CHAPTER 18.

[S. B. 4.]

JOINT ACCOUNTS WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP IN BANKS.

AN ACT relating to the banking business and providing for joint accounts with right of survivorship in national banks, state banks, trust companies and banking institutions.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Joint account.

SECTION 1. After any commercial or savings deposit shall be made in a national bank, state bank, trust company or any banking institution subject to the supervision of the supervisor of banking of this state by any person in the names of such depositor and another person and in form to be paid to either or the survivor of them, such deposit and any additions thereto made by either of such persons after the making thereof, shall become the property of such persons as joint tenants with the right of survivorship, and the same, together with all interest thereof, in the case of savings accounts, shall be held for the exclusive use of such persons and may be paid to either during the lifetime of both or the survivor after the death of one of them. The making of the deposit in such form shall, in the absence of fraud or undue influence, be conclusive evidence, in any action or proceeding to which either such bank or the surviving depositor is a party, of the intention of both depositors to vest title to such deposit and the additions thereto in such survivor.

Paid to either or survivor.

Passed the Senate January 26, 1951.

Passed the House February 13, 1951.

Approved by the Governor February 19, 1951.
