Thank You for Your provision and blessing that You shower around us. You are truly a gracious and a loving God. Thank You for allowing us to live in this great state!

Lord, we understand that You are a Sovereign God. And in that, we ask that You help us to rely on Your wisdom. Lord, You said, If we lack wisdom, to ask of You and that You would give it to us. We ask for that wisdom today. Lord, help us to make the right decisions. Help us to seek after righteousness.

Lord, we do pray that you would bless the men and women of this body. We are so grateful for their service to our country. We ask that You provide for their welfare and safekeeping, and that of their families. We ask that You guide them into all truth. Give them a discerning spirit and a bold commitment to integrity.

Lord, we thank You for Your life, the gift of life and on a day like this, when we do pray, that You would comfort hearts. We again thank You for who You are, the All-Wise and All-Mighty God, the wonderful Counselor and certainly Prince of Peace. We thank You for the concern You have for the affairs of man. Thank You for being our God. We pray this in Jesus' name, Amen."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "Honored statewide elected officials, justices of the court and members of the legislature, ladies and gentlemen:

The purpose of this joint session is to conduct a memorial service in memory of members of the legislature who have passed from among us. This has been our longstanding custom: for more than a century the Senate and House have met as we meet today -- to pay special and fitting tribute to the lives and service of these valued public servants.

Despite the abundant work we have here before us, we pause upon this sad occasion and reflect upon the course we have traveled and pay homage to the disappearing generations of men and women who aided in strengthening and multiplying the powers and opportunities, the pleasures and possibilities of the people who constitute this great state.

On behalf of the Senate and the House of Representatives, I would like to extend a warm welcome to the family members, friends and colleagues who have joined us today and offer our deep sympathies."

Mr. Garvaundo Hamilton performed "Amazing Grace."

The President introduced Speaker Laurie Jinkins.

REMARKS BY THE SPEAKER

Speaker Laurie Jinkins: "We gather today to commemorate the lives of the distinguished former members of the Washington State Senate and House of Representatives who have passed from among us. The people of our state are grateful for their public service.

The Sixty-Eighth Legislature conveys its respects to these deceased legislators. They once sat in these chambers, answered roll calls on critical bills, attended committee meetings, and through it sought always to make our state a better place to live. While their journey in this life is complete, their achievements, public record, and valued service are recorded in the journals of the Senate and House and are forever a permanent part of our state's history.

We express our sympathies to the families, friends, and colleagues of these public servants. We also share with them on this memorable occasion the fond and happy memories of these legislators. They leave a legacy of dedicated service that remains always in our hearts, our memories, and the history of our state."

The Speaker introduced Nisqually Tribal Councilwoman Chay Squally, who offered the memorial prayer.

The Speaker introduced Rabbi Yosef Schtroks, Director and Spiritual Leader of Chabad Jewish Center, Olympia, who offered the closing prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER

Rabbi Schtroks: “We have gathered here today to reflect and pray while celebrating the lives of dedicated public servants that are no longer physically with us. Dear God, at this moment we turn to you for strength to go forward. As Jewish wisdom often quotes the verse in Ecclesiastes regarding the loss of a loved one, ‘Vehachai Yiten el libo’ – The living should take to heart.”

Dear God, we strive to take to heart the examples set by these Washington state legislators and leaders. Dear God, we know that all human beings are created in the divine image, and while externally we seem to have great differences, at our core we share a common bond. Thus, we can find relevant the loss of any individual, however it is surely so when we reflect on the passing of those who were communal representatives, our legislators who are no longer with us.

And therefore, let us once more recall the words of scripture ‘Vehachai Yiten el libo’ - the living should take to heart.

Let us reflect on the following teaching taught by the great spiritual leader the Rabbe Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson ‘Free choice and the ability to do good is only the hands of those who are physically living. Once we have passed, we are no longer able to perform those good deeds. But it is the good deeds that are performed in our memories that carry on our legacy.’

As we pray together, let us resolve to continue what these distinguished public servants have started. In the shadow of their legacy let us find tangible ways to use these legislative halls as a conduit to create a more kind, moral, just and ethical society throughout our great state of Washington. We can be links in their chain to inspire the next generation of Washingtonians to live lives which are filled with doing for others, and pursuit of a higher purpose.

Dear God, comfort all those who mourn, and bring joy to the grieving family members in the knowledge that the selfless toil of their loved ones will continue to live on through the work of the senators and representatives gathered here today.

May we very soon merit the fulfillment of the words of the prophet Isaiah, a time when death will be erased forever; and God, the Lord, will wipe the tears away from every face.’ And let us say ‘Amen.’”

The Speaker thanked the President and the senate for their assistance and hospitality and retired from the chair.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: “Thank you, Speaker Jinkins and Members of the House of Representatives. Our deepest gratitude to all who have participated in the service today.

Our special thanks to Trooper Kyle Flaig of the State Patrol, members of the clergy, Garvaundo Hamilton, and Senator Pedersen for their performances. A special thank you to Olivia and William Cain, the grandchildren of Representative Mike Parker, who performed Amazing Grace as families and friends were entering the galleries today. We very much appreciate your participation.

The President hopes that the loved ones of those we honor today will draw comfort from today's observance.”
