Clarifying a hate crime offense.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Dhingra moved that the following committee striking amendment by the Committee on Law & Justice be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. RCW 9A.36.080 and 2024 c 34 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of a hate crime offense if the person maliciously and intentionally commits one of the following acts in whole or in part because of their perception of another person's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression or identity, or mental, physical, or sensory disability:

- (a) Assaults another person;
- (b) Causes physical damage to or destruction of the property of another; or
- (c) Threatens a specific person or group of persons and places that person, or members of the specific group of persons, in reasonable fear of harm to person or property. The fear must be a fear that a reasonable person would have under all the circumstances. For purposes of this section, a "reasonable person" is a reasonable person who is a member of the victim's race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, or sexual orientation, or who has the same gender expression or identity, or the same mental, physical, or sensory disability as the victim. Words alone do not constitute a hate crime offense unless the context or circumstances surrounding the words indicate the words are a threat. Threatening words do not constitute a hate crime offense if it is apparent to the victim that the person does not have the ability to carry out the threat.

(2) In any prosecution for a hate crime offense, unless evidence exists which explains to the trier of fact's satisfaction that the person did not intend to threaten the victim or victims, the trier of fact may infer that the person intended to threaten a specific victim or group of victims because of the person's perception of the victim's or victims' race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender expression or identity, or mental, physical, or sensory disability if the person commits one of the following acts:

- (a) Burns a cross on property of a victim who is or whom the actor perceives to be of African American heritage;
- (b) Defaces property of a victim who is or whom the actor perceives to be of Jewish heritage by defacing the property with a Nazi emblem, symbol, or hakenkreuz;
- (c) Defaces religious real property with words, symbols, or items that are derogatory to persons of the faith associated with the property;
- (d) Places a vandalized or defaced religious item or scripture on the property of a victim who is or whom the actor perceives to be of the faith with which that item or scripture is associated;
- (e) Damages, destroys, or defaces religious garb or other faith-based attire belonging to the victim or attempts to or successfully removes religious garb or other faith-based attire from the victim's person without the victim's authorization; or
- (f) Places a noose on the property of a victim who is or whom the actor perceives to be of a racial or ethnic minority group.

This subsection only applies to the creation of a reasonable inference for evidentiary purposes. This subsection does not restrict the state's ability to prosecute a person under subsection (1) of this section when the facts of a particular case do not fall within (a) through (f) of this subsection.

(3) It is not a defense that the accused was mistaken that the victim was a member of a certain race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, or sexual orientation, had a particular gender expression or identity, or had a mental, physical, or sensory disability.

(4) Evidence of expressions or associations of the accused may not be introduced as substantive evidence at trial unless the evidence specifically relates to the crime charged. Nothing in this chapter shall affect the rules of evidence governing impeachment of a witness.

(5) Every person who commits another crime during the commission of a crime under this section may be punished and prosecuted for the other crime separately.

(6) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Gender expression or identity" means having or being perceived as having a gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior, or expression, whether or not that gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior, or expression is different from that traditionally associated with the sex assigned to that person at birth.

(b) "Sexual orientation" means heterosexuality, homosexuality, or bisexuality.

(c) "Threat" means to communicate, directly or indirectly, the intent to:

- (i) Cause bodily injury immediately or in the future to the person threatened or to any other person; or
- (ii) Cause physical damage immediately or in the future to the property of a person threatened or that of any other person.

(7) Commission of a hate crime offense is a class C felony.

(8) The penalties provided in this section for hate crime offenses do not preclude the victims from seeking any other remedies otherwise available under law.

(9) Nothing in this section confers or expands any civil rights or protections to any group or class identified under this section, beyond those rights or protections that exist under the federal or state Constitution or the civil laws of the state of Washington."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Wilson, C.: "Thank you so much Mr. President. I'd like to talk a little about Aaron Andersen, our LSS photographer extraordinaire who is spending his last day tomorrow but is with us today on the floor of the Senate but also in this legislative body.

He started working at the Legislature in the Fall of 2018, when I came on board. He's worked here seven Legislative sessions.

He just earned his pre-nursing Associate's degree from Clark College.

He is graduating Summa Cum Laude and maintained a 4.0 GPA, which included organic chemistry, one of my favorite courses, while working and balancing being a dad. And an awesome dad he is.

He has three daughters - Abigail, Ava, and Eisley - who mean the world to him and if you've ever stayed connected with him on social media you know how much his children mean to him and how much he means to his girls.

As a nurse, Aaron plans to pursue Pediatrics, or Labor and Delivery, because of his love of kids and families. His goal is to eventually be a Physician's Assistant.

Outside of studying and taking absolutely stunning photos, Aaron loves spending time with his girls, nurturing his gigantic collection of unique house plants, again if you've not seen he has a green thumb like no one else, he loves exploring the outdoors, going antiquing and restoring vintage finds. And one of my favorites is his tv terrarium that he made where he took the insides out of an old television and now it has green growing inside his house. And he also loves to make people laugh and also makes people seen. And we see you, Aaron.

He goes above and beyond for others with his kindness every single chance that he gets.

And when I think of Aaron, I think about the fact that he creates history through his artistry, and he creates artistry through his photography. And he can make me look better than anybody else ever could with a camera. And I will always except photos that Aaron Anderson has taken of me and those around me

Mr. President, he will be sorely missed, I know, by not only me but by others in this body. And this morning if you had an opportunity to celebrate Aaron, the hallway was filled with individuals who I think feel the same way as I do. And, I just want to say thank you so much for your time and for what you have given the state of Washington. And you will forever be remembered Aaron."

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President of the Senate appointed a committee of honor consisting of Secretary Sarah Bannister and Deputy Secretary Colleen Pehar to escort Mr. Aaron Andersen to the rostrum.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: “Well Aaron, as you know, we are going to take a photograph with you. Afterwards. I’m guessing maybe the other Aaron can fill in. But, in the meantime we have a couple of presentations. Most of the members, and if you have not done yet, please do so afterwards, have signed this unbelievably beautiful, stunning book of photographs that you have taken over the last seven years. And as Senator Wilson has suggested, and as I wrote in here, you really know how to make a silk purse out of a pig’s ear, let me tell you. The way you have made us look so much better than we are is almost unbelievable. To suggest that you are an artist is a great understatement. But I would suggest that if you are 10% the physician’s assistant that you are a photographer, you are going to be among the best of the best.

And on a personal note, I also want to present you with this lapel pin. You can’t see it; it is a penguin and says ‘Clark College’. Aaron as a graduate of Clark College joins and extraordinarily exclusive and elite group of members of this body who attended Clark College including Senator Cleveland and myself. One of whom was named one of Clark Colleges most distinguished alums ever. That was not me.

Aaron, you make us proud of our alma mater. More importantly you make us proud of having the privilege to have worked alongside of you. Thank you for sharing your unbelievable gift. We will indeed miss you.

The President presented Mr. Andersen with his gifts and the Senate rose in applause.

Senator Hasegawa announced a meeting of the Democratic Caucus.

Senator Warnick announced that the Republican Caucus would have a photo at the rostrum upon adjournment.

MOTION

At 11:55 a.m., on motion of Senator Riccelli, the Senate adjourned until 9:30 a.m. Friday, April 4, 2025.
