The Washington State Senate Republican Caucus is seeking two qualified candidates to fill two Staff Counsel positions. These are permanent, full-time positions.

JOB DESCRIPTION:
Conduct thorough legal, policy, and fiscal research and analysis. Develop and evaluate policy alternatives for Senators. Draft and analyze legislation, memorials, resolutions, and amendments. Respond to inquiries on a wide variety of policy and budget issues.

QUALIFICATIONS:
- A Juris Doctorate, be a licensed attorney, and
- Membership/admission in the Washington State Bar or a state bar, is required.
- Minimum of 3 years of public policy or related work experience.
- Knowledge of the legislative process.

SKILLS:
- Excellent analytical, writing, problem solving, and oral communication skills
- Proven ability to perform high-quality research and analysis in a position requiring high level of self-direction
- Think strategically, both short-term and long-term.
- Capability to handle the complex, difficult situations that are common in the fast-paced, results-oriented, high pressure legislative environment
- Ability to track multiple policy areas successfully

THE WASHINGTON STATE SENATE is an equal opportunity employer.

SALARY RANGE: DOQ

TO APPLY: Please submit the following by Friday, September 30, 2022
1. Resume
2. A letter of interest responding to items in the announcement
3. Three professional references with contact information
4. Recent samples of your writing (two brief examples)

Email your resume and supplemental materials to: james.martin@leg.wa.gov