RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4612, by Representative Parker

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Washington State House of Representatives to recognize the extraordinary accomplishments of colleges and universities in the State of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Whitworth College, now Whitworth University, was founded on February 20, 1890, in Sumner, Washington by George F. Whitworth; and

WHEREAS, In 1914, Whitworth relocated to Spokane, Washington from Tacoma, Washington, commencing classes in September 1914; and

WHEREAS, Spokane developer Jay P. Graves' generous offer of land and the enthusiastic support of Spokane's citizens, who raised significant donations towards a building fund, led to Whitworth's impressive and now prestigious campus in north Spokane; and

WHEREAS, Today, Whitworth has a student body of 3,000 students and a strong educational program, teaching students the principles of their majors and the Christian principles Whitworth was founded upon; and

WHEREAS, Whitworth's mission is to provide its diverse student body with an education of mind and heart, equipping its graduates to serve humanity; and

WHEREAS, The students who graduate from Whitworth go on not only to apply what they have learned, but also to do so in a manner that is singular to the ideals and morals of Whitworth; and

WHEREAS, An education received from Whitworth is marked by an education of mind and heart, academic excellence, the integration of faith and learning, and great opportunities to study abroad, enroll in various internships and practicums, and receive an education that is parallel to the great universities of our state; and

WHEREAS, Whitworth and the State of Washington have enjoyed a strong and mutually enriching friendship that has benefited the school, its students, and the citizens of Washington in immeasurable ways; and

WHEREAS, Whitworth's academic honors, athletic victories, and record of public service demonstrate the university putting its mission into practice; and

WHEREAS, Whitworth's faculty and staff are given the freedom to incite students to fearlessly ask questions, and go to great lengths to prepare students for the work they will move on to after graduation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives recognize the scholastic and athletic achievements of Whitworth University, congratulate Whitworth University on its 125th anniversary, and honor Whitworth University's devotion to educating students, which has made it among the most excellent universities in Washington State; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Whitworth University.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be adoption of House Resolution No. 4612.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4612 was adopted.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the fourth order of business.

Sec. 14. RCW 82.33.020 and 2012 1st sp.s. c 8 s 3 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Four times each year the supervisor must prepare, subject to the approval of the economic and revenue forecast council under RCW 82.33.010:

- (a) An official state economic and revenue forecast;
- (b) An unofficial state economic and revenue forecast based on optimistic economic and revenue projections; and
- (c) An unofficial state economic and revenue forecast based on pessimistic economic and revenue projections.

(2) The supervisor must submit forecasts prepared under this section, along with any unofficial forecasts provided under RCW 82.33.010, to the governor and the members of the committees on ways and means and the chairs of the committees on transportation of the senate and house of representatives, including one copy to the staff of each of the committees, on or before November 20th, February 20th in the even-numbered years, March 20th in the odd-numbered years, June 27th, and September 27th. In fiscal year 2015, the March 20th forecast shall be submitted on or before February 20, 2015. All forecasts must include both estimated receipts and estimated revenues in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles as provided by RCW 43.88.037. In odd-numbered years, the period covered by forecasts for the state general fund and related funds must cover the current fiscal biennium and the next ensuing fiscal biennium. In even-numbered years, the period covered by the forecasts for the state general fund and related funds shall be current fiscal and the next two ensuing fiscal biennia.

(3) All agencies of state government must provide to the supervisor immediate access to all information relating to economic and revenue forecasts. Revenue collection information must be available to the supervisor the first business day following the conclusion of each collection period.

(4) The economic and revenue forecast supervisor and staff must co-locate and share information, data, and files with the tax research section of the department of revenue but may not duplicate the duties and functions of one another.

(5) As part of its forecasts under subsection (1) of this section, the supervisor must provide estimated revenue from tuition fees as defined in RCW 28B.15.020.

(6) The economic and revenue forecast council must, in consultation with the economic and revenue forecast work group created in RCW 82.33.040, review the existing economic and revenue forecast council revenue model, data, and methodologies and in light of recent economic changes, engage outside experts if necessary, and recommend changes to the economic and revenue forecast council revenue forecasting process to increase confidence and promote accuracy in the revenue forecast. The recommendations are due by September 30, 2012, and every five years thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 13 of this act are each added to 2013 2nd sp.s. c 4 (uncodified).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "matters;" strike the remainder of the title and insert: "amending RCW 82.33.020; adding new sections to 2013 2nd sp.s. c 4 (uncodified); making appropriations; and declaring an emergency."

and the same is herewith transmitted.
