

a training course given by his employer which course has been approved by the director; or

(b) He is a self-employed person who furnishes a certificate that he has satisfactorily completed a course that may be given by a person or persons who have given a training course or examination approved by the director.

(c) Where by contract, written or implied, a labor union is required upon notice to furnish qualified and competent drivers, the department may accept the certification of the dispatching union official that the driver is qualified and competent to drive the particular equipment.

The director may, however, notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of this section require the examination to be given by the department in any case where the applicant's driving record indicates that he has violated the traffic laws to an extent that it is in the public interest to require said examination.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 20, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.20.470 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be an additional fee for the special endorsement for each class of vehicle in addition to the prescribed fee required for the issuance of the original driver's license. The additional fee for each endorsement shall not exceed ten dollars for the original endorsement (~~((and eight dollars for the renewal thereof))~~). The said fee shall be deposited in the highway safety fund.
