
FIRST DAY

House Chamber, Olympia, Monday, January 12, 2015

The House was called to order at 12:00 noon by the Chief Clerk, Barbara Baker.

The flags were escorted to the rostrum by the Washington State Patrol Honor Guard. The National Anthem was sung by Representative Paul Harris. The Chief Clerk, Barbara Baker led the Chamber in the Pledge of Allegiance. The prayer was offered by Pastor Fred Williams, Snohomish Community Church, Washington.

Pastor Fred Williams: "Shall we pray. In our father and our God we acknowledge you as being the sovereign God of this universe and amazingly you stand as the sovereign God of this great state. We thank you in that your supreme wisdom you have hand selected every person in this room. There is not one representative that takes his chore in error, their very presence is an acknowledgement of your sovereign will and purpose. We know this because you told us through the apostle Paul that there is no authority except from you and those authorities exist have been instituted by you. And it is because of that that I thank you for every person present. And we stand before you grateful for this great state. This state is a blessing beyond what we deserve in so many ways yet we know that not all is right in Washington and we are in deep need of a spiritual renewal to help us meet the many problems we face. Teach our state's leaders to see these problems with your eyes and in doing so help us as leaders to set our feet on the path of your righteousness and your peace and so I pray for these hand selected leaders. Give them the wisdom to know what is right and the courage to do it and may we never forget that blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord. And it is because of your son, our great savior, that I pray these words. Amen."

The Chief Clerk called upon Representatives Laurie Jenkins and Jay Rodne to escort Justice Susan Owens of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington to the rostrum.

Definitions

Rule 1. "Absent" means an unexcused failure to attend.

"Term" means the two-year term during which the members as a body may act.

"Session" means a constitutional gathering of the house in accordance with Article 2 § 12 of the state Constitution.

"Committee" means any standing, conference, joint, or select committee as so designated by rule or resolution, and also means any standing committee subcommittee.

"Fiscal committee" means the appropriations, capital budget, finance, general government & information technology, and transportation committees.

"Bill" means bill, joint memorial, joint resolution, or concurrent resolution unless the context indicates otherwise.

Chief Clerk to Call to Order

Rule 2. It shall be the duty of the chief clerk of the previous term to call the house to order and to conduct the proceedings until a speaker is chosen.

Election of Officers

Rule 3. The house shall elect the following officers at the commencement of each term: Its presiding officer, who shall be styled speaker of the house; a speaker pro tempore, who shall serve in absence or in case of the inability of the speaker; a deputy speaker pro tempore, who shall serve in absence or in case of the inability of the speaker and speaker pro tempore; and a chief clerk of the house. Such officers shall hold office during all sessions until the convening of the succeeding term: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any of these offices may be declared vacant by the vote of a constitutional majority of the house, the members voting viva voce and their votes shall be entered on the journal. If any office is declared vacant, the house shall fill such vacant office as hereinafter provided. In all elections by the house a constitutional majority shall be required, the members shall vote viva voce and their votes shall be entered on the journal. (Art. II § 27)

Powers and Duties of the Speaker

Rule 4. The speaker shall have the following powers and duties:

(A) The speaker shall take the chair and call the house to order precisely at the hour appointed for meeting and if a quorum be present, shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read and shall proceed with the order of business.

(B) The speaker shall preserve order and decorum, and in case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct within the chamber or legislative area, shall order the sergeant at arms to suppress the same and may order the sergeant at arms to remove any person creating any disturbance within the house chamber or legislative area.

(C) The speaker may speak to points of order in preference to other members, arising from the seat for that purpose, and shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the house by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the house.

(D) The speaker shall sign all bills in open session. (Art. II § 32)

(E) The speaker shall sign all writs, warrants, and subpoenas issued by order of the house, all of which shall be attested to by the chief clerk.

(F) The speaker shall have the right to name any member to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall neither extend beyond adjournment nor authorize the representative so substituted to sign any documents requiring the signature of the speaker.

(G) The speaker, in open session, shall appoint committee chairs as selected by the majority party caucus, and shall appoint members to committees in the same ratio as the membership of the respective parties of the house, unless otherwise provided by law or house rules.

(H) The speaker shall serve as chair of the rules committee.

(I) The speaker shall have charge of and see that all officers, attaches, and clerks perform their respective duties.

(J) The speaker pro tempore shall exercise the duties, powers, and prerogatives of the speaker in the event of the speaker's death, illness, removal, or inability to act until the speaker's successor shall be elected.

Chief Clerk

Rule 5. The chief clerk shall perform the usual duties pertaining to the office, and shall hold office until a successor has been elected.

The chief clerk shall employ, subject to the approval of the speaker, all other house employees; the hours of duty and assignments of all house employees shall be under the chief clerk's directions and instructions, and they may be dismissed by the chief clerk with the approval of the speaker. The speaker shall sign and the chief clerk shall countersign all payrolls and vouchers for all expenses of the house and appropriately transmit the same. In the event of the chief clerk's death, illness, removal, or inability to act, the speaker may appoint an acting chief clerk who shall exercise the duties and powers of the chief clerk until the chief clerk's successor shall be elected.

Duties of Employees

Rule 6. Employees of the house shall perform such duties as are assigned to them by the chief clerk. Under no circumstances shall the compensation of any employee be increased for past services. No house employee shall seek to influence the passage or rejection of proposed legislation.

Admission to the House

Rule 7. It shall be the general policy of the house to keep the chamber clear as follows:

(A) The sergeant at arms shall admit only the following individuals to the wings and adjacent areas of the house chamber for the period of time beginning one-half hour prior to convening and ending one-half hour following the adjournment of the house's daily session:

The governor or designees, or both;

Members of the senate;

State elected officials;

Officers and authorized employees of the legislature;

Former members of the house who are not advocating any pending or proposed legislation;

Representatives of the press;

Other persons with the consent of the speaker.

(B) Only members, pages, sergeants at arms, and clerks are permitted on the floor while the house is in session.

(C) Lobbying in the house chamber or in any committee room or lounge room is prohibited when the house or committee is in session unless expressly permitted by the house or committee. Anyone violating this rule will forfeit his or her right to be admitted to the house chamber or any of its committee rooms.

Absentees and Courtesy

Rule 8. No member shall be absent from the service of the house without leave from the speaker. When the house is in session, only the speaker shall recognize visitors and former members.

Bills, Memorials and Resolutions - Introductions

Rule 9. Any member desiring to introduce a bill shall file the same with the chief clerk. Bills filed by 10:00 a.m. shall be introduced at the next daily session, in the order filed: PROVIDED, That if such introduction is within the last ten days of a regular session, it cannot be considered without a direct vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all the members elected to each house with such vote recorded and entered upon the journal. (Art. II § 36)

Any returning member or member-elect may prefile a bill with the chief clerk commencing the first Monday in December preceding any regular session or twenty (20) days before any special session. Prefiled bills shall be introduced on the first legislative day.

All bills shall be endorsed with a statement of the title and the name of the member or members introducing the same. The chief clerk shall attach to all bills a substantial cover bearing the title and sponsors and shall number each bill in the order filed. All bills shall be printed unless otherwise ordered by the house.

Any bill introduced at any session during the term shall be eligible for action at all subsequent sessions during the term.

Reading of Bills

Rule 10. Every bill shall be read on three separate days: PROVIDED, That this rule may be temporarily suspended at any time by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present; and that on and after the fifth day prior to the day of adjournment sine die of any session, as determined pursuant to Article II, Section 12 of the state Constitution or concurrent resolution, or on and after the third day prior to the day a bill must be reported from the house as established by concurrent resolution, this rule may be suspended by a majority vote.

A bill may be returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment by a suspension of the rules: PROVIDED, That on and after the fifth day prior to the day of adjournment sine die of any session, as determined pursuant to Article II, section 12 of the state Constitution or concurrent resolution, or on and after the third day prior to the day a bill must be reported from the house as established by concurrent resolution, this rule may be suspended and a bill returned to second reading for the purpose of amendment by a majority vote.

(A) FIRST READING. The first reading of a bill shall be by title only, unless a majority of the members present demand a reading in full.

After the first reading the bill shall be referred to an appropriate committee.

Upon being reported out of committee, all bills shall be referred to the rules committee, unless otherwise ordered by the house. The rules committee may, by majority vote, refer any bill in its possession to a committee for further consideration. Such referral shall be reported to the house and entered in the journal under the fifth order of business.

(B) SECOND READING. Upon second reading, the bill number and short title and the last line of the bill shall be read unless a majority of the members present shall demand its reading in full. The bill shall be subject to amendment section by section. No amendment shall be considered by the house until it has been sent to the chief clerk's desk in writing, distributed to the desk of each member, and read by the clerk. All amendments adopted during second reading shall be securely fastened to the original bill. All amendments rejected by the house shall be passed to the minute clerk, and the journal shall show the disposition of such amendments.

When no further amendments shall be offered, the speaker shall declare the bill has passed its second reading.

(C) SUBSTITUTE BILLS. When a committee reports a substitute for an original bill with the recommendation that the substitute bill do pass, it shall be in order to read the substitute the first time and have the same printed. A motion for the substitution shall not be in order until the second reading of the original bill.

(D) THIRD READING. Only the last line of bills shall be read on third reading unless a majority of the members present demand a reading in full. No amendments to a bill shall be received on third reading but it may be referred or recommitted for the purpose of amendment.

(E) SUSPENSION CALENDAR. Bills may be placed on the second reading suspension calendar by the rules committee if at least two minority party members of the rules committee join in such motion. Bills on the second reading suspension calendar shall not be subject to amendment or substitution except as recommended in the committee report. When a bill is before the house on the suspension calendar, the question shall be to adopt the committee recommendations and advance the bill to third reading. If the question fails to receive a two-thirds vote of the members present, the bill shall be referred to the rules committee for second reading.

(F) HOUSE RESOLUTIONS. House resolutions shall be filed with the chief clerk who shall transmit them to the rules committee. If a rules committee meeting is not scheduled to occur prior to a time necessitated by the purpose of a house resolution, the majority leader and minority leader by agreement may waive transmission to the rules committee to permit consideration of the resolution by the house. The rules committee may adopt house resolutions by a sixty percent majority vote of its entire membership or may, by a majority vote of its members, place them on the motions calendar for consideration by the house. House resolutions are not subject to debate, except for resolutions necessary for the operation of the house, and resolutions commemorating Children's Day, Day of Remembrance, Martin Luther King Jr. Day, National Guard Day, and President's Day.

(G) CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS. Reading of concurrent resolutions may be advanced by majority vote.

Amendments

Rule 11. The right of any member to offer amendments to proposed legislation shall not be limited except as provided in Rule 10(E) and as follows:

(A) AMENDMENTS TO BE OFFERED IN PROPER FORM. The chief clerk shall establish the proper form for amendments and all amendments offered shall bear the name of the member who offers the same, as well as the number and section of the bill to be amended.

(B) COMMITTEE AMENDMENTS. When a bill is before the house on second reading, amendments adopted by committees and recommended to the house shall be acted upon by the house before any amendments that may be offered from the floor.

(C) SENATE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILLS. A house bill, passed by the senate with amendment or amendments which shall change the scope and object of the bill, upon being received in the house, shall be referred to the appropriate committee and shall take the same course as for original bills unless a motion not to concur is adopted prior to the bill being referred to committee.

(D) AMENDMENTS TO BE GERMANE. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment; and no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the house.

(E) SCOPE AND OBJECT NOT TO BE CHANGED. No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill. This objection may be raised at any time an amendment is under consideration. The speaker may allow the person raising the objection and the mover of the amendment to provide brief arguments as to the merits of the objection. (Art. II § 38)

(F) NO AMENDMENT BY REFERENCE. No act shall ever be revised or amended without being set forth at full length. (Art. II § 37)

(G) TITLE AMENDMENTS. The subject matter portion of a bill title shall not be amended in committee or on second reading. Changes to that part of the title after the subject matter statement shall either be presented with the text amendment or be incorporated by the chief clerk in the engrossing process.

Final Passage

Rule 12. Rules relating to bills on final passage are as follows:

(A) BUDGET BILLS. No final passage vote may be taken on an operating budget, transportation budget, or capital budget bill until twenty-four (24) hours after the bill is placed on the third reading calendar. The twenty-four (24) hour requirement does not apply to conference reports, which are governed by Joint Rule 20, or to bills placed on the third reading calendar by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present.

(B) RECOMMITMENT BEFORE FINAL PASSAGE. A bill may be recommitted at any time before its final passage.

(C) FINAL PASSAGE. No bill shall become a law unless on its final passage the vote be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against the same be entered on the journal of each house, and a majority of the members elected to each house be recorded thereon as voting in its favor. (Art. II § 22)

(D) BILLS PASSED - CERTIFICATION. When a bill passes, it shall be certified to by the chief clerk, said certification to show the date of its passage together with the vote thereon.

Hour of Meeting, Roll Call and Quorum

Rule 13. (A) HOUR OF MEETING. The speaker shall call the house to order each day of sitting at 10:00 A.M., unless the house shall have adjourned to some other hour.

(B) ROLL CALL AND QUORUM. Before proceeding with business, the roll of the members shall be called and the names of those absent or excused shall be entered on the journal. A majority of all the members elected must be present to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, seven members with the speaker, or eight members in the speaker's absence, having chosen a speaker pro tempore, shall be authorized to demand a call of the house and may compel the attendance of absent members in the manner provided in Rule 21(B). For the purpose of determining if a quorum be present, the speaker shall count all members present, whether voting or not. (Art. II § 8)

(C) The house shall adjourn not later than 10:00 P.M. of each working day. This rule may be suspended by a majority vote.

Daily Calendar and Order of Business

Rule 14. The rules relating to the daily calendar and order of business are as follows:

(A) DAILY CALENDAR. Business of the house shall be disposed of in the following order:

First: Roll call, presentation of colors, prayer, and approval of the journal of the preceding day.

Second: Introduction of visiting dignitaries.

Third: Messages from the senate, governor, and other state officials.

Fourth: Introduction and first reading of bills, memorials, joint resolutions, and concurrent resolutions.

Fifth: Committee reports.

Sixth: Second reading of bills.

Seventh: Third reading of bills.

Eighth: Floor resolutions and motions.

Ninth: Presentation of petitions, memorials, and remonstrances addressed to the Legislature.

Tenth: Introduction of visitors and other business to be considered.

Eleventh: Announcements.

(B) UNFINISHED BUSINESS. The unfinished business at which the house was engaged preceding adjournment shall not be taken up until reached in regular order, unless the previous question on such unfinished business has been ordered prior to said adjournment.

(C) EXCEPTIONS. Exceptions to the order of business are as follows:

(1) The order of business may be changed by a majority vote of those present.

(2) By motion under the eighth order of business, a bill in the rules committee may be placed on the calendar by the affirmative vote of a majority of all members of the house.

(3) House resolutions and messages from the senate, governor, or other state officials may be read at any time.

Motions

Rule 15. Rules relating to motions are as follows:

(A) MOTIONS TO BE ENTERTAINED OR DEBATED. No motion shall be entertained or debated until announced by the speaker and every motion shall be deemed to have been seconded. A motion shall be reduced to writing and read by the clerk, if desired by the speaker or any member, before it shall be debated and by the consent of the house may be withdrawn before amendment or action.

(B) MOTIONS IN ORDER DURING DEBATE. When a motion has been made and seconded and stated by the chair, the following motions are in order, in the rank named:

(1) Privileged motions:

Adjourn

Adjourn to a time certain

Recess to a time certain

Reconsider

Demand for division

Question of privilege

Orders of the day

(2) Subsidiary motions:

First rank:

Question of consideration

Second rank:

To lay on the table

Third rank:

For the previous question

Fourth rank:

To postpone to a day certain

(H) REMARKS CONFINED. A member shall confine all remarks to the question under debate and avoid personalities. No member shall impugn the motive of any member's vote or argument.

(I) EXCEPTION TO WORDS SPOKEN IN DEBATE. If any member be called to order for words spoken in debate, the person calling the member to order shall repeat the words excepted to and they shall be taken down in writing at the clerk's table. No member shall be held in answer or be subject to the censure of the house for words spoken in debate if any other member has spoken before exception to them shall have been taken.

(J) TRANSGRESSION OF RULES - APPEAL. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the house the speaker shall, or any member may, call the member to order, in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down unless permitted to explain; and the house shall, if appealed to, decide the case without debate; if there be no appeal, the decision of the chair shall prevail.

If the decision be in favor of the member called to order, the member shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, and the case shall require it, the member shall be liable to the censure of the house.

Ending of Debate - Previous Question

Rule 18. The previous question may be ordered by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present on all recognized motions or amendments which are debatable.

The previous question is not debatable and cannot be amended.

The previous question shall be put in this form: "Representative _____ demands the previous question. As many as are in favor of ordering the previous question will say 'Aye'; as many as are opposed will say 'No'."

The results of the motion are as follows: If determined in the negative, the consideration goes on as if the motion had never been made; if decided in the affirmative it shall have the effect of cutting off all debate and bringing the house to a direct vote upon the motion or amendment on which it has been ordered: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That when a bill is on final passage or when the motion to postpone indefinitely is pending, one of the sponsors of the bill or the chair of the committee may have the privilege of closing debate after the previous question has been ordered.

If an adjournment is had after the previous question is ordered, the motion or proposition on which the previous question was ordered shall be put to the house immediately following the approval of the journal on the next working day, thus making the main question privileged over all other business, whether new or unfinished.

Voting

Rule 19. (A) PUTTING OF QUESTION. The speaker shall put the question in the following form: "The question before the house is (state the question). As many as are in favor say 'Aye'; and after the affirmative vote is expressed, "as many as are opposed say 'No'."

(B) ALL MEMBERS TO VOTE. Every member who was in the house when the question was put shall vote unless, for special reasons, excused by the house.

All motions to excuse a member shall be made before the house divides or before the call for yeas and nays is commenced; and any member requesting to be excused from voting may make a brief and verbal statement of the reasons for making such request, and the question shall then be taken without further debate.

Upon a division and count of the house on the question, only members at their desks within the bar of the house shall be counted.

(C) CHANGE OF VOTE. When the electric roll call machine is used, no member shall be allowed to vote or change a vote after the speaker has locked the roll call machine. When an oral roll call is taken, no member shall be allowed to vote or change a vote after the result has been announced.

(D) PRIVATE INTEREST. No member shall vote on any question which affects that member privately and particularly. A member who has a private interest in any bill or measure proposed or pending before the legislature shall disclose the fact to the house of which he is a member, and shall not vote thereon. (Art. II § 30)

(E) INTERRUPTION OF ROLL CALL. Once begun, the roll call may not be interrupted. No member or other person shall visit or remain at the clerk's desk while the yeas and nays are being called.

(F) YEAS AND NAYS - RECORDED VOTES. Upon the final passage of any bill, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays and shall be recorded by the electric voting system: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That an oral roll call shall be ordered when demanded by one-sixth (1/6) of the members present. (Art. II § 21)

The speaker may vote last when the yeas and nays are called.

When the vote is by electric voting machine or by oral roll call on any question, it shall be entered upon the journal of the house. A recorded vote may be compelled by one-sixth (1/6) of the members present. A request for a recorded vote must be made before the vote is commenced.

(G) TIE VOTE, QUESTION LOSES. In case of an equal division, the question shall be lost.

(H) DIVISION. If the speaker is in doubt, or if division is called for by any member, the house shall divide.

(I) STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL. A member whose recorded vote does not accurately reflect his or her intent may submit a written statement for the journal clarifying their intent to vote aye or nay. The statement must be submitted to the chief clerk on the same day the vote is taken. A member who is excused for one or more days of recorded votes may submit a written statement for the journal explaining the reason for his or her absence. The statement may not exceed fifty words and must be submitted to the chief clerk on the same day the member returns.

Reconsideration

Rule 20. Notice of a motion for reconsideration on the final passage of bills shall be made on the day the vote to be reconsidered was taken and before the house has voted to transmit the bill to the senate.

Reconsideration of the votes on the final passage of bills must be taken on the next working day after such vote was taken: PROVIDED, That on and after the fifth day prior to the day of adjournment sine die of any session, as determined pursuant to Article II, Section 12 of the state Constitution, or concurrent resolution, or on and after the third day prior to the day a bill must be reported from the house as established by concurrent resolution, then reconsideration of votes on the final passage of bills must be taken on the same day as the original vote was taken.

A motion to reconsider an amendment may be made at any time the bill remains on second reading.

Any member who voted on the prevailing side may move for reconsideration or give notice thereof.

A motion to reconsider can be decided only once when decided in the negative.

When a motion to reconsider has been carried, its effect shall be to place the original question before the house in the exact position it occupied before it was voted upon.

Call of the House

Rule 21. One-sixth (1/6) of the members present may demand a call of the house at any time before the house has divided or the voting has commenced by yeas and nays.

(A) DOORS TO BE CLOSED. When call of the house has been ordered, the sergeant at arms shall close and lock the doors, and no member shall be allowed to leave the chamber: PROVIDED, That the rules committee shall be allowed to meet, upon request of the speaker, while the house stands at ease: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the speaker may permit members to use such portions of the fourth floor as may be properly secured.

(B) SERGEANT AT ARMS TO BRING IN THE ABSENTEES. The clerk shall immediately call a roll of the members and note the absentees, whose names shall be read and entered upon the journal in such manner as to show who are excused and who are absent without leave.

The clerk shall furnish the sergeant at arms with a list of those who are absent without leave, and the sergeant at arms shall proceed to bring in such absentees; but arrests of members for absence shall not be made unless ordered by a majority of the members present.

(C) HOUSE UNDER CALL. While the house is under a call, no business shall be transacted except to receive and act on the report of the sergeant at arms; and no other motion shall be in order except a motion to proceed with business under the call of the house, a motion to excuse absentees, or a motion to dispense with the call of the house. The motion to proceed with business under the call of the house and the motion to excuse absent members shall not be adopted unless a majority of the members elected vote in favor thereof. The motion to dispense with the call of the house may be adopted by a majority of the members present.

Appeal from Decision of Chair

Rule 22. The decision of the chair may be appealed from by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once unless by leave of the house. In all cases of appeal, the question shall be: "Shall the decision of the chair stand as the judgment of the house?"

Standing Committees

Rule 23. The standing committees of the house and the number of members that shall serve on each committee shall be as follows:

- | | | |
|-----|---|----|
| 1. | Agriculture & Natural Resources | 13 |
| 2. | Appropriations | 33 |
| 3. | Business & Financial Services | 11 |
| 4. | Capital Budget | 9 |
| 5. | Commerce & Gaming | 9 |
| 6. | Community Development, Housing & Tribal Affairs | 7 |
| 7. | Early Learning & Human Services | 11 |
| 8. | Education | 21 |
| 9. | Environment | 11 |
| 10. | Finance | 15 |
| 11. | General Government & Information Technology | 7 |
| 12. | Health Care & Wellness | 15 |
| 13. | Higher Education | 13 |

- 14. Judiciary 13
- 15. Labor 7
- 16. Local Government 9
- 17. Public Safety 9
- 18. Rules 23
- 19. State Government 7
- 20. Technology & Economic Development 13
- 21. Transportation 25

Committee members shall be selected by each party's caucus. Membership on appropriations subcommittees is restricted to the membership of the appropriations committee. The majority party caucus shall select all committee chairs.

Duties of Committees

Rule 24. House committees shall operate as follows:

(A) NOTICE OF COMMITTEE MEETING. The chief clerk shall make public the time, place and subjects to be discussed at committee meetings. All public hearings held by committees shall be scheduled at least five (5) days in advance and shall be given adequate publicity: PROVIDED, That when less than eight (8) days remain for action on a bill, the Speaker may authorize a reduction of the five-day notice period when required by the circumstances, including but not limited to the time remaining for action on the bill, the nature of the subject, and the number of prior hearings on the subject.

(B) COMMITTEE QUORUM. A majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(C) SESSION MEETINGS. No committee shall sit while the house is in session without special leave of the speaker.

(D) DUTIES OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

(1) Only such bills as are included on the written notice of a committee meeting may be considered at that meeting except upon the vote of a majority of the entire membership of the committee to consider another bill.

(2) A majority recommendation of a committee must be signed by a majority of the entire membership of the committee in a regularly called meeting before a bill, memorial, or resolution may be reported out: PROVIDED, That by motion under the eighth order of business, a majority of the members elected to the house may relieve a committee of a bill and place it on the second reading calendar.

Majority recommendations of a committee can only be "do pass," "do pass as amended," or that "the substitute bill be substituted therefor and that the substitute bill do pass."

(3) Members of the committee not concurring in the majority report may prepare a written minority report containing a recommendation of "do not pass" or "without recommendation," which shall be signed by those members of the committee subscribing thereto, and submitted with the majority report.

(4) All committee reports shall be spread upon the journal. The journal of the house shall contain an exact copy of all committee reports, together with the names of the members signing such reports.

(5) Every vote to report a bill out of committee shall be taken by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against, as well as the names of members absent, shall be recorded on the committee report. Any member may call for a recorded vote, which shall include the names of absent members, on any substantive question before the committee. A copy of all recorded committee votes shall be kept by the chief clerk and shall be available for public inspection.

(6) All bills having a direct appropriation shall be referred to the appropriate fiscal committee before their final passage.

(7) No standing committee shall vote by secret written ballot on any issue.

(8) During its consideration of or vote on any bill, resolution, or memorial, the deliberations of any standing committee of the house of representatives shall be open to the public.

(9) A standing committee to which a bill was originally referred shall, prior to voting the bill out of committee, consider whether the bill authorizes rule-making powers or requires the exercise of rule-making powers and, if so, consider:

(a) The nature of the new rule-making powers; and

(b) To which agencies the new rule-making powers would be delegated and which agencies, if any, may have related rule-making powers.

(10) Standing committee subcommittees established in Rule 23 have the same powers and duties as standing committees.

(11) Insofar as practicable, testimony in public hearings should be balanced between those in support of and in opposition to proposed legislation, with consideration given to providing an opportunity for members of the public to testify within available time.

Standing Committees - Expenses - Subpoena Power

Rule 25. Regardless of whether the legislature is in session, members of the house may receive from moneys appropriated for the legislature, reimbursement for necessary travel expenses, and payments in lieu of subsistence and lodging for conducting official business of the house.

The standing committees of the house may have the powers of subpoena, the power to administer oaths, and the power to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses in accordance with the provisions of chapter 44.16 RCW. Before a standing committee of the house may issue any process, the committee chairperson shall submit for approval of the executive rules committee a statement of purpose setting forth the name or names of those subject to process. The process shall not be issued prior to approval by the executive rules committee. The process shall be limited to the named individuals.

Vetoed Bills

Rule 26. Veto messages of the governor shall be read in the house and entered upon the journal. It shall then be in order to proceed to reconsider the bill, refer it, lay it on the table, or postpone its consideration to a day certain.

The merits of the bill may be debated before the vote is taken, but the vote on a vetoed bill cannot be reconsidered.

In case of a bill containing several sections or items, one or more of which has been objected to by the governor, each section or item so objected to shall be voted upon separately by the house. Action by the house upon all vetoed bills shall be endorsed upon the bill and certified by the speaker.

Vetoed bills originating in the house, which have not been passed notwithstanding the veto of the governor, shall remain in the custody of the officers of the house until the close of the term, after which they shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Suspension of Compensation

Rule 27. (1) Any member of the house of representatives convicted and sentenced for any felony punishable by death or by imprisonment in a Washington state penal institution shall, as of the time of sentencing, be denied the legislative salary for future service and be denied per diem, compensation for expenses, office space facilities, and assistance. Any member convicted of a felony and sentenced therefor under any federal law or the law of any other state shall, as of the time of sentencing, be similarly denied such salary, per diem, expenses, facilities, and assistance if either (a) such crime would also constitute a crime punishable under the laws of Washington by death or by imprisonment in a state penal institution, or (b) the conduct resulting in the conviction and sentencing would also constitute a crime punishable under the laws of Washington by death or by imprisonment in a state penal institution.

(2) At any time, the house may vote by a constitutional majority to restore the salary, per diem, expenses, facilities, and assistance denied a member under subsection (1). If the conviction of a member is reversed, then the salary, per diem, and expense amounts denied the member since sentencing shall be forthwith paid, and the member shall thereafter have the rights and privileges of other members.

Smoking

Rule 28. Smoking of cigarettes, pipes, or cigars shall not be permitted at any public meeting of any committee of the house of representatives or within House facilities.

"No smoking" signs shall be posted so as to give notice of this rule.

Liquor

Rule 29. The House of Representatives shall strictly adhere to the liquor laws of the state of Washington, including provisions relating to banquet and special occasion permits. The proper permits must always be obtained before consumption of liquor in any house facility.

Parliamentary Rules

Rule 30. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Reed's Parliamentary Rules shall govern all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the house.

Standing Rules Amendment

Rule 31. Any standing rule may be rescinded or changed by a majority vote of the members elected: PROVIDED, That the proposed change or changes be submitted at least one day in advance in writing to the members together with notice of the consideration thereof. Any standing rule may be suspended temporarily by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present except as provided in Rule 10.

Rules to Apply for Assembly

Rule 32. The permanent house rules adopted at the beginning of the term are to govern all acts of the house during the course of the term unless amended or repealed.

Legislative Mailings

Rule 33. The House of Representatives directs the house executive rules committee to adopt procedures and guidelines to ensure that all legislative mailings at public expense are for legitimate legislative purposes.

Representative Sullivan moved adoption of HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4600.

Representative Sullivan spoke in favor of the adoption of the resolution.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4600 was adopted.

ELECTION OF THE SPEAKER

Representative Sullivan: “Thank you Madame Chief Clerk. It is an honor today that I stand today in support of Frank Chopp for Speaker of the House of Representatives. You know we are going to face some tough challenges over the next several years. It is going to require that we work hard and that we work together to get the job done, but it’s also going to require extraordinary leadership and that is one of the reasons why I am proud to stand today in support of Representative Chopp for Speaker of the House.

Many of you know Representative Chopp is the longest serving Speaker in the history of the State of Washington. He doesn’t like to talk about that and if I had asked him before this nomination speech today I am sure he would have asked me not to mention this but I think it’s important because it reflects actually his successes and his abilities to move this state forward. He’s done an extraordinary job and I look forward to the next two years. During the great recession we looked at a number of budgetary cuts. Representative Chopp was really instrumental and worked very hard to ensure the safety net was maintained so that our most vulnerable had access to critical services they need. He has worked hard to really advance early learning, K-12 and higher education. He has worked to ensure that Washingtonians have access to health care. He’s had successes, the thing that I really admire in him is that rather than seeking accolades or looking for compliments, he simply rolled up his sleeves and went to work on the next task. Now I know that some of you may say that’s only because he is afraid of the press, which is actually true, but really it is his work ethic. He works as hard, or harder, than anybody in this chamber. The last thing I just want to point out how much I admire is his respect for this institution. You know we see government and really politicians vilified often in the press but the fact is Representative Chopp has served with integrity, an inclusiveness that really reflects well upon all of us here in this chamber, that is something I admire very much. I think for anybody who has been here for more than a year either on this side of the aisle or the other side of the aisle and we’ve asked for help in order for us to be successful here or in our work, Representative Chopp has been there to help us. He wants all of us to be successful as individuals and he wants this institution to be successful. So Madame Chief Clerk, I would ask that we support Representative Frank Chopp to be the next Speaker of the House of Representatives.

MOTION

Representative Sullivan moved that the nominations for the Office of Speaker of the House of Representatives be closed. The motion was carried.

Representative Sullivan moved that Representative Frank Chopp be elected Speaker of the House of Representatives. The motion was carried.

Representative Sullivan escorted Speaker Frank Chopp to the rostrum.

OATH OF OFFICE

Justice Susan Owens administered the Oath of Office to Speaker Chopp.

Chief Clerk Baker congratulated the Speaker and turned the gavel over to him.

SPEAKER’S REMARKS

Mr. Speaker: “Thank you, Pat, for those kind words. You are a tremendous leader and a great friend.

To get started, please join me in welcoming all the new members to the People’s House. I look forward to working with each of you. We all have loved ones back home, making it possible for us to serve. Without my wife Nancy’s love and advice, I wouldn’t be here. And I am very grateful for the support of my son and daughter. So let’s hear it for our families.

Next, please join me in welcoming back Republican Leader Dan Kristiansen. Dan, we all watched with great sorrow the landslide at Oso. We thank you for all your work to help the community respond and heal. Despite the tragedy of that disaster, the spirit of community was inspiring. People came to help from all over: folks in logging boots grabbing chainsaws, and volunteers handing out blankets and soup. We recognize the people of Darrington and Arlington for their selfless service. And, the Sauk Suiattle Tribe for all the support they contributed. They showed us what it means to be “Oso Strong.” People pitching in, not because they have to – but because here in Washington, that’s what we do. So let’s talk about what we can do together, this legislative session. How can we help our neighbors and families? In the end, if you strip away all of the bill numbers and jargon, I believe it comes down to two simple words: Equality and Opportunity.

While they are connected, the distinction is important. If we believe in equality for all, we must protect the rights of our people and ensure that they have the basic resources they need. If we believe in opportunity for all, we have to act to remove the barriers to a good education and economic security.

The American Dream of upward mobility is fundamental to our beliefs. That means we must address the concentration of wealth, root out the legacy of racism, and capture the economic benefits of a more just society. It shouldn’t matter whether your parents drove you home from the hospital in a Lexus or a Chevy pickup truck. Every child deserves a chance for an education, because a quality education is the great equalizer.

Our major employers are importing workers from out of state because some of our kids are not prepared for the workplace. As we focus on funding K-12 education, early learning, and higher education, we need solutions that put our kids in those jobs! We can do this!

Look at what we have done to end inequality in health care, a basic human right. Before we had Apple Health for All Kids, working parents with minimum wage jobs prayed their kids never broke an arm or got seriously sick. The lawmakers in this House led the way. Now 800,000 kids are enrolled in Apple Health. That’s more than a million parents who aren’t staying up all night worrying about how they’re gonna pay the medical bills.

You expanded Medicaid for 500,000 adults and 600,000 residents got dental care. Your actions removed a huge barrier to equality and created thousands of good paying jobs in health care across our state. There is more to do this year.

I bet every person here today has a neighbor, friend, or loved one who has dealt with the challenges of mental illness. In any given year, a large percentage of our population will experience mental illness. It cannot be overcome by an individual's "will power." It's a disease that can happen to anyone, at any time. As Representative Cody says, health care shouldn't just cover things from the neck down. So to start, let's quickly pass Joel's Law, which left the House with a unanimous vote last year. Let's fund more Evaluation and Treatment Centers, and provide more beds.

Most people who experience a mental health crisis will get better if they get the treatment they need. Much of the cost of mental illness is not the treatment, it is the loss of income due to disability, unemployment and public safety expenses. We fuel these costs and cause unacceptable suffering by not adequately funding mental health. We must stop warehousing people with mental illness, in prisons and hospital hallways!

The Supreme Court says we must fix our broken mental health system. But the Court should not drive us. Fixing the system is the right thing to do. It is the moral thing to do.

Equality is also about economic fairness. For too many families, our recovering economy isn't helping them. The system isn't fair. They're working hard and playing by the rules. But the price to buy or rent a home, or send their kids to college, skyrockets while their paychecks stall.

Everybody deserves a chance at giving their kids a better life than they had. My dad worked in the coal mines in Roslyn starting at the age of 12, to support the family. For 32 years, he worked as an electrician at the Navy Yard in Bremerton. My mom worked in a school cafeteria and got her high school diploma at age 69 at Green River Community College. For my parents, success wasn't having a big house or driving a fancy car.

Success was watching all four of their children graduate from the University of Washington. That's the kind of parents they were: the point of work and life, was to help their kids, and others.

This session let's focus on keeping the American dream alive. For a lot of people, that dream is a myth. For them, a fair day's work does NOT mean a fair day's pay. Their wages are too low to meet the basic needs of their families. That's why we should work to create jobs and boost the paychecks of working people. We should build on the essential American values of equality AND opportunity.

We should raise the minimum wage to provide that opportunity! Opportunity provides the chance for people to reach their dreams. Opportunity gives no guarantees. Except, if you take advantage of that chance, you might find yourself someplace better than where you started: a better job, a stable family with healthy kids, a roof over your head.

Research proves that the investments we make to increase opportunity for our people can deliver powerful returns. But the fact is: If there is no INVESTMENT – there can be no RETURN on investment.

Nowhere is that clearer than with education. The real message from the Supreme Court's McCleary decision is that we need to invest in expanding opportunity for our kids. Several years ago, the Legislature passed two education reform bills – House bills 2261 and 2776. Together, these bills are the foundation to better fund public education.

In 2013, the House passed a budget that would have funded the first phase of McCleary. Working with the Senate, we need to make way more progress this year. However, let us remember that equality in meeting basic needs is required before a child can benefit from educational opportunities. Almost one in five children in our state are living in poverty, often without the resources they need to be healthy and ready to learn.

The odds are rigged against kids who come to school sick, hungry or homeless. We must address poverty if we are going to solve the achievement gap and improve school graduation. You cannot solve a math problem at school when you are distracted with figuring out where you are going to sleep at night. We certainly need to invest more on our schools, but not at the expense of meeting a kid's basic needs. And shame on us if we don't do right by our children this session.

More than 100 years ago, a lawmaker from Puyallup named John Rogers saw how things were changing from farms to factories. Back then, hardly anybody graduated from high school or went to college. He and other lawmakers had the vision to pass the Barefoot Schoolboy Act, providing money to pay for a high school education for EVERY child. Not just the rich, but also the kids of farmers and loggers and nurses. Today, we face another sea change.

A high school degree may be basic education under the state Constitution, but most need an apprenticeship, a trade school, or a college degree to get a living wage job. For many students that is only possible if we expand financial aid to low income students, allowing them to get jobs that will support a family. It's the right thing to do for our students – and it's the right thing to do for the prosperity of our state.

Finally, let's talk about building a better Washington. We should all recognize that we need to invest in our infrastructure. In 2013, the House led the way by passing a package of transportation improvements. I want to thank Representative Clibborn for her efforts to move this state forward. The package didn't get to the Governor's desk, but it would have gone a long way to maintaining safe roads and bridges, improving transit, and providing local options.

It is important to remember that infrastructure is more than transportation. It's more classrooms and better learning centers. It's treatment facilities and housing for those who suffer from mental illness. I'm all for fixing the potholes in our streets, but we also need to build homes for the people living on the streets. Building bridges, schools, and housing not only creates great jobs today, it creates long-term economic benefits.

Generations ago, our grandparents built the hydropower dams, schools, and colleges that benefitted the next generation. We need to do the same for our children and grandchildren.

A final reminder to all of us. As lawmakers, we have the power to improve the lives of our people. We can give a dad the hope that his child will have a better education than he did. We can save a family from losing a loved one to mental illness. We can help sick, hungry and homeless kids. We can create thousands of jobs that will move our state forward! Because equality and opportunity are not partisan words. They are American values.

Thank you."

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Kristiansen: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. And I want to thank all of you for getting through the challenge of last year. As the Speaker mentioned to you all it was only days after I left this body last spring that we had the Oso tragedy in our district and Representative Scott and myself and Senator Pearson were faced with something that you can't train for. But as the Speaker mentioned, it was an opportunity for us in the midst of a terrible tragedy to watch communities come together in a way that you just can't believe until you see it, until you live it. You can't believe it. Yes, it was tragic; there was a tremendous loss of life. That community is going to be healing for years, not days, not weeks, not months, but years. Had it not been for those communities coming together but also for those of you around the State of Washington coming together and sharing your love and respect and concern for those communities, God only knows where we would be. But you know there was one thing about that tragedy that I bring with me and I guess it is something that seeing it first hand is a hope that I have in being here. As the Speaker was talking about some of the issues you'll notice, especially some of you in the galleries, some people were clapping, some people were not, and I don't know if it's just you, but in my family, while I may agree with my wife all the time she doesn't always agree with me. By the way young men - that is the secret to a long marriage. Twenty-nine years here. My point being, though we're not always going to agree with each other, what I find interesting is in the conversations I've even had one on one with the Speaker, we've talked about what our goals are and it's amazing to me how similar our goals are. The differences tend to be the route by which we take to get there.

That is why we are here. That's why we've got 98 members from the State of Washington in this building right now and 49 members in whatever that body is called over on the other side of the rotunda (we all forget) but there are 147 people that have gathered down here over the course of the next 105 days, no more right?

These 147 people know what the challenges are. We've spent the last several months travelling around our districts, travelling around the state, hearing from our constituents, we know what the challenges are that are before us. The question is going to be this: Are we going to remain focused when we know the problems to be? The Speaker laid out many of the challenges before as my question and my challenge, not only to myself but my colleagues here and you all, is are we going to be a body of legislators hired by the citizens of the State of Washington to come down here and focus in on those issues that concern them the most and get the job done in 105 days or less, correct? Countdown starts today and I believe we can.

It's okay to have differences of opinion. The concerns have been laid out and there is going to be more that we are going to hear about over the course of the next several weeks but I do believe because I've served in this body long enough and I've gotten to know the people I serve with on both sides of the aisle long enough to know that we all came down here purpose-driven. I don't believe there is a person sitting on this floor today that is here just to keep that seat warm. I believe that every person that is here really wants to see better things happen in Washington State.

Again, the question is going to be are we going to be able to get past these differences that we have and instead come together in those areas where we do agree? You know I expect every person in this body to draw that line in the sand. Every one of us has those moral and ethical issues and other things that are very important to us. Those lines that we will not cross but what I've learned in my tenure down here is that those are just but a small percentage of the actual issues we deal with in Olympia.

One of the challenges I'm faced with is my own personal budget. We're going to be faced with an enormous budget challenge. Can you honestly say you love everything about your personal budget? I don't. When I'm sitting down writing those checks for the bills and all that, there's a lot of things about my personal budget I don't necessarily like. But you know I have to govern my home and we've been hired by the citizens of the State of Washington to govern this state. To provide leadership here to come alongside each other despite our differences, despite our grievances and get the job done. You have my guarantee, Mr. Speaker, that that's what I am here for. I am here solutions oriented, to help you to help this body, to help this building and all four corners and floors in here and to try and stay focused to not get sidetracked with maybe some of our personal stuff that is important and those things may need to be dealt with but there is a big job at hand, a huge challenge at hand and the citizens of the State of Washington have created an atmosphere in the city of Olympia that is probably one of. I don't know if you've heard about this or know about this, but you know you have 147 legislators down here, 74 are Democrats and 73 are Republicans. I think the voters have told us it is time to be balanced in what we do. It is time to listen to all four corners of the State of Washington. It is time to come together, set our pettiness aside, if that's what we want to call it, our personal interests aside, or somebody else's personal interests aside and let's get the job done.

I thank you, Mr. Speaker, for giving me the opportunity to speak. I thank you for your service to the State of Washington and I thank you - especially those of you in the gallery today. Most of the people in the gallery today are family members and they have sacrificed a tremendous amount for us to be here and so with that I look forward to counting down 105 days. Let's get the job done, let's stay focused. Thank you so much for being here. Thank you."

ELECTION OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

Representative Carlyle: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On this day, the first day of the 2015 session, in this, the People's Chamber, it is an honor to stand before you and submit the name of the good gentleman from America's Vancouver, Jim Moeller. He is someone who loves this institution, who believes in decorum and who dearly respects our roles in our representative democracy. This is the People's Chamber and I submit to you, that the good gentleman reflects the best, literally and figuratively, of our values and of the role we in representative democracy play to work for those who are the supreme arbitrators of the State of Washington, the good people. I submit and ask for your support of the good gentleman from the 49th. Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

MOTION

Representative Sullivan moved that the nominations for the Office of Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives be closed. The motion was carried.

Representative Sullivan moved that Representative Jim Moeller be elected Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives. The motion was carried.

Representative Carlyle escorted Speaker Pro Tempore Moeller to the rostrum.

OATH OF OFFICE

ELECTION OF DEPUTY SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

Representative Kagi: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Seventeen years ago, my first year on the floor of this House, the House nominated and elected a woman to be Speaker Pro Tempore, Val Ogden. It was with great pride that I watched a woman preside over this House proceedings for many years. So I am particularly pleased today to be standing to nominate Tina Orwall as Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore. She is a woman of high integrity and works well with others as she has shown in the legislation she has passed through this House on the Innocence Project and fair treatment of people who have trouble with mortgages. She also is committed to the notion of every voice being heard and I think that is particularly important presiding over this House floor. I am pleased that young women, old women and girls, when they come to the House or when they turn on TVW will see a woman presiding over the House with grace and dignity and I strongly urge your support.

MOTION

Representative Sullivan moved that the nominations for the Office of Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives be closed. The motion was carried.

OATH OF OFFICE

Justice Susan Owens administered the Oath of Office to Deputy Speaker Pro Tempore Orwall.

ELECTION OF THE CHIEF CLERK

Representative Van De Wege: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Barbara Baker is a wonderful Chief Clerk and in thinking of all the things I could say about her I want to hone in on a major project that the House has completed that really took all of Barbara's expertise and that was the remodel of the John L. O'Brien Building. That was a major undertaking. Barbara was Chief Clerk during that whole process, we were spending a lot of taxpayer's dollars, hard earned taxpayer's dollars, the project went really well, it went smooth. It saved us money, it makes the John L. O'Brien Building more efficient and better to work in. She did a wonderful job of making sure that our staff has room to do the important work that we ask them to do so often and the whole project really came off as being something where she made sure both sides of the aisle had their room and areas they needed and it really embodies what Barbara Baker really is. And she is a person that has done a terrific job of taking care of the House and I nominate her to another term as Chief Clerk."

Representative Walsh: "Thank you Mr. Speaker. I am indeed honored to stand up and recognize Barbara Baker for a repeat performance as our Chief Clerk for the House. You know you work with great people around here, this is my 23rd year in the Legislature and I've got to tell you I am just so thrilled to work here and I am so thrilled to work with the quality of individuals that serve this institution, and Barbara is just one of the best. I've known her for a lot of years. I know her to be extremely fair and I can't even imagine dealing with 98 members on this House floor, it must be like herding cats sometimes, but I am indeed proud to stand and also second that nomination.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

April 4, 2014

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Substitute House Bill No. 1260 entitled: "AN ACT Relating to public facilities' grants and loans."

I am vetoing HB 1260. Current law requires that 100 percent of all projects approved by the Community Economic Revitalization Board result in jobs that pay above the county's private-sector median wage. This bill, however, cuts that requirement in half.

As an ardent advocate for family-wage jobs, I believe this bill to be too aggressive a change. While I support the kind of flexibility that would take into account the intent of this bill, as just one or two large employers in an area could skew the median wage levels, we need to proceed with caution.

I intend to introduce legislation next session allowing this flexibility for 25% of CERB funds, rather than 50%. I believe such a bill would be an appropriate balance between supporting family wage jobs across the state, and supporting projects in rural communities that may not be able to meet their county's median wage threshold.

For these reasons I have vetoed Substitute House Bill No. 1260 in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee
Governor

April 4, 2014

To the Honorable Speaker and Members,
The House of Representatives of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Engrossed House Bill No. 2789 entitled: "AN ACT Relating to technology-enhanced government surveillance."

This legislation imposes restrictions on state and local agency procurement and usage of "extraordinary sensing devices" attached to unmanned aircraft systems, more popularly known as "drones." Among a number of provisions, the bill imposes a prohibition on the use of extraordinary sensing devices and the disclosure of personal information acquired through such devices, with some exceptions, and creates a new definition of personal information.

After receiving extensive input and considerable reflection, I am vetoing the bill. However, I am issuing a moratorium to executive-branch state agencies to prohibit the purchase and use of these devices during the next 15 months, and asking local law enforcement to do the same.

The Legislature is rightfully concerned about the effects of new technology on our citizens' right to privacy. I share that same concern and take the right to privacy very seriously. As articulated by the lawmakers who supported this bill, some members of the public have concern that, without rules and standards dictating the acceptable uses of unmanned aircraft systems, the government might embark on suspicion-less and warrantless surveillance using this technology. As pointed out by lawmakers on both sides of the aisle, it is important we create the right framework to address these issues so Washingtonians can feel confident their privacy is protected.

While we work in the coming months to create a framework that is protective and can be effectively implemented, no state executive agency will purchase or use these devices until the Legislature has the opportunity to revisit these critical issues in the next session.

I have also heard concerns that local law enforcement agencies might use this veto as an opportunity to purchase these devices this year and conduct warrantless surveillance. I believe local government is as concerned as I am about ensuring our citizens' rights are not violated. Because of this, I am asking the police chiefs and sheriffs across the state to also refrain from acquiring these devices for the next 15 months and to join us in evaluating the appropriate ways to use these new technologies.

However, I understand there could be an extraordinary natural disaster or other need for a rare exception to this directive.

If we are going to build clear standards for procurement, use and data collection policies for new technology, it's important we do this right. Unfortunately, I do not believe this bill is the appropriate first step. Among other issues, this measure contains conflicting provisions on disclosure and destruction of personal information. This could lead to shielding government uses of this technology from public disclosure. We must ensure that government transparency and accountability are amply provided, which are not clearly guaranteed in this legislation.

The bill also includes an expansive new definition of personal information that would make it impossible to use this technology without violating the prohibitions as written in this bill, and lacks the clarity necessary to give both regulatory and law enforcement agencies -and the public -a clear understanding of how these technologies can and will be used in the future.

I commend the parties for bringing this issue to the forefront and for their determination to get a bill passed this session. While I considered exercising section vetoes to achieve this end, this was not possible.

I share the parties' concern about the privacy of our citizens, and I want members of the public to feel confident their government is protecting them while not violating their rights in the process. I have heard from many who support the passage of this bill and many who are concerned it is not yet ready to be enacted into law. I have carefully read and considered this bill, and believe it deserves more work. I believe, too, we want to get ahead on this issue and get standards in place before government agencies start to use this new technology.

My office will be creating a task force this month to better examine these complex issues and develop a fully vetted bill for the 2015 legislative session. The task force will be composed of a broad group of stakeholders to include legislators, the ACLU, state agencies, law enforcement, industry and citizens-at-large. We need to work through these concerns in a transparent and thoughtful manner to make sure what we sign into law protects the privacy of Washingtonians while also creating clear and fair standards for the use of new technology to protect the safety and well being of our citizens.

For these reasons I have vetoed Engrossed House Bill No. 2789 in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee
Governor
