REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "I think it would be appropriate that we recognize these phenomenal singers, the a capella group, and say 'Thank you' for the great job that they did. Most excellent, thank you very much. And just a reminder, members, that was Auburn Mountainview a capella trio and they are guests of Senator Fain's. Thank you, Senator Fain, for bringing them to us."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, we are here to do a lot of important work this session. It's always a privilege to be able to stand up here and preside before all of you. The President would like to welcome you back and welcome all the new members and wish you great luck in your deliberations for the future."

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Miss Macy Allaire, 2012 Lakefair Queen, who was seated at the rostrum.

With the permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Lakefair Queen Macy Allaire to address the Senate and welcome the senators to Olympia.

REMARKS BY MISS MACY ALLAIRE

Miss Macy Allaire: "Thank you for having me. Good afternoon everyone. I hope you're having a good morning so far. As the reigning 2013 Capital Lakefair Queen, it is my pleasure and my privilege to welcome you to an exciting 2013 Senate session in Olympia, Washington. This is a big year for Washington as we recently passed laws that will create large changes for this state as well as welcoming in a new Governor. As a member of the Legislature you carry the weight and the well-being of everyone here in the state; children; businesses; disabled; retirees; workers; owners; consumers; victims; elderly; and the environment. It is your responsibility to regulate, to authorize, to prescribe, to provide, to sanction, to grant, to declare and to restrict certain elements for the well-being of the state as a whole. As you're representing the state here, I'm representing the Tumwater, Olympia, Lacey, Puget Sound area and the community. Capital Lakefair is a one-hundred percent, academic-based, community scholarship pageant. It is my privilege and honor to serve as Capital Lakefair's fifty-fifth Lakefair Queen. My school, Olympia High School, has not produced a Queen for the last eight years so I am proud to represent my school in this program. Capital Lakefair is more than rides and food and vendors. It is a community event in which people of all ages and backgrounds and various service clubs and organizations come together to celebrate our Puget Sound area. Lakefair generates a great amount of money which is then put towards numerous local non-profit organizations such as the Other Bank and the YWCA. Lakefair also puts money towards a royalty scholarship program by selecting a court of six girls from local high schools and later a Lakefair Queen. As a 2012 Lakefair Queen, I'm unconditionally gracious for receiving the highest royalty scholarship of five thousand dollars. Of course, this money isn't just given to us, the Capitalarian's make us work for our earnings. Capital Lakefair has given me opportunities and experiences I would not have had otherwise. The Royalty Court and I have spoken with thirteen local service organizations and had the opportunity to meet many community leaders as well as my privilege of speaking here today. This is not an experience I could of gained from my part-time jobs. It's programs like Capital Lakefair that provide opportunities for all areas of the community to come together and form relationships with one another that hold our region together. Olympia and the Puget Sound area is one of the most beautiful areas in this State of Washington and the Northwest region with its miles of beaches, local shops, extensive hiking and biking trails and friendly people. I hope that you enjoy your time here as much as I know that I do. Here's to a successful community-building 2013 Legislative Session. Thank you."

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Mr. Bob Barnes, Executive Director and Mrs. Serry Barnes, Capital Lakefair Royalty Chair, representatives of Capital Lakefair, the non-profit, volunteer, organization run by Capitalarians and the family of Miss Macy Allaire, 2012 Lakefair Queen: her father, Mr. Chuck Allaire; her mother, Mrs. Jane Allaire; her brother Charlie and sister Sally who were all present in the gallery.

RE: Resignation

Mr. Hoemann, please accept this letter as indication of my resignation to the Washington State Senate, effective the 31st day of May 2012.

It has been with great pleasure and honor that I have been elected to serve the people of the 18th Legislative District in Southwest Washington over the last 17 years. However, given my choice to not seek re-election this fall I think that it would better serve my constituents to have, available to them, a member who has chosen to run and could provide greater continuity of service through the remainder of this year and beyond the fall elections.

Thank you for your service and friendship these last many years.

Sincerely,

JOSEPH P. ZARELLI, State Senator, 18th Legislative District

Re Resignation from the Washington State Senate

Dear Governor Gregoire:

I came to Olympia eight years ago to represent the people of the 26th Legislative District and work on issues of importance to them. Over the last eight years I've been proud to work on efforts to encourage economic development, to ensure our students get an education that will help them succeed, and to support military families and veterans, I am proud of our successes, and confident progress will continue.

Most of all, I am hopeful for my little girls, Sophie and Tess. I want a better future for them – where they can get a world-class education, where they can get a great job, and where they will share in all the opportunity our state and our nation can offer. That hope for them and for all families is what drove me to service in the Legislature. I've been privileged to work with you and the members of the Legislature to make progress on behalf of the children and families of our great state.

I am grateful to the citizens of the 26th district for giving me the opportunity to represent them. And I am grateful to the people of the 6th Congressional District for choosing me to represent them in the next session of the United States Congress. In order to fulfill my duties as a U. S. 7. Any measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment still within a committee's possession before it has been reported out to the full senate may be reconsidered to correct an error, change language, or otherwise accurately reflect the will of the committee in its majority and minority reports to the full senate. Any such reconsideration may be made at any time, by any member of the committee, provided that the committee has not yet reported the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out to the full senate. Any such reconsideration made after a vote has been taken or signatures obtained will require a new vote and signature sheet. Committee bills shall be read the first time by title, ordered printed, and referred to the committee on rules for second reading.

Committee Reference

Rule 61. When a motion is made to refer a subject, and different committees are proposed, the question shall be taken in the following order:

- FIRST: A standing committee.
- SECOND: A select committee.

Reading of Bills

Rule 62. Every bill shall be read on three separate days unless the senate deems it expedient to suspend this rule. On and after the tenth day preceding adjournment sine die of any session, or three days prior to any cut-off date for consideration of bills, as determined pursuant to Article 2, Section 12 of the Constitution or concurrent resolution, or during any special session of the legislature, this rule may be suspended by a majority vote. (See also Rule 59).

First Reading

Rule 63. The first reading of a bill shall be by title only, unless a majority of the members present demand a reading in full.

After the first reading, bills shall be referred to an appropriate committee pursuant to Rule 61.

Upon being reported back by committee, all bills shall be referred to the committee on rules for second reading, unless otherwise ordered by the senate. (See Rule 49.)

A bill shall be reported back by the committee chair upon written petition therefor signed by a majority of its members. The petition shall designate the recommendation as provided in Rule 45, Sub. 5.

No committee chair shall exercise a pocket veto of any bill.

Should there be a two-thirds majority report of the committee membership against the bill, a vote shall be immediately ordered for the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Second Reading/Amendments

Rule 64. Upon second reading, the bill shall be read section by section, in full, and be subject to amendment.

Any member may, if sustained by three members, remove a bill from the consent calendar as constituted by the committee on rules. A bill removed from the consent calendar shall take its place as the last bill in the order of consideration of bills on the second reading calendar.

No amendment shall be considered by the senate until it shall have been sent to the secretary's desk in writing and read by the secretary.

All amendments adopted on the second reading shall then be securely fastened to the original bill.

All amendments rejected by the senate shall be spread upon the journal, and the journal shall show the disposition of all amendments.

When no further amendments shall be offered, the president shall declare the bill has passed its second reading, and shall be referred to the committee on rules for third reading.

Third Reading

Rule 65. Bills on third reading shall be read in full by sections, and no amendment shall be entertained.

When a bill shall pass, it shall be certified to by the secretary, together with the vote upon final passage, noting the day of its passage thereon.

The vote must be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the senators voting for and against the same to be entered upon the journal and the majority of the members elected to the senate must be recorded thereon as voting in its favor to secure its passage by the senate.

Scope and Object of Bill Not to be Changed

Rule 66. No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 38, State Constitution.) Substitute bills shall be considered amendments for the purposes of this rule. A point of order raising the question of scope and object may be raised at any time during consideration of an amendment prior to voting on the amendment. A proposed amendment to an unamended title-only bill shall be within the scope and object of the bill if the subject of the amendment fits within the language in the title.

Matters Related to Disagreement Between the Senate and House

Rule 67. When there is a disagreement between the senate and house on a measure before the senate, the senate may act upon the measure with the following motions which have priority in the following order:

To concur
To non-concur
To recede
To insist
To adhere

These motions are in order as to any single amendment or to a series of amendments. (See Reed's Rules 247 through 254.)

A senate bill, passed by the house with amendment or amendments which shall change the scope and object of the bill, upon being received in the senate, shall be referred to an appropriate committee and shall take the same course as for original bills, unless a motion to ask the house to recede, to insist or to adhere is made prior to the measure being referred to committee.

Bills Committed for Special Amendment

Rule 68. A bill may be committed with or without special instructions to amend at any time before taking the final vote.

Confirmation of Gubernatorial Appointees

Rule 69. When the names of appointees to state offices are transmitted to the secretary of the senate for senate confirmation, the communication from the governor shall be recorded and referred to the appropriate standing committee.

The standing committee, or subcommittee, pursuant to rule 42, shall require each appointee referred to the committee for consideration to complete the standard questionnaire to be used to ascertain the appointee's general background and qualifications. The committee may also require the appointee to complete a supplemental questionnaire related specifically to the qualifications for the position to which he has been appointed.

Any hearing on a gubernatorial appointment, held by the standing committee, or subcommittees, pursuant to rule 42, shall be a public hearing. The appointee may be required to appear before the committee on request. When appearing, the appointee shall be required to testify under oath or affirmation. The chair of the committee or the presiding member shall administer the oath or affirmation in accordance with RCW 44.16. (See also Article 2, Sec. 6 of the State Constitution.)

Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prevent a standing committee, or subcommittee, pursuant to rule 42, upon a two-thirds vote of its members, from holding executive sessions when considering an appointment.

When the committee on rules presents the report of the standing committee before the senate, the question shall be the confirmation of the name proposed, and the roll shall then be called and the yeas and nays entered upon the journal. In the event a message is received from the governor requesting return of an appointment or appointments to the office of the governor prior to confirmation, the senate shall vote upon the governor's request and the appointment or appointments shall be returned to the governor if the request is approved by a majority of the members elected or appointed. (Article 13 of the State Constitution.)

Senator Tom spoke against adoption of the resolution.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8602.

Rule 1. 1. The president shall take the chair and call the senate to order precisely at the hour appointed for meeting, and, if a quorum be present, shall cause the journal of the preceding day to be read. (See also Art. 3, Sec. 16, State Constitution.)

2. The president shall preserve order and decorum, and in case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct within the chamber, legislative area, legislative offices or buildings, and legislative hearing and meeting rooms, shall order the sergeant at arms to suppress the same, and may order the arrest of any person creating any disturbance within the senate chamber. The use of cellular or digital telephones is prohibited within the senate chamber during floor session and within a hearing room during a committee hearing, and this prohibition shall be enforced in the same manner as any other breach of order and decorum.

3. The president shall have charge of and see that all officers and employees perform their respective duties, and shall have general control of the senate chamber and wings. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 10, State Constitution.)

4. The president may speak to points of order in preference to members, arising from the president's seat for that purpose, and shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the senate by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the senate.

5. The president shall, in open session, sign all acts, addresses and joint resolutions. The president shall sign all writs, warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the senate, all of which shall be attested by the secretary. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 32, State Constitution.)

6. The president shall appoint all conference, special, joint and hereinafter named standing committees on the part of the senate. The appointment of the conference, special, joint and standing committees shall be confirmed by the senate. In the event the senate refuses to confirm any conference, special, joint or standing committee or committees, such committee or committees shall be elected by the senate.

7. The president shall, on each day, announce to the senate the business in order, and no business shall be taken up or considered until the order to which it belongs shall be declared.

8. The president shall decide and announce the result of any vote taken.

9. When a vote of the senate is equally divided, the lieutenant governor, when presiding, shall have the deciding vote on questions other than the final passage of a bill. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 10 and 22, State Constitution.)

President Pro Tempore

Rule 2. 1. Upon the organization of the senate the members shall elect one of their number as president pro tempore who shall have all the powers and authority and who shall discharge all the duties of lieutenant governor acting as president during the lieutenant governor's absence. The president pro tempore shall serve as the vice chair of the committee on rules. The senate shall also elect a vice president pro tempore who will serve in the absence of the lieutenant governor and the president pro tempore. (See Art. 2, Sec. 10, State Constitution.)

2. In the absence of the president pro tempore, and vice president pro tempore, or with their consent, the president shall have the right to name any senator to perform the duties of the chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment, nor authorize the senator so substituted to sign any documents requiring the signature of the president.

3. A "majority caucus" is a caucus whose members constitute a majority of the senate and may include members from different political caucuses. The establishment of a majority caucus is evidenced by a majority of the members of the senate demonstrating the intent to caucus together and to lead the senate. Those members not part of the majority caucus constitute the minority caucus or caucuses.

Secretary of the Senate

Rule 3. 1. The senate shall elect a secretary, who shall appoint a deputy secretary, both of whom shall be officers of the senate and shall perform the usual duties pertaining to their offices, and they shall hold office until their successors have been elected or appointed.

No member shall be held to answer for any language used upon the floor of the senate if business has intervened before exception to the language was thus taken and noted.

3. If any senator in speaking, or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the senate, the president shall, or any senator may, call that senator to order, and a senator so called to order shall resume the senator's seat and not proceed without leave of the senate, which leave, if granted, shall be upon motion "that the senator be allowed to proceed in order," when, if carried, the senator shall speak to the question under consideration.

This restriction shall not prohibit a registered lobbyist from making written recommendations for staff positions.

Security Management

Rule 14. The sergeant at arms may develop methods to protect the senate, including its members, staff, and the visiting public, by establishing procedures to curtail the use or possession of any weapon in a manner that is prohibited by law or by the rules of the Department of General Administration.

Announcement of Vote

Rule 23. The announcement of all votes shall be made by the president.

Call of the Senate

Rule 24. Although a roll call is in progress, a call of the senate may be moved by three senators, and if carried by a majority of all present the secretary shall call the roll, after which the names of the absentees shall again be called. Rule 27. When the reading of any paper is called for, and is objected to by any senator, it shall be determined by a vote of the senate, without debate.

Any and all copies of reproductions of newspaper or magazine editorials, articles or cartoons or publications or material of any nature distributed to senators' desks must bear the name of at least one senator granting permission for the distribution. This shall not apply to materials normally distributed by the secretary of the senate or the majority or minority caucuses.

Comparing Enrolled and Engrossed Bills

Rule 28. Any senator shall have the right to compare an enrolled bill with the engrossed bill and may note any objections in the Journal.

SECTION IV PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE Rules of Debate

Rule 29. When any senator is about to speak in debate, or submit any matter to the senate, the senator shall rise, and standing in place, respectfully address the President, and when recognized shall, in a courteous manner, speak to the question under debate, avoiding personalities; provided that a senator may refer to another member using the title "Senator" and the surname of the other member. No senator shall impeach the motives of any other member or speak more than twice (except for explanation) during the consideration of any one question, on the same day or a second time without leave, when others who have not spoken desire the floor, but incidental and subsidiary questions arising during the debate shall not be considered the same question. A majority of the members present may further limit the number of times a member may speak on any question and may limit the length of time a member may speak but, unless a demand for the previous question has been sustained, a member shall not be denied the right to speak at least once on each question, nor shall a member be limited to less than three minutes on each question. In any event, the senator who presents the motion may open and close debate on the question.

Recognition by the President

Rule 30. When two or more senators rise at the same time to address the chair, the president shall name the one who shall speak first, giving preference, when practicable, to the mover or introducer of the subject under consideration.

Call for Division of a Question

Rule 31. Any senator may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided if it embraces subjects so distinct that one being taken away a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the senate; but a motion to strike out and insert shall not be divided.

Point of Order - Decision Appealable

together with the title and number of each bill, or identification of the subject matter, to be considered at such hearing. By a majority vote of the committee members present at any committee meeting such notice may be dispensed with. The reason for such action shall be set forth in a written statement preserved in the records of the meeting.

2. No committee may hold a public hearing during a regular or extraordinary session on a proposal identified as a draft unless the draft has been made available to the public at least twenty-four hours prior to the hearing. This rule does not apply during the five days prior to any cutoff established by concurrent resolution nor does it apply to any measure exempted from the resolution.

3. During its consideration of or vote on any bill, resolution or memorial, the deliberations of any committee or subcommittee of the senate shall be open to the public. 4. No committee shall amend a measure, adopt a substitute bill, or vote upon any measure or appointment absent a quorum. A committee may conduct a hearing absent a quorum. A majority of any committee shall constitute a quorum and committees shall be considered to have a quorum present unless the question is raised. Any question as to quorum not raised at the time of the committee action is deemed waived.

5. Bills reported to the senate from a standing committee must have a majority report, which shall be prepared upon a printed standing committee report form; shall be adopted at a regularly or specially called meeting during a legislative session and shall be signed by a majority of the committee; and shall carry only one of the following recommendations:

- a. Do pass;
- b. Do pass as amended;

7. Any measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment still within a committee's possession before it has been reported out to the full senate may be reconsidered to correct an error, change language, or otherwise accurately reflect the will of the committee in its majority and minority reports to the full senate. Any such reconsideration may be made at any time, by any member of the committee, provided that the committee has not yet reported the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out to the full senate. Any such reconsideration made after a vote has been taken or signatures obtained will require a new vote and signature sheet. Any measure which does not receive a majority vote of the members present may be reconsidered at that meeting and may again be considered upon motion of any committee member if one day's notice of said motion is provided to all committee members. For purposes of this rule, a committee is deemed to have reported a measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment out when it has delivered its majority and minority reports to the senate workroom. After such delivery, the committee no longer has possession of the measure, appointment, substitute bill, or amendment and no further committee action, including reconsideration, may be taken.

8. Any member of the committee not concurring in the majority report may sign a minority report containing a recommendation of "do not pass" or "without recommendation," which shall be signed by those members of the committee subscribing thereto, and submitted with the majority report. Unless the signatory of a minority report expressly indicates a "do not pass" recommendation, the member's vote shall be deemed to be "without recommendation." In every case where a majority report form is circulated for signature, a minority report form shall also be circulated.

9. When a committee reports a substitute for an original bill with the recommendation that the substitute bill do pass, it shall be in order to read the substitute bill the first time and have the same ordered printed.

11. All reports of standing committees must be on the secretary's desk one hour prior to convening of the session in order to be read at said session. During any special session of the legislature, this rule may be suspended by a majority vote.

Rule 48. Any standing committee of the senate may be relieved of further consideration of any bill, regardless of prior action of the committee, by a majority vote of the senators elected or appointed. The senate may then make such orderly disposition of the bill as they may direct by a majority vote of the members of the senate.

Such referral shall be reported out to the senate on the next day's business.

The senate may change the order of consideration of bills on the second or third reading calendar.

Over the last twenty plus years I've found someone who toured gold mines in Northeast Washington with us, The wheat industry and other agricultural industries of Eastern Washington. Someone who's worked on our state's energy policy from the local PUD level to regional power issues that impact every citizen and every job in the state of Washington. We've watched him as a leader in local government. We've watched him as a leader in the timber industry and jobs in general. Senator Sheldon brings this twenty plus years of experience to the senate and will make an excellent President Pro Tempore for this body. I urge your support."

Now I’ve been in the Senate, legislature for eighteen years. Calling this, I don’t know what to say. My heart is filled with emotion, with gratitude and all I can say is thank you America and thank you. My father, Dr. Ray Paull, Amy dentist who, when I was crying in the mountains alone, hugged me and adopted me. Brought me to this country for education that I received and services I performed and all of you, the love and friendship I share with you. I will do best I can as you call me to do so and then but all I can say is that, thank you. Thank you very much.”

The committee of honor escorted Senator Shin to his seat on the floor of the Senate.

ELECTION OF SECRETARY OF SENATE

The President declared nominations to be open for the office of Secretary of the Senate.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BENTON

Senator Benton: “Thank you Mr. President. I stand before my colleagues today to nominate for this position an extremely qualified candidate. Hunter Goodman is an accomplished attorney. He’s worked in government at the local level and he’s worked in government at the state level. Many of you know him as the Deputy or Assistant Attorney General but more importantly, and I think this is important for all the citizens of the state of Washington, Hunter also has private business background as the principal of an international freight forwarding company. He brings tremendous private business enterprise skills. Those coupled with his long service in government in terms of administration, brings to us I think one of the most qualified individuals we could find in terms of administrative skills to fulfill our goal of operating and running an efficient and effective Senate that adjourns on time. I’m happy to bring his nomination to you and I ask for your support for Hunter Goodman as the new Secretary of the Senate. Thank you Mr. President.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHELDON

Senator Sheldon: “Thank you Mr. President. I rise to second the nomination of Hunter Goodman for office of the Secretary of the Senate. We’re very familiar with Hunter. He’s worked in the legislature, around the legislature for a while certainly and around the capital and most certainly as Attorney General Rob McKenna’s legislative liaison and Deputy Chief of staff. We’ve gotten to know Hunter. He’s done a really a great job. He has wonderful leadership skills and management skills and good relationships on both sides of the aisle and he’ll do a wonderful job for us. Of course, we always say great things about people when they’re nominated like this but I have to note though, maybe you don’t know that Hunter was a running back for the University of Southern California Trojans and I had to wonder a little bit about that for a little while but then I got for Christmas a Husky highlight reel which I played over and over and I think I still feel comfortable so I urge you to vote for Mr. Hunter Goodman.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fain, the nominations for the office of Secretary of the Senate were closed.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 14, 2013

The committee of honor escorted Hunter Goodman to his seat on the rostrum.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fraser: “Mr. President, last Friday a man walked quietly out the door of the legislative building to begin a well-earned retirement. A man who spent a thirty year career here with the state senate and most recently served as Secretary of the Senate during the last eight years. He played an exceptionally critical role in the senate as our new Secretary of the Senate will. For those of you who are unfamiliar with his role, there’s a reason why we elect such a person and there’s a reason why they take an oath of office. This is a critical role as chief of administrative officer for the senate. A person responsible to make sure all the senate functions well and enables each Senator to live up to their oath of office to serve the citizens of the state. Tom Hoemann served with dedication, with intelligence, with an exceptional knowledge of the institution, with integrity, with a wonderful low-key administrative style that enabled him to work with everybody and deal with the myriad of unexpected circumstances that always come up in a legislative body. So I would like to clearly note that he served with distinction, with integrity, always lived up to the premise that the Secretary of the Senate serves the entire senate and I hope others join with me, I know many, everybody does, to wish him a very pleasant and wonderful retirement. Thank you.”

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: “Before the President recognizes, let me take care of one thing so that the Justice can go back to work in the Temple of Justice. Thank you very much for your patience and your job for us today.”

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President of the Senate appointed a committee of honor consisting of Senators Padden and Harper to escort Associate Chief Justice Charles Johnson from the Senate Chamber.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Parlette: “Thank you Mr. President. I also would like to speak some good words about Tom Hoemann. He’s been very helpful. As Ranking on the F&O Committee, he was always available for both the chair and also for me and I really appreciate it. The most painful thing I had to do was call him over a weekend and say ‘I’m sorry Tom, but I’m moving in your office and you have until Monday morning to get out;’ That was awful. Anyway, we will miss him, I know he has plans for retirement and he certainly has served us well. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Eide: “Well, I, too, would like to thank Tom Hoemann. I have been in leadership for sixteen years and for the last seven being the floor leader and this man that sat up at that rostrum was my life line. He was there at a moment’s notice helping me look good on this floor. Number one, Tom Hoemann is way too young to retire because I think he’s only a year or two older than I am. I just wanted to take this time for all of us, he’s been here a very long time. Thirty years is a long time for someone to be in this institution. He will be sorely missed. And Tom I’m still going to call you.”

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SENATE BILL NO. 6159

March 30, 2012

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 2, Senate Bill 6159 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to a business and occupation tax deduction for amounts received with respect to dispute resolution services."

Senate Bill 6159 allows dispute resolution centers to deduct amounts they receive as contributions from federal, state, and local government or nonprofit organizations from the measure of the business and occupation tax. Nonprofit organizations may also deduct from the measure of tax amounts received from federal, state, or local governments for distribution to a qualified dispute resolution center.

Section 2 would apply this deduction from the measure of the tax both prospectively and retroactively. The retroactive application of the bill would reward delinquent taxpayers, while those who paid on time would not receive a refund under the prohibition on the gift of state funds in Article VIII, Section 5 of the Washington Constitution, as interpreted by the Washington Supreme Court.

For this reason, I have vetoed Section 2 of Senate Bill 6159.

With the exception of Section 2, Senate Bill 6159 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Christine Gregoire, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE
BILL NO. 5978

March 30, 2012

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 218, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5978 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to medicaid fraud."

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5978 creates a new State Medicaid Fraud False Claims Act. The federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 provides that the federal government will give to the state ten percent of any funds recovered as part of Medicaid enforcement actions brought under a state law comparable to the federal False Claims Act.

The emergency clause in Section 218 providing for Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5978 to take effect immediately is not necessary. The bill will be effective ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted, which will be June 7, 2012. There is no need to provide an earlier effective date. The Legislature has not yet provided funding to implement the provisions of this bill; the Health Care Authority and the Attorney General's Office will need time to prepare for implementation; and the State can request federal approval under

PARTIAL VETO ON SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL
NO. 6263

March 30, 2012

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 5 and 6, Second Substitute Senate Bill 6263 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to facilitating marine management planning."

Sections 5 and 6 of the bill would establish the membership and duties of a new Washington State Coastal Solutions Council. Among other duties, this Council would provide a forum to seek consistency in state, local, and tribal policies concerning coastal waters issues; engage other governments on behalf of the state; and provide policy recommendations to the governor, the Legislature, and state and local agencies on specific coastal waters resource management issues.

It is unclear how the Council would exercise these substantial duties in relation to the agencies with jurisdiction, which could participate only as nonvoting members. While the Council would be located within the Governor's Office, the Council would determine its own membership and be an autonomous body. As we look to regain our strength in the post-recession economy, now is not the time to be creating new state commissions. I remain committed to an efficient, lean government that will better serve the citizens of this state.

I fully agree with the legislative intent to directly engage our coastal communities and give them a stronger voice in shaping their future. To that purpose, I will assign a representative from my office to actively participate in the existing Coastal Advisory Board convened by the Department of Ecology.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Sections 5 and 6 of Second Substitute Senate Bill 6263.

With the exception of Sections 5 and 6, Second Substitute Senate Bill 6263 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Christine Gregoire, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE
BILL NO. 6486

March 30, 2012

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 2, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 6486 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to collective bargaining for postdoctoral researchers at certain state universities."

Section 2 provides this act is null and void if specific funding is not provided in the omnibus appropriations act. A veto of this section is necessary to ensure collective bargaining rights for postdoctoral and clinical employees at the University of Washington and Washington State University. Further, if specific funding is not provided in the omnibus appropriations act, the administrative costs associated with the collective bargaining can be paid within existing funds or allocated to the funds that support the employees, many of which are not within the State General Fund.

For this reason, I have vetoed Section 2 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 6486.

With the exception of Section 2, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 6486 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Christine Gregoire, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SUBSTITUTE SEATE BILL NO. 6508

March 30, 2012

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Section 3, Substitute Senate Bill 6508 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to department of social and health services waivers of overpayment recoveries."

Section 3 requires the Office of Fraud and Accountability within the Department of Social and Health Services to collaborate with the Auditor's Office and the Department of Early Learning to identify, review, and provide the Legislature with recommendations for integrated monitoring and detection systems to prevent overpayments of public assistance. The Office of Fraud and Accountability was created for the specific purpose of focusing on the prevention and investigation of abuse and fraud in the use of public assistance benefits. To avoid diluting this focus, the Secretary of the Department of Social and Health Services should determine what resources of the Department are best used in advancing measures to prevent non-fraudulent overpayments of public assistance.

For this reason, I have vetoed Section 3 of Substitute Senate Bill 6508.

With the exception of Section 3, Substitute Senate Bill 6508 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Christine Gregoire, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 6074

April 23, 2012

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning, without my approval as to Sections 1020, 3017, 6001(5)(b), and 6002, Engrossed Senate Bill 6074 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to funding capital project."

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 14, 2013

2013 REGULAR SESSION

Section 1020, pages 16-18, Office of Financial Management,

Loan Program Consolidation Board

This proviso creates a loan program consolidation board to recommend a plan to consolidate under a single financing authority all existing state lending programs, including infrastructure and student loan programs. There have been five prior studies reviewing consolidation of infrastructure programs within the last six years. The most recent study was completed by the Public Works Board following the 2011 legislative session and provides ample information for a potential consolidation. Additionally, I do not believe it is appropriate for student loan programs to be comingled with infrastructure programs targeted to local governments and community groups. The Student Achievement Council is tasked to convene a work group on the higher education loan program and can better focus on reforming that program to meet the needs of today's students. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 1020.

Section 3017, page 36, and Section 6001(5)(b), page 55, State Parks and Recreation Commission, Lake Sammamish Concession and Event Facility

The State Parks and Recreation Commission is provided $1 million in general obligation bonds and authorization to enter into a certificate of participation financing contract for $2.1 million to build a concession and event facility at Lake Sammamish. It is not anticipated that the revenue initially generated by the event center will be adequate to cover the associated debt and operating costs. Additionally, other revenue generated by the State Parks and Recreation Commission is not stable enough to cover these costs if facility revenues are inadequate. For these reasons, I have vetoed Section 3017 and Section 6001 (5)(b), but I encourage the commission to resubmit this project for consideration for the next supplemental capital budget if the revenue outlook improves.

Section 6002, pages 55-56, Department of Commerce

The Department of Commerce is directed to work with stakeholders to develop recommendations for a complete grant program to assist zoos, aquariums and technology and science centers in acquiring, constructing or rehabilitating their facilities. A funding mechanism for these organizations was the subject of legislation that failed to pass this session.

For this reason, I have vetoed Section 6002, but I encourage the organizations to continue to work with legislators, rather than the department, to address their concerns with developing a capital funding program for their facility needs.

Although I am approving the remainder of the capital budget, I am concerned about the long-term implications of over-appropriating the State and Local Toxics Control Accounts, the Aquatic Lands Enhancement Account, and other natural resource accounts in both the capital and operating budgets. I have directed the Office of Financial Management to work with the Department of Ecology and the Recreation and Conservation Office to develop a plan to manage these accounts to prevent a cash deficit. However, there is a risk that lower revenue collections or accelerated project costs could create the need to suspend project to balance the accounts. While I value the economic activity and jobs that are created in the capital budget, I ask the Legislature to return to budgeting practices that result in sustainable capital plans with positive fund balances.

With the exception of Sections 1020, 3017, 6001(5)(b), and 6002, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 6074 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Christine Gregoire, Governor

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
PARTIAL VETO ON SECOND ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE
SENATE BILL NO. 6406

May 2, 2012

To the Honorable President and Members,
The Senate of the State of Washington

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am returning herewith, without my approval as to Sections 305 and 306 Second Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 6406 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to modifying programs that provide for protection of the state's natural resources.”

This bill streamlines regulatory programs for managing and protecting the state's natural environment while increasing the sustainability of program funding and maintaining current levels of natural resource protection.

Section 301 of the bill requires the Department of Ecology to prepare rules to update the categorical exemptions for environmental review under the State Environmental Policy Act (SEPA), revise the SEPA environmental checklist, and improve integration of SEPA with the provisions of the Growth Management Act. In updating the checklist, Section 301(2)(c) of the bill directs the Department of Ecology to “not include any new subjects into the scope of the checklist, including climate change and greenhouse gases.”

I have been assured that the intent of this language is confined to its plain meaning: This subsection addresses only how the Department of Ecology may modify the environmental checklist in its update of WAC 197-11-960. This language does not impact in any way the scope of the environmental analysis required at the threshold determination stage of the SEPA process or the scope of the environmental analysis required in an environmental impact statement. Letters I have received from legislators involved in the drafting of this language confirm that the Legislature's intent was to address only the scope of the environmental checklist and not to amend any substantive SEPA requirements.

This understanding and interpretation of the bill are set forth in letters to me from legislators directly involved in passage of the legislation, including an April 23, 2012, letter from Senator Sharon Nelson and Representative Dave Upthegrove, respective chairs of the Senate and House Environment Committees; an April 26, 2012, letter from Representatives Richard DeBolt, Joel Kretz, Bruce Chandler, Shelly Short, David Taylor, J. T. Wilcox, and Ed Orcutt; and an April 27, 2012, letter from Senators Jim Honeyford and Mark Schoesler.

This is also the understanding and interpretation set forth in an April 19, 2012, letter to me from Representative Joe Fitzgibbon, the prime sponsor of House Bill No. 2253, where this language first appeared. I have also received letters from stakeholders who participated in legislative proceedings related to this provision. These stakeholders include the Association of Washington Cities, Washington State Association of Counties, Futurewise, Association of Washington Business, and the Washington

Chapter of the American Planning Association. These letters affirm that the intent of Section 301 was to eliminate existing duplication between state natural resource programs, and not to amend any substantive SEPA requirements. An April 20, 2012, joint letter from representatives of four environmental organizations notes that ESSB 6406 was the product of “a long and ultimately constructive negotiation amongst a diverse set of stakeholders,” including their organizations” People for Puget Sound, Washington Conservation Voters, the Washington Environmental Council, and Climate Solutions. This letter quotes the language of Section 301(2)(c)(ii) and states: “Throughout the bill negotiations, there was agreement amongst all parties that the intent of this subsection was to ensure simply that no new line items were added to the SEPA checklist in the process of the checklist update directed by section 301.” However, the letter indicates that after the passage of this bill by the Senate and House, advisers to these organizations raised concerns that the language could be read to make broader changes in SEPA law.

After careful review, I have concluded that these assurances that the Legislature did not intend to limit the scope of SEPA review of adverse effects of climate change and greenhouse gases are fully supported. Section 1 of the bill expresses the Legislature’s intent to maintain current levels of natural resource protection. Additionally, Section 301(2)(c) specifically references the environmental checklist found in WAC 197-11-960. The Legislature did not reference other steps in the SEPA process such as the threshold determination addressed in different sections of chapter 197-11 WAC. Nothing in the letters I have received or in the legislative discussion of this provision negates this understanding.

My action in approving Section 301 is taken with the intent that it will operate only to prohibit inclusion of any new subjects in the scope of the checklist, and that the subjects of climate change and greenhouse gases will be considered in the environmental analysis required at the threshold determination stage of the SEPA process and in the environmental analysis required in a SEPA environmental impact statement. After consulting legal advisers, it is my understanding that this is the proper reading of this section of the bill and that this understanding will be considered by the courts when ascertaining legislative intent, as outline in Lynch v. State, 19 Wn.2d 802 (1944). Without this understanding, I would have vetoed Section 301.

Concern has also been raised that there is a need for a meaningful civil enforcement capacity to support the state’s Hydraulic Project Approval (HPA) program. I share this concern and have asked the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife to clarify the current enforcement mechanisms through rule revision within the ongoing HPA rule update, and to implement an effectiveness survey to measure results.

I am also asking the Department to deliver the survey results to the Office of Financial Management, the Governor’s Office, and the Legislature, with the intent to inform actions needed to create a more effective civil enforcement HPA program.

Amendments to the bill in the final day of the 2012 1st Special Session removed the explicit authority for local governments to collect a fee to recover their costs for a SEPA environmental impact statement prepared in support of certain land use plans. However, remnants of the original fee proposal that are no longer meaningful were left in the bill. Section 305 allows local governments to recover the costs of a SEPA environmental impact statement for certain land use plans from either state funds or private donations. Local governments are already authorized to accept funding from these sources. Section 306 refers to fees that are no longer authorized in Section 305. These two sections of the bill have the potential to create confusion with the existing authorities of local governments.

For these reasons, I have vetoed Sections 305 and 306 of Second Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6406.

With the exception of Sections 305 and 306 of Second Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 6406 is approved.

Respectfully submitted,
Christine Gregoire, Governor

MOTION

Senator Fain moved the vetoes and partial vetoes be held at the desk.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fraser: “Thank you Mr. President. As we look around and visit the floor and all the offices, everything looks in place and orderly and tidy but the reason this is the case is because we had a small army of people during the last week helping with a lot of moves, there were many offices that moved, we switched sides on the floor, we switched caucus rooms. There were a lot of moves last week and it couldn’t of happened without the exceptional dedicated, hard work and very fast work of many people, I can’t name names but I’d at least like to identify there you might say their employment affiliation. Senate administrative office, Secretary of the Senates office, legislative support services, the administration section, the supply and operations sections, the technology section, our legislative service center, the computer support telecommunications support, information technology support, member offices, very many of them were involved, caucus staff and also would like to recognize the hard and dedicated work of state department of Enterprise Services, administrative staff managers, supervisors who played a key role in the very successful move. So, I would like to compliment everybody involved and thank everybody involved including members of the staff of offices that moved. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Parlette: “I would like to echo the good words of the Senator from the Twenty-Second District and say that in my own experience I could not believe it. If you had one of those huge recycle bins and you put it right outside your office, it was gone in a minute and brought back empty for you to do another one. So, everybody really did a great job and we should be thankful. Thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Tom: “thank you Mr. President. I am excited about the great opportunity that we have in front of us this session. It’s evident that there’s going to be issues that we disagree on but I think more importantly it’s the tone that we have set today, a tone of cooperation, a tone of collaboration. I want to thank Senator Murray and your caucus for the professionalism and the dignity that you’ve held this institution today in the manner we have gone about in this debate. You know, we have a lot of pressing issues in front of us if you look at as far as the joblessness, the education systems, the budget sustainability’s. It’s going to take all of us to move forward in a direction that our citizens expect us to go. It's going to take all of us working side by side so that government functions for everyone. Albert Einstein was once asked 'What is the most pressing question facing mankind today' and his answer was kind of interesting, you would think Einstein one of the greatest minds of the twentieth century could of come up with a lot of different things but here was his answer, 'Is the universe a friendly place?' is the universe a friendly place, it is that tone that I hope that we can have in mind as we go forward this session, as we work on each other's bills, as we work on those difficult issues. Can we make sure that this Senate is a friendly place because if we can we can do great things, we can do great things together and we can do great things for the people of this state. Thank you Mr. President."
