Public land, including lands owned or held by the state, shall be subject to special assessments to the same extent as privately owned lands. The procedures provided in chapter 79.44 RCW shall be followed if lands owned or held by the state are subject to the special assessments of a conservation district.
Forest lands used solely for the planting, growing, or harvesting of trees may be subject to special assessments if such lands benefit from the activities of the conservation district, but the per acre rate of special assessment on benefitted forest lands shall not exceed one-tenth of the weighted average per acre assessment on all other lands within the conservation district that are subject to its special assessments. The calculation of the weighted average per acre special assessment shall be a ratio calculated as follows: (a) The numerator shall be the total amount of money estimated to be derived from the imposition of per acre special assessments on the nonforest lands in the conservation district; and (b) the denominator shall be the total number of nonforest land acres in the conservation district that receive benefit from the activities of the conservation district and which are subject to the special assessments of the conservation district. No more than ten thousand acres of such forest lands that is both owned by the same person or entity and is located in the same conservation district may be subject to the special assessments that are imposed for that conservation district in any year. Per parcel charges shall not be imposed on forest land parcels. However, in lieu of a per parcel charge, a charge of up to three dollars per forest landowner may be imposed on each owner of forest lands whose forest lands are subject to a per acre rate of assessment.

(4) A conservation district shall prepare an assessment roll that implements the system of assessments approved by the county legislative authority. The special assessments from the assessment roll shall be spread by the county assessor as a separate item on the tax rolls and shall be collected and accounted for with property taxes by the county treasurer. The amount of a special assessment shall constitute a lien against the land that shall be subject to the same conditions as a tax lien, collected by the treasurer in the same manner as delinquent real property taxes, and subject to the same interest rate and penalty as for delinquent property taxes. The county treasurer shall deduct an amount, as established by the county legislative authority, from the collected special assessments (as established by the county legislative authority) to cover the costs incurred by the county assessor and county treasurer in spreading and collecting the special assessments, but not to exceed the actual costs of such work.

(5) The special assessments for a conservation district shall not be spread on the tax rolls and shall not be collected with property tax collections in the following year if, after the system of assessments has been approved by the county legislative authority but prior to the fifteenth day of December in that year, a petition has been filed with the county legislative authority objecting to the imposition of such special assessments, which petition has been signed by at least twenty percent of the owners of land that would be subject to the special assessments to be imposed for a conservation district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 89.08 RCW to read as follows:
For those districts that have chosen to conduct elections of supervisors pursuant to Title 29 RCW:
(1) Special assessments are authorized to be imposed for conservation districts as provided in this section. Activities and programs to conserve natural resources, including soil and water, are declared to be of special benefit to lands and may be used as the basis upon which special assessments are imposed.
(2)(a) Special assessments to finance the activities of a conservation district may be imposed by the board of supervisors for a period or periods each not to exceed ten years in duration.

The supervisors of a conservation district shall hold a public hearing on a proposed system of assessments prior to the first day of August in the year prior to which it is proposed that the initial special assessments be collected. At that public hearing, the supervisors shall gather information and shall alter the proposed system of assessments when appropriate, including the number of years during which it is proposed that the special assessments be imposed.

(b) After the public hearing, if the board of supervisors finds that both the public interest will be served by the imposition of the special assessments and that the special assessments to be imposed on any land will not exceed the special benefit that the land receives or will receive from the activities of the conservation district, the board of supervisors shall impose the assessments.

(c) Special assessments may be altered during this period on individual parcels in accordance with the system of assessments if land is divided or land uses or other factors change.

(d) Notice of the public hearings held by the supervisors shall be posted conspicuously in at least five places throughout the conservation district, and published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper in general circulation throughout the conservation district, with the date of the last publication at least five days prior to the public hearing.

(3) A system of assessments shall classify lands in the conservation district into suitable classifications according to benefits conferred or to be conferred by the activities of the conservation district, determine an annual per acre rate of assessment for each classification of land, and indicate the total amount of special assessments proposed to be obtained from each classification of lands. Lands deemed not to receive benefit from the activities of the conservation district shall be placed into a separate classification and shall not be subject to the special assessments. An annual assessment rate shall be stated as either uniform annual per acre amount, or an annual flat rate per parcel plus a uniform annual rate per acre amount, for each classification of land. The maximum annual per acre special assessment rate shall not exceed ten cents per acre. The maximum annual per parcel rate shall not exceed five dollars.
Public land, including lands owned or held by the state, shall be subject to special assessments to the same extent as privately owned lands. The procedures provided in chapter 79.44 RCW shall be followed if lands owned or held by the state are subject to the special assessments of a conservation district.

Forest lands used solely for the planting, growing, or harvesting of trees may be subject to special assessments if such lands benefit from the activities of the conservation district, but the per acre rate of special assessment on benefited forest lands shall not exceed one-tenth of the weighted average per acre assessment on all other lands within the conservation district that are subject to its special assessments. The calculation of the weighted average per acre special assessment shall be as follows: (a) The numerator shall be the total amount of money estimated to be derived from the imposition of per acre special assessments on the nonforest lands in the conservation district; and (b) the denominator shall be the total number of nonforest land acres in the conservation district that receive benefit from the activities of the conservation district and which are subject to the special assessments of the conservation district. No more than ten thousand acres of such forest lands that is both owned by the same person or entity and is located in the same conservation district may be subject to the special assessments that are imposed for that conservation district in any year. Per parcel charges shall not be imposed on forest land parcels. However, in lieu of a per parcel charge, a charge of up to three dollars per forest landowner may be imposed on each owner of forest lands whose forest lands are subject to a per acre rate of assessment.

(4) A conservation district shall prepare an assessment roll that implements the system of assessments approved by the board of supervisors. The special assessments from the assessment roll shall be spread by the county assessor as a separate item on the tax rolls and shall be collected and accounted for with property taxes by the county treasurer. The amount of a special assessment shall constitute a lien against the land that shall be subject to the same conditions as a tax lien, collected by the treasurer in the same manner as delinquent real property taxes, and subject to the same interest rate and penalty as for delinquent property taxes. The county treasurer shall deduct an amount, as established by the county legislative authority, from the collected special assessments to cover the costs incurred by the county assessor and county treasurer in spreading and collecting the special assessments, but not to exceed the actual costs of such work.

(5) The special assessments for a conservation district shall not be spread on the tax rolls and shall not be collected with property tax collections in the following year if, after the system of assessments has been approved by the board of supervisors, but prior to the fifteenth day of December in that year, a petition has been filed with the board of supervisors objecting to the imposition of such special assessments, which petition has been signed by at least twenty percent of the owners of land that would be subject to the special assessments to be imposed for a conservation district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

Sec. 2. RCW 43.22.420 and 1999 c 22 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a factory assembled structures advisory board consisting of nine members to be appointed by the director of labor and industries. The director of the department of labor and industries may enforce manufactured home safety and construction standards adopted by the secretary of housing and urban development under the national manufactured home construction and safety standards act of 1974 (800 Stat. 700; 42 U.S.C. Secs. 5401-5426). Furthermore, the director may make agreements with the United States government and private inspection organizations to implement the development and enforcement of applicable provisions of this chapter and the national manufactured home construction and safety standards act of 1974 (800 Stat. 700; 42 U.S.C. Secs. 5401-5426).

Sec. 4. RCW 43.22.432 and 1977 ex.s. c 21 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may adopt all standards and regulations adopted by the secretary under the national manufactured home construction and safety standards act of 1974 (800 Stat. 700; 42 U.S.C. Secs. 5401-5426) for manufactured home construction and safety standards. If any deletions or amendments to the federal standards or regulations are thereafter made and notice thereof is given to the department, the standards or regulations shall be considered automatically adopted by the state under this chapter after the expiration of thirty days from publication in the federal register of a final order describing the deletions or amendments unless within that thirty day period the department objects to the deletion or amendment. In case of objection, the department shall proceed under the rule making procedure of chapter 34.05 RCW.

(2) The department shall adopt rules with respect to manufactured homes installed in accordance with the standards adopted under RCW 43.22.440 that:

(a) Specify exemptions from a requirement for a permit to alter a manufactured home;

(b) Authorize the granting of variances from the rules adopted under this section for alterations that use materials, designs, or methods of construction different from those required under the rules adopted under this section; and

(c) Require the seller of a manufactured home to deliver to the buyer prior to the sale a completed property transfer disclosure statement that includes all the criteria specified in RCW 64.06.020 and a copy of a variance, if any, granted under the rules adopted under this section.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the sale of a manufactured home that was altered unless the alteration makes the home unsafe so that its use may constitute a hazard to life, safety, or health.

Sec. 5. RCW 43.22.434 and 1999 c 22 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director or the director’s authorized representative may conduct such inspections, investigations, and audits as may be necessary to adopt or enforce manufactured and mobile home, commercial coach, conversion vending units, medical units, recreational vehicle, park trailer, factory built housing, and factory built commercial structure rules adopted under the authority of this chapter or to carry out the director’s duties under this chapter.

(2) For purposes of enforcement of this chapter, persons duly designated by the director upon presenting appropriate credentials to the owner, operator, or agent in charge may:

Sec. 6. RCW 43.22.440 and 1988 c 239 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that inspections of manufactured and mobile home installation are not done on a consistent basis. Manufactured and mobile homes provide housing for many people in the state, and improperly installed manufactured or mobile homes are a serious health and safety risk. Where possible and practical, manufactured and mobile homes should be treated the same as any housing inhabited or to be inhabited by persons in this state, including housing built according to the state building code.

(2) In consultation with the factory assembled structures advisory board for (mobile) manufactured homes, the director of labor and industries shall by rule establish uniform standards for the performance and workmanship of installation service and warranty service by persons or entities engaged in performing the services within this state for all manufactured and mobile homes, as defined in RCW 46.04.302. The standards shall conform, where applicable, with statutes, rules, and recommendations established under the (federal) national (mobile) manufactured home construction and safety standards act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. These rules regarding the installation of manufactured and mobile homes shall be enforced and fees charged by the counties and cities in the same manner the state building code is enforced under RCW 19.27.050.

(3) In addition to and in conjunction with the remedies provided in this chapter, failure to remedy any breach of the standards and rules so established, upon adequate notice and within a reasonable time, is a violation of the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW and subject to the remedies provided in that chapter.

(d) A representative of the department of labor and industries. The department shall cooperate with the task force and provide such technical expertise as the task force co-chairs may reasonably require.

(2) The task force shall choose its co-chairs from among its membership.

(3) The study shall review at least the following issues:
(a) The fact that many mobile/manufactured homeowners have performed alterations or repairs to their homes without obtaining the required permits with the result that potential buyers may be unable to obtain mortgage financing from the usual sources;

(b) The costs associated with obtaining required permits, particularly on those occasions when an engineering analysis is required;

(c) The possibility of reducing the number and type of repairs and alterations that require a permit, consistent with public health and safety considerations;

(d) The appropriateness of the current legal sanction for not obtaining a permit when required;

(e) The feasibility and desirability of allowing for inspections of mobile/manufactured home alterations by local building officials; and

(f) Any methods, procedures, or changes in the law that can assist mobile/manufactured homeowners in the proper and economical maintenance and improvement of their homes, and the protection of their equity.

(4) The task force shall use legislative facilities and staff from senate committee services and the office of program research. Each nonlegislative member of the task force is eligible to be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. All expenses of the task force, including travel, shall be paid jointly by the senate and the house of representatives.

(5) The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 2002.

(6) This section expires April 1, 2002.

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5910 with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. RCW 90.14.140 and 1998 c 258 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of RCW 90.14.130 through 90.14.180, "sufficient cause" shall be defined as the nonuse of all or a portion of the water by the owner of a water right for a period of five or more consecutive years where such nonuse occurs as a result of:
(a) Drought, or other unavailability of water;
(b) Active service in the armed forces of the United States during military crisis;
(c) Nonvoluntary service in the armed forces of the United States;
(d) The operation of legal proceedings;
(e) Federal or state agency leases of or options to purchase lands or water rights which preclude or reduce the use of the right by the owner of the water right;
(f) Federal laws imposing land or water use restrictions either directly or through the voluntary enrollment of a landowner in a federal program implementing those laws, or acreage limitations, or production quotas;
(g) Temporarily reduced water need for irrigation use where such reduction is due to varying weather conditions, including but not limited to precipitation and temperature, that warranted the reduction in water use, so long as the water user's diversion and delivery facilities are maintained in good operating condition consistent with beneficial use of the full amount of the water right;
(h) Temporarily reduced diversions or withdrawals of irrigation water directly resulting from the provisions of a contract or similar agreement in which a supplier of electricity buys back electricity from the water right holder and the electricity is needed for the diversion or withdrawal or for the use of the water diverted or withdrawn for irrigation purposes;
(i) Water conservation measures implemented under the Yakima river basin water enhancement project, so long as the conserved water is reallocated in accordance with the provisions of P.L. 103-434;
(j) Reliance by an irrigation water user on the transitory presence of return flows in lieu of diversion or withdrawal of water from the primary source of supply, if such return flows are measured or reliably estimated using a scientific methodology generally accepted as reliable within the scientific community; or
(k) The reduced use of irrigation water resulting from crop rotation. For purposes of this subsection, crop rotation means the temporary change in the type of crops grown resulting from the exercise of generally recognized sound farming practices. Unused water resulting from crop rotation will not be relinquished if the remaining portion of the water continues to be beneficially used.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of RCW 90.14.130 through 90.14.180, there shall be no relinquishment of any water right:
(a) If such right is claimed for power development purposes under chapter 90.16 RCW and annual license fees are paid in accordance with chapter 90.16 RCW;
(b) If such right is used for a standby or reserve water supply to be used in time of drought or other low flow period so long as withdrawal or diversion facilities are maintained in good operating condition for the use of such reserve or standby water supply;
(c) If such right is claimed for a determined future development to take place either within fifteen years of July 1, 1967, or the most recent beneficial use of the water right, whichever date is later;
(d) If such right is claimed for municipal water supply purposes under chapter 90.03 RCW;
(e) If such waters are not subject to appropriation under the applicable provisions of RCW 90.40.030; or
(f) If such right or portion of the right is leased to another person for use on land other than the land to which the right is appurtenant as long as the lessee makes beneficial use of the right in accordance with this chapter and a transfer or change of the right has been approved by the department in accordance with RCW 90.03.380, 90.03.383, 90.03.390, or 90.44.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

A commercial salmon gill net, reef net, or seine fishery license may be renewed under this section if the license holder notifies the department by August 1st, before the third Monday in September of that year that he or she will not participate in the fishery during that calendar year. The license holder must pay the one hundred-dollar enhancement surcharge, plus a fifteen-dollar handling charge before the third Monday in September, in order to be considered a valid renewal and eligible to renew the license the following year.

Notwithstanding the annual license fees and surcharges established in subsection (1) of this section, a person who holds a resident commercial salmon fishery license shall pay an annual license fee of one hundred dollars plus the surcharge if all of the following conditions are met:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 2001

MR. PRESIDENT:
Under suspension of the rules ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5583 was returned to second reading for purpose of an amendment and the House passed the bill with the following amendment:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature affirms its support for those recommendations of the performance audit of the public mental health system conducted by the joint legislative audit and review committee relating to: Improving the coordination of services for clients with multiple needs; improving the consistency of client, service, and fiscal data collected by the mental health division; replacing process-oriented accountability activities with a uniform statewide outcome measurement system; and using outcome information to identify and provide incentives for best practices in the provision of public mental health services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature supports recommendations 1 through 10 and 12 through 14 of the mental health system performance audit conducted by the joint legislative audit and review committee. The legislature expects the department of social and health services to work diligently within available funds to implement these recommendations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. In addition to any follow-up requirements prescribed by the joint legislative audit and review committee, the department of social and health services shall submit reports to the legislature on the status of the implementation of recommendations 1 through 10 and 12 through 14 of the performance audit report. The implementation status reports must be submitted to appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the legislature by June 1, 2001, and each year thereafter through 2004.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The initial implementation status reports must discuss the status of implementing recommendations 1 through 8, which are due to be implemented by June 2001, and must also include a plan for implementing recommendations 9, 10, and 12 through 14, which are due to be implemented subsequent to June 2001. The initial implementation status report must also discuss what actions the department of social and health services has taken and will take in the future in response to recommendation 11 of the performance audit report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The Washington institute for public policy shall conduct a longitudinal study of long-term client outcomes to assess any changes in client status at two, five, and ten years. The measures tracked shall include client change as a result of services, employment and/or education, housing stability, criminal justice involvement, and level of services needed. The institute shall report these long-term outcomes to the appropriate policy and fiscal committee of the legislature annually beginning not later than December 31, 2005.

Sec. 6. RCW 71.24.015 and 1999 c 214 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to establish a community mental health program which shall help people experiencing mental illness to retain a respected and productive position in the community. This will be accomplished through programs which provide for:

1. Access to mental health services for adults of the state who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed and children of the state who are acutely mentally ill, severely emotionally disturbed, or seriously disturbed, which services recognize the special needs of underserved populations, including minorities, children, the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons. Access to mental health services shall not be limited by a person's history of confinement in a state, federal, or local correctional facility. It is also the purpose of this chapter to promote the early identification of mentally ill children and to ensure that they receive the mental health care and treatment which is appropriate to their developmental level. This care should improve home, school, and community functioning, maintain children in a safe and nurturing home environment, and should enable treatment decisions to be made in response to clinical needs in accordance with sound professional judgment while also recognizing parents' rights to participate in treatment decisions for their children;

2. Accountability of efficient and effective services through statewide standards for monitoring and reporting of client and system outcome information;

3. Minimum service delivery standards;

4. Priorities for the use of available resources for the care of the mentally ill;

5. Coordination of services within the department, including those divisions within the department that provide services to children, between the department and the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and among state mental hospitals, county authorities, community mental health services, and other support services, which shall to the maximum extent feasible also include the families of the mentally ill, and other service providers; and

6. Coordination of services aimed at reducing duplication in service delivery and promoting complementary services among all entities that provide mental health services to adults and children.

It is the policy of the state to encourage the provision of a full range of treatment and rehabilitation services in the state for mental disorders. The legislature intends to encourage the development of county-based and county-managed mental health services with adequate local flexibility to assure eligible people in need of care access to the least-restrictive treatment alternative appropriate to their needs, and the availability of treatment components to assure continuity of care. To this end, counties are encouraged to enter into joint operating agreements with other counties to form regional systems of care which integrate planning, administration, and service delivery duties assigned to counties under chapters 71.05 and 71.24 RCW to consolidate administration, reduce administrative layering, and reduce administrative costs.

It is further the intent of the legislature to integrate the provision of services to provide continuity of care through all phases of treatment. To this end the legislature intends to promote active engagement with mentally ill persons and collaboration between families and service providers.

Sec. 7. RCW 71.24.035 and 1999 c 10 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The department is designated as the state mental health authority.

2. The secretary may provide for public, client, and licensed service provider participation in developing the state mental health program.

3. The secretary shall provide for participation in developing the state mental health program for children and other underserved populations, by including representatives on any committee established to provide oversight to the state mental health program.

4. The secretary shall be designated as the county authority if a county fails to meet state minimum standards or refuses to exercise responsibilities under RCW 71.24.045.

5. The secretary shall:
(a) Develop a biennial state mental health program that incorporates county biennial needs assessments and county mental health service plans and state services for mentally ill adults and children. The secretary may also develop a six-year state mental health plan;

(b) Assure that any county community mental health program provides access to treatment for the county's residents in the following order of priority: (i) The acutely mentally ill; (ii) chronically mentally ill adults and severely emotionally disturbed children; and (iii) the seriously disturbed. Such programs shall provide:
   (A) Outpatient services;
   (B) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;
   (C) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment;
   (D) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine the appropriateness of admission;
   (E) Employment services, which may include supported employment, transitional work, placement in competitive employment, and other work-related services, that result in mentally ill persons becoming engaged in meaningful and gainful full or part-time work. Other sources of funding such as the division of vocational rehabilitation may be utilized by the secretary to maximize federal funding and provide for integration of services;
   (F) Consultation and education services; and
   (G) Community support services;

(c) Develop and adopt rules establishing state minimum standards for the delivery of mental health services pursuant to RCW 71.24.037 including, but not limited to:
   (i) Licensed service providers;
   (ii) Regional support networks; and
   (iii) Residential and inpatient services, evaluation and treatment services and facilities under chapter 71.05 RCW, resource management services, and community support services;

(d) Assure that the special needs of minorities, the elderly, disabled, children, and low-income persons are met within the priorities established in this section;

(e) Establish a standard contract or contracts, consistent with state minimum standards, which shall be used by the counties;

(f) Establish, to the extent possible, a standardized auditing procedure which minimizes paperwork requirements of county authorities and licensed service providers;

(g) Develop and maintain an information system to be used by the state, counties, and regional support networks that includes a tracking method which allows the department and regional support networks to identify mental health clients' participation in any mental health service or public program on an immediate basis. The information system shall not include individual patient's case history files. Confidentiality of client information and records shall be maintained as provided in this chapter and in RCW 71.05.390, 71.05.400, 71.05.410, 71.05.420, 71.05.430, and 71.05.440;

(h) License service providers who meet state minimum standards;

(i) Certify regional support networks that meet state minimum standards;

(j) Periodically inspect certified regional support networks and licensed service providers at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner;

(k) Fix fees to be paid by evaluation and treatment centers to the secretary for the required inspections;

(l) Monitor and audit counties, regional support networks, and licensed service providers as needed to assure compliance with contractual agreements authorized by this chapter; and

(m) Adopt such rules as are necessary to implement the department's responsibilities under this chapter.

(6) The secretary shall use available resources only for regional support networks.

(7) Each certified regional support network and licensed service provider shall file with the secretary, on request, such data, statistics, schedules, and information as the secretary reasonably requires. A certified regional support network or licensed service provider which, without good cause, fails to furnish any data, statistics, schedules, or information as requested, or files fraudulent reports thereof, may have its certification or license revoked or suspended.

(8) The secretary may suspend, revoke, limit, or restrict a certification or license, or refuse to grant a certification or license for failure to conform to: (a) The law; (b) applicable rules and regulations; (c) applicable standards; or (d) state minimum standards.
(9) The superior court may restrain any regional support network or service provider from operating without certification or a license or any other violation of this section. The court may also review, pursuant to procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW, any denial, suspension, limitation, restriction, or revocation of certification or license, and grant other relief required to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(10) Upon petition by the secretary, and after hearing held upon reasonable notice to the facility, the superior court may issue a warrant to an officer or employee of the secretary authorizing him or her to enter at reasonable times, and examine the records, books, and accounts of any regional support network or service provider refusing to consent to inspection or examination by the authority.

(11) Notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, the secretary may file an action for an injunction or other process against any person or governmental unit to restrain or prevent the establishment, conduct, or operation of a regional support network or service provider without certification or a license under this chapter.

(12) The standards for certification of evaluation and treatment facilities shall include standards relating to maintenance of good physical and mental health and other services to be afforded persons pursuant to this chapter and chapters 71.05 and 71.34 RCW, and shall otherwise assure the effectuation of the purposes of these chapters.

(13)(a) The department, in consultation with affected parties, shall establish a distribution formula that reflects county needs assessments based on the number of persons who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, severely emotionally disturbed children, and seriously disturbed. The formula shall take into consideration the impact on counties of demographic factors in counties which result in concentrations of priority populations as set forth in subsection (5)(b) of this section. These factors shall include the population concentrations resulting from commitments under chapters 71.05 and 71.34 RCW to state psychiatric hospitals, as well as concentration in urban areas, at border crossings at state boundaries, and other significant demographic and workload factors.

(b) The formula shall also include a projection of the funding allocations that will result for each county, which specifies allocations according to priority populations, including the allocation for services to children and other underserved populations.

(c) After July 1, 2003, the department may allocate up to two percent of total funds to be distributed to the regional support networks for incentive payments to reward the achievement of superior outcomes, or significantly improved outcomes, as measured by a statewide performance measurement system consistent with the framework recommended in the joint legislative audit and review committee's performance audit of the mental health system. The department shall annually report to the legislature on its criteria and allocation of the incentives provided under this subsection.

(14) The secretary shall assume all duties assigned to the nonparticipating counties under chapters 71.05, 71.34, and 71.24 RCW. Such responsibilities shall include those which would have been assigned to the nonparticipating counties under regional support networks.

The regional support networks, or the secretary's assumption of all responsibilities under chapters 71.05, 71.34, and 71.24 RCW, shall be included in all state and federal plans affecting the state mental health program including at least those required by this chapter, the medicaid program, and P.L. 99-660. Nothing in these plans shall be inconsistent with the intent and requirements of this chapter.

(15) The secretary shall:

(a) Disburse funds for the regional support networks within sixty days of approval of the biennial contract. The department must either approve or reject the biennial contract within sixty days of receipt.

(b) Enter into biennial contracts with regional support networks. The contracts shall be consistent with available resources. No contract shall be approved that does not include progress toward meeting the goals of this chapter by taking responsibility for: (i) Short-term commitments; (ii) residential care; and (iii) emergency response systems.

(c) Allocate one hundred percent of available resources to the regional support networks in accordance with subsection (13) of this section. Incentive payments authorized under subsection (13) of this section may be allocated separately from other available resources.

(d) Notify regional support networks of their allocation of available resources at least sixty days prior to the start of a new biennial contract period.

(e) Deny funding allocations to regional support networks based solely upon formal findings of noncompliance with the terms of the regional support network's contract with the department. Written notice and at least thirty days for corrective action must precede any such action. In such cases, regional support networks shall have full rights to appeal under chapter 34.05 RCW.

(f) Identify in its departmental biennial operating and capital budget requests the funds requested by regional support networks to implement their responsibilities under this chapter.

(16) The department, in cooperation with the state congressional delegation, shall actively seek waivers of federal requirements and such modifications of federal regulations as are necessary to allow federal medicaid reimbursement for services provided by free-standing evaluation and treatment facilities certified under chapter 71.05 RCW. The department shall periodically... report its efforts to the health care and corrections committee of the senate and the human services committee of the house of representatives.

(17) The secretary shall establish a task force to examine the recruitment, training, and compensation of qualified mental health professionals in the community, which shall include the advantages and disadvantages of establishing a training academy, loan forgiveness program, or educational stipends offered in exchange for commitments of employment in mental health.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The legislature finds that an excessive amount of public funds are spent on administrative activities in the community mental health system. The department of social and health services shall develop a plan to reduce administrative expenses in the community mental health system, including the mental health division, to no more than ten percent of available funds. The plan shall identify and prioritize core administrative functions that must be continued to comply with federal or state statutes. The department shall submit their plan to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives no later than December 15, 2001. The plan shall assume an implementation date of July 1, 2003.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If specific funding for the purposes of section 5 of this act, referencing section 5 of this act by bill or chapter and section number, is not provided by June 30, 2001, in the omnibus appropriations act, section 5 of this act is null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

The title, and the same are herewith transmitted.

The regional support networks, or the secretary's assumption of all responsibilities under chapters 71.05, 71.34, and 71.24 RCW, shall be included in all state and federal plans affecting the state mental health program including at least those required by this chapter, the medicaid program, and P.L. 99-660. Nothing in these plans shall be inconsistent with the intent and requirements of this chapter.

(13)(a) The department, in consultation with affected parties, shall establish a distribution formula that reflects county needs assessments based on the number of persons who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, severely emotionally disturbed children, and seriously disturbed. The formula shall take into consideration the impact on counties of demographic factors in counties which result in concentrations of priority populations as set forth in subsection (5)(b) of this section. (d) Notify regional support networks of their allocation of available resources at least sixty days prior to the start of a new biennial contract period.

(e) Deny funding allocations to regional support networks based solely upon formal findings of noncompliance with the terms of the regional support network's contract with the department. Written notice and at least thirty days for corrective action must precede any such action. In such cases, regional support networks shall have full rights to appeal under chapter 34.05 RCW. (See (f) below.)

(3) Minimum standards for residential services shall be based on clients' functional abilities and not solely on their diagnoses, limited to health and safety, staff qualifications, and program outcomes. Minimum standards for residential services shall be developed in collaboration with consumers, families, counties, regulators, and residential providers serving the mentally ill. The minimum standards shall encourage the development of broad-range residential programs, including integrated housing and cross-systems programs where appropriate, and shall not unnecessarily restrict programming flexibility.

(4) Minimum standards for community support services and resource management services shall include at least qualifications for resource management services, client tracking systems, and the transfer of patient information between service providers.

Sec. 12. RCW 71.24.045 and 1992 c 230 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The county authority may, in the absence of a licensed service provider entity, become a licensed service provider entity pursuant to minimum standards required for licensing by the department for the purpose of providing services not available from licensed service providers;

(2) Operate as a licensed service provider if it deems that doing so is more efficient and cost effective than contracting for services. When doing so, the county authority shall comply with rules promulgated by the secretary that shall provide measurements to determine when a county provided service is more efficient and cost effective;

(3) Monitor and perform biennial fiscal audits of licensed service providers who have contracted with the county to provide services required by this chapter. Upon the request of a tribal authority or authorities within a regional support network the joint operating agreement or the county authority shall allow for the inclusion of the tribal authority to be represented as a party to the regional support network. The roles and responsibilities of the county and tribal authorities shall be determined by the terms of that agreement including a determination of membership on the governing board and advisory committees, the number of tribal representatives to be party to the agreement, and the provisions of law and shall assure the provision of culturally competent services to the tribes served. The state mental health authority may not determine the roles and responsibilities of county authorities as to each other under regional support networks by rule, except to assure that all duties required of regional support networks are assigned and that counties and the regional support network do not duplicate functions.

The department shall establish a (single) comprehensive and collaborative (project) effort within regional support networks and with local mental health service providers aimed at creating innovative and streamlined community mental health service delivery systems, in order to carry out the purposes set forth in RCW 71.24.400 and to capture the diversity of the community mental health service delivery system.

The (project) department must accomplish the following:

(1) Identification, review, and cataloging of all rules, regulations, duplicative administrative and monitoring functions, and other requirements that currently lead to inefficiencies in the community mental health service delivery system and, if possible, eliminate the requirements;

(2) The systematic and incremental development of a single system of accountability for all federal, state, and local funds provided to the community mental health service delivery system. Systematic efforts should be made to include federal and local funds into the single system of accountability;

(3) The elimination of process regulations and related contract and reporting requirements. In place of the regulations and requirements, a set of outcomes for mental health adult and children clients according to chapter 71.24 RCW must be used to measure the performance of mental health service providers and regional support networks. Such outcomes shall focus on stabilizing out-of-home and hospital care, increasing stable community living, increasing age-appropriate activities, achieving family and consumer satisfaction with services, and system efficiencies;

(4) Evaluation of the feasibility of contractual agreements between the department of social and health services and regional support networks and mental health service providers that link financial incentives to the success or failure of mental health service providers and regional support networks to meet outcomes established for mental health service clients;

(5) The involvement of mental health consumers and their representatives (in the pilot projects). Mental health consumers and their representatives will be involved in the development of outcome standards for mental health clients (and other related aspects of the pilot projects) under section 5 of this act; and

The plan shall identify and prioritize core administrative functions that must be continued to comply with federal or state statutes. The department shall submit their plan to the appropriate committees of the Senate and House of Representatives no later than December 15, 2001. On motion of Senator Jacobsen, the Senate receded from its amendment(s) to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1286.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jacobsen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1286 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Jacobsen, the following striking amendment by Senators Jacobsen and Oke was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department may supply, at a reasonable charge, surplus salmon eggs to a person for use in the cultivation of salmon. The department shall not intentionally create a surplus of salmon to provide eggs for sale. The department shall only sell salmon eggs from stocks that are not suitable for salmon population rehabilitation or enhancement in state waters in Washington after the salmon harvest on surplus salmon has been first maximized by both commercial and recreational fishers.

(2) The department shall not destroy hatchery origin salmon for the purposes of destroying viable eggs that would otherwise be useful for propagation or salmon recovery purposes, as determined by the department and Indian tribes with treaty fishing rights in a collaborative manner, for replenishing fish runs. Eggs deemed surplus by the state must be provided, in the following order of priority, to:

(a) Voluntary cooperative salmon culture programs under the supervision of the department under chapter 77.100 RCW;
(b) Regional fisheries enhancement group salmon culture programs under the supervision of the department under this chapter;
(c) Salmon culture programs requested by lead entities and approved by the salmon funding recovery board under chapter 77.85 RCW;
(d) Hatcheries of federally approved tribes in Washington to whom eggs are moved, not sold, under the interlocal cooperation act, chapter 39.34 RCW; and
(e) Governmental hatcheries in Washington, Oregon, and Idaho.

The order of priority established in this subsection for distributing surplus eggs does not apply when there is a shortfall in the supply of eggs.

(3) All sales, provisions, distributions, or transfers shall be consistent with the department's egg transfer and aquaculture disease control regulations as now existing or hereafter amended. Prior to department determination that eggs of a salmon stock are surplus and available for sale, the department shall assess the productivity of each watershed that is suitable for receiving eggs."
Sec. 2. RCW 77.95.270 and 1989 c 336 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 77.95.210, the department may make available to private contractors salmon eggs in excess of department hatchery needs for the purpose of contract rearing to release the smolts into public waters. However, providing salmon eggs as specified in RCW 77.95.210(2) has the highest priority. The priority of providing eggs surplus after meeting the requirements of RCW 77.95.210(2) to contract rearing is a higher priority than providing eggs to aquaculture purposes that are not destined for release into Washington public waters.

Sec. 3. RCW 77.100.050 and 1987 c 505 s 73 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall:

(a) Encourage and support the establishment of cooperative agreements for the development and operation of cooperative food fish, shellfish, game fish, game bird, game animal, and nongame wildlife projects, and projects which provide an opportunity for volunteer groups to become involved in resource and habitat-oriented activities. All cooperative projects shall be fairly considered in the approval of cooperative agreements;

(b) Identify regions and species or activities that would be particularly suitable for cooperative projects providing benefits compatible with department goals;

(c) Determine the availability of rearing space at operating facilities or of net pens, egg boxes, portable rearing containers, incubators, and any other rearing facilities for use in cooperative projects, and allocate them to volunteer groups as fairly as possible;

(d) Make viable eggs available for replenishing fish runs, and salmon carcasses for nutrient enhancement of streams. If a regional fisheries enhancement group, lead entity, volunteer cooperative group, federally approved tribe in Washington, or a governmental hatchery in Washington, Oregon, or Idaho requests the department for viable eggs, the department must include the request within the brood stock document prepared for review by the regional offices. The eggs shall be distributed in accordance with the priority established in RCW 77.95.210 if they are available. A request for viable eggs may only be denied if the eggs would not be useful for propagation or salmon recovery purposes, as determined under RCW 77.95.210.

(e) Exempt volunteer groups from payment of fees to the department for activities related to the project;

(f) Publicize the cooperative program;

(g) Not substitute a new cooperative project for any part of the department's program unless mutually agreeable to the department and volunteer group;

(h) Not approve agreements that are incompatible with legally existing land, water, or property rights.

(2) The department may, when requested, provide to volunteer groups its available professional expertise and assist the volunteer group to evaluate its project. The department must conduct annual workshops in each administrative region of the department that has fish stocks listed as threatened or endangered under the federal endangered species act, 16 U.S.C. Sec. 1531 et seq., in order to assist volunteer groups with egg rearing, share information on successful salmon recovery projects accomplished by volunteers within the state, and provide basic training on monitoring efforts that can be accomplished by volunteers in order to help determine if their efforts are successful.

The commission shall establish by rule:

(1) The procedure for entering a cooperative agreement and the application forms for a permit to release fish or wildlife required by RCW 77.12.457. The procedure shall indicate the information required from the volunteer group as well as the process of review by the department. The process of review shall include the means to coordinate with other agencies and Indian tribes when appropriate and to coordinate the review of any necessary hydraulic permit approval applications.

(2) The procedure for providing within forty-five days of receipt of a proposal a written response to the volunteer group indicating the date by which an acceptance or rejection of the proposal can be expected, the reason why the date was selected, and a written summary of the process of review. The response should also include any suggested modifications to the proposal which would increase its likelihood of approval and the date by which such modified proposal could be expected to be accepted. If the proposal is rejected, the department must provide in writing the reasons for rejection. The volunteer group may request the director or the director's designee to review information provided in the response.

(3) The priority of the uses to which eggs, seed, juveniles, or brood stock are put. Use by cooperative projects shall be second in priority only to the needs of programs of the department or of other public agencies within the territorial boundaries of the state. Sales of eggs, seed, juveniles, or brood stock have a lower priority than use for cooperative projects. The rules must identify and implement appropriate protocols for brood stock handling, including the outplanting of adult fish, spawning, incubation, rearing, and release and establish a prioritized schedule for implementation of this act, and shall include directives for allowing more hatchery salmon to spawn naturally in areas where progeny of hatchery fish have spawned, including the outplanting of adult fish, in order to increase the number of viable salmon eggs and restore healthy numbers of fish within the state.
The procedure for the director to notify a volunteer group that the agreement for the project is being revoked for cause and the procedure for revocation. Revocation shall be documented in writing to the volunteer group. Cause for revocation may include: (a) The unavailability of adequate biological or financial resources; (b) the development of unacceptable biological or resource management conflicts; or (c) a violation of agreement provisions. Notice of cause to revoke for a violation of agreement provisions may specify a reasonable period of time within which the volunteer group must comply with any violated provisions of the agreement.

An appropriate method of distributing among volunteer groups fish, bird, or animal food or other supplies available for the program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 77.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall prepare an annual surplus salmon report. This report shall include the disposition of adult salmonids that have returned to salmonid hatchery facilities operated under the jurisdiction of the state that:

(a) Have not been harvested; and
(b) Were not allowed to escape for natural spawning.

(2) The report shall include, by species, the number and estimated weight of surplus salmon and steelhead and a description of the disposition of the adult carcasses including, but not limited to, the following categories:

(a) Disposed in landfills;
(b) Transferred to another government agency for reproductive purposes;
(c) Sold to contract buyers in the round;
(d) Sold to contract buyers after spawning;
(e) Transferred to Native American tribes;
(f) Donated to food banks; and
(g) Used in stream nutrient enrichment programs.

(3) The report shall also include, by species, information on the number of requests for viable salmon eggs, the number of these requests that were granted and the number that were denied, the geographic areas for which these requests were granted or denied, and a brief explanation given for each denial of a request for viable salmon eggs.

(4) The report shall be included in the biennial state of the salmon report required by RCW 77.85.020 and other similar state reports on salmon.

(5) The report shall include an assessment of the infrastructure needs and facility modifications necessary to implement this act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Kline, the Senate receded from the Senate amendment(s) to House Bill No. 1227.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kline, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1227 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Kline moved that the following striking amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 9A.76.110 and 1982 1st ex.s. c 47 s 23 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of escape in the first degree if any person having been released by court order or admitted to bail with knowledge of the requirement of a subsequent personal appearance before any court of this state, or of the requirement to report to a correctional facility for service of sentence, and who (knowingly) fails to appear or who fails to surrender for service of sentence as required is guilty of bail jumping.

(2) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this section that uncontrollable circumstances prevented the person from appearing or surrendering, and that the person appeared or surrendered as soon as such circumstances ceased to exist.

(3) Bail jumping is:

(a) A class A felony if the person was held for, charged with, or convicted of murder in the first degree;

(b) A class B felony if the person was held for, charged with, or convicted of a class A felony other than murder in the first degree;

(c) A class C felony if the person was held for, charged with, or convicted of a class B or class C felony;

(d) A misdemeanor if the person was held for, charged with, or convicted of a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. RCW 9A.76.120 and 1995 c 216 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person having been released by court order or admitted to bail with knowledge of the requirement of a subsequent personal appearance before any court of this state, or of the requirement to report to a correctional facility for service of sentence, and who (knowingly) fails to appear or who fails to surrender for service of sentence as required is guilty of bail jumping.

(2) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this section that uncontrollable circumstances prevented the person from appearing or surrendering, and that the person did not contribute to the creation of such circumstances in reckless disregard of the requirement to remain or return, and that the person returned to custody or the detention facility as soon as such circumstances ceased to exist.

(3) Escape in the first degree is a class B felony.

Sec. 3. RCW 9A.76.170 and 1983 1st ex.s. c 4 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of escape in the second degree if:

(a) He or she knowingly escapes from a detention facility;

(b) Having been charged with a felony or an equivalent juvenile offense, he or she knowingly escapes from custody; or

(c) Having been found to be a sexually violent predator and being under an order of conditional release, he or she knowingly escapes from custody or the detention facility.

(2) Escape in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 4. RCW 9A.76.010 and 1991 c 181 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions are applicable in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Custody" means restraint pursuant to a lawful arrest or an order of a court, or any period of service on a work crew:

PROVIDED, That custody pursuant to chapter 13.34 RCW and RCW 74.13.020 and 74.13.031 and chapter 13.32A RCW shall not be deemed custody for purposes of this chapter;

(2) "Detention facility" means any place used for the confinement of a person (a) arrested for, charged with or convicted of an offense, or (b) charged with being or adjudicated to be a juvenile offender as defined in RCW 13.40.020 as now existing or hereafter amended, or (c) held for extradition or as a material witness, or (d) otherwise confined pursuant to an order of a court, except an order under chapter 13.34 RCW or chapter 13.32A RCW, or (e) in any work release, furlough, or other such facility or program;

(3) "Contraband" means any article or thing which a person confined in a detention facility is prohibited from obtaining or possessing by statute, rule, regulation, or order of a court;

(4) "Uncontrollable circumstances" means an act of nature such as a flood, earthquake, or fire, or a medical condition that requires immediate hospitalization or treatment, or an act of man such as an automobile accident or threats of death, forcible sexual attack, or substantial bodily injury in the immediate future for which there is no time for a complaint to the authorities and no time or opportunity for the courts to resort to the courts.

Sec. 5. RCW 9.94A.360 and 2000 c 28 s 15 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed “other current offenses” within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Class A and sex prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions other than sex offenses shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without committing any crime that subsequently results in a conviction.

Class C prior felony convictions other than sex offenses shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without committing any crime that subsequently results in a conviction.

Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without committing any crime that subsequently results in a conviction.

This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

(3) Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law. Federal convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law. If there is no clearly comparable offense under Washington law or the offense is one that is usually considered subject to exclusive federal jurisdiction, the offense shall be scored as a class C felony equivalent if it was a felony under the relevant federal statute.

(4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5)(a) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(i) Prior offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently or prior juvenile offenses for which sentences were served consecutively, whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses using the “same crime conduct” analysis found in RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used. The current sentencing court may presume that such other prior offenses were not the same criminal conduct from sentences imposed on separate dates, or in separate counties or jurisdictions, or in separate complaints, indictments, or informations;

(ii) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(b) As used in this subsection (5), “served concurrently” means that: (i) The latter sentence was imposed with specific reference to the former; (ii) the concurrent relationship of the sentences was judicially imposed; and (iii) the concurrent timing of the sentences was not the result of a probation or parole revocation on the former offense.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11) or (12) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and ½ point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and ½ point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for a serious violent offense, count three points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and ½ point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior convictions as in subsection (8) of this section, however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction.

(11) If the present conviction is for a felony traffic offense count two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide or Vehicular Assault; for each felony offense count one point for each adult and ½ point for each juvenile prior conviction; for each serious traffic offense, other than those used for an enhancement pursuant to RCW 46.61.520(2), count one point for each adult and ½ point for each juvenile prior conviction.

(12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count three points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and two points for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(13) If the present conviction is for (Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060, Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070, or) Escape from Community Custody, RCW 72.09.310, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as ½ point.

(14) If the present conviction is for Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110, or Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120, count adult prior convictions as one point and juvenile prior convictions as ½ point.
(15) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2 or residential burglary, count priors as in subsection (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 or residential burglary conviction.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Following shelter care and no later than twenty-five days prior to fact-finding, the department, upon the parent’s request or counsel for the parent’s request, shall facilitate a conference to develop and specify in a written service agreement the expectations of both the department and the parent regarding the care and placement of the child.

The department shall invite to the conference the parent, counsel for the parent, the foster parent or other out-of-home care provider, caseworker, guardian ad litem, counselor, or other relevant health care provider, and any other person connected to the development and well-being of the child.

The initial written service agreement expectations must correlate with the court’s findings at the shelter care hearing. The written service agreement must set forth specific criteria that enables the court to measure the performance of both the department and the parent, and must be updated throughout the dependency process to reflect changes in expectations. The service agreement must serve as the unifying document for all expectations established in the department’s various case planning and case management documents and the findings and orders of the court during dependency proceedings.

The court shall review the written service agreement at each stage of the dependency proceedings and evaluate the performance of both the department and the parent for consistent, measurable progress in complying with the expectations identified in the agreement.

The case conference agreement must be agreed to and signed by the parties. The court shall not consider the content of the discussions at the case conference at the time of the fact-finding hearing for the purposes of establishing that the child is a dependent child, and the court shall not consider any documents or written materials presented at the case conference but not incorporated into the case conference agreement, unless the documents or written materials were prepared for purposes other than or as a result of the case conference and are otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence.

(2) At any other stage in a dependency proceeding, the department, upon the parent’s request, shall facilitate a case conference.

Sec. 2. RCW 13.34.062 and 2000 c 122 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

If the parent, guardian, or legal custodian does not sign the receipt, the reason for lack of a signature shall be written on the receipt. The receipt shall be made a part of the court's file in the dependency action.

If after making reasonable efforts to provide notification, child protective services is unable to determine the whereabouts of the parents, guardian, or legal custodian, the notice shall be delivered or sent to the last known address of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian.

(2) If child protective services is not required to give notice under RCW 13.34.060(2) and subsection (1) of this section, the juvenile court counselor assigned to the matter shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the time and place of any shelter care hearing, request that they be present, and inform them of their basic rights as provided by RCW 13.34.090.

3. Reasonable efforts to advise and to give notice, as required in RCW 13.34.060(2) and subsections (1) and (2) of this section, shall include, at a minimum, investigation of the whereabouts of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian. If such reasonable efforts are not successful, or the parent, guardian, or legal custodian does not appear at the shelter care hearing, the petitioner shall testify at the hearing or state in a declaration:

(b) Whether actual advice of rights was made, to whom it was made, and how it was made, including the substance of any oral communication or copies of written materials used.

4. The court shall hear evidence regarding notice given to, and efforts to notify, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian and shall examine the need for shelter care. The court shall hear evidence regarding the efforts made to place the child with a relative. The court shall make an express finding as to whether the notice required under RCW 13.34.060(2) and subsections (1) and (2) of this section was given to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian. All parties have the right to present testimony to the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care. Hearsay evidence before the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care must be supported by sworn testimony, affidavit, or declaration of the person offering such evidence.

5. You may request that the department facilitate a case conference to develop a written service agreement following the shelter care hearing. The caseworker's name and telephone number are: [insert name and telephone number].

6. Any parent, guardian, or legal custodian who for good cause is unable to attend the initial shelter care hearing may request that a subsequent shelter care hearing be scheduled. The request shall be made to the clerk of the court where the petition is filed prior to the initial shelter care hearing. Upon the request of the parent, the court shall schedule the hearing within seventy-two hours of the request, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The clerk shall notify all other parties of the hearing by any reasonable means.

Sec. 3. RCW 13.34.065 and 2000 c 122 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) The court shall release a child alleged to be dependent to the care, custody, and control of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian unless the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe that:

(a) After consideration of the specific services that have been provided, reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home and to make it possible for the child to return home; and

(b) All parties have the right to present testimony to the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care. Hearsay evidence before the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care must be supported by sworn testimony, affidavit, or declaration of the person offering such evidence.

If after making reasonable efforts to provide notification, child protective services is unable to determine the whereabouts of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian, the notice shall be delivered or sent to the last known address of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian.

If such reasonable efforts are not successful, or the parent, guardian, or legal custodian does not appear at the shelter care hearing, the petitioner shall testify at the hearing or state in a declaration:

(a) The efforts made to investigate the whereabouts of, and to advise, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian; and

(b) Whether actual advice of rights was made, to whom it was made, and how it was made, including the substance of any oral communication or copies of written materials used.

4. The court shall hear evidence regarding notice given to, and efforts to notify, the parent, guardian, or legal custodian and shall examine the need for shelter care. The court shall hear evidence regarding the efforts made to place the child with a relative. The court shall make an express finding as to whether the notice required under RCW 13.34.060(2) and subsections (1) and (2) of this section was given to the parent, guardian, or legal custodian. All parties have the right to present testimony to the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care. Hearsay evidence before the court regarding the need or lack of need for shelter care must be supported by sworn testimony, affidavit, or declaration of the person offering such evidence.

5. You may request that the department facilitate a case conference to develop a written service agreement following the shelter care hearing. The caseworker's name and telephone number are: [insert name and telephone number].

6. Any parent, guardian, or legal custodian who for good cause is unable to attend the initial shelter care hearing may request that a subsequent shelter care hearing be scheduled. The request shall be made to the clerk of the court where the petition is filed prior to the initial shelter care hearing. Upon the request of the parent, the court shall schedule the hearing within seventy-two hours of the request, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The clerk shall notify all other parties of the hearing by any reasonable means.

Sec. 4. RCW 13.34.180 and 2000 c 122 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) A petition seeking termination of a parent and child relationship may be filed in juvenile court by any party to the dependency proceedings concerning that child. Such petition shall conform to the requirements of RCW 13.34.040; shall be served upon the parties as provided in RCW 13.34.070(8); and shall allege all of the following unless subsection (2) or (3) of this section applies:

(a) That the child has been found to be a dependent child;
(b) That the court has entered a dispositional order pursuant to RCW 13.34.130;
(c) That the child has been removed or will, at the time of the hearing, have been removed from the custody of the parent for a period of at least six months pursuant to a finding of dependency;
(d) That the services ordered under RCW 13.34.136 have been expressly and understandably offered or provided and all necessary services, reasonably available, capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been expressly and understandably offered or provided;
(e) That there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future. A parent's failure to substantially improve parental deficiencies within twelve months following entry of the dispositional order shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that there is little likelihood that conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parent in the near future. The presumption shall not arise unless the petitioner makes a showing that all necessary services reasonably capable of correcting the parental deficiencies within the foreseeable future have been clearly offered or provided. In determining whether the conditions will be remedied the court may consider, but is not limited to, the following factors:

(i) Use of intoxicating or controlled substances so as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time or for periods of time that present a risk of imminent harm to the child, and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documented multiple failed treatment attempts; or
(ii) Psychological incapacity or mental deficiency of the parent that is so severe and chronic as to render the parent incapable of providing proper care for the child for extended periods of time or for periods of time that present a risk of imminent harm to the child, and documented unwillingness of the parent to receive and complete treatment or documentation that there is no treatment that can render the parent capable of providing proper care for the child in the near future; and
(f) That continuation of the parent and child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for early integration into a stable and permanent home.

(2) In lieu of the allegations in subsection (1) of this section, the petition may allege that the child was found under such circumstances that the whereabouts of the child's parent are unknown and no person has acknowledged paternity or maternity and requested custody of the child within two months after the child was found.

(3) In lieu of the allegations in subsection (1)(b) through (f) of this section, the petition may allege that the parent has been convicted of:

(a) Murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, or homicide by abuse as defined in chapter 9A.32 RCW against another child of the parent;
(b) Manslaughter in the first degree or manslaughter in the second degree, as defined in chapter 9A.32 RCW against another child of the parent;
(c) Attempting, conspiring, or soliciting another to commit one or more of the crimes listed in (a) or (b) of this subsection; or
(d) Assault in the first or second degree, as defined in chapter 9A.36 RCW, against the surviving child or another child of the parent.

(4) Notice of rights shall be served upon the parent, guardian, or legal custodian with the petition and shall be in substantially the following form:

"NOTICE

A petition for termination of parental rights has been filed against you. You have important legal rights and you must take steps to protect your interests. This petition could result in permanent loss of your parental rights.

1. You have the right to a fact-finding hearing before a judge.
2. You have the right to have a lawyer represent you at the hearing. A lawyer can look at the files in your case, talk to the department of social and health services and other agencies, tell you about the law, help you understand your rights, and help you at hearings. 3. At the hearing, you have the right to speak on your own behalf, to introduce evidence, to examine witnesses, and to receive a decision based solely on the evidence presented to the judge.

You should be present at this hearing.

You may call (insert agency) for more information about your child. The agency's name and telephone number are (insert name and telephone number).*

Sec. 5. RCW 13.34.138 and 2000 c 122 s 19 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except for children whose cases are reviewed by a citizen review board under chapter 13.70 RCW, the status of all children found to be dependent shall be reviewed by the court at least every six months from the beginning date of the placement episode or the date dependency is established, whichever is first, at a hearing in which it shall be determined whether court supervision should continue. The initial review hearing shall be an in-court review and shall be set six months from the beginning date of the placement episode or no more than ninety days from the entry of the disposition order, whichever comes first. The initial review hearing may be a permanency planning hearing when necessary to meet the time frames set forth in RCW 13.34.145(3) or 13.34.134. The review shall include findings regarding the agency and parental completion of disposition plan requirements, and if necessary, revised permanency time limits. This review shall consider both the agency's and parent's efforts that demonstrate consistent measurable progress over time in meeting the disposition plan requirements. The requirements for the initial review hearing, including the in-court requirement, shall be accomplished within existing resources. The supervising agency shall provide a foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative with notice of, and their right to an opportunity to be heard in, a review hearing.

(iii) Whether the parent, guardian, or legal custodian had actual notice of the right to be heard and whether the placement is appropriate;
(iv) Whether the placement is appropriate.
(v) Whether progress has been made toward correcting the problems that necessitated the child's placement in out-of-home care;
(vi) Whether the parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered specifying such services; and
(vii) Whether additional services, including housing assistance, are needed to facilitate the return of the child to the child's parents; if so, the court shall order that reasonable services be offered specifying such services; and (viii) The projected date by which the child will be returned home or other permanent plan of care will be implemented.
(c) The court at the review hearing may order that a petition seeking termination of the parent and child relationship be filed.

(2) The court's ability to order housing assistance under RCW 13.34.130 and this section is: (a) Limited to cases in which homelessness or the lack of adequate and safe housing is the primary reason for an out-of-home placement; and (b) subject to the availability of funds appropriated for this specific purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 13.34 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall, within existing resources, provide to parents requesting a multidisciplinary team, family group conference, prognostic staffing, or case conference, information that describes these processes prior to the processes being undertaken.

Sec. 7. RCW 13.34.110 and 2000 c 122 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

(i) Whether reasonable services have been provided to or offered to the parties to facilitate reunion, specifying the services provided or offered;
(ii) Whether the child has been placed in the least-restrictive setting appropriate to the child's needs, including whether consideration and preference has been given to placement with the child's relatives;
(iii) Whether there is a continuing need for placement and whether the placement is appropriate;
(iv) Whether there has been compliance with the case plan by the child, the child's parents, and the agency supervising the placement;
(v) Whether progress has been made toward correcting the problems that necessitated the child's placement in out-of-home care;

Sec. 8. RCW 13.34.130 no longer exists.
through counsel a completed stipulated or agreed dependency fact-finding/disposition statement in a form determined by the Washington state supreme court pursuant to General Rule GR 9.

3) Immediately after the entry of the findings of fact, the court shall hold a disposition hearing, unless there is good cause for continuing the matter for up to fourteen days. If good cause is shown, the case may be continued for longer than fourteen days. Notice of the time and place of the continued hearing may be given in open court. If notice in open court is not given to a party, that party shall be notified in certified mail of the time and place of any continued hearing. Unless there is reasonable cause to believe the health, safety, or welfare of the child would be jeopardized or efforts to reunite the parent and child would be hindered, the court shall direct the department to notify those adult persons who: (((1)) (a) Are related by blood or marriage to the child in the following degrees: Parent, grandparent, brother, sister, stepparent, stepbrother, stepsister, uncle, or aunt; (((2)) (b) are known to the department as having been in contact with the family or child within the past twelve months; and (((3)) (c) would be an appropriate placement for the child. Reasonable cause to dispense with notification to a parent under this section must be proved by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.

The parties need not appear at the fact-finding or dispositional hearing if the parties, their attorneys, the guardian ad litem, and court-appointed special advocates, if any, are all in agreement. (The court shall receive and review a social study before entering an order based on agreement. No social file or social study may be considered by the court in connection with the fact-establishment and enforcement of child support from parents of children in out-of-home placement under chapter 13.34 or 13.32A implementation of the rules to the appropriate committees of the legislature prior to the 2002 legislative session."

Correct the title., and the same are herewith transmitted.

MR. PRESIDENT:

Under suspension of the rules, SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5438 was returned to second reading for purpose of an amendment and the bill passed the House with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 77.32.380 and 2000 c 107 s 271 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Persons who enter upon or use clearly identified department improved access facilities with a motor vehicle may be required to display a current annual fish and wildlife lands vehicle use permit on the motor vehicle while within or while using an improved access facility. An "improved access facility" is a clearly identified area specifically created for motor vehicle parking, and includes any boat launch or boat ramp associated with the parking area, but does not include the department parking facilities at the Gorge Concert Center near George, Washington. (The vehicle use permit is issued in the form of a decal.) One (decal) vehicle use permit shall be issued at no charge with (each) an initial purchase of either an annual saltwater, freshwater, combination, small game hunting, big game hunting, (and) or trapping license issued by the department. The annual fee for a fish and wildlife lands vehicle use permit, if purchased separately, is ten dollars. A person to whom the department has issued a ((decal)) vehicle use permit or who has purchased a vehicle use permit separately may purchase ((a decal)) additional vehicle use permits from the department ((for each additional vehicle owned by the person)) at a cost of five dollars per ((decal upon a showing of proof to the department that the person owns the additional vehicle or vehicles)) vehicle use permit. Youth groups may use department improved access facilities without possessing a vehicle use permit when accompanied by a vehicle use permit holder.

The department may accept contributions into the state wildlife fund for the sound stewardship of fish and wildlife. Contributors shall be known as "conservation patrons" and, for contributions of twenty dollars or more, shall receive a fish and wildlife lands vehicle use permit free of charge.

(2) The ((decal)) vehicle use permit must be ((affixed in a permanent manner to)) displayed from the interior of the motor vehicle so that it is clearly visible from outside of the motor vehicle before entering upon or using the motor vehicle on a department improved access facility((, and must be displayed on the rear window of the motor vehicle, or, if the motor vehicle does not have a rear window, on the rear of the motor vehicle)). The vehicle use permit can be transferred between two vehicles and must contain space for the vehicle license numbers of each vehicle.

(3) Failure to display the fish and wildlife lands vehicle use permit if required by this section is an infraction under chapter 7.84 RCW, and department employees are authorized to issue a notice of infraction to the registered owner of any motor vehicle entering upon or using a department improved access facility without such a ((decal)) vehicle use permit. The penalty for failure to clearly display ((or improper display of)) the ((decal)) vehicle use permit is sixty-six dollars. This penalty is reduced to thirty dollars if the registered owner provides proof to the court that he or she purchased a vehicle use permit within fifteen days after the issuance of the notice of violation "and the same are herewith transmitted."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 12, 2001

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 5333 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Sec. 1. RCW 90.03.290 and 1994 c 264 s 84 are each amended to read as follows:

1 When an application complying with the provisions of this chapter and with the rules (and regulations) of the department has been filed, the same shall be placed on record with the department, and it shall be its duty to investigate the application, and determine what water, if any, is available for appropriation, and find and determine to what beneficial use or uses it can be applied. If it is proposed to appropriate water for irrigation purposes, the department shall investigate, determine and find what lands are capable of irrigation by means of water found available for appropriation. If it is proposed to appropriate water for the purpose of power development, the department shall investigate, determine and find whether the proposed development is likely to prove detrimental to the public interest, having in mind the highest feasible use of the waters belonging to the public.

2(a) If the application does not contain, and the applicant does not promptly furnish sufficient information on which to base such findings, the department may issue a preliminary permit, for a period of not to exceed three years, requiring the applicant to make such surveys, investigations, studies, and progress reports, as in the opinion of the department may be necessary. If the applicant fails to comply with the conditions of the preliminary permit, it and the application or applications on which it is based shall be automatically canceled and the applicant so notified. If the holder of a preliminary permit shall, before its expiration, file with the department a verified report of expenditures made and work done under the preliminary permit, which, in the opinion of the department, establishes the good faith, intent, and ability of the applicant to carry on the proposed development, the preliminary permit may, with the approval of the governor, be extended, but not to exceed a maximum period of five years from the date of the issuance of the preliminary permit.
(b) For any application for which a preliminary permit was issued and for which the availability of water was directly affected by a moratorium on further diversions from the Columbia river during the years from 1990 to 1998, the preliminary permit is extended through June 30, 2002. If such an application and preliminary permit were canceled during the moratorium, the application and preliminary permit shall be reinstated until June 30, 2002, if the application and permit: (i) Are for providing regional water supplies in more than one urban growth area designated under chapter 36.70A RCW and in one or more areas near such urban growth areas, or the application and permit are modified for providing such supplies, and (ii) provide or are modified to provide such regional supplies through the use of existing intake or diversion structures. The authority to modify such a canceled application and permit to accomplish the objectives of (b)(i) and (ii) of this subsection is hereby granted.

(3) The department shall make and file as part of the record in the matter, written findings of fact concerning all things investigated, and if it shall find that there is water available for appropriation for a beneficial use, and the appropriation thereof as proposed in the application will not impair existing rights or be detrimental to the public welfare, it shall issue a permit stating the amount of water to which the applicant shall be entitled and the beneficial use or uses to which it may be applied: PROVIDED, That where the water applied for is to be used for irrigation purposes, it shall become appurtenant only to such land as may be reclaimed thereby to the full extent of the soil for agricultural purposes. But where there is no unappropriated water in the proposed source of supply, or where the proposed use conflicts with existing rights, or threatens to prove detrimental to the public interest, having due regard to the highest feasible development of the use of the waters belonging to the public, it shall be duty of the department to reject such application and to refuse to issue the permit asked for.

(4) If the permit is refused because of conflict with existing rights and such applicant shall acquire same by purchase or condemnation under RCW 90.03.040, the department may thereupon grant such permit. Any application may be approved for a less amount of water than that applied for, if there exists substantial reason therefor, and in any event shall not be approved for more water than can be applied to beneficial use for the purposes named in the application. In determining whether or not a permit shall issue upon any application, it shall be the duty of the department to investigate all facts relevant and material to the application. After the department approves said application in whole or in part and before any permit shall be issued thereon to the applicant, such applicant shall pay the fee provided in RCW 90.03.470: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in the event a permit is issued by the department upon any application, it shall be its duty to notify the director of fish and wildlife of such issuance.

The legislature finds that a comprehensive program of monitoring is fundamental to making sound public policy and programmatic decisions regarding salmon recovery and watershed health. Monitoring provides accountability for results of management actions and provides the data upon which an adaptive management framework can lead to improvement of strategies and programs. Monitoring is also a required element of any salmon recovery plan submitted to the federal government for approval. While numerous agencies and citizen organizations are engaged in monitoring a wide range of salmon recovery and watershed health parameters, there is a greater need for coordination of monitoring efforts, for using limited monitoring resources to obtain information most useful for achieving relevant local, state, and federal requirements regarding watershed health and salmon recovery, and for making the information more accessible to those agencies and organizations.

(b) For any application for which a preliminary permit was issued and for which the availability of water was directly affected by a moratorium on further diversions from the Columbia river during the years from 1990 to 1998, the preliminary permit is extended through June 30, 2002. If such an application and preliminary permit were canceled during the moratorium, the application and preliminary permit shall be reinstated until June 30, 2002, if the application and permit: (i) Are for providing regional water supplies in more than one urban growth area designated under chapter 36.70A RCW and in one or more areas near such urban growth areas, or the application and permit are modified for providing such supplies, and (ii) provide or are modified to provide such regional supplies through the use of existing intake or diversion structures. The authority to modify such a canceled application and permit to accomplish the objectives of (b)(i) and (ii) of this subsection is hereby granted.

The secretory called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5333, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:

Under suspension of the rules, SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5637 was returned to second reading for purpose of an amendment and the bill passed the House with the following amendment(s):

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that a comprehensive program of monitoring is fundamental to making sound public policy and programmatic decisions regarding salmon recovery and watershed health. Monitoring provides accountability for results of management actions and provides the data upon which an adaptive management framework can lead to improvement of strategies and programs. Monitoring is also a required element of any salmon recovery plan submitted to the federal government for approval. While numerous agencies and citizen organizations are engaged in monitoring a wide range of salmon recovery and watershed health parameters, there is a greater need for coordination of monitoring efforts, for using limited monitoring resources to obtain information most useful for achieving relevant local, state, and federal requirements regarding watershed health and salmon recovery, and for making the information more accessible to those agencies and organizations.
implementing watershed health programs and projects. Regarding salmon recovery monitoring, the state independent science panel has concluded that many programs already monitor indicators relevant to salmonids, but the efforts are largely uncoordinated or unlinked among programs, have different objectives, use different indicators, lack support for sharing data, and lack shared statistical designs to address specific issues raised by listing of salmonid species under the federal endangered species act.

Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to encourage the refocusing of existing agency monitoring activities necessary to implement a comprehensive watershed health monitoring program, with a focus on salmon recovery. The program should: Be based on a framework of greater coordination of existing monitoring activities; require monitoring activities most relevant to adopted local, state, and federal watershed health objectives; and facilitate the exchange of monitoring information with agencies and organizations carrying out watershed health, salmon recovery, and water resources management planning and programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 90.82 RCW to read as follows:

in conducting assessments and other studies that include monitoring components or recommendations, the department and planning units shall implement the monitoring recommendations developed under section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 77.85 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The monitoring oversight committee is hereby established. The committee shall be comprised of the directors or their designated representatives of:

(a) The salmon recovery office;
(b) The department of ecology;
(c) The department of fish and wildlife;
(d) The conservation commission;
(e) The Puget Sound action team;
(f) The department of natural resources;
(g) The department of transportation; and
(h) The interagency committee for outdoor recreation.

(2) The director of the salmon recovery office and the chair of the salmon recovery funding board, or their designees, shall cochair the committee. The cochairs shall convene the committee as necessary to develop, for the consideration of the governor and legislature, a comprehensive and coordinated monitoring strategy and action plan on watershed health with a focus on salmon recovery. The committee shall invite representation from the treaty tribes to participate in the committee's efforts. In addition, the committee shall invite participation by other state, local, and federal agencies and other entities as appropriate. The committee shall address the monitoring recommendations of the independent science panel provided under RCW 77.85.040(7) and of the joint legislative audit and review committee in its report number 01-1 on investing in the environment.

(3) The independent science panel shall act as an advisor to the monitoring oversight committee and shall review all work products developed by the committee and make recommendations to the committee cochairs.

(4) A legislative steering committee is created consisting of four legislators. Two of the legislators shall be members of the house of representatives, each representing different major political parties, appointed by the co-speakers of the house of representatives. The other two legislators shall be members of the senate, each representing different major political parties, appointed by the president of the senate. The monitoring oversight committee shall provide briefings to the legislative steering committee on a quarterly basis on the progress that the oversight committee is making on the development of the coordinated monitoring strategy and action plan, and the establishment of an adaptive management framework. The briefings shall include information on how the monitoring strategy will be coordinated with other government efforts, expected benefits and efficiencies that will be achieved, recommended funding sources and funding levels that will ensure stable sources of funding for monitoring, and the efforts and cooperation provided by agencies to improve coordination of their activities.

(5) The committee shall make recommendations to individual agencies to improve coordination of monitoring activities.

(6) The committee shall:

(a) Define the monitoring goals, objectives, and questions that must be addressed as part of a comprehensive statewide salmon recovery monitoring and adaptive management framework;
(b) Identify and evaluate existing monitoring activities for inclusion in the framework, while ensuring data consistency and coordination and the filling of monitoring gaps;
(c) Recommend statistical designs appropriate to the objectives;
(d) Recommend performance measures appropriate to the objectives and targeted to the appropriate geographical, temporal, and biological scales;
(e) Recommend standardized monitoring protocols for salmon recovery and watershed health;
(f) Recommend procedures to ensure quality assurance and quality control of all relevant data;
(g) Recommend data transfer protocols to support easy access, sharing, and coordination among different collectors and users;
(h) Recommend ways to integrate monitoring information into decision making;
(i) Recommend organizational and governance structures for oversight and implementation of the coordinated monitoring framework;

(7) In developing the coordinated monitoring strategy, the committee shall coordinate with other appropriate state, federal, local, and tribal monitoring efforts, including but not limited to the Northwest power planning council, the Northwest Indian fisheries commission, the national marine fisheries service, and the United States fish and wildlife service. The committee shall also consult with watershed planning units under chapter 90.82 RCW, lead entities under this chapter, professional organizations, and other appropriate groups.

(8) The cochairs shall provide an interim report to the governor and the members of the appropriate legislative committees by March 1, 2002, on the progress made in implementing this section. By December 1, 2002, the committee shall provide a monitoring strategy and action plan to the governor, and the members of the appropriate legislative committees for achieving a comprehensive watershed health monitoring program with a focus on salmon recovery. The strategy and action plan shall document the results of the committee's actions in addressing the responsibilities described in subsection (6) of this section. In addition, the monitoring strategy and action plan shall include an assessment of existing state agency operations related to monitoring, evaluation, and adaptive management of watershed health and salmon recovery, and shall recommend any operational or statutory changes and funding necessary to fully implement the enhanced coordination program developed under this section. The plan shall make recommendations based upon the goal of fully realizing an enhanced and coordinated monitoring program by June 30, 2007.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If specific funding for the purposes of this act, referencing this act by bill or chapter number, is not provided by June 30, 2001, in the omnibus appropriations act, this act is null and void."

Correct the title., and the same are herewith transmitted.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5637, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed There being no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:

Under suspension of the rules, ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5695 was returned to second reading for purpose of an amendment and the bill passed the House with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares:

(1) Teacher qualifications and effectiveness are the most important influences on student learning in schools.
(2) Preparation of individuals to become well-qualified, effective teachers must be high quality.
(3) Teachers who complete high-quality alternative route programs with intensive field-based experience, adequate coursework, and strong mentorship do as well or better than teachers who complete traditional preparation programs.
(4) High-quality alternative route programs can provide more flexibility and expedience for individuals to transition from their current career to teaching.
(5) High-quality alternative route programs can help school districts fill subject matter shortage areas and areas with shortages due to geographic location.
(6) Regardless of route, all candidates for residency teacher certification must meet the high standards required by the state.

The legislature recognizes widespread concerns about the potential for teacher shortages and finds that classified instructional staff in public schools represent a great untapped resource for recruiting the teachers of the future.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby created a statewide partnership grant program to provide new high-quality alternative routes to residency teacher certification. To the extent funds are appropriated for this specific purpose, funds provided under this partnership grant program shall be used solely for school districts, or consortia of school districts, to partner with state-approved higher education teacher preparation programs to provide one or more of three alternative route programs in section 5 of this act, aimed at recruiting candidates to teaching in subject matter shortage areas and areas with shortages due to geographic location. Districts, or consortia of districts, may also include their educational service districts in their partnership grant program.

Partnership programs receiving grants may enroll candidates as early as January 2002.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Each district or consortia of school districts applying for state funds through this program shall submit a proposal to the Washington professional educator standards board specifying:

(a) The route or routes the partnership program intends to offer and a detailed description of how the routes will be structured and operated by the partnership;
(b) The number of candidates that will be enrolled per route;
(c) An identification, indication of commitment, and description of the role of approved teacher preparation programs that are partnering with the district or consortia of districts;
(d) An assurance of district provision of adequate training for mentor teachers either through participation in a state mentor training academy or district-provided training that meets state-established mentor-training standards specific to the mentoring of alternative route candidate candidates;
(e) An assurance that significant time will be provided for mentor teachers to spend with the alternative route teacher candidates throughout the internship. Partnerships must provide each candidate with intensive classroom mentoring until such time as the candidate demonstrates the competency necessary to manage the classroom with less intensive supervision and guidance from a mentor;
(f) A description of the rigorous screening process for applicants to alternative route programs, including entry requirements specific to each route, as provided in section 5 of this act; and
(g) The design and use of a teacher development plan for each candidate. The plan shall specify the alternative route coursework and training required of each candidate and shall be developed by comparing the candidate’s prior experience and coursework with the state’s new performance-based standards for residency certification and adjusting any requirements accordingly. The plan may include the following components:
(i) A minimum of one-half of a school year, and an additional significant amount of time if necessary, of intensive mentorship, starting with full-time mentoring and progressing to increasingly less intensive monitoring and assistance as the intern demonstrates the skills necessary to take over the classroom with less intensive support. For route one and two candidates, before the supervision is diminished, the mentor of the teacher candidate at the school and the supervisor of the teacher candidate from the higher education teacher preparation program must both agree that the teacher candidate is ready to manage the classroom with less intensive supervision. For route three candidates, the mentor of the teacher candidate shall make the decision;

(2) Selection of proposals shall also take into consideration the need to ensure an adequate number of candidates for each type of route in order to evaluate their success.

The state shall forgive one year of loan obligation for every two years a recipient teaches in a public school. Recipients that fail to continue a course of study leading to residency teacher certification or cease to teach in a public school in the state of Washington in their endorsement area are required to repay the remaining loan principal with interest and any other applicable fees. The Washington state institute for public policy shall submit to the education and fiscal committees of the legislature, the governor, the state board of education, and the Washington professional educator standards board, an interim evaluation of partnership grant programs funded under this chapter by December 1, 2002, and a final evaluation by December 1, 2004. If specific funding for the purposes of this section, referencing this section and this act by bill or chapter number, is not provided by June 30, 2001, in the omnibus appropriations act, this section is null and void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 and 10 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 28A RCW.

I had asked Pastor Shaffer and Barbara to stay for lunch today, but they have to go back and I wanted to share with you why they are going back. Pastor Shaffer is going back to perform a wedding this afternoon for a couple who are eighty-nine and ninety years old. There is hope for all of us. MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In compliance with the provision of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the state of Washington, the Governor hereby submits his report of each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon that he has granted since the adjournment of the 2000 Second Special Session of the 56th Legislature, copy of which is attached.

Sincerely,

EVERETT H. BILLINGSLEA, General Counsel

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
ARMANDO GABRIEL GONZALEZ-VILLEGAS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, on March 15, 1995 Armando Gabriel Gonzalez-Villegas, INS No. A75-101-144, pled guilty to one count of possession of cocaine. In 1990, Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas, then age 19 and a recent immigrant from Mexico, was riding in a car with several acquaintances. Police stopped the car, and one of its occupants (not Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas) was found to possess a small amount of cocaine. Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas was charged with possession of cocaine together with the other occupants of the car. He then returned to Mexico without resolving the legation. On February 18, 1993, Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas married Maricela Hummel, a U.S. citizen but a resident of Mexico. In 1994, Mr. and Mrs. Gonzalez-Villegas moved to the United States. On March 14, 1995, Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas pled guilty to the possession of cocaine charge. He received a sentence of 28 days, which he had already served, and 12 months community supervision. Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas fully completed all terms of his sentence; and
WHEREAS, Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas now has three children, steady employment, is an active and productive member of the community, and is highly regarded by his friends, neighbors and employer. This was the sole criminal offense of his life, and the prosecutor did not oppose the request for this pardon. Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas resides in Washington with his wife, Maricela. They have three children - Priscilla, age 5; Jennifer, age 3; and Sharon, age 23 months. Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas is a dedicated father and husband. Supporting letters from his employers, friends, and his priest describe a strong nuclear family with regular church attendance. There is strong community support for allowing Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas to remain in the United States based upon his contribution to society and dedication to his family, which is clearly evident to others. A family friend and neighbor, Chief Petty Officer Leonard Hartford of the United States Navy, traveled to Olympia and made a strong presentation in person to the Clemency and Pardons Board as to the value of Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas to the community and his family; and

WHEREAS, the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service is seeking to remove Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas from the United States and, if successful, the law would prevent his return for at least ten years. Under current court orders, Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas must be outside of the United States by March 8, 2001. Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas’s removal is being sought pursuant to the retroactive application of the federal Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, which was passed by Congress on September 30, 1996. A full and unconditional pardon is the only avenue of relief that will allow Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas to continue his life with his family in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board was convinced that Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas has fully paid for his actions, is and will continue to be a worthy and productive member of society in the United States, and that removing him from the United States would serve no purpose other than to destroy the hope and opportunity for this young man to live a productive life in the United States with his family; and

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the unanimous favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and the purpose for Mr. Gonzalez-Villegas’s request, and in light of the circumstances of the crime and all other factors, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gary Locke, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Armando Gabriel Gonzalez-Villegas this Full and Unconditional Pardon for the express purpose of allowing him to lawfully remain in the United States and eventually become a citizen of the United States. This Full and Unconditional Pardon does not restore the right to receive, possess, own, ship or transport firearms, and shall not under any circumstances be construed to remove any disability related to firearms under any state or federal law.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Deccio: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Today is a day that will go down in history when we honor someone who looks older than his years--someone you might have the privilege of not calling a friend over these last twenty years--someone who really needs no introduction and we certainly won’t ask him to make one. Today is Bob McCaslin’s seventy-fifth birthday and I think it would be appropriate, Mr. President, if we all sang, ‘Happy Birthday Bob.”

The Senate sang Happy Birthday to Senator McCaslin.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hewitt: “I rise to a point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Well, Senator Deccio, you just blew my entire deal. I stayed up all night and had something fixed for Senator Mcaslin, this morning. I was going to keep you all in suspense as to what it was, but since there is no suspense any longer, I will just tell you a few stories about Senator Mcaslin. I haven’t been here very long, but I have noticed a few things about this gentleman and one of the things that I have noticed about this Senator is he has touched us all in one way or another. You can’t help but love this Senator, although sometimes he can strike you the other way. He loves to nibble. In fact, I keep mints out here on the table and he often walks by--there is a little thing you can drop a nickel in here--that is kind of the entrepreneurship in me, but he is one of the few that doesn’t drop his nickel in and keeps going. I understand that over the years he has been known to have Wheat Thins snuck in on the floor and he would eat those Wheat Thins on the floor.

“I did hear a very good story from Senator Amondson, who is here with us today to help us celebrate this birthday. Here he is over here in the corner--a retired Senator. The story goes something like this: It seems that when these mints that are around on the tables, Bob walks by and eats them at his leisure. Well, one day, someone stuck in a mint that comes from the dentist that is good for plaque. He stuck this mint in his mouth and this thing started foaming and turning a red color and doing all kinds of things. Senator Amondson then calls on Senator McCaslin to ask him a question and he stands up and his mouth is foaming and there is red stuff coming out of his mouth. It makes for a great story. I was wishing that we could have Senator Amondson come on the floor and tell this story this morning, but we weren’t able to. I can tell you that up front we have bags of trail mix and Wheat Thins and we have some Tums for every Senator on the floor, because Bob would like to give back to those who have given to him for the past twenty-one years. Happy Birthday, Bob.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hargrove: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Well, I have to say that Senator Mcaslin is one of the members of the fat-head caucus. He is the only one here on the floor that has a larger neck than me. However, he is wise enough to buy larger shirts, too. Anyway, Bob, Happy Birthday. I appreciate you very much.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Snyder: “Thank you, Mr. President. I just want to make a couple remarks here. I am pleased that his birthday has arrived, because he is now older than I am until July 30. I talked to my wife this morning and she said to wish him a Happy Birthday. She always did like younger men. There is another significant birthday today of someone that has gone down in history and it was Adolf Hitler’s birthday today.”

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Honeyford: “Senator McCaslin, is there any truth to the rumor that you were an advisor to the movie set of ‘Grumpy Old Men?’ Senator McCaslin: “Is that out already?” Senator Honeyford: “Yes, I think there is one that is now ‘Grumpier Old Men,’ and thought you probably acted in both of them.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. To end debate—Senator Hargrove—what he failed to mention on the fat-head club, he is the president—and I hereby resign. May I say just a couple of words? It is a blessing to reach seventy-five. The only one older than me is Senator Deccio—and the capitol. Senator Snyder is next in July, I believe. Isn’t it amazing the wonderful people that were born in 1926—a vintage year? ‘Just think for a minute how very, very fortunate and lucky all of us are as State Senators. When we have over five million people in this state—almost six million—aren’t we fortunate? Just to be serious for a minute, that you are going to represent one hundred twenty thousand people and we in all represent over five million people—so you are one of a few. God has blessed us all to be able to represent these people. While we have divergence and a difference of opinion, I think we all want the same thing—better things for our citizens, better things for our state, better things for education, better things for children. So, while we may have a few moments here that we may disagree and get all upset, I think we are brothers under the skin and brothers for a certain cause and that cause is to help people. Consider yourself very lucky. I consider the people you represent very lucky, because you are all very serious and intelligent hard working people. I thank God and I thank you for this day.”

MOTION

At 10:04 a.m., on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 1:35 p.m. by President Owen.

MR. PRESIDENT:

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk
TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1680 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Haugen moved that the Senate reconsider the Committee on Transportation striking amendment adopted April 4, 2001.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Haugen that the Senate reconsider the Committee on Transportation striking amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1680.

The motion by Senator Haugen carried and the Senate will reconsider the Committee on Transportation striking amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1680.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, the following amendment by Senators Haugen and Benton to the Committee on Transportation striking amendment, on reconsideration, was adopted:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that a 2001 audit, conducted by Talbot, Korvola & Warwick, examining the Washington state ferries' capital program resulted in a recommendation for improvements and changes in auto ferry procurement processes. The auditors recommended that auto ferries be procured through use of a modified request for proposals process whereby the prevailing shipbuilder and Washington state ferries engage in a design and build partnership. This process promotes ownership of the design by the shipbuilder while using the department of transportation's expertise in ferry design and operations. Alternative processes like design-build partnerships can promote innovation and create competitive incentives that increase the likelihood of finishing projects on time and within the budget.

The purpose of this act is to authorize the department's use of a modified request for proposals process for procurement of auto ferries, and to prescribe appropriate requirements and criteria to ensure that contracting procedures for this procurement process serve the public interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 47.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department of transportation shall develop a process for awarding competitively bid highway construction contracts for projects over ten million dollars that may be constructed using a design-build procedure. As used in this section and section 3 of this act, "design-build procedure" means a method of contracting under which the department of transportation contracts with another party for the party to both design and build the structures, facilities, and other items specified in the contract.

The process developed by the department must, at a minimum, include the scope of services required under the design-build procedure, contractor prequalification requirements, criteria for evaluating technical information and project costs, contractor selection process, and issue resolution procedures. This section expires April 30, 2008.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 47.20 RCW to read as follows:

The department of transportation may use the design-build procedure for public works projects over ten million dollars where:

(1) The construction activities are highly specialized and a design-build approach is critical in developing the construction methodology; or

(2) The projects selected provide opportunity for greater innovation and efficiencies between the designer and the builder; or

(3) Significant savings in project delivery time would be realized.

This section expires April 30, 2008.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department may purchase new auto ferries through use of a modified request for proposals process whereby the prevailing shipbuilder and the department engage in a design and build partnership for the design and construction of the auto ferries. The process consists of the three phases described in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout sections 5 through 10 of this act.

(a) "Phase one" means the evaluation and selection of proposers to participate in development of technical proposals in phase two.

(b) "Phase two" means the preparation of technical proposals by the selected proposers in consultation with the department.

(c) "Phase three" means the submittal and evaluation of bids, the award of the contract to the successful proposer, and the design and construction of the auto ferries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

To commence the request for proposals process, the department shall publish a notice of its intent once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in at least one trade paper and one other paper, both of general circulation in the state. The notice must contain, but is not limited to, the following information:
(1) The number of auto ferries to be procured, the auto and passenger capacities, the delivery dates, and the estimated price range for the contract;
(2) A statement that a modified request for proposals design and build partnership will be used in the procurement process;
(3) A short summary of the requirements for prequalification of proposers including a statement that prequalification is a prerequisite to submittal of a proposal in phase one; and
(4) An address and telephone number that may be used to obtain a prequalification questionnaire and the request for proposals.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:
Subject to legislative appropriation for the procurement of vessels, the department shall issue a request for proposals to interested parties that must include, at least, the following:
(1) Solicitation of a proposal to participate in a design and build partnership with the department to design and construct the auto ferries;
(2) Instructions on the prequalification process and procedures;
(3) A description of the modified request for proposals process. Under this process, the department may modify any component of the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, by addendum at any time before the submittal of bids in phase three;
(4) A description of the design and build partnership process to be used for procurement of the vessels;
(5) Outline specifications that provide the requirements for the vessels including, but not limited to, items such as length, beam, displacement, speed, propulsion requirements, capacities for autos and passengers, passenger space characteristics, and crew size. The department will produce notional line drawings depicting hull geometry that will interface with Washington state ferries terminal facilities. Notional lines may be modified in phase two, subject to approval by the department;
(6) Instructions for the development of technical proposals in phase two, and information regarding confidentiality of technical proposals;
(7) The vessel delivery schedule, identification of the port on Puget Sound where delivery must take place, and the location where acceptance trials must be held;
(8) The estimated price range for the contract;
(9) The form and amount of the required bid deposit and contract security;
(10) A copy of the contract that will be signed by the successful proposer;
(11) The date by which proposals in phase one must be received by the department in order to be considered;
(12) A description of the process that will be used in the proposals in phase one concerning each proposer's qualifications, capabilities, and experience;
(13) A statement of the maximum number of proposers that may be selected in phase one for development of technical proposals in phase two;
(14) Criteria that will be used for the phase one selection of proposers to participate in the phase two development of technical proposals;
(15) A description of the process that will be used for the phase three submittal and evaluation of bids, award of the contract, and postaward administrative activities;
(16) A requirement that the contractor comply with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations including but not limited to those pertaining to the environment, worker health and safety, and prevailing wages;
(17) A requirement that the vessels be constructed within the boundaries of the state of Washington except that equipment furnished by the state and components, products, and systems that are standard manufactured items are not subject to the in-state requirement under this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection, "constructed" means the fabrication, by the joining together by welding or fastening of all steel parts from which the total vessel is constructed, including, but not limited to, all shell frames, longitudinals, bulkheads, webs, piping runs, wire ways, and ducting. "Constructed" also means the installation of all components and systems, including, but not limited to, equipment and machinery, castings, electrical, electronics, deck covering, lining, paint, and joiner work required by the contract. "Constructed" also means the interconnection of all equipment, machinery, and services, such as piping, wiring, and ducting; and
(18) A requirement that all warranty work on the vessel must be performed within the boundaries of the state of Washington, insofar as practical.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:
Phase one of the request for proposals process consists of evaluation and selection of prequalified proposers to participate in subsequent development of technical proposals in phase two, as follows:
(1) The department shall issue a request for proposals to interested parties.
(2) The request for proposals must require that each proposer prequalify for the contract under chapter 468-310 WAC, except that the department may adopt rules for the financial prequalification of proposers for this specific contract only. The department shall modify the financial prequalification rules in chapter 468-310 WAC in order to maximize competition among financially capable and otherwise qualified proposers. In adopting these rules, the department shall consider factors including, without limitation: (a) Shipyard resources in Washington state; (b) the cost to design and construct multiple vessels under a single contract without options; and (c) the sequenced delivery schedule for the vessels.
(3) The department may use some, or all, of the nonfinancial prequalification factors as part of the evaluation factors in phase one to enable the department to select a limited number of best qualified proposers to participate in development of technical proposals in phase two.
(4) The department shall evaluate submitted proposals in accordance with the selection criteria established in the request for proposals. Selection criteria may include, but are not limited to, the following:
(a) Shipyard facilities;
(b) Organization components;
(c) Design capability;
(d) Build strategy;
(e) Experience and past performance;
(f) Ability to meet vessel delivery dates;
(g) Projected workload; and
(h) Expertise of project team and other key personnel.

(5) Upon concluding its evaluation of proposals, the department shall select the best qualified proposers in accordance with the request for proposals. The selected proposers must participate in development of technical proposals. Selection must be made in accordance with the selection criteria stated in the request for proposals. All proposers must be ranked in order of preference as derived from the same selection criteria.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

Phase two of the request for proposals process consists of preparation of technical proposals in consultation with the department, as follows:

(1) The development of technical proposals in compliance with the detailed instructions provided in the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, and any addenda to them. Technical proposals must include the following:
   (a) Design and specifications sufficient to fully depict the ferries’ characteristics and identify installed equipment;
   (b) Drawings showing arrangements of equipment and details necessary for the proposer to develop a firm, fixed price bid;
   (c) Project schedule including vessel delivery dates; and
   (d) Other appropriate items.

(2) The department shall conduct periodic reviews with each of the selected proposers to consider and critique their designs, drawings, and specifications. These reviews must be held to ensure that technical proposals meet the department's requirements and are responsive to the critiques conducted by the department during the development of technical proposals.

(3) If, as a result of the periodic technical reviews or otherwise, the department determines that it is in the best interests of the department to modify any element of the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, it shall do so by written addenda to the request for proposals.

(4) Proposers must submit final technical proposals for approval that include design, drawings, and specifications at a sufficient level of detail to fully depict the ferries’ characteristics and identify installed equipment, and to enable a proposer to deliver a firm, fixed price bid to the department. The department shall reject final technical proposals that modify, fail to conform to, or are not fully responsive to and in compliance with the requirements of the request for proposals, including the outline specifications, as amended by addenda.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

Phase three consists of the submittal and evaluation of bids and the award of the contract to the successful proposer for the detailed design and construction of the auto ferries, as follows:

(1) The department shall request bids for detailed design and construction of the vessels after completion of the review of technical proposals in phase two. The department will review detailed design drawings in phase three for conformity with the technical proposals submitted in phase two. In no case may the department's review replace the builder's responsibility to deliver a product meeting the phase two technical proposal. The department may only consider bids from selected proposers that have qualified to bid by submitting technical proposals that have been approved by the department.

(2) Each qualified proposer must submit its total bid price for all vessels, including certification that the bid is based upon its approved technical proposal and the request for proposals.

(3) Bids constitute an offer and remain open for ninety days from the date of the bid opening. A deposit in cash, certified check, cashier's check, or surety bond in an amount specified in the request for proposals must accompany each bid and no bid may be considered unless the deposit is enclosed.

(4) The department shall evaluate the submitted bids. Upon completing the bid evaluation, the department may select the responsive and responsible proposer that offers the lowest total bid price for all vessels.

(5) The department may waive informalities in the proposal and bid process, accept a bid from the lowest responsive and responsible proposer, reject any or all bids, republish, and revise or cancel the request for proposals to serve the best interests of the department.

(6) The department may:
   (a) Award the contract to the proposer that has been selected as the responsive and responsible proposer that has submitted the lowest total bid price;
   (b) If a contract cannot be signed with the apparent successful proposer, award the contract to the next lowest responsive and responsible proposer; or
   (c) If necessary, repeat this procedure with each responsive and responsible proposer in order of rank until the list of those proposers has been exhausted.

(7) If the department awards a contract to a proposer under this section, and the proposer fails to enter into the contract and furnish satisfactory contract security as required by chapter 39.08 RCW within twenty days from the date of award, its deposit is forfeited to the state and will be deposited by the state treasurer to the credit of the Puget Sound capital construction account. Upon the execution of a ferry design and construction contract all proposal deposits will be returned.

(8) The department may provide an honorarium to reimburse each unsuccessful phase three proposer for a portion of its technical proposal preparation costs at a preset, fixed amount to be specified in the request for proposals. If the department rejects all bids, the department may provide the honoraria to all phase three proposers that submitted bids.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 47.60 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department shall immediately notify those proposers that are not selected to participate in development of technical proposals in phase one and those proposers who submit unsuccessful bids in phase three.

(2) The department’s decision is conclusive unless an aggrieved proposer files an appeal with the superior court of Thurston county within five days after receiving notice of the department’s award decision. The court shall hear any such appeal on the department's administrative record for the project. The court may affirm the decision of the department, or it may reverse or remand the administrative decision if it determines the action of the department was arbitrary and capricious.

SENATE RESOLUTION 2001-8676

By Senators McCaslin, Snyder, Kohl-Welles, McAuliffe and Rasmussen

WHEREAS, it is the tradition of the Washington State Senate to recognize individuals who make extraordinary personal contributions for the benefit of the greater good in times of sudden adversity; and

WHEREAS, on February 28, 2001, the 6.8 magnitude Nisqually Earthquake violently shook Western Washington and the Capital Campus, adversely affecting working conditions and threatening to significantly delay the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Legislators, staff and family members pulled together in the days immediately following the quake to clean up the damage and transition legislative operations into smaller, less conducive settings, so the Legislature could resume the people's work; and

WHEREAS, the teamwork and commitment displayed by all those involved in getting the Legislature operational again was incredibly inspiring and truly indicative of the service oriented attitude so many in the Legislature hold dear; and

WHEREAS, Doug Richards, an artist by hobby, a member of the Senate Security staff, was awestruck by the highly motivated teamwork demonstrated by the Legislature in preparing to finish the public's business, despite significant interruptions caused by the earthquake; and
WHEREAS, Doug Richards, inspired by the collective good done when individuals pulled together to solve shared problems, hand painted a charming mural on the walls of the west stairwell of the John A. Cherberg Building depicting the efforts of many in cleaning up after the quake; and
WHEREAS, Doug Richards provided a place in the mural for each who experienced the quake on campus to autograph the painting in memory of that experience; and
WHEREAS, the signatures on the mural now number in the hundreds as many of us have visited the stairwell and signed the wall; and
WHEREAS, Doug Richardson’s mural has become an integral part of the earthquake experience for many who lived it, and an attraction for curious visitors to the campus; and
WHEREAS, the mural reminds each of us of the value of human life, the importance of pulling together in times of trouble and the joy that can come from working together to achieve common goals;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Washington State Senate hereby recognize Doug Richards for his artistic contribution to the Legislature in the aftermath of the Nisqually Earthquake; and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Washington State Senate recommend that the mural be retained after repairs, if safe and feasible, to remind us all of the significance of the quake, the importance of friends and family, and the value of teamwork and cooperation; and

MR. PRESIDENT:
The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment(s) to SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1041 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

CYNTHIA ZEHNDER, Co-Chief Clerk
TIMOTHY A. MARTIN, Co-Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Klein, the Senate receded from its amendment(s) to Second Substitute House Bill No. 1041.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Klein, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute House Bill No. 1041 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Klein, the following striking amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that unlawful harassment directed at a child by a person under the age of eighteen is not acceptable and can have serious consequences. The legislature further finds that some interactions between minors, such as "schoolyard scuffles," though not to be condoned, may not rise to the level of unlawful harassment. It is the intent of the legislature that a protection order sought by the parent or guardian of a child as provided for in this chapter be available only when the alleged behavior of the person under the age of eighteen to be restrained rises to the level set forth in chapter 10.14 RCW.

Sec. 2. RCW 10.14.020 and 1999 c 27 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

"Unlawful harassment" means a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys, harasses, or is detrimental to such person, and which serves no legitimate or lawful purpose. The course of conduct shall be such as would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, and shall actually cause substantial emotional distress to the petitioner, or, when the course of conduct (i.e., contact by a person over age eighteen that) would cause a reasonable parent to fear for the well-being of their child.

(2) "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose. "Course of conduct" includes, in addition to any other form of communication, contact, or conduct, the sending of an electronic communication. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of "course of conduct."

Sec. 3. RCW 10.14.040 and 1995 c 292 s 2 and 1995 c 127 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

There shall exist an action known as a petition for an order for protection in cases of unlawful harassment.

(1) A petition for relief shall allege the existence of harassment and shall be accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought.

(2) A petition for relief may be made regardless of whether or not there is a pending lawsuit, complaint, petition, or other action between the parties.

(3) All court clerks' offices shall make available simplified forms and instructional brochures. Any assistance or information provided by clerks under this section does not constitute the practice of law and clerks are not responsible for incorrect information contained in a petition.

(4) Filing fees are set in RCW 36.18.020, but no filing fee may be charged for a petition filed in an existing action or under an existing cause number brought under this chapter in the jurisdiction where the relief is sought. Forms and instructional brochures shall be provided free of charge.

(5) A person is not required to post a bond to obtain relief in any proceeding under this section.

(6) The parent or guardian of a child under age eighteen may petition for an order of protection to restrain a person ((age eighteen years or over) from contact with that child upon a showing that contact with the person to be enjoined is detrimental to the welfare of the child.

(7) The parent or guardian of a child under the age of eighteen may petition in superior court for an order of protection to restrain a person under the age of eighteen years from contact with that child in cases where the person to be restrained has been adjudicated of an offense against the child protected by the order, or is under investigation or has been investigated for such an offense. In issuing a protection order under this subsection, the court shall consider, among the other facts of the case, the severity of the alleged offense, any continuing physical danger or emotional distress to the alleged victim, and the expense, difficulty, and educational disruption that would be caused by a transfer of the alleged offender to another school. The court may order that the person restrained in the order not attend the public or approved private elementary, middle, or high school attended by the person under the age of eighteen years protected by the order. In the event that the court orders a transfer of the restrained person to another school, the parents or legal guardians of the person restrained in the order are responsible for transportation and other costs associated with the change of school by the person restrained in the order. The court shall send notice of the restriction on attending the same school as the person protected by the order to the public or approved private school the person restrained by the order will attend and to the school the person protected by the order attends.

Sec. 4. RCW 10.14.120 and 1989 c 373 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

Any willful disobedience by (the respondent) a respondent age eighteen years or over who willfully disobeys the terms of any order issued under this chapter may also, in the court's discretion, be found in contempt of court and subject to penalties under chapter 7.21 RCW. Any respondent under the age of eighteen years who willfully disobeys the terms of an order issued under this chapter may, in the court's discretion, be found in contempt of court and subject to the sanction specified in RCW 7.21.030(4).

Sec. 5. RCW 10.14.170 and 1987 c 280 s 17 are each amended to read as follows:

Any respondent age eighteen years or over who willfully disobeys any civil antiharassment protection order issued pursuant to this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 6. RCW 7.21.030 and 1998 c 296 s 36 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court may initiate a proceeding to impose a remedial sanction on its own motion or on the motion of a person aggrieved by a contempt of court in the proceeding to which the contempt is related. Except as provided in RCW 7.21.050, the court, after notice and hearing, may impose a remedial sanction authorized by this chapter.

(2) If the court finds that the person has failed or refused to perform an act that is yet within the person's power to perform, the court may find the person in contempt of court and impose one or more of the following remedial sanctions:

(a) Imprisonment if the contempt of court is of a type defined in RCW 7.21.010(1) (b) through (d). The imprisonment may extend only so long as it serves a coercive purpose.

(b) A forfeiture not to exceed two thousand dollars for each day the contempt of court continues.

(c) An order designed to ensure compliance with a prior order of the court.

(d) Any other remedial sanction other than the sanctions specified in (a) through (c) of this subsection if the court expressly finds that those sanctions would be ineffectual to terminate a continuing contempt of court.

In cases under chapters 13.32A, 13.34, and 28A.225 RCW, commitment to juvenile detention for a period of time not to exceed seven days. This remedy is specifically determined to be a remedial sanction.

(3) The court may, in addition to the remedial sanctions set forth in subsection (2) of this section, order a person found in contempt of court to pay a party for any losses suffered by the party as a result of the contempt and any costs incurred in connection with the contempt proceeding, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(4) If the court finds that a person under the age of eighteen years has willfully disobeyed the terms of an order issued under chapter 10.14 RCW, the court may find the person in contempt of court and may, as a sole sanction for such contempt, commit the person to juvenile detention for a period of time not to exceed seven days:"

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:

Under suspension of the rules, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5606 was returned to second reading for purpose of an amendment and the bill passed the House with the following amendment(s):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to authorize the department of social and health services to investigate the background of current and future department employees to the same extent and with the same effect as it has authorized the state to investigate the background and exclude from the provision of service current and future care providers, contractors, volunteers, and others. The department of social and health services must coordinate with the department of personnel to develop rules that address the procedures for undertaking background checks, and specifically what action would be taken against a current employee who is disqualified from his or her current position because of a background check not previously performed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.96A RCW to read as follows:

This chapter is not applicable to the department of social and health services when employing a person, who in the course of his or her employment, has or may have unsupervised access to any person who is under the age of eighteen, who is under the age of twenty-one and has been sentenced to a term of confinement under the supervision of the department of social and health services under chapter 13.40 RCW, who is a vulnerable adult under chapter 74.34 RCW, or who is a vulnerable person. For purposes of this section "vulnerable person" means an adult of any age who lacks the functional, mental, or physical ability to care for himself or herself.

Sec. 3. RCW 28A.400.303 and 1992 c 159 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

School districts, educational service districts, the state school for the deaf, the state school for the blind, and their contractors hiring employees who will have regularly scheduled unsupervised access to children shall require a record check through the Washington state patrol criminal identification system under RCW 43.43.830 through 43.43.834, 10.97.030, and 10.97.050 and through the federal bureau of investigation before hiring an employee. The record check shall include a fingerprint check using a complete Washington state criminal identification fingerprint card. The requesting entity shall provide a copy of the record report to the applicant. When necessary, applicants may be employed on a conditional basis pending completion of the investigation. If the applicant has had a record check within the previous two years, the district, the state school for the deaf, the state school for the blind, or contractor may waive the requirement. The district, pursuant to chapter 41.59 or 41.56 RCW, the state school for the deaf, the state school for the blind, or contractor hiring the employee shall determine who shall pay costs associated with the record check.

Sec. 4. RCW 28A.400.305 and 1996 c 126 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules as necessary under chapter 34.05 RCW on record check information. The rules shall include, but not be limited to the following:

(1) Written procedures providing a school district, state school for the deaf, or state school for the blind employee or applicant for certification or employment access to and review of information obtained based on the record check required under RCW 28A.400.303 (and 28A.400.304); and
Sec. 5. RCW 43.20A.710 and 2000 c 87 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall investigate the conviction records, pending charges (\(\text{e}\)) and disciplinary board final decisions of:

(\(\text{e}\)) Persons being considered for state employment in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children, vulnerable adults, or individuals with mental illness or developmental disabilities;

(\(\text{d}\)) Persons being considered for state employment in positions involving unsupervised access to vulnerable adults to conduct.

This includes, but is not limited to, positions conducting comprehensive assessments, financial eligibility determinations, licensing and certification activities, investigations, surveys, or case management; or for state positions otherwise required by federal law to meet employment standards;

(\(\text{b}\)) Individual providers who are paid by the state and providers who are paid by home care agencies to provide in-home services involving unsupervised access to persons with physical, mental, or developmental disabilities or mental illness, or to vulnerable adults as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW, including but not limited to services provided under chapter 74.39 or 74.39A RCW, and (\(\text{c}\)) Individuals or businesses or organizations for the care, supervision, case management, or treatment of children, developmentally disabled persons, or vulnerable adults, including but not limited to services contracted for under chapter 18.20, 18.48, 70.127, 70.128, 72.36, or 74.39A RCW or Title 71A RCW.

(2) The investigation may include an examination of state and national criminal identification data. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining the character, suitability, and competence of these applicants.

(3) An individual provider or home care agency provider who has resided in the state less than three years before applying for employment involving unsupervised access to a vulnerable adult as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW must be fingerprinted for the purpose of investigating conviction records both through the Washington state patrol and the federal bureau of investigation. This subsection applies only with respect to the provision of in-home services funded by medicaid personal care under RCW 74.09.520, community options program entry system waiver services under RCW 74.39A.030, or chore services under RCW 74.39A.110. However, this subsection does not supersede RCW 74.15.030(2)(b).

(4) An individual provider or home care agency provider hired to provide in-home care for and having unsupervised access to a vulnerable adult as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW must have no conviction for a disqualifying crime under RCW 43.43.830. An individual or home care agency provider must also have no conviction for a crime relating to drugs as defined in RCW 43.43.842. This subsection applies only with respect to the provision of in-home services funded by medicaid personal care under RCW 74.09.520, community options program entry system waiver services under RCW 74.39A.030, or chore services under RCW 74.39A.110.

(5) The secretary shall provide the results of the background check on individual providers to the persons hiring them or to their legal guardians, if any, for their determination of the character, suitability, and competence of the applicants. If the person elects to hire or retain an individual provider after receiving notice from the department that the applicant has a conviction for an offense that would disqualify the applicant from having unsupervised access to persons with physical, mental, or developmental disabilities or mental illness, or to vulnerable adults as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW, then the secretary shall deny payment for any subsequent services rendered by the disqualified individual provider.

(6) Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The board shall amend any existing rules established under RCW 41.06.475 and adopt rules developed in cooperation and agreement with the department of social and health services to implement the provisions of this act.

(2) The legislature's delegation of authority to the agency under this act is strictly limited to:

(a) The minimum delegation necessary to administer the act's clear and unambiguous directives; and

(b) The administration of circumstances and behaviors foreseeable at the time of enactment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

The personnel resources board must develop policy recommendations addressing the action that will be taken if a background check result disqualifies an employee from his or her current position. A report of the recommendations developed must be delivered to the legislature by December 1, 2001."

Correct the title, and the same are herewith transmitted.

Motion

On motion of Senator West, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1571 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Motion

Senator West moved that the Senate reconsider the Committee on Labor, Commerce and Financial Institutions striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1571, adopted April 10, 2001.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator West to reconsider the Committee on Labor, Commerce and Financial Institutions striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1571.

The motion by Senator West carried and the Senate will reconsider the Committee on Labor, Commerce and Financial Institutions striking amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1571.

Motion

Senator West moved that the following amendment by Senators West and Prentice to the Committee on Labor, Commerce and Financial Institutions striking amendment, on reconsideration, be adopted:

Beginning on page 1, strike everything after line 6 of the amendment and insert the following:

"New Section. Sec. 1. The Legislature finds that Washington’s equine racing industry creates economic, environmental, and recreational impacts across the state affecting agriculture, horse breeding, the horse training industry, agricultural fairs and youth programs, and tourism and employment opportunities. The Washington equine industry has incurred a financial decline coinciding with increased competition from the gaming industry in the state and from the lack of a class 1 racing facility in western Washington from 1993 through 1995. This act is necessary to preserve, restore, and revitalize the equine breeding and racing industries and to preserve in Washington the economic and social impacts associated with these industries. Preserving Washington’s equine breeding and racing industries, and in particular those sectors of the industries that are dependent upon live horse racing, is in the public interest of the state. The purpose of this act is to preserve Washington’s equine breeding and racing industries and to protect these industries from adverse economic impacts. This act does not establish a new form of gaming in Washington or allow expanded gaming within the state beyond what has been previously authorized. Simulcast wagering has been allowed in Washington before the effective date of this act. Therefore, this act does not allow gaming of any nature or scope that was prohibited before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 2. RCW 67.16.200 and 2000 C 223 S 1 are each amended to read as follows:
A racing association licensed by the commission to conduct a race meet may seek approval from the commission to conduct parimutuel wagering on its program at a satellite location or locations within the state of Washington. The sale of parimutuel pools at satellite locations shall be conducted only during the licensee's race meet and simultaneous to all parimutuel wagering activity conducted at the licensee's live racing facility in the state of Washington. The commission's authority to approve satellite wagering at a particular location is subject to the following limitations:

(a) The commission may approve only one satellite location in each county in the state; however, the commission may grant approval for more than one licensee to conduct wagering at each satellite location. A satellite location shall not be operated within twenty driving miles of any class 1 racing facility. For the purposes of this section, "driving miles" means miles measured by the most direct route as determined by the commission; and

(b) A licensee shall not conduct satellite wagering at any satellite location within sixty driving miles of any other racing facility conducting a live race meet.

(2) Subject to local zoning and other land use ordinances, the commission shall be the sole judge of whether approval to conduct wagering at a satellite location shall be granted.

(3) The licensee shall combine the parimutuel pools of the satellite location with those of the racing facility for the purpose of determining odds and computing payoffs. The amount wagered at the satellite location shall be combined with the amount wagered at the racing facility for the application of takeout formulas and distribution as provided in RCW 67.16.102, 67.16.105, 67.16.170, and 67.16.175. A satellite extension of the licensee's racing facility shall be subject to the same application of the rules of racing as the licensee's racing facility.

(4) Upon written application to the commission, a class 1 racing association may be authorized to transmit simulcasts of live horse races conducted at its racetrack to locations outside of the state of Washington approved by the commission and in accordance with the interstate horse racing act of 1978 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 3001 to 3007) or any other applicable laws. The commission may permit parimutuel pools on the simulcast races to be combined in a common pool. A racing association that transmits simulcasts of its races and other licensed racing associations shall pay at least fifty percent of the fee that it receives for sale of the simulcast signal to the horserace's purse account for its live races after first deducting the actual cost of sending the signal out of state.

(5) Upon written application to the commission, a class 1 racing association may be authorized to transmit simulcasts of live horse races conducted at its racetrack to licensed racing associations located within the state of Washington and approved by the commission for the receipt of the simulcasts. The commission shall permit parimutuel pools on the simulcast races to be combined in a common pool. The fee for in-state, track-to-track simulcasts shall be five and one half percent of the gross pools generated at the receiving location and payable to the sending racing association. A racing association that transmits simulcasts of its races to other licensed racing associations shall pay at least fifty percent of the fee that it receives for the simulcast signal to the horserace's purse account for its live race meet after first deducting the actual cost of sending the simulcast signal. A racing association that receives races simulcast from class 1 racing associations within the state shall pay at least fifty percent of its share of the parimutuel receipts to the horserace's purse account for its live race meet after first deducting the purchase price and the actual direct costs of importing the race.

(6) A class 1 racing association may be allowed to import simulcasts of horse races from out-of-state racing facilities. With the prior approval of the commission, the class 1 racing association may participate in an interstate common pool and may change its commission and breakage rates to achieve a common rate with other participants in the common pool.

(a) The class 1 racing association shall make written application with the commission for permission to import simulcast horse races for the purpose of parimutuel wagering. Subject to the terms of this section, the commission is the sole authority in determining whether to grant approval for an imported simulcast race.

(b) A class 1 racing association may conduct up to a maximum of one simulcast race card program during each live race day.

(c) The commission may allow simulcast races of regional or national interest to be sent to satellite locations. The simulcasts shall be limited to one per day except for breeding's cup special events day.

(7) For purposes of this section, an off-track simulcast wagering facility may conduct simulcast races which imports simulcast races shall also conduct simulcast parimutuel wagering within its licensed racing enclosure on all races simulcast from other class 1 racing associations within the state of Washington.

(8) The conduct of (((SIMULCAST))) Parimutuel wagering on (((INCREASED))) imported simulcast races shall be for not more than fourteen hours during any twenty-four hour period, for not more than five days per week and only at (((TWO))) live racing facilities of a class 1 racing association. The class 1 racing association shall pay fifty percent of its share of the parimutuel receipts to the horserace's purse account for its live race meet after first deducting the purchase price of the imported race and the actual costs of importing the race.

(9) For purposes of this section, a class 1 racing association is defined as a licensee approved by the commission to conduct during each twelve-month period at least forty days of live racing. If a live race day is canceled due to reasons directly attributable to acts of god, labor disruptions affecting live race days but not directly involving the licensee or its employees, or other circumstances that the commission decides are beyond the control of the class 1 racing association, then the canceled day counts toward the forty-day requirement. The commission may by rule increase the number of live racing days required to maintain class 1 racing association status or make other rules necessary to implement this section.
(8) This section does not establish a new form of gaming in Washington or allow expanded gaming within the state beyond what has been previously authorized. Simulcast wagering has been allowed in Washington before April 19, 1997. Therefore, this section does not allow gaming of any nature or scope that was prohibited before April 19, 1997. This section is necessary to protect the Washington equine breeding and racing industries, and in particular those sectors of these industries that are dependent upon live horse racing. The purpose of this section is to protect these industries from actual and potential adverse economic impacts and to promote fan attendance at class 1 racing facilities. Therefore, imported simulcast race card programs shall not be disseminated to any location outside the live racing facility of the class 1 racing association and a class 1 racing association is strictly prohibited from simulcasting imported race card programs to any location outside its live racing facility.

(9) A licensee conducting simulcasting under this section shall place signs in the licensee’s gambling establishment under RCW 9.46.071. The informational signs concerning problem and compulsive gambling must include a toll-free telephone number for problem and compulsive gamblers and be developed under RCW 9.46.071.

(10) This act does not establish a new form of gaming in Washington or allow expanded gaming within the state beyond what has been previously authorized. Simulcast wagering has been allowed in Washington before the effective date of this act. Therefore, this section does not allow gaming of any nature or scope that was prohibited before the effective date of this act. This act is necessary to protect the Washington equine breeding and racing industries, and in particular those sectors of these industries that are dependent upon live horse racing. The purpose of this act is to protect these industries from adverse economic impacts and to promote fan attendance at class 1 racing facilities. Therefore, imported simulcast race card programs shall not be disseminated to any location outside the live racing facility of the class 1 racing association and a class 1 racing association is strictly prohibited from simulcasting imported race card programs to any location outside its live racing facility.

(11) If a state or federal court makes a finding that the increase in the number of imported simulcast races that may be authorized under this act is an expansion of gaming beyond that which is now allowed, this act is null and void.

12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is also invalid.

DEBATE ENDED.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SENATOR THIBAudeau: "MR. PRESIDENT, A POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE. I WOULD JUST LIKE TO SAY 'THANK YOU' TO THE STAFF WHO MADE THIS TRANSITION SO RELATIVELY EFFORTLESS FOR US--AND TO THE MANY MEMBERS WHO, WITHOUT COMPLAINING, MOVED INTO TINY CUBICLES--BUT MOST OF ALL TO THE STAFF WHO REALLY WERE JUST WONDERFUL THROUGH ALL OF THIS. THANK YOU."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SENATOR DECCIO: "MR. PRESIDENT, A POINT OF PRIVILEGE. I WOULD LIKE TO THANK ALL OF THE MEMBERS. I THINK WE HAVE HAD A GREAT COMRADERY HERE AND I THINK WE HAVE BECOME MUCH FRIENDLIER. I HOPE WE CAN CONTINUE THIS SAME RELATIONSHIP AFTER WE GET BACK ON THE FLOOR. CERTAINLY, WE HAVE HAD OUR DIFFERENCES, BUT CERTAINLY I THINK WE HAVE SHOWN SOME GREAT UNANIMITY AND I PERSONALLY WOULD LIKE TO THANK EVERYBODY. THANK YOU."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: "A POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE, MR. PRESIDENT. I WOULD REALLY LIKE TO THANK YOU. I THINK THAT YOU HAVE BEEN THE ROCK THAT HAS PUT THIS ALL TOGETHER. YOU HAVE PUT UP WITH US AND INDEED WE HAVE HAD ENTIRELY TOO MUCH FUN AND WE HAVE REALLY MADE GREAT FRIENDSHIPS. I HAVE SEEN CHAIRS SCOOT ACROSS THE AISLE SO FAST THAT YOU WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT. YOU KNOW, THERE USED TO BE A SAYING THAT THERE WAS A SWORD'S LENGTH BETWEEN THE PARTIES. WE DIDN'T NEED A SWORD'S LENGTH BETWEEN THE PARTIES. WE JUST KIND OF WORKED TOGETHER VERY, VERY CAREFULLY AND HAD FUN. WE HAVE HAD A GREAT TIME AND I THINK THAT YOU HAVE BEEN THAT ROCK--THE HEAD MASTER--THAT HAS KIND OF CHIDED US AT TIMES WITH YOUR SWIFT GAVEL. AT TIMES, YOU JUST THREW UP YOUR HANDS AND SAID, 'LET THEM HAVE A GREAT TIME,' AND WE DID. SO, I WOULD REALLY LIKE TO THANK YOU, BECAUSE YOU HAVE JUST BEEN ABSOLUTELY MARVELOUS."
PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Oke: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Well, I thought this closeness--this closeness--that we do have really is building a bridge to the other side.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “A floating bridge?”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Roach: “Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I just wanted to say that while I have enjoyed the close quarters--actually it has been a lot more fun here on this side. When it gets right down to it, confrontation is the life blood of politics and I think it is that give and take that comes knowing that we have separate positions on issues. The last thing that I want to do is leave the public with the thought that in fact there aren’t, on many occasions, different sides to issues and that we still feel strongly about them. There is no compromising of positions and at the same time being able to work on a friendly basis.”

Motions

On motion of Senator Haugen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5749 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Haugen moved that the following striking amendment be adopted:

"Sec. 1. RCW 47.05.010 and 1993 c 490 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

"The legislature finds that solutions to state highway deficiencies have become increasingly complex and diverse and that anticipated transportation revenues will fall substantially short of the amount required to satisfy all transportation needs. Difficult investment trade-offs will be required.

It is the intent of the legislature that investment of state transportation funds to address deficiencies on the state highway system be based on a policy of priority programming having as its basis the rational selection of projects and services according to factual need and an evaluation of life cycle costs and benefits (and which) are systematically scheduled to carry out defined objectives within available revenue. The state must develop analytic tools to use a common methodology to measure benefits and costs for all modes.

The priority programming system (shall) must ensure preservation of the existing state highway system, relieve congestion, provide mobility for people and goods, support the state's economy, and promote environmental protection and energy conservation.

The priority programming system (shall) must implement the state-owned highway component of the statewide multimodal transportation plan, consistent with local and regional transportation plans, by targeting state transportation investment to appropriate multimodal solutions (which) that address identified state highway system deficiencies.

The priority programming system for improvements (shall) must incorporate a broad range of solutions that are identified in the statewide multimodal transportation plan as appropriate to address state highway system deficiencies, including but not limited to highway expansion, efficiency improvements, nonmotorized transportation facilities, high occupancy vehicle facilities, transit facilities and services, rail facilities and services, and transportation demand management programs.

Sec. 2. RCW 47.05.030 and 1998 c 171 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

The transportation commission shall adopt a comprehensive six-year investment program specifying program objectives and performance measures for the preservation and improvement programs defined in this section. In the specification of investment program objectives and performance measures, the transportation commission, in consultation with the Washington state department of transportation, shall define and adopt standards for effective programming and prioritization practices including a needs analysis process. The (needs) analysis process (shall) must ensure the identification of problems and deficiencies, the evaluation of alternative solutions and trade-offs, and estimations of the costs and benefits of prospective projects. The investment program (shall) must be revised biennially, effective on July 1st of odd-numbered years. The investment program (shall) must be based upon the needs identified in the state-owned highway component of the statewide (multimodal) transportation plan as defined in RCW 47.01.071(3).

(1) The preservation program (shall) consists of those investments necessary to preserve the existing state highway system and to restore existing safety features, giving consideration to lowest life cycle costing. The preservation program must require use of the most cost-effective pavement surfaces, considering:

(a) Life-cycle cost analysis;
(b) Traffic volume;"
The comprehensive six-year investment program for preservation \((\text{shall})\) must identify projects for two years and an investment plan for the remaining four years.

(2) The improvement program \((\text{shall})\) consists of investments needed to address identified deficiencies on the state highway system to increase mobility, address congestion, and improve safety, support for the economy, and protection of the environment. The six-year investment program for improvements \((\text{shall})\) must identify projects for two years and major deficiencies proposed to be addressed in the six-year period giving consideration to relative benefits and life cycle costing. The transportation commission shall give higher priority for correcting identified deficiencies on those facilities classified as facilities of statewide significance as defined in RCW 47.06.140. Project prioritization must be based primarily upon cost-benefit analysis, where appropriate.

The transportation commission shall approve and present the comprehensive six-year investment program to the legislature in support of the biennial budget request under RCW 44.40.070 and 44.40.080.

Sec. 3. RCW 47.05.035 and 1993 c 490 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The department and the commission shall use the transportation demand modeling tools developed under subsection (2) of this section to evaluate investments based on the best mode or improvement, or mix of modes and improvements, to meet current and future long-term demand within a corridor or system for the lowest cost. The end result of these demand modeling tools is to provide a cost-benefit analysis by which the department and the commission can determine the relative mobility improvement and congestion relief each mode or improvement under consideration will provide and the relative investment each mode or improvement under consideration will need to achieve that relief.

2. The department will participate in the refinement, enhancement, and application of existing transportation demand modeling tools to be used to evaluate investments. This participation and use of transportation demand modeling tools will be phased in. The first phase will build upon the modeling work initiated by the four-county Puget Sound regional council.

3. In developing program objectives and performance measures, the transportation commission shall evaluate investment trade-offs between the preservation and improvement programs. In making these investment trade-offs, the commission shall evaluate, using cost-benefit techniques, roadway and bridge maintenance activities as compared to roadway and bridge preservation program activities and adjust those programs accordingly.

4. The commission shall allocate the estimated revenue between preservation and improvement programs giving primary consideration to the following factors:

   a. The relative needs in each of the programs and the system performance levels that can be achieved by meeting these needs;

   b. The need to provide adequate funding for preservation to protect the state's investment in its existing highway system;

   c. The continuity of future transportation development with those improvements previously programmed; and

   d. The availability of dedicated funds for a specific type of work.

Sec. 4. RCW 47.05.051 and 1998 c 175 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:

The comprehensive six-year investment program shall be based upon the needs identified in the state-owned highway component of the statewide multimodal transportation plan as defined in RCW 47.01.071(3) and priority selection systems that incorporate the following criteria:

1. Priority programming for the preservation program shall take into account the following, not necessarily in order of importance:
   a. Extending the service life of the existing highway system, including using the most cost-effective pavement surfaces, considering:
      i. Life-cycle cost analysis;
      ii. Traffic volume;
      iii. Subgrade soil conditions;
      iv. Environmental and weather conditions;
      v. Materials available; and
   vi. Construction factors;
   b. Ensuring the structural ability to carry loads imposed upon highways and bridges; and
   c. Minimizing life cycle costs. The transportation commission in carrying out the provisions of this section may delegate to the department of transportation the authority to select preservation projects to be included in the six-year program.

2. Priority programming for the improvement program shall take into account the following:
   a. Support for the state’s economy, including job creation and job preservation;
   b. The cost-effective movement of people and goods;
   c. Accident and accident risk reduction;
   d. Protection of the state’s natural environment;
   e. Continuity and systematic development of the highway transportation network;
   f. Consistency with local comprehensive plans developed under chapter 36.70A RCW;
   g. Consistency with regional transportation plans developed under chapter 47.80 RCW;
   h. Public views concerning proposed improvements;
   i. The conservation of energy resources;
   j. Feasibility of financing the full proposed improvement;
   k. Commitments established in previous legislative sessions;
   l. Relative costs and benefits of candidate programs;
   m. Major projects addressing capacity deficiencies which prioritize allowing for preliminary engineering shall be reprioritized during the succeeding biennium, based upon updated project data. Reprioritized projects may be delayed or canceled by the transportation commission if higher priority projects are awaiting funding; \((\text{and})\)
Major project approvals which significantly increase a project's scope or cost from original prioritization estimates shall include a review of the project's estimated revised priority rank and the level of funding provided. Projects may be delayed or canceled by the transportation commission if higher priority projects are awaiting funding; and

(a) Congestion reduction.

(3) The commission may depart from the priority programming established under subsections (1) and (2) of this section:
(a) To the extent that otherwise funds cannot be utilized feasibly within the program; (b) as may be required by a court judgment, legally binding agreement, or state and federal laws and regulations; (c) as may be required to coordinate with federal, local, or other state agency construction projects; (d) to take advantage of some substantial financial benefit that may be available; (e) for continuity of route development; or (f) because of changed financial or physical conditions of an unforeseen or emergent nature. The commission or secretary of transportation shall maintain in its files information sufficient to show the extent to which the commission has departed from the established priority.

(4) The commission shall identify those projects that yield freight mobility benefits or that alleviate the impacts of freight mobility upon affected communities.

Sec. 5. RCW 47.06.130 and 1993 c 446 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department may carry out special transportation planning studies to resolve specific issues with the development of the state transportation system or other statewide transportation issues.

(2) The department shall conduct multimodal corridor analyses on major congested corridors where needed improvements are likely to cost in excess of one hundred million dollars. Analysis will include the cost-effectiveness of all feasible strategies in addressing congestion or improving mobility within the corridor, and must recommend the most effective strategy or mix of strategies to address identified deficiencies. A long-term view of corridors must be employed to determine whether an existing corridor should be expanded, a city or county road should become a state route, and whether a new corridor is needed to alleviate congestion and enhance mobility based on travel demand. To the extent practicable, full costs of all strategies must be reflected in the analysis. At a minimum, this analysis must include:

(a) The current and projected future demand for total person trips on that corridor;
(b) The impact of making no improvements to that corridor;
(c) The daily cost per added person served for each mode or improvement proposed to meet demand;
(d) The cost per hour of travel time saved per day for each mode or improvement proposed to meet demand; and
(e) How much of the current and anticipated future demand will be met and left unmet for each mode or improvement proposed to meet demand.

The end result of this analysis will be to provide a cost-benefit analysis by which policymakers can determine the most cost-effective improvement or mode, or mix of improvements and modes, for increasing mobility and reducing congestion.

Improving traffic chokepoints.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5759 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Haugen moved that the following striking amendment be adopted:
Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends that funding for transportation improvements be allocated to the worst traffic chokepoints in the state. Furthermore, the legislature intends to fund projects that provide systemic relief throughout a transportation corridor, rather than spot improvements that fail to improve overall mobility within a corridor.

Sec. 2. RCW 47.05.051 and 1998 c 175 s 12 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The comprehensive six-year investment program shall be based upon the needs identified in the state-owned highway component of the statewide multimodal transportation plan as defined in RCW 47.01.071(3) and priority selection systems that incorporate the following criteria:

(iv) Use of benefit/cost analysis wherever feasible to determine the value of the proposed project.

(c) Priority programming for the improvement program may also take into account:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department of transportation shall report the results of its priority programming under RCW 47.05.051 to the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives by December 1, 2002, and December 1, 2004.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY
Senator Deccio: “Senator Haugen, traffic chokepoints have a different meaning on the west side of the mountains than on the east side. We don’t have that particular problem, even though we have a lot of other problems. Does this mean then that the priority program is going to be to relieve traffic chokepoints—is that going to be the priority?”

Senator Haugen: “This congestion will certainly become one of the issues dealing with setting priorities. However, most of the problems that occur in your area and the area that I represent—primarily rural areas of the state—are generally covered under preservation. This is truly about major new improvements and certainly I know that in your area, like in my area, we also have some chokepoint areas. They aren’t the same as they are in central Puget Sound, but there are chokepoints. You will some change, but not in the programs that are most important to you and I.”

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Haugen to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5759, under suspension of the rules.

The motion by Senator Haugen carried and the striking amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after “improvements;” strike the remainder of the title and insert “amending RCW 47.05.051; creating new sections; and providing an effective date.”

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Haugen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5759 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5759, under suspension of the rules.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5759, under suspension of the rules, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5764, by Senate Committee on Transportation (originally sponsored by Senators Shin, Horn, Winsley, Oke and Haugen) (by request of The Blue Ribbon Commission on Transportation)

Maintaining and preserving transportation facilities and assets.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5764 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Haugen, the following striking amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that roads, streets, bridges, and highways in the state represent public assets worth over one hundred billion dollars. These investments require regular maintenance and preservation, or rehabilitation, to provide cost-effective transportation services. Many of these facilities are in poor condition. Given the magnitude of public investment and the importance of safe, reliable roadways to the motoring public, the legislature intends to create stronger accountability to ensure that cost-effective maintenance and preservation is provided for these transportation facilities.

Sec. 2. RCW 35.84.060 and 1969 ex.s. c 281 s 26 are each amended to read as follows:

Every municipal corporation which owns or operates an urban public transportation system as defined in RCW 47.04.082 within its corporate limits, may acquire, construct, extend, own, or operate such urban public transportation system to any point or points not to exceed fifteen miles outside of its corporate limits: PROVIDED, That no municipal corporation shall extend its urban public transportation system beyond its corporate limits to operate in any territory already served by a privately operated auto transportation company holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the utilities and transportation commission. As a condition of receiving state funding, the municipal corporation shall submit a maintenance management plan for certification by the transportation commission or its successor entity. The plan must inventory all transportation system assets within the direction and control of the municipality, and provide a preservation plan based on lowest life cycle cost methodologies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 36.56 RCW to read as follows:
As a condition of receiving state funding, a county that has assumed the transportation functions of a metropolitan municipal corporation shall submit a maintenance and preservation management plan for certification by the transportation commission or its successor entity. The plan must inventory all transportation system assets within the direction and control of the county, and provide a preservation plan based on lowest life cycle cost methodologies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 36.57A RCW to read as follows:
As a condition of receiving state funding, a public transportation benefit area authority shall submit a maintenance and preservation management plan for certification by the transportation commission or its successor entity. The plan must inventory all transportation system assets within the direction and control of the authority, and provide a preservation plan based on lowest life cycle cost methodologies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.68 RCW to read as follows:
As a condition of receiving state funding, the municipal corporation shall submit a maintenance management plan for certification by the transportation commission or its successor entity. The plan must inventory all transportation system assets within the direction and control of the municipality, and provide a preservation plan based on lowest life cycle cost methodologies.

Sec. 6. RCW 47.06.050 and 1993 c 446 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:
The state-owned facilities component of the statewide transportation plan shall consist of:
(a) A state highway system plan, which establishes program and financing needs and recommends specific and financially realistic improvements to preserve the structural integrity of the state highway system, ensure acceptable operating conditions, and provide for enhanced access to scenic, recreational, and cultural resources. The state highway system plan shall contain the following elements:
(1) A system preservation element, which shall establish structural preservation objectives for the state highway system including bridges, identify current and future structural deficiencies based upon analysis of current conditions and projected future deterioration, and recommend program funding levels and specific actions necessary to preserve the structural integrity of the state highway system consistent with adopted objectives. Lowest life cycle cost methodologies must be used in developing a pavement management system. This element shall serve as the basis for the preservation component of the six-year highway program and the two-year biennial budget request to the legislature;
(2) A highway maintenance element, establishing service levels for highway maintenance on state-owned highways that meet benchmarks established by the transportation commission. The highway maintenance element must include an estimate of costs for achieving those service levels over twenty years. This element will serve as the basis for the maintenance component of the six-year highway program and the two-year biennial budget request to the legislature;
(b) A capacity and operational improvement element, which shall establish operational objectives, including safety considerations, for moving people and goods on the state highway system, identify current and future capacity, operational, and safety deficiencies, and recommend program funding levels and specific improvements and strategies necessary to achieve the operational objectives. In developing capacity and operational improvement plans the department shall first assess strategies to enhance the operational efficiency of the existing system before recommending system expansion. Strategies to enhance the operational efficiencies include but are not limited to access management, transportation system management, demand management, and high-occupancy vehicle facilities. The capacity and operational improvement element must conform to the state implementation plan for air quality and be consistent with regional transportation plans adopted under chapter 47.80 RCW, and shall serve as the basis for the capacity and operational improvement portions of the six-year highway program and the two-year biennial budget request to the legislature;
(c) A scenic and recreational highways element, which shall identify and recommend designation of scenic and recreational highways, provide for enhanced access to scenic, recreational, and cultural resources associated with designated routes, and recommend a variety of management strategies to protect, preserve, and enhance these resources. The department, affected counties, cities, and towns, regional transportation planning organizations, and other state or federal agencies shall jointly develop this element;
(d) A scenic and recreational highways element, which shall identify and recommend designation of scenic and recreational highways, provide for enhanced access to scenic, recreational, and cultural resources associated with designated routes, and recommend a variety of management strategies to protect, preserve, and enhance these resources. The department, affected counties, cities, and towns, regional transportation planning organizations, and other state or federal agencies shall jointly develop this element;

Sec. 7. RCW 47.06.090 and 1993 c 446 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:
The state-interest component of the statewide multimodal transportation plan shall include an intercity passenger rail plan, which shall identify existing intercity passenger rail service and recommend improvements to that service under the state rail passenger rail service program including depot improvements, potential service extensions, and ways to achieve higher train speeds.
For purposes of maintaining and preserving any state-owned component of the state's passenger rail program, the statewide multimodal transportation plan must identify all such assets and provide a preservation plan based on lowest life cycle cost methodologies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 81.112 RCW to read as follows:

As a condition of receiving state funding, a regional transit authority shall submit a maintenance and preservation management plan for certification by the transportation commission or its successor entity. The plan must inventory all transportation system assets within the direction and control of the transit authority, and provide a plan for preservation of assets based on lowest life cycle cost methodologies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 36.78 RCW to read as follows:

The board shall establish a standard of good practice for maintenance of transportation system assets. This standard must be implemented by all counties no later than December 31, 2006. The board shall develop a model maintenance management system for use by counties. The board shall develop rules to assist the counties in the implementation of this system. Counties shall annually submit their maintenance plans to the board. The board shall compile the county data regarding maintenance management and annually submit it to the transportation commission or its successor entity.

The prescribed salary and insurance benefit increase or decrease dollar amount that shall be allocated from the Multimodal Transportation Account is in addition to the appropriation contained in this section.

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations and specified amounts are provided solely for that activity:

1. Appropriations in this section shall initially be allotted as appropriated by this section. Subsequent allotment modifications shall not permit moneys that are provided solely for a specified purpose to be used for other than that purpose. For the purposes of this section, the expenditures for compensation paid to ferry employees shall be limited to salaries and wages and employee benefits as defined in the office of financial management's policies, regulations, and procedures named under obj 7.2.6.2.

The prescribed salary and insurance benefit increase or decrease dollar amount that shall be allocated from the governor's compensation appropriations is in addition to the appropriation contained in this section and may be used to increase or decrease compensation costs, effective July 1, 1999, and thereafter, as established in the 1999-2001 general fund operating budget.

4. The department, when implementing ferry service reductions, shall, to the extent possible, maintain peak hour vehicle and passenger service capacity, summer tourist route capacity, and a fall/winter/spring presence on all auto ferry routes, while ensuring equitable treatment among routes.

If the port of Benton does not provide at least $250,000 to fund the plan development, the transportation fund--state appropriation referenced in this subsection shall lapse and this subsection shall be null and void.

3) The motor vehicle account--state appropriation includes $30,000,000 in proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.843. The transportation commission may authorize the use of current revenues available to the department of transportation in lieu of bond proceeds for any part of the state appropriation.

4) $10,000,000 of the multimodal transportation account--state appropriation is provided solely to fund the first phase of a multiphase cooperative project with the state of Oregon to dredge the Columbia river. The prequalification procedure's goal is to ascertain that bidders are qualified by experience, financing, equipment, and organization to do the work called for in the contract documents. The prequalification procedure may require a bidder to (1) satisfy threshold requirements established by the board prior to being furnished a proposal form on any contract; or (2) complete a preaward survey of the bidder's qualification prior to award.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6151, by Senate Committee on Human Services and Corrections (originally sponsored by Senators Long and Hargrove)

Revising provisions relating to high-risk sex offenders.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hargrove, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6151 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Hargrove moved that the following striking amendment by Senators Hargrove, Long and Costa be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"PART I GENERAL PROVISIONS"
NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. (1) The legislature makes the following findings:
(a) The effective management of high-risk sex offenders requires a comprehensive approach that includes appropriate sentencing for sex offenses and a plan to address both the immediate and long-term need to establish secure community transition facilities throughout the state.
(b) The individualized treatment required for constitutional civil commitment includes the realistic possibility of release to a less restrictive alternative in appropriate cases. Most persons civilly committed under chapter 71.09 RCW who become eligible for release to a less restrictive alternative do not have housing. Because a lack of housing may unduly restrict a person's ability to obtain an order to a less restrictive alternative, the legislature recognizes that the state must provide some housing facilities.
(c) Facilities to house persons conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under chapter 71.09 RCW are essential public facilities. Public protests and local government moratoriums on zoning and permitting processes have hampered the state's ability to comply with constitutional and statutory requirements and with court orders to create housing for less restrictive alternative placements.
(d) Establishing statewide guidance and assistance in the siting of secure community transition facilities for persons conditionally released to less restrictive alternatives under chapter 71.09 RCW.
(e) Some high-risk sex offenders are most appropriately managed through an indeterminate sentencing structure in which they will be supervised and can be returned to a state correctional institution until the statutory maximum sentence has expired. The state does not currently have an indeterminate sentencing structure. Consequently, the state must make changes to its sentencing structure to effectively manage these high-risk sex offenders.
(2) Therefore, the legislature intends to:
(a) Manage high-risk sex offenders to the greatest extent possible through the criminal justice system by establishing an indeterminate sentencing structure for those offenders who present a high risk to the community, based on their sex offense history;
(b) Ensure the continued operation and any necessary and authorized expansion of state correctional facilities for sex offenders and other offenders on McNeil Island;
(c) Ensure the prompt siting and timely operation of a secure community transition facility on McNeil Island, ensure the continued progress toward the construction and operation of the total confinement facility already planned for McNeil Island, and further the treatment and management of persons civilly committed under chapter 71.09 RCW, and establish a framework for the establishment of additional secure community transition facilities;
(d) Maximize public safety and enhance the potential for successful treatment of sexually violent predators through the tightly managed use of less restrictive alternatives in secure community transition facilities;
(e) Maximize the safety of communities in which secure community transition facilities are located and ensure public input into decisions involving the siting and ongoing operation of these essential public facilities; strengthening the safeguards in placement, oversight, and monitoring of conditionally released persons; and establishing minimum standards for the siting and operation of secure community transition facilities;
(f) Comply with federal court orders and require the siting of secure community transition facilities and thereby preclude the possibility that the department of social and health services would be unable to site a facility due to local moratoriums and requirements.

Sec. 102. RCW 71.09.020 and 1995 c 216 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Sexually violent predator" means any person who has been convicted of or charged with a crime of sexual violence and who suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder which makes the person likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility.
(2) "Mental abnormality" means a congenital or acquired condition affecting the emotional or volitional capacity which predisposes the person to the commission of criminal sexual acts in a degree constituting such person a menace to the health and safety of others.
(3) "Likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility" means that the person more probably than not will engage in such acts if released unconditionally from detention on the sexually violent predator petition. Such likelihood must be evidenced by a recent overt act if the person is not totally confined at the time the petition is filed under RCW 71.09.090.
(4) "Predatory" means acts directed towards: (a) Strangers (e.g.); (b) individuals with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization; or (c) persons of casual acquaintance with whom no substantial personal relationship exists.
(5) "Recent overt act" means any act or threat that has either caused harm of a sexually violent nature or creates a reasonable apprehension of such harm in the mind of an objective person who knows of the history and mental condition of the person engaging in the act.
(6) "Risk potential activity" or "risk potential facility" means an activity or facility that provides a higher incidence of risk to the public from persons conditionally released from the special commitment center. Risk potential activities and facilities include: Public and private schools, school bus stops, licensed day care and licensed preschool facilities, public parks, publicly dedicated trails, sports fields, playgrounds, recreational and community centers, churches, synagogues, temples, mosques, and public libraries.
(7) "Secure facility" means a residential facility for persons civilly confined under the provisions of this chapter that includes security measures sufficient to protect the community. Such facilities include total confinement facilities, secure community transition facilities, and any residential facility used as a court-ordered placement under RCW 71.09.096.
(8) "Secure community transition facility" means a residential facility for persons civilly committed and conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under this chapter. A secure community transition facility has supervision and security, and either provides or ensures the provision of sex offender treatment services. Secure community transition facilities include but are not limited to the facility established under section 201 of this act and any community-based facilities established under this chapter and operated by the secretary or under contract with the secretary.

(11) "Sexually violent offense" means an act committed on, before, or after July 1, 1990, that is: (a) An act defined in Title 9A RCW as rape in the first degree, rape in the second degree by forcible compulsion, rape of a child in the first or second degree, statutory rape in the first or second degree, indecent liberties by forcible compulsion, indecent liberties against a child under age fourteen, incest against a child under age fourteen, or child molestation in the first or second degree; (b) a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1990, that is comparable to a sexually violent offense as defined in (a) of this subsection, or any federal or out-of-state conviction for a felony offense that under the laws of this state would be a sexually violent offense as defined in this subsection; (c) an act of murder in the first or second degree, assault in the first or second degree, assault of a child in the first or second degree, kidnapping in the first or second degree, burglary in the first degree, residential burglary, or unlawful imprisonment, which act, either at the time of sentencing for the offense or subsequently during civil commitment proceedings pursuant to chapter 71.09 RCW, has been determined beyond a reasonable doubt to have been sexually motivated, as that term is defined in RCW 9.94A.030; or (d) an act as described in chapter 9A.28 RCW, that is an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of the felonies designated in (a), (b), or (c) of this subsection.

(12) "Sexually violent predator" means any person who has been convicted of or charged with a crime of sexual violence and who suffers from a mental abnormality or personality disorder which makes the person likely to engage in predatory acts of sexual violence if not confined in a secure facility.

(13) "Total confinement facility" means a facility that provides supervision and sex offender treatment services in a total confinement setting. Total confinement facilities include the special commitment center and any similar facility designated as a secure facility by the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed.

PART II
SITING

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary is authorized to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility for persons authorized to petition for court-ordered conditional release under RCW 71.09.090(1) and a special commitment center with up to four hundred four beds as a total confinement facility under this chapter, on McNeil Island subject to appropriated funding for those purposes. The secure community transition facility shall be authorized for the number of beds needed to ensure compliance with the orders of the superior courts under this chapter and the federal district court for the western district of Washington, but in no case more than nine occupied beds before July 1, 2002, or thirty-six occupied beds thereafter.

(2) Notwithstanding RCW 36.70A.103 or any other law, this statute preempts and supersedes local plans, development regulations, permitting requirements, inspection requirements, and other laws as necessary to enable the secretary to site, construct, occupy, and operate a secure community transition facility and a total confinement facility on McNeil Island.

(3) The provisions of this act do not limit the state’s authority to site any other essential public facility under RCW 36.70A.200 in conformance with local comprehensive plans and development regulations adopted pursuant to chapter 36.70A RCW.

(4) The number of residents at the secure community transition facility established by this section shall not exceed thirty-six persons.

(5) No additional secure community transition facilities designed for more than three persons may be sited in a county where the special commitment center and the secure community transition facility established pursuant to this section are located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

When a person civilly committed under this chapter is conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative placement at a facility owned or operated under contract with the state, any employer who hires the person for a position or any educational institution that enrolls the person for a program is eligible for an incentive grant from the state up to five thousand dollars per year that the person remains employed or enrolled on at least a half-time basis in a job or program that meets requirements approved by the court. The provisions of this section may not establish employer or educational institution liability for the subsequent criminal acts of a conditionally released person for the decision to hire or enroll that person. An employer or educational institution that accepts an incentive grant under this section shall not be civically liable for the subsequent criminal acts of a conditionally released person unless the employer’s or educational institution’s conduct constitutes gross negligence or intentional misconduct. An employer that hires a conditionally released person must provide the conditionally released person with a written report summarizing the employer’s or educational institution’s conduct during the period the person was employed or enrolled.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 205. On or before December 1, 2002, the department of social and health services shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of the legislature regarding policies for the subsequent placement of sexually violent predators on court-ordered conditional release residing in the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act. The report shall address the following:

(1) The anticipated number of persons who may be eligible for conditional release to a setting less restrictive than the facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act during the 2003-2005 and 2005-2007 biennia;

(2) The anticipated need, if any, for secure community transition facilities smaller than the facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act;

(3) Policies that will be implemented to ensure that placement of persons eligible in the future for conditional release to a setting less restrictive than the facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act will be equitably distributed among the counties, and within each county, among jurisdictions in the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 206. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall make reasonable efforts to distribute the impact of the employment, education, and social services needs of the residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act among the adjoining counties and not to concentrate the residents’ use of resources in any one community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 207. The department of social and health services shall, by August 1, 2001, and prior to operating the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, hold at least three public hearings in the affected communities within the county where the facility is located.

The purpose of the public hearings is to seek input from county and city officials, local law enforcement officials, and the public regarding operations and security measures needed to adequately protect the community from any increased risk to public safety brought about by the presence of persons conditionally released from the special commitment center in these communities due to the siting of the facility. The department shall ensure that persons have a full opportunity to speak to the issues to be addressed during each hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 208. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

To the greatest extent possible, persons who were not residents of the county in which both the special commitment center and the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act are located prior to the conviction for which they were incarcerated shall be admitted to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 209. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

When considering whether a person civilly committed under this chapter and conditionally released to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act is appropriate for release to a placement that is less restrictive than the facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, the court shall consider whether the person has progressed in treatment to the point that a significant change in the person’s routine, including but not limited to a change in employment, education, residence, or sex offender treatment provider will not cause the person to regress to the point that treatment has been ineffective.

Sec. 210. RCW 36.70A.103 and 1991 sp.s. c 32 § 4 are each amended to read as follows:

State agencies shall comply with the local comprehensive plans and development regulations and amendments thereto adopted pursuant to this chapter except as otherwise provided in sections 201 and 202 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 211. The secretary of social and health services shall coordinate with the secretary of corrections and the appropriate local or state law enforcement agency or agencies to establish a twenty-four-hour law enforcement presence on McNeil Island before any person is admitted to the secure community transition facility established under section 201 of this act, as required by sections 201 and 202 of this act.

Law enforcement shall coordinate with the emergency response team for McNeil Island to provide planning and coordination in the event of an escape from the special commitment center or the secure community transition facility.

In addition, or if no law enforcement agency will provide a law enforcement presence on the island, not more than ten correctional employees, as selected by the secretary of corrections, who are members of the emergency response team for the McNeil Island correctional facility, shall have the powers and duties of a general authority peace officer while acting in a law enforcement capacity. If there is no law enforcement agency to provide the law enforcement presence, those correctional employees selected as peace officers shall provide a twenty-four-hour presence and shall not have correctional duties at the correctional facility in addition to the emergency response team while acting in a law enforcement capacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 212. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Security systems for the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act shall include a fence and provide the maximum protection appropriate in a civil facility for persons in less than total confinement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 213. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act shall meet the following minimum staffing requirements:

(1) At any time the census of the facility is six or fewer residents, a minimum staffing ratio of one staff per resident during normal waking hours and two awake staff per three residents during normal sleeping hours.

(2) By December 1, 2001, the department will provide a staffing plan to the appropriate committees of the legislature that will cover the growth of the facility to its full capacity.
(3) At any time the census of any secure community transition facility is six or fewer residents, all staff shall be classified as residential rehabilitation counselor II or have a classification that indicates a higher level of skill, experience, and training. Before being assigned to a secure community transition facility all staff shall have training in sex offender issues, self-defense, and crisis de-escalation skills in addition to departmental orientation and, as appropriate management training. All staff with resident treatment or care duties must participate in ongoing in-service training.

(4) All staff must pass a departmental background check and the check is not subject to the limitations in chapter 9.96A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 214. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By July 1, 2001, the department must provide the appropriate committees of the legislature, with a transportation plan to address the issues of coordinating the movement of residents of the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland with the movement of others who must use the same docks or equipment within the funds appropriated for this purpose.

(2) If the department does not provide a separate vessel for transporting residents of the secure community transition facility established in section 201 of this act between McNeil Island and the mainland, the plan shall include at least the following components:

   (a) The residents shall be separated from minors and vulnerable adults, except vulnerable adults who have been found to be sexually violent predators.

   (b) The residents shall not be transported during times when children are normally coming to and from the mainland for school.

   (3) The department shall designate a separate waiting area at the points of debarkation, and residents shall be required to remain in this area while awaiting transportation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 215. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall develop a process with local governments that allows each community in which a secure community transition facility is located to establish operational advisory boards of at least seven persons for the secure community transition facilities. The department may conduct community awareness activities to publicize this opportunity. The operational advisory boards developed under this section shall be implemented following the decision to locate a secure community transition facility in a particular community.

(2) The operational advisory boards may review and make recommendations regarding the security and operations of the secure community transition facility and conditions or modifications necessary with relation to any person who the secretary proposes to place in the secure community transition facility.

(3) The facility management must consider the recommendations of the community advisory boards. Where the facility management does not implement an operational advisory board recommendation, the management must provide a written response to the operational advisory board stating its reasons for its decision not to implement the recommendation.

(4) The operational advisory boards, their members, and any agency represented by a member shall not be liable in any cause of action as a result of its recommendations unless the advisory board acts with gross negligence or bad faith in making a recommendation.

(5) Members of a board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 216. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall adopt a violation reporting policy for persons conditionally released to less restrictive alternative placements. The policy shall require written documentation by the department and service providers of all violations of conditions set by the department, the department of corrections, or the court and establish criteria for returning a violator to the special commitment center or a secure community transition facility with a higher degree of security. Any conditionally released person who commits a serious violation of conditions shall be returned to the special commitment center, unless arrested by a law enforcement officer, and the court shall be notified immediately and shall initiate proceedings under RCW 71.09.098 to revoke or modify the less restrictive alternative placement. Nothing in this section limits the authority of the department to return a person to the special commitment center based on a violation that is not a serious violation as defined in this section. For the purposes of this section, "serious violation" includes but is not limited to:

   (a) The commission of any criminal offense;

   (b) Any unlawful use or possession of a controlled substance; and

   (c) Any violation of conditions targeted to address the person's documented pattern of offense that increases the risk to public safety.

   When a person is conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under this chapter and is under the supervision of the department of corrections, notice of any violation of the person's conditions of release must also be made to the department of corrections.

(2) Whenever the secretary contracts with a service provider to operate a secure community transition facility, the contract shall include a requirement that the service provider must report to the department of social and health services any known violation of conditions committed by any resident of the secure community transition facility.

(3) The secretary shall document in writing all violations, penalties, actions by the department of social and health services to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations. The secretary shall give great weight to a service provider's record of violations, penalties, actions by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections to remove persons from a secure community transition facility, and contract terminations in determining whether to execute, renew, or renegotiate a contract with a service provider.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 217. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall adopt rules that contain a schedule of monetary penalties for contractors operating secure community transition facilities, not to exceed the total compensation set forth in the contract, and include provisions for termination of all contracts with a service provider that has repeated or serious violations of section 216 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 218. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court:

To the extent that electronic monitoring devices that employ global positioning system technology are available and funds for this purpose are appropriated by the legislature, the department shall use these devices; and

(b) At least one staff member, or other court-authorized and department-approved person must escort each resident when the resident leaves the secure community transition facility for appointments, employment, or other approved activities. Escorting persons must supervise the resident closely and maintain close proximity to the resident.

(2) Staff members of the special commitment center and any other total confinement facility and any secure community transition facility must be trained in self-defense and appropriate crisis responses including incident de-escalation. Prior to escorting a person outside of a facility, staff members must also have training in the offense pattern of the offender they are escorting.

(3) Any escort must carry a cellular telephone or a similar device at all times when escorting a resident of a secure community transition facility.

(4) The department shall require training in offender pattern, self-defense, and incident response for all court-authorized escorts who are not employed by the department or the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 219. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

A conditional release from a total confinement facility to a less restrictive alternative is a release that subjects the conditionally released person to the registration requirements specified in RCW 9A.44.130 and to community notification under RCW 4.24.550.

When a person is conditionally released to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, the sheriff must provide each household on McNeil Island with the community notification information provided for under RCW 4.24.550.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 220. (1) A joint select committee on the equitable distribution of secure community transition facilities is established.

(2) The task force shall consist of the following persons:

(a) One member from each of the two largest caucuses of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, at least one member being a member of the minority party;

(b) One member from each of the two largest caucuses of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate, at least one member being a member of the senate human services and corrections committee;

(c) One member from the department of social and health services;

(3) The chair of the joint select committee shall be a legislative member chosen by the joint select committee members.

(4) The joint select committee shall review and develop recommendations for the equitable distribution of secure community transition facilities, as defined in RCW 71.09.020, among counties, and among jurisdictions within counties. The joint select committee shall also review and make recommendations for any necessary revisions to the criteria for secure community transition facilities.

(5) The joint select committee shall present a report of its findings and recommendations to the governor and the appropriate committees of the legislature, including any proposed legislation, not later than November 15, 2001.

(6) The task force may, where feasible, consult with individuals from the public and private sector in carrying out its duties under this section.

(7) Nonlegislative members of the task force shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Legislative members of the task force shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 44.04.120.

(8) Staff of senate committee services and the office of program research of the house of representatives shall provide support to the task force.

(9) This section expires March 1, 2002.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 221. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except with respect to the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, the secretary shall adopt rules that balance the average response time of emergency services to the general area of a proposed secure community transition facility against the proximity of the proposed site to risk potential activities and facilities in existence at the time the site is listed for consideration.

(2) In balancing the competing criteria of proximity and response time the rule shall endeavor to achieve an average law enforcement response time not greater than five minutes and in no case shall the rule permit location of a facility adjacent to, immediately across a street or parking lot from, or within the line of sight of a risk potential activity or facility in existence at the time a site is listed for consideration. "Within the line of sight" means that it is possible to reasonably visually distinguish and recognize individuals.

(3) The rule shall require that great weight be given to sites that are the farthest removed from any risk potential activity.

(4) The rule shall specify how distance from the location is measured and any variations in the measurement based on the size of the property within which a proposed facility is to be located.

(5) The rule shall establish a method to analyze and compare the criteria for each site in terms of public safety and security, site characteristics, and program components. In making a decision regarding a site following the analysis and comparison, the secretary shall give priority to public safety and security considerations. The analysis and comparison of the criteria are to be documented and made available at the public hearings prescribed in section 225 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 222. By December 1, 2001, the secretary of the department of social and health services shall determine and report to the legislature whether there is a significant group of potential locations that are outside of a five-minute law enforcement response time zone that are more than two miles from any risk potential activities and whether, in the secretary's judgment, the legislature should require the rule to be revised to permit consideration of these properties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 223. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:
The secretary shall establish criteria for the siting of secure community transition facilities, other than the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, which shall include at least the following minimum requirements:

1. Any real property listed for consideration for the location of or use as a secure community transition facility must meet all of the following criteria:
   a. The proximity and response time criteria established under section 221 of this act;
   b. The site or building is available for lease for the anticipated use period or for purchase;
   c. Security monitoring services and appropriate back-up systems are available and reliable;
   d. Appropriate mental health and sex offender treatment providers must be available within a reasonable commute; and
   e. Appropriate permitting for a secure community transition facility must be possible under the zoning code of the local jurisdiction.

2. For sites which meet the criteria of subsection (1) of this section, the department shall analyze and compare the criteria in subsections (3) through (5) of this section using the method established in section 221 of this act.
3. Public safety and security criteria shall include at least the following:
   a. Whether limited visibility between the facility and adjacent properties can be achieved prior to placement of any person;
   b. The distance from, and number of, risk potential activities and facilities, as measured using the rules adopted under section 221 of this act;
   c. The existence of or ability to establish barriers between the site and the risk potential facilities and activities;
   d. Suitability of the buildings to be used for the secure community transition facility with regard to existing or feasibly modified features; and
   e. The availability of electronic monitoring that allows a resident's location to be determined with specificity.
4. Site characteristics criteria shall include at least the following:
   a. Reasonability of rental, lease, or sale terms including length and renewability of a lease or rental agreement;
   b. Traffic and access patterns associated with the real property;
   c. Feasibility of complying with zoning requirements within the necessary time frame; and
   d. A contractor or contractors are available to install, monitor, and repair the necessary security and alarm systems.
5. Program characteristics criteria shall include at least the following:
   a. Reasonable proximity to available medical, mental health, sex offender, and chemical dependency treatment providers and facilities;
   b. Suitability of the location for programming, staffing, and support considerations;
   c. Proximity to employment, educational, vocational, and other treatment plan components; and
   d. For purposes of this section "available" or "availability" of qualified treatment providers includes provider qualifications and willingness to provide services, average commute time, and cost of services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 224. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Security systems for secure community transition facilities designed to house five or fewer residents shall meet the following minimum qualifications:

1. The security panel must be a commercial grade panel with tamper-proof switches and a key-lock to prevent unauthorized access.
2. There must be an emergency electrical supply system which shall include a battery back-up system and a generator.
3. The security system must be capable of being monitored and signaled either by telephone through either a land or cellular telephone system or by private radio network in the event of a total dial-tone failure or through equivalent technologies.
4. The department shall issue photo-identification badges to all staff which must be worn at all times.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 225. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

1. Whenever the department operates, or the secretary enters into a contract to operate, a secure community transition facility except the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 201 of this act, the secure community transition facility may be operated only after the public notification and opportunities for review and comment as required by this section.
2. The secretary shall establish a process for early and continuous public participation in establishing or relocating secure community transition facilities. The process shall include, at a minimum, public meetings in the local communities affected, as well as opportunities for written and oral comments, in the following manner:
   a. If there are more than three sites initially selected as potential locations and the selection process by the secretary or a service provider reduces the number of possible sites for a secure community transition facility to no fewer than three, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall notify the public of the possible siting and hold at least two public hearings in each community where a secure community transition facility may be sited.
   b. When the secretary or service provider has determined the secure community transition facility's location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall hold at least one additional public hearing in the community where the secure community transition facility will be sited.
   c. When the secretary has entered negotiations with a service provider and only one site is under consideration, then at least two public hearings shall be held.
3. To provide adequate notice of, and opportunity for interested persons to comment on, a proposed location, the secretary or the chief operating officer of the service provider shall provide at least fourteen days' advance notice of the meeting to all newspapers of general circulation in the community, all radio and television stations generally available to persons in the community, any school district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited or whose boundary is within two miles of a proposed secure community transition facility, any library district in which the secure community transition facility would be sited, local business or fraternal organizations that request notification from the secretary or agency, and any person or property owner within a one-half mile radius of the proposed secure community transition facility. Before initiating this process, the department of social and health services shall consult with the governor and agency planning agencies in the communities containing the proposed secure community transition facility. The department of social and health services shall coordinate with local government agencies to ensure that opportunities are provided for effective citizen input and to reduce the duplication of notice and meetings.

(3) This section applies only to secure community transition facilities sited after the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 226. A new section is added to chapter 36.70A RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department of social and health services shall prepare a projected list of counties in which secure community transition facilities will need to be sited over the next six years and transmit that to the office of financial management for inclusion on the list of projected essential public facilities kept under RCW 36.70A.200. In preparing the list the department must give great weight to the equitable distribution criteria established by the joint select committee under section 220 of this act.

(2) When a county is notified by the department of social and health services of the projected need to site secure community transition facilities, the county shall review and shall, if necessary, take action to revise the countywide planning policies adopted under RCW 36.70A.210 to address the siting of such facilities. The county must include all cities in such review and must solicit the participation of the department of social and health services regarding policies, statutes, and rules applicable to the siting of secure community transition facilities.

(3) Each county and city identified in the countywide planning policies developed under subsection (2) of this section for projected siting of secure community transition facilities within such county or city shall make any necessary revisions to its comprehensive plan and development regulations. The provisions of the comprehensive plan and development regulations shall be consistent with the policies, statutes, and rules applicable to the siting of secure community transition facilities. Any amendments may be combined with the next scheduled adoption of revisions, but in any event not later than the date provided for comprehensive review and revision of plans pursuant to RCW 36.70A.130(1).

(4) Nothing in this section precludes a local government from requiring that a special use or a conditional use permit be obtained to site a secure community transition facility that does not comply with its comprehensive plan and development regulations, provided that the comprehensive plan and development regulations are consistent with this section. The local government shall establish timelines for processing any required permits that are no longer than those established for other comparable project permits under RCW 36.70B.080.

Sec. 227. RCW 36.70A.200 and 1998 c 171 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The comprehensive plan of each county and city that is planning under this chapter shall include a process for identifying and siting essential public facilities. Essential public facilities include those facilities that are typically difficult to site, such as airports, state education facilities and state or regional transportation facilities as defined in RCW 47.06.140, state and local correctional facilities, solid waste handling facilities, and in-patient facilities including substance abuse facilities, mental health facilities, ((and)) group homes, and secure community transition facilities as defined in RCW 71.09.020.

(2) The office of financial management shall maintain a list of those essential state public facilities that are required or likely to be built within the next six years. The office of financial management may at any time add facilities to the list. No local comprehensive plan or development regulation may preclude the siting of essential public facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 228. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this act shall operate to restrict a court's authority to make less restrictive alternative placements to a committed person's individual residence or to a setting less restrictive than the secure community transition facility established pursuant to section 220 of this act. A court-ordered less restrictive alternative placement to a committed person's individual residence is not a less restrictive alternative placement to a secure community transition facility.

PART III
SENTENCING STRUCTURE

Sec. 301. RCW 9.94A.030 and 2000 c 28 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the indeterminate sentence review board created under chapter 9.95 RCW.

(2) "Collect," or any derivative thereof, "collect and remit," or "collect and deliver," when used with reference to the department, means that the department, either directly or through a collection agency authorized by RCW 9.94A.145, is responsible for monitoring and enforcing the offender's sentence with regard to the legal financial obligation, receiving payment thereof from the offender, and, consistent with current law, delivering daily the entire payment to the superior court clerk without depositing it in a departmental account.

(3) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(4) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(5) "Community custody" means that portion of an offender's sentence of confinement in lieu of earned release time or imposed sentence pursuant to RCW 9.94A.202(b), 9.94A.650 through 9.94A.670, 9.94A.137, 9.94A.700 through 9.94A.713, or 9.94A.383, served in the community subject to controls placed on the offender's movement and activities by the department. For offenders placed on community custody for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000, the department shall assess the offender's risk of reoffense and may establish and modify conditions of community custody, in addition to those imposed by the court, based upon the risk to community safety.

(6) "Community custody range" means the minimum and maximum period of community custody included as part of a sentence under RCW 9.94A.715, as established by the commission or the legislature, pursuant to RCW 9.94A.040, for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000.

(7) "Community placement" means that period during which the offender is subject to the conditions of community custody and/or postrelease supervision, which begins either upon completion of the term of confinement (postrelease supervision) or at such time as the offender is transferred to community custody in lieu of earned release. Community placement may consist of entirely community custody, entirely postrelease supervision, or a combination of the two.

(8) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender.

(9) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed by a court pursuant to this chapter or RCW 16.52.200(6) or 46.61.524. Where the court finds that any offender has a chemical dependency that has contributed to his or her offense, the conditions of supervision may, subject to available resources, include treatment. For purposes of the interstate compact for out-of-state supervision of paroles and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

(10) "Confine" means to confine, place in custody, or imprison.

(11) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

(12) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct. However, affirmative acts necessary to monitor compliance with the order of a court may be required by the department.

(13) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions and juvenile adjudications, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. For purposes of (a)(ii) of this subsection, failure to register is not a sex offense.

(2) Upon a finding that the offender is subject to sentencing under this section, the court shall impose a sentence to a maximum term consisting of the statutory maximum sentence for the offense and a minimum term either within the standard sentence range for the offense, or outside the standard sentence range pursuant to RCW 9.94A.390, if the offender is otherwise eligible for such a sentence.

The conditions may also include those provided for in RCW 9.94A.700(5). The court may also order the offender to participate in rehabilitative programs or otherwise perform affirmative conduct reasonably related to the circumstances of the offense, the offender's risk of reoffending, or the safety of the community, and the department and the board shall enforce such conditions pursuant to sections 305, 308, and 309 of this act.

(b) The prosecuting attorney may file a special allegation that the offense was committed by forcible compulsion in every criminal case in which a defendant is charged with rape of a child in the first or second degree and the defendant is seventeen years of age or younger, and in every criminal case in which a defendant is charged with any sex offense when the defendant has a prior conviction for an offense listed in RCW 9.94A.030(32)(b), if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify a finding that the offense was committed by forcible compulsion by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

(2) In a criminal case wherein a special allegation has been filed pursuant to this section, the state shall prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the offense was predatory or was committed by forcible compulsion. The court shall make a finding of fact of whether or not an offense was predatory or was committed by forcible compulsion, or if a jury trial is had, the jury shall, if it finds the defendant guilty, also find a special verdict as to whether or not the offense was predatory or was committed by forcible compulsion.

(3) The prosecuting attorney shall not withdraw the special allegation that an offense was predatory due to court congestion or lack of prosecutorial resources. The prosecuting attorney may, with the consent of the court, withdraw the special allegation if the circumstances of the offense do not warrant lifetime parole or in the interest of justice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 305. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

(1) When an offender is sentenced under section 303 of this act, the department shall assess the offender's risk of recidivism and shall recommend to the board any additional or modified conditions of the offender's community custody based upon the risk to community safety. In addition, the department shall make a recommendation with regard to, and the board may require the offender to participate in, rehabilitative programs, or otherwise perform affirmative conduct, and obey all laws. The board must consider and may impose department-recommended conditions.

(2) The department may not recommend and the board may not impose conditions that are contrary to those ordered by the court and may not contravene or decrease court-imposed conditions. The board shall notify the offender in writing of any such conditions or modifications.

(3) In setting, modifying, and enforcing conditions of community custody, the department shall be deemed to be performing a quasi-judicial function.

(4) If an offender violates conditions imposed by the court, the department, or the board during community custody, the board or the department may transfer the offender to a more restrictive confinement status and impose other available sanctions as provided in section 310 of this act.

(5) By the close of the next business day, after receiving notice of a condition imposed by the board or the department, an offender may request an administrative hearing under rules adopted by the board. The condition shall remain in effect unless the hearing examiner finds that it is not reasonably related to any of the following:

(a) The crime of conviction;
(b) The offender's risk of reoffending; or
(c) The safety of the community.

(6) An offender released by the board under section 307 of this act shall be subject to the supervision of the department until the expiration of the maximum term of the sentence. The department shall monitor the offender's compliance with conditions of community custody imposed by the court, department, or board, and promptly report any violations to the board. Any violation of conditions of community custody established or modified by the board shall be subject to the provisions of sections 308 through 311 of this act.

(7) If the department finds that an emergency exists requiring the immediate imposition of conditions of release in addition to those set by the board under section 307 of this act and subsection (1) of this section in order to prevent the offender from committing a crime, the department may impose additional conditions. The department may not impose conditions that are contrary to those set by the board or the court and may not contravene or decrease court-imposed or board-imposed conditions. Conditions imposed under this subsection shall take effect immediately after notice to the offender by personal service, but shall not remain in effect longer than seven working days unless approved by the board under subsection (1) of this section within seven working days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 306. A new section is added to chapter 72.09 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall provide offenders sentenced under section 303 of this act with the opportunity for sex offender treatment during incarceration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 307. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) (a) Before the expiration of the minimum term, as part of the end of sentence review process under RCW 72.09.340, 72.09.345, and where appropriate, 72.09.370, the department shall conduct, and the offender shall participate in, an examination of the offender, incorporating methodologies that are recognized by experts in the prediction of sexual dangerousness, and including a prediction of the probability that the offender will engage in sex offenses if released on conditions to be set by the board. The board may consider an offender's failure to participate in an evaluation under subsection (1) of this section in determining whether to release the offender.

(b) The board may contract for an additional, independent examination, subject to the standards in this section.

(2) The board shall impose the conditions and instructions provided for in RCW 9.94A.720. The board shall consider the department's recommendations and may impose conditions in addition to those recommended by the department. The board may impose or modify conditions of community custody following notice to the offender.

(3) No later than ninety days before expiration of the minimum term, but after the board receives the results from the end of sentence review process and the recommendations for additional or modified conditions of community custody from the department, the board shall determine whether the offender will be more likely than not to commit sex offenses if released on conditions to be set by the board. The board may consider an offender's failure to participate in an evaluation under subsection (1) of this section in determining whether to release the offender. The board shall order the offender released, under such affirmative and other conditions as the board determines appropriate, unless the board determines by a preponderance of the evidence that, despite such conditions, it is more likely than not that the offender will commit sex offenses if released.

If the board does not order the offender released, the board shall establish a new minimum term, not to exceed an additional two years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 308. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the board or a community corrections officer of this state has reason to believe an offender released under section 307 of this act has violated a condition of community custody or the laws of this state, any community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest and detention of the offender pending a determination by the board whether sanctions should be imposed or the offender's community custody should be revoked. The community corrections officer shall report all facts and circumstances surrounding the alleged violation to the board, with recommendations.

(2) If the board or the department causes the arrest or detention of an offender for a violation that does not amount to a new crime and the offender is arrested or detained by local law enforcement or in a local jail, the board or department, whichever caused the arrest or detention, shall be financially responsible for local costs. Jail bed costs shall be allocated at the rate established under RCW 9.94A.207(3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 309. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

Any offender released under section 307 of this act who is arrested and detained in physical custody by the authority of a community corrections officer, or upon the written order of the board, shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the board and the issuance by the board of an order reinstating the offender's release on the same or modified conditions. All chiefs of police, marshals of cities and towns, sheriffs of counties, and all police, prison, and peace officers and coroners shall cooperate with the board to execute any order in the same manner as any ordinary criminal process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If an offender released by the board under section 307 of this act violates any condition of community custody, the board may transfer the offender to a more restrictive confinement status to serve up to the remaining portion of the sentence, less credit for any period actually spent in community custody or in detention awaiting disposition of an alleged violation and subject to the limitations of subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Following the hearing specified in subsection (3) of this section, the board may impose sanctions such as work release, home detention with electronic monitoring, work crew, community service, inpatient treatment, daily reporting, curfew, educational or counseling sessions, supervision enhanced through electronic monitoring, or any other sanctions available in the community, or may suspend or revoke the release to community custody whenever an offender released by the board under section 307 of this act violates any condition of community custody.

(3) If an offender released by the board under section 307 of this act is accused of violating any condition or requirement of community custody, or she is entitled to a hearing before the board prior to the imposition of sanctions. The hearing shall be considered as offender disciplinary proceedings and shall not be subject to chapter 34.05 RCW. The board shall develop hearing procedures and a structure of graduated sanctions consistent with the hearing procedures and graduated sanctions developed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.205. The board may suspend the offender's release to community custody and confine the offender in a correctional institution owned, operated by, or operated under contract with the state prior to the hearing unless the offender has been arrested and confined for a new criminal offense.

(4) The hearing procedures required under subsection (3) of this section shall be developed by rule and include the following:

(a) Hearings shall be conducted by members of the board unless the board enters into an agreement with the department to use the hearing officers established under RCW 9.94A.205;

(b) The board shall provide the offender with written notice of the violation, the evidence relied upon, and the reasons the particular sanction was imposed. The notice shall include a statement of the rights specified in this subsection, and the defendant's right to file a personal restraint petition under court rules after the final decision of the board;

(c) The hearing shall be held unless waived by the offender, and shall be electronically recorded. For offenders not in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within fifteen working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation. For offenders in total confinement, the hearing shall be held within five working days, but not less than twenty-four hours after notice of the violation;

(d) The offender shall have the right to: (i) Be present at the hearing; (ii) have the assistance of a person qualified to assist the offender in the hearing, appointed by the hearing examiner if the offender has a language or communications barrier; (iii) testify or remain silent; (iv) call witnesses and present documentary evidence; (v) question witnesses who appear and testify; and (vi) be represented by counsel if revocation of the release to community custody is a possible sanction for the violation; and (e) The sanction shall take effect if affirmed by the hearing examiner. Within seven days after the hearing examiner’s decision, the offender may appeal the decision to a panel of three reviewing examiners designated by the chair of the board or by the chair’s designee. The sanction shall be reversed or modified if a majority of the panel finds that the sanction was not reasonably related to any of the following: (i) The crime of conviction; (ii) the violation committed; (iii) the offender’s risk of reoffending; or (iv) the safety of the community.

(5) For purposes of this section, no finding of a violation of conditions may be based on unconfirmed or unconfirmable allegations.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 311. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

In the event the board suspends release status of an offender released under section 307 of this act by reason of an alleged violation of a condition of release, or pending disposition of a new criminal charge, the board may nullify the suspension order and reinstate release under previous conditions or any new conditions the board determines advisable. Before the board may nullify a suspension order and reinstate release, it shall determine that the best interests of society and the offender shall be served by such reinstatement rather than return to confinement.

Sec. 312. RCW 9.94A.060 and 1996 c 323 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission consists of twenty voting members, one of whom the governor shall designate as chairperson. With the exception of ex officio voting members, the voting members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate.

(1) When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this chapter.

(2)(a) The court shall impose a sentence as provided in the following sections and as applicable in the case:

(i) Unless another term of confinement applies, the court shall impose a sentence within the standard sentence range established in RCW 9.94A.310;

(ii) RCW 9.94A.700 and 9.94A.705, relating to community placement;

(iii) RCW 9.94A.710 and 9.94A.715, relating to community custody;

(iv) RCW 9.94A.383, relating to community custody for offenders whose term of confinement is one year or less;

(v) RCW 9.94A.560, relating to persistent offenders;

(vi) RCW 9.94A.590, relating to mandatory minimum terms;

(vii) RCW 9.94A.650, relating to the first-time offender waiver;

(viii) RCW 9.94A.660, relating to the drug offender sentencing alternative;

(ix) RCW 9.94A.670, relating to the special sex offender sentencing alternative;

(x) Section 303 of this act, relating to certain sex offenses;

(xi) RCW 9.94A.390, relating to exceptional sentences;

(xii) (xiii) RCW 9.94A.400, relating to consecutive and concurrent sentences.

Sec. 314. RCW 9.94A.190 and 2000 c 28 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided in subsection (3) or (5) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county, or in home detention or work crew has been ordered by the court, in the residence of either the offender or a member of the offender's immediate family.

(2) A county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a sentence imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.660 which has a standard sentence range of confinement of one year, regardless of length, shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

(5) Sentences imposed pursuant to section 303 of this act shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state.

Sec. 315. RCW 9.94A.390 and 2000 c 28 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for an offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence. Whenever a sentence outside the standard sentence range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard sentence range shall be a determinate sentence unless it is imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act. An exceptional sentence imposed on an offender sentenced under section 303 of this act shall be a minimum term set by the court and a maximum term equal to the statutory maximum sentence for the offense of conviction under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard sentence range should be imposed, the sentence is subject to review only as provided in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400 (1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in this section, and may be appealed by the offender or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.212 (2) through (6).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

(a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.
(b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

(c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

(d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

(e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his or her conduct, or to conform his or her conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired. Voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded.

(f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

(g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(h) The defendant or the defendant's children suffered a continuing pattern of physical or sexual abuse by the victim of the offense and the offense is a response to that abuse.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

(a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(c) The current offense was a violent offense, and the defendant knew that the victim of the current offense was pregnant.

(d) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:
   (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;
   (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;
   (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning occurred over a lengthy period of time; or
   (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

(e) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify a current offense as a major VUCSA:
   (i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so;
   (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use;
   (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties;
   (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy;
   (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning, occurred over a lengthy period of time, or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or
   (vi) The defendant used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional).

(f) The current offense included a finding of sexual motivation pursuant to RCW 9.94A.127.

(g) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of sexual abuse of the same victim under the age of eighteen years manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time.

(h) The current offense involved domestic violence, as defined in RCW 10.99.020, and one or more of the following was present:
   (i) The offense was part of an ongoing pattern of psychological, physical, or sexual abuse of the victim manifested by multiple incidents over a prolonged period of time;
   (ii) The offense occurred within sight or sound of the victim's or the offender's minor children under the age of eighteen years; or
   (iii) The offender's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty or intimidation of the victim.

(i) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

Sec. 316. RCW 9.94A.590 and 2000 c 28 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The following minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified under RCW 9.94A.390:
   (a) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years.
   (b) An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree or assault of a child in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.
   (c) An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years.
   (d) An offender convicted of the crime of sexually violent predator escape shall be sentenced to a minimum term of total confinement not less than sixty months.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 317. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

"(1) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(2) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(3) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(4) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(5) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(6) "Department" means the department of corrections.

Sec. 318. RCW 9.95.005 and 1986 c 224 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

The court shall attempt to set the minimum term reasonably consistent with the purposes, standards, and sentencing ranges adopted under RCW 9.94A.040, but the court is subject to the same limitations as those placed on the board under RCW

Sec. 319. RCW 9.95.010 and 1955 c 133 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person, whose crime was committed before July 1, 1984, is convicted of any felony, except treason, murder in the first degree, or carnal knowledge of a child under ten years, and a new trial is not granted, the court shall sentence such person to the penitentiary, or, if the law allows and the court sees fit to exercise such discretion, to the reformatory, and shall fix the maximum term of such person's sentence only.

The maximum term to be fixed by the court shall be the maximum provided by law for the offense of which such person was convicted, unless the law provides for a minimum term for the crime of which such person was convicted the court shall fix such maximum term, which may be for any number of years up to and including life imprisonment but in any case where the maximum term is fixed by the court it shall be fixed at not less than twenty years.

Sec. 320. RCW 9.95.011 and 1993 c 144 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the court commits a convicted person to the department of corrections on or after July 1, 1986, for an offense committed before July 1, 1986, the court shall, at the time of sentencing or revocation of probation, fix the minimum term. The term so fixed shall not exceed the maximum sentence provided by law for the offense of which the person is convicted.

The court shall attempt to set the minimum term reasonably consistent with the purposes, standards, and sentencing ranges adopted under RCW 9.94A.040, but the court is subject to the same limitations as those placed on the board under RCW 9.92.090, 9.95.040 (1) through (4), 9.95.115, 9A.32.040, 9A.44.045, and chapter 69.50 RCW. The court’s minimum term decision is subject to review to the same extent as a minimum term decision by the parole board before July 1, 1986.

Thereafter, the expiration of the minimum term set by the court minus any time credits earned under RCW 9.95.070 and 9.95.110 constitutes the parole eligibility review date, at which time the board may consider the convicted person for parole under RCW 9.95.100 and 9.95.110 and chapter 72.04A RCW. Nothing in this section affects the board’s authority to reduce or increase the minimum term, once set by the court, under RCW 9.95.040, 9.95.052, 9.95.055, 9.95.070, 9.95.080, 9.95.100, 9.95.115, 9.95.125, or 9.95.047.

(2) Not less than ninety days prior to the expiration of the minimum term of a person sentenced under section 303 of this act, for a sex offense committed on or after July 1, 2001, less any time credits permitted by statute, the board shall review the person for conditional release to community custody as provided in section 307 of this act. If the board does not release the person, it shall set a new minimum term not to exceed an additional two years. The board shall review the person again not less than ninety days prior to the expiration of the new minimum term.

Sec. 321. RCW 9.95.017 and 1986 c 224 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

The proposed criteria should take into consideration the criteria of section 300(2). Before submission to the governor, the board shall solicit comments and review on their proposed criteria for parole release. These proposed criteria shall be submitted for consideration by the 1987 legislature.

(2) Persons committed to the department of corrections and who are under the authority of the board for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000, are subject to the provisions for duration of confinement, release to community custody, and length of community custody established in sections 303 through 311 of this act.

Sec. 322. RCW 9.95.020 and 1955 c 133 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The proposed criteria should take into consideration the criteria of section 300(2). Before submission to the governor, the board shall solicit comments and review on their proposed criteria for parole release. These proposed criteria shall be submitted for consideration by the 1987 legislature.

(2) Persons committed to the department of corrections and who are under the authority of the board for crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000, are subject to the provisions for duration of confinement, release to community custody, and length of community custody established in sections 303 through 311 of this act.

Sec. 323. RCW 9.95.032 and 1984 c 114 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

The statement shall be signed by the person on which the judgment was rendered and shall be delivered to the sheriff, traveling guard, department of corrections personnel, or other officer executing the sentence, and a copy of such statement shall be furnished to the defendant or his or her attorney. Such officer shall deliver the statement, at the time of the prisoner's commitment, to the superintendent of the institution to which such prisoner has been committed, no offender subject to the provisions of this section is eligible for community custody, earned release time, furlough, home detention, partial confinement, work crew, work release, or any other form of early release authorized under RCW 9.94A.150, or any other form of authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility while not in the direct custody of a corrections officer. The provisions of subsection (a) in the case of an offender in need of emergency medical treatment; (b) for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility in the case of an offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree; or (c) for an extraordinary medical placement when authorized under RCW 9.94A.150(4).
Sec. 324. RCW 9.95.052 and 1986 c 224 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after the board (or the court after July 1, 1986) has determined the minimum term of confinement of any person subject to confinement in a state correctional institution for a crime committed before July 1, 1984, the board may request the superintendent of such correctional institution to conduct a full review of such person's prospects for rehabilitation and report to the board the facts of such review and the resulting findings. Upon the basis of such report and such other information and investigation that the board deems appropriate, the board may redetermine and relitigate such convicted person's minimum term of confinement whether the term was set by the board or the court.

The board shall not reduce a person's minimum term of confinement unless the board has received from the department of corrections all institutional conduct reports relating to the person.

Sec. 325. RCW 9.95.055 and 1992 c 7 s 25 are each amended to read as follows:

The indeterminate sentence review board is hereby granted authority, in the event of a declaration by the governor that a war emergency exists, including a general mobilization, and for the duration thereof only, to reduce downward the minimum term, as set by the board, of any inmate under the jurisdiction of the board confined in a state correctional facility, who will be accepted by and inducted into the armed services. (2) Prior to release of an offender identiﬁed under this section, a team consisting of representatives of the department of corrections, the division of mental health, and, as necessary, the indeterminate sentence review board, other divisions or administrations within the department of social and health services, speciﬁcally including the division of alcohol and substance abuse and the division of developmental disabilities, the appropriate regional support network, and the providers, as appropriate, shall develop a plan, as determined necessary by the team, for delivery of treatment and support services to the offender upon release. If a summons is issued, the offender shall remain within the corrections facility until completion of his or her term of conﬁnement and be transported, by corrections personnel on the day of completion, directly to the identiﬁed evaluation and treatment facility.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5465, by Senate Committee on Human Services and Corrections (originally sponsored by Senators Costa, Hargrove and Long)
Changing provisions relating to sex offender treatment providers.

On motion of Senator Costa, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5465 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Costa, the following amendment was adopted:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the state needs an increasing number of certified sex offender treatment providers to treat sexually violent predators and meet the state's commitment to long-term treatment, help reduce recidivism, and more adequately provide for the community. The legislature recognizes that these treatment providers offer a valuable service to the people of Washington and may experience difficulty maintaining adequate liability protection given the inherent uncertainties of providing treatment to sexually violent predators. The legislature intends to provide very limited immunity, for instances of simple negligence only, to certified sex offender treatment providers for their treatment decisions involving sexually violent predators released to a less restrictive alternative under chapter 71.09 RCW.

Sec. 2. RCW 18.155.020 and 2000 c 171 s 33 and 2000 c 28 s 38 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) No person shall represent himself or herself as a certified sex offender treatment provider without first applying for and receiving a certificate pursuant to chapter 71.09 RCW.

(a) Evaluations conducted for the purposes of and pursuant to RCW 9.94A.670 and 13.40.160;

(b) Treatment of convicted sex offenders who are sentenced and ordered into treatment pursuant to ((RCW 9.94A.670)) chapter 9.94A RCW and adjudicated juvenile sex offenders who are ordered into treatment pursuant to (RCW 13.40.160) chapter 13.40 RCW;

(c) Except as provided under subsection (3) of this section, treatment of sexually violent predators who are conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative pursuant to chapter 71.09 RCW.

(3) A certified sex offender treatment provider may not perform or provide treatment of sexually violent predators under subsection (2)(c) of this section if the certified sex offender treatment provider has been:

(a) Convicted of a sex offense, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;

(b) Convicted in any other jurisdiction of an offense that under the laws of this state would be classified as a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;

(c) Suspended or otherwise restricted from practicing any health care profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A certified sex offender treatment provider, acting in the course of his or her duties, providing treatment to a person who has been released to a less restrictive alternative under chapter 71.09 RCW or to a level III sex offender on community custody as a court or department ordered condition of sentence is not negligent because he or she treats a high risk offender; sex offenders are known in RCW 9.94A.030. The treatment provider is not liable for civil damages resulting from the reoffense of a client unless the treatment provider's acts or omissions constituted gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. This limited liability provision does not eliminate the treatment provider's duty to warn of and protect from a client's threatened violent behavior if the client communicates a serious threat of physical violence against a reasonably ascertainable victim or victims. This limited liability provision applies only to the conduct of certified sex offender treatment providers and not the conduct of the state.

(2) Sex offender treatment providers who provide services to the department of corrections by identifying risk factors and notifying the department of risks for the subset of high risk offenders who are not amenable to treatment and who are under court order for treatment or supervision are practicing within the scope of their profession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 71.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Examinations and treatment of sexually violent predators who are conditionally released to a less restrictive alternative under this chapter shall be conducted only by sex offender treatment providers certified by the department of health under chapter 18.155 RCW unless the court or the department of social and health services finds that: (a) The court-ordered less restrictive alternative placement is located in another state; (b) the treatment provider is employed by the department; or (c) if all certified treatment providers become unavailable to provide treatment within a reasonable geographic distance of the person's home, as determined in subsection (1) of this chapter, the department of social and health services; and (ii) the evaluation and treatment plan comply with the rules adopted by the department of social and health services.

A treatment provider approved by the department of social and health services under (c) of this subsection, who is not certified by the department of health, shall consult with a certified provider during the person's period of treatment to ensure compliance with the rules adopted by the department of health. The frequency and content of the consultation shall be based on the recommendation of the certified provider.

(2) A treatment provider, whether or not he or she is employed or approved by the department of social and health services under subsection (1) of this section or otherwise certified, may not perform or provide treatment of sexually violent predators under this section if the treatment provider has been:

(a) Convicted of a sex offense, as defined in RCW 9.94A.030;
(b) Convicted in any other jurisdiction of an offense that under the laws of this state would be classified as a sex offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030; or
(c) Suspended or otherwise restricted from practicing any health care profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction.
(3) Nothing in this section prohibits a qualified expert from examining or evaluating a sexually violent predator who has been conditionally released for purposes of presenting an opinion in court proceedings."

Senator Tim Sheldon made a motion to go the ninth order of business and relieve a bill from the State and Local Government Committee and I asked for a roll call on the motion to go to the ninth order of business. I think the motion before the Senate now is the motion to go the ninth order of business; a roll call has been demanded and that is the question before the Senate?"

REPLY BY THE VICE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Vice President Pro Tempore Shin: "The question before the Senate is whether to go to the ninth order to relieve the State and Local Government Committee of Senate Bill No. 5859."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Oke: "Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. To the body, again, I want to thank you for your vote. I think that was the best speech I have ever made. Senator McCaslin told me that if I said nothing that we would get more votes and less against it and that happened. I truly again thank you. We had a vote back on Valentine’s Day and I appreciated that vote and I especially appreciated Senator Hale’s prayer this morning. I sleep well at night, but I tell you that every morning when I wake up, the first thing—the very first thing—and Judy will probably not like this—is that bridge issue and it has been going on for eight years. I hope and pray that we pass this bill quickly to the House and they can take action on it. I hope we never have to vote on it again. We could have had this bridge built—eight years we have been on this project.

“It could have been started; it could have been completed by today. I just hope we have the courage in this body and the other body and the Governor to make this thing go and get on with projects that really are important in this state. If we can’t do this project, I am convinced, that we will not do other major transportation projects in the state of Washington. If this project doesn’t get through this session, I am really afraid that it might not ever be completed in my life anyway. So, thank you again and God Bless each one of you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Well, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I passed out an amendment. Obviously, we didn’t roll it back to second reading for purpose on an amendment, but if I can, Mr. President, I would like to explain the reason why I voted ‘no’ and why I passed out the amendment. I would like to have you read it, because it says, ‘When the rate on a toll bridge go above those of an advisory vote, it automatically goes under the governance of the UTC.’ You have to understand that the rates—the tolls on this bridge are set by a public/private partnership. There is an advisory board that is set up to make sure that the bonds are solvent, but there is nothing there to protect the public interest. That was my reason for passing out the amendment. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Oke: “Another point of personal privilege, Mr. President, if I might. On the last comment—is that alright Mr. President? This last comment that said there was no oversight, there is oversight. This contract, and I have watched it in its preparation and how thick it is. It has more oversights in this contract than any contract I have ever seen go through for the state. I passed out to you, the individuals that are on the non-profit board and every meeting that they have will be open to the public. These people, we know them. We know that they are living right next to that bridge and we know they will make the best decisions for that bridge and that community. I am convinced that we have a good plan and I appreciate your pulling back your amendment. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Kastama: “Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I would like to thank all the members of the body for their prayers and their cards and for their gifts during the last week. I was in an auto accident a week ago yesterday. Just so I don’t have to describe to everybody on the one on one detail, I will go on and share with you what actually happened. I was going home from the Legislature; I left here about five o’clock. I was on I 5 and at the 512 exit, there is a sign that says, ‘Puyallup exit a half mile.’ Well, I happened to stop my car right there. It was backed all the way up to that half-way marker. I looked at the sign and thought to myself, "Doggone, a half mile sitting in this traffic."

“At that moment, a grey Chevy Blazer pulled up to my right on the shoulder. I was thinking why would she be doing that--I'm looking at the lady now. She had done that because right behind her car was a car going--it was reported at fifty or sixty miles an hour--and did not know that the traffic was backed up, so this lady pulled off to the side. All I can tell you is that I saw my car visually expand in front of me. I thought it had exploded. The back of my seat snapped off and I went into the back. That is the last I remember.

"When I woke up, I went ahead and got out the driver's side--it was open maybe because it had been crushed so much. I got out; I saw head lights all over the ground. A pretty tough time! I have to tell you this, though, they did carry me away and took me to an emergency room and I was strapped up, because they were fearful there might be spinal problems, which there were none.

"A comical thing, I was always wondering about how my wife would take this. I kept insisting I talk to my wife. I was in the emergency room all strapped down, can't move my head, can't move my arms or my legs, but I insisted on talking to my wife. They put a phone up next to me and I started my conversation by saying, 'Well, honey, how are you doing today?' I said, 'I just want you to know that I am doing okay.' I didn't want her to be fearful, but finally I let her know that I was strapped down and couldn't move any part of my body, but she could come and get me at that time.

"Your prayers really did help. It has been a very difficult week and somewhat life changing for me. The State Patrol was very good. Everyone that was involved in the accident--it was just an experience. Anyway, thank you, Mr. President. Thank you members of the body."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Well, we are glad you are back and all in one piece, Senator. Welcome back!"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Honeyford: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Senator Prentice just pointed out my mistake. I provided for all of you, on your desks, some asparagus packets. I have some IOUs to some of my Republican friends, because I didn't count the bundles of asparagus. I did find that technology failed in the little wrapper I put on there and Senator Prentice did correct me on this in that Chile is spelled two ways. My spell checker didn't catch it, my LA didn't catch it and my wife didn't catch it, but Senator Prentice did.

"This is the country, not the spicy food. I put this on your desk with a little bit of an explanation of what is happening to the asparagus industry in the state of Washington. I would suspect we may have some fresh markets left in the state, but in all probability, I think we are going to find canneries going out of state and maybe out of the country due to many things. One of them is the minimum wage, which is increasing the costs--the competition from the foreign countries, regulatory costs, payroll taxes and things like that that boils down to the fact that we would have to be selling asparagus for a dollar a pound to break even. That is not happening. You can buy it in the grocery store for around seventy-five cents up to two ninety-nine cents a pound. The farmer is getting somewhere, as I mentioned, somewhere around twenty-eight to thirty cents a pound. That is generally, depending on the financial situation of the farmer, below market price or below the break even price for him.

"Anyway enjoy. It is good asparagus. For my Republican friends that I missed, I will make it up next week. Thank you."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Thank you, Senator."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "I want to rise to a point of personal privilege. I would like to thank Herman te Velde who grew the asparagus. Herman te Velde is a dairyman--or he was a dairyman from my valley. If you think picking asparagus is hard, he went from dairying to asparagus. Apparently, dairying really didn't pay back either. I do want to commend him for providing the asparagus. He certainly is a very fine gentlemen."

SENATOR TIM SHELDON: "MR. PRESIDENT, I RISE TO A POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE. BEFORE THE SESSION BEGAN, I HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND A GROUND BREAKING CEREMONY FOR THE SQUAXIN ISLAND TRIBE IN MY DISTRICT JUST NORTH OF OLYMPIA. THEY WERE BREAKING GROUND ON A MUSEUM BASICALLY--THE SQUAXIN ISLAND MUSEUM, LIBRARY AND RESEARCH CENTER. IT IS QUITE AN IMPRESSIVE BUILDING. THE CONSTRUCTION IS NOW UNDER WAY AND THERE IS SOME MONEY IN OUR CAPITAL BUDGET, ALSO, FOR FIXTURES AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS TO THIS BUILDING.

"DURING THE CEREMONY, I LEARNED A LOT. AT ANY OF THE GATHERINGS OF INDIAN PEOPLE-- THAT AT THE CEREMONY -- IT IS A LONG TRADITION OF THE TRIBE THAT SOME PEOPLE ARE DESIGNATED AS WITNESSES AND THOSE WITNESSES WOULD GO BACK TO THEIR COMMUNITY AND SHARE WITH THEIR COMMUNITY WHAT HAPPENED AT THE GROUND BREAKING OR WHAT HAPPENED AT THE POTLATCH OR WHAT HAPPENED AT THE EVENT THAT THEY ALL ATTENDED AND SHARE THAT WORD WITH THE PEOPLE IN THE COMMUNITY. MY JOB THAT I TOOK ON THAT DAY WAS TO COME BACK TO THE STATE SENATE AND ALSO SHARE WITH YOU, SO THAT YOU MIGHT SHARE WITH YOUR DISTRICT AND YOUR CONSTITUENTS ABOUT THIS FINE MUSEUM AND LIBRARY AND RESEARCH CENTER THAT IS UNDER CONSTRUCTION AND HOPEFULLY TO ENCOURAGE YOU TO VISIT AND UTILIZE THE CENTER. THE PURPOSE, AS I READ, IS TO PROTECT AND REAFFIRM THE TRADITIONS AND BELIEFS OF THE TRIBE, TO ENCOURAGE CONTEMPORARY ARTISTIC EXPRESSION, EMPOWERING THE INDIAN VOICE ENSURING THAT THE KNOWLEDGE OF THEIR ANCESTORS, PAST AND PRESENT, WILL SURVIVE AND FLOURISH FOR PRESENT AND FUTURE GENERATIONS.

"SO, MY POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE TODAY IS ACCOMPLISHED, I BELIEVE, TO SPREAD THE WORD ABOUT THIS FINE MUSEUM THAT IS UNDER CONSTRUCTION JUST NORTH OF HERE. THANK YOU"

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5187

TO THE HONORABLE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS,
THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

MAY 11, 2001

MAY 11, 2001
I AM RETURNING HEREWITH, WITHOUT MY APPROVAL, SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5187 ENTITLED:

"AN ACT RELATING TO UPDATING CREDITOR/DEBTOR PERSONAL PROPERTY EXEMPTIONS."
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5187 WOULD HAVE INCREASED AND EXPANDED THE EXEMPTIONS FROM EXECUTION, ATTACHMENT OR GARNISHMENT FOR CERTAIN HOUSEHOLD GOODS, VEHICLES, AND CERTAIN OTHER ASSETS.
I AGREE WITH THE UNDERLYING THEORY THAT PROMPTED THIS BILL. HOWEVER, BECAUSE THIS BILL LACKS AN EXEMPTION FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES (DSHS) FOR THE COLLECTION OF COURT-ORDERED CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENTS, IT IS NOT GOOD PUBLIC POLICY. THE PRIMARY FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OF DEBTORS SHOULD BE THAT OF THEIR DEPENDENT CHILDREN.
THIS LEGISLATION WOULD HAVE PREVENTED DSHS FROM TAKING COLLECTION ACTION AGAINST CERTAIN LIQUID ASSETS OF A CHILD SUPPORT DEBTOR, WITH NO CONSIDERATION OF THE NEEDS OF DEPENDENT CHILDREN WHO DO NOT RESIDE WITH THE DEBTOR. THE RESULT WOULD HAVE BEEN A NET LOSS OF SUPPORT AVAILABLE FOR CHILDREN AND CUSTODIAL PARENTS.
DSHS PROVIDED THE APPROPRIATE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES WITH LANGUAGE THAT WOULD HAVE CORRECTED THE DEFECTS OF THIS BILL. IF THIS BILL IS PASSED IN THE NEXT LEGISLATIVE SESSION WITH THE CORRECTIVE LANGUAGE, I WILL BE GLAD TO SIGN IT.
FOR THESE REASONS, I HAVE VETOED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5187 IN ITS ENTIRETY.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
GARY LOCKE, GOVERNOR

MOTION

ON MOTION OF SENATOR BETTI SHELDON, THE VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5187 WAS HELD ON THE DESK.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SENATE BILL NO. 5275

TO THE HONORABLE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS,
THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:
I AM RETURNING HEREWITH, WITHOUT MY APPROVAL AS TO SECTION 23, SENATE BILL NO. 5275 ENTITLED:
"AN ACT RELATING TO BALLOTS CAST BY MAIL,"
SENATE BILL NO. 5275 REORGANIZES AND CLARIFIES THE LAWS GOVERNING ABSENTEE AND BALLOTING. SECTION 23 OF THE BILL WOULD HAVE AMENDED RCW 29.62.090, AND CLARIFIED REPORTING REQUIREMENTS AND SUBMITTAL DEADLINES FOR OFFICIAL ELECTION RESULTS. HOWEVER, THE LEGISLATURE ALSO SENT TO ME SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1644, WHICH AMENDS THE SAME STATUTE SECTION IN A SLIGHTLY DIFFERENT WAY - MOST NOTABLY BY PROVIDING FOR ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION OF ELECTION RESULTS.
BECAUSE I SGED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1644 IN ITS ENTIRELY ON MAY 9, 2001, I HAVE VETOED SECTION 23 OF SENATE BILL NO. 5275 IN ORDER TO AVOID A CONFLICTING DOUBLE AMENDMENT.
FOR THESE REASONS, I HAVE VETOED SECTION 23 OF SENATE BILL NO. 5275.
WITH THE EXCEPTION OF SECTION 23, SENATE BILL NO. 5275 IS APPROVED.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
GARY LOCKE, GOVERNOR

MOTION

ON MOTION OF SENATOR BETTI SHELDON, THE PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SENATE BILL NO. 5275 WAS HELD ON THE DESK.

Senator Hargrove: “Thank you, Mr. President. This is essentially a technical amendment to the underlying bill because of the time frame.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Snyder, Swecker and Kohl-Welles on page 21, after line 13, to Senate Bill No. 6183. The motion by Senator Snyder carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Roach, the following amendment by Senators Roach and Constantine was adopted:

On page 13, after line 13, insert the following:

“Sec. 27. RCW 29.42.070 and 1991 c 363 s 35 are each amended to read as follows:

Within forty-five days after the state-wide general election in even-numbered years, or within thirty days following July 30, 1967, for the biennium ending with the 1968 general elections, the county chair of each major political party shall call separate meetings of all elected precinct committee officers in each legislative district (a majority of the precincts of which are within a county with a population of one million or more) for the purpose of electing a legislative district chair in such district. The district chair shall hold office until the next legislative district reorganizational meeting two years later, or until a successor is elected.

The legislative district chair can only be removed by the majority vote of the elected precinct committee officers in the chair’s district.”

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Remarks by Senator Roach

Senator Roach: “Thank you, Mr. President. This particular amendment would require that all counties, not just the county of King, have their district chair elected by the elected officers and state officers.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senators Roach and Constantine on page 13, after line 13, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 61g13 83.

The motion by Senator Roach carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Hargrove moved that the following striking amendment by Senators Hargrove and Finkbeiner be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

“Sec. 1. RCW 29.30.085 and 1992 c 181 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in RCW 29.30.086 and in subsection (2) of this section, on the ballot at the general election for (a nonpartisan) an office for which a primary was held, only the names of the candidate who received the greatest number of votes and the candidate who received the next greatest number of votes for that office shall appear under the title of that office, and the names shall appear in that order. If a primary was conducted, no candidate’s name may be printed on the subsequent general election ballot unless he or she receives at least one percent of the total votes cast for that office at the preceding primary. On the ballot at the general election for (any other nonpartisan) an office for which no primary was held, the names of the candidates shall be listed in the order determined under RCW 29.30.025.

(2) On the ballot at the general election for the office of justice of the supreme court, judge of the court of appeals, judge of the superior court, or state superintendent of public instruction, if a candidate in a contested primary receives a majority of all the votes cast for that office or position, only the name of that candidate may be printed under the title of the office for that position.

New section, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 29.07 RCW to read as follows:

Under no circumstances may an individual be required to affiliate with, join, adhere to, express faith in, or declare a preference for, a political party or organization upon registering to vote.

New section, Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 29.18 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A primary is a critical stage in the public process by which voters elect candidates to public office. A primary may not be used to select the nominees of a political party.

(2) Whenever candidates for a partisan office are to be elected, the general election must be preceded by a primary conducted under this chapter, except as otherwise provided in law. Based upon votes cast at the primary, either one or two candidates must be certified as qualified to appear on the general election ballot, under RCW 29.27.050 and 29.30.085.

(3) If a candidate expresses a party preference on his or her declaration of candidacy, then the preference will be listed for the candidate on the primary and general election ballots. Each candidate who does not express a preference for a political party will be listed as an independent candidate on the primary and general election ballots. Party preferences will be listed for the information of voters only, and may not be used for any purpose relating to the conduct, canvassing, or certification of the primary, and may in no way limit the options available to voters in deciding for whom to cast a vote.

Sec. 4. RCW 29.01.090 and 1977 ex.s. c 329 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:
"Major political party" means a political party of which at least one (nominee for president, vice president, United States senator, or a statewide office received at least five percent of the total vote cast at the last preceding state general election in an even-numbered year... PROVIDED that any political party qualifying as a major political party under the previous subsection (2) or subsection (3) of this section prior to its 1977 amendment shall retain such status until after the next state general election following June 30, 1972) candidate for an office upon statewide who expressed a preference for that party on his or her declaration of candidacy received at least five percent of the total vote cast at the last preceding primary election or general election occurring in a year in which the governor is elected.

New Section. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 29.01 RCW to read as follows:

"Partisan office" means the following offices:

1. United States senator and United States representative;
2. All state offices except (A) judicial offices and (B) the office of superintendent of public instruction;
3. All county offices except (A) judicial offices and (B) those offices where a county home rule charter provides otherwise.

Sec. 6. RCW 29.01.130 and 1965 c 9 s 29.01.130 are each amended to read as follows:

"Primary" or "primary election" means a statutory procedure (for nominating candidates to public office at the primary) held before a general election by which each voter is permitted to cast a vote for his or her preferred candidate for each office appearing on the ballot, without any limitation based on party preference or affiliation, of either the voter or the candidate, with the result of qualifying not more than two candidates for each office to appear on the general election ballot.

Sec. 7. RCW 29.04.180 and 1999 c 157 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who desires to be a write-in candidate and have such votes counted at a primary or election may, if the jurisdiction of the office sought is entirely within one county (1), file a declaration of candidacy (with the county auditor) not later than the day before the primary or election. If the jurisdiction of the office sought encompasses more than one county, the declaration of candidacy shall be filed) similar to the form in RCW 29.15.010 with the secretary of state. Same officer as provided in RCW 29.15.030 not later than the day before the primary or election. (2) Votes cast for write-in candidates who have filed such declarations of candidacy (and write-in votes for persons appointed by political parties pursuant to RCW 29.18.100) need only specify the name of the candidate in the appropriate position on the ballot in order to be counted. Write-in votes cast for any other candidate, in order to be counted, must designate the office sought and position number (political party), if applicable. In order for write-in votes to be valid in jurisdictions employing optical-scan mark sense ballot systems the voter must complete the proper mark next to the write-in line for that office.

(3) No person may file as a write-in candidate where:

(a) At a general election, the person attempting to file either filed as a write-in candidate for the same office at the preceding primary or the person's name appeared on the ballot for the same office at the preceding primary;

(b) The person attempting to file as a write-in candidate has already filed a valid write-in declaration for that primary or election, unless one or the other of the two filings is for the office of precinct committeeperson;

(c) The name of the person attempting to file already appears on the ballot as a candidate for another office, unless one of the two offices for which he or she is a candidate is precinct committeeperson.

(4) The declaration of candidacy shall be similar to that required by RCW 29.15.010. No write-in candidate filing under RCW 29.04.180 may be included in any voter's pamphlet produced under chapter (29.81) 29.81 RCW unless that candidate satisfies to have his or her name printed on the general election ballot. The legislative authority of any jurisdiction producing a local voter's pamphlet under chapter 29.81A RCW may provide, by ordinance, for the inclusion of write-in candidates in such pamphlets.

Sec. 8. RCW 29.04.190 and 1988 c 181 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary of state or county auditor who received a write-in declaration for a district encompassing more than one county shall notify each county auditor of any declarations filed with the secretary under RCW 29.04.180 for offices appearing on the ballot in that county. The county auditor shall ensure that those persons charged with counting the ballots for a primary or election are notified of all valid write-in candidates before the tabulation of those ballots on the third Tuesday of the preceding September or on the seventh Tuesday immediately preceding such general election, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 9. RCW 29.13.070 and 1977 ex.s. c 361 s 29 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this section, each geographic area in which registered voters may cast ballots for an office is represented by that office. If a person elected to an office must be ((nominate)) qualified from a district or similar division of the geographic area represented by the office, the name of a candidate for the office shall not appear on a primary ballot for that office unless the candidate is, at the time the candidate's declaration and affidavit of candidacy is filed, properly registered to vote in that district or division. New section. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 29.15 RCW to read as follows:

1. If the candidate dies or becomes disqualified after filing a declaration of candidacy but before the close of the filing period, then the declaration of candidacy is void and his or her name will not appear on the ballot.
2. The candidate’s name will not appear on the general election ballot even if he or she otherwise would have qualified to do so, but no other candidate will advance or be substituted in place of that candidate.
3. If the candidate was the only candidate to qualify to advance to the general election, then the general election for that office lapses, and the office will be regarded as vacant as of the time the newly elected official would have otherwise taken office.

2. Except as otherwise specified in RCW 29.15.180, (as now or hereafter amended, a nomination) a candidate for judge of the superior court entitled to a certificate of election pursuant to Article 4, section 29, Amendment 41 of the state constitution dies or is disqualified on or after the fourth Tuesday prior to a primary;
3. In other elections for nonpartisan office a void in candidacy occurs or a vacancy occurs involving an unexpired term to be filled on or after the fourth Tuesday prior to an election.

Any person elected to the office of precinct committee officer who has not filed a declaration of candidacy shall pay the fee of one dollar to the county auditor for a certificate of election. The term of office of precinct committee officer shall be for two years, commencing upon completion of the official canvass of votes by the county canvassing board of election returns. Sec. 37. RCW 29.62.010 and 1990 c 59 s 62 are each amended to read as follows:

Every canvassing board or officer responsible for canvassing and certifying the returns of any primary or election shall:

4. If, at a nonpartisan or judicial primary, two or more candidates receive the second greatest, and identical, number of votes for that office or position, resolve the tie vote by lot;\(^{(4)}\).

Sec. 38. RCW 29.62.180 and 1999 c 157 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) For any office at any election or primary, any voter may write in on the ballot the name of any person for an office who has filed as a write-in candidate for the office in the manner provided by RCW 29.04.180 and such vote shall be counted the same as if the name had been printed on the ballot and marked by the voter. No write-in vote made for any person who has not filed a declaration of candidacy pursuant to RCW 29.04.180 is valid if that person filed for the same office, either as a regular candidate or a write-in candidate, at the preceding primary, except that nothing in this section invalidates a vote for the sole reason that the vote was cast as a write-in for a candidate whose name appears on the same ballot for the same office. Any abbreviation used to designate office, position, or political party shall be accepted if the canvassing board can determine, to their satisfaction, the voter’s intent.

(2) The number of write-in votes cast for each office must be recorded and reported with the canvass for the election.

(3) Write-in votes cast for an individual candidate for an office need not be tallied if the total number of write-in votes cast for the office is not greater than the number of votes cast for ((5)) a candidate apparently ((qualified)) qualified to appear on the general election ballot or elected, and the write-in votes could not have altered the outcome of the primary or election. In the case of write-in votes for statewide office or for any office whose jurisdiction encompasses more than one county, write-in votes for an individual candidate must be tallied whenever the county auditor is notified by either the office of the secretary of state or another auditor in a multicounty jurisdiction that it appears that the write-in votes could alter the outcome of the primary or election.

(4) In the case of statewide offices or jurisdictions that encompass more than one county, if the total number of write-in votes cast for an office within a county is greater than the number of votes cast for a candidate apparently ((qualified)) qualified to appear on the general election ballot or elected in a primary or election, the auditor shall tally all write-in votes for individual candidates for that office and notify the office of the secretary of state and the auditors of the other counties within the jurisdiction, that the write-in votes for individual candidates should be tallied.

Sec. 39. RCW 29.64.010 and 2001 c 225 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An officer of a political party or any person for whom votes were cast in a primary who was not declared ((qualified)) qualified to appear on the general election ballot may file a written application for a recount of the votes or a portion of the votes cast at that primary for all persons for whom votes were cast for ((that office).)

(2) An officer of a political party or any person for whom votes were cast at any election may file a written application for a recount of the votes or a portion of the votes cast at that election for all candidates for election to that office.

(3) Any group of five or more registered voters may file a written application for a recount of the votes or a portion of the votes cast upon any question or issue. They shall designate one of the members of the group as chairman and shall indicate the voting residence of each member of the group.

(4) An application for a recount of the votes cast for an office or on a ballot measure must be filed with the officer with whom filings are made for the jurisdiction.

(5) An application for a recount must specify whether the recount will be done manually or by the vote tally system. A recount done by the vote tally system must use programming that recounts and reports only the office or ballot measure in question. The county shall also provide for a test of the logic and accuracy of that program.

(6) An application for a recount shall be filed within three business days after the county canvassing board or secretary of state has declared the official results of the primary or election for the office or issue for which the recount is requested.

(7) This chapter applies to the recounting of votes cast by paper ballots and to the recounting of votes recorded on ballots counted by a vote tally system.

Sec. 40. RCW 29.64.015 and 2001 c 225 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the official canvass of all of the returns for any office at any primary or election reveals that the difference in the number of votes cast for a candidate apparently ((qualified)) qualified to appear on the general election ballot or elected to any office and the number of votes cast for the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than two thousand votes and also less than one-half of one percent of the total number of votes cast for both candidates, the county canvassing board shall conduct a recount of all votes cast on that position.

(A) Whenever such a difference occurs in the number of votes cast for candidates for a position the declaration of candidacy for which was filed with the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall, within three business days of the day that the returns of the primary or election are first certified by the canvassing boards of those counties, direct those boards to recount all votes cast on the position.

(B) If the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than one hundred fifty votes and also less than one-fourth of one percent of the total number of votes cast for both candidates, the votes shall be recounted manually or as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) A mandatory recount shall be conducted in the manner provided by RCW 29.64.020, 29.64.030, and 29.64.040. No cost of a mandatory recount may be charged to any candidate.

(3) The apparent winner and closest apparently defeated opponent for an office for which a manual recount is required under subsection (1)(b) of this section may select an alternative method of conducting the recount. To select such an alternative, the two candidates shall agree to the alternative in a signed, written statement filed with the election official for the office. The recount shall be CONDUCTED USING THE ALTERNATIVE METHOD IF: It is suited to the balloting system that was used for casting the votes for the office; it involves the use of a vote-tallying system that is approved for use in this state by the secretary of state; and the vote-tallying system is readily available in each county required to conduct the recount. If more than one balloting system was used in casting votes for the office, an alternative to a manual recount may be selected for each system.

Sec. 41. RCW 29.64.030 and 2001 c 225 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

1. At the time and place established for a recount, the canvassing board or its duly authorized representatives, in the presence of all witnesses who may be in attendance, shall open the sealed containers containing the ballots to be recounted, and shall recount the votes for the offices or issues for which the recount has been ordered. Ballots shall be handled only by the members of the canvassing board or their duly authorized representatives.

Witnesses shall be permitted to observe the ballots and the process of tabulating the votes, but they shall not be permitted to handle the ballots. The canvassing board shall not permit the tabulation of votes for any [(nominational)] qualification, election, or issue other than the ones for which a recount was applied for or required.

2. At any time before the ballots from all of the precincts listed in the application for the recount have been recounted, the applicant may file with the board a written request to stop the recount.

3. The recount may be observed by persons representing the candidates affected by the recount or the persons representing both sides of an issue that is being recounted. The observers may not make a record of the names, addresses, or other information on the ballots, poll books, or applications for absentee ballots unless authorized by the superior court. The secretary of state or county auditor may limit the number of observers to not less than two on each side if, in his or her opinion, a greater number would cause undue delay or disruption of the recount process.

Sec. 42. RCW 29.64.040 and 2001 c 225 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon completion of the canvass of a recount, the canvassing board shall prepare and certify an amended abstract showing the votes cast in each precinct for which the recount was conducted. Copies of the amended abstracts must be transmitted to the same officers who received the abstract on which the recount was based.

If the [(nominational)] issue for which the recount was conducted was submitted only to the voters of a county, the canvassing board shall file the amended abstract with the original results of that election or primary.

If the [(nominational)] issue for which a recount was conducted was submitted to the voters of more than one county, the secretary of state shall canvass the amended abstracts and shall file an amended abstract with the original results of that election. An amended abstract certified under this section supersedes any prior abstract of the results for the same offices or issues at the same primary or election.

Sec. 43. RCW 29.64.060 and 2001 c 225 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:

The canvassing board shall determine the expenses for conducting a recount of votes. The cost of the recount shall be deducted from the amount deposited by the applicant for the recount at the time of filing the request for the recount, and the balance shall be returned to the applicant. If the costs of the recount exceed the deposit, the applicant shall pay the difference. No charges may be deducted by the canvassing board from the deposit for a recount if the recount changes the result of the [(nominational)] primary or election for the office or issue for which the recount was ordered.

Sec. 44. RCW 29.68.080 and 1990 c 59 s 105 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of United States representative or United States senator from this state or any congressional district of this state, the governor shall order a special election to fill the vacancy.

2. Within ten days of such vacancy occurring, he or she shall issue a writ of election fixing a date for the special vacancy election not less than ninety days after the issuance of the writ, fixing a date for the primary for [(nominational)] candidates for the special vacancy election not less than thirty days before the day fixed for holding the special vacancy election, fixing the dates for the special filing period, and designating the term or part of the term for which the vacancy exists. If the vacancy is in the office of United States representative, the writ of election shall specify the congressional district that is vacant.

3. If the vacancy occurs less than six months before a state general election and before the second Friday following the close of the filing period for that general election, the special primary and special vacancy elections shall be held in concert with the state primary and state general election in that year.

4. If the vacancy occurs on or after the first day for filing under RCW 29.15.020 and on or before the second Friday following the close of the filing period, a special filing period of three normal business days shall be fixed by the governor and notice thereof given to all media, including press, radio, and television within the area in which the vacancy election is to be held, to the end that, insofar as possible, all interested persons will be aware of such filing period. The last day of the filing period shall not be later than the third Tuesday before the primary [(as which candidates are to be nominated)]. The names of candidates who have filed valid declarations of candidacy during this three-day period shall appear on the approaching primary ballot.
(5) If the vacancy occurs later than the second Friday following the close of the filing period, a special primary and special vacancy election to fill the position shall be held after the next state general election but, in any event, no later than the ninetieth day following the November election.

(6) As used in this chapter, "county" means, in the case of a vacancy in the office of United States senator, any or all of the counties in the state and, in the case of a vacancy in the office of United States representative, only those counties wholly or partly within the congressional district in which the vacancy has occurred.

Sec. 45. RCW 29.68.130 and 1985 c 45 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

Statutory time deadlines relating to availability of absentee ballots, certification, canvassing, and related procedures that cannot be met in a timely fashion may be modified for the purposes of a specific primary or vacancy election under this chapter by the secretary of state through emergency rules adopted under RCW 29.04.080.

Sec. 46. RCW 29.71.020 and 1990 c 59 s 69 are each amended to read as follows:

The party or convention shall file with the secretary of state a certificate signed by the presiding officer of the convention at which the presidential electors were chosen, listing the names and addresses of the presidential electors. Each presidential elector shall execute and file with the secretary of state a pledge that, as an elector, he or she will vote for the candidates nominated by that party. The names of presidential electors shall not appear on the ballots. The votes cast for candidates for president and vice president of each political party shall be counted for the candidates for presidential electors of that political party.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: "Thank you, Mr. President. This is a striking amendment and this is basically the alternative to the underlying bill that has been presented by Senators Snyder and Swecker. We would like to call it the People's Choice alternative. Some people have called it two forward, others have called it the Louisiana or Cajun. However, it is not exactly like the Louisiana. It is kind of a hybrid. What it would do would be, it would leave our filing process in this state exactly the same as it is now. In other words, you can walk in and pay your fee and file and you get on the primary ballot. What it would say would be that the top two vote getters in any primary election would go on to the general election. In rare cases, that could be two Democrats or two Republicans. I think in most cases, it would be a Democrat and a Republican.

“I guess what I should speak about a little bit is how we got here and what the alternative is. How we got here is that we have had a blanket primary in this state since, I think, 1935. It was passed by an initiative by the People and I think that the vast majority of our citizens of our state, as I spoke around the building here, the vast majority of our legislators would just as soon leave it the way it is. In fact, we had a number of polls taken that suggest that our citizenry is still in that position. Well, California made that change. California is obviously the eight hundred pound gorilla. The parties went to court and sued and the U.S. Supreme Court overturned our blanket primary. The state of Washington—the Republican and the Democrat parties—still had the opportunity to leave our exiting blanket primary stand. They did not have to strike it down, because it was only overturned in California.

“In fact, you may remember many of the discussions last summer when I think virtually every elected official, Democrat and Republican went in and said, ‘Please don’t change our blanket primary system—don’t do anything—let it stay as it is—everything will work just fine.’ Well, the parties sued anyway and our primary system is in jeopardy for the same reason that the California primary system is. So, that brings us to the point where we can come up with an alternative. The alternative, in the underlying bill, the Snyder/Swecker bill, would be to put three boxes at the top of the ballot. There is one that says that you check it if you want the Democrats, one if you unaffiliated and one if you are Republican. In our presidential primary, where we have essentially the same choices, over eighty percent of our citizenry checked ‘unaffiliated.’ The parties have already said they were not going to count the unaffiliated votes in these primary elections. They didn’t count them in the presidential primary—two presidential primaries that we had. To their credit, they have not tried to trick us, they have been very clear and they don’t intend on counting them in the future. Now, that doesn’t mean that can’t change. I mean it can change, of course it can change. Of course, there could be a move, there could be full pressure brought on the party to count the unaffiliated voters in the primary. I think that having the presidential primary twice and not counted, having every elected official ask the party, ‘Please do not overturn our blanket primary system,’ and they did anyway. Having them say, every time I have heard them talk about it, that they do not intend on counting those ballots now, is a pretty good track record that it is not likely that those unaffiliated ballots will be counted.

“Certainly, if that measure passes, we are in a situation where it is totally up to the parties as to whether or not, they will count anybody that checks ‘unaffiliated.’ ‘Unaffiliated,’ remember, was an eighty percent check of the citizens of our state. We have a very independent state. In fact, I can’t even remember talking to somebody that hasn’t said, ‘You know I vote for the person, not for the party.’ You know, I think that is a universal thought in our state is that we have very few straight party line voters. So, what we would be doing in making the change in the underlying bill instead of the striking amendment, would be to give the party the opportunity not to count those unaffiliated voters, which I believe they won’t. That is my opinion, but I believe they won’t.

“In the striking amendment, what we have, is the people’s choice—or the two forward. Basically, you file just as you have filed in the past and the top two vote getters move forward. I think if you look at virtually every election in the state, that would technically be Republican and Democrat, with a few exceptions. Even with a few of those exceptions, I think if you look at it and found it was a contested primary election on one side and maybe the other party was not running very hard in the primary and if they knew they had to get up to the top two, that might change some of those races, also.

“Really, that is not the issue from my perspective, it is how each of us would turn out in all of this. There is certainly no way to predict at the polls how that is going to happen in any one of these races—who we are going to get as an opponent or how many are going to file and what is going to happen. I think the underlying issue for me to support this amendment is that everybody’s vote will count and certainly after this last fall and the presidential election where despite the outcome of what you thought of the outcome, the controversy over what votes will count and not count has certainly left an indelible imprint on the minds of the people in this nation and other states.

“I cannot imagine, myself, voting for a bill that would allow votes to not be counted. That is the issue for me—that if we talk to people and read in the press, it seems like partisanship and politics are the dirty words—and bipartisanship and nonpartisanship and working together is what everybody is striving for in this country. If we go to a system where the party can exclude votes in the primary, then we are going to be setting up a situation which is more partisan, is more political, and I believe less likely to solve problems in the long run.
REMARKS BY SENATOR KOHL-WELLES

SENATOR KOHL-WELLES: “THANK YOU, MR. PRESIDENT. I RISE IN OPPOSITION TO THE STRIKING AMENDMENT. AND I HAVE TO AGREE WITH SENATOR HARGROVE THAT THE PEOPLE, AS WELL AS WE LEGISLATORS, WOULD LIKELY PREFER TO KEEP OUR PRIMARY SYSTEM AS IT IS, BUT WE CAN’T DO THAT. IF WE DO NOT PASS LEGISLATION THAT THE GOVERNOR WOULD SIGN, THEN IT WILL BE UP TO A FEDERAL COURT JUDGE AND THERE’S A VERY STRONG LIKELIHOOD THAT THE PARTIES WOULD PREVAIL AND THAT WE WOULD END UP WITH REGISTRATION BY PARTY, CLOSED PRIMARY BALLOTS AND I DON’T BELIEVE THAT THAT IS WHAT MOST OF US WOULD LIKE.

“SENATOR HARGROVE SAID THAT HE IS IN FAVOR OF EVERYBODY’S VOTE COUNTING. BUT WHO IS EVERYBODY? IN THE HISTORY OF OUR STATE, PRIMARY ELECTIONS HAVE A MUCH LOWER TURNOUT THAN THE GENERAL ELECTION IN NOVEMBER. IN FACT, OVER THE PAST DECADE OR SO, THE AVERAGE FOR PRIMARY ELECTION TURNOUT IS FORTY PERCENT. FOR THE GENERAL ELECTION, IT IS SEVENTY-ONE PERCENT. SO WHO IS EVERYBODY? IF WE HAVE THE PRIMARY ELECTION VOTERS MAKE THE DETERMINATION THAT TWO PEOPLE, TWO CANDIDATES, ADVANCE AND IF THEY ARE OF THE SAME PARTY, THEN WHAT ARE OUR CONSTITUENTS GOING TO FEEL WHEN THEY GO TO VOTE IN THE GENERAL ELECTION AND THERE ARE TWO REPUBLICANS ONLY? OR ARE THERE TWO DEMOCRATS ONLY? AND THAT THERE WILL NOT BE ANY MINOR PARTY CANDIDATES ON THE GENERAL ELECTION BALLOT UNLESS A MINORITY PARTY CANDIDATE IS ONE OF ONLY TWO CANDIDATES ON THE PRIMARY ELECTION BALLOT. MINOR PARTY CANDIDATES CAN SERVE A PURPOSE. THEY CONTRIBUTE TO THE DEBATE. THEY CONTRIBUTE TO A FULLER DISCUSSION AND DELIBERATION OF THE ISSUES. NOW, WHEN IN HISTORY HAVE WE HAD TWO PARTIES, EXCUSE ME, TWO CANDIDATES OF THE SAME PARTY BE THE ONES TO ADVANCE? WE HAVEN’T. BUT WHAT WOULD HAPPEN, HAS HAPPENED IN SOME CRITICAL RACES. IN 1980, JOHN SPELLMAN WOULD NOT HAVE ADVANCED TO THE GENERAL ELECTION FOR GOVERNOR. IT WOULD HAVE BEEN TWO DEMOCRATS WHO WOULD HAVE ADVANCED. YET, SPELLMAN WON FOR GOVERNOR.

“I WOULD IMAGINE THAT THERE WOULD HAVE BEEN REPUBLICANS ACROSS THE STATE WHO WOULD HAVE BEEN VERY UNHAPPY IF THEY HAD NOT HAD A CHOICE IN THE GENERAL ELECTION TO VOTE FOR A REPUBLICAN. IN 1996, IF THE TOP TWO VOTE GETTERS HAD ADVANCED FOR GOVERNOR, THEN THE VOTERS OF WASHINGTON STATE WOULD ONLY HAVE BEEN ABLE TO SELECT FROM GARY LOCKE AND FROM NORM RICE. AGAIN, HOW MANY REPUBLICANS IN THIS STATE WOULD HAVE BEEN PLEASED WITH THEIR CHOICES? NOW, WE DO KNOW THAT IN LOUISIANA THROUGHOUT THE NINETIES, THE STATE RANKED AT THE BOTTOM OF VOTER TURNOUT IN MOST ELECTIONS. AND THE THOUGHT IS BECAUSE THERE WAS SO LITTLE CHOICE AND VOTERS JUST DID NOT TURN OUT BECAUSE THEY WEREN’T INTERESTED IN VOTING AS THEY WOULD HAVE IF THERE HAD BEEN A COMPETITIVE RACE.

“THE ELWAY POLL CONDUCTED IN MARCH OF THIS YEAR ASKS A LOT OF QUESTIONS. ONE QUESTION POSED WAS WOULD YOU FAVOR A SYSTEM IN WHICH THE TWO TOP VOTE GETTERS WOULD ADVANCE EVEN IF THEY WERE OF THE SAME PARTY? FIFTY-SEVEN PERCENT INDICATED THEY WOULD NOT FAVOR THAT. I BELIEVE THAT WE NEED TO TURN DOWN THIS STRIKING AMENDMENT. WE NEED TO GIVE VOTERS CHOICE, BUT THE GENERAL ELECTION IS WHERE THAT IS MOST CRITICAL. THE PARTIES HAVE INDICATED THAT THEY WOULD ADVANCE TO THE UNAFFILIATED VOTER’S BALLOTS. IF THEY WERE NOT TO AND THAT IS KNOWN ON THE VOTER PAMPHLET; IT’S KNOWN ON THE PARTIES’ WEB SITE; IT’S STATED AT THE TOP OF THE BALLOT; AND IT’S IN THE CAMPAIGN; THEN THEY WOULD HAVE TO PAY THE PRICE FOR THAT. I BELIEVE THAT SYSTEM WOULD CHANGE INDEED. I URGE YOU TO DEFEND THE STRIKING AMENDMENT.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR SWECKER

“SENATOR SWECKER: “THANK YOU, MR. PRESIDENT. I RISE TO SPEAK RELUCTANTLY IN OPPOSITION TO THIS MEASURE. IN A PERFECT WORLD, I’D LIKE TO STAY WITH THE BLANKET PRIMARY THAT WE CURRENTLY HAVE AND IN THE NEAR PERFECT WORLD, I’D PROBABLY WOULD BE VOTING FOR THIS AMENDMENT AS IT’S STATED. THE ONE OUTCOME THAT I DREAD MOST SHOULD THIS AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED IS THAT THE PARTIES HAVE ALREADY INDICATED THAT THEY WOULD BE FORCED TO go to a convention system to select their nominees. In a convention system, you simply have a small handful of delegates who determine who the parties’ nominees would be. So, the logic that every vote would count, I think, is a misnomer. In fact, even fewer votes would count than the underlying bill. It’s unfortunate that our blanket primary system wasn’t deemed to be constitutional.

“You know, I’ve decided I can’t pick and choose what parts of the Constitution I want to support and what parts I don’t want to support. I can’t say that I like the second amendment, but I don’t like the first amendment. So, what I think we need to do is come up with a system that observes the constitutional rights of the parties—the people in the parties to affiliate—and to put forward their candidate. The parties really have asked for all kinds of things in their suit before the court, but really this bill only gives them one of the four things that they asked for. But, one thing it gives them is some very limited amount of control over who gets to vote for their candidates. People can still register as Republicans or Democrats or Independents or anybody else. Everybody can get on the ballot. You can choose whether you want to vote for Republicans or Democrats, you don’t have to register. There’s no list published. It’s really a very small, minimal fix to the system that we have today.

“I have a big concern that if we pass this amendment and then pass the bill, we’re just going to end up going back to court. We have three parties who’ve already said they are going to sue if this bill passes. They’re going to go right to court and try to control who actually gets on the ballot with their party name affiliated, and I’ve heard very good arguments that they will be successful in that. In fact, the Attorney General said that we have one of two things, but we can’t have both. The parties either have to be able to choose who gets on the ballot or they have to be able to choose who votes for them. Now, under this system, they aren’t controlling who gets on—who votes for them—so they definitely will have the chance to control who gets on it. Let’s stay out of court. Let’s vote ‘no’ on this amendment and pass the underlying bill and go home. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR GARDNER

Senator Gardner: “Thank you, Mr. President. We actually have two election systems in the state of Washington. We have the even numbered year system and we have the odd numbered year system and it’s only the oddnumbered year system that has been judged unconstitutional and about which we debate today. The even-numbered system is exactly what the striker is all about. In municipal local elections which occur this year, all the candidates’ names will be on the ballot. Anybody who wants to file to run can run. They can say that they’re a Republican; they can say they’re a Democrat; they can say they’re a Libertarian; they can say anything they want to say. The primary election is held and the top two advance to the general election ballot. That is exactly what this striking amendment proposes. This isn’t a Louisiana primary. It isn’t a Cajun primary. This is a Washington State primary. All we’re saying is, we’re going to run our primary elections the same in both years.

“Now, I understand that there are some questions about whether or not this is constitutional. The Attorney General, when she talked to me and it was in a large group, so I assume others heard it as well as I did, but it’s my understanding that she said she could defend it in court—that she felt that it was legal. So, I’m not concerned about that. It certainly would appear to be legal since we’ve had this kind of primary election for many years now for the locally elected officials, and no one has challenged it. I’m sorry that we have to rely on newspaper reports and polls and the way we judge our own e-mails and hotline calls and letters and people we talk to. I’m sorry we didn’t have the ability to have a public hearing on this issue.

“Though we’re all trying to make up our minds about what the public wants and how the public feels or what the public supports, but I think that labeling it with another state’s name is a misleading title and we really just need to look at what we’ve been doing in the state of Washington every other year forever. That is that anybody who wants to run for election signs up to run. We have a primary election on which all names appear on the ballot. Anybody can vote for anybody. All the votes are counted and the top two voters—voter getters—move on to the general election. We haven’t been horrified by that process to date. It’s worked. It’s accepted and all we’re saying is that we’re going to extend it to every year.

“Now, I understand. I understand as a legislator that this may not be popular with my party. I understand that they might even be concerned about my remarks. I understand it’s going to be more difficult for us to do fund raising. I understand it’s going to be more difficult for people who are used to not having a general election. But the focus is not on those of us who run. The focus is on the voters. It’s hard for me to stand up and do something that is going to anger some of my colleagues and certainly the people that I’ve worked with over the years, but I have no choice. I have no choice. What the people are saying to me, and I can only judge what the people say to me, is that they want two things. They want to vote for whomever they choose and they want their vote to count. Bottom line. That’s it. This isn’t a Cajun primary. This isn’t a Louisiana primary. This is a Washington primary and all we’re saying is give the people the right to do what they already do every other year—that they can vote for anyone that they choose and that their vote will count. Guaranteed that their vote will count. Not if somebody decides if their vote will count, but guaranteed that their vote will count. I have no choice but to support this striking amendment because this is the only method that delivers. Make our primaries every year the same. It’s worked for us for many, many years and it will work for us in the future. So, I do ask for your support for this striking amendment. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR CARLSON

Senator Carlson: “Thank you, Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Speaking in support of the striking amendment before us, I am going to refer to this as the Washington voter preference primary and I hope the press will pay attention to the language of this term. Please do not refer to it— to what it is not. It is not Louisiana. It is not Cajun. It is not some system that’s often identified as some corrupt form that possibly may be in some other state. It is the Washington voter preference primary, which is associated with what the citizens have chosen to have for the last sixty years with a great distinction and pride.

“I’ve had the pleasure of teaching U.S. history and civics in government in this state in the high school for thirty years. As we discussed and talked for thirty years about the blanket primary and how we got the blanket primary and the fact that the citizens of this state could choose whomever they wanted to vote for on the ballot time and again, the huge, large percentage of students said, ‘Why wouldn’t you want to do this?’ This is what freedom is all about. This is what Republican form of government gives us a choice to have and that’s what this striker proposes—to allow citizens their choice in making the opportunity of a primary election that will continue to be significant and important and trying to encourage people to vote for their choice.

“Now, I recognize that indeed the integrity of the system is part of the issues that are being discussed when the auditors recommend the choice on the part of the citizens. Our auditors are proud to have a voting system in this state where the citizens know that there is a responsible choice and option clearly identified and easily identified and we have not had problems that existed in some other states. The selection of the striking amendment provides a continuation of that system. In addition, I’d like to suggest to you that there is an answer to the dilemma of what folks crossing over the vote to vote for Spellman or vote for Locke in past history. Part of the reason they did that is because they thought that they could vote for a weaker candidate, but the striking amendment we have before us suggests that you better not do that, because you’d better vote for the one that you care most about because your candidate may not get elected if you don’t. “That’s the weakness of the blanket primary—that those folks who play political games could think that they could vote for the weaker candidate on the other side. The striking amendment says that won’t work anymore cause if you do that, you’re liable to have two from the same party. So therefore, keep your vote on the side that’s going to count and what is going to be very significant in your particular voting election. It is true that you might have folks in a convention system be selected as a party preference, but that does not prevent citizens from registering as a Republican, as a Democrat, as a Libertarian, whatever you like. You have the right to put your name with your party behind that on the ballot and you can vote as you choose, but if we don’t vote for a system that only allows one side, we have taken choice away from the citizens. One of the things that I’m proud about in this state is that we’ve encouraged choice. We’ve encouraged people to make that vote count and be significant for them.

“The Governor, in an interview, that took place last week indicated that although he had some preferences, he would sign whatever of these two bills the Legislature chose to recommend. So, the fact that whether we choose the primary bill that’s before us or the striking amendment, the Governor has already indicated that he would vote for whatever was put before him.

“As I’ve read the Elway polls, I see seventy-two to eighty percent of the citizens of this state indicating that they would like to be able to choose for themselves the candidate that they believe in. Sure there may be a preference to one party or the other, but the fact is that many times, because of friends that they’ve talked to, because of individuals that are important to them, they have decided that there is a candidate or a couple of candidates on the other side of their ballot that they think are the best candidates. Are we going to say to our citizens that they cannot vote for what they think is the best? I think we want to encourage the best people to
REMARKS BY SENATOR FINKBEINER

"Senator Finkbeiner: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. I think we’re really faced here with a very stark and clear choice between two options. I think to some extent folks have touched on that, but I think to really understand and to really make a decision about which of these two options we wish to go for, we have to stop thinking about ourselves and stop thinking about the one hundred and fifty people here that are elected and start thinking about the six million people in Washington State and start thinking about the people that have the right to vote in a system of government like ours. The most sacred right is the right to vote. There’s an old saying that in a democracy is not the voting that matters, it’s the counting. It is especially applicative here. If we’re going to ask the citizens for the other side of that voting contrast which is do we want to right to take your money? We want to have the right to regulate your business, to regulate the property that you own. Even in the cases of the most heinous crimes, to have the right to decide here in the chamber whether or not we choose people to have people put to death for certain crimes. If we’re going to have that responsibility given to us by the people, I think we have to turn around and look at the rights that those people have—to vote and to have their vote counted.

“Now, some people might say, ‘Well, you’re getting this confused with a nomination and election. You know, well, this really isn’t the election, really the general election is where it happens.’ You know, I really don’t think that’s the case. Number one, I think—let’s look at what we all call this. We call it the primary election. Have you ever heard anybody refer to it as the primary nominating system? I think not. Number two, I’d say this is the only way that you get to the general. If you control the primary, you control the general, because you don’t get the general election ballot through any other route except through the primary election, and if we give up the right of some people to have their vote counted in that primary, we’re really giving up their right to select the person they wish to have representing them in that election.

“Finally, you know, we can all talk about polls and we can all read polls and we can all read different things in the polls, but I think what the people have clearly said, and I think we all understand it, is we want what we’ve got. Okay. The parties took us to court. They don’t want what we’ve got. They want us to give them a bunch of power, but let’s look at between the two of these systems that we have before us today and which one more closely aligns itself with our current primary system. We passed out here for all of you to see a proposal for a sample ballot that you’d get under this underlying bill. You can read through here and unlike our current system, it’s got fine print all over the place. It says, ‘If you selected unaffiliated, then all votes will be tabulated.’ And I can’t even read this—the print’s so small—Because neither the Democratic party or Republican party has agreed to allow any affiliated voters to participate in the representative nomination process, votes cast for candidates of those parties will not help nominate the candidates for the general election. Votes cast for minor political parties—indepedent political candidates, as well as candidates for nonpartisan office and ballot measures aren’t affected by your party affiliation.” That sounds like warranty language that you get when you buy something at Sears. You know. That does not sound like clear information that lets you vote and lets you select the person who you want to represent you in that election.

“Now, contrast that to the system that would be set up with the striker that we are proposing here. You would go into vote; your ballot would look exactly the same; you’d vote exactly the same. Everything would be the same as it has been for sixty-five years. You wouldn’t be confused by the fine print. You wouldn’t have to figure out what the heck was going on—when does my vote count—is it going to count if I vote for a minor party--does it count if I vote for a Democrat or a Republican--all this stuff. We clearly follow what the people have asked for, which is clarity and closest to our voting system. Really, at the end of this, I think we have to choose, who are we representing here? Are we representing the parties’ ability to choose who is going to represent the system—the people of this state? They can still nominate; they can do that now. They can hold conventions; they can do that now. They’ll probably do it no matter what we do, but the question is are we going to give them more control over our elections, or are we going to leave that control to the people? I think this is a great debate for the Senate to have and when it comes down to what we’re going to do, what the people—not the forty-nine of us in this chamber—but what the other six million people of this state would like us to do and I urge your support of this striker.”

REPRESENT US FROM THE PRIMARY, AS WELL AS IN THE GENERAL ELECTION, AND I URGE YOUR SUPPORT FOR THE PASSAGE OF THE STRIKING AMENDMENT."
REMARKS BY SENATOR CONSTANTINE

“Senator Constantine: “Thank you, Mr. President. Well, of all the days I’ve spent in the Legislature so far, this one is, in many ways, the most refreshing. This is what I thought being in the Legislature would be like when I was in my eleventh grade social studies class. Here we are. We’re really discussing civics finally. I appreciate all the speeches on both sides. I think they’ve been very clear, very forthright and I think all in the best interests of the people. We all liked the primary election. It was good. It was fair and it got everybody in this chamber elected to office and it’s unconstitutional and so we are faced with a pretty clear choice between two computing systems to replace it.

“It’s stated that the Louisiana system preserves, as much as possible, the blanket primary that we are losing. I would suggest to you that while it may resemble it more in form, it departs in substance a great deal from our current primary system. It departs in substance because it is a fact that there will be few, if any, situations where a minor party candidate appears on the general election ballot. It departs in substance because there will be many districts where in the general election you have your choice between two Republicans or two Democrats. In fact, the first time I ran for the House of Representatives, Mr. President, the forty percent of the voters or thirty-five percent of the voters in my district who generally vote Republican would have been faced with a choice between two Democrats and they would have had to guess which one was the more Republican Democrat. That is not a fair situation for them and the same is true in a Republican-leaning district. It is not fair for my democratic friends in some of your districts to have to choose between two Republicans and guess which one is the more democratic.

“Elections, Mr. President, should be about ideas. This system with two people moving forward based on their popularity in a primary election forces the candidates to avoid controversial stands and move as quickly towards the center and away from debate as possible. This is why people criticize our electoral system already. They say that we’re devoid of substance--that it’s all glossy brochures and image. This exacerbates that problem. What we want is for people to stand up and say what they believe in and draw a contrast so that at the general election the voters can go in and say, ‘You know, I’m against abortion and I’m in favor of more defense spending and whatever other labels you want to put on it, and I believe that this party represents those values even though I don’t know much about this person.’ Don’t be fooled, nobody in your district knows much about you unless you’ve been around for fifty years. This party represents the things I believe in more and therefore, I’m going to rely on that party label as being able to choose someone who agrees with my beliefs.’ The system represented by the amendment drags us away from that kind of choice. Lincoln once said, ‘For every problem, there’s a solution that is neat and simple and wrong.’ I believe the striking amendment represents just such a solution. I urge you to defeat it.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHIN

“Senator Shin: “Thank you very much, Mr. President and members of the Senate. David Hume Spencer said, ‘When I say democracy is good that means I like democracy.’ I for one--I believe and I like American democracy which I stand for. In the last week and a half, I talked to many of you who came to talk to me about the concern about this legislation. Most of that discussion has been academic, personal conviction and emotional. Therefore, I decided to go to the best primary source. I read in U.S. Constitution from the beginning to the end and also the State Constitution and the amendments. Nowhere in the Constitution does it say anything about one party or one individual shall control the election. It says, ‘In the government of a democracy the power derives from the consent of the people.’ To me that’s the key of the issue--how the power concerns the people. I looked at the two options. One is our primaries. First of all, we try to protect. Let-let me preface my remarks. I like the two-party system because we bring a balance. Balance and checking is what we need in democracy. I like the two-party system because it provides us two philosophical concepts in interpretation and gives us a decision to make and I like that.

“To review what I like, democracy and the two-party system. In the Cajun primary system which we like to call people’s democracy, you could choose whichever you please. It’s a people’s choice, but at the end--final product--you may end up with two candidates from the same party. I prefer not to do that.

“I think there’s a very shortcoming there. At the same time, I look at Senate Bill 6183, which says that the party chooses and nominates the candidates. The question is the party people. I’m proud to be what I am and I’m proud of the party members, but at the same time, when you talk about consent of the governed, it has to come from the people. Many of you do not believe in polls and I believe that the polls are oftentimes manufactured results and it depends on what you like and what you vote for. I represent my district. My people, when they have called me, many say that we vote for the people we like. They send me here. I’m here to do my job. What my people say in my district means a lot to me, because I’m here to represent them. Therefore, I’d like to have you support this striking amendment. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR ROACH

Senator Roach: “Members of the Senate. First of all, I just wanted to mention something. The underlying bill, Senate Bill 6183, does have something that I like and that has to do with getting rid of the punch card voting. It was brought up earlier in our debate that it would be fourteen million dollars more for the implementation of the underlying bill. The auditors met this morning and reviewed material that was worked out last Friday night and I do not think that fiscal note would be the same after some of the changes that have been made. It’s also true that the amendment that was adopted earlier would require counties to leave the punch card voting aside, which is, if you remember when we came into this legislative session, something that was very important to us all after what happened in the state of Florida. So, I think that would be a good thing. I think the voters of this state would agree that we want to move away from punch card voting.

“This has been one of the most invigorating, interesting and important issues that the state of Washington has faced this year and in decades, quite frankly. It is extremely important. For the members of the public that might be listening to this debate, truly out of the forty-nine people on this floor today, only about four wanted something other than our current blanket primary. For the last several months, we have been working very hard, first of all, to try to keep what we have; then realizing of course, we can’t. The reason we can’t is not because our current blanket primary system is unconstitutional. It has been misstated even on this floor today. It is not unconstitutional. What the U.S. Supreme Court said was the parties had the right to freely associate. If the parties do not go to court and demand that right, then we can still have a blanket primary. The fact is that they want the right for something that is not unconstitutional--will not be a part of our voting in the future. As we realize that, we move to find something that will satisfy what the U.S. Supreme Court says.

“I took both of the current measures before us, the striking amendment which is a Washington primary system and the underlying bill, 6183, and put them side by side on a little grid, exactly what we have in front of us. After we worked on these bills for all this time, we found out that both of these bills only require one ballot, that was not the case last week. So we can’t say, ‘Well, one’s more expensive, one’s more complicated,’ because now both of them require just one ballot when a person goes into the polls, they ask for one ballot and they don’t have to declare in either case who it is or what party they’re going to be voting for. Secondly, both of these methods allow for privacy, which was a very important thing for the people. They don’t want parties or anyone knowing how they voted. If, in fact, we adopt either one, we would have privacy, because no list will be kept. Parties won’t have the list. They won’t be given out by auditors and it’s just a good thing that the people have privacy. Parties wouldn’t agree, they would like the names obviously.

“Both of these particular methods will require or will result in having conventions and that nominees come out of conventions. That is political reality. Once you ring the bell, you can’t unring it. You know, the cat’s out of the bag, doggone it, you’re not going to catch this one. In the Washington primary system that we have now before us as a striking amendment, it will virtually require that the parties have a convention because it is there that there will be a nominating process, it’ll be an election when you go to the ballot. So you will have to have one. Now, while I believe that you will, as a matter of political fact, have one if the underlying bill, 6183, is adopted. You don’t have to have one. The parties can, if they want to, and I would think in smaller counties, particularly, maybe they would want to go ahead and include the public the way we have done in the past where we don’t have to get our nominees out of a convention.

“But, as practical politics here, each one of us has run races, gone to conventions, been precinct committee officers, all we’ve done, the bottom line here, what we’re arguing about, we can talk about privacy. We can talk about the people having the ability to vote and everything else. The real issue here is power. The parties want power and the only place you can take that power is from the people. We stood together, virtually together, to keep a blanket primary which gave the people that power which was granted to them themselves as they went out and got it with an initiative seventy-five years ago. What we had in California was a situation of strong parties where they would walk the wing, party hats walking the wing saying--‘You, Senator, vote yes. You, Senator, you vote no. Because if you don’t do what we say, you’re not going to get our endorsement in the next election.’ You think you want to run for Congress, Senator? Better be watching what the parties are doing in the wings. The people so disliked that, that they looked around the nation and found what we were doing in Washington State. Washington State has not had that happen. Each one of us know that we stand and vote the conscience of our elected position based on what the people have sent us here to do. California’s system gets challenged and now we are on the verge of having the problems that California tried to escape. This is really, really a crossroads for us in Washington State. In 1992, when we passed Initiative 134, which was a campaign finance reform bill, remember we gave the parties specific abilities to bring in much more money than any other entity—and then turn around and give to candidates. So, two things, the ability to raise and give a lot of money and the ability to define candidates in conventions, give almost total power, not to the people, but to the party. That’s why they’re exerting their constitutional right to have free association. That’s why they decided not to allow the constitutional process of having a blanket primary.

“But in my grid that I wrote out, I had to also consider political reality, because I think we all know when that little necessity comes around. We have a court that is waiting to make a decision and we’re not the only players in this. We have another House and we have a Governor and we have been, unfortunately, delayed in this process month after month, and hopefully, we can still get something done in time. We have got to send something to the other body that they will in turn send to the Governor, hopefully unamended. If we don’t do that, then the courts will decide and the people in the wings walking with their thumbs going up and down will be delighted. When I put it out on the grid, it was a tough decision because in many ways I could go with both—same outcome in a lot of these things. I will say to you that we must move forward. I do not think the other body will pass the striking amendment before us, so reluctantly, because I don’t have any real complaints against either, but I believe we need to go with what’s going to pass or find ourselves collectively in a real mess. So, I would urge you to defeat the amendment.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

“Senator Kline: “Thank you, Mr. President and members. Mr. President, I hope we’re prepared to pay more than lip service to the notion that the major function of an election is not simply to allocate power, but to bring people to the polls, to activate the public intelligence, to have a controversy and have a way ultimately in November of resolving that controversy, that raises the level of public discourse and makes people proud to be Americans and Washingtonians. If we’re prepared to simply to pay more than lip service to that, I think we need to reject the striking amendment. Minor parties are an integral part of that greater higher level of public discourse than we are.

“Between the two of us, Republicans and Democrats, we can sometimes be Tweedledum and Tweedledee. It’s not just people at the political fringes to whom that appears to be true. Quite a few people—responsible members of our communities—who consider themselves Libertarians, perhaps in your district, Greens in mine, who feel that we Democrats and Republicans are somehow so intertwined and so interdependent, we’ve become indistinguishable from one another. Those small parties lose out in this Louisiana-style primary. Neither of the Greens nor the Libertarians are ever going to find themselves in a general election in November in this state under the system set out in the striking amendment. It’s less likely than I would prefer to be true even under the underlying bill. I’m not going to tell you that the underlying bill increases that, but it certainly does not freeze out our friends from the left and right the way the striking amendment does. I urge you reject this. Let’s raise the level of discourse. Let’s prevent ourselves from becoming even more Tweedledum and Tweedledee. Let’s vote no. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HALE

“Senator Hale: “Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen. You know we’ve had a very healthy debate here today and there are a lot of elements and a lot of complexities to this issue, but the bottom line is very simple. The bottom line is what the people are talking to us about and it is the freedom to vote for whomever we choose. I strongly support the striking amendment, because the underlying bill does not do it. It does not allow you to vote. Oh, you can vote for whomever you choose, but you know your vote won’t count if you vote for someone other than the stated party.
"You know, this is the time when politicians are not held in very high regard. We're seen as pursuing our own ends, our own self interest and making ourselves look good rather than looking out for the people. I can think of no greater way to raise public outrage than to have over half of the electorate pass the vote for an individual candidate fully knowing, or maybe not realizing, that their vote simply won't count. The parties have been very clear about their intention to disregard votes cast for people other than their own party. It's very basic. The decision is very simple: It's the right to vote for whomever you choose. I urge your support for the striking amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HORN

Senator Horn: "Thank you very much, Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. The people who are supporting the striking amendment would have you believe that we should vote for to maintain our choices to keep the system most like what we have today, the blanket primary, which many people want to do. Do not be mislead, because that system that would give you choices in the primary would be at what price? It would rob you of your choices in the general. And which is the election that really counts? The primary election or the general election that elects you to the office. How many districts would you have where you would have two Republicans or two Democrats running for the office? So, as people would have you believe that preserving the choices is the primary, is the key thing, is it worth the price of robbing you of your choices in the general.

"If you look at the course of action that would follow through, as you would have two people--two Republicans running in the general or two Democrats--it would lead to confusion of the people and lead to the position with the real Republican or the real Democrat please stand up. That, in turn, would lead the parties from taking a position and say, 'We must elect our delegate in a caucus situation so we can identify which is the real Republican or which is the real Democrat.' Once that happens, you now have not only lost your choices in the general, but you have also lost your choices in the primary. So, this ideal that you vote for the striking amendment, because it preserves your choices is bringing you down a path that robs you of that very thing.

"Now, the underlying bill which is 6183 is a bill that gives you the choices. You can go to the polls, vote as a Republican, vote as a Democrat or vote as a non-identified individual. It still gives the choices of people to register for the party as much as they do today and it ensures that the greatest number of people, not a caucus, would be selecting the candidate that advances to the general. Then it ensures that when you go to that general, that you would have those choices of voting for a Republican or a Democrat. I believe in the two-party system, because I think that's what has made America great. It means that it's okay to talk about the opposing viewpoint. It's okay to be the loyal minority, so the people can hear the argument for and a credible argument against. I think that's a very important thing that has made America great and made our state of Washington great.

"So, I think that, true, it's very, very concerning to have a system that allows the parties to get so strong that they dictate who votes for what. It's also very concerning about having a situation that have parties so weak that they are nonfunctional. I think the underlying bill, 6183, brings that balance to that situation. I think the striking amendment is far from keeping your choices, robs you of your choices and as the Elway poll showed, that when they look at it, fifty-seven percent of the people opposed a situation that would have you voting for two Democrats or two Republicans in the general election. Why do we want to pattern a system after the Louisiana primary? Is that the great system that has a great turnout--that great system that gave us David Duke running as a Republican? No, I don't think that's a system that we want to pattern our great state of Washington after. I would recommend that you vote against the striking amendment."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JACOBSEN

Senator Jacobsen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I'm going to ask you to vote down the amendment and first, of course, I can say because of constitutional reasons. Everybody has the right of freedom of association and I think to show the irony of the situation and the frustrations of a party--the Libertarian Party--they want to elect a candidate that shares their philosophy and espouses at the polls. On that system, they might not be on the polls, they might not make it past. But two, and more importantly, after we get done picking, they might not have a true Libertarian, but somebody that reflects the views of the Democrats or the Republicans.
"The only other thing I want to relate to you, and I like to read history, and I have a handout on your desk here. It's from Battle Cry of Freedom. It's by James M. McPherson. I read this many, many years ago, but I set this book aside and this chapter because I have never looked at it this way before. It's roughly one chapter looking at the elections in the middle of the Civil War and both the North and the South had to go to elections. McPherson observes here that the South prided themselves on the fact that they didn't have parties--didn't have parties. He wrote, 'Now, looking back with hindsight, most historians now recognize the absence of party was actually a source of weakness. In the North, the two-party system disciplined and channeled political activities. The Republican party became the means for mobilizing war resources, raising taxes, creating a new financial system, initiating emancipation and enacting conscription. Democrats opposed most of these measures, the existence of this well-defined opposition caused the Republicans to close ranks when the chips were down. Because measures were supported or opposed by parties, voters could identify those responsible for them and register their approval or disapproval at the polls by voting the party ticket. Both parties, of course, used their well-oiled machinery to rally voters to their side. In the Confederacy by contrast, the Davis administration had no such means to mobilize support. No parties meant no institutional discipline over Congress and their governors. Opposition to the Davis administration, became personal or factional and therefore difficult to deal with.' Then he closes with one last point here. I'm not going to read the rest of it, but in the South, opposition candidates ran on individual rather than a party basis, and the government could not muster political artillery to shoot at all these scattered targets.

'I think here a lot of times our voters experience this frustration over and over again. I've had people comment to me all the time. Your party sure does pick bad candidates and I have to point out to them that we didn't pick our candidates. The voters picked the candidates and sometimes I agree with the gentlemen from Mercer Island, we need a clear choice. There's a majority and a minority role in this thing and we should be proud of the role we play in either position. This is going to give our voters a chance in the general election to pick the direction they want to go and I urge everybody to reject this amendment and vote for the underlying bill. Thank you.'

Remarks by Senator Prentice

Senator Prentice: “Thank you, Mr. President. As one of the people whose name was on the lawsuit, I feel an obligation simply to explain for a moment why we chose to do what we did and I think I also need to ask, as we are referring to the parties, I think we need to ask ourselves who are we talking about? The parties are just made up of people who have chosen to be active on behalf of a political party. It has never been our option simply to get the party leaders to change their minds. I can tell you that was not possible. What we were reacting to was the very clear seven to two decision of the United States Supreme Court, and they simply said the parties have the right to decide who runs as their candidate.

"Some of the arguments that were made and as we're hearing that that did not apply to the state of Washington, our Secretary of State at that time filed an amicus brief and someone was sent from this state, Gary McIntosh, who made the argument that the current system results in our having more centrist candidates. 'Well it's pretty clear,' the Supreme Court said, 'It's not the business of the government to decide which philosophies are going to be represented.' We keep hearing that this is an unpopular move. Well, I guess if I were to base it on that, I remember in the sixties, when the United States Supreme Court struck down segregation laws. If you had polls, if you'd had elections, the result would have been the people didn't want to change. Many of us who were adults at that time remember that it was a very difficult change, but a change nevertheless.

"I'm wondering if it is really so that having this current system puts us in a better position to solve problems than another that's been proposed. I guess I'd have to ask today as we're in special session, 'Are we really doing so well in solving those problems?' Change might aggravate you. Everyone of us--there isn't a single one of us sitting here who didn't immediately think what it will mean in my race? We all thought that. I also remember in my last election and the election before that in '96, there was a Democrat in the primary who was recruited by some local Republicans, not our friends here, who sent out a mailing calling himself a Reagan Democrat, sending it out to Republicans. Now, I've maintained that that's a dishonest system that we've had, but people tell me, 'Oh well, it didn't hurt you.' That isn't really the point. The point is that it was a dishonest move for someone to pretend he was a Democrat when he really wasn't. Luckily, for me, maybe not for you, but people rejected that by a seven to two decision. It wasn't even close. The Supreme Court came down on the side that the parties have the right to decide who runs as their candidate. I would say, ‘Okay, the jig is up.’ It’s time to make the decisions. Please reject the amendment.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HOCHSTATTER

Senator Hochstatter: “Thank you, Mr. President. I feel like the woman who was taking a medication that only had side effects. This is perfect legislation because nobody’s going to get what they want. I support this particular piece of legislation. If we deny or if it turns out that there are two people of the same party on the ballot, that is not a mess of our making, is it? The voters did that. Yeah, we give them the opportunity to do that. But they did it, but we didn’t cause it. I would like—I don’t see why we have to break this in the first place. I’d like to see the courts break it. We mentioned about constitutionality. I don’t think the courts ever observed constitutionality. How can a judge come in here and change our law? The threat is, ‘Well, if you don’t do something, the federal judge will come in here and give you a system that you don’t want.’

“The Constitution—our State Constitution says there will be no law except that it is a bill. Is a judge going to run against Senator Kline and Senator Sheahan and then come down here and do our job? Boy, that really gets under my hide. I think that if the court and the parties would appear on the ballot, they’d both lose. Four good reasons to support this and then I’m done. First of all, privacy of the ballots. Secondly, the broadest, broadest possible choice. Thirdly, no votes thrown out and fourthly, $14 million is going to have to be wrung out of the hide of the counties. Don’t do that. This amendment, if you support this amendment, that will not happen. Lastly, and I’m pained to say it, tinkering with the system will not keep us free. The people don’t really care if they don’t turn out. If they don’t care about the direction of their country, it’s over anyway. Thank you for listening to me.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: “Thank you, Mr. President. Hopefully to close now. This has been a great debate and frankly, I think it’s been very civil on all sides. I wanted to just clear up a couple of things that I’ve heard. There was some mention made about if you want to stay out of court, you know, vote for the underlying bill. We’re already in court, so there’s no staying out of court. The AG has given me a memo here saying that this striking amendment, in their opinion, would be constitutional, so that should take care of that.

“The other thing that I’d like to say is the Governor, in a press conference, said he would sign whatever got to his desk. So, it’s not like the Governor’s holding a veto pen over the striking amendment. Our Secretary of State and many of our auditors support the striking amendment because of its clarity and because of the simplicity and because of the lack of cost—fourteen million dollars—to try to change our system over. I don’t think we can predict what the House is going to do. In my private conversations with some of the powers to be over there, they have said, ‘Send us the bill and we’ll work on it.’ It’s not dead on arrival in any form. It’s not alive in any form,’ so I don’t think we can base our votes on that.

“I guess the bottom line here, again, is do you want people’s votes to count or do you want to have a ballot out there where somebody can check an unaffiliated box and their votes all count? They will be counted, but they won’t count. That’s the bottom line for me. Certainly, rural Democrats and urban Democrats and rural Republicans and urban Republicans—I mean—we all fit under those tents somehow and yet we’re quite different, you know. Some of my closest friends over here on this side are some of the most liberal—I’m looking at Senator Fairley—and some of the most conservative on this side, you know, like Senator Hochstatter and Stevens. I think we have a fine mix and fine debate and fine controversy and fine—- not all getting upset at each other as it is. I think that the striking amendment will preserve that and I would urge your support.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the adoption of the striking amendment by Senators Hargrove and Finkbeiner to Senate Bill No. 6183.

Senator Hargrove demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5289

May 15, 2001

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5289 entitled: "AN ACT Relating to public facilities in rural counties;"

Although the original intent of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5289 was meritorious, in its final form the bill would have undermined the intent of the rural sales tax credit program.

The prime sponsor requested this veto.

I support the original intent of this bill, which was to clarify and expand the use of the rural sales tax credit funding program. The bill sought to provide rural counties with a source of funds for the development of public facilities that are important for creating economic opportunity. However, this bill was amended to prevent any electric utility, including many of our public utility districts from using the money.

Public utility districts are key partners in economic development efforts. They provide not only electrical service, but also sewer, water, and telecommunications services. At a time when funding is limited, we must pool our resources whenever possible to accomplish important economic goals. Removing an important partner from eligibility for these funds unnecessarily ties the hands of the counties in promoting the vitality of their economies.

Additionally, the bill would have undermined the ability to develop electrical generation and distribution facilities that may be important during a time of energy shortage.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5289 in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,

GARY LOCKE, Governor

MOTION
MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5143

May 15, 2001

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 1 and 2, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5143 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the Washington state patrol retirement system retirement and survivor benefits;"

Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5143 restructures the Washington State Patrol retirement plan. It increases cost-of-living adjustments, reduces contribution rates and makes several other worthwhile changes.

Sections 1 and 2 of the bill would have created a new "Plan II" that would have greatly reduced non-duty disability benefits for newly hired Washington State Patrol officers. While I understand the legislature's desire for uniformity among public pension systems, I think these changes require further consideration.

While similar benefit provisions exist for other state employees who are members of Plan II retirement systems, those employees are also eligible for disability coverage through the social security system. State Patrol officers are not covered by social security, and the new provisions proposed in this bill would have left them and their families vulnerable. All State Patrol officers should be assured of benefits that are at least equal to those of other state employees.

People who serve the state deserve fair and equitable protection against loss of their ability to work. This gap could be addressed in a number of ways, and I am willing to consider alternative approaches to meeting this need. I would be happy to work with the legislature in developing a revised plan.

In the meantime, however, drastically reducing the disability coverage for the newest members of the Washington State Patrol without due consideration of how it will be replaced is too great a risk.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 1 and 2, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5143. With the exception of sections 1 and 2, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5143 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
GARY LOCKE, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5533

May 15, 2001

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 7, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5533 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to posting and notification of pesticide applications at schools;"

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5533 clarifies and improves the laws governing the application of pesticides near schools, and provides for advance notification of parents and school employees.

Section 7 of this bill would have stopped these important improvements from going into effect unless funding were provided in the 2001-2003 budget. While there may have been significant budget implications in the original draft of this bill, the affected entities concluded in their final fiscal analysis that there will be no material costs associated with compliance. Therefore, no funding is needed in the budget for implementation of this act.

I have vetoed section 7 to ensure that this important measure for improving parental awareness of pesticide uses in schools and day care facilities will go into effect.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 7 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5533. With the exception of section 7, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5533 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
GARY LOCKE, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5583

May 15, 2001

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 8, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5583 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to the implementation of recommendations of the joint legislative audit and review committee’s performance audit of the public mental health system;”

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5583 expresses the legislature's support for most of the recommendations of a recent performance audit of the community mental health system by the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Committee (JLARC). I too support those recommendations, relating to funding flexibility, performance measurement, performance incentives, and other improvements. I also support the bill's goal of minimizing the percentage of available funding that is spent on administrative activities at all levels of the mental health system. However, section 8 of the bill would have required the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) to develop a plan to reduce administrative expenses in the system, including the Regional Support Networks and community-based treatment providers, to ten percent of available funds, and submit the plan to the legislature by December 15, 2001, with an assumed implementation date of July 1, 2003.

Minimizing administrative costs is an important goal for any program. But the Secretary of DSHS advises me that developing a realistic plan to achieve that goal for the mental health system as a whole will take longer than seven months, in part because it requires the active participation of mental health providers and Regional Support Networks.

The legislature's intent to see a plan implemented in July 2003 allows enough time to develop such a plan properly. Therefore, I have vetoed section 8 and direct DSHS to work with appropriate stakeholders to complete the plan, and make recommendations to me and to the legislature by October 1, 2002.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 8 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5583. With the exception of section 8, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5583 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
GARY LOCKE, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO MESSAGE ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5940

May 15, 2001

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5940 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to career and technical education;”

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5940 aligns the K-12 career and technical education programs with education reform and workforce planning efforts. These changes will integrate K-12 and higher education technical programs to better address skills gaps in our state’s workforce.

Section 1 of the bill would have established different expectations for school districts based on their current program offering. School districts currently offering career and technical education programs would be required to continue those programs, while districts that are not currently offering those programs are only encouraged to establish them. I urge all school districts to establish career and technical education programs, but cannot support a provision that requires some, but not all, school districts to do so. In addition, the requirement to provide career and technical education programs infringes on local school board decision-making.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 1 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5940. With the exception of section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5940 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
GARY LOCKE, Governor

MOTION

On motion of Senator Tim Sheldon, the Senate will immediately consider the Message from the House concerning Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6183.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

May 15, 2001

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6183 with the following amendment(s)

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to create a primary for all partisan elected offices, except for president and vice president, precinct committee officer, and offices exempted from the primary under RCW 29.15.150, that:

(1) Allows each voter, including those who choose not to affiliate with any major political party, to participate;

(2) Preserves the privacy of each voter's party affiliation, if any;

(3) Rejects mandatory voter registration by political party;

(4) Protects ballot access for minor political party and independent candidates;

(5) Maintains a candidate's right to self-identify with any major political party; and

(6) Upholds a political party's First Amendment right of association.

Sec. 2. RCW 29.01.090 and 1977 ex.s.c 329 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

"Major political party" means a political party of which at least one nominee for president, vice president, United States senator, or a statewide office received at least five percent of the total vote cast at the last preceding state general election in an even-numbered year (PROVIDED, That any political party qualifying as a major political party under the previous subsection (2) or subsection (3) of this section prior to its 1977 amendment shall retain such status until after the next state general election following June 30, 1977). However, a political party of which no nominee received at least ten percent of the total vote cast may forgo its status as a major political party by filing with the secretary of state an appropriate party rule within sixty days of attaining major party status under this section or thirty days of the effective date of this act, whichever is later.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 29.07 RCW to read as follows:

Under no circumstances may an individual be required to affiliate with, join, adhere to, express faith in, or declare a preference for, a political party or organization upon registering to vote.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Candidates for all partisan elected offices, except for president and vice president, precinct committee officer, and offices exempted from the primary under RCW 29.15.150, will be nominated at primaries held under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. So far as applicable, the provisions of this title relating to conducting general elections govern the conduct of primaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 29.30 RCW to read as follows:

Each primary ballot that includes one or more partisan offices must include a party identification checkoff box that allows a voter to select the party with which the voter chooses to affiliate from a list of the major political parties, or the option to indicate that the voter chooses not to affiliate with any major political party. If a voter makes no selection or selects more than one option, then the voter is presumed to have selected the option indicating that the voter chooses not to affiliate with any major political party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 29.30 RCW to read as follows:

The party identification checkoff box required under section 6 of this act must appear on the primary ballot before the names of candidates and ballot measures. Clear and concise instructions to the voter must be prominently displayed immediately before the list of major political parties, and must include:

(1) A question asking the voter to indicate the major political party, if any, with which the voter chooses to affiliate;

(2) A statement indicating that votes cast for a candidate who indicated a major political party designation when filing a declaration of candidacy by a voter who chooses to affiliate with a different major political party will not be tabulated or reported;

affected in any way.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. For each major political party, prominent notification regarding whether or not the major political party will allow voters who choose not to affiliate with any major political party to participate in the major political party's nomination process must be made, at the very least, in:

Any primary voters' pamphlet prepared by the secretary of state or a local government;
Instructions that accompany any ballot sent by a county auditor to an absentee voter;
Any notice of primary published in compliance with RCW 29.27.030;
A sample ballot prepared by a county auditor under RCW 29.30.060;
The content of the web site of the office of the secretary of state; and
The content of each county auditors' web site that is in existence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Votes cast by a voter who chooses to affiliate with a major political party for a candidate who indicated a different major political party designation when filing a declaration of candidacy, or for a minor party candidate or independent candidate, may not be tabulated or reported. However, votes cast by that voter for candidates for other offices are not affected in any way.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) All votes cast for a candidate who indicated a major political party designation when filing a declaration of candidacy by voters who choose to affiliate with that major political party must be tabulated and reported separately from any other votes cast for that candidate.
(2) All votes cast for a candidate who indicated a major political party designation when filing a declaration of candidacy by voters who choose not to affiliate with any major political party must be tabulated and reported separately from any other votes cast for that candidate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The secretary of state as chief election officer shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW to facilitate the operation, accomplishment, and purpose of this chapter.

Sec. 14. RCW 29.04.180 and 1999 c 157 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who desires to be a write-in candidate and have such votes counted at a primary or election may, if the jurisdiction of the office sought is entirely within one county, file a declaration of candidacy with the county auditor not later than the day before the primary or election. If the jurisdiction of the office sought encompasses more than one county the declaration of candidacy shall be filed with the secretary of state not later than the day before the primary or election. Declarations of candidacy for write-in candidates must be accompanied by a filing fee in the same manner as required of other candidates filing for the office as provided in RCW 29.15.050.

Votes cast for write-in candidates who have filed such declarations of candidacy and write-in votes for persons appointed by political parties (pursuant to RCW 29.18.160) under section 16 of this act need only specify the name of the candidate in the appropriate location on the ballot in order to be counted. Write-in votes cast for any other candidate, in order to be counted, must designate the office sought and position number or political party, if applicable. In order for write-in votes to be valid in jurisdictions employing optical-scan mark sense ballot systems the voter must complete the proper mark next to the write-in line for that office.
No person may file as a write-in candidate where:
(1) At a general election, the person attempting to file either filed as a write-in candidate for the same office at the preceding primary or the person's name appeared on the ballot for the same office at the preceding primary;
(2) The person attempting to file as a write-in candidate has already filed a valid write-in declaration for that primary or election, unless one or the other of the two filings is for the office of precinct committeeperson;
(3) The name of the person attempting to file already appears on the ballot as a candidate for another office, unless one of the two offices for which he or she is a candidate is precinct committeeperson.

The declaration of candidacy shall be similar to that required by RCW 29.15.010. No write-in candidate filing under RCW 29.04.180 may be included in any voter's pamphlet produced under chapter (29.80) 29.81 RCW unless that candidate qualifies to have his or her name printed on the general election ballot. The legislative authority of any jurisdiction producing a local voter's pamphlet under chapter 29.81A RCW may provide, by ordinance, for the inclusion of write-in candidates in such pamphlets.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 29.15 RCW to read as follows:

If a place on the ticket of a major political party is vacant because no person has filed for nomination as the candidate of that major political party after the last day allowed for candidates to withdraw under RCW 29.15.120, and if the vacancy is for a state or county office to be voted on solely by the electors of a single county, the county central committee of the major political party may select and certify a candidate to fill the vacancy. If the vacancy is for any other office the state central committee of the major political party may select and certify a candidate to fill the vacancy. The certificate must set forth the cause of the vacancy, the name of the person nominated, the office for which nominated, and other pertinent information required in an ordinary certificate of nomination and be filed in the proper office no later than the first Friday after the last day allowed for candidates to withdraw, together with the candidate's fee applicable to that office and a declaration of candidacy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 29.15 RCW to read as follows:

A vacancy caused by the death or disqualification of a candidate or nominee of a major or minor political party may be filled at any time up to and including the day before the election for that position. For state partisan offices in a political subdivision voted on solely by electors of a single county, the county central committee in the case of a major political party or the state central center committee or comparable governing body in the case of a minor political party shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy. For other partisan offices, including federal or statewide offices, the state central committee or comparable governing body of the appropriate political party shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

If the vacancy occurs no later than the sixth Tuesday before the primary or general election concerned and the ballots have been printed, the appropriate election officers shall correct the ballots. In making the correction, it is not necessary to reprint complete ballots if any other less expensive technique can be used and the resulting correction is reasonably clear.

If the vacancy occurs after the sixth Tuesday before the primary or general election and time does not exist in which to correct ballots (including absentee ballots), either in total or in part, then the votes cast or recorded for the person who has died or become disqualified must be counted for the person who has been named to fill the vacancy.

When the secretary of state is the person with whom the appointment by the major or minor political party is filed, the secretary of state shall, in certifying candidates or nominations to the various county officers insert the name of the person appointed to fill a vacancy.

If the secretary of state has already sent forth the certificate when the appointment to fill a vacancy is filed, the secretary of state shall immediately certify to the county auditors of the proper counties the name and place of residence of the person appointed to fill a vacancy, the office for which the person is a candidate or nominee, the party represented, and all other pertinent facts pertaining to the vacancy.

Sec. 17. RCW 29.27.020 and 1990 c 59 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

On or before the day following the last day for political parties to fill vacancies in the ticket as provided by (RCW 29.18.150) section 15 of this act, the secretary of state shall certify to each county auditor a list of the candidates who have filed declarations of candidacy in his or her office for the primary. For each office, the certificate shall include the name of each candidate, his or her address, and his or her party designation, if any.

Sec. 18. RCW 29.27.030 and 1965 c 9 s 29.27.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Not more than ten nor less than three days prior to the primary election the county auditor shall publish notice of such primary in one or more newspapers of general circulation within the county. (Said) The notice shall contain the proper party designations, the names and addresses of all persons who have filed a declaration of candidacy to be voted upon at that primary election, the notification that is required for each major political party under section 10 of this act, the hours during which the polls will be open, and that the election will be held in the regular polling place in each precinct, giving the address of each polling place(( PROVIDED THAT)) The names of all candidates for nonpartisan offices shall be published separately with designation of the offices for which they are candidates but without party designation. This shall be the only notice required for the holding of any primary election.

Sec. 19. RCW 29.30.005 and 1990 c 59 s 93 are each amended to read as follows:

Except for the candidates for the positions of president and vice president or for ((a partisan or nonpartisan)) an office for which no primary is required, the names of all candidates who have filed for ((nomination under chapter 29.18 RCW and those independent candidates and candidates of minor political parties who have been nominated under chapter 29.24 RCW shall)) office under chapter 29.15 RCW must appear on the appropriate ballots at the primary throughout the jurisdiction in which they are to be nominated.

Sec. 20. RCW 29.30.025 and 1990 c 59 s 80 are each amended to read as follows:

After the close of business on the last day for candidates to file for office, the filing officer shall, from among those filings made in person and by mail, determine by lot the order in which the names of those candidates will appear on all primary, sample, and absentee ballots. (In the case of candidates for city, town, and district office, this procedure shall also determine the order for candidate names on the official primary ballot used at the polling place.) The determination shall be done publicly and may be witnessed by the media and by any candidate. If no primary is required for any nonpartisan office under RCW 29.15.150 or 29.21.015, the names shall appear on the general election ballot in the order determined by lot.

Sec. 21. RCW 29.30.095 and 1990 c 59 s 96 are each amended to read as follows:

1. The name of a candidate for a partisan office for which a primary was conducted shall not be printed on the ballot for that office at the subsequent general election unless the candidate receives a number of votes equal to at least one percent of the total number cast for all candidates for that position sought and a plurality of the votes cast for the candidates of his or her party for that office at the preceding primary.

2. If, under section 9 of this act, a major political party has chosen to allow voters who choose not to affiliate with any major political party to participate in that major political party's nomination process, then votes cast by all voters affiliated with that party for candidates who indicated that major political party designation when filing a declaration of candidacy must be aggregated with votes cast by unaffiliated voters before comparing vote totals in order to determine a plurality. If not, then a plurality is determined by comparing only the tabulations of votes cast by voters who choose to affiliate with that major political party.

The names of the persons certified as nominees by the secretary of state or the county canvassing board shall be printed on the ballot at the ensuing election.

No name of any candidate whose nomination at a primary is required by law shall be placed upon the ballot at a general or special election unless it appears upon the certificate of either (1) the secretary of state, or (2) the county canvassing board, or (3) a minor political party convention or the state or county central committee of a major political party to fill a vacancy on its ticket under (RCW 29.18.160) section 16 of this act.

Excluding the office of precinct committee officer or a temporary elected position such as a charter review board member or freeholder, a candidate's name shall not appear more than once upon a ballot for a position regularly nominated or elected at the same election.

Sec. 23. RCW 29.33.320 and 1990 c 59 s 28 are each amended to read as follows:

The larger return envelope must contain a declaration by the absentee voter reciting his or her qualifications and stating that he or she has not voted in any other jurisdiction at this election, together with a summary of the penalties for any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. The return envelope must provide space for the voter to indicate the date on which the ballot was voted and for the voter to sign the oath. A summary of the applicable penalty provisions of this chapter must be printed on the return envelope immediately adjacent to the space for the voter's signature. The signature of the voter on the return envelope must affirm and attest to the statements regarding the qualifications of that voter and to the validity of the ballot. For out-of-state voters, military service voters, the signed declaration on the return envelope constitutes the equivalent of a voter registration for the election or primary for which the ballot has been issued. The voter must be instructed to either return the ballot to the county auditor by whom it was issued or attach sufficient first class postage, if applicable, and mail the ballot to the appropriate county auditor no later than the day of the election or primary for which the ballot was issued.

If the county auditor chooses to forward absentee ballots, he or she must include with the ballot a clear explanation of the qualifications necessary to vote in that election and must also advise a voter with questions about his or her eligibility to contact the county auditor. This explanation may be provided on the ballot envelope, on an enclosed insert, or printed directly on the ballot itself. If the information is not included, the envelope must clearly indicate that the ballot is not to be forwarded and that return postage is guaranteed.

The term of office of precinct committee officer shall be for two years, commencing upon completion of the official canvass of votes by the county canvassing board of election returns. NEW SECTION, Sec. 31. (1) The legislature recognizes that this act significantly changes the way in which a primary for partisan office shall be conducted, and thus it intends to ease the transition and allow any primary held prior to July 1, 2002, to be implemented with existing systems currently in use by each county auditor.

(2) Notwithstanding any language to the contrary found elsewhere in this act or in existing statute each county auditor may design a ballot and utilize procedures other than those detailed in this act when conducting a partisan primary provided that the design of the ballot and the procedures are specifically allowed by a rule adopted by the secretary of state under chapter 34.05 RCW, and that the following criteria are met:

(a) A voter shall have the option to affiliate with a major political party, or to not affiliate with any major political party;
(b) Voter privacy, including selection of party affiliation, is preserved;
(c) A voter who affiliates with a major political party may only cast votes for partisan office for candidates that indicated that same-party affiliation when filing a declaration of candidacy, and any votes cast for a candidate that indicated a different party affiliation when filing a declaration of candidacy shall not be tabulated and reported;
(d) A voter who chooses not to affiliate with any major political party may vote for any candidate regardless of the candidate’s political party designation, and votes cast by such voter shall be tabulated and reported; and
(e) Votes cast for a candidate by voters who choose to affiliate with a major political party shall be reported separately from votes cast for the same candidate by voters who choose not to affiliate with any major political party.

(3) This section expires July 1, 2002.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 32. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) RCW 29.18.010 (Application of chapter) and 1990 c 59 s 78 & 1965 c 9 s 29.18.010;

MOTION

Senator Tim Sheldon moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No 6183.
MOTION

Senator Snyder moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6183.

MOTION

Senator Snyder moved that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6183 be made a special order of business for 10:30 a.m. on Friday, May 18.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would object to that motion. There are a number of people leaving town. This is a very important issue. I think we ought to do it. So, I object to the motion."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WEST

Senator West: "Mr. President, I request that the motion be divided. There is a motion to concur and there is a motion to make it a special order of business. What are we doing here?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Senator West, it is not necessary to divide the question. The motion before the Senate is the motion by Senator Snyder to make Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6183 a special order of business for 10:30 a.m. on Friday, May 18."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FINKBEINER

Senator Finkbeiner: "Thank you, Mr. President, speaking against the motion. I think the Attorney General visited both of our caucuses and urged us to resolve this matter as quickly as possible. What she told us was that the longer we wait, the more difficult it is going to be for her to argue anything in front of the court. The position that the people who want to put this debate off, that's going to be harder to argue and the position that those of us who don't want to put it off, that's going to be harder to argue also. If nothing gets passed, that's still going to be hard for her to put something together in the next--what is it--eight days from now that the court is going to make a decision? I think we've debated this enough all through the year. I think we've put it off enough. We've put off committee hearings. We've put debate on the floor. The House has made their position, and I think we've made our position. I think we still believe in our position. I think we need to send this back over to the House and let them know today, and quit delaying, because the longer we delay, the more we're handing this issue from the Legislature, where I think it deserves to be resolved--over to the courts--where I don't think most of us want to see it resolved. So, I urge a 'no' vote on this motion."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SNYDER

Senator Snyder: "Thank you, Mr. President. Well, just a few moments ago, the proponents of the bill that left here were saying they got jammed in the House of Representatives. They should have waited a few days over there before they ran the bill. Now, we're being told that if we postpone this until Friday, it isn't the thing to do, we should jump up and pass it right now. So, I think the proper thing to do is just to wait until Friday. We talk about members not being here on Friday and being gone, I think our obligation is to be here. We're in a special session and there are people gone all the time. I think this is the number one priority for all of us unless they have a real emergency to be gone from Olympia. I think we need to take a look; I don't even know fully what the House of Representatives passed. I understand they amended 6183 that we originally had over here and made some changes in that and we haven't even had a chance to discuss those at all. I think it's just reasonable that we wait until Friday to consider this. Also, I'll talk about something else later if it comes to that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR EIDE
Senator Eide: “Thank you, Mr. President, I too stand in favor of the motion. I would like a chance to read the bill. Unfortunately, I believe it passed the House of Representatives yesterday, and I don’t think it is unreasonable to wait until 10:30 on Friday morning to give each and every one of us a chance to at least read it to see what’s in it, and if there were any changes made.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR CARLSON

Senator Carlson: “Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. This bill that we passed originally from the Senate two days ago, was passed by the other body in one day and then they sent it back to us. Have they made changes? Sure. I’m speaking against the motion to delay, because I believe that we knew what we voted on two days ago. We had an excellent debate on that issue two days ago. We can still vote the same; we could vote differently. We can understand what we voted on already two days ago, and if I heard the motion correctly before we were asked to consider to delay this until Friday, there was an opportunity to have the differences explained.

“I know that we have looked at this issue for months. We understand the basic concept of the bill and the revisions of the bill that we voted on two days ago. I believe we’re putting off a very crucial vote that the Attorney General needs to have direction on. I believe we should make it very clear that we understand what we are and what we have already voted on, and therefore, I urge you to vote against the motion to delay.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR ROACH

Senator Roach: “Thank you, Mr. President. I urge that we do vote for delay and I want to explain to the members why. I think that the Senator that just spoke is definitely correct. We all know the issues and we all know what both the underlying bill that 6183 was, and we also know what it was when it left for the House. Most of us, I think, have a good feeling for what has come back for us to consider. But, that’s not the issue anymore. That’s not the issue for the delay. The issue for the delay is not the content of 6183. The issue for a delay is so that we can now discuss something even more important and that issue is, shall we in fact allow for the courts to take over the responsibility that we have as legislators—and that we will never ever be able to inject our own or the people’s will into this subject.

“Remember the Boldt Decision—remember when that issue went to the court, it closed off any access that the state of Washington’s Legislature, and therefore the people, had in that debate forever. If we don’t get a bill for the Governor’s desk, we will have no more input on the issue, because it will go to court. So, I would suggest this, that even if we do not like the version that the House is coming back with, and remember I voted for 6183 as it left the Senate—even if we do not prefer that version, it is much preferable in these few remaining days to get a bill to the Governor’s office that he will sign, so that we can, and future legislatures, can, continue to address this. If we don’t, we’ve closed the door.

“That, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, is the issue before us today and the issue of the delay. Mr. President, I move that the whole debate on 6183 that occurred Monday and today and as it will come up in the future hopefully, be spread upon the record of the Journal for the purposes of easy access for our prosperity to look and understand what’s happening in this extremely historical point.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “Senator Roach, your motion, at this time, would be out of order. You will have to make it after we dispose of this motion.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KOHL-WELLES

Senator Kohl-Welles: “Thank you, Mr. President. I also support the motion to delay the vote until Friday. We have two very different proposals before us. One, that the Senate has passed out and secondly, the amended bill that came over from the House. Now, indeed there may be some resolution to this, where we’re not having to select between these two options. Some people are working on trying to find a compromise here that could be embraced by all of us here in the Senate and everybody in the House. Delaying this for two days would give the opportunity for us all to work on crafting such a compromise. If nothing else, I believe we can wait for two days to see if we can come up with that compromise.”

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Snyder to make Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6183 a special order business at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, May 18.
The motion by Senator Snyder to make Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6183 a special order of business for Friday, May 18, failed on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Snyder to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6183.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: “Thank you, Mr. President. I would like to speak against that motion. The bill we have before us here is essentially the same decision we made yesterday. It was whether we were going to have the Washington primary—the people’s choice primary—or the modified Montana plan. I believe there was some very minor amendments made, but the substance of the main debate is still here. So, I would urge that we vote against this motion to concur.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANKLIN

Senator Franklin: “Thank you, Mr. President. I move that we do concur with the motion, because after watching very, very closely the debate on both sides, and knowing what the outcome has been, it has been one of the toughest votes that members have had to take. So, concurring with the amendment certainly would then answer not only the question which confronts us, but would be most appropriate for the voters. We have been trying to address the issue before it is turned over to the court.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR TIM SHELDON

Senator Tim Sheldon: “Thank you, Mr. President. I move that we vote ‘no’ on this motion and that we not concur and defeat this motion and then subsequently we pass a motion to not concur and to adhere to our position. Really, this is a battle between the people and the parties. It really gets down to this vote today. You’ve read the newspaper articles, you’re starting to hear from your constituents and I can’t think of a constituent that I have that wants their vote not to count.

“How would it be in this body if someone was chosen—if someone said, the body said, you in District X or you in District Y, your vote will not count today. You can go to the polls, you can go through the motions, you can take a ballot, you can do that most sacred thing that we do in America—vote, but your vote will not count. That’s the basic difference between these two plans. There’s no changing it. There’s no getting around it. There’s no begging the parties to count the votes. There’s no deal that can be made. It’s all left to someone else to decide and that’s not what we do in America. Our Constitution says, ‘We, the people,’ it doesn’t say, ‘We, the party.’ Please vote ‘no’ on this motion. Bring the next motion up. We’ll send the bill that we passed that favors the people, back to the House where it was defeated by a small margin. Given time, I believe that will also pass, because the power of the people will prevail.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR CONSTANTINE

Senator Constantine: “Thank you, Mr. President. The bill before us is the one alternative that we have to a judicially imposed primary election system in the state of Washington. The Cajun system is not going to pass the House of Representatives—I’m sorry Mr. President. I know we’re not supposed to discuss deliberations over there, but it’s part of the reality of what we vote on today. If we do not concur, then we say that a federal judge can impose whatever system you will on this state. Instead of a moderate system as represented by the bill before us right now, one which protects individual privacy, one which recognizes the right of people to vote across party lines, we’re going to have a system where it’s likely based on what the Attorney General told us recently, that we’ll go to a convention to choose the candidates for the general election. Do your voters prefer to go to a party convention than to go to the polls and vote?

“The bill we have before us is the most modern option that is going to pass. Nothing else short of this is going to pass, so you can vote the way you voted last time. You can remain wedded to that position, but you need to recognize you’re not actually going to make a change in the law, you’re not actually going to solve the problem, and you’re not going to do a darn thing for the voters of this state. I would urge you to vote to concur.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR FINKBEINER

Senator Finkbeiner: “Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. You know the folks that want to denigrate the Washington choice model and call it the Cajun model or call it the Louisiana system, even though it’s clearly not that, even though it’s clearly the same model that we use to elect all of our local folks. Along those lines, I think if you’re going to characterize this bill as what does it in essence really represent? I think this is a Tammany Hall model. This is a let’s go back to the smoke-filled back rooms and pick out who’s going to be the party nominee.
Let’s take the votes away from the people and give them to the party. I think we had enough debate on this yesterday, so speaking directly to this motion on whether or not we want to concur. I guess I think that despite some of the claims that have been made today, I think it’s a little early to call this the only version that could be passed.

“In fact, I think there’s a very slim majority that passed the current bill that we’re currently looking at and I think the Senate gave much more deliberation and debate over the course of the session to this topic. I don’t think anybody was rushed in their decision making. I think we owe it to ourselves to hold the position that we had yesterday—to say that we’re going to place the voters above the party and to give the other body a chance to really consider this debate. In fact I don’t know how many of those of you who listened to the debate yesterday, but something I was very surprised at as I heard over and over again, well let’s really talk to those parties. We’ll just really put a lot of pressure on them. I heard it on the news today, one of the folks who supported this bill saying, ‘We’ll just really tell those parties one more time,’ just like we did in our last presidential election where they threw out over fifty percent of the votes—didn’t count them because people had to pick their parties.

“It is just like we’ve done all session until now where we’ve said over and over again, ‘Please don’t sue the state, please don’t put us in this position,’ and we’ve ignored it all the way until now. So, I think it’s time and the right time to say ‘no.’ The other body should consider this and we’re going to continue to stand with the people. So I urge a ‘no’ vote.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KOHL-WELLES

Senator Kohl-Welles: “Thank you, Mr. President. I speak in favor of concurring in the House amendment. I find it very interesting when I hear people say that voting for the House amendment is tantamount to wanting to go to Tammany Hall and have the situation in our state where the party bosses decide who’s going to be advanced to the general election. I would like to tell you a little bit of background here. The model for this came from a constituent of mine from Queen Anne in Seattle back in early February. He brought the idea to me. He’s been an elections inspector for years and he’s observed what happens at the polling places. He knows that people want to preserve privacy of whom they vote for and which party they identify with, but he also has believed that the parties have some rights to be involved with who goes on to represent the party in the general election.

“I tried to take this to the democratic party. I tried over and over again to talk about this proposal here. No one really paid attention, because we legislators did not want to deal with the situation. We did not want our constituents to be angry with us for making a change in their beloved blanket primary, which no one has wanted to change. Eventually, this got on the radar screen and I talked with party officials. I asked them to give me input. They didn’t get back to me. This is not something that the parties have put us up to. I think they prefer this over the Louisiana primary approach, but this is not what they want either. They would like full registration by party with closed primary ballots. Now this option--this model--is not ideal. How many times do we vote on a compromise bill in this body that we love? Usually, we don’t love compromises, but a compromise is something that can work--and this can work. It passes constitutional muster according to the Attorney General’s office.

“Believe me, if this does not go forward and the Louisiana model does, just wait until you hear from outraged constituents when they go to vote in the general election and there are only two people on the ballot from one party. Are they going to have a choice before them? Just wait until there are no minor candidates on the general election ballot. Are people going to be very pleased then and like what we have done? We need to approve the House amendment. The best approach is the one that will work even though none of us loves it.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR DECCIO

Senator Deccio: “Thank you, Mr. President. I haven’t weighed in on this, but reducing it down to a plain simple fact, that number one, I don’t want the parties telling me what to do, whether I can run, whether I can’t run, whether I get nominated, whether I don’t get nominated. Number two, we cannot disenfranchise anyone. Senator Kohl said that the electorate would be outraged if we don’t go with the House. They will be more outraged when they find out that they cannot vote--that their vote does not count. That’s the bottom line for me. We just went through the Florida fiasco where votes were counted, some were not counted. We don’t want to do that again in the state of Washington. We need to go with the Senate version and let’s get this thing over with. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR KLINE

Senator Kline: “Mr. President and members, I’m somewhat offended as a New Yorker to hear Tammany Hall brought into this. Tammany Hall was a political machine comparable in its day to the recent Chicago political machine. If there’s any bill that would make the political machinery work, it’s a bill that would take away from this Legislature the authority to write legislation and give it--not to a group of people around a table in a back room all smoking cigars--but to one person, a federal judge. If we don’t exercise legislative power, we’re going to have legislative power exercised on us by a judge--a single person. I can’t see any other alternative that could possibly pass both houses of this Legislature that would take it away from Judge Burgess, other than this bill.
“This bill has more merit to it than simply--well it’s an alternative to taking it away from a judge. There is a point to having both parties, possibly minor parties as well, in the mix, in election day, in November when the largest number of people come out to vote. The real choice is made not in September, but in November. Every other even numbered November, we have a president and vice president to be elected. We have large numbers of people every even-numbered November when our congressional delegation is up. That’s when people come to the polls. That’s when choice matters--choice between ideologically different candidates. This bill, I believe--if we concur--would give us that and it would be our decision to make.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEWITT

Senator Hewitt: “Thank you, Mr. President. Yesterday, I voted for the amendment basically because I want the people to have the choice and I think that’s the method to do it. I don’t think any country should allow any vote to be cast out by a handful of people. I want to read you something that I received yesterday and here’s what’s important about this. This came from the treasurer of my campaign last year. He’s also a party official; his wife is a state committeewoman. I think you’ll appreciate this, I’m going to quote this. ‘Yesterday, our sorry State Senator voted on a striking amendment which gutted Senator Snyder’s Bill No. 6183. Our sorry Senator voted both for the amendment and the final bill,’ which was addressed to the officials of the Republican party in Walla County. That ladies and gentlemen is part of the problem here. ‘We’re not only taking the choice away from the people that we want to make the choice for, but we’re also handing over some of the choices to the people that helped to get us here. I don’t think it’s correct. I spent last night on the phone talking to the county officials, trying to explain my position and why I think it’s so important to allow the people of this state to cast their vote and have their vote counted. I want something to come out of this body. I don’t care what it is. I want something to come out of this body, but I would prefer to have the people of this state have their votes counted. I’m willing to take another risk to get it back to the House to let them have the message a second time. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR CARLSON

Senator Carlson: “Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I stand in opposition to the bill before you. In fact, if I had the opportunity, I would request that we adhere to our position and insist that they recede from their position. We are about the people’s business and the legislation that we passed two years ago--sorry, two days ago--is certainly a desire and attempt to recognize the will of the people as they described their view on the issue of a Washington preferential primary vote. The press--you ought to be ashamed of yourselves, ashamed of yourselves for calling it the Cajun system, the Louisiana system. It’s our state’s people’s preference. If you wouldn’t keep calling it Cajun and Louisiana, maybe we’d have an opportunity for the citizens to understand that we’re trying to provide them their choice. They have indicated many times the desire to be able to vote as they choose. We sent, by a majority vote in an excellent civics discussion on this floor two days ago, what we thought was the right thing to do. We sent it to the other body. They had an interesting discussion, but they couldn’t even discuss what we sent them because one person says it’s not going to be allowed.

“Well, if we’re a representative democracy then we need to stand up for what we believe in, a democratic/republican government and send it back the way we sent it to them, because I believe, if we gave this opportunity for the folks to vote on it in a different body, they would pass this bill-- if they were given the opportunity. Please vote this down and adhere to our position.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR THIBAUDEAU

Senator Thibaudeau: “Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. I find it somewhat ironic that you’re talking about the people’s’ choice about this particular measure and I’m rising in support of the motion. I want people to have a choice, too, and I want people to have a choice at the general as well as the primary. We all know, relative to the general, how relatively few people vote in the primary. I also find it ironic, and sometimes much to the despair of my party how bipartisan I am, that you cite Tammany Hall. How many of you have been to your district meetings lately, people? How many people are there on a regular basis? How often? I ran against a party candidate and incidently won. I too listened to the debate. There was something like almost twenty votes against it. There were a lot that were excused, but it wouldn’t have made the difference. Over and over and over again, the people said, rather the members of that other body said, ‘We really appreciate the work you’ve all done’--the Co-
�认为是最重要的。它或重地地处于在那立场，我个人认为，在其中的人民和党派成员在中间。

政治党派主席，你没有得到任何地方。

是的，它几乎是完全未建的 Pierce County。他们寻找的是他们的立法者，其中他们投票是作为他们的选择。他们想投票。

如果我告诉你我在选举中投票对一个系统说他们的投票可能或可能不被计算，他们将非常非常地失望和羞愧于我作为一个立法者。

"This morning, I was at the Graham Business Association. Forty-five thousand people live in the community of Graham, which is unincorporated. Most of your areas, if you have forty-five thousand people in an area, it's a city or a town, at least. They pleaded with me to please let their vote count. I cannot overlook their choice. So, I ask you to please send this back to the House and let's negotiate further, because we have to look at what the people want. They're the final ones that are going to choose who they want to elect them—to represent them—and I want to give them that choice."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SPANEL

Senator Spanel: "Thank you, Mr. President. The word 'choice' has been mentioned many times and it's also been mentioned that it's not a choice, but I just want to restate that. Yes, in the other system, there is a choice in the first election, which I would hesitate to call a primary choice if you're talking about the Louisiana system. In that system, there is no choice for a lot of people in the general election and it has been stated many times that is when most of the people are voting. Someone could go to that ballot and there could be two people from one party, no minor candidates in most elections. I think there might have been a couple in this past election, at least on our side where the majority party candidate was on the general election ballot. There is no choice in that system and so I'm asking you to concur with the bill the House has sent back to us, because that does give people the choice in that last election. One of the things that was mentioned the other day is the minority party candidates do add something to our system and those discussions when we're in the forums in the fall before an election. It is important that they are there. If you have only two people from one party on that general election, it may not be much of a choice at all and there may not be many disagreements on the issues.

"I also sense from much of the discussion that there's a big great, fear of the 'party' out there. You know the party structure is a few people. The people who identify with a particular party are lots of people and they vote in elections. I guess that's also what ties in the choice. I come from a swing district, and it could really go either way and it has at various times, so I know that I get elected because people have made a choice to vote for me on that general election ballot in November, whether they were a Democrat or not. I think we forget there are a lot of people out there who consider themselves associated with one party or the other, but they don't go to the party functions, they vote for a particular party. I think we're sort of saying to them that you won't have a choice or you may not have a choice in that November election. Please vote to concur with the House amendment and give everybody a choice in the general election."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MORTON

Senator Morton: "Thank you, Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. I could not--cannot help but reflect back on the history of our country and on my own mother. Proudly she wore--and there was a whole batch of badges--they strung out probably eight to ten inches in length, of the names of the eleven ancestors on her side of the family that fought in the American Revolution. Why did they fight? And all those since? It's been mentioned one of their primary purposes was to preserve the right for the individual's vote, and that that vote be counted. I believe that's one of the key things before us. Not that a vote be tallied, but that a vote be counted when it is cast. That's one of the primary differences in these two systems.

"When I was a young man, my father was in politics and in his last three campaigns, I was his campaign chairman. I was just a young squirt in college, but we lived in a state then where the parties ran the state. I'm telling you we don't want to go that way. That state has suffered because of it. If you did not have the support of the county political party chairman, you didn't get anywhere. Then there was the state chairman, and all the precinct committee people and the party members in between. It was a bad system. Now, of the two proposals that we have before us, the one leans very heavily, in my opinion, in that direction--the wrong direction. I would call it the Montana manipulation by masters of politics. We don't want to go that way. I think rather we would stay with that which our history has prevailed to be the best that each individual citizen’s vote counts. We don’t need, in this Legislature or at the county councils, party pawns. We need those who are individuals representing the people who elected them. I heavily believe that we have the one system which we sent to the House and needs to be returned to them for their further analyzation. That’s the one I would encourage you to vote for.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR ROACH

Senator Roach: “Thank you Mr. President. Members of the Senate, I completely concur with everything the previous speaker has stated. It is interesting, though, because I come down on the other side of this particular bill that’s before us and I want to explain the reason. First, let me preface that reason by stating that in King County, right now, our King County chairman goes around and appoints district chairs. They are not elected from the PCOs. These appointed district chairs sit on the executive board and this executive board is making pre-primary endorsements without consulting the PCOs. I hope you all heard that, because it’s a new thing we’re seeing, but it’s going to happen all over the state.

“Now just let me add another little tweak here. Because those appointed district chairs are now going in and appointing precinct committee officers who are given full voting rights just as you had been an elected PCO. So, we have a county chair who is appointing district chairs, the district chair is appointing and filling all vacant seats, and if you don’t think that’s an organization coming out of Chicago, I don’t know what. It’s going to be that way all over the state of Washington. This is an extremely, extremely important issue. Both parties would claim to be the party of the people and the party with grass roots input, right? If I ask Democrats and I ask Republicans—absolutely, we are the party of the people, we are the grass roots party. That will not be the case. No one will be able to claim it because we’ll have big time party bosses again, as I mentioned Monday, walking these wings, telling us what to do up or down, because they control the machine that they have appointed.

“Now, the reason that I am suggesting we concur with this amendment is not because I think this—or concur with this bill that the House has sent back—is not because I think it’s necessarily the greatest option, but it is an option that will go to the Governor’s desk. Again, if we risk—this is a game, a very high stakes game. If we send a ‘do not concur’ back to the House, we may find that this ends up in the courts and you will have just exactly what I just mentioned to you for sure. There will be no ability for legislators in the future to ever address this area of law in Washington State again, because the courts will have purview over it.

“Again, this is a strategy issue on how to keep some finger in what’s going on. If you do not do that, then I fear that we will have party control from the top-down, not bottom-up—not bottom-up—not from the people, which many people here today, many legislators here today are saying that they really want to support. If you really want to support the people of the state of Washington, you will allow that they have an input in the parties that they choose to be beholding to. They will not have that input as long as you have somebody at the top in a county appointing district chairs who appoint people that in sixty days have full voting rights as any elected member of the party organization. I urge that we do concur for purposes of sending something to the Governor’s desk. If we want to change this method later on in another Legislature next year, we can do it. If we don’t get something on his desk, there will be no change and we will not have the Washington primary as has been spoken of here, because there will be no opportunity to have it. The parties will have what they want and they will validate the system which I have just mentioned to you and is occurring right now in King County.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR BROWN

Senator Brown: “Thank you, Mr. President. I haven’t weighed on this issue because I’ve been working on budget negotiations, but I’d like to because I’m not sure if I’m going to have another opportunity. First of all, I agree with the last speaker in that I believe it would be a big mistake for this branch of government to give up our input over these fundamental issues, which is all about why we are here. The other branch of government that would be taking over is not the one I think that should be making the decision. I think we should be making the decision. Second, after giving it a lot of thought, neither of the systems are perfect that have been put before us. Both of them have some fairly glaring disadvantages when compared with our status quo. I will support and move to concur, and the reason why is because I care a lot about the general election.

“The general election is the place where people make the decision that counts the most, because it’s the one that puts the man or the woman in office who is going to be making the decisions upon which the fate of our state and our country and our communities rest. I believe that the form of that election is absolutely key and that choice matters more than anywhere else in the process. If I walked up to a fast food restaurant and was asked what I would like to drink, and I said what are my choices, and they said Coke or Pepsi, I would say that’s not enough choice. My concern is that the general election, under the opposing system that passed the Senate and the other day, could become a Coke or Pepsi type selection process. Frankly, I think that’s what’s wrong with our political system today is that many voters are feeling that they don’t get real choices because they are getting Coke and Pepsi. That’s like two people who convey image and popularity, and not enough about substance and issues and positions and philosophies, because that’s too risky.
“Frankly, I was appalled that more Americans knew whether Clinton wore boxer or briefs, than what his position on China was. In the general election, I want voters to have not just a couple of people to choose from, but some vigorous, intellectual positions and debates and values to choose from. In the general election, I think people should be able to choose a Libertarian. I don’t support Libertarianism. I believe that, in fact, their philosophy about individual freedom is very appealing, but their philosophy about unrestrained markets is very dangerous and could lead to concentrations of private power that can exploit people. But, I believe having that position represented on the ballot strengthens me and it strengthens the party across the aisle, because we have to debate it and we have to respond to it and we have to say why do I restrain, why am I in favor of restraining freedom in this way, but not in this way.

“Many of the minor parties, I think, have a healthy, invigorating influence on our process, which in comparison with other countries processes, does not produce as broad a debate as I think voters would appreciate having the options to choose from. So, given that position and given how strongly I feel that the general election should not offer just two choices. Americans want more than two choices. I believe that we should vote to concur.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR WEST

Senator West: “Thank you, Mr. President. I sat through the debate the other day and sat through the debate today and as the good Senator from West Seattle said, the other day the debate was incredible. It was very much like what we thought in high school and what we all imagined a deliberative body of the Senate--Legislature would be. It’s pretty remarkable and I compliment everybody here--people on all sides of the issues for that debate. There are a couple of points that have been made today and were made the other day and I sat and I listened to them. I did not come to my position on this issue, actually firm, until after the debate and that’s rare. Many times we all come to the floor knowing exactly where we’re going to end up when we come to the floor. I know some of the vote counters were a little disappointed with me from time to time when I wouldn’t--couldn’t--give them a straight answer as to which way I would default on the vote.

“There’s a couple of points here that have been made, or a couple of statements that have been made by many, many Senators that frankly left unchallenged are left to be true. And I don’t believe that they are. First of all, I find it incredibly ironic that Senators who have no opposition at all and appear on the ballot unopposed would stand up and say that they are for choice in the general election, and the choice should not be made in the primary. In fact, for a few of those Senators the choice was made at the primary and it was a very spirited race and a very spirited debate in the primary. Then, once the primary was over, the race was over because there was no opposing party candidate. It is more likely, ladies and gentlemen--it is more likely the Libertarian or Green Party could make the general election under the Cajun or the people’s choice primary, than under the current system, because the major parties will always keep them down. They may make the general election, but they’ll never get enough votes to get elected.

“It won’t happen, because the major parties won’t let them. Where in the primary election, where you have a wide field of candidates, you can have a popular, independent candidate garner enough support that twenty percent--twenty-five percent--thirty percent, to be number two and advance. Where you may have a Republican and a Green Party on the ballot and the Democrats would swing behind the Green Party and the Green Party candidate would be elected. Or you may have a Libertarian and a Democrat on the ballot and the Republicans would swing behind the Libertarian and you would have a Libertarian elected. That is more likely under this system than under the current system or the system that the House has sent to us--more likely.

“That argument is fallacious--to suggest that people would come to the middle and rush to the middle for popularity to see who would be more popular. It flies in the face of a memo one of the Senators from Seattle sent us the other day from this distinguished person that studies elections, who said that it’s proven with this type of primary that the Senate passed, you get no, not the middle, you get the extremes. So which is it? Do you get the extremes or do you get a marshmallow middle, because you’re arguing both sides of the argument? You can’t predict what you get. In fact, actually, you probably do get a wider sense of issues. Right now in Louisiana, there’s a Republican Governor--the first Republican Governor elected--re-elected since reconstruction. First one since reconstruction re-elected. He got elected--I don’t know if he was number one or number two in the primary four years ago. When he went to the general election, four Democrats endorsed him for election, because they disliked the candidate over the Democrat, that was on the ballot. They swung behind him. You get that kind of effect when you have a people’s choice election, where people aren’t beholden totally to the party. I know for a leader, these are dangerous words to speak, but when you aren’t totally beholden to the party, you get the people’s choice.

“When the Senator from the Forty-fifth District got up the other day and made a speech, that was almost worthy of a Philadelphia speech of the convention--the Downing Convention--talking about the people who were sent here to serve, who we should be listening to first and foremost. We come together at caucuses, we come together as parties to strengthen each other around common principles and common sense of ideas, but when the day is done--when the day is done--our responsibility is to our constituents. I’ve got to tell you, telling my constituents that their votes don’t count in the general, their votes don’t count in the final election--that they just don’t count--I don’t think is a very good idea. I just don’t think it’s a good idea.
“So, you know, it’s really ironic, at the very first press briefing over in the GA building this session, I can’t remember who the moderator was, but he asked about the primary, and as he was going down the line everybody was kind of saying what they thought would happen and this is the furthest thing that I could have predicted. In fact, I think I said it couldn’t happen. Senator Snyder, on the other hand, excuse me for mentioning your name sir—the good Senator from the Nineteenth District—it is legal now, isn’t it? He on the other hand said, ‘Well, I think we’re going to give a good strong look at that Louisiana thing,’ and I about fell out of my chair and said, ‘There is no way in hell we’ll ever consider it—you’ve no way, forget it, it’s off the table.’

“Well, after looking at it and hearing some misrepresentations made about it, I didn’t even know it had come into existence until 1975. I had no idea. When I heard people say, ‘Well it’s a racist system and it’s to keep the minorities down,’ I had our staff call back there and get the numbers. There is a three hundred percent increase in African-Americans in the Louisiana Legislature since they installed the system. And that was designed to keep them down? There is a huge increase in the number of women moving to the Legislature since they put the system in place. These were things contrary to what I was told. These were facts, statistical facts now, but they’re certainly not the facts that I was given when I was first presented with the issue. So, I’ve come to the conclusion that we should not concur. We should send it back to the House and we should continue to work the issue. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR SNYDER

Senator Snyder: “Thank you, Mr. President. There’s been another great day of debate on this subject. I don’t like either choice very much. But, we’re in a position that we have to make a choice, and we’ve had a lot of hypothetical situations about what would happen and we might have a Libertarian advance and be on with one of the major parties and the minor parties are going to be better off than before. I just want to mention reality. If the Cajun primary would have been in effect, and this was brought out the other day, in 1996, there would have been two names on the ballot for Governor in the general election—Gary Locke and Norm Rice—two Democrats. Do you think we would have some outcry from the people, if that’s going to happen in the future? You bet your life we will. And it’s going to happen in the future. Maybe two Republicans and maybe two Democrats, but let’s roll back a little further in history. In 1980, when John Spellman was elected Governor. Under the Cajun system, his name wouldn’t have even been on the ballot in the general election. There would have been two names—Dixy Lee Ray and Jim McDermott. Would you have heard an outcry from the people if that would have happened? Oh, I’ll tell you, they would have probably started heating up the tar pot and plucking a lot of feathers to plant on all the legislators that had voted for that Cajun primary. It’s a tough decision to make today, but the correct one is to concur.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR OKE

Senator Oke: “Thank you, Mr. President, Senators. I really appreciate your comments, Senator West. They really touched me. Those were great comments to be heard on this floor about how important a vote is. Senator Snyder, I appreciate your comments, but I’m more afraid of what’s going to happen in the primary. I’m more afraid that people are going to walk away from the primary, those that should be involved and those cases you brought up, they’re true. They might have occurred, but if they occur, it will be the people’s choice. That’s what we need to do here—very simply—give the people a choice in the primary.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR REGALA

Senator Regala: “Thank you, Mr. President. This has been a very interesting debate over the last three days, and I am standing to ask you to concur in the House amendment. I’ve heard a lot of things and I’ve made some notes down here. I will make the point that ‘no’ I don’t like either of these systems really well. I do think that the system that has come over from the House is the preferable one. I certainly don’t want to see the party’s control; I want the people to be in control. I believe that happens when there are more choices in November, because after all, November is the final decision. Now, I come from one of those districts where the choice is not between Sprite and Coke and Pepsi. I think that some people would say that the choices are between Diet Pepsi and Pepsi. Yes, Senator West, I’m one of those people who had no opposition this last time, but I do believe that once I am elected I represent all of my constituents.

“I’ve been hearing from my constituents on this particular issue and what they have said to me is do not support the Cajun primary. We want choices in November. Because I know my constituents fairly well, I know that those messages are coming from the people in my district who are Libertarians, who are Republicans, and who are Natural Law members. They are urging me to please do not support the Cajun primary. Give us choices in November. That’s what the people want. That’s what I’m going to do, and I urge you all to concur.”
REMARKS BY SENATOR KOHL-WELLES

Senator Kohl-Welles: “Thank you, Mr. President. I’d like to wrap things up here. In summarizing, what is in this House amendment and why we should vote to concur, the House amendment provides for private choice. They provide for an open primary; they provide for a tabulation of all votes cast; they provide for—in fact, require that the political parties promulgate by July 1 what they will do with the votes that are tabulated for the unaffiliated voters. Voters will know in advance and they will know on the primary ballot. The parties would have to live with the consequences if they were to choose not to count all votes cast—not to use all votes cast. Now, the analogies have been given about Coke and Pepsi and Sprite, and I’d like to put another cast on that. Senator Roach and I were talking last week about this and she mentioned it being like a Milky Way bar and a Nestle’s bar, both chocolates. I said, ‘Well, if we can’t have any other choice in the general election, such as jelly beans being offered, then the voters really are short-changed.’

‘Keep in mind, the average voter turnout in the primary election in this state is forty percent. The highest two vote-getters advancing by very few votes cast by the voters of Washington State. The average turnout in the general election is seventy percent, and I would expect that would fall dramatically if voters are not given choices in the general election. One more thing just to bring this home, we all know that in Seattle, Democrats win. We all know that in Eastern Washington, for the most part Republicans win, but things change and things have changed. Thirty years ago—twenty-five years ago—Seattle was Republican. It was the Republicans who represented the Seattle in the Legislature. Yet by having the opportunity for Democrats to be on the ballot in the general election, there was full discussion of positions and gradually things changed. We need to have that opportunity. Please vote to concur in the House amendment.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR TIM SHELDON

Senator Tim Sheldon: “Thank you. I can’t let some of those comments be made that probably weren’t challenged, because a lot of people make examples. Let’s say there is a primary election and in the state of Louisiana their average is a fifty-five percent turnout in the primary, which is very good. But, as the Senator from Seattle mentioned, say the primary is forty percent, what will be the result of that forty percent primary? It will say that the Republican gets two hundred votes, the Democrat gets two hundred votes, and two thousand votes are not counted. That will be the result, so making sure that every vote counts is the thing that really matters in this vote today.

‘Another thing was brought up. In the 1996 election, Gary Locke, Ellen Craswell and Norm Rice were the candidates. Under the two-forward system, Gary Locke and Norm Rice would have moved forward to the general election. Well the headline was when Gary Locke won and went ahead with Ellen Craswell, guess what, he won two elections in one day. He won two elections in one day. Under this system, the people’s choice system, that would be another day and it would be another choice, but it would be two popular candidates, the most popular candidates that would have to win the vote of the people. So, vote ‘no.’ Do not concur in the House amendment. Let’s send this bill back to the House. Given time, I think the people will win.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmusussen: “Thank you, Mr. President. I just want to state what I have said earlier. If we vote to concur today, we won’t have another chance, another choice to debate to further explore this issue—to negotiate. It’s over. Now we’re a long ways from being over in this special session for what we’ve been negotiating on budgets, transportation, general fund. I would like to make sure this issue is kept open, so that we can further negotiate and further let the people know our opinions and hear from the people of our districts. If we vote to concur, it’s over, no more debate, no more negotiations, no more choice. We’ve made the final decision. I suggest to you that we not concur.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR HOCHSTATTER

Senator Hochstatter: “Thank you, Mr. President and forgive me, I think we all wanted to try and stop this. Let me give you a line from a song that I think maybe will get us all on board. You might remember the line, Playing solitaire til dawn with a deck of fifty-one. We don’t have all the cards, do we? We don’t have all the cards. The court kept a card. They gave us a rum deck, so we have the opportunity now to disappoint all the people. I’m really sorry for us and I suspect that we’ll deal something out of here that will make us all intensely unpopular. I hope that we can all get on board and say, ‘We didn’t start this mess.’ I hope that the people can get something that pleases them. Thank you for indulging me and all the rest of us. God bless you.”
REMARKS BY SENATOR SHIN

Senator Shin: “Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. Two days ago I made a speech. I wasn’t going to say anything, but both sides have been very convincing. It’s all based upon personal rendition, academia and personal convictions. Those things notwithstanding. I mentioned two days ago, quoting David Hume who says, ‘when I say democracy is good, that means I like democracy.’ I like democracy, in this country particularly. I believe American democracy at least is the best of all so far. If you see better, let me know.

“This nation stands for government by the people, of the people, and for the people. This is what I like. Also, in trying to decide which side—both sides are very convincing. I listened to one side and I listened to the other side, but in the final analysis, the Constitution says, ‘This government is governed by consent of the governed, the people’s choice.’ I’d like to support that choice that allows the people to make the final decision, whether for the primary or for the general election. Therefore, this is my conviction. I’d like to convey this feeling to you.”

Senator Snyder demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARGROVE

Senator Hargrove: “I just wanted to make sure that we knew what we’re voting on now. A positive vote is for Senator Snyder’s motion to concur? A negative vote is to do not concur and send it back to the House, is that correct?”

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6166, by Senate Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Brown, Snyder, Long, Fraser, Rossi, Constantine, Spanel, B. Sheldon and Carlson)

Restating plan 1 of the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Brown, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6166 was returned to second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Brown moved that the following striking amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND DECLARATION. Plan 1 of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system (LEOFF plan 1) has been closed to new members for nearly a quarter of a century. During that time, LEOFF plan 1 has achieved full funding and has assets which exceed all projected future liabilities and has a surplus approaching one billion dollars. In recognition of the contributions of working fire fighters and police officers to LEOFF plan 1, it is the purpose of this chapter, in part, to provide for an enhanced retirement benefit to LEOFF plan 1 members. LEOFF plan 1 also provides substantial postretirement health and long-term care benefits. The financial burden of this benefit, which is an integral part of LEOFF plan 1, falls exclusively on the cities, counties, and fire districts that employed the retired fire fighters and police officers. In recognition of the fiscal burdens facing these political subdivisions, it is appropriate to provide an additional source of funding to ensure the integrity of the benefit without undermining the financial stability of the employing governments.

The supreme court of the state of Washington, in the 1956 decision Bakenhus v. City of Seattle, established that the fire fighters and police officers, active and retired, have a constitutionally protected contractual right to a secure retirement benefit, funded on a sound actuarial basis. The legislature recognizes that the state of Washington is the ultimate guarantor of the LEOFF plan 1 retirement benefits. While members have a constitutionally protected right to the pension benefits that are provided as part of their contract of employment, there is no such right in surplus assets which are unnecessary to the actuarial soundness of the retirement plan.

The state retains the inherent power to terminate a retirement plan and, upon the dedication of sufficient resources to ensure the actuarial soundness of the benefits promised, is entitled to a reversion of the surplus assets upon termination of the plan.

The legislature has determined that, in order to accomplish the foregoing goals and objectives, it is in the best interest of the members and beneficiaries of LEOFF plan 1 that the plan be terminated and that a restated retirement plan with enhanced benefits be created. It is further determined to be in the best interest of the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the state that surplus assets remaining after adequate actuarial provision for the obligated retirement benefits revert to the state and be allocated for the purposes outlined in this chapter.

It is the intent of the legislature that the LEOFF plan 1 termination be performed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the federal internal revenue code and in recognition of the contract rights of the members and beneficiaries of the plan to an actuarially sound retirement program.

The legislature reserves the right to make such amendments and modifications as may be necessary in the future to accomplish the goals of this section, without any diminution of the rights and benefits of the LEOFF plan 1 members, retirees, and surviving spouses, as they existed prior to July 1, 2001.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. TERMINATION OF LEOFF PLAN 1. Plan 1 of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system (LEOFF plan 1) is hereby terminated. During the transition between the termination of LEOFF plan 1 and the establishment of the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system, all LEOFF plan 1 benefits, as they existed prior to July 1, 2001, shall continue without interruption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. RESTATE LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS' AND FIRE FIGHTERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM ESTABLISHED. The restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system is hereby established as NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. RESTATED LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS' AND FIRE FIGHTERS' DEFINED BENEFIT RETIREMENT FUND ESTABLISHED. (1) The restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement fund is created in the custody of the state treasurer. The fund shall consist of assets transferred from the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund, investment earnings, and other amounts deposited to the fund. The state treasurer shall transfer to the restated defined benefit retirement fund an amount equal to the actuarial present value of the fully projected liabilities of plan 1 of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system based on the actuarial valuation for calendar year 2000, adjusted to the transfer date, and the long-term economic assumptions in effect on July 1, 2001, under chapter 41.45 RCW. For purposes of funding the plan 1 lump-sum defined benefit created in section 6 of this act, the state treasurer shall also transfer an amount to the restated defined benefit retirement fund equal to twelve percent of the assets in the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund in excess of the actuarial present value of the fully projected liabilities of plan 1, as calculated under this subsection.

(2) The pension funding council shall conduct an independent audit of the calculation of the present value amount determined by the state actuary. The transfer of these assets to the restated defined benefit retirement fund shall occur as soon as practical after July 1, 2001. The remaining assets in the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund shall be invested in the same manner as the restated defined benefit retirement fund until the transfers occur under sections 5 and 8 of this act.

(3) Expenditures from the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement fund may be used only for the purposes of this chapter. Only the director of retirement systems or the director's designee may authorize expenditures from the fund. No appropriation is required for expenditures.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. STATE SURPLUS ASSETS RESERVE FUND ESTABLISHED. (1) The state surplus assets reserve fund is created in the state treasury. By June 1, 2002, the state surplus assets reserve fund shall receive all assets of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund remaining after (a) the distributions to the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement fund required by section 4 of this act; and (b) the distribution to the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' medical benefits risk pool under section 8 of this act and chapter 41.--- RCW (sections 301 through 310 of this act).

(2) Sufficient assets shall be maintained in the state surplus assets reserve fund at all times to ensure the actuarial soundness of the defined benefits of the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement plan without the necessity of further employee or employer contributions. Any actuarial shortfall in the defined benefit plan shall be offset first from the assets of the state surplus assets reserve fund. The state investment board shall develop an investment policy, taking into account the purposes of the reserve fund and the preservation of capital, for the purpose of accomplishing the objective of this section.

(3) The office of the state actuary shall perform an annual actuarial valuation of the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit plan to determine its continued actuarial soundness. Such sums shall be transferred by the legislature from the state surplus assets reserve fund as may be necessary from time to time to maintain the actuarial soundness of the defined benefit plan.

(4) The remaining assets of the reserve fund shall be retained as a budget reserve subject to the actuarial needs of the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit plan. No appropriation shall be made from the reserve fund for any fiscal year unless the office of the state actuary has certified that the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit plan remains fully funded on a sound actuarial basis. No appropriation shall be made from the reserve fund that would reduce the fund balance below two hundred twenty million dollars unless the state actuary has certified that the defined benefit plan assets are greater than one hundred twenty-five percent of the present value of the fully projected liabilities of the defined benefit plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. LUMP-SUM DEFINED BENEFIT. (1) The amount equal to twelve percent of the excess assets of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund transferred to the restated defined benefit retirement fund by section 4 of this act shall fund the plan 1 lump-sum defined benefit created by this section.

(2) Law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' plan 1 active members, term-vested members, retirees, and spousal survivors eligible for benefits under sections 226, 227, and 228 of this act shall be eligible to receive the plan 1 lump-sum defined benefit pursuant to the conditions established in this section. All assets identified in subsection (1) of this section shall be allocated to the eligible recipients of the plan 1 lump-sum defined benefit. The allocation to each eligible recipient shall be based on the number of months of service credit earned under chapter 41.26 RCW through June 30, 2000, in proportion to the total months of such service credit earned by all eligible recipients. The allocations for eligible recipients who are spousal survivors shall be based on the number of months of such service credit earned by the deceased member. This allocation shall occur on the date of the transfer of assets to the restated defined benefit retirement fund in section 4 of this act.

(3) If a member is active or term-vested, interest as determined by the director shall accumulate from the date the lump-sum defined benefit is allocated until distribution to the participant upon retirement from service or for disability. For the purposes of this section, a term-vested member is a member who has rendered five years of service, has not withdrawn his or her member contributions, and who has not applied for retirement.

(4) The lump-sum defined benefit shall be paid to a retiree or eligible spousal survivor upon application to the department; however no interest shall accumulate on the benefits allocated to retirees or spousal survivors.

(5) If a member dies before distribution of the lump-sum benefit created in this section occurs, the distribution shall be made according to the member's designation in section 216 of this act.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. INVESTMENT OF FUNDS. (1) The state investment board has the full power to invest, reinvest, manage, contract, sell, or exchange investment money in (a) the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement fund, (b) the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' medical benefits risk pool account, and (c) the state surplus assets reserve fund. All investment and operating costs of the state investment board and the state treasurer associated with these funds shall be paid under RCW 43.08.190, 43.33A.160, 43.79A.040, and 43.84.160. With the exception of these expenses, the earnings from the investment of the funds shall be retained by the funds.

(2) All investments made by the state investment board shall be made with the exercise of that degree of judgment and care under RCW 43.33A.140 and the investment policy established by the state investment board.

(3) As deemed appropriate by the state investment board, money in the funds may be commingled for investment with other funds under the investment authority of the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. TRANSFER TO LEOFF MEDICAL BENEFITS RISK POOL. By June 1, 2002, the state treasurer shall transfer from the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund to the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' medical benefits risk pool account under chapter 41.20 RCW (sections 301 through 310 of this act) an amount equal to the transfer to the restated law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit fund made for purposes of funding the plan 1 lump-sum defined benefit required by section 6 of this act. The distribution shall be for the exclusive purposes of chapter 41.20 RCW (sections 301 through 310 of this act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. Any claim filed challenging the validity of sections 1 through 8 of this act not filed before July 1, 2002, is forever barred, if not already barred by an otherwise applicable statute of limitations. By December 31, 2001, the department of retirement systems shall send notification of the provisions of sections 1 through 9 of this act, by first class mail, to the last known address of each plan 1 active member, retiree, and spousal survivor.

Upon reinstatement, the retired judge's benefits shall be actuarially recomputed pursuant to the rules adopted by the department.

(4) The department shall adopt rules implementing this section.

Sec. 402. RCW 6.15.020 and 1999 c 81 s 1 and 1999 c 42 s 603 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the policy of the state of Washington to ensure the well-being of its citizens by protecting retirement income to which they are or may become entitled. For that purpose generally and pursuant to the authority granted to the state of Washington under 11 U.S.C. Sec. 522(b)(2), the exemptions in this section relating to retirement benefits are provided.

(2) Unless otherwise provided by federal law, any money received by any citizen of the state of Washington as a pension from the government of the United States, whether the same be in the actual possession of such person or be deposited or loaned, shall be exempt from execution, attachment, garnishment, or seizure by or under any legal process whatever, and when a debtor dies, or absconds, and leaves his or her family any money exempted by this subsection, the same shall be exempt to the family as provided in this subsection. This subsection shall not apply to child support collection actions issued under chapter 26.18, 26.23, or 74.20A RCW, if otherwise permitted by federal law.

(3) The right of a person to a pension, annuity, or retirement allowance or disability allowance, or death benefits, or any optional benefit, or any other right accrued or accruing to any citizen of the state of Washington under any employee benefit plan, and any fund created by such a plan or arrangement, shall be exempt from execution, attachment, garnishment, or seizure by or under any legal process whatever. This subsection shall not apply to child support collection actions issued under chapter 26.18, 26.23, or 74.20A RCW if otherwise permitted by federal law. This subsection shall permit benefits under any such plan or arrangement to be payable to a spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent of a participant in such plan to the extent expressly provided for in a qualified domestic relations order that meets the requirements for such orders under the plan, or, in the case of benefits payable under a plan described in sections 403(b) or 408 of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, or section 409 of such code as in effect before January 1, 1984, to the extent provided in any order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction that provides for maintenance or support. This subsection shall not prohibit actions against an employee benefit plan, or fund for valid obligations incurred by the plan or fund for the benefit of the plan or fund.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the term "employee benefit plan" means any plan or arrangement that is described in RCW 49.64.020, including any Keogh plan, whether funded by a trust or by an annuity contract, and in sections 401(a) or 403(a) of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended; or that is a tax-sheltered annuity described in section 403(b) of such code or an individual retirement account described in section 408 of such code; or a Roth individual retirement account described in section 408A of such code; or a medical savings account described in section 220 of such code; or an education individual retirement account described in section 530 of such code; or a retirement bond described in section 409 of such code as in effect before January 1, 1984. The term "employee benefit plan" also means any rights accruing on account of money paid currently or in advance for tuition or fees under the advanced college tuition payment program in chapter 28B.95 RCW. The term "employee benefit plan" shall not include any employee benefit plan that is established or maintained for its employees by the government of the United States, by the state of Washington under chapter 2.10, 2.12, 41.26, 41.26A, 41.32, 41.34, 41.35, 41.40 or 43.43 RCW or RCW 41.50.770, or by any agency or instrumentality of the government of the United States.

(5) An employee benefit plan shall be deemed to be a spendthrift trust, regardless of the source of funds, the relationship between the trustee or custodian of the plan and the beneficiary, or the ability of the debtor to withdraw or borrow or otherwise become entitled to benefits from the plan before retirement. This subsection shall not apply to child support collection actions issued under chapter 26.18, 26.23, or 74.20A RCW, if otherwise permitted by federal law. This subsection shall permit benefits under any such plan or arrangement to be payable to a spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent of a participant in such plan to the extent expressly provided for in a qualified domestic relations order that meets the requirements for such orders under the plan, or, in the case of benefits payable under a plan described in sections 403(b) or 408 of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, or section 409 of such code as in effect before January 1, 1984, to the extent provided in any order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction that provides for maintenance or support.
(6) Unless contrary to applicable federal law, nothing contained in subsection (3), (4), or (5) of this section shall be construed as a termination or limitation of a spouse's community property interest in an individual retirement account held in the name of or on account of the other spouse, the account holder spouse. At the death of the nonaccount holder spouse, the nonaccount holder spouse may transfer or distribute the community property interest of the nonaccount holder spouse in the account holder spouse's individual retirement account to the nonaccount holder spouse's estate, testamentary trust, inter vivos trust, or other successor or successors pursuant to the last will of the nonaccount holder spouse or the law of intestate succession, and that distributee may, but shall not be required to, obtain an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, including a nonjudicial dispute resolution agreement entered into pursuant to RCW 11.96.170 or other order entered under chapter 11.96A RCW, to confirm the distribution. For purposes of subsection (3) of this section, the distributee of the nonaccount holder spouse's community property interest in an individual retirement account shall be considered a person entitled to the full protection of subsection (3) of this section. The nonaccount holder spouse's consent to a beneficiary designation by the account holder spouse with respect to an individual retirement account shall not, absent clear and convincing evidence to the contrary, be deemed a release, gift, relinquishment, termination, limitation, or transfer of the nonaccount holder spouse's community property interest in an individual retirement account. For purposes of this subsection, the term "nonaccount holder spouse" means the spouse of the person in whose name the individual retirement account is maintained. The term "individual retirement account" includes an individual retirement account and an individual retirement annuity both as described in section 408 of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, a Roth individual retirement account and an individual retirement annuity both as described in section 408A of the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, and an individual retirement bond as described in section 409 of the internal revenue code as in effect before January 1, 1984. As used in this subsection, an order of a court of competent jurisdiction includes an agreement, as that term is used under RCW 11.96A.220.

(1) Any obligee of a court order or decree establishing a spousal maintenance obligation may seek a mandatory benefits assignment order under chapter 41.50 RCW if any spousal maintenance payment is more than fifteen days past due and the total of such past due payments is equal to or greater than one hundred dollars, or if the obligor requests a withdrawal of accumulated contributions from the department of retirement systems.

(2) Any court order or decree establishing a spousal maintenance obligation may state that, if any spousal maintenance payment is more than fifteen days past due and the total of such past due payments is equal to or greater than one hundred dollars, or if the obligor requests a withdrawal of accumulated contributions from the department of retirement systems, the obligee may seek a mandatory benefits assignment order under chapter 41.50 RCW without prior notice to the obligor. Any such court order or decree may also, or in the alternative, contain a provision that would allow the department to make a direct payment of all or part of a withdrawal of accumulated contributions pursuant to RCW 41.50.550(3). Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the court order or decree establishing the spousal maintenance, nor does such failure affect the general applicability of RCW 41.50.50 through 41.50.650 to such obligations.

(3) The remedies in RCW 41.50.530 through 41.50.630 are the exclusive provisions of law enforceable against the department of retirement systems in connection with any action for enforcement of a spousal maintenance obligation ordered pursuant to a divorce, dissolution, or legal separation, and no other remedy ordered by a court under this chapter shall be enforceable against the department of retirement systems for collection of spousal maintenance.

Sec. 404. RCW 36.28A.010 and 1975 1st ex.s. c 172 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event of a special district employee transfer pursuant to this section, members of the governing authority shall be entitled to be included in such transfer if such members are authorized by law as of June 25, 1976, to participate in the insurance program being transferred from and subject to payment by such members of all costs of insurance for members.

(2) When the legislative authority of a county, municipality, or other political subdivision determines to so transfer, the state health care authority shall:

(a) Establish the conditions for participation; and

(b) Have the sole right to reject the application.

Approval of the application by the state health care authority shall effect a transfer of the employees involved to the insurance, self-insurance, or health care program applied for.
(3) Any application of this section to members of the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system under chapter 41.26, or 41.26A RCW is subject to chapter 41.56 RCW.

Sec. 408. RCW 41.04.110, and 1984 c 184 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the purpose of RCW 41.04.405 through 41.04.430 to govern the retirement rights of persons whose employment status is altered when: (1) Two or more units of local government of this state, at least one of which is a first class city with its own retirement system, enter into an agreement for the consolidated performance of a governmental service, activity, or undertaking; (2) the service, activity, or undertaking is to be performed either by one of the participating local governmental units or by a newly established separate legal entity; and (3) the employees of the participating local governmental units are not all members of the same Washington public retirement system.

(b) After the initial year of the medical flexible spending arrangement or cafeteria plan, if authorized, an eligible person may become a participant for a full plan year, with annual benefit selection for each new plan year made before the beginning of the plan year, as determined by the authority, or upon becoming eligible.

(c) Once an eligible person elects to participate and the amount of gross salary that he or she shall contribute and the benefit for which the funds are to be used during the plan year is determined, the agreement shall be irrevocable and may not be amended during the plan year except as provided in (d) of this subsection. Prior to making an election to participate in the benefits contribution plan, the eligible person shall be informed in writing of all the benefits and contributions that will occur as a result of such election.

Such agreement may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, effective date, modification and termination of the agreement, administration, and other appropriate provisions as the governor and secretary of health, education, and welfare shall agree upon, but, except as may be otherwise required by or under the social security act as to the services to be covered, such agreement shall provide in effect that:

(a) Benefits will be provided for employees whose services are covered by the agreement (and their dependents and survivors) on the same basis as though such services constituted employment within the meaning of title II of the social security act;
(b) The state will pay to the secretary of the treasury, at such time or times as may be prescribed under the social security act, contributions with respect to wages (as defined in RCW 41.48.020), equal to the sum of the taxes which would be imposed by the federal insurance contributions act if the services covered by the agreement constituted employment within the meaning of that act;

(c) Such agreement shall be effective with respect to services in employment covered by the agreement or modification thereof performed after a date specified therein but in no event may it be effective with respect to any such services performed prior to the first day of the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in which such agreement or modification of the agreement is accepted by the secretary of health, education and welfare;

(d) All services which constitute employment as defined in RCW 41.48.020 and are performed in the employ of the state by employees of the state, shall be covered by the agreement;

(e) All services which (i) constitute employment as defined in RCW 41.48.020, (ii) are performed in the employ of a political subdivision of the state, and (iii) are covered by a plan which is in conformity with the terms of the agreement and has been approved by the governor under RCW 41.48.050, shall be covered by the agreement; and

To the extent that the agreement between this state and the federal secretary of health, education, and welfare in existence on the date of adoption of this subsection is inconsistent with this subsection, the governor shall seek to modify the inconsistency.

Such agreement shall, to the extent practicable, be consistent with the terms and provisions of subsection (1) and other provisions of this chapter.

If a retirement system covers positions of employees of the state of Washington, of the institutions of higher learning, and positions of employees of one or more of the political subdivisions of the state, then for the purpose of the referendum as provided herein, there may be deemed to be a separate retirement system with respect to employees of the state, or any one or more of the political subdivisions, or institutions of higher learning and the governor shall authorize a referendum upon request of the subdivisions' or institutions' of higher learning governing body: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That if a referendum of state employees generally fails to produce a favorable majority vote then the governor may authorize a referendum covering positions of employees in any state department who are compensated in whole or in part from grants made to this state under title III of the federal social security act: PROVIDED, That any city or town affiliated with the statewide city employees retirement system organized under chapter 41.44 RCW may at its option agree to a plan submitted by the board of trustees of said statewide city employees retirement system for inclusion under an agreement under this chapter if the referendum to be held as provided herein indicates a favorable result: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the teachers' retirement system be considered one system for the purpose of the referendum except as applied to the several colleges of education. (4) The governor, before authorizing a referendum, shall require the following conditions to be met:

(a) The referendum shall be by secret written ballot on the question of whether service in positions covered by such retirement system shall be excluded from or included under the agreement between the governor and the secretary of health, education, and welfare provided for in RCW 41.48.030(1);

(b) An opportunity to vote in such referendum shall be given and shall be limited to eligible employees;

(c) Not less than ninety days' notice of such referendum shall be given to all such employees;

(f) The state legislature, in the case of a referendum affecting the rights and liabilities of state employees covered under the state employees' retirement system and employees under the teachers' retirement system, and in all other cases the local legislative authority or governing body, shall have specifically approved the proposed plan and approved any necessary structural adjustment of the existing system to conform with the proposed plan.

(5) Upon receiving satisfactory evidence that with respect to any such referendum the conditions specified in subsection (4) of this section and section 218(d)(3) of the social security act have been met, the governor shall so certify to the secretary of health, education, and welfare.
(6) If the legislative body of any political subdivision of this state certifies to the governor that a referendum has been held under the provisions of RCW 41.48.050(1)(i) and gives notice to the governor of termination of social security for any coverage group of the political subdivision, the governor shall give two years advance notice in writing to the federal department of health, education, and welfare of such termination of the agreement entered into under this section with respect to said coverage group.

Sec. 429. RCW 41.48.050 and 1981 c 119 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

1. Each political subdivision of the state is hereby authorized to submit for approval by the governor a plan for extending the benefits of Title II of the Social Security Act, in conformity with the applicable provisions of such Act, to those employees of such political subdivisions who are not covered by an existing pension or retirement system. Each pension or retirement system established by the state or a political subdivision thereof is hereby authorized to submit for approval by the governor a plan for extending the benefits of Title II of the Social Security Act, in conformity with applicable provisions of such Act, to members of such pension or retirement system.

(d) It provides that in the plan of coverage for members of the state teachers' retirement system or for state employee members of the state employees' retirement system, there shall be no additional cost to or involvement of the state until such plan has received prior approval by the legislature;

(e) It provides for such methods of administration of the plan by the political subdivision as are found by the governor to be necessary for the proper and efficient administration of the plan;

(f) It provides that the political subdivision will make such reports, in such form and containing such information, as the governor may from time to time require and comply with such provisions as the governor or the secretary of health, education, and welfare may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports; and

(g) It authorizes the governor to terminate the plan in its entirety, in his discretion, if he finds that there has been a failure to comply substantially with any provision contained in such plan, such termination to take effect at the expiration of such notice and on such conditions as may be provided by regulations of the governor and may be consistent with the provisions of the Social Security Act.

(h) It provides that law enforcement officers and fire fighters of each political subdivision of this state who are covered by the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement systems ((Act Chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess)) under chapters 41.26 and 41.26A RCW as now in existence or hereafter amended shall constitute a separate "coverage group" for purposes of the plan or agreement entered into under this section and for purposes of section 216 of the Social Security Act. To the extent that the plan or agreement entered into between the state and any political subdivision of this state is inconsistent with this subsection, the governor shall seek to modify the inconsistency.

(i) It provides that the plan or agreement may be terminated by any political subdivision as to any such coverage group upon giving at least two years advance notice in writing to the governor, effective at the end of the calendar quarter specified in the notice. It shall specify that before notice of such termination is given, a referendum shall be held among the members of the coverage group under the following conditions:

1. The referendum shall be conducted under the supervision of the legislative body of the political subdivision.

2. Not less than sixty days' notice of such referendum shall be given to members of the coverage group.

3. An opportunity to vote by secret ballot in such referendum shall be given and shall be limited to all members of the coverage group.

4. The proposal for termination shall be approved only if a majority of the coverage group vote in favor of termination.

5. If a majority of the coverage group vote in favor of termination, the legislative body of the political subdivision shall certify the results of the referendum to the governor and give notice of termination of such coverage group.

2. The governor shall not finally refuse to approve a plan submitted by a political subdivision under subsection (1), and shall not terminate an approved plan, without reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the political subdivision affected thereby.

The department shall pay benefits under this chapter in a lump sum or as a portion of periodic retirement payments as expressly provided by the dissolution order. A dissolution order may not order the department to pay a periodic retirement payment or lump sum unless that payment is specifically authorized under the provisions of chapter 2.10, 2.12, 41.26, 41.26A, 41.32, 41.35, 43.44, or 43.43 RCW, as applicable.

(2) The department shall pay directly to an obligee the amount of periodic retirement payments or lump sum payment, as appropriate, specified in the dissolution order if the dissolution order filed with the department pursuant to subsection (1) of this section includes a provision that states in the following form:

If..........(the obligor) receives periodic retirement payments as defined in RCW 41.50.500, the department of retirement systems shall pay to..............(the obligee).......dollars from such payments or......percent of such payments. If the obligor's debt is expressed as a percentage of his or her periodic retirement payment and the obligee does not have a survivorship interest in the obligor's benefit, the amount received by the obligee shall be the percentage of the periodic retirement payment that the obligor would have received had he or she selected a standard allowance.

If..........(the obligor) requests or has requested a withdrawal of accumulated contributions as defined in RCW 41.50.500, or becomes eligible for a lump sum death benefit, the department of retirement systems shall pay to.........(the obligee)........dollars plus interest at the rate paid by the department of retirement systems on member contributions. Such interest to accrue from the date of this order's entry with the court of record.

(3) This section does not require a member to select a standard allowance upon retirement nor does it require the department to recalculate the amount of a retiree's periodic retirement payment based on a change in survivor option.

(4) A court order under this section may not order the department to pay more than seventy-five percent of an obligor's periodic retirement payment to an obligee.

(5) Persons whose court decrees were entered between July 1, 1987, and July 28, 1991, shall also be entitled to receive direct payments of retirement benefits to satisfy court-ordered property divisions if the dissolution orders comply or are modified to comply with this section and RCW 41.50.670 through 41.50.720 and, as applicable, RCW 2.10.180, 2.12.090, 41.26.053, section 209 of this act, 41.32.052, 41.35.100, 43.34.070, 41.40.052, 43.43.310, and 26.09.138.

(6) The obligee must file a copy of the dissolution order with the department within ninety days of that order's entry with the court of record.

(7) A division of benefits pursuant to a dissolution order under this section shall be based upon the obligor's gross benefit prior to any deductions. If the department is required to withhold a portion of the member's benefit pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3402 and the sum of that amount plus the amount owed to the obligee exceeds the total benefit, the department shall satisfy the withholding requirements under 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3402 and then pay the remainder to the obligee. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to amounts withheld pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Sec. 3402(i).

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hargrove: “Senator Brown, I have and I think some others have received some questions about whether this current bill will guarantee all of the LEOFF 1 benefits that were originally defined for the pensioners. I understand that there has been some additional language put in to guarantee that. Is that correct?”
Senator Brown: "Senator Hargrove, you are correct. This amendment creates a statement of guarantee that all the defined benefits in the original plan are guaranteed by the state in the restated plan."

Senator Hargrove: "That is the original plan?"

Senator Brown: "Yes."

Senator Hargrove: "Not the changes over the years? Thank you very much."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the striking amendment by Senator Brown to Substitute Senate Bill No. 6166, under suspension of the rules.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Gardner: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I want to relate a couple of things that have happened today in my back yard that I think are very significant. They don’t just affect me and my constituents, but I think they are a precursor of what is happening in our state. The first thing that I read on the front page of the Bellingham Herald this morning is that Blaine’s levy to build new classrooms may have failed. Now, Blaine is a community that usually passes its levies in excess of seventy or seventy-two percent. We have sixty point eight percent favorable vote right now. We are going to have to wait for the absentees to see what is going to happen.

“The second thing that we heard today is that the Intalco Plant at Cherry Point will be idled immediately, affecting nine hundred and thirty workers—nine hundred and thirty families—within our community. These are very related news items. People in Whatcom County are frightened. They are frightened about their ability to take care of their families; they are frightened about their ability to continue in the community. We are seeing it reflected on how they feel about their ability to support our schools.

“Now, we all say down here that we support the smaller classrooms and yet we know that it is just not a matter of having more teachers, it is literally having the classrooms to put the classes in. The energy crisis that we are facing in the state of Washington has now been visited in Whatcom County. The folks there at Intalco are being told that they or may not receive wages--Intalco may or may not reopen in two years.

"I can't see that these people can sit around for two years to wait and see what is going to happen. So, they are either going to move out of Whatcom County or they are going to be on the road and they are going to drive to Seattle or they are going to drive to Everett or they are going to drive to Anacortes or they are going to drive to wherever they can go to get a job, but it is not going to be in Whatcom County. We are not going to have support for our schools or we are not going to have support for our charities and we are going to have a real problem just with the other businesses that are continuing there.

"I wanted to bring these two items to the attention of you, my colleagues, so that we can see that the time is here now and that the energy crisis is being visited in very, very real ways. The repercussions are starting now and I hope that we will keep this in mind as we have an opportunity to make an effect in this arena. Thank you very much."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Kohl-Welles: “I rise for a point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I had meant to offer a resolution today. As I did not believe I would make it to the festivities, I have not done so. Today is Syttennde og Mai, the seventeenth of May, which is the Norwegian Independence Day. The community of Ballard in my district in Seattle has the largest celebration of this independence day anywhere in the world, outside of Norway. There is a luncheon, today, which I hope to attend, and there is a parade which happens every seventeenth of May in Ballard. If anyone wants to attend, it is at six o’clock tonight. Again it is the largest festivity, outside of the country of Norway, in the entire world. Although I did not have a resolution, I know that many individuals here are of Norwegian ancestry, as I am. I know Senator Winsley is and Senator Eide and several others. So, I would like to give this tribute to Norway and also to the many Norwegian/Americans residing in the Pacific Northwest and the United States. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Franklin: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Since we have been in the Legislature this session, our lives have been touched by many tragedies. Once again, it has touched close to home last evening on the beautiful campus of Pacific Lutheran University--my alma mater--and the district I represent. A man went on campus and took a life violently by shooting one of the professors--Professor Holloway, a music professor. The campus is in deep mourning at this point in time.

"It is also the second tragedy which that university has sustained this year, with the loss of life of a student when a balcony where students were standing, caved in. The Pacific University Campus is a quiet campus. It is a campus which is in the heart of Parkland; it is within the community of Parkland. I have been on that campus. As I said, I am an alumni. As I thought about this, I thought it could have been me. I visit the campus many, many times
Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen, for those who are here and listening, we really do not know when tragedy will strike. We think that there are safe places.

"We think that our students who are in school and college are safe, but when someone, with no connection, writes a sixteen page letter and plans to go onto that campus and kill an innocent person to display his anger and then turn the gun on himself, that is not true. He was taken to the hospital where I had worked for many years, as many of you know, Madigan Medical Center, where he has subsequently died. So, once again, we mourn for what has taken place in our community and for the loss of innocent lives.

"Mr. President, if we could just have a moment of silence for the campus of Pacific Lutheran University, for Dr. Loren Anderson, who is the President there, and for the students who are trying to deal with this tragedy in their lives at this point in time."

MOMENT OF SILENCE

The Senate stood for a moment of silence for the faculty, the friends and the students at Pacific Lutheran University.

MOTION

At 10:20 a.m., on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The Senate was called to order at 11:40 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Franklin.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Haugen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6140 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 6140 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Haugen moved that the following striking amendment by Senators McDonald, Haugen, Gardner and Kastama be adopted: Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that many transportation decisions are best made at the regional level, where transportation problems are best understood. To achieve improved regional mobility, to promote individual and economic well-being, and to implement recommendation number six of the Blue Ribbon Commission on Transportation final report, relating to regional transportation solutions, regional transportation investment districts are created. It is the purpose of regional transportation investment districts to generate revenues for a limited period of time to assist in the financing of transportation improvements made to highways of statewide significance to improve transportation mobility in congested areas.

The legislature recognizes that a multimodal approach to the state's transportation system is the best means of addressing transportation needs. For the past decade, little money has been spent on adding capacity to our state's highways of statewide significance. This lack of investment includes major new highway projects to add capacity and lane miles to major state routes, interstates or other freeway systems, as well as associated high-capacity transportation capital improvements such as park and ride facilities, high-occupancy vehicle lanes, transit flyover access ramps to highway lanes, and bus pullouts along highways as means to reduce traffic congestion.
The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Regional transportation investment district" or "district" means a quasi-municipal corporation whose boundaries are coextensive with one or more counties and which has been created by county legislative authorities and a vote of the people pursuant to this chapter to implement a regional transportation investment plan.

(2) "Regional transportation investment district planning committee" or "planning committee" means the advisory committee created pursuant to section 3 of this act to create and propose to county legislative authorities a regional transportation investment plan to develop, finance, and construct transportation projects.

(3) "Regional transportation investment plan" or "plan" means a plan to develop, construct, and finance a transportation project or projects.

(4) "Highway of statewide significance" means an existing or proposed state route or federal interstate as designated a highway of statewide significance by the transportation commission, its successor entity, or the legislature.

(5) "Transportation project" or "project" means a capital improvement or improvements to a highway of statewide significance that adds a lane or new lanes to an existing state or federal highway, including associated HOV lanes, flyover ramps, park and ride lots, and bus pullouts.

(6) "Department" means the Washington state department of transportation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The regional transportation investment district planning committees are advisory entities which are created, convened, and empowered as follows:

(1) A county or, by agreement, multiple contiguous counties, may choose to create a regional transportation investment district and convene a regional transportation investment district planning committee.

(2) If a regional transportation investment district planning committee is formed, each county commissioner or councilmember from each participating county shall appoint one member to the planning committee. The appointee must be a resident of the county the commissioner or councilmember serves, and, if the commissioner or councilmember is nominated or elected from a commissioner or councilmember district, then the appointee must also be a resident of that district. The appointee shall not be an elected federal, state, county, or city official. Members of the planning committee serve at the pleasure of the appointing councilmember or commissioner and shall receive no compensation, but may be reimbursed for travel and incidental expenses as the planning committee deems appropriate: PROVIDED, That in the event that a planning committee elects an executive board, then each member of the executive board may receive compensation of fifty dollars per day for attending meetings or conferences on behalf of the district, not to exceed three thousand dollars per year. An executive board member may waive all or a portion of his or her compensation. Compensation provided in this section is in addition to reimbursement for expenses paid by the planning committee.

(3) A regional transportation investment district planning committee may be entitled to state funding, as appropriated by the legislature, for start-up funding to pay for salaries, expenses, overhead, supplies, and similar expenses ordinarily and necessarily incurred in selecting transportation projects and funding for those projects under this chapter. Upon creation of a regional transportation investment district, the district shall reimburse the state for any sums advanced for these start-up costs from the state.

(4) At its first meeting, a regional transportation investment district planning committee may elect officers and provide for the adoption of rules and other operating procedures. Except as provided in section 15 of this act, the planning committee may elect, from its membership, an executive board to discharge the duties of the planning committee and formulate a regional transportation investment plan, subject to the approval of the full planning committee.

(5) Governance of and decisions by a regional transportation investment district planning committee shall be by majority vote of the total membership. In the event that the planning committee has been convened by multiple counties, each member's vote shall be weighted to reflect the population he or she represents relative to the population represented by the total planning committee membership. Population shall be determined utilizing the national 2000 census or subsequent national census data.

(6) At any time, with a two-thirds vote of the membership of the planning committee, the planning committee may dissolve itself.

(7) A regional transportation investment district planning committee or if applicable, its executive board, shall convene, from time to time and as appropriate, to create and adopt a regional transportation investment plan providing for the selection, development, construction, and financing of transportation projects. The regional transportation investment plan should consider transportation and land use planning. The planning committee may coordinate its activities with the department, which shall provide services, data, and personnel to assist in this planning as desired by the planning committee. In addition, the planning committee may also coordinate with such other local governments and entities that engage in transportation planning.

(8) A planning committee shall select transportation projects to reduce traffic congestion and will create a regional transportation investment plan providing for the development, construction, and financing of the transportation project or projects to be constructed to submit to the county legislative authorities.

(9) A regional transportation investment district planning committee may, as part of a regional transportation investment plan, recommend the imposition of some or all of the following revenue sources:

(a) A regional sales and use tax of up to 0.5 percent of the selling price, in the case of a sales tax, or value of the article used, in the case of a use tax. The tax authorized pursuant to this section shall be in addition to the tax authorized by RCW 82.14.030 and shall be collected from those persons who are taxable by the state pursuant to chapters 82.08 and 82.12 RCW on the occurrence of any taxable event within the taxing district. Motor vehicles, as defined in RCW 46.04.320, are exempt from the sales and use tax imposed under this subsection (9)(a);

(b) A use tax imposed on the privilege of using a motor vehicle within a regional transportation investment district. The tax applies to those persons who reside within the regional transportation investment district. The rate of the tax may not exceed 0.5 percent of the value of the motor vehicle. The tax authorized by this subsection is in addition to the tax authorized under RCW 82.14.030 and shall be imposed and collected at the time a taxable event under RCW 82.08.020(1) or 82.12.020 takes place. All revenue received under this subsection (9)(b) shall be deposited in the local sales and use tax account and distributed to the regional transportation investment district according to RCW 82.14.050. The following provisions shall apply to the use tax in this subsection (9)(b):
full to the use tax; (c) A motor vehicle, as defined in RCW 46.04.320, license fee of up to one hundred dollars per vehicle registered in the district. The department of licensing shall administer and collect this fee on behalf of a regional transportation investment district and remit this fee to the custody of the state treasurer, who shall distribute it as directed by a regional transportation investment district; (d) A commercial parking fee of up to ten percent of the cost charged per parking transaction; and (e) Vehicle tolls on state routes where improvements under this act add additional lanes to a highway of statewide significance. The collection of vehicle tolls on designated facilities shall be administered by the department, unless otherwise specified in law, and the state transportation commission, or its successor, shall be the tolling authority. Specifically for projects where vehicle tolls are collected, as authorized under this subsection (9)(e), the state sales tax imposed and actually collected under chapters 82.08 and 82.12 RCW, less any credits allowed under chapter 82.14 RCW, on initial construction for any project upon which tolls are to be imposed under this section shall be transferred to the motor vehicle fund. It is the legislature's intent that this transaction shall be exempt from the fiscal growth factor in RCW 43.135.055 and will be identified as a credit on the project, thereby lowering the overall cost of the project and the corresponding tolls.

Taxes shall not be imposed without an affirmative vote of the people within the boundaries of the county or counties as set forth in this chapter. Revenues from these taxes may be used only to support the implementation, by a regional transportation investment district, of a regional transportation investment plan to construct transportation projects. A regional transportation investment district may contract with the state department of revenue or other appropriate entities for administration and collection of any of the taxes or fees authorized in this section.

(11) In addition to those taxes adopted pursuant to this act, a county or city may use any of its existing taxing authority to provide funds for a transportation project being constructed by a regional transportation investment district.

(12) A combination of local, state, and federal revenues may be necessary to pay for transportation projects, and the planning committee shall consider all of these revenue sources in developing a financing and funding plan. In particular, state and federal matching funds of up to sixty percent of the total costs as provided in section 11 of this act shall be considered.

(13) Upon adoption, by majority vote of the appointed members and utilizing proportional weighted voting in the case of multiple counties, of the regional transportation investment plan by the planning committee, the planning committee shall immediately transmit the regional transportation investment plan to the county legislative authority or authorities which convened the regional transportation investment district planning committee. The plan shall include a proposed ballot measure to be submitted to a vote of the people within the county or counties. This ballot measure shall call for the creation of a regional transportation investment district; specify the transportation project or projects to be constructed; specify the anticipated timeline for completion of the transportation project or projects to be constructed; and specify the tax or taxes to be imposed, the anticipated duration of the taxes imposed, and the total amount of revenue estimated to be collected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A regional transportation investment district is a quasi-municipal corporation which shall be formed in the following manner:

(1) The legislative authority of the county, or in the case of multiple counties, the legislative authorities, which convened the planning committee shall decide by resolution whether to adopt the regional transportation investment plan submitted by a regional transportation investment district planning committee and participate in the regional transportation investment district. This action shall be completed within sixty days following receipt of the planning committee's adopted plan.

(2) If any county opts not to adopt the plan or participate in the regional transportation investment district, but one or more contiguous counties do choose to continue to participate, then the planning committee may, within ninety days, redefine the regional transportation investment plan, and the ballot measure to be submitted to the people, to reflect elimination of one or more counties, and submit the redefined plan to the legislative authorities of the remaining counties for their decision as to whether to continue to adopt the redefined plan and participate. This action shall be completed within sixty days following receipt of the redefined plan.

(3) The legislative authorities of the county or counties deciding to participate shall place on the ballot, at the next general election or at a special election called for this purpose, the single ballot proposition adopted by the planning committee. The county legislative authorities may not alter the plan or ballot measure adopted by the planning committee and approved by the legislative authority or authorities. Only those registered voters residing within the county or counties participating shall vote on the ballot measure.

A simple majority of those voting within the county or counties is required for approval. If the vote is affirmative, then the regional transportation investment district is created.

(4) If the vote fails, then the planning committee may redefine the selected projects, the construction and financing plan, and the ballot measure proposition. The county legislative authorities may approve the new plan and ballot measure, and may then submit the revised proposition to the voters at the next election or a special election. No single proposition may be submitted to the voters more than three times.

If a positive vote on a proposition is not achieved by the third vote, then the planning committee shall be dissolved within sixty days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If the voters approve the plan creating a regional transportation investment district, the district will be declared formed. The county election official of a county must, within fifteen days of the final certification of the election results, publish a notice in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the district declaring the district formed, and must mail copies of the notice to the governor, the secretary of transportation, and the executive director of each regional transportation planning organization which has part or all of any participating county within its boundaries. A party challenging the formation of a voter-approved district must file a lawsuit challenging the district's formation within thirty days after the final certification of the election, and shall serve notice of the lawsuit upon each county participating in the district. Failure to challenge within that time forever bars further challenge of the district's valid formation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Membership of a regional transportation investment district shall be composed of one representative from each county council or commission district within the regional transportation investment district.

(1) The initial membership of a regional transportation investment district created pursuant to this chapter shall be composed of the members of the regional transportation investment district planning committee. Members serve at the pleasure of the county commissioner or councilmember representing the district from which the initial appointment was made to the planning committee.

(2) In the event of a vacancy, the county commissioner or councilmember representing the district from which the initial appointment was made shall appoint a replacement member to the district. The appointee must be a resident of the county the commissioner or councilmember serves, and if the commissioner or councilmember is nominated or elected from a commissioner or councilmember district, then the appointee must also be a resident of that district. The appointee shall not be an elected federal, state, county, or city official. Members of a district serve at the pleasure of the appointing county commissioner or councilmember.

(3) Members of the regional transportation investment district shall receive no compensation, but may receive per diem and be reimbursed for travel and incidental expenses as the district deems appropriate. PROVIDED, That in the event a district elects an executive board, then each member of the executive board may receive compensation of fifty dollars per day for attending meetings or conferences on behalf of the district, not to exceed three thousand dollars per year. An executive board member may waive all or a portion of his or her compensation. Compensation provided in this section is in addition to reimbursement for expenses paid by the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A regional transportation investment district shall meet from time to time as necessary to oversee the implementation of the regional transportation investment plan. At its first meeting, the regional transportation investment district planning committee may elect officers and provide for the adoption of rules and other operating procedures. Except as provided in section 15 of this act, the district may elect, from its membership, an executive board to discharge the duties of the district and implement the regional transportation investment plan, subject to the approval of the full district membership.

(2) A regional transportation investment district is a body corporate and shall have the powers necessary and incidental to overseeing the implementation of a regional transportation investment plan approved by the voters under this act, including but not limited to:

(a) The authority to hire no more than six employees, including, if it chooses, a director or executive officer, a treasurer or financial officer, a project manager or engineer, legal counsel, a project permit coordinator, and clerical staff; and

(b) The authority to pay for services and enter into contracts, including professional service contracts.

(3) A regional transportation investment district does not have the authority to acquire, hold, or dispose of real property.

(4) A regional transportation investment district shall not own, operate, or maintain any ongoing facility, road, or transportation system.

(5) A regional transportation investment district may accept and expend or use gifts, grants, or donations.

(6) A regional transportation investment district may coordinate its activities with the department, which shall provide services, data, and personnel to assist as desired by the regional transportation investment district.

(7) It is the intent of the legislature that administrative and overhead costs of a regional transportation investment district be minimized. For projects costing up to fifty million dollars, administrative and overhead costs may not exceed three percent of the total construction and design project costs per year. For projects costing in excess of fifty million dollars, administrative and overhead costs shall be no more than three percent of the first fifty million dollars in costs, plus an additional one-tenth of one percent for each additional dollar above fifty million. These limitations apply only to the district, and shall not be construed as limiting the administration or expenditures of the department of transportation.

(8) A regional transportation investment district may not substantially vary the regional transportation investment plan or the projects to be constructed. Minor variations or deviations as to the timeline, project plans, or right-of-way, and of up to five percent of the total costs may be made, but in no case may the district add to or delete from the plan projects to be constructed. Major revisions to the plan, including the addition or deletion of projects to be constructed, must be submitted first to the county legislative authorities and then a vote of the people in the same manner as provided for the initial plan under this chapter.

(9) To assure accountability to the public for the timely construction of the transportation project or projects within cost projections, the district shall issue a public report every year on the progress made in implementing the regional transportation investment plan. In the report, the district shall detail progress in two areas: (a) Whether the project or projects costs-to-date are within the amount of revenue raised for the project or projects under the vote of the people as provided in section 4 of this act; and (b) whether the project or projects are proceeding in accordance with the original construction schedule. If the progress of a project or projects is inconsistent with either the cost projections or timelines, the district shall provide the public with a plan to move the project or projects back into compliance with the original construction schedule and cost projections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The regional transportation investment district, by resolution, shall designate a person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the district. The district may designate the treasurer of a county within which the district is located to act as its treasurer. Such a treasurer shall possess all of the powers, responsibilities, and duties the county treasurer possesses related to investing surplus funds. The district shall require a bond with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington in an amount and under the terms and conditions the district, by resolution, from time to time finds will protect the district against loss. The premium on any such bond shall be paid by the district.
All district funds shall be paid to the treasurer and shall be disbursed by the treasurer only on warrants issued by district upon orders or vouchers approved by the district.

The treasurer shall establish a special fund, into which shall be paid all district funds, and the treasurer shall maintain such special accounts as may be created by the district into which shall be placed all money as the district may, by resolution, direct.

If the treasurer of the district is the treasurer of a county, all district funds shall be deposited with the county depositary under the same restrictions, contracts, and security as provided for county depositaries. If the treasurer of the district is some other person, all funds shall be deposited in such bank or banks authorized to do business in this state that have qualified for insured deposits under any federal deposit insurance act as the district, by resolution, shall designate.

The district may provide and require a reasonable bond of any other person handling moneys or securities of the district, but the district shall pay the premium on the bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The district may not issue any debt of its own for more than two years' duration. A district may enter into agreements with the state to pledge taxes or other revenues of the district for the purpose of paying in part or whole principal and interest on bonds issued by the state. The contracts pledging revenues and taxes shall be binding for the term of the agreement, but not to exceed twenty-five years, and no tax pledged by an agreement may be eliminated or modified if it would impair the pledge of the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The department shall create a division of dedicated staff and services whose sole responsibility is to coordinate the design, preliminary engineering, permitting, financing, and construction of projects under consideration by a regional transportation investment district planning committee or which are part of a regional transportation investment plan being implemented by a regional transportation investment district.

(2) All of the powers granted the department pursuant to Title 47 RCW relating to highway construction may, at the request of a regional transportation investment district, be utilized to implement a regional transportation investment plan and construct transportation projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) A regional transportation investment district is eligible for state and federal matching funds of up to sixty percent of the total costs of a transportation project or series of projects being constructed by a regional transportation investment district. A regional transportation investment district need not utilize matching funds, and nothing in this section may be construed as prohibiting a regional transportation investment district from funding and paying all or more than forty percent of the total costs of a transportation project or series of projects being constructed.

(2) The regional transportation investment district matching account is hereby created within the state treasury. The regional transportation investment district matching account shall be administered by the state treasurer. Funds appropriated by the legislature as matching state money for a transportation project or series of projects being constructed by a regional transportation investment district shall be deposited into this account. The purpose of this account is to serve as an account from which payments for transportation projects being constructed by a regional transportation investment district may be made. Payments from this account may be made as follows:

(a) The state may pay for its share of up to sixty percent, including federal funds, of the total costs of a transportation project or series of projects being constructed by a regional transportation investment district from funds appropriated to this account by the legislature for this purpose; and

(b) A regional transportation investment district may also transfer money to this account to pay for its share of any transportation projects being constructed by the state on behalf of that regional transportation investment district, or for payment of any bonds, debt, or other financing incurred by the state on its behalf to construct such projects. The state may then use these transfers to make payments on the district's behalf.

All moneys deposited in the regional transportation investment district matching account shall be invested by the state treasurer. Funds within the regional transportation investment district matching account shall be used solely to pay for transportation projects being constructed by a regional transportation investment district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department or district may use the design-build procedure for projects developed by a regional transportation investment district. As used in this section "design-build procedure" means a method of contracting under which the department or district contracts with another party for such party to both design and build the structures, facilities, and other items specified in the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Within thirty days of the completion of the construction of the project or series of projects forming the regional transportation investment plan, the district shall terminate day-to-day operations and exist solely as a limited entity which oversees the collection of revenue and the payment of any debt service or financing still in effect, if any. The district shall adjust its employees, administration, and overhead expenses downward accordingly. Any taxes imposed pursuant to an approved plan shall terminate when the financing or debt service on the project or series of projects constructed is completed and paid, thirty days from which point the district shall dissolve itself and cease to exist. If there is no debt outstanding, then the district shall dissolve within thirty days from completion of construction of the project or series of projects forming the regional transportation investment plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any transportation project constructed pursuant to this chapter becomes and remains the property of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The legislature finds that regional solutions to the state's transportation needs are of paramount concern. The legislature further recognizes that different areas of the state will need the flexibility to fashion local solutions to their transportation problems, and that regional transportation systems may evolve over time.

(1) The central Puget Sound regional transportation investment district planning committee is hereby created as a pilot project, and consists of the counties of King, Pierce, and Snohomish. The planning committee shall conduct its affairs and formulate a regional transportation investment plan as provided under section 3 of this act, except that it shall elect an executive board of seven members to discharge the duties of the planning committee and formulate a regional transportation investment plan, subject to the approval of the full planning committee. All other provisions of this chapter shall apply to this pilot project.

The state of Washington and the states of the state outside of King, Snohomish, and Pierce counties shall be eligible for grants from the state of one hundred fifty thousand dollars or more to study and develop regional transportation models. Regions electing to participate in this pilot program shall develop a model that can be used in other parts of the state and shall report to the transportation committees in the senate and house of representatives on the positive and negative aspects of the model as well as costs associated with it no later than June 30, 2002.

Sec. 16. RCW 43.84.092 and 2000 2nd sp.s. c 4 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) The treasury income account shall be utilized to pay or receive funds associated with federal programs as required by the federal cash management improvement act of 1990. The treasury income account is subject in all respects to chapter 43.88 RCW, but no appropriation is required for refunds or allocations of interest earnings required by the cash management improvement act. SENATE BILL NO. 5407, BY SENATORS WEST, PRENTICE, KOLH-WELLES, GARDNER AND RAMSUSSEN

ALLOWING MORE SIMULCAST HORSE RACING.

MOTIONS

ON MOTION OF SENATOR WEST, THE RULES WERE SUSPENDED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5407 WAS RETURNED TO SECOND READING AND READ THE SECOND TIME.

ON MOTION OF SENATOR WEST, THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENT WAS ADOPTED:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that Washington's equine racing industry creates economic, environmental, and recreational impacts across the state affecting agriculture, horse breeding, the horse training industry, agricultural fairs and youth programs, and tourism and employment opportunities. The Washington equine industry has incurred a financial decline coinciding with increased competition from the gaming industry in the state and from the lack of a Class 1 racing facility in Western Washington from 1993 through 1995. This act is necessary to preserve, restore, and revitalize the equine breeding and racing industries and to preserve in Washington the economic and social impacts associated with these industries. Preserving Washington's equine breeding and racing industries, and in particular the sectors of the industries that are dependent upon live horse racing, is in the public interest of the state. The purpose of this act is to preserve Washington's equine breeding and racing industries and to protect these industries from adverse economic impacts. This act does not establish a new form of gaming in Washington or allow expanded gaming within the state beyond what has been previously authorized. Simulcast wagering has been allowed in Washington before the effective date of this act. Therefore, this act does not allow gaming of any nature or scope that was prohibited before the effective date of this act.

Sec. 2. RCW 67.16.200 and 2000 c 223 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A racing association licensed by the commission to conduct a race meet may seek approval from the commission to conduct parimutuel wagering on its program at a satellite location or locations within the state of Washington. The sale of parimutuel pools at satellite locations shall be conducted only during the licensee's race meet and simultaneous to all parimutuel wagering activity conducted at the licensee's live racing facility in the state of Washington. The commission's authority to approve satellite wagering at a particular location is subject to the following limitations:

(a) The commission may approve only one satellite location in each county in the state; however, the commission may grant approval for more than one licensee to conduct wagering at each satellite location. A satellite location shall not be operated within twenty driving miles of any class 1 racing facility. For the purposes of this section, "driving miles" means miles measured by the most direct route as determined by the commission; and

(b) A licensee shall not conduct satellite wagering at any satellite location within sixty driving miles of any other racing facility conducting a live race meet.

(2) Subject to local zoning and other land use ordinances, the commission shall be the sole judge of whether approval to conduct wagering at a satellite location shall be granted.

(3) The licensee shall combine the parimutuel pools of the satellite location with those of the racing facility for the purpose of determining odds and computing payoffs. The amount wagered at the satellite location shall be combined with the amount wagered at the racing facility for the application of take out formulas and distribution as provided in RCW 67.16.102, 67.16.105, 67.16.170, and 67.16.175. A satellite extension of the licensee's racing facility shall be subject to the same application of the rules of racing as the licensee's racing facility.

BY THE COMMISSION AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERSTATE HORSE RACING ACT OF 1978 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 3001 to 3007) OR ANY OTHER APPLICABLE LAWS. THE COMMISSION MAY PERMIT PARIMUTUEL POOLS ON THE SIMULCAST RACES TO BE COMBINED IN A COMMON POOL (IMPORTING RACING ASSOCIATION MAY AUTHORIZE TRANSMIT SIMULCASTS TO LOCATIONS OUTSIDE THIS STATE SHALL PAY AT LEAST FIFTY PERCENT OF THE FEE THAT IT RECEIVES FOR SALE OF THE SIMULCAST SIGNAL TO THE HORSEMAN’S PURSE ACCOUNT FOR ITS LIVE RACES AFTER FIRST DEDUCTING THE ACTUAL COST OF SENDING THE SIGNAL OUT OF STATE.

(5) UPON WRITTEN APPLICATION TO THE COMMISSION, A CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION MAY BE AUTHORIZED TO TRANSMIT SIMULCASTS OF LIVE HORSE RACES CONDUCTED AT ITS RACETRACK TO LICENSED RACING ASSOCIATIONS LOCATED WITHIN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON AND APPROVED BY THE COMMISSION FOR THE RECEIPT OF THE SIMULCASTS. THE COMMISSION SHALL PERMIT PARIMUTUEL POOLS ON THE SIMULCAST RACES TO BE COMBINED IN A COMMON POOL. THE FEE FOR THE SIMULCASTS SHALL BE FIVE AND ONE-HALF PERCENT OF THE GROSS PARIMUTUEL RECEIPTS GENERATED AT THE RECEIVING LOCATION AND PAYABLE TO THE SENDING RACING ASSOCIATION. A RACING ASSOCIATION THAT TRANSMITS SIMULCASTS OF ITS RACES TO OTHER LICENSED RACING ASSOCIATIONS SHALL PAY AT LEAST FIFTY PERCENT OF THE FEE THAT IT RECEIVES FOR THE SIMULCAST SIGNAL TO THE HORSEMAN’S PURSE ACCOUNT FOR ITS LIVE RACE MEET AFTER FIRST DEDUCTING THE PURCHASE PRICE AND THE ACTUAL DIRECT COSTS OF IMPORTING THE RACE. A RACING ASSOCIATION THAT RECEIVES SIMULCAST RACES FROM CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATIONS WITHIN THE STATE SHALL PAY AT LEAST FIFTY PERCENT OF ITS SHARE OF THE PARIMUTUEL RECEIPTS TO THE HORSEMAN’S PURSE ACCOUNT FOR ITS LIVE RACE MEET AFTER FIRST DEDUCTING THE PURCHASE PRICE AND THE ACTUAL DIRECT COSTS OF IMPORTING THE RACE.

(6) A CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION MAY BE ALLOWED TO IMPORT SIMULCASTS OF HORSE RACES FROM OUT-OF-STATE RACING FACILITIES. WITH THE PRIOR APPROVAL OF THE COMMISSION, THE CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION MAY PARTICIPATE IN AN INTERSTATE COMMON POOL AND MAY CHANGE ITS COMMON POOL RATES TO ACHIEVE A COMMON RATE WITH OTHER PARTICIPANTS IN THE COMMON POOL.

(a) THE CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION SHALL MAKE WRITTEN APPLICATION WITH THE COMMISSION FOR PERMISSION TO IMPORT SIMULCAST RACE HORSES FOR THE PURPOSE OF PARIMUTUEL WAGERING. SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THIS SECTION, THE COMMISSION IS THE SOLE AUTHORITY IN DETERMINING WHETHER TO GRANT APPROVAL FOR AN IMPORTED SIMULCAST RACE.

(b) THE CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION MAY NOT EXCEED ONE SIMULCAST RACE CARD PROGRAM DURING EACH LIVE RACE DAY. IMPORTING RACING ASSOCIATION MAY NOT HAVE MORE THAN ONE SIMULCAST RACE CARD PROGRAM DURING EACH LIVE RACE DAY.

(c) A LICENSED RACING ASSOCIATION MAY BE ALLOWED TO IMPORT TWO SIMULCAST PROGRAMS ON TWO NON-LIVE RACE DAYS PER WEEK DURING ITS LIVELIVE MEET. A LICENSEE SHALL NOT OPERATE PARIMUTUEL WAGERING ON MORE THAN FIVE DAYS PER WEEK. PARIMUTUEL WAGERING ON IMPORTED SIMULCAST PROGRAMS SHALL ONLY BE CONDUCTED AT THE LIVE RACING FACILITY OF A CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION.

(d) THE COMMISSION MAY ALLOW SIMULCAST RACES OF REGIONAL OR NATIONAL INTEREST TO BE SENT TO SATELLITE LOCATIONS. SIMULCASTS OF ITS RACES SHALL BE LIMITED TO ONE PER DAY EXCEPT FOR BREEDER’S CUP SPECIAL EVENTS.

(e) WHEN OPEN FOR PARIMUTUEL WAGERING, A CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION WHICH IMPORTS SIMULCAST RACES SHALL ALSO CONDUCT SIMULCAST PARIMUTUEL WAGERING WITHIN ITS LICENSED RACING ENCLOSURE ON ALL RACES SIMULCAST FROM OTHER CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATIONS WITHIN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

(f) WHEN NOT CONDUCTING A LIVE RACE MEETING, A CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION MAY BE ALLOWED TO CONDUCT SIMULCAST PARIMUTUEL WAGERING ON IMPORTED SIMULCAST RACES.

(g) SIMULCAST RACE card programs shall be for not more than fourteen hours during any twenty-four-hour period, for not more than five days per week and only at the live racing facility of a class 1 racing association.

(h) ON AN IMPORTED SIMULCAST RACE, THE CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION SHALL PAY FIFTY PERCENT OF ITS SHARE OF THE PARIMUTUEL RECEIPTS TO THE HORSEMAN’S PURSE ACCOUNT FOR ITS LIVE RACE MEET AFTER FIRST DEDUCTING THE PURCHASE PRICE OF THE IMPORTED RACE AND THE ACTUAL COSTS OF IMPORTING THE RACE.

(i) FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, A CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION IS DEFINED AS A LICENSEE APPROVED BY THE COMMISSION TO CONDUCT DURING EACH TWELVE-MONTH PERIOD AT LEAST FORTY DAYS OF LIVE RACING. IF A LIVE RACE DAY IS CANCELED DUE TO REASONS DIRECTLY ATTRIBUTABLE TO ACTS OF GOD, LABOR DISRUPTIONS AFFECTING LIVE RACE DAYS BUT NOT DIRECTLY LOADING THE LICENSED OWNERS OR EMPLOYEES, OR OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES THAT THE COMMISSION DECIDES ARE BEYOND THE CONTROL OF THE CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION, THEN THE CANCELED DAY COUNTS TOWARD THE FORTY-DAY REQUIREMENT. THE COMMISSION MAY BY RULE INCREASE THE NUMBER OF LIVE RACE DAYS REQUIRED TO MAINTAIN CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION STATUS OR MAKE OTHER RULES NECESSARY TO IMPLEMENT THIS SECTION.

(j) THIS SECTION DOES NOT ESTABLISH A NEW FORM OF GAMING IN WASHINGTON OR ALLOW EXPANDED GAMING WITHIN THE STATE BEYOND WHAT HAS BEEN PREVIOUSLY AUTHORIZED. SIMULCAST WAGERING HAS BEEN ALLOWED IN WASHINGTON BEFORE APRIL 19, 1997. THEREFORE, THIS SECTION DOES NOT ALLOW GAMING OF ANY NATURE OR SCOPE THAT WAS PROHIBITED BEFORE APRIL 19, 1997. THIS SECTION IS NECESSARY TO PROTECT THE WASHINGTON EQUINE BREEDING AND RACING INDUSTRIES, AND IN PARTICULAR THOSE SECTORS OF THE INDUSTRIES THAT ARE DEPENDENT UPON LIVE HORSE RACING. THE PURPOSE OF THIS SECTION IS TO PROTECT THESE INDUSTRIES FROM ADVERSE ECONOMIC IMPACTS AND TO PROTECT FAN ATTENDANCE AT CLASS 1 RACING FACILITIES.

(k) IMPORTED SIMULCAST RACE CARD PROGRAMS SHALL NOT BE DISSEMINATED TO ANY LOCATION OUTSIDE THE LIVE RACING FACILITY OF THE CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION AND A CLASS 1 RACING ASSOCIATION IS STRICLY PROHIBITED FROM SIMULCASTING IMPORTED RACE CARD PROGRAMS TO ANY LOCATION OUTSIDE ITS LIVE RACING FACILITY.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5407 IS A MEASURE WHICH ALLOWS HORSE RACING TRACKS TO IMPORT MORE SIMULCAST HORSE RACES. THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR HAS RULED THAT THE MEASURE WOULD "EXPAND GAMBLING" UNDER ARTICLE 2, SECTION 24 OF THE STATE CONSTITUTION. I AM NOT A PROPONENT OF INCREASED GAMBLING IN OUR STATE, AND TO THE BEST OF MY RECOLLECTION HAVE Seldom, IF EVER, VOTED TO EXPAND GAMBLING. IN FACT, DURING THE 2001 REGULAR SESSION, I VOTED "NO" ON FINAL PASSAGE OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5407, AND I TWICE VOTED "NO" ON FINAL PASSAGE OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1571, THE HOUSE COMPANION MEASURE.
ON MAY 21, 2001, DURING THE ROLL CALL VOTE ON ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5407, I WAS ENGAGED IN AN INTENSE DISCUSSION WITH ANOTHER SENATOR CONCERNING A DIFFERENT, PRESSING ISSUE OF THE FIRST SPECIAL SESSION. MY ATTENTION WAS FOCUSED ON THE OTHER ISSUE, AND I VOTED "YES" ON ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5407 INADVERTENTLY. Retirement benefits shall not accrue during the period of membership and the individual shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.35.420 or 41.35.680.

However, if the right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service, the retirement formula and survivor options the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated.

Sec. 12. RCW 41.40.037 and 1997 c 254 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) If a retiree enters employment with an employer sooner than one calendar month after his or her accrual date, the retiree's monthly retirement allowance will be reduced by five and one-half percent for every eight hours worked during that month. This reduction will be applied each month until the retiree remains absent from employment with an employer for one full calendar month.

(b) The benefit reduction provided in (a) of this subsection will accrue for a maximum of one hundred sixty hours per month. Any benefit reduction over one hundred percent will be applied to the benefit the retiree is eligible to receive in subsequent months.

(2) A retiree who has satisfied the break in employment requirement of subsection (1) of this section, may work up to ((five months)) eight hundred sixty-seven hours per calendar year in an eligible position, as defined in RCW 41.32.010, 41.35.010, or 41.40.010, or as a fire fighter or law enforcement officer, as defined in RCW 41.26.030, without suspension of his or her benefit.

(3) If the retiree opts to reestablish membership under RCW 41.40.023(12), he or she terminates his or her retirement status and becomes a member. Retirement benefits shall not accrue during the period of membership and the individual shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180. However, if the right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service, the retirement formula and survivor options the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated.

Sec. 13. RCW 41.40.750 and 1998 c 341 s 113 are each amended to read as follows:
Effective September 1, 2000, the membership of all plan 2 members currently employed in eligible positions in a school district or educational service district and all plan 2 service credit for such members, is transferred to the Washington school employees' retirement system plan 2. Plan 2 members who have withdrawn their member contributions for prior plan 2 service may restore contributions and service credit to the Washington school employees' retirement system plan 2 as provided under RCW 41.40.740.

The membership and previous service credit of a plan 2 member not employed in an eligible position on September 1, 2000, will be transferred to the Washington school employees' retirement system plan 2 when he or she becomes employed in an eligible position. Plan 2 members not employed in an eligible position on September 1, 2000, who have withdrawn their member contributions for prior plan 2 service may restore contributions and service credit to the Washington school employees' retirement system plan 2 as provided under RCW 41.40.740.

(a) The membership and previous service credit of a plan 2 member last employed by a school district or educational service district and retired prior to September 1, 2000, will be transferred to the Washington school employees' retirement system plan 2 if the member opts to reestablish membership.

Members who restore contributions and service credit under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall have their contributions and service credit transferred to the Washington school employees' retirement system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Except for section 12 of this act which takes effect December 31, 2004, this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect July 1, 2001.

Senator Zarelli demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.
Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Kline, what can we accomplish by this bill going back to committee that we could not do by debate during this session?"
Senator Kline: "Well, it is the kind of bill that I think needs a little bit more thought. It is a political sensitive issue. We are talking about outlawing any kind of sexual contact between people of relatively similar ages. Those ages being over the age of consent. I don't think this is the kind of thing we need to have a floor debate on until we have had the opportunity to go over this in committee. When the original bill, the underlying bill, was in committee there were any numbers of opinions voiced by the eleven members of the Judiciary. I don't know that we want to have this debate on the floor. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Betti Sheldon to refer House Bill No. 2262 to the Committee on Judiciary.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 6188, by Senators Prentice, Swecker, Haugen, McDonald, Gardner, Horn, Rasmussen and Deccio

Streamlining the environmental permit process for transportation projects.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Prentice moved the following striking amendment by Senators Prentice and Swecker be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT AND FINDINGS. The legislature finds that the public health and safety of its citizens, the natural resources, and the environment are vital interests of the state that need to be protected and preserved. The legislature further finds that the safety of the traveling public and the state's economic well-being are vital interests that depend upon the development of cost-effective and efficient transportation systems planned, designed, constructed, and maintained through expedited permit decision-making processes.

It is the intent of the legislature to achieve transportation permit reform that expedites the delivery of statewide significant transportation projects through a streamlined approach to environmental permit decision making. To optimize the limited resources available for transportation system improvements and environmental protection, state regulatory and natural resource agencies, public and private sector interests, Indian tribes, and the department of transportation must work cooperatively to establish common goals, minimize project delays, develop consistency in the application of environmental standards, maximize environmental benefits through coordinated investment strategies, and eliminate duplicative processes through assigned responsibilities of selected permit drafting and compliance activities between state and federal agencies.

Therefore, the transportation permit efficiency and accountability committee is created. The committee shall integrate current environmental standards, but may not create new environmental standards. The committee shall conduct three environmental permit streamlining pilot projects and create a process to develop general permits. Additionally, the committee shall seek federal delegation to the state where appropriate to streamline transportation projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context indicates otherwise.

(1) "Assigned responsibilities" means those components of developing and implementing environmental permits, including but not limited to, environmental review and assessment, selected permit drafting, and selected on-site compliance activities that may be conducted by the department.

(2) "Best available information" means the existing sources of data, including limiting factors analyses required under chapter 77.85 ROW that can be used to make informed decisions regarding environmental conditions within a watershed.
(3) "Best management practices" means currently available and generally accepted techniques, including new technologies or strategies that seek to reduce the negative impacts of transportation facilities, projects, and services on communities and the environment, and promote more efficient and effective use of transportation facilities.

(4) "Committee" means the transportation permit efficiency and accountability committee created in section 3 of this act.

(5) "Least cost planning" means the use of best available information within a watershed basin applied to transportation decision making in the planning, permit decision making, and mitigation phases of a project.

(6) "Low-impact development project" means an activity or series of actions that conform to a comprehensive land use planning and engineering design approach with a goal of maintaining or restoring existing natural habitat functions and hydrologic regime of urban and developing watersheds. These projects incorporate strategic watershed planning with site-specific management techniques to reduce development impacts to better replicate natural watershed hydrology and water quality, while allowing for development or infrastructure rehabilitation to occur.

(7) "One-stop permit decision making" means a coordinated permit decision-making process that streamlines environmental review and permit decision making for transportation projects by providing concurrent, consolidated review by each agency required to review the project.

(8) "Programmatic approach" means a permit or other action that covers a geographic or statewide area and applies to a variety of projects, activities, or locales. A programmatic approach may allow actions to proceed without individual approval by each permit decision-making agency.

(9) "Transportation project of statewide significance" means a surface transportation project or combination of surface transportation projects, that crosses multiple city or county jurisdictional boundaries or connects major state destinations in support of the state’s economy and is so designated by the department of transportation and approved by the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives. The transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives may also jointly designate these projects. The pilot projects established in this chapter are examples of transportation projects of statewide significance, but transportation projects of statewide significance are not limited to the pilot projects.

(10) "Watershed" means a water resource inventory area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. TRANSPORTATION PERMIT EFFICIENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY COMMITTEE. The transportation permit efficiency and accountability committee is created.

(1) The committee consists of nine voting members, including two members from the house of representatives, one from each of the two largest caucuses; two senators, one from each of the two largest caucuses; one member designated by the secretary of transportation; one member designated by the director of fish and wildlife; one member designated by the director of ecology; one member designated by the Association of Washington Cities; and one member designated by the Washington State Association of Counties. The committee shall elect a chair from the four legislators appointed to the committee.

(2) The committee also includes eight nonvoting members, including one member designated by the Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission; one member designated by the Columbia River Intertribal Fisheries Commission; one member designated by the Consulting Engineers Council of Washington; one member designated by the Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission; one member designated by the Washington State Building and Construction Trades Council; one member designated by statewide environmental organizations; and one member designated by the State Fish and Wildlife Commission, to represent the interests of citizens engaged in fish and wildlife recovery.

(3) A representative from the department of natural resources and representatives from federal regulatory and transportation agencies, including the Environmental Protection Agency, National Marine Fisheries Service, United States Army Corps of Engineers, Federal Highways Administration, and United States Fish and Wildlife Service must be invited to participate in committee deliberations as nonvoting members.

(4) The committee may create technical subcommittees as needed. Technical subcommittees created for a specific pilot project or pilot projects must include, but are not limited to, representatives of local governments from jurisdictions affected by those projects. Recommendations made by a technical subcommittee must be approved by a majority of the voting members of the committee.

(5) Nonvoting members will not be compensated but will receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(6) The department of transportation office of environmental affairs shall provide administrative and clerical assistance to the committee.

(7) No vote of the committee may overrule existing statutes, regulations, or local ordinances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES. (1) The committee and its authorized technical subcommittees shall develop a one-stop permit decision-making process that uses interdisciplinary review of transportation projects of statewide significance to streamline and expedite permit decision making. The committee shall collaborate with appropriate agencies and parties to identify existing environmental standards, to assess the application of those standards, and develop an integrated permitting process based upon environmental standards and best management practices, which may use prescriptive or performance standards, for transportation projects of statewide significance that can be applied with certainty, consistency, and assurance of swift permit action, while taking into account the varying environmental conditions throughout the state.

(2) The committee shall give notice to the legislative authority of each affected county and city of the projects that are designated as transportation projects of statewide significance.

(3) The committee shall create a technical subcommittee with representation at a minimum from the department of fish and wildlife, the department of ecology, and the department of transportation.

(a) Within six months from the first meeting of the committee, the subcommittee shall create a process to develop a programmatic approach for transportation projects. The committee shall review the department's construction project list to determine which projects or activities may be included in the programmatic approach and develop agreements to cover those projects or activities. At a minimum, this process must require that decisions on minor variations to the requirements of a programmatic approach must be provided by the permit decision-making agencies within twenty-one days of submittal.

(b) The technical subcommittee's recommendations must be approved by a majority of the voting members of the committee.

(3) The committee shall explore the development of a consolidated local permit process.
(4) The committee shall develop and prioritize a list of permit streamlining opportunities, specifically identifying substantive and procedural duplications and recommendations for resolving those duplications. The committee shall evaluate current laws and regulations and develop recommendations on ways to minimize the lapsing of permits. The committee shall evaluate flexible approaches that maximize transportation and environmental interests and make recommendations regarding where those approaches should be implemented. The committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 15, 2002.

(5) The committee shall undertake the following activities to develop a watershed approach to environmental mitigation:

(a) Develop methodologies for analyzing environmental impacts and applying compensatory mitigation consistent with a watershed-based approach before final design, including least cost methodology and low-impact development methodology;

(b) Assess models to collate and access watershed data to support early agency involvement in transportation planning and reviews under the national Environmental Policy Act and the State Environmental Policy Act; and

(c) Use existing best available information from watershed planning efforts, lead entities, regional fisheries enhancement groups, and other recognized entities as deemed appropriate by the committee, to determine potential mitigation requirements for projects within a watershed. Priority consideration should be given to the use of the state's alternative mitigation policy guidance to best link transportation mitigation needs with local watershed and lead entity project lists.

(6) The committee shall seek federal delegation to the state where appropriate to streamline permit processes for transportation projects of statewide significance including: Delegation of section 404 permit authority under the Clean Water Act; nonfederal lead agency status under the federal Endangered Species Act; section 106 cultural resource designation under the National Historic Preservation Act; and other appropriate authority that when delegated should result in permit streamlining.

(7) The committee shall develop a dispute resolution process to resolve conflicts in interpretation of environmental standards and best management practices, mitigation requirements, permit requirements, assigned responsibilities, and other related issues by September 1, 2001. The dispute resolution process may not abrogate or supplant any appeal right of any party under existing statutes. The dispute resolution process must be designed to include federal agencies if they choose to participate.

(8) The committee shall develop preliminary models and strategies for agencies to test how best to maximize the environmental investment of transportation funds on a watershed basis. After agencies test the models and strategies developed by the committee, the committee shall evaluate the models and strategies and make recommendations to the legislature.

(9) The committee shall develop a consistent methodology for the timely and predictable submittal and evaluation of completed plans and specifications detailing project elements that impact environmental resources as well as proposed mitigation measures during the preliminary specifications and engineering phase of project development and submit information on the consistent methodology to the legislature.

(10) The committee shall provide a summary report to the legislature on September 15, 2001, and every six months thereafter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. PILOT PROJECTS. (1) The committee shall select and conduct permit reform pilot projects in three locales: (a) Urban near built-out conditions; (b) urban centers serving as crucial rural connectors; and (c) rural corridors critical to statewide economic productivity. The pilot projects must test the assignment of responsibilities such as selected permit drafting and selected compliance activities to the department.

(2) The committee shall commence efforts to apply streamlining lessons learned from the streamlined permit process for the pilot projects to as many other transportation projects of statewide significance as quickly as possible. In reporting to the legislature, the committee may recommend statutory or regulatory changes that would result in streamlining for future projects.

(3) The department and permitting agencies shall apply an interim interdisciplinary permit review process for the pilot projects as set forth in this section. This process must provide coordinated review and approval of permit applications; provide coordinated and consolidated public hearings where required by one or more regulatory agencies under state law; and coordinate timelines for permit decision making.

(4) The committee shall give notice to the legislative authority of each affected county and city of the projects the committee has designated as pilot projects. Each county and city notified must be offered the opportunity to participate in the pilot projects as described for in this chapter.

(5) The department shall provide funding assistance for participation in pilot projects.

(6) The committee shall develop a dispute resolution process to resolve conflicts in interpretation of environmental standards and best management practices, mitigation requirements, permit requirements, assigned responsibilities, the streamlined process for pilot projects set forth in this section, and other related issues by September 1, 2001. The dispute resolution process may not abrogate or supplant any appeal right of any party under existing statutes. The dispute resolution process must be designed to include federal agencies if they choose to participate. The dispute resolution process must be applied to the pilot projects.

(7) The streamlined process for the pilot projects must be based on the following model:

(a) Step 1: The department and permitting agencies will agree on coordination for environmental review under the state and national environmental policy acts, including document preparation, public comment opportunities, and timelines.

(b) Step 2: For each project, the department will convene a meeting of all entities with permitting authority to review:

(i) The proposed conceptual design for the project and alternative routes, construction approaches, or mitigation approaches;

(ii) All known reviewing entities, permit application and approval requirements, and timelines; and

(iii) A coordinated timeline that allows all statutory requirements to be met.

(c) Step 3: The department will draft all necessary permits to proceed with the preferred alternative using relevant agreements with permitting agencies.

(d) Step 4: The department will provide public notice in conformity with all applicable statutes and regulations and allow the required time for public hearings and written comments.

(e) Step 5: The department may revise the draft permits after consideration of public comments and applying all relevant agreed upon standards.

(f) Step 6: All permits will be disseminated to permitting agencies for final review. All reviews will be completed within forty-five days, at which time the permitting agencies will act upon the permit and either approve the permit or return it without approval.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. LOCAL GOVERNMENT PARTICIPATION. (1) This section establishes procedures for city, town, and county governments to participate in the processes identified in this chapter to provide for coordinated, multijurisdictional environmental review and permitting decisions for pilot projects and transportation projects of statewide significance.

(2) Each city, town, and county within whose boundaries is located or partially located one or more projects identified in subsection (1) of this section, shall elect whether or not to participate in coordinated processes for environmental review and permitting of those projects as required in this chapter. If the city, town, or county elects to participate, it may do so as either a participating entity or as an assigning entity.

(a) A city, town, or county electing to be considered as a participating entity, the committee must then include a representative designated by the city, town, or county in the coordinated review of the project. The department shall compensate the jurisdiction for technical support required for participation in the process. The jurisdiction will also be eligible for reimbursement for permit fees set by local ordinances and other agreed upon costs associated with the issuance of project permits.

(b) For the purposes of expediting the permit process, a city, town, or county may elect to assign its permit responsibilities under chapter 39.34 RCW to the department simultaneously with its notification to the department as specified in this section. The city, town, or county electing to assign its responsibilities shall enter into an agreement with the department to define the local permit requirements that must be met. Permits issued under the negotiated agreement are presumed to at least meet local environmental permit requirements. A city, town, or county choosing to use this option is eligible for a permit fee set by local ordinances associated with the issuance of the department permit.

(c) If the city, town, or county elects not to participate in the coordinated processes for the pilot projects designated in this chapter or transportation projects of statewide significance the department will issue the locally required permits, when allowable. The department shall comply with all provisions of city, town, and county ordinances, and the department permit approval is presumed to at least meet the local environmental review and permit requirements.

(d) Any city, town, or county shall notify the department within sixty days of receipt of the committee's notification of project designation, as to whether it elects to consider as a participating entity or an assigning entity, or elects not to participate in the coordinated process provided in this chapter.

(e) The committee shall review and evaluate the process by which local governments review and approve pilot projects and transportation projects of statewide significance, and shall provide recommendations to the legislative body to improve the coordination of the local process with state and federal reviews as part of the reports required by this chapter.

(f) A city, town, or county is not liable for decisions made by the department that result in a failure to comply with city, town, or county ordinances except as provided in the interlocal agreements, and the department shall defend and answer to any actions or complaints challenging the validity of permits issued under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. INTERIM PERMIT PROCESS. Until integrated standards and best management practices have been adopted by the committee, the department may initiate the following process for transportation projects of statewide significance, including projects requested by a project sponsor.

(1) Step 1: Conceptual description. The department will identify project purposes, the approximate location or alternative locations, and the federal, state, and local agencies that might have authority to review and approve the project or portions of it at any such locations, and a preliminary interagency communication list identifying agencies that may be interested in the proposed project and, where known, contact persons in such agencies. If the department is going to proceed with step 2 or to abandon the project, it may complete step 1 by: (a) Providing a summary of the outcome to all agencies on the list; and (b) making the summary available to the public.

(2) Step 2: Early involvement of other agencies. (a) At any time after completing step 1, the department will provide notice to all agencies on the interagency communication list and the public. Within thirty days, or a longer time if specified by the department, each state, local, and federal agency will be encouraged to identify:

(i) A primary contact person to coordinate future communications with the department and other interested agencies regarding the project, or indicate that it has no interest in the project and need not remain on the project information list;

(ii) Its role with respect to the proposed project;

(iii) Additional alternative locations the department should consider and the roles it would expect to have with the project at those locations;

(iv) Other agencies it believes should be added to the list for the project; and

(v) Other information the agency requests the department to consider.

(b) After all state and local agencies on the list have responded, or at least ten days after expiration of the specified response time, the department may complete step 2 by: (i) Proposing one or more conceptual designs for the project at a proposed location and any alternative locations then being considered; (ii) providing a summary of the results of step 2, including a statement that the department considers step 2 to be complete or complete except for specified issues remaining to be resolved with specified agencies, to all agencies on the interagency communication list; and (iii) making the summary available to the public.

(3) Step 3: Identify environmental reviews, permits, and other approvals, application procedures, and decision standards. (a) At any time after completing step 2, the department may initiate step 3 by notice to all agencies on the list and the public. This notice may include a threshold determination on whether an environmental impact statement (EIS) or supplemental EIS will be prepared or an environmental checklist and request for comments on what steps should be taken to comply with chapter 43.21C RCW, the State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA). Within thirty days, or a longer time if specified by the department, each state, local, and federal agency will be encouraged to identify:

(i) The procedures under which it expects environmental reviews of the project to occur;

(ii) All permits and other approvals it might require for the project at each alternative location and conceptual design;

(iii) What is needed for the department to file a complete application for each permit or other approval;
(iv) The laws, regulations, ordinances, and policies it would administer with respect to the project at each alternative location and conceptual design; and
(v) Other information the agency requests the department to consider in deciding whether, when, where, or how to proceed with the project.
(b) After all state and local agencies on the list have responded, or at least ten days after expiration of the specified response time, the department may complete step 3 by:
(i) Adopting a list of all environmental reviews, permits, and other approvals it believes are needed for the project under each alternative being considered;
(ii) Providing all agencies on the list a copy of that list and a summary of the other results of step 3, including a statement that the department considers step 3 to be complete or complete except for specified issues remaining to be resolved with specified agencies; and
(iii) Making the list and summary available to the public.
(c) The list and summary will be presumed to accurately identify all environmental reviews, permits, and other approvals needed for each alternative described, what is required for applications to be considered complete, and the standards under which applications will be reviewed and approved, unless an aggrieved agency or person files objections within thirty days after the list and summary are distributed.

(4) Step 4: Tentative selection of preferred alternative. (a) At any time after completing step 3, the department may initiate step 4 by notice to all agencies on the list and the public. This notice may be accompanied by a scoping notice for an EIS or supplemental EIS or, if available, be accompanied by a draft EIS or supplemental EIS. It also may be accompanied by the department's preliminary analysis of the advantages and disadvantages of each identified alternative, or other information that may be helpful to other interested agencies and the public in identifying advantages and disadvantages. Within fourteen days, or a longer time if specified by the department, each state, local, and federal agency will be encouraged to identify:
(i) For each identified alternative, the specific features it considers significant with respect to its role in environmental reviews, permits, or other approvals for the project; the reasons these features are significant, and any concerns it may have about the alternative because of potential adverse impacts of these features on resources or social policies within its jurisdiction;
(ii) For each feature for which it raises concerns, recommendations on how the potential adverse impacts could be avoided, minimized, and mitigated;
(iii) For each feature for which it raises concerns, an assessment of the relative ranking of each alternative with respect to whether and to what extent these concerns apply;
(iv) Recommendations the agency may have as to which alternatives should be retained or dropped from further consideration, and ways in which alternatives might be modified or combined to address its concerns, recognizing that final decisions can be made only through the applicable environmental review, permit, and other approval processes and the agency making them is not bound with respect to any future decisions it may make regarding the project;
(v) Other information the agency requests the department to consider in deciding whether, when, where, or how to proceed with the project.
(b) After all state and local agencies on the list have responded, or at least ten days after expiration of the specified response time, the department may complete step 4 by:
(i) Selecting a preferred alternative for purposes of all environmental reviews, permits, and other approvals needed for the project;
(ii) Providing all agencies on the list a description of the preferred alternative and summary of the other results of step 4, including a statement that the department considers step 4 to be complete or complete except for specified issues remaining to be resolved with specified agencies; and
(iii) Making the preferred alternative and summary available to the public. The preferred alternative will be identified in all environmental reviews, permits, and other approvals for the project; the reasons these features are significant, and any concerns it may have about the alternative because of potential adverse impacts of these features on resources or social policies within its jurisdiction;
(iv) Recommendations the agency may have as to which alternatives should be retained or dropped from further consideration, and ways in which alternatives might be modified or combined to address its concerns, recognizing that final decisions can be made only through the applicable environmental review, permit, and other approval processes and the agency making them is not bound with respect to any future decisions it may make regarding the project;
(v) Other information the agency requests the department to consider in deciding whether, when, where, or how to proceed with the project.

(5) Step 5: Completing environmental reviews and applications for permits and other approvals. (a) At any time after completing step 4, the department may initiate step 5 by notice to all agencies on the list and the public. A draft EIS or supplemental EIS, the department's draft plans and specifications for the project, and draft applications for some or all permits and other approvals may be provided with the notice or when they subsequently become available. Within thirty days, or a longer time if specified by the department, each state, local, and federal agency will be encouraged to identify:
(i) All concerns it previously raised regarding the alternative, and other alternatives still under consideration, that have not been resolved to its satisfaction;
(ii) Additional concerns it may have, particularly concerns resulting from additional information about the project location and design, and other new information received since the completion of step 4;
(iii) Additional environmental reviews, permits, or other approvals needed for the preferred alternative because of changes in laws, regulations, or policies or changes in the project location or design since these issues were last reviewed in step 3 or 4;
(iv) Changes in applicable requirements for complete applications for permits or other approvals under its jurisdiction since these issues were last reviewed in step 3 or 4;
(v) Other changes in applicable laws, regulations, ordinances, or policies administered by the agency since these issues were last reviewed in step 3 or 4;
(b) After all state and local agencies on the list have responded, or at least ten days after expiration of the specified response time, the department may complete step 5 by:
(i) Completing some or all environmental review processes and draft application forms for permits and other approvals that it reasonably believes to be complete;
(ii) Providing all agencies on the interagency communication list with environmental review and application documents and a summary of the other results of step 5, including a statement that the department considers step 5 to be complete or complete except for specified issues remaining to be resolved with specified agencies; and
(iii) Making the completed environmental review documents and summary available to the public. The preferred alternative will be identified in all environmental reviews, permits, and other approvals needed for the project.
(c) However, if an interested agency or aggrieved person files objections within fourteen days after the preferred alternative and summary are distributed, the objections will be addressed in subsequent environmental reviews and agency decision-making regarding the project.

(6) Step 6: Completing the environmental review, permit, and other approval processes. (a) At any time after completing step 5, the department may initiate step 6 by notice to all agencies on the list and the public and filing applications for some or all permits and other approvals needed for the project. Within thirty days, or a longer time if specified by the department, each state, local, and federal agency will be encouraged to:

(i) Acknowledge receipt of draft environmental review documents provided to them and provide comments on them;
(ii) Acknowledge receipt of final environmental review documents and determine that they are adequate for purposes of their roles regarding the project or specify what additional information or changes are needed for them to be considered adequate;
(iii) Acknowledge receipt of each application filed with them and determine that the application is complete or specify what additional information or changes are needed for it to be considered complete;
(iv) Acknowledge that the applications submitted to them will be processed under the laws, regulations, ordinances, and policies previously identified under steps 3, 4, and 5 or specify what changes have occurred in the governing standards that were in effect on the date a complete application was filed and thus apply to the project;
(v) Identify the significant steps necessary for the agency to reach a final decision on applications and the estimated time needed for each step;
(vi) Identify ways its decision-making process might be made more efficient and effective through additional coordination with other agencies, with any recommendations for such methods as joint solicitation and review of public comments and jointly conducting public hearings.

(b) It is recognized that step 6 may require an iterative process with several drafts of various environmental review documents and applications being considered and revised, and that changes in project location or design resulting from the permit decisions of one agency may require revising applications or even reopening permit decisions of other agencies. All state and local agencies are expected, and federal agencies are encouraged, to communicate and cooperate to minimize the number of iterations required and make the process as efficient and effective as possible. Unless significant new information is obtained, decisions made under step 6 should not be reopened except at the request of the department, and the most recent information available under steps 3, 4, and 5 should be presumed accurate until significant new information becomes available.

(c) If all environmental reviews have not been completed and all permits and other approvals obtained within forty-five days after step 6 is initiated, the department, by notice to all agencies on the list and the public, may set a deadline for completing reviews and decisions. At any time after the deadline, the department may terminate the coordination process of this section as to some or all of the reviews and decisions that are still not completed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. DEPARTMENT ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS. The legislature finds that an essential component of streamlined permit decision making is the ability of the department to demonstrate the capacity to meet environmental responsibilities. Therefore, the legislature directs that:

(1) The department may amend its operating practices applicable to obtaining project permits when:
(a) Agreements on standards or best management practices as appropriate, are reached under section 4 of this act;
(b) The committee determines that streamlining procedures and methodologies implemented for pilot projects consistent with section 5 of this act warrant broader application;
(c) The committee determines that the assignment of responsibilities between regulating agencies and the department is appropriate for broader use.

(2) The department may develop permits for review by permitting agencies when agreement on the standards and best management practices covered by such permits have been reached under section 4 of this act. Regulating agencies shall review permits based upon the agreed upon standards and timelines developed in section 4 of this act, as well as any other applicable existing standards.

(3) Qualified environmental staff within the department shall lead the development of all environmental documentation associated with department projects and permit activities in accordance with the department's project delivery tools.

(4) The department shall conduct special prebid meetings for projects that are environmentally complex. In addition, the department shall review environmental considerations related to these projects during the preconstruction meeting held with the contractor who is awarded the bid.

(5) Environmental staff at the department shall conduct field inspections to ensure that project activities are performed under permit conditions. These inspectors:
(a) May issue stop work orders when compliance with permit standards are not being met; and
(b) For this portion of their job duties, are accountable to the director of environmental affairs of the department.

(6) Failure to comply with a stop work order may result in civil penalties being assessed against the department and individuals involved. Willful violation of a stop work notice issued by the department is subject to civil penalties assessed on the agency as well as the individuals involved. Persistent violations by the department may result in loss of permit drafting and program management responsibilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. TRAINING AND COMPLIANCE. The legislature expects the department to continue its efforts to improve training and compliance. The department shall:

(1) Provide training in environmental procedures and permit requirements for those responsible for project delivery activities;
(2) Require wetland mitigation sites to be designed by a qualified interdisciplinary team that meets training requirements developed by the department's environmental affairs office in consultation with the department of ecology. Environmental mitigation site improvements must have oversight by environmental staff;
(3) Develop an environmental compliance data system to track all permit conditions;
(4) Report all noncompliance activities to applicable agencies of jurisdiction along with a remedy plan;
(5) Fund the departments of ecology, natural resources, and fish and wildlife, operating under their permit-granting authority to conduct audits of the department's permit drafting and compliance activities. The department of ecology must collate the audits in an annual report to the legislature;
Seek federal funding for dedicated technical staff at federal permit decision-making agencies and for state costs associated with implementation of this act;
(7) Fund dedicated technical staff at federal permit decision-making entities, as appropriate, and the state departments of ecology, natural resources, community, trade, and economic development, and fish and wildlife to implement the requirements of this chapter;
(8) Fund a technical specialist at the Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission and the Columbia River Intertribal Fisheries Commission for the purpose of implementing this chapter;
(9) Reimburse local jurisdictions for costs associated with local participation on the committee and technical subcommittees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. COST REIMBURSEMENT. The committee shall negotiate a method of cost reimbursement for the costs associated with carrying out the purposes of this chapter, including prior departmental agreements with permitting agencies to cover their costs for transportation projects of statewide significance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. CAPTIONS. Captions used in this chapter are not any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 11 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 47 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act expires March 31, 2003.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately.

"Sec. 1. RCW 28A.655.060 and 1999 c 373 s 501 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The Washington commission on student learning is hereby established. The primary purposes of the commission are to identify the knowledge and skills all public school students need to know and be able to do based on the student learning goals in RCW 28A.150.210, to develop student assessment and school accountability systems, to review current school district data reporting requirements and make recommendations on what data is necessary for the purposes of accountability and meeting state information needs, and to take other steps necessary to develop a performance-based education system. The commission shall include three members of the state board of education, three members appointed by the governor before July 1, 1992, and five members appointed no later than June 1, 1993, by the governor elected in the November 1992 election. The governor shall appoint a chair from the commission members, and fill any vacancies in gubernatorial appointments that may occur. The state board of education shall fill any vacancies of state board of education appointments that may occur. In making the appointments, educators, business leaders, and parents shall be represented, and nominations from statewide education, business, and parent organizations shall be requested. Efforts shall be made to ensure that the commission reflects the racial and ethnic diversity of the state's K-12 student population and that the major geographic regions in the state are represented. Appointees shall be qualified individuals who are supportive of educational restructuring, who have a positive record of service, and who will devote sufficient time to the responsibilities of the commission to ensure that the objectives of the commission are achieved.

(2) The commission shall establish advisory committees. Membership of the advisory committees shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, professionals from the office of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education, and other state and local educational practitioners and student assessment specialists.

(3) The commission, with the assistance of the advisory committees, shall:

(a) Develop essential academic learning requirements based on the student learning goals in RCW 28A.150.210. Essential academic learning requirements shall be developed, to the extent possible, for each of the student learning goals in RCW 28A.150.210. Goals one and two shall be considered primary. Essential academic learning requirements for RCW 28A.150.210(1), goal one, and the mathematics component of RCW 28A.150.210(2), goal two, shall be completed no later than March 1, 1992. Essential academic learning requirements that incorporate the remainder of RCW 28A.150.210 (2), (3), and (4), goals two, three, and four, shall be completed no later than March 1, 1995. To the maximum extent possible, the commission shall integrate goal four and the knowledge and skill areas in the other goals in the development of the essential academic learning requirements;

(b)(i) The commission and superintendent of public instruction shall develop a statewide academic assessment system for use in the elementary, middle, and high school years designed to determine if each student has learned the essential academic learning requirements identified in (a) of this subsection. The academic assessment system shall include a variety of assessment methods, including criterion-referenced and performance-based measures. Performance standards for determining if a student has successfully completed an assessment shall be determined by the commission and the superintendent of public instruction in consultation with the advisory committees required in subsection (2) of this section.

(ii) The assessment system shall be designed so that the results under the assessment system are used by educators as tools to evaluate instructional practices, and to initiate appropriate educational support for students who have not learned the essential academic learning requirements at the appropriate periods in the student's educational development.

(iii) Assessments measuring the essential academic learning requirements shall be available for voluntary use by school districts and shall be required to be administered by school districts according to the following schedule unless the legislature takes action to delay or prevent implementation of the assessment system and essential academic learning requirements.

The completed assessments and assessments still in development shall be transferred by the commission on student learning to the superintendent of public instruction by June 30, 1999.

(v) To the maximum extent possible, the commission and the superintendent of public instruction shall integrate knowledge and skill areas in development of the assessments.

Assessments for goals three and four of RCW 28A.150.210 shall be integrated in the essential academic learning requirements and assessments for goals one and two.

(v) The commission on student learning may modify the essential academic learning requirements and the assessments, as needed, before June 30, 1999. The superintendent of public instruction may modify the essential academic learning requirements and the assessments, as needed, after June 30, 1999. The commission and superintendent shall, upon request, provide opportunities for the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate to review the assessments and proposed modifications to the essential academic learning requirements before the modifications are adopted.

(vi) The commission and the superintendent of public instruction shall develop assessments that are directly related to the essential academic learning requirements, and are not biased toward persons with different learning styles, racial or ethnic backgrounds, or on the basis of gender;

(c) After a determination is made by the state board of education that the high school assessment system has been implemented and that it is sufficiently reliable and valid, successful completion of the high school assessment shall lead to a certificate of mastery. The certificate of mastery shall be obtained by most students at about the age of sixteen, and is evidence that the student has successfully mastered the essential academic learning requirements during his or her educational career. The certificate of mastery shall be required for graduation but shall not be the only requirement for graduation. The commission shall make recommendations to the state board of education regarding the relationship between the certificate of mastery and high school graduation requirements. Upon achieving the certificate of mastery, schools shall provide students with the opportunity to pursue career and educational objectives through educational pathways that emphasize integration of academic and vocational education. Educational pathways may include, but are not limited to, programs such as work-based learning, school-to-work transition, tech prep, vocational-technical education, running start, and preparation for technical college, community college, or university education. Any middle school, junior high school, or high school using educational pathways shall ensure that all participating students will continue to have access to the courses and instruction necessary to meet admission requirements at baccalaureate institutions. Students shall be allowed to enter the educational pathway of their choice. Before accepting a student into an educational pathway, the school shall inform the student’s parent of the pathway chosen, the opportunities available to the student through the pathway, and the career objectives the student will have exposure to while pursuing the pathway. Parents and students dissatisfied with the opportunities available through the selected educational pathway shall be provided with the opportunity to transfer the student to any other pathway provided in the school. Schools may not develop educational pathways that retain students in high school beyond the date they are eligible to graduate, and may not require students who transfer between pathways to complete pathway requirements beyond the date the student is eligible to graduate;

(d) Consider methods to address the unique needs of special education students when developing the assessments in (b) and (c) of this subsection;

(e) Consider methods to address the unique needs of highly capable students when developing the assessments in (b) and (c) of this subsection;

(f) Develop recommendations on the time, support, and resources, including technical assistance, needed by schools and school districts to help students achieve the essential academic learning requirements. These recommendations shall include an estimate for the legislature, superintendent of public instruction, and governor on the expected cost of implementing the academic assessment system;
(g) Develop recommendations for consideration by the higher education coordinating board for adopting college and university entrance requirements for public school students that are consistent with the essential academic learning requirements and the certificate of mastery;
(h) Review current school district data reporting requirements for the purposes of accountability and meeting state information needs. The commission on student learning shall report recommendations to the joint select committee on education restructuring by September 15, 1996, on:
(i) What data is necessary to compare how school districts are performing before the essential academic learning requirements and the assessment system are implemented with how school districts are performing after the essential academic learning requirements and the assessment system are implemented; and
(ii) What data is necessary pertaining to school district reports under the accountability systems developed by the commission on student learning under this section;
(i) Recommend to the legislature, governor, state board of education, and superintendent of public instruction:
(ii) A statewide accountability system to monitor and evaluate accurately and fairly at elementary, middle, and high schools the level of learning occurring in individual schools and school districts with regard to the goals included in RCW 28A.150.210 (1) through (4). The accountability system must assess each school individually against its own baseline, schools with similar characteristics, and schools statewide. The system shall include school-site, school district, and state-level accountability reports;
(iii) An awards program to provide incentives to school staff to help their students learn the essential academic learning requirements, with each school being assessed individually against its own baseline, schools with similar characteristics, and the statewide average. Incentives shall be based on the rate of percentage change of students achieving the essential academic learning requirements and progress on meeting the statewide average. School staff shall determine how the awards will be spent.

The commission shall make recommendations regarding a statewide accountability system for reading in grades kindergarten through four by November 1, 1997. Recommendations for an accountability system in the other subject areas and grade levels shall be made no later than June 30, 1999;
(i) Report annually by December 1st to the legislature, the governor, the superintendent of public instruction, and the state board of education on the progress, findings, and recommendations of the commission; and
(k) Make recommendations to the legislature and take other actions necessary or desirable to help students meet the student learning goals.

(4) The commission shall coordinate its activities with the state board of education and the office of the superintendent of public instruction.

(5) The commission shall seek advice broadly from the public and all interested educational organizations in the conduct of its work, including holding periodic regional public hearings.

(6) The commission shall select an entity to provide staff support and the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall provide administrative oversight and be the fiscal agent for the commission. The commission may direct the office of the superintendent of public instruction to enter into subcontracts, within the commission's resources, with school districts, teachers, higher education faculty, state agencies, business organizations, and other individuals and organizations to assist the commission in its deliberations.

(7) Members of the commission shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.
(i) By September 30, 1997, the commission on student learning, the state board of education, and the superintendent of public instruction shall jointly present recommendations to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate regarding the high school assessments, the certificate of mastery, and high school graduation requirements.

In preparing recommendations, the commission on student learning shall convene an ad hoc working group to address questions, including:
(i) What type of document shall be used to identify student performance and achievement and how will the document be described?
(ii) What data is necessary to compare how school districts are performing before the essential academic learning requirements and the assessment system are implemented with how school districts are performing after the essential academic learning requirements and the assessment system are implemented; and
(iii) How will the criteria for establishing the standards for passing scores on the assessments be determined?
(iv) What timeline should be used in phasing-in the assessments as a graduation requirement?
(v) What options may be used in demonstrating how the results of the assessments will be displayed in a way that is meaningful to students, parents, institutions of higher education, and potential employers?
(vi) Are there other or additional methods by which the assessments could be used to identify achievement such as endorsements, standards of proficiency, merit badges, or levels of achievement?
(vii) Should the assessments and certificate of mastery be used to satisfy college or university entrance criteria for public school students? If yes, how should these methods be phased-in?

(b) The ad hoc working group shall report its recommendations to the commission on student learning, the state board of education, and the superintendent of public instruction by June 15, 1997. The commission shall report the ad hoc working group's recommendations to the education committees of the house of representatives and senate by July 15, 1997. Final recommendations of the commission on student learning, the state board of education, and the superintendent of public instruction shall be presented to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 30, 1997.

(9) The Washington commission on student learning shall expire on June 30, 1999."
MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Eide, the following title amendment was adopted
On page 1, line 1 of the title, after “timelines;” strike the remainder of the title and insert “and amending RCW 28A.655.060.”

On motion of Senator Eide, the rules were suspended, Second Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5686, under suspension of the rules, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Carlson: “Senator Eide, there was a small change in the middle school figuring and some of our folks did not know about that. Could you explain that item please?”

Senator Eide: “Was that your amendment, sir, about social studies?”

Senator Carlson: “No, it was the middle school--the middle school area. It was the timeline requested by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.”

Senator Eide: “Oh yes, it was regarding the science timelines. That was the one where I did the error. It should be 2002, 2003. That is a change from 2001, 2002. Thank you for that clarification.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kohl-Welles: “Senator Hochstatter, I am curious about this study that you have that indicates that the tests are biased in favor of the girls, because every standardized test that I know of has the male students going, overall, at higher rates than the females. There has been a lot of research that has indicated that gender bias, in fact, when it does exist--exists in terms of bias against female students.” Senator Hochstatter: “As soon you ask me a question, I will talk again.”

Senator Kohl-Welles: “I did ask you a question. What study are you referring to?”

Senator Hochstatter: “Thank you for asking that, Senator Kohl-Welles. The data that I have here--and forgive me for brutalizing you again--the data that I have here came from OSPI. This is their data. These are state scores put together from all across the state. What really gets in my craw, they knew it, why wasn't there a press release sent out?”

Senator Kohl-Welles: “Senator Hochstatter, so the scores show that female students scored higher? It is not the study you are referring to that is saying there is bias in the test?”

Senator Hochstatter: “Yes. If I could proceed just a little bit more here. The reading test is answered with one word, but the math test-- and understand that this is where us macho-types do well--the math test requires whole sentences or even paragraphs to answer.”

Senator Kohl-Welles: “How shocking!”

Senator Hochstatter: “Well, or how biased--because us wonderful male egos are level by the writing requirement in the math exam.”

Senator Kohl-Welles: “So--”

Senator Hochstatter: “I think we are going to have to get together.”

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: “Senator Hochstatter, seriously do you think that perhaps that this is very valuable information that can help our public educators to come to terms with the fact that male children, perhaps, could benefit from different teaching techniques or different techniques that they are receiving in the public school system? As a mother of a male child, I know that he was different in the way he learned and maybe it is not the test’s fault, but this is a clue and this is something we can learn from?”

Senator Hochstatter: “Thank you, Senator Patterson. I don't whole heartedly agree. I am trying to get information on the CTBS, the IOWA, the NAEP, the ACT, the SAT, so that we can compare those and say, 'Do they all show a gender bias?’ If they do, then we can say, 'Yes, we are learning something.' I am blaming the WSAF for having that gender bias. It is generally worked out of other tests and so, yes, we do learn differently. I think whatever that test is, it is exaggerated by that, so, thank you for asking.”

  The powers and duties of the academic achievement and accountability commission shall include, but are not limited to the following:
  (1) For purposes of statewide accountability, the commission shall:
    (a) Adopt and revise:
      (i) Performance improvement goals in reading, writing, science, and mathematics by subject and grade level as the commission deems appropriate to improve student learning, once assessments in these subjects are required statewide. (1) The superintendent of public instruction, based on the criteria established by the academic achievement and accountability commission, shall annually analyze student assessment results. The analysis shall include, but need not be limited to, consideration of the levels of achievement and levels of improvement on criterion-referenced and norm-referenced assessments required to meet goals and achievement levels determined by the academic achievement and accountability commission. The purposes of the analysis shall be:

(6) The superintendent of public instruction shall report annually to the legislative committees on education regarding the implementation of the performance agreements and intervention plans, including any barriers to improving student learning that school districts have encountered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. FOCUSED ASSISTANCE PROCESS. (1) If a school is eligible for focused assistance, annually by November 1st, the superintendent of public instruction shall notify the school district within which the school is located of such eligibility.

The duration of a performance agreement shall be two school years.

Before final approval of a performance agreement shall be submitted to the academic achievement and accountability commission in a time frame that permits the commission to make recommendations for modifications to the terms of the agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. FOCUSED ASSISTANCE OPTIONS AND ACTIONS. (1) Focused assistance, as outlined in this chapter, shall be available to a school district on behalf of an eligible school to complete an educational audit, develop a school improvement plan, and implement a performance agreement. Focused assistance for performance agreement implementation may not be provided to a school district in a given academic year unless the agreement is approved within one hundred eighty calendar days of the date the district is notified by the superintendent of public instruction of focused assistance eligibility. Assistance may be obtained from third parties, such as personnel from colleges or universities, independent contractors, statewide education organizations, and educational service districts.

Each class I school district shall adopt a policy allowing the automatic intradistrict release and acceptance of students from schools that are in focused assistance under this section. If the school district board of directors determines that the automatic intradistrict transfer of a student under this section is an undue hardship, the school district may appeal that intradistrict transfer to the state board of education.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction may use focused assistance funds to assist a school if the superintendent of public instruction finds that funds currently available to the school are being used effectively, or will be reallocated to be used effectively under the terms of the performance agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. EVALUATION AND INTERVENTION. (1) The superintendent of public instruction, or the superintendent's designee, shall analyze the implementation of a performance agreement after the agreement has been in effect for one year. Upon completion, the superintendent shall provide the analysis to the school district and academic achievement and accountability commission. The focus of the analysis shall be the degree to which implementation benchmarks and timelines in the agreement have been met.

(2) Two years after a performance agreement is approved, the superintendent of public instruction shall evaluate progress on the performance agreement implementation benchmarks and the degree to which students in the school have met or exceeded the student performance expectations described in the agreement. The superintendent of public instruction shall recommend the implementation of an intervention plan if the superintendent finds that the school district and school are making insufficient progress in improving student learning or insufficient progress in implementation of the performance agreement.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall formally notify the school directors of the district of the results of the evaluation and the superintendent's recommendations to the commission.

(5) When the academic achievement and accountability commission has approved the superintendent of public instruction's recommendation to replace a performance agreement with an intervention plan:

(a) The superintendent of public instruction shall write, revise as necessary, and oversee the implementation of an intervention plan that may contain any action authorized by law that the superintendent of public instruction deems necessary to improve student learning;

(b) The school district shall implement each component of the intervention plan and report at least annually to parents, the community, the academic achievement and accountability commission, and the superintendent of public instruction on the district's progress in raising student achievement and on the implementation of the intervention plan; and

Each class I school district shall adopt a policy allowing the automatic intradistrict release and acceptance of students from schools that are in intervention under this section. If the school district board of directors determines that the automatic intradistrict transfer of a student under this section is an undue hardship, the school district may appeal that intradistrict transfer to the state board of education.

(7) One year after a school district has been released from an intervention plan, the school district shall report to the superintendent of public instruction on the district's progress in continuing to improve student achievement.

Sec. 8. RCW 28A.225.270 and 1990 1st ex.s. c 9 s 205 are each amended to read as follows:

While she bragged about having five from Shoreline, I had eleven from the Second Legislative District. Not only that, but Jim Boyce, who is a teacher at the White River School, was the 2001 Christa McAuliffe Fellowship Winner. That is over-all and he said that the award that he received two years ago, before he applied for the fellowship, was the single most important and exciting award that he has won. He said that you get accolades from your students, from parents, and your peers and the administration, but he said to have this state recognize you for this award was a real high achievement for him. He repeatedly wanted to thank, not only me, but the entire Senate and the Legislature for this award. I just wanted to share that with you. (2) "Appraisal" means the process of estimating the fair market value or reconstructing the historical cost of an asset acquired in a past period as performed by a professionally designated real estate appraiser without pecuniary interest in the property to be appraised. It includes a systematic, analytic determination and the recording and analyzing of property facts, rights, investments, and values based on a personal inspection and inventory of the property.

(3) "Arm's-length transaction" means a transaction resulting from good-faith bargaining between a buyer and seller who are not related organizations and have adverse positions in the market place. Sales or exchanges of nursing home facilities among two or more parties in which all parties subsequently continue to own one or more of the facilities involved in the transactions shall not be considered as arm's-length transactions for purposes of this chapter. Sale of a nursing home facility which is subsequently leased back to the seller within five years of the date of sale shall not be considered as an arm's-length transaction for purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Assets" means economic resources of the contractor, recognized and measured in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

(5) "Audit" or "department audit" means an examination of the records of a nursing facility participating in the Medicaid payment system, including but not limited to: The contractor's financial and statistical records, cost reports and all supporting documentation and schedules, receivables, and resident trust funds, to be performed as deemed necessary by the department and according to department rule.

(d) Any person who in the ordinary course of business is a pledgee of ownership interest under a written pledge agreement shall not be deemed to be the beneficial owner of such pledged ownership interest, the pledgee has taken all formal steps necessary which are required to declare a default and determines that the power to vote or to direct the vote or to dispose or to direct the disposition of such pledged ownership interest will be exercised; except that:

(ii) The pledgee agreement, prior to default, does not grant to the pledgee:
(A) The power to vote or to direct the vote of the pledged ownership interest; or

(1) Contractors shall be required to submit with each annual nursing facility cost report a proposed settlement report showing underspending or overspending in each component rate during the cost report year on a per-resident day basis. The department shall accept or reject the proposed settlement report, explain any adjustments, and issue a revised settlement report if needed.

(2) Contractors shall not be required to refund payments made in the operations, variable return, property, and (return on investment) financing allowance component rates in excess of the adjusted costs of providing services corresponding to these components.

(3) The facility will return to the department any overpayment amounts in each of the direct care, therapy care, and support services rate components that the department identifies following the audit and settlement procedures as described in this chapter, provided that the contractor may retain any overpayment that does not exceed 1.0% of the facility's direct care, therapy care, and support services component rate. However, no overpayments may be retained in a cost center to which savings have been shifted to cover a deficit, as provided in subsection (4) of this section. Facilities that are not in substantial compliance for more than ninety days, and facilities that provide substandard quality of care at any time, during the period for which settlement is being calculated, will not be allowed to retain any amount of overpayment in the facility's direct care, therapy care, and support services component rate. The terms "not in substantial compliance" and "substandard quality of care" shall be defined by federal survey regulations.

(4) Determination of unused rate funds, including the amounts of direct care, therapy care, and support services to be recovered, shall be done separately for each component rate, and, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, neither costs nor rate payments shall be shifted from one component rate or corresponding service area to another in determining the degree of underspending or recovery, if any. (((However,))) In computing a preliminary or final settlement, savings in the support services cost center (may) shall be shifted to cover a deficit in the direct care or therapy cost centers up to the amount of any savings((Not more than twenty percent of the rate in a cost center may be shifted), but more than twenty percent of the support services component rate may be shifted. In computing a preliminary or final settlement, savings in direct care and therapy care may be shifted to cover a deficit in these two cost centers up to the amount of savings in each, regardless of the percentage of either component rate shifted. Contractor-retained overpayments up to one percent of direct care, therapy care, and support services rate components, as authorized in subsection (3) of this section, shall be calculated and applied after all shifting is completed.

(5) Total and component payment rates assigned to a nursing facility, as calculated and revised, if needed, under the provisions of this chapter and those rules as the department may adopt, shall represent the maximum payment for nursing facility services rendered to medicaid recipients for the period the rates are in effect. No increase in payment to a contractor shall result from spending above the total payment rate or in any rate component.

(6) RCW 74.46.150 through 74.46.180, and rules adopted by the department prior to July 1, 1998, shall continue to govern the medicaid settlement process for periods prior to October 1, 1998, as if these statutes and rules remained in full force and effect.

(c) Costs associated with a capital expenditure subject to section 1122 approval (part 100, Title 42 C.F.R.) if the department found it was not consistent with applicable standards, criteria, or plans. (d) Costs associated with a construction or acquisition project requiring certificate of need approval, or exemption from the requirements for certificate of need for the replacement of existing nursing home beds, pursuant to chapter 70.38 RCW if such approval or exemption was not obtained;

(j) Bad debts of non-Title XIX recipients. Bad debts of Title XIX recipients are allowable if the debt is related to covered services, it arises from the recipient's required contribution toward the cost of care, the provider can establish that reasonable collection efforts were made, the debt was actually uncollectible when claimed as worthless, and sound business judgment established that there was no likelihood of recovery at any time in the future;

(b) The initial component rate allocations shall be subject to adjustment as provided in this section in order to assure that the statewide average payment rate to nursing facilities is less than or equal to the statewide average payment rate specified in the biennial appropriations act.

(3) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as creating a legal right or entitlement to any payment that (a) has not been adjusted under this section or (b) would cause the statewide average payment rate to exceed the statewide average payment rate specified in the biennial appropriations act.

(4)(a) The statewide average payment rate for the capital portion of the rate for any state fiscal year under the nursing facility medicaid payment system, weighted by patient days, shall not exceed the annual statewide weighted average nursing facility payment rate for the capital portion of the rate identified for that fiscal year in the biennial appropriations act.

(b) If the department determines that the weighted average nursing facility payment rate for the capital portion of the rate calculated in accordance with this chapter is likely to exceed the weighted average nursing facility payment rate for the capital portion of the rate identified in the biennial appropriations act, then the department shall adjust all nursing facility property and financing allowance payment rates proportional to the amount by which the weighted average rate allocations would otherwise exceed the budgeted capital portion of the rate amount. Any such adjustments shall only be made prospectively, not retrospectively, and shall be applied proportionately to each component rate allocation for each facility.

(5)(a) The statewide average payment rate (for the noncapital portion of the rate) for any state fiscal year under the nursing facility payment system, weighted by patient days, shall not exceed the annual statewide weighted average nursing facility payment rate (for the noncapital portion of the rate) identified for that fiscal year in the biennial appropriations act.

(b) If the department determines that the weighted average nursing facility payment rate (for the noncapital portion of the rate) calculated in accordance with this chapter is likely to exceed the weighted average nursing facility payment rate (for the noncapital portion of the rate) identified in the biennial appropriations act, then the department shall adjust all nursing facility (direct care, therapy care, support services, operations, and variable return) payment rates proportional to the amount by which the weighted average rate allocations would otherwise exceed the budgeted (noncapital portion of the rate) amount. Any such adjustments shall only be made prospectively, not retrospectively, and shall be applied proportionately to each (direct care, therapy care, support services, operations, and variable return) component rate allocation for each facility.

Sec. 5. RCW 74.46.431 and 1999 c 353 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Effective July 1, 1999, nursing facility medicaid payment rate allocations shall be facility-specific and shall have seven components: Direct care, therapy care, support services, operations, property, financing allowance, and variable return. The department shall establish and adjust each of these components, as provided in this section and elsewhere in this chapter, for each medicaid nursing facility in this state.

(2) Direct care component rate allocations for essential community providers as defined in this chapter shall be based upon a minimum facility occupancy of eighty-five percent of licensed beds, regardless of how many beds are set up or in use. For all facilities other than essential community providers, effective July 1, 2001, component rate allocations in direct care, therapy care, support services, variable return, operations, property, and financing allowance shall continue to be based upon a minimum facility occupancy of eighty-five percent of licensed beds. For all facilities other than essential community providers, effective July 1, 2002, the component rate allocations in operations, property, and financing allowance shall be based upon a minimum facility occupancy of ninety percent of licensed beds, regardless of how many beds are set up or in use.

(3) Information and data sources used in determining medicaid payment rate allocations, including formulas, procedures, cost report periods, resident assessment instrument formats, resident assessment methodologies, and resident classification and case mix weighting methodologies, may be substituted or altered from time to time as determined by the department.

(4)(a) Direct care component rate allocations shall be established using adjusted cost report data covering at least six months. Adjusted cost report data from 1996 will be used for October 1, 1998, through June 30, 2001, direct care component rate allocations; adjusted cost report data from 1999 will be used for July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2004, direct care component rate allocations.

(b) The initial component rate allocations shall be subject to adjustment as provided in this section in order to assure that the statewide average payment rate for nursing facilities is less than or equal to the statewide average payment rate specified in the biennial appropriations act.

(5)(a) Therapy care component rate allocations shall be established using adjusted cost report data covering at least six months. Adjusted cost report data from 1996 will be used for October 1, 1998, through June 30, 2001, therapy care component rate allocations; adjusted cost report data from 1999 will be used for July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2004, therapy care component rate allocations.

(b) The initial component rate allocations shall be subject to adjustment as provided in this section in order to assure that the statewide average payment rate for nursing facilities is less than or equal to the statewide average payment rate specified in the biennial appropriations act.

(6)(a) Support services component rate allocations shall be established using adjusted cost report data covering at least six months. Adjusted cost report data from 1996 shall be used for October 1, 1998, through June 30, 2001, support services component rate allocations; adjusted cost report data from 1999 shall be used for July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2004, support services component rate allocations.

(b) The initial component rate allocations shall be subject to adjustment as provided in this section in order to assure that the statewide average payment rate for nursing facilities is less than or equal to the statewide average payment rate specified in the biennial appropriations act.

(7)(a) Operations component rate allocations shall be established using adjusted cost report data covering at least six months. Adjusted cost report data from 1996 shall be used for October 1, 1998, through June 30, 2001, operations component rate allocations; adjusted cost report data from 1999 shall be used for July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2004, operations component rate allocations.

(b) The initial component rate allocations shall be subject to adjustment as provided in this section in order to assure that the statewide average payment rate for nursing facilities is less than or equal to the statewide average payment rate specified in the biennial appropriations act.
(8) For July 1, 1998, through September 30, 1998, a facility's property and return on investment component rates shall be the facility's June 30, 1998, property and return on investment component rates, without increase. For October 1, 1998, through June 30, 1999, a facility's property and return on investment component rates shall be rebased utilizing 1997 adjusted cost report data covering at least six months of data.
(9) Total payment rates under the nursing facility Medicaid payment system shall not exceed facility rates charged to the general public for comparable services.
(10) Medicaid contractors shall pay to all facility staff a minimum wage of the greater of ((five dollars and fifteen cents per hour)) the state minimum wage or the federal minimum wage.
(11) The department shall establish in rule procedures, principles, and conditions for determining component rate allocations for facilities in circumstances not directly addressed by this chapter, including but not limited to: The need to prorate inflation for partial-period cost report data, newly constructed facilities, existing facilities entering the medicare program for the first time or after a period of absence from the program, existing facilities with expanded new bed capacity, existing medicare facilities following a change of ownership of the nursing facility business, facilities banking beds or converting beds back into service, facilities temporarily reducing the number of set-up beds during a remodel, facilities having less than six months of either resident assessment, cost report data, or both, under the current contractor prior to rate setting, and other circumstances.
(12) The department shall establish in rule procedures, principles, and conditions, including necessary threshold costs, for adjusting rates to reflect capital improvements or new requirements imposed by the department or the federal government. Any such rate adjustments are subject to the provisions of RCW 74.46.421.
(13) Effective July 1, 2001, medicare rates shall continue to be revised downward in all components, in accordance with department rules, for facilities converting banked beds to active service under chapter 70.38 RCW, by using the facility's increased licensed bed capacity to recalculate minimum occupancy for rate setting. However, for facilities other than essential community providers which bank beds under chapter 70.38 RCW, after April 1, 2001, medicare rates shall be revised upward, in accordance with department rules, in direct care, therapy care, support services, and variable return components only, by using the facility's decreased licensed bed capacity to recalculate minimum occupancy for rate setting, but no upward revision shall be made to operations, property, or financing allowance component rates.
(14) Facilities obtaining a certificate of need or a certificate of need exemption under chapter 70.38 RCW after June 30, 2001, must have a certificate of capital authorization in order for (a) the depreciation resulting from the capitalized addition to be included in calculation of the facility's property component rate allocation; and (b) the net invested funds associated with the capitalized addition to be included in calculation of the facility's financing allowance rate allocation.
Sec. 6. RCW 74.46.433 and 1999 c 353 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The department shall establish for each medicare nursing facility a variable return component rate allocation. In determining the variable return allowance:
(a) The variable return array and percentage (assigned at the October 1, 1998, rate setting shall remain in effect until June 30, 2003)) shall be assigned whenever rebasing of noncapital rate allocations is scheduled under RCW 46.46.431 (4), (5), (6), and (7).
(b) To calculate the array of facilities for the July 1, 2001, rate setting, the department, without using peer groups, shall first rank all facilities in numerical order from highest to lowest according to each facility's examined and documented, but unlied, combined direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations per resident day cost from the 1999 cost report period.
However, before being combined with other per resident day costs and ranked, a facility's direct care cost per resident day shall be adjusted to reflect its facility average case mix index, to be averaged from the four calendar quarters of 1999, weighted by the facility's resident days from each quarter, under RCW 74.46.501(7)(b)(ii). The array shall then be divided into four quartiles, each containing, as nearly as possible, an equal number of facilities, and four percent shall be assigned to facilities in the lowest quartile, three percent to facilities in the next lowest quartile, two percent to facilities in the next highest quartile, and one percent to facilities in the highest quartile.
(c) The department shall (then), subject to (d) of this subsection, compute the variable return allowance by multiplying
(the appropriate) a facility's assigned percentage (amounts, which shall not be less than one percent and not greater than four percent,) by the sum of the facility's direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations (rate components. The percentage amounts will be based on groupings of facilities according to the rankings prescribed in (a) of this subsection, as applicable. Those groups of facilities with lower per diem costs shall receive higher percentage amounts than those with higher per diem costs) component dates determined in accordance with this chapter and rules adopted by the department.
(d) Effective July 1, 2001, if a facility's examined and documented direct care cost per resident day for the preceding report year is lower than its average direct care component rate weighted by medicare resident days for the same year, the facility's direct care cost shall be substituted for its July 1, 2001, direct care component rate, and its variable return component rate shall be determined or adjusted each July 1st by multiplying the facility's assigned percentage by the sum of the facility's July 1, 2001, therapy care, support services, and operations component rates, and its direct care cost per resident day for the preceding year.
(2) The variable return rate allocation calculated in accordance with this section shall be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.
Sec. 7. RCW 74.46.435 and 1999 c 353 s 10 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) Effective July 1, 2001, the property component rate allocation for each facility shall be determined by dividing the sum of the reported allowable prior period depreciation, subject to RCW 74.46.310 through 74.46.380, adjusted for any capitalized additions or replacements approved by the department, and the retained savings from such cost center, by the greater of a facility's total resident days for the facility in the prior period or resident days as calculated on eighty-five percent facility occupancy. Effective July 1, 2002, the property component rate allocation for all facilities, except essential community providers, shall be set by using the greater of a facility's total resident days from the most recent cost report period or resident days calculated at ninety percent facility occupancy. If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in a different licensed bed capacity during the ensuing period, the prior period total resident days used in computing the property component rate shall be adjusted to anticipated resident day level.
(2) A nursing facility's property component rate allocation shall be rebased annually, effective July 1st (or October 1st as applicable), in accordance with this section and this chapter.
(3) When a certificate of need for a new facility is requested, the department, in reaching its decision, shall take into consideration per-bed land and building construction costs for the facility which shall not exceed a maximum to be established by the secretary.

(4) Effective July 1, 2001, for the purpose of calculating a nursing facility's property component rate, if a contractor (elects) has elected to bank licensed beds prior to April 1, 2001, or elects to convert banked beds to active service at any time, under chapter 70.38 RCW, the department shall use the facility's (anticipated resident occupancy level subsequent to the decrease or increase in licensed bed capacity) new licensed bed capacity to recalculate minimum occupancy for rate setting and revise the property component rate, as needed, effective as of the date the beds are banked or converted to active service. However, in no case shall the department use less than eighty-five percent occupancy of the facility's licensed bed capacity after banking or conversion. Effective July 1, 2002, in no case, other than essential community providers, shall the department use less than ninety percent occupancy of the facility's licensed bed capacity after conversion.

(5) The property component rate allocations calculated in accordance with this section shall be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.

Sec. 8. RCW 74.46.437 and 1999 c 353 s 11 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Beginning July 1, 1999, the department shall establish for each medicaid nursing facility a financing allowance component rate allocation. The financing allowance component rate shall be rebased annually, effective July 1st, in accordance with the provisions of this section and this chapter.

(2) Effective July 1, 2001, the financing allowance shall be determined by multiplying the net invested funds of each facility by .10, and dividing by the greater of a nursing facility's total resident days from the most recent cost report period or resident days calculated on eighty-five percent facility occupancy. Effective July 1, 2002, the financing allowance component rate allocation for all facilities, other than essential community providers, shall be set by using the greater of a facility's total resident days from the most recent cost report period or resident days calculated at ninety percent facility occupancy. However, assets acquired on or after May 17, 1999, shall be grouped in a separate financing allowance calculation that shall be multiplied by .085. The financing allowance factor of .085 shall not be applied to the facility average case mix index as defined in this chapter that is determined in accordance with this section.

(3) The financing allowance shall be determined by multiplying the net invested funds of each facility by .10, and dividing by the greater of a nursing facility's total resident days from the most recent cost report period or resident days calculated at eighty-five percent facility occupancy. Effective July 1, 2002, the financing allowance component rate allocation for all facilities, other than essential community providers, shall be set by using the greater of a facility's total resident days from the most recent cost report period or resident days calculated at ninety percent facility occupancy.

(4) Effective July 1, 2001, for the purpose of calculating a nursing facility's property component rate, if a contractor (elects) has elected to bank licensed beds prior to April 1, 2001, or elects to convert banked beds to active service at any time, under chapter 70.38 RCW, the department shall use the facility's (anticipated resident occupancy level subsequent to the decrease or increase in licensed bed capacity) new licensed bed capacity to recalculate minimum occupancy for rate setting and revise the property component rate, as needed, effective as of the date the beds are banked or converted to active service. However, in no case shall the department use less than eighty-five percent occupancy of the facility's licensed bed capacity after banking or conversion. Effective July 1, 2002, in no case, other than essential community providers, shall the department use less than ninety percent occupancy of the facility's licensed bed capacity after conversion.

(5) The financing allowance rate allocation calculated in accordance with this section shall be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.

Sec. 9. RCW 74.46.501 and 1998 c 322 s 24 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) From individual case mix weights for the applicable quarter, the department shall determine two average case mix indexes for each medicaid nursing facility, one for all residents in the facility, known as the facility average case mix index, and one for medicaid residents, known as the medicaid average case mix index.

(2)(a) In calculating a facility's two average case mix indexes for each quarter, the department shall include all residents or medicaid residents, as applicable, who were physically in the facility during the quarter in question (January 1st through March 31st, April 1st through June 30th, July 1st through September 30th, or October 1st through December 31st).

(b) The facility average case mix index shall include all default cases as defined in this chapter. However, the medicaid average case mix index shall include all default cases for medicaid residents.

(3) Both the facility average and the medicaid average case mix indexes shall be determined by multiplying the case mix weight of each resident, or each medicaid resident, as applicable, by the number of days, as defined in this section and as applicable, the resident was at each particular case mix classification or group, and then averaging.

(4)(a) In determining the number of days a resident is classified into a particular case mix group, the department shall determine a start date for calculating case mix grouping periods as follows:

(i) If a resident's initial assessment for a first stay or a return stay in the nursing facility is timely completed and transmitted to the department by the cutoff date under state and federal requirements and as described in subsection (5) of this section, the start date shall be the later of either the first day of the quarter or the resident's facility admission or readmission date;
(ii) If a resident's significant change, quarterly, or annual assessment is timely completed and transmitted to the department by the cutoff date under state and federal requirements and as described in subsection (5) of this section, the start date shall be the due date for the assessment is completed;

(iii) If a resident's significant change, quarterly, or annual assessment is not timely completed and transmitted to the department by the cutoff date under state and federal requirements and as described in subsection (5) of this section, the start date shall be the due date for the assessment.

(b) If state or federal rules require more frequent assessment, the same principles for determining the start date of a resident's classification in a particular case mix group set forth in subsection (4)(a) of this section shall apply.

(c) In calculating the number of days a resident is classified into a particular case mix group, the department shall determine an end date for calculating case mix grouping periods as follows:

(1) If a resident is discharged before the end of the applicable quarter, the end date shall be the day before discharge;

(2) If a resident is not discharged before the end of the applicable quarter, the end date shall be the last day of the quarter;

(3) If a new assessment is due for a resident or a new assessment is completed and transmitted to the department, the end date of the previous assessment shall be the earlier of either the day before the assessment is due or the day before the assessment is completed by the nursing facility.

(5) The cutoff date for the department to use resident assessment data, for the purposes of calculating both the facility average and the medicaid average case mix indexes, and for establishing and updating a facility's direct care component rate, shall be one month and one day after the end of the quarter for which the resident assessment data applies.

(6) A threshold of ninety percent, as described and calculated in this subsection, shall be used to determine the case mix index each quarter. The threshold shall also be used to determine which facilities' costs per case mix unit are included in determining the ceiling, floor, and price. If the facility does not meet the ninety percent threshold, the department may use an alternate case mix index to determine the facility average and medicaid average case mix indexes for the quarter. The threshold is a count of unique minimum data sets available, and it includes resident assessment instrument tracking forms for residents discharged prior to completing an initial assessment. The threshold is calculated by dividing (the total number of facility's resident days in the quarter for which the current rate is being calculated * the number of residents being assessed by the average census for the quarter) by the facility. A daily census shall be reported by each nursing facility as it transmits assessment data to the department. The department shall compute a quarterly average census based on the daily census. If no census has been reported by a facility during a specified quarter, then the department shall use the facility's licensed beds as the denominator in computing the threshold.

(7)(a) Although the facility average and the medicaid average case mix indexes shall both be calculated quarterly, the facility average case mix index will be used only every three years in combination with cost report data as specified by RCW 74.46.431, 74.46.506, to establish a facility's allowable cost per case mix unit. A facility's medicaid average case mix index shall be used to update or recalibrate a facility's direct care component rate quarterly.

(b) The facility average case mix index used to establish each nursing facility's direct care component rate shall be based on an average of calendar quarters of the facility's average case mix indexes.

(i) For October 1, 1998, direct care component rates, the department shall use an average of facility average case mix indexes from the four calendar quarters of 1997.

(ii) For July 1, 2001, direct care component rates, the department shall use an average of facility average case mix indexes from the four calendar quarters of 1999.

(c) The medicaid average case mix index used to update or recalibrate a nursing facility's direct care component rate quarterly shall be from the calendar quarter commencing six months prior to the effective date of the quarterly rate. For example, October 1, 1998, through December 31, 1998, direct care component rates shall utilize case mix averages from the April 1, 1998, through June 30, 1998, calendar quarter, and so forth.

Sec. 10. RCW 74.46.506 and 1999 c 353 s 5 and 1999 c 181 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) The direct care component rate allocation corresponds to the provision of nursing care for one resident of a nursing facility for one day, including direct care supplies. Therapy services and supplies, which correspond to the therapy care component rate, shall be excluded. The direct care component rate includes elements of case mix determined consistent with the principles of this section and other applicable provisions of this chapter.

(2) Beginning October 1, 1998, the department shall determine and update quarterly for each nursing facility serving medicaid residents a facility-specific per-resident day direct care component rate allocation, to be effective on the first day of each calendar quarter. In determining direct care component rates the department shall utilize, as specified in this section, minimum data set resident assessment data for each resident of the facility, as transmitted to, and if necessary corrected by, the department in the resident assessment instrument format approved by federal authorities for use in this state.

(3) The department may question the accuracy of assessment data for any resident and utilize corrected or substitute information, however derived, in determining direct care component rates. The department is authorized to impose civil fines and to take adverse rate actions against a contractor, as specified by the department in rule, in order to obtain compliance with resident assessment and data transmission requirements and to ensure accuracy.

(4) Cost report data used in setting direct care component rate allocations shall be 1996 and 1999, for rate periods as specified in RCW 74.46.431(4)(a).

(5) Beginning October 1, 1998, the department shall rebase each nursing facility's direct care component rate allocation as described in RCW 74.46.431, adjust its direct care component rate allocation for economic trends and conditions as described in RCW 74.46.431, and update its medicaid average case mix index, consistent with the following:

(a) Reduce total direct care costs reported by each nursing facility for the applicable cost report period specified in RCW 74.46.431(4)(a) to reflect any department adjustments, and to eliminate reported resident therapy costs and adjustments, in order to derive the facility's total allowable direct care cost;

(b) Divide each facility's total allowable direct care cost by its adjusted resident days for the same report period, increased if necessary to a minimum occupancy of eighty-five percent; that is, the greater of actual or imputed occupancy at eighty-five percent of licensed beds, to derive the facility's allowable direct care cost per resident day;

(c) Adjust the facility's per resident day direct care cost by the applicable factor specified in RCW 74.46.431(4) (b) and (c) to derive its adjusted allowable direct care cost per resident day;
(d) Divide each facility's adjusted allowable direct care cost per resident day by the facility average case mix index for the applicable quarters specified by RCW 74.46.501(7)(b) to derive the facility's allowable direct care cost per case mix unit.

(e) Effective for July 1, 2001, rate setting divide nursing facilities into at least two and, if applicable, three peer groups:

Those located in ((metropolitan statistical areas as determined and defined by the United States office of management and budget or other appropriate agency or office of the federal government, and those not located in a metropolitan statistical area)) nonurban counties; those located in high labor-cost counties, if any; and those located in other urban counties:

(f) Array separately the allowable direct care cost per case mix unit for all ((metropolitan statistical area and for all nonmetropolitan statistical area facilities)) facilities in nonurban counties, for all facilities in high labor-cost counties, if applicable; and for all facilities in other urban counties, and determine the median allowable direct care cost per case mix unit for each peer group;

(g) Except as provided in (((k))) ((i)) of this subsection, from October 1, 1998, through June 30, 2000, determine each facility's quarterly direct care component rate as follows:

(i) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is less than eighty-five percent of the facility's peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall be assigned a cost per case mix unit equal to eighty-five percent of the facility's peer group median, and shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's assigned cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(ii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is greater than one hundred fifteen percent of the peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's allowable cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(iii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is between eighty-five and one hundred fifteen percent of the peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's allowable cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(h) Except as provided in (((k))) ((i)) of this subsection, from July 1, 2000, ((through June 30, 2002)) forward, and for all future rate setting, determine each facility's quarterly direct care component rate as follows:

(i) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is less than ninety percent of the facility's peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall be assigned a cost per case mix unit equal to ninety percent of the facility's peer group median, and shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's assigned cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(ii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is greater than one hundred percent of the peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall be assigned a cost per case mix unit equal to one hundred percent of the peer group median, and shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's assigned cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(iii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is between eighty-five and one hundred percent of the peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's allowable cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(i) From July 1, 2002, through June 30, 2004, determine each facility's quarterly direct care component rate as follows:

(ii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is less than ninety-five percent of the facility's peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall be assigned a cost per case mix unit equal to ninety-five percent of the facility's peer group median, and shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's assigned cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(iii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is greater than one hundred percent of the peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall be assigned a cost per case mix unit equal to one hundred percent of the peer group median, and shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's assigned cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(ii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is greater than one hundred fifteen percent of the peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's allowable cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(iii) Any facility whose allowable cost per case mix unit is between eighty-five and one hundred fifteen percent of the peer group median established under (f) of this subsection shall have a direct care component rate allocation equal to the facility's allowable cost per case mix unit multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(i) Beginning July 1, 2004, determine each facility's quarterly direct care component rate by multiplying the facility's peer group median allowable direct care cost per case mix unit by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c);

(k) Effective January 1, 1998, and June 30, 2000, the department shall compare each facility's direct care component rate allocation calculated under (g) of this subsection with the facility's nursing services component rate in effect on September 30, 1998, less therapy costs, plus any exceptional care offsets as reported on the cost report, adjusted for economic trends and conditions as provided in RCW 74.46.431. A facility shall receive the higher of the two rates:

(ii) Effective July 1, 2000, and June 30, 2002, the department shall compare each facility's direct care component rate allocation calculated under (h) of this subsection with the facility's direct care component rate in effect on June 30, 2000. A facility shall receive the higher of the two rates. Between July 1, 2001, and June 30, 2002, if during any quarter a facility whose rate paid under (h) of this subsection is greater than either the direct care rate in effect on June 30, 2000, or that facility's allowable direct care rate per case mix unit calculated in (d) of this subsection multiplied by that facility's Medicaid average case mix index from the applicable quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501(7)(c), the facility shall be paid in that and each subsequent quarter pursuant to (h) of this subsection and shall not be entitled to the greater of the two rates.

(7) Payments resulting from increases in direct care component rates, granted under authority of RCW 74.46.508(1) for a facility's exceptional care residents, shall be offset against the facility's examined, allowable direct care costs, for each report year or partial period such increases are paid. Such reductions in allowable direct care costs shall be for rate setting, settlement, and other purposes deemed appropriate by the department.

Sec. 11. RCW 74.46.511 and 1999 c 353 s 6 and 1999 c 181 s 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:
(1) The therapy care component rate allocation corresponds to the provision of medicaid one-on-one therapy provided by a qualified therapist as defined in this chapter, including therapy supplies and therapy consultation, for one day for one medicaid resident of a nursing facility. The therapy care component rate allocation for October 1, 1998, through June 30, 2001, shall be based on adjusted therapy costs and days from calendar year 1996. The therapy component rate allocation for July 1, 2001, through June 30, 2004, shall be based on adjusted therapy costs and days from calendar year 1999. The therapy care component rate shall be adjusted for economic trends and conditions as specified in RCW 74.46.431(5)(b), and shall be determined in accordance with this section.
(2) In rebasing, as provided in RCW 74.46.431(5)(a), the department shall take from the cost reports of facilities the following reported information:
   a. Direct one-on-one therapy charges for all residents by payer including charges for supplies;
   b. The total units or modules of therapy care for all residents by type of therapy provided, for example, speech or physical. A unit or module of therapy care is considered to be fifteen minutes of one-on-one therapy provided by a qualified therapist or support personnel; and
   c. The consultant expenses for all residents.
(3) The department shall determine for all residents the total cost per unit of therapy for each type of therapy by dividing the total adjusted one-on-one therapy expense for each type by the total units provided for that therapy type.
(4) The department shall divide medicaid nursing facilities in this state into two peer groups:
   a. Those facilities located within (a metropolitan statistical area) urban counties; and
   b. Those ((not) located (in a metropolitan statistical area)) within nonurban counties.
   Metropolitan statistical areas and nonmetropolitan statistical areas shall be as determined by the United States office of management and budget or other applicable federal officer. The department shall array the facilities in each peer group from highest to lowest based on their total cost per unit of therapy for each therapy type. The department shall determine the median total cost per unit of therapy for each therapy type and add ten percent of median total cost per unit of therapy. The cost per unit of therapy for each therapy type at a nursing facility shall be the lesser of its cost per unit of therapy for each therapy type or the median total cost per unit plus ten percent for each therapy type for its peer group.
(5) The department shall calculate each nursing facility's therapy care component rate allocation as follows:
   a. To determine the allowable total therapy cost for each therapy type, the allowable cost per unit of therapy for each type of therapy shall be multiplied by the total therapy units for each type of therapy;
   b. The medicaid allowable one-on-one therapy expense shall be calculated taking the allowable total therapy cost for each therapy type times the medicaid percent of total therapy charges for each therapy type;
   c. The medicaid allowable one-on-one therapy expense for each therapy type shall be added to the total allowable medicare days to arrive at the medicaid one-on-one therapy cost per patient day for each therapy type;
   d. The medicaid one-on-one therapy cost per patient day for each therapy type shall be multiplied by total adjusted medicaid patient days for all residents to calculate the total allowable one-on-one therapy expense. The lesser of the total allowable therapy consultant expense for the type of therapy or a reasonable percentage of allowable therapy consultant expense for each therapy type, as established in rule by the department, shall be added to the total allowable one-on-one therapy expense to determine the allowable therapy cost for each therapy type;
   e. The allowable therapy cost for each therapy type shall be added together, the sum of which shall be the total allowable therapy expense for the nursing facility;
   f. The total allowable therapy expense will be divided by the greater of adjusted total patient days from the cost report on which the therapy expenses were reported, or patient days at eighty-five percent occupancy of licensed beds. The outcome shall be the nursing facility's therapy care component rate allocation.
(6) The therapy care component rate allocations calculated in accordance with this section shall be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.
(7) The therapy care component rate shall be suspended for medicare residents in qualified nursing facilities designated by the department who are receiving therapy paid by the department outside the facility daily rate under RCW 74.46.508(2).

Sec. 12. RCW 74.46.515 and 1999 c 353 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The support services component rate allocation corresponds to the provison of food, food preparation, dietary, housekeeping, and laundry services for one resident for one day.
(2) Beginning October 1, 1998, the department shall determine each medicaid nursing facility's support services component rate allocation using cost report data specified by RCW 74.46.431(6).
(3) To determine each facility's support services component rate allocation, the department shall:
   a. Array facilities' adjusted support services costs per adjusted resident day for each facility from facilities' cost reports from the applicable report year, for facilities located within (a metropolitan statistical area) urban counties, and for those ((not) located (in a metropolitan statistical area)) within nonurban counties and determine the median adjusted cost for each peer group;
   b. Set each facility's support services component rate at the lower of the facility's per resident day adjusted support services costs from the applicable cost report period or the adjusted median per resident day support services cost for that facility's peer group, either (a metropolitan statistical area) urban counties or ((nonmetropolitan statistical area)) nonurban counties, plus ten percent; and
   c. Adjust each facility's support services component rate for economic trends and conditions as provided in RCW 74.46.431(6).
(4) The support services component rate allocations calculated in accordance with this section shall be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.

Sec. 13. RCW 74.46.521 and 1999 c 353 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:
(1) The operations component rate allocation corresponds to the general operation of a nursing facility for one resident for one day, including but not limited to management, administration, utilities, office supplies, accounting and bookkeeping, minor building maintenance, minor equipment repairs and replacements, and other supplies and services, exclusive of direct care, therapy care, support services, property, financing allowance, and variable return.

Sec. 13. Effective October 1, 1998, the department shall determine each Medicaid nursing facility’s operations component rate allocation using cost report data specified by RCW 74.46.431(7)(a). Effective July 1, 2002, operations component rates for all facilities except essential community providers shall be based upon a minimum occupancy of ninety percent of licensed beds, and no operations component rate shall be revised in response to beds banked on or after April 1, 2001, under chapter 70.38 RCW.

(3) To determine each facility’s operations component rate the department shall:
   (a) Array facilities’ adjusted general operations costs per adjusted resident day for each facility from facilities’ cost reports from the applicable report year, for facilities located within (a metropolitan statistical area) urban counties and for those (non) located (in a metropolitan statistical area) within nonurban counties and determine the median adjusted cost for each peer group;
   (b) Set each facility’s operations component rate at the lower of:
      (i) The facility’s per resident day adjusted operations costs from the applicable cost report period adjusted if necessary to a minimum occupancy of eighty-five percent of licensed beds before July 1, 2002, and ninety percent effective July 1, 2002, or
      (ii) The adjusted median per resident day general operations cost for that facility’s peer group, ((metropolitan statistical area) urban counties or ((nonmetropolitan statistical area)) nonurban counties; and
   (c) Adjust each facility’s operations component rate for economic trends and conditions as provided in RCW 74.46.431(7)(b).

(4) The operations component rate allocations calculated in accordance with this section shall be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.

Sec. 14. RCW 74.46.711 and 1995 1st sp. s. c 18 s 69 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the death of a resident with a personal fund deposited with the facility, the facility must convey within (forty-five) thirty days the resident’s funds, and a final accounting of those funds, to the individual or probate jurisdiction administering the resident’s estate; but in the case of a resident who received long-term care services paid in whole or in part by the department, the funds and accounting shall be sent to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, office of financial recovery. The department shall establish rules for the procedure for use for burial expenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 74.46 RCW to read as follows:

The total capital authorization available for any bienniual period shall be specified in the bienniual appropriations act and shall be calculated on an annual basis. When setting the capital authorization level, the legislature shall consider both the need for, and the cost of, new and replacement beds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 74.46 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall establish rules for issuing a certificate of capital authorization. Applications for a certificate of capital authorization shall be submitted and approved on a bienniual basis. The rules for a certificate of capital authorization shall be consistent with the following principles:

(1) The certificate of capital authorization shall be approved on a first-come, first-served basis.
(2) Those projects that do not receive approval in one authorization period shall have priority the following biennium should the project be resubmitted.

(3) The department shall have the authority to give priority for a project that is necessitated by an emergency situation even if the project is not submitted in a timely fashion. The department shall establish rules for determining what constitutes an emergency.

(4) The department shall establish deadlines for progress and the department shall have the authority to withdraw the certificate of capital authorization where the holder of the certificate has not complied with those deadlines in a good faith manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The joint legislative task force on nursing homes is hereby created.

(1) Membership of the task force shall consist of eight legislators. The president of the senate shall appoint four members of the senate, including two members of the majority party and two members of the minority party. The co-speakers of the house of representatives shall appoint four members of the house of representatives, including two members from each party. Each body shall select representatives from committees with jurisdiction over health and long-term care and fiscal matters.

(2) The task force shall:
   (a) Consider reports from nursing home organizations, consumers of long-term care services, and the department of social and health services on key issues in the delivery of nursing home care in various areas of the state;
   (b) Assess the alternative approaches for linking case mix scores with service hours and costs developed in accordance with section 18 of this act;
   (c) Approve the proposed study plans, and review the reports on nursing home access, quality of care, quality of resident life, and employee wage and benefit levels, which are to be submitted in accordance with section 18 of this act;
   (d) Review the report which is to be prepared in accordance with section 18 of this act on the need for additional case mix groupings and weights; and
   (e) Consider the evaluation of rebasing alternatives conducted in accordance with section 18 of this act.

(3) The task force shall complete its review and submit its recommendations to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the legislature by December 1, 2003.

(4) This section expires December 31, 2003.

Sec. 18. 1998 c 322 s 47 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) By December 1, 1998, the department of social and health services shall study and provide recommendations to the chairs of the house of representatives appropriations and health care committees, and the senate ways and means and health and long-term care committees, concerning options for changing the method for paying facilities for capital and property related expenses.

(2) The department of social and health services shall contract with an independent and recognized organization to study and evaluate the impacts of chapter 74.46 RCW implementation on access, quality of care, quality of life for nursing facility residents, and the wage and benefit levels of all nursing facility employees. The contractor shall submit a preliminary report of findings, and recommendations for further study, to the joint legislative task force on nursing homes by December 1, 2001. The department and contractor shall incorporate the task force’s recommendations into the final evaluation plan, and submit interim reports on findings and recommendations to the task force by October 1, 2002, and July 1, 2003. The department ((shall require,)) and the contractor shall submit((c)) a final report with the results of this study and evaluation, including their findings and recommendations, to the governor and legislature by ((December) October 1, ((2001)) 2003.

(3) Services shall be study and, as needed, specify additional case mix weights to reflect the resource utilization of residents whose care needs are not adequately identified or reflected in the resource utilization group III grouper version 5.10. At a minimum, the department shall study the adequacy of the resource utilization group III grouper version 5.10, including the minimum data set, for capturing the care and resource utilization needs of residents with AIDS, residents with traumatic brain injury, and residents who are behaviorally challenged. The department shall report its findings to the ((chair)) joint legislative task force on nursing homes by December 12, 2002.

(4) By June 1, 2002, the department of social and health services shall report to the ((legislature)) joint legislative task force on nursing homes and provide an evaluation of the fiscal impact of rebasing future payments at different intervals, including the impact of averaging two years’ cost data as the basis for rebasing. This report shall include the fiscal impact to the state and the fiscal impact to nursing facility providers.

(5) By December 1, 2001, the department of social and health services shall report to the joint legislative task force on nursing homes on alternative approaches for using client acuity to establish direct care rates. The alternatives shall link acuity, as measured by case mix, to the number of hours of service estimated to be provided for each client, and shall multiply those estimated service hours by standard wage and benefit rates which account for differences in direct care labor costs in various areas of the state. The alternatives reviewed shall provide cost controls and incentives at least equal to the current rate-setting system, and shall not contain automatic cost increases, automatic indexing, hold harmless provisions, or mandatory future rebasing of costs.

Sec. 19. RCW 70.38.115 and 1996 c 178 s 22 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the designee of the secretary in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules of the department which establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;
(b) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;
(c) The financial feasibility and the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services in the community to be served;
(d) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of alternative uses of project resources for the provision of other health services, (ii) the extent to which such services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served, and (iii) the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic physicians and surgeons and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathic medicine and surgery and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;
(e) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;
(f) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals, nonallopathic services and children's hospitals;
(g) Improvements or innovations in the financing and delivery of health services which foster cost containment and serve to promote quality assurance and cost-effectiveness;
(h) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and services similar to those proposed;
(i) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past;
(j) In the case of hospital certificate of need applications, whether the hospital meets or exceeds the regional average level of charity care, as determined by the secretary; and
(k) In the case of nursing home applications:
(i) The availability of other nursing home beds in the planning area to be served; and
(ii) The availability of other services in the community to be served. Data used to determine the availability of other services will include but not be limited to data provided by the department of social and health services.

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds:

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and
(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility, or any part thereof, with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or in a lease of such facility may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(4) Until the final expiration of the state health plan as provided under RCW 70.38.919, the decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.
(6) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

(7) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

(8) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

(9) The department or its designee, shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.

(10)(a) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked has the right to an adjudicative proceeding. The proceeding is governed by chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act.

(b) Any health care facility or health maintenance organization that:

(i) Provides services similar to the services provided by the applicant and under review pursuant to this subsection; (ii) is located within the applicant's health service area; and (iii) testified or submitted evidence at a public hearing held pursuant to subsection (9) of this section, shall be provided an opportunity to present oral or written testimony and argument in a proceeding under this subsection: PROVIDED, That the health care facility or health maintenance organization had, in writing, requested to be informed of the department's decisions.

(c) If the department desires to settle with the applicant prior to the conclusion of the adjudicative proceeding, the department shall so inform the health care facility or health maintenance organization and afford them an opportunity to comment, in advance, on the proposed settlement.

(11) An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

(a) A new service requiring review under this chapter;

(b) An expansion of a service subject to review beyond that originally approved;

(c) An increase in bed capacity;

(d) A significant reduction in the scope of a nursing home project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the nursing home project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a nursing home construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the nursing home project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

(12) An application for a certificate of need for a nursing home capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved.

(13)(a) Replacement of existing nursing home beds in the same planning area by an existing licensee who has operated the beds for at least one year shall not require a certificate of need under this chapter. The licensee shall give written notice of its intent to replace the existing nursing home beds to the department and shall provide the department with information as may be required pursuant to rule. Replacement of the beds by a party other than the licensee is subject to certificate of need review under this chapter, except as otherwise permitted by subsection (14) of this section.

(b) When an entire nursing home ceases operation, the licensee or any other party who has secured an interest in the beds may reserve his or her interest in the beds for eight years or until a certificate of need to replace them is issued, whichever occurs first. However, the nursing home, licensee, or any other party who has secured an interest in the beds must give notice of its intent to retain the beds to the department of health no later than thirty days after the effective date of the facility's closure.

Certificate of need review shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

(13)(c) If the department desires to settle with the applicant prior to the conclusion of the adjudicative proceeding, the department shall so inform the applicant, and afford them an opportunity to comment, in advance, on the proposed settlement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Thibaudeau: “A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I spend a lot of time these days feeling like the commentator on the network, ‘I am mad as can be and I am not going to take it any more.’ Well, I guess I have to take it a little while longer. Just to say very briefly what I am angry about is, I am angry at people who refuse to compromise and anybody can identify anybody that they want to, but they are blocking our getting out of here. The reason I voted for this bill, in contrast to some of my votes, is because it does move to get us out of here.

‘Anger doesn’t solve the problem that I read in this morning’s paper. This is the twentieth year of the identification of the AIDS disease. In a second way, which is what our state health officer describes, where there are three times as many women and a huge percentage more of minorities in this country with AIDS now—not just in Africa—which we have always read. We’ve all heard about that. People are still dying. The miracle drugs only work in some instances and cost between ten and fifteen thousand dollars a year. I am proud to say that the Senate has not been accessed with the Gay issue. I need to say, and I hope I won’t offend anybody, but we haven’t seen Gays under every bed or in every bed. I did need to remind you that on the twentieth anniversary of the identification of AIDS that we still have a long way to go. This issue is worth getting worried about, worth doing something constructive about and the Senate and the Legislature, as a whole, have worked on this issue and have been supportive. Thank you.”

On motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

THE BILL WAS READ THE THIRD TIME

DEBATE ENSUED.

THE PRESIDENT DECLARED THE QUESTION BEFORE THE SENATE TO BE THE ROLL CALL ON THE FINAL PASSAGE OF SECOND ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL No. 5764.

ROLL CALL

THE SECRETARY CALLED THE ROLL ON THE FINAL PASSAGE OF SECOND ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL No. 5764 AND THE BILL PASSED THE SENATE BY THE FOLLOWING VOTE: YES, 44; NAYS, 2; ABSENT, 0; EXCUSED, 3.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

"Senator Franklin: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. We continue to make history in these chambers on this fifth day of June. We have passed again a series of transportation bills that will go to the House. As many of you, if you are a little bit younger than I, will remember Pearl Bailey, who was the sister of the great dancer, Bill Bailey. She had a song that says, 'I'm plain tired.' So, I am plain tired of voting on the same bills over and over again that have been sent across the Rotunda and they do not see any action.

"Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it is a very serious problem that all of us know. My district is the Twenty-ninth Legislative District. It is bisected by the I-5 Corridor. It is a chokepoint. It is a chokepoint because now, for me, even to get to the freeway, I have to by-pass some of my streets in order to get to the freeway. The backup traffic is for miles in the morning and in the evening. My Port of Tacoma is at risk. It is a high risk. It is at risk for losing very high paying jobs. Our economy is at risk. We need to say, 'It is not just the I-5 Corridor,' however. We have problems with transportation across the state, because of agriculture. When the agricultural producers cannot get their products to market, then that is a problem for Eastern Washington.

"So, I do hope that I don't see these bills again in this form. I do hope that our colleagues across the Rotunda and leadership will recognize that the problem is not a pipe dream. The problems are real and if we do not address the problems, that means, then, we are heading for a train wreck. That train, before it wrecks, I am going to hop off. Therefore, when these bills go across the Rotunda, I think it behooves all of us--all of us--to say to our colleagues over there that it is time that we have real action and begin to resolve and work on the problem of transportation. It really has a long term effect on our economy and our way of life.

"Thank you, Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen. I will close by saying, 'I hope I do not see these bills again, because I am just plain tired.'"

CONFIRMATION OF GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kohl-Welles, Gubernatorial Appointment No. 9015, Bertha M. Goehner, as a member of the Board of Trustees for Wenatchee Valley Community College District No. 15, was confirmed.

APPOINTMENT OF BERTHA M. GOEHNER

The Secretary called the roll. The appointment was confirmed by the following vote: Yeas, 35; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 14.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. It has been pointed out to me that today, June 6, was D-Day, fifty-seven years ago. I was waiting for Senator Deccio to return, because he went in at France. I think Senator Snyder was in the service along with me. Any other World War II vets here? Some of you look like it, but you just had a hard night. If you are married, you are qualified, Senator Winsley, especially your husband and I am sure he suffered through the wars.

"I was trying to recall where I was. I went into the service in the Navy in March, 1944, and went to Green Lakes for Boot Camp. I survived that and then went on down to San Diego to an air liaison group and then we drove up to Pasco. We had a bombing range in Beverly. I don’t know if you remember Beverly or not. It is under water now--when they put the dam in. We bombed up there with the wild horses and the wild cats and so forth. We used to pull liberty in Vantage. That was a big thrill for a kid from Ohio. Then we closed that and put a bombing range above Zillah. I don’t know whose district that is, but we would fly sorties up from Pasco and drop Depth Charges and fire five inch rockets from F6Fs and F4Fs and TBM’s from Pasco.

"Then, I went overseas and I tell the story that when I went to Hawaii, the Japanese found out I was coming and they surrendered. I also take credit for the ending of the war. The Navy was good for me, because I was a wise little kid when I went in and I was wiser intellectually when I came out and I was a little smoother. I have always felt we should have conscription--kids out of high school should go in for a couple of years and learn what I learned.

"Anyway, there were some blessings in World War II. I did end up marrying a young lady from Yakima. We actually stayed across from the airport and my first wife--my wife of forty-seven years--was a waitress. I met her when I came out of restriction and I won’t go into why I was on restriction. Anyway, it helped me. World War II was a blessing to me individually, as a citizen, because I ended up in the great state of Washington. I am so proud of this state--my adopted state. I don’t know if Senator Snyder has anything to say or not. He looks very wise sitting there. Thank you for allowing me to speak, Mr. President."
PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Snyder: "Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to a point of personal privilege. I am pleased that you think I look wise, Senator McCaslin. Senator McCaslin and I are about the same age. I think he is a year older now, because he turned seventy-five last April and I won't be seventy-five until July. Fifty-seven years ago, I had just graduated from high school, but I certainly remember. I had enlisted in the Army Air Force in February and I was supposed to be called right after I turned eighteen in July. The tide of the war, between February and July, had changed so much and thankfully the losses had been so much less than anticipated that I wasn't called in the service until February of 1945. As I said, I had joined the Army Air Force and went to basic training and qualified to be a pilot, bombardier or navigator, but here again the tide of the war was that they didn't need them and were closing down flight schools.

"I was in nine months and twenty-nine days and they said they didn't need us anymore. I was about the last one to leave and the first one to come home. I was fortunate in that way, but I certainly remember D-Day and I get chocked up remembering kids who sat next to me in class that didn't come back. Because they didn't come back, I am standing here today. I am ever grateful for all those buddies of mine that fought in the war who sat next to me in typing class and played football with me--just a year or two older than I am and I don't think we can ever know--be so grateful--for all the good that has come from the battles that they did.

"I think it is becoming more evident as the years go along. I think it is so right that that was the greatest generation, because the tide of history could easily have been changed. We certainly would not know the way of life that we have today even though, we have a few difference along the way. I think sometimes it would be a little easier to put them to the side and think of what it might have been if it hadn't been for all those fellows that went through D-Day and all the other battles in the Pacific and so forth, so that we could live in peace and happiness and harmony and watch our families and our grandchildren grow. A lot of those people didn't have that chance. I raise a special tribute and thanks to all those fellows and women that served, especially those ones who didn't come back. I am indeed grateful."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Franklin: "A point of personal privilege. I would like to speak to what they used to refer to as the distaff side. I am in that category, also. I think you all are a year ahead of me, however. I was in high school and all the guys left. It ended up, there were eleven guys that left from my class. What we did as high school students and those who were at home, we entertained--meaning the guys, because I grew up in a free port town, a large shipping area, and then Fort Jackson in South Carolina. Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, was an airbase. I grew up in South Carolina. We would have just troop after troop coming and going throughout the city. On Sundays, we would have guys for dinner; we would have them for church. We, in turn, at Myrtle Beach, would go dancing with the guys. Those were the times you really danced. When they would leave, we cultivated a pen pal club. We did a lot of correspondence with those who were in service at that time.

"Then, I graduated and went to college for a semester and then went into nursing. My class was the last class of Cadet Nurses. We trained under the Frances Paine Bolton Act. If you look historically, Frances Paine Bolton served in the federal government in recruiting. There were shortages of nurses and shortages of health professionals. We nurses, in turn, went in training. My last class--some of us would go to different parts of the country for six months for the price of graduation. We were recruited to work with those people and to work at home in the health care field. That is how I went into nursing and I was the last class. I had a uniform, of course. My uniform was grey. I had a brother who served in Italy and is a purple heart winner.

"During those years, we had our victory gardens. We were very, very patriotic. Those were the years as the Senators have said. When you look back and learn that women really did many things. Some worked here in Bremerton. They were riveters--there was Rosie the Riveter--as all of us know. The women really took over the home site and really worked and kept things going. When we look back historically at what has taken place, I agree with the Senators, there were many changes, many changes, that took place and there were those who gave their lives.

"I have been overseas and I have visited the places--Flanders and where they fought in France and Germany and Italy and visited the grave sites of the memorials. It does something to you, really. Just being there--I don't know, whenever I have visited and whenever I go to those places, you know it is so focused and so overwhelming and if we only knew. There are so many things that we take for granted and we need to just think that that point in time was a turning point for this country.

"So, June 6, D-Day, means a lot. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Deccio: "A point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I want to get my two cents worth in here. It is hard to believe that nearly sixty-one years ago this year, I enlisted in the Army Air Corps. In 1940, right our of high
I knew I was going to get drafted and I wanted to pick my own branch and I sure as hell didn't want to go into the infantry. Just by a quirk of fate--I think I told this story to Bob McCaslin a few days ago--by a quirk of fate, because of the bombing of Pearl Harbor, we were slated to go to the Philippines and the headquarters of the Fifth Air Force. Because they bombed Pearl Harbor, we turned around and came back. We got off the boat at the San Francisco docks and walked through the Presidio and camped overnight and were sent back up to Seattle.

"I went overseas in early 1943, almost a year before the invasion. The invasion that I remember is one where I was in a troop carrier group. We hauled in the Eighty-Second, the One Hundred First Airborne--in gliders and in C47 Troop Carriers. My job, being in the personnel department, was to check on--D-Day minus five hours--my job was to load four airplanes with M Gliders with troops--check them off as they boarded the gliders in the planes--realizing that most of those folks were not going to be back. A lot of the gliders ended up in trees. When they parachuted out, the parachutes got caught in the trees and then they were killed by the Nazi soldiers.

"It was awe inspiring to me to watch the Eighty Second, One Hundred First Airborne do their training. While we were in nice warm barracks in January, we were warm, but in England, the January weather is impossible. Those guys slept in pup tents and you didn't dare to look at them cross-eyed, because you would get your head beat off. That is how tough they were. They were training for the invasion and on June 6 was one of the most--was the roughest the Channel had ever been in fifty years. Imagine, at the beginning of June, you would think it would be nice and quiet. General Eisenhower gave the word to go ahead, because they were not going to wait any longer because of the buildup of the Nazis on the other side.

"I went over to France about two weeks later. We were stationed at Amiens. It is something that is hard for people to understand the bravery that it took for those GIs who were on the ground to face death, knowing that it was coming and yet charging forward. It takes a great deal of patriotism and with all the ground support and all the airplanes, the dog faces--those were the infantry men--were the ones who really won the war. Every time you think of World War II, you need to think of the GI Joe on the ground carrying that rifle who was the one who really won the war for us. I was proud to be a part of it."

Senators Thibaudeau and Kastama and the President made additional comments regarding the Anniversary of D-Day.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Kohl-Welles: "I rise for a point of personal privilege, Mr. President. I would like to commend our President of the Senate and our Secretary of the Senate and other Senate administrators and staff here, as well as members for the decorum that we have in our Senate Chamber. Even though at times, we get a little rancorous and have some fun, it is a marvelous place. I returned Tuesday from the country of Brazil. I was there for a National Conference of State Legislators. It was a legislative exchange funded by the United States State Department. We visited four different states and met with state legislators and visited some of the legislative chambers. In one of the state legislatures-I will not identify it in terms of which body. It was a beautiful chamber. However, it was entirely different from what we experience here. Everybody sat in the round and we were all served by a man in a tuxedo who distributed Brazilian coffee and bottled water, which was very nice. However, the volume was so loud that I had this horrible headache. Three microphones were placed around the chamber and the members were screaming at one another as loud as they could. It is a coalition type government and the governing government had about six or seven parties in the coalition. The opposition side had six or seven political parties and they were really at odds with one another. They were screaming at one another. The television photographers were allowed on the floor, so they were scurrying around to film everybody. "I would like the Brazilian coffee at some point, but otherwise I am very glad that we have our system here."

MOTION

At 12:00 noon, on motion of Senator Betti Sheldon, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

SENATOR MCCASLIN: “A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. Over the years, on both sides of the aisle, when the President recognizes a Senator for one purpose, moving adoption of an amendment or bumping a bill or whatnot, and they then make a second motion, is it proper when the Senator rises and is recognized for one purpose and then brings another subject before the body, such as a roll call? I would be curious about this.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT OWEN: “Senator McCaslin, the President believes that there are no restrictions for a person to make the motion—I think we may have to look at it. In fact, we have two motions on amendments or something like that, but on a procedural motion like to call for a roll call, the President must recognize that motion.”

SENATOR MCCASLIN: “Is there a limit to the number of motions then that a Senator may make?”

PRESIDENT OWEN: “The President would be hesitant to answer that without having an actual case before him, Senator.”

MOTION
ON MOTION OF SENATOR BROWN, THE RULES WERE SUSPENDED, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6153 WAS ADVANCED TO THIRD READING, THE SECOND READING CONSIDERED THE THIRD AND THE BILL WAS PLACED ON FINAL PASSAGE.

POINT OF INQUIRY

SENATOR CARLSON: "SENATOR BROWN, IS IT THE INTENT OF THIS BUDGET TO PROTECT THE BASE LEVEL FUNDING PREVIOUSLY ALLOCATED FOR EACH BRANCH CAMPUS?"

SENATOR BROWN: "YES, SENATOR CARLSON, IT IS."

POINT OF ORDER

SENATOR JOHNSON: "MR. PRESIDENT, I AM RAISING A POINT OF ORDER. THIS BILL, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6153, FAILS THE TEST OF SENATE RULE 25, WHICH IS TAKEN FROM ARTICLE II, SECTION 19 OF THE STATE CONSTITUTION. THE PROVISIONS OF THAT RULE AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARE IDENTICAL. THEY PROVIDE THAT NO BILL SHALL EMBRACE MORE THAT ONE SUBJECT, AND THAT SHALL BE EXPRESSED IN THE TITLE. THE TITLE OF THIS BILL IS AN ACT RELATING TO FISCAL MATTERS AND FURTHER--MAKING APPROPRIATIONS. THE SUBSTANCE OF THE BILL TO WHICH I REFER IS SECTION NO. 514, SUB. 17, WHICH IS A MATTER OF SUBSTANCE, WAS IN THE PROVISIONS OF THAT SECTION--MOST OF THAT SUBSECTION WERE IN SENATE BILL NO. 5625 AND THAT BILL DID NOT PASS, SO MOST OF THOSE PROVISIONS ARE NOW IN THE BUDGET. THEY ARE SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS; THEY ARE HARDLY APPROPRIATIONS RELATED. THAT IS, THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION IS MANDATED TO DO CERTAIN THINGS, THE ACCOUNTABILITY COMMISSION IS MANDATED TO DO CERTAIN THINGS. THE RELIEF THAT IS GIVEN TO THESE SCHOOLS THAT ARE BADLY IN NEED OF HELP WILL, UNDOUBTEDLY CONTINUE THROUGH THIS BIENNIAL AND ON, BECAUSE IF YOU REMEMBER THAT BILL, PRESENT MEMBERS OF THE SENATE, IT WAS MORE THAN A TWO YEAR TERM TO GET THE SCHOOLS TURNED AROUND. IT IS PART OF THAT PROGRAM.

"NOW, WHAT DO WE DO? AS I INDICATED EARLIER, THE SUPREME COURT CASE DIRECTLY ON POINT AND THE CASE THAT IS ON POINT IS THE SUPREME COURT CASE OF LEGISLATURE VERSUS LOCKE IS ON POINT TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT, THEN IT IS ON POINT WITH OUR RULE AS WELL, BECAUSE THEY ARE IDENTICAL IN LANGUAGE. ONCE AGAIN, IT SAYS, 'ISSUES THAT FAILED ON THEIR MERITS MAY NOT BE RESURRECTED BY THEIR INCLUSION IN AN OPERATING BUDGET BILL.' THERE HAS BEEN A VALIANT EFFORT BY THE DRAFTERS OF THE LANGUAGE TO WHICH I REFER TO MAKE IT FIT, BUT IT STILL VIOLATES THE RULE.

"SO, WHAT IS THE REMEDY? THE REMEDY IS TO TAKE THIS BILL BACK TO SECOND READING AND RECONSIDER THE AMENDMENT BY WHICH WE SIMPLY SAY THAT THE BILL DOESN’T PASS-- THE SUBSTANTIVE BILL--THEN THE APPROPRIATION ISN’T THERE. IF DOES PASS, THE APPROPRIATION IS THERE. 'THANK YOU.' DEBATE ENSUED."

MOTION

ON MOTION OF SENATOR SHEAHAN, FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6153 WAS DEFERRED.

MOTION

ON MOTION OF SENATOR BETTI SHELDON, THE SENATE ADVANCED TO THE SEVENTH ORDER OF BUSINESS.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6166, BY SENATE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS (ORIGINALLY SPONSORED BY SENATORS BROWN, SNYDER, LONG, FRASER, ROSSI, CONSTANTINE, SPANEL, B. SHELDON AND CARLSON)

RESTATING PLAN 1 OF THE LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS’ AND FIRE FIGHTERS’ RETIREMENT SYSTEM.

MOTION

ON MOTION OF SENATOR BROWN, THE RULES WERE SUSPENDED, ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 6166 WAS RETURNED TO SECOND READING AND READ THE SECOND TIME.

MOTION

ON MOTION OF SENATOR HONEYFORD, SENATOR PARLETTE WAS excused.
SENATOR BROWN MOVED THAT THE FOLLOWING STRIKING AMENDMENT BE ADOPTED:

STRIKE EVERYTHING AFTER THE ENACTING CLAUSE AND INSERT THE FOLLOWING:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Legislative Findings and Declaration. Plan 1 of the Washington Law Enforcement Officers' and Fire Fighters' Retirement System (LEOFF plan 1) has been closed to new members for nearly a quarter of a century. During that time, LEOF plan 1 has achieved full funding and has assets which exceed all projected future liabilities and has a surplus approaching one billion dollars. In recognition of the contributions of working fire fighters and police officers to LEOF plan 1, it is the purpose of this chapter, in part, to provide for an enhanced retirement benefit to LEOF plan 1 members. LEOF plan 1 also provides substantial postretirement health and long-term care benefits. The financial burden of this benefit, which is an integral part of LEOF plan 1, falls exclusively on the cities, counties, and fire districts that employ the retired fire fighters and police officers. In recognition of the fiscal burdens facing these political subdivisions, it is appropriate to provide an additional source of funding to ensure the integrity of the benefit without undermining the financial stability of the employing governments.

The supreme court of the state of Washington, in the 1956 decision Bakenhus v. City of Seattle, established that the fire fighters and police officers, active and retired, have a constitutionally protected contractual right to a secure retirement benefit, funded on a sound actuarial basis. The legislature recognizes that the state of Washington is the ultimate guarantor of the LEOF plan 1 retirement benefits. While members have a constitutionally protected right to the pension benefits that are provided as part of their contract of employment, there is no such right in surplus assets which are unnecessary to the actuarial soundness of the retirement plan.

The state retains the inherent power to terminate a retirement plan and, upon the dedication of sufficient resources to ensure the actuarial soundness of the benefits promised, is entitled to a reversion of the surplus assets upon termination of the plan.

The legislature has determined that, in order to accomplish the foregoing goals and objectives, it is in the best interest of the members and beneficiaries of LEOF plan 1 that the plan be terminated and that a reconstituted retirement plan with enhanced benefits be created. It is further determined to be in the best interest of the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the state that surplus assets remaining after adequate actuarial provision for the obligated retirement benefits revert to the state and be allocated for the purposes outlined in this chapter.

It is the intent of the legislature that the LEOF plan 1 termination be performed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the federal internal revenue code and in recognition of the contract rights of the members and beneficiaries of the plan to an actuarially sound retirement program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Termination of LEOF Plan 1. Plan 1 of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system (LEOFF plan 1) is hereby terminated. During the transition between the termination of LEOF plan 1 and the reconstituted retirement system established and that a reconstituted retirement plan with enhanced benefits be created. It is further determined to be in the best interest of the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the state that surplus assets remaining after adequate actuarial provision for the obligated retirement benefits revert to the state and be allocated for the purposes outlined in this chapter.

The state retains the inherent power to terminate a retirement plan and, upon the dedication of sufficient resources to ensure the actuarial soundness of the benefits promised, is entitled to a reversion of the surplus assets upon termination of the plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Reconstituted Law Enforcement Officers' and Fire Fighters' Retirement System Established. The reconstituted law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system is hereby established as provided in this chapter. The reconstituted law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system established by this chapter may also be referred to by statute and rule as the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Reconstituted Law Enforcement Officers' and Fire Fighters' Defined Benefit Retirement Fund Established. (1) The reconstituted law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement fund is created in the custody of the state treasurer. The fund shall consist of assets transferred from the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund, investment earnings, and other amounts deposited to the fund. On direction of the director of retirement systems, the state treasurer shall transfer to the reconstituted defined benefit retirement fund an amount equal to the actuarial present value of the fully projected liabilities of plan 1 of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' retirement system based on the actuarial valuations for calendar year 2000, adjusted for inflation after that date, and the long-term economic assumptions in effect on July 1, 2001, under chapter 41.45 RCW. For purposes of funding the plan 1 lump-sum defined benefit created in section 6 of this act, on direction of the director of retirement systems, the state treasurer shall also transfer an amount to the reconstituted defined benefit retirement fund equal to twelve percent of the assets in the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund in excess of the actuarial present value of the fully projected liabilities of plan 1, as calculated under this subsection.

(2) The pension funding council shall conduct an independent audit of the calculation of the present value amount determined by the state actuary. The transfer of these assets to the reconstituted defined benefit retirement fund shall occur as soon as practical after December 1, 2001. The remaining assets in the law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund shall continue to be invested by the state investment board until the transfers occur under sections 5 and 8 of this act.

(3) Expenditures from the reconstituted law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement fund may be used only for the purposes of this chapter. Only the director of retirement systems or the director's designee may authorize expenditures from the fund. No appropriation is required for expenditures.

(4) The director of retirement systems may direct the state treasurer, subsequent to the initial transfer of assets under sections 1 through 8 of this act, to make such additional transfers as are necessary to reconcile the amounts transferred and the requirements of sections 1 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. State Surplus Assets Reserve Fund Established. (1) The state surplus assets reserve fund is created in the state treasury. By December 1, 2001, the state surplus assets reserve fund shall receive all assets of the Washington law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' system plan 1 retirement fund remaining after (A) the distributions to the reconstituted law enforcement officers' and fire fighters' defined benefit retirement fund REQUIRED BY SECTION 4 OF THIS ACT; AND (6) THE DISTRIBUTION TO THE LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS’ AND FIRE FIGHTERS’ MEDICAL BENEFITS RISK POOL UNDER SECTION 8 OF THIS ACT AND CHAPTER 41.—— RCW (SECTIONS 301 THROUGH 310 OF THIS ACT).

2. (1) THE OFFICE OF THE STATE ACTUARY SHALL PERFORM AN ANNUAL ACTUARIAL VALUATION OF THE RESTATED LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS’ AND FIRE FIGHTERS’ DEFINED BENEFIT PLAN TO DETERMINE ITS CONTINUED ACTUARIAL SOUNDNESS. SUCH SUMS SHALL BE TRANSFERRED BY THE LEGISLATURE FROM THE STATE SURPLUS ASSETS RESERVE FUND AS MAY BE NECESSARY UNDER SUBSECTION (2) OF THIS SECTION TO MAINTAIN THE ACTUARIAL SOUNDNESS OF THE DEFINED BENEFIT PLAN.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. LUMP-SUM DEFINED BENEFIT.
