HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4675, By Representatives Liias, Sells, Sullivan, Conway and Hankins

WHEREAS, Today, January 21, 2008, communities and neighborhoods all across our state and nation remember, celebrate, and honor the life and work of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King's ardent quest for knowledge brought him from humble beginnings in Atlanta, Georgia to Boston University from which he earned a doctorate degree in Systematic Theology; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King sought to change longstanding laws by executing a successful boycott of the Montgomery bus system, thus, in effect, ending Jim Crow and government-sanctioned segregation; and

WHEREAS, He faced endless persecution from people who did not want a shift in the status quo, Dr. King stood strong in his convictions and kept an unwavering commitment to his beliefs; and

WHEREAS, The Reverend Dr. King followed the nonviolent dogma of Mahatma Gandhi and Jesus Christ, and truly welcomed those who opposed him with open arms, instead of spurning them or their misgivings; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King etched "Civil Disobedience" into the modern American lexicon, suggesting that we are justified in disobeying the laws when they are unjust and it is our moral obligation to do so; and

WHEREAS, Other activists fought to simply recognize the African-American struggle in America, Dr. King strived to end the race and class divisions of all Americans; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King was taken from this planet in an act of violence – the sort that he vowed to not subscribe to. His work has left an everlasting mark and his image, in itself, is synonymous with peace and change; and

WHEREAS, this year, 2008, marks the 40th anniversary of the assassination of Dr. King, and while several generations have passed since his death we still face many of the same issues. With that said, we should not forget the commitments that this great man made: Nonviolence, peace, and a world in which we are all able to call each other "friend" without prejudice; and

WHEREAS, We, as Americans, must make it our duty to continue the effort of our friend, Dr. Martin Luther King, and break down all racial, social, and class barriers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives, on behalf of the people of our state, recognize the importance of the life and work of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. to the civil society and freedoms of the United States of America and of the state of Washington; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives honor Dr. King's memory by urging all the citizens of Washington to consider the kind of world we could live in if we approach any hardship with grace instead of fists or heartless words.

WHEREAS, Washington state's 1.5 million children are the future of this state, and it is our duty and privilege to instill in them the faith, hope, charity, and integrity they need to continue the legacy of freedom, peace, and prosperity we have inherited from those who came before us; and

WHEREAS, Children are the responsibility of their parents and all the citizens of the state of Washington should help them by setting an example of what it means to be a good neighbor, lawabiding citizen, productive worker, and helpful friend; and

WHEREAS, The children of the state of Washington should have access to quality education, wholesome recreation, and a safe community; and

WHEREAS, Children are valued members of society who bring joy, pride, and hope to this nation and its future; and

WHEREAS, The children of the state of Washington should know that their ideas and dreams are valued and respected because we take time to listen and encourage; and

WHEREAS, The obligations of the state of Washington to succeeding generations can only be fulfilled by increased efforts on behalf of the children of this state, who are the citizens of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, We welcome to the House of Representatives the children here today, the high school students serving as pages, and we hope their experience here inspires them to stay informed and involved in their democracy; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives welcome children into the house chamber one day each year, so they may witness the legislative process;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives celebrate the children of the state of Washington and encourage all the citizens of Washington to celebrate children on Children's Day and throughout the year by spending more quality time with children and emphasizing their special place in our lives.
