SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 23, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1159 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that members of part-time boards, commissions, councils, committees, and other similar groups established by the executive, legislative, or judicial branches of state government make a valuable contribution to the public welfare. This time and talent so generously donated to the state is gratefully acknowledged.

The legislature further finds that membership on certain part-time groups involves responsibility for major policy decisions and represents a significant demand on the time and resources of members. The demands and responsibilities are well beyond reasonable expectations of an individual's gratuitous contribution to the public welfare. It is therefore appropriate to provide compensation to members of specific qualifying groups and further to provide three levels of compensation based on the responsibilities of the group and the time required to perform the group's statutory duties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

CLASS ONE GROUPS. (1) Any part-time board, commission, council, committee, or other similar group which is established by the executive, legislative, or judicial branch to participate in state government and which functions primarily in an advisory, coordinating, or planning capacity shall be identified as a class one group.

(2) Absent any other provision of law to the contrary, no money beyond the customary reimbursement or allowance for expenses may be paid by or through the state to members of class one groups for attendance at meetings of such groups.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

CLASS TWO GROUPS. (1) Any agricultural commodity commission established pursuant to Title 15 or 16 RCW shall be identified as a class two group for purposes of compensation.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each member of a class two group is eligible to receive compensation in an amount not to exceed thirty-five dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson of the group. A person shall not receive compensation for a day of service under this section if the person (a) occupies a position, normally regarded as full-time in nature, in any agency of the federal government, Washington state government, or Washington state local government; and (b) receives any compensation from such government for working that day.

(3) Compensation may be paid a member under this section only if it is authorized under the law dealing in particular with the specific group to which the member belongs or dealing in particular with the members of that specific group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

CLASS THREE GROUPS. (1) Any part-time, statutory board, commission, council, committee, or other similar group which has rule-making authority, performs quasi-judicial functions, has responsibility for the administration or policy direction of a state agency or program, or performs regulatory or licensing functions with respect to a specific profession, occupation, business, or industry shall be identified as a class three group for purposes of compensation.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each member of a class three group is eligible to receive compensation in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson of the group. A person shall not receive compensation for a day of service under this section if the person (a) occupies a position, normally regarded as full-time in nature, in any agency of the federal government, Washington state government, or Washington state local government; and (b) receives any compensation from such government for working that day.

(3) Compensation may be paid a member under this section only if it is authorized under the law dealing in particular with the specific group to which the member belongs or dealing in particular with the members of that specific group.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 43.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

CLASS FOUR GROUPS. (1) A part-time, statutory board, commission, council, committee, or other similar group shall be identified as a class four group for purposes of compensation if the group:

(a) Has rule-making authority, performs quasi-judicial functions, or has responsibility for the administration or policy direction of a state agency or program;

(b) Has duties that are deemed by the legislature to be of overriding sensitivity and importance to the public welfare and the operation of state government; and

(c) Requires service from its members representing a significant demand on their time that is normally in excess of one hundred hours of meeting time per year.

(2) Each member of a class four group is eligible to receive compensation in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the chairperson of the group. A person shall not receive compensation for a day of service under this section if the person (a) occupies a position, normally regarded as full-time in nature, in any agency of the federal government, Washington state government, or Washington state local government; and (b) receives any compensation from such government for working that day.

(3) Compensation may be paid a member under this section only if it is authorized under the law dealing in particular with the specific group to which the member belongs or dealing in particular with the members of that specific group.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

February 24, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1174 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that:

(1) Acid deposition resulting from commercial, industrial or other emissions of sulphur dioxide and nitrogen oxides pose a threat to the delicate balance of the state's ecological systems, particularly in alpine lakes that are known to be highly sensitive to acidification;

(2) Failure to act promptly and decisively to mitigate or eliminate this danger may soon result in untold and irreparable damage to the fish, forest, wildlife, agricultural, water, and recreational resources of this state;

(3) There is a direct correlation between emissions of sulphur dioxides and nitrogen oxides and increases in acid deposition;

(4) Acidification is cumulative; and

(5) Once an environment is acidified, it is difficult, if not impossible, to restore the natural balance.

It is therefore the intent of the legislature to mitigate or eliminate the acid deposition problem by curbing sources of acid deposition within the state and to assure that adequate monitoring is conducted in alpine lakes in order to allow for early detection of acidification and the resulting environmental degradation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. 'Acid deposition,' as used in sections 1 through 5 of this act means the wet or dry deposition from the atmosphere of chemical compounds with a pH of less than 5.6.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) The joint legislative committee on science and technology is directed to establish a consultant selection committee that includes the chairs of the senate parks and ecology committee and the house environmental affairs committee and one member appointed by the department of ecology. A consultant shall be selected to:

(a) Evaluate existing information and research on acid deposition in the Pacific Northwest region;

(b) Identify data gaps that need to be filled to provide sound base-line information on acid deposition in the region; and

(c) Coordinate with the department of ecology the evaluations specified under subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

(2) In addition to the consultant selected under subsection (1) of this section, the joint committee on science and technology may execute an interagency agreement with the department of ecology for the purpose of providing financial assistance for the department's comprehensive evaluation of the phenomenon known as acid rain. The amount of financial assistance to be provided under this subsection shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars or be less than twenty-five thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The joint legislative committee on science and technology shall report the results of the study authorized in section 3 of this act to the legislature by January 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The joint legislative committee on science and technology is authorized to apply for and receive moneys from the federal government or other sources, public or private, to finance any of the activities authorized or mandated by sections 1 through 3 and 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The department of ecology is responsible for periodic monitoring of the alpine lakes and other appropriate areas of the state to ensure early detection of acidification and environmental degradation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The department of ecology shall initiate in consultation with the joint science and technology committee a comprehensive evaluation of the phenomenon known as acid deposition or acid rain. The study shall evaluate the:

(1) Scope and extent of acid rain, if any, that is present within the various geographic areas of the state, including lakes and other water bodies;

(2) Present and potential effects on the state's land and water bodies;

(3) Present and potential impacts of acid rain upon the economic and environmental welfare of the state;

(4) Factors which contribute to creation of acid rain now existing in the state;

(5) Means and methods for controlling, reducing, and eliminating acid rain now in place within the state as well as preventing its recurrence in the future;

(6) Range of funds needed, on a continuing basis, to implement the means and methods set forth in subsection (5) of this section together with the proposed funding sources as well as the economic impacts associated with these means and methods; and

(7) Sufficiency of existing pollution control laws of the state to resolve satisfactorily the problems of the state associated with acid rain.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) There is appropriated from the general fund to the house of representatives for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

(2) There is appropriated from the general fund to the senate for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 3, and 5 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 70.94 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately," and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

February 24, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1191 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) In order to protect public health from chemical contaminants in drinking water, the state board of health shall conduct public hearings and, where technical data allow, establish by rule standards for allowable concentrations. For purposes of this chapter, the words 'chemical contaminants' are limited to synthetic organic chemical contaminants and to any other contaminants which in the opinion of the board constitute a threat to public health. If adequate data to support setting of a standard is available, the state board of health shall adopt by rule a maximum contaminant level for water provided to consumers' taps. Standards set for contaminants known to be toxic shall consider both short-term and chronic toxicity. Standards set for contaminants known to be carcinogenic shall be consistent with risk levels established by the state board of health.

(2) The board shall consider the best available scientific information in establishing the standards. The board may review and revise the standards. State and local standards for chemical contaminants may be more strict than the federal standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The state board of health shall conduct public hearings and establish by rule monitoring requirements for chemical contaminants in public water supplies. Results of tests conducted pursuant to such requirements shall be submitted to the department of social and health services and to the local health department. The state board of health may review and revise monitoring requirements for chemical contaminants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each local health department serving a county of the first class or larger may establish water quality standards for its jurisdiction more stringent than standards established by the state board of health. Each local health department establishing such standards shall base the standards on the best available scientific information.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Public water supply systems as defined by RCW 70.119.020 that the state board of health or local health department determines do not comply with the water quality standards applicable to the system shall immediately initiate preparation of a corrective plan designed to meet or exceed the minimum standards for submission to the department of social and health services. The owner of such system shall within one year take any action required to bring the water into full compliance with the standards: PROVIDED, That the department of social and health services may require compliance as promptly as necessary to abate an immediate public health threat or may extend the period of compliance if substantial new construction is required: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the extension shall be granted only upon a determination by the department, after a public hearing, that the extension will not pose an imminent threat to public health. Each such system shall include a notice identifying the water quality standards exceeded, and the amount by which the water tested exceeded the standards, in all customer bills mailed after such determination. The notification shall continue until water quality tests conducted in accordance with this chapter establish that the system meets or exceeds the minimum standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state board of health in determining monitoring requirements for public water supply systems shall take into consideration economic impacts as well as public health risks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW." and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

Ms. Rust spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rust yielded to question by Mr. Sanders.

Mr. Sanders: "Representative Rust, to me safe water is safe water. Could you give me an example or two where local governments would want safer water than the state requires?"

Ms. Rust: "I can't give you an example right off the top of my head. I think we should allow them to have more stringent requirements than the state allows."

Representatives Sanders and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The motion was carried.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

February 23, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1247 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 99, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 1, chapter 276, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.92.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The sentencing judge of the superior court and the sentencing judge of courts of limited jurisdictions shall have authority and jurisdiction whereby the sentence of a prisoner, sentenced to imprisonment in their respective county jail, may be reduced by up to ~~(ten days for each month of confinement therein;)~~ one-third for good behavior.

Sec. 2. Section 31, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.92.900 are each amended to read as follows:

The following sections of law do not apply to any felony offense committed on or after July 1, 1984: RCW 9.92.050, 9.92.060, 9.92.062, 9.92.064, 9.92.066, 9.92.070, 9.92.080, and 9.92.090~~(and 9.92.156)~~.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 9, chapter 164, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Commission' means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) 'Community corrections officer' means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) 'Community service' means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender.

((3)) (4) 'Community supervision' means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

((4)) (5) 'Confinement' means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

((5)) (6) 'Conviction' means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW.

((6)) (7) 'Crime-related prohibition' means an order of a court prohibiting conduct ~~((which))~~ that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

((7)) (8)(a) 'Criminal history' means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) 'Criminal history' includes a defendant's convictions or pleas of guilty in juvenile court if: (i) The guilty plea or conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); and (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) the defendant ~~((was twenty-three years of age or less))~~ had not reached his or her twenty-third birthday at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

((8)) (9) 'Department' means the department of corrections.

((9)) (10) 'Determinate sentence' means a sentence ~~((which))~~ that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through 'earned early release' can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

((10)) (11) 'Fines' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

((11)) (12) 'First-time offender' means any person convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense under this chapter, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

((12)) (13) 'Offender' means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms 'offender' and 'defendant' are used interchangeably.

((13)) (14) 'Partial confinement' means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

((14)) (15) 'Restitution' means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

((15)) (16) 'Sentence range' means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

((16)) (17) 'Total confinement' means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

((17)) (18) 'Violent offense' means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, and vehicular homicide;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, ~~((which))~~ that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection ~~((17))~~ (18)(a) of this section; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense ~~((comparable to))~~ that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection ~~((17))~~ (18)(a) or (b) of this section.

Sec. 4. Section 9, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a plea agreement has been reached by the prosecutor and the defendant pursuant to RCW 9.94A.080, they shall at the time of the defendant's plea state to the court, on the record, the nature of the agreement and the reasons for the agreement. The court, at the time of the plea, shall determine if the agreement is consistent with the interests of justice and with the prosecuting standards. If the court determines it is not consistent with the interests of justice and with the prosecuting standards, the court shall ~~((order that neither the defendant nor the prosecutor is))~~, on the record, inform the defendant and the prosecutor that they are not bound by the agreement and that the defendant may withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty, if one has been made, and enter a plea of not guilty.

(2) The sentencing judge is not bound by any recommendations contained in an allowed plea agreement and the defendant shall be so informed at the time of plea.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim or a representative of the victim, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department.

Sec. 6. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 2, chapter 163, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) and (5) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the ((probation)) community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a ((probation)) community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine, make restitution, and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, restitution, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds ~~((that the sentence otherwise authorized by this subsection would pose an unacceptable threat to community safety))~~, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of any violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020, or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;

(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(v) Pay a fine, make restitution, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of ~~((sixty))~~ thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than ~~((sixty))~~ thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

~~((8b))~~ (9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. ~~((No such period of time may exceed ten years subsequent to the entering of the judgment of conviction.))~~ In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

~~((9))~~ (10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

~~((10b))~~ (11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

Sec. 7. Section 13, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The power to defer or suspend the imposition or execution of sentence is hereby abolished in respect to sentences prescribed for felonies committed after June 30, 1984, except for offenders sentenced under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(a), the special sexual offender sentencing alternative, whose sentence may be suspended.

Sec. 8. Section 15, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 6, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No person serving a sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter shall leave the confines of the correctional facility or be released prior to the expiration of the sentence except as follows:

(1) The terms of the sentence may be reduced by earned early release time in accordance with procedures developed and promulgated by the department. The earned early release time shall be for good behavior and good performance, as determined by the department. In no case shall the aggregate earned early release time exceed one-third of the sentence;

(2) An offender may leave a correctional facility pursuant to an authorized furlough or leave of absence. In addition, offenders may leave a correctional facility when in the custody of a corrections officer or officers;

(3) The governor, upon recommendation from the clemency and pardons board, may grant an extraordinary release for reasons of serious health problems, senility, advanced age, extraordinary meritorious acts, or other extraordinary circumstances;

(4) If the sentence of confinement is in excess of ~~((eighteen))~~ twelve months but not in excess of three years, no more than the final three months of the sentence may be served in partial confinement designed to aid the offender in finding work and reestablishing him or herself in the community. If the sentence of confinement is in excess of three years, no more than the final six months of the sentence may be served in such partial confinement;

(5) The governor may pardon any offender; ~~((and))~~

(6) The department of corrections may release an offender from ~~((total))~~ confinement any time within ten days before a release date calculated under this section~~((:)); and~~

(7) An offender may leave a correctional facility prior to completion of his sentence if the sentence has been reduced as provided in RCW 9.94A.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the governor finds that an emergency exists in that the populations of county jails exceed their reasonable, maximum capacity in a significant manner as a result of increases in the sentenced felon population due to implementation of chapter 9.94A RCW, the governor may do any one or more of the following:

(1) Call the sentencing guidelines commission into an emergency meeting for the purpose of evaluating the standard ranges and other standards. The commission may adopt any revision or amendment to the standard ranges or other standards that it believes appropriate to deal with the emergency situation. The revision or amendment shall be adopted in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW and shall take effect on the date prescribed by the commission. The legislature shall approve or modify the commission's revision or amendment at the next legislative session after the revision or amendment takes effect. Failure of the legislature to act shall be deemed as approval of the revision or amendment. The commission shall also analyze how alternatives to total confinement are being provided and used and may recommend other emergency measures that may relieve the overcrowding.

(2) Call the clemency and pardons board into an emergency meeting for the purpose of recommending whether the governor's commutation or pardon power should be exercised to meet the present emergency.

Sec. 10. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

A sentence (~~which~~) that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. A sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:

If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, a community corrections officer may arrest or cause the arrest of the offender without a warrant, pending a determination by the court. If there is reasonable cause to believe that an offender has violated a condition or requirement of the sentence, an offender may be required to submit to a search and seizure of the offender's person, residence, automobile, or other personal property. A community corrections officer may also arrest an offender for any crime committed in his or her presence. The facts and circumstances of the conduct of the offender shall be reported by the community corrections officer, with recommendations, to the court.

If a community corrections officer arrests or causes the arrest of an offender under this section, the offender shall be confined and detained in the county jail of the county in which the offender was taken into custody, and the sheriff of that county shall receive and keep in the county jail, where room is available, all prisoners delivered to the jail by the community corrections officer, and such offenders shall not be released from custody on bail or personal recognizance, except upon approval of the court, pursuant to a written order.

Sec. 12. Section 20, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If an offender violates any condition or requirement of a sentence, the ~~(offender may receive))~~ court may modify its order of judgment and sentence and impose further punishment in accordance with this section.

(2) If ~~(a defendant))~~ an offender fails to comply with any of the requirements or conditions of a sentence the following provisions apply:

(a) The court, upon the motion of the state, or upon its own motion, shall require the ~~((defendant))~~ offender to show cause why the ~~((defendant))~~ offender should not be ~~((confined))~~ punished for the noncompliance. The court may issue a summons or a warrant of arrest for the ~~((defendant's))~~ offender's appearance;

(b) ~~((The state has the burden of showing noncompliance by a preponderance of the evidence. The defendant has the burden of showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the noncompliance was not a willful refusal.))~~ If the court finds that the violation ~~((was willful))~~ has occurred, it ~~((shall))~~ may order the ~~((defendant))~~ offender to be confined for a period not to exceed sixty days for each violation, and may convert a term of partial confinement to total confinement. Any time served in confinement awaiting a hearing on noncompliance shall be credited against any confinement order by the court; and

(c) If the court finds that the violation was not willful, the court may ~~((reduce or extend the payment period or eliminate the fine or reduce or relieve the defendant of the obligation of community service work or of making restitution))~~ modify its previous order regarding payment of fines or other monetary payments and regarding community service obligations.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits the filing of escape charges if appropriate.

Sec. 13. Section 21, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 7, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence within the standard range for the offense shall not be appealed. For purposes of this section, a sentence imposed on a first offender under RCW 9.94A.120(5) shall also be deemed to be within the standard range for the offense and shall not be appealed.

(2) ~~((f)) A sentence ((is)) outside ((of)) the sentence range for the offense(~~(-the defendant or prosecutor may seek review of the sentence before))~~) is subject to appeal by the defendant or the state. The appeal shall be to the court of appeals in accordance with rules adopted by the supreme court.~~

(3) Pending review of the sentence, the sentencing court or the court of appeals may order the defendant confined or placed on conditional release, including bond.

(4) To reverse a sentence which is outside the sentence range, the reviewing court must find: (a) Either that the reasons supplied by the sentencing judge are not supported by the record which was before the judge or that those reasons do not justify a sentence outside the standard range for that offense; or (b) that the sentence imposed was clearly excessive or clearly too lenient.

(5) A review under this section shall be made solely upon the record that was before the sentencing court. Written briefs shall not be required and the review and decision shall be ~~((heard within thirty days following the date of sentencing and a decision shall be rendered within fifteen days following the oral argument))~~ made in an expedited manner according to rules adopted by the supreme court.

(6) The court of appeals shall issue a written opinion in support of its decision whenever the judgment of the sentencing court is reversed and may issue written opinions in any other case where the court believes that a written opinion would provide guidance to sentencing judges and others in implementing this chapter and in developing a common law of sentencing within the state.

Sec. 14. Section 22, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.220 are each amended to read as follows:

When an offender has completed the requirements of the ~~((offender's))~~ sentence, the secretary of the department or his designee shall notify the sentencing court, which shall discharge the offender and provide the offender with a certificate of discharge. The discharge shall have the effect of restoring all civil rights lost by operation of law upon conviction, and the certificate of discharge shall so state. Nothing in this section prohibits the use of an offender's prior record for purposes of determining sentences for later offenses as provided in this chapter. Nothing in this section affects or prevents use of the offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution either as an element of an offense or for impeachment purposes. A certificate of discharge is not based on a finding of rehabilitation.

Upon release from custody, the offender may apply to the department for counseling and help in adjusting to the community. This voluntary help may be provided for up to one year following the release from custody.

Sec. 15. Section 2, chapter 207, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a punishment imposed under this chapter requires ~~((probation))~~ community supervision services to be provided, the sentencing court shall require~~((as a condition of probation:))~~ that the offender pay to the department of corrections the monthly assessment, prescribed under subsection (2) of this section, which shall be for the duration of the probation and which shall be considered as payment or part payment of the cost of providing probation supervision to the probationer. The court may exempt a person from the payment of all ~~((of for))~~ or any part of the assessment based upon any of the following factors:

(a) The offender has diligently attempted but has been unable to obtain employment ~~((which))~~ that provides the offender sufficient income to make such payments.

(b) The offender is a student in a school, college, university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit the student for gainful employment.

(c) The offender has an employment handicap, as determined by an examination acceptable to or ordered by the court.

(d) The offender's age prevents him from obtaining employment.

(e) The offender is responsible for the support of dependents and the payment of the assessment constitutes an undue hardship on the offender.

(f) Other extenuating circumstances as determined by the court.

(2) The department of corrections shall adopt a rule prescribing the amount of the assessment. The department may, if it finds it appropriate, prescribe a schedule of assessments ~~((which))~~ that shall vary in accordance with the intensity or cost of the supervision. The department may not prescribe any assessment ~~((which))~~ that is less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

(3) All amounts required to be paid under this section shall be collected by the department of corrections and deposited by the department in the state general fund.

(4) This section shall not apply to probation services provided under an interstate compact pursuant to chapter 9.95 RCW or to probation services provided for persons placed on probation prior to June 10, 1982.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 19. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330.

The offender score is computed in the following way:

(1) Include juvenile felony convictions if the offender was 15 or older at the time the offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 ((or-less)) at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(2) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(3) ~~(If the present conviction is for a violent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.110) and not covered in subsection (2) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction (rounding down for uneven scores):~~

~~(4) If the present conviction is for Burglary (1 or 2), count two points for each prior adult Burglary conviction. Count two points for each prior juvenile Burglary 1, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.~~

~~(5) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense (as defined in *RCW 9.94A.110), count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony (rounding down for uneven scores):~~

~~(6) If the present conviction is for escape, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores):~~

~~(7) If the present conviction is for Negligent Homicide, only count the following crimes as part of the offender score: Negligent Homicide, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500). Count each adult prior conviction as one point and each juvenile prior conviction as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores):~~

~~(8) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the most serious offense, using the seriousness levels to define most serious, is scored:~~

~~(9)) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count priors as in subsection (5) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.~~

~~(4) If the present conviction is for Vehicular Homicide, only count the following crimes as part of the offender score: Vehicular Homicide, Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500), Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500). Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction.~~

~~(5) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections (2), (3), (4), or (8) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.~~

~~(6) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.~~

~~(7) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection (9) of this section; however count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.~~

~~(8) If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.~~

~~(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.~~

~~(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~

~~(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.~~

~~(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement~~ pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through ~~((9))~~ (12) of this section.

Sec. 20. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). ~~((The judge may sentence anywhere within this range. Except in decisions concerning first-time, nonviolent offenders, any sentence imposed by a sentencing judge which is outside the presumptive range is a departure from the guidelines, requires written reasons from the judge, and is reviewable on appeal.))~~ The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

In determining any sentence, the trial ~~((judge))~~ court may use no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, and admitted to or acknowledged at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the ~~((judge))~~ court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The real facts shall be deemed proven at the evidentiary hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. Real facts ~~((which))~~ that establish elements of a higher crime, a more serious crime, or additional crimes cannot be used to go outside the ~~((guidelines))~~ presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation.

Sec. 21. Section 9, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.380 are each amended to read as follows:

For sentences of nonviolent offenders for ~~((less than))~~ one year or less, the court shall consider and give priority to available alternatives to total confinement and shall ~~((justify))~~ state its reasons if they are not used.

~~((With the exception of the first-time offender, the judge shall establish the sentence in terms of total confinement. This sentence can be converted as follows: One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service can replace one day of total confinement. The community service conversion is limited to 240 hours or 30 working days. In addition, the judge can impose up to one year of community supervision to ensure that the terms of the alternative sentence are met. Fines can be assessed according to the following formula:~~

Class A felonies	$0 - 50,000
Class B felonies	$0 - 20,000
Class C felonies	$0 - 10,000

~~These alternatives include the following sentence conditions that the court may order as substitutes for total confinement: (1) One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service may be substituted for one day of total confinement; (2) the community service conversion is limited to two hundred forty hours or thirty days. The conversion of total confinement to partial confinement may be applied to all sentences of one year or less, including those for violent offenses.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:

On all sentences of confinement for one year or less the court may impose up to one year of community supervision. For confinement sentences, unless otherwise ordered by the court, the period of community supervision begins at the date of release from confinement. For non-confinement sentences, the period of community supervision begins at the date of entry of the judgment and sentence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 9.94A RCW a new section to read as follows:

On all sentences under this chapter the court may impose fines according to the following ranges:

Class A felonies	$0 - 50,000
Class B felonies	$0 - 20,000
Class C felonies	$0 - 10,000

Sec. 24. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The presumptive sentence shall be the midpoint of the standard range as established by the crime of conviction and any applicable enhancements. The sentencing court shall impose the presumptive sentence or other sentence within the indicated standard range that it determines to be appropriate.))~~ If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the ~~((court may impose any))~~ sentence ~~((it deems appropriate within the statutory term. If the court sentences outside the standard range, it shall set forth its justification for doing so in written findings and~~ conclusions, and any sentence outside the standard range shall be)) is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence:

Mitigating Circumstances

(1) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

(2) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

(3) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

(4) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

(5) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

(6) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

(7) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

Aggravating Circumstances

(1) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(2) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(3) The offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(a) The offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(b) The offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(c) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

(d) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the offense.

(4) The offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify an offense as a major VUCSA:

(a) The offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

(b) The offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

(c) The offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

(d) The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or

(e) The circumstances of the offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

(f) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(g) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

(h) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.400.

The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

Sec. 25. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, ((at least one of which is a violent offense, and the offenses arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions, the sentences imposed shall run consecutively; provided that under this section, the presumptive sentence only for the most serious offense shall be determined by using the offender's actual criminal history score whereas the presumptive sentences for all other offenses shall be determined by using a criminal history score of zero)) the sentence range for each offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct shall be counted as one crime in determining criminal history.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's prior convictions as criminal history and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using a criminal history score of zero. The sentence range for any remaining offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) ((Whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, and either: (a) All of the offenses are nonviolent and they arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions; or (b) at least one of the offenses is a violent offense but they all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently; provided that the presumptive sentence for the most serious offense shall be enhanced by counting all other current offenses as prior offenses for purposes of calculating the criminal history score.

(4) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more nonviolent offenses which all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently)) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run consecutively with felony sentences previously imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, this sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 26. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of ((attempted offenses or conspiracies to commit an offense)) the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the ((conviction)) crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. There is added to chapter 71.06 RCW a new section to read as follows:

With respect to sexual psychopaths, this chapter applies only to crimes or offenses committed before July 1, 1984.

Sec. 28. Section 2, chapter 17, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 72.65.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary is authorized to extend the limits of the place of confinement and treatment within the state of any prisoner convicted of a felony, sentenced to a term of confinement and treatment by the superior court, and serving such sentence in a state correctional institution under the jurisdiction of the department, by authorizing a work release plan for such prisoner, permitting him, under prescribed conditions, to do any of the following:

(a) Work at paid employment.

(b) Participate in a vocational training program: PROVIDED, That the tuition and other expenses of such a vocational training program shall be paid by the prisoner, by someone in his behalf, or by the department: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any expenses paid by the department shall be recovered by the department pursuant to the terms of RCW 72.65.050.

(c) Interview or make application to a prospective employer or employers, or enroll in a suitable vocational training program.

Such work release plan of any prison shall require that he be confined during the hours not reasonably necessary to implement the plan, in (1) a state correctional institution, (2) a county or city jail, which jail has been approved after inspection pursuant to RCW ((72.01-420)) 70.48.050, or (3) any other appropriate, supervised facility, after an agreement has been entered into between the department and the appropriate authorities of the facility for the housing of work release prisoners.

(2) ((The secretary may lease or permit the use of a portion of any correctional facility, including necessary buildings, for a term not to exceed twenty years, to a private business organization for the purpose of establishing and operating a commercial enterprise deemed by the secretary to be consistent with the appropriate training and rehabilitation of prisoners.

Any business organization operating a commercial enterprise under this section may employ any inmates of the institution upon whose grounds it operates after such inmates have been authorized by the secretary to participate in the program. For the purposes of Washington law, the inmates participating in the program are deemed work releasees and are subject to all of the provisions of chapter 72.65 RCW.

Participants in the program are deemed to be parolees within the purview of 49 U.S.C. Sec. 60, and, except as prohibited by applicable provisions of the United States Code, prisoner participants in the program may be employed in the manufacture and processing of goods, wares, and merchandise for introduction into interstate commerce.

Any business organization established or participating in the program authorized under this section shall be deemed a private enterprise and subject to all the laws, rules, and regulations of this state governing the operation of similar business enterprises elsewhere in the state, and shall in no event pay prisoner participants in the program less than sixty percent of the prevailing wages for work of a similar nature performed by employees with similar skills in the locality in which the work is being performed: PROVIDED: That the provisions of this subsection (2) shall expire and be of no further force and effect after January 1, 1984. This section applies only to persons sentenced for crimes that were committed before July 1, 1984.

Sec. 29, Section 3, chapter 17, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 276, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.65.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any prisoner serving a sentence in a state correctional institution may make application to participate in the work release program to the superintendent of the institution in which he is confined. Such application shall set forth the name and address of his proposed employer or employers or shall specify the vocational training program, if any, in which he is enrolled. It shall include a statement to be executed by such prisoner that if his application be approved he agrees to abide faithfully by all terms and conditions of the particular work release plan adopted for him. It shall further set forth such additional information as the department or the secretary shall require.

(2) This section applies only to persons sentenced for crimes that were committed before July 1, 1984.

Sec. 30, Section 4, chapter 17, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 277, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.65.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of the state correctional institution in which a prisoner who has made application to participate in the work release program is confined, after careful study of the prisoner's conduct, attitude and behavior within the institutions under the jurisdiction of the department, his criminal history and all other pertinent case history material, shall determine whether or not there is reasonable cause to believe that the prisoner will honor his trust as a work release participant. After having made such determination, the superintendent, in his discretion, may deny the prisoner's application, or recommend to the secretary, or such officer of the department as the secretary may designate, that the prisoner be permitted to participate in the work release program. The secretary or his designee, may approve, reject, modify, or defer action on such recommendation. In the event of approval, the secretary or his designee, shall adopt a work release plan for the prisoner, which shall constitute an extension of the limits of confinement and treatment of the prisoner when released pursuant thereto, and which shall include such terms and conditions as may be deemed necessary and proper under the particular circumstances. The plan shall be signed by the prisoner under oath that he will faithfully abide by all terms and conditions thereof. Further, as a condition, the plan shall specify where such prisoner shall be confined when not released for the purpose of the work release plan. At any time after approval has been granted to any prisoner to participate in the work release program, such approval may be revoked, and if the prisoner has been released on a work release plan, he may be returned to a state correctional institution, or the plan may be modified, in the sole discretion of the secretary or his designee. Any prisoner who has been initially rejected either by the superintendent or the secretary or his designee, may reapply for permission to participate in a work release program after a period of time has elapsed from the date of such rejection. This period of time shall be determined by the secretary or his designee, according to the individual circumstances in each case.

(2) This section applies only to persons sentenced for crimes that were committed before July 1, 1984.

Sec. 31, Section 38, chapter 138, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows: The following acts or parts of acts are hereby repealed, effective July 1, 1984:

(1) Section 1, chapter 175, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 9.41.025(;

(2) Section 2, chapter 17, Laws of 1967, section 275, chapter 141, Laws of 1979, section 1, chapter 160, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 72.65.020;

(3) Section 3, chapter 17, Laws of 1967, section 275, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.65.030; and

(4) Section 4, chapter 17, Laws of 1967, section 277, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 72.65.040).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Section 27, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.900 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. Sections 1 through 26 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1984, and sections 27 through 32 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1984." and the same is herewith transmitted.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 24, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) 'Dependent child' means any child for whom a support order has been established or for whom a duty of support is owed.

(2) 'Duty of support' means the duty to provide for the needs of a dependent child, which may include necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and health care. The duty includes any obligation to make monetary payments, to pay expenses, or to reimburse another person or an agency for the cost of necessary support furnished a dependent child. The duty may be imposed by court order, by operation of law, or otherwise.

(3) 'Obligee' means the custodian of a dependent child, or person or agency, to whom a duty of support is owed, or the person or agency to whom the right to receive or collect support has been assigned.

(4) 'Obligor' means the person owing a duty of support.

(5) 'Support order' means any judgment, decree, or order of support issued by the superior court or authorized agency of the state of Washington; or a judgment, decree, or other order of support issued by a court or agency of competent jurisdiction in another state or country, which has been registered or otherwise made enforceable in this state.

(6) 'Employer' includes the United States government, a state or local unit of government, and any person or entity who pays or owes earnings to the obligor.

(7) 'Earnings' means compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the payments exempt from garnishment, attachment, or other process to satisfy support obligations, specifically includes periodic payments pursuant to pension or retirement programs, or insurance policies of any type, but does not include payments made under Title 50 RCW, except as provided in RCW 50.40.020 and 50.40.050, or Title 74 RCW.

(8) 'Disposable earnings' means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amount required by law to be withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The remedies provided in this chapter are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other remedies provided by law.

(2) This chapter applies to any dependent child, whether born before or after the effective date of this act, and regardless of the past or current marital status of the parents.

(3) This chapter shall be liberally construed to assure that all dependent children are adequately supported.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A proceeding to enforce a duty of support is commenced:

(a) By filing a petition for an original action; or

(b) By motion in an existing action or under an existing cause number.

(2) Venue for the action is in the superior court of the county where the dependent child resides or is present, where the obligor resides, or where the prior support order was entered. The petition or motion may be filed by the obligee, the state, or any agency providing care or support to the dependent child. A filing fee shall not be assessed in cases brought on behalf of the state of Washington.

(3) The court retains continuing jurisdiction under this chapter until all duties of support of the obligor, including arrearages, with respect to the dependent child have been satisfied.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A petition or motion may be filed without notice under section 4 of this act to initiate a contempt action if an obligor fails to comply with a support order. If the court finds there is reasonable cause to believe the obligor has failed to comply with a support order, the court may issue an order to show cause requiring the obligor to appear at a certain time and place for a hearing, at which time the obligor may appear to show cause why the relief requested should not be granted. A copy of the petition or motion shall be served on the obligor along with the order to show cause.

(2) Service of the order to show cause shall be by personal service, or in the manner provided in the civil rules of superior court or applicable statute.

(3) If the order to show cause served upon the obligor included a warning that an arrest warrant could be issued for failure to appear, the court may issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the obligor if the obligor fails to appear on the return date provided in the order.

(4) If the court finds, after hearing, that the obligor failed to comply with the support order previously entered and that the obligor has not established that he or she was unable to comply with the order, the court shall find the obligor in contempt of court. Contempt under this section is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of up to one hundred eighty days. The court may suspend all or a part of the sentence upon terms that are reasonably likely to result in compliance with the support order.

(5) If the obligor contends at the hearing that he or she lacked the means to comply with the support order, the obligor shall establish that he or she exercised due diligence in seeking employment, in conserving assets, or otherwise in rendering himself or herself able to comply with the court's order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation or duty of support shall state that, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee may seek a mandatory wage assignment without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order.

(2) If the support order under which the obligor owes the duty of support is not in compliance with subsection (1) of this section or if the obligee cannot show that the obligor has approved or received a copy of the court order or decree that complies with subsection (1) of this section, then notice shall be provided to the obligor at least fifteen days prior to the obligee seeking a mandatory wage assignment. The notice shall state that, if a child support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee may seek a mandatory wage assignment without further notice to the obligor. Service of the notice shall be by personal service, or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt. The notice requirement under this subsection is not jurisdictional.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) A petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment in an action under section 4 of this act may be filed by an obligee if the obligor is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month. The petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the wage assignment order, including:

(a) That the obligor, stating his or her name and residence, is more than fifteen days past due in child support payments in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month;

(b) A description of the terms of the support order requiring payment of support, and the amount past due;

(c) The name and address of the obligor's employer;

(d) That notice has been provided to the obligor as required by section 6 of this act; and

(e) In cases not filed by the state, whether the obligee has received public assistance from any source and, if the obligee has received public assistance, that the department of social and health services has been notified in writing of the pending action.

(2) If the court in which a mandatory wage assignment is sought does not already have a copy of the support order in the court file, then the obligee shall attach a copy of the support order to the petition or motion seeking the wage assignment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Upon receipt of a petition or motion seeking a mandatory wage assignment that complies with section 7 of this act, the court shall issue a wage assignment order, as provided in section 10 of this act and including the information required in section 9(1) of this act, directed to the employer, and commanding the employer to answer the order on the forms served with the order that comply with section 12 of this act within twenty days after service of the order upon the employer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The wage assignment order in section 8 of this act shall include:

(a) The maximum amount of current support, if any, to be withheld from the obligor's earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement; and

(b) The total amount of the arrearage or reimbursement judgment previously entered by the court, if any, together with interest, if any.

(2) The total amount to be withheld from the obligor's earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement, shall not exceed fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor. If the amounts to be paid toward the arrearage are specified in the support order, then the maximum amount to be withheld is the sum of the current support ordered and the amount ordered to be paid toward the arrearage, or fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor, whichever is less.

(3) The provisions of RCW 7.33.280 do not apply to wage assignments for child support authorized under this chapter, but fifty percent of the disposable earnings of the obligor are exempt, and may be disbursed to the obligor.

(4) If an obligor is subject to two or more attachments for child support on account of different obligees, the employer shall, if the nonexempt portion of the obligor's earnings is not sufficient to respond fully to all the attachments, apportion the obligor's nonexempt disposable earnings between or among the various obligees equally. Any obligee may seek a court order reapportioning the obligor's nonexempt disposable earnings upon notice to all interested obligees. Notice shall be by personal service, or in the manner provided by the civil rules of superior court or applicable statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The wage assignment order shall be substantially in the following form:

(2) The total amount withheld above is subject to the wage assignment order, and all other sums may be disbursed to the obligor.

You shall deliver the withheld earnings to the clerk of the court that issued this wage assignment order at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after your receipt of this wage assignment order.

You shall deliver a copy of this order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible. NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) An employer upon whom service of a wage assignment order has been made shall answer the order by sworn affidavit within twenty days after the date of service. The answer shall state whether the obligor is employed by or receives earnings from the employer, whether the employer will honor the wage assignment order, and whether there are multiple child support attachments against the obligor.

(2) If the employer possesses any earnings due and owing to the obligor, the earnings subject to the wage assignment order shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the wage assignment order. The withheld earnings shall be delivered to the clerk of the court that issued the wage assignment order at each regular pay interval, but the first delivery shall occur no sooner than twenty days after receipt of the wage assignment order.

(3) The employer shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt earnings of the obligor until notified by the court that the wage assignment has been modified or terminated. The employer shall promptly notify the court when the employee is no longer employed.

(4) The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the employee's earnings after withholding under the wage assignment order, even if the remainder is exempt under section 9 of this act. The processing fee may not exceed (a) ten dollars for the first disbursement made by the employer to the superior court clerk; and (b) one dollar for each subsequent disbursement to the clerk.

(5) An order for wage assignment for support entered under this chapter shall have priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for child support, or order to withhold and deliver under chapter 74.20A RCW.

(6) An employer who fails to withhold earnings as required by a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be held liable for the amounts disbursed to the obligor in violation of the wage assignment order, and may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(7) No employer who complies with a wage assignment issued under this chapter may be liable to the employee for wrongful withholding.

(8) No employer may discharge, discipline, or refuse to hire an employee because of the entry or service of a wage assignment issued and executed under this chapter. A person who violates this subsection may be found by the court to be in contempt of court and may be punished as provided by law.

(9) An employer may combine amounts withheld from various employees into a single payment to the superior court clerk, if the payment includes a listing of the amounts attributable to each employee and other information as required by the clerk.

(10) An employer shall deliver a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The answer of the employer shall be made on forms, served on the employer with the wage assignment order, substantially as follows:

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF

.....	No.

3. If the answer to question one is yes and the employer cannot comply with the wage assignment order, provide an explanation:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) Service of the wage assignment order on the employer is invalid unless it is served with four answer forms in substantial conformance with section 12 of this act, together with stamped envelopes addressed to, respectively, the clerk of the court where the order was issued, the obligee's attorney or the obligee, and the obligor. The obligee shall also include an extra copy of the wage assignment order for the employer to deliver to the obligor. Service on the employer shall be in person or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt.

(2) On or before the date of service of the wage assignment order on the employer, the obligee shall mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the wage assignment order to the obligor at the obligor's last known post office address; or, in the alternative, a copy of the wage assignment order shall be served on the obligor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on, before, or within two days after the date of service of the order on the employer. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but if the copy is not mailed or served as this subsection provides, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion, may quash the wage assignment order, upon motion of the obligor promptly made and supported by an affidavit showing that the obligor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail or serve the copy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In a hearing to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order, the court may grant relief only upon a showing that the wage assignment order causes extreme hardship or substantial injustice. Satisfaction by the obligor of all past due payments subsequent to the issuance of the wage assignment order is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the wage assignment order. If a wage assignment order has been in operation for twelve consecutive months and the obligor's support obligation is current, the court may terminate the order upon motion of the obligor unless the obligee can show good cause as to why the wage assignment order should remain in effect.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) In any action to enforce a support order under Title 26 RCW, the court may, in its discretion, order a parent obligated to pay support for a minor child to post a bond or other security with the court. The bond or other security shall be in the amount of support due for a two-year period. The bond or other security is subject to approval by the court. The bond shall include the name and address of the issuer. If the bond is canceled, any person issuing a bond under this section shall notify the court and the person entitled to receive payment under the order.

(2) If the parent obligated to pay support fails to make payments as required under the court order, the person entitled to receive payment may recover on the bond or other security in the existing proceeding. The court may, after notice and hearing, increase the amount of the bond or other security. Failure to comply with the court's order to obtain and maintain a bond or other security may be treated as contempt of court.

Sec. 16. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 and RCW 6.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The homestead is subject to execution or forced sale in satisfaction of judgments obtained:

(1) On debts secured by mechanic's, laborer's, materialmen's or vendor's liens upon the premises;

(2) On debts secured by purchase money security agreements describing as collateral a mobile home located on the premises or mortgages on the premises, executed and acknowledged by the husband and wife or by any unmarried claimant;

(3) On one spouse's or the community's debts existing at the time of that spouse's bankruptcy filing where (a) bankruptcy is filed by both spouses within a six-month period, including as a joint case under 11 U.S.C. Sec. 302, and (b) the other spouse exempts property from property of the estate under the federal exemption provisions of 11 U.S.C. Sec. 522(b)(1);

(4) On debts arising from a lawful court order or decree or administrative order establishing a child support obligation or obligation to pay spousal maintenance.

Sec. 17. Section 11.52.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 7, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

If it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that no homestead has been claimed in the manner provided by law, either prior or subsequent to the death of the person whose estate is being administered, then the court, after hearing and upon being satisfied that the funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration have been paid or provided for, and upon petition for that purpose, shall award and set off to the surviving spouse, if any, property of the estate, either community or separate, not exceeding the value of twenty-five thousand dollars at the time of death, exclusive of general taxes and special assessments which were liens at the time of the death of the deceased spouse, ~~((and))~~ exclusive of the unpaid balance of any contract to purchase, mortgage, or mechanic's, laborer's or materialmen's liens upon the property so set off, exclusive of debts arising out of a lawful court order or decree or administrative order establishing a child support obligation or obligation to pay spousal maintenance and exclusive of funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and administration, which expenses may be deducted from the gross value in determining the value to be set off to the surviving spouse; provided that the court shall have no jurisdiction to make such award unless the petition therefor is filed with the clerk within six years from the date of the death of the person whose estate is being administered.

Sec. 18. Section 11.52.012, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 234, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Such award shall be made by an order or judgment of the court and shall vest the absolute title, and thereafter there shall be no further administration upon such portion of the estate so set off, but the remainder of the estate shall be settled as other estates: PROVIDED, That no property of the estate shall be awarded or set off, as provided in RCW 11.52.010 through 11.52.024, as now or hereafter amended, to a surviving spouse who has feloniously killed the deceased spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if it shall appear to the court, either (1) that there are children of the deceased by a former marriage or by adoption prior to decedent's marriage to petitioner, or (2) that the petitioning surviving spouse has abandoned his or her minor children or wilfully and wrongfully failed to provide for them, or (3) if such surviving spouse or minor children are entitled to receive property not subject to probate, including insurance, by reason of the death of the deceased spouse in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, or more, then the award in lieu of homestead and exemptions shall lie in the discretion of the court, and that whether there shall be an award and the amount thereof shall be determined by the court, which shall enter such decree as shall be just and equitable but not in excess of the award provided herein.

Sec. 19. Section 11.52.020, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 117, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In event a homestead has been, or shall be selected in the manner provided by law, whether the selection of such homestead results in vesting the complete or partial title in the survivor, it shall be the duty of the court, upon petition of any person interested, and upon being satisfied that the value thereof does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars at the time of the death, exclusive of general taxes and special assessments which were liens at the time of the death of the deceased and exclusive of the unpaid balance of any contract to purchase, mortgage, or mechanic's, laborer's, or materialmen's liens thereon, and exclusive of funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration, which expenses may be deducted from the gross value in determining the value to be set off to the surviving spouse, to enter a decree, upon notice as provided in RCW 11.52.014 or upon longer notice if the court so orders, setting off and awarding such homestead to the survivor, thereby vesting the title thereto in fee simple in the survivor: PROVIDED, That if there be any incompetent heirs of the decedent, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for such incompetent heir who shall appear at the hearing and represent the interest of such incompetent heir.

Sec. 20. Section 11.52.022, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 10, chapter 124, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.022 are each amended to read as follows:

If the value of the homestead, exclusive of all such liens, be less than twenty-five thousand dollars, the court, upon being satisfied that the funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and of administration, have been paid or provided for, shall set off and award additional property, either separate or community, in lieu of such deficiency, so that the value of the homestead, exclusive of all such liens and expenses when added to the value of the other property awarded, exclusive of all such liens and expenses shall equal twenty-five thousand dollars: PROVIDED, That if it shall appear to the court, either (1) that there are children of the deceased by a former marriage or by adoption prior to decedent's marriage to petitioner, or (2) that the petitioning surviving spouse has abandoned his or her minor children or wilfully and wrongfully failed to provide for them, or (3) that such surviving spouse is, or any minor child entitled to an award under RCW 11.52.030 is, entitled to receive property not subject to probate, including insurance by reason of the death of the deceased spouse in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, or more, then the award of property in addition to the homestead, where the homestead is of less than twenty-five thousand dollars in value, shall lie in the discretion of the court, and that whether there shall be an award in addition to the homestead and the amount thereof shall be determined by the court, which shall enter such decree as shall be just and equitable, but not in excess of the award provided herein.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 26.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every court order or decree establishing a child support obligation shall state that, if a support payment is more than fifteen days past due in an amount equal to or greater than the support payable for one month, the obligee of the support payments may seek a mandatory wage assignment under chapter 26.____ RCW (sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act) without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order. If the social security number of the person obligated to make child support payments under the support order or decree is available, the court shall require that the social security number of the obligor be included in the order or decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 26.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

RCW (sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act) without prior notice to the obligor. Failure to include this provision does not affect the validity of the support order. If the social security number of the person obligated to make child support payments under the support order or decree is available, the court shall require that the social security number of the obligor be included in the order or decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. Nothing in this chapter limits the authority of the attorney general or prosecuting attorney to use any and all civil and criminal remedies to enforce child support obligations regardless of whether or not the custodial parent receives public assistance payments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. In any action to enforce a support order under this chapter, the prevailing party is entitled to a recovery of costs, including an award for reasonable attorney fees. An obligor may not be considered a prevailing party under this section unless the obligee has acted in bad faith in connection with the proceeding in question.

The department shall report its findings to the appropriate legislative committees by January 1, 1983. The department shall reconsider its administrative standards under RCW 74.20.270 in light of relevant data and shall, to the extent feasible without substantial impact on aid to families with dependent children, bring those standards into conformity with payment standards based on actual experience.))~~

(2) The secretary may accept applications for support enforcement services on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance and may take action ~~((as he deems appropriate))~~ in appropriate cases to establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay moneys. Applications accepted under this section may be conditioned upon the payment of a fee as required through regulation issued by the secretary. Action may be taken under the provisions of chapter 74.20 RCW, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state, including but not limited to remedies established in chapter 74.20A RCW, to establish and enforce said support obligations. The secretary may establish by regulation, such reasonable standards as ~~((he deems))~~ may be necessary to limit applications for support enforcement services. Said standards shall take into account the income, property, or other resources already available to support said person for whom a support obligation exists.

(3) The secretary may ~~((charge))~~ collect a fee from the person obligated to pay support to compensate the department for services rendered in establishment of or enforcement of support obligations. This fee shall be ~~((agreed on in writing with the custodian or guardian of the person for whom a support obligation is owed, or that person if no custodian or guardian exists and shall be))~~ limited to not more than ten percent of any support money collected as a result of action taken by the secretary. The fee charged shall be in addition to the support obligation. In no event may the fee be collected by the department of social and health services until all current support obligations have been satisfied. The secretary shall by regulation establish reasonable fees for support enforcement services and said schedule of fees shall be made available to ~~((all applicants for support enforcement services))~~ any person obligated to pay support. The secretary may, on showing of necessity, waive or defer any such fee.

(4) ~~((The secretary may impose a fee on the individual who owes a child support or spousal support obligation with respect to all such child and spousal support obligations for which collection is made on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance.))~~ Fees, due and owing, may be collected as delinquent support moneys utilizing any of the remedies in chapter 74.20 RCW, chapter 74.20A RCW, chapter 26.21 RCW, or any other remedy at law or equity available to the department or any agencies with whom it has a cooperative or contractual arrangement to establish, enforce, or collect support moneys or support obligations.

(5) The secretary may waive the fee, or any portion thereof, as a part of a compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge off of said fee if the secretary finds there are no available, practical, or lawful means by which said fee may be collected or to facilitate payment of the amount of delinquent support moneys owed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. There is added to chapter 6.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When a homestead declaration occurs before a judgment, the judgment creditor has a lien on the value of the property in excess of the homestead exemption. This lien commences when the judgment creditor records the judgment with the auditor of the county where the property is located.

Sec. 31. Section 10, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The child shall be made a party to the action. If the child is a minor, the child shall be represented by the child's general guardian or a guardian ad litem appointed by the court subject to RCW 74.20.310. The child's mother or father may not represent the child as guardian or otherwise. The natural mother, each man presumed to be the father under RCW 26.26.040, and ~~((each))~~ a man or men alleged to be the natural father~~((s))~~ shall be made parties or, if not subject to the jurisdiction of the court, shall, if possible, be given actual notice of the action ~~((in~~ a manner prescribed by the court) and an opportunity to be heard in a manner as the court may prescribe. ~~(The court may align the parties.)~~

(2) Any party may cause to be joined as additional parties other men alleged to be the father of the child or any other person necessary for a full adjudication of the issues.

(3) The failure or inability to join as a party an alleged or presumed father does not deprive the court of jurisdiction to adjudicate some or all of the issues based on the evidence and parties available to it.

(4) If more than one party is alleged to be the father of the child, the default of a party shall not preclude the court from finding any other party to be the father of the child.

Sec. 32. Section 11, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 41, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The court may, and upon request of a party shall, require the child, mother, and (a presumed or) any alleged father who has been made a party to submit to blood tests. If an alleged father objects to a proposed order requiring him to submit to paternity blood tests, the court may require the party making the allegation of possible paternity to provide sworn testimony, by affidavit or otherwise, stating the facts upon which the allegation is based. The court shall order blood tests if it appears that a reasonable possibility exists that the requisite sexual contact occurred. The tests shall be performed by an expert in paternity blood testing appointed by the court. The expert's verified report identifying the blood characteristics observed is admissible in evidence in any hearing or trial in the parentage action, if (a) the alleged or presumed father has had the opportunity to gain information about the security, validity, and interpretation of the tests and the qualifications of any experts, and (b) the report is accompanied by an affidavit from the expert which describes the expert's qualifications as an expert and analyzes and interprets the results. Verified documentation of the chain of custody of the blood samples tested is admissible to establish the chain of custody. The court may consider published sources as aids to interpretation of the test results.

((2)) (3) The court, upon ((reasonable)) request by a party, shall order that additional blood tests be performed by the same or other experts qualified in paternity blood testing, if the party requesting additional tests advances the full costs of the additional testing within a reasonable time. The court may order additional testing without requiring that the requesting party advance the costs only if another party agrees to advance the costs or if the court finds, after hearing, that (a) the requesting party is indigent, and (b) the laboratory performing the initial tests recommends additional testing or there is substantial evidence to support a finding as to paternity contrary to the initial blood test results. The court may later order any other party to reimburse the party who advanced the costs of additional testing for all or a portion of the costs.

((3)) (4) In all cases, the court shall determine the number and qualifications of the experts.

Sec. 33. Section 12, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Evidence relating to paternity may include:

(1) Evidence of sexual intercourse between the mother and alleged father at any possible time of conception;

(2) An expert's opinion concerning the statistical probability of the alleged father's paternity based upon the duration of the mother's pregnancy;

(3) An expert's opinion concerning the impossibility or the statistical probability of the alleged father's paternity based upon blood test results(~~weighted in accordance with evidence, if available, of the statistical probability of the alleged father's paternity~~);

(4) Medical or anthropological evidence relating to the alleged father's paternity of the child based on tests performed by experts. If a man has been identified as a possible father of the child, the court may, and upon request of a party shall, require the child, the mother, and the man to submit to appropriate tests; and

(5) All other evidence relevant to the issue of paternity of the child.

Sec. 34. Section 13, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An action under this chapter is a civil action governed by the rules of civil procedures. The mother of the child and the alleged father are competent to testify and may be compelled to testify.

(2) Upon refusal of any witness, including a party, to testify under oath or produce evidence of any other kind on the ground that ~~(he)~~ the witness may be incriminated thereby, and if a prosecuting attorney requests the court to order that person to testify or provide the evidence, the court shall then hold a hearing and shall so order, unless it finds that to do so would be clearly contrary to the public interest, and that person shall comply with the order.

If, but for this section, ~~(he)~~ the witness would have been privileged to withhold the answer given or the evidence produced ~~(by him)~~, the witness may not refuse to comply with the order on the basis of ~~(his)~~ the privilege against self-incrimination; but ~~(he)~~ the witness shall not be prosecuted or subjected to criminal penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or fact concerning which ~~((he))~~ the witness has been ordered to testify pursuant to this section. ~~((He))~~ The witness may nevertheless be prosecuted for failing to comply with the order to answer, or for perjury or for offering false evidence to the court.

(3) Testimony of a physician concerning the medical circumstances of the pregnancy and the condition and characteristics of the child upon birth is not privileged.

(4) In an action against an alleged father, evidence offered by ~~((him))~~ the alleged father with respect to a man who ~~((is not subject to the jurisdiction of the court))~~ has not been joined as a party concerning ~~((his))~~ the nonparty's sexual intercourse with the mother at or about the probable time of conception of the child is admissible in evidence only if ~~((he))~~ the nonparty has undergone and made available to the court blood tests, including the human leukocyte antigen (HLA) test or other tests of comparable exclusionary power, the results of which do not exclude the possibility of ~~((his))~~ the nonparty's paternity of the child. ~~((A man who is identified and is subject to the jurisdiction of the court shall be made a defendant in the action.))~~

(5) The trial shall be by the court without a jury.

Sec. 35. Section 15, chapter 42, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 26.26.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The court may order reasonable fees of ~~((counsel;))~~ experts(;;) and the child's guardian ad litem, and other costs of the action, including blood test~~((s))~~ costs, to be paid by the parties in proportions and at times determined by the court. The court may order that all or a portion of a party's reasonable attorney's fees be paid by another party, except that an award of attorney's fees assessed against the state or any of its agencies or representatives shall be under RCW 4.84.185.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A joint legislative committee on child support is hereby created. The committee shall be composed of eleven members, five to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and five to be appointed by the president of the senate. Three of the members from each house shall be from the majority party and two from the minority party. The eleventh member shall be a member of the public and shall be appointed by a majority of the legislative committee members. The nonlegislative member of the joint committee shall not receive compensation but shall be reimbursed under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 for travel expenses incurred while attending official meetings of the committee. The legislative members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 44.04.120.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. The joint committee on child support shall examine, investigate, and study the operation of the state's child support system. The primary purpose of the study shall be to determine the system's success in securing support and parental involvement both for children who are eligible for aid under Part A of Title IV of the Social Security Act and children who are not eligible for the aid. The joint committee shall give particular attention to the recommendations which were made at the October, 1983 legislative conference on child support and paternity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. The joint committee shall submit to the social and health services committees of the house of representatives and the senate and make available to the public, no later than October 1, 1985, a report of its findings and recommendations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 39. Sections 36 through 38 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1986.

Sec. 40. Section 3, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall be subrogated to the right of any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW 26.16.205.

No collection shall be made from a parent or other person who is the recipient of public assistance moneys while such person or persons are in such status except as provided in RCW 74.20A.270.

No collection action shall be taken against parents of children eligible for admission to, or children who have been released from, a state school for the developmentally disabled as defined by chapter 72.33 RCW.

Sec. 41. Section 18, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may issue a notice of support debt to any person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision of the state of Washington or any officer or agent thereof who is in possession of support moneys, or who has had support moneys in his or her possession at some time in the past, which support moneys were or are claimed by the department as the property of the department by assignment, subrogation, or by operation of law or legal process under chapter 74.20A RCW, if the support moneys have not been remitted to the department as required by law.

The notice shall describe the claim of the department, stating the legal basis for the claim and shall provide sufficient detail to enable the person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision or officer or agent thereof upon whom service is made to identify the support moneys in issue. The notice may also make inquiry as to relevant facts necessary to the resolution of the issue.

The notice may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in the manner of a summons in a civil action. Upon service of the notice all moneys not yet disbursed or spent or like moneys to be received in the future are deemed to be impounded and shall be held in trust pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested.

The notice shall be answered under oath and in writing within twenty days of the date of service, which answer shall include true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice. The notice shall also either acknowledge the department's right to the moneys or request an administrative hearing to determine the rights to ownership of the support moneys in issue. The hearing shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department and shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW. The burden of proof to establish ownership of the support moneys claimed, including but not limited to moneys not yet disbursed or spent, is on the department.

If no answer is made within the twenty days, the department's claim shall be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW. Any such debtor may, at any time within one year from the date of service of the notice of support debt, petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for a hearing upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60. A copy of the petition shall also be served on the department. The filing of the petition shall not stay any collection action being taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee or the courts on any appeal made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Any moneys held and/or taken by collection action prior to the date of any such stay and any support moneys claimed by the department, including moneys to be received in the future to which the department may have a claim, shall be held in trust pending final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall condition the stay to provide for the trust.

If the hearing is granted it shall be an administrative hearing limited to the determination of the ownership of the moneys claimed in the notice of debt. The right to the hearing is conditioned upon holding of any funds not yet disbursed or expended or to be received in the future in trust pending the final order in these proceedings or during any appeal made to the courts. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall enter an appropriate order providing for the terms of the trust.

The hearing shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department. The hearing shall be promptly scheduled within thirty days from the date of receipt of the answer by the department. The hearing shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose. Hearings may be held in the county of residence of the debtor or other place convenient to the debtor.

If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing examiner shall, upon showing of valid service, enter an initial decision and order declaring the amount of support moneys, as claimed in the notice, to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of the decision and order the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate the decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing and review process shall be as provided for in RCW 74.20A.055.

If, at any time, the superior court enters judgment for an amount of debt at variance with the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings, the judgment shall supersede the final order in these proceedings. Any debt determined by the superior court in excess of the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings shall be the property of the department as assigned under 42 U.S.C. 602(A)(26)(a), RCW 74.20.040, 74.20A.250, 74.20.320, or 74.20.330. The department may, despite any final order in these proceedings, take action pursuant to chapters 74.20 or 74.20A RCW to obtain such a judgment or to collect moneys determined by such a judgment to be due and owing.

If public assistance moneys have been paid to a parent for the benefit of that parent's minor dependent children, debt under this chapter shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from that parent because of that payment of assistance. Nothing in this section prohibits or limits the department from acting pursuant to RCW 74.20.320 and this section to assess a debt against a recipient or ex-recipient for receipt of support moneys paid in satisfaction of the debt assigned under RCW 74.20.330 which have been assigned to the department but were received by a recipient or ex-recipient from another responsible parent and not remitted to the department. To collect these wrongfully retained funds from the recipient, the department may not take collection action ((during such period of time as)) in excess of ten percent of the grant payment standard during any month the public assistance recipient remains in that status unless required by federal law. Payments not credited against the department's debt pursuant to RCW 74.20.101 may not be assessed or collected under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. Sections 1 through 15, 24, and 25 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 26 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. Section 2, chapter 28, Laws of 1913, section 1, chapter 297, Laws of 1927, section 35, chapter 154, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 26.20.050 are each repealed."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 229, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.36.060 are each amended to read as follows:

During the pendency of any quasi-judicial proceeding, no member of a decision-making body may engage in ex parte communications with opponents or proponents with respect to the proposal which is the subject of the proceeding unless that person:

(1) Places on the record the substance of any written or oral ex parte communications concerning the decision of action; and

(2) Provides that a public announcement of the content of the communication and of the parties' rights to rebut the substance of the communication shall be made at each hearing where action is considered or taken on the subject to which the communication related. This prohibition does not preclude a member of a decision-making body from seeking in a public hearing specific information or data from such parties relative to the decision if both the request and the results are a part of the record. Nor does such prohibition preclude correspondence between a citizen and his or her elected official if any such correspondence is made a part of the record when it pertains to the subject matter of a quasi-judicial proceeding."

Results of such tests shall be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, who shall make those results available annually to the legislature, to all local school districts and subsequently to parents of those children tested. The results shall allow parents to ascertain the achievement levels and input variables of their children as compared with the other students within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation.~~

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, an assessment to be administered annually to all grade eight students. The purposes of the assessment are to assist students, parents, and teachers in the planning and selection of appropriate high school programs and courses for the students and to provide comparisons within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation. The assessment shall include but not be limited to tests in reading, mathematics, and language arts and a student interest inventory. The superintendent of public instruction shall make the results available to all local school districts which shall in turn make them available to students, parents, and teachers in a timely fashion.

The test shall include questions designed to determine students' academic growth and proficiency in skills generally thought to be useful in adult life, including but not limited to English, vocabulary, communications, and mathematical skills as such skills relate to career, consumer, economic, health, and other issues important to individuals becoming productive citizens. Selection shall be made by a broadly based committee of professionals, after consideration of the results of the multiple criteria assessment.

(2) Students selected pursuant to procedures outlined in this section shall be provided, to the extent feasible, an educational opportunity which takes into account each student's unique needs and capabilities and the limits of the resources and program options available to the district, including those options which can be developed or provided by using funds allocated by the superintendent of public instruction for that purpose.

If such stipulated final judgment does not require (a) netting within facilities of all overpayments and underpayments incurred throughout the period from January 1, 1978, through June 30, 1981, and (b) repayment to the state of residual funds remaining after payment to plaintiffs of all audited allowable costs for such period plus costs of suit, attorneys' fees, other fees, costs of distribution, and interest, this appropriation shall lapse. The legislature determines that the amounts which may be payable as damages, along with costs, attorneys' fees, other fees, costs of distribution, and interest, in the three civil actions identified in this section are obligations correctly chargeable to prior biennia. If RCW 83.32.400 is not amended in 1984 to permit moneys in the revenue accrual account to be appropriated and spent for the purpose of discharging obligations which are correctly chargeable to a prior biennium, this appropriation shall lapse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 611. There is added to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction, in consultation with representatives of the state and regional universities, the council for postsecondary education, and the state board of education, shall develop a program to implement at least one campus educational research center located in the state of Washington. Any research center shall be located at an existing state or regional university campus and may be utilized by school districts and all teacher preparation institutions to assist in educational research and the field testing of new innovations in curriculum design, teaching methodology, management practices, and school organizational structures. The superintendent of public instruction shall report to the legislature and the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management by January 1, 1985, on the plan for the organization and operation of any research center, locations, and costs related thereto. The superintendent of public instruction shall also make available to the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, prior to the presentation of the final plan, such information as may be developed in the preparation of the plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to grant funds for selected school improvement and research projects, including improvements in curriculum, instruction, and classroom management developed by teachers.

(2) The superintendent shall appoint an advisory committee on research and development composed of certificated and noncertificated staff, administrators, curriculum specialists, parents, school directors, postsecondary educators, business persons, and others as the superintendent finds necessary. The committee shall propose criteria to the superintendent to evaluate proposed school improvement and research projects proposed by educational employees. The criteria approved by the superintendent shall: (a) Assure to the extent possible that projects will be chosen which represent the various geographical locations, school or district sizes, and grade levels existent in the state; (b) provide for evaluation of each project upon completion; and (c) include such other requirements as the superintendent finds necessary. The committee shall recommend to the superintendent of public instruction the awarding of grants to fund those proposals showing the most potential for developing knowledge which will be helpful to local districts in their efforts to enhance educational equity and excellence. Projects may involve the collaboration of personnel from higher education institutions and kindergarten through grade twelve educators.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall award grants to selected project participants in such amounts as recommended by the advisory committee on research and development under subsection (2) of this section and the sum of all grants awarded per year shall not exceed that amount appropriated by the legislature for such purposes. Grants may be awarded to individual teachers or teams of teachers including teacher's aides and volunteers.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall maintain a clearinghouse of information on these research projects for the use of local districts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Recent and expanding activity in educational research has produced and continues to produce much valuable information. The legislature finds that such information should be shared with the citizens and educational community of the state as widely as possible. To facilitate access to information and materials on education, the superintendent of public instruction shall act as the state clearinghouse for educational information.

(2) In carrying out this function, the superintendent of public instruction's primary duty shall be to collect, screen, organize, and disseminate information pertaining to the state's educational system from preschool through grade twelve, including but not limited to in-state research and development efforts; descriptions of exemplary, model, and innovative programs; and related information that can be used in developing more effective programs.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall maintain a collection of such studies, articles, reports, research findings, monographs, bibliographies, directories, curriculum materials, speeches, conference proceedings, legal decisions that are concerned with some aspect of the state's education system, and other applicable materials. All materials and information shall be considered public documents under chapter 42.17 RCW and the superintendent of public instruction shall furnish copies of educational materials at nominal cost, including information on the school improvement research projects under section 2 of this act.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate the dissemination of information with the educational service districts and shall publish and distribute, on a monthly basis, a newsletter describing current activities and developments in education in the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each school district board of directors shall develop a schedule and process by which each public school within its jurisdiction shall undertake self-study procedures on a regular basis. Each school may follow the accreditation process developed by the state board of education under RCW 28A.04.120(4), although no school is required to file for actual accreditation, or the school may follow a self-study process developed locally. Whatever process is used must focus upon the quality and appropriateness of the school's educational program and the results of its operational efforts.

Any self-study process must include the participation of staff, parents, members of the community, and students, where appropriate to their age.

Emphasis throughout the process shall be placed upon:

- (1) Achieving educational excellence and equity;
- (2) Building stronger links with the community; and
- (3) Reaching consensus upon educational expectations through community involvement and corresponding school management.

The initial self-study process within each district shall begin by September 1, 1985, and should be completed for all schools within a district by the end of the 1989-90 school year.

The state board of education shall develop rules and regulations governing procedural criteria. Such rules and regulations should be flexible so as to accommodate local goals and circumstances. Rules and regulations may allow for waiver of the self-study for economic reasons and may also allow for waiver of the initial self-study if a district or its schools have participated successfully in an official accreditation process or in a similar assessment of educational programs within the last three years. The self-study process shall be conducted on a cyclical basis every seven years following the initial 1989-90 period.

The superintendent of public instruction shall provide training to assist districts in their self-studies.

Each district shall annually report to the superintendent of public instruction on the scheduling and implementation of their self-study activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The plan shall include components to develop management skills of board members, superintendents, principals, and other supervisory personnel. The plan should focus on developing leadership skills, curriculum improvement and upgrading, teacher evaluation and counseling, linkages with the community, enhancement of a positive learning environment, planning and goal setting, effective school research, finance, school law, and classroom management techniques and methods to make better use of the school day for learning and to reduce disruptions and nonteaching tasks for teachers.

The plan shall provide for the shared cost of the academy.

Sec. 7. Section 14, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 229, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.41.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student shall be determined in accordance with the following procedures:

The governor shall and the superintendent of public instruction may recommend to the legislature a formula based on a ratio of students to staff for the distribution of a basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student enrolled in a common school. The distribution formula shall have the primary objective of equalizing educational opportunities and shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various districts within the state:

- (1) Certificated staff and their related costs;
- (2) Classified staff and their related costs;
- (3) Nonsalary costs;
- (4) Extraordinary costs of remote and necessary schools and small high schools; and
- (5) The attendance of students pursuant to RCW 28A.58.075 and 28A.58.245, each as now or hereafter amended, who do not reside within the servicing school district.

This formula for distribution of basic education funds shall be reviewed biennially by the superintendent and governor. The recommended formula shall be subject to approval, amendment or rejection by the legislature. Commencing with the 1980-81 school year, the formula adopted by the legislature shall reflect a ratio of not less than fifty certificated personnel to one thousand annual average full time equivalent students and one classified person to three certificated personnel. In the event the legislature rejects the distribution formula recommended by the governor, without adopting a new distribution formula, the distribution formula for the previous school year shall remain in effect: PROVIDED, That the distribution formula developed pursuant to this section shall be for state apportionment and equalization purposes only and shall not be construed as mandating specific operational functions of local school districts other than those program requirements identified in RCW 28A.58.754. The enrollment of any district shall be the annual average number of full time equivalent students and part time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended, enrolled on the first school day of each month. The definition of full time equivalent student shall be determined by rules and regulations of the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That the definition shall be included as part of the superintendent's biennial budget request: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any revision of the present definition shall not take effect until approved by the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the office of financial management shall make a monthly review of the superintendent's reported full time equivalent students in the common schools in conjunction with RCW 43.62.050.

Certificated staff shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, educational staff associate, learning resources specialist, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated employees as defined under RCW 28A-.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent: PROVIDED, That in exceptional cases, people of unusual competence but without certification may teach students so long as a certificated person exercises general supervision: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the hiring of such noncertificated people shall not occur during a labor dispute and such noncertificated people shall not be hired to replace certificated employees during a labor dispute. Each annual average full time equivalent certificated classroom teacher's direct classroom contact hours shall average at least twenty-five hours per week. Direct classroom contact hours shall be exclusive of time required to be spent for preparation, conferences, or any other nonclassroom instruction duties. Up to two hundred minutes per week may be deducted from the twenty-five contact hour requirement, at the discretion of the school district board of directors, to accommodate authorized teacher/parent-guardian conferences, recess, passing time between classes, and informal instructional activity. Implementing rules to be adopted by the state board of education pursuant to RCW 28A.58.754(6) shall provide that compliance with the direct contact hour requirement shall be based upon teachers' normally assigned weekly instructional schedules, as assigned by the district administration. Additional record-keeping by classroom teachers as a means of accounting for contact hours shall not be required. However, upon request from the board of directors of any school district, the provisions relating to direct classroom contact hours for individual teachers in that district may be waived by the state board of education if the waiver is necessary to implement a locally approved plan for educational excellence and the waiver is limited to those individual teachers approved in the local plan for educational excellence. The state board of education shall develop criteria to evaluate the need for the waiver. Granting of the waiver shall depend upon verification that: (a) The students' classroom instructional time will not be reduced; and (b) the teacher's expertise is critical to the success of the local plan for excellence.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual teacher excellence award program for teachers in diverse grades or subject areas. Not more than one award per educational service district may be granted in any school year.

(2) The awards shall include:

- (a) Certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at public ceremonies in appropriate locations;
- (b) Waiver of tuition and fees under section 9 of this act; and
- (c) A stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses, which stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Teachers who have received a teacher excellence award under section 8 of this act shall have the tuition and fees waived at any state institution of higher education for eighteen quarter hours or twelve semester hours taken within three years after the award was received.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

School district boards of directors are encouraged to develop and implement incentives which recognize and encourage staff excellence. School districts may provide monetary incentives in the form of compensation to staff for additional work or assigned projects conducted in addition to a district's basic education program. Such compensation shall not be deemed an increase in salary or compensation for purposes of RCW 28A.58.095 nor shall such compensation be applied to the district's salary schedule or be provided in a manner which would increase the state's basic education funding obligation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) There is established for the 1984-85 school year a pilot program to permit up to one hundred fifty teachers who are assigned to supervise the field experience of student teachers to receive a stipend and up to three quarter hour credits or the equivalent at a state institution of higher education.

(2) The objective of the program is to: (a) Enhance the quality of teachers entering the profession through improved practical field experience; and (b) recognize the value of instruction provided by supervisory teachers.

(3) Each supervisory teacher shall assure that the student teacher receives practical teaching experience and direct supervision throughout the assignment.

(4) Each participating school or college of education shall provide training in supervisory skills for the supervisory teacher.

(5) School districts shall provide supervisory teachers with release time the district deems necessary to be able to supervise the student teachers.

(6) For the purposes of this section, "student teacher" means an individual who receives training experiences under supervision in school or school-related settings while participating in a teacher education program approved by the state board of education.

(7) The state board of education shall administer, coordinate, and evaluate the program and report back to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 15, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state board of education shall recommend a plan to establish a graduate level professional teacher preparation program for teacher certification. The plan shall be based on an analysis of the need for and design of: Explicit entry and exit competency criteria, which shall include testing and assessments of competency in various subject matters or in pedagogy including the ability to encourage students to learn and relate to others in a mutually respectful manner, or both; breadth and depth of subject matter; training and research relevant to teaching skills; extensive experience in local districts including internship, a portion of which may be paid; research on education; continued involvement of program units as defined by the state board of education; and other criteria as the board may determine appropriate. The state board shall also recommend enabling legislation and changes in certification needed to establish such program, provide data relative to costs, and recommend a process for certifying teachers who have been certified in another state. The state board of education shall submit to the legislature by December 1, 1984, recommendations for legislation required to implement such a graduate level professional teacher preparation program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After June 30, 1987, each applicant for initial certification shall have completed the necessary coursework and field training requirements, shall submit letters of evaluation from academic and field training supervisors, shall pass an examination or examinations that measure the applicant's subject area knowledge, and shall satisfy other procedures prescribed by the state board of education before receiving initial certification to teach or perform other professional duties in the schools of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The Washington state legislature intends to address the appropriate salary levels of teachers, for both current preparation standards and the increased professional preparation standards under section 12 of this act, to a level similar to persons in public and private occupations in this state holding positions requiring or imposing similar training, responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills, and working conditions. The superintendent of public instruction shall contract for a study to assist the legislature in a determination of those appropriate salary levels. The study shall compare teachers to public and private occupations on both an hourly wage basis and on an annual salary basis. The study shall be completed and the results reported to the legislature and the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management by January 1, 1985. The superintendent of public instruction shall also make available to the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, prior to the presentation of the final report, such data as may be developed in the compilation of the salary survey. The legislature is not obligated to implement any or all of the results contained in such study.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to equate credits for district in-service training with college credits for the purpose of salary allocation. Certificated employees may receive up to three additional education credits per year for advancement on the salary schedule for staff development courses taking place after September 1, 1985.

Each school district shall design, and implement a staff development plan under the In-Service Training Act of 1977, RCW 28A.71.200 and 28A.71.210.

The plan shall be established prior to September 1, 1985, and shall provide for staff development training programs which are of professional benefit to employees. School districts shall review and approve staff development training courses. Courses shall be recognized by a school district if such courses:

(1) Enable employees to maintain or improve proficiency in their current or anticipated assignments; or

(2) Respond to an area of district-needed expertise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Local districts shall assign secondary teachers holding initial level certificates to endorsed areas and levels only. Teachers holding initial level elementary endorsement shall be assigned to elementary grades only. MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 2, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has receded from its amendment to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1262 on page 8, line 11, and has passed the bill without the amendment, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL WITHOUT CERTAIN SENATE AMENDMENT

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1262 without the Senate amendment to page 8, line 11.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. J. King yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative King, does the language authorizing funds for CERB, 'and those projects which substantially support the trading of goods and services outside of the state's borders' preclude the use of CERB funds for tourism destination facilities?"

Mr. J. King: "No, Representative Tilly, the language referring to projects which support the trading of goods and services outside the state's borders would allow for CERB funding of infra structure improvements when it can be demonstrated that the primary purpose of the private sector development and expansion is to draw substantial business revenues from outside the state's borders. This is true even though the actual services are provided within the state. The tourism destination facility would qualify if it demonstrated that the facility would bring new revenues into the state from outside its borders."

Mr. Tilly spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1262 without the Senate amendment to page 8, line 11, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 2; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting nay: Representatives Fuhrman, Padden - 2.

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(2) The exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests or reveal trade secrets, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect trade secrets or any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

(5) Hazardous substance trade secret information is exempt from public inspection and copying while a trade secret claim is under review in accordance with section 9 of this 1984 act and after the trade secret claim is determined valid except to the extent such information must be disclosed for emergency medical purposes pursuant to section 9(2) of this 1984 act. POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. R. King.

Mr. R. King: "Representative Van Dyken, does your amendment in any way imply a conditioning of compliance with the act upon assistance from the department? Does it waive the obligations of businesses under the law dependent upon whether or not they receive assistance?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative King, the intent is to assure that employers will receive some type of assistance if they need it. The type of assistance will be as defined by the department. The amendment specifically directs the department in those instances where they cannot, due to time requirements, grant assistance to grant an extension. It is the intent of the bill, and it is my intention in working on this bill, that employers would have to comply with the provisions but there should be adequate time and understanding for the department to provide assistance. It is not designed in any way to be a loophole or to avoid compliance with the act. It's simply a provision for assistance, and once that assistance is provided, the employer would have to comply with the act."

Representative R. King spoke against the amendment to the committee amendment, and Representatives Pruitt and Patrick spoke in favor of it.

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Dellwo: "The only purpose of this act is to create a cause of action in order to compel compliance with the provisions of this chapter. It doesn't eliminate any common law or statutory cause of action as they exist today."

The amendment to the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Van Dyken moved adoption of the following amendment by Representatives Van Dyken and Dellwo to the committee amendment:

On page 34, line 8 after "chapter" insert "subject to the provisions of Title 51 RCW"

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Please let the record show that I am opposed to ESB 4607 as finally passed by the Legislature.

A much more careful review of section 3 will show that section 3 is outside the title and beyond the scope and object of the bill.

Furthermore, subsection (3) of section 3, along with the incorporation of radioactive wastes into the definition of dangerous wastes in subsection (1), appears to lead to requirements to remove spent nuclear fuels from reactor facilities within ninety days of their generation. This is clearly an attempt to preempt federal power in this matter and is, therefore, unconstitutional.

Unfortunately, my vote on final passage was recorded in error as a 'yes' vote.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4309, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 4, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 4309, prohibiting the sexual exploitation of children, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and that the amended bill do pass:

The care of children is a sacred trust and should not be abused by those who seek commercial gain or personal gratification based on the exploitation of children.

The legislature further finds that the protection of children from sexual exploitation can be accomplished without infringing on a constitutionally protected activity. The definition of 'sexually explicit conduct' and other operative definitions demarcate a line between protected and prohibited conduct and should not inhibit legitimate scientific, medical, or educational activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout the chapter.

(1) To 'photograph' means to make a print, negative, slide, motion picture, or videotape. A 'photograph' means any tangible item produced by photographing.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) A person is guilty of sexual exploitation of a minor if the person:

- (a) Compels a minor by threat or force to engage in sexually explicit conduct, knowing that such conduct will be photographed or part of a live performance;
- (b) Aids or causes a minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct, knowing that such conduct will be photographed or part of a live performance; or
- (c) Being a parent, legal guardian, or person having custody or control of a minor, permits the minor to engage in sexually explicit conduct, knowing that the conduct will be photographed or part of a live performance.

(2) Sexual exploitation of a minor is:

(a) A class B felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW if the minor exploited is less than sixteen years old at the time of the offense; and

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) A person who, in the course of processing or producing visual or printed matter either privately or commercially, has reasonable cause to believe that the visual or printed matter submitted for processing or producing depicts a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct shall immediately report such incident, or cause a report to be made, to the proper law enforcement agency. Persons failing to do so are guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(2) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under sixteen years of age.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. the time of the offense the defendant was not in possession of any facts on the basis of which he or she should reasonably have known that the person depicted was a minor.

(3) All personal property, moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property furnished or intended to be furnished by any person in exchange for visual or printed matter depicting a minor engaged in sexually explicit conduct, or constituting proceeds traceable to any violation of this chapter.

(2) In a prosecution under this section, if it is shown that all of the following factors are present in connection with the extension of credit, there is prima facie evidence that the extension of credit was extortionate:

(a) The repayment of the extension of credit, or the performance of any promise given in consideration thereof, would be unenforceable at the time the extension of credit was made through civil judicial processes against the debtor in the county in which the debtor, if a natural person, resided or in every county in which the debtor, if other than a natural person, was incorporated or qualified to do business.

(b) The extension of credit was made at a rate of interest in excess of an annual rate of forty-five percent calculated according to the actuarial method of allocating payments made on a debt between principal and interest, pursuant to which a payment is applied first to the accumulated interest and the balance is applied to the unpaid principal.

(c) At the time the extension of credit was made, the debtor reasonably believed that either of the following:

(i) One or more extensions of credit by the creditor had been collected or attempted to be collected by extortionate means, or the nonrepayment had been punished by extortionate means.

(ii) The creditor had a reputation for the use of extortionate means to collect extensions of credit or to punish the nonrepayment thereof.

(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence at the time the extension of credit in question was made of the circumstances described in section 2(2)(a) or (b) of this act, and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing that words or other means of communication, shown to have been employed as a means of collection, in fact carried an express or implicit threat, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation of the defendant in any community of which the person against whom the alleged threat was made was a member at the time of the collection or attempt at collection.

(4) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien shall, as soon as practical after filing a racketeering lien, furnish to any person named in the lien a notice of the filing of the lien. Failure to furnish notice under this subsection does not invalidate or otherwise affect a racketeering lien filed in accordance with this section.

(5) A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in personal property by filing the lien with the department of licensing. A racketeering lien is perfected against interests in real property by filing the lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located. The state may give such additional notice of the lien as it deems appropriate.

(6) The filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section creates a lien in favor of the state in:

(a) Any interest of the defendant, in real property situated in the county in which the lien is filed, then maintained, or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien;

(b) Any interest of the defendant, in personal property situated in this state, then maintained or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien; and

(c) Any property identified in the lien to the extent of the defendant's interest therein.

(7) The filing of a racketeering lien under this section is notice to all persons dealing with the person or property identified in the lien of the state's claim. The lien created in favor of the state in accordance with this section is superior and prior to the claims or interests of any other person, except a person possessing:

(a) A valid lien perfected prior to the filing of the racketeering lien;

(b) In the case of real property, an interest acquired and recorded prior to the filing of the racketeering lien; or

(c) In the case of personal property, an interest acquired prior to the filing of the racketeering lien.

(8) Upon entry of judgment in favor of the state, the state may proceed to execute thereon as in the case of any other judgment, except that in order to preserve the state's lien priority as provided in this section the state shall, in addition to such other notice as is required by law, give at least thirty days' notice of the execution to any person possessing at the time the notice is given, an interest recorded subsequent to the date the state's lien was perfected.

(9) Upon the entry of a final judgment in favor of the state providing for forfeiture of property to the state, the title of the state to the property:

(a) In the case of real property or a beneficial interest in real property, relates back to the date of filing the racketeering lien with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located or, if no racketeering lien is filed, then to the date of recording of the final judgment or the abstract thereof with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located; or

(b) In the case of personal property or a beneficial interest in personal property, relates back to the date the personal property was seized by the state, or the date of filing of a racketeering lien in accordance with this section, whichever is earlier, but if the property was not seized and no racketeering lien was filed then to the date the final judgment was filed with the department of licensing and, if the personal property is an aircraft, with the federal aviation administration.

(10) This section does not limit the right of the state to obtain any order or injunction, receivership, writ, attachment, garnishment, or other remedy authorized under section 10 of this act or appropriate to protect the interests of the state or available under other applicable law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A trustee who receives written notice that a lien notice has been recorded or a civil proceeding or criminal proceeding has been instituted against any person for whom the trustee holds legal or record title to real property, shall immediately furnish to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney the following:

(a) The name and address of the person, as known to the trustee;

(b) To the extent known to the trustee, the name and address of all other persons for whose benefit the trustee holds title to the real property; and

(c) If requested by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, a copy of the trust agreement or other instrument under which the trustee holds legal or record title to the real property.

(2) The recording of a lien notice shall not constitute a lien on the record title to real property owned by a trustee at the time of recording except to the extent that trustee is named in the lien notice. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may bring a civil proceeding in superior court against the trustee to recover from the trustee the amounts set forth in section 15 of this act. In addition to amounts recovered under section 15 of this act, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney also may recover its investigative costs and attorneys' fees.

(3) The recording of a lien notice does not affect the use to which real property or a beneficial interest owned by the person named in the lien notice may be put or the right of the person to receive any avails, rents, or other proceeds resulting from the use and ownership except the sale of the property, until a judgment of forfeiture is entered.

(4) This section does not apply to any conveyance by a trustee under a court order unless the court order is entered in an action between the trustee and the beneficiary.

(5) Unless a trustee receives written notice that a person having a beneficial interest in the trust is named in a lien notice or is otherwise a defendant in a civil proceeding, this section does not apply to:

(a) A conveyance by a trustee required under the terms of any trust agreement if the trust agreement is a matter of public record before a lien notice is filed; or

(b) A conveyance by a trustee to all persons who have a beneficial interest in the trust.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The term of a lien notice shall be six years from the date the lien notice is recorded. If a renewal lien notice is filed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, the term of the renewal lien notice shall be for six years from the date the renewal lien notice is recorded. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney is entitled to only one renewal of the lien notice.

(2) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien notice may release in whole or in part any lien notice or may release any specific property or beneficial interest from the lien notice upon such terms and conditions as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney considers appropriate. A release of a lien notice executed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney shall be recorded in the official records in which the lien notice covering that property was recorded. No charge or fee may be imposed for recording any release of a lien notice.

(3) (a) A person named in the lien notice may move the court in which the civil proceeding giving rise to the lien notice is pending for an order extinguishing the lien notice.

(b) Upon the motion of a person under (a) of this subsection, the court immediately shall enter an order setting a date for hearing, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days after the motion is filed. The order and a copy of the motion shall be served on the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney within three days after the entry of the court's order. At the hearing, the court shall take evidence on the issue of whether any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is covered by the lien notice or otherwise subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act. If the person shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the lien notice is not applicable to the person or that any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is not subject to forfeiture under section 12 of this act, the court shall enter a judgment extinguishing the lien notice or releasing the property or beneficial interest from the lien notice.

(c) The court may enter an order releasing from the lien notice any specific real property or beneficial interest if, at the time the lien notice is recorded, there is pending an arms length sale of the real property or beneficial interest in which the parties are under no undue compulsion to sell or buy and are able, willing, and reasonably well informed and the sale is for the fair market value of the real property or beneficial interest and the recording of the lien notice prevents the sale of the property or interest. The proceeds resulting from the sale of the real property or beneficial interest shall be deposited with the court, subject to the further order of the court.

(d) At the hearing held pursuant to (b) of this subsection, if the court releases from the lien notice any property or beneficial interest, the person shall post security equal to the fair market value of the property or beneficial interest owned by the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) If a trustee conveys title to real property for which, at the time of the conveyance, a lien notice has been recorded in the county in which the real property is situated and the notice names a person who the trustee knows holds a beneficial interest in the trust, the trustee shall be liable to the state for the greater of:

(a) The amount of proceeds received by the person named in the lien notice as a result of the conveyance;

(b) The amount of proceeds received by the trustee as a result of the conveyance and distributed by the trustee to the person named in the lien notice; or

(c) The fair market value of the interest of the person named in the lien notice in the real property so conveyed.

(2) If the trustee conveys the real property for which a lien notice has been recorded at the time of the conveyance and holds the proceeds that would otherwise be paid or distributed to the beneficiary or at the direction of the beneficiary or beneficiary's designee, the trustee's liability shall not exceed the amount of the proceeds so held so long as the trustee continues to hold the proceeds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A trustee who fails to comply with section 13(1) of this act is guilty of a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) A custodian of the records of a financial institution shall, at no expense to the financial institution, produce for inspection or copying the records in the custody of the financial institution when requested to be inspected by the attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney, provided the person requesting the information has served a subpoena issued by a court or obtained a court order for the information. The attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney or any peace officer or other person designated by the county prosecuting attorney or the attorney general shall be prohibited from using or releasing the information except in the proper discharge of official duties. If directed by the court in the subpoena or court order, neither the custodian nor any other employee of the institution shall disclose to the institution's customer the fact that the customer's records have been examined or copied. The furnishing of records in compliance with this section by a custodian of records is a bar to civil or criminal liability against the custodian or financial institution in any action brought alleging violation of the confidentiality of the records.

(2) Disclosure by the attorney general, county prosecuting attorney, or any peace officer designated by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney of information obtained under this section, except in the proper discharge of official duties, is a misdemeanor.

(3) Disclosure by the custodian or employee of the financial institution contrary to subsection (1) of this section is a misdemeanor.

(4) This section does not preclude the use of any other legally authorized means of obtaining the information.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. Locke moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652.

Mr. Locke spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Wilson spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Mr. Jacobsen.

Representative Jacobsen: "Representative Locke, one of the Senate amendments deleted subsection 2(b) of section 2, which prohibited combinations from being legal fireworks. Was it the intent of the Senate and is it the intent of the bill which you wrote to allow combinations to continue to be legal fireworks, specifically firecrackers?"

Mr. Locke: "That was not the intent of the Senate or the clear intent of the bill. The Senate Commerce & Labor Committee heard testimony indicating confusion on subsection 2(b) of section 2 of the bill. That subsection banned combinations where there was included in that combination, 'an item described in, or similar in effect to an item described in subsection (2)(a) of this section.' Subsection (2)(a) banned missiles, skyrockets, firecrackers, etc. As related to me by the Senate committee staff, the industry was particularly concerned about the phrase 'similar in effect to.' I attended the Senate committee hearing. The witnesses specifically asked whether or not an item was prohibited just because it made a noise. In other words, 'similar in effect to firecrackers.' The answer, of course, was 'No,' because certain fireworks, even safe and sane fireworks, make noise and are specifically permitted. The Senate committee staff felt that subsection 2(b) was not needed given the confusion because the ban on firecrackers is absolute. A firecracker, whether alone or in combination with a safe and sane item is still a firecracker and still banned under the bill passed by the House and amended by the Senate.

"Senator Vognild, who is the chairman of the Senate Commerce & Labor Committee, offered the amendment deleting this subsection (2)(b) in the committee. Senator Vognild, the Senate committee staff and myself and the House committee staff have discussed this particular issue and used missiles and skyrockets as an illustration. Let me briefly share that illustration with you. Missiles and skyrockets are specifically banned in this state. No one, not even the industry, has ever claimed that a combination containing a safe and sane item and a missile or skyrocket was ever legal. Just as missiles and skyrockets are illegal, no matter what the configuration, so are firecrackers illegal, even as a component of a combination with a safe and sane item or as a component of a mine or shell.

"Hearing the Senate debate on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652, a question and answer involving Senator Vognild was to have taken place. The question clarified this particular issue, but that question and answer did not take place because Senator Vognild misplaced it along with an amendment he planned to offer to improve the amendment banning advertisement, which amendment he had successfully offered in the Senate committee. With his permission I now read that copy of that question and answer furnished to me:

"Question: Senator Vognild, would you clarify a point for me? As I understand it, some fireworks items such as mines and shells contain firecrackers as a part of their component. Is it correct that this type of combination would be unlawful?"

"Answer: That is correct. This bill would make all firecrackers unlawful whether they were used alone or in combination with other items.

"In summary, a firework is not banned under ESHB 1652 just because it makes noise. Not everything making a noise is a firecracker. 'Firecrackers' are specifically defined in federal law and the Washington Administrative Code, but items, whether mines or shells or combinations, containing firecrackers and other illegal fireworks are banned. Industry will not be able to tie together a safe and sane item with one or one hundred firecrackers and then slyly pass it off as a legal item."

Ms. Brough spoke in favor of the bill, and Mr. R. King spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Mr. Appelwick.

Mr. Appelwick: "Representative Locke, I'm concerned about the effect of section 7(4) which reads: 'Any local rules adopted by local authorities that are more restrictive than state law as to the types of fireworks that may be sold shall have an effective date no sooner than one year after their adoption.' I guess what I need to understand is, is this a change in the law? To the extent of the deferral by one year, that is, is this changing the regulation, the state regulation, of local laws pertaining to the sale of fireworks?"

Mr. Locke: "Yes, Representative Appelwick, that particular section says that cities or towns would have to wait one year if they were to make a law more restrictive as to the sale of items. It in no way affects the authority of local governments to regulate possession or use of any fireworks item, including firecrackers."

Mr. Appelwick: "It only affects sales?"

Mr. Locke: "It only affects sales."

Representatives Appelwick, J. King and Tilly spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. Wilson again opposed the motion to concur, and Mr. Locke again spoke in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 71; nays, 26; absent, 1; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barrett, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, Kreidler, Locke, Long, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Sanders, Sayan, Schoon, Silver, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 71.

Voting nay: Representatives Barnes, Bond, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Haisan, Hankins, Isaacson, King P, King R, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Rust, Schmidt, Scott, Smith C, Smith L, Sutherland, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 26.

Absent: Representative Lewis - 1.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652 as amended by the Senate.

Representatives Locke, Patrick, Zellinsky, Braddock, Taylor and Brough spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Wilson, Gallagher, Clayton, Sanders and Bond spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Locke yielded to question by Mr. G. Nelson.

Mr. G. Nelson: "Representative Locke, because of the Senate action in adding a new section, it states that in an action based on fault speaking to recovered damages for injuries to persons or harm to property resulting from the sale of fireworks and violation of this chapter, and it goes on to talk about contributory fault, etc. Will this measure, if passed, now allow a person in the State of Washington who happens to have purchased fireworks--say firecrackers--from an Indian reservation, to be in a position to have a claim, file suit, against the person or persons who sold those fireworks from the Indian reservation if there were injury to persons or property?"

Mr. Locke: "The section you quoted, in the bill itself, would not apply to that situation. Instead, I believe, that there would be a course of action under federal law and under state law, but not emanating from that section which you read, which would allow a cause of action in some cases against fireworks sold from Indian reservations that have resulted in injuries. There would have to be a fireworks, I believe, that violates federal law. There are some federal laws that allow different things, and so if that item sold or purchased violated federal law, I believe there would be some course of action."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652 as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 78; nays, 19; absent, 1; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, Kreidler, Locke, Long, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Williams J, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 78.

Voting nay: Representatives Bond, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Halsan, Hankins, Isaacson, King R, Mitchell, Nealey, Padden, Scott, Smith C, Sutherland, West, Williams B, Wilson - 19.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652 as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 105 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 36, chapter 78, Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.12.201 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of a county may elect, by giving written notice to the director and the treasurer prior to January 1st of any year, to obtain for the following year an amount in lieu of real property taxes on game lands ~~((equal to that which would be paid on similar parcels of real property situated in the county))~~ as provided in RCW 77.12.203. Upon the election, all fines and forfeitures received by the county during that year under RCW 77.12.170 shall be deposited in the state treasury to be credited to the state game fund. The election shall continue until the department is notified differently prior to January 1st of any year.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 97, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 37, chapter 78, Laws of 1980 and RCW 77.12.203 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding RCW 84.36.010 or other statutes to the contrary, the director shall pay by April 30th of each year on game lands in each county, if requested by an election under RCW 77.12.201, an amount in lieu of real property taxes equal to that amount paid on similar parcels of ((real property subject to real property taxes)) open space land taxable under chapter 84.34 RCW or the greater of seventy cents per acre per year or the amount paid in 1984 plus an additional amount for control of noxious weeds equal to that which would be paid if such lands were privately owned. This amount shall not be assessed or paid on department buildings, structures, facilities, game farms, fish hatcheries, tidelands, or public fishing areas of less than one hundred acres.

'Game lands,' as used in this section and RCW 77.12.201, means those tracts one hundred acres or larger owned in fee by the department and used for wildlife habitat and public recreational purposes. All lands purchased for wildlife habitat, public access or recreation purposes with federal funds in the Snake River drainage basin shall be considered game lands regardless of acreage.

~~((The director has the same rights of appeal and adjustment of taxes or assessments as do other owners of real property:~~

~~Upon election by the county legislative authority to receive an amount in lieu of real property taxes, the county assessor shall enter the property on the tax rolls and the department shall pay the amount due as others pay taxes on their real property in the county:))~~ and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. Belcher moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 105.

Ms. Belcher spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Mitchell yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Mitchell, on page 2 of the Senate amendment, on line 17, I'm concerned about what the words mean, 'or the amount paid in 1984.' When we are talking about in-lieu-of moneys that the Game Department pays, what is your understanding? Does that mean so many cents per acre they are paying or does it mean the total tax bill for a parcel of land?"

Mr. Mitchell: "My interpretation is that it would be seventy cents per acre per parcel."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Belcher yielded to question by Mr. Tilly.

Mr. Tilly: "Representative Belcher, I'm concerned about what the words mean when it talks about the amount paid in 1984. Does that refer to the cents per acre they are paying on all their parcels, or does it mean the total amount of money?"

Ms. Belcher: "That refers to the total amount of money that was paid and that was specifically included so that those counties that are currently receiving large payments from the Game Department would not lose by going to a seventy cents per acre amount. They would continue to receive a payment not less than the amount they are currently being paid for their taxes from the Game Department, so it would, in some cases, be much more than seventy cents per acre."

The motion was carried.

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House reverted to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4416, by Committee on Commerce & Labor (originally sponsored by Senators Newhouse, Vognlid, Quigg, McManus, Moore and McDonald; by Department of Employment Security request)

Modifying provisions relating to unemployment insurance.

The House resumed consideration of the bill on second reading. (For previous action, see Journal, 52nd Day, February 29, 1984.)

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendments by Representative Ballard and others to page 12.

Mr. Ballard spoke in favor of the amendments.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Bond: "Mr. Speaker and members of the House, being one of the sponsors of these amendments, I want to take a few brief moments to explain a few things about them. I'm very disappointed that it has been withdrawn. My part in sponsoring it had absolutely no consideration that it was put up there as a bargaining device or anything else. My purpose in sponsoring it was because my constituents want this. They consider unemployment compensation benefits to strikers to be a major obscenity in state law in this state. I have talked to a number of them over the last three or four days when all the scurrying around has been going on and they are very supportive. A number of businessmen, of which I am one--by the way, losing this bill will probably cost me a lot of money and I considered that as one of the risks and decided that it was a reasonable risk--most of them felt the same way. I understand the difficulties and what appears to be the impossibility of getting this amendment attached to the bill. Therefore, I concede to withdrawing it, but I want to state that any one of you in virtually every district if you ask in a survey if they think that it is appropriate for people who voluntarily work to go on strike to then be rewarded by the taxpayer with unemployment benefits, they would tell you very strongly that they oppose that. That's the reason why this amendment should be adopted."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Van Dyken: "I do not wish to address the merits or the demerits of the issue surrounding the controversy. All of us have feelings on that. We are entitled to those. I would like to speak about the impact of the process. I have a great respect for this institution and for this body. This is, by nature, not an executive branch, but a legislative branch and that implies a particular deliberative process in which we go through committees; we try to perfect; we add amendments; we take things into consideration. That perfecting deliberative process is part of what makes this a good and proper representative body. When we erode that opportunity, we erode the legitimacy of this body and that concerns me. I have been on this floor and I have opposed amendments in a delicately balanced bill because I was afraid of what the other body might do to it, and I have urged members to vote 'no,' but it's a significant step to say that we should not even vote on it. I stood here and watched a bill that I cared about very deeply (the ethics bill some years back) -- watched the amendatory process love the bill to death and I grieved over that, but I would not say that we should prohibit the amendatory process despite its errant political occasional runs. My concern is not so much over whether or not we offer this particular amendment, although I feel strongly about that; I have a deeper concern about the privilege of this body to consider public policy on the floor; take tough votes if necessary, yes, even tough political votes, in order to defend the higher principals on even the delicately balanced package, but I hope this does not repeat itself or become customary in this body."

On motion of Mr. Wang, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Representatives R. King, Clayton and Hastings spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Belcher yielded to question by Mr. Patrick.

Mr. Patrick: "Representative Belcher, is it the intent of subsection 2(e) of section 9 to require an employer signature before an employer contact will count as one of the five required contacts in order for a claimant to remain eligible for benefits?"

Ms. Belcher: "No, the intent is to provide for an employer signature on forms the claimant must use to verify work search. The forms will also give employers an opportunity to comment on the claimant's preparedness for work. In order to avoid being too burdensome on employers and on claimants, a signature will not be required in all circumstances, such as when an employer may refuse to sign or is unavailable to sign. In such circumstances the requirement of a signature could lead to an unjustifiable denial of benefits. The claimant still has to list the contact and it is subject to verification by the department."

Representatives G. Nelson, Heck and Bond spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4416, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Chamley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D. Nelson G. Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C. Smith L. Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B. Williams J. Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 98.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 4416, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4831 AS AMENDED BY THE HOUSE, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senators Talmadge, Kiskaddon, Hughes, Bluechel, Rasmussen, Williams, Pullen, Wojahn, Goltz, Bender, Hurley, Hemstad, Fuller and Zimmerman)

Establishing a program for disclosure of information regarding hazardous substances in the workplace.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Representatives Rust and Patrick spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rust yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Representative Rust, is it your intent that legend or prescription drugs or controlled substances held in the inventory and dispensed by a licensed pharmacist at the retail level be included in the list of hazardous substances developed by the Department of Labor and Industries in accordance with section 5 of this bill?"

Ms. Rust: "Representative Mitchell, legend or prescription drugs or controlled substances are not explicitly included in section 5. Your question arises from the language which states that the department could include, on the hazardous substance list, any other substance that the department--based on documented scientific evidence--determined may pose a threat to the health and safety of an employee. There is no intent to include substances such as legend or prescription drugs and controlled substances which already have extensive regulation designed to protect the health and safety of the employees as well as the retail customers."

Mr. Mitchell spoke in favor of passage of the bill, and Representatives Struthers, Isaacson and C. Smith spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Rust yielded to question by Mr. Walk.

Mr. Walk: "As Chairman of the House Transportation Committee, I am concerned as to the application of this law to transporters of hazardous substances. There are two distinct types of employees in the transportation industry. One group would be people in the shop who might be dealing with spray painting of vehicles or using cleaning solvents in working with engine parts or, in various other ways, working as the user or consumer of the commodities involved. The other group is comprised of those engaged exclusively in the transportation of these materials and who are not exposed to the materials as users or consumers. Those people employed in transporting as drivers, engineers and pilots are already regulated and protected by the Federal Department of Transportation, Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission, or the International Maritime Organization of the United Nations.

"Representative Rust, I have two questions: First, I believe you have indicated previously the definition of 'work place' contained in the law excludes moving vehicles through its wording 'work place' means an establishment 'at one geographical location containing one or more work areas.' Is this correct?"

"Second, is it the intent of this bill that the 'extensive education and training programs' to be provided to these individuals directly involved in the transportation of hazardous substances be directed to their response procedures to accidents resulting in spillage of these commodities in transport, rather than attempting to require a knowledge of the many thousands of items which they could, conceivably, be required to transport during the normal course of their work?"

Ms. Rust: "That is correct, Representative Walk."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Brekke yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Brekke, in section 24, subsection 2 of page 35, line 34, the Department of Labor and Industries is authorized to adopt a fee schedule. Concern has been expressed that the bill does not expressly require public notice of hearings. For the record, will you assure me that it is the intent of the legislature that notice will be required by the department if they adopt a fee schedule?"

Ms. Brekke: "Yes, it is certainly the intent, I believe, on behalf of the legislature, and certainly of the committee members. My reassurance from Labor and Industries' representative that they will, in fact, use the Administrative Code to do that."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Section 24, page 35, line 34 establishes the worker and community right-to-know fund and authorizes the department to establish a fee schedule to raise money for the fund. Expenditure from the fund is subject to legislative appropriation. For the record, can you assure me that it is the intent of the legislature that the department shall set these schedules to bring in only as much money as the legislature appropriates to the department? Furthermore, can you assure me that the legislature does not intend that the fee schedule will generate a surplus in the fund in excess of the annual cost of administering the program?"

Ms. Brekke: "I believe again that the legislature has no intention of socking money away in any fund that is not being used and also it is the assurance by the representative of Labor and Industries that they do not intend to set a fee higher than they have asked to be appropriated."

Representatives Van Dyken, Sutherland and Pruitt spoke in favor of the bill, and Representatives Dickie and Clayton spoke against it.

Mr. Padden demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4831 as amended by the House, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 77; nays, 21; excused, 0.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4448, authorizing certain minor health care services, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. It is in the public interest that limited authority to administer skin tests and subcutaneous, intradermal, intramuscular, and intravenous injections and to perform minor invasive procedures to withdraw blood in this state be granted to health care assistants who are not so authorized under existing licensing statutes, subject to such regulations as will assure the protection of the health and safety of the patient.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. As used in this chapter:

- (1) 'Director' means the director of licensing.
- (2) 'Health care assistant' means an unlicensed person who assists a licensed health care practitioner in providing health care to patients pursuant to this chapter.
- (3) 'Health care practitioner' means a physician licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW, an osteopathic physician or surgeon licensed under chapter 18.57 RCW, or, acting within the scope of their respective licenses, a podiatrist licensed under chapter 18.22 RCW or a registered nurse licensed under chapter 18.88 RCW.
- (4) 'Supervision' means supervision of procedures permitted pursuant to this chapter by a health care practitioner who is physically present and is immediately available in the facility during the administration of injections, as defined in this chapter, but need not be present during procedures to withdraw blood.
- (5) 'Health care facility' means any hospital, hospice care center, licensed or certified health care facility, health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 48.46 RCW, federally qualified health maintenance organization, renal dialysis center or facility federally approved under 42 C.F.R. 405.2100, or blood bank federally licensed under 21 C.F.R. 607.
- (6) 'Delegation' means direct authorization granted by a licensed health care practitioner to a health care assistant to perform the functions authorized in this chapter which fall within the scope of practice of the delegator and which are not within the scope of practice of the delegatee.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. A certification issued to a health care assistant pursuant to this chapter shall be authority to perform only the functions authorized in section 1 of this act subject to proper delegation and supervision in the health care facility making the certification or under the supervision of the certifying health care practitioner in other health care facilities or in his or her office. No certification made by one health care facility or health care practitioner is transferrable to another health care facility or health care practitioner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The director, or the director's designee, with the advice of designees of the board of medical examiners, the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery, the podiatry board, and the board of nursing, shall adopt rules necessary to administer, implement, and enforce this chapter and establish the minimum uniform requirements necessary for a health care facility or health care practitioner to certify a health care assistant capable of performing the functions authorized in this chapter. These requirements shall ensure that the public health and welfare are protected and shall include, but not be limited to, the following factors:

(1) The education and occupational qualifications of the health care assistant including types and limitation of drugs or diagnostic agents which may be administered by injection by a health care assistant;

(2) The work experience of the health care assistant; and

(3) The instruction and training provided to the health care assistant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Any health care facility may certify a health care assistant to perform the functions authorized in this chapter in that health care facility; and any health care practitioner may certify a health care assistant capable of performing such services in any health care facility, or in his or her office, under a health care practitioner's supervision. Before certifying the health care assistant, the health care facility or health care practitioner shall verify that the health care assistant has met the minimum requirements established by the director under this chapter. These requirements shall not prevent the certifying entity from imposing such additional standards as the certifying entity considers appropriate. The health care facility or health care practitioner shall provide the licensing authority with a certified roster of health care assistants who are certified.

(2) Certification of a health care assistant shall be effective for a period of two years. Recertification is required at the end of this period. Requirements for recertification shall be established by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Any health care assistant certified pursuant to this chapter shall perform the functions authorized in this chapter only by delegation of authority from the health care practitioner and under the supervision of a health care practitioner acting within the scope of his or her license. In the case of subcutaneous, intradermal and intramuscular and intravenous injections, a health care assistant may perform such functions only under the supervision of a health care practitioner having authority, within the scope of his or her license, to order such procedures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The licensing authority of health care facilities or the disciplinary board of the delegating or supervising health care practitioner shall investigate all complaints or allegations of violations of proper certification of a health care assistant or violations of delegation of authority or supervision. A substantiated violation shall constitute sufficient cause for disciplinary action by the licensing authority of a health care facility or the disciplinary board of the health care practitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director or the director's designee shall decertify a health care assistant based on a finding that the assistant has obtained certification through misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact or has engaged in unsafe or negligent practices.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The performance of the functions authorized in this chapter by a health care assistant pursuant to this chapter does not constitute unlicensed practice as a health care practitioner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The department of licensing shall provide to the legislature on January 3, 1985, a report on the standards and rules established to implement sections 1 through 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 18.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A person licensed to practice drugless healing as a naturopathic physician may draw blood for diagnostic purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 18 RCW.

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "services;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "adding a new chapter to Title 18 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 18.36 RCW; and creating a new section."

Signed by Senators McManus, Deccio, Gaspard; Representatives Kreidler, McClure, Mitchell.

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto (~~other than RCW 70.94.205~~;) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than ~~((two hundred fifty))~~ one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, or by both fine and imprisonment for each separate violation. ~~((Each day upon which such violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation.))~~

Any person who wilfully violates any of the provisions of this chapter or any ordinance, resolution, rule or regulation in force pursuant thereto shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

~~((Each day upon which such willful violation occurs shall constitute a separate offense.))~~ Upon conviction the offender shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars for each offense(:

~~Any person who willfully violates RCW 70.94.205 or any other provision of this act shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.))~~ or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year or by both fine and imprisonment.

In case of a continuing violation, whether or not willfully committed, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation.

Sec. 2. Section 53, chapter 168, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 176, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.94.431 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to or as an alternate to any other penalty provided by law, any person who violates any of the provisions of chapter 70.94 RCW or any of the rules and regulations of the department or the board shall incur a penalty in the form of a fine in an amount not to exceed ~~((two hundred fifty))~~ one thousand dollars per day for each violation. Each such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation, each day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. For the purposes of this subsection, the maximum daily fine imposed by a local board for violations of standards by a specific emissions unit is one thousand dollars.

(2) Further, the person is subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars to be levied by the director of the department of ecology if requested by the board of a local authority or if the director determines that the penalty is needed for effective enforcement of this chapter. A local board shall not make such a request until notice of violation and compliance order procedures have been exhausted, if such procedures are applicable. For the purposes of this subsection, the maximum daily fine imposed by the department of ecology for violations of standards by a specific emissions unit is five thousand dollars.

(3) Each act of commission or omission which procures, aids or abets in the violation shall be considered a violation under the provisions of this section and subject to the same penalty. Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the penalty shall become due and payable when the person incurring the same receives a notice in writing from the director or his designee or the control officer of the authority or his designee describing the violation with reasonable particularity and advising such person that the penalty is due unless a request is made for a hearing to the hearings board as provided for in chapter 43.21B RCW. When a request is made for a hearing, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order affirming the penalty in whole or part. If the amount of such penalty is not paid to the department or the board within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, and a request for a hearing has not been made, the attorney general, upon the request of the director or his designee, or the attorney for the local authority, upon request of the board or control officer, shall bring an action to recover such penalty in the superior court of the county in which the violation occurred. All penalties recovered under this section by the state board shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund or, if recovered by the authority, fifty percent shall be paid into the treasury of the authority and credited to its funds and fifty percent shall be distributed to the cities, towns and counties within the authority, on a pro rata basis, as each contributes to support the authority pursuant to RCW 70.94.093. If a prior penalty for the same violation has been paid to a local authority, the penalty imposed under subsection (2) of this section shall be reduced by the amount of the payment. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, no penalty may be levied for the violation of any opacity standard in an amount exceeding four hundred dollars per day.

(4) If a penalty is levied under subsection (2) of this section, the director or the director's authorized delegate may, upon written application therefor received within fifteen days after the notice imposing any penalty is received by the person incurring the penalty, and when deemed in the best interest to carry out the purposes of this chapter, remit or mitigate any penalty provided in this section upon such terms as the director in the director's discretion deems proper, and may ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as the director deems proper. The mitigation shall not affect or reduce the penalty imposed by the local board. Any person incurring any penalty under this section may appeal the same to the hearings board as provided in chapter 43.21B RCW. Appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice imposing any penalty unless an application for remission or mitigation is made to the department. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, appeals shall be filed within thirty days of receipt of notice from the director or the director's authorized delegate setting forth the disposition of the application. Any penalty imposed under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or an appeal is filed. When an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred under this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of the application unless an appeal is filed from the disposition. Whenever an appeal of any penalty incurred under this section is filed, the penalty shall become due and payable only upon completion of all review proceedings and the issuance of a final order confirming the penalty in whole or in part. If the amount of any penalty is not paid to the department within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the director, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county or of any county in which the violator may do business, to recover the penalty. In all such actions the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as for an ordinary civil action except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

To secure the penalty incurred under this section, the state or the authority shall have a lien on any vessel used or operated in violation of this chapter which shall be enforced as provided in RCW 60.36.050.

In all actions brought in the superior court for the recovery of penalties hereunder, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in an ordinary civil action."

Mr. Pruitt yielded to question by Mr. J. Williams.

Mr. J. Williams: "Representative Pruitt, on page 1, after line 19 in subsection (3), it says: 'For the purposes of this section, "yard sign" means any out door sign with dimensions greater than eight feet by four feet.' Would this preclude any legislative candidate from engaging the services of an outdoor advertising company for a billboard?"

Mr. Pruitt: "No, this does not preclude that. This is directed to signs in yards that won't have to have that identification. It is not precluding any signs, but I think if they are larger than this you will probably need to put your identification on them. It doesn't preclude any signs, however."

The board shall consider the public safety, the detrimental effect of overcrowding upon inmate rehabilitation, and the best allocation of limited correctional facility resources. Guidelines adopted under this subsection shall be submitted to the senate institutions and house of representatives social and health services committees for their review. This subsection does not require the board to reduce inmate population to or below any certain number. The board may also take any other action authorized by law to modify the terms of prisoners under its jurisdiction:

(3) Call the clemency and pardons board into an emergency meeting for the purpose of recommending whether the governor's commutation or pardon power should be exercised to meet the present emergency.

The superintendents shall encourage groups conducting such programs outside the institutions to participate in such programs inside the institution. An employee at each correctional institution shall be designated to coordinate the programs mandated in this subsection.

(c) The department shall contract with appropriate counties for the use of up to 200 beds in county jails. Contracted jail space shall be used for inmates who have not fully entered the state prison system and for inmates who are nearing their release date who are not appropriate for parole, work release, or early release.

(3) ADMINISTRATION AND PROGRAM SUPPORT

General Fund Appropriation—State	$	13,278,000
General Fund—Institutional Impact Account Appropriation	$	865,000
Total Appropriation	$	14,143,000

The appropriations in this subsection are subject to the following conditions and limitations: $1,480,000 is provided solely for the one-time cost impact to communities associated with locating additional state correctional facilities and for the one-time cost impact associated with the double bunking at the Washington Corrections Center due to the significant increase in the inmate population and the consequent impact on the community.

(4) INSTITUTIONAL INDUSTRIES

General Fund Appropriation	$	5,463,000
----------------------------	----	-----------

(5) The appropriations in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section are made solely for those purposes and no transfer shall be made among said subsections.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The sentencing reform act of 1981 which established the sentencing guidelines commission and directed the commission to devise a system of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses, required the commission, in setting the standards, to emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(2) There is a need to plan and develop a system through which alternatives to total confinement can be used to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes but who, in the judgment of the courts and appropriate corrections personnel, can best serve their sentences without substantial danger to the community in local community programs rather than in state prisons or local jails.

(3) The department of corrections, which, under RCW 72.09.060 and 72.09.100(5), is charged with developing, establishing, and administering community service programs state-wide, has the expertise, and personnel to enable the development of a comprehensive system of alternative programs for nonviolent offenders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 4 through 8 of this act.

(1) 'Department' means the department of corrections.

(2) 'Secretary' means the secretary of corrections.

(3) 'Alternatives to total confinement' means residential and nonresidential programs that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW and that are operated by the department or local government entities to serve nonviolent offenders who have been convicted of crimes, in lieu of incarceration in state prisons or local jails.

(4) 'Nonviolent offender' means any person convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense under chapter 9.94A RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The department shall formulate a comprehensive plan for the development, implementation, and operation of alternatives to total confinement for nonviolent offenders, that meet the definitional requirements of the five categories of sanctions established under chapter 9.94A RCW.

The plan shall be submitted to the appropriate standing committee of the house of representatives and the senate for review by December 1, 1984. The plan shall include, but is not limited to:

(1) The establishment of goals and objectives for the development, implementation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement;

(2) An identification and evaluation of current state and local alternatives to total confinement, including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service programs authorized under RCW 72.09.100(5);

(3) An evaluation of the existing organizational structure and of the services provided by the department's division of community services and its role in providing or administering programs that are alternatives to total confinement after July 1, 1984;

(4) The establishment of policies and procedures to improve and expand existing alternatives to total confinement including, but not limited to, probation-type services and court-ordered community service, and to develop new alternatives to total confinement. Policies and procedures on program site selection, offender intake assessment, program and offender monitoring, and evaluating and reporting the effectiveness of alternatives to total confinement should be included;

(5) The identification of the projected numbers of nonviolent offenders who may be eligible for alternatives to total confinement;

(6) A delineation of the role and functions of affected state and local government entities and state and local service providers with respect to the administration and operation of programs that are alternatives to total confinement;

(7) The identification of funding sources, funding responsibility, and costs associated with alternatives to total confinement and how funding for such programs can occur within state and local budget limitations;

(8) An analysis of the legal liability of state and local government entities and private sector service providers, and a determination of what types of insurance or other mechanisms are available to provide legal and financial safeguards;

(9) An identification of the statutory changes which may be necessary to permit full implementation of the plan; and

(10) An analysis of the role local correctional facilities should assume under chapter 9.94A RCW. The analysis shall determine: (a) Whether the state should assume financial responsibility for operating local correctional facilities, (b) whether the state should contract for county jail beds to house state prisoners, (c) whether new jail facilities have adequate programs to meet the needs of state prisoners, and (d) the feasibility of counties using minimum security facilities for low-risk offenders.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The department, in developing the plan, shall consult with and receive input from representatives of affected state and local government entities including the governor's interagency criminal justice work group, correctional organizations and associations, prosecuting attorneys, the defense bar, the legislature, private nonprofit agencies, and private citizens. The plan shall be submitted to the governor's interagency criminal justice work group for review prior to the submission of such plan to the legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The department's plan for the development, implementation, operation, and expansion of alternatives to total confinement shall reflect regional differences. The department shall consult with and receive input from affected agencies, organizations, service providers, and individuals working at the regional level.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The department, in developing the plan, may request from the office of financial management, the board of prison terms and paroles, the administrator for the courts, the sentencing guidelines commission, the corrections standards board, and the department of social and health services such staff assistance, data, information, and data processing assistance as it may need to accomplish its task, and such services shall be provided without cost to the department.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 72.09 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In recognition of prison overcrowding and the hazardous nature of employment in state correctional institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse employees of the department of corrections for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of inmate assaults. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(2) An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of corrections, or the secretary's designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) An inmate has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work; and

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment.

(3) The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;

(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and,

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall be reimbursed in an amount which, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving full pay for the workdays missed.

(4) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury.

(5) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (3) of this section for any workday for which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(6) The reimbursement shall only be made for absences which the secretary, or the secretary's designee, believes are justified.

(7) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and the reimbursement amount shall be considered as salary or wages.

(8) All reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section shall be made by the department of corrections. The payments shall be considered as a salary or wage expense and shall be paid by the department in the same manner and from the same appropriations as other salary and wage expenses of the department.

(9) Should the legislature revoke the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled thereafter to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of corrections for the period ending December 30, 1984, the sum of forty-five thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 3 through 8 of this act shall expire December 30, 1984."

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The director of planning and community affairs shall make loans to cities, towns, counties, and special purpose districts of the state for the construction, replacement, rehabilitation, or improvement of roads, bridges, sewers, water systems, dams, lighting, signalization, and traffic flow systems from moneys appropriated therefor from the public works assistance account under section 2 of this act. Repayments of loans made under this section and the interest thereon shall be deposited in the public works assistance account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The public works assistance account is hereby established in the general fund. At the beginning of each biennium after June 30, 1985, the state treasurer shall transfer from the general fund to the public works assistance account an amount of money which, when combined with money remaining in the account from the previous biennium excluding proceeds from the sale of bonds, will equal ten million dollars.

(2) Moneys in the public works assistance account may be spent only for payment of the principal and interest on bonds issued under section 3 of this act, and other purposes related to loans under section 1 of this act as specified by legislative appropriation.

(3) Bonds for which revenues to the public works assistance account have been pledged shall not be issued if such bonds will cause the aggregate debt for which revenues to the public works assistance account will be pledged to exceed that amount for which payments of principal and interest in any fiscal year will equal projected revenues to the public works assistance account for that fiscal year. However, bonds for which revenues to the public works assistance account have been pledged are general obligations of the state of Washington and shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due. The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The director of planning and community affairs shall report to the secretary of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives by January, 1985, on the financing, management, and standards to be used in determining the allocation and distribution of moneys under section 1 of this act. The report shall include, but not be limited to, recommendations on the following:

(1) The administration of the public works assistance account, including the membership, terms, powers, and duties of an independent state public works board to review and approve projects;

(2) The most appropriate use of public works assistance account revenues;

(3) Criteria and procedures for approval of public works projects, with top priority given to projects which (a) protect public health and safety, (b) aid communities affected by natural disasters, (c) assist local areas affected by federal projects, (d) attract new employers or expand existing businesses, or (e) facilitate transportation;

(4) Financial terms and matching requirements for local governments; and

(5) Audit and reporting systems.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. There is appropriated from the general fund to the planning and community affairs agency for the biennium ending June 30, 1985:

(1) The sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act; and

(2) The sum of one hundred thirty-eight thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purposes of developing and maintaining an on-going evaluation system and to provide technical assistance to local government under chapter 231, Laws of 1983.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except sections 1 and 2 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1985."

SB 4422 Prime Sponsor, Senator Fleming: Authorizing bonds for agricultural water supply facilities. Reported by Committee on Ways & Means

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the agricultural industry in the state of Washington provides the foundation upon which other segments of the state's economy are based. The long-range economic well-being of the state of Washington's agricultural industry requires that agricultural water supply systems be well maintained and in efficient working order and that expansion of agricultural water supply systems be well planned in order to produce general expansion of the state's economy, create jobs, and provide local and state tax revenues.

The legislature finds that properly planned agricultural water supply projects will also provide benefits to recreation and game and fishery resources. The purpose of this chapter is to assist in the maintenance and development of this important basic industry, assist in attracting federal funds, and promote the general welfare of the citizens of the state of Washington.

It is the intent of the legislature that allocation of waters meet the criteria of the water resources act of 1971 as specified in RCW 90.54.020(2).

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. For the purpose of providing funds for capital improvements consisting of the planning, acquisition, construction, and improvement of agricultural water supply facilities within the state, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of forty million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance these projects and all costs incidental thereto. Bonds authorized in this section may be sold at such price as the state finance committee shall determine. No bonds authorized in this section may be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation of the net proceeds of the sale of the bonds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized in section 2 of this act shall be deposited in the state and local improvements revolving account--water supply facilities in the general fund and shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in sections 1 through 8 of this act and for the payment of expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds deposited under section 3 of this act in the state and local improvements revolving account--water supply facilities of the general fund shall be used for water supply facilities for agricultural use alone or in combination with fishery, recreational, or other beneficial uses of water, and shall be administered by the department of ecology, subject to legislative appropriation. The department of ecology shall submit a cost benefit analysis for each water supply facility project proposed to be funded in whole or in part from the proceeds of the bonds authorized in section 2 of this act. The benefit cost analysis shall be a part of the department's request for appropriation. The department of ecology may use or permit the use of any funds derived from the sale of bonds authorized in section 2 of this act to accomplish the purpose for the issuance of the bonds by direct expenditures and by grants or loans to public bodies, including grants to public bodies as matching funds in any case where federal, local, or other funds are made available on a matching basis for improvements within the purposes of sections 1 through 8 of this act. Not more than twenty-five percent of the total cost of any project may be financed by a grant unless specifically approved by the legislature.

No bond proceeds may be allocated for agricultural water supply projects within the second half of the Columbia Basin Project.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. As used in sections 1 through 8 of this act, the term 'agricultural water supply facilities' means agricultural (and any associated fishery, recreational, or other beneficial use) water supply or distribution systems including but not limited to all equipment, utilities, structures, real property, and interests in and improvements on real property necessary for or incidental to the acquisition, construction, installation, or use of any such water supply or distribution system.

As used in this chapter, the term 'public body' means the state of Washington or any agency, political subdivision, taxing district, or municipal or public corporation thereof; an agency of the federal government; and those Indian tribes which may constitutionally receive grants or loans from the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The state general obligation bond retirement fund shall be used for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 2 of this act.

The state finance committee shall, on or before June 30th of each year, certify to the state treasurer the amount needed in the ensuing twelve months to meet the bond retirement and interest requirements. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the general obligation bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on the payment date.

Bonds issued under section 2 of this act shall state that they are a general obligation of the state of Washington, shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state to the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon, and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest as the same shall become due.

The owner and holder of each of the bonds or the trustee for the owner and holder of any of the bonds may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require the transfer and payment of funds as directed in this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds authorized in section 2 of this act, and section 6 of this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for the payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The bonds authorized in section 2 of this act shall be a legal investment for all state funds or funds under state control and for all funds of any other public body.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW."

Signed by Representatives Grimm, Chair; Sommers, Vice Chair; Appelwick, Braddock, Hastings, Heck, Hine, J. King, Kreidler, McClure, Monohon, G. Nelson, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Smitherman, Struthers, Tilly and Vander Stoep.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Bond, Brekke, Cantu, Fiske and Taylor.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 689, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 4, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 689, establishing small business assistance coordinating council, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended to read as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the small businesses in the state of Washington are essential to the well-being of the state's economy and that these businesses have unique needs and problems that must be dealt with to insure a healthy economy for all of the citizens of the state. The legislature further recognizes that small businesses represent a majority of the businesses in this state and that it is vital that the ability of small businesses be enhanced to provide more jobs for Washington workers, insure essential economic competition, and broaden the industrial base of Washington industries. To stimulate the expansion of small business growth and resultant new jobs, the legislature finds that:

(1) There is a need for an overall coordination within the state that can integrate, coordinate, and provide services to small businesses and more efficiently use the individual operating entities as they now exist; and

(2) There is a need for additional services for the small business community in the areas of financing, dealing with regulatory problems, and encouraging more small businesses to export their products and services overseas.

(3) There is a need for an advisory council to establish long-range policy recommendations for state delivered small business programs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, a "small business assistance program" is any service offered by a unit of state government where the majority of the services attempt to aid or assist in the establishment, expansion, or management of a small business as defined in RCW 43.31.920.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) There is established the small business assistance coordinating council, referred to in this chapter as "the council."

(2) The council shall consist of nine persons, three of whom shall be appointed by the governor. The council shall include the director of commerce and economic development or its successor, the director of planning and community affairs or its successor, two members of the house of representatives, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives from the house committee on commerce and economic development or its successor, and two members of the senate, one from each of the two political parties with the largest number of members, appointed by the president of the senate from the senate committee on commerce and labor or its successor. The members appointed by the governor shall include representatives of small businesses from the various geographic areas of the state one or two of whom shall also represent minority-owned business and women-owned business. The council shall elect a chairman from among the voting members. The planning and community affairs agency or its successor is responsible for providing administrative support to the council and shall keep a record of the proceedings of each council meeting.

(3) All voting members of the council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(4) If a vacancy in an appointive position on the council occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor shall fill the position for the unexpired term. Any members of the council, appointive or otherwise, may be removed for malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges by the governor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The council shall be responsible for:

(1) Reviewing the small business assistance programs now being offered by all units of state government except the federally funded service centers administered by the department of transportation and approved by the federal highway administration;

(2) Reviewing the contract between the small business development center and the federal small business administration, and the contract between the small business development center and the federal economic development administration; and

(3) Reviewing the coordination of all small business assistance programs and making recommendations to reduce duplication of services and to increase the efficiency of available programs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. To enable the council to carry out its responsibilities, every unit of state government which provides a small business assistance program shall report to the small business assistance coordinating council in writing by September 1, 1984. The report shall include:

(1) A description of the small business assistance program offered by the unit of state government;

(2) The amount of state funds expended to operate the small business assistance program;

(3) The sources and amount of any other funds available to the unit of government to operate a small business assistance program and the extent to which the funds are being used by the unit of state government;

(4) The method by which the activity is being delivered by the unit of state government to the small business community;

(5) Information on the benefits derived from the program; and

(6) Any other information as may be requested by the council.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The small business assistance coordinating council shall report to the legislature and governor by December 31, 1984, on recommendations to improve the dissemination of small business assistance in the state. The report shall include:

(1) A description of the types, quantity, and benefits of small business assistance available in the state including federal, state, and local programs;

(2) A description of the available services and the unmet need for small business assistance in the following areas:

(a) General small business management and technical assistance;

(b) Community development assistance, including loan packaging, proposal writing, development planning, and commercial development;

(c) Entrepreneurial development, innovative assessment, and technology transfer; and

(d) Export assistance and financing;

(3) A set of recommendations to improve the delivery and efficiency of small business assistance and to reduce duplication of effort where possible.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. (1) There is established the small business improvement council to consist of at least fifteen but not more than thirty members to be appointed by the governor. In making the appointments, the governor shall consider the recommendations of business organizations and persons operating small businesses. At least fifteen percent of the members of the council shall be women or members of minority groups, and at least one member of the council shall represent agribusiness concerns. Members of the small business improvement council shall be appointed for terms of four years, but the governor may modify the terms of the initial members as necessary to achieve staggered terms.

(2) Members of the small business improvement council shall not be compensated or be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The department of commerce and economic development or its successor agency shall provide staff support and administrative assistance to the council.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. The small business improvement council shall seek to identify regulatory, administrative, and legislative proposals that will improve the entrepreneurial environment for small businesses. In consultation with the department of commerce and economic development and the appropriate standing committees of the senate and house of representatives, the small business improvement council shall submit its proposals to the governor and the legislature prior to the convening of each regular session of the legislature. The proposals shall include the recommendations of the council's subcommittees established under section 9 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. (1) The small business improvement council may establish such subcommittees as the council deems necessary. Membership of subcommittees need not be limited to members of the council.

(2) Subcommittees of the council shall include:

(a) A subcommittee on small business taxation;

(b) A subcommittee on small business venture and management education;

(c) A subcommittee on private sector contract services; and

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 6, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate refuses to recede from its amendments to SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 843, and asks the House for a conference thereon, and the President has appointed as Senate conferees: Senators McDermott, Newhouse, Shinpoch, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

On motion of Ms. Monohon, the House granted the request of the Senate for a conference on Substitute House Bill No. 843.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Monohon, Sommers and Cantu to serve as conferees on Substitute House Bill No. 843.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 3, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate insists on its position on ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1660 and the Senate amendments thereto, and once again asks the House to concur in the Senate amendments, and the same is herewith transmitted.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. Galloway moved that the House do not concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660, and ask the Senate for a conference thereon.

Representatives Galloway and Schoon spoke in favor of the motion and it was carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES

The Speaker appointed Representatives Galloway, P. King and Schoon to serve as conferees on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 5, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4381, revising various elections laws, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference in order to amend the bill.

Signed by Senators Talmadge, Fleming; Representatives Pruitt, Fisher.

MOTION

Mr. Pruitt moved that the House adopt the report of the Conference Committee on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4381 and grant the committee powers of Free Conference.

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, House Rule 12(E) prohibits an amendment which changes the scope and object of a bill. The point, Mr. Speaker, is does the scope and object rule apply to amendments proposed by a Free Conference Committee?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, the Joint Rules which deal with Conference reports, Rule 8 of our Joint Rules, supersedes the scope and object. I would like to read the pertinent section of Rule 8. 'In cases of failure of the conferees to agree on matters directly at issue between the two houses, the committee may in addition consider new proposed items within the scope and object of the title of the bill in conference for the purpose of requesting the powers of free conference.' I hope that answers your inquiry."

Mr. Barrett: "Mr. Speaker, in my rules labeled 'Permanent Rules of the House of Representatives, 48th Legislature,' I bring up the point of parliamentary inquiry that the official rules make no mention of anything called Joint Rules. In the permanent rules, the only Free Conference Report reference is Rule 26. It does not make reference to the point you just read. My point, Mr. Speaker, is under what authority does this body look to the Joint Rules when we have so many rules?"

The Speaker: "Representative Barrett, the Speaker observes that the Joint Rules are in place for the purpose of determining or settling matters of dispute between the two bodies and that is the purpose of Rule 8 or the Speaker's Ruling."

Mr. Barrett: "To clarify something which I don't think has been clarified in this body, Mr. Speaker, first, I wasn't aware that our discussion here this evening involved any dispute between the two bodies and so I bring it up from the standpoint that it doesn't appear to be a dispute on this floor at this time between the two bodies. If I may go back to your ruling on the scope and object, as I understood it, you said that the scope and object does not apply to the Free Conference Committee, which as I gathered then would indicate that we allow a new bill to come in from a Free Conference report. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the members of this body to read Article II, section 36 of our State Constitution, in the light of your ruling that this would then be a new bill."

Mr. Pruitt spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Tilly and Burns spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House grant powers of Free Conference on Substitute Senate Bill No. 4381, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 54; nays, 43; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brække, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 54.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Long, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Struthers, Tilly, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 43.

Excused: Representative Taylor - 1.

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

March 3, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed HOUSE BILL NO. 1201 with the following amendments:

On page 5, line 21 after "purposes" insert "or cultural or art educational programs as defined in RCW 82.04.4328"

On page 13, after line 7, insert the following:

"Sec. 18. Section 84.64.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 322, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.64.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any time after the expiration of three years from the original date of delinquency of any tax included in a certificate of delinquency, the holder of any certificate of delinquency may give notice and summons to the owner of the property described in such certificate that he or she will apply to the superior court of the county in which such property is situated for a judgment foreclosing the lien against the property mentioned therein. Such notice and summons shall contain:

(1) The title of the court, the description of the property and the name of the owner thereof, if known, the name of the holder of the certificate, the date thereof, and the amount for which it was issued, the year or years for the delinquent taxes for which it was issued, the amount of all taxes paid for prior or subsequent years, and the rate of interest on said amount.

(2) A direction to the owner summoning him or her to appear within sixty days after service of the notice and summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the action or pay the amount due, and when service is made by publication a direction to the owner, summoning him or her to appear within sixty days after the date of the first publication of the notice and summons, exclusive of the day of said first publication, and defend the action or pay the amount due.

(3) A notice that, in case of failure so to do, judgment will be rendered foreclosing the lien of such taxes and costs against the land and premises named.

The notice and summons shall be subscribed by the holder of the certificate of delinquency, or by someone in his or her behalf, and residing within the state of Washington, and upon whom all process may be served.

A copy of said notice and summons shall be delivered to the county treasurer. Thereafter when any owner of real property or person interested therein seeks to redeem as provided in RCW 84.64.070, the treasurer shall ascertain the amount of costs accrued in foreclosing said certificate and include said costs as a part of the redemption required to be paid. Cost incurred for a title search required by RCW 84.64.050 shall be included.

The notice and summons shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action is served in the superior court.

The county treasurer shall not issue certificates of delinquency upon property ((owned and occupied as a principal place of residence by a person sixty-two years of age or older)) which is eligible for deferral of taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW but shall require the owner of the property to file a declaration to defer taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW.

Sec. 19. Section 84.64.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 322, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.64.050 are each amended to read as follows:

After the expiration of three years from the date of delinquency, when any property remains on the tax rolls for which no certificate of delinquency has been issued, the county treasurer shall proceed to issue certificates of delinquency on said property to the county for all years' taxes, interest, and costs: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer, with the consent of the county legislative authority, may elect to issue a certificate for fewer than all years' taxes, interest, and costs to a minimum of the taxes, interest, and costs for the earliest year.

The change to a three-year grace period shall first be effective on May 1, 1983. Prior to that date, the county treasurer shall send a notice to all taxpayers with taxes delinquent for two years or more, notifying them of the change in the grace period. The treasurer shall file said certificates when completed with the clerk of the court, and the treasurer shall thereupon, with such legal assistance as the county legislative authority shall provide in counties having a population of thirty thousand or more, and with the assistance of the county prosecuting attorney in counties having a population of less than thirty thousand, proceed to foreclose in the name of the county, the tax liens embraced in such certificates, and the same proceedings shall be had as when held by an individual: PROVIDED, That notice and summons must be served or notice given in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the owner or owners of the foreclosure action. Either (1) personal service upon the owner or owners or (2) publication once in a newspaper of general circulation, which is circulated in the area of the property and mailing of notice by certified mail to the owner or owners or, if a mailing address is unavailable, personal service upon the occupant of the property, if any, is sufficient. In addition to describing the property as the same is described on the tax rolls, the notice must include the local street address, if any. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail a copy of the published summons, within fifteen days after the first publication thereof, to the treasurer of each city or town within which any property involved in a tax foreclosure is situated, but the treasurer's failure to do so shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the priority of any tax sought to be foreclosed. Said certificates of delinquency issued to the county may be issued in one general certificate in book form including all property, and the proceedings to foreclose the liens against said property may be brought in one action and all persons interested in any of the property involved in said proceedings may be made codefendants in said action, and if unknown may be therein named as unknown owners, and the publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons interested in the property described therein, except as provided above. The person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners of said property shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and if upon said treasurer's rolls it appears that the owner or owners of said property are unknown, then said property shall be proceeded against, as belonging to an unknown owner or owners, as the case may be, and all persons owning or claiming to own, or having or claiming to have an interest therein, are hereby required to take notice of said proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder: PROVIDED, That, at least thirty days prior to the sale of the property, if such property is shown on the tax rolls under unknown owners or as having an assessed value of three thousand dollars or more, the treasurer shall order or conduct a title search of the property to be sold to determine the legal description of the property to be sold and the record title holder, and if the record title holder or holders differ from the person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners, the record title holder or holders shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and shall be entitled to the notice provided for in this section.

The county treasurer shall not issue certificates of delinquency upon property (~~owned and occupied as a principal place of residence by a person sixty-two years of age or older~~) which is eligible for deferral of taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW but shall require the owner of the property to file a declaration to defer taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 13, line 16, delete "elects" and insert "either elects or is required under RCW 84.64.030 or 84.64.050"

On page 16, line 19, after "due" and before ";" insert "or thirty days after receiving notice under RCW 84.64.030 or 84.64.050, whichever is later"

On page 1, line 28 of the title, after "84.40.390;" insert "amending section 84.64.030, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 322, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.64.030; amending section 84.64.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 4, chapter 322, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.64.050;"

SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL

February 20, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1304 with the following amendments:

On page 8, after line 19 insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director is authorized to waive RCW 41.40.120(3) for any retired member who qualifies for reentry under RCW 41.40.150(6)(b)."

On page 1, line 3 of the title strike "and" and on line 4 after "RCW" insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 41.40 RCW" and the same is herewith transmitted.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Ms. Monohon moved that the House do concur in the Senate amendments to Engrossed House Bill No. 1304.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Monohon yielded to question by Mr. Cantu.

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Monohon, the Senate amendment is relatively short. It states that 'The director is authorized to waive RCW 41.40.120(3) for any retired member who qualifies for reentry under RCW 41.40.150(6)(b).' We asked our staff to research it and the intent is unclear to me as to what that amendment does. We did receive back an analysis that the amendment is unclear. There are three possible interpretations. One is that the Director of DRS could waive the entire section 41.40.120 thereby mandating that persons who become elected or appointed officials become active PERS members and give up the benefits they are now receiving until they retire from their elected or appointed positions. Two other interpretations were identified as being possible. One is that the Director of Department of Retirement Systems could waive the eight-year limit and exercise the option that they join PERS; or two, the Director could also waive the employer and employee contributions for previous credit of service for elected state officials. My question, Representative Monohon, could you give me your insight as to what is likely to be the intent of the proposed Senate amendment?"

Ms. Monohon: "I agree with you that the Senate amendment is unclear. The most common interpretation of this amendment in the opinion of myself, Peter Huntley, our staff and Dr. Hollister is that the Director of DRS can waive the entire section 41.40.120(3) thereby mandating that PERS retired members could become elected or appointed officials, become active PERS members and give up the pension benefits they are now receiving until they retire from their elected or appointed position. This option is now available to elected or appointed officials."

Mr. Cantu spoke in favor of the motion to concur and the motion was carried.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY SENATE

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1304 as amended by the Senate.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 4, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4490, and has granted said committee the powers of Free Conference.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

March 4, 1984

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4490, restricting utilities from terminating utility service for residential space heat, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and that the amended bill do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The lien for charges for service by a city waterworks, or electric light or power plant may be enforced only by cutting off the service until the delinquent and unpaid charges are paid, except that until June 30, 1986, electricity for residential space heating may be terminated between November 15 and March 15 only as provided in subsection (2) of this section. In the event of a disputed account and tender by the owner of the premises of the amount he claims to be due before the service is cut off, the right to refuse service to any premises shall not accrue until suit has been entered by the city and judgment entered in the case.

(2) Until June 30, 1986:

(a) Electricity for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(i) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(ii) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;

(iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

(v) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(b)The utility shall:

(i) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent and that service may be subject to termination a description of the customer's duties in this subsection;

(ii) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this subsection;

(iii) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this subsection moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(iv) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this subsection.

(c) In distributing energy assistance funds pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 8624, the department of social and health services and grantees of the planning and community affairs agency shall make all payments either directly to the utility or jointly payable to the customer and the utility.

(3) All municipal utilities shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A district providing utility service for residential space heating shall not terminate such utility service between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(a) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(b) Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or a grantee of the planning and community affairs agency which administers federally funded energy assistance programs, that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and which provides a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income;

(c) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(d) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is applicable for the dwelling;

(e) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but the plan shall not be invalidated unless payment during this period is less than seven percent. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(2) If an injury to a worker results in the worker's death, the department or self-insurer to which the cause of action has been assigned may petition a court for the appointment of a special personal representative for the limited purpose of maintaining an action under this chapter and chapter 4.20 RCW.

(3) If a beneficiary is a minor child, an election not to proceed against a third person on such beneficiary's cause of action may be exercised by the beneficiary's legal custodian or guardian.

((4)) (6) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation or benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(7) When the cause of action has been assigned to the self-insurer and compensation and benefits have been paid and/or are payable from state funds for the same injury:

(a) The prosecution of such cause of action shall also be for the benefit of the department to the extent of compensation and benefits paid and payable from state funds;

Sec. 5. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 211, Laws of 1983 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the ((award)) recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation ((or)) and benefits paid;

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the ((claimant)) worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation ((or)) and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no ((third party person claim)) recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The ((award or settlement)) recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation ((or)) and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW to which the wage earner may be entitled.

Sec. 6. Section 5, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department or self-insurer may require the injured worker or beneficiary to exercise the right of election under this chapter by serving a written demand by registered mail, certified mail, or personal service on the worker or beneficiary.

(2) Unless an election is made within sixty days of the receipt of the demand, and unless an action is instituted or settled within the time granted by the department or self-insurer, the injured worker or beneficiary is deemed to have assigned the action to the department or self-insurer. The department or self-insurer shall allow the worker or beneficiary at least ninety days from the election to institute or settle the action. When a beneficiary is a minor child the demand shall be served upon the legal custodian or guardian of such beneficiary.

(3) If an action which has been filed is not diligently prosecuted, the department or self-insurer may petition the court in which the action is pending for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. Upon a sufficient showing of a lack of diligent prosecution the court in its discretion may issue the order.

(4) If the department or self-insurer has taken an assignment of the third party cause of action under subsection (2) of this section, the injured worker or beneficiary may, at the discretion of the department or self-insurer, exercise a right of reelection and assume the cause of action subject to reimbursement of litigation expenses incurred by the department or self-insurer.

Sec. 7. Section 7, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 51.24.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any compromise or settlement of the third party cause of action by the injured worker or beneficiary which results in less than the entitlement under this title is void unless made with the written approval of the department or self-insurer; PROVIDED, That for the purposes of this chapter, 'entitlement' means benefits and compensation paid and payable.

(2) If a compromise or settlement is void because of subsection (1) of this section, the department or self-insurer may petition the court in which the action was filed for an order assigning the cause of action to the department or self-insurer. If an action has not been filed, the department or self-insurer may proceed as provided in chapter 7.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 51.24 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department may adopt, amend, and rescind under chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to the administration of this chapter.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the House adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 1386.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker (Mr. O'Brien presiding) declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1386 as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Betzoff yielded to question by Mr. McMullen.

Mr. McMullen: "Representative Betzoff, during the Labor Committee meeting, I noticed that among other things in House Bill No. 1386, we used the term 'ailment.' Was this intended in any way to broaden or expand the types of injuries that are covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act in this state?"

Mr. Betzoff: "No, it is not intended to do that. It amends a specific chapter, Chapter 51.24 RCW, dealing with third party lawsuits. The definition of 'injury' in this bill is intended to apply only to that chapter; it is not intended to change the traditional definition of 'injury' used to determine eligibility of benefits."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1386 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Charnley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 98.

ESB 4421 Prime Sponsor, Senator Woody: Modifying the provisions on the taxation of timber and timberlands. Reported by Committee on Ways & Means

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

*Sec. 1. RCW 84.33.071 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon every person engaging within this state in business as a harvester of timber; as to such persons the amount of tax imposed with respect to such business shall be equal to the stumpage value of timber harvested (~~between July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984,)~~ for sale or for commercial or industrial use multiplied by the rate of six and one-half percent, except that as to small harvesters, as defined in RCW 84.33.073, the amount of tax imposed with respect to such business shall be equal to the timber value determined under RCW 84.33.074 multiplied by the rate of four percent.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) 'Harvester' means every person who from his own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services fells, cuts or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use. It does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(b) 'Timber' means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(c) 'Stumpage value of timber' means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables to be prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(d) Timber shall be considered harvested at the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity thereof by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(3) The department of revenue shall designate areas containing timber having similar growing, harvesting and marketing conditions to be used as units for the preparation and application of stumpage values. Each year on or before December 31 for use the following January through June 30, and on or before June 30 for use the following July through December 31, the department shall prepare tables of stumpage values of each species or subclassification of timber within such units, which values shall be the amount that each such species or subclassification would sell for at a voluntary sale made in the ordinary course of business for purposes of immediate harvest. Such stumpage values, expressed in terms of a dollar amount per thousand board feet or other unit measure, shall be determined from (a) gross proceeds from sales on the stump of similar timber of like quality and character at similar locations, and in similar quantities, or from (b) gross proceeds from sales of logs adjusted to reflect only the portion of such proceeds attributable to value on the stump immediately prior to harvest, or from a combination of (a) and (b), and shall be determined in a manner which makes reasonable and adequate allowances for age, size, quality, costs of removal, accessibility to point of conversion, market conditions and all other relevant factors. Upon application from any person who plans to harvest damaged timber, the stumpage values for which have been materially reduced from the values shown in the applicable tables due to damage resulting from fire, blow down, ice storm, flood or other sudden unforeseen cause, the department shall revise such tables for any area in which such timber is located and shall specify any additional accounting or other requirements to be complied with in reporting and paying such tax. The preliminary area designations and stumpage value tables and any revisions thereof shall be subject to review by the ways and means committees of the house and senate prior to finalization. Tables of stumpage values shall be signed by the director or his designee and authenticated by the official seal of the department. A copy thereof shall be mailed to anyone who has submitted to the department a written request therefor.

(4) On or before the sixtieth day after the date of final adoption of any stumpage value tables, any harvester may appeal to the board of tax appeals for a revision of stumpage values for an area determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section.

(5) There are hereby created in the state treasury a state timber tax account A and a state timber tax reserve account in the state general fund and any interest earned on the investment of cash balances shall be deposited in these accounts. The revenues from the tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section on timber harvested from privately owned land shall be deposited in state timber tax account A and state timber tax reserve account as follows:

YEAR OF COLLECTION	ACCOUNT A	RESERVE ACCOUNT
1973 and thereafter	100%	0%

The revenues from the tax imposed by subsection (1) of this section on timber harvested from publicly owned land shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(6) The tax imposed under this section shall be computed with respect to timber harvested each calendar quarter and shall be due and payable in quarterly installments and remittance therefor shall be made on or before the last day of the month next succeeding the end of the quarterly period in which the tax accrued. The taxpayer on or before such date shall make out a return, upon such forms and setting forth such information as the department of revenue may require, showing the amount of the tax for which he is liable for the preceding quarterly period, and shall sign and transmit the same to the department of revenue, together with a remittance for such amount.

(7) The taxes imposed by this section shall be in addition to any taxes imposed upon the same persons pursuant to one or more of sections RCW 82.04.230 to 82.04.290, inclusive, and RCW 82.04.440, and none of such sections shall be construed to modify or interact with this section in any way, except RCW 82.04.450 and 82.32.045 shall not apply to the taxes imposed by this section.

(8) Any harvester incurring less than ten dollars tax liability under this section in any calendar quarter shall be excused from the payment of such tax, but may be required by the department of revenue to file a return even though no tax may be due.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 1984."

Beginning on page 1, line 1 of the title after "taxation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending RCW 84.33.071; and providing an effective date."

Signed by Representatives Grimm, Chair; Sommers, Vice Chair; Addison, Appelwick, Braddock, Brekke, Ellis, Fiske, Heck, Hine, J. King, Kreidler, McClure, Monohon, Rust, Sayan and Vander Stoep.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4407 as recommended by the Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 98; nays, 0; excused, 0.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzoff, Bond, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Charley, Clayton, Crane, Dellwo, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Long, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nealey, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Prince, Pruitt, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schmidt, Schoon, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Struthers, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 98.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

Mr. Hastings moved that the Committee on Ways & Means be relieved of SENATE BILL NO. 4409, and the bill be placed at the top of today's second reading calendar.

Mr. Hastings spoke in favor of the motion.

Mr. Taylor demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Smitherman yielded to question by Mr. Struthers.

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Smitherman, if the current B&O tax rate on the meat processing industry was translated into a net profit corporate income tax, what would that rate be?"

Mr. Smitherman: "Representative Struthers, I recall reading an article--I think it was in a Seattle paper--that it would be at about fifty-three percent."

Mr. Struthers: "What would the rate be if this bill should pass?"

Mr. Smitherman: "It would be over twelve percent."

Mr. Struthers: "How many plants have closed in the last eight years?"

Mr. Smitherman: "There have been over twenty in this state and the last one that closed was in Seattle about a week ago, and there were about three hundred fifty people who were put out of work as a result of that closure. That translates to about $62,000 a week in unemployment--"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. O'Brien: "Mr. Speaker, according to Reed's Rules a motion to relieve a committee of a bill doesn't open the main subject for discussion. The mover of the motion has the right to stipulate why the committee should be relieved of the bill, but you don't go into the merits or demerits of the bill on such a motion."

With the consent of the House, Mr. O'Brien withdrew the Point of Order.

Mr. Struthers: "Representative Smitherman, is it true that the meat processing industry is the only agricultural commodity that is taxed at a rate higher than one-eighth of one percent?"

Mr. Smitherman: "Yes, the meat processing industry is taxed at about three times the rate of all other agricultural commodities and it is also one of the few agriculture industries that is not subsidized. This issue is clearly one of equity and we're not talking about tax loopholes here. The current rate is excessive and puts our cattlemen and processors at a severe competitive disadvantage with out-of-state competition."

Mr. Struthers spoke in favor of the motion.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Grimm yielded to question by Mr. Smitherman.

Mr. Smitherman: "Representative Grimm, can you tell me why the meat processor's bill has not been considered? Why it has not been before us here on the floor?"

Mr. Grimm: "The reason the measure pertaining to meat processors, as to which it has been commonly referred, has not been passed out of committee is because it has not received a Do Pass recommendation from the Committee on Ways & Means, where the bill is currently located."

Representatives Heck and Moon spoke against the motion, and Representatives Barrett and Taylor spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Hastings spoke again in favor of the motion.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the Committee on Ways & Means be relieved of Senate Bill No. 4409 and the bill be placed on the second reading calendar, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 52; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betzoff, Bond, Broback, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Egger, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson - 45.

Voting nay: Representatives Appelwick, Armstrong, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charnley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Walk, Wang, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 52.

Bill Gleason, Assistant Secretary.

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 843, modifying provisions relating to retirement from public service, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 41.50 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The employer of any employee whose retirement benefits are based in part on excess compensation, as defined in this section, shall, upon receipt of a billing from the department, pay into the appropriate retirement system the present value at the time of the employee's retirement of the total estimated cost of all present and future benefits from the retirement system attributable to the excess compensation. The state actuary shall determine the estimated cost using the same method and procedure as is used in preparing fiscal note costs for the legislature. However, the director may in the director's discretion decline to bill the employer if the amount due is less than fifty dollars. Accounts unsettled within thirty days of the receipt of the billing shall be assessed an interest penalty of one percent of the amount due for each month or fraction thereof beyond the original thirty-day period.

(2) 'Excess compensation,' as used in this section, includes any payment that was used in the calculation of the employee's retirement allowance, except regular salary and overtime, but is not limited to a cash out of unused annual leave in excess of two hundred forty hours of such leave, a cash out of any other form of leave, a payment for, or in lieu of, any personal expense, and any other termination or severance payment used in the calculation of the employee's retirement allowance. Any payment which is made pursuant to any labor agreement currently in force shall not be deemed excess compensation. (3) This section applies to the retirement systems listed in RCW 41.50.030 and to retirements occurring on or after the effective date of this act. Nothing in this section is intended to amend or determine the meaning of any definition in chapter 2.10, 2.12, 41.26, 41.32, 41.40, or 43.43 RCW or to determine in any manner what payments are includable in the calculation of a retirement allowance under such chapters.

(4) An employer is not relieved of liability under this section because of the death of any person either before or after the billing from the department.

(2) If the consolidated employer later joins the public employees' retirement system, all existing employees still employed on that date shall, effective from that date, have the same retirement system rights and options, subject to the same conditions as employees governed by section 24 of this act, notwithstanding any previous election under subsection (1) of this section.

SENATE AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL

March 8, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate has passed SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1231 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds that state-owned aquatic lands are a finite natural resource of great value and an irreplaceable public heritage. The legislature recognizes that the state owns these aquatic lands in fee and has delegated to the department of natural resources the responsibility to manage these lands for the benefit of the public. The legislature finds that water-dependent industries and activities have played a major role in the history of the state and will continue to be important in the future. The legislature finds that revenues derived from leases of state-owned aquatic lands should be used to enhance opportunities for public recreation, shoreline access, environmental protection, and other public benefits associated with the aquatic lands of the state. The legislature further finds that aquatic lands are faced with conflicting use demands. The purpose of sections 1 through 20 of this act is to articulate a management philosophy to guide the exercise of the state's ownership interest and the exercise of the department's management authority, and to establish standards for determining equitable and predictable lease rates for users of state-owned aquatic lands.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The management of state-owned aquatic lands shall be in conformance with constitutional and statutory requirements. The manager of state-owned aquatic lands shall strive to provide a balance of public benefits for all citizens of the state. The public benefits provided by aquatic lands are varied and include:

- (1) Encouraging direct public use and access;
- (2) Fostering water-dependent uses;
- (3) Ensuring environmental protection;
- (4) Utilizing renewable resources.

Generating revenue in a manner consistent with subsections (1) through (4) of this section is a public benefit.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) The management of state-owned aquatic lands shall preserve and enhance water-dependent uses. Water-dependent uses shall be favored over other uses in aquatic land planning and in resolving conflicts between competing lease applications. In cases of conflict between water-dependent uses, priority shall be given to uses which enhance renewable resources, water-borne commerce, and the navigational and biological capacity of the waters, and to state-wide interests as distinguished from local interests.

(2) The non-water-dependent use of state-owned aquatic lands is a low-priority use providing minimal public benefits and shall not be permitted to expand or be established in new areas except in exceptional circumstances where it is compatible with water-dependent uses occurring in or planned for the area.

(3) The department shall consider the natural values of state-owned aquatic lands as wildlife habitat, natural area preserve, representative ecosystem, or spawning area prior to issuing any initial lease or authorizing any change in use. The department may withhold from leasing lands which it finds to have significant natural values, or may provide within any lease for the protection of such values.

(4) The power to lease state-owned aquatic lands is vested in the department of natural resources, which has the authority to make leases upon terms, conditions, and length of time in conformance with the state Constitution and chapters 79.90 through 79.96 RCW.

(5) State-owned aquatic lands shall not be leased to persons or organizations which discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion, sex, age, or physical or mental handicap.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The definitions in this section apply throughout chapters 79.90 through 79.96 RCW.

(1) 'Water-dependent use' means a use which cannot logically exist in any location but on the water. Examples include, but are not limited to, water-borne commerce; terminal and transfer facilities; ferry terminals; watercraft sales in conjunction with other water-dependent uses; watercraft construction, repair, and maintenance; moorage and launching facilities; aquaculture; log booming; and public fishing piers and parks.

(2) 'Water-oriented use' means a use which historically has been dependent on a waterfront location, but with existing technology could be located away from the waterfront. Examples include, but are not limited to, wood products manufacturing, watercraft sales, fish processing, petroleum refining, sand and gravel processing, log storage, and house boats. For the purposes of determining rent under this chapter, water-oriented uses shall be classified as water-dependent uses if the activity either is conducted on state-owned aquatic lands leased on October 1, 1984, or was actually conducted on the state-owned aquatic lands for at least three years before October 1, 1984. If, after October 1, 1984, the activity is changed to a use other than a water-dependent use, the activity shall be classified as a nonwater-dependent use. If continuation of the existing use requires leasing additional state-owned aquatic lands and is permitted under the shoreline management act of 1971, chapter 90.58 RCW, the department may allow reasonable expansion of the water-oriented use.

(3) 'Nonwater-dependent use' means a use which can operate in a location other than on the waterfront. Examples include, but are not limited to, hotels, condominiums, apartments, restaurants, retail stores, and warehouses not part of a marine terminal or transfer facility.

(4) 'Log storage' means the water storage of logs in rafts or otherwise prepared for shipment in water-borne commerce, but does not include the temporary holding of logs to be taken directly into a vessel or processing facility.

(5) 'Log booming' means placing logs into and taking them out of the water, assembling and disassembling log rafts before or after their movement in water-borne commerce, related handling and sorting activities taking place in the water, and the temporary holding of logs to be taken directly into a processing facility. 'Log booming' does not include the temporary holding of logs to be taken directly into a vessel.

(6) 'Department' means the department of natural resources.

(7) 'Port district' means a port district created under Title 53 RCW.

(8) The 'real rate of return' means the average for the most recent ten calendar years of the average rate of return on conventional real property mortgages as reported by the federal home loan bank board or any successor agency, minus the average inflation rate for the most recent ten calendar years.

(9) The 'inflation rate' for a given year is the percentage rate of change in the previous calendar year's all commodity producer price index of the bureau of labor statistics of the United States department of commerce. If the index ceases to be published, the department shall designate by rule a comparable substitute index.

(10) 'Public utility lines' means pipes, conduits, and similar facilities for distribution of water, electricity, natural gas, telephone, other electronic communication, and sewers, including sewer outfall lines.

(11) 'Terminal' means a point of interchange between land and water carriers, such as a pier, wharf, or group of such, equipped with facilities for care and handling of cargo and/or passengers.

(12) 'State-owned aquatic lands' means those aquatic lands and waterways administered by the department of natural resources or managed under section 6 of this act by a port district. 'State-owned aquatic lands' does not include aquatic lands owned in fee by, or withdrawn for the use of, state agencies other than the department of natural resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The use of state-owned aquatic lands for public utility lines owned by a governmental entity shall be granted without charge by an agreement, permit, or other instrument if the use is consistent with the purposes of sections 1 through 3 of this act and does not obstruct navigation or other public uses. Use for public parks or public recreation purposes shall be granted without charge if the aquatic lands and improvements are available to the general public on a first-come, first-served basis and are not managed to produce a profit for the operator or a concessionaire. The department may lease state-owned tidelands that are in front of state parks only with the approval of the state parks and recreation commission. The department may lease bedlands in front of state parks only after the department has consulted with the state parks and recreation commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon request of a port district, the department and port district may enter into an agreement authorizing the port district to manage state-owned aquatic lands abutting or used in conjunction with and contiguous to uplands owned, leased, or otherwise managed by a port district, for port purposes as provided in Title 53 RCW. Such agreement shall include, but not be limited to, provisions defining the specific area to be managed, the term, conditions of occupancy, reservations, periodic review, and other conditions to ensure consistency with the state Constitution and the policies of this chapter. If a port district acquires operating management, lease, or ownership of real property which abuts state-owned aquatic lands currently under lease from the state to a person other than the port district, the port district shall manage such aquatic lands if: (1) The port district acquires the leasehold interest in accordance with state law, or (2) the current lessee and the department agree to termination of the current lease to accommodate management by the port. The administration of aquatic lands covered by a management agreement shall be consistent with the aquatic land policies of chapters 79.90 through 79.96 RCW and the implementing regulations adopted by the department. The administrative procedures for management of the lands shall be those of Title 53 RCW.

No rent shall be due the state for the use of state-owned aquatic lands managed under this section for water-dependent or water-oriented uses. If a port district manages state-owned aquatic lands under this section and either leases or otherwise permits any person to use such lands, the rental fee attributable to such aquatic land only shall be comparable to the rent charged lessees for the same or similar uses by the department: PROVIDED, That a port district need not itemize for the lessee any charges for state-owned aquatic lands improved by the port district for use by carriers by water. If a port leases state-owned aquatic lands to any person for nonwater-dependent use, eighty-five percent of the revenue attributable to the rent of the state-owned aquatic land only shall be paid to the state.

Upon application for a management agreement, and so long as the application is pending and being diligently pursued, no rent shall be due the department for the lease by the port district of state-owned aquatic lands included within the application for water-dependent or water-oriented uses.

The department and representatives of the port industry shall develop a proposed model management agreement which shall be used as the basis for negotiating the management agreements required by this section. The model management agreement shall be reviewed and approved by the board of natural resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, annual rent rates for the lease of state-owned aquatic lands for water-dependent uses shall be determined as follows:

(1)(a) The assessed land value, exclusive of improvements, as determined by the county assessor, of the upland tax parcel used in conjunction with the leased area or, if there are no such uplands, of the nearest upland tax parcel used for water-dependent purposes divided by the parcel area equals the upland value.

(b) The upland value times the area of leased aquatic lands times thirty percent equals the aquatic land value.

(2) As of July 1, 1989, and each July 1 thereafter, the department shall determine the real capitalization rate to be applied to water-dependent aquatic land leases commencing or being adjusted under subsection (3)(a) of this section in that fiscal year. The real capitalization rate shall be the real rate of return, except that until June 30, 1989, the real capitalization rate shall be five percent and thereafter it shall not change by more than one percentage point in any one year or be more than seven percent or less than three percent.

(3) The annual rent shall be:

(a) Determined initially, and redetermined every four years or as otherwise provided in the lease, by multiplying the aquatic land value times the real capitalization rate; and

(b) Adjusted by the inflation rate each year in which the rent is not determined under subsection (3)(a) of this section.

(4) If the upland parcel used in conjunction with the leased area is not assessed or has an assessed value inconsistent with the purposes of the lease, the nearest comparable upland parcel used for similar purposes shall be substituted and the lease payment determined in the same manner as provided in this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section, 'upland tax parcel' is a tax parcel, some portion of which has upland characteristics. Filled tidelands or shorelands with upland characteristics which abut state-owned aquatic land shall be considered as uplands in determining aquatic land values.

(6) The annual rent for filled state-owned aquatic lands that have the characteristics of uplands shall be determined in accordance with section 11 of this act in those cases in which the state owns the fill and has a right to charge for the fill.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Until June 30, 1989, the log storage rents per acre shall be the average rents the log storage leases in effect on July 1, 1984, would have had under the formula for water-dependent leases as set out in section 7 of this act, except that the aquatic land values shall be thirty percent of the assessed value of the abutting upland parcels exclusive of improvements, if they are assessed. If the abutting upland parcel is not assessed, the nearest assessed upland parcel shall be used.

(2) On July 1, 1989, and every four years thereafter, the base log storage rents established under subsection (1) of this section shall be adjusted in proportion to the change in average water-dependent lease rates per acre since the date the log storage rates were last established under this section.

(3) The annual rent shall be adjusted by the inflation rate each year in which the rent is not determined under subsection (1) or (2) of this section.

(4) If the lease provides for seasonal use so that portions of the leased area are available for public use without charge part of the year, the annual rent may be discounted to reflect such public use in accordance with rules adopted by the board of natural resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. For leases in effect on October 1, 1984, the rent shall remain at the annual rate in effect on September 30, 1984, until the next lease anniversary date, at which time rent established under section 7 or 8 of this act shall become effective. If the first rent amount established is an increase of more than one hundred dollars and is more than thirty-three percent above the rent in effect on September 30, 1984, the annual rent shall not increase in any year by more than thirty-three percent of the difference between the previous rent and the rent established under section 7 or 8 of this act. If the first rent amount established under section 7 or 8 of this act is more than thirty-three percent below the rent in effect on September 30, 1984, the annual rent shall not decrease in any year by more than thirty-three percent of the difference between the previous rent and the rent established under section 7 or 8 of this act. Thereafter, notwithstanding any other provision of this title, the annual rental established under section 7 or 8 of this act shall not increase more than fifty percent in any year.

This section applies only to leases of state-owned aquatic lands subject to section 7 or 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If state-owned aquatic lands are used for aquaculture production or harvesting, rents and fees shall be established through competitive bidding or negotiation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Leases for nonwater-dependent uses of state-owned aquatic lands shall be charged the fair market rental value of the leased lands, determined in accordance with appraisal techniques specified by rule. However, rents for nonwater-dependent uses shall always be more than the amount that would be charged as rent for a water-dependent use of the same parcel. Rents and fees for the mining or other recovery of mineral or geothermal resources shall be established through competitive bidding, negotiations, or as otherwise provided by statute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If water-dependent and nonwater-dependent uses occupy separate portions of the same leased parcel of state-owned aquatic land, the rental rate for each use shall be that established for such use by this chapter, prorated in accordance with the proportion of the whole parcel that each use occupies. If water-dependent and nonwater-dependent uses occupy the same portion of a leased parcel of state-owned aquatic land, the rental rate for such parcel shall be subject to negotiation with the department taking into account the proportion of the improvements each use occupies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If a parcel leased for water-dependent uses is used for an extended period of time, as defined by rule of the department, for a nonwater-dependent use, the rental for the nonwater-dependent use shall be negotiated with the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Except as agreed between the department and the lessee prior to construction of the improvements, rent shall not be charged under any lease of state-owned aquatic lands for improvements, including fills, authorized by the department or installed by the lessee or its predecessor before June 1, 1971, so long as the lands remain under a lease or succession of leases without a period of three years in which no lease is in effect or a bona fide application for a lease is pending.

If improvements were installed under a good faith belief that a state aquatic lands lease was not necessary, rent shall not be charged for the improvements if, within ninety days after specific written notification by the department that a lease is required, the owner either applies for a lease or files suit to determine if a lease is required.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The manager shall, by rule, provide for an administrative review of any aquatic land rent proposed to be charged. The rules shall require that the lessee or applicant for release file a request for review within thirty days after the manager has notified the lessee or applicant of the rent due. For leases issued by the department, the final authority for the review rests with the board of natural resources. For leases managed under section 6 of this act, the final authority for the review rests with the appropriate port commission. If the request for review is made within thirty days after the manager's final determination as to the rental, the lessee may pay rent at the preceding year's rate pending completion of the review, and shall pay any additional rent or be entitled to a refund, with interest thirty days after announcement of the decision. The interest rate shall be the average rate of return for the prior calendar year on conventional real property mortgages as reported by the federal home loan bank board. Nothing in this section abrogates the right of an aggrieved party to pursue legal remedies including those under chapter 34.04 RCW. For purposes of this section, 'manager' is the department except where state-owned aquatic lands are managed by a port district, in which case 'manager' is the port district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. For any lease for a term of more than one year, the department may require that the rent be secured by insurance, bond, or other security satisfactory to the department in an amount not exceeding two years' rent. The department may require additional security for other lease provisions. The department shall not require cash deposits exceeding one-twelfth of the annual rental.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If the annual rent charged for the use of a parcel of state-owned aquatic lands exceeds four thousand dollars, the lessee may pay on a prorated quarterly basis. If the annual rent exceeds twelve thousand dollars, the lessee may pay on a prorated monthly basis.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The lessee shall pay interest at the rate of one percent per month on rent or other sums owing to the department commencing thirty days after the date each rent or other sum is due and payable, unless there is review pending under section 15 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The department shall adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 1 through 18 of this act, specifically including criteria for determining under section 7(4) of this act when an abutting upland parcel has been inappropriately assessed and for determining the nearest comparable upland parcel used for water-dependent uses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Nothing in this chapter or RCW 79.93.040 or 79.93.060 shall modify or affect any existing legal rights involving the boundaries of, title to, or vested property rights in aquatic lands or waterways. Nothing in this chapter shall modify, alter, or otherwise affect the applicability of chapter 90.58 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 83, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.93.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Whenever, in any waterways created under the laws of this state,))~~ If the United States government ~~((shall have))~~ has established pierhead lines within ~~((said))~~ a waterway created under the laws of this state at any distance from the boundaries ~~((thereof))~~ established by the state, structures ~~((shall be allowed to))~~ may be constructed in that strip of waterway between the waterway boundary and the nearest pierhead line ~~((but))~~ only ~~((upon))~~ with the consent of the department of natural resources and upon such plans, terms, and conditions and for such term as ~~((approved and fixed))~~ determined by the department. However, no permit shall extend for a period longer than thirty years.

~~((The department shall require of the holder of every permit under this section a penalty bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by the department, in an amount not exceeding twice the amount of the annual rental, but in no case less than five hundred dollars. The bond shall secure the payment of the rental reserved in the permit, during the term of such permit or during such part thereof as said department in its discretion shall require to be covered by such bond. In case only a part of the term of such permit shall be covered thereby, the department shall require another like bond, to be executed and delivered within three months and not less than one month, prior to the expiration of the period covered by the previous bond, to cover the remainder of the term of the permit, or such part thereof as the department in its discretion shall require to be covered thereby. The department shall have power at any time to summon sureties upon any bond and to examine into the sufficiency of the bond, and if the department shall find the same to be insufficient, it shall require the holder of the permit to file a new and sufficient bond within thirty days after receiving notice to do so, under penalty of cancellation of the permit.))~~

The department ~~((shall have power upon sixty days' notice to))~~ may cancel any permit upon sixty days' notice for a substantial breach by the ~~((holder thereof))~~ permittee of any of the permit conditions ~~((thereof, or for lack of a bond therewith as required by this section)).~~

~~((In case(s) where such))~~ If a waterway ~~((s shall be))~~ is within the territorial limits of a port district ~~((organized under the laws of this state)),~~ the duties assigned by this section to the department ~~((shall))~~ may be exercised by the port commission of such port district ~~((and in every case the rentals received shall be disposed of as follows: Seventy-five percent shall be paid by the state treasurer to the county treasurer of the county wherein such port district is situated, for the use of said port district and twenty-five percent into the state treasury. PROVIDED: That in cases where the port district itself shall have constructed or shall have owned structures or improvements situated upon such strip of waterway since June 22, 1913, the entire rentals for such improved strip of waterway shall be paid directly to the county treasurer for the use of such port district.))~~ as provided in section 6 of this 1984 act.

Nothing in this section shall confer upon, create, or recognize in any abutting owner any right or privilege in or to any strip of waterway abutting any street and between prolongations of the lines of such street, but the control of and the right to use such strip is hereby reserved to the state of Washington, except ~~((that in cases situate in a port district such control and use shall vest in such port district))~~ as authorized by section 6 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 22. Section 85, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.93.060 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Whenever any))~~ If a waterway established under the ~~((authority of the))~~ laws of this state, or any portion of ~~((such))~~ the waterway, ~~((shall))~~ has not ~~((have))~~ been excavated, or ~~((shall not be in use))~~ is not used for ~~((the purposes of))~~ navigation, or ~~((shall no longer be))~~ is not required in the public interest to exist as a waterway, such waterway or portion thereof may be vacated by written order of the commissioner of public lands ~~((of the state of Washington whenever he shall be))~~ upon request ~~((ed so to do))~~ by ordinance or resolution of the city council of the city in which such waterway is ~~((situate, in whole or in part, or, in case such waterway is situate, in whole or in part, in a port district organized under the laws of the state of Washington, whenever he shall be requested so to do))~~ located or by resolution of the port commission of ~~((such))~~ the port district ~~((and upon the making of such order the waterway or portion thereof shall~~

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

March 8, 1984

Mr. Speaker:

The Senate refuses to grant a conference on ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4490, and requests the House to once again consider the Free Conference Report on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

MOTION

Mr. D. Nelson moved that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Isaacson: "A couple of days ago the House voted not to pass this report and asked for another conference. How is it that we are now reconsidering the same vote by which that bill lost when it was before the House earlier?"

SPEAKER'S RULING

The Speaker: "The last time this issue was before us there was a motion to adopt the Free Conference Report. That motion was not adopted. We then asked the Senate to grant the powers of Conference. They refused, sent it back to us and asked us once again to adopt the Free Conference Report. That's where we are now."

POINT OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Isaacson: "Then the motion before us should not be to adopt the Free Conference Report, but rather to respond to the Senate message."

The Speaker: "You misunderstand; that's what we are doing."

Mr. D. Nelson spoke in favor of the motion, and Mr. Isaacson spoke against it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the motion that the House adopt the Free Conference Report on Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490, and the motion was carried by the following vote: Yeas, 51; nays, 42; excused, 5.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Betrozoff, Broback, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Egger, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Isaacson, Johnson, Lewis, Miller, Mitchell, Nelson G, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Struthers, Tilly, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky - 42.

Excused: Representatives Bond, Brough, Long, Nealey, Schoon - 5.

FINAL PASSAGE OF SENATE BILL AS AMENDED
BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490 as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Todd.

Mr. Todd: "Representative Nelson, the bill refers to a lien for charges which may be enforced by shutting off power except that electricity for residential space heating may not be terminated between November 15 and March 15. What is this lien and can you tell us how it is derived?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Current law provides for an automatic statutory lien for a municipal utility for a period of up to four calendar months for charges past due.

The utility may enforce this lien by shutting off power until the past-due bill is paid in full. In no event may the utility acquire a lien for more than four calendar months of the charges past due."

Mr. Todd: "Does this bill as revised by the Conference Committee, in any way, affect the time period for which a lien may apply?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "The answer is no, it does not. It merely prevents the shut-off of electricity used for residential space heating for the winter months if payments are made under an approved payment program. The time period for which a lien may apply is not extended."

Representatives Miller and Padden spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Locke.

Mr. Locke: "Representative Nelson, do the low-income assistance programs embodied in this bill cover only electric space heating offered by a municipality?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "No, this program is applicable to municipal utilities, public utility districts and private utilities in this state."

Mr. Isaacson opposed passage of the bill, and Mr. D. Nelson spoke in favor of it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. D. Nelson yielded to question by Mr. Van Dyken.

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Nelson, we've just come through a significant recession and a lot of us had concerns about people who are at the poverty level who needed food, needed basic sustenance. I would imagine that if there were times when an individual would have been cut off from basic utilities, such as this bill addresses, that is the period in which it would have occurred. You have obviously done significant research on this issue. Could you share with the House instances or numbers, data, on how many people were terminated and who went through the winters without heat?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Van Dyken, I cannot share with you answers to both questions. I can give you some data. I gave one for the last heating season for Cowlitz County and I have numbers for other PUDs in the state. For example, Benton County, 634 out of 31,000; Clallam, 274 out of 17,000; Clarke, 1600 out of 82,000. It goes like that. It's usually about one to two percent. Of those, the numbers that have to live without heat have not been verified. Those are not statistics that the PUDs have. Perhaps special service agencies, particularly in the voluntary section, may have that kind of information, but there are a lot of people out there, frankly, who are choosing between heating and eating. They have to make that choice because those are two necessities. We've been lucky so far. We've had winter heating seasons that haven't been severe. If we really have a cold winter, which we didn't really have this year, then a lot more people will be in trouble."

Mr. Van Dyken: "Were these approximate one-percent heating cut-offs for these consumers on a permanent cut-off or were these temporary cut-offs that were later hooked up? Do you have that information?"

Mr. D. Nelson: "Representative Van Dyken, the data does not say. It simply says a number of disconnects. Whether or not they paid their bills after some time is not stated."

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 56; nays, 37; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Appelwick, Armstrong, Braddock, Brekke, Burns, Charney, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Jacobsen, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Todd, Van Dyken, Vekich, Walk, Wang, and Mr. Speaker - 56.

Voting nay: Representatives Allen, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betzoff, Broback, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Egger, Fuhrman, Hankins, Hastings, Isaacson, Johnson, Miller, Mitchell, Nelson G. Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Silver, Smith C. Smith L. Struthers, Tilly, Van Luven, Vander Sloep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky - 37.

Excused: Representatives Bond, Brough, Long, Nealey, Schoon - 5.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4490 as amended by Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4403, revising provisions relating to health care costs, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended as follows and that the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee do pass:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The primary purpose of this chapter is to promote the economic delivery of high quality, necessary, and effective (~~hospital~~) health care services to the people by establishing a hospital commission with authority over financial disclosure (~~and~~), budget (~~and~~), prospective rate (~~review~~) approval, and other related matters, including authority to develop a hospital reimbursement control system, which will assure all purchasers of (~~hospital~~) health care services that total hospital costs are reasonably related to total services, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudently and reasonably managed hospitals, that hospital rates are reasonably related to aggregate costs, and that such rates are set equitably among all purchasers of these services without undue discrimination.

The legislature finds and declares that rising hospital costs are a vital concern to the people of this state because of the danger which is posed that hospital and health care services are fast becoming out of the economic reach of the majority of our population. It is further declared that health care is a right of the people and one of the primary purposes for which governments are established, and it is, therefore, essential that an effective cost control program be established (~~which will both enable and motivate hospitals to control their spiraling costs~~). It is the legislative intent, in pursuance of this declared public policy, to provide for uniform measures on a state-wide basis to control hospital (~~costs~~) rates without the sacrifice of quality of service or reasonable access to necessary health care.

The legislature further finds and declares that: (1) There is an increased need for comprehensive public oversight of the costs of and expenditures for health care services; (2) no one should be denied access to necessary health care because of poverty or unemployment; (3) access to necessary health care in rural areas must be assured; (4) the hospital commission and the public need additional information to make better-informed decisions about health care costs and charges; (5) there is a need to encourage market penetration of alternative health care delivery systems that have internal incentives to control costs and stimulate market competition, and that some regulatory policies have impeded health care cost containment by unduly restricting competition; (6) there is a need for more effective assessment of the impact of technology on the cost and delivery of health care services so that appropriate public policies may be adopted; and (7) the hospital commission should be more representative of a diversity of public interests so that it can more effectively carry out its mission.

It is the intent of the 1984 amendments to this chapter to strengthen certain regulatory policies which have had limited success in containing hospital costs since this chapter was enacted, and to promote constructive competition among health care delivery systems.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Commission' means the hospital commission of the state of Washington as created by this chapter;

(2) 'Consumer' means any person whose occupation is other than the administration of health activities or the providing of health services, who has no fiduciary obligation to a health facility or other health agency, and who has no material financial interest in the rendering of health services;

(4) 'Diagnosis-related groups' is a classification system that groups hospital patients according to principal and secondary diagnosis, presence or absence of a surgical procedure, age, presence or absence of significant comorbidities or complications, and other relevant criteria, an example of which has been adopted as the basis for prospective payment under the federal medicare program by the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21.

(5) 'Medical technology' means the drugs, devices, and medical or surgical procedures used in the delivery of health care, and the organizational or supportive systems within which such care is provided.

(6) 'Technology assessment' means a comprehensive form of policy research that examines the technical, economic, and social consequences of technological applications, including the indirect, unintended, or delayed social or economic impacts. In health care, such analysis must evaluate efficacy and safety as well as efficiency.

(7) 'Charity care' means necessary hospital health care rendered to indigent persons, to the extent that the persons are unable to pay for the care or to pay deductibles or co-insurance amounts required by a third-party payer, as determined by the commission.

(8) 'Rate' means the maximum revenue which a hospital may receive for each unit of service, as determined by the commission.

(9) 'Comprehensive cancer center' means an institution and its research programs as recognized by the National Cancer Institute prior to April 20, 1983.

(10) 'Region' means one of the health service areas established pursuant to RCW 70.38.085, except that King county shall be considered a separate region for the purposes of this chapter.

In cases when proposed rate increases for osteopathic hospitals are to be considered, the representative of osteopathic hospitals on the technical advisory committee shall replace a hospital representative on the commission))~~ as follows:

(a) Three members representing consumers of health care services, at least one of whom represents the interests of low-income persons;

(b) One member representing private employers;

(f) One member representing commercial health insurers or health care service contractors; and

(g) The secretary of social and health services, representing the interests of the state as a major purchaser of health care services. The secretary may delegate a permanent designee in the secretary's absence.

Except for the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, members of the commission shall serve for four-year terms ((- PROVIDED, That upon the expiration of the initial four-year terms, two persons shall be appointed for three-year terms and three persons for four-year terms and thereafter all members of the commission shall serve for four-year terms)). Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member shall serve on the commission for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes. Of the three additional members, other than the secretary, appointed after the effective date of this 1984 act, two shall initially be appointed for two-year terms and one for a three-year term.

Sec. 5. Section 6, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members but, with the exception of the secretary of social and health services or the secretary's designee, the members shall be reimbursed for their expenses while attending meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as in RCW 44.04.120.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 35, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the commission, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, and under the supervision of the executive director. The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to hospital health care costs.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall elect from its members a chairman and a vice-chairman to serve concurrently with the chairman. The executive director of the commission shall act as executive secretary to the committee, and the commission shall otherwise offer such staff services and supplies as the committee may require to carry out its responsibilities.

The committee shall meet on call of the chairman of the commission, or on request of a majority of the commission. Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The committee shall have the duty upon the request of the commission to consult with and make recommendations to the commission:

- (1) On matters of public policy related to the delivery of health care services;
- (2) On rules and regulations proposed by the commission to implement this chapter;
- (3) On analyses and studies of hospital health care costs and related matters which may be undertaken by the commission; ~~((and))~~
- (4) On any issue related to medical technology or technology assessment in the area of health care; and
- (5) On such other matters as the commission may refer.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.090 are each amended to read as follows:

To further the purposes of this chapter, the commission may create committees from its membership, and may create such ad hoc advisory committees in specialized fields, related to the functions of hospitals, the delivery of health care services, economic issues concerning health care, technology assessment, and such other subjects as it deems necessary, to supplement the resources provided by the technical advisory committee.

Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission, after study and in consultation with advisory committees, if any, shall establish by the promulgation of rules and regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, a uniform system of accounting and financial reporting, including such cost allocation methods as it may prescribe, by which hospitals shall record and report to the commission their revenues, expenses, other income, other outlays, assets and liabilities, and units of service. All hospitals shall adopt the system for their fiscal year period to be effective at such time and date as the commission shall direct. In determining the effective date for reporting requirements, the commission shall be mindful both of the immediate need for uniform hospital reporting information to effectuate the purposes of this chapter and the administrative and economic difficulties which hospitals may encounter in conversion, but in no event shall such effective date be later than two and one-half years from the date of the formation of the commission.

(2) In establishing such accounting systems and uniform reporting procedures, the commission shall take into consideration:

- (a) Existing systems of accounting and reporting presently utilized by hospitals;
- (b) Differences among hospitals according to size; financial structure; methods of payment for services; and scope, type, and method of providing services; and
- (c) Other pertinent distinguishing factors.

(3) The commission shall, where appropriate, provide for modification, consistent with the purposes of this chapter, of reporting requirements to correctly reflect these differences among hospitals, and to avoid otherwise unduly burdensome costs in meeting the requirements of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting.

(4) The accounting system, where appropriate, shall be structured so as to establish and differentiate costs incurred for patient-related services rendered by hospitals, as distinguished from those incurred with reference to educational research and other nonpatient-related activities including but not limited to charitable activities of such hospitals.

(5) The commission shall collect and maintain patient discharge data, including data necessary for identification of discharges by diagnosis-related groups. So far as possible, the data collection procedures shall be coordinated with any similar procedures or requirements of the federal department of health and human services for the medicare program and the needs of the department of social and health services in gathering public health statistics, in order to minimize any unduly burdensome reporting requirements imposed on hospitals.

Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each hospital shall file annually, at such time as the commission may prescribe, its proposed budget for the next fiscal year, showing projected revenues and expenses and including such further information as the commission may require to implement the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Each hospital shall file annually with the commission after the close of the fiscal year:

(a) A balance sheet detailing the assets, liabilities, and net worth of the hospital;

(b) A statement of income and expenses; and

(c) Such other reports of the costs incurred in rendering services as the commission may prescribe.

((2)) (3) Where more than one licensed hospital is operated by the reporting organization, the information required by this section shall be reported for each hospital separately.

((3)) (4) The commission shall require certification of specified financial reports by the hospital's certified public accountant, and may require attestation as to such statements from responsible officials of the hospital that such reports have to the best of their knowledge and belief been prepared in accordance with the prescribed system of accounting and reporting.

((4)) (5) All reports, except privileged medical information, filed under this chapter shall be ~~(open to)~~ available for public inspection and copying under RCW 42.17.250 through 42.17.340.

((5)) (6) The commission shall ~~(have the right of inspection of)~~ inspect hospital books, audits, and records as reasonably necessary to ~~(verify hospital reports)~~ implement the policies and purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission shall from time to time undertake analyses and studies relating to ~~(hospital)~~ the need for and delivery of health care services, the availability of such services, hospital rates, health care costs, and ~~(to)~~ the financial status of any hospital or hospitals subject to the provisions of this chapter, and may publish and disseminate such information as it deems desirable in the public interest. It shall further ~~(require the filing of)~~ publish information concerning the ~~(total financial needs of each hospital and the resources available or expected to become available to meet such needs, including the effect of proposals made by area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies)~~ need for health care services identified by area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies under chapter 70.38 RCW and the extent to which such needs are being met.

(2) The commission shall also prepare and file such summaries and compilations or other supplementary reports based on the information filed with the commission hereunder as will advance the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The commission shall furnish a copy of any report regarding any hospital to the chief executive officer of the hospital and the presiding officer of the hospital's governing body.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 82, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 70.39.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall prepare and, prior to each legislative session beginning in January, transmit to the governor and to the legislature an annual report of commission operations and activities for the preceding fiscal year. This report shall include such findings and recommendations as the commission ~~(deems necessary)~~ believes will further the legislative goal of cost containment in the delivery of good quality health care services, including cost-containment programs that have been or might be adopted, and issues of access to good quality care. The report shall also include data on the amount and proportion of charity care provided by each hospital. The commission's report for 1986, to be submitted in January 1987, shall include an analysis of the impacts of section 15 of this 1984 act on (1) the use by indigent persons of health care settings other than hospitals and (2) the caseloads and costs associated with the limited casualty program for medical indigents under RCW 74.09.700. The department of social and health services and the health systems agencies established under chapter 70.38 RCW shall provide such information and assistance as the commission may reasonably require in preparing the report on the impact of section 15 of this 1984 act.

Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 163, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) From and after a date not less than twelve months but not more than twenty-four months after the adoption of the uniform system of accounting and financial reporting required by RCW 70.39.100, as the commission may direct, the commission shall have the power to initiate such reviews or investigations as may be necessary to assure all purchasers of ~~(hospital)~~ health care services that the total costs of a hospital are reasonably related to the total services offered by that hospital, that costs do not exceed those that are necessary for prudently and reasonably managed hospitals, that the hospital's ((aggregate revenues as expressed by)) rates are reasonably related to the hospital's aggregate costs; and that rates are set equitably among all purchasers or classes of purchasers of services without undue discrimination or preference. Effective July 1, 1985, if all 1984 amendments to this section and section 22 of this 1984 act take effect, this chapter does not preclude any hospital from negotiating with and charging any particular payer or purchaser rates that are less than those approved by the commission, if:

(a) The rates are cost justified and do not result in any shifting of costs to other payers or purchasers in the current or any subsequent year;

(b) The hospital granting such rates has been determined by the commission to be providing charity care at or above the average for such care in the region served by the hospital and as determined by the commission; and

(c) All the terms of such negotiated rates are filed with the commission within ten working days and made available for public inspection.

The commission may retrospectively disapprove such negotiated rates in accordance with procedures established by the commission if such rates are found to contravene any provision of this section.

(2) In order to properly discharge these obligations, the commission shall have full power to review projected annual revenues and approve the reasonableness of rates proposed to generate that revenue established or requested by any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter. No hospital shall charge for services at rates ((other than)) exceeding those established in accordance with the procedures established hereunder. After June 30, 1985, rates for inpatient care shall be expressed using an appropriate measure of hospital efficiency, such as that based on diagnosis-related groups, and, if necessary for federal medicare participation in a hospital reimbursement control system, hospitals shall charge for such care at rates prospectively established and expressed in terms of a comparable unit of total payment, such as diagnosis-related groups. In the event any hospital reimbursement control system is implemented, children's hospitals shall be exempted until such time as a pediatric based classification system which reflects the unique resource consumption by patients of a children's hospital is perfected. For the purposes of this exemption, children's hospitals are defined as hospitals whose patients are predominantly under eighteen years of age.

(3) In the interest of promoting the most efficient and effective use of ((hospital)) health care service, and providing greater promise of hospital cost containment, the commission may ((promote and approve alternative methods of rate determination and payment of an experimental nature that may be in the public interest and consistent with the purposes of this chapter)) develop a hospital reimbursement control system in which all payers or purchasers participate, that includes procedures for establishing prospective rates, that deals equitably with the costs of providing charity care, and that shall include the participation of the federal medicare program under the social security amendments of 1983, Public Law 98-21. The commission shall have the authority to require utilization reviews of patient care to ensure that hospital admissions and services provided are medically justified. The commission may seek approval, concurrence, or participation in such a system from any federal agency, such as the department of health and human services, prior to securing legislative approval pursuant to concurrent resolution for implementation of any hospital reimbursement control system developed pursuant to this section. The commission shall involve the legislature in the development of any plan for a hospital reimbursement control system.

(4) The commission shall assure that no hospital or its medical staff either adopts or maintains admission practices or policies which result in:

(a) A significant reduction in the proportion of patients who have no third-party coverage and who are unable to pay for hospital services;

(b) A significant reduction in the proportion of individuals admitted for inpatient hospital services for which payment is or is likely to be less than the anticipated charges for or costs of such services;

(c) The refusal to admit patients who would be expected to require unusually costly or prolonged treatment for reasons other than those related to the appropriateness of the care available at the hospital; or

(d) The refusal to provide emergency or other medically necessary services to any person who is in need of such services if the hospital provides such services. The commission shall establish by rule a definition of 'medically necessary services' for the purposes of this subsection (4)(d), which shall be narrowly construed.

(5) The commission shall serve as the state agency responsible for coordinating state actions and otherwise responding and relating to the efforts of the ((cost-of-living council or its successor)) federal department of health and human services in planning and implementing federal cost containment programs with respect to hospitals and related health care institutions as authorized by the ((Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1976)) social security amendments of 1983, as now or hereafter amended, or other federal law, and any rules or regulations promulgated thereto. In carrying out this responsibility, the commission may ~~((serve as the state agency responsible for recommending increases in rates for hospitals and related health care institutions to the cost of living council, or its successor; may apply to the cost of living council for authorization to administer a control program in Washington state in lieu of the federal controls established and otherwise administered by the cost of living council; may))~~ assume ~~((another))~~ any function or role authorized by appropriate federal regulations implementing the ~~((Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970))~~ social security amendments of 1983; or assume any combination of such roles or functions as it may determine will most effectively contain the rising costs of the varying kinds of hospitals and related health care institutions in Washington state. In determining its functions or roles in relation to ~~((the))~~ federal efforts ~~((to the cost of living council, or its successor))~~, the commission shall seek to ensure coordination, and the reduction of duplicatory cost containment efforts, by the state and federal governments, as well as the diligent fulfillment of the purposes of this chapter and declared public policy and legislative intent herein ~~((PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in cases where the rates of nursing homes or similar health institutions are subject to review pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 or any rules or regulations promulgated thereto, the members of the commission representing hospitals shall not sit in the proceedings nor vote, and the governor shall appoint an ad hoc member representing nursing homes or similar health institutions in lieu thereof, who shall have the same powers as the other members with respect to such review only))~~.

Nothing in this chapter limits the ability of the department of social and health services to establish hospital payment rates pursuant to RCW 74.09.120 or in accord with a federally approvable state plan under Title XIX of the federal social security act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 70.39 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within six months of the effective date of this act, the commission shall establish by rule, consistent with the definition of charity care under RCW 70.39.020, the following:

(1) Uniform procedures, data requirements, and criteria for identifying patients receiving charity care;

(2) A definition of residual bad debt as a component of hospital rate-setting and budget review, including reasonable and uniform standards for collection procedures to be used in efforts to collect the unpaid portions of hospital charges that are the patient's responsibility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. By January 1, 1985, a select committee of the legislature shall develop legislative recommendations for programs that will promote the state-wide development of comprehensive cost-effective managed health care systems and shall recommend programs that will promote use of such managed health care systems. The select committee shall be composed of twelve members of the legislature, six appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and six appointed by the president of the senate, three from each of the two largest political caucuses in each house, upon recommendation of the majority and minority caucuses of their respective bodies.

The committee shall elect a chairperson from among its membership.

The committee is authorized to appoint a technical advisory committee to prepare proposals under which cost-effective managed health care systems could be used to control health care costs, to more equitably distribute charity care among hospitals and licensed health care practitioners, and more effectively provide publicly and privately financed patient care.

For the purposes of this study 'managed health care system' means any health care organization, including health providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract comprehensive health care services to one or more defined patient populations by enrollment or other prior agreement or arrangement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. By January 1, 1985, the governor shall submit a six-year state health care purchasing plan to the legislature. The plan shall identify the number and type of health care services purchased by the state through the department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the state employees' insurance board, the office of superintendent of public instruction, and other agencies of government where state funds are used to purchase health care. The plan shall contain objectives for realizing specific dollar savings in the purchase of these health care services by obtaining discounts from providers, contracting with managed health care systems, altering copayment and deductible requirements, instituting improved utilization controls, using prospective payment arrangements, or by other means.

The governor or the governor's designee shall report the governor's progress in completing this plan to the legislative budget committee and the social and health services and ways and means committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 30, 1984.

Sec. 18. Section 16, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.150 are each amended to read as follows:

To properly carry out its authority the commission shall:

(1) Compile and maintain all relevant financial (and), accounting, and patient discharge data in order to have available the statistical information necessary to properly conduct rate review and approval. Such data shall include necessary operating expenses, appropriate expenses incurred for charity care and for rendering services to patients who (cannot or) do not pay, all properly incurred interest charges, and reasonable depreciation expenses based on the expected useful life of the property and equipment involved. The commission shall define and prescribe by rule and regulation the types and classes of charges which cannot be changed except as provided by the procedure contained in RCW 70.39.160 and it shall also obtain from each such hospital a current rate schedule as well as any subsequent amendments or modifications of that schedule as it may require. So far as possible, the commission shall compile and maintain the same patient discharge data with respect to all patients as that required under the federal medicare program and the uniform billing procedures applicable to third-party payers.

(2) Permit any ((nonprofit)) hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render necessary, effective, and efficient service in the public interest ((and on a solvent basis)).

(3) (Permit any proprietary profit-making hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge reasonable rates which will permit the hospital to render effective and efficient service in the public interest and which includes an allowance for a fair return to stockholders based upon actual investment or, if the hospital elects, upon the fair value of the investment on the effective date of this section: PROVIDED, That once the election is made it may not be changed without the approval of the commission.

(4)) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section, that it is its obligation to assure access to necessary, effective, economically viable, and efficient hospital health care capability throughout the state, rather than the solvency or profitability of any individual hospital subject to this chapter except where the insolvency of a hospital would seriously threaten the access of the rural public to basic health care services.

(4) Take into account, in the determination of reasonable rates under this section for each hospital, the recommendations of appropriate area-wide and state comprehensive health planning agencies to ensure compliance with Washington comprehensive health planning law, chapter 70.38 RCW.

((5) Permit, in considering a request for change in or initiating a review of rate schedules or other charges, any hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge rates which will in the aggregate produce sufficient total revenue for the hospital to meet all of the reasonable obligations specified in this chapter.))

(5) Permit any hospital, whether proprietary, district, public, or not-for-profit, to retain the excess of its revenues, if any, that exceed the actual cost of providing services, generated as a result of cost-effective practices, if the hospital charges do not exceed rates permitted by the commission.

(6) On or before October 1 of each year, after notice and public hearing, and in full consideration of the intent and purpose of this chapter as expressed in RCW 70.39.010, adopt a target dollar amount of total state-wide hospital revenue for the ensuing calendar year. To set the target amount, the commission shall develop a standard methodology that considers such factors as changes in the economy, affordability of hospital care, cost of hospital-purchased goods, numbers and age of the population, technology, and severity of illness of hospital patients. The commission shall endeavor, in establishing rates, to assure that total hospital revenues do not exceed the target amount for the applicable year.

Sec. 19. Section 17, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.160 are each amended to read as follows:

From and after the date determined by the commission pursuant to RCW 70.39.140, no hospital subject to the provisions of this chapter shall change or amend that schedule of rates and charges of the type and class which cannot be changed without prior approval of the commission, except in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) Any request for a change in rate schedules or other charges must be filed in writing in the form and content prescribed by the commission and with such supporting data as the hospital seeking the change deems appropriate. Unless the commission orders otherwise as provided for in subsection (4) of this section, no hospital shall establish such changes except after publication and notice to the commission of at least thirty days from the time the rate is intended to go into effect. All proposed changes shall be plainly indicated on the schedule effective at that time and shall be open to public inspection. Upon receipt of notice, the commission may suspend the effective date of any proposed change. In any such case a formal written statement of the reasons for the suspension will be promptly submitted to the hospital. Unless suspended, any proposed change shall go into effect upon the date specified in the application.

(2) In any case where such action is deemed necessary, the commission shall promptly, but in any event within thirty days, institute proceedings as to the reasonableness of the proposed changes. The suspension may extend for a period of not more than thirty days beyond the date the change would otherwise go into effect: PROVIDED, That should it be necessary, the commission may extend the suspension for an additional thirty days. After the expiration of ninety days from the date the rate is intended to go into effect the new rate will go into effect, if the commission does not approve, disapprove, or modify the request by that time.

(3) Such proposed changes shall be considered at a public hearing, the time and place of which shall be determined by the commission. The hearing shall be conducted by the commission. Evidence for and against the requested change may be introduced at the time of the hearing by any interested party and witnesses may be heard. The hearing may be conducted without compliance with formal rules of evidence.

(4) The commission may, in its discretion, permit any hospital to make a temporary change in rates which shall be effective immediately upon filing and in advance of any review procedure when it deems it in the public interest to do so. Notwithstanding such temporary change in rates, the review procedures set out in this section shall be conducted by the commission as soon thereafter as is practicable.

(5) Every decision and order of the commission in any contested proceeding shall be in writing and shall state the grounds for the commission's conclusions. The effects of such orders shall be prospective in nature.

Sec. 20. Section 21, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 70.39.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person who shall violate or knowingly aid and abet the violation of this chapter or any valid orders, rules, or regulations thereunder, or who fails to perform any act which it is herein made his duty to perform shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Following official notice to the accused by the commission of the existence of an alleged violation, each day upon which a violation occurs shall constitute a separate violation. Any person violating the provisions of this chapter may be enjoined from continuing such violation. The commission has authority to levy civil penalties not exceeding one thousand dollars for violations of this chapter.

Sec. 21. Section 10, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 235, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.38.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department is authorized and directed to implement the certificate of need program in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) There shall be a state certificate of need program which is administered consistent with the requirements of federal law as necessary to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

(3) No person shall engage in any undertaking which is subject to certificate of need review under subsection (4) of this section without first having received from the department either a certificate of need or an exception granted in accordance with this chapter.

(4) The following shall be subject to certificate of need review under this chapter:

(a) The construction, development, or other establishment of a new health care facility;

(b) The sale, purchase, or lease of part or all of any existing hospital as defined in RCW 70.39.020;

(c) Any capital expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility which substantially changes the services of the facility after January 1, 1981, provided that the substantial changes in services are specified by the department in rule;

~~((e))~~ (d) Any capital expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility which exceeds the expenditure minimum as defined by RCW 70.38.025. However, a capital expenditure which is not subject to certificate of need review under (a), (b), ~~((c))~~ (c), (e), ~~((or))~~ (f), or (g) of this subsection and which is solely for any one or more of the following is not subject to certificate of need review except to the extent required by the federal government as a condition to receipt of federal assistance and does not substantially affect patient charges:

(i) Communications and parking facilities;

(ii) Mechanical, electrical, ventilation, heating, and air conditioning systems;

(iii) Energy conservation systems;

(iv) Repairs to, or the correction of, deficiencies in existing physical plant facilities which are necessary to maintain state licensure;

(v) Acquisition of equipment, including data processing equipment, which is not or will not be used in the direct provision of health services;

(vi) Construction which involves physical plant facilities, including administrative and support facilities, which are not or will not be used for the provision of health services;

(vii) Acquisition of land; and

(viii) Refinancing of existing debt;

~~((c))~~ (e) A change in bed capacity of a health care facility which increases the total number of licensed beds or redistributes beds among facility and service categories of acute care, skilled nursing, intermediate care, and boarding home care if the bed redistribution is to be effective for a period in excess of six months;

~~((e))~~ (f) Acquisition of major medical equipment:

(i) If the equipment will be owned by or located in a health care facility; or

(ii) If, after January 1, 1981, the equipment is not to be owned by or located in a health care facility, the department finds consistent with federal regulations the equipment will be used to provide services for hospital inpatients, or the person acquiring such equipment did not notify the department of the intent to acquire such equipment at least thirty days before entering into contractual arrangements for such acquisition:

((ff)) (g) Any new institutional health services which are offered in or through a health care facility, and which were not offered on a regular basis by, in, or through such health care facility within the twelve-month period prior to the time such services would be offered; and

((gp)) (h) Any expenditure by or on behalf of a health care facility in excess of the expenditure minimum made in preparation for any undertaking under subsection (4) of this section and any arrangement or commitment made for financing such undertaking. Expenditures of preparation shall include expenditures for architectural designs, plans, working drawings, and specifications. The department may issue certificates of need permitting predevelopment expenditures, only, without authorizing any subsequent undertaking with respect to which such predevelopment expenditures are made.

(5) No person may divide a project in order to avoid review requirements under any of the thresholds specified in this section.

Sec. 22. Section 11, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 235, Laws of 1983 and RCW 70.38.115 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Certificates of need shall be issued, denied, suspended, or revoked by the designee of the secretary of the department in accord with the provisions of this chapter and rules of the department which establish review procedures and criteria for the certificate of need program.

(2) Criteria for the review of certificate of need applications, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section for health maintenance organizations, shall include but not be limited to consideration of the following:

(a) The relationship of the health services being reviewed to the applicable health plans;

(b) The need that the population served or to be served by such services has for such services;

(c) The availability of less costly or more effective alternative methods of providing such services;

(d) The financial feasibility and the probable impact of the proposal on the cost of and charges for providing health services in the community to be served, including findings and recommendations of the Washington state hospital commission in the case of applications submitted by hospitals. An application by a hospital shall be denied if the state hospital commission does not recommend approval, unless the secretary provides the commission with a written statement setting forth the reason or reasons, and citing the applicable subsection or subsections of this section, for approving an application that the commission has determined to be not feasible:

(e) In the case of health services to be provided, (i) the availability of alternative uses of project resources for the provision of other health services, (ii) the extent to which such proposed services will be accessible to all residents of the area to be served, and (iii) the need for and the availability in the community of services and facilities for osteopathic and allopathic physicians and their patients. The department shall consider the application in terms of its impact on existing and proposed institutional training programs for doctors of osteopathy and medicine at the student, internship, and residency training levels;

(f) In the case of a construction project, the costs and methods of the proposed construction, including the cost and methods of energy provision, and the probable impact of the construction project reviewed (i) on the cost of providing health services by the person proposing such construction project and (ii) on the cost and charges to the public of providing health services by other persons;

(g) The special needs and circumstances of osteopathic hospitals ((and)); nonallopathic services and children's hospitals;

(h) Improvements or innovations in the financing and delivery of health services which foster cost containment and serve to promote quality assurance and cost-effectiveness;

(i) In the case of health services proposed to be provided, the efficiency and appropriateness of the use of existing services and facilities similar to those proposed; ((and))

(j) In the case of existing services or facilities, the quality of care provided by such services or facilities in the past; and

(k) In the case of hospital certificate of need applications, whether the hospital meets or exceeds the regional average level of charity care, as determined by the hospital commission. No certificate of need may be granted to a hospital which has not met or exceeded the regional average level of charity care in the year preceding application and which does not give assurance it will continue to meet or exceed such level in the future.

(3) A certificate of need application of a health maintenance organization or a health care facility which is controlled, directly or indirectly, by a health maintenance organization, shall be approved by the department if the department finds:

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

(4) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(5) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

(6) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

(7) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

(8) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

(9) The department or a designated regional health council shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.

(10) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. An administrative law judge shall review the decision of the secretary's designee and render a proposed decision for consideration by the secretary in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW or remand the matter to the secretary's designee for further consideration. The secretary's final decision is subject to review by the superior court as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(11) The department may establish procedures and criteria for reconsideration of decisions.

(12) An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

- (a) A new service;
- (b) An expansion of a service beyond that originally approved;
- (c) An increase in bed capacity;
- (d) A significant reduction in the scope of a project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

(13) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved.

The commission may request such information from the entities identified in this section, and from the federal department of health and human services, if and when the commission deems appropriate to accord with any requirements of federal law which may be imposed.

Mr. Kreidler yielded to question by Mr. Cantu.

Mr. Cantu: "Representative Kreidler, referring to section 18(4), starting on page 31, lines 36 through page 32, line 11, does the provision dealing with the solvency of hospitals anticipate that an efficiently managed proprietary hospital will be allowed a fair profit?"

Mr. Kreidler: "It is the intention of this provision that an efficiently managed proprietary hospital be given the opportunity to earn a fair return upon an investment in the hospital."

Representatives B. Williams and Fiske spoke in favor of the bill, and Representative Taylor spoke against it.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kreidler yielded to question by Mr. McClure.

Mr. McClure: "Representative Kreidler, in the determination of regional averages for charity care, which a hospital may have to meet to be eligible for a certificate of need, is it really possible for all hospitals to meet whatever average might be set by the commission?"

Mr. Kreidler: "Yes. The intent of the bill, and that section in particular, is that the commission will establish a percentage for each region that is presumably near the regional average, a percentage that all hospitals would have a fair chance to meet. There is no intent to penalize any hospital that is making a good faith effort to come up to the regional mark, and absolutely no intent to penalize a hospital that does have an open door to all those in their community.

"As determined by the commission' is important language throughout this bill. It is not some bureaucrat making rote decisions by some rule book. This is a commission of nine highly responsible citizens, appointed by the Governor, representing consumers, payers, purchasers, health care professionals and hospitals. Those commissioners will not make any decision that is detrimental to either the public or to the individual hospitals. I have faith in their good judgment, their common sense. They will use their discretion. No hospital that is making a good faith effort to meet the needs of all of the sick in their community will not be penalized."

That is a reappropriation and the only change is the inserting of striking 11 and insert 12 on page 1, line 15. The sum is $11,920,000. Ms. Hine: "Representative Struthers, the money that we have put into it is $10 million. The effective date for that is July, 1985. It is a revolving fund that comes from the general fund."

MOTION

SECOND READING

On motion of Mr. Heck, the rules were suspended and Substitute Senate Bill No. 3942 was placed at the top of the second reading calendar.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3942, by Committee on Ways & Means (originally sponsored by Senator McDermott)

Authorizing bonds for higher education.

The bill was read the second time. On motion of Mr. Wang, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Mr. Braddock spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Braddock yielded to question by Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Taylor: "Representative Braddock, as I read this, on line 7 it says '...equipping of state buildings and facilities, including heating and utility distribution systems, for the community college system and the University of Washington....' What does that mean?"

Mr. Braddock: "It means that this money will be spent for three community college projects and for the construction--what will really be the rehabilitation or remodeling--of facilities at the University of Washington. That is the addition. In addition to that we have previously approved House Bill 1195, heating and utility distribution systems improvements at Clarke College and roof repairs and other maintenance repairs, emergency maintenance repairs, at two other community colleges."

Mr. Taylor: "I'm still confused. On line 8 there's a comma after 'system,' it says 'including heating and utility distribution systems,' and then it says 'for the community college system and the University of Washington.' That doesn't seem to come together."

Mr. Braddock: "I think one could certainly argue that the comma could be taken out of there and would read smoother, but I don't believe that we are going to create significant problems if that comma remains."

Representatives Cantu and B. Williams spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The motion was carried.

Sidney R. Snyder, Secretary.

SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced he was signing:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 142.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3169, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Senators Goltz and Owen; by Department of Game request)

Making various housekeeping changes in the game laws.

The bill was read the second time. Committee on Natural Resources recommendation: Majority, do pass as amended. (For amendments, see Journal, 58th Day, March 6, 1984.)

On motion of Ms. Stratton, the House did not adopt the committee amendments.

The Clerk read the following amendment by Representatives Sanders, Wilson and Vekich:

On page 3, line 5, strike "moose."

On page 3, beginning on line 22, strike all of subsection (7) and insert "((7) The fee for a moose stamp is one hundred dollars.))"

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On page 5, after line 2, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 77.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

SCIENTIFIC NAME	COMMON NAME
Cervus canadensis	elk or wapiti
Odocoileus hemionus	blacktail deer or mule deer
Odocoileus virginianus	whitetail deer
((Alces americana	moose))

SCIENTIFIC NAME

COMMON NAME

Sec. 11. Section 77.16.240, chapter 36, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1, chapter 31, Laws of 1982 and RCW 77.21.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person violating RCW 77.16.040, 77.16.050, 77.16.060, 77.16.080, 77.16.210, 77.16.220, 77.16.310, 77.16.320, section 9 of this 1984 act, or 77.32.211, or committing a violation of RCW 77.16.020 or 77.16.120 involving big game or an endangered species is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days and not more than one year or by both the fine and imprisonment. Each subsequent violation within a five-year period of RCW 77.16.040, 77.16.050, ~~(or) 77.16.060~~, or section 9 of this 1984 act, or of RCW 77.16.020 or 77.16.120 involving big game or an endangered species, as defined by the Washington state game commission under the authority of RCW 77.04.090, shall be prosecuted and punished as a class C felony as defined in RCW 9A.20.020. In connection with each such felony prosecution, the director shall provide the court with an inventory of all articles or devices seized under this title in connection with the violation. Inventoried articles or devices shall be disposed of pursuant to RCW 77.21.040.

(2) A person violating or failing to comply with this title or a rule of the commission for which no penalty is otherwise provided is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars or by imprisonment for not more than ninety days in the county jail or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(3) Persons convicted of a violation shall pay the costs of prosecution and the penalty assessment in addition to the fine or imprisonment.

(4) The unlawful killing, taking, or possession of each wildlife member constitutes a separate offense.

(5) District courts have jurisdiction concurrent with the superior courts of misdemeanors and gross misdemeanors committed in violation of this title or rules of the commission and may impose the punishment provided for these offenses. Superior courts have jurisdiction over felonies committed in violation of this title.

Sec. 12. Section 8, chapter 310, Laws of 1981 and RCW 77.32.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A separate transport tag is required to hunt deer, elk, bear, cougar, sheep, mountain goat, or wild turkey.

(2) A transport tag may only be obtained subsequent to the purchase of a valid hunting license and must have permanently affixed to it the hunting license number and the supplemental stamp appropriate for the species being hunted.

(3) Persons who kill deer, elk, bear, cougar, mountain goat, sheep, ~~((moose;))~~ or wild turkey shall immediately validate and attach their own transport tag to the carcass as provided by rule of the commission.

(4) Transport tags required by this section expire on March 31st following the date of issuance."

With the consent of the House, Mr. Sanders withdrew the amendment.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Sanders: "I would like to explain to the body that we probably have the votes for the last amendment, but I'd like to explain to the body that I received commitments from the Department of Game to study the issue of hunting moose in this state. There are only fifty of them and they have agreed to study the rest of the state to locate additional habitats for additional moose. They have also agreed tentatively, without the Game Commission's approval, of course, that if Representative Vekich and I do introduce a bill next year to prohibit the hunting of the fifty moose that are in this state, that they will not object to that bill. So, in the spirit of cooperation and because of the lateness of the hour, that was the reason for withdrawing the amendment."

On motion of Mr. Wang, the rules were suspended, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Ms. Stratton spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Ms. Stratton yielded to question by Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell: "Would SSB 3169 give the Director of Game the authority to establish hunting and fishing seasons?"

Ms. Stratton: "No. Only the Game Commission can establish a season. SSB 3169 would give the Game Commission authority to delegate to the Director by permanent rule, the authority to adopt emergency rules to close, shorten or reopen a season."

Mr. Mitchell: "Would this be a departure from traditional authority of the Game Director?"

Ms. Stratton: "No. Prior to a major recodification of the Game Code (Title 77 RCW) in 1980, the Director had this authority, upon written approval of the Game Commission."

Mr. Mitchell: "How would an emergency season closure be defined?"

Ms. Stratton: "This would be defined in Permanent Rules (WACS) adopted by the Game Commission. An emergency exists whenever the Director determines from biological or climatic data that a wildlife population in a particular geographical area would be jeopardized by a continuation of a season to harvest this wildlife. Wildlife is defined in statute to include game fish such as steelhead. The most common emergency closure occurs in the Boldt case area or the Columbia River when either the sport or commercial Indian harvest of steelhead reaches the fifty percent allocation and that particular fishery must be closed down."

Mr. Mitchell: "What will happen if SSB 3169 is not passed?"

Ms. Stratton: "Present procedures will continue whereby the Director must get a quorum of the Game Commission together, either in person or on a conference call, to effect an emergency closure. The present system is time consuming, costly and the delay while commissioners are being located almost always results in overharvest of steelhead before a particular stream fishery can be closed."

Mr. Wilson spoke against passage of the bill and Ms. Stratton spoke again in favor of it.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3169, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 83; nays, 13; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Representatives Addison, Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Ballard, Barnes, Barrett, Belcher, Betrozoff, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Brough, Burns, Cantu, Chandler, Charnley, Crane, Dello, Dickie, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Fiske, Fuhrman, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Haugen, Heck, Hine, Holland, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Lewis, Locke, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Miller, Mitchell, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Padden, Patrick, Powers, Pruitt, Rust, Sanders, Sayan, Schön, Scott, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Taylor, Tilly, Todd, Van Luven, Vekich, Walk, Wang, West, Williams B - 83.

Voting nay: Representatives Clayton, Hastings, Kaiser, Nealey, Prince, Schmidt, Struthers, Van Dyken, Vander Stoep, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky, and Mr. Speaker - 13.

Excused: Representatives Bond, Long - 2.

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3169, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Moon, the House adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed House Bill No. 392.

FINAL PASSAGE OF HOUSE BILL AS AMENDED BY FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The Speaker declared the question before the House to be the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 392 as amended by Free Conference Committee.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, doesn't it take a necessary two-thirds vote to suspend the rules to consider this on final passage since it has not been before us the required length of time?"

The Speaker: "This bill has been here for a long period of time."

Representatives Van Dyken and Brough spoke against passage of the bill.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hastings asked Mr. Ebersole to yield to question and Mr. Ebersole refused to yield.

Mr. Hastings asked Ms. Hine to yield to question and Ms. Hine refused to yield.

Mr. Van Dyken yielded to question by Mr. Hastings.

Mr. Hastings: "Representative Van Dyken, new section 5 deals with municipal corporations having credit cards. The last part of subsection (3) states: 'The municipal corporation or political subdivision shall have unlimited authority to revoke use of any charge card issued under this section, and, upon such revocation order being delivered to the charge card company, shall not be liable for any costs.' What is the timing on that? Could there possibly be a time where there could be an abuse of a card or a stolen card, the revocation order be in the mail, and the credit card company be stuck with some outstanding bills?"

Mr. Van Dyken: "Representative Hastings, I would have hoped that this would have been something we could have pursued in hearings, but, as you know, this particular bill never came before the House. It was explored in the other body. Not being a member of that other body, I don't know if they addressed this particular question or not. It would seem that the language is, at best, ambiguous and based on the information that we have, the lack of testimony thereon, the lack of detailed exploration of the issue, I can't give you a qualified answer at this time. It does not appear that those who were involved in drafting this particular legislation and placing it here before this body at this hour are willing to give an answer to that."

Mr. Hastings opposed passage of the bill.

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 392 as amended by Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 58; nays, 39; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Allen, Appelwick, Armstrong, Barrett, Belcher, Braddock, Brekke, Broback, Burns, Chamley, Crane, Dellwo, Ebersole, Egger, Ellis, Fisch, Fisher, Gallagher, Galloway, Garrett, Grimm, Halsan, Hankins, Heck, Hine, Isaacson, Jacobsen, Johnson, Kaiser, King J, King P, King R, Kreidler, Locke, Lux, McClure, McMullen, Monohon, Moon, Nelson D, Nelson G, Niemi, O'Brien, Powers, Pruitt, Rust, Sayan, Scott, Smitherman, Sommers, Stratton, Sutherland, Tanner, Todd, Vekich, Waik, Wang, and Mr. Speaker - 58.

Voting nay: Representatives Addison, Ballard, Barnes, Betzoff, Bond, Brough, Cantu, Chandler, Clayton, Dickie, Fiske, Fuhrman, Hastings, Haugen, Holland, Lewis, Miller, Mitchell, Nealey, Padden, Patrick, Prince, Sanders, Schmidt, Schoon, Silver, Smith C, Smith L, Struthers, Taylor, Tilly, Van Dyken, Van Luven, Vander Stoep, West, Williams B, Williams J, Wilson, Zellinsky - 39.

Excused: Representative Long - 1.

Engrossed House Bill No. 392 as amended by Free Conference Committee, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Such policies shall take into consideration the circumstances pertaining to the student's inability to attend school. However, no policy shall be adopted whereby a grade shall be reduced or credit shall be denied for disciplinary reasons only, rather than for academic reasons, unless due process of law is provided as set forth by the state board of education under RCW 28A.04.132.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 98, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 28A.03.360 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~(It shall be the intent and purpose of this section to direct the office of superintendent of public instruction to conduct standardized reading, mathematics, and language arts achievement level surveys of approximately two thousand students distributed throughout the state in each of the grade levels eight and eleven during such testing cycles as provided for in subsection (2) of this section. The survey testing shall be based on a statistical random sample of students from these grade levels sufficient to generalize about all of the students at each of the selected grade levels from the state's school districts. The purpose of these surveys is to allow the public and the legislature to evaluate how Washington students in these grades compare to students in the same grades tested in other comparable national achievement surveys. The office of superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate such tests and provide such information as obtained therefrom to the legislature no less often than once every four years.~~

~~(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare a report to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grades eight and eleven based on the achievement level surveys conducted in the 1975-77 biennium and for each of the subsequent testing cycles as designated by the superintendent of public instruction's office. Such report shall include a comparison of the achievement levels attained by Washington students to the levels attained by students outside of the state, with special emphasis placed on the basic skills of reading, mathematics, and language arts. Such report shall also focus on appropriate input variables and comparisons of variables reported by other states' testing programs.~~

~~(3) Results of the first survey test shall be made available to the school districts and the legislature no later than June 30, 1977.~~

(4) ~~in addition to the survey testing for grades eight and eleven as set forth in this section:)~~ Every school district is encouraged to test pupils in grade two by an assessment device designed or selected by the local school districts. This test shall be used to help teachers in identifying those pupils in need of assistance in the skills of reading, writing, mathematics, and language arts. The test results are not to be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, but are only to be used by the local school district.

~~((5))~~ (2) ~~The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare (with the assistance of local school districts) and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, a standardized achievement test to be given annually to all pupils in grade four. The test shall assess students' skill in reading, mathematics, and language arts and shall focus upon appropriate input variables. Results of such tests shall be compiled by the superintendent of public instruction, who shall make those results available annually to the legislature, to all local school districts and subsequently to parents of those children tested. The results shall allow parents to ascertain the achievement levels and input variables of their children as compared with the other students within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation.~~

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare and conduct, with the assistance of local school districts, an assessment to be administered annually to all grade eight students. The purposes of the assessment are to assist students, parents, and teachers in the planning and selection of appropriate high school programs and courses for the students and to provide comparisons within the district, the state and, if applicable, the nation. The assessment shall include but not be limited to tests in reading, mathematics, and language arts and a student interest inventory. The superintendent of public instruction shall make the results available to all local school districts which shall in turn make them available to students, parents, and teachers in a timely fashion.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall test approximately two thousand students distributed throughout the state in the eleventh grade once every two years. Choice of students shall be based on a statistical random sample of students from this grade level sufficient to generalize about all of the students at the grade level from the state's school districts. The purpose of the test is to allow the public, the legislature, and school district personnel to evaluate how Washington students in this grade compare to students in the same grade tested in other comparable national achievement surveys.

(5) The superintendent of public instruction shall report annually to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grades four and eight and shall report biennially to the legislature on the achievement levels of students in grade eleven.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The superintendent of public instruction shall conduct a study to determine the need for and feasibility of administering annually an assessment test to be given to all grade ten students. The superintendent shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1985, on the study findings and any recommendations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

School districts are encouraged to prepare and administer a program of assessment tests to be periodically administered to students as they progress from the eighth through eleventh grades for the purpose of identifying and remedying deficiencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall prepare, in consultation with and with the assistance of school districts, a model test to assess students' ability to perform various functions common to everyday life. This model test shall be called the 'Washington life skills test' and shall be made available to school districts for use at the district's option. The test shall include questions designed to determine students' academic growth and proficiency in skills generally thought to be useful in adult life, including but not limited to English, vocabulary, communications, and mathematical skills as such skills relate to career, consumer, economic, health, and other issues important to individuals becoming productive citizens. The superintendent of public instruction shall develop and implement a process to review periodically the contents of the test and make changes as may be appropriate or necessary.

(2) School districts may establish their own policies and procedures governing the use of the test. Districts may use the test as a requirement for graduation in conjunction with other state and local graduation requirements or for other purposes as districts may determine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the superintendent of public instruction for the administration of this chapter, the superintendent of public instruction shall carry out a program for highly capable students. Such program may include conducting, coordinating and aiding in research (including pilot programs), disseminating information to local school districts, providing statewide staff development, and allocating to school districts supplementary funds for additional costs of district programs, as provided by section 14 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Local school districts may establish and operate, either separately or jointly, programs for highly capable students. Such authority shall include the right to employ and pay special instructors and to operate such programs jointly with a public institution of higher education. Local school districts which establish and operate programs for highly capable students shall adopt identification procedures and provide educational opportunities as follows:

(1) In accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the superintendent of public instruction, school districts shall implement procedures for nomination, assessment and selection of their most highly capable students. Nominations shall be based upon data from teachers, other staff, parents, students, and members of the community. Assessment shall be based upon a review of each student's capability as shown by multiple criteria intended to reveal, from a wide variety of sources and data, each student's unique needs and capabilities. Selection shall be made by a broadly based committee of professionals, after consideration of the results of the multiple criteria assessment.

(2) Students selected pursuant to procedures outlined in this section shall be provided, to the extent feasible, an educational opportunity which takes into account each student's unique needs and capabilities and the limits of the resources and program options available to the district, including those options which can be developed or provided by using funds allocated by the superintendent of public instruction for that purpose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Mr. Speaker:

Mr. President:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1660, improving the quality of education, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill be amended to read as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction, in consultation with representatives of the state and regional universities, the council for postsecondary education, and the state board of education, shall develop a program to implement at least one campus educational research center located in the state of Washington. Any research center shall be located at an existing state or regional university campus and may be utilized by school districts and all teacher preparation institutions to assist in educational research and the field testing of new innovations in curriculum design, teaching methodology, management practices, and school organizational structures. The superintendent of public instruction shall report to the legislature and the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management by January 1, 1985, on the plan for the organization and operation of any research center, locations, and costs related thereto. The superintendent of public instruction shall also make available to the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, prior to the presentation of the final plan, such information as may be developed in the preparation of the plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to grant funds for selected school improvement and research projects, including improvements in curriculum, instruction, and classroom management developed by teachers.

(2) The superintendent shall appoint an advisory committee on research and development composed of certificated and noncertificated staff, administrators, curriculum specialists, parents, school directors, postsecondary educators, business persons, and others as the superintendent finds necessary. The committee shall propose criteria to the superintendent to evaluate proposed school improvement and research projects proposed by educational employees. The criteria approved by the superintendent shall: (a) Assure to the extent possible that projects will be chosen which represent the various geographical locations, school or district sizes, and grade levels existent in the state; (b) provide for evaluation of each project upon completion; and (c) include such other requirements as the superintendent finds necessary. The committee shall recommend to the superintendent of public instruction the awarding of grants to fund those proposals showing the most potential for developing knowledge which will be helpful to local districts in their efforts to enhance educational equity and excellence. Projects may involve the collaboration of personnel from higher education institutions and kindergarten through grade twelve educators.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall award grants to selected project participants in such amounts as recommended by the advisory committee on research and development under subsection (2) of this section and the sum of all grants awarded per year shall not exceed that amount appropriated by the legislature for such purposes. Grants may be awarded to individual teachers or teams of teachers including teacher's aides and volunteers.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall maintain a clearinghouse of information on these research projects for the use of local districts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Recent and expanding activity in educational research has produced and continues to produce much valuable information. The legislature finds that such information should be shared with the citizens and educational community of the state as widely as possible. To facilitate access to information and materials on education, the superintendent of public instruction shall act as the state clearinghouse for educational information.

(2) In carrying out this function, the superintendent of public instruction's primary duty shall be to collect, screen, organize, and disseminate information pertaining to the state's educational system from preschool through grade twelve, including but not limited to in-state research and development efforts; descriptions of exemplary, model, and innovative programs; and related information that can be used in developing more effective programs.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall maintain a collection of such studies, articles, reports, research findings, monographs, bibliographies, directories, curriculum materials, speeches, conference proceedings, legal decisions that are concerned with some aspect of the state's education system, and other applicable materials. All materials and information shall be considered public documents under chapter 42.17 RCW and the superintendent of public instruction shall furnish copies of educational materials at nominal cost, including information on the school improvement research projects under section 2 of this act.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall coordinate the dissemination of information with the educational service districts and shall publish and distribute, on a monthly basis, a newsletter describing current activities and developments in education in the state.

Each school district board of directors shall develop a schedule and process by which each public school within its jurisdiction shall undertake self-study procedures on a regular basis. Each school may follow the accreditation process developed by the state board of education under RCW 28A.04.120(4), although no school is required to file for actual accreditation, or the school may follow a self-study process developed locally. Whatever process is used must focus upon the quality and appropriateness of the school's educational program and the results of its operational efforts.

Any self-study process must include the participation of staff, parents, members of the community, and students, where appropriate to their age.

Emphasis throughout the process shall be placed upon:

- (1) Achieving educational excellence and equity;
- (2) Building stronger links with the community; and
- (3) Reaching consensus upon educational expectations through community involvement and corresponding school management.

The initial self-study process within each district shall begin by September 1, 1985, and should be completed for all schools within a district by the end of the 1989-90 school year.

The state board of education shall develop rules and regulations governing procedural criteria. Such rules and regulations should be flexible so as to accommodate local goals and circumstances. Rules and regulations may allow for waiver of the self-study for economic reasons and may also allow for waiver of the initial self-study if a district or its schools have participated successfully in an official accreditation process or in a similar assessment of educational programs within the last three years. The self-study process shall be conducted on a cyclical basis every seven years following the initial 1989-90 period.

The superintendent of public instruction shall provide training to assist districts in their self-studies.

Each district shall annually report to the superintendent of public instruction on the scheduling and implementation of their self-study activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.03 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to grant funds to local school districts to establish pilot projects in building-based management from funds appropriated to include that purpose or from funds otherwise available.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The superintendent of public instruction shall develop, with the advice of the state board of education, school board members, administrators, the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management and the institutions of higher education offering teacher training programs, a plan for an administrators training academy. The plan shall include components to develop management skills of board members, superintendents, principals, and other supervisory personnel. The plan should focus on developing leadership skills, curriculum improvement and upgrading, teacher evaluation and counseling, linkages with the community, enhancement of a positive learning environment, planning and goal setting, effective school research, finance, school law, and classroom management techniques and methods to make better use of the school day for learning and to reduce disruptions and nonteaching tasks for teachers.

The plan shall provide for the shared cost of the academy.

Sec. 7. Section 14, chapter 244, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 229, Laws of 1983 and RCW 28A.41.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student shall be determined in accordance with the following procedures:

The governor shall and the superintendent of public instruction may recommend to the legislature a formula based on a ratio of students to staff for the distribution of a basic education allocation for each annual average full time equivalent student enrolled in a common school. The distribution formula shall have the primary objective of equalizing educational opportunities and shall provide appropriate recognition of the following costs among the various districts within the state:

- (1) Certificated staff and their related costs;
- (2) Classified staff and their related costs;
- (3) Nonsalary costs;
- (4) Extraordinary costs of remote and necessary schools and small high schools; and
- (5) The attendance of students pursuant to RCW 28A.58.075 and 28A.58.245, each as now or hereafter amended, who do not reside within the servicing school district.

This formula for distribution of basic education funds shall be reviewed biennially by the superintendent and governor. The recommended formula shall be subject to approval, amendment or rejection by the legislature. Commencing with the 1980-81 school year, the formula adopted by the legislature shall reflect a ratio of not less than fifty certificated personnel to one thousand annual average full time equivalent students and one classified person to three certificated personnel. In the event the legislature rejects the distribution formula recommended by the governor, without adopting a new distribution formula, the distribution formula for the previous school year shall remain in effect: PROVIDED, That the distribution formula developed pursuant to this section shall be for state apportionment and equalization purposes only and shall not be construed as mandating specific operational functions of local school districts other than those program requirements identified in RCW 28A.58.754. The enrollment of any district shall be the annual average number of full time equivalent students and part time students as provided in RCW 28A.41.145, as now or hereafter amended, enrolled on the first school day of each month. The definition of full time equivalent student shall be determined by rules and regulations of the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That the definition shall be included as part of the superintendent's biennial budget request: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any revision of the present definition shall not take effect until approved by the house appropriations committee and the senate ways and means committee: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the office of financial management shall make a monthly review of the superintendent's reported full time equivalent students in the common schools in conjunction with RCW 43.62.050.

Certificated staff shall include those persons employed by a school district in a teaching, instructional, educational staff associate, learning resources specialist, administrative or supervisory capacity and who hold positions as certificated employees as defined under RCW 28A.01.130, as now or hereafter amended, and every school district superintendent, and any person hired in any manner to fill a position designated as, or which is in fact, that of deputy superintendent or assistant superintendent: PROVIDED, That in exceptional cases, people of unusual competence but without certification may teach students so long as a certificated person exercises general supervision: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the hiring of such noncertificated people shall not occur during a labor dispute and such noncertificated people shall not be hired to replace certificated employees during a labor dispute. Each annual average full time equivalent certificated classroom teacher's direct classroom contact hours shall average at least twenty-five hours per week. Direct classroom contact hours shall be exclusive of time required to be spent for preparation, conferences, or any other nonclassroom instruction duties. Up to two hundred minutes per week may be deducted from the twenty-five contact hour requirement, at the discretion of the school district board of directors, to accommodate authorized teacher/parent-guardian conferences, recess, passing time between classes, and informal instructional activity. Implementing rules to be adopted by the state board of education pursuant to RCW 28A.58.754(6) shall provide that compliance with the direct contact hour requirement shall be based upon teachers' normally assigned weekly instructional schedules, as assigned by the district administration. Additional record-keeping by classroom teachers as a means of accounting for contact hours shall not be required. However, upon request from the board of directors of any school district, the provisions relating to direct classroom contact hours for individual teachers in that district may be waived by the state board of education if the waiver is necessary to implement a locally approved plan for educational excellence and the waiver is limited to those individual teachers approved in the local plan for educational excellence. The state board of education shall develop criteria to evaluate the need for the waiver. Granting of the waiver shall depend upon verification that: (a) The students' classroom instructional time will not be reduced; and (b) the teacher's expertise is critical to the success of the local plan for excellence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.67 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The superintendent of public instruction shall establish an annual teacher excellence award program for teachers in diverse grades or subject areas. Not more than one award per educational service district may be granted in any school year.

(2) The awards shall include:

(a) Certificates presented by the governor and the superintendent of public instruction at public ceremonies in appropriate locations;

(b) Waiver of tuition and fees under section 9 of this act; and

(c) A stipend not to exceed one thousand dollars to cover costs incurred in taking courses, which stipend shall not be considered compensation for the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28B.15 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Teachers who have received a teacher excellence award under section 8 of this act shall have the tuition and fees waived at any state institution of higher education for eighteen quarter hours or twelve semester hours taken within three years after the award was received.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

School district boards of directors are encouraged to develop and implement incentives which recognize and encourage staff excellence. School districts may provide compensation incentives to staff for additional work or assigned projects conducted as part of a district's excellence in education program or programs that are in addition to a district's basic education program. Such compensation shall not be deemed an increase in salary or compensation for purposes of RCW 28A.58.095 nor shall such compensation be applied to the district's salary schedule or be provided in a manner which would increase the state's basic education funding obligation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) There is established for the 1984-85 school year a pilot program to permit up to one hundred fifty teachers who are assigned to supervise the field experience of student teachers to receive a stipend and up to three quarter hour credits or the equivalent at a state institution of higher education.

(2) The objective of the program is to: (a) Enhance the quality of teachers entering the profession through improved practical field experience; and (b) recognize the value of instruction provided by supervisory teachers.

(3) Each supervisory teacher shall assure that the student teacher receives practical teaching experience and direct supervision throughout the assignment.

(4) Each participating school or college of education shall provide training in supervisory skills for the supervisory teacher.

(5) School districts shall provide supervisory teachers with release time the district deems necessary to be able to supervise the student teachers.

(6) For the purposes of this section, 'student teacher' means an individual who receives training experiences under supervision in school or school-related settings while participating in a teacher education program approved by the state board of education.

(7) The state board of education shall administer, coordinate, and evaluate the program and report back to the education committees of the house of representatives and the senate by September 15, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state board of education shall recommend a plan to establish a graduate level professional teacher preparation program for teacher certification. The plan shall be based on an analysis of the need for and design of: Explicit entry and exit competency criteria, which shall include testing and assessments of competency in various subject matters or in pedagogy including the ability to encourage students to learn and relate to others in a mutually respectful manner, or both; breadth and depth of subject matter; training and research relevant to teaching skills; extensive experience in local districts including internship, a portion of which may be paid; research on education; continued involvement of program units as defined by the state board of education; and other criteria as the board may determine appropriate. The state board shall also recommend enabling legislation and changes in certification needed to establish such program, provide data relative to costs, and recommend a process for certifying teachers who have been certified in another state. The state board of education shall submit to the legislature by December 1, 1984, recommendations for legislation required to implement such a graduate level professional teacher preparation program.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After June 30, 1987, each applicant for initial certification shall have completed the necessary coursework and field training requirements, shall submit letters of evaluation from academic and field training supervisors, shall pass an examination or examinations that measure the applicant's subject area knowledge, and shall satisfy other procedures prescribed by the state board of education before receiving initial certification to teach or perform other professional duties in the schools of the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. The Washington state legislature intends to study the appropriate salary and benefit levels of educators. The study shall:

(1) Address the appropriate salary and benefit levels of teachers, for both current preparation standards and the increased professional preparation standards under section 12 of this act, to a level similar to persons in public and private occupations in this state holding positions requiring or imposing similar training, responsibilities, judgment, knowledge, skills, and working conditions. The study shall compare teachers to public and private occupations on both an hourly wage basis and on an annual salary basis.

(2) Compare Washington state teachers and administrators to teachers and administrators in other states on the bases under subsection (1) of this section; and

(3) Compare the workloads of Washington state teachers and administrators with teachers and administrators in other states.

The superintendent of public instruction shall contract for a study to assist the legislature in the study. The study shall be completed and the results reported to the legislature by January 1, 1985. The superintendent of public instruction shall also make available to the temporary committee on educational policies, structure and management, prior to the presentation of the final report, such data as may be developed as part of the study. The legislature is not obligated to implement any or all of the results contained in such study.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.71 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The plan shall be established prior to September 1, 1985, and shall provide for staff development training programs which are of professional benefit to employees. School districts shall review and approve staff development training courses. Courses shall be recognized by a school district if such courses:

(1) Enable employees to maintain or improve proficiency in their current or anticipated assignments; or

(2) Respond to an area of district-needed expertise.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.58 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Local districts shall assign secondary teachers holding initial level certificates to endorsed areas and levels only. Teachers holding initial level elementary endorsement shall be assigned to elementary grades only. MOTION

Ms. Galloway moved that the House adopt the report of the Free Conference Committee on Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 1660.

Ms. Galloway spoke in favor of the motion, and Representatives Taylor, Schoon and Vander Stoep spoke against it.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Padden: "Mr. Speaker, it's now 12:15 a.m., March 9, 1984."

Mr. Dickie spoke against passage of the bill, and on motion of Mr. Hastings, the remarks were ordered placed in the Journal.

Mr. Dickie: "I came here tonight to discuss this bill as best I know how, in the most sincere effort that I could give. I have taught Washington State history and government. I never taught it the way I've seen it practiced here tonight. What I wanted to say to you--and this will be my last speech on the floor of this body and I have nothing to gain or nothing to lose by what I say--I wanted to say to you that your schools are at risk. They are not at risk by what they are doing; they are at risk by what we are doing. They are at risk because the schools in the State of Washington are being run by the servants who have also become the masters. To me that's the most dangerous thing that can happen to a free society. I was going to tell you tonight about all the things that are bad in this bill, and there are many of them, but the worst thing that's in this bill is the fact of how it was passed. It was passed by a group that has more power than the parents or this body. To me that is a danger. It threatens our entire society; it threatens our entire way of life. The public knows what they want in their schools. They do not want smoke screens; they don't want newspaper articles to tell fine things. What they are asking for are things that are very simple: They want to insist that we have visible curriculum with clearly stated outcome. I tried for three years to get that placed in statute. They want an environment where their children can go to school without fear. They are talking about discipline. They want management which has accountability and is responsible for carrying out that accountability. They want administration that is not run by an advisory committee but does the job and does it well. They do not want their rights of management bargained away and that's what we have been doing. They want stable school funding. They are not talking, necessarily, about the amount, but they want to know what they have every year. Most importantly, they want good teachers; they do not want mediocrity in the classrooms. Every effort to provide that is denied and frustrated in this body by the same organization that has forced this bill through this body."

Representatives B. Williams and Fuhrman spoke against passage of the bill.

The Speaker declared the House to be at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House dispensed with further business under the Call of the House.

On motion of Mr. Heck, the House advanced to the eighth order of business.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE FLOOR RESOLUTION NO. 84-188, by Representatives Heck and G. Nelson

BE IT RESOLVED, By the House of Representatives, That all bills, memorials, joint resolutions and concurrent resolutions in possession of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives be indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Mr. Heck, the resolution was adopted.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Wilson: "I rise to recognize and give thanks to my old mentor, Representative Gallagher, who has shown many of us in the past how to maneuver around the halls here. Another thing I want to say is that we've had some tough sixty days here; a lot of discussions back and forth amongst many of us, and I think the one thing we must remember out of all of this--we are all elected by our separate constituencies. We try to represent them. We are friends, and we want to forget the rancor when we leave these halls here. Feeling somewhat good about every one of us, because we've done a darn good job of trying to represent the people that sent us here, and I think that's the thing we want to remember most about this. We're going to be out on the campaign trail, many of us, I'm sure, contending against each other or rivals of some sort, but still our sole purpose here is to represent the people who sent us and to work together and I think, in a large sense, we have done that. I really sincerely appreciate being here and knowing all of you."

PRESENTATION OF GIFT

Representatives Hine and Hastings presented a gift to the Speaker on behalf of all the members of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker: "I appreciate the opportunity to serve as Speaker of the House. It's an opportunity that is not given to too many persons. I know Speaker O'Brien has had the opportunity on four occasions, but it took him forty-one years to do it. It's not my intention to be here that much longer, but I appreciate the opportunity. I'll treasure this card with all the signatures very much. Thank you.

"I remember that it has been said on a number of occasions that people come from all over the state representing different constituencies. The colleagues in our caucus talked about the earth on which we live, and an important part of that earth is the State of Washington. It's important to me as I was born here. My family came to this great state in the late 1850s or the early 1860s, so they have been here a long time and I'm sure my family, my children, my boys, will be here long after I'm gone. I think it's great to be from the State of Washington either as a newcomer or as one who has been here a long period of time. I think we should all, in this room, be not only proud of that but also proud of all the people we represent out there in this great state."

VETOED AND PARTIALLY VETOED

1984 REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one provision, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to watercraft."

A portion of section 2(7) would exempt from registration watercraft under 16 feet in overall length not used in waters subject to Federal jurisdiction.

I appreciate the legislature's desire to limit boat registration requirements as much as possible and still qualify for Federal funding. However, a registration requirement conditioned on the type of water in which the boat will be used would create several problems:

1. It is impossible for both users and registration agencies to determine in advance where a boat will be used in the following 12 months.

2. A lack of registrations on a large number of the motorized boats under 16 feet in length would make enforcement of both the registration law and boating safety laws very difficult. This is particularly so since the distinction between Federal and state waters is often quite unclear.

3. This provision could foster widespread non-compliance with the registration law. This in turn could jeopardize Federal funding.

4. It would cause a loss of state revenues.

With the exception of a portion of section 2(7), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 255 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

March 29, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval, as to certain sections, Second Substitute House Bill No. 689, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to small business."

This measure creates both the Small Business Assistance Advisory Council and the Small Business Improvement Council. The purpose of the two councils is to identify and resolve small business program duplications in state government and to recommend actions to remove governmental restrictions that would inhibit the growth of small businesses.

Clearly, two councils are unnecessary and duplicative. Therefore, I have vetoed section 3 of this measure. The council created therein is unduly restrictive in its appointment process, jeopardizing the separation of powers between the executive and legislative branches.

In addition, I have vetoed sections 9, 10, 11, and 12 of the bill as these provisions specifically provide the internal organization structure of the remaining council, a subject which is better left to the council to determine after its formation.

With the exception of sections 3, 9, 10, 11, and 12, Second Substitute House Bill No. 689 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

March 29, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval, as to section 2, House Bill No. 880, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to health care services."

This measure, in section 1, adds to existing law a number of additional health care providers to whom checks and payments for claims under any health service contract must be made payable to both the provider and the insured, jointly.

Section 2, however, adds to the Uniform Commercial Code a provision establishing liability on the initial party accepting negotiation without obtaining the endorsement of all the payees for the value of the instrument, cost of collection and reasonable attorneys' fees. This section is ill-advised. First, the language is inconsistent with other provisions of Article 3 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Second, the provision would appear to be unnecessary. Under current law, a joint payee whose endorsement is not obtained on a check which is paid absent that endorsement has remedies available against all other parties in the collection process. This provision may reduce the joint payee's possibility of recovery except against the "initial party."

With the exception of section 2, House Bill No. 880 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval Substitute House Bill No. 1123 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state employees' insurance."

This bill would authorize the State Employees' Insurance Board to self-fund any or all of the insurance programs under its jurisdiction except property and casualty insurance. Medical and dental coverage would be primarily effected.

Last session, I vetoed a similar measure, Substitute House Bill No. 620, due to concern with the high risks involved in self-insurance and the lack of adequate preparation for this type of program. The Office of Fiscal Management was directed to study this self-insurance alternative, did so, and presented this measure to the legislature.

The study indicates that full implementation of self-insurance would result in some savings achieved through interest earnings. I do not believe that these potential savings are sufficiently great to justify enacting this measure at this time.

I continue to be concerned that the State Employees' Insurance Board does not possess the personnel or resources necessary to carry out the duties mandated by this legislation. I also question whether or not it is appropriate for a board which is made up of state employees to be charged with providing direct benefits to those same employees. In short, I still consider the risks too great and believe this measure warrants evaluation.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Substitute House Bill No. 1123.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State
of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one provision, Substitute House Bill No. 1156, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state agencies."

The provision I have vetoed and the reasons therefore are as follows:

On page 67, section 501, I have vetoed all of subsection (5) which states that:

(5) $1,796,000 is provided solely for the implementation of House Bill No. 1660 during the 1984-85 school year. The funds shall be allocated as follows:

(a) A maximum of $50,000 for a Campus Education Research Center.

(b) A maximum of $350,000 for School Improvement Research Projects.

(c) A maximum of $50,000 for an SPI clearinghouse.

(d) A maximum of $200,000 for School Self Study.

(e) A maximum of $50,000 for Building Based Management Pilot Programs.

(f) A maximum of $75,000 for an Administrator Training Academy Plan.

(g) A maximum of $12,000 for Teacher Excellence Awards.

(h) A maximum of $50,000 for Supervision of Student Teacher Pilot Programs.

(i) A maximum of $200,000 for a Graduate Teacher Preparation Plan.

(j) A maximum of $80,000 for Teacher Competency Test Development.

(k) A maximum of $75,000 for an Educator Salary Study.

(l) A maximum of $40,000 for In-Service Credit Equivalency Development.

(m) A maximum of $564,000 for Staff Development Plans.

As House Bill No. 1660 did not pass, this appropriation cannot be used and is an unnecessary authorization.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State
of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to several sections, House Bill No. 1159, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state government."

Sections 22, 23, 24, and 25 would amend statutory provisions dealing with existing barbering and cosmetology boards. Because the legislature has chosen to allow these boards to terminate under existing provisions and to assign their functions to the Department of Licensing and a new State Cosmetology, Barbering and Manicuring Advisory Board (ESHB 1187, Section 9), these sections need to be vetoed in order to avoid potential double-amendment problems.

With the exception of sections 22, 23, 24, 25, and 38, House Bill No. 1159 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

March 29, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Substitute House Bill No. 1163, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to credit transactions."

This bill places credit cards issued by companies which are not financial institutions nor retail businesses in the same category as credit cards issued by retail businesses. The bill also provides additional protection to the user of the credit card, where his returned goods or otherwise secured forgiveness of the debt for which the card was used. This bill clarifies that the credit card user is not responsible for the payment of service charges resulting from the failure of a retailer or of the card issuer to properly process the advice of credit. However, subsection 4 of section 11 goes beyond protection of the holder of the card and unnecessarily stipulates that, as between the issuer of the card and the retailers, the retailers will bear the burden of the surcharges where they are at fault. This issue should be left to agreement between the card issuer and the retailers honoring the card.

With the exception of section 11(4), Substitute House Bill No. 1163 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, Substitute House Bill No. 1164, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to solid waste management; . . ."

This act lists priorities for solid waste management and requires the Department of Ecology to adopt functional standards for the handling of solid waste which utilize technology to protect the environment and human health. The purpose of the bill is laudable, and I fully support its execution. Therefore, I approved the entire bill with the exception of Section 3 which I vetoed.

Section 3 amends existing language in RCW 70.95.060 which already gave the Department of Ecology permissive authority to adopt minimum functional standards for solid waste handling. The amendments require the Department of Ecology to adopt these standards, but also require that the standards be reviewed and approved by the Solid Waste Advisory Committee prior to adoption.

I support the use of advisory committees for review and comment as is specified in Section 4(3) for the local solid waste advisory committee on plan preparation and revisions. However, it is not appropriate to give an advisory committee approval or veto of standards adoption. This constitutes delegation of rule-making authority to an advisory committee which is not accountable to the electorate for its actions.

There are sufficient opportunities through the rule-making process for both the advisory committee and the general public to be heard.

I believe that my veto of Section 3, for the reasons outlined above, has not harmed the spirit and intent of Substitute House Bill 1164. Please be assured that the Department of Ecology will proceed with adoption of functional standards for solid waste management while utilizing its advisory committee on solid waste management for review and comment.

The remaining sections of the bill are approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to certain provisions, Substitute House Bill No. 1178, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the regulation of health and health-related professions and businesses."

Section 64 adds very detailed and inappropriate language to the statute regulating nursing home administrators.

Sections 64 and 65 (3) would exempt from all regulation the administrators of nursing homes operated by churches teaching healing by faith alone. I believe it is important to recognize that the regulation of nursing homes and their administrators deals with far more than medical treatment. Therefore, the current exemptions from medically-related regulations are more appropriate than blanket deregulation.

Sections 66 and 67 would raise the educational requirement for licensure of nursing home administrators from an associate degree to a bachelor's degree. This kind of educational requirement, unrelated to the practice of the occupation, is inappropriate because it tends to increase consumer costs and decrease job opportunities without promising any improvement in service.

Sections 70(3) and (4) would reduce the state's ability to discipline licensed nursing home administrators by removing the ability to discipline for knowing violations of the statute. Knowing violation should be retained as a basis of discipline.

With the exception of these provisions, Substitute House Bill No. 1178 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State
of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval Engrossed House Bill No. 1219 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to labor relations in community colleges."

Last year, I vetoed a similar bill that would have established collective bargaining in higher education. That bill, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042, pertained to all the state's institutions of higher education. This measure, while restricted to the state's community college system, contains similar flaws.

Again this year, I am confronted with a bill which presents a standard industrial bargaining model for an institution of higher education; a measure that does not address the need for mutual cooperation between faculty, students, and administration in the development of procedures and policies necessary to preservation of the special nature of our state's community colleges. The bill before me continues to prescribe the adversarial approach to professional negotiations.

Current law regarding negotiations at the state's community colleges requires negotiations, in good faith, between representatives of employee organizations and community college districts with respect to curriculum, textbook selection, in-service training, student teaching programs, personnel, hiring and assignment practices, leaves of absence, salaries, salary schedules, and non-instructional duties. In fact, this requirement for negotiations has led to collective bargaining which closely approximates the traditional model and has led to the execution of collective bargaining agreements which closely approximate the traditional model. I see little need for change in terms of the duty to bargain or the scope of bargaining.

It is true, however, that present law is lacking. Disputes between the parties with respect to the scope of bargaining and with the respect to the definition of various commonly understood duties of the parties in the collective bargaining process remain unresolvable except through expensive and costly litigation. The inadequate framework of the present law with respect to dispute resolution has not forestalled adversarial relationships nor has it forestalled strikes. These problems should be remedied.

I would support legislation establishing the Public Relations Employment Commission as the agency under whose auspices community college bargaining would occur. Legislation that empowered parties to resolve disputes between the parties in the bargaining process and provided mediation and conciliation services to the parties in the event of impasse would be most appropriate. I also would seriously consider legislation which prohibited strikes by community college faculty while providing an alternative process for final resolution of disputes.

For the reasons above stated, I have vetoed Engrossed House Bill No. 1219.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor.

March 28, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 13 and 17, Substitute House Bill No. 1262, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to industrial development."

Substitute House Bill No. 1262 authorizes the use of umbrella industrial development revenue bonds by the Community Economic Revitalization Board (CERB).

The use of umbrella industrial development bonds in the state of Washington is acceptable and will be beneficial to the economic development of the state. However, section 13 relates to the operation of the Community Economic Revitalization Board's local government grant/loan program, and would place further restrictions on the use of CERB's loan and grant funds.

Section 17 would direct funds away from CERB's facilities construction loan revolving fund to the public works revolving fund established by Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4404. This would be contrary to legislative intent regarding the use of EAA's Public Facilities Revolving Account Funds.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 13 and 17 of Substitute House Bill No. 1262.

The remaining sections of the bill are approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 3, Engrossed House Bill No. 1304, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to teacher retirement."

The need for this section has not been demonstrated. If, indeed, any such change is necessary, it should be made after adequate study in a careful and deliberate manner to avoid adverse effects on the pension trust fund.

With the exception of section 3, Engrossed House Bill No. 1304 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

March 5, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval Engrossed House Bill No. 1355 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to payroll deductions for public employees."

Current law does not allow voluntary payroll deductions for contribution to political action committees. The law does, however, allow deductions for employee association dues, part of which can be and are used for participation in political campaigns.

I feel the current practice of voluntary contributions to whatever party a state employee may wish to support is working well. I am therefore not convinced that there is a demonstrated public need or problem which would support the approval of this bill.

Second, I believe that state government must, whenever possible, continue to observe and protect the policy of separating its operations from the activities of political campaigns.

For these reasons I have vetoed Engrossed House Bill No. 1355.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

March 30, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington
Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval, as to certain sections, House Bill No. 1378, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to public employees."

Portions of this bill would reestablish seniority as the sole factor in personnel decisions regarding salary increases, layoffs, and rehiring of state employees. Current law requires that both seniority and job performance be considered when such decisions are made.

In 1983, I expressed my support of the existing law in the veto message of a bill similar to this measure. No new evidence has since been presented to me that would justify a change in my position. To discard the modest performance achieved in 1982, as proposed in this bill, would be an unfortunate step backward in our continuing efforts to motivate and reward our best employees.

Substitute House Bill No. 1378 has provisions that do not relate to performance or seniority. One of these is the proposal that the ratio of management employees to direct service employees be maintained during hiring and layoffs. This provision was vetoed last year because it was too vague to enforce, inflexible, and may force unintended layoffs of direct service workers. While I approve of a policy that maintains this ratio in layoffs, the above problems persist.

Other provisions of the bill cover the important aspect of mobility between personnel systems. Both the State Personnel Board and the Higher Education Personnel Board are about to adopt rules which will allow such mobility. In doing so, they will use existing authority for those rules. Rule making on this topic will allow greater flexibility in the system than will be permitted by this legislation.

The provisions of the bill dealing with extra sick leave for prison guards attacked on the job acknowledges the hazardous nature of employment in state prisons and other correctional facilities and are acceptable.

Therefore, I have vetoed the provisions of House Bill No. 1378 with the exception of section 19, which is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives
of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 7, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1456, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to transitional bilingual instruction."

Section 7 of this bill prohibits the provision of transitional bilingual instruction to an individual student for more than three years. Federal and state courts have found that children with limited ability to speak English have a constitutional right to an appropriate program of special instruction. This right is based on the individual student's need for assistance in order to participate in the basic public education program offered in English for all children. Both the existing statutory provisions and the language I proposed in my Special Needs bill provide an opportunity for districts to provide transitional bilingual education for longer periods of time if termination of services would inhibit the child's access to a basic education.

With the exception of section 7, which I have vetoed, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1456 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith without my approval House Bill No. 1462 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to unemployment compensation for persons who quit work for a good cause or are remunerated through tips."

As passed by the legislature, this measure deals strictly with inclusion of tip income in the definition of wages on which employers must pay unemployment insurance taxes. Coupled with the enactment of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4416, a comprehensive revision of the state's unemployment insurance tax provisions including an increase in those taxes, I feel this bill will place an unreasonable financial burden on employers of employees who receive tips. I question whether this additional tax burden can be justified in the current economic circumstances without hindering employment in the hospitality industry or, at the very least, resulting in increased prices for the consumer.

For the above reasons, I have vetoed House Bill No. 1462.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 3, 4, and 7, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1511, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to tourism development."

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1511 creates the Washington State Tourism Development Commission to advise the Governor and the legislature on tourism development.

The concept of a commission to study the tourism program in this state and to report back to the Governor and the legislature is acceptable and should prove beneficial. However, the method of appointment of the commission and its make-up as designated in this legislation clearly circumvent the executive branch of state government. The work envisioned by this legislation can be accomplished in a more efficient and responsible manner consistent with constitutional principles regarding the separation of powers if that work is undertaken in the manner established in the Executive Order '84-03, a copy of which I have attached to this message. For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 3, 4, and 7 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1511.

The remaining sections of the bill are approved.

John Spellman, Governor

March 28, 1984

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the State
of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to three sections engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1652, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to fireworks."

This bill embodies much needed language which will take the state a substantial way back down the road to a "safe and sane" policy with respect to Fourth of July fireworks.

Many have pointed out technical and conceptual flaws in the wording of this bill but with three exceptions, none of these arguments are convincing. The evidence is incontrovertible that the sale of dangerous fireworks over the last two years has resulted in destruction of property, including home fires, created a significant number of minor and sometimes major injuries, and seriously disrupted the peace and quiet of our State's citizenry over a substantial portion of the summer. All of this goes far beyond justifiable displays of patriotism on the anniversary of this nation's independence.

The concerns of the state's citizens and the threat posed by fireworks outweigh arguments in favor of delaying the effective date of this legislation. Therefore, I have vetoed Section 42 which contains the one year delay. This legislation will be come effective on June 7, 1984.

This bill provides for an option in counties, cities and towns to adopt more restrictive rules with respect to the types of fireworks that may be sold. Moreover, neither the state of Washington nor any local law enforcement agency has complete authority over sales by Indian tribes, some of which sales may be illegal under this legislation. Given this overlap of jurisdictional authority and given possible discrepancies in proscribed conduct, I am also vetoing Sections 38, and 39 of the bill.

Section 38 adopts a standard of strict liability with respect to damages awardable in any action for injury to person or property resulting from the sale of fireworks in violation of the Chapter. In short, the contributory fault of the claimant with respect to both purchasing illegal fireworks or improperly using those fireworks would not be chargeable to the claimant to diminish an award of compensatory damages. While I fully endorse the intent of this section to create incentives against the sale of illegal fireworks, I believe it will prove unfair and unworkable in view of the approach of the statute with regard to local option and with regard to problems presented by the sale of fireworks by Indian tribes. I would support a more specialized approach to strict liability that referenced the sections of the statute that specifically prohibit types of fireworks.

Section 39 of this bill purports to prohibit the printing or broadcasting of any advertisement for the sale of fireworks "in violation of this Chapter." As worded, this section is vague. In application, I believe it will not only be vague but overly broad and thus violative of Constitutional protections for freedom of speech and expression.

With the exception of Sections 38, 39 and 42, the Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1652 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
John Spellman, Governor
