INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Queen Brett Rountree, Central Valley High School, the City of Spokane's 2013 Lilac Festival Queen who was seated at the rostrum.

REMARKS BY MISS BRETT ROUNTREE

Miss Brett Rountree: "Good morning, Mr. President, members of the Washington State Senate, guests, family and friends. My name is Brett Rountree and I have the distinct privilege of being the 2013 Spokane Lilac Festival Queen. It's a huge honor to be here today on behalf of the Spokane Lilac Festival. So far in my brief time as queen I've learned that my job goes so far deeper than just wearing a crown and waving in a parade. Every event in which the Royal Court and I participate reflects some portion of the Lilac Festival mission statement: Honoring our military; Recognizing our youth; and Showcasing Spokane in our region throughout the Northwest and beyond. Yes, we do have a parade. As you heard earlier it's the largest Armed Forces Torchlight Parade in the country. But what sets our festival apart is our commitment to the military and this commitment, it doesn't begin and end on the third Saturday in May. This past Christmas, for example, we bagged hundreds of cookies for 'Operation Cookie Drop.' These bags were given to Fairchild Airmen who wouldn't be going home for the holidays. We spent time talking to Fairchild Air Force Base officers and enlisted airmen, reading to first and second graders at Michael Anderson Elementary, touring the maintenance and medical facility as well as the base tower. We were also given the opportunity to see a static display of K-135 and, later, discover what it felt like to fly that plane while refueling another plane in the flight simulator. And most recently we attended 92nd Air Refueling Wing Command Chief Rudy Lopez's retirement ceremony. At every turn we saw the men and women of Fairchild giving of themselves to offer us the freedoms that we take for granted every day. Now, early on in our Royal journey we were challenged to reflect on the quote by James Fraude, 'The essence of true nobility is neglect itself.' This statement has become our personal guide. We have done a lot of volunteering around Spokane including serving with Santa Express which is the fundraising arm of the Vanessa Behan Crisis Nursery. We helped underprivileged children pick out clothing during Salvation Army Cloth a Child. We served dinner at the Union Gospel Mission. We've read to elementary schools everywhere in Spokane during 'Read Across America.' We've also been given the opportunity to sing the National Anthem at the Spokane Veterans Home as well as all four State B National Boys Basketball Games. But my favorite, a little while ago we teamed up with Make A Wish Foundation and we were able to fulfill a little girl with a terminally ill disease, to fulfill her princess dreams and she was granted a trip to Walt Disney World. The Spokane Lilac Festival and the Royal Court are Spokane's ambassadors as we travel during the parade season but most of our parades are right here in Washington and we would love it to see most of you at one of those parades and for a second year in a row, our role as ambassadors is taking us wide and far. After last year's successful trip to Jilin City in China, this year we are going to be joining the 2013 Lilac President Christine Leva as well as Mayor David Condon on a trip to Limerick Ireland. But, before we do any traveling we have a parade to do so now I would like to personally invite all of you to the Spokane Lilac Festival Parade, Seventy Fifty Diamond Anniversary, Saturday, May 18 to experience the Lilac legacy for yourself. Alive at seventy five. Thank you so much for this amazing opportunity today and for the recognition and honor of the Spokane Lilac Festival."

2013 REGULAR SESSION

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced the members of the Lilac Festival Royal Court: Princess Devyn Russell, Northwest Christian High School; Princess Hailey Hyde, Saint George's High School; and Princess Savannah Sundseth, Mead High School and representatives of the Spokane Lilac Festival Association: Mrs. Christine Leva, 2013 President; Mrs. Claire Patton, 2012 First Lady and Chaperone; Ms. Shelley Sholl, Chaperone; Ms. Keisha Rountree, Queen Mum and Chaperone who were present in the gallery and recognized by the Senate.
