PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Padden: "Thank you Madam President. I just wanted to point out to the body here, that tomorrow will be what would have been the 109th birthday of former President Ronald Reagan. And, I will have a resolution but it's a pro forma session tomorrow so, I wanted to just notify the members its up there and thank you. It's a bi-partisan resolution, those that have haven't signed they still have an opportunity. And just briefly, indicate that Ronald Reagan came from humble beginnings Madam President. Born in Tampico, Illinois. Family did not have much money. Later became a lifeguard and saved a whole number of people from drowning as a lifeguard and of course the thing that I remember the most, my earliest recollection was his speech he gave in 1964, televised speech, in support of candidate Barry Goldwater. And although Barry was got a lot of very intense support, the election results weren't all that great. But, it set the stage for Reagan's later being elected, two years later Governor of California, and then ran for president in '76 unsuccessfully, but ran in '80 and was reelected in '84. In any event, a great president, one of the people I've admired most and just wanted to notify the body that there is an opportunity to sign on the resolution and we will be talking about it tomorrow at noon if you can join us. Thank you."
