

FIRST DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia
Monday, January 13, 2020

The Senate was called to order at 12:04 p.m. by the President of the Senate, Lt. Governor Habib presiding. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present. The Washington State Patrol Honor Guard, composed of Trooper Eifert, Trooper Gallanger, Trooper Maguire, and Trooper Tobol presented the Colors. The National Anthem was performed both in song and sign by high school students in the American Sign Language Program at River Ridge High School in Lacey, led by Ms. Cathy Boos. Father Michael Holland of St. Leo's Parish, Tacoma offered the prayer.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUEST

The President welcomed and introduced Ms. Claudia Castro, Washington State Poet Laureate, who was seated at the rostrum. With the permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Washington State Poet Laureate Claudia Castro to address the Senate.

Poet Laureate Ms. Claudia Castro: "Thank you Honorable Lieutenant Governor. Good morning members of the Senate. It is an honor to be here this morning as the Poet Laureate of Washington State to contribute with poetry to this important occasion, which underscores the working of our democracy"

Morning Star

*Along the way
you do things
you don't want to do, things, you know
you should not do,
things you don't know
how to stop doing.
No one can see beyond
the wave's crest.
Then you find yourself sitting there, wherever you are blemished and imperfect.
That is life. This carrying on of our dented selves alongside the spoonful of sugar
we also carry within.
A sweet grain
for each good, right thing we too have done
along the way.*

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Now, the moment you've all been waiting for, the President's welcome remarks. That's what it says here on the script. I want to begin by wishing everyone a very Happy New Year. I hope that however you celebrated the holidays and the new year that every member of this chamber and those who work with us here in the Washington State Senate had the opportunity to enjoy time with loved ones and a time to celebrate all that was good in 2019 and look forward to 2020.

I want to just say a couple things real briefly. First of all, we can't do this enough. We can't say this enough. How much we, who are in elected office, rely on and appreciate the hard work of those who work here, not in elected office, but who are parts of our staffs whether as working for individual members or in the partisan or nonpartisan staffs working in as part of our security under the Sergeant at Arms. All those who make the Senate and indeed the entire Legislature function so well. We say it all the time and yet I'm continually convinced that the public does not fully recognize the degree to which we are all successful because of them and while I know that members did in many cases work straight through the interim, all of these folks work year-round and for them the distinction between session and interim is not nearly what it is for the members of the Senate. So, would you please join me in thanking all the work that the staff did during the interim months before we got back here?"

The senate rose and recognized the staff of the senate.

"I also want to say a word of welcome to all those who are visiting us as guests in the gallery, in the galleries this afternoon. You may be here to witness the swearing in of friend or loved one. Or you may just be here to observe your government in action but please know how welcome members of the public are here in the Washington State Senate. We're so proud of our tradition of open government here and that these galleries are not only open and available but indeed welcoming to members of the public of all ages and we particularly love it when young people come to learn about how the Senate works. And so, please know that during these sixty days members of the public are warmly invited and of course we love it when members of the families of our senators have an opportunity to come and visit us because we know the kinds of sacrifices that families make in order to allow all of you here to do your jobs.

I want to say one more thing before we begin the ceremony of swearing in three members of the Senate. I want to recognize that there are two senators who left this chamber and but did so after we had adjourned sine die last year and so we are going to be swearing in and celebrating their replacements in just a moment but I do want to take a moment to recognize the work that they both put in. Senator Guy Palumbo of the 1st Legislative District and Senator Barbara Bailey of the 10th District both of whom I was very fortunate to get a chance to work with and get to know over the years. And I want to make a special note of Senator Barbara Bailey, just simply because of the years of service that she put into this institution to the House, to the Senate at the state of Washington. Her care for those who are marginalized. Near and dear to my heart is her care for those with disabilities which came through in so many different ways in legislation and budget items, but we wish both Senator Palumbo and Senator Bailey all the best and I know they'll be opportunities to celebrate their legacies.

Finally, on a personal note, I want to say that please know, I say this to all the senators, you know I hope you know that if there's something I do with which you disagree while we're in the floor session here please feel free to come to me speak to me about it. If there's anything that is making your time here your ability to represent your district challenging or causing any anxiety for you or obstacle to you in getting what you need done, I know I speak for the Secretary of the Senate Brad Hendrickson, the Sergeant at Arms Andy Staubitz, the other folks up here at the rostrum, when I say, please come to us directly we're here to support you. I'm here to support you and so too are all the rest of these fine folks who work so hard. So, once again, congratulations on all of you for being here on the first day and for what I know will be a very productive session ahead.”

On motion of Senator Liias, the Senate advanced to the third order of business.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

August 16, 2019

Governor Jay Inslee
Office of the Governor
PO Box 40002
Olympia, WA 98504-0002

Governor Inslee:

After much prayer and discussion with my family, I have made the decision to step down from my Senate seat effective September 30th, 2019. This decision was not taken lightly; however, I believe now is the best time to make this move. I have been giving this decision a lot of thought for the past 3-4 months. Spending quality time with my family and church has been difficult at best, and unworkable at other times. There are significant projects and ventures in which my husband and I want to be involved while we are still reasonably healthy and mobile.

I leave with a great sense of accomplishment of some significant issues which were passed into law, and which have made life for our citizens more efficient and meaningful. Specifically, making higher education more affordable in our public institutions, better support for our veterans and their dependents, improved health care for our aging population, and as Chair of the Select Committee for Pension Policy, ensuring long-term sustainability at a time when other pension systems around the country were in crisis. Our pension system now ranks among the most stable in the nation.

I plan to stay engaged with those programs affecting the well-being of our senior citizens to ensure they have improved access and resources for their care and dignity. It has been my honor to have served the state of Washington, and specifically the citizens of the 10th District. I will always be available for consultation and continued service when and where needed.

Respectfully,

Barbara Bailey
Washington State Senator
District 10

1. Behavioral Health Subcommittee to Health & Long-Term Care	5”
--	----

“Rule 45. 1. At least five days’ notice shall be given of all public hearings held by any committee other than the rules committee. Such notice shall contain the date, time and place of such hearing together with the title and number of each bill, or identification of the subject matter, to be considered at such hearing. By a majority vote of the committee members present at any committee meeting such notice may be dispensed with. The reason for such action shall be set forth in a written statement preserved in the records of the meeting.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

2. No committee may hold a public hearing during a regular or extraordinary session on a proposal identified as a draft unless the draft has been made available to the public at least twenty-four hours prior to the hearing. This rule does not apply during the five days prior to any cutoff established by concurrent resolution nor does it apply to any measure exempted from the resolution.

3. During its consideration of or vote on any bill, resolution or memorial, the deliberations of any committee or subcommittee of the senate shall be open to the public. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct at any such deliberations, the chair shall order the sergeant at arms to suppress the same and may order the meeting closed to any person or persons creating such disturbance.

4. No committee shall amend a measure, adopt a substitute bill, or vote upon any measure or appointment absent a quorum. A committee may conduct a hearing absent a quorum. A majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum and committees shall be considered to have a quorum present unless the question is raised. Any question as to quorum not raised at the time of the committee action is deemed waived.

5. Bills reported to the senate from a standing committee must have a majority report, which shall be prepared upon a printed standing committee report form; shall be adopted at a regularly or specially called meeting during a legislative session and shall be signed by a majority of the committee; and shall carry only one of the following recommendations:

- a. Do pass;
- b. Do pass as amended;
- c. That a substitute bill be substituted therefor, and the substitute bill do pass; or
- d. Without recommendation.

In addition to one of the above-listed recommendations, a report may also recommend that a bill be referred to another committee.

6. A majority report of a committee must carry the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee. In the event a committee has a quorum pursuant to subsection 4 of this rule, subject to the limitation of subsection 12 of this rule, a majority of the members present may act on a measure, subject to obtaining the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee on the majority report.

7. Any measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment still within a committee's possession before it has been reported out to the full senate may be reconsidered to correct an error, change language, or otherwise accurately reflect the will of the committee in its majority and minority reports to the full senate. Any such reconsideration may be made at any time, by any member of the committee, provided that the committee has not yet reported the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out to the full senate. Any such reconsideration made after a vote has been taken or signatures obtained will require a new vote and signature sheet. Any measure which does not receive a majority vote of the members present may be reconsidered at that meeting and may again be considered upon motion of any committee member if one day's notice of said motion is provided to all committee members. For purposes of this rule, a committee is deemed to have reported a measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out when it has delivered its majority and minority reports to the senate workroom. After such delivery, the committee no longer has possession of the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment and no further committee action, including reconsideration, may be taken.

8. Any member of the committee not concurring in the majority report may sign a minority report containing a recommendation of "do not pass" or "without recommendation," which shall be signed by those members of the committee subscribing thereto, and submitted with the majority report. Unless the signatory of a minority report expressly indicates a "do not pass" recommendation, the member's vote shall be deemed to be "without recommendation." In every case where a majority report form is circulated for signature, a minority report form shall also be circulated.

9. When a committee reports a substitute for an original bill with the recommendation that the substitute bill do pass, it shall be in order to read the substitute bill the first time and have the same ordered printed.

A motion for the substitution of the substitute bill for the original bill shall not be in order until the committee on rules places the original bill on the second reading calendar.

10. No vote in any committee shall be taken by secret ballot nor shall any committee have a policy of secrecy as to any vote on action taken in such committee.

11. All reports of standing committees must be on the secretary's desk one hour prior to convening of the session in order to be read at said session. During any special session of the legislature or within three days of sine die, this rule may be suspended by a majority vote of those present.

12. When a standing committee is operated by cochair, the committee may not vote upon any measure or appointment without the consent of each cochair.

13. When a standing committee has a standing subcommittee established under Senate Rule 41, the chair of the committee may rerefer any measures referred to the committee to the standing subcommittee with the consent of the ranking member of the committee or, in the event of a dispute between the chair and ranking member, referral may occur with a majority vote of the committee."

"Rule 49. All bills reported by a committee to the senate shall then be referred to the committee on rules for second reading without action on the report unless otherwise ordered by the senate. (See also Senate Rules 63 and 64.) A bill may not be referred to the committee on rules for second reading unless a standing committee has held a public hearing on the bill."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 5503

April 17, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Senate Bill No. 5503 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to state board of health rules regarding on-site sewage systems.”

I am vetoing Section 3 of this bill. This section is unnecessary and precludes local health jurisdiction staff from conditioning an on-site septic permit once an easement for the system has been granted. The granting of an easement should not eliminate the ability of an inspector to correct problems of a system that they are inspecting. The new section of this bill (Section 2) significantly increases protections for homeowners and provides assurance that on-site inspections will be done properly and fairly.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Senate Bill No. 5503.

With the exception of Section 3, Senate Bill No. 5503 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

PARTIAL VETO ON SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 5710

April 17, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3,

Substitute Senate Bill No. 5710 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to the Cooper Jones active transportation safety council.”

I am vetoing Section 3, the emergency clause, because it is not necessary. The new council created by the bill has no plans to convene before August 2019. Vetoing Section 3 of the bill in no way diminishes the bill’s overall traffic safety goals.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 5710.

With the exception of Section 3, Substitute Senate Bill No. 5710 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 5022

April 30, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 2, Senate Bill No. 5022 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to granting binding interest arbitration rights to certain higher education uniformed personnel.”

This bill establishes interest arbitration for uniformed personnel, which is defined as sworn police officers employed as a member of a police force established by state universities, regional universities, or the Evergreen State College. Section 2 amends current law and exempts such arbitration awards from submission to the Office of Financial Management to be certified as financially feasible. This could result in requiring the governor to include funds necessary to implement the award in his/her budget regardless of whether it was financially feasible.

Although I support granting interest arbitration to uniformed personnel, it is important to ensure that any award from interest arbitration must be submitted for certification of financial feasibility before being included in the governor’s budget proposal. This check and balance on arbitration awards protects the governor’s discretion in developing future budget proposals.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 2 of Senate Bill No. 5022.

With the exception of Section 2, Senate Bill No. 5022 is approved.

PARTIAL VETO ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5274

May 8, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 6, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5274 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to dental coverage for Pacific islanders residing in Washington.”

I am vetoing section 6 because it is an unnecessary emergency clause. This veto will not disturb the substantive provisions of this bill, but will avoid confusion about the start date of the dental program. The dental program is funded to begin January 1, 2021, and outreach and engagement communications will begin 90 days from today under the normal enactment period of the bill.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 6 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5274.

With the exception of Section 6, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5274 is approved.

PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 5360

May 8, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 5, Senate Bill No. 5360 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to plan membership default provisions in the public employees’ retirement system, the teachers’ retirement system, and the school employees’ retirement system.”

Section 5 of this bill declares an emergency and makes the bill effective immediately. However, the bill as it passed the legislature makes the provisions of the bill effective a year later than the date in the original bill. This change means that the emergency clause is no longer needed.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 5 of Senate Bill No. 5360.

With the exception of Section 5, Senate Bill No. 5360 is approved.

PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 5054

May 9, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 4, 5, and 6, Senate Bill No. 5054 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to increasing the behavioral health workforce by establishing a reciprocity program to increase the portability of behavioral health licenses and certifications.”

Senate Bill 5054 will help out-of-state applicants to more easily and quickly become integrated into Washington State’s behavioral health workforce. Sections 4, 5 and 6 direct the Department of Health to conduct a study to explore options for adoption of an interstate compact or compacts supporting license portability for certain professionals. I agree with the intended purpose of the bill; however, the final budget did not provide funding for the Department to perform this study and the cost of this work cannot be absorbed.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 4, 5, and 6 of Senate Bill No. 5054.

With the exception of Sections 4, 5, and 6, Senate Bill No. 5054 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Lt. Governor Cyrus Habib
President of the Senate
Legislative Building
Olympia, WA 98504

To the Honorable Members of the Washington State Senate:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration Second Substitute Senate Bill 5274 which was partially vetoed by the Governor, along with his objection to the bill, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 28th Day of May 2019.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL
NO. 5287

May 21, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5287 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to ensuring accurate redistricting by counting individuals in state custody as residents of their last known place of residence.”

Section 3 is an unnecessary emergency clause. Under the bill, the Department of Children, Youth, and Families; Department of Corrections; and Department of Social and Health Services must perform a residence determination process between April 1 and July 1 of each year ending in zero. Without the emergency clause, this bill will take effect under the standard enactment period, which is well before the first deadline of April 1, 2020. This veto will not disturb the substantive provisions of this bill and will provide the impacted agencies with adequate time to determine the last known place of residence for those persons who are in state custody.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 3 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5287.

With the exception of Section 3, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5287 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee
Governor

Lt. Governor Cyrus Habib
President of the Senate

To the Honorable Members of the Washington State Senate:

We respectfully transmit for your consideration Second Substitute Senate Bill 5672 which was partially vetoed by the Governor, along with his objection to the bill, as required by Article III, section 12, of the Washington State Constitution.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

May 21, 2019

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington on this 28th Day of May 2019.

Secretary of State

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 15, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5418 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to local government procurement modernization and efficiency.”

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5418 will help improve procurement processes for local governments. Section 15 of the bill amends RCW 87.03.435 relating to irrigation districts. Section 2 of a different bill passed by the Legislature this year, Engrossed Senate Bill 5453, contains the same amendments as well as other changes. Therefore I am vetoing Section 15 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5418 to avoid these double amendments and any confusion at the Office of the Code Reviser.

I would also note that the Legislature did not provide funding for the Capital Projects Advisory Review Board to review the public works contracting processes for local governments, including the small works roster and limited public works processes as set forth in Section 16. I am directing my Office of Financial Management to work with the Department of Enterprise Services to identify resources so they can begin this important work. In addition, I will be asking the Legislature to include full funding of this study in the 2020 supplemental operating budget.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 15 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5418.

With the exception of Section 15, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5418 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

PARTIAL VETO ON SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL
NO. 5672

May 21, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 6, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5672 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to adult family home specialty services.”

Section 6 contains a null and void clause. The enacted budget references the bill number, but does not provide specific funding. Therefore, the bill might be void if this section is not vetoed. The Department of Social and Health Services agrees that this work is important, so it will begin this work without additional resources.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 6 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5672.

With the exception of Section 6, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5672 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
VETO ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 5573

May 8, 2019

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5573 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to domestic violence and traumatic brain injury.”

Sections I and 2 of ESB 5573 are duplicative of sections in SHB 1532. Since SHB 1532 has already been signed into law, there is no need to duplicate those provisions by signing this bill as well. In addition, Section 2 of both ESB 5573 and SHB 1532 will become ineffective as this same section of law is amended in SHB 1225, which amends the statute to move the relevant language to a new statute in Chapter 10.99 RCW. For these reasons, I am vetoing ESB 5573.

The Criminal Justice Training Commission will incorporate the training required in Section I of the bill into the existing domestic violence training conducted at the Basic Law Enforcement Academy Training. Additionally, the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs will work with the sponsors of both ESB 5573 and SHB 1532 to draft a letter to their membership encouraging they provide the information suggested by the bill.

For these reasons I have vetoed Engrossed Senate Bill No. 5573 in its entirety.

WHEREAS, in November 2012, Washington voters passed Initiative 502, which legalized the possession of small amounts of marijuana for personal recreational use for adults.

WHEREAS, this is the only criminal conviction on the petitioner's record.

WHEREAS, because of society's evolving views of adult marijuana use and the ongoing burden this conviction places on the petitioner, I have determined that the best interests of justice be served by this action, as part of my Marijuana Justice Initiative.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Ariel Evelyn White-LeBlanc this pardon for the misdemeanor conviction of MARIJUANA POSSESSION, in Whatcom County Superior court, Case No. 09-100530-6.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:
WHEREAS, in 2001, James Allen Ward pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 00-1-04773-0. The conviction followed events in which Mr. Ward entered several small businesses, and displayed a weapon or threatened to use a weapon in order to steal cash.

WHEREAS, these convictions followed other earlier serious felony convictions, resulting in Mr. Ward being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ward has served over 18 years in prison for this offense. But for his status as a persistent offender, he would have been released from prison several years ago.

WHEREAS, Mr. Ward's criminal history was largely a result of his addiction to cocaine. Through the entirety of his incarceration, Mr. Ward has maintained his sobriety, never failing a drug test.

WHEREAS, in March 2019, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Ward's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Ward has shown remorse for his past conduct, and he has a strong family support network, including his wife, prepared to assist him in any eventual transition to the community. Testimony also demonstrated that Mr. Ward is sincerely committed to maintaining his sobriety, and he has secured multiple offers of employment once he is released to the community.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Ward's petition.

WHEREAS, in 2019, Washington State passed into law SB 5288, which removes second degree robbery from the list of offenses that can qualify an individual as a persistent offender. But this new law only applies prospectively, not retroactively. Consequently, because at least one of Mr. Ward's strike offenses is a second degree robbery, were he convicted for his present offense today, he would not qualify as a persistent offender and thus not face a life sentence on the current offense.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Ward's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Ward's ongoing sobriety, his strong family and community support network, and his multiple offers for employment upon release.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE James Allen Ward's 2001 sentence for FIRST DEGREE

While in custody, Mr. Ward must successfully complete a DOC-approved six-month work-release program. If Mr. Ward satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by May 1, 2021, DOC shall have the authority to release him after first completing all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Ward must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

15. Attend regular community addiction support programming, as directed by DOC.
16. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
17. Be subject to periodic polygraph testing as part of supervision compliance monitoring, as determined by DOC.
18. Not associate with or make contact with known criminal felons, gang members, drug dealers, or individuals on active community supervision or in prison unless approved by DOC.
19. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
20. Complete the Thinking for a Change program during the first 90 days on community supervision.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Ward shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Ward is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Ward to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants of detain Mr. Ward if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Ward violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Ward will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violation and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Ward has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Ward is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Ward submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Ward an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Ward has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. ward is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Ward will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Ward may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Ward may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Ward will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Anderson's strong family and community support network, and their ability to help him with shelter, employment, and emotional support. It also cited the support from the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON
OF
TRAVIS MICHAEL BASSETT

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1999 and 2000, Travis Michael Bassett pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and FIRST DEGREE VEHICLE PROWLING in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause Nos. 99-1-2085-6 and 00-1-1170-0. The robbery conviction occurred after Mr. Bassett, then 17 years old, broke into a woman’s home with another teenager, hit the victim and stole several thousands of dollars’ worth of her possessions. The vehicle prowling conviction came after Mr. Bassett broke into a motor home and stole several items from inside.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bassett accepts responsibility for his behavior as a teenager, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence, including paying off over $37,000 in victim restitution and other legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, Mr. Bassett has committed no other felonies since these two convictions. After serving his sentence, Mr. Bassett joined the Washington Army National Guard. In this role he twice deployed to Iraq, and he has been promoted to serve in leadership positions within the National Guard.

WHEREAS, in March 2019, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Bassett’s petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Bassett testified that these convictions on his record preclude him from consideration for further promotion to certain professional leadership opportunities within the National Guard.

WHEREAS, at his hearing, Mr. Bassett also testified that in 2008 he married his wife, and together, they have purchased a home and started a family.

WHEREAS, the Spokane County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Bassett’s petition for a pardon.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Anderson be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime, Mr. Bassett was just 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant Travis Michael Bassett this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON for his FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and FIRST DEGREE VEHICLE PROWLING convictions in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause Nos. 99-1-2085-6 and 00-1-1 170-0.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 14th day of October, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

SECOND AMENDED CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
OF
JOSEPH SCOTT WHARTON

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Joseph Scott Wharton was convicted on April 22, 1997, after a bench trial, on five counts of Second Degree Robbery in King County Superior Court Cause Number 97-1-00657-7 and sentenced to a life in prison under Washington’s persistent offender statute. Over the course of a month in 1996 and 1997, Mr. Wharton approached clerks in stores and banks and demanded money. He often held his hand in his pocket to suggest that he had a gun.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wharton received his first and second strikes after similar robberies in which he entered stores and confronted clerks, suggested he was carrying a firearm, and then ordering the clerk to provide him money.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wharton unequivocally accepted responsibility and expressed remorse for his past crimes and apologized for his actions to his victims, his family, and the state of Washington.

WHEREAS, at the time of his conviction, the standard range for Mr. Wharton’s offense was 33 to 43 months. The maximum sentence for Second Degree Robbery in the state of Washington, without the three strikes law, is 84 months.

WHEREAS, in December 2012, Mr. Wharton's petition for clemency, in which he was seeking a commutation, was heard by the Clemency & Pardons Board.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Wharton had shown considerable rehabilitation while incarcerated. He participated in programming to improve his life skills, enhance his education, and remain free from substance abuse.

WHEREAS, King County Prosecutor Daniel Satterberg reviewed Mr. Wharton's clemency petition, and supported his petition. Also supporting Mr. Wharton's petition was the sentencing judge on his "third strike" offense, retired Judge Michael J. Fox, who was so unsettled by having to direct such a sentence in the case of a non-violent offender, that he encouraged Mr. Wharton seek a commutation.

WHEREAS, following his hearing, the Clemency Board unanimously recommended that the governor commute Mr. Wharton's sentence.

WHEREAS, on July 30, 2013, I commuted Mr. Wharton's sentence, contingent on a series of terms to which Mr. Wharton agreed, including refraining from drug and alcohol use, participating in a residential treatment program, and regularly reporting with his community corrections officer for urinalysis testing. In October 2013, however, Mr. Wharton left his residential substance treatment program without permission and was later found to have violated the terms of his community custody multiple times.

WHEREAS, following the findings that Mr. Wharton violated the terms of his July 30, 2013, Conditional Commutation, I revoked Mr. Wharton's Conditional Commutation on February 19, 2014.

WHEREAS, in the years following the revocation of Mr. Wharton's Conditional Commutation, he continued to show personal growth and maturity, and on July 6, 2017, I amended his Conditional Commutation to allow him another chance to transition to the community.

WHEREAS, after several months in the community following his re-release, Mr. Wharton again was found to have violated the terms of his Amended Conditional Commutation, this time when he was found to have used illicit drugs.

WHEREAS, despite again violating the terms of his Amended Conditional Commutation, Mr. Wharton still enjoys the support of King County Prosecutor Daniel Satterberg and his sentencing Judge Michael J. Fox, who would both like to see Mr. Wharton receive another chance to successfully transition to the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under Article III Section 9 of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 9.94A.885 and RCW 9.95.260, hereby amend Joseph Scott Wharton's 2017 Amended Conditional Commutation. Under these amended terms, following statutorily required notifications, and as soon as space is available for him, Mr. Wharton shall be released to Pioneer Center North for an inpatient substance abuse treatment program of at least 30 days. And upon his release from custody, Mr. Wharton shall also begin serving a 36-month term of DOC community supervision.

17. Enroll in and successfully complete the Thinking for a Change program, or similar program, as approved by DOC; and
18. Obey all laws and comply with all conditions, recommendations, orders, and instructions of community placement as directed orally or in writing by DOC.

Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Wharton is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Wharton to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Wharton if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED that in the event Mr. Wharton violates any of the conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Second Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wharton will be immediately returned to the Washington Corrections Center or any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED that Mr. Wharton may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Second Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Wharton may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Wharton will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

WHEREAS, in 1999, a jury found Eustace Rudolph Jennings guilty of four counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY and two counts of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 98-1-03607-1. WHEREAS, these conviction followed other convictions, resulting in Mr. Jennings being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington’s persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, over the term of his sentence, Mr. Jennings has been a model prisoner, with just one infraction on his prison record. He has been infraction-free for the last thirteen years.

WHEREAS, in December 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Jennings’ clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Jennings’ lengthy criminal record was linked to substance abuse. He achieved sobriety twenty years ago, having committed himself to Narcotics Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous programs.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecutor does not object to Mr. Jennings’ petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Jennings’ sentence. If Mr. Jennings is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Jennings to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Jennings if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Jennings violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Jennings will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. WHEREAS, following these events, Mr. Steward's two co-defendants each took plea deals to serve 48 months in prison. Mr. Steward rejected the same plea deal, and at trial, his two co-defendants testified against him. WHEREAS, in 1994, Roeuth An, was driving a car with his friend seated in the passenger seat. They approached three men on a sidewalk, and Mr. An pulled the car over. His friend lowered the passenger window, started arguing with the men, and then fired multiple shots at the three pedestrians as Mr. An started to drive the car away.

WHEREAS, Mr. An pleaded guilty to three counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT, as an accomplice, in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 94-1-4920-0. The trial court sentenced Mr. An to 18 months in prison.

WHEREAS, Mr. An has accepted full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. Since this incident, Mr. An has steadily worked as an electrician to support his family, which includes his long-time partner, a teenage son, and a stepdaughter.

WHEREAS, in the years since Mr. An's 1995 criminal conviction, he has not had any other criminal convictions.

WHEREAS, due to Mr. An's conviction, he now faces the possibility of imminent deportation from the United States to Cambodia, a country from which he and his family fled as refugees when he was a young child.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney's Office does not object to Mr. An's petition. That office attempted to contact the victims in this matter, so that they may opine about Mr. An's petition. No victims responded to the Prosecuting Attorney's Office communications.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board expedited reviewed of Mr. An's petition for a pardon. But even with the Board expediting its review, Mr. An faces an immediate deportation. Federal agents will not stay his deportation to await the outcome of the Board's hearing on his petition.

WHEREAS, given the exigency of the circumstances, the timing of Mr. An's expedited hearing before the Clemency Board will not allow the Board to issue a recommendation for my consideration before he is deported. So I am compelled to rely on the near-complete written record before me to review his petition and issue this order without the benefit of a public hearing and the Clemency Board's recommendation.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed the pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime and the consequences that this deportation will have on Mr. An and his family, and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, hereby grant to Roeuth An this FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL pardon of his convictions of three counts of SECOND DEGREE ASSAULT in Pierce County Superior Court, Cause No. 94-1-4920-0.

 MAURICE RATTRAY III

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1975, Maurice Rattray III, pleaded guilty to ATTEMPTED SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court No. 72077. This conviction followed after Mr. Rattray, then a 19-year old college student, unsuccessfully attempted to break into another's home.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray pleaded guilty to the offense and was given a deferred sentence, which he was later dismissed and vacated, pursuant to his sentence, in 1978.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray accepts full responsibility for his actions and completed all of his sentence requirements. This is the only criminal conviction on Mr. Rattray's record.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Rattray's petition for a pardon. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Rattray went on to complete his civil engineering degree at the University of Washington and later an MBA.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray has spent his career working on public sector transit projects. He currently lives in California and testified that he would like to pursue employment opportunities at Sound Transit, but this felony may preclude him from passing a background check.

WHEREAS, Mr. Rattray also testified that he would like to recreate and travel internationally with his family, including his two children, but this felony poses challenges.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Rattray a full pardon. In supporting Mr. Rattray's petition, the Board cited his otherwise spotless record, the fact that his conviction was dismissed and vacated under the terms of his sentence, and his contributions to his community and profession.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

RE: Clemency Petition — Devon P. Adams

Dear Mr. Ellis:

The Clemency and Pardons Board considered the clemency request of your client, Devon Adams, at its December 2016, meeting. Following a hearing, the Board recommended 3-1 that Governor Inslee grant Mr. Adams' petition.

The Governor has reviewed Mr. Adams' petition, and while he commends your client for the steps he has taken in prison to become a better person, he does not believe that clemency is appropriate at this time. I therefore regret to inform you that Mr. Adams' request for a commutation has been denied.

I appreciate your client's understandable disappointment with this decision. But ultimately, Mr. Adams did not demonstrate extraordinary circumstances, particularly given the seriousness of the activity that led to his conviction and sentence. The Governor will consider a renewed request, should Mr. Adams re-petition the Board when he is again eligible in three years.

Sincerely,
Taylor K. Wonhoff

And, since 2011, she received no serious infractions. Ms. Ballard also seized opportunities to improve herself while in prison. She completed various college courses, seminars, and other self-improvement programs.

abuse.

WHEREAS, King County Prosecutor Daniel Satterberg reviewed Mr. Wharton’s clemency petition, and supported his petition. Also supporting Mr. Wharton’s petition was the sentencing judge on his “third strike” offense, retired Judge Michael J. Fox, who was so unsettled by having to direct such a sentence in the case of a non-violent offender, that he encouraged Mr. Wharton to seek a commutation.

WHEREAS, following his hearing, the Clemency Board unanimously recommended that the governor commute Mr. Wharton’s sentence.

WHEREAS, on July 30, 2013, Governor commuted Mr. Wharton’s sentence, contingent on a series of terms to which Mr. Wharton agreed, including refraining from drug and alcohol use, participating in a residential treatment program, and regularly reporting with his community corrections officer for urinalysis testing. In October 2013, however, Mr. Wharton left his residential substance treatment program without permission and was later found to have violated the terms of his community custody multiple times.

WHEREAS, following the findings that Mr. Wharton violated the terms of his July 30, 2013, Conditional Commutation, Governor Inslee revoked Mr. Wharton’s Conditional Commutation on February 19, 2014.

WHEREAS, in the years since the revocation of Mr. Wharton’s Conditional Commutation, he has continued to show personal growth and maturity, and he has learned from the mistakes that led to the revocation of his July 30, 2013, Conditional Commutation. Mr. Wharton has been accepted into a Salvation Army Rehabilitation Center residential treatment program that he believes will provide him the support he needs to successfully transition to the community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington under Article III Section 9 of the Washington State Constitution, RCW 9.94A.885 and RCW 9.95.260, hereby amend Joseph Scott Wharton’s original Conditional Commutation. Under these amended terms, Mr. Wharton will go through a transition through lower levels of custody as determined by the Department of Corrections (DOC), to end July 1, 2018. At that time, Mr. Wharton shall begin serving a 36-month term of DOC community supervision. Also upon his release from DOC custody, Mr. Wharton will transition to the Salvation Army Rehabilitation Center residential treatment program for a period of six months to a year, as determined by the treatment facility.

During his period of custody, and on community supervision, Mr. Wharton shall:

1. Participate in a substance abuse and/or chemical dependency evaluation as directed by DOC and complete any recommendations from such evaluation;
2. Participate in a residential drug and alcohol treatment program, as directed by DOC;
3. Participate in chemical dependency and substance abuse support groups when not in residential treatment, as directed by DOC;
4. Not use, possess, or consume alcohol or other controlled substances, unless taken under medical supervision;

10. Pay legal financial obligations and other fees as directed by DOC;
11. Participate in DOC-approved education, training, employment and employment training, and/or community service programs;
12. Receive prior approval from DOC for any employment changes or changes in living arrangements or residence;
13. Allow DOC to conduct such home visits as DOC deems appropriate;
14. Not travel beyond the county of residence, unless approved in writing by DOC;
15. Have no direct contact with any victims or their families, unless requested by the victim and approved by DOC;
16. Report to DOC any contact with law enforcement within 24 hours of the occurrence;
17. Enroll in and successfully complete the Thinking for a Change program, or similar program, as approved by DOC; and
18. Obey all laws and comply with all conditions, recommendations, orders, and instructions of community placement as directed orally or in writing by DOC.

PROVIDED that Mr. Wharton shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Amended Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Wharton is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Wharton to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Wharton if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED that in the event Mr. Wharton violates any of the conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wharton will be immediately returned to the Washington Corrections Center or any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor’s intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Amended Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Wharton has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Wharton is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Wharton submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has in fact complied with all conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer provide Mr. Wharton an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Amended Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor’s final and conclusive determination of whether Mr. Wharton has violated the conditions of the Amended Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Wharton is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Amended Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Wharton will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Wharton may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Amended Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Amended Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Wharton may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Wharton will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 6th day of July, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.

WHEREAS, Adam Michael Quinn pleaded guilty to SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in 2001, King County Superior Court Case No. 01-1-104232-3. Mr. Quinn, then 18 years old, robbed his former employer, a movie theater, while armed with a pellet gun.

WHEREAS, Mr. Quinn is autistic. At the time of this offense, Mr. Quinn had not yet been diagnosed, and was not being treated for this condition. He and his doctors have since found a treatment plan that works for him, and he has earned his high school diploma.

WHEREAS, Mr. Quinn accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence, including paying all of his legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office testified in support of Mr. Quinn's petition.

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:
WHEREAS, in 1992, James Albert Luksan pleaded guilty to two counts of SECOND DEGREE ARSON in King County Superior Court No. 92-1-04488-5. These convictions arose after a then-17-year old Mr. Luksan exploded pipe bombs as a prank on New Year's Eve 1991, causing property damage.

WHEREAS, Mr. Luksan accepts full responsibility for his past conduct and expresses remorse. He has satisfied all the conditions of his judgment and sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Luksan has not been convicted of a crime in 25 years. He has a family and is raising two children. He pursued higher education opportunities and became an engineer and professional pilot, enjoying steady employment throughout his adult life.

WHEREAS, in December 2016, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Luksan's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Luksan explained that he would like to move to Japan with his family, but he cannot make the move because of this felony. He also cannot volunteer at his daughter's school, and he is limited in his opportunities for career advancement because, as a pilot, he is limited to domestic airlines because of his inability to travel internationally.

WHEREAS, no victims objected to Mr. Luksan's petition, nor did the King County Prosecuting Attorney.

WHEREAS, at the time of his crime in 1991, Mr. Luksan was just 17 years old. The scientific and criminal justice communities have documented the difficulty the juvenile brain has in engaging in behavior control, often leading juveniles to exhibit a transient rashness, proclivity for risk, and inability to assess the full consequences of their actions.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that Mr. Luksan be granted a full pardon.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION
MICHAEL HOOVER

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, Michael James Hoover pleaded guilty to three counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 06-4-468-4. In 2006, Mr. Hoover visited a series of stores and espresso stands, and while suggesting he was carrying a weapon, demanded money.

WHEREAS, these convictions came after similar robberies in 1999 and 2004, resulting in Mr. Hoover being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoover has served over 10 years on this conviction. He has had no serious prison infractions in 10 years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoover accepts full responsibility for his past criminal conduct and expresses remorse. While in prison, he has identified with his Native American ancestry and has been an outspoken voice for Native American rights.

WHEREAS, in March 2017, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Hoover's clemency petition, which included several letters of support, as well as and certificates of achievement earned during his incarceration.

WHEREAS, the testimony before the Board was that Mr. Hoover experienced significant childhood trauma, which contributed to his past anti-social criminal behavior. While incarcerated, he has taken great strides to learn to cope with the trauma of his past and grow from it.

WHEREAS, had Mr. Hoover not been sentenced as a persistent offender, he would have been sentenced to 129 to 171 months. He has already served over 138 months on this sentence. Snohomish County Prosecutor Mark Roe testified that he would not oppose commuting Mr. Hoover's sentence from life in prison without the possibility of parole to a sentence of 231 months. A commutation would allow Mr. Hoover to enroll in certain DOC programming in which he is not currently eligible to participate due to his life sentence programming that will help him to prepare for eventual transition to the community.

WHEREAS, upon his eventual release, Mr. Hoover will have the support of friends, family, and the tribal community. He has standing offers for housing and employment and other support.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Hoover's sentence from life in prison without the possibility of parole to 231 months. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Michael James Hoover's sentence months for his 2006 conviction on three counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Snohomish County Superior Court Cause No. 06-4-468-4, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the DOC in a transition plan in which Mr. Hoover will be released from prison after serving a 231 -month sentence. During his last nine months in custody, Mr. Hoover must successfully complete a DOC-approved work release program. Following his release from custody, Mr. Hoover shall serve 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period under DOC custody and supervision, Mr. Hoover must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC and its community corrections officers (CCOs). These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Hoover shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Be available for contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, or personal property.
3. Obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational programming, and report it to DOC.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

4. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences, or taking overnight visits away from his DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
5. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval.
6. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons.
7. Not carry a knife of any kind on his person unless necessary for work purposes or as otherwise approved by DOC.
8. Obtain a substance abuse evaluation and follow all treatment recommendations as directed by DOC.
9. Not possess or use any controlled substances without a valid physician's prescription.
10. Not visit bars, taverns, or other establishments in which alcohol or marijuana is the primary commodity being sold, unless approved by DOC.
11. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
12. Participate in weekly substance abuse support programming as determined by DOC.
13. Not associate with known criminals, gangs, or individuals that have a criminal or gang history without DOC approval.
14. Not possess stolen property or unauthorized tools not associated with approved work, to be determined by DOC.
15. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
16. Complete anger management programming, as directed by DOC.
17. Enroll in, and successfully complete DOC's Thinking for a Change program, as well as Cognitive Behavioral Intervention programming, and/or any other programming or treatment as directed by DOC.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Hoover shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Hoover is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Hoover to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Hoover if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hoover violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hoover will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Hoover has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Hoover is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Hoover submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Hoover an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Hoover has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Hoover is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the same sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Hoover will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Hoover may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Hoover may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Hoover will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 29th day of June, A.D., two thousand and nineteen.
