Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any person, firm or corporation from lawfully carrying on in this state as part of his or its principal occupation work falling within the definitions contained in this chapter of the terms "architecture" or "practice of architecture" from continuing such occupation so long as he or it shall not hold himself or itself out to the public as, or represent himself or itself to be, an architect. This section shall be deemed to specifically exclude home designers and contractors not representing themselves to be architects. This specific exclusion shall not affect the rights of others excluded by the general language of this section. [1959 c 323 § 8.]

Reviser's note: (1) Chapter 205, Laws of 1919, repealed by 1959 c 323 § 19, was formerly codified as RCW 18.08.010-18.08.090;

(2) The effective date of this chapter is midnight June 10, 1959, see preface 1959 session laws.

18.08.180 Registration of out-of-state registrant—Reciprocity. The director may, upon payment of the current registration fee, grant a certificate of registration without examination to an applicant who is a registered architect in another state who has had at least the equivalent experience in responsible charge of architectural work or responsible charge of architectural teaching required by RCW 18.08.140: Provided, That such applicant presents evidence that he has satisfactorily completed a written examination equivalent to the national council of architects registration board examination: And provided further, The state in which the applicant is registered grants reciprocal privileges to architects registered in this state. [1959 c 323 § 9.]

18.08.190 Expiration of certificate—Renewal—Fee—Withdrawal of registrant. Certificates of registration shall expire on the last day of June following their issuance or renewal. The director shall set the yearly fee for renewal which fee shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. Renewal may be effected during the month of June by payment to the director of the fee set. In case any registrant fails to pay the renewal fee before thirty days after the due date, the renewal fee shall be the current fee plus an amount equal to one year's fee: Provided, That any registrant in good standing may withdraw from practice by giving written notice to the director, and may thereafter resume practice at any time upon payment of the then current annual renewal fee. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 2; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 1; 1959 c 323 § 10.]

18.08.200 Revocation, refusal to renew certificate—Grounds. The director may refuse to renew or may revoke a certificate of registration to practice architecture in this state upon the following grounds:

That the holder of the certificate of registration is falsely impersonating a practitioner or former practitioner.

That the holder of a certificate is practicing under a corporate name or under a name implying that the responsibility for the work is assumed by a registered architect who is, in fact, not in responsible charge.

That the holder of the certificate of registration is guilty of fraud or deceit or of gross negligence, gross incompetency or gross misconduct in the practice of architecture.

For the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude.

That the holder of the certificate of registration permitted his seal to be affixed to any plans, specifications or drawings that were not prepared by him or under his personal supervision by employees subject to his direction and control.

That the holder of the certificate of registration received unbeknown to a party for whom he is doing work, rebates, commissions, grants of money or favors which he is not entitled to or justified in receiving.

That the holder of the certificate is practicing contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

That the holder of the certificate has committed fraud in applying for or obtaining a certificate. [1959 c 323 § 11.]

Obtaining license, etc., by false pretenses: RCW 9A.60.050.

18.08.210 Revocation, refusal to renew certificate—Hearing—Subpoenas—Witnesses—Order—Appeal. In all cases where the director shall refuse to renew or shall revoke a certificate of registration the holder shall be entitled to a hearing and shall be given twenty days' notice in writing by the director thereof. The notice shall specify the offenses with which the accused person is charged and shall also give the day and place where the hearing is to be held. The hearing shall be held in the county seat of the county in which the accused person resides.

The director may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses, or the production of books or documents. The accused shall have opportunity to make his defense, and may have such subpoenas issued as he desires. Subpoenas shall be served in the same manner as in civil cases in the superior court. Witnesses shall testify under oath which may be administered by the director. Testimony shall be taken in writing, and may be taken by deposition under such rules as the director may prescribe.

The director shall hear and determine the charges, make findings and conclusions upon the evidence produced, file them in his office, and serve upon the accused a copy of such findings and conclusions.

Any order refusing renewal of registration or revoking registration shall be in writing signed by the director, stating the grounds upon which such order is based and the aggrieved person shall have the right to appeal from such order within fifteen days after a copy thereof is served upon him, to the superior court of the county in which the aggrieved person resides, which shall hear the matter de novo.

An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals from the judgment of the superior court as provided in other civil cases. [1971 c 81 § 58; 1959 c 323 § 12.]

Witnesses—Compelling attendance: Chapter 5.56 RCW.

18.08.220 Reinstatement of certificate—Replacement of lost or destroyed certificate, charge. The director may reinstate a certificate of registration to any person whose certificate has been revoked, if three or more members of the board vote in favor of such reissuance, whenever the board shall find that the circumstances or conditions that brought about the revocation are not likely to recur and that the person is then sufficiently trustworthy and reliable that the best interests of the public will be served by reinstatement of his registration. A new certificate of registration to replace any certificate lost, destroyed, or mutilated may be issued by the director and a charge determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended shall be made for such issuance. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 3; 1959 c 323 § 13.]

18.08.230 Certificate of registration, issuance, contents—Seal, use. The director shall issue a certificate of registration upon payment of the registration fee as provided in this chapter to any applicant who has satisfactorily met all the requirements for registration. All certificates of registration shall show the full name of the registrant, shall have a serial number and shall be signed by the chairman and the secretary of the board and by the director.

The issuance of a certificate of registration by the director shall be prima facie evidence that the person named therein is entitled to all the rights and privileges of a registered architect.

Each registrant shall obtain a seal of the design authorized by the board, bearing the registrant's name and the legend "registered architect". Drawings prepared by the registrant shall be stamped with said seal when filed with public authorities. It shall be unlawful for any one to stamp or seal any document with the seal after the certificate of registrant named thereon has expired or been revoked or while the certificate is suspended. [1959 c 323 § 14.]

18.08.240 Architects' license account. There is established in the state general fund the architects' license account, into which all fees paid pursuant to this chapter shall be paid. [1959 c 323 § 15.]

18.08.250 Exemptions—Use of titles, designations, etc. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to prevent or affect in any way the practice of engineering or land surveying as defined in chapter 18.43 RCW except that no person shall use the designation "architect", "architectural" or "architecture" unless licensed under the provisions of this chapter; nor to prevent the preparations of working drawings, details and shop drawings by persons other than architects for use in connection with the execution of their work or in connection with proposals to be submitted for securing work or contracts; nor to prevent employees of architects from acting under the instruction, control or supervision of their employers; nor to apply to the supervision by builders or superintendents employed by such builders of the construction or structural alteration of buildings or structures: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to permit any person not licensed as provided in this chapter to use the title "architect", or any title, sign, card or device to indicate that such a person is an architect. This chapter shall not apply to landscape architects or naval architects who do not engage in or profess to engage in the practice of architecture. [1959 c 323 § 16.]

18.08.260 Corporations, stock companies barred from registration—Architectural firms, principal must be registered and a resident. [1959 c 323 § 17.]

The department or the department and authorized department jointly, as the case may be, after notice and opportunity for hearing to the applicant or license holder, is authorized to deny, suspend or revoke a license in any case in which it finds there has been a failure or refusal to comply with the requirements established under this chapter or the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

Notice of denial, suspension, or revocation shall be given by registered mail, or by personal service in the manner of service of summons in a civil action; which notice shall set forth the particular reasons for the proposed denial, suspension or revocation and shall fix a date not less than twenty days from the date of mailing or service, during which the applicant or licensee may in writing request a hearing on the denial, suspension, or revocation. If the applicant or licensee fails to request a hearing within that time, the department or the department and authorized department jointly may deny, suspend or revoke the license without further notice or action. The order of denial, suspension or revocation shall be mailed to the applicant or license holder by registered mail or personally served on him in the manner of service of summons in a civil action.

If the applicant or licensee requests a hearing within such time the department shall fix a time for the hearing and shall give the applicant or licensee or such person's attorney, written notice thereof.

The procedure governing hearings shall be in accordance with rules promulgated by the board and such hearing shall be informal and summary, except that a record shall be kept of the testimony taken on behalf of the applicant or licensee and the department, which need not be transcribed unless an appeal is taken therefrom. The department shall render its decision within a reasonable time after the hearing and issue its order, which shall be served on the applicant or licensee or such person's attorney, and the order shall become final unless an appeal is taken therefrom. [1957 c 253 § 6.]

Full opportunity to be heard upon the issues of law and fact shall be had before judgment is pronounced. Such appeal shall be perfected by serving a notice of appeal with the department and by filing the notice of appeal, together with proof of service thereof, with the clerk of the court. The service and the filing together with proof of service of the notice of appeal all within twenty days shall be jurisdictional. The department shall within twenty days after receipt of such notice of appeal serve and file a notice of appearance upon appellant or his attorney of record, and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed at issue. The department shall serve upon the appellant and file with the clerk of the court before hearing a certified copy of the complete record of the administrative proceedings which shall, upon being so filed, become the record in such case. The cost of transcribing the record shall be borne by the appellant where the order of the department is affirmed by the court. In the event of modification or reversal, such cost shall be borne as directed by the court. [1957 c 253 § 7.]

18.20.090 Rules, regulations, and standards. The board shall adopt, amend, and promulgate such rules, regulations, and standards with respect to all boarding homes and operators thereof to be licensed hereunder as may be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter in promoting safe and adequate care of individuals in boarding homes and the sanitary, hygienic and safe conditions of the boarding home in the interest of public health, safety, and welfare. [1971 ex.s. c 189 § 3; 1957 c 253 § 9.]

[1979 c 141 § 26; 1957 c 253 § 10.]

18.20.110 Inspection of boarding homes—Approval of changes or new facilities. The department or authorized health department shall make or cause to be made at least a yearly inspection and investigation of all boarding homes. Every inspection may include an inspection of every part of the premises and an examination of all records (other than financial records), methods of administration, the general and special dietary and the stores and methods of supply. Following such inspection or inspections, written notice of any violation of this law or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, shall be given the applicant or licensee and the department. The board may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alterations or additions to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the department or to the authorized department for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. [1957 c 253 § 11.]

18.20.120 Information confidential. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the state fire marshal in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the state fire marshal or his deputy, shall make an inspection of the boarding home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the state fire marshal, he shall promptly make a written report to the boarding home and the department or authorized department as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, authorized department, applicant or licensee shall notify the state fire marshal upon completion of any requirements made by him, and the state fire marshal, or his deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the boarding home to be licensed meets with the approval of the state fire marshal, he shall submit to the department or authorized department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The state fire marshal shall make or cause to be made inspections of such homes at least annually.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the state fire marshal to be equal to the minimum standards of the state fire marshal's code for boarding homes, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the state fire marshal or his deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued. No person operating a boarding home licensed under this chapter shall admit to or retain in the boarding home any aged person requiring nursing or medical care of a type provided by institutions licensed under chapters 18.51, 70.41 or 71.12 RCW, except that when registered nurses are available from a visiting nurse service or home health agency or from an adjacent or nearby skilled nursing facility or one located in the facility, and upon a doctor's order that a supervised medication service is needed, it may be provided. Such medication service shall be provided only to ambulatory boarders who otherwise meet all requirements for residency in a boarding home. [1975 1st ex.s. c 43 § 1; 1957 c 253 § 16.]

18.20.170 Application of chapter to homes operated by religious organizations. Nothing in this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be construed as authorizing the supervision, regulation, or control of the remedial care or treatment of residents in any boarding home conducted for those who rely upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any well-recognized church or religious denomination. [1957 c 253 § 17.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.010 Practice without license unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice chiropractic in this state, unless they shall have obtained a license as provided in this chapter: Provided, however, That nothing in this chapter shall apply to or affect any persons who are now actually engaged in the practice of such profession, except as hereinafter provided. [1919 c 5 § 4; RRS § 10099.]

Persons practicing prior to act: "All chiropractors practicing within this state six months prior to the passage of this act and who shall be a graduate of a chartered school or college of chiropractic requiring actual attendance in the same, during his course, shall be granted a license as herein provided, without examination, provided that application be made within sixty days after the taking effect of this act and accompanied by the required fee, as herein provided." [1919 c 5 § 7.]

18.25.015 Board created—Composition—Terms. There is hereby created a state board of chiropractic examiners consisting of three practicing chiropractors to conduct examinations and perform duties as provided in this chapter.

Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor from a list of five or more names submitted by the Washington Chiropractors Association, Inc. and/or the Chiropractic Society of Washington. At the time of their appointment, and during their tenure of office, the members of the board must be actual residents of Washington, licensed to practice chiropractic in this state, and must be citizens of the United States.

In order that the term of one member shall expire each year, first members appointed shall serve one for a term of three years, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of one year; thereafter appointments shall be for a term of three years. Vacancies shall be filled by the governor as in the case of original appointment, such appointee to hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term. [1965 ex.s. c 50 § 1; 1959 c 53 § 1.]

18.25.017 Board—Organization, meetings, rules, compensation—Immunity from suit. The board shall meet as soon as practicable after appointment, and shall elect a chairman and a secretary from its members. Meetings shall be held at least once a year at such place as the director of licensing shall determine, and at such other times and places as he deems necessary.

The board may make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this chapter, as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Each member shall receive thirty-five dollars a day for each day actually engaged in conducting examinations or in the preparation of examination questions or the grading of examination papers, together with travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended, all to be paid out of the general fund on vouchers approved by the director, but not to exceed in the aggregate the amount of fees collected as provided in this chapter.

Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon their duties or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 32; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 8; 1959 c 53 § 2.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.020 Applications—Qualifications—Fees. (1) Any person not now licensed to practice chiropractic in this state and who desires to practice chiropractic in this state, before it shall be lawful for him to do so, shall make application therefor to the director, upon such form and in such manner as may be adopted and directed by the director. Each applicant who matriculates after January 1, 1975, shall have completed not less than one-half of the requirements for a baccalaureate degree at an accredited and approved college or university and shall be a graduate of a chiropractic school or college accredited and approved by the board of chiropractic examiners and shall show satisfactory evidence of completion by each applicant of a resident course of study of not less than four thousand classroom hours of instruction in such school or college. Applications shall be in writing and shall be signed by the applicant in his own handwriting and shall be sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and shall recite the history of the applicant as to his educational advantages, his experience in matters pertaining to a knowledge of the care of the sick, how long he has studied chiropractic, under what teachers, what collateral branches, if any, he has studied, the length of time he has engaged in clinical practice; accompanying the same by reference therein, with any proof thereof in the shape of diplomas, certificates, and shall accompany said application with satisfactory evidence of good character and reputation.

(2) There shall be paid to the director by each applicant for a license, a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended which shall accompany application and a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, which shall be paid upon issuance of license. Like fees shall be paid for any subsequent examination and application. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 19; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 9; 1959 c 53 § 3; 1919 c 5 § 5; RRS § 10100.]

18.25.030 Examinations—Subjects—Grades. Examinations for license to practice chiropractic shall be made by the board of chiropractic examiners according to the method deemed by it to be the most practicable and expeditious to test the applicant's qualifications. Such application shall be designated by a number instead of his or her name, so that the identity shall not be discovered or disclosed to the members of the examining committee until after the examination papers are graded.

All examinations shall be in whole or in part in writing, the subject of which shall be as follows: Anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, neurology, spinal pathology, x-ray, principles of chiropractic and adjusting, as taught by chiropractic schools and colleges. A license shall be granted to all applicants who shall correctly answer seventy-five percent of all questions asked, and if any applicant shall fail to answer correctly seventy percent of the questions on any branch of said examination, he or she shall not be entitled to a license. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 10; 1959 c 53 § 4; 1919 c 5 § 6; RRS § 10101.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.035 Waiver of examination. The board may, in its discretion, waive any examination required by this chapter of persons applying for a license to practice chiropractic if, in its opinion, the applicant has successfully passed an examination conducted by the national board of chiropractic examiners of the United States that is of equal or greater difficulty than the examination being waived by the board. [1971 ex.s. c 227 § 5.]

18.25.040 Reciprocal licenses. Persons licensed to practice chiropractic under the laws of any other state having equal requirements of this chapter, may, in the discretion of the board of chiropractic examiners, and after examination by the board in principles of chiropractic, x-ray, and adjusting, as taught by chiropractic schools and colleges, be issued a license to practice in this state without further examination, upon payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 20; 1971 ex.s. c 227 § 6; 1919 c 5 § 14; RRS § 10108.]

18.25.050 Revocation or refusal of licenses—Hearing—Restoration. (1) The director may refuse to grant or may revoke a license to practice chiropractic in this state or may cause a licentiate's name to be removed from the records in the office of the county clerk of any county in this state upon any of the following grounds, to wit: The employment of fraud or deception in applying for a license or in passing an examination provided for in this chapter; the practice of chiropractic under a false or assumed name, or the impersonation of another practitioner of like or different name; the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude; habitual intemperance in the use of ardent spirits, controlled substances, or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of his or her professional duties; exploiting or advertising through the press, or by the use of handbills, circulars, or other periodicals, other than professional cards, giving only name, address, profession, office hours, and telephone connections. Any person who is a licentiate, or who is an applicant for a license to practice chiropractic against whom any of the foregoing grounds for revoking or refusing a license, is presented to said director with a view of having the director revoke or refuse to grant a license, shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint, and shall have a hearing before said director in person or by attorney, and witnesses may be examined by said director respecting the guilt or innocence of said accused.

(2) Said director may at any time within two years of the refusal or revocation or cancellation of registration under this section, issue a new license or grant a license to the person affected, restoring him to, or conferring upon him all the rights and privileges of, and pertaining to the practice of chiropractic as defined and regulated by this chapter. Any person to whom such have been restored shall pay to the director a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended upon issuance of a new license. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 21; 1919 c 5 § 8; RRS § 10103.]

18.25.060 Recording of license—Cancellation for failure. (1) Every person who shall receive a license from the director of licensing shall have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county of which he resides and shall likewise have it recorded in the counties to which he shall subsequently remove for the purpose of practicing chiropractic.

(2) The failure or refusal on the part of the holder of a license to have it recorded before he or she shall begin the practice of chiropractic in this state after having been notified by the director to do so, shall be sufficient grounds to revoke or cancel a license and render it null and void. The county clerk shall keep for public inspection, in a book provided for that purpose, a complete list and description of the licenses recorded by him. When any such licenses shall be presented to him for record, he shall stamp upon the face thereof his signed memorandum of the date when such license was presented for record. [1919 c 5 § 9; RRS § 10104.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.25.070 Annual renewal of license—Attendance at approved symposiums required—Fees—Forfeiture—Penalties—Reexamination. Every person practicing chiropractic shall, as a prerequisite to annual renewal of license, submit to the director at the time of application therefor, satisfactory proof showing attendance during the preceding year, at one or more chiropractic symposiums which are recognized and approved by the board of chiropractic examiners: Provided, That the board may, for good cause shown, waive said attendance.

(1) Symposiums approved, by the board, for licensees practicing or residing within the state of Washington are those sponsored or conducted by the Washington Chiropractor's Association, the Chiropractic Society of Washington, the American Chiropractic Association, or The International Chiropractic Association, or an approved chiropractic college and which devote themselves to lectures or demonstrations concerning matters which are recognized in the state of Washington chiropractic licensing laws.

(2) Symposiums approved, by the board, for licensees practicing and residing outside the state are those sponsored or conducted by an approved chiropractic college or a recognized chiropractic organization which is representative of the chiropractors of a state, a territory, a province, or a country.

(3) To be eligible for approval, a symposium shall:

(a) Be sponsored by an approved chiropractic college or a recognized chiropractic organization which is representative of the chiropractors of a state, a territory, a province, or a country; and

(b) Extend over a period of at least two days, and offer an education program consisting of at least eight hours; and

(c) Include instruction by at least two outstanding chiropractic educators.

Every person practicing chiropractic within this state shall pay on or before the first day of September of each year, after a license is issued to him as herein provided, to said director a renewal license fee to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. The director shall, thirty days or more before September first, of each year mail to all chiropractors in the state a notice of the fact that the renewal fee will be due on or before the first of September. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to require that the receipts shall be recorded as original licenses are required to be recorded.

The failure of any licensed chiropractor to pay his annual license renewal fee by the first day of October following the date on which the fee was due shall work a forfeiture of his license. It shall not be reinstated except upon written application and the payment of a penalty to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, together with all annual license renewal fees delinquent at the time of the forfeiture, and those for each year thereafter up to the time of reinstatement. Should the licentiate allow his license to elapse for more than three years, he must be reexamined as for a new license. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 22; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 11; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 5; 1959 c 53 § 5; 1919 c 5 § 10; RRS § 10105.]

18.25.080 Health regulations. Chiropractic practitioners shall observe and be subject to all state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious and infectious diseases, sign death certificates and any and all matters pertaining to public health, reporting to the proper health officers the same as other practitioners. [1919 c 5 § 12; RRS § 10107.]

18.25.090 Prohibited practices—Penalty—Exceptions. Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice chiropractic, or any person who shall buy, sell or fraudulently obtain any diploma or license to practice chiropractic, whether recorded or not, or who shall use the title chiropractor, D.C.Ph.C., or any word or title to induce belief that he is engaged in the practice of chiropractic without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and every person filing for record, or attempting to file for record, the certificate issued to another, falsely claiming himself to be the person named in said certificate, or falsely claiming himself to be the person entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a felony. All subsequent offenses shall be punished in like manner. Nothing herein shall be held to apply to or to regulate any kind of treatment by prayer: Provided, That on all cards, books, papers, signs or other written or printed means of giving information to the public, used by those licensed by this chapter to practice chiropractic, the practitioner shall use after or below his name the term chiropractor or D.C.Ph.C. designating his line of drugless practice, and shall not use the letters M.D. or D.O.: Provided, That the word doctor or "Dr." may be used only in conjunction with the word "chiropractic" or "chiropractor". [1971 ex.s. c 227 § 7; 1919 c 5 § 15; RRS § 10109.]

18.25.100 Prosecutions for violations. It shall be the duty of the several prosecuting attorneys of this state to prosecute all persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. It shall be the duty of the director of licensing to aid said attorneys of this state in the enforcement of this chapter. [1919 c 5 § 16; RRS § 10110.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.25.110 "Unprofessional conduct". See RCW 18.26.030.

18.25.120 Discrimination—Legislative finding and declaration. The legislature finds and declares that the costs of health care to the people are rising disproportionately to other costs and that there is a paramount concern that the right of the people to obtain access to health care in all its facets is being impaired thereby. For this reason, the reliance on the mechanism of health care service contractors, whether profit or nonprofit, is the only effective manner in which the large majority of the people can attain access to quality health care, and it is therefore declared to be in the public interest that health care service contractors be regulated to assure that all the people have access to health care to the greatest extent possible. *This 1974 amendatory act, prohibiting discrimination against the legally recognized and licensed profession of chiropractic, is necessary in the interest of the public health, welfare, and safety. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 1.]

Reviser's note: "This 1974 amendatory act" [1974 ex.s. c 97] consists of RCW 18.25.005, 18.25.120–18.25.170, 18.26.035 and amendments to RCW 18.25.017, 18.25.020, 18.25.030, 18.25.070, 18.26.030, 18.26.040, and 18.26.070.

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: "If any provision of this 1974 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 16.]

18.25.130 Discrimination—Acceptance of services of chiropractors by state and political subdivisions required. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions shall accept the services of licensed chiropractors for any service covered by their licenses with relation to any person receiving benefits, salaries, wages, or any other type of compensation from the state, its agencies or subdivisions. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 2.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.140 Discrimination—State and political subdivisions prohibited from discriminating against chiropractors in performing and receiving compensation. The state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from in any way discriminating against licensed chiropractors in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 3.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.150 Discrimination—State and political subdivisions—Entering into agreements or contracts which discriminate prohibited. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from entering into any agreement or contract with any individual, group, association, or corporation which in any way, directly or indirectly, discriminates against licensed chiropractors in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 4.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.160 Discrimination—Immaterial whether costs deemed additional compensation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purpose of RCW 18.25.120 through 18.25.150 and 18.25.170 it is immaterial whether the cost of any policy, plan, agreement, or contract be deemed additional compensation for services, or otherwise. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 5.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.170 Discrimination—Application of RCW 18.25.120 through 18.25.160. RCW 18.25.120 through 18.25.160 shall apply to all agreements, renewals, or contracts issued on or after July 24, 1974. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 6.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.26.010 Declaration of purpose. This chapter is passed:

(1) In the exercise of the police power of the state and to provide an adequate public agency to act as a disciplinary body for the members of the chiropractic profession licensed to practice chiropractic in this state;

(2) Because the health and well-being of the people of this state are of paramount importance;

(3) Because the conduct of members of the chiropractic profession licensed to practice chiropractic in this state plays a vital role in preserving the health and well-being of the people of the state;

(4) Because the agency which now exists to handle disciplinary proceedings for members of the chiropractic profession licensed to practice chiropractic in this state is ineffective and very infrequently employed, and consequently there is no effective means of handling such disciplinary proceedings when they are necessary for the protection of the public health; and

(5) Because practicing other healing arts while licensed to practice chiropractic and while holding one's self out to the public as a chiropractor affects the health and welfare of the people of the state. [1967 c 171 § 1.]

Chiropractic examining board: Chapter 18.25 RCW.

18.27.040 Bond or other security required—Actions against—Suspension of registration upon impairment. Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of four thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of two thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. Any registered contractor with an unimpaired bond in effect on the day immediately preceding September 21, 1977, is hereby authorized to maintain such bond until the next annual renewal of such bond at which time the terms of *this 1977 amendatory act must be complied with: Provided, That a change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond. Any person having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Three copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Such service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond and the department shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received. The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- (1) Labor, including employee benefits;
- (2) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
- (3) Material and equipment;
- (4) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;
- (5) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover.

In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

The director may promulgate rules and regulations necessary for the proper administration of the security. [1977 ex.s. c 11 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 4; 1972 ex.s. c 118 § 2; 1967 c 126 § 1; 1963 c 77 § 4.]

Reviser's note: "small loan companies" changed to "consumer finance business" by 1979 c 18. See chapter 31.08 RCW.

Effective date—1979 c 156: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 30, 1979." [1979 c 156 § 14.]

Severability—1979 c 156: "If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1979 c 156 § 13.]

18.28.020 License required. No debt adjuster, debt adjusting agency, or branch office of any debt adjusting agency may engage in the business of debt adjusting within this state except as authorized by this chapter and without first obtaining a license from the director. [1967 c 201 § 2.]

18.28.030 Application for license, form, contents—Investigation fees—Licensing fees—Bond—Qualifications—Forms to be furnished. An application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the director. The application shall contain such relevant information as the director may require, but in all cases shall contain the name and residential and business addresses of each individual applicant, and of each member when the applicant is a partnership or association, and of each director and officer when the applicant is a corporation.

Except as provided hereinafter in this section the applicant shall pay an investigation fee and a licensing fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended: Provided, That a branch office of a licensed debt adjusting agency need not pay an investigation fee but only the licensing fee. If a license is not issued in response to the application, the director shall return the licensing fee to the applicant. An annual license fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, shall be paid to the director by January 1st of each year. If the annual license fee is not paid by January 1st, the licensee shall be assessed a penalty for late payment determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. And if the fee and penalty are not paid by January 31st, reapplication for a new license will be necessary, which may include taking any examination prescribed by the director.

The applicant shall file a surety bond with the director or in lieu thereof the applicant may file with the director a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the director and under conditions set forth in RCW 18.28.040: Provided, That each branch office of a debt adjusting agency shall be required to be bonded as provided herein, but no bond will be required of an individual applicant while he is employed by a bonded debt adjusting agency or branch thereof.

The applicant shall furnish the director with such proof as the director may reasonably require to establish the qualifications set forth in RCW 18.28.060.

If the applicant is an individual person making an original license application he shall pay an examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended.

If the applicant is applying for a debt adjusting agency license it shall furnish the director with complete forms of all contracts and assignments designed for execution by debtors making any assignments to or placing any property with the applicant for the purpose of paying the creditors of such debtors, and complete forms of all contracts and agreements designed for execution by creditors to whom payments are made by the applicant. Only such forms furnished the director and not disapproved by him shall be used by a debt adjusting agency licensee. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 23; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 6; 1967 c 201 § 3.]

18.28.040 Bond requirements—Security in lieu of bond. The bond, required in RCW 18.28.030, shall be a surety bond, annually renewable on January 1st, to be approved by the director as to form and content, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as a surety, whose liability shall not exceed the said sum in the aggregate. Such bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee for the benefit of the state and of any person or persons who may have cause of action against the principal of said bond under the provisions of this chapter. Such bond shall be conditioned that said principal as licensee hereunder will not commit any fraudulent act and will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules lawfully adopted hereunder, and will pay to the state and any such person or persons any and all moneys that may become due and owing from such principal under and by virtue of the provisions of this chapter. The surety on such bond shall be released and discharged from all liability accruing on such bond after the expiration of thirty days from the date upon which such surety shall have lodged with the director a written request to be released and discharged, but this provision shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the thirty day period. The director shall promptly upon receiving any such request notify the principal who furnished the bond; and unless the principal shall, on or before the expiration of the thirty day period, file a new bond, the director shall forthwith cancel the principal's license.

An applicant for a license under this chapter may furnish, file and deposit with the director, in lieu of the surety bond provided for herein, United States currency or bonds, representing obligations of the United States, or bonds of the state of Washington or any legal subdivision thereof, for which the faith of the United States, the state of Washington or any legal subdivision thereof is pledged, for the payment of both the principal and interest, equal in amount to the amount of the bond required by this chapter. The security deposited with the director in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the licensee at the expiration of three years after the license issued thereon has expired or been revoked if no legal action has been instituted against the licensee or on the bond at the expiration of said three years. [1967 c 201 § 4.]

18.28.045 Additional bond—When required. If the director finds at any time that the bond is insecure, depleted, exhausted, or otherwise doubtful, an additional bond of the character specified in RCW 18.28.040 and approved by the director in the sum of not more than ten thousand dollars, shall be filed by the licensee within ten days after written demand upon the licensee by the director. [1979 c 156 § 2.]

Effective date—Severability—1979 c 156: See notes following RCW 18.28.010.

18.28.050 Action on bond or security. If the licensee has failed to account to a debtor or distribute to the debtor's creditors such amounts as are required by this chapter and the contract between the debtor and licensee, the debtor, his legal representative or receiver, or the director, shall have, in addition to all other legal remedies, a right of action in the name of the debtor on the bond or the security given pursuant to the provisions of RCW 18.28.040, for loss suffered by the debtor, not exceeding the face of the bond or security, and without the necessity of joining the licensee in such suit or action. No action shall be brought upon any bond or security given under RCW 18.28.040 after the expiration of three years from the revocation or expiration of the license issued thereon. Upon entering judgment for plaintiff in any action on the bond required under RCW 18.28.040, for more than the sum tendered in the court by the defendant, if any, the court shall include in the judgment reasonable compensation for services of plaintiff's attorney in the action. [1967 c 201 § 5.]

18.28.060 Applicants for licenses—Requirements. The director shall issue a license to an applicant if the following requirements are met:

(1) The application is complete and the applicant has complied with RCW 18.28.030.

(2) Neither an individual applicant, nor any of the applicant's members if the applicant is a partnership or association, nor any of the applicant's officers or directors if the applicant is a corporation: (a) Has ever been convicted of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud or any other like offense, or has been disbarred from the practice of law; (b) has participated in a violation of this chapter or of any valid rules, orders or decisions of the director promulgated under this chapter; (c) has had a license to engage in the business of debt adjusting revoked or removed for any reason other than for failure to pay licensing fees in this or any other state; or (d) is an employee or owner of a collection agency, or process serving business.

(3) An individual applicant is at least eighteen years of age.

(4) An applicant which is a partnership, corporation, or association is authorized to do business in this state.

(5) An individual applicant for an original license as a debt adjuster has passed an examination administered by the director, which examination may be oral or written, or partly oral and partly written, and shall be practical in nature and sufficiently thorough to ascertain the applicant's fitness. Questions on bookkeeping, credit adjusting, business ethics, agency, contracts, debtor and creditor relationships, trust funds and the provisions of this chapter shall be included in the examination. No applicant may use any books or other similar aids while taking the examination, and no applicant may take the examination more than three times in any twelve month period. [1979 c 156 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 20; 1967 ex.s. c 141 § 1; 1967 c 201 § 6.]

DENTAL DISCIPLINARY BOARD ACT

18.32.500 Short title. RCW 18.32.510 through 18.32.780 shall be known and may be cited as the "Dental Disciplinary Board Act". [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 37.]

18.32.510 Legislative declaration. The legislature finds that the health and well-being of the people of this state are of paramount importance.

The legislature further finds that the conduct of members of the dental profession licensed to practice dentistry in this state plays a vital role in preserving the health and well-being of the people of the state.

The legislature further finds that there is no effective means of handling disciplinary proceedings against members of the dental profession licensed in this state when such proceedings are necessary for the protection of the public health.

Therefore, the legislature declares its intention to exercise the police power of the state to protect the public health, to promote the welfare of the state, and to provide a dental disciplinary board to act as a disciplinary body for the members of the dental profession licensed to practice dentistry in this state. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 1.]

18.32.520 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout RCW 18.32.510, and 18.32.530 through 18.32.780.

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, which act relates to a person's fitness to practice dentistry; and if the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction, however, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at an ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent dentist of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of said respondent dentist's violation of the statute upon which it is based: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to affect or alter the provisions of RCW 9.96A.020;

(2) Making any misrepresentation or false promise directly or indirectly to influence, persuade or induce dental patronage, or engaging in any other improper, unprofessional, or dishonorable conduct in the practice of dentistry;

(3) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice dentistry or in the reinstatement of such license;

(4) Division of fees or agreeing to split or divide the fees received for dental services with any person for bringing or referring a patient, or for assisting in the care or treatment of a patient, without the knowledge of said patient or the patient's legal representative;

(5) Employing, procuring, inducing, aiding, or abetting a person not licensed or registered as a dentist to engage in the practice of dentistry. The person practiced upon shall not be deemed an accomplice, employer, procurer, inducer, aider, or abettor within the meaning of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780;

(6) Professional connection or association with or lending a dentist's name to another for the illegal practice of dentistry by another, or professional connection or association with any person, firm or corporation holding itself out in any manner contrary to this chapter;

(7) The impersonation of another licensed practitioner;

(8) Suspension or revocation of the dentist's license to practice dentistry by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction;

(9) Gross incompetency in the practice of dentistry;

(10) Gross, wilful and continued overcharging for professional services;

(11) Wilful or repeated violations of lawful rules established by any health officer of the state or any municipal corporation or division thereof;

(12) Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of controlled substances;

(13) The possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for therapeutic purposes or in violation of law;

(14) Any conduct in violation of this chapter;

(15) Wilful violation of RCW 18.32.540 or wilful disregard of a subpoena or notice of the dental disciplinary board. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 3.]

18.32.540 Obligation to cooperate with board—Failure deemed unprofessional conduct. It shall be the duty and obligation of a dentist against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the dental disciplinary board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

(1) Furnishing any papers or documents;

(2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in such complaint;

(3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Should such dentist fail to cooperate with the board in the manner provided for in this section, such conduct shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 4.]

18.32.550 Suspension of dentist's license for mental incompetency or illness, physical condition, etc.—Procedure—Examination—Reinstatement.

(1) In the event that a dentist is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, said dentist's license shall be suspended automatically by the dental disciplinary board upon entry of the court's decree or judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the dental disciplinary board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a dentist who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice dentistry with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of controlled substances, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such dentist for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the dentist to adequately conduct practice. In enforcing this subsection the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a dentist to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board and at least one of whom may be chosen by the charged party. Failure of a dentist to submit to such examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such dentist's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the dentist's control, and as a result of such refusal a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A dentist affected under this subsection shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity by the board to demonstrate that said dentist can resume the competent practice of dentistry with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

For the purpose of this subsection, every dentist licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice dentistry in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice dentistry in this state, be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute a privileged communication.

18.32.560 Board created—Composition—Attorney general as legal counsel. There is hereby created the Washington state dental disciplinary board, which shall be composed of five members, each of whom shall be a resident of this state engaged in the active practice of dentistry and who shall have been licensed to practice dentistry in this state for a period of five years or more prior to appointment to the board. Of the five members appointed to the board, two members shall reside and engage in the active practice of dentistry east of the summit of the Cascade range and the other three members shall reside and engage in the active practice of dentistry west of the summit of the Cascade range.

Thereafter members of the board shall be appointed to terms of six years. The terms of office of members shall commence on October 1st. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 7.]

18.32.580 Vacancies. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by the governor and a member appointed to fill a vacancy on the board shall serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the position to which said member was appointed and until the successor is appointed and takes office. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 8.]

18.32.590 Removal of members. Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct, or malfeasance or misfeasance in office. Whenever the governor is satisfied that any member of the board has been guilty of neglect of duty, misconduct, or malfeasance or misfeasance in office, the governor shall file with the secretary of state a statement showing the governor's reasons, with the order of removal, and the secretary of state shall forthwith send a certified copy of such order of removal and statement of causes by registered mail to the last known post office address of the member in question. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 9.]

18.32.610 Territorial scope of operations. The board may meet, function, and exercise its powers at any geographical location within the state. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 11.]

18.32.620 Officers—Meetings—Quorum. The board shall elect from its members a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary, who shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board shall meet at least once a year or upon the call of the chairman at such times and places as the chairman shall designate. Three members shall constitute a quorum to transact business. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 12.]

18.32.630 Immunity from suit. Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 13.]

18.32.640 Powers and duties. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(4) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding;

(5) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding;

(6) To investigate complaints and charges of malpractice, unsafe conditions and practices, and to analyze equipment, procedures, and training, in such cases, and to direct corrective action. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 14.]

18.32.650 Complaint of unprofessional conduct—Hearing. Any person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the secretary charging the holder of a license to practice dentistry with unprofessional conduct, specifying the grounds therefor. If the board determines that such complaint merits consideration, or if the board shall have reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that any holder of a license has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, the board may order that a hearing be held. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 15.]

18.32.660 Specification of charges—Preparation—Service upon accused—Notice of hearing. When a hearing is ordered by the board, the secretary shall prepare a specification of the charge or charges of unprofessional conduct made against a license holder, a copy of which shall be served upon the accused, together with a notice of the hearing, as provided in RCW 18.32.670. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 16.]

The secretary shall issue a notice of hearing of the charges, which notice shall specify the time and place of hearing and shall notify the accused that he may file with the secretary a written response within twenty days of the date of service. Such notice shall also notify the accused that a stenographic record of the proceeding will be kept, that the accused shall have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses and evidence, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against the accused, to examine witnesses testifying for the accused, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against the accused, and to have subpoenas issued by the board. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 17.]

18.32.680 Procedures governing hearings. The procedures governing contested cases before agencies under chapter 34.04 RCW shall govern all hearings before the board, insofar as applicable and to the extent such procedures are not inconsistent with the procedures prescribed in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780; and the board shall have, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780, all of the powers and duties granted to, or imposed upon, an agency by the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, which shall include, without limitation, all powers relating to the administration of oaths, the receipt of evidence, the issuance and enforcing of subpoenas, and the taking of depositions. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 18.]

18.32.690 Decision of board—Procedures upon finding of guilty or not guilty. Within a reasonable time after holding a hearing under the provisions of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780, the board shall render its decision. If a majority of the members of the board vote in favor of finding the accused guilty of unprofessional conduct as specified in the charges, or any of them, the board shall prepare written findings of fact and may thereafter prepare and file in the office of the director a certificate or order of revocation or suspension of the license to practice, in which case a copy thereof shall be served upon the accused, or the board may reprimand the accused, as it deems most appropriate. If the license holder is found not guilty, or if less than a majority of the members vote for a finding of guilty, the board shall forthwith order a dismissal of the charges and the exoneration of the accused. When a proceeding has been dismissed, either on the merits or otherwise, the board shall relieve the accused from any possible odium that may attach by reason of the charges made against the accused by such public exoneration as is necessary, if requested by the accused to do so. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 19.]

18.32.700 Revocation or suspension of license—Appeal—Stay pending review. The filing by the board in the office of the director of a certificate or order of revocation or suspension after due notice, hearing, and findings in accordance with the procedure specified in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780, certifying that any holder of a license has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct by the board, shall constitute a revocation or suspension of the license to practice dentistry in this state in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the certificate or order of revocation or suspension. Such certificate or order of revocation or suspension, if appealed, may be stayed by the board or by the reviewing court upon such terms as are deemed proper. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 20.]

18.32.710 Contents of certificate or order of revocation or suspension—Retention. The certificate or order of revocation or suspension shall contain a brief and concise statement of the ground or grounds upon which the certificate or order is based and the specific terms and conditions of such revocation or suspension, and shall be retained as a permanent record by the director. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 21.]

18.32.720 Conditions for issuance of license after revocation or suspension. The director shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof to any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension, or in conformity with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in accordance with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780. The secretary shall, within twenty days after the service of the notice of appeal, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is taken a transcript of the record before the board, certified under the seal of the board, together with a certified copy of the board's written findings. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 24.]

18.32.750 Appeal from decision of board—Findings final and conclusive—Scope of review. The findings of the board, if supported by the preponderance of evidence, shall be final and conclusive. The review in the superior court shall be limited to determining whether the findings of the board are supported by the preponderance of evidence and whether the proceedings of the board were erroneous as a matter of law, or in violation of due process, or so arbitrary or capricious as to amount to an abuse of discretion, or contrary to any constitutional right, power, privilege, or immunity. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 25.]

18.32.760 Appeal from decision of board—Appeal procedure—Appeal to higher court. The procedure governing appeals to the superior court by those provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW relating to contested cases, shall govern in matters of appeal from a decision of the board, insofar as applicable and to the extent such procedure is not inconsistent with the type of appeal provided in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780. The accused may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court by appeal to the court of appeals or the supreme court as provided in other civil cases. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 26.]

18.32.770 Review when certificate or order of revocation or suspension not timely filed. If the board finds the holder of any license guilty of unprofessional conduct and fails to file a certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director within thirty days, the license holder shall have the right to a judicial review of such finding of the board in the same manner and to the same extent as if the certificate or order had been filed. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 27.]

18.32.780 Application for reinstatement of license—Procedure. Any person whose license has been suspended or revoked under the provisions of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780 may apply to the board for reinstatement at any time and the board may hold hearings on any such petition and may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions thereof and issue a certificate of reinstatement to the director. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 28.]

18.32.915 Severability—1977 ex.s. c 5. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application

(c) Effective January 1, 1983, not more than one noncertified individual working on any one job site for every certified journeyman electrician as defined by this chapter.

The ratio requirements do not apply to a trade school program in the electrical construction trade established during 1946.

An individual with a current training certificate and who has successfully completed or is currently enrolled in an approved apprenticeship program or in a technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school approved by the commission for vocational education, may work without direct on-site supervision during the last six months of meeting the practical experience requirements of this chapter. [1979 1st ex.s. c 156 § 2; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 39 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 70 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 206 § 2.]

The department shall administer at least four times annually the examination to persons eligible to take the same under the provisions of RCW 18.37.040. All applicants shall, before taking such examination, pay to the department a fifteen dollar fee: Provided, That any applicant taking said examination shall pay only such additional fee as is necessary to cover the costs of administering such additional examination.

The department shall certify the results of said examination, upon such terms and after such period of time as the department, in cooperation with the advisory board, shall deem necessary and proper. [1979 1st ex.s. c 156 § 5; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 39 § 5; 1973 1st ex.s. c 206 § 5.]

The certificates of competency or permits provided for in this chapter shall grant the holder the right to engage in the work of electrical installation as a journeyman electrician or specialty electrician in accordance with its provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions without additional proof of competency or any other license or permit or fee to engage in such work. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 39 § 6; 1973 1st ex.s. c 206 § 6.]

18.37.080 Temporary permits. (2) Before any certificate of competency shall be revoked, the holder thereof shall be given written notice of the department's intention to do so, mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested, to said holder's last known address. Said notice shall enumerate the allegations against such holder, and shall give him the opportunity to request a hearing before the advisory board. At such hearing, the department and the holder shall have opportunity to produce witnesses and give testimony. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall render its decision based upon the testimony and evidence presented, and shall notify the parties immediately upon reaching its decision. 18.43.040 Registration requirements. The following will be considered as minimum evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant is qualified for registration as a professional engineer, engineer-in-training, or land surveyor, respectively, to wit:

As a professional engineer: A specific record of eight years or more of experience in engineering work of a character satisfactory to the board and indicating that the applicant is competent to practice engineering; and successfully passing a written or oral examination, or both, in engineering as prescribed by the board.

Graduation in an approved engineering curriculum of four years or more from a school or college approved by the board as of satisfactory standing shall be considered equivalent to four years of such required experience. The satisfactory completion of each year of such an approved engineering course without graduation shall be considered as equivalent to a year of such required experience. Graduation in a curriculum other than engineering from a school or college approved by the board shall be considered as equivalent to two years of such required experience: Provided, That no applicant shall receive credit for more than four years of experience because of undergraduate educational qualifications. The board may, at its discretion, give credit as experience not in excess of one year, for satisfactory postgraduate study in engineering.

As an engineer-in-training: The board shall permit an applicant for registration as a professional engineer, upon his request, to take the prescribed examination in two stages. The first stage of the examination may be taken upon submission of his application for certification as an engineer-in-training and payment of the application fee herein prescribed, at any time after the applicant has completed four years of the required engineering experience as defined above. The first stage of the examination shall test the applicant's knowledge of appropriate fundamentals of engineering subjects, including mathematics and the basic sciences.

At any time after the completion of the required eight years of engineering experience as defined above, the applicant may take the second stage of the examination, upon submission of application for registration and payment of the application fee herein prescribed. This stage of the examination shall test the applicant's ability, upon the basis of his greater experience, to apply his knowledge and experience in the field of his specific training and qualifications.

As a land surveyor: A specific record of six years or more of experience in land surveying work of a character satisfactory to the board and indicating that the applicant is competent to practice land surveying, and successfully passing a written or oral examination, or both, in surveying as prescribed by the board.

Graduation from a school or college approved by the board as of satisfactory standing, including the completion of an approved course in surveying, shall be considered equivalent to four years of such required experience.

No person shall be eligible for registration as a professional engineer, engineer-in-training, or land surveyor, who is not of good character and reputation.

Engineering teaching, of a character satisfactory to the board, shall be considered as experience not in excess of two years for professional engineering and one year for land surveying.

The mere execution, as a contractor, of work designed by a professional engineer, or the supervision of the construction of such work as a foreman or superintendent shall not be deemed to be practice of engineering.

Any person having the necessary qualifications prescribed in this chapter to entitle him to registration shall be eligible for such registration although he may not be practicing his profession at the time of making his application. [1947 c 283 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-24. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 2; RRS § 8306-2.]

18.43.050 Application, registration and issuance fees. Application for registration shall be on forms prescribed by the board and furnished by the director, shall contain statements made under oath, showing the applicant's education and detail summary of his technical work and shall contain not less than five references, of whom three or more shall be engineers having personal knowledge of his engineering experience.

The registration fee for professional engineers shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, which shall accompany the application. The director shall also determine a fee as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended to be paid upon issuance of the certificate. The fee for engineer-in-training shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, which shall accompany the application and shall include the cost of examination and issuance of certificate. When registration as a professional engineer is completed by an engineer-in-training an additional fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended shall be paid before issuance of certificate as professional engineer.

The registration fee for land surveyors shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, which shall accompany the application and shall include the cost of examination and issuance of certificate. The registration fee for professional engineers also qualified as land surveyors shall be the same as for professional engineers.

Should the board deny the issuance of a certificate of registration to any applicant, the initial fee deposited shall be retained as an application fee. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 46; 1947 c 283 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-25. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 6; RRS § 8306-6.]

18.43.060 Examinations. When oral or written examinations are required, they shall be held at such time and place as the board shall determine. If examinations are required on fundamental engineering subjects (such as ordinarily given in college curricula) the applicant shall be permitted to take this part of the professional examination prior to his completion of the requisite years of experience in engineering work. The board shall issue to each applicant upon successfully passing the examination in fundamental engineering subjects a certificate stating that he has passed the examination in fundamental engineering subjects and that his name has been recorded as an engineer-in-training.

The scope of the examination and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the board with special reference to the applicant's ability to design and supervise engineering works so as to insure the safety of life, health and property. Examinations shall be given for the purpose of determining the qualifications of applicants for registration separately in engineering and in land surveying. A candidate failing an examination may apply for reexamination at the expiration of six months and will be reexamined without payment of additional fees. Subsequent examinations will be granted upon payment of a fee to be determined by the board. [1961 c 142 § 2; 1947 c 283 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-26. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 7; RRS § 8306-7.]

18.43.070 Certificates and seals. The director of licensing shall issue a certificate of registration upon payment of a registration fee as provided for in this chapter, to any applicant who, in the opinion of the board, has satisfactorily met all the requirements of this chapter. In case of a registered engineer, the certificate shall authorize the practice of "professional engineering" and specify the branch or branches in which specialized, and in case of a registered land surveyor, the certificate shall authorize the practice of "land surveying". In the case of a registered professional engineer also qualified as land surveyor but one certificate shall be issued.

In case of engineer-in-training, the certificate shall state that the applicant has successfully passed the examination in fundamental engineering subjects required by the board and has been enrolled as an "engineer-in-training". All certificates of registration shall show the full name of the registrant, shall have a serial number, and shall be signed by the chairman and the secretary of the board and by the director of licensing.

The issuance of a certificate of registration by the director of licensing shall be prima facie evidence that the person named therein is entitled to all the rights and privileges of a registered professional engineer or a registered land surveyor, while the said certificate remains unrevoked and unexpired.

Each registrant hereunder shall upon registration obtain a seal of the design authorized by the board, bearing the registrant's name and the legend "registered professional engineer" or "registered land surveyor". Plans, specifications, plats and reports prepared by the registrant shall be signed, dated, and stamped with said seal or facsimile thereof. Such signature and stamping shall constitute a certification by the registrant that the same was prepared by or under his direct supervision and that to his knowledge and belief the same was prepared in accordance with the requirements of the statute. It shall be unlawful for anyone to stamp or seal any document with said seal or facsimile thereof after the certificate of registrant named thereon has expired or been revoked, unless said certificate shall have been renewed or reissued. [1959 c 297 § 4; 1947 c 283 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-27. Prior: 1935 c 167 §§ 8, 13; RRS § 8306-8, 13.]

Certificates of registration, and certificates of authorization and renewals thereof shall expire on the last day of the month of December following their issuance or renewal and shall become invalid on that date unless renewed. It shall be the duty of the administrator of the division of professional licensing to notify every person, firm or corporation registered under this chapter, of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the renewal fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year. Such notice shall be mailed at least thirty days before the end of December of each year. Renewal may be effected during the month of December by the payment of a fee of fifteen dollars for professional engineer, professional engineer and land surveyor, and fifteen dollars for land surveyor. In case any professional engineer and/or land surveyor registered under this chapter shall fail to pay the renewal fee hereinabove provided for, within ninety days from the date when the same shall become due, the renewal fee shall be the current fee plus an amount equal to one year's fee. [1975 c 23 § 1; 1965 ex.s. c 126 § 1; 1961 c 142 § 3; 1959 c 297 § 5; 1947 c 283 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-28. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 10; RRS § 8306-10.]

The board, for reasons it deems sufficient, may reissue a certificate of registration to any person whose certificate has been revoked, providing three or more members of the board vote in favor of such issuance. A new certificate of registration to replace any certificate revoked, lost, destroyed, or mutilated may be issued by the director, subject to the rules of the board, and a charge determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended shall be made for such issuance.

Any person who shall feel aggrieved by any action of the board in denying or revoking his certificate of registration may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county in which such person resides, and after full hearing, said court shall make such decree sustaining or revoking the action of the board as it may deem just and proper. Prior to issuing the temporary cease and desist order, the director, whenever possible by telephone or otherwise, shall give notice of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include in its terms a provision that upon request a hearing will be held to determine whether or not the order becomes permanent.

If it appears that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of a provision of this chapter, or a rule or order under this chapter, the director, with or without prior administrative proceedings, may bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order under this chapter. 18.51.005 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of standards for the maintenance and operation of nursing homes, which, in the light of advancing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate care and treatment of the individuals therein. An important secondary purpose is the improvement of nursing home practices by educational methods so that such practices eventually exceed the minimum requirements of the basic law and its original standards. [1951 c 117 § 1.]

18.51.007 Legislative intent—1975 1st ex.s. c 99. It is the intent of the legislature in enacting *this 1975 amendatory act to establish (1) a system for the imposition of prompt and effective sanctions against nursing homes in violation of the laws and regulations of this state relating to patient care; (2) an inspection and reporting system to insure that nursing homes are in compliance with state statutes and regulations pertaining to patient care; and (3) a provisional licensing mechanism to insure that full term licenses are issued only to those nursing homes that meet state standards relating to patient care: Provided, That no sanction shall be imposed by the department until the department has informed the owner and administrator of the nursing home about the rules and regulations required to be followed to avoid penalties and until the department has granted a reasonable amount of time to the owner and administrator of the nursing home to correct the condition which would result in the penalty. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 3.]

Reviser's note: "this 1975 amendatory act" [1975 1st ex.s. c 99] consists of RCW 18.51.007, 18.51.055, 18.51.065, 18.51.190–18.51.290, amendments to RCW 18.51.050 and 18.51.060 and the repeal of RCW 18.51.090, 18.51.120 and 18.51.130.

18.51.010 Definitions. (1) "Nursing home" means any home, place or institution which operates or maintains facilities providing convalescent or chronic care, or both, for a period in excess of twenty-four consecutive hours for three or more patients not related by blood or marriage to the operator, who by reason of illness or infirmity, are unable properly to care for themselves. Convalescent and chronic care may include but not be limited to any or all procedures commonly employed in waiting on the sick, such as administration of medicines, preparation of special diets, giving of bedside nursing care, application of dressings and bandages, and carrying out of treatment prescribed by a duly licensed practitioner of the healing arts. It may also include care of mentally incompetent persons. Nothing in this definition shall be construed to include general hospitals or other places which provide care and treatment for the acutely ill and maintain and operate facilities for major surgery or obstetrics, or both. Nothing in this definition shall be construed to include any boarding home, guest home, hotel or related institution which is held forth to the public as providing, and which is operated to give only board, room and laundry to persons not in need of medical or nursing treatment or supervision except in the case of temporary acute illness. The mere designation by the operator of any place or institution as a hospital, sanitarium, or any other similar name, which does not provide care for the acutely ill and maintain and operate facilities for major surgery or obstetrics, or both, shall not exclude such place or institution from the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That any nursing home providing psychiatric treatment shall, with respect to patients receiving such treatment, comply with the provisions of RCW 71.12.560, 71.12.570, and *71.12.580.

(2) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association, and the legal successor thereof.

(3) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.

(4) "Board" means the state board of health.

(5) "Department" means the state department of social and health services.

(6) "Approved health department" means any city, county, city-county or district health department which holds a certificate of approval under this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 108 § 1; 1953 c 160 § 1; 1951 c 117 § 2.]

*Reviser's note: RCW "71.12.580" was repealed by 1973 c 142 § 66.

18.51.020 Enforcement by local authorities—Certificate of approval. Any city, county or district health department, employing a part time or full time health officer, may make application in writing to the director for a certificate of approval authorizing such city, county or district to inspect and conduct investigations of nursing homes within its jurisdiction and with the department jointly issue, deny, suspend or revoke licenses for such nursing homes. Upon receipt of the application the director shall investigate and determine whether the city, county, or district health department is entitled to approval and if so he shall issue the certificate applied for. Any certificate of approval may be canceled by the director after thirty days' notice in writing to the holder of the certificate of approval should it be found that the holder is incompetent or unable to inspect and conduct investigations of nursing homes. [1953 c 160 § 2; 1951 c 117 § 3.]

18.51.030 License required. After July 1, 1951 no person shall operate or maintain a nursing home in this state without a license under this chapter. [1951 c 117 § 4.]

18.51.040 Application for license. An application for license shall be made to the department upon forms provided by it and shall contain such information as the department reasonably requires, which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with the rules and regulations as are lawfully prescribed hereunder. [1953 c 160 § 3; 1951 c 117 § 5.]

18.51.050 License, provisional license—Issuance, renewal—Fee—Display. Upon receipt of an application for license, the department, or the department and the approved health department jointly, shall issue a license or a provisional license if the applicant and the nursing home facilities meet the requirements established under this chapter. At the time of issuance or renewal of the license or provisional license the licensee shall pay a license fee of fifteen dollars plus one dollar per bed capacity per year, but in no event shall the total exceed one hundred dollars. No fee shall be required of government operated institutions. When the license or provisional license is issued jointly by the department and an approved health department, the license fee shall be paid to the approved health department. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on a date to be set by the board, but no license issued pursuant to this chapter shall exceed twelve months in duration: Provided, That when the annual license renewal date of a previously licensed nursing home is set by the board on a date less than twelve months prior to the expiration date of a license in effect at the time of reissuance, the license fee shall be prorated on a monthly basis and a credit be allowed at the first renewal of a license for any period of one month or more covered by the previous license. All applications for renewal of license shall be made not later than thirty days prior to the date of expiration of the license. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons named in the application, and no license shall be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the department. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 247 § 2; 1953 c 160 § 4; 1951 c 117 § 6.]

(1) If a nursing home has not been previously licensed pursuant to this chapter, the department may only provisionally license such facility as provided in this section. A provisional license to operate a nursing home shall terminate six months from the date of issuance. Within thirty days of the termination of a provisional license, the department shall give such facility a full and complete inspection, and, if the facility meets requirements for licensure, a regular license shall be issued. If the nursing home does not meet the requirements for licensure but has made substantial progress towards meeting such requirements, as determined by the department, the initial provisional license shall be renewed for six months. If the department determines that there has not been substantial progress towards meeting licensure requirements at the time of the first full inspection provided by this section, or, if the state department determines upon its inspection made within thirty days of the termination of a renewed provisional license that there is lack of compliance with such requirements, no further license shall be issued.

(2) A nursing home seeking renewal of a license may, in the discretion of the department, be granted a provisional license under this section instead of a regular license, where there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the standards, rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 15.]

18.51.060 Denial, suspension, revocation of license or provisional license—Penalty. The department is authorized to deny, suspend, or revoke a license or provisional license or, in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation in any case in which it

(7) Failed to report patient abuse or neglect in violation of chapter 70.124 RCW; or

(8) Fails to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the department pursuant to this chapter within ten days after such assessment becomes final: Provided, That in no event shall the department assess a civil monetary penalty authorized pursuant to this section or post the said premises as provided in RCW 18.51.260 or include in the report required pursuant to RCW 18.51.270 during any period in which it has not reasonably implemented and funded its cost-related reimbursement system for public patients. [1979 1st ex.s. c 228 § 10; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 2; 1953 c 160 § 5; 1951 c 117 § 7.]

18.51.065 Denial, suspension, revocation of license or provisional license—Hearing. If a nursing home ceases operations, it shall make immediate arrangements, as approved by the department, for preservation of its records.

The board shall by regulation define the type of records and the information required to be included in the records to be retained and preserved under this section; which records may be retained in photographic form pursuant to chapter 5.46 RCW. [1975 1st ex.s. c 175 § 2.]

(2) No later than December 31, 1980, the department shall adopt revised licensing standards for nursing homes. The licensing standards shall be suitable for implementing the civil penalty system authorized under this chapter and *chapter ... (Senate Bill No. 2335) Laws of 1979.

Labor regulations, collective bargaining—Health care activities: Chapter 49.66 RCW.

18.52.010 Short title—Intent. This chapter shall be known as the "Nursing Home Administrator Licensing Act" and is intended to establish and provide for the enforcement of standards for the licensing of nursing home administrators. The legislature finds that the quality of patient care in nursing homes is directly related to the competence of the nursing home administrators. It is the intent of this chapter that licensed nursing home administrators continually maintain (1) the suitable character required and (2) the capacity to consider the available resources and personnel of the facility subject to their authority and come to reasonable decisions implementing patient care. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 1; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 1.]

18.52.020 Definitions. When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise clearly requires:

(1) "Board" means the state board of examiners for the licensing of nursing home administrators representative of the professions and institutions concerned with the care of the chronically ill and infirm aged patients.

(2) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(3) "Nursing home" means any facility or portion thereof licensed under state law as a nursing home.

(4) "Nursing home administrator" means an individual in active administrative charge of nursing homes as defined herein, whether or not having an ownership interest in such homes, and although functions and duties may be shared with or delegated to other persons: Provided however, That nothing in this definition or this chapter shall be construed to prevent any person, so long as he is otherwise qualified, from obtaining and maintaining a license even though he has not administered or does not continue to administer a nursing home. [1979 c 158 § 44; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 2.]

18.52.030 Management and supervision of nursing homes by licensed administrators required. On or after July 1, 1970 nursing homes operating within this state must be under the active, overall administrative charge and supervision of an administrator licensed as provided in this chapter. An administrator may delegate functions and duties to other persons. No person acting in any capacity, unless he is the holder of a nursing home administrator's license issued under this chapter, shall be charged with the overall responsibility to make decisions or direct actions involved in managing the internal operation of a nursing home. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 3.]

18.52.040 Board of examiners for nursing home administrators—Created—Membership. There is hereby created a state board of examiners for nursing home administrators which shall consist of nine members appointed by the governor. All members shall be representative of the professions and institutions concerned with the care and treatment of chronically ill or infirm elderly patients. However, at no time shall representatives of a single profession or a single institutional category compose a majority of the board membership. In addition, no member who is a noninstitutional representative shall have any direct financial interest in nursing homes while serving as a member of the board. For purposes of this section, nursing home administrators are considered representatives of institutions. Eight of the board's members shall be privately or self-employed persons who the governor finds have had at least four years of actual experience in the administration or overall management of licensed nursing homes in this state immediately prior to the governor's appointment of them to the board; or shall be representatives from the medical professions, or health care administration education, or persons with four years actual experience in the administration of the nursing home unit of a licensed hospital immediately preceding the governor's appointment of them to the board; and shall be privately or self-employed persons, or persons employed by educational institutions, whom the governor appoints because of their special knowledge or expertise in the field of long term care or the care of the aged and chronically ill: Provided, That one member shall be a citizen eligible for medicare who shall have no financial interest in or family ownership connection with nursing homes. Board members selected who meet any of the preceding qualifications may in addition be nurses, physicians or other persons with special health care training. The governor shall consult with and seek the recommendations of the appropriate state-wide business and professional organizations and societies primarily concerned with long term health care facilities in the course of considering his appointments to the board. [1975 1st ex.s. c 97 § 1; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 4.]

18.52.050 Board of examiners for nursing home administrators—Qualifications—Terms—Removal. Members of the board shall be citizens of the United States and residents of this state. Except for the initial appointments to the first board, all administrator members of the board shall be holders of licenses under this chapter. Three members of the board shall be appointed initially for terms of three years, three members shall be appointed for terms of two years, and three members shall be appointed for terms of one year. Thereafter the terms of all members shall be three years. Members of the board may be removed by the governor for cause after appropriate notice and hearing. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 5.]

18.52.060 Board of examiners for nursing home administrators—Officers—Meetings—Expenses—Personnel. The board shall elect from its membership a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary—treasurer, and shall adopt rules and regulations to govern its proceedings. The chairman or four board members by signed written request may call board meetings upon reasonable written notice to each member. Each member shall receive twenty-five dollars for each day or major portion thereof actually spent on official business, plus travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. A full time or part time executive secretary for the board may be employed by the director through the department of licensing, and the director through the department of licensing shall provide the executive secretary and the board with such secretarial, administrative, and other assistance as may be required to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Employment of an executive secretary shall be subject to confirmation by the board. The position of executive secretary shall be exempt from the requirements of chapter 41.06 RCW. [1979 c 158 § 45; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 38; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 6.]

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.52.070 Qualifications of licensees—Examinations. Upon the director's receipt of an application and examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, and completed application forms provided by the director, a nursing home administrator's license shall be issued to any person who:

(1) Is at least twenty-one years of age and of good moral character.

(2) Has presented evidence satisfactory to the board of practical experience, education, and training which, when evaluated according to criteria developed by the board, is equivalent to two years of experience in the operation of a nursing home: Provided, That after January 1, 1980, no license shall be issued to any applicant unless such applicant has either successfully completed at least two years of formal education beyond the high school level or holds an associate degree from a recognized institution of higher learning.

(3) Has passed an examination administered by the board which shall be designed to test the candidate's competence to administer a nursing home on the basis of the candidate's formal instruction and training or actual experience: Provided however, That nothing in this chapter or the rules and regulations thereunder shall be construed to require an applicant for a license or provisional license as a nursing home administrator who is certified by any well established and generally recognized church or religious denomination which teaches reliance on spiritual means alone for healing as having been approved to administer institutions certified by such church or denomination for the care and treatment of the sick in accordance with its teachings, to demonstrate proficiency in any medical techniques or to meet any medical educational qualifications or medical standards not in accord with the remedial care and treatment provided in such institutions: Provided further, That any such individual shall demonstrate in the process of application for the examination his membership in such church or religious denomination and his license shall indicate the limited extent of his authority to act as an administrator.

(4) The initial administrator members of the board shall be selected and appointed by the governor to meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section and of RCW 18.52.040 and 18.52.050. The three nonadministrator members of the first board shall administer to the initial administrator members an appropriate examination, and the initial administrator members shall thereafter be issued their licenses under this chapter as nursing home administrators. The three nonadministrator members of the first board may exercise the powers of the board to carry out licensing of the initial administrator members, regardless of the normal quorum or procedural requirements for board action. The licensing of the initial administrator members of the first board shall be carried out within thirty days after appointment of the board, and in all events prior to April 1, 1970. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 52; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 7.]

18.52.080 Provisional licenses. (1) Upon the director's receipt of an annual fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, a provisional license may be issued to any individual applying therefor who has served, as shown by such individual's affidavit, as a nursing home administrator during all of the calendar year immediately preceding July 1, 1970, and meets the standards of RCW 18.52.070(1). Any such provisional license shall terminate after two years or at midnight, June 30, 1972, whichever is earlier. If prior to the expiration of such provisional license, the provisional licensee has qualified to take and has passed the examination required by the board, a nursing home administrator's license shall be issued to him.

(2) If a provisional license is issued to any individual, there shall be provided in this state during all of the period for which such provisional license remains in effect a program of training and instruction designed to enable all provisional licensed nursing home administrators to attain the qualifications necessary to be fully licensed as a nursing home administrator as provided under this chapter. The single state agency administering the program of this state under Title XIX of the Federal Social Security Act shall apply for, receive, and administer such federal funds as are made available to carry out the educational programs contemplated by this section. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 53; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 8.]

18.52.090 Licensing duties and responsibilities of director. The director shall have the administrative duty and responsibility to:

(1) Issue nursing home administrator's licenses to individuals who meet the licensing requirements of RCW 18.52.070 and 18.52.080;

(2) Investigate complaints against nursing home administrators, and upon order of the board reprimand any licensee, or revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to reregister the license of any licensee or applicant who fails to meet the applicable requirements of this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 3; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 9.]

18.52.100 Duties and responsibilities of board—Standards, licenses, complaints, temporary permits, rules and regulations—Training program. The board with the assistance of the director for administrative matters shall have the duty and responsibility within the limits provided in this chapter:

(1) To develop standards which must be met by individuals in order to receive a license as a nursing home administrator, which standards shall include criteria to evaluate the practical experience, education, and training of applicants for licenses to determine that applicants have the equivalent of two years of experience in the operation of a nursing home. The standards and criteria shall be designed to insure that nursing home administrators will be individuals who are of good character and are otherwise suitable, and who, by training or experience in the field of institutional administration, are qualified to serve as nursing home administrators as provided in this chapter.

(2) To develop appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations to the extent necessary to determine whether an individual meets such standards for licensing.

(3) To develop, administer, and supervise an administrator-in-training program for applicants for licenses who are otherwise qualified but do not have the equivalent of two years experience in the operation of a nursing home at the time of application. Such program shall provide for supervision of each administrator-in-training by licensed nursing home administrators as preceptors. The board shall have the authority to do all acts necessary for the implementation of such a program, including, but not limited to, conducting education and training programs, establishing standards of qualification for preceptors, establishing criteria for creating and evaluating individual programs, and monitoring such programs to assure compliance with rules and regulations adopted by the board.

(4) To order the director to issue licenses to individuals determined by the board, after the application of such techniques, to meet such standards and to order the director to deny licenses to individuals who do not meet such standards or who are in violation of the provisions of RCW 18.52.120.

(5) To assure that the goals set forth in RCW 18.52.010 are effected the board shall have the authority after any notice and hearing which may be required by law, to order a reprimand of any licensee, or the suspension, refusal to reregister, or revocation of any license. The board may defer any such order or impose conditions thereon to permit continued licensed status when such action is reasonable considering the circumstances of the case, the protection of the health and safety of patients, and fairness to the administrator.

(6) To investigate, and take appropriate action with respect to, any charge or complaint filed with the board or director to the effect that any individual licensed as a nursing home administrator has failed to comply with the requirements of the standards for licensing.

(7) To conduct a continuing study and investigation of the licensing of administrators of nursing homes within the state with a view to the improvement of the standards imposed for the licensing of new administrators and of procedures and methods for the enforcement of such standards with respect to administrators of nursing homes who are to be licensed.

(8) To encourage qualified educational institutions and other qualified organizations to establish, provide, and conduct and continue such training and instruction courses and programs as will enable all otherwise qualified individuals to attain the qualifications necessary to meet the standards for licensing nursing home administrators.

(9) To establish and carry out procedures, if required, designed to insure that individuals licensed as nursing home administrators will, during any period that they serve as such, comply with the requirements and standards for licensing set forth in this chapter.

(10) To establish appropriate procedures for the issuance in unusual circumstances and without examination of temporary license permits as nursing home administrators. Such permits may be issued and renewed by the director pursuant to rules and regulations which shall be established by the board. Such permits and renewals shall be subject to confirmation or rescission by order of the board upon review at the next board meeting. Any such permit or renewal thereof shall in all events expire six months from the date issued. No more than three consecutive permits shall be issued to any one person. Persons receiving such permits need not have passed the required examination but shall meet the other requirements of this chapter, except RCW 18.52.070(2). After hearing before the board and upon order of the board the director may revoke or suspend any such permit for the reasons provided in this chapter for suspension or revocation of administrator licenses.

(11) To advise the relevant state agencies regarding receipt and administration of such federal funds as are made available to carry out the educational purposes of this chapter.

(12) To advise the director regarding the application forms used by the director under this chapter.

(13) To direct the granting of provisional licenses as provided in this chapter.

(14) To issue rules and regulations which are necessary to carry out the functions of the board specifically assigned to it by this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 4; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 10.]

18.52.110 Reregistration of licenses. (1) Every holder of a nursing home administrator's license shall reregister it annually with the director on dates specified by the director by making application for reregistration on forms provided by the director. Such reregistration shall be granted automatically upon receipt of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. In the event that any license is not reregistered within thirty days after the date for reregistration specified by the director, the director shall, in accordance with rules prescribed by the board, give notice to the license holder, and may thereafter in accordance with rules prescribed by the board charge up to double the normal reregistration fee. In the event that the license of an individual is not reregistered within three years from the most recent date for reregistration it shall lapse and such individual must again apply for licensing and meet all requirements of this chapter for a new applicant. The board may prescribe rules for maintenance of a license at a reduced fee for temporary or permanent withdrawal or retirement from the active practice of nursing home administration.

(2) A condition of reregistration shall be the presentation of proof by the applicant that he has attended the number of classroom hours of approved educational programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings set by the board. The board shall have the power to approve programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings offered in this state or elsewhere by any accredited institution of higher learning or any national or local group or society if such programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings are reasonably related to the administration of nursing homes. The board shall establish rules and regulations providing that the applicant for reregistration may present such proofs yearly, or may obtain the cumulative number of required hours over a three year period and present such proofs over periods of three years. In no event shall the number of classroom hours required for any time period exceed the number of such board approved classroom hours reasonably available over such time period on an adult or continuing education basis to nonmatriculating participants in this state.

(3) An individual may obtain and reregister a license under this chapter although he does not actively engage in nursing home administration. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 54; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 9; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 11.]

18.52.120 Suspension, revocation, or refusal of re-registration of licenses. The director, after any notice and hearing before the board which may be required by law, and upon the order of the board, shall, subject to any deferral or condition ordered, refuse to reregister or shall suspend or revoke an administrator's license, or issue a reprimand as directed by the board, as provided in this chapter when proof has been submitted to the board that:

(1) The licensee has committed any fraud or material misrepresentation or concealment in obtaining or maintaining the license.

(2) The license was obtained due to the mistake or inadvertence of the board or the director.

(3) The licensee has knowingly or repeatedly violated any of the provisions of this chapter or of the rules promulgated by the board in accordance with this chapter or authorized or directed another so to act.

(4) The licensee has knowingly or repeatedly violated rules promulgated by the department of social and health services or the state board of health concerning patient care in a manner demonstrating a substantial disregard for patient health and safety.

(5) The licensee is unable to administer a nursing home with due regard for patient health and safety by reason of habitual, intemperate use of alcohol, controlled substances, or other chemicals or materials; or the licensee is similarly incapacitated by mental illness, insanity, mental disorder or some condition or situation requiring entry of an order for a guardianship, and such mental status or the need of a guardianship has been determined to exist by a court of competent jurisdiction: Provided, That the board, when considering cases under this subsection, shall endeavor to encourage the recovery and rehabilitation of the administrator and the maintenance of the administrator's livelihood, but always subject to the primary objective of protecting patient health and safety.

(6) The licensee has committed any acts which, whether or not criminal prosecutions occur, constitute fraud, forgery, wrongful obtaining of funds, theft, larceny by trick, scheme or device, assault in the first, second or third degree, bribery or corrupt influence, or solicitation or conspiracy to commit any of said offenses: Provided, That if some form of intent is required to render any such acts criminal such intent shall also be required to permit action against the licensee under this subsection, and liability under this subsection may be determined pursuant to the principles of liability set forth in RCW 9A.08.020.

(7) The licensee has been grossly negligent or committed gross misconduct in the administration of a nursing home.

(8) The licensee has participated in or has offered or agreed to participate in, any arrangement whereby any payment or rebate is given to any party in return for the referral of a patient to the facility the licensee administers, or for referral by such licensee of a patient to any party for rendition of professional services to such patient.

(9) The licensee or applicant has previously been refused a license as an administrator or had renewal thereof refused, or has had such a license suspended or revoked by any competent state, federal, or foreign authority: Provided, That a suspension, revocation, refusal to issue or refusal to reregister a license under this subsection must be based upon a showing in the record of such previous proceedings which would constitute a proper basis for the action proposed under the provisions of this chapter, and the licensee or applicant shall, on request, have the opportunity to challenge the fairness of the previous proceedings or the correctness of the factual determinations involved.

Administrators whose licenses have been revoked, or to whom reregistration has been refused, may, on subsequent application be licensed, relicensed, or reregistered, according to such rules or regulations as may be prescribed by the board and according to standards prescribed by the board. Suspended licenses are automatically in force at the expiration of the period of suspension specified in the board's order, but must be reregistered in the normal course if they expire during the period of suspension. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 5; 1975 1st ex.s. c 97 § 2; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 12.]

18.52.130 Reciprocity. Upon receipt of an application fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended and an annual license fee, the director may issue a nursing home administrator's license, without examination, to any person who holds a current license as a nursing home administrator from another jurisdiction: Provided, That the board finds that the standards for licensing in such other jurisdiction are at least the substantial equivalent of those prevailing in this state, and that the applicant is otherwise qualified. In the event that there is developed a nationally recognized standard for the licensing of nursing home administrators which is in fact utilized in licensing procedures on a reasonably uniform basis the board may by rule or regulation provide for granting reciprocal licensing on a showing of compliance with such standard. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 55; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 13.]

18.52.140 License required—Penalty. It shall be unlawful and constitute a gross misdemeanor for any person to act or serve in the capacity of a nursing home administrator unless he is the holder of a nursing home administrator's license issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter: Provided however, That persons carrying out functions and duties delegated by a licensed administrator shall not be construed to be committing any unlawful act under this chapter. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 14.]

18.52.150 Proceedings—Hearings—Appeals—Investigations. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, all proceedings under this chapter of the director and board for rule making, for the hearings required by this chapter, for contested cases and for appeals shall be conducted in conformity with the administrative procedure act. In matters involving reprimand, suspension, revocation, refusal of reregistration, or denial of licenses, the board shall require clear, cogent, and convincing evidence before the board orders action. Complaints regarding any licensed administrator shall be considered only if submitted to the director in writing and signed. If a complaint indicates a possible violation of the provisions of this chapter, it shall be investigated by the director. Additionally, the director on his own initiative may, or, upon order of the board, shall, initiate an investigation of possible violations of this chapter. The director shall advise the board of all complaints received and action taken.

If, after investigation the chairman of the board, or the board, decides that there is reasonable cause to believe that grounds exist for a reprimand, or for denial, suspension, refusal of reregistration, or revocation of a license issued or to be issued under this chapter, the director shall notify the applicant or licensee in writing and serve him personally, or by certified mail, with return receipt requested, stating the grounds for the reprimand or upon which the license is to be denied, suspended, revoked or reregistration refused, and shall make available, upon request, so much of the investigative information as relates to any grounds asserted for proposed action.

Within twenty days of the service or receipt of notice of the alleged grounds for reprimand, denial, suspension, revocation, or refusal or reregistration, the applicant or licensee may serve upon the director a written request for hearing before the board. Service of a request for a hearing shall be made personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested, and in the latter event shall be addressed to the director at the director's office in Thurston county.

Upon receiving a request for a hearing, the director shall refer the matter to the board to arrange for a hearing. Hearings may be conducted by the board, by a committee of the board the majority of which shall be administrator members, a hearing officer engaged by the board who shall be a licensed administrator, or by a hearing examiner of the state.

If the applicant or licensee does not file a timely request for a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this section, the director shall refer the matter to the board for appropriate action which may be taken without further notice to the applicant or licensee. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 6; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 15.]

18.52.155 Authority to administer oaths—Compel attendance and testimony—Subpoenas—Contempt. In any investigation or proceeding authorized in this chapter, the director, the board, any committee of the board, and any hearing officer conducting a contested case, shall have authority to administer oaths and take testimony, issue subpoenas requiring attendance of witnesses, together with relevant books, memoranda, papers, and other documents, articles, or instruments, and to discover from such witnesses all relevant facts known to them. In a contested case subpoenas shall be issued at the request of a party.

If an individual fails to obey the subpoena or obeys the subpoena but refuses to testify concerning matters relevant to the investigation or proceedings, the issuer of the subpoena may petition the superior court of the county where the investigation or proceeding is being conducted for enforcement of the subpoena. The petition shall be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service, and shall set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with, and shall ask an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify before the agency. The court may enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place fixed in such order to show cause why he has not responded to the subpoena or has refused to testify. A copy of such order shall be served upon the witness. If it then appears to the court that the subpoena was properly issued and that the particular questions which the witness refuses to answer are reasonable and relevant the court shall enter an order that the witness appear at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the items required, and on failing to obey the order the witness shall be subject to being held in contempt of court. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 7.]

18.52.160 Examinations—Times and places—Meetings of board. On or before March 15, 1970 the governor shall establish the first board which shall immediately meet for organizational purposes and shall thereafter meet as often as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the board under this chapter. The first examinations shall be administered and regular and provisional licenses shall be issued under this chapter prior to July 1, 1970. Thereafter examinations shall be administered at intervals not less than semiannually and at such times and places as may be determined by the board. There shall not be a limit upon the number of times a candidate may take the required examination. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 17.]

18.52.170 Fees and revenues—Disposition. All fees or revenue collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in the state general fund. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 19.]

18.52.900 Severability—1970 ex.s. c 57. If any provision of this 1970 act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 20.]

18.52A.010 Legislative finding. The legislature finds that the quality of patient care in nursing homes is dependent upon the competence of the personnel who staff their facilities. To assure the availability of trained personnel in nursing homes, the legislature recognizes the need for the development of an entry-level training program for nursing assistants. [1979 c 114 § 1.]

18.52A.020 Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Nursing assistant" means a person who assists in the care of patients, in a facility licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, under the direction and supervision of a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse.

(2) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(3) "Nursing home" means a facility licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW.

(4) "Board" means the state board of nursing. [1979 c 114 § 2.]

18.52A.030 Qualification requirements for employment of nursing assistants. (1) Any nursing assistant employed by a nursing home, who has satisfactorily completed a nursing assistant training program under this chapter, shall, upon application, be issued a certificate of completion.

(2) After June 30, 1980, all nursing assistants employed by a nursing home shall be required to show evidence of satisfactory completion of a nursing assistant training program, or that they are enrolled in and are progressing satisfactorily towards completion of a training program under standards promulgated by the board, which program must be completed within six months of employment. A nursing home may employ a person not currently enrolled if the employer within twenty days enrolls the person in an approved training program. All persons enrolled in a training program must satisfactorily complete the program within six months from the date of initial employment.

(3) All nursing assistants who, on June 7, 1979, are employed in nursing homes shall be given the opportunity to obtain a certificate of completion by passing a written and/or practical examination developed by the board and conducted by a school or nursing home, or by providing evidence of sufficient practical experience. The board shall adopt rules specifying the amount of practical experience to be required for the issuance of a certificate under this section.

(4) Compliance with this section shall be a condition of licensure of nursing homes under chapter 18.51 RCW. [1979 c 114 § 3.]

18.52A.040 Nursing assistant training programs. (1)

The board shall establish minimum curriculum standards and approve or disapprove curriculum used in nursing assistant training programs. The standards shall include, as a minimum, instruction in patient environment, patients' psychosocial needs, aseptic technique, personal hygiene, excretory systems, basic nursing procedures, food service, and fire safety, consisting of at least twenty-five classroom hours and at least fifty hours of supervised and on-the-job training clinical practice. The fifty hours may consist of employment as nurse assistants under supervision of a registered nurse.

(2) For nursing assistant training programs conducted by nursing homes, the board shall adopt additional minimum standards covering noncurriculum matters such as, but not limited to, staffing and teacher qualifications. Of the standards adopted by the board, nursing assistant training programs conducted by publicly supported schools, and private educational institutions accredited by the northwest association of schools and colleges, shall be required to meet only those standards established under subsection (1) of this section.

Upon completion of the review, the board shall approve or disapprove each program, and graduates of such approved programs shall automatically be certified. [1979 c 114 § 4.]

18.52A.050 Administering medication, practicing as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as conferring on a nursing assistant the authority to administer medication or to practice as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse. [1979 c 114 § 5.]

18.52A.060 Rules. The department and the board shall, within ninety days of June 7, 1979, adopt such rules as are necessary for the implementation of this chapter. [1979 c 114 § 6.]

18.52A.070 Rate adjustments to defray costs. The department shall provide rate adjustments to nursing homes for the portion of additional costs attributable to the requirements of this chapter. [1979 c 114 § 7.]

18.53.005 Legislative finding and declaration. The legislature finds and declares that the practice of optometry is a learned profession and affects the health, welfare and safety of the people of this state, and should be regulated in the public interest and limited to qualified persons licensed under the provisions of *this 1975 amendatory act. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 1.]

*Reviser's note: "this 1975 amendatory act" [1975 1st ex.s. c 69] consists of RCW 18.53.005, 18.53.155, 18.53.200, 18.53.911, amendments to RCW 18.53.010, 18.53.020, 18.53.040, 18.53.060, 18.53.070, 18.53.100, 18.53.140, 18.53.190, 18.54.050, 18.54.070, 18.54.080, 18.54.140 and the repeal of RCW 18.53.090.

18.53.010 Definition. The practice of optometry is defined as the examination of the human eye, the examination and ascertaining any defects of the human vision system and the analysis of the process of vision. The practice of optometry may include, but not necessarily be limited to, the following:

(1) The employment of any objective or subjective means or method and the use of any diagnostic instruments or devices for the examination or analysis of the human vision system, the measurement of the powers or range of human vision, or the determination of the refractive powers of the human eye or its functions in general; and

(2) The prescription and fitting of lenses, prisms, therapeutic or refractive contact lenses and the adaption or adjustment of frames and lenses used in connection therewith; and

(3) The prescription and provision of visual therapy, therapeutic aids and other optical devices; and

(4) The ascertainment of the perceptive, neural, muscular or pathological condition of the visual system; and

(5) The adaptation of prosthetic eyes. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 2; 1919 c 144 § 1; RRS § 10147. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 1.]

18.53.020 Licensing required. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice optometry as above defined in the state of Washington without first obtaining a license from the director of licensing. [1979 c 158 § 46; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 3; 1919 c 144 § 2; RRS § 10148. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 5.]

18.53.030 Temporary permit—When issued. The director may at his discretion, issue a permit to practice optometry during the interim between examinations, to any person who has filed an application for examination which has been accepted by said director as admitting the applicant to the next examination. Such permit shall be valid only until the date of the next examination and shall not be issued sooner than thirty days following any regular examination, and no permit shall be issued to any person who has failed before the director, nor where a certificate has been revoked. [1919 c 144 § 8; RRS § 10153.]

18.53.040 Exemptions—Exceptions—Limitation. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to pertain in any manner to the practice of any regularly qualified oculist or physician, who is regularly licensed to practice medicine in the state of Washington, or to any person who is regularly licensed to practice as a dispensing optician in the state of Washington, nor to any person who in the regular course of trade, sells or offers for sale, spectacles or eyeglasses as regular merchandise without pretense of adapting them to the eyes of the purchaser, and not in evasion of this chapter: Provided, That any such regularly qualified oculist or physician or other person shall be subject to the provisions of subdivisions (10) through (15) of RCW 18.53.140, in connection with the performance of any function coming within the definition of the practice of optometry as defined in this chapter: Provided further, however, That in no way shall this section be construed to permit a dispensing optician to practice optometry as defined in *this 1975 amendatory act. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 15; 1937 c 155 § 3; 1919 c 144 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1937 § 10159. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 13.]

18.53.050 Certificate renewal—Suspension, revocation for failure to pay—Optometry account. During the month of January of each year, every registered optometrist shall pay to the state treasurer a renewal fee, to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, and failure to pay such fee within the prescribed time shall cause the suspension of his certificate. The state treasurer shall place two dollars and forty cents from each renewal fee into the general fund and shall place the balance into an optometry account which is hereby created for the enforcement of this chapter. Any residue in such account shall be accumulated and shall not revert to the general fund at the end of any biennium.

In the event of failure to pay the renewal fee, the director shall mail a notice of such suspension to the last known post office address of the holder between the first and fifth days of February, March, and April next following and if the fee is not paid by May 1st the director may declare the certificate revoked and immediately notify the county clerk of the county in which the certificate is recorded, and the clerk shall mark his records accordingly. Such examination shall not be out of keeping with the established teachings and adopted textbooks of the recognized schools of optometry, and shall be confined to such subjects and practices as are recognized as essential to the practice of optometry. All candidates without discrimination, who shall successfully pass the prescribed examination, shall be registered by the board and shall, upon payment of the proper fee, be issued a license. Reviser's note: RCW 18.53.070 was amended twice during the 1975 first extraordinary session of the legislature, each without reference to the other.

False advertising: Chapter 9.04 RCW.

18.53.145 Unlawful to advertise indemnity benefits to health care service contract subscribers when not a participant or contractor. It shall be unlawful for any licensee subject to the provisions of chapter 18.53 RCW to advertise to the effect that benefits in the form of indemnity will accrue to subscribers of health care service contracts for services performed by the licensee for a subscriber when the licensee is neither a health care service contractor nor a participant. A violation of this section shall be punishable as provided in RCW 18.53.140(10). [1969 c 143 § 2.]

18.53.150 Violations generally—Penalty. Any person violating any provision of RCW 18.53.010 through 18.53.150 shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both. [1919 c 144 § 22; RRS § 10163. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 12.]

18.53.155 Injunction to restrain violations. If any person engages in the practice of optometry without possessing a valid license to do so, or if he violates the provisions of RCW 18.53.100 or 18.53.140, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, or any citizen of the same county, may maintain an action in the name of the state of Washington to enjoin such person from engaging in practice as an optometrist. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution and to suspension or revocation of his license. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 13.]

18.53.160 Public aid ocular services—Discrimination prohibited. All agencies of the state and its subdivisions, and all commissions, clinics and boards administering relief, public assistance, public welfare assistance, social security, health insurance, or health service under the laws of this state, shall accept the services of licensed optometrists for any service covered by their licenses relating to any person receiving benefits from said agencies or subdivisions and shall pay for such services in the same way as practitioners of other professions may be paid for similar services. None of the said governmental agencies, or agents, officials or employees thereof, including the public schools, in the performance of their duties shall in any way show discrimination among licensed ocular practitioners. [1949 c 149 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 9991a.]

18.53.165 Discrimination prohibited—Legislative finding and declaration. The legislature finds and declares that the costs of health care to the people are rising disproportionately to other costs and that there is a paramount concern that the right of the people to obtain access to health care in all its facets is being impaired thereby. For this reason, the reliance on the mechanism of insurance, whether profit or nonprofit, is the only effective manner in which the large majority of the people can attain access to quality health care, and it is therefore declared to be in the public interest that health care insurance be regulated to assure that all the people have access to health care rendered by whatever means, and to the greatest extent possible. RCW 18.53.165 through 18.53.190 and 18.53.901, prohibiting discrimination against the legally recognized and licensed profession of optometrists, is necessary in the interest of the public health, welfare and safety. [1973 c 48 § 1.]

18.53.170 Discrimination prohibited—Acceptance of services by state agencies and subdivisions. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions shall accept the services of licensed optometrists for any service covered by their licenses with relation to any person receiving benefits, salaries, wages, or any other type of compensation from the state, its agencies or subdivisions. [1973 c 48 § 2.]

18.53.175 Discrimination prohibited—State agencies and subdivisions—Officials and employees. The state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from in any way discriminating against licensed optometrists in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1973 c 48 § 3.]

18.53.180 Discrimination prohibited—Agreements or contracts by state and subdivisions. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from entering into any agreement or contract with any individual, group, association, or corporation which in any way, directly or indirectly, discriminates against licensed optometrists in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1973 c 48 § 4.]

18.53.185 Discrimination prohibited—Costs immaterial. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purpose of RCW 18.53.165 through 18.53.180 and 18.53.190 it is immaterial whether the cost of any policy, plan, agreement, or contract be deemed additional compensation for services, or otherwise. [1973 c 48 § 5.]

18.53.190 Discrimination prohibited—Application of law. RCW 18.53.165 through 18.53.185 shall apply to all agreements, renewals, or contracts issued on or after June 7, 1973.

Health care service contracts having a participant agreement with a majority of the licensed optometrists within its service area may provide benefits to persons or groups of persons through contracts which allow a subscriber to utilize on an equal participation basis the services of any participant provided in the contract, and such contracts shall not be discriminatory. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 8; 1973 c 48 § 6.]

18.53.200 Privileged communications. The information and records of a licensed optometrist pertaining to a patient shall be privileged communications, the same as now or hereafter may exist in the relationship of physician and patient and shall not be released or subjected to disclosure without the consent of the patient or as otherwise required by law. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 14.]

Privileged communications—Physician and patient: RCW 5.60.060.

18.53.900 Short title—1919 c 144. This act shall be known, and may be referred to as, "The Optometry Law". [1919 c 144 § 20.]

18.53.901 Severability—1973 c 48. If any provision of this 1973 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1973 c 48 § 7.]

The board shall meet as soon as practicable after appointment and elect a chairman and a secretary from its members. Meetings of the board shall be held at least four times a year and at such place as the board shall determine and at such other times and places as the board deems necessary.

It shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the board to take any official action.

(5) To establish rules and regulations fixing standards of professional conduct;

(6) To adopt such rules as are necessary to establish, administer, and/or delegate a review of each malpractice action filed against a person licensed to practice under this chapter. The board may require any applicant to submit to such examination or examinations as it deems necessary to determine an applicant's physical and/or mental capability to safely practice osteopathic medicine and surgery. The applicant must also show that he has not been guilty of any conduct which would constitute grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of such license under the laws of the state of Washington.

(2) The commission of any act, whether the same be committed in the course of a licensee's relations as a physician or otherwise, and whether the same constitutes a crime or not, which creates a reasonable and substantial doubt as to the ability of the licensee to honestly or competently practice his profession. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction therefor the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at any ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent physician of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of violation of the statute upon which it is based.

(3) The violation of any rule or regulation pertaining to advertising of osteopathic practice promulgated by the board.

(4) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery or osteopathy, or in renewal or reinstatement thereof.

18.57.173 Unprofessional conduct—Complaint—Disciplinary proceedings. (1) Any person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the director charging the holder of a license to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery with unprofessional conduct and specifying the grounds therefor. Such complaint must be made within five years after the date of the act or occurrence which constitutes the subject of the complaint. If the director determines that such complaint merits consideration, or if the director shall have reason to believe, without formal complaint, that any holder of such license has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, the director shall institute disciplinary proceedings by preparing and filing with the board a specification of the charge or charges of unprofessional conduct and serve a copy thereof on the accused license holder together with notice of a hearing before the board.

(2) All disciplinary proceedings before the board shall be conducted in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) A member of the board who has not personally heard all the testimony and oral argument, if any, shall be disqualified from voting on the final decision in any disciplinary proceeding before the board. [1979 c 117 § 4.]

18.57.175 Restriction, suspension, or revocation of license for unprofessional conduct—Reprimand—Reinstatement—Dismissal and exoneration. (1) The board may restrict, suspend, or revoke the license of any physician found guilty of unprofessional conduct under this chapter, or the board may issue a reprimand, as it deems most appropriate.

(2) The board may, in its discretion, suspend imposition of a penalty of restriction, suspension, or revocation of license for such period of time as it may determine proper, and the board may impose such terms and conditions as it may determine proper as a condition to such suspension of imposition of penalty.

(3) Any person whose license has been restricted, suspended, or revoked under the provisions of this chapter may apply to the board for reinstatement at any time and the board may hold hearings on any such petition and may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions thereof.

(4) If the license holder is found not guilty, or if fewer than a majority of all the board members vote for a finding of guilty, the board shall forthwith order a dismissal of the charges and the exoneration of the accused. When a proceeding has been dismissed, either on the merits or otherwise, the board shall relieve the accused from any possible odium that may attach by reason of the charges made against him by such public exoneration as is necessary, if requested by the accused to do so. [1979 c 117 § 5.]

18.57.177 Order of reprimand, restriction, suspension, or revocation—Contents—Effect. (1) An order of reprimand, restriction, suspension, or revocation shall contain a brief and concise statement of the ground or grounds upon which the order is based and of the terms and conditions of the restriction and of any suspension of imposition of such restriction, suspension, or revocation, and such order shall be retained as a permanent record of the board.

(2) The filing by the board in the office of the director of an order of restriction, suspension, or revocation shall constitute a restriction, suspension, or revocation of the license to practice in this state in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the order. [1979 c 117 § 6.]

18.57.181 Issuance of license after restriction, revocation, or suspension. The director shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof under this chapter to any person whose license has been restricted, suspended, or revoked by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the order of restriction, suspension, or revocation, or in accordance with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in conformity with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of this chapter. [1979 c 117 § 7.]

18.57.185 Suspension of physician's license for mental incompetency or mental or physical condition—Hearing—Examination—Consent—Resumption of practice. (1) In the event that a physician is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent, such physician's license shall automatically be suspended by the board upon the entry of such judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a physician who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent is unable to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such physician for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the physician to practice adequately. In enforcing this subsection the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a physician to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board; at least one of whom may be designated by the charged party if such party chooses. Failure of a physician to submit to such examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such physician's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the control of such physician, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A physician affected under this subsection shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate a capacity to resume the competent practice of osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

For the purpose of this subsection, every physician licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to so practice, be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitutes a privileged communication.

18.57.195 Cooperation with board—Failure deemed unprofessional conduct. It shall be the duty and obligation of a physician against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

- (1) Furnishing any papers or documents;
- (2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in such complaint;
- (3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Should such physician fail to cooperate with the board in the manner provided in this section, such conduct shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct. [1979 c 117 § 9.]

18.57.205 Immunity from prosecution or suit. In any proceedings under this chapter, neither the board nor any of its members, staff, employees, nor any appointee or employee of the department of licensing or its administrative divisions, nor the state or its elected officials, appointees, or employees, nor any individual, corporation, company, or organization giving testimony or evidence or bringing complaints or charges before the board shall be prosecuted or subject to suit in any action based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the board or as a consequence of involvement in proceedings of the board in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. [1979 c 117 § 10.]

18.57.260 Physicians filing charges or presenting evidence before committees, boards or hospitals—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.250, 4.24.260.

18.57.270 Records of medical society or hospital committee or board not subject to civil process. See RCW 4.24.250.

18.57.900 Interchangeable terms. The words "certificates" and "licenses" shall be known as interchangeable terms in this chapter. [1919 c 4 § 21; RRS § 10073.]

18.57.910 Repeal. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [1919 c 4 § 22.]

18.57.915 Severability—1979 c 117. If any provision of this 1979 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1979 c 117 § 19.]

The board shall, in addition, adopt rules and regulations governing the extent to which physician's assistants may practice medicine during training and after successful completion of a training course. Such regulations shall provide:

Whenever it appears to the board that an osteopathic physician's assistant is being utilized in a manner inconsistent with the approval granted, the board may withdraw such approval. 18.72.010 Declaration of purpose. This chapter is passed:

(1) In the exercise of the police power of the state to protect public health, to promote the welfare of the state, and to provide an adequate public agency to act as a disciplinary body for the members of the medical profession licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state;

(3) Because the conduct of members of the medical profession licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state plays a vital role in preserving the health and well-being of the people of the state; and

(4) Because the agency which now exists to handle disciplinary proceedings for members of the medical profession licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state is ineffective and very infrequently employed, and consequently there is no effective means of handling such disciplinary proceedings when they are necessary for the protection of the public health. (2) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion;

(3) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice medicine or in reinstatement thereof;

In case any person contumaciously refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the board or to answer any proper question put to him during the hearing or proceeding, the superior court of any county in which the proceeding is carried on or in which the person guilty of refusal to obey the subpoena or to answer the question resides or is found shall have jurisdiction, upon application by the board, to issue to such person an order requiring him to appear before the board or its hearing committee, there to produce evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony concerning the matter under investigation or question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished. [1955 c 202 § 19.]

The order may provide for:

chapter 34.04 RCW, or an order of summary suspension entered as authorized by this chapter, shall take effect immediately upon its filing. Such order, if appealed, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the board or the court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the board, which stay may provide for terms necessary to protect the public. [1979 1st ex.s. c 111 § 14; 1979 c 158 § 60; 1969 c 58 § 1; 1955 c 202 § 25.]

[1955 c 202 § 26.]

18.72.265 Regulations requiring reports—Contents confidential—Immunity. (1) The board may adopt regulations requiring any person, including, but not limited to, corporations, hospitals, organizations, and federal, state, or local governmental agencies, to report to the board any: Conviction, determination, or finding that a licensed physician has committed unprofessional conduct as defined by RCW 18.72.030 as now or hereafter amended, or to report information which indicates that a licensed physician may not be able to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients as the result of any mental or physical condition.

(2) The contents of any report file shall be confidential and exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW, except that it may be reviewed (a) by the licensee involved or his counsel or authorized representative who may submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statements or other information, which statements or other information shall be included in the file, or (b) by a representative of the medical disciplinary board, or investigator thereof, who has been assigned to review the activities of a licensed physician.

(3) Upon a determination that a report is without merit, the board's records may be purged of information relating to the report.

(4) If any person contumaciously refuses to furnish a required report, the board may petition the superior court of any county in which said person resides or is found, and said court shall issue to such person an order to furnish the required report. Any failure to obey such order shall be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.

(5) Every individual, medical association, medical society, hospital, medical service bureau, health insurance carrier or agent, professional liability insurance carrier, professional standards review organization, and agency of the federal, state, or local government shall be immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the board subsequent to the regulations outlined in [sub]section (1) of this section, or for which an individual health care provider has immunity under the provisions of RCW 4.24.240, 4.24.250, or 4.24.260, as now or hereafter amended. [1979 1st ex.s. c 111 § 15.]

Severability—1979 1st ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.270 Issuance of license after revocation or suspension. The director of licensing shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof to any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension, or in conformity with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in accordance with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of this chapter. [1955 c 202 § 27.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.72.271 Refusal of license—Reinstatement—Hearing—Record. See RCW 18.71.120, 18.71.140 and 18.71.180.

18.72.275 Suspension of physician's license for mental incompetency or illness, physical condition—Hearing—Examination—Reinstatement—Grounds. (1) In the event that a physician is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, such physician shall automatically have his or her license suspended by the board upon the entry of such judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a physician who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such physician and notice shall be given the physician that a hearing will be held on the sole issue of the capacity of the physician to adequately conduct his or her practice. If the board determines that the physician is unable to adequately conduct his or her practice for one of the reasons stated in this subsection, the board shall suspend or restrict the license of such physician, or impose such conditions on the conduct of the physician's practice as the board finds to be appropriate for the protection of the public.

(3) In enforcing this section, the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a physician to submit to a mental or physical examination by one or more physicians and/or a psychological evaluation by one or more licensed psychologists designated by the board. In addition to any examinations ordered by the board, the subject physician may submit psychiatric, physical, or psychological examination reports from physicians or psychologists of the physician's choosing and expense. Failure of a physician to submit to examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such physician's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond his or her control, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A physician affected under this section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that he or she can resume the competent practice of medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(4) For the purpose of this section, every physician licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice medicine in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice medicine in this state, be deemed to have given his or her consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute privileged communications.

(5) In any proceeding under this section, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a physician in any other proceeding. [1979 1st ex.s. c 111 § 16; 1975 c 61 § 3.]

Severability—1979 1st ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

Such review shall be initiated by serving on the secretary a notice of appeal and filing such notice of appeal either in the superior court of Thurston county, or in the superior court of the county in which the appellant resides, within thirty days after the filing of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director of licensing. [1955 c 202 § 28.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.72.290 Appeal from decision of board—Transmittal of transcript. The secretary shall, within twenty days after the service of the notice of appeal, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is taken a transcript of the record before the board, certified under the seal of the board, together with a certified copy of the board's written findings. [1955 c 202 § 29.]

18.72.300 Appeal from decision of board—Scope of review. The findings of the board, if supported by the preponderance of evidence, shall be final and conclusive. The review in the superior court shall be limited to determining whether the findings of the board are supported by the preponderance of evidence and whether the proceedings of the board were erroneous as a matter of law, or in violation of due process, or so arbitrary or capricious as to amount to an abuse of discretion, or contrary to any constitutional right, power, privilege or immunity. [1955 c 202 § 30.]

18.72.320 Appeal from decision of superior court. Appeal shall be from the decision of the superior court. [1955 c 202 § 32.]

18.72.330 Review though revocation not timely filed. If the board finds the holder of any license guilty of unprofessional conduct and fails to file a certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director of licensing within thirty days, the license holder shall have the right to a judicial review of such finding of the board in the same manner and to the same extent as if the certificate or order had been filed. [1955 c 202 § 33.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.72.350 Physician members of committees to evaluate credentials and qualifications of physicians—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.240.

18.72.900 Severability—1955 c 202. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this chapter should be held invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other section, sentence, clause or phrase of this medical disciplinary board act. [1955 c 202 § 46.]

18.72.910 Short title. This chapter may be known, as [and] cited, as the "medical disciplinary board act". [1955 c 202 § 48.]

18.73.010 Legislative finding. The legislature finds that a state-wide program of emergency medical care is necessary to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of this state. The intent of the legislature is that the secretary of the department of social and health services develop and implement a program to promote immediate prehospital treatment for victims of motor vehicle accidents, suspected coronary illnesses, and other acute illness or trauma.

The legislature further recognizes that emergency medical care and transportation methods are constantly changing and conditions in the various regions of the state vary markedly. The legislature, therefore, seeks to establish a flexible method of implementation and regulation to meet those conditions. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 1.]

18.73.020 Supersession of local ordinances, regulations, requirements and fees. The legislature further declares its intention to supersede all ordinances, regulations, and requirements promulgated by counties, cities and other political subdivisions of the state of Washington, insofar as they may provide for the regulation of emergency medical care, first aid, and ambulance services which do not exceed the provisions of this chapter; except that (1) license fees established in this chapter shall supersede all license fees of counties, cities and other political subdivisions of this state; and, (2) nothing in this chapter shall alter the provisions of RCW 18.71-.020, 18.71.200, 18.71.210 and 18.71.220. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 2.]

or suspension of licenses, including the power to preside at hearings and to render decisions therein subject to the approval of the director. [1957 c 52 § 45. Prior: 1945 c 111 § 9, part; 1941 c 252 § 20, part; 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 14, part; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 8340-43, part.]

18.85.251 Refusal, revocation, suspension of licenses—Procedure—Investigation—Hearing. The proceedings for revocation or suspension of a license or refusal to renew a license or accept an application for renewal shall be had on motion of the director or after a statement in writing verified by some person or persons familiar with the facts upon which the proposed revocation, suspension or refusal is based has been filed with the director. Upon receipt of such statement or accusation, the director shall make a preliminary investigation of the facts charged to determine whether the statement or accusation is sufficient. If the director shall determine the statement or accusation is sufficient to require formal action, the director shall thereupon set the matter for hearing at a specified time and place. A copy of such order setting time and place and a copy of the verified statement shall be served upon the licensee involved not less than twenty days before the day appointed in the order for said hearing. The department of licensing, the licensee accused, and the person making the accusation may be represented by counsel at such a hearing. The director or his authorized representative shall hear and receive pertinent evidence and testimony. [1951 c 222 § 23.]

Reviser's note: The term "department of licenses" has been changed to "department of licensing" in this section. See chapter 43.24 RCW.

18.85.261 Refusal, revocation, suspension of licenses—Hearing—Conduct of. If the licensed person accused does not appear at the time and place appointed for the hearing in person or by counsel, the hearing officer may proceed and determine the facts of the accusation in his absence. The proceedings may be conducted at places within the state convenient to all persons concerned as determined by the director, and may be adjourned from day to day or for longer periods. The hearing officer shall cause a transcript of all such proceedings to be kept by a reporter and shall upon request after completion thereof, furnish a copy of such transcript to the licensed person accused in such proceedings at the expense of the licensee. The hearing officer shall certify the transcript of proceedings to be true and correct. If the director finds that the statement or accusation is not proved by a fair preponderance of evidence, the director shall notify the licensee and the person making the accusation and shall dismiss the case. [1951 c 222 § 24.]

18.85.271 Refusal, revocation, suspension of licenses—Order—Judicial review. If the director shall decide, after such hearing, that the evidence supports the accusation by a preponderance of evidence, he may revoke the license in question or withhold renewal of any such license or suspend any such license. In such event he shall enter an order to that effect and shall file the same in his office and immediately mail a copy thereof to the affected party at the address of record with the department. Such order shall not be operative for a period of ten days from the date thereof. Any licensee or applicant aggrieved by a final decision by the director in a contested case whether such decision is affirmative or negative in form, is entitled to a judicial review in the superior court under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. Upon instituting appeal in the superior court, the appellant shall give a cash bond to the state of Washington, which bond shall be filed with the clerk of the court, in the sum of five hundred dollars to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to pay all costs that may be awarded against such appellant in the event of an adverse decision, such bond and notice to be filed within thirty days from the date of the director's decision. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 20; 1951 c 222 § 25.]

18.85.281 Appeal—As stay of order—Transcript. The filing of such notice and bond shall supersede the order of the director until the final determination of such appeal. The director shall prepare at appellant's expense and shall certify a transcript of the whole record to the director's office of all matters involved in the appeal, which shall be thereupon delivered by the director to the court in which the appeal is pending. The appellant shall be notified of the filing of the transcript and the cost thereof and shall within fifteen days thereafter pay the cost of said transcript. If the cost is not paid in full within fifteen days the appeal shall be dismissed. [1951 c 222 § 26.]

18.85.290 Failure to perfect appeal or pay expenses terminates stay of proceedings—Further appeal. If said appellant shall fail to perfect his appeal or fail to pay the expense of preparing the transcript as provided herein, said stay of proceedings shall automatically terminate.

An aggrieved party may secure review of a final judgment of the superior court under *this 1972 amendatory act by appeal therefrom. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 21; 1971 c 81 § 62; 1957 c 52 § 46; 1951 c 222 § 17. Prior: 1945 c 111 § 9, part; 1941 c 252 § 20, part; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 8340-43, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 14, part.]

18.85.300 Bonds—Remedy upon—Limit of liability. Every bond given under the provisions of this chapter, after approval by the director, shall be filed in his office. Any person who may be damaged by the wrongful conversion of trust funds by any real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman, shall, in addition to other legal remedies, have a right of action on such bond for all damages not exceeding five thousand dollars against a broker or one thousand dollars against a salesman. The aggregate liability of the surety upon the bond of any real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman for all claims which may arise thereunder shall not exceed the sum specified therein. [1951 c 222 § 18; 1943 c 118 § 3; 1941 c 252 § 17; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 8340-40. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 11.]

Embezzlement: Chapter 9A.56 RCW.

18.85.310 Broker's records—Delivery of copies—Separate funds. Every licensed real estate broker shall keep adequate records of all real estate transactions handled by or through him. The records shall include, but are not limited to, a copy of the earnest money receipt, and an itemization of the broker's receipts and disbursements with each transaction. These records and all other records hereinafter specified shall be open to inspection by the director or his authorized representatives.

Every real estate broker shall also deliver or cause to be delivered to all parties signing the same, at the time of signing, conformed copies of all earnest money receipts, listing agreements and all other like or similar instruments signed by the parties, including the closing statement.

Every real estate broker shall also keep separate real estate fund accounts in a recognized Washington state depository authorized to receive funds in which shall be kept separate and apart and physically segregated from licensee broker's own funds, all funds or moneys of clients which are being held by such licensee broker pending the closing of a real estate sale or transaction, or which have been collected for said client and are being held for disbursement for or to said client and such funds shall be deposited not later than the first banking day following receipt thereof.

Any violation by a real estate broker of any of the provisions of this section, or RCW 18.85.230, shall be grounds for revocation of the licenses issued to the broker. [1957 c 52 § 44; 1953 c 235 § 13; 1951 c 222 § 19. Prior: 1947 c 203 § 4, part; 1945 c 111 § 7, part; 1943 c 118 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 18, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-41, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 12, part.]

18.85.320 Salesmen, associate brokers—Termination of services. The license of a real estate salesman or associate real estate broker shall be retained at all times by his designated broker and when any real estate salesman or associate real estate broker ceases to represent his broker his license shall cease to be in force. Notice of such termination shall be given by the broker to the director and such notice shall be accompanied by and include the surrender of the salesman's or associate real estate broker's license. Failure of any broker to promptly notify the director of such salesman's or associate real estate broker's termination after demand by the affected salesman or associate real estate broker shall work a forfeiture of the broker's license. Upon application of the salesman or associate real estate broker and the payment of five dollars, the director shall issue a new license for the unexpired term, if such salesman or associate real estate broker is otherwise entitled thereto. When a real estate salesman's or associate real estate broker's services shall be terminated by his broker for a violation of any of the provisions of RCW 18.85.230, a written statement of the facts in reference thereto shall be filed forthwith with the director by the broker. [1953 c 235 § 14; 1947 c 203 § 7; 1943 c 118 § 7; 1941 c 252 § 26; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-49. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 21.]

18.85.330 Sharing commissions. It shall be unlawful for any licensed broker to pay any part of his commission or other compensation to any person who is not a licensed real estate broker in any state of the United States or its possessions or any province of the Dominion of Canada, or to a real estate salesman not licensed to do business for such broker; or for any licensed salesman to pay any part of his commission or other compensation to any person, whether licensed or not, except through his broker. [1953 c 235 § 15; 1943 c 118 § 6; 1941 c 252 § 24; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 8340-47.]

18.85.340 Violations—Penalty. Any person acting as a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman, without a license, or violating any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1951 c 222 § 20; 1941 c 252 § 23; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-46. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 17.]

18.85.343 Violations—Cease and desist orders. (1) The director may issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has violated a provision of this chapter or a lawful order or rule of the director.

(2) If the director makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, he may issue a temporary cease and desist order. Before issuing the temporary cease and desist order, whenever possible the director shall give notice by telephone or otherwise of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include a provision that a hearing will be held upon request to determine whether or not the order will become permanent.

At the time the temporary cease and desist order is served, the licensee shall be notified that he is entitled to request a hearing for the sole purpose of determining whether or not the public interest imperatively requires that the temporary cease and desist order be continued or modified pending the outcome of the hearing to determine whether or not the order will become permanent. The hearing shall be held within thirty days after the department receives the request for hearing, unless the licensee requests a later hearing. A licensee may secure review of any decision rendered at a temporary cease and desist order review hearing in the same manner as a contested case. [1977 ex.s. c 261 § 2.]

18.85.345 Attorney general as legal advisor. The attorney general shall render to the director opinions upon all questions of law relating to the construction or interpretation of this chapter, or arising in the administration thereof, that may be submitted to him by the director, and shall act as attorney for the director in all actions and proceedings brought by or against him under or pursuant to any provisions of this chapter. [1941 c 252 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-32. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 8.]

18.85.350 Enforcement provisions. The director may prefer a complaint for violation of any section of this chapter before any court of competent jurisdiction.

The prosecuting attorney of each county shall prosecute any violation of the provisions of this chapter which occurs in his county, and if the prosecuting attorney fails to act, the director may request the attorney general to take action in lieu of the prosecuting attorney.

Process issued by the director shall extend to all parts of the state, and may be served by any person authorized to serve process of courts of record, or may be mailed by registered mail to the licensee's last business address of record in the office of the director.

Whenever the director believes from evidence satisfactory to him that any person has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, or any order, license, decision, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, he may bring an action, in the superior court in the county wherein such person resides, against such person to enjoin any such person from continuing such violation or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof. In this action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be proper.

The director may petition the superior court in any county in this state for the immediate appointment of a receiver to take over, operate or close any real estate office in this state which is found, upon inspection of its books and records to be operating in violation of the provisions of this chapter, pending a hearing as herein provided. [1967 c 22 § 2; 1957 c 52 § 48; 1953 c 235 § 16. Prior: (i) 1941 c 252 § 21, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-44, part. (ii) 1947 c 203 § 6; 1941 c 252 § 22; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-45.]

18.85.360 Witnesses—Depositions—Fees—Subpoenas. The director may administer oaths; certify to all official acts; subpoena and bring before him any person in this state as a witness; compel the production of books and papers; and take the testimony of any person by deposition in the manner prescribed for procedure of the superior courts in civil cases, in any hearing in any part of the state.

Each witness, who appears by order of the director, shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage allowed to a witness in civil cases in the superior court. Witness fees shall be paid by the party at whose request the witness is subpoenaed.

If a witness, who has not been required to attend at the request of any party, is subpoenaed by the director, his fees and mileage shall be paid from funds appropriated for the use of the real estate department in the same manner as other expenses of the department are paid. [1957 c 52 § 49. Prior: 1941 c 252 § 21, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-44, part.]

18.85.400 Multiple listing associations—Entrance requirements. No later than sixty days after receipt of the real estate multiple listing associations entrance requirements the commission shall, with the directors approval, approve or disapprove the said entrance requirements. In no event shall the real estate commission approve any entrance requirements which shall be more restrictive on the person applying to join a real estate multiple listing association than the following:

(3) Require the applicant to pay an initiation fee computed by dividing an amount equal to five times the book value of the real estate multiple listing association concerned (exclusive of any value for listings and exclusive of all investments not related to the operation of the real estate multiple listing association and exclusive of all real estate), by the number of real estate broker members of said organization: Provided, That in no event shall the initiation fee exceed twenty-five hundred dollars;

(4) Require the applicant for membership to have been:

(a) A broker in the territory of the real estate multiple listing association for a period of one year; or

(b) An associate broker with one year's experience in the area of the real estate multiple listing association, who in addition has had one year's experience as a broker in any other area of the state.

(5) Require the applicant to follow any other rules of the association which apply to all the members of such association: Provided, That such other rules do not violate federal or state law: Provided, That nothing in *this 1969 amendatory act shall be construed to limit the authority of any real estate multiple listing association to engage in any activities which are not otherwise prohibited by law. [1969 c 78 § 2.]

Each registration shall be valid for a period of one year from date of issue or until employment with the broker is terminated, whichever occurs first. No registration may be transferred to another broker, nor may a representative be registered to more than one broker at a time. Upon the termination of employment of any representative the broker shall release and return the registration of that representative to the department. [1977 ex.s. c 24 § 7.]

Any person desiring to be issued a certificate of competency as provided in this chapter shall deliver evidence in a form prescribed by the department affirming that said person has had sufficient experience in as well as demonstrated general competency in the trade of plumbing or specialty plumbing so as to qualify him to make an application for a certificate of competency as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber: Provided, That completion of a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the coordinating council on occupational education shall constitute sufficient evidence of experience and competency to enable such person to make application for a certificate of competency.

In addition to supplying the evidence as prescribed in this section, each applicant for a certificate of competency shall submit an application for such certificate on such form and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the director of the department. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 3.]

18.106.040 Examinations—Eligibility requirements—Determination. Upon receipt of the application and evidence set forth in RCW 18.106.030, the director shall review the same and make a determination as to whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination each applicant for a journeyman plumber's certificate of competency shall furnish written evidence that he has either completed a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the coordinating council on occupational education; or that he has four or more years of experience under the direct supervision of a licensed journeyman plumber. Each applicant for a specialty plumber's certificate of competency shall furnish written evidence that he has either completed a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the commission for vocational education or its designee, or that he has had at least three years practical experience in his specialty. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed. The director shall establish reasonable rules and regulations for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing said rules, regulations, and criteria, the director shall consult with the state advisory board of plumbers as established in RCW 18.106.110. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the director shall so notify him, indicating the time and place for taking the same. 18.106.050 Examinations—Scope—Fee—Results—Retaking. The department, in coordination with the advisory board, shall prepare a written examination to be administered to applicants for certificates of competency for journeyman plumber and specialty plumber. The examination shall be so constructed to determine:

(1) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures that is identified with the status of journeyman plumber or specialty plumber; and

(2) Whether the applicant is sufficiently familiar with the applicable plumbing codes and the administrative rules and regulations of the department pertaining to plumbing and plumbers.

The department shall administer the examination to persons eligible to take the same under the provisions of RCW 18.106.040. All applicants shall, before taking such examination, pay to the department a twenty-five dollar fee: Provided, That any applicant taking said examination shall pay only such additional fee as is necessary to cover the costs of administering such additional examination as determined by the advisory board.

The department shall certify the results of said examination, and shall notify the applicant whether he has passed or failed. Any applicant who has failed the examination may petition the department to retake the examination, upon such terms and after such period of time as the director, in cooperation with the advisory board, shall deem necessary and proper. All such examinations given shall be developed by the state agency and shall be uniform throughout the state. The initial issuance of licenses and renewals shall be made by any certified local enforcement agency or the state, and fifty percent of such fees shall be retained by the certified local issuing agency. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 6; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 6.]

18.106.070 Certificates of competency—Issuance—Duration—Renewal—Fee—Rights of holder. The department shall issue a certificate of competency to all applicants who have passed the examination provided in RCW 18.106.050 and 18.106.060 as now or hereafter amended, and who have otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated thereto. The certificate shall bear the date of issuance, and shall expire on the first of July immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate shall be renewable annually, upon application, on or before the first of July. An annual renewal fee of twenty-five dollars shall be assessed for each certificate.

The certificates of competency or permits provided for in this chapter shall grant the holder the right to engage in the work of plumbing as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber in accordance with its provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions on any job or any employment without additional proof of competency or any other license or permit or fee to engage in such work: Provided, however, That this shall not preclude employees from adhering to a union security clause in any employment where such a requirement exists. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 7; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 7.]

18.106.080 Persons engaged in plumbing business or trade on effective date. No examination shall be required of any applicant for a certificate of competency who, on July 16, 1973, was engaged in a bona fide business or trade of plumbing, or on said date held a valid journeyman plumber's license issued by a political subdivision of the state of Washington and whose license is valid at the time of making his application for said certificate. Applicants qualifying under this section shall be issued a certificate by the department upon making an application as provided in RCW 18.106.030 and paying the fee required under RCW 18.106.050: Provided, That no applicant under this section shall be required to furnish such evidence as required by RCW 18.106.030. [1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 8.]

(1) Any person who has failed to pass the examination for a certificate of competency;

(2) Any applicant under this section who has not furnished the department with such evidence required under RCW 18.106.030;

18.106.100 Revocation of certificate of competency—Grounds—Procedure. (1) The department may revoke any certificate of competency upon the following grounds:

(a) The certificate was obtained through error or fraud;

(b) The holder thereof is judged to be incompetent to carry on the trade of plumbing as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber;

(c) The holder thereof has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereto.

(2) Before any certificate of competency shall be revoked, the holder thereof shall be given written notice of the department's intention to do so, mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested, to said holder's last known address. Said notice shall enumerate the allegations against such holder, and shall give him the opportunity to request a hearing before the advisory board. At such hearing, the department and the holder shall have opportunity to produce witnesses and give testimony. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall render its decision based upon the testimony and evidence presented, and shall notify the parties immediately upon reaching its decision. A majority of the board shall be necessary to render a decision. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 10.]

18.106.110 Advisory board of plumbers. (1) There is created a state advisory board of plumbers, to be composed of three members appointed by the governor. One member shall be a journeyman plumber, one member shall be a person conducting a plumbing business, and one member from the general public who is familiar with the business and trade of plumbing.

(2) The initial terms of the members of the advisory board shall be one, two, and three years respectively as set forth in subsection (1) of this section. Upon the expiration of said terms, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve for a period of three years. In the case of any vacancy on the board for any reason, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve out the term of the person whose position has become vacant.

(3) The advisory board shall carry out all the functions and duties enumerated in this chapter, as well as generally advise the department on all matters relative to this chapter.

(4) Each member of the advisory board shall receive travel expenses in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended for each day in which such member is actually engaged in attendance upon the meetings of the advisory board. 18.106.140 Powers and duties of director. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders, and rulings, including therein demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of his duties under this chapter: Provided, That in the administration of this chapter the director shall not enter any controversy arising over work assignments with respect to the trades involved in the construction industry. [1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 14.]

18.106.150 Exemptions from chapter requirements. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require that a person obtain a license or a certified plumber in order to do plumbing work at his residence or farm or place of business or on other property owned by him. Any person performing plumbing work on a farm may do so without having a current certificate of competency or apprentice permit: Provided, however, That nothing in this chapter shall be intended to derogate from or dispense with the requirements of any valid plumbing code enacted by a political subdivision of the state, except that no code shall require the holder of a certificate of competency to demonstrate any additional proof of competency or obtain any other license or pay any fee in order to engage in the trade of plumbing: And provided further, That this chapter shall not apply to common carriers subject to Part I of the Interstate Commerce

Act, nor to their officers and employees: And provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to any farm, business, industrial plant, or corporation doing plumbing work on premises it owns or operates: And provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict the right of any householder to assist or receive assistance from a friend, neighbor, relative or other person when none of the individuals doing such plumbing hold themselves out as engaged in the trade or business of plumbing. The board shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the governor for a term of three years each. Reviser's note: Throughout chapter 19.02 RCW, the term "this 1977 amendatory act" has been changed to "this chapter". This 1977 amendatory act [1977 ex.s. c 319] consists of this chapter, the 1977 amendment to RCW 82.24.220, and the repeal of RCW 14.04.260, 14.04.270, 15.14.090, 16.44.100, 16.72.050, 18.04.210, 18.04.230, 46.08.060, 67.08.020, 67.08.025, 70.72.010–70.72.090, 75.28.310, and 78.40.100–78.40.145.

Business coordination act: RCW 43.31.870–43.31.910.

19.02.010 Purpose—Intent. Experience under the pilot program of the business coordination act suggests that the number of state licenses and permits required for new businesses and the renewal of existing licenses places an undue burden on business. Studies under this act also show that the state can reduce its costs by coordinating application forms, information, and licenses. Therefore, the legislature extends the business coordination act by establishing a business registration and license program to develop and implement the following goals and objectives:

(1) The first goal of this system is to provide a convenient, accessible, and timely system for the business community to acquire and maintain the necessary state registrations and licenses to conduct business, which system shall be developed and operated in the most cost-efficient manner for the business community and state. The objectives of this goal are:

(a) To provide a service whereby information is available to the business community concerning all state registration and licensing requirements;

(b) To establish a system which will enable state agencies to efficiently store, retrieve, and exchange registration and license information with due regard to privacy statutes; to issue and renew master licenses where such licenses are appropriate; and to provide appropriate support services for this objective;

(c) To seek to provide at designated locations one consolidated application form to be completed by any given applicant; and

(d) To establish a state-wide system of common business identification.

(2) The second goal of this system is to reduce the total number of licenses required to conduct business in this state.

It is the intent of the legislature that the authority for determining if a requested license shall be issued shall remain with the agency legally authorized to issue the license or permit.

It is the further intent of the legislature that those licenses and permits which no longer serve a useful purpose in regulating certain business activities should be eliminated. [1977 ex.s. c 319 § 1.]

Severability—Effective date —1977 ex.s. c 319: See RCW 19.02.900 and 19.02.910.

19.09.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to protect the general public and public charity in the state of Washington; to require full public disclosure of facts relating to persons and organizations who solicit funds from the public for public charitable purposes, the purposes for which such funds are solicited, and their actual uses; and to prevent deceptive and dishonest statements and conduct in the solicitation of funds for or in the name of charity. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 1.]

19.09.020 Definitions. When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) A "bona fide officer or employee" of a charitable organization is one whose conduct is subject to direct control by such organization and who does not act in the manner of an independent contractor in his relation with the organization.

(2) "Charitable organization" means: (a) Any benevolent, philanthropic, patriotic, eleemosynary, education, social, recreation, fraternal organization, or any other person having or purporting to have a charitable nature; and (b) which solicits or solicits and collects contributions for any charitable purpose. "Charitable" shall have its common law meaning unless the context in which it is used clearly requires a narrower or a broader meaning.

(3) "Contribution" means the donation, promise or grant, for consideration or otherwise, of any money or property of any kind or value which contribution is wholly or partly induced by a solicitation. Reference to dollar amounts of "contributions" or "solicitations" in this chapter means in the case of payments or promises to pay for merchandise or rights of any description, the value of the total amount paid or promised to be paid for such merchandise or rights less the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any such tangible merchandise, rights, or services resold by the organization, and not merely that portion of the purchase price to be applied to a charitable purpose.

(4) "Compensation" means salaries, wages, fees, commissions, or any other remuneration or valuable consideration.

(5) "Cost of solicitation" means and includes all costs, expenditures, debts, obligations, salaries, wages, commissions, fees, or other money or thing of value paid or incurred in making a solicitation for a direct gift or conducting a sale or benefit affair; cost of solicitation shall not include the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any tangible goods or services resold by the organization as a part of its fund raising activities.

(6) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(7) "Direct gift" shall mean and include an outright contribution of food, clothing, money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value to be used for a charitable or religious purpose and for which the donor receives no consideration or thing of value in return.

(8) "Membership" means that for the payment of fees, dues, assessments, etc., an organization provides services and confers a bona fide right, privilege, professional standing, honor, or other direct benefit, in addition to the right to vote, elect officers, or hold office. The term "membership" shall not include those persons who are granted a membership upon making a contribution as the result of solicitation.

(9) "Parent organization" means that part of a charitable organization which coordinates, supervises, or exercises control over policy, fund raising, or expenditures, or assists or advises one or more chapters, branches, or affiliates of such organization in the state of Washington.

(10) "Person" means an individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, or any combination thereof.

(11) "Professional fund raiser" means any person who, for compensation or other consideration, plans, conducts, manages, or advises concerning any drive or campaign in this state for the purpose of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of any charitable organization or charitable purpose, or who engages in the business of or holds himself out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for such purposes, or the business of planning, conducting, managing, or carrying on any drive or campaign in this state for such solicitations: Provided, That the following persons shall not be deemed professional fund raisers: (a) Any bona fide officer or employee of a charitable organization which maintains a permanent establishment in the state of Washington; whose salary or other compensation is not computed on funds raised or to be raised; (b) a clergyman of a religious corporation exempt under the provisions of RCW 19.09.030.

(12) A "professional solicitor" means any person other than a professional fund raiser who is employed or retained for compensation by any person or charitable organization to solicit contributions for charitable purposes from persons in this state, but shall not include any bona fide officer or employee of a registered charitable organization.

(13) "Sale and benefit affair" shall mean and include, but not be limited to, athletic or sports event, bazaar, benefit, campaign, circus, contest, dance, drive, entertainment, exhibition, exposition, party, performance, picnic, sale, social gathering, theater, or variety show which the public is requested to patronize or attend or to which the public is requested to make a contribution for any charitable or religious purpose connected therewith: Provided, That bingo activities, raffles, and amusement games conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 9.46 RCW and applicable rules of the Washington state gambling commission are specifically excluded and shall not be deemed a solicitation within the provisions of this chapter.

(14) "Solicitation" means any oral or written request for a contribution, including the solicitor's offer or attempt to sell any property, rights, services, or other thing in connection with which:

(a) Any appeal is made for any charitable purpose; or

(b) The name of any charitable organization is used as an inducement for consummating the sale; or

(c) Any statement is made which implies that the whole or any part of the proceeds from the sale will be applied toward any charitable purpose or donated to any charitable organization.

The solicitation shall be deemed completed when made, whether or not the person making it receives any contribution or makes any sale. [1979 c 153 § 80; 1977 ex.s. c 222 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 106 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 2.]

(5) Charitable organizations which do not intend to solicit and receive, and do not actually raise or receive, contributions from more than ten persons during a calendar year, if all their functions, including all fund raising activities, are carried on by persons who are unpaid for their services and if no part of their assets or income inures to the benefit of or is paid to any officer or member.

19.09.060 Registration—Required. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no person may solicit contributions on behalf of any charitable organization from persons in this state by any means whatsoever prior to the time the charitable organization is registered in accordance with this chapter. 19.09.070 Application for registration—Filing—Contents—Requirements. An application for registration of a charitable organization, as provided by RCW

19.09.080 Registration statement—Signing—Duration—Notice of changes. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 4; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 8.]

19.09.090 Subsidiary organizations. Where any chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division of a charitable organization is supervised and controlled by a superior or parent organization which is incorporated, qualified to do business, or doing business within this state such chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division shall not be required to register under RCW 19.09.060 if the superior or parent organization files a registration statement, on behalf of its subsidiary, in addition to or as a part of its own registration statement. Where a registration statement has been filed by a superior or parent organization, on behalf of such subsidiary organization, the superior or parent organization need not include the financial statement information as a part of its financial report for any chapter, branch, or affiliate which solicits and collects less than five hundred dollars during its fiscal year, providing all such fund raising is done by persons who are unpaid for such services. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend between five hundred dollars and five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall report such financial information either separately or in consolidated form. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend in excess of five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall set forth such financial information separately, in addition to including such information in consolidated form. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 5; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 9.]

19.09.100 Examination by director—Limitations on costs of solicitations—Other requirements. Upon receipt of an application in the proper form for registration, the director shall immediately initiate an examination to determine that:

(1) The cost of solicitation (including payments to professional fund raisers and professional solicitors and internal fund raising and solicitation salaries and expenses) during the year immediately preceding the date of application has not exceeded, or, for the specified year in which the application is submitted, will not exceed twenty percent of the total moneys, pledges, or other property raised or received or to be raised or received by reason of any solicitation and/or fund raising activities or campaigns. The term "internal fund raising and solicitation salaries and expenses" shall include, but not be limited to, such portions of the charitable organization's salary and overhead expenses as is fairly allocable (on a time or other appropriate basis) to its solicitation and/or fund raising expense. As provided in RCW 19.09.020(5), the cost of solicitation shall not include the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any tangible goods or services resold by the organization as a part of its fund-raising activities. The amount of such expenditure by the organization shall be deducted from the gross amount collected, or from the organization's support received directly from the public, prior to computing the percentage limitation. In the event special facts or circumstances are presented showing that expenses higher than twenty percent were not or will not be unreasonable, the director has the discretion to allow such higher expense and enter an order registering the charitable organization. Such an order shall be reviewed annually by the director. When such an order is entered, the cost of solicitation shall be disclosed by the organization to each person being solicited at the time of each solicitation. To further the purposes of this chapter, the director shall from time to time apprise the public of the names of those organizations for which discretionary action has been exercised in connection with the cost of solicitation limitations;

(2) The charitable organization has complied with all local governmental regulations which apply to soliciting for or on behalf of charitable organizations;

(3) The advertising material and the general promotional plan are not false, misleading, or deceptive; comply with the standards, rules, and regulations which the director may adopt; and afford full and fair disclosure;

(4) The charitable organization has not, or if a corporation, its officers, directors, and principals have not, been convicted of a crime involving solicitations for or on behalf of a charitable organization in this state, the United States, or any other state or foreign country within the past ten years and has not been subject to any permanent injunction or administrative order or judgment, under the provisions of RCW 19.86.080 or 19.86.090, involving a violation or violations of the provisions of RCW 19.86.020, within the past ten years, or of restraining a false or misleading promotional plan involving solicitations for charitable organizations. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 6; 1974 ex.s. c 106 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 10.]

19.09.110 Registration or rejection—Order—Procedure. (1) Within thirty days from the receipt of the application for registration, in proper form, the director shall enter an order registering the charitable organization or rejecting the registration. If no order of rejection is entered within thirty days from the receipt of the application for registration, in proper form, the charitable organization shall be deemed registered unless the applicant has consented, in writing, to a delay.

(2) If the director affirmatively determines, upon inquiry and examination that the requirements of RCW 19.09.100 have been met he shall enter an order registering the charitable organization.

(3) If the director determines, upon inquiry and examination, that any of the requirements of RCW 19.09.100 have not been met, the director shall notify the applicant that the application for registration must be corrected in the deficiencies specified. If the requested corrections are not complied with, the director shall enter an order rejecting the registration, such order shall include the findings of fact upon which the order is based. The order rejecting the registration shall not become effective for twenty days during which time the applicant may petition for reconsideration and shall be entitled to a hearing. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 7; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 11.]

19.09.140 Registration to be kept current—
Amendments. A registration filed with the director by a charitable organization, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be kept current during its effective term by the charitable organization, professional fund raiser, or professional solicitor. Such current status shall be maintained by the filing of amendments with the director, in the form prescribed by him, within ten days after any material change in the information previously furnished to the director.

The following changes shall be construed as material for the purposes of this section:

- (1) Any change in the name of the organization.
- (2) Any addition or substitution in the names of its salaried or otherwise compensated directors, trustees, other officers, key personnel, or professional fund raisers; or any change in the reported addresses or duties of the officers or individuals who keep the records or are in custody of the contributions.
- (3) Any change, amounting to five percent or more, in the remuneration to be paid to any professional fund raisers or professional solicitors.
- (4) Any change in the general purposes of the organization, intended use of the contributions, or period of time for solicitation, or general areas in which such solicitation was to take place or telephone solicitation facilities.
- (5) Any change in other facts which are declared material by rule or regulation of the director. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 14.]

19.09.150 Register. The director shall establish and maintain a register or registers of charitable organizations and persons who have registered under this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 15.]

19.09.160 Registration not endorsement. Registration under this chapter shall not be deemed to constitute endorsement, by the state of Washington, of any charitable organization so registered and no person or charitable organization shall intentionally claim or infer, directly or indirectly any such endorsement by reason of its registration. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 16.]

19.09.170 Registration and information public records. The registration and all information, documents, and reports filed with the director under this chapter are matters of public record and shall be, subject to reasonable regulation, open to public inspection. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 17.]

19.09.180 Reports on charitable activities. The director shall keep the public informed on charitable activities in the state. To this end, the director shall conduct investigations and audits and issue an annual report on or about July 31st of each year setting forth information related to solicitation activities of registered charitable organizations. The director shall issue periodic reports to the public to carry out the purposes of this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 8; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 18.]

19.09.190 Professional fund raisers or solicitors—
Registration—Duration—Surety bond. Every person employed or retained as a professional fund raiser or professional solicitor by or for a charitable organization shall file with the director a valid registration or renewal of such registration. Applications for such registration shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the director. The form shall require information as to the identity and previous related activities of the registrant as may be necessary or appropriate for the public interest or for the protection of contributors. A corporation, partnership, or sole proprietorship which is a professional fund raiser or professional solicitor, may register for and pay a single fee on behalf of all its members, officers, agents, servants, and employees. However, the names and addresses of all officers, agents, servants, and employees of professional fund raisers and professional solicitors must be listed in the application. In addition, a professional fund raiser shall file, at the time of making application, with and have approved by the director a surety bond executed by the applicant as principal in the amount of five thousand dollars with one or more sureties whose liability in the aggregate as such sureties will at least equal the said sum. The bond shall run to the director for the use of the state and to any person who may have a cause of action against the obligor of said bond for any malfeasance or misfeasance in the conduct of such solicitation. The director or his designee shall examine each application, and if he finds it to be in conformity with the requirements of this chapter and all relevant rules and regulations he shall approve the registration. Any applicant who is denied registration may, within twenty days from the date of notification of such denial, request, in writing, a hearing, which hearing shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. Registration, when effected, shall be for a period of one year, or any part thereof, expiring on the last day of December and may be renewed for additional periods unless rejected for legally sufficient cause or for failure to file the bond prescribed in this section. The additional periods shall be for not more than one calendar year or such shorter period as the director may prescribe by regulation. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 19.]

19.09.200 Books, records and contracts. Charitable organizations and professional fund raisers, required to be registered under this chapter, shall maintain accurate, current, and readily available books and records at their usual business locations, as designated in the registration statement filed with the director, until at least three years shall have elapsed following the effective period to which they relate.

All contracts between professional fund raisers and charitable organizations shall be in writing and true and correct copies of such contracts or records thereof shall be kept on file in the various offices of the charitable organization and/or professional fund raiser for a three-year period as provided in this section. Such records and contracts shall be available for inspection and examination by the director. A copy of such contract or record shall be mailed to or filed with the director by the charitable organization or professional fund raiser, within ten days, following receipt of a written demand therefor from the director. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 20.]

19.09.210 Financial statements—Special reports.

(a) On or before the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the close of its fiscal year every charitable organization which is required to file a registration statement under RCW 19.09.060 and which has received contributions during the previous fiscal year shall file with the director a financial statement containing, but not limited to, the following information:

(1) The gross amount of the contributions pledged and the gross amount collected.

(2) The amount thereof, given or to be given to charitable purposes represented together with details as to the manner of distribution as may be required either by general rule or by specific written request of the director.

(3) The aggregate amount paid and to be paid for the expenses of such solicitation.

(4) The amounts paid to and to be paid to professional fund raisers and solicitors.

(5) Copies of any annual or periodic reports furnished by the charitable organization, of its activities during or for the same fiscal period, to its parent organization, subsidiaries, or affiliates, if any.

(b) The director may prescribe such forms as may be necessary or convenient for the furnishing of such information. In addition, the director may require that within thirty days after the close of any special period of solicitation the charitable organization conducting such solicitation shall file a special report containing the information specified in this section for such special period of solicitation. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 10; 1975 1st ex.s. c 219 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 21.]

19.09.220 Suspension of registration—Failure to file financial statement or report—Examination. (1) If it appears to the director, at any time, that any organization has failed to comply with any requirement of RCW 19.09.210 or failed to file any required report, the director following notice, and after an opportunity for a hearing (at a time fixed by the director) within twenty days after such notice, shall issue an order suspending the registration. When such requirement has been fulfilled or the information has been filed in accordance with such order, the director shall so declare and thereupon the order shall cease to be effective.

(2) The director is hereby empowered to make an examination in any case to determine whether an order should issue under subsection (1) of this section. In making such examination the director, or his designee, shall have access to, and may demand the production of any books and papers of, and may administer oaths and affirmations to, and may examine the charitable organization, any agents, or any other person, in respect to any matter relevant to the examination. If the charitable organization or any agents shall fail to cooperate or shall obstruct or refuse to permit the making of an examination such conduct shall be proper grounds for the issuance of an order suspending the registration. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 11; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 22.]

19.09.230 Using the name of another person. No person who is required to register under this chapter shall knowingly use the name of any other person for the purpose of soliciting contributions from persons in this state without the written consent of such other person: Provided, That such consent may be deemed to have been given by anyone who is a director, trustee, other officer, employee, agent, professional fund raiser, or professional solicitor of such person registering under this chapter.

A person may be deemed to have used the name of another person for the purpose of soliciting contributions if such latter person's name is listed on any stationery, advertisement, brochure, or correspondence of the charitable organization or person or if such name is listed or represented to any one who has contributed to, sponsored, or endorsed the charitable organization or person, or its or his activities. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 23.]

19.09.240 Using similar name, symbol, or statement. No charitable organization, professional fund raiser, or other person soliciting contributions for or on behalf of a charitable organization shall use a name, symbol, or statement so closely related or similar to that used by another charitable organization or governmental agency that the use thereof would tend to confuse or mislead the public. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 24.]

19.09.250 Advertising violations—Procedure. No person shall publish any advertisement, in this state, with respect to a charity, which is subject to the registration requirements of this chapter, following the director's determination that such advertisement contains statements that are false, misleading, or deceptive and so notifies the person in writing. Such notification may be given summarily without notice or hearing. At any time after the issuance of a notification under this section the person desiring to use the advertisement may, in writing, request the order be rescinded. Upon receipt of a written request the matter shall be set for a hearing to commence within fourteen days following receipt of the request unless the person making the request consents to a later date. Following such hearing, which shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, the director shall determine whether to affirm and continue or to rescind such order pursuant to the powers granted under such act. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 25.]

19.09.260 Investigations—Powers and duties of director. The director may:

(1) Make necessary public or private investigations within or without the state to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order hereunder, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter, or in the prescribing of rules and forms hereunder; and

(2) Require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the director determines, as to all facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 12; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 26.]

19.09.265 Investigations, proceedings, or hearings—Oaths and affirmations—Subpoena powers—Contempt—Venue. For the purpose of any investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by rule may (1) administer oaths or affirmations and (2) upon the director's own motion, or upon request of any party to a hearing, shall subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation, proceeding, or hearing, and take evidence on all relevant matters, including matters reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of material evidence. Subpoenas issued by the director or his designee shall be served in accordance with the provisions of law governing the service of subpoenas in actions in superior court. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena issued under this section, or refuses to answer any proper question put to him during a hearing or proceeding, the director or his designee may petition the superior court of any county in which such person resides or is found for an order requiring such person to appear and give evidence, or to produce the requested material, or to answer the proposed question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.

Unless another place is named by the director or his designee, all hearings and proceedings shall be located in Olympia, and all subpoenaed physical evidence or exhibits, whether demanded in relation to a hearing, proceeding, or investigation, shall be produced in Olympia. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 13.]

19.09.270 Violations—Cease and desist orders—Injunctions. (1) If the director determines following notice and hearing that a person has:

(b) Directly or through an agent or employee engaged in any false, deceptive, or misleading advertising, promotional, or sales methods in soliciting for a charitable organization;

(c) Made any substantial change in the method of solicitation or promotional plan subsequent to the order of registration without obtaining prior written approval from the director;

(d) Made any solicitation for or on the behalf of any charitable organization required to be registered under this chapter which has not been so registered with the director;

(e) Violated any lawful order, rule, or regulation of the director;

(f) He may issue an order requiring the person to cease and desist from the unlawful practice and take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the director will carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) If the director makes a finding of fact, in writing, that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, he may issue a temporary cease and desist order. Prior to issuing the temporary cease and desist order, the director whenever possible shall give notice, by telephone or otherwise, of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person to whom it should be directed. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include in its terms a provision that upon request a hearing will be held to determine whether or not the order becomes permanent.

(3) If it appears that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of a provision of this chapter, or a rule or order hereunder, the director, with or without prior administrative proceedings, may bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order hereunder. Upon proper showing injunctive relief or temporary restraining orders shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed. The director is not required to post a bond in any court proceedings. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 27.]

19.09.275 Violations—Penalties. Any person who wilfully and knowingly violates any provisions of *this act or who shall wilfully and knowingly give false or incorrect information to the director in filing statements or reports required by *this 1977 amendatory act, whether or not such statement or report is verified, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced for the first offense to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than two hundred and fifty dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than forty-five days, or both; and for the second and any subsequent offense, to pay a fine of not less than two hundred and fifty dollars and not more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ninety days, or both. (d) Made intentional misrepresentations or concealed material facts in an application for registration;

(e) Violated any provision of this chapter, or any rule or regulation prescribed by the director pursuant to RCW 19.09.310.

Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings.

(2) If the director finds, following notice and hearing, that the charitable organization, professional fund raiser or professional solicitor has been guilty of a violation for which revocation could be ordered, he may issue a cease and desist order instead.

(3) If the director finds that the public interest requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in a written order, summary suspension of a registration may be ordered pending proceedings for revocation or other action. Such proceedings shall be promptly instituted and determined. [1977 ex.s. c 222 § 15; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 28.]

(1) Intervene in a suit involving a charitable organization registered under this chapter;

(2) Bring legal action in the superior court to recover any money collected in violation of this chapter. In the event the director recovers any amount under this section, the court shall as part of its judgment direct the manner in which the amount shall be applied. In so doing the court shall order the director to pay such amount to a reputable charitable organization, which in the court's opinion has charitable purposes similar to or identical with the proclaimed purposes of the organization or person which had solicited and collected the amount. The court may in its discretion award reasonable attorney's fees to the state out of any funds so recovered.

persons subject to this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 34.]

The Washington Principal and Income Act: Chapter 11.104 RCW.

19.10.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to facilitate public supervision over the administration of public charitable trusts and similar relationships and to clarify and implement the powers and duties of the attorney general with relation thereto. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 1.]

19.10.020 Definitions. When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Person" means an individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, or any combination of them.

"Trustee" means (1) any person holding property in trust for a public charitable purpose; except the United States, its states, territories, and possessions, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and their agencies and subdivisions; and (2) a corporation formed for the administration of a charitable trust or holding assets subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational, or similar purposes: Provided, That the term "trustee" does not apply to (a) religious corporations duly organized and operated in good faith as religious organizations, which have received a declaration of current tax exempt status from the government of the United States; their duly organized branches or chapters; and charities, agencies, and organizations affiliated with and forming an integral part of said organization, or operated, supervised, or controlled directly by such religious corporations nor any officer of any such religious organization who holds property for religious purposes: Provided, That if such organization has not received from the United States government a declaration of current tax exempt status prior to the time it receives property under the terms of a charitable trust, this exemption shall be applicable for two years only from the time of receiving such property, or until such tax exempt status is finally declared, whichever is sooner; or (b) an educational institution which is nonprofit and charitable, having a program of primary, secondary, or collegiate instruction comparable in scope to that of any public school or college operated by the state of Washington or any of its school districts. [1971 ex.s. c 226 § 1; 1967 ex.s. c 53 § 2.]

19.10.040 Information, documents, and reports are public records—Inspection—Publication. All information, documents, and reports filed with the attorney general under this chapter are matters of public record and shall be open to public inspection, subject to reasonable regulation: Provided, That the attorney general shall withhold from public inspection any trust instrument so filed whose content is not exclusively for charitable purposes. The attorney general may publish, on a periodic or other basis, such information as may be necessary or appropriate in the public interest concerning the registration, reports, and information filed with him or any other matters relevant to the administration and enforcement of this chapter. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 4.]

19.10.050 Register of trustees—Establishment and maintenance. The attorney general shall establish and maintain a register of trustees as defined in RCW 19.10.020 and, to that end, shall conduct whatever investigation is necessary, and shall obtain from public records, court officers, taxing authorities, trustees, and other sources whatever information, copies of instruments, reports, and records are needed, for the establishment and maintenance of the register. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 5.]

19.10.060 Instrument establishing trust, inventory of assets, tax exempt status or claim, tax return to be filed. Every trustee shall file with the attorney general within two months after receiving possession or control of the trust corpus a copy of the instrument establishing his title, powers, or duties, and an inventory of the assets of such charitable trust. In addition, trustees exempted from the provisions of RCW 19.10.070 shall file with the attorney general a copy of the declaration of the tax-exempt status or other basis of the claim for such exemption; a copy of the instrument establishing the trustee's title, powers or duties; an inventory of the assets of such trust; and, annually, a copy of each publicly available United States tax or information return or report of the trust which the trustee files with the internal revenue service. The trustees of charitable trusts existing at the time this chapter or *this 1971 amendatory act takes effect shall comply with this section within six months thereafter. [1971 ex.s. c 226 § 2; 1967 ex.s. c 53 § 6.]

*Reviser's note: The effective date of "this 1971 amendatory act" [1971 ex.s. c 226] was August 9, 1971.

19.10.070 Reports of trustee—Filing—Rules and regulations. Except as otherwise provided every trustee subject to this chapter shall file with the attorney general annual reports, under oath, setting forth information as to the nature of the assets held for charitable purposes and the administration thereof by the trustee, in accordance with rules and regulations of the attorney general.

The attorney general shall make rules and regulations as to the time for filing reports, the contents thereof, and the manner of executing and filing them. He may classify trusts and other relationships concerning property held for a charitable purpose as to purpose, nature of assets, duration of the trust or other relationship, amount of assets, amounts to be devoted to charitable purposes, nature of trustee, or otherwise, and may establish different rules for the different classes as to time and nature of the reports required, to the ends (1) that he shall receive reasonably current, periodic reports as to all charitable trusts or other relationships of a similar nature which will enable him to ascertain whether they are being properly administered, and (2) that periodic reports shall not unreasonably add to the expense of the administration of charitable trusts and similar relationships. The attorney general may suspend the filing of reports as to a particular charitable trust or relationship for a reasonable, specifically designated time upon written application of the trustee filed with the attorney general after the attorney general has filed in the register of charitable trusts a written statement that the interests of the beneficiaries will not be prejudiced thereby and that periodic reports are not required for proper supervision by his office.

A copy of an account filed by the trustee in any court having jurisdiction of the trust or other relationship, if the account substantially complies with the rules and regulations of the attorney general, may be filed as a report required by this section.

The first report for a trust or similar relationship hereafter established, unless the filing thereof is suspended as herein provided, shall be filed not later than one year after any part of the income or principal is authorized or required to be applied to a charitable purpose. If any part of the income or principal of a trust previously established is authorized or required to be applied to a charitable purpose at the time this act takes effect, the first report, unless the filing thereof is suspended, shall be filed within six months after the effective date of this act. [1971 ex.s. c 226 § 3; 1967 ex.s. c 53 § 7.]

19.10.073 Reports of trustee—Trustees exempt from RCW 19.10.070. The following trustees shall be exempt from the provisions of RCW 19.10.070:

(1) A bank or trust company subject to examination by the supervisor of banking of the state of Washington, the comptroller of the currency of the United States or the board of governors of the federal reserve system; which such bank or trust company is acting as trustee, executor or court-appointed fiduciary: Provided, That a bank or trust company which is a co-fiduciary of a trust shall be deemed to be the sole fiduciary of such trust under this section, if the bank or trust company is custodian of the books and records of the trust and has the responsibility for preparing the reports and returns which are filed with the internal revenue service;

(2) The governing body of a nonprofit community foundation or other nonprofit foundation incorporated for charitable purposes, contributions to which are currently allowed as charitable deductions under the United States income tax laws;

(3) The governing body of a hospital which is nonprofit and charitable, other than a hospital initially formed as a trustee pursuant to or in connection with the terms of a charitable trust. [1971 ex.s. c 226 § 4.]

19.10.075 Trusts not exclusively for charitable purposes—Instrument and information not public—Filings and reporting, when required. A trust is not exclusively for charitable purposes, within the meaning of RCW 19.10.040, when the instrument creating it contains a trust for several or mixed purposes, and any one or more of such purposes is not charitable within the meaning of RCW 19.10.020, as enacted or hereafter amended. Such instrument shall be withheld from public inspection by the attorney general and no information as to such noncharitable purpose shall be made public.

Annual reporting of such trusts to the attorney general, as required by RCW 19.10.060 or 19.10.070 now or as hereafter amended, shall commence within one year after trust income or principal is authorized or required to be used for a charitable purpose.

When a trust consists of a vested charitable remainder preceded by a life estate, a copy of the instrument shall be filed by the trustee or by the life tenant, within two months after commencement of the life estate.

If the trust instrument contains only contingent gifts or remainders to charitable purposes, no charitable trust shall be deemed created until a charitable gift or remainder is legally vested. The first registration or report of such trust shall be filed within two months after trust income or principal is authorized or required to be used for a charitable purpose. [1971 ex.s. c 226 § 5.]

19.10.080 Custodian of court records to furnish copies to attorney general—List of tax exemption applications to be filed. The custodian of the records of a court having jurisdiction of probate matters or of charitable trusts shall furnish within two months after receiving possession or control thereof such copies of papers, records, and files of his office relating to the subject of this chapter as the attorney general shall require.

Every officer, agency, board or commission of this state receiving applications for exemption from taxation of any charitable trust or similar relationship in which the trustee is subject to this chapter shall annually file with the attorney general a list of all applications received during the year. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 8.]

19.10.090 Uniformity of chapter with laws of other states. It is the purpose of this chapter to make uniform the laws of this and other states on the subject of charitable trusts and similar relationships. Recognizing the necessity for uniform application and enforcement of this chapter, its provisions are hereby declared mandatory and they shall not be superseded by the provisions of any trust instrument or similar instrument to the contrary. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 9.]

19.10.100 Investigations by attorney general authorized—Appearance and production of books, papers, documents, etc., may be required. The attorney general may investigate transactions and relationships of trustees and other persons subject to this chapter for the purpose of determining whether the trust or other relationship is administered according to law and the terms and purposes of the trust, or to determine compliance with this chapter in any other respect. He may require any officer, agent, trustee, fiduciary, beneficiary, or other person, to appear, at a time and place designated by the attorney general in the county where the person resides or is found, to give information under oath and to produce books, memoranda, papers, documents of title, and evidence of assets, liabilities, receipts, or disbursements in the possession or control of the person ordered to appear. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 10.]

19.10.110 Order to appear—Effect—Enforcement—Court review. When the attorney general requires the attendance of any person, as provided in RCW 19.10.100, he shall issue an order setting forth the time when and the place where attendance is required and shall cause the same to be delivered to or sent by registered mail to the person at least fourteen days before the date fixed for attendance. Such order shall have the same force and effect as a subpoena, and, upon application of the attorney general, obedience to the order may be enforced by any superior court judge in the county where the person receiving it resides or is found, in the same manner as though the notice were a subpoena. The court, after hearing, for good cause, and upon application of any person aggrieved by the order, shall have the right to alter, amend, revise, suspend, or postpone all or any part of its provisions. In any case where the order is not enforced by the court according to its terms, the reasons for the court's actions shall be clearly stated in the record, and shall be subject to review by the supreme court or the court of appeals by certiorari or other appropriate proceeding. [1971 c 81 § 64; 1967 ex.s. c 53 § 11.]

Rules of court: Writ procedure superseded by RAP 2.1(b), 2.2, 18.22.

19.10.120 Proceedings to secure compliance and proper trust administration—Attorney general to be notified of judicial proceedings involving charitable trust—Powers and duties additional. The attorney general may institute appropriate proceedings to secure compliance with this chapter and to secure the proper administration of any trust or other relationship to which this chapter applies. He shall be notified of all judicial proceedings involving or affecting the charitable trust or its administration in which, at common law, he is a necessary or proper party as representative of the public beneficiaries. The notification shall be given by registered mail to the attorney general at his office in Olympia at least twenty days prior to hearing thereon, except where shorter periods are prescribed by statute or by rules of court. The powers and duties of the attorney general provided in this chapter are in addition to his existing powers and duties, and are not to be construed to limit or to restrict the exercise of the powers or the performance of the duties of the attorney general or of any prosecuting attorney which they may exercise or perform under any other provision of law. Except as provided herein, nothing in this chapter shall impair or restrict the jurisdiction of any court with respect to any of the matters covered by it. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 12.]

19.10.125 Violations—Refusal to file reports, perform duties, etc. The wilful refusal by a trustee to make or file any report or to perform any other duties expressly required by this chapter, or to comply with any valid rule or regulation promulgated by the attorney general under this chapter, shall constitute a breach of trust and a violation of this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 226 § 6.]

19.10.130 Violations—Civil action may be prosecuted. A civil action for a violation of this chapter may be prosecuted by the attorney general or by a prosecuting attorney designated by the attorney general. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 13.]

19.10.140 Penalty. Every false statement of material fact knowingly made or caused to be made by any person in any statement or report filed under this chapter and every other violation of this chapter is a gross misdemeanor. [1967 ex.s. c 53 § 14.]

19.10.200 Tax Reform Act of 1969, state implementation—Application to trusts. RCW 19.10.200 through 19.10.260 shall apply only to trusts which are "private foundations" as defined in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, "charitable trusts" as described in section 4947(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or "split-interest trusts" as described in section 4947(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. With respect to any such trust created after December 31, 1969, RCW 19.10.200 through 19.10.260 shall apply from such trust's creation. With respect to any such trust created before January 1, 1970, RCW 19.10.200 through 19.10.260 shall apply only to such trust's federal taxable years beginning after December 31, 1971. [1971 c 58 § 1.]

19.10.210 Tax Reform Act of 1969, state implementation—Trust instruments deemed to contain prohibiting provisions. The trust instrument of each trust to which RCW 19.10.200 through 19.10.260 applies shall be deemed to contain provisions prohibiting the trustee from:

(1) Engaging in any act of "self-dealing" (as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4941(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(2) Retaining any "excess business holdings" (as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954), which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4943(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

19.16.120 Denial, suspension, revocation or refusal to renew licenses—Civil penalty—Grounds. (f) Has had any judgment entered against him or it under the provisions of RCW 19.86.080 or 19.86.090 involving a violation or violations of RCW 19.86.020 and two years have not elapsed since the entry of the final judgment: Provided, That in no event shall a license be issued unless the terms of such judgment, if any, have been fully complied with: Provided further, That said judgment shall not be grounds for denial, suspension, nonrenewal, or revocation of a license unless the judgment arises out of and is based on acts of the applicant, owner, officer, director, managing employee, or licensee while acting for or as a collection agency;

(g) Has petitioned for bankruptcy, and two years have not elapsed since the filing of said petition;

(h) Shall be insolvent in the sense that his or its liabilities exceed his or its assets or in the sense that he or it cannot meet his or its obligations as they mature;

(j) Has knowingly failed to comply with, or violated any provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation issued pursuant to this chapter, and two years have not elapsed since the occurrence of said noncompliance or violation.

Any person who is engaged in the collection agency business as of January 1, 1972 shall, upon filing the application, paying the fees, and filing the surety bond or cash deposit or other negotiable security in lieu of bond required by this chapter, be issued a license hereunder. [1977 ex.s. c 194 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 3.]

19.16.130 License—Application—Form—Contents. Every application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the director.

Every application shall contain such relevant information as the director may require.

The applicant shall furnish the director with such evidence as the director may reasonably require to establish that the requirements and qualifications for a licensee have been fulfilled by the applicant.

Every application for a license shall state, among other things that may be required, the name of the applicant with the name under which the applicant will do business and the location by street and number, city and state of each office of the business for which the license is sought.

No license shall be issued in any fictitious name which may be confused with or which is similar to any federal, state, county, or municipal governmental function or agency or in any name which may tend to describe any business function or enterprise not actually engaged in by the applicant or in any name which is the same as or so similar to that of any existing licensee as would tend to deceive the public or in any name which would otherwise tend to be deceptive or misleading. The foregoing shall not necessarily preclude the use of a name which may be followed by a geographically descriptive title which would distinguish it from a similar name licensed but operating in a different geographical area. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 4.]

19.16.140 License—Application—Fees. Each applicant when submitting his application shall pay a licensing fee and an investigation fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. If a license is not issued in response to the application, the license fee shall be returned to the applicant.

An annual license fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended shall be paid to the director on or before January first of each year. If the annual license fee is not paid on or before January first, the licensee shall be assessed a penalty for late payment in an amount determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. If the fee and penalty are not paid by January thirty-first, it will be necessary for the licensee to submit a new application for a license: Provided, That no license shall be issued upon such new application unless and until all fees and penalties previously accrued under this section have been paid.

Any license or branch office certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on December thirty-first following the issuance thereof. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 90; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 5.]

19.16.150 Branch office certificate required. If a licensee maintains a branch office, he or it shall not operate a collection agency business in such branch office until he or it has secured a branch office certificate therefor from the director. A licensee, so long as his or its license is in full force and effect and in good standing, shall be entitled to branch office certificates for any branch office operated by such licensee upon payment of the fee therefor provided in this chapter.

Each licensee when applying for a branch office certificate shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. An annual fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended for a branch office certificate shall be paid to the director on or before January first of each year. If the annual fee is not paid on or before January first, a penalty for late payment in an amount determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended shall be assessed. If the fee and the penalty are not paid by January thirty-first, it will be necessary for the licensee to apply for a new branch office certificate: Provided, That no such new branch office certificate shall be issued unless and until all fees and penalties previously accrued under this section have been paid. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 91; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 6.]

19.16.160 License and branch office certificate—Form—Contents—Display. Each license and branch office certificate, when issued, shall be in the form and size prescribed by the director and shall state in addition to any other matter required by the director:

- (1) The name of the licensee;
- (2) The name under which the licensee will do business;
- (3) The address at which the collection agency business is to be conducted; and
- (4) The number and expiration date of the license or branch office certificate.

A licensee shall display his or its license in a conspicuous place in his or its principal place of business and, if he or it conducts a branch office, the branch office certificate shall be conspicuously displayed in the branch office.

Concurrently with or prior to engaging in any activity as a collection agency, as defined in this chapter, any person shall furnish to his or its client or customer the number indicated on the collection agency license issued to him pursuant to this section. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 2; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 7.]

19.16.170 Procedure upon change of name or business location. Whenever a licensee shall contemplate a change of his or its trade name or a change in the location of his or its principal place of business or branch office, he or it shall give written notice of such proposed change to the director. The director shall approve the proposed change and issue a new license or a branch office certificate, as the case may be, reflecting the change. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 8.]

19.16.180 Assignability of license or branch office certificate. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a license or branch office certificate granted under this chapter is not assignable or transferable.

(2) Upon the death of an individual licensee, the director shall have the right to transfer the license and any branch office certificate of the decedent to the personal representative of his estate for the period of the unexpired term of the license and such additional time, not to exceed one year from the date of death of the licensee, as said personal representative may need in order to settle the deceased's estate or sell the collection agency. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 9.]

19.16.190 Surety bond requirements—Cash deposit or securities. (1) Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for a license, file with the director a surety bond in the sum of five thousand dollars. The bond shall be annually renewable on January first of each year, shall be approved by the director as to form and content, and shall be executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as surety. Such bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee for the benefit of the state and conditioned that the licensee shall faithfully and truly perform all agreements entered into with the licensee's clients or customers and shall, within thirty days after the close of each calendar month, account to and pay to his client or customer the net proceeds of all collections made during the preceding calendar month and due to each client or customer less any offsets due licensee under RCW 19.16.210 and 19.16.220. The bond required by this section shall remain in effect until canceled by action of the surety or the licensee or the director.

(2) An applicant for a license under this chapter may furnish, file, and deposit with the director, in lieu of the surety bond provided for herein, a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the director. The security deposited with the director in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the licensee at the expiration of one year after the collection agency's license has expired or been revoked if no legal action has been instituted against the licensee or on said security deposit at the expiration of said one year.

(3) A surety may file with the director notice of his or its withdrawal on the bond of the licensee. Upon filing a new bond or upon the revocation of the collection agency license or upon the expiration of sixty days after the filing of notice of withdrawal as surety by the surety, the liability of the former surety for all future acts of the licensee shall terminate.

(4) The director shall immediately cancel the bond given by a surety company upon being advised that the surety company's license to transact business in this state has been revoked.

(5) Upon the filing with the director of notice by a surety of his withdrawal as the surety on the bond of a licensee or upon the cancellation by the director of the bond of a surety as provided in this section, the director shall immediately give notice to the licensee of the withdrawal or cancellation. The notice shall be sent to the licensee by registered or certified mail with request for a return receipt and addressed to the licensee at his or its main office as shown by the records of the director. At the expiration of thirty days from the date of mailing the notice, the license of the licensee shall be terminated, unless the licensee has filed a new bond with a surety satisfactory to the director.

(6) All bonds given under this chapter shall be filed and held in the office of the director. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 10.]

19.16.200 Action on bond, cash deposit or securities. In addition to all other legal remedies, an action may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction upon the bond or cash deposit or security in lieu thereof, required by RCW 19.16.190, by any person to whom the licensee fails to account and pay as set forth in such bond or by any client or customer of the licensee who has been damaged by failure of the licensee to comply with all agreements entered into with such client or customer: Provided, That the aggregate liability of the surety to all such clients or customers shall in no event exceed the sum of such bond.

An action upon such bond or security shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of the cancellation of the bond or, in the case of a cash deposit or other security deposited in lieu of the surety bond, within one year of the date of expiration or revocation of license: Provided, That no action shall be maintained upon such bond or such cash deposit or other security for any claim which has been barred by any nonclaim statute or statute of limitations of this state. Two copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the director at the time the suit is started. Such service shall constitute service on the surety. The director shall transmit one of said copies of the complaint served on him to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

The director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits commenced under this chapter upon surety bonds, or the cash or other security deposited in lieu thereof.

In the event of a judgment being entered against the deposit or security referred to in RCW 19.16.190(2), the director shall, upon receipt of a certified copy of a final judgment, pay said judgment from the amount of the deposit or security. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 11.]

19.16.210 Accounting and payments by licensee to customer. A licensee shall within thirty days after the close of each calendar month account in writing to his or its customers for all collections made during that calendar month and pay to his or its customers the net proceeds due and payable of all collections made during that calendar month except that a licensee need not account to the customer for:

(1) Court costs recovered which were previously advanced by licensee or his or its attorney.

(2) Attorney's fees and interest or other charges incidental to the principal amount of the obligation legally and properly belonging to the licensee, if such charges are retained by the licensee after the principal amount of the obligation has been accounted for and remitted to the customer. When the net proceeds are less than ten dollars at the end of any calendar month, payments may be deferred for a period not to exceed three months. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 12.]

19.16.220 Accounting and payments by customer to licensee. Every customer of a licensee shall, within thirty days after the close of each calendar month, account and pay to his or its collection agency all sums owing to the collection agency for payments received by the customer during that calendar month on claims in the hands of the collection agency.

If a customer fails to pay a licensee any sums due under this section, the licensee shall, in addition to other remedies provided by law, have the right to offset any moneys due the licensee under this section against any moneys due customer under RCW 19.16.210. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 13.]

19.16.230 Licensee—Business office—Records to be kept. (1) Every licensee required to keep and maintain records pursuant to this section shall establish and maintain a regular active business office in the state of Washington for the purpose of conducting his or its collection agency business. Said office must be open to the public during reasonable stated business hours, and must be managed by a resident of the state of Washington.

(2) Every licensee shall keep a record of all sums collected by him or it and all disbursements made by him or it. All such records shall be kept at the business office referred to in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Licensees shall maintain and preserve accounting records of collections and payments to customers for a period of six years from the date of the last entry thereon. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 14.]

19.16.240 Licensee—Trust fund account. Each licensee shall at all times maintain a separate bank account in this state in which all moneys collected by the licensee shall be deposited except that negotiable instruments received may be forwarded directly to a customer. Moneys received must be deposited within ten days after posting to the book of accounts. In no event shall moneys received be disposed of in any manner other than to deposit such moneys in said account or as provided in this section.

The bank account shall bear some title sufficient to distinguish it from the licensee's personal or general checking account, such as "Customer's Trust Fund Account". There shall be sufficient funds in said trust account at all times to pay all moneys due or owing to all customers and no disbursements shall be made from such account except to customers or to remit moneys collected from debtors on assigned claims and due licensee's attorney or to refund over payments except that a licensee may periodically withdraw therefrom such moneys as may accrue to licensee.

Any money in such trust account belonging to a licensee may be withdrawn for the purpose of transferring the same into the possession of licensee or into a personal or general account of licensee. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 15.]

19.16.245 Financial statement. No licensee shall receive any money from any debtor as a result of the collection of any claim until he or it shall have submitted a financial statement showing the assets and liabilities of the licensee truly reflecting that the licensee's net worth is not less than the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars, in cash or its equivalent, of which not less than five thousand dollars shall be deposited in a bank, available for the use of the licensee's business. Any money so collected shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 19.16.430(2). The financial statement shall be sworn to by the licensee, if the licensee is an individual, or by a partner, officer, or manager in its behalf if the licensee is a partnership, corporation, or unincorporated association. The information contained in the financial statement shall be confidential and not a public record, but is admissible in evidence at any hearing held, or in any action instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That this section shall not apply to those persons holding a valid license issued pursuant to this chapter on July 16, 1973. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 9.]

19.16.250 Prohibited practices. No licensee or employee of a licensee shall:

(1) Directly or indirectly aid or abet any unlicensed person to engage in business as a collection agency in this state or receive compensation from such unlicensed person: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall prevent a licensee from accepting, as forwarder, claims for collection from a collection agency or attorney whose place of business is outside the state.

(2) Collect or attempt to collect a claim by the use of any means contrary to the postal laws and regulations of the United States postal department.

(3) Publish or post or cause to be published or posted, any list of debtors commonly known as "deadbeat lists" or threaten to do so.

(5) Perform any act or acts, either directly or indirectly, constituting the practice of law.

(6) Advertise for sale or threaten to advertise for sale any claim as a means of endeavoring to enforce payment thereof or agreeing to do so for the purpose of soliciting claims, except where the licensee has acquired claims as an assignee for the benefit of creditors or where the licensee is acting under court order.

(7) Use any name while engaged in the making of a demand for any claim other than the name set forth on his or its current license issued hereunder.

(8) Give or send to any debtor or cause to be given or sent to any debtor, any notice, letter, message, or form which represents or implies that a claim exists unless it shall indicate in clear and legible type:

(a) The name of the licensee and the city, street, and number at which he is licensed to do business; and must continue to be so engaged and continue to be licensed under this chapter during the term of his appointment or he will be deemed to have resigned his position: Provided, That no individual may be a licensee member of the board unless he has been actively engaged as either an owner or executive employee or a combination of both of a collection agency business in this state for a period of not less than five years immediately prior to his appointment.

No board member shall be employed by or have any interest in, directly or indirectly, as owner, partner, officer, director, agent, stockholder, or attorney, any collection agency in which any other board member is employed by or has such an interest.

In the event of a vacancy on the board, the governor shall appoint a successor for the unexpired term.

Each member appointed by the governor shall qualify by taking the usual oath of a state officer, which shall be filed with the secretary of state, and each member shall hold office for the term of his appointment and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

Any member of the board other than the director or his designee may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, after being given a written statement of the charges against him and sufficient opportunity to be heard thereon. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 20.]

19.16.300 Board meetings—Quorum—Effect of vacancy. The board shall meet as soon as practicable after the governor has appointed the initial members of the board. The board shall meet at least once a year and at such other times as may be necessary for the transaction of its business.

Other meetings of the board shall be held upon written request of the director at a time and place designated by him, or upon the written request of any two members of the board at a time and place designated by them.

A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum.

A vacancy in the board membership shall not impair the right of the remaining members of the board to exercise any power or to perform any duty of the board, so long as the power is exercised or the duty performed by a quorum of the board. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 21.]

19.16.310 Board—Compensation—Reimbursement of travel expenses. Each member of the board appointed by the governor shall receive as compensation twenty-five dollars for each day, or portion thereof, in which he is actually engaged in the official business and duties of the board and in addition thereto shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred while on official business of the board and in attending meetings thereof, in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. 19.16.351 Additional powers and duties of board. The board, in addition to any other powers and duties granted under this chapter:

19.16.360 Licenses—Denial, suspension, revocation or refusal to renew—Civil penalty—Hearing.

(1) Whenever the director shall have reasonable cause to believe that grounds exist for denial, nonrenewal, revocation or suspension of a license issued or to be issued under this chapter, or in lieu of or in addition to suspension that a licensee should be assessed a civil, monetary penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars, he shall notify the applicant or licensee in writing by certified or registered mail, with return receipt requested, stating the grounds upon which it is proposed that the license be denied, revoked, not renewed, or suspended and upon which any monetary penalty is going to be assessed and the amount of the penalty.

(2) Within thirty days from the receipt of notice of the alleged grounds for denial, revocation, lack of renewal, or suspension or for the monetary penalty to be assessed in lieu of or in addition to suspension, the applicant or licensee may serve upon the director a written request for hearing before the board. (3) Whenever a licensee who has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license, receives notice from the director that it is proposed that his or its license is not to be renewed, and said licensee requests a hearing under subsection (2) of this section, the licensee's current license shall not expire until the last day for seeking review of the board's decision expires or if judicial review of the board's decision is sought until final judgment has been entered by the superior court, or in the event of an appeal or appeals, until final judgment has been entered by the last appellate court in which review has been sought. (2) If any individual fails to obey a subpoena or obeys a subpoena but refuses to give evidence, any court of competent jurisdiction, upon application by the director, may issue to that person an order requiring him to appear before the court, to show cause why he should not be compelled to obey the subpoena and give evidence material to the matter under investigation. The failure to obey an order of the court may be punishable as contempt. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 31.]

19.16.410 Rules, orders, decisions, etc. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders and rulings, including therein demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of his duties under this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 32.]

It shall be unlawful for two or more persons holding or claiming separate copyrighted works under the copyright laws of the United States, either within or without the state, to band together, or to pool their interests for the purpose of fixing the prices on the use of said copyrighted works, or to pool their separate interests or to conspire, federate, or join together, for the purpose of collecting fees in this state, or to issue blanket licenses in this state, for the right to commercially use or perform publicly their separate copyrighted works: Provided, however, Such persons may join together if they issue licenses on rates assessed on a per piece system of usage: Provided, further, This chapter shall not apply to any one individual author or composer or copyright holder or owner who may demand any price or fee he or she may choose for the right to use or publicly perform his or her individual copyrighted work or works: Provided, further, Such per piece system of licensing must not be in excess of any per piece system in operation in other states where any group or persons affected by this chapter does business, and all groups and persons affected by this chapter, are prohibited from discriminating against the citizens of this state by charging higher and more inequitable rates per piece for music licenses in this state than in other states: Provided, further, Where the owner, holder, or person having control of any copyrighted work has sold the right to the single use of said copyrighted work, where its sole value is in its use for public performance

19.24.050 Lists of copyrighted works—Open to public—Publication provided for. The foregoing list of names and titles, provided for in the preceding section, shall be made available by the secretary of state to all persons for examination, in order that any user of copyrighted works in this state may know the rights and the titles to such copyrighted works as may be claimed by any of said combinations, pools, associations, or persons as aforesaid; said lists shall be prepared so that all persons may avoid using said copyrighted compositions, if they so desire, and may avoid conflict therewith, and avoid committing innocent infringements of said works; and in order to further effectuate the copyright laws of the United States, the secretary of state shall, if he deems it necessary to protect the citizens of this state from committing innocent violations of the copyright laws of the United States, publish such list once each year in a newspaper of general circulation, in order that all citizens of the state may respect any and all individual rights granted by the United States copyright laws. 19.24.060 Declaration of purpose of legislation—Situs of copyrighted work. It is hereby declared that the production and creation of music and the commercial use of music and of copyrighted works within this state, whether originating at a point from within or without the state, as long as the same shall be rendered and publicly received within the confines of this state, whether mechanically or by radio communication, is a business clothed and affected with the public interest, and the adult educational advantages engendered by the public use of music and in its creation, makes this business one of public necessity, and necessary for the education and training of the youth of this state; that many abuses are practiced under a false guise of federal protection which only the state with its police power can easily and lawfully restrain, and in order to prohibit, discourage, and prevent monopolistic practices, and to prevent extortion, to encourage free bargaining between the citizens of this state with each other and with those without the state, and in order to give greater effect to the constitutional provisions relating to monopoly and price fixing, and in the general interest of the public, therefore, the legislature in the interest of the peace and dignity of the state, in the interest of good morals and the general welfare of the people of this state, and for greater educational advantages to the public, declares that said business shall be subject to the police power and reasonable regulation of the state government, and such police and regulating power shall be administered by the courts and other officials of this state in a manner consistent with, in aid of, and never in conflict with, the copyright laws of the United States. The provisions of this chapter, and the administration thereof, shall at all times effectuate the enforcement, the true intent, and meaning of the United States copyright laws in order to prevent abuses from being practiced within this state from points within or from points without the state, by any individual, corporation, or organizations, who attempt to use the federal courts as innocent instrumentalities in the furtherance of any systematic campaign or scheme designed to illegally fix prices for the commercial use of copyrighted works in this state through the use of extortionate means and terrorizing practices based on threats of suits, and an abuse of both state and federal process, all of which are declared to be in violation of this chapter and of the state Constitution; it is further declared that any person or persons, or combines, as aforesaid, who shall violate this chapter shall be deemed to have used their property within this state in such a way that the same shall have acquired a legal situs, analogous to the situs of other personal tangible property within the state, even though separate from the domicile and residence of the owner: Provided, further, The legal situs of any copyrighted work is coextensive about the state, and a copyrighted work used or sold for public use or public performance for profit, if intended to be heard from a point without the state or from a point within the state, is hereby declared to be a commercial commodity, and its legal situs is hereby declared to be within the state of Washington. [1937 c 218 § 7; RRS § 3802-6. Formerly RCW 19.24.060 through 19.24.090.]

19.24.100 Doing business defined—Amenability to process—Service on nonresidents. All persons, groups, corporations, associations, foreign or domestic, violating this chapter, shall be deemed to have been doing business within this state and amenable to the process of the state courts, when any such persons, combinations, or groups shall have issued licenses, either from within or from without the state, for the privilege of using commercially and publicly any copyrighted work or works pooled in a common group or entity, or when any of the functions of said entity, organization, pool, or combine, is or has been performed in this state; and the business of spying upon and the warning of users of the copyrighted works of such combinations, in addition to the presence within the state of such persons, and the activities of such persons or their agents at any time or occasion for the detection of infringements within this state, shall be conclusive evidence that such combinations and persons, even though nonresidents, have accepted the privileges of doing business within this state, and such persons, if they abide by the provisions of this chapter, shall be granted the privilege of conducting business within this state in a legal manner, and may invoke the benefits of the state government and its political subdivisions in their behalf, and they may use all of the privileges available to the citizens of this state in general, and the use at any time of any general privilege available to any citizen of this state, by any of such agents, their attorneys, or representative, or investigator, or by any aider and abettor, or any nonresident person, group, entity, or combination as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be an acceptance of the provisions of this chapter; and all licensees of any violator of this chapter shall be deemed as aiders and abettors of said persons and subject to the provisions of this chapter unless they forthwith indicate their obedience herewith; and the acceptance of the general privileges of the state of Washington by any nonresident copyright holder or owner, or combination, defendant, or person, or organization of any kind, or entity, through an investigator, attorney, agent, representative, or through any aider and abettor as herein defined, and the acceptance by such persons of the rights, police protection, or of any general privilege conferred by the law of this state to any of its citizens, including the use of the roads and highways, or the privileges of any of its political subdivisions, as evidenced by their presence within the state at any time, shall be deemed equivalent to and construed to be an appointment by such nonresident or nonresidents, as the case may be, of the secretary of state of the state of Washington to be his or their true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all summons and processes against him or them and growing out of a violation of this chapter, in which said nonresident may be involved, and said acceptance of the privileges of this state, as aforesaid, shall be a signification of his or their agreement that any summons or process against him or them which is so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on him or them personally within the state of Washington. Service of such summons or process shall be made by leaving a copy thereof with a fee of five dollars with the secretary of the state of Washington, or in his office, and such service shall be sufficient and valid personal service upon any such nonresident defendant, copyright holder or owner, persons, or defendants, combination, entity, or organization, as aforesaid: Provided, That notice of such service and a copy of the summons of process shall be forthwith sent by registered mail requiring personal delivery, by the prosecutor bringing any action under this chapter, to any defendant at his last known address, and the defendant's return receipt and the prosecutor's affidavit of compliance herewith are appended to the process and entered as a part of the return thereof: Provided, further, The court in which any action is brought may order such continuances as may be necessary to afford any nonresident defendant or groups, or entity, a reasonable opportunity to defend the action: Provided, further, The secretary of state shall keep a record of all such summons and process which shall show the day and time of service; and valid personal service shall thus be had on nonresident persons or individuals, entities, firms, or corporations violating this chapter. [1973 c 108 § 1; 1937 c 218 § 8; RRS § 3802-7. Formerly RCW 19.24.100 through 19.24.130.]

19.24.140 Injunction—Receivership—Escheat. In the event any person, or groups of persons, or any combination or pool as aforesaid, whether a nonresident corporation, person, or an association, or domestic, refuse to abide by the provisions hereof, or attempt to evade or render ineffectual the true enforcement of any provision of this chapter, then the prosecuting attorney of any county where complaint is made of any violation, shall institute injunction proceedings against said persons in the superior court, and valid personal service may be had upon any nonresident defendant as set forth in RCW 19.24.100; and the court shall enjoin all persons from violating the provisions of this chapter and the constitutional provisions prohibiting price fixing, monopolies, and combinations, and all copyrighted works and the public performance rights thereto when sold or used for profit are hereby declared to be a commercial commodity, and all persons, aiders and abettors, and agents, shall be enjoined by the court from aiding or furthering in any way a continuation of any violation of this chapter, either by the payment of money to said defendants or in any way; and if any defendant or defendants persist in defying the judgment of the court, the court shall, in order to effectuate its judgment and orders, order three days' notice be given said defendant or defendants, as the case may be, by having a copy of such notice served on the secretary of state as heretofore provided if defendants are without the state, or served personally if within the state, and have the same published in some daily paper in the state of general circulation, and at the end of said period, if any defendant or defendants refuse to obey the order of the court, then the court shall appoint the county auditor as receiver for the copyrighted works and property of defendants, tangible or intangible, and of all other effects and moneys derived therefrom, and the receiver shall take over and preserve the commercial rights to all of said copyrighted works, together with such other property of any defendant, combination, pool, corporation, or entity through which they are acting, that he can locate within the state, and the receiver shall administer the same under the direction of the court, and said receivership shall be considered only as an incident to the main injunction suit of the prosecutor, and for the purpose of enforcing the court's orders; the said receiver shall seize the copyrighted works of all of the copyright holders and owners in said defendant combination, including all of the rights to suits for infringement and damages in both state and federal courts, and all choses of action, and all sums due on contracts and licenses, and hold the same subject to the order of the court; and all persons holding licenses or contracts with any defendant combination or entity, shall pay the fees and sums due thereon to the receiver for such time as the court may need to effectuate the provisions of this chapter, and to compel any defendant to abide herewith: Provided, Any sums paid on licenses violating this chapter shall only be continued in the court's discretion or until such time as the court can award defendants complete and full due process of law before entering a final order thereon, or until such time as a legal and equitable system of licensing can be determined according to the subsequent provisions of this chapter: Provided, further, In the event any defendant or defendants attempt to withdraw their said copyright works or property from the state in order to violate and render this chapter or the court's order ineffectual, or to deprive the citizens of this state of such commodity, or to hamper the enforcement of any provision of this chapter, or to injure any citizen or user of music in any way, then the court shall immediately order the receiver to compile a complete list of all of the copyrighted works of said defendants which have been used in this state, and the court shall then call on the state treasurer and the state auditor who shall jointly establish license rates for the use of those copyrighted works controlled by the defendants so proceeded against; and for the purpose of aiding in the abolition of monopolies and price fixing, and preventing violations of this chapter, they shall determine a fair and just rate that the receiver should charge for the single and separate public performance for profit of each copyrighted work or works of said defendants, on a per piece system and basis of licensing; after determining such rate, they shall immediately advise the receiver of its findings, and of its fair rate, and the same shall be filed of record in the cause, and the receiver may then, if said finding is approved by the court, issue licenses for the use of said music at such approved rate on a basis of so much money per each time a piece of music is played or used in a public performance for profit; that said property shall be thus administered by the receiver for a period of one year, or until such time as the defendants, or the individual copyright owners of any combination so proceeded against take oath that they will abide by the rulings of the court and the provisions of this chapter; and all fees and funds collected by the receiver shall be turned over to the state treasurer, and no receiver's fees or attorney's fees shall be allowed, and the prosecuting attorney shall be the attorney for the receiver, and the state treasurer shall keep said money in a separate and special fund, subject to the order of the court only for whatever portion thereof that the court may order used to defray the actual expenses incurred by any prosecuting attorney or county auditor in connection with this action; at the end of one year, if the defendants and copyright owners or holders in any combination thus proceeded against, continue to wilfully disobey the court's orders, then the court shall issue an order, which shall be published in three public places, to the effect that unless the defendants obey all of the orders of the court within ten days from the date of said order, that the court will proceed to permanently deprive said defendants and each of them of their property; and the court shall then order said defendants to show cause within ten days why they should not be involuntarily compelled to assign all of their copyrighted works to the receiver forthwith, and to show cause why all of the funds as collected in the manner aforesaid from licenses, together with all of the copyrighted works including the performing rights thereto of said defendants and members of said combine, should not escheat and be forfeited forever to the state of Washington, and be subject thereafter to administration by the state in the same manner as all other personal property belonging to the state of Washington; if any of said defendants and copyright holders, or owners, do appear before the end of said ten day period, and take oath that they will abide by the future orders of the court and the provisions of this chapter, then the court shall release their copyrighted works and order the state treasurer to return any and all of their money which has been received or seized: Provided, however, The court shall retain such jurisdiction over their persons for such time as the court may deem necessary to insure strict compliance with the terms of the court's judgment and the provisions of this chapter; if any of said defendants or copyright owners or holders shall ignore or refuse to obey the show cause order, as aforesaid, or fail to appear at the end of ten days as ordered and abide by the court's judgment, then the court shall make an order and enter judgment to the effect that all of the copyrighted works, including the performing rights thereto, of said defendants and the members of any defendant combination, shall be construed as having been escheated and forfeited to the state of Washington, and the court shall thereupon appoint some officer of the court to execute an involuntary assignment of all the legal and equitable titles to all of the copyrighted works of each of said defendants and members of any defendant combination to the receiver, in the event the defendants or any of their members fail to execute a voluntary assignment, and the receiver shall immediately file said involuntary assignment at the United States Copyright Office at Washington, D.C.; and the court shall then order the receiver to close the estate, and turn the titles to said copyrighted works over by proper assignment from the receiver to the state treasurer of the state of Washington, who shall thereafter administer, issue licenses for the use of the same in a manner consistent with this chapter, and conserve the same as state personal property in his possession, and according to law; and any funds left in the state treasury from said receivership shall escheat and be forfeited to the state and become part of the general fund. [1977 ex.s. c 82 § 1; 1937 c 218 § 9; RRS § 3802-8. Formerly RCW 19.24-.140 through 19.24.270.]

19.24.280 Special appearances deemed general. That in the event any person, or any of the defendants, or nonresidents, or nonresident copyright owners or holders, are proceeded against as herein outlined, and are served with process according to law, or any nonresident is served with process as outlined in the preceding sections of this chapter, and if any of said defendants, or persons, or aiders and abettors named as defendants, appear in any such proceeding by counsel or otherwise, or institute any special proceeding attacking such proceeding, or make any motion therein, either special or general, or if any of them appear to obtain the judgment of the court solely upon the sufficiency of the service of process upon them, or upon any phase or particularity of said injunction proceedings, such special proceeding or appearance, or motion, or appearance, as the case may be, shall nevertheless be deemed as a general appearance even though the process may have been insufficient, and said parties and defendants as may thus appear in the action, for any reason or cause, whether they seek special or affirmative relief, shall thereafter be subject to the general orders and jurisdiction of the court for all purposes, and if any of said defendants or persons appear in any court proceeding instituted to effectuate this chapter solely for the purpose of challenging the validity of service of process upon them they shall be deemed to have surrendered themselves and as having submitted to the general jurisdiction of the court: Provided, however, This section shall not be construed as denying, and no attempt shall be made at any time in any proceeding in connection with the enforcement of this chapter, to restrain or deny any of said defendants, resident or nonresident, copyright holders or owners, or any person or members of any defendant combination, entity, pool, or monopoly of their rights or property without full and complete due process of law. [1937 c 218 § 10; RRS § 3802-9.]

19.24.290 Violations—Penalties. Every person, in addition to the other penalties provided in this chapter, who violates or who procures, or aids or abets in the violating of any provision of this chapter, or who conspires to render ineffectual any valid order or decision of any court in the enforcement of this chapter, or who procures, conspires with, or aids or abets any person or persons in his or their failure to obey the provisions of this chapter, or to render ineffectual any valid order of any court in connection with the enforcement of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment. [1937 c 218 § 11; RRS § 3802-10.]

19.24.300 Concurrent injunctions or receiverships. In the event more than one injunction suit provided for in this chapter is instituted in this state, in different counties by different prosecuting attorneys, but against the same defendants, the respective superior judges hearing the causes may issue orders against said defendants in any county, but in the event any of the various county proceedings enter into the state of receivership, as herein provided, then the judges hearing the respective causes shall order those causes where the defendants are the same, to be consolidated in one action in one particular county, and in such county as the judges may decide, to the end that only one receiver may be appointed for the entire state for the property of the same defendant or defendants. [1937 c 218 § 13; RRS § 3802-12.]

19.24.900 Severability—General repealer—1937 c 218. In case any part or portion of this chapter shall be held unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of this chapter as a whole or any other part or portion of this chapter, and if any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this chapter shall for any reason be adjudged invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of the chapter, but shall be strictly confined in its operation and holding to the specific clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, or part thereof, directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered; and all other acts and laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [1937 c 218 § 12; RRS § 3802-11.]

19.27.010 Short title. This chapter shall be known as the State Building Code Act. [1974 ex.s. c 96 § 1.]

19.27.020 Purposes—Objectives—Standards. The purpose of this chapter is to provide building codes throughout the state. This chapter is designed to effectuate the following purposes, objectives and standards:

(1) To promote the health, safety and welfare of the occupants or users of buildings and structures and the general public.

(2) To require minimum performance standards and requirements for construction and construction materials, consistent with accepted standards of engineering, fire and life safety.

(3) To require standards and requirements in terms of performance and nationally accepted standards.

(4) To permit the use of modern technical methods, devices and improvements.

(5) To eliminate restrictive, obsolete, conflicting, duplicating and unnecessary regulations and requirements which could unnecessarily increase construction costs or retard the use of new materials and methods of installation or provide unwarranted preferential treatment to types or classes of materials or products or methods of construction.

(6) To provide for standards and specifications for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by physically handicapped persons.

(7) To consolidate within each authorized enforcement jurisdiction, the administration and enforcement of building codes. [1974 ex.s. c 96 § 2.]

19.27.030 National codes and standards—Adoption by reference—Conflicts. There shall be in effect in all cities, towns and counties of the state a state building code which shall consist of the following codes which are hereby adopted by reference:

(1) Uniform Building Code and Related Standards, 1976 edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(2) Uniform Mechanical Code, 1976 edition, including Chapter 22, Fuel Gas Piping, Appendix B, published by the International Conference of Building Officials and the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials;

(3) The Uniform Fire Code with appendices thereto, 1976 edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association;

(4) The Uniform Plumbing Code, 1976 edition, published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials: Provided, That chapter 11 of such code is not adopted: Provided, That notwithstanding any wording in this code, nothing in this code shall apply to the installation of any gas piping, water heaters, or vents for water heaters;

(5) The rules and regulations adopted by the council establishing standards for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped or elderly persons as provided for in RCW 70.92.100 through 70.92.160; and

(6) The thermal performance and design standards for dwellings as set forth in RCW 19.27.210 through 19.27.290. This subsection shall be of no further force and effect when RCW 19.27.200 through 19.27.290 expire as provided in RCW 19.27.300.

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following. [1979 1st ex.s. c 76 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 14 § 11; 1975 1st ex.s. c 110 § 8; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 3.]

Effective date—1975 1st ex.s. c 110 §§ 8, 9 and 10: "Sections 8, 9, and 10 of this amendatory act shall take effect on July 1, 1976." [1975 1st ex.s. c 110 § 12.] This applies to the 1975 amendments to RCW 19.27.030 and 19.27.040 and to the repeal of RCW 70.92.010–70.92.060 and RCW 70.92A.010–70.92A.060.

Public buildings and accommodations, provisions for elderly and handicapped: Chapter 70.92 RCW.

19.27.040 Cities and counties authorized to amend state building code—Adopt revisions—Limitations.

On and after January 1, 1975, the governing body of each city, town or county is authorized to amend the state building code as it applies within its jurisdiction in all such respects as shall be not less than the minimum performance standards and objectives enumerated in RCW 19.27.020, including, the authority to adopt any subsequent revisions to the codes in RCW 19.27.030(1), (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6), as now or hereafter amended: Provided, That amendments to RCW 19.27.030(6), so adopted result in structures that do not exceed the overall structural heat loss characteristics that would have resulted from conforming to RCW 19.27.030(6), as now or hereafter amended.

Nothing in this section shall authorize any modifications of the requirements of chapter 35, Laws of 1967, or chapter 70.92 RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 12; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 4.]

Reviser's note: Chapter 14, Laws of 1977 ex.s. amended RCW 19.27.040 as originally enacted and did not include the changes in language made by an intervening amendment to the section by 1975 1st ex.s. c 110 § 9.

19.27.050 Administration and enforcement. The state building code provided for in this chapter shall be administered and enforced by the respective governmental authorities. Any governmental subdivision not having a local building department may contract with another governmental subdivision or inspection agency approved by the local governmental body for administration and enforcement of the state building code within its jurisdictional boundaries in accordance with chapter 39.34 RCW. [1974 ex.s. c 96 § 5.]

19.27.060 Local building regulations superseded—Exceptions. (1) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under the provisions of RCW 19.27.040 and subsections (3) and (4) of this section, the state building code supersedes all county, city or town building regulations containing less than the minimum performance standards and objectives contained in the state building code.

(2) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under the provisions of RCW 19.27.040 and subsections (3) and (4) of this section, the state building code shall be applicable to all buildings and structures including those owned by the state or by any other governmental subdivision.

(3) The governing body of each city, town or county may limit the application of any rule or regulation or portion of the state building code to include or exclude specified classes or types of buildings or structures, according to use, occupancy, or such other distinctions as may make differentiation or separate classification or regulation necessary, proper, or desirable: Provided, That in no event shall fruits or vegetables of the tree or vine stored in buildings or warehouses, constitute combustible stock for the purposes of application of the uniform fire code.

(4) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any building four or more stories high with an F occupancy as defined by the uniform building code, chapter 6, 1973 edition, and with a fire insurance classification rating of 1, 2, or 3 as defined by a recognized fire rating bureau or organization. [1975 1st ex.s. c 282 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 6.]

The council may include state officials as ex officio, nonvoting members. The board shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on the operation and administration of this chapter.

(2) Members shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 59; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 7.]

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

Polling places, accessibility guidelines: RCW 29.57.030.

19.27.075 State-wide thermal efficiency and lighting code—State building code advisory council authorized to adopt. The state building code advisory council shall have authority to promulgate rules, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, for the purpose of adopting a state-wide thermal efficiency and lighting code to the extent necessary to comply with Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, section 420.35. Such code shall take into account regional climatic conditions; shall take effect prior to June 30, 1980; and shall be presented to the senate and house committees on energy and utilities at the time it is proposed as a draft rule. [1979 1st ex.s. c 76 § 3.]

19.27.080 Chapters of RCW not affected. [1975 1st ex.s. c 282 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 8.]

Reviser's note: "this 1974 act" consists of RCW 19.27.010–19.27.090, and 70.92A.060. RCW 70.92A.060 was repealed by 1975 1st ex.s. c 110 § 10, effective July 1, 1976.

19.27.090 Local jurisdictions reserved. Local land use and zoning requirements, building setbacks, side and rear-yard requirements, site development, property line requirements, subdivision requirements, and local fire zones are specifically reserved to local jurisdictions notwithstanding any other provision of *this 1974 act. [1974 ex.s. c 96 § 9.]

Reviser's note: "this 1974 act", see note following RCW 19.27.080.

19.27.100 Cities, towns, counties may impose fees different from state building code. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a city, town, or county of the state from imposing fees different from those set forth in the state building code. [1975 1st ex.s. c 8 § 1.]

19.27.110 Uniform fire code—Administration and enforcement by counties, other political subdivisions and municipal corporations—Fees. Each county government shall administer and enforce the uniform fire code in the unincorporated areas of the county: Provided, That any political subdivision or municipal corporation providing fire protection pursuant to RCW 14.08.120 shall, at its sole option, be responsible for administration and enforcement of the uniform fire code on its facility. Any fire protection district or political subdivision may, pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW, the interlocal cooperation act, assume all or a portion of the administering responsibility and coordinate and cooperate with the county government in the enforcement of the uniform fire code.

It is not the intent of RCW 19.27.110 and 19.27.111 to preclude or limit the authority of any city, town, county, fire protection district, state agency, or political subdivision from engaging in those fire prevention activities with which they are charged.

It is not the intent of the legislature by adopting the state building code or RCW 19.27.110 and 19.27.111 to grant counties any more power to suppress or extinguish fires than counties currently possess under the Constitution or other statutes.

Each county is authorized to impose fees sufficient to pay the cost of inspections, administration, and enforcement pursuant to RCW 19.27.110 and 19.27.111. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 37 § 1.]

19.27.111 RCW 19.27.080 not affected. Nothing in RCW 19.27.110 shall affect the provisions of RCW 19.27.080. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 37 § 2.]

19.27.120 Buildings or structures having special historical or architectural significance—Exception. Repairs, alterations, and additions necessary for the preservation, restoration, rehabilitation, or continued use of a building or structure may be made without conformance to all of the requirements of the codes adopted under RCW 19.27.030, when authorized by the appropriate building official, provided:

(1) The building or structure has been designated by official action of a legislative body as having special historical or architectural significance; and

(2) The restored building or structure will be less hazardous, based on life and fire risk, than the existing building. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 11 § 1.]

THERMAL PERFORMANCE AND DESIGN STANDARDS

19.27.200 Application and scope. There shall be in effect in all cities, towns, and counties of the state thermal performance and design standards for new dwellings for which building permits are applied subsequent to ninety days after September 21, 1977 as set forth in this amendatory act.

This amendatory act shall apply to all new dwellings which are equipped with heating and/or cooling systems and for which applications for building permits are made subsequent to ninety days after September 21, 1977: Provided, however, This amendatory act shall not be applicable to single family dwellings not intended for year round occupancy, as the term "dwellings not intended for year round occupancy" is defined by the county legislative authority. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 1.]

Reviser's note: "This amendatory act" or "this 1977 amendatory act" [1977 ex.s. c 14] apparently consists of RCW 19.27.200-19.27.310, 19.27.905, 44.39.038, and amendments to RCW 19.27.030, 19.27.040.

19.27.210 Purpose. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to provide a reasonable degree of conservation of critical energy supplies, and that *this amendatory act will establish certain necessary maximum allowable heat loss rates and/or minimum thermal performance standards for dwellings to achieve this degree of energy conservation. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 2.]

19.27.220 Definitions. For the purpose of *this amendatory act, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Dwelling" means any building or any portion thereof which provides complete, independent living facilities which are used, intended, or designed to be built, used, rented, leased, let, or hired out to be occupied or which are occupied for living purposes. "Dwelling" does not include apartment houses over three stories in height, hotels, motels, or lodging houses.

(2) "ASHRAE" means the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers, Inc.

(3) "BTU" means British Thermal Unit.

(4) "C" value (thermal conductance) means the amount of heat, measured in BTU's, transferred through one square foot of a building material of given thickness in one hour when there is one degree temperature difference between the surfaces of the material.

(5) "R" value (thermal resistance) means the measure from the resistance of a material or building component to the passage of heat. The resistance value "R" of mass type insulations shall be for the material only. "R" values shall be as listed in the current ASHRAE Handbook of Fundamentals, or as tested in accordance with current applicable standards.

(6) "U" value means the total heat flow, measured in BTU's, through one square foot of a building section or assembly, air to air, in one hour per degree F. temperature difference. Mathematically $U = 1 \div R$ (subscript t) in which R (subscript t) equals the sum of the resistance (R) for the individual components of the assembly. "U" values shall be calculated according to ASHRAE methods and shall not consider the effect of occasional framing members such as studs or joists.

(7) "Exterior wall area" means the gross area of wall surfaces of heated spaces which are exposed to outside temperatures, and includes wall areas, window areas, door areas, and areas of foundation walls above the exterior grade.

(8) "Glazing" means all transparent or translucent materials in exterior wall openings. For the purpose of calculating the area of glazed openings, the area of sash shall be included.

(9) "Special glazing" means glazing which has a maximum "U" value of 0.70. Insulating glass with at least one quarter inch air space or approved storm sash will be considered to provide the "U" value required.

(10) "Unheated spaces" means any space exposed to outside temperatures and not provided with a heat supply capable of maintaining a minimum temperature of 50°F. This will include, but not be limited to, ventilated crawl spaces, attics, unheated garages, and unheated basement areas.

(11) "Heating and/or cooling systems" means any device or combination of devices which consume any fuel and/or electricity for the purpose of providing heat to or removing heat from a building to maintain its interior temperature above or below outside temperature. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 3.]

19.27.230 Compliance. (1) General. Dwellings covered by *this amendatory act shall be so constructed that the total structural heat loss from the building will not exceed the total structural heat loss resulting from compliance with the maximum "U" or "C" values for the component parts as specified in this chapter: Provided, That compliance with these provisions shall be deemed conclusive when certified to by a registered architect or registered mechanical engineer. In lieu of the "U" or "C" value listed, installed insulation with the minimum "R" value (insulation material only) listed for each location shall be deemed to satisfy those requirements.

(2) Compliance Card. Upon completion of the installation of insulation, a card certifying that the insulation has been installed in conformance with the requirements of *this 1977 amendatory act shall be completed and signed by the builder or insulation applicator. For this purpose, any certification card which contains all the essential data may be used. The insulation compliance card shall indicate the "R" value of insulation (material only) installed in the ceilings, walls, floors, on the perimeter, and ducts. When loose fill insulation is used the card shall show the square footage and the number and weight of bags installed to obtain the "R" value listed. The card must be posted at a conspicuous location within the building and will indicate the installation date. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 4.]

TABLE A

Maximum allowed "U" values of ceiling and above grade exterior wall sections. Minimum "R" values shown are for added insulation material only.

Roof Decks ¹		Ceilings ^{2 5}		Walls
				Concrete or Masonry ³		Wood or Metal Frame ³⁻⁴
"U"	"R"	"U"	"R"	"U"	"R"	"U"	"R"

Footnotes to Table A:

1. Indicates construction using rigid insulation installed on the roof deck. When adequate space within the roof cavity is available and insulation is on the ceiling, use the values for ceilings.
2. When enclosed rafter spaces are formed by ceilings being applied directly to the underside of the roof rafters, the ceiling rafters must be of sufficient size to provide a minimum of one inch clear vented air space above the insulation.
3. Exterior concrete or masonry foundation walls of heated "unfinished" basements and cellars extending no more than an average of 24 inches above the adjacent finish grade need not be insulated until finished. Insulation installed shall comply with the requirements of this table and apply to above and below grade foundation walls: Provided, That any exterior frame cripple walls enclosing heated spaces shall comply with the insulation requirements of this table.
4. Where there are no occasional framing members such as studs, or when all of the thermal insulation is not penetrated by occasional framing members, the required maximum allowable U-values may be increased by multiplying by a factor of 1.15.
5. Ceilings between two adjacent heated spaces need not be insulated.

19.27.250 Thermal design standards for openings. (1) When more than twenty-five percent of the exterior wall area of buildings constructed east of the Cascade Mountain Ridge and when more than thirty-five percent of the exterior wall area of buildings constructed west of the Cascade Mountain Ridge consists of glazing, at least one-half shall be special glazing. However if the glazing exceeds forty percent of the exterior wall area, at least ninety percent must be special glazing. For this purpose, exterior walls enclosing heated spaces in the entire structure shall be included in calculating the overall percentage of glazing.

(2) Skylights in ceilings and roofs shall have a "U" value not exceeding 0.70 if their total area exceeds two percent of the gross ceiling area. Insulating glass with at least one-quarter inch air space or double-walled plastic bubbles will be considered to provide the "U" value required. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 6.]

19.27.260 Thermal design standards for floor sections and slabs-on-grade. (1) Floor Sections over Unheated Spaces. Insulation shall be required in floor sections over unheated spaces with a maximum "U" value 0.08 and a minimum insulation "R" value 9: Provided, That insulation shall not be required in floor sections over heated crawl space plenum areas or in vented crawl spaces where the vents are equipped with tightly-fitting operable louvers: Provided, That the perimeter walls are insulated from the interior ground level to the subflooring to provide maximum "U" value of 0.13 minimum insulation "R" value 6. Insulation material shall be attached in a permanent manner. Floors over other heated spaces need not be insulated.

(2) Slab-on-Grade Floors of Heated Spaces. The "R" value of the insulation around the perimeter of the floor shall be not less than that shown in Table B. Insulation shall extend downward from the top of the slab or, alternatively, downward and then horizontally under the slab for the minimum distances specified. Perimeter insulation may be installed on the outside of the foundation wall if it is protected from weather and damage. Insulation shall not be required for any portion of the slab floor that is more than 12 inches below the adjacent exterior grade.

19.27.270 General construction requirements. (1) A minimum ground cover of 4 mil. (0.004 inch) polyethylene or equivalent, lapped one foot at each joint, is required in crawl spaces. A vapor barrier shall be properly installed at exterior frame walls and in ceilings formed when a finish surface is applied directly to the underside of the roof rafters.

(2) Loose Fill. Blown or poured loose fill insulation may be used in attic spaces where the slope of the roof is not less than 2 1/2 feet in 12 feet and there is at least 30 inches of clear distance from the top of the bottom chord of the truss or ceiling joist to the underside of the roof sheathing at the roof ridge. When eave vents are installed, adequate baffling of the vent openings must be provided so as to deflect the incoming air above the surface of the insulation. In lieu of a framing baffle, batt or blanket insulation with an equivalent "R" value for ceilings as specified in Table A may be installed from the outer edge of the exterior wall extending a minimum of two feet inwards.

(3) Air Leakage. All doors, windows, skylights, and openings enclosing a heated space and exposed to the exterior or to unheated spaces shall be weatherstripped, caulked, gasketed, or otherwise treated in accordance with sound building practices. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 8.]

19.27.280 Duct insulation. When supply and return air ducts used for heating and/or cooling are located in unheated spaces, they shall be insulated to provide a maximum "C" value of 0.30 at 75°F mean temperature, minimum insulation "R" value 3.5. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 9.]

19.27.290 Piping insulation. All steam and steam condensate return piping and all continuously circulating heating hot water piping which is located in unheated spaces shall be insulated to provide a maximum "C" value of 0.30 at 75° mean temperature, minimum insulation "R" value 3.5. Insulation shall not be required where piping passes through framing members. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 10.]

19.27.300 Expiration of RCW 19.27.200 through 19.27.290. RCW 19.27.200 through 19.27.290, as now or hereafter amended, shall expire at such time as the thermal performance standards are incorporated in the uniform building code and related standards as published by the international conference of building officials, and adopted by the legislature of the state of Washington. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 14.]

19.27.310 Captions. Chapter, section, and subsection captions or headings as used in sections 1 through 10 of this amendatory act do not constitute any part of the law. [1977 ex.s. c 14 § 16.]

No person, firm or corporation engaging in, conducting or carrying on the business of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current, or installing apparatus to be operated by said current, shall be entitled to commence or maintain any suit or action in any court of this state pertaining to any such work or business, without alleging and proving that such person, firm or corporation held, at the time of commencing and performing such work, an unexpired, unrevoked and unsuspended license issued under the provisions of this chapter; and no city or town requiring by ordinance or regulation a permit before any such electrical work is installed, shall issue such permit to any person, firm or corporation not holding such license. [1935 c 169 § 6; RRS § 8307-6.]

19.28.200 Licensing—Exemptions. No license under the provision of this chapter shall be required from any person, firm, corporation or municipal corporation because of work in connection with the installation and/or maintenance of lines or wires for transmission of electricity from the source of supply to the point of contact at the premises and/or property to be supplied, or for work in installing or maintaining or repairing on the premises of customers, service connections and meters, and other apparatus or appliances used in the measurement of the consumption of electricity by customers, or for work in connection with the lighting of streets, alleys, ways, or public areas or squares, or for the work of installing, maintaining or repairing wires, apparatus or appliances used in their business, or in making or distributing electricity, upon the property owned or operated and managed by them; or for the work of installing and repairing ignition or lighting systems for motor vehicles, or as exempted in RCW 19.28.010. [1935 c 169 § 11; RRS § 8307-11.]

19.28.210 Inspections—Notice to repair and change—Disconnection—Entry—Concealment—Connection to utility—Labels, fees. The director of labor and industries, through the inspector, assistant inspector, or deputy inspector, is hereby empowered to inspect, and shall inspect, all wiring, appliances, devices and equipment to which this chapter applies. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed as providing any authority for any subdivision of government to adopt by ordinance any provisions contained or provided for in this chapter 19.28 RCW except those pertaining to cities and towns. Upon request, electrical inspections will be made by the electrical inspection department within forty-eight hours, excluding holidays, Saturdays and Sundays. If, upon written request, the electrical inspector fails to make an electrical inspection within twenty-four hours, the serving utility may immediately connect thereto, providing the necessary electrical safe wiring label is displayed. Whenever the installation of any such wiring, device, appliance or equipment is not in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, or is in such a condition as to be dangerous to life or property, the person, firm, or corporation owning, using or operating the same shall be notified by the director of labor and industries and shall within fifteen days, or such further reasonable time as may upon request be granted, make such repairs and changes as are required to remove the danger therefrom to life or property and to make the same conform to the provisions of this chapter. The director of labor and industries through such inspector, assistant inspector or any deputy inspector, is hereby empowered to disconnect or order the discontinuance of electrical service to such conductors or apparatus as is found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition and not in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Upon making such disconnection he shall attach thereto a notice stating that such conductors have been found dangerous to life or property or not in accordance with the requirements of this chapter; and it shall be unlawful for any person to reconnect such defective conductors or apparatus without the approval of the director of labor and industries, and until the same have been placed in a safe and secure condition, and in such condition as to comply with the requirements of this chapter. The director of labor and industries, through the electrical inspector, assistant inspector, or any deputy inspector, shall have the right during reasonable hours to enter into and upon any building or premises in the discharge of his official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of the installation of new construction or altered electrical wiring, electrical devices, equipment or material contained thereon or therein. No electrical wiring or equipment subject to the requirements of this chapter shall be concealed until an inspection is applied for under this chapter and an inspection made and the work therein approved by the inspector making such inspection. It shall be the responsibility of those persons making electrical installations to obtain inspection and approval from an authorized representative of the director of labor and industries as required by this chapter, prior to requesting the electric utility to connect to said installation. Electric utilities may connect such said installations if approval is clearly indicated by certification of the safe wiring label required to be affixed to each installation or by equivalent means, except that, increased or relocated services may be reconnected immediately, at the discretion of the utility, before approval, provided a safe wiring label is displayed. The labels shall be furnished upon payment to the department of labor and industries. The director, subject to the recommendations and approval of the state electrical advisory board, shall set a schedule of license and safe wiring label fees which will cover the costs incurred by the department of labor and industries in the administration and enforcement of this chapter in accordance with the administrative procedures act, chapter 34.04 RCW: Provided, That no fee shall be charged for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles, or portable appliances. Electricians, licensing, etc.: Chapter 18.37 RCW.

19.29.010 Rules for use of electrical apparatus or construction. It shall be unlawful from and after the passage of this chapter for any officer, agent, or employee of the state of Washington, or of any county, city or other political subdivision thereof, or for any other person, firm or corporation, or its officers, agents or employees, to run, place, erect, maintain, or use any electrical apparatus or construction, except as provided in the rules of this chapter.

Rule 1. No wire or cable carrying a current of less than seven hundred fifty volts of electricity within the corporate limits of any city or town shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any insulator the center of which is less than thirteen inches from the center line of any pole. And no such wire shall be run past any pole to which it is not attached at a distance of less than thirteen inches from the center line thereof. This rule shall not apply to any wire or cable where the same is run from under ground and placed vertically on the pole; nor to any wire or cable where the same is attached to the top of the pole; nor to a pole top fixture as between it and the same pole; nor to any wire or cable between the points where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure and the point of attachment to such building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with a transformer or other appliance on the same pole; nor to bridle or jumper wires on any pole which are attached to or connected with signal wires on the same pole; nor to any aerial cable as between such cable and any pole upon which it originates or terminates; nor to exclusive telephone or telegraph toll lines; nor to aerial cables containing telephone, telegraph, or signal wires, or wires continuing from same, where the cable is attached to poles on which no wires or cables other than the wires continuing from said cable are maintained, provided, that electric light or power wires or cables are in no case maintained on the same side of the street or highway on which said aerial cable is placed.

Rule 2. No wire or cable used to carry a current of over seven hundred fifty volts of electricity within the incorporate limits of any city or town shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any insulator the center of which is nearer than twenty-four inches to the center line of any pole. And no such wire or cable shall be run past any pole to which it is not attached at a distance of less than twenty-four inches from the center line thereof: Provided, That this shall not apply to any wire or cable where the same is run from under ground and placed vertically on the pole; nor to any wire or cable where the same is attached to the top of the pole; nor to a pole top fixture, as between it and the same pole; nor to any wire or cable between the points where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure, and the point of attachment to said building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with transformers or other appliances on the same pole: Provided further, That where said wire or cable is run vertically, it shall be rigidly supported and where possible run on the ends of the cross-arms.

Rule 3. No wire or cable carrying a current of more than seven hundred fifty volts, and less than seventy-five hundred volts of electricity, shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used within three feet of any wire or cable carrying a current of seven hundred fifty volts or less of electricity; and no wire or cable carrying a current of more than seventy-five hundred volts of electricity shall be run, placed, erected, maintained, or used within seven feet of any wire or cable carrying less than seventy-five hundred volts: Provided, That the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any wire or cable within buildings or other structures; nor where the same are run from under ground and placed vertically upon the pole; nor to any service wire or cable where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure, and the point of attachment to said building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with a transformer or other appliance on the same pole: Provided, That where run vertically, wires or cables shall be rigidly supported, and where possible run on the ends of the cross-arms: Provided further, That as between any two wires or cables mentioned in Rules 1, 2 and 3 of this section, only the wires or cables last in point of time so run, placed, erected or maintained, shall be held to be in violation of the provisions thereof.

Rule 4. No wire or cable used for telephone, telegraph, district messenger, or call bell circuit, fire or burglar alarm, or any other similar system, shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any pole at a distance of less than three feet from any wire or cable carrying a current of over three hundred volts of electricity; and in all cases (except those mentioned in exceptions to Rules 1, 2 and 3) where such wires or cables are run, above or below, or cross over or under electric light or power wires, or a trolley wire, a suitable method of construction, or insulation or protection to prevent contact shall be maintained as between such wire or cable and such electric light, power or trolley wire; and said methods of construction, insulation or protection shall be installed by, or at the expense of the person owning the wire last placed in point of time: Provided, That telephone, telegraph or signal wires or cables operated for private use and not furnishing service to the public, may be placed less than three feet from any line carrying a voltage of less than seven hundred and fifty volts.

Rule 5. Transformers, either single or in bank, that exceed a total capacity of over ten K.W. shall be supported by a double cross-arm, or some fixture equally as strong. No transformer shall be placed, erected, maintained or used on any cross-arm or other appliance on a pole upon which is placed a series electric arc lamp or arc light: Provided, This shall not apply to a span wire supporting a lamp only. All aerial and underground transformers used for low potential distribution shall be subjected to an insulation test in accordance with the standardized rules of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. In addition to this each transformer shall be tested at rated line voltage prior to each installation and shall have attached to it a tag showing the date on which the test was made, and the name of the person making the test.

Rule 6. No wire or cable carrying more than seventy-five hundred volts of electricity shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on curves or corners of greater than fifteen degrees without maintaining guards sufficient to hold said wire or cable in case of breakage of pins or insulators to which the same are attached, except where said wire or cable terminates or dead-ends on curves or corners.

No wire or cable, other than ground wires, used to conduct or carry electricity, shall be placed, run, erected, maintained or used vertically on any pole without causing such wire or cable to be at all times sufficiently insulated the full length thereof to insure the protection of anyone coming in contact with said wire or cable.

Rule 7. The neutral point or wire of all transformer secondaries strung or erected for use in low potential distributing systems shall be grounded in all cases where the normal maximum difference of potential between the ground and any point in the secondary circuit will not exceed one hundred and fifty volts. When no neutral point or wire is accessible one side of the secondary circuit shall be grounded in the case of single phase transformers, and any one common point in the case of interconnected polyphase bank or banks of transformers. Where the maximum difference of potential between the ground and any point in the secondary circuit will, when grounded, exceed one hundred fifty volts, grounding shall be permitted. Such grounding shall be done in the manner provided in Rule 33.

Rule 8. In all cases where a wire or cable larger than No. 14 B.W.G. originates or terminates on insulators attached to any pin or other appliance, said wire or cable shall be attached to at least two insulators: Provided however, That this section shall not apply to service wires to buildings; nor to wires run vertically on a pole; nor to wires originating or terminating on strain insulators or circuit breakers; nor to telephone, telegraph or signal wires outside the limits of any incorporated city or town.

Rule 9. All poles along which shall be run vertically any wire or cable used to conduct or carry a current of over two hundred fifty volts shall be provided with steps, and no steps shall be placed on any pole nearer the ground than seven feet.

Rule 10. Fixtures placed or erected for the support of wires on the roofs of buildings shall be of sufficient strength to withstand all strains to which they may be subjected, due to the breaking of all wires on one side thereof, and except where insulated wires or cables are held close to fire walls by straps or rings, shall be of such height and so placed that all of the wires supported by such fixtures shall be at least seven feet above any point of roofs less than one-quarter pitch over which they pass or may be attached, and no roof fixtures or wire shall be so placed that they will interfere with the free passage of persons upon, over, to or from the roofs.

Rule 11. No guy wire or cable shall be placed, run, erected, maintained or used within the incorporate limits of any city or town on any pole or appliance to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct electricity without causing said guy wire or cable to be efficiently insulated with circuit breakers at all times at a distance of not less than eight feet nor more than ten feet measured along the line of said guy wire or cable from each end thereof: Provided, No circuit breaker shall be required at the lower end of the guy wire or cable where the same is attached to a ground anchor, nor shall any circuit breaker be required where said guy wire or cable runs direct from a grounded messenger wire to a grounded anchor rod.

Rule 12. In all span wires used for the purpose of supporting trolley wires or series arc lamps there shall be at least two circuit breakers, one of which shall at all times be maintained no less than four feet nor more than six feet distant from the trolley wire or series arc lamp, and in cases where the same is supported by a building or metallic pole, the other circuit breaker shall be maintained at the building or at the pole: Provided, That in span wires which support two or more trolley wires no circuit breaker shall be required in the span wire between any two of the trolley wires: Provided further, That in span wires supporting trolley wires attached to wooden poles only the circuit breaker adjacent to the trolley wire shall be required.

Rule 13. At all points where in case of a breakdown of trolley span wires, the trolley wire would be liable to drop within seven feet of the ground, there shall be double span wires and hangers placed at such points.

Rule 14. All energized wires or appliances installed inside of any building or vault, for the distribution of electrical energy, shall be sufficiently insulated, or so guarded, located, or arranged as to protect any person from injury.

Rule 15. The secondary circuit of current transformers, the casings of all potential regulators and arc light transformers, all metal frames of all switch boards, metal oil tanks used on oil switches except where the tank is part of the conducting system, all motor and generator frames, the entire frame of the crane and the tracks of all traveling cranes and hoisting devices, shall be thoroughly grounded, as provided in Rule 33.

Rule 16. All generators and motors having a potential of more than three hundred volts shall be provided with a suitable insulated platform or mat so arranged as to permit the attendant to stand upon such platform or mat when working upon the live parts of such generators or motors.

Rule 17. Suitable insulated platforms or mats shall be provided for the use of all men while working on any live part of switchboards on which any wire or appliance carries a potential in excess of three hundred volts.

Rule 18. Every generator, motor, transformer, switch or other similar piece of apparatus and device used in the generation, transmission or distribution of electrical energy in stations or substations, shall be either provided with a name plate giving the capacity in volts and amperes, or have this information stamped thereon in such a manner as to be clearly legible.

Rule 19. In all cases there shall be two switches used at the station or substation in each feeder for the transmission of electrical energy at constant potential of seven hundred fifty volts or over; one shall be an oil switch so situated as to insure the safety of the person operating the same; the other shall be a disconnecting switch: Provided, That oil switches shall not be required in direct current feeders.

Rule 20. When lines of seven hundred fifty volts or over are cut out at the station or substation to allow employees to work upon them, they shall be short-circuited and grounded at the station, and shall in addition, if the line wires are bare, be short-circuited, and where possible grounded at the place where the work is being done.

Rule 21. All switches installed with overload protection devices, and all automatic overload circuit breakers must have the trip coils so adjusted as to afford complete protection against overloads and short circuits, and the same must be so arranged that no pole can be opened manually without opening all the poles, and the trip coils shall be instantly operative upon closing.

Rule 22. All feeders for electric railways must, before leaving the plant or substation, be protected by an approved circuit breaker which will cut off the circuit in case of an accidental ground or short circuit.

Rule 23. There shall be provided in all distributing stations a ground detecting device.

Rule 24. There shall be provided in all stations, plants, and buildings herein specified warning cards printed on red cardboard not less than two and one-quarter by four and one-half inches in size, which shall be attached to all switches opened for the purpose of linemen or other employees working on the wires. The person opening any line switch shall enter upon said card the name of the person ordering the switch opened, the time opened, the time line was reported clear and by whom, and shall sign his own name.

Rule 25. No manhole containing any wire carrying a current of over three hundred volts shall be less than six feet from floor to inside of roof; if circular in shape it shall not be less than six feet in diameter; if square it shall be six feet from wall to wall: Provided however, That this paragraph shall not apply to any manhole in which it shall not be required that any person enter to perform work: Provided further, That the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply where satisfactory proof shall be submitted to the proper authorities that it is impracticable or physically impossible to comply with this law within the space or location designated by the proper authorities.

Rule 26. All manholes containing any wires or appliances carrying electrical current shall be kept in a sanitary condition, free from stagnant water or seepage or other drainage which is offensive or dangerous to health, either by sewer connection or otherwise, while any person is working in the same.

Rule 27. No manhole shall have an opening to the outer air of less than twenty-six inches in diameter, and the cover of same shall be provided with vent hole or holes equivalent to three square inches in area.

If the license applicant has deposited cash or other negotiable security with the director, the same shall be returned to the licensee at the expiration of one year after the employment agency's license has expired or been revoked, if no legal action has been instituted against the licensee or the surety deposit at the expiration of the year.

(3) Any person having a claim against an employment agency for any violation of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder may bring suit upon such bond or deposit in an appropriate court of the county where the office of the employment agency is located or of any county in which jurisdiction of the employment agency may be had. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of expiration of the employment agency license in force at the time the act for which the suit is brought occurred. A copy of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the director at the time the suit is started, and the director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Such service on the director shall constitute service on the surety and the director shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the surety within five business days after it shall have been received. The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond, but in case claims pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond, claims shall be satisfied in the order of judgment rendered. In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon bond so furnished or the amount of the deposit so that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking or deposit in the full amount prescribed in this section, the director shall suspend the license of such employment agency until the bond undertaking or deposit in the required amount, unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims, shall have been furnished.

(4) In the event of a final judgment being entered against the deposit or security referred to in subsection (2) of this section, the director shall, upon receipt of a certified copy of the final judgment, order said judgment to be paid from the amount of the deposit or security. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 4; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 9.]

19.31.100 Applications—Contents—Filing—Qualifications of applicants and licensees—Waiver. (1) Every applicant for an employment agency's license or a renewal thereof shall file with the director a written application stating the name and address of the applicant; the street and number of the building in which the business of the employment agency is to be conducted; the name of the person who is to have the general management of the office; the name under which the business of the office is to be carried on; whether or not the applicant is pecuniarily interested in the business to be carried on under the license; shall be signed by the applicant and sworn to before a notary public; and shall identify anyone holding over twenty percent interest in the agency. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall state the names and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation, and shall be signed and sworn to by the president and secretary thereof. If the applicant is a partnership, the application shall also state the names and addresses of all partners therein, and shall be signed and sworn to by all of them. The application shall also state whether or not the applicant is, at the time of making the application, or has at any previous time been engaged in or interested in or employed by anyone engaged in the business of an employment agency.

(2) The application shall require a certification that no officer or holder of more than twenty percent interest in the business has been convicted of a felony within ten years of the application which directly relates to the business for which the license is sought, or had any judgment entered against such person in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion.

(3) All applications for employment agency licenses shall be accompanied by a copy of the form of contract and fee schedule to be used between the employment agency and the applicant.

(4) No license to operate an employment agency in this state shall be issued, transferred, renewed, or remain in effect, unless the person who has or is to have the general management of the office has qualified pursuant to this section. The director may, for good cause shown, waive the requirement imposed by this section for a period not to exceed one hundred and twenty days. Persons who have been previously licensed or who have operated to the satisfaction of the director for at least one year prior to September 21, 1977 as a general manager shall be entitled to operate for up to one year from such date before being required to qualify under this section. In order to qualify, such person shall, through testing procedures developed by the employment agency advisory board, show to the director's satisfaction that such person has a knowledge of this law, pertinent labor laws, and laws against discrimination in employment in this state and of the United States. Said examination shall be given at least once each quarter and a fee for such examination shall be established by the director. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to preclude any one natural person from being designated as the person who is to have the general management of up to three offices operated by any one licensee. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 5; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 10.]

19.31.110 Expiration date of licenses—Reinstatement. An employment agency license shall expire June 30th. Any such license not renewed may be reinstated if the employment agency can show good cause to the director for renewal of the license and present proof of intent to continue to act as an employment agency: Provided, That no license shall be issued upon such application for reinstatement until all fees and penalties previously accrued under this chapter have been paid. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 6; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 11.]

19.31.120 Transfer of licenses. No license granted pursuant to this chapter shall be transferable without the consent of the director. No employment agency shall permit any person not mentioned in the license application to become connected with the business as an owner, member, officer, or director without the consent of the director. Consent may be withheld for any reason for which an original application for a license might have been rejected, if the person in question had been mentioned therein. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 12.]

19.31.130 Denial, suspension or revocation of licenses—Grounds. In accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW as now or as hereafter amended, the director may by order deny, suspend or revoke the license of any employment agency if he finds that the applicant or licensee:

(1) Was previously the holder of a license issued under this chapter, which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the director, or which license was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled;

(2) Has been found guilty of any felony within the past five years involving moral turpitude, or for any misdemeanor concerning fraud or conversion, or suffering any judgment in any civil action involving wilful fraud, misrepresentation or conversion;

(3) Has made a false statement of a material fact in his application or in any data attached thereto;

(4) Has violated any provisions of this chapter, or failed to comply with any rule or regulation issued by the director pursuant to this chapter. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 13.]

19.31.140 Fees for licensees. The director shall determine the fees, as provided in RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, charged to those parties licensed as employment agencies for original applications, renewal per year, branch license, both original and renewal, transfer of license, and approval of amended or new contracts and/or fee schedules. [1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 92; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 14.]

19.31.150 Employment condition precedent to charging fee. No employment agency shall charge or accept a fee or other consideration from an applicant without complying with the terms of a written contract as specified in RCW 19.31.040, and then only after such agency has been responsible for referring such job applicant to an employer or such employer to a job applicant and where as a result thereof such job applicant has been employed by such employer. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 15.]

19.31.160 Charging fee or payment contrary to chapter—Return of excess. Any employment agency which collects, receives, or retains a fee or other payment contrary to the provisions of this chapter or to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter shall return the excessive portion of the fee within seven days after receiving a demand therefor from the director. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 16.]

(1) If an applicant accepts employment by agreement with an employer and thereafter never reports for work, the gross fee charged to the applicant shall not exceed:

(a) Ten percent of what the first month's gross salary or wages would be, if known; or (b) ten percent of the first month's drawing account. If the employment was to have been on a commission basis without any drawing account, then no fee may be charged in the event that the applicant never reports for work.

(2) If an applicant accepts employment on a commission basis without any drawing account, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall be a percentage of commissions actually earned.

(3) If an applicant accepts employment and if within sixty days of his reporting for work the employment is terminated, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not exceed twenty percent of the gross salary, wages or commission received by him.

(4) If an applicant accepts temporary employment as a domestic, household employee, baby sitter, agricultural worker, or day laborer, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not be in excess of twenty-five percent of the first full month's gross salary or wages: Provided, That where an applicant accepts employment as a domestic or household employee for a period of less than one month, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the gross salary or wages paid.

(5) Any applicant requesting a refund of a fee paid to an employment agency in accordance with the terms of the approved fee schedule of the employment agency pursuant to this section shall file with the employment agency a form requesting such refund on which shall be set forth information reasonably needed and requested by the employment agency, including but not limited to the following: Circumstances under which employment was terminated, dates of employment, and gross earnings of the applicant.

(6) Refund requests which are not in dispute shall be made by the employment agency within thirty days of receipt. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 7; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 17.]

19.31.180 Posting of fee limitation and remedy provisions. Each licensee shall post the following in a conspicuous place in each office in which it conducts business: (1) The substance of RCW 19.31.150 through 19.31.170; and (2) a name and address provided by the director, in a form prescribed by him, of a person to whom complaints concerning possible violation of this chapter may be made. 19.31.190 Rules of conduct—Complaints. In addition to the other provisions of this chapter the following rules shall govern each and every employment agency:

(1) Every license or a verified copy thereof shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in each office of the employment agency;

(2) No fee shall be solicited or accepted as an application or registration fee by any employment agency solely for the purpose of being registered as an applicant for employment;

(3) No licensee or agent of the licensee shall solicit, persuade, or induce an employee to leave any employment in which the licensee or agent of the licensee has placed the employee; nor shall any licensee or agent of the licensee persuade or induce or solicit any employer to discharge any employee;

(4) No employment agency shall knowingly cause to be printed or published a false or fraudulent notice or advertisement for obtaining work or employment. All advertising by a licensee shall signify that it is an employment agency solicitation;

(5) No licensee shall fail to state in any advertisement, proposal or contract for employment that there is a strike or lockout at the place of proposed employment, if he has knowledge that such condition exists;

(6) No licensee or agent of a licensee shall directly or indirectly split, divide, or share with an employer any fee, charge, or compensation received from any applicant who has obtained employment with such employer or with any other person connected with the business of such employer;

(7) When an applicant is referred to the same employer by two licensees, the fee shall be paid to the licensee who first contacted the applicant concerning the position for that applicant: Provided, That the licensee has given the name of the employer to the applicant and has within five working days arranged an interview with the employer and the applicant was hired as the result of that interview;

(8) No licensee shall require in any manner that a potential employee or an employee of an employer make any contract with any lending agency for the purpose of fulfilling a financial obligation to the licensee;

(9) Any aggrieved person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the director charging the holder of an employment agency license with violation of this chapter and/or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 8; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 19.]

19.31.200 Employment agency advisory board—Created—Membership—Terms—Removal—Vacancies—Meetings—Officers—Duties and responsibilities. (1) There is hereby created a board to be known as the employment agency advisory board whose duty shall be to advise the director as to the administration of the provisions of this chapter and the issuance of reasonable rules and regulations for enforcing and carrying out the provisions and purposes of this chapter. Such board shall consist of eight members, seven members thereof to be appointed by the governor, five from among those persons owning or managing employment agencies, the sixth member shall be a representative of management, and the seventh shall be a representative

In carrying out the foregoing, the board may collect such information and data as the board deems necessary. The board shall be responsible for the preparation of a written examination designed to demonstrate that the person who is to have the responsibility for the general management of the office has sufficient knowledge of the applicable laws and regulations relating to the operation of employment agencies, pertinent labor laws and laws against discrimination in employment in this state and of the United States. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 21.]

19.31.220 Assurance of discontinuance of violation. In the enforcement of this chapter, the attorney general and/or any said prosecuting attorney may accept an assurance of discontinuance from any person deemed in violation of any provisions of this chapter. Any such assurance shall be in writing and shall be filed with and

19.32.010 Declaration of police power. This chapter is in exercise of the police powers of the state for the protection of the safety, health and welfare of the people of the state. It hereby is found and declared that the public welfare requires control and regulation of the operation of refrigerated lockers and of the sale, handling and processing of articles of human food in connection therewith, and the control, inspection and regulation of persons engaged therein, in order to prevent or eliminate unsanitary, unhealthful, fraudulent, and unfair or uneconomic practices and conditions in connection with the refrigerated locker business, which practices and conditions endanger public health, defraud customers, jeopardize the public source of supply and storage facilities of essential food products, and adversely affect an important and growing industry. It is further found and declared that the regulation of the refrigerated locker business, as above outlined, is in the interest of the economic and social well-being and the health and safety of the state and all of its people. [1943 c 117 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-125.]

19.32.020 Definitions. Except where the context indicates a different meaning, terms used in this chapter shall be defined as follows:

(1) "Refrigerated locker" or "locker" means any place, premises or establishment where facilities for the cold storage and preservation of human food in separate and individual compartments are offered to the public upon a rental or other basis providing compensation to the person offering such services.

(2) "Person" includes any individual, partnership, corporation, association, county, municipality, cooperative group, or other entity engaging in the business of operating or owning or offering the services of refrigerated lockers as above defined. [1943 c 117 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-126.]

19.32.030 Director—Duties. The director of agriculture is hereby empowered to prescribe and to enforce such rules and regulations and to make such definitions, and to prescribe such procedure with regard to hearings, as he may deem necessary to carry into effect the full intent and meaning of this chapter. [1943 c 117 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-131.]

19.32.040 Licensing required—Application. No person hereafter shall engage within this state in the business of owning, operating or offering the services of any refrigerated locker or lockers without having obtained from the director of agriculture a license for each such place of business. Application for such license shall be made in writing and under oath to the director of agriculture, on such forms and with such pertinent information as he may deem necessary. Such licenses shall be granted as a matter of right unless conditions exist which are grounds for a cancellation or revocation of a license as hereinafter set forth. [1943 c 117 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-127.]

19.32.050 License fees—Annual renewal. (1) The director of agriculture shall collect with each application for a refrigerated locker license, or renewal of such license, an annual fee of ten dollars. All such license and renewal fees shall be deposited in the state's general fund.

(2) Each such license shall expire on December 31st following its date of issue, unless sooner revoked for cause. Renewal may be obtained annually by surrendering to the director of agriculture the old license certificate and paying the required annual license fee. Such license fee shall not be transferable to any person nor be applicable to any location other than that for which originally issued. [1967 c 240 § 39; 1943 c 117 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-128.]

Severability—1967 c 240: See note following RCW 43.23.010.

19.32.055 Stipulated license fee to replace existent charges. Payment of the license fee stipulated herein shall be accepted in lieu of any and all existing fees and charges for like purposes or intent which may be existent prior to the adoption of this chapter. [1943 c 117 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-139.]

19.32.060 Revocation or suspension of licenses—Grounds—Notice—Review. (1) The director of agriculture may cancel or suspend any such license if he finds after proper investigation that (a) the licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or of any other law of this state relating to the operation of refrigerated lockers or of the sale of any human food in connection therewith, or any regulation effective under any act the administration of which is in the charge of the department of agriculture, or (b) the licensed refrigerated locker premises or any equipment used therein or in connection therewith is in an unsanitary condition and the licensee has failed or refused to remedy the same within ten days after receipt from the director of agriculture of written notice to do so.

(2) No license shall be revoked or suspended by the director without delivery to the licensee of a written statement of the charge involved and an opportunity to answer such charge within ten days from the date of such notice.

(3) Any order made by the director suspending or revoking any license may be reviewed by certiorari in the superior court of the county in which the licensed premises are located, within ten days from the date notice in writing of the director's order revoking or suspending such license has been served upon him. [1943 c 117 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-129. Formerly RCW 19.32.060 through 19.32.080.]

19.32.090 Revocation or suspension of licenses—Witnesses—Evidence. In any proceeding under this chapter the director of agriculture may administer oaths and issue subpoenas, summon witnesses and take testimony of any person within the state of Washington. [1943 c 117 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-134.]

19.32.100 Equipment—Operation—Controls—Temperatures. Every operator of a refrigerated locker plant shall provide a complete refrigeration system with adequate capacity and accurate and reliable controls for the maintenance of the following uniform temperatures of the various refrigerated rooms if provided, under extreme conditions of outside temperatures and under peak load conditions in the normal operation of the plant. The temperatures of the following rooms shall not exceed:

(1) Chill room, temperatures within two degrees (Fahrenheit) plus or minus of thirty-five degrees (Fahrenheit) with a tolerance of ten degrees (Fahrenheit) after fresh food is put in for chilling;

(2) Sharp freeze room, sharp freeze compartments, temperatures of minus ten degrees (Fahrenheit) or lower, or temperatures of zero degrees (Fahrenheit) or lower when forced air circulation is employed, with a tolerance of ten degrees (Fahrenheit) for either type of installation after fresh food is put in for freezing;

19.32.110 Diseased persons not to be employed—Health certificates. (1) No person afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease shall work or be permitted to work in or about any refrigerated locker, nor in the handling, dealing nor processing of any human food in connection therewith.

(2) No person shall work or be permitted to work in or about any refrigerated locker in the handling, processing or dealing in any human food or any ingredient thereof without holding a certificate from a physician, duly accredited for that purpose by the state board of health, certifying that such person has been examined and found free from any contagious or infectious disease. The state board of health may fix a maximum fee, not exceeding two dollars which may be charged by a physician for such examination. Such certificate shall be effective for a period of six months and thereafter must be renewed following proper physical examination as aforesaid. Where such certificate is required and provided under municipal ordinance upon examination deemed adequate by the state board of health, certificates issued thereunder shall be sufficient under this chapter.

(3) Any such certificate shall be revoked by the state board of health at any time the holder thereof is found, after proper physical examination, to be afflicted with any communicable or infectious disease. Refusal of any person employed in such premises to submit to proper and reasonable physical examination upon written demand by the state board of health or of the director of agriculture shall be cause for revocation of that person's health certificate. [1943 c 117 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-130. Formerly RCW 19.32.110 through 19.32.140.]

19.32.150 Inspection of lockers and vehicles. The director of agriculture shall cause to be made periodically a thorough inspection of each establishment licensed under this chapter to determine whether or not the premises are constructed, equipped and operated in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and of all other laws of this state applicable to the operation either of refrigerated lockers or of the handling of human food in connection therewith, and of all regulations effective under this chapter relative to such operation. Such inspection shall also be made of each vehicle used by [an] operator of refrigerated lockers or of an establishment handling human food in connection therewith, when such vehicle is used in transporting or distributing human food products to or from refrigerated lockers within this state. [1943 c 117 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-132.]

19.32.160 Liability for loss of goods. 19.32.165 Owners or operators not warehousemen. Persons who own or operate refrigerated locker plants shall not be construed to be warehousemen, nor shall receipts or other instruments issued by such persons in the ordinary conduct of their business be construed to be negotiable warehouse receipts. [1943 c 117 § 14; Rem.

Supp. 1943 § 6294–138. Formerly RCW 19.32.160, part.]

19.32.170 Operator's lien—Liability for game law violations. Every operator of a locker shall have a lien upon all the property of every kind in his possession for all lockers' rentals, processing, handling or other charges due. Such lien may be foreclosed under the procedures as provided in chapter 60.10 RCW and RCW 61.12.162.

(1) Locker owners and operators shall not be responsible for liability for violations of game or other laws by renters unless the contents of the locker are under the control of the locker plant operator. [1969 c 82 § 10; 1943 c 117 § 13; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–137. Formerly RCW 19.32.160, part.]

"Conveyance" includes every payment of money, assignment, release, transfer, lease, mortgage or pledge of tangible or intangible property, and also the creation of any lien or incumbrance, except when given to a trustee or assignee for the benefit of all unsecured creditors.

"Creditor" is a person having any claim, whether matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, absolute, fixed or contingent.

(2) In determining whether a partnership is insolvent there shall be added to the partnership property the present fair salable value of the separate assets of each general partner in excess of the amount probably sufficient to meet the claims of his separate creditors, and also the amount of any unpaid subscription to the partnership of each limited partner, provided the present fair salable value of the assets of such limited partner is probably sufficient to pay his debts, including such unpaid subscription. [1945 c 136 § 2; RRS § 5854-41.]

Partnerships: Title 25 RCW.

19.40.030 Fair consideration. Fair consideration is given for property, or obligation,

19.40.040 Conveyances by insolvent. 19.40.050 Conveyances by persons in business. Every conveyance made without fair consideration when the person making it is engaged or is about to engage in a business or transaction for which the property remaining in his hands after the conveyance is an unreasonably small capital, is fraudulent as to creditors and as to other persons who become creditors during the continuance of such business or transaction without regard to his actual intent. 19.40.080 Conveyance of partnership property. Every conveyance of partnership property and every partnership obligation incurred when the partnership is or will be thereby rendered insolvent, is fraudulent as to partnership creditors, if the conveyance is made or obligation is incurred.

19.40.090 Rights of creditors whose claims have matured. 19.40.100 Rights of creditors whose claims have not matured. 19.58.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to establish fair and open procedures for bidding and negotiation for the right to exhibit motion pictures in the state in order to prevent unfair and deceptive acts or practices and unreasonable restraints of trade in the business of motion picture distribution and exhibition within the state; to promote fair and effective competition in that business; and to insure that exhibitors have the opportunity to view a motion picture and know its contents before committing themselves to exhibiting the motion picture in their communities. [1979 1st ex.s. c 29 § 1.]

19.58.020 Definitions. The definitions contained in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Bid" means a written or oral offer or proposal to buy made by an exhibitor to a distributor in response to an invitation to bid for the license or right to exhibit a motion picture, the license stating the terms under which the exhibitor agrees to exhibit the motion picture.

(2) "Blind bidding" means the exhibitor's bidding or negotiating for, or the exhibitor's offering or agreeing to, terms for the license or right to exhibit a feature motion picture at any time either before the feature motion picture has been trade screened within the state or before the feature motion picture has been otherwise made available for viewing within the state by all exhibitors.

(3) "Blind selling" means the practice whereby a distributor licenses a feature motion picture before the exhibitor is afforded an opportunity to view the feature motion picture by trade screening.

(4) "Buying" or "selling" of the right to exhibit a feature motion picture means the licensing of a theater to show the feature motion picture for a certain number of days for a certain price.

(5) "Distributor" means a person engaged in the business of distributing or supplying more than one feature motion picture per year to exhibitors by rental, sale, licensing, or other agreement.

(6) "Exhibit" or "exhibition" means playing or showing a feature motion picture to the public for an admission charge.

(7) "Exhibitor" means a person in the business of operating one or more theaters in which motion pictures are exhibited to the public.

(8) "Feature motion picture" means a motion picture exceeding sixty minutes in duration.

(11) "Person" means one or more individuals, firms, partnerships, associations, societies, trusts, organizations, or corporations.

(12) "Run" means the continuous exhibition of a feature motion picture in a defined geographic area for a specified period of time. A "first run" is the first exhibition of the feature motion picture in the defined area; a "second run" is the second exhibition; and "subsequent runs" are subsequent exhibitions after the second run. "Exclusive run" is a run limited to a single theater in a defined geographic area and a "nonexclusive run" is a run in more than one theater in a defined geographic area.

(13) "Theater" means an establishment in which feature motion pictures are regularly exhibited to the public for an admission charge.

(14) "Trade screening" means the exhibition of a feature motion picture, prior to its release for public exhibition by a distributor, in the largest city within the state, which is open to all exhibitors from whom the distributor intends to solicit bids or with whom the distributor intends to negotiate for the license or right to exhibit the feature motion picture. [1979 1st ex.s. c 29 § 2.]

19.58.030 Blind bidding or blind selling prohibited—Trade screening required—Notice. (1) The buying or selling of the right to exhibit a feature motion picture by blind bidding or blind selling is prohibited within the state.

(2) No bids may be returnable, no negotiations for the exhibition or licensing of a motion picture may take place, and no license agreement or any of its terms may be agreed upon, for the exhibition of a feature motion picture within the state before the feature motion picture has either been trade screened or otherwise made available for viewing by all exhibitors within the state.

(3) A distributor shall provide reasonable and uniform notice of the trade screening of feature motion pictures to those exhibitors within the state from whom bids will be solicited or with whom negotiations will be conducted for the license or right to exhibit the feature motion picture.

(4) A purported waiver of the prohibition in this chapter against blind bidding or blind selling is void and unenforceable. [1979 1st ex.s. c 29 § 3.]

19.58.040 Solicitation of bids. If bids are solicited from exhibitors for the licensing of a feature motion picture within the state, then:

(1) The invitation to bid shall specify: (a) Whether the run for which the bid is being solicited is a first, second, or subsequent run; whether the run is an exclusive or nonexclusive run; and, the geographic area for the run; (b) the names of all exhibitors who are being solicited; (c) the date and hour the invitation to bid expires; and (d) the time, date, and location, including the address, where the bids will be opened, which shall be within the state.

(2) All bids shall be submitted in writing and shall be opened at the same time and in the presence of those exhibitors, or their agents, who submitted bids and who attend the bid opening.

(3) Immediately upon being opened, the bids shall be subject to examination by the exhibitors, or their agents, who submitted bids, and who are present at the opening. Within ten business days after the bids are opened, the distributor shall notify each exhibitor who submitted a bid either the name of the winning bidder or the fact that none of the bids were acceptable.

(4) Once bids are solicited, the distributor shall license the feature motion picture only by bidding and may solicit rebids if none of the submitted bids are acceptable. [1979 1st ex.s. c 29 § 4.]

19.58.050 Violation—Civil suit—Attorneys' fees. Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations or to recover the actual damages sustained, or both, together with the costs of the suit. In any such action, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party. [1979 1st ex.s. c 29 § 5.]

19.58.900 Short title. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington motion picture fair competition act. [1979 1st ex.s. c 29 § 6.]

(c) is primarily merely a surname; or

(6) Consists of or comprises a trademark which so resembles a trademark registered in this state, or a trademark or trade name previously used in this state by another and not abandoned, as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of the applicant, to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive. [1955 c 211 § 2.]

19.77.030 Application for registration. Subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter, any person who has adopted and is using a trademark in this state may file in the office of the secretary of state, on a form to be furnished by the secretary of state, an application for registration of that trademark setting forth, but not limited to, the following information:

(1) The name and business address of the applicant, and, if the applicant is a corporation, its state of incorporation;

(2) The particular goods or services in connection with which the trademark is used and the class in which such goods or services fall;

(3) The manner in which the trademark is placed on or affixed to the goods or containers, or displayed in connection with such goods, or used in connection with the sale or advertising of the services;

(4) The date when the trademark was first used with each of such goods or services anywhere and the date when it was first used with each of such goods or services in this state by the applicant or his predecessor in business;

(5) A statement that the trademark is presently in use in this state by the applicant; and

(6) A statement that the applicant believes himself to be the owner of the trademark and believes that no other person has the right to use such trademark in connection with the same or similar goods or services in this state either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance thereto as might be calculated to deceive or to be mistaken therefor.

A single application for registration of a trademark may specify all goods or services in a single class for which the trademark is actually being used, but may not specify goods or services in different classes.

The application shall be signed and verified by the applicant individual, or by a member of the applicant firm, or by an officer of the applicant corporation, association, union or other organization.

The application shall be accompanied by three specimens or facsimiles of the trademark for at least one of the goods or services for which its registration is requested, and a filing fee of ten dollars payable to the secretary of state. [1955 c 211 § 3.]

19.77.040 Certificate of registration—Issuance—Contents—Admissibility in evidence. Upon compliance by the applicant with the requirements of this chapter, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of registration and deliver it to the applicant. The certificate of registration shall be issued under the signature of the secretary of state and the seal of the state, and it shall show the registrant's name and business address and, if the registrant is a corporation, its state of incorporation, the date claimed for the first use of the trademark anywhere, the date claimed for the first use of the trademark in this state, the particular goods or services for which the trademark is used, the class in which such goods and services fall, a reproduction of the trademark, the registration date and the term of the registration.

Any certificate of registration issued by the secretary of state under the provisions hereof or a copy thereof duly certified by the secretary of state shall be admissible in evidence as competent and sufficient proof of the registration of such trademark in any action or judicial proceeding in any court of this state. [1955 c 211 § 4.]

19.77.050 Duration of certificate—Renewal. Registration of a trademark hereunder shall be effective for a term of ten years from the date of registration. Upon application filed within six months prior to the expiration of such term, on a form to be furnished by the secretary of state requiring all the allegations of an application for original registration, the registration may be renewed for successive terms of ten years as to the goods or services for which the trademark is still in use in this state. A renewal fee of ten dollars, payable to the secretary of state, shall accompany each application for renewal of the registration.

The secretary of state shall notify registrants of trademarks hereunder or their agents for service of record with the secretary of state of the necessity of renewal within the year, but not less than six months, next preceding the expiration of the unexpired original or renewed term by writing to the last known address of the registrants or their agents according to the files of the secretary of state.

Any registration in force on September 1, 1955 shall expire five years from the date of the registration or one year after September 1, 1955, whichever date is later, and may be renewed as provided for renewing registrations under this chapter. A separate renewal application is required for goods in each class.

The secretary of state shall, within six months after September 1, 1955, notify all registrants of trademarks under previous acts of the date of expiration of their registrations by writing to the last known address of the registrants according to the files of the secretary of state, unless such registrations have been renewed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [1955 c 211 § 5.]

19.77.060 Assignment of trademark, registration, or application. Any trademark and its registration or application for registration hereunder shall be assignable with the good will of the business in which the trademark is used, or with that part of the good will of the business connected with the use of and symbolized by the trademark. An assignment by an instrument in writing duly executed and acknowledged, or the designation of a legal representative, successor, or agent for service shall be recorded by the secretary of state on request when accompanied by a fee of five dollars payable to the secretary of state. On request, upon recording of the assignment and payment of a further fee of three dollars, the secretary of state shall issue in the name of the assignee a new certificate for the remainder of the unexpired original or renewal term of the registration. An assignment of any registration or application for registration under this chapter shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser for a valuable consideration without notice, unless it is recorded with the secretary of state within three months after the date thereof or prior to such subsequent purchase. [1955 c 211 § 6.]

19.77.070 Secretary of state to keep records. The secretary of state shall keep for public examination a record of all trademarks registered or renewed under this chapter, and the records specified in RCW 19.77.060. [1955 c 211 § 7.]

19.77.080 Secretary of state must cancel certain registrations. The secretary of state shall cancel from the register:

(1) After one year from September 1, 1955, all registrations under prior acts which are more than five years old and not renewed in accordance with this chapter;

(2) Any registration concerning which the secretary of state shall receive a voluntary written request for cancellation thereof from the registrant;

(3) All expired registrations not renewed under this chapter;

(4) Any registration concerning which a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, upon filing of a certified copy of such decree with the secretary of state, shall adjudge:

(a) That the registered trademark has been abandoned; or

(b) That the registrant is not the owner of the trademark; or

(c) That the registration was granted improperly; or

(d) That the registration was obtained fraudulently; or

(e) That the registration be canceled on any ground.

[1955 c 211 § 8.]

19.77.090 Actions relating to registration—Service on secretary of state. The secretary of state shall be the agent for service of process in any action relating to the registration of any registrant who is at the time of such service a nonresident or a foreign firm, corporation, association, union, or other organization without a resident of this state designated as the registrant's agent for service of record with the secretary of state, or who cannot be found in this state, and service of process, pleadings and papers in such action made upon the secretary of state shall be held as due and sufficient process upon the registrant. [1955 c 211 § 9.]

19.77.100 Cancellation at instance of person damaged. Any person who believes he will be damaged by a registration of a trademark by the secretary of state may request cancellation of such registration by filing with the secretary of state in duplicate a verified petition setting forth the facts in support of such request, accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars payable to the secretary of state. To each copy of said petition for cancellation there shall be attached a copy of each of the trademarks or trade names, or the personal name, portrait, or signature, of the petitioner, or other exhibits of like character relied on in the petition. Thereafter the secretary of state shall mail to the registrant or his agent for service of record with the secretary of state a copy of said petition, addressed to the last known address of the registrant or such agent according to the files of the secretary of state, accompanied by a notice that said registrant may, within twenty days if the registrant is a resident of the state of Washington, or within sixty days if the registrant is a nonresident of the state of Washington, file in duplicate a verified answer to said petition. Thereafter the secretary of state shall forward a copy of said answer to said petitioner, accompanied by a notice that said petitioner may, within a specified time, not less than twenty days, file in duplicate a verified statement as to any further facts which are pertinent to issues raised by said answer, and the secretary of state shall in like manner forward a copy thereof to said registrant or such agent. The secretary of state shall then fix a hearing date not less than thirty days from the last day that the petitioner may file a statement of further facts. Written notice of such hearing shall be served on the parties by the secretary of state not less than fifteen days before the hearing in the same manner as the petition and answer were forwarded. Additional relevant testimony or other evidence may be introduced by the parties, and the secretary of state may subpoena such witnesses as he deems necessary. The parties shall have the right to be represented by counsel. On conclusion of the hearing the secretary of state shall grant or deny the petitioner's request for cancellation of the registration as the facts shall warrant and shall send a copy of his decision to the petitioner and to the registrant or such agent. If the secretary of state finds that the trademark should not have been registered, or is in violation of the common law rights of the petitioner, or if the secretary of state receives no answer from the registrant within the time limits specified hereinabove, he shall cancel said registration from the register, unless a petition for review of such decision is filed as provided hereinafter.

Either the petitioner or the registrant may, within sixty days after mailing of the copy of the decision by the secretary of state, file in the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county, and mail to the secretary of state and the other party or such agent at his last known address according to the files of the secretary of state, a petition for review of the decision of the secretary of state. The court shall review such decision on the basis of the record before the secretary of state for the purpose of determining the reasonableness and lawfulness of such decision and, subject to the right of appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state, the decree of the superior court shall be binding upon the secretary of state with respect to the granting or denial of the petitioner's request for cancellation. In any such petition for review the secretary of state shall be a necessary party, and the petitioner for cancellation and the registrant shall be proper parties. [1971 c 81 § 65; 1955 c 211 § 10.]

The court may make such additional orders or judgments as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any moneys or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 1; 1961 c 216 § 8.]

Any such assurance shall be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business, or in Thurston county.

Such assurance of discontinuance shall not be considered an admission of a violation for any purpose; however, proof of failure to comply with the assurance of discontinuance shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 3; 1961 c 216 § 10.]

19.86.110 Demand to produce documentary materials for inspection—Contents—Service—Unauthorized disclosure—Return—Modification, vacation—Use—Penalty. (1) Whenever the attorney general believes that any person may be in possession, custody, or control of any original or copy of any book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription, or other tangible document or recording, wherever situate, which he believes to be relevant to the subject matter of an investigation of a possible violation of RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060, he may, prior to the institution of a civil proceeding thereon, execute in writing and cause to be served upon such a person, a civil investigative demand requiring such person to produce such documentary material and permit inspection and copying: Provided, That this section shall not be applicable to criminal prosecutions.

(2) Each such demand shall:

(b) Describe the class or classes of documentary material to be produced thereunder with reasonable specificity so as fairly to indicate the material demanded;

(c) Prescribe a return date within which the documentary material is to be produced; and

(d) Identify the members of the attorney general's staff to whom such documentary material is to be made available for inspection and copying.

(3) No such demand shall:

(a) Contain any requirement which would be unreasonable or improper if contained in a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state; or

(b) Require the disclosure of any documentary material which would be privileged, or which for any other reason would not be required by a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state.

(4) Service of any such demand may be made by:

(a) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the person to be served, or, if such person is not a natural person, to any officer of the person to be served; or

(b) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the principal place of business in this state of the person to be served; or

(c) Mailing by registered or certified mail a duly executed copy thereof addressed to the person to be served at the principal place of business in this state, or, if said person has no place of business in this state, to his principal office or place of business.

The attorney general or any assistant attorney general may use such copies of documentary material as he determines necessary in the enforcement of this chapter, including presentation before any court: Provided, That any such material which contains trade secrets shall not be presented except with the approval of the court in which action is pending after adequate notice to the person furnishing such material.

(7) At any time before the return date specified in the demand, or within twenty days after the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, a petition to extend the return date for, or to modify or set aside a demand issued pursuant to subsection (1), stating good cause, may be filed in the superior court for Thurston county, or in such other county where the parties reside. A petition, by the person on whom the demand is served, stating good cause, to require the attorney general or any person to perform any duty imposed by the provisions of this section, and all other petitions in connection with a demand, may be filed in the superior court for Thurston county, or in the county where the parties reside.

(8) Whenever any person fails to comply with any civil investigative demand for documentary material duly served upon him under this section, or whenever satisfactory copying or reproduction of any such material cannot be done and such person refuses to surrender such material, the attorney general may file, in the trial court of general jurisdiction of the county in which such person resides, is found, or transacts business, and serve upon such person a petition for an order of such court for the enforcement of this section, except that if such person transacts business in more than one county such petition shall be filed in the county in which such person maintains his principal place of business, or in such other county as may be agreed upon by the parties to such petition. Whenever any petition is filed in the trial court of general jurisdiction of any county under this section, such court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter so presented and to enter such order or orders as may be required to carry into effect the provisions of this section. Disobedience of any order entered under this section by any court shall be punished as a contempt thereof. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 4; 1961 c 216 § 11.]

19.86.120 Limitation of actions—Tolling. Any action to enforce a claim for damages under RCW 19.86.090 shall be forever barred unless commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues: Provided, That whenever any action is brought by the attorney general for a violation of RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060, except actions for the recovery of a civil penalty for violation of an injunction or actions under RCW 19.86.090, the running of the foregoing statute of limitations, with respect to every private right of action for damages under RCW 19.86.090 which is based in whole or part on any matter complained of in said action by the attorney general, shall be suspended during the pendency thereof. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 5; 1961 c 216 § 12.]

Limitation of actions: Chapter 4.16 RCW.

19.86.130 Final judgment to restrain is prima facie evidence in civil action—Exceptions. A final judgment or decree rendered in any action brought under RCW 19.86.080 by the state of Washington to the effect that a defendant has violated RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060 shall be prima facie evidence against such defendant in any action brought by any party against such defendant under RCW 19.86.090 as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel as between the parties thereto: Provided, That this section shall not apply to consent judgments or decrees where the court makes no finding of illegality. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 6; 1961 c 216 § 13.]

19.86.140 Civil penalties. Every person who shall violate RCW 19.86.030 or 19.86.040 or the terms of any injunction issued as in this chapter provided, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars.

Every person who violates RCW 19.86.020 shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than two thousand dollars for each violation: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph shall apply to any radio or television broadcasting station which broadcasts, or to any publisher, printer or distributor of any newspaper, magazine, billboard or other advertising medium who publishes, prints or distributes, advertising in good faith without knowledge of its false, deceptive or misleading character.

For the purpose of this section the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties.

With respect to violations of RCW 19.86.030 and 19.86.040, the attorney general, acting in the name of the state, may seek recovery of such penalties in a civil action. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 7; 1961 c 216 § 14.]

19.86.150 Dissolution, forfeiture of corporate franchise for violations. [1961 c 216 § 15.]

19.86.160 Personal service of process outside state. Personal service of any process in an action under this chapter may be made upon any person outside the state if such person has engaged in conduct in violation of this chapter which has had the impact in this state which this chapter reprehends. the United States: Provided, however, That actions and transactions prohibited or regulated under the laws administered by the insurance commissioner shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 19.86.020 and all sections of chapter 216, Laws of 1961 and chapter 19.86 RCW which provide for the implementation and enforcement of RCW 19.86.020 except that nothing required or permitted to be done pursuant to Title 48 RCW shall be construed to be a violation of RCW 19.86.020: Provided, further, That actions or transactions specifically permitted within the statutory authority granted to any regulatory board or commission established within Title 18 RCW shall not be construed to be a violation of chapter 19.86 RCW: Provided, further, That this chapter shall apply to actions and transactions in connection with the disposition of human remains.

RCW 9A.20.010(2) shall not be applicable to the terms of this chapter and no penalty or remedy shall result from a violation of this chapter except as expressly provided herein. [1977 c 49 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 158 § 1; 1967 c 147 § 1; 1961 c 216 § 17.]

19.86.900 Severability—1961 c 216. If any provision of this act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the act and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. [1961 c 216 § 18.]

19.86.910 Short title. This act shall be known and designated as the "Consumer Protection Act." [1961 c 216 § 19.]

19.86.920 Purpose—Interpretation—Liberal construction—Saving—1961 c 216. The legislature hereby declares that the purpose of this act is to complement the body of federal law governing restraints of trade, unfair competition and unfair, deceptive, and fraudulent acts or practices in order to protect the public and foster fair and honest competition. It is the intent of the legislature that, in construing this act, the courts be guided by the interpretation given by the federal courts to the various federal statutes dealing with the same or similar matters and that in deciding whether conduct restrains or monopolizes trade or commerce or may substantially lessen competition, determination of the relevant market or effective area of competition shall not be limited by the boundaries of the state of Washington. To this end this act shall be liberally construed that its beneficial purposes may be served.

It is, however, the intent of the legislature that this act shall not be construed to prohibit acts or practices which are reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business or which are not injurious to the public interest, nor shall this act be construed to repeal by implication *the Fair Trade Act contained in chapter 19.89 RCW. [1961 c 216 § 20.]

Reviser's note: *the Fair Trade Act contained in chapter 19.89 RCW was repealed by 1975 c 55 § 1.

"Loss leader" means any article or product sold at less than cost as herein defined to induce, promote or encourage, the purchase of other merchandise, or which may have the tendency or capacity to mislead or deceive purchasers or prospective purchasers, or which diverts trade from or otherwise injures competitors;

"Vendor," in addition to its usual meaning, includes any person who performs work upon, renovates, alters or improves any personal property belonging to another person;

"Ordinary channels of trade" shall mean those ordinary, regular and daily transactions in the mercantile trade whereby title to an article or product, in no way damaged or deteriorated, is transferred from one person to another, and shall not include sales of bankrupt stocks, closeout goods, dents, sales of goods bought from a business or merchant retiring from business, fire sales and sales of damaged or deteriorated goods, which damage or deterioration results from any cause whatsoever: Provided, That this last listing herein shall not be held to be all inclusive but as an example only. [1939 c 221 § 1; RRS § 5854-21. Formerly RCW 19.88.010, part.]

19.90.020 Price cutting—Allowable differentials and customer classes—Excepted articles and services—Rebates, etc. It shall be unlawful for any person, engaged in the production, manufacture, distribution or sale of any article or product of general use or consumption, with the intent to destroy the competition of any regular established dealer in such article or product, or to prevent the competition of any person, who in good faith, intends and attempts to become such dealer, to discriminate between different sections of the same community, city, town or village in this state, by selling or furnishing such article or product at a lower price in one such section than in another: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make allowances for differences, if any, in the grade, quality or quantity when based and justified in the cost of manufacture, sale or delivery, or the actual cost of transportation from the point of production if a raw product or commodity, or from the point of manufacture if a manufactured product or commodity, or from the point of shipment to the point of destination: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall prevent a selection of customers or a functional classification by any person of any customer as broker, jobber, wholesaler or retailer or a differential in price for any article or product as between any customers in different functional classifications. Motion picture films when licensed for exhibition to motion picture houses shall not be deemed to be an article or product under this chapter. Neither shall anything in this chapter be deemed to apply to any service, article or product for which rates are established under the jurisdiction of the department of public service of the state of Washington and which are sold or furnished by any public utility corporation, or installation and repair services rendered in connection with any services, article or products; or to any service, article or product sold or furnished by a publicly owned public utility and upon which the rates would have been established under the jurisdiction of the department of public service of the state of Washington if such service, article or product had been sold or furnished by a public utility corporation, or installation and repair services rendered in connection with any such service, articles or products.

The inhibition of this chapter against locality discrimination shall embrace any scheme of special rebates, collateral contracts or any device of any nature whereby such discrimination is, in substance or fact, effected in violation of the spirit and intent of this section: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the meeting in good faith of a legal competitive price. [1939 c 221 § 2; RRS § 5854-22. Formerly RCW 19.88.050 through 19.88.090.]

Reviser's note: Department of public service was abolished and its powers and duties were transferred to the department of transportation and the department of public utilities by 1945 c 267 § 7. 19.90.030 Liability of officers or agents—Sufficiency of allegation and proof. Any person who, either as director, officer or agent of any firm or corporation or as agent of any person, violating the provisions of this chapter, assists or aids, directly or indirectly, in such violation shall be responsible therefor equally with the person, firm or corporation for whom or which he acts.

In the prosecution of any person as officer, director or agent, it shall be sufficient to allege and prove the unlawful intent of the person, firm or corporation for whom or which he acts. [1939 c 221 § 3; RRS § 5854-23. Formerly RCW 19.88.140, part and 19.88.150, part.]

19.90.040 Price cutting practices forbidden—Generally. It shall be unlawful for any person engaged in business within this state to sell any article or product at less than the cost thereof to such vendor, or give away any article or product, for the purpose of injuring competitors or destroying competition, or to use any article or product as a "loss leader," or in connection with any sale to make or give, or to offer to make or give, any special or secret rebate, payment, allowance, refund, commission or unearned discount, whether in the form of money or otherwise, or to secretly extend to certain purchasers special services or privileges not extended to all purchasers purchasing upon like terms and conditions, or to make or enter into any collateral contract or device of any nature, whereby a sale below cost is effected, to the injury of a competitor, and where the same destroys or tends to destroy competition. [1939 c 221 § 4; RRS § 5854-24. Formerly RCW 19.88.040.]

19.90.050 Establishing cost—Forced sale stocks. In establishing the cost of a given article or product to the distributor and vendor, the invoice cost of said article or product purchased at a forced, bankrupt, closeout sale, or other sale outside of the ordinary channels of trade may not be used as a basis for justifying a price lower than one based upon the replacement cost as of date of said sale of said article or product replaced through the ordinary channels of trade, unless said article or product is kept separate from goods purchased in the ordinary channels of trade and unless said article or product is advertised and sold as merchandise purchased at a forced, bankrupt, closeout sale, or by means other than through the ordinary channels of trade, and said advertising shall state the conditions under which said goods were so purchased, and the quantity of such merchandise to be sold or offered for sale. [1939 c 221 § 5; RRS § 5854-25. Formerly RCW 19.88.130, part.]

In any injunction proceeding or in the prosecution of any person as officer, director or agent, it shall be sufficient to allege and prove the unlawful intent of the person, firm or corporation for whom or which he acts; and in any civil or criminal proceeding under this chapter, where a particular trade or industry, of which the person, firm or corporation complained against is a member, has an established cost survey for the locality and vicinity in which the offense is committed, the said cost survey shall be deemed competent evidence to be used in proving the costs of the person, firm or corporation complained against within the provisions of this chapter; and in any such action proof of one or more acts of selling or giving away any article or product below cost or at discriminatory prices, together with proof of the injurious effect of such acts, shall be presumptive evidence of the purpose or intent to injure competitors or destroy competition; and in any such action where it is alleged and shown that the person complained against is selling, below his cost of doing business, and said person is including labor at less than the prevailing wage scale in the trade in which such person is engaged for the locality or vicinity in which he is doing business, evidence of such prevailing wage scale shall be admissible to prove the intent or purpose of such person to violate the provisions of this chapter; or in any such action where it appears that persons are employed or performing services without compensation for any person so complained against, such services shall be charged as an expense of the business in which rendered and at the rate of the wage for the services rendered prevailing at the time of the service at the place where rendered. [1939 c 221 § 6; RRS § 5854-26. Formerly RCW 19.88.130, part and 19.88.140, part.]

19.90.070 Sales excepted. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any sale made:

(1) In closing out in good faith the owner's stock or any part thereof for the purpose of discontinuing his trade in any such article or product and in the case of the sale of seasonal goods or to the bona fide sale of perishable goods to prevent loss to the vendor by spoilage or depreciation: Provided, Notice is given to the public thereof;

(2) When the goods are damaged or deteriorated in quality, and notice is given to the public thereof;

19.90.090 Price cutting—Injunction—Civil action—Damages. Any person may maintain an action to enjoin a continuance of any act or acts in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter and, if injured thereby, for the recovery of damages. If, in such action, the court shall find that the defendant is violating or has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, it shall enjoin the defendant from a continuance thereof. It shall not be necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved. In addition to such injunctive relief, the plaintiff in said action shall be entitled to recover from the defendant the amount of the actual damages, if any, sustained by him. Commencement, pendency or conclusion of a civil action for injunction and/or damages shall not affect criminal liability. [1939 c 221 § 9; RRS § 5854–29. Formerly RCW 19.88.160.]

19.90.100 Penalties for violations. Violation of the provisions of this chapter shall constitute a misdemeanor; and any person, whether as principal, agent, officer or director, for himself, or for another person, or for any firm or corporation, or any corporation, who or which shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for each single violation and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months or by both said fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court; and any criminal action shall not affect the right of any person to bring a civil action under RCW 19.90.090. [1939 c 221 § 10; RRS § 5854–30. Formerly RCW 19.88.120.]

19.90.110 Solicitation or collusion to violate chapter—Civil or criminal liability. [1939 c 221 § 12; RRS § 5854–32. Formerly RCW 19.88.130, part.]

19.90.130 Injunction in name of state. The attorney general, in any county in which the superior court has jurisdiction, and the prosecuting attorneys, in their respective counties in which the superior court has jurisdiction, shall have power to institute and maintain an action in the name of the state of Washington to restrain and enjoin any person from performing or continuing the performance of any act or conduct which is prohibited herein. [1939 c 221 § 13; RRS § 5854–33. Formerly RCW 19.88.170.]

19.90.140 Agreements to supply at less than cost and obligating user to purchase from supplier, declared illegal—Declaration of policy. (1) The purpose of this section is to further the policy of the state of Washington in preserving free business competition by preventing monopolies and combinations in restraint of trade in violation of the Constitution, and discouraging practices tending to induce such results. Machinery, fixtures and other equipment are frequently given, leased, or sold under unusually favorable conditions with the agreement or understanding that the recipient thereof shall, insofar as a particular class of goods or merchandise is concerned, deal only in that designated by the donor, lessor, or vendor. After this control is established, temporary price cutting is usually secured through the recipient by various practices frequently beyond the control of the state. Competition is thereby destroyed and prices are then raised far beyond that which would prevail in the absence of such practices. The economy of the state and the welfare of its people are as a result seriously injured.

(2) The supplying of machinery, fixtures, or equipment to the business premises of a user thereof, at less than cost, conditioned upon the agreement of such user that certain goods, wares and merchandise or supplies used or displayed in such machinery, fixtures, or equipment in connection with user's business shall be purchased exclusively from the person supplying the machinery, fixtures, or equipment for the purpose of injuring competitors or destroying competition, is against public policy and that portion of the agreement between the supplier and the user obligating the user to purchase certain goods, wares and merchandise or supplies exclusively from the supplier is illegal and unenforceable. [1959 c 246 § 1.]

*Reviser's note: The "effective date of this act" is midnight June 10, 1959, see preface 1959 session laws.

19.90.160 Agreements to supply at less than cost and obligating user to purchase from supplier, declared illegal—Exemptions. The provisions of RCW 19.90.140 and 19.90.150 shall not apply to the supplying of service stations or other buildings, machinery, fixtures, or equipment to dealers by distributors of motor vehicle fuel, as those terms are defined in RCW 82.36.010. [1959 c 246 § 3.]

19.90.900 Severability—1939 c 221. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this chapter is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the chapter. The legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this chapter, and each section, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional. [1939 c 221 § 14.]

19.90.910 Construction—1939 c 221. The legislature declares that the purpose of this chapter is to safeguard the public against the creation or perpetuation of monopolies and to foster and encourage competition, by prohibiting unfair, dishonest, deceptive, destructive, fraudulent and discriminatory practices by which fair and honest competition is destroyed or prevented. This chapter shall be liberally construed that its beneficial purposes may be subserved. [1939 c 221 § 15.]

19.90.920 Short title. This chapter shall be known and designated as the "Unfair Practices Act." [1939 c 221 § 16.]

Tax on cigarettes: Chapter 82.24 RCW.

Tax on cigarettes for school bonds: RCW 28A.47.440.

19.91.020 Unlawful practices—Penalty. It shall be unlawful and a violation of this chapter:

(1) For any retailer or wholesaler with intent to injure competitors or destroy or substantially lessen competition:

(a) To advertise, offer to sell, or sell, at retail or wholesale, cigarettes at less than cost to such a retailer or wholesaler, as said cost is defined in this chapter, as the case may be;

(b) To offer a rebate in price, to give a rebate in price, to offer a concession of any kind, or to give a concession of any kind or nature whatsoever in connection with the sale of cigarettes.

(2) For any retailer with intent to injure competitors or destroy or substantially lessen competition:

(a) To induce or attempt to induce or to procure or attempt to procure the purchase of cigarettes at a price less than "cost to wholesalers" as defined in this chapter;

(b) To induce or attempt to induce or to procure or attempt to procure any rebate or concession of any kind or nature whatsoever in connection with the purchase of cigarettes.

(3) Any retailer or wholesaler who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be prosecuted and punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each such offense. Any individual who as a director, officer, partner, member, or agent of any person violating the provisions of this act assists or aids, directly or indirectly in such violation, shall equally with the person for whom he acts, be responsible therefor and subject to the punishment and penalties set forth herein.

(4) Evidence of advertisement, offering to sell, or sale of cigarettes by any retailer or wholesaler at less than cost to him, or evidence of any offer of a rebate in price, or the giving of a rebate in price or an offer of a concession, or the inducing, or attempt to induce, or the procuring, or the attempt to procure the purchase of cigarettes at a price less than cost to the wholesaler or the retailer, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to injure competitors and to destroy or substantially lessen competition. [1957 c 286 § 2.]

19.91.030 Sales between wholesalers. When one wholesaler sells cigarettes to any other wholesaler, the former shall not be required to include in his selling price to the latter, "cost to the wholesaler", as provided by RCW 19.91.010(10), except that no such sale shall be made at a price less than the "basic cost of cigarettes" as defined in RCW 19.91.010(9), but the latter wholesaler, upon resale to a retailer, shall be deemed to be the wholesaler governed by the provisions of RCW 19.91.010(10). [1957 c 286 § 3.]

19.91.040 Transactions involving combinations of items, gifts, trading stamps, discounts, etc. (1) In all advertisements, offers for sale or sales involving two or more items, at least one of which items is cigarettes, at a combined price, and in all advertisements, offers for sale, or sales, involving the giving of any gift or concession of any kind whatsoever (whether it be coupons or otherwise), the retailer's or wholesaler's combined selling price shall not be below the "cost to the retailer" or the "cost to the wholesaler", respectively, of the total costs of all articles, products, commodities, gifts and concessions included in such transactions.

(2) In all advertisements, offers for sale, or sales wherein there is accepted as part of the purchase price any coupon, discount slip, trading stamp, or similar device, the net purchase price after deducting the value of said coupon, discount slip, or trading stamp, shall be not less than the retailers, or the wholesalers, as the case may be, as defined by this chapter, as being "cost of the retailer", or "cost of the wholesaler", respectively. [1957 c 286 § 4.]

19.91.050 Transactions to which chapter does not apply. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to sales at retail or sales at wholesale made:

(1) As an isolated transaction and not in the usual course of business;

(3) Where cigarettes are advertised, offered for sale, or sold as imperfect or damaged, and said advertising, offer to sell, or sale shall state the reason therefor and the quantity of such cigarettes advertised, offered for sale, or to be sold;

(4) Where cigarettes are sold upon the final liquidation of a business; or

(5) Where cigarettes are advertised, offered for sale, or sold by any fiduciary or other officer acting under the order or direction of any court. [1957 c 286 § 5.]

19.91.060 Permissible advertisements, offers, sales—Action other than injunctive relief, judgment.

(1) Any retailer may advertise, offer to sell, or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the legal price, as defined in this chapter, of a competitor who is selling the same article at cost to him as a retailer as prescribed in this chapter. Any wholesaler may advertise, offer to sell, or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the legal price, as defined in this chapter, of a competitor who is rendering the same type of service and is selling the same article at cost to him as a wholesaler as prescribed in this chapter. The price of cigarettes advertised, offered for sale, or sold under the exceptions specified in RCW 19.91.050 shall not be considered the price of a competitor and shall not be used as a basis for establishing prices below cost, nor shall the price established at a bankrupt sale be considered the price of a competitor within the purview of this section.

(2) In the absence of proof of the "price of a competitor", under this section, the "lowest cost to the retailer", or the "lowest cost to the wholesaler", as the case may be, determined by any "cost survey", made pursuant to RCW 19.91.100, may be deemed the "legal price of a competitor", within the meaning of this section. If the plaintiff elect not to seek injunctive relief, but does prove actual damages, plaintiff shall be entitled to the entry of a judgment in plaintiff's favor in the amount of said damages proven, together with his costs of suit and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. [1957 c 286 § 6.]

19.91.070 Contract in violation of chapter declared void. Any contract, expressed or implied, made by any person in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, is declared to be an illegal and void contract and no recovery thereon shall be had. [1957 c 286 § 7.]

19.91.080 Determining "cost to the retailer" and "cost to the wholesaler" when person complained against.

(1) In determining "cost to the retailer" and "cost to the wholesaler" the department of revenue or a court shall receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of the cost, evidence tending to show that any person complained against under any of the provisions of this chapter purchased cigarettes, with respect to the sale of which complaint is made, at a fictitious price, or upon terms, or in such a manner, or under such invoices, as to conceal the true cost, discounts or terms of purchase, and shall also receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of such cost, evidence of the normal, customary and prevailing terms and discounts in connection with other sales of a similar nature in the trade area or state.

(2) Merchandise given gratis or payment made to a retailer or wholesaler by the manufacturer thereof for display, or advertising, or promotion purposes, or otherwise, shall not be considered in determining the cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler. [1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 13; 1957 c 286 § 8.]

Construction—Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 278: See notes following RCW 11.08.160.

19.91.090 Cost to retailer or wholesaler—Purchases outside of ordinary channels of trade. In establishing the cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler, the invoice cost of said cigarettes purchased at a forced, bankrupt, or close-out sale, or other sale outside of the ordinary channels of trade, may not be used as a basis for justifying a price lower than one based upon the replacement cost of the cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler in the quantity last purchased, through the ordinary channels of trade. [1957 c 286 § 9.]

19.91.100 Cost survey is competent evidence. Where a cost survey, pursuant to recognized statistical and cost accounting practices, has been made for the trading area in which the offense is committed, to establish the lowest "cost to the retailer" and the lowest "cost to the wholesaler", said cost survey shall be deemed competent evidence to be used in proving the cost to the person complained against within the provisions of this chapter. [1957 c 286 § 10.]

19.91.110 Civil action for violations—Costs, attorney fees. (1) In addition to penalties provided by RCW 19.91.020, any person injured by any violation of this chapter, may maintain an action in any court of equitable jurisdiction to prevent, restrain or enjoin such violation. If in such action a violation of this chapter shall be established, the court shall enjoin and restrain or otherwise prohibit such violation and in addition thereto shall assess in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant the costs of the suit and reasonable attorneys' fees. In such action it shall not be necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved, but where alleged and proved the plaintiff in said action, in addition to such injunctive relief and fees and costs of suit, shall be entitled to recover from the defendant the amount of actual damages sustained by the plaintiff. [1957 c 286 § 11.]

19.91.120 Unlawful to conduct business without license. After June 12, 1957, no person shall engage in, or conduct the business of purchasing, selling, consigning, or distributing cigarettes in this state, without having first obtained the appropriate license for that purpose as prescribed in RCW 19.91.130. [1957 c 286 § 12.]

19.91.130 Wholesalers, retailers licenses—Issuance by department of revenue—Duration. The licenses issuable by the department of revenue under this chapter shall be as follows:

- (1) Wholesalers license.
- (2) Retailers license.

All licenses shall be issued by the department of revenue, which shall make rules and regulations respecting applications therefor and issuance thereof. The department of revenue may refrain from the issuance of any license under this chapter, where it has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has wilfully withheld information requested of him for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the applicant to receive a license, or where it has reasonable cause to believe that information submitted in the application is false or misleading or is not made in good faith. Each such license shall lapse on the last day of June of the period for which it is issued, and each such license shall be continued annually upon the conditions that the licensee shall have paid the required fee and complied with all the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the department of revenue made pursuant thereto. [1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 14; 1957 c 286 § 13.]

Construction—Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 278: See notes following RCW 11.08.160.

19.91.140 Wholesaler license fee—Display of license—Wholesaler's bond. For each license issued to a wholesaler, and for each continuance thereof, there shall be paid to the department of revenue a fee of three hundred dollars. If a wholesaler sells or intends to sell cigarettes at two or more places of business, whether established or temporary, a separate license with a license fee of twenty-five dollars shall be required for each additional place of business. Each license, or certificate thereof, and such other evidence of license as the department of revenue shall require, shall be exhibited in the place of business for which it is issued and in such manner as may be prescribed by the department of revenue. The department of revenue shall require each licensed wholesaler to file with him a bond in an amount not less than one thousand dollars to guarantee the proper performance of his duties and the discharge of his liabilities under this chapter. The bond shall be executed by such licensed wholesaler as principal, and by a corporation approved by the department of revenue and authorized to engage in business as a surety company in this state, as surety. The bond shall run concurrently with the wholesaler's license. [1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 15; 1957 c 286 § 14.]

Construction—Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 278: See notes following RCW 11.08.160.

19.91.150 Retailer license fee—Vending machine fee. For each license issued to a retail dealer and for each continuance thereof, there shall be paid to the department of revenue a fee of five dollars. For each license issued to a retail dealer operating a cigarette vending machine, and for each continuance thereof, there shall be paid to the department of revenue a fee of one additional dollar for each vending machine. [1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 16; 1957 c 286 § 15.]

Construction—Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 278: See notes following RCW 11.08.160.

19.91.160 Separate licenses to operate in each capacity required. Any person licensed only as a wholesaler, or as a retail dealer, shall not operate in any other capacity except under that for which he is licensed herein, unless the additional appropriate license or licenses are first secured. [1957 c 286 § 16.]

19.91.170 Engaging in business without license prohibited—Penalty. Any person who shall engage in any business or activity for which a license is required under the provisions of this chapter, without first having obtained a license to do so, or who, having had such a license, shall continue to engage in or conduct such business after any such license shall have been revoked, or during a suspension thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1957 c 286 § 17.]

19.91.180 Administration of chapter—Rules—Revocation, suspension, reinstatement of license, procedure—Appeals. (1) In addition to the penalties and rights imposed and set forth in RCW 19.91.020 and 19.91.110, the department of revenue may enforce the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue shall have the power to adopt, amend and repeal rules and regulations necessary to enforce and administer the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue is given full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license or permit of any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer in the state of Washington upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of this chapter or upon the failure of such licensee or permittee to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) No license or licenses shall be suspended or revoked except upon notice to the licensee and after a hearing as prescribed by said department of revenue. The said department of revenue, upon a finding by same, that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, shall, in the case of the first offender, suspend the license or licenses of the said licensee for a period of not less than five nor more than twenty consecutive business days, and, in the case of a second or plural offender, shall suspend said license or licenses for a period of not less than twenty consecutive business days nor more than twelve months, and, in the event the said department of revenue finds the offender has been guilty of wilful and persistent violations, it may revoke said person's license or licenses.

(3) Any person whose license or licenses have been so revoked may apply to the department of revenue at the expiration of one year for a reinstatement of his license or licenses. Such license or licenses may be reinstated by the department of revenue if it shall appear to the satisfaction of said department of revenue that the licensee will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(4) No person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall sell cigarettes or permit cigarettes to be sold during the period of such suspension or revocation on the premises occupied by him or upon other premises controlled by him or others or in any other manner or form whatever.

(5) Any determination and order by the department of revenue, and any order of suspension or revocation by the department of revenue of the license or licenses, or refusal to reinstate a license or licenses after revocation shall be reviewable by an appeal to the superior court of Thurston county in and for the state of Washington. Said superior court shall review the order or ruling of

19.94.160 State standards. Weights and measures in conformity with the standards of the United States as have been supplied to the state by the federal government or otherwise obtained by the state for use as state standards, shall, when the same shall have been certified as such by the national bureau of standards, be the state standards of weight and measure. The state standards shall be kept in a place designated by the director and shall not be removed from the said place except for repairs or for certification: Provided, That they shall be submitted at least once in ten years to the national bureau of standards for certification. [1969 c 67 § 16.]

19.94.190 Rules and regulations—Correct and incorrect apparatus. The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter and shall issue from time to time reasonable rules and regulations for enforcing and carrying out the purposes of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall have the effect of law and may include (1) standards of net weight, measure, or count, and reasonable standards of fill for any commodity in package form, (2) rules governing the technical and reporting procedures to be followed, and the report and record forms and marks of rejection to be used by the director and city sealers in the discharge of their official duties, (3) rules governing technical test procedures, reporting procedures, record and reporting forms to be used by commercial firms when installing, repairing or testing commercial weights or measures, (4) rules providing that all weights and measures used by commercial firms in repairing or servicing commercial weighing and measuring devices shall be calibrated by the department and be directly traceable to state standards and shall be submitted to the department for calibration and certification as necessary and/or at such reasonable intervals as may be established or required by the director, (5) exemptions from the sealing or marking requirements of RCW 19.94.250 with respect to weights and measures of such character or size that such sealing or marking would be inappropriate, impracticable, or damaging to the apparatus in question, (6) exemptions from the requirements of RCW 19.94.200 and 19.94.210 for testing, with respect to classes of weights and measures found to be of such character that periodic retesting is unnecessary to continued accuracy. These regulations shall include specifications, tolerances, and regulations for weights and measures of the character of those specified in RCW 19.94.210, designed to eliminate from use, without prejudice to apparatus that conforms as closely as practicable to the official standards, those (a) that are not accurate, (b) that are of such construction that they are faulty, that is, that are not reasonably permanent in their adjustment or will not repeat their indications correctly, or (c) that facilitate the perpetration of fraud. The specifications, tolerances, and regulations for commercial weighing and measuring devices, together with amendments thereto, as recommended by the national bureau of standards Handbook 44, third edition as published at the time of the enactment of this chapter shall be the specifications, tolerances, and regulations for commercial weighing and/or measuring devices of the state. To promote uniformity, any supplements or amendments to Handbook 44 or any similar subsequent publication of the national bureau of standards shall be deemed to have been adopted under this section. The director may, however, within thirty days of the publication or effective date of Handbook 44 or any supplements, amendments, or similar publications give public notice that a hearing will be held to determine if such publications should not be applicable under this section. The hearing shall be conducted under chapter 34.04 RCW. For the purpose of this chapter, apparatus shall be deemed to be "correct" when it conforms to all applicable requirements promulgated as specified in this section; all other apparatus shall be deemed to be "incorrect". He shall test all weights and measures used in checking the receipt or disbursement of supplies in every institution for the maintenance of which moneys are appropriated by the legislature, and he shall report his findings, in writing, to the executive officer of the institution concerned. [1969 c 67 § 20.]

19.94.210 Inspection and testing of weights and measures—Single-service devices, sample lots. If not otherwise provided by law, the director shall have the power to inspect and test to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures kept, offered, or exposed for sale. A representative sample may be used as the basis to determine whether any lot is incorrect. It shall be the duty of the director, except in cities for which city sealers of weights and measures have been appointed as provided for in this chapter, as often as he may deem necessary, to inspect and test to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures commercially used (1) in determining the weight, measurement, or count of commodities or things sold, or offered or exposed for sale, on the basis of weight or of measure or of count, (2) in computing the basic charge or payment for services rendered on the basis of weight or of measure or of count, or (3) in determining weight or measurement or count when a charge is made for such determination: Provided, That with respect to single-service devices, that is, devices designed to be used commercially only once and to be then discarded, and with respect to devices uniformly mass-produced, as by means of a mold or die, and not susceptible of individual adjustment, the inspection and testing of each individual device shall not be required and the inspecting and testing requirements of this section will be satisfied when inspections and tests are made on representative sample lots of such devices; and the larger lot of which such sample lots are representative shall be held to be correct or incorrect upon the basis of the results of the inspections and tests on such sample lots. [1969 c 67 § 21.]

19.94.220 Investigations, purposes. The director shall investigate complaints made to him concerning violations of the provisions of this chapter, and shall, upon his own initiative, conduct such investigations as he deems appropriate and advisable to develop information on prevailing procedures in commercial quantity determination and on possible violations of the provisions of this chapter and to promote the general objective of accuracy in the determination and representation of quantity in commercial transactions. [1969 c 67 § 22.]

19.94.230 Inspections to determine conformity to law—Off sale order—Marks, tags, etc. The director shall, from time to time, weigh or measure and inspect packages or amounts of commodities kept, offered, exposed for sale, sold or in the process of delivery to determine whether the same contain the amounts represented and whether they be kept, offered, exposed for sale or sold in accordance with law; and when such packages or amounts of commodities are found not to contain the amounts represented or are found to be kept, offered or exposed for sale in violation of law, the director may order them off sale and may mark, tag, or stamp them in a manner prescribed by him. In carrying out the provisions of this section, the director may employ recognized sampling procedures under which the compliance of a given lot of packages will be determined on the basis of a result obtained on a sample selected from and representative of such lot. No person shall (1) sell, keep, offer or expose for sale any package or amount of commodity that has been ordered off sale as provided in this section unless and until such package or amount of commodity has been brought into full compliance with legal requirements or (2) dispose of any package or amount of commodity that has been ordered off sale and that has not been brought into compliance with legal requirements in any manner except with the specific approval of the director. [1969 c 67 § 23.]

19.94.240 Stop-use, stop-removal and removal orders. The director shall have the power to issue stop-use orders, stop-removal orders and removal orders with respect to weights and measures being, or susceptible of being, commercially used, and to issue stop-removal orders and removal orders with respect to packages or amounts of commodities kept, offered, exposed for sale, sold or in process of delivery, whenever in the course of his enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and/or rules and regulations adopted hereunder he deems it necessary or expedient to issue such orders. No person shall use, remove from the premises specified or fail to remove from any premises specified any weight, measure, or package or amount of commodity contrary to the terms of a stop-use order, stop-removal order or removal order issued under the authority of this section. [1969 c 67 § 24.]

19.94.250 Rejection of incorrect weights and measures. The director shall reject and mark or tag as "rejected" such weights and measures as he finds upon inspection or test to be "incorrect" as defined in RCW 19.94.190, but which in his best judgment are susceptible of satisfactory repair: Provided, That such sealing or marking shall not be required with respect to such weights and measures as may be exempted therefrom by a regulation of the director issued under the authority of RCW 19.94.190. The director may reject or seize any weights and measures found to be incorrect that, in his best judgment, are not susceptible of satisfactory repair. Weights and measures that have been rejected may be confiscated and may be destroyed by the director if not corrected as required by RCW 19.94.330 or if used or disposed of contrary to the requirements of said section. [1969 c 67 § 25.]

(2) In the performance of his official duties the director is authorized at reasonable times during the normal business hours of the person using the weights and measures to enter into or upon any structure or premises where weights and measures are used or kept for commercial purposes. Should the director be denied access to any premises or establishment where such access was sought for the purposes set forth in this section, he may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for a search warrant authorizing access to such premises or establishment for said purposes. The court may, upon such application, issue the search warrant for the purposes requested. [1969 c 67 § 26.]

19.94.270 Delegation of powers and duties. The powers and duties given to and imposed upon the director by the provisions in RCW 19.94.200, 19.94.210, 19.94.220, 19.94.230, 19.94.240, 19.94.250, 19.94.260 and 19.94.350 may be performed by any of his duly authorized representatives acting under the instructions and at the direction of the director. The city sealer and his deputy sealers when acting under his instructions and at his direction shall have the same powers and shall perform the same duties within the city for which appointed as are granted to and imposed upon the director by RCW 19.94.210, 19.94.220, 19.94.230, 19.94.240, and 19.94.250. [1969 c 67 § 30.]

19.94.310 City sealers and deputies—Duties of governing body—Sealer to have annual standards comparison made. The council or other governing body of each city for which a city sealer has been appointed as provided for by RCW 19.94.280 shall (1) procure at the expense of the city such standards of weight and measure and such additional equipment, to be used for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter in such city, as may be prescribed by the director; (2) provide a suitable office for the city sealer; and (3) make provision for the necessary clerical services, supplies, transportation and for defraying contingent expenses incidental to the official activities of the city sealer in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. When the standards of weight and measure required by this section to be provided by a city shall have been examined and approved by the director, they shall be the official standards for such city. It shall be the duty of the city sealer to make, or to arrange to have made, at least as frequently as once a year, comparisons between his field standards and appropriate standards of a higher order belonging to his city or to the state, in order to maintain such field standards in accurate condition. [1969 c 67 § 31.]

19.94.320 City sealers and deputies—Director to have concurrent authority—Powers and duties of chapter are additional. In cities for which city sealers of weights and measures have been appointed as provided for in this chapter, the director shall have concurrent authority to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The powers and duties relative to weights and measures contained in this chapter shall be in addition to the powers granted to any city by law or charter. [1969 c 67 § 32.]

19.94.330 Correction of rejected weights and measures. Weights and measures that have been rejected under the authority of the director or a city sealer shall remain subject to the control of the rejecting authority until such time as suitable repair or disposition thereof has been made as required by this section. The owners of such rejected weights and measures shall cause the same to be made correct within thirty days or such longer period as may be authorized by the rejecting authority; or, in lieu of this, may dispose of the same, but only in such a manner as is specifically authorized by the rejecting authority. Weights and measures that have been rejected shall not again be used commercially until they have been officially reexamined and found to be correct or until specific written permission for such use is issued by the rejecting authority. [1969 c 67 § 33.]

Upon receipt of such a written request, the matter shall be set down for hearing to commence within fifteen days after such receipt unless the person making the request consents to a later date. After such hearing, which shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, the director shall determine whether to affirm and to continue or to rescind such order and the director shall have all powers granted under such act. [1972 ex.s. c 116 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 5.]

19.100.060 Registration statement—Effective, when. If no stop order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under RCW 19.100.120, a registration statement becomes effective at 3:00 P.M. 19.100.090 Filings, registration or finding of director—Construction. (1) Neither (a) the fact that application for registration under this law has been filed nor

(b) the fact that such registration has become effective constitutes a finding by the director that any document filed under this law is true, complete, or not

At any time after the issuance of a notification under this section the person desiring to use the advertisement may in writing request the order be rescinded. Upon receipt of such a written request, the matter shall be set down for hearing to commence within fifteen days after such receipt unless the person making the request consents to a later date. 19.100.120 Registration statement—Stop order—Grounds. The director may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of any registration statement if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that:

(5) The offering has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

(6) The applicant has failed to comply with any rule or order of the director issued pursuant to RCW 19.100.050.

(7) The applicant or registrant has failed to pay the proper registration fee but the director may enter only a denial order under this subsection and he shall vacate such order when the deficiency has been corrected. [1972 ex.s. c 116 § 8; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 12.]

Upon the entry of a stop order under any part of RCW 19.100.120, the director shall promptly notify the applicant that the order has been entered and that the reasons therefor and that within fifteen days after receipt of a written request, the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested within fifteen days and none is ordered by the director, the director shall enter his written findings of fact and conclusions of law and the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the director. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director after notice of an opportunity for hearings to the issuer and to the applicant or registrant shall enter his written findings of fact and conclusions of law and may modify or vacate the order. 19.100.140 Registration required—Franchise brokers or selling agents. (1) It is unlawful for any person to offer to sell or sell a franchise which is subject to the registration requirements of RCW 19.100.040 unless he is registered under this chapter. It is unlawful for any franchisor, subfranchisor, or franchisee, except if the transaction is exempt under RCW 19.100.030 to employ a franchise broker or selling agent unless he is registered.

(2) The franchise broker or selling agent may apply for registration by filing with the director an application together with a consent to service of process in such form as the director shall prescribe and payment of the fee prescribed in RCW 19.100.240.

Any person who is engaged or hereafter engaged directly or indirectly in the sale or offer to sell a franchise or in business dealings concerning a franchise, either in person or in any other form of communication, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall be amenable to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state and shall be amenable to the service of process under RCW 4.28.180, 4.28.185 and 19.86.160. Every applicant for registration of a franchise under this law (by other than a Washington corporation) shall file with the director in such form as he by rule prescribed, an irrevocable consent appointing the director or his successor in office to be his attorney, to receive service or any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against him or his successors, executor, or administrator which arises under this law or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing consent. A person who has filed such a consent in connection with a previous registration under this law need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the director but it is not as effective unless:

(1) The plaintiff, who may be the director, in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at his last address on file with the director; and

(2) The plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further times the court allows. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 16.]

19.100.170 Violations. It is unlawful for any person in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of any franchise directly or indirectly:

(1) To make any untrue statement of a material fact in any application, notice, or report filed with the director under this law or wilfully to omit to state in any application, notice or report, any material fact which is required to be stated therein or fails to notify the director of any material change as required by RCW 19.100.070(3).

(2) To sell or offer to sell a franchise in this state by means of any written or oral communication which includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading.

(3) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud.

(4) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

(5) To violate any order of the director. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 17.]

19.100.180 Relation between franchisor and franchisee—Rights and prohibitions. Without limiting the other provisions of this chapter, the following specific rights and prohibitions shall govern the relation between the franchisor or subfranchisor and the franchisees:

(1) The parties shall deal with each other in good faith.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter and without limiting its general application, it shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition and therefore unlawful and a violation of this chapter for any person to:

(a) Restrict or inhibit the right of the franchisees to join an association of franchisees.

(b) Require a franchisee to purchase or lease goods or services of the franchisor or from approved sources of supply unless and to the extent that the franchisor satisfies the burden of proving that such restrictive purchasing agreements are reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose justified on business grounds, and do not substantially affect competition: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to the initial inventory of the franchise. In determining whether a requirement to purchase or lease goods or services constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition the courts shall be guided by the decisions of the courts of the United States interpreting and applying the anti-trust laws of the United States.

(c) Discriminate between franchisees in the charges offered or made for royalties, goods, services, equipment, rentals, advertising services, or in any other business dealing, unless and to the extent that the franchisor satisfies the burden of proving that any classification of or discrimination between franchisees is reasonable, is based on franchises granted at materially different times and such discrimination is reasonably related to such difference in time or on other proper and justifiable distinctions considering the purposes of this chapter, and is not arbitrary.

(d) Sell, rent, or offer to sell to a franchisee any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price.

(e) Obtain money, goods, services, anything of value, or any other benefit from any other person with whom the franchisee does business on account of such business unless such benefit is disclosed to the franchisee.

(f) If the franchise provides that the franchisee has an exclusive territory, which exclusive territory shall be specified in the franchise agreement, for the franchisor or subfranchisor to compete with the franchisee in an exclusive territory or to grant competitive franchises in the exclusive territory area previously granted to another franchisee.

(g) Require franchisee to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver which would relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter.

(h) Impose on a franchisee by contract, rule, or regulation, whether written or oral, any standard of conduct unless the person so doing can sustain the burden of proving such to be reasonable and necessary.

(i) Refuse to renew a franchise without fairly compensating the franchisee for the fair market value, at the time of expiration of the franchise, of the franchisee's inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings purchased from the franchisor, and good will, exclusive of personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor, and inventory, supplies, equipment and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business: Provided, That compensation need not be made to a franchisee for good will if (i) the franchisee has been given one year's notice of nonrenewal and (ii) the franchisor agrees in writing not to enforce any covenant which restrains the franchisee from competing with the franchisor: Provided further, That a franchisor may offset against amounts owed to a franchisee under this subsection any amounts owed by such franchisee to the franchisor.

(j) To terminate a franchise prior to the expiration of its term except for good cause. Good cause shall include, without limitation, the failure of the franchisee to comply with lawful material provisions of the franchise or other agreement between the franchisor and the franchisee and to cure such default after being given written notice thereof and a reasonable opportunity, which in no event need be more than thirty days, to cure such default, or if such default cannot reasonably be cured within thirty days, the failure of the franchisee to initiate within thirty days substantial and continuing action to cure such default: Provided, That a franchisor may terminate a franchise without giving prior notice or opportunity to cure a default if the franchisee (i) is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent; (ii) makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar disposition of the assets of the franchise business; (iii) voluntarily abandons the franchise business; or (iv) is convicted of or pleads guilty or no contest to a charge of violating any law relating to the franchise business. Upon termination for good cause, the franchisor shall purchase from the franchisee at a fair market value at the time of termination, the franchisee's inventory and supplies, exclusive of (i) personalized materials which have no value to the franchisor; (ii) inventory and supplies not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business; and (iii), if the franchisee is to retain control of the premises of the franchise business, any inventory and supplies not purchased from the franchisor or on his express requirement: Provided, That a franchisor may offset against amounts owed to a franchisee under this subsection any amounts owed by such franchisee to the franchisor. [1973 1st ex.s. c 33 § 4; 1972 ex.s. c 116 § 10; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 18.]

19.100.190 Unfair or deceptive acts—Suits for damages—Violations of other acts, use in evidence. (1) The commission of any unfair or deceptive acts or practices or unfair methods of competition prohibited by RCW 19.100.180 as now or hereafter amended shall constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice under the provisions of chapter 19.86 RCW.

(2) Any person who sells or offers to sell a franchise in violation of this chapter shall be liable to the franchisee or subfranchisor who may sue at law or in equity for damages caused thereby for rescission or other relief as the court may deem appropriate. In the case of a violation of RCW 19.100.170 rescission is not available to the plaintiff if the defendant proves that the plaintiff knew the facts concerning the untruth or omission or that the defendant exercised reasonable care and did not know or if he had exercised reasonable care would not have known of the untruth or omission.

(3) The suit authorized under subsection (2) of this section may be brought to recover the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff and the court may in its discretion increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed three times the actual damages sustained: Provided, That the prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of said action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(4) Any person who becomes liable to make payments under this section may recover contributions as in cases of contracts from any persons who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment.

(5) A final judgment, order, or decree heretofore or hereafter rendered against a person in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings under the United States anti-trust laws, under the Federal Trade Commission Act, under the Washington State Consumer Protection Act, or this chapter shall be regarded as evidence against such persons in any action brought by any party against such person under subsections (1) and (2) of this section as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties thereto. [1972 ex.s. c 116 § 11; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 19.]

19.100.200 Pendency of other proceedings tolls limitation of action. The pendency of any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings against a person brought by the federal or Washington state governments or any of their agencies under the anti-trust laws, the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Consumer Protection Act, or any federal or state act related to anti-trust laws or to franchising, or under this chapter shall toll the limitation of this action if the action is then instituted within one year after the final judgment or order in such proceedings: Provided, That said limitation of actions shall in any case toll the law so long as there is actual concealment on the part of the person. [1972 ex.s. c 116 § 12; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 20.]

19.100.210 Violations—Injunctions—Assurance of discontinuance—Civil and criminal penalties—Chapter nonexclusive. (1) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of such action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(2) Every person who shall violate the terms of any injunction issued as in this chapter provided shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars.

Every person who violates RCW 19.100.020, 19.100.080, 19.100.150 and 19.100.170 as now or hereafter amended shall forfeit a civil penalty of not more than two thousand dollars for each violation.

For the purpose of this section the superior court issuing an injunction shall retain jurisdiction and the cause shall be continued and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties.

In the enforcement of this chapter, the attorney general may accept an assurance of discontinuance with the provisions of this chapter from any person deemed by the attorney general in violation hereof. Any such assurance shall be in writing, shall state that the person giving such assurance does not admit to any violation of this chapter or to any facts alleged by the attorney general, and shall be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business, or in Thurston county. Proof of failure to comply with the assurance of discontinuance shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter.

(3) Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this chapter or who wilfully violates any rule adopted or order issued under this chapter shall upon conviction be fined not more than five thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than ten years or both, but no person may be imprisoned for the violation of any rule or order if he proves that he had no knowledge of the rule or order. No indictment or information may be returned under this chapter more than five years after the alleged violation.

(4) Nothing in this chapter limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime by statute or at common law. [1979 1st ex.s. c 13 § 1; 1972 ex.s. c 116 § 13; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 21.]

19.100.220 Exceptions or exemptions—Burden of proof—Waivers of compliance void. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exception or an exemption from definition is upon the person claiming it. Any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring a franchise at the time of entering into a franchise or other agreement to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void. [1972 ex.s. c 116 § 14; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 22.]

19.100.230 Referral of evidence to attorney general or prosecuting attorney. The director may refer such evidence as may be available concerning violations of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder to the attorney general or the proper prosecuting attorney who may in his discretion with or without such a reference institute the appropriate criminal proceeding under this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 23.]

19.100.240 Fees. The director shall charge and collect fees fixed by this section. All fees collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the state treasury and shall not be refundable except as herein provided:

(1) The fee for filing an application for registration on the sale of franchise under RCW 19.100.040 is five hundred dollars;

(2) The fee for filing an application for renewal of a registration under RCW 19.100.070 is one hundred dollars;

(3) The fee for filing an amendment to the application filed under RCW 19.100.040 is one hundred dollars;

(4) The fee for registration of a franchise broker or selling agent shall be fifty dollars for original registration and twenty-five dollars for each annual renewal. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 24.]

19.100.242 Investigations by director. The director, in the director's discretion, may: (1) Annually, or more frequently, make such public or private investigations within or without this state as the director deems necessary to determine whether any registration should be granted, denied, revoked, or suspended, or whether any person has violated or is about to violate a provision of this chapter or any rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms under this chapter; and (2) publish information concerning a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter. [1979 1st ex.s. c 13 § 2.]

19.100.245 Investigatory powers—Proceedings for contempt. For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by the director may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the director deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

In case of wilful failure on the part of a person to comply with a subpoena lawfully issued by the director, or on the refusal of a witness to testify to matters regarding which the witness may be lawfully interrogated, the superior court of any county, on application of the director and after satisfactory evidence of wilful disobedience, may compel obedience by proceedings for contempt, as in the case of disobedience of a subpoena issued from the court or a refusal to testify therein. [1979 1st ex.s. c 13 § 3.]

19.100.248 Cease and desist orders. If it appears to the director that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of a provision of this chapter or a rule adopted or order issued under this chapter, the director may, in the director's discretion, issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice. Reasonable notice of and opportunity for a hearing shall be given. The director may issue a temporary order pending the hearing, which shall remain in effect until ten days after the hearing is held and which shall become final if the person to whom notice is addressed does not request a hearing within fifteen days after the receipt of the notice. [1979 1st ex.s. c 13 § 4.]

19.100.250 Powers of director as to rules, forms, orders and defining terms—Interpretive opinions. The director may from time to time make, amend, and rescind such rules, forms, and orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter including rules and forms governing applications and reports and defining any terms whether or not used in this chapter insofar as the definitions are consistent with this chapter. The director in his discretion may honor requests from interested persons for interpretive opinions. [1972 ex.s. c 116 § 15; 1971 ex.s. c 252 § 25.]

19.100.260 Applicability of administrative procedure act. The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable herein govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 26.]

19.100.270 Administrator of securities. The director shall appoint a competent person to administer this chapter who shall be designated administrator of securities. The director shall delegate to the administrator such powers, subject to the authority of the director, as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The administrator shall hold office at the pleasure of the director. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 27.]

19.100.900 Chapter applicable to existing and future franchises and contracts. The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to all franchises and contracts existing between franchisors and franchisees and to all future franchises and contracts. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 28.]

19.100.910 Chapter cumulative and nonexclusive. The provisions of this chapter shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall not affect any other remedy available at law. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 29.]

19.100.920 Effective date—1971 ex.s. c 252. This act shall become effective May 1, 1972: Provided, That the director is authorized and empowered to undertake and perform duties and conduct activities necessary for the implementation of this act prior to that date. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 30.]

19.100.930 Severability—1971 ex.s. c 252. If any section or provision of this act shall be adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudication shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole, or any section, provisions, or part thereof not adjudged invalid or unconstitutional. [1971 ex.s. c 252 § 31.]

19.100.932 Severability—1979 1st ex.s. c 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1979 1st ex.s. c 13 § 5.]

19.102.020	Chain distributor schemes prohibited—Unfair practice.

19.102.010 Definitions. (1) "Chain distributor scheme" is a sales device whereby a person, under a condition that he make an investment, is granted a license or right to recruit for consideration one or more additional persons who are also granted such license or right upon condition of making an investment, and may further perpetuate the chain of persons who are granted such license or right upon such condition. A limitation as to the number of persons who may participate, or the presence of additional conditions affecting eligibility for the above license or right to recruit or the receipt of profits therefrom, does not change the identity of the scheme as a chain distributor scheme.

(2) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity and in the case of an entity, it shall include any other entity which has a majority interest in such an entity or effectively controls such other entity as well as the individual officers, directors, and other persons in act of control of the activities of each such entity.

(3) "Investment" is any acquisition, for a consideration other than personal services, of personal property, tangible or intangible, for profit or business purposes, and includes, without limitation, franchises, business opportunities, services and inventory for resale. It does not include sales demonstration equipment and materials, furnished at cost for use in making sales and not for resale. [1973 1st ex.s. c 33 § 1.]

19.102.020 Chain distributor schemes prohibited—Unfair practice. No person shall promote, offer or grant participation in a chain distributor scheme. Any violation of this chapter shall be construed for purposes of the application of the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW, to constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice or unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce. [1973 1st ex.s. c 33 § 2.]

19.105.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings herein ascribed to them, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Camping club" shall mean any corporation, firm, partnership, association, trust, or organization which:

(a) Is promoted, in whole or in part, for the financial benefit of another person, corporation, firm, partnership, association, trust, or organization; and

(b) Has camping and outdoor recreation as its primary purposes, and which is, or is intended to be, composed of members who have or will have obligated themselves to pay membership fees or other charges entitling them to use club facilities and grounds for camping and outdoor recreation purposes; and

(c) Contains or will contain camping vehicle sites; and

(d) Has legal or equitable title to the land on which the club is located or which leases, or is purchasing under a real estate contract, the land on which the club is located.

(2) "Camping vehicle site" means a space assigned to a camping club member for an indefinite period of time, or for life, or for a period of longer than one month, and on which site the member is entitled to park or locate a camping vehicle.

(3) "Camping vehicle" means a travel trailer, tent or tent trailer, pick-up camper, or other similar device used for portable housing.

(4) "Person" shall mean any person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, or organization.

(5) "Director" shall mean the director of licensing acting in his capacity as administrator of the Securities Act, chapter 21.20 RCW, as now law or hereafter amended.

(6) "Promoter" shall mean the person or organization having a permit issued by the director to engage in the business of promoting or developing a camping club and having the overall responsibility for the sale of memberships in a camping club. [1979 c 158 § 84; 1972 ex.s. c 106 § 1.]

19.105.020 Permit for promotion required before selling memberships. Memberships in a camping club may not be sold unless a permit for promotion has been granted by the director. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 2.]

19.105.030 Application for promotion permit. The application for a promotion permit shall be submitted to the director on a form reasonably prescribed by him. The information required by the director in the application shall be of such a nature as will enable the director to determine the development plan of the applicant and the applicant's financial responsibility and ability to perform, or cause to be performed, the development plan and the contractual obligations which would be due to the members of the club. The application shall include detailed information as to the ownership of and right to use the land on which the club is to be located, including, but not limited to, all of the applicant's transactions or dealings regarding the land. If the director finds that the applicant is financially responsible and has sufficient capital to warrant the promotion of a camping club and has otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter, then he shall issue a promotion permit. If he finds that the applicant is not financially responsible or has insufficient capital, then he shall either deny the promotion permit or issue a conditional permit pursuant to the provisions of RCW 19.105.040. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 3.]

19.105.040 Conditional granting of promotion permit—Impounding proceeds. If the director finds that the applicant is not financially responsible or that the applicant has insufficient capital, he may grant a promotion permit, conditioned on the applicant agreeing to an impounding of the proceeds from all membership sales and charges on members for a reasonable period of time and until sufficient money has been impounded to adequately capitalize the camping club. The director may, if he finds it reasonable and necessary to the business of the applicant, provide for release to the applicant of a certain percentage of the impounded money. When sufficient capital is raised and the impound is lifted, the director shall take such measures as are appropriate to assure that the money released from the impound is applied to the camping club. In the event the impounding does not raise sufficient capital to adequately finance the camping club venture, then the members shall receive from the impounded funds the amount they paid in membership fees, less any releases approved by the director. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 4.]

19.105.045 Promotion and selling permit—Duration—Renewal—Fee—Conditions. A permit to promote and sell camping club memberships shall be effective for one year from the date it is issued. The permit may be renewed for additional periods of one year by the payment of a filing fee of fifty dollars and filing with the director, no later than twenty days prior to the expiration thereof, a renewal application containing such information as the director may require to indicate any substantial changes from the information contained in the original application: Provided, That the director is not authorized to impose additional material substantive rules upon a permit holder as a condition for the issuance of a renewal permit under this section. A permit to promote and sell camping club memberships for which a renewal application has been regularly filed and the filing fee paid is renewed on the anniversary date of its original issuance unless written notice to the contrary has been mailed to the promoter by the director three days prior to that anniversary date. The director may require the filing of a revised offering circular as a condition of renewal. Further, the director may require the filing of current financial statements within one hundred twenty days of the end of the promoter's fiscal year.

Any permit to promote and sell camping club memberships issued prior to September 8, 1975 shall be subject to the renewal provisions of this section upon the anniversary date of the issuance of the original permit. [1975 1st ex.s. c 150 § 9.]

19.105.050 Reserve fund for acquisition of land or improvements. In the event that the development plan for a camping club provides for the camping club owning or acquiring clear title to the land on which the club is to be located, and in the event the plan provides for such ownership or clear title to be purchased from the proceeds from membership sales or fees, then the director may require, in order to protect the interests of the club members, that a reasonable portion of each membership sale or fee be set aside in a reserve fund to be applied toward the purchase price of the land. The director may similarly require the establishment of a reserve fund to cover any improvements on the grounds of a camping club when the improvements, according to the development plan, are to be paid for from the proceeds of membership sales or fees. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 5.]

19.105.060 Sales and promotion literature, contract forms—Filing. The director shall adopt rules and regulations providing for the type and nature of information which a promoter must disclose in its sales and promotion literature and in its membership contract form. The promoter shall file with and obtain the approval of the director for (1) all advertisements and sales promotion literature, and (2) its contract form dealing with club memberships. Such filing shall be made by certified mail at least fourteen days prior to the first use of the advertisements, promotion literature, or membership contract. Approval shall be deemed to have been granted unless notice to the contrary is received by certified mail within ten days of the filing date. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 6.]

19.105.070 Grounds for suspension of promotion permit—Revocation. Any promotion permit issued by the director may be suspended if the director finds any of the following:

(1) That the promoter's advertising or sales techniques or trade practices have been or are unfair, deceptive, false, or misleading; or

(2) That the promoter has failed to file advertisements or promotion literature, or its membership contract form pursuant to the requirement in RCW 19.105.060; or

(3) That the promoter has failed to comply with the rules and regulations adopted by the director pursuant to the provisions of this chapter; or

(4) That the promoter is not financially responsible or has insufficient capital to warrant its selling memberships; or

(5) That the promoter has failed to comply with local health and land use requirements.

Whenever there exists grounds for suspending a permit under this section, the director may also revoke the permit if he finds revocation necessary in order to adequately protect the interests of the public. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 7.]

19.105.080 Cancellation of club membership contract. Any contract for club membership may be canceled at the option of the member, if the member sends notice of such cancellation by certified mail (return receipt requested) to the promoter and if the notice is posted not later than midnight of the third business day following the day on which the contract was agreed to or signed. In computing the three business days, the day on which the contract was agreed to or signed shall not be included as a "business day", nor shall any Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday be included.

In the event the contract for club membership is a "retail installment contract" under chapter 63.14 RCW, as now law or hereafter amended, then the information disclosure requirement in RCW 63.14.120(3)(e), as now or hereafter amended, dealing with a one-day option to cancel, shall not apply to the contract. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 8.]

19.105.090 Contract voidable, when. Any contract for club membership shall be voidable at the option of the member, if the contract form has not been filed with the director pursuant to RCW 19.105.060, or if the promoter has failed to comply with the applicable disclosure requirements in its dealings with the member, or if a valid promotion permit was not in existence for the camping club at the time the contract was agreed to. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 9.]

19.105.100 Prerequisites for granting promotion permit—Conditional permit. The director shall not grant any promotion permit until he is furnished certificates by the appropriate local governmental authorities certifying that the applicant has complied with all local, health, planning, and environmental requirements. A conditional permit may be granted pending receipt of such certificates by the director. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 10.]

19.105.110 Management fees or charges—Approval by director—Liability of promoter. During any period of time in which the promoter, his employees, or his agents control the management of a nonprofit camping club, no fees or charges for management services shall be imposed upon or collected from club members, unless (1) a notice of intent to impose and collect such fees or charges, together with an explanation of their purposes and intended application, are submitted to the director for his approval at least sixty days before such fees and charges are to become payable; and (2) the director approves them. The director shall approve any proposed fees or charges which he finds reasonable and shall disapprove any he finds unreasonable. In the event the director does not disapprove any proposed fees or charges within forty-five days after notice is filed with him, then they shall be deemed approved.

The promoter shall be liable to the club members for any money collected in violation of this section. In any action by a member to recover management fees or charges collected in violation of this section, the member, if he prevails, shall be awarded a reasonable attorney's fee.

The term "nonprofit" as used in this section refers to any domestic corporation organized under Title 24 RCW, and any foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state under Title 24 RCW. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 11.]

19.105.120 Selling membership in camping club for which promotion permit not in force prohibited—Exception. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer to sell a membership or an option to purchase a membership in a camping club for which a promotion permit is not currently in force unless the membership being sold is held by a member for his own personal use as a bona fide membership in the camping club. [1975 1st ex.s. c 150 § 1; 1972 ex.s. c 106 § 12.]

19.105.130 Application fee—Additional fees. Each application for a promotion permit shall be accompanied by an application fee in the amount of three hundred dollars. The director shall impose an additional fee in the amount of one hundred dollars in the event of the issuance of a promotion permit conditioned on an impounding of the proceeds from memberships sales and charges, and an additional fee in the amount of one hundred dollars in the event the promoter is required to establish a reserve fund or reserve funds under this chapter. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 13.]

19.105.140 Administrative Procedure Act applicable to chapter—Duties of director. The provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now law or hereafter amended, shall apply to any administrative procedures carried out by the director under the provisions of this chapter. The director shall hold a hearing, if one is demanded, on any issue concerning the granting, revocation, or suspension of a permit. The director may adopt rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this chapter. In addition, he may (1) make investigations to determine whether any provisions of this chapter, or rules and regulations adopted hereunder, have been violated; (2) make investigations to determine whether a promotion permit should be granted, denied, revoked, or suspended; and (3) subpoena witnesses in order to compel their attendance or require them to produce any books, papers, correspondence, agreements, or other documents or records which he deems relevant or material to any investigation or hearing conducted by him under the provisions of this chapter. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 14.]

19.105.150 Camping clubs not considered subdivisions—Powers of cities and towns not impaired. A camping club shall not be considered a subdivision under RCW 58.17.020(1). Nothing in this chapter shall prevent counties or cities from enacting ordinances or resolutions setting platting or subdivision requirements solely for camping clubs. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 15.]

19.105.160 Chapter not exclusive. Except as specifically provided herein, the provisions of this chapter shall not exclude the application of any other law to camping clubs, camping club members, or promoters. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 16.]

19.105.170 Exceptions. (1) The director shall if he finds it necessary to the business of a camping club in the process of development as of May 23, 1972 extend the time by which the developer shall be required to obtain a promotion permit and otherwise comply with this chapter.

(2) RCW 19.105.090 shall not apply to or affect the validity of any contract for membership in a camping club entered into prior to May 23, 1972.

(3) RCW 19.105.100 and 19.105.150 shall not apply to any camping club in the process of development as of May 23, 1972.

(4) RCW 19.105.110 shall not apply to any fees or charges imposed upon or collected from a camping club member prior to May 23, 1972.

(5) A promotion permit may not be suspended or revoked under RCW 19.105.070 for conduct engaged in prior to May 23, 1972. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 17.]

19.105.180 Effective date of rules and regulations. Prior to May 23, 1972, the director may adopt rules and regulations to implement this chapter, but any rules and regulations so adopted shall not take effect prior to such effective date. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 18.]

19.105.190 Chapter not applicable to certain camping clubs. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any camping club which is registered pursuant to the securities and exchange act of 1933 and/or the securities act of the state of Washington. [1972 ex.s. c 106 § 19.]

19.105.200 Violations constitute unfair or deceptive practice. Any violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be construed, for the purposes of application of the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW, to constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice or unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce. [1973 1st ex.s. c 79 § 1.]

19.105.210 Making false or misleading statements prohibited. It is unlawful for any person to make or cause to be made, in any document filed with the director or in any proceeding under this chapter, any statement that is, at the time and in light of the circumstances under which it is made, false or misleading in any material respect. [1975 1st ex.s. c 150 § 2.]

19.105.220 Violations—Penalty—Time limitation. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this chapter or any rules or order under this chapter commits a gross misdemeanor; but no person may be convicted for the violation of any order if he proves that he had no knowledge of the order. No indictment or information may be returned under this chapter more than five years after the alleged violation. [1975 1st ex.s. c 150 § 3.]

19.105.230 Violations—Referral to attorney general or prosecuting attorney—Action by director. The director may refer such evidence as may be available concerning violations of this chapter or of any rule or order hereunder to the attorney general or the proper prosecuting attorney who may in his discretion, with or without such a reference, institute the appropriate civil or criminal proceedings under this chapter. [1975 1st ex.s. c 150 § 4.]

20.01.210 Commission merchants, dealers—Bonds. Before the license is issued to any commission merchant and/or dealer the applicant shall execute and deliver to the director a surety bond executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this state as surety. Such bond shall be in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars for a commission merchant or any dealer handling livestock, hay, grain, or straw and a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars for any other dealer: Provided, That the bond for a commission merchant, a dealer acting as a processor, or a dealer in livestock, hay, grain, or straw shall be in a minimum amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars or more based upon the annual gross dollar volume of purchases by, or consignments to the licensee. The bond for any other dealer shall be in the minimum amount of three thousand dollars, or an increased amount based upon the annual gross dollar volume of purchases by, or consignments to, the licensee. The bond for such commission merchant or dealer shall be determined by taking the annual gross dollar volume of that commission merchant or dealer of net payment to growers and dividing that amount by fifty-two and the bond shall be in an amount to the next multiple of two thousand dollars larger than the sum: Provided, That the gross dollar volume used in computing the bond requirements of a commission merchant or dealer handling horticultural products shall be based on the net proceeds due to growers: Provided further, That bonds above twenty-six thousand dollars shall be not less than the next multiple of five thousand dollars above the amount secured by applying the formula except that when the bond amount reaches fifty thousand dollars any amount of bond required above this shall be on a basis of ten percent of the amount arrived by applying the formula of annual gross divided by fifty-two. Such bond shall be of a standard form and approved by the director as to terms and conditions. Said bond shall be conditioned that the principal will not commit any fraudulent act and will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted hereunder. Said bond shall be to the state for the benefit of every consignor of an agricultural product in this state. The total and aggregate liability of the surety for all claims upon the bond shall be limited to the face of such bond. Every bond filed with and approved by the director shall without the necessity of periodic renewal remain in force and effect until released by notice from the director when a superseding bond has been issued and is in effect. All such sureties on a bond, as provided herein, shall also be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on such bond by giving notice to the principal and the director by certified mail. Upon receipt of such notice the director shall notify the surety and the principal of the effective date of termination which shall be thirty days from the receipt of such notice by the director, but this shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue (due and to become due hereunder) before the expiration period provided for above. Unless the principal shall before the expiration of such period, file a new bond, the director shall forthwith cancel the principal's license. Upon such cancellation the license and vehicle plates issued attendant to the license shall be surrendered to the director forthwith. [1977 ex.s. c 304 § 6; 1974 ex.s. c 102 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 182 § 8; 1963 c 232 § 5. Prior: 1959 c 139 § 21.]

20.01.211 Alternative bonding provision for certain dealers. In lieu of the bonding provision required by

RCW 20.01.210 as now or hereafter amended, any dealer who has not been found after a hearing to be in violation of this chapter during the two most recent years of such business operations may file a bond in an amount equal to such dealer's maximum monthly purchases, divided by thirty, and multiplied by the maximum number of days which will expire after the date of sale but before final payment is made: Provided, That the minimum bond provided by this section shall be in a minimum of three thousand dollars.

Any dealer utilizing the bonding provisions of this section shall file an affidavit with the director which sets forth the maximum monthly purchases of the dealer and the maximum number of days which will expire from the date of sale to the date final payment is made to consignors.

Any dealer bonded under this section who is found to be in violation of this chapter shall be required to comply with the bonding requirements of RCW 20.01.210 for a minimum of two years. [1977 ex.s. c 304 § 16.]

A dealer buying and selling livestock who has furnished a bond as required by the packers and stockyards administration to cover acting as order buyer as well as dealer may also act as an order buyer for others under the provisions of this chapter, and all persons who act as order buyers of livestock shall license under this chapter as a livestock dealer: Provided, That the applicant shall furnish the director with a bond approved by the United States secretary of agriculture. Such bond shall be in a minimum amount of seventy-five hundred dollars. It shall be a violation for the licensee to act as a commission merchant and/or dealer in any other agricultural commodity without first having notified the director and furnishing him with a bond as required under the provisions of RCW 20.01.210, and failure to furnish the director with such bond shall be cause for the immediate suspension of the licensee's license, and revocation subject to a hearing. [1977 ex.s. c 304 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 182 § 9; 1963 c 232 § 6.]

20.01.240 Commission merchant, dealer—Failure to pay creditors—Director to ascertain names, addresses—Verified statement. In case of failure of a commission merchant and/or dealer to pay a consignor for an agricultural product received from said consignor, the director shall proceed forthwith to ascertain the names and addresses of all consignor creditors of such commission merchant and/or dealer, together with the amounts due and owing to them by such commission merchant and/or dealer, and shall request all such consignor creditors to file a verified statement of their respective claims with the director. Such request shall be addressed to each known consignor creditor at his last known address. [1959 c 139 § 24.]

20.01.250 Failure of consignor to file claim, time limitation. If a consignor creditor so addressed fails, refuses or neglects to file in the office of the director his verified claim as requested by the director within sixty days from the date of such request, the director shall thereupon be relieved of further duty or action hereunder on behalf of said consignor creditor. [1959 c 139 § 25.]

20.01.260 Director not liable if circumstances prevent ascertainment of creditors—Demand on bond. Where by reason of the absence of records, or other circumstances making it impossible or unreasonable for the director to ascertain the names and addresses of all said consignor creditors, the director after exerting due diligence and making reasonable inquiry to secure said information from all reasonable and available sources, may make demand on said bond on the basis of information then in his possession, and thereafter shall not be liable or responsible for claims or the handling of claims which may subsequently appear or be discovered. [1959 c 139 § 26.]

20.01.270 Demand on bond after claims ascertained—Power of director to settle, compromise. deliver a release and discharge of the bond involved. [1959 c 139 § 27.]

20.01.280 Action on bond after refusal to pay—New bond, failure to file. Upon the refusal of the surety company to pay the demand the director may thereupon bring an action on the bond in behalf of said consignor creditors. Upon any action being commenced on said bond the director may require the filing of a new bond and immediately upon the recovery in any action on such bond such commission merchant and/or dealer shall file a new bond and upon failure to file the same within ten days in either case such failure shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of his license. [1959 c 139 § 28.]

20.01.290 Settlement when two or more creditors—Pro rata shares. In any settlement or compromise by the director with a surety company as provided in RCW 20.01.270, where there are two or more consignor creditors that have filed claims, either fixed or contingent, against a licensee's bond, such creditors shall share pro rata in the proceeds of the bond to the extent of their actual damage.
