The legislature further finds that thoughtful and evidence-based school food programs are also associated with improved student results on standardized tests and improved graduation rates.

(2) The legislature acknowledges that existing school-related farm programs play an important role in helping students to better understand the relationships between academics, food, farming, and good health.

(3) The legislature finds that the purpose of sections 1 through 7 of this act is to achieve the public policy benefits specified in subsection (1) of this section: Improved student outcomes. To do so, the legislature intends to:

(a) Expand opportunities for students to have a healthy breakfast by requiring schools with large populations of qualifying low-income students to offer breakfast after the bell programs, a program model that has increased breakfast participation rates in other states; and

(b) Increase support for school-related farm programs that have proven successful in supporting students through policies that, among other benefits, promote student health and readiness through healthy local foods and school garden projects; and

(c) Conduct an analysis of breakfast after the bell programs established in accordance with section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 28A.235 RCW to read as follows:

(2) High-needs schools with at least seventy percent of free or reduced-price eligible children participating in both school lunch and school breakfast are exempt from the provisions of subsection (1) of this section. The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall evaluate individual participation rates annually, and make the participation rates publicly available.

(3) Each high-needs school may determine the breakfast after the bell service model that best suits its students. Service models include, but are not limited to, breakfast in the classroom, grab and go breakfast, and second chance breakfast.

(4) All breakfasts served in a breakfast after the bell program must comply with federal meal patterns and nutrition standards for school breakfast programs under the federal healthy, hunger-free kids act of 2010, (P.L. 111-296) and any federal regulations implementing that act. In addition, each food item served in a breakfast after the bell program must contain less than twenty-five percent, by weight, added sugar. When choosing foods to serve in a breakfast after the bell program, schools must give preference to foods that are healthful and fresh, and if feasible, give preference to Washington-grown food.

The guidelines and procedures must also include recommendations and best practices for designing, implementing, and operating breakfast after the bell programs that are based upon the implementation and operational experiences of schools of differing sizes and in different geographic regions of the state that have implemented breakfast after the bell programs.

(2) The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall offer training and technical and marketing assistance to all public schools and school districts related to offering breakfast after the bell, including assistance with various funding options available to high-needs schools such as the community eligibility provision under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1759a(a)(1), programs under provision two of the national school lunch act, and claims for reimbursement under the school breakfast program.

(3) In accordance with this section, the office of the superintendent of public instruction shall collaborate with nonprofit organizations knowledgeable about equity, the opportunity gap, hunger and food security issues, and best practices for improving student access to school breakfast. The office shall maintain a list of opportunities for philanthropic support of school breakfast programs and make the list available to schools interested in breakfast after the bell programs.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Conway: “You know we had some really sad news over the weekend and a loss of some really great leaders in our state, but one that also passed away was a good friend Richard King. Dick King. Dick was a real force of the Commerce & Labor Committee in the decades of the 1980s and 1990s, and eventually lobbied here for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, as well. A real strong spokesperson for working families in this state. I can remember him being my mentor when I first arrived in ‘93 here and his encouragement of standing strong for working families. Dick was a gentleperson, a good person. Served in the Senate and in the House and we’ll miss him. I really want to send my condolences to his family and express my sorrow on the loss of Dick King.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: “Thank you Mr. President. I just also want to rise and recognize Dick. Dick King was the Chair of the Fish & Wildlife Committee when I started in 1991. And in those days, the Boldt decision had already happened, there was a lot of commercial fisherman who were still very active here and lobbying, many of them were part-time fishermen, and many were teachers actually. But Dick was a good chairman, he listened to everybody, he worked very hard, and I think he served for thirty years here. So, I just wanted to remember Dick as a very good representative from the Everett area. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: “Thank you Senator Conway, Senator Sheldon for those remarks. And on behalf of the Senate, we send our condolences to his family and of course we will have an opportunity this next year as we commemorate all of those of whom we have lost over this past year. We will have an opportunity to memorialize him and thank you for bringing that to the attention of the body.”

EDITOR’S NOTE: Representative Dick King, 1934 - 2018, served in the House from 1965 until 1995 representing the 38th Legislative District, Snohomish County.

MOTION

At 12:36 p.m., on motion of Senator Liias, the Senate adjourned until 12:00 o’clock noon Monday, January 22, 2018.
