, promotional, and educational campaign as sales and market conditions reasonably require. It shall investigate and ascertain the needs of producers, conditions of markets, and degree of public awareness of products, and take into account the information obtained in the discharge of its duties under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The commission shall cause a list to be prepared of all Washington producers of forest products from any information available from the commission, producers’ association, or producers, including tax records from the department of revenue. This list shall contain the names and addresses of all persons who produce forest products within this state, the amount of forest products produced during the period designated by the commission, and the assessment amount for each member. The list is considered confidential and may be reviewed only by the employees of the commission, except for information that may be disclosed to the public and commission members under subsection (4) of this section. A qualified person may, at any time, have his or her name placed upon the list by delivering or mailing the information to the commission. This list shall be corrected and brought up to date in accordance with evidence and information available to the commission on or before December 31st of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. For all purposes of giving notice and holding referendums, the list on hand, corrected up to the day next preceding the date for issuing notices or ballots as the case may be, is, for purposes of this chapter, the list of all producers entitled to notice or to assent or dissent or to vote.
(2) The commission shall develop a reporting system to document that the producers of forest products in this state are producing quantities of forest products produced and subject to the assessment as provided in section 11 of this act.
(3) The department of revenue may charge the commission for the reasonable costs of providing reports of harvest activity on a quarterly basis.
(4) Any taxpayer information received by the commission from the department of revenue may only be used for the limited purposes of establishing lists of producers necessary to determine eligibility for voting, eligibility for serving as a commission member, the amount of assessments owed, or other necessary purposes as established by law. Any return or tax information received from the department of revenue may be reviewed only by the employees of the commission. Employees may disclose to the public and commission members a list of commission members, groupings of at least three commission members by the amount of forest products harvested over any time period designated by the commission of at least one quarter, and the members of the commission who are engaged for the various positions on the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) To provide for permanent funding of the forest products commission, an assessment shall be levied by the commission on producers of each species of forest products. The initial rate of assessment that shall be submitted for approval by referendum pursuant to section 12 of this act is fifty-seven cents per thousand board feet. The initial assessment is not effective until approved by a majority of producers as required by section 12 of this act.
(2) After the initial assessment rate is approved, the commission may adjust the amount of the assessment within a range of forty-five cents up to ninety cents per thousand board feet. The commission shall submit any proposed increase in the assessment to producers pursuant to the referendum process established in this section, and shall supply all known producers with a ballot for the referendum. The commission shall establish the assessment for the marketing year by January 1st of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. Assessments may only be used for the purposes and objects of this chapter.
(3) The forest products commission may raise the assessment on forest products in excess of the fiscal growth factor under chapter 43.135 RCW. The assessment limits established by this section are solely to provide prior legislative authority for the purposes of RO 43.135.055 and are not a limit on the authority of the forest products commission to alter assessments in any manner not limited by RO 43.135.055. However, any alteration in assessments made under this section must be made with the procedural requirements established by this chapter for altering such assessments.
(4) The requirement for approval of an assessment is met if: (a) At least sixty-one percent by numbers of producers voting in the referendum vote affirmatively, and these producers represent at least sixty-one percent of the volume of the producers voting in the referendum; or (b) sixty-five percent by numbers of producers voting in the referendum vote affirmatively, and these producers represent at least sixty-five percent of the volume of the producers voting in the referendum. An assessment shall only be approved if at least forty percent of the eligible producers participate in the vote.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) For purposes of determining producer participation in the commission, the initial election of commissioners, and for imposition of the original assessment specified in section 11 of this act, the director shall conduct a referendum among all producers of forest products within the state.
(2) The requirement for approval of the assessment and creation of the commission is met if: (a) At least fifty-one percent by numbers of producers voting in the referendum vote affirmatively, and these producers represent at least sixty-one percent of the volume of the producers voting in the referendum; or (b) sixty-five percent by numbers of producers voting in the referendum vote affirmatively, and these producers represent at least fifty-one percent of the volume of the producers replying in the referendum. The referendum shall only be approved if at least forty percent of the eligible producers participate in the vote.

(3) If the director determines that the requisite approval has been given, the director shall declare the establishment of the commission and direct it to put into force the assessment authorized in section 11 of this act. If the director finds that the requisite approval has not been given, then this chapter is not operative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The commission shall deposit moneys collected under section 11 of this act in a separate account in the name of the commission in any bank that is a state depository. All expenditures and disbursements made from this account under this chapter may be made without the necessity of a specific legislative appropriation. RCW 43.01.050 does not apply to this account or to the moneys received, collected, or expended under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A due and payable assessment levied in the amount determined by the commission under section 11 of this act constitutes a personal debt of every person so assessed, or who otherwise owes the assessment, and the assessment is due and payable to the commission when payment is called for by the commission. If a person fails to pay the commission the full amount of the assessment by the date due, the commission may add to the unpaid assessment an amount not exceeding ten percent of the assessment to defray the cost of enforcing its collection. If the person fails to pay any due and payable assessment or other such sum, the commission may bring a civil action for collection against the person or persons in a court of competent jurisdiction. The action shall be tried and judgment rendered as in any other cause of action for a debt due and payable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. All county and state law enforcement officers shall assist in the enforcement of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The superior courts are hereby vested with jurisdiction to enforce this chapter and the rules of the commission, and to prevent and restrain violations thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes.

Sec. 18. RCW 42.17.31907 and 1996 c 80 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The following agricultural business and commodity commission records are exempt from the disclosure requirements of this chapter:

(1) Production or sales records required to determine assessment levels and actual assessment payments to commodity commissions formed under chapters 15.24, 15.26, 15.28, 15.44, 15.65, 15.66, 15.74, 15.88, 15.-- (sections 1 through 17 and 22 of this act), and 16.67 RCW or required by the department of agriculture under RCW 15.13.310(4) or 15.49.370(6);

(2) This section does not apply to an assessment made by an agricultural commodity commission or board created by state statute or created under a marketing agreement or order under chapter 15.65 or 15.66 RCW, or to the forest products commission, if the assessment is approved by referendum in accordance with the provisions of the statutes creating the commission or board or chapter 15.65 or 15.66 RCW for approving such assessments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 82.32 RCW to read as follows:

The forest products commission, created pursuant to chapter 15.-- RCW (sections 1 through 17 and 22 of this act), constitutes a state agency for purposes of applying the exemption contained in RCW 82.32.330(3)(f) for the disclosure of taxpayer information by the department. Sec. 1. RCW 66.24.450 and 1999 c 281 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No club shall be entitled to a spirits, beer, and wine private club license:
(a) Unless such private club has been in continuous operation for at least one year immediately prior to the date of its application for such license;
(b) Unless the private club premises be constructed and equipped, conducted, managed, and operated to the satisfaction of the board and in accordance with this title and the regulations made thereunder;
(c) Unless the board shall have determined pursuant to any regulations made by it with respect to private clubs, that such private club is a bona fide private club; it being the intent of this section that license shall not be granted to a club which is, or has been, primarily formed or activated to obtain a license to sell liquor, but solely to a bona fide private club, where the sale of liquor is incidental to the main purposes of the spirits, beer, and wine private club, as defined in RCW 66.04.010(7).

For purposes of RCW 66.24.400 and 66.24.420, all licenses issued under this section shall be considered spirits, beer, and wine restaurant licenses and shall be subject to all requirements, fees, and qualifications in this title, or in rules adopted by the board, as are applicable to spirits, beer, and wine restaurant licenses generally except that no service to the general public may be required.

(2) No license shall be issued under this section to a business:

(3) The board may impose reasonable requirements upon a licensee under this section, such as requirements for the availability of food and victuals including but not limited to hamburgers, sandwiches, salads, or other snack food. The board may also restrict the type of events at a sports entertainment facility at which beer, wine, and spirits may be served. When imposing conditions for a license, the board may not consider the seating accommodations, eating facilities, and circulation patterns in such a facility, and other amenities available at a sports entertainment facility.

(4) The board may issue a caterer's endorsement to the license under this section to allow the licensee to remove from the liquor stocks at the licensed premises, for use as liquor for sale and service at special occasion locations at a specified date

HOUSE BILL NO. 1062, by Representatives O’Brien, Ballasiotes, Delvin, Lovick and Haigh (by request of Criminal Justice Training Commission)

Modifying provisions pertaining to the certification of peace officers.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Costa, the following Committee on Judiciary striking amendment was not adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

When used in this chapter:

(1) The term "commission" means the Washington state criminal justice training commission.

(2) The term "boards" means the education and training standards boards, the establishment of which are authorized by this chapter.

(3) The term "criminal justice personnel" means any person who serves in a county, city, state, or port commission agency engaged in crime prevention, crime reduction, or enforcement of the criminal law."
(4) The term "law enforcement personnel" means any public employee or volunteer having as a primary function the enforcement of criminal laws in general or any employee or volunteer of, or any individual commissioned by, any municipal, county, state, or combination thereof, agency having as its primary function the enforcement of criminal laws in general as distinguished from an agency possessing peace officer powers, the primary function of which is the implementation of specialized subject matter areas. For the purposes of this subsection "primary function" means that function to which the greater allocation of resources is made.

(5) The term "correctional personnel" means any employee or volunteer who by state, county, municipal, or combination thereof, statute has the responsibility for the confinement, care, management, training, treatment, education, supervision, or counseling of those individuals whose civil rights have been limited in some way by legal sanction.

(6) A peace officer is "convicted" at the time a plea of guilty has been accepted, or a verdict of guilty or finding of guilt has been filed, notwithstanding the pendency of any future proceedings, including but not limited to sentencing, posttrial or postfact-finding motions and appeals. "Conviction" includes a deferral of sentence and also includes the equivalent disposition by a court in a jurisdiction other than the state of Washington.

(7) "Discharged for disqualifying misconduct" means terminated from employment for: (a) Conviction of (i) any crime committed under color of authority as a peace officer, (ii) any crime involving dishonesty or false statement within the meaning of Evidence Rule 609(a), (iii) the unlawful use or possession of a controlled substance, or (iv) any other crime the conviction of which disqualifies a Washington citizen from the legal right to possess a firearm under state or federal law; (b) conduct that would constitute any of the crimes addressed in (a) of this subsection; or (c) knowingly making materially false statements during disciplinary investigations, where the false statements are the sole basis for the termination.

(8) A peace officer is "discharged for disqualifying misconduct" within the meaning of subsection (7) of this section under the ordinary meaning of the term and when the totality of the circumstances support a finding that the officer resigned in anticipation of discipline, whether or not the misconduct was discovered at the time of resignation, and when such discipline, if carried forward, would more likely result than not have led to discharge for disqualifying misconduct within the meaning of subsection (7) of this section.

(9) When used in context of proceedings referred to in this chapter, "final" means that the peace officer has exhausted all available civil service appeals, collective bargaining remedies, and all other such direct administrative appeals, and the officer has not been reinstated as the result of the action. Finality is not affected by the pendency or availability of state or federal administrative or court actions for discrimination, or by the pendency or availability of any remedies other than direct civil service and collective bargaining remedies.

(10) "Peace officer" means any law enforcement personnel subject to the basic law enforcement training requirement of RCW 43.101.200 and any other requirements of that section, notwithstanding any waiver or exemption granted by the commission, and notwithstanding the statutory exemption based on date of initial hire under RCW 43.101.200. Commissioned officers of the Washington state patrol, whether they have been or may be exempted by rule of the commission, and notwithstanding the statutory exemption based on date of initial hire under RCW 43.101.200, are included as peace officers for purposes of this chapter. Fish and wildlife officers with enforcement powers for all criminal laws under RCW 77.12.055 are peace officers for purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) As a condition of continuing employment as peace officers, all Washington peace officers: (a) Shall timely obtain certification as peace officers, or timely obtain certification or exemption therefor, by meeting all requirements of RCW 43.101.200, as that section is administered under the rules of the commission, as well as meeting any additional requirements under this chapter; and (b) shall maintain the basic certification as peace officers under this chapter. The commission shall certify peace officers who have satisfied, or have been exempted by statute or by rule from, the basic training requirements of RCW 43.101.200 on or before the effective date of this section. Thereafter, the commission may revoke certification pursuant to this chapter.

(2) The commission shall allow a peace officer to retain status as a certified peace officer as long as the officer: (a) Timely meets the basic law enforcement training requirements, or is exempted therefrom, in whole or in part, under RCW 43.101.200 or under rule of the commission; (b) meets or is exempted from any other requirements under this chapter as administered under the rules adopted by the commission; (c) is not denied certification by the commission under this chapter; and (d) has not had certification revoked by the commission.

(3) As a prerequisite to certification, as well as a prerequisite to pursuit of a hearing under section 9 of this act, a peace officer must, on a form devised or adopted by the commission, authorize the release to the commission of his or her personnel files, termination papers, criminal investigation files, or other files, papers, or information that are directly related to a certification matter or decertification matter before the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Upon request by a peace officer's employer or on its own initiative, the commission may deny or revoke certification of any peace officer, after written notice and hearing, if a hearing is timely requested by the peace officer under section 9 of this act, based upon a finding of one or more of the following conditions:

(1) The peace officer has failed to timely meet all requirements for obtaining a certificate of basic law enforcement training, a certificate of basic law enforcement training equivalency, or a certificate of exemption from the training;

(2) The peace officer has knowingly falsified or omitted material information on an application for training or certification to the commission;

(3) The peace officer has been convicted at any time of a felony offense under the laws of this state or has been convicted of a federal or out-state offense comparable to a felony under the laws of this state; except that if a certified peace officer was convicted of a felony before being employed as a peace officer, and the circumstances of the prior felony conviction were fully disclosed to his or her employer before being hired, the commission may revoke certification only with the agreement of the employing law enforcement agency;

(4) The peace officer has been discharged for disqualifying misconduct, the discharge is final, and some or all of the acts or omissions forming the basis for the discharge proceedings occurred on or after the effective date of this section;

(5) The peace officer's certificate was previously issued by administrative error on the part of the commission; or

(6) The peace officer interfered with an investigation or action for denial or revocation of certificate by: (a) Knowingly making a materially false statement to the commission; or (b) in any matter under investigation by or otherwise before the commission, tampering with evidence or tampering with or intimidating any witness.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A person denied a certification based upon dismissal or withdrawal from a basic law enforcement academy for any reason not also involving discharge for disqualifying misconduct is eligible for readmission and certification upon meeting standards established in rules of the commission, which rules may provide for probationary terms on readmission.

(2) A person whose certification is denied or revoked based upon prior administrative error of issuance, failure to cooperate, or interference with an investigation is eligible for certification upon meeting standards established in rules of the commission, which may provide for a probationary period of certification in the event of reinstatement of eligibility.

(3) A person whose certification is denied or revoked based upon a felony criminal conviction is not eligible for certification at any time.

(4) A peace officer whose certification is denied or revoked based upon discharge for disqualifying misconduct, but not also based upon a felony criminal conviction, may, five years after the revocation or denial, petition the commission for reinstatement of the certificate or for eligibility for reinstatement. The commission shall hold a hearing on the petition to consider reinstatement, and the commission may allow reinstatement based upon standards established in rules of the commission. If the certificate is reinstated or eligibility for certification is determined, the commission may establish a probationary period of certification.

(5) A peace officer whose certification is revoked based solely upon a criminal conviction may petition the commission for reinstatement immediately upon a final judicial reversal of the conviction. The commission shall hold a hearing on request to consider reinstatement, and the commission may allow reinstatement based on standards established in rules of the commission. If the certificate is reinstated or if eligibility for certification is determined, the commission may establish a probationary period of certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A peace officer's certification lapses automatically when there is a break of more than twenty-four consecutive months in the officer's service as a full-time law enforcement officer. A break in full-time law enforcement service which is due solely to the pendency of direct review or appeal from a disciplinary discharge, or to the pendency of a work-related injury, does not cause a lapse in certification. The officer must notify the commission on the form prescribed by the commission for reinstatement of certification. Upon receipt of a petition for reinstatement of a lapsed certificate, the commission shall determine under this chapter and any applicable rules of the commission if the peace officer's certification status is to be reinstated, and the commission shall also determine any requirements which the officer must meet for reinstatement. The commission may adopt rules establishing requirements for reinstatement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon termination of a peace officer for any reason, including resignation, the agency of termination shall, within fifteen days of the termination, notify the commission on a personnel action report form provided by the commission. The agency of termination shall, upon request of the commission, provide any additional documentation or information as the commission deems necessary to determine whether the termination provides grounds for revocation under section 3 of this act. The commission shall maintain these notices in a permanent file, subject to section 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In addition to its other powers granted under this chapter, the commission has authority and power to:

(1) Adopt, amend, or repeal rules as necessary to carry out this chapter;

(2) Issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with investigations, hearings, or other proceedings held under this chapter;

(3) Take or cause to be taken depositions and other discovery procedures as needed in investigations, hearings, and other proceedings held under this chapter;

(4) Appoint members of a hearings board as provided under section 10 of this act;

(5) Enter into contracts for professional services determined by the commission to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(6) Grant, deny, or revoke certification of peace officers under the provisions of this chapter;

(7) Designate individuals authorized to sign subpoenas and statements of charges under the provisions of this chapter; and

(8) Employ such investigative, administrative, and clerical staff as necessary for the enforcement of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A law enforcement officer or duly authorized representative of a law enforcement agency may submit a written complaint to the commission charging that a peace officer's certificate should be denied or revoked, and specifying the grounds for the charge. Filing a complaint does not make a complainant a party to the commission's action. The commission has sole discretion whether to investigate a complaint, and the commission has sole discretion whether to investigate matters relating to certification, denial of certification, or revocation of certification on any other basis, without restriction as to the source or the existence of a complaint. A person who files a complaint in good faith under this section is immune from suit or any civil action related to the filing or the contents of the complaint.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If the commission determines, upon investigation, that there is probable cause to believe that a peace officer's certification should be denied or revoked under section 3 of this act, the commission must prepare and serve upon the officer a statement of charges. Service on the officer must be by mail or by personal service on the officer. Notice of the charges must also be mailed to or otherwise served upon the officer's agency of termination and any current law enforcement agency employer. The statement of charges must be accompanied by a notice that to receive a hearing on the denial or revocation, the officer must, within sixty days of communication of the statement of charges, request a hearing before the hearings board appointed under section 10 of this act. Failure of the officer to request a hearing within the sixty-day period constitutes a default, whereupon the commission may enter an order under RCW 34.05.440.

(2) If a hearing is requested, the date of the hearing must be scheduled not earlier than ninety days nor later than one hundred eighty days after communication of the statement of charges to the officer; the one hundred eighty day period may be extended on mutual agreement of the parties or for good cause. The commission shall give written notice of hearing at least twenty days prior to the hearing, specifying the time, date, and place of hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The procedures governing adjudicative proceedings before agencies under chapter 34.05 RCW, the administrative procedure act, govern hearings before the commission and govern all other actions before the commission unless otherwise provided in this chapter. The standard of proof in actions before the commission is clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.
(2) On all appeals brought under section 9 of this act, a five-member hearings panel shall both hear the case and make the commission's final administrative decision. Members of the commission or the board on law enforcement training standards and education may but need not be appointed to the hearings panels. The commission shall appoint as follows two or more panels to hear appeals from decertification actions:

(a) When an appeal is filed in relation to decertification of a Washington peace officer who is not a peace officer of the Washington state patrol, the commission shall appoint to the panel: (i) One police chief; (ii) one sheriff; (iii) two peace officers who are at or below the level of first line supervisor, who are from city or county law enforcement agencies, and who have at least ten years' experience as peace officers; and (iv) one person who is not currently a peace officer and who represents a community college or four-year college or university.

(b) When an appeal is filed in relation to decertification of a peace officer of the Washington state patrol, the commission shall appoint to the panel: (i) Either one police chief or one sheriff; (ii) one administrator of the state patrol; (iii) one peace officer who is at or below the level of first line supervisor, who is from a city or county law enforcement agency, and who has at least ten years' experience as a peace officer; (iv) one state patrol officer who is at or below the level of first line supervisor, and who has at least ten years' experience as a peace officer; and (v) one person who is not currently a peace officer and who represents a community college or four-year college or university.

(c) Persons appointed to hearings panels by the commission shall, in relation to any decertification matter on which they sit, have the powers, duties, and immunities, and be entitled to the emoluments, including travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, of regular commission members.

(3) Where the charge upon which revocation or denial is based is that a peace officer “has been convicted at any time of a felony offense” within the meaning of section 3(3) of this act, the hearings panel shall revoke or deny certification if it determines that the peace officer was convicted of a felony. The hearings panel need not re-determine the underlying facts but may base this determination based solely on review of the records and decision relating to the employment separation proceeding. However, the hearings panel may, in its discretion, consider additional evidence to determine whether such a discharge occurred and was based on such disqualifying misconduct. The hearings panel shall, upon written request by the subject peace officer, allow the peace officer to present additional evidence of extenuating circumstances.

Where the charge upon which revocation or denial of certification is based is that a peace officer “has been convicted at any time of a felony offense” within the meaning of section 3(3) of this act, and the officer received a civil service hearing or arbitration hearing culminating in an affording decision following separation from service by the employer, the hearings panel may revoke or deny certification if the hearings panel determines that the discharge occurred and was based on disqualifying misconduct; the hearings panel need not re-determine the underlying facts but may base this determination based solely on review of the records and decision relating to the employment separation proceeding. However, the hearings panel may, in its discretion, consider additional evidence to determine whether such a discharge occurred and was based on such disqualifying misconduct. The hearings panel shall, upon written request by the subject peace officer, allow the peace officer to present additional evidence of extenuating circumstances.

(4) The commission's final administrative decision is subject to judicial review under RCW 34.05.510 through 34.05.598.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The commission, its boards, and individuals acting on behalf of the commission and its boards are immune from suit in any civil or criminal action contesting or based upon proceedings or other official acts performed in the course of their duties in the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Except as provided under subsection (2) of this section, the following records of the commission are confidential and exempt from public disclosure: (a) The contents of personnel action reports filed under section 6 of this act; (b) all files, papers, and other information obtained by the commission pursuant to section 2(3) of this act; and (c) all investigative files of the commission compiled in carrying out the responsibilities of the commission under this chapter. Such records are not subject to public disclosure, subpoena, or discovery proceedings in any civil action, except as provided in subsection (5) of this section.

(2) Records which are otherwise confidential and exempt under subsection (1) of this section may be reviewed and copied: (a) By the officer involved or the officer's counsel or authorized representative, who may review the officer's file and may submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory evidence, statements, or other information, any of which must be included in the file; (b) by a duly authorized representative of (i) the agency of termination, or (ii) a current employing law enforcement agency, which may review and copy its employee-officer's file; or (c) by a representative of or investigator for the commission.

(3) Records which are otherwise confidential and exempt under subsection (1) of this section may also be inspected at the offices of the commission by a duly authorized representative of a law enforcement agency considering an application for employment by a person who is the subject of a record. A copy of records which are otherwise confidential and exempt under subsection (1) of this section may later be obtained by an agency after it hires the applicant. In all other cases under this subsection, the agency may not obtain a copy of the record.

(4) Upon a determination that a complaint is without merit, that a personnel action report filed under section 6 of this act does not merit action by the commission, or that a matter otherwise investigated by the commission does not merit action, the commission shall purge records addressed in subsection (1) of this section.

(5) The hearings, but not the deliberations, of the hearings board are open to the public. The transcripts, admitted evidence, and written decisions of the hearings board on behalf of the commission are not confidential or exempt from public disclosure, and are subject to subpoena and discovery proceedings in civil actions.

(6) Every individual, legal entity, and agency of federal, state, or local government is immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the commission in good faith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 2 through 12 and 14 of this act are each added to chapter 43.101 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act takes effect January 1, 2002."
On motion of Senator Costa, the following striking amendment by Senators Costa, Kline and Long was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

When used in this chapter:
(1) The term "commission" means the Washington state criminal justice training commission.
(2) The term "boards" means the education and training standards boards, the establishment of which are authorized by this chapter.
(3) The term "criminal justice personnel" means any person who serves in a county, city, state, or port commission agency engaged in crime prevention, crime reduction, or enforcement of the criminal law.
(4) The term "law enforcement personnel" means any public employee or volunteer having as a primary function the enforcement of criminal laws in general or any employee or volunteer of, or any individual commissioned by, any municipal, county, state, or combination thereof, agency having as its primary function the enforcement of criminal laws in general as distinguished from an agency possessing peace officer powers, the primary function of which is the implementation of specialized subject matter areas. For the purposes of this subsection "primary function" means that function to which the greater allocation of resources is made.
(5) The term "correctional personnel" means any employee or volunteer who by state, county, municipal, or combination thereof, statute has the responsibility for the confinement, care, management, training, treatment, education, supervision, or counseling of those individuals whose civil rights have been limited in some way by legal sanction.
(6) A peace officer is "convicted" at the time a plea of guilty has been accepted, or a verdict of guilty or finding of guilt has been filed, notwithstanding the pendency of any future proceedings, including but not limited to sentencing, posttrial or postfact-finding motions and appeals. "Conviction" includes a deferral of sentence and also includes the equivalent disposition by a court in a jurisdiction other than the state of Washington.
(7) "Discharged for disqualifying misconduct" means terminated from employment for: (a) Conviction of (i) any crime committed under color of authority as a peace officer, (ii) any crime involving dishonesty or false statement within the meaning of Evidence Rule 609(a), (iii) the unlawful use or possession of a controlled substance, or (iv) any other crime the conviction of which disqualifies a Washington citizen from the legal right to possess a firearm under state or federal law; (b) conduct that would constitute any of the crimes addressed in (a) of this subsection; or (c) knowingly making materially false statements during disciplinary investigations, where the false statements are the sole basis for the termination.
(8) A peace officer is "discharged for disqualifying misconduct" within the meaning of subsection (7) of this section under the ordinary meaning of the term and when the totality of the circumstances support a finding that the officer resigned in anticipation of discipline, whether or not the misconduct was discovered at the time of resignation, and when such discipline, if carried forward, would more likely than not have led to discharge for disqualifying misconduct within the meaning of subsection (7) of this section.
(9) When used in context of proceedings referred to in this chapter, "final" means that the peace officer has exhausted all available civil service appeals, collective bargaining remedies, and all other such direct administrative appeals, and the officer has not been reinstated as the result of the action. Finally is not affected by the pendency or availability of state or federal administrative or court actions for discrimination, or by the pendency or availability of any remedies other than direct civil service and collective bargaining remedies.
(10) "Peace officer" means any law enforcement personnel subject to the basic law enforcement training requirement of RCW 43.101.200 and any other requirements of that section, and police service dogs subject to requirements adopted under this act, notwithstanding any waiver or exemption granted by the commission, and notwithstanding the statutory exemption based on date of initial hire under RCW 43.101.200. Commissioned officers of the Washington state patrol, whether they have been or may be exempted by rule of the commission from the basic training requirement of RCW 43.101.200, are included as peace officers for purposes of this chapter. Fish and wildlife officers with enforcement powers for all criminal laws under RCW 77.12.055 are peace officers for purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) As a condition of continuing employment as peace officers, all Washington peace officers:
(a) Shall timely obtain certification as peace officers, or obtain certification for exemption therefrom, by meeting all requirements of RCW 43.101.200, as that section is administered under the rules of the commission, as well by meeting any additional requirements under this chapter; and (b) shall maintain the basic certification as peace officers under this chapter. The commission shall certify peace officers who have satisfied, or have been exempted by statute or by rule from, the basic training requirements of RCW 43.101.200 on or before the effective date of this section. Thereafter, the commission may revoke certification pursuant to this chapter.
(2) The commission shall allow a peace officer to retain status as a certified peace officer as long as the officer: (a) Timely meets the basic law enforcement training requirements, or is exempted therefrom, in whole or in part, under RCW 43.101.200 or under rule of the commission; (b) meets or is exempted from any other requirements under this chapter as administered under the rules adopted by the commission; (c) is not denied certification by the commission under this chapter; and (d) has not had certification revoked by the commission.
(3) As a prerequisite to certification, as well as a prerequisite to pursuit of a hearing under section 9 of this act, a peace officer must, on a form devised or adopted by the commission, authorize the release to the commission of his or her personnel files, termination papers, criminal investigation files, or other files, papers, or information that are directly related to a certification matter or decertification matter before the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Upon request by a peace officer's employer or on its own initiative, the commission may deny or revoke certification of any peace officer, after written notice and hearing, if a hearing is timely requested by the peace officer under section 9 of this act, based upon a finding of one or more of the following conditions:
(1) The peace officer has failed to timely meet all requirements for obtaining a certificate of basic law enforcement training, a certificate of basic law enforcement training equivalency, or a certificate of exemption from the training;
(2) The peace officer has knowingly falsified or omitted material information on an application for training or certification to the commission;
(3) The peace officer has been convicted at any time of a felony offense under the laws of this state or has been convicted of a federal or out-of-state offense comparable to a felony under the laws of this state; except that if a certified peace officer was convicted of a felony before being employed as a peace officer, and the circumstances of the prior felony conviction were fully disclosed to his or her employer before being hired, the commission may revoke certification only with the agreement of the employing law enforcement agency;

(4) The peace officer has been discharged for disqualifying misconduct, the discharge is final, and some or all of the acts or omissions forming the basis for the discharge proceedings occurred on or after the effective date of this section;

(5) The peace officer's certificate was previously issued by administrative error on the part of the commission; or

(6) The peace officer has interfered with an investigation or action for denial or revocation of certificate by: (a) Knowingly making a materially false statement to the commission; or (b) in any matter under investigation by or otherwise before the commission, tampering with evidence or tampering with or intimidating any witness.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A person denied a certification based upon dismissal or withdrawal from a basic law enforcement academy for any reason not also involving discharge for disqualifying misconduct is eligible for readmission and certification upon meeting standards established in rules of the commission, which rules may provide for probationary terms on readmission.

(2) A person whose certification is denied or revoked based upon prior administrative error of issuance, failure to cooperate, or interference with an investigation is eligible for certification upon meeting standards established in rules of the commission, rules which may provide for a probationary period of certification in the event of reinstatement of eligibility.

(3) A person whose certification is denied or revoked based upon a felony criminal conviction is not eligible for certification at any time.

(4) A peace officer whose certification is denied or revoked based upon discharge for disqualifying misconduct, but not also based upon a felony criminal conviction, may, five years after the revocation or denial, petition the commission for reinstatement of the certificate or for eligibility for reinstatement. The commission shall hold a hearing on the petition to consider reinstatement, and the commission may allow reinstatement based upon standards established in rules of the commission. If the certificate is reinstated or eligibility for certification is determined, the commission may establish a probationary period of certification.

(5) A peace officer whose certification is revoked based solely upon a criminal conviction may petition the commission for reinstatement immediately upon a final judicial reversal of the conviction. The commission shall hold a hearing on request to consider reinstatement, and the commission may allow reinstatement based upon standards established in rules of the commission. If the certificate is reinstated or if eligibility for certification is determined, the commission may establish a probationary period of certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A peace officer's certification lapses automatically when there is a break of more than twenty-four consecutive months in the officer's service as a full-time law enforcement officer. A break in full-time law enforcement service which is due solely to the pendency of direct review or appeal from a disciplinary discharge, or to the pendency of a work-related injury, does not cause a lapse in certification. The officer may petition the commission for reinstatement of certification. Upon receipt of a petition for reinstatement of a lapsed certificate, the commission shall determine under this chapter and any applicable rules of the commission if the peace officer's certification status is to be reinstated, and the commission shall also determine any requirements which the officer must meet for reinstatement. The commission may adopt rules establishing requirements for reinstatement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon termination of a peace officer for any reason, including resignation, the agency of termination shall, within fifteen days of the termination, notify the commission on a personnel action report form provided by the commission. The agency of termination shall, upon request of the commission, provide such additional documentation or information as the commission deems necessary to determine whether the termination provides grounds for revocation under section 3 of this act. The commission shall maintain these notices in a permanent file, subject to section 12 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. In addition to its other powers granted under this chapter, the commission has authority and power to:

(1) Adopt, amend, or repeal rules as necessary to carry out this chapter;

(2) Issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with investigations, hearings, or other proceedings held under this chapter;

(3) Take or cause to be taken depositions and other discovery procedures as needed in investigations, hearings, and other proceedings held under this chapter;

(4) Appoint members of a hearings board as provided under section 10 of this act;

(5) Enter into contracts for professional services determined by the commission to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(6) Grant, deny, or revoke certification of peace officers under the provisions of this chapter;

(7) Designate individuals authorized to sign subpoenas and statements of charges under the provisions of this chapter; and

(8) Employ such investigative, administrative, and clerical staff as necessary for the enforcement of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A law enforcement officer or duly authorized representative of a law enforcement agency may submit a written complaint to the commission charging that a peace officer's certificate should be denied or revoked, and specifying the grounds for the charge. Filing a complaint does not make a complainant a party to the commission's action. The commission has sole discretion whether to investigate a complaint, and the commission has sole discretion whether to investigate matters relating to certification, denial of certification, or revocation of certification on any other basis, without restriction as to the source or the existence of a complaint. A person who files a complaint in good faith under this section is immune from suit or any civil action related to the filing or the contents of the complaint.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If the commission determines, upon investigation, that there is probable cause to believe that a peace officer's certification should be denied or revoked under section 3 of this act, the commission must prepare and serve upon the officer a statement of charges. Service on the officer must be by mail or by personal service on the officer. Notice of the charges must also be mailed to or otherwise served upon the officer's agency of termination and any current law enforcement agency employer. The statement of charges must be accompanied by a notice that to receive a hearing on the denial or Evidence to determine whether such a discharge occurred and was based on such misconduct, the discharge is "final," within the meaning of section 3(4) of this act, and the officer received a civil service discharge for disqualifying misconduct; the hearings panel need not redetermine the underlying facts relating to the charge upon which revocation or denial of certification is based.

Where the charge upon which revocation or denial is based is that a peace officer "was convicted of a felony offense" within the meaning of section 3(3) of this act, the hearings panel shall revoke or deny certification if it determines that the peace officer was convicted of a felony. The hearings panel need not redetermine the underlying facts but may make this determination based solely on review of the records and decision relating to the employment separation proceeding. However, the hearings panel may, in its discretion, consider additional evidence to determine whether such a discharge occurred and was based on such disqualifying misconduct. The hearings panel shall, upon written request by the subject peace officer, allow the peace officer to present additional evidence of extenuating circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. It is the intent of sections 14 through 23 of this act to enhance public safety and the quality of law enforcement. The legislature finds these goals may be achieved by establishing a minimum standard of performance for working police service dog teams and a procedure for certification of teams. The legislature further finds it necessary to create an oversight mechanism to promote efficient and responsible implementation of the certification process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(8) "Police service dog" means a dog assigned or used by a handler for law enforcement purposes.

(9) "Police service dog team" or "team" means a dog and handler that is certified as a team.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) A police service dog handler may not use a police service dog for law enforcement purposes unless the handler and dog are certified as a team, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) Any dog team provided to assist in law enforcement purposes is exempt from the certification requirement of sections 14 through 23 of this act only if: (a) The dog is owned by, and acts under the control of, an agency of the federal government which engages in law enforcement purposes; (b) the team is provided on a temporary basis not exceeding forty-eight hours; and (c) the dog and its handler meet the internal minimum performance standards of the agency of the federal government which owns or controls the dog.

(3) If any law enforcement agency is, prior to August 1, 2003, utilizing a police service dog and a handler for law enforcement purposes, the agency may continue the use until March 1, 2004. After March 1, 2004, the dog and handler must be certified as a team to be used for law enforcement purposes.

(4) Any law enforcement agency that has not, prior to August 1, 2003, utilized a police service dog and a handler for law enforcement purposes must obtain certification before deploying a team.

(5) Upon determination by the commission that a law enforcement agency or the department of corrections has deployed a police service dog and handler not certified pursuant to this chapter, the commission may issue an order directing the agency or department to immediately cease the unauthorized deployment.

(6) If the agency or department does not discontinue the unauthorized deployment, the commission may seek appropriate injunctive relief in the superior court of the county in which the agency or department is located.

(7) Police service detection dogs are exempt from the certification requirement set forth in this section unless the commission extends the certification requirement to these dogs by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) The commission is directed to develop and adopt a minimum performance standard for each category of police service dog and handler, with the categories being derived from the law enforcement functions that the police service dogs and handlers perform. Each police service dog and handler must meet the standard for its category in order to become a team.

(2) The commission is directed to implement a process through which police service dogs and their handlers will be tested for certification. The commission is authorized to charge a fee for the purpose of conducting certification tests.

(3) The commission shall establish minimum training hours for police service dogs and handlers that must be completed prior to testing for certification. Prior to testing a police service dog and a handler for certification, the chief of police, sheriff, secretary of corrections, or chief of the Washington state patrol must submit an affidavit verifying that the required hours of training have been successfully completed by the police service dog and handler.

(4) The initial certification of police service dog teams is valid for one year. Recertification shall be valid for a period of time as determined by the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) The commission is directed to create the canine training standards board. The commission is directed to endeavor to ensure the composition of the board will include persons experienced with patrol, detection, and tracking police service dogs. The board shall, in consultation with the board on law enforcement training standards and education, recommend to the commission minimum performance standards and develop model training and performance standards for police service dogs and handlers. The model training and model performance standards may be used by local jurisdictions in developing their own canine programs.

(2) The board shall examine the possibility of requiring certification of police service detection dogs and make recommendations to the commission.

(6) The final order of the administrative law judge shall include a notice to the parties of the right to obtain judicial review of the order by appeal in accordance with the provisions of RCW 34.05.510 through 34.05.598, and that such appeal must be served and filed within thirty days after the service of the order on the parties.
(7) If, upon all the evidence, the administrative law judge finds that the commission correctly denied certification, the administrative law judge shall state findings of fact and shall similarly issue and file an order dismissing the complaint.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an act relating to the certification of a police service dog team may, personally or by his or her attorney, make, sign, and file with the commission a complaint in writing under oath or by declaration. The commission does not have jurisdiction to hear a complaint alleging negligent conduct by a certified team while engaged in law enforcement purposes.

(13) To establish and maintain reserve, equity, surplus or other funds, and to provide for the time, form and manner of distribution of such funds among members, shareholders or other persons with interests therein in accordance with the articles of incorporation.

(14) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes, and in time of war to make donations in aid of the United States and its war activities.

(15) To indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he or she has been made a party by reason of being or having been such director or officer, except (i) in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty for acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law by the director or officer, or that involve a transaction from which the director or officer will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director or officer is not legally entitled: PROVIDED. That such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of board of directors or members or shareholders, or otherwise.

(16) To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise.

(17) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized and not inconsistent with the articles of incorporation or the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 4. RCW 24.06.035 and 1987 c 212 s 709 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter shall not engage in any business, trade, a vocation or profession for profit: PROVIDED, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to forbid such a corporation from accumulating reserve, equity, surplus or other funds through subscriptions, fees, dues or assessments, or from charges made its members or other persons for services rendered or supplies or benefits furnished, or from distributing its surplus funds to its members, stockholders or other persons in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation. A member of the board of directors or officer of such corporation shall have the same immunity from liability as is granted in RCW 42.24.264.

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a member of the board of directors or an officer of the corporation is not individually liable to the corporation or its shareholders or members in their capacity as shareholders or members for conduct within his or her official capacity as a director or officer after the effective date of this subsection except for acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, or that involve a transaction from which the director or officer will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director or officer is not legally entitled. Nothing in this subsection may be construed to limit or modify in any manner the power of the attorney general to bring an action on behalf of the public to enjoin, correct, or otherwise remedy a breach of a charitable trust by a corporation or its directors or officers.

Sec. 5. RCW 24.06.100 and 1969 ex.s. c 120 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

Meetings of members and/or shareholders may be held at such place, either within or without this state, as may be provided in the bylaws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation in this state.

An annual meeting of the members and shareholders shall be held at such time as may be provided in the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

Special meetings of the members or shareholders may be called by the president or by the board of directors. Special meetings of the members or shareholders may also be called by such other officers or persons as number or proportion of members or shareholders as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of a provision fixing the number or proportion of members or shareholders entitled to call a meeting, a special meeting of members or shareholders may be called by persons having one-twentieth of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by RCW 24.06.105 may be conducted at a special meeting.

If the articles of incorporation or bylaws so provide, members or shareholders may participate in any meeting of members or shareholders by any means of communication by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other during the meeting. A member or shareholder participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

Sec. 6. RCW 24.06.110 and 2000 c 167 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The right of a class or classes of members or shareholders to vote may be limited, enlarged or denied to the extent specified in the articles of incorporation. Unless so limited, enlarged or denied, each member and each outstanding share of each class shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of members or shareholders. No member of a class may acquire any interest which will entitle him or her to a greater vote than any other member of the same class.

A member or shareholder may vote in person or, unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws otherwise provide, may vote by mail, by electronic transmission, or by proxy executed in writing by the member or shareholder or by his or her duly authorized attorney-in-fact: PROVIDED, That no proxy shall be valid for more than eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise specified in the proxy.

If a member or shareholder may vote by proxy, the proxy may be given:

(1) Executing a writing authorizing another person or persons to act for the member or shareholder as proxy. Execution may be accomplished by the member or shareholder or the member's or shareholder's authorized officer, director, employee, or agent signing the writing or causing his or her signature to be affixed to the writing by any reasonable means including, but not limited to, facsimile signature; or

(2) Authorizing another person or persons to act for the member or shareholder as proxy by transmitting or authorizing the transmission of electronic transmission to the person who will be the holder of the proxy, or to a proxy solicitation firm, proxy support service organization, or like agent duly authorized by the person who will be the holder of the proxy to receive the transmission. If it is determined that the electronic transmissions are valid, the inspector of election or, if there are no inspectors, any other officers or agent of the corporation making that determination on behalf of the corporation shall specify the information upon which they relied. The corporation shall require the holders of proxies received by electronic transmission to provide to the corporation copies of the electronic transmission and the corporation shall retain copies of the electronic transmission for a reasonable period of time.
The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide that in all elections for directors every person entitled to vote shall have the right to cumulate his or her vote and to give one candidate a number of votes equal to his or her vote multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

Sec. 7. RCW 24.06.115 and 2000 c 167 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state, and upon such notice as the bylaws may prescribe. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transacting of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Except where a director or officer is to be voted upon, such vote may be taken by mail or by electronic transmission if the name of each candidate for such office is included on the ballot and the voter is given an opportunity to mark the ballot as to the candidate with whom he or she desires to vote. The vote shall be counted as cast and shall be counted as if cast by the registered owner of such shares or members, and counts of votes and percentages of total voting power voting.

The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide that in all elections for directors every person entitled to vote shall have the right to cumulate his or her vote and to give one candidate a number of votes equal to his or her vote multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

Sec. 7. RCW 24.06.115 and 2000 c 167 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state, and upon such notice as the bylaws may prescribe. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transacting of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, any or all directors may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating can hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 24.06 RCW to read as follows:

(a) In good faith;
(b) With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
(c) In a manner the director or officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging the duties of a director or an officer, a director or officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director or officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; or
(b) Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director or officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence.

In addition, a director is entitled to rely on a committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

(3) A director or an officer is not acting in good faith if the director or officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) of this section unwarranted.

(4) A director or officer is not liable for any action taken as a director or as an officer, or any failure to take any action, if the director or officer performed the duties of the director's or officer's office in compliance with this section.

Sec. 10. RCW 24.06.185 and 1969 ex.s. c 120 s 37 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation from time to time and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as are lawful under this chapter. A member or shareholder of a corporation does not have a vested property right resulting from any provision in the articles of incorporation.

Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be made in the following manner:

A corporation's board of directors may amend the articles of incorporation to change the name of the corporation, without seeking member or shareholder approval. With respect to amendments other than to change the name of the corporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members and shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice or, if specifically permitted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, notice by electronic transmission, setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each member and shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members and shareholders. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members or shareholders present in person or by mail or by electronic transmission at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast: PROVIDED, That when any class of shares or members is entitled to vote thereon by class, the proposed amendment must receive at least two-thirds of the votes of the members or shareholders of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class, who are present in person, by mail, by electronic transmission, or represented by proxy at such meeting.

Any number of amendments may be submitted and voted upon at any one meeting.

Sec. 12. RCW 24.06.195 and 2000 c 167 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate originals by the corporation by an officer of the corporation, and shall set forth:

If specifically permitted by the articles of incorporation (may provide that) or bylaws, whenever proposals or directors or officers are to be voted upon, such vote may be taken by mail or by electronic transmission if the name of each candidate and the text of each proposal to be so voted upon are set forth in a writing accompanying or contained in the notice of meeting. Persons voting by mail or by electronic transmission shall be deemed present for all purposes of quorum, count of votes and percentages of total voting power voting.

The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide that in all elections for directors every person entitled to vote shall have the right to cumulate his or her vote and to give one candidate a number of votes equal to his or her vote multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.
(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) Any amendment so adopted.

(3) If an amendment so adopted was by the board of directors without being submitted for member or shareholder action, a statement to that effect and that member or shareholder action was not required; or a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members and shareholders at which the amendment was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such amendment received at least two-thirds of the votes which members or shareholders of the corporation, and of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class, present at such meeting in person, by mail, or represented by proxy were cast, or a statement that such amendment was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members and shareholders entitled to vote with respect thereto.

Sec. 13. RCW 24.06.245 and 1969 ex c 120 s 49 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member or shareholder of a corporation shall have the right to dissent from any of the following corporate actions:

(1) Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party other than a merger or consolidation in which all members or shareholders of the corporation have the right to continue their membership or shareholder status in the surviving corporation on substantially similar terms; or

(2) Any sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation not made in the usual and regular course of its business, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to an order of a court having jurisdiction in the premises or a sale for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all of the net proceeds of sale be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of sale; or

(3) Any amendment to the articles of incorporation ((which changes voting or property rights of members or shareholders other than by changing the number of memberships or shares or classes of either thereof)) that materially reduces the number of shares owned by a shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share is to be acquired by the corporation for cash; or

(4) Any amendment to the articles of incorporation which reorganizes a corporation under the provisions of this chapter

Any corporate action taken pursuant to a member or shareholder vote to the extent that the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting members or shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their membership or shares.

A member or shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the member's or shareholder's membership interest or shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the member's or shareholder's entitlement unless the action fails to comply with the procedural requirements imposed by this title, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, or is fraudulent with respect to the member or shareholder or the corporation.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the members or shareholders of the surviving corporation in a merger if such corporation is on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic or foreign, which are parties to the merger((... if a vote of the members and shareholders of such corporation is not necessary to authorize such merger)).

The meeting notice for any meeting at which a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights is submitted to a vote must state that members or shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights and be accompanied by a copy of RCW 24.06.250.

Sec. 14. RCW 24.06.250 and 2000 c 167 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

Any member or shareholder electing to exercise such right of dissent shall file with the corporation, prior to or at the meeting of members and shareholders at which such proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such proposed corporate action. If such proposed corporate action be approved by the required vote and such member or shareholder shall not have voted in favor thereof, such member or shareholder may, within ten days after the date on which the vote was taken, (or if a corporate action is to be merged without a vote of its members and shareholders into another corporation, any other members or shareholders may, within fifteen days after the plan of such merger shall have been mailed or sent by electronic transmission to such members and shareholders)) make written demand on the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, on the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of such member's membership interest or of such shareholder's shares, and, if such proposed corporate action is effected, such corporation shall pay to such member, upon surrender of his or her membership certificate, if any, or to such shareholder, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares, the fair value thereof as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the proposed corporate action, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such corporate action. Any member or shareholder failing to make demand within the ten day period shall be bound by the terms of the proposed corporate action. Any member or shareholder making such demand shall thereafter be entitled only to payment as in this section provided and shall not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a member or shareholder.

No such demand shall be withdrawn unless the corporation shall consent thereto. The right of such member or shareholder to be paid the fair value of his or her membership or shares shall cease and his or her status as a member or shareholder shall be restored, without prejudice to any corporate proceedings which may have been taken during the interim, if:

(1) Such demand shall be withdrawn upon consent; or

(2) The proposed corporate action shall be abandoned or rescinded or the members or shareholders shall revoke the authority to effect such action; or

(3) In the case of a merger, on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the surviving corporation is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic and foreign, that are parties to the merger; or

(4) (No demand or petition for the determination of fair value by a court shall have been made or filed within the time provided by this section; or

(b)) A court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that such member or shareholder is not entitled to the relief provided by this section.

Within ten days after such corporate action is effected, the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, shall give written notice thereof to each dissenting member or shareholder who has made demand as herein provided, and shall make a written offer to each such member or shareholder to pay for such shares or membership at a specified price deemed by such corporation to be the fair value thereof. Except in cases where the fair value payable to dissenters is fixed in the articles of incorporation or pursuant to RCW 24.06.255, such notice and offer shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation in which the member ((has)) holds his or her membership or ((the shares of which)) the dissenting shareholder holds shares, as of the latest available date and not more than twelve months prior to the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement of such corporation for the twelve months’ period ended on the date of such balance sheet.

If the fair value payable to dissenting members or shareholders is fixed in the articles of incorporation or pursuant to RCW 24.06.255, or if within thirty days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the fair value of such shares or membership is agreed upon between any such dissenting member or shareholder and the corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of the membership certificate, if any, or upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting member or shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such membership or shares.

If the fair value payable to dissenting members or shareholders is not fixed in the articles of incorporation or pursuant to RCW 24.06.255, and within such period of thirty days a dissenting member or shareholder and the corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting member or shareholder shall be entitled to make written demand to the corporation, ((within thirty days after receipt of written demand from any dissenting member or shareholder given)) within sixty days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, requesting that the incorporation petition for a determination of the fair value by a court. If such a demand is not timely made on the corporation, the right of such member or shareholder to demand to be paid the fair value of his or her membership or shares shall be forever barred. Within thirty days after receipt of such a written demand from any dissenting member or shareholder, the corporation shall, or at its election at any time within ((such period of sixty)) ninety days after the date on which such corporate action was effected may, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in this state where the registered office of the corporation is located praying that the fair value of such membership or shares be found and determined. If, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, such petition shall be filed in the county where the registered office of the domestic corporation was last located. If the corporation shall fail to institute the proceeding as herein provided, any dissenting member or shareholder may do so in the name of the corporation. All dissenting members and shareholders, wherever residing, shall be made parties to the proceeding as an action against their memberships or shares quasi in rem. A copy of the petition shall be served on each dissenting member and shareholder who is a resident of this state and shall be served by registered or certified mail on each dissenting member or shareholder who is a nonresident. Service on nonresidents shall also be made by publication as provided by law. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive. All members and shareholders who are parties to the proceeding shall be entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of the fair value of their shares. The court may, if it so elects, appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have such power and authority as shall be specified in the order of their appointment or an amendment thereof. The judgment shall be payable only upon and concurrently with the surrender to the corporation of the membership certificate, if any, or of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder or member shall cease to have any interest in such shares or membership.

The judgment shall include an allowance for interest at such rate as the court may find to be fair and equitable in all the circumstances, from the date on which the vote was taken on the proposed corporate action to the date of payment. The costs and expenses of any such proceeding shall be determined by the court and shall be assessed against the corporation, but all or any part of such costs and expenses may be apportioned and assessed as the court may deem equitable against any or all of the dissenting members and shareholders who are parties to the proceeding to whom the corporation shall have made an offer to pay for membership or shares if the court shall find that the action of such members or shareholders in failing to accept such offer was arbitrary or vexatious or not in good faith. Such expenses shall include reasonable compensation for and reasonable expenses of the appraisers, but shall exclude the fees and expenses of counsel for and experts employed by any party; but if the fair value of the memberships or shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which the corporation offered to pay therefor, or if no offer was made, the court in its discretion may award to any member or shareholder who is a party to the proceeding such sum as the court may determine to be reasonable compensation to any expert or experts employed by the member or shareholder in the proceeding.

Within twenty days after demanding payment for his or her shares or membership, each member and shareholder demanding payment shall submit the certificate or certificates representing his or her membership or shares to the corporation for notation thereon that such demand has been made. His or her failure to do so shall, at the option of the corporation, terminate his or her rights under this section unless a court of competent jurisdiction, for good and sufficient cause shown, shall otherwise direct. If membership or shares represented by a certificate on which notation has been so made shall be transferred, each new certificate issued therefor shall bear a similar notation, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of such membership or shares, and a transferee of such membership or shares shall acquire by such transfer no rights in the corporation other than those which the original dissenting member or shareholder had after making demand for payment of the fair value thereof.

Sec. 15. RCW 24.06.255 and 1969 ex.s. c 120 s 51 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any provision in this chapter for the payment of fair value to a dissenting member or shareholder, (1) the articles of incorporation may provide that a dissenting member or shareholder shall be limited to a return of a lesser amount, but in no event shall a dissenting member or shareholder be limited to a return of less than the consideration paid to the corporation for the membership or shares which he or she holds unless the fair value of the membership or shares is less than the consideration paid to the corporation, and (2) the fair value payable to a dissenting member of a consumer cooperative shall be a fixed amount equal to the consideration paid to the corporation for the member’s current membership unless the articles of incorporation expressly provide for a greater or lesser amount.

(3) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(4) "Equitable distribution" or "distribute equitably" means siting or locating community facilities in a manner that will not cause a disproportionate grouping of facilities in any single geographic region, or in any community or neighborhood within a jurisdiction.

(a) The locations of existing residential facilities owned, operated by, or operated under contract with the department;

(b) The locations of other projected residential facilities owned, operated by, or operated under contract with the department;

(c) The number of juvenile registered sex offenders classified as level II or III or registered as homeless per thousand persons residing in the jurisdiction;

(d) The number of juvenile violent offenders under parole or probation per thousand persons residing in the jurisdiction; and

(e) The number of juvenile offenders sentenced or adjudicated per thousand persons residing in the jurisdiction.

The process shall include, at a minimum, public meetings in the local communities affected, as well as opportunities for written and oral comments, in the following manner:

(a) If there are more than three sites initially selected as potential locations and the selection process by the secretary or a service provider reduces the number of possible sites for a community facility to no fewer than three, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall notify the public of the possible siting and hold at least two public hearings in each community where a community facility may be sited at least forty-five days before a final selection is made.

(b) When the secretary or service provider has determined the community facility's location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall hold at least one additional public hearing in the community where the community facility will be sited.

(c) When the secretary has entered negotiations with a service provider and only one site is under consideration, then at least two public hearings shall be held.

(d) To provide adequate notice of and opportunity for interested persons to comment on a proposed location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall provide at least fourteen days' advance notice of the public hearings to at least the following:

Written comments must be submitted not later than thirty days following the date notice is issued pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The department must consider the testimony received at the public hearings and any written comments submitted before making a final selection of the site for the location or relocation of a community facility. The department shall issue a written analysis of the final selection, including how the selection was consistent with the requirements of section 2 of this act.

(5) Before initiating the process in subsection (2) of this section, the department shall contact local government planning agencies in the communities containing the proposed community facility. The department shall coordinate with local government agencies to ensure that opportunities are provided for effective citizen input and to reduce the duplication of notice and meetings.

When the department contracts for the operation of a work release facility or other community-based facility that is not owned or operated by the department, the department shall require as part of its contract that the contracting entity comply with all the public notification and public hearing requirements as provided in this section for each located and relocated work release or other community-based facility.

Community facilities and work release facilities are correctional facilities and, as such, are essential public facilities subject to the provisions of RCW 36.70A.200.

Within twelve months of the completion of any revisions to the county comprehensive plan under subsection (1) of this section, or if no county revision was necessary within twelve months of the date established in RCW 36.70A.130, the county and each affected city within the county shall adopt or revise development regulations, including but not limited to zoning regulations and design standards, as necessary to implement the requirements of this act.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to promote and facilitate the orderly development and economic stability of its communities. Local governments need the ability to raise revenue to finance public improvements that are designed to encourage economic growth and development in geographic areas characterized by high levels of unemployment and stagnate employment and income growth. The construction of necessary public improvements in accordance with local economic development plans will encourage investment in job-producing private development and expand the public tax base.

(2) It is the purpose of this chapter:

(a) To encourage taxing districts to cooperate in the allocation of future tax revenues that are used to finance public improvements designed to encourage private development in selected areas, in particular in those local governments that are located adjacent to another state or international border;

(b) To assist those local governments that have a competitive disadvantage in its ability to attract business, private investment, or commercial development due to its location near a state or international border; and"
To prevent or arrest the decay of selected areas due to the inability of existing financial methods to provide needed public improvements, and to encourage private investment designed to promote and facilitate the orderly redevelopment of selected areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(6) "Regular property taxes" means regular property taxes as defined in RCW 84.04.140, except: (a) Regular property taxes levied by port districts or public utility districts specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness; and (b) regular property taxes levied by the state for the support of the common schools under RCW 84.52.065.

(8) "Tax allocation revenues" means those tax revenues derived from the imposition of regular property taxes on the increment value and distributed to finance public improvements.

(2) The public improvements proposed to be financed in whole or in part using community revitalization financing are expected to encourage private development within the increment area and to increase the fair market value of real property within the increment area;

(3) Private development that is anticipated to occur within the increment area, as a result of the public improvements, will be consistent with the countywide planning policy adopted by the county under RCW 36.70A.210 and the local government’s comprehensive plan and development regulations adopted under chapter 36.70A RCW;

(4) Taxing districts, in the aggregate, that levy at least seventy percent of the regular property tax within which the increment area is located approves the community revitalization financing of the project under section 5(1) of this act; and

(5) In an increment area that includes any portion of a fire protection district as defined in Title 52 RCW, the fire protection district must approve their participation in the community revitalization financing of the project under this act. Approval by the fire protection district shall be considered as part of the required participation by taxing districts under subsection (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Public improvements that are financed with community revitalization financing may be undertaken and coordinated with other programs or efforts undertaken by the local government and other taxing districts and may be funded in part from revenue sources other than community revitalization financing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before adopting an ordinance creating the increment area, a local government must:

(1) Obtain written agreement for the use of community revitalization financing to finance all or a portion of the costs of the designated public improvements from taxing districts that, in the aggregate, levy at least seventy percent of the regular property tax on property within the increment area. A signed, written agreement from taxing districts that in the aggregate levy at least seventy percent of the regular property tax within the increment area, constitutes concurrence by all taxing districts in the increment area in the public improvement and participation in the public improvement to the extent of providing limited funding under community revitalization financing authorized under this chapter. The agreement must be authorized by the governing body of taxing districts that in the aggregate levy at least seventy percent of the regular property tax on property within the increment area;

(2) Hold a public hearing on the proposed financing of the public improvement in whole or in part with community revitalization financing. Notice of the public hearing must be published in the official local government newspaper at least ten days before the public hearing and posted in at least six conspicuous public places located in the proposed increment area. Notices must describe the contemplated public improvements, estimate the costs of the public improvements, describe the portion of the costs of the public improvements to be borne by community revitalization financing, describe any other sources of revenue to finance the public improvements, describe the boundaries of the proposed increment area, and estimate the period during which community revitalization financing is contemplated to be used. The public hearing may be held by either the governing body of the local government, or a committee of the governing body that includes at least a majority of the whole governing body; and

(3) Adopt an ordinance establishing the increment area that describes the public improvements, describes the boundaries of the increment area, estimates the cost of the public improvements and the portion of these costs to be financed by community revitalization financing, estimates the time during which regular property taxes are to be apportioned, provides the date when the apportionment of the regular property taxes will commence, and finds that the conditions of section 3 of this act are met.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The local government shall:

(1) Publish notice in a legal newspaper circulated within the increment area that describes the public improvement, describes the boundaries of the increment area, and identifies the location and times where the ordinance and other public information concerning the public improvement may be inspected; and

(2) Deliver a certified copy of the ordinance to the county treasurer, the county assessor, and the governing body of each taxing district within which the increment area is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Commencing on the later of either the date established in the ordinance creating the increment area, or the first day of the calendar year following the passage of the ordinance, the county treasurer shall distribute receipts from regular taxes imposed on real property located in the increment area as follows:

(a) Each taxing district shall receive that portion of its regular property taxes produced by the rate of tax levied by or for the taxing district on the tax allocation base value for that community revitalization financing project in the taxing district, or upon the total assessed value of real property in the taxing district, whichever is smaller; and

(b) The local government that created the increment area shall receive an additional portion of the regular property taxes levied by or for each taxing district upon the increment value within the increment area. However, the local government that created the increment area may agree to receive less than the full amount of this portion as long as bond debt service, reserve, and other bond covenant requirements are satisfied, in which case the balance of these tax receipts shall be allocated to the taxing districts that imposed regular property taxes, or have regular property taxes imposed for them, in the increment area for collection that year in proportion to their regular tax levy rates for collection that year. The local government may request that the treasurer transfer this additional portion of the property taxes to its designated agent. The portion of the tax receipts distributed to the local government or its agent under this subsection (1)(b) may only be expended to finance public improvement costs associated with the public improvements financed in whole or in part by community revitalization financing.

(2) The county assessor shall allocate twenty-five percent of any increased real property value occurring in the increment area to the tax allocation base value and seventy-five percent to the increment value. This section does not authorize revaluations of real property by the assessor for property taxation that are not made in accordance with the assessor's revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW or under other authorized revaluation procedures.

(3) The apportionment of increases in assessed valuation in an increment area, and the associated distribution to the local government of receipts from regular property taxes that are imposed on the increment value, must cease when tax allocation revenues are no longer necessary or obligated to pay the costs of the public improvements. Any excess tax allocation revenues and earnings on the tax allocation revenues remaining at the time the apportionment of tax receipts terminates must be returned to the county treasurer and distributed to the taxing districts that imposed regular property taxes, or had regular property taxes imposed for it, in the increment area for collection that year, in proportion to the rates of their regular property tax levies for collection that year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A local government designating an increment area and authorizing the use of community revitalization financing may incur general indebtedness, and issue general obligation bonds, to finance the public improvements and retire the indebtedness in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues it receives, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The ordinance adopted by the local government creating the increment area and authorizing the use of community revitalization financing indicates an intent to incur this indebtedness and the maximum amount of this indebtedness that is contemplated; and

(b) The local government includes this statement of the intent in all notices required by section 5 of this act.

(2) The general indebtedness incurred under subsection (1) of this section may be payable from other tax revenues, the full faith and credit of the local government, and nontax income, revenues, fees, and rents from the public improvements, as well as contributions, grants, and nontax money available to the local government for payment of costs of the public improvements or associated debt service on the general indebtedness.

(3) In addition to the requirements in subsection (1) of this section, a local government designating an increment area and authorizing the use of community revitalization financing may require the nonpublic participant to provide adequate security to protect the public investment in the public improvement within the increment area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A direct or collateral attack on a public improvement, public improvement ordinance, or increment area purported to be authorized or created in conformance with applicable legal requirements, including this chapter, may not be commenced more than thirty days after publication of notice as required by section 6 of this act.

The board may, within the constraints of available rural arterial trust funds, consider additional projects for authorization upon a clear and conclusive showing by the submitting county that the proposed project is of an emergent nature and that its need was unable to be anticipated at the time the six-year program of the county was developed. The proposed projects shall be evaluated on the basis of the priority rating factors specified in RCW 36.79.080.

The mileage to be used for these computations shall be as shown in the county road log as maintained by the county road administration board as of July 1, 1985, and each two years thereafter. Each county shall be responsible for submitting changes, corrections, and deletions as regards the county road log to the county road administration board. Upon computation of the actual allocation factors of the several counties, the county road administration board shall provide such factors to the state treasurer to be used in the computation of the counties' fuel tax allocation for the succeeding calendar year. The state treasurer shall adjust the fuel tax allocation of each county on January 1st of every year based solely upon the information provided by the county road administration board.

MOTION

Senator Brown moved that the following striking amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to promote and facilitate the orderly development and economic stability of its communities. Local governments need the ability to raise revenue to finance public improvements that are designed to encourage economic growth and development in geographic areas characterized by high levels of unemployment and stagnant employment and income growth. The construction of necessary public improvements in accordance with local economic development plans will encourage investment in job-producing private development and expand the public tax base.

(2) It is the purpose of this chapter:

(a) To encourage taxing districts to cooperate in the allocation of future tax revenues that are used to finance public improvements designed to encourage private development in selected areas, in particular in those local governments that are located adjacent to another state or international border;

(b) To assist those local governments that have a competitive disadvantage in its ability to attract business, private investment, or commercial development due to its location near a state or international border; and

(c) To prevent or arrest the decay of selected areas due to the inability of existing financial methods to provide needed public improvements, and to encourage private investment designed to promote and facilitate the orderly redevelopment of selected areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise."

(6) "Regular property taxes" means regular property taxes as defined in RCW 84.04.140, except: (a) Regular property taxes levied by port districts or public utility districts specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness; and (b) regular property taxes levied by the state for the support of the common schools under RCW 84.52.043. Regular property taxes do not include excess property tax levies that are exempt from the aggregate limits for junior and senior taxing districts as provided in RCW 84.52.043.

(7) "Tax allocation base value" means the true and fair value of real property located within an increment area for taxes imposed in the year in which the increment area is created, plus twenty-five percent of any increase in the true and fair value of real property located within an increment area that is placed on the assessment rolls after the increment area is created.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A local government may finance public improvements using community revitalization financing subject to the following conditions:

(1) The local government adopts an ordinance designating an increment area within its boundaries and specifying the public improvements proposed to be financed in whole or in part with the use of community revitalization financing;

(2) The public improvements proposed to be financed in whole or in part using community revitalization financing are expected to encourage private development within the increment area and to increase the fair market value of real property within the increment area;
(3) Private development that is anticipated to occur within the increment area, as a result of the public improvements, will be consistent with the countywide planning policy adopted by the county under RCW 36.70A.210 and the local government’s comprehensive plan and development regulations adopted under chapter 36.70A RCW;

(4) Taxing districts, in the aggregate, that levy at least seventy-five percent of the regular property tax within which the increment area is located approves the community revitalization financing of the project under section 5(1) of this act; and

(5) In an increment area that includes any portion of a fire protection district as defined in Title 52 RCW, the fire protection district must approve their participation in the community revitalization financing of the project under this act. Approval by the fire protection district shall be considered as part of the required participation by taxing districts under subsection (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Public improvements that are financed with community revitalization financing may be undertaken and coordinated with other programs or efforts undertaken by the local government and other taxing districts and may be funded in part from revenue sources other than community revitalization financing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Before adopting an ordinance creating the increment area, a local government must:

(1) Obtain written agreement for the use of community revitalization financing to finance all or a portion of the costs of the designated public improvements from taxing districts that, in the aggregate, levy at least seventy-five percent of the regular property tax on property within the increment area. A signed, written agreement from taxing districts that in the aggregate levy at least seventy-five percent of the regular property tax within the increment area, constitutes concurrence by all taxing districts in the increment area in the public improvement and participation in the public improvement to the extent of providing limited funding under community revitalization financing authorized under this chapter. The agreement must be authorized by the governing body of taxing districts that in the aggregate levy at least seventy-five percent of the regular property tax on property within the increment area;

(2) Hold a public hearing on the proposed financing of the public improvement in whole or in part community revitalization financing. Notice of the public hearing must be published in a legal newspaper of general circulation within the proposed increment area at least ten days before the public hearing and posted in at least six conspicuous public places located in the proposed increment area. Notices must describe the contemplated public improvements, estimate the costs of the public improvements, describe the portion of the costs of the public improvements to be borne by community revitalization financing, describe any other sources of revenue to finance the public improvements, describe the boundaries of the proposed increment area, and estimate the period during which community revitalization financing is contemplated to be used. The public hearing may be held by either the governing body of the local government, or a committee of the governing body that includes at least a majority of the whole governing body; and

(3) Adopt an ordinance establishing the increment area that describes the public improvements, describes the boundaries of the increment area, estimates the cost of the public improvements and the portion of these costs to be financed by community revitalization financing, estimates the time during which regular property taxes are to be apportioned, provides the date when the apportionment of the regular property taxes will commence, and finds that the conditions of section 3 of this act are met.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The local government shall:

(1) Publish notice in a legal newspaper of general circulation within the increment area that describes the public improvement, describes the boundaries of the increment area, and identifies the location and times where the ordinance and other public information concerning the public improvement may be inspected; and

(2) Deliver a certified copy of the ordinance to the county treasurer, the county assessor, and the governing body of each taxing district within which the increment area is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Commencing in the calendar year following the passage of the ordinance, the county treasurer shall distribute receipts from regular taxes imposed on real property located in the increment area as follows:

(a) Each taxing district shall receive that portion of its regular property taxes produced by the rate of tax levied by or for the taxing district on the tax allocation base value for that community revitalization financing project in the taxing district, or upon the total assessed value of real property in the taxing district, whichever is smaller; and

(b) The local government that created the increment area shall receive an additional portion of the regular property taxes levied by or for each taxing district upon the increment value within the increment area. However, the local government that created the increment area may agree to receive less than the full amount of this portion as long as bond debt service, reserve, and other bond covenant requirements are satisfied, in which case the balance of these tax receipts shall be allocated to the taxing districts that imposed regular property taxes, or have regular property taxes imposed for them, in the increment area for collection that year in proportion to their regular tax levy rates for collection that year. The local government may request that the treasurer transfer this additional portion of the property taxes to its designated agent. The portion of the tax receipts distributed to the local government or its agent under this subsection (1)(b) may only be expended to finance public improvement costs associated with the public improvements financed in whole or in part by community revitalization financing.
(2) The county assessor shall allocate twenty-five percent of any increased real property value occurring in the increment area to the tax allocation base value and seventy-five percent to the increment value. This section does not authorize revaluations of real property by the assessor for property taxation that are not made in accordance with the assessor's revaluation plan under chapter 84.41 RCW or under other authorized revaluation procedures.

(3) The apportionment of increases in assessed valuation in an increment area, and the associated distribution to the local government of receipts from regular property taxes that are imposed on the increment value, must cease when tax allocation revenues are no longer necessary or obligated to pay the costs of the public improvements. Any excess tax allocation revenues and earnings on the tax allocation revenues remaining at the time the apportionment of tax receipts terminates must be returned to the county treasurer and distributed to the taxing districts that imposed regular property taxes, or had regular property taxes imposed for it, in the increment area for collection that year, in proportion to the rates of their regular property tax levies for collection that year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A local government designating an increment area and authorizing the use of community revitalization financing may incur general indebtedness, and issue general obligation bonds, to finance the public improvements and retire the indebtedness in whole or in part from tax allocation revenues it receives, subject to the following requirements:

(a) The ordinance adopted by the local government creating the increment area and authorizing the use of community revitalization financing indicates an intent to incur this indebtedness and the maximum amount of this indebtedness that is contemplated; and

(b) The local government includes this statement of the intent in all notices required by section 5 of this act.

(2) The general indebtedness incurred under subsection (1) of this section may be payable from other tax revenues, the full faith and credit of the local government, and nontax income, revenues, fees, and rents from the public improvements, as well as contributions, grants, and nontax money available to the local government for payment of costs of the public improvements or associated debt service on the general indebtedness.

(3) In addition to the requirements in subsection (1) of this section, a local government designating an increment area and authorizing the use of community revitalization financing may require the nonpublic participant to provide adequate security to protect the public investment in the public improvement within the increment area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A direct or collateral attack on a public improvement, public improvement ordinance, or increment area purported to be authorized or created in conformance with applicable legal requirements, including this chapter, may not be commenced more than thirty days after publication of notice as required by section 6 of this act.

The board, within the constraints of available rural arterial trust funds, may consider additional projects for authorization upon a clear and conclusive showing by the submitting county that the proposed project is of an emergent nature and that its need was unable to be anticipated at the time the six-year program of the county was developed. The proposed projects shall be evaluated on the basis of the priority rating factors specified in RCW 36.79.080.

MOTION

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) Whenever any public service company shall file with the commission any schedule, classification, rule or regulation, the effect of which is to change any rate, charge, rental or toll theretofore charged, the commission shall have power, either upon its own motion or upon complaint, upon notice, to enter upon a hearing concerning such proposed change and the reasonableness and justness thereof, and pending such hearing and the decision thereon the commission may suspend the operation of such rate, charge, rental or toll for a period not exceeding ten months from the time the same would otherwise go into effect, and after a full hearing the commission may make such order in reference thereto as would be provided in a hearing initiated after the same had become effective. The commission shall not suspend a tariff that makes a decrease in a rate, charge, rental, or toll filed by a telecommunications company pending investigation of the fairness, justness, and reasonableness of the decrease when the filing does not contain any offsetting increase to another rate, charge, rental, or toll and the filing company agrees to not file for an increase to any rate, charge, rental, or toll to recover the revenue deficit that results from the decrease for a period of one year. The filing company shall file with any decrease sufficient information as the commission by rule may require to demonstrate the decreased rate, charge, rental, or toll is above the long run incremental cost of the service. A tariff decrease that results in a rate that is below long run incremental cost, or is contrary to commission rule or order, or the requirements of this chapter, shall be rejected for filing and returned to the company. The commission may prescribe a different rate to be effective on the prospective date stated in its final order after its investigation, if it concludes based on the record that the originally filed and effective rate is unjust, unfair, or unreasonable.

For the purposes of this section, tariffs for the following telecommunications services, that temporarily waive or reduce charges for existing or new subscribers for a period not to exceed sixty days in order to promote the use of the services shall be considered tariffs that decrease rates, charges, rentals, or tolls:

(a) Custom calling service;
(b) Second access lines; or
(c) Other services the commission specifies by rule.

The commission may suspend any promotional tariff other than those listed in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

The commission may suspend the initial tariff filing of any water company removed from and later subject to commission jurisdiction because of the number of customers or the average annual gross revenue per customer provisions of RCW 80.04.010.

The commission may allow temporary rates during the suspension period. These rates shall not exceed the rates charged when the company was last regulated. Upon a showing of good cause by the company, the commission may establish a different level of temporary rates.

(2) At any hearing involving any change in any schedule, classification, rule or regulation the effect of which is to increase any rate, charge, rental or toll theretofore charged, the burden of proof to show that such increase is just and reasonable shall be upon the public service company.

(3) The implementation of mandatory local measured telecommunications service is a major policy change in available telecommunications service. The commission shall not accept for filing a price list, nor shall it accept for filing or approve, prior to June 1, (2004) 2004, a tariff filed by a telecommunications company which imposes mandatory local measured service on any customer or class of customers, except that, upon finding that it is in the public interest, the commission may accept for filing a price list or it may accept for filing and approve a tariff that imposes mandatory measured service for a telecommunications company's extended area service or foreign exchange service. This subsection does not apply to land, air, or marine mobile service, or to pay telephone service, or to any service which has been traditionally offered on a measured service basis.

(4) The implementation of Washington telephone assistance program service is a major policy change in available telecommunications service. The implementation of Washington telephone assistance program service will aid in achieving the stated goal of universal telephone service.

(5) If a utility claims a sales or use tax exemption on the pollution control equipment for an electrical generation facility and abandons the generation facility before the pollution control equipment is fully depreciated, any tariff filing for a rate increase to recover abandonment costs for the pollution control equipment shall be considered unjust and unreasonable for the purposes of this section.”

"Sec. 1. RCW 13.50.050 and 1999 c 198 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.
(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (12) of this section.
(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section, RCW 13.50.010, 13.40.215, and 4.24.550.
(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.
(5) Except as provided in RCW 4.24.550, information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.
(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.
(7) Upon the decision to arrest or the arrest, law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys may cooperate with schools in releasing information to a school pertaining to the investigation, diversion, and prosecution of a juvenile attending the school. Upon the decision to arrest or the arrest, incident reports may be released unless releasing the records would jeopardize the investigation or prosecution or endanger witnesses. If release of incident reports would jeopardize the investigation or prosecution or endanger witnesses, law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys may release information to the maximum extent possible to assist schools in protecting other students, staff, and school property.
(8) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion. When the offense is reported, the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.
(9) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.
(10) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal proceedings, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.
(11) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and, subject to subsection (23) of this section, order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.
(12) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (11) of this section if it finds that:
(a) For class B offenses other than sex offenses, since the last date of release from confinement, including full-time residential treatment, if any, or entry of disposition, the person has spent ten consecutive years in the community without committing any offense or crime that subsequently results in conviction. For class C offenses other than sex offenses, since the last date of release from confinement, including full-time residential treatment, if any, or entry of disposition, the person has spent five consecutive years in the community without committing any offense or crime that subsequently results in conviction. For diversions, since completion of the diversion agreement, the person has spent two consecutive years in the community without committing any offense or crime that subsequently results in conviction or diversion and the person is at least eighteen years old;
(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;
(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person;
(d) The person has not been convicted of a class A or sex offense; and
(e) Full restitution has been paid.

The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system may be computerized.
(13) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (11) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(14) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (11) of this section, it shall, subject to subsection (23) of this section, order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(15) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8) and subsection (23) of this section.

(16) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any charging of an adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW.

(17)(a) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted, subject to subsection (23) of this section, if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(b) A person twenty-three years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only referrals for diversion may request that the court order the records in those cases destroyed. The request shall be granted, subject to subsection (23) of this section, if the court finds that all diversion agreements have been successfully completed and no proceeding is pending against the person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense.

(18) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (17) of this section, it shall, subject to subsection (23) of this section, order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(19) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (17) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(20) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(21) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(22) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subsection (23) of this section and (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

(23) No identifying information held by the Washington state patrol in accordance with chapter 43.43 RCW is subject to destruction or sealing under this section. For the purposes of this subsection, identifying information includes photographs, fingerprints, palmprints, soleprints, toeprints and any other data that identifies a person by physical characteristics, name, birthdate or address, but does not include information regarding criminal activity, arrest, charging, diversion, conviction or other information about a person's treatment by the criminal justice system or about the person's behavior.

(24) Information identifying child victims under age eighteen who are victims of sexual assaults by juvenile offenders is confidential and not subject to release to the press or public without the permission of the child victim or the child's legal guardian. Identifying information includes the child victim's name, addresses, location, photographs, and in cases in which the child victim is a relative of the alleged perpetrator, identification of the relationship between the child and the alleged perpetrator. Information identifying a child victim of sexual assault may be released to law enforcement, prosecutors, judges, defense attorneys, or private or governmental agencies that provide services to the child victim of sexual assault.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.40.070 and 1997 c 338 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Complaints referred to the juvenile court alleging the commission of an offense shall be referred directly to the prosecutor. The prosecutor, upon receipt of a complaint, shall screen the complaint to determine whether:

(a) The alleged facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the court; and

(b) On a basis of available evidence there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile did commit the offense.

(2) If the identical alleged acts constitute an offense under both the law of this state and an ordinance of any city or county of this state, state law shall govern the prosecutor's screening and charging decision for both filed and diverted cases.
(3) If the requirements of subsections (1)(a) and (b) of this section are met, the prosecutor shall either file an information in juvenile court or divert the case, as set forth in subsections (5), (6), and (7) of this section. If the prosecutor finds that the requirements of subsection (1)(a) and (b) of this section are not met, the prosecutor shall maintain a record, for one year, of such decision and the reasons therefor. In lieu of filing an information or diverting an offense a prosecutor may file a motion to modify community supervision where such offense constitutes a violation of community supervision.

(4) An information shall be a plain, concise, and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and conform to chapter 10.37 RCW.

(5) Where a case is legally sufficient, the prosecutor shall file an information with the juvenile court if:

(a) An alleged offender is accused of a class A felony, a class B felony, an attempt to commit a class B felony, a class C felony listed in RCW 9.94A.440(2) as a crime against persons or listed in RCW 9A.46.060 as a crime of harassment, or a class C felony that is a violation of RCW 9.41.080 or 9.41.040(1)(b)(i); or

(b) An alleged offender is accused of a felony and has a criminal history of any felony, or at least two gross misdemeanors, or at least two misdemeanors; or

(c) An alleged offender has previously been committed to the department; or

(d) An alleged offender has been referred by a diversion unit for prosecution or desires prosecution instead of diversion; or

(e) An alleged offender has two or more diversion agreements on the alleged offender's criminal history; or

(f) A special allegation has been filed that the offender or an accomplice was armed with a firearm when the offense was committed.

(6) Where a case is legally sufficient the prosecutor shall divert the case if the alleged offense is a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or violation and the alleged offense is the offender's first offense or violation. If the alleged offender is charged with a related offense that must or may be filed under subsections (5) and (7) of this section, a case under this subsection may also be filed.

(7) Where a case is legally sufficient and falls into neither subsection (5) nor (6) of this section, it may be filed or diverted. In deciding whether to file or divert an offense under this section the prosecutor shall be guided only by the length, seriousness, and recency of the alleged offender's criminal history and the circumstances surrounding the commission of the alleged offense.

(8) Whenever a juvenile is placed in custody or, where not placed in custody, referred to a diversion interview, the parent or legal guardian of the juvenile shall be notified as soon as possible concerning the allegation made against the juvenile and the current status of the juvenile. Where a case involves victims of crimes against persons or victims whose property has not been recovered at the time a juvenile is referred to a diversion unit, the victim shall be notified of the referral and informed how to contact the unit.

(9) The responsibilities of the prosecutor under subsections (1) through (8) of this section may be performed by a juvenile court probation counselor for any complaint referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense which would not be a felony if committed by an adult, if the prosecutor has given sufficient written notice to the juvenile court that the prosecutor will not review such complaints.

(10) The prosecutor, juvenile court probation counselor, or diversion unit may, in exercising their authority under this section or RCW 13.40.080, refer juveniles to mediation or victim offender reconciliation programs. Such mediation or victim offender reconciliation programs shall be voluntary for victims.

Sec. 3. RCW 13.40.127 and 1997 c 338 s 21 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A juvenile is eligible for deferred disposition unless he or she:

(a) Is charged with a sex or violent offense;

(b) Has a criminal history which includes any felony;

(c) Has a prior deferred disposition or deferred adjudication; or

(d) Has two or more adjudications.

(2) The juvenile court may, upon motion at least fourteen days before commencement of trial and, after consulting the juvenile's custodial parent or parents or guardian and with the consent of the juvenile, continue the case for disposition for a period not to exceed one year from the date the juvenile is found guilty. The court shall consider whether the offender and the community will benefit from a deferred disposition before deferring the disposition.

(3) Any juvenile who agrees to a deferral of disposition shall:

(a) Stipulate to the admissibility of the facts contained in the written police report;

(b) Acknowledge that the report will be entered and used to support a finding of guilt and to impose a disposition if the juvenile fails to comply with terms of supervision; and

(c) Waive the following rights to: (i) A speedy disposition; and (ii) call and confront witnesses.
The adjudicatory hearing shall be limited to a reading of the court's record.

(4) Following the stipulation, acknowledgment, waiver, and entry of a finding or plea of guilt, the court shall defer entry of an order of disposition of the juvenile.

(5) Any juvenile granted a deferral of disposition under this section shall be placed under community supervision. The court may impose any conditions of supervision that it deems appropriate including posting a probation bond. Payment of restitution under RCW 13.40.190 shall be a condition of community supervision under this section.

(6) A parent who signed for a probation bond has the right to notify the counselor if the juvenile fails to comply with the bond or conditions of supervision. The counselor shall notify the court and surety of any failure to comply. A surety shall notify the court of the juvenile's failure to comply with the probation bond. The state shall bear the burden to prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the juvenile has failed to comply with the terms of community supervision.

(7) A juvenile's lack of compliance shall be determined by the judge upon written motion by the prosecutor or the juvenile's juvenile court community supervision counselor. If a juvenile fails to comply with terms of supervision, the court shall enter an order of disposition.

(8) At any time following deferral of disposition the court may, following a hearing, continue the case for an additional one-year period for good cause.

(9) At the conclusion of the period set forth in the order of deferral and upon a finding by the court of full compliance with conditions of supervision and payment of full restitution, the respondent's conviction shall be vacated and the court shall dismiss the case with prejudice."

The bill was read the second time.
MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following Committee on Agriculture and International Trade striking amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the growing and processing of food and agricultural products is the dominant industry in Washington state and a major employer in rural Washington. The legislature also finds that agriculture is a critical component of Washington's international trade industry, accounting for billions of dollars in exports every year. The legislature further finds that the export market for Washington's agricultural products has dropped significantly in recent years and that such a drop has negatively impacted the economy in Washington's agricultural regions. Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to enhance Washington's international trade of agricultural products by increasing funding for the Washington state department of agriculture's international marketing program in an effort to promote marketing of Washington's products and to assist the agricultural industry in efforts to reduce trade barriers that stand in the way of trade in new and emerging markets.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.23 RCW to read as follows:

There is created a market development and promotion matching fund program within the Washington state department of agriculture. The purpose of the program is to allow the department of agriculture and the agricultural industry to combine funds in order to enhance access to markets that are growth sales areas for the industry's product. The goal of the program is to expose buyers to Washington's diverse agricultural products. The agriculture industry may bring in buying missions, perform trade promotions in various markets, hire overseas contractors, and perform other marketing functions that help it target the correct buyer and market for its product.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.23 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that trade barriers have become an increasingly important issue in the agricultural arena. Further, the world trade organization highlighted the need for "a fair and level playing field." The legislature finds that both large and small commodity groups need adequate resources to address trade barrier issues.

(2) There is created within the department of agriculture a trade barrier matching fund program to assist agriculture industries in fighting trade barriers. The purpose of the program is to allow the department of agriculture and the agricultural industry to combine funds in order to address trade barriers issues impacting the agricultural industry.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill or chapter number, is not provided by June 30, 2001, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act is null and void.

The director or director's designee may waive these dealer plate issuance restrictions for a vehicle dealer if the waiver both serves the purposes of this chapter and is essential to the continuation of the business. The director shall adopt rules to implement this waiver.

(3) Motor vehicle dealer license plates may be used:

(d) Used on any vehicle sold to a resident of another state to transport such vehicle to that other state in lieu of a trip permit or in lieu of vehicle license plates obtained from that other state.
(e) Used on any new vehicle unless the vehicle dealer has provided the department a current service agreement with the manufacturer or distributor of that vehicle as provided in RCW 46.70.041(1)(k).

2. A description of the vehicle;
3. The name and address of the person from whom purchased;
4. The name of the legal owner, if any;
5. The name and address of the purchaser or lessee;
6. If purchased from a dealer, the name, business address, dealer license number, and resale tax number of the dealer;

9. The written agreement to allow a dealer to sell between the dealer and the consignor, or the listing dealer and the seller;

11. All sale documents, which shall show the full name of dealer employees involved in the sale or lease; and
12. Any additional information the department may require. However, the department may not require a dealer to collect or retain the hardback copy of a temporary license permit after the permanent license plates for a vehicle have been provided to the purchaser or lessee, if the dealer maintains some other copy of the temporary license permit together with a log of the permits issued.

Such records shall be maintained separate from all other business records of the dealer. Records older than two years may be kept at a location other than the dealer's place of business if those records are made available in hard copy for inspection within three calendar days, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, after a request by the director or the director's authorized agent. Records kept at the vehicle dealer's place of business must be available for inspection by the director or the director's authorized agent during normal business hours.

Dealers may maintain their recordkeeping and filing systems in accordance with their own particular business needs and practices. Nothing in this chapter requires dealers to maintain their records in any particular order or manner, as long as the records identified in this section are maintained in the dealership's recordkeeping system.

The title certificate issued for a vehicle possessed by a dealer and subject to a security interest shall be delivered to the secured party who upon request of the dealer's transferee shall, unless the transfer was a breach of the security agreement, either deliver the certificate to the transferee for transmission to the department, or upon receipt from the transferee of the owner's bill of sale or sale document, the transferee's application for a new certificate and the required fee, mail or deliver to the department. Failure of a dealer to deliver the title certificate to the secured party does not affect perfection of the security interest.

(1) Before the execution of a contract or chattel mortgage or the consummation of the sale or lease of any vehicle, the seller must furnish the buyer or lessee an itemization in writing signed by the seller separately disclosing to the buyer or lessee the finance charge, insurance costs, taxes, and other charges which are paid or to be paid by the buyer or lessee.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, an itemization of the various license and title fees paid or to be paid by the buyer or lessee, which itemization must be the same as that disclosed on the registration/application for title document issued by the department, may be required only on the title application at the time the application is submitted for title transfer. A vehicle dealer may not be required to separately or individually itemize the license and title fees on any other document, including but not limited to the purchase order and lease agreement. No fee itemization may be required on the temporary permit.

Sec. 10. RCW 46.70.180 and 1999 c 398 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

(b) That a certain percentage of the sale price of a vehicle may be financed when such financing is not offered in a single document evidencing the entire security transaction;

(c) That a certain percentage is the amount of the service charge to be charged for financing, without stating whether this percentage charge is a monthly amount or an amount to be charged per year;

(d) That a new vehicle will be sold for a certain amount above or below cost without computing cost as the exact amount of the factory invoice on the specific vehicle to be sold;

(e) That a vehicle will be sold upon a monthly payment of a certain amount, without including in the statement the number of payments of that same amount which are required to liquidate the unpaid purchase price.

(2) To incorporate within the terms of any purchase and sale or lease agreement any statement or representation with regard to the sale, lease, or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to terms that include as an added cost to the selling price or capitalized cost of a vehicle an amount for licensing or transfer of title of that vehicle which is not actually due to the state, unless such amount has in fact been paid by the dealer prior to such sale.

(3) To set up, promote, or aid in the promotion of a plan by which vehicles are to be sold or leased to a person for a consideration and upon further consideration that the purchaser or lessee agrees to secure one or more persons to participate in the plan by respectively making a similar purchase and in turn agreeing to secure one or more persons likewise to join in said plan, each purchaser or lessee being given the right to secure money, credits, goods, or something of value, depending upon the number of persons joining the plan.

(4) To commit, allow, or ratify any act of "bushing" which is defined as follows: Taking from a prospective buyer or lessee of a vehicle a written order or offer to purchase or lease, or a contract document signed by the buyer or lessee, which:

(a) Is subject to the dealer's, or his or her authorized representative's future acceptance, and the dealer fails or refuses within three calendar days, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and prior to any further negotiations with said buyer or lessee, either (i) to deliver to the buyer or lessee the dealer's signed acceptance, or (ii) to void the order, offer, or contract document and tender the return of any initial payment or security made or given by the buyer or lessee, including but not limited to money, check, promissory note, vehicle keys, a trade-in, or certificate of title to a trade-in;

(b) Permits the dealer to renegotiate a dollar amount specified as trade-in allowance on a vehicle delivered or to be delivered by the buyer or lessee as part of the purchase price or lease, for any reason except:

(i) Failure to disclose that the vehicle's certificate of ownership has been branded for any reason, including, but not limited to, status as a rebuilt vehicle as provided in RCW 46.12.050 and 46.12.075; or

(ii) Substantial physical damage or latent mechanical defect occurring before the dealer took possession of the vehicle and which could not have been reasonably discoverable at the time of the taking of the order, offer, or contract; or

(iii) Excessive additional miles or a discrepancy in the mileage. "Excessive additional miles" means the addition of five hundred miles or more, as reflected on the vehicle's odometer, between the time the vehicle was first valued by the dealer for purposes of determining its trade-in value and the time of actual delivery of the vehicle to the dealer. "A discrepancy in the mileage" means (A) a discrepancy between the mileage reflected on the vehicle's odometer and the stated mileage on the signed odometer statement; or (B) a discrepancy between the mileage stated on the signed odometer statement and the actual mileage on the vehicle; or

(c) Fails to comply with the obligation of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer requiring the furnishing of services or repairs within a reasonable time.

(5) To commit any offense relating to odometers, as such offenses are defined in RCW 46.37.540, 46.37.550, 46.37.560, and 46.37.570. A violation of this subsection is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) For any vehicle dealer or vehicle salesperson to refuse to furnish, upon request of a prospective purchaser or lessee, for vehicles previously registered to a business or governmental entity, the name and address of the business or governmental entity.

(7) To commit any other offense under RCW 46.37.423, 46.37.424, or 46.37.425.

(8) To commit any offense relating to a dealer's temporary license permit, including but not limited to failure to properly complete each such permit, or the issuance of more than one such permit on any one vehicle. However, a dealer may issue a second temporary permit on a vehicle if the following conditions are met:

(a) The lienholder fails to deliver the vehicle title to the dealer within the required time period;
(b) The dealer has satisfied the lien; and
(c) The dealer has proof that payment of the lien was made within two calendar days, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, after the sales contract has been executed by all parties and all conditions and contingencies in the sales contract have been met or otherwise satisfied.

(9) For a dealer, (salesman) salesperson, or mobile home manufacturer, having taken an instrument or cash "on deposit" from a purchaser or lessee prior to the delivery of the bargained-for vehicle, to commingle the "on deposit" funds with assets of the dealer, (salesman) salesperson, or mobile home manufacturer instead of holding the "on deposit" funds as trustee in a separate trust account until the purchaser or lessee has taken delivery of the bargained-for vehicle. Delivery of a manufactured home shall be deemed to occur in accordance with RCW 46.70.135(5). Failure, immediately upon receipt, to endorse "on deposit" instruments to such a trust account, or to set aside "on deposit" cash for deposit in such trust account, and failure to deposit such instruments or cash in such trust account by the close of banking hours on the day following receipt thereof, shall be evidence of intent to commit this unlawful practice: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a motor vehicle dealer may keep a separate trust account which equals his or her customary total customer deposits for vehicles for future delivery. For purposes of this section, "on deposit" funds received from a purchaser of a manufactured home means those funds that a seller requires a purchaser to advance before ordering the manufactured home, but does not include any loan proceeds or moneys that might have been paid on an installment contract.

(10) For a dealer or manufacturer to fail to comply with the obligations of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer or manufacturer requiring the furnishing of goods and services or repairs within a reasonable period of time, or to fail to furnish to a purchaser or lessee, all parts which attach to the manufactured unit including but not limited to the undercarriage, and all items specified in the terms of a sales or lease agreement signed by the seller and buyer or lessee.

(11) For a vehicle dealer to pay to or receive from any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation acting, either directly or through a subsidiary, as a buyer's agent for consumers, any compensation, fee, purchase moneys or funds that have been deposited into or withdrawn out of any account controlled or used by any buyer's agent, gratuity, or reward in connection with the purchase ((sales), sale, or lease of a new motor vehicle.

(12) For a buyer's agent, acting directly or through a subsidiary, to pay to or to receive from any motor vehicle dealer any compensation, fee, gratuity, or reward in connection with the purchase ((sales), sale, or lease of a new motor vehicle. In addition, it is unlawful for any buyer's agent to engage in any of the following acts on behalf of or in the name of the consumer:

(a) Receiving or paying any purchase moneys or funds into or out of any account controlled or used by any buyer's agent;
(b) Signing any vehicle purchase orders, sales contracts, leases, odometer statements, or title documents, or having the name of the buyer's agent appear on the vehicle purchase order, sales contract, lease, or title; or
(c) Signing any other documentation relating to the purchase, sale, lease, or transfer of any new motor vehicle.

It is unlawful for a buyer's agent to use a power of attorney obtained from the consumer to accomplish or effect the purchase, sale, or transfer of ownership documents of any new motor vehicle by any means which would otherwise be prohibited under (a) through (c) of this subsection. However, the buyer's agent may use a power of attorney for physical delivery of motor vehicle license plates to the consumer.

Further, it is unlawful for a buyer's agent to engage in any false, deceptive, or misleading advertising, disseminated in any manner whatsoever, including but not limited to making any claim or statement that the buyer's agent offers, obtains, or guarantees the lowest price on any motor vehicle or words to similar effect.
(13) For a buyer’s agent to arrange for or to negotiate the purchase, or both, of a new motor vehicle through an out-of-state dealer without disclosing in writing to the customer that the new vehicle would not be subject to chapter 19.118 RCW. This subsection also applies to leased vehicles. In addition, it is unlawful for any buyer’s agent to fail to have a written agreement with the customer that: (a) Sets forth the terms of the parties’ agreement; (b) discloses to the customer the total amount of any fees or other compensation being paid by the customer to the buyer’s agent for the agent’s services; and (c) further discloses whether the fee or any portion of the fee is refundable. ((The department of licensing shall by December 31, 1996, in rule, adopt standard disclosure language for buyer’s agent agreements under RCW 46.70.011, 46.70.070, and this section.))

(14) Being a manufacturer, other than a motorcycle manufacturer governed by chapter 46.94 RCW, to:
(a) Coerce or attempt to coerce any vehicle dealer to order or accept delivery of any vehicle or vehicles, parts or accessories, or any other commodities which have not been voluntarily ordered by the vehicle dealer: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute coercion;
(b) Cancel or fail to renew the franchise or selling agreement of any vehicle dealer doing business in this state without fairly compensating the dealer at a fair going business value for his or her capital investment which shall include but not be limited to tools, equipment, and parts inventory possessed by the dealer on the day he or she is notified of such cancellation or termination and which are still within the dealer’s possession on the day the cancellation or termination is effective, if: (i) The capital investment has been entered into with reasonable and prudent business judgment for the purpose of fulfilling the franchise; and (ii) the cancellation or nonrenewal was not done in good faith. Good faith is defined as the duty of each party to any franchise to act in a fair and equitable manner towards each other, so as to guarantee one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.
(c) Encourage, aid, abet, or teach a vehicle dealer to sell or lease vehicles through any false, deceptive, or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;
(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer’s franchise agreement;
(e) Refuse to deliver any vehicle publicly advertised for immediate delivery to any duly licensed vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual agreement for the retail sale or lease of new and unused vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer within sixty days after such dealer’s order has been received in writing unless caused by inability to deliver because of shortage or curtailment of material, labor, transportation, or utility services, or by any labor or production difficulty, or by any cause beyond the reasonable control of the manufacturer;
(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser or lessee of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold or leased, distributed for sale or lease, or transferred into this state for resale or lease by the vehicle manufacturer may only make any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer of that item.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative, or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor does the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section if any such contract or the terms thereof requiring performance, have been freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties. This paragraph and subsection (14)(b) of this section do not apply to new motor vehicle manufacturers governed by chapter 46.96 RCW.

(15) Unlawful transfer of an ownership interest in a motor vehicle as defined in RCW 19.116.050.

(16) To knowingly and intentionally engage in collusion with a registered owner of a vehicle to repossess and return or resell the vehicle to the registered owner in an attempt to avoid a suspended license impound under chapter 46.55 RCW. However, compliance with chapter ((62A.9)) 62A.9A RCW in repossessing, selling, leasing, or otherwise disposing of the vehicle, including providing redemption rights to the debtor, is not a violation of this section.

Sec. 11. RCW 46.70.900 and 1973 1st ex.s. c 132 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

All provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that deceptive practices or commission of fraud or misrepresentation in the sale, lease, barter, or disposition of vehicles in this state may be prohibited and prevented, and irresponsible, unreliable, or dishonest persons may be prevented from engaging in the business of selling, leasing, bartering, or otherwise dealing in vehicles in this state and reliable persons may be encouraged to engage in the business of selling, leasing, bartering and otherwise dealing in vehicles in this state: PROVIDED, That this chapter shall not apply to printers, publishers, or broadcasters who in good faith print, publish or broadcast material without knowledge of its deceptive character.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the following education requirements apply to an applicant for a vehicle dealer license under RCW 46.70.021:
(a) An applicant for a vehicle dealer license under RCW 46.70.021 must complete a minimum of eight hours of approved education programs described in subsection (3) of this section and pass a test prior to submitting an application for the license; and

(b) An applicant for a renewal of a vehicle dealer license under RCW 46.70.083 must complete a minimum of five hours per year in a licensing period of approved continuing education programs described in subsection (3) of this section prior to submitting an application for the renewal of the vehicle dealer license.

(2) The education and test requirements in subsection (1) of this section do not apply to an applicant for a vehicle dealer license under RCW 46.70.021 if the applicant is:

(a) A franchised dealer of new recreational vehicles;
(b) A nationally franchised or corporate-owned motor vehicle rental company;
(c) A dealer of manufactured dwellings;
(d) A national auction company that holds a vehicle dealer license and a wrecker license whose primary activity in this state is the sale or disposition of totaled vehicles; or

(3) The education programs and test required in subsection (1) of this section shall be developed by motor vehicle industry organizations including, but not limited to, the state independent auto dealers association and the department of licensing.

(4) A new motor vehicle dealer, as defined under RCW 46.96.020, is deemed to have met the education and test requirements required for applicants for a vehicle dealer license under this section.

Sec. 13. RCW 46.70.070 and 1996 c 194 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before issuing a vehicle dealer's license, the department shall require the applicant to file with the department a surety bond in the amount of:

(a) Thirty thousand dollars for motor vehicle dealers;
(b) Thirty thousand dollars for mobile home, park trailer, and travel trailer dealers;(PROVIDED, That if such dealer does not deal in mobile homes or park trailers such bond shall be fifteen thousand dollars));
(c) Five thousand dollars for miscellaneous dealers, running to the state, and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the state. Such bond shall be approved by the attorney general as to form and conditioned that the dealer shall conduct his or her business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter.

Any retail purchaser, consignor who is not a motor vehicle dealer, or a motor vehicle dealer who has purchased from, sold to, or otherwise transacted business with a wholesale dealer, who has suffered any loss or damage by reason of any act by a dealer which constitutes a violation of this chapter shall have the right to institute an action for recovery against such dealer and the surety upon such bond. However, under this section, motor vehicle dealers who have purchased from, sold to, or otherwise transacted business with wholesale dealers may only institute actions against wholesale dealers and their surety bonds. Successive recoveries against said bond shall be permitted, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of said bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety the vehicle dealer license shall automatically be deemed canceled.

(2) The bond for any vehicle dealer licensed or to be licensed under more than one classification shall be the highest bond required for any such classification.

(3) Vehicle dealers shall maintain a bond for each business location in this state and bond coverage for all temporary subagencies.

Revising provisions relating to industrial land banks.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Gardner moved that the following striking amendment by Senators Gardner, Carlson and Zarelli be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 36.70A.367 and 1998 c 289 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to the major industrial development allowed under RCW 36.70A.365, a county required or choosing to plan under RCW 36.70A.040 that meets the criteria in subsection (9) or (10) of this section may establish, in consultation with cities consistent with provisions of RCW 36.70A.210, a process for designating a bank of no more than two master planned locations for major industrial activity outside urban growth areas.

(2) A master planned location for major industrial developments outside an urban growth area may be included in the urban industrial land bank for the county if criteria including, but not limited to, the following are met:

(a) New infrastructure is provided for and/or applicable impact fees are paid;
(b) Transit-oriented site planning and traffic demand management programs are implemented;
(c) Buffers are provided between the major industrial development and adjacent nonurban areas;
(d) Environmental protection including air and water quality has been addressed and provided for;"
(e) Development regulations are established to ensure that urban growth will not occur in adjacent nonurban areas;

(f) Provision is made to mitigate adverse impacts on designated agricultural lands, forest lands, and mineral resource lands;

(g) The plan for the major industrial development is consistent with the county's development regulations established for protection of critical areas; and

(h) An inventory of developable land has been conducted as provided in RCW 36.70A.365.

(3) In selecting master planned locations for inclusion in the urban industrial land bank, priority shall be given to locations that are adjacent to, or in close proximity to, an urban growth area.

(4) Final approval of inclusion of a master planned location in the urban industrial land bank shall be considered an adopted amendment to the comprehensive plan adopted pursuant to RCW 36.70A.070, except that RCW 36.70A.130(2) does not apply so that inclusion or exclusion of master planned locations may be considered at any time.

(5) Once a master planned location has been included in the urban industrial land bank, manufacturing and industrial businesses that qualify as major industrial development under RCW 36.70A.365 may be located there.

(6) Nothing in this section may be construed to alter the requirements for a county to comply with chapter 43.21C RCW.

(8) For the purposes of this section, "major industrial development" means a master planned location suitable for manufacturing or industrial businesses that: (a) Requires a parcel of land so large that no suitable parcels are available within an urban growth area; or (b) is a natural resource-based industry requiring a location near agricultural land, forest land, or mineral resource land upon which it is dependent; or (c) requires a location with characteristics such as proximity to transportation facilities or related industries such that there is no suitable location in an urban growth area. The major industrial development may not be for the purpose of retail commercial development or multitenant office parks.

(9) This section and the termination date specified in subsection (7)(a) of this section apply to a county that at the time the process is established under subsection (1) of this section:

(a) Has a population greater than two hundred fifty thousand and is part of a metropolitan area that includes a city in another state with a population greater than two hundred fifty thousand;

(b) Has a population greater than one hundred forty thousand and is adjacent to another country; or

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1012, by Representatives Mitchell, Fisher, Poulsen, McDermott, Ogden and Dunn

Allowing Washington state ferry fares to be increased in excess of the fiscal growth factor.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Haugen moved that the following Committee on Transportation striking amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) In order to maintain an adequate, fair, and economically sound schedule of charges for the transportation of passengers, vehicles, and commodities on the Washington state ferries, the department of transportation each year shall conduct a full review of such charges.

(2) Prior to February 1st of each odd-numbered year the department shall transmit to the transportation commission a report of its review together with its recommendations for the revision of a schedule of charges for the ensuing biennium. The commission on or before July 1st of that year shall adopt as a rule, in the manner provided by the Washington administrative procedure act, a schedule of charges for the Washington state ferries for the ensuing biennium commencing July 1st. The schedule may initially be adopted as an emergency rule if necessary to take effect on, or as near as possible to, July 1st.

(3) The department in making its review and formulating recommendations and the commission in adopting a schedule of charges may consider any of the following factors:

(a) The amount of subsidy available to the ferry system for maintenance and operation;

(b) The time and distance of ferry runs;

(c) The maintenance and operation costs for ferry runs with a proper adjustment for higher costs of operating outmoded or less efficient equipment;"
(d) The efficient distribution of traffic between cross-sound routes;
(e) The desirability of reasonable commutation rates for persons using the ferry system to commute daily to work;
(f) The effect of proposed fares in increasing walk-on and vehicular passenger use;
(g) The effect of proposed fares in promoting all types of ferry use during nonpeak periods;
(h) Such other factors as prudent managers of a major ferry system would consider.
(4) If at any time during the biennium it appears that projected revenues from the Puget Sound ferry operations account and any other operating subsidy available to the Washington state ferries will be less than the projected total cost of maintenance and operation of the Washington state ferries for the biennium, the department shall forthwith undertake a review of its schedule of charges to ascertain whether or not the schedule of charges should be revised. The department shall, upon completion of its review report, submit its recommendation to the transportation commission which may in its sound discretion revise the schedule of charges as required to meet necessary maintenance and operation expenditures of the ferry system for the biennium or may defer action until the regular annual review and revision of ferry charges as provided in subsection (2) of this section.
(5) The provisions of RCW 47.60.330 relating to public participation shall apply to the process of revising ferry tolls under this section.
(6) Under RCW 43.135.055, the transportation commission may increase ferry tolls included in the schedule of charges adopted under this section by a percentage that exceeds the fiscal growth factor.

MOTION

Senator Sheahan moved that the Committee on Transportation striking amendment not be adopted. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator West: “Senator Haugen, is it your intent that a study of this type would be encompassed in the final transportation budget?”

Senator Haugen: “I have said all along that we were going to do a study, but we are going to make sure we know what we are studying—not just a study and ten thousand dollars when you have ten cities. We would be glad to address the issue, because I do think there are some problems in this state and we should target it to the cities where there are problems.”

Senator West: “Thank you.”

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that promoting a financially viable health care system in all parts of the state is a paramount interest. The health care financing administration has recognized the crucial role that hospitals play in providing care in rural areas by creating the critical access hospital program to allow small, rural hospitals that qualify to receive reasonable cost-based reimbursement for medicare services. The legislature further finds that creating a similar reimbursement system for the state's medical assistance programs in small, rural hospitals that qualify will help assure the long-term financial viability of the rural health system in those communities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:
Payments for recipients eligible for medical assistance programs under this chapter for services provided by hospitals, regardless of the beneficiary's managed care enrollment status, shall be made based on allowable costs incurred during the year, when services are provided by a rural hospital certified by the health care financing administration as a critical access hospital. Any additional payments made by the medical assistance administration for the healthy options program shall be no more than the additional amounts per service paid under this section for other medical assistance programs.
For purposes of this section, "medical assistance programs" means the programs defined in RCW 74.09.010 for which federal matching funds are available.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:
The department shall implement the program created in section 2 of this act within sixty days of the effective date of this act regardless of the beneficiary's managed care status.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1202, by House Committee on Finance (originally sponsored by Representatives Cairnes and Morris) (by request of Department of Revenue)

Improving property tax administration.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Brown, the following striking amendment by Senators Brown, Fraser and Rossi was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 84.14.110 and 1995 c 375 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

1. If improvements have been exempted under this chapter, the improvements continue to be exempted and not be converted to another use for at least ten years from date of issuance of the certificate of tax exemption. If the owner intends to convert the multifamily development to another use, the owner shall notify the assessor within sixty days of the change in use. If, after a certificate of tax exemption has been filed with the county assessor the city or assessor or agent discovers that a portion of the property is changed or will be changed to a use that is other than residential or that housing or amenities no longer meet the requirements as previously approved or agreed upon by contract between the governing authority and the owner and that the multifamily housing, or a portion of the housing, no longer qualifies for the exemption, the tax exemption must be canceled and the following must occur:

   a. Additional real property tax must be imposed upon the value of the nonqualifying improvements in the amount that would normally be imposed, plus a penalty must be imposed amounting to twenty percent. This additional tax is calculated based upon the difference between the property tax paid and the property tax that would have been paid if it had included the value of the nonqualifying improvements dated back to the date that the improvements were converted to a nonmultifamily use;

   b. The tax must include interest upon the amounts of the additional tax at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which the additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the improvements had been assessed at a value without regard to this chapter; and

   c. The additional tax owed together with interest and penalty must become a lien on the land and attach at the time the property or portion of the property is removed from multifamily use or the amenities no longer meet applicable requirements, and has priority to and must be fully paid and satisfied before a recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation, or responsibility to or with which the land may become charged or liable. The lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes. An additional tax unpaid on its due date is delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest must be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.
(2) Upon a determination that a tax exemption is to be canceled for a reason stated in this section, the governing authority shall notify the record owner of the property as shown by the tax rolls by mail, return receipt requested, of the determination to cancel the exemption. The owner may appeal the determination to the governing authority within thirty days by filing a notice of appeal with the clerk of the governing authority, which notice must specify the factual and legal basis on which the determination of cancellation is alleged to be erroneous. The governing authority or a hearing examiner or other official authorized by the governing authority may hear the appeal. At the hearing, all affected parties may be heard and all competent evidence received. After the hearing, the deciding body or officer shall either affirm, modify, or repeal the decision of cancellation of exemption based on the evidence received. An aggrieved party may appeal the decision of the deciding body or officer to the superior court under RCW 34.05.510 through 34.05.598.

(3) Upon determination by the governing authority or authorized representative to terminate an exemption, the county officials having possession of the assessment and tax rolls shall correct the rolls in the manner provided for omitted property under RCW 84.40.080. The county assessor shall make such a valuation of the property and improvements as is necessary to permit the correction of the rolls. The owner may appeal the valuation to the county board of equalization under chapter 84.48 RCW and according to the provisions of RCW 84.40.038. If there has been a failure to comply with this chapter, the property must be listed as an omitted assessment for assessment years beginning January 1 of the calendar year in which the noncompliance first occurred, but the listing as an omitted assessment may not be for a period more than three calendar years preceding the year in which the failure to comply was discovered.

Sec. 2. RCW 84.26.130 and 1989 c 175 s 178 are each amended to read as follows:

Any decision by a local review board on an application for classification as historic property eligible for special valuation may be appealed to superior court under RCW 34.05.510 through 34.05.598 in addition to any other remedy at law. Any decision on the disqualification of historic property eligible for special valuation, or any other dispute, may be appealed to the county board of equalization in accordance with RCW 84.40.038.

Sec. 3. RCW 84.33.120 and 1999 sp.s. c 4 s 702 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1982, for taxes payable in 1983 and each January 1st thereafter, the assessor shall list each parcel of forest land at a value with respect to the grade and class provided in this subsection and adjusted as provided in subsection (2) of this section and shall compute the assessed value of the land by using the same assessment ratio he or she applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his or her county. For the adjustment to be made on or before December 31, 1981, for use in the 1982 assessment year, the department shall:

(a) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1976, and June 30, 1981, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33.071; and

(b) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1975, and June 30, 1980, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33.071; and

(c) Adjust the forest land value contained in subsection (1) of this section by a percentage equal to one-half of the percentage change in the average values of harvested timber reflected by comparing the resultant values calculated under (a) and (b) of this subsection.

For the adjustments to be made on or before December 31, 1982, and each succeeding year thereafter, the same procedure shall be followed as described in this subsection utilizing harvester excise tax returns filed under RCW 82.04.291 and this chapter except that this adjustment shall be made to the prior year's adjusted value, and the five-year periods for calculating average harvested timber values shall be successively one year more recent.

In preparing the assessment roll for 1972 and shall be on or before March 31 of each year thereafter, the assessor shall enter as the true and fair value of each parcel of forest land the appropriate grade value certified to him or her by the department of revenue, and he or she shall compute the assessed value of such land by using the same assessment ratio he or she applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his or her county. In preparing the assessment roll for 1975 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall assess and value as classified forest land all forest land that is not then designated pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130 and shall make a notation of such classification upon the assessment and tax rolls. On or before January 15 of the first year in which such notation is made, the assessor shall mail notice by certified mail to the owner that such land has been classified as forest land and is subject to the compensating tax imposed by this section. If the owner desires not to have such land assessed and valued as classified forest land, he or she shall give the assessor written notice thereof on or before March 31 of such year and the assessor shall remove from the assessment and tax rolls the classification notation entered pursuant to this subsection, and shall thereafter assess and value such land in the manner provided by law other than this chapter 84.33 RCW.

(4) In any year commencing with 1972, an owner of land which is assessed and valued by the assessor other than pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 84.33.110 and this section, and which has, in the immediately preceding year, been assessed and valued by the assessor as forest land, may appeal to the county board of equalization by filing an application with the board in the manner prescribed in subsection (2) of RCW 84.33.130. The county board shall afford the applicant an opportunity to be heard if the application so requests and shall act upon the application in the manner prescribed in subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.130.

(5) Land that has been assessed and valued as classified forest land as of any year commencing with 1975 assessment year or earlier shall continue to be so assessed and valued until removal of classification by the assessor only upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such land from classification as forest land;

(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(c) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that, because of actions taken by the owner, such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber. However, land shall not be removed from classification if a governmental agency, organization, or other recipient identified in subsection (9) or (10) of this section as exempt from the payment of compensating tax has manifested its intent in writing or by other official action to acquire a property interest in classified forest land by means of a transaction that qualifies for an exemption under subsection (9) or (10) of this section. The governmental agency, organization, or recipient shall annually provide the assessor of the county in which the land is located reasonable evidence in writing of the intent to acquire the classified land as long as the intent continues or within sixty days of a request by the assessor. The assessor may not request this evidence more than once in a calendar year;

(d) Determination that a higher and better use exists for such land than growing and harvesting timber after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard;

(e) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of forest land classification continuance, except transfer to an owner who is an heir or devisee of a deceased owner, shall not, by itself, result in removal of classification. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.150. The notice of continuance shall be in a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all compensating taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (7) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified forest land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the compensating tax has been paid, as evidenced by the real estate excise tax stamp affixed thereto by the treasurer. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (7) of this section to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals.

The assessor shall remove classification pursuant to (c) or (d) of this subsection prior to September 30 of the year prior to the assessment year for which termination of classification is to be effective. Removal of classification as forest land upon occurrence of (a), (b), (d), or (e) of this subsection shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of (c) of this subsection shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber: PROVIDED, That any remaining classified forest land meets necessary definitions of forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.100.
Within thirty days after such removal of classification as forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner of such land shall thereupon have the right to apply for designation of such land as forest land pursuant to subsection (4) of this section or RCW 84.33.130. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038.

Unless the owner successfully applies for designation of such land or unless the removal is reversed on appeal, notation of removal from classification shall immediately be made upon the assessment and tax rolls, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor made such notation, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in subsection (5)(e), (9), or (10) of this section and unless the assessor shall not have mailed notice of classification pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the compensating tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by a number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years, commencing with assessment year 1975, for which such land was assessed and valued as forest land.

Compensating tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from classification as forest land and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognition, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may be charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

The compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification as forest land pursuant to subsection (5) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;
(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;
(c) A donation of fee title, development rights, or the right to harvest timber, to a government agency or organization qualified under RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 for the purposes enumerated in those sections, or the sale or transfer of fee title to a government agency or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation, as defined in RCW 84.04.130, exclusively for the protection and conservation of lands recommended for state natural area preserve purposes by the natural heritage council and natural heritage plan as defined in chapter 79.70 RCW: PROVIDED. That at such time as the land is not used for the purposes enumerated, the compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall be imposed upon the current owner;
(d) The sale or transfer of fee title to the parks and recreation commission for park and recreation purposes;
(e) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located that disallows the present use of such land;
(f) The creation, sale, or transfer of forestry riparian easements under RCW 76.13.120; or
(g) The creation, sale, or transfer of a fee interest or a conservation easement for the riparian open space program under RCW 76.09.040.

In a county with a population of more than one million inhabitants, the compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification as forest land pursuant to subsection (5) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) An action described in subsection (9) of this section; or
(b) A transfer of a property interest to a government entity, or to a nonprofit historic preservation corporation or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation, as defined in RCW 84.04.130, to protect or enhance public resources, or to preserve, maintain, improve, restore, limit the future use of, or otherwise to conserve for public use or enjoyment, the property interest being transferred. At such time as the property interest is not used for the purposes enumerated, the compensating tax shall be imposed upon the current owner.

With respect to any land that has been designated prior to May 6, 1974, pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130, the assessor may, prior to January 1, 1975, on his or her own motion or pursuant to petition by the owner, change, without imposition of the compensating tax provided under RCW 84.33.140, the status of such designated land to classified forest land.

Sec. 4. RCW 84.33.130 and 1994 c 301 s 32 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An owner of land desiring that it be designated as forest land and valued pursuant to RCW 84.33.120 as of January 1 of any year shall make application to the county assessor before such January 1.
(2) The application shall be made upon forms prepared by the department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor, and shall include the following:
(a) A legal description of or assessor’s tax lot numbers for all land the applicant desires to be designated as forest land;
(b) The date or dates of acquisition of such land;
(c) A brief description of the timber on such land, or if the timber has been harvested, the owner's plan for restocking;
(d) Whether there is a forest management plan for such land;
(e) If so, the nature and extent of implementation of such plan;
(f) Whether such land is used for grazing;
(g) Whether such land has been subdivided or a plat filed with respect thereto;
(h) Whether such land and the applicant are in compliance with the restocking, forest management, fire protection, insect and disease control and fire debris provisions of Title 76 RCW or any applicable regulations thereunder;
(i) Whether such land is subject to forest fire protection assessments pursuant to RCW 76.04.610;
(j) Whether such land is subject to a lease, option or other right which permits it to be used for any purpose other than growing and harvesting timber;
(k) A summary of the past experience and activity of the applicant in growing and harvesting timber;
(l) A summary of current and continuing activity of the applicant in growing and harvesting timber;
(m) A statement that the applicant is aware of the potential tax liability involved when such land ceases to be designated as forest land;
(n) An affirmation that the statements contained in the application are true and that the land described in the application is, by itself or with other forest land not included in the application, in contiguous ownership of twenty or more acres which is primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber.

The assessor shall afford the applicant an opportunity to be heard if the application so requests.

(3) The application shall be deemed to have been approved unless, prior to May 1, of the year after such application was mailed or delivered to the assessor, the assessor shall notified the applicant in writing of the extent to which the application was denied.

(4) An owner who receives notice pursuant to subsection (3) of this section that his or her application has been denied may appeal such denial to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038.

Sec. 5. RCW 84.33.140 and 1999 sp.s. c 4 s 703 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has been designated as forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls, a copy of the notice of approval together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for such land shall, at the expense of the owner, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and such land shall be graded and valued pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 84.33.110 and 84.33.120 without being designated. The application shall be deemed to have been approved unless, prior to May 1, of the year after such application was mailed or delivered to the assessor, the assessor shall notify the applicant in writing of the extent to which the application is denied.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of designation of forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal a copy of the notice of removal with notation of the action, if any, upon appeal, together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for the land removed from designation shall, at the

(4) An owner who receives notice pursuant to subsection (3) of this section that his or her application has been denied may appeal such denial to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038.

(5) RCW 84.33.140 and 1999 sp.s. c 4 s 703 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has been designated as forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls, a copy of the notice of approval together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for such land shall, at the expense of the owner, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and such land shall be graded and valued pursuant to RCW 84.33.110 and 84.33.120 until removal of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such designation;
(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;
(c) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of forest land designation continuance, except transfer to an owner who is an heir or devisee of a deceased owner, shall not, by itself, result in removal of classification. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.150. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all compensating taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of designated forest land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the compensating tax has been paid, as evidenced by the real estate excise tax stamp affixed thereto by the treasurer. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (3) of this section to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals;
(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that:
(i) Such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber. However, land shall not be removed from designation if a governmental agency, organization, or other recipient identified in subsection (5) or (6) of this section as exempt from the payment of compensating tax has manifested its intent in writing or by other official action to acquire a property interest in designated forest land by means of a transaction that qualifies for an exemption under subsection (5) or (6) of this section. The governmental agency, organization, or recipient shall annually provide the assessor of the county in which the land is located reasonable evidence in writing of the intent to acquire the designated land as long as the intent continues or within sixty days of a request by the assessor. The assessor may not request this evidence more than once in a calendar year;
(ii) The owner has failed to comply with a final administrative or judicial order with respect to a violation of the restocking, forest management, fire protection, insect and disease control and forest debris provisions of Title 76 RCW or any applicable regulations thereunder; or
(iii) Restocking has not occurred to the extent or within the time specified in the application for designation of such land. Removal of designation upon occurrence of any of (a) through (c) of this subsection shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of (d) of this subsection shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber, without regard to other land that may have been included in the same application and approval for designation: PROVIDED, That any remaining designated forest land meets necessary definitions of forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.100.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of designation of forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal a copy of the notice of removal with notation of the action, if any, upon appeal, together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for the land removed from designation shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor mailed such notice, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in the county. Except as provided in subsection (1)(c), (5), or (6) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the compensating tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to the difference between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by a number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years for which such land was designated as forest land.

(4) Compensating tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from designation as forest land and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognize, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:
   (a) Transfer to a governmental entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;
   (b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;
   (c) A donation of fee title, development rights, or the right to harvest timber, to a government agency or organization qualified under RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 for the purposes enumerated in those sections, or the sale or transfer of fee title to a governmental entity, or a nonprofit nature conservancy corporation as defined in RCW 64.04.130, exclusively for the protection and conservation of lands recommended for state natural area preserve purposes by the natural heritage council and natural heritage plan as defined in chapter 79.70 RCW: PROVIDED, That at such time as the land is not used for the purposes enumerated, the compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be imposed upon the current owner;
   (d) The sale or transfer of fee title to the parks and recreation commission for park and recreation purposes;
   (e) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located that allows the present use of such land:
      (f) The creation, sale, or transfer of forestry riparian easements under RCW 76.13.120; or
      (g) The creation, sale, or transfer of a fee interest or a conservation easement for the riparian open space program under RCW 76.09.040.

(6) In a county with a population of more than one million inhabitants, the compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification as forest land pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:
   (a) An action described in subsection (5) of this section; or
   (b) A transfer of a property interest to a governmental entity, or to a nonprofit historic preservation corporation or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation, as defined in RCW 64.04.130, to protect or enhance public resources, or to preserve, maintain, improve, restore, limit the future use of, or otherwise to conserve for public use or enjoyment, the property interest being transferred. At such time as the property interest is not used for the purposes enumerated, the compensating tax shall be imposed upon the current owner.

Sec. 6. RCW 84.34.035 and 1992 c 69 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The assessor shall act upon the application for current use classification of farm and agricultural lands under RCW 84.34.020(2), with due regard to all relevant evidence. The application shall be deemed approved unless, prior to the first day of May of the year after such application was received or delivered to the assessor, the assessor shall notify the applicant in writing of the extent to which the application is denied. An owner who receives notice that his or her application has been denied may appeal such denial to the board of equalization in the county where the property is located. The appeal shall be filed in accordance with RCW 84.40.038(3) („within thirty days after the mailing of the notice of denial). Within ten days following approval of the application, the assessor shall submit notification of such approval to the county auditor for recording in the place and manner provided for the public recording of state tax liens on real property. The assessor shall retain a copy of all applications.

The assessor shall, as to any such land, make a notation each year on the assessment list and the tax roll of the assessed value of such land for the use for which it is classified in addition to the assessed value of such land were it not so classified.

Sec. 7. RCW 84.34.108 and 1999 sp.s. c 4 s 706 and 1999 c 233 s 22 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has once been classified under this chapter, a notation of such classification shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls and such land shall be valued pursuant to RCW 84.34.060 or 84.34.065 until removal of all or a portion of such classification by the assessor upon occurrence of the following:
   (a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove all or a portion of such classification;
   (b) Sale or transfer to an ownership, except a transfer that resulted from a default in loan payments made to or secured by a governmental agency that intends to or is required by law or regulation to resell the property for the same use as before, making all or a portion of such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;
   (c) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of classification continuance, except transfer to an owner who is an heir or devisee of a deceased owner shall not, by itself, result in removal of classification. The notice of continuance shall be on a form provided by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all additional taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the additional tax has been paid, as evidenced by the real estate excise tax stamp affixed thereto by the treasurer. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (4) of this section to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.039. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that all or a portion of such land no longer meets the criteria for classification under this chapter. The criteria for classification pursuant to this chapter continue to apply after classification has been granted.

The granting authority, upon request of an assessor, shall provide reasonable assistance to the assessor in making a determination whether such land continues to meet the qualifications of RCW 84.34.020 (1) or (3). The assistance shall be provided within thirty days of receipt of the request.

(2) Land may not be removed from classification because of:

(a) The creation, sale, or transfer of forestry riparian easements under RCW 76.13.120; or

(b) The creation, sale, or transfer of a fee interest or a conservation easement for the riparian open space program under RCW 76.09.040.

(3) Within thirty days after such removal of all or a portion of such land from current use classification, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.039.

(4) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal, the assessor shall revalue the affected land with reference to full market value on the date of removal from classification. Both the assessed valuation before and after the removal of classification shall be listed and taxes shall be allocated according to that part of the year to which each assessed valuation applies. Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, an additional tax, applicable interest, and penalty shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the additional tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such an additional tax, applicable interest, and penalty and the treasurer shall mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such additional tax, applicable interest, and penalty shall be determined as follows:

(a) The amount of additional tax shall be equal to the difference between the property tax paid as "open space land", "farm and agricultural land", or "timber land" and the amount of property tax otherwise due and payable for the seven years last past had the land not been so classified;

(b) The amount of applicable interest shall be equal to the interest upon the amounts of such additional tax paid at the same statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which such additional tax could have been paid without penalty to the dates on which such tax became delinquent as hereinafter provided;

(c) The amount of the penalty shall be as provided in RCW 84.34.080. The penalty shall not be imposed if the removal satisfies the conditions of RCW 84.34.070.

(5) Additional tax, applicable interest, and penalty, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from classification under this chapter and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognition, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050 now or as hereafter amended. Any additional tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(6) The additional tax, applicable interest, and penalty specified in subsection (4) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other land located within the state of Washington;

(b)(i) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or (ii) sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power, said entity having manifested its intent in writing or by other official action;

(c) A natural disaster such as a flood, windstorm, earthquake, or other such calamity rather than by virtue of the act of the landowner changing the use of such property;

(d) Official action by an agency of the state of Washington or by the county or city within which the land is located which disallows the present use of such land;

(e) Transfer of land to a church when such land would qualify for exemption pursuant to RCW 84.36.020;

(f) Acquisition of property interests by state agencies or agencies or organizations qualified under RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 for the purposes enumerated in those sections: PROVIDED, That at such time as these property interests are not used for the purposes enumerated in RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 the additional tax specified in subsection (4) of this section shall be imposed;

(g) Removal of land classified as farm and agricultural land under RCW 84.34.020(2)(d); and

(h) Removal of land from classification after enactment of a statutory exemption that qualifies the land for exemption and receipt of notice from the owner to remove the land from classification;

(i) The creation, sale, or transfer of forestry riparian easements under RCW 76.13.120; or

(j) The creation, sale, or transfer of a fee interest or a conservation easement for the riparian open space program under RCW 76.09.040.

Sec. 8. RCW 84.36.385 and 1992 c 206 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

Renewal applications shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the department of revenue.

(2) A person granted an exemption under RCW 84.36.381 shall inform the county assessor of any change in status affecting the person's entitlement to the exemption on forms prescribed and furnished by the department of revenue.
(3) Each person exempt from taxes under RCW 84.36.381 in 1993 and thereafter, shall file with the county assessor a renewal application not later than December 31 of the year the assessor notifies such person of the requirement to file the renewal application.

(5) If the assessor finds that the applicant does not meet the qualifications as set forth in RCW 84.36.381, as now or hereafter amended, the claim or exemption shall be denied but such denial shall not be subject to appeal under the provisions of RCW 84.48.010(5) and in accordance with the provisions of RCW 84.40.038. Sec. 11. RCW 84.40.038 and 1997 c 294 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The owner or person responsible for payment of taxes on any property may petition the county board of equalization for a change in the assessed valuation placed upon such property by the county assessor or for any other reason specifically authorized by statute. Such petition must be made on forms prescribed or approved by the department of revenue and any petition not conforming to those requirements or not properly completed shall not be considered by the board. The petition must be filed with the board on or before July 1.

(2) The board of equalization may waive the filing deadline if the petition is filed within a reasonable time after the filing deadline and the petitioner shows good cause for the late filing. The decision of the board of equalization regarding a waiver of the filing deadline is final and not appealable under RCW 84.08.130. Good cause may be shown by one or more of the following events or circumstances:

(a) Death or serious illness of the taxpayer or his or her immediate family;
(b) The taxpayer was absent from the address where the taxpayer normally receives the assessment or value change notice, was absent for more than fifteen days of the days allowed in subsection (I) of this section before the filing deadline, and the filing deadline is after July 1;

(3) The owner or person responsible for payment of taxes on any property may request that the appeal be heard by the state board of equalization when the board of equalization agrees that a direct appeal to the state board of equalization is appropriate. The state board of equalization may not hear the appeal, in which case the county board of equalization shall consider the appeal under RCW 84.48.010. Notice of such a rejection, together with the reason therefor, shall be provided to the affected parties and the county board of equalization within thirty days of receipt of the direct appeal by the state board.

Sec. 12. RCW 84.48.080 and 1997 c 3 s 112 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Annually during the months of September and October, the department of revenue shall examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties of the state, and the assessment of the property of railroad and other companies assessed by the department, and proceed to equalize the same, so that each county in the state shall pay its due and just proportion of the taxes for state purposes for such assessment year, according to the ratio the ((assessed)) valuation of the property in each county bears to the ((correct)) total ((assessed)) valuation of all property in the state.

(2) The department shall classify all property, real and personal, and shall raise and lower the ((assessed)) valuation of any class of property in any county to a value that shall be equal, so far as possible, to the ((correct assessed)) true and fair value of such class as of January 1st of the current year ((after determining the correct appraised value, and any adjustment applicable under RCW 84.40.0205 for the property)) for the purpose of ascertaining the just amount of tax due from each county for state purposes. ((In equalizing personal property as of January 1st of the current year, the department shall use the assessment level of the preceding year.)) In equalizing personal property as of January 1st of the current year, the department shall use valuation data with respect to personal property from the three years immediately preceding the current assessment year in a manner it deems appropriate. Such classification may be on the basis of types of property, geographical areas, or both. For purposes of this section, for each county that has not provided the department with an assessment return by December 1st, the department shall proceed, using facts and information and in a manner it deems appropriate, to estimate the value of each class of property in the county.

(Second.) (b) The department shall keep a full record of its proceedings and the same shall be published annually by the department.

(2) The department shall levy the state taxes authorized by law. The amount levied in any one year for general state purposes shall not exceed the lawful dollar rate on the dollar of the assessed value of the property of the entire state ((as equalized under this section)), which assessed value shall be one hundred percent of the true and fair value of the property in money. The department shall apportion the amount of tax for state purposes levied by the department, among the several counties, in proportion to the ((assessed)) valuation of the taxable property of the county for the year as equalized by the department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of this apportionment, the department shall recompute the previous year's levy and the apportionment thereof to correct for changes and errors in taxable values reported to the department after October 1 of the preceding year and shall adjust the apportioned amount of the current year's state levy for each county by the difference between the apportioned amounts established by the original and revised levy computations for the previous year. For purposes of this section, changes in taxable values mean a final adjustment made by a county board of equalization, the state board of tax appeals, or a court of competent jurisdiction and shall include additions of omitted property, other additions or deletions from the assessment or tax rolls, any assessment return provided by a county to the department subsequent to December 1st, or a change in the indicated ratio of a county. Errors in taxable values mean errors corrected by a final reviewing body.

In addition to computing a levy under this subsection that is reduced under RCW 84.55.012, the department shall compute a hypothetical levy without regard to the reduction under RCW 84.55.012. This hypothetical levy shall also be apportioned among the several counties in proportion to the valuation of the taxable property of the county for the year, as equalized by the department, in the same manner as the actual levy and shall be used by the county assessors for the purpose of recomputing and establishing a consolidated levy under RCW 84.52.010.

(3) The department shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations to enforce obedience to its orders in all matters in relation to the returns of county assessments, the equalization of values, and the apportionment of the state levy by the department.

(4) After the completion of the duties prescribed in this section, the director of the department shall certify the record of the proceedings of the department under this section, the tax levies made for state purposes and the apportionment thereof among the counties, and the certification shall be available for public inspection.

Sec. 13. RCW 84.40.190 and 1993 c 33 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person required by this title to list property shall make out and deliver to the assessor, or to the department as required by RCW 84.40.065, either in person ((in person)), by mail, or by electronic transmittal, a statement, verified under penalty of perjury, of all the personal property in his or her possession or under his or her control, and which, by the provisions of this title, he or she is required to list for taxation, either as owner or holder thereof. Each list, schedule or statement required by this chapter shall be signed by the individual if the person required to make the same is an individual, by the president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer or any other officer duly authorized to so act if the person required to make the same is a corporation; by a responsible and duly authorized member or officer having knowledge of its affairs, if the person required to make the same is a partnership or other unincorporated organization; or by the fiduciary, if the person required to make the same is a trust or estate. The list, schedule, or statement may be made and signed for the person required to make the same by an agent who is duly authorized to do so by a power of attorney filed with and approved by the assessor. When any list, schedule, or statement is made and signed by such agent, the principal required to make out and deliver the same shall be responsible for the contents and the filing thereof and shall be liable for the penalties imposed pursuant to RCW 84.40.130. No person shall be required to list for taxation in his statement to the assessor any share or portion of the capital stock, or of any of the property of any company, association or corporation, which such person may hold in whole or in part, where such company, being so required to do, has listed for assessment and taxation its capital stock and property with the department of revenue, or as otherwise required by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 84.52 RCW to read as follows:

If an error has occurred in the levy of property taxes that has caused all taxpayers within a taxing district, other than the state, to pay an incorrect amount of property tax, the assessor shall correct the error by making an appropriate adjustment to the levy for that taxing district in the succeeding year. The adjustment shall be made without including any interest. If the governing authority of the taxing district determines that the amount of the adjustment in the succeeding year is so large as to cause a hardship for the taxing district or the taxpayers within the district, the adjustment may be made on a proportional basis over a period of not more than three consecutive years.

(a) A correction of an error in the levying of property taxes shall not be made for any period more than three years preceding the year in which the error is discovered.

(b) When calculating the levy limitation under chapter 84.55 RCW for levies made following the discovery of an error, the assessor shall determine and use the correct levy amount for the year or years being corrected as though the error had not occurred. The amount of the adjustment determined under this subsection (1) shall not be considered when calculating the levy limitation.
(c) If the taxing district in which a levy error has occurred does not levy property taxes in the year the error is discovered, or for a period of more than three years subsequent to the year the error was discovered, an adjustment shall not be made.

(2) If an error has occurred in the distribution of property taxes so that property tax collected has been incorrectly distributed to a taxing district or taxing districts wholly or partially within a county, the treasurer of the county in which the error occurred shall correct the error by making an appropriate adjustment to the amount distributed to that taxing district or districts in the succeeding year. The adjustment shall be made without including any interest. If the treasurer, in consultation with the governing authority of the taxing district or districts affected, determines that the amount of the adjustment in the succeeding year is so large as to cause a hardship for the taxing district or districts, the adjustment may be made on a proportional basis over a period of not more than three consecutive years. A correction of an error in the distribution of property taxes shall not be made for any period more than three years preceding the year in which the error is discovered.

Sec. 15. RCW 84.48.080 and 1997 c 3 s 112 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Annually during the months of September and October, the department of revenue shall examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties of the state, and the assessment of the property of railroad and other companies assessed by the department, and proceed to equalize the same, so that each county in the state shall pay its due and just proportion of the taxes for state purposes for such assessment year, according to the ratio the assessed valuation of the property in each county bears to the correct total assessed valuation of all property in the state.

(First) (a) The department shall classify all property, real and personal, and shall raise and lower the assessed valuation of any class of property in any county to a value that shall be equal, so far as possible, to the correct assessed value of such class as of January 1st of the current year, after determining the correct appraised value, and any adjustment applicable under RCW 84.40.0305 for the property, for the purpose of ascertaining the just amount of tax due from each county for state purposes.

Sec. 14 of this act takes effect January 1, 2002, and applies to errors that occur on an

For purposes of this section, changes in taxable values mean a final adjustment made by a county board of equalization, the state board of tax appeals, or a court of competent jurisdiction and shall include additions of omitted property, other additions or deletions from the assessment or tax rolls, any assessment return provided by a county to the department subsequent to December 1st, or a change in the indicated ratio of a county. Errors in taxable values mean errors corrected by a final reviewing body.

In addition to computing a levy under this subsection that is reduced under RCW 84.55.012, the department shall compute a hypothetical levy without regard to the reduction under RCW 84.55.012. This hypothetical levy shall also be apportioned among the several counties in proportion to the valuation of the taxable property of the county for the year as equalized by the department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of this section, the department shall recompute the previous year’s levy and the apportionment thereof to correct for changes and errors in taxable values reported to the department after October 1 of the preceding year and shall adjust the apportioned amount of the current year’s state levy for each county by the difference between the apportioned amounts established by the original and revised levy computations for the previous year. For purposes of this section, changes in taxable values mean a final adjustment made by a county board of equalization, the state board of tax appeals, or a court of competent jurisdiction and shall include additions of omitted property, other additions or deletions from the assessment or tax rolls, any assessment return provided by a county to the department subsequent to December 1st, or a change in the indicated ratio of a county. Errors in taxable values mean errors corrected by a final reviewing body.

(3) The department shall have authority to adopt rules and regulations to enforce obedience to its orders in all matters in relation to the returns of county assessments, the equalization of values, and the apportionment of the state levy by the department.

(4) After the completion of the duties prescribed in this section, the director of the department shall certify the record of the proceedings of the department under this section, the tax levies made for state purposes and the apportionment thereof to the counties, and the certification shall be available for public inspection.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature affirms its support for those recommendations of the performance audit of the public mental health system conducted by the joint legislative audit and review committee relating to: Improving the coordination of services for clients with multiple needs; improving the consistency of client, service, and fiscal data collected by the mental health division; replacing process-oriented accountability activities with a uniform statewide outcome measurement system; and using outcome information to identify and provide incentives for best practices in the provision of public mental health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature supports recommendations 1 through 10 and 12 through 14 of the mental health system performance audit conducted by the joint legislative audit and review committee. The legislature expects the department of social and health services to work diligently within available funds to implement these recommendations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In addition to any follow-up requirements prescribed by the joint legislative audit and review committee, the department of social and health services shall submit reports to the legislature on the status of the implementation of recommendations 1 through 10 and 12 through 14 of the performance audit report. The implementation status reports must be submitted to appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the legislature by June 1, 2001, and each year thereafter through 2004.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The initial implementation status reports must discuss the status of implementing recommendations 1 through 8, which are due to be implemented by June 2001, and must also include a plan for implementing recommendations 9, 10, and 12 through 14, which are due to be implemented subsequent to June 2001. The initial implementation status report must also discuss what actions the department of social and health services has taken and will take in the future in response to recommendation 11 of the performance audit report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The department of social and health services shall conduct a longitudinal study of long-term client outcomes to assess any changes in client status at two, five, and ten years. The measures tracked shall include client change as a result of services, employment and/or education, housing stability, criminal justice involvement, and level of services needed. The department shall report these long-term outcomes to the appropriate policy and fiscal committee of the legislature annually beginning not later than December 31, 2004.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. RCW 71.24.015 and 1999 c 214 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to establish a community mental health program which shall help people experiencing mental illness to retain a respected and productive position in the community. This will be accomplished through programs which provide for:
(1) Access to mental health services for adults of the state who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed and children of the state who are acutely mentally ill, severely emotionally disturbed, or seriously disturbed, which services recognize the special needs of underserved populations, including minorities, children, the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons. Access to mental health services shall not be limited by a person's history of confinement in a state, federal, or local correctional facility. It is also the purpose of this chapter to promote the early identification of mentally ill children and to ensure that they receive the mental health care and treatment which is appropriate to their developmental level. This care should improve home, school, and community functioning, maintain children in a safe and nurturing home environment, and should enable treatment decisions to be made in response to clinical needs in accordance with sound professional judgment while also recognizing parents' rights to participate in treatment decisions for their children;

(2) Accountability of efficient and effective services through statewide standards for monitoring and reporting of client and system outcome information;

(3) Minimum service delivery standards;

(4) Priorities for the use of available resources for the care of the mentally ill;

(5) Coordination of services within the department, including those divisions within the department that provide services to children, between the department and the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and among state mental hospitals, county authorities, community mental health services, and other support services, which shall to the maximum extent feasible also include the families of the mentally ill, and other service providers; and

(6) Coordination of services aimed at reducing duplication in service delivery and promoting complementary services among all entities that provide mental health services to adults and children.

It is the policy of the state to encourage the provision of a full range of treatment and rehabilitation services in the state for mental disorders. The legislature intends to encourage the development of county-based and county-managed mental health services with adequate local flexibility to assure eligible people in need of care access to the least-restrictive treatment alternative appropriate to their needs, and the availability of treatment components to assure continuity of care. To this end, counties are encouraged to enter into joint operating agreements with other counties to form regional systems of care which integrate planning, administration, and service delivery duties assigned to counties under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW to consolidate administration, reduce administrative layering, and reduce administrative costs.

It is further the intent of the legislature to integrate the provision of services to provide continuity of care through all phases of treatment. To this end the legislature intends to promote active engagement with mentally ill persons and collaboration between families and service providers.

(8) The department may authorize him or her to enter at reasonable times, and examine the records, books, and accounts of any regional support network or service provider refusing to consent to inspection or examination by the authority.

(9) The superior court may restrain any regional support network or service provider from operating without certification or a license or any other violation of this section. The court may also review, pursuant to procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW, any denial, suspension, limitation, restriction, or revocation of certification or license, and grant other relief required to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(10) Upon petition by the secretary, and after hearing held upon reasonable notice to the facility, the superior court may issue a warrant to an officer or employee of the secretary authorizing him or her to enter at reasonable times, and examine the records, books, and accounts of any regional support network or service provider refusing to consent to inspection or examination by the authority.

(11) Notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, the secretary may file an action for an injunction or other process against any person or governmental unit to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, or operation of a regional support network or service provider without certification or a license under this chapter.

The department shall annually report to the legislature on its criteria and allocation of the incentives provided under this subsection.

(14) The secretary shall assume all duties assigned to the nonparticipating counties under chapters 71.05, 71.34, and 71.24 RCW. Such responsibilities shall include those which would have been assigned to the nonparticipating counties under regional support networks.

The department shall undertake an annual review of the designated agency to ensure compliance with the provisions of the contract. The department shall not redesignate the agency serving as the office of mental health ombudsman except upon a showing of good cause for redesignation, and after notice and opportunity for agency and public comment have been made and there has been an opportunity to appeal the redesignation to the director.

This reporting system must be compatible with uniform child and adult consumer service outcomes, where such outcome measures are established;

(e) Establish procedures to assure that any files maintained by ombudsman programs shall be disclosed only at the discretion of the ombudsman having authority over the disposition of such files, except that the identity of a complainant or patient, resident, or client of a mental health provider or facility may not be disclosed by the ombudsman unless:

The agency that has jurisdiction over the offender shall notify the offender of the registration requirements before the offender moves to Washington.

(vi) OFFENDERS FOUND NOT GUILTY BY REASON OF INSANITY. Any adult or juvenile who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity under chapter 10.77 RCW of (A) committing a sex offense on, before, or after February 28, 1990, and who, on or after July 23, 1995, is in custody, as a result of that finding, of the state department of social and health services, or (B) committing a kidnapping offense on, before, or after July 27, 1997, and who on or after July 27, 1997, is in custody, as a result of that finding, of the state department of social and health services, must register within twenty-four hours from the time of release. with the county sheriff for the county of the person’s residence. The state department of social and health services shall provide notice to the adult or juvenile in its custody of the duty to register. Any adult or juvenile who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity of committing a sex offense on, before, or after February 28, 1990, but who was released before July 23, 1995, or any adult or juvenile who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity of committing a kidnapping offense but who was released before July 27, 1997, shall be required to register within twenty-four hours of receiving notice of this registration requirement. The state department of social and health services shall make reasonable attempts within available resources to notify sex offenders who were released before July 23, 1995, and kidnapping offenders who were released before July 27, 1997. Failure to register within twenty-four hours of release, or of receiving notice, constitutes a violation of this section and is punishable as provided in subsection (10) of this section.

(vii) OFFENDERS WHO LACK A FIXED RESIDENCE. Any person who lacks a fixed residence and leaves the county in which he or she is registered and enters and remains within a new county for twenty-four hours is required to register with the county sheriff not more than twenty-four hours after entering the county and provide the information required in subsection (3)(b) of this section.

(viii) OFFENDERS WHO LACK A FIXED RESIDENCE AND WHO ARE UNDER SUPERVISION. Offenders who lack a fixed residence and who are under the supervision of the department shall register in the county of their supervision.

(ix) OFFENDERS WHO MOVE TO, WORK, CARRY ON A VOCATION, OR ATTEND SCHOOL IN ANOTHER STATE. Offenders required to register in Washington, who move to another state, or who work, carry on a vocation, or attend school in another state shall register a new address, fingerprints, and photograph with the new state within ten days after establishing residence, or after beginning to work, carry on a vocation, or attend school in the new state. The person must also send written notice within ten days of moving to the new state or to a foreign country to the county sheriff with whom the person last registered in Washington state. The county sheriff shall promptly forward this information to the Washington state patrol.

(b) Failure to register within the time required under this section constitutes a per se violation of this section and is punishable as provided in subsection (10) of this section. The county sheriff shall not be required to determine whether the person is living within the county.

(c) An arrest on charges of failure to register, service of an information, or a complaint for a violation of this section, or arraignment on charges for a violation of this section, constitutes actual notice of the duty to register. Any person charged with the crime of failure to register under this section who asserts as a defense the lack of notice of the duty to register shall register immediately following actual notice of the duty through arrest, service, or arraignment. Failure to register as required under this subsection (4)(c) constitutes grounds for filing another charge of failing to register. Registering following arrest, service, or arraignment on charges shall not relieve the offender from criminal liability for failure to register prior to the filing of the original charge.

(5)(a) If any person required to register pursuant to this section changes his or her residence address within the same county, the person must send written notice of the change of address to the county sheriff within seventy-two hours of moving. If any person required to register pursuant to this section moves to a new county, the person must send written notice of the change of address at least fourteen days before moving to the county sheriff in the new county of residence and must register with that county sheriff within twenty-four hours of moving. The person must also send written notice within ten days of the change of address in the new county to the county sheriff with whom the person last registered. The county sheriff with whom the person last registered shall promptly forward the information concerning the change of address to the county sheriff for the county of the person’s new residence. Upon receipt of notice of change of address to a new state, the county sheriff shall promptly forward the information regarding the change of address to the agency designated by the new state as the state’s offender registration agency.

(b) It is an affirmative defense to a charge that the person failed to send a notice at least fourteen days in advance of moving as required under (a) of this subsection that the person did not know the location of his or her new residence at least fourteen days before moving. The defendant must establish the defense by a preponderance of the evidence and, to prevail on the defense, must also prove by a preponderance that the defendant sent the required notice within twenty-four hours of determining the new address.

(6)(a) Any person required to register under this section who lacks a fixed residence shall provide written notice to the sheriff of the county where he or she last registered within (((fourteen days))) forty-eight hours excluding weekends and holidays after ceasing to have a fixed residence. The notice shall include the information required by subsection (3)(b) of this section, except the photograph and fingerprints. The county sheriff may, for reasonable cause, require the offender to provide a photograph and fingerprints. The sheriff shall forward this information to the sheriff of the county in which the person intends to reside, if the person intends to reside in another county.

(b) A person who lacks a fixed residence must report weekly, in person, to the sheriff of the county where he or she is registered. (((If he or she has been classified as a risk level I sex or kidnapping offender, he or she must report monthly. If he or she has been classified as a risk level II or III sex or kidnapping offender, he or she must report weekly.))) The weekly report shall be on a day specified by the county sheriff’s office, and shall occur during normal business hours. The county sheriff’s office may require the person to list the locations where the person has stayed during the last seven days. The lack of a fixed residence is a factor that may be considered in determining ((((a)(ii))))) an offender’s risk level and shall make the offender subject to disclosure of information to the public at large pursuant to RCW 4.24.550.

(c) If any person required to register pursuant to this section does not have a fixed residence, it is an affirmative defense to the charge of failure to register, that he or she provided written notice to the sheriff of the county where he or she last registered within (((fourteen days))) forty-eight hours excluding weekends and holidays after ceasing to have a fixed residence and has subsequently complied with the requirements of subsections (4)(a)(vii) or (viii) and (6) of this section. To prevail, the person must prove the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

(7) A sex offender subject to registration requirements under this section who applies to change his or her name under RCW 4.24.430 or any other law shall submit a copy of the application to the county sheriff of the county of the person’s residence and to the state patrol not fewer than five days before the entry of an order granting the name change. No sex offender under the requirement to register under this section at the time of application shall be granted an order changing his or her name if the court finds that doing so will interfere with legitimate law enforcement interests, except that no order shall be denied when the name change is requested for religious or legitimate cultural reasons or in recognition of marriage or dissolution of marriage. A sex offender under the requirement to register under this section who receives an order changing his or her name shall submit a copy of the order to the county sheriff or the state patrol within five days of the entry of the order. (8) The county sheriff shall obtain a photograph of the individual and shall obtain a copy of the individual's fingerprints.

(c) "Employed" or "carries on a vocation" means employment that is full-time or part-time for a period of time exceeding fourteen days, or for an aggregate period of time exceeding thirty days during any calendar year. A person is employed or carries on a vocation whether the person's employment is financially compensated, volunteered, or for the purpose of government or educational benefit.

(d) "Student" means a person who is enrolled, on a full-time or part-time basis, in any public or private educational institution. An educational institution includes any secondary school, trade or professional institution, or institution of higher education.

(10) A person who knowingly fails to register with the county sheriff or notify the county sheriff, or who changes his or her name without notifying the county sheriff and the state patrol, as required by this section is guilty of a class C felony if the crime for which the individual was convicted was a felony sex offense as defined in subsection (9)(a) of this section or a federal or out-of-state conviction that under the laws of this state would be a felony sex offense as defined in subsection (9)(a) of this section. If the crime was other than a felony or a federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be other than a felony, violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

If the crime was other than a felony or a federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be other than a felony, violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. RCW 4.24.550 and 1998 c 220 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Public agencies are authorized to release information to the public regarding sex offenders and kidnapping offenders when the agency determines that disclosure of the information is relevant and necessary to protect the public and counteract the danger created by the particular offender. This authorization applies to information regarding: (a) Any person adjudicated or convicted of a sex offense as defined in RCW 9A.44.130 or a kidnapping offense as defined by RCW 9A.44.130; (b) any person under the jurisdiction of the indeterminate sentence review board as the result of a sex offense or kidnapping offense; (c) any person committed as a sexually violent predator under chapter 71.09 RCW or as a sexual psychopath under chapter 71.06 RCW; (d) any person found not guilty of a sex offense or kidnapping offense by reason of insanity under chapter 10.77 RCW; and (e) any person found incompetent to stand trial for a sex offense or kidnapping offense and subsequently committed under chapter 71.05 or 71.34 RCW.

(2) The extent of the public disclosure of relevant and necessary information shall be rationally related to: (a) The level of risk posed by the offender to the community; (b) the locations where the offender resides, expects to reside, or is regularly found; and (c) the needs of the affected community members for information to enhance their individual and collective safety.

(3) Local law enforcement agencies shall consider the following guidelines in determining the extent of a public disclosure made under this section: (a) For offenders classified as risk level I, the agency shall share information with other appropriate law enforcement agencies and may disclose, upon request, relevant, necessary, and accurate information to any victim or witness to the offense and to any individual community member who lives near the residence where the offender resides, expects to reside, or is regularly found; (b) for offenders classified as risk level II, the agency may also disclose relevant, necessary, and accurate information to public and private schools, child day care centers, family day care providers, businesses and organizations that serve primarily children, women, or vulnerable adults, and neighbors and community groups near the residence where the offender resides, expects to reside, or is regularly found; (c) for offenders classified as risk level III, the agency may also disclose relevant, necessary, and accurate information to the public at large; and (d) because more localized notification is not feasible and homeless and transient offenders may present unique risks to the community, the agency may also disclose relevant, necessary, and accurate information to the public at large for offenders registered as homeless or transient.
