PART XIX MISCELLANEOUS SUPPLEMENTAL

Sec. 1901. RCW 28B.76.526 and 2020 c 357 s 911 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington opportunity pathways account is created in the state treasury. Expenditures from the account may be used only for programs in chapter 28A.710 RCW (charter schools), chapter 28B.12 RCW (state work-study), chapter 28B.50 RCW (opportunity grant), RCW 28B.76.660 (Washington scholars award), RCW 28B.76.670 (Washington award for vocational excellence), chapter 28B.92 RCW (Washington college grant program), chapter 28B.105 RCW (GET ready for math and science scholarship), chapter 28B.117 RCW (passport to careers), chapter 28B.118 RCW (college bound scholarship), and chapter 43.216 RCW (early childhood education and assistance program). During the 2019-2021 and 2021-2023 fiscal (~~biennium~~) biennia, the account may also be appropriated for public schools funded under chapters 28A.150 and 28A.715 RCW.

Sec. 1902. RCW 70A.65.030 and 2022 c 182 s 104 and 2022 c 181 s 13 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Each year or biennium, as appropriate, when allocating funds from the carbon emissions reduction account created in RCW 70A.65.240, the climate commitment account created in RCW 70A.65.260, the natural climate solutions account created in RCW 70A.65.270, the climate investment account created in RCW 70A.65.250, the air quality and health disparities improvement account created in RCW 70A.65.280, the climate transit programs account created in RCW 46.68.500, or the climate active transportation account created in RCW 46.68.490, or administering grants or programs funded by the accounts, agencies shall conduct an environmental justice assessment consistent with the requirements of RCW 70A.02.060 and establish a minimum of not less than 35 percent and a goal of 40 percent of total investments that provide direct and meaningful benefits to vulnerable populations within the boundaries of overburdened communities through: (a) The direct reduction of environmental burdens in overburdened communities; (b) the reduction of disproportionate, cumulative risk from environmental burdens, including those associated with climate change; (c) the support of community led project development, planning, and participation costs; or (d) meeting a community need identified by the community that is consistent with the intent of this chapter or RCW 70A.02.010.

(2) The allocation of funding under subsection (1) of this section must adhere to the following principles, additional to the requirements of RCW 70A.02.080: (a) Benefits and programs should be directed to areas and targeted to vulnerable populations and overburdened communities to reduce statewide disparities; (b) investments and benefits should be made roughly proportional to the health disparities that a specific community experiences, with a goal of eliminating the disparities; (c) investments and programs should focus on creating environmental benefits, including eliminating health burdens, creating community and population resilience, and raising the quality of life of those in the community; and (d) efforts should be made to balance investments and benefits across the state and within counties, local jurisdictions, and unincorporated areas as appropriate to reduce disparities by location and to ensure efforts contribute to a reduction in disparities that exist based on race or ethnicity, socioeconomic status, or other factors.

(3) (~~State~~) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, state agencies allocating funds or administering grants or programs from the carbon emissions reduction account created in RCW 70A.65.240, the climate commitment account created in RCW 70A.65.260, the natural climate solutions account created in RCW 70A.65.270, the climate investment account created in RCW 70A.65.250, the air quality and health disparities improvement account created in RCW 70A.65.280, the climate transit programs account created in RCW 46.68.500, or the climate active transportation account created in RCW 46.68.490, must:

(a) Report annually to the environmental justice council created in RCW 70A.02.110 regarding progress toward meeting environmental justice and environmental health goals;

(b) Consider recommendations by the environmental justice council; and

(c)(i) If the agency is not a covered agency subject to the requirements of chapter 70A.02 RCW, create and adopt a community engagement plan to describe how it will engage with overburdened communities and vulnerable populations in allocating funds or administering grants or programs from the climate investment account.

(ii) The plan must include methods for outreach and communication with those who face barriers, language or otherwise, to participation.

(4) During the 2021-2023 fiscal biennium, the requirements of subsection (3)(c) of this section for agencies other than covered agencies to create and adopt community engagement plans apply only to executive branch agencies and institutions of higher education, as defined in RCW 28B.10.016, receiving total appropriations of more than $2,000,000 for the 2021-2023 fiscal biennium from the accounts listed in subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 1903. RCW 74.46.561 and 2022 c 297 s 966 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature adopts a new system for establishing nursing home payment rates beginning July 1, 2016. Any payments to nursing homes for services provided after June 30, 2016, must be based on the new system. The new system must be designed in such a manner as to decrease administrative complexity associated with the payment methodology, reward nursing homes providing care for high acuity residents, incentivize quality care for residents of nursing homes, and establish minimum staffing standards for direct care.

(2) The new system must be based primarily on industry-wide costs, and have three main components: Direct care, indirect care, and capital.

(3)(a) The direct care component must include the direct care and therapy care components of the previous system, along with food, laundry, and dietary services. ~~((Direct))~~ Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, direct care must be paid at a fixed rate, based on one hundred percent or greater of statewide case mix neutral median costs, but ((for fiscal year 2023)) shall be capped so that a nursing home provider's direct care rate does not exceed ((465)) 118 percent of its base year's direct care allowable costs except if the provider is below the minimum staffing standard established in RCW 74.42.360(2). The legislature intends to remove the cap on direct care rates by June 30, 2027. Direct care must be performance-adjusted for acuity every six months, using case mix principles. Direct care must be regionally adjusted using countywide wage index information available through the United States department of labor's bureau of labor statistics. There is no minimum occupancy for direct care. The direct care component rate allocations calculated in accordance with this section must be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.

(b) Unless a nursing home provider is below the minimum staffing standard established in RCW 74.42.360(2), a provider's direct care rate relative to its base year's direct care allowable costs must be capped as follows: For fiscal year 2023, the cap must not exceed 165 percent.

(4)(a) The indirect care component must include the elements of administrative expenses, maintenance costs, and housekeeping services from the previous system. ~~((A))~~ Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, a minimum occupancy assumption of ninety percent must be applied to indirect care((, except during fiscal year 2023 when the minimum occupancy assumption must be 75 percent)). Indirect care must be paid at a fixed rate, based on ninety percent or greater of statewide median costs. The indirect care component rate allocations calculated in accordance with this section must be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.

(b) A minimum occupancy assumption must be applied to indirect care as follows: For fiscal year 2023, the assumption must be 75 percent.

(5) The capital component must use a fair market rental system to set a price per bed. The capital component must be adjusted for the age of the facility, and must use a minimum occupancy assumption of ninety percent.

(a) Beginning July 1, 2016, the fair rental rate allocation for each facility must be determined by multiplying the allowable nursing home square footage in (c) of this subsection by the RSMeans rental rate in (d) of this subsection and by the number of licensed beds yielding the gross unadjusted building value. An equipment allowance of ten percent must be added to the unadjusted building value. The sum of the unadjusted building value and equipment allowance must then be reduced by the average age of the facility as determined by (e) of this subsection using a depreciation rate of one and one-half percent. The depreciated building and equipment plus land valued at ten percent of the gross unadjusted building value before depreciation must then be multiplied by the rental rate at seven and one-half percent to yield an allowable fair rental value for the land, building, and equipment.

(b) The fair rental value determined in (a) of this subsection must be divided by the greater of the actual total facility census from the prior full calendar year or imputed census based on the number of licensed beds at ninety percent occupancy.

(c) For the rate year beginning July 1, 2016, all facilities must be reimbursed using four hundred square feet. For the rate year beginning July 1, 2017, allowable nursing facility square footage must be determined using the total nursing facility square footage as reported on the medicaid cost reports submitted to the department in compliance with this chapter. The maximum allowable square feet per bed may not exceed four hundred fifty.

(d) Each facility must be paid at eighty-three percent or greater of the median nursing facility RSMeans construction index value per square foot. The department may use updated RSMeans construction index information when more recent square footage data becomes available. The statewide value per square foot must be indexed based on facility zip code by multiplying the statewide value per square foot times the appropriate zip code based index. For the purpose of implementing this section, the value per square foot effective July 1, 2016, must be set so that the weighted average fair rental value rate is not less than ten dollars and eighty cents per patient day. The capital component rate allocations calculated in accordance with this section must be adjusted to the extent necessary to comply with RCW 74.46.421.

(e) The average age is the actual facility age reduced for significant renovations. Significant renovations are defined as those renovations that exceed two thousand dollars per bed in a calendar year as reported on the annual cost report submitted in accordance with this chapter. For the rate beginning July 1, 2016, the department shall use renovation data back to 1994 as submitted on facility cost reports. Beginning July 1, 2016, facility ages must be reduced in future years if the value of the renovation completed in any year exceeds two thousand dollars times the number of licensed beds. The cost of the renovation must be divided by the accumulated depreciation per bed in the year of the renovation to determine the equivalent number of new replacement beds. The new age for the facility is a weighted average with the replacement bed equivalents reflecting an age of zero and the existing licensed beds, minus the new bed equivalents, reflecting their age in the year of the renovation. At no time may the depreciated age be less than zero or greater than forty-four years.

(f) A nursing facility's capital component rate allocation must be rebased annually, effective July 1, 2016, in accordance with this section and this chapter.

(g) For the purposes of this subsection (5), "RSMeans" means building construction costs data as published by Gordian.

(6) A quality incentive must be offered as a rate enhancement beginning July 1, 2016.

(a) An enhancement no larger than five percent and no less than one percent of the statewide average daily rate must be paid to facilities that meet or exceed the standard established for the quality incentive. All providers must have the opportunity to earn the full quality incentive payment.

(b) The quality incentive component must be determined by calculating an overall facility quality score composed of four to six quality measures. For fiscal year 2017 there shall be four quality measures, and for fiscal year 2018 there shall be six quality measures. Initially, the quality incentive component must be based on minimum data set quality measures for the percentage of long-stay residents who self-report moderate to severe pain, the percentage of high-risk long-stay residents with pressure ulcers, the percentage of long-stay residents experiencing one or more falls with major injury, and the percentage of long-stay residents with a urinary tract infection. Quality measures must be reviewed on an annual basis by a stakeholder work group established by the department. Upon review, quality measures may be added or changed. The department may risk adjust individual quality measures as it deems appropriate.

(c) The facility quality score must be point based, using at a minimum the facility's most recent available three-quarter average centers for medicare and medicaid services quality data. Point thresholds for each quality measure must be established using the corresponding statistical values for the quality measure point determinants of eighty quality measure points, sixty quality measure points, forty quality measure points, and twenty quality measure points, identified in the most recent available five-star quality rating system technical user's guide published by the centers for medicare and medicaid services.

(d) Facilities meeting or exceeding the highest performance threshold (top level) for a quality measure receive twenty-five points. Facilities meeting the second highest performance threshold receive twenty points. Facilities meeting the third level of performance threshold receive fifteen points. Facilities in the bottom performance threshold level receive no points. Points from all quality measures must then be summed into a single aggregate quality score for each facility.

(e) Facilities receiving an aggregate quality score of eighty percent of the overall available total score or higher must be placed in the highest tier (tier V), facilities receiving an aggregate score of between seventy and seventy-nine percent of the overall available total score must be placed in the second highest tier (tier IV), facilities receiving an aggregate score of between sixty and sixty-nine percent of the overall available total score must be placed in the third highest tier (tier III), facilities receiving an aggregate score of between fifty and fifty-nine percent of the overall available total score must be placed in the fourth highest tier (tier II), and facilities receiving less than fifty percent of the overall available total score must be placed in the lowest tier (tier I).

(f) The tier system must be used to determine the amount of each facility's per patient day quality incentive component. The per patient day quality incentive component for tier IV is seventy-five percent of the per patient day quality incentive component for tier V, the per patient day quality incentive component for tier III is fifty percent of the per patient day quality incentive component for tier V, and the per patient day quality incentive component for tier II is twenty-five percent of the per patient day quality incentive component for tier V. Facilities in tier I receive no quality incentive component.

(g) Tier system payments must be set in a manner that ensures that the entire biennial appropriation for the quality incentive program is allocated.

(h) Facilities with insufficient three-quarter average centers for medicare and medicaid services quality data must be assigned to the tier corresponding to their five-star quality rating. Facilities with a five-star quality rating must be assigned to the highest tier (tier V) and facilities with a one-star quality rating must be assigned to the lowest tier (tier I). The use of a facility's five-star quality rating shall only occur in the case of insufficient centers for medicare and medicaid services minimum data set information.

(i) The quality incentive rates must be adjusted semiannually on July 1 and January 1 of each year using, at a minimum, the most recent available three-quarter average centers for medicare and medicaid services quality data.

(j) Beginning July 1, 2017, the percentage of short-stay residents who newly received an antipsychotic medication must be added as a quality measure. The department must determine the quality incentive thresholds for this quality measure in a manner consistent with those outlined in (b) through (h) of this subsection using the centers for medicare and medicaid services quality data.

(k) Beginning July 1, 2017, the percentage of direct care staff turnover must be added as a quality measure using the centers for medicare and medicaid services' payroll-based journal and nursing home facility payroll data. Turnover is defined as an employee departure. The department must determine the quality incentive thresholds for this quality measure using data from the centers for medicare and medicaid services' payroll-based journal, unless such data is not available, in which case the department shall use direct care staffing turnover data from the most recent medicaid cost report.

(7) Reimbursement of the safety net assessment imposed by chapter 74.48 RCW and paid in relation to medicaid residents must be continued.

(8)(a) The direct care and indirect care components must be rebased in even-numbered years, beginning with rates paid on July 1, 2016. Rates paid on July 1, 2016, must be based on the 2014 calendar year cost report. On a percentage basis, after rebasing, the department must confirm that the statewide average daily rate has increased at least as much as the average rate of inflation, as determined by the skilled nursing facility market basket index published by the centers for medicare and medicaid services, or a comparable index. If after rebasing, the percentage increase to the statewide average daily rate is less than the average rate of inflation for the same time period, the department is authorized to increase rates by the difference between the percentage increase after rebasing and the average rate of inflation.

(b) It is the intention of the legislature that direct and indirect care rates paid in fiscal year 2022 will be rebased using the calendar year 2019 cost reports. For fiscal year 2021, in addition to the rates generated by (a) of this subsection, an additional adjustment is provided as established in this subsection (8)(b). Beginning May 1, 2020, and through June 30, 2021, the calendar year costs must be adjusted for inflation by a twenty-four month consumer price index, based on the most recently available monthly index for all urban consumers, as published by the bureau of labor statistics. It is also the intent of the legislature that, starting in fiscal year 2022, a facility-specific rate add-on equal to the inflation adjustment that facilities received solely in fiscal year 2021, must be added to the rate.

(c) To determine the necessity of regular inflationary adjustments to the nursing facility rates, by December 1, 2020, the department shall provide the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the legislature with a report that provides a review of rates paid in 2017, 2018, and 2019 in comparison to costs incurred by nursing facilities.

(9) The direct care component provided in subsection (3) of this section is subject to the reconciliation and settlement process provided in RCW 74.46.022(6). Beginning July 1, 2016, pursuant to rules established by the department, funds that are received through the reconciliation and settlement process provided in RCW 74.46.022(6) must be used for technical assistance, specialized training, or an increase to the quality enhancement established in subsection (6) of this section. The legislature intends to review the utility of maintaining the reconciliation and settlement process under a price-based payment methodology, and may discontinue the reconciliation and settlement process after the 2017-2019 fiscal biennium.

(10) Compared to the rate in effect June 30, 2016, including all cost components and rate add-ons, no facility may receive a rate reduction of more than one percent on July 1, 2016, more than two percent on July 1, 2017, or more than five percent on July 1, 2018. To ensure that the appropriation for nursing homes remains cost neutral, the department is authorized to cap the rate increase for facilities in fiscal years 2017, 2018, and 2019.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1904. 2021 c 334 s 984 is repealed.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rolfes: "Thank you Mr. President. There are a lot of people that I would like to thank, but I would like to start by thanking Senator Wilson and Senator Gildon from the other side of the aisle for their work, for representing your caucus, for having my back, and for basically just being awesome colleagues. Thank you very much. I'd also like to thank our budget team, starting with the amazing Vice Chair Senator Robinson who's smart, compassionate, and extremely calm under pressure. Thank you Madam Vice Chair. And Senator Billig and Senator Nguyen who ... we all trooped over together to negotiate with the House which is hard yet rewarding work. And we were a really, really strong budget team. So, thank you senators. I also want to thank Chris West, who's on the communications team. And you know we never thank our communications people, but he was helpful to me every step of the journey, figuring out how to say things, how to speak with the press, and how to talk to all of you. So, Chris West thank you very much. I want to thank Matt Bridges whose standing over here and for our side of the aisle is literally the brains behind the operation and always lands the plane on time. So, Matt Bridges, thank you very very much. And then finally I want to thank the incredible Ways & Means staff. I know that they are watching on TVW right now, up on the third floor. And so, hopefully they are cheering because their budget passed but may I read their names?"

President Heck: "Please proceed."

Senator Rolfes: "Alright. Susan Howson – the Boss. James Kettel; Michael Bezanson; Jeff Mitchell; Michele Alishahi; Shani Bauer; Wendy Brown; Amanda Cecil; Monica Fontaine; Kayla Hammer; Jed Herman; Josh Hinman; Maria Hovde; Alia Kennedy; Tianyi Lan; Julie Murray; Corban Nemeth; Trevor Press; Sarian Scott; Sandy Stith; and Dana Tietjen. An amazing group of talented people who are, whether they are helping us on the Ways & Means Committee or they are helping us with the budget this state is so lucky to have them working in public service. I'd love it if we could give everyone a round of applause."

[The Senate rose in appreciation of the efforts of the staff of the Committee on Ways & Means.]

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

ONE HUNDRED FIFTH DAY, APRIL 23, 2023

Senator Wilson, L.: “Thank you Mr. President. I just wanted to say the same. Senator Rolfes mentioned the names of all the staff. I can’t believe the difference in what, how different it’s been this year compared to the last two or the first two years. I was actually in this position where we were remote. I have had the opportunity to get to know so many of the staff that I didn’t have the opportunity to do a couple of years ago. Come to find out they all have personalities. I didn’t know how special they were. So, you know, you just miss that, that you know joke on the side, whatever, and it helps to create those relationships. I am just so impressed with them. We are so lucky. Washington is so blessed to have these professional and knowledgeable people working for us. I also want to specifically thank Ryan Moore. He has been, you know, me coming along in these last couple, two, three years, lots for me to learn and he’s been an excellent teacher and great supporter. And, I didn’t think about that, but my communications, my PIO as well, very very helpful for me as well. That would be Eric Campbell. And so, I, again, appreciate working with Senator Gildon. It has been great working beside you. Again, as I said earlier, and the last time, I really do, I really enjoyed working with the other side and Senator Rolfes and Senator Robinson. It has been a pleasure. So again, thank you so much for everyone who does such a great job here. Thank you.”

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 22, 2023

MR. PRESIDENT:

The House receded from its amendment(s) to SENATE BILL NO. 5369. Under suspension of the rules, the bill was returned to second reading for the purposes of amendment(s). The House adopted the following amendment(s): 5369 AMH DOGL H1997.1, and passed the bill as amended by the House.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that polychlorinated biphenyls, or PCBs, are a hazardous chemical class that have been identified as carcinogenic, a developmental toxicant, toxic to aquatic organisms, and persistent and bioaccumulative. According to the United States environmental protection agency, PCBs are probable human carcinogens and may have serious and potential effects on the immune system, reproductive system, nervous system, and endocrine system.

(2) Humans and other organisms can be exposed to PCBs in a number of ways. PCBs can be released into the environment from hazardous waste sites, illegal dumping, or disposal of PCB wastes or PCB-containing products in areas or landfills not designed to handle hazardous waste, leaks, or releases from electrical transformers containing PCBs, and wastewater discharges. Once PCBs are released, the chemicals do not readily break down in the environment and can cycle for long periods between air, water, and soil. PCBs can accumulate in leaves and above-ground parts of plants and food crops, and they are also taken up into the bodies of small organisms and fish, resulting in potential exposure for people and organisms that ingest the fish.

(3) In 1979, the United States banned the production of PCBs under the toxic substances control act. However, the United States environmental protection agency's regulations implementing the toxic substances control act for PCBs allow some inadvertent generation of PCBs to occur in excluded manufacturing processes. These manufacturing by-product PCBs have been identified in wastewater, sediments, and air in numerous locations and have been positively identified in the testing of new products.

(4) The legislature finds that the state has done much to address PCB contamination, including cleanup, permitting, stormwater management, and fish advisories. In addition, the United States environmental protection agency, Washington state, and the Spokane tribe of Indians have established PCB water quality standards to protect human health and the environment. These standards are critical for addressing release and exposure from legacy and nonlegacy PCBs. However, the standards cannot be achieved with currently available water treatment technology if the waste stream continues to include new sources of PCBs allowable under the toxic substances control act at levels measured in products such as paints, inks, and pigments that are billions of times higher than applicable water quality standards. While the United States environmental protection agency has restored a human health criteria standard of seven parts per quadrillion in Washington waters, the toxic substances control act limit for PCBs in products is an annual average of 25 parts per million, with a maximum 50 parts per million adjusted total PCBs. Therefore, the legislature finds that nonlegacy PCB contamination may most effectively be managed upstream at the product and process source as opposed to downstream facilities at the end of the product life cycle. The toxic substances control act standard for inadvertent PCBs does not reflect current science on limits needed to protect human health and the environment and is overdue for revision.

(5) While previous industry analysis of toxic substances control act rule making has asserted negative impacts and infeasibility in disallowing by-product PCBs, the legislature finds that safer, feasible, and available alternatives to PCB-containing paints and printing inks now exist, as determined by the department in its June 2022 Safer Products for Washington report. Moreover, since safer and available products and processes to produce paints and printing inks do exist, the legislature finds that use of manufacturing processes resulting in products with PCB by-products is not inadvertent, but intentional, and constitutes a use of the chemical within the product.

(6) Therefore, the legislature intends to direct the department of ecology to petition the United States environmental protection agency to reassess its PCB regulations under the toxic substances control act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70A.350 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The department must petition the United States environmental protection agency to reassess its regulations on excluded manufacturing processes from prohibitions on manufacturing, processing, distribution in commerce, and use of PCBs and PCB items under 40 C.F.R. Sec. 761.3 for the purpose of eliminating or reducing the presence of PCBs in consumer products.

(2) In petitioning the United States environmental protection agency, the department must include legislative findings in section 1 of this act and information on:

- (a) Health effects of PCBs;
- (b) Release and exposure of PCBs including, but not limited to, concentrations of PCBs measured in consumer products and in state waters, soils, and fish tissue;
- (c) Safer alternatives for consumer products that contain PCBs, including the availability and feasibility of alternatives; and
- (d) Other relevant data or findings as determined by the department.

(3) The department is not required to generate new data and may use previously compiled data and findings developed in the performance of duties under this section.

(4) The department may consult with the department of health and other relevant state agencies in developing the petition under this section.

(5) To the extent practicable, the department must seek completion of the petition review by January 1, 2025."

Correct the title.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

MOTION

Senator Wilson, C. moved that the following striking floor amendment no. 0465 by Senator Wilson, C. be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.300 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The intent of the legislature is to continue and rename transitional kindergarten as the transition to kindergarten program and that the program be established in statute with the goal of assisting eligible children in need of additional preparation to be successful kindergarten students in the following school year. The transition to kindergarten program is not part of the state's statutory program of basic education under RCW 28A.150.200.

(2)(a) The office of the superintendent of public instruction shall administer the transition to kindergarten program and shall adopt rules under chapter 34.05 RCW for the administration of, the allocation of state funding for, and minimum standards and requirements for the transition to kindergarten program. Initial rules, which include expectations for school districts, charter schools as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, and state-tribal education compact schools transitioning existing programs to the new requirements established in this section must be adopted in time for the 2023-24 school year, and permanent rules must be adopted by the beginning of the 2024-25 school year.

(b) School districts, charter schools as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, and state-tribal education compact schools operating a transition to kindergarten program shall adopt policies regarding eligibility, recruitment, and enrollment for this program that, at a minimum, meet the requirements of subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The rules adopted under subsection (2) of this section must include, at a minimum, the following requirements for school districts, charter schools as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, and state-tribal education compact schools operating a transition to kindergarten program:

(a)(i) A limitation on program enrollment to eligible children. Eligible children include only those who:

(A) Have been determined to benefit from additional preparation for kindergarten; and

(B) Are at least four years old by August 31st of the school year they enroll in the transition to kindergarten program.

(ii) A requirement, as practicable, for school districts, charter schools as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, and state-tribal education compact schools to prioritize families with the lowest incomes and children most in need for additional preparation to be successful in kindergarten when enrolling eligible children in a transition to kindergarten program;

(iii) Access to the transition to kindergarten program does not constitute an individual entitlement for any particular child.

(b) Except for children who have been excused from participation by their parents or legal guardians, a requirement that the Washington kindergarten inventory of developing skills as established by RCW 28A.655.080 be administered to all eligible children enrolled in a transition to kindergarten program at the beginning of the child's enrollment in the program and at least one more time during the school year.

(c) A requirement that all eligible children enrolled in a transition to kindergarten program be assigned a statewide student identifier and that the transition to kindergarten program be considered a separate class or course for the purposes of data reporting requirements in RCW 28A.320.175.

(d) A requirement that a local child care and early learning needs assessment is conducted before beginning or expanding a transition to kindergarten program that considers the existing availability and affordability of early learning providers, such as the early childhood education and assistance programs, head start programs, and licensed child care centers and family home providers in the region. Data available through the regionalized data dashboard maintained by the department of children, youth, and families or any other appropriate sources may be used to inform the needs assessment required by this subsection.

(e)(i) A requirement that school districts, charter schools as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, and state-tribal education compact schools adhere to guidelines, as developed by the office of the superintendent of public instruction, related to:

(A) Best practices for site readiness of facilities that are used for the program;

(B) Developmentally appropriate curricula designed to assist in maintaining high quality programs; and

(C) Professional development opportunities.

(ii) The office of the superintendent of public instruction must develop a process for conducting site visits of any school district, charter school as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, or state-tribal education compact school operating a transition to kindergarten program and provide feedback on elements listed in this subsection (3)(e).

(f) A prohibition on charging tuition or other fees to state-funded eligible children for enrollment in a transition to kindergarten program.

(g) A prohibition on establishing a policy of excluding an eligible child due only to the presence of a disability.

(4)(a) The office of the superintendent of public instruction, in collaboration with the department of children, youth, and families, shall develop statewide coordinated eligibility, recruitment, enrollment, and selection best practices and provide technical assistance to those implementing a transition to kindergarten program to support connections with local early learning providers.

(b) School districts, charter schools as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, and state-tribal education compact schools must consider the best practices developed under this subsection (4) when adopting the policies required under subsection (2)(b) of this section.

(5) Nothing in this section prohibits school districts, charter schools as allowed by subsection (7) of this section, and state-tribal education compact schools from blending or collocating a transition to kindergarten program with other early learning programs.

(6)(a) Funding for the transition to kindergarten program must be based on the following:

(i) The distribution formula established under RCW 28A.150.260 (4)(a), (5), (6), (8), and (10)(a) and (b), calculated using the actual number of annual average full-time equivalent eligible children enrolled in the program. A transition to kindergarten child must be counted as a kindergarten student for purposes of the funding calculations referenced in this subsection, but must be reported separately.

(ii) The distribution formula developed in RCW 28A.160.150 through 28A.160.192, calculated using reported ridership for eligible children enrolled in the program.

(b) Funding provided for the transition to kindergarten program is not part of the state's statutory program of basic education under RCW 28A.150.200 and must be expended only for the support of operating a transition to kindergarten program.

(7) Charter schools authorized under RCW 28A.710.080(2) are immediately permitted to operate a transition to kindergarten program under this section. Beginning with the 2025-26 school year, any charter school authorized under RCW 28A.710.080 (1) or (2) is permitted to operate a transition to kindergarten program under this section.

Sec. 2. RCW 28A.225.160 and 2009 c 380 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection ~~((2))~~ (3) of this section and otherwise provided by law, it is the general policy of the state that the common schools shall be open to the admission of all persons who are five years of age and less than ~~((twenty-one))~~ 21 years residing in that school district. Except as otherwise provided by law or rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction, districts may establish uniform entry qualifications, including but not limited to birthdate requirements, for admission to kindergarten and first grade programs of the common schools. Such rules may provide for individualized exceptions based upon the ability, or the need, or both, of an individual student. Nothing in this section authorizes school districts, public schools, or the superintendent of public instruction to create state-funded programs based on entry qualification exceptions except as otherwise expressly provided by law.

(2) For the purpose of complying with any rule adopted by the superintendent of public instruction that authorizes a preadmission screening process as a prerequisite to granting individualized exceptions to the uniform entry qualifications, a school district may collect fees to cover expenses incurred in the administration of any preadmission screening process: PROVIDED, That in so establishing such fee or fees, the district shall adopt rules for waiving and reducing such fees in the cases of those persons whose families, by reason of their low income, would have difficulty in paying the entire amount of such fees.

~~((2))~~ (3) A student who meets the definition of a child of a military family in transition under Article II of RCW 28A.705.010 shall be permitted to continue enrollment at the grade level in the common schools commensurate with the grade level of the student when attending school in the sending state as defined in Article II of RCW 28A.705.010, regardless of age or birthdate requirements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The department of children, youth, and families must make administrative changes to better align early childhood education and assistance program implementation with state-funded early learning programs serving three through five-year old children offered by school districts, charter schools authorized under RCW 28A.710.080(2), and state-tribal education compact schools. The department must submit a report, in compliance with RCW 43.01.036, of the administrative changes to the appropriate committees of the legislature by July 1, 2024.

(2) This section expires August 30, 2025.

The council shall consist of two individuals appointed by the governor and four individuals, one of whom is appointed by the chairperson of each of the two largest political caucuses in the senate and house of representatives. The chair of the council shall be selected from among the four caucus appointees. The council may select such other officers as the members deem necessary.

(2) The council shall employ a caseload forecast supervisor to supervise the preparation of all caseload forecasts. As used in this chapter, "supervisor" means the caseload forecast supervisor.

(3) Approval by an affirmative vote of at least five members of the council is required for any decisions regarding employment of the supervisor. Employment of the supervisor shall terminate after each term of three years. At the end of the first year of each three-year term the council shall consider extension of the supervisor's term by one year. The council may fix the compensation of the supervisor. The supervisor shall employ staff sufficient to accomplish the purposes of this section.

(4) The caseload forecast council shall oversee the preparation of and approve, by an affirmative vote of at least four members, the official state caseload forecasts prepared under RCW 43.88C.020. If the council is unable to approve a forecast before a date required in RCW 43.88C.020, the supervisor shall submit the forecast without approval and the forecast shall have the same effect as if approved by the council.

(5) A councilmember who does not cast an affirmative vote for approval of the official caseload forecast may request, and the supervisor shall provide, an alternative forecast based on assumptions specified by the member.

(6) Members of the caseload forecast council shall serve without additional compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 44.04.120 while attending sessions of the council or on official business authorized by the council. Nonlegislative members of the council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(7) "Caseload," as used in this chapter, means:

(a) The number of persons expected to meet entitlement requirements and require the services of public assistance programs, state correctional institutions, state correctional noninstitutional supervision, state institutions for juvenile offenders, the common school system, long-term care, medical assistance, foster care, and adoption support;

(b) The number of students who are eligible for the Washington college bound scholarship program and are expected to attend an institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.92.030;

(c) The number of students who are eligible for the Washington college grant program under RCW 28B.92.200 and 28B.92.205 and are expected to attend an institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.92.030; and

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Pedersen: “Thank you Mr. President. Many of you may remember that earlier in the session my son Trygve paged here. It was quite a lovely experience for me to get ten hours or so commuting with him every day. And a little bit more time because one of the days he was here was a cutoff, so we were here late waiting to refer all the bills. He wrote an essay at the end of his page program, and Mr. President with your permission, I’d like to read a little bit from his essay.”

President Heck: “Please proceed.”

Senator Pedersen: “Thank you. So, he wrote ‘I came into this week with low expectations for my experience. I was nervous and slightly unhappy to wake up every day at five in the morning on mid-winter break. But as the week progressed, I learned so much that even I don’t believe it. I am going to talk about my favorite part of what I saw and that is the complex systems and people who run our government. I would almost compare it to an ecosystem, where there are hundreds of moving parts all working together to form our legislative system.’ I am going to skip ahead a little bit. And he said at the end, ‘What I was most impressed by however was the people who were not involved in the floor action. There were hundreds of security guards, interns and pages who I had the most fun talking to. They made the place so much livelier as the only thing we could really do is talk to each other and each one of us made a difference albeit a small one in the system of politics. Altogether everybody makes the place vibrant and special. This was probably the best and most meaningful mid-winter break I have ever had. Thank you everybody.’”

“Mr. President, I would really like to thank the folks who run the page program, who have created, and I’ve just had my eyes, after seventeen years, had my eyes really opened up to that fantastic work that they do that what a special experience they make every week just on schedule starting with orientation on Sunday afternoon and going all the way through the week when they send the kids home. What an incredible experience that is for a whole group of people who get to see up close the amazing work that all of the folks here do. And honestly, Mr. President, I heard some comments from some people about my thanking folks at the end of each day. I think it is completely inadequate because seeing the place through his eyes really helped me to understand how many other people it takes to make this place work who aren’t the 49 of us who are sitting here in these desks. So, Mr. President, if we have just this moment before we go back to the 4th Order of Business, I’m hoping that the members might join me in applauding all the other people who make this place work.”

[The Senate rose and offered their appreciation to the officers and staff of the Senate.]

“And finally, Mr. President, I, I’ve heard the budgeters give thanks to their staff. I ..., and I’ve had a lot of thanks and compliments from people about the floor running smoothly this year. I just want to give a special shout out to Heather Lewis-Lechtner who for many years has been the organizational brains behind this caucus’ work. I really want to thank Heather for the absolutely fantastic work of helping us getting efficiently through our business so that Mr. President, we almost didn’t have any bills to return to the house or origin. Anyway, if folks could, and Kathleen Lawrence on the other side also, thank you very much because...”

[The Senate rose in recognition of the work of Ms. Lewis-Lechtner, Democratic Caucus Policy Director and Mrs. Lawrence, Republican Caucus Policy Director.]

“Because Mr. President those really are the effective work across the aisle really starts with staff who can talk to each other and have those deep relationships so, anyway Mr. President I didn’t know if you had anything else to say...?”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: “While we are waiting and with your indulgence, to the staff of the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, to the rostrum staff, all those who support us, and especially to Jeannie and Suchi, for enabling me to do this job at all. But mostly I want to express my appreciation to every single one of you. In fifty-one years of intermittent service in this environment, I’ve never been associated with a better functioning legislative session. And this is not with regard to editorial comment about policy outcomes, but where members treated one another with as much respect as you have this year. You make me very, very proud to be a tiny part of this institution. Thank you so much.”

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR 23-02

WHEREAS, in accordance with Article II, Section 12 (Amendment 68) of the Washington State Constitution, the Legislature adjourned its 2023 regular session on April 23, 2023, the 105th day of the session; and

WHEREAS, work remains to be done with respect to approving a "Blake fix" before July 1, 2023, to ensure that knowing and unlawful drug possession is not decriminalized, establish a pretrial diversion program, and provide additional treatment facilities and services for people with substance use disorders; and

WHEREAS, if lawmakers fail to approve a statewide "Blake fix" before July 1, 2023, local jurisdictions may fill the void by passing their own drug possession regulations, resulting in an unwieldy patchwork of drug possession regulations that will vary from one local jurisdiction to the next; and

WHEREAS, funding for diversion and treatment is attached to the "Blake fix" bill, and failure to timely pass the bill will reduce the much needed financial support to establish and enhance these programs.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Article II, Section 12 (Amendment 68) and Article III, Section 7 of the Washington State Constitution, do hereby convene the Washington State Legislature in Special Session in the Capitol at Olympia on Tuesday, May 16, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. for the purpose of enacting legislation as described above.

The Honorable President of the Senate
Legislature of the State of Washington
Olympia, Washington 98504

MR. PRESIDENT:

STEVE HOBBS, Secretary of State

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 10, 2023

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 10, 11, and 13, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5263 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to access to psilocybin services by individuals 21 years of age and older."

This bill takes important additional steps in exploring and understanding the potentials of psilocybin by continuing and supplementing the Health Care Authority's existing task force and by establishing a pilot program through the University of Washington.

Psilocybin has been shown to have the potential for use as a therapeutic for certain diagnosed clinical conditions, and I appreciate the need to find new treatment options for Washingtonians.

Sections 1, 2, and 3 detail the intent and purpose of the bill and also establish a short title for the legislation. However, changes were made to the legislation during the legislative process and these sections no longer align with the bill's content.

Section 4 establishes a psilocybin advisory board but does not specify the work that the board would be directed to undertake. In last year's budget, the Legislature established a task force to begin discussing psilocybin as a treatment, and that task force remains in place but has yet to complete its work. This advisory board's role is unclear while the existing task force continues its work. I encourage the Legislature, upon completion of the final report from the task force, to consider appropriate next steps for psilocybin treatment in Washington.

Section 5 establishes an interagency workgroup between the Department of Health, Department of Agriculture, and the Liquor and Cannabis Board to report to the advisory board established in section 4. Without the establishment of the advisory board, this interagency workgroup has no role. However, I understand the value of having our state agencies work together to understand what would be necessary for the state to consider advances in allowing psilocybin therapy. For that reason, I am directing the Department of Health, Department of Agriculture, and the Liquor and Cannabis Board to work together to identify what would be needed, including necessary public health safeguards and information technology systems, to consider allowing psilocybin treatment in Washington state.

Section 7 requires the Department of Health to post to their webpage certain information about psilocybin therapy and it also provides extensive authority for the agency to adopt rules and carry out powers related to psilocybin services. This bill does not establish a system for psilocybin services in Washington and therefore such authorities for the Department of Health are not needed to protect public health and safety.

Section 10 requires the Liquor and Cannabis Board to cooperate with the Departments of Health and Agriculture and for the Department of Agriculture to cooperate with Department of Health. This bill does not establish any activities for these agencies to engage in that may require cooperation as contemplated.

FIRST DAY, MAY 16, 2023

Section 11 prohibits these same state agencies from refusing to fulfill their duties established in this legislation on the basis that psilocybin remains prohibited by federal law. However, there are no required responsibilities for these agencies that would not be able to be conducted due to the prohibition of psilocybin at the federal level.

Section 13 establishes a new chapter for sections 1 through 5. However, sections 1 through 5 are no longer needed.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 10, 11, and 13 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5263.

With the exception of Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 10, 11, and 13, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5263 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Jay Inslee Governor

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 1, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5269 entitled:

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

"AN ACT Relating to modifying tax and revenue laws by making technical corrections, clarifying ambiguities, easing compliance burdens for taxpayers, and providing administrative efficiencies."

Substitute Senate Bill 5565 makes technical corrections to various tax-related statutes.

This bill contains a number of sections that are duplicated in other bills passed by the Legislature in the 2023 legislative session, creating unnecessary double amendments with Engrossed Senate Bill 5336, Second Substitute House Bill 1477, and House Bill 1742.

(1) Nothing in this section prevents the defendant, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney as required by RCW 2.30.030, from seeking to resolve charges under RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c) through available therapeutic courts or other alternatives to prosecution including, but not limited to, a stipulated order of continuance or deferred prosecution. Nothing in this section prevents the defendant or the prosecuting attorney from seeking or agreeing to, or the court from ordering, any other resolution of charges or terms of supervision that suit the circumstances of the defendant's situation and advance stabilization, recovery, crime reduction, and justice.

(2) In any jurisdiction with a recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, an arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or a law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589, any defendant charged with a violation of RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c) may make a motion to participate in pretrial diversion and agree to waive his or her right to a speedy trial if the motion is granted, subject to the following:

(a) In any case where the defendant is only charged with a violation of RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c), and the defendant has not been convicted of any offenses committed after the effective date of this section, the court shall grant the motion, continue the hearing, and refer the defendant to a recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, an arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or a law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589.

(b) In any case where the defendant does not meet the criteria described in (a) of this subsection, the court may grant the motion, continue the hearing, and refer the defendant to a recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, an arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or a law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589.

(c) In all cases, the court may not grant the motion unless the prosecuting attorney consents to the defendant's participation in pretrial diversion. The prosecuting attorney is strongly encouraged to agree to diversion in any case where the defendant is only charged with a violation of RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c). The prosecuting attorney may divert additional charges related to substance use disorder for nonfelony offenses that are not crimes against persons.

(3) Prior to granting the defendant's motion to participate in pretrial diversion under this section, the court shall provide the defendant and the defendant's counsel with the following information:

(a) A full description of the procedures for pretrial diversion;

(b) A general explanation of the roles and authority of the probation department, the prosecuting attorney, the recovery navigator program under RCW 71.24.115, arrest and jail alternative program under RCW 36.28A.450, or law enforcement assisted diversion program under RCW 71.24.589, and the court in the process;

(c) A clear statement that the court may grant pretrial diversion with respect to any offense under RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c) that is charged, provided that the defendant pleads not guilty to the charge or charges and waives his or her right to a speedy trial, and that upon the defendant's successful completion of pretrial diversion, as specified in subsection (11) of this section, and motion of the defendant, prosecuting attorney, court, or probation department, the court must dismiss the charge or charges against the defendant;

(d) A clear statement that if the defendant has not made substantial progress with treatment or services provided that are appropriate to the defendant's circumstances or, if applicable, community service, the prosecuting attorney may make a motion to terminate pretrial diversion and schedule further proceedings as otherwise provided in this section;

(e) An explanation of criminal record retention and disposition resulting from participation in pretrial diversion and the defendant's rights relative to answering questions about his or her arrest and pretrial diversion following successful completion; and

(f) A clear statement that under federal law it is unlawful for any person who is an unlawful user of or addicted to any controlled substance to ship or transport in interstate or foreign commerce, or possess in or affecting commerce, any firearm or ammunition, or to receive any firearm or ammunition which has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce.

(4) If the court grants the defendant's motion to participate in pretrial diversion under this section, the recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, the arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or the law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589, shall provide the court written confirmation of completion of the assessment and a statement indicating the defendant's enrollment or referral to any specific service or program. The confirmation and statement of the recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, the arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or the law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589 shall be filed under seal with the court, and a copy shall be given to the prosecuting attorney, defendant, and defendant's counsel. The confirmation and statement are confidential and exempt from disclosure under chapter 42.56 RCW. The court shall endeavor to avoid public discussion of the circumstances, history, or diagnoses that could stigmatize the defendant.

(5) Subject to the availability of funds appropriated for this specific purpose, the assessment and recommended treatment or services must be provided at no cost for defendants who have been found to be indigent by the court.

(6) If the assessment conducted by the recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, the arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or the law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589 includes a referral to any treatment or services, the recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, the arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, the law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589, or service provider shall provide the court with regular written status updates on the defendant's progress on a schedule acceptable to the court. The updates must be provided at least monthly and be filed under seal with the court, with copies given to the prosecuting attorney, defendant, and defendant's counsel. The updates and their copies are confidential and exempt from disclosure under chapter 42.56 RCW. The court shall endeavor to avoid public discussion of the circumstances, history, or diagnoses that could stigmatize the defendant.

(7) If the assessment conducted by the recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, the arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or the law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589 does not recommend any treatment or services, the defendant must instead complete an amount of community service as determined by the court, but not to exceed 120 hours of community service, in order to complete pretrial diversion.

(8) Admissions made by the individual in the course of receiving services from the recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, the arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or the law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589 may not be used against the individual in the prosecution's case in chief.

(9) A defendant's participation in pretrial diversion under this section does not constitute a conviction, a stipulation to facts, or an admission of guilt for any purpose.

(10) If it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the defendant is not substantially complying with the recommended treatment or services as reflected by a written status update, the prosecuting attorney may make a motion for termination from pretrial diversion.

(a) After notice to the defendant, the court must hold a hearing to determine whether pretrial diversion shall be terminated.

(b) Before the hearing, the defendant and the defendant's counsel shall be advised of the nature of the alleged noncompliance and provided discovery of evidence supporting the allegation, including names and contact information of witnesses.

(c) At the hearing, the court must consider the following factors:

(i) The nature of the alleged noncompliance; and

(ii) Any other mitigating circumstances, including, but not limited to, the defendant's efforts and due diligence, the availability of services in the geographic area, and the treatment and services offered to the defendant.

(d) If the court finds the defendant is not substantially complying with the recommended treatment or services and thereafter terminates pretrial diversion, it shall state the grounds for its decision succinctly in the record and provide the prosecuting attorney, the defendant, and the defendant's counsel with a written order.

(11) If the defendant successfully completes pretrial diversion, including in one of the following ways, the charge or charges under RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c) must be dismissed:

(a) If the assessment prepared by the recovery navigator program, arrest and jail alternative program, or law enforcement assisted diversion program included a recommendation for treatment or services, the defendant successfully completes pretrial diversion either by having 12 months of substantial compliance with the assessment and recommended treatment or services and progress toward recovery goals as reflected by the written status updates or by successfully completing the recommended treatment or services, whichever occurs first; or

(b) If the assessment prepared by the recovery navigator program, arrest and jail alternative program, or law enforcement assisted diversion program did not include a recommendation for treatment or services, the defendant successfully completes pretrial diversion by completing the community service described in subsection (7) of this section and submitting proof of completion to the court.

(12) Beginning January 1, 2025, the recovery navigator programs established under RCW 71.24.115, arrest and jail alternative programs established under RCW 36.28A.450, and law enforcement assisted diversion programs established under RCW 71.24.589 shall input data and information in the data integration platform under section 22 of this act for each case where the defendant participates in pretrial diversion under this section, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Whether the pretrial diversion was terminated or was successfully completed and resulted in a dismissal;

(b) The race, ethnicity, gender, gender expression or identity, disability status, and age of the defendant; and

(c) Any other appropriate data and information as determined by the health care authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 69.50 RCW to read as follows:

When sentencing an individual for a violation of RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c), the court is encouraged to utilize any other resolution of the charges or terms of supervision that suit the circumstances of the defendant's situation and advance stabilization, recovery, crime reduction, and justice.

Sec. 11. RCW 9.96.060 and 2022 c 16 s 7 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When vacating a conviction under this section, the court effectuates the vacation by: (a)(i) Permitting the applicant to withdraw the applicant's plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty; or (ii) if the applicant has been convicted after a plea of not guilty, the court setting aside the verdict of guilty; and (b) the court dismissing the information, indictment, complaint, or citation against the applicant and vacating the judgment and sentence.

(2) Every person convicted of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor offense may apply to the sentencing court for a vacation of the applicant's record of conviction for the offense. If the court finds the applicant meets the requirements of this subsection, the court may in its discretion vacate the record of conviction. Except as provided in subsections (3), (4), ~~((and))~~ (5), and (6) of this section, an applicant may not have the record of conviction for a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor offense vacated if any one of the following is present:

(a) The applicant has not completed all of the terms of the sentence for the offense;

(b) There are any criminal charges against the applicant pending in any court of this state or another state, or in any federal or tribal court, at the time of application;

(c) The offense was a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 or an attempt to commit a violent offense;

(d) The offense was a violation of RCW 46.61.502 (driving while under the influence), 46.61.504 (actual physical control while under the influence), 9.91.020 (operating a railroad, etc. while intoxicated), or the offense is considered a "prior offense" under RCW 46.61.5055 and the applicant has had a subsequent alcohol or drug violation within ten years of the date of arrest for the prior offense or less than ten years has elapsed since the date of the arrest for the prior offense;

(e) The offense was any misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor violation, including attempt, of chapter 9.68 RCW (obscenity and pornography), chapter 9.68A RCW (sexual exploitation of children), or chapter 9A.44 RCW (sex offenses), except for failure to register as a sex offender under RCW 9A.44.132;

(f) The applicant was convicted of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor offense as defined in RCW 10.99.020, or the court determines after a review of the court file that the offense was committed by one family or household member against another or by one intimate partner against another, or the court, after considering the damage to person or property that resulted in the conviction, any prior convictions for crimes defined in RCW 10.99.020, or for comparable offenses in another state or in federal court, and the totality of the records under review by the court regarding the conviction being considered for vacation, determines that the offense involved domestic violence, and any one of the following factors exist:

(i) The applicant has not provided written notification of the vacation petition to the prosecuting attorney's office that prosecuted the offense for which vacation is sought, or has not provided that notification to the court;

(ii) The applicant has two or more domestic violence convictions stemming from different incidents. For purposes of this subsection, however, if the current application is for more than one conviction that arose out of a single incident, none of those convictions counts as a previous conviction;

(iii) The applicant has signed an affidavit under penalty of perjury affirming that the applicant has not previously had a conviction for a domestic violence offense, and a criminal history check reveals that the applicant has had such a conviction; or

(iv) Less than five years have elapsed since the person completed the terms of the original conditions of the sentence, including any financial obligations and successful completion of any treatment ordered as a condition of sentencing;

(g) For any offense other than those described in (f) of this subsection, less than three years have passed since the person completed the terms of the sentence, including any financial obligations;

(h) The offender has been convicted of a new crime in this state, another state, or federal or tribal court in the three years prior to the vacation application; or

(i) The applicant is currently restrained by a domestic violence protection order, a no-contact order, an antiharassment order, or a civil restraining order which restrains one party from contacting the other party or was previously restrained by such an order and was found to have committed one or more violations of the order in the five years prior to the vacation application.

(3) If the applicant is a victim of sex trafficking, prostitution, or commercial sexual abuse of a minor; sexual assault; or domestic violence as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, or the prosecutor applies on behalf of the state, the sentencing court may vacate the record of conviction if the application satisfies the requirements of RCW 9.96.080. When preparing or filing the petition, the prosecutor is not deemed to be providing legal advice or legal assistance on behalf of the victim, but is fulfilling an administrative function on behalf of the state in order to further their responsibility to seek to reform and improve the administration of criminal justice. A record of conviction vacated using the process in RCW 9.96.080 is subject to subsections ~~((6) and)~~ (7) and (8) of this section.

(4) Every person convicted prior to January 1, 1975, of violating any statute or rule regarding the regulation of fishing activities, including, but not limited to, RCW 75.08.260, 75.12.060, 75.12.070, 75.12.160, 77.16.020, 77.16.030, 77.16.040, 77.16.060, and 77.16.240 who claimed to be exercising a treaty Indian fishing right, may apply to the sentencing court for vacation of the applicant's record of the misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, or felony conviction for the offense. If the person is deceased, a member of the person's family or an official representative of the tribe of which the person was a member may apply to the court on behalf of the deceased person. Notwithstanding the requirements of RCW 9.94A.640, the court shall vacate the record of conviction if:

(a) The applicant is a member of a tribe that may exercise treaty Indian fishing rights at the location where the offense occurred; and

(b) The state has been enjoined from taking enforcement action of the statute or rule to the extent that it interferes with a treaty Indian fishing right as determined under United States v. Washington, 384 F. Supp. 312 (W.D. Wash. 1974), or Sohappy v. Smith, 302 F. Supp. 899 (D. Oregon 1969), and any posttrial orders of those courts, or any other state supreme court or federal court decision.

(5) Every person convicted of a misdemeanor cannabis offense, who was ~~((twenty one))~~ 21 years of age or older at the time of the offense, may apply to the sentencing court for a vacation of the applicant's record of conviction for the offense. A misdemeanor cannabis offense includes, but is not limited to: Any offense under RCW 69.50.4014, from July 1, 2004, onward, and its predecessor statutes, including RCW 69.50.401(e), from March 21, 1979, to July 1, 2004, and RCW 69.50.401(d), from May 21, 1971, to March 21, 1979, and any offense under an equivalent municipal ordinance. If an applicant qualifies under this subsection, the court shall vacate the record of conviction.

(6) If a person convicted of violating RCW 69.50.4011(1) (b) or (c), 69.50.4013, 69.50.4014, or 69.41.030(2) (b) or (c) completes a substance use disorder program and files proof of completion with the court, or obtains an assessment from a recovery navigator program established under RCW 71.24.115, an arrest and jail alternative program established under RCW 36.28A.450, or a law enforcement assisted diversion program established under RCW 71.24.589, and has six months of substantial compliance with recommended treatment or services and progress toward recovery goals as reflected by a written status update, upon verification the court must vacate the conviction or convictions.

(7) A person who is a family member of a homicide victim may apply to the sentencing court on the behalf of the victim for vacation of the victim's record of conviction for prostitution under RCW 9A.88.030. If an applicant qualifies under this subsection, the court shall vacate the victim's record of conviction.

~~((7))~~ (8)(a) Except as provided in (c) of this subsection, once the court vacates a record of conviction under this section, the person shall be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense and the fact that the person has been convicted of the offense shall not be included in the person's criminal history for purposes of determining a sentence in any subsequent conviction. For all purposes, including responding to questions on employment or housing applications, a person whose conviction has been vacated under this section may state that he or she has never been convicted of that crime. However, nothing in this section affects the requirements for restoring a right to possess a firearm under RCW 9.41.040. Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, nothing in this section affects or prevents the use of an offender's prior conviction in a later criminal prosecution.

(b) When a court vacates a record of domestic violence as defined in RCW 10.99.020 under this section, the state may not use the vacated conviction in a later criminal prosecution unless the conviction was for: (i) Violating the provisions of a restraining order, no-contact order, or protection order restraining or enjoining the person or restraining the person from going on to the grounds of or entering a residence, workplace, school, or day care, or prohibiting the person from knowingly coming within, or knowingly remaining within, a specified distance of a location, a protected party's person, or a protected party's vehicle (RCW 10.99.040, 10.99.050, 26.09.300, 26.26B.050, 26.44.063, 26.44.150, or 26.52.070, or any of the former RCW 26.50.060, 26.50.070, 26.50.130, and 74.34.145); (ii) stalking (RCW 9A.46.110); or (iii) a domestic violence protection order or vulnerable adult protection order entered under chapter 7.105 RCW. A vacated conviction under this section is not considered a conviction of such an offense for the purposes of 27 C.F.R. 478.11.

(c) A conviction vacated on or after July 28, 2019, qualifies as a prior conviction for the purpose of charging a present recidivist offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030 occurring on or after July 28, 2019.

~~((8))~~ (9) The clerk of the court in which the vacation order is entered shall immediately transmit the order vacating the conviction to the Washington state patrol identification section and to the local police agency, if any, which holds criminal history information for the person who is the subject of the conviction. The Washington state patrol and any such local police agency shall immediately update their records to reflect the vacation of the conviction, and shall transmit the order vacating the conviction to the federal bureau of investigation. A conviction that has been vacated under this section may not be disseminated or disclosed by the state patrol or local law enforcement agency to any person, except other criminal justice enforcement agencies.

~~((9))~~ (10) For the purposes of this section, "cannabis" has the meaning provided in RCW 69.50.101.

Facilities included under this subsection (1)(b) shall not include facilities detaining persons under RCW 71.09.020 ~~((6) or (15))~~ (7) or (16) or chapter 10.77 or 71.05 RCW.

(c) The department of children, youth, and families may not attempt to site new community facilities as defined in RCW 72.05.020 east of the crest of the Cascade mountain range unless there is an equal or greater number of sited community facilities as defined in RCW 72.05.020 on the western side of the crest of the Cascade mountain range.

(d) For the purpose of this section, "harm reduction programs" means programs that emphasize working directly with people who use drugs to prevent overdose and infectious disease transmission, improve the physical, mental, and social well-being of those served, and offer low threshold options for accessing substance use disorder treatment and other services.

(2) Each county and city planning under RCW 36.70A.040 shall, not later than September 1, 2002, establish a process, or amend its existing process, for identifying and siting essential public facilities and adopt or amend its development regulations as necessary to provide for the siting of secure community transition facilities consistent with statutory requirements applicable to these facilities.

(3) Any city or county not planning under RCW 36.70A.040 shall, not later than September 1, 2002, establish a process for siting secure community transition facilities and adopt or amend its development regulations as necessary to provide for the siting of such facilities consistent with statutory requirements applicable to these facilities.

(8) The failure of a county or city to act by the deadlines established in subsections (2) and (3) of this section is not:

Cities, counties, and tribes ((may compete for participation in a pilot project)), subdivisions thereof, public development authorities, and community-based organizations demonstrating support from necessary public partners, may serve as the lead agency applying for funding. Funds may be used to scale existing projects, and to invite additional jurisdictions to launch law enforcement assisted diversion programs.

(3) The ~~((pilot projects))~~ program must provide for securing comprehensive technical assistance from law enforcement assisted diversion implementation experts to develop and implement a law enforcement assisted diversion program ((in the pilot project's geographic areas)) in a way that ensures fidelity to the research-based law enforcement assisted diversion model. (b) License or certify only programs that will be sited in accordance with the appropriate county or city land use ordinances. Counties and cities may require conditional use permits with reasonable conditions for the siting of programs only to the extent that such reasonable conditional use requirements applied to opioid treatment programs are similarly applied to other essential public facilities and health care settings. Program staff must include people with lived experience with substance use disorder to the extent possible. The substance use disorder regional administrator must assure that staff who are conducting intake and referral services and field assessments are paid a livable and competitive wage and have appropriate initial training and receive continuing education.

The assessment shall be low barrier, person-centered, and amenable to administration in diverse health care settings and by a range of health care professionals. The assessment shall consider the person's self-identified needs and preferences when evaluating direction of treatment and may include different components based on the setting, context, and past experience with the client.

The minimum standards must require the pharmacy be responsible for stocking and maintaining a perpetual inventory of the medications for opioid use disorder stored in or at the registered remote dispensing site. The dispensing technology may be owned by either the pharmacy or the registered remote dispensing site.

(4) The secretary may adopt rules to establish a reasonable fee for obtaining and renewing a registration issued under this section.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 15, 2023

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 4, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5555 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to addressing the behavioral health workforce shortage and expanding access to peer services by creating the profession of certified peer specialists."

This bill is incredibly important for the development of our peer workforce. Creating the credentialing process is one that we have done for many professions and it is equally important here.

Section 4 creates a state certified peer specialist advisory committee. However, though most professions do include an advisory committee or board, the advisory committee in section 4 goes too far into the roles and responsibilities of the authorized agency and places agency responsibilities with an outside entity.

I will note that one of the advisory committee's responsibilities outlined in section 4 is to advise on rulemaking. I am instructing the Department of Health to ensure that there is extensive community engagement through the rulemaking process as this new credential is being developed.

For these reasons I have vetoed Section 4 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5555.

With the exception of Section 4, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5555 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 15, 2023

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 3 and 4, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5371 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to protecting southern resident orcas from vessels."

This important bill protects Southern Resident orcas by addressing vessel impacts on their ability to forage, communicate and rest by expanding the vessel buffer (or approach distance) around Southern Resident orcas to 1,000 yards. It also reduces and simplifies the commercial whale watching licensing fees and improves the supporting education and enforcement efforts around these changes.

Section 3 of the bill requires a mailing to every registered vessel owner in the state regarding the orca protection vessel setbacks, speed limits, and whale warning flags. This mailing would entail a significant cost to the identified agencies, but funding was not provided for this work in the final budget. For this reason, I am vetoing Section 3. However, the updated vessel distance laws do not come in effect until 2025, so it is my hope that the workgroup tasked with developing outreach and education strategies under Section 6 of the bill will be able to provide recommendations and cost estimates to be considered in the 2024 supplemental budget.

Section 4 of the bill requires the Department of Fish and Wildlife to develop a transboundary and statewide plan to implement vessel distance regulations. The department is a coordinating partner in the Be Whale Wise partnership, which coordinates orca recovery efforts, including a transboundary plan for vessel guidelines across the state, federal, and international jurisdictions. Updating the transboundary plan is already prescribed in RCW 77.65.620, and the existing Southern Resident orca conservation and management framework also includes biennial adaptive management reporting requirements. The plan required in Section 4 would largely duplicate this ongoing effort and would not likely produce meaningfully different results. In addition, no funding was provided for the requirements in Section 4. For these reasons, I am vetoing Section 4. However, I am directing the department to coordinate with the Department of Fisheries and Oceans and with Transport Canada, who have jurisdiction in Canadian waters and manage vessel restrictions in Canada, in support of the updated Southern Resident orca recovery efforts.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 3 and 4 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5371.

With the exception of Sections 3 and 4, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5371 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5134

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of the state of Washington, this 16th day of May, 2023.

RANDY BOLERJACK, Deputy Secretary of State
(Seal)

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

May 15, 2023

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 1 and 3, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5134 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to reentry services and supports."

Section 3 of Second Substitute Senate Bill 5134 expands the Department of Corrections' existing discharge planning requirements by adding a number of reentry linkage case management services to its existing individual reentry planning requirements. For example, Section 3 would require that discharge plans include an evaluation of each person's behavioral and physical health needs, as well as assistance with obtaining identification and completing applications for state and federal government assistance and benefits.

I agree that we should better support individuals who leave prison after completing their sentences and return to the community. Connecting these individuals with treatment and health services will facilitate successful reentry and reduce recidivism. However, the funding provided for Section 3 of this bill is inadequate and the department does not have the capacity to absorb this work within its existing budget. Therefore, I am vetoing Section 3.

Section 1 is the intent section, which states the Legislature's intent to expand the discharge planning requirements. Because I am vetoing Section 3, Section 1 no longer aligns with the bill.

While I am vetoing Sections 1 and 3, I am directing the Department of Corrections to provide a 90-day supply of necessary prescribed medications upon release, as clinically appropriate, through a combination of a 30-day supply of in-hand medications and a 60-day supply of prescriptions. This provision is included in Section 3 of the bill and the department can implement this as part of its Health Services program.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 1 and 3 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5134.

With the exception of Sections 1 and 3, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5134 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

The Washington State Legislative Internship Program is an academic internship for college students from around Washington State. Interns are assigned to Senate offices and are mentored by members and staff as they conduct research, track legislation, and work with constituents. In addition to building professional experience through their office work, interns earn academic credit and take part in seminars and workshops with state policymakers to gain a first-hand understanding of the legislative process.

The 45 Senate interns in 2023 represented 19 college campuses, a wide range of majors, and communities all over Washington.

Myra Hernandez, Civic Education Director
 Louis Lindstrom, Deputy Civic Education Director
 Mykhail Lembke, Assistant Civic Education/Intern Coordinator

The Senate Page Program allows young students throughout Washington State the opportunity each year to take part in the legislative process and observe the Legislature and other branches of state government during the legislative session. The students also participate in the Page School learning about the legislative process, listening to guest speakers and developing their own legislation. The Program had 237 participants during the 2023 Regular Session.

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise you that on May 16, 2023, Governor Inslee approved the following Senate Bill entitled:

Second Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 5536

Relating to justice system and behavioral health responses for persons experiencing circumstances that involve controlled substances, counterfeit substances, legend drugs, and drug paraphernalia.

May 16, 2023

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 124(5), 129(80), 129(92), 132 (20), 147(7), 153(8), 202(26), 207(2), 207(3), 211(31), 223(5)(a), 223(6)(e), 223(7)(b), 225 (20), 228(17), 310(38), 729, 743, 1220(4), page 1105, line 39, page 1106, line 1, 1517(47)(o), 1612(3), 1708, 119(3), 308(36), and 215(110), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5187 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to fiscal matters."

Section 124(5), page 33, Office of the State Auditor, Special Education Performance Audit

Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1436 (Section 2) directs the Office of the State Auditor to conduct a special education performance audit and access records as authorized representatives of the education authorities. I vetoed this section of ESHB 1436, and no audit will be conducted. Therefore, no funding is needed. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 124(5).

Section 129(80), pages 73-74, Department of Commerce, Human Service Provider Contracts Work Group

This section directs the Department of Commerce to convene a work group to examine expenses allowed in human service provider contracts in Washington state's local and state contracting processes. Because the funding in this proviso expires before the report is due and an inadequate amount was provided to complete this work, I have vetoed Section 129(80).

Section 129(92), page 78, and Section 917, pages 663-665, Department of Commerce, Housing Supply and Affordability Task Force

Section 917 creates a task force comprised of legislators, local elected officials, state agency representatives and stakeholders to identify strategies to increase the diversity and supply of affordable housing. This task force is co-chaired by legislators and will receive staff support from the Department of Commerce. As a legislative task force, staff support should be provided by legislative staff and not executive branch agency staff. In addition, the funding provided in Section 129(92) is insufficient to complete this work. For these reasons, I have vetoed both Sections 129(92) and 917.

Section 132(20), pages 102-103, Department of Commerce and Utilities and Transportation Commission, Net Metering Work Group

This section directs the Department of Commerce and the Utilities and Transportation Commission to convene a work group to study the future of net metering in Washington state. Because funding was not provided to do this work, I have vetoed Section 132(20). However, I am directing the department and the commission to request funding in the next budget to adequately support a work group for this purpose.

Section 147(7), page 132, Utilities and Transportation Commission, Compensation Information

This section requires communication providers who receive a distribution pursuant to RCW 80.36.650 to provide detailed compensation information for their officers, directors and the five highest paid employees to the commission. This adds requirements to the underlying statute, and therefore, it should have been amended. This work is also unfunded. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 147(7).

Section 153(8), page 139, Department of Enterprise Services, Building Code Council Technical Advisory Group

This section directs the State Building Code Council to convene a technical advisory group to evaluate the implementation and enforcement of laws, codes and rules related to smoke control and fire/smoke dampers and make recommendations for changes. The funding provided for this work is inadequate. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 153(8).

Section 202(26), page 163, Department of Social & Health Services, Feasibility Study

This section requires the agency to report on the feasibility of using the former Naselle Youth Camp facility to create additional forensic bed capacity for individuals in jails awaiting admission to the state hospitals who are class members of Trueblood, et al. v. Department of Social and Health Services, et al. This feasibility study is unfunded and duplicative of the Office of Financial Management task force that is created in Section 913 of this budget bill. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 202(26). However, I am directing the OFM task force to consider the use of the Naselle Youth Camp for forensic bed capacity in its work.

Sections 207(2) and 207(3), pages 206-207, Department of Social & Health Services, Community Notice and Consultation on Placement of Sexually Violent Predators

These provisos are administratively burdensome for the Department of Social and Health Services Special Commitment Center program when siting Less Restrictive Alternatives in communities throughout the state. These additional administrative tasks will likely result in the delay and availability of placement options for individuals ordered by a court to be moved out of the McNeil Island facility. For this reason, I have vetoed Sections 207(2) and 207(3).

Section 211(31), pages 222-224, Health Care Authority, Performance Measures and Per Capita Forecast Work Group

This section requires the Health Care Authority to develop new managed care performance measures for calendar year 2025 in collaboration with the Medical Assistance Expenditure Forecast Work Group. Quality measure determination is not within the scope or expertise of this work group and would be better addressed by health care clinical and policy subject matter experts. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 221(31).

Section 223(5)(a), page 352, and Section 223(6)(e), page 353, Department of Corrections, Discharge Planning Requirements

These sections fund the expanded discharge planning requirements for the Department of Corrections in Second Substitute Senate Bill 5134. Sufficient funding was not provided for this purpose. Therefore, I have vetoed Sections 223(5)(a) and 223(6)(e).

Section 223(7)(b), page 354, Department of Corrections, Restrictive Housing Health Evaluations

This section requires the Department of Corrections to conduct a mental and physical health medical evaluation on incarcerated persons who have been in restrictive housing and provide a report by June 30, 2024. Funding provided for this purpose is insufficient to evaluate all of the individuals required, and it is unclear that the information gathered would be useful. We are making consistent investments to reduce the use of restrictive housing in Washington prisons and alleviate its known negative impacts. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 223(7)(b).

Section 225(20), pages 360-361, Employment Security Department, Washington Cares Program

The Employment Security Department and the Department of Social and Health Services collaborate on communications and outreach efforts of the Washington Cares program. The requirements in this section are redundant to the collaboration already occurring and required in RCW 50B.04.020(6). It is also unclear which agency has final approval authority on employer communications related to the program. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 225(20). However, I am directing the Employment Security Department to continue collaborating with the agencies involved in the Washington Cares program on external communications of the program to ensure consistent and agreed upon messaging is provided to employers and Washingtonians.

Section 228(17), page 380, Department of Children, Youth, and Families, SSB 5672

This section provides funding for Substitute Senate Bill 5672 that did not pass the Legislature. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 228(17).

Section 310(38), pages 446-447, Department of Natural Resources, Lease Approval Requirement

This section requires the Department of Natural Resources to seek approval for nearly all new leases or existing lease renewals from the Board of Natural Resources (Board). This would require the Board to review and approve hundreds of state trust land, forestland, upland and aquatic land leases every month. The Board also does not have legal oversight of state aquatic lands and leases entered into by the department. In addition, the funding provided for this work is insufficient and would result in delays for the agency, the Board, and lessees, as well as a loss of revenue for trust beneficiaries and aquatic accounts that serve as a funding source for other agencies. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 310(38).

Section 729, pages 630-631, Office of Financial Management, Lease Cost Pool

The lease cost pool is an ineffective approach to managing lease costs and is redundant to the existing modified pre-design process that reviews space needs and budgets. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 729.

Section 743, pages 635-638, Office of Financial Management, Office Space Use Reductions

This section refers to outdated data for leases that have already been renewed. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 743. However, I am directing the Office of Financial Management, in collaboration with the Department of Enterprise Services, to identify expiring leased office space that can be reduced. Funds saved will be moved to reserve status.

Section 1220(4), Page 1105, line 39, and page 1106, line 1, Department of Corrections, General Fund-State Appropriation (FY 2023)

The 2023 supplemental budget provisos over $17 million for the Department of Corrections to pay for COVID-19 expenditures from fiscal year 2021 that were expected to be paid with federal funds. However, the Legislature did not provide additional funding. The department does not anticipate having this much available in its base budget at the end of the fiscal year. Section 1220(4) includes an $8.4 million reduction tied to lower caseloads that can be restored to provide the agency with the funding it needs to close the fiscal year. For this reason, I have vetoed the change to the fiscal year 2023 General Fund-State appropriation in Section 1220(4).

Section 1517(47)(o), page 1305, Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, ESSER Federal Funding

This section reduces the appropriation of Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief (ESSER) III funding for the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. This reduction in funding includes fiscal years 2021, 2022 and 2023. A portion of this funding is within closed fiscal years and can no longer have changes in appropriation. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 1517(47)(o). However, I am asking OSPI to prioritize spending down ESSER II before ESSER III to ensure that all federal funding is spent prior to its expiration date.

Section 1612(3), pages 1372-1373, Arts Commission, Coronavirus State Fiscal Recovery Proviso

This section amends the appropriation for a closed fiscal year and cannot be legally implemented. Therefore, I have vetoed Section 1612(3).

Section 1708, pages 1378-1380, Office of Financial Management, Office Space Use Reductions

This section requires agencies to reduce leased office space in the current biennium. Agencies do not have time to complete this work. In addition, the section refers to outdated data for many leases that have already been renewed and for which the space cannot be reduced. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 1708.

The following sections provide funding to agencies to implement bills which did not pass the Legislature. Because the funding has lapsed, I have vetoed Section 119(3), Section 308(36), and Section 215(110).

Section 119(3), page 23, Public Disclosure Commission, ESSB 5284, Campaign Finance Disclosure

Section 308(36), page 433, Department of Fish & Wildlife, 2SHB 1010, Sanitary Control of Shellfish

Section 215(110), page 290, Health Care Authority, HB 1681, Problem Gambling

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 124(5), 129(80), 129(92), 132(20), 147(7), 153(8), 202(26), 207(2), 207(3), 211(31), 223(5)(a), 223(6)(e), 223(7)(b), 225(20), 228(17), 310(38), 729, 743, 1220(4), page 1105, line 39, page 1106, line 1, 1517(47)(o), 1612(3), 1708, 119(3), 308(36), and 215(110) of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5187.

With the exception of Sections 124(5), 129(80), 129(92), 132(20), 147(7), 153(8), 202(26), 207(2), 207(3), 211(31), 223(5)(a), 223(6)(e), 223(7)(b), 225(20), 228(17), 310(38), 729, 743, 1220(4), page 1105, line 39, page 1106, line 1, 1517(47)(o), 1612(3), 1708, 119(3), 308(36), and 215(110), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5187 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Jay Inslee
Governor

May 16, 2023

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 5012, 5067 and 8038, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5200 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the capital budget.

Section 5012, page 164, Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, Lapse of Funding

Funding was provided to the agency to implement Substitute House Bill 1044 relating to capital financial assistance for small school districts. Because this bill did not pass the Legislature, the funding has lapsed. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 5012.

Section 5067, page 179, The Evergreen State College, State Building Code Council Study

This section directs the Washington State Institute for Public Policy to study and report on the costs and benefits of moving from a three-year building code cycle to a six-year cycle. Increasing the time between code updates will impact the ability to apply the newest and best technologies for safety, health and efficiency to new construction in Washington. In addition, changing our state's code cycle to every six years will jeopardize the Legislature's mandate to reduce energy use 70% by 2031. Limiting the code cycles between now and 2031 would require a greater amount of change at each code cycle, increasing challenges for designers, builders and building owners. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 5067.

Section 8038, pages 466-467, Department of Enterprise Services, Capitol Dome Access

This section directs the Department of Enterprise Services to give legislators and their guests access to the top of the Capitol dome. The Olympia Fire Department has assessed this space in the past, and, among other issues, reported that it could not use a firefighter's rescue technique in this space or use a gurney to assist an injured person. The Department of Labor and Industries classifies the area as a "confined space," which means that it has a restricted entry and exit and is not primarily designed for human occupancy. Access should be authorized only for individuals who need to do work on the dome. For this reason, I have vetoed Section 8038.

For these reasons I have vetoed Sections 5012, 5067 and 8038 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5200.

With the exception of Sections 5012, 5067 and 8038, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 5200 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
