PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

THIRTY SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2022

2022 REGULAR SESSION

Senator Sefzik: “Thank you Mr. President. First of all, I know that I do not have any seasoning salt, and I can’t cook anyway so you wouldn’t want that. And I don’t have any chocolates or rocks or any kids that would be able to decorate my rocks, but I am still feeling out some ideas and I think that I definitely don’t have the budget for any wine, but we’ll find something that will hopefully make everybody slightly content. You know, the Lt. Governor told me on the first or second day that I was here some advice that he gave me that he had received from somebody older than him. And that advice was: “you have a very important job. And you are not a very important person”. And I think there’s a lot of wisdom, I’ve probably thought about that quote every single day because this is a grand place. But I am not a grand person. This is a special opportunity that we have but there is nothing really that special about me. And I’m not a veteran, I’m not a firefighter, I’m not a lawyer, I know those things. I don’t have a family and I don’t know where any of you were when you were 22 years old. I can tell you that when I thought about being 22 years old, I certainly didn’t think that I would be here. But the thought that I’ve just had over the month, a little more than a month that I’ve been here, is that my guess is when all of you were 22 years old, you all had certain hopes and dreams. You had certain aspirations and certain visions for what you thought your future would be. And I think we all share that in common. And maybe like me, when you were 22 years old, you felt frustrated. Whether it was frustration at your college roommate or whether it was frustration at something larger. Maybe for me right now, it has been a sort of frustration at what feels like such division in our current state of politics. But even being here in the past few weeks has reminded me, even being here last night for those debates, was a reminder that though we disagree, and though we disagree vehemently at times, there are still those points that unite us. And at the end of the day, we look at the same mountains here in Washington. We swim and enjoy the same rivers and the same lakes. We drive on the same roads, and we have the same goals in mind. I am young. I don’t have the same amount of life experience that I think anybody in this room has, certainly, in some ways. But I do try to be a student of history, maybe I make up for it by quoting the founding fathers at times. And I don’t have a George Washington quote, but I sincerely do believe that a part of being conservative is to conserve those traditions which are worthwhile. And as I think about our history. As I think about the history of young people in our country, I’m reminded of the story of Martin Treptow who was a soldier who came from a small town in the Midwest who died trying to carry a message between battalions in the first world war. They found his body, and, in his backpack, they found a little journal that had a little title that said, “my pledge”. And on that pledge, young Martin Treptow at the age of 24 years old had written that America must win this war. Therefore, I will work, I will save, I will sacrifice, and I will do my utmost as if the issue of the whole struggle depended on me alone. Mr. President, there is so much to work for, to strive for, and I am honored to be here. And my pledge is in some ways that same mission, which is to work every day for the people of the 42nd district, for the people of Washington, to do my utmost towards a brighter and better future. And that is something that whether I am a founding father, whether I am gray and gray haired, or whether I am young, I think is something we can all get behind and support. And so, I am so honored to be with all of you. I want to thank each one of you for how kind and cordial you have all been to me. Mr. President, and I apologize I am still getting the hang of all this procedure on some of these issues but thank you all so much for being so kind to me as I learn the ropes here. So, thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wellman: “Thank you Mr. President. I jumped on board when we had finished speaking because I thought perhaps, I could share with Senator Sefzik what I was told since he hadn’t been advised of the gift, what I was told when I was first elected by the Senator that I was replacing and he came to me and he said “Lisa, don’t be cheap”. However, I will tell you that I do think that after hearing that lovely and moving speech that the new Senator has just given that I don’t want to interrupt the thoughts that he expressed and his pledge for his participation in these proceedings which we value very much and to thank him for joining us and wishing him the best.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Braun: “Thank you Mr. President. So, I rise simply to welcome Senator Sefzik to the Senate. I didn’t have anything to say about biochar so I thought I would wait until after. But as you’ve heard several times now since we started session, he is a talented and eloquent speaker. He has been very eager to listen, to learn, and to really think about the issues in front of him. He offers us a connection with younger citizens in the state of Washington I believe will make our institution stronger and better and better serve the state of... better serve Washington state. So, with that I would simply like to very much welcome senator Sefzik to the senate. I look forward to serving with him as we do the peoples’ work here in Olympia.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pedersen: “Well thank you Mr. President. On behalf of the gentleman from the 25th district and myself I want to express the disappointment of all the citizens of Puyallup that their long, long record of having sent the youngest senator to this chamber has been upset. Calvin Goings was 22 years, 8 months and 17 days old at the time of his appointment when Senator Marcus Gaspard left this chamber. Senator Sefzik, by my calculations, 22 years, 0 months, and 21 days. So, congratulations and welcome.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fortunato: “Thank you Mr. President. You know Senator Sefzik was talking about where he was when he was 22 years old. When I was 22 years old, I had my first landscape construction company. People took me seriously. I went out into the job, people made decisions. Was 20, 30, 40 thousand dollars in 1976 that is like 100 130 thousand dollars now. And they made those decisions because I had a beard, and they took me seriously. So, my advice to Senator Sefzik: grow a beard and people will take you seriously.”

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5847, by Senators Liias, Randall, Das, Hasegawa, Keiser, Kuderer, Lovick, Nguyen, Nobles, Saldaña and Wilson, C.

Providing information to public service employees about the public service loan forgiveness program.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Liias, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5847 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 5847 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading and read the second time.

Senator Liias moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 1044 by Senator Liias be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature recognizes that our country faces a student loan debt crisis. Nationally, Americans owe $1.73 trillion in student loans. In Washington state, about 767,300 student loan borrowers owe nearly $27.4 billion of outstanding debt, more than $35,700 per borrower on average.

(2) Student loan debt is a multigenerational issue that affects borrowers of all ages and jeopardizes millions of families' long-term financial security. While student loan balances have risen for all age groups, older borrowers have seen the largest increase. Student loan defaults rise with the borrower's age, and parents and grandparents take on debt to help their children and grandchildren pay for their education. Borrowers are increasingly defaulting on their debts, resulting in income garnishment and deductions from federal tax refunds or social security payments.

(3) The legislature further recognizes that the federal government offers and provides loan forgiveness for individuals who have worked in a public service job full time and have made qualifying payments towards their student loans. Unfortunately, the eligibility criteria to qualify for this program has been complex, leading to low approval rates for individuals who would otherwise qualify. By providing more public awareness of this program, the legislature intends to help alleviate the student loan debt burden of those who have committed their lives to public service.

(4) It is the intent of the legislature to do the following:

(a) Develop materials to increase awareness of the federal public service loan forgiveness program;

(b) Create a program for state agencies to certify employment for the purpose of the public service loan forgiveness program;

(c) Have public service employers collaborate on a statewide initiative to improve access and remove barriers to the public service loan forgiveness program for all public service employees in the state; and

(d) Acknowledge the work done outside the classroom by part-time academic employees, allowing for those hours to be counted towards the definition of full time for the public service loan forgiveness program as set forth in 34 C.F.R. Sec. 685.219.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28B.77 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The student loan advocate, established in RCW 28B.77.007, shall develop, and update annually as necessary, materials designed to increase awareness of the public service loan forgiveness program. Materials include, at a minimum:

(a) A standardized letter for public service employers to send to their employees briefly summarizing the public service loan forgiveness program, information about what eligible employees are required to do in order to benefit from the program, and how an eligible employee may contact their student loan servicer for additional resources;

(b) A detailed fact sheet describing the public service loan forgiveness program, including the official website address maintained by the United States department of education for the program and contact information for the student loan advocate; and

(c) A document containing frequently asked questions about the public service loan forgiveness program.

(2) The student loan advocate shall coordinate with the office of financial management, the secretary of state, local governmental entities, and other relevant agencies and public service employer entities to ensure that public service employers receive materials developed in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) For purposes of this section, the definitions in this subsection apply:

(a) "Public service employer" includes the following:

(i) Any governmental entity including state, county, city, or other local government entity including political subdivisions, such as office, department, independent agency, school district, public college or university system, public library system, authority, or other body including the legislature and the judiciary;

(ii) Any employer that has received designation as a tax-exempt organization pursuant to Title 26 U.S.C. Sec. 501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code of 1986, as amended;

(iii) Any other entities identified as a public service job in Title 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1087e(m).

(b) "Public service loan forgiveness program" means the federal loan forgiveness program established pursuant to Title 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1087e(m) and 34 C.F.R. Sec. 685.219.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 43.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The office shall:

(a) Develop a program for state agencies to certify employment for the purposes of the public service loan forgiveness program by July 1, 2023.

(b) Assist the student loan advocate in creating and distributing materials designed to increase awareness of the public service loan forgiveness program set forth in section 1 of this act.

(c) Collaborate with the student achievement council, the employment security department, the department of retirement systems, nonprofit entities, local government representatives, and other public service employers in developing a statewide initiative to improve access and remove barriers to the public service loan forgiveness program for all public service employees. The program established for state agencies in this section and the certification process in section 4 of this act may be considered in the development of the initiative. A plan for a statewide initiative must be developed and submitted to the higher education committees of the legislature by December 1, 2024, in compliance with RCW 43.01.036.

(2) For purposes of this section, the definitions in this subsection apply:

(c) "Public service loan forgiveness program" means the federal loan forgiveness program established pursuant to Title 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1087e(m) and 34 C.F.R. Sec. 685.219.

(d) "State agency" or "agency" means departments, offices, agencies, or institutions of state government, the legislature, institutions of higher education, school districts, and educational service districts.

For the purpose of determining whether a part-time academic employee at an institution of higher education is considered full time for certifying employment for the public service loan forgiveness program, duties performed in support of, or in addition to, contractually assigned in-class teaching hours must be included. To calculate this, each hour of in-class teaching time shall be multiplied by 3.35 hours. This section shall not supersede any calculation or adjustment established by a collective bargaining agreement or employer policy for additional work done outside of in-class teaching. PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator King: "Thank you Mr. President. Senator Lovick, the day that you were welcomed to the Senate, I showed my lack of technical ability and was not able to welcome you to the Senate. And so, I wanted to do that, I had two little quick references. I was over in the other body when you were there, I was before the Transportation Committee, and I was presenting a bill that had passed the Senate in regard to tinting of windows. And my premise was that it was to protect our police officers and as I went though and was finishing up my presentation, I was getting some questions which kind of thought that my chances of getting this bill out of the House was going to be pretty slim. And I remember that you came to my rescue and supported the bill, and it did pass. And then lastly, the first week of the Senate, of the session, on Wednesday I tested positive I guess, for Covid, so I was quarantined. And you were kind enough to call me the next day to ask how I was doing. Those are two things that I have been very impressed by. I can't thank you enough, and welcome to the Senate, you are doing a great job as you go forth leading us today on the floor. Thank you Senator Lovick."
