WHEREAS, Vickie devoted her entire career to L&I, holding numerous positions, including secretary, editorial assistant, claims adjudicator, supervisor, program manager, assistant director for legislative and governmental affairs, and assistant director for insurance services; and

WHEREAS, Vickie has often referred to herself as a "workers' compensation policy geek"; and

WHEREAS, Vickie was always known for recognizing others for their accomplishments, especially at Public Service Recognition Week events for her staff where she was famous for photobombing; and

WHEREAS, Vickie was known as the unofficial ringleader for L&I Seahawks fans, bringing hundreds together for group photos on Blue Fridays in the agency's rotunda; and

WHEREAS, Vickie will be remembered for signing staff birthday cards with personalized "Roses are Red" poems; and

WHEREAS, Vickie received the 2016 Governor's Award for Leadership in Management for helping injured workers return to meaningful work rather than a life of disability, which helped reduce the rate of long-term disability from workplace injuries by more than nearly 15 percent; and

WHEREAS, Vickie was awarded the 2017 Joe Dear Agent of Change Award presented by L&I Director Joel Sacks for her outstanding leadership, commitment to public service, and making a difference; and

WHEREAS, Vickie sits on the Board of Directors for the International Association of Industrial Accident Boards and

WHEREAS, Vickie led a team that has helped more than one million injured workers during her time as assistant director; and

WHEREAS, Vickie is the single most trusted voice with L&I's leadership and staff across the agency, external stakeholders, and legislators on workers' compensation policy and approaches to improve Washington's system for employers and injured workers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate express its deepest gratitude for more than 50 years of service and sacrifice that Vickie Kennedy has given to both L&I and the State of Washington; and

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendment(s) to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1876 and asks the Senate for a conference thereon. The Speaker has appointed the following members as conferees; Representatives: Valdez, Gregerson, Volz and the same are herewith transmitted.

MELISSA PALMER, Deputy Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hunt, the Senate granted the request of the House for a conference on Substitute House Bill No. 1876 and the Senate amendment(s) thereto.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee on Substitute House Bill No. 1876 and the House amendment(s) there to: Senators Hunt and Wilson, J.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hunt, the appointments to the conference committee were confirmed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: "Thank you Mr. President. I do. I want to thank everyone for wishing me a happy birthday. It's been a, my mom said you know they don't count if they don't end in five and zero. When they occur they count, so this one counts."

President Heck: "You are way past five-zero. Happy Birthday Senator Sheldon, you may now sit down."

Senator Sheldon: "If I might just speak to another point of personal privilege."

President Heck: "Tread carefully, please proceed."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: "Kind of a sad subject, but I want to bring to our attention, Jerry Patton who was a member of our security team here, passed away at Capital Medical Center in February. He was 81. He battled lymphoma. And he worked as security in the flag circle parking post. Now remember where that is, right outside between here and the Temple of Justice. And he was born in Seattle in 1941. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps as a Lance Corporal in the 1960s. He also served as a Deputy Sheriff in Douglas County and also near Santa Barbara. Now Jerry loved cars. He was car guy. He owned thirteen Corvettes during his lifetime. Now you get a little more picture about Jerry. He was past president of the Washington Air Stream Trailer Club. Everybody loved Air Streams, still do. So, he went to many car shows and trailer events and he also was an enthusiastic member of the Sons of Italy. So, Senator Fortunato note that. So, there will be a service for Jerry on the 12th of this month at Olympia-Lacey Church of God and he will be interred at the Tacoma National Cemetery. So, if you didn't know Jerry, Jerry was a really a fun guy and imagine the job of directing traffic and organizing and demonstrations two, three, four thousand people would show up out there. So, he did a wonderful job and the last point I want to make for Jerry, and this was not given to me. But he had a board, and this was the time that everyone that came through that circle to park, Jerry had the board and you could pick the date and the time, down to the minute that we were going to adjourn sine die Mr. President and when those gavels dropped and you put a dollar in the kiddy you were the winner. Now it might have been sixty-five, seventy-five dollars but it went along for quite a few years and was a lot of fun until the word came down one day, he said from the head shed that the lotto, the game could not continue. So, that was a sad day when that was ended. So, Jerry will be sorely missed here. He was a fine, fine gentleman. Thank you Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Schoesler: "Thank you Mr. President. Just over thirty years ago today, or this year, I met Senator Sheldon for the first time with his colleague, Senator Hargrove at an ALEC meeting. And for the last thirty years, they've been to the colleagues that I've always worked with, enjoyed the company of and we're having a celebration of sorts, I don't think Tim knows about it, but there's going to be Olympic Ice Cream out in the rotunda when we break at noon if the floor leader will be so gracious to make sure we are available before it melts to celebrate the work of our colleague, Tim. For those of you that are newer, Tim has worked in tribal economic development, county economic development, public power, regional power, three term county commissioner, more than one party as a county commissioner, one year, one term as an independent. That was a little interesting process. I've had the privilege to spend a lot of happy afternoons in Tim's district. Hanging out, learning tree farming the way I've taught him wheat farming. Lunch with our friends. He's going to be sorely missed amongst his body for the institutional memory. Have a little card from a couple of us here because we're really grateful Tim. With your departure Senator Honeyford and I become the most senior members of the body, if not the entire Legislature. So, there is a little something in it for me and for Jim as you leave us in seniority. There's a parking spot I want back. There is an office that looks pretty good right now. So, from all of us, for all the years, thank you very much for your service and your friendship. Thank you."

CERB Administered Broadband Infrastructure (91000943)

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) ~~(The appropriation and reappropriations are subject to the provisions of section 1008, chapter 298, Laws of 2018.~~

(2) The board may make rural broadband loans and grants to local governments and to federally recognized Indian tribes for the purposes of financing the cost to build infrastructure to provide high-speed, open-access broadband service, to rural and underserved communities, for the purposes of economic development or community development. However, no more than 50 percent of all financial assistance approved by the board in any biennium may consist of grants to local governments or federally recognized Indian tribes.

(2) Application for funding must be made in the form and manner as the board may prescribe. In making grants or loans the board must conform to the following requirements:

(a) The board may not provide financial assistance:

(i) For a project the primary purpose of which is to facilitate or promote a retail shopping development or expansion;

(ii) For any project that evidence exists would result in a development or expansion that would displace existing jobs in any other community in the state;

(iii) For a project the primary purpose of which is to facilitate or promote gambling;

(iv) For a project located outside the jurisdiction of the applicant local government or federally recognized Indian tribe; or

(v) For the deployment of publicly-owned telecommunication network infrastructure ("backbone") solely for the sake of creating competitive, publicly-owned telecommunication network infrastructure.

(b) The board may provide financial assistance only for projects located in a rural community as defined by the board, or located in a rural county, that encourage, foster, develop, and improve broadband within the state in order to:

(i) Drive job creation, promote innovation, and expand markets for local businesses;

(ii) Serve the ongoing and growing needs of local education systems, health care systems, public safety systems, industries and businesses, governmental operations, and citizens; and

(iii) Improve accessibility for underserved communities and populations.

(c) An application must be approved by the local government and supported by the local associate development organization or local workforce development council or approved by the governing body of the federally recognized Indian tribe.

(d) The board may allow de minimis general system improvements to be funded if they are critically linked to the viability of the project.

(e) When evaluating and prioritizing projects, the board must give consideration, at a minimum, to the following factors:

(i) The project's value to the community, including evidence of support from affected local businesses and government;

(ii) The project's feasibility, using standard economic principles;

(iii) Commitment of local matching resources and local participation;

(iv) The project's inclusion in a capital facilities plan, comprehensive plan, or local economic development plan consistent with applicable state planning requirements; and

(v) The project's readiness to proceed.

(3) A responsible official of the local government or the federally recognized Indian tribe must be present during community economic revitalization board deliberations and provide information that the board requests.

(4) Before any financial assistance application is approved, the local government or the federally recognized Indian tribe seeking the assistance must demonstrate to the community economic revitalization board that no other timely source of funding is available to it at costs reasonably similar to financing available from the board.

(5) The appropriations must be used for projects that use a technology-neutral approach in order to expand access at the

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

2021-23 Clean Energy V - Investing in Washington's Clean Energy (40000148)

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The appropriations in this section are provided solely for projects that provide a benefit to the public through development, demonstration, and deployment of clean energy technologies that save energy and reduce energy costs, reduce harmful air emissions, or increase energy independence for the state. Priority must be given to projects that benefit vulnerable populations and overburdened communities, including tribes and communities with high environmental or energy burdens.

(2) The 2021 state energy strategy must guide the department in the design of programs under this section, using an equity and environmental justice lens for program structure and participation. To the extent practicable, the department must prioritize projects that build upon Washington's existing strengths in communities, aerospace, maritime, information and communications technology (particularly data center infrastructure, artificial intelligence and machine learning), grid modernization, advanced materials, and decarbonizing the built environment.

(3) Subject to the availability of funds, the department must reconvene an advisory committee to support involvement of a broad range of stakeholders in the design and implementation of programs implemented under this section to encourage collaboration, leverage partners, and engage communities and organizations in improving the equitable distribution of benefits from the program.

(4) In soliciting and evaluating proposals, awarding contracts, and monitoring projects under this section, the department must:

(a) Ensure that competitive processes, rather than sole source contracting processes, are used to select all projects, except as otherwise noted in this section; and

(b) Conduct due diligence activities associated with the use of public funds including, but not limited to, oversight of the project selection process, project monitoring, and ensuring that all applications and contracts fully comply with all applicable laws including disclosure and conflict of interest statutes.

(5) During project solicitation periods for grants funded with this appropriation, the department must maintain a list of applicants by grant program that scored competitively but did not receive a grant award due to lack of available funding. These applicants must be considered for funding during future grant award cycles. If the department submits a 2022 supplemental budget request for this program, the request must include a list of prioritized projects by grant type.

(6)(a) Pursuant to chapter 42.52 RCW, the ethics in public service act, the department must require a project applicant to identify in application materials any state of Washington employees or former state employees employed by the firm or on the firm's governing board during the past 24 months. Application materials must identify the individual by name, the agency previously or currently employing the individual, job title or position held, and separation date. If it is determined by the department that a conflict of interest exists, the applicant may be disqualified from further consideration for award of funding.

(b) If the department finds, after due notice and examination, that there is a violation of chapter 42.52 RCW, or any similar statute involving a grantee who received funding under this section, either in procuring or performing under the grant, the department in its sole discretion may terminate the funding grant by written notice. If the grant is terminated, the department must reserve its right to pursue all available remedies under law to address the violation.

FIFTY NINTH DAY, MARCH 9, 2022

2022 REGULAR SESSION

(7) The requirements in subsections (4) and (6) of this section must be specified in funding agreements issued by the department.

(iii) The department shall develop a grant application process to competitively select projects for grant awards, to include scoring conducted by a group of qualified experts with application of criteria specified by the department. In development of the application criteria, the department shall, to the extent possible, develop program guidelines that encourage smaller utilities or consortia of small utilities to apply for funding. Where suitable, this may include funding for projects consisting solely of planning, predesign and/or predevelopment activities.

(iv) Applications for grants must disclose all sources of public funds invested in a project.

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

2021-23 Weatherization Plus Health (40000150)

The appropriations in this section ((#)) are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $5,000,000 of the state building construction account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for grants for the Washington State University energy extension community energy efficiency program (CEEP) to support homeowners, tenants, and small business owners in making sound energy efficiency investments by providing consumer education and marketing, workforce support through training and lead generation, and direct consumer incentives for upgrades to existing homes and small commercial buildings. This is the maximum amount the department may expend for this purpose.

(2) The department, in collaboration with the Washington State University, shall make recommendations to the appropriate committees of the legislature on strategies to expand and align the weatherization program and the rural rehabilitation loan program. The department shall report the recommendations to the appropriate committees of the legislature and the governor by November 1, 2022. The recommendations must include strategies to:

(a) Recruit community energy efficiency program sponsors that are community-based organizations located in geographic areas of the state that have not received funding for low-income weatherization programs, targeting hard to reach market segments;

(b) Leverage funding from community energy efficiency program sponsors in an amount greater than or equal to the amount provided by the state through the weatherization program;

(c) Ensure that community energy efficiency program utility sponsors work with non-profit community-based organizations to deliver community energy efficiency program services; and

(d) Identify community energy efficiency program sponsors that support the conversion of space and water heating from fossil fuels to electricity, as part of a set of energy efficiency investments.

(3) If funding from this appropriation is used to purchase heating devices or systems, the agency shall, whenever possible and most cost effective, select devices and systems that do not use fossil fuels.

(4) $69,766,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation in this section is provided solely as expenditure authority for grant funding received by the department for the weatherization assistance program in section 40551 of P.L. 117-58 (infrastructure investment and jobs act), not to exceed the actual amount of grant funding awarded. Expenditure of the amount in this subsection is contingent on the receipt of this grant funding. If the department does not receive the grant funding by June 30, 2023, the expenditure authority in this section shall lapse.

~~((7))~~ (8) The legislature finds that there are insufficient data sources to identify adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities facing housing insecurity in Washington state and that the absence of reliable data limits the ability for the legislature to make informed decisions that will improve the outcomes of these individuals. The legislature further finds that reliable, current information about the unmet housing needs of this population will position Washington state to leverage community-based partnerships and funding to establish greater housing choice and increased community integration of individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

(1) Except as provided in subsections (7) through ~~((9))~~ (8) of this section, the appropriations in this section ~~((8))~~ are provided solely for the department to issue competitive financial assistance to eligible organizations under RCW 43.185A.040 to acquire or rent real property for a rapid conversion into enhanced emergency shelters, permanent supportive housing, transitional housing, permanent housing, youth housing, drop-in center, or shelter for extremely low-income people, as well as individuals, families, unaccompanied youth, and young people experiencing sheltered and unsheltered homelessness. Amounts provided in this section may be also used for renovation and building update costs associated with establishment of the acquired or rented facilities. For youth housing, drop-in centers, and shelter projects, renovation of existing properties is an allowable activity. The department may only approve funding for projects resulting in increased shelter or housing capacity. Amounts provided in this section may not be used for operating or maintenance costs associated with providing housing, supportive services, or debt service.

(2) Funds may also be used for permanent financing for real estate acquired using other short term acquisition sources. To expand availability of permanent housing, financing of acquisition of unoccupied multifamily housing is a priority. Funds must also be provided specifically for the city of Seattle to move people experiencing unsheltered homelessness into safe spaces, including, but not limited to, tiny homes, hotels, enhanced emergency shelters, or other rapid housing alternatives.

(3) While emphasizing the rapid deployment of the amounts appropriated under this section to alleviate the immediate crisis of homelessness throughout the state, the department shall establish criteria for the issuance of the grants, (~~which may include provisions that require that capital improvements be held by the grantee for a specified period of time appropriate to the amount of the grant,~~) during which time the property must be used for the express purpose of the grant. If the grantee is found to be out of compliance with provisions of the contract, the grantee shall repay to the state general fund the principal amount of the grant plus interest calculated at the rate of interest on state of Washington general obligation bonds issued on the date most close in time to the date of authorization of the grant. The criteria must include:

(a) The date upon which structural modifications or construction would begin and the anticipated date of completion of the project;

(b) A detailed estimate of the costs associated with the acquisition and any updates or improvements necessary to make the property habitable for its intended use;

(c) A detailed estimate of the costs associated with opening the beds or units; and

(d) A financial plan demonstrating the ability to maintain and operate the property and support its intended tenants throughout the end of the grant contract.

(4) The department must provide a progress report on its website by December 1, 2022. The report must include:

(a) The total number of applications and amount of funding requested; and

(b) A list and description of the projects approved for funding including state funding, total project cost, services anticipated to be provided, housing units, and anticipated completion date.

(5) The funding provided under this section is not subject to the 90-day application periods in RCW 43.185.070 or 43.185A.050. The department of commerce shall dispense funds to the city of Seattle and other qualifying applicants within 45 days of receipt of documentation from the applicant for qualifying uses and execution of any necessary contracts with the department in order to effect the purpose of rapid deployment of funds under this section.

(6) If the department receives simultaneous applications for funding under this program, proposals that reach the greatest public benefit, as defined by the department, must be prioritized. For purposes of this subsection (6), "greatest public benefit" must include, but is not limited to:

(a) The greatest number of accommodations or increased shelter capacity that will benefit extremely low-income people, as well as individuals, families, and youth experiencing homelessness.

(b) Whether the project has federally funded rental assistance tied to it;

(c) The scarcity of the affordable housing or shelter capacity applied for compared to the number of available affordable housing units or shelter capacity in the same geographic location; and

(d) The program's established funding priorities under RCW 43.185.070(5).

~~(7) (($900,000 of the state building construction account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for the public building conversion pilot program. ~~(b) The appropriation may not be used for staffing or maintaining buildings converted to housing for homeless persons. Costs for staffing and maintenance must be borne by the county or the contractor.~~

~~(c) In the contract for the pilot program, the department shall include provisions that require that capital improvements be held by the grantee for a specified period of time appropriate to the amount of the grant and that facilities be used for the express purpose of the grant. If the grantee is found to be out of compliance with provisions of the contract, the grantee shall repay to the state general fund the principal amount of the grant plus interest calculated at the rate of interest on state of Washington general obligation bonds issued most closely to the date of authorization of the grant.~~

~~(d) The pilot program should help inform the development of a public building conversion grant program to encourage counties to convert unused, publicly owned buildings into housing for homeless persons. The department must report to the office of financial management and fiscal committees of the legislature by November 1, 2022, regarding the establishment of the pilot program and any recommendations related to implementation of a public building conversion grant program.~~

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1)(a) $207,628,000 of the capital community assistance account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for the department to issue competitive financial assistance to eligible organizations under RCW 43.185A.040 to acquire real property for a rapid conversion into enhanced emergency shelters, permanent supportive housing, transitional housing, permanent housing, youth housing, or shelter for extremely low-income people, as well as individuals, families, unaccompanied youth, and young people experiencing sheltered and unsheltered homelessness. The department shall prioritize housing projects that will rapidly move people experiencing unsheltered homelessness into housing, including, but not limited to, individuals living in unsanctioned encampments, the public rights-of-way, or other public spaces. Amounts provided in this section may also be used for renovation and building update costs associated with establishment of the acquired facilities. The department may only approve funding for projects resulting in increased shelter or housing capacity. Amounts provided in this section may not be used for operating or maintenance costs associated with providing housing, supportive services, or debt service.

(b) $20,000,000 of the capital community assistance account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for housing projects in rural areas as defined by the department under RCW 43.185.050 and underserved communities with the goal of maximizing the investment and increasing the number of supportive housing units in rural, underserved communities.

(c) $2,000,000 of the capital community assistance account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for the Woodley Place by Bayside Housing and Services project in Port Hadlock.

(d) $172,000 of the capital community assistance account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for Building Transitional Tiny Homes for the Homeless project in Seattle.

(e) $200,000 of the capital community assistance account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for the department to contract and work with a professional real estate broker to identify opportunities for rapid acquisition or conversion of properties.

(f) $10,000,000 of the capital community assistance account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for unexpected cost increases experienced by projects funded by prior rapid capital appropriations. The department must create a process by which providers that received prior rapid capital awards may request additional funding for unexpected costs of affordable housing projects that are under or ready for construction

(g) When selecting projects, the department shall balance the state's interest in quickly approving and financing projects, the degree to which the project will leverage other funds, the extent to which the project promotes racial equity, and the extent to which the project will promote priorities on a statewide basis, including in rural areas and in geographically diverse parts of the state.

(h) Amounts appropriated under this section may also be used for permanent financing for real estate acquired using other short-term acquisition sources. To expand availability of permanent housing, financing of acquisition of multifamily housing is a priority.

(i) While emphasizing the rapid deployment of the amounts appropriated under this section to alleviate the immediate crisis of homelessness throughout the state, the department shall use criteria for the issuance of funds that were developed to administer prior rapid capital appropriations, and which must include:

(i) The date upon which the units can be placed in service and occupied by the intended population, or the date any necessary structural modifications would begin and the anticipated date of completion of the project;

(ii) A detailed estimate of the costs associated with the acquisition and any updates or improvements necessary to make the property habitable for its intended use;

(iii) A detailed estimate of the costs associated with placing the beds or units in service; and

(iv) A financial plan demonstrating the ability to maintain and operate the property and support its intended tenants.

(j) If the recipient is found to be out of compliance with provisions of the contract, the recipient shall repay to the state general fund the principal amount of the award plus interest calculated at the rate of interest on state of Washington general obligation bonds issued on the date most close in time to the date of authorization of the award.

(k) The department must provide a progress report on its website by December 30, 2023. The report must include:

(i) The total number of applications and amount of funding requested; and

(ii) A list and description of the projects approved for funding including state funding, total project cost, services anticipated to be provided, housing units, and anticipated completion date.

(l) The funding provided under this section is not subject to the 90-day application periods in RCW 43.185.070 or 43.185A.050.

(m) The department shall prioritize proposals that reach the greatest public benefit, as defined by the department. For purposes of this subsection (1)(m), "greatest public benefit" must include, but is not limited to:

(i) The rapid transition of people living unsheltered or chronically homeless, into housing;

(ii) The greatest number of accommodations or increased shelter capacity that will benefit extremely low-income people, as well as individuals, families, and youth experiencing homelessness;

(iii) Whether the project has local funding commitments and rental assistance;

(iv) The scarcity of the affordable housing or shelter capacity applied for compared to the number of available affordable housing units or shelter capacity in the same geographic location;

and

(v) The program's established funding priorities under RCW 43.185.070(5).

(n) The department must strive to allocate all of the amounts appropriated in this section within the 2021-2023 fiscal biennium in the manner prescribed in this section. However, if upon review of applications the department determines there are not adequate suitable projects in (a) of this subsection, the department may allocate funds to (f) of this subsection or to projects serving other low-income and special needs populations, provided those projects are located in an area with an identified need for the type of housing proposed.

(2) $60,000,000 of the apple health and homes account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for the rapid permanent supportive housing program created under chapter . . ., Laws of 2022 (Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1866) and the creation of a housing dashboard providing permanent supportive housing need and current capacity data. Of the amounts in this subsection, $1,500,000 is provided solely for the St. Agnes Haven project in Spokane. If Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1866 is not enacted by June 30, 2022, the amount provided in this subsection shall lapse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1025. A new section is added to 2021 c 332 (unmodified) to read as follows: FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

2022 Crisis Stabilization Facilities (92001286)

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1)(a) The appropriation in this section is provided solely for the department to issue grants to expand and establish new capacity for 23-hour crisis triage facilities, crisis stabilization facilities with capacity up to 16 beds, and youth residential crisis triage and stabilization facilities, that are not subject to federal funding restrictions that apply to institutions of mental disease. Eligible grantees are limited to nonprofit or for-profit businesses, public entities, and tribes, that are also community hospitals or other community-based behavioral health providers. Facilities of less than 16 beds are permitted, but the department shall consider, as a factor in awards, the economies of scale created by facilities with higher numbers of beds and the operational costs and funding sources available to the applicant.

(b) The department shall work with the department of health, health care authority, and other relevant agencies to ensure that there is equitable distribution of these projects across the state, relative to need, and shall work affirmatively with all behavioral health administrative services organizations regions, with the goal that all areas of the state are adequately served.

(c) The department shall ascertain the areas of Washington state with the most acute behavioral health crisis needs using emergency department data and other data available including existing and forthcoming committed capacity and shall ensure that these areas receive grants to help facilitate placement and construction of facilities in an expeditious manner.

(2) Amounts provided in this section may be used for construction and equipment costs associated with establishment of the facilities. The department may approve funding for the acquisition of a facility if the project will result in increased crisis triage and stabilization capacity. Amounts provided in this section may not be used for operating costs associated with the treatment of patients using these services.

(3) $12,000,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided solely for the department to issue grants for at least two residential crisis triage and stabilization facilities for youth. These facilities must increase behavioral health services and capacity for children and minor youth including, but not limited to, services for substance use disorder treatment, sexual assault and traumatic stress, anxiety, depression, suicidality, and interventions for children exhibiting aggressive or depressive behaviors.

(4)(a) $10,000,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided solely for the King County Crisis Walk-In/Stabilization; and

(b) $12,000,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided solely for the Lynnwood Community Recovery Center.

(5) The department must provide a progress report to the fiscal committees of the legislature by March 1, 2023. The report must include:

(a) The total number of applications and amount of funding requested; and

(b) A list and description of the projects approved for funding including state funding, total project cost, services anticipated to be provided, bed capacity, and anticipated completion date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1026. A new section is added to 2021 c 332 (unmodified) to read as follows: FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

2023 Local and Community Projects (40000266)

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department may not expend the appropriation provided in this section unless and until the nonstate share of project costs have been either expended or firmly committed, or both, in an amount sufficient to complete the project or a distinct phase of the project that is useable to the public for the purpose intended by the legislature. This requirement does not apply to projects where a share of the appropriation is for design costs only.

(2) Prior to receiving funds, project recipients must demonstrate that the project site is under control for a minimum of 10 years, either through ownership or a long-term lease. This requirement does not apply to appropriations for preconstruction activities or appropriations in which the sole purpose is to purchase real property that does not include a construction or renovation component.

(3) Projects funded in this section may be required to comply with Washington's high-performance building standards as required by chapter 39.35D RCW.

(4) Project funds are available on a reimbursement basis only and may not be advanced under any circumstances.

(5) In contracts for grants authorized under this section, the department must include provisions that require that capital improvements be held by the grantee for a specified period of time appropriate to the amount of the grant and that facilities be used for the express purpose of the grant. If the grantee is found to be out of compliance with provisions of the contract, the grantee shall repay to the state general fund the principal amount of the grant plus interest calculated at the rate of interest on state of Washington general obligation bonds issued most closely to the date of authorization of the grant.

(6) Projects funded in this section, including those that are owned and operated by nonprofit organizations, are generally required to pay state prevailing wages.

(7) The department must comply with the requirements set

This requirement does not apply to projects where a share of the appropriation is for design costs only.

(2) Prior to receiving funds, project recipients must demonstrate that the project site is under control for a minimum of 10 years, either through ownership or a long-term lease. The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department may not expend the appropriation in this section unless and until the nonstate share of project costs have been either expended or firmly committed, or both, in an amount sufficient to complete the project or a distinct phase of the project that is useable to the public for the purpose intended by the legislature. This requirement does not apply to projects where a share of the appropriation is for design costs only.

(2) Prior to receiving funds, project recipients must demonstrate that the project site is under control for a minimum of 10 years, either through ownership or a long-term lease. This requirement does not apply to appropriations for preconstruction activities or appropriations in which the sole purpose is to purchase real property that does not include a construction or renovation component.

(3) Projects funded in this section may be required to comply with Washington's high-performance building standards as required by chapter 39.35D RCW.

(4) Project funds are available on a reimbursement basis only, and may not be advanced under any circumstances.

(6) Projects funded in this section, including those that are owned and operated by nonprofit organizations, are generally required to pay state prevailing wages.

(7) The department must comply with the requirements set forth in executive order 21-02 and must consult with the department of archaeology and historic preservation and affected tribes on the potential effects of these projects on cultural resources and historic properties. Consultation with the department of archaeology and historic preservation and affected tribes must be initiated before project funds are made available.

Up to four percent of the funding in this subsection may be used by the department of children, youth, and families to provide technical assistance to early learning providers interested in applying for the early learning facility grant or loan program.

(3)(a) $7,500,000 of the Ruth Lecocq Kagi early learning facilities revolving account—state appropriation in this section is provided solely for the Washington early learning loan fund. rates and terms of all loans provided to early learning facilities under this subsection (3);

The plan must include scenarios based upon a range of state investment in the fund.

(4) The department of children, youth, and families must develop methodology to identify, at the school district boundary level, the geographic locations of where early childhood education and assistance program slots are needed to meet the entitlement specified in RCW 43.216.556. This methodology must be linked to the caseload forecast produced by the caseload forecast council and must include estimates of the number of slots needed at each school district. This methodology must inform any early learning facilities needs assessment conducted by the department and the department of children, youth, and families. This methodology must be included as part of the budget submittal documentation required by RCW 43.88.030.

(5) When prioritizing areas with the highest unmet need for early childhood education and assistance program slots, the committee of early learning experts convened by the department pursuant to RCW 43.31.581 must first consider those areas at risk of not meeting the entitlement specified in RCW 43.216.556.

(6) The department must track the number of slots being renovated separately from the number of slots being constructed and, within these categories, must track the number of slots separately by program for the working connections child care program and the early childhood education and assistance program.

(7) When prioritizing applications for projects pursuant to RCW 43.31.581, the department must award priority points to applications from a rural county or from extreme child care deserts as defined by the department of children, youth, and families.

(8) The department shall, in consultation with the department of children, youth, and families, prepare a report to the office of financial management and the fiscal committees of the legislature regarding the geographical diversity of early learning facilities grants. The report must be submitted by December 1, 2022, and must provide the following information:

(a) Geographical disbursement of school district early learning grants, early learning facilities grants to eligible organizations, and early learning loans or grants provided by a nongovernmental private-public partnership contracted by the department, including type of grant, size of award, number of early childhood education and assistance program or working connections child care program slots added, and any other information that the department deems relevant;

(b) Disbursement of early learning grants or loans to providers in rural and nonrural counties, including type of grant, size of award, number of early childhood education and assistance program or working connections child care program slots added, and any other information that the department deems relevant; and

(c) Disbursement of early learning grants or loans to providers by type of provider, including school district, child care center, licensed family home, or other, including type of grant, size of award, number of early childhood education and assistance program or working connections child care program slots added, and any other information that the department deems relevant.

(9) For early learning facilities collocated with affordable or supportive housing developments, the department may remit state funding on a reimbursement basis for 100 percent of eligible project costs, regardless of the project's match amount, once the nonstate share of project costs have been either expended or firmly committed in an amount sufficient to complete the entire project or a distinct phase of the project that is useable to the public as an early learning facility. These projects are not subject to section 7017, chapter 332, Laws of 2021 or RCW 43.88.150.

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1)(a) The appropriations in this section are provided solely to the statewide broadband office for qualifying broadband infrastructure projects.

(b) Unless otherwise stated, eligible applicants for grants awarded under subsections (2) and (3) of this section are:

- (i) Local governments, including ports and public utility districts;
- (ii) Federally recognized tribes;
- (iii) Nonprofit organizations;
- (iv) Nonprofit cooperative organizations; and
- (v) Multiparty entities comprised of a combination of public entity members or private entity members. A multiparty entity cannot be solely comprised of private entities.

(c) The department must prioritize eligible applications where the lead applicant is a public entity.

(d) Projects receiving grants under this section must:

- (i) Demonstrate that the project site is under the applicant's control for a minimum of 25 years, either through ownership or a long-term lease; and
- (ii) Commit to using the infrastructure funded by the grant for the purposes of providing broadband connectivity for a minimum of 25 years.

((~~+~~)) (e) Unless otherwise stated, priority must be given to projects:

(i) Located in unserved areas of the state, which for the purposes of this section means areas of Washington in which households and businesses lack access to broadband service of speeds at a minimum of 100 megabits per second download and at a minimum 20 megabits per second upload;

(ii) Located in geographic areas of greatest priority for the deployment of broadband infrastructure to achieve the state's broadband goals, as provided in RCW 43.330.536, identified with department and board mapping tools; or

(iii) That construct last mile infrastructure, as defined in RCW 43.330.530.

((~~+~~)) (f) Unless otherwise stated, appropriations may not be used for projects where a broadband provider currently provides, or has begun construction to provide, broadband service, as defined in RCW 43.330.530, to end users in the proposed project area ~~((at speeds equal to or greater than the state speed goals provided in RCW 43.330.536)).~~

((f)) (g) The appropriations must be used for projects that use a technology-neutral approach in order to expand access at the lowest cost to the most unserved or underserved residents.

((g)) (h)(i) The statewide broadband office must act as fiscal agent for the grants authorized in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(ii) No more than 1.5 percent of the funds appropriated for the program may be expended by the statewide broadband office for administration purposes.

(i) The statewide broadband office must impose grant or contract conditions to help ensure that any project funded under this section will result in an enduring public benefit, where feasible, for at least 25 years.

(2)(a) $50,000,000 of the state building construction account—state appropriation is provided solely to the statewide broadband office to award as grants to eligible applicants as match funds to leverage federal broadband infrastructure program funding.

(b)(i) For the purposes of this subsection (2), "state broadband infrastructure funders" are the state broadband office, the public works board, and the community economic revitalization board.

(ii) The statewide broadband office must develop a project evaluation process to assist in coordination among state broadband infrastructure funders to maximize opportunities to leverage federal funding and ensure efficient state investment. The project evaluation process must help determine whether a project is a strong candidate for a known federal funding opportunity and if a project can be packaged as part of a regional or other coordinated federal grant proposal. The state broadband infrastructure funders are encouraged to enter into a memorandum of understanding outlining how coordination will take place so that the process can help with a coordinated funding strategy across these entities.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5910 with the following amendment(s): 5910-S AMH ENGR H2899.E

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. INTENT AND FINDINGS. (1) The legislature finds that while hydrogen fuel has been used in a variety of applications in the state, the source of hydrogen has been derived from fossil fuel feedstocks, such as natural gas. Hydrogen is an essential building block and energy carrier molecule that is necessary in the production of conventional and renewable fuels and a valuable decarbonization tool when used in sectors such as marine, aviation, steel, aluminum, and cement, as well as surface transportation including heavy-duty vehicles, such as transit, trucking, and drayage equipment. Hydrogen can be a carbon-free fuel with an energy per unit mass that is three to four times greater than jet fuel, whose energy can be extracted either through thermochemical (combustion) or electrochemical (fuel cell) processes. In both cases, the only by-product is water, instead of the greenhouse gases and other conventional and toxic pollutants that are emitted from using fossil fuels.

(2) The legislature further finds that the use of renewable hydrogen and hydrogen produced from carbon-free feedstocks through electrolysis is an essential tool to a clean energy ecosystem and emissions reduction for challenging infrastructure needs. Clean hydrogen fuel can be produced or "charged" closer to the generation of the electricity when the electrical supply grid has surplus energy, at times of low electricity use, such as evenings, then made available at times of higher need and convenient locations, such as fueling stations, avoiding the need to build or upgrade larger electrical infrastructure, including distribution systems, to meet higher peak demand for electricity.

(3) Therefore, the legislature intends by this act to establish policies and a framework for the state to become a national and global leader in the production and use of these hydrogen fuels. This act will create an office of renewable fuels to: Promote partnerships among industrial, transportation, agriculture, and commercial interests as well as fuel producers, the technology research sector, and public sector agencies; identify barriers to and opportunities for market development; provide greater clarity and certainty in regulatory and siting standards; provide incentives and financial assistance in the deployment of hydrogen fuel infrastructure; support a clean and just energy transition; help create good quality, clean energy jobs; and improve air quality in degraded areas, particularly in communities that have borne disproportionate levels of air pollution from the combustion of fossil fuels.

Part 1

OFFICE OF RENEWABLE FUELS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 101. A new section is added to chapter 43.330 RCW to read as follows:

(a) Accelerate comprehensive market development with assistance along the entire life cycle of renewable fuel projects;

(b) Support research into and development and deployment of renewable fuel and the production, distribution, and use of renewable and green electrolytic hydrogen and their derivatives, as well as product engineering and manufacturing relating to the production and use of such hydrogen and its derivatives;

(c) Drive job creation, improve economic vitality, and support the transition to clean energy;

(d) Enhance resiliency by using renewable fuels and green electrolytic hydrogen to support climate change mitigation and adaptations; and

(e) Partner with overburdened communities to ensure communities equitably benefit from renewable and clean fuels efforts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 103. A new section is added to chapter 43.330 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The office shall:

(a) Coordinate with federally recognized tribes, local government, state agencies, federal agencies, private entities, the state's public four-year institutions of higher education, labor unions, and others to facilitate and promote multi-institution collaborations to drive research, development, and deployment efforts in the production, distribution, and use of renewable fuels including, but not limited to, green electrolytic hydrogen;

(b) Review existing renewable fuels and green electrolytic hydrogen initiatives, policies, and public and private investments;

(c) Consider funding opportunities that provide for the coordination of public and private funds for the purposes of developing and deploying renewable fuels and green electrolytic hydrogen;

(d) Assess opportunities for and barriers to deployment of renewable fuels and green electrolytic hydrogen in hard to decarbonize sectors of the state economy;

(e) Request recommendations from the Washington state association of fire marshals regarding fire and other safety standards adopted by the United States department of energy and recognized national and international fire and safety code development authorities regarding renewable fuels and green electrolytic hydrogen;

(f) By December 1, 2023, develop a plan and recommendations for consideration by the legislature and governor on renewable fuels and green electrolytic hydrogen policy and public funding including, but not limited to, project permitting, state procurement, and pilot projects; and

(g) Encourage new and support existing public-private partnerships to increase coordinated planning and deployment of renewable fuels and green electrolytic hydrogen.

(2) The office may take all appropriate steps to seek and apply for federal funds for which the office is eligible, and other grants, and accept donations, and must deposit these funds in the renewable fuels accelerator account created in section 104 of this act.

(3) In carrying out its duties, the office must collaborate with the department, the department of ecology, the department of transportation, the utilities and transportation commission, electric utilities in Washington state, the Washington State University extension energy program, and all other relevant state agencies. The office must also consult with and seek to involve federally recognized tribes, project developers, labor and industry trade groups, and other interested parties, in the development of policy analysis and recommended programs or projects.

Revenues to the account consist of appropriations made by the legislature, federal funds, gifts or grants from the private sector or foundations, and other sources deposited in the account. Moneys in the account may be spent only after appropriation. Expenditures from the account may be used only for purposes designated in sections 102, 103, and 201 of this act. Only the director or the director's designee may authorize expenditures from the account.

FEDERAL FUNDING

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. (1)(a) The legislature finds that the federal infrastructure investment and jobs act, P.L. 117-58, provides $8,000,000,000 over five years to support the development of regional clean hydrogen hubs. The federal infrastructure investment and jobs act requires the United States secretary of energy to establish a program to fund at least four regional hubs to aid in achieving a hydrogen fuel production carbon intensity standard provided in that legislation; to demonstrate the production, processing, delivery, storage, and end use of hydrogen; and that can be developed into a national network to facilitate a clean hydrogen economy. The federal infrastructure investment and jobs act requires the secretary of energy to select regional hubs that demonstrate a diversity of feedstocks, a diversity of end uses, and a diversity of geographic regions of the country. The federal infrastructure investment and jobs act requires the secretary of energy to solicit proposals for regional hubs by May 15, 2022, and to make selections of the hubs within one year after the deadline for submission of proposals.

(b) The legislature further finds that Washington state is strongly positioned to develop a regional clean energy hub meeting the criteria of the federal infrastructure investment and jobs act because the state:

(i) Has adopted a state energy strategy that recognizes hydrogen as an integral part of the state's decarbonization pathway;

(ii) Has an abundance of low cost, low carbon, reliable electricity as the primary energy resource for production of clean hydrogen;

(iii) Already has under construction the nation's first renewable hydrogen electrolyzer and has several hydrogen fueling facilities as well as production facilities in planning and design phases;

(iv) Has multiple manufacturers designing, engineering, and manufacturing fuel cell electric engines and zero-emission vehicles, vessels, and airplanes;

(v) Has numerous industrial, maritime, and freight shipping concerns that are moving toward cleaner fuels and that would help provide demand for hydrogen, as well as state and local governments currently considering hydrogen uses;

(vi) Has a demonstrated track record of building partnerships across the public and private sector to advance clean energy technologies;

(vii) Has policies in place supporting and engaging overburdened communities, including the healthy environment for all act, which will facilitate alignment with the justice40 initiative; and

(viii) Has policies, including tax incentives, that support high labor standards in clean energy production.

(c) The legislature further finds that the state may help to promote and strengthen applications for regional hydrogen hub federal funding through state funding assistance to support a timely and competitive application to the United States department of energy by a public-private partnership entity that leverages private sector leadership and is composed of multiple interests, including public and private project developers, manufacturers and end users, research institutions, academia, government, and communities around the state.

(2) Subject to amounts appropriated for this specific purpose, the director of the department of commerce must provide support to a public-private partnership entity as described in subsection (1)(c) of this section, which may include department staff support and direct funding. The entity should:

(a) Agree to prepare a timely and responsive application for federal funding to develop a regional clean hydrogen hub in Washington state, consistent with the requirements of the federal application process and the policies and strategy of the state of Washington;

(b) Demonstrate meaningful engagement with a range of entities across the state, including federally recognized tribes, labor unions, and communities around the state including overburdened communities, in the development of a hydrogen hub;

(c) Include entities that provide training and expand employment opportunities for the hydrogen workforce, including labor organizations, institutions of higher education, community and technical colleges, and vocational institutions; and

(d) Include specific commitments, as required by the federal application, from industries, transportation agencies, utilities, and other public and private sector entities to assist in funding the application and to develop plans to either construct infrastructure for or to incorporate, or both, the production, distribution, and end use of renewable hydrogen and green electrolytic hydrogen fuels into their transition to cleaner energy.

(3) In addition to the assistance in applying for federal funding provided through subsection (2) of this section, the legislature intends that the state fully support a regional clean energy hub in the state, including further direct financial assistance in developing the hub and the acquisition of hydrogen fuels for state agency and local government uses.

Part 3

VALUATION OF PROPERTY RELATED TO RENEWABLE ENERGY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. A new section is added to chapter 84.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is the policy of this state to promote the development of renewable energy projects to support the state's renewable energy goals.

(2) The department must publish guidance, in cooperation with industry stakeholders, to advise county assessors when appraising renewable energy facilities for determining true and fair value, in accordance with RCW 84.40.030. This guidance must include a cost-based appraisal method, and the development of industry-specific valuation tables for the following types of renewable energy property:

(a) A cost-based appraisal method and industry-specific valuation tables for equipment used to generate solar power must be published by January 1, 2023, for property taxes levied for collection in calendar year 2024;

(b) A cost-based appraisal method and industry-specific valuation tables for equipment used to generate wind power must be published by January 1, 2023, for property taxes levied for collection in calendar year 2024; and

(c) A cost-based appraisal method and industry-specific valuation tables for equipment used to store electricity must be published by January 1, 2024, for property taxes levied for collection in calendar year 2025.

(3) County assessors must refer to this guidance, including cost-based appraisal method and industry-specific valuation tables, when valuing renewable energy property but may also consider one or more additional valuation methods in determining the true and fair value of a property when there is a compelling reason to do so.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "renewable energy property" means property that uses solar or wind energy as the sole fuel source for the generation of at least one megawatt of nameplate capacity, alternating current, and all other equipment and materials that comprise the property, including equipment used to store electricity from the property to be released at a later time. "Renewable energy property" does not include any equipment or materials attached to a single-family residential building.

By examining issues set forth in section 2 of this act, the office will provide the legislature with a fuller understanding of how the legislature as an employer can best implement legislation for collective bargaining for legislative employees, which would be administered by the public employment relations commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The office of state legislative labor relations is created to assist the house of representatives, the senate, and legislative agencies in implementing and managing the process of collective bargaining for employees of the legislative branch of state government.

(2)(a) Subject to (b) of this subsection, the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives shall employ a director of the office. The director serves at the pleasure of the secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives, who shall fix the director's salary.

(b) The secretary of the senate and the chief clerk of the house of representatives shall, before employing a director, consult with legislative employees, the senate facilities and operations committee, the house executive rules committee, and the human resources officers of the house of representatives, the senate, and legislative agencies.

(c) The director serves as the executive and administrative head of the office and may employ additional employees to assist in carrying out the duties of the office. The duties of the office include, but are not limited to, conducting negotiations on behalf of the employer.

(d) The director shall contract with an external consultant for the purposes of gathering input from legislative employees, taking into consideration RCW 42.52.020 and rules of the house of representatives and the senate. The gathering of input must be in the form of, at a minimum, surveys.

(3) The director, in consultation with the secretary of the senate, the chief clerk of the house of representatives, and the administrative heads of legislative agencies shall:

(a) Examine issues related to collective bargaining for employees of the house of representatives, the senate, and legislative agencies; and

(b) After consultation with the external consultant, develop best practices and options for the legislature to consider in implementing and administering collective bargaining for employees of the house of representatives, the senate, and legislative agencies.

(4)(a) By December 1, 2022, the director shall submit a preliminary report to the appropriate committees of the legislature that provides a progress report on the director's considerations.

(b) By October 1, 2023, the director shall submit a final report to the appropriate committees of the legislature. At a minimum, the final report must address considerations on the following issues:

(i) Which employees of the house of representatives, the senate, and legislative agencies for whom collective bargaining may be appropriate;

(ii) Mandatory, permissive, and prohibited subjects of bargaining;

(iii) Who would negotiate on behalf of the house of representatives, the senate, and legislative agencies, and which entity or entities would be considered the employer for purposes of bargaining;

(iv) Definitions for relevant terms;

(v) Common public employee collective bargaining agreement frameworks related to grievance procedures and processes for disciplinary actions;

(vi) Procedures related to the commission certifying exclusive bargaining representatives, determining bargaining units, adjudicating unfair labor practices, determining representation questions, and coalition bargaining;

On motion of Senator Pedersen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2124 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Braun: "I rise to a point of order that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2124 violates Senate Rule No. 25, which requires the subject the bill to be expressed in the title."

President Heck: "Proceed."

Senator Braun: "Thank you Mr. President. So, as you know, Mr. President, Senate Rule No. 25 requires the subject of the bill to be expressed in its title. In recent years, we've all seen this trend with ever more prescriptive and byzantine titles being employed.

This bill before us today is an excellent example. It has 125 words in its title.

Mr. President, as stated in a 2020 ruling from your office, which is supported by long standing case law, if I may read Mr. President?

President Heck: "Proceed."

Senator Braun: "The President will caution members that selecting a narrow title or narrow in specific bill title is not without risk. Where a title is very specific, the language of the bill must follow the title very specifically, and the President will enforce the standards of Rule 25.

Now Mr. President, the language in Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2124 fails to comply with the senate rules as it does not follow the title very specifically and there are several instances in the bill where it deviates from this extremely specific title, and I'd just like to mention two of them.

First of all, the title asserts that collective bargaining is being extended to legislative employees by creating the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations. But the bill's contents do not extend collective bargaining to legislative employees by the creation of the office. This is factually false Mr. President.

The provisions extending collective bargaining are elsewhere in the bill. Specifically, section 4, 5 and 7. If these sections were omitted from the bill there would be no collective bargaining in spite of the fact that the Office of Legislative Labor Relations would still exist. And of course, vice versa is also true. If you were to omit the sections that had the Office of Legislative Labor Relations, but the other sections remained, you would have collective bargaining.

The second example, Mr. President, is that the bills title has a narrower focus on the Office of State Legislative Labor Relations, describing fifteen specific issues in which the office must consider. Yet, after you get past sections 1 and sections 2 the remainder of the bill is outside the scope of that very narrow and carefully crafted title.

These issues, Mr. President, frankly, would not be present if they used a broad bill title, such as the title used in the original bill on this topic, House Bill No. 1806. Just for the information the body the title on that bill was, if I may read?"

President Heck: "Proceed."

Senator Braun: "An act related to extending collective bargaining rights to employees of the legislature, legislative branch of the state government.

If that had been proposed, we wouldn't have an issue, but that is not the title before us today, Mr. President. And as the language of this bill does not follow this very near narrow title, I ask that you rule that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2124 violates Senate Rule No. 25. Thank you Mr. President."

Senator Pedersen: "

Well, thank you very much Mr. President. Although I appreciate very much the careful legal analysis by the gentleman from the 20th District, I guess I want to suggest an alternate grammatical understanding of the title of this bill.

There are several gerunds that are used in words. And so, I'm going to suggest that the way that the title proposes extending collective bargaining agreements to legislative employees is by creating the office, by determining bargaining units, by adjudicating unfair labor practices, determining representation questions, considering approaches taken by other legislatures, specifying unfair labor practices, but without mandating what the collective bargaining agreement must provide.

So Mr. President, I think that what you see in the striking amendment and in the bill, is reflective of the title that that is to say, a broad, a broad approach for setting up a framework and a process for figuring out how the State would make, the State Legislature would make this momentous shift toward having toward having the ability of the , of our employees to do collective bargaining with their employers in the legislative branch."

MOTION

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Brown: "Thank you Mr. President. My almost decade of service has been truly a wild ride. And there are so very many people to thank. First and foremost, I thank my parents who have endured my many frantic phone calls. And have talked me through so many varied issues teaching me to really listen to what people say. Don't get caught up in the emotion but listen to what they are trying to explain to you. Second, to my girls who have supported this journey, despite its disruption to their lives. Finally, I thought I could hold it, to my colleagues and staff and constituents, thank you for engaging in such lively dialogue. I really wish the public understood the meaningful conversations that we have. Whether it's over coffee, or over dinner, or sometimes being pulled aside in a committee room. That's where truly great policy has been made for this state. Mr. President, do I have permission to read one of my dad's favorite poems. It's a short one."

President Heck: "Please proceed."

Senator Brown: "Thanks. It's by Robert Frost, and it's called The Road Not Taken. "Two roads diverged in a yellow wood and sorry I could not travel both and be one traveler. Long I stood and look down one as far as I could to where it bent in the undergrowth. And then took the other as just fair. And having perhaps the better claim because it was grassy and wanted wear, though as for that, the passing there, had worn them really about the same. And both that morning equally lay in leaves no step had trodden black, oh I kept that first for another day. Yet knowing how way leads onto way, I doubted I should ever be back. I shall be telling this with a sigh, somewhere ages and ages hence, two roads diverged in a wood, and I, I took the one less traveled by."

And that has made all the difference. No matter what road you embrace, please just embrace the journey. Approach your colleagues with open minds and civil discourse, and that, Mr. President, will make all the difference.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: “Thank you Mr. President. Well as I said, it’s been very special serving with Senator Brown. Had the opportunity, what was it, 6 or 7 years ago to go with a delegation to the People’s Republic of China where we walked on the great wall, we ate good food, we went to the panda bear reserve, and went to Hong Kong, and learned a lot about a foreign government, and saw some of the most amazing scenery, and unfortunately some of the most amazing pollution that we’ve seen. But there again, one of the advantages of the trip was that the people on that trip really got to socialize and know each other and learn a little bit about them outside of the legislative realm, which I think is very important. And another special thing is some of you know that I spent 7 years in the Tri-Cities, and taught at Pasco High School, so I have sort of an affinity for the Tri-Cities, as almost a second home to me, or maybe a third home. But I wanna thank Senator Brown for all the work she’s done, and it’s been a joy working with you and best of ventures as you go about your fairly new job and keep Carol Moshers straight too. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wamick: “I also raise to honor my good friend... woah! I didn’t see this coming right now, so I wasn’t prepared. But I have really gotten to know Senator Brown on the time that she’s been here. Really appreciated her knowledge of the law. We worked together in district on issues. She is kinda small in stature, but mighty in nature. Her passion for her district is just incredible. Her knowledge of what that district means to the state of Washington is incredible. And her passion for the next generation is incredible to me. She invited myself, my daughter, and my grandson to visit her district. And he’s gonna be like some kind of scientist or something now, because he was only 10 when we went down there, but he still remembers that visit to the facility that we visited in her district. She took the time to make sure that that was set up. Took the time to be available for young people who want to get into their work. And it’s very technical work in her district. But more so, I have enjoyed over the years kinda sitting in this little cluster when we are all here, that was just so much fun to work on the state’s business, laugh a little bit, cry a little bit, and work together across the aisle. So really gonna miss you, don’t stay a stranger, we are going to keep in touch, but thank you for your service and thank you for all you’ve done for the state of Washington and your district.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wellman: “It has been an honor and a pleasure to have worked with Senator Sharon Brown over these few years. I wish there were more. Sometimes when you get someplace, you think ‘let everything stay the way it is, I love it’, and I’ve enjoyed everybody, and then there are changes. But those changes come and go, and I do appreciate them. There aren’t too many fellow geeks in the senate Mr. President, and I consider Sharon Brown one of those favorite geeks of mine. Where we can wail away on blockchain technology and other things of the future and see the significance that they can be to bring to the state. She has been a strong supporter of the future of nuclear energy and exploring that with her has been fascinating. We got to travel together, I guess senator Brown has traveled a lot of places because we traveled to Denmark and Sweden learning about their energy production and their sustainability. And I will never forget what was, I think about a three-hour train ride we took where we off on one section of the train and we just talked and found out so many things in common. So many points of connection with her family and my family and her love for her daughters and me for mine. She will really be missed and hopefully our connection will remain long after this time. But just to appreciate her work here in the senate has been a privilege and a pleasure. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Short: “Thank you Mr. President. Sharon, I have been so glad serving with you. You know when she got – came – to the legislature, a la energy issues, she was in the senate, she loves energy issues, and we had the greatest conversations on all types of focused work to that end with her work in the Tri-Cities. But the thing that’s impressed me about you Sharon is just the detailed work you do, every nuance that you would learn, and come to know to just represent your district and your people to the fullest that you could. You amaze me with all of the work that you’ve done for college students you know, struggling with depression and suicide. The increased suicide rates with your work, bringing training to nurses so we can bring nurses to our schools. You gave so many people in your district a voice. And the work that she does for everything that she can do, and the relationships that you have built have just made you a champion. I love being your friend, and I am going to miss you. Best of luck, and don’t forget us.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rivers: “Thank you so much Mr. President. Well, senator Brown, it has been one heck of a ride. There are so many things that I think of, and will always think of, when it comes to you. Your character is second to none. And you have been such an inspiration to me. Though many have taken a swipe at you, you have never swiped back, which I think is simply remarkable, and it really speaks about who you are and your perseverance. But without you, were would industrial symbiosis be? But it’s not just that, it’s that you’re a person of your word. Anyone can take you to the bank because if you give your word, then we know that you will work your fingers to the bone to honor that word, and that is also something that we have benefited from. You’ve been like my sister for 10 years. I don’t think your leave the senate will change that one bit. So please know, whenever I think of you, I will think of the remarkable character traits you have, and how you’ve made this senate a better place. Thank you so much.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wilson, L.: “Thank you. Well, I knew this was coming, but I wasn’t thinking this was going to be today, so I haven’t thought of everything I was going to say, and I’m not going to look at her while I am talking. So, I have known Sharon for 6 years now, and pretty much the whole time I’ve been here in the senate, we’ve been roommates as well, so I’ve had a really good opportunity to get to know her and get to know how close the relationship has become and how I appreciate your knowledge and your expertise and your counsel and your guidance and how you many times have challenged my thinking. We will have sit there until midnight sometimes, maybe longer, talking about things and challenged the way I’m thinking about some particular issue because we would have a lot of conversations about that. But she has an, and her character is above reproach. And I really appreciate how she sincerely cares for everyone, she has a good thing to say, something to say about pretty much everybody, regardless. And I appreciate the, how much she devotes to her girls. She goes to great lengths to do the right thing and make them happy and. So, I just want to thank her for being here, and for being my friend and everything she has done for the state of Washington. And I wish you well in your next endeavors, but this won't be the last you see of me, so I will miss you here, but thank you for being here."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Braun: "Thank you Mr. President. First Mr. President, if you just pass my thanks to senator Hunt to getting after that long awkward silence we had right at the beginning of this discussion, and pass my surprise onto senator Brown, who did legitimately surprise us with that speech. But I welcome the opportunity to talk briefly about senator Brown's work here in the senate over the last 10 years – we both came to the senate the same year, 2013, we both – for senator Brown it was particularly interesting because her predecessor, Jerome Delvin, who was here for – I just showed up, I had met him, I worked with him for like 3 days, and then all of a sudden he was gone and Sharon Brown was there. And she came in in the beginning of session, 0 time to ramp up, and she got right into it. Really impressive, almost immediately a contributing member of the caucus and I was always impressed by that, still am impressed by that. The other thing that is always impressed me is her ability to find a topic that was particularly important either to her district or she saw it, kinda looked head and saw it as a topic that was important to our state. And we've heard about her work on nuclear power, on suicide prevention. She has worked specifically on Meals-on-Wheels, it is a small program but an important program in our state. But other things more recently like Bitcoin, and blockchain, and digital currency. I can't count the number of conversations I've had with senator Brown that started like 'I'd like to tell you something about' pick one of the topics I just mentioned. And she is very focused, and she really wants to understand it deeply herself, and help us understand it. And I think that deepens the substance of our discussion makes us better prepared to look at policy and look at things that will make our state more competitive in the future. So, I want to thank her for that. And the other thing I want to mention is because, again, from when I came to the legislature, I realized now of course, I didn't have a good appreciation for all the parts of our wonderful state, and I certainly didn't fully understand everything that exists in the Tri-Cities, and Sharon has been an undying advocate for all the things – we think about sometimes us less knowledgeable folks, we think about eastern Washington and think about all the agriculture, and all the traditional strengths, but we sometimes don't realize the deep research and technical abilities that exists in places like the Tri-Cities. And Sharon brown would not let our ignorance would stand. She had to tell us about all the great things up there, the world leading research that happens right here in the northeast corner, or roughly northeast corner of our state, and I wanna thank her for that. It has been a great pleasure to serve with her these last 10 years. We will certainly miss her, but she shouldn't think she gets off the hook just by leaving here. We will be back to work with her and ask for her help in the future. Thank you, Mr. President."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: " The President would respectfully suggest that it is an appropriate time for the body to collectively express its gratitude, appreciation, admiration, and affection for senator

Brown and her outstanding public service."

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Senate rose in applause to thank and acknowledge Senator Brown for her service.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Carlyle: "Thank you Mr. President. It is my great honor to join my good friend senator Brown in taking a moment to express my gratitude of being her partner in service, as well as all of my colleagues, as well as you, Mr. President. I feel a deep sense of fulfillment and completion, and accomplishment in joining you Mr. President today, as we prepare to end our legislative session. I've had the great honor for 14 years being a partner in service on so many challenging issues. And I'd like to take just a moment; I know that it doesn't need to be said, but on occasion, it probably should, that the people of America's 36th district are just the most entrepreneurial, passionate, engaged, spirited, and gracious, well-dressed, and humble people in this state. Just fabulous, fabulous community that I love so much. When I first ran for office, my four wonderful and amazing children: Nava, Zev, Liat, and Adi, were 1, 3, 7, or 5, 7, 9. And now they are 15, 20, 22, and 24. And it's been the honor of my life, of course along with my amazing wife Wendy to the love of my life, and the spirit and soul that drives me to raise my children during this time of service. The same time I've worked full time like many of you, and many of my colleagues, it's a real challenge. You know, like everyone, my journey here has not been easy. I was raised as an only child of a hippie single mother who struggled with mental illness for many years. And was the only woman welder in a shipyard of 250 men and went through all those challenges. But my big break actually came when I walked into this capital building as a 15-year-old page, and saw the name Whatcom County up there, where I was from, and I really just had an amazing, amazing experience. And from there I got to go for an amazing journey of my life to Washington D.C. where I served as a US congressional page for senator Warren Magnuson, senator Scoop Jackson, and for a brief time, speaker of the house Tip O'Neil. And what I learned from those legislative giants is something that I have thought about every day, and I learned from so many of my colleague, which is: the spirit of bipartisan ship, and compromise, and negation, and smart incrementalism is the essence of representative democracy in this constitutional republic. It is powerful, it is what moves us forward, it's what keeps us safe, and moving forward at the same time. I reject rigid ideological purity, and I really admire the deeper connections that we make in terms of relationships, trust, authenticity, and in very serious policy challenges. And I have enjoyed over the course of my time working on some of the most challenging issues. And I've been so honored to be a leader in so many of the toughest, toughest issues we've faced. And I've failed a lot, and learned a lot, and succeeded a bit. I am very proud that we have the strongest 100 percent clean energy bill in the nation, and I would say that that 100 percent clean energy bill in the nation, which is the toughest, the only major clean energy bill in the nation that the utility industry supported. And they supported it because they felt heard and seen. And so, we designed policies that actually worked. I'm proud of that. I'm proud that we have an economy wide carbon pricing that is historic. I'm proud of so much of the climate work that sets us on the path towards Paris agreement level emission reductions while growing our economy and protecting and growing jobs. I'm proud, Mr. President, of the fact that the value of a tax preference is now public information with accountability and measurements and metrics which didn't exist before. I'm proud and grateful for the support of my colleagues, that when I first entered the legislature, the graduation rate of high school – for foster youth – in this state was in the mid-twenties and it’s now in the mid-fifties. We’ve doubled it through investments in Treehouse and so many other investments that I hope my colleagues will for years to come. When I go to Magnolia in my district, it’s so exciting to see the kids line up and go to school, and I played an instrumental role in re-opening that school, and it’s just one of the small little things that you know you made a difference in the world. I’ve done my best Mr. President to leave it all and to run through the tape and to try to serve with grace and authenticity and so much of my accomplishments of my success came from an unbelievable staff that we have in this institution in the legislature. And also, my legislative aids and so many others. And I just am so grateful for the essence of a citizen legislature. I think it’s powerful, where its real people living real lives, and bringing our full selves to this work. I also I think it’s known in some ways for what I failed to accomplish. And I think that matters as well. I just want to take just a brief moment to thank senator Wamick and others who stood with me on the issue of the death penalty when it was difficult and challenging and hard. But I know that bipartisan vote for multi-year, over the years, brought out something deep in that time of reflection, and I feel so very strongly about that issue. And I want to thank my colleagues for their support. I believe deeply in the issue of privacy, that we have a fundamental moral right to our own independence and freedom and not to be tracked every step of the way in our lives, and I’m sorry to have not been successful at that. But ultimately, I think it’s just such a fabulous institution, and I have been so honored to work on really meaningful historic issues and to accomplish some on behalf of my community and to build relationships that are very meaningful to me. I am very grateful to my constituents, my family, my community, my friends, and to all of you. And I also appreciate that when we are gone, we’re gone, and there is just a robust energy that continues with new people and new spirit and new drive and new passion for issues and that’s what makes our quality of life is so special. It’s hard to be a prophet in your own land, and we know that as a state for all of us, we have a beautiful quality of life. We have a strong robust quality of infrastructure, of educated workforce, of education, of jobs and economic opportunity, and natural resources, and I just hope and pray that we continue to value it and do that work with meaning and purpose. So, with that Mr. President, I could not be more grateful for the honor of having been your and all of my colleagues’ partner in service. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Billig: “Thank you Mr. President. Well, I want to thank my colleague Senator Carlyle. I want to thank him for his service to our state and for his friendship. I’ve had the pleasure of working with him for 12 years. Having been to his home, met his family, shared meals with him. And I’m going to miss his as a colleague here. I am also going to miss him because of the policy work he that he does. He is somebody that gets in the weeds and does the hard work of moving forward important policy for the people of this estate. And his is known of course for his leadership in climate and environmental policy, tax preference transparency, and he mentioned two other areas that I also think are important: his leadership in the death penalty, and the one that stands out to me actually the most, because I think he has made such a fundamental difference, is about foster care and supporting the foster children of this state. Foster children are our responsibility, they are our kids, they are the state’s kids. And Senator Carlyle has taken that to heart. And the work that he has done, not just for education for foster children, but also for extended foster care, has made a difference for kids in this state, and will continue to do so for generations to come. The good and gracious and good-looking people of the 36th District are going to miss Senator Carlyle as their senator. And we will certainly miss him as well.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pedersen: “Thank you Mr. President. It has been my great pleasure for the last 14 years to serve with the gentleman from the 36th District. We sat together on the House Floor, we sat together in the Ways and Means committee, we have commuted down to Olympia together from time to time, and Mr. President, you know it’s – there are a lot of people for whom one has great respect and develops great appreciation in this process, but it is relatively rare to have someone who is a friend whom you would want to spend time with outside of the process and whom you feel you can really trust. And it has been a huge gift to me for these 14 years to have that in Senator Carlyle. Mr. President, I want to tease him a little bit because I remember vividly coming out of one of your committees on committee processes a few years ago and delivering him the news that when was going to be asked to be the ranking member on what was then called Energy, Environment and Technology. And he just scomed that. It wasn’t enough of a human – a committee that would help human beings he thought, and he wanted – he was interested in something different. And I kind of tried to talk him off the ledge and I said that I thought he could do some good things, and Mr. President, how glad we all are for his service in that way. Our state has really led the country and in some ways is a leader in the entire world because of the incredible thought and energy that Senator Carlyle has put into that work. To try and figure out how we as a state can do not just our part, but more than our part to lead on climate issues and to combat carbon emissions. Mr. President it has been a great pleasure to work with Senator Carlyle on the death penalty and on a whole series of other issues. But what I appreciate more than anything else about him is the spirit of trying to get to an agreement that can help everyone. That can find sort of a middle path that isn’t a 25-vote strategy, but that’s a 40-vote strategy. I think it’s not an accident that Senator Carlyle’s bill on privacy have gone out of the senate nearly unanimously. And I deeply regret that we have not been able to convince our colleagues across the way that significant progress would have been made with the passage of those bills that we should not let the “perfect” be the enemy of the good. I think that for those of us that have been around enough – long enough- to watch Scoop Jackson and Warren Magnuson, you can see that Senator Carlyle took really important lessons from those titans who represented our state and has to great effect applied them to the legislative process, we have all been the richer for that. So Mr. President, it is for both professional loss, and personal loss for me, that as he’s looking forward to an empty nest and thinking about how he is going to spend his final days, I know Mr. President that Senator Carlyle is going to continue to be an incredible public servant and will continue to leave the state better than he found it, and I just want to join my colleagues in thanking him for having given us 14 of years.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Short: “Thank you Mr. President. You know, I was given an opportunity of the session that was born out of tragedy when we lost Doug Ericksen this year. Having served on the Energy Committee as a member this year, particularly gave me the opportunity to serve side by side with Senator Carlyle and I tell you, we’ve had some spirited discussions. We love the energy issues and all of the things that go with it and the passion of moving forward while we’re protecting, you know, rate payer interests. And I can tell you that I so appreciate his openness, his willingness to make sure I knew as ranking member what was going on. And the committee, he never hesitated to text or pick up the phone and say, hey, things may be changing or hey would, would you do whatever we needed to do. And that committee, we did an awful lot of work, and it was a little frustrating at times. But the thing that was never frustrating was being able to work with ruth and, and just, just to have that open line of communication and that friendship. And just the collegiality of, even though we come from different points of view, the ability to work together and figure if there are ways, we could do things together. And I can tell you the thing that touched me most the share was, you know, the comments that he made about Doug after he passed. And it just shows the true man that he is, and the true spirit of just what we all strive for. And I'm and a missed the the plaid suits that walk across the road that walk across the floor. But just mostly his personality, his perseverance, his ability to think on a diamond and say many, many things that we all wish we could ingest. But I am truly honored to have served with represent representative yeah. Was Senator Carlyle in the senate and just wish him the best in his future endeavors. Thank you, Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hunt: "Thank you. It is my honor to honor a long time and great friend of mine, Senator Reuven Carlyle. Reuven and I go back probably further than anybody else in this chamber because, nope, I'm not sure. Anyway..."

President Heck: "Were you here when he was a page at age fourteen? Because I was."

Senator Hunt: "I was there what he was a snotty nose page in the United States Senate, so it's close."

President Heck: "Which came later."

Senator Hunt: "Ok, I lose. Anyway, I was what we call, and he and I are the last two by the way, standing bumblebees, the bumblebees, were Senator Warren Magnuson's staff members. And we got that name because if you go around the U.S. Senate, you see a senator with all the staff members, you know hanging around as they walked down the hall. And Senator Magnuson's wife said, 'you're not going to be bumblebees if you're going to work for, for this guy.' So, we were very careful not to crowd around him in the hall and let him sprint up and down the hall as he would. But you know, so I knew Reuven then, and we kept that friendship going for a number of years and we got out here and I got elected to the House, and Reuven got elected to the House. And then we both came over here. So, we've had a very long relationship, and I just want to talk about friendship and a guy who is true blue, loyal and hardworking. And you know, it's been really great to work and he's not going away. I may still sneak up to his house down there if they have fireworks or something on Elliot Bay. But you know, it's been really great. And I want to tell you Senator Carlyle. We're going to uncover those. We're going to get the skylights open and thank you for your service and leadership on that and so many other issues."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator King: "Well, thank you Mr. President. I didn't, I guess it is called a privilege to have been on a committee with Senator Carlyle, so I didn't get to deal with him on that level. But I have a great deal of respect for the gentleman. I like his coats. You know, I told him a few days ago we need to put up about three mannequins somewhere around here and hang his coats on them, you know, we'll think he never left. But I do, I do really respect the gentleman and all that he's accomplished, even though I probably don't agree with half of it. But it's the way that he's done it. It's the style that he uses, and I watched him, and Senator Ericksen go back and forth and, and yet when I heard his words when he was referencing Senator Ericksen it was very moving. He's just that king of guy. He's done a lot for our environment. Um, but I want to tell him that is his accomplishments won't be complete on environmental issues until I see a windmill in his district. Thank you, Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mullet: "Thank you Mr. President, I, I first met Senator Carlyle in 2011 and I had reached out because he had had a very tight House race in 2008 and I knew I had a tight Senate race coming up in 2012 and so I met him for lunch, I think the Dahlia Lounge downtown for some advice, and that was very helpful. He emphasized to me that you know, legislative campaigns, the beauty of the numbers is you have enough time to go meet a lot of people face to face and you should spend your time doing predominantly just that. I thought I was really good campaign advice from somebody who had been through a very difficult race in 2008, but I'm going to echo the sentiments we heard from Senator King just a second ago because my routine is every summer I buy one brand new suit and when I leave the house to go buy that suit, I am sick and tired of my wife giving one piece of advice that is to buy something that looks like Senator Carlyle's suits and I have to say Senator Carlyle, your suit today is actually quite boring. I mean, I would have thought in his farewell you know his day where he's going to make his farewell remarks, we would have seen the best he had to offer from his wardrobe. So, we'll see maybe tomorrow, there's one more day in the session. We'll see what shows up. Thank you very much."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Warnick: "Thank you Mr. President. And you know, we all teach each other here whether we know it or not. I also was inspired by Scoop Jackson, believe it or not, to actually consider political career. But way, way, way, long time ago. But I, the first time I really understood what Senator Carlyle was about, and it may have happened in the House because we served the other body, we served together too, but he used the term good and gracious lady. And when he stood up to talk about my amendment, well, the good and gracious lady has, and I thought, oh, he's going to take my amendment. He never did. But he made me feel really good for a moment. So, he taught me the value of agreeing to disagree. We especially with the FSEC situations I had a different experience than he did with that. Never got the opportunity, I don't believe, to serve on a committee with him, especially the Energy and Environment Committee. That was something I didn't want to do but, but he taught me the value of stating your case, doing the debate, participating in the debate. And I also want to mention his kind and warm remarks about former Senator Doug Ericksen. I didn't realize they had such a good personal relationship and it was just taught me an awful lot. Wish I'd known that we were going to be talking about you today because we planned to wear plaid and I agree with Senator Mullet that he's pretty sedate today, but I, we will miss miss that good and gracious gentleman from the 36th District. So, thank you Mr.

President.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Frockt: “Thank you. As I started to say, I, I’m sorry I can’t be on the floor at this hour to congratulate and to commend my, my friend from the 36th. My neighboring district. And I only want to say that it has been a pleasure to serve publicly. That has been a pleasure to serve with you. I am so glad that when you came to the Senate, we became, I think, very close friends and good friends. And we confided in each other on many occasions, usually in agreement, not always, but always with great respect for each other. You are a phenomenal Legislator and a good friend, and I wish you all the best as you move forward and I look forward to hanging out with you more as, as the days go on. Thank you for your service.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hawkins: “Thank you Mr. President. I too would like to congratulate Senator Carlyle at his many years of very successful service to the state. Like so many of the colleagues have shared, I’ve really enjoyed my time serving with him and in particular, I really appreciate, and I just want him to know, Mr. President, that I will never forget how he has sort of dedicated a little portion of his great capacity for legislative actions on, on my efforts over the years. So, I think it was back in 2017 I had an issue in the city of Leavenworth related to them disposing of brush and yard waste related to this recently designated and redrawn apple maggot quarantine line. Sounds pretty, you know, probably in the weeds, literally, but you know, he really helped me on that. And I won’t forget it. And then a couple years later in 2019, when I worked on the PUD and renewable hydrogen authority, he had really, really big things that he was working on. But he was always sort of attentive to the smaller bills that I was working on and also that the hydrogen vehicle bill in 2021. He was very helpful in that. Those bills, all those bills came through his committee, and he was there to co-sponsor those bills in hear from my stakeholders and I just want him to know which is probably the case with so many of us. It’s like we won’t forget, we won’t forget that. And it was impressive because he, I’ve always seen him as kind of like this big home run hitter. He was working on these grand slam progressive policies for the state. I was kind of like the Ichiro, trying to get my base hits, but he was doing these huge things but to but never kind of forgot about me. And I appreciate that. I have this idea about his suit jacket, you know, he has an extra one, maybe he can loan it to the Senate. Obviously, we’ll get it dry cleaned, but maybe then some of us who fit into it can kind of where it over the years. I think that’d be kind of a cool thing. But yeah, I’ll miss his floor speeches. He just had this, obviously this remarkable gift of communication that like what here in his privacy speech and some of these things in years past, I just when I was on the floor, I just would sit there and just sort of marvel at just how well he could clearly articulate what he wanted to say, and I personally, I struggle with things like that, but just wanted to tell him thank you, Mr. President, for his support to me and his dedicated service to state all these years and I wish him the best and all his future endeavors. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Braun: “I thank you Mr. President. So, I to rise to honor the service of our, our colleague. And I just want to share a couple historical facts. So again, I’ll go back to when I first came to the Senate. 2013, I was fortunate enough to, we’re fortunate to be in the majority that year. But the penance for me for being the majority is they sent me over to negotiate with the tax bogeyman from the other chamber, then Representative Carlyle on the Bracken Decision. Anybody remembers the Bracken Decision that essentially through our, our estate tax in the state. You know that we had, you know, opposite majorities in the two chambers and this was a very contentious issue. And here I was a freshman and I was sent to, to work this out with then Representative Carlyle. That was tough. But what I learned pretty quickly was he, we obviously had different political philosophies that was plain, but it was also clear that he, he was thoughtful, that he was recognized facts and logic. And that we could find places that we could agree. So that was a tough negotiation, but and, and I would not claim that I got the better end. But we did do some good things. He recognized some work we could do to help. So generational transfers for small businesses, we made it, you know, took off some of the soft edges on the estate tax. I think really did make it better for the citizens, the state of Washington and ultimately got the job done. And we both voted for the bill. I didn’t want to vote for the bill, but I did. And in return for that good work that we did in 2013, they teamed us up again in 2014 on cannabis. So that was right, as you know is 2012 and initiative it passed and, and if anybody remembers the initiative, there was a lot of complexity there. And, and of course we all had a little green crosses, spring up on a neighborhood because of the crossover between recreational marijuana, a cannabis. Excuse me, recreational cannabis and and, and in medical cannabis. So, we, we got to, we were asked to sit down and kind of work through that in a way that all both of the Chambers could agree to. And that year in particular, I remember because they sent Representative Cody with him. That was a little bit intimidating, but again, again, you know, willing to listen to the facts, willing to listen to logic, even though we disagreed on certain issues. We were able to come to a solution that I’m, I’m very proud. stayed in place actually until this year we made some slight changes to this year but really got our state on a better path for regulating the, the sale of recreational cannabis and I, I hear those stories just to kind of highlight the kind of work I think that Senator Carlyle has always been involved in. He likes these large projects, things that are very detail oriented, the really have to dig into and think through. He’s not afraid of, of, of disagreement. In fact, sometimes I think he enjoys disagreement. He likes to get in and work through and if you embrace that, if you’re willing to work in good faith, be clear about what you can do and can’t do and find a path in between, you can get to a good long lasting bipartisan solution. I think that will be as much as anything his legacy that he has left some, some challenging topics, challenging policy that he’s worked through with many people in our, in both Chambers that will last for years, sometimes decade, perhaps, decades in on of course, on top of that a, he is unfailingly courteous. He, you know, he never, if, if one adjective or adverb is good than two or three or four is better. Ah, and it just his, his approach to our work here in spite of our differences has always been for me enjoyable and I will very much miss serving with him here in this in this body. So, thank you Mr. President.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rolfes: “Thank you Mr. President. I rise to honor two people. I’d like to begin with Senator Brown briefly because I missed the opportunity to speak on the floor earlier. I don’t know if Senator Brown has ever heard this, but recently I was speaking at a statewide conference and they asked for a few introductory, they asked me a few introductory questions just to as an ice breaker. And one of the questions was, if you had to be tied to somebody for the entire day in the state Senate, who would you pick? And I had thought about it really seriously and I said Sharon

FIFTY NINTH DAY, MARCH 9, 2022

2022 REGULAR SESSION

Brown. And I that is because you can't find a more pleasant level-headed, friendly, kind human. And I wanted that Senator Brown to know that. And furthermore, we both who graduated from high school in adjacent towns in New Jersey. So occasionally we refer to each other as, hey jersey girl. And so, Mr. President, I just would like to be on record as saying how much I'm going to miss working with Senator Brown and that I hope we can remain friends.

Now on to Senator Carlyle, Senator Carlyle is also one of my favorite people in the Senate and know I would never attach myself to him for the day. But I want to address some of the comments that have been made today because I knew Senator Carlyle in the House when he was first elected. And we cannot forget that he used to use the term rural socialism with such force on the House Floor that the Republicans would jump up in object. So, he has learned over the years how to become a gracious and diplomatic member of the Legislature. But he was a firebrand when he was first elected. Now, Mr. President, I would also like to say that we know Senator Carlyle, because he works on big picture ideas. I don't even remember his term for it, but like, we need to look at systemic change, you know, big picture stuff. But at the same time, he never forgets the details of his district. Whether that's the elementary school that he referenced earlier or the Pacific Science Center. He is big picture and he's small detail, and that kind of statesperson is rare to find. So, Mr. President before I conclude, I just also want to say on the record that in my opinion Senator Carlyle is such a good man. He's so honest, he's humble, he's transparent, he's authentic, he's passionate. He can stand and make a speech with such grace and thoughtfulness that even if you disagree with him, you say, wow, he really believes that he means what he says, and he wouldn't stand up and say it if he didn't. And finally, Mr. President, in conclusion, only Senator Carlyle would stand up and talk about the disappointments he's had and kind of quietly urge us to be better and to go along with what he thinks are important to do. But I stand here to say, Mr. President that I hope that we pass the death penalty bill before we open the skylights.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: "Well, thank you Mr. President. You know, there's a lot of wonderful things, said about our colleague today on the floor. And I've had some great experiences with him. To visit the great 36th District and Senator Carlyle put me in the passenger seat of his convertible. You know, he's a big car guy, big car guy. And drove me in a beautiful, sunny day around downtown Seattle pointing to the tall buildings the tech world, all the great things that he was so excited about. And I enjoyed that tremendously that day. Drove me back down to the ferry and of course we have adjacent districts, we're just separated by a body of water. And I learned very, very soon here in the Legislature that you want to help your friends. And I was a big supporter of the tunnel because I thought that was a wonderful addition to our state. And when I visit the Pike Place Market today, which I think is not in your district, but when I visit the Pike Place Market today, I look out over the Elliot Bay and there's no noise. There's no dust, it's such a beautiful, beautiful place. And he was so kind to visit my district as well. And I think we went out to the track and saw cars and did all kinds of fun things. He is a big car guy. You guys know that. But visiting the tree farm was very special for me to have you come out. But one thing I want to mention about the Senator Carlyle that maybe hasn't been mentioned yet, is that he is a man of deep, deep faith. He's very involved in his synagogue. And I think that's a quality that you can see. He doesn't talk about it, but you see it with Senator Carlyle and had the great experience. I talk about my friend Arnold's Zweig who was and Auschwitz survivor. What a moving experience it was to bring him to the Chamber here and to meet the especially the members of Jewish faith. That was a great experience for me. I just want to let you know he's doing fine. Ninety-four years old and he's still doing fine. And thank you Senator Carlyle for your service. One, one last comment. I came down here to the Legislature and it wasn't in territorial days, we were state then. And I testified before a committee in the Senate before I was a member, and I was not treated very well. The chair was not chairperson was not attentive to the person speaking. The members on the, on the dais were talking to each other and discussing things. But I want to say that never happened in Senator Carlyle's committee. You always made everyone, everyone feel welcome. And I appreciate that very much. We'll miss you. Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "Now as before, would be an appropriate time for the collective expression of appreciation.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Senate rose in applause to thank and acknowledge Senator Carlyle for his service.
