groups are held on premises other than a class H licensed premises and for consumption on the premises of such outside location. The holder of such special occasion license shall be allowed to remove from his liquor stocks at his licensed class H premises, liquor for sale and service at such special occasion locations: PROVIDED, That such special license shall be issued only when the facilities of class H licensees in the particular city or county are not suitable and adequate to accommodate the number of persons attending such special occasion: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the Washington state liquor control board may issue banquet permits when such groups prefer to provide their own liquor under such a permit rather than avail themselves of sale and service of liquor by the holder of a class I license. Such special class I license shall be issued for a specified date and place and upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars per day.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 10
[Senate Bill No. 2338]
GOVERNMENTAL PURCHASES OF SHELTERED WORKSHOPS PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

AN ACT Relating to sheltered workshops; amending section 3, chapter 20, Laws of 1975 and RCW 39.23.020; and amending section 3, chapter 40, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 43.19.530.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 20, Laws of 1975 and RCW 39.23.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Municipalities are hereby authorized to purchase products and/or services manufactured or provided by sheltered workshops and programs of the department of social and health services. Such purchases shall be at the fair market price of such products and services as determined by a municipality. To determine the fair market price a municipality shall use the last comparable bid on the products and/or services or in the alternative the last price paid for the products and/or services. The increased cost of labor, materials, and other documented costs since the last comparable bid or the last price paid are additional cost factors which shall be considered in determining fair market price. Upon the establishment of the fair market price as provided for in this section a municipality is hereby empowered to negotiate directly with sheltered workshops or officials in charge of the programs of the department of social and health services for the purchase of the products or services.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 40, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 43.19.530 are each amended to read as follows:

The state agencies and departments are hereby authorized to purchase products and/or services manufactured or provided by sheltered workshops and programs of the department of social and health services. Such purchases shall be at the fair market price of such products and services as determined by the division of purchasing of the department of general administration. To determine the fair market price the division shall use the last comparable bid on the products and/or services or in the alternative the last price paid for the products and/or services. The increased cost of labor, materials, and other documented costs since the last comparable bid or the last price paid are additional cost factors which shall be considered in determining fair market price. Upon the establishment of the fair market price as provided for in this section the division is hereby empowered to negotiate directly with sheltered workshops or officials in charge of the programs of the department of social and health services for the purchase of the products or services.

CHAPTER 11
[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2184]
CONTRACTORS' BONDS——AMOUNTS——IMPAIRMENT

AN ACT Relating to contractors' bonds; and amending section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.040.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 4, chapter 153, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of ((two)) four thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of ((one)) two thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. Any registered contractor with an unimpaired bond in effect on the day immediately preceding the effective date of this 1977 amendatory act, is hereby authorized to maintain such bond until the next annual renewal of such bond at which time the terms of this 1977 amendatory act must be complied with: PROVIDED, That a change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond
