Pursuant to state law, the Senate of the 2018 Regular Session of the Sixty-Fifth Legislature of the State of Washington assembled in the Senate Chamber at the State Capitol. At 12:14 p.m., the Senate was called to order by the President of Senate, Lieutenant Governor Habib presiding.

The acting Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present.

The National Anthem was signed by Miss Jacie Fabela, Miss Mercy Owen, Miss Gracie Meivis, and Miss Joy Brown from the American Sign Language Program at River Ridge High School in Lacey. They were led by Ms. Catherine Boos and are guests of Senator Hunt.

MOMENT OF SILENCE

The Senate rose and observed a moment of silence in memory of Pierce County Sheriff's Deputy Daniel A. McCartney, who died in the line of duty during the early morning hours, Monday, January 8, 2018.

Editor's Note: Deputy Daniel McCartney was shot just after 11:30 p.m. while responding to a 911 call reporting a home intruder in Frederickson. On Wednesday, January 17, 2018, following a procession from Joint Base Lewis-McChord, a memorial service was held at Olson Auditorium, Pacific Lutheran University in Parkland. At the direction of Governor Inslee, the flags of Washington State and the United States were lowered to half-staff Wednesday, January 17, 2018 in his honor and in recognition of his and his family's sacrifice.

The prayer was offered by Mr. Jeremiah George, Ms. Morningstar Green, and Mr. Austin Penn of the Squaxin Island Tribe, guests of Senator McCoy.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Before we move to the swearing in of the newly elected and appointed Senators, the President would like to just take a moment to share two thoughts: First of all, the President on behalf of the state Senate would like to extend a very warm word of welcome to all those who are guests in our chambers today. Particularly those who are loved ones, family and friends of our new state Senators. But truly for whatever reason you have made your way here, and whether this is your first time joining us for this opening day ceremony or whether you are old hat, we love having you here. We hope you know how welcome you are to our galleries, to our state capitol to observe your state government in action, to meet with your legislators, and to be apart of this work which we are so privileged to do on the public's behalf.

I would also like to welcome back all of my colleagues in state government who are here to serve once more. You know a year ago I was quite a good deal more nervous than I am this week. I want to say at that time there was a change in this chamber, but the change was on this side of the rostrum and many of you may not have known after twenty years of Lieutenant Governor Owen's service what to expect when an institution known for consistency experienced a change. I want to thank each and every one of you who was here last session for your patience and tolerance of me for all the many ways in which you taught me, and will continue to teach me to do my job on your behalf. It is such a tremendous privilege and honor for me to work with you to lead this state Senate. And this year there is also a change in this chamber, but it is not on this side of the rostrum, it is on the other side of the rostrum and as with my change and perhaps even more so it is understandable that some people may not know what to expect or how things may change as we have a shift in the majority party. But while I certainly don't know what the policy outcomes of these next sixty days will be any better than anyone else here, what I do know is that through the relationships I've had the privilege of building with Senators returning here and those which I hope to build with our two new members, I know that what will not change in this coming session and in the years to come is the respect and dignity with which Senators treat there time here on behalf of your constituents. That Democrat, Republican, or Questioning, each of us who serves in state government does truly honor this opportunity and this tremendous responsibility. And so I want to ask that each of you who have taught me this lesson yourselves maintain and preserve that spirit of dignity so that we can continue to have the fantastic and vigorous but respectful debates on this Senate floor that I think have made this entire state capital so proud.

So, on behalf of my own staff, my office and myself, I want to welcome each of you back and congratulate you on what I know will be a fruitful session to come."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the third order of business.

REMARKS BY SENATOR PEDERSEN

Senator Pedersen: “Thank you Mr. President, I would like to nominate Senator Karen Keiser. Thank you very much Mr. President. I am greatly honored to nominate Senator Keiser for this position in our state Senate. Senator Keiser has been here serving for quite a long time and during a storied career in the Senate has led and effort to expand access to health care to all sorts of people in our state, leading us to have one of the lowest uninsured rates in the country. And probably most noticeably from the last session, completed an effort of more than ten years, to have paid family and medical leave come to our state. Working effectively with folks from the other side of the aisle, particularly the gentleman from the 47th on that important project that will benefit people around our state. Senator Keiser has the perspective and temperament, I believe, to do an excellent job of leading the chamber on those times when you will be absent and unable to serve. I am greatly honored that the senior member of our caucus will do such a great job representing us up on the rostrum. So I am happy to nominate Senator Keiser.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR FAIN

Senator Fain: “Thank you Mr. President, I wish to second the nomination of Senator Keiser to the position. Thank you Mr. President. It is a great honor to stand and put this name forward. I have worked very closely with Senator Keiser since I came to this chamber, everything from my first year working on floods and impacts they have in the Kent and Auburn Valleys to last years monumental change to our family leave laws here in Washington which were absolutely an equal and bipartisan effort which were started long ago by Senator Keiser in this chamber. My friendship with Senator Keiser goes long before even the time that I was elected here to this chamber. In fact, I believe that at one point in my life I actually was represented by Senator Keiser in the Legislature when I was living in the Normandy Park/Des Moines area. But unlike at that time, I will be very happy to vote for her today.”

I have served with Senator Conway over in the other chamber and now this chamber. Although he has been in both chambers a lot longer than I have, I am starting my sixteenth year and it has been a pleasure to serve with him all of those years. So, I could talk for hours about it but I think I will cut it short and present Senator Conway.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR ZEIGER

Senator Zeiger: “Thank you Mr. President, I second the nomination of Senator Steve Conway for Vice President Pro Tempore. Thank you Mr. President. It has been a real pleasure for me to serve with Senator Conway. As senators from neighboring districts, we are part of the powerful Pierce County delegation.”

President Habib: “We don’t call that a ‘mafia’ anymore Senator Zeiger?”

[Editor’s Note: For much of the time from the early 1980s through the mid-1990s, the speaker of the House, the Senate majority leader, the chairs of the legislative fiscal committees, as well as some notably effective legislators, and the governor were Pierce County residents. The legislative delegation representing the County became known colloquially as the “Pierce County mafia,” for their ability to unify across political parties and chambers to pass an inordinate amount of legislation benefitting the City of Tacoma and Pierce County.]

Senator Conway’s record of service in this body and to his community is impressive and he has made a real difference here in the legislature over a number of years in a range of issues: health care; pensions; economic development; the capital budget. We could go on and on in the issues in which he has made a difference. He has worked in academia professionally as well as in the labor movement. He is a historian who brings perspective to our deliberations here. So it is my pleasure to second this nomination for Senator Conway.”

He started as an intern. He then served us as Deputy Secretary of the Senate for sixteen years. So he comes to us very well qualified. He has already shown he is ready to do the work to assist all of us. And of course most recently he moved to the Treasurer’s office to be Director of Legislative Affairs. I am very pleased to be able to bring him back to serve as Secretary of the Senate and I urge your support. Thank you.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Baumgartner: "Thank you Mr. President. I am trying to understand these rules and would ask if Senator Liias would yield to a question?"

President Habib: "Senator Liias?"

Senator Liias: "Sure."

President Habib: "Senator Baumgartner."

Senator Baumgartner: "Thank you Mr. President. With the purposed time limit on the budget (Rule 53), how would it work if there was an amendment to an amendment? What would be the timing on that?"

Senator Liias: "Thank you for that question, Senator Baumgartner. Amendments to amendments wouldn't have to comply with the eighteen hour rule but we know that the scope and object of those amendments would have to be narrowly tailored to the underlying amendment being changed."

Senator Baumgartner: "Mr. President?"

President Habib: "Senator Baumgartner."

Senator Baumgartner: "But if the amendment has to be in eighteen hours, how would you even know to draft an amendment to the amendment and still be within the time period? The challenge of the time limit, I think, is if something is up to the eighteen hour time limit, it essentially eliminates the possibility of an amendment to an amendment."

President Habib: "Senator Liias, would you like to ..."

Senator Liias: "Yeah. Happily, thank you, Mr. President. Thank you Senator Baumgartner. I think that part of the reason why we have that six-hour window is if there are technical corrections that need to be made to the amendments that have been adopted, those could still be considered, so there is that view. But in terms of new substantive amendments, they would have to comply with that eighteen hour deadline."

Senator Baumgartner: "So, what I am hearing is that there are no amendments to the amendment when it comes to the budget under these proposed rules?"

Senator Liias: "That is not what I am saying and I would be happy to chat with you more offline about the details."

President Habib: "Alright, we're done with the colloquy. Senator Erickson."

Senators Ericksen and Padden, spoke against adoption of the resolution.

Senator Nelson spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

Senators Hobbs and Hasegawa spoke on the adoption of the resolution.
