INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Mr. Brian Smith, Interim CEO of Volunteers of America Western Washington

(VOAWW) and Ms. Galina Volchkova, Senior Director of Housing Services, VOAWW, who were seated in the gallery.

The President also welcomed and introduced members and representatives of the Ukrainian community in Washington led by Valeriy Goloborodko, Honorary Consul of Ukraine in Seattle.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "Lastly it was noted in the resolution that there are 12,000 temporary displaced Ukrainians in America. I believe that since maybe that resolution was being drafted that that number has grown. There are in fact estimated to be about 15,000 temporary displaced Ukrainians in Washington State. That is out of eight million in Ukraine who are displaced by this horrific invasion by Russia. They have a lot of stories about their journeys. One of whom involved a very successful TV producer and film maker and reporter of his city government in Mariupol, who found his home destroyed in April of last year. He was relocated to Russia and then made his way to Belarus and Poland and finally to Estonia last May. Not speaking a word of English, he decided to learn it. Having been to America on several occasions for business, he thought it might be a good place for him to be temporarily displaced. And so, he is relocated to Washington State where he is rendering outstanding service to the Washington State Legislature. For the last 47 days, he has been the [video-]recorder on the floor of our deliberations and his name is Ivan Zavrazhnov. And I would ask the members of the Senate to please acknowledge the presence of Ivan. Welcome to America Ivan."

[The Senate rose in recognition of Mr. Ivan Zavrazhnov, videographer with Legislative Support Services.]

MOTION

At 12:51 p.m., on motion of Senator Pedersen, the Senate was declared to be at ease subject to the call of the President for the purposes of receiving additional committee reports later in the evening.

EVENING SESSION

The Senate was called to order at 8:19 p.m. by the President of the Senate, Lt. Governor Heck presiding.
