NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia
Monday, January 9, 2017

At 12:02 p.m., pursuant to law, the Senate of the 2017 Regular Session of the Sixty-Fifth Legislature of the State of Washington assembled in the Senate Chamber at the State Capitol. Lieutenant Governor Brad Owen, President of the Senate, called the Senate to order.

The thirty-nine flags of the counties of Washington were paraded into the Chamber by Senate high school pages and college interns (see index for full list).

The Washington State Patrol Honor Guard, consisting of Trooper MaKayla Morgan; Trooper Kelli Howes; Trooper Shaneka Phillips; Sergeant Matt Fehler and Sergeant Greg Tri, presented the Colors.

The President led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced North Thurston Public Schools students representing the American Sign Language Program, who signed and performed the National Anthem. They were led by Director Cathy Boos.

The Washington State Patrol Honor Guard retired from the chamber.

The county flags were retired from the chamber.

The prayer was offered by Ms. Tanna Engdahl, Spiritual Leader of the Cowlitz Tribe.

Ms. Engdahl: "I confess to you, I have already prayed and this is what I have prayed for: In the Indian world we do nothing major that we don't call upon our ancestors. So I have called your ancestors. Your grandparents if on the other side. And all the way to your grandparents' grandparents. They are here standing with you.

All that they were is culminated in you. They know what's in your heart, your real thoughts. When you go into a meeting, when you vote, you won't be alone.

By the way, your title is not yours. It was loaned to you. The owners paid a high price for the seat you occupy. You sit in a borrowed seat with a loaned title. Your agreement with the owners for the rental of that seat is honesty, integrity, perseverance, wisdom and grace.

Our Indian ancestors sat in Council not for themselves but for the seventh generation. Our thought process was long and deliberate knowing we did not make decisions for just today but for all the unborns yet to come. People we will never know, grandchildren we will never see. By some calculations, since statehood, in 1889, you are the seventh generation.

That's why I called upon your ancestors. To stay with you through these hard months to come as your link to the past to give you strength to give us a good foundation for the future, to the seventh generation.

So we pray, by all that is Holy, for you to have wisdom and the grace to know how to use it."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Every year we are privileged to have the Capital Lakefair Queen welcome us on the opening day of legislative session. I am pleased to introduce this year's Lakefair Queen Jaclyn Deshaye, who is from Olympia High School, to say a few words. Queen Jaclyn is accompanied today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Deshaye and 2016 Royalty Chair Ms. Karen Griggs, all of whom are seated in the South Gallery. Welcome. Queen Jaclyn the rostrum is yours."

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Queen Jaclyn to address the Senate and welcome the senators to Olympia.

REMARKS BY QUEEN JACLYN DESHAYE

Miss Jaclyn Deshaye: "Good morning, and thank you so much for inviting me here today. My name is Jaclyn Deshaye and I am honored to be representing Olympia High School as the 2017 Lakefair Queen."

"I have learned so much and gained many experiences this year through the Lakefair organization, but I think the most influential lesson I have learned is how to be a role model. I am so grateful to my school, Olympia High, to have trusted me enough to have sent me as their candidate for the court. I know, through my school's eyes, my job was to be myself and to keep doing my best. To my peers, I learned that it was now my job to be an example, to be poised and intelligent, and to be proud of who I was. To my fellow court members, I learned that it was my job to perform all the duties we had been assigned and to do them with the elegance and honor that follow the Lakefair organization. Being a role model can be challenging, but I am so grateful to fill that spot in my community's eyes."

"You are all role models. The people who voted for you truly believe in you. I urge you to do them proud by representing your community and those who stand behind you in the very best way you can, by being yourself, the person they trusted with their vote."

"As a part of the Lakefair Court this past year, I have gone on numerous parades, volunteered at numerous events, and attended community meetings where the other court members and I gave our platform speeches. I wrote mine December of 2015, in preparation for trying out to be on the Court. My speech centered on my thoughts regarding goal setting and perseverance. A goal of mine was to be on the Lakefair Court, and with a lot of hard work and a lot of perseverance, I get to stand up here today. I have given the same speech to numerous service clubs and community members, and every time I say it I can see it spark a different meaning in listener's eyes."

"What does perseverance mean to you? What are some goals you haven't accomplished yet? As a role model yourself, I hope you keep those questions in mind as you begin this next year's legislation."

"Again, thank you for inviting me here today and for what you are doing for our beautiful state. Let's make 2017 the best year we have seen!"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate advanced to the third order of business.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

Washington State Senate
Senator Bruce Dammeier
25th Legislative District

December 9, 2016

Governor Jay Inslee
PO Box 40002
Olympia, WA 98504

Re: Resignation from the Washington State Senate effective December 31, 2016

Dear Governor Inslee:

Pierce County recently adopted an amendment to the County Charter prohibiting a county elected official from holding any other elected office during his or her term. As I have been elected to the position of Pierce County Executive, based on the new Charter amendment, I must resign my Senate seat prior to taking office.

It has been a pleasure to serve the people of the 25th legislative district as their State Senator, and I look forward to continuing to serve them in my new capacity.

Pursuant to RCW 42.12.020, please accept my resignation from the Washington State Senate effective Saturday, December 31, 2016.

If you have any questions, or if I may provide any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
Senator Bruce Dammeier
25th Legislative District

EDITOR'S NOTE: Pursuant to Article 2, Section 15, State Constitution, haven been elected in the general election and of the same party, Senator Hans Zeiger, 25th Legislative District, was sworn in January 3rd to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Senator Bruce Dammeier.

Dear Governor Inslee,

I am submitting to you my notice of resignation as Senator of the 37th Legislative District. The effective date of my resignation will be December 11, 2016.

It has been an honor to serve as a member of the State Legislature. I am looking forward to continuing to represent the great people of Washington State as the Representative from the 7th Congressional District. This will begin in January of 2017.

Sincerely,
Pramila Jayapal
State Senator
37th Legislative District

KING COUNTY SIGNATURE REPORT
Motion 14767

A MOTION making an appointment to fill the vacancy in the position of state senator for the 37th legislative district.

WHEREAS, a vacancy exists in the position of state senator for the 37th legislative district due to the resignation of Senator Pramila Jayapal following Senator Jayapal's election as United States Representative for the 7th Congressional District of the State of Washington, and

WHEREAS, the 37th legislative district Democratic precinct committee officers have met to consider candidates for the position, and

WHEREAS, the King County Democratic Central Committee has submitted the names of three nominees to fill the vacancy;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED by the Council of King County:

Rebecca Saldaña is hereby appointed to the position of state senator for the 37th legislative district.

Motion 14767 was introduced on 12/12/2016 and passed as amended by the Metropolitan King County Council on 12/12/2016, by the following vote:

2017 REGULAR SESSION

Speaker Pro Tempore
31st Legislative District

January 3, 2017

Governor Jay Inslee
Legislative Building

Re: Resignation from the Washington State Senate effective at 9:59 AM, January 3, 2017

Dear Governor Inslee:

As the longest-serving female state senator in Washington history, it has been a sincere honor and privilege to represent the good people of the 31st District. I was also humbled and honored that my colleagues selected me to serve as the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

Pursuant to RCW 42.12.020, please accept my resignation from both of these positions effective at 9:59 AM, today.

I'm happy with the many things I have achieved at the state level during my 26 years in the Senate. However, having been elected to the Pierce County Council last fall, I am ready to devote my skills and energy to solving problems at the county level. I will therefore resign my Senate seat and the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate, effective at 9:59 AM, January 3, 2017.

I look forward to this new challenge and will look back fondly on my time in the Senate. I leave behind a legacy of which I am very proud. I have fought to improve public safety, passed legislation that gives law-enforcement officers and prosecutors more tools to go after human traffickers, and passed groundbreaking measures to protect Washington families by keeping sex predators out of neighborhoods. I also spent much of my state legislative career fighting for taxpayers, protecting property rights, and defending the people's right to make and reject laws through the power of initiative and referendum. I have also been one of the staunchest defenders of all of our Constitutional rights, including the Second Amendment.

God bless the people of Washington state and my colleagues in the Legislature.

Sincerely,
Senator Pam Roach
31st Legislative District

KING COUNTY AND PIERCE COUNTY SIGNATURE REPORT
January 6, 2017

A JOINT MOTION AND RESOLUTION of the Metropolitan King County Council and the Pierce County Council making an appointment to fill the vacancy in the position of state senator for the 31st legislative district.

WHEREAS, a vacancy exists in the position of state senator for the 31st legislative district due to the resignation of Senator Pam Roach following Senator Roach's election to the Pierce county council, and

WHEREAS, the 31st legislative district is a multicounty legislative district, including part of King County and part of Pierce county, and

WHEREAS, Article II, Section 15 of the Washington state constitution provides that in the event of a vacancy occurring in a multicounty legislative district the vacancy shall be filled by joint action of the legislative authorities of the respective counties from a list of three candidates nominated by the state central committee of the same political party as the legislator whose office is vacated, and

WHEREAS, the candidates must reside in the 31st legislative district and be of the same political party as the legislator whose office is vacated, and

WHEREAS, the Washington State Republican Central Committee has submitted the names of three constitutionally qualified candidates to fill the vacancy created by Senator Roach's resignation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT MOVED AND RESOLVED by the Councils of King and Pierce County:

A. Phil Fortunato, one of the three nominees, is hereby appointed to the position of state senator for the 31st legislative district in the Washington state senate and continuing until a successor is elected at the next general election, and has qualified.

B. The clerks of the councils shall provide a copy of this joint motion and resolution to the clerk of the Washington state Senate, the governor of the state of Washington and the chair of the Washington State Republican Central Committee.

SECOND READING

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4401, by Representatives Sullivan, Kretz and Sawyer

Calling a Joint Session of the Legislature.

The measure was read the second time.

2017 REGULAR SESSION

On motion of Senator Fain, the rules were suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 4401 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

April 1, 2016

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of House Concurrent Resolution No. 4401.

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Senator Fain spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4401 having received a majority was adopted by voice vote.

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6166 entitled:

MOTION

"AN ACT Relating to allowing incremental electricity produced as a result of certain capital investment projects to qualify as an eligible renewable resource under the energy independence act."

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate reverted to the third order of business.

This bill would allow electricity produced by new capital investments in older biomass facilities to be fully eligible as renewable energy under Initiative 937, the Energy Independence Act.

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Honorable President of the Senate
Olympia, Washington 98504

I appreciate the intent of this bill to encourage owners to make capital improvements that increase the efficiency and use of renewable energy at older biomass facilities. However, the bill would undermine investments in renewable energy previously made by others.

MR. PRESIDENT:

I respectfully transmit for your consideration the following measures which were vetoed by the Governor, along with his objections to the bills, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution:

I remain open to changes in our renewable energy standards that encourage new investments and new technologies, without displacing current investments.

For these reasons I have vetoed Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6166 in its entirety

Respectfully submitted,
/s/Jay Inslee, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

VETO ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL No. 6329

April 1, 2016

SSB 6329 Relating to creating the parent to parent program for individuals with developmental disabilities.

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of the state of Washington, this 5th day of April, 2016.

/s/KIM WYMAN, Secretary of State

(Seal)

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6329 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to creating the parent to parent program for individuals with developmental disabilities."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
VETO ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL No. 6117

April 1, 2016

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6117 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to notice against trespass."

I don't believe this bill is necessary to achieve the ends it hopes to accomplish and encourage the stakeholders work together to develop other alternatives.

For these reasons I have vetoed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6117 in its entirety.

I fully support the intent of this legislation, including the establishment of this program in state statute and provision of certain activities through a contracted agency, dependent on funding provided for that purpose. However, this bill is identical in its substantive provisions with the House companion bill, House Bill 2394, creating the parent to parent program for individuals with developmental disabilities. I have previously signed House Bill 2394 into law, thereby making the provisions of this bill duplicative and unnecessary.

For these reasons I have vetoed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6329 in its entirety

Respectfully submitted,
/s/Jay Inslee, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO OF SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL No. 5778

March 31, 2016

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 7, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5778 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to ambulatory surgical facilities."

Section 7 is a fiscal null and void clause, but this bill does not have a fiscal impact. Therefore the clause is not necessary.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 7 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5778. With the exception of section 7, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5778 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/Jay Inslee, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO OF ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE
SENATE BILL No. 6242

April 1, 2016

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6242 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the indeterminate sentence review board."

I am vetoing the emergency clause provision in this bill. To properly implement this legislation, the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board (ISRB) needs time to hire and train additional staff, update and create new forms, and notify offenders of the bill requirements. I expect that during this implementation process, the ISRB will continue to work closely with prosecutors and victims to improve transparency and notification.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6242. With the exception of Section 3, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 6242 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/Jay Inslee, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE
BILL No. 6248

April 1, 2016

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6248 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to risk mitigation plans to promote the transition of eligible coal units."

Section 3 of the bill prohibits the Utilities and Transportation Commission (UTC) from authorizing the use of retirement account funds if the electrical company proposes a closure or retirement date before December 31, 2022, subject to certain exceptions. This section inappropriately changes the long-standing definition of how the commission determines whether utility investment and expenses are prudent. It unnecessarily interferes with the market and with UTC's role in determining how best to protect the ratepayers of Washington-owned utilities.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6248. With the exception of Section 3, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6248 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/Jay Inslee, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO OF SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL No. 6523

April 1, 2016

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6523 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to service credit for pension purposes for certain emergency medical services employees."

The first section of this bill is not necessary for the implementation of the bill, and it raises facts that are inconsistent with the remainder of the bill. This may cause confusion and make the statute less clear.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 1 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 6523.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 9, 2017

With the exception of Section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 6523 is approved.

PARTIAL VETO OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE
BILL No. 6528

April 1, 2016

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen :

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 1, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6528 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to promoting economic development through protection of information technology resources."

Section 1 is an intent section that is not necessary for the policy implementation of the bill. It does, however, contain language that may create unintended liability for the state.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 1 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6528.

With the exception of Section 1, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6528 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6656

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of the state of Washington, this 21st day of April, 2016.

(Seal)

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO OF ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE
BILL No. 6656

April 19, 2016

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 2, 7, 9, and 12, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6656 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the reform of practices at state hospitals."

Section 2 refers to the creation of a transition plan for changing the current financing structure for civil bed utilization. While I agree a transition plan is needed, I would prefer to use the consultant's recommendations to inform the development of the plan. The consultant is funded in the Office of Financial Management's (OFM) budget. I will charge OFM to work with the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) and the consultant to address the requirements of this section and report back to me and the Select Committee on Quality Improvement in State Hospitals by November 2016.

Section 7 creates rules for how funds from the Governor's Behavioral Health Innovation Fund can be used. While I agree with many of the categories for funding, I am concerned that funding cannot be used for compensation increases for hospital personnel; a critical tool in increasing staffing at the state hospitals. As a result, I have vetoed Section 7.

Section 9 requires DSHS to assure that several policies are implemented, subject to the availability of funding. This section is effective in July of 2016. While I agree with many of the policies stipulated in the bill, this section requires implementation of policies that have not had the full benefit of the recommendations made by the consultants called for in section 5. In addition, provisions that require a plan to use all the funding appropriated for Enhanced Services Facilities is duplicative of the requirements of Section 11. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 9.

Section 12 requires the Office of Financial Management to create a job class for Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioners (ARNP) and Physician Assistants (PA) to allow them to work at the top of their practice. While I agree that allowing ARNPs and other mid-level professionals to practice in our hospitals should be an important part of the state's strategy to address workforce shortages, the requirement to create the job class is not consistent with the process provided in law for creation of classified positions. I have therefore vetoed Section 12.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 2, 7, 9, and 12 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6656.

With the exception of Sections 2, 7, 9, and 12, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6656 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/Jay Inslee, Governor

SECTION I
OFFICERS-MEMBERS-EMPLOYEES
Duties of the President

Rule 1. 1. The president shall take the chair and call the senate to order precisely at the hour appointed for meeting, and, if a quorum be present, shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read. (See also Art. 3, Sec. 16, State Constitution.)

2. The president shall preserve order and decorum, and in case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct within the chamber, legislative area, legislative offices or buildings, and legislative hearing and meeting rooms, shall order the sergeant at arms to suppress the same, and may order the arrest of any person creating any disturbance within the senate chamber. The use of cellular or digital telephones is prohibited within the senate chamber during floor session and within a hearing room during a committee hearing, and this prohibition shall be enforced in the same manner as any other breach of order and decorum.

3. The president shall have charge of and see that all officers and employees perform their respective duties, and shall have general control of the senate chamber and wings. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 10, State Constitution.)

4. The president may speak to points of order in preference to members, arising from the president's seat for that purpose, and shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the senate by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the senate.

5. The president shall, in open session, sign all acts, addresses and joint resolutions. The president shall sign all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the senate, all of which shall be attested by the secretary. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 32, State Constitution.)

6. The president shall appoint all conference, special, joint and hereinafter named standing committees on the part of the senate. The appointment of the conference, special, joint and standing committees shall be confirmed by the senate. In the event the senate refuses to confirm any conference, special, joint or standing committee or committees, such committee or committees shall be elected by the senate.

7. The president shall, on each day, announce to the senate the business in order, and no business shall be taken up or considered until the order to which it belongs shall be declared.

8. The president shall decide and announce the result of any vote taken.

9. When a vote of the senate is equally divided, the lieutenant governor, when presiding, shall have the deciding vote on questions other than the final passage of a bill. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 10 and 22, State Constitution.)

President Pro Tempore

Rule 2. 1. Upon the organization of the senate the members shall elect one of their number as president pro tempore who shall have all the powers and authority and who shall discharge all the duties of lieutenant governor acting as president during the lieutenant governor's absence. The president pro tempore shall serve as the vice chair of the committee on rules. The senate shall also elect a vice president pro tempore who will serve in the absence of the lieutenant governor and the president pro tempore. (See Art. 2, Sec. 10, State Constitution.)

2. In the absence of the president pro tempore, and vice president pro tempore, or with their consent, the president shall have the right to name any senator to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment, nor authorize the senator so substituted to sign any documents requiring the signature of the president.

3. A "majority caucus" is a caucus whose members constitute a majority of the senate and may include members from different political caucuses. The establishment of a majority caucus is evidenced by a majority of the members of the senate demonstrating the intent to caucus together and to lead the senate. Those members not part of the majority caucus constitute the minority caucus or caucuses.

Secretary of the Senate

Rule 3. 1. The senate shall elect a secretary, who shall appoint a deputy secretary, both of whom shall be officers of the senate and shall perform the usual duties pertaining to their offices, and they shall hold office until their successors have been elected or appointed.

2. The secretary is the Personnel Officer of the senate and shall appoint, subject to the approval of the senate, all other senate employees and the hours of duty and assignments of all senate employees shall be under the secretary's directions and instructions and they may be dismissed at the secretary's discretion.

3. The secretary of the senate, prior to the convening of the next regular session, shall prepare his office to receive bills which the holdover members and members-elect may desire to prefile commencing with the first Monday in December preceding any regular session or twenty days prior to any special session of the legislature.

Sergeant at Arms

Rule 4. 1. The director of senate security shall perform the functions of the sergeant at arms for the senate.

2. The sergeant at arms shall not admit to the floor of the senate during the time the senate is not convened any person other than specifically requested by a senator, the president, or the secretary of the senate, in writing or when personally accompanied by a senator.

Subordinate Officers

Rule 5. The subordinate officers of the senate shall perform such duties as usually pertain to their respective positions in legislative bodies under the direction of the president, and such other duties as the senate may impose upon them. Under no circumstances shall the compensation of any employee be increased for past services. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 25, State Constitution.)

Employees

Rule 6. 1. No senate employee shall lobby in favor of or against any matter under consideration.

2. Senate employees are governed by joint rules and chapters 42.17 (the Public Disclosure Act) and 42.52 RCW (the Ethics in Public Service Act).

Conduct of Members and Officers

Rule 7. 1. Indecorous conduct, boisterous or unbecoming language will not be permitted in the senate at any time. Food and drink are prohibited within the senate chamber during floor session, except that members may drink water at their floor desks. The use of cellular or digital telephones is prohibited within the senate chamber during floor session and within a hearing room during a committee hearing.

2. In cases of breach of decorum or propriety, any senator, officer or other person shall be liable to such censure or punishment as the senate may deem proper, and if any senator be called to order for offensive or indecorous language or conduct, the person calling the senator to order shall report the language excepted to which shall be taken down or noted at the secretary's desk. No member shall be held to answer for any language used upon the floor of the senate if business has intervened before exception to the language was thus taken and noted.

3. If any senator in speaking, or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the senate, the president shall, or any senator may, call that senator to order, and a senator so called to order shall resume the senator's seat and not proceed without leave of the senate, which leave, if granted, shall be upon motion "that the senator be allowed to proceed in order," when, if carried, the senator shall speak to the question under consideration.

4. No senator shall be absent from the senate without leave, except in case of accident or sickness, and if any senator or officer shall be absent the senator's per diem shall not be allowed or paid, and no senator or officer shall obtain leave of absence or be excused from attendance without the consent of a majority of the members present.

5. In the event of a motion or resolution to censure or punish, or any procedural motion thereto involving a senator, that senator shall not vote thereon. The senator shall be allowed to answer to such motion or resolution. An election or vote by the senate on a motion to censure or punish a senator shall require the vote of a majority of all senators elected or appointed to the senate. A vote to expel a member shall require a two-thirds concurrence of all members elected or appointed to the senate. All votes shall be taken by yeas and nays and the votes shall be entered upon the journal. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 9, State Constitution.)

SECTION II

OPERATIONS AND MANAGEMENT

Payment of Expenses - Facilities and Operations

Rule 8. 1. After the reorganization caucuses of the senate, the majority caucus shall designate four members and the minority caucus shall designate three members to serve on the facilities and operations committee. The chair of the majority caucus shall be the chair of the facilities and operations committee. The operation of the senate shall transfer to the newly designated members after the reorganization caucuses of the senate or at any time after the reorganization caucuses if a different caucus becomes the majority caucus.

2. All necessary expenses of the senate incurred during the session shall be signed for by the secretary and approved by a majority of the committee on facilities and operations. The committee on facilities and operations shall carefully consider all items of expenditure ordered or contracted on the part of the senate, and report upon the same prior to the voucher being signed by the secretary of the senate authorizing the payment thereof. The committee on facilities and operations shall issue postage only as follows:

(a) To elected or appointed members of the senate in an amount sufficient to allow performance of their legislative duties.

(b) To the secretary of the senate in an amount sufficient to carry out the business of the senate.

Use of Senate Chambers

Rule 9. The senate chamber and its facilities shall not be used for any but legislative business, except by permission of the senate while in session, or by the facilities and operations committee when not in session.

Admission to the Senate

Rule 10. The sergeant at arms shall admit only the following individuals to the floor and adjacent areas of the senate for the period of time beginning one-half hour before convening and ending when the senate has adjourned or recessed for an hour or more:

The governor and/or designees,
Members of the house of representatives,
State elected officials,
Officers and authorized employees of the legislature,
Honored guests being presented to the senate,
Former members of the senate who are not registered lobbyists pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW,
Representatives of the press,
Persons specifically requested by a senator to the president in writing or only as long as accompanied by a senator.

Printing of Bills

Rule 11. The number of bills printed and reprinted shall be at the discretion of the secretary of the senate, with the approval of the facilities and operations committee.

Furnishing Full File of Bills

Rule 12. Persons, firms, corporations and organizations within the state, desirous of receiving copies of all printed senate bills, shall make application therefor to the secretary of the senate. The bill clerk shall send copies of all printed senate bills to such persons, firms, corporations and organizations as may be ordered by the secretary of the senate. The secretary of the senate is authorized to recoup costs.

Regulation of Lobbyists

Rule 13. All persons who engage in lobbying of any kind as defined in chapter 42.17 RCW shall be subject to the rules of the senate and legislature when lobbying before the senate. Any person who fails to conform to the senate or joint rules may have their privilege to lobby and all other privileges revoked upon a majority vote of the committee on rules for such time as is deemed appropriate by the committee.

Any person registered as a lobbyist pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW who intervenes in or attempts to influence any personnel decision of the senate regarding any employee may suffer an immediate revocation of all privileges before the senate or such other privileges and for such time as may be deemed appropriate by the senate committee on rules. This restriction shall not prohibit a registered lobbyist from making written recommendations for staff positions.

Security Management

Rule 14. The sergeant at arms may develop methods to protect the senate, including its members, staff, and the visiting public, by establishing procedures to curtail the use or possession of any weapon in a manner that is prohibited by law or by the rules of the Department of General Administration.

SECTION III RULES AND ORDER Time of Convening

Rule 15. The senate shall convene at 10:00 a.m. each working day, unless adjourned to a different hour. The senate shall adjourn not later than 10:00 p.m. of each working day. The senate shall recess ninety minutes for lunch each working day. When reconvening on the same day the senate shall recess ninety minutes for dinner each working evening. This rule may be suspended by a majority.

Quorum

Rule 16. A majority of all members elected or appointed to the senate shall be necessary to constitute a quorum to do business. Less than a quorum may adjourn from day to day until a quorum can be had. (See Art. 2, Sec. 8, State Constitution.)

Order of Business

Rule 17. After the roll is called and journal read and approved, business shall be disposed of in the following order:

- FIRST. Reports of standing committees.
- SECOND. Reports of select committees.
- THIRD. Messages from the governor and other state officers.
- FOURTH. Messages from the house of representatives.
- FIFTH. Introduction, first reading and reference of bills, joint memorials, joint resolutions and concurrent resolutions.
- SIXTH. Second reading of bills.
- SEVENTH. Third reading of bills.
- EIGHTH. Presentation of petitions, memorials and floor resolutions.
- NINTH. Presentation of motions.

The order of business established by this rule may be changed and any order of business already dealt with may be reverted or advanced to by a majority vote of those present.

All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.

Messages from the governor, other state officers, and from the house of representatives may be considered at any time with the consent of the senate.

Special Order

Rule 18. The president shall call the senate to order at the hour fixed for the consideration of a special order, and announce that the special order is before the senate, which shall then be considered unless it is postponed by a majority vote of the members present, and any business before the senate at the time of the announcement of the special order shall take its regular position in the order of business, except that if a cutoff established by concurrent resolution occurs during the special order, the senate may complete the measure that was before the senate when consideration of the special order was commenced.

Unfinished Business

Rule 19. The unfinished business at the preceding adjournment shall have preference over all other matters, excepting special orders, and no motion or any other business shall be received without special leave of the senate until the former is disposed of.

Motions and Senate Floor Resolutions

(How Presented)

Rule 20. 1. No motion shall be entertained or debated until announced by the president and every motion shall be deemed to have been seconded. It shall be reduced to writing and read by the secretary, if desired by the president or any senator, before it shall be debated, and by the consent of the senate may be withdrawn before amendment or action.

2. The senate shall consider no more than one floor resolution per day in session: Provided, That this rule shall not apply to floor resolutions essential to the operation of the senate; and further Provided, That there shall be no limit on the number of floor resolutions considered on senate pro forma session days. Senate floor resolutions shall be acted upon in the same manner as motions. All senate floor resolutions shall be on the secretary's desk at least twenty-four hours prior to consideration. Members' names shall only be added to the resolution if the member signs the resolution. Members shall have until thirty minutes after the senate is convened the following day the senate is in a regular or pro forma session to add their names to the floor resolution. A motion may be made to close the period for signatures at an earlier time.

Precedence of Motions

Rule 21. When a motion has been made and stated by the chair the following motions are in order, in the rank named:

PRIVILEGED MOTIONS

- Adjourn, recess, or go at ease
- Reconsider
- Demand for call of the senate
- Demand for roll call
- Demand for division
- Question of privilege
- Orders of the day

INCIDENTAL MOTIONS

- Points of order and appeal
- Method of consideration
- Suspend the rules
- Reading papers
- Withdraw a motion
- Division of a question

SUBSIDIARY MOTIONS

- 1st Rank: To lay on the table
- 2nd Rank: For the previous question
- 3rd Rank: To postpone to a day certain
To commit or recommit
To postpone indefinitely
- 4th Rank: To amend

No motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day and at the same stage of the proceedings, and when a question has been postponed indefinitely it shall not again be introduced during the session.

A motion to lay an amendment on the table shall not carry the main question with it unless so specified in the motion to table.

At no time shall the senate entertain a Question of Consideration.

Voting

Rule 22. 1. In all cases of election by the senate, the votes shall be taken by yeas and nays, and no senator or other person shall remain by the secretary's desk while the roll is being called or the votes are being counted. No senator shall be allowed to vote except when within the bar of the senate, or upon any question upon which he or she is in any way personally or directly interested, nor be allowed to explain a vote or discuss the question while the yeas and nays are being called, nor change a vote after the result has been announced. (See also Art. 2, Secs. 27 and 30, State Constitution.)

2. A member not voting by reason of personal or direct interest, or by reason of an excused absence, may explain the reason for not voting by a brief statement not to exceed fifty words in the journal.

3. The yeas and nays shall be taken when called for by one-sixth of all the senators present, and every senator within the bar of the senate shall vote unless excused by the unanimous vote of the members present, and the votes shall be entered upon the journal. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 21, State Constitution.)

When once begun the roll call may not be interrupted for any purpose other than to move a call of the senate. (See also Rule 24.)

4. A senator having been absent during roll call may ask to have his or her name called. Such a request must be made before the result of the roll call has been announced by the president.

5. The passage of a bill or action on a question is lost by a tie vote, but when a vote of the senate is equally divided, the lieutenant governor, when presiding, shall have the deciding vote on questions other than the final passage of a bill. (See also Art. 2, Secs. 10 and 22, State Constitution.)

6. The order of the names on the roll call shall be alphabetical by last name.

7. All votes in a committee shall be recorded, and the record shall be preserved as prescribed by the secretary of the senate. One-sixth of the committee may demand an oral roll call.

8. If a member of the majority is going to be absent due to a health matter or other emergency, then a member of the minority may publicly announce on the floor of the senate that he or she will cast votes as he or she believes the absent member would have voted in order to avoid results that would only occur because of the unanticipated absence.

Announcement of Vote

Rule 23. The announcement of all votes shall be made by the president.

Call of the Senate

Rule 24. Although a roll call is in progress, a call of the senate may be moved by three senators, and if carried by a majority of all present the secretary shall call the roll, after which the names of the absentees shall again be called. The doors shall then be locked and the sergeant at arms directed to take into custody all who may be absent without leave, and all the senators so taken into custody shall be presented at the bar of the senate for such action as the senate may deem proper.

One Subject in a Bill

Rule 25. No bill shall embrace more than one subject and that shall be expressed in the title. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 19, State Constitution.)

No Amendment by Mere Reference to Title of Act

Rule 26. No act shall ever be revised or amended by mere reference to its title, but the act revised or the section amended shall be set forth at full length. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 37, State Constitution.)

Reading of Papers

Rule 27. When the reading of any paper is called for, and is objected to by any senator, it shall be determined by a vote of the senate, without debate.

Any and all copies of reproductions of newspaper or magazine editorials, articles or cartoons or publications or material of any nature distributed to senators' desks must bear the name of at least one senator granting permission for the distribution. This shall not apply to materials normally distributed by the secretary of the senate or the majority or minority caucuses.

Comparing Enrolled and Engrossed Bills

Rule 28. Any senator shall have the right to compare an enrolled bill with the engrossed bill and may note any objections in the Journal.

SECTION IV PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE Rules of Debate

Rule 29. When any senator is about to speak in debate, or submit any matter to the senate, the senator shall rise, and standing in place, respectfully address the President, and when recognized shall, in a courteous manner, speak to the question under debate, avoiding personalities; provided that a senator may refer to another member using the title "Senator" and the surname of the other member. No senator shall impeach the motives of any other member or speak more than twice (except for explanation) during the consideration of any one question, on the same day or a second time without leave, when others who have not spoken desire the floor, but incidental and subsidiary questions arising during the debate shall not be considered the same question. A majority of the members present may further limit the number of times a member may speak on any question and may limit the length of time a member may speak but, unless a demand for the previous question has been sustained, a member shall not be denied the right to speak at least once on each question, nor shall a member be limited to less than ~~((three))~~ two minutes on each question. In any event, the senator who presents the motion may open and close debate on the question.

Recognition by the President

Rule 30. When two or more senators rise at the same time to address the chair, the president shall name the one who shall speak first, giving preference, when practicable, to the mover or introducer of the subject under consideration. (See also Reed's Rule 214).

Call for Division of a Question

Rule 31. Any senator may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided if it embraces subjects so distinct that one being taken away a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the senate; but a motion to strike out and insert shall not be divided.

Point of Order - Decision Appealable

Rule 32. 1. Every decision of points of order by the president shall be subject to appeal by any senator, and discussion of a question of order shall be allowed. In all cases of appeal the question shall be: "Shall the decision of the president stand as the judgment of the senate?"

2. When a member appeals the decision of the presiding officer, the presiding officer may not preside over the appeal.

3. An appeal from the decision of the presiding officer is timely if brought before the body on the day the decision was made unless the decision affected a measure that is no longer in possession of the senate.

Question of Privilege

Rule 33. Any senator may rise to a question of privilege and explain a personal matter by leave of the president, but shall not discuss any pending question or discuss the subject of any vote taken by the body or any legislative matter that may have been introduced or considered during the legislative session in such explanations, nor shall any question of personal privilege permit any senator to introduce any person or persons in the galleries. The president upon notice received may acknowledge the presence of any distinguished person or persons.

A question of privilege shall involve only subject matter which affects the particular senator personally and in a manner unique and peculiar to that senator.

Protests

Rule 34. Any senator or senators may protest against the action of the senate upon any question. Such protest may be entered upon the journal if it does not exceed 200 words. The senator protesting shall file the protest with the secretary of the senate within 48 hours following the action protested.

Adoption and Suspension of Rules

Rule 35. 1. The permanent senate rules adopted at the first regular session during a legislative biennium shall govern any session subsequently convened during the same legislative biennium. Adoption of permanent rules may be by majority of the senate without notice and a majority of the senate may change a permanent rule without notice at the beginning of any session, as determined pursuant to Article 2, Section 12 of the State Constitution. No permanent rule or order of the senate shall be rescinded or changed without a majority vote of the members, and one day's notice of the motion.

2. A permanent rule or order may be temporarily suspended for a special purpose by a vote of two-thirds of the members present unless otherwise specified herein. When the suspension of a rule is called, and after due notice from the president no objection is offered, the president may announce the rule suspended, and the senate may proceed accordingly. Motion for suspension of the rules shall not be debatable, except, the mover of the motion may briefly explain the purpose of the motion and at the discretion of the president a rebuttal may be allowed.

Previous Question

Rule 36. The previous question shall not be put unless demanded by three senators, and it shall then be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" When sustained by a majority of senators present it shall preclude all debate, except the senator who presents the motion may open and close debate on the question and the vote shall be immediately taken on the question or questions pending before the senate, and all incidental question or questions of order arising after the motion is made shall be decided whether on appeal or otherwise without debate.

Reconsideration

Rule 37. 1. After the final vote on any measure, before the adjournment of that day's session, any member who voted with the prevailing side may give notice of reconsideration unless a motion to immediately transmit the measure to the house has been decided in the affirmative. Such motion to reconsider shall be in order only under the order of motions of the day immediately following the day upon which such notice of reconsideration is given, and may be made by any member who voted with the prevailing side.

2. A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn; and when the senate adjourns while a motion to reconsider is pending or before passing the order of motions, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next day of sitting. On and after the tenth day prior to adjournment sine die of any session, as determined pursuant to Article 2, Section 12, or concurrent resolution, or in the event that the measure is subject to a senate rule or resolution or a joint rule or concurrent resolution, which would preclude consideration on the next day of sitting a motion to reconsider shall only be in order on the same day upon which notice of reconsideration is given and may be made at any time that day. Motions to reconsider a vote upon amendments to any pending question may be made and decided at once.

Motion to Adjourn

Rule 38. Except when under call of the senate, a motion to adjourn shall always be in order. The name of the senator moving to adjourn and the time when the motion was made shall be entered upon the journal.

Yeas and Nays - When Must be Taken

Rule 39. The yeas and nays shall be taken when called for by one-sixth of all the senators present, and every senator within the bar of the senate shall vote unless excused by the unanimous vote of the members present, and the votes shall be entered upon the journal. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 21, State Constitution.)

When once begun the roll call may not be interrupted for any purpose other than to move a call of the senate. (See also Senate Rules 22 and 24.)

Reed's Parliamentary Rules

Rule 40. The rules of parliamentary practice as contained in Reed's Parliamentary Rules shall govern the senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the rules and orders of this senate and the joint rules of this senate and the house of representatives.

SECTION V COMMITTEES

Committees - Appointment and Confirmation

Rule 41. The president shall appoint all conference, special, joint and standing committees on the part of the senate. The appointment of the conference, special, joint and standing committees shall be confirmed by the senate.

In the event the senate shall refuse to confirm any conference, special, joint or standing committee or committees, such committee or committees shall be elected by the senate.

The following standing committees shall constitute the standing committees of the senate:

Standing Committee	Total Membership
1. (Accountability & Reform)	5
2.) Agriculture, Water, Trade & (Rural) Economic Development	((5)) 11
(3-) 2. Commerce (&), Labor & Sports	((7)) 9

(13-) 12. Rules.....	20 (plus the Lieutenant Governor)
(14- Trade & Economic Development)	7
15-) 13. State Government.....	5
14. Transportation.....	15
(16-) 15. Ways & Means	23

Subcommittees

Rule 42. Committee chairs may create subcommittees of the standing committee and designate subcommittee chairs thereof to study subjects within the jurisdiction of the standing committee. The committee chair shall approve the use of committee staff and equipment assigned to the subcommittee. Subcommittee activities shall further be subject to facilities and operations committee approval to the same extent as are the actions of the standing committee from which they derive their authority.

Subpoena Power

Rule 43. Any of the above referenced committees, including subcommittees thereof, or any special committees created by the senate, may have the powers of subpoena, the power to administer oaths, and the power to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses in accordance with the provisions of chapter 44.16 RCW. The committee chair shall file with the committee on rules, prior to issuance of any process, a statement of purpose setting forth the name or names of those subject to process. The rules committee shall consider every proposed issuance of process at a meeting of the rules committee immediately following the filing of the statement with the committee. The process shall not be issued prior to consideration by the rules committee. The process shall be limited to the named individuals and the committee on rules may overrule the service on an individual so named.

Duties of Committees

Rule 44. The several committees shall fully consider measures referred to them.

The committees shall acquaint themselves with the interest of the state specially represented by the committee, and from time to time present such bills and reports as in their judgment will advance the interests and promote the welfare of the people of the state: PROVIDED, That no executive action on bills may be taken during an interim.

Committee Rules

Rule 45. 1. At least five days notice shall be given of all public hearings held by any committee other than the rules committee. Such notice shall contain the date, time and place of such hearing together with the title and number of each bill, or identification of the subject matter, to be considered at such hearing. By a majority vote of the committee members present at any committee meeting such notice may be dispensed with. The reason for such action shall be set forth in a written statement preserved in the records of the meeting.

2. No committee may hold a public hearing during a regular or extraordinary session on a proposal identified as a draft unless the draft has been made available to the public at least twenty-four hours prior to the hearing. This rule does not apply during the five days prior to any cutoff established by concurrent resolution nor does it apply to any measure exempted from the resolution.

3. During its consideration of or vote on any bill, resolution or memorial, the deliberations of any committee or subcommittee of the senate shall be open to the public. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct at any such deliberations, the chair shall order the sergeant at arms to suppress the same and may order the meeting closed to any person or persons creating such disturbance.

4. No committee shall amend a measure, adopt a substitute bill, or vote upon any measure or appointment absent a quorum. A committee may conduct a hearing absent a quorum. A majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum and committees shall be considered to have a quorum present unless the question is raised. Any question as to quorum not raised at the time of the committee action is deemed waived.

5. Bills reported to the senate from a standing committee must have a majority report, which shall be prepared upon a printed standing committee report form; shall be adopted at a regularly or specially called meeting during a legislative session and shall be signed by a majority of the committee; and shall carry only one of the following recommendations:

- a. Do pass;
- b. Do pass as amended;
- c. That a substitute bill be substituted therefor, and the substitute bill do pass; or
- d. Without recommendation.

In addition to one of the above-listed recommendations, a report may also recommend that a bill be referred to another committee.

6. A majority report of a committee must carry the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee. In the event a committee has a quorum pursuant to subsection 4 of this rule, subject to the limitation of subsection 12 of this rule, a majority of the members present may act on a measure, subject to obtaining the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee on the majority report.

7. Any measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment still within a committee's possession before it has been reported out to the full senate may be reconsidered to correct an error, change language, or otherwise accurately reflect the will of the committee in its majority and minority reports to the full senate. Any such reconsideration may be made at any time, by any member of the committee, provided that the committee has not yet reported the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out to the full senate. Any such reconsideration made after a vote has been taken or signatures obtained will require a new vote and signature sheet. Any measure which does not receive a majority vote of the members present may be reconsidered at that meeting and may again be considered upon motion of any committee member if one day's notice of said motion is provided to all committee members. For purposes of this rule, a committee is deemed to have reported a measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out when it has delivered its majority and minority reports to the senate workroom. After such delivery, the committee no longer has possession of the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment and no further committee action, including reconsideration, may be taken.

8. Any member of the committee not concurring in the majority report may sign a minority report containing a recommendation of "do not pass" or "without recommendation," which shall be signed by those members of the committee subscribing thereto, and submitted with the majority report. Unless the signatory of a minority report expressly indicates a "do not pass" recommendation, the member's vote shall be deemed to be "without recommendation." In every case where a majority report form is circulated for signature, a minority report form shall also be circulated.

9. When a committee reports a substitute for an original bill with the recommendation that the substitute bill do pass, it shall be in order to read the substitute bill the first time and have the same ordered printed.

A motion for the substitution of the substitute bill for the original bill shall not be in order until the committee on rules places the original bill on the second reading calendar.

10. No vote in any committee shall be taken by secret ballot nor shall any committee have a policy of secrecy as to any vote on action taken in such committee.

11. All reports of standing committees must be on the secretary's desk one hour prior to convening of the session in order to be read at said session. During any special session of the legislature, this rule may be suspended by a majority vote.

12. When a standing committee is operated by cochairs, the committee may not vote upon any measure or appointment without the consent of each cochair.

Committee Meetings During Sessions

Rule 46. No committee shall sit during the daily session of the senate unless by special leave.

No committee shall sit during any scheduled caucus.

Reading of Reports

Rule 47. The majority report, and minority report, if there be one, together with the names of the signers thereof, shall be read by the secretary, unless the reading be dispensed with by the senate, and all committee reports shall be spread upon the journal.

Recalling Bills from Committees

Rule 48. Any standing committee of the senate may be relieved of further consideration of any bill, regardless of prior action of the committee, by a majority vote of the senators elected or appointed. The senate may then make such orderly disposition of the bill as they may direct by a majority vote of the members of the senate.

Bills Referred to Rules Committee

Rule 49. All bills reported by a committee to the senate shall then be referred to the committee on rules for second reading without action on the report unless otherwise ordered by the senate. (See also Rules 63 and 64.)

Rules Committee

Rule 50. The lieutenant governor shall be a voting member and the chair of the committee on rules. The president pro tempore shall be a voting member and the vice chair of the committee on rules. The committee on rules shall have charge of the daily second and third reading calendar of the senate and shall direct the secretary of the senate the order in which the bills shall be considered by the senate and the committee on rules shall have the authority to directly refer any bill before them to any other standing committee. Such referral shall be reported out to the senate on the next day's business.

The senate may change the order of consideration of bills on the second or third reading calendar.

The calendar, except in emergent situations, as determined by the committee on rules, shall be on the desks and in the offices of the senators each day and shall cover the bills for consideration on the next following day.

Employment Committee

Rule 51. The employment committee for committee staff shall consist of five members, three from the majority party and two from the minority party. The chair shall be appointed by the majority leader. The committee shall, in addition to its other duties, appoint a staff director for committee services with the concurrence of four of its members. All other decisions shall be determined by majority vote. The committee shall operate within staffing, budget levels and guidelines as authorized and adopted by the facilities and operations committee.

Committee of the Whole

Rule 52. At no time shall the senate sit as a committee of the whole.

The senate may at any time, by the vote of the majority of the members present, sit as a body for the purpose of taking testimony on any measure before the senate.

Appropriation Budget Bills

Rule 53. No amendment to the operating budget or supplemental budget, not incorporated in the bill as reported by the ways and means committee, shall be adopted except by the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the senators elected or appointed.

SECTION VI BILLS, RESOLUTIONS, MEMORIALS AND GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENTS

Definitions

Rule 54. "Measure" means a bill, joint memorial, joint resolution, or concurrent resolution.

"Bill" when used alone means bill, joint memorial, joint resolution, or concurrent resolution.

"Majority" shall mean a majority of those members present unless otherwise stated.

Prefiling

Rule 55. Holdover members and members-elect to the senate may prefile bills with the secretary of the senate on any day commencing with the first Monday in December preceding any session year; or twenty days prior to any special session of the legislature. Such bills will be printed, distributed and prepared for introduction on the first legislative day. No bill, joint memorial or joint resolution shall be prefiled by title and/or preamble only. (See also Rule 3, Sub. 3.)

Introduction of Bills

Rule 56. All bills, joint resolutions, and joint memorials introduced shall be endorsed with a statement of the title and the name of the member introducing the same. Any member desiring to introduce a bill, joint resolution, or joint memorial shall file the same with the secretary of the senate by noon of the day before the convening of the session at which said bill, joint resolution, or joint memorial is to be introduced.

Provided that a vote has not been taken on final passage of a bill, joint resolution, or joint memorial, a member may add his or her name as a cosponsor until 2:00 p.m. of the day of its introduction. For any bill, joint resolution, or joint memorial that has been prefiled for a regular session, a member has until 2:00 p.m. of the day following introduction to add his or her name as a cosponsor.

To be considered during a regular session, a bill must be introduced at least ten days before final adjournment of the legislature, unless the legislature directs otherwise by a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, said vote to be taken by yeas and nays and entered upon the journal. The time limitation for introduction of bills shall not apply to substitute bills reported by standing committees for bills pending before such committees and general appropriation and revenue bills. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 36, State Constitution.)

Amendatory Bills

Rule 57. Bills introduced in the senate intended to amend existing statutes shall have the words which are amendatory to such existing statutes underlined. Any matter to be deleted from the existing statutes shall be indicated by setting such matter forth in full, enclosed by double parentheses, and such deleted matter shall be lined out with hyphens. No bill shall be printed or acted upon until the provisions of this rule shall have been complied with.

Sections added by amendatory bill to an existing act, or chapter of the official code, need not be underlined but shall be designated

"NEW SECTION" in upper case type and such designation shall be underlined. New enactments need not be underlined.

When statutes are being repealed, the Revised Code of Washington section number to be repealed, the section caption and the session law history, from the most current to the original, shall be cited.

Joint Resolutions and Memorials

Rule 58. Joint resolutions and joint memorials, up to the signing thereof by the president of the senate, shall be subject to the rules governing the course of bills.

Senate Concurrent Resolutions

Rule 59. Concurrent resolutions shall be subject to the rules governing the course of bills and may be adopted without a roll call. Concurrent resolutions authorizing investigations and authorizing the expenditure or allocation of any money must be adopted by roll call and the yeas and nays recorded in the journal. Concurrent resolutions are subject to final passage on the day of the first reading without regard to Senate Rules 62, 63, and 64.

Committee Bills

Rule 60. Committee bills introduced by a standing committee during a legislative session may be filed with the secretary of the senate and introduced, and the signature of each member of the committee shall be endorsed upon the cover of the original bill.

Committee bills shall be read the first time by title, ordered printed, and referred to the committee on rules for second reading.

Committee Reference

Rule 61. When a motion is made to refer a subject, and different committees are proposed, the question shall be taken in the following order:

- FIRST: A standing committee.
- SECOND: A select committee.

Reading of Bills

Rule 62. Every bill shall be read on three separate days unless the senate deems it expedient to suspend this rule. Except for bills that (~~create a new tax~~) raise taxes as provided in Rule 64, on and after the tenth day preceding adjournment sine die of any session, or three days prior to any cut-off date for consideration of bills, as determined pursuant to Article 2, Section 12 of the Constitution or concurrent resolution, or during any special session of the legislature, this rule may be suspended by a majority vote. (See also Rule 59 and Rule 64).

First Reading

Rule 63. The first reading of a bill shall be by title only, unless a majority of the members present demand a reading in full.

After the first reading, bills shall be referred to an appropriate committee pursuant to Rule 61.

Upon being reported back by committee, all bills shall be referred to the committee on rules for second reading, unless otherwise ordered by the senate. (See Rule 49.)

A bill shall be reported back by the committee chair upon written petition therefor signed by a majority of its members. The petition shall designate the recommendation as provided in Rule 45, Sub. 5.

No committee chair shall exercise a pocket veto of any bill.

Should there be a two-thirds majority report of the committee membership against the bill, a vote shall be immediately ordered for the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Second Reading/Amendments

Rule 64. Upon second reading, the bill shall be read section by section, in full, and be subject to amendment.

Any member may, if sustained by three members, remove a bill from the consent calendar as constituted by the committee on rules. A bill removed from the consent calendar shall take its place as the last bill in the order of consideration of bills on the second reading calendar.

No amendment shall be considered by the senate until it shall have been sent to the secretary's desk in writing and read by the secretary.

All amendments adopted on the second reading shall then be securely fastened to the original bill.

All amendments rejected by the senate shall be spread upon the journal, and the journal shall show the disposition of all amendments.

When no further amendments shall be offered, the president shall declare the bill has passed its second reading, and shall be referred to the committee on rules for third reading: Provided, That any bill that (~~creates a new tax shall require~~) raises taxes requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the senators elected or appointed to advance to third reading, unless the bill contains a referendum clause.

"Raises taxes" means increasing state tax revenue deposited in any fund, budget, or account.

Third Reading

Rule 65. Bills on third reading shall be read in full by sections, and no amendment shall be entertained.

When a bill shall pass, it shall be certified to by the secretary, together with the vote upon final passage, noting the day of its passage thereon.

The vote must be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the senators voting for and against the same to be entered upon the journal and the majority of the members elected to the senate must be recorded thereon as voting in its favor to secure its passage by the senate.

Scope and Object of Bill Not to be Changed

Rule 66. No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 38, State Constitution.) Substitute bills shall be considered amendments for the purposes of this rule. A point of order raising the question of scope and object may be raised at any time during consideration of an amendment prior to voting on the amendment. A proposed amendment to an unamended title-only bill shall be within the scope and object of the bill if the subject of the amendment fits within the language in the title.

Matters Related to Disagreement Between the Senate and House

Rule 67. When there is a disagreement between the senate and house on a measure before the senate, the senate may act upon the measure with the following motions which have priority in the following order:

- To concur
- To non-concur
- To recede
- To insist
- To adhere

These motions are in order as to any single amendment or to a series of amendments. (See Reed's Rules 247 through 254.)

A senate bill, passed by the house with amendment or amendments which shall change the scope and object of the bill, upon being received in the senate, shall be referred to an appropriate committee and shall take the same course as for original bills, unless a motion to ask the house to recede, to insist or to adhere is made prior to the measure being referred to committee.

A motion to concur with an amendment or amendments that ~~((create a new tax))~~ raise taxes requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the senators elected or appointed unless the bill contains a referendum clause.

"Raises taxes" means increasing state tax revenue deposited in any fund, budget, or account.

Bills Committed for Special Amendment

Rule 68. A bill may be committed with or without special instructions to amend at any time before taking the final vote.

Confirmation of Gubernatorial Appointees

Rule 69. When the names of appointees to state offices are transmitted to the secretary of the senate for senate confirmation, the communication from the governor shall be recorded and referred to the appropriate standing committee.

The standing committee, or subcommittee, pursuant to rule 42, shall require each appointee referred to the committee for consideration to complete the standard questionnaire to be used to ascertain the appointee's general background and qualifications. The committee may also require the appointee to complete a supplemental questionnaire related specifically to the qualifications for the position to which he has been appointed.

Any hearing on a gubernatorial appointment, held by the standing committee, or subcommittees, pursuant to rule 42, shall be a public hearing. The appointee may be required to appear before the committee on request. When appearing, the appointee shall be required to testify under oath or affirmation. The chair of the committee or the presiding member shall administer the oath or affirmation in accordance with RCW 44.16. (See also Article 2, Sec. 6 of the State Constitution.)

Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prevent a standing committee, or subcommittee, pursuant to rule 42, upon a two-thirds vote of its members, from holding executive sessions when considering an appointment.

When the committee on rules presents the report of the standing committee before the senate, the question shall be the confirmation of the name proposed, and the roll shall then be called and the yeas and nays entered upon the journal. In the event a message is received from the governor requesting return of an appointment or appointments to the office of the governor prior to confirmation, the senate shall vote upon the governor's request and the appointment or appointments shall be returned to the governor if the request is approved by a majority of the members elected or appointed. (Article 13 of the State Constitution.)

MOTION

Senator Baumgartner moved that the following floor amendment no. 1 by Senator Baumgartner be adopted:

On page 5, line 27, after "as the" strike "vice" and insert "((vice))"

On page 5, line 30, after "tempore." insert "The vice president3pro tempore shall serve as the vice chair of the committee on rules."

On page 19, line 37, strike "(plus the Lieutenant Governor)" and5insert "(((plus the Lieutenant Governor)))"

On page 24, line 4, after "The" strike "lieutenant governor" and7insert "(((lieutenant governor))) president pro tempore"

On page 24, line 5, after "The" insert "vice"

Senators Baumgartner, Fain and Ericksen spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Padden: "Mr. President, it is my understanding, from observation, that the Lieutenant Governor has the ability to pull bills and vote in the Rules committee? Has that not been past practice?"

Mr. President: "That is correct Senator."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of floor amendment no. 1 by Senator Baumgartner on page 5, after line 27 to Senate Resolution No. 8602.

The motion by Senator Baumgartner did not carry and floor amendment no. 1 was not adopted on rising vote.

MOTION

Senator Billig moved that the following floor amendment no. 2 by Senator Billig be adopted:

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

The Honorable Frank Chopp
Speaker of the House of Representatives
P.O. Box 40600
Olympia, WA 98504-0600

Dear Speaker Chopp:

The returns of the November 8, 2016 General Election have been certified. My office certifies the results for statewide measures, federal offices, statewide offices and any legislative or judicial office that crosses county lines. Legislative and judicial offices located entirely within one county were certified by the county canvassing board of that county on November 29, 2016.

Enclosed, please find copies of the measures and races certified by my office, as well as a list of all new representatives.

Please feel free to contact my office if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
/s/ Kim Wyman
Secretary of State

Canvass of the Returns of the General Election Held on November 8, 2016

I, Kim Wyman, Secretary of State of the State of Washington, do hereby certify that according to the provisions of RCW 29A.60.240, I have canvassed the returns of the 3,363,440 votes cast for candidates in the November 8, 2016 General Election by the registered voters of the state for all federal and statewide offices, and those legislative and judicial offices whose jurisdiction encompasses more than one county, as received from the County Auditors, and that the votes cast for these measures and these candidates for office are as follows:

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 7th day of December 2016, at Olympia, the State Capital.

/s/ Kim Wyman
Secretary of State

Mr. Speaker: "In view of the election results previously read, certified to by the Secretary of State, the Joint Session now declares the following qualified citizens to be the duly elected constitutional officers of the State of Washington:"

- | | |
|----------------|--------------------------------------|
| Jay Inslee | Governor |
| Cyrus Habib | Lieutenant Governor |
| Kim Wyman | Secretary of State |
| Duane Davidson | State Treasurer |
| Pat McCarthy | State Auditor |
| Bob Ferguson | Attorney General |
| Chris Reykdal | Superintendent of Public Instruction |
| Mike Kreidler | Insurance Commissioner |
| Hilary Franz | Commissioner of Public Lands |

SPEAKER'S REMARKS

Mr. Speaker: "Brad Owen got his start right here when he was elected to the State House of Representatives in 1976. He moved over to the Senate in 1983 and in 1996 the people of our state elected him Lieutenant Governor. 1976 to 2016 is a long time to serve our state. That's forty years Brad, including twenty of holding the gavel in the Senate keeping Senators on task at hand. A life of service like that isn't easy. The hours are long and the personalities can be challenging, should we say. So as you retire from public life, I want to thank you Brad, not just for the things you've accomplished for the people of this state, but particularly for the young people around out state. We thank you for dedicating your career to this noble endeavor we call democracy. And thank you for your kindness, your wisdom, and particularly your friendship."

On behalf of the people of the State of Washington and the Legislature, the Speaker presented the President with a commissioned gift of glass art created by Ms. Kim Merriman in gratitude for and recognition of his public service

The Speaker called upon President of the Senate, Lt. Governor Brad Owen, to preside over the Joint Session.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “Thank you Mr. Speaker. Thank you very much for your kind remarks but most importantly for your kindness to me over the years that I served here and being willing to work with me on many different things. I appreciate it very much. I appreciate all of you who are serving this great state of ours. It is an incredible privilege and I am just going to remind you of something and particularly the new members that I always like to say that if I ever start to feel like this is just a job, your office is just an office, that you come into this magnificent chamber, when nobody else is here, and you sit and you just look around. And it will exemplify the magnitude of the job that you have to do here and how important it is to the people of this great state of ours and it is an incredible privilege. So thank you for your service as well.”

President Owen: “The purpose of this joint session is to administer the oaths of office to statewide elected officials and to receive the inaugural address from His Excellency, Governor Jay Inslee.”

The President appointed a committee of honor to escort the Chief Justice and the Justices of the Supreme Court to the House Chamber: Representatives Reeves and Graves; Senators Wellman and Zeiger.

The President appointed a committee of honor to escort the statewide elected officials to the House Chamber: Representatives Kloba and Jenkin; Senators Saldaña and Hawkins.

The President appointed a committee of honor to advise His Excellency, Governor Jay Inslee, that the joint session had assembled and to escort him to the House Chamber: Representatives Chapman and Kraft; Senators Billig and Rossi.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of the Chief Justice and the Justices of the State Supreme Court at the Chamber doors. The committee of honor escorted the Chief Justice and the Justices of the Supreme Court to seats on the floor of the House Chamber and they were introduced: Chief Justice Mary Fairhurst, Justice Charles Johnson, Justice Barbara Madsen, Justice Susan Owens, Justice Debra Stephens, Justice Charlie Wiggins, Justice Steven Gonzalez, Justice Sheryl Gordon McCloud and Justice Mary Yu.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of the statewide elected officials at the Chamber doors. The committee of honor escorted the statewide elected officials to seats on the floor of the House Chamber and they were introduced: Lieutenant Governor-elect Cyrus Habib, Secretary of State Kim Wyman, State Treasurer-elect Duane Davidson, State Auditor-elect Pat McCarthy, State Attorney General Bob Ferguson, Superintendent of Public Instruction-elect Chris Reykdal, Insurance Commissioner Mike Kreidler, Commissioner-elect of Public Lands Hilary Franz.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced special guests present in the Chamber: Judge Susan Amini, mother of Lieutenant Governor-elect Cyrus Habib, Ambassador Gary Locke, King County Executive Dow Constantine, Snohomish County Executive Dave Somers, Seattle Mayor Ed Murray, Everett Mayor Ray Stephanson, Vice President Tyson Johnston of the Quinalt Indian Nation, Chair Virginia Cross of the Muckleshoot Indian Tribe, Sergeant at Arms Asa Washines of the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation and Chair William Iyall of the Cowlitz Indian Tribe.

The President welcomed the following members and representatives of the State of Washington Consular Association who were present in the rear of the Chamber: Consul General of the Republic of Korea Duk-ho Moon; Consul General of Canada James Hill; Deputy Consul General – People’s Republic of China Takeshi Murazawa; Consul of the United Kingdom Robin Twyman; Diplomatic Attache – Consulate of Mexico Luis Mingo; Representative of the Russian Federation Roman Smovkiy; Honorary Consulate of Cyprus Vassos M. Demetriou; Honorary Consulate of France Jack A. Cowan; Honorary Consul of Jamaica Enid L. Dwyer; Consul General of Peru Miguel Velasquez; Honorary Consulate of Cambodia Daravuth Huoth; Honorary Consul of Lithuania Victor Lapatinskas; Honorary Consulate of Switzerland Philippe Goetschel; Honorary Consul of Sweden Lars Jonsson; Honorary Consulate of Norway Kim Nesselquist; Honorary Consul of New Zealand Rachel Jacobsen; Honorary Consulate of Brazil Pedro Augusto Leite Costa; Honorary Consul of the Republic of Poland Teresa Indelak Davis; Honorary Consulate of Austria Eva Kammel; Honorary Consul of Hungary Katalin Pearman; and Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in Seattle Director General Vincent C. H. Yao.

The Sergeant at Arms of the House announced the arrival of His Excellency Governor Jay Inslee at the Chamber doors. The committee of honor escorted Governor Inslee to the rostrum and he was introduced.

The flags were escorted to the rostrum by the Washington State Patrol Color Guard, commanded by Sergeant Jason Greer and comprised of Trooper Shaneka Phillips, Trooper Kelli Howes, Trooper Brandon Tobol, Trooper James Maguire, Trooper Travis Joyce, Trooper William Rutherford, Sergeant Greg Tri and Sergeant Ethan Wynecoop. Ms. Judy Collins, an award-winning singer-songwriter, performed the National Anthem.

The President led the Chamber in the pledge of allegiance.

The prayer was offered by Reverend Leslie Braxton, New Beginnings Christian Fellowship, Kent.

Reverend Braxton: “Let us pray. God of our weary years and God of our silent tears Thou who has brought us thus far along the way Thou who has by Thy might led us into the light God keep us forever in the path we pray Eternal God. We pray Your presence here in this place and in this space pray upon this governor as he begins a new term and upon these legislators as they move into a new session, upon these judges as they rule and discern and make judgement upon lives and make decisions that affect lives. We pray dear Lord that they be the fingers on Your hand as You advance the well-being of the citizens of this state and the inhabitants therein, build our bridges and roads, educate our children, take care of our elderly, to protect our rights under the law, to protect our opportunities, to oversee our treatments by the law. We pray dear Lord, that You would not allow to settle in this place the hyper-partisanship and extremism that wants to take this state, this nation, backwards to former days that were less inclusive, less just, less diverse, less fair. Your cause is always a forward looking, forward moving, forward running, even forward falling advance. You have sounded out a trumpet that shall never sound retreat, You have sifted out the hearts of men and women beneath Your judgement seat and oh be swift our souls to answer You in jubilant our feet for Your truth marches on, never back. We pray dear Lord, that they would march on protecting our water, our air, our fish, our streams, our rights, our dignity. We pray that they would stand and conduct themselves with a deportment that defies the incivility, the vulgarness, the divisiveness, the insult that has settled into higher places threatening to trickle down and poison the political culture even here. May the people who inhabit these places and spaces stand as a light in the darkness. Let them heed the words of the prayer of St. Francis Assisi, 'Make them instruments of thy peace. Where there is hatred let them sow love, where there is insult pardon, where there is despair hope, where there is sadness joy, darkness light. Divine Master let them not seek so much to be understood as to understand, to be comforted as to comfort, to be loved as to love for it is when we give that we receive, when we pardon then we ourselves are pardoned and when we die we are born into eternal life.' 'What does the Lord require of us?', said the prophet, 'but to do justice, to love mercy, to walk humbly before our God.' Let this be our call individually and collectively. Let us not rest until all have a place to rest. Let us not stop fighting until the fighting is stopped. Let us not stop living until we have put death at hand and at bay. By whatever name and every name we know You, we give thanks and we give You praise. Amen."

HONORING OUTGOING STATE ELECTED OFFICIALS

Mr. President: "Randy Dorn has served as Superintendent of Public Instruction for two terms. He is a lifelong resident of Washington state. Randy Dorn has been an elementary and middle school teacher, a principal, a legislator for nine years, he was executive director of Public School Employees of Washington. Will Superintendent Dorn please rise and be recognized by the Legislature?"

The Joint Session recognized retiring Superintendent of Public Instruction Randy Dorn who was present in gallery.

Mr. President: "Peter Goldmark is the thirteenth Commissioner of Public Lands where he served two terms. In addition to his tenure as Commissioner of Public Lands, Commissioner Goldmark has served as Washington State Director of Agriculture with extensive service over the years on various governor's councils on agriculture and the environment. He has also served as a member of the Okanogan School Board and the Washington State University Board of Regents. Will Commissioner Goldmark please stand and be recognized by the Legislature?"

The Joint Session recognized retiring Commissioner of Public Lands Peter Goldmark who was present in the gallery.

Mr. President: "For the past four years Troy Kelley has served as Washington's tenth State Auditor. Over the years he has served in various public service roles including the federal prosecutor's office in the Western district of New York, as an attorney for the Securities and Exchange Commission, an Army Judge Advocate General for more than twenty years, he has previously taught at the Army JAG school and currently serves as a Lieutenant Colonel in the National Guard. Mr. Kelley also served three terms in the House of Representatives. Will Auditor Kelley please rise? Is he here? He's not here."

Mr. President: "Jim McIntire was elected as Washington's twenty-second State Treasurer in 2008 where he has also served two terms. He began his political career working in the United States Senate for Hubert Humphrey and served as a policy advisor to Congressional committee chairman and Washington state governors. In addition, Jim McIntire served five terms in the House of Representatives, providing leadership on several financial committees. He was also president of National Association of State Treasurers in 2016 bringing the association's annual conference to Washington state. Will Treasurer McIntire please rise and be recognized by the Legislature?"

The Joint Session recognized retiring State Treasurer Jim McIntire who was present in the gallery.

On behalf of the people of the State of Washington and the Legislature, each outgoing statewide elected official was bestowed with a commissioned gift of glass art created by Ms. Kim Merriman in gratitude for and recognition of their public service.

OATHS OF OFFICE

The President called upon each elected and re-elected state elected official to proceed to the rostrum to receive their oath of office.

Justice Sheryl Gordon McCloud administered the Oath of Office to Hilary Franz, Commissioner of Public Lands.

Justice Charles Wiggins administered the Oath of Office to Chris Reykdal, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Justice Mary Yu administered the Oath of Office to Kim Wyman, Secretary of State.

Justice Steven Gonzalez administered the Oath of Office to Cyrus Habib, Lieutenant Governor.

President Brad Owen called upon President of the Senate to preside. The President of the Senate, Lieutenant Governor Habib, assumed the Chair.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The President is overwhelmed. I would like to take just one moment to honor my predecessor in this office one more time. It has been a tremendous privilege for me to learn from Brad Owen in the Washington State Senate. For twenty years, Lieutenant Governor Owen presided over the Senate with dignity and decorum, with grace, with nonpartisanship at the core of his rulings and his manner. As a partner and deputy to not one, not two, but three governors of the State of Washington, Lt. Gov Owen was there to respond in some of our darkest hours, most recently the tragic mudslide at Oso when he was acting Governor. And finally as the chair of the Legislative Committee on Economic Development and International Relations and active member of the Consular Association, Lt. Gov. Owen made sure that our state will strengthen its ties and friendships with peoples all around the world and that we will continue to be the most successful exporting state of any in this union. So for all of that please join me in thanking one more time a man who will always be Lieutenant Governor Emeritus of this state, Brad Owen.”

“I know who you are here to listen to so I will vacate the podium in just a moment but I did want to say a word of thanks to several individuals. I wanted to thank my mom, Judge Susan Amini, who is here and my father whom we lost to cancer this past year but I know is smiling down on us now today, for raising me to believe that truly anything is possible in this great country.”

“I want to thank Senator Schoesler and Senator Nelson and the members of the Washington State Senate for allowing me to be your presiding officer. As I have said, this will be much like when somebody hosts Jeopardy after Alex Trebek, everything will feel different, it won’t be quite the same. Brad Owen has twenty years of doing this but I am one hundred percent committed to being a fast learner and to presiding in a fair, effective and transparent manner over the state Senate.”

“And finally I want to thank Governor Inslee for his offer of partnership and collaboration. It will be an honor to work alongside him and to serve in his stead from time to time.”

“One final note, I want to acknowledge one who is not with us today, a colleague of mine in the state senate, whom we also lost to cancer, in fact within weeks of my father’s passing. Senator Andy Hill was chief budget writer in the Senate, an effective and collaborative member of this body and his absence will be felt by all of us and is an inspiration to me and others to put partisanship aside and try to do always what best for the people of the State of Washington. So if you would just join me in a moment of silence or prayer for Senator Andy Hill and his family.”

The Joint Session observed a moment of silence in honor and memory of Senator Andy Hill, 45th Legislative District, who passed away October 31, 2016.

Chief Justice Mary Fairhurst administered the Oath of Office to Jay Inslee, Governor.

GOVERNOR’S INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Governor Inslee: “Thank you, Reverend Braxton, for your inspiring words. Thank you to my friend, Judy, for that beautiful rendition of our national anthem. And of course, I’d like to thank all our families, particularly, my wife, Trudi, and my entire family for their love and support.”

“Before I begin, I’d like to recognize two members of our legislative family whose absence is keenly felt today. Senator Andy Hill and House Page Supervisor Gina Grant Bull were dedicated Washingtonians. They will be greatly missed by their families, colleagues and friends. Please join me as we pay our respects with a moment of silence. Thank you.”

The Joint Session observed a moment of silence in honor and memory of Senator Andy Hill, 45th Legislative district, who passed away October 31, 2016.

“Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Madam Chief Justice, distinguished justices of the court, members of the Legislature, tribal leaders, state and local government officials, members of the Consular Corps, and most importantly, my fellow Washingtonians. As leaders of our state, we are entrusted with the unique opportunity to work together for a strong and secure future for Washington. And there’s nothing more essential to that future than acting to fulfill our top priority, fully funding education this year.”

“I want to talk today about that challenge which I think about as not just a big challenge but as a historic opportunity. I want to talk about why we should be confident that we can do this. And I want to talk about the common values that will drive us as we confront uncommon times. We’re no strangers to working through hard challenges. We’ve done some hard things together in the past four years. We worked together to give all our aspiring young Washingtonians access to college, regardless of where they may have been born. We worked together to pass a historic transportation package that builds, repairs and improves infrastructure in every corner of our state. We worked together to make historic investments in early learning. We know there is no better time to set our children up to succeed than when they are most eager to learn. And we worked together to give hundreds of thousands of Washingtonians health care. We know a healthier Washington is a more prosperous Washington.

These things didn’t happen by accident. They happened because we made them happen. We all demonstrated a strong commitment to our principles and a recognition that compromise is necessary for our mutual success. The work we do is important in promoting the attributes that make our state exceptional, a growing economy, smart workers, innovative entrepreneurs, safe communities and beautiful outdoor spaces. I believe these successes should give us even more confidence, even more commitment and even more willingness to work together. These bipartisan successes reflect our values as Washingtonians. And now it’s time to go even further to secure the prosperous future we want for our kids and for our state.

I know there are many issues in front of us this session, not just funding for kindergarten-through-12th grade education. We need to transform our mental health system to one that is patient-centered, community-based and prevention-focused so we can provide people with the right treatment at the right time in the right setting. We need to continue expanding access to early learning so more kids can get the strongest possible start in school. We need to restructure our social services to more effectively ensure the well-being of Washington’s children and families. We need to prevent harm, not just react to it. We need to invest in more affordable housing and support services for the chronically homeless. This includes looking at root causes such as opioid addiction and mental illness. We need to maintain the lower tuition rate we passed for students at our public colleges and universities, expand financial aid for those who need it most and ensure we provide career-connected education opportunities for those who choose another path. And we need to continue important conversations on issues like the use of deadly force, paid family leave, gun safety, how we serve our veterans, capital punishment, how we promote prosperity for all workers in a changing economy and vital water infrastructure needs on both sides of the Cascades.

Every one of these things is important. But as we enter this new session, I want to say this: None of these issues is more important than fully funding the K-12 education our kids deserve. One hundred and twenty-eight years ago, the signers of our state constitution declared that making “ample provision for the education of all children” was not merely among our responsibilities. It was “the paramount duty of the state.” At a time when Washington’s towns and cities were just specks on a map, our state’s founders chose education as our paramount duty. Not roads or railroads. Not jails. They chose schools. So should we. We should choose to build on the enduring foundation of Washington — the intellectual light of our children. Our founders understood this, and so do we. As elected officials, we all took an oath to uphold that constitution. Yet we haven't always fully lived up to the words on that parchment or the values they represent. It has now been 40 years, 40 years, since the court ordered the state to define and fund basic education in accordance with our constitution. It has now been five years since our Supreme Court ruled that the state must do more to live up to the paramount duty our founders described. The journey to fully fund education in our state has been a lot like climbing a mountain. And we've been climbing together for a long, long time. And now we're almost there."

"We've added more than $4.6 billion for our schools. We've tackled issues like all-day kindergarten, smaller class sizes in early grades and funding for student transportation and supplies. And now we're at the final steps. We know what needs to get done and we know 2017 is the year to do it. I don't say this thinking it will be easy. I say this knowing that Washingtonians can do hard things."

"We've climbed high enough to see the summit. We're almost there. And we have a Washingtonian here today who can inspire us — the first American to summit Mount Everest, in 1963. This is a guy who knows how to finish the climb, who really inspires me — Jim Whittaker. Thank you, Jim, for being here today. Let's give him a round of applause. Jim knows the incredible reward that comes from pushing forward. We will not arrive on the summit by chance. This is something we must make happen. Mountain climbers will tell you that every ascent has a crux move, the moment at which they face the hardest, most difficult pitch. For us, this is that moment. There are multiple routes we could take. I have proposed one that gets us there this year, a route based on what I've seen work as I've visited schools around the state."

"In Spokane, I visited Lincoln Heights Elementary, where I met with a crop of new teachers. They impressed upon me the importance of the district's support for new teachers. One of the things they highlighted was mentoring through the Beginning Educator Support Team. It's a program that works so I put it in my budget."

"In Kent, I visited Phoenix Academy. I met with a group of students and parents to learn about the continuum of services provided there to ensure every student has what is needed — whether it's food for lunch or a tutor for math. Together, school counselors, psychologists, nurses and family engagement counselors break down barriers to learning and set up strategies for success."

"I've seen this same strategy work in multiple schools. Schools that hire these people are schools that are helping kids succeed. That's why I include funding for these services in my budget."

"At the Yakima Valley Technical Skills Center, students told me how their career-connected training helped them see the relevance of their education and offered them a vision for their future they never saw in a traditional classroom. Put these students to work while they are in high school and watch graduation rates climb."

"We are going to stop telling our kids that a four-year degree is the only path to success. It's time we recognize the dreams of those who want to build beautiful boats as a welder, or assemble aircraft as a machinist, or help cure diseases as a global health specialist. And that's why I propose more funding for these and other career-connected opportunities from elementary school through high school graduation. It works. And I have heard loud and clear from across the state, from parents and students and educators, that we simply need more resources in our K-12 system if we want all our children to graduate with a meaningful education. I've also heard loud and clear that we cannot finance our schools by slashing the services upon which students and their families depend. We are a better state than that and there are better ways to finance our schools."

"So here's what I propose: We aren't raising anyone's property taxes. In fact, my budget starts by lowering property taxes for three out of four Washington households and businesses. Let me repeat that: 75 percent of households and businesses will see a property tax cut. In addition, we reduce B&O taxes for 38,000 more small businesses. In exchange, my budget asks a small percentage of the wealthiest Washingtonians to pay a little more on the gains from their investments. It taxes carbon pollution that harms our kids and imperils the planet. And it asks service providers, such as lawyers and accountants, to pay B&O taxes more comparable to those paid by goods-based businesses."

"If we do it this way, we'll accomplish two things: First, we will finally have the resources we need to fulfill our constitutional obligation to fully fund K-12 education. Second, working families will pay less in property taxes. I just don't think raising property or sales taxes is the best approach to this challenge. Imagine what fully funding education will mean. Imagine schools that can recruit and keep great teachers, with competitive salaries. Imagine closing the opportunity gap in our state by making sure at-risk kids have extra teaching and mentoring time. Imagine more students graduating because we have psychologists, nurses and counselors who can help them cross the finish line. Imagine mentoring programs that help teachers starting out in their careers. Today, nearly half our teachers leave the profession within just five years. We can change that, and when we do, it will make an incredible difference for our kids. Finally, imagine students learning skills that employers tell us they need right now. We want everyone in this state to have the chance to go to college. But for young people who want to join the workforce straight out of high school, there will be a path to a good job."

"But we can't make this progress for just some of our children. We must make progress for all our children. It is long past time to do what we know is right. I'm looking forward to working with the state superintendent's office and appreciate Superintendent Reykdal's support for this approach. And I'm looking forward to working with all of you. There are many routes to the summit. My plan isn't the only way. I've been meeting with legislators this week and want to hear the ideas you have for getting this done. It's important to act this year. Kids are only 5 years old once in their lives. If we don't do this for them now, they don't get a redo."

"I recognize the Legislature has some hard lifting to do. Nobody should minimize what we're doing here. It's been 40 years. If it were easy, someone else would have already done this. But you know what? It won't be any easier next year, or the year after that. Just as we set high expectations for our students, we should set high expectations for ourselves. And know that we are capable of meeting them. And let me say one more thing about the mountain we're climbing together. After 40 years, it's going to feel great. It feels great when you finish a big job."

"I can tell you from my personal experience that people are ready for us to solve this. When I released my budget last month, I expected criticism because what I proposed includes a lot of hard decisions. And I heard that criticism, some of it from some of you. But I was encouraged to see a recognition that despite the tough choices my plan requires, people were glad to see a plan that truly finishes the job. And that's why each of us is here today. Like our founders in 1889, we are setting a vision of opportunity for generations to come. We're here because we believe that when we live up to our expectations when we adhere to our values there is no better place on Earth than Washington state. And that's why I want to close with a few comments about our state's values. Because for all the good we've done in our state, developments taking place in our country have left many of our friends and neighbors scared for what the future might bring. And that is why today, I say this: No matter what happens in that Washington, here in this Washington, we will not forget who we are. We will not turn our back on the progress we have made. Our commitment to equal rights and human dignity will not be diminished."

Washington will remain a place where no one can be discriminated against because of the color of their skin, their country of origin, how they worship or who they love. Washington will remain a place where women have access to the full range of health care and family planning services they need, a place where we continue to fight for equal pay and equal opportunity. Washington will stand up proudly for dreamers and for those who come here in search of safety and refuge. We will stand strong against anyone who would rob hardworking young Washingtonians of the promise of a college degree or a chance at a decent job. Washington's businesses and government will remain leaders and innovators in combating the devastating threats from carbon pollution, the scourge of climate change and ocean acidification. We will fight and keep fighting to protect the 750,000 Washingtonians who finally have health insurance, thanks to the Affordable Care Act and Medicaid expansion. And here, we may vigorously debate about the way forward on funding education. But when it comes to our kids, let's start this session with a shared commitment to all and excuses to none. A recognition that the best thing we can do in service to our children and our state this year is to fully fund the education system they deserve."

"So let's go get this job done. Thank you."

SENATE RESOLUTION

By Senator Fain

WHEREAS, Today, the third Monday in January, we remember and honor the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who would become a beacon of hope for equality in our nation; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King used his gift of oratory to awaken America to the realities of life for African Americans and to make life better for all by encouraging change through nonviolent means; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King's steadfast faith encouraged others, as exemplified in his famous "I Have a Dream" speech delivered 54 years ago this coming August 28th, in which he said, "Now is the time to make justice a reality for all of God's children"; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King's unwavering support for the principles of racial justice and social equality helped change America; and

WHEREAS, In his life, Dr. King called on others to make a personal commitment to serve humanity by helping the less fortunate, uniting as a global family, and acting with kindness and compassion; and

WHEREAS, Service is a powerful way to commemorate the words and deeds of Dr. King and to translate our reverence for his life and teachings into action to make our nation better; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King believed that a person's worth should not be measured by his or her color, culture, or class, but rather by his or her commitment to making life better for all through service rendered to each other;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate, on behalf of the people of the State of Washington, and in recognition of the courageous leadership and legacy of hope demonstrated by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., honor his memory by urging all citizens of our state to continue the legacy of Dr. King by treating all people as equal.

Senators Saldaña, Ranker, McCoy, Hasegawa and Liias spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8604.

The motion by Senator Saldaña carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

Senator Sheldon moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 8601

By Senator Sheldon

WHEREAS, The Miss and Mr. Mason Area Pageant has been serving Mason County one mission at a time for four years; and

WHEREAS, The pageant royalty, who range in age from newborn to young adult, compete in this "natural pageant" for the privilege of doing a year's worth of community service during which they and their families invest their time and resources into helping people in Mason County through community service projects; and

WHEREAS, Pageant participants have made a lasting impact in Mason County by raising money and walking in the Relay for Life, collecting food for Saint's Pantry, collecting coats for a domestic violence shelter, making Capes of Courage for foster children, and much more; and

WHEREAS, Royalty and ambassadors of the Miss and Mr. Mason Area Pageant have spent hours writing Christmas cards to veterans in hospitals and nursing homes, for the Christmas Cards for Heroes campaign run by the Red Cross and for the United Service Organizations; and

WHEREAS, Pageant royalty gather backpacks for school food programs that support children who do not have enough food for the weekends; and

WHEREAS, The love and support of community displayed by the pageant royalty has inspired their families and other community members to participate in community service activities throughout the county; and

WHEREAS, The Miss and Mr. Mason Area Pageant continues to provide support to the people of Mason County; and

WHEREAS, The service of pageant royalty and ambassadors has made Mason County a wonderful place to live, work, and raise a family; and

WHEREAS, Through the leadership of their director, Carey Sanchez, the 2016 Miss and Mr. Mason Area Pageant Royalty has made a lasting impact on the lives of Mason County community members in need; and

WHEREAS, The pageant will continue to be a symbol of hope and community togetherness by its resilient staff and volunteers who make the pageant possible each year;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate express its gratitude and appreciation to the devoted members of the Miss and Mr. Mason Area Pageant and their dedicated families; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize the value and dedication of a strong community awareness to the vitality and well-being of this great state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Carey Sanchez, the 2016 Miss and Mr. Mason Area Pageant Royalty, and the 2015 Miss and Mr. Mason Area Pageant Royalty Ambassadors.

Senator Sheldon spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8601.

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Becker moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION
8606

By Senator Becker

WHEREAS, The first creamery in Washington was started in Cheney in 1880; and

WHEREAS, Washington's dairy industry is actually older than the state itself; and

WHEREAS, Families across Washington have depended on the safe and nutritious dairy products provided by the dairy farmers of Washington state for generations; and

WHEREAS, Dairy is an essential part of a healthy diet, one of the major food groups represented on the USDA's "MyPlate" dietary guidelines, and three cups of dairy products a day are recommended for people ages nine years and older; and

WHEREAS, There are approximately four hundred twenty family dairy farms in Washington state with approximately two hundred seventy-seven thousand dairy cows; and

WHEREAS, Dairy foods constitute the second highest dollar-valued agricultural commodity produced in Washington, with a direct economic impact valued at 2.3 billion dollars and a total value to Washington's economy of more than 5.2 billion dollars; and

WHEREAS, There are over six thousand one hundred eighty-four on-farm dairy jobs in twenty-nine counties across Washington, and over twelve thousand one hundred fifty-nine jobs in the dairy industry in total; and

WHEREAS, Our state's milk production ranked second in dollar value among all of Washington's bountiful agricultural commodities; and

WHEREAS, Washington's dairy cows are some of the most productive in the United States, averaging more than one thousand four hundred fifty-five pounds of milk per cow above the national average; and

WHEREAS, Washington ranks sixth in milk production per cow, with twenty-three thousand eight hundred forty-eight pounds of milk per year; and

WHEREAS, Dairy Day at the legislature takes place on January 24, 2017, when legislators will visit with Washington dairy producers and enjoy delicious dairy products produced in Washington; handed out by the Washington State Dairy Federation, Washington State Dairy Women, and the state and county Dairy Ambassadors;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate acknowledge and honor the women and men whose work on dairy farms throughout Washington has contributed much to the strength and vitality of our economy, the character of our communities, and the general well-being of our citizens; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Washington State Dairy Ambassador Alicia Smaciarz, alternate Ambassadors Jana Plagerman and Tiana Peterson, and the Washington State Dairy Federation.

Senators Becker, Liias, Honeyford and Nelson spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8606.

The motion by Senator Becker carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Miss Jana Plagerman, Washington State Alternate Dairy Ambassador from Whatcom County; Miss Tiana Peterson, Washington State Alternate Dairy Ambassador from Pierce-King Counties; Miss Jill DeJager, Whatcom County Dairy Ambassador; Miss Juliana LeClair, Skagit County Dairy Ambassador; Miss Leana DeVries, Skagit County Alternate Dairy Ambassador; and Miss Anna Teachman, King-Pierce Counties Dairy Ambassador...

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Washington State Dairy Ambassador from Lewis County, Miss Alicia Smaciarz, who was seated at the rostrum.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Dairy Ambassador Miss Alicia Smaciarz to address the Senate.

REMARKS BY AMBASSADOR ALICIA SMACIARZ

Miss Smaciarz: “(blows a train whistle) All aboard, welcome to the Dairy Farmers of Washington educational train, today we are going to take a journey through some nutritional information and farming practices. To start off, I’m Alicia Smaciarz your Washington State Dairy Ambassador and I will be your guide as we start our journey. I was born and raised on my family’s dairy farm in (Menlo WA) where I was very active in working directly with our animals. A dairy farmer works 365 days a year. They are always making sure their animals have the best care possible. The dairy community is truly made up of caring and compassionate individuals.”

“Dairy farmers cherish the ground, water and fields our ancestors cultivated prior to us. I personally am the 5th generation living on our dairy farm. Our dairy has been in active production since the 1920s. We are continually adopting new ways to improve air and water quality. Some dairy farms are using technology called Methane digesters that converts animal waste to electricity, which can power their farms, their homes and their community. As family farms, farmers care about air quality because their families live and work on their farms and breathe the air as everyone else. We understand the importance of clean air for future generations. We produce a gallon of milk using 95 percent less land and 65 percent less water while producing 76 percent less manure compared with 1944.”

“As your Washington State Dairy, I want to help athletes and other physically active people with their post-workout beverage. For me, dairy products are the simple answer. If I drink one glass of chocolate milk after every practice, it will replenish the amount of carbohydrates and protein lost during practice. Chocolate milk naturally contains the most effective balance between carbohydrates. It's convenient, affordable, and delicious. Did you know the University of Washington’s head football coach encourages the players to drink chocolate milk after every practice? Since milk and dairy products provide such great health benefits the Dairy Farmers of Washington hope that you will continue to support the availability of both white and chocolate milk in our schools, remember some of those kids grow up to be the athletes at Washington State and the University of Washington.”

“As your Dairy Ambassador, I want to share with everyone the importance of dairy. I am able to do this because I have grown up with dairy all around me. If chocolate milk isn’t part of my meal, there is always another dairy product to fill its place. I would like to thank you all for joining me on the journey through dairy, the journey will continue in the Rotunda at noon for cheese and ice cream. (blows a train whistle) Thank you.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Thank you Ambassador Smaciarz and our dairy ambassadors are joined today by members of the Washington State Dairy Women, Washington Dairy Products Commission, Dairy Farmers of Washington, and Washington State Dairy Federation. The President is pleased to have all of our ambassadors here today and it is delightful to know that we have alumni of this program in the Washington State Senate. The President feels that is an indication of the cultural contributions of the ambassador’s program as well. Thank you.”

"Rule 35. 1. The permanent senate rules adopted at the first regular session during a legislative biennium shall govern any session subsequently convened during the same legislative biennium. Adoption of permanent rules may be by majority of the senate without notice and a majority of the senate may change a permanent rule without notice at the beginning of any session, as determined pursuant to Article 2, Section 12 of the State Constitution. No permanent rule or order of the senate shall be rescinded or changed without a majority vote of the members, and one day's notice of the motion, except as provided in subsection 3 of this rule.

2. A permanent rule or order may be temporarily suspended for a special purpose by a vote of two-thirds of the members present unless otherwise specified herein. When the suspension of a rule is called, and after due notice from the president no objection is offered, the president may announce the rule suspended, and the senate may proceed accordingly. Motion for suspension of the rules shall not be debatable, except, the mover of the motion may briefly explain the purpose of the motion and at the discretion of the president a rebuttal may be allowed.

3. An affirmative vote of sixty percent of the senators elected or appointed to the senate shall be required to amend the senate rules during the 2017 calendar year. Nothing in this subsection alters the one day's notice requirements in subsection 1 of this rule. This subsection 3, rule 35 shall expire January 1, 2018.

Rule 48. Any standing committee of the senate may be relieved of further consideration of any bill, regardless of prior action of the committee, by a majority vote of the senators (~~electd or appointed~~) present. The senate may then make such orderly disposition of the bill as they may direct by a majority vote of the members of the senate.

Rule 53. (~~No amendment to the operating budget or supplemental budget, not incorporated in the bill as reported by the ways and means committee, shall be adopted except by the affirmative vote of sixty percent of the senators elected or appointed.~~) RESERVED."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Liias: "Thank you Mr. President. Under my reading of Senate Rule No. 35, related to adopting and amending our senate rules, the rule specifies that a vote of the majority of the senate is required for the adoption of the permanent rules at the beginning of the session but the same rule uses different terminology in relation to changing the rules later during session. It allows a change to be made with a majority of members present. Now the different terminology within rule 35 is found in the second part of subsection 1 and states that the changes can only be made with a majority of the members rather than where it says a majority of the Senate multiple times earlier in rule 35. Additionally, I would like to note that we have a specific Senate Rule dealing with these ambiguities in rule 54 of the Senate Rules as clarified that unless stated clearly otherwise, a majority is a majority of members present not a majority of the senate. Under my reading of senate rule 35 and rule 54, it would appear to me that today's change to senate rules requires only a majority of those members present on the floor today. So, therefore, my question Mr. President is how many votes are required to adopt this change to the senate rules under rule 35?"

Senator Fain: "Thank you Mr. President. So again, let's be clear about what is on the floor today. What is being proposed, at this time is the question of parliamentary procedure of how many votes does it take to amend a standing rule on the senate floor? And, the reason that that is such an absurd question, quite frankly, is because this has been a settled issue for the entire history of this chamber. And I would like to point to a couple pieces of evidence on why that is a settled issue and why I believe the President will find that majority of the members, meaning a majority of all the members of the senate, are required to amend any rule on the floor. So what I would start with, Mr. President, is a document I think many individuals on the floor are familiar with. It is being distributed to you at this time. This particular document, this little flip-book, is available to all members. It has always been available to all members. If you would like an additional copy I am sure Paul can get you one. They are up at the rostrum, but many of you probably have these in your desk. And, if you are to flip - but if you don't have that - I've provided you a photo copy of it. But if you are to flip to the blue page of our senate manual, where it says ‘votes necessary for legislative action’ the third bullet point on the left clearly says that actions requiring a majority of the members elected and then, in parenthesis, it says ‘25’. If you go down to item number 6, it says ‘To change the rules with one day’s notice’. It is very clear Mr. President, by the document that I hold in my hand, that has been available to these members since they have become members of this chamber, how this rule has been in effect. Let’s next look at a document that I am not entirely sure the Lieutenant Governor has been able to review yet, but I bet he has, it is great reading. This right here Mr. President, is a complete compendium of the Lieutenant Governor’s rulings. This is able to guide the deliberations of the Senate when there are motions of parliamentary procedure that come before the chamber. So Mr. President, this particular document that I hold in my hand, and I have distributed a piece of paper that is from this document, that I will refer to in a moment, this is great, again, this is the rulings of Lieutenant Governor Brad Owen, from 1997-2016. It is light reading. It is fun. I recommend it, I read it on vacation a couple of years back. There are so many times at the end of one of his rulings where the conclusion is, ‘and Senator Benton’s point is not well taken.’ It is phenomenal. I strongly recommend reading it. That being said Mr. President, I would call the attention of the members to page 186. 186, where it says ‘The summary of votes needed.’ Appendix 2. And it has a list of all the potential motions that could come up before the chamber. A list of the potential things that this chamber could vote on, because obviously this would be probably an important issue for us to have finality on. So let’s take a look at what this particular document says. Well Mr. President, I believe I have highlighted the particular portion for the members’ purposes, and it says, to adopt or amend a rule, rule 35, and the check box on this particular document is clearly under the category: Total membership, majority. There are other categories available on this form that I have distributed to you. Clearly one that says majority, one that says two-thirds present, one that says unanimous. But, this particular rule, Mr. President, on amending the rules of the Senate, Rule 35 clearly says that ‘a majority of the total membership is required to change a rule’. Well, Mr. President, why does that make sense? Why, beyond the fact that that is clearly established law in this chamber, why is that actually a rule that we would want to follow? Well, Mr. President, there are times where I am on this chamber floor all by myself. We have cutoff days and they go very late into the evening, and I wait ever so patiently as our code revisors and our committee staffers work to collate the hundreds of bills that are passed out of committee at the eleventh hour right before our cutoff, our committee cutoff. So I am here all by myself. It is just me and whomever I select as the presiding officer. In the past it has not been the Lieutenant Governor, because often times it is eleven or twelve o’clock at night. But Mr. President, were the interpretation of this rule to be that it merely needs to be a majority of those members present, then me, here on the floor, under the dark of night, with not TVW, with no one in the stands, with no one here except a couple members of the rostrum and a hand-picked member of my caucus, standing and presiding in a pro forma session, I would be able to change the rules all I want. So Mr. President, I would like to make notice of a potential rule change that I would like to offer. I am not saying that I am going to be doing this anytime soon, I am just saying that at some point while I am here late at night moving bills in a pro forma session that this particular issue may be adopted. Mr. President, may I read?”

President Habib: “Senator.”

Senator Fain: “Thank you Mr. President. In rule 7.1, conduct of members and officers, I seek to amend the final section. It says ‘the use of cellular and digital telephones is prohibited in the Senate chamber during floor session and in the hearing rooms during the committee’, and then I would add the section, ‘All business of the Senate shall be conducted in sweatpants.’ I personally think that would be great. I also would say that we can’t go to the rostrum in rule 22 during a vote, except for the purpose of obtain a refill of a steaming mug of hot chocolate from the Secretary. There is nothing that stops me from adopting this rule if we allow a simple majority of the members present to adopt a rule. And that is the sheer absurdity, the sheer absurdity of thinking otherwise. Mr. President, I ask you to rule as been the history of this institution and Senate, in both the House and the Senate, that it takes a majority of all the members, or twenty-five members under our current construct, to amend the rules. Thank you Mr. President.”

MOTION

At 11:18 a.m., on motion of Senator Liias, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the call of the President.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 3:31 p.m. by President Habib.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Liias as to the number of votes required to amend the Senate Rules, the President finds and rules as follows:”

“Senate Rule 35 uses the term ‘majority vote of the members’ to inform the body of how many votes are necessary to amend the Senate Rules under the last sentence of Rule 35(1).”

“While the President finds this language to be ambiguous, he believes that the term must be construed in light of other Rules that use similar language. For example, Senate Rule 2(3) defines a majority caucus as a caucus whose members constitute a majority of the Senate. The majority doesn’t change depending upon which members are present. A member doesn’t need to be present to be a member.”

“A majority of members, without further qualification, is not different from a majority of members elected or appointed. A majority of members means a majority of the members of this body, not just those who are present. Membership doesn’t end at the chamber doors.”

“Senate Rule 54 defines ‘majority’ to mean ‘a majority of those members present unless otherwise stated.’ In Rule 35 it is ‘otherwise stated’ using the terms ‘majority vote of the members’.”

“In light of the Rule change before us, the President recognizes that taking the approach that a rule change could be accomplished by a vote of the majority of those present, a single Senator could theoretically change the rules and require a 90% vote to change those rules again in the future.”

“For these reasons, the President finds that it takes a majority of the members of this body to amend the Senate Rules under the final sentence of Senate Rule 35(1).”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, further consideration of Senate Resolution No. 8609 was deferred.

NINETEENTH DAY, JANUARY 27, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the ninth order of business by voice vote.

Senator Liias moved that the rules be suspended and that the Committee on Ways & Means be relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 1059 and that Senate Bill No. 1059 be placed on the second reading calendar.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Fain : “Thank you Mr. President. I am inquiring into how many votes are necessary from this chamber to relieve this bill from committee?”

President Habib: “Senator Fain, to your point of parliamentary inquiry, the threshold vote is eighteen members to suspend the rules.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, Senator Mullet was excused.

Senator Fain challenged the existence of a quorum.

The President called for a division for the purposes of determining the existence of a quorum.

Pursuant to Rule 16, with twenty-four members present, the President declared a quorum did not exist and business could not be conducted.

MOTION

Senator Fain moved to adjourn until Monday, 12:00 o'clock noon, January 30, 2017.

Senator Liias moved to amend the motion and reconvene at 10:00 o'clock a.m. Saturday, January 28, 2017, pursuant to Senate Rule 16, which allows less than a quorum to adjourn from day to day.

The motion to amend carried by voice vote.

At 3:42 p.m., the Senate was declared adjourned until 10:00 o'clock a.m., Saturday, January 28, 2017.

By Senators Liias, Rolfes, Billig, Hobbs, Takko, Kuderer, Palumbo, Hunt, Hasegawa, Darneille, McCoy, Chase, and Frockt

WHEREAS, On July 30, 2016, the community of Mukilteo, Washington, was shaken by an act of unspeakable violence; and

WHEREAS, Three young lives were lost in a senseless act of hatred and violence and one young man was seriously injured; and

WHEREAS, Anna Bui, Jordan Ebner, and Jake Long, all 19 years of age, contributed many things to the world during their lives; and

WHEREAS, Will Kramer, 18 years of age, who survived the shooting, spent weeks in the hospital and will forever bear the scars of the violence he endured; and

WHEREAS, First responders from multiple agencies, including the Mukilteo Police and Fire Departments, Washington State Patrol, Snohomish County Sheriff's Office, and Snohomish County Fire District No. 1, acted courageously to safeguard innocent lives and rescue the victims of this tragedy; and

TWENTY SECOND DAY, JANUARY 30, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, Harborview Medical Center cared for Mr. Kramer and provided excellent care and treatment that resulted in his successful discharge; and

WHEREAS, Strong law enforcement cooperation and coordination led the Washington State Patrol to apprehend the perpetrator and take him into custody less than two hours after the first 911 call was made; and

WHEREAS, The community of Mukilteo has responded to this tragedy over the last six months by hosting vigils, community meetings, support groups, and memorial services to remember those who were lost and work to understand how to prevent acts of violence and hatred in the future;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate mourns the loss of Anna Bui, Jordan Ebner, and Jake Long and honors all of the victims and the families affected by this terrible act of violence by recognizing their strength and fortitude through immeasurable adversity; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate expresses gratitude and appreciation to the first responders who saved Will Kramer's life, tended to victims, and ensured that justice was served; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the families of Anna Bui, Jordan Ebner, Jake Long, and Will Kramer; to Mayor Jennifer Gregerson, Chief John R. Batiste, Sheriff Ty Trenary, Fire Chief Scott Cockrum; and to Paul Hayes of Harborview Medical Center.

Senator Liias spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8608.

The motion by Senator Liias carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

By Senators Mullet, Fain, and Frockt

WHEREAS, The students of Tahoma High School enrolled in the We the People: The Citizen and Constitution program have exhibited superior knowledge of the Constitution of the United States and the lessons taught by our forefathers; and

WHEREAS, On Saturday, January 7, 2017, the state "We the People" competition was won by the team from Tahoma High School, marking the school's 20th state championship; and

WHEREAS, These students will represent their state at the 30th anniversary "We the People" finals in Washington, D.C., where they will aspire to uphold the standards of excellence for which Tahoma High School is known; and

WHEREAS, These students have immersed themselves in the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights, and their extraordinary understanding of the country's founding documents and principles and formidable debate skills have inspired those who have watched them progress to the level of state champions; and

WHEREAS, The Tahoma team is coached by Gretchen Wulffing, who was named Washington's Civic Educator of the Year in 2011 and who continues to ingrain in her students the importance of learning about American constitutional democracy and the contemporary relevance of the nation's founding documents and principles; and

WHEREAS, Studies have shown that 80 percent of high school seniors in the program are registered to vote, compared to an average of 37 percent among other high school seniors, proof that "We the People" instills greater interest in participating in government; and

WHEREAS, Tahoma High School has a distinguished record of excellence in competitions at the national level, placing fourth in the nation in 2000; capturing the Western Regional Award in 2001, 2008, and 2014; taking the top Unit Two in the Nation Award in 2003; placing in the top ten in 2012 and 2013; and earning the top Unit Five in the Nation Award in 2010 and 2011; and

WHEREAS, In 2015 the Tahoma team finished fourth in the nation, posting the highest finish in school and state history, and in 2016 Tahoma finished ninth in the nation. Tahoma has now advanced teams to the top ten in the nation four times;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate honor Zoe Brown, Noah Casey, Jessica Davies, Jonathan Feher, David Ferrer, Jandrea Grobbelaar, Makaila Heifner, Lydia Kropelnicki, Kieran Lowe, Michelle McLoughlin, Rosella Miller, Calista Moore, Taylor Murrey, Cameron Musard, Amber Neathery, Ryan Nelson, Jared Perrine, James Riordan, Peter Seely, Matthew Simmons, Everett Wall, Benjamin Weaver, and Tierra Wilson as "Warriors of the Constitution"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the members of Tahoma High School's "We the People" team, to team advisor Gretchen Wulffing, and to Tahoma High School principal Terry Duty to convey the respect of this body for a job well done and to wish them success in their continuing endeavors.

The Senate was called to order at 4:39 p.m. by President Habib.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The President is pleased to welcome now Senator Shelly Short, who is joining this body, and it gives the President great pleasure to work with Senator Short once more. We served in the House of Representatives together."

The President appointed Senator Short to the following committees: Chair, Committee on Local Government; Committee on Agriculture, Water, Trade & Economic Development; and Committee on Energy, Environment & Telecommunications.

On motion of Senator Fain, the committee assignments were confirmed by voice vote.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Warnick: "Thank you Mr. President, I would personally like to welcome Senator Short to the Senate I have known her for quite a long time and I just want to tell you a little bit about her. She is a passionate, passionate advocate for her district I worked with her in that other body and saw that passion in both the legislative arena and Washington State. I would describe her as a little bit of a pitbull so we have to be careful with her. She does want to work. Most importantly she is a wife, she is a mom, and I got to know her through the 4H program. She and I have both been 4H leaders in the past and we're also have another hobby we like to spend time with and she is a real cowgirl and she can really ride a horse. So I am just really glad to welcome another cowgirl to the Senate. Welcome, Shelly. Thank you very much Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rolfes: "Thank you Mr. President. I also want to welcome Shelly on behalf of our side of the aisle or if others want to speak that is great too. Point of personal privilege."

President Habib: "Please state your point. I believe you already were."

Senator Rolfes: "Then-Representative Short and then-Representative Rolfes, we served together on the powerful House Ecology Committee together for years where we worked and collaborated on things like the Growth Management Act and climate change and more recently wolf management policy and, I think. Welcome to the Senate and I look forward to working with you again."

INVOCATION

Sensei Kojo Kakihara: (rings bell) "Every life is interconnected and resonates with each other life, this goes beyond our physical lives.

This moment we share together is a precious gift given by those whom we remember and honor today.

We share this moment, and we share Life.

They lived to contribute to the world and dedicated themselves to serving others.

Their spirit is in us now here.

Buddha says, 'Have gratitude to the past, but live in the present.'

We can learn from the past, we can have gratitude to the past, but we cannot live the past. We can live only now, in this moment. And what we think now, what we do now makes our future.

With gratitude, and the wisdom that they have given us, let us all preserve their legacy and walk forward in the same spirit.

As the sun shines upon the earth awakening into growth the seeds that lie dormant in the soil, may the Light of Truth cast its splendor upon the minds and hearts here, that they may continue to guide the state of Washington, this nation, and this world with Wisdom and Compassion.

May this same Light shine upon us all, giving us the insight to realize that all life is in Oneness, that we may constantly strive for the wellbeing, not only of ourselves but of all people everywhere.

Please join me in a moment of meditation.

As we do this, you are welcome to say words of meaning from your own respective religious traditions." (rings bell) The Joint Session observed a moment of meditation.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

THIRTY FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

President Habib: “Honored Statewide Officials, Justices of the State Supreme Court, Members of the Legislature, Ladies and Gentlemen: The purpose of today’s Joint Session is to conduct a memorial service in the memory of those members of the state Legislature whom we have recently lost. This is not a new tradition. For over a century, we in Washington state, have held memorial sessions like this at the state capital to honor the memory and the public service of those who have graced these hallowed halls before. And to express our condolences and our sympathies to the families and friends and colleagues and loved ones of those whom we have lost. It is often said that for public servants our legacy lives on in the work that we do and certainly it is true that those Senators and Representatives whom we celebrate today have made invaluable contributions to the people of the state of Washington. Through the laws they have passed, the amendments, the floor speeches, the legislative maneuvers, and those experiences, those imprints they have left upon our state are not only remembered today but throughout our legislative work. Even in my time in the State House and State Senate I would hear these names, retired members of the state legislature, uttered by more senior members when discussing a particular issue or a particular legislative measure or part or provision of the revised code. So, I want to give a message to the family members and friends and loved ones who have joined us here today that your loved one is remembered and is an integral part of the fabric of the work that we do. Not just today but in an ongoing way as we do the work of the people, their legacy lives on in the stories and anecdotes and the annals of the State House and the State Senate. We honor them. We know that each and every single one of them sacrificed time with you and with other loved ones many times. They sacrificed other opportunities in life to give themselves over to serving the people of their districts and more generally the people of the state of Washington. Many of us know what those experiences are because we have experienced those sacrifices ourselves in our own lives but we reflect now on the years of service and sacrifice that your loved ones have given over to our state. And so I want to extend on behalf of the Joint Session of the State Legislature as well as Governor Inslee a very warm word of gratitude to all those loved ones who have joined us and who gave your family member, your father or mother, son or daughter, sister or brother, spouse over to us for some period of time to serve the people of the state of Washington. And, in addition to that word of gratitude, a word of condolences that we know through our own personal life experiences how difficult a loss like this can be. And though this is only a small gesture compared to the grief and hardship that you are undoubtedly going through we hope that through this celebration today and our ongoing remembrance we will help to pay homage to the work that they have done for us. I would ask our guests as well as the convened State Legislature here to join me in a moment of prayer or reflection as we listen to the singing of ‘Amazing Grace.’”

Washington State Patrolman, Trooper Jeffery Eifert, performed “Amazing Grace.”

The President introduced Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore John Lovick.

REMARKS BY THE DEPUTY SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore Lovick: “Thank you Mr. President. We gather today to commemorate the lives of the distinguished former members of the Washington State Senate and House of Representatives who have passed from among us. The people of our state are grateful for their public service.

The Sixty-Fifth Legislature conveys its respects to these deceased legislators. They once sat in these chambers, answered roll calls on critical bills, attended committee meetings, and through it sought always to make our state a better place to live. While their journey in life is complete, their achievements, public record, and valued service are recorded in the journals of the Senate and House, and are forever a permanent part of our state’s history.

We express our sympathies to the families, friends and colleagues of these public servants. We also share with them on this memorable occasion the fond and happy memories of these legislators. They leave a legacy of dedicated service that remains always in our hearts, our memories and the history of our state.”

The Speaker (Representative Lovick presiding) introduced Rabbi Seth Goldstein, Temple Beth Hatfiloh, Olympia, who offered the memorial prayer.

MEMORIAL PRAYER

Rabbi Seth Goldstein: “Source of all compassion, we assemble here today in the seat of our government to honor the memory of those who have given of themselves to serve this great state and who have subsequently gone to their eternal home. We come from a variety of faith traditions, or none at all, yet what we all share is the pain and grief and emptiness which comes from loss. We all recognize that although individual lives end, life itself continues, and while our time on earth is limited, our words and our deeds and the impressions that we make on others ensure that we live on in spirit. How true this is for those who serve the greater good, who serve as leaders of our communities and of our state, for their actions affect us all. Those who serve in positions of leadership ensure through their service that we all will benefit. The mantle of leadership is sometimes a heavy one to bear and in honoring the memory of those who served our state, we honor too the commitment they made and the service they gave. For this state and all its citizens have been uplifted by the lives they led. We know that loss, pain and grief are part of the human existence, yet we learn too that so is healing, hope and love. It is love that sustains us in the face of death, and it is love that aids us during our grieving. As we come together as a community to remember those who served this community, may we support each other in strength, may we draw on the gift of memory to enliven us, may we be inspired by the work of those who have come before us to continue to strive for truth and decency, justice and righteousness. May we follow their great example of public service and concern for the general welfare. May we honor their memory by continuing to preserve the values of the institutions which they held dear. At times of grief we turn to the eternal source of all. We pray for the blessing of comfort for those who mourn loss. We pray the souls of those who have departed from this world be bound up in the bond of life. At the rising of the sun and the going down, we remember them. At the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them. When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them. When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them. When we have joy we crave to share, we remember them. When we have decisions that are difficult to make, we remember them. When we have achievements that are based on theirs, we remember them. As long as we live, they too will live. For they are now a part of us and we remember them. May the memory of our loved ones and our dear departed be a blessing always. Amen.”

The Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore, in turn, and the President, called the roll of the deceased former members of the Senate and the House of Representatives. A bell tolled after each name was called. Each of the deceased former members, in turn, were memorialized by senators and representatives. Memorialists were assisted by candle lighters: Miss Eva Johnson, Senate Page, and Mr. Coy Carney, House Page.

The Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore (Representative Lovick presiding) introduced Father Photios Dumont of St. Demetrios Greek Orthodox Church of Seattle, who offered the closing prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER

Father Photios Dumont: "In the name of The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit, Amen."

"Oh God of all, we give thanks to You and praise You on this day, as we gather to honor and remember all those who so faithfully served their fellow citizens and this great state of Washington, and who have now departed to the next life. We are thankful as we remember their work and dedicated service and we ask You to grant them mercy in Your good favor. To all their surviving family, relatives, friends and colleagues, we ask You to bring comfort and peace, consoling their hearts and souls as such that only You can do. We bless and praise Your Holy Name for Your gracious favor and divine blessing upon the state of Washington, our Governor Jay Inslee, and the members of this august assembly of state representatives and senators. Bless, preserve and keep them and their families safe and healthy together with all those who serve our great state. May they be inspired by all those who served before them, who we honor and remember this day, and diligently seek to imitate their good deeds bringing justice, equality, and goodness to our beloved state. Heavenly Father may we ever abide in this land of opportunity and freedom in perfect tranquility, faithful to our foundations and ever building a more prosperous, just, equitable and decent society for all our citizens to the example of our forbearers. Oh God of Spirit and of all flesh, who has trampled down death and crushed the power of the devil and granted life to Your world, do You Yourself Oh Lord give the souls of our departed Representatives and Senators who have fallen asleep. In a place of light, a place of green pasture, a place of repose, where there is no more pain, sorrow, or suffering. Oh merciful God forgive every sin which they may have committed in thought, word or deed for You are a good God who loves mankind. There is no one who lives and does not sin, Only You are without sin, Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness and Your word is truth. You are the resurrection, the life, and the repose of our departed servants, our faithful representatives and senators, O Christ our God. And to You we ascribe glory together with Your Father who is without beginning Your only good and life giving Spirit, now and forever to the ends of ages. Amen. May their memory be eternal. Amen.”

The Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore (Representative Lovick presiding) thanked Representative Buys for his performance, the President and the senate for their assistance and hospitality and retired from the chair.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Thank you Speaker Lovick. The President would like to extend the Senate’s gratitude to Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore John Lovick, as well as Representative Buys and the entire House of Representatives for participating with us today in this joint session. For those who are guests to the Legislature, you may know we do not convene often in joint session. This is among the most important reasons that we do that because we feel so strongly that those who have departed us are part of our family. Our family of public service, our family here in the state legislature. The President would also like to thank the members of the State Patrol and members of clergy. The clergy who participated in today’s ceremony and thank them for their service. Speaking on behalf of this Joint Session, to those who are guests with us today, we hope that this roll call of honor, this remembrance, this Joint Memorial will be some source of comfort to you as we notify you and let you know that these individuals these public servants whom we’ve lost are part

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, all measures listed on the Introduction and First Reading report were referred to the committees as designated.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Sheldon moved adoption of the following resolution:

By Senator Sheldon

WHEREAS, The United States Navy submarine USS Olympia is paying a goodwill visit to the Puget Sound area, and a large contingent of its crew is calling on the vessel's namesake city for the first time since 1998; and

WHEREAS, The USS Olympia, based at Pearl Harbor under the command of Benjamin J. Selph, is a Los Angeles-class submarine launched in 1983 and commissioned in 1984, one of a new generation of nuclear powered attack submarines that boasted the most advanced technology of their time; and

WHEREAS, The Los Angeles-class submarine fleet has been updated and refitted, and remains a bulwark of our national defense, and 36 of the original 62 submarines remain in service, making it the single largest class of operating submarines in the world; and

WHEREAS, Each Los Angeles-class submarine is staffed by a crew of approximately 120, carries approximately 25 torpedoes, is capable of firing Tomahawk-class missiles, and can travel over 20 knots an hour, or 23 mph, surfaced or underwater, though top speed is classified; and

WHEREAS, The USS Olympia is named after the city of Olympia, just as other Los Angeles-class submarines are named after other American cities; and

WHEREAS, The USS Olympia is a storied name in the annals of Naval history and the submarine is the second vessel to bear the name, the first being the historic cruiser USS Olympia, the flagship of Commodore George Dewey at the Battle of Manila Bay in 1898, aboard which Dewey uttered the immortal words "You may fire when ready, Gridley" before attacking the Spanish fleet and today is the last surviving vessel of the famed Great White Fleet, now serving as a museum ship docked in Philadelphia; and

WHEREAS, The submarine USS Olympia has long been a point of pride for Olympia and all of Thurston County, the visits of its crew to the city are fondly remembered by community leaders and the office of the Secretary of State has maintained a close relationship with the vessel and its crew; and

WHEREAS, The submarine USS Olympia's lengthy record of service includes an historic 1998 transit of the Suez Canal, making it the first Pacific-based submarine to travel the length of the canal in more than 35 years; and

WHEREAS, The Navy's presence in the state of Washington includes Naval Base Kitsap, Naval Station Whidbey Island, Naval Station Everett, Naval Magazine Indian Island, and more than 100 supported Navy commands and units; and

WHEREAS, The United States Navy in the state of Washington employs more than 20,000 active duty personnel, 5,000 reservists, 15,000 contractors and 17,000 Navy civilian personnel, and there are more than 42,000 members of Navy families in the state and more than 55,000 retirees; and

WHEREAS, The Navy is one of the state's largest employers, infusing more than 5 billion dollars each year into the state's economy; and

WHEREAS, The USS Olympia is a vital component of a national defense structure that has helped prevent world conflict since WWII, and exemplifies the principle that a strong military offers the best guarantee of peace;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate recognize the important contributions of the submarine USS Olympia on its crew's visit to its namesake city; and that the Senate's high regard for the USS Olympia and its crew be extended to all who serve in the nation's armed forces; and that the crew of the USS Olympia be welcomed to Washington's capital with the respect and appreciation they deserve; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Commanding Officer of the USS Olympia, the Secretary of the United States Navy, and the President of the United States.

Senator Sheldon spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8607.

The motion by Senator Sheldon carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

At 12:11 p.m., on motion of Senator Fain, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 o'clock a.m. Friday, February 10, 2017.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF JOSIAH MALIK RASHID

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2012, Josiah Malik Rashid, a juvenile, was found guilty of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY with a FIREARM ENHANCEMENT, and SECOND DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 11-C-02231-1, and sentenced to 87 total months of confinement, after he and his associates broke into an acquaintance's house, and engaged in an armed robbery in March 2011.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rashid has been incarcerated since March 2011 and has served 55 months in confinement. He is scheduled to be transferred to an adult correctional facility for the remaining seven months of his sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rashid accepts full responsibility for his conduct in this incident, and he expresses remorse. He has been in the custody of the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration at the Green Hill School since 2012, and he has paid all of the restitution owed to the victims. While in detention, Mr. Rashid has also seized every opportunity to improve himself. He earned his high school diploma in July 2014, and he has already earned approximately 10 credits toward his college degree.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rashid has taken advantage of vocational opportunities and work readiness programs. He works two jobs, and has excelled; in one of those roles, he has worked over 3,000 hours and was named Employee of the Year.

WHEREAS, in September 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Rashid's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration personnel, family, friends, and community members. The King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not oppose Mr. Rashid's clemency petition.

WHEREAS, at his hearing, Mr. Rashid described the strong support network that will help him successfully reintegrate into the community. He has received offers for employment upon his release, and he has been offered a place to live. Moreover, Mr. Rashid has already been accepted into local colleges, where he intends to further his education.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 2011, Mr. Rashid had just turned 16 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, studies also demonstrate that youth incarcerated in an adult correctional facility face an increased risk of negative peer influence. If Mr. Rashid were to be placed into an adult correctional facility for the remaining seven months of his sentence, after he ages out of the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration, he may suffer a setback in his rehabilitation and therefore pose a greater risk to the community upon release. The potential harm that Mr. Rashid could experience in an adult facility, on a sentence imposed for a crime he committed as a youth, greatly outweighs any value to the community in Mr. Rashid's being incarcerated for seven months in an adult facility.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Rashid's sentence prior to January 29, 2016, the date Mr. Rashid ages out of the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration and would otherwise be transferred to DOC custody.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Josiah Malik Rashid's sentence for his 2012 FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY with a FIREARM ENHANCEMENT, and SECOND DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION convictions, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration and DOC in a transition plan.

Under this transition plan, Mr. Rashid will be transferred from Green Hill School to the Oakridge Community Facility as soon as space is available. While at the Oakridge Community Facility, Mr. Rashid will attend Pioneer Human Services' Roadmaps to Success job training program.

Throughout the remainder of his custody under the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration, Mr. Rashid must obey all laws and comply with the orders of his counselors and supervisors at the Green Hill School and Oakridge Community Facility. On January 29, 2016, Mr. Rashid will be released from the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration to serve a 12-month term of community custody under DOC supervision.

While on community custody, Mr. Rashid shall:

1. Obey all laws;
2. Follow all DOC conditions and obey orders issued by his community corrections officer (CCO);
3. Be subject to polygraph examinations during the first six months of his community custody;
4. Participate in educational, vocational, or job readiness programs, and if not enrolled in school or employed, participate in a work crew as directed by his CCO;
5. Be subject to testing for alcohol or drugs, including marijuana, spice, or mind and mood altering drugs that are not prescribed by a licensed medical doctor;
6. Not associate with known gang members, criminal associations, or his co-defendants unless he receives the approval of his CCO;

2017 REGULAR SESSION

7. Be subject to geographic travel restrictions as determined by his CCO;
8. Be subject to new chemical dependency assessments in the community setting, and follow recommendations given by the chemical dependency program;
9. Not visit bars and taverns, unless he receives approval of his CCO;
10. Not possess firearms, ammunition, or dangerous weapons;
11. Live in a residence approved by his CCO. Mr. Rashid must notify his CCO within one business day of any residence change, and new residences must receive DOC approval.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Rashid shall remain under the supervision of the DOC and explicitly follow conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by the DOC and may result in the termination of this conditional commutation as provided below. The Department may require Mr. Rashid to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Rashid if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Rashid is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington or, during the period of his 12-month supervision, violates the conditions of this conditional commutation as determined by the Governor, this conditional commutation is revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Rashid will be immediately returned to a corrections facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. The DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding any violation of this conditional commutation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to revoke the conditional commutation will be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Rashid has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Rashid is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice Mr. Rashid submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has complied with all conditions of this commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer.

The hearing officer will provide Mr. Rashid an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the conditional commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive decision on whether Mr. Rashid has violated the conditions of this conditional commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Rashid may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this conditional commutation has been violated if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this conditional commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Rashid may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Rashid will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 10th day of November, A.D., two thousand and fifteen.

AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
JOHN RAY STEWART

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, John Ray Stewart was convicted on November 20, 1998, of First Degree Attempted Robbery and First Degree Burglary under King County Superior Court Cause No. 97-1-05832-1 and sentenced to serve Life Without the Possibility of Parole as required by Washington's Persistent Offender Accountability Act, the so-called "Three Strikes" law.

WHEREAS, the crimes leading to these final strike convictions occurred on July 29, 1997. Mr. Stewart burglarized a home, fought with the homeowner's two sons who chased him, and then tried to steal a vehicle belonging to one of the sons.

WHEREAS, the crime that led to Mr. Stewart's first strike conviction occurred on May 7, 1990. Mr. Stewart was convicted of Second Degree Assault after he and a co-defendant began beating hitchhikers after the hitchhikers refused their demand for money and started calling for help.

WHEREAS, the crime that led to Mr. Stewart's second strike conviction occurred on September 9, 1991. Mr. Stewart pleaded guilty to First Degree Manslaughter after he and a co-defendant went to a residential property to steal marijuana and the co-defendant shot and killed a man who was on the premises.

WHEREAS, Mr. Stewart has also been convicted of other crimes, including Forgery in 1996 for signing the name of the owner on charge slips for a credit card that did not belong to him; Third Degree Assault in 1987 after using a knife during a drug dispute and cutting a man on the side of the neck; and Violation of the Uniform Controlled Substance Act in 1990 by possession of valium without a physician's prescription.

WHEREAS, in 2003, while in prison at the Washington State Penitentiary, Mr. Stewart met inmate Steven F. Sherer, who had been convicted of the murder of his wife. Mr. Sherer stated to Mr. Stewart and another inmate that he wanted to kill King County Deputy Prosecutor Marilyn Brenneman, who prosecuted the case against Mr. Sherer. He also stated he wanted to burn down the house of a key witness. Mr. Stewart contacted the King County Prosecutor's Office and reported the threats. He then assisted the police investigation that identified steps Mr. Sherer had taken to hire a person being released from prison to carry out his plan, and testified against Mr. Sherer at trial. A detective in the Major Crimes Unit of the King County Sheriff's Office wrote that Mr. Stewart "testified in trial knowing his own safety within the penitentiary would be sacrificed." The detective wrote that Mr. Stewart never asked for or received any financial reimbursement for his assistance, but that Mr. Stewart's motivation was to balance the wrong he had committed in his life by helping to thwart a scheme to murder a deputy prosecutor. The King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office confirmed that no benefit was conferred upon Mr. Stewart for his actions in this matter, and that Mr. Stewart simply asked to be protected without having to spend the rest of his life in solitary confinement. Mr. Stewart did spend about one year in solitary confinement for his own safety.

WHEREAS, the retired deputy prosecutor who was the target of Mr. Sherer's threat of murder for hire wrote: "I do believe that Mr. Stewart's act in reporting the attempted murders may have saved the lives of several people." She also stated: "I think that Mr. Stewart's action in this matter indicates someone with a conscience and courage." The witness against Mr. Sherer in his murder trial noted he planned to have her home burned while her family was sleeping. She wrote: "Thanks to John, the lives of three people, including me, were saved and a terrible crime was prevented before anything bad could happen."

WHEREAS, during his incarceration Mr. Stewart has earned his G.E.D., completed programs in Victim Awareness and Anger Management, participated in Narcotics Anonymous, and has been employed as a utility worker running the "wax crew" within the institution.

WHEREAS, following Mr. Stewart's Clemency and Pardons Board hearing on November 1, 2007, the Board issued a unanimous 4-0 recommendation in support of a commutation of his Life Without the Possibility of Parole sentence. Governor Gregoire denied Mr. Stewart's petition at that time, but invited him to repetition the Board in 2011.

WHEREAS, following Mr. Stewart's Clemency and Pardons Board hearing on December 9, 2011, the Board voted 2 - 2 on whether to recommend commutation of his Life Without the Possibility of Parole sentence. Two Board members believed Mr. Stewart's conduct in helping to prevent serious harm to the witness and her family and to the deputy prosecuting attorney at risk to his own personal safety was extraordinary. These Board members recommended a commutation. Two Board members expressed concern about Mr. Stewart's conduct and description of a 2010 fight with another inmate that led to an infraction, expressed concern about Mr. Stewart's readiness to return to society, and stated that a risk assessment needed to be conducted to provide reassurance there is not a substantial risk that Mr. Stewart would reoffend.

WHEREAS, on January 14, 2013, Governor Gregoire granted Mr. Stewart a Conditional Commutation on the remainder of his sentence, contingent on, among other things, his successful completion of a work release program and then an 18 month term of community custody. Before completing his work release program, on August 1, 2015, Mr. Stewart received a major infraction for fighting. Consequently, Mr. Stewart was terminated from his work release program. Mr. Stewart waived his right to a hearing to challenge the accusations against him and conceded that he violated the terms of his Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, having reviewed the Department of Corrections' reports describing the events of August 1, 2015, I have determined that Mr. Stewart has violated the terms of the Conditional Commutation granted by Governor Gregoire in 2013.

WHEREAS, Mr. Stewart is now 46 years old. Mr. Stewart has been incarcerated on King County Superior Court Cause No. 97-1-05832-1 for over 18 years.

WHEREAS, Section 5 of Initiative 593 indicated that nothing in this act shall ever be interpreted or construed as to reduce or eliminate the power of the governor to grant a pardon or clemency to any offender on an individual case-by-case basis."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of Washington under Article III Section 9 of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 9.94A.885 and RCW 9.95.260, hereby grant to John Ray Stewart an Amended Conditional Commutation of his sentence. Mr. Stewart shall remain incarcerated until no later than January 1, 2017, and during his incarceration he must complete a work release program and a Department of Corrections-approved mental health counseling program; upon successful completion of those assignments and his release from incarceration, Mr. Stewart must serve an 18 month term of community custody.

Mr. Stewart shall:

1. Enter, abide by all rules of, and successfully complete six months in the Department of Corrections Work Release program;
2. Report regularly to a community corrections officer as directed by the Department of Corrections;
3. Participate in Department of Corrections-approved education, employment and community service;
4. Receive prior approval from the Department of Corrections for living arrangements and residence location;
5. Notify the Department of Corrections prior to any changes of address or employment;
6. Remain in the geographic area as directed by the community corrections officer;
7. Not possess, receive, ship, or transport a firearm, ammunition, or explosives;
8. Not possess or use any controlled substances without a prescription from a licensed practicing physician;
9. Abstain from alcohol and marijuana consumption and possession;
10. Submit to regular and random urinalysis and breathalyzer testing, as directed by the community corrections officer;
11. Participate in substance abuse and chemical dependency evaluation as directed by the community corrections officer and successfully complete and abide by all conditions of recommendations from such evaluation;
12. Participate in chemical dependency and substance abuse support groups, as directed by the community corrections officer;
13. Not associate with any drug users or dealers;
14. Not associate with any individuals who participated in the commission of any of the offenses that resulted in his sentencing under the Persistent Offender Accountability Act;
15. Have no direct contact with any of his victims or their families;
16. Participate in electronic monitoring, if deemed appropriate by the community corrections officer;
17. Comply with all standard conditions, recommendations, and instructions of community placement as directed by the community corrections officer; and

2017 REGULAR SESSION

18. Pay any remaining legal financial obligations required by the Washington State sentencing court.

Olympia on this 10th day of November, A.D., two thousand and fifteen.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Stewart shall remain under the supervision of the Department of Corrections and explicitly follow conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Department of Corrections, to include total confinement under Department of Corrections' policies and rules, and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. The Department may require Mr. Stewart to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Stewart if he violates a condition.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF ISMAEL BALTAZAR JUAN

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Stewart shall have no direct contact with any of his victims or their families at any time, either before or after he has served this commuted sentence.

WHEREAS, in 2000, Ismael Baltazar Juan pleaded guilty to two counts of INDECENT LIBERTIES in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 00-1-03172, and was sentenced to 89 months of confinement with 83 months suspended, and $610 in legal financial obligations. These charges arose after a then-20 year old Mr. Baltazar Juan approached a woman and began inappropriately touching her outside of a convenience store.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Stewart is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington or violates the conditions of this Conditional Commutation as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation is revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Stewart will be immediately returned to the Washington Corrections Center or any such facility as the Secretary of the Department of Corrections deems appropriate. The Department of Corrections shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding any substantial or sustained violations of this Conditional Commutation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to revoke the Conditional Commutation will be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Stewart has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Stewart is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice,

WHEREAS, Mr. Baltazar Juan accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence. He has completed a 36-month sexual offender treatment program, and he has paid off all of his legal financial obligations. In 2013, Mr. Baltazar Juan underwent several risk assessments, and it was determined that he is a low risk to reoffend.

Mr. Stewart submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has complied with all conditions of this commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Stewart an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive decision on whether Mr. Stewart has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

WHEREAS, Mr. Baltazar Juan is a Guatemalan immigrant. Since his crime, Mr. Baltazar Juan has participated in reprogramming and now better understands and appreciates the cultural differences between his native Guatemala and the United States. These convictions on Mr. Baltazar Juan's record now subject him to deportation to Guatemala, where he has no family or employment prospects.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Stewart may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Stewart may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Stewart will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

WHEREAS, in December 2014, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Baltazar Juan's clemency petition, which included numerous letters of support from family, friends, and members of the community. Testimony before the Board was that in the 15 years since his crime, Mr. Baltazar Juan has married and is now raising four children. He also works over 40 hours a week, and has quit consuming alcohol. Also, the victim in this case was contacted and did not oppose Mr. Baltazar Juan's clemency petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Baltazar Juan be granted a full pardon. The Board stressed that it was particularly concerned about the negative effects that would result if Mr. Baltazar Juan were to be deported, leaving his wife and four young children without a husband and father.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Ismael Baltazar Juan this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for two counts of INDECENT LIBERTIES, in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 00-1-03172-8, so that he may remain with his family.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
MARIE DENISE CLARK

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999, Marie Denise Clark pleaded guilty to THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT in Clark County Superior Court, Cause No. 98-1-02335-0, and was sentenced to 81 days in jail. This charge arose after a then-18 year old Ms. Clark, in a schizophrenic episode, attempted to stab her father with a kitchen knife.

WHEREAS, Ms. Clark accepts full responsibility for her past conduct and expresses remorse. At the time of the incident, she was not yet clinically diagnosed as schizophrenic, and later medical examinations determined that she was not cognitively aware of her actions during the knife attack.

WHEREAS, since this incident, Ms. Clark has found a medical regimen that has remedied her schizophrenia. She takes medication and has not exhibited any violent behavior since this single episode in 1998. Her longtime doctor believes that her condition has been in remission for at least the last five years.

WHEREAS, in March 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Clark's clemency petition, which included letters of support from her doctor and members of the community. Testimony before the Board was that Ms. Clark would like to pursue her faith by becoming a sister in her church, but the felony on her record limits her, pursuant to the policies of her church. Furthermore, Ms. Clark has attempted to volunteer at a local hospital, only to be rejected because of this conviction.

WHEREAS, the victim in this case, her father, fully supports Ms. Clark's clemency petition, and the Clark County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose it. Ultimately, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Ms. Clark be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Marie Denise Clark this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of her conviction for THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT, in Clark County Superior Court, Cause No. 98-1-02335-0, so that she may pursue her religious calling and volunteer work in her community.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
DAVID CORNELIUS CONYERS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, David Cornelius Conyers was found guilty of four counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in June 1995, King County Superior Court Cause No. 94-C-07842-5. Mr. Conyers had entered a series of convenience stores, pretending to be armed, and he demanded money from store personnel. He never physically harmed his victims.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Mr. Conyers as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. He had twice earlier been convicted of similar offenses. At 21 years old, he was the youngest person in Washington to be sentenced under our persistent offender statute, and he has been incarcerated since November 21, 1994.

WHEREAS, Mr. Conyers has never been convicted of a Class A felony. He has also not had any serious infractions while in custody since 2007.

WHEREAS, Mr. Conyers accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. He acknowledges that he has matured significantly since he was first incarcerated as a young man over 20 years ago. He has earned his GED while in prison, and he has also completed numerous job skills and substance abuse courses.

WHEREAS, in September 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Conyers' clemency petition, which included several letters of support from friends, family, and other community members. Mr. Conyers' sentencing judge and King County Prosecuting Attorney Dan Satterberg both expressed strong support for Mr. Conyers.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Conyers' advocate network will support him and help him transition to life outside of prison. Pioneer Health Services has offered to provide Mr. Conyers transitional housing and job skills to help him reconnect to the community and its transition programs.

THIRTY SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Conyers' sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE David Cornelius Conyers' sentence for his four 1995 convictions for SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in an in-custody transition plan ending no later than June 1, 2017, that must include successful completion of a six to nine month work release program.

Following his release from custody, Mr. Conyers shall serve 24 months of community custody under DOC supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Mr. Conyers will comply with any conditions set forth by the DOC and its community corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Conyers shall:

1. Obey all laws and follow standard DOC conditions for supervision;
2. Report as directed and be available for contact with the DOC;
3. Abide by written or verbal instructions issued by DOC, and comply with all community custody conditions as directed by DOC;
4. Remain in a geographic area as directed by DOC;
5. Notify and receive prior approval from DOC for living arrangements and residence locations, as well as employment changes;
6. Obtain legal employment, but not be employed at any bars, taverns, or places where alcohol is a predominate feature in the business enterprise, as determined by DOC;
7. Participate on DOC work crews or in DOC programming as directed by his community corrections officer, if he is unable to find legal employment;
8. Obtain a drug and alcohol assessment from a certified provider and follow all treatment recommendations;
9. Participate regularly in NA/AA as directed by DOC, and abstain from using or possessing alcohol and drugs, including marijuana, spice, or other mind and mood altering substances, unless prescribed by a licensed medical doctor;
10. Complete community stress and anger management programming to mitigate aggression;
11. Complete the Thinking for a Change program;
12. Not possess, receive, ship, or transport any explosive device, dangerous weapons, ammunition, or firearms;
13. Have no direct or indirect contact with any victims and/or their families;
14. Not associate with his co-defendants, known gang members, individuals with criminal records, or anti-social persons, unless approved by DOC;
15. Report any contact with law enforcement, or arrests, to DOC within one business day of the incident;

PROVIDED, that Mr. Conyers shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by the DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If

Mr. Conyers is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Conyers to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Conyers if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Conyers violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, where- upon Mr. Conyers will be immediately returned to any such facility as the Secretary of the DOC deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Conyers has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if

Mr. Conyers is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Conyers submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Conyers an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Conyers has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Conyers is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Conyers will be immediately returned to any such facility that the Secretary of the DOC deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Conyers may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Conyers may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Conyers will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

OF WILLEEN RAYE BALLARD

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, Willeen Raye Ballard was convicted of THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT, FIRST DEGREE THEFT, and FIRST DEGREE POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 02-1-08642-6, and sentenced to 25 years in prison, after she and an associate confronted an elderly woman in a car, forcibly removed the woman from the car, and then drove off in the car.

WHEREAS, Ms. Ballard has faced tremendous adversity in her life; she was a victim of domestic sexual abuse at a young age and was forced to the streets where she was subjected to violence and victimized in the sex trade. She accepts full responsibility for her conduct in this incident, and she expresses remorse. She has paid off nearly $20,000 in legal financial obligations. And, since 2011, she has received no serious infractions. Ms. Ballard also seizes opportunities to improve herself while in prison. She has completed various college courses, seminars, and other self-improvement programs.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Ballard's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from her family and other community members. The victim's family expressed no opposition to Ms. Ballard's petition, and the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office testified in full support of her petition.

WHEREAS, Ms. Ballard met a man that she is engaged to marry and begin a life with, outside of prison. She also wants to become an active parent in her teenage son's life. She also wants to complete her college education at The Evergreen State College and begin an at-risk youth program in Thurston County.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor CONDITIONALLY COMMUTE Ms. Ballard's sentence based upon a transition plan directed by the Department of Corrections (DOC). And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Willeen Raye Ballard's sentence for her 1994 THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT, FIRST DEGREE THEFT, and FIRST DEGREE POSSESSION OF STOLEN PROPERTY convictions, conditioned on her agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan. Under this transition plan, Ms. Ballard will complete a nine-month in-custody transition period, in which she must successfully complete a work-release program. During the work-release phase of this transition, Ms. Ballard must attend weekly substance abuse programs. This initial in-custody phase of her transition must terminate no later than October 1, 2016.

Following the in-custody portion of her transition, Ms. Ballard will serve an additional 12 months of community custody, to end no later than October 1, 2017. During her time in custody and on community supervision, Ms. Ballard will comply with any conditions set by DOC and its community corrections officers. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Ms. Ballard shall:

1. Obey all laws and follow standard DOC conditions for supervision;
2. Report regularly to her community corrections officer as directed by DOC;
3. Participate in DOC-approved education, employment, and/or community service programs;
4. Receive prior approval from DOC for living arrangements, residence locations, and residence location changes;
5. Allow community corrections officers to conduct home, employment, and stakeholder visits as DOC deems appropriate;
6. Remain in a geographical area as determined by her community corrections officer;
7. Not possess or consume any controlled substances without a prescription;
8. Receive support regarding abstinence from alcohol or drugs, and complete a substance abuse evaluation and/or treatment as prescribed by her community corrections officer.
9. Participate regularly in NA/AA as directed by DOC, and abstain from using or possessing alcohol and drugs, including marijuana, spice, or other mind and mood altering substances, unless prescribed by a licensed medical doctor;
10. Submit to regular and/or random urinalysis and breathalyzer testing as directed by DOC;
11. Not have direct or indirect contact with the victim or victim's family;
12. Notify DOC prior to any changes in address or employment;
13. Not possess, receive, or transport a firearm;
14. Receive mental health services as recommended by DOC; and
15. Not frequent areas of prostitution.

PROVIDED, that Ms. Ballard shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of her community custody. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Ms. Ballard is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Ms. Ballard to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Ms. Ballard if she violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms. Ballard violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Ballard will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Ms. Ballard has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Ms. Ballard is in custody, to her place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Ms. Ballard submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that she has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Ms. Ballard an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that she has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted.

The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Ms. Ballard has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms. Ballard is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Ballard will be immediately returned to any such facility that the Secretary of the DOC deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Ms. Ballard may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that she would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Ms. Ballard may abscond if not detained. If detained, Ms. Ballard will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 11th day of December A.D., two thousand and fifteen.

OF
PAUL RIVERS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Paul Rivers was found guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in May 1994, King County Superior Court Cause No. 93-1-06019-6. He confronted an espresso bar manager and, unarmed though claiming to be carrying a weapon, ordered the manager to turn over a bag of money that he was taking to the bank. Mr. Rivers then snatched the bag from the manager and fled.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Mr. Rivers as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. He had twice earlier been convicted of participating in similar second degree robberies, and he was also convicted of an earlier second degree assault.

WHEREAS, at the time of sentencing, the trial judge that sentenced Mr. Rivers expressed that he would have sentenced him to five years in prison for this offense, but the law required a life sentence. The standard range maximum sentence for Mr. Rivers' crime would have been 10 years; instead, Mr. Rivers has been incarcerated over 20 years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rivers accepts full responsibility for his conduct in this incident and expresses remorse. He acknowledges that substance abuse contributed substantially to his past criminal conduct, and he has since completed a chemical dependency treatment program and other self-help programs to help him overcome his addiction and other challenges.

WHEREAS, in September 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Rivers' clemency petition, which included several letters of support from friends, family, and other community members. Former Supreme Court Justice Richard Sanders and King County Prosecuting Attorney Dan Satterberg both expressed strong support for Mr. Rivers.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Rivers' advocate network will support him emotionally and help him transition to life outside of prison. His support includes promises to help Mr. Rivers secure employment, housing, transportation, as well as offers of general financial support.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Rivers' sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Paul Rivers' sentence for his 1994 conviction for SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in an in-custody transition plan ending no later than June 1, 2017, that will include successful completion of a work release program. Following his release from custody, Mr. Rivers shall serve 24 months of community custody under DOC supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Mr. Rivers will comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers.

These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Rivers shall:

1. Obey all laws and follow standard DOC conditions for supervision;
2. Report as directed and be available for contact with DOC;
3. Abide by written or verbal instructions issued by DOC, and comply with all community custody conditions as directed by DOC;
4. Remain in a geographic area as directed by DOC;
5. Notify and receive prior approval from DOC for living arrangements and residence locations, as well as employment changes;
6. Obtain legal employment, but not be employed at any bars, taverns, or places where alcohol is a predominate feature in the business enterprise, as determined by DOC;
7. Participate on DOC work crews or in DOC programming as directed by his community corrections officer, if he is unable to find legal employment;
8. Obtain a drug and alcohol assessment from a certified provider and follow all treatment recommendations;
9. Abstain from using or possessing alcohol and drugs, including marijuana, spice, or other mind and mood altering substances, unless prescribed by a licensed medical doctor;
10. Complete community stress and anger management programming to mitigate aggression;
11. Complete the Thinking for a Change and Fare Start programs, if he is eligible to enroll;
12. Not possess, receive, ship, or transport any explosive device, dangerous weapons, ammunition, or firearms;
13. Have no direct or indirect contact with any victims and/or their families;
14. Not associate with his co-defendants, known gang members, or individuals with criminal records, unless approved by DOC;
15. Report any contact with law enforcement, or arrests, to DOC within one business day of the incident;

PROVIDED, that Mr. Rivers shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by the DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Rivers is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Rivers to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Rivers if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Rivers violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Rivers will be immediately returned to any such facility as the Secretary of the DOC deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Rivers has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Rivers is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Rivers submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Rivers an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Rivers has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Rivers is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Rivers will be immediately returned to any such facility that the Secretary of the DOC deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Rivers may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Rivers may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Rivers will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

OF
ANDREW DONALD MICHELL

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1996, Andrew Donald Michell pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY, and three counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 95-1-04964-0, after Mr. Michell, who as a 16-year old in 1995, drove accomplices to multiple residences to conduct robberies, and at one robbery site, one of Mr. Michell's accomplices assaulted two victims.

WHEREAS, Mr. Michell accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. At the time of the crime, he was 16 years old. Since that time, the scientific and criminal justice communities have learned a significant amount about juvenile brain development and the difficulty juveniles have in engaging in behavior control, often leading to transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of one's actions. For Mr. Michell, a psychological evaluation found that he suffered from serious clinical depression, and that he was emotionally immature for his age, such that his criminal activity reflected his difficulty in dealing with his anger and self-hatred rather than any development of criminal responsibility.

THIRTY SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2017

WHEREAS, since this crime, Mr. Michell earned his GED and completed many self-improvement programs. In 2001, after considering these factors, Governor Gary Locke commuted Mr. Michell's sentence nine months before his scheduled release.

WHEREAS, in March 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Michell's petition for a pardon, which included letters of support from numerous members of the community. Testimony before the Board was that since Mr. Michell was released from prison, he has done extensive volunteer work domestically and internationally. He has also received invitations to speak to different groups to share his story; but, some of these invitations require Mr. Michell to travel to countries that prohibit the entry of individuals with felony records.

WHEREAS, one of the victims in this case supports Mr. Michell's petition, and the other victims have not opposed it. And, the Clemency and Pardons Board did not oppose Mr. Michell's clemency petition.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Andrew Donald Michell this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his convictions for FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY, and three counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 95-1-04964-0, so that he may share his story and volunteer in countries that currently bar his entry due to these felony convictions.

ERWIN LUIS LECAROS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2000, Erwin Luis Lecaros pleaded guilty to THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT- DOMESTIC VIOLENCE in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 00-1-07376-0 SEA, and was sentenced to 30 days in jail, with $500 in legal financial obligations. This charge arose after Mr. Lecaros shoved and then struck his then-wife.

WHEREAS, Mr. Lecaros accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence, including paying off his legal financial obligations. He has also successfully completed a domestic violence batterers' treatment program.

WHEREAS, Mr. Lecaros is a Peruvian immigrant. In 2007, Mr. Lecaros became a legal U.S. resident. He also volunteers to assist U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services with fraud detection investigations.

WHEREAS, in December 2014, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Lecaros' clemency petition, which included numerous letters of support from family, friends, and members of the community. Testimony before the Board was that Mr. Lecaros was working as a certified nursing assistant at the time of this criminal offense; but, since then, he has been unable to secure permanent employment in that line of work due to this conviction. Instead, he has only been able to work in lower-paying professions, creating challenges for him as he raises his teenage daughter.

WHEREAS, the victim in this case fully supports Mr. Lecaros' clemency petition, and attended his hearing; and, the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office has expressed that it does not oppose the petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Lecaros be granted a full pardon. The Board stressed that it believed that this criminal incident was an aberration, and that Mr. Lecaros will be in a better position to provide for his daughter and support her into her college years if he can find employment in more lucrative fields.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Erwin Luis Lecaros this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT-DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 00-1-07376-0 SEA.

WHEREAS, in 1989, Laurie George Fidee pleaded guilty to misdemeanor CRIMINAL ASSAULT in Tacoma Municipal Court, Cause No. A78246. He served three days in jail and paid $260 in legal financial obligations. This conviction stemmed from an altercation between Mr. Fidee and his then-girlfriend.

WHEREAS, Mr. Fidee accepts responsibility for his conduct, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence, including paying off the $260 in legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, Mr. Fidee has had no criminal convictions in 20 years. Following this incident, he married and now is raising four children. He also served 20 years in the United States Army, and has since retired after multiple combat deployments and earning the rank of Sergeant First Class.

WHEREAS, in September 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Fidee's petition for a pardon. Mr. Fidee told the Board that this conviction has prevented him from being offered work as an armed security guard, a position for which he is otherwise qualified to serve.

WHEREAS, neither the Tacoma City Attorney, nor the victim in this case, expressed an opinion regarding Mr. Fidee's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Anderson be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Laurie George Fidee this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for misdemeanor CRIMINAL ASSAULT, in Tacoma Municipal Court, Cause No. A78246, so that he may fully pursue his professional goals and employment opportunities.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Vernell Teynac Hennings was found guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in December 1994, King County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-04494-1. Mr. Hennings had entered a video rental store with a screwdriver, approached the cashier, and demanded money. No one was physically harmed during the offense.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Mr. Hennings as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. His other strike offenses were also robberies.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hennings has not had any serious in-custody infractions since 2003, and is now considered a low risk to reoffend based on the Static Risk Assessment.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hennings accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. He earned his GED while in prison, and in 2003, he began attending Narcotics Anonymous and has since achieved sobriety.

WHEREAS, in December 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hennings' clemency petition, which included several letters of support from family and community members, including former Department of Corrections (DOC) Secretary Eldon Vail.

WHEREAS, King County Prosecuting Attorney Dan Satterberg also expressed strong support for Mr. Hennings, saying that Mr. Hennings' crime, if charged today, would have yielded a sentence less than five years.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Hennings' family and friends will support him and help him transition to life outside of prison. Mr. Hennings' wife has visited him in prison hundreds of times over his incarceration and has committed to sheltering and emotionally supporting him during his transition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Hennings' sentence. And,

3. Abide by written or verbal instructions issued by DOC, and comply with all community custody conditions as directed by DOC;
4. Remain in a geographic area as directed by DOC and be subject to travel restrictions as determined by DOC;
5. Notify and receive prior approval from DOC for living arrangements and residence locations, within one business day of residence changes;
6. Obtain legal employment throughout the course of community supervision, unless in DOC approved intervention programming;
7. Participate in substance or chemical dependency treatment and follow program recommendations; if inpatient treatment is required, participate in it as the preferred option;
8. Not use alcohol or other controlled substances, and be subject to testing for alcohol or drugs, including marijuana, spice, or mind and mood altering drugs that are not prescribed by a licensed medical doctor;
9. Not visit bars or taverns, unless approved by DOC;
10. Enroll and complete the Thinking for a Change program;
11. Not possess, receive, ship, or transport any explosive device, dangerous weapons, ammunition, or firearms;
12. Report any contact with law enforcement, or arrests, to DOC within one business day of the incident;

PROVIDED, that Mr. Hennings shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Hennings is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. WHEREAS, in 1991, Aisen Seng Bounthong pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 90-C-00195-9. He was sentenced to 8.5 years in jail, and $6,466.72 in legal financial obligations. This charge arose after a then-18 year old Mr. Bounthong and his friends stole a car, and while Mr. Bounthong was driving, his friends fired multiple shots from the vehicle, striking a victim.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bounthong accepts responsibility for his conduct, and he has served his sentence and has so far paid off almost $4,000 in legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, following his release from prison in 1999, Mr. Bounthong has had no further criminal convictions. He is now married and has a four year old child. He succeeded in community custody, maintains steady employment, and by all accounts is a great father, husband, employee, and member of the community. He has been sober since 2008.

WHEREAS, in June 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Bounthong's petition for a pardon, which described Mr. Bounthong's difficult transition to America: he fled war-torn Laos as a 12 year old, spent time living in a refugee camp, and then lost his father at a young age, leaving him to raise his family. Because of this 25 year old conviction, Mr. Bounthong has a

"deportable" status, meaning he is eligible for deportation at any time.

WHEREAS, neither the King County Prosecuting Attorney or any victims oppose Mr. Bounthong's petition. The Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Bounthong be granted a full pardon, reasoning that Mr. Bounthong's deportation to Laos, where he has no connections and would be considered unfriendly by the current regime, would disrupt his family and leave his wife and child to support themselves.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Aisen Seng Bounthong this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT, in KING County Cause No. 90-C-00195-9.

OF MERCEDES MAPA SISON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, Mercedes Mapa Sison pleaded guilty to THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT - DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 03-1-05991-1. She was sentenced to three days in jail and one year of community custody. She was also ordered to complete a domestic violence treatment program and pay $710 in legal financial obligations. This charge arose after Ms. Sison and her then - husband had an altercation in their home and she accidentally stabbed him with a kitchen knife as he lunged at her.

WHEREAS, Ms. Sison accepts responsibility for her conduct, and she has satisfied all the conditions of her first-time offender judgment and sentence.

WHEREAS, this is the only conviction on Ms. Sison's record. At the time of this incident, she was a recent immigrant from the Philippines, and she had experienced physically and emotionally abusive relationships. She divorced her husband in 2004, and since then, she has served as the lone provider for her daughters.

WHEREAS, in September 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Sison's petition for a pardon, which included numerous letters of support from members of the community. The Board suggested that given the fact pattern involving her assault charge, Ms. Sison would likely have been able to raise an affirmative defense had she not opted to plead guilty. This conviction now prevents Ms. Sison from receiving State recognition as the legal caregiver to her disabled adult daughter.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Ms. Sison be granted a full pardon. The victim submitted a letter of support for Ms. Sison's petition, and the Pierce County Prosecutor does not oppose her petition.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Mercedes Mapa Sison this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of her conviction for THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT-DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, in Pierce County Cause No. 03-1-05991-1, so that she may receive legal recognition as the caretaker for her disabled adult daughter.

OF
DANIEL LAURENCE HUNT

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1990, Daniel Laurence Hunt pleaded guilty to THIRD DEGREE THEFT in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause No. 90-1-01745-2 and was sentenced to 10 days in jail and a $176 fine. This gross misdemeanor charge arose after Mr. Hunt participated as an accomplice in a non-violent theft of property owned by an acquaintance.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hunt accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hunt has had no further convictions since 1990. He has maintained steady employment throughout his adult life and now works in law enforcement as a sergeant in the Blue Mound Police Department in Texas. This conviction on Mr. Hunt's record, though, limits his potential for advancement within his profession.

WHEREAS, in June 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hunt's pardon petition, which included numerous letters of support from law enforcement personnel; and, the Office

KENNY BUCK ANDERSON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1993, a jury found Kenny Buck Anderson guilty of THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT in Franklin County Superior Court, Cause No. 93-1-50168-3. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail, with 27 of those days converted to community service, as well as $975.75 in legal financial obligations. This charge arose after Mr. Anderson made physical contact with a security guard in the parking lot of a store following a brief confrontation.

WHEREAS, Mr. Anderson accepts responsibility for his conduct, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence, including paying off the $975.75 in legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, this is the only conviction on Mr. Anderson's record. He has earned his associate's degree in nursing and has built a successful career as a paramedic and first responder. Mr. Anderson is currently enrolled in a bachelor's degree nursing program, but this conviction limits his career options in the medical nursing field.

WHEREAS, in June 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Anderson's petition for a pardon, which included numerous letters of support from professional colleagues and others. The Board questioned whether the fact pattern that resulted in this conviction should have ever been charged as a felony.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Anderson be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Kenny Buck Anderson this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his conviction for THIRD DEGREE ASSAULT, in Franklin County Cause No. 93-1-50168-3, so that he may fully pursue his professional goals and employment opportunities.

OF
ROBERT JAMES KING

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, a jury found Robert James King guilty of ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in 1997, Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 96-1-01035-3. Mr. King and a co-defendant had entered an apartment, tied up the apartment's occupants, and stolen cash and drugs. Exiting that apartment, Mr. King was confronted by police. During the confrontation with police, Mr. King unsuccessfully attempted to pull a firearm from his coat.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Mr. King as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. King has served almost 20 years on his sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. King has had no serious infractions since 2000, and according to the Department of Corrections (DOC), at 63 years old, is considered a low risk to reoffend.

WHEREAS, Mr. King accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse; he has apologized and paid all of his legal financial obligations. He has taken personal development courses in prison and has worked in numerous capacities there.

WHEREAS, in June 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. King's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from fellow inmates who describe the positive influence that Mr. King is on them. Also, Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorney Mark Roe does not oppose Mr. King's petition, and no victims expressed any opposition.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. King's family and friends will support and help him transition to life outside of prison. Mr. King has received offers from family to live with them once he transitions out of custody.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. King's sentence.

WHEREAS, since his clemency hearing, Mr. King has been diagnosed with serious health issues and is undergoing significant medical treatment. Mr. King is already approved for Medicaid assistance upon his release. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Robert James King's sentence for his 1997 conviction for ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan that includes immediate release from custody. Following his release from custody, Mr. King shall serve 24 months of community custody under DOC supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Mr. King must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCO). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. King shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal instructions issued by his CCO;
2. Be available for contact with his assigned CCO as directed, and consent to DOC home or hospital visits to monitor compliance with supervision. These visits include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Mr. King has exclusive or joint control or access.
3. Allow DOC staff unrestricted access to his residence or hospital room, to include the securing of dangerous animals.
4. Obtain written permission from his CCO before traveling outside his county of residence.
5. Obtain permission from his CCO before changing residences, even for one night.
6. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition or explosives.
7. Not possess body armor.
8. Not threaten, obstruct, or assault staff.
9. Comply with any facility rules and regulations.
10. Not consume, possess, or distribute controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
11. Be subject to search and seizure of person, residence, automobile, or other personal property if DOC finds reasonable cause to believe he has violated the conditions or requirements of his community supervision.

12. Enter into and successfully complete DOC programming and/or treatment as directed.

PROVIDED, that Mr. King shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. King is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. King to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. King if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. King violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. King will be immediately returned to any such facility as the Secretary of the DOC deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. King has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. King is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. King submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. King an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. King has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. King is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. King will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. King may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. King may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. King will be provided a preliminary hearing as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 12th day of September, A.D., two thousand and sixteen.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1951, Frederick Stanley Kubasta was found guilty of SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY in Island County Superior Court, Cause No. 1539, and was sentenced to 12 months in prison. This conviction arose after then-18-year old Mr. Kubasta and two associates entered an empty cabin and stole property and drank alcohol from the refrigerator.

WHEREAS, Mr. Kubasta accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Kubasta has not been convicted of a crime in the 65 years since this conviction. He has raised two children and maintained steady employment throughout his adult life until retiring. This conviction on Mr. Kubasta's record, though, prevents him from traveling to Canada to visit his ailing 92-year old sister, who resides in Vancouver, British Columbia.

WHEREAS, in September 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Kubasta's petition for a pardon. No victims objected to his petition, nor did the Island County Prosecuting Attorney.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Kubasta be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Frederick Stanley Kubasta this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon for his 1951 conviction for SECOND DEGREE BURGLARY in Island County Cause No. 1539.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2012, Josiah Malik Rashid, a juvenile, was found guilty of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, RESIDENTIAL BURGLARY with a FIREARM ENHANCEMENT, and SECOND DEGREE UNLAWFUL FIREARM POSSESSION in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 11-C-02231-1, and sentenced to 87 total months of confinement, after he and his associates broke into an acquaintance's house and engaged in an armed robbery in March 2011.

WHEREAS, in September 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Rashid's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration personnel, family, friends, and community members. Moreover, the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office did not oppose Mr. Rashid's clemency petition.

WHEREAS, at his hearing, Mr. Rashid described the strong support network he had in place to help him successfully reintegrate into the community. He received offers for employment upon his release, and he had been offered a place to live. Additionally, Mr. Rashid had already been accepted into local colleges, where he intended to further his education.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Rashid's sentence prior to January 29, 2016, the date Mr. Rashid was scheduled to age out of the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration and be transferred to DOC custody.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 2011, Mr. Rashid was just 16 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, on November 10, 2015, I granted Mr. Rashid a commutation, conditioned on Mr. Rashid's compliance with numerous defined terms. These conditions required Mr. Rashid to, among other things, obey all laws and follow all DOC conditions and orders issued by his community corrections officer. Prior to receiving this commutation, Mr. Rashid agreed to its terms in writing.

WHEREAS, on March 21, 2016, Mr. Rashid failed to report a change of employment. And on March 23, 2016, Mr. Rashid failed to report as directed by his community corrections officer. Following an April 1, 2016, hearing, a DOC hearings officer found that these actions violated the terms of his community supervision. I reviewed these alleged violations of his Conditional Commutation but declined to pursue a revocation at that time. Instead, I ordered DOC to review Mr. Rashid's transition plan to adjust it to improve his chances to successfully reintegrate into the community.

WHEREAS, on August 9, 2016, following a physical dispute at the home of the mother of his months-old child, as police were detaining Mr. Rashid, he hit and damaged a police vehicle. Following an August 23, 2016, hearing, a DOC hearings officer found that this action violated the terms of his community supervision.

WHEREAS, DOC reports state that Mr. Rashid has experienced a "difficult time adjusting to supervision," and has been "unable to succeed in living a productive and crime free lifestyle," citing his continuous contacts with police and arrests for domestic-violence related incidents. His conduct has resulted in multiple violations of his community supervision.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under RCW 10.01.120, revoke Mr. Rashid's conditional commutation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 28th day of October, A.D., two thousand and sixteen.

WHEREAS, in 1992, April Larree Gipson was found guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court, Cause No. 92-C-04068-5. This conviction occurred after Ms. Gipson, along with four others, visited a home and aimed a gun at two of the residents of that home, demanding that the residents turn over a telephone.

WHEREAS, Ms. Gipson accepts full responsibility for her role in this matter and expresses remorse. She has satisfied all the conditions of her judgment and sentence, including serving 135 days in jail and paying over $1,200 in legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, Ms. Gipson is a single mother to six children. She works as a licensed practical nurse, and desires to advance in her nursing career by becoming a hospice nurse. She volunteers extensively in her community, through her church and the Boys & Girls Club.

WHEREAS, in August 2003, Ms. Gipson obtained a certificate of rehabilitation from King County Superior Court.

WHEREAS, in September 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Gipson's petition for a pardon. Testimony at the hearing explained that in her role as a nurse, Ms. Gipson is limited in the work she can do. She estimates that, over her career, this conviction's presence on her record has cost her at least eight job opportunities. It also precludes her from attending school field trips with her family.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office enthusiastically supports Ms. Gipson's petition. The victims have not expressed any opposition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Ms. Gipson be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to April Larree Gipson this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon for her 1992 conviction for SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Cause No. 92-C-04068-5.

OF LE'TAXIONE

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1998 Le'Taxione (Ernest A. Carter) was found guilty of two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 97-1-04547-1. In 1997, Le'Taxione entered and then, pretending he had a weapon, held up a Tacoma Subway, before then holding up an AM/PM. Between these two robberies, Le'Taxione took roughly $200 from the cashiers.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Le'Taxione as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. In addition to this conviction, Le'Taxione was convicted of assaulting a police officer in California in 1983, and also attempted murder with a firearm in 1990 in Oregon.

WHEREAS, Le'Taxione has served almost 20 years on his sentence.

WHEREAS, Le'Taxione accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. While in prison, he has taken personal development courses, and he has earned his GED. He has not had a serious infraction in six years, and he now commits much of his time to mentoring young incarcerated individuals, helping them to transition out of gang activity.

WHEREAS, in December 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Le'Taxione's clemency petition, which included several letters of support and certificates demonstrating the programming that he has completed while incarcerated. Also, no victims expressed any opposition to Le'Taxione's petition.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Le'Taxione is erroneously classified as a persistent offender because the law on comparable out-of-state offenses has evolved since his conviction; and, his earlier conviction in California, under today's law, would not be considered comparable to a Washington strike offense. But he is time-barred from correcting his sentence because his former attorney failed to timely challenge the legality of it.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Le'Taxione's sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Le'Taxione's sentence for his 1998 conviction for two counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Le'Taxione will be released from prison no later than January 1, 2018. During this period, Le'Taxione must complete DOC-recommended chemical dependency treatment and employment or vocational programming. And during his last six months in custody, Le'Taxione must successfully complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his release from custody, Le'Taxione shall serve 24 months of community custody under DOC supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Le'Taxione must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCOs). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Le'Taxione shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC or his CCO.
2. Be available for contact with DOC and his assigned CCO as directed, and consent to DOC home or hospital visits and or searches, to also include searches of his person or automobiles, to monitor compliance with supervision. These visits must include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Le'Taxione has exclusive or joint control or access, and includes the securing of dangerous animals.
3. Obtain legal verifiable employment or enroll in educational programming, and report it to his CCO.
4. Obtain written permission from his CCO before traveling outside his county of residence.
5. Obtain permission from his CCO before changing residences, even for one night.
6. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons. He may not possess body armor.
7. Report to his CCO all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
8. Not consume, possess, or distribute alcohol or controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
9. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary item being served, unless he receives approval from his CCO.
10. Obtain a Narcotics Anonymous sponsor and attend regular meetings as recommended by his CCO.
11. Obtain a chemical dependency evaluation and follow all treatment recommendations.
12. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by his CCO.
13. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal or gang history without first consulting his CCO.

14. Enroll in, and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program and any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Le'Taxione shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Le'Taxione is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Le'Taxione to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Le'Taxione if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Le'Taxione violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Le'Taxione will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Le'Taxione has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Le'Taxione is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Le'Taxione submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Le'Taxione an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Le'Taxione has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Le'Taxione is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Le'Taxione will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Le'Taxione may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Le'Taxione may abscond if not detained. If detained, Le'Taxione will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 21st day of December, A.D., two thousand and sixteen.

OF
GARY MELBERT THOMAS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999 Gary Melbert Thomas was found guilty of five counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY, King County Superior Court Cause No. 98-1-06914-3. In 1998, an unarmed Mr. Thomas entered several Seattle-area banks, each time threatening the tellers and demanding cash.

WHEREAS, this offense qualified Mr. Thomas as a "Three Strikes" persistent offender and resulted in a life sentence. In addition to this conviction, Mr. Thomas has been convicted of multiple robberies and a burglary, dating back to the early 1970s.

WHEREAS, Mr. Thomas has served almost 18 years on this matter.

WHEREAS, Mr. Thomas accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. He has taken personal development courses in prison, and he now teaches art classes to individuals as part of the University Behind Bars program.

WHEREAS, much of Mr. Thomas' past criminal behavior resulted from his 30-year addictions to heroin and crack cocaine; he has now been sober for 10 years, after completing several sobriety and re-integration programs. Mr. Thomas is now almost 70 years old and is suffering from stage-four liver disease as well as a chronic heart condition.

WHEREAS, in June 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Thomas' clemency petition, which included several letters of support and certificates demonstrating the programming that he has completed while incarcerated.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Thomas has been provisionally accepted for a one-year stay at Seadrunar, a long-term residential drug and alcohol treatment center in Seattle, upon his release from custody. There, while undergoing intensive substance abuse treatment, he will also receive vocational training and life coaching assistance.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Thomas' clemency petition. The victims of his crimes have not expressed any opposition to Mr. Thomas' petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Thomas' sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Mr. Thomas' sentence for his 1999 conviction on five counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Mr. Thomas will be released from prison no later than January 1, 2018. Before his release, he must complete employment or vocational programs, or other DOC-recommended programs aimed at preparing him for transition to the community. At a point during the last six months of custody, Mr. Thomas shall complete a work-release assignment. Following his release from custody, Mr. Thomas shall serve 24 months of community custody under DOC supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Mr. Thomas must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCOs). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Thomas shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC or his CCO.
2. Participate in a treatment assessment and follow DOC treatment recommendations and instructions. He must complete recommended treatment programming at Seadrunar.
3. Be available for contact with DOC and his assigned CCO as directed, and consent to DOC home or hospital visits and or searches to monitor compliance with supervision. These visits include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Mr. Thomas has exclusive or joint control or access.
4. Obtain legal employment or enroll in educational programming, upon approval of his residence treatment provider and/or completion of his treatment.
5. Obtain written permission from his CCO before traveling outside his county of residence.
6. Obtain permission from his CCO before changing residences, even for one night.
7. Not open a bank account or enter a bank without consulting his CCO and having a verifiable legitimate reason.
8. Be subject to polygraph testing as required by his CCO.
9. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition or dangerous weapons.
10. Report to his CCO all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrences.
11. Not consume, possess, or distribute controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
12. Not visit bars and taverns, unless he receives approval from his CCO.
13. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by his CCO.
14. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal history without first consulting his CCO.
15. Enroll and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program, as well as other DOC programming as recommended by his CCO.

OF
TRACY HOGGATT

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1996, Tracy Lynn Hoggatt was found guilty of FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY and BAIL JUMPING in Cowlitz County Superior Court Cause Nos. 95- 1-00539-7 and 96-1-00036-9. In 1995, Mr. Hoggatt, while armed, broke into a victim's home to steal their property when they were out of the house.

WHEREAS, this burglary conviction was Mr. Hoggatt's "Third Strike" offense under Washington's persistent offender statute, and he was sentenced to life without the possibility of parole.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoggatt accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. While in prison, he has taken steps to turn his life around and developed a strong sense of empathy. He has completed numerous personal development programs. And though he collected numerous infractions early in his prison sentence, he has not had a serious infraction since 2004.

WHEREAS, in March 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hoggatt's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from friends, family, and supporters in the community.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that if Mr. Hoggatt were to be sentenced today, he would receive a sentence in the standard range of less than ten years. Also, a friend has offered to help him transition to the community by providing a place to live.

WHEREAS, the Cowlitz County Prosecuting Attorney has expressed no opposition to Mr. Hoggatt's petition. And the victims have not expressed any opposition to the petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Hoggatt's sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

OF
SHAWN ORNDORFF

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2002, a jury found Shawn Anthony Orndorff guilty of FIRST DEGREE BURGLARY, SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT OF A CHILD, UNLAWFUL FIREARMS POSSESSION, and two counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Kitsap County Superior Court Cause No. 02-1-00860-5. In 2002, Mr. Orndorff broke into a family's home while armed, and he assaulted multiple victims. For this offense, Mr. Orndorff was sentenced to over 22 years in prison and almost $3,000 in legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, Mr. Orndorff has served over 14 years on his sentence, and he has paid his legal financial obligations in full.

WHEREAS, Mr. Orndorff accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. While in prison, he has earned his associate's degree, and has pursued vocational training. He has not had a serious infraction in over ten years.

WHEREAS, in March 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Orndorff's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from friends, fellow incarcerated individuals, and members of the community, including a former prison corrections officer.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Orndorff is trained in welding and fabrication and plans to become an industrial machine mechanic upon release. He has eight children and five grandchildren, and he plans to marry when he is released.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Orndorff's sentence. And,

DAVID MICHAEL SHIRLEY

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1996 a jury found David Michael Shirley guilty on two counts of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT, Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 96-1-00306-3. In 1993, Mr. Shirley drove down a highway with an associate of his, and when they identified a car that they believed was driven by an individual who had earlier vandalized their car, Mr. Shirley's associate fired a gun at the other car, striking the driver in the arm.

WHEREAS, for this offense, a Snohomish County Superior Court sentenced Mr. Shirley to 33 years in prison. He has since served 23 years in custody on this offense.

WHEREAS, between 1994 and 2008, Mr. Shirley received 30 serious infractions for matters involving controlled substances and threats, but he has not had any serious infractions since 2008.

WHEREAS, Mr. Shirley accepts full responsibility for his criminal conduct, expresses remorse, and has apologized. While in custody, he has completed several programs, including drug counseling; he has also earned his GED and is taking college courses.

WHEREAS, in June 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Shirley's clemency petition, which included several letters of support, including letters from corrections center staff who spoke to the positive change that they have witnessed in Mr. Shirley, as well as the strong influence that he has had on other incarcerated individuals.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Shirley has a strong family support base and, upon release from custody, they have committed to providing him housing, transportation, and employment to help him transition to the community. Mr. Shirley has crafted a 10-year release plan detailing his plans reintegrating to society.

WHEREAS, the Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Shirley's clemency petition. The victims of this offense have not expressed any opposition to Mr. Shirley's petition.

WHEREAS, the Department of Corrections has assessed Mr. Shirley and believes he is a low risk to reoffend.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Shirley's sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Mr. Shirley's sentence for his 1996 conviction for two counts of FIRST DEGREE ASSAULT, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Mr. Shirley will be released from prison no later than January 1, 2018. During this last year of custody, Mr. Shirley shall complete a work-release assignment. Following his release from custody, Mr. Shirley shall serve 24 months of community custody under DOC supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Mr. Shirley must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCOs). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Shirley shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC or his CCO.
2. Participate in a chemical dependency evaluation and follow DOC-recommended treatment.
3. Be available for contact with DOC and his assigned CCO as directed, and consent to DOC home or hospital visits and or searches to monitor compliance with supervision. These visits include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Mr. Shirley has exclusive or joint control or access.
4. Obtain legal employment or enroll in educational programming, and report it to his CCO.

5. Obtain written permission from his CCO before traveling outside his county of residence.
6. Obtain permission from his CCO before changing residences, even for one night.
7. Be subject to polygraph testing as required by his CCO.
8. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition or dangerous weapons.
9. Not receive income from illegal or criminal means.
10. Report to his CCO all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrences.
11. Not consume, possess, or distribute controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
12. Not visit bars and taverns, unless he receives approval from his CCO.
13. Obtain a Narcotics Anonymous sponsor and attend regular meetings as recommended by his CCO.
14. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by his CCO.
15. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal history without first consulting his CCO.
16. Enroll in, and successfully complete, anger management programming as well as DOC's Thinking for a Change program.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Shirley shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community custody. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Shirley is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Shirley to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Shirley if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Shirley violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Shirley will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Shirley has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Shirley is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Shirley submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Shirley an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Shirley has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Shirley is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Shirley will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Shirley may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Shirley may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Shirley will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia on this 18th day of January, A.D., two thousand and seventeen.

OF
JACQUELINE MARIE FLETCHER

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1996, a jury found Jacqueline Marie Fletcher guilty of five counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court, Cause No. 96-1-00379-9, after she entered and then robbed numerous Snohomish County business establishments over a two-week period. These convictions resulted in her "Third Strike" under Washington's persistent offender accountability act; accordingly, Ms. Fletcher is serving a life sentence, without the possibility of parole.

WHEREAS, Ms. Fletcher is remorseful, accepts responsibility, and has apologized for her behavior. While in prison, Ms. Fletcher has earned her GED and has participated in several self-improvement programs, including Narcotics Anonymous.

WHEREAS, in December 2015, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Fletcher's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from friends and community members.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Ms. Fletcher will have a strong support network ready to assist her in transitioning to the community. She has already received offers for housing and transportation upon her release and hopes to complete her college work to become a counselor and life coach.

WHEREAS, had Ms. Fletcher not been sentenced under the persistent offender accountability act, she likely would have received a standard range sentence of less than ten years. She has now served over 20 years on this sentence.

WHEREAS, the Snohomish County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not oppose Ms. Fletcher's petition, nor do any of the victims.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Ms. Fletcher's life sentence. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Jacqueline Marie Fletcher's sentence for her five 1996 convictions for SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY, conditioned on her agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Department of Corrections in a transition plan. Under this transition plan, the initial in-custody phase of her transition must terminate on August 1, 2018, and during this time, Ms. Fletcher must participate in positive programming as assigned by DOC to prepare her for transition to the community. Ms. Fletcher will then serve an additional 18 months on community supervision. During her time in custody and on community supervision, Ms. Fletcher will comply with any conditions set by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCOs). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Ms. Fletcher shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC or her CCO.
2. Complete a treatment assessment and follow recommendations resulting from that assessment.
3. Be available for regular contact with DOC and her assigned CCO as directed, and consent to DOC home visits and searches, to include searches of her person, personal property, or automobiles. These visits must include access for visual inspection of all areas of the residence in which Ms. Fletcher has exclusive or joint control or access.
4. Enroll in educational programming or training, or obtain legal, verifiable CCO- approved employment.
5. Obtain permission from her CCO before changing residences, even for one night.
6. Remain in a geographical area as directed by her CCO, and not travel outside of her county of residence without her CCO's prior written approval.
7. Not own, possess, receive, ship, or transport firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
8. Not possess stolen property.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver license and proper insurance.
10. Report to her CCO all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
11. Not consume, possess, or distribute alcohol or controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
12. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol is the primary item being served, unless she receives approval from her CCO.
13. Be subject to regular drug urinalysis and alcohol breath analysis as directed by her CCO.

2017 REGULAR SESSION

14. Not associate with known criminals, gangs or individuals that have a criminal or gang history without first consulting her CCO.
15. Enroll in, and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program and any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Ms. Fletcher shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of her community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Ms. Fletcher is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Ms. Fletcher to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Ms. Fletcher if she violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms. Fletcher violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Fletcher will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Ms. Fletcher has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Ms. Fletcher is in custody, to her place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Ms. Fletcher submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that she has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Ms. Fletcher an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that she has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Ms. Fletcher has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms. Fletcher is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Fletcher will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate:

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Ms. Fletcher may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that she would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Ms. Fletcher may abscond if not detained. If detained, Ms. Fletcher will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, all measures listed on the Introduction and First Reading report were referred to the committees as designated.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Hasegawa moved adoption of the following resolution:

8614

By Senators Hasegawa, Brown, Hobbs, Schoesler, Wellman, Chase, Takko, Rivers, Honeyford, Wilson, Hawkins, Padden, Miloscia, Zeiger, Keiser, Fain, Saldaña, Conway, and Darneille

WHEREAS, Seventy-five years ago, on February 19, 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt issued Executive Order 9066, which deprived all Japanese-Americans of their constitutional liberties without due process of law, and which authorized the United States military to forcibly remove and incarcerate more than 120,000 persons of Japanese ancestry from the West Coast, including 13,000 Japanese-American residents of Washington State; and

WHEREAS, The first civilian evacuation order gave Japanese-Americans from Bainbridge Island less than one week to leave behind homes, personal belongings, farms, businesses, friends, and family; allowed them only two suitcases of personal belongings; and transported them to hastily constructed detention centers, like Camp Harmony located in the horse stalls on the grounds of the Washington State Fair in Puyallup where they were held until more permanent concentration camps could be built in more remote locations, like Hunt, Idaho (Minidoka) and Tule Lake, California, which is where most Japanese-Americans from the Puget Sound region were held; and

WHEREAS, This drastic course of action allegedly aimed to prevent acts of espionage and sabotage by Japanese-Americans who were deemed untrustworthy and disloyal to the United States even though no evidence was ever presented to support such distrust; and

WHEREAS, On March 23, 1943, the War Department organized a segregated unit of Japanese-Americans; and, from within those American concentration camps where they and their families were incarcerated, surrounded by barbed wire and armed guards, thousands responded to questions of their loyalty and patriotism by volunteering to serve in the segregated Army unit known as the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, which went on to amass a battle record unmatched in United States military history earning 7 Presidential Unit Citations, 21 Medals of Honor, 29 Distinguished Service Crosses, a Distinguished Service Medal, 588 Silver Stars, more than 4,000 Bronze Stars, 22 Legion of Merit Medals, 15 Soldier's Medals, 9,486 Purple Hearts, and a total of 16 decorations from the governments of France and Italy; and

WHEREAS, Equally loyal and patriotic Japanese-Americans fought to protect our constitutional rights and liberties through dissent, like Minoru Yasui; Fred Korematsu; and University of Washington student Gordon Hirabayashi who was arrested, convicted, and imprisoned for defying the military curfew on select civilians and challenging the constitutionality of the exclusion and incarceration orders. Korematsu and Hirabayashi were eventually awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom for their principled actions and sacrifices; and

WHEREAS, In 1982, the Congressional Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians found "no military or security reason for the internment" of persons of Japanese ancestry. Rather, it found the denial of constitutional rights "was caused by racial prejudice, war hysteria, and a failure of political leadership"; and

WHEREAS, In 1976, President Gerald Ford rescinded Executive Order 9066 saying, "I call upon the American people to affirm with me this American Promise—that we have learned from the tragedy of that long-ago experience forever to treasure liberty and justice for each individual American, and resolve that this kind of action shall never again be repeated"; and

WHEREAS, In 1979, newly elected Washington State Congressman Mike Lowry introduced H.R. 5977: The Civil Liberties Act of 1988, which was signed 10 years later by President Ronald Reagan who said, "So what is most important in this bill has less to do with property than with honor, for here, we admit a wrong. Here we reaffirm our commitment as a nation to equal justice under the law."; and

WHEREAS, In 2010, the United States Congress recognized the unparalleled record of Nisei soldiers by awarding the Congressional Gold Medal to the 100th Infantry Battalion, the 442nd Regimental Combat Team, and the Military Intelligence Service (MIS) of the U.S. Army who fought in the Pacific Theater as interpreters and code breakers; and

WHEREAS, Throughout Washington State, survivors of the European and Asian Pacific battlefields of World War II and of American incarceration camps continue to live their golden years in quiet contrast to their extraordinary acts of patriotism, conscience, and valor;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That on this auspicious occasion of the 75th Anniversary of the signing of Executive Order 9066, the Washington State Senate, along with the people of Washington State, pause to acknowledge and reflect on the significance of Executive Order 9066 and its effect in denying constitutional freedoms and protections. We also reflect on our democracy's greatness in recognizing the need to correct this failure, the need for constant vigilance to protect our constitutional rights and freedoms; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we recognize the Japanese-American internees, constitutional protectors, and World War II veterans from the state of Washington; honor their patience, heroism, sacrifice, and loyalty; and remember the lessons, rights, and responsibilities that come with the phrase, "liberty and justice for all"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Nisei Veterans Committee, the Military Intelligence Service-Northwest Association, the Japanese-American Citizens League National and Seattle Chapter, the Japanese Cultural & Community Center of Washington State, the Japanese American National Museum, and the Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience.

Senators Hasegawa, Brown, Conway, Pearson, Hobbs and Becker spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8614.

The motion by Senator Hasegawa carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hasegawa and without objection, at the urging of the President and his colleagues, the remarks by Senator Hasegawa on Senate Resolution No. 8614 were spread upon the journal.

Senator Hasegawa: "Thank you Mr. President. Thank you for allowing the full reading of the resolution, I apologize for its length, but this is a particularly auspicious occasion being the seventy fifth anniversary of the signing of Executive Order 9066, which as you know incarcerated all Americans of Japanese descent and anyone of Japanese descent during World War II.

I appreciate this body reviewing this resolution every year because it truly is meant to keep us in mind of what can happen if we are not constantly vigilant to protect our civil rights and civil liberties.

We've heard all the great stories about the Nisei veterans who enlisted from behind barbed-wire in the American concentration camps, and they are very heart breaking and heart warming at the same time, but I don't want to get into the war stories right now. What I think is most important is the constitutionality arguments behind recognizing this resolution, because we are in a very perilous time right now. I have heard some top-level government officials say that the Japanese internment can set a precedent for more contemporary actions against certain groups, and this raises huge alarm bells for me personally and for my entire community and it should for every American here.

We, as the resolution said, can never let it happen again. If we don't learn from our history, we are doomed to the fate to repeat it. President Ford was, and it says in the resolution, but I don't think I can restate it often enough, he says 'I call upon the American people to affirm with me this American promise, that we have learned from the tragedy of that long ago experience forever to treasure liberty and justice for each individual American and resolve that this kind of action shall never again be repeated.'

Those are not just hollow words. That is our president upholding the Constitution and we live in a country, thank God, that recognizes and has the strength of character to acknowledge when we have done something that wasn't exactly right. The American government has issued the apology to the Japanese-American community but it should actually issue it to the entire American public because it is every one of us that suffers when anyone suffers. I would like to, Mr. President if I could just read a couple of quotes from a couple of the heroes of the Japanese American community who actually took the courageous stand to oppose, at that time, in a time of war hysteria, and as the commission on investigating the causes of the incarceration said was ‘a failure of political leadership’ at that time? If I may Mr. President?”

President Habib: “The Senator may proceed.”

Senator Hasegawa: “Thank you. So Min Yasui said, well excuse me Min Yasui was actually jailed for breaking the curfew. His jailing was ultimately overturned. Fred Korematsu another one of the heroes of the community, one of the last things he said was, ‘I will never forget my government treating me like this and I really hope this will never happen to anyone else because of the way they look, if they look like the enemy of our country.’ He also urged others to protest, but not with violence, and don’t be afraid to speak up. One person can make a difference even if it takes forty years. Another hero of our community, Gordon Hirabayashi who was actually a University of Washington student said, ‘I would also say that if you believe in something, if you think the Constitution is a good one, and if you think the Constitution protects you, you better make sure that the Constitution is actively operating, and in other words, constant vigilance, otherwise it is a scrap of paper.’ We had the Constitution to protect us in 1942. It didn’t because the will of the people wasn’t behind it. We have to believe in the Constitution if we are going to stand for anything as Americans. And that means we have to stand up to protect the rights of every one of us. And you know, I really feel like I have had the privilege of getting to know the other forty-eight members and the Lieutenant Governor here on the Senate floor. And I believe that we are all people of good conscience and it has really been a privilege to get to know you that way. And we don’t let the politics divide us about ‘They’re Republicans or, We’re Democrats! But, you know when we get to know each other as individuals, that’s when we build relationships and truly start to understand how precious each one of us is and if we deny the rights of any one of us we are all hurting. So at this point in time, I truly appreciate this body considering this resolution, but more than that, for standing up to protect the Constitution in making sure that these things that happened to my community back in 1942-1945. My entire family lived through it. They were in the Puyallup Fairgrounds. They served in WWII. They served in the Korean War. I appreciate and want to thank you for standing up and honoring and remembering what the Constitution stands for by adopting this resolution. Thank you Mr. President.”

MOTION

At 10:33 a.m., on motion of Senator Fain, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the call of the President.

Senator Liias announced a meeting of the Democratic caucus immediately.

Senator Becker announced a meeting of the Majority Coalition caucus immediately.

The Senate was called to order at 10:58 a.m. by President Habib.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5270, by Senators Hawkins, Takko and Pearson

Senator Hawkins spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

REMARKS BY SENATOR LIIAS

Senator Liias: “Thank you Mr. President. Also rising in opposition to this bill. I think the most troubling part is that he is trying to ban sunset, which I think is, I mean, if the sun is always shining and there is no darkness, how would we pass bills? That is my question. So, I think we should vote no.”

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “You are speaking to a blind presiding officer Senator Liias. So, I don’t know.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, Senator Ericksen was excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saldaña, Senators Billig and Van De Wege were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5270.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5270 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O’Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

Excused: Senators Billig, Ericksen and Van De Wege

SENATE BILL NO. 5270, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hawkins: “Well thank you Mr. President. It is my understanding that there is a long tradition here in the Senate of offering a gift from your district and so I am pleased to do that this morning despite some of the floor speeches that we heard ribbing me on my bill. We have the good pages here to deliver these. These are applets and cotlets, which some of you are probably pretty familiar with, produced out of Cashmere in my home district. These have been produced since 1920. Those of you probably know the 12th District is well known for our tree fruit and so I just wanted to share these applets and cotlets with you all. But more importantly with them is a card with a photo from the district and I have personalized a message to each one of you because I want you all to know that I really enjoy the opportunity to serve with you. For those of you that I do know, really, I have enjoyed the opportunity to get to know you even better and those of you that I don’t yet know, I look forward to working with you more closely and getting to know you in the months and the years ahead. And so, additionally, we have some fresh honeycrisp apples from the 12th District and I have some of my colleagues, freshmen senators, who are helping to distribute those for us today, so please enjoy those. These honeycrisp apples are from my home district. They are actually from my personal stash in my office, so please enjoy those and thank you again for the opportunity to serve.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Thank you Senator Hawkins. The President feels uncomfortable since you have just provided a gift, reminding you to always address your remarks to the presiding officer. That said, thank you for the gifts and now that we know you have a quote ‘personal stash’ in your office, we will all bear that in mind. Thank you and would the body join me in congratulating Senator Hawkins? Congratulations Senator Hawkins.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: “Thank you Mr. President. I apologize that I forgot that you live in darkness. I just wanted to assure you that no one is eating apples on the floor right now in violation of Senate rules. I just wanted to give you that advisory, just to help you out. I am looking around, I literally see no one eating an apple on the floor. They are all just holding them on their desks waiting for floor session to be over. Senator Miloscia is not chewing vigorously right now.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Darneille: “I wanted to personally thank the good Senator for bringing such a delicious treat to us in the form of these applets and cotlets that are with us from eastern Washington. These are made in Cashmere Washington which is the home of my mom and all my mom’s peeps. She grew up in Cashmere and I just want to note that this was quite telling that a town as known so distinctively for a product like this that was brought to us by Armenian immigrants. Thank you Mr. President.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: “Well thank you Mr. President. We all appreciate Senator Hawkins and his gift here today and we always take our senators, as freshman will learn, for whatever they say we take it verbatim and I appreciate to receive these applets and cotlets and you mentioned that these were produced in 1920, so I really think that it would be nice to get a fresh box once in a while.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator King: “Well I did eat an apple on the floor today that the good senator provided. It was a very good apple but, I have to tell you, the apples from the Yakima Valley are much better.”

SECOND READING

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hobbs: “So it took a lot to get Senator Hunt to come to the Senate. Many of us had to go over there and talk to him and convince him, and Mr. President, if you don’t mind, I would like to read from my text messages I had with him?”

Mr. President: “Senator may proceed.”

2017 REGULAR SESSION

Senator Hobbs: "Thank you. So, Me: 'You should come over to the Senate Sam. Hunt: 'I don't know I have it pretty good here.' Me: 'What do you mean?' Hunt: 'Well for one I am a chair and the other, we don't have to think over here. Everything is decided for me' -this is his words. This is not me, this is his words. I have a lot of respect for the House. Me: 'You need to come over here man.' Hunt: 'Why? What are the benefits?' Me: 'Nap time.' Hunt: 'Good, because in my advanced age I need the rest and if I actually have to think and make decisions, I really need to take naps.' - Again his words. Me: 'Bigger office.' Hunt: 'I like the bigger office but can I get close to the bathroom?' Me: 'I think we could work that out for you.' Hunt: 'Hey you might not know this but I am a big Mariners fan and I don't want to miss a lot of these games.' Me: 'Hey don't worry because we in the Senate are highly efficient around here and effective, and you shouldn't miss any of the evening games or weekend games like the place you're at now. However, I can't guarantee that we will be done before baseball season.' So, congratulations Senator Hunt. I am glad you are here, looking forward to your gift."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: "I have done it twice and I haven't said, 'Mr. Speaker' yet. I feel good. Thank you for all of the hazing and things and I tried to get the motion passed that I wouldn't be considered a freshman in caucus but it was overwhelmingly defeated. I do have some gifts that are coming around. You got donuts in the caucus today, which came from a local minority-owned business called Heavenly Donuts. They have two locations here in town and they do a very good job of making their own donuts, not a wide chain, I think they have five stores around Washington and Oregon. Also, you are getting a bar of soap from Alaffia which is a locally owned company in Tumwater. They produce soaps, lotions, various other beauty needs. The interesting thing about Alaffia is the owners, Olowo-n'djo and Rose met in the Peace Corps in Togo and they moved to Olympia and they set up their company here, and they make soaps and lotions as I said, and they return a good deal of their profits to Togo for maternal care, education projects. They've built ten schools with the money they've made from their company, 7,800 bicycles. They also do reforestation and they provide eyeglasses for people in Togo as well as maternal health. So it is a good locally owned business that is ecologically free trade and I hope you enjoy the soap and it is something that won't add calories like the donuts do. So thank you and I hope you enjoy it."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Thank you. Why don't we have the Senate thank Senator Hunt for his gifts and congratulate him on joining the wiser, more deliberative, body?"

The Senate rose and recognized new senate member, Senator Sam Hunt.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced former Washington State University and National Football League players Mr. Devard Darling, founder of the As One Foundation, Katy, Texas and Mr. Marcus Trufant, founding member of the Trufant Family Foundation, who were seated in the gallery.

Mr. President: "Both men have done a great deal to assist retiring football players enter into the postseason life, as one might say, and other initiatives to help youth throughout the state."

SECOND READING

Senator Wilson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Senators Mullet, Warnick, Keiser and Angel spoke on final passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5230.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5230 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Lias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

Excused: Senators Billig, Erickson and Van De Wege

SENATE BILL NO. 5230, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wilson: "Thank you. In honor of your tradition in the Senate, which is kind of a weird one to me, but that is ok I will play along. I want to present to you a few gifts from the 17th District and, well, Amazon. By the way it only took twenty-two hours to get it here, so that is pretty impressive. First is from the 17th District is a hat, a water bottle, sunscreen, and lip balm in a very special package. So you might wonder what all these things have in common. Well first this is not an omen, but I suspect we are going to be here for a while and into the summer months, so think of this as a survivor kit. So, first of all, and most importantly, the hat it is represented by the biggest and best locally-owned cabinet company in the 17th District, and I might say the state and maybe the country. And these are specifically to keep the sun off your head as you walk from committee to committee. Secondly, the water bottle, again directly reported from the 17th District, again from this magnificent small business, to make sure you stay very well hydrated during these long dry sessions, as well as helping you keep cool in an otherwise hot atmosphere. And then being that there will be summer months you must protect your skin from the hot sun that you will only experience as you walk from committee to committee. And then fourth is the lip balm for all those tattered and chapped lips that you will experience after the months and months of flapping floor speeches such as this one. So thank you very much and I look forward to working with all of you in the coming years. Thank you."

President Habib: "Senator Wilson. A round of applause for Senator Wilson."

The Senate rose in recognition of new senate member, Senator Lynda Wilson.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5316, by Senators Fortunato, Rossi, Rivers, Miloscia, Padden, Becker, Braun, Angel, Warnick, Schoesler, Brown, Zeiger and Wilson

Concerning the removal of provisions that are no longer necessary for continued publication in the Revised Code of Washington.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fortunato, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5316 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Fortunato spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Senators Hunt, Padden, Nelson, Pedersen and Takko spoke on final passage of the bill.

Excused: Senators Billig, Ericksen and Van De Wege

SENATE BILL NO. 5316, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fortunato: "Mr. President, in keeping with the traditions of the Senate, I have a small gift from one of our butchers in our district. We have a large hunting population in our district, and this is one of the best butchers to do beef jerky and elk jerky, etc. Unfortunately we didn't have enough elk jerky for everybody so everybody gets beef jerky. This will go well with some of the other gifts you have received like: beef jerky and applets and cotlets; beef jerky and soap; beef jerky and some other miscellaneous gifts which you may receive in the future. So thank you very much Mr. President. I hope you enjoy your little crunchy gift there."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Would the Senate please recognize and thank Senator Fortunato for his generosity and welcome him to the state Senate?"

The Senate rose in recognition of new senate member, Senator Phil Fortunato.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Saldaña, Senator Ranker was excused.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hasegawa: "I just want to question whether or not this is actually a product of the 31st District that was just passed out? I noticed that it was teriyaki beef jerky. Sounds like it came from either the 11th or the 37th district unless this is false representation."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The Senator will not impugn the origin of the jerky."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5138, by Senators Palumbo, Kuderer, Fain, Billig and Rossi

Concerning metropolitan park districts.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Palumbo, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5138 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5138 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

Senator Palumbo spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Senator Short and Liias spoke on final passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fain: "Thank you, Mr. President. I was wondering if the good Senator Palumbo would yield to a question?"

Senator Palumbo: "Yes."

Senator Fain: "Just out of curiosity, how many elected offices have you tried to get in the last few years?"

Senator Palumbo: "No comment."

2017 REGULAR SESSION

President Habib: “Senator Palumbo, you are entitled to deny Senator Fain one of your gifts as a result of that.”

Senators Nelson and Schoesler spoke on the final passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5138.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5138 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; Nays, 2; Absent, 0; Excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Becker, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O’Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

Voting nay: Senators Baumgartner and Hasegawa

Excused: Senators Billig, Ericksen, Ranker and Van De Wege

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5138, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Palumbo: “I just wanted to talk about the gift a little bit and the tradition. They are going to be passing them out. We’ve got some individual bags here. Please make sure, staff, that you do not give one to Senator Fain. That would be helpful. I just want to say quickly what an honor it is to actually be standing here. So, for those of you who don’t know, I am quite a little social media guy, and on twitter there is a group of walegnerd hashtag people that have been following you for years. Many of you actually know this on this side. And we watch TVW relentlessly. And to be able to stand here, I am still a little awestruck. This is really a humbling experience being on this floor with all of you and as I’ve learned it is actually a family that you don’t really know from the outside until you get here. Regardless of party affiliation, there is clearly a family here. So I just want to say that it is really a pleasure to be here. Regarding the bags that are coming out right now, I am not sure if they put the ice cream in it or not, but if not, they are in the women’s lounge in the caucus room over here, and I have to apologize to Mark Mullet because it is Snoqualmie ice cream. What I am trying to do here in this bag is highlight a lot of the rural small businesses that are in the area of the district where I live. I live in Maltby. It is kind of an often-forgotten part of our district. It doesn’t actually have a city council or anything representing it other than me, Derek, Shelly, and our county councilmember Sam Lowe. And there are a lot of really great small businesses, and the main one you see in here today is from the Maltby Café, which is a cinnamon bun and people from all around the region actually come to our area specifically to have breakfast at the Maltby Café. And it is one of the things that drives our economy in our local area there. Tom has been a wonderful friend of mine and on any given day, if you show up at the Maltby Café in the morning, you will find all the pillars of our local rural community. All the small business owners have breakfast together at the bar there. It is just a really great meeting place and absolutely wonderful food. So I hope you enjoy that. There is also a beer from Diamond Knot, which is brewed in Mountlake Terrace which is in the west part of my district. And as I mentioned Snoqualmie ice cream which is in, sorry Mark, which is in the Maltby area. And finally it wouldn’t be a gift from the 1st, and you wouldn’t really have a feel for the 1st, if you didn’t have your own personalized I-405 ETL (Express Toll Lane) ticket for violating the toll lane. So I hope you all enjoy that as well. Thank you very much.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mullet: “So I just want everyone in this body to know the progress that Senator Palumbo has made in the last month, because we sat here on January 9th and, I kid you not, a simple noonan from Senator Frockt as he went up and tried to repeat like eight words from a Supreme Court Justice and he completely screwed that whole thing up. Yet today, just one month later, he was able to get through an entire floor speech. Well done.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hobbs: “Yes Mr. President I would like to first of all congratulate Senator Palumbo on making it to the Senate. I mean he spent six years trying to get here. So, you know you deserve to be here. A lot of people know that he loves TVW. He watches it all the time, and we know that because, and this is true on the other side of the aisle, many of us have received his text messages constantly telling us, or asking us what’s going on. ‘I can’t wait to get there.’ And so that leads me to another point TVW is really upset now that he no longer watches. Their viewership has dropped by a third. But the good news is, and I just found this out, is that their streaming has been way up since Senator Palumbo can’t help but watch himself constantly. And so thank you for doing that. The good news in all this, is that I won’t, and Senator Fain won’t, and others will not be receiving his annoying text messages about what’s going on here because we are already here at one a.m. or two a.m. from the comfort of your own home. No, Senator Palumbo, you will have to suffer with the rest of us here at one a.m. or two a.m. in ‘the dead of the night’ that Senator Schoesler likes to say a lot. But thank you for coming here and welcome to the Senate.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Baumgartner: “I just wanted to extend a warm greeting to Senator Palumbo. First of all don’t feel too bad about comments about taking six years to get here. That is far better than some of us who have spent six years trying to leave here. And also, I voted no on your bill. Disappointed that the yoga bill did not make it. That would have been the best freshman bill of all time, so we will work on that one. But I do appreciate your gift and I also never want to lose that sense of appreciation and wonder of some extent of what a privilege it is to be here and I appreciated you in your previous life, your pre-senate life of how much attention you paid to this body. If all of our citizens even did it half as much as you did we would have a better government. So it is great to have you on board.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Becker: “Thank you, Mr. President. Well I would first of all like to thank Senator Palumbo for this winter ale. It is the biggest bottle of ale I have ever seen. I would also like to ask Mr. President for permission to drink this out of my blue cup that we were given. And we won't lie. We will tell you that we are drinking it."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "We will see how bad things get."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: "I would just like to thank Senator Palumbo for handing out beer from my district, from the Diamond Knot Brewing Company in Mukilteo. I think he's mixed the lines up a little bit. I do appreciate his analogy of the Senate as a family. Since you are new I just wanted to clue the Senator in on some of the characters here in the Legislature. We've got the crazy uncle that makes alcohol in his garage, that's Senator Takko. So if you ever need some homemade alcohol, he's the person to talk to. There is that cousin that is like a good lawyer that can give you good legal advice, look at your will, if you have a business, that is Senator Pedersen, so if you have any legal questions just in caucus or on the floor you can bring a will by and he will take a look at it. Then we've got the aunt with an eccentric hobby, that is Senator Becker. She likes to grind rocks and she'll tell you all about it, so if you want to learn about eccentric hobbies she will tell you. And then we've got the grumpy grandpa that really, secretly, deep down loves you and that is Senator King, so when he barks at you it is just because he wants you to stand up straight and do your homework on time, but he really does love you deep down."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Then we've got the chatty floor leader who is always trying to get a TVW award with every point of personal privilege."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5207, by Senators Kuderer, Miloscia, Frockt, Zeiger, Hobbs, Keiser, Chase and Hunt

Concerning the public disclosure of global positioning system data corresponding to residential addresses of public employees and volunteers.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Kuderer, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5207 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5207 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Kuderer, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5207 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Kuderer and Miloscia spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Senators Liias, Nelson, Fain and Takko spoke on final passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5207 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

Excused: Senators Billig, Ericksen and Van De Wege

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5207, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Kuderer: "I just want to tell everyone how happy I am to be here in the Senate, I was actually told when I was over in the House that coming over here would be a bit like a morgue and that I was really going to hate it. So, I thought what kind of gift could I get that would maybe liven the place up a bit, so I did what any well-educated, thinking person would do and I bought a lot of beer. The beer comes from the Bellevue Brewing Company which is in my district. And I know you all think that my district is just Microsoft but it is much, much more than that. And the Bellevue Brewing Company, I am a founding member, though most of you know that I traditionally drink wine, but I do like the occasional craft beer. This place started five years ago with the goal of also donating a good portion of the proceeds to helping children in all aspects of their lives, especially education. I invite you all to come there. You know Senator Baumgartner, We have four different kinds of beer, one of which has a high alcoholic content. Before you came over and said that you were going to hear my bill, I was going to suggest you select that particular bottle and then I was going to ask that you hear my bill. Senator Takko, I better not find the empty in one of the mouths of those animals on your wall or we may end up having to call you Senator Tacky. But I hope that you all enjoy it. There are four different kinds of beer including a citrus beer which I understand is infused with orange and nuts that might appeal to my friends on the other side of the aisle. Sorry I couldn't resist. Anyway, I would also like to invite you all to come to my district and I will personally give you a tour of the Bellevue Brewing Company. I think you will enjoy seeing the district and learning a little more about it and having a cold brew. And if you don't drink, then may I suggest that now might be a good time to start or you can always re-gift it and I am always volunteering to be that person if you like to re-gift. So thank you very much."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: "I would like to remind, I don't know if you all know it, but when we came over from the House we had to go to the Speaker's office and surrender our GPS chip."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Becker: "Now we have two bottles we can drink out here on the floor. Can we use the glass and the cup now?"

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "We are nearly done Senator, so...Would the Senate please join me in congratulating Senator Kuderer and thanking her for her gift? Welcome to the state Senate."

THIRTY EIGHTH DAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

The Senate rose in recognition of new senate member, Senator Patty Kuderer.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5069, by Senators Walsh, Frockt, O'Ban, Zeiger, Chase, Hasegawa, Conway and Palumbo

Providing associate degree education to enhance education opportunities and public safety.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walsh, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5069 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5069 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Walsh, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5069 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Walsh spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Senators Pedersen, Padden, Fain, Darneille, O'Ban, Liias, Hasegawa and Nelson spoke on final passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5069.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5069 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

Excused: Senators Billig, Eriksen and Van De Wege

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5069, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Walsh: "I just wanted to say that I am so pleased to be aboard this august body. I have been in the House, for twenty-four years prior to this, and, just like the good Senator Hunt, I was a little reluctant to leave a longtime, longstanding family in the House but I am feeling very familial here and I want to thank you all for that. I would also like to correct Senator O'Ban. We also have the best community college in my district in the nation. I will be handing out not sweet onion sausage, not Walla Walla sweet onions, but some delicious wine from Prosser in my district that actually the person, the good Representative in the House who replaced me, this is his winery and his wine and I hope you enjoy it. And, that being said, this august body of the Senate that I had always heard fairly negative things about, well I think they were right. It's kind of like the blind leading the blind. Oh! I'm sorry, Mr. President. Please forgive me."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: "Thank you Mr. President. After twenty years in the Senate, this has probably been one of my best days. I've got a hat, I've got a water bottle, I got liquor. What am I going to do with all this liquor? I don't even drink anymore. My God, this is better than going to the ninth order of business. What a day. I have to say though, as a point of personal privilege is unique to the particular member that stands, as a former member of the Democratic Caucus and a member with the Majority Coalition Caucus I have some unique experiences and we have referred to food here quite a bit through the day and a lot of the gifts are certainly food but the Democratic Caucus has changed quite a bit. Senator Mullet has brought ice cream and pizza to the caucus and that has changed a lot. When I was there we usually had tofu and bean sprouts. They were brought in when there was a tough subject and people were getting cranky and needed something to eat. That was great but of all the gifts we've received today I have to single out one as being an experience that I have had before and is absolutely the best gift and it is right here. This small bar of soap made by Alaffia that Senator Hunt brought us because if you take this in your hand, find your bar of soap, put it to your nose and breathe very deeply. That is what we did in the Democratic Caucus all the time when we had a tough issue. It might be transportation, it might be school funding, but aromatherapy was always the go-to thing to do when you couldn't solve a problem. So when we are working on the McCleary decision this year keep this right on your desk and always think aromatherapy. It'll always solve it."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: "I was just going to encourage the good Senator from the 35th that I hear Senator Rivers is actually bringing aromatherapy into your caucus as well so I think that you guys will be a lot calmer on the floor."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Becker: "I really welcome the kind lady from the 16th District and I am really glad that I have two bottles of beer and a bottle of wine and I am really excited. If you will let us drink it out of this cup on the floor we will never have to worry about anything. Thank you."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: "Mr. Speaker, Point of Personal Privilege."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "OOOOOOOh. Again this is why we don't have freshmen haze other freshman."

Senator Hunt: "Representative Short asked me to do that. Thank you, Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: "You know I serve on the oral history committee of the legislature and I just wanted to share a little bit of history. I started in this august body as a staffer way back in 1980 when this body was I think, all but one male. And the tradition in those days when you passed your first bill was every member got a cigar. How times have changed!"

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Would the Senate please join me in thanking Senator Walsh for these gifts from the lovely and highly educated 16th Legislative District and welcome her to the state Senate?”

The Senate rose in recognition of new senate member, Senator Maureen Walsh.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate reverted to the fourth order of business.

SENATE RESOLUTION

By Senator O'Ban

WHEREAS, The United States of America was founded on the principles embodied in our Declaration of Independence: That all men are created equal and endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, including life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; and

WHEREAS, The purpose of government, as defined by our Declaration, is to secure these rights; and

WHEREAS, Black Americans were denied these rights by the practice of slavery, starting in 1619 when the first African immigrants were brought in captivity to Jamestown, Virginia; and

WHEREAS, In order to create a union of United States, compromises were made by the colonies and slavery continued to deny black Americans their individual rights and dignity, split families, and debase the American values enshrined in the Declaration; and

WHEREAS, The abolitionist sentiments that were present at the founding of the country multiplied under the influence of the American spiritual revival of the 1820s known as the second great awakening, leading to the creation of religious organizations dedicated to changing culture and law in order to bring about emancipation; and

WHEREAS, Despite violent threats and actions against them, these abolitionist organizations continued exercising their religious freedoms and rights of conscience; uniting freedmen, former slaves, women, and white abolitionists in the anti-slavery cause; and

WHEREAS, Abraham Lincoln was nominated by his new party as their nominee for president in 1860; and

WHEREAS, President Abraham Lincoln, whose direct influence on and connection to Washington state was noted in Senate Resolution 8623 in February of 2009, refused to allow further expansion of slavery or the dissolution of the union; and

WHEREAS, An eighth of our population was in bondage and that bondage was concentrated in the southern part of the United States, and fierce interests sought to strengthen, perpetuate, and extend this interest slavery even at the cost of a civil war; and

WHEREAS, In 1863, when confronted with rebellion, President Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation as a wartime measure to free slaves in rebel territory, and acted upon his belief that a "government cannot endure, permanently half slave and half free" by urging his party in 1864 to approve a platform that read in part, "the principles of Republican Government, justice and the National safety demand its slavery's utter and complete extirpation from the soil of the Republic; and

WHEREAS, In order to ensure the sacrifices of the Union would not be in vain, and that the nation would resolve the issue of slavery once and for all in favor of emancipation, President Lincoln worked tirelessly to ensure the passage of the 13th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which abolished slavery forever in the United States;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate recognize the 152nd anniversary of the Congress of the United States passing the 13th Amendment on January 31, 1865, and celebrate this milestone on the path to the realization of the principle expressed in the Declaration that "all men are created equal."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8618.

The motion by Senator Fain carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

Senator Fain moved adoption of the following resolution:

8619

By Senator O'Ban

WHEREAS, The institution of slavery denied men and women of color basic rights enshrined in our nation's founding document, the Declaration of Independence; and

WHEREAS, Controversy over slavery resulted in the bloodiest war in U.S. history, resulting in the deaths of an estimated 2.5 percent of the population or 504 deaths for every day of the war; and

WHEREAS, In an effort to guarantee the union would be preserved, its sacrifices would not be in vain, and that slavery would never taint or divide the nation again, President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation in 1863 and fought tirelessly and strategically for the passage of the 13th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which banned slavery from the United States forever; and

WHEREAS, The assassination of Abraham Lincoln brought to the presidency Vice President Andrew Johnson, who lacked commitment to the civil rights of the former slaves of the South; and

WHEREAS, President Johnson failed to stand up to efforts within the former confederacy to repress the rights of black Americans through the enactment of "Black Codes" and other discriminatory legislation and practices; and

WHEREAS, Congressional leadership forced a reconstruction agenda that expanded civil rights and the promise of a more equal union; and

WHEREAS, The agenda of that era included the ratification of the 13th, 14th, and 15th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution, which abolished slavery, ensured the citizenship of former slaves, guaranteed equal protection under the law, and proclaimed the right of citizens to vote regardless of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and

WHEREAS, Over the objections of President Johnson, Congress passed a series of Reconstruction Acts in an attempt to build a more equal union; and

WHEREAS, The Reconstruction era led to numerous historic elections within the United States including more than 1,500 African-American officeholders, including fourteen members of Congress, six lieutenant governors, and more than six hundred state legislators throughout the south; and

WHEREAS, The Reconstruction era led to the election of the first African-American member of Congress, Joseph Hayne Rainey, who served with distinction for the state of South Carolina, fought for civil rights and against the terrorist violence of the Ku Klux Klan, and became the first African-American to preside over the United States House of Representatives by stepping in for Speaker James G. Blaine in April of 1874; and

WHEREAS, Also among the notable individuals elected were Hiram Revels of Mississippi, a veteran of the Civil War who became the first African-American senator in 1870; and Blanche K. Bruce, a former sheriff and sergeant at arms for the Mississippi State Senate, who became the second African-American elected to the U.S. Senate in 1874; men whose accomplishments are even more remarkable considering that since then, no African-American man or woman has represented a southern state in the U.S. Senate until 2013 when Tim Scott was elected in South Carolina; and

WHEREAS, The Reconstruction era is a key chapter to understanding the story of freedom for all Americans in the United States and is essential to the understanding of the story of freedom for African-Americans in particular; and

WHEREAS, The Reconstruction era was cut short by the compromised election of 1878, and the failure to follow through and ensure the success and continuation of Reconstruction era civil rights efforts diminished the progress of racial equality for the next one hundred years; and

WHEREAS, The flame of hope from the Reconstruction era faded but never died and was carried by later champions of freedom until it blazed again in the challenge of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who called upon the nation to honor the "promissory note" in the "words of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence," and would culminate in an end to segregation and state-sanctioned discrimination;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate recognize the 150th anniversary of the passage of the First Reconstruction Act, which passed over President Johnson's veto on March 2, 1867.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8619.

The motion by Senator Fain carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

At 10:03 a.m., on motion of Senator Fain, the Senate was declared to be at ease for the purpose of receiving reports of the standing committees later in the day pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8400.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 3:01 p.m. by President Habib.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate reverted to the first order of business.

President Habib: "Senator Saldaña, please address your remarks to the President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Saldaña: "Mr. President, I would like to thank those present in the room for, and yourself, for this honor to be serving with you. This last six weeks or eight weeks, however long its been, has been a really amazing time for me and I really appreciate being among you. As such, and to have the honor to represent the 37th District. I hope that you are able to enjoy some delicious chai tea and baklava from Mawadda Café. The owner, Mr. Rami Al-Jebori, he is originally from Iraq and has had a small business in my district for many years. In addition, we are handing out shea butter, that I know also has a nice aroma for my colleague who sits two seats across from us, and its an opportunity for young women learn how to be small business entrepreneurs and they also take them on spring break to the east coast to be able to experience life on campus in colleges. And so I want to share that with you as well. And then the last thing is from my neighborhood Rainier Beach. To support our merchants in Rainier Beach, they have a couple of different events they do every year, including the bike ride, Seattle to Portland comes through our neighborhood and we go out and give coffee and doughnuts and water to those bikers and that is where this water bottle comes from. Thank you so much and I look forward to continue to serve with you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator King: “Well, the good Senator is a member of the Transportation Committee, and I have to report that she actually has behaved herself in committee this year. I am not sure that is going to continue but we’ll see. But actually she has been a very welcome part of that committee and it is a pleasure to have her there and I do look forward to working with her not only in that committee but as we move forward in the Senate and I want to welcome her. It is a pleasure to know you and have you here. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: “Thank you Mr. Speaker.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Senator Sheldon, you have been around long enough. Are you looking forward to being Speaker Pro Tem tomorrow, Senator Sheldon?”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: “Mr. President, I wanted to thank Senator Saldaña for the addition to my aroma therapy box here. And I will always keep these on the desk so when times get tough I can go for the lavender shea lotion or the Alaffia soap to take the edge off. I really appreciate it. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: “Thank you Mr. President. I just wanted to note that in general this freshman class this year has really taken a step back in terms of expertise and knowledge of the Legislature, but with two rare exceptions, Senator Kuderer and now with Senator Saldaña we have really taken a step forward, in the quality of representation, the bright voices the people are bringing to the Legislature, and I just wanted to thank Senator Saldaña. I wish she had gotten here a few years earlier. We are delighted to have her and we are delighted to have her contributions to our work.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fain: “Thank you. I am not sure of the hidden meaning of my colleagues floor speech was, but I am also very happy to welcome Senator Saldaña here. I miss the former member from the 37th District, she was a friend of mine, and I really appreciated getting to know her and wish her all the best in her new endeavor. I will say however, that the newest member from that district has discovered a sense of brevity that the previous member did not have and I’m greatly appreciative of that. Welcome to the Chamber.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “That message will not be dispatched to Washington D. C. Senator Saldaña welcome to the Senate. Thank you for these gifts and would the body please join me in welcoming Senator Saldaña?”

The Senate rose and recognized Senator Saldaña.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Short: “Well Mr. President, I know that coming to this esteemed legislative body that there is something that I must do and give a gift to members of this esteemed body, everyone here and what is going to be delivered are salmon grilling planks. The neat thing about that is Vaagen Brothers Lumber Company is one of the timber companies in northeastern Washington and they actually pioneered the use of small diameter timber, Mr. President. It is such a part of our custom and culture and I thought with the importance of salmon and fish and our enjoyment of those that this would be a really good marriage between the west side of the state and the east side of the state and it is a privilege for me to share this with you today. Thank you very much.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Nelson: “Thank you Mr. President and I just want to welcome the good lady. Senator Short and I served in the House and I know many of our members, are very, very happy, all of our members to have you here and we're looking forward to continuing to grow in our relationship together and welcome."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: "Thank you Mr. President. Well I would just like to thank the Senator for her fishy gift from the district and to add a little personal touch. A number of years ago I went back and I was teaching fourth grade in Montesano and I had one of the Vaagen daughters as one of my students and I am proud to say that she is now a constituent and is teaching in one of our local schools. So we have some ties here. Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "The President would also like to thank Senator Short, it is wonderful to have you. I know that the bill was not the type that was conducive to a lot of joshing but nevertheless I know the Senate very please to have you here with us and so would the body join us in welcoming Senator Short?"

SENATE RESOLUTION 8617

By Senators Pedersen, Frockt, Liias, Carlyle, and Walsh

WHEREAS, William L. Downing has retired following 28 years of distinguished service as a judge on the King County Superior Court bench; and

WHEREAS, Before embarking on a career in law, Judge Downing graduated from Vassar College, worked in a psychiatric hospital as a conscientious objector during the Vietnam War, and made a living working on fishing boats in Bellingham, Washington; and

WHEREAS, While at Vassar, Judge Downing met his wife, Laura; after graduating, the two moved to Seattle where they raised their son and have lived ever since; and

WHEREAS, Following graduation from the University of Washington School of Law, Judge Downing served as a King County prosecutor for 11 years, during which time he successfully argued a case to convict the perpetrators of the 1983 Wah Mee massacre; and

WHEREAS, Judge Downing was appointed to the bench in 1989, and has presided over several prominent civil and criminal cases during his tenure; and

WHEREAS, Over the course of his career, Judge Downing has cultivated a reputation among colleagues for fairness, honesty, rigor, and impartiality; and

WHEREAS, In addition to his outstanding reputation as a legal professional, Judge Downing will leave a legacy of mentorship and was known for his service of assisting students arguing mock cases before fellow judges and attorneys;

FORTY SIXTH DAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize King County Superior Court Judge William L. Downing for his outstanding career in public service of the law, during which he acted with empathy, integrity, and wit for the benefit of the citizens of King County and Washington State; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to William L. Downing and his family.

Senators Pedersen, Lias and Padden spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8617.

The motion by Senator Pedersen carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUEST

The President welcomed and introduced Judge William Downing and his family who were seated in the gallery.

MOTION

Senator Hawkins moved adoption of the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Wilfred and his wife, Kathy, received the Legacy Award from the Wenatchee Valley Chamber of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, The impact of Wilfred R. Woods is immeasurable, and will live on through the good people of north central Washington; and

WHEREAS, Wilfred inspired his community and led through his actions;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate join the citizens of the state of Washington in commending the life of Wilfred R. Woods; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate convey its deepest condolences to the family, friends, colleagues, and community of Wilfred R. Woods and join the people of the state of Washington in celebrating his memory and commending his achievement and contributions to his community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate express profound appreciation and enduring gratitude to the life and legacy of Wilfred R. Woods; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the family of Wilfred R. Woods.

Senators Hawkins and Carlyle spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8622.

The motion by Senator Hawkins carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Mr. Rufus Woods, son of Wilfred Woods and current publisher of the Wenatchee World, who was seated at the desk reserved for the Capitol Press Corps.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5488, by Senators Zeiger, Rolfes, Chase and Saldaña

Changing the annual reporting date for the transitional bilingual instruction program.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zeiger, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5488 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Zeiger spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5488.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5488 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Lias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

SENATE BILL NO. 5488, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Zeiger: “Thank you Mr. President. It is the custom of the Senate for new members to give gifts and I am presenting to my colleagues three gifts today. First of all, Fisher scone mix, as is appropriate. We have the Puyallup Fair in my district and then we have Puyallup Valley Jam Factory jams, raspberry jams to go with that scone mix. And we have Puyallup River Brewing Company beer. Enjoy.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Senator Zeiger, the President was hoping for Earthquake Burgers for everybody here in the Senate. You know that’s my soft spot.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fain: “Thank you Mr. President. I was really excited when I saw the Fisher bags, thinking I was going to be able to dig into some scones this morning. Unfortunately, they are coming to us, not made, which is frustrating but even with the fact that I will have to go home and slave in the kitchen to make these new ones it still pales in comparison to the amount of work that the previous Chair of the Education Committee thrust upon me on a regular basis. So I am very appreciative of the new chair and I welcome him to the Senate and I believe this Chamber is very lucky to have him.”

EDITOR’S NOTE: Senator Steve Litzow formerly chaired the Committee on Early Learning & K-12 Education

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Senator Fain, are you saying that everything that comes to the Senate floor is not fully baked?”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Billig: “Thank you Mr. President. I am also rising to welcome our new member. I was actually not aware of the tradition of drinking beer and eating scones together, so I appreciate him introducing that combination. I will try it. I am a little skeptical. But seriously, I want to welcome Senator Zeiger. He and I came in as freshmen in the House together six year ago and I have enjoyed working with him since then and I will particularly enjoy working with him this year in his capacity as Chair of the Early Learning & K-12 Education Committee. A very thoughtful legislator and I welcome him and look forward to serving with you. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Becker: “Thank you Mr. President. Well I would sincerely like to welcome Senator Hans Zeiger to our chamber. I think that he is a welcome addition he is an amazing man and author and he has done a lot of things. And a new father, it is a pretty neat thing. But I am most excited, and I keep talking about, that we now have another bottle of beer. And that bottle of beer, I am asking again Mr. President, if we can put it in our really cool cup? Makes it sound like I drink a lot, but I don’t. But it is fun to talk about it because of the fact that we have now received, what?, four types of booze. So thank you Senator Zeiger.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pedersen: “Thank you Mr. President. It is also my honor to welcome Senator Zeiger. It is great to have multiple people in the chamber from the great city of Puyallup. And I just wanted to note that Senator Zeiger’s roots in Puyallup are even deeper than mine. My dad was welcomed to Puyallup sixty-five years ago or so by Senator Zeiger’s grandpa who was regularly part of their pick-up basketball game. Thank you. Welcome.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Bailey: “This is why I forget to say that. I don’t rise very often on certain things, but this is something I really felt very strong about. First of all, I am so excited to have a new member and Senator Zeiger I think will increase the IQ here in the Senate tremendously and I want to welcome him here but having said that I am a bit concerned with the fact that we have now received five bottles of beer and absolutely no one has presented us with an opener for that beer. So I would really request that Senator Zeiger would consider his gift bag, that he must put something in to open this so we can put it in our cup next time. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ranker: “Thank you Mr. President. So I’m going to tell a little story. Some of you know former Senator Erik Poulson. So when I first came into the Senate, he had just left. So I went out to dinner with him and a few other people and he was talking about and he would say Hans Zeiger and I would be like ‘OK whatever,’ and he kept saying it. He kept saying, ‘Hans Zeiger, Hans Zeiger’ and it was this joke and I didn’t know that he was a real person because there are so many people in the other chamber, you can’t keep track of it. Anyway, I was at the time the chair of Natural Resources and I don’t know if you remember this but you had a small little bill coming through the committee Senator, and he comes up and says ‘I am Representative Hans Zeiger from such and such a district’ and in mid sentence I just said ‘Oh my God, you’re real.’ And so I am pleased that this figment of my imagination is now in the Senate. I have very much enjoyed working with you these past weeks and I look forward to the future of you in this body.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fortunato: “I would like to ask the body since we have now received four or five bottles of beer and wine that when I have a particular bill that might come up that might address the legal ramifications that you would vote for my beer bill so that we don’t all have to go to jail. So, thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: “I would also like to welcome my former housemate Senator Zeiger here. And something you may not know about him is that Senator Zeiger and I have been working with the National Institute for Civil Discourse and last year he was awarded the first annual Gabby Giffords Award for civility in government which I was humbly glad to share with him, but we have been working. We have both been sent to Minnesota in snow storms to try to train the Minnesota Legislature. So welcome and I just wanted to make sure that we all know how civil he is.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mullet: “Thank you Mr. President. I have an open ended question that Senator Zeiger can answer off line because I was so surprised that his first bill on education was a bill that completely sucks up to OSPI by making their Christmas easier and I know that he did not get that advice from Senator Litzow. So, I am curious, who gave him that suggestion?”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Conway: “It is a great honor to welcome Hans here, and I just want to point out he has one big duty he will be performing for us, its coming up. It is when the Daffodil Princesses come to visit us. So we are looking forward to seeing you welcome all those lovely ladies when they come here.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Senator Zeiger, it is a pleasure to have Senator Zeiger with us in the Senate. He is obviously well respected on both sides of the aisle. Will the Senate please join me in thanking him for these fantastic gifts, encouraging him to bring Earthquake Burgers next time. Welcome to the state Senate.”

The Senate rose and recognized new Senator Zeiger.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5764, by Senators Wellman, Hasegawa and Rolfes

Concerning higher education records.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Wellman, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5764 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5764 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Wellman, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5764 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Wellman and Nelson spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5764.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5764 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5764, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wellman: “Thank you Mr. President. Well, in keeping with the Senate tradition which now seems to me to be a lifelong tradition, I know this is a very strong tradition, I rise to thank my new colleagues for the warm welcome I have received in the Washington State Senate. And I bring you gifts from the 41st District. Now the 41st District is largely residential, so it was a little bit of an effort. I did go first to the Seahawks which have their training grounds in the 41st, but the NFL refused to cooperate. So, you are going to receive a bag from BECU with some tchotchkes inside. Now for those of you who do not know the word ‘tchotchkes’ it is the technical term for those things you get at trade shows and I hope to add to your vocabulary. This is from BECU, that is the Boeing Employees Credit Union, and BECU is quite an institution in our region. They have been amazing supporters of many social and arts programs. They are always showing up so I thought that they should show up on the Senate floor, but I get the tradition so in the honor of the tradition of the Senate you are receiving a stainless steel growler from the Resonate Brewery in Newcastle. Now this is a relatively new start up so I am pleased to introduce you to them. Also in that bag you will find a $10 gift certificate to fill up your growler at the Resonate Brewery and visit the 41st District. So, I hope you will enjoy that. That seemed to be a good thing. But, again in the tradition, I had to deliver, in case you might not go to the 41st for a while, I thought it only fair to deliver something else to you from Sammamish which is also part of the 41st and it is the award winning honey pale ale from the Big Block Brewery, and this was just established in 2012 and they won a gold award for their beer in 2013. So, I know that it is good and I can honestly say to my colleague from the 10th District, this is in a can with a self tab opening, so it is immediately available to you. You are quite welcome. Please enjoy. It is an honor to serve with you. Thank you so much.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator King: “I do want to welcome the good Senator and I do understand her concern about us getting to the 41st and I do understand that there are some access problems on Mercer Island and I-90, and we will leave it at that. I am looking forward to getting to know you and looking forward to working with you and welcome.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: “Thank you Mr. President. Senator Wellman’s description of tchotchkes reminds me of a dear friend of mine from college who throughout our college experience told me stories periodically about living with a Jewish mother and I felt like those stories were exaggerated perhaps. But in the last two weeks or three weeks I’ve discovered that in fact those stories were if anything an understatement of what life is like with a Jewish mother. I do want to say though, that as a mother, anyone who puts a grocery list in a bag full of beer is doing a good job. So, welcome to the Senate to Senator Wellman and we look forward to serving with her.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Darneille: “Well, Mr. President, I have to finally admit defeat here. We have someone by the name of Well-man who has given us alcohol, and so I wanted to take this moment for a little instruction to the body that for the last four years I have served as the leader of a posse of anti-alcohol proliferation related bills. And my posse included several people who are now no longer in the Legislature. We have Senator Zeiger only because Senator Dammeier retired. We have Senator Van De Wege only because Senator Hargrove is not here. But, I am a girl who has lost most of her posse. My spurs are now completely off, I am retiring them. Don’t look to me to lead the charge anymore. For the rest of you posse, we had so much alcohol brought on to this floor that I give up. Thank you Senator Wellman.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Becker: “Thank you Mr. President. I want to give you a warm welcome and say I am glad you are here, kind of, mostly, but you are a pleasure. I love seeing your smile, but I really want to thank you.”

President Habib: “Senator, please feel free to address the presiding officer.”

Senator Becker: “Thank you Mr. President, I will, but you didn’t give us this gift. I’ve talked about all of the beer and I understand that probably with this great big can of beer of Big Block, I’ve never seen a beer can this big, but now with an almost growler-sized thermos, can we now use the thermos and the cup? And maybe we’ll be on the floor trying to vote, because I don’t know how we can do this. I thank you very much and welcome you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ranker: “Joanie loves tchotchke!”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “That was more of a point of personal humor, I think. Senator Wellman it is a pleasure to have you here and my former seatmate Ross Hunter brought a heavy dose of east coast sensibility and urgency to the Legislature, so it is always good to have someone with an east coast flavor and it keeps us on our toes, it keeps us apace. Will the Senate please join me in thanking Senator Wellman for her very fine gifts and welcoming her to the state Senate?”

member or guardian or conservator of the person may petition the superior court for the person's initial detention.

(2) A petition under this section must be filed within ten calendar days following the designated mental health professional investigation or the request for a designated mental health professional investigation. If more than ten days have elapsed, the immediate family member, guardian, or conservator must request a new designated mental health professional investigation.

(3)(a) The petition must be filed in the county in which the designated mental health professional investigation occurred or was requested to occur and must be submitted on forms developed by the administrative office of the courts for this purpose. The petition must be accompanied by a sworn declaration from the petitioner, and other witnesses if desired, describing why the person should be detained for evaluation and treatment. The description of why the person should be detained may contain, but is not limited to, the information identified in RCW 71.05.212.

(b) The petition must contain:

(i) A description of the relationship between the petitioner and the person; and

(ii) The date on which an investigation was requested from the designated mental health professional.

~~((3))~~ (4) The court shall, within one judicial day, review the petition to determine whether the petition raises sufficient evidence to support the allegation. If the court so finds, it shall provide a copy of the petition to the designated mental health professional agency with an order for the agency to provide the court, within one judicial day, with a written sworn statement describing the basis for the decision not to seek initial detention and a copy of all information material to the designated mental health professional's current decision.

~~((4))~~ (5) Following the filing of the petition and before the court reaches a decision, any person, including a mental health professional, may submit a sworn declaration to the court in support of or in opposition to initial detention.

~~((5))~~ (6) The court shall dismiss the petition at any time if it finds that a designated mental health professional has filed a petition for the person's initial detention under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 or that the person has voluntarily accepted appropriate treatment.

~~((6))~~ (7) The court must issue a final ruling on the petition within five judicial days after it is filed. After reviewing all of the information provided to the court, the court may enter an order for initial detention if the court finds that: (a) There is probable cause to support a petition for detention; and (b) the person has refused or failed to accept appropriate evaluation and treatment voluntarily. The court shall transmit its final decision to the petitioner.

~~((7))~~ (8) If the court enters an order for initial detention, it shall provide the order to the designated mental health professional agency ~~(, which shall execute the order without delay)~~ and issue a written order for apprehension of the person by a peace officer for delivery of the person to a facility or emergency room determined by the designated mental health professional. The designated mental health agency serving the jurisdiction of the court must collaborate and coordinate with law enforcement regarding apprehensions and detentions under this subsection, including sharing of information relating to risk and which would assist in locating the person. A person may not be detained to jail pursuant to a written order issued under this subsection. An order for detention under this section should contain the advisement of rights which the person would receive if the person were detained by a designated mental health professional. An order for initial detention under this section expires one hundred eighty days from issuance.

~~((8))~~ (9) Except as otherwise expressly stated in this chapter, all procedures must be followed as if the order had been entered under RCW 71.05.150. RCW 71.05.160 does not apply if detention was initiated under the process set forth in this section.

~~((9))~~ (10) For purposes of this section, "immediate family member" means a spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, or sibling.

Sec. 307. RCW 71.05.201 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 222 and 2016 c 107 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) If a designated crisis responder decides not to detain a person for evaluation and treatment under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 or forty-eight hours have elapsed since a designated crisis responder received a request for investigation and the designated crisis responder has not taken action to have the person detained, an immediate family member or guardian or conservator of the person may petition the superior court for the person's initial detention.

(2) A petition under this section must be filed within ten calendar days following the designated crisis responder investigation or the request for a designated crisis responder investigation. If more than ten days have elapsed, the immediate family member, guardian, or conservator must request a new designated crisis responder investigation.

(3)(a) The petition must be filed in the county in which the designated ~~((mental health professional))~~ crisis responder investigation occurred or was requested to occur and must be submitted on forms developed by the administrative office of the courts for this purpose. The petition must be accompanied by a sworn declaration from the petitioner, and other witnesses if desired, describing why the person should be detained for evaluation and treatment. The description of why the person should be detained may contain, but is not limited to, the information identified in RCW 71.05.212.

(b) The petition must contain:

(i) A description of the relationship between the petitioner and the person; and

(ii) The date on which an investigation was requested from the designated crisis responder.

~~((3))~~ (4) The court shall, within one judicial day, review the petition to determine whether the petition raises sufficient evidence to support the allegation. If the court so finds, it shall provide a copy of the petition to the designated crisis responder agency with an order for the agency to provide the court, within one judicial day, with a written sworn statement describing the basis for the decision not to seek initial detention and a copy of all information material to the designated crisis responder's current decision.

~~((4))~~ (5) Following the filing of the petition and before the court reaches a decision, any person, including a mental health professional, may submit a sworn declaration to the court in support of or in opposition to initial detention.

~~((5))~~ (6) The court shall dismiss the petition at any time if it finds that a designated crisis responder has filed a petition for the person's initial detention under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 or that the person has voluntarily accepted appropriate treatment.

~~((6))~~ (7) The court must issue a final ruling on the petition within five judicial days after it is filed. After reviewing all of the information provided to the court, the court may enter an order for initial detention if the court finds that: (a) There is probable cause to support a petition for detention; and (b) the person has refused or failed to accept appropriate evaluation and treatment voluntarily. The court shall transmit its final decision to the petitioner.

~~((7))~~ (8) If the court enters an order for initial detention, it shall provide the order to the designated crisis responder agency ~~(, which shall execute the order without delay)~~ and issue a written order for apprehension of the person by a peace officer for delivery of the person to a facility or emergency room determined by the designated crisis responder. The designated crisis responder agency serving the jurisdiction of the court must collaborate and coordinate with law enforcement regarding apprehensions and detentions under this subsection, including sharing of information relating to risk and which would assist in locating the person. A person may not be detained to jail pursuant to a written order issued under this subsection. An order for detention under this section should contain the advisement of rights which the person would receive if the person were detained by a designated crisis responder. An order for initial detention under this section expires one hundred eighty days from issuance.

~~((8))~~ (9) Except as otherwise expressly stated in this chapter, all procedures must be followed as if the order had been entered under RCW 71.05.150. RCW 71.05.160 does not apply if detention was initiated under the process set forth in this section.

~~((9))~~ (10) For purposes of this section, "immediate family member" means a spouse, domestic partner, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, or sibling.

Sec. 308. RCW 71.05.203 and 2015 c 258 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department and each ~~(regional support network)~~ behavioral health organization or agency employing designated mental health professionals shall publish information in an easily accessible format describing the process for an immediate family member, guardian, or conservator to petition for court review of a detention decision under RCW 71.05.201.

(2) A designated mental health professional or designated mental health professional agency that receives a request for investigation for possible detention under this chapter must inquire whether the request comes from an immediate family member, guardian, or conservator who would be eligible to petition under RCW 71.05.201. If the designated mental health professional decides not to detain the person for evaluation and treatment under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 or forty-eight hours have elapsed since the request for investigation was received and the designated mental health professional has not taken action to have the person detained, the designated mental health professional or designated mental health professional agency must inform the immediate family member, guardian, or conservator who made the request for investigation about the process to petition for court review under RCW 71.05.201.

(3) A designated mental health professional or designated mental health professional agency must, upon request, disclose the date of a designated mental health professional investigation under this chapter to an immediate family member, guardian, or conservator of a person to assist in the preparation of a petition under RCW 71.05.201.

Sec. 309. RCW 71.05.203 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 223 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department and each behavioral health organization or agency employing designated crisis responders shall publish information in an easily accessible format describing the process for an immediate family member, guardian, or conservator to petition for court review of a detention decision under RCW 71.05.201.

(2) A designated crisis responder or designated crisis responder agency that receives a request for investigation for possible detention under this chapter must inquire whether the request comes from an immediate family member, guardian, or conservator who would be eligible to petition under RCW 71.05.201. If the designated crisis responder decides not to detain the person for evaluation and treatment under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 or forty-eight hours have elapsed since the request for investigation was received and the designated crisis responder has not taken action to have the person detained, the designated crisis responder or designated crisis responder agency must inform the immediate family member, guardian, or conservator who made the request for investigation about the process to petition for court review under RCW 71.05.201.

(3) A designated crisis responder or designated crisis responder agency must, upon request, disclose the date of a designated crisis responder investigation under this chapter to an immediate family member, guardian, or conservator of a person to assist in the preparation of a petition under RCW 71.05.201.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 310. By December 15, 2017, the administrative office of the courts, in collaboration with stakeholders, including but not limited to judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys, the department of social and health services, behavioral health advocates, and families, shall: (1) Develop a user's guide to assist pro se litigants in the preparation and filing of a Joel's law petition; and (2) develop a model order of detention under RCW 71.05.201 which contains an advisement of rights for the detained person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 311. Sections 1 and 3 of this act expire April 1, 2018.

Part Two – Less Restrictive Alternative Revocations

Sec. 313. RCW 71.05.590 and 2015 c 250 s 13 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Either an agency or facility designated to monitor or provide services under a less restrictive alternative order or conditional release order, or a designated mental health professional, may take action to enforce, modify, or revoke a less restrictive alternative or conditional release order ~~((#)).~~ The agency, facility, or designated mental health professional ~~((determines))~~ must determine that:

(a) The person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of the court order;

(b) Substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred;

(c) There is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further evaluation, intervention, or treatment; or

(d) The person poses a likelihood of serious harm.

(2) Actions taken under this section must include a flexible range of responses of varying levels of intensity appropriate to the circumstances and consistent with the interests of the individual and the public in personal autonomy, safety, recovery, and compliance. Available actions may include, but are not limited to, any of the following:

(a) To counsel, advise, or admonish the person as to their rights and responsibilities under the court order, and to offer appropriate incentives to motivate compliance;

(b) To increase the intensity of outpatient services provided to the person by increasing the frequency of contacts with the provider, referring the person for an assessment for assertive community services, or by other means;

(c) To request a court hearing for review and modification of the court order. The request must be made to the court with jurisdiction over the order and specify the circumstances that give rise to the request and what modification is being sought. The county prosecutor shall assist the agency or facility in requesting this hearing and issuing an appropriate summons to the person. This subsection does not limit the inherent authority of a treatment provider to alter conditions of treatment for clinical reasons, and is intended to be used only when court intervention is necessary or advisable to secure the person's compliance and prevent decompensation or deterioration;

(d) To cause the person to be transported by a peace officer, designated mental health professional, or other means to the agency or facility monitoring or providing services under the court order, or to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, emergency department, or evaluation and treatment facility for up to twelve hours for the purpose of an evaluation to determine whether modification, revocation, or commitment proceedings are necessary and appropriate to stabilize the person and prevent decompensation, deterioration, or physical harm. Temporary detention for evaluation under this subsection is intended to occur only following a pattern of noncompliance or the failure of reasonable attempts at outreach and engagement, and may occur only when in the clinical judgment of a designated mental health professional or the professional person in charge of an agency or facility designated to monitor less restrictive alternative services temporary detention is appropriate. This subsection does not limit the ability or obligation to pursue revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section in appropriate circumstances; and

(e) To initiate revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) The facility or agency designated to provide outpatient treatment shall notify the secretary or designated mental health professional when a person fails to adhere to terms and conditions of court ordered treatment or experiences substantial deterioration in his or her condition and, as a result, presents an increased likelihood of serious harm.

(4)(a) A designated mental health professional or the secretary may upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care order a person subject to a court order under this section to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention in an evaluation and treatment facility in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment, or initiate proceedings under this subsection (4) without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) A person detained under this subsection (4) must be held until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he or she had been released. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within five days of service on the person. The designated mental health professional or the secretary may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The designated mental health professional or secretary shall ~~(notify the court that originally ordered commitment within two judicial days of a person's detention and)~~ file a revocation petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court ~~((and))~~ of the county where the person is currently located or being detained. The designated mental health professional shall serve the person and their attorney, guardian, and conservator, if any. The person has the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as in any involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section. There is no right to jury trial. The venue for proceedings ((regarding a petition for modification or revocation must be in)) is the county ((in which)) where the petition ((was)) is filed. Notice of the filing must be provided to the court that originally ordered commitment, if different from the court of revocation, within two judicial days of the person's detention.

(d) The issues for the court to determine are whether: (i) The person adhered to the terms and conditions of the court order; (ii) substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred;

(iii) there is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further inpatient treatment; or (iv) there is a likelihood of serious harm; and, if any of the above conditions apply, whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative or conditional release order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. The person may waive the court hearing and allow the court to enter a stipulated order upon the agreement of all parties. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment, the treatment period may be for no longer than the period authorized in the original court order.

(e) Revocation proceedings under this subsection (4) are not allowable if the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient mental health treatment. In order to obtain a court order for detention for inpatient treatment under this circumstance, a petition must be filed under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153.

(5) In determining whether or not to take action under this section the designated mental health professional, agency, or facility must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.212 and the court must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.245 as they apply to the question of whether to enforce, modify, or revoke a court order for involuntary treatment.

Sec. 314. RCW 71.05.590 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 242 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Either an agency or facility designated to monitor or provide services under a less restrictive alternative order or conditional release order, or a designated crisis responder, may take action to enforce, modify, or revoke a less restrictive alternative or conditional release order ((#)). The agency, facility, or designated crisis responder ((determines)) must determine that:

(a) The person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of the court order;

(b) Substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred;

(c) There is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further evaluation, intervention, or treatment; or

(d) The person poses a likelihood of serious harm.

(2) Actions taken under this section must include a flexible range of responses of varying levels of intensity appropriate to the circumstances and consistent with the interests of the individual and the public in personal autonomy, safety, recovery, and compliance. Available actions may include, but are not limited to, any of the following:

(a) To counsel, advise, or admonish the person as to their rights and responsibilities under the court order, and to offer appropriate incentives to motivate compliance;

(b) To increase the intensity of outpatient services provided to the person by increasing the frequency of contacts with the provider, referring the person for an assessment for assertive community services, or by other means;

(c) To request a court hearing for review and modification of the court order. The request must be made to the court with jurisdiction over the order and specify the circumstances that give rise to the request and what modification is being sought. The county prosecutor shall assist the agency or facility in requesting this hearing and issuing an appropriate summons to the person. This subsection does not limit the inherent authority of a treatment provider to alter conditions of treatment for clinical reasons, and is intended to be used only when court intervention is necessary or advisable to secure the person's compliance and prevent decompensation or deterioration;

(d) To cause the person to be transported by a peace officer, designated crisis responder, or other means to the agency or facility monitoring or providing services under the court order, or to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, emergency department, or to an evaluation and treatment facility if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or to a secure detoxification facility with available space or an approved substance use disorder treatment program with available space if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment. The person may be detained at the facility for up to twelve hours for the purpose of an evaluation to determine whether modification, revocation, or commitment proceedings are necessary and appropriate to stabilize the person and prevent decompensation, deterioration, or physical harm. Temporary detention for evaluation under this subsection is intended to occur only following a pattern of noncompliance or the failure of reasonable attempts at outreach and engagement, and may occur only when in the clinical judgment of a designated crisis responder or the professional person in charge of an agency or facility designated to monitor less restrictive alternative services temporary detention is appropriate. This subsection does not limit the ability or obligation to pursue revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section in appropriate circumstances; and

(e) To initiate revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) The facility or agency designated to provide outpatient treatment shall notify the secretary or designated crisis responder when a person fails to adhere to terms and conditions of court ordered treatment or experiences substantial deterioration in his or her condition and, as a result, presents an increased likelihood of serious harm.

(4)(a) A designated crisis responder or the secretary may upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care order a person subject to a court order under this chapter to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention in an evaluation and treatment facility in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment, in a secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program if either is available in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment and has adequate space. Proceedings under this subsection (4) may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) A person detained under this subsection (4) must be held until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he or she had been released. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within five days of service on the person. The designated crisis responder or the secretary may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The designated crisis responder or secretary shall ~~((notify the court that originally ordered commitment within two judicial days of a person's detention and))~~ file a revocation petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court ~~((and))~~ of the county where the person is currently located or being detained. The designated crisis responder shall serve the person and their attorney, guardian, and conservator, if any. The person has the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as in any involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section. There is no right to jury trial. The venue for proceedings ~~((regarding a petition for modification or revocation must be in))~~ is the county ~~((in which))~~ where the petition ((was)) is filed. Notice of the filing must be provided to the court that originally ordered commitment, if different from the court of revocation, within two judicial days of the person's detention.

(d) The issues for the court to determine are whether: (i) The person adhered to the terms and conditions of the court order; (ii) substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred; (iii) there is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further inpatient treatment; or (iv) there is a likelihood of serious harm; and, if any of the above conditions apply, whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative or conditional release order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. The person may waive the court hearing and allow the court to enter a stipulated order upon the agreement of all parties. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment, the treatment period may be for no longer than the period authorized in the original court order. A court may not issue an order to detain a person for inpatient treatment in a secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program under this subsection unless there is a secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program available and with adequate space for the person.

(e) Revocation proceedings under this subsection (4) are not allowable if the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient mental health treatment. In order to obtain a court order for detention for inpatient treatment under this circumstance, a petition must be filed under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153.

(5) In determining whether or not to take action under this section the designated crisis responder, agency, or facility must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.212 and the court must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.245 as they apply to the question of whether to enforce, modify, or revoke a court order for involuntary treatment.

Sec. 315. RCW 71.05.590 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 243 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Either an agency or facility designated to monitor or provide services under a less restrictive alternative order or conditional release order, or a designated crisis responder, may take action to enforce, modify, or revoke a less restrictive alternative or conditional release order ~~((if))~~. The agency, facility, or designated crisis responder ((determines)) must determine that:

(a) The person is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of the court order;

(b) Substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred;

(c) There is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further evaluation, intervention, or treatment; or

(d) The person poses a likelihood of serious harm.

(2) Actions taken under this section must include a flexible range of responses of varying levels of intensity appropriate to the circumstances and consistent with the interests of the individual and the public in personal autonomy, safety, recovery, and compliance. Available actions may include, but are not limited to, any of the following:

(a) To counsel, advise, or admonish the person as to their rights and responsibilities under the court order, and to offer appropriate incentives to motivate compliance;

(b) To increase the intensity of outpatient services provided to the person by increasing the frequency of contacts with the provider, referring the person for an assessment for assertive community services, or by other means;

(c) To request a court hearing for review and modification of the court order. The request must be made to the court with jurisdiction over the order and specify the circumstances that give rise to the request and what modification is being sought. The county prosecutor shall assist the agency or facility in requesting this hearing and issuing an appropriate summons to the person. This subsection does not limit the inherent authority of a treatment provider to alter conditions of treatment for clinical reasons, and is intended to be used only when court intervention is necessary or advisable to secure the person's compliance and prevent decompensation or deterioration;

(d) To cause the person to be transported by a peace officer, designated crisis responder, or other means to the agency or facility monitoring or providing services under the court order, or to a triage facility, crisis stabilization unit, emergency department, or to an evaluation and treatment facility if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or to a secure detoxification facility or an approved substance use disorder treatment program if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment. The person may be detained at the facility for up to twelve hours for the purpose of an evaluation to determine whether modification, revocation, or commitment proceedings are necessary and appropriate to stabilize the person and prevent decompensation, deterioration, or physical harm. Temporary detention for evaluation under this subsection is intended to occur only following a pattern of noncompliance or the failure of reasonable attempts at outreach and engagement, and may occur only when in the clinical judgment of a designated crisis responder or the professional person in charge of an agency or facility designated to monitor less restrictive alternative services temporary detention is appropriate. This subsection does not limit the ability or obligation to pursue revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section in appropriate circumstances; and

(e) To initiate revocation procedures under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) The facility or agency designated to provide outpatient treatment shall notify the secretary or designated crisis responder when a person fails to adhere to terms and conditions of court ordered treatment or experiences substantial deterioration in his or her condition and, as a result, presents an increased likelihood of serious harm.

(4)(a) A designated crisis responder or the secretary may upon their own motion or notification by the facility or agency designated to provide outpatient care order a person subject to a court order under this chapter to be apprehended and taken into custody and temporary detention in an evaluation and treatment facility in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment if the person is committed for mental health treatment, or, if the person is committed for substance use disorder treatment, in a secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program if either is available in or near the county in which he or she is receiving outpatient treatment. Proceedings under this subsection (4) may be initiated without ordering the apprehension and detention of the person.

(b) A person detained under this subsection (4) must be held until such time, not exceeding five days, as a hearing can be scheduled to determine whether or not the person should be returned to the hospital or facility from which he or she had been released. If the person is not detained, the hearing must be scheduled within five days of service on the person. The designated crisis responder or the secretary may modify or rescind the order at any time prior to commencement of the court hearing.

(c) The designated crisis responder or secretary shall ~~((notify the court that originally ordered commitment within two judicial days of a person's detention and))~~ file a revocation petition and order of apprehension and detention with the court ~~((and))~~ of the county where the person is currently located or being detained.

The designated crisis responder shall serve the person and their attorney, guardian, and conservator, if any. The person has the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as in any involuntary treatment proceeding, except as specifically set forth in this section. There is no right to jury trial. The venue for proceedings ~~((regarding a petition for modification or revocation must be in))~~ is the county ~~((in which))~~ where the petition ~~((was))~~ is filed. Notice of the filing must be provided to the court that originally ordered commitment, if different from the court of revocation, within two judicial days of the person's detention.

(d) The issues for the court to determine are whether: (i) The person adhered to the terms and conditions of the court order; (ii) substantial deterioration in the person's functioning has occurred; (iii) there is evidence of substantial decompensation with a reasonable probability that the decompensation can be reversed by further inpatient treatment; or (iv) there is a likelihood of serious harm; and, if any of the above conditions apply, whether the court should reinstate or modify the person's less restrictive alternative or conditional release order or order the person's detention for inpatient treatment. The person may waive the court hearing and allow the court to enter a stipulated order upon the agreement of all parties. If the court orders detention for inpatient treatment, the treatment period may be for no longer than the period authorized in the original court order.

(e) Revocation proceedings under this subsection (4) are not allowable if the current commitment is solely based on the person being in need of assisted outpatient mental health treatment. In order to obtain a court order for detention for inpatient treatment under this circumstance, a petition must be filed under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153.

(5) In determining whether or not to take action under this section the designated crisis responder, agency, or facility must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.212 and the court must consider the factors specified under RCW 71.05.245 as they apply to the question of whether to enforce, modify, or revoke a court order for involuntary treatment.

Part Three – Initial Detention Investigations

Sec. 316. RCW 71.05.154 and 2013 c 334 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((A))~~ (1) If a person subject to evaluation under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 is located in an emergency room at the time of evaluation, the designated mental health professional conducting ~~((an))~~ the evaluation ~~((of a person under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 must consult with any examining emergency room physician regarding the physician's observations and opinions relating to the person's condition, and whether, in the view of the physician, detention is appropriate. The designated mental health professional))~~ shall take serious consideration of observations and opinions by an examining emergency room physician~~(s)~~, advanced registered nurse practitioner, or physician assistant in determining whether detention under this chapter is appropriate. The designated mental health professional must document ~~((the))~~ his or her consultation with ~~((an examining emergency room physician))~~ this professional, ((including)) if the professional is available, or his or her review of the ~~((physician's))~~ professional's written observations or opinions regarding whether detention of the person is appropriate.

(2) This section does not create an exception to the general rule under RCW 71.05.010, which creates a presumption that courts should decide petitions under this chapter on their merits in light of the state's parens patriae or police power interest in protecting the safety of individuals and the public.

Sec. 317. RCW 71.05.154 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 214 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((A))~~ (1) If a person subject to evaluation under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 is located in an emergency room at the time of evaluation, the designated crisis responder conducting ~~((an))~~ the evaluation ~~((of a person under RCW 71.05.150 or 71.05.153 must consult with any examining emergency room physician regarding the physician's observations and opinions relating to the person's condition, and whether, in the view of the physician, detention is appropriate. The designated crisis responder))~~ shall take serious consideration of observations and opinions by an examining emergency room physician ~~((s)),~~ advanced registered nurse practitioner, or physician assistant in determining whether detention under this chapter is appropriate. The designated crisis responder must document ~~((the))~~ his or her consultation with ~~((an examining emergency room physician))~~ this professional, ((including)) if the professional is available, or his or her review of the ~~((physician's))~~ professional's written observations or opinions regarding whether detention of the person is appropriate.

(2) This section does not create an exception to the general rule under RCW 71.05.010, which creates a presumption that courts should decide petitions under this chapter on their merits in light of the state's parens patriae or police power interest in protecting the safety of individuals and the public.

Part Four – Evaluation and Petition by Chemical Dependency Professionals

Sec. 318. RCW 70.96A.140 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 102 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) When a designated chemical dependency specialist receives information alleging that a person presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled as a result of ~~((chemical dependency))~~ a substance use disorder, the designated chemical dependency specialist, after investigation and evaluation of the specific facts alleged and of the reliability and credibility of the information, may file a petition for commitment of such person with the superior court, district court, or in another court permitted by court rule.

If a petition for commitment is not filed in the case of a minor, the parent, guardian, or custodian who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision made by the designated chemical dependency specialist in superior or district court. The parent, guardian, or custodian shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the designated chemical dependency specialist's report.

If the designated chemical dependency specialist finds that the initial needs of such person would be better served by placement within the mental health system, the person shall be referred to either a designated mental health professional or an evaluation and treatment facility as defined in RCW 71.05.020 or 71.34.020.

(b) If placement in a ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder treatment program is available and deemed appropriate, the petition shall allege that: The person is chemically dependent and presents a likelihood of serious harm or is gravely disabled by alcohol or drug addiction, or that the person has twice before in the preceding twelve months been admitted for withdrawal management, sobering services, or ~~((chemical dependency))~~ substance use disorder treatment pursuant to RCW 70.96A.110 or 70.96A.120, and is in need of a more sustained treatment program, or that the person ~~((is chemically dependent))~~ has a substance use disorder and has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical harm on another and is likely to inflict physical harm on another unless committed. A refusal to undergo treatment, by itself, does not constitute evidence of lack of judgment as to the need for treatment.

(c) If involuntary detention is sought, the petition must state facts that support a finding of the grounds identified in (b) of this subsection and that there are no less restrictive alternatives to detention in the best interest of such person or others. The petition must state specifically that less restrictive alternative treatment was considered and specify why treatment less restrictive than detention is not appropriate. If an involuntary less restrictive alternative is sought, the petition must state facts that support a finding of the grounds for commitment identified in (b) of this subsection and set forth the proposed less restrictive alternative.

(d)(i) The petition must be signed by:

(A) ~~((Two physicians;))~~ One physician, physician assistant, or advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(B) ~~((One physician and a mental health professional;~~

(C) One physician assistant and a mental health professional; or

(D) ~~One psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner and a mental health professional.~~

(ii) ~~The persons signing the petition must have examined the person))~~ One physician, physician assistant, advanced registered nurse practitioner, or chemical dependency professional.

(2) Upon filing the petition, the court shall fix a date for a hearing no less than two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed unless the person petitioned against is presently being detained in a program, pursuant to RCW 70.96A.120, 71.05.210, or 71.34.710, in which case the hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours of the filing of the petition ~~((PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That))~~. ~~The~~ ~~((above specified))~~ seventy-two hours shall be computed by excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays ~~((PROVIDED FURTHER, That))~~. The court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought, or upon motion of petitioner with written permission of the person whose commitment is sought, or his or her counsel and, upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of the hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served ~~((by the designated chemical dependency specialist))~~ on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, a parent or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and any other person the court believes advisable. A copy of the petition and certificate shall be delivered to each person notified.

(3) At the hearing the court shall hear all relevant testimony including, if possible, the testimony, which may be telephonic, of at least one licensed physician, ~~((psychiatric))~~ advanced registered nurse practitioner, physician assistant, or ~~((mental health))~~ chemical dependency professional who has examined the person whose commitment is sought. Communications otherwise deemed privileged under the laws of this state are deemed to be waived in proceedings under this chapter when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that the waiver is necessary to protect either the detained person or the public. The waiver of a privilege under this section is limited to records or testimony relevant to evaluation of the detained person for purposes of a proceeding under this chapter. Upon motion by the detained person, or on its own motion, the court shall examine a record or testimony sought by a petitioner to determine whether it is within the scope of the waiver.

The record maker shall not be required to testify in order to introduce medical, nursing, or psychological records of detained persons so long as the requirements of RCW 5.45.020 are met, except that portions of the record that contain opinions as to whether the detained person ~~((is chemically dependent))~~ has a substance use disorder shall be deleted from the records unless the person offering the opinions is available for cross-examination. The person shall be present unless the court believes that his or her presence is likely to be injurious to him or her; in this event the court may deem it appropriate to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent him or her throughout the proceeding. If deemed advisable, the court may examine the person out of courtroom. If the person has refused to be examined by a licensed physician, ~~((psychiatric))~~ advanced registered nurse practitioner, physician assistant, or ~~((mental health))~~ chemical dependency professional, he or she shall be given an opportunity to be examined by a court appointed licensed physician, ~~((psychiatric))~~ advanced registered nurse practitioner, physician assistant, or other professional person qualified to provide such services. If he or she refuses and there is sufficient evidence to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, or if the court believes that more medical evidence is necessary, the court may make a temporary order committing him or her to the department for a period of not more than five days for purposes of a diagnostic examination.

(4)(a) If, after hearing all relevant evidence, including the results of any diagnostic examination, the court finds that grounds for involuntary commitment have been established by a preponderance of the evidence and, after considering less restrictive alternatives to involuntary detention and treatment, finds that no such alternatives are in the best interest of the person or others, it shall make an order of commitment to an approved substance use disorder treatment program. It shall not order commitment of a person unless it determines that an approved substance use disorder treatment program is available and able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her.

(b) If the court finds that the grounds for commitment have been established by a preponderance of the evidence, but that treatment in a less restrictive setting than detention is in the best interest of such person or others, the court shall order an appropriate less restrictive course of treatment. The less restrictive order may impose treatment conditions and other conditions that are in the best interest of the respondent and others. A copy of the less restrictive order must be given to the respondent, the designated chemical dependency specialist, and any program designated to provide less restrictive treatment. If the program designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the program providing the initial involuntary treatment, the program so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. The court may not order commitment of a person to a less restrictive course of treatment unless it determines that an approved substance use disorder treatment program is available and able to provide adequate and appropriate treatment for him or her.

(5) A person committed to inpatient treatment under this section shall remain in the program for treatment for a period of fourteen days unless sooner discharged. A person committed to a less restrictive course of treatment under this section shall remain in the program of treatment for a period of ninety days unless sooner discharged. At the end of the fourteen-day period, or ninety-day period in the case of a less restrictive alternative to inpatient treatment, he or she shall be discharged automatically unless the program or the designated chemical dependency specialist, before expiration of the period, files a petition for his or her recommitment upon the grounds set forth in subsection (1) of this section for a further period of ninety days of inpatient treatment or ninety days of less restrictive alternative treatment unless sooner discharged. The petition for ninety-day inpatient or less restrictive alternative treatment must be filed with the clerk of the court at least three days before expiration of the fourteen-day period of intensive treatment.

If a petition for recommitment is not filed in the case of a minor, the parent, guardian, or custodian who has custody of the minor may seek review of that decision made by the designated chemical dependency specialist in superior or district court. The parent, guardian, or custodian shall file notice with the court and provide a copy of the treatment progress report.

If a person has been committed because he or she ~~((is chemically dependent))~~ has a substance use disorder and is likely to inflict physical harm on another, the program or designated chemical dependency specialist shall apply for recommitment if after examination it is determined that the likelihood still exists.

(6) Upon the filing of a petition for recommitment under subsection (5) of this section, the court shall fix a date for hearing no less than two and no more than seven days after the date the petition was filed ~~((PROVIDED, That,))~~. The court may, upon motion of the person whose commitment is sought and upon good cause shown, extend the date for the hearing. A copy of the petition and of the notice of hearing, including the date fixed by the court, shall be served by the treatment program on the person whose commitment is sought, his or her next of kin, the original petitioner under subsection (1) of this section if different from the petitioner for recommitment, one of his or her parents or his or her legal guardian if he or she is a minor, and his or her attorney and any other person the court believes advisable. At the hearing the court shall proceed as provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, except that the burden of proof upon a hearing for recommitment must be proof by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.

(7) The approved substance use disorder treatment program shall provide for adequate and appropriate treatment of a person committed to its custody on an inpatient or outpatient basis. A person committed under this section may be transferred from one approved public treatment program to another if transfer is medically advisable.

(8) A person committed to a program for treatment shall be discharged at any time before the end of the period for which he or she has been committed and he or she shall be discharged by order of the court if either of the following conditions are met:

(a) In case of a ~~((chemically dependent))~~ person with a substance use disorder committed on the grounds of likelihood of infliction of physical harm upon himself, herself, or another, the likelihood no longer exists; or further treatment will not be likely to bring about significant improvement in the person's condition, or treatment is no longer adequate or appropriate.

(b) In case of a ~~((chemically dependent))~~ person with a substance use disorder committed on the grounds of the need of treatment and incapacity, that the incapacity no longer exists.

(9) The court shall inform the person whose commitment or recommitment is sought of his or her right to contest the application, be represented by counsel at every stage of any proceedings relating to his or her commitment and recommitment, and have counsel appointed by the court or provided by the court, if he or she wants the assistance of counsel and is unable to obtain counsel. If the court believes that the person needs the assistance of counsel, the court shall require, by appointment if necessary, counsel for him or her regardless of his or her wishes. The person shall, if he or she is financially able, bear the costs of such legal service; otherwise such legal service shall be at public expense. The person whose commitment or recommitment is sought shall be informed of his or her right to be examined by a licensed physician, ~~((psychiatric))~~ advanced registered nurse practitioner, physician assistant, or other professional person of his or her choice who is qualified to provide such services. If the person is unable to obtain a qualified person and requests an examination, the court shall employ a licensed physician, ~~((psychiatric))~~ advanced registered nurse practitioner, physician assistant, or other professional person to conduct an examination and testify on behalf of the person.

(10) A person committed under this chapter may at any time seek to be discharged from commitment by writ of habeas corpus in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(11) The venue for proceedings under this section is the county in which person to be committed resides or is present.

(12) When in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the program providing involuntary inpatient treatment under this chapter, the committed patient can be appropriately served by less restrictive treatment before expiration of the period of commitment, then the less restrictive care may be required as a condition for early release for a period which, when added to the initial treatment period, does not exceed the period of commitment. If the program designated to provide the less restrictive treatment is other than the program providing the initial involuntary treatment, the program so designated must agree in writing to assume such responsibility. A copy of the conditions for early release shall be given to the patient, the designated chemical dependency specialist of original commitment, and the court of original commitment. The program designated to provide less restrictive care may modify the conditions for continued release when the modifications are in the best interests of the patient. If the program providing less restrictive care and the designated chemical dependency specialist determine that a conditionally released patient is failing to adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release, or that substantial deterioration in the patient's functioning has occurred, then the designated chemical dependency specialist shall notify the court of original commitment and request a hearing to be held no less than two and no more than seven days after the date of the request to determine whether or not the person should be returned to more restrictive care. The designated chemical dependency specialist shall file a petition with the court stating the facts substantiating the need for the hearing along with the treatment recommendations. The patient shall have the same rights with respect to notice, hearing, and counsel as for the original involuntary treatment proceedings. The issues to be determined at the hearing are whether the conditionally released patient did or did not adhere to the terms and conditions of his or her release to less restrictive care or that substantial deterioration of the patient's functioning has occurred and whether the conditions of release should be modified or the person should be returned to a more restrictive program. The hearing may be waived by the patient and his or her counsel and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, but may not be waived unless all such persons agree to the waiver. Upon waiver, the person may be returned for involuntary treatment or continued on conditional release on the same or modified conditions. The grounds and procedures for revocation of less restrictive alternative treatment ordered by the court must be the same as those set forth in this section for less restrictive care arranged by an approved substance use disorder treatment program as a condition for early release.

Sec. 319. RCW 71.05.020 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 204 and 2016 c 155 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Admission" or "admit" means a decision by a physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner that a person should be examined or treated as a patient in a hospital;

(2) "Alcoholism" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on alcoholic beverages, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning;

(3) "Antipsychotic medications" means that class of drugs primarily used to treat serious manifestations of mental illness associated with thought disorders, which includes, but is not limited to atypical antipsychotic medications;

(4) "Approved substance use disorder treatment program" means a program for persons with a substance use disorder provided by a treatment program certified by the department as meeting standards adopted under chapter 71.24 RCW;

(5) "Attending staff" means any person on the staff of a public or private agency having responsibility for the care and treatment of a patient;

(6) "Chemical dependency" means:

(a) Alcoholism;

(b) Drug addiction; or

(c) Dependence on alcohol and one or more psychoactive chemicals, as the context requires;

(7) "Chemical dependency professional" means a person certified as a chemical dependency professional by the department of health under chapter 18.205 RCW;

(8) "Commitment" means the determination by a court that a person should be detained for a period of either evaluation or treatment, or both, in an inpatient or a less restrictive setting;

(9) "Conditional release" means a revocable modification of a commitment, which may be revoked upon violation of any of its terms;

(10) "Crisis stabilization unit" means a short-term facility or a portion of a facility licensed by the department of health and certified by the department of social and health services under RCW 71.24.035, such as an evaluation and treatment facility or a hospital, which has been designed to assess, diagnose, and treat individuals experiencing an acute crisis without the use of long-term hospitalization;

(11) "Custody" means involuntary detention under the provisions of this chapter or chapter 10.77 RCW, uninterrupted by any period of unconditional release from commitment from a facility providing involuntary care and treatment;

(12) "Department" means the department of social and health services;

(13) "Designated crisis responder" means a mental health professional appointed by the behavioral health organization to perform the duties specified in this chapter;

(14) "Detention" or "detain" means the lawful confinement of a person, under the provisions of this chapter;

(15) "Developmental disabilities professional" means a person who has specialized training and three years of experience in directly treating or working with persons with developmental disabilities and is a psychiatrist, physician assistant working with a supervising psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner, or social worker, and such other developmental disabilities professionals as may be defined by rules adopted by the secretary;

(16) "Developmental disability" means that condition defined in RCW 71A.10.020(5);

(17) "Discharge" means the termination of hospital medical authority. The commitment may remain in place, be terminated, or be amended by court order;

(18) "Drug addiction" means a disease, characterized by a dependency on psychoactive chemicals, loss of control over the amount and circumstances of use, symptoms of tolerance, physiological or psychological withdrawal, or both, if use is reduced or discontinued, and impairment of health or disruption of social or economic functioning;

(19) "Evaluation and treatment facility" means any facility which can provide directly, or by direct arrangement with other public or private agencies, emergency evaluation and treatment, outpatient care, and timely and appropriate inpatient care to persons suffering from a mental disorder, and which is certified as such by the department. The department may certify single beds as temporary evaluation and treatment beds under RCW 71.05.745. A physically separate and separately operated portion of a state hospital may be designated as an evaluation and treatment facility. A facility which is part of, or operated by, the department or any federal agency will not require certification. No correctional institution or facility, or jail, shall be an evaluation and treatment facility within the meaning of this chapter;

(20) "Gravely disabled" means a condition in which a person, as a result of a mental disorder, or as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals: (a) Is in danger of serious physical harm resulting from a failure to provide for his or her essential human needs of health or safety; or (b) manifests severe deterioration in routine functioning evidenced by repeated and escalating loss of cognitive or volitional control over his or her actions and is not receiving such care as is essential for his or her health or safety;

(21) "Habilitative services" means those services provided by program personnel to assist persons in acquiring and maintaining life skills and in raising their levels of physical, mental, social, and vocational functioning. Habilitative services include education, training for employment, and therapy. The habilitative process shall be undertaken with recognition of the risk to the public safety presented by the person being assisted as manifested by prior charged criminal conduct;

(22) "History of one or more violent acts" refers to the period of time ten years prior to the filing of a petition under this chapter, excluding any time spent, but not any violent acts committed, in a mental health facility, a long-term alcoholism or drug treatment facility, or in confinement as a result of a criminal conviction;

(23) "Imminent" means the state or condition of being likely to occur at any moment or near at hand, rather than distant or remote;

(24) "Individualized service plan" means a plan prepared by a developmental disabilities professional with other professionals as a team, for a person with developmental disabilities, which shall state:

(a) The nature of the person's specific problems, prior charged criminal behavior, and habilitation needs;

(b) The conditions and strategies necessary to achieve the purposes of habilitation;

(c) The intermediate and long-range goals of the habilitation program, with a projected timetable for the attainment;

(d) The rationale for using this plan of habilitation to achieve those intermediate and long-range goals;

(e) The staff responsible for carrying out the plan;

(f) Where relevant in light of past criminal behavior and due consideration for public safety, the criteria for proposed movement to less-restrictive settings, criteria for proposed eventual discharge or release, and a projected possible date for discharge or release; and

(g) The type of residence immediately anticipated for the person and possible future types of residences;

(25) "Information related to mental health services" means all information and records compiled, obtained, or maintained in the course of providing services to either voluntary or involuntary recipients of services by a mental health service provider. This may include documents of legal proceedings under this chapter or chapter 71.34 or 10.77 RCW, or somatic health care information;

(26) "Intoxicated person" means a person whose mental or physical functioning is substantially impaired as a result of the use of alcohol or other psychoactive chemicals;

(27) "In need of assisted outpatient mental health treatment" means that a person, as a result of a mental disorder: (a) Has been committed by a court to detention for involuntary mental health treatment at least twice during the preceding thirty-six months, or, if the person is currently committed for involuntary mental health treatment, the person has been committed to detention for involuntary mental health treatment at least once during the thirty-six months preceding the date of initial detention of the current commitment cycle; (b) is unlikely to voluntarily participate in outpatient treatment without an order for less restrictive alternative treatment, in view of the person's treatment history or current behavior; (c) is unlikely to survive safely in the community without supervision; (d) is likely to benefit from less restrictive alternative treatment; and (e) requires less restrictive alternative treatment to prevent a relapse, decompensation, or deterioration that is likely to result in the person presenting a likelihood of serious harm or the person becoming gravely disabled within a reasonably short period of time. For purposes of (a) of this subsection, time spent in a mental health facility or in confinement as a result of a criminal conviction is excluded from the thirty-six month calculation;

(28) "Judicial commitment" means a commitment by a court pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

A triage facility may be structured as a voluntary or involuntary placement facility;

(56) "Violent act" means behavior that resulted in homicide, attempted suicide, nonfatal injuries, or substantial damage to property.

Sec. 320. RCW 71.05.210 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 224 and 2016 c 155 s 2 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Each person involuntarily detained and accepted or admitted at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure detoxification facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program:

(a) Shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her admission or acceptance at the facility, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, be examined and evaluated by:

(i) One physician (~~and a mental health professional~~), physician assistant, or advanced registered nurse professional; and

(ii) One (~~physician assistant and a~~) mental health professional(~~or~~

~~One advanced registered nurse practitioner and a mental health~~) or chemical dependency professional; and

(b) Shall receive such treatment and care as his or her condition requires including treatment on an outpatient basis for the period that he or she is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a trial or hearing pursuant to RCW 71.05.215, 71.05.240, 71.05.310, 71.05.320, 71.05.590, or 71.05.217, the individual may refuse psychiatric medications, but may not refuse: (i) Any other medication previously prescribed by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW; or (ii) emergency lifesaving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his or her right of such refusal. The person shall be detained up to seventy-two hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for seventy-two hours shall no later than the end of such period be released, unless referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or detained pursuant to court order for further treatment as provided in this chapter.

(2) If, after examination and evaluation, the mental health professional or chemical dependency professional and licensed physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner determine that the initial needs of the person, if detained to an evaluation and treatment facility, would be better served by placement in a substance use disorder treatment ((facility)) program, or, if detained to a secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, would be better served in an evaluation and treatment facility then the person shall be referred to the more appropriate placement; however, a person may only be referred to a secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program if there is an available secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program with adequate space for the person.

(3) An evaluation and treatment center, secure detoxification facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program admitting or accepting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for evaluation or admission for treatment. Notice of such fact shall be given to the court, the designated attorney, and the designated crisis responder and the court shall order such continuance in proceedings under this chapter as may be necessary, but in no event may this continuance be more than fourteen days.

(4) A person detained, accepted, or admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility must be evaluated by a mental health professional. A person detained, accepted, or admitted to a secure detox facility or approved substance use disorder treatment facility must be evaluated by a chemical dependency professional.

Sec. 321. RCW 71.05.210 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 225 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each person involuntarily detained and accepted or admitted at an evaluation and treatment facility, secure detoxification facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program:

(a) Shall, within twenty-four hours of his or her admission or acceptance at the facility, not counting time periods prior to medical clearance, be examined and evaluated by:

(i) One physician ~~((and a mental health professional))~~, physician assistant, or advanced registered nurse professional; and

(ii) One ~~((physician assistant and a))~~ mental health professional ~~((or~~

~~((iii) One advanced registered nurse practitioner and a mental health))~~ or chemical dependency professional; and

(b) Shall receive such treatment and care as his or her condition requires including treatment on an outpatient basis for the period that he or she is detained, except that, beginning twenty-four hours prior to a trial or hearing pursuant to RCW 71.05.215, 71.05.240, 71.05.310, 71.05.320, 71.05.590, or 71.05.217, the individual may refuse psychiatric medications, but may not refuse: (i) Any other medication previously prescribed by a person licensed under Title 18 RCW; or (ii) emergency lifesaving treatment, and the individual shall be informed at an appropriate time of his or her right of such refusal. The person shall be detained up to seventy-two hours, if, in the opinion of the professional person in charge of the facility, or his or her professional designee, the person presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled. A person who has been detained for seventy-two hours shall no later than the end of such period be released, unless referred for further care on a voluntary basis, or detained pursuant to court order for further treatment as provided in this chapter.

(2) If, after examination and evaluation, the mental health professional or chemical dependency professional and licensed physician, physician assistant, or psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner determine that the initial needs of the person, if detained to an evaluation and treatment facility, would be better served by placement in a substance use disorder treatment ((facility)) program, or, if detained to a secure detoxification facility or approved substance use disorder treatment program, would be better served in an evaluation and treatment facility then the person shall be referred to the more appropriate placement.

(3) An evaluation and treatment center, secure detoxification facility, or approved substance use disorder treatment program admitting or accepting any person pursuant to this chapter whose physical condition reveals the need for hospitalization shall assure that such person is transferred to an appropriate hospital for evaluation or admission for treatment. Notice of such fact shall be given to the court, the designated attorney, and the designated crisis responder and the court shall order such continuance in proceedings under this chapter as may be necessary, but in no event may this continuance be more than fourteen days.

(4) A person detained, accepted, or admitted to an evaluation and treatment facility must be evaluated by a mental health professional. A person detained, accepted, or admitted to a secure detox facility or approved substance use disorder treatment facility must be evaluated by a chemical dependency professional.

Sec. 322. RCW 71.05.230 and 2016 sp.s. c 29 s 230, 2016 c 155 s 5, and 2016 c 45 s 1 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

A person detained or committed for seventy-two hour evaluation and treatment or for an outpatient evaluation for the purpose of filing a petition for a less restrictive alternative treatment order may be committed for not more than fourteen additional days of involuntary intensive treatment or ninety additional days of a less restrictive alternative to involuntary intensive treatment. A petition may only be filed if the following conditions are met:

(1) The professional staff of the agency or facility providing evaluation services has analyzed the person's condition and finds that the condition is caused by mental disorder or substance use disorder and results in a likelihood of serious harm, results in the person being gravely disabled, or results in the person being in need of assisted outpatient mental health treatment, and are prepared to testify those conditions are met; and

(2) The person has been advised of the need for voluntary treatment and the professional staff of the facility has evidence that he or she has not in good faith volunteered; and

(3) The agency or facility providing intensive treatment or which proposes to supervise the less restrictive alternative is certified to provide such treatment by the department; and

(4) The professional staff of the agency or facility or the designated crisis responder has filed a petition with the court for a fourteen day involuntary detention or a ninety day less restrictive alternative. The petition must be signed (~~either~~) by:

(a) (~~Two physicians~~) One physician, physician assistant, or advanced registered nurse practitioner; and

(b) One physician (~~and a~~), physician assistant, advanced registered nurse practitioner, mental health professional(;

(c) One physician assistant and a mental health professional;
or

(d) One psychiatric advanced registered nurse practitioner and a mental health professional), or chemical dependency professional.

The persons signing the petition must have examined the person. If the person is detained for the purpose of mental health treatment, the person must be examined by a mental health professional. If involuntary detention is sought the petition shall state facts that support the finding that such person, as a result of a mental disorder or substance use disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm, or is gravely disabled and that there are no less restrictive alternatives to detention in the best interest of such person or others. The petition shall state specifically that less restrictive alternative treatment was considered and specify why treatment less restrictive than detention is not appropriate. If an involuntary less restrictive alternative is sought, the petition shall state facts that support the finding that such person, as a result of a mental disorder or as a result of a substance use disorder, presents a likelihood of serious harm, is gravely disabled, or is in need of assisted outpatient mental health treatment, and shall set forth any recommendations for less restrictive alternative treatment services; and

(5) A copy of the petition has been served on the detained or committed person, his or her attorney and his or her guardian or conservator, if any, prior to the probable cause hearing; and

(6) The court at the time the petition was filed and before the probable cause hearing has appointed counsel to represent such person if no other counsel has appeared; and

(7) The petition reflects that the person was informed of the loss of firearm rights if involuntarily committed for mental health treatment; and

(8) At the conclusion of the initial commitment period, the professional staff of the agency or facility or the designated crisis responder may petition for an additional period of either ninety days of less restrictive alternative treatment or ninety days of involuntary intensive treatment as provided in RCW 71.05.290; and

(9) If the hospital or facility designated to provide less restrictive alternative treatment is other than the facility providing involuntary treatment, the outpatient facility so designated to provide less restrictive alternative treatment has agreed to assume such responsibility.

SENATE RESOLUTION 8624

By Senators Rolfes, Frockt, Ranker, Hasegawa, Conway, Darneille, Billig, Bailey, Warnick, Fain, Walsh, Honeyford, and Liias

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper was a bright presence in the Code Reviser's Office of the Washington State Legislature until she passed away peacefully at the young age of thirty years old; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper was always an outgoing and hard-working individual, participating on the student council, cheering for the varsity cheer squad, and graduating with honors in 2004 from Cactus High School in Glendale, Arizona; and

WHEREAS, While attending Arizona State University, Amanda Rohrkemper majored in political science and began her career in public service by completing an internship with the Arizona State Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper graduated summa cum laude from Arizona State University, then went on to finish her studies with a juris doctor degree from The George Washington University Law School in Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper loved adventure, spending a semester studying in Paris and traveling the country to pursue her education and career; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper joined the Washington State legislative team as a Staff Attorney at the Code Reviser's Office in 2012; and

WHEREAS, Throughout her time at the legislature, Amanda Rohrkemper always maintained a professional yet pleasant attitude, fitting in well with her colleagues; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper had a passion for dance, art, and all things French, and her colleagues appreciated her unique skill of seeing the beauty in things that other people could not see; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper met each obstacle and difficult task with a smile, bringing a positive outlook to the world around her each day; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper worked tirelessly without expectation of receiving praise, instead finding joy in her hard work; and

WHEREAS, Amanda Rohrkemper treated those around her with care and compassion, always ready to help them with their troubles and recognizing the human need for kindness;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate honor Amanda Rohrkemper and the impact she had on her coworkers and the legislature and remember her positive outlook and passion for public service.

WHEREAS, Sandra G. Wibbels was born on January 30, 1958, in Olympia, Washington, to Charlotte Yelle and Charles Packard; and

WHEREAS, Sandy Wibbels remained in the South Sound area for most of her life, loving the natural beauty and foliage of Puget Sound; and

WHEREAS, Sandy Wibbels graduated from North Thurston High School in Lacey, Washington, and remained in the area to marry her husband, Bob Wibbels, and raise their son, Stephen Wibbels; and

WHEREAS, Sandy Wibbels worked at the Washington State Legislature and joined Senate Committee Services where she was an exceptional Committee Assistant; and

WHEREAS, Her colleagues recall that Sandy Wibbels always had a bounce in her step and had a knack for making them laugh; and

WHEREAS, Sandy Wibbels loved gardening and took great pride in her front yard flowers and perennials, and she always looked forward to her yearly trips exploring the natural wonders of Hawaii with her husband; and

WHEREAS, Sandy Wibbels brought her love for the outdoors to her work at Senate Committee Services, regularly resurrecting office plants and coaxing them to bloom beautifully; and

WHEREAS, Sandy had a kind heart, welcoming new staff to the Washington State Legislature and taking a motherly role with fellow staff both young and old; and

WHEREAS, Sandy Wibbels was a great source of knowledge for her colleagues, and they fondly remember her positive spirit helping them power through many late nights of session; and

WHEREAS, On April 30, 2016, Sandy Wibbels passed away in Olympia's St. Peter Hospital due to complications from cancer; and

FORTY SEVENTH DAY, FEBRUARY 24, 2017

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: "Thank you Mr. President. I am so proud and honored to be welcoming our friend Kevin Van De Wege to the Senate. And Senator Van De Wege is very shy so he doesn't want to stand up and explain that he's got gifts to be distributed to us in appreciation for his first speech last week on the Senate floor. So I just wanted for my part to say that I really enjoyed serving with Senator Van De Wege in the House, where we were roommates and became great friends. I have enjoyed our camping trips and opportunities to see the beautiful parts of Washington state. I also reflect on the fact that when I first met Senator Van De Wege, his kids were knee-high to a grasshopper and today they are in middle school and high school, and it has been amazing to watch them grow up. So I want to welcome Senator Van De Wege to the Senate family and to continue to serve with him and I appreciate the gifts that are being distributed to us. And I hope he will explain to us what they are, but if he doesn't want to, that is ok, he can be shy. We welcome him nonetheless. Thank you Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Van De Wege: "Thank you Mr. President. I do have gifts. I have gift bags today because I was convinced to do a bill that wasn't mine on Friday. So I thought I would hand out the gift bags today. They contain soda pop made in Port Angeles from Bedford Soda. When you are thirsty, drink Bedford Soda. They contain soap, which I kind of find interesting, the soap, that I am the third person to have soap in their gift bags. I don't know if that tells something of the way people smell over here or what, but there is soap made in Sequim. And from Port Angeles there is some chocolate. It is great chocolate and then my Legislative Aide Linda Barnfather is a wonderful photographer and there is a postcard in each bag that she took and had made. So, I hope you enjoy your gifts. Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Sheldon: "Thank you, Senator Van De Wege. It is all about aromatherapy here in the Senate, so I am very excited."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pearson: "Thank you Mr. President and I do welcome Senator Van De Wege. We served a number of years in the House, and it is a delight serving with him on the Natural Resources & Parks Committee as Ranking Member, and I know Senator Hargrove is a tough act to follow, but at least what I love about Kevin is he is not pressing into me when he is talking on things, and pushing his way. He is much more subtle. But, I am going to enjoy working with him for many years. Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Sheldon: "Well, Senator Van De Wege, all the way from the Olympic Peninsula, we sure appreciate you being here. Thank you very much."

Concerning registration enforcement for off-road vehicles and snowmobiles.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Wilson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5338 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5338 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Wilson moved that the following floor striking amendment no. 24 by Senator Wilson be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 328. The legislature finds that many residents of Washington enjoy recreational opportunities for off-road vehicle and snowmobile use afforded by the natural beauty of the state and do so in compliance with vehicle titling and registration laws and other laws that govern off-road vehicle and snowmobile use. At the same time, the legislature recognizes that the current law and corresponding enforcement regime may not be robust enough to ensure full compliance with legal registration requirements and a level playing field for all users. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to modify the statutory framework governing penalties for off-road vehicle and snowmobile registration violations and to add requirements to the department of licensing in order to improve registration compliance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 329. A new section is added to chapter 46.09 RCW under the subchapter heading "uses and violations" to read as follows:

(1) It is a gross misdemeanor, punishable as provided under chapter 9A.20 RCW, for a resident, as identified in RCW 46.16A.140, to knowingly fail to apply for a Washington state certificate of title for, or to knowingly fail to register, an off-road vehicle within fifteen days of receiving or refusing a notice issued by the department under section 4 of this act.

(2) Excise taxes owed and fines assessed must be deposited in the manner provided under RCW 46.16A.030(6).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 330. A new section is added to chapter 46.10 RCW under the subchapter heading "uses and violations" to read as follows:

(1) It is a gross misdemeanor, punishable as provided under chapter 9A.20 RCW, for a resident, as identified in RCW 46.16A.140, to knowingly fail to register a snowmobile within fifteen days of receiving or refusing a notice issued by the department under section 4 of this act.

(2) Excise taxes owed and fines assessed must be deposited in the manner provided under RCW 46.16A.030(6).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 331. A new section is added to chapter 46.93 RCW to read as follows:

(1) By the first business day in February of each year, beginning in 2018, motorsports vehicle manufacturers must report to the department of licensing a listing of all motorsports vehicle warranties for off-road vehicles under chapter 46.09 RCW and snowmobiles under chapter 46.10 RCW sold to Washington residents by out-of-state motorsports vehicle dealers in the previous calendar year. The report must be transmitted such that the department receives the listing no later than the first business day in February. Failure to report a complete listing as required under this subsection results in an administrative fine of one hundred dollars for each day after January that the department has not received the report.

(2) The department of licensing shall examine the listing reported in subsection (1) of this section to verify whether the vehicles are properly registered in the state. Beginning in 2018, and to the extent that it has received the listing required under subsection (1) of this section, the department shall notify by certified mail from the United States postal service, with return receipt requested, by the end of February of each year, the purchasers of the warranties of the off-road vehicles and snowmobiles that are not properly registered in the state of the owner's obligations under state law regarding vehicle titling, registration, and use tax payment, as well as of the penalties for failure to comply with the law.

(3) Fines received under this section must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the nonhighway and off-road vehicle activities program account under RCW 46.09.510 and to the snowmobile account under RCW 46.68.350. The state treasurer must apportion the fines between the accounts according to the pro rata share of the number of off-road vehicle and snowmobile registrations in the previous calendar year. The department must provide the state treasurer with the information needed to determine the apportionment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 332. Section 4 of this act applies to the sales of off-road vehicles and snowmobiles beginning in January 2017.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 333. This act takes effect August 1, 2017."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "snowmobiles;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new section to chapter 46.09 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 46.10 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 46.93 RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date."

FIFTIETH DAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

The legislature further finds that understanding the causes and impacts of medical debt on Washington residents is an important first step in developing policy options to address this serious issue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) A legislative task force on medical debt is established, with nine members appointed as follows:

- (a) The president of the senate must appoint one member from each of the two largest caucuses of the senate;
 - (b) The speaker of the house of representatives must appoint one member from each of the two largest caucuses of the house of representatives;
 - (c) The director of the department of health or the director's designee;
 - (d) The attorney general or the attorney general's designee;
 - (e) A representative from an organization representing medical service providers, appointed by the chair or cochaIRS;
 - (f) A representative from an organization representing a nonprofit community organization, appointed by the chair or cochaIRS; and
 - (g) A representative of an organization that provides charity care, appointed by the chair or cochaIRS.
- (2) The task force must:
- (a) Choose a chair or cochaIRS from among its legislative membership at its initial meeting. The initial meeting must be called by agreement of a majority of the appointed members;
 - (b) Review the scope of medical debt in Washington including the major causes of medical debt, the issues and processes that occur when medical debt goes to a collection agency, and how charity care and other services provide assistance to those in need;
 - (c) Provide any recommendations identified by the task force that involve statutory changes, funding recommendations, or administrative action to the legislature. If statutory changes are recommended, the task force must provide the recommendations in the form of draft legislation. Task force recommendations require the approval of a majority of the appointed members;
 - (d) Ensure that the task force provides ample opportunity for input from interested stakeholders.
- (3) Staff support for the task force must be provided by the senate committee services and the house of representatives office of program research. The department of health must cooperate with the task force and provide information and assistance at the request of the task force.

(4) Legislative members of the task force are reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.120. Nonlegislative members are not entitled to be reimbursed for travel expenses if they are elected officials or are participating on behalf of an employer, governmental entity, or other organization. Any reimbursement for other nonlegislative members is subject to chapter 43.03 RCW.

(5) The expenses of the task force must be paid jointly by the senate and the house of representatives. Task force expenditures are subject to approval by the senate facilities and operations committee and the house of representatives executive rules committee, or their successor committees.

(6) The task force must provide recommendations, if any, to the appropriate legislative committees, as described under subsection (2)(c) of this section and consistent with RCW 43.01.036, by November 1, 2017.

(7) This section expires June 30, 2018."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wellman: "I rise, I hope, to stand for Washington values. Yesterday, as we sat in the Senate the Jewish Community Center on Mercer Island received a bomb threat. Hundreds of men, women and children were forced to evacuate. Streets were closed. There was a great deal of fear and turmoil. I think it is beyond belief that in our state we are experiencing this kind of terrorism. It must be condemned on every level, whether it is hate speak or actions such as these, and I hope I stand for all in this Senate when I say that we must go back to our communities and talk about what is going on in this world. Our speech is inciting others to feel empowered and we must stop that so I am using everything that I have at my disposal to share with my communities in the 41st and around the state, my Facebook page and social media, that this is not something that we tolerate. This is a place that welcomes people. This is a state that is anti-hate. Thank you Mr. President."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5038, by Senators Padden, Pedersen, Kuderer, Darneille, Frockt and Angel

Concerning disclosures regarding incentivized evidence and testimony.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Padden, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5038 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5038 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Padden moved that the following floor striking amendment no. 25 by Senators Padden and Pedersen be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The definitions in this section apply throughout this section and sections 2 and 3 of this act unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Benefit" means any deal, payment, promise, leniency, inducement, or other advantage offered by the state to an informant in exchange for his or her testimony, information, or statement, but excludes a court-issued protection order. "Benefit" also excludes assistance that is ordinarily provided to both a prosecution and defense witness to facilitate his or her presence in court including, but not limited to, lodging, meals, travel expenses, or parking fees.

(2)(a) "Informant" means the following individuals who provide information or testimony in exchange for, or in expectation of, a benefit:

(i) Any criminal suspect, whether or not he or she is detained or incarcerated; and

(ii) Any incarcerated individual.

(b) An informant does not include an expert witness or a victim of the crime being prosecuted.

(3) "Statement" means an oral, written, or nonverbal communication related to the crime charged.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Before the state may introduce any testimony or statement of an informant in a trial or other criminal proceeding, the state must:

(a) Request the material and information in subsection (2) of this section from the investigative agency and the informant; and

(b) Disclose to the defendant the results of the requests in (a) of this subsection, and any other material and information in subsection (2) of this section that is known, or reasonably available to be discovered, by the state. For purposes of this section, material and information is reasonably available to be discovered if it is obtained through: (i) Communication with the informant; (ii) review of material and information internal to the office of the prosecuting attorney; or (iii) requests for material and information from prosecutors and investigative agencies in jurisdictions where the informant has a criminal record or pending criminal charges.

(2) The following material and information must be disclosed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section:

(a) The complete criminal history of the informant, including any pending criminal charges or investigations in which the informant is a suspect;

(b) Any benefit the state has provided or may provide in the future to the informant in the present case, including any written agreement related to a benefit, and information related to the informant's breach of any conditions contained within the agreement;

(c) The substance, time, and place of any statement allegedly given by the defendant to the informant, and the substance, time, and place of any statement given by the informant to law enforcement implicating the defendant in the crime charged, including the names of all persons present when any statement was allegedly given by the defendant to the informant;

(d) Any instance that the informant modified or recanted his or her testimony or statement, the time and place of the modification or recantation, the nature of the modification or recantation, and the names of the persons who were present at the modification or recantation;

(e) All other cases in which the informant offered to provide information to or testify for the state in exchange for a deal, payment, promise, leniency, inducement, or other advantage, whether or not a deal, payment, promise, leniency, inducement, or other advantage was offered or received;

(f) All other cases in which the informant testified for the state in exchange for a benefit, or in which the informant received any benefit as a result of that testimony;

(g) The relationship between the defendant and the informant, including the amount of time they were incarcerated in the same custodial section of the jail or prison;

(h) All evidence corroborating the informant's testimony or statement implicating the defendant in the crime charged; and

(i) Any other material or information in the possession, custody, or control of the state that bears on the credibility or reliability of the informant or the informant's statement.

(3)(a) The state must disclose to the defendant the materials and information required under subsections (1) and (2) of this section as soon as practicable after discovery but no later than fourteen days before the testimony or statement is introduced in a trial or other criminal proceeding.

(b) The state may not introduce any testimony or statement of an informant in a trial or other criminal proceeding unless the materials and information required to be disclosed in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are disclosed in accordance with this subsection (3).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If the state fails to disclose the materials and information required under section 2 of this act, the court must order the state to immediately disclose the material and information, and may:

(1) Grant a continuance, unless waived by the defendant;

(2) Preclude the informant from testifying or the prior statement from being introduced;

(3) Dismiss the action; or

(4) Enter such other order as it deems just under the circumstances.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Nothing in sections 1 through 3 of this act diminishes federal constitutional disclosure obligations to criminal defendants or any related obligations under Washington case law, statutes, or court rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 4 of this act are each added to chapter 10.58 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "testimony;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and adding new sections to chapter 10.58 RCW."

MOTION

FIFTY FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

Senator Warnick moved that the following floor striking amendment no. 12 by Senator Warnick be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 13. RCW 77.55.181 and 2014 c 120 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1)(a) In order to receive the permit review and approval process created in this section, a fish habitat enhancement project must meet the criteria under this section and must be a project to accomplish one or more of the following tasks:

(i) Elimination of human-made or caused fish passage barriers, including:

(A) Culvert repair and replacement; and

(B) Fish passage barrier removal projects that comply with the forest practices rules, as the term "forest practices rules" is defined in RCW 76.09.020;

(ii) Restoration of an eroded or unstable stream bank employing the principle of bioengineering, including limited use of rock as a stabilization only at the toe of the bank, and with primary emphasis on using native vegetation to control the erosive forces of flowing water; or

(iii) Placement of woody debris or other instream structures that benefit naturally reproducing fish stocks.

(b) The department shall develop size or scale threshold tests to determine if projects accomplishing any of these tasks should be evaluated under the process created in this section or under other project review and approval processes. A project proposal shall not be reviewed under the process created in this section if the department determines that the scale of the project raises concerns regarding public health and safety.

(c) A fish habitat enhancement project must be approved in one of the following ways in order to receive the permit review and approval process created in this section:

(i) By the department pursuant to chapter 77.95 or 77.100 RCW;

(ii) By the sponsor of a watershed restoration plan as provided in chapter 89.08 RCW;

(iii) By the department as a department-sponsored fish habitat enhancement or restoration project;

(iv) Through the review and approval process for the jobs for the environment program;

(v) Through the review and approval process for conservation district-sponsored projects, where the project complies with design standards established by the conservation commission through interagency agreement with the United States fish and wildlife service and the natural resource conservation service;

(vi) Through a formal grant program established by the legislature or the department for fish habitat enhancement or restoration;

(vii) Through the department of transportation's environmental retrofit program as a stand-alone fish passage barrier correction project;

(viii) Through a local, state, or federally approved fish barrier removal grant program designed to assist local governments in implementing stand-alone fish passage barrier corrections;

(ix) By a city or county for a stand-alone fish passage barrier correction project funded by the city or county; ~~(and)~~

(x) Through the approval process established for forest practices hydraulic projects in chapter 76.09 RCW; or

(xi) Through other formal review and approval processes established by the legislature.

(2) Fish habitat enhancement projects meeting the criteria of subsection (1) of this section are expected to result in beneficial impacts to the environment. Decisions pertaining to fish habitat enhancement projects meeting the criteria of subsection (1) of this section and being reviewed and approved according to the provisions of this section are not subject to the requirements of RCW 43.21C.030(2)(c).

(3)(a) A permit is required for projects that meet the criteria of subsection (1) of this section and are being reviewed and approved under this section. An applicant shall use a joint aquatic resource permit application form developed by the office of regulatory assistance to apply for approval under this chapter. On the same day, the applicant shall provide copies of the completed application form to the department and to each appropriate local government. Applicants for a forest practices hydraulic project that are not otherwise required to submit a joint aquatic resource permit application must submit a copy of their forest practices application to the appropriate local government.

(b) Local governments shall accept the application identified in this section as notice of the proposed project. ~~(The department)~~ A local government shall ((provide)) be provided with a fifteen-day comment period during which it ((will receive)) may transmit comments regarding environmental impacts to the department or, for forest practices hydraulic projects, to the department of natural resources.

(c) ~~((Within forty-five days))~~ Except for forest practices hydraulic projects, the department shall either issue a permit, with or without conditions, deny approval, or make a determination that the review and approval process created by this section is not appropriate for the proposed project within forty-five days. The department shall base this determination on identification during the comment period of adverse impacts that cannot be mitigated by the conditioning of a permit. Permitting decisions over forest practices hydraulic approvals must be made consistent with chapter 76.09 RCW.

(d) If the department determines that the review and approval process created by this section is not appropriate for the proposed project, the department shall notify the applicant and the appropriate local governments of its determination. The applicant may reapply for approval of the project under other review and approval processes.

(e) Any person aggrieved by the approval, denial, conditioning, or modification of a permit other than a forest practices hydraulic project under this section may appeal the decision as provided in RCW 77.55.021(8). Appeals of a forest practices hydraulic project may be made as provided in chapter 76.09 RCW.

(4) No local government may require permits or charge fees for fish habitat enhancement projects that meet the criteria of subsection (1) of this section and that are reviewed and approved according to the provisions of this section.

(5) No civil liability may be imposed by any court on the state or its officers and employees for any adverse impacts resulting from a fish enhancement project permitted by the department or the department of natural resources under the criteria of this section except upon proof of gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "77.55.181;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 77.55.181."

Senator Warnick spoke in favor of adoption of the striking amendment.

The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of floor striking amendment no. 12 by Senator Warnick to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5393.

The motion by Senator Warnick carried and floor striking amendment no. 12 was adopted by voice vote.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5679, by Senators Warnick, Wellman, Sheldon, Rivers, Wilson, Cleveland, Walsh, Takko and Rolfes

Concerning the authority of port districts to provide telecommunications services.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnick, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5679 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5679 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Short moved that the following floor striking amendment no. 26 by Senator Short be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The legislature finds that:

(1) Adequate access to telecommunications facilities and services, comparable to those offered in urban areas, is essential to the economic well-being of communities in rural Washington state.

(2) Many communities, particularly in rural areas, do not have adequate access to telecommunications facilities and services.

(3) Specifying that port districts in these areas have authority to enter into contracts to attract private telecommunications companies may help to create a sufficient market for the provision of adequate retail telecommunications services.

Sec. 15. RCW 53.08.370 and 2000 c 81 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A rural port district in existence on June 8, 2000, ~~((may))~~ and port districts located in counties with a population less than seven hundred thousand are eligible to construct, purchase, acquire, develop, finance, lease, license, handle, provide, add to, contract for, interconnect, alter, improve, repair, operate, and maintain any telecommunications facilities within or without the district's limits utilizing unlit optical fiber for the following purposes:

(a) For the district's own use; and

(b) For the provision of wholesale telecommunications services within or without the district's limits. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to authorize ~~((rural))~~ eligible port districts to provide telecommunications services to end users.

(2) ~~((A rural))~~ Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, port districts providing wholesale telecommunications services under this section shall ensure that rates, terms, and conditions for such services are not unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential. Rates, terms, and conditions are discriminatory or preferential when a ~~((rural))~~ port district offering such rates, terms, and conditions to an entity for wholesale telecommunications services does not offer substantially similar rates, terms, and conditions to all other entities seeking substantially similar services.

(3) When a ~~((rural))~~ port district establishes a separate utility function for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services under this section, it shall account for any and all revenues and expenditures related to its wholesale telecommunications facilities and services separately from revenues and expenditures related to its internal telecommunications operations. Any revenues received from the provision of wholesale telecommunications services must be dedicated to the utility function that includes the provision of wholesale telecommunications services for costs incurred to build and maintain the telecommunications facilities until such time as any bonds or other financing instruments executed after June 8, 2000, and used to finance the telecommunications facilities are discharged or retired.

(4) When a ((~~rural~~)) port district establishes a separate utility function for the provision of wholesale telecommunications services under this section, all telecommunications services rendered by the separate function to the district for the district's internal telecommunications needs shall be charged at its true and full value. A ((~~rural~~)) port district may not charge its nontelecommunications operations rates that are preferential or discriminatory compared to those it charges entities purchasing wholesale telecommunications services.

(5) A ((~~rural~~)) port district under this section shall not exercise powers of eminent domain to acquire telecommunications facilities or contractual rights held by any other person or entity to telecommunications facilities.

(6) Except as otherwise specifically provided, a ((~~rural~~)) port district may exercise any of the powers granted to it under this title and other applicable laws in carrying out the powers authorized under this section. Nothing in chapter 81, Laws of 2000 limits any existing authority of a rural port district under this title.

(7) A port district under this section may select a telecommunications company to operate all or a portion of the port district's telecommunications facilities. The company may be the exclusive provider of telecommunications services to end users under terms specified in the contract with the port district. For purposes of this section, "telecommunications company" means any for-profit entity owned by investors that sells telecommunications services to end users. Nothing in this subsection (7) is intended to limit or otherwise restrict any other authority provided by law.

Sec. 16. RCW 53.08.380 and 2000 c 81 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person or entity that has requested wholesale telecommunications services from a rural port district or port district as identified in RCW 53.08.370(1) may petition the commission under the procedures set forth in RCW 80.04.110 (1) through (3) if it believes the district's rates, terms, and conditions are unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential, except as provided in RCW 53.08.370. The person or entity shall provide the district notice of its intent to petition the commission and an opportunity to review within thirty days the rates, terms, and conditions as applied to it prior to submitting its petition. In determining whether a district is providing discriminatory or preferential rates, terms, and conditions, the commission may consider such matters as service quality, technical feasibility of connection points on the district's telecommunications facilities, time of response to service requests, system capacity, and other matters reasonably related to the provision of wholesale telecommunications services. If the commission, after notice and hearing, determines that a rural port district's rates, terms, and conditions are unduly or unreasonably discriminatory or preferential, it shall issue a final order finding noncompliance with this section and setting forth the specific areas of apparent noncompliance. An order imposed under this section shall be enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The commission may order a rural port district or port district as identified in RCW 53.08.370(1) to pay a share of the costs incurred by the commission in adjudicating or enforcing this section.

(3) Without limiting other remedies at law or equity, the commission and prevailing party may also seek injunctive relief to compel compliance with an order.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the commission's authority and jurisdiction with respect to actions, proceedings, or orders permitted or contemplated for a state commission under the federal telecommunications act of 1996, P.L. 104-104 (110 Stat. 56)."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 53.08.370 and 53.08.380; and creating a new section."

Senators Short and Carlyle spoke in favor of adoption of the striking amendment.

The Vice President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of floor striking amendment no. 26 by Senator Short to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5679.

The motion by Senator Short carried and floor striking amendment no. 26 was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnick, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5679 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Lias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

Voting nay: Senator Padden

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5679, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5664, by Senators Braun, Takko, Hawkins and King

Eliminating the reduction in state basic education funding that occurs in counties with federal forestlands.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Wellman moved that the following floor amendment no. 37 by Senator Wellman be adopted:

On page 3, after line 38, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature recognizes that school districts may provide locally funded enrichment to the state's program of basic education. The legislature further recognizes that the system of state and local funding for school districts is in transition during 2017, with the state moving toward full funding of its statutory program of basic education, and with current statutory policies on school district levies scheduled to expire at the end of calendar year 2017. To promote school districts' ability to plan for the future during this transitional period, the legislature intends to extend current statutory policies on local enrichment through calendar year 2018.

Sec. 5. RCW 84.52.0531 and 2013 c 242 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1997, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1996.

(2) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1998 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of (a) plus or minus (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection minus (e) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsections (3) and (4) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (7) of this section;

(b) For districts in a high/nonhigh relationship, the high school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the nonhigh school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the estimated amount of the nonhigh payment due to the high school district under RCW 28A.545.030(3) and 28A.545.050 for the school year commencing the year of the levy;

(c) Except for nonhigh districts under (d) of this subsection, for districts in an interdistrict cooperative agreement, the nonresident school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the resident school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the per pupil basic education allocation included in the nonresident district's levy base under subsection (3) of this section multiplied by:

(i) The number of full-time equivalent students served from the resident district in the prior school year; multiplied by:

(ii) The serving district's maximum levy percentage determined under subsection (7) of this section; increased by:

(iii) The percent increase per full-time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year divided by fifty-five percent;

(d) The levy bases of nonhigh districts participating in an innovation academy cooperative established under RCW 28A.340.080 shall be adjusted by the office of the superintendent of public instruction to reflect each district's proportional share of student enrollment in the cooperative;

(e) The district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced by the maximum amount of state matching funds for which the district is eligible under RCW 28A.500.010.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 2005 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in

(a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year and the amounts determined under subsection (4) of this section, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Special education;

(iii) Education of highly capable students;

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;

(v) Food services; and

(vi) Statewide block grant programs; and

(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(4) For levy collections in calendar years 2005 through ~~(2017)~~ 2018, in addition to the allocations included under subsection (3)(a) through (c) of this section, a district's levy base shall also include the following:

(a)(i) For levy collections in calendar year 2010, the difference between the allocation the district would have received in the current school year had RCW 84.52.068 not been amended by chapter 19, Laws of 2003 1st sp. sess. and the allocation the district received in the current school year pursuant to RCW 28A.505.220;

(ii) For levy collections in calendar years 2011 through ~~(2017)~~ 2018, the allocation rate the district would have received in the prior school year using the Initiative 728 rate multiplied by the full-time equivalent student enrollment used to calculate the Initiative 728 allocation for the prior school year; and

(b) The difference between the allocations the district would have received the prior school year using the Initiative 732 base and the allocations the district actually received the prior school year pursuant to RCW 28A.400.205.

(5) For levy collections in calendar years 2011 through ~~(2017)~~ 2018, in addition to the allocations included under subsections (3)(a) through (c) and (4)(a) and (b) of this section, a district's levy base shall also include the difference between an allocation of fifty-three and two-tenths certificated instructional staff units per thousand full-time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through four enrolled in the prior school year and the allocation of certificated instructional staff units per thousand full-time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through four that the district actually received in the prior school year, except that the levy base for a school district whose allocation in the 2009-10 school year was less than fifty-three and two-tenths certificated instructional staff units per thousand full-time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through four shall include the difference between the allocation the district actually received in the 2009-10 school year and the allocation the district actually received in the prior school year.

(6) For levy collections beginning in calendar year 2014 and thereafter, in addition to the allocations included under subsections (3)(a) through (c), (4)(a) and (b), and (5) of this section, a district's levy base shall also include the funds allocated by the superintendent of public instruction under RCW 28A.715.040 to a school that is the subject of a state-tribal education compact and that formerly contracted with the school district to provide educational services through an interlocal agreement and received funding from the district.

(7)(a) A district's maximum levy percentage shall be twenty-four percent in 2010 and twenty-eight percent in 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018 and twenty-four percent every year thereafter;

(b) For qualifying districts, in addition to the percentage in (a) of this subsection the grandfathered percentage determined as follows:

(i) For 1997, the difference between the district's 1993 maximum levy percentage and twenty percent; and

(ii) For 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018, the percentage calculated as follows:

(A) Multiply the grandfathered percentage for the prior year times the district's levy base determined under subsection (3) of this section;

(B) Reduce the result of (b)(ii)(A) of this subsection by any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (8) of this section that are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(C) Divide the result of (b)(ii)(B) of this subsection by the district's levy base; and

(D) Take the greater of zero or the percentage calculated in (b)(ii)(C) of this subsection.

(8) "Levy reduction funds" shall mean increases in state funds from the prior school year for programs included under subsections (3) and (4) of this section: (a) That are not attributable to enrollment changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments; and (b) that are or were specifically identified as levy reduction funds in the appropriations act. If levy reduction funds are dependent on formula factors which would not be finalized until after the start of the current school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall estimate the total amount of levy reduction funds by using prior school year data in place of current school year data. Levy reduction funds shall not include moneys received by school districts from cities or counties.

(9) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Prior school year" means the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(b) "Current school year" means the year immediately following the prior school year.

(c) "Initiative 728 rate" means the allocation rate at which the student achievement program would have been funded under chapter 3, Laws of 2001, if all annual adjustments to the initial 2001 allocation rate had been made in previous years and in each subsequent year as provided for under chapter 3, Laws of 2001.

(d) "Initiative 732 base" means the prior year's state allocation for annual salary cost-of-living increases for district employees in the state-funded salary base as it would have been calculated under chapter 4, Laws of 2001, if each annual cost-of-living increase allocation had been provided in previous years and in each subsequent year.

(10) Funds collected from transportation vehicle fund tax levies shall not be subject to the levy limitations in this section.

(11) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(12) For calendar year 2009, the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall recalculate school district levy authority to reflect levy rates certified by school districts for calendar year 2009.

Sec. 6. RCW 84.52.0531 and 2010 c 237 s 2 and 2010 c 99 s 11 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1997, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1996.

(2) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1998 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of (a) plus or minus (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection minus (e) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (4) of this section;

(b) For districts in a high/nonhigh relationship, the high school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the nonhigh school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the estimated amount of the nonhigh payment due to the high school district under RCW 28A.545.030(3) and 28A.545.050 for the school year commencing the year of the levy;

(c) Except for nonhigh districts under (d) of this subsection, for districts in an interdistrict cooperative agreement, the nonresident school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the resident school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the per pupil basic education allocation included in the nonresident district's levy base under subsection (3) of this section multiplied by:

(i) The number of full-time equivalent students served from the resident district in the prior school year; multiplied by:

(ii) The serving district's maximum levy percentage determined under subsection (4) of this section; increased by:

(iii) The percent increase per full-time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year divided by fifty-five percent;

(d) The levy bases of nonhigh districts participating in an innovation academy cooperative established under RCW 28A.340.080 shall be adjusted by the office of the superintendent of public instruction to reflect each district's proportional share of student enrollment in the cooperative;

(e) The district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced by the maximum amount of state matching funds for which the district is eligible under RCW 28A.500.010.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1998 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in (a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Special education;

(iii) Education of highly capable students;

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;

(v) Food services; and

(vi) Statewide block grant programs; and

(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(4)(a) A district's maximum levy percentage shall be twenty-four percent in 2010 and twenty-eight percent in 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018 and twenty-four percent every year thereafter;

(b) For qualifying districts, in addition to the percentage in (a) of this subsection the grandfathered percentage determined as follows:

(i) For 1997, the difference between the district's 1993 maximum levy percentage and twenty percent; ~~((and))~~

(ii) For 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018, the percentage calculated as follows:

(A) Multiply the grandfathered percentage for the prior year times the district's levy base determined under subsection (3) of this section;

(B) Reduce the result of (b)(ii)(A) of this subsection by any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (5) of this section that are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(C) Divide the result of (b)(ii)(B) of this subsection by the district's levy base; and

(D) Take the greater of zero or the percentage calculated in (b)(ii)(C) of this subsection;

(iii) For ~~((2018))~~ 2019 and thereafter, the percentage shall be calculated as follows:

(A) Multiply the grandfathered percentage for the prior year times the district's levy base determined under subsection (3) of this section;

(B) Reduce the result of (b)(iii)(A) of this subsection by any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (5) of this section that are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(C) Divide the result of (b)(iii)(B) of this subsection by the district's levy base; and

(D) Take the greater of zero or the percentage calculated in (b)(iii)(C) of this subsection.

(5) "Levy reduction funds" shall mean increases in state funds from the prior school year for programs included under subsection (3) of this section: (a) That are not attributable to enrollment changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments; and (b) that are or were specifically identified as levy reduction funds in the appropriations act. If levy reduction funds are dependent on formula factors which would not be finalized until after the start of the current school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall estimate the total amount of levy reduction funds by using prior school year data in place of current school year data. Levy reduction funds shall not include moneys received by school districts from cities or counties.

(6) For the purposes of this section, "prior school year" means the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(7) For the purposes of this section, "current school year" means the year immediately following the prior school year.

(8) Funds collected from transportation vehicle fund tax levies shall not be subject to the levy limitations in this section.

(9) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and regulations and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fain: "Thank you Mr. President. It is my belief upon reading this amendment that it is impermissibly outside the scope of the underlying legislation, thus violating the rules of the Senate and our Washington values."

REMARKS BY THE VICE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Vice President Pro Tempore Honeyford: "In the tradition of the Senate we have, when one side has spoken, you may speak."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WELLMAN

Senator Wellman: "Thank you Mr. President. Under prior Lieutenant Governor rulings, the test for scope and object requires looking at whether the proposed amendment addresses the same subject matter and serves the same purpose as the underlying bill. Subject matter and purpose of the underlying bill is to ensure that school districts have full access to full funding streams in order to support tier schools and their students. The underlying bill will help prevent 144 school districts from losing approximately five million dollars of funding next year. The amendment before you is exactly the same purpose. To ensure all our school districts can continue to have full access to the funding they need to best support our students. The amendment before us will help over 240 school districts from losing almost 400 million dollars in funding. And for these reasons I ask that you rule the Vice President Pro Tempore Honeyford resumed the chair.

The Senate immediately resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 5664.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

Vice President Pro Tempore Honeyford: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Fain as to the scope and object of floor amendment no. 37, by Senator Wellman, to Senate Bill No. 5664, the President finds and rules as follows:

Senate Bill No. 5664 is a narrow measure which does one discrete thing. It eliminates the reduction of school district basic education allocations due to receipt of federal forest revenues. It is not a general education funding bill.

The amendment attempts to hang the levy cliff bill, House Bill No. 1059. While the President admires this bold move, he cannot find that Senate Bill No. 5664 is broad enough to allow this amendment.

The President, therefore, finds that the amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

MOTION

Senator Wellman moved that the following floor amendment no. 42 by Senator Wellman be adopted:

On page 3, after line 38, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature recognizes that school districts may provide locally funded enrichment to the state's program of basic education. The legislature further recognizes that the system of state and local funding for school districts is in transition during 2017, with the state moving toward full funding of its statutory program of basic education, and with current statutory policies on school district levies scheduled to expire at the end of calendar year 2017. To promote school districts' ability to plan for the future during this transitional period, the legislature intends to extend current statutory policies on local enrichment through calendar year 2018.

Sec. 5. RCW 84.52.0531 and 2013 c 242 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1997, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1996.

(2) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1998 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of (a) plus or minus (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection minus (e) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsections (3) and (4) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (7) of this section;

(b) For districts in a high/nonhigh relationship, the high school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the nonhigh school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the estimated amount of the nonhigh payment due to the high school district under RCW 28A.545.030(3) and 28A.545.050 for the school year commencing the year of the levy;

(c) Except for nonhigh districts under (d) of this subsection, for districts in an interdistrict cooperative agreement, the nonresident school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the resident school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the per pupil basic education allocation included in the nonresident district's levy base under subsection (3) of this section multiplied by:

(i) The number of full-time equivalent students served from the resident district in the prior school year; multiplied by:

(ii) The serving district's maximum levy percentage determined under subsection (7) of this section; increased by:

(iii) The percent increase per full-time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year divided by fifty-five percent;

(d) The levy bases of nonhigh districts participating in an innovation academy cooperative established under RCW 28A.340.080 shall be adjusted by the office of the superintendent of public instruction to reflect each district's proportional share of student enrollment in the cooperative;

(e) The district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced by the maximum amount of state matching funds for which the district is eligible under RCW 28A.500.010.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 2005 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in (a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year and the amounts determined under subsection (4) of this section, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Special education;

(iii) Education of highly capable students;

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;

(v) Food services; and

(vi) Statewide block grant programs; and

(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(4) For levy collections in calendar years 2005 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018, in addition to the allocations included under subsection (3)(a) through (c) of this section, a district's levy base shall also include the following:

(a)(i) For levy collections in calendar year 2010, the difference between the allocation the district would have received in the current school year had RCW 84.52.068 not been amended by chapter 19, Laws of 2003 1st sp. sess. and the allocation the district received in the current school year pursuant to RCW 28A.505.220;

(ii) For levy collections in calendar years 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018, the allocation rate the district would have received in the prior school year using the Initiative 728 rate multiplied by the full-time equivalent student enrollment used to calculate the Initiative 728 allocation for the prior school year; and

(b) The difference between the allocations the district would have received the prior school year using the Initiative 732 base and the allocations the district actually received the prior school year pursuant to RCW 28A.400.205.

FIFTY FIRST DAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

(5) For levy collections in calendar years 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018, in addition to the allocations included under subsections (3)(a) through (c) and (4)(a) and (b) of this section, a district's levy base shall also include the difference between an allocation of fifty-three and two-tenths certificated instructional staff units per thousand full-time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through four enrolled in the prior school year and the allocation of certificated instructional staff units per thousand full-time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through four that the district actually received in the prior school year, except that the levy base for a school district whose allocation in the 2009-10 school year was less than fifty-three and two-tenths certificated instructional staff units per thousand full-time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through four shall include the difference between the allocation the district actually received in the 2009-10 school year and the allocation the district actually received in the prior school year.

(6) For levy collections beginning in calendar year 2014 and thereafter, in addition to the allocations included under subsections (3)(a) through (c), (4)(a) and (b), and (5) of this section, a district's levy base shall also include the funds allocated by the superintendent of public instruction under RCW 28A.715.040 to a school that is the subject of a state-tribal education compact and that formerly contracted with the school district to provide educational services through an interlocal agreement and received funding from the district.

(7)(a) A district's maximum levy percentage shall be twenty-four percent in 2010 and twenty-eight percent in 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018 and twenty-four percent every year thereafter;

(b) For qualifying districts, in addition to the percentage in (a) of this subsection the grandfathered percentage determined as follows:

(i) For 1997, the difference between the district's 1993 maximum levy percentage and twenty percent; and

(ii) For 2011 through 2017 and through 2018 for school districts impacted by the provisions in Senate Bill 5664, the percentage calculated as follows:

(A) Multiply the grandfathered percentage for the prior year times the district's levy base determined under subsection (3) of this section;

(B) Reduce the result of (b)(ii)(A) of this subsection by any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (8) of this section that are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(C) Divide the result of (b)(ii)(B) of this subsection by the district's levy base; and

(D) Take the greater of zero or the percentage calculated in (b)(ii)(C) of this subsection.

(8) "Levy reduction funds" shall mean increases in state funds from the prior school year for programs included under subsections (3) and (4) of this section: (a) That are not attributable to enrollment changes, compensation increases, or inflationary adjustments; and (b) that are or were specifically identified as levy reduction funds in the appropriations act. If levy reduction funds are dependent on formula factors which would not be finalized until after the start of the current school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall estimate the total amount of levy reduction funds by using prior school year data in place of current school year data. Levy reduction funds shall not include moneys received by school districts from cities or counties.

(9) The definitions in this subsection apply throughout this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Prior school year" means the most recent school year completed prior to the year in which the levies are to be collected.

(b) "Current school year" means the year immediately following the prior school year.

(c) "Initiative 728 rate" means the allocation rate at which the student achievement program would have been funded under chapter 3, Laws of 2001, if all annual adjustments to the initial 2001 allocation rate had been made in previous years and in each subsequent year as provided for under chapter 3, Laws of 2001.

(d) "Initiative 732 base" means the prior year's state allocation for annual salary cost-of-living increases for district employees in the state-funded salary base as it would have been calculated under chapter 4, Laws of 2001, if each annual cost-of-living increase allocation had been provided in previous years and in each subsequent year.

(10) Funds collected from transportation vehicle fund tax levies shall not be subject to the levy limitations in this section.

(11) The superintendent of public instruction shall develop rules and inform school districts of the pertinent data necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(12) For calendar year 2009, the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall recalculate school district levy authority to reflect levy rates certified by school districts for calendar year 2009.

Sec. 6. RCW 84.52.0531 and 2010 c 237 s 2 and 2010 c 99 s 11 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The maximum dollar amount which may be levied by or for any school district for maintenance and operation support under the provisions of RCW 84.52.053 shall be determined as follows:

(1) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1997, the maximum dollar amount shall be calculated pursuant to the laws and rules in effect in November 1996.

(2) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1998 and thereafter, the maximum dollar amount shall be the sum of (a) plus or minus (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection minus (e) of this subsection:

(a) The district's levy base as defined in subsection (3) of this section multiplied by the district's maximum levy percentage as defined in subsection (4) of this section;

(b) For districts in a high/nonhigh relationship, the high school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the nonhigh school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the estimated amount of the nonhigh payment due to the high school district under RCW 28A.545.030(3) and 28A.545.050 for the school year commencing the year of the levy;

(c) Except for nonhigh districts under (d) of this subsection, for districts in an interdistrict cooperative agreement, the nonresident school district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced and the resident school district's maximum levy amount shall be increased by an amount equal to the per pupil basic education allocation included in the nonresident district's levy base under subsection (3) of this section multiplied by:

(i) The number of full-time equivalent students served from the resident district in the prior school year; multiplied by:

(ii) The serving district's maximum levy percentage determined under subsection (4) of this section; increased by:

(iii) The percent increase per full-time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year divided by fifty-five percent;

(d) The levy bases of nonhigh districts participating in an innovation academy cooperative established under RCW 28A.340.080 shall be adjusted by the office of the superintendent of public instruction to reflect each district's proportional share of student enrollment in the cooperative;

(e) The district's maximum levy amount shall be reduced by the maximum amount of state matching funds for which the district is eligible under RCW 28A.500.010.

(3) For excess levies for collection in calendar year 1998 and thereafter, a district's levy base shall be the sum of allocations in (a) through (c) of this subsection received by the district for the prior school year, including allocations for compensation increases, plus the sum of such allocations multiplied by the percent increase per full time equivalent student as stated in the state basic education appropriation section of the biennial budget between the prior school year and the current school year and divided by fifty-five percent. A district's levy base shall not include local school district property tax levies or other local revenues, or state and federal allocations not identified in (a) through (c) of this subsection.

(a) The district's basic education allocation as determined pursuant to RCW 28A.150.250, 28A.150.260, and 28A.150.350;

(b) State and federal categorical allocations for the following programs:

(i) Pupil transportation;

(ii) Special education;

(iii) Education of highly capable students;

(iv) Compensatory education, including but not limited to learning assistance, migrant education, Indian education, refugee programs, and bilingual education;

(v) Food services; and

(vi) Statewide block grant programs; and

(c) Any other federal allocations for elementary and secondary school programs, including direct grants, other than federal impact aid funds and allocations in lieu of taxes.

(4)(a) A district's maximum levy percentage shall be twenty-four percent in 2010 and twenty-eight percent in 2011 through ~~((2017))~~ 2018 and twenty-four percent every year thereafter;

(b) For qualifying districts, in addition to the percentage in (a) of this subsection the grandfathered percentage determined as follows:

(i) For 1997, the difference between the district's 1993 maximum levy percentage and twenty percent; ~~((and))~~

(ii) For 2011 through 2017 and through 2018 for school districts impacted by the provisions in Senate Bill 5664, the percentage calculated as follows:

(A) Multiply the grandfathered percentage for the prior year times the district's levy base determined under subsection (3) of this section;

(B) Reduce the result of (b)(ii)(A) of this subsection by any levy reduction funds as defined in subsection (5) of this section that are to be allocated to the district for the current school year;

(C) Divide the result of (b)(ii)(B) of this subsection by the district's levy base; and revenues. This a completely separate piece of policy and it would be impermissible to add this to the underlying bill.”

Senator Wellman: “Thank you Mr. President. I believe this is within the scope. It leads directly to the 144 school districts that are contained within the good Senator’s bill and would save the five million dollars of the school funding that the district would be losing. So, it is very specific. It relates to school funding and the need for school funding, and I think it is entirely within the scope. Thank you.”

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

Vice President Pro Tempore Honeyford: “In ruling upon the Point of Order raised by Senator Fain as to the scope and object of floor amendment no. 42 to Senate Bill 5664, the President finds that this amendment was not significantly different from the last amendment and this amendment is also out of order.”

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 2106, by Representatives Koster, Hudgins, Taylor and Shea

Concerning election year restrictions on state legislators.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Schoesler moved that the following committee amendment by the Committee on Ways & Means be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The legislature finds that the prohibition on the use of public resources for campaign purposes serves an important purpose, but that the period prohibiting state legislators from communicating with constituents at public expense is unnecessary once the election, and the campaign itself, has ended. Furthermore, the delay in constituent outreach after the election only hinders a legislator's ability to quickly and effectively respond to requests and keep the public informed about current state issues, and the various deadlines relating to mailed, emailed, and web site communications are confusing and need to be harmonized. For these reasons, the legislature intends to change mailed, emailed, and web site communication deadlines to the same time periods, in order to allow legislators to actively engage with the public on official legislative business in a timely and effective manner.

Sec. 9. RCW 42.52.180 and 2011 c 60 s 30 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No state officer or state employee may use or authorize the use of facilities of an agency, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of assisting a campaign for election of a person to an office or for the promotion of or opposition to a ballot proposition. Knowing acquiescence by a person with authority to direct, control, or influence the actions of the state officer or state employee using public resources in violation of this section constitutes a violation of this section. Facilities of an agency include, but are not limited to, use of stationery, postage, machines, and equipment, use of state employees of the agency during working hours, vehicles, office space, publications of the agency, and clientele lists of persons served by the agency.

(2) This section shall not apply to the following activities:

(a) Action taken at an open public meeting by members of an elected legislative body to express a collective decision, or to actually vote upon a motion, proposal, resolution, order, or ordinance, or to support or oppose a ballot proposition as long as (i) required notice of the meeting includes the title and number of the ballot proposition, and (ii) members of the legislative body or members of the public are afforded an approximately equal opportunity for the expression of an opposing view;

(b) A statement by an elected official in support of or in opposition to any ballot proposition at an open press conference or in response to a specific inquiry. For the purposes of this subsection, it is not a violation of this section for an elected official to respond to an inquiry regarding a ballot proposition, to make incidental remarks concerning a ballot proposition in an official communication, or otherwise comment on a ballot proposition without an actual, measurable expenditure of public funds. The ethics boards shall adopt by rule a definition of measurable expenditure;

(c) The maintenance of official legislative web sites throughout the year, regardless of pending elections. The web sites may contain any discretionary material which was also specifically prepared for the legislator in the course of his or her duties as a legislator, including newsletters and press releases. The official legislative web sites of legislators seeking reelection or election to any office shall not be altered (~~between June 30th and November 15th~~), other than during a special legislative session, beginning on the first day of the declaration of candidacy filing period specified in RCW 29A.24.050 through the date of certification of the general election of the election year. The web site shall not be used for campaign purposes;

(d) Activities that are part of the normal and regular conduct of the office or agency; and

(e) De minimis use of public facilities by statewide elected officials and legislators incidental to the preparation or delivery of permissible communications, including written and verbal communications initiated by them of their views on ballot propositions that foreseeably may affect a matter that falls within their constitutional or statutory responsibilities.

(3) As to state officers and employees, this section operates to the exclusion of RCW 42.17A.555.

Sec. 10. RCW 42.52.185 and 2011 c 60 s 31 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) During the (~~twelve-month~~) period beginning on December 1st of the year before a general election for a state legislator's election to office and continuing through (~~November 30th immediately after~~) the date of certification of the general election, the legislator may not mail, either by regular mail or (~~electronic mail~~) email, to a constituent at public expense a letter, newsletter, brochure, or other piece of literature, except for routine legislative correspondence, such as scheduling, and as follows:

(a) The legislator may mail two mailings of newsletters to constituents. All newsletters within each mailing of newsletters must be identical as to their content but not as to the constituent name or address. (~~One such mailing may be mailed no later than thirty days after the start of a regular legislative session, except that a legislator appointed during a regular legislative session to fill a vacant seat may have up to thirty days from the date of appointment to send out the first mailing. The other~~) Both mailings (~~may~~) must be mailed (~~no later than sixty days after the end of a regular legislative session~~) before the first day of the declaration of candidacy filing period specified in RCW 29A.24.050.

(b) The legislator may mail an individual letter to (i) an individual constituent who has contacted the legislator regarding the subject matter of the letter during the legislator's current term of office; (ii) an individual constituent who holds a governmental office with jurisdiction over the subject matter of the letter; or (iii) an individual constituent who has received an award or honor of extraordinary distinction of a type that is sufficiently infrequent to be noteworthy to a reasonable person, including, but not limited to: (A) An international or national award such as the Nobel prize or the Pulitzer prize; (B) a state award such as Washington scholar; (C) an Eagle Scout award; and (D) a Medal of Honor.

(c) In those cases where constituents have specifically indicated that they would like to be contacted to receive regular or periodic updates on legislative matters or been added to a distribution list and provided regular opportunities to unsubscribe from that mailing list, legislators may provide such updates by (~~electronic mail~~) email throughout the legislative session and up until (~~thirty days from the conclusion of a legislative session~~) the first day of the declaration of candidacy filing period specified in RCW 29A.24.050. Legislators may also provide these updates by email during any special legislative session.

(2) (~~For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, "legislator" means a legislator who is a "candidate," as defined by RCW 42.17A.005, for any public office.~~

(3)) A violation of this section constitutes use of the facilities of a public office for the purpose of assisting a campaign under RCW 42.52.180.

~~((4))~~ (3) The house of representatives and senate shall specifically limit expenditures per member for the total cost of mailings. Those costs include, but are not limited to, production costs, printing costs, and postage costs. The limits imposed under this subsection apply only to the total expenditures on mailings per member and not to any categorical cost within the total.

~~((5))~~ (4) For purposes of this section~~((7))~~;

(a) "Legislator" means a legislator who is a "candidate," as defined in RCW 42.17A.005, for any public office; and

(b) Persons residing outside the legislative district represented by the legislator are not considered to be constituents, but students, military personnel, or others temporarily employed outside of the district who normally reside in the district are considered to be constituents.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "legislators;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 42.52.180 and 42.52.185; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency."

MOTION

Senator Darneille moved that the following floor amendment no. 32 by Senator Darneille be adopted:

Beginning on page 6, line 1, strike all of section 4 and insert the following:

"Sec. 4. RCW 28A.225.090 and 2016 c 205 s 9 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A court may order a child subject to a petition under RCW 28A.225.035 to do one or more of the following:

(a) Attend the child's current school, and set forth minimum attendance requirements, which shall not consider a suspension day as an unexcused absence;

(b) If there is space available and the program can provide educational services appropriate for the child, order the child to attend another public school, an alternative education program, center, a skill center, dropout prevention program, or another public educational program;

(c) Attend a private nonsectarian school or program including an education center. Before ordering a child to attend an approved or certified private nonsectarian school or program, the court shall: (i) Consider the public and private programs available; (ii) find that placement is in the best interest of the child; and (iii) find that the private school or program is willing to accept the child and will not charge any fees in addition to those established by contract with the student's school district. If the court orders the child to enroll in a private school or program, the child's school district shall contract with the school or program to provide educational services for the child. The school district shall not be required to contract for a weekly rate that exceeds the state general apportionment dollars calculated on a weekly basis generated by the child and received by the district. A school district shall not be required to enter into a contract that is longer than the remainder of the school year. A school district shall not be required to enter into or continue a contract if the child is no longer enrolled in the district;

(d) Submit to a substance abuse assessment if the court finds on the record that such assessment is appropriate to the circumstances and behavior of the child and will facilitate the child's compliance with the mandatory attendance law and, if any assessment, including a urinalysis test ordered under this subsection indicates the use of controlled substances or alcohol, order the minor to abstain from the unlawful consumption of controlled substances or alcohol and adhere to the recommendations of the substance abuse assessment at no expense to the school;

(e) Submit to a mental health evaluation or other diagnostic evaluation and adhere to the recommendations of the drug assessment, at no expense to the school, if the court finds on the court records that such evaluation is appropriate to the circumstances and behavior of the child, and will facilitate the child's compliance with the mandatory attendance law; or

(f) Submit to a temporary placement in a crisis residential center or a HOPE center if the court determines there is an immediate health and safety concern, or a family conflict with the need for mediation.

(2) If the child fails to comply with the court order, the court may ~~((order the child to be subject to detention, as provided in RCW 7.21.030(2)(e), or may))~~ impose alternatives to detention ~~((such as community restitution. Failure by a child to comply with an order issued under this subsection shall not be subject to detention for a period greater than that permitted pursuant to a civil contempt proceeding against a child under chapter 13.32A RCW. Detention ordered under this subsection may be for no longer than seven days. Detention ordered under this subsection shall preferably be served at a secure crisis residential center close to the child's home rather than in a juvenile detention facility. A))~~ consistent with best practice models for reengagement with school. No warrant of arrest for a child under this subsection may ~~((not))~~ be ~~((served on a child inside of school during school hours in a location where other students are present))~~ issued.

(3) Any parent violating any of the provisions of either RCW 28A.225.010, 28A.225.015, or 28A.225.080 shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars for each day of unexcused absence from school. The court shall remit fifty percent of the fine collected under this section to the child's school district. It shall be a defense for a parent charged with violating RCW 28A.225.010 to show that he or she exercised reasonable diligence in attempting to cause a child in his or her custody to attend school or that the child's school did not perform its duties as required in RCW 28A.225.020. The court may order the parent to provide community restitution instead of imposing a fine. Any fine imposed pursuant to this section may be suspended upon the condition that a parent charged with violating RCW 28A.225.010 shall participate with the school and the child in a supervised plan for the child's attendance at school or upon condition that the parent attend a conference or conferences scheduled by a school for the purpose of analyzing the causes of a child's absence.

(4) If a child continues to be truant after entering into a court-approved order with the truancy board under RCW 28A.225.035, the juvenile court shall find the child in contempt, and the court may ~~((order the child to be subject to detention, as provided in RCW 7.21.030(2)(c), or may)) impose alternatives to detention ((such as meaningful community restitution. Failure by a child to comply with an order issued under this subsection may not subject a child to detention for a period greater than that permitted under a civil contempt proceeding against a child under chapter 13.32A RCW)) consistent with best practice models for reengagement with school.~~

(5) Subsections (1), (2), and (4) of this section shall not apply to a six or seven year old child required to attend public school under RCW 28A.225.015."

On page 8, after line 25, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Section 4 of this act takes effect July 1, 2018."

On page 1, beginning on line 3 of the title, after "28A.225.090;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "repealing RCW 28A.225.115; and providing an effective date."

MOTION

Senator Darneille moved that the following floor amendment no. 33 by Senators Darneille and O'Ban be adopted:

On page 8, after line 22, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. RCW 28A.225.151 and 1996 c 134 s 5 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As required under subsection (2) of this section, each school shall document the actions taken under RCW 28A.225.030 and report this information to the school district superintendent who shall compile the data for all the schools in the district and prepare an annual school district report for each school year and submit the report to the superintendent of public instruction. The reports shall be made upon forms furnished by the superintendent of public instruction and shall be transmitted as determined by the superintendent of public instruction.

(2) The reports under subsection (1) of this section shall include:

(a) The number of enrolled students and the number of unexcused absences;

(b) Documentation of the steps taken by the school district under each subsection of RCW 28A.225.020 at the request of the superintendent of public instruction. Each year, by May 1st, the superintendent of public instruction shall select ten school districts to submit the report at the end of the following school year. The ten districts shall represent different areas of the state and be of varied sizes. In addition, the superintendent of public instruction shall require any district that fails to keep appropriate records to submit a full report to the superintendent of public instruction under this subsection. All school districts shall document steps taken under RCW 28A.225.020 in each student's record, and make those records available upon request consistent with the laws governing student records;

(c) The number of enrolled students with ten or more unexcused absences in a school year or five or more unexcused absences in a month during a school year;

(d) A description of any programs or schools developed to serve students who have had five or more unexcused absences in a month or ten in a year including information about the number of students in the program or school and the number of unexcused absences of students during and after participation in the program. The school district shall also describe any placements in an approved private nonsectarian school or program or certified program under a court order under RCW 28A.225.090; ((and))

(e) The number of petitions filed by a school district with the juvenile court; and

(f) Each instance of imposition of detention for failure to comply with a court order under RCW 28A.225.090, with a statement of the reasons for each instance of detention.

(3) A report required under this section shall not disclose the name or other identification of a child or parent.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall collect these reports from all school districts and prepare an annual report for each school year to be submitted to the legislature no later than December 15th of each year."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "28A.225.026," strike "and 28A.225.090" and insert "28A.225.090, and 28A.225.151"

I had the chance, just peripherally, to work with Senator Hill on this particular issue, and I agree now that it has been passed by the Senate I will just add my voice and say just how meaningful it is that we would honor Senator Hill in that way. Thank you Senator Fain for bringing the measure forward."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5173, by Senators Chase, Miloscia, Hunt and Hobbs

Concerning loss prevention reviews by state agencies.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Chase, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5173 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5173 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Chase moved that the following floor striking amendment no. 41 by Senator Chase be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 6. RCW 43.19.003 and 2011 1st sp.s. c 43 s 102 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Department" means the department of enterprise services.

(2) "Director" means the director of enterprise services.

(3) "State agency" means every state agency, office, officer, board, commission, institution, and institution of higher education, including all state universities, regional universities, The Evergreen State College, and community and technical colleges.

Sec. 7. RCW 43.19.782 and 2011 1st sp.s. c 43 s 508 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((The director)) In consultation with the department and upon delegation, a state agency shall appoint a loss prevention review team when the death of a person, serious injury to a person, or other substantial loss is alleged or suspected to be caused at least in part by the actions of a state agency((, unless the director in his or her discretion determines that the incident does not merit review)) except when the death, injury, or substantial loss is already being investigated by another federal or state agency or by the affected state agency pursuant to the federal or state agency requirements including the provisions required under chapter 70.56 RCW. Investigations made pursuant to chapter 70.56 RCW shall continue to be subject to the investigative, reporting, and confidentiality requirements under chapter 70.56 RCW, RCW 43.70.510 and 70.41.200, and the requirements of the department of health. The department may also direct a state agency to conduct a loss prevention review ((team may also be appointed when any other substantial loss occurs as a result of agency policies, litigation or defense practices, or other management practices. When the director decides not to appoint a loss prevention review team he or she shall issue a statement of the reasons for the director's decision. The statement shall be made available on the department's web site. The director's decision pursuant to this section to appoint or not appoint a loss prevention review team shall not be admitted into evidence in a civil or administrative proceeding.)) after consultation with the affected agency as to the purpose, scope, necessary resources, and intended outcomes of the loss prevention review. The department may provide guidance to the state agency conducting the loss prevention review as requested by the state agency.

(2) A loss prevention review team shall consist of at least three ((but no more than five)) persons, and may include independent consultants, contractors, or state employees, but it shall not include any person ((employed by the agency)) directly involved in the loss or risk of loss giving rise to the review, nor any person with testimonial knowledge of the incident to be reviewed. At least one member of the review team shall have expertise relevant to the matter under review.

(3) The loss prevention review team shall review the death, serious injury, or other incident and the circumstances surrounding it, evaluate its causes, and recommend steps to reduce the risk of such incidents occurring in the future. The loss prevention review team shall accomplish these tasks by reviewing relevant documents((,)) and interviewing persons with relevant knowledge((, and reporting its recommendations)). The loss prevention review team must submit a report in writing to the director and the ((director)) head of the state agency involved in the loss or risk of loss ((within the time requested by the director)). The report must include the teams' findings, analyze the causes and contributing factors, analyze future risk, include methods that the agency will use to address and mitigate the risks identified, which may include changes to policies or procedures, and any legislative recommendation necessary to address and carry out the risk treatment strategies identified in the subject report and include the manner in which the agency will measure the effectiveness of its changes. The final report shall not disclose the contents of any documents required by law or regulation to be kept private or confidential, or that are subject to legal privilege or exemption. Reports made by medical facilities under the requirements of chapter 70.56 RCW shall remain subject to the confidentiality provisions, privileges, and exemptions described in chapter 70.56 RCW and RCW 43.70.510, 42.56.360, and 70.41.200, and be provided to the department of health.

FIFTY SECOND DAY, MARCH 1, 2017

(4) ((Pursuant to guidelines established by the director,)) The director may develop and enact rules to implement the provisions of this chapter that apply to all state agency loss prevention review teams. State agencies must notify the department immediately upon becoming aware of a death, serious injury, or other substantial loss that is alleged or suspected to be caused at least in part by the actions of the state agency.

(5) All state agencies shall provide the loss prevention review team ready access to relevant documents in their possession and ready access to their employees.

(6) The director shall submit an annual report to the legislature identifying the reviews conducted in the past year, providing appropriate metrics on effectiveness and efficiency of the loss prevention review team and programs, and summarizing any determinations of trends in incidents such as reductions or increases in the frequency or magnitude of losses and innovative approaches to mitigating risks identified.

Sec. 8. RCW 43.19.783 and 2011 1st sp.s. c 43 s 509 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The final report from ((a)) the state agency's loss prevention review team to the director shall be made public by the director promptly ((upon receipt)) after review, and shall be subject to public disclosure. The final report shall be subject to discovery in a civil or administrative proceeding. However, the final report shall not be admitted into evidence or otherwise used in a civil or administrative proceeding except pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The relevant excerpt or excerpts from the final report of a loss prevention review team may be used to impeach a fact witness in a civil or administrative proceeding only if the party wishing to use the excerpt or excerpts from the report first shows the court by clear and convincing evidence that the witness, in testimony provided in deposition or at trial in the present proceeding, has contradicted his or her previous statements to the loss prevention review team on an issue of fact material to the present proceeding. In that case, the party may use only the excerpt or excerpts necessary to demonstrate the contradiction. This section shall not be interpreted as expanding the scope of material that may be used to impeach a witness.

(3) No member of a loss prevention review team may be examined in a civil or administrative proceeding as to (a) the work of the loss prevention review team, (b) the incident under review, (c) his or her statements, deliberations, thoughts, analyses, or impressions relating to the work of the loss prevention review team or the incident under review, or (d) the statements, deliberations, thoughts, analyses, or impressions of any other member of the loss prevention review team, or any person who provided information to it, relating to the work of the loss prevention review team or the incident under review.

(4) Any document that exists prior to the appointment of a loss prevention review team, or that is created independently of such a team, does not become inadmissible merely because it is reviewed or used by the loss prevention review team. A person does not become unavailable as a witness merely because the person has been interviewed by or has provided a statement to a loss prevention review team. However, if called as a witness, the person may not be examined regarding the person's interactions with the loss prevention review team, including without limitation whether the loss prevention review team interviewed the person, what questions the loss prevention review team asked, and what answers the person provided to the loss prevention review team. This section shall not be construed as restricting the person from testifying fully in any proceeding regarding his or her knowledge of the incident under review.

(5) Documents prepared by or for the loss prevention review team are inadmissible and may not be used in a civil or administrative proceeding, except that excerpts may be used to impeach the credibility of a witness under the same circumstances that excerpts of the final report may be used pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(6) The restrictions set forth in this section shall not apply in a licensing or disciplinary proceeding arising from an agency's effort to revoke or suspend the license of any licensed professional based in whole or in part upon allegations of wrongdoing in connection with the death, injury, or other incident reviewed by the loss prevention review team.

(7) ((Within one hundred twenty days after completion of the final report of a loss prevention review team, the agency under review shall issue to the department a response to the report. The response will indicate (a) which of the report's recommendations the agency hopes to implement, (b) whether implementation of those recommendations will require additional funding or legislation, and (c) whatever other information the director may require. This response shall be considered part of the final report and shall be subject to all provisions of this section that apply to the final report, including without limitation the restrictions on admissibility and use in civil or administrative proceedings and the obligation of the director to make the final report public.

(8))) Nothing in RCW ((43.41.370)) 43.19.782 or this section is intended to limit the scope of a legislative inquiry into or review of an incident that is the subject of a loss prevention review.

((9))) (8) Nothing in RCW ((43.41.370)) 43.19.782 or in this section affects chapter 70.41 RCW and application of that chapter to state-owned or managed hospitals licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "agencies;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 43.19.003, 43.19.782, and 43.19.783."

On motion of Senator Hawkins, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5546 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5546 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Hawkins, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5546 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Hawkins and Van De Wege spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5546 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Lias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5546, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5164, by Senators Keiser, Fain, Rivers and Rolfes

Authorizing grocery store license endorsements allowing beer and wine tastings at certain grocery stores that specialize in the sale of meat, poultry, seafood, or cheese.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Keiser, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5164 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Keiser spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5164.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5164 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; Nays, 8; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, Palumbo, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

Voting nay: Senators Becker, Darneille, Hasegawa, Liias, O'Ban, Padden, Pearson and Van De Wege

SENATE BILL NO. 5164, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 2:42 p.m., on motion of Senator Fain, the Senate was declared to be at ease for the purpose of caucuses.

Senator McCoy announced a meeting of the Democratic Caucus immediately upon going at ease.

EVENING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 4:40 p.m. by President Habib.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5474, by Senator Pearson

Initiating proactive steps to address elk hoof disease.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pearson, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5474 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5474 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Pearson, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5474 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Pearson and Takko spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5474.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5474 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5474, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5540, by Senators Walsh, Darneille, Rivers, Braun and Keiser

Creating an oral health pilot program for adults with diabetes and pregnant women.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walsh, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5540 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5540 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Walsh, the rules were suspended, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5540 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Walsh and Cleveland spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5540 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5540, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5470, by Senators Brown, Hobbs, Rivers, Becker, Takko, Ericksen, Honeyford and Schoesler

Advancing the development of renewable energy by improving the permitting process for geothermal resources exploration.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Brown, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5470 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5470 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

FIFTY SECOND DAY, MARCH 1, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

Senator Carlyle moved that the following floor amendment no. 54 by Senator Carlyle be adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 36, after "hearing))." strike all material through "RCW." on line 38

Senators Carlyle and Brown spoke in favor of adoption of the amendment.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of floor amendment no. 54 by Senator Carlyle on page 2, line 36 to Substitute Senate Bill No. 5470.

The motion by Senator Carlyle carried and floor amendment no. 54 was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Brown, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5470 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Brown and Carlyle spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5470.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5470 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Erickson, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5470, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5128, by Senators Takko, Rivers and Chase

Allowing incremental electricity produced as a result of certain capital investment projects to qualify as an eligible renewable resource under the energy independence act.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Takko moved that the following floor striking amendment no. 39 by Senators Nelson and Takko be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 9. RCW 19.285.030 and 2014 c 45 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Attorney general" means the Washington state office of the attorney general.

(2) "Auditor" means: (a) The Washington state auditor's office or its designee for qualifying utilities under its jurisdiction that are not investor-owned utilities; or (b) an independent auditor selected by a qualifying utility that is not under the jurisdiction of the state auditor and is not an investor-owned utility.

(3)(a) "Biomass energy" includes: (i) Organic by-products of pulping and the wood manufacturing process; (ii) animal manure; (iii) solid organic fuels from wood; (iv) forest or field residues; (v) untreated wooden demolition or construction debris; (vi) food waste and food processing residuals; (vii) liquors derived from algae; (viii) dedicated energy crops; and (ix) yard waste.

(b) "Biomass energy" does not include: (i) Wood pieces that have been treated with chemical preservatives such as creosote, pentachlorophenol, or copper-chrome-arsenic; (ii) wood from old growth forests; or (iii) municipal solid waste.

(4) "Coal transition power" has the same meaning as defined in RCW 80.80.010.

(5) "Commission" means the Washington state utilities and transportation commission.

(6) "Conservation" means any reduction in electric power consumption resulting from increases in the efficiency of energy use, production, or distribution.

(7) "Cost-effective" has the same meaning as defined in RCW 80.52.030.

(8) "Council" means the Washington state apprenticeship and training council within the department of labor and industries.

(9) "Customer" means a person or entity that purchases electricity for ultimate consumption and not for resale.

(10) "Department" means the department of commerce or its successor.

(11) "Distributed generation" means an eligible renewable resource where the generation facility or any integrated cluster of such facilities has a generating capacity of not more than five megawatts.

(12) "Eligible renewable resource" means:

(a) Electricity from a generation facility powered by a renewable resource other than freshwater that commences operation after March 31, 1999, where: (i) The facility is located in the Pacific Northwest; or (ii) the electricity from the facility is delivered into Washington state on a real-time basis without shaping, storage, or integration services;

(b) Incremental electricity produced as a result of efficiency improvements completed after March 31, 1999, to hydroelectric generation projects owned by a qualifying utility and located in the Pacific Northwest where the additional generation does not result in new water diversions or impoundments;

(c) Hydroelectric generation from a project completed after March 31, 1999, where the generation facility is located in irrigation pipes, irrigation canals, water pipes whose primary purpose is for conveyance of water for municipal use, and wastewater pipes located in Washington where the generation does not result in new water diversions or impoundments;

(d) Qualified biomass energy; ((or))

(e) For a qualifying utility that serves customers in other states, electricity from a generation facility powered by a renewable resource other than freshwater that commences operation after March 31, 1999, where: (i) The facility is located within a state in which the qualifying utility serves retail electrical customers; and (ii) the qualifying utility owns the facility in whole or in part or has a long-term contract with the facility of at least twelve months or more; or

(f)(i) Incremental electricity produced as a result of a capital investment completed after January 1, 2010, that increases, relative to a baseline level of generation prior to the capital investment, the amount of electricity generated in a facility that generates qualified biomass energy as defined under subsection (18)(c)(ii) of this section and that commenced operation before March 31, 1999.

(ii) Beginning January 1, 2007, the facility must demonstrate its baseline level of generation over a three-year period prior to the capital investment in order to calculate the amount of incremental electricity produced.

(iii) The facility must demonstrate that the incremental electricity resulted from the capital investment, which does not include expenditures on operation and maintenance in the normal course of business, through direct or calculated measurement.

(13) "Investor-owned utility" has the same meaning as defined in RCW 19.29A.010.

(14) "Load" means the amount of kilowatt-hours of electricity delivered in the most recently completed year by a qualifying utility to its Washington retail customers.

(15)(a) "Nonpower attributes" means all environmentally related characteristics, exclusive of energy, capacity reliability, and other electrical power service attributes, that are associated with the generation of electricity from a renewable resource, including but not limited to the facility's fuel type, geographic location, vintage, qualification as an eligible renewable resource, and avoided emissions of pollutants to the air, soil, or water, and avoided emissions of carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases.

(b) "Nonpower attributes" does not include any aspects, claims, characteristics, and benefits associated with the on-site capture and destruction of methane or other greenhouse gases at a facility through a digester system, landfill gas collection system, or other mechanism, which may be separately marketable as greenhouse gas emission reduction credits, offsets, or similar tradable commodities. However, these separate avoided emissions may not result in or otherwise have the effect of attributing greenhouse gas emissions to the electricity.

(16) "Pacific Northwest" has the same meaning as defined for the Bonneville power administration in section 3 of the Pacific Northwest electric power planning and conservation act (94 Stat. 2698; 16 U.S.C. Sec. 839a).

(17) "Public facility" has the same meaning as defined in RCW 39.35C.010.

(18) "Qualified biomass energy" means electricity produced from a biomass energy facility that: (a) Commenced operation before March 31, 1999; (b) contributes to the qualifying utility's load; and (c) is owned either by: (i) A qualifying utility; or (ii) an industrial facility that is directly interconnected with electricity facilities that are owned by a qualifying utility and capable of carrying electricity at transmission voltage.

(19) "Qualifying utility" means an electric utility, as the term "electric utility" is defined in RCW 19.29A.010, that serves more than twenty-five thousand customers in the state of Washington. The number of customers served may be based on data reported by a utility in form 861, "annual electric utility report," filed with the energy information administration, United States department of energy.

(20) "Renewable energy credit" means a tradable certificate of proof of at least one megawatt-hour of an eligible renewable resource where the generation facility is not powered by freshwater. The certificate includes all of the nonpower attributes associated with that one megawatt-hour of electricity, and the certificate is verified by a renewable energy credit tracking system selected by the department.

(21) "Renewable resource" means: (a) Water; (b) wind; (c) solar energy; (d) geothermal energy; (e) landfill gas; (f) wave, ocean, or tidal power; (g) gas from sewage treatment facilities; (h) biodiesel fuel as defined in RCW 82.29A.135 that is not derived from crops raised on land cleared from old growth or first-growth forests where the clearing occurred after December 7, 2006; or (i) biomass energy.

(22) "Rule" means rules adopted by an agency or other entity of Washington state government to carry out the intent and purposes of this chapter.

(23) "Year" means the twelve-month period commencing January 1st and ending December 31st.

Sec. 10. RCW 19.285.040 and 2014 c 26 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each qualifying utility shall pursue all available conservation that is cost-effective, reliable, and feasible.

(a) By January 1, 2010, using methodologies consistent with those used by the Pacific Northwest electric power and conservation planning council in the most recently published regional power plan as it existed on June 12, 2014, or a subsequent date as may be provided by the department or the commission by rule, each qualifying utility shall identify its achievable cost-effective conservation potential through 2019. Nothing in the rule adopted under this subsection precludes a qualifying utility from using its utility specific conservation measures, values, and assumptions in identifying its achievable cost-effective conservation potential. At least every two years thereafter, the qualifying utility shall review and update this assessment for the subsequent ten-year period.

(b) Beginning January 2010, each qualifying utility shall establish and make publicly available a biennial acquisition target for cost-effective conservation consistent with its identification of achievable opportunities in (a) of this subsection, and meet that target during the subsequent two-year period. At a minimum, each biennial target must be no lower than the qualifying utility's pro rata share for that two-year period of its cost-effective conservation potential for the subsequent ten-year period.

(c)(i) Except as provided in (c)(ii) and (iii) of this subsection, beginning on January 1, 2014, cost-effective conservation achieved by a qualifying utility in excess of its biennial acquisition target may be used to help meet the immediately subsequent two biennial acquisition targets, such that no more than twenty percent of any biennial target may be met with excess conservation savings.

(ii) Beginning January 1, 2014, a qualifying utility may use single large facility conservation savings in excess of its biennial target to meet up to an additional five percent of the immediately subsequent two biennial acquisition targets, such that no more than twenty-five percent of any biennial target may be met with excess conservation savings allowed under all of the provisions of this section combined. For the purposes of this subsection (1)(c)(ii), "single large facility conservation savings" means cost-effective conservation savings achieved in a single biennial period at the premises of a single customer of a qualifying utility whose annual electricity consumption prior to the conservation savings exceeded five average megawatts.

(iii) Beginning January 1, 2012, and until December 31, 2017, a qualifying utility with an industrial facility located in a county with a population between ninety-five thousand and one hundred fifteen thousand that is directly interconnected with electricity facilities that are capable of carrying electricity at transmission voltage(,) may use cost-effective conservation from that industrial facility in excess of its biennial acquisition target to help meet the immediately subsequent two biennial acquisition targets, such that no more than twenty-five percent of any biennial target may be met with excess conservation savings allowed under all of the provisions of this section combined.

FIFTY SECOND DAY, MARCH 1, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

(d) In meeting its conservation targets, a qualifying utility may count high-efficiency cogeneration owned and used by a retail electric customer to meet its own needs. High-efficiency cogeneration is the sequential production of electricity and useful thermal energy from a common fuel source, where, under normal operating conditions, the facility has a useful thermal energy output of no less than thirty-three percent of the total energy output. The reduction in load due to high-efficiency cogeneration shall be: (i) Calculated as the ratio of the fuel chargeable to power heat rate of the cogeneration facility compared to the heat rate on a new and clean basis of a best-commercially available technology combined-cycle natural gas-fired combustion turbine; and (ii) counted towards meeting the biennial conservation target in the same manner as other conservation savings.

(e) The commission may determine if a conservation program implemented by an investor-owned utility is cost-effective based on the commission's policies and practice.

(f) The commission may rely on its standard practice for review and approval of investor-owned utility conservation targets.

(2)(a) Except as provided in (j) of this subsection, each qualifying utility shall use eligible renewable resources or acquire equivalent renewable energy credits, or any combination of them, to meet the following annual targets:

(i) At least three percent of its load by January 1, 2012, and each year thereafter through December 31, 2015;

(ii) At least nine percent of its load by January 1, 2016, and each year thereafter through December 31, 2019; and

(iii) At least fifteen percent of its load by January 1, 2020, and each year thereafter.

(b) A qualifying utility may count distributed generation at double the facility's electrical output if the utility: (i) Owns or has contracted for the distributed generation and the associated renewable energy credits; or (ii) has contracted to purchase the associated renewable energy credits.

(c) In meeting the annual targets in (a) of this subsection, a qualifying utility shall calculate its annual load based on the average of the utility's load for the previous two years.

(d) A qualifying utility shall be considered in compliance with an annual target in (a) of this subsection if: (i) The utility's weather-adjusted load for the previous three years on average did not increase over that time period; (ii) after December 7, 2006, the utility did not commence or renew ownership or incremental purchases of electricity from resources other than coal transition power or renewable resources other than on a daily spot price basis and the electricity is not offset by equivalent renewable energy credits; and (iii) the utility invested at least one percent of its total annual retail revenue requirement that year on eligible renewable resources, renewable energy credits, or a combination of both.

(e) The requirements of this section may be met for any given year with renewable energy credits produced during that year, the preceding year, or the subsequent year. Each renewable energy credit may be used only once to meet the requirements of this section.

(f) In complying with the targets established in (a) of this subsection, a qualifying utility may not count:

(i) Eligible renewable resources or distributed generation where the associated renewable energy credits are owned by a separate entity; or

(ii) Eligible renewable resources or renewable energy credits obtained for and used in an optional pricing program such as the program established in RCW 19.29A.090.

(g) Where fossil and combustible renewable resources are cofired in one generating unit located in the Pacific Northwest where the cofiring commenced after March 31, 1999, the unit shall be considered to produce eligible renewable resources in direct proportion to the percentage of the total heat value represented by the heat value of the renewable resources.

(h)(i) A qualifying utility that acquires an eligible renewable resource or renewable energy credit may count that acquisition at one and two-tenths times its base value:

(A) Where the eligible renewable resource comes from a facility that commenced operation after December 31, 2005; and

(B) Where the developer of the facility used apprenticeship programs approved by the council during facility construction.

(ii) The council shall establish minimum levels of labor hours to be met through apprenticeship programs to qualify for this extra credit.

(i) A qualifying utility shall be considered in compliance with an annual target in (a) of this subsection if events beyond the reasonable control of the utility that could not have been reasonably anticipated or ameliorated prevented it from meeting the renewable energy target. Such events include weather-related damage, mechanical failure, strikes, lockouts, and actions of a governmental authority that adversely affect the generation, transmission, or distribution of an eligible renewable resource under contract to a qualifying utility.

(j)(i) Beginning January 1, 2016, only a qualifying utility that owns or is directly interconnected to a qualified biomass energy facility may use qualified biomass energy to meet its compliance obligation under this subsection.

(ii) A qualifying utility may no longer use electricity and associated renewable energy credits from a qualified biomass energy facility if the associated industrial pulping or wood manufacturing facility ceases operation other than for purposes of maintenance or upgrade.

(k) An industrial facility that hosts a qualified biomass energy facility may only transfer or sell renewable energy credits associated with qualified biomass energy generated at its facility to the qualifying utility with which it is directly interconnected with facilities owned by such a qualifying utility and that are capable of carrying electricity at transmission voltage. The qualifying utility may only use an amount of renewable energy credits associated with qualified biomass energy that are equivalent to the proportionate amount of its annual targets under (a)(ii) and (iii) of this subsection that was created by the load of the industrial facility. A qualifying utility that owns a qualified biomass energy facility may not transfer or sell renewable energy credits associated with qualified biomass energy to another person, entity, or qualifying utility.

(3) Utilities that become qualifying utilities after December 31, 2006, shall meet the requirements in this section on a time frame comparable in length to that provided for qualifying utilities as of December 7, 2006.

Sec. 11. RCW 19.285.080 and 2007 c 1 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission may adopt rules to ensure the proper implementation and enforcement of this chapter as it applies to investor-owned utilities.

(2) The department shall adopt rules concerning only process, timelines, and documentation to ensure the proper implementation of this chapter as it applies to qualifying utilities that are not investor-owned utilities. Those rules include, but are not limited to, rules associated with a qualifying utility's development of conservation targets under RCW 19.285.040(1); a qualifying utility's decision to pursue alternative compliance in RCW 19.285.040(2) (d) or (i) or 19.285.050(1); (and) the format and content of reports required in RCW 19.285.070; and the development of a methodology for calculating baseline levels of generation under RCW 19.285.030(12)(f). Nothing in this subsection may be construed to restrict the rate-making authority of the commission or a qualifying utility as otherwise provided by law.

(3) The commission and department may coordinate in developing rules related to process, timelines, and documentation that are necessary for implementation of this chapter.

(4) Pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW, rules needed for the implementation of this chapter must be adopted by December 31, 2007. These rules may be revised as needed to carry out the intent and purposes of this chapter."

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "independence act;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 19.285.030, 19.285.040, and 19.285.080."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of floor striking amendment no. 39 by Senators Nelson and Takko to Senate Bill No. 5128.

The motion by Senator Takko carried and floor striking amendment no. 39 was adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Takko, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5128 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Takko, Ericksen and Carlyle spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5128.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5128 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5128, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5644, by Senator Honeyford

Concerning skill center facility maintenance.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Honeyford, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5644 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5644 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Honeyford, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5644 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Honeyford and Frockt spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5644.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5644 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5644, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5118, by Senators Rolfes, Bailey, Darneille, Billig, Keiser, Kuderer and Chase

Increasing the personal needs allowance for persons receiving state-financed care.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rolfes, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5118 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Rolfes, Rivers and Bailey spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5118.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5118 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49; Nays, 0; Absent, 0; Excused, 0.

Voting yea: Senators Angel, Bailey, Baumgartner, Becker, Billig, Braun, Brown, Carlyle, Chase, Cleveland, Conway, Darneille, Ericksen, Fain, Fortunato, Frockt, Hasegawa, Hawkins, Hobbs, Honeyford, Hunt, Keiser, King, Kuderer, Liias, McCoy, Miloscia, Mullet, Nelson, O'Ban, Padden, Palumbo, Pearson, Pedersen, Ranker, Rivers, Rolfes, Rossi, Saldaña, Schoesler, Sheldon, Short, Takko, Van De Wege, Walsh, Warnick, Wellman, Wilson and Zeiger

FIFTY SECOND DAY, MARCH 1, 2017

2017 REGULAR SESSION

SENATE BILL NO. 5118, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5783.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5779, by Senators Brown and O'Ban

Concerning behavioral health integration in primary care.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The legislature finds that advanced placement coursework prepares students for postsecondary success and provides opportunities for them to earn college credit or secure placement in advanced courses. The legislature further finds that eighty-four thousand eight hundred sixty-six students took an AP exam in Washington state in 2015. The legislature further finds that six thousand six hundred sixty-seven of those students were underrepresented minority students and nine thousand four hundred seventy-one were low-income students. The legislature further finds that of the students that took an AP exam in Washington state in 2015, fifty-one thousand seven hundred twenty-five scored a 3, 4, or 5.

Therefore, the legislature intends to establish a policy for granting as many undergraduate course credits as possible to students who have earned a minimum score of 3 on their AP exams and clearly communicate credit awarding policies and course equivalencies to students. The goal of the policy is to award course credit in all appropriate instances and maximize the number of college students given college credit for AP exam scores of 3 or higher.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 28B.77 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The institutions of higher education must establish a coordinated, evidence-based policy for granting as many undergraduate college credits to students who have earned minimum scores of 3 on AP exams as possible and appropriate.

(2) Credit policy regarding all AP exams must be posted on campus web sites effective for the 2017 fall academic term. The institutions of higher education must conduct biennial reviews of their AP credit policy and report noncompliance to appropriate

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 9.46.0321 and 1987 c 4 s 28 are each amended to read as follows:

Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations organized primarily for purposes other than the conduct of such activities are hereby authorized to conduct bingo, raffles, and amusement games, without obtaining a license to do so from the commission but only when:

(1) Such activities are held in accordance with all other requirements of this chapter, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission;

(2) Said activities are ~~are~~ conducted no more than four times each calendar year for raffles and twice each calendar year for bingo and amusement games; and over a period of no more than twelve consecutive days each time, notwithstanding the limitations of RCW 9.46.0205: PROVIDED, That a raffle conducted under this subsection may be conducted for a period longer than twelve days;

(3) Only bona fide members of that organization, who are not paid for such services, participate in the management or operation of the activities;

(4) Gross revenues to the organization from ~~from all the activities together~~ raffles do not exceed twenty thousand dollars during any calendar year;

(5) Gross revenues to the organization from bingo and amusement games do not exceed five thousand dollars during any calendar year;

~~(6)~~ (6) All revenue therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses of the activity, is devoted solely to the purposes for which the organization qualifies as a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization;

~~(7)~~ (7) The organization gives notice at least five days in advance of the conduct of any of the activities to the local police agency of the jurisdiction within which the activities are to be conducted of the organization's intent to conduct the activities, the location of the activities, and the date or dates they will be conducted; and

~~((7))~~ (8) The organization conducting the activities maintains records for a period of one year from the date of the event which accurately show at a minimum the gross revenue from each activity, details of the expenses of conducting the activities, and details of the uses to which the gross revenue therefrom is put.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.46 RCW to read as follows:

Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations authorized to conduct activities under this chapter may offer raffle tickets purchased as part of a multiple ticket package to be purchased at a discount. The organization may offer different levels of discounts based on the volume of tickets sold in the multiple packages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 9.46 RCW to read as follows:

Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations authorized to conduct activities under this chapter who are engaging in a gambling activity where the participants select their own numbered, physical item, to hold pending a random selection of winning numbers, are not required to attach an individual numbered ticket with the item.

Sec. 4. RCW 9.46.070 and 2012 c 116 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto permitting said organizations to conduct bingo games, raffles, amusement games, and social card games, to utilize punchboards and pull-tabs in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and to revoke or suspend said licenses for violation of any provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission or director shall not issue, deny, suspend, or revoke any license because of considerations of race, sex, creed, color, or national origin: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(2) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to any person, association, or organization operating a business primarily engaged in the selling of items of food or drink for consumption on the premises, approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto permitting said person, association, or organization to utilize punchboards and pull-tabs and to conduct social card games as a commercial stimulant in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and to revoke or suspend said licenses for violation of any provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(3) To authorize and issue licenses for a period not to exceed one year to any person, association, or organization approved by the commission meeting the requirements of this chapter and meeting the requirements of any rules and regulations adopted by the commission pursuant to this chapter as now or hereafter amended, permitting said person, association, or organization to conduct or operate amusement games in such manner and at such locations as the commission may determine. The commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(4) To authorize, require, and issue, for a period not to exceed one year, such licenses as the commission may by rule provide, to any person, association, or organization to engage in the selling, distributing, or otherwise supplying or in the manufacturing of devices for use within this state for those activities authorized by this chapter. The commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission;

(5) To establish a schedule of annual license fees for carrying on specific gambling activities upon the premises, and for such other activities as may be licensed by the commission, which fees shall provide to the commission not less than an amount of money adequate to cover all costs incurred by the commission relative to licensing under this chapter and the enforcement by the commission of the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto: PROVIDED, That all licensing fees shall be submitted with an application therefor and such portion of said fee as the commission may determine, based upon its cost of processing and investigation, shall be retained by the commission upon the withdrawal or denial of any such license application as its reasonable expense for processing the application and investigation into the granting thereof: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if in a particular case the basic license fee established by the commission for a particular class of license is less than the commission's actual expenses to investigate that particular application, the commission may at any time charge to that applicant such additional fees as are necessary to pay the commission for those costs. The commission may decline to proceed with its investigation and no license shall be issued until the commission has been fully paid therefor by the applicant: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission may establish fees for the furnishing by it to licensees of identification stamps to be affixed to such devices and equipment as required by the commission and for such other special services or programs required or offered by the commission, the amount of each of these fees to be not less than is adequate to offset the cost to the commission of the stamps and of administering their dispersal to licensees or the cost of administering such other special services, requirements or programs;

(6) To prescribe the manner and method of payment of taxes, fees and penalties to be paid to or collected by the commission;

(7) To require that applications for all licenses contain such information as may be required by the commission: PROVIDED, That all persons (a) having a managerial or ownership interest in any gambling activity, or the building in which any gambling activity occurs, or the equipment to be used for any gambling activity, or (b) participating as an employee in the operation of any gambling activity, shall be listed on the application for the license and the applicant shall certify on the application, under oath, that the persons named on the application are all of the persons known to have an interest in any gambling activity, building, or equipment by the person making such application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the commission shall require fingerprinting and national criminal history background checks on any persons seeking licenses, certifications, or permits under this chapter or of any person holding an interest in any gambling activity, building, or equipment to be used therefor, or of any person participating as an employee in the operation of any gambling activity. All national criminal history background checks shall be conducted using fingerprints submitted to the United States department of justice-federal bureau of investigation. The commission must establish rules to delineate which persons named on the application are subject to national criminal history background checks. In identifying these persons, the commission must take into consideration the nature, character, size, and scope of the gambling activities requested by the persons making such applications;

(8) To require that any license holder maintain records as directed by the commission and submit such reports as the commission may deem necessary;

(9) To require that all income from bingo games, raffles, and amusement games be recorded and reported as established by rule or regulation of the commission to the extent deemed necessary by considering the scope and character of the gambling activity in such a manner that will disclose gross income from any gambling activity, amounts received from each player, the nature and value of prizes, and the fact of distributions of such prizes to the winners thereof. The commission may require a separate accounting by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, but may not require the organizations to keep separate accounts for funds generated from gambling activities;

(10) To regulate and establish maximum limitations on income derived from bingo. In establishing limitations pursuant to this subsection the commission shall take into account (a) the nature, character, and scope of the activities of the licensee; (b) the source of all other income of the licensee; and (c) the percentage or extent to which income derived from bingo is used for charitable, as distinguished from nonprofit, purposes. However, the commission's powers and duties granted by this subsection are discretionary and not mandatory;

(11) To regulate and establish the type and scope of and manner of conducting the gambling activities authorized by this chapter, including but not limited to, the extent of wager, money, or other thing of value which may be wagered or contributed or won by a player in any such activities;

(12) To regulate the collection of and the accounting for the fee which may be imposed by an organization, corporation, or person licensed to conduct a social card game on a person desiring to become a player in a social card game in accordance with RCW 9.46.0282;

(13) To cooperate with and secure the cooperation of county, city, and other local or state agencies in investigating any matter within the scope of its duties and responsibilities;

(14) In accordance with RCW 9.46.080, to adopt such rules and regulations as are deemed necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter. All rules and regulations shall be adopted pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.05 RCW;

(15) To set forth for the perusal of counties, city-counties, cities and towns, model ordinances by which any legislative authority thereof may enter into the taxing of any gambling activity authorized by this chapter;

(16)(a) To establish and regulate a maximum limit on salaries or wages which may be paid to persons employed in connection with activities conducted by bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations and authorized by this chapter, where payment of such persons is allowed, and to regulate and establish maximum limits for other expenses in connection with such authorized activities, including but not limited to rent or lease payments. However, the commissioner's powers and duties granted by this subsection are discretionary and not mandatory.

(b) In establishing these maximum limits the commission shall take into account the amount of income received, or expected to be received, from the class of activities to which the limits will apply and the amount of money the games could generate for authorized charitable or nonprofit purposes absent such expenses. The commission may also take into account, in its discretion, other factors, including but not limited to, the local prevailing wage scale and whether charitable purposes are benefited by the activities;

(17) To authorize, require, and issue for a period not to exceed one year such licenses or permits, for which the commission may by rule provide, to any person to work for any operator of any gambling activity authorized by this chapter in connection with that activity, or any manufacturer, supplier, or distributor of devices for those activities in connection with such business. The commission may authorize the director to temporarily issue or suspend licenses subject to final action by the commission. The commission shall not require that persons working solely as volunteers in an authorized activity conducted by a bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organization, who receive no compensation of any kind for any purpose from that organization, and who have no managerial or supervisory responsibility in connection with that activity, be licensed to do such work. The commission may require that licensees employing such unlicensed volunteers submit to the commission periodically a list of the names, addresses, and dates of birth of the volunteers. If any volunteer is not approved by the commission, the commission may require that the licensee not allow that person to work in connection with the licensed activity;

(18) To publish and make available at the office of the commission or elsewhere to anyone requesting it a list of the commission licensees, including the name, address, type of license, and license number of each licensee;

(19) To establish guidelines for determining what constitutes active membership in bona fide nonprofit or charitable organizations for the purposes of this chapter;

(20) To renew the license of every person who applies for renewal within six months after being honorably discharged, removed, or released from active military service in the armed forces of the United States upon payment of the renewal fee applicable to the license period, if there is no cause for denial, suspension, or revocation of the license;

(21) To issue licenses under subsections (1) through (4) of this section that are valid for a period of up to eighteen months, if it chooses to do so, in order to transition to the use of the business licensing services program through the department of revenue; and

(22) To perform all other matters and things necessary to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter."

"Sec. 1. RCW 9.46.0321 and 1987 c 4 s 28 are each amended to read as follows:

Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations organized primarily for purposes other than the conduct of such activities are hereby authorized to conduct bingo, raffles, and amusement games, without obtaining a license to do so from the commission but only when:

(1) Such activities are held in accordance with all other requirements of this chapter, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission;

(2) Said activities are ~~((, alone or in any combination,))~~ conducted no more than four times each calendar year for raffles and twice each calendar year for bingo and amusement games; and over a period of no more than twelve consecutive days each time, notwithstanding the limitations of RCW 9.46.0205: PROVIDED, That a raffle conducted under this subsection may be conducted for a period longer than twelve days;

(3) Only bona fide members of that organization, who are not paid for such services, participate in the management or operation of the activities;

(4) Gross revenues to the organization from ~~((all the activities together))~~ raffles do not exceed ten thousand dollars during any calendar year;

(5) Gross revenues to the organization from bingo and amusement games do not exceed five thousand dollars during any calendar year;

~~((5))~~ (6) All revenue therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses of the activity, is devoted solely to the purposes for which the organization qualifies as a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization;

~~((6))~~ (7) The organization gives notice at least five days in advance of the conduct of any of the activities to the local police agency of the jurisdiction within which the activities are to be conducted of the organization's intent to conduct the activities, the location of the activities, and the date or dates they will be conducted; and

~~((7))~~ (8) The organization conducting the activities maintains records for a period of one year from the date of the event which accurately show at a minimum the gross revenue from each activity, details of the expenses of conducting the activities, and details of the uses to which the gross revenue therefrom is put.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 9.46 RCW to read as follows:

Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations authorized to conduct activities under this chapter may offer raffle tickets purchased as part of a multiple ticket package to be purchased at a discount. The organization may offer different levels of discounts based on the volume of tickets sold in the multiple packages.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 9.46 RCW to read as follows:

Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations authorized to conduct activities under this chapter who are engaging in a gambling activity where the participants select their own numbered, physical item, to hold pending a random selection of winning numbers, are not required to attach an individual numbered ticket with the item.

Sec. 4. RCW 9.46.0277 and 2009 c 133 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

"Raffle," as used in this chapter, means a game in which tickets bearing an individual number are sold for not more than one hundred dollars each and in which a prize or prizes are awarded on the basis of a drawing from the tickets by the person or persons conducting the game, when the game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, no person other than a bona fide member of the organization takes any part in the management or operation of the game, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting the game. For the purposes of section 3 of this act, "raffle" also means a game in which a numbered, physical item is used without a ticket attached."

Senator Ranker: "Thank you Mr. President. It is my understanding that under section 4 rule 29, when any Senator is about to speak in debate and submit any matter to the Senate, the senator shall rise and while standing in place respectfully address the President. Many of our members haven't been addressing the President, and I just wanted to ask Mr. President, have we changed this rule?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "I have corrected Senators that have spoken to other Senators and the body if it has come to my attention."

SECOND READING

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5126, by Senators Hunt, Palumbo, Miloscia, Kuderer and Billig

Concerning uniform ballot design.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Hasegawa moved that the following floor striking amendment no. 35 by Senator Hasegawa be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 9. RCW 29A.36.111 and 2009 c 414 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary of state, in conjunction with the Washington state association of county auditors, shall develop a uniform ballot format to be used by each county. The format must be implemented by the year 2019, or upon replacement of vote tallying equipment, whichever occurs first.

(2) Every ballot for a single combination of issues, offices, and candidates shall be uniform within a precinct and shall identify the type of primary or election, the county, and the date of the primary or election, and the ballot or voting device shall contain instructions on the proper method of recording a vote, including write-in votes. Each position, together with the names of the candidates for that office, shall be clearly separated from other offices or positions in the same jurisdiction. The offices in each jurisdiction shall be clearly separated from each other. No paper ballot or ballot card may be marked by or at the direction of an election official in any way that would permit the identification of the person who voted that ballot.

((2)) (3) An election official may not enter into or extend any contract with a vendor if such contract may allow the vendor to acquire an ownership interest in any data pertaining to any voter, any voter's address, registration number, or history, or any ballot.

(4) The secretary of state, in consultation with the department of enterprise services, the office of the chief information officer, and with county auditors, may develop a master contract for vote tallying equipment for purchase by counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 29A.36 RCW to read as follows:

A county auditor may establish an equipment replacement fund that must be used explicitly to replace vote tallying equipment and only the county auditor may authorize expenditures from the fund. Election billing charges must be sufficient to fund the replacement of the equipment no later than the year 2019."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "design;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 29A.36.111; and adding a new section to chapter 29A.36 RCW."

Senator Hasegawa spoke in favor of adoption of the striking amendment.

Senator Miloscia spoke against adoption of the striking amendment.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of floor striking amendment no. 35 by Senator Hasegawa to Senate Bill No. 5126.

The motion by Senator Hasegawa did not carry and floor striking amendment no. 35 was not adopted by voice vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hunt, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5126 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Hunt and Miloscia spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

Senators Padden and Angel spoke against passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5126.
