[S. B. 378.]

DIVORCE AND ALIMONY.

AN ACT relating to divorce and alimony; prescribing duties and powers of the court; providing for the modification of orders, judgments or decrees heretofore or hereafter made in divorce actions, relative to alimony and the care, support and education of children, amending section 988 of Remington's Compiled Statutes of Washington and inserting new sections to be numbered 988-2 and 988-3 of Remington's Compiled Statutes of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 988 of Remington's Compiled Statutes be amended to read as follows:

Section 988. Pending the action for the divorce, the court, or judge thereof, may make, and by attachment enforce, such orders for the disposition of the persons, property and children of the parties as may be deemed right and proper, and such orders relative to the expenses of such action as will insure to the wife an efficient preparation of her case, and a fair and impartial trial thereof; at the conclusion of the trial the court must make and file findings of fact and conclusions of law. If it determines that no divorce shall be granted final judgment must thereupon be entered accordingly. If, however, the court determines that either party, or both, is en-
