ELECTED OFFICIALS

BOOTH GARDNER Governor

Booth Gardner is the 19th Governor of the state of Washington and was elected in 1988 to serve a second term. Born in Tacoma on August 21, 1936, Governor Gardner has lived in the Pierce County area all his life.

Governor Gardner graduated from the University of Washington with a B.A. in Business in 1958, and went on to receive a Master's Degree in Business from Harvard University in 1963.

From 1967-72, Governor Gardner was Director of the School of Business and Economics at the University of Puget Sound and, during this time, was elected as a Washington State Senator representing the 26th district. During his tenure as Senator, he was Chair of the Education, Manufacturing and Development, and Commerce and Regulatory Agencies Committees.

In 1972, Governor Gardner left Olympia to take over his family business as President of Laird Norton Co., a national building materials and supply firm.

In 1980, Pierce County adopted the County Council form of government and in 1981 elected Governor Gardner as the first County Executive. He was credited with turning a $4.7 million county deficit into a $4 million surplus by the end of his term.

In addition to his elected and private sector positions, Governor Gardner co-founded the Central Area Youth Association of Seattle, which still provides athletic, social adjustment and educational activities for minority and economically disadvantaged youths. He has also been a trustee or board member with the Central City Learning Center of Tacoma; the Washington Commission for the Humanities; the Seattle Mental Health Institute; the Private Industries Council and the University of Puget Sound Board of Trustees.

Governor Gardner is also involved in youth sports' activities and coached his girls' soccer team—the Cozars—to the national championship game three times in a row.

Governor Gardner and his wife, Jean, have two children, Doug and Gail.
