The arresting jurisdiction authorizing the release shall determine whether the defendant should be prohibited from having any contact with the victim. No person in the classified civil service who has been permanently appointed or inducted into civil service under provisions of this chapter, shall be removed, suspended, ~~((or)) demoted, or discharged~~ except for cause, and only upon written accusation of the appointing power or any citizen or taxpayer; a written statement of which accusation, in general terms, shall be served upon the accused, and a duplicate filed with the commission. If order of removal, suspension, ~~((or)) demotion, or discharge~~ is concurred in by the commission or a majority thereof, the accused may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county wherein he resides. The commission shall, within ten days after the filing of the notice, make, certify, and file such transcript with the court. The court shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine the appeal in a summary manner. Such hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the order of removal, suspension, ~~((or)) demotion, or discharge~~ made by the commission, was or was not made in good faith for cause, and no appeal shall be taken except upon such ground or grounds. POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Van Luven: "Two hundred and fifty-two years ago this week, George Washington was born. If you wanted to sum up what kind of a person George Washington was, all you would have to say is that he was the only American to have a state named after him, not to mention the Nation's capital and countless other counties and cities across our country. Historians say that George Washington could have been king if he had wanted to be, but the fact that he settled for president helped make him a symbol of freedom, not just for Americans, but for people all over the world. We think of Washington as a model citizen, but for his time he was a radical both in beliefs and in action. The legends about young George Washington and the cherry tree and throwing a silver dollar across the Potomac were inventions of a 19th century biographer, but George Washington did a great many more important things than those.

"He was skilled in mathematics; was an excellent engineer and a surveyor. He helped design the layout of Washington, D.C. He commanded American forces in the French and Indian War and later in the American Revolution where he used strategies and tactics mostly unheard of for his time. The thing Washington was remembered for as a leader was that he was calm under fire. He was willing to take the heat. When you think of the problems that Washington had to face trying to win independence from the most powerful nation on earth and then holding the new country together, our problems tend to pale a little. I think we should profit by following George Washington's examples. We should polish our personal skills, look for new approaches to problems and remain calm under fire. Happy Birthday, George Washington."

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 61, chapter 238, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto (~~other than RCW 70.94.205~~) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than ~~((two hundred fifty))~~ one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, or by both fine and imprisonment for each separate violation. ~~((Each day upon which such violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.))~~

~~Any person who willfully violates RCW 70.94.205 or any other provision of this act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars,))~~ or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year or by both fine and imprisonment.

In case of a continuing violation, whether or not wilfully committed, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation.

Sec. 2. Section 53, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.431 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to or as an alternate to any other penalty provided by law, any person who violates any of the provisions of chapter 70.94 RCW or any of the rules and regulations of the department or the board shall incur a penalty in the form of a fine in an amount not to exceed ((two hundred fifty) one thousand dollars per day for each violation. Each such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. For the purposes of this subsection, the maximum daily fine imposed by a local board for violations of standards by a specific emissions unit is one thousand dollars.

(2) Further, the person is subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars to be levied by the director of the department of ecology if requested by the board of a local authority or if the director determines that the penalty is needed for effective enforcement of this chapter. A local board shall not make such a request until notice of violation and compliance order procedures have been exhausted, if such procedures are applicable. For the purposes of this subsection, the maximum daily fine imposed by the department of ecology for violations of standards by a specific emissions unit is five thousand dollars.

(3) Each act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the same penalty. Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the penalty shall become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives a notice in writing from the director or his designee or the control officer of the authority or his designee describing the violation with reasonable particularity and advising such person that the penalty is due unless a request is made for a hearing to the hearings board as provided for in chapter 43.21B RCW. When a request is made for a hearing, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order affirming the penalty in whole or part. If the amount of such penalty is not paid to the department or the board within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, and a request for a hearing has not been made, the attorney general, upon the request of the director or his designee, or the attorney for the local authority, upon request of the board or control officer, shall bring an action to recover such penalty in the superior court of the county in which the violation occurred. All penalties recovered under this section by the state board shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund or, if recovered by the authority, shall be paid into the treasury of the authority and credited to its funds.

(4) If a penalty is levied under subsection (2) of this section, the director or the director's authorized delegate may, upon written application therefor received within fifteen days after the notice imposing any penalty is received by the person incurring the penalty, and when deemed in the best interest to carry out the purposes of this chapter, remit or mitigate any penalty provided in this section upon such terms as the director in the director's discretion deems proper, and may ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as the director deems proper. The mitigation shall not affect or reduce the penalty imposed by the local board. Any person incurring any penalty under this section may appeal the same to the hearings board as provided in chapter 43.21B RCW. Appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice imposing any penalty unless an application for remission or mitigation is made to the department. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice from the director or the director's authorized delegate setting forth the disposition of the application. Any penalty imposed under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or an appeal is filed. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of the application unless an appeal is filed from the disposition. Whenever an appeal of any penalty incurred under this section is filed, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order confirming the penalty in whole or in part. If the amount of any penalty is not paid to the department within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county or of any county in which the violator may do business, to recover the penalty. In all such actions the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as for an ordinary civil action except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

To secure the penalty incurred under this section, the state or the authority shall have a lien on any vessel used or operated in violation of this chapter which shall be enforced as provided in RCW 60.36.050.

In all actions brought in the superior court for the recovery of penalties hereunder, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in an ordinary civil action."

SB 4376 Prime Sponsor, Senator Bender: Authorizing distribution of municipal sales and use tax equalization funds to cities and towns incorporated since January 1, 1983. Reported by Committee on Local Government

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 3, line 35, delete "This act applies" and insert "Sections 1 and 2 of this act apply"

On page 4, after line 7, insert the following:

"Sec. 5. Section 21, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 99, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.14.200 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created in the state general fund a special account to be known as the 'county sales and use tax equalization account.' Into this account shall be placed a portion of all motor vehicle excise tax receipts as provided in RCW 82.44.150(2). Funds in this account shall be allocated by the state treasurer according to the following procedure:

(1) Prior to April 1st of each year the director of revenue shall inform the state treasurer of the total and the per capita levels of revenues for the unincorporated area of each county and the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties imposing the sales and use tax authorized under RCW 82.14.030(1) for the previous calendar year.

(2) At such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(1) at the maximum rate and receiving less than one hundred fifty thousand dollars from the tax for the previous calendar year, an amount from the county sales and use tax equalization account sufficient, when added to the amount of revenues received the previous calendar year by the county, to equal one hundred fifty thousand dollars.

The department of revenue shall establish a governmental price index as provided in this subsection. The base year for the index shall be the end of the third quarter of 1982. Prior to November 1, 1983, and prior to each November 1st thereafter, the department of revenue shall establish another index figure for the third quarter of that year. The department of revenue may use the implicit price deflators for state and local government purchases of goods and services calculated by the United States department of commerce to establish the governmental price index. Beginning on January 1, 1984, and each January 1st thereafter, the one hundred fifty thousand dollar base figure in this subsection shall be adjusted in direct proportion to the percentage change in the governmental price index from 1982 until the year before the adjustment. Distributions made under this subsection for 1984 and thereafter shall use this adjusted base amount figure.

(3) Subsequent to the distributions under subsection (2) of this section and at such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(1) at the maximum rate and receiving less than seventy percent of the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties as determined by the department of revenue under subsection (1) of this section, an amount from the county sales and use tax equalization account sufficient, when added to the per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated area received the previous calendar year by the county, to equal seventy percent of the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties determined under subsection (1) of this section, subject to reduction under subsections ~~((5) and)~~ (6) and (7) of this section. When computing distributions under this section, any distribution under subsection (2) of this section shall be considered revenues received from the tax imposed under RCW 82.14.030(1) for the previous calendar year.

(4) Subsequent to the distributions under subsection (3) of this section and at such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) at the maximum rate and receiving a distribution under subsection (2) of this section, a third distribution from the county sales and use tax equalization account. The distribution to each qualifying county shall be equal to the distribution to the county under subsection (2) of this section, subject to the reduction under subsections (6) and (7) of this section. To qualify for the total distribution under this subsection, the county must impose the tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) for the entire calendar year. Counties imposing the tax for less than the full year shall qualify for prorated allocations under this subsection proportionate to the number of months of the year during which the tax is imposed.

(5) Subsequent to the distributions under subsection ~~((3))~~ (4) of this section and at such times as distributions are made under RCW 82.44.150, as now or hereafter amended, the state treasurer shall apportion to each county imposing the sales and use tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) at the maximum rate and receiving a distribution under subsection (3) of this section, a ~~((third))~~ fourth distribution from the county sales and use tax equalization account. The distribution to each qualifying county shall be equal to the distribution to the county under subsection (3) of this section, subject to the reduction under subsections ~~((5) and)~~ (6) and (7) of this section. To qualify for the distributions under this subsection, the county must impose the tax under RCW 82.14.030(2) for the entire calendar year. Counties imposing the tax for less than the full year shall qualify for prorated allocations under this subsection proportionate to the number of months of the year during which the tax is imposed.

~~((5))~~ (6) Revenues distributed under this section in any calendar year shall not exceed an amount equal to seventy percent of the state-wide weighted average per capita level of revenues for the unincorporated areas of all counties during the previous calendar year. If distributions under subsections (3) ~~((or (4)))~~ through (5) of this section cannot be made because of this limitation, then distributions under subsections (3) ~~((or (4)))~~ through (5) of this section shall be reduced ratably among the qualifying counties.

~~((6))~~ (7) If inadequate revenues exist in the county sales and use tax equalization account to make the distributions under subsections (3) ~~((or (4)))~~ through (5) of this section, then the distributions under subsections (3) ~~((or (4)))~~ through (5) of this section shall be reduced ratably among the qualifying counties. At such time during the year as additional funds accrue to the county sales and use tax equalization account, additional distributions shall be made under subsections (3) ~~((and (4)))~~ through (5) of this section to the counties.

~~((7))~~ (8) If the level of revenues in the county sales and use tax equalization account exceeds the amount necessary to make the distributions under subsections (2) through ~~((4))~~ (5) of this section, then the additional revenues shall be credited and transferred to the state general fund.

Sec. 6. Section 4, chapter 49, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 99, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.21.870 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No city or town may impose a tax on the privilege of conducting an electrical energy, natural gas, steam energy, or telephone business at a rate which exceeds six percent unless the rate is first approved by a majority of the voters of the city or town voting on such a proposition.

(2) If a city or town is imposing a rate of tax under subsection (1) of this section in excess of six percent on April 20, 1982, the city or town shall decrease the rate to a rate of six percent or less by reducing the rate each year on or before November 1st by ordinances to be effective on January 1st of the succeeding year, by an amount equal to one-tenth the difference between the tax rate on April 20, 1982, and six percent.

Nothing in this subsection prohibits a city or town from reducing its rates by amounts greater than the amounts required in this subsection.

Voter approved rate increases under subsection (1) of this section shall not be included in the computations under this subsection."

Renumber the remaining sections.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1471, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Grimm, Hine and Sommers)

Providing a timber excise tax rate.

Mr. Braddock moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Braddock and McClure:

On page 2, line 2 after "section," insert "provided that for timber harvested from public land and sold under a competitive bidding process, stumpage value shall mean that actual amount paid to the seller in cash or other consideration. Representatives Braddock and Halsan spoke in favor of the amendment, and it was adopted.

Mr. Halsan moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Halsan and Tilly:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The intent of the legislature in adopting this chapter is to provide a comprehensive timber tax system covering all timber harvests in the state and a simpler and more equitable timber tax distribution system. In achieving this intent, it was considered advisable to reenact the definition, imposition, distribution, and administration provisions in separate, shorter sections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Composite property tax rate' for a county means the total amount of property taxes levied upon forest lands by all taxing districts in the county other than the state, divided by the total assessed value of all forest land in the county.

(2) 'Forest land' means forest land which is classified or designated forest land under chapter 84.33 RCW.

(3) 'Harvested' means the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity of timber by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(4) 'Harvester' means every person who from the person's own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services, fells, cuts, or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. The term does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(5) 'Stumpage value of timber' means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables prepared by the department of revenue under section 7 of this act.

(6) 'Timber' means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(7) 'Timber assessed value' for a county means a value, calculated by the department of revenue before October 1 of each year, equal to the total stumpage value of timber harvested from privately owned land in the county during the most recent four calendar quarters for which the information is available multiplied by a ratio. The numerator of the ratio is the rate of tax imposed by the county under section 4 of this act for the year of the calculation. The denominator of the ratio is the composite property tax rate for the county for taxes due in the year of the calculation, expressed as a percentage of assessed value.

(8) 'Timber assessed value' for a taxing district means the timber assessed value for the county multiplied by a ratio. The numerator of the ratio is the total assessed value of forest land in the taxing district. The denominator is the total assessed value of forest land in the county. As used in this section, 'assessed value of forest land' means the assessed value of forest land for taxes due in the year the timber assessed value for the county is calculated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A tax is imposed on every person engaging in this state in business as a harvester of timber on privately or publicly owned land. Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber, as to such persons the amount of tax imposed with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the appropriate rate as follows:

(a) For timber harvested July 1, 1984, through June 30, 1985, six and one-half percent;

(b) For timber harvested July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1986, five and three-quarters percent;

(c) For timber harvested June 30, 1986, and thereafter, five percent.

(2) A credit is allowed against the tax imposed under this section for any tax paid under section 4 of this act.

(3) Moneys received as payment for the tax imposed under this section and section 4 of this act shall be deposited in the timber tax distribution account hereby established in the state general fund.

(4) Timber on privately owned land or federally owned land shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The legislative body of any county may impose a tax upon every person engaging in the county in business as a harvester effective October 1, 1984. The tax shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested from privately owned land multiplied by a rate of four percent.

(2) Before the effective date of any ordinance imposing a tax under this section, the county shall contract with the department of revenue for administration and collection of the tax. The tax collected by the department of revenue under this section shall be deposited by the department in the timber tax distribution account. Moneys in the account may be spent only for distributions to counties and the state under section 5 of this act and, after appropriation by the legislature, for the activities undertaken by the department of revenue relating to the collection and administration of the taxes imposed under this section. Appropriations are not required for distributions to counties under section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) On the last business day of the second month of each calendar quarter, the state treasurer shall distribute from the timber tax distribution account to each county the amount of tax collected on behalf of each county under section 4 of this act, less each county's proportionate share of appropriations for collection and administration activities under section 4 of this act, and shall transfer to the state general fund the amount of tax collected on behalf of the state under section 3 of this act, less the state's proportionate share of appropriations for collection and administration activities under section 3 of this act. The county treasurer shall deposit moneys received under this section in a county timber tax account which shall be established by each county. Following receipt of moneys under this section, the county treasurer shall make distributions from any moneys available in the county timber tax account to taxing districts in the county, except the state, under subsections (2) through (4) of this section.

(2) From moneys available, there first shall be a distribution to each taxing district having debt service payments due during the calendar year, based upon bonds issued under authority of a vote of the people conducted pursuant to RCW 84.52.056 and based upon excess levies for a capital project fund authorized pursuant to RCW 84.52.053, of an amount equal to the timber assessed value of the district multiplied by the tax rate levied for payment of the debt service and capital projects: PROVIDED, That in respect to levies for a debt service or capital project fund authorized before the effective date of this act, the amount allocated shall not be less than an amount equal to the same percentage of such debt service or capital project fund represented by timber tax allocations to such payments in calendar year 1984.

Distribution under this subsection (2) shall be used only for debt service and capital projects payments.

(3) From the moneys remaining after the distributions under subsection (2) of this section, the county treasurer shall distribute to each school district an amount equal to one-half of the timber assessed value of the district or eighty percent of the timber roll of such district in calendar year 1983 as determined under chapter 84.33 RCW, whichever is greater, multiplied by the tax rate, if any, levied by the district under RCW 84.52.052 or 84.52.053 for purposes other than debt service payments and capital projects supported under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) After the distributions directed under subsections (2) and (3) of this section, if any, each taxing district shall receive an amount equal to the timber assessed value of the district multiplied by the tax rate, if any, levied as a regular levy of the district or as a special levy not included in subsection (2) or (3) of this section.

(5) If there are insufficient moneys in the county timber tax account to make full distribution under subsection (4) of this section, the county treasurer shall multiply the amount to be distributed to each taxing district under that subsection by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the county timber tax account balance before making distribution under this subsection. The denominator of the fraction is the account balance which would be required to make full distribution under this subsection.

(6) After making the distributions under subsections (2) through (4) of this section in the full amount indicated for the calendar year, the county treasurer shall place any excess revenue up to twenty percent of the total distributions made for the year under subsections (2) through (4) of this section in a reserve status until the beginning of the next calendar year. Any moneys remaining in the county timber tax account after this amount is placed in reserve shall be distributed to each taxing district in the county in the same proportions as the distributions made under subsection (4) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The taxes imposed under this chapter shall be computed with respect to timber harvested each calendar quarter and shall be due and payable in quarterly installments. Remittance shall be made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the end of the quarterly period in which the tax accrues. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of tax for which the taxpayer is liable for the preceding quarterly period and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for the amount of tax.

(2) The taxes imposed by this chapter are in addition to any taxes imposed upon the same persons under chapter 82.04 RCW.

(3) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter is excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting, and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within these units. The stumpage value shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. These stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions, and all other relevant factors from:

(a) Gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities;

(b) Gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest; or

(c) A combination of (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(2) Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood, or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise the stumpage value tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying the tax.

(3) The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof are subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house of representatives and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or the director's designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request for a copy.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The state timber tax account A and state timber tax reserve account established in RCW 84.33.071 and the timber tax distribution guarantee account established in RCW 84.33.085 shall continue within the state general fund and state treasury, respectively, until all funds remaining therein after complying with subsections (4) and (5) of this section are distributed as follows:

(1) Any remaining timber tax moneys in the state timber tax account A and state timber tax reserve account shall be distributed in the following manner:

(a) Thirty-seven percent to the state general fund for use in support of the common schools.

(b) Subject to appropriation by the legislature, sixty-three percent to the counties of the state in the proportion the receipts of harvester excise tax from each county are to the total receipts of harvester excise tax from all counties in the state in calendar years 1982 and 1983.

(2) Any remaining timber tax moneys in the timber tax distribution guarantee account shall be distributed to the counties in the same proportions and percentages as provided for the state timber tax account A and the state timber tax reserve account on May 1, 1985.

(3) Distributions to the counties under authority of this section shall be deposited in the timber tax account of the counties and disbursed to taxing districts of each county in the same priority and as part of the distributions authorized by section 5 of this act.

(4) The taxes due and payable under RCW 84.33.071 with respect to timber harvested during the second and third quarters of calendar year 1984 shall be collected and deposited in the state treasury as though this act had not been enacted.

(5) The payments required to be made through November 20, 1984, by the state treasurer to the treasurer of each timber county under RCW 84.33.080 shall be made as though this act had not been enacted.

This section shall expire on January 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. All sections of chapter 82.32 RCW, except RCW 82.32.045 and 82.32.270, apply to the taxes imposed under this chapter.

Sec. 10. Section 84.52.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The county assessor shall extend the taxes upon the tax rolls in the form herein prescribed. The rate percent necessary to raise the amounts of taxes levied for state and county purposes, and for purposes of taxing districts coextensive with the county, shall be computed upon the assessed value of the property of the county; the rate percent necessary to raise the amount of taxes levied for any taxing district within the county shall be computed upon the assessed value of the property of the district; all taxes assessed against any property shall be added together and extended on the rolls in a column headed consolidated or total tax. In extending any tax, whenever it amounts to a fractional part of a cent greater than five mills it shall be made one cent, and whenever it amounts to five mills or less than five mills it shall be dropped. The amount of all taxes shall be entered in the proper columns, as shown by entering the rate percent necessary to raise the consolidated or total tax and the total tax assessed against the property.

(2) For the purpose of computing the rate necessary to raise the amount of any excess levy in a taxing district which has classified or designated forest land under chapter 84.33 RCW, other than the state, the county assessor shall add the district's timber assessed value, as defined in section 2 of this 1984 act, to the assessed value of the property: PROVIDED, That for school districts maintenance and operations levies only one-half of the district's timber assessed value shall be added.

(3) Upon the completion of such tax extension, it shall be the duty of the county assessor to make in each assessment book, tax roll or list a certificate in the following form:

I, _____, assessor of _____ county, state of Washington, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct list of taxes levied on the real and personal property in the county of _____ for the year one thousand nine hundred and _____.

Witness my hand this _____ day of _____, 19_____.

_____, County Assessor

(4) The county assessor shall deliver said tax rolls to the county treasurer on or before the fifteenth day of December, taking his receipt therefor, and at the same time the county assessor shall provide the county auditor with an abstract of the tax rolls showing the total amount of taxes collectible in each of the taxing districts.

Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 42, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 39.36.015 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever used in this 1970 amendatory act, the term 'value of the taxable property' shall mean the actual value of the taxable property in a taxing district incurring indebtedness, as the term 'taxing district' is defined in RCW 39.36.010, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness except that in incorporated cities the assessment shall be taken from the last assessment for city purposes, plus the timber assessed value for the district as defined in section 2 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 12. Section 2, chapter 146, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.074 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A small harvester may elect to calculate the tax imposed by ~~((RCW 84.33.074))~~ sections 3 and 4 of this 1984 act in the manner provided in this section.

(2) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) Timber values shall be determined by either of the following methods, whichever is most appropriate to the circumstances of the harvest:

(a) When standing timber is sold on the stump, the taxable value is the actual gross receipts received by the landowner from the sale of the standing timber.

(b) When timber is sold after it has been harvested, the taxable value is the actual gross receipts from sale of the harvested timber minus the costs of harvesting and marketing the timber. When the taxpayer is unable to provide documented proof of harvesting and marketing costs, this deduction for harvesting and marketing costs shall be a percentage of the gross receipts from sale of the harvested timber as determined by the department of revenue but in no case less than twenty-five percent.

(4) The department of revenue shall prescribe a short filing form which shall be as simple as possible.

Sec. 13. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1980 and RCW 84.33.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The excise tax imposed by ~~((RCW 84.33.074))~~ this chapter shall not apply to any timber harvested by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation from forest lands owned by it, where such lands are exempt from property taxes under RCW 84.36.030, and where all of the income and receipts of the nonprofit organization, association, or corporation derived from such timber sales are used solely for the expense of promoting, operating, and maintaining youth programs which are equally available to all, regardless of race, color, national origin, ancestry, or religious belief.

In order to determine whether the harvesting of timber by a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation is exempt, the director of the department of revenue shall have access to its books.

For the purposes of this section, a 'nonprofit' organization, association, or corporation is one: (1) Which pays no part of its income directly or indirectly to its members, stockholders, officers, directors, or trustees except in the form of services rendered by the organization, association, or corporation in accordance with its purposes and bylaws; and (2) which pays salary or compensation to its officers only for actual services rendered, and at levels comparable to the salary or compensation of like positions within the public services of the state.

Sec. 14. Section 8, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.077 are each amended to read as follows:

The amount of any property taxes paid on timber standing on public land shall be allowed as a credit against any tax imposed with respect to the business of harvesting timber from publicly owned land under ~~((RCW 84.33.074))~~ section 3 of this 1984 act. However, the amount of credit allowed shall not exceed the amount of excise tax due in respect to the business of harvesting timber from publicly owned land.

Sec. 15. Section 9, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.078 are each amended to read as follows:

When any timber standing on public land, other than federally owned land, is sold separate from the land, the department of natural resources or other governmental unit, as appropriate, shall provide each bidder with a written notice clearly stating that timber sold separate from the land is subject to property tax in 1984 and thereafter and that the amount of the tax paid may be used as a credit against any tax imposed with respect to business of harvesting timber from publicly owned land under ~~((RCW 84.33.074))~~ section 3 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 16. Section 12, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1982, for taxes payable in 1983 and each January 1st thereafter, the assessor shall list each parcel of forest land at a value with respect to the grade and class provided in this subsection and adjusted as provided in subsection (2) of this section and shall compute the assessed value of the land by using the same assessment ratio he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his county. Values for the several grades of bare forest land shall be as follows.

(2) On or before December 31, 1981, the department shall adjust, by rule under chapter 34.04 RCW, the forest land values contained in subsection (1) of this section in accordance with this subsection, and shall certify these adjusted values to the county assessor for his use in preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1982. For the adjustment to be made on or before December 31, 1981, for use in the 1982 assessment year, the department shall:

(a) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1976, and June 30, 1981, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33-.071; and

(b) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1975, and June 30, 1980, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33-.071; and

(c) Adjust the forest land values contained in subsection (1) of this section by a percentage equal to one-half of the percentage change in the average values of harvested timber reflected by comparing the resultant values calculated under (a) and (b) of this subsection.

For the adjustments to be made on or before December 31, 1982, and each succeeding year thereafter, the same procedure shall be followed as described in this subsection utilizing harvester excise tax returns filed under RCW 82.04.291 and ((84-33-071-)) this chapter except that this adjustment shall be made to the prior year's adjusted value, and the five-year periods for calculating average harvested timber values shall be successively one year more recent.

(3) In preparing the assessment roll for 1972 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall enter as the true and fair value of each parcel of forest land the appropriate grade value certified to him by the department of revenue, and he shall compute the assessed value of such land by using the same assessment ratio he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his county. In preparing the assessment roll for 1975 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall assess and value as classified forest land all forest land that is not then designated pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130 and shall make a notation of such classification upon the assessment and tax rolls. On or before January 15 of the first year in which such notation is made, the assessor shall mail notice by certified mail to the owner that such land has been classified as forest land and is subject to the compensating tax imposed by this section. If the owner desires not to have such land assessed and valued as classified forest land, he shall give the assessor written notice thereof on or before March 31 of such year and the assessor shall remove from the assessment and tax rolls the classification notation entered pursuant to this subsection, and shall thereafter assess and value such land in the manner provided by law other than this chapter 84.33 RCW.

(4) In any year commencing with 1972, an owner of land which is assessed and valued by the assessor other than pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 84.33.110 and this section, and which has, in the immediately preceding year, been assessed and valued by the assessor as forest land, may appeal to the county board of equalization by filing an application with the board in the manner prescribed in subsection (2) of RCW 84.33.130. The county board shall afford the applicant an opportunity to be heard if the application so requests and shall act upon the application in the manner prescribed in subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.130.

(5) Land that has been assessed and valued as classified forest land as of any year commencing with 1975 assessment year or earlier shall continue to be so assessed and valued until removal of classification by the assessor only upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such land from classification as forest land;
 (b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;
 (c) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that, because of actions taken by the owner, such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber;

(d) Determination that a higher and better use exists for such land than growing and harvesting timber after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard;

(e) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of forest land classification continuance. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.120, as now or hereafter amended. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all compensating taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (7) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified forest land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the compensating tax has been paid. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (7) of this section to the county board of equalization. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals.

The assessor shall remove classification pursuant to subsections (c) or (d) above prior to September 30 of the year prior to the assessment year for which termination of classification is to be effective. Removal of classification as forest land upon occurrence of subsection (a), (b), (d), or (e) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (c) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber: PROVIDED, That any remaining classified forest land meets necessary definitions of forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.100 as now or hereafter amended.

(6) Within thirty days after such removal of classification as forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner of such land shall thereupon have the right to apply for designation of such land as forest land pursuant to subsection (4) of this section or RCW 84.33.130. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(7) Unless the owner successfully applies for designation of such land or unless the removal is reversed on appeal, notation of removal from classification shall immediately be made upon the assessment and tax rolls, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor made such notation, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in ((subsections)) subsections (5)(e) and (9) of this section and unless the assessor shall not have mailed notice of classification pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the compensating tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference, if any, between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years, commencing with assessment year 1975, for which such land was assessed and valued as forest land.

(8) Compensating tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from classification as forest land and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(9) The compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification as forest land pursuant to subsection (5) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

(10) With respect to any land that has been designated prior to May 6, 1974, pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130, the assessor may, prior to January 1, 1975, on his own motion or pursuant to petition by the owner, change, without imposition of the compensating tax provided under RCW 84.33.140, the status of such designated land to classified forest land.

Sec. 17. Section 17, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 226, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 84.33.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, this chapter shall not exempt from the ad valorem tax nor subject to the excise tax imposed by ~~(RCW 84.33.071)~~ this chapter, Christmas trees which are grown on land which has been prepared by intensive cultivation and tilling, such as by plowing or turning over the soil, and on which all unwanted plant growth is controlled continuously for the exclusive purpose of raising such Christmas trees, and such land on which such Christmas trees stand shall not be taxed as provided in RCW 84.33.100 through 84.33.140.

Sec. 18. Section 9, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 6, Laws of 1979 and RCW 84.33.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature shall review the system of distribution and allocation of all timber excise tax revenues in January, 1975 and each year thereafter to provide a uniform and equitable distribution and allocation of such revenues to the state and local taxing districts.

(2) In order to allow legislative review of the rules and regulations to be adopted by the department of revenue establishing the stampage ~~((value index))~~ values provided for in ~~(RCW 84.33.071(3))~~ section 7 of this 1984 act, such rules and regulations shall be effective not less than sixty days after transmitting to the staffs of the senate and house ways and means committees (or their successor committees) the same proposed rules and regulations as shall have been previously filed with the office of the code reviser pursuant to RCW 34.04.025(1)(a).

(3) In the event that a permanent timber tax rate is not set in 1979, a joint timber tax advisory committee shall be established. The joint advisory committee shall be composed of members of the house of representatives and the senate and co-chaired by a member of the house revenue committee and a member of the senate ways and means committee. The joint advisory committee shall recommend a rate level and distribution system on or before the convening of the forty-seventh legislature.

(4) The department of revenue and the department of natural resources shall make available to the revenue committees of the senate and house of representatives of the state legislative information and data, as it may be available, pertaining to the status of forest land grading throughout the state, the collection of timber excise tax revenues, the distribution and allocation of timber excise tax revenues to the state and local taxing districts, and any other information as may be necessary for the proper legislative review and implementation of the timber excise tax system, and in addition, the departments shall provide an annual report of such matters in January of each year to such committees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 1 through 9 of this act are each added to chapter 84.33 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The legislature finds that two separate systems are used in the taxation of forest land and the timber and forest crops grown thereon. Less than eight percent of private forest land is taxed under the system enacted in 1931; over ninety-two percent is taxed under the 1971 law. The policies established under RCW 84.28.005 in 1931 and RCW 84.33.010 in 1971 will be carried out more efficiently and equitably under a single uniform taxing system. It is the purpose of sections 21 through 25 of this act to phase out the system enacted in 1931 for taxation of forest land and forest crops and to integrate the taxation of that land and forest crops into the tax system enacted in 1971.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The classification of land as reforestation land under this chapter is terminated, effective July 1, 1984. Effective July 1, 1984, this land shall be classified forest land under chapter 84.33 RCW and this land and the timber standing thereon shall be subject to all provisions of chapter 84.33 RCW: PROVIDED, That for timber harvested from these reclassified reforestation lands for the period July 1, 1984, through December 1, 1984, the tax shall be paid prior to January 31, 1985, and such tax revenue shall be distributed to the state and local taxing districts in the same manner as if the timber were harvested after October 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, 'reclassified reforestation land' means land for which the classification has terminated under section 21 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The county assessor of a county in which there are reclassified reforestation lands shall notify each owner of record of reclassified reforestation land of the reclassification prior to August 1, 1984. If the owner desires to remove any such land from classification as reclassified reforestation land, the owner shall file an application for removal from classification of the land by legal description prior to October 1, 1984. The application for declassification shall be accompanied by a payment equal to six percent of the stumpage value of any commercial timber standing on the land as of July 1, 1984. The assessor shall accept the request for removal from classification but may ask for an appraisal of the standing timber certified by an experienced timber cruiser before final acceptance of the payment due. Upon final approval and payment of the proper amount, the assessor shall assess the land at its value for highest and best use as of January 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1985, for taxes payable in 1986, the assessor shall list, prior to May 31, 1985, each parcel of reclassified reforestation land at the values set in accordance with RCW 84.33.120. For the purpose of calculating the limitation on tax levies under chapter 84.55 RCW, the increase in assessed valuation of reclassified reforestation land entered on the tax rolls as of January 1, 1985, shall be treated the same as increases resulting from new construction. Reclassified reforestation land shall be considered to have been designated or classified forest land for a period in excess of ten years for purposes of calculating any compensating tax which may become payable under RCW 84.33.140.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 84.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) There shall be paid by each owner of reclassified reforestation lands, in addition to the excise tax imposed under sections 3 and 4 of this act, in respect to timber harvested from these lands, the following amounts:

- (a) For timber harvested in 1985, three percent of the stumpage value;
- (b) For timber harvested in 1986, two percent of the stumpage value; and
- (c) For timber harvested in 1987, one percent of the stumpage value.

(2) The taxes payable under this section shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the timber is harvested on or before March 15 of the year following the harvest. The county treasurer shall deposit these receipts in the county timber tax account to be distributed to local taxing districts in the same manner as the distributions of moneys received by the county from the county timber tax authorized in section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The department of revenue shall audit the records of each county in which there are forest lands classified under chapter 84.28 RCW for the purpose of determining compliance with chapter 84.28 RCW in respect to the collection of yield taxes on timber harvested and the disposition of such moneys for the period 1980 through 1984. The department of revenue shall advise the state treasurer of any underpayment or overpayment of moneys due the state and may enter into an agreement with the county treasurer relieving the county of any further liability under chapter 84.28 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. Nothing in sections 21 through 25 of this act excuses or discharges any person from the yield tax imposed by RCW 84.28.110 with respect to timber harvested from reforestation lands prior to July 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 3, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 4, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.030;
- (2) Section 4, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 7, chapter 62, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.040;
- (3) Section 5, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 4, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess., section 90, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 3, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.050;
- (4) Section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 91, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 6, Laws of 1979 and RCW 84.33.060.

(5) Section 1, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1979, section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1981, section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess., section 59, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.071;

(6) Section 6, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.072;

(7) Section 8, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess., section 92, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 187, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 8, chapter 123, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess., section 3, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 3, chapter 6, Laws of 1979, section 6, chapter 4, Laws of 1981, section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1983 and RCW 84.33.080;

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Grimm: "Mr. Speaker, the amendment is beyond scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Substitute House Bill No. 1471 and the floor amendment. The title of SHB 1471 is 'An Act Relating to timber excise tax rates.' The object of the bill is to make permanent a timber excise tax rate scheme for the industry and small harvesters. Section 3 of the amendment does conform to the title and object of SHB 1471 as it changes the 'timber excise tax rate' for harvested timber. However, sections 4 through 19 attempt to institute a different timber tax distribution scheme. SHB 1471 in no way attempts to change the current distribution scheme in RCW 84.33.071 (the only substantive RCW section in SHB 1471). Sections 20 through 25 of the amendment create a new scheme for the taxation of reforested land found in chapter 84.28 RCW. Obviously this subject is not even addressed in SHB 1471. Thus, due to the inclusion of objects not addressed by SHB 1471, this floor amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. Your point is well taken, Representative Grimm."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Halsan: "I would like to take this opportunity to comment on some deep feelings that I have concerning the procedures that are taking place in this body. Although I respect the Speaker's ruling concerning the scope and object of this particular amendment, I have some severe problems with the fact that the issue of the distribution to local governments has not been addressed by this body. Be that, in a situation where a bill was passed out of the Ways and Means Committee with a title so narrow that this ruling was, in fact, made, we have a situation at the present time where we have perfected the bill to lower the tax rate from six and one-half percent to five percent over a period of three years. We also have a situation with the present distribution system that only fifty-five percent of that would go to local governments. I have always maintained, and I still maintain, that we need and we must change that distribution system to hold the counties, the local governments, the libraries, the minor taxing districts, harmless so that they will get at least as much, if not more, revenue than they presently receive. Without dealing with a distribution formula on this particular bill, we are putting them in grave peril. I think it is something the body should reflect upon in consideration of other bills that we might address on that particular aspect. It is a very dangerous situation for us to be in."

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 59, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.071 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax imposed with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested (~~between July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984~~) for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the rate of six and one-half percent.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) 'Harvester' means every person who from his own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(b) 'Timber' means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(c) 'Stumpage value of timber' means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables to be prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(d) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within such units, which values shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request therefor.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(5) There are hereby created in the state treasury a state timber tax account A and a state timber tax reserve account in the state general fund and any interest earned on the investment of cash balances shall be deposited in these accounts. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of the tax for which he is liable for the preceding quarterly period, and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for such amount.

(7) The taxes imposed by this section shall be in addition to any taxes imposed upon the same persons pursuant to one or more of sections RCW 82.04.230 to 82.04.290, inclusive, and RCW 82.04.440, and none of such sections shall be construed to modify or interact with this section in any way, except RCW 82.04.450 and 82.32.045 shall not apply to the taxes imposed by this section.

(8) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter shall be excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 84.33 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A taxpayer may apply for refund of taxes deposited in the trust fund. The amount of the refund shall not exceed the lesser of the following amounts:

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Tilly: "Mr. speaker, I challenge this amendment on scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Substitute House Bill No. 1471 and the amendment by Representative Appelwick. The title of the bill is 'An Act Relating to timber excise tax rates.' The object of the bill is to make permanent a timber excise tax rate scheme for the industry and small harvesters. The amendment attempts to create a taxing scheme for the deferral of the timber excise tax. This deferral would be authorized if the timber harvester made qualifying capital improvements. Even though the amendment makes the timber excise tax permanent, it attempts to create a new timber tax scheme not addressed by the bill. Thus, due to the inclusion of objects not addressed by SHB 1471, this floor amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. Your point is well taken, Representative Tilly."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Appelwick: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to comment briefly on my disappointment that the objection was raised, not being disappointed with the Speaker's ruling, but I hope you will take the time to read this amendment. We addressed the industry's concerns that there was a tax credit plan that the legislature could not revoke that could be sufficiently enforceable under the contract rights and which would have given us some adjustment return for the tax breaks being given. It is really a disappointment that we have to have a giveaway instead of an adjustment."

Mr. Appelwick moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 59, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.071 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax imposed with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested (~~between July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984;~~) for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the rate of six and one-half percent.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) 'Harvester' means every person who from his own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(b) 'Timber' means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(c) 'Stumpage value of timber' means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables to be prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(d) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within such units, which values shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request therefor.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(5) There are hereby created in the state treasury a state timber tax account A and a state timber tax reserve account in the state general fund and any interest earned on the investment of cash balances shall be deposited in these accounts. (8) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter shall be excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 347, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1 of this 1984 act and RCW 84.33.071 are each amended to read as follows:

Increasing judges' salaries.

The bill was read the second time.

Mr. B. Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 22 insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislative budget committee, in consultation with the state actuary, the director of the department of retirement systems, and the executive director of the state investment board, shall review the financial status, benefit provisions, and the funding of the judicial retirement system and shall present recommendations to the legislature no later than January 14, 1985, on changes needed to ensure sound funding of the judicial retirement system.'

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, I would like to raise the question of scope and object and consistency with our rules on this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3208 and the amendment by Representative Williams. The title of ESB 3208 is 'An Act Relating to judges' salaries.' This is a fairly narrow title in that it refers to 'salaries' and neither to 'compensation' nor to 'pensions.' The body of the bill concerns only the salaries of judges. As neither the title nor the body of the bill deal with pensions or retirement, the amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. Your point is well taken, Representative Sommers."

Mr. B. Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 24 after "1985" strike the remainder of the section and insert:

"(a) The sum of one million five hundred twenty-three thousand dollars, or so much as may be necessary, for the salary increases provided in this act; and

(b) The sum of thirty-three million eight hundred thousand dollars, or so much as may be necessary, for funding of the unfunded liability of the judicial retirement system, including the increased costs resulting from the salary increases provided in this act."

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "Mr. Speaker, I wish to raise the question of scope and object on this amendment as well."

Mr. B. Williams moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, after the enacting clause strike all material down to and including the period on page 2, line 22 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The compensation provisions of sections 2 and 3 of this 1984 act are designed to provide some balance between the salaries of judicial officers and their retirement allowances. The legislature finds that judicial officers have not received adequate salaries, but are eligible to receive benefits under the judicial retirement system that are very generous.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The salary increments specified under this section shall only be authorized for judicial officers who elect to receive the increments and to be governed by the provisions of section 3 of this 1984 act.

(2) Judicial officers desiring to make the election shall provide notice thereof to the treasurer. Upon providing such notice, they shall be entitled to the following increment which shall be in addition to their regular salaries: (a) Fourteen thousand five hundred dollars per year for justices of the supreme court; (b) fourteen thousand and nine hundred dollars per year for judges of the court of appeals; and (c) fifteen thousand and three hundred dollars per year for judges of the superior court.

(3) The increments authorized in this section are contingent on the validity of and the state's power to enforce the recipients' election to be governed by the provisions of section 3 of this 1984 act. Should the requirement of the election be declared invalid as applied to a judicial officer or should the state be prevented from applying the provisions of section 3 to a judicial officer, then such officer shall no longer be eligible to receive the increment and will have to pay back the total amount of the increments previously received with interest at the rate of nine percent per year. A judicial officer shall have no right to receive or retain any increment in the absence of a valid and enforceable election by the officer.

POINT OF ORDER

Ms. Sommers: "I wish to raise the same question of scope and object on this amendment."

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The Speaker has examined Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3208 and the amendment by Representative Williams. The title of ESB 3208 is 'An Act Relating to judges' salaries.' This is a fairly narrow title in that it refers to 'salaries' and neither to 'compensation' nor to 'pensions.' The body of the bill concerns only the salaries of judges. As neither the title nor the body of the bill deal with pensions or retirement, the amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill. Your point is well taken, Representative Sommers."

Ms. Monohon moved adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 144, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 4, chapter 255, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 2.04.090 are each amended to read as follows:

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

It was my intention to vote against SB 4428 for the following reasons:

Even though this program has been authorized by Congress and is funded by them at $2.5 million per year, the Executive Branch of the Federal Government wants to stop this program. They consider the problem of excess capacity to be a local problem. Assuming this is a local problem, the state should face up to its responsibilities and fund the program instead of holding our hands out for charity from the Federal Government.

The people benefiting from the program being authorized by this legislation are being subsidized by taxpayer dollars because of bad business decisions.

Funds may also be used to provide technical assistance to businesses in the areas of land use, transportation, site location, and manpower training. Matching funds cannot be used

The schools shall promote the voluntary participation of staff, parents, and members of the community to the extent possible.

(6) County prosecuting attorneys are responsible to make every reasonable effort to insure that the penalty assessments of this chapter are imposed and collected.

(7) Penalty assessments under this section shall also be imposed in juvenile offense dispositions under Title 13 RCW. Upon motion of a party and a showing of good cause, the court may modify the penalty assessment in the disposition of juvenile offenses under Title 13 RCW.

(8) Until June 30, 1987, every city and town shall transmit monthly one and seventy-five one-hundredths percent of all money, other than money received for parking infractions, retained under RCW 3.46.120, 3.50.100, and 35.20.220 to the county treasurer for deposit as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. A resident without a license or permit whose license or permit was denied under RCW 46.20.610 shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

(a) If the civil and criminal sanctions imposed or to be imposed are for the same minimum length of time, the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department is limited to that first imposed and fully effective under one of those provisions;

(b) If the civil and criminal sanctions are of different minimum lengths of time, the department shall impose the sanction of longer duration. If the sanction with the shorter minimum duration has earlier been imposed by the department, the department shall reduce the minimum duration of the longer revocation by the number of days the license, permit, or privilege to drive was actually under suspension, revocation, or denial pursuant to the earlier action by the department.

If a suspension, revocation, or denial of a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive would have been imposed by the department under RCW 46.20.610 but for the operation of this section, the suspension, revocation, or denial shall be treated as if it had been imposed for the purposes of determining the minimum duration of subsequent suspensions or revocations required under that section.

Sec. 327. Section 23, chapter 64, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as last amended by section 58, chapter 7, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.44.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Violation of any of the provisions of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, and 46.44.041, or failure to obtain a permit as provided by RCW 46.44.090 and 46.44.095, or misrepresentation of the size or weight of any load or failure to follow the requirements and conditions of a permit issued hereunder is a traffic infraction, and upon the first finding thereof shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than fifty dollars; and upon a second finding thereof shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than seventy-five dollars; and upon a third or subsequent finding shall be assessed a basic penalty of not less than one hundred dollars.

(2) In addition to the penalties imposed in subsection (1) of this section, any person violating RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 shall be assessed three cents for each pound of excess weight. Upon a first violation in any calendar year, the court may suspend the penalty for five hundred pounds of excess weight for each axle on any vehicle or combination of vehicles, not to exceed a two thousand pound suspension. In no case may the basic penalty assessed in subsection (1) of this section be suspended.

(3) Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is involved in two violations of RCW 46.44.042, 46.44.047, 46.44.090, 46.44.091, 46.44.095, or 46.44.041 during any twelve-month period, the court may suspend the certificate of license registration of the vehicle or combination of vehicles for not less than thirty days. Upon a third or succeeding violation in any twelve-month period, the court shall suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days. Whenever the certificate of license registration is suspended, the court shall secure such certificate and immediately forward the same to the director with information concerning the suspension.

(4) Any person found to have violated any posted limitations of a highway or section of highway shall be assessed a monetary penalty of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars, and the court shall in addition thereto upon second violation within a twelve-month period involving the same power unit, suspend the certificate of license registration for not less than thirty days.

(5) Any police officer is authorized to require the driver of any vehicle or combination of vehicles to stop and submit to a weighing either by means of a portable or stationary scale and may require that the vehicle be driven to the nearest public scale. Whenever a police officer, upon weighing a vehicle and load, determines that the weight is unlawful, the officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable location and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of the vehicle to the limit permitted by law.

Any vehicle whose driver or owner represents that the vehicle is disabled or otherwise unable to proceed to a weighing location shall have its load sealed or otherwise marked by any police officer. The owner or driver shall be directed that upon completion of repairs, the vehicle shall submit to weighing with the load and markings and/or seal intact and undisturbed. Failure to report for weighing, appearing for weighing with the seal broken or the markings disturbed, or removal of any cargo prior to weighing is unlawful. Any person so convicted shall be fined five hundred dollars, and in addition the certificate of license registration shall be suspended for not less than thirty days.

(6) Any other provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, justice courts having venue have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior courts for the imposition of any penalties authorized under this section.

(7) For the purpose of determining additional penalties as provided by subsection (2) of this section, 'excess weight' means the poundage in excess of the maximum gross weight prescribed by RCW 46.44.042 and 46.44.041 plus the weights allowed by RCW 46.44.047, 46.44.091, and 46.44.095.

(8) ~~The ((basic penalty)) penalties provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section ((shall be distributed as prescribed in RCW 46.68.050. However, all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law)) shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW or RCW 10.82.070. For the purpose of computing the basic penalties and additional penalties to be imposed under the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section the convictions shall be on the same vehicle or combination of vehicles within a twelve-month period under the same ownership.~~

~~(9) ((The additional penalty for excess poundage provided in subsection (2) of this section shall be transmitted by the court to the county treasurer and transmitted by him to the state treasurer for deposit in the motor vehicle fund. However, all fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW. It shall then be allocated annually on or before June 30th of each year in the amounts prescribed in RCW 46.68.100.~~

(H)) Any state patrol officer or any weight control officer who finds any person operating a vehicle or a combination of vehicles in violation of the conditions of a permit issued under RCW 46.44.037, 46.44.090, and 46.44.095 may confiscate the permit and forward it to the state department of transportation which may return it to the permittee or revoke, cancel, or suspend it without refund. The department of transportation shall keep a record of all action taken upon permits so confiscated, and if a permit is returned to the permittee the action taken by the department of transportation shall be endorsed thereon. Any permittee whose permit is suspended or revoked may upon request receive a hearing before the department of transportation or person designated by that department. After the hearing the department of transportation may reinstate any permit or revise its previous action.

ESB 4432 Prime Sponsor, Senator Fleming: Establishing a mathematics, engineering, and science achievement program for underrepresented groups. Reported by Committee on Education

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that high technology is important to the state's economy and the welfare of its citizens. The legislature finds that certain groups, as characterized by sex or ethnic background, are traditionally underrepresented in mathematics, engineering, and the science-related professions in this state. The legislature finds that women and minority students have been traditionally discouraged from entering the fields of science and mathematics. The legislature finds that attitudes and knowledges acquired during the kindergarten through eighth grade prepare students to succeed in high school science and mathematics programs and that special skills necessary for these fields need to be acquired during the ninth through twelfth grades. It is the intent of the legislature to promote a mathematics, engineering, and science achievement program to help increase the number of people in these fields from groups underrepresented in these fields.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A program to increase the number of people from groups underrepresented in the fields of mathematics, engineering, and the physical sciences in this state shall be established by the University of Washington. The program shall be administered through the University of Washington and designed to:

(1) Encourage students in the targeted groups in the common schools, with a particular emphasis on those students in the ninth through twelfth grades, to acquire the academic skills needed to study mathematics, engineering, or related sciences at an institution of higher education;

(2) Promote the awareness of career opportunities and the skills necessary to achieve those opportunities among students sufficiently early in their educational careers to permit and encourage the students to acquire the skills;

(3) Promote cooperation among institutions of higher education, the superintendent of public instruction and local school districts in working towards the goals of the program; and

(4) Solicit contributions of time and resources from public and private institutions of higher education, high schools, and private business and industry.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A coordinator shall be hired to administer the program. Additional staff as necessary may be hired.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The coordinator shall develop standards and criteria for selecting students who participate in the program which may include predictive instruments to ascertain aptitude and probability of success. The standards shall include requirements that students take certain courses, maintain a certain grade point average, and participate in activities sponsored by the program. Women and students from minority groups, which are traditionally underrepresented in mathematics and science-related professions and which meet the requirements established by the coordinator shall be selected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The coordinator shall establish local program centers throughout the state to implement sections 2 through 4 of this act. Each center shall be managed by a center director. Additional staff as necessary may be hired.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. Implementation of this act shall be subject to funds being appropriated or otherwise available for such purposes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. Sections 2 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW."

This legislation is intended to insure that senior citizens and persons in nursing homes will not be deprived of access to pets.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

SSB 3064 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Commerce & Labor: Regulating taxicab companies. Reported by Committee on Transportation

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that privately operated taxicab transportation service is a vital part of the transportation system within the state and provides demand-responsive services to state residents, tourists, and out-of-state business people. Consequently, the safety, reliability, and economic viability and stability of privately operated taxicab transportation service are matters of state-wide importance. The regulation of privately operated taxicab transportation services is thus an essential governmental function. Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to permit political subdivisions of the state to regulate taxicab transportation services without liability under federal antitrust laws, even if the effect is anticompetitive.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. To protect the public health, safety, and welfare, cities, towns, counties, and port districts of the state may license, control, and regulate privately operated taxicab transportation services operating within their respective jurisdictions, even if the effect is anticompetitive. The power to regulate includes:

- (1) Regulating entry into the business of providing taxicab transportation services;
- (2) Requiring a license to be purchased as a condition of operating a taxicab and the right to revoke, cancel, or refuse to reissue a license for failure to comply with regulatory requirements;
- (3) Controlling the rates charged for providing taxicab transportation service and the manner in which rates are calculated and collected, including the establishment of zones as the basis for rates;
- (4) Regulating the routes of taxicabs, including restricting access to airports;
- (5) Establishing safety, equipment, and insurance requirements; and
- (6) Any other requirements adopted to ensure safe and reliable taxicab service.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A city, town, county, or port district may enter into cooperative agreements with any other city, town, county, or port district for the joint regulation of taxicabs. Cooperative agreements may provide for, but are not limited to, the granting, revocation, and suspension of joint taxicab licenses.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall be added to Title 81 RCW."

In line 1 of the title, after "taxicab companies;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and creating a new chapter in Title 81 RCW."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 84.56.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 322, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.56.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The county treasurer shall be the receiver and collector of all taxes extended upon the tax rolls of the county, whether levied for state, county, school, bridge, road, municipal or other purposes, and also of all fines, forfeitures or penalties received by any person or officer for the use of his or her county. All taxes upon real and personal property made payable by the provisions of this title shall be due and payable to the treasurer as aforesaid on or before the thirtieth day of April and shall be delinquent after that date: PROVIDED, That when the total amount of tax on personal property or on any lot, block or tract of real property payable by one person is ten dollars or more, and if one-half of such tax be paid on or before the said thirtieth day of April, the remainder of such tax shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following and shall be delinquent after that date: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when the total amount of tax on any lot, block or tract of real property payable by one person is ten dollars or more, and if one-half of such tax be paid after the thirtieth day of April but before the thirty-first day of October, together with the applicable interest and penalty on the full amount of such tax, the remainder of such tax shall be due and payable on or before the thirty-first day of October following and shall be delinquent after that date.

Delinquent taxes under this section are subject to interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum computed on a monthly basis from the date of delinquency until paid. Interest shall be calculated at the rate in effect at the time of payment of the tax, regardless of when the taxes were first delinquent. In addition, delinquent taxes under this section are subject to penalties as follows:

(1) A penalty of three percent shall be assessed on the amount of tax delinquent on May 31st of the year in which the tax is due.

(2) An additional penalty of eight percent shall be assessed on the total amount of tax delinquent on November 30th of the year in which the tax is due.

(3) Penalties under this section shall not be assessed on taxes that were first delinquent prior to 1982.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The purpose of sections 3 through 6 of this act is to clarify requirements necessary for voters to authorize certain local governments to impose regular property tax levies for a series of years. Sections 3 through 9 of this act only clarify the existing law to avoid credence being given to an erroneous opinion that has been rendered by the attorney general. As cogently expressed in Attorney General Opinion, Number 14, Addendum, opinions rendered by the attorney general are advisory only and are merely a 'prediction of the outcome if the matter were to be litigated.' Nevertheless, confusion has arisen from this erroneous opinion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 29.30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The ballot proposition authorizing a taxing district to impose the regular property tax levies authorized in RCW 36.69.145, 67.38.130, or 84.52.069 shall contain in substance the following:

'Shall the (insert the name of the taxing district) be authorized to impose regular property tax levies of (insert the maximum rate) or less per thousand dollars of assessed valuation for each of (insert the maximum number of years allowable) consecutive years?

Yes.....('

No('

Each voter shall indicate either 'Yes' or 'No' on his or her ballot in accordance with the procedures established under this title.

Sec. 4. Section 13, chapter 22, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 67.38.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The governing body of a cultural arts, stadium and convention district may levy or cause to levy the following ad valorem taxes:

(1) ~~(A)~~ Regular ad valorem property tax ~~(levy)~~ levies in an amount equal to twenty-five cents or less per thousand dollars of the assessed value of property in the district in each year for six consecutive years ~~(This six year levy must be approved)~~ when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof ~~(voting on the)~~ approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted at a general or special election, at which election the number of persons voting 'yes' on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition ~~(to levy)~~ when the number of electors voting yes on the proposition exceeds forty percentum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act.

In the event a cultural arts, stadium and convention ~~(districts are)~~ district is levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts ~~(result in taxes in excess of)~~ subject to the one percent limitation provided for in Article VII, section 2, of our state Constitution result in taxes in excess of the limitation provided for in RCW 84.52.043, the cultural arts, stadium and convention district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced: PROVIDED, That no cultural arts, stadium, and convention district may pledge anticipated revenues derived from the property tax herein authorized as security for payments of bonds issued pursuant to subsection

(1) of this section: PROVIDED, FURTHER. That such limitation shall not apply to property taxes approved pursuant to subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall apply to levies after the first levy authorized under this section following the approval of such levy by voters pursuant to this section.

(2) An annual excess ad valorem property tax for general district purposes when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052.

(3) Multi-year excess ad valorem property tax levies used to retire general obligation bond issues when authorized by the district voters in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.056.

The district shall include in its regular property tax levy for each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal on all outstanding general obligation bonds issued without voter approval pursuant to RCW 67.38.110 and may include a sum sufficient to create a sinking fund for the redemption of all outstanding bonds.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 200, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 84.52.069 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, 'taxing district' means a county, emergency medical service district, city or town, public hospital district, or fire protection district.

(2) A taxing district may impose ~~((an))~~ additional regular property tax ~~((levy))~~ levies in an amount equal to twenty-five cents or less per thousand dollars of the assessed value of property in the taxing district in each year for six consecutive years~~((. This six-year levy must be approved))~~ when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof ~~((voting on the))~~ approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted at a general or special election, at which election the number of persons voting 'yes' on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition ((to levy)) when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act.

(3) Any tax imposed under this section shall be used only for the provision of emergency medical care or emergency medical services, including related personnel costs, training for such personnel, and related equipment, supplies, vehicles and structures needed for the provision of emergency medical care or emergency medical services.

(4) If a county levies a tax under this section, no taxing district within the county may levy a tax under this section. No other taxing district may levy a tax under this section if another taxing district has levied a tax under this section within its boundaries: PROVIDED, That if a taxing district within a county levies this tax, and the voters of the county subsequently approve a levying of this tax, then the tax levy for emergency medical services shall cease being levied in the taxing district originally levying it and shall be replaced with the county-wide levy. Whenever a tax is levied county-wide, the service shall, insofar as is feasible, be provided throughout the county: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no county-wide levy proposal may be placed on the ballot without the approval of the legislative authority of each city exceeding fifty thousand population within the county: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section and RCW 36.32.480 shall not prohibit any city or town from levying an annual excess levy to fund emergency medical services.

(5) The tax levy authorized in this section is in addition to the tax levy authorized in RCW 84.52.043.

A proposition authorizing the tax levies shall not be submitted by a park and recreation district more than twice in any twelve-month period. Ballot propositions shall conform with section 3 of this 1984 act. In the event a park and recreation ((districts are)) district is levying property taxes, which in combination with property taxes levied by other taxing districts ((result in taxes in excess of)) subject to the one percent limitation provided for in Article 7, section ((1+2)) 2, of our state Constitution result in taxes in excess of the limitation provided for in RCW 84.52.043, the park and recreation district property tax levy shall be reduced or eliminated before the property tax levies of other taxing districts are reduced.

(2) The limitation in RCW 84.55.010 shall not apply to the first levy imposed under this section following the approval of the levies by the voters under subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 7. Section 9, chapter 218, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 7, chapter 210, Laws of 1981 and RCW 36.68.480 are each amended to read as follows:

If the petition or resolution initiating the formation of the proposed park and recreation service area proposes that the initial ((improvements of services)) capital or operational costs are to be financed by regular property tax levies for a six-year period as authorized by section 9 of this 1984 act, or an annual excess levy, or that proposed capital costs are to be financed by the issuance of general obligation bonds and bond retirement levies, a ((special election)) proposition or propositions for ((that)) such purpose or purposes shall be ((conducted)) submitted to the voters of the proposed service area at the same election ((within the boundaries of the proposed service area)). A proposition or propositions for regular property tax levies for a six-year period as authorized by section 9 of this 1984 act, an annual excess levy, or the issuance of general obligation bonds and bond retirement levies, may also be submitted to the voters at any general or special election.

(1) A park and recreation service area shall ((not have power to levy an annual authorized levy, but it shall)) have the power to levy ((a tax)) an annual excess levy upon the property included within the service area if authorized at a special election called for the purpose in the manner prescribed by section 2, Article VII of the Constitution and by RCW 84.52.052. ((The special voted)) This excess levy may be either for operating fund or for capital outlay, or for a cumulative reserve fund.

Such bonds may be in any form, including coupon bonds or registered bonds as provided in RCW 39.46.030.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 36.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A park and recreation service area may impose regular property tax levies in an amount equal to fifteen cents or less per thousand dollars of assessed value of property in the service area in each year for six consecutive years when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the voters thereof approving a proposition authorizing the levies submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed initial levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of the service area, at which election the number of persons voting 'yes' on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty percent of the total votes cast in the service area at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty percent of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition if the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election. NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) A person who knowingly makes an extortionate extension of credit is guilty of a class B felony.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, if it is shown that all of the following factors are present in connection with the extension of credit, there is prima facie evidence that the extension of credit was extortionate:

(a) The repayment of the extension of credit, or the performance of any promise given in consideration thereof, would be unenforceable at the time the extension of credit was made through civil judicial processes against the debtor in the county in which the debtor, if a natural person, resided or in every county in which the debtor, if other than a natural person, was incorporated or qualified to do business.

(b) The extension of credit was made at a rate of interest in excess of an annual rate of forty-five percent calculated according to the actuarial method of allocating payments made on a debt between principal and interest, pursuant to which a payment is applied first to the accumulated interest and the balance is applied to the unpaid principal.

(c) At the time the extension of credit was made, the debtor reasonably believed that either of the following:

(i) One or more extensions of credit by the creditor had been collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means, or the nonrepayment had been punished by extortionate means.

(ii) The creditor had a reputation for the use of extortionate means to collect extensions of credit or to punish the nonrepayment thereof.

(d) Upon the making of the extension of credit, the total of the extensions of credit by the creditor to the debtor then outstanding, including any unpaid interest or similar charges, exceeded one hundred dollars.

(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence of any of the circumstances described in subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing the understanding of the debtor and the creditor at the time the extension of credit was made, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation as to collection practices of the creditor in any community of which the debtor was a member at the time of the extension.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A person who knowingly advances money or property, whether as a gift, loan, investment, or pursuant to a partnership or profit-sharing agreement or otherwise, to any person, with reasonable grounds to believe that it is the intention of that person to use the money or property so advanced, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of making extortionate extensions of credit, is guilty of a class B felony.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) A person who knowingly participates in any way in the use of any extortionate means to collect or attempt to collect any extensions of credit or to punish any person for the nonrepayment thereof, is guilty of a class B felony.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, for the purpose of showing an implicit threat as a means of collection, evidence may be introduced tending to show that one or more extensions of credit by the creditor were, to the knowledge of the person against whom the implicit threat was alleged to have been made, collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means or that the nonrepayment was punished by extortionate means.

(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence at the time the extension of credit in question was made of the circumstances described in section 2(2)(a) or (b) of this act, and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing that words or other means of communication, shown to have been employed as a means of collection, in fact carried an express or implicit threat, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation of the defendant in any community of which the person against whom the alleged threat was made was a member at the time of the collection or attempt at collection.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) A person who recklessly traffics in stolen property is guilty of trafficking in stolen property in the second degree.

(2) A person who knowingly initiates, organizes, plans, finances, directs, manages, or supervises the theft of property for sale to others, or who knowingly traffics in stolen property, is guilty of trafficking in stolen property in the first degree.

(a) Intentionally organizing, managing, directing, supervising, or financing a criminal syndicate; or

(b) Knowingly inciting or inducing others to engage in violence or intimidation to promote or further the objectives of a criminal syndicate.

(3) Leading organized crime is a class B felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) It is unlawful for a person who has knowingly received any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt to use or invest, whether directly or indirectly, any part of the proceeds, or the proceeds derived from the investment or use thereof, in the acquisition of any title to, or any right, interest, or equity in, real property or in the establishment or operation of any enterprise.

(f) Ordering forfeiture to the general fund or antiracketeering revolving fund of the state or county as appropriate to the extent not already ordered to be paid in other damages:

(g) Ordering payment to the general fund or antiracketeering revolving fund of the state or county as appropriate of an amount equal to the gain a person has acquired or maintained through an offense included in the definition of racketeering.

(5) In addition to or in lieu of an action under this section, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may file an action for forfeiture to the general fund or antiracketeering revolving fund of the state or county as appropriate, to the extent not already ordered paid pursuant to this section, of:

For the purposes of this subsection, a conviction shall be deemed to have occurred upon a verdict or plea of guilty, notwithstanding the fact that an appeal has been or may be lodged upon any judgment and sentence entered thereon.

(7) The initiation of civil proceedings related to violations of any offense included in the definition of racketeering or a violation of section 8 of this act shall be commenced within seven years after actual discovery of the violation.

(8) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may, in a civil action brought pursuant to this section, file with the clerk of the superior court a certificate stating that the case is of special public importance. A copy of that certificate shall be furnished immediately by the clerk to the chief judge or presiding chief judge of the superior court in which the action is pending and, upon receipt of the copy, the judge shall immediately designate a judge to hear and determine the action. The judge so designated shall promptly assign the action for hearing, participate in the hearings and determination, and cause the action to be expedited.

(9) The standard of proof in actions brought pursuant to this section is the preponderance of the evidence test.

(10) A person other than the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney who files an action under this section shall serve notice and one copy of the pleading on the attorney general within thirty days after the action is filed with the superior court. The notice shall identify the action, the person, and the person's attorney. Service of the notice does not limit or otherwise affect the right of the state to maintain an action under this section or intervene in a pending action nor does it authorize the person to name the state or the attorney general as a party to the action.

(11) Except in cases filed by a county prosecuting attorney, the attorney general may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under this section if the attorney general certifies that in the attorney general's opinion the action is of special public importance. (13) A civil action under this section is remedial and does not limit any other civil or criminal action under this chapter or any other provision. Civil remedies provided under this section are supplemental and not mutually exclusive.

(14) In bringing a civil action under this chapter, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may grant a witness immunity in exchange for testimony in the civil case. The immunity bars the use or derivative use of the witness' testimony in any subsequent criminal prosecution of the witness except for perjury or false swearing committed during the course of the testimony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) (a) There is established in the custody of the state treasurer an antiracketeering revolving fund to be administered by the attorney general under the conditions and for the purposes provided by this subsection. (c) The county legislative authority may prescribe a maximum level of moneys in the antiracketeering revolving fund. Moneys exceeding the prescribed maximum shall be transferred to the county current expense fund.

(d) The moneys in the fund shall be used by the county prosecuting attorney for the investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the county prosecuting attorney, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The state, upon filing a civil action under section 10 of this act, may file in accordance with this section a racketeering lien. A filing fee or other charge is not required for filing a racketeering lien.

(2) A racketeering lien shall be signed by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney representing the state in the action and shall set forth the following information:

(a) The name of the defendant whose property or other interests are to be subject to the lien;

(b) In the discretion of the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, any aliases or fictitious names of the defendant named in the lien;

(c) If known to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, the present residence or principal place of business of the person named in the lien;

(d) A reference to the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed, including the name of the court, the title of the action, and the court's file number for the proceeding;

(e) The name and address of the attorney representing the state in the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed;

(f) A statement that the notice is being filed pursuant to this section;

(g) The amount which the state claims in the action or, with respect to property or other interests which the state has requested forfeiture to the state or county, a description of the property or interests sought to be paid or forfeited;

(h) If known to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, a description of property which is subject to forfeiture to the state or property in which the defendant has an interest which is available to satisfy a judgment entered in favor of the state; and

(i) Such other information as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien deems appropriate.

(3) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien may amend a lien filed under this section at any time by filing an amended racketeering lien in accordance with this section which identifies the prior lien amended.

(4) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien shall, as soon as practical after filing a racketeering lien, furnish to any person named in the lien a notice of the filing of the lien. Failure to furnish notice under this subsection does not invalidate or otherwise affect a racketeering lien filed in accordance with this section.

(5) A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in personal property by filing the lien with the department of licensing. A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in real property by filing the lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located. The state may give such additional notice of the lien as it deems appropriate.

(6) The filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section creates a lien in favor of the state in:

(a) Any interest of the defendant, in real property situated in the county in which the lien is filed, then maintained, or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien;

(b) Any interest of the defendant, in personal property situated in this state, then maintained or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien; and

(c) Any property identified in the lien to the extent of the defendant's interest therein.

(7) The filing of a racketeering lien under this section is notice to all persons dealing with the person or property identified in the lien of the state's claim. The lien created in favor of the state in accordance with this section is superior and prior to the claims or interests of any other person, except a person possessing:

(a) A valid lien perfected prior to the filing of the racketeering lien;

(b) In the case of real property, an interest acquired and recorded prior to the filing of the racketeering lien; or

(c) In the case of personal property, an interest acquired prior to the filing of the racketeering lien.

(8) Upon entry of judgment in favor of the state, the state may proceed to execute thereon as in the case of any other judgment, except that in order to preserve the state's lien priority as provided in this section the state shall, in addition to such other notice as is required by law, give at least thirty days' notice of the execution to any person possessing at the time the notice is given, an interest recorded subsequent to the date the state's lien was perfected.

(9) Upon the entry of a final judgment in favor of the state providing for forfeiture of property to the state, the title of the state to the property:

(a) In the case of real property or a beneficial interest in real property, relates back to the date of filing the racketeering lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located or, if no racketeering lien is filed, then to the date of recording of the final judgment or the abstract thereof with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located; or

(b) In the case of personal property or a beneficial interest in personal property, relates back to the date the personal property was seized by the state, or the date of filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section, whichever is earlier, but if the property was not seized and no racketeering lien was filed then to the date the final judgment was filed with the department of licensing and, if the personal property is an aircraft, with the federal aviation administration.

(10) This section does not limit the right of the state to obtain any order or injunction, receivership, writ, attachment, garnishment, or other remedy authorized under section 10 of this act or appropriate to protect the interests of the state or available under other applicable law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A trustee who receives written notice that a lien notice has been recorded or a civil proceeding or criminal proceeding has been instituted against any person for whom the trustee holds legal or record title to real property, shall immediately furnish to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney the following:

(a) The name and address of the person, as known to the trustee;

(b) To the extent known to the trustee, the name and address of all other persons for whose benefit the trustee holds title to the real property; and

(c) If requested by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, a copy of the trust agreement or other instrument under which the trustee holds legal or record title to the real property.

(2) The recording of a lien notice shall not constitute a lien on the record title to real property owned by a trustee at the time of recording except to the extent that trustee is named in the lien notice. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may bring a civil proceeding in superior court against the trustee to recover from the trustee the amounts set forth in section 15 of this act. In addition to amounts recovered under section 15 of this act, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney also may recover its investigative costs and attorneys' fees.

(3) The recording of a lien notice does not affect the use to which real property or a beneficial interest owned by the person named in the lien notice may be put or the right of the person to receive any avails, rents, or other proceeds resulting from the use and ownership except the sale of the property, until a judgment of forfeiture is entered.

(4) This section does not apply to any conveyance by a trustee under a court order unless the court order is entered in an action between the trustee and the beneficiary.

(5) Unless a trustee receives written notice that a person having a beneficial interest in the trust is named in a lien notice or is otherwise a defendant in a civil proceeding, this section does not apply to:

(a) A conveyance by a trustee required under the terms of any trust agreement if the trust agreement is a matter of public record before a lien notice is filed; or

(b) A conveyance by a trustee to all persons who have a beneficial interest in the trust.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The term of a lien notice shall be six years from the date the lien notice is recorded. If a renewal lien notice is filed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, the term of the renewal lien notice shall be for six years from the date the renewal lien notice is recorded. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney is entitled to only one renewal of the lien notice.

(2) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien notice may release in whole or in part any lien notice or may release any specific property or beneficial interest from the lien notice upon such terms and conditions as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney considers appropriate. A release of a lien notice executed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney shall be recorded in the official records in which the lien notice covering that property was recorded. No charge or fee may be imposed for recording any release of a lien notice.

(3) (a) A person named in the lien notice may move the court in which the civil proceeding giving rise to the lien notice is pending for an order extinguishing the lien notice.

(b) Upon the motion of a person under (a) of this subsection, the court immediately shall enter an order setting a date for hearing, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days after the motion is filed. The order and a copy of the motion shall be served on the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney within three days after the entry of the court's order. At the hearing, the court shall take evidence on the issue of whether any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is covered by the lien notice or otherwise subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act. If the person shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the lien notice is not applicable to the person or that any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is not subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act, the court shall enter a judgment extinguishing the lien notice or releasing the property or beneficial interest from the lien notice.

(c) The court may enter an order releasing from the lien notice any specific real property or beneficial interest if, at the time the lien notice is recorded, there is pending an arms length sale of the real property or beneficial interest in which the parties are under no undue compulsion to sell or buy and are able, willing, and reasonably well informed and the sale is for the fair market value of the real property or beneficial interest and the recording of the lien notice prevents the sale of the property or interest. The proceeds resulting from the sale of the real property or beneficial interest shall be deposited with the court, subject to the further order of the court.

(d) At the hearing held pursuant to (b) of this subsection, if the court releases from the lien notice any property or beneficial interest, the person shall post security equal to the fair market value of the property or beneficial interest owned by the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) If a trustee conveys title to real property for which, at the time of the conveyance, a lien notice has been recorded in the county in which the real property is situated and the notice names a person who the trustee knows holds a beneficial interest in the trust, the trustee shall be liable to the state for the greater of:

(a) The amount of proceeds received by the person named in the lien notice as a result of the conveyance;

(b) The amount of proceeds received by the trustee as a result of the conveyance and distributed by the trustee to the person named in the lien notice; or

(c) The fair market value of the interest of the person named in the lien notice in the real property so conveyed.

(2) If the trustee conveys the real property for which a lien notice has been recorded at the time of the conveyance and holds the proceeds that would otherwise be paid or distributed to the beneficiary or at the direction of the beneficiary or beneficiary's designee, the trustee's liability shall not exceed the amount of the proceeds so held so long as the trustee continues to hold the proceeds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A trustee who fails to comply with section 13(1) of this act is guilty of a class C felony.

Sec. 17. Section 9A.04.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 129, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9A.04.080 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 16 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 9A RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 19. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Commerce & Labor: Providing for plant closures and employee layoffs. Reported by Committee on Labor

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Unemployment which results from layoffs, shutdowns, sales, relocations, or other forms of closure is clearly a social rather than an individual problem and requires a societal response;

(2) Economic and social disruptions resulting from the loss of jobs adversely affect communities as well as individuals;

(3) Private employers which create job losses through layoffs and closures should engage in planning that is intended to prevent unemployment from occurring as a result. This is fundamental to the social responsibility of the employment relationship;

(4) Both employees and their communities will benefit by advance notification, investigations, compensation, public services, and technical assistance that will minimize or avoid the economic and social disruption resulting from job losses;

(5) Economic planning to avert the dislocation of employment opportunities and new mechanisms of public control are needed to prevent or minimize the harmful economic and social effects of unemployment on employees, their communities, and local government.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Business operation' means a person, firm, partnership, corporation, trust, association, or other form of business organization, which employs at least fifty individuals within this state.

(2) 'Workplace' means any factory, plant, office, or other facility where an employer has hired employees to produce items or provide services.

This task force shall be composed of the commissioner of employment security, the secretary of social and health services, the director of commerce and economic development, the director of planning and community affairs, a representative of the commission for vocational education, a representative of the business community, and a representative of organized labor. SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 127, by Senators Williams, Goltz, Hemstad, McManus, Hurley and Fuller

Requesting the Department of Energy to review other radioactive waste sites.

The memorial was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Wang, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the memorial was placed on final passage.

Mr. D. Nelson spoke in favor of the memorial, and Mr. Isaacson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Charnley yielded to question by Mr. D. Nelson.

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Charnley, is it understood that the term 'crystal-line rocks' could also include rock types known as 'gneiss'?"

Mr. Charnley: "Yes, Representative Nelson, the term 'granite,' in the science, does bear a broader understanding than the specific. The representative from the 8th District is quite correct, there are many forms of granite, but the term is understood in its generic sense as covering a broader field. I would also wish to make known that that would cover the metamorphic type rock known as 'gneiss.' Both granites and gneisses are crystalline rock and generally, especially gneisses, are found in what are considered the oldest and most stable parts of the earth. In terms of storing nuclear waste we must be concerned with the permeability--the ability of the rock to withstand certain heat and certain pressures--and we must also be concerned with its permanence in the sense of not just a few decades or one hundred fifty years, but many hundreds of thousands of millions of years. Gneisses, in particular, are rocks that have gone through a long, long history. You are talking now of billions of years in some cases, and they do represent and do give repository sites that would be exceedingly permanent and it would be very unusual to have such things as earthquakes or earth movements which would cause those rocks to be deformed and changed. Therefore, I think it's critical and I appreciate the question that 'crystalline' includes the metamorphic rock which is gneiss. I would point out the gentleman from the 8th District mentioned schist and I would agree with him, schist is a crystalline rock, but if it isn't formed out of crystalline rock it would not be appropriate. I think the wording in this is broad enough that Congress will understand that and I don't think we are taking a political shot suggesting the scientific term in the least."

Representatives D. Nelson and Isaacson spoke in favor of passage of the memorial, and Mr. Barnes spoke against it.

On page 3, after line 26, insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The legislature finds that growth of the state's population and economy places increasingly greater demands on available water resources, including this state's ground water supplies. The legislature also finds that chapter 90.44 RCW, popularly known as the Ground Water Code of 1945, protects the public welfare by providing an orderly system of rights to the beneficial use of water based upon the 'first in time is first in right' principle of the prior appropriation doctrine. The purpose of sections 7 and 8 of this act is to provide remedies to protect the right of a holder of a senior right to ground water to a safe sustaining yield of water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The remedies to protect the right of the holder of a senior water right to a safe sustaining yield of water include protection of the availability of water in the well or wells used to exercise that senior water right, without the wells or withdrawal works being significantly modified, against interruption or other interference caused by the water works of, or the water withdrawal activities of, a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water. Junior rights to ground water are those established subsequently to a senior right under the prior appropriation doctrine upon which this chapter is based.

(2) The holder of a senior water right is entitled to adequate compensation whenever the water works or water withdrawal activities of a person or persons exercising junior rights to ground water cause such an interruption or interference in that availability of water. Adequate compensation for the loss of that availability will be made if the holder of the senior right is provided with:

(a) An amount equivalent to the increased costs reasonably incurred by or reasonably to be incurred by the holder of the senior water right in securing and using water, to the full extent of the senior right, as a result of losing the availability protected by subsection (1) of this section. The full extent of the senior right includes any conditions that applied to the right such as the quantity and quality of the water, the location of use, and time of use;

(b) The delivery of water to the holder of the senior right. To qualify as compensation, the water delivered must be of a quantity equal to and a quality equivalent to that of the senior right. The delivery must also be under such conditions, including but not limited to timing and location, as applied to the senior right without increased costs being incurred by the senior rightholder; or

(c) The payment of just compensation pursuant to the exercise of eminent domain if the holder of the junior rights has been granted the power of eminent domain.

(3) In lieu of the forms of compensation provided by this section, the holder of the senior right to ground water may freely enter contractual agreements establishing other compensation.

(4) In any civil action brought under this section, if the court believes the legal remedies are inadequate or excessively harsh, it may provide such equitable relief as it believes appropriate. The court shall also provide such emergency relief as is appropriate for the protection of ground water rights.

(5) The department of ecology does not have any power to consider subsection (1) of this section when it decides whether to grant or deny a permit for the appropriation of ground water. However, all permits issued and to be issued under this chapter are subject to subsections (1) through (4) of this section. The department of ecology does not have any power to determine the amount of compensation required under this section. The department shall issue an order to stop the exercise of a junior right whenever it finds that sufficient information exists to show that exercising the right has resulted in or would result in such an interruption or interference in the availability of water that a holder of a senior right has the right to the remedy of adequate compensation under this section.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

No permit shall be granted for the development or withdrawal of public ground waters beyond the capacity of the underground bed or formation in the given basin, district, or locality to yield such water within a reasonable or feasible pumping lift in case of pumping developments, or within a reasonable or feasible reduction of pressure in the case of artesian developments. ~~(The supervisor of water resources)~~ Except as provided otherwise in section 7 of this 1984 act, the director of ecology shall have the power to determine whether the granting of any ~~(such)~~ permit will injure or damage any vested or existing right or rights under prior permits and may in addition to the records of his office, require further evidence, proof, and testimony before granting or denying any such permits.

The granting of a permit by the director does not relieve the recipient of the permit of any liability for injuring or damaging vested or existing rights to water.

In multi-aquifer systems, the director may require, as permit conditions, the casing and sealing of wells or other construction techniques to: (1) Protect the use of the uppermost aquifer or aquifers of the system by persons with senior rights to ground water, or (2) protect the use of waters from the uppermost aquifer or aquifers for future domestic or similar uses, traditionally involving shallower wells, that the director finds to be vital for the support of future development of the overlying land.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) This section contains remedies designed to protect the holder of a ground water right against activities that cause damage or injury by adversely affecting the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains. Any holder of a ground water right who sustains any damage or injury, whether to property or person, which is caused by activities that decrease the quality of the water for the use or uses to which the ground water right pertains, shall be entitled to recover full compensation for such damage or injury from the person or persons responsible for or conducting the activities. This subsection shall not affect or impair any other rights or remedies, whether prescribed by statute or case law, to recover compensation or obtain other relief for damage or injury caused by the impairment of water quality.

(2) In the case of saltwater intrusion caused by the overuse of a freshwater aquifer, the department shall preserve the rights of senior appropriators to fresh water by reducing the withdrawals authorized for the holders of junior water rights in a manner consistent with the prior appropriation system of rights.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In any civil action brought under section 7 or 9 of this act, the court may award attorney's fees to the prevailing party. The amount of fees awarded shall be reasonable and shall be fixed by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 90.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any person who provides compensation under section 7 or 9 of this act shall provide notice thereof to the department of ecology. The notice shall be on a form prescribed by the department and shall be sufficient to show the amount and nature of the compensation and any change in the water rights involved.

Sec. 12. Section 14, chapter 233, Laws of 1967 and RCW 90.14.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this chapter 'sufficient cause' shall be defined as the nonuse of all or a portion of the water by the owner of a water right for a period of five or more consecutive years where such nonuse occurs as a result of:

((+)) (a) Drought, or other unavailability of water;

((2)) (b) Active service in the armed forces of the United States during military crisis;

((3)) (c) Nonvoluntary service in the armed forces of the United States;

((4)) (d) The operation of legal proceedings;

((5)) (e) Federal laws imposing land or water use restrictions, or acreage limitations, or production quotas;

(f) The use of water delivered as compensation under section 7(2) of this 1984 act so long as the nonused water right is not transferred separately from the land to which it is attached.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, there shall be no relinquishment of any water right:

((+)) (a) If such right is claimed for power development purposes under chapter 90.16 RCW and annual license fees are paid in accordance with chapter 90.16 RCW, or

((2)) (b) If such right is used for a standby or reserve water supply to be used in time of drought or other low flow period so long as withdrawal or diversion facilities are maintained in good operating condition for the use of such reserve or standby water supply, or

((3)) (c) If such right is claimed for a determined future development to take place either within fifteen years of the effective date of this act, or the most recent beneficial use of the water right, whichever date is later, or

((4)) (d) If such right is claimed for municipal water supply purposes under chapter 90.03 RCW, or

((5)) (e) If such waters are not subject to appropriation under the applicable provisions of RCW 90.40.030 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 13. Section 6, chapter 263, Laws of 1945 and RCW 90.44.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Applications for permits for appropriation of underground water shall be made in the same form and manner provided in RCW 90.03.250 through 90.03.340, as amended, the provisions of which sections, except as provided to the contrary in section 7 of this 1984 act, are hereby extended to govern and to apply to ground water, or ground water right certificates and to all permits that shall be issued pursuant to such applications, and the rights to the withdrawal of ground water acquired thereby shall be governed by RCW 90.03.250 through 90.03.340, inclusive: PROVIDED, That each application to withdraw public ground water by means of a well or wells shall set forth the following additional information: (1) the name and post office address of the applicant; (2) the name and post office address of the owner of the land on which such well or wells or works will be located; (3) the location of the proposed well or wells or other works for the proposed withdrawal; (4) the ground water area, sub-area, or zone from which withdrawal is proposed, provided the supervisor of water resources has designated such area, sub-area, or zone in accord with RCW 90.44.130; (5) the amount of water proposed to be withdrawn, in gallons a minute and in acre feet a year, or millions of gallons a year; (6) the depth and type of construction proposed for the well or wells or other works: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any permit issued pursuant to an application for constructing a well or wells to withdraw public ground water may specify an approved type and manner of construction for the purposes of preventing waste of said public waters and of conserving their head.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

ESSB 4403 Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Revising provisions relating to health care costs. Reported by Committee on Social & Health Services

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The primary purpose of this chapter is to promote the economic delivery of high quality, necessary, and effective (~~hospital~~) health care services to the people by establishing a hospital commission with authority over financial disclosure (~~and~~), budget (~~and~~), prospective rate (~~review~~) approval, and other related matters, including authority to develop a hospital reimbursement control system, which will assure all purchasers of (~~hospital~~) health care services that total hospital costs are reasonably related to total services, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudently and reasonably managed hospitals, that hospital rates are reasonably related to aggregate costs, and that such rates are set equitably among all purchasers of these services without undue discrimination.

The legislature finds and declares that rising hospital costs are a vital concern to the people of this state because of the danger which is posed that hospital and health care services are fast becoming out of the economic reach of the majority of our population. It is further declared that health care is a right of the people and one of the primary purposes for which governments are established, and it is, therefore, essential that an effective cost control program be established (~~which will both enable and motivate hospitals to control their spiraling costs~~). It is the legislative intent, in pursuance of this declared public policy, to provide for uniform measures on a state-wide basis to control hospital (~~costs~~) rates without the sacrifice of quality of service or reasonable access to necessary health care.

The legislature further finds and declares that: (1) There is an increased need for comprehensive public oversight of the costs of and expenditures for health care services; (2) no one should be denied access to necessary health care because of poverty or unemployment, and that the costs of providing charity care should be distributed equitably among hospitals across the state; (3) access to necessary health care in rural areas must be assured; (4) the hospital commission and the public need additional information to make better-informed decisions about health care costs and charges; (5) there is a need to encourage market penetration of alternative health care delivery systems that have internal incentives to control costs and stimulate market competition, and that some regulatory policies have impeded health care cost containment by unduly restricting competition; (6) there is a need for more effective assessment of the impact of technology on the cost and delivery of health care services so that appropriate public policies may be adopted; and (7) the hospital commission should be more representative of a diversity of public interests so that it can more effectively carry out its mission.

It is the intent of the 1984 amendments to this chapter to strengthen certain regulatory policies which have had limited success in containing hospital costs since this chapter was enacted, and to promote constructive competition among health care delivery systems in order to restrain the spiraling growth of health care costs to all the people of the state. This policy is to be achieved by requiring the commission to review and approve rates for hospital care, permitting purchasers of such care to seek and obtain discounts from such rates through negotiation with hospitals or other entities providing health care services, provided that the discounts do not result in cost-shifting to other purchasers, and requiring the collection and public disclosure of information necessary for prospective patients and purchasers of health care services to make informed choices.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Commission' means the hospital rate commission of the state of Washington as created by this chapter;

(2) 'Consumer' means any person whose occupation is other than the administration of health activities or the providing of health services, who has no fiduciary obligation to a health facility or other health agency, and who has no material financial interest in the rendering of health services;

(3) 'Hospital' means any health care institution which is required to qualify for a license under RCW 70.41.020(2); or as a psychiatric hospital under chapter 71.12 RCW, but shall not include beds utilized by a comprehensive cancer center for cancer research, or any health care institution conducted for those who rely primarily upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any church or denomination.

(4) 'Diagnosis-related groups' is a classification system that groups hospital patients according to principal and secondary diagnosis, presence or absence of a surgical procedure, age, presence or absence of significant comorbidities or complications, and other relevant criteria, an example of which has been adopted as the basis for prospective payment under the federal medicare program by the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21.

(5) 'Medical technology' means the drugs, devices, and medical or surgical procedures used in the delivery of health care, and the organizational or supportive systems within which such care is provided.

(6) 'Technology assessment' means a comprehensive form of policy research that examines the technical, economic, and social consequences of technological applications, including the indirect, unintended, or delayed social or economic impacts. In health care, such analysis must evaluate efficacy and safety as well as efficiency.

(7) 'Charity care' means necessary hospital health care rendered to indigent persons, to the extent that the persons are unable to pay for the care or to pay deductibles or co-insurance amounts required by a third-party payer, as determined by the commission: PROVIDED, That the first two hundred fifty dollars of any deductible or co-insurance amount payable by a patient shall not be considered a part of the cost of charity care under sections 15 and 16 of this 1984 act.

(8) 'Rate' means the maximum revenue which a hospital may receive for each unit of service, as determined by the commission.

(9) 'Comprehensive cancer center' means an institution and its research programs as recognized by the National Cancer Institute prior to April 20, 1983.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created a hospital rate commission, which shall be a separate and independent commission of the state. The commission shall be composed of ~~((five))~~ nine members appointed by the governor ~~(--and generally representative of the public as consumers, labor, business, and hospitals, and shall be individuals concerned with the delivery of quality health care, but in no event shall more than two members have any fiduciary obligation to a health facility or other health agency, nor any direct financial interest in the rendering of health services. In cases when proposed rate increases for osteopathic hospitals are to be considered, the representative of osteopathic hospitals on the technical advisory committee shall replace a hospital representative on the commission))~~ as follows:

(a) Three members representing consumers of health care services, at least one of whom represents the interests of low-income persons;

(b) One member representing private employers;

(c) One member representing labor;

(d) One member representing hospitals, but in cases in which rates for an osteopathic hospital are to be considered, the representative of osteopathic hospitals on the technical advisory committee shall replace the hospital representative on the commission;

(e) One member representing health care professionals licensed under Title 18 RCW;

(f) One member representing commercial health insurers or health care service contractors; and

(g) The secretary of social and health services, or the secretary's designee, representing the interests of the state as a major purchaser of health care services.

That upon the expiration of the initial four-year terms, two persons shall be appointed for three-year terms and three persons for four-year terms and thereafter all members of the commission shall serve for four-year terms)~~). Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member shall serve on the commission for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes. ~~Of the three additional members, other than the secretary, appointed after the effective date of this 1984 act, two shall initially be appointed for two-year terms and one for a three-year term.~~

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Meetings of the commission shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The commission shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions.

~~(Three)~~ Five members shall constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the commission shall not impair its power to act. No action of the commission shall be effective unless ~~(three)~~ five members concur therein.

The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members but, with the exception of the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, the members shall be reimbursed for their expenses while attending meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as in RCW 44.04.120.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the commission, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, and under the supervision of the executive director. In addition, the commission may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise.

Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility, without specific permission of the commission.

The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to hospital health care costs.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to assist the commission in carrying out its duties, the governor shall appoint a technical advisory committee, hereinafter referred to as 'committee', which shall consist of ~~(eleven)~~ seventeen members as follows:

(8) One member who shall be representative of private employers.

(9) One member who shall be representative of commercial health insurers registered and doing business in the state under Title 48 RCW.

(10) One member who shall be representative of health care service contractors, as defined in RCW 48.44.010.

(11) One member who shall be representative of health maintenance organizations, as defined in RCW 48.46.030.

Except for the members designated in subsections (2), (3), (10), and (11) of this section, members of the committee shall not have any fiduciary obligation to any health care facility or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

With the exception of members designated in subsections (5) and (6) of this section, the members shall serve concurrently and shall have four-year terms. Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the governor and an appointee selected to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the balance of the term for which his predecessor was appointed. The committee shall elect from its members a chairman and a vice-chairman to serve concurrently with the chairman. The executive director of the commission shall act as executive secretary to the committee, and the commission shall otherwise offer such staff services and supplies as the committee may require to carry out its responsibilities.

The committee shall meet on call of the chairman of the commission, or on request of a majority of the commission. Members of the committee shall serve without compensation for their service as members but, except for those designated in subsections (5) and (6) of this section, shall be reimbursed for their expenses in the same manner as members of the commission.

The committee shall have the duty upon the request of the commission to consult with and make recommendations to the commission:

(1) On matters of public policy related to the delivery of health care services;

(2) On rules and regulations proposed by the commission to implement this chapter;

(3) On analyses and studies of hospital health care costs and related matters which may be undertaken by the commission including the impact of professional liability upon the cost of health care and the effect prospective payment systems may have on such liability; ~~((and))~~

(4) On any issue related to medical technology or technology assessment in the area of health care; and

(5) On such other matters as the commission may refer.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.090 are each amended to read as follows:

To further the purposes of this chapter, the commission may create committees from its membership, and may create such ad hoc advisory committees in specialized fields, related to the functions of hospitals, the delivery of health care services, economic issues concerning health care, technology assessment, and such other subjects as it deems necessary, to supplement the resources provided by the technical advisory committee.

Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission, after study and in consultation with advisory committees, if any, shall establish by the promulgation of rules and regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, a uniform system of accounting and financial reporting, including such cost allocation methods as it may prescribe, by which hospitals shall record and report to the commission their revenues, expenses, other income, other outlays, assets and liabilities, and units of service. All hospitals shall adopt the system for their fiscal year period to be effective at such time and date as the commission shall direct. In determining the effective date for reporting requirements, the commission shall be mindful both of the immediate need for uniform hospital reporting information to effectuate the purposes of this chapter and the administrative and economic difficulties which hospitals may encounter in conversion, but in no event shall such effective date be later than two and one-half years from the date of the formation of the commission.

(2) In establishing such accounting systems and uniform reporting procedures, the commission shall take into consideration:

(a) Existing systems of accounting and reporting presently utilized by hospitals;

(b) Differences among hospitals according to size; financial structure; methods of payment for services; and scope, type, and method of providing services; and

(c) Other pertinent distinguishing factors.

(3) The commission shall, where appropriate, provide for modification, consistent with the purposes of this chapter, of reporting requirements to correctly reflect these differences among hospitals, and to avoid otherwise unduly burdensome costs in meeting the requirements of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting.

(4) The accounting system, where appropriate, shall be structured so as to establish and differentiate costs incurred for patient-related services rendered by hospitals, as distinguished from those incurred with reference to educational research and other nonpatient-related activities including but not limited to charitable activities of such hospitals.

(5) The commission shall collect and maintain patient discharge data, including data necessary for identification of discharges by diagnosis-related groups. So far as possible, the data collection procedures shall be coordinated with any similar procedures or requirements of the federal department of health and human services for the medicare program and the needs of the department of social and health services in gathering public health statistics, in order to minimize any unduly burdensome reporting requirements imposed on hospitals.

Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each hospital shall file annually, at such time as the commission may prescribe, its proposed budget for the next fiscal year, showing projected revenues and expenses and including such further information as the commission may require to implement the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Each hospital shall file annually with the commission after the close of the fiscal year:

(a) A balance sheet detailing the assets, liabilities, and net worth of the hospital;

(b) A statement of income and expenses; and

(c) Such other reports of the costs incurred in rendering services as the commission may prescribe.

~~((2))~~ (3) Where more than one licensed hospital is operated by the reporting organization, the information required by this section shall be reported for each hospital separately.

~~((3))~~ (4) The commission shall require certification of specified financial reports by the hospital's certified public accountant, and may require attestation as to such statements from responsible officials of the hospital that such reports have to the best of their knowledge and belief been prepared in accordance with the prescribed system of accounting and reporting.

~~((4))~~ (5) All reports, except privileged medical information, filed under this chapter shall be ~~(open to)~~ available for public inspection and copying under RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.340.

~~((5))~~ (6) The commission shall ~~(have the right of inspection of)~~ inspect hospital books, audits, and records as reasonably necessary to ~~(verify hospital reports)~~ implement the policies and purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall from time to time undertake analyses and studies relating to ~~(hospital)~~ the need for and delivery of health care services, the availability of such services, hospital rates, health care costs, and ~~(to)~~ the financial status of any hospital or hospitals subject to the provisions of this chapter, and may publish and disseminate such information as it deems desirable in the public interest. It shall further ~~(require the filing of)~~ publish information concerning the ~~(total financial needs of each hospital and the resources available or expected to become available to meet such needs, including the effect of proposals made by area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies)~~ need for health care services identified by area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies under chapter 70.38 RCW and the extent to which such needs are being met.

(2) The commission shall also prepare and file such summaries and compilations or other supplementary reports based on the information filed with the commission hereunder as will advance the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The commission shall furnish a copy of any report regarding any hospital to the chief executive officer of the hospital and the presiding officer of the hospital's governing body.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 82, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall prepare and, prior to each legislative session beginning in January, transmit to the governor and to the legislature an annual report of commission operations and activities for the preceding fiscal year. This report shall include such findings and recommendations as the commission ~~(deems necessary)~~ believes will further the legislative goal of cost containment in the delivery of good quality health care services, including cost-containment programs that have been or might be adopted, and issues of access to good quality care. The report shall also include data on the amount and proportion of charity care provided by each hospital and shall identify any hospital whose level of charity care appears to contribute to a disproportionate level of charity care in other hospitals in the same community or geographic area. The commission's report for 1986, to be submitted in January 1987, shall include an analysis of the impacts of sections 15 and 16 of this 1984 act on (1) the use by indigent persons of health care settings other than hospitals and (2) the caseloads and costs associated with the limited casualty program for medical indigents under RCW 74.09.700. The department of social and health services and the health systems agencies established under chapter 70.38 RCW shall provide such information and assistance as the commission may reasonably require in preparing the report on the impact of sections 15 and 16 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.140 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after a date not less than twelve months but not more than twenty-four months after the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting required by RCW 70.39.100, as the commission may direct, the commission shall have the power to initiate such reviews or investigations as may be necessary to assure all purchasers of ((hospital)) health care services that the total costs of a hospital are reasonably related to the total services offered by that hospital, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudently and reasonably managed hospitals, that the hospital's ((aggregate revenues as expressed by)) rates are reasonably related to the hospital's aggregate costs; and that rates are set equitably among all purchasers or classes of purchasers of services without undue discrimination or preference.

Effective March 31, 1984, if section 16 of this 1984 act takes effect, this chapter does not preclude any hospital from charging any particular payer or purchaser rates that are less than those approved by the commission, provided that the discounted rates shall not result in any shifting of costs to its other payers or purchasers in the current or any subsequent year.

Until such time as either the program set forth in section 16 of this 1984 act actually becomes operative, or the legislature approves a hospital reimbursement control system, only those hospitals which the commission determines to be above their respective regional average may negotiate discounts. Any discount shall be cost justified and the commission may retrospectively disapprove such discount if the commission determines the discount will result in shifting of costs to other payers or purchasers. Such discounts, including the terms thereof, shall be filed with the commission within ten working days and be made available for public inspection in accordance with procedures established by the commission by rule.

In order to properly discharge these obligations, the commission shall have full power to review projected annual revenues and approve the reasonableness of rates proposed to generate that revenue established or requested by any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter. No hospital shall charge for services at rates ((other than)) exceeding those established in accordance with the procedures established hereunder. After June 30, 1985, rates for inpatient care shall be expressed using an appropriate measure of hospital efficiency, such as that based on diagnosis-related groups, and, if necessary for federal medicare participation in a hospital reimbursement control system, hospitals shall charge for such care at rates prospectively established and expressed in terms of a comparable unit of total payment, such as diagnosis-related groups. In the event any hospital reimbursement control system is implemented, children's hospitals shall be exempted until such time as a pediatric based classification system which reflects the unique resource consumption by patients of a children's hospital is perfected. For the purposes of this exemption, children's hospitals are defined as hospitals whose patients are predominantly under eighteen years of age.

In the interest of promoting the most efficient and effective use of ((hospital)) health care service, and providing greater promise of hospital cost containment, the commission may ((promote and approve alternative methods of rate determination and payment of an experimental nature that may be in the public interest and consistent with the purposes of this chapter)) develop a hospital reimbursement control system in which all payers or purchasers participate, that includes procedures for establishing prospective rates, that deals equitably with the costs of providing charity care, and that includes the participation of the federal medicare program under the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21. The commission shall have the authority to require utilization reviews of all patient care to ensure that hospital admissions and services provided are medically justified. The commission may seek approval, concurrence, or participation in such a system from any federal agency, such as the department of health and human services, prior to securing legislative approval pursuant to concurrent resolution for implementation of any hospital reimbursement control system developed pursuant to this section. The commission shall involve the legislature in the development of any plan for a hospital reimbursement control system.

The commission shall serve as the state agency responsible for coordinating state actions and otherwise responding and relating to the efforts of the ((cost of living council, or its successor)) federal department of health and human services in planning and implementing federal cost containment programs with respect to hospitals and related health care institutions as authorized by the ((Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970)) social security amendments of 1983, as now or hereafter amended, or other federal law, and any rules or regulations promulgated thereto. In carrying out this responsibility, the commission may ((serve as the state agency responsible for recommending increases in rates for hospitals and related health care institutions to the cost of living council, or its successor; may apply to the cost of living council for authorization to administer a control program in Washington state in lieu of the federal controls established and otherwise administered by the cost of living council; may)) assume

~~((another)) any function or role authorized by appropriate federal regulations implementing the ((Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970)) social security amendments of 1983; or assume any combination of such roles or functions as it may determine will most effectively contain the rising costs of the varying kinds of hospitals and related health care institutions in Washington state. In determining its functions or roles in relation to ((the)) federal efforts ((to the cost of living council, or its successor)), the commission shall seek to ensure coordination, and the reduction of duplicatory cost containment efforts, by the state and federal governments, as well as the diligent fulfillment of the purposes of this chapter and declared public policy and legislative intent herein((-PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in cases where the rates of nursing homes or similar health institutions are subject to review pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 or any rules or regulations promulgated thereto, the members of the commission representing hospitals shall not sit in the proceedings nor vote, and the governor shall appoint an ad hoc member representing nursing homes or similar health institutions in lieu thereof, who shall have the same powers as the other members with respect to such review only)).~~

Nothing in this chapter limits the ability of the department of social and health services to establish hospital payment rates pursuant to RCW 74.09.120 or in accord with a federally approvable state plan under Title XIX of the federal social security act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 70.39 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within six months of the effective date of this act, the commission shall establish by rule, consistent with the definition of charity care under RCW 70.39.020, the following:

(1) Uniform procedures, data requirements, and criteria for identifying patients receiving charity care;

(2) Uniform discounted payment schedules to be applied to patients receiving charity care, taking into account gross income, number of legal dependents, and other appropriate factors;

(3) A definition of residual bad debt as a component of hospital rate-setting and budget review, including reasonable and uniform standards for collection procedures to be used in efforts to collect the unpaid portions of hospital charges that are the patient's responsibility;

(4) A method for applying the charity care cost distribution system established in section 16 of this act to hospitals operated by health maintenance organizations, as defined in RCW 48.46.030, including the option of providing charity care through enrollment of persons under health maintenance agreements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 70.39 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Not later than October 1, 1985, the commission shall determine the regional average percentage of the budgets of hospitals reflecting charity care as defined in section 15 of this act by the hospitals in each region during their most recent complete fiscal year. For purposes of this section, the state shall be divided into four regions with the same boundaries as the four health service areas established pursuant to RCW 70.38.085. In no event shall the commission make the initial determinations later than March 31, 1985. The commission shall update the regional averages based on actual reported charity care levels as necessary for integration into the hospital and rate review process for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 1986. The regional averages based on actual calendar year 1985 charity care levels shall be effective for the purposes of this chapter through December 31, 1988.

(2) Information submitted by hospitals for commission review for each hospital fiscal year beginning on or after January 1, 1986, shall indicate, consistent with the definitions promulgated by the commission pursuant to this chapter, the amount of charity care to be provided during the forthcoming fiscal year. Each hospital may also submit semiannual reports indicating the status of charity care.

(3) The hospital fair share trust account for charity care is established in the general fund, to be managed by the state treasurer and pursuant to determinations of the commission under this chapter.

(4) Quarterly, beginning April 1, 1986, each hospital which has provided less charity care than the commission has determined to be the applicable regional average pursuant to this chapter shall be assessed an amount determined by the commission to be the cost of such care had it been provided by the hospital during the preceding quarter. The assessments shall be deposited in the hospital fair share trust account for charity care.

(5) Quarterly, beginning July 1, 1986, each hospital which has provided more charity care than the commission has determined to be the regional average pursuant to this chapter shall receive, upon application, a distribution from the trust account which the commission in its sole discretion has determined to be equitable and reasonably reflective of each hospital's charity care effort relative to the regional need, but which shall not exceed seventy percent of its cost of the charity care provided in excess of the regional average. Quarterly distributions shall be made to the limit of trust resources, consistent with prudent management thereof. The commission may reduce any proposed distributions in recognition of any requirements of the federal

Hill-Burton program under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 291, or any tax-supported revenues received to subsidize hospital operations, except those specifically designated by the legislature to subsidize medical education.

(6) In its annual review of hospital budgets, the commission shall review reports submitted under and assessments levied and distributions received under this section. The commission may reconcile assessments and distributions through rates established for the year following the year for which the reconciliation is provided.

(7) In the event the commission proposes a hospital reimbursement control system that includes provisions for dealing equitably with the costs to hospitals of providing charity care and that system receives legislative approval, then the program established under this section is void and of no effect. The discounts permitted under section 14 of this act shall in that event be effective.

(8) In no event may the program established under this section continue beyond December 31, 1989.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. By January 1, 1985, a select committee of the legislature shall develop legislative recommendations for programs that will promote the state-wide development of comprehensive cost-effective managed health care systems and shall recommend programs that will promote use of such managed health care systems. The select committee shall be composed of ten members of the legislature, five appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and five appointed by the president of the senate, upon recommendation of the majority and minority caucuses of their respective bodies.

The committee shall elect a chairperson from among its membership.

The committee is authorized to appoint a technical advisory committee to prepare proposals under which cost-effective managed health care systems could be used to control health care costs, to more equitably distribute charity care among hospitals and licensed health care practitioners, and more effectively provide publicly and privately financed patient care.

For the purposes of this study 'managed health care system' means any health care organization, including health providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract comprehensive health care services to one or more defined patient populations by enrollment or other prior agreement or arrangement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. By January 1, 1985, the governor shall submit a six-year state health care purchasing plan to the legislature. The plan shall identify the number and type of health care services purchased by the state through the department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the state employees' insurance board, the office of superintendent of public instruction, and other agencies of government where state funds are used to purchase health care. The plan shall contain objectives for realizing specific dollar savings in the purchase of these health care services by obtaining discounts from providers, contracting with managed health care systems, altering copayment and deductible requirements, instituting improved utilization controls, using prospective payment arrangements, or by other means.

The governor or the governor's designee shall report the governor's progress in completing this plan to the legislative budget committee and the social and health services and ways and means committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 30, 1984.

Sec. 19. Section 16, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.150 are each amended to read as follows:

To properly carry out its authority the commission shall:

(1) Compile and maintain all relevant financial ((and)), accounting, and patient discharge data in order to have available the statistical information necessary to properly conduct rate review and approval. Such data shall include necessary operating expenses, appropriate expenses incurred for charity care and for rendering services to patients who ((cannot or)) do not pay, all properly incurred interest charges, and reasonable depreciation expenses based on the expected useful life of the property and equipment involved. The commission shall define and prescribe by rule and regulation the types and classes of charges which cannot be changed except as provided by the procedure contained in RCW 70.39.160 and it shall also obtain from each such hospital a current rate schedule as well as any subsequent amendments or modifications of that schedule as it may require. So far as possible, the commission shall compile and maintain the same patient discharge data with respect to all patients as that required under the federal medicare program and the uniform billing procedures applicable to third-party payers.

(2) Permit any ((nonprofit)) hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render necessary, effective, and efficient service in the public interest ((and on a solvent basis)).

(3) ((Permit any proprietary profit-making hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render effective and efficient service in the public interest and which includes an allowance for a fair return to stockholders based upon actual investment or, if the hospital elects, upon the fair value of the investment on

~~the effective date of this section: PROVIDED, That once the election is made it may not be changed without the approval of the commission:~~

~~(4)) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section, that it is its obligation to assure access to necessary, effective, economically viable, and efficient hospital health care capability throughout the state, rather than the solvency or profitability of any individual hospital subject to this chapter except where the insolvency of a hospital would seriously threaten the access of the rural public to basic health care services.~~

(4) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section for each hospital, the recommendations of appropriate area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies to ensure compliance with Washington comprehensive health planning law, chapter 70.38 RCW.

~~((5) Permit, in considering a request for change in or initiating a review of rate schedules or other charges, any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge rates which will in the aggregate produce sufficient total revenue for the hospital to meet all of the reasonable obligations specified in this chapter:))~~

(5) Permit any hospital, whether proprietary, district, public, or not-for-profit, to retain the excess of its revenues, if any, that exceed the actual cost of providing services, generated as a result of cost-effective practices, if the hospital charges do not exceed rates permitted by the commission.

(6) On or before October 1 of each year, after notice and public hearing, and in full consideration of the intent and purpose of this chapter as expressed in RCW 70.39.010, adopt a target dollar amount of total state-wide hospital revenue for the ensuing calendar year. To set the target amount, the commission shall develop a standard methodology that considers such factors as changes in the economy, affordability of hospital care, cost of hospital-purchased goods, numbers and age of the population, technology, and severity of illness of hospital patients. The commission shall endeavor, in establishing rates, to assure that total hospital revenues do not exceed the target amount for the applicable year.

Sec. 20. Section 17, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.160 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after the date determined by the commission pursuant to RCW 70.39.140, no hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter shall change or amend that schedule of rates and charges of the type and class which cannot be changed without prior approval of the commission, except in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) Any request for a change in rate schedules or other charges must be filed in writing in the form and content prescribed by the commission and with such supporting data as the hospital seeking the change deems appropriate. Unless the commission orders otherwise as provided for in subsection (4) of this section, no hospital shall establish such changes except after publication and notice to the commission of at least thirty days from the time the rate is intended to go into effect. All proposed changes shall be plainly indicated on the schedule effective at that time and shall be open to public inspection. Upon receipt of notice, the commission may suspend the effective date of any proposed change. In any such case a formal written statement of the reasons for the suspension will be promptly submitted to the hospital. Unless suspended, any proposed change shall go into effect upon the date specified in the application.

(2) In any case where such action is deemed necessary, the commission shall promptly, but in any event within thirty days, institute proceedings as to the reasonableness of the proposed changes. The suspension may extend for a period of not more than thirty days beyond the date the change would otherwise go into effect: PROVIDED, That should it be necessary, the commission may extend the suspension for an additional thirty days. After the expiration of ninety days from the date the rate is intended to go into effect the new rate will go into effect, if the commission does not approve, disapprove, or modify the request by that time.

(3) Such proposed changes shall be considered at a public hearing, the time and place of which shall be determined by the commission. The hearing shall be conducted by the commission. Evidence for and against the requested change may be introduced at the time of the hearing by any interested party and witnesses may be heard. The hearing may be conducted without compliance with formal rules of evidence.

(4) The commission may, in its discretion, permit any hospital to make a temporary change in rates which shall be effective immediately upon filing and in advance of any review procedure when it deems it in the public interest to do so. Notwithstanding such temporary change in rates, the review procedures set out in this section shall be conducted by the commission as soon thereafter as is practicable.

(5) Every decision and order of the commission in any contested proceeding shall be in writing and shall state the grounds for the commission's conclusions. The effects of such orders shall be prospective in nature.

Sec. 21. Section 11, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 25, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.38.115 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the designee of the secretary of the department in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules of the department which establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;

(b) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;

(c) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(d) The financial feasibility and the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services in the community to be served, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals. An application by a hospital shall be denied if the state hospital commission does not recommend approval, unless the secretary provides the commission with a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons, and citing the applicable subsection or subsections of this section, for approving an application that the commission has determined to be not feasible;

(e) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of alternative uses of project resources for the provision of other health services, (ii) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served, and (iii) the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathy and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;

(f) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (1) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (i) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;

(g) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals ~~((and))~~; nonallopathic services and children's hospitals;

(h) Improvements or innovations in the financing and delivery of health services which foster cost containment and serve to promote quality assurance and cost-effectiveness;

(i) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and facilities similar to those proposed; ~~((and))~~

(j) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past; and

(k) In the case of hospital certificate of need applications subject to concurrent review, preference may be given to hospitals which meet or exceed the regional average for the provision of charity care as determined by the state hospital commission.

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds:

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(4) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(6) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

(7) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

(8) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

(9) The department or a designated regional health council shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.

(10) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. An administrative law judge shall review the decision of the secretary's designee and render a proposed decision for consideration by the secretary in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW or remand the matter to the secretary's designee for further consideration. The secretary's final decision is subject to review by the superior court as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(11) The department may establish procedures and criteria for reconsideration of decisions.

(12) An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

- (a) A new service;
- (b) An expansion of a service beyond that originally approved;
- (c) An increase in bed capacity;

(d) A significant reduction in the scope of a project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

(13) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved.

The commission may request such information from the entities identified in this section, and from the federal department of health and human services, if and when the commission deems appropriate to accord with any requirements of federal law which may be imposed.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the provisions made for safety, emergency care, and athletic health care and training for persons of junior high or high school age are dramatically inferior to those made for athletes at either the postsecondary or professional levels. The legislature further finds that when care is provided at the junior high and high school level, participants in different athletic activities are not provided with equal care.

The legislature finds that the health and safety of the participants in athletics who are between twelve and eighteen years of age is of great importance. The legislature further finds that standards and guidelines for the health and safety of participants in organized athletics both in the high schools and junior high schools will help protect the young people of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The athletic health care and training council is created. The council shall consist of fourteen members selected by the governor to serve four-year staggered terms. The terms of the initial members shall be as follows: Two members will serve a one-year term, four members will serve two-year terms, four members will serve three-year terms, and four members will serve four-year terms. The governor shall select the members to represent diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds, the different geographical areas of the state, and both men and women as follows: Two members shall be physicians licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, two members shall be physical therapists licensed under chapter 18.74 RCW, two members shall be athletic trainers, two members shall be principals of public junior high schools in this state with one from a large district and one from a small district, two members shall be principals of public high schools in this state with one from a large district and one from a small district, two members shall be school district superintendents with one from a large district and one from a small district, one member shall be a representative of a private school which conducts junior and senior high school athletic programs, and one member shall be employed by or be an officer of an organization to which a school district has delegated control, supervision, and regulation of an activity under RCW 28A.58.125.

(2) The members of the council shall select the chairperson from among their members.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Members of the council shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The council shall meet at regularly scheduled meetings and may meet more frequently as necessary as determined by the chairperson. Eight members shall constitute a quorum for conducting business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The council may employ staff as necessary to help the council carry out its duties. The council may contract for services when necessary for preliminary investigations of violations of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The council shall conduct a study of health and safety conditions in organized athletic programs designed for persons between the ages of twelve and eighteen either in public or private junior high schools and high schools in this state. The study shall be completed by September 1, 1984.

(2) No later than September 1, 1984, the council shall develop proposed rules that establish standards for the health and safety of persons in organized athletic programs designed for persons between the ages of twelve and eighteen either in public or private junior high schools and high schools in the state. The proposed rules shall establish standards for staff training, athletic facilities, athletic equipment, training areas, the provision of athletic health care and training services, record keeping, and emergency procedures.

(3) Upon completion, the proposed rules shall be distributed for comment to the state superintendent of public instruction, every local school district board in the state, and other interested persons. The council shall accept comments pertaining to the proposed rules until January 1, 1985.

(4) The council may modify the proposed rules where deemed appropriate and shall adopt the rules in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW no later than May 1, 1985.

(5) The council shall periodically review the rules adopted under this section and modify them to the extent it considers it appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. When the council receives reports of violations of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter, the council may conduct investigations. At the request of the council, the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein a violation has occurred or the attorney general shall take such action as appropriate to enforce this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter and to collect the fines specified in section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A school district or person may be fined up to five thousand dollars for a willful violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter. Injunctive relief may be granted to prevent future violations.

(3) Any rules and policies applied by the voluntary nonprofit entity which govern student participation in any interschool activity shall be written and subject to the annual review and approval of the state board of education at such time as it shall establish;

(4) All amendments and repeals of such rules and policies shall be subject to the review and approval of the state board; and

(5) Such rules and policies shall provide for notice of the reasons and a fair opportunity to contest such reasons prior to a final determination to reject a student's request to participate in or to continue in an interschool activity. The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(5) The appropriations in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section are made solely for those purposes and no transfer shall be made among said subsections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The sentencing reform act of 1981 which established the sentencing guidelines commission and directed the commission to devise a system of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses, required the commission, in setting the standards, to emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(2) There is a need to plan and develop a system through which alternatives to total confinement can be used to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes but who, in the judgment of the courts and appropriate corrections personnel, can best serve their sentences without substantial danger to the community in local community programs rather than in state prisons or local jails.

(3) The department of corrections, which, under RCW 72.09.060 and 72.09.100(5), is charged with developing, establishing, and administering community service programs state-wide, has the expertise, and personnel to enable the development of a comprehensive system of alternative programs for nonviolent offenders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4 through 8 of this act.

(1) 'Department' means the department of corrections.

(2) 'Secretary' means the secretary of corrections.

(3) 'Alternatives to total confinement' means residential and nonresidential programs that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW and that are operated by the department or local government entities to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes, in lieu of incarceration in state prisons or local jails.

(4) 'Nonviolent offender' means any person convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense under chapter 9.94A RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The department shall formulate a comprehensive plan for the development, implementation, and operation of alternatives to total confinement for nonviolent offenders, that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW.

The plan shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committee of the house of representatives and the senate for review by December 1, 1984. The plan shall include, but is not limited to:

(1) The establishment of goals and objectives for the development, implementation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement;

(2) An identification and evaluation of current state and local alternatives to total confinement, including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service programs authorized under RCW 72.09.100(5);

(3) An evaluation of the existing organizational structure and of the services provided by the department's division of community services and its role in providing or administering programs that are alternatives to total confinement after July 1, 1984;

(4) The establishment of policies and procedures to improve and expand existing alternatives to total confinement including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service, and to develop new alternatives to total confinement. Policies and procedures on program site selection, offender intake assessment, program and offender monitoring, and evaluating and reporting the effectiveness of alternatives to total confinement should be included;

(5) The identification of the projected numbers of nonviolent offenders who may be eligible for alternatives to total confinement;

(6) A delineation of the role and functions of affected state and local government entities and state and local service providers with respect to the administration and operation of programs that are alternatives to total confinement;

(7) The identification of funding sources, funding responsibility, and costs associated with alternatives to total confinement and how funding for such programs can occur within state and local budget limitations;

(8) An analysis of the legal liability of state and local government entities and private sector service providers, and a determination of what types of insurance or other mechanisms are available to provide legal and financial safeguards;

(9) An identification of the statutory changes which may be necessary to permit full implementation of the plan; and

(10) An analysis of the role local correctional facilities should assume under chapter 9.94A RCW. The analysis shall determine: (a) Whether the state should assume financial responsibility for operating local correctional facilities, (b) whether the state should contract for county jail beds to house state prisoners, (c) whether new jail facilities have adequate programs to meet the needs of state prisoners, and (d) the feasibility of counties using minimum security facilities for low-risk offenders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department, in developing the plan, shall consult with and receive input from representatives of affected state and local government entities including the governor's interagency criminal justice work group, correctional organizations and associations, prosecuting attorneys, the defense bar, the legislature, private nonprofit agencies, and private citizens. The plan shall be submitted to the governor's interagency criminal justice work group for review prior to the submission of such plan to the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department's plan for the development, implementation, operation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement shall reflect regional differences. The department shall consult with and receive input from affected agencies, organizations, service providers, and individuals working at the regional level.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department, in developing the plan, may request from the office of financial management, the board of prison terms and paroles, the administrator for the courts, the sentencing guidelines commission, the corrections standards board, and the department of social and health services such staff assistance, data, information, and data processing assistance as it may need to accomplish its task, and such services shall be provided without cost to the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of corrections for the period ending December 30, 1984, the sum of forty-five thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 2, chapter 2, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 72.13.091 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 3 through 8 of this act shall expire December 30, 1984."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "overcrowding;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 6, chapter 228, Laws of 1982 (uncodified); amending section 51, chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. (uncodified); creating new sections; repealing section 2, chapter 2, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 72.13.091; making an appropriation; providing an expiration date; and declaring an emergency."

Any city with a population of twenty-five thousand or more, but less than four hundred thousand, may impose a special excise tax of up to three percent on the sale or charge made for the furnishing of lodging by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, or trailer camp, that does not have its own privately owned convention facilities in or immediately adjacent to the lodging facility, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, except that no such tax may be levied on any premises having fewer than fifteen lodging units. It shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same. The proceeds of this tax may only be used to fund the acquisition, design, and construction of publicly owned convention or trade facilities.

This tax is in addition to the sales taxes that cities are authorized to impose in chapter 82.14 RCW and RCW 67.28.180. The tax shall not be a deduction from sales taxes imposed by the state.

Any city imposing the sales tax authorized in this section may contract with the state department of revenue for its collection and distribution as provided in chapter 82.14 RCW for the collection and distribution of general sales taxes imposed by cities.

As used in this section, 'privately owned convention facility' means a facility used for convention and meeting purposes that, subject to the current uniform fire code in force in the city, has a seating capacity in excess of two hundred fifty persons, but does not include facilities primarily used for dining purposes, such as restaurant or coffee shop areas."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, I would ask you to rule on this amendment as to scope and object."

SPEAKER'S RULING (MR. HECK PRESIDING)

The Speaker (Mr. Heck presiding): "The Speaker has examined SSB 3223 and the amendment by Representative Armstrong. The title of the bill is sufficiently broad to encompass the amendment. SSB 3223 as it came from the Senate had several objects and the amendment would have been included. However, this body has just adopted an amendment which narrows the object of SSB 3223. Thus, the amendment is beyond the object of the bill. Your point is well taken, Representative Barrett."

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the committee amendment to the title of the bill was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Wang, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Armstrong yielded to question by Mr. Appelwick.

Mr. Appelwick: "As I understand the rules of construction, the court would presumptively view this amendment as a change in the law or a change in legislative intent. Is it the intent here to change previous legislative intent or law?"

Mr. Armstrong: "No. This is not intended to change previous legislative intent. It is intended to clarify an ambiguity recently brought to light in a Supreme Court decision."

Mr. Appelwick: "Would this clarification apply retroactively to cases in the courts or to actions under this statute before this amendment?"

Mr. Armstrong: "No, legislative intent can only be stated prospectively. The court must decide whether we are restating intent that already existed or whether we have made a change in the previous legislature's intent."

Mr. Appelwick spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. Padden spoke against it.

Mr. West again opposed the bill, and Mr. Appelwick spoke again in favor of it.

The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing.

(ii) Fails to appear at a hearing requested pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section; the court shall enter an appropriate order assessing the monetary penalty prescribed for the traffic infraction and any other penalty authorized by this chapter and shall notify the department in accordance with RCW 46.20.270, of the failure to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

(b) The department may not renew the driver's license, or in the case of a standing, stopping, or parking violation the vehicle license, of any person for whom the court has entered an order pursuant to (a) of this subsection until any penalties imposed pursuant to this chapter have been satisfied. For purposes of driver's license nonrenewal only, the lessee of a vehicle shall be considered to be the person to whom a notice of a standing, stopping, or parking violation has been issued for such violations of the vehicle incurred while the vehicle was leased or rented under a bona fide commercial lease or rental agreement between a lessor engaged in the business of leasing vehicles and a lessee who is not the vehicle's registered owner, if the lease agreement contains a provision prohibiting anyone other than the lessee from operating the vehicle. POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Cantu.

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Grimm, I question the impact on the general fund if this measure should pass. I asked the question in committee, if you recall. The fiscal note that we had was that the Department of Licensing had not yet prepared the estimate on what the impact is to the general fund because of the additional state matching money. Do we have the fiscal note yet?"

Mr. Grimm: "To the best of my knowledge there is no revision to the fiscal note that has been prepared and which was available at the Ways & Means Committee meeting. I have since had secondhand knowledge of conversation held with people from the Department of Licensing and from the Legislative Transportation Committee. Perhaps Representative Walk is a better person to answer the question than I am. My understanding is that there are two limitations on the availability of state general fund match for local systems. One is, of course, the match that the locals derive and which is a potential liability to the state for the match, but the second is also that apparently there is an overall limitation on the motor vehicle excise tax. I believe, that it is one percent and apparently they are at that limit and there is no further ability to secure a match regardless of the wealth of the particular district, if it were to be increased as a result of the taking advantage of the three tenths of one percent sales tax."

Representatives Cantu, Wilson and Padden spoke against passage of the bill, and Representatives Charnley, Moon and Powers spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Cantu again opposed the bill.

POINT OF INFORMATION

I thought I heard from the last remarks that a person who may have withdrawn from the system and then decided to rejoin the system could do so anyway or restore their benefits. I interpret that as meaning that even though they were not employed. I would like the interpretation as to whether or not the reemployment is an essential part of restoring the benefits under the provisions of this bill?"

Mr. Grimm: "If I understood your question correctly, it is: Do the persons need to be reemployed before they can repurchase that prior benefit? The answer is yes."

On page 50, after line 28 of the amendment, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. It is the intent of the legislature to ensure that the citizens of this state receive quality health care services in the most efficient and cost-effective manner. The legislature reaffirms its commitment to the state policy of containing the spiraling costs of health care, which continue to rise at rates about three times the consumer price index. In furtherance of this intent, it is declared to be in the public interest that price competition and economic incentives in the health care delivery system should be encouraged in order to promote and strengthen a more efficient and economic delivery of quality health care.

The legislature finds that such competition may be fostered by recognizing the potentials and authorizing the establishment of 'preferred provider organizations,' to enter into preferred provider arrangements between insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or other purchasers, and health care providers, which contractual arrangements provide for health benefits at alternative rates or under alternative methods of payment that enure to the benefit of the persons who select such providers. The prospects for avoiding costs without sacrifice to quality care may be achieved internally with appropriate utilization review procedures and sound management controls consistent with requirements for solvency. The promise of more far-reaching cost avoidance in the health sector can yet be realized with the inculcation of economic incentives in the market place between competing preferred provider arrangements and other methods of providing or paying for health care costs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) 'Provider' means any person or entity lawfully licensed or authorized to render any health care service in this state.

(2) 'Preferred provider' means any provider who or which has contracted in writing with an authorized insurer or registered health care service contractor to provide health care services at alternative rates or under alternative methods of payment.

(3) 'Preferred provider arrangement' means a contractual agreement between an authorized insurer or registered health care service contractor, registered health maintenance organization, or other entity purchasing coverage, and preferred providers in order to provide health care services at alternative rates or under alternative methods of payment to such preferred providers for insureds or subscribers who select such preferred providers.

(4) 'Preferred provider organization' means an entity formed to enter into preferred provider arrangements and registered as a preferred provider organization under chapter 48.44 RCW. A preferred provider organization may be formed by one or more persons, organizations, health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, and health maintenance organizations, including purchasers.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 28. (1) A person, organization, or entity, including health care providers, insurers, or health care service contractors, may enter into preferred provider arrangements. Such preferred provider arrangements may limit payments under a policy or contract to alternative rates or methods of payment regardless of the preferred provider chosen by insureds or subscribers, and may offer the benefit of such alternative rates or methods of payment to such persons who select such providers. A preferred provider organization shall register with the insurance commissioner in the same manner as for a health care service contractor pursuant to chapter 48.44 RCW.

(2) A health maintenance organization may offer a preferred provider arrangement by registering as a health care service contractor in accordance with this chapter. Nothing in this act may be construed as limiting the authority of a health maintenance organization registered under chapter 48.46 RCW from negotiating and entering into arrangements with institutions, entities, and persons, including contracts providing for alternative rates or methods of payment, to provide health services to its enrolled population.

(3) Nothing in this chapter affects the provisions of chapter 48.44 RCW applicable to a health care service contractor or the provisions of chapter 48.46 RCW applicable to a health maintenance organization. All preferred provider arrangements offered in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 48.44 RCW.

(4) When the preferred provider organization is sponsored by an insurer, a health care service contractor, or a health maintenance organization, the financial and security requirements applicable to those particular types of organizations are deemed sufficient.

(5) A preferred provider organization may limit the number and types of preferred providers rendering health care services pursuant to rules adopted by the insurance commissioner to ensure an adequate number of providers to render health care services offered by the preferred provider organization. Nothing in a preferred provider arrangement may be construed to unreasonably limit the access of subscribers or insureds to any preferred provider within the preferred provider organization.

Preferred provider organizations shall establish terms and conditions which shall be met by providers in order to qualify for payment as preferred providers. The terms and conditions shall not discriminate unreasonably against or among such providers. Neither differences in prices among providers produced by a process of individual negotiations nor based on market conditions or price differences among providers shall be deemed unreasonable discrimination.

(6) Nothing in this section affects the statutory provisions for mandated offerings or benefits required under Title 48 RCW.

(7) No preferred provider arrangement may hold the preferred provider organization harmless for actions against a preferred provider if the cause of action is claimed to be associated with treatment or lack of treatment by the preferred provider on account of utilization review and management controls imposed on such provider.

(8) For the purposes of encouraging price competition in the health care sector, this chapter shall be liberally construed. However, nothing in this chapter may be construed to authorize any activity which would violate any provision of the unfair business practices act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

Sec. 29. Section 5, chapter 122, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 100, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.100.050 are each amended to read as follows:

An individual or group of individuals duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same professional services within this state may organize and become a shareholder or shareholders of a professional corporation for pecuniary profit under the provisions of Title 23A RCW for the purpose of rendering professional service: PROVIDED, That one or more of such legally authorized individuals shall be the incorporators of such professional corporation: PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, registered architects and registered engineers may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation: ((AND)) PROVIDED FURTHER, That licensed health care professionals, providing services to enrolled participants either directly or through arrangements with a health maintenance organization registered under chapter 48.46 RCW or federally qualified health maintenance organization, may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That licensed health care professionals providing health care services to persons through contractual arrangements with preferred provider organizations as defined under chapter 48.--- RCW (sections 26 through 28 of this 1984 act) may own stock in and render their individual professional services through a professional service corporation.

Sec. 30. Section 15, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.140 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after a date not less than twelve months but not more than twenty-four months after the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting required by RCW 70.39.100, as the commission may direct, the commission shall have the power to initiate such reviews or investigations as may be necessary to assure all purchasers of hospital health care services that the total costs of a hospital are reasonably related to the total services offered by that hospital, that the hospital's aggregate revenues as expressed by rates are reasonably related to the hospital's aggregate costs; and that rates are set equitably among all purchasers or classes of purchasers of services without undue discrimination or preference: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing in this section precludes an insurer, a preferred provider organization, a health care service contractor, a self-funded program, or a health maintenance organization from negotiating directly with hospitals with respect to payments for inpatient hospital services.

In order to properly discharge these obligations, the commission shall have full power to review projected annual revenues and approve the reasonableness of rates proposed to generate that revenue established or requested by any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter. No hospital shall charge for services at rates ((other than)) exceeding those established in accordance with the procedures established hereunder, or charge rates which will increase rates otherwise charged to nonpreferred provider subscribers.

In the interest of promoting the most efficient and effective use of hospital health care service, the commission may promote and approve alternative methods of rate determination and payment of an experimental nature that may be in the public interest and consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

The commission shall serve as the state agency responsible for coordinating state actions and otherwise responding and relating to the efforts of the cost of living council, or its successor, in planning and implementing federal cost containment programs with respect to hospitals and related health care institutions as authorized by the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970, as now or hereafter amended, and any rules or regulations promulgated thereto. In carrying out this responsibility, the commission may serve as the state agency responsible for recommending increases in rates for hospitals and related health care institutions to the cost of living council, or its successor; may apply to the cost of living council for authorization to administer a control program in Washington state in lieu of the federal controls established and otherwise administered by the cost of living council; may assume another function or role authorized by appropriate federal regulations implementing the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970; or assume any combination of such roles or functions as it may determine will most effectively contain the rising costs of the varying kinds of hospitals and related health care institutions in Washington state. In determining its functions or roles in relation to the efforts to the cost of living council, or its successor, the commission shall seek to ensure coordination, and the reduction of duplicatory cost containment efforts, by the state and federal governments, as well as the diligent fulfillment of the purposes of this chapter and declared public policy and legislative intent herein: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in cases where the rates of nursing homes or similar health institutions are subject to review pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 or any rules or regulations promulgated thereto, the members of the commission representing hospitals shall not sit in the proceedings nor vote, and the governor shall appoint an ad hoc member representing nursing homes or similar health institutions in lieu thereof, who shall have the same powers as the other members with respect to such review only.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 22, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 857 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature in enacting this chapter to assign responsibilities for locating and keeping accurate records of utility locations, protecting and repairing damage to existing underground facilities, and protecting the public health and safety from interruption in utility services caused by damage to existing underground utility facilities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) 'Business day' means any day other than Saturday, Sunday, or a legal local, state, or federal holiday.

(2) 'Damage' includes the substantial weakening of structural or lateral support of an underground facility, penetration, impairment, or destruction of any underground protective coating, housing, or other protective device, or the severance, partial or complete, of any underground facility to the extent that the project owner or the affected utility owner determines that repairs are required.

(3) 'Emergency' means any condition constituting a clear and present danger to life or property, or a customer service outage.

(4) 'Excavation' means any operation in which earth, rock, or other material on or below the ground is moved or otherwise displaced by any means, except the tilling of soil less than twelve inches in depth for agricultural purposes, or road and ditch maintenance that does not change the original road grade or ditch flowline.

(5) 'Excavator' means any person who engages directly in excavation.

(6) 'Identified facility' means any underground facility which is indicated in the project plans as being located within the area of proposed excavation.

(7) 'Identified but unlocatable underground facility' means an underground facility which has been identified but cannot be located with reasonable accuracy.

(8) 'Locatable underground facility' means an underground facility which can be field-marked with reasonable accuracy.

(9) 'Marking' means the use of stakes, paint, or other clearly identifiable materials to show the field location of underground facilities, in accordance with the current color code standard of the American public works association. Markings shall include identification letters indicating the specific type of the underground facility.

(10) 'Person' means an individual, partnership, franchise holder, association, corporation, a state, a city, a county, or any subdivision or instrumentality of a state, and its employees, agents, or legal representatives.

(11) 'Reasonable accuracy' means location within twenty-four inches of the outside dimensions of both sides of an underground facility.

(12) 'Underground facility' means any item buried or placed below ground for use in connection with the storage or conveyance of water, sewage, electronic, telephonic or telegraphic communications, cablevision, electric energy, petroleum products, gas, gaseous vapors, hazardous liquids, or other substances and including but not limited to pipes, sewers, conduits, cables, valves, lines, wires, manholes, attachments, and those parts of poles or anchors below ground.

(13) 'One-number locator service' means a service through which a person can notify utilities and request field-marking of underground facilities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Before commencing any excavation, the excavator shall provide notice of the scheduled commencement of excavation to all owners of underground facilities through a one-number locator service. If no one-number locator service is available, notice shall be provided individually to those owners of underground facilities known to or suspected of having underground facilities within the area of proposed excavation. The notice shall be communicated to the owners of underground facilities not less than two business days or more than ten business days before the scheduled date for commencement of excavation, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

Upon receipt of the notice provided for in this section, the owner of the underground facility shall provide the excavator with reasonably accurate information as to its locatable underground facilities by surface-marking the location of the facilities. If there are identified but unlocatable underground facilities, the owner of such facilities shall provide the excavator with the best available information as to their locations. The owner of the underground facility providing the information shall respond no later than two business days after the receipt of the notice or before the excavation time, at the option of the owner, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. Excavators shall not excavate until all known facilities have been marked. Once marked by the owner of the underground facility, the excavator is responsible for maintaining the markings. Excavators shall have the right to receive compensation from the owner of the underground facility for costs incurred if the owner of the underground facility does not locate its facilities in accordance with this section.

The owner of the underground facility shall have the right to receive compensation for costs incurred in responding to excavation notices given less than two business days prior to the excavation from the excavator.

An owner of underground facilities is not required to indicate the presence of existing service laterals or appurtenances if the presence of existing service laterals or appurtenances on the site of the construction project can be determined from the presence of other visible facilities, such as buildings, manholes, or meter and junction boxes on or adjacent to the construction site.

Emergency excavations are exempt from the time requirements for notification provided in this section.

If the excavator, while performing the contract, discovers underground facilities which are not identified, the excavator shall cease excavating in the vicinity of the facility and immediately notify the owner or operator of such facilities, or the one-number locator service.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) Project owners shall indicate in bid or contract documents the existence of underground facilities known by the project owner to be located within the proposed area of excavation. The following shall be deemed changed or differing site conditions:

(a) An underground facility not identified as required by this chapter or other provision of law; and

(b) An underground facility not located, as required by this chapter or other provision of law, by the project owner or excavator if the project owner or excavator is also a utility.

(2) An excavator shall use reasonable care to avoid damaging underground facilities. An excavator shall:

(a) Determine the precise location of underground facilities which have been marked;

(b) Plan the excavation to avoid damage to or minimize interference with underground facilities in and near the excavation area; and

(c) Provide such support for underground facilities in and near the construction area, including during backfill operations, as may be reasonably necessary for the protection of such facilities.

(3) If an underground facility is damaged and such damage is the consequence of the failure to fulfill an obligation under this chapter, the party failing to perform that obligation shall be liable for any damages. Any clause in an excavation contract which attempts to allocate liability, or requires indemnification to shift the economic consequences of liability, different from the provisions of this chapter is against public policy and unenforceable. Nothing in this chapter prevents the parties to an excavation contract from contracting with respect to the allocation of risk for changed or differing site conditions.

(4) In any action brought under this section, the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. (1) An excavator who, in the course of excavation, contacts or damages an underground facility shall notify the utility owning or operating such facility and the one-number locator service. If the damage causes an emergency condition, the excavator causing the damage shall also alert the appropriate local public safety agencies and take all appropriate steps to ensure the public safety. No damaged underground facility may be buried until it is repaired or relocated.

(2) The owner of the underground facilities damaged shall arrange for repairs or relocation as soon as is practical or may permit the excavator to do necessary repairs or relocation at a mutually acceptable price.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. An excavation of less than twelve inches in vertical depth on private noncommercial property shall be exempt from the requirements of section 3 of this act, if the excavation is being performed by the person or an employee of the person who owns or occupies the property on which the excavation is being performed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter, and which violation results in damage to underground facilities, is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each violation. All penalties recovered in such actions shall be deposited in the general fund.

(2) Any excavator who wilfully or maliciously damages a field-marked underground facility shall be liable for treble the costs incurred in repairing or relocating the facility. In those cases in which an excavator fails to notify known underground facility owners or the one-number locator service, any damage to the underground facility shall be deemed wilful and malicious and shall be subject to treble damages for costs incurred in repairing or relocating the facility.

(3) This chapter does not affect any civil remedies for personal injury or for property damage, including that to underground facilities, nor does this chapter create any new civil remedies for such damage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The notification and marking provisions of this chapter may be waived for one or more designated persons by an underground facility owner with respect to all or part of that underground facility owner's own underground facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

E2SSB 4831

Prime Sponsor, Committee on Ways & Means: Establishing a program for disclosure of information regarding hazardous substances in the workplace. Reported by Committee on Environmental Affairs

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the 'worker and community right to know act.'

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares that the proliferation of hazardous substances in the environment poses a growing threat to the public health, safety, and welfare; that the constantly increasing number and variety of hazardous substances, and the many routes of exposure to them make it difficult and expensive to monitor adequately and detect any adverse health effects attributable thereto; that individuals themselves are often able to detect and thus minimize effects of exposure to hazardous substances if they are aware of the identity of the substances and the early symptoms of unsafe exposure; and that individuals have an inherent right to know the full range of the risks they face so that they can make reasoned decisions and take informed action concerning their employment and their living conditions.

The legislature further declares that local health, fire, police, safety, and other government officials require detailed information about the identity, characteristics, and quantities of hazardous substances used and stored in communities within their jurisdictions, in order to plan adequately for, and respond to, emergencies, enforce compliance with applicable laws and regulations concerning these substances, and to compile records of exposures to hazardous substances over a period of time that will facilitate the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of disease.

The legislature further declares that the extent of the toxic contamination of the air, water, and land in this state has caused a high degree of concern among its residents and that much of this concern is needlessly aggravated by the unfamiliarity of these substances to residents.

The legislature therefore determines that it is in the public interest to establish a comprehensive program for the disclosure of information about hazardous substances in the workplace and the community, and to provide a procedure whereby residents of this state may gain access to this information.

(c) A person whose employment is not in the course of the trade, business, or profession of his or her employer and is not in or about the private home of the employer;

(d) Any person performing services in return for aid or sustenance only, received from any religious or charitable organization;

(e) Any child under eighteen years of age employed by his or her parent or parents in agricultural activities on the family farm; or

(f) Jockeys while participating in or preparing horses for race meets licensed by the Washington horse racing commission pursuant to chapter 67.16 RCW.

(9) 'Employee representative' means any individual or organization to whom an employee gives written authorization to exercise a right of access. For the purposes of access to employee exposure records and analysis using exposure or medical records, a recognized or certified collective bargaining agent shall be treated automatically as a designated representative without regard to written employee authorization.

(10) 'Employer' means any person, firm, corporation, partnership, business trust, legal representative, or other business entity which engages in any business, industry, profession, or activity in this state and employs one or more employees or who contracts with one or more persons, the essence of which contract is the personal labor of such person or persons and includes the state, counties, cities, and all municipal corporations, public corporations, political subdivisions of the state, and charitable organizations. Any person, partnership, or business entity not having employees, and who is covered by the industrial insurance act shall be considered both an employer and an employee except for the purposes of section 13 of this act. Where there are two or more employers at the same work place, each employer shall be solely responsible under this chapter for his or her own employees.

(11) 'Exposure' or 'exposed' means that an employee is subjected to a hazardous chemical in the course of employment through any route of entry such as inhalation, ingestion, skin contact or absorption, and includes potential, such as accidental or possible exposure.

(12) 'Hazardous substance' means any substance, or substance contained in a mixture, included on the workplace hazardous substance list developed by the department pursuant to section 5 of this act. Hazardous substances do not include consumer products packaged for distribution to, and used by, the general public, including any product used by an employer or the employer's employees in the same form, concentration, and manner as it is sold to consumers, and to the employer's knowledge, employee exposure is not significantly greater than the consumer exposure occurring during principal consumer use of the product. The department may, by inclusion in the standards adopted under section 5 of this act, determine whether any of the following may be excluded from the definitions of hazardous substance:

(a) Any substance received by an employee in a sealed package and subsequently sold or transferred in that package, if the seal remains intact while the substance is in the employer's workplace; or

(b) Any substance, mixture, or product if present in a physical state, volume, or concentration for which there is no valid and substantial evidence that a significant risk to human health may occur from exposure.

(13) 'Label' means a sign, emblem, sticker, or marker affixed to or stenciled onto a container.

(14) 'Manufacturer' means a person who produces, synthesizes, extracts, or otherwise makes a hazardous substance.

(15) 'Material safety data sheet' means a written document prepared by the manufacturer or supplier for each product containing a hazardous substance and transmitted by the manufacturer or supplier to purchasers pursuant to this chapter. Manufacturers and suppliers shall obtain or develop a material safety data sheet for each hazardous substance they produce or import. Employers shall have a material safety data sheet for each hazardous substance which they use. Each material safety data sheet shall contain at least the following information:

(a) The identity used on the label, and, except as provided for in section 9 of this act on trade secrets:

(i) If the hazardous substance is a single substance, its chemical and common name;

(ii) If the hazardous substance is a mixture which has been tested as a whole to determine its hazards, the chemical and common name of the ingredients which contribute to these known hazards and the common name of the mixture itself; or

(iii) If the hazardous substance is a mixture which has not been tested as a whole:

(A) The chemical and common name of all ingredients that have been determined to be health hazards, and that comprise one percent or greater of the composition, except that hazardous substances identified as carcinogens shall be listed if the concentrations are one-tenth of one percent or greater; and

(B) The chemical and common name of all ingredients that have been determined to present a physical hazard when present in the mixture;

(b) Physical and chemical characteristics of the hazardous substance, such as vapor pressure and flash point;

(c) The physical hazards of the hazardous substance including the potential for fire, explosion, and reactivity;

(d) The acute and chronic health hazards of the hazardous substance, including signs and symptoms of exposure, and any medical conditions that are generally recognized as being aggravated by exposure to the hazardous substance;

(e) The primary route of entry;

(f) The occupational safety and health act (OSHA) permissible exposure limit, American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists threshold limit value, and any other exposure limit used or recommended by the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet, where available;

(g) Whether the hazardous substance is listed in the National Toxicology Program (NTP) Annual Report on Carcinogens (latest edition) or has been found to be a potential carcinogen in the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) Monographs (latest editions), or by the occupational safety and health act;

(h) Any generally applicable precautions for safe handling and use that are known to the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet, including appropriate hygienic practices, protective measures during repair and maintenance of contaminated equipment, and procedures for clean-up of spills and leaks;

(i) Any generally applicable control measures that are known to the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet, such as appropriate engineering controls, work practices, or personal protective equipment;

(j) Emergency and first aid procedures;

(k) The date of preparation of the material safety data sheet or the last change to it;

(l) The name, address, and telephone number of the manufacturer, supplier, or other responsible party preparing or distributing the material safety data sheet, who can provide additional information on the hazardous substance and appropriate emergency procedures, if necessary; and

(m) Any additional information the department may require under section 23 of this act.

If no relevant information is found for any given category on the material safety data sheet, the manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet shall mark it to indicate that no applicable information was found.

Where complex mixtures have similar hazards and contents, i.e., the chemical ingredients are essentially the same, but the specific composition varies from mixture to mixture, the manufacturer or supplier may prepare one material safety data sheet to apply to all of these similar mixtures.

The manufacturer or supplier preparing the material safety data sheet shall ensure that the information recorded accurately reflects the scientific evidence used in making the hazard determination. If the manufacturer or supplier becomes newly aware of any significant information regarding the hazards of a hazardous substance, or ways to protect against the hazards, this new information shall be added to the material safety data sheet within three months. Effective November 25, 1985, if the hazardous substance is not being produced or imported, the manufacturer or supplier shall add the information to the material safety data sheet before the hazardous substance is introduced into the workplace.

(16) 'Mixture' means any combination of two or more chemicals if the combination is not, in whole or in part, the result of a chemical reaction.

(17) 'Nonhazardous substance' means any item not included in the workplace hazardous substance list as prepared by the department pursuant to section 5 of this act.

(18) 'Process container' means:

(a) A container, excluding a pipeline, the content of which is changed frequently;

(b) A container into which substances are transferred from labeled containers, and which is intended only for the immediate use of the employee who performs the transfer;

(c) A container on which a label would be obscured by heat, spillage, or other factors; or

(d) A test tube, beaker, vial, or other container which is routinely used and reused;

(e) The employer may use signs, placards, process sheets, batch tickets, operating procedures, or other written materials in lieu of affixing labels to individual process containers, as long as the alternative method identifies the containers to which the label is applicable and conveys the information required by section 14 of this act to be on a label. The written materials shall be readily accessible to the employees in their work area throughout each work shift;

(f) The employer is not required to label portable containers into which hazardous chemicals are transferred from labeled containers, and which are intended only for the immediate use of the employee who performs the transfer.

(19) 'Research and development laboratory' means a specially designated area used primarily for research, development, teaching, and testing activity, and not primarily involved in the production of goods for commercial sale, in which hazardous substances are used by or under the direct supervision of a technically qualified person.

(20) 'Supplier' means any firm or individual other than the initial manufacturer, such as an importer or distributor, who supplies or imports products containing hazardous substances.

(21) 'Technically qualified individual' means a person who, because of education, training, or experience, understands the health risks associated with the hazardous substance or mixture handled by or under his or her supervision.

(22) 'Trade secret' has the definition found in the uniform trade secrets act, RCW 19.108.010(4).

(23) 'Work area' means a room or defined space in a workplace where hazardous substances are produced or used and where employees are present.

(24) 'Workplace' means an establishment at one geographical location containing one or more work areas.

(25) 'Workplace hazardous substance list' means the list of health hazard substances developed by the department under section 5 of this act for which a manufacturer or supplier may make a trade secret claim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The application of this chapter is limited with respect to the following employees:

- (a) Employees of handlers of sewage or solid waste;
- (b) Employees of research and development laboratories;
- (c) Employees who are performing duties subject to regulations regarding the transportation of hazardous substances promulgated by any of the following agencies:
 - (i) The federal department of transportation;
 - (ii) The Washington utilities and transportation commission; or
 - (iii) The international maritime organization of the United Nations;
- (d) Other employees who are performing duties directly relating to the transportation of hazardous substances.

(2) Employers shall be limited to the following responsibilities under this chapter with regard to employees listed in subsection (1) of this section:

- (a) Extensive education and training programs shall be provided to employees in accordance with section 13 of this act;
- (b) Employers shall ensure that labels on incoming containers of hazardous substances are not removed or defaced;
- (c) Employers shall maintain material safety data sheets that are received with incoming shipments for each type of hazardous substance in their workplace, and ensure that they are readily accessible to employees;
- (d) The workplace survey required by section 6 of this act shall be completed to the extent that information is reasonably available; and
- (e) Any employee who is exposed to a hazardous substance shall be immediately provided with a material safety data sheet if possible.

(3) The limitations in this section apply only to employees directly involved in the transportation of hazardous substances, directly involved in laboratory research, or directly involved in handling sewage or solid waste. Employees not directly involved in the transportation of hazardous substances, not directly involved in laboratory research, or not directly involved in handling sewage or solid waste are covered by the full terms of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The department, after consultation with the department of agriculture, shall develop a workplace hazardous substance list in accordance with rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW that shall include:

- (a) Any substance regulated under the Washington industrial safety and health act, chapter 49.17 RCW;
- (b) Those environmental hazardous substances designated by the federal Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to section 307 and 311 of the federal Clean Water Act of 1977 (33 U.S.C. Secs. 1317 and 1321 respectively) or as hazardous air pollutants pursuant to section 112 of the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 4712) as amended, which have known adverse human health risks;
- (c) Substances listed as human or animal carcinogens by the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC);
- (d) Substances for which an information alert has been issued by the department; and
- (e) Any other substance which the department, based on documented scientific evidence, determines may pose a threat to the health or safety of an employee.

(2) The department shall develop by rule, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, criteria by which hazardous substances may be placed or deleted from the list established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department, after consultation with the department of agriculture, shall develop a workplace survey in accordance with rules adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW. The workplace survey shall include a copy of the workplace hazardous substance list.

(2) The department shall transmit the workplace survey to each employer in the state no later than June 1, 1986. Employers shall complete the workplace survey and return it to the department within forty-five days except when employer receives an extension from the department. The number of workplace surveys an employer must submit shall be in accordance with criteria developed by the department.

(3) For those employees who communicate primarily in a language other than English, employers shall make a reasonable effort to inform such employees of their rights under this chapter. When necessary or desirable, the department shall prepare and, upon request, make available to the employers and the public a translation of the workplace survey and each material safety data sheet. The department shall also prepare and make available, when necessary or desirable, translations of written material prepared by the department to inform employees of their rights under this chapter.

An employer shall ensure that all employees, regardless of any language barriers, are provided with a suitable education and training program required pursuant to section 14 of this act.

Every employer employing employees who have trouble communicating in English shall make reasonable efforts to post any notices in the employees' native language as provided by the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) The manufacturer or supplier of any product used or brought into the state, which product contains hazardous substances as listed pursuant to section 5 of this act, shall prepare and/or provide its purchasers of the product and the department with a material safety data sheet or sheets containing information specified in section 3(15) of this act by November 25, 1985. The manufacturer or supplier shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that the information contained in each material safety data sheet is current, accurate, and complete. Failure to provide current, accurate, and complete information as required by this section shall result in civil and criminal penalties as provided in chapter 49.17 RCW.

(a) This material safety data sheet shall be provided to the purchaser and to the department at the time of initial shipment and with the first shipment after each update of the material safety data sheet.

(b) The manufacturer or supplier shall revise a material safety data sheet pursuant to section 3(15) of this act regarding new information that affects the accuracy of the existing material safety data sheet. If the new information indicates either increased or decreased risks or additional measures necessary to protect employee health as compared to those stated on the material safety data sheet previously provided, the manufacturer or supplier shall provide the new material safety data sheet to the department and to those who have purchased the product directly from the manufacturer or supplier within the last year.

(2) If an employer has reason to believe that a product present at the employer's facility contains a hazardous substance as a component, but has not obtained from the manufacturer or supplier of the product a material safety data sheet, the employer shall list the product by its common name in the space provided on the survey. The department shall have the responsibility of obtaining the material safety data sheet, and, upon obtaining this information, shall transmit it to the employer.

(3) The manufacturer or supplier may provide the information required by section 3(15) of this act on an entire product mixture instead of on each hazardous substance in it when all of the following conditions exist:

(a) Hazard test information exists on the mixture itself, or adequate information exists to form a valid judgment of the hazardous properties of the mixture itself and the material safety data sheet indicates that the information presented and the conclusions drawn are from some source other than direct test data on the mixture itself;

(b) Providing information on the mixture will be as effective in protecting employee health as information on the ingredients; and

(c) The hazardous substances in the mixture are identified on the material safety data sheet unless it is either unfeasible to describe all the ingredients in the mixture or the identity of the ingredients is itself a valid trade secret. In either case, the reason why the hazardous substances in the mixture are not identified shall be stated on the material safety data sheet.

(4) A single mixture material safety data sheet may be provided for more than one formulation of a product mixture if the information provided pursuant to section 3(15) of this act does not vary for the formulation.

(5) The provisions of this section shall be complied with not later than November 25, 1985.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. (1) The department shall, upon request, transmit a copy of the workplace survey to the health department of the county in which the employer's facility is located, the local fire department, and the local police department.

(2) The department shall annually notify the association of Washington cities, the Washington state association of counties, and the Washington fire commissioners association of their rights under this chapter. These organizations shall inform their members of the information available to the members through the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) The manufacturer, employer, or supplier may make a trade secret claim to the department. Such a trade secret claim does not relieve the manufacturer or supplier from the duty to provide the department with the material safety data sheet. The department shall, by rules adopted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, establish criteria to determine whether the trade secret claim is warranted, and if warranted set forth procedures for the transmittal of information obtained on the material safety data sheet to the employer while providing protection for the trade secret. While the trade secret claim is under review, a manufacturer, employer, or supplier may withhold the hazardous substance trade secret information from the label required by section 14 of this act, the workplace survey required by section 6 of this act, and the material safety data sheet required by section 7 of this act. The manufacturer or supplier shall notify purchasers of trade secret claims made to the department. For any trade secret claim, the manufacturers or suppliers shall compensate the department for expenses incurred in evaluating the validity of that claim.

(2) Where a treating physician or nurse determines that a medical emergency exists and the specific chemical identity of a hazardous chemical is necessary for emergency or first-aid treatment, the manufacturer, supplier, or employer shall immediately disclose the specific chemical identity to that treating physician or nurse, regardless of the existence of a written statement of need or a confidentiality agreement. The manufacturer, supplier, or employer may require a written statement of need and confidentiality agreement in accordance with provisions developed by the department.

(3) Any challenge to the denial of a trade secret claim shall be heard by an administrative law judge in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. (1) The department shall maintain a file of all completed workplace surveys and material safety data sheets received pursuant to sections 5, 7, and 8 of this act. The workplace surveys and material safety data sheets shall be retained by the department for thirty years.

(2) Copies of such records maintained on microfiche or microfilm shall be admissible evidence in any judicial or administrative proceeding.

(3) The department shall require employers who have hazardous substances present at their workplaces to update annually the workplace survey for the employer's workplace.

(4) The department shall require all employers to complete a workplace survey at least once every five years.

(5) Any person may request from the department a copy of a workplace survey for a workplace, together with the appropriate material safety data sheets. The department is the only public agency required to respond to these requests. The department shall keep a record of each request to be made available to health and law enforcement agencies. The record shall include the information released and the identification of the person or organization making the request. A 'community right-to-know' state-wide toll-free telephone number shall be made available by the department to receive workplace survey and material safety data sheet requests. The department shall advise the employer when requests for information pertaining to his or her workplace have been made by persons or organizations other than (a) employees working for the employer, or (b) local health, fire, and law enforcement agencies. The department shall impose reasonable limits on requests made under this section and may establish reasonable fees to be charged for copies. Any request by an employee for material pertaining to the workplace where the employee is employed made pursuant to this subsection shall be treated by the department as confidential.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. Every employer shall establish and maintain a central file at that employer's workplace in which the employer shall retain a workplace survey for the workplace and appropriate material safety data sheets. Every employer shall post on bulletin boards or other places readily accessible to employees a notice in a form substantially the same as a notice developed by the department of the availability of the information in the file. Every employer shall supply employees with any material designed and provided by the department to inform employees of their rights under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) Within three working days, employers shall make available as soon as possible without interrupting normal work operations, a workplace survey and a material safety data sheet on each hazardous substance in the employees' work area upon written request of an employee, or the employee's designated representative.

(2) If a manufacturer or supplier has failed to provide a material safety data sheet as specified in section 7 of this act, employers shall notify the department and identify the hazardous substance, manufacturer or supplier, and trade name to the department.

(3) If the material safety data sheet is not on file with the department, the department shall request the manufacturer or supplier to furnish:

(a) The most current material safety data sheet;

(b) A statement that the material safety data sheet is under development and the estimated completion date; or

(c) A statement that the product is not subject to the requirements of this chapter.

(4) The manufacturer or supplier shall provide a response to the request under subsection (3) of this section within fifteen days of receipt of the request.

(5) The department shall notify the employer and employee with copies of the response.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. (1) Every employer or group of employers shall establish or use an existing education and training program for that employer's employees, which shall be designed to inform employees in writing and orally of the nature of the hazardous substances to which they are exposed in the course of their employment and the potential health risks which the hazardous substances pose as provided in the material safety data sheets for the hazardous substances to which the employees may be exposed at the workplace. An employer shall provide current employees with the education and training program by June 1, 1986, and annually thereafter. Beginning June 1, 1986, all new employees shall be provided with the training and education program within the first month of employment. At the time of entering an employment agreement with a prospective employee, an employer shall notify a prospective employee of the availability of workplace surveys and appropriate material safety data sheets for the workplace at which the prospective employee will be employed.

(2) An employer with fewer than thirty-five full-time employees may request assistance, including on-site assistance, from the department in completing its workplace surveys and education and training programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) A company or individual who manufactures or supplies a hazardous substance or mixture containing a hazardous substance and who supplies the substance or mixture to an employer in the state shall label all such substances and mixtures by the chemical or common name and the appropriate hazard warnings according to chapter 49.17 RCW. These labels shall be updated whenever the product mix is changed or if the manufacturer or supplier becomes aware of any information which is both new and significant regarding the health hazard of a component of the product.

(2) By June 1, 1986, every employer shall make every reasonable effort to assure that every container at the employer's workplace containing a hazardous substance shall bear a label indicating the chemical or common name and the appropriate hazard warnings in accordance with chapter 49.17 RCW.

(3) The labeling requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply to containers labeled pursuant to the 'Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act' (61 Stat. 163; 7 U.S.C. sec. 121 et al.). The department may, by rule, certify containers labeled pursuant to any other federal rule or regulation as labeled in compliance with this section.

(4) Although process containers are excluded from labeling requirements, the employer shall post in a readily available place a workplace hazardous substance list indicating the chemical name or chemical abstracts service number of all hazardous substances contained therein. Labeling of normally-operated vents to the atmosphere, sample connections, and drains in those areas is required if there is potential for employee exposure to a hazardous substance.

(5) In cases of pipes or piping systems, a fixed storage tank, or a reaction vessel, an employer may choose to convey the information required by this section by posting signs, placards, or operating instructions, or other methods rather than affixing labels. For any pipe or piping system, the information required by this section shall be provided at points where direct employee exposure to the hazardous substance contained in the pipe or piping system is likely to occur under normal operating conditions.

(6) If any provisions of this section are inconsistent with the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, or with applicable regulations issued under that act by the Environmental Protection Agency or with chapter 70 RCW, or with regulations adopted by the department of ecology pursuant to its authority under RCW 70.105.020 and RCW 70.105.130, the provisions of this section shall be deemed superseded by those federal and state statutes and regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. An employee or employee representative may request, in writing, from the employer, a copy of a workplace survey or a material safety data sheet, filed pursuant to this chapter for the employee's work area. The employer shall supply this material within three working days of the request. If an employer has not complied with section 12 of this act, an employee shall have the right to refuse to work with a particular hazardous substance for which a request was made and not honored within the statutory time period without loss of pay or forfeit of any other privilege until the request is honored. This section shall not apply to employees of vessels while the employees are on the water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. No employer may discharge, cause to be discharged, or otherwise discipline, penalize, or discriminate against any employee because the employee or the employee's representative has exercised any right established in this chapter. The discrimination provisions of chapter 49.17 RCW apply to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) The director shall establish in the department a right-to-know advisory council, which shall consist of fifteen members appointed by the director. Each of these members shall be appointed for a term of three years, provided that of the members of the council first appointed by the director, five shall serve for terms of one year, five shall serve for terms of two years, and five shall serve for terms of three years. Of these members, one shall be appointed from persons having training and experience in industrial hygiene recommended by recognized labor unions; one from persons recommended by recognized agricultural organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized environmental organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized public interest organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of chemical industries; one from persons recommended by recognized community organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of petroleum industries; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of fire fighters; one from persons recommended by recognized business or trade organizations; one from persons recommended by recognized organizations of small business; one from persons holding an M.D. degree recommended by recognized public health organizations; two persons from professional accident and safety organizations; one person from the technology-based industries; and one from persons with training and experience in environmental epidemiology and toxicology recommended by recognized research or academic organizations. In the event that no recommendations for a particular category of membership are made to the director three months after the effective date of this act in the case of the initial appointments, or within sixty days of the date of the expiration of the term of office of any member or the occurrence of any vacancy in the case of subsequent appointments, the director shall appoint as a member for that category of membership a person whom the director believes will be representative thereof.

(2) A majority of the membership of the council constitutes a quorum for the transaction of council business. Action may be taken and motions and resolutions adopted by the council at any meeting thereof by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the council present and voting.

(3) The council shall meet regularly as it may determine, and shall also meet at the call of the department.

(4) The council shall appoint a chairman and other officers as may be necessary from among its members. The council may, within the limits of any funds appropriated or otherwise made available to it for this purpose, appoint such staff or hire such experts as it may require.

(5) Members of the council shall serve without compensation, but the council may, within the limits of funds appropriated or otherwise made available to it for such purposes, reimburse its members for necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) The council shall:

(a) Advise the department on the revision of the workplace hazardous substance lists;

(b) Study the impact of this chapter on employers and make recommendations to the legislature. Special emphasis shall be given to the study of the impacts on agricultural and small business employers;

(c) Advise the department on the implementation of this chapter; and

(d) Review any matters submitted to it by the department.

(2) The council may:

(a) Review any aspect of the implementation of this chapter, and transmit its recommendations to the department; and

(b) Hold public meetings or hearings within the state on any matter or matters related to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The department, in conjunction with the council, shall establish a procedure for annually receiving information, advice, testimony, and recommendations from the council, the public, and any other interested party concerning the implementation of this chapter. This procedure shall include a mechanism for revising the workplace hazardous substance list. Any revision of the workplace hazardous substance list shall be based on documented scientific evidence. The department shall publicly announce any revisions of the workplace hazardous substance list, and any such additions or revisions shall be made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The department shall produce educational brochures and public service announcements detailing information available to citizens under this chapter. These educational materials shall be sent to each county health department. As necessary, the department shall provide information needed to update these educational materials.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A person may bring a civil action on his or her own behalf against a manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user for a violation of a provision of this chapter or any rule promulgated under this chapter. The superior court shall have jurisdiction over these actions. The court may award costs of litigation to the prevailing party, including reasonable attorney and expert witness fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Substances not included on the workplace hazardous substance list shall not be subject to the reporting provisions of this chapter. However, the absence of any substance from the workplace hazardous substance list, or the provision of any information by an employer to an employee or any other person pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall not affect any other liability of an employer with regard to safeguarding the health and safety of an employee or any other person exposed to the substance, nor shall it affect any other duty or responsibility of an employer to warn ultimate users of a substance of any potential health hazards associated with the use of the substance pursuant to the provisions of any law or rule adopted pursuant thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The department may request from an employer submitting surveys to it further information concerning the surveys, and the employer shall provide the additional information upon the request. The employer may require the department to provide reasons why further information is needed and to sign an agreement protecting the confidentiality of any additional information provided under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) The worker and community right to know fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. The department shall deposit all moneys received under this chapter in the fund. Moneys in the fund may be spent only for the purposes of this chapter following legislative appropriation. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the director or the director's designee. The fund is subject to the allotment procedure provided under chapter 43.88 RCW.

(2) The department shall assess each employer a fee of seventy-five cents per employee to provide for the implementation of the provisions of this chapter. After this initial assessment, the fees shall be based on a fee schedule developed by the department and shall be collected only from those employers who have hazardous substances present at their workplaces. All fees collected by the department pursuant to this section shall be collected in a cost-efficient manner and shall be deposited in the fund.

(3) Records required by this chapter shall at all times be open to the inspection of the director, or his designee including, the traveling auditors, agents or assistants of the department provided for in RCW 51.16.070 and 51.48.040. The information obtained from employer records under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the same confidentiality requirements as set forth in RCW 51.16.070.

(4) An employer may appeal the assessment of the fee pursuant to the procedures set forth in chapter 49.17 RCW and accompanying rules except that the employer shall not have the right of appeal to superior court as provided in chapter 49.17 RCW. The employer from whom the fee is demanded or enforced, may however, within thirty days of the board of industrial insurance appeal's final order, pay the fee under written protest setting forth all the grounds upon which such fee is claimed to be unlawful, excessive or otherwise improper and thereafter bring an action in superior court against the department to recover such fee or any portion of the fee which was paid under protest.

(5) Repayment shall be made to the general fund of any moneys appropriated by law in order to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Unless reference is specifically made to another chapter, this chapter shall be implemented and enforced including penalties, violations, citations, and other administrative procedures pursuant to chapter 49.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If a manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user refuses or fails to provide the department with any data sheets, workplace surveys, or other papers, documents, or information required by this chapter, the department may give written notice to the manufacturer, supplier, employer, or user demanding immediate compliance. NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Section 1, chapter 51, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.04.345 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) It is the purpose of sections 24 through 29 of this act to govern the retirement rights of persons whose employment status is altered when: (a) Two or more units of local government of this state, at least one of which is a first class city with its own retirement system, enter into an agreement for the consolidated performance of a governmental service, activity, or undertaking; (b) the service, activity, or undertaking is to be performed either by one of the participating local governmental units or by a newly established separate legal entity; and (c) the employees of the participating local governmental units are not all members of the same Washington public retirement system.

Sections 24 through 29 of this act are not intended to and do not govern retirement rights of any members of the retirement systems established by chapter 41.16, 41.18, 41.20, or 41.26 RCW, or of employees described in RCW 35.58.265, 35.58.390, or 70.08.070. To the extent there is any conflict between sections 24 through 29 of this act and RCW 41.04.110, the provisions of sections 24 through 29 of this act shall govern.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 23 through 29 of this act.

(1) 'Legal entity' means any political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state, including but not limited to public agencies created under RCW 35.63.070, 36.70.060, or 39.34.030.

(2) 'Consolidated employer' means the legal entity assigned by agreement to perform a governmental service, activity, or undertaking for two or more units of local government of the state, at least one of which is a first class city with its own retirement system.

(3) 'Existing employee' means a person who both (a) becomes employed by the consolidated employer within one year after the consolidation and (b) was employed by one of the combining legal entities at the time of the consolidation.

(4) 'New employee' means an employee of the consolidated employer who is not an existing employee.

(5) 'Active member' means a member of a retirement system who was making contributions to that retirement system at the time of the consolidation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If a consolidated employer is a participating member in the public employees' retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW prior to the consolidation:

(1) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of the public employees' retirement system immediately prior to the consolidation shall continue to be members of that retirement system while employed by the consolidated employer.

(2) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of a first class city retirement system under chapter 41.28 RCW immediately prior to the consolidation shall cease to be members of that system at the time of the consolidation and, if eligible, shall immediately become members of the public employees' retirement system. However, any such active member may, by a writing filed with the consolidated employer within thirty days after the consolidation or within thirty days after the effective date of this act, whichever is later, irrevocably elect instead to continue to be a member of the first class city retirement system, thereby forever waiving any rights under the public employees' retirement system based upon employment with the consolidated employer.

(3) Only prospective periods of qualifying service under the public employees' retirement system may be established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. If a consolidated employer is a city operating a first class city retirement system under chapter 41.28 RCW prior to the consolidation:

(1) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of the first class city retirement system immediately prior to the consolidation shall continue to be members of that retirement system while employed by the consolidated employer.

(2) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of the public employees' retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW immediately prior to the consolidation shall cease to be members of that system at the time of the consolidation and, if eligible, shall immediately become members of the first class city retirement system. However, any such active member may, by a writing filed with the consolidated employer within thirty days after the consolidation or within thirty days after the effective date of this act, whichever is later, irrevocably elect instead to continue to be a member of the public employees' retirement system, thereby forever waiving any rights under the first class city retirement system based upon such employment with the consolidated employer.

(3) Only prospective periods of qualifying service under the first class city retirement system may be established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. If a consolidated employer is a newly created legal entity and does not immediately join the public employees' retirement system pursuant to RCW 41.40.410:

(1) All existing employees of the consolidated employer who are active members of a first class city retirement system or the public employees' retirement system immediately prior to the consolidation shall cease to be members of these systems. However, any such active members may, by a writing filed with the consolidated employer within thirty days after the consolidation or within thirty days after the effective date of this act, whichever is later, irrevocably elect instead to continue as members of the retirement system to which they belonged at the time of the consolidation for all periods of employment with the consolidated employer.

(2) If the consolidated employer later joins the public employees' retirement system, all existing employees still employed on that date shall, effective from that date, have the same retirement system rights and options, subject to the same conditions as employees governed by section 25 of this act, notwithstanding any previous election under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) No new employees of the consolidated employer may become members of an employer-sponsored retirement system until such time as the employer joins the public employees' retirement system pursuant to RCW 41.40.410.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Notwithstanding any provision of section 25, 26, or 27 of this act:

(1) No person may simultaneously accrue any contractual rights whatsoever in more than one Washington public retirement system as a consequence of employment by a consolidated employer.

(2) No person who makes a written election permitted by section 25, 26, or 27 of this act may receive a retirement allowance from such retirement system under any circumstances while employed or reemployed by the consolidated employer.

(3) No person may accrue any benefits or rights under any Washington public retirement system as a result of section 25, 26, or 27 of this act except such rights of continuing membership that are specifically and explicitly granted by section 25, 26, or 27 of this act.

(4) Nothing in sections 23 through 28 of this act is intended to constitute an amendment or waiver of any law or rule of any Washington public retirement system, including but not limited to those governing eligibility for service credit, benefits, or membership, except to broaden the class of legal entities that are deemed to be participating employers in the retirement systems in the specific circumstances stated in sections 25, 26, and 27 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. (1) Consolidated employers that employ persons governed by section 25, 26, or 27 of this act shall comply with all laws and rules governing the retirement system in which the persons participate as members, including but not limited to the obligations to make employer contributions, to deduct and transmit employee contributions, and to submit required reports.

(2) Sections 25, 26, 27, and 28 of this act govern any consolidation occurring on or after December 31, 1981.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. Sections 23 through 29 of this act are each added to chapter 41.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. (1) There is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, from the state general fund to the public employees' retirement system fund the sum of two hundred ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of section 10 of this act.

(2) There is appropriated to the department of retirement systems for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, from the department of retirement systems expense fund the sum of fifty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the administration of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

February 23, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1164 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 41, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds:

(1) Continuing technological changes in methods of manufacture, packaging, and marketing of consumer products, together with the economic and population growth of this state, the rising affluence of its citizens, and its expanding industrial activity have created new and ever-mounting problems involving disposal of garbage, refuse, and solid waste materials resulting from domestic, agricultural, and industrial activities.

(2) Traditional methods of disposing of solid wastes in this state are no longer adequate to meet the ever-increasing problem. Improper methods and practices of handling and disposal of solid wastes pollute our land, air and water resources, blight our countryside, adversely affect land values, and damage the overall quality of our environment.

(3) Considerations of natural resource limitations, energy shortages, economics and the environment make necessary the development and implementation of solid waste recovery and/or recycling plans and programs.

(4) The following priorities in the management of solid waste are necessary and should be followed in order of descending priority as applicable:

(a) Waste reduction;

(b) Waste recycling;

(c) Energy recovery or incineration; and

(d) Landfill.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 41, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

(1) 'City' means every incorporated city and town.

(2) 'Committee' means the solid waste advisory committee.

(3) 'Department' means the department of ecology.

(4) 'Director' means the director of the department of ecology.

(5) 'Disposal site' means the location where any final treatment, utilization, processing, or deposit of solid waste occurs.

(6) 'Functional standards' means criteria for solid waste handling expressed in terms of expected performance or solid waste handling functions.

(7) 'Jurisdictional health department' means city, county, city-county, or district public health department.

(8) 'Person' means individual, firm, association, copartnership, political subdivision, government agency, municipality, industry, public or private corporation, or any other entity whatsoever.

(9) 'Solid waste' means all putrescible and nonputrescible solid and semisolid wastes including, but not limited to, garbage, rubbish, ashes, industrial wastes, swill, demolition and construction wastes, abandoned vehicles or parts thereof, and discarded commodities.

(10) 'Solid waste handling' means the management, storage, collection, transportation, treatment, utilization, processing, and final disposal of solid wastes, including the recovery and recycling of materials from solid wastes, the recovery of energy resources from such wastes or the conversion of the energy in such wastes to more useful forms or combinations thereof.

(11) 'Waste reduction' means reducing the amount or type of waste generated.

(12) 'Waste recycling' means reusing waste materials and extracting valuable materials from a waste stream.

(13) 'Energy recovery or incineration' means reducing the volume of wastes by use of an enclosed device using controlled flame combustion.

(14) 'Landfill' means a disposal facility or part of a facility at which waste is placed in or on land and which is not a land treatment facility.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The department in accordance with procedures prescribed by the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, ~~((may)) shall adopt ((such))~~ minimum functional standards for solid waste handling ~~((as it deems appropriate))~~. These standards shall be designed to use the best available technology to protect the environment and human health, and shall be revised periodically to reflect new technology and information. Any such standards shall be reviewed and approved by the solid waste advisory committee established pursuant to RCW 70.95.040 during their promulgation and prior to their adoption. The department in adopting such standards may classify areas of the state with respect to population density, climate, geology, and other relevant factors bearing on solid waste ~~((disposal)) handling~~ standards.

The members shall be appointed by the county legislative authority. A county or city shall not apply for funds from the state and local improvements revolving account, Waste Disposal Facilities, 1980, under chapter 43.99F RCW, for the preparation, update, or major amendment of a comprehensive solid waste management plan unless the plan or revision has been prepared with the active assistance and participation of a local solid waste advisory committee.

Sec. 5. Section 9, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 293, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Each county and city solid waste management plan shall include the following:

(c) The population density of each area serviced by a city operation or by a franchised operation within the respective jurisdictions;

(d) The projected solid waste collection needs for the respective jurisdictions for the next six years.

(6) A review of potential areas that meet the criteria as outlined in section 4 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 6. Section 10, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall provide to counties and cities technical assistance in the preparation, review, and revision of solid waste management plans required by this chapter. Each comprehensive county solid waste management plan shall be submitted to the department for technical review and approval. Upon each review such plans shall be extended to show long-range needs for solid waste handling facilities for twenty years in the future, and a revised construction and capital acquisition program for six years in the future. Each revised solid waste ~~((handling))~~ management plan shall be submitted to the department ~~((of environmental quality))~~.

Each plan shall be reviewed and revised within five years of the effective date of this 1984 act, and thereafter shall be reviewed, and revised if necessary, at least once every five years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to be codified between RCW 70.95.180 and 70.95.190 a new section to read as follows:

Every permit issued by a jurisdictional health department under RCW 70.95.180 shall be reviewed by the department to ensure that the proposed site or facility conforms with:

(1) All applicable laws and regulations including the minimal functional standards for solid waste handling; and

(2) The approved comprehensive solid waste management plan.

The department shall review the permit within thirty days after the issuance of the permit by the jurisdictional health department. The department may appeal the issuance of the permit by the jurisdictional health department to the pollution control hearings board, as described in chapter 43.21B RCW, for noncompliance with subsection (1) or (2) of this section.

No permit issued pursuant to RCW 70.95.180 after the effective date of this act shall be considered valid unless it has been reviewed by the department.

Every permit for a solid waste disposal site shall be renewed annually on a date to be established by the jurisdictional health department having jurisdiction of the site. Prior to renewing a permit, the health department shall conduct such inspections as it deems necessary to assure that the solid waste disposal site and facilities located on the site meet minimum functional standards of the department ~~((of environmental quality and))~~, applicable local regulations, and are not in conflict with the approved solid waste management plan. The department shall review and may appeal the renewal as set forth for the approval of permits in section 8 of this 1984 act.

A renewal issued under this section shall not be considered valid unless it has been reviewed by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 70.95 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department is authorized to use funds under chapter 43.99F RCW to disburse to local governments in developing solid waste recovery or recycling projects. Priority shall be given to those projects that use incineration of solid waste to produce energy and to recycling projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.120 are each repealed."

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 24, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1413 with the following amendments:

Whenever any public service company ~~((shall))~~, other than a railroad company, files with the commission any schedule, classification, rule, or regulation, the effect of which is to change any rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll ~~((theretofore))~~ previously charged, the commission ~~((shall have))~~ has power, either upon its own motion or upon complaint, upon notice, to ~~((enter upon))~~ hold a hearing concerning ~~((such))~~ the proposed change and the reasonableness and justness ~~((thereof, and))~~ of it. Pending ~~((such))~~ the hearing and the decision ~~((thereon))~~ the commission may suspend the operation of ~~((such))~~ the rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll, if ~~((such))~~ the change is proposed by a common carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, for a period not exceeding seven months, and, if proposed by a public service company other than such a common carrier, for a period not exceeding ten months from the time the ~~((same))~~ change would otherwise go into effect~~((and))~~. After a full hearing the commission may make such order in reference ~~((thereto))~~ to the change as would be provided in a hearing initiated after the ~~((same))~~ change had become effective.

At any hearing involving any change in any schedule, classification, rule, or regulation the effect of which is to increase any rate, fare, charge, rental, or toll theretofore charged, the burden of proof to show that such increase is just and reasonable ~~((shall be))~~ is upon the public service company~~((PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That))~~. When any common carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the commission ~~((shall))~~ files any tariff, classification, rule, or regulation the effect of which is to decrease any rate, fare, or charge, the burden of proof to show that such decrease is just and reasonable ~~((shall be))~~ is upon ~~((such))~~ the common carrier.

Sec. 2. Section 81.04.150, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commission ~~((shall))~~ finds, after hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this chapter, that any rate, toll, rental, or charge ~~((which))~~ that has been the subject of complaint and inquiry is sufficiently remunerative to the public service company, other than a railroad company, affected ~~((thereby))~~ by it, the commission may order that ~~((such))~~ the rate, toll, rental, or charge shall not be changed, altered, abrogated, or discontinued, nor shall there be any change in the classification ~~((which))~~ that will change or alter ~~((such))~~ the rate, toll, rental, or charge without first obtaining the consent of the commission authorizing ~~((such))~~ the change to be made.

Sec. 3. Section 81.04.250, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.04.250 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission ~~((shall have))~~ has the power upon complaint or upon its own motion to prescribe and authorize just and reasonable rates for the transportation of persons or property by carriers ~~other than railroad companies~~, and shall exercise ~~((such))~~ that power whenever and as often as it ~~((shall))~~ deems necessary or proper. The commission shall, before any hearing is had upon ~~((such))~~ the complaint or motion, notify the complainants and the carrier concerned of the time and place of ~~((such))~~ the hearing by giving at least ten days' written notice thereof, specifying that at the time and place designated a hearing will be held for the purpose of prescribing and authorizing ~~((such))~~ the rates~~(-which))~~. The notice ~~((shall be))~~ is sufficient to authorize the commission to inquire into and pass upon the matters designated in this section.

In exercising ~~((its aforesaid))~~ this power the commission may use any standard, formula, method, or theory of valuation reasonably calculated to arrive at the objective of prescribing and authorizing just and reasonable rates.

In the exercise of ~~((said))~~ this power the commission may ~~((in its discretion))~~ give consideration, in ~~((lieu of))~~ addition to other factors, to the following:

- (1) To the effect of ~~((such))~~ the rates upon movement of traffic by ~~((such))~~ the carriers;
- (2) To the public need for adequate transportation facilities, equipment, and service at the lowest level of charges consistent with the provision, maintenance, and renewal of ~~((such))~~ the facilities, equipment and service; and
- (3) To the carrier need for revenue of a level ~~((which))~~ that under honest, efficient, and economical management is sufficient to cover the cost (including all operating expenses, depreciation accruals, rents, and taxes of every kind) of providing adequate transportation service, plus an amount equal to ~~((such))~~ the percentage of ~~((said))~~ that cost as ~~((shall be))~~ is reasonably necessary for the provision, maintenance, and renewal of ~~((said))~~ the transportation facilities or equipment and a reasonable profit to the carrier. The relation of carrier expenses to carrier revenues may be deemed the proper test of a reasonable profit.

This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 4. Section 81.28.040, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Every common carrier shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open ~~((to the))~~ for public inspection, schedules showing the rates, fares, charges, and classification for the transportation of persons and property within the state between each point upon ~~((the))~~ the carrier's route and all other points thereon; and between each point upon its route and all points upon every route leased, operated, or controlled by it; and between each point on its route or upon any route leased, operated, or controlled by it and all points upon the route of any other common carrier, whenever a through route and joint rate ~~((shall))~~ have been established or ordered between any two such points. If no joint rate over a through route has been established, the several carriers participating in ~~((such))~~ the through route shall file, print, and keep open ~~((to the))~~ for public inspection, ~~((as aforesaid))~~ the separately established rates, fares, charges, and classifications~~(-applied))~~ that apply to the through transportation. The schedules printed ~~((as aforesaid))~~ shall plainly state the places between which property and persons will be carried, ~~((and))~~ shall also contain classification of passengers or property in force, and shall also state separately all terminal charges, storage charges, icing charges, and all other charges ~~((which))~~ that the commission may require to be stated, all privileges or facilities granted or allowed, and any rules or regulations ~~((which))~~ that may in ~~((anywise))~~ any way change, affect, or determine any part, or the aggregate of, such ~~((aforesaid))~~ rates, fares, and charges, or the value of the service rendered to the passenger, shipper, or consignee. ~~((Such))~~ The schedule shall be plainly printed in large type, and a copy ~~((thereof))~~ of it shall be kept by every ~~((such))~~ carrier readily accessible to ~~((and for))~~ inspection by the public in every station or office of ~~((such))~~ the carrier where passengers or property are respectively received for transportation, when ~~((such))~~ the station or office is in charge of any agent~~(-and in every station or office of such carrier where passenger tickets for transportation or tickets covering sleeping or parlor car or other train accommodation are sold or bills of lading or receipts for property are issued))~~. All or any of ~~((such))~~ the schedules kept as ~~((aforesaid))~~ provided in this section shall be immediately produced by ~~((such))~~ the carrier for inspection upon the demand of any person. A notice printed in bold type and stating that ~~((such))~~ the schedules are on file with the agent and open to inspection by any person and that the agent will assist any ~~((such))~~ person to determine from ~~((such))~~ the schedules any transportation rates or fares or rules or regulations ~~((which))~~ that are in force shall be kept posted by the carrier in two public and conspicuous places in every such station or office. The form of ~~((every such))~~ each schedule shall be prescribed by the commission ~~((and shall conform in the case of railroad companies as nearly as may be to the form of schedules required by the interstate commerce commission under the act of congress entitled "An act to regulate commerce," approved February 4, 1887, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto))~~.

The commission ~~((shall have))~~ has power, from time to time, ~~((in its discretion,))~~ to determine and prescribe by order such changes in the form of ~~((such))~~ the schedules as may be found expedient, and to modify the requirements of this section in respect to publishing, posting, and filing of schedules either in particular instances or by general rule or order applicable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions.

The commission may, in its discretion, suspend the operation of this section in whole or in part as applied to vessels engaged in jobbing business not operating on regular routes. This section does not apply to rail transportation contracts regulated by section 16 of this act or to railroad services or transactions exempted under section 20 of this act.

Sec. 5. Section 81.28.050, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 1, chapter 116, Laws of 1981 and RCW 81.28.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change ~~((shall))~~ may be made in any classification, rate, fare, charge, rule, or regulation filed and published by a common carrier other than a rail carrier, except after thirty days' notice to the commission and to the public. The notice shall be published as provided in RCW 81.28.040 ~~((which))~~ and shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force~~((;))~~ and the time when the changed rate, classification, fare, or charge will go into effect~~((-and))~~. All proposed changes shall be shown by printing, filing, and publishing new schedules or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept open to public inspection. In the case of a change proposed by a rail carrier, except for changes to rail contracts between a rail carrier and a shipper authorized under section 16 of this act, which changes become effective in accordance with that section, a proposal resulting in a rate increase or a new rate shall not become effective for twenty days after the notice is published, and a proposal resulting in a rate decrease shall not become effective for ten days after the notice is published. The commission, for good cause shown, may by order allow changes in rates without requiring the notice and the publication time periods specified in this section. When any change is made in any rate, fare, charge, classification, rule, or regulation, attention shall be directed to ~~((such))~~ the change by some character on the schedule~~((-such))~~. The character and its placement ~~((to))~~ shall be designated by the commission. The commission may, by order, for good cause shown, allow changes in any rate, fare, charge, classification, rule, or regulation without requiring any character to indicate each and every change to be made.

Sec. 6. Section 81.28.180, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.180 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No))~~ A common carrier shall not, directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device or method, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person or corporation a greater or lesser compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of persons or property, except as authorized in this title, than it charges, demands, collects, or receives from any person or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under the same or substantially similar circumstances and conditions. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 7. Section 81.28.190, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.190 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No))~~ A common carrier shall not make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person or corporation or to any locality or to any particular description of traffic in any respect whatsoever, or subject any particular person or corporation or locality or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 8. Section 81.28.200, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.200 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((No))~~ A common carrier~~((;))~~ subject to the provisions of this title~~((;))~~ shall not charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property, for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or to charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates, subject to the provisions of this title~~((-but))~~. This shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier to charge and receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul. Upon application of a common carrier the commission may by order authorize it to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property in special cases after investigation by the commission, but the order must specify and prescribe the extent to which the common carrier making ~~((such))~~ the application is relieved from the operation of this section~~((-and))~~. Only to the extent so specified and prescribed ~~((shall))~~ is any common carrier ~~((be))~~ relieved from the operation and requirements of this section. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

Sec. 9. Section 81.28.230, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 81.28.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the commission ~~((shall))~~ finds, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this chapter, that the rates, fares, or charges demanded, exacted, charged, or collected by any common carrier for the transportation of persons or property within the state or in connection therewith, or that the regulations or practices of ~~((such))~~ the common carrier affecting ~~((such))~~ those rates are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or in ~~((anywise))~~ any way are in violation of the provisions of law, or that ~~((such))~~ the rates, fares, or charges are insufficient to yield a reasonable compensation for the service rendered, the commission shall determine and fix by order the just, reasonable, or sufficient rates, fares, or charges, or the regulations or practices to be thereafter observed and enforced ~~((and shall fix the same by order))~~. This section does not apply to railroad companies, which shall be regulated in this regard by sections 10 through 20 of this act and rules adopted thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. In determining whether a rate established by a railroad company is reasonable for purposes of this title, the commission shall follow the Interstate Commerce Commission policy, which provides that railroad companies shall earn adequate revenues. Further, in regulating railroad company rates under this title, the commission has no jurisdiction over general rate increases, inflation-based rate adjustments, or fuel adjustment surcharges approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The commission shall exercise the authority granted under this chapter to regulate railroads in a manner consistent with the Interstate Commerce Act and in a manner that allows the state of Washington to continue to regulate railroad rates to the maximum extent allowable under federal law and to be certified, in accordance with 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10501 by the federal government to continue such regulation. In compliance with this chapter, the commission, in addition to such other procedures as it may establish, shall administer and follow the provisions of this chapter as nearly as practicable in accordance with the statutes, regulations, and decisions construing federal law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The commission shall use the standards and procedures established in this chapter to determine reasonableness when acting upon any complaint or protest or in any proceeding concerning any railroad's rate or a classification, rule, or practice related to a rate subject to regulation under this chapter. The commission shall adopt rules relating to the determination of market dominance. The rules shall allow rate increases, not subject to suspension, if the rail carrier proposing the increase is found by the commission not to have market dominance. Market dominance is defined as an absence of effective competition from other carriers or modes of transportation for the transportation to which a rate applies.

When a rate for transportation by a rail carrier is challenged as being unreasonably high, the commission shall not make such a finding until it has determined that there is market dominance and that the rate exceeds a maximum reasonable level for the transportation to which the rate applies. A finding of market dominance does not presumptively establish that the proposed rate exceeds a reasonable maximum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) A railroad company subject to the jurisdiction of the commission may not charge or receive from a person a different compensation by using a special rate, rebate, drawback, or other means, for a service rendered, or to be rendered, than it charges or receives from another person for performing a like or contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under substantially similar circumstances. A railroad company that charges or receives such a different compensation for that service engages in unreasonable discrimination.

(2) A railroad company providing transportation or service subject to the jurisdiction of the commission may not subject a person, place, port, or type of traffic to unreasonable discrimination.

(3) Differences of rates, classifications, rules, and practices of railroad companies subject to the jurisdiction of the commission do not constitute a violation of this section if the differences result from different services provided by rail carriers.

(4) This section does not apply to: (a) Contracts approved under sections 16 and 17 of this act; (b) surcharges or cancellations authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission; (c) separate rates for distinct rail services; (d) rail rates applicable to different routes; or (e) expenses authorized under 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10751 by the Interstate Commerce Commission, except that with respect to rates described in (b), (c), and (d) of this subsection, nothing in this subsection affects the commission's authority under this section with respect to rate relationships between ports or within the same port.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The commission may suspend the filing of a schedule, classification, rule, or regulation by a railroad company only upon complaint and only when it is determined that: (1) It is substantially likely that the protesting party will prevail on the merits; (2) without suspension the proposed change will cause substantial injury to the protesting party; (3) and because of the peculiar economic circumstances of the protesting party the provisions requiring refund of moneys in excess of amounts found to be reasonable do not protect the protesting party.

The suspension period for a proceeding to determine the reasonableness of a filing by a railroad company shall not exceed five months. If the commission has not reached a final decision at the end of the fifth month after the schedule, classification, rule, or regulation was to become effective, it shall, if suspended take effect, and if in effect, remain in effect and not be subject to suspension. If a suspension is not ordered, but an investigation is instituted, the commission shall require the railroad to account for all amounts received under the increase until final determination is made and the proceeding is completed. The accounting shall specify by whom and for whom the amounts are paid. When the commission makes its final determination, it shall require the carrier to refund to the person for whom the amounts were paid that part of the increased rate found to be unreasonable, plus interest. If a rate is suspended and any portion of the rate is later found to be reasonable, the carrier shall collect from each person using the transportation to which the rate applies the difference between the original rate and the portion of the suspended rate found to be reasonable for any services during the period of suspension, plus interest. Interest, if required, shall be paid at a rate equal to the average yield, on the date the statement is filed, of marketable securities of the federal government having a duration of ninety days.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. (1) The commission shall adopt rules in conformance with 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a allowing: (a) Rate increases not subject to suspension based upon an adjusted base rate of rail carriers in this state, including a cost-adjustment factor; (b) rate increases that do not exceed a specified percentage of the adjusted base rate.

(2) A rate increase under subsection (1)(b) of this section is not subject to suspension except: (a) Upon complaint by an interested party alleging that the rate increase violates the provisions of this chapter; or (b) if the rate increase is equal to or greater than revenue-variable cost percentage limits specified in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a(e).

(3) For the purposes of this chapter "adjusted base rate" has the same meaning with respect to rail carriers in this state as in 49 U.S.C. Sec. 10707a(a).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. A railroad company providing transportation of property may enter into a contract with one or more purchasers of that transportation to provide specified services under specified rates and conditions. Contracts, together with summaries of them, shall be filed with the commission under special rules adopted by the commission relating to contents of contracts, summaries of contracts, and other rules relating thereto. Contents of summaries shall contain nonconfidential information and shall be available for public inspection.

Contracts filed under this section shall be approved by the commission to be effective at any date determined by the commission within sixty days after the filing of the contract or if not disapproved in a proceeding under this section, sixty days after filing.

A contract may, after hearing, be disapproved if the commission determines that the contract does any of the following:

(1) As to contracts other than contracts for the transportation of agricultural products, forest products, and paper: (a) Upon complaint filed by a shipper, that the contract unduly impairs the ability of the contracting railroad company or railroad companies to meet their common carrier obligations; (b) upon complaint filed by a port, that the contract harms or causes unjust discrimination against such port.

(2) As to contracts for the transportation of agricultural products, including forest products and paper, upon showing of a shipper: (a) That the railroad company unjustly discriminates against the shipper by refusing to enter into a contract with the shipper for rates and services for transportation of the same type of commodity under similar conditions to the contract at issue, and that the shipper is ready, willing, and able to enter into the contract at a time essentially contemporaneous with the period during which the contract at issue was offered; or (b) that the railroad company provides rates, services, or other practices that constitute destructive competition. For the purpose of making a determination of what constitutes destructive competition, the commission shall consider the difference between contract rates and published single car rates.

(3) As to contracts that apply only to the transportation of agricultural commodities (including forest products but not including wood pulp, woodchips, pulpwood, or paper) the contract may be disapproved if it requires the use of more than forty percent of the capacity of the railroad's owned or leased equipment, by major car type, in the performance of the terms of the contract. On request of a railroad or other party or on its own initiative, the commission may grant relief from the limitation, as it considers appropriate, if it determines that the additional equipment may be made available without harming the railroad company's ability to meet its carrier obligations.

A contract that is approved under this section and transportation under the contract may not be subsequently challenged before the commission or in any court on the grounds that the contract violates a provision of this section. The exclusive remedy for any alleged breach of a contract entered into under this section is in an appropriate state or federal court, unless the parties otherwise agree.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. The commission may hold a proceeding to review contracts filed under section 16 of this act under the following conditions:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the proceedings must begin no later than thirty days after the filing of the contract;

(2) A proceeding may be initiated by the commission, or:

(a) By a shipper to determine whether a contract violates section 16(1)(a) or 16(2)(a) or (b) of this act, but only upon a showing of harm to the shipper;

(b) By a port to determine violation of section 16(1)(b) of this act, but only upon a showing of harm to the port;

(c) By any person the commission finds has an interest under section 16(3) of this act.

If a proceeding is initiated under this section the commission must determine whether the contract is in violation of section 16 of this act within thirty days after commencement of the proceeding. If the commission finds that the contract is not in violation of section 16 of this act, the contract shall become effective. If the commission finds that the contract violates section 16 of this act, the commission shall disapprove the contract, unless the contract unjustly discriminates against a shipper as stated in section 16(2)(a) of this act, in which case the carrier shall be ordered, subject to section 16 of this act, to provide rates and services substantially similar to the contract at issue with such differentials in terms and conditions as are justified by the evidence at the proceeding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. In addition to the liability limitations and exceptions allowed under RCW 81.29.020, a railroad company providing transportation or service subject to jurisdiction of the commission may establish rates for transportation of property under which the liability of the carrier for the property is limited to a value established by written declaration of the shipper or by a written agreement between the shipper and the carrier, and may provide in the written declaration or agreement for specified amounts to be deducted from any claim against the carrier for loss or damage to the property or for delay in the transportation of the property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all railroad companies providing transportation subject to the commission's jurisdiction shall maintain rates for the transportation of recyclable or recycled materials, other than recyclable or recycled iron or steel, at revenue-to-variable-cost ratios that are equal to or less than the average revenue-to-variable-cost ratio that rail carriers would be required to realize, under honest, economical, and efficient management, in order to cover total operating expenses, including depreciation and obsolescence, plus a reasonable and economic profit or return, or both, on capital employed in the business sufficient to attract and retain capital in adequate amounts to provide a sound transportation system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. In a matter related to a railroad company providing transportation, the commission shall, upon its own motion or the motion of any interested person, exempt persons, classes of persons, transactions, or service from the provisions of this chapter as the commission determines are appropriate and in the public interest. The commission may begin a proceeding either upon its own motion or upon the motion of any interested person. Exemptions established under this section may be temporary, may be subject to revocation, or may be subject to any other conditions that the commission determines are required in the public interest.

Sec. 21. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 10, chapter 133, Laws of 1983 and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under section 16 of this act, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(2) The exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the non-disclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 64.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Railroad properties, including but not limited to rights-of-way, land held in fee and used for railroad operations, bridges, tunnels, and other facilities, are declared to be suitable for public use upon cessation of railroad operations on the properties. It is in the public interest of the state of Washington that such properties retain their character as public utility and transportation corridors, and that they may be made available for public uses including highways, other forms of mass transportation, conservation, energy production or transmission, or recreation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 64.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Public utility and transportation corridors are railroad properties (a) on which railroad operations have ceased; (b) that have been found suitable for public use by an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission of the United States; and (c) that have been acquired by purchase, lease, donation, exchange, or other agreement by the state, one of its political subdivisions, or a public utility.

(2) A public utility and transportation corridor retains its public use character as long as it is owned by a public agency or utility. A public utility and transportation corridor is not subject to reversion, taking by adverse possession, or any similar property interests ripening on the cessation of railroad operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Sections 10 through 20 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 81 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

In line 14 of the title, after "42.17.310;" insert "adding new sections to chapter 64.04 RCW;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 25, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1456 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.800 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 shall be known and cited as 'The Transitional Bilingual Instruction Act ~~((of 1979))~~'. The legislature finds that there are large numbers of children who come from homes where the primary language is other than English. ~~((Experience has shown that classes which are taught in English are inadequate to meet the needs of these children.))~~ The legislature finds that a transitional bilingual education program can meet the needs of these children. Pursuant to the policy of this state to insure equal educational opportunity to every child in this state, it is the purpose of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 to provide for the implementation of transitional bilingual education programs in the public schools, and to provide supplemental financial assistance to ~~((help local))~~ school districts to meet the extra costs of these programs.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.802 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810, unless the context thereof indicates to the contrary:

(1) 'Transitional bilingual instruction' means :

(a) A system of instruction which uses two languages, one of which is English, as a means of instruction to build upon and expand language skills to enable the pupil to achieve competency in English. Concepts and information are introduced in the primary language and reinforced in the second language: PROVIDED, That the program shall include testing in the subject matter in English((:)); or

(b) In those cases in which the use of two languages is not practicable as established by the superintendent of public instruction and unless otherwise prohibited by law, an alternative system of instruction which may include English as a second language and is designed to enable the pupil to achieve competency in English.

(2) 'Primary language' means the language most often used by the student for communication in his/her home.

(3) 'Eligible pupil' means any enrollee of the school district whose primary language is other than English and whose English language skills are sufficiently deficient or absent to impair learning ~~((when taught only in English, but shall not include pupils who are equally or almost equally competent in English and other languages)).~~

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.804 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors shall:

(1) Make available to each eligible pupil transitional bilingual instruction to achieve competency in English, in accord with rules of the superintendent of public instruction((:PROVIDED; That such rules shall provide that any school district with a limited number of pupils of the same non-English dominant language shall not be required to activate a new bilingual program but may carry on an alternative instructional program utilizing resources available to the district)).

(2) Wherever feasible, ensure that communications to parents emanating from the schools shall be appropriately bilingual for those parents of pupils in the bilingual instruction program.

(3) ~~((Annually))~~ Determine, by administration of ~~((an))~~ an English test approved by the superintendent of public instruction the number of eligible pupils enrolled in the school district at the beginning of a school year and thereafter during the year as necessary in individual cases. If, however, a preliminary interview indicates little or no English speaking ability, eligibility testing shall not be necessary.

(4) Before the conclusion of each school year, measure each eligible pupil's improvement in learning the English language by means of a test approved by the superintendent of public instruction.

~~((4))~~ (5) Provide in-service training for ~~((all))~~ teachers, counselors, and other staff, who are involved in the district's transitional bilingual ((education within the district)) program. Such training shall include appropriate instructional strategies for children of culturally different backgrounds, use of curriculum materials, and ~~((bilingual))~~ program models.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.806 are each amended to read as follows:

Every school district board of directors may appoint, maintain, and receive recommendations from an advisory committee ~~((of persons including))~~ which includes parents whose children are in the transitional bilingual instruction program ((and bilingual)), teachers, and other staff members.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.808 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~Promulgate and~~ issue ~~((prior to September, 1979;))~~ program development guidelines to assist school districts in preparing their programs~~((;))~~:

(2) ~~Promulgate rules for implementation of ((this bilingual instruction act shall be promulgated by the superintendent of public instruction))~~ RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW ~~((no later than May 15, 1980))~~. The rules shall be designed to maximize the role of school districts in selecting programs appropriate to meet the needs of eligible students. The rules shall identify the process and criteria to be used to determine when a student is no longer eligible for transitional bilingual instruction pursuant to RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to be codified between RCW 28A.58.800 and 28A.58.810 to read as follows:

School districts may enrich the programs required by RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810: PROVIDED, That such enrichment shall not constitute a basic education responsibility of the state.

Sec. 7. Section 6, chapter 95, Laws of 1979 and RCW 28A.58.810 are each amended to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and submit biennially to the governor and the legislature a budget request for transitional bilingual instruction programs. Moneys appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810 shall be allocated by the superintendent of public instruction to school districts for the sole purpose of operating an approved transitional bilingual instruction program~~((-priorities for funding shall exist for the early elementary grades. No moneys shall be allocated pursuant to this section to fund more than three school years of bilingual instruction for each eligible pupil within a district. PROVIDED, That such moneys may be allocated to fund more than three school years of bilingual instruction for any pupil who fails to demonstrate improvement in English language skills adequate to remove impairment of learning when taught only in English. The superintendent of public instruction shall set standards and approve a test for the measurement of such English language skills))~~.

An eligible student may receive no more than three school years of transitional bilingual instruction as defined in RCW 28A.58.802(1)(a).

School districts are hereby empowered to accept grants, gifts, donations, devices and other gratuities from private and public sources to aid in accomplishing the purposes of RCW 28A.58.800 through 28A.58.810.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall review annually the transitional bilingual instruction program and shall submit a report of such review to the legislature on or before January 1 of each year."

On page 1, beginning on line 7 of the title, strike "a new section" and insert "new sections" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

February 26, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1137 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that:

(1) Most care provided for functionally disabled adults is delivered by family members or friends who are not compensated for their services. Family involvement is a crucial element for avoiding or postponing institutionalization of the disabled adult.

(2) Family or other caregivers who provide continuous care in the home are frequently under substantial stress, physical, psychological, and financial. The stress, if unrelieved by family or community support to the caregiver, may lead to premature or unnecessary nursing home placement.

(3) Respite care and other community-based supportive services for the caregiver and for the disabled adult could relieve some of the stresses, maintain and strengthen the family structure, and postpone or prevent institutionalization.

(4) With family and friends providing the primary care for the disabled adult, supplemented by community health and social services, long-term care may be less costly than if the individual were institutionalized.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to provide for a demonstration of the possible cost-effectiveness of both in-home and out-of-home respite care services which are provided by a range of service providers. The respite care services shall:

(1) Provide relief and support to family or other unpaid caregivers of disabled adults;

(2) Encourage individuals to provide care for disabled adults at home, and thus offer a viable alternative to institutionalization;

(3) Ensure that respite care is made generally available on a sliding-fee basis to eligible participants and caregivers in the program; and

(4) Be provided in the least restrictive setting available consistent with the individually assessed needs of the functionally disabled adult.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 through 7 of this act.

(1) 'Respite care services' means relief care for families or other caregivers of disabled adults, not exceeding five hundred seventy-six hours in not more than twenty-four days in any twelve-month period for each household. The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 392 with the following amendments:

The services provide temporary care or supervision of disabled adults in substitution for the caregiver. The term includes social day care.

(2) 'Eligible participant' means an adult (a) who needs substantially continuous care or supervision by reason of his or her functional disability, and (b) who is assessed as requiring institutionalization in the absence of a caregiver assisted by home and community support services, including respite care.

(3) 'Caregiver' means a spouse, relative, or friend who has primary responsibility for the care of a functionally disabled adult, who does not receive financial compensation for the care, and who is assessed as being at risk of placing the eligible participant in a long-term care facility if respite care is not available.

(4) 'Institutionalization' means placement in a long-term care facility.

(5) 'Social day care' means nonmedical services to persons who live with their families, cannot be left unsupervised, and are at risk of being placed in a twenty-four-hour care facility if their families do not receive some relief from constant care.

(6) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The department shall administer sections 1 through 8 of this act and shall establish such rules and standards as the department deems necessary in carrying out sections 1 through 8 of this act. The department shall not require the development of plans of care or discharge plans by nursing homes providing respite care service.

The department shall develop program standards for the demonstration projects in conjunction with the selected area agencies on aging. The program standards shall serve as the basis for soliciting bids, entering into subcontracts, and developing sliding fee scales to be used in determining the ability of eligible participants and caregivers to participate in paying for respite care.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The department shall select at least two but not more than three area agencies on aging to conduct one-year respite care demonstration projects ending June 30, 1985. One of the selected area agencies on aging shall be east of the crest of the Cascade range and one shall be west of the crest of the Cascade range. The area agencies on aging will be responsible for negotiating rates of payment and developing sliding-fee scales to enable eligible participants and caregivers to participate in paying for respite care. Rates of payment to respite care service providers shall not exceed, and may be less than, rates paid by the department to the same providers for other than respite care.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The department shall insure that the respite care program is designed to meet the following criteria:

(1) Make maximum use of services which provide care to the greatest number of eligible participants with the fewest number of staff consistent with adequate care;

(2) Provide for use of one-on-one care when necessary;

(3) Provide for both day care and overnight care;

(4) Provide personal care to continue at the same level which the caregiver ordinarily provides to the eligible participant; and

(5) Provide for the utilization of family home settings.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) The area agencies administering respite care demonstration projects shall:

(a) Maintain data which indicates demand for respite care, and which includes information on in-home and out-of-home day care and in-home and out-of-home overnight care demand; and

(b) Make a comparison of the relative cost-effectiveness of the several types of respite care with all other programs and services which are intended to forestall institutionalization.

(2) The department shall conduct a survey of all public assistance patients accepted by long-term care facilities in each participating planning and service area to determine the extent to which each of them availed themselves of services designed to defer institutionalization.

(3) The department shall provide a progress report to the legislature on the respite care demonstration projects authorized in this act, not later than January 1, 1985. The department shall report the results of the data collection, cost comparison, and survey as required in this section to the legislature not later than thirty days prior to the 1986 legislative session.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Nothing in this act shall impair the practice of any licensed health care practitioner or licensed health care facility.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. There is appropriated to the department of social and health services from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

February 26, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 626 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the purpose of adoption is to provide stable homes for children. Adoptions should be handled efficiently, but the rights of all parties must be protected. The guiding principle must be determining what is in the best interest of the child. It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter be used only as a means for placing children in adoptive homes and not as a means for parents to avoid responsibility for their children unless the department, an agency, or a prospective adoptive parent is willing to assume the responsibility for the child.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Alleged father' means a person whose parent-child relationship has not been terminated, who is not a presumed father under chapter 26.26 RCW, and who alleges himself or whom a party alleges to be the father of the child. It includes a person whose marriage to the mother was terminated more than three hundred days before the birth of the child or who was separated from the mother more than three hundred days before the birth of the child.

(2) 'Child' means a person under eighteen years of age.

(3) 'Adoptee' means a person who is to be adopted or who has been adopted.

(4) 'Adoptive parent' means the person or persons who seek to adopt or have adopted an adoptee.

(5) 'Court' means the superior court.

(6) 'Department' means the department of social and health services.

(7) 'Agency' means any public or private association, corporation, or individual licensed or certified by the department as a child placing agency under chapter 74.15 RCW or as an adoption agency.

(8) 'Parent' means the natural or adoptive mother or father of a child, including a presumed father under chapter 26.26 RCW. It does not include any person whose parent-child relationship has been terminated by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(9) 'Legal guardian' means the department, an agency, or a person, other than a parent or stepparent, appointed by the court to promote the child's general welfare, with the authority and duty to make decisions affecting the child's development.

(10) 'Guardian ad litem' means a person, not related to a party to the action, appointed by the court to represent the best interests of a party who is under a legal disability.

(11) 'Relinquish or relinquishment' means the voluntary surrender of custody of a child to the department, an agency, or prospective adoptive parents.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) A petition under this chapter may be filed in the superior court of the county in which the petitioner is a resident or of the county in which the adoptee is domiciled.

(2) A petition under this chapter may be consolidated with any other petition under this chapter. A hearing under this chapter may be consolidated with any other hearing under this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) Every petition filed in proceedings under this chapter shall contain a statement alleging whether the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1901 et seq., applies to the proceeding. Every order or decree entered in any proceeding under this chapter shall contain a finding that the Indian Child Welfare Act does or does not apply.

(2) Every petition filed in proceedings under this chapter shall contain a statement alleging whether the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, 50 U.S.C. Sec. 501 et seq. applies to the proceeding. Every order or decree entered in any proceeding under this chapter shall contain a finding that the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940 does or does not apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Any consent, relinquishment, or order of termination that would be valid in the jurisdiction in which it was executed or obtained, and which comports with due process of law, is valid in Washington state, but the burden of proof as to validity and compliance is on the petitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. All hearings under this chapter shall be heard by the court without a jury. Unless the parties and the court agree otherwise, proceedings of contested hearings shall be recorded. The general public shall be excluded and only those persons shall be admitted whose presence is requested by any person entitled to notice under this chapter or whom the judge finds to have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. Persons so admitted shall not disclose any information obtained at the hearing which would identify the individual adoptee or parent involved. The court may require the presence of witnesses deemed necessary to the disposition of the petition, including persons making any report, study, or examination which is before the court if those persons are reasonably available. A person who has executed a valid waiver need not appear at the hearing. If the court finds that it is in the child's best interest, the child may be excluded from the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for any parent or alleged father under eighteen years of age in any proceeding under this chapter. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem for a child adoptee or any incompetent party in any proceeding under this chapter. The guardian ad litem for a parent or alleged father, in addition to determining what is in the best interest of the party, shall make an investigation and report to the court concerning whether any written consent to adoption or petition for relinquishment signed by the parent or alleged father was signed voluntarily and with an understanding of the consequences of the action.

(2) The county in which a petition is filed shall pay the fees of a guardian ad litem or attorney appointed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) A parent, the department, or an agency may file with the court a petition to relinquish a child to the department or an agency. The parent's written consent to adoption shall accompany the petition. The written consent of the department or the agency to assume custody shall be filed with the petition.

(2) A parent or prospective adoptive parent may file with the court a petition to relinquish a child to the prospective adoptive parent. The parent's written consent to adoption shall accompany the petition. The written consent of the prospective adoptive parent to assume custody shall be filed with the petition. The identity of the prospective adoptive parent need not be disclosed to the petitioner.

(3) A petition for relinquishment, together with the written consent to adoption, may be filed before the child's birth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The court shall set a time and place for a hearing on the petition for relinquishment. The hearing may not be held sooner than forty-eight hours after the child's birth. The court may enter a temporary order giving custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parent, if a preplacement report has been filed, or to the department or agency to whom the child will be relinquished pending the court's hearing on the petition.

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be served on any parent, any alleged father, and the department, agency, or prospective adoptive parent in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

(3) The court may require the parent to appear personally and enter his or her consent to adoption on the record. The court shall determine that any written consent has been validly executed. If the court determines it is in the best interests of the child, the court shall approve the petition for relinquishment.

(4) If the court approves the petition, it shall award custody of the child to the department, agency, or prospective adoptive parent, who shall be appointed legal guardian. The legal guardian shall be financially responsible for support of the child until further order of the court. The court shall also enter an order pursuant to section 13 of this act terminating the parent-child relationship of the parent and the child.

(5) An order of relinquishment to an agency or the department shall include an order authorizing the agency to place the child with a prospective adoptive parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) A petition for termination of the parent-child relationship of a parent or alleged father who has not executed a written consent to adoption may be filed by:

(a) The department or an agency; or

(b) The prospective adoptive parent to whom a child has been or may be relinquished if the prospective adoptive parent has filed or consented to a petition for relinquishment.

(2) The petition for termination of the parent-child relationship shall contain a statement of facts identifying the petitioner, the parents, the legal guardian, a guardian ad litem for a party, any alleged father, and the child. The petition shall state the facts forming the basis for the petition and shall be signed under penalty of perjury or be verified.

(3) The petition may be filed before the child's birth.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) The court shall set a time and place for a hearing on the petition for termination of the parent-child relationship, which shall not be held sooner than forty-eight hours after the child's birth.

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be served on the petitioner, the parents, any alleged father, the legal guardian of a party, and the guardian ad litem of a party, in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

(3) The notice of the petition shall:

(a) State the date and place of birth. If the petition is filed prior to birth, the notice shall state the approximate date and location of conception of the child and the expected date of birth, and shall identify the mother;

(b) Inform the nonconsenting parent or alleged father that: (i) He or she has a right to be represented by counsel and that counsel will be appointed for an indigent person who requests counsel; and (ii) failure to respond to the termination action within twenty days of service will result in the termination of his or her parent-child relationship with respect to the child;

(c) Inform an alleged father that failure to file a claim of paternity under chapter 26.26 RCW or to respond to the petition, within twenty days of the date of service of the petition is grounds to terminate his parent-child relationship with respect to the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The parent-child relationship of a parent may be terminated upon a showing by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that it is in the best interest of the child to terminate the relationship and that the parent has failed to perform parental duties under circumstances showing a substantial lack of regard for his or her parental obligations and is withholding consent to adoption contrary to the best interest of the child.

(2) The parent-child relationship of an alleged father who appears and claims paternity may be terminated upon a showing by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence that it is in the best interest of the child to terminate the relationship and that:

(a) The alleged father has failed to perform parental duties under circumstances showing a substantial lack of regard for his parental obligations and is withholding consent to adoption contrary to the best interest of the child; or

(b) He is not the father.

(3) The parent-child relationship of a parent or an alleged father may be terminated if the parent or alleged father fails to appear after being notified of the hearing in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) If the court determines, after a hearing, that the parent-child relationship should be terminated pursuant to section 9 or 12 of this act, the court shall enter an appropriate order terminating the parent-child relationship.

(2) An order terminating the parent-child relationship divests the parent and the child of all legal rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations with respect to each other except past-due child support obligations owed by the parent.

(3) The parent-child relationship may be terminated with respect to one parent without affecting the parent-child relationship between the child and the other parent.

(4) The parent or alleged father whose parent-child relationship with the child has been terminated is not thereafter entitled to notice of proceedings for the adoption of the child by another, nor has the parent or alleged father any right to contest the adoption or otherwise to participate in the proceedings unless an appeal from the termination order is pending or unless otherwise ordered by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) Any person may be adopted, regardless of his or her age or residence.

(2) Any person who is legally competent and who is eighteen years of age or older may be an adoptive parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) An adoption proceeding is initiated by filing with the court a petition for adoption. The petition shall be filed by the prospective adoptive parent.

(2) A petition for adoption shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the petitioner;

(b) The name, if any, gender, and place and date of birth, if known, of the adoptee;

(c) A statement that the child is or is not an Indian child covered by the Indian Child Welfare Act; and

(d) The name and address of the department or any agency, legal guardian, or person having custody of the child.

(3) The written consent to adoption of any person, the department, or agency which has been executed shall be filed with the petition.

(4) The petition shall be signed under penalty of perjury by the petitioner. If the petitioner is married, the petitioner's spouse shall join in the petition.

(5) If a preplacement report prepared pursuant to section 19 of this act has not been previously filed with the court, the preplacement report shall be filed with the petition for adoption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 17 of this act, consent to an adoption shall be required of the following if applicable:

- (a) The adoptee, if fourteen years of age or older;
- (b) The parents and any alleged father of an adoptee under eighteen years of age;
- (c) An agency or the department to whom the adoptee has been relinquished pursuant to section 8 of this act; and

(d) The legal guardian of the adoptee.

(2) The written consent to adoption shall be signed under penalty of perjury and shall state that:

(a) It is given subject to approval of the court;

(b) It has no force or effect until approved by the court;

(c) The consent will not be presented to the court until forty-eight hours after it is signed;

(d) It is revocable by the consenting party at any time prior to its approval by the court;

(e) A consenting party who seeks to revoke the consent must notify the agency or person who obtained the consent verbally or in writing within forty-eight hours of signing the consent, and, if the initial notice is oral, the party seeking to revoke must mail written notification of revocation to the clerk of the court no less than forty-eight hours after the oral notice was given;

(f) The address of the clerk of court where the consent will be presented is included; and

(g) After it has been approved by the court, the consent is not revocable except for fraud or duress practiced by the person, department, or agency requesting the consent or for lack of mental competency at the time the consent was executed by the person signing the consent. A written consent to adoption shall not be revoked more than one year after it is approved by the court.

(3) A written consent to adoption which meets all the requirements of this chapter but which does not name or otherwise identify the adopting parent shall be valid if it contains a statement that it is voluntarily executed without disclosure of the name or other identification of the adopting parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. An agency's, the department's, or a legal guardian's consent to adoption may be dispensed with if the court determines that the proposed adoption is in the best interests of the adoptee and that the refusal to consent to adoption is arbitrary and capricious.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Except as provided in section 22 of this act, a child shall not be placed with prospective adoptive parents until a preplacement report has been filed with the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. (1) Any person may at any time request an agency, the department, an individual approved by the court, or a qualified salaried court employee to prepare a preplacement report. A person may have more than one preplacement report prepared. All preplacement reports shall be filed with the court in which the petition for adoption is filed.

(2) The preplacement report shall be a written document setting forth all relevant information relating to the fitness of the person requesting the report as an adoptive parent. The report shall be based on a study which shall include an investigation of the home environment, family life, health, facilities, and resources of the person requesting the report. The report shall include a list of the sources of information on which the report is based. The report shall include a recommendation as to the fitness of the person requesting the report to be an adoptive parent.

(3) An agency, the department, or a court approved individual may charge a reasonable fee based on the time spent in conducting the study and preparing the preplacement report. The court may set a reasonable fee for conducting the study and preparing the report when a court employee has prepared the report. An agency, the department, a court approved individual, or the court may reduce or waive the fee if the financial condition of the person requesting the report so warrants. An agency's, the department's, or court approved individual's, fee is subject to review by the court upon request of the person requesting the report.

(4) The person requesting the report shall designate to the agency, the department, the court approved individual, or the court in writing the county in which the preplacement report is to be filed. If the person requesting the report has not filed a petition for adoption, the report shall be indexed in the name of the person requesting the report and a cause number shall be assigned. A fee shall not be charged for filing the report. The applicable filing fee may be charged at the time a petition governed by this chapter is filed. Any subsequent preplacement reports shall be filed together with the original report.

(5) A copy of the completed preplacement report shall be delivered to the person requesting the report.

(6) A person may request that a report not be completed. A reasonable fee may be charged for the value of work done.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. (1) Except as provided in section 22 of this act, at the time the petition for adoption is filed, the court shall order a post-placement report made to determine the nature and adequacy of the placement and to determine if the placement is in the best interest of the child. The report shall be prepared by an agency, the department, an individual approved by the court, or a qualified salaried court employee appointed by the court. The report shall be in writing and contain all reasonably available information concerning the physical and mental condition of the child, home environment, family life, health, facilities and resources of the petitioners, and any other facts and circumstances relating to the propriety and advisability of the adoption. The report shall also include, if relevant, information on the child's special cultural heritage, including membership in any Indian tribe or band. The report shall be filed within sixty days of the date of appointment, unless the time is extended by the court. The preplacement report shall be made available to the person appointed to make the post-placement report.

(2) A fee may be charged for preparation of the post-placement report in the same manner as for a preplacement report under section 19(3) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The department or an agency having the custody of a child may make the preplacement or post-placement report on a petitioner for the adoption of that child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the reports required by section 19 of this act are not required if the petitioner seeks to adopt the child of the petitioner's spouse. The reports required by sections 19 and 20 of this act are not required if the adoptee is eighteen years of age or older.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. (1) After the reports required by sections 19 and 20 of this act have been filed, the court shall schedule a hearing on the petition for adoption upon request of the petitioner for adoption. Notice of the date, time, and place of hearing shall be given to the petitioner and any person or agency whose consent to adoption is required under section 16 of this act, unless the person or agency has waived in writing the right to receive notice of the hearing. Notice shall be given in the manner prescribed by section 31 of this act.

(2) Notice of the adoption hearing shall also be given to any person who or agency which has prepared a preplacement report. The notice shall be given in the manner prescribed by section 24 of this act.

(3) If the court determines, after review of the petition, preplacement and post-placement reports, and other evidence introduced at the hearing, that all necessary consents to adoption are valid or have been dispensed with pursuant to section 17 of this act and that the adoption is in the best interest of the adoptee, the court shall enter a decree of adoption pursuant to section 25 of this act.

(4) If the court determines the petition should not be granted because the adoption is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall make appropriate provision for the care and custody of the child.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The petitioner shall give not less than three days written notice of any proceeding at which a preplacement report will be considered to all agencies, any court approved individual, or any court employee requested by the petitioner to make a preplacement report. The notice shall state the name of the petitioner, the cause number of the proceeding, the time and place of the hearing, and the object of the hearing. Proof of service on the agency or court approved individual in form satisfactory to the court shall be furnished. The agency or court approved individual may appear at the hearing and give testimony concerning any matters relevant to the relinquishment or the adoption and its recommendation as to the fitness of petitioners as parents. The agency or court approved individual may in writing acknowledge notice and state to the court that the agency or court approved individual does not desire to participate in the hearing or the agency or court approved individual may in writing waive notice of any hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. (1) A decree of adoption shall provide, as a minimum, the following information:

- (a) The full original name of the person to be adopted;
- (b) The full name of each petitioner for adoption;
- (c) Whether the petitioner or petitioners are husband and wife, stepparent, or a single parent;
- (d) The full new name of the person adopted, unless the name of the adoptee is not to be changed;
- (e) Information to be incorporated in any new certificate of birth to be issued by the state or territorial registrar of vital records; and
- (f) The adoptee's date of birth and place of birth as determined under subsection (3) of this section.

(2) Except for the names of the person adopted and the petitioner, information set forth in the decree that differs from that shown on the original birth certificate, alternative birth record, or other information used in lieu of such a record shall be included in the decree only upon a clear showing that the information in the original record is erroneous.

(3) In determining the date and place of birth of a person born outside the United States, the court shall:

- (a) If available, enter in the decree the exact date and place of birth as stated in the birth certificate from the country of origin or in the United States department of state's report of birth abroad or in the documents of the United States immigration and naturalization service;

(b) If the exact place of birth is unknown, enter in the decree such information as may be known and designate a place of birth in the country of origin;

(c) If the exact date of birth is unknown, determine a date of birth based upon medical testimony as to the probable chronological age of the adoptee and other evidence regarding the adoptee's age that the court finds appropriate to consider;

(d) In any other case where documents of the United States immigration and naturalization service are not available, the court shall determine the date and place of birth based upon such evidence as the court in its discretion determines appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The entry of a decree of adoption divests any parent or alleged father who is not married to the adoptive parent or who has not joined in the petition for adoption of all legal rights and obligations in respect to the adoptee, except past-due child support obligations. The adoptee shall be free from all legal obligations of obedience and maintenance in respect to the parent. The adoptee shall be, to all intents and purposes, and for all legal incidents, the child, legal heir, and lawful issue of the adoptive parent, entitled to all rights and privileges, including the right of inheritance and the right to take under testamentary disposition, and subject to all the obligations of a natural child of the adoptive parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. An order or decree entered under this chapter shall not disentitle a child to any benefit due the child from any third person, agency, state, or the United States. Action under this chapter shall not affect any rights and benefits that a native American child derives from the child's descent from a member of an Indian tribe or band.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. After a decree of adoption is entered, as soon as the time for appeal has expired, or if an appeal is taken, and the adoption is affirmed on appeal, the clerk of the court shall transmit to the state registrar of vital statistics a certified copy of the decree, along with any additional information and fees required by the registrar.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Upon receipt of a decree of adoption, the state registrar of vital statistics shall:

(1) Return the decree to the court clerk if all information required by section 25 of this act is not included in the decree;

(2) If the adoptee was born in a state other than Washington, or in a territory of the United States, forward the certificate of adoption to the appropriate health record recording agency of the state or territory of the United States in which the birth occurred;

(3) If the adoptee was born outside of the United States or its territories, issue a new certificate of birth by the office of the state registrar of vital statistics which reflects the information contained in the decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. The department shall be a depository for statistical data concerning adoption. It shall furnish to the clerk of each county a data card which shall be completed and filed with the clerk on behalf of each petitioner. The clerk shall forward the completed cards to the department which may compile the data and publish reports summarizing the data. A birth certificate shall not be issued showing the petitioner as the parent of any child adopted in the state of Washington until a data card has been completed and filed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. (1) Petitions governed by this chapter shall be served in the same manner as a complaint in a civil action under the superior court civil rules. Subsequent notice, papers, and pleadings may be served in the manner provided in superior court civil rules.

(2) If personal service on the parent or any identified alleged father, either within or without this state, cannot be given, notice shall be given: (a) By registered mail, mailed at least twenty days before the hearing to the person's last known address; and (b) by publication at least once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication date at least twenty-five days before the hearing. Publication shall be in a legal newspaper in the city or town of the last known address within the United States and its territories of the parent or alleged father, whether within or without this state, or, if no address is known or the last known address is not within the United States and its territories, in the city or town where the proceeding has been commenced.

(3) Notice and appearance may be waived by the department, an agency, a parent, or an alleged father before the court or in a writing signed under penalty of perjury. The waiver shall contain the current address of the department, agency, parent, or alleged father. The face of the waiver for a hearing on termination of the parent-child relationship shall contain language explaining the meaning and consequences of the waiver and the meaning and consequences of termination of the parent-child relationship. A person or agency who has executed a waiver shall not be required to appear.

(4) If a person entitled to notice is known to the petitioner to be unable to read or understand English, all notices, if practicable, shall be given in that person's native language or through an interpreter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. (1) In deciding whether to grant a petition for adoption of a hard to place child and in reviewing any request for the vacation or modification of a decree of adoption, the superior court shall consider any agreement made or proposed to be made between the department and any prospective adoptive parent for any payment or payments which have been provided or which are to be provided by the department in support of the adoption of such child. Before the date of the hearing on the petition to adopt, vacate, or modify an adoption decree, the department shall file as part of the adoption file with respect to the child a copy of any initial agreement, together with any changes made in the agreement, or in the related standards.

(2) If the court, in its judgment, finds the provision made in an agreement to be inadequate, it may make any recommendation as it deems warranted with respect to the agreement to the department. The court shall not, however, solely by virtue of this section, be empowered to direct the department to make payment. This section shall not be deemed to limit any other power of the superior court with respect to the adoption and any related matter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. (1) All records of any proceeding under this chapter shall be sealed and shall not be thereafter open to inspection by any person except upon order of the court for good cause shown.

(2) The state registrar of vital statistics may charge a reasonable fee for the review of any of its sealed records.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. Department and agency files regarding an adoptee shall be confidential except the department or agency may disclose nonidentifying information necessary for medical purposes upon the receipt of a verified written request for the information from the adoptive parent, the adoptee, or the natural parent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. (1) If a natural parent unsuccessfully petitions to have an adoption set aside, the court shall award costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the adoptive parent.

(2) If a natural parent successfully petitions to have an adoption set aside, the natural parent shall be liable to the adoptive parent for both the actual expenditures and the value of services rendered by the adoptive parents in caring for the child.

(3) A natural parent who has executed a written consent to adoption shall not bring an action to set aside an adoption more than one year after the date the court approved the written consent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. (1) Unless otherwise permitted by court order or statute, it is unlawful for any person, partnership, society, association, or corporation, except the parents, to assume the permanent care and custody of a child. Unless otherwise permitted by court order or statute, it is unlawful for any parent to relinquish or transfer to another person, partnership, society, association, or corporation the permanent care and custody of any child for adoption or any other purpose.

(2) Any relinquishment or transfer in violation of this section shall be void.

(3) Violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. Every person, firm, society, association, or corporation receiving, securing a home for, or otherwise caring for a minor child shall transmit to the prospective adopting parent prior to placement and shall make available to all persons with whom a child has been placed by adoption a complete medical report containing all reasonably available information concerning the mental, physical, and sensory handicaps of the child. The report shall not reveal the identity of the natural parents of the child but shall include any reasonably available mental or physical health history of the natural parents that needs to be known by the adoptive parents to facilitate proper health care for the child.

The superintendent of public instruction shall require each school district in the state to insure an appropriate educational opportunity for all handicapped children ~~((of common school age))~~ between the ages of five and twenty-one, but when the twenty-first birthday occurs during the school year, the educational program may be continued until the end of that school year. Special education and training programs provided by the state and school districts for handicapped children shall be extended to include preschool age children four years of age and older commencing with the 1984-85 school year and shall be extended to include preschool age children three years of age and older commencing with the 1985-86 school year. The superintendent of public instruction, by rule and regulation, shall establish for the purpose of excess cost funding, as provided in this chapter, RCW 28A.24.100 and 28A.41.053, functional definitions of the various types of handicapping conditions and eligibility criteria for handicapped programs. For the purposes of this chapter, an appropriate education is defined as an education directed to the unique needs, abilities, and limitations of the handicapped children. School districts are strongly encouraged to provide parental training in the care and education of the children and to involve parents in the classroom.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit the establishment or continuation of existing cooperative programs between school districts or contracts with other agencies approved by the superintendent of public instruction, which can meet the obligations of school districts to provide education for handicapped children, or prohibit the continuation of needed related services to school districts by the department of social and health services.

No child shall be removed from the jurisdiction of juvenile court for training or education under this chapter without the approval of the superior court of the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Prior to the start of the 1984-85 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules revising the eligibility criteria for preschool handicapped programs. The legislature intends that the new rules shall address the following legislative concerns:

(2) Delays of twenty-five percent or less from chronological age in any two of the developmental areas under WAC 392-171-381 do not constitute an actual handicapping condition requiring early intervention by special education programs. Greater attention shall be directed to defining the scope of the developmental areas and to establishing the extent of a significant delay.

(3) Articulation problems and mild language delays unaccompanied by significant delays in other developmental areas shall be treated as communication disorders under WAC 392-171-391 and not as developmental handicaps under WAC 392-171-381.

(4) Subjective exceptional provisions of WAC 392-171-381 shall be modified or eliminated, including the provision for placement in preschool handicapped programs of children who do not manifest significant developmental delays but who are judged by the assessment team to have a high predictability of future developmental delays.

The superintendent of public instruction shall report in writing to the legislature by December 14, 1984, on the implementation of this section.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 217, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.772 are each amended to read as follows:

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Long yielded to question by Mr. Ballard.

Mr. Ballard: "Representative Long, could you explain to me what the minimum level of funding is as described in this bill?"

We can do our very best, but we had one little word in there--'minimum level'--that was stricken and we had it in there for a reason. We had it in there in case there was something we had not thought of to get in the contract and that needs to be put back in to protect all of us."

Mr. Ballard spoke against the motion to concur, and Representatives Isaacson and Long again opposed the motion.

In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) 'Goods' means all chattels personal when purchased primarily for personal, family, or household use and not for commercial or business use, but not including money or, except as provided in the next sentence, things in action. The term includes but is not limited to merchandise certificates or coupons, issued by a retail seller, to be used in their face amount in lieu of cash in exchange for goods or services sold by such a seller and goods which, at the time of sale or subsequently, are to be so affixed to real property as to become a part thereof, whether or not severable therefrom;

(2) 'Lender credit card' means a card or device under a lender credit card agreement pursuant to which the issuer gives to a cardholder residing in this state the privilege of obtaining credit from the issuer or other persons in purchasing or leasing property or services, obtaining loans, or otherwise, and the issuer of which is not: (a) Principally engaged in the business of selling goods; or (b) a financial institution;

(3) 'Lender credit card agreement' means an agreement entered into or performed in this state prescribing the terms of retail installment transactions pursuant to which the issuer may, with the buyer's consent, purchase or acquire one or more retail sellers' indebtedness of the buyer under a sales slip or memorandum evidencing the purchase, lease, loan, or otherwise to be paid in accordance with the agreement. The issuer of a lender credit card agreement shall not be principally engaged in the business of selling goods or be a financial institution;

((3)) (6) 'Retail buyer' or 'buyer' means a person who buys or agrees to buy goods or obtain services or agrees to have services rendered or furnished, from a retail seller;

((6)) (9) 'Retail installment contract' or 'contract' means a contract, other than a retail charge agreement, a lender credit card agreement, or an instrument reflecting a sale made pursuant thereto, entered into or performed in this state for a retail installment transaction. (3) A service charge may be computed on the median amount within a range which does not exceed ten dollars and which is a part of a published schedule of consecutive ranges applied to an outstanding balance, provided the median amount is used in computing the service charge for all balances within such range.

Sec. 6. Section 14, chapter 236, Laws of 1963 and RCW 63.14.140 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 236, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 63.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Pursuant to a lender credit card or financial institution credit card transaction in which a credit card has been used to obtain credit, the seller is a person other than the card issuer, and the seller accepts or allows a return of goods or forgiveness of a debit for services that were the subject of the sale, credit shall be applied to the obligor's account as provided by this section.

(3) The obligor is not responsible for payment of any service charges resulting from the seller's or card issuer's failure to comply with subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The seller is responsible for payment of any service charges resulting from the seller's failure to comply with subsection (2) of this section.

(5) An issuer issuing a lender credit card or financial institution credit card shall mail or deliver a notice of the provisions of this section at least once per calendar year, at intervals of not less than six months nor more than eighteen months, either to all cardholders or to each cardholder entitled to receive a periodic statement for any one billing cycle. The notice shall state that the obligor is not responsible for payment of any service charges resulting from the seller's or card issuer's failure to comply with subsection (2) of this section.

Sec. 12. Section 18, chapter 236, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 10, chapter 234, Laws of 1967 and RCW 63.14.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who enters into a retail installment contract ~~((or)),~~ charge agreement ~~((which)),~~ or lender credit card agreement that does not comply with the provisions of this chapter or who violates any provision of this chapter except as a result of an accidental or bona fide error shall be barred from the recovery of any service charge, official fees, or any delinquency or collection charge under or in connection with the related retail installment contract or purchases under a retail charge agreement or lender credit card agreement; but such person may nevertheless recover from the buyer an amount equal to the cash price of the goods or services and the cost to such person of any insurance included in the transaction: PROVIDED, That if the service charge is in excess of that allowed by RCW 63.14.130, except as the result of an accidental or bona fide error, the buyer shall be entitled to an amount equal to the total of (1) twice the amount of the service charge paid, and (2) the amount of the service charge contracted for and not paid, plus (3) costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. Sec. 2. Section 51.24.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 31, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

If injury ~~((or death))~~ results to a worker from the deliberate intention of his or her employer to produce such injury ~~((or death))~~, the worker ~~((- surviving spouse, child, or dependent))~~ or beneficiary of the worker shall have the privilege to take under this title and also have cause of action against the employer as if this title had not been enacted, for any damages in excess of ~~((damages over the amount received or receivable))~~ compensation and benefits paid or payable under this title.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (((the) an injury to a worker for which benefits and compensation are provided under this title is due to the negligence or wrong of a third person not in the same employ, the injured worker or beneficiary may elect to seek damages from the third person.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter, 'injury' shall include any physical or mental condition, disease, ailment or loss, including death, for which compensation and benefits are paid or payable under this title.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An election not to proceed against the third person operates as an assignment of the cause of action to the department or self-insurer, which may prosecute or compromise the action in its discretion in the name of the injured worker, beneficiary or legal representative.

(2) If an injury to a worker results in the worker's death, the department or self-insurer to which the cause of action has been assigned may petition a court for the appointment of a special personal representative for the limited purpose of maintaining an action under this chapter and chapter 4.20 RCW.

(3) If a beneficiary is a minor child, an election not to proceed against a third person on such beneficiary's cause of action may be exercised by the beneficiary's legal custodian or guardian.

(4) Any ~~((award or settlement recovered))~~ recovery made by the department or self-insurer shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The department or self-insurer shall be paid the expenses incurred in making the recovery including reasonable costs of legal services;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the ~~((award or settlement))~~ recovery made, which shall not be subject to subsection ~~((3))~~ (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the compensation and benefits paid to or on behalf of the injured worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer; and

~~((3))~~ (5) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation ~~((or))~~ and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no ~~((third party person claim))~~ recovery had been made from a third person.

~~((4))~~ (6) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation or benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(7) When the cause of action has been assigned to the self-insurer and compensation and benefits have been paid and/or are payable from state funds for the same injury:

(a) The prosecution of such cause of action shall also be for the benefit of the department to the extent of compensation and benefits paid and payable from state funds;

(b) Any compromise or settlement of such cause of action which results in less than the entitlement under this title is void unless made with the written approval of the department;

(c) The department shall be reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid from state funds;

(d) The department shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the self-insurer in obtaining the award or settlement; and

(e) Any remaining balance under subsection (4)(d) of this section shall be applied, under subsection (5) of this section, to reduce the obligations of the department and self-insurer to pay further compensation and benefits in proportion to which the obligations of each bear to the remaining entitlement of the worker or beneficiary.

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((In an action by the injured worker or beneficiary against the third person))~~ If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any ~~((award or settlement))~~ recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent:

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the ((award)) recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation ((or)) and benefits paid;

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the ((claimant)) worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Hereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation ((or)) and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no ((third party person claim)) recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The ((award or settlement)) recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation ((or)) and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW to which the wage earner may be entitled.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department or self-insurer may require the injured worker or beneficiary to exercise the right of election under this chapter by serving a written demand by registered mail, certified mail, or personal service on the worker or beneficiary.

(2) Unless an election is made within sixty days of the receipt of the demand, and unless an action is instituted or settled within the time granted by the department or self-insurer, the injured worker or beneficiary is deemed to have assigned the action to the department or self-insurer. The department or self-insurer shall allow the worker or beneficiary at least ninety days from the election to institute or settle the action. When a beneficiary is a minor child the demand shall be served upon the legal custodian or guardian of such beneficiary.

(3) If an action which has been filed is not diligently prosecuted, the department or self-insurer may petition the court in which the action is pending for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. Upon a sufficient showing of a lack of diligent prosecution the court in its discretion may issue the order.

(4) Any written demand, notice, or order provided by this chapter is deemed to have been received by the injured worker, beneficiary, or legal custodian if it is delivered to his or her last known address as shown by the records of the department, or the last known address of the person whom such injured worker, beneficiary, or legal custodian selected to receive notices or orders under this chapter.

(5) If the department or self-insurer has taken an assignment of the third party cause of action under subsection (2) of this section, the injured worker or beneficiary may, at the discretion of the department or self-insurer, exercise a right of reelection and assume the cause of action subject to reimbursement of litigation expenses incurred by the department or self-insurer.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any compromise or settlement of the third party cause of action by the injured worker or beneficiary which results in less than the entitlement under this title is void unless made with the written approval of the department or self-insurer. PROVIDED, That for the purposes of this chapter, 'entitlement' means benefits and compensation paid and payable.

(2) If a compromise or settlement is void because of subsection (1) of this section, the department or self-insurer may petition the court in which the action was filed for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. If an action has not been filed, the department or self-insurer may proceed as provided in chapter 7.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department may adopt, amend, and rescind under chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to the administration of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

This act applies to all causes of action against third persons in which judgment or settlement of the underlying action has not taken place before the effective date of this act."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "insurance;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 51.24.020, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 31, chapter 350, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.020; amending section 1, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.030; amending section 3, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.050; amending section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.060; amending section 5, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.070; amending section 7, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.090; and adding new sections to chapter 51.24 RCW."

~~((On or after July 1, 1976))~~ Nursing homes operating within this state must be under the active, overall administrative charge and supervision of an administrator licensed as provided in this chapter. An administrator may delegate functions and duties to other persons. No person acting in any capacity, unless he is the holder of a nursing home administrator's license issued under this chapter, shall be charged with the overall responsibility to make decisions or direct actions involved in managing the internal operation of a nursing home, except as specifically delegated in writing by the administrator to identify a responsible person to act on the administrator's behalf when the administrator is absent during the administrator's normal working hours. The administrator shall review the decisions upon the administrator's return and amend the decisions if necessary. Nothing in this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter applies to a sanatorium or nursing home operated, or listed and certified, by any well-established and generally recognized church or religious denomination which teaches religious or spiritual means alone for healing through prayer.

Sec. 66. Section 7, chapter 57, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 243, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.52.070 are each amended to read as follows:

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 26, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 689 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the small businesses in the state of Washington are essential to the well-being of the state's economy and that these businesses have unique needs and problems that must be dealt with to insure a healthy economy for all of the citizens of the state. The legislature further recognizes that small businesses represent a majority of the businesses in this state and that it is vital that the ability of small businesses be enhanced to provide more jobs for Washington workers, insure essential economic competition, and broaden the industrial base of Washington industries. To stimulate the expansion of small business growth and resultant new jobs, the legislature finds that:

(1) There is a need for an overall coordination within the state that can integrate, coordinate, and provide services to small businesses and more efficiently use the individual operating entities as they now exist; and

(2) There is a need for additional services for the small business community in the areas of financing, dealing with regulatory problems, and encouraging more small businesses to export their products and services overseas.

(3) There is a need for an advisory council to establish long-range policy recommendations for state delivered small business programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, a 'small business assistance program' is any service offered by a unit of state government where the majority of the services attempt to aid or assist in the establishment, expansion, or management of a small business as defined in RCW 43.31.920.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) There is established the small business assistance coordinating council, referred to in this chapter as 'the council.'

(2) The council shall consist of nine persons, three of whom shall be appointed by the governor. The council shall include the director of commerce and economic development or its successor, the director of planning and community affairs or its successor, two members of the house of representatives, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives from the house committee on commerce and economic development or its successor, and two members of the senate, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the president of the senate from the senate committee on commerce and labor or its successor. The members appointed by the governor shall include representatives of small businesses from the various geographic areas of the state one or two of whom shall also represent minority-owned business and women-owned business. The council shall elect a chairman from among the voting members. The planning and community affairs agency or its successor is responsible for providing administrative support to the council and shall keep a record of the proceedings of each council meeting.

(3) All voting members of the council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) If a vacancy in an appointive position on the council occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor shall fill the position for the unexpired term. Any members of the council, appointive or otherwise, may be removed for malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The council shall be responsible for:

(1) Reviewing the small business assistance programs now being offered by all units of state government except the federally funded service centers administered by the department of transportation and approved by the federal highway administration;

(2) Reviewing the contract between the small business development center and the federal small business administration, and the contract between the small business development center and the federal economic development administration; and

(3) Reviewing the coordination of all small business assistance programs and making recommendations to reduce duplication of services and to increase the efficiency of available programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. To enable the council to carry out its responsibilities, every unit of state government which provides a small business assistance program shall report to the small business assistance coordinating council in writing by September 1, 1984. The report shall include:

(1) A description of the small business assistance program offered by the unit of state government;

(2) The amount of state funds expended to operate the small business assistance program;

(5) Information on the benefits derived from the program; and

(6) Any other information as may be requested by the council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The small business assistance coordinating council shall report to the legislature and governor by December 31, 1984, on recommendations to improve the dissemination of small business assistance in the state. The report shall include:

- (1) A description of the types, quantity, and benefits of small business assistance available in the state including federal, state, and local programs;

At least fifteen percent of the members of the council shall be women or members of minority groups, and at least one member of the council shall represent agribusiness concerns. Members of the small business improvement council shall be appointed for terms of four years, but the governor may modify the terms of the initial members as necessary to achieve staggered terms.

The proposals shall include the recommendations of the council's subcommittees established under section 9 of this act.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 25, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1106 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 9A.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of computer trespass in the first degree if the person, without authorization, intentionally gains access to a computer system or electronic data base of another; and

(a) The access is made with the intent to commit another crime; or

(b) The violation involves a computer or data base maintained by a government agency.

(2) Computer trespass in the first degree is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9A.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of computer trespass in the second degree if the person, without authorization, intentionally gains access to a computer system or electronic data base of another under circumstances not constituting the offense in the first degree.

(2) Computer trespass in the second degree is a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 9A.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A person who, in the commission of a computer trespass, commits any other crime may be punished for that other crime as well as for the computer trespass and may be prosecuted for each crime separately.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9A.48.100 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of RCW 9A.48.070 through 9A.48.090 inclusive:

(1) 'Physical damage', in addition to its ordinary meaning, shall include the total or partial alteration, damage, obliteration, or erasure of records, information, data, ((or)) computer programs, or their computer representations, which are ((electronically)) recorded for use in computers or the impairment, interruption, or interference with the use of such records, information, data, or computer programs, or the impairment, interruption, or interference with the use of any computer or services provided by computers. 'Physical damage' also includes any diminution in the value of any property as the consequence of an act:

(2) If more than one item of property is physically damaged as a result of a common scheme or plan by a person and the physical damage to the property would, when considered separately, constitute mischief in the third degree because of value, then the value of the damages may be aggregated in one count. If the sum of the value of all the physical damages exceeds two hundred fifty dollars, the defendant may be charged with and convicted of malicious mischief in the second degree.

Sec. 5. Section 9A.52.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions apply in this chapter:

(1) 'Premises' includes any building, dwelling, or any real property;

(2) 'Enter'. The word 'enter' when constituting an element or part of a crime, shall include the entrance of the person, or the insertion of any part of his body, or any instrument or weapon held in his hand and used or intended to be used to threaten or intimidate a person or to detach or remove property;

(3) 'Enters or remains unlawfully'. A person 'enters or remains unlawfully' in or upon premises when he is not then licensed, invited, or otherwise privileged to so enter or remain.

A license or privilege to enter or remain in a building which is only partly open to the public is not a license or privilege to enter or remain in that part of a building which is not open to the public. A person who enters or remains upon unimproved and apparently unused land, which is neither fenced nor otherwise enclosed in a manner designed to exclude intruders, does so with license and privilege unless notice against trespass is personally communicated to him by the owner of the land or some other authorized person, or unless notice is given by posting in a conspicuous manner;

(4) 'Data' means a representation of information, knowledge, facts, concepts, or instructions that are being prepared or have been prepared in a formalized manner and are intended for use in a computer;

(5) 'Computer program' means an ordered set of data representing coded instructions or statements that when executed by a computer cause the computer to process data;

(6) 'Access' means to approach, instruct, communicate with, store data in, retrieve data from, or otherwise make use of any resources of a computer, directly or by electronic means.

Sec. 6. Section 9A.56.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 38, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions are applicable in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) 'Appropriate lost or misdelivered property or services' means obtaining or exerting control over the property or services of another which the actor knows to have been lost or mislaid, or to have been delivered under a mistake as to identity of the recipient or as to the nature or amount of the property;

(2) 'By color or aid of deception' means that the deception operated to bring about the obtaining of the property or services; it is not necessary that deception be the sole means of obtaining the property or services;

(3) 'Credit card' means any instrument or device, whether incomplete, revoked, or expired, whether known as a credit card, credit plate, charge plate, courtesy card, or by any other name, issued with or without fee for the use of the cardholder in obtaining money, goods, services, or anything else of value, including satisfaction of a debt or the payment of a check drawn by a cardholder, either on credit or in consideration of an undertaking or guarantee by the issuer;

(4) 'Deception' occurs when an actor knowingly:

(a) Creates or confirms another's false impression which the actor knows to be false; or

(b) Fails to correct another's impression which the actor previously has created or confirmed; or

(c) Prevents another from acquiring information material to the disposition of the property involved; or

(d) Transfers or encumbers property without disclosing a lien, adverse claim, or other legal impediment to the enjoyment of the property, whether that impediment is or is not valid, or is or is not a matter of official record; or

(e) Promises performance which the actor does not intend to perform or knows will not be performed.

(5) 'Deprive' in addition to its common meaning means to make unauthorized use or an unauthorized copy of records, information, data, trade secrets, or computer programs(~~provided that the aforementioned are of a private proprietary nature~~);

(6) 'Obtain control over' in addition to its common meaning, means:

(a) In relation to property, to bring about a transfer or purported transfer to the obtainer or another of a legally recognized interest in the property; or

(b) In relation to labor or service, to secure performance thereof for the benefits of the obtainer or another;

(7) 'Wrongfully obtains' or 'exerts unauthorized control' means:

(a) To take the property or services of another; or

(b) Having any property or services in one's possession, custody or control as bailee, factor, pledgee, servant, attorney, agent, employee, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, or officer of any person, estate, association, or corporation, or as a public officer, or person authorized by agreement or competent authority to take or hold such possession, custody, or control, to secrete, withhold, or appropriate the same to his own use or to the use of any person other than the true owner or person entitled thereto;

(8) 'Owner' means a person, other than the actor, who has possession of or any other interest in the property or services involved, and without whose consent the actor has no authority to exert control over the property or services;

(9) 'Receive' includes, but is not limited to, acquiring title, possession, control, or a security interest, or any other interest in the property;

(10) 'Services' includes, but is not limited to, labor, professional services, transportation services, electronic computer services, the supplying of hotel accommodations, restaurant services, entertainment, the supplying of equipment for use, and the supplying of commodities of a public utility nature such as gas, electricity, steam, and water;

(11) 'Stolen' means obtained by theft, robbery, or extortion;

(12) Value. (a) 'Value' means the market value of the property or services at the time and in the approximate area of the criminal act.

(b) Whether or not they have been issued or delivered, written instruments, except those having a readily ascertained market value, shall be evaluated as follows:

(i) The value of an instrument constituting an evidence of debt, such as a check, draft, or promissory note, shall be deemed the amount due or collectible thereon or thereby, that figure ordinarily being the face amount of the indebtedness less any portion thereof which has been satisfied;

(ii) The value of a ticket or equivalent instrument which evidences a right to receive transportation, entertainment, or other service shall be deemed the price stated thereon, if any; and if no price is stated thereon, the value shall be deemed the price of such ticket or equivalent instrument which the issuer charged the general public;

(iii) The value of any other instrument that creates, releases, discharges, or otherwise affects any valuable legal right, privilege, or obligation shall be deemed the greatest amount of economic loss which the owner of the instrument might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the instrument.

(c) Whenever any series of transactions which constitute theft, would, when considered separately, constitute theft in the third degree because of value, and said series of transactions are a part of a common scheme or plan, then the transactions may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said transactions shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(d) Whenever any person is charged with possessing stolen property and such person has unlawfully in his possession at the same time the stolen property of more than one person, then the stolen property possessed may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said stolen property shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(e) Property or services having value that cannot be ascertained pursuant to the standards set forth above shall be deemed to be of a value not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "trespass," insert "amending section 2, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9A.48.100; amending section 9A.52.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.52.010; amending section 9A.56.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 38, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.010;" and the same is herewith transmitted.

(1) There is hereby created a state employees' insurance board to be composed of the members of the present board holding office on the day prior to July 1, 1977, which such members shall serve until the expiration of the period of time of the term for which they were appointed and until their successors are appointed and qualified. Thereafter the board shall be composed as follows: The governor or the governor's designee; one administrative officer representing all of higher education to be appointed by the governor; two higher education faculty members to be appointed by the governor; the director of the department of personnel who shall act as trustee; one representative of an employee association certified as an exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees and one representative of an employee union certified as exclusive representative of at least one bargaining unit of classified employees, both to be appointed by the governor; one person who is retired and is covered by a program under the jurisdiction of the board, to be appointed by the governor; one member of the senate who shall be appointed by the president of the senate; and one member of the house of representatives who shall be appointed by the speaker of the house. The terms of office of the administrative officer representing higher education, the two higher education faculty members, the representative of an employee association, the retired person, and the representative of an employee union shall be for four years: PROVIDED, That the first term of one faculty member and one employee association or union representative member shall be for three years. Meetings of the board shall be at the call of the director of personnel. The board shall prescribe rules for the conduct of its business and shall elect a chairman and vice chairman annually. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be paid for their travel expenses while on official business in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended, and legislative members shall receive allowances provided for in RCW 44.04.120.

(2) The board shall study all matters connected with the providing of adequate health care coverage, life insurance, liability insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, and disability income insurance or any one of, or a combination of, the enumerated types of insurance and health care plans for employees and their dependents on the best basis possible with relation both to the welfare of the employees and to the state: PROVIDED, That liability insurance shall not be made available to dependents. The board shall design benefits, devise specifications, analyze carrier responses to advertisements for bids, determine the terms and conditions of employee participation and coverage, and decide on the award of contracts which shall be signed by the trustee on behalf of the board: PROVIDED, That all contracts for insurance, health care plans, including panel medicine plans, or protection applying to employees covered by RCW 28B.10.660 and chapters 41.04 and 41.05 RCW shall provide that the beneficiaries of such insurance, health care plans, or protection may utilize on an equal participation basis the services of practitioners licensed pursuant to chapters 18.22, 18.25, 18.32, 18.53, 18.57, 18.71, 18.74, 18.83, and 18.88 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the boards of trustees and boards of regents of the several institutions of higher education shall retain sole authority to provide liability insurance as provided in RCW 28B.10.660. Such self pay rates will be established based on a separate rate for the employee, the spouse, and children.

The board shall promulgate rules setting forth criteria by which it shall evaluate the plans.

(5) (a) The state employees' insurance board may self-fund, self-insure, or enter into other methods of providing for programs under its jurisdiction, except property and casualty insurance authorized under subsection (4) of this section. The board may contract for payment of claims or other administrative services including the purchase of reinsurance for programs under its jurisdiction. If programs do not require the prepayment of reserves the board shall establish that such reserves be maintained for the payment of claims as are normally required for that method of providing that type of insurance. Reserves established by the board shall be held in respective separate trust accounts of the state employees' insurance fund by the state treasurer. The state investment board is authorized to invest moneys in the state employees' insurance fund in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.84.150. Except as provided in RCW 43.33A.160, one hundred percent of all earnings from these investments shall accrue directly to the state employees' insurance fund and the separate accounts which may be created.

The report shall also contain actuarial information regarding the adequacy of the reserves established for the type of insurance being offered. A copy of the annual report shall be filed with the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, and the office of the state auditor. The statement shall be signed by a member of the American Academy of Actuaries certifying that the actuarial amounts are computed in accordance with commonly accepted actuarial standards; and include all actuarial reserves and related statement items required for the sound operation of any employee benefits program.

(e) Members of the board shall be deemed to stand in a fiduciary relationship to the employees covered by any insurance program created under this subsection (5) and shall discharge the duties of their respective positions in good faith and with that diligence, care and

February 25, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1124 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The purpose of this 1984 act is to provide simplified and uniform authorities for various local governments to issue and sell general obligation bonds. It is not the purpose of this 1984 act to alter the indebtedness limitation of local governments.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 39.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) General obligation bonds of local governments shall be subject to this section. Unless otherwise stated in law, the maximum term of any general obligation bond issue shall be forty years.

(2) General obligation bonds constitute an indebtedness of the local government issuing the bonds that are subject to the indebtedness limitations provided in Article VIII, section 6 of the state Constitution and are payable from tax revenues of the local government and such other money lawfully available and pledged or provided by the governing body of the local government for that purpose. Such governing body may pledge the full faith, credit and resources of the local government for the payment of general obligation bonds. The payment of such bonds shall be enforceable in mandamus against the local government and its officials. The officials now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes pledged for the payment of general obligation bonds and interest thereon shall, in the manner provided by law, make an annual levy of such taxes sufficient together with other moneys lawfully available and pledge therefor to meet the payments of principal and interest on said bonds as they come due.

(3) General obligation bonds issued as physical instruments shall be executed in the manner determined by the governing body or legislative body of the issuer.

(4) Unless another statute specifically provides otherwise, the owner of a general obligation bond, or the owner of an interest coupon, issued by a local government shall not have any claim against the state arising from the general obligation bond or interest coupon.

(5) As used in this section, the term 'local government' means every unit of local government, including municipal corporations, quasi municipal corporations, and political subdivisions, where property ownership is not a prerequisite to vote in the local government's elections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 39.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The governing body of a taxing district desiring to place a ballot proposition authorizing indebtedness before the voters may submit the proposition at any special election held on the dates authorized in chapter 29.13 RCW. The ballot proposition shall include the maximum amount of the indebtedness to be authorized, the maximum term any bonds may have, a description of the purpose or purposes of the bond issue, and whether excess property tax levies authorized under RCW 84.52.056 will be authorized.

When it is required that such bonds be retired by excess property tax levies, or when the governing body desires such bonds be retired by excess property tax levies, the ballot proposition shall also include authorization for such excess bond retirement property tax levies provided under RCW 84.52.056.

Notice of the proposed election shall be published as required by RCW 29.27.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 39.46 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notice of intent to sell general obligation bonds at a public sale shall be provided in a reasonable manner as determined by the legislative authority or governing body of the issuer.
